(a) The commission may issue temporary orders relating to the discharge of waste without notice and hearing, or with such notice and hearing as the commission considers practicable under the circumstances, when this is necessary to enable action to be taken more expeditiously than is otherwise provided by this chapter to effectuate the policy and purposes of this chapter.

(b) If the commission issues a temporary order under this authority without a hearing, the order shall fix a time and place for a hearing to be held before the commission, which shall be held as soon after the temporary order is issued as is practicable.

(c) At the hearing, the commission shall affirm, modify, or set aside the temporary order. If the nature of the commission's action requires, further proceedings shall be conducted as appropriate under provisions of the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(d) The requirements of Section 26.022 of this code relating to the time for notice, newspaper notice, and method of giving a person notice do not apply to such a hearing; but such general notice of the hearing shall be given as the commission considers practicable under the circumstances.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 26-0191 and 26.176 of this code, the provisions of this section apply to all hearings conducted in compliance with this chapter.

(b) Notice of the hearing shall be published at least once in a newspaper regularly published or circulated in each county where, by virtue of the county's geographical relation to the subject matter of the hearing, the commission has reason to believe persons reside who may be affected by the action that may be taken as a result of the hearing. The date of the publication shall be not less than 20 days before the date set for the hearing.

(c) If notice of the hearing is required by this chapter to be given to a person, the notice shall be served personally or mailed not less than 20 days before the date set for the hearing to the person at his last address known to the commission. If the party is not an individual, the notice may be given to any officer, agent, or legal representative of the party.

(d) The individual or individuals holding the hearing, called the hearing body, shall conduct the hearing at the time and place stated in the notice. The hearing body may continue the hearing from time to time and from place to place without the necessity of publishing, serving, mailing, or otherwise issuing a new notice.

(e) If a hearing is continued and a time and place for the hearing to reconvene are not publicly announced by the person conducting the hearing at the hearing before it is recessed, a notice of any further setting of the hearing shall be served personally or mailed in the manner prescribed in Subsection (c) of this section at a reasonable time before the new setting, but it is not necessary to publish a newspaper notice of the new setting. [Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 2207, ch. 870, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1977.]

§ 26.023.  Water Quality Standards

The board by rule shall set water quality standards for the water in the state and may amend the standards from time to time. The board has the sole and exclusive authority to set water quality standards for all water in the state. [Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 2207, ch. 870, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1977.]

§ 26.024.  Hearings on Standards; Consultation

Before setting or amending water quality standards, the board shall:

(1) hold public hearings at which any person may appear and present evidence under oath, pertinent for consideration by the board; and

(2) consult with the executive director to ensure that the proposed standards are not inconsistent with the objectives of the state water plan. [Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 2207, ch. 870, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1977.]

§ 26.025.  Hearings on Standards: Notice to Whom

Notice of a hearing under Section 26.024 of this code shall be given to each of the following that the board believes may be affected:

(1) each local government whose boundary is contiguous to the water in question or whose boundaries contain all or part of the water, or through whose boundaries the water flows;

(2) the holders of rights to appropriate water from the water in question as shown by the records of the department; and

(3) the holders of permits from the commission to discharge waste into or adjacent to the water in question. [Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 2207, ch. 870, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1977.]

§ 26.026.  Standards to be Published

The department shall publish its water quality standards and amendments and shall make copies available to the public on written request. [Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 2207, ch. 870, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1977.]

§ 26.027.  Commission May Issue Permits

(a) The commission may issue permits and amendments to permits for the discharge of waste or pollutants into or adjacent to water in the state. No permit shall be issued authorizing the discharge of any radiological, chemical, or biological warfare agent or high-level radioactive waste. The commission may refuse to issue a permit when the commission finds that issuance of the permit would violate the provisions of any state or federal law or rule or regulation promulgated thereunder, or when the commission finds that issuance of the permit would interfere with the purpose of this chapter.

(b) A person desiring to obtain a permit or to amend a permit shall submit an application to the department containing all information reasonably required by the department.

(c) A person may not commence construction of a treatment facility until the commission has issued a permit to authorize the discharge of waste from the facility, except with the approval of the commission.

(d) The commission may not require under this chapter any permit for the placing of dredged or fill materials into or adjacent to water in the state for the purpose of constructing, modifying, or maintaining facilities or structures, but this does not change or limit any authority the commission may have with respect to the control of water quality. The commission may adopt rules and regulations to govern and control the discharge of dredged or fill materials consistent with the purpose of this chapter.

§ 26.028. Action on Application

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (b) of this section, a public hearing shall be held on an application for a permit or to amend a permit. Notice of the hearing shall be given to the persons who in the judgment of the commission may be affected.

(b) An application to amend a permit to improve the quality of waste authorized to be discharged may be set for consideration and may be acted on by the commission at a regular meeting without the necessity of holding a public hearing if the applicant does not seek to increase significantly the quantity of waste authorized to be discharged or change materially the pattern or place of discharge. Notice of the application shall be mailed to the mayor and health authorities for the city or town, and the county judge and health authorities for the county, in which the waste is or will be discharged, at least 10 days before the commission meeting, and they may present information to the commission on the application.

§ 26.029. Conditions of Permit; Amendment; Revocation and Suspension

(a) In each permit, the commission shall prescribe the conditions on which it is issued, including:

(1) the duration of the permit;
(2) the location of the point of discharge of the waste;
(3) the maximum quantity of waste that may be discharged under the permit at any time and from time to time;
(4) the character and quality of waste that may be discharged under the permit; and
(5) any monitoring and reporting requirements prescribed by the commission for the permittee.

(b) After a public hearing, notice of which shall be given to the permittee, the commission may require the permittee, from time to time, for good cause, in conformance with applicable laws, to conform to new or additional conditions.

(c) A permit does not become a vested right in the permittee. After a public hearing in conformance with applicable laws, notice of which shall be given to the permittee, the commission may revoke or suspend a permit for good cause on any of the following grounds:

(1) the permittee has failed or is failing to comply with the conditions of the permit;
(2) the permit is subject to cancellation or suspension under Section 26.084 of this code;
(3) the permit or operations under the permit have been abandoned;
(4) the permit is no longer needed by the permittee;
(5) the commission finds that a change in conditions requires elimination of the discharge;
(6) revocation or suspension is necessary in order to maintain the quality of water in the state consistent with the objectives of this chapter; or
(7) the permit was obtained by misrepresentation or failure to disclose fully all relevant facts.

(d) The notice required by Subsections (b) and (c) of this section shall be sent to the permittee at his last known address as shown by the records of the department.

§ 26.030. Permit: Effect on Recreational Water

In considering the issuance of a permit to discharge effluent into any body of water having an established recreational standard, the commission shall consider any unpleasant odor quality of the effluent and the possible adverse effect that it might have on the receiving body of water, and the commission may consider the odor as one of the elements of the water quality of the effluent.

§ 26.031. Private Sewage Facilities

(a) As used in this section and Section 26.082 of this code, "private sewage facilities" means septic tanks, pit privies, cesspools, sewage holding tanks, injection wells used to dispose of sewage, chemical toilets, treatment tanks, and all other facilities, systems, and methods used for the disposal of sewage other than disposal systems operated under a permit issued by the commission.
§ 26.031  WATER CODE

(b) Whenever it appears that the use of private sewage facilities in an area is causing or may cause pollution or is injuring or may injure the public health, the commission may hold a public hearing in or near the area to determine whether an order should be entered controlling or prohibiting the installation or use of private sewage facilities in the area.

(c) Before the commission enters its order, the executive director shall consult with the Director of Health Resources for recommendations concerning the impact of the use of private sewage facilities in the area on public health and present the recommendations at the hearing.

(d) If the commission finds after the hearing that the use of private sewage facilities in an area is causing or may cause pollution or is injuring or may injure the public health, the commission may enter an order as it may consider appropriate to abate or prevent pollution or injury to public health.

(e) The order may, without limitation, do one or more of the following:

(1) limit the number and kind of private sewage facilities which may be used in the area;
(2) prohibit the installation and use of additional private sewage facilities or kinds of private sewage facilities in the area;
(3) require modifications or improvements to existing private sewage facilities or impose limitations on their use; and
(4) provide for a gradual and systematic reduction of the number or kinds of private sewage facilities in the area.

(f) The commission may provide in the order for a system of licensing of private sewage facilities in the area, including procedures for cancellation of a license for violation of this section, the license, or the orders or rules of the department. The commission may also provide in the system of licensing for periodic renewal of the licenses, but this may not be required more frequently than once a year.

(g) The commission may delegate the licensing function and the administration of the licensing system to the executive director or to any local government whose boundaries include the area or which has been designated by the commission under Sections 26.081 through 26.086 of this code as the agency to develop a regional waste disposal system which includes the area or to any district or authority created and existing under Article XVI, Section 59 or Article III, Section 52 of the Texas Constitution, which owns or operates a dam or reservoir project within the area regulated.

(h) The board also may prescribe and require the payment of reasonable license fees by an applicant for a license, including fees for periodic renewal of a license. The board may change the amount of the license fees from time to time. The amount of the fees shall be based on the reasonable cost of performing the licensing function and administering the licensing system, including, where applicable, costs of soil percolation and other tests to determine the suitability of using a particular type or types of private sewage facilities in the area or at any location within the area, field inspections, travel, and other costs directly attributable to performing the licensing function and administering the licensing system.

(i) If the commission or the executive director has the responsibility for performing the licensing function, the license fees shall be paid to the department. Those fees shall not be deposited in the General Revenue Fund of the state but shall be deposited in a special fund for use by the department in performing the licensing function and administering the licensing system, and the fees so deposited are hereby appropriated to the department to use for those purposes only.

(j) If a local government has the responsibility for performing the licensing function, the fees shall be paid to the local government.

§ 26.032  Control by Counties

(a) Whenever it appears to the commissioners court of any county that the use of private sewage facilities in an area within the county is causing or may cause pollution or is injuring or may injure the public health, the county may proceed in the same manner and in accordance with the same procedures as the commission to hold a public hearing and enter an order, resolution, or other rule as it may consider appropriate to abate or prevent pollution or injury to public health.

(b) The order, resolution, or other rule may provide the same restrictions and requirements as are authorized for an order of the commission entered under this section.

(c) Before the order, resolution, or other rule becomes effective, the county shall submit it to the commission and obtain the commission's written approval.

(d) In the event of any conflict within an area between an order adopted by the commission and an order, resolution, or other rule adopted by a county under this section, the order of the commission shall take precedence.

(e) Where a system of licensing has been ordered by the commission or the commissioners court of a county, no person may install or use private sewage facilities required to be licensed without obtaining a license.

§ 26.033. Rating of Waste Disposal Systems
(a) After consultation with the Texas Department of Health Resources, the board shall provide by rule for a system of approved ratings for municipal waste disposal systems and other waste disposal systems which the board may designate.
(b) The owner or operator of a municipal waste disposal system which attains an approved rating has the privilege of erecting signs of a design approved by the board on highways approaching or inside the boundaries of the municipality, subject to reasonable restrictions and requirements which may be established by the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.
(c) In addition, the owner or operator of any waste disposal system, including a municipal system, which attains an approved rating has the privilege of erecting signs of a design approved by the board at locations which may be approved or established by the board, subject to such reasonable restrictions and requirements which may be imposed by any governmental entity having jurisdiction.
(d) If the waste disposal system fails to continue to achieve an approved rating, the commission may revoke the privilege. On due notice from the commission, the owner or operator of the system shall remove the signs.

§ 26.034. Approval of Disposal System Plans
(a) This section applies to all sewer systems, treatment facilities, and disposal systems, except those public sewage disposal systems for which plans are subject to review and approval by the Texas Department of Health Resources.
(b) Before beginning construction, every person who proposes to construct or materially alter the efficiency of any sewer system, treatment facility, or disposal system to which this section applies shall submit completed plans and specifications to and obtain the approval of the plans by the board.
(c) The board shall approve the plans and specifications if they conform to the waste discharge requirements and water quality standards established by the commission and the board respectively.

§ 26.035. Federal Grants
The executive director with the approval of the board may execute agreements with the United States Environmental Protection Agency or any other federal agency that administers programs providing federal cooperation, assistance, grants, or loans for research, development, investigation, training, planning, studies, programming, and construction related to methods, procedures, and facilities for the collection, treatment, and disposal of waste or other water quality control activities. The department may accept federal funds for these purposes and for other purposes consistent with the objectives of this chapter and may use the funds as prescribed by law or as provided by agreement.

(a) The executive director shall develop and prepare, and from time to time revise, comprehensive water quality management plans for the different areas of the state, as designated by the board.
(b) The executive director may contract with local governments, regional planning commissions, planning agencies, other state agencies, colleges and universities in the state, and any other qualified and competent person to assist the department in developing and preparing, and from time to time revising, water quality management plans for areas designated by the board.
(c) With funds provided for the purpose by legislative appropriation, the board may make grants or interest-free loans to, or contract with, local governments, regional planning commissions, and planning agencies to pay administrative and other expenses of such entities for developing and preparing, and from time to time revising, water quality management plans for areas designated by the board. The period of time for which funding under this provision may be provided for developing and preparing or for revising a plan may not exceed three consecutive years in each instance. Any loan made pursuant to this subsection shall be repaid when the construction of any project included in the plan is begun.
(d) Any person developing or revising a plan shall, during the course of the work, consult with the department and with local governments and other federal, state, and local governmental agencies which in the judgment of the executive director may be affected by or have a legitimate interest in the plan.
(e) Insofar as may be practical, the water quality management plans shall be reasonably compatible with the other governmental plans for the area, such as area or regional transportation, public utility, zoning, public education, recreation, housing, and other related development plans.

§ 26.037. Approval of Plans
(a) After a water quality management plan has been prepared or significantly revised as authorized in Section 26.036 of this code, it shall be submitted to the board and to such local governments and other federal, state, and local governmental agencies as in § 26.037
WATER CODE

(2) “Spill” means an act or omission through which waste or other substances are deposited where, unless controlled or removed, they will drain, seep, run, or otherwise enter water in the state.

(3) “Other substances” means substances which may be useful or valuable and therefore are not ordinarily considered to be waste, but which will cause pollution if discharged into water in the state.

(b) Whenever an accidental discharge or spill occurs at or from any activity or facility which causes or may cause pollution, the individual operating, in charge of, or responsible for the activity or facility shall notify the department as soon as possible and not later than 24 hours after the occurrence.

(c) Activities which are inherently or potentially capable of causing or resulting in the spillage or accidental discharge of waste or other substances and which pose serious or significant threats of pollution are subject to reasonable rules establishing safety and preventive measures which the board may adopt or issue. The safety and preventive measures which may be required shall be commensurate with the potential harm which could result from the escape of the waste or other substances.

(d) The provisions of this section are cumulative of the other provisions in this chapter relating to waste discharges, and nothing in this section exempts any person from complying with or being subject to any other provision of this chapter.

§ 26.040. Control of Certain Waste Discharges by Rule

Whenever the board determines that the quality of water in an area is adversely affected or threatened by the combined effects of several relatively small-quantity discharges of wastes being made for which it is not practical to issue individual permits or that the general nature of a particular type of activity which produces a waste discharge is such that requiring individual permits is unnecessarily burdensome both to the waste discharger and the department, the board may by rule regulate and set the requirements and conditions for the discharges of waste.

§ 26.041. Health Hazards

The department may use any means provided by this chapter to prevent a discharge of waste that is injurious to public health.
§ 26.042. Monitoring and Reporting

(a) The board may prescribe reasonable requirements for a person making discharges of any waste or of any pollutant to monitor and report on his activities concerning collection, treatment, and disposal of the waste or pollutant.

(a) The legislature recognizes that various river authorities and municipal water districts and authorities of the state have signed, and that others are authorized to sign and may sign, a document entitled "The State of Texas Water Pollution Control Compact" (hereinafter called the "compact"), which was approved by Order of the Texas Water Quality Board on March 26, 1971, and which is now on file in the official records of the department, wherein each of the signatories is by law an official agency of the state, created pursuant to Article XVI, Section 59 of the Texas Constitution and operating on a multiple county or regional basis, and that collectively those signatories constitute an agency of the state authorized to agree to pay, and to pay, for and on behalf of the state not less than 25 percent of the estimated costs of all water pollution control projects in the state, wherever located, for which federal grants are to be made pursuant to Clause (7), Subsection (b), Section 1158, Federal Water Pollution Control Act, as amended (33 U.S.C. Section 1158), or any similar law, in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of the compact. The compact provides a method for taking advantage of increased federal grants for water pollution control projects by virtue of the state payment which will be made from the proceeds from the sale of bonds by the signatories to the compact. The compact is hereby ratified and approved, and it is hereby provided that Section 30.026 of this code shall not constitute a limitation or restriction on any signatory with respect to any contract entered into pursuant to the compact or with respect to any water pollution control project in the state, wherever located, for which the aforesaid federal grants are to be made, and such signatory shall not be required to obtain the consent of any other river authority or conservation and reclamation district which is not a signatory with respect to any such contract or project. Each signatory to the compact is empowered and authorized to do any and all things and to take any and all action and to execute any and all contracts and documents which are necessary or convenient in carrying out the purposes and objectives of the compact and issuing bonds pursuant thereto, with reference to any water pollution control project in the state, wherever located, for which the aforesaid federal grants are to be made.

(b) It is further found, determined, and enacted that all bonds issued pursuant to said compact and all bonds issued to refund or refinance same are and will be for water quality enhancement purposes, within the meaning of Article III, Section 49–d–1, as amended, of the Texas Constitution and any and all bonds issued by a signatory to said compact may be used to provide the state payment pursuant to the compact and any bonds issued to refund or refinance any such bonds may be purchased by the Texas Water Development Board with money received from the sale of Texas Water Development Board bonds pursuant to said Article III, Section 49–d–1, as amended, of the Texas Constitution. The bonds or refunding bonds shall be purchased directly from any such signatory at such price as is necessary to provide the state payment for and any other part of the cost of the project or necessary to accomplish the refunding, and all purchases shall constitute loans for water quality enhancement. The bonds or refunding bonds shall have the characteristics and be issued on such terms and conditions as are acceptable to the board. The proceeds received by any such signatory from the sale of any such bonds shall be used to provide the state payment pursuant to the compact and any other part of the cost of the project, and the proceeds from the sale of any such refunding bonds to refund any outstanding bonds issued pursuant to the compact shall be used to pay off and retire the bonds being refunded thereby.
§ 26.043 WATER CODE

(c) This subsection is not intended to interfere in any way with the operation of Article III, Section 49-d-1, as amended, of the Texas Constitution or the enabling legislation enacted pursuant thereto, and the aforesaid compact shall constitute merely a complementary or supplemental method for providing the state payment solely in instances that it is deemed necessary or advisable by the board.

(2) that the owner or operator of the designated regional or area-wide system is agreeable to providing the service;

(3) that it is feasible for the service to be provided on the basis of waste collection, treatment, and disposal technology, engineering, financial, and related considerations existing at the time, exclusive of any loss of revenue from any existing or proposed waste collection, treatment, or disposal systems in which the person or persons who are the subject of an action taken under this section have an interest;

(4) that inclusion of the person or persons who are the subject of an action taken by the commission under this section will not suffer undue financial hardship as a result of inclusion in a regional or area-wide system; and

(5) that a majority of the votes cast in any election held under Section 21.206 of this code favor the creation of the regional or area-wide system or systems operated by the designated regional entity.

(c) An action taken by the commission under Section 26.085 of this code, excluding any person or persons from a regional or area-wide system because the person or persons will suffer undue financial hardship as a result of inclusion in the regional or area-wide system, shall be subject to a review at a later time determined by the commission in accordance with the criteria set out in this section, not to exceed three years from the date of exclusion.

(d) If a person or persons excluded from a regional or area-wide system fail to operate the excluded facilities in a manner that will comply with its permits, the permits shall be subject to cancellation after review by the commission, and the facilities may become a part of the regional or area-wide system.

(b) Notice of the hearing shall be given to the owner or operator of the designated regional or area-wide system, the person requesting the hearing, and any other person who in the judgment of the commission may be affected by the action taken by the commission as a result of the hearing.

(c) After the hearing, the commission shall enter an order setting forth its findings and the rates which may be charged for the services by the owner or operator of the designated regional or area-wide system.

The first publication of the notice shall be at least 14 days before the day set for the election. Notice of the election shall be given to the local governments and to owners and operators of any waste collection, treatment, and disposal systems who in the judgment of the board may be affected.

(d) Absentee balloting in the election shall begin 10 days before the election and shall end as provided in the Texas Election Code. The ballots for the election shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the regional or area-wide system to be operated by the designated regional entity.

(e) Immediately after the election, the presiding judge shall make returns of the result to the executive director of the board. The executive director shall canvass the returns and report to the board his findings of the results at the earliest possible time.

If a majority of the votes cast in the election are against the creation of the regional or area-wide system or systems operated by the designated regional entity, then the board shall declare that the regional system was defeated and enter the result in its minutes.

(g) The order canvassing the results of the confirmation election shall contain a description of the regional system's boundaries and shall be filed in the deed records of the county or counties in which the regional system is located.

(h) The legislature, through the General Appropriations Act, may provide funds for the conduct of elections required under this section. If no funds are appropriated for this purpose, the costs of conducting the election shall be assessed by the board.

(i) This subsection applies to regional or area-wide system or systems and regional entities which have been designated prior to the effective date of this Act. An election to approve creation of a regional or area-wide system or systems and the designation of a regional entity to operate those systems as provided in this section shall not be required for those regional systems or entities to which this subsection applies.

A local government may inspect the public water in its area and determine whether or not:

(1) the quality of the water meets the state water quality standards adopted by the board;

(2) persons discharging effluent into the public water located in the areas of which the local government has jurisdiction have obtained permits for discharge of the effluent; and

(3) persons who have permits are making discharges in compliance with the requirements of the permits.

§ 26.172. Recommendations to Board

§ 26.173. Power to Enter Property

(a) A local government has the same power as the department has under Section 26.014 of this code to enter public and private property within its territorial jurisdiction to make inspections and investigations of conditions relating to water quality. The local government in exercising this power is subject to the same provisions and restrictions as the department.

(b) When requested by the executive director, the result of any inspection or investigation made by the local government shall be transmitted to the department for its consideration.

1 Section 26.121 et seq.

§ 26.175. Cooperative Agreements

(a) A local government may execute cooperative agreements with the department or other local governments:

(1) to provide for the performance of water quality management, inspection, and enforcement functions and to provide technical aid and educational services to any party to the agreement; and

(2) for the transfer of money or property from any party to the agreement to another party to the agreement for the purpose of water quality management, inspection, enforcement, technical aid and education, and the construction, ownership, purchase, maintenance, and operation of disposal systems.

(b) When in the opinion of the executive director it would facilitate and enhance the performance by a local government of its water quality management, inspection, and enforcement functions pursuant to a cooperative agreement between the local government and the department as authorized in Subsection (a) of this section, the executive director may assign and delegate to the local government during the period of the agreement such of the pertinent powers and functions vested in the department un-

under this chapter as in the judgment of the executive director may be necessary or helpful to the local government in performing those management, inspection, and enforcement functions.

(c) At any time and from time to time prior to the termination of the cooperative agreement, the executive director may modify or rescind any such assignment or delegation.

(d) The executive director shall notify immediately a local government to whom it assigns or delegates any powers and functions pursuant to Subsections (b) and (c) of this section or as to when it modifies or rescinds any such assignment or delegation.

§ 26.176. Disposal System Rules

(a) Every local government which owns or operates a disposal system is empowered to and shall, except as authorized in Subsection (c) of this section, enact and enforce rules, ordinances, orders, or resolutions, referred to in this section as rules, to control and regulate the type, character, and quality of waste which may be discharged to the disposal system and, where necessary, to require pretreatment of waste to be discharged to the system, so as to protect the health and safety of personnel maintaining and operating the disposal system and to prevent unreasonable adverse effects on the disposal system.

(b) The local government in its rules may establish the charges and assessments which may be made to and collected from all persons who discharge waste to the disposal system or who have conduits or other facilities for discharging waste connected to the disposal system, referred to in this subsection as "users." The charges and assessments shall be equitable as between all users and shall correspond as near as can be practically determined to the cost of making the waste disposal services available to all users and of treating the waste of each user or class of users. The charges and assessments may include user charges, connection fees, or any other methods of obtaining revenue from the disposal system available to the local government. In establishing the charges and assessments, the local government shall take into account:

(1) the volume, type, character, and quality of the waste of each user or class of users;
(2) the techniques of treatment required;
(3) any capital costs and debt retirement expenses of the disposal system required to be paid for from the charges and assessments;
(4) the costs of operating and maintaining the system to comply with this chapter and the permits, rules, and orders of the department; and

(5) any other costs directly attributable to providing the waste disposal service under standard, accepted cost-accounting practices.

(c) A local government may apply to the commission for an exception from the requirements of Subsections (a) and (b) of this section or for a modification of those requirements. The application shall contain the exception or modifications desired, the reasons the exception or modifications are needed, and the grounds authorized in this subsection on which the commission should grant the application. A public hearing on the application shall be held in or near the territorial area of the local government, and notice of the hearing shall be given to the local government. If after the hearing the commission in its judgment determines that the volume, type, character, and quality of the waste of the users of the system or of a particular user or class of users of the system do not warrant the enactment and enforcement of rules containing the requirements prescribed in Subsections (a) and (b) of this section or that the enactment and enforcement of the rules would be impractical or unreasonably burdensome on the local government in relation to the public benefit to be derived, then the commission in its discretion may enter an order granting an exception to those requirements or modifying those requirements in any particular in response to circumstances shown to exist.

(d) At any time and from time to time as circumstances may require, the commission may amend or revoke any order it enters pursuant to Subsection (c) of this section. Before the commission amends or revokes such an order, a public hearing shall be held in or near the territorial area of the local government in question, and notice of the hearing shall be given to the local government. If after the hearing the commission in its judgment determines that the circumstances on which it based the order have changed significantly or no longer exist, the commission may revoke the order or amend it in any particular in response to the circumstances then shown to exist.

(e) In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this section and any other laws or parts of laws, the provisions of this section shall control.

§ 26.177. Water Pollution Control Duties of Cities

(a) Every city in this state having a population of 5,000 or more inhabitants shall, and any city of this state may, establish a water pollution control and abatement program for the city. The city shall employ or retain an adequate number of personnel on either a part-time or full-time basis as the needs and circumstances of the city may require, who by virtue of their training or experience are qualified to perform the water pollution control and abatement functions required to enable the city to carry out its duties and responsibilities under this section.

(b) The water pollution control and abatement program of a city shall encompass the entire city and may include areas within its extraterritorial jurisdiction which in the judgment of the city should be included to enable the city to achieve the objectives of the city for the area within its territorial jurisdiction. The city shall include in the program the services and functions which, in the judgment of the city or as may be reasonably required by the commission, will provide effective water pollution control and abatement for the city, including the following services and functions:

(1) the development and maintenance of an inventory of all significant waste discharges into or adjacent to the water within the city and, where the city so elects, within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of the city, without regard to whether or not the discharges are authorized by the department;

(2) the regular monitoring of all significant waste discharges included in the inventory prepared pursuant to Subdivision (1) of this subsection;

(3) the collecting of samples and the conducting of periodic inspections and tests of the waste discharges being monitored to determine whether the discharges are being conducted in compliance with this chapter and any applicable permits, orders, or rules of the department, and whether they should be covered by a permit from the commission;

(4) in cooperation with the department, a procedure for obtaining compliance by the waste dischargers being monitored, including where necessary the use of legal enforcement proceedings; and

(5) the development and execution of reasonable and realistic plans for controlling and abating pollution or potential pollution resulting from generalized discharges of waste which are not traceable to a specific source, such as storm sewer discharges and urban runoff from rainwater.

(d) The executive director with the approval of the board may contract with any public agency or private persons or other entity for the purpose of implementing this subchapter.

(e) The executive director shall solicit the assistance of and cooperate with local governments, the federal government, other agencies and departments of this state, and private persons and other entities to develop regional contingency plans for prevention and control of oil and hazardous substance spills and discharges.

(f) The department and the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, in cooperation with the governor and the United States Coast Guard, shall develop a contractual agreement whereby personnel, equipment, and materials in possession or under control of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation may be diverted and utilized for spill and discharge cleanup as provided for in this subchapter. Under the agreement, the following conditions shall be met:

1. the department and the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation shall develop and maintain written agreements and contracts on how such utilization will be effectuated, and designating agents for this purpose;

2. personnel, equipment, and materials may be diverted only with the approval of the department and the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, acting through their designated agents, or by action of the governor;

3. all expenses and costs of acquisition of such equipment and materials or resulting from such cleanup activities shall be paid from the fund, subject to reimbursement as provided in this subchapter; and

4. subsequent to such activities, a full report of all expenditures and significant actions shall be prepared and submitted to the governor, the Legislative Budget Board, and the state auditor, and shall be reviewed by the board.

(g) The executive director shall develop and revise from time to time written action and contractual plans with the designated on-scene coordinator provided for by federal law.
(h)(1) In developing rules and plans under this subchapter and in engaging in cleanup activities, the board shall recognize the authority of the predesignated United States Coast Guard on-scene coordinator to oversee, coordinate, and direct all private and public activities related to cleanup of discharges and spills. The executive director shall place the resources of the state at the disposal of the on-scene coordinator, if he is present, or shall engage in cleanup activities when directed to do so by the on-scene coordinator.

(2) Nothing in this subchapter shall prevent the executive director from acting independently if no on-scene coordinator is present and no action is being taken by an agency of the federal government.

(3) The department shall seek reimbursement from the designated agencies of the federal government for the reasonable costs incurred in cleanup operations, including but not limited to costs of personnel, equipment, the use of equipment, and supplies.

(i) The executive director shall after appropriate investigation prepare a report on the discharge or spill, and this report shall provide the following information:

(1) a description of the incident, including location, amount, and characteristics of the material discharged or spilled and the prevailing weather conditions;

(2) the time and duration of discharge or spill and the method by which the discharge or spill was reported;

(j) This subchapter is cumulative of all other powers of the department.

(k) In the event that a discharge or spill presents or threatens to present an occurrence of disaster proportions, the governor shall utilize the authority granted him under the Texas Disaster Act of 1975 (Article 6889–7, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes) to make available and bring to bear all resources of the state to prevent or lessen the impact of such a disaster.

(1) direct reimbursement from the federal government as provided by federal law for costs incurred in cleanup operations;

(2) in the event that federal reimbursement is not available, the state shall seek to recover cleanup costs from the responsible party. If the responsible party refuses to pay, the state shall initiate legal action to collect the actual costs, provided, however, that such recovery may not exceed $5 million; and

(b) In the event that the responsible party is unwilling or in the opinion of the executive director is unable to remove the discharge or spill, or the removal operation of such party is inadequate, the department may undertake the removal of the discharge or spill and may retain agents for these purposes who shall operate under the direction of the executive director.

(c) Any discharge or spill of oil or hazardous substance, the source of which is unknown, occurring in coastal waters or in waters beyond the jurisdiction of this state and which may reasonably be expected to enter coastal water may be removed by or under the direction of the executive director. Any expense involved in the removal of an unexplained discharge pursuant to this subsection shall be paid, on the board's approval, from the fund, subject to the au-

(c) Any person operating, in charge of, or responsible for a facility or vessel which causes a discharge or spill as defined in this subchapter and fails to report said spill or discharge upon discovery thereof shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(d) Any person who knowingly falsifies records or reports concerning the prevention or cleanup of a discharge or spill of oil or hazardous substance as provided for in this subchapter is guilty of a felony of the third degree.

§ 30.027. Contract With Public Agency

§ 30.030. Source of Contract Payments

(a) A public agency may pay for the waste collection, transportation, treatment, and disposal services with income from its waterworks system, sanitary sewer system, or both systems, or its combined water and sanitary sewer system, as prescribed by the contract. In the alternative, a joint board defined as a public agency in Section 30.003, Subdivision (3), may pay for these services from any revenue or other funds within its control specified in the contract if the city councils of the cities which created the joint board approve, by ordinance, the contract between the joint board and the district. These payments constitute an operating expense of each system whose revenue is so used.

(b) The obligation of contract payments on the income of the public agency’s water system is subordinate to the obligation imposed by any bonds that are payable solely from the water system net revenue and that are outstanding at the time the contract is made, unless the ordinance or resolution authorizing the bonds expressly reserved the right to give the contract payments a priority over the bond requirements.

(c) If a public agency having taxing power holds an election substantially according to the applicable provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, relating to the issuance of bonds by cities and it is determined that the public agency is authorized to levy an ad valorem tax to make all or part of the payments under a contract with a district, then the contract is an obligation against the taxing power of the public agency to the extent authorized, and payments under the contract may be payable from and constitute solely an obligation against the taxing powers of the city or may be payable both from taxes and from revenue prescribed in the contract. Otherwise, neither the district nor the holders of the district’s bonds are entitled to demand payment of the public agency’s obligation out of any tax revenue.

§ 30.031. Rates

(a) When all or part of the payments under a contract are to be made from revenue of the waterworks system, sanitary sewer system, both systems, or a combination of both systems, the public agency shall establish, maintain, and periodically adjust the rates charged for services of the systems, so that the revenue, along with any taxes levied in support of the indebtedness, will be sufficient to pay:

(1) the expenses of operating and maintaining the systems;
(2) the obligations to the district under the contract; and
(3) the obligations of bonds that are secured by revenue of the systems.

(b) The contract may require the use of consulting engineers and financial experts to advise the public agency on the need for adjusting rates.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter or any other law to the contrary, a district may use the proceeds of bonds issued for the purpose of constructing a waste disposal system or systems, and payable wholly or in part from ad valorem taxes, for the purchase of capacity in, or a right to have the wastes of the district treated in, a waste collection, treatment, or disposal system and facilities owned or to be owned exclusively or in part by another public agency, and a district may issue bonds payable wholly or in part from ad valorem taxes specifically for such purpose if a majority of the resident electors of the district have authorized the governing body of the district to issue bonds for that purpose or for the purpose of constructing a waste disposal system or systems. The bonds shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of, and shall be subject to the same terms and conditions of, the laws authorizing the district to issue bonds for the purpose of constructing waste collection, treatment, and disposal systems, except as otherwise provided in this subsection.

(b) To accomplish the purposes of the chapter, a district may exercise the power of eminent domain to acquire all or any interest in property inside or outside the boundaries of the district. The power shall be exercised according to the laws applicable or available to the district. [Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 2207, ch. 870, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1977.]

(d) A contract may provide for the payment of a total sum which is the completed cost of the improvement or may be based on bids to cover cost of units of the various elements entering into the work as estimated and approximately specified by the district’s engineers.

(e) A contract may be let and awarded in any other form or composite of forms and to any responsible person or persons which, in the board’s judgment, will be most advantageous to the district and result in the best and most economical completion of the district’s proposed plant, improvements, facilities, and works.

In the preparation of estimates the district engineer, at his discretion, may authorize material delivered on the site and preparatory work done to be taken into consideration. Material delivered to the contractor at locations other than the site may also be taken into consideration:

(c) In making progress payments, there shall be retained 10 percent of the estimated amount until final completion and acceptance of the contract work. However, if the directors, at any time after 50 percent of the work has been completed, find that satisfactory progress is being made, they may authorize any of the remaining progress payments to be made in full. Also, whenever the work is substantially complete, the directors, if they consider the amount retained to be in excess of the amount adequate for the protection of the district, at their discretion, may release to the contractor all or a portion of the excess amount.

(d) On completion and acceptance of each separate project, public work, or other division of the contract, on which the price is stated separately in the contract, payment may be made without retention of a percentage.

(b) The board of the contributing political subdivision may contract for contributions and contribute from an unappropriated or available fund without submitting the contract and contributions to a vote of the electors of the contributor. The board may agree to deposit this money in a separate fund as a first charge on the gross revenue received each year from sales of water, and which shall not be used for any other purpose.

(c) The board may agree in the lease to pay all expenses of operating and maintaining the leased properties from the fund provided by the board each year for the maintenance and operation expenses of the district so that the gross revenue from sale of water will be available exclusively for payment of rentals until the amount required for rentals each year is paid into the separate rental fund.

(d) If the board includes this agreement in the lease, the board shall provide for the payment of sums into the maintenance fund from sources other than the remaining portions of the gross revenue from the sale of water not required to pay rentals which are sufficient each year to pay all expenses of operating the district and maintaining and operating its properties and facilities, including the leased properties.

A district may acquire by gift, grant, or purchase, any part of an irrigation system serving the district which is subject to a mortgage or encumbrance. The mortgage or encumbrances shall not be assumed by the district and shall not be an indebtedness of the district but shall constitute solely a charge on the encumbered property and the revenue from it.

(c) After a lease to a water customer is authorized by the board, the lease shall be executed by the president or vice-president of the board and attested by the secretary. The lease is valid and effective without any other requirement or prerequisite by the district.

The term "sole expense" means the actual cost of relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting or changes in grade or alteration of construction to provide comparable replacement without enhancement of facilities, after deducting the net salvage value derived from the old facility. This section does not apply to projects under construction or financed or for which bonds were voted and approved by another type of district on or prior to August 27, 1961, and which such district has subsequently elected to convert into a district operating under this chapter, unless the acts of the district authorizing the construction or financing are contained in the provisions of this section.

The notice shall include a statement of the purpose for issuing the bonds, the amount of the proposed bond issue, and the time the hearing is to be held, which may not be less than 30 days after the notice is first published.

(c) The board shall hold the hearing and any taxpayer, bondholder, or other interested person may appear and be heard.

(e) If the result of the election favors the issuance of the bonds or the supplemental contract with the United States, the board may order the bonds issued or the contract made with the United States in the manner provided in this chapter.

(f) If a supplemental contract is made with the United States and bonds are not to be deposited with the United States, it is not necessary to issue bonds. If the district is required to raise money in addition to the amount of the contract, the bonds shall be issued only in the additional amount needed.

(2) if it is considered necessary to make repairs, replacements, or additions to the district's improvements which cost more than $25,000; or

(3) if additional money is needed to complete the improvements as planned.

§ 58.478. Payment of Interim Bonds

(a) The board shall appropriate the tax levied to pay the bonds deposited to the credit of the interest and sinking fund to pay the interim bonds or of any other bonds of the district, but if any of these bonds are sold, the district depository shall apply the proceeds to the payment of principal and accrued interest on the interim bonds and the remainder to the purposes for which the bonds were authorized.

(b) The proceeds of the tax shall be devoted exclusively to the payment of the principal and interest on the interim bonds.

(c) None of the provisions of this subchapter relating to interim bonds shall be construed as prohibiting the sale of bonds deposited to the credit of the interest and sinking fund to pay interim bonds or of any other bonds of the district, but if any of these bonds are sold, the district depository shall apply the proceeds to the payment of principal and accrued interest on the interim bonds and the remainder to the purposes for which the bonds were authorized.

(d) If none of the bonds are sold at the time an installment on the principal and interest of interim bonds matures, the depository shall cancel the deposited bonds and attached interest coupons in an amount equal to the principal and interest of the interim bonds paid off and discharged.

§ 58.479. Redemption of Interim Bonds

(a) At the option of the board, interim bonds may be redeemed at any time or times before maturity on payment by the district of the principal and accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption by the board.

(b) When interim bonds are called for redemption before maturity, the secretary shall give written notice of the redemption to the bank or banking house named as the place of payment in the bonds or to its successor or assign.

(c) In the notice, the secretary shall designate the bond or bonds called for redemption and payment and shall state the number or numbers of the bonds.

(d) The notice shall include the redemption date which shall not be more than 60 days after the date notice of call for payment is made.

(a) As used in this section and in Sections 58.481-58.484 of this code, "net revenue" means income or increment which may come from ownership and operation of the improvements which are encumbered less the proportion of the district's revenue income reasonably required to provide for administration, efficient operation, and adequate maintenance of the district's services and facilities which are encumbered. Net revenue does not include money derived from taxation.

(b) A district which expects net revenue from operations may secure its bonds in any one of the following:

(1) as provided in Section 58.463 of this code;

(2) by entering into a contract to pledge the net revenue of the district and to mortgage and encumber part or all of the property and facilities, franchise, revenue, and income from operations, and everything acquired or to be acquired by the district; or

(3) as provided in both Subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection.

§ 58.481. Taxes to Secure Certain Bonds

(a) If bonds are secured as provided in Section 58.480(b)(3) of this code, at the time that net revenue together with money derived from taxes accumulates a surplus in the sinking fund equal to the amount required in the succeeding year to liquidate the interest and principal on the district's bonds maturing in that year, the district's annual tax levies may be lowered to produce not less than 25 percent of the bond maturities for the succeeding year.
§ 58.481 WATER CODE

(b) If three successive years demonstrate that this net revenue is adequate to protect the district's bonds as they mature, the district's tax may be discontinued until further experience demonstrates the necessity to continue the tax to avoid default in the payment of the district's bonds as they mature. [Added by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1537, ch. 627, § 1, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

(2) "The issuance of bonds, the pledge of net revenue, and the creation of a lien on physical property to secure payment of the bonds;" or

(3) "The issuance of bonds, the pledge of net revenue, and the levy of adequate taxes to pay the bonds."

(a) A district which plans to issue bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of net revenue and a lien on the physical property, either or both, without the levy of taxes, is not required to hold a hearing to exclude land or adopt a plan of taxation.

(b) The proposition for issuance of bonds may be submitted at the election held to confirm the creation of the district or at an election called by the board.

§ 58.484. Hearing Before Issuing Certain Bonds

If a district issues its original bonds under Section 58.480(b)(2) of this code and later desires to issue bonds payable in whole or in part from taxes or to levy a tax for maintenance purposes, the district shall hold a hearing to exclude land, and at the time provided by law, shall hold another hearing to adopt a plan of taxation. These hearings shall be held before an election is called to approve the issuance of tax-supported bonds or the levy of a maintenance tax.

(c) The board shall enter its order establishing the tax plan, and the plan shall become the basis for the assessment and collection of taxes until the district adopts a different plan.

(d) The order is not subject to judicial review except on the ground of fraud, palpable error, or arbitrary and confiscatory abuse of discretion.

(e) A new plan may be adopted if required to preserve equity of distribution in the manner provided for adopting the original plan; however, no change may be made in the tax plan which will impair the ability of the district promptly to meet all outstanding obligations of the district within the intent of Sections 58.464 and 58.467 of this code.

(b) The election shall be held in the manner provided for issuance of bonds under this subchapter.

(c) If a majority of the electors in the defined area approve the propositions, the district shall provide money when necessary and shall provide the improvements and levy the tax.

SUBCHAPTER N. ADDING AND EXCLUDING TERRITORY AND CONSOLIDATING DISTRICTS

§ 58.691. Excluding Land from District

After a district is organized, preliminary surveys are completed, and plans adopted by the district for the construction of a plant and improvements, and before the board calls an election for the authorization of construction bonds, the board must exclude land or other property from the district under the provisions of Sections 58.692–58.701 of this code, if the exclusions are practicable, just, or desirable. [Added by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1537, ch. 627, § 1, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

§ 58.692. Hearing to Announce Proposed Exclusions and to Receive Petitions

Before the election to authorize construction bonds, the board shall give notice of a time and place of a hearing to announce its own conclusions relating to land or other property to be excluded and to receive petitions for exclusion of land or other property. § 58.693. Notice of Hearing

(a) The board shall publish notice of the hearing once a week for two consecutive weeks in one or more newspapers with general circulation in the district. The first publication shall appear at least 15 days and not more than 40 days before the day of the hearing.

(b) A petition for exclusion shall be filed with the district at least 10 days before the hearing and shall state clearly the particular grounds on which the exclusion is sought. Only the stated grounds shall be considered. [Added by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1537, ch. 627, § 1, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

§ 58.695. Grounds for Exclusion

Exclusions from the district may be made on the grounds that:

1. to retain certain land or other property within the district’s taxing power would be arbitrary, would be unnecessary to conserve the public welfare, would impair or destroy the value of the property desired to be excluded, and would constitute the arbitrary imposition of a confiscatory burden;

2. to retain any given land or other property in the district and to extend to it, either presently or in the future, the benefits, service, or protection of the district’s facilities would create an undue and uneconomical burden on the remainder of the district; or

3. the land desired to be excluded cannot be served with water or drained so as to make it useful for irrigation purposes, or otherwise benefited by the district’s proposed improvements. [Added by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1537, ch. 627, § 1, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]
§ 58.696. Hearing Procedure
The board may adjourn the hearing from one day to another and until all persons desiring to be heard are heard. The board immediately shall specifically describe all property which it proposes to exclude on its own motion and shall hear first any protests and evidence against exclusions proposed on the board’s own motion.

§ 58.697. Order Excluding Land
After considering all engineering data and other evidence presented to it, the board shall determine whether the facts disclose the affirmative of the propositions stated in Subdivision (1) or (2) or, if appropriate, in Subdivision (3) of Section 58.695 of this code. If the affirmative exists, the board shall enter an order excluding all land or other property falling within the conditions defined by the respective subdivisions and shall redefine the boundaries of the district in the order to embrace all land not excluded.

Any person owning an interest in land affected by the order may file a petition within 20 days after the effective date of the order to review, set aside, modify, or suspend the order.

§ 58.699. Venue of Suit
The venue in any action shall be in any district court which has jurisdiction in the county in which the district is located. If the district includes land in more than one county, the venue shall be in the district court having jurisdiction in the county in which the major portion of the acreage of the land sought to be excluded from the district is located.

§ 58.700. Trial Procedure
(a) A suit to review, modify, suspend, or set aside the order of the board shall be a trial de novo as that term is understood in an appeal from a justice of the peace court to a county court. The trial shall be strictly de novo with no presumption of validity or reasonableness or presumption of any character in favor of the order.

(b) The decision shall be made on a preponderance of the evidence and facts found in the trial as in other civil cases, independently of any action taken by the board.

(c) The procedure for the trial and the determination of the orders and judgments to be entered shall be governed solely by the rules of law, evidence, and procedure of the state courts according to the constitution, statutes, and rules of procedure for the trial of civil actions.

(d) The so-called “substantial evidence” rule enunciated by the courts for orders of other administrative or quasi-judicial agencies shall not apply in the trial.

After the district is organized, acquires facilities with which to function as an irrigation district, and votes, issues, and sells bonds for the purposes for which the district was organized, land within the district subject to taxation which is not agricultural land or cannot be irrigated in a practicable manner may be excluded from the district by complying with the provisions ofSections 58.703–58.713 of this code. The land may also be excluded pursuant to the provisions contained in either Chapter 119, Acts of the 47th Legislature, Regular Session, 1941, as amended, or Chapter 86, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1971, in the same manner as if the district was a water control and improvement district.

§ 58.703. Prerequisite to Application for Exclusion

Each application shall set forth the facts concerning the land to be excluded from and the land to be added to the district, including evidence of their reasonable market value.

The application also shall set forth an agreement by the owner of the new land that the land will be subject to future taxes for bond tax and flat rate and all other assessments levied and assessed by the district as though the land had been incorporated originally in the district. The application also shall contain an agreement by the owner of the new land that the land will be subject to the same liens and provisions as all other land in the district and subject to the statutes governing all other land in the district.

(2) a plan showing how it proposes to utilize the land and a timetable indicating approximately when such utilization will take place;

(3) a draft environmental impact statement assessing the effect of the proposed use on the environment, which statement shall generally conform to the requirements of the National Environmental Policy Act, until such time as the legislature shall impose different requirements; however, a draft environmental impact statement shall not be required if the proposed use requires no dredging, filling, or bulkheading. If the proposed use does require dredging, filling, or bulkheading, but the lease shall be processed as provided in Subsections (d), (e), and (f) of this section without the filing of a draft environmental impact statement if the applicant so requests in writing; but in such a case, the School Land Board shall include in the lease provisions requiring (i) that the draft environmental impact statement required by federal law be filed with the School Land Board before the district makes any use of such lands or flats which requires dredging, filling, or bulkheading; (ii) that approval of such use be obtained from the School Land Board after copies of the summary of the draft environmental impact statement and a description of the proposed use are circulated for comment and a hearing held as provided in Subsections (d) and (e) of this section and the School Land Board shall be authorized to give its approval to make such amendments to the lease as may then be deemed necessary by it as a result of information developed in the draft environmental impact statement; and (iii) that the lease shall cease to be effective at a time specifically stated in the lease unless prior to that time accord concerning environmental issues has been reached between the district and the School Land Board;

(4) proof satisfactory to the board establishing the public convenience and necessity for acquisition of lands sought to be leased.

(d) Upon receipt of an application and accompanying information, the School Land Board shall submit copies thereof to the member agencies of the Interagency Council on Natural Resources and the Environment and all other appropriate state agencies for review and comment. In addition, the board shall submit for review and comment the proposed terms and conditions of the lease. The board shall allow 30 days for such review and comment, and may extend the review period for an additional 30 days upon written request by the executive director of any state agency.

(e) Following the expiration of the period provided for review and comment, or following the expiration of the 30 day extension of such period, if applicable, the School Land Board shall cause a hearing to be held in the county in which the land proposed to be leased is located. Notice of the hearing shall be given by publication for at least three days, not less than two weeks nor more than four weeks prior to the hearing, in the daily paper having the greatest circulation in the county. Members of the board or their designated representatives shall conduct the hearing, at which any party may offer testimony in support of or in opposition to the application, and the board shall consider the record of the hearing in making a decision on the application.

(f) After submission of all evidence, the School Land Board shall authorize the issuance or denial of the proposed lease and shall determine the reasonable cost to the district, term of years, special limitations, if any, and other conditions necessary to best serve the interest of the general public. In establishing the consideration to be paid to the state for the lease, due weight shall be given to the depth of the water over the submerged land, its proximity to development activities, and its proposed use. Final action shall be taken by the board no more than 60 days following the public hearing.

(g) The funds derived from the lease shall be paid to the General Land Office for transfer to the proper funds of the state.

(h) Districts may sublease lands leased from the state under the provisions of this section to third parties for activities reasonably related to navigation, but such sublease shall be subject to the approval of the School Land Board according to the procedures, requirements, and criteria set forth in Subsections (c) and (d) of Section 61.116 of this code; provided, however, that no approval by the School Land Board shall be required if the sublease is for a purpose contemplated by the district and approved by the board in the district's original lease. It is further provided that no environmental impact statement shall ever be necessary for any sublease which requires no dredging, filling, or bulkheading, and which would not have a substantial impact upon the environment, or which requires only insubstantial dredging, filling, or bulkheading, as determined by the board; nor shall a district in obtaining approval for a sublease under any circumstances be required to reveal the name of the tenant to whom the sublease is to be made.
(i) If lands or flats leased from the state under the provisions of this section are utilized by the district or its sublessee for any purpose or use not approved by the School Land Board, the district shall be given notice and an opportunity to change and correct the use. If the use is not changed and corrected within a reasonable time after receipt of such notice, the lease may be terminated by the School Land Board and the lands or flats shall revert to the State of Texas.

2 So in enrolled bill.

Sections 4 and 5 of the 1975 amendatory act provided:

"Sec. 4. Venue for any action arising under this Act brought by or against the State of Texas, or involving the State’s claim to title to land conveyed or sought to be conveyed under this Act, shall lie in a district court of Travis County, Texas."

"Sec. 5. Any and all laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are repealed to the extent of such conflict."

§ 61.117. Limitations on Sales and Use of State Lands and Flats

(a) The State of Texas shall retain its rights in all mines and minerals, including oil, gas, and geothermal resources, in and under the land, together with the right to enter the land for the purpose of development when it leases land under Section 61.116 of this code.

(b) All leases of land under Section 61.116 are subject to oil, gas, or mineral leases in existence at the time of the lease to the district.

(c) Any land which has been franchised or leased or is being used by any navigation district or by the United States for the purpose of navigation, industry, or other purpose incident to the operation of a port shall not be entered or possessed by the State of Texas or by anyone claiming under the State of Texas or by any navigation district, and the prior approval of the School Land Board before granting any such easement. Such approval may be given in the form of accepting a master plan for spoil disposal. If lands or flats leased from the state under Article 8226, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, or under any general or special act, and which still claim title to any such lands or flats, may not hereafter dispose of any such lands or flats which were conveyed to them by the State of Texas and may not lease such lands or flats for a use for which districts are not authorized to lease their other lands; however, in the event a district possesses lands it finds to be in excess of its needs, it may sell such surplus lands or flats back to the State of Texas for the same consideration as originally paid to the state or exchange them for other lands with the State of Texas. It is further provided that the limitation on resale of lands or flats acquired from the State of Texas shall not prevent a district from exchanging such lands or flats for land, or rights in land, of an adjacent littoral owner for the purpose of adjusting or straightening the boundary between such lands. All such exchanges made after December 31, 1973, shall be subject to the approval of the School Land Board.

(g) Any district which, prior to the effective date of this Act has maintained, and which at the effective date of this Act is maintaining, any channel, dredged material disposal site, or other navigational aid or improvement on state owned lands to which the district holds no patent or lease from the state shall notify the General Land Office of the boundaries of such submerged land used by furnishing a map or other drawing acceptable to the General Land Office.

1 Repealed. Sections 4 and 5 of the 1975 amendatory act provided:

"Sec. 4. Venue for any action arising under this Act brought by or against the State of Texas, or involving the State’s claim to title to land conveyed or sought to be conveyed under this Act, shall lie in a district court of Travis County, Texas."

"Sec. 5. Any and all laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are repealed to the extent of such conflict."

A district created under this chapter or converted from a district created under Article III, Section 52 of the Texas Constitution, into a conservation and reclamation district under Article XVI, Section 59 of the Texas Constitution, may extend its boundaries and annex adjacent territory.

§ 63.372. Petition

Before territory is annexed to the district, a petition signed by 50 or a majority of the electors residing in the adjacent territory proposed to be annexed shall be presented to the commission requesting an election in the adjacent territory to determine whether or not the territory will be annexed and whether or not it will assume its pro rata part of the outstanding bonded debt of the district.

§ 63.373. Scheduling Petition for Hearing; Notice

(a) After a petition is presented under Section 63.372 of this code, the commission shall set the petition for a hearing to be held within 10 days from the date of presentation of the petition.

(b) Notice of the hearing shall be posted at three public places in the territory proposed to be annexed for at least five days before the hearing on the petition. The notice shall include the time and place...
§ 63.373. Hearing

The commission shall hold the hearing on the subject of annexation of adjacent territory by the district, and any person who has taxable property in the territory proposed to be annexed may appear in person or by counsel and offer testimony or argument for or against the inclusion of all or any part of the land proposed to be annexed.

§ 63.374. Election Order

If after the hearing the commission finds that inclusion of the territory proposed to be annexed would be a direct benefit to all the land in that territory, the commission shall order an election to be held in the territory proposed to be annexed.

§ 63.375. Notice of Election

(a) The election shall be held not less than 20 nor more than 30 days from the day of the election order and after notice is given.

(b) Notice of the election shall be published once a week for 20 days immediately preceding the election in some newspaper published in the territory proposed to be annexed. If no newspaper is published in the territory, notice shall be posted in three public places inside the territory for at least 20 days immediately preceding the election.

(c) The notice:

(1) shall give the time and place or places for holding the election;

(2) shall give the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed; and

(3) may contain the substance of the order of the commission ordering the election.

(d) The secretary of the commission shall have the notice published or posted.

§ 63.376. Ballots

The ballots for the election shall be printed to allow for voting for or against: "Annexation to the navigation district" and "Assumption of a pro rata part of the bonded debt of the navigation district."

§ 63.377. Canvass of Vote; Entry of Order

(a) The election judges shall certify the election returns to the commission, and the commission shall canvass the returns.

(c) If a majority of the electors voting at the election favor annexation and the proposition to assume the bonded debt fails to carry, the commission shall enter an order in its minutes annexing the territory to the district, and from and after the entry of the order, the annexed territory shall be a part of the district with the exception of the assumption of the outstanding bonded indebtedness. The annexed territory shall be subject to a tax for maintenance and operation and shall be liable for all other bonded indebtedness and other indebtedness thereafter legally imposed by the district.

(d) After an order of annexation has been entered in the minutes of the commission, a certified copy of the order shall be prepared by the secretary of the commission and shall include the boundaries of the territory annexed. The secretary shall record the order or have it recorded in the real estate records of the county or counties in which the territory is located.

A. As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, the term:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 1 to 18]

(19) “Conspicuous” or “conspicuously”, when prescribed for information appearing on a certificate for shares or other securities, means the location of such information or use of type of sufficient size, color, or character that a reasonable person against whom such information may operate should notice it. For example, a printed or typed statement in capital letters, or boldface or underlined type, or in type that is larger than or that contrasts in color with that used for other statements on the same certificate, is “conspicuous.”

PART TWO

Art. 2.01. Purposes

B. No corporation may adopt this Act or be organized under this Act or obtain authority to transact business in this State under this Act: issued and, (b) if the corporation is authorized to issue shares of any preferred or special class in series, the variations in the relative rights and preferences of the shares of each such series; or (2) shall conspicuously state on the face or back of the certificate that (a) such a statement is set forth in the articles of incorporation on file in the office of the Secretary of State and (b) the corporation will furnish a copy of such statement to the record holder of the certificate without charge on written request to the corporation at its principal place of business or registered office. In the event a corporation has by its articles of incorporation limited or denied the preemptive right of shareholders to acquire unissued or treasury shares of the corporation, each certificate representing shares issued by such corporation (1) shall conspicuously set forth on the face or back of the certificate a full statement of the limitation or denial of preemptive rights contained in the articles of incorporation, or (2) shall conspicuously state on the face or back of the certificate that (a) such a statement is set forth in the articles of incorporation on file in the office of the Secretary of State and (b) the corporation will furnish a copy of such statement to the record holder of the certificate without charge on request to the corporation at its principal place of business or registered office.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of C to E]

G. In the event any restriction on the transfer, or registration of the transfer, of shares shall be imposed or agreed to by the corporation, as permitted by this Act, each certificate representing shares so restricted (1) shall conspicuously set forth a full or summary statement of the restriction on the face of the certificate, or (2) shall set forth such statement on the back of the certificate and conspicuously refer to the same on the face of the certificate, or (3) shall conspicuously state on the face or back of the certificate that such a restriction exists pursuant to a specified document and (a) that the corporation will furnish to the record holder of the certificate without charge upon written request to the corporation at its principal place of business or registered office a copy of such statement to the record holder of the certificate, or (b) if such document is on file in the office of the Secretary of State, a copy of the specified document shall not be permitted thereafter to enforce its rights under the restriction imposed on the shares represented by such certificate.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 305, ch. 134, §§ 2, 3 and 22, Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2.22. Transfer of Shares and Other Securities and Restrictions on Transfer

C. Any restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of a security of a corporation, if reasonable and not otherwise enforceable, is ineffective except against a person with actual knowledge of the restriction.

E. A corporation that has adopted a bylaw, or is a party to an agreement, restricting the transfer of its shares or other securities may file such bylaw or agreement as a matter of public record with the Secretary of State, as follows:

(1) The corporation shall file a copy of the bylaw or agreement in the office of the Secretary of State together with an attached statement setting forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;
(b) that the copy of the bylaw or agreement is a true and correct copy of the same; and
(c) that such filing has been duly authorized by the board of directors or, in the case of a close corporation managed by its shareholders pursuant to Article 2.30-1, by its shareholders.

(2) Such statement shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or vice-president and verified by the officer signing such statement, and shall be delivered to the Secretary of State with copies of such bylaw or agreement restricting the transfer of shares or other securities thereto. If the Secretary of State finds that such statement conforms to law and all franchise taxes and fees have been paid as prescribed by law, he shall:

(a) endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed", and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof;
(b) file one of such duplicate originals in his office; and
(c) return the other duplicate original to the corporation or its representative.

(3) After the filing of such statement by the Secretary of State, the bylaw or agreement restricting the transfer of shares or other securities shall become a matter of public record and the fact of such filing shall be stated on any certificate representing the shares or other securities so restricted if required by Section G, Article 2.19, of this Act.

F. A corporation that is a party to an agreement restricting the transfer of its shares or other securities may make such agreement part of its articles of incorporation without restating the provisions of such agreement therein by complying with the provisions of Part Four of this Act for amendment of the articles of incorporation. If such agreement shall alter any provision of the original or amended articles of incorporation, the articles of amendment shall identify by reference or description the altered provision. If such agreement is to be an addition to the original or amended articles of incorporation, the articles of amendment shall state that fact. The articles of amendment shall have attached thereto a copy of the agreement restricting the transfer of shares or other securities, and shall state that the attached copy of such agreement is a true and correct copy of the same and that its inclusion as part of the articles of incorporation has been duly authorized in the manner required by this Act to amend the articles of incorporation.

Art. 2.30-1. The Close Corporation: Definition; Formation; Election to Become; Termination of the Election; Management by Shareholders

A. As used in this Act, a “close corporation” means a domestic corporation which (i) is organized under or is subject to this Act and (ii) has elected to be a close corporation by including in its articles of incorporation (whether original or amended or restated), in addition to the provisions required by Article 3.02 of this Act, the following:

1. a statement that it is a close corporation;
2. a statement that no shares of any class and no securities evidencing the right to acquire shares of the close corporation shall be issued by means of any public offering, solicitation, or advertisement;
3. a statement that all of the issued shares of each class and all of the issued securities evidencing the right to acquire shares of the close corporation shall be subject to one or more of the restrictions on transfer permitted by Articles 2.22 or 2.30-2 of this Act, and if such restrictions on transfer are being imposed on the articles of incorporation or in an agreement permitted by this Act to be set forth in full in or made a part of the articles of incorporation, the statement shall be followed either by (i) the provisions of the articles of incorporation or amendment thereto that impose such restrictions, (ii) the agreement if it is being set forth in full in the articles of incorporation, or (iii) a reference to such agreement if it is being made a part of the articles of incorporation;
4. a statement that all of the issued shares of all classes, excluding treasury shares, and all of the issued securities evidencing the right to acquire shares of the close corporation shall be held of record by no more than a specified number of persons, not exceeding thirty-five (35) in the aggregate. To determine the number of holders of record for purposes of this definition, shares and securities evidencing rights to acquire shares which are held (1) by husband and wife as (a) community property, (b) joint tenants (with or without right of survivorship), or (c) tenants by the entirety, or (2) by an estate of a decedent or an incompetent, or (3) by an express trust, partnership, association, or corporation created or organized and existing other than for the primary purpose of holding shares or securities evidencing rights to acquire shares in a close corporation, shall be treated as held by one person. Nothing in this definition shall be deemed to affect the right of any corporation which has not elected to be a close corporation as provided in this Article, or its shareholders, directors, or officers to exercise any power or right, granted or permitted by any provision of this Act. To the extent not inconsistent with any provision of this Act dealing specifically with a close corporation, all other provisions of this Act shall apply to a close corporation.

B. The articles of incorporation also may set forth the qualifications of shareholders and/or security-holders, either by specifying classes of persons who shall be entitled to be holders of record of any class of shares or securities, or by specifying classes of persons who shall not be entitled to be holders of record of any class of shares or securities, or both.

C. Nothing contained in this Article shall be deemed to prohibit or preclude the inclusion of any other matters required or permitted to be set forth in articles of incorporation by this Act, to the extent they are not inconsistent with the matters actually set forth in articles of incorporation of a close corporation pursuant to Sections A and B of this Article.

D. To form a close corporation, all of the initial subscribers to the corporation’s shares and securities evidencing the right to acquire its shares shall serve as incorporators and the articles of incorporation, in addition to the matters required or permitted to be set forth therein by this Act, also shall include a statement that the incorporators include all such subscribers. The filing of the articles of incorporation by the Secretary of State shall constitute acceptance by the close corporation of the subscriptions of all such subscribers.

E. If an existing corporation desires to become a close corporation, it shall adopt articles of amendment in the manner provided by this Act which state that it has elected to become a close corporation and which make such other amendments to its articles of incorporation as may be required in order that the articles of incorporation, as so amended, shall set forth the matters required of a close corporation by this Act. The articles of amendment may include any other matter permitted to be set forth in the articles of incorporation of a close corporation by this Act and, to the extent not inconsistent with its status as a close corporation, any other matter that may be set forth in articles of incorporation. The election to become a close corporation and any amendments in connection therewith shall be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of all of the outstanding shares of each class, whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the articles of incorporation.

F. If a close corporation desires to terminate its status as a close corporation, it shall adopt articles of amendment in the manner provided by this Act which state that it has elected to terminate its status as a close corporation and which delete the provisions required or permitted to be set forth in the articles of incorporation of a close corporation under this Act that are not permitted for corporations generally. Such election to terminate its status as a close corporation and amendments required in connection therewith shall be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class, whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the articles of incorporation, unless a greater or lesser vote is required or permitted by the articles of incorporation for such termination. Any provision of the articles of incorporation requiring a greater vote for such termination shall not be amended, repealed, or modified by any vote less than that required to terminate the corporation's status as a close corporation. Any provision restricting the transfer of the shares or other securities evidencing the right to acquire shares contained in or made part of the articles of incorporation pursuant to Article 2.30-2 of this Act, shall remain in effect to the extent not prohibited by other provisions of this Act whether or not thereafter contained in or made a part of the articles of incorporation or bylaws unless, in connection with the adoption of articles of amendment to terminate the corporation's status as a close corporation, a resolution is adopted or an agreement is entered into terminating or amending such restrictions on transfer by the number or percentage of shareholders and/or security-holders (whether or not entitled to vote in the case of a resolution) required by the articles of incorporation, bylaws or agreement for termination or amendment of such restrictions on transfer.

G. If the articles of incorporation of a close corporation expressly so state and if each certificate representing its issued and outstanding shares so conspicuously states, the business and affairs of such close corporation shall be managed by the shareholders of the close corporation rather than by a board of directors, and the following provisions shall apply:

(1) Whenever the context requires, the shareholders of such close corporation shall be deemed directors of such corporation for purposes of applying any of the provisions of this Act.

(2) The shareholders of such close corporation shall be subject to the liabilities imposed by this Act or by law for any action taken or neglected to be taken by directors of a corporation.

(3) Any action required or permitted by this Act to be taken by the board of directors of a corporation shall or may be taken by action of the shareholders of such close corporation at a meeting thereof or in the manner permitted by this Act without a meeting. Any such action taken shall be on the basis of the vote, cast in person or by proxy, by the holders of shares having a majority of the total voting power of all outstanding shares entitled to vote with respect to such action, unless the articles of incorporation either in general or on specified matters provide (a) for a greater vote or (b) for a vote on the basis of one or some other specified number of votes per such shareholder. In addition, any action consented to by all the shareholders shall be binding upon the corporation. Such consent may be evidenced (a) by the full knowledge of such action by all the shareholders and their failure to object thereto in a timely manner or (b) a consent in writing to such action in accordance with Article 9.10 of this Act or any other writing executed by or on behalf of all the shareholders reasonably evidencing such consent or (c) by any other means reasonably evidencing such consent.

H. A close corporation that is managed by its shareholders in accordance with this Act may elect to have its business and affairs managed by a board of directors by amending its articles of incorporation in the manner provided in this Act. At the meeting of shareholders to approve such amendment, there shall be elected such number of directors specified in the articles of amendment or provided for in the bylaws. The name and post office address of each person who is to serve as a director on the amendment becoming effective shall be set forth in the articles of amendment.

I. If any event occurs as a result of which one or more of the provisions or conditions included in a close corporation's articles of incorporation pursuant to Section A of this Article to qualify it as a close corporation has been breached:

(1) The corporation's status as a close corporation shall terminate unless:

(a) within thirty (30) days after the occurrence of the event, or within thirty (30) days after the event has been discovered, whichever is later, the corporation (i) files with the Secretary of State a certificate, executed by the corporation by its president or a vice-president and verified by the officer signing such statement, setting forth (A) the name of such corporation, and (B) a statement that a specified provision or condition included in its articles of incorporation pursuant to Section A of this Article to qualify it as a close corporation has been breached, and (ii) delivers to each shareholder of record, either personally or by mail (if mailed, in accordance with the requirements of the second sentence of Article 2.25), a copy of such certificate; and

(b) the corporation, within sixty (60) days after the filing of such certificate, takes such steps as are necessary to correct the situation which threatens its status as a close corporation, including, without limitation, the refusal to register the transfer of any shares which have been wrongfully transferred, or commencement in a court of competent jurisdiction of a proceeding to prevent the corporation from losing its status as a close corporation or to restore its status as such, as permitted by Article 2.30-3 of this Act.

(2) When the situation which threatens the status of the corporation as a close corporation has been remedied, and if the corporation has not amended its articles of incorporation in accordance with Section F of this Article, the corporation shall file with the Secretary of State a certificate, executed by the corporation's president or a vice-president and verified by the officer signing such statement, setting forth (a) the name of such corporation, (b) a reference to the statement previously filed with the Secretary of State by such corporation pursuant to paragraph (a) of Subsection (1) of this Section, and (c) a statement that no breach of any of the provisions or conditions included in its articles of incorporation pursuant to Section A of this Article exists.

(3) If within the sixty (60) day period provided in Subsection (1)(b) of this Section, the situation which threatened the status of such corporation as a close corporation is not remedied, the corporation's status as a close corporation shall thereafter be terminated, unless its status as a close corporation has been stayed by a court of competent jurisdiction pending final adjudication in a proceeding under Article 2.30-3 or in any other proceeding that will result in the corporation being unable to maintain or being restored to its status as a close corporation. If pursuant to Section G of this Article the business and affairs of such corporation are being managed by its shareholders rather than by a board of directors, the president shall call a meeting of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon to elect a board of directors; and if he fails to call such a meeting within thirty (30) days from the date when the corporation's status as a close corporation so terminated, any shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, may call such meeting with the same rights and powers as are provided in this Act with respect to the call of an annual meeting of shareholders by a shareholder. At such meeting there shall be elected such number of directors as have been specified in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws of such corporation or, if no such number is specified, one (1) director shall be elected. During the period until such director(s) is elected, the person or persons to whom management of the corporation has been delegated by the shareholders shall act as a board of directors and the business and affairs of the corporation shall be conducted in the manner provided for corporations generally under this Act.

J. A corporation which met the definition of a close corporation immediately prior to the effective date of the 1975 amendment to this Article 2.30–1 shall retain its status as a close corporation for a period of one year after such effective date, provided it continues during such one-year period to meet all the requirements of a close corporation set forth in Section A of this Article, as amended, other than the inclusion of the required statements in its articles of incorporation. After such one-year period, a corporation no longer shall have the status of a close corporation unless during such year it shall have amended its articles of incorporation to set out the matters required to be stated therein by Section A of this Article; provided, however, that nothing in this Article shall require a close corporation to so amend its articles of incorporation if, before the effective date of the 1975 amendment to this Article, the articles of incorporation of such corporation provided that its business and affairs were to be managed by its shareholders or granted any shareholder or other holders of any specified number or percentage of shares of any class of shares an option to dissolve the close corporation. Should any such corporation subsequently amend its articles of incorporation, the matters required to be stated by Section A shall be set forth in the articles of amendment and approved in the manner required by that Section. No agreement among the shareholders of a close corporation as heretofore permitted to be entered into by Article 2.30–2, or any other act performed by or in behalf of such corporation, before the effective date of the 1975 amendment to this Article 2.30–1, shall be invalidated or otherwise affected by such corporation electing to become a close corporation in the manner provided by this Article.

Art. 2.30-2  TEXAS BUSINESS CORPORATION ACT

Art. 2.30-2. Agreements Among Shareholders of a Close Corporation

A. The shareholders of a close corporation or the subscribers to its shares, if no shares have been issued, may enter into a written agreement executed by all the holders of and subscribers to shares of the corporation to regulate any phase of the business and affairs of the corporation or the relations of the holders of or subscribers to shares of the corporation, including, but not limited to, the following:

1. Management of the business and affairs of the corporation whether by the board of directors in a manner otherwise than provided in this Act or by one or more of the shareholders or one or more other parties to be selected by the shareholders;

2. Restrictions on the transfer of shares or other securities more restrictive than otherwise would be permitted to be imposed by Article 2.22, if not manifestly unreasonable;

3. Exercise or division of voting requirements or power beyond those that would otherwise be permitted by this Act;

4. Terms and conditions of employment of any shareholder, director, officer, or employee regardless of the length of time of such employment;

5. Persons who shall or may be directors and officers of the corporation;

6. Declaration and payment of dividends or division of profits;

7. Arbitration of issues as to which the shareholders are deadlocked in voting power or as to which the directors or other parties managing the corporation are deadlocked in the event the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock; or

8. Treatment of the business and affairs of the corporation as if it were a partnership or arrangement of the relations among the shareholders or between the shareholders and the corporation in a manner that would otherwise be appropriate only among partners.

B. Such shareholders' agreement shall either (1) be set forth in or made part of the original or amended articles of incorporation; or (2) be set forth in or made part of the bylaws of the corporation, provided such bylaws and a counterpart of the agreement be placed on file by the corporation at its principal place of business and its registered office and shall be subject to the same right of examination by a shareholder of the corporation, in person, or by agent, attorney, or accountant, as are the books and records of the corporation. If the agreement is set forth in or made part of the original articles of incorporation, all of the parties to the agreement at the time of incorporation who shall have subscribed to shares of the corporation shall serve as incorporators of the close corporation. If set forth in or made part of an amendment to the articles of incorporation, the provisions of this Act for amendment of the articles of incorporation shall be complied with. In addition, such amendment shall have been adopted by an affirmative vote of all of the subscribers to shares if no shares have been issued, or of the holders of all outstanding shares, whether or not entitled to vote by the articles of incorporation. If set forth in or made part of the bylaws of the corporation either when originally adopted or later amended, such provision of the bylaws shall have been adopted, amended, or ratified by an affirmative vote of all the subscribers to shares, if no shares have been issued, or of the holders of all outstanding shares, whether or not entitled to vote by the articles of incorporation.

Once such agreement has been set forth in or made part of the articles of incorporation or bylaws as provided herein, it may not be amended or removed therefrom, unless otherwise provided by the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, as the case may be, except by the affirmative vote or consent of all of the subscribers to shares, if no shares have been issued, or of the holders of all outstanding shares, whether or not entitled to vote by the articles of incorporation. If these provisions are not complied with, such agreement, even though otherwise enforceable among the parties thereto, shall not be enforceable by any party thereto who is knowingly responsible for such noncompliance nor against any transferee of shares except one who has actual knowledge of the existence of the agreement or who has acquired his shares by gift, bequest, or inheritance from a party to the agreement.

C. Each certificate representing shares issued by a close corporation whose shareholders have entered into an agreement permitted by this Article shall (1) set forth conspicuously a full or summary statement of such agreement on the face of the certificate; or (2) set forth such statement on the face of the certificate and conspicuously refer to the same on the face of the certificate; or (3) if the agreement has been set forth in or made part of the articles of incorporation, conspicuously state on the face or back of the certificate that such shares are subject to an agreement among all the shareholders of the close corporation and that the corporation will furnish to the record holder of the certificate without charge upon written request to the corporation at its principal place of business or registered office a copy of such agreement and that such agreement either is set forth in the articles of incorporation or it is made a part thereof and is on file in the office of the Secretary of State; or (4) if the agreement has been set forth in or made part of the bylaws and a counterpart of the agreement placed on file by the corporation at its principal place of business and its registered office, conspicuously state on the face or back of the certificate that such shares are subject to an agreement among all the shareholders of the close corporation and that the corporation will furnish to the record holder of the certificate without charge upon written request to the corporation at its principal place of business or registered office a copy of such bylaw or agreement. An agreement permitted by this Article, which is noted conspicuously on the certificates representing shares of a close corporation in the manner prescribed in the preceding paragraph, shall be binding on and enforceable against a holder of such a certificate or any successor or transferee of such holder, including an executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or other fiduciary entrusted with like responsibility for the person or estate of such holder. Unless noted conspicuously on the certificates representing shares of the close corporation in the manner prescribed in the preceding paragraph, an agreement permitted by this Article, even though otherwise enforceable, shall be ineffective except against a person with actual knowledge of such agreement.

D. If an agreement authorized by this Article contains any provisions which would not be valid under other provisions of the Act, such provisions shall be valid only so long as the corporation maintains its status as a close corporation under this Act. No other provision of the agreement shall be affected unless the parties thereto otherwise provide.

E. In the event a close corporation shall have a board of directors, the effect of an agreement authorized by this Article shall be to relieve the director or directors of, and to impose upon the shareholders who are parties to or are bound by the agreement and who voted for or assented to the transaction in question, the liabilities imposed by this Act or by law for action taken or neglected to be taken by directors to the extent that and so long as the discretion or powers of the directors in their management of corporate affairs is controlled by any such provision.

F. The provisions of this Article shall not be construed to prohibit any other agreements among two or more shareholders or security-holders permitted by other provisions of this Act.

Art. 2.30-3. Proceedings to Prevent Loss of Close Corporation Status or to Enforce Agreements Among Shareholders of a Close Corporation

C. Any court of competent jurisdiction in which a proceeding provided for in Section A of this Article may be brought may enjoin or set aside any transfer or threatened transfer of shares or any securities of a close corporation which will adversely affect its status as a close corporation, or which is contrary to restrictions on the transfer of such shares permitted by Article 2.22 or 2.30-2 of this Act, and may enjoin any public offering, solicitation, or advertisement of shares or securities evidencing the right to acquire shares of the close corporation.

D. Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed to prevent or impair the ability of the close corporation or its shareholders or security-holders from properly terminating its status as a close corporation and from terminating or amending any restrictions on the transfer of shares or securities evidencing the right to acquire shares of the corporation in accordance with Article 2.30-1 of this Act, or shall impair the power of any court of competent jurisdiction in any proceeding properly brought before it to enforce any restriction on the transfer of shares or other securities permitted by Article 2.22 or 2.30-2 of this Act or any agreement among any number of holders of the shares or securities of a corporation or any number of the holders of such shares or securities and the corporation not provided for in Article 2.30-2 of this Act and to grant whatever remedies may be properly available in such proceedings.

Art. 2.36. Executive and Other Committees

A. If the articles of incorporation or the bylaws so provide, the board of directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the full board of directors, may designate from among its members an executive committee and one or more other committees, each of which, to the extent provided in such resolution or in the articles of incorporation or in the bylaws of the corporation, shall have and may exercise all of the authority of the board of directors, except that no such committee shall have the authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, approving a plan of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease, or exchange of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation otherwise than in the usual and regular course of its business, recommending to the shareholders a voluntary dissolution of the corporation or a revocation thereof, amending, altering, or repealing the bylaws of the corporation or adopting new bylaws for the corporation, filling vacancies in the board of directors or any such committee, electing or removing officers or members of any such committee, fixing the compensation of any member of such committee, or altering or repealing any resolution of the board of directors which by its terms provides that it shall not be so amendable or repealable; and, unless such resolution, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws of the corporation expressly so provide, no such committee shall have the power or authority to declare a dividend or to authorize the issuance of shares of the corporation. The designation of such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the board of directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed by law.

Art. 2.43. Removal of Officers

A. Any officer or agent or member of a committee elected or appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. Election or appointment of an officer or agent or member of a committee shall not of itself create contract rights.

PART THREE

Art. 3.01. Incorporators

A. Any natural person of the age of eighteen (18) years or more, or any partnership, corporation, association, trust, or estate (without regard to place of residence, domicile, or organization) may act as an incorporator of a corporation by signing, verifying, and delivering in duplicate to the Secretary of State an agreement among subscribers permitted by Article 2.30–2, but any such provision shall be preceded by a statement that the provision shall be subject to the corporation remaining a close corporation as defined by this Act;

(9) If a corporation elects to become a close corporation as defined and governed by this Act any provision required or permitted by this Act to be stated in articles of incorporation of a close corporation, or setting out in full or making a part of the articles of incorporation an agreement among subscribers permitted by Article 2.30–2, but any such provision shall be preceded by a statement that the provision shall be subject to the corporation remaining a close corporation as defined by this Act;

(10) Any provision, not inconsistent with law, including any provision which under this Act is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws, which the incorporators elect to set forth in the articles of incorporation for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation;

(12) The number of directors constituting the initial board of directors and the names and addresses of the person or persons who are to serve as directors until the first annual meeting of shareholders or until their successors be elected and qualify, or, in the case of a close corporation whose business and affairs are to be managed by its shareholders, the names and addresses of the person or persons who have subscribed for shares to be issued by the close corporation and who will perform the functions of the initial board of directors provided for by this Act;

(5) If the shares are to be divided into classes, the designation of each class and statement of the preferences, limitations, and relative rights in respect of the shares of each class;

(6) If the corporation is to issue the shares of any preferred or special class in series, then the designation of each series and a statement of the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between series insofar as the same are to be fixed in the articles of incorporation, and a statement of any authority to be vested in the board of directors to establish series and fix and determine the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between series;

(7) A statement that the corporation will not commence business until it has received for the issuance of shares consideration of the value of a stated sum which shall be at least One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), consisting of money, labor done, or property actually received;

(8) Any provision limiting or denying to shareholders the preemptive right to acquire additional or treasury shares of the corporation;

CHAPTER ONE. TEXAS MISCELLANEOUS CORPORATION LAWS ACT

PART TWO

Art. 1302-2.02. Notice by Firm

A. Whenever any banking, mercantile or other business firm desires to become incorporated without a change of firm name, such firm shall, in addition to the notice of dissolution required at Common Law, give notice of such intention to become incorporated for at least four (4) consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in the county in which such firm has its principal business office, if there be a newspaper in such county; and, if not, then in some newspaper published in some adjoining county; provided, however, that such notice shall only be published one (1) day in each week during the said four (4) weeks. Until such notice has been so published for the full period above-named, no change shall take place in the liability of such firm or the members thereof to those dealing with the firm or its members. It shall be a defense that a claimant had actual notice or knowledge of such incorporation.

Art. 1302-2.06. Consideration for Indebtedness; Guaranties

A. No corporation, domestic or foreign, doing business in this state shall create any indebtedness whatever except for money paid, labor done, which is reasonably worth at least the sum at which it was taken by the corporation, or property actually received, reasonably worth at least the sum at which it was taken by the corporation, subject to the provisions of Sections B and C of this Article. In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the Board of Directors or the shareholders, as the case may be, as to the value of the consideration received for any such indebtedness shall be conclusive.

B. Notwithstanding Section A of this Article, any corporation, domestic or foreign, doing business in this state shall have the power and authority to make a guaranty if the guaranty reasonably may be expected to benefit, directly or indirectly, the guarantor corporation. For purposes of this section and Section C of this Article, "guaranty" means a guaranty, mortgage, pledge, security agreement, or other agreement making the guarantor corporation or its assets responsible respecting the contracts, securities, or other obligations of any person (including, but not limited to, any domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, association, joint venture, or trust, but excluding any officer or director of such guarantor corporation). The decision of the Board of Directors that the guaranty may reasonably be expected to benefit, directly or indirectly, the guarantor corporation shall be binding upon the guarantor corporation, and no guaranty made by a corporation in accordance with the provisions of this Section B shall be invalid or unenforceable as against such corporation, unless such guaranty is sought to be enforced by a person who participated in a fraud on the guarantor corporation resulting in the making of the guaranty or by a person who had notice of such fraud before he acquired his rights under the guaranty. Nothing herein contained shall prevent a suit (1) prior to the making of a guaranty by a corporation, by a shareholder in a representative suit against the guarantor corporation, to enjoin the making of such guaranty on the ground that such guaranty could not reasonably be expected to benefit, directly or indirectly, the guarantor corporation, or (2) after the making of a guaranty by a corporation, by the guarantor corporation, whether acting directly or through a receiver, trustee, or other legal representative or through a shareholder in a representative suit, against the directors who voted for or assented to the making of such guaranty on the ground that such guaranty could not reasonably be expected to benefit, directly or indirectly, the guarantor corporation, but such directors shall be entitled to assert any defenses which they may have under law.

C. In addition to the power and authority granted in Section B of this Article, any domestic or foreign corporation doing business in the state has the power and authority to make a guaranty re-

   (b) through one or more of its subsidiary corporations; or
   (c) with one or more of its subsidiary corporations; and

(3) “affiliated corporation” means a corporation, 100 percent of whose outstanding shares are owned at the time of the action:
   (a) by the parent corporation of the guarantor corporation;
   (b) by one or more of the parent corporation’s subsidiary corporations; or
   (c) by the parent corporation and one or more of its subsidiary corporations.

D. Nothing in Section B or C of this Article is intended or shall be construed to limit or deny to any corporation, domestic or foreign, the right or power intended or shall be construed to limit or deny to any corporation, domestic or foreign, the right or power to do or perform any act which it is or may be empowered or authorized to do or perform under any other laws of the State of Texas now in force or hereafter enacted. Provided, however, Sections B and C of this Article shall not apply to nor enlarge the powers of any corporation, domestic or foreign, that does business pursuant to any provision of the Insurance Code of Texas, whether licensed in Texas or not, nor shall those sections allow or permit any corporation, not licensed under the Insurance Code of Texas, to engage in any character, type, class, or kind of fidelity, surety, or guaranty business or transaction subject to regulation under the Insurance Code.

A. All private corporations (except corporations that are organized under the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act and that are exempt from Federal income tax under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3), Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as now or hereafter amended, or under its successor statute) who are authorized by the laws of Texas to do business in this State and whose main purpose is not the acquisition or ownership of lands, which have or may acquire by lease, purchase, or otherwise, more land than is necessary to enable them to carry on their business, shall within fifteen (15) years from the date said land may be acquired, in good faith, sell and convey in fee simple all lands so acquired which are not necessary for the transaction of the business. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Part, it shall be lawful for such surplus lands to be conveyed and acquired by another corporation which may have among its purposes the acquisition, development and sale of such surplus lands, provided, however, that any such acquiring corporation shall in good faith sell and convey any such land on or before the expiration of the aforesaid fifteen-year period just as the conveying corporation would have had to do if it had not conveyed such land to such acquiring corporation, and if such acquiring corporation does not so convey such land on or before such time, it shall thereafter hold the same subject to the same forfeiture and escheat provisions provided for in this Part as though such lands were still held by the conveying corporation.

36 of this Act to file a report with the secretary of state fails to do so in the prescribed time, the secretary of state shall notify the association of the delinquency by registered letter mailed to its prin­cipal office within 60 days after the report becomes delinquent. If an association required by Section 36 of this Act to file a report at its registered office but not required to file a copy with the secretary of state fails to do so in the prescribed time, the secretary of state or any member may notify the association of the delinquency by registered letter mailed to its principal office.
(b) If the association fails to file the report within 60 days from the date of notice under Subsection (a) of this section, a member of the association or the attorney general may seek a writ of mandamus against the association and the appropriate officer or including attorney fees.

Sec. 4. Without limiting the general scope and application of Section 3 of this Act:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 4(1)]

(2) Each participating public entity and each participating private entity shall have the right and power to acquire, for the use and benefit of all participating entities, by purchase or through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, lands, easements, and properties for the purpose of jointly owned electric facilities, and shall have the power to transfer or convey such lands, easements, and properties, or interests therein, or otherwise to cause such lands, easements, and properties, or interests therein, to become vested in other participating entities to the extent and in the manner agreed between the participating entities. In all cases in which a participating entity exercises the right and power of eminent domain conferred hereby, it shall be controlled by the law governing the condemnation of property by incorporated cities and towns in this state, and the right and power of eminent domain hereby conferred shall include the right and power to take the fee title in land so condemned, except that no participating entity has the right or power to take by the exercise of the power of eminent domain any electric facilities, or interest therein, belonging to any other entity, or the power to take land or any interest therein, by exercise of the power of eminent domain, for the purpose of drilling for, mining, or producing from said land, any oil, gas, geothermal, geothermal/geopressed, lignite, coal, sulphur, uranium, plutonium, or other minerals belonging to another, whether the same be in place, or in the process of being mined and produced, or mined or produced. If a court of competent jurisdiction shall adjudge to be invalid or unconstitutional any clause, sentence, subsection or section of this Act, such judgment or decree shall not affect, impair, invalidate, or nullify the remainder of this Act, but the effect thereof shall be confined to the clause, sentence, subsection or section of this Act so adjudged to be invalid or unconstitutional.

poration, a political subdivision of the state, and body politic and corporate, to have and exercise all of the powers which are by Chapter 10 of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and this Act, conferred upon a public entity or entities, provided that such agency shall not be authorized to engage in any utility business other than generation, transmission, and sale or exchange of electric energy to the participating public entities and to private entities who are joint owners with the agency of an electric generating facility located within the state. A public entity, at the time of the passage of such concurrent ordinance, must be one which has the authority to and is engaged in the generation of electric energy for sale to the public upon the effective date of this Act, but such entity may thereafter dispose of its electric generating capabilities. Prior to the passage of a concurrent ordinance to create a joint powers agency, the governing body of each public entity shall cause notice of its intention to adopt such ordinance to be published once a week for two consecutive weeks, the date of the first publication to be at least 14 days prior to the date set for the passage of the concurrent ordinance. The notice shall state the date, time, and place such governing body proposes to pass such ordinance, and that upon the effective date of the concurrent ordinances, the public entities so adopting them shall have created a public powers agency. If, prior to the day set for the passage of a concurrent ordinance, 10 percent of the qualified electors of the particular public entity shall present a petition to such governing body requesting a referendum election be called, such ordinance shall not become effective until the qualified electors of such entity have approved such ordinance. The election shall be held in conformity with the Texas Election Code, the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and this Act. Except as herein provided, a concurrent ordinance shall not be subject to a referendum election.

(b) Public entities which establish a joint powers agency may, by concurrent ordinances, provide for the re-creation of such agency by the addition and deletion, either or both, of a public entity so long as there is no impairment of obligation of any existing obligation of the agency, provided that no agency may be re-created by the addition of a public entity from and after April 1, 1976, unless a majority of the participating qualified electors of the entity seeking to be added to the agency approve the same by a majority vote in an election called for that purpose. Notice of such election shall be given as provided by Article 704, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

c) Concurrent ordinances are ordinances or orders adopted by the governing bodies of more than one public entity which contain identical provisions with respect to the creation or re-creation of a public powers agency.

d) The public entities which create, or provide for re-creation by addition or deletion of a public entity, a joint powers agency shall by concurrent ordinances define the boundaries of the agency, to include the territory within the limits of such public entities, designate the name of the Municipal Power Agency, designate the number of directors (not less than four) that will constitute the board of directors of the agency and the initial term (so as to initially provide staggered terms) as may be agreed upon by the said public entities as evidenced by such concurrent ordinances, and specify the manner in which such directors shall be appointed, but in any event each public entity shall be entitled to appoint at least one director.

e) Directors shall serve by places and the concurrent ordinances shall specify the director for which place (and his successors) the governing body of the particular public entity may appoint. A director shall be a qualified elector and reside within the boundary of the agency at the time of execution of his constitutional oath of office. Directors shall serve without compensation, and an employee, officer, or member of the governing body of a public entity may serve as a director of the agency, but shall have no personal interest, other than as may exist as an employee or officer or member of the governing body of a public entity, in any contract executed by the agency.

(f) The agency is empowered to make contracts, leases, and agreements with, and accept grants and loans from, the United States of America, its departments and agencies, the State of Texas, its agencies, counties, municipalities, and political subdivisions, and public or private corporations and persons, and may generally perform all acts necessary for the full exercise of the powers vested in it; to participate through appropriate contracts in power pooling and power exchange arrangements with other entities either through direct or indirect system interconnections and each entity is given full authority to purchase electric energy from the agency or to sell, dispose of, or exchange electric energy to the agency. The agency may sell, lease, convey, or otherwise dispose of any of its rights, interests, or properties which are, in its judgment, not needed for the efficient operation and maintenance of its electric facilities. The responsibility of the management, operation, and control of the properties belonging to the agency shall be vested in the board of directors.
(g) Contracts for the sale or exchange of energy by the agency may be entered whereby the purchaser is obligated to pay for the same irrespective of whether such energy is produced or delivered to the purchaser. The agency is likewise empowered to establish and maintain rates and charges for energy delivered, transmitted, or exchanged, which shall be reasonable and in accordance with prudent utility practices. In the absence of a contract whereby a purchaser of energy waives such right, the rates and charges for power and energy sold or exchanged by the agency shall be based upon periodic "cost of service studies" and be subject to modification. The rates and charges schedule or contract payments shall be developed with regard to the recovery of the cost of producing and transmitting, if such service is performed, such electric power and energy, including the amortization of the capital investment.

(h) The State of Texas reserves its power to regulate and control such rates and charges for electric energy supplied by the electric facilities, but does hereby pledge to and agree with the purchasers and successive holders of the obligations issued hereunder that the state will not limit or alter the powers hereby vested in the agency to establish and collect such rates and charges as will produce revenues sufficient to pay for (1) all necessary operational and maintenance expenses, (2) all interest and principal on obligations issued by the agency, (3) all sinking funds and reserve fund payments, and (4) for any other charges necessary to fulfill the terms of any agreements theretofore made or in any way to impair the rights or remedies of the holders of the obligations, until the obligations, together with the interest thereon, with interest on unpaid installments of interest, and any other obligations of the agency in connection therewith, are fully met and discharged.

(i) To the payment of obligations issued by it, the agency may pledge the revenues of all or part of its electric facilities, including or not including those thereafter acquired, as the agency may determine, but the expense of operation and maintenance, including salaries, labor, materials, and repairs necessary to render efficient service, of the facilities whose revenues are so encumbered and pledged shall be a first lien on and charge against such revenues.

(j) The agency shall have the full power to issue revenue bonds or notes, herein sometimes referred to as obligations, from time to time for the accomplishment of its purposes within the interest rate limitations of Chapter 3, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969, as amended (Article 717k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and Chapter 784, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969 (Article 717k-3, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as presently enacted or hereafter amended.

(k) From the proceeds from the sale of obligations of the agency, the agency may provide amounts for payments into the interest and sinking fund and reserve funds, and for interest and operating expenses during construction and development, as may be specified in the authorizing proceedings. Bond proceeds may be invested pending their use for the purpose for which issued, in such securities or interest-bearing certificates or in time deposits as may be specified in such authorizing proceedings.

(l) Prior to delivery thereof, all obligations authorized to be issued hereunder and the records relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for examination, and if he finds that they have been issued in accordance with the constitution and this Act, and that they will be binding special obligations of the agency issuing same, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and after such approval and registration and the sale and delivery of the bonds or notes to the purchaser, they shall be incontestable.

(m) Refunding bonds or notes may be issued for the purposes and in the manner now or hereafter provided by general law, including, without limitation, Chapter 503, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, as amended (Article 717k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and Chapter 784, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969 (Article 717k–3, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as presently enacted or hereafter amended.

(n) All obligations issued by an agency pursuant to this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, and insurance companies and shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and such obligations shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of the principal amount thereof, or their value on the market, whichever is the lesser, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons, if any, appurtenant thereto.

(o) The agency may adopt, and from time to time amend, rules and regulations to govern the operation of the agency, its employees, facilities, and service, but contracts for the construction of improvements which involve the expenditure of more than $20,000 shall be awarded by the agency only after notice of intent to receive competitive bids has been published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the state, the date of the first publication being at least 14 days prior to the date set for the receipt of bids, but contracts awarded by another entity, which is a joint owner of the facilities to be constructed or an agent of any of the joint owners shall be let under its contracting procedures. An entity may negotiate and enter into contract for the purchase of electric energy from the agency and payments for such energy purchased shall be an operating expense of the electric system of the purchaser.

(p) The agency may elect to utilize the Uniform System of Accounts Prescribed For Utilities and Licenses prescribed by the Federal Power Commission.

(q) The bonds or notes shall be signed by the presiding officer or the assistant presiding officer of the agency, shall be attested by its secretary, and shall bear the seal of the agency. It is provided, however, that such signatures may be printed or lithographed on the bonds and notes if authorized by the agency, and such may be impressed on the bonds or notes or may be printed or lithographed thereon.

The agency may adopt or use for any purpose the signature of any person who shall have been an officer, notwithstanding the fact that he may have ceased to be such officer at the time when bonds or notes shall be delivered to a purchaser or purchasers. The bonds or notes shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed 50 years, from their respective dates of issuance, may be sold, within interest rate limitations therein provided, at a public or private sale at a price or under terms determined by the agency to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, within the discretion of the agency, may be made callable prior to maturity at such times and prices as approved by the agency, and may be in coupon form with or without provisions for registration as to principal or may be registrable as to both principal and interest.

(r) Bonds and notes issued under the provisions of this Act, and coupons, if any, representing interest thereon, when made payable from (i) revenues of the agency, or (ii) anticipated bond proceeds shall when delivered be deemed and construed to be a nonnegotiable purchase money notes, and the agency may covenant with the purchaser of bond anticipation notes that the proceeds of one or more particular series of bonds will be used to provide for the ultimate payment or refunding of such notes.

(s) This Act shall be liberally construed to carry out the purpose of its adoption and shall be in full and complete authority for the creation and operation of public powers agencies and the performance of the public duties imposed upon them. Insofar as this Act is inconsistent with any other laws, including Chapter 10 of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas,1925, as amended, or others regulating the affairs of municipal corporations, or with any home rule charter provisions, then the provisions of this Act shall control.

Art. 1435b. Joint Acquisition, Construction, and Operation of Electric Utility Facilities

Sec. 1. Two or more political subdivisions heretofore or hereafter created are authorized to join together to finance, construct, complete, acquire, or operate electric utility facilities so that the same (or an undivided interest therein) will be jointly owned as cotenants or coowners with such ownership shares in such facilities as may be approved by their governing bodies and set forth in an agreement authorized by said governing bodies. Such agreement may provide for any political subdivision to increase its present or future ownership share of the facilities by installment purchase payments and for any other political subdivision party to such agreement to transfer, in consideration of such installment purchase payments, all or any portion of its present or future ownership share of such facilities to the political subdivision, so increasing its present or future ownership share as aforesaid. Payments made to acquire an ownership interest shall not be treated as a maintenance and operating expense but shall be treated as a capital cost in the same manner as if such political subdivision had issued bonds to construct or acquire such ownership interest, unless otherwise set forth in the agreement of the parties.

1. Art. 1106 et seq.
2. Article 701 et seq.
4. Section 2 of the 1975 amendatory act provided:
   "Nothing in this Act shall be construed to violate any provision of the federal or state constitutions, and all acts done under this Act shall be in such manner as will conform thereto, whether expressly provided or not. Where any procedure hereunder may be held by any court to be violative of either of such constitutions, the agency shall have the power by resolution to provide an alternative procedure conformable with such constitutions. If any provision of this Act should be invalid, such fact shall not affect the validity of any other provisions of this Act, and the legislature hereby declares that it would have enacted the valid provisions of this Act notwithstanding the invalidity of any other provision or provisions hereof."
establishing an ownership interest in facilities (or undivided interest therein) executed pursuant to this Act shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas (in connection with any proceedings to finance said contractual obligation by the issuance of bonds) and when approved as to legality by such officer shall be incontestable.

Sec. 2. In the event the facilities financed, acquired, constructed, or completed constitute a part of a utility system or a combined utility system of a political subdivision, the obligation to make the said contract payments to acquire an ownership interest shall constitute a lien on the revenues of such system or combined system on a parity with outstanding bonds of such system or combined system to the extent permitted in the ordinance, resolution, deed of trust, or indenture authorizing or securing the payment of such outstanding bonds. In instances in which the ordinance, resolution, or deed of trust indenture authorizing or securing such revenue bonds (whether such bonds have been issued prior to the passage of this Act or may be hereafter issued) provides for the subsequent issuance of additional bonds or incurring of such contractual obligation and that the payments to be made for the security or payment thereof are to be on a parity with or of equal dignity to the previously issued revenue bonds (whether an original issue or a refunding issue) or bonds then to be issued, such entity shall have the power to authorize, issue, and sell additional bonds or incur such contractual obligation from time to time and in different series payable from the entire revenues of such system or combined systems on a parity with bonds previously issued or then to be issued and secured by a lien on the revenues of such system or combined systems on a parity with and of equal dignity with the lien securing the bonds previously issued or then to be issued, subject to such conditions as may be contained in the ordinance, resolution, deed of trust, or trust indenture providing for or securing such issue of original bonds or refunding bonds.

The pledge of revenues of a utility system or a combined utility system for the payment of such contract payments to acquire an ownership interest is hereby approved and authorized.

Sec. 3. The powers and authority granted by this Act shall be in addition to and in substitution for any powers and authority granted to political subdivisions under the laws of this state, and the exercise by any political subdivision of the powers and authority granted hereby and the performance or effectuation of any agreements entered into pursuant to the provisions hereof shall be deemed to constitute additional public purposes of such political subdivision (including the power to issue bonds, notes, or other obligations for the accomplishment of such purposes), notwithstanding the existence of any express or implied limitations of the powers, authority, or purposes under any other general or special laws or charter provisions.

As to municipal corporations, this law shall be given effect as though originally contained in Chapter 10 of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, so as to provide full authority for the execution of agreements contemplated by the provisions hereof, and this law shall prevail over any charter provisions or general or special law.

Sec. 4. All agreements heretofore executed by and between political subdivisions whereby the parties will jointly own electric utility facilities or whereby one political subdivision agrees to pay the other as a maintenance and operating expense of all or part of its utility systems for services supplied or to be supplied from facilities owned by the other are hereby validated, ratified, and confirmed provided that such agreements have been heretofore submitted to the Attorney General of Texas in connection with the issuance of bonds and are on file in the office of the comptroller of public accounts and provided further that such agreements are not in litigation upon the effective date of this Act.

Sec. 5. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, provision, or any part of the Act or any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, provision, or provision.

8. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Art. 1446c. Public Utility Regulatory Act

ARTICLE I. SHORT TITLE, LEGISLATIVE POLICY, AND DEFINITIONS

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be referred to as the "Public Utility Regulatory Act."

Legislative Policy and Purpose

Sec. 2. This Act is enacted to protect the public interest inherent in the rates and services of public utilities. The legislature finds that public utilities are by definition monopolies in the areas they serve; that therefore the normal forces of competition which operate to regulate prices in a free enterprise society do not operate; and that therefore utility rates, operations and services are regulated by public agencies, with the objective that such regulation shall operate as a substitute for such competition. The purpose of this Act is to establish a comprehensive regulatory system which is adequate to the task of regulating public utilities as defined by this Act, to assure rates, operations, and services which are just and reasonable to the consumers and to the utilities.

Definitions

Sec. 3. (a) The term “person,” when used in this Act, includes natural persons, partnerships of two or more persons having a joint or common interest, and mutual or cooperative associations and corporations, as herein defined.

(b) The term “municipality,” when used in this Act, includes cities and incorporated villages or towns existing, created, or organized under the general, home-rule, or special laws of the state.

ARTICLE II. ORGANIZATION OF COMMISSION

Creation of Commission; Appointment and Terms; Chairman

Sec. 5. A commission, to be known as the “Public Utility Commission of Texas” is hereby created. It shall consist of three commissioners, who shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of two-thirds of the members of the senate present, and who shall have and exercise the jurisdiction and powers herein conferred upon the commission. Immediately after this Act takes effect, the governor shall, with the advice and consent of the senate, appoint one commissioner whose term shall expire two years after appointment; one commissioner whose term shall expire four years after appointment; and one commissioner whose term shall expire six years after appointment. At the expiration of each of the above named terms, there shall be appointed, in the same manner, one commissioner to hold office for a term of six years. Each commissioner shall hold office until his successor is appointed and qualified. At its first meeting following the biennial appointment and qualification of a commissioner, the commission shall elect one of the commissioners chairman.

Application of Sunset Act

Qualifications; Oath and Bond; Prohibited Activities

Sec. 6. (a) To be eligible for appointment as a commissioner, a person must be a qualified voter, not less than 30 years of age, a citizen of the United States, and a resident of the State of Texas. No person is eligible for appointment as a commissioner if at any time during the two-year period immediately preceding his appointment he personally served as an officer, director, owner, employee, partner, or legal representative of any public utility or any affiliated interest, or he owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, stocks or bonds of any class with a value of $10,000, or more in a public utility or any affiliated interest. Each commissioner shall qualify for office by taking the oath prescribed for other state officers and shall execute a bond for $5,000 payable to the state and conditioned on the faithful performance of his duties.

(b) No commissioner or employee of the commission may do any of the following during his period of service with the commission and for two years thereafter:

(1) have any pecuniary interest, either as an officer, director, partner, owner, employee, attorney, consultant, or otherwise, in any public utility or affiliated interest, or in any person or corporation or other business entity a significant portion of whose business consists of furnishing goods or services to public utilities or affiliated interests, but not including a nonprofit group or association solely supported by gratuitous contributions of money, property or services;

(2) own or control any securities in a public utility or affiliated interest, either directly or indirectly;

(3) accept any gift, gratuity, or entertainment whatsoever from any public utility or affiliated interest, or from any person, corporation, agent, representative, employee, or other business entity a significant portion of whose business consists of furnishing goods or services to public utilities or affiliated interests, or from any agent, representative, attorney, employee, officer, owner, director, or partner of any such business entity or of any public utility or affiliated interest; provided, however, that the receipt and acceptance of any gifts, gratuities, or entertainment after termination of service with the commission whose cumulative value in any one-year period is less than $100 shall not constitute a violation of this Act.

(c) The prohibited activities of this section do not include contracts for public utility products and services or equipment for use of public utility products when a member or employee of the commission is acting as a consumer.

(d) No commissioner or employee of the commission may directly or indirectly solicit or request from or suggest or recommend to, any public utility, or to any agent, representative, attorney, employee, officer, owner, director, or partner thereof, the appointment to any position or the employment in any capacity of any person by such public utility or affiliated interest.

(e) No public utility or affiliated interest or any person, corporation, firm, association, or business that furnishes goods or services to any public utility or affiliated interest, nor any agent, representative, attorney, employee, officer, owner, director, or partner of any public utility or affiliated interest, or any person, corporation, firm, association, or business furnishing goods or services to any public utility or affiliated interest may give, or offer to give, any gift, gratuity, employment, or entertainment whatsoever to any member or employee of the commission except as allowed by Subdivision (3) of Subsection (b) of this section, nor may any such public utility or affiliated interest or any such person, corporation, firm, association, or business aid, abet, or participate with any member, employee, or former employee of the commission in any activity or conduct that would constitute a violation of this subsection or Subdivision (3) of Subsection (b) of this section.

(f) It shall not be a violation of this section if a member of the commission or a person employed by the commission, upon becoming the owner of any stocks or bonds or other pecuniary interest in a public utility or affiliated interest under the jurisdiction of the commission otherwise than voluntarily, informs the commission and the attorney general of such ownership and divests himself of the ownership or interest within a reasonable time. In this section, a “pecuniary interest” includes income, compensation and payment of any kind, in addition to ownership interests. It is not a violation of this section if such a pecuniary interest is held indirectly by ownership of an interest in a retirement system, institution, or fund which in the normal course of business invests in diverse securities independently of the control of the commissioner or employee.

(g) Unless specifically authorized by this Act for disposition of ex parte matters, no member or employee of the commission assigned to render a decision or to make findings of fact and conclusions of law in a proceeding may communicate, directly or indirectly, in connection with any issue of fact or law in a proceeding may communicate, directly or indirectly, in connection with any issue of fact or law with any party or his representative, except on notice and opportunity for all parties to participate.

(h) No member of the commission may seek nomination or election to any other civil office of the State of Texas or of the United States while he is a commissioner. If any member of the commission files for nomination for or election to any civil office of the State of Texas or of the United States, his office as commissioner immediately becomes vacant, and the governor shall appoint a successor.

Vacancies

Sec. 7. Whenever a vacancy in the office of commissioner occurs, it shall be filled in the manner provided herein with respect to the original appointment, except that the governor may make interim appointments to continue until the vacancy can be filled in the manner provided. The commission shall have a seal bearing the following inscription: “Public Utility Commission of Texas.” The seal shall be affixed to all records and authentications of copies of records and to such other instruments as the commission shall direct. All courts of this state shall take judicial notice of said seal.

Quorum

(a) Subject to the limitations imposed in this Act, and for the purpose of regulating rates and services so that such rates may be fair, just, and reasonable, and the services adequate and efficient, the governing body of each municipality shall have exclusive original jurisdiction over all electric, water, and sewer utility rates, operations, and services provided by an electric, water, and sewer utility within its city or town limits.

(b) At any time after two years have passed from the date this Act becomes effective, a municipality may elect to have the commission exercise exclusive original jurisdiction over electric, water, or sewer utility rates, operations, and services within the incorporated limits of the municipality. The governing body of a municipality may by ordinance elect to surrender its original jurisdiction to the commission, or the governing body may submit the question of the surrender to the qualified voters at a municipal election. Upon receipt of a petition signed by the lesser of 20,000 or ten percent of the number of qualified voters voting in the last preceding general election in that municipality, the governing body shall submit the question of the surrender of the municipality’s original jurisdiction to the commission at a municipal election.

(c) A municipality that surrenders its jurisdiction to the commission may at any time, by vote of the electorate, reinstate the jurisdiction of the governing body; provided, however, that any municipality which reinstates its jurisdiction shall be unable to surrender that jurisdiction for five years after the date of the election at which the municipality elected to reinstate its jurisdiction. No municipality may, by vote of the electorate, reinstate the jurisdiction of the governing body during the pendency of any case before the commission involving the municipality.

(d) The commission shall have exclusive appellate jurisdiction to review orders or ordinances of such municipalities as provided in this Act.

(e) The commission shall have exclusive original jurisdiction over electric, water, and sewer utility rates, operations, and services not within the incorporated limits of a municipality exercising exclusive original jurisdiction over those rates, operations, and services as provided in this Act.

Telecommunications Utilities

Sec. 18. Subject to the limitations imposed in this Act, and for the purpose of regulating rates and services so that such rates may be just, fair, and reasonable, and the services adequate and efficient, the commission shall have exclusive original jurisdiction over the business and property of all telecommunications utilities in this state.

Gas Utilities

Sec. 19. (a) Subject to the limitations imposed in this Act, and for the purpose of regulating rates and services so that such rates may be fair, just, and reasonable, and the services adequate and efficient, the governing body of each municipality shall have exclusive original jurisdiction over all gas utility rates, operations, and services provided by any gas utility within its city or town limits.

(b) The railroad commission shall have exclusive appellate jurisdiction to review all orders or ordinances of municipalities as provided in this Act. The railroad commission shall have exclusive original jurisdiction over the rates and services of gas utilities distributing natural gas or synthetic natural gas in areas outside the limits of municipalities, and it shall also have exclusive original jurisdiction over the rates and services of pipelines transmitting, transporting, delivering, or selling natural gas or synthetic natural gas to gas utilities engaged in distributing such gas to the public.

(c) The provisions of this Act shall be deemed to be in addition to all existing laws relating to the jurisdiction, power, or authority of the railroad commission over gas utilities and, except as specifically in conflict with this Act, such laws shall not be deemed to be limited hereby. Provisions of this Act applicable to gas utilities within the jurisdiction of the railroad commission shall apply to all such gas utilities, including those that are within the jurisdiction, power, or authority of the railroad commission by virtue of laws other than this Act.

Municipally Owned Utilities

Sec. 20. Nothing in this article shall be construed to confer on the commission or railroad commission power or jurisdiction to regulate or supervise the rates or service of any utility owned and operated by any municipality within its boundaries either directly or through a municipally owned corporation, or to affect or limit the power, jurisdiction, or duties of the municipalities that have elected to regulate and supervise public utilities within their boundaries, except as provided in this Act.

ARTICLE IV. MUNICIPALITIES

Franchises

Sec. 21. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as in any way limiting the rights and powers of a municipality to grant or refuse franchises to use the streets and alleys within its limits and to make the statutory charges for the use thereof, but no provision of any franchise agreement shall limit or interfere with any power conferred on the commission or railroad commission by this Act. If a municipality performs regulatory functions under this Act, it may make such other charges as may be provided in the applicable franchise agreement, together with any other charges permitted by this Act.

Local Utility Service; Exempt and Nonexempt Areas

Sec. 22. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, municipalities shall continue to regulate each kind of local utility service inside their boundaries until the commission has assumed jurisdiction over the respective utility pursuant to this Act. If a municipality does not surrender its jurisdiction, local utility service within the boundaries of the municipality shall be exempt from regulation by the commission under the provisions of this Act to the extent that this Act applies to local service, and the municipality shall have, regarding service within its boundaries, the right to exercise the same regulatory powers under the same standards and rules as the commission, or other standards and rules not inconsistent therewith. Notwithstanding any such election, the commission may consider a public utility’s revenues and return on investment in exempt areas in fixing rates and charges in nonexempt areas, and may also exercise the powers conferred necessary to give effect to orders under this Act, for the benefit of nonexempt areas. Likewise, in fixing rates and charges in the exempt area, the governing body may consider a public utility’s revenues and return on investment in nonexempt areas. Utilities serving exempt areas shall be subject to the reporting requirements of this Act. Such reports shall be filed with the governing body of the municipality as well as with the commission. Nothing in this section shall limit the duty and power of the commission to regulate service and rates of municipally regulated utilities for service provided to other areas in Texas.
Art. 1446c  TEXAS BUSINESS CORPORATION ACT 1242

Rate Determination

Sec. 23. Any municipality regulating its public utilities pursuant to this Act shall require from those utilities all necessary data to make a reasonable determination of rate base, expenses, investment, and rate of return within the municipal boundaries. The standards for such determination shall be based on the procedures and requirements of this Act and said municipality shall retain any and all personnel necessary to make the determination of reasonable rates required under this Act.

Authority of Governing Body; Cost Reimbursement

Sec. 24. The governing body of any municipality shall have the right to select and engage rate consultants, accountants, auditors, attorneys, engineers, or any combination thereof, to conduct investigations, present evidence, advise and represent the governing body, and assist with litigation on public utility ratemaking proceedings; and the public utility engaged in such proceedings shall be required to reimburse the governing body for the reasonable costs of such services.

Assistance by Commission or Railroad Commission

Sec. 25. The commission or the railroad commission may advise and assist municipalities upon request in connection with questions and proceedings arising under this Act. Such assistance may include aid to municipalities in connection with matters pending before the commission, the railroad commission, or the courts, or before the governing body of any municipality, including making members of the staff available as witnesses and otherwise providing evidence to them.

Appeal

Sec. 26. (a) Any party to a rate proceeding before the governing body of a municipality may appeal the decision of the governing body to the commission or railroad commission.

(b) Citizens of a municipality may appeal the decision of the governing body in any rate proceeding to the commission or railroad commission through the filing of a petition for review signed by the lesser of 20,000 or 10 percent of the number of qualified voters of such municipality.

(c) Ratepayers of a municipally owned gas or electric utility outside the municipal limits may appeal any action of the governing body affecting the rates of the municipally owned gas or electric utility through filing with the commission or railroad commission, as appropriate, petition for review signed by the lesser of 10,000 or 5 percent of the ratepayers served by such utility outside the municipal limits. For purposes of this subsection each person receiving a separate bill shall be considered as a ratepayer. But no person shall be considered as being more than one ratepayer notwithstanding the number of bills received. Such petition for review shall be considered properly signed if signed by any person, or spouse of any such person, in whose name residential utility service is carried.

(d) The appeal process shall be instituted within 30 days of the final decision by the governing body with the filing of a petition for review with the commission or railroad commission and copies served on all parties to the original rate proceeding.

(e) The commission or railroad commission shall hear such appeal de novo and by its final order shall fix such rates as the municipality should have fixed in the ordinance from which the appeal was taken.

ARTICLE V. RECORDS, REPORTS, INSPECTIONS, RATES AND SERVICES

Records of Public Utility; Rates, Methods and Accounts

Sec. 27. (a) Every public utility shall keep and render to the regulatory authority in the manner and form prescribed by the commission or railroad commission uniform accounts of all business transacted. The commission or railroad commission may also prescribe forms of books, accounts, records, and memoranda to be kept by such public utilities, including the books, accounts, records, and memoranda of the rendition of and capacity for service as well as the receipts and expenditures of moneys, and any other forms, records, and memoranda which in the judgment of the commission or railroad commission may be necessary to carry out any of the provisions of this Act. In the case of any public utility subject to regulations by a federal regulatory agency, compliance with the system of accounts prescribed for the particular class of utilities by such agency may be deemed a sufficient compliance with the system prescribed by the commission or railroad commission; provided, however, that the commission or railroad commission may prescribe forms of books, accounts, records, and memoranda prescribed by the commission or railroad commission for a public utility or class of utilities not conflict nor be inconsistent with the systems and forms established by a federal agency for that public utility or class of utilities.

(b) The commission or railroad commission shall fix proper and adequate rates and methods of depreciation, amortization, or depletion of the several classes of property of each public utility, and shall require every public utility to carry a proper and adequate depreciation account in accordance with such rates and methods and with such other rules and regulations as the commission or railroad commission prescribes. Such rates, methods, and accounts shall be utilized uniformly and consistently throughout the ratesetting and appeal proceedings.
(c) Every public utility shall keep separate accounts to show all profits or losses resulting from the sale or lease of appliances, fixtures, equipment, or other merchandise. No such profit or loss shall be taken into consideration by the regulatory authority in arriving at any rate to be charged for service by any such public utility, to the extent that such merchandise is not integral to the provision of utility service.

(d) Every public utility is required to keep and render its books, accounts, records, and memoranda accurately and faithfully in the manner and form prescribed by the commission or railroad commission, and to comply with all directions of the regulatory authority relating to such books, accounts, records, and memoranda. The regulatory authority may require the examination and audit of all accounts.

(e) In determining the allocation of tax savings derived from application of such methods as liberalized depreciation and amortization and the investment tax credit, the regulatory authority shall equitably balance the interests of present and future customers and shall apportion such benefits between consumers and the public utilities accordingly. Where any portion of the investment tax credit has been retained by a public utility, that same amount shall be deducted from the original cost of the facilities or other addition to the rate base to which the credit applied, to the extent allowed by the Internal Revenue Code.

(f) For the purposes of this section, "public utility" includes "municipally owned utility."

Powers of Commission and Railroad Commission

Sec. 28. (a) The commission and the railroad commission shall have the power to:

(1) require that public utilities report to it such information relating to themselves and affiliated interests both within and without the State of Texas as it may consider useful in the administration of this Act;

(2) establish forms for all reports;

(3) determine the time for reports and the frequency with which any reports are to be made;

(4) require that any reports be made under oath;

(5) require that a copy of any contract or arrangement between any public utility and any affiliated interest be filed with it. It may require any such contract or arrangement not in writing to be reduced to writing and filed with it;

(6) require that a copy of any report filed with any federal agency or any governmental agency or body of any other state be filed with it; and

(7) require that a copy of annual reports showing all payments of compensation (other than salary or wages subject to the withholding of federal income tax) to residents of Texas, or with respect to legal, administrative, or legislative matters in Texas, or for representation before the Texas Legislature or any governmental agency or body.

(b) On the request of the governing body of any municipality, the commission or railroad commission may provide sufficient staff members to advise and consult with such municipality on any pending matter.

Inspections; Examination Under Oath; Compelling Production of Records; Inquiry into Management and Affairs

Sec. 29. (a) Any regulatory authority, and when authorized by the regulatory authority, its counsel, agents, and employees, shall have the right, at reasonable times and for reasonable purposes, to inspect and obtain copies of the papers, books, accounts, documents, and other business records, and to inspect the plant, equipment, and other property of any public utility within its jurisdiction. The regulatory authority may examine under oath, or it may authorize the person conducting such investigation to examine under oath, any officer, agent, or employee of any public utility in connection with such investigation. The regulatory authority may require, by order or subpoena served on any public utility, the production within this state at the time and place it may designate, of any books, accounts, papers, or records kept by that public utility outside the state, or verified copies in lieu thereof if the commission or railroad commission so orders. Any public utility failing or refusing to comply with any such order or subpoena is in violation of this Act.

(b)(1) A member, agent, or employee of the regulatory authority may enter the premises occupied by a public utility to make inspections, examinations, and tests and to exercise any authority provided by this Act.

(2) A member, agent, or employee of the regulatory authority may act under this section only during reasonable hours and after giving reasonable notice to the utility.

(3) The public utility is entitled to be represented when inspections, examinations, and tests are made on its premises. Reasonable time for the utility to secure a representative shall be allowed before commencing an inspection, examination, or test.

(c) The regulatory authority may inquire into the management and affairs of all public utilities, and shall keep itself informed as to the manner and method in which the same are conducted.
Art. 1446c  TEXAS BUSINESS CORPORATION ACT 1244

Reporting of Advertising or Public Relations Expenses

Sec. 30. The regulatory authority may require an annual reporting from each utility company of all its expenditures for business gifts and entertainment, and institutional, consumption-inducing and other advertising or public relations expenses. The regulatory authority shall not allow as costs or expenses for rate-making purposes any of these expenditures which the regulatory authority determines not to be in the public interest. The cost of legislative-advocacy expenses shall not in any case be allowed as costs or expenses for rate-making purposes. Reasonable charitable or civic contributions may be allowed not to exceed the amount approved by the regulatory authority.

Unlawful Rates, Rules and Regulations

Sec. 31. It shall be unlawful for any utility to charge, collect, or receive any rate for public utility service or to impose any rule or regulation other than as herein provided.

Filing Schedule of Rates, Rules and Regulations

Sec. 32. Every public utility shall file with each regulatory authority schedules showing all rates which are subject to the original or appellate jurisdiction of the regulatory authority and which are in force at the time for any public utility service, product, or commodity offered by the utility. Every public utility shall file with, and as a part of such schedules, all rules and regulations relating to or affecting the rates, public utility service, product, or commodity furnished by such utility.

Office of Public Utility; Records; Removal From State

Sec. 33. Every public utility shall have an office in a county of this state in which its property or some part thereof is located in which it shall keep all books, accounts, records, and memoranda required by the commission or railroad commission to be kept in the state. No books, accounts, records, or memoranda required by the regulatory authority to be kept in the state shall be removed from the state, except on conditions prescribed by the commission or railroad commission.

Communications by Public Utilities With Regulatory Authority; Regulations and Records

Sec. 34. (a) The regulatory authority shall prescribe regulations governing communications by public utilities, their affiliates and their representatives, with the regulatory authority or any member or employee of the regulatory authority.

(b) Such records shall contain the name of the person contacting the regulatory authority or member or employee of the regulatory authority, the name of the business entities represented, a brief description of the subject matter of the communication, and the action, if any, requested by the public utility, affiliate, or representative. These records shall be available to the public on a monthly basis.

Standards of Service

Sec. 35. (a) Every public utility shall furnish such service, instrumentalities, and facilities as shall be safe, adequate, efficient, and reasonable.

(b) The regulatory authority after reasonable notice and hearing had on its own motion or on complaint, may ascertain and fix just and reasonable standards, classifications, regulations, or practices to be observed and followed by any or all public utilities with respect to the service to be furnished; ascertain and fix adequate and reasonable standards for the measurement of the quantity, quality, pressure, initial voltage, or other condition pertaining to the supply of the service; prescribe reasonable regulations for the examination and testing of the service and for the measurement thereof; and establish or approve reasonable rules, regulations, specifications, and standards to secure the accuracy of all meters, instruments and equipment used for the measurement of any service of any public utility. Any standards, classifications, regulations, or practices now or hereafter observed or followed by any public utility may be filed by it with the regulatory authority, and the same shall continue in force until amended by the public utility or until changed by the regulatory authority as herein provided.

Examination and Test of Equipment

Sec. 36. (a) The regulatory authority may examine and test any meter, instrument, or equipment used for the measurement of any service of any public utility and may enter any premises occupied by any public utility for the purpose of making such examinations and tests and exercising any power provided for in this Act and may set up and use on such premises any apparatus and appliances necessary therefor. The public utility shall have the right to be represented at the making of the examinations, tests, and inspections. The public utility and its officers and employees shall facilitate the examinations, tests, and inspections by giving every reasonable aid to the regulatory authority and any person or persons designated by the regulatory authority for the duties aforesaid.

(b) Any consumer or user may have any meter or measuring device tested by the utility once without charge, after a reasonable period to be fixed by the regulatory authority by rule, and at shorter intervals on payment of reasonable fees fixed by the regulatory authority. The regulatory authority shall declare and establish reasonable fees to be paid for other examining and testing such meters and other measuring devices on the request of the consumer. If the test is requested to be made within the period of presumed accuracy as fixed by the regulatory authority since the last such test of the same meter or other measuring device, the fee to be paid by the consumer or user at the time of his request shall be refunded to the consumer or user if the meter or measuring device is found unreasonably defective or incorrect to the substantial disadvantage of the consumer or user. If the consumer's request is made at a time beyond the period of presumed accuracy fixed by the regulatory authority since the last such test of the same meter or measuring device, the utility shall make the test without charge to the consumer or user.

ARTICLE VI. PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE REGULATORY AUTHORITY

Power to Insure Compliance; Rate Regulation

Sec. 37. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the commission or railroad commission is hereby vested with all authority and power of the State of Texas to insure compliance with the obligations of public utilities in this Act. For this purpose the regulatory authority is empowered to fix and regulate rates of public utilities, including rules and regulations for determining the classification of customers and services and for determining the applicability of rates. No rule or order of the regulatory authority shall be in conflict with the rulings of any federal regulatory body.

Just and Reasonable Rates

Sec. 38. It shall be the duty of the regulatory authority to insure that every rate made, demanded, or received by any public utility, or by any two or more public utilities jointly, shall be just and reasonable. Rates shall not be unreasonably preferential, prejudicial, or discriminatory, but shall be sufficient, equitable, and consistent in application to each class of consumers. For ratemaking purposes, the commission or railroad commission may treat two or more municipalities served by a public utility as a single whole wherever the commission or railroad commission deems such treatment to be appropriate.

Fixing Overall Revenues

Sec. 39. In fixing the rates of a public utility the regulatory authority shall fix its overall revenues at a level which will permit such utility to recover its operating expenses together with a reasonable return on its invested capital.

Fair Return; Burden of Proof

Sec. 40. (a) The regulatory authority shall not prescribe any rate which will yield more than a fair return upon the adjusted value of the invested capital used and useful in rendering service to the public.

(b) In any proceeding involving any proposed change of rates, the burden of proof to show that the proposed change, if proposed by the utility, or that the existing rate, if it is proposed to reduce the rate, is just and reasonable shall be on the public utility.

Components of Adjusted Value of Invested Capital and Net Income

Sec. 41. The components of adjusted value of invested capital and net income shall be determined according to the following rules:

(a) Adjusted Value of Invested Capital. Utility rates shall be based upon the adjusted value of property used by and useful to the public utility in providing service including where necessary to the financial integrity of the utility construction work in progress at cost as recorded on the books of the utility. The adjusted value of such property shall be a reasonable balance between original cost less depreciation and current cost less an adjustment for both present age and condition. The regulatory authority shall have the discretion to determine a reasonable balance that reflects not less than 60% nor more than 75% original cost, that is, the actual money cost, or the actual money value of any consideration paid other than money, of the property at the time it shall have been dedicated to public use, whether by the utility which is the present owner or by a predecessor, less depreciation, and not less than 25% nor more than 40% current cost less an adjustment for both present age and condition. The regulatory authority may consider inflation, deflation, quality of service being provided, the growth rate of the service area, and the need for the public utility to attract new capital in determining a reasonable balance.

(b) Separations and Allocations. Costs of facilities, revenues, expenses, taxes, and reserves shall be separated or allocated as prescribed by the regulatory authority.

(c) Net Income. By "net income" is meant the total revenues of the public utility less all reasonable and necessary expenses as determined by the regulatory authority. The regulatory authority shall determine expenses and revenues in a manner consistent with the following:

1. Transactions with Affiliated Interests. Payment to affiliated interests for costs of any services, or any property, right or thing, or for interest expenses shall not be allowed either as capital cost or as expense except to the extent that the regulatory authority shall find such payment to be reasonable. Any such finding of reasonableness shall include specific statements setting forth the cost to the affiliate of each item or class of items in question and a finding that the price to the utility is no higher than prices charged by the supplying affiliate to its other affiliates or divisions for the same item or items, or to unaffiliated persons or corporations.
Art. 1446c TEXAS BUSINESS CORPORATION ACT 1246

(2) Income Taxes. If the public utility is a member of an affiliated group that is eligible to file a consolidated income tax return, and if it is advantageous to the public utility to do so, income taxes shall be computed as though a consolidated return had been so filed and the utility had realized its fair share of the savings resulting from the consolidated return, unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the regulatory authority that it was reasonable to choose not to consolidate returns. The amounts of income taxes saved by a consolidated group of which a public utility is a member by reason of the elimination in the consolidated return of the intercompany profit on purchases by the public utility from an affiliate shall be applied to reduce the cost of the property or services so purchased. The investment tax credit allowed against federal income taxes, to the extent retained by the utility, shall be applied as a reduction in the rate based contribution of the assets to which such credit applies, to the extent and at such rate as allowed by the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) Expenses Disallowed. The regulatory authority may promulgate reasonable rules and regulations with respect to the allowance or disallowance of certain expenses for ratemaking purposes.

Unreasonable or Violative Existing Rates; Investigating Costs of Obtaining Service from Another Source

Sec. 42. Whenever the regulatory authority, after reasonable notice and hearing, on its own motion or on complaint by any affected person, finds that the existing rates of any public utility for any service are unreasonable or in any way in violation of any provision of law, the regulatory authority shall determine the just and reasonable rates, including maximum or minimum rates, to be thereub after observed and in force, and shall fix the same by order to be served on the public utility; and such rates shall constitute the legal rates of the public utility until changed as provided in this Act. Whenever a public utility does not itself produce or generate that which it distributes, transmits, or furnishes to the public for compensation, but obtains the same from another source, the regulatory authority shall have the power and authority to investigate the cost of such production or generation in any investigation of the reasonableness of the rates of such public utility.

Statement of Intent to Change Rates; Major Changes; Hearing; Suspension of Rate Schedule; Determination of Rate Level

Sec. 43. (a) No utility may make changes in its rates except by filing a statement of intent with the regulatory authority having original jurisdiction at least 35 days prior to the effective date of the proposed change. The statement of intent shall include proposed revisions of tariffs and schedules and a statement specifying in detail each proposed change, the effect the proposed change is expected to have on the revenues of the company, the classes and numbers of utility consumers affected, and such other information as may be required by the regulatory authority's rules and regulations. A copy of the statement of intent shall be mailed or delivered to the appropriate officer of each affected municipality, and notice shall be given by publication in conspicuous form and place of a notice to the public of such proposed change once in each week for four successive weeks in a newspaper having general circulation in each county containing territory affected by the proposed change, and to such other affected persons as may be required by the regulatory authority's rules and regulations.

(b) The regulatory authority, for good cause shown, may, except in the case of major changes, allow changes in rate to take effect prior to the end of such 35 day period under such conditions as it may prescribe, subject to suspension as provided herein. All such changes shall be indicated immediately upon its schedules by such utility. "Major changes" shall mean an increase in rates which would increase the aggregate revenues of the applicant more than the greater of $100,000 or two and one-half percent, but shall not include changes in rates allowed to go into effect by the regulatory authority or made by the utility pursuant to an order of the regulatory authority after hearings held upon notice to the public.

(c) Whenever there is filed with the Regulatory Authority any schedule modifying or resulting in a change in any rates then in force, the Regulatory Authority shall on complaint by any affected person or may on its own motion, at any time within 30 days from the date when such change would or has become effective, and, if it so orders, without answer or other formal pleading by the utility, but on reasonable notice, including notice to the governing bodies of all affected municipalities and counties, enter on a hearing to determine the propriety of such change. The Regulatory Authority shall hold such a hearing in every case in which the change constitutes a major change in rates, provided that an informal proceeding may satisfy this requirement if no complaint has been received before the expiration of 45 days after notice of the change shall have been filed.

(d) Pending the hearing and decision, the Regulatory Authority, after delivery to the affected utility of a statement in writing of its reasons therefor, may suspend the operation of the schedule for a period not to exceed 120 days beyond the date on which the schedule of rates would otherwise go into effect. If the Regulatory Authority finds that a longer time will be required for a final determination, the Regulatory Authority may further extend the period for an additional 30 days. If the Regulatory Authority does not make a final determination concerning any schedule of rates within a period of 150 days after the time when the schedule of rates would otherwise go into effect, the schedule shall be deemed to have been approved by the Regulatory Authority. This approval is subject to the authority of the Regulatory Authority thereafter to continue a hearing in progress. The Regulatory Authority may in its discretion fix temporary rates for any period of suspension under this section. During the suspension by the Regulatory Authority as above provided, the rates in force when the suspended schedule was filed shall continue in force unless the Regulatory Authority shall establish a temporary rate. The Regulatory Authority shall give preference to the hearing and decision of questions arising under this section over all other questions pending before it and decide the same as speedily as possible.

(e) If the regulatory authority fails to make its final determination of rates within 90 days from the date that the proposed change otherwise would have gone into effect, the utility concerned may put a changed rate, not to exceed the proposed rate, into effect upon the filing with the regulatory authority of a bond payable to the regulatory authority in an amount and with sureties approved by the regulatory authority conditioned upon refund and in a form approved by the regulatory authority. The utility concerned shall refund or credit against any schedule of rates within a period of days after the time when the schedule of rates would otherwise go into effect, the schedule shall be deemed to have been approved by the Regulatory Authority. This approval is subject to the authority of the Regulatory Authority thereafter to continue a hearing in progress. The Regulatory Authority may in its discretion fix temporary rates for any period of suspension under this section. During the suspension by the Regulatory Authority as above provided, the rates in force when the suspended schedule was filed shall continue in force unless the Regulatory Authority shall establish a temporary rate. The Regulatory Authority shall give preference to the hearing and decision of questions arising under this section over all other questions pending before it and decide the same as speedily as possible.

(f) If, after hearing, the Regulatory Authority finds the rates to be unreasonable or in any way in violation of any provision of law, the Regulatory Authority shall determine the level of rates to be charged or applied by the utility for the service in question and shall fix the same by order to be served upon the utility; these rates are thereafter to be observed until changed, as provided by this Act.

Sec. 44. Public utility rates for areas not within any municipality shall not exceed without commission or railroad commission approval 115 percent of the average of all rates for similar services of all municipalities served by the same utility within the same county.

Sec. 45. No public utility may, as to rates or services, make or grant any unreasonable preference or advantage to any corporation or person within any classification, or subject any corporation or person within any classification to any unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage. No public utility may establish and maintain any unreasonable differences as to rates of service either as between localities or as between classes of service.

Sec. 46. No public utility may, directly or indirectly, by any device whatsoever or in any manner, charge, demand, collect, or receive from any person a greater or less compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered by the utility than that prescribed in the schedule of rates of the public utility applicable thereto when filed in the manner provided in this Act, nor may any person knowingly receive or accept any service from a public utility for a compensation greater or less than that prescribed in the schedules, provided that all rates being charged and collected by a public utility upon the effective date of this Act may be continued until schedules are filed. Nothing in this Act shall prevent a cooperative corporation from returning to its members the whole, or any part of, the net earnings resulting from its operations in proportion to their purchases from or through the corporation.

Sec. 47. No public utility may discriminate against any person or corporation that sells or leases equipment or performs services in competition with the public utility, nor may any public utility engage in any other practice that tends to restrict or impair such competition.

Sec. 48. No payments made in lieu of taxes by a public utility to the municipality by which it is owned may be considered an expense of operation for the purpose of determining, fixing, or regulating the rates to be charged for the provision of utility service to a school district or hospital district. No rates received by a public utility from a school district or hospital district may be used to make or to cover the cost of making payments in lieu of taxes to the municipality by which the public utility is owned.

ARTICLE VII. CERTIFICATES OF CONVENIENCE AND NECESSITY

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this article no retail public utility may furnish, make available, render, or extend retail public utility service to any area to which retail utility service is being lawfully furnished by another retail public utility on or after the effective date of this Act, without first having obtained a certificate of public convenience and necessity that includes the area in which the consuming facility is located.

Exceptions for Extension of Service
Sec. 51. (a) A public utility is not required to secure a certificate of public convenience and necessity for:

(1) an extension into territory contiguous to that already served by it and not receiving similar service from another public utility and not within the area of public convenience and necessity of another utility of the same kind;

(2) an extension within or to territory already served by it or to be served by it under a certificate of public convenience and necessity; or

(3) operation, extension, or service in progress on the effective date of this Act.

(b) Any extensions allowed by Subsection (a) of this section shall be limited to devices for interconnection of existing facilities or devices used solely for transmitting public utility services from existing facilities to customers of retail utility service.

Application; Maps; Evidence of Consent
Sec. 52. (a) A public utility shall submit to the commission an application to obtain a certificate of public convenience and necessity or an amendment thereof.

(b) On or before 90 days after the effective date of this Act, or at a later date on request in writing by a public utility when good cause is shown, or at such later dates as the commission may order, each public utility shall file with the commission a map or maps showing all its facilities and illustrating separately facilities for generation, transmission, and distribution of its services.

(c) Each applicant for a certificate shall file with the commission such evidence as is required by the commission to show that the applicant has received the required consent, franchise, or permit of the proper municipality or other public authority.

Prior Construction or Operation
Sec. 53. On application made to the commission within six months after the effective date of this Act, the commission shall issue a certificate of public convenience and necessity for the construction or operation then being conducted to any public utility actually providing service to any geographical area on the effective date of this Act, or to any person or corporation actively engaged on the effective date of this Act in the construction, installation, extension, or improvement of, or addition to, any facility or system used or to be used in providing public utility service.

Notice and Hearing; Issuance or Refusal; Factors Considered
Sec. 54. (a) When an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity is filed, the commission shall give notice of such application to interested parties and, if requested, shall fix a time and place for a hearing and give notice of the hearing. Any person interested in the application may intervene at the hearing.

(b) Except for certificates for prior operations granted under Section 53, the commission may grant applications and issue certificates only if the commission finds that the certificate is necessary for the service, accommodation, convenience, or safety of the public. The commission may issue the certificate as prayed for, or refuse to issue it, or issue it for the construction of a portion only of the contemplated system or facility or extension thereof, or for the partial exercise only of the right or privilege.

(c) Certificates of convenience and necessity shall be granted on a nondiscriminatory basis after consideration by the commission of the adequacy of existing service, the need for additional service, the effect of the granting of a certificate on the recipient of the certificate and on any public utility of the same kind already serving the proximate area, and on such factors as community values, recreational and park areas, historical and aesthetic values, environmental integrity, and the probable improvement of service or lowering of cost to consumers in such area resulting from the granting of such certificate.

Area Included Within City, Town or Village
Sec. 55. (a) If an area has been or shall be included within the boundaries of a city, town, or village as the result of annexation, incorporation, or otherwise, all public utilities certified or entitled to certification under this Act to provide service or operate facilities in such area prior to the inclusion shall have the right to continue and extend service in its area of public convenience and necessity within the annexed or incorporated area, pursuant to the rights granted by its certificate and this Act.
(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a public utility shall have the right to continue and extend service within its area of public convenience and necessity and to utilize the roads, streets, highways, alleys, and public property for the purpose of furnishing such retail utility service, subject to the authority of the governing body of a municipality to require any public utility, at its own expense, to relocate its facilities to permit the widening or straightening of streets by giving to the public utility 30 days' notice and specifying the new location for the facilities along the right-of-way of the street or streets.

(c) This section may not be construed as limiting the power of cities, towns, and villages to incorporate or extend their boundaries by annexation, nor may this section be construed as prohibiting any city or town from levying taxes and other special charges for the use of the streets as are authorized by Article 11.03, Title 122A, Taxation-General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

Contracts Valid and Enforceable

Sec. 56. Contracts between retail public utilities designating areas to be served and customers to be served by those utilities, when approved by the commission, shall be valid and enforceable and shall be incorporated into the appropriate areas of public convenience and necessity.

Preliminary Order for Certificate

Sec. 57. If a public utility desires to exercise a right or privilege under a franchise or permit which it contemplates securing but which has not as yet been granted to it, such public utility may apply to the commission for an order preliminary to the issuance of the certificate. The commission may thereupon make an order declaring that it will, on application, under such rules as it prescribes, issue the desired certificate on such terms and conditions as it designates, after the public utility has obtained the contemplated franchise or permit. On presentation to the commission of evidence satisfactory to it that the franchise or permit has been secured by the public utility, the commission shall issue the certificate.

Continuous and Adequate Service; Discontinuance, Reduction or Impairment of Service

Sec. 58. (a) The holder of any certificate of public convenience and necessity shall serve every consumer within its certified area and shall render continuous and adequate service within the area or areas.

- (1) nonpayment of charges;
- (2) nonuse; or
- (3) other similar reasons in the usual course of business.

(c) Any discontinuance, reduction, or impairment of service, whether with or without approval of the commission, shall be in conformity with and subject to such conditions, restrictions, and limitations as the commission shall prescribe.

Sale, Assignment or Lease of Certificate

Sec. 59. If the commission determines that a purchaser, assignee, or lessee is capable of rendering adequate service, a public utility may sell, assign, or lease a certificate of public convenience and necessity or any rights obtained under the certificate. The sale, assignment, or lease shall be on the conditions prescribed by the commission.

Interference with Other Public Utility

Sec. 60. If a public utility in constructing or extending its lines, plant, or system interferes or attempts to interfere with the operation of a line, plant, or system of any other public utility, the commission may issue an order prohibiting the construction or extension or prescribing terms and conditions for locating the lines, plants, or systems affected.

Improvements in Service; Interconnecting Service; Extended Area Toll-free Telephone Service

Sec. 61. After notice and hearing, the commission may:

- (2) order two or more public utilities to establish specified facilities for the interconnecting service; and
- (3) order a telephone company or telephone companies to provide extended area toll-free service within a specified metropolitan area where there is a sufficient community of interest within the area and such service can reasonably be provided.

On the filing of a report with the commission or railroad commission, the commission or railroad commission shall investigate the same with or without public hearing, to determine whether the action is consistent with the public interest. In reaching its determination, the commission or railroad commission shall take into consideration the reasonable value of the property, facilities, or securities to be acquired, disposed of, merged or consolidated. If the commission or railroad commission finds that such transactions are not in the public interest, the commission or railroad commission shall take the effect of the transaction into consideration in the rate-making proceedings and disallow the effect of such transaction if it will unreasonably affect rates or service. The provisions of this section shall not be construed as being applicable to the purchase of units of property for replacement or to the addition to the facilities of the public utility by construction.

Sec. 3. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the Public Utility Commission of Texas shall promulgate rules, regulations, and standards under which any owner, operator, or manager of an apartment house which is not individually metered for electricity for each dwelling unit may install submetering equipment for each individual dwelling unit for the purpose of fairly allocating the cost of each individual dwelling unit's electrical consumption. (c) Instead of electing all the directors annually, the by-laws may provide that the directors, other than those named in the articles of incorporation to serve until the first annual meeting of the members, shall be elected by the members for a term not to exceed three (3) years. If a term other than one (1) year is provided by the by-laws, then a staggered term will be provided with one-half (½) of the directors (or the number nearest thereto) being elected annually when a two (2) year term is provided, and one-third (⅓) of the directors (or the number nearest thereto) being elected annually when a three (3) year term is provided. Thereafter, as directors' terms expire, the members shall elect their successors to serve until the second or third succeeding annual meeting after their election.

Art. 1.01–1. Election Code Revision Commission

Text of article effective until May 29, 1979

Sec. 1. (a) There is created the Texas Election Code Revision Commission, composed of the following members:

1. the secretary of state, as an ex officio member, who shall be chairman of the commission;
2. the chairman of the house committee on elections and the chairman of the subcommittee on elections of the senate committee on state affairs, as ex officio members, who shall be joint vice-chairmen;
3. one member of the senate, chosen by the lieutenant governor;
4. one member of the house of representatives, chosen by the speaker;
5. one member of the legal staff of the attorney general’s office, chosen by the attorney general;
6. the president, or a person designated by the president, of each of the following organizations: the State Bar of Texas, the Association of County and District Clerks of Texas, the Association of Tax Assessor-Collectors of Texas, and the Association of City Clerks and Secretaries of Texas;
7. the state chairman, or a person designated by the chairman, of each political party that will be required to make nominations by primary elections in 1978; and
8. two citizens of the state, chosen by the governor.

(b) Each person who is a member of the commission as originally constituted, except the ex officio members, may continue to serve until the commission is dissolved, regardless of any change in status that removes the member from the office or class of officers he represents. Any vacancy on the committee shall be filled in the same manner as in the original membership, by the person holding the position, at the time the vacancy is to be filled, which entitles him to serve as a member or to designate a member.

(c) A majority of the members of the commission constitutes a quorum. The chairman and vice-chairmen, whether presiding or not, are entitled to vote on any question before the commission.

Preparation of revision

Sec. 2. The commission shall cause to be prepared a proposed draft of a complete revision of the present Texas Election Code, in a format complying with the rules which have been adopted for implementation of the statutory revision program authorized by Chapter 448, Acts of the 58th Legislature, 1963 (Article 5429b-1, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes). The commission is authorized to incorporate into the draft any changes (including substantive changes) which in its opinion are needed to eliminate conflicts within the code itself or between the code and other statutes of the state, to clarify vague and ambiguous provisions in the code, or to improve the elective processes and procedures which are regulated by the code.

Texas Legislative Council services

Sec. 3. The Texas Legislative Council shall furnish the staff, printing, postage, and other services needed by the commission for the performance of its work.

Organization; meetings and hearings; committee; advisory panels

Sec. 4. (a) As soon as practicable after this Act takes effect and the composition of the commission is completed, the commission shall meet at the call of the chairman for the purpose of organizing and promulgating the rules of procedure by which it will function. Subsequent meetings shall be called by the chairman after consultation with the vice-chairmen.

(b) The commission may hold meetings and conduct hearings anywhere within the state. It is authorized to create committees and subcommittees and to delegate to them or to individual members the authority to conduct hearings and to make other investigations for the purpose of developing information on topics under consideration by the commission.

c) The commission is directed to encourage the various organizations represented on the commission, and such other organizations as it sees fit, to form advisory panels of their own members to work with the commission through the organization's representative on the commission or a representative designated by the organization for that purpose.

Proposed draft; dissolution of commission

Sec. 5. (a) The commission is directed to complete its work before the convening of the 66th Legislature and to submit its proposed draft to the 66th Legislature, along with a complete and detailed report of all substantive changes which are embodied in the draft and a table showing the disposition of the existing provisions of the Election Code in the draft.

(b) The commission may continue in existence until the completion of the regular session of the 66th Legislature to assist and advise that body in the consideration of the proposed draft. It is dissolved by operation of law upon expiration of the regular session if it has not been dissolved by the affirmative vote of a majority of its members before that time.

Reimbursement for expenses

Sec. 6. Members of the commission shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary travel expenses incurred in carrying out the purposes of this Act. Reimbursement to the secretary of state and to the staff member of the attorney general's office shall be paid from the appropriations to those offices. Legislative members shall be reimbursed from the expense fund of the house of the legislature in which they serve. Reimbursement to all other members of the commission shall be paid from the expense fund of the house and the contingent expense fund of the senate equally, not to exceed $6,000 from each fund.

Expiration of Act

Sec. 7. This Act expires on May 29, 1979. However, its expiration does not affect the payment of claims arising under the Act which are still unpaid at the time it expires.

[Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 880, ch. 331, §§ 1 to 7, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Article 1.01–1 was not enacted as part of the Election Code of 1951.

Art. 1.03. Secretary of State as Chief Election Officer

Subd. 2. At least 35 days before each general election for state and county officers, the Secretary of State shall prescribe forms of all blanks necessary under this code and shall furnish same to each county clerk. The Secretary of State shall at the same time certify to each county clerk a list of all the candidates who have been nominated for state and district offices and all other candidates whose names have been certified to the Secretary of State to be placed on the general election ballot.

Subd. 3. Upon petition of fifteen or more resident citizens of any one county to the Secretary of State, the Secretary of State shall, or may at any time upon his own initiative, appoint inspectors to observe all functions, activities, or procedures conducted pursuant to the election laws of this State. Any such inspectors shall be subject to the direction of and responsible to the Secretary of State and he may terminate any appointment at any time. Any such inspectors may be present at, observe, and take reasonable steps to evidence all activities, functions, and procedures (except for the marking of any ballot by a voter, unless being assisted by an election officer) at any polling place, place of canvass, central counting station, or other place where official election or registration functions take place. The Secretary of State or any member of his staff may, upon the initiative of the Secretary of State alone, whether any violation of election laws is suspected or not, be present at, observe, and take reasonable steps to evidence any activities, functions, and procedures at any polling place, place of canvass, central counting station, or other place where official election or registration functions take place. Any inspectors appointed under this provision shall report to the Secretary of State any violations of law observed and the Secretary of State may refer the violation to the Attorney General or a prosecuting attorney for appropriate action.

Art. 1.05. Ineligibility

Subd. 1. No person shall be eligible to be a candidate for, or to be elected or appointed to, any public elective office in this state unless he is a citizen of the United States eligible to hold such office under the Constitution and laws of this state, is not mentally incompetent as determined by a court, has not been convicted of a felony for which he has not been pardoned or had his full rights of citizenship restored by other official action, and will be 18 years of age or older on the commencement of the term to be filled at the election or on the date of his appointment, and unless he will have resided in this state for a period of 12 months next preceding the applicable date specified below, and for any public office which is less than statewide, shall have resided for six months next preceding such date in the district, county, precinct, municipality or other political subdivision for which the office is to be filled:

(1) For a candidate whose name is printed on the ballot for a general (first) primary election, the applicable date is the last day on which any candidate for the office involved could file his application to have his name printed on the ballot for that primary election.

(2) For an independent or nonpartisan candidate in a general or special election, the applicable date is the last day on which the candidate's application for a place on the ballot could be delivered to the appropriate officer for receiving the application.

(3) For a write-in candidate, the applicable date is the day of the election at which the candidate's name is written in.

(4) For a party nominee who is nominated by any method other than by primary election, the applicable date is the day on which the nomination is made.

(5) For an appointee to an office, the applicable date is the day on which the appointment is made.

Subd. 2. The foregoing requirements do not apply to any office for which the Constitution or statutes of the United States or of this state prescribe the exclusive qualifications for the office or prescribe qualifications in conflict herewith, and in such case the provisions of such other laws control.

Subd. 2a. In the circumstances described in this subdivision, the residence requirements stated herein supersede the six-month precinct residence requirement stated in Subdivision 1 of this section. If the date of an order changing the boundaries of county commissioners precincts or justice of the peace precincts is less than seven months before the applicable date dated in Subdivision 1 of this section, a candidate for a precinct office in a precinct whose boundaries are affected by the order (including any newly created precinct) must have been a resident of the county in which the precinct is situated for six months next preceding the applicable date stated in Subdivision 1 and must be a resident of the precinct on that date. When a precinct office of an affected precinct is to be filled by an appointment to take effect on or after the date on which the boundary changes become effective but less than seven months after the date of the order making the changes, the appointee must have been a resident of the county for six months next preceding the effective date of the appointment and must be a resident of the precinct on that date.

For the purpose of the first paragraph of this subdivision, the date of the order changing the precinct boundaries means the appropriate date defined in this paragraph, as follows:

(1) If the change is made by an order of the commissioners court which is not challenged in a judicial proceeding brought before the applicable date stated in Subdivision 1 of this section, the date of the order means the date on which the commissioners court entered its order setting out the new boundaries.

(2) If the change is made, confirmed, or modified by a judicial decree or if judicial review of an order of the commissioners court is denied before the applicable date stated in Subdivision 1, the date of the order means the date of entry of the decree (including an order denying a motion for new trial, motion for rehearing, or similar motion) finally concluding the legal action establishing or confirming the boundary lines or denying review of the order establishing the lines.

(3) If on the applicable date stated in Subdivision 1 of this section a final decree concluding legal action has not been entered but there is an outstanding judicial decree putting a change in boundaries into effect or refusing to enjoin or to stay enforcement of an order establishing new boundary lines pending final disposition of the action, the date of the order means the date of entry of that decree.

Subd. 3. A home-rule city by charter may prescribe for its elective officers different age and residence requirements from those prescribed in Subdivision 1 of this section, but a charter may not set a minimum age greater than 21 years or a minimum length of residence in the state or city greater than 12 months next preceding the election.

Subd. 4. Except as provided in Section 104 of this code (Article 8.22, Vernon's Texas Election Code), no ineligible candidate shall ever have his name placed upon the ballot at any primary, general or special election. No ineligible candidate shall ever be voted upon nor have votes counted for him at any such primary, general or special election for the purpose of nominating or electing him, but votes cast for an ineligible candidate shall be taken into account in determining whether any other candidate received the necessary vote for nomination or election.
Subd. 5. No person who advocates the overthrow by force or violence or change by unconstitutional means of the present constitutional form of government of the United States or of this state shall be eligible to have his name printed on any official ballot in any general, special or primary election in this state.

Art. 1.05-1. Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2098, ch. 682, § 28, eff. Sept. 1, 1975

Art. 1.08a. Bililingual Election Materials in English and Spanish

Elections and Areas in Which Bilingual Materials are Required

Subd. 1. (a) In every general, special, or primary election, by whatever authority held, which is held within a county in which five percent or more of the inhabitants are persons of Spanish origin or descent, according to the federal census specified in Paragraph (b) of this subdivision, the election materials enumerated in Subdivision 3 of this section shall be printed in both English and Spanish for use at the polling place in each election precinct that is not exempt from this requirement under Subdivision 2.

In the elections of a political subdivision that includes territory in more than one county, the bilingual materials must be used in each precinct that includes territory lying within a county to which this subdivision applies unless the precinct is exempt under Subdivision 2.

(b) The census used for determining the percentage of persons of Spanish origin or descent is the last preceding federal decennial census for which the enumeration date was more than two years before January 1 of the calendar year in which the election is held.

Election Precincts Exempt from Requirement

Subd. 2. (a) An election precinct situated in a county to which Subdivision 1 applies is exempt from the requirement for bilingual election materials if official census information or other information shows that persons of Spanish origin or descent comprise less than five percent of the inhabitants of the precinct. The authority holding the election has the burden of establishing entitlement to the exemption. Unless otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction, the officer or body responsible for obtaining the supplies for the election is relieved of the duty to furnish bilingual materials for those precincts for which there has been filed with the clerk or secretary of the political subdivision responsible for the expenses of the election, at least 30 days before the date of the election, a certificate executed by the presiding officer of the governing body of the political subdivision and approved by the governing body, identifying the precinct or precincts for which the exemption is claimed, together with an abstract of the official census information or other information relied on to support the exemption and a map or maps showing the precinct boundaries and the boundaries of the census enumeration areas referred to in the abstract. An authenticated copy of the resolution or other document evidencing the governing body's approval must be filed with the certificate.

(b) A new certificate and new supporting information must be filed following each decennial census. The supporting information must be revised following a change in election precinct boundaries, and a revised certificate must be filed if the certificate on file no longer correctly reflects the exempt precincts.

(c) In the case of a primary election held by a political party, the exempt precincts are those reflected in a certificate executed by the county judge or the secretary of state and filed in the office of the county clerk. The secretary of state is authorized to file a certificate for a county whenever the county judge has not filed a certificate by the 60th day before the date of the primary or whenever the certificate on file does not correctly reflect the exempt precincts.

Enumeration of Required Bililingual Materials; Preparation of the Materials

Subd. 3. (a) At each polling place where election materials in English and Spanish are required, the following materials shall be provided in bilingual form:

(1) Instruction cards for the information of voters shall be printed in both English and Spanish, either on separate cards to be posted side by side or on the same card with the Spanish text alongside the English text.

(2) Where voting machines or voting devices are used, a Spanish translation of the instructions for operating the machines or devices shall be posted in the compartment or booth that the voter occupies.

(3) All ballots and ballot labels may be printed with all ballot instructions, office titles, and propositions appearing in both Spanish and English. If the bilingual listing on the face of the ballot is not utilized, then a Spanish translation of the ballot shall be posted in each compartment or booth, and a statement shall be placed on the face of the ballot in Spanish to inform the voter that the Spanish translation is posted in the compartment or booth; and where paper ballots are used and booths are not provided for all voters, copies of the Spanish translation shall also be made available at the table where the voter selects his ballot, and a sign printed in Spanish shall be displayed at the table, informing the voter that he may take a copy of the Spanish translation for his use in preparing his ballot.

(4) All affidavit forms or other forms that voters are required to sign may have a Spanish translation printed beneath the English text or on the reverse side of the printed matter appearing on the form. If this translation is not utilized, then a Spanish translation of the affidavit shall be made available, and a statement shall be placed on the affidavit in Spanish that a Spanish translation is available upon request.

(b) The secretary of state shall prepare the Spanish translation for all bilingual materials required by Subdivisions 3 and 4 of this section, except ballot forms for local elections. The secretary of state shall prepare the Spanish translation of the ballot propositions for proposed constitutional amendments and other measures submitted by the legislature if the legislature fails to provide a Spanish text. The officer having the duty to make up the ballot for a local election shall prepare the Spanish translation of ballot material if the governing body of the political subdivision fails to provide a Spanish text.

Bilingual Materials for Absentee Voting

Subd. 4. In any countywide election, or in any election held in a political subdivision other than a county, in which bilingual election materials are required at any polling place in the county or other political subdivision, the absentee voting materials shall be printed in both English and Spanish. The forms for applying for an absentee ballot, the ballot envelopes and carrier envelopes, and any other instructions or forms furnished to the voters shall be printed in English with a Spanish translation on the face of the instrument or furnished separately along with the instrument. All ballots and ballot labels used for absentee voting shall be printed in the manner described in Subdivision 3; and whenever the Spanish translation of ballot propositions is printed separately from the ballot, a copy of the translation shall be furnished to each voter who votes by mail. In the conduct of absentee voting by personal appearance, any other materials enumerated in Subdivision 3 which are used in the voting shall be in bilingual form.

Optional Use of Bilingual Materials

Subd. 5. In any election held in a county to which Subdivision 1 of this section does not apply, or at any polling place where bilingual materials are not made mandatory under Subdivision 1, the governing body of the political subdivision responsible for the costs of the election may require the use of bilingual ballots and such other items of election materials enumerated in Subdivisions 3 and 4 as the governing body specifies, for any or all of the polling places as specified by the governing body; and the election officers of the political subdivision shall furnish bilingual materials in accordance with the resolution, ordinance, or other document by which their use is required. The governing body may provide for use of the bilingual materials on a continuing basis or on an election-by-election basis, as it sees fit.

Art. 1.08b. Encouragement to Vote of Non-English-Speaking Citizens

Sec. 8b. It is the intent of the legislature that non-English-speaking citizens, like all other citizens, should be encouraged to vote. Therefore, appropriate efforts should be made to minimize obstacles to voting by citizens who lack sufficient skill in English to vote without assistance.

The presiding judge of a voting precinct in which the election materials provided in Section 8a of this code are required to be used shall make reasonable efforts to appoint election clerks who are fluent in both English and Spanish.

Art. 1.08b. Verification of Petition Signatures

Whenever an application or petition of a candidate for a political party for a place on a ballot, or any other instrument authorized or required by this code, contains more than 1,000 signatures or names which need verification, the officer with whom the instrument is filed (including officers of political parties as well as public officers) may employ any reasonable statistical sampling method in determining whether the instrument contains the required number of names meeting the prescribed qualifications for signers or for names which may be listed thereon. However, in no event may the sample be less than one percent of the total number of names appearing on the instrument.

Contracts for election services

Subd. 1. As used in this section "county officer in charge of election duties" means the county elections administrator in a county which has that office and the county clerk in a county which does not have the separate office of county elections administrator; and "contracting officer" means the county officer in charge of election duties.

Subd. 2. (a) The county officer in charge of election duties may contract with the governing body of any city, school district, water district, or other political subdivision situated wholly or partly within the county to conduct or supervise the conduct of any single election or series of elections to be held by the political subdivision and to perform or supervise the performance of any or all of the functions enumerated in Subdivision 3 of this section in connection with the holding of the election or elections.

(b) The county officer in charge of election duties may contract with the county executive committee of any political party holding primary elections in the county to conduct or supervise the conduct of the party's general primary election or runoff primary election, or both, to be held within the county in an election year. The contract must be approved by the secretary of state before any duties may be performed or any payments may be made under the terms of the contract.

(c) When requested to do so by a political subdivision or political party, the county elections administrator shall enter into a contract to furnish the services requested in accordance with a cost schedule mutually agreed upon by the contracting parties. If a mutual agreement cannot be reached, the secretary of state shall prescribe the agreement, to which both parties are bound, or, in his discretion, the secretary of state may instruct the county elections administrator to decline to enter into a contract with the requesting party. The county clerk in counties not having the office of county elections administrator is not required to enter into a contract with a political subdivision or political party requesting services, but he may do so at his discretion.

Subd. 3. A contract with a political subdivision pursuant to Subdivision 2 of this section may include any or all of the following services, and a contract with a political party may include any or all of such services that pertain to a party primary:

(1) Recommendations on the formation of election precincts and the location of polling places and preparation of the appropriate documents for establishing the precincts and polling places.

(2) Preparation of election orders, resolutions, notices, and other pertinent documents for adoption or execution by the appropriate officer or body.

(3) Posting or publication of election notices.

(4) Preparation of lists of persons to recommend for appointment as election judge or clerk and the recruiting and training of the judges and clerks.

(5) Procurement and distribution of election supplies, including the preparation, printing, and distribution of ballots.

(6) Assembly and editing of the lists of registered voters to be used in conducting the election, in conformity with the boundaries of the political subdivision and the election precincts established for the election.

(7) Procurement, preparation, and distribution of election equipment and transportation of equipment to and from the polling places.

(8) The conduct of absentee voting, subject to the provisions of Subdivision 4 of this section.

(9) Arrangements for use of polling places on election day.

(10) In an election using electronic voting equipment, arrangements for use of a central counting station and for the personnel and equipment needed at the counting station and assistance in preparation of programs and test materials for tabulation of the ballots.

(11) Supervision of the handling and disposition of election returns, voted ballots, etc., and tabulation of unofficial returns and assistance in preparing the tabulation for the official canvass.

(12) Information services for voters and election officers.

(13) General overall supervision of the elections and advisory services in connection with decisions to be made and actions to be taken by officers of the political subdivision or political party holding the election.

(14) Preparation of submissions on voting changes to be made to the United States Department of Justice under the federal Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended.

(15) Preparation of data to support exemptions from the requirements for bilingual materials under Section 8a (Article 1.08a) of this code.

Subd. 4. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the contracting officer or any regular or temporary employee of the contracting officer may be designated as the absentee voting clerk for any political subdivision other than a municipality. The contracting officer may not replace the city secretary or clerk as the absentee voting clerk for a city or appropriation by the commissioners court. However, all claims against the fund shall be audited and approved in the same manner as other claims against the county before they are paid. Salaries of personnel regularly employed by the contracting officer shall be paid from funds regularly budgeted and appropriated for that purpose, but salaries and wages paid to persons especially employed to perform duties under a contract and all other expenses directly attributable to the contract which are charged to the contracting officer shall be paid out of the special fund. From time to time, as surplus amounts accumulate in the special fund, the contracting officer may direct the treasurer to transfer the surplus, in specified amounts, to the special fund created by Section 51b (Article 5.19b) of this code.

Subd. 8. Any of the services to be performed by the contracting officer may be performed by deputies or other employees assigned by him to perform the services. In a county which does not have the separate office of county elections administrator, the county clerk may establish an elections division in his office and assign a deputy clerk to oversee the operation of the division and may delegate to the deputy the power to enter into contracts under this section.

Art. 2.01. Time and Place

A general election shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A.D. 1964, and every two years thereafter, at such places as may be prescribed by law after notice as prescribed by law. Special elections shall be held at such times and places as may be fixed by law providing therefor. In all elections, general, special, or primary, the polls shall be open from seven o’clock a. m. to seven o’clock p. m.; provided, that in any county having a population of one million or more, according to the last preceding federal census, the polls may be opened one hour earlier at six o’clock a. m. on order of the commissioners court of such county entered in the minutes thereof. The foregoing authority of the commissioners court shall extend to all elections held within the county, by whatever authority the election may be ordered, but the court may exercise this authority with respect to such elections as it deems necessary or desirable without advancing the opening hour for other elections, subject to the requirement that the court's order must apply uniformly to comparable types of elections held on the same day; and the order shall specify the elections to which it applies. The election shall be held for one day only.

All persons who are within the polling place and all persons who are waiting to enter the polling place at seven o'clock p.m. shall be allowed an opportunity to present themselves for voting in the same manner as if they had appeared and offered themselves for voting during regular voting hours. The presiding judge shall take necessary precautions to prevent voting by any person not present and waiting to vote at the time for official closing of the polls. If feasible, all persons waiting to vote at the time for official closing of the polls shall be required to enter the polling place, and the door to the polling place shall be closed and locked, and each such person shall remain inside the polling place until he has voted. If such procedure is not feasible, numbered identification cards or tokens shall be distributed to identify those persons waiting to vote at the time for official closing of the polls.

Art. 2.01b. Dates for Holding General and Special Elections

(a) Except as provided in Subsections (b) and (e) of this section, every general (regular) or special election held by the state or by any county, city, school district, water district, or any other political subdivision or agency of this state must be held on one of the following dates: the third Saturday in January, the first Saturday in April, the second Saturday in August, or the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. Provided, however, that in even-numbered years the only issues which may be included on the ballot of the election held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November shall be the election of state and county officers, the election of officers of a general-law city wherein the governing body of said city finds that the religious tenets of more than 50 percent of the registered voters of said city prohibit the adherents from voting in an election held on Saturday, and constitutional amendments submitted to the people by the legislature. The governing body of local political subdivisions shall be allowed to choose for their permanent election day any of the above four election dates. The filing deadline for candidates, the dates for canvassing the returns of the election, the date for commencement of terms of office filled at the election, and any other date incidental to the election shall fall on the date that has the same relationship to the date of the election as provided under the preexisting law. Where by preexisting law the terms of office are set to commence on a specified calendar date and the date of the election is changed by this section, the governing board of the political subdivision shall set the date on which the terms begin until otherwise provided by law. A runoff election, when required, shall be held on a date that provides the same time interval with relation to the main election as provided under the preexisting law.

(d) When under the provisions of Subsection (c) the beginning date for a term of office is changed to fall on an earlier date, the current term on the effective date of this section is shortened accordingly, and the holder of the current term shall surrender the office to his successor on the beginning date of the succeeding term or as soon thereafter as the successor has qualified. When the beginning date is changed to fall on a later date, the incumbent in office at the expiration of the current term as set by preexisting law shall continue to perform the duties of the office, as required by Section 17 of Article XVI of the Texas Constitution, until the successor has qualified for the succeeding term.

(e) When a preexisting law requires that a special election be called within a specified time period after the occurrence of a certain event, the election shall be called for a date authorized in Subsection (a) of this section that falls within that time period; or if there is no authorized date within the period that allows sufficient time to comply with other require-returns for each election, or one of such officers, boards, or bodies may be designated to receive and canvass the returns for the joint election and to report the results of each election to the proper authority. Where other records are combined, the officer designated by law to be the custodian of the records for any participating subdivision may be designated in the agreement to be the custodian of the combined records. Where the counted ballots for more than one subdivision are deposited in a single ballot box, the officer designated by law to be the custodian of the voted ballots for any one of the subdivisions may be designated in the agreement to be the custodian.

Art. 2.02c. Joint Elections of Political Subdivisions

(a) When two or more political subdivisions of this state are holding elections on the same day in all or part of the same territory, the governing bodies of any two or more of the political subdivisions may agree to hold their elections jointly in the election precincts that can be served by common polling places. When any other statute makes a joint election mandatory, a joint election must be held in accordance with the terms of the statute; and if any other political subdivisions are holding elections in any part of the same territory, any or all of them may also join in the agreement for a joint election.

(b) When a joint election is to be held, a resolution reciting the terms of the agreement, including the method for allocating the expenses for the election, shall be adopted by the governing body of each of the participating political subdivisions. The agreement may provide for use of a single ballot form at each polling place, to contain all the offices or propositions to be voted on at that polling place, or for separate ballot forms; provided, however, that no voter shall be given a ballot containing any office or proposition on which the voter is ineligible to vote. One set of election officers may be appointed to conduct the joint election, and any person who is qualified to serve as an election officer in the election of any one of the participating political subdivisions may be appointed to serve in the joint election. Poll lists, tally lists, return forms, and other records for the various elections may be combined in any manner convenient and adequate to record and report the results of each election. Where paper ballots or punchcard ballots are used, one set of ballot boxes and one stub box may be used for receiving all ballots and ballot stubs for the joint election. Returns on joint or separate forms may be made to, and the canvass made by, each officer, board, or body designated by law to receive and canvass the

Art. 2.04. County Election Precincts Formed by Commissioners Court

(b) No election precinct shall be formed out of two or more justice precincts or commissioners precincts, nor out of the parts of two or more justice precincts or commissioners precincts; and no election precinct shall be formed out of two or more congressional districts or state senatorial districts or state representative districts, nor out of the parts of two or more such districts. If in September of any year there exists any election precinct in the county which does not comply with the foregoing requirements, the commissioners court shall make the necessary changes before the first day of October, either at a regular meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose; and the order shall be published as provided in Paragraph (a) of this section. Subject to the provisions of the first sentence of this paragraph, no election precinct shall have resident therein less than 100 nor more than 2000 voters as ascertained by the number of registered voters for the last preceding presidential general election year; provided, however, that in counties of less than 100,000 population according to the last preceding federal census, the commissioners court may establish precincts of less than 100 but not less than 50 voters; and provided further, that in counties of less than 50,000 population according to the last preceding federal census, the commissioners court may establish precincts of less than 50 voters upon the petition of 25 or more registered voters within the county. In precincts in which voting machines or devices have been adopted for use in accordance with Section 79 or Section 80 of this Code, the maximum number of voters shall be 8000. There shall be a minimum of one election precinct wholly contained within each commissioners precinct.

(c) In cities and towns having ten thousand or more inhabitants, each ward shall constitute an election precinct unless there are more than two thousand registered voters residing in the ward. In such cities and towns, no precinct shall be made out of parts of two wards; and no precinct shall include territory outside the corporate limits of the city or town unless the Commissioners Court finds that adjacent unincorporated territory is so situated that it cannot be formed into or included within an election precinct wholly outside the city, of suitable size and shape and containing a suitable number of voters. If the Commissioners Court finds this condition to exist, it may include such territory in a precinct or precincts formed within the city or town, and the finding of the Commissioners Court shall be conclusive. If on September 15 of any year there exists any election precinct in the county which does not comply with the requirements of this paragraph, the Commissioners Court shall make the necessary changes before the first day of October, either at a regular meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose; and the order shall be published as provided in Paragraph (a) of this Section. [See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (d)]

(e) Changes in election precincts shall not become operative in the holding of elections until the beginning of the following voting year. The Commissioners Court shall cause to be made out and delivered to the County Tax Collector before the first day of each September a certified copy of such last order for the year following; provided, however, that any order entered during the month of September, as provided in Paragraphs (b) and (c) of this Section, shall be delivered to the Tax Collector forthwith. 1 Articles 7.14, 7.15.

Art. 2.06a. Municipal and School District Election Dates

In counties where voting machines or electronic voting systems are used, all municipal and school district elections in which candidates are running for office, including without limitation, elections in home-rule cities and independent, municipal, and county school districts, otherwise scheduled to be held within 14 days of the date on which a proposed amendment or amendments to the Constitution of Texas are to be submitted to a vote of the electorate, may be held on the same date as the constitutional amendment election if the governing body of the municipality or the school district so provides. If the governing body changes the date of the elections as authorized by this Act, it may set the date of any second or runoff primary which may be necessary for any date not earlier than the 14th day after the first election and not later than the latest date which would have been permissible if the date of the first election had not been changed. This Act shall make no change in the term of office or commencement thereof in any election affected hereby. [Added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2108, ch. 688, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

CHAPTER THREE. OFFICERS OF ELECTION

Article 3.09b. Training of Election Officers [NEW].

Art. 3.01. Appointment of Election Officers

(a) For county elections. The commissioners court at its July term shall appoint from among the citizens of each election precinct one qualified voter as presiding judge of elections held at the expense of the county in that precinct and one qualified voter as alternate presiding judge, each of whom shall continue to act until his successor is appointed. Whenever a vacancy arises in either of such offices, the commissioners court may fill the vacancy at any regular or special term of court. All orders appointing judges and alternates shall be entered of record. Each presiding judge shall appoint two voters, who are eligible for appointment, to serve as election clerks, and shall appoint for each election as many additional clerks as he deems necessary for the proper conduct of the election, not to exceed the maximum number authorized by the commissioners court. The commissioners court shall fix the maximum number of clerks that may be appointed for each precinct, and may fix different maximums depending on the type of election. The clerks shall be selected from different political parties, when practicable. The chairman of the county executive committee of each of the two parties whose candidate for Governor received the most votes statewide in the last prior gubernatorial general election may submit a list of not less than two eligible nominees who are members of that party to each election judge at least 30 days prior to the date of a general election or 10 days prior to the date of a special election. If any such list is submitted to him, the election judge shall appoint at least one clerk from each list submitted. For the purpose of this section, the term "members of that party" means persons who affiliated with the party in the manner prescribed in Section 179a of this code. (Article 13.01a, Vernon's Texas Election Code) during the last preceding set of primary elections and conventions.

(a-1) List of recommended appointees for judges of county precincts. Prior to the time at which the commissioners court makes its appointment of election judges pursuant to Subsection (a) of this section, the county officer in charge of election duties as defined by Section 8d of this code shall select a presiding judge and an alternate presiding judge for each county election precinct to recommend for appointment to those offices and shall present a list of his selections to the commissioners court. This procedure shall also be followed whenever a vacancy is to be filled in the office of presiding judge or alternate presiding judge.

Art. 3.02. Duties and Working Hours of Clerks

(a) In all elections, general, special, or primary, the presiding judge shall be in charge of the management of the polling place and the conduct of the election. He shall designate the working hours and assign the duties to be performed by the clerks. Clerks may be assigned to work for different lengths of time and to begin work at different hours during the day while the polls are open or during the time necessary for counting the ballots after the polls are closed. Clerks who begin work at any time before closing of the polls shall remain on duty without leaving the polling place while the polls are open, except for such periods of absence for meals and other necessary reasons as may be permitted by the presiding judge.

(b) One or more clerks shall be assigned to assist in checking the names of voters on the list of registered voters and performing such other duties as are necessary in receiving the voters and supervising the deposit of the voted ballots. At every election there shall be kept a poll list in the number of copies required by law on which an election officer shall enter the name of each voter at the time he votes. In lieu of a poll list, the signature roster, together with any other forms, may be combined with the list of registered voters in the format prescribed by the secretary of state.

(c) In elections where paper ballots are used, the ballots shall be counted by one or more sets of counting officers, each set to consist of one judge or clerk who shall read the ballots, and one or more clerks who shall enter the votes on tally lists prepared for the election. As a safeguard in the accuracy of the tallying, the votes shall be entered on three original tally lists, and during the progress of the counting the lists shall be compared and errors and discrepancies shall be corrected, and at the close of the counting the tally clerks shall certify officially to the correctness of the lists.

(d) The clerks may be assigned to perform such other duties as the presiding judge directs.

Art. 3.03. Qualifications of Judges, Clerks and Watchers

(a) All judges of any general, special, or primary election shall be qualified voters of the election precinct in which they are named to serve. Unless otherwise provided in a statute pertaining to the specific type of election being held, in any general, special, or primary election all clerks and watchers shall be qualified voters of the county if the election is countywide, and shall be qualified voters of the city or other political subdivision in which the election is held if less than countywide, but it shall not be necessary that they reside within the election precinct in which they are named to serve.

(b) No person shall serve as a judge or a clerk in any general, special, or primary election who is employed by any candidate whose name appears on the ballot in that election either for a public office or for the party office or for the party office of county chairman, or who is related to such candidate within the second degree either by affinity or consanguinity. Within the meaning of this section, a governmental employee is employed by any candidate whose name appears on a general election ballot.

Art. 3.03 Disqualifications
[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 1 and 2]

Subd. 3. No one shall act as chairman or as member of any district, county, or city executive committee of a political party who is not a qualified voter, or who is an officeholder or a candidate for nomination to or election to any office that would appear on a general election ballot.

Art. 3.07 Service, Duties, and Privileges of Watchers
[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (a) to (c)]

(d) Each watcher appointed in accordance with this code shall be permitted, but not required, to sit conveniently near the judges or clerks so that he can observe the conduct of the election, including but not limited to the reading of the ballots, the tallying and counting of the votes, the making out of the returns, the locking of the ballot boxes, their custody and safe return. He shall also be permitted to be present when assistance is given by any election judge in the marking of the ballot of any voter not able to mark his own ballot, to see that the ballot is marked in accordance with the wishes of the voter, but he must remain silent except in cases of irregularity or violation of the law. He shall not be permitted to enter into any conversation with the judges or clerks regarding the election while it is progressing, except to call the attention of the judges or clerks to any irregularity or violation of the law that he may observe. The watcher shall call the attention of officers holding the election to any fraud, irregularity or mistake, illegal voting attempted, or other failure to comply with the laws governing such election at the time it occurs, if practicable and if he has knowledge thereof at the time, and such complaint shall be reduced to writing and a copy delivered to the election judge. Preventing a poll watcher from observing any activity including, but not limited to, the tallying of ballots at any polling place, place of canvass, or central counting station shall constitute a Class A misdemeanor.

Art. 3.08 Pay of Judges and Clerks
(a) In all elections, general, special, or primary, by whatever authority conducted, the rate of pay for judges and clerks of the election shall be determined by the appropriate authority, but shall not exceed $2.50 per hour for each judge or clerk. No judge or clerk shall be paid for more than one hour of work before the polls open. In precincts where voting machines are used, no judge or clerk shall be paid for any period of time subsequent to two hours after the official time for closing the polls or subsequent to two hours after voting is concluded by all voters offering themselves for voting during regular voting hours, whichever is the later. The judge who delivers the returns of election may be paid an amount not to exceed $15 for that service; provided, also, he shall make returns of ballots, ballot boxes, and election supplies not used when he makes returns of the election.

Art. 3.09b Training of Election Officers
Subd. 1. The governing body of each county, city, or other political subdivision which holds elections and the county executive committee of a political party which holds primary elections may require that persons appointed to serve as judge or alternate judge in its elections be trained in election law and procedure prior to their appointment or prior to their service and may adopt minimum standards for the amount of training that the person must receive to be eligible for service. The governing body of a political subdivision may appropriate funds to pay its judges and alternate judges for attending training schools at an hourly rate not to exceed the maximum amount that may be paid for their service as judge or clerk and to pay the costs for conducting the schools, including payment for the services of instructors. With the approval of the secretary of state, the county executive committee of a political party may make like payments for the training of judges and alternate judges to serve in its primary elections, to be allowed as authorized expenditures for the conduct of the elections.
Subd. 2. A political party or a political subdivision may conduct its own schools of instruction or other training programs, either independently or in conjunction with other entities. Beginning on March 1, 1979, the county executive committee of a political party or the governing body of a political subdivision other than a county may also contract with the county officer in charge of election duties for the training of its election officers, as authorized in Section 8d of this code.¹

CHAPTER FOUR. ORDERING ELECTIONS

Art. 4.10. Vacancy: Application to Get on Ballot

Subd. 1. (a) Any person desiring his name to appear upon the official ballot at any special election held for the purpose of filling a vacancy, when no party primary has been held, may do so by presenting his application to the proper authority. Such application shall set forth:

(1) The name of the office sought;
(2) His occupation, his postoffice address, and the county of his residence;
(3) His age, place of birth, kind of citizenship, and length of residence in the county and state.

(b) In any special election for a statewide or district office which is regularly filled at the general election for state and county officers, the application shall also set forth the candidate’s political party affiliation or shall state that the candidate is not affiliated with any political party.

Subd. 2. Such application must be filed not later than 5 p. m. of the 31st day before any such special election, and shall not be considered filed unless it has actually been received by the officer with whom it is to be filed.

Subd. 3. (a) The application must be filed with the Secretary of State in the case of a statewide or district special election. It must be accompanied with a fee of $1,000 for a statewide office, including without limitation the office of United States Senator, a fee of $500 for the district office of United States Representative, a fee of $400 for the district office of State Senator, and a fee of $200 for the district office of State Representative; or, in lieu of the filing fee, the application must be accompanied with a petition signed by at least 5,000 registered voters of the state in the case of a statewide office, and by at least 500 registered voters of the district in the case of a district office. A petition must show the address, voter registration number, and date of signing for each signer. No person may sign the petition of more than one candidate for the same office, and if a person signs the petition of more than one candidate, the signature is void as to all such petitions. A petition may be in multiple parts. To each part, which may consist of one or more sheets, there must be attached the affidavit of some registered voter, giving his address and voter registration number, and stating that each signature appearing in that part of the petition was affixed in the presence of the affiant and that to the best knowledge and belief of the affiant each signature is genuine and each person signing was a registered voter at the time of signing. A petition so verified is prima facie evidence that the signatures thereon are genuine and that the persons signing it are registered voters. Fees received under this subdivision shall be deposited in the general revenue fund of the state.

(b) Upon receipt of an application which conforms to the above requirements, the Secretary of State shall issue his instruction to the county clerks of the state, or of the district in the case of a district vacancy, directing that the name of the applicant be printed on the official ballot.

(c) The party affiliation of the candidate shall be printed on the official ballot following the name of the candidate. If the candidate has stated in his application that he is not affiliated with any political party, the word “Independent” shall be printed on the ballot following the candidate’s name. In other respects, the ballot shall be printed as indicated in Section 61 of this code (Article 6.05, Vernon’s Texas Election Code) for a special election in which no party nomination has been made.

Subd. 4. The application must be filed with the city secretary or clerk in the case of a municipal special election. A home-rule city by charter may require that the application be accompanied with a reasonable filing fee or a petition of voters in lieu of the filing fee.

CHAPTER FIVE. SUFFRAGE
Art. 5.01  ELECTION CODE

Art. 5.01. Classes of Persons Not Qualified to Vote

The following classes of persons shall not be allowed to vote in this state:
1. Persons under 18 years of age.
2. Idiots and lunatics.
3. All paupers supported by the county.
4. All persons convicted of any felony except those restored to full citizenship and right of suffrage or pardoned.

Art. 5.02. Qualifications and Requirements for Voting

(a) Every person subject to none of the foregoing disqualifications who is a citizen of the United States and a resident of this state and is eighteen years of age or older, and who has complied with the registration requirements of this code, is a qualified voter. No person may vote in an election held by a county, municipality, or other political subdivision unless he is a resident of the subdivision on the day of the election; and, except, as expressly permitted by some other provision of this code or another statute of this state, no person may vote in an election precinct other than the one in which he resides. The provisions of this section, as modified by Section 35 of this code (Article 5.03, Vernon's Texas Election Code), apply to all elections, including general, special, and primary elections, whether held by the state, by a county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state, or by a political party.

(b) All citizens of this state who are otherwise qualified by law to vote at any election of this state or any district, county, municipality, or other political subdivision, shall be entitled and allowed to vote at all such elections. The Secretary of State shall, by directive, implement the policies stated herein throughout the entire time that the polls are open.

Where the ground for voting absentee is confinement in jail, it is not mandatory that the voter be allowed to make a personal appearance, but the officer in charge of the jail, in his discretion is authorized to make the necessary arrangements to permit the voter to vote by personal appearance.

The following persons, and no other, may vote absentee:
1. Any qualified voter of this state who will be 65 years of age or older on the day of the election.
2. Any qualified voter of this state who expects to be absent from the county of his residence on the day of the election, or who will be confined in jail, or religious belief cannot appear at the polling place on the day of the election.
3. Any qualified voter of this state who because of sickness or physical disability cannot appear at the polling place on the day of the election.
4. Any qualified voter of this state who is confined in jail, or religious belief cannot appear at the polling place on the day of the election.
5. Any qualified voter of this state who expects to be absent from the county of his residence on the day of the election, or who will be confined in jail, or religious belief cannot appear at the polling place on the day of the election.

Who May Vote Absentee

Any qualified voter of this state who expects to be absent from the county of his residence on the day of the election, or who will be 65 years of age or older on the day of the election, or who because of sickness, physical disability, confinement in jail, or religious belief cannot appear at the polling place on the day of the election, or who expects to serve as an election clerk or as a poll watcher on election day in an election precinct other than the precinct of his residence, may nevertheless cause his vote to be cast at any election held in this state by compliance with the applicable method herein provided for absentee voting. If a voter's religious belief prohibits him from voting during any part of the time during which the polls are open on the day of the election, he shall nevertheless be entitled to vote absentee even though the prohibition does not operate throughout the entire time that the polls are open. A voter who is confined in jail is entitled to vote absentee if at the time of applying for an absentee ballot he is:
1. Serving a misdemeanor sentence which extends through election day;
2. Being held for trial after a denial of bail;
3. Being held without bail pending the appeal of a felony conviction; or
4. Being held for trial or pending an appeal on a bailable charge but he expects not to have been released on bail by the date of the election.

(b) Absentee voting shall be conducted by two methods:
1. Voting by personal appearance at the clerk's office, and
2. Voting by mail.

All voters coming within the foregoing provisions of this subdivision may vote by personal appearance at the clerk's office if they are able to make such appearance within the period for absentee voting. Where the ground for voting absentee is confinement in jail, it is not mandatory that the voter be allowed to make a personal appearance, but the officer in charge of the jail, in his discretion is authorized to make the necessary arrangements to permit the voter to vote by personal appearance.

(i) Qualified voters who will be 65 years of age or older on the day of the election, or who because of sickness or physical disability, or because of religious beliefs, cannot appear at the polling place on the day of the election. The application for an absentee ballot shall be made not more than sixty days before the day of the election. It must be mailed to the clerk, and the clerk shall preserve the envelope in which it is received. If the application is delivered to the clerk by any method other than by mailing it to him, the ballot shall be void and shall not be counted. The voter shall state in his application the address to which the ballot is to be mailed to him, which must be either his permanent resi-
(ii) Qualified voters who, before the beginning of the period for absentee voting, make application for an absentee ballot on the ground of expected absence from the county of their residence on election day, and who expect to be absent from the county during the clerk's regular office hours for the entire period of absentee voting. The voter must state in his application that he expects to be absent from the county of his residence on election day and during the clerk's regular office hours for the entire period for absentee voting. The application shall be made not more than sixty days before the day of the election, and may be mailed to the clerk or delivered to him by the voter in person, but the clerk shall not furnish a ballot to the voter by any method other than by mailing it to him. Applications made under this paragraph may be mailed either from within or without the county of the voter's residence, but in every case the ballot must be mailed to the voter at an address outside the county. The ballot shall not be counted unless the carrier envelope in which the ballot is returned to the clerk is postmarked from a point outside the county and the affidavit on the carrier envelope is certified by an officer other than an officer of the county of the voter's residence.

(iii) Qualified voters who, after the beginning of the period for absentee voting, apply for an absentee ballot on the ground of expected absence from the county and who are absent from such county at the time of applying for an absentee ballot and expect to be absent from such county during the clerk's regular office hours for the remainder of the period for absentee voting. The voter must state in his application that he is absent from the county at the time of making the application and expects to be absent on election day and during the clerk's regular office hours for the remainder of the period for absentee voting. The clerk shall not mail a ballot to any such voter unless the envelope in which the application is received is postmarked from a point outside the county, and the ballot must be mailed to the voter at an address outside the county. The ballot shall not be counted unless the envelope in which the application is received and the carrier envelope in which the ballot is returned to the clerk are each postmarked from a point outside the county and the affidavit on the carrier envelope is certified by an officer other than an officer of the county of the voter's residence.

(iv) Qualified voters who are confined in jail under one of the circumstances listed in the first paragraph of this subdivision. The application for an absentee ballot shall be made not more than twenty days before the day of the election. It must be enclosed in an envelope and either mailed to the clerk or delivered to him by the jailer or one of his deputies or assistants, who shall place his signature on the envelope at the time of its delivery. The clerk shall preserve the envelope in which the application is received. If the application is delivered to the clerk by any method other than as expressly authorized herein, the ballot shall be void and shall not be counted. The clerk shall mail the ballot to the voter in care of the jail where he is confined; and if the ballot is furnished to the voter by any method other than by mailing it to him, or if it is mailed to any other address, it shall be void and shall not be counted. The marked ballot must be mailed to the clerk, and if returned in any other manner it shall be void and shall not be counted.

(d) An application for an absentee ballot to be voted by mail shall state the applicant's permanent address and the address to which the absentee ballot is to be mailed to the applicant, and shall also state the address to which his voter registration certificate is to be mailed back to him.

Application for Ballot

Subd. 2. (a) The secretary of state shall prescribe the form or forms for an application for an absentee ballot to be voted by personal appearance and of an application for a ballot to be voted by mail. The application for a ballot to be voted by mail shall be in the form of a postcard. Each clerk for absentee voting shall obtain and keep on hand a supply of the application forms to furnish to voters who request them. The secretary of state shall keep on hand a supply of the application forms for voting by mail and shall furnish the forms in reasonable quantities to individuals and organizations requesting them for use in furnishing the forms to voters who wish to vote absentee by mail. A voter desiring to vote absentee shall make written application on the appropriate form for an official ballot to the absentee voting clerk for the election in which the voter wishes to vote, which application shall be signed by the voter, or by a witness at the direction of the voter if for any reason the voter is unable to sign his name. The application shall state the ground on which the applicant is entitled to vote absentee, and in case of an application by mail, it shall also state the additional information required by Subdivision 1 of this section.
(b) The application shall contain a space for the voter to enter his voter registration certificate number or, in case the voter does not have his certificate in his possession at the time of making the application, to indicate whether the certificate has been lost or mislaid, has been left at the voter's home (where he is applying from a temporary address), or has been used for applying for an absentee ballot in another election (stating the nature and date of the election) and has not been returned to him. Before furnishing a ballot to a voter, the clerk shall verify the voter's registration certificate number, or in case the number is not stated on the application, the clerk shall enter it from the list of registered voters. If the ground of application is sickness or physical disability by reason of which the voter cannot appear at the polling place on election day, a certificate of a duly licensed physician or chiropractor or accredited Christian Science practitioner certifying to such sickness or physical disability shall accompany the application, which certificate shall be in substantially the following form:

This is to certify that I have personal knowledge of the physical condition of ________, and that because of sickness or physical disability he (she) will be unable to appear at the polling place for an election to be held on the ________ day of ________, 19__.

Witness my hand at ________, Texas, this ________ day of ________, 19__.

(c) Expected or likely confinement for childbirth on election day shall be sufficient to entitle a voter to vote absentee on the ground of sickness or physical disability, and a physician executing a certificate for a pregnant woman may state in the certificate that because of pregnancy and possible delivery she will be or may be unable to appear at the polling place on election day.

Any person who requests a physician, chiropractor, or Christian Science practitioner to execute a certificate for another person without having been directed by such other person to do so, and any physician, chiropractor, or Christian Science practitioner who knowingly executes a certificate except upon the request of the voter named therein or upon request of someone at the voter's direction, or who knowingly delivers a certificate except by delivering it to the voter in person or by mailing it to the voter at his permanent residence address or the address at which he is temporarily living, or who knowingly falsifies a certificate, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than thirty days, or both so fined and imprisoned.

(d) A voter who gives false information in his application for an absentee ballot is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished as provided in Section 347 of this code (Article 15.47, Vernon's Texas Election Code). Printed application forms furnished to voters by the county clerk shall contain the following statement immediately preceding the space for the voter's signature: "I certify that the information given in this application is true, and I understand that the giving of false information in the application is a crime." An informal application need not contain the statement, but a voter who gives false information is subject to the criminal penalty regardless of whether the statement appears on the application.

This is to certify that I have personal knowledge of the physical condition of ________, and that because of sickness or physical disability he (she) will be unable to appear at the polling place for an election to be held on the ________ day of ________, 19__.

Witness my hand at ________, Texas, this ________ day of ________, 19__.

Voting by Personal Appearance in County-wide Elections

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 2a(e) to (h) and 2b]

Comparison of Signatures

Subd. 3a. (a) In a county-wide election, or in an election less than county-wide where the authority holding the election has provided that absentee voting by personal appearance shall be conducted on a voting machine or that absentee paper ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board, upon receipt of an application for an absentee ballot to be voted by personal appearance, if the clerk is satisfied as to the right of the applicant to vote, the clerk shall place a notation on the list of registered voters as to the right of the applicant to vote, and shall enter the voter's name on a poll list of absentee voters. The application shall be preserved in the clerk's office for the length of time provided by law for preservation of voted ballots.

(b) In the conduct of absentee voting under this subdivision, the clerk shall possess the same power as a presiding judge with respect to examination and acceptance of a voter. If the right of an applicant to vote is challenged, the procedure prescribed in Section 91 of this Code (Article 8.09, Vernon's Texas Election Code) shall be followed.

(c) Where paper ballots are used for absentee voting, after a voter has been accepted, the clerk shall furnish the voter with an official ballot which has been prepared in accordance with law for use in such election. The voter shall then and there, in the office of the clerk, mark his ballot and detach and sign the ballot stub, and shall deposit the ballot in a ballot box and the stub in a stub box in the manner provided in Section 97 of this Code (Article 8.15, Vernon's Texas Election Code). The ballots shall be deposited in a ballot box locked with two locks, the keys of one of which shall be kept during the period for absentee voting by the sheriff and the keys of the other by the county clerk. The stubs shall be deposited in a stub box prepared in accordance with Section 97 of this Code (Article 8.15, Vernon's Texas Election Code).

(d) Where a voting machine is used for absentee voting by personal appearance, after a voter has been accepted, he shall then be permitted to cast his ballot on the voting machine. Returns of absentee votes cast on a voting machine shall be made under the appropriate provision of Section 79 of this Code (Article 7.14, Vernon's Texas Election Code).

Voting by Personal Appearance in Election Less Than County-wide

Subd. 3b. (a) In an election less than county-wide in which absentee paper ballots are to be sent to the regular polling places for counting, upon receipt of an application for an absentee ballot to be voted by personal appearance, the clerk shall thereupon furnish to the voter the following absentee voting supplies:

(1) One official ballot which has been prepared in accordance with law for use in such election.

(2) One ballot envelope, which shall be a plain envelope, without any markings except the words "Ballot Envelope" printed on the face thereof, followed by the instructions contained in this subdivision and Subdivision 4 for marking the ballot, for placing it in the carrier envelope, and for returning a ballot to be voted by mail, together with a statement of the deadline for placing the ballot in the mail and for delivery to the clerk's office in that election, the text of the provisions in Subdivision 15 of this section which relate to assistance to the voter in preparing his ballot, and the text of Section 330 of this code (Article 15.30, Vernon's Texas Election Code). The textual material may be continued onto the reverse side of the envelope if necessary.

(3) One carrier envelope, upon the face of which there shall appear the words "Carrier Envelope for Absentee Ballot" and the name, official title, and post-office address of the county clerk, upon the other side there shall appear spaces for showing the nature and date of the election and the number or name of the election precinct in which the voter resides (which the clerk shall fill in before he furnishes the supplies to the voter), and a certificate in substantially the following form:

"I certify that the enclosed ballot expresses my wishes, independent of any dictation or undue persuasion of any person and that I did not use any memorandum or device to aid me in the marking of the ballot.

(Signature of voter)

By:

(Signature of person who assisted voter. See Ballot Envelope for restrictions and penalties.)

(b) The voter shall then and there, in the office of the clerk, mark the ballot, sign his name on the back of the ballot stub, detach the stub from the ballot, fold the ballot and place it in the envelope marked "Ballot Envelope" and seal the same. The voter shall then place the stub and the ballot envelope in the carrier envelope, seal the same and sign the certificate on the carrier envelope, and deliver the carrier envelope to the clerk.
Absentee Voting by Sick or Disabled Voter after Close of Regular Period

Subd. 3e. (a) The provisions of this subdivision apply only to county-wide elections and to elections less than county-wide where the authority holding the election has provided that absentee ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board. In such an election, a voter who because of sickness or physical disability originating on or after the fifth day preceding election day will be unable to attend the polling place on election day may vote absentee under the procedure outlined in this subdivision. The voter shall make a written request signed by him, or signed by a witness at the voter's direction if the voter is unable to sign his name, and presented to the absentee voting clerk at his office, that the clerk send him a ballot by the person who presents the request to the clerk. The voter may select any person 18 years of age or older who shall not be consanguinity or affinity to any person whose name appears on the ballot, to act as his representative in presenting the request or delivering the marked ballot back to the clerk. No person may serve as the representative to present the request for a ballot or to deliver the marked ballot back to the clerk for more than one absentee voter in any election held under the provision of the Texas Election Code as amended. The voter's request must state in effect that sickness or physical disability he (she) will be unable to appear at the polling place on election day, giving the date of the election to be held on the -- day of , 19; and that the inability to attend the polling place originated after the fifth day preceding the day of the election. The request must be accompanied by a certificate of a duly licensed physician or chiropractor or accredited Christian Science practitioner in substantially the following form:

"This is to certify that I have personal knowledge of the physical condition of ______; that because of sickness or physical disability he (she) will be unable to appear at the polling place for an election to be held on the ___ day of , 19; and that the inability to attend the polling place originated after the fifth day preceding the day of the election."

The request must state in effect that sickness or physical disability will prevent the voter from appearing at the polling place on election day, giving the date of the election or otherwise identifying the election for which the ballot is requested, and that the inability to attend the polling place arose on or after the fifth day preceding the day of the election. The request must be accompanied by the voter's voter registration certificate or his signed statement (either separately or included in the signed request) that the certificate has been lost or mislaid, has been left at the voter's home (when he is applying from a hospital or other temporary address), or has been used for applying for an absentee ballot in another election (stating the nature and date of the election) and has not been returned to him. Upon receiving a request that complies with the foregoing conditions at any time after the close of business on the fourth day preceding election day and before 12 noon on election day, the clerk shall deliver to the voter's representative the balloting materials used for voting absentee by mail, but before doing so he shall record the representative's name and address on the request and shall require the representative to place his signature alongside his name.

(b) The clerk shall add to the list of absentee voters described in Subdivision 11 of this section the name of each voter to whom an absentee ballot is sent under this subdivision, with a notation that the ballot was sent to the voter through a representative, but the clerk is not required to include the names of these voters on the precinct lists of absentee voters sent to the presiding election judges. (c) After receiving the balloting materials, the voter shall follow the procedure prescribed in Subdivision 4 of this section for voting absentee by mail, except that the marked ballot shall be hand-delivered to the clerk by the voter's representative instead of being mailed to the clerk. The ballot must be delivered to the clerk by the deadline for receiving ballots voted by mail. It must be delivered by the person who delivered the request to the clerk. Upon receiving the marked ballot, the clerk shall follow the same procedure as for a ballot received by mail. He shall return the voter's registration certificate to him by mailing it to his permanent address. (d) A voter who gives false information in his request for an absentee ballot is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished as provided in Section 347 of this code (Article 15.47, Vernon's Texas Election Code).

Subd. 4. (a) The period for absentee voting by mail shall begin on the twentieth day preceding the date of the election. An application for an absentee ballot to be voted by mail must be received in the clerk's office not later than the close of business on the fourth day preceding election day. In countywide elections and in elections less than county-wide where the authority holding the election has provided that absentee ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board, the marked ballot must be received in the clerk's office before one o'clock p.m. on election day, except that in an election in which the offices of president and vice president of the United States appear on the ballot, the deadline for receipt of the ballot in the clerk's office is the official time of closing of the polls on the day of the election. In all other elections which are less than county-wide, the marked ballot must be received in the clerk's office before ten o'clock a.m. on the second day preceding election day. The ballot may be marked by the voter at any time after he receives it.

(b) On the twentieth day preceding election day, or as soon thereafter as possible, the clerk shall mail an official ballot, ballot envelope, and carrier envelope, as described in Subdivision 3b of this section, to each voter who has theretofore made application for a ballot in compliance with this section. On applications which are received between the twentieth day and the fourth day preceding election day, the clerk shall forthwith mail the absentee voting supplies to the voter.

(c) The voter shall mark the ballot, sign his name on the back of the ballot stub, detach the stub from the ballot, fold the ballot, and place it in the envelope marked "Ballot Envelope" and seal the same. The voter shall then place the stub and the ballot envelope in the carrier envelope, seal the same and sign the certificate on the carrier envelope. The carrier envelope shall then be mailed, postage prepaid, to the county clerk.

Counting of Ballots in County-wide Elections

Subd. 6. (a) In all countywide elections, and in elections less than countywide where the authority holding the election has provided that absentee paper ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board, on the day of the election the ballot box and stub box used for absentee voting by personal appearance, the keys to the ballot box, the jacket envelopes containing the ballots voted by mail and accompanying papers, the poll list for absentee voting on which the clerk has entered the names of persons voting by personal appearance, and the list of registered voters used by the county clerk, shall be delivered to a special canvassing board consisting of a presiding judge and two or more election clerks appointed in the same manner as provided for appointment of the election officers for regular polling places at that election. The county clerk shall deliver the ballots to the canvassing board at such hour as the presiding judge shall direct, but not earlier than the hour at which the polls are opened and not later than the hour specified in Subdivision 4 of this section as the deadline for returning the marked ballots to the clerk's office. If delivered before the deadline, the clerk shall deliver in like manner to the board, immediately following the deadline, all ballots received by mail before the deadline which have not previously been delivered to the board.

(b) This special canvassing board shall open the jacket envelopes, announce the voter's name, and ascertain in each case if he is qualified to vote at that election and if he has complied with all applicable provisions of this section to entitle his ballot to be cast. On ballots voted by mail, the board shall compare the signatures on the application and the carrier envelope, and in case the board finds that the signatures correspond, that the application and the certificate on the carrier envelope are duly executed, that the voter is a qualified elector, and that he has voted in a manner authorized in this section, they shall enter his name on the official poll list (on which voters voting by mail shall be listed separately from those who have voted by personal appearance) and shall open the carrier envelope so as not to deface the certificate thereon, and shall place the sealed ballot envelope in the ballot box and the stub in the stub box. The carrier envelope, application, and accompanying papers shall be replaced in the ballot box and the stub in the stub box. The county clerk shall open the carrier envelope so as not to deface the certificate thereon, and shall place the sealed ballot envelope in the ballot box and the stub in the stub box. The county clerk shall then mail the absentee voting supplies to the voter.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 6(c) to 6(f)]

(g) After the absentee ballots are counted, the ballot box containing the voted ballots and the return and other records of the election shall be delivered to the proper officers as provided by law for regular polling places.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 7 to 10]

Records of Absentee Voters; Inspection of Applications, etc.

Subd. 11. (a) The county clerk and each other clerk for absentee voting designated in accordance with Subdivision 1a of this section shall maintain in his main office a complete record, in card-index or list form, of persons who have voted absentee by personal appearance and of persons to whom absentee ballots have been sent by mail (or, if authorized by some provision of law, have been sent by some other method of transmission). The record shall contain the voter's name, address, precinct of residence, voter registration number, a notation of whether the voter voted by personal appearance or was furnished a ballot to be returned by mail (or by other means of transmission, if authorized), and the date on which the voter voted, if by personal appearance, or on which the ballot was transmitted to the voter. The record shall be kept up from day to day.

(b) On or before the day preceding election day, the clerk for absentee voting shall deliver to each presiding election judge, in person or by mail, a list containing the name, address, and voter registration number of each resident of the precinct in which the judge serves, who has voted absentee by personal appearance or has been furnished an absentee ballot to be returned by mail. Before the hour for opening the polls on election day, the presiding judge shall cause the notation "absentee voter" to be placed by the name of each such voter on the list of registered voters to be used in accepting voters for voting at the polling place.

(c) The clerk's records of absentee voters and the applications for absentee ballots and accompanying papers shall be open to public inspection during the clerk's regular office hours, but under such reasonable rules and regulations as the clerk may adopt to safeguard the records and papers and to economize his own time. The clerk may require a person to present proof of identity before permitting him to inspect the records. The clerk must accept a current Texas voter registration certificate, Texas driver's license, or Department of Public Safety personal identification certificate as sufficient proof of identity.

Branch Offices for Absentee Voting by Personal Appearances Subd. 14.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (a) and (b)]

(c) Any voter eligible to vote absentee by personal appearance in the main office of the clerk may vote in any branch office. The deputy clerk in charge of absentee voting at each branch office shall transmit to the clerk at the close of each day of absentee voting the names of all persons who have voted absentee in the branch office on that day, together with other necessary information as provided in Subdivision 11, for inclusion in the record of absentee voters maintained in the main office. During the period for absentee voting by personal appearance, the applications and ballots of persons who have voted absentee may be retained in the branch office or may be delivered to the main office from time to time, but all applications and ballots shall be delivered to the main office not later than one o'clock p. m. on the third day prior to election day. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the voting in a branch office shall be subject to the same regulations as the voting in the main office.

Branch Offices for Absentee Voting by Personal Appearance in Counties Having a Population in More Than 1,500,000 Subd. 14a.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (a) and (b)]

(c) The list of voters who vote absentee in each election suboffice each day shall be available for inspection the next day both in the election suboffice in which the voter voted and in the main office, with the list of each election suboffice being maintained in the main office separate and apart from the lists of the other election suboffices. Each such list of voters shall be compiled in accordance with statutory requirements.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (d) to (e)]

Assistance to Voter; Use of English Language Subd. 15. (a) No assistance shall be given a voter in marking his absentee ballot except where the voter is unable to prepare the same himself because of his inability to read the language in which the ballot is printed or because of some bodily infirmity which renders him physically unable to write or to see or to operate the voting equipment. If a voter who is voting by personal appearance is entitled to assistance, he may be assisted by the clerk or a deputy clerk or by any qualified voter of the political subdivision in which the election is held, selected by the voter. If a voter who is voting by mail is entitled to assistance, he may be assisted by any person 18 years of age or older, selected by the voter. The person assisting the voter shall not suggest, by word or sign or gesture, how the voter shall vote, and shall confine the assistance to answering the voter's questions, to stating the propositions to be voted on, and to naming the candidates and the political parties to which they belong, and the person shall prepare the ballot as the voter directs. Where any assistance is rendered in marking an absentee ballot other than as allowed in this subdivision, the ballot shall not be counted but shall be void for all purposes.

(b) In absentee voting by personal appearance at the clerk's office, any voter unable to speak or understand the English language may communicate with the clerk in some other language, and if the clerk is unable to speak or understand the language used by the voter or if he requests that the voter communicate through an interpreter, the voter shall be entitled to communicate through an interpreter of his choice, who shall be a qualified voter in the county. Before acting as interpreter, the person chosen by the voter shall take the following oath, to be administered by the clerk: "I solemnly swear that I will correctly interpret and translate each question, answer, or statement addressed to the voter by the clerk and each question, answer, or statement addressed to the clerk by the voter." When any language other than the English language is used either by the voter or by the clerk, any watcher present shall be entitled to request and receive a translation into the English language of anything spoken in some other language.

Art. 5.05b. Voting by Former Residents of State in Presidential Elections

Former Residents Eligible to Vote

Subd. 1. A former resident of this state who has become a legal resident of another state of the United States or of the District of Columbia may vote for presidential and vice presidential electors in the county of his former residence if:

(1) on the day of the election he will not have resided in the state of his present residence for a period of 30 days and will not be eligible to vote in that state, and

(2) he otherwise possesses the substantive qualifications of an elector in this state, as defined in Section 34 of this code (Article 5.02, Vernon’s Texas Election Code), except the requirement of residence, and

(3) at the time of his removal he was registered as a voter in this state, and

(4) he complies with the provisions of this section.

Application for Presidential Ballot

Subd. 2. (a) A person eligible to vote under the provisions of this section may vote either by personal appearance or by mail. The voter shall make a written, signed application to the county clerk of the county of his former residence for a ballot permitting him to vote for president and vice president only, on a form to be prescribed by the secretary of state and furnished by the county clerk.

Procedure for Voting by Mail

Subd. 3. When a voter desires to vote a ballot by mail, the procedure for absentee voting by mail in a countywide election shall be followed insofar as it can be made applicable and is not inconsistent with this section. The clerk shall mail the voter a ballot from which the clerk has stricken all offices and propositions other than the offices of president and vice president, together with a ballot envelope and a carrier envelope containing such markings and instructions as the secretary of state prescribes. When the election officer checks the voter’s name on the list of registered voters and enters his name on the poll list, the officer shall add a notation that the voter is voting under this section, in the presidential race only. The ballots cast under this section shall be counted and return made thereof along with and on the same forms as the other absentee ballots.

Procedure for Voting by Personal Appearance

Subd. 4. A voter may vote by personal appearance at the clerk’s office at any time that the office is open to the public, beginning on the 20th day preceding the election and ending on the day of the election. When the voter appears in person, the clerk shall furnish him with a ballot, ballot envelope, and carrier envelope prepared in accordance with Division 3 of this section, and the ballot shall be processed and counted along with the absentee ballots voted by mail.

Cancellation of Registration

Subd. 5. When the registrar receives a list of registered voters containing a notation that a voter has voted under this section, he shall cancel the registration if it is still in the active file in his records.

Art. 5.05c. Voting Limited Ballot After Removal to Another County

Definition of Limited Ballot

Subd. 1. The term “limited ballot” is used to mean a ballot listing only the offices and propositions on which a voter is entitled to vote under the procedure outlined in this section during a period not exceeding 90 days after his removal from one county to another county within the state. The term includes the ballot for any election at which the voter is entitled to vote, even though at some special or runoff elections the ballot may be identical with the full ballot for that election. For the purposes of this section, the day of arrival in the county of new residence is counted as the first day after removal.

Who is Eligible to Vote a Limited Ballot

Subd. 2. (a) Where a registered voter moves from one county to another county in the state, during the first 90 days after the removal he is entitled to vote, under the procedure outlined in this section, on all offices, questions, or propositions to be voted on by the electors throughout the state, if on the day of the election (1) he would have been eligible to vote in the county of his former residence except for the removal, and (2) a registration in the county of new residence has not become effective. He may also vote on all district offices for any district of which he was a resident before the removal and continues to be a resident after the removal. The term “district office” refers to the district offices which are regularly filled at the general election provided for in Section 9 of this code (Article 2.01, Vernon's Texas Election Code). After a new registration in the county of new residence becomes effective, he must thereafter vote under the normal procedures for voters registered in that county. In no event may he vote under the procedure outlined in this section after 90 days following the removal.

(b) Voting rights and registration requirements in other elections after removal from one county to another are governed by Subdivision 3 of Section 50a of this code (Article 5.18a, Vernon's Texas Election Code).

Application for Limited Ballot; Procedure for Voting

Subd. 3. A person who is entitled to vote a limited ballot, as described in Subdivision 2 of this section, shall be permitted to vote upon making a written, signed application for a limited ballot to the county clerk of the county of his residence at the time of the election, upon an official application form to be prescribed by the Secretary of State and furnished by the county clerk. The voter shall state in his application that he was registered in the county of his former residence at the time of his removal, and he shall accompany his application with his voter registration certificate from that county or shall state in his application that the certificate has been lost or misplaced. The procedure for voting a limited ballot shall be similar to the procedure for absentee voting. If the voter meets the requirements of Section 37 of this code (Article 5.05, Vernon's Texas Election Code) for voting an absentee ballot by mail, he shall be permitted to vote the limited ballot by mail under the procedure for absentee voting by mail upon submitting both an application for a limited ballot and an application for an absentee ballot. Otherwise, he shall vote by personal appearance during the period for absentee voting by personal appearance and under the procedure for voting by personal appearance in countywide elections insofar as it can be made applicable and is not inconsistent with this section. Ballots cast under this section shall be counted and return made therefrom of along with and on the same forms as the absentee ballots."

Art. 5.05d. General Provisions on Voting by Persons Lacking Full Voting Rights

Record of Applicants

Subd. 1. The county clerk shall maintain in his office, for public inspection, a complete record of persons who have applied for a ballot under Section 37b or 37c of this code (Article 5.05b or 5.05c, Vernon’s Texas Election Code), stating thereon the applicant’s name, address, precinct of residence, the section of this code under which the application was made, and the date on which the ballot was delivered or mailed, which record shall be kept up from day to day. The record is subject to the same regulations as the record of absentee voters under Subdivision 11 of Section 37 of this code (Article 5.05, Vernon’s Texas Election Code). The names of persons voting under Section 37c shall be included on the precinct lists of absentee voters which the clerk furnishes to the presiding judges of the election, as provided in Subdivision 11 of Section 37, with a notation by each name to indicate that the voter received a limited ballot under Section 37c.

Preservation of Applications; Inspection

Subd. 2. Applications and accompanying papers received pursuant to Sections 37b and 37c of this code (Articles 5.05b and 5.05c, Vernon’s Texas Election Code) shall be preserved in the clerk’s office for the length of time provided by law for preservation of voted ballots and shall be open to public inspection under the same rules as apply to applications for absentee ballots.

Art. 5.09a. Register of Voters

Subd. 1. Unless the county commissioners court makes a different designation as authorized in Section 41b or Section 56a of this code, the county tax assessor-collector of each county in this State is the registrar of voters in that county.

Subd. 2. The registrar of voters shall be responsible for the registration of voters, the keeping of records, the preparation of lists of registered voters, and such other duties incident to voter registration as are placed upon him by law. Any of the duties of the registrar, except the hearing of appeals on denial of registration and the hearing of challenges of registration, may be performed through a deputy or deputies. The registrar shall not make any charge against a voter for performing any duty incident to voter registration unless expressly authorized by law to do so. The registrar is authorized to administer oaths and certify thereto under the seal of his office in every case where an oath is required in complying with any portion of this code connected with his official duties. The registration records, the applications for registration, and the duplicate registration certificates on file in the registrar's office shall be open for public inspection at all times when the office is open.

Subd. 3. The expenses of the registrar in excess of the reimbursements received from the state under Section 51b of this code (Article 5.19b, Vernon's Texas Election Code) shall be borne by the county. [Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1497, ch. 609, § 1, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 5.09b. County Clerk as Registrar

Subd. 1. The commissioners court of any county in this state may designate the county clerk to be the registrar of voters for that county, by order recorded in its minutes. If some other officer is the registrar at the time the order is adopted, the order shall state the date on which the transfer of registration duties to the county clerk becomes effective. The commissioners court may rescind the order at any time after two years have elapsed from the date of its adoption, by a rescission order recorded in its minutes, to become effective on a date stated in the order. Thereafter, the duties of the registrar of voters shall be performed by the county tax assessor-collector unless the commissioners court establishes the office of county elections administrator and transfers the duties to that officer, as authorized in Section 56a of this code. Within three days after the entry of an order transferring registration duties to the county clerk or after the entry of an order, rescinding an order of transfer, the county clerk shall send a copy of the order to the secretary of state and the comptroller of public accounts.

Subd. 2. In a county where the commissioners court has designated the county clerk to serve as the registrar of voters, all references to the county tax assessor-collector in Sections 3, 12, 64, 199, 301, 321, and 335 of this code (Articles 1.03, 2.04, 6.09, 13.21, 15.01, 15.25, and 15.35, Vernon's Texas Election Code), and in any other statutes pertaining to voter registration, mean the county clerk.

Subd. 3. Where the county clerk is the registrar of voters, the amount appropriated by the commissioners court for the registration duties of the registrar shall not be less than the amount previously appropriated to the county tax assessor-collector for the registration duties formerly performed by him, with additional appropriations, if required, to compensate for the effects of inflation and rising costs of supplies, equipment, and personnel.

Subd. 4. The secretary of state shall prepare advisory budgetary guidelines for the establishment and operation of a division of elections in the county clerk's office for administering the consolidated election duties of the clerk as provided in this section and for the establishment and operation of the separate office of county elections administrator as provided in Section 56a of this code. In preparing the guidelines the secretary of state shall consider and accommodate the differing needs of counties and their differing capabilities for financing the administration of the consolidated duties. Art. 5.14a. Registration Certificate Forms; Issuance of Certificates; Information Required on Certificate

Registration Certificate Forms

Subd. 1. (a) The form for a voter registration certificate shall be prescribed by the Secretary of State. He may prescribe one or more forms for use in counties using electronic data processing methods for issuing certificates and a different form for use in counties not using those methods. A certificate form prescribed by the Secretary of State shall be valid for use only during a two-year period, such two-year period to begin on March 1 of even-numbered years, unless rescinded by the Secretary of State.

(b) The registration certificates for each county may be numbered or labeled in any manner which will enable the registrar to efficiently and accurately maintain the voter registration rolls. However, the Secretary of State may establish a standardized numbering or labeling system and require its adoption by the various counties.

Issuance of Certificates

Subd. 2. (a) When a properly executed application is received by the registrar, he shall make out an initial registration certificate in duplicate and shall mail the original copy to the voter at his regular mailing address, or if none, at his permanent residence address, in time for him to receive it before his registration becomes effective. The registrar may also deliver the original copy to the voter personally, or to an agent making the application under Section 45a of this code (Article 5.13a, Vernon's Texas Election Code). The duplicate copy shall be retained by the registrar. At the time he prepares the initial registration certificate, the registrar shall enter the certificate number in an appropriate space on the voter's application for registration.

(b) Between November 1 and November 15 of each year in which no general election is held, beginning in 1977, the registrar shall prepare and mail to each registered voter in the county as of the preceding October 31 a registration certificate for use during the succeeding two voting years. The certificate shall be mailed to the permanent residence address shown on the voter's registration application; or, if provided, the mailing address. It shall not be sent in the same envelope as the voter's tax statement. Attached to or made a part of the registration certificate shall be adequate space for the voter to insert any change of information other than that printed on the certificate. If the voter has noted such changes, the notice shall be signed and affirmed by the voter and returned to the registrar for correction of the records and issuance of a corrected certificate to the voter.
The registration certificate or envelope containing the certificate shall be marked with a direction to the postal authorities not to forward it to any other address and to return it to the registrar if the addressee is no longer at that address. In the event the certificate is returned, the registrar shall cancel the voter's registration. The registrar shall maintain a list of all returned and cancelled registration certificates showing the name, address, birth date, and registration number of the person to whom the certificate was issued. The list shall be kept in the registrar's office and shall be open to public inspection at all times during regular office hours of the registrar, subject to reasonable regulations and to proper safeguards against alterations, mutilation, or removal. The registrar shall furnish a copy of such list to any person requesting it and shall be permitted to charge One Dollar ($1) for each 10,000 names contained on the list, to be paid by the person so ordering such list. Any money collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be accounted for as official fees of office.

Prior to the succeeding January 15, the registrar shall send to the Secretary of State a list of all the persons, along with all corresponding information available and required by the Secretary of State, whose registration certificates were cancelled as a result of the provisions of this section. Such list shall be in computer readable form. The Secretary of State shall furnish a copy of such list to any person requesting it and shall be permitted to charge One Dollar ($1) for each 10,000 names contained on the list, to be paid by the person so ordering such list. Funds collected by the Secretary of State pursuant to this subdivision shall be used by the Secretary of State to defray any expenses incurred in the preparation of such list.

Any person who uses information obtained under this subdivision for any purpose other than informing voters about candidates for public offices or public issues or for voter registration purposes is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(c) Each voter whose registration becomes effective after October 31 of an odd-numbered year, beginning with 1977, but before the following March 1 shall be issued an initial certificate valid for the remainder of that voting year and a certificate valid for use during the two-year period beginning the following March 1.

(d) A registrar of voters who knowingly issues, mails, or delivers a registration certificate to a person other than the applicant therefor or his lawful agent as provided in Section 45a of this code (Article 5.13a, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is guilty of a felony of the third degree.

(e) Any person whose registration is cancelled under the provision of this section shall be required to reregister in the same manner as an initial registrant. The secretary of state shall prescribe forms for the various documents required by this section.

Subd. 3. (a) Each certificate shall show the voter's name, permanent residence address, mailing address if any, sex, election precinct number, and if an initial certificate, the effective date of the registration. It shall contain a blank space for political party affiliation of the voter, to be completed as provided in Section 179a, of this code (Article 13.01a, Vernon's Texas Election Code). It shall not show the voter's telephone number or social security number. The certificate shall have a place for the voter's signature, and shall contain or be accompanied by a written instruction to the voter that the certificate is to be signed by the voter personally immediately upon receipt, if the voter is able to sign his name. Each certificate shall clearly indicate the two-year period for which it is issued, and shall contain a statement that the voter shall receive a new certificate every two years so long as such voter does not become disqualified under some provision of the election laws. Each certificate shall contain a statement giving notice that voting by use of the certificate by any person other than the person in whose name the certificate is issued is a felony. Voting by use of certificate which has been issued to another is hereby expressly made a felony of the third degree.

(b) Each certificate may contain a notice to the voter to correct and return the certificate to the registrar in case any of the information thereon changes or is incorrect. It may be accompanied by a more detailed explanation of the registrant's rights and duties under this code, including, but not limited to: a statement that his registration is permanent unless cancelled under some provision of the election laws; the procedure by which he will receive a new certificate every two years; the need to reregister if he moves to another county; the period during which he may vote a limited ballot after removal from the county; the need to notify the registrar to transfer his registration if he moves to a new precinct within the county; the period during which he may vote in his old precinct after removal to another precinct within the county; his right to vote without a certificate; and the procedure for obtaining a replacement for a lost certificate.

Art. 5.15a Registration Files

Subd. 1. (a) The applications on which registration certificates are issued shall be filed in an active application file and shall remain in that file as long as the registration continues in effect. The active application file shall be maintained in alphabetical order by voter name for the entire county, except that if the registrar regularly obtains a list of registrants in that order through use of electronic data processing equipment, he may keep the file in numerical order by certificate number.

(b) The registrar shall also maintain an inactive application file. The registrar shall place in alphabetical order into this file all applications which are rejected. He shall also transfer to a separate inactive file the application of each voter whose registration is cancelled. The registrar shall enter on the application form the date on which the registration is rejected or the date on which the registration is cancelled before filing an application in the inactive file. The application shall be kept in the inactive file for a period of two years from the date of rejection or cancellation, after which it may be destroyed.

Subd. 3. Applications and duplicate registration certificates may be removed from the registrar's office temporarily, under proper safeguards, for use in preparing registration certificates, lists of registered voters, and other registration papers by electronic data processing methods, but they may not be removed for any other purpose. Except as permitted in the preceding sentence, the applications, and the duplicate registration certificates shall be kept in the registrar's office at all times in a place and in such a manner as to be properly safeguarded. The files shall be open to public inspection at all times during regular office hours of the registrar, subject to reasonable regulations and to proper safeguards against alteration, mutilation, or removal.

Art. 5.15b. Service Program of Secretary of State; Copies of Master State Voter File

Subd. 1. The secretary of state is hereby authorized to provide a service program to assist registrars in efficiently maintaining accurate and current lists of registered voters. Such service program shall provide for, but is not limited to:

(a) obtaining initial lists of registered voters and other necessary information from the registrars of voters in order to create master files of such information;

(b) obtaining periodic information from registrars and from any other available sources for the following purposes:

(1) to maintain the master files,
(2) to aid in the determination of the proper status of persons on the lists of registered voters,
(3) to aid in the determination of the proper registration information to be associated with each registrant;

(c) conducting the various procedures necessary or proper for the implementation of the service program by utilization of automatic data processing equipment or by other means;

(d) furnishing information which may be useful to the registrars in the performance of their duties;

(e) contracting with political subdivisions of this state to provide such other services as are necessary to the performance of the duties of election officials. Fees collected through such contracts shall be retained by the secretary of state to defray expenses of the service program.

Subd. 2. Implementation of this program shall be by directive of the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall make a full report to the legislature which convenes in January of 1977 of all steps taken to implement this program. He shall include in his report a description of any difficulties encountered and his recommendations, if any, for corrective legislation.

Subd. 3. Each March 1 and September 1 the secretary of state shall prepare a copy of the master state voter file on magnetic tape, which shall include each voter's county, voting precinct number, name, permanent residence address, mailing address if any, sex, year of birth, and registration number. It shall not include any voter's social security number or telephone number. The secretary of state shall furnish a copy of this tape to any person requesting it. Each person requesting a copy shall submit an affidavit that the information obtained will be used only for the purpose of informing voters about candidates for public office or about public issues, and will not be used to advertise or promote commercial products or services. The secretary of state shall provide the copy within 15 days of the date on which he receives the request. He shall exact a uniform charge against each person to whom he furnishes a copy of the tape. The charge shall not be greater than an amount deemed sufficient to reasonably reimburse the secretary of state for his actual expense in furnishing the copy, and in any event shall not exceed five cents per hundred names furnished.

Subd. 4. Any person who uses information obtained under Subdivision 3 of this section for any purpose other than informing voters about candidates for public office or about public issues is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

[Added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 750, ch. 296, § 7, eff. May 27, 1975.]

Sections 17 and 18 of the 1975 Act provided:

"Sec. 17. The secretary of state is hereby authorized to utilize any funds previously appropriated for the biennium ending August 31, 1975, for the purpose of publication of constitutional amendment explanatory statements, but which have not and will not be expended for that purpose, in connection with the implementation of the service program described in Section 7 of this Act.

"Sec. 18. Sections 1, 7, and 17 of this Act take effect immediately upon passage or as soon thereafter as permitted by law. All other sections preceding this section take effect on November 5, 1975."

Art. 5.16a. Correction of Errors on Certificates; Replacement of Lost Certificates

Correction of Error

Subd. 1. When after issuance of a registration certificate it is discovered that an error has been made in filling out the blanks on the certificate through mistake of the registrar or through mistake of the voter in supplying the information, the voter may present the certificate to the registrar for correction and the registrar shall issue a corrected certificate and correct the information on the registration records on file in his office.

Error in Election Precinct

Subd. 2. Except as permitted in Section 50a of this code, no person is entitled to vote in a precinct of which he is not a resident and an election officer shall not knowingly permit a voter to do so. However, where a voter is erroneously registered in a precinct in which he does not reside and the election officer permits him to vote without knowing of the erroneous registration, in an election contest a ballot cast in that precinct shall be given effect as to any offices or propositions on which the voter would have been entitled to vote in the precinct in which he resides unless it is proved that the voter intentionally gave false information to procure his registration in the wrong precinct, in which event the ballot is void for all purposes.

If an error in the election precinct has not been corrected at the time the voter offers to vote, he may vote in the precinct of his residence, if otherwise qualified, by making and leaving with the presiding judge an affidavit, in any form authorized by the secretary of state, that he is or has been during the previous 90 days a resident of the precinct and is voting only one ballot in this election and that the error was not intentional.

Cancelled Voter Registration Certificate

Subd. 3a. Cancelled voter registration certificates. For elections held between March 1 and no later than June 30 in even-numbered years, where a voter's name is not shown on the precinct list of registered voters but does appear on the precinct list of cancelled voter registration certificates, the election officer shall permit such voter to cast a ballot, provided such voter submits a completed voter registration application to the election officer and an affidavit that he still resides within the county for county administered and primary elections or within the municipality or other political subdivision if administered by such authority. In the event the runoff primary election occurs within 29 days after the date of the general primary, the voter may vote at the election under the procedure outlined in this subdivision, except that the voter shall inform the presiding judge that he voted under this procedure at a previous election, and the presiding judge shall note that fact on the application. When the registrar receives such an application, he shall attach it to the application previously received.

All affidavits required by this subdivision shall contain the content and be in the form prescribed by the Secretary of State. The date on which the election officer accepts an application is considered to be the date on which the registrar receives it, and the registration becomes effective for voting in other elections on the 30th day after that date.

Replacement of Lost Certificate

Subd. 6. (a) If a voter to whom a registration certificate has been issued presents to the registrar his signed statement that the certificate has been lost or destroyed, the registrar shall issue to the voter a replacement certificate as a single-copy document, showing the same registration number and the same information as shown on the original certificate. The registrar shall make a notation on the face of the certificate showing it to be a replacement. He shall attach the statement to the voter's application.

A person who states in a request for a replacement certificate that his registration certificate has been lost or destroyed, knowing the statement to be false, is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(b) A replacement certificate issued after October 31 in an odd-numbered year shall be valid for use during the two-year period beginning on the following March 1. But it shall bear a notation that it may be used beginning on the date of issuance, except that a corrected replacement certificate shall be dated for use beginning on the 30th day following receipt by the registrar of the voter's old certificate or statement of loss.
Art. 5.18a. Change of Residence; Cancellation or Transfer of Registration

Change of Residence Within Precinct

Subd. 1. A registered voter who changes his place of residence within the election precinct shall give written notice to the registrar of the change of address and obtain a corrected certificate as provided in Subdivision 1 of Section 48a of this code (Article 5.16a, Vernon's Texas Election Code).

Subd. 2. A registered voter who changes his residence to another election precinct within the county may vote a full ballot in the precinct of his former residence, if otherwise qualified, during the first 90 days after the removal, but not thereafter, in any election in which there is listed on the ballot any office or proposition on which he is eligible to vote at his new residence.

If he obtains a transfer of his registration to the precinct of his new residence during the 90-day period, he may vote only in the precinct of his new residence after the 29th day following the transfer. He may not vote in the precinct of his new residence before the 30th day following the transfer.

To obtain a transfer of his registration, the voter shall present the registrar with a written, signed request for transfer, the registrar shall make the necessary changes on the registration records in his office and shall issue a new corrected registration certificate to the voter. He shall attach the request to the registrant's original application.

Change of Residence to Another Precinct Within County

Subd. 3. (a) A registered voter who moves from one county to another within the State must reregister in the county of his new residence in the same manner as an initial registrant. However, during the first 90 days after removal the voter may vote a limited ballot, as provided in Section 37c of this code (Article 5.06c, Vernon's Texas Election Code), if a reregistration in the county of new residence has not become effective.

(b) Where a registered voter who resides in a municipality or other political subdivision which is situated in more than one county moves from one county to another within the political subdivision, if the election precincts of the political subdivision are so constituted that the voter lives in the same precinct, he may continue to vote on the registration in the county of former residence at elections held by that political subdivision so long as that registration continues in effect. If he resides in a different precinct, during the first 90 days after the removal he may continue to vote in the precinct of his former residence at elections held by the political subdivision, on the registration in the county of former residence, if a reregistration in the county of new residence has not become effective.

Notification to Registrar in County of Former Residence

Subd. 4. When the registrar receives an application for registration of a voter who is registered in some other county, he shall notify the registrar of that county, giving him the voter's name, former registration certificate number if known, and former residence address. Upon receipt of notice, the registrar of the county wherein the voter was formerly registered shall cancel the registration in that county. When the registrar receives an application for registration of a voter who was registered in the previous two-year certificate period in any county and has not received a current registration certificate, he shall notify the registrar of that county, if different from the registrar's county, giving him the voter's name, former residence address, birth date, and social security number if available, and may also include a copy of the voter's signature. Upon receipt of such notice, the registrar of the county wherein the voter was formerly registered shall remove the voter from the list of cancelled voter registration certificates of the appropriate election precinct. If the voter's name is on a list of cancelled voter registration certificates in the county wherein he is attempting to register, the registrar of such county shall cause the voter's name to be removed from the appropriate precinct list. The name of any person shall not be removed from the list of cancelled voter registration certificates until such registration is effective.

Subd. 5. (a) The registrar may utilize any means available to determine whether a registered voter's current legal residence may be other than that indicated as the voter's legal residence on the registration records.

(b) Upon receiving information indicating that a registrant has a residence other than that shown on the registrant's registration records, or that indicates the existence of any grounds of disqualification other than death, the registrar shall send a notice to such person by forwardable mail at the permanent residence address or, if provided, the mailing address on the registrant's registration application and any new address of the registrant, if known, requesting a verification of the registrant's current residence address, or other relevant information which would be determinative of the registrant’s right to retain his current registered status, and providing information of the necessity for the registrant to amend the registration records subsequent to a change in legal residence or to provide information establishing his right to retain his current registered status. The notice shall state that the registrant’s registration will be cancelled if the registrant does not receive an appropriate reply within 60 days from the date on which the notice is mailed. If the registrant replies to the notice, the registrar shall take the appropriate action indicated by the reply. If no reply is timely received, the registrar shall cancel the registration. Notice of such cancellation shall be sent to the registrant at the new address, if it is known; otherwise it shall be sent to the residence or mailing address on the registration records. If the notice mailed to the permanent residence address on the registrant’s application is returned to the registrar with no forwarding address information available, the registrar shall cancel the registration.

(c) In the event the registrar cancels a voter’s registration pursuant to Paragraph (b) of this subdivision, such voter may, within 10 days after the date of cancellation by the registrar, request, in writing, a hearing before the registrar. The registrar, upon notice to the voter, shall conduct a hearing within five days of receipt of the request from the voter, or at any later time upon the consent of the voter. The registrar shall then determine whether to cancel the registration. The voter may appeal from a decision to cancel his registration to a district court of the county of registration within 29 days after the registrar’s decision, and the decision of the district court shall be final. A voter who appeals a cancellation of his registration under the provisions of this paragraph may continue to vote until a final decision is made cancelling his registration.

Subd. 6. The Secretary of State shall prescribe forms for the various documents required by this section. However, the registrar may also accept and use forms other than those prescribed by the Secretary of State.

Art. 5.18d. Change of Name

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 1]

Subd. 2. If otherwise qualified, a voter whose name is changed is eligible to vote under the new registration at any election held more than 29 days after the registrar makes the change on the registration records. He may vote under the former registration at any election held within 29 days after the new registration, upon making an affidavit that his certificate of registration under the former name has been surrendered to the registrar. The voter shall sign the form for the affidavit of a lost certificate, and the election officer shall add a notation in explanation of the circumstances.

Art. 5.19a. List of Registered Voters

(1) The registrar shall prepare for each election precinct of the county a certified list of registered voters who are registered as of the 30th day prior to the first election in each voting year. Each precinct list shall be arranged alphabetically by the names of the voters and showing each voter’s name, residence address, sex, date of birth and registration number. The Secretary of State may prescribe the content and format of the precinct list. The registrar shall deliver to each board, executive committee, or other authority having the duty of furnishing supplies for any general, special, or primary election to be held within the county during the voting year for which the list is prepared, one set of such lists for all precincts in the county if any election which may be held by such authority is countywide, and one set of such lists for all precincts wholly or partially within the boundaries of the particular political subdivision if all elections which may be held by such authority are less than countywide. The registrar shall furnish to each such authority an updated supplemental list of the voters in each precinct who will have been registered for 29 days on the day of the election and whose names do not appear on the original list. In the event the prescribed combination form in accordance with Section 16 of this code has been furnished, before the first day of absentee voting in any subsequent election held by the authority during that voting year, the registrar shall furnish to the authority in either the prescribed combination form or simple list form, another copy of the original list and an updated supplemental list of the voters in each precinct who will have been registered for 29 days on the day of the election and whose names do not appear on the original list, except that in the case of a runoff election the registrar may furnish a copy of the supplemental list prepared for the preceding election and a supplemental list of the voters who will have been registered for 29 days on the day of the runoff election and whose names do not appear on the original list or the supplemental list prepared for the preceding election instead of preparing a single updated supplemental list for that election. In every instance, instead of preparing a supplemental list or lists, the registrar may prepare a revised original list consolidating into it the names of the voters that would have been included on the supplemental list or lists.
With each supplemental list or revised original list the registrar shall also furnish a list of persons whose registration information has been changed or corrected or whose registration has been cancelled or transferred to another precinct since preparation of the last set of lists. The authority shall furnish to the presiding judge in each precinct the original and supplemental lists of voters in his precinct at the time it furnishes other election supplies. Prior to the opening of the polls, the presiding judge shall strike from the registration list the names of persons whose registration has been cancelled or transferred to another precinct, and shall correct the list for persons whose registration information has been changed or corrected.

Before the first day of April in each even-numbered year and whenever appropriate thereafter, the registrar shall attach to each list herein required an alphabetical corresponding certified list of all the persons whose registration certificates were cancelled, pursuant to the provisions of Section 46a of this code, and such list shall remain attached to the election precinct list for three months thereafter. The precinct lists may be combined with the corresponding lists of cancelled registrations in accordance with the form and content prescribed by the Secretary of State.

(2) In addition to the lists to be furnished under Subsection (1) of this section, the registrar shall furnish without charge to each clerk having the duty of conducting absentee voting in any election the appropriate lists for use in the conduct of absentee voting for the election. He shall also maintain in his office for a period of three years one set of the original lists and one set of the supplemental lists prepared for each county-wide election, which shall be public records available for public inspection at all times that his office is open.

Art. 5.19b. Reimbursement of County by State

Subd. 1. Before April 1 of each year, the registrar shall submit to the Comptroller of Public Accounts a certified statement of the total number of new registrants, together with the total number of registration certificates which were cancelled under the provisions of Section 50a of this code (Article 5.18a, Vernon's Texas Election Code), during the 12-month period ending February 1 of the year in which the statement is submitted. Before April 1 of each even-numbered year, the registrar shall include, in addition to the above statement, a certified statement of the total number of registered voters shown on the precinct registration lists as of March 1 of that year.

Subd. 2. Before June 1 of the year in which the statement is submitted, the Comptroller shall issue a warrant to each county in the aggregate of the following amounts:

(1) 40 cents multiplied by the total number of new registrants, and

(2) 40 cents multiplied by the number of voter registration certificates cancelled under the provisions of Section 50a of this code (Article 5.18a, Vernon's Texas Election Code), as shown by the certified statement required by Subdivision 1 of this section, and

(3) when the total number of registered voters is supplied in accordance with Subdivision 1 of this section, 40 cents multiplied by the difference between the total number of registered voters and the total number of new registrants under this Act during the two 12-month periods prior to the statement in each county. However, before issuing a warrant the Comptroller may require additional proof to substantiate the certified statement.

Subd. 3. The Secretary of State shall determine whether the registrar has complied with the provisions of Section 46a of this code 1 and he shall notify the comptroller. The comptroller shall not issue the warrant provided for in Subdivision 2 of this section until notified by the Secretary of State that the registrar is in compliance.

Subd. 4. The disbursements prescribed by this section shall be made from the general revenue fund as provided by legislative appropriations. All money received by a county under this section shall be deposited in the county treasury in a special fund to be used for defraying expenses of the registrar's office in the registration of voters. None of the money shall be deemed to be fees of office or be retained by the registrar as fees in counties where the registrar is compensated on a fee basis.

Art. 5.24a. County Elections Administrator

Subd. 1. Creation of office. In any county in this state, the commissioners court by order recorded in its minutes may establish the appointive office of county elections administrator of the county, who shall perform the duties and functions specified in Subdivision 3 of this section. The order of the commissioners court shall state the date on which the creation of the office of administrator becomes effective, but the date may not be earlier than March 1, 1979. The order may provide for placing the administrator-designate on the county payroll at a date not more than 90 days before the effective date for creation of the office so that he may make suitable plans for assuming his duties on the effective date. Within three days after the entry of the order, the county clerk shall send a copy of the order to each member of the county elections commission and to the secretary of state and the comptroller of public accounts.

Subd. 2. Appointment of administrator; county elections commission

(a) Composition of the commission. Where the office of county elections administrator is created in a county, the office shall be filled by appointment of the county elections commission of the county, which shall consist of the following members: the county judge of the county as chairman of the commission; the county clerk of the county as vice-chairman of the commission; the tax assessor-collector of the county as clerk of the commission; and the chairman of the county executive committee of each political party whose nominees at the last general election for state and county officers were nominated by primary election. In any county in which the offices of sheriff and tax assessor-collector are combined, the sheriff shall hold the position specified for the tax assessor-collector. In any county in which a party which nominates by primary election does not have a county organization, the membership of the commission is reduced accordingly. A majority of the total membership of the commission constitutes a quorum. The affirmative vote of a majority of the total membership of the commission is necessary for the selection of an administrator. Each member of the commission who is present at a meeting, including the presiding officer, is entitled to vote. Each appointment made by the commission shall be evidenced by a written resolution or order signed by the number of members necessary to make the appointment, and the resolution or order shall be filed as a public record in the office of the county clerk. Within three days after the filing, the county clerk shall forward a copy of the resolution or order to the secretary of state.

(b) Meetings of the commission. Meetings of the commission shall be called by the chairman. If the chairman fails to call a meeting within 10 days after the entry of the order creating the office of county elections administrator or within 10 days after a vacancy arises in the office, or if he fails to call a meeting by January 15 of an odd-numbered year, preceding the expiration of the administrator's term of office, the vice-chairman shall call the meeting. The person who calls a meeting shall set the time and place for the meeting and shall give written notice of the time and place to each other member at least three days in advance of the meeting date.

(c) Qualifications for administrator. (1) The person appointed as administrator must be a resident of this state but need not be a resident of the county at the time of his appointment; but after he assumes the office, he must maintain his residence in the county during his tenure in office.

(2) He must be a registered voter at his place of residence.

(3) He may not be a candidate for public office, as defined by Chapter 14 of this code, while holding the office of county elections administrator. Filing for candidacy constitutes an automatic resignation from the position of county elections administrator effective at the time of filing.

(4) He may not actively support or contribute to any candidate for public office, any officeholder, or any political party while holding the office of county elections administrator. Violation of this provision is a Class A misdemeanor and conviction produces automatic removal from office. A person so convicted is ineligible for appointment as county elections administrator in any county in the state.

(d) Time of appointment; rescission. The county elections commission may make the initial appointment of an administrator at any time after the entry of the commissioners court's order creating the of-office, regardless of the length of time remaining between the date of the appointment and the effective date of the creation of the office, and it may make an appointment to fill an anticipated vacancy arising from a resignation to take effect at a future date at any time after the resignation is accepted. After an appointment is made and accepted, it may not be rescinded without the consent of the appointee, regardless of any changes that may occur in the membership of the commission before the appointee assumes his duties.

Subd. 3. Duties of administrator

(a) Registration of voters. On the effective date of an order entered pursuant to Subdivision 1 of this section, or as soon thereafter as an administrator has been appointed and has qualified, the county elections administrator shall assume and thereafter perform all the duties and functions to be performed by the registrar of voters, pursuant to Section 41a of this code (Article 5.09a, Vernon's Texas Election Code).

(b) Conduct of elections. In addition to the duties and functions specified in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the administrator shall perform all the duties and functions which are placed upon the county clerk by any provision of this code or any other statute of this state in connection with the conduct of elections, as more fully defined in Section 56b of this code.¹

Subd. 4. Salary of administrator; office staff; operating expenses. Where the office of county elections administrator is created, the commissioners court shall fix his salary, and shall also fix the number, grade, and salaries of paid deputies, assistants, and other persons that he may employ. However, the administrator may appoint unpaid deputies to assist in voter registration, as authorized in Section 52a of this code (Article 5.20a, Vernon's Texas Election Code), without the approval of the commissioners court. The salary of the administrator shall not exceed the salary paid to the county clerk of that county, and the salaries paid to his employees shall not exceed the salaries paid to the employees of the county clerk in comparable positions. The commissioners court may allow such automobile expense as it deems necessary to the administrator and to any of his employees in the performance of their official duties. The commissioners court shall provide itself with an official seal, on which shall be inscribed a star with five points surrounded by the words "Counties Elections Administrator, ___ County, Texas" (the blank to be filled in with the name of the county), for use in certifying documents which are required to be impressed with the seal of the certifying officer.

Subd. 5. Term of office. The initial appointment of the county elections administrator shall be until the beginning of the first regular term thereafter. The regular term of office for the administrator is for a period of two years beginning on March 1 in each odd-numbered year. Between January 1 and January 15 preceding the expiration of the term, the chairman of the county elections commission shall call a meeting of the commission for the purpose of making an appointment for the succeeding term. Any vacancy in the office shall be filled by the commission for the remainder of the unexpired term. The administrator may be removed from office in the same manner and on the same grounds as provided by general law for removal of county officers or as provided for under paragraph (e) of Subdivision 2 of this section.

Subd. 6. Bond of administrator and deputies. Before entering into the duties of his office, the county elections administrator shall take and subscribe to the official oath and shall give an official bond in an amount to be fixed by the commissioners court, made payable to the county judge and approved by the commissioners court, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office. Either the commissioners court or the administrator may require his deputies to give a similar bond in an amount not exceeding the amount of the administrator’s bond.

Subd. 7. Seal of administrator. The administrator shall provide himself with an official seal, on which shall be inscribed a star with five points surrounded by the words "County Elections Administrator, ___ County, Texas" (the blank to be filled in with the name of the county), for use in certifying documents which are required to be impressed with the seal of the certifying officer.

Subd. 8. Transfer of records. As soon as practicable after the effective date of the order creating the office of county elections administrator, the officer formerly serving as the registrar of voters shall transfer to the administrator all records and papers pertaining to voter registration, and the county clerk shall transfer to the administrator all voting equipment and supplies of which the clerk has custody and all records and papers in his possession which pertain to an uncompleted election. The commissioners court shall determine which records of prior elections are to be transferred to the administrator and which are to remain in the county clerk’s office.

Subd. 9. Abolishment of office. The commissioners court may abolish the office of county elec-the function in counties having the office of administrator as well as in other counties.

Subd. 2. (a) This subdivision states rules for the division of duties between the county clerk and the county elections administrator in a county which has the office of administrator.

(b) With respect to every meeting of the commissioners court, including meetings at which the only business to be conducted pertains to election matters, the county clerk shall continue to perform all duties regularly performed by that officer in giving notice of meetings of the commissioners court and making up the agenda for the meetings, in attending the meetings and making a record of the proceedings and preparing and maintaining the minutes of the court, and in filing and preserving copies of the court's orders. The administrator shall cooperate with the county clerk in supplying the information on election matters which are to be brought before the court, and he shall attend or be represented at the meetings of the court at which such matters are to be considered. The county clerk shall furnish to the administrator a copy of each order of the court which pertains to or affects any election, and the administrator shall maintain in his office a file of all such orders, in addition to the record maintained by the county clerk.

(c) Every reference in this code to the county clerk or the clerk of the commissioners court which relates to the performance of any function or the receipt or filing of any instrument by that officer is to be construed as referring to the administrator, except for Subsection (b) of Section 208 of this code (Article 13.30), relating to service of process on the county clerk in a contest of a primary election under certain circumstances. References to the clerk of the county court are not to be construed as referring to the administrator.

(d) Certificates and supporting documents filed under Subdivision 2, Section 8a (Article 1.08a) of this code for the exemption of election precincts from requirements for bilingual materials in primary elections and in elections held at the expense of the county are to be filed in the office of the administrator.

(e) When any statute, including Section 28 (Article 4.05) of this code, provides for the filing or posting of an election notice in the office of the county clerk, the notice shall be filed or posted in the office of the administrator. When a statute provides for the filing of proof of posting, publication, or issuance of an election notice in the office of the county clerk, it shall be filed in the office of the administrator.

(f) Under the supervision of the county election board, the administrator shall make the record of blank ballots furnished for an election which is required by Section 64 (Article 6.09) of this code and shall file the record in his office, in lieu of recordation in the minutes of the commissioners court.

(g) The administrator shall have custody of and be responsible for maintaining the book for recording in detail the results of elections as provided in Section 116 (Article 8.34) of this code.

(h) When a statute provides that the return of an election notice is to be recorded in the minutes of the commissioners court, in lieu of that procedure the return shall be filed in the office of the administrator.

(i) When a statute provides that an order declaring the outcome of an election on a question or proposition is to be filed in the office of the county clerk, the order shall be filed both in the office of the county clerk and in the office of the administrator.

(j) When a statute provides for the calling of an election on a question or proposition by the commissioners court or the county judge upon the presentation or filing of a petition therefor, the administrator shall perform, in addition to the duties and functions directly relating to the holding of the election, all duties and functions which the statute places on the county clerk or the clerk of the commissioners court, either expressly or by implication, in connection with the filing of the petition and the determination of its sufficiency, and any other preliminary matters which precede the entry of the order calling the election.

(k) The application for issuance of a petition seeking a local option election on the sale of alcoholic beverages and the signed petition for the election shall be filed with the administrator; and the administrator shall perform all duties relating to the election which are placed upon the county clerk or the clerk of the commissioners court through and including the canvass of the returns, the posting of the order declaring the result of the election where required, and certification of the results to the proper authorities. A copy of the order declaring the result of the election shall be entered of record in the office of the county clerk and a copy shall also be filed in the office of the administrator.

(l) When a statute prescribing the procedure for creation of a special district provides for the calling of an election as a step in completing the creation, in addition to performing the duties directly related to the holding of such an election after it is called, the administrator shall also perform all acts which otherwise would be performed by the county clerk in connection with all preliminary matters leading up to the entry of the order on whether the election will be called, including but not limited to the presentation or filing of the petition for creation of the district, the holding of any hearing on the proposal, the filing of any report or other document that is a step in the procedure, and the taking of an appeal from the order on whether the election is to be called. When the holding of an election is not one of the steps in the creation, the county clerk shall continue to perform all duties placed by statute upon that officer in connection with the creation of a district, including duties relating to a petition for its creation.

(m) The county clerk is the proper officer to receive and post copies of proposed constitutional amendments under Article XVII, Section 1, of the Texas Constitution. However, the secretary of state shall send an information copy of each proposed amendment to the administrator also.

Subd. 3. (a) In keeping with the general guidelines and the specific statutory rules stated in Subdivisions 1 and 2 of this section, the secretary of state shall promulgate rules, as necessary, classifying the various statutes according to which of the two offices of county clerk or county elections administrator is to perform the duties and functions prescribed therein. The secretary of state's classification has the force of law unless or until the legislature enacts a statute expressly providing for a different assignment of that specific function.

(b) The secretary of state may initiate the promulgation of a rule on his own motion, and he may promulgate rules at any time after this section becomes law, regardless of whether the office of administrator has yet been created in any county. Whenever the county clerk or the administrator in any county in which the office of administrator has been created is uncertain as to which officer should perform a function under a statute for which the secretary of state has not made a classification, the officer shall request the secretary of state to promulgate a rule classifying that function, and the secretary of state shall comply with the request as expeditiously as possible.

(c) In addition to other notice of a proposed rule or of an adopted rule which is required by law, the secretary of state shall mail a copy of each rule proposed under this section to the county clerk and the county elections administrator in each county having the office of administrator within five days after notice of the proposal is published in the Texas Register and shall mail a copy of each adopted rule to those officers within five days after the certified copy of the rule is filed in the secretary of state's office. However, failure to mail the notice to these officers does not invalidate any actions taken or rules adopted.

(d) Upon receiving notification of the creation of the office of administrator in a county, the secretary of state shall mail to the county clerk a complete set of the rules previously promulgated under this section; and upon receiving notification of the appointment of the administrator, the secretary of state shall mail a complete set of rules to the administrator.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the secretary of state may adopt an emergency rule under the emergency provisions of the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act \(^1\) whenever a determination of the classification of a function is needed in a shorter time than that provided by normal procedures. The prior notice requirements prescribed in paragraph (c) of this subdivision do not apply to the promulgation of an emergency rule; however, notification of the adoption of an emergency rule is to be given in accordance with those provisions.

Subd. 4. (a) When an instrument which should be filed with the county elections administrator is mailed to the county clerk, or vice versa, the officer receiving the instrument shall make a notation thereon of the time of its receipt and shall promptly deliver it to the proper officer. If the statute does not specify that the instrument is to be filed with the administrator in a county which has that office, the misdirection does not prejudice the timeliness of the filing where time of mailing or time of receipt is material, and timeliness is determined by the time of mailing or the time of receipt by the officer to whom the instrument is addressed.

(b) When an instrument which should be filed with the county elections administrator is tendered in person to the county clerk, or vice versa, the officer to whom the instrument is tendered shall direct the person making the tender to take it to the proper office.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision, where a statute specifies that an instrument is to be filed with the county clerk, without specifying that it is to be filed with a county elections administrator in a county which has that office, but the place of filing is changed to the office of the administrator by virtue of this section, if the county clerk accepts and files the instrument, the filing has the same legal effect as if the instrument had been filed with the administrator.

(d) Where a statute specifies that an action is to be taken by the county clerk, without specifying that it is to be taken by the county elections administrator in a county which has that office, but the officer to act is changed to the administrator by virtue of this section, action taken by the county clerk without objection from the administrator has the same legal effect as action taken by the administrator.

Subd. 5. Statutes prescribing criminal penalties against the county clerk or his deputies or other employees for acts or omissions relating to duties which are transferred to the county elections administrator are to be construed as applying to the administrator or his deputies or employees, as the case may be.

\(^1\) Civil Statutes, art. 6252-13a.

CHAPTER SIX. OFFICIAL BALLOT

Art. 6.01. Official Ballot

In all elections by the people, the vote shall be by official ballot, which shall be numbered and elections so guarded and conducted as to detect fraud and preserve the purity of the ballot. No ballot shall be used in voting at any general, primary or special election held to elect public officers, select candidates for office or determine questions submitted to a vote of the people, except the official ballot, unless otherwise authorized by law. At the top of the official ballot shall be printed in large letters the words "Official Ballot." It shall contain the printed names of all candidates whose nominations for an elective office have been duly made and properly certified. The names shall appear on the ballot under the head of the party that nominates them, except as otherwise provided by this Code. No name shall appear on the official ballot except that of a candidate who was actually nominated (either as a party nominee or as a non-partisan or independent candidate) in accordance with the provisions of this Code. The name of no candidate shall appear more than once upon the official ballot. The name of no candidate of any political party that cast 20 percent or more of the votes for governor at the last preceding general election for that office shall be printed on any official ballot for a general election, unless nominated by primary election, on primary election day, except as otherwise provided in this code.

Art. 6.04. Removing or Substituting Names on Printed Ballots

Subd. 1. If the ballots for an election have already been printed when notice of a substitute nomination for an office is received, instead of having new ballots printed, the official board charged with the duty of furnishing the supplies for the election may make the necessary change in either of the following methods: (1) by having the ballots overprinted to blot or line out the name of the former the name of the new nominee, if space on the ballot permits use of this method, or (2) by printing pasters or stickers bearing the name of the new nominee, to be pasted over the name of the former nominee.

Subd. 2. If after the ballots are printed it becomes necessary to remove the name of a nominee for whom a substitute nomination has not been made or to remove the name of an independent candidate in order to comply with Section 233 of this code, instead of having new ballots printed, the officer or board charged with the duty of furnishing the supplies for the election may make the change either by having the ballots overprinted to blot out the name of the candidate (and also the square beside the name in the case of paper ballots) or by furnishing blank pasters or stickers to be pasted over the name and square.

Subd. 3. When pasters are used, a paster shall be affixed to each ballot before the presiding judge of the precinct, or the absentee voting clerk, endorses his name on the ballot for identification, or before the opening of the polls where the voting is by use of a voting machine or a voting device to which ballot labels are attached. As used in this section, the term “ballots” includes ballot labels.

Art. 6.05. Form of the Ballot

Subd. 2. The designation of the election (e. g., “General Election, Travis County, Texas”) and the date on which the election is held shall be printed at the top of the ballot, above the words “Official Ballot.” All ballots prepared for the election shall be numbered consecutively beginning with No. 1 in each county if the election is to be held in a single county or part thereof, or is to be held in more than one county or part thereof and the result in each county is to be canvassed separately prior to the final canvass. In elections held by a city or other political subdivision of the State, all ballots for the election shall be numbered consecutively beginning with No. 1. The numbers shall be printed or stamped in consecutive order on all the ballots prepared for any election, with a separate number for each ballot, at the time of printing and before they are divided up and delivered to the election judges.

Subd. 4. When presidential electors are to be voted upon, their names shall not appear on the official ballot, but the names of the candidates for president and vice-president, respectively, and the political parties shall appear at the head of their respective tickets, printed as one race, and the names of each set of independent candidates for president and vice-president, printed as one race, shall be printed at the head of the independent column in the order determined under Subdivision 3 of Section 61c of this Code (Article 6.05c, Vernon’s Texas Election Code). The votes for presidential candidates shall be canvassed, counted, and returns made in accordance with Section 171 and Section 172 of this Code (Articles 11.02 and 11.03, Vernon’s Texas Election Code).

Subd. 8. When constitutional amendments or other propositions are to be voted on, they shall appear once on each ballot in uniform style and type. Each proposition shall be submitted by printing the word “FOR” and beneath it the word “AGAINST” on the left-hand side of a single statement of the proposition, with a brace or parallel horizontal lines or other suitable device to show clearly to which proposition each “FOR” and “AGAINST” belongs. A square shall be printed on the left-hand side of the word “FOR” and of the word “AGAINST” in the statements submitting each proposition, and the following instruction note shall be printed immediately above the propositions: “Place an 'X' in the square beside the statement indicating the way you wish to vote.” The provisions of this subdivision shall supersede all existing statutes on the form in which propositions are to be submitted in all elections where paper ballots are used except local option elections held under the provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Code, and shall also supersede any conflicting enactment passed by the 60th Legislature at its regular session unless such enactment expressly excepts it from the operation of this subdivision.

Art. 6.05b. Order of Party Columns on the Ballot

In any election held at the expense of the county, in which party columns appear on the official ballot, the columns shall be arranged in the following order, beginning on the left-hand side of the ballot:

(1) columns of parties with state organization which have nominated candidates to be voted on at the election, arranged in the order of the number of votes cast throughout the state for each party’s candidate for Governor at the last preceding general election for that office, with the party whose candidate for Governor received the highest vote being placed in the first column;

(2) columns of parties without state organization which have nominated candidates to be voted on at the election;
Art. 6.05b

ELECTION CODE

(3) a column for independent candidates;
(4) a column for write-in candidates.

If there is no independent or nonpartisan candidate whose name is to be printed on the ballot, the column for independent candidates shall be omitted.

Where voting machines are used in the election and the columns on the ballot are arranged horizontally, the columns shall appear on the ballot in the order herein provided, beginning at the top of the ballot instead of on the left-hand side.

Art. 6.05c. Order of Offices and Names of Candidates

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 1 and 2]

Order of Names of Candidates

Subd. 3.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 3(a) and 3(b)]

(c) The provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivision apply to every runoff election following a general or special election, except runoff elections which are governed by Section 81 of this code (Article 7.16, Vernon's Texas Election Code) and runoff elections in home-rule cities which have charter provisions specifying a different method for determining the order of the names on the ballot in a runoff election.

Art. 6.06. How to Mark Ballot

In all elections, general, special, or primary, the voter shall place an “X” in the square beside the name of each candidate for whom he wishes to vote; provided, however, that if the voter places a plus sign (+) or a check mark (‘) or any other mark that clearly shows his intention, in such space, it shall be counted as a vote for that candidate, provided that no more names are thus marked than there are places to be filled. When party columns appear on the ballot, a voter desiring to vote a straight ticket may do so by placing an “X” or other clear mark in the square at the head of the column of the party for which he wishes to vote. If the name of the person for whom the voter wishes to vote is not printed on the ballot, the voter shall write in the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote, in the write-in column under the appropriate office title in elections where party columns appear on the ballot, and in an appropriate space under the title of the office in other elections; provided, however, that a voter shall not be entitled to vote for any candidate whose name is not printed on the ballot in any runoff election for nominating candidates or electing officers, and a space for write-in votes shall not be provided on the ballot for such elections. A voter shall also not be entitled to vote for any candidate whose name is not printed on the ballot in any other type of election where the law expressly prohibits votes for write-in candidates. In all elections where questions or propositions are to be voted on except local option elections held under the provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Code, the voter shall place an “X” or other clear mark in the square beside the statement indicating the way he wishes to vote on each proposition. The failure of a voter to mark his ballot in strict conformity with these directions or failure to vote a full ballot shall not invalidate the ballot, and a ballot shall be counted on all races and propositions wherein the intention of the voter is clearly ascertainable, except where the law expressly prohibits the counting of the ballot. It is specifically provided that the election officers shall not refuse to count a ballot because of the voter’s having marked his ballot by scratching out the names of candidates for whom or the statement of propositions for which he does not wish to vote.

Art. 6.06b. Write-in Candidate for Public Office; Declaration of Candidacy

Elections to Which Applicable; Procedure for Filing Declaration

Subd. 1. In the general election for state and county officers held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of even-numbered years, no write-in vote may be counted for a person unless that person files a declaration of write-in candidacy within the time specified in Subdivision 2 or Subdivision 3 of this section, whichever is applicable. The declaration shall be filed with the same person with whom an independent candidate for the same office files his application to have his name printed on the ballot. It shall contain the same information as that required on the application of a candidate whose name is to be printed on the ballot, but shall state that the person is running as a write-in candidate instead of requesting that his name be printed on the ballot.

Filing Deadline

Subd. 2. Except as provided in Subdivision 3 of this section, the declaration of write-in candidacy must be filed not later than 5 p.m. of the last day which is not a Saturday, a Sunday, or an official state holiday, preceding the beginning of the period for absentee voting in the election. The declaration must reach the office of the appropriate officer by that deadline, and a mailing without a delivery by the deadline is not sufficient.
Extended Deadline

Subd. 3. Where a candidate whose name is to be printed on the ballot dies or is declared ineligible to hold this office on or after the second day preceding the filing deadline stated in Subdivision 2 of this section, a write-in candidate may file his declaration at any time before 12 noon of the day preceding election day. Absentee ballots voted before the death or ineligibility or before the filing of the declaration of write-in candidacy shall be counted in the same manner as if the write-in candidate had filed under Subdivision 2.

Certification of Filing

Subd. 4. On a declaration which is filed under Subdivision 2 of this section, the officer with whom it is filed shall certify the name of the write-in candidate to the clerk for absentee voting in the election (or to each clerk, if there is more than one), before the absentee voting begins. On a declaration which is filed under Subdivision 3, he shall notify the clerk for absentee voting immediately if the period for applying for an absentee ballot has expired. He shall also certify the name of each write-in candidate to the officer who is in charge of distribution of ballots to the presiding judges of the election.

Notification to Presiding Election Judges

Subd. 5. (a) Before election day, the officer having charge of distribution of the ballots for the election shall furnish to each presiding judge a sufficient number of copies of a list of the names of write-in candidates who have qualified under this section so that the presiding judge shall be able to comply with the requirements of Subsection (b) of this subdivision.

(b) Each presiding judge shall post a copy of the list of write-in candidates in the same locations where instruction cards are posted in accordance with Section 80, Texas Election Code (Article 7.15, Vernon's Texas Election Code) and Section 85, Texas Election Code (Article 8.08, Vernon's Texas Election Code), or in the same location where sample ballots are posted in accordance with Section 80, Texas Election Code (Article 7.15, Vernon's Texas Election Code) and Section 78, Texas Election Code (Article 7.14, Vernon's Texas Election Code).

Art. 6.07. Constitutional Amendments and Other Questions

Subd. 2. A notice of each proposed constitutional amendment shall be published, under the authority of the Secretary of State, as required by Section 1, Article XVII, Constitution of Texas. The Secretary of State shall contract with the eligible newspapers for the publication of the notices; shall furnish affidavit forms, in duplicate, to be executed by the owner, editor or publisher of the newspaper, when two publications have been made; shall furnish one approved copy of each executed affidavit to the Comptroller, who shall then authorize the Treasurer to issue a warrant in the amount specified. Executed affidavits must be returned from the owner, editor, or publisher of the newspaper to the Secretary of State within 30 days from the date of the last publication; unless this time limit is observed, the Secretary of State shall refrain from approving affidavits for payment. Provided, however, if the Secretary of State deems it more expeditious or economical, he may make a written contract with any state-wide association of daily and weekly newspapers in Texas for the publication of the notices of such constitutional amendments in newspapers eligible to publish them. Such association shall cause such notices to be published in the eligible newspapers in the manner required by the Constitution; shall furnish such materials as are necessary for a correct and uniform publication of such notices; shall furnish affidavit forms, in duplicate, to such newspapers, to be executed by the owner, editor, or publisher thereof, when two publications have been made; shall make an itemized report to the Secretary of State showing the names of the newspapers in which such notices were published, the number of column inches submitted to each publication, the cost of publication in each newspaper, together with a clipping for such newspaper, and any other information desired by the Secretary of State pertaining to such task; shall return within 30 days from the date of the last publication all affidavits executed by the owner, editor, or publisher of such newspapers, together with an affidavit executed in duplicate by the general manager of such association that the notices have been published by said newspapers as required by the Constitution, to the Secretary of State, who shall, after satisfying himself as to the proper publication of such notices, furnish one approved copy of the executed affidavit of the general manager of the association to the Comptroller, who shall authorize the Treasurer to issue a warrant in the amount specified to the association. The Comptroller and Treasurer shall forthwith perform their duties in this connection, so that undue length of time shall not elapse between publication and payment therefor. The Legislature shall appropriate a sufficient fund for such publication, such fund to be estimated by the Secretary of State.

Subd. 2a. Where the Secretary of State contracts directly with the newspapers for publication of notices of proposed constitutional amendments, each newspaper which publishes a notice is entitled to be paid for the publication an amount computed at the rate of 85 percent of the newspaper's published national rate for advertising per column inch if the Secretary of State furnishes to the newspaper a copy of the notice in the form of a camera-ready paste-up proof, a matrix, or a printing plate, and an amount computed at the full rate of the newspaper's published national rate for advertising per column inch if the Secretary of State does not furnish a copy of the notice in that form.

(b) Where the Secretary of State contracts with a state-wide association of newspapers for the publication of the notices, the association is entitled to be paid an amount equal to the sum of the cost of publication in each newspaper, computed at the full rate of each newspaper's national rate for advertising per column inch. The commission retained by the association shall be on a percentage basis uniformly applied to all newspapers, and the percentage shall be stipulated in the contract between the Secretary of State and the association.

Subd. 4. [Expired]
[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 445, ch. 189, § 1, eff. May 13, 1975; Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2091, ch. 682, § 16, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]
Former subd. 4 of this article, added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 445, ch. 189, § 1, providing that the amendments to the Constitution proposed by S.J.R.No. 11 of the 64th Legislature were to be printed and numbered on the ballot in the order in which numbered by that resolution, expired by its own terms on December 31, 1975.
Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1181, ch. 440, related to the methods of publicizing proposed amendments to the Constitution contained in S.J.R.No. 11 of the 64th Legislature and made an appropriation for that purpose.

CHAPTER SEVEN. ARRANGEMENT AND EXPENSES OF ELECTION

Article 7.17a. Secretary of State to Certify Voting Devices [NEW].

Art. 7.14. Providing for Voting Machines
[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 1 to 14]

Manner of Voting

Sec. 15. But one voter shall be admitted at a time, and no voter shall be permitted to keep the curtain of the machine closed longer than two minutes. However, if a voter is unable to read the language in which the ballot is printed or if because of some bodily infirmity he is physically unable to operate the machine or to see, he may be assisted by two election officials, or by a person selected by the voter, who shall operate the machine so as to vote the ballot in accordance with the voter's wishes, and he shall be permitted to keep the curtain of the machine closed no longer than five minutes. The provisions of Section 95 of this Code shall govern the assistance rendered under this section insofar as they can be made applicable.

(b) In any election in which, pursuant to the authorization in paragraph (a) hereof, the ballot is so arranged that the write-in slot on the voting machine cannot be utilized, and the election is one in which write-in voting is permitted, a sufficient supply of write-in ballots as described herein shall be provided at each polling place. The ballots shall bear the heading prescribed in Subdivision 2 of Section 61 of this code, as amended (Article 6.05, Vernon's Texas Election Code), with the substitution of the words "Official Write-in Ballot" for "Official Ballot," and shall bear the following instruction note: "Do not cast a vote on the voting machine for the office for which you cast a ballot herewith by way of a write-in." The instruction note for the write-in ballot for a general election for state and county officers shall contain the following additional sentence: "If you pull the straight-party lever of a political party that has a nominee for the office for which you are casting a write-in vote, be sure to turn up the selector key by the name of the nominee before you pull the voting lever." Beneath the instruction note there shall appear the following:

FOR

(Name of write-in candidate)

For the office of:

(Title of office)

If an open write-in campaign is being conducted for more than one office, the ballots shall provide as many spaces as there are offices for which write-in campaigns are being conducted.

Each voter is entitled, but is not required, to receive one official write-in ballot. The procedure outlined in Section 93 of this code, as amended (Article 8.11, Vernon's Texas Election Code), shall be observed in the authentication and delivery of the ballot to the voter. After filling in the write-in ballot, the voter shall deposit the ballot in a ballot box prepared for that purpose in the manner provided for elections conducted by use of paper ballots. No write-in ballot shall be cast or counted for any person whose name appears on the ballot on the voting machine.

Provided however, that the following affidavit shall be signed by any voter who receives an official write-in ballot.

STATE OF TEXAS COUNTY OF
Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared __________, who, having been by me first duly sworn, upon his oath, did depose and say:

That I have not and will not cast a vote on the voting machine for the office of ________________

for which I have cast a ballot herewith by way of a write-in.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this the __________ day of __________ A.D. 19________

County, Texas.

Making Out the Returns and Proclamation of the Result

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (a) and (b)]

(c) If the machine is provided with a device which produces a printed record of the numbers registered on the counters, the procedure outlined herein shall be followed in lieu of the procedure set out above for preparation of the statements of canvass. The presiding judge, in the presence of at least two clerks and two watchers of opposed interest (if such there be) and of any other person lawfully present who wishes to observe, shall take the necessary steps to secure a printed record from each machine. Ample opportunity shall be given to all persons lawfully entitled to be present at the polling place to examine the printed record. The printed record shall then be signed by the presiding judge and two clerks and by two watchers of opposed interest (if such there be), certifying that the printed record was obtained from the machine designated thereon, and the certified printed record shall constitute the official statement of canvass for that machine.

Art. 7.15. Providing for Electronic Voting Systems

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 1]

Definitions

Subd. 2. As used in this section, unless otherwise specified:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 2(a)]

(b) “Automatic tabulating equipment” or “tabulating equipment” means any apparatus which automatically examines and counts voted ballots and tabulates the results.
Art. 7.15
ELECTION CODE

precincts. In any precinct designated for use of a particular electronic voting system, the voting in that precinct may be supplemented by use of some other authorized method of voting when in any election it appears that the number of available units of the system designated for use in that precinct is inadequate for that election; and the officer or board charged with the duty of furnishing supplies of the election may make such supplementation under those conditions.

(b) The commissioners court at any time may rescind or modify its previous order or orders adopting any electronic voting system and may discontinue use of the system altogether.

c) The electronic voting system adopted by the commissioners court shall be used at the biennial general elections for state and county officers in precincts and for absentee voting as designated by the court for use of such system. In all other elections, general, special, or primary, the authority holding the election shall determine within its discretion whether the voting for the particular election shall be by use of such system or by some other authorized method of voting. The determination shall be made by the commissioners court in elections held at the expense of the county, by the governing body of the municipality or political subdivision in elections held by municipalities and other political subdivisions, and by the county executive committee of the party holding the election in primary elections of political parties.

Experimental Use of Electronic Voting Systems

Subd. 6. The commissioners court of any county in the state may secure, for experimental use in elections in one or more precincts or for absentee voting, without formal adoption thereof, any kind of electronic voting system approved by the Secretary of State, and its use at any election in designated precincts or for absentee voting within the period specified by the commissioners court for experimental use shall be as valid for all purposes as if it has been formally adopted; provided, however, that the period for experimental use shall not exceed two years from the date of the order authorizing its use.

Absentee Voting

Subd. 9. (a) When an electronic voting system has been adopted by the commissioners court, then the system may be used in any election for absentee voting by personal appearance or by mail, or both. The authority charged with holding the election may within its discretion determine by proper resolution or order whether or not an electronic voting system will be used for absentee voting by personal appearance or by mail, or both, at such election. If an electronic voting system is to be used for such absentee voting and more than one kind of system has been adopted by the commissioners court, the authority shall specify what kind is to be used.

(b) If the authority holding the election determines that an electronic voting system shall be used for absentee voting, the necessary ballots and voting equipment shall be provided in the clerk's office. The procedure for absentee voting where ordinary paper ballots are used shall be followed insofar as it can be made applicable. If an electronic voting system is used for voting by personal appearance and the absentee ballots voted by mail are counted manually, such ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board as provided in Subdivision 6 of Section 37 of this code (Subdivision 6, Article 5.05, Vernon's Texas Election Code), except that the county clerk shall deliver the ballots to the canvassing board when the presiding judge so directs. The board shall also prepare the voted electronic voting system ballots for delivery to the central counting station in the manner provided in Subdivision 19 of this section, and such ballots shall be delivered to the central counting station and there tabulated, as provided in Subdivisions 19 and 20 of this section. The presiding judge of the central counting station shall add and attach the results of any manually counted ballots and attach the results of any write-in votes to the tabulation made on the automatic tabulating equipment, and shall make returns showing the totals thus obtained.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 9(d) and (e) to 10a]

Subd. 11.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 11(a) to (b)(8)]

(4) Repealed by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 661, ch. 247, § 11, eff. Aug. 29, 1977

(5) In elections in which party columns appear on the ordinary paper ballot, the following method of showing party affiliations may be used in lieu of party columns. The title of each office shall be printed on the ballot followed by the names of the candidates for that office and their party affiliations, if any. Provision shall be made at the head of the ballot for voting a straight party ticket, and the candidate of the party which is printed in the first party column on ordinary paper ballots shall be printed in the first position under the office title, the candidate of the party which is printed in the second column on ordinary paper ballots shall be printed in the second position, and so on. Uncontested races may be listed separately from contested races under the heading “Uncontested Races,” and may be voted on as a bloc.

(c) This paragraph (c) shall govern the form of the ballot to be used with electronic voting systems in which the names of offices, candidates and parties and statements of measures to be voted on are set forth on ballot labels and the voter records his vote by marking or punching a ballot card which is used in conjunction with the ballot labels.

(1) Ballot cards may be of such size, composition, texture and color (other than yellow, which shall be used for sample ballots only) and may be printed in any type of ink or combinations of ink that will be suitable for use in the automatic tabulating equipment in which they are intended to be placed. Ballot labels may be of such size, composition, texture and color (other than yellow) that will be suitable for the intended manner of use. Printing on the ballot label shall be of such size that it will be clearly legible when read by the voter in the manner contemplated by the voting system being used.

(2) Ballot cards may contain printed code marks or prepunched holes to assure that the card is properly positioned in the voting device, if the ballot labels are attached to a voting device, or to assure that the card is placed in correct reading position in the tabulating equipment, but the code marks or prepunched holes shall not be used in any way that will reveal the identity of the voters voting the ballots.

(3) The names of candidates, offices, parties and statements of issues to be voted on may be printed on two or more ballot labels. Where all candidates for the same office or all party columns cannot conveniently be placed on the same face of the same label, the candidates or columns may be carried on more than one page, but in such event the first page of the sequence shall contain a statement that the names of other candidates or other parties appear on the following page or pages. If the ballot is printed on more than one ballot label, different tints of paper, other than yellow, may be used for different pages of the ballot labels, and other suitable means may be adopted to facilitate the use of the ballot labels with the ballot card. When party columns appear on the ballot, there shall be printed at the head of the ballot the names of the parties and a space for voting a straight ticket.

(5) The ballot card may have attached at the top an unnumbered detachable stub, which may contain the designation and date of the election and the instructions for marking the ballot and depositing it in the ballot box. The stub shall contain an instruction to the voter not to detach the stub; however, detachment of the stub before the ballot is deposited in the ballot box does not invalidate the ballot card. The election officers who prepare the voted ballot cards for counting shall detach and discard the stubs at the time they examine the ballots as provided in paragraph (a) of Subdivision 19 of this section.

(6) If the number of candidates and/or propositions to be voted upon in any election exceeds the capacity of one ballot card, the ballot may be divided into parts and a different ballot card used for each of the separate parts, but in all cases where more than one card is necessary to accommodate the entire ballot, the names of all candidates for any particular office shall be placed on the same part. A separate voting device shall be provided for each part at each polling place. Each ballot card shall bear the ballot number, and other appropriate provisions may be made for identifying the related ballot cards. In lieu of using separate ballot parts for listing the ballot, uncontested races may be listed separately under the heading “Uncontested Races,” with the name of each candidate appearing under the title of the office for which he is a candidate, and if the election is one in which party columns appear on the ballot, the party affiliation of the candidate shall be indicated by printing the name of the party which nominated him (or the word “Independent” if he is an independent candidate) after the candidate’s name; and all such uncontested races may be voted on as a bloc.

(8) A separate write-in ballot, which may be in the form of a card, ballot, or envelope which the voter places with his ballot or ballot card after voting, shall be provided to permit voters to vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot.

(d) This paragraph (d) shall apply to the form of the ballot for all electronic voting systems.
Art. 7.15

ELECTION CODE

(2) The statement of propositions and measures submitted to the voters may be abbreviated on the ballot if necessary, provided there is displayed at the polling place the verbatim statement on each proposition or measure as it appears on paper ballots. Abbreviation of matter to be voted on throughout the state shall be done by the Secretary of State.

Preparation of Ballot and Program

Subd. 11a. (a) The ballots to be used at an election shall be prepared and procured under the same regulations as ordinary paper ballots, except that the officer responsible for making up the ballot may determine the number of ballots or ballot cards needed for the election based on the turnout for similar elections in the past and shall confer with the programmer for that election before ordering the ballots printed, to make sure that the ballot is properly prepared for counting by means of the electronic tabulating equipment which will be used.

(b) The authority charged with the duty to provide ballots shall select a competent person to prepare the program for the electronic tabulating equipment. The programmer may be one of the persons appointed or approved by the commissioners court under Paragraph (b), Subdivision 20 of this section or some other person, but if the program is prepared by anyone other than the tabulation supervisor, it must be submitted to the tabulation supervisor for his approval at least 10 days before the election.

Assistance to Voter

Subd. 14. If a voter is unable to read the language in which the ballot is printed or if because of some bodily infirmity he is physically unable to operate the voting equipment or to see, he may be assisted by two election officers, or by a person selected by the voter, who shall mark the ballot in accordance with the voter's wishes. The provisions of Section 95 of this code govern the assistance rendered insofar as they can be made applicable.

1 Article 933.

Ballot boxes

Subd. 15. For each polling place where an electronic voting system is used, there shall be supplied two ballot boxes for the deposit of voted ballots, which shall be of suitable design and with a suitable opening for placing the ballots therein in such manner that the ballots will not be damaged or rendered unfit for counting on the tabulating equipment. There shall also be supplied suitable containers for transporting the voted ballots to the central counting station.

Conduct of the Voting

Subd. 17. (a) The procedure at the polls where voting is by use of an electronic voting system shall be the same as at polling places where paper ballots are used, except as provided in this section. Where the portion of the ballot to be marked by the voter consists of more than one page or ballot card, the related parts may be placed in an envelope or otherwise secured so that the parts will not become separated before delivery to the voter. When a voter selects his ballot, he shall be instructed to use only the voting equipment provided for marking the ballot and that he is not to mark his ballot in any other way and is not to place any other marks thereon, except for write-ins. After a voter has marked his ballot, he shall deposit it in the ballot box provided for the deposit of voted ballots.

Procedure while Polls are Open

Subd. 18. (a) At any time after the expiration of one hour after the voting has begun, the presiding judge may direct the receiving officers to deliver ballot box No. 1 to the clerks preparing the ballots for the central counting station, who shall immediately deliver in its place ballot box No. 2, which shall be opened and examined and securely closed and locked; and until the boxes are again interchanged, the voters shall deposit their ballots in box No. 2. In this manner, ballot boxes No. 1 and No. 2 may be interchanged periodically as directed by the presiding judge, but the box for receiving the ballots shall not be exchanged and the ballots shall not be removed from it at any time before the polls are closed unless there are more than 10 ballots in the box. Once the box for receiving the ballots is delivered to the clerks preparing the ballots for the central counting station, they shall remove the voted ballots from the ballot box and carry out the procedures prescribed in Subdivision 19 of this section preparatory to making the ballots, envelopes, and other materials ready for delivery to the central counting station.

(b) The authority holding the election may in its discretion also provide that voted ballots of designat-ed precincts shall be delivered by authorized election officials, in the presence of watchers, to a central counting station at stated intervals during the day and that the processing of such ballots in accordance with the procedures prescribed in Subdivision 20 may begin prior to the close of the polls. Such processing may be limited by the authority holding the election to procedures preparatory to the counting and tabulating of ballots, or the authority holding the election may also permit the preliminary counting and tabulating of ballots with automatic tabulating equipment; but in no event shall any results be disclosed prior to the close of the polls, and all persons connected with the handling and tabulating of the ballots shall be subject to the provisions of Section 105 of this code (Article 8.23, Vernon's Texas Election Code) with respect to revealing information as to the results of the election.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 19(a) to (e)]

(f) After the election officers at the polling place have delivered all ballots to the central counting station, the ballot label assemblies and all other election supplies and records, including all duplicate certificates and unused seals, shall be delivered to the proper authority designated by law to receive them.

Art. 7.16. Runoff Elections in Cities and Towns of over 200,000

Sec. 1. In all cities and towns in this State, whether incorporated under General and Special Law, (including home rule cities) having a population in excess of two hundred thousand (200,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding or future Federal Census the election of candidates for all municipal offices shall be determined in the following manner:

(b) In the event any candidate for either of said offices fails to receive a majority of all votes cast for all the candidates for such office at such election the Mayor of said city shall, on the first day following the completion of the official count of the ballots cast at said first election, issue a call for a second election to be held in said city within thirty (30) days following the issuance of such call, at which said second election the two (2) candidates receiving the highest number of votes for any such office in the first election at which no one was elected at said first election by receiving a majority of all votes cast for all candidates for such office, shall again be voted for. The official ballot to be used at said second election shall be prepared by the City Clerk or City Secretary and the name of no person shall appear thereon unless he was a candidate for the office designated at said first election, and the two (2) persons receiving at said first election the first and second highest number of votes cast for candidates for such office at such first election shall be entitled to have their names printed on said official ballot in the order of their standing in the computation of the votes cast for such candidates at said first election as candidates at said second election for such office; provided, however, that in the event any person who was a candidate at said first election and who shall be entitled to become a candidate at such second election shall fail to request that his name shall appear on the official ballot therefor at such second election as herein provided, the candidate for such office standing next highest in the computation of votes shall succeed to the rights of such candidate who failed to request that his name appear upon the ballot at said second election; provided further, that two (2) candidates for such office at said first election shall be entitled to become candidates therefor at said second election, which two (2) candidates shall be those two (2) among such candidates as shall stand highest respectively in the computation of all votes cast for all the candidates for such office at said first election as shall file written request to be placed on the official ballot as candidates for such office at said second election. In the event of a tie in the vote for the two (2) leading candidates for any office at said first election, said office shall be filled at a second election as herein provided for, at which such candidates so tied in said first election may again become candidates. In the event such candidates who tied in said first election, or either or them, shall fail so to do, the two (2) candidates for such office who are next highest in the computation of votes therefor and who desire to become candidates therefor at said second election shall be entitled so to do in order of the number of votes they respectively received at said first election. In the event of a tie between the two (2) candidates for any office at said second election, they shall cast lots to determine who shall be elected to such office.

Sec. 2. Notwithstanding any provision in Section 1 of this statute, when in any municipal election nominations have been made by one or more political parties and the names of the candidates are listed on the ballot in party columns in conformity with the provisions of this code applicable to the method of voting used in the election, if any party nominee is a candidate in a succeeding runoff election, the ballot for the runoff election shall also be arranged in party columns in the same relative order as they appeared on the ballot for the first election, omitting any column in which no candidate's name is to be printed on the runoff ballot. If all candidates whose names appear on the runoff ballot are independent candidates, the ballot shall be made up without party columns, and the names of the two candidates in each race shall be printed on the ballot in the order of their standing in the computation of the votes cast at the first election.

Sec. 3. Whenever any home-rule city whose charter provides for election of more than one member of its governing body from the same list of candidates attains a population in excess of 200,000 inhabitants, not later than the 90th day before the first regular election at which the provisions of this section are applicable, the governing body of the city shall assign a place number to each such position, identifying it by the name of the incumbent member at the time the designation is made; and thereafter one person to fill each such position shall be elected separately by place number until such time as the charter is amended to provide for some other method of election that is consistent with an election by majority vote.

Sec. 4. This law does not apply to any city whose charter provides for the selection of its officers by means of a preferential type of ballot or to any city whose charter requires that its officers be elected by majority vote and specifies the procedures for conducting a runoff election.

Art. 7.17a. Secretary of State to Certify Voting Devices

(a) Any person, firm, or corporation owning or controlling any voting device or system and desiring to have the same adopted for use in this state may apply to the secretary of state to have such device or system examined under the provisions of this section if in the opinion of the secretary of state the device or system cannot be adequately examined under either Section 79 or Section 80 of this code (Article 7.14 or Article 7.15, Vernon's Texas Election Code). Before the examination the applicant shall pay to the secretary of state the sum of $450. The secretary of state shall cause the device or system to be examined as hereinafter provided and shall make and file on file in the office of the secretary of state a report of such examination, which shall show whether the kind of device or system so examined can safely be used by the voters under the conditions hereinafter provided. If the report states that the device or system can be so used, it shall be deemed approved and the device or system may be adopted for use in any election held in this state. Before making and filing such report, the secretary of state shall require the voting device or system to be examined by three examiners to be appointed by the secretary of state for such purpose, one of whom shall be an expert in patent law and the other two shall be mechanical experts or electronics experts, as may be appropriate, and shall require each of them to make a written report on such device or system, which reports shall be attached to the secretary of state's report and kept on file. Each examiner shall receive the sum of $150 as his compensation and expenses in making an examination and report as to each voting device or system examined by him. Neither the secretary of state nor any examiner may have any pecuniary interest in any voting device or system. When a device or system has been approved, every improvement or change must be filed with the secretary of state. The secretary of state may, at any time, in his discretion, reexamine a device or system approved under this section. Any form of voting device or system not approved under either this section or Section 79 or 80 of this code cannot be used at any election in this state.

(b) A voting device or system approved by the secretary of state must be so constituted as to provide facilities for voting for such candidates as may be legally placed on an official ballot in any election in this state. It must also permit a voter in a general election to vote for any person for any office, whether or not nominated as a candidate by any party but whose name is legally on the ballot as an independent candidate, and must permit voting in absolute secrecy. It also must be so constituted that a voter cannot vote for a candidate on a proposition for whom or on which he is not lawfully entitled to vote. It also must be so constituted as to prevent a voter from having his vote counted for more than one person for the same office, unless permitted by law, and at the same time preventing his vote from being counted for the same person twice. It must also permit each voter to vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, in any election and for any office where write-in votes are permitted by law. It must also permit the voter to vote by means of a single mark or punch or other appropriate act for all the candidates of one party or to vote a split ticket as he desires. No voting device or system shall be approved by the secretary of state unless he finds that it is suitable for the purpose for which it is intended, and that it will operate efficiently and accurately and provide adequate safeguards against fraudulent manipulation under the conditions under which it is intended to be used.

(c) In the event a voting system is approved under this section for which this code prescribes no applicable or suitable procedures concerning its use, the secretary of state shall, upon certification of such system, issue a directive prescribing the procedures, limitations, and conditions for the implementation of such system.

CHAPTER EIGHT. CONDUCTING ELECTIONS AND RETURNS THEREOF

Article 8.36a. County Chairmen
8.07. Present Registration Certificate

No citizen shall be permitted to vote, except as provided in the Constitution of Texas unless he first presents to the judge of election his registration certificate unless the same has been lost or mislaid, or left at home, in which event he shall make an affidavit of that fact, to be left with the judges and sent by them with the returns of the election; provided, that, if since he obtained his certificate he removes from the precinct or county of his residence, he may vote on complying with other provisions of this Code. The affidavit may be incorporated into any combination signature roster and list of registered voters as prescribed by the secretary of state.

Art. 8.08. Procedure for Accepting Voter; Signature Roster

Subd. 1. An election officer shall receive from the voter his registration certificate, when he presents himself to vote. If the voter has lost or mislaid his certificate or left it at home, he shall make an affidavit of that fact. For elections held on or after April 1 and no later than June 30 in even-numbered years, if any voter who is a resident of a county in a primary election or of a county, municipality, or district which is conducting any other election has failed to receive a certificate for the current two-year registration period, the election officer shall determine if the name of such voter appears on the list of cancelled voter registration certificates for the particular election precinct, and, if so, the election officer shall allow such voter to cast a ballot in the manner stated in Section 48a of this code. The election officer shall announce the voter's name in an audible voice and shall ascertain that his name appears on the list of registered voters or shall satisfy himself, in the manner stated in Section 48a of this code, that the voter is a registered voter and is entitled to vote in that precinct. He shall then require the voter to sign the signature roster provided for in Subdivision 3 of this section. If the voter has presented his registration certificate, the election officer shall compare the signature on the roster with the signature on the certificate to see that it is the same. If he finds that the signatures do not correspond, he shall not allow the voter to vote unless the voter complies with the procedure prescribed in Section 91 of this code for acceptance of a challenged voter.

Subd. 2. When a voter is accepted for voting, the election officer shall place a notation on the list of registered voters showing that he has voted and shall enter the voter's name on the poll list or shall use a combination signature roster and list of registered voters in the manner and format prescribed by the secretary of state. If a separate poll list is used, the names on the poll list shall be entered in the same order as the names on the signature roster.

Subd. 4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this code which prescribes a criminal penalty, an election officer who knowingly violates any provision of this section shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than 90 days, or be both so fined and imprisoned.

Art. 8.09. Vote Challenged

When a person offering to vote at any general, special, or primary election shall be objected to by an election judge or clerk, a poll watcher, or any other person, the presiding judge shall examine him upon oath touching the points of such objection, and if such person establishes his right to vote to the satisfaction of the presiding judge, he shall be permitted to vote, and the word "sworn" shall be written upon the poll list or on the prescribed combination form opposite the name of the voter. If upon his own oath the person fails to establish his right to vote to the satisfaction of the presiding judge, his vote shall not be accepted unless in addition to his own oath he submits proof by the oath of one well-known resident of the precinct that he is a qualified voter at such election and in such precinct. When such proof is submitted, his vote shall be accepted, and the word "challenged" and the name and address of the person testifying under oath as to the voter's qualifications shall be written on the poll list or on the prescribed combination form opposite the name of the voter.

Art. 8.13. Aid to Voter

Subd. 1. Not more than one person at the same time shall be permitted to occupy any one compartment, voting booth or place prepared for a voter, nor shall any assistance be given a voter in preparing his ballot, except when a voter is unable to prepare the same because of the voter's inability to read the language in which the ballot is printed or because of some bodily infirmity which renders the voter physically unable to write or to see, in which case two officers of such election shall assist the voter (with the aid of an interpreter, when necessary), they having first sworn that they will not suggest, by word or sign or gesture, how such voter shall vote; that they will confine their assistance to answering the voter's questions, to stating the propositions to be voted on, and to naming candidates and the political parties to which they belong; and that they will prepare the voter's ballot as such voter directs.

If the election is a general election, the election officers who assist such voters shall be of different political parties, if there be such officers present. One or more watchers may be present when the assistance herein permitted is being given by election officers, but each watcher must remain silent except in cases of irregularity or violation of the law.

Subd. 2. Instead of being assisted by two election officers as hereinabove provided, a voter who is entitled to assistance may select any qualified voter residing in the precinct to assist him, and no other person shall be permitted to be present while the ballot is being prepared. Before assisting the voter, the person selected shall take the following oath, which shall be administered by one of the election officers: "I solemnly swear that I will not suggest, by word or sign or gesture, how the voter shall vote; I will confine my assistance to answering the voter's questions, to stating propositions to be voted on and to naming candidates and the political parties to which they belong; and I will prepare the voter's ballot as the voter directs."

Subd. 3. Where any assistance is rendered in preparing a ballot other than as herein allowed, the ballot shall not be counted, but shall be void for all purposes.

Art. 8.15. Deposit of Ballot

Subd. 1. After the voter has prepared his ballot, he shall fold it so as to conceal the printing thereon and so as to expose the signature of the presiding judge on the back of the ballot (except that ballot cards and certain other types of ballots used in electronic voting systems should not be folded), and then deposit it in the proper ballot box.

Subd. 2. The ballot stub to be signed by the voter and the stub box for the deposit of the signed stub, formerly provided for in this and other sections of this code, are eliminated by amendments enacted by the 65th Legislature at its regular session in 1977. All statutory provisions relating to the use of ballot stubs and stub boxes which appear in other statutes enacted at the regular session of the 65th Legislature, regardless of whether they are enacted before or after this amendment, or enacted at any prior session, except provisions relating to stubs attached to ballot cards used in an electronic voting system, are to be treated as void.

Section 12 of the 1977 amendatory act provided:
"The statutory provisions relating to the preservation, examination, and destruction of ballot stubs which were in effect on the date of the election continue to apply to the ballot stubs for elections held before the effective date of this Act."

Art. 8.17. Bystanders Excluded

From the time of opening the polls until the announcement of the results of the canvass of votes cast and the signing of the official returns, the boxes and official ballots shall be kept at the polling place in the presence of one or more of the judges, and watchers, if any. No person, except those admitted to vote, shall be admitted within the room where the election is being held, except the judges, clerks, persons admitted by the presiding judge to preserve order, inspectors, watchers, and children under 10 years old who accompany a parent who is admitted to vote. Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, the child or children may also be present in the voting booth or compartment while the parent is voting.

Art. 8.19b. Tallying Votes for Write-in Candidates

In the general election for state and county officers held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of even-numbered years, before the counting begins the presiding judge shall furnish the counting officers with the list of write-in candidates who have qualified for the election as provided in Section 62b of this code. Only the names of the candidates printed on the ballot and the names of write-in candidates appearing on the list shall be entered on the tally sheets, and a write-in vote for any other person shall not be tallied.

1 Article 6.06b.

Art. 8.22. Death or Ineligibility of Candidate Before Election

(a) When the name of a deceased or ineligible candidate is printed on the ballot for a general or special election, as provided in Section 233 of this code, the votes cast for him shall be counted and return made thereof; and if he receives a plurality of the votes cast for the office where a plurality is sufficient for election, or if he receives a majority of the votes cast for the office where a majority is required for election, the vacancy shall be filled as in the case of a vacancy occurring after the election. If he is one of the two highest candidates in an election where a majority is required and no one has a majority, the two candidates with the highest votes other than the deceased or ineligible candidate shall be certified as the two highest candidates for the runoff election.

(b) If after the 45th day preceding the first primary election, a candidate in that primary dies or is declared ineligible to be elected to the office, his name shall be printed on the first primary ballot and the ballots cast for him shall be counted and a return made thereof. If such a deceased or ineligible candidate receives a majority of the votes, the proper executive committee shall choose a nominee and certify such name to the proper officer, as provided in Section 233 of this code, to be printed on the general election ballot. If such a deceased or ineligible candidate is one of the two highest candidates in that race in the first primary and if no one has a majority vote, the two candidates with the highest votes, other than the deceased or ineligible candidate, shall be certified to have their names printed on the second primary ballot. If a candidate whose name is to appear on the second primary ballot dies between the dates of the first and second primaries, his name shall be printed on the second primary ballot and the votes cast for him shall be counted and returned for him; and if such a deceased or ineligible candidate receives a majority of the votes in the second primary, the proper executive committee shall choose a nominee and certify his name to the proper officer, as provided in Section 233 of this code, to be printed on the general election ballot. Withdrawal of a candidate in the second primary is regulated by Section 204a of this code.

Art. 8.29b. Copies of Returns, Poll Lists or Combination Forms, and Tally Lists; Distribution

(a) In precincts using paper ballots. In all general, special, and primary elections, the number of copies of the returns, poll list or prescribed combination form, and tally list required for each precinct in which paper ballots are used shall be as follows: four copies of the returns, three copies of the poll list or prescribed combination form, and three copies of the tally list. These records shall be distributed as follows:

(1) One copy of the returns and tally list shall be delivered to the presiding officer of the authority which canvasses the returns (the county judge in elections held by the county; the mayor in city elections; the presiding officer of the governing board in elections held by other political subdivisions; and the chairman of the county executive committee in county primary elections) and shall be preserved by the canvassing authority for sixty days from the day of the election.

(2) One copy of the returns, poll list, or prescribed combination form, and tally list shall be delivered to the proper officer (the county clerk in elections held by the county and in county primary elections; the city secretary or clerk in municipal elections; and the presiding officer of the governing board in elections held by other political subdivisions), to be kept by him in his office open to inspection by the public for sixty days from the day of the election.

(3) One copy of the returns, poll list, or prescribed combination form, and tally list shall be placed in the ballot box containing the voted ballots.

(4) The presiding judge shall retain in his custody one copy of the returns and one copy of the poll list or prescribed combination form of the election, and shall keep the same for sixty days after the day of the election, subject to the inspection of anyone interested in such election. [See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (b) and (c)]

(d) The presiding judge shall deliver all applications for registration received pursuant to Section 48a of this code 1 to the officer who receives the election records that are open to public inspection at the same time that he delivers those records. Within five days after the election, this latter officer shall forward the applications from all election precincts to the county registrar of voters, who shall process the applications and issue registration certificates thereon in the same manner as other applications.

Art. 8.36a. County Chairmen to Send Lists of Elected Party Nominees to State Chairman

Not later than February 1 following each general election for state and county officers, the chairman of the county executive committee of each political party with a state organization that had nominees on the general election ballot shall send to the state chairman of the party a list of the names of the party's nominees who were elected to county and precinct offices in that county at that election, and the office to which each was elected.

CHAPTER NINE. CONTESTING ELECTIONS

Art. 9.29a. Application of Sunset Act

The State Board of Canvassers is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished effective September 1, 1989.

Art. 9.38b. Compelling Voter to Testify how He Voted

In an election contest or criminal proceeding in which the issue is relevant, any voter who fraudulently or illegally casts a ballot or who casts a fraudulent or illegal ballot at any general, special, or primary election may be required and compelled, after the fraud or illegality has been established by competent evidence before a tribunal of competent jurisdiction, to disclose in testimony before the tribunal having jurisdiction of the matter the name of any candidate for whom he voted and the way he voted on any question at the election. The voter's testimony may be impeached by the testimony of other witnesses in regard to statements by the voter, either before or after the election, or by other competent evidence; and the issue of how the voter voted shall be decided on the basis of all the evidence before the tribunal. In an election contest, instead of undertaking to determine how individual voters voted, the tribunal may declare the election void and order another election if the number of illegal votes is sufficient to change the outcome of the election. This section applies to election contests and criminal proceedings instituted under any provision of this code or under any other statute of this state.

CHAPTER ELEVEN. PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

Art. 11.01. Time of Election; Qualifications of Electors

Subd. 1. On the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in the year 1980 and every four years thereafter, there shall be elected by the voters of the State as many electors for President and Vice-President of the United States as the State of Texas may at that time be entitled to elect.

Subd. 2. Each elector at the time of nomination as a presidential elector candidate, at the time of election, and at the time of the convening of the electors must be a registered, qualified voter of this state and must not hold the office of senator or representative in congress, or any office of trust or profit under the United States.

Art. 11.01b. Independent Candidate for President

Subd. 1. Any person eligible to hold the office of President of the United States may have his name and the name of a vice-presidential running mate printed on the ballot as independent candidates in the presidential race by complying with the provisions of this section.

Subd. 2. A person desiring to become an independent candidate for president shall file with the Secretary of State, not later than the second Monday in July before the general election at which his name will appear on the ballot:

(2) the signed written consent of the person designated as the vice-presidential candidate to have his name printed on the ballot in that capacity;

(3) a list of the names and addresses of persons to represent the applicant as presidential elector candidates in the number to be elected, together with the signed written consent of each such person to become a candidate; and

(4) a petition of voters signed by qualified voters of the state in a number equal to not less than one percent of the entire vote of the state cast for president and vice-president at the last preceding presidential general election.

Subd. 3. A petition may not be circulated for signatures until after the date of the general primary election in that election year, and any signature obtained on or before that date is void. A voter who voted in the general primary of any political party that held a presidential primary that year is ineligible to sign the petition of an independent candidate for president. The following statement shall appear at the head of each page of a petition: "I certify that I did not vote this year in the general primary election of any political party that held a presidential primary."

Subd. 4. The Secretary of State shall prescribe the form for the petition of voters to be filed by an independent candidate for president. For each signer the petition shall show the signer's address, the Art. 11.01c. Write-in Candidate for President

Subd. 1. Any person eligible to hold the office of President of the United States may become a write-in candidate for the office by complying with the provisions of this section. No write-in vote cast for the office may be counted unless the person whose name is written in has complied with these requirements. The Secretary of State shall certify to the county clerks the names of write-in candidates who have complied with this section at the same time that he certifies the names of the presidential candidates to be printed on the ballot.

Subd. 2. A person desiring to become a write-in candidate for president shall file with the Secretary of State, not later than the 45th day before the general election:

(1) a declaration that he is a write-in candidate for the office of president;

(2) the name of an eligible vice-presidential candidate as his running mate and the signed written consent of that person to the candidacy; and

(3) a list of the names and addresses of persons to represent the write-in presidential candidate as presidential elector candidates in the number to be elected, together with the signed written consent of each such person to become a candidate.

Art. 11.02. Effect of Votes for Presidential Candidates

A vote for the set of candidates of any political party or for a set of independent or write-in candidates for both President and Vice-President of the United States shall be conclusively deemed to be a vote for the presidential elector candidates representing that party or that set of independent or write-in candidates, and shall be so counted and recorded for such electors as the state shall be empowered to elect. No vote shall be counted unless the voter has cast his vote for both the candidate for President and the candidate for Vice-President of the same political party or set of independent candidates. A ballot on which a voter has written in the name of a presidential candidate who has filed a declaration of write-in candidacy in accordance with this section shall be counted as a vote for the presidential elector candidates representing that write-in candidate, regardless of whether the name of the corresponding vice-presidential candidate is written in.

Art. 11.03. Canvass of Votes and Returns

The canvass of the votes for candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States and the returns thereof shall be a canvass and return of the votes cast for the electors of the same party or set of independent or write-in candidates, respectively, and the certificate of such election made by the Governor shall be in accord with such return.

Art. 11.04. Certification of Candidates

The names of the candidates for President and Vice-President and for presidential electors, respectively, of a political party as defined in the law shall be certified to the Secretary of State by the chairman and secretary of the state committee of the party not later than the 40th day prior to the election.

Art. 13.01a. Who Are Members of Organized Party

(4) An applicant for party affiliation shall become a qualified member of a political party which is holding primary elections when he has voted within that party's primary or has taken part in a convention of that party prior to a primary. At the head of the signature roster for each primary election there shall be printed the following statement: "I swear that I have not voted at a primary election or participated in a convention of any other political party during this voting year." The presiding judge or another election officer designated by him shall place each voter under oath and require him to swear to this statement before he signs the roster.

The first time a voter presents his voter registration certificate at a primary election, the election officer shall stamp the appropriate party designation within the party affiliation space on the face of the certificate. If the voter is voting on a statement of a lost registration certificate, the presiding judge shall issue to him a certificate of his having voted, in the following form:

Date __________

Presiding Judge, Precinct No. __________ County, Texas.

(5) To become qualified to participate in any party convention of a party which does not hold a primary or to become qualified for party membership for any party convention held prior to a primary, each voter who desires to participate in the convention shall present to the precinct chairman his affidavit that he has not participated in the primary or convention of any other party during that voting year. Thereupon, the precinct chairman shall stamp the appropriate party designation on the voter's registration certificate if the voter presents it, and if the registration certificate is not presented, the chairman shall issue to the voter a certificate in the following form:

Date __________

Precinct Chairman, Precinct No. __________ County, Texas.

Each precinct chairman is authorized to administer the oath required by this subsection. Within 10 days after the precinct convention, he shall arrange the affidavits in alphabetical order and deliver them to the county clerk. If he receives an affidavit after the date of the precinct convention, he shall deliver it to the county clerk within 10 days after he receives it. The county clerk shall keep the affidavits on file in alphabetical order within each precinct for a period of two years after the end of the voting year in which they are filed. The county clerk shall maintain a separate file for each political party.

(6) A voter registration certificate which has been stamped with a party designation, a certificate of having voted in a primary election, or a certificate of party affiliation issued by a precinct chairman, all as provided in this section, shall serve as evidence that the person whose name appears on the certificate is affiliated with the party designated on the certificate and is therefore eligible to participate in that party's conventions.

(a) The primary election held by a political party pursuant to Sections 180 and 181 of this code (Articles 13.02 and 13.03, Vernon's Texas Election Code) shall be conducted through the party's state executive committee and county executive committees in accordance with the procedures detailed in this code.

(b) In order for a candidate to have his name placed on the ballot for the general primary election, his application for a place on the ballot must be accompanied by a filing fee or a nominating petition in compliance with Subsection (c) or (d) of this section.

(c) The schedule of fees for either a full term or an unexpired term for the various offices is as follows:

  County under 200,000 inhabitants  200

No fee shall be charged for any office of a political party.

(d) In lieu of the payment of a filing fee, a candidate may file a nominating petition which may be in multiple parts and must be signed by the qualified voters eligible to vote for the office for which the candidate is running as follows:

For statewide office, 5,000 signatures.

For district, county, precinct, or other political subdivisions, equal in number to at least two percent of the number of votes cast in the territory for that party's candidate for governor in the last preceding gubernatorial general election. However, in no event shall the number required be more than 500; and if two percent of the votes cast in the territory was less than 25, the number required is the lesser of 25 signatures or 10 percent of the number of votes cast.

Where a candidate is running in a district, county, or precinct which has been created or the boundaries of which have been changed since the last gubernatorial general election, he may request that the secretary of state in the case of a district or county office, or the county clerk of the county in which the precinct is situated in the case of a precinct office, make an estimate in advance of the filing deadline of the number of votes cast for that party’s candidate for governor within that territory at the last gubernatorial election. Not later than the 15th day after receiving such a request, the officer shall make the estimate and notify the candidate, and also the officer with whom the candidate files his application. The estimate shall be used as the official basis for computing the number of signatures required on a petition. If an advance estimate is not requested, the officer with whom the petition is filed shall make the estimate, whenever necessary, before he acts on the sufficiency of the petition. In every instance, the candidate may challenge the accuracy of the estimate, and if he is dissatisfied with the final decision of the officer he may appeal the decision to any district court having jurisdiction in the territory involved.

The following statement shall appear at the head of each page of the petition: “I know the contents of this petition. I am a qualified voter eligible to vote in the forthcoming primary election of the (fill in name) Party for the office for which (fill in name) is a candidate. I have not signed the petition of a candidate who is running for any office in the primary of any other party. I understand that by signing this petition I become ineligible to affiliate with any other party or to participate in the primary elections, conventions, or other party affairs of any other party, including a party which is not holding a primary election, during the voting year in which this election is held, and that I am guilty of a misdemeanor if I attempt to do so.”

To each part of the petition shall be attached an affidavit of the person who circulated it, stating that he called each signer’s attention to the statement and read it to him before the signer affixed his signature to the petition, and further stating that he witnessed the affixing of each signature, that the correct date of signing is shown on the petition, and that to the best of his knowledge and belief each signature is the genuine signature of the person whose name is signed. A petition so verified is prima facie evidence that the signatures thereon are genuine and the persons signing it are registered voters.

The petition must show the following information with respect to each signer: His address (including his street address if residing in a city, and his rural route address if not residing in a city), his current voter registration certificate number (also showing the county of issuance if the office includes more than one county), and the date of signing. The secretary of state shall prescribe a form for the petition before the 30th day prior to the filing deadline and provide copies of that form to the state chairman and the county chairmen of each party holding a primary election. However, a candidate may use any other form which complies with the requirements of this section. It is the specific intent of the legislature that there shall be no requirement for the administering of an oath to any person signing a petition under the provisions of this section.

A petition filed under this section shall be filed with the same officer with whom an application for a place on the ballot for the office being sought is to be filed and must be filed at the same time as such an application.

(e) The fees paid to the county chairman on applications filed with him pursuant to the provisions of Section 190 of this code, as amended (Article 13.12, Vernon’s Texas Election Code), the apportionment of fees received from the state chairman pursuant to this subsection, and any contributions made to the county chairman or the county executive committee for the specific purpose of helping defray the costs of the primary elections shall be deposited to the credit of the primary fund referred to in Section 196 of this code, as amended (Article 13.18, Vernon’s Texas Election Code), and shall be applied to payment of the costs of the primary elections. The county chairman and the committee may also use any other available funds toward defraying costs. The remaining costs incurred shall be borne by the state except as otherwise provided by procedures outlined in this code. Within five days after the regular filing deadline, the chairman of the state executive committee shall forward to the secretary of state an itemized listing of all filing fees for statewide offices and for district offices collected on applications filed with him pursuant to Section 190. At the same time, the state chairman shall also forward all filing fees for district offices collected by him pursuant to Section 190 to the county chairman for the counties lying partially or wholly within such district. The amount forwarded to each county chairman shall be equal to the quotient obtained upon dividing the appropriate filing fee by the number of counties in the district of the candidate paying the fee. The state chairman shall retain all filing fees for statewide offices and all filing fees for district offices paid to him under filing deadlines falling after the regular deadline and shall apply them to the sole use of helping defray the costs incurred by the state chairman and the state executive committee in conducting the primary elections.

(f) In each county in which voting machines or an electronic voting system has been adopted, the county commissioners court shall permit the county-owned voting machines or voting equipment to be used for the primary elections, including the conduct of absentee voting for the elections, at a charge for use at each election not exceeding $16 per unit for voting machines adopted under Section 79 (Article 7.14, Vernon's Texas Election Code), and not exceeding $8 per unit for voting equipment adopted under Section 80 (Article 7.15, Vernon's Texas Election Code); provided, however, that the county commissioners court shall not be required to provide voting machines or equipment for use in any election precinct in which fewer than 100 votes were cast in the preceding first or general primary or runoff primary election. The maximum amount fixed in this subsection includes the lease price for the use of the unit, and also the charge for its preparation and maintenance if the county provides these services. The county is entitled to reimbursement for the cost of transporting the machines or equipment to and from the polling places if the county provides this service. Where voting is by an electronic voting system, the county may not charge for use of county-owned automatic tabulating equipment at the central counting station; but all actual expenditures incidental and necessary to operation of the central counting station in counting the ballots are payable out of the primary fund.

(g) All expenses of the county clerk in conducting absentee voting in the primary elections, including the employment of additional deputies where necessary, shall be paid by the county. A county is not entitled to reimbursement for any expenditure of county funds in connection with absentee voting or any other services rendered by the county clerk in the primary elections, except for voting machines and/or punch card units used in conducting the absentee voting or any other services for which reimbursement is specifically authorized by law.

(h) The secretary of state is authorized to promulgate rules under which compensation is limited to polling places at which voters of more than one election precinct cast their votes, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 10(g) (Article 2.02(g), Vernon's Texas Election Code). The rules for such common polling places shall provide for adequate public notice by the county chairman to the voters in election precincts affected by the application of such rules and shall provide for an adequate number of polling places taking into account all other relevant factors including distances of polling places from parts of the precincts served, estimated voter turnout, and geographic or other boundaries. However, the secretary of state may not require that there be less than one polling place for each commissioner's precinct for reimbursement purposes.

(i) The secretary of state is authorized to promulgate rules in regard to the maximum number of election clerks who may be compensated for their services at a polling place and the maximum number of other necessary office personnel employed to assist in the performance of the duties placed upon the county chairman, taking into account the number of registered voters in the election precinct or precincts, the number of votes cast in the precinct, county, or state in previous elections, the method of voting, and any other relevant factors. The secretary of state must allow compensation for the presiding judge, alternate judge, and at least one clerk for each precinct. The secretary of state may allow compensation for clerks and other necessary office personnel employed in excess of the applicable limits set by his rules if he finds that the employment of additional clerks or other office personnel was justified by a good cause. The total compensation paid to the county chairman and the secretary of the county executive committee (where the executive committee has named a secretary) in the performance of the duties placed upon the chairman shall not exceed five percent of the amount actually spent in holding the primary elections for the year; provided, however, that in no case shall the total compensation paid be less than $300 nor more than $8,000.

(j) The secretary of state is authorized to promulgate any other reasonable rules which will minimize the costs of the primary elections. The secretary of state shall furnish a copy of all rules promulgated pursuant to this section to each county chairman at least 10 days before the election to which the rules apply.

(k) The county chairman shall account for the primary fund in the manner provided in Section 196 of this code.

(l) The secretary of state shall not approve any expenditure of state funds to any county organization that practices discrimination based on race, sex, age, creed, or national origin. The attorney general shall be specifically responsible for the enforcement of this section.

(m) In the event a court of competent jurisdiction declares any portion of this section or any other provision of this code relating to the financing of primary elections to be invalid, the secretary of state shall promulgate reasonable rules for the enforcement of the intent of the legislature, consistent with the court's judgment and the valid portions of the code. Such authority of the secretary of state shall include authority to promulgate a schedule of filing fees, if necessary, and that schedule shall be substituted for the statutory schedule until the legislature enacts a new schedule.

Art. 13.08a. State Financing

(a) Each county chairman of each political party in the state which is holding primary elections shall submit to the secretary of state at least 30 days before the first primary election a sworn itemized estimate of the costs for conducting the first primary election in his county, together with a sworn statement of the filing fees and contributions received by the chairman, for such primary elections to and including the date of such sworn statement. The secretary of state shall review the estimate and shall notify the chairman of any items which he has disallowed as unauthorized or excessive expenditures. Expenditures may be allowed only for those purposes which are properly payable out of the primary fund under existing law as established by the statutes, court decisions, and administrative rulings of this state. Any other provisions of this code notwithstanding, the secretary of state shall pay for expenditures which, in his discretion, are reasonably necessary for the proper conduct and supervision of the primary elections under the provisions of this code. The secretary of state is authorized to set forth guidelines to determine the necessity of expenditures in conducting primary elections. The secretary of state shall subtract the amount of the fees and contributions received by the chairman for the conduction of primary elections. The secretary of state shall subtract the amount of the fees and contributions received by the chairman for the conduct of primary elections.

(b) The secretary of state shall not approve any expenditure of state funds to any county organization that practices discrimination based on race, sex, age, creed, or national origin. The attorney general shall be specifically responsible for the enforcement of this section.

(c) Within 20 days after the date of the runoff primary, the county chairman shall submit to the secretary of state a sworn itemized report of the actual costs, filing fees collected, and contributions received for the primary election or elections (as the case may be) held by his party in his county. If the actual expenditure for an item exceeded the estimated amount, the chairman shall submit an explanation of the reason for the increased expenditure, and the secretary of state shall allow the increase if good cause is shown. The secretary of state shall certify to the comptroller the difference between the total amount payable out of state funds and the amount which has already been transmitted to the chairman. If the total amount of fees and contributions and the payments from the state exceeds the actual expenditures incurred, the chairman shall retain the difference in the primary fund referred to in Section 196 of this code (Article 13.18, Vernon's Texas Election Code). The exact amount of the balance in the primary fund shall be reported to the secretary of state in the actual expense report provided by this section and said amount shall be a beginning balance on hand for the next ensuing primary conducted by the chairman or his successor. If the primary fund is invested as authorized in Section 196, the beginning balance on hand for the next ensuing primary shall be the amount of the primary fund after termination of the investment.

(d) Each county chairman shall deposit to the credit of the primary fund all warrants received by him under this section. Expenses properly incurred by or on behalf of the county executive committee for the conduct of the primary elections shall be paid from the primary fund, in the manner authorized by the committee.
Art. 13.08a  ELECTION CODE  1314

(e) The county chairman is responsible for payment of claims for primary election expenses, and the state is not liable to any claimant for failure of the county chairman to pay a claim. No county chairman shall be personally liable, nor shall a county executive committee be liable for any debts incurred in the administration of the primary but unpaid because the appropriation provided by the legislature was not sufficient to cover the actual expenditures made.

(f) A county chairman may request that the secretary of state approve an expenditure for the purposes of the auditing of the expenditures made out of the primary fund; however, the secretary of state shall not be required to approve such an expenditure. The secretary of state may require an audit of the primary fund, without such a request, when, in his discretion, he believes a valid purpose will be served by such a procedure.

(g) The secretary of state shall prescribe and shall furnish to the county chairmen the forms which they are to use in submitting statements and reports to the secretary of state.

(h) Wherever the word "county chairman" is used in this section, it shall apply to the county chairman or his successor in office, and such county chairman shall not be personally liable except for the misapplication of funds.

(i) In any case in which the secretary of state disallows an item of expenditure under Subsection (a) or (b) of this section, or refuses to allow an increase under Subsection (c) of this section, the county chairman may appeal to the district court of Travis County by filing a petition within 20 days after the date the notification is received from the secretary of state, and the district court shall allow such expenditures as are properly payable out of the primary fund under existing law. Any item not certified to the comptroller of public accounts within 30 days before the date of the primary the state chairman shall submit to the secretary of state may be considered disallowed for this purpose.

Art. 13.08a-1. State Financing of Primary Expenses of State Executive Committee

(a) If the state executive committee of a political party which is holding primary elections wishes to obtain state financing of the expenses incurred by the state chairman and the committee in conducting the primary elections in addition to the filing fees retained by the state chairman under Section 186 of this code, as amended (Article 13.08, Vernon's Texas Election Code), the state chairman shall submit to the secretary of state at least 30 days before the first primary election a sworn itemized estimate of the costs for conducting the first primary, together with an itemized statement of any filing fees received by him under filing deadlines falling after the regular deadline to and including the date of the estimate and a statement of the amount of any balance remaining from previous primary elections. The secretary of state shall review the estimate and shall notify the chairman of any items which he has disallowed as unauthorized or excessive expenditures. No expenditure in connection with a party convention or with any party activity other than the conduct of a primary election may be allowed. The secretary of state is authorized to set forth guidelines to determine the necessity of expenditures in conducting primary elections. The secretary of state shall subtract from the approved estimate the amount of the fees collected and retained by the state chairman for that election year and any balance remaining from previous primary elections and shall certify to the comptroller of public accounts the net estimated amount which is payable out of state funds, together with the secretary of state's calculation of three-fourths of that amount. The comptroller shall forthwith issue a warrant to the chairman for three-fourths of the certified amount.

(b) When a runoff for any statewide or district office is necessary, within 15 days after the first primary the state chairman shall submit to the secretary of state a sworn itemized estimate of the state executive committee's costs for the runoff primary. As in the case of the first primary, the secretary of state shall notify the chairman of items which he disallows and shall certify to the comptroller the approved estimated amount which is payable out of state funds, together with the secretary of state's calculation of three-fourths of that amount; and the comptroller shall issue a warrant to the chairman for three-fourths of the certified amount.

(c) Within 20 days after the date of the runoff primary, the state chairman shall submit to the secretary of state a sworn itemized report of the actual costs incurred by the state chairman and the state executive committee in conducting the primary election or elections (as the case may be) and of any filing fees not previously reported. If the actual expenditure for an item exceeded the estimated amount, the chairman shall submit an explanation of the reason for the increased expenditure, and the secretary of state shall allow the increase if good cause is shown. The secretary of state shall certify to the comptroller the difference between the total amount payable out of state funds and the amount which has already been transmitted to the chairman. If the total amount of fees retained and the payments from the state exceed the actual expenditures incurred, the chairman shall retain the difference, to be used as a beginning balance on hand for the next ensuing primary conducted by the party.

(d) In any case in which the secretary of state disallows an item of expenditure under Subsection
(a) or (b) of this section or refuses to allow an increase under Subsection (c), the state chairman may appeal to the district court of Travis County by filing a petition within 20 days after the date the notification is received from the secretary of state, and the district court shall allow such expenditures as are properly payable under existing law. Any item not certified to the comptroller of public accounts within 15 days after its submission to the secretary of state may be considered disallowed for this purpose.

Former art. 13.08a-1 was repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2054, ch. 675, § 8(a).

Art. 13.08b. Refund Upon Death of Candidate

No refund of a filing fee shall be made except to a candidate who dies or is declared ineligible to be a candidate for the office before the date of the first or general primary election, in which case the fee paid by the candidate shall be refunded to the candidate or to his estate, as appropriate.

Art. 13.08c. Funding

Funds for the administration of the primary financing provisions of this code shall be supplied from the General Revenue Fund or any special fund which the legislature may direct by the General Appropriations Act. Said funds shall be appropriated for the 1976 primary elections and for subsequent primary elections thereafter, and shall be an amount payable from the General Revenue Fund or any special fund which the legislature may direct to pay all necessary expenses of primary elections approved by the secretary of state under the provisions of this code. The secretary of state is authorized to expend funds appropriated in the General Appropriations Act for the administration of primary elections for seasonal and part-time help, consumable supplies and materials, travel expenses, professional fees and services, and current and recurring operating expenses in an amount not to exceed $60,000.

Art. 13.08c-1 to 13.08c-4. Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2054, ch. 675, § 8, eff. Sept. 1, 1975

(a) The vote at all primary elections shall be by official ballot, which shall conform to the provisions of this section and other provisions of this code relating to the official ballot for a primary election that are applicable to the method of voting used in the election. The provisions of this section which are expressed in terms applicable to paper ballots shall be construed in a manner consistent with the method of voting used in the election whenever some other method is used. The name of the party shall be printed at the head of the ballot, and under such head shall be printed the names of all candidates, those for each nomination being arranged in the order determined by the county executive committee as provided in Section 195 of this code,1 beneath the title of the office for which the nomination is sought.

1 Article 13.17.

Art. 13.12. Application for Place on Ballot; Filing; Deadline; Extension; Withdrawal; Notice

(a) The application to have the name of any person affiliating with a party placed on the official ballot for a general primary as a candidate for the nomination of such party for any office for which a nomination may be made at such primary shall be governed by the rules stated in this section.

(b) Such application shall be in writing, indicating the office for which nomination is sought and whether for a full term or for an unexpired term, signed and duly acknowledged by the person desiring such nomination, or by twenty-five qualified voters. It shall state the occupation, county of residence, and post-office address of such person, and if made by him shall also state his age. If the application is made by qualified voters, there shall be endorsed on the application or filed in a separate instrument, before the deadline for filing applications, a statement signed by the candidate showing his consent to such candidacy.

(c) The application shall be filed with the state chairman in the case of all statewide offices and all district offices which are filled by the choice of voters residing in more than one county. It shall be filed with the county chairman of the particular county in the case of county and precinct offices and district offices which are filled by the choice of voters residing in only one county or less than one county. Except as provided in Subsection (d) of this section, the application shall be filed not later than 6 p.m. on the first Monday in February preceding such primary.

(d) The filing deadline stated in Subsection (c) of this section shall be extended for the particular party primary and office involved, as provided in this subsection:

(i) if between the fifth day preceding the filing deadline stated in Subsection (c) and the 45th day preceding the general primary, both dates included, any candidate for an office dies,
Art. 13.12  ELECTION CODE  1316

if the candidate had complied with all prerequisites for having his name placed on the ballot which he was required to perform by the date of his death;

(ii) if between the filing deadline stated in Subsection (e) and the 45th day preceding the general primary, both dates included, any candidate who is seeking nomination to an office which he then holds withdraws or is declared ineligible for election to that office; or

(iii) if between the filing deadline stated in Subsection (e) and the 45th day preceding the general primary, both dates included, the only candidate who has filed for a particular office in the primary of that party withdraws or is declared ineligible. In the enumerated circumstances, the name of the deceased, withdrawn, or ineligible candidate shall not be printed on the ballot, and applications for that party's nomination for that office may be filed not later than 6 p.m. on the 15th day following the death, withdrawal, or declaration of ineligibility of the candidate; provided, however, that where the death, withdrawal, or declaration of ineligibility occurs less than 15 days before the 40th day preceding the primary, the deadline for filing shall be 6 p.m. on the 40th day preceding the primary. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection (e) of this section, an application which is not received by the chairman until after 6 p.m. on the 40th day shall not be timely, and applications mailed but not actually received by that time shall not be accepted for filing.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (d), an application filed under either Subsection (c) or (d) of this section shall be considered filed if sent to the proper chairman at his post-office address by registered or certified mail from any point in this state not later than the day on which the filing deadline falls, as shown by the postmark, provided, however, that if the deadline falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday observed by the post office, it must be postmarked not later than the next regular business day for the post office. Any application not received by the chairman before the deadline does not comply with this law unless it has been mailed by registered or certified mail as herein provided, and it shall not be sufficient to send the application by any other type of mail unless it is delivered before the deadline.

(f) A candidate may withdraw by filing with the chairman with whom his application was filed, a signed request, duly acknowledged by him, that his name not be printed on the primary ballot. Whenever a filing period is extended by the death, withdrawal, or ineligibility of a candidate, each county chairman with whom the candidate's application was filed shall give notice of the opening of the filing and of the deadline to file by mailing or delivering a news release within 48 hours after his first knowledge of the death, withdrawal, or ineligibility, to each newspaper, as defined in Article 20a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, as amended, which is published in the county. Where the application was filed with the state chairman, he shall give notice in like manner by mailing or delivering the release to at least three daily newspapers which maintain news representatives in the State Capitol. The failure of a county chairman or state chairman to comply with this requirement shall be ground for his removal from office by the committee of which he is chairman.

(g) A candidate shall not be permitted to withdraw after the 45th day preceding the general primary. If after the 45th day preceding the general primary a candidate dies or is declared ineligible, the procedure detailed in Section 104 of this code shall be followed. Except as provided in that section, the name of a deceased, withdrawn, or ineligible candidate shall not be printed on the ballot.

(h) Within ten days after the first Monday in February, the state chairman shall file with the Secretary of State, and each county chairman shall file with the county clerk of his county a list of the names of all candidates, arranged by office for which nomination is sought, whose applications have been timely received. In like manner each chairman shall file, within three days after any extended filing deadline under Subsection (d) of this section, a supplemental list of candidates whose applications were timely received after the original list was prepared. Each county chairman shall forward to the chairman of the state executive committee a copy of each list which he files with the county clerk.

(i) On the second Monday in March preceding each general primary, the state committee shall meet at some place to be designated by its chairman, who shall not less than three days prior to such meeting notify by mail all members of the committee and all persons whose names have been requested to be placed upon the official ballot of such designation. Such committee at this meeting by resolution shall direct their chairman to certify to each county chairman the names of such candidates as shown by the applications received by him. Copies of such certificates shall be immediately furnished to each newspaper in the state desiring to publish same, and one copy shall at once be mailed to the chairman of the executive committee of each county.

(j) The terms of this law shall apply to the county chairman and precinct committeemen, and the names of such candidates shall not be printed on the primary ballot unless such application shall have been filed as provided herein.

1 Article 9.22.
Art. 13.12a. Nomination and Election to Fill Unexpired Term

(a) Offices to which applicable; occurrence of vacancy. The provisions of this section shall govern nomination for and election to unexpired terms which are to be filled by election at the general election, in state, district, county and precinct offices where the vacancy occurs by reason of the creation of a new office or the death, resignation, or removal from office of the incumbent in an existing office, and the length of the unexpired term to be filled at the election extends beyond the first day of January following the election. This section does not apply to offices, vacancies which are to be filled by special election, nor does it apply to the office of United States Senator, which is governed by Section 177 of this code. For the purpose of this section, where a new office is created to come into existence at a date subsequent to the effective date of the statute or date of entry of the order creating it, the vacancy shall be deemed to occur as of the effective date of the statute or date of entry of the order, and where the incumbent of an office has submitted a resignation to become effective at a future date, the vacancy shall be deemed to occur upon acceptance of the resignation.

(b) Nominations by parties holding primary elections. For any party holding primary elections for nominating candidates for the ensuing general election, nominations for unexpired terms shall be made in accordance with the following provisions.

(1) If the vacancy occurs more than five days prior to the regular deadline for filing an application for a place on the general primary ballot, as provided in Section 190 of this Code, nomination for the unexpired term shall be made by primary election in the same manner and under the same rules applicable to nominations for full terms.

(2) If the vacancy occurs on or after the fifth day preceding the regular filing deadline and on or before the 45th day before the day of the general primary election, nomination for the unexpired term shall be made by primary election, and candidates shall have until the end of the 40th day preceding the day of the general primary in which to file applications for a place on the primary ballot. The applications must be received and filed in the office of the proper county chairman before the deadline, and applications mailed but not actually received before the deadline shall not be accepted for filing. Except as otherwise provided herein, the application shall conform to the requirements of Section 190 of this Code and shall be accompanied by the filing fee or petition provided for in Section 186 of this Code. Immediately following the deadline for filing applications, the state chairman shall certify to the county chairman the names of candidates, if any, who have filed applications with him and paid their filing fee or filed a petition in accordance with this paragraph. Whenever the name of more than one candidate for the same office is to be placed on the ballot pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph, the county chairman shall call a meeting of the primary committee, in time to allow printing of the ballots before commencement of absentee voting in the general primary, and the primary committee shall determine by lot, in open meeting, the order in which the names of the candidates shall be printed on the ballot. If there is not more than one candidate for the same office, the county chairman shall make any necessary changes in the ballot as previously made up by the primary committee.

(3) If the vacancy occurs after the 45th day preceding the day of the general primary and on or before the 45th day before the day of the general election, the state executive committee in the case of state offices, the appropriate district executive committee in the case of district offices, the county executive committee in the case of county offices, and the appropriate precinct committee in the case of precinct offices, shall have the power to name a nominee for such office, and a nomination shall not be made by any other method; provided, however, that in any case where a district committee empowered to name a nominee fails to do so because it is unable to agree upon a nominee by majority vote, the state executive committee of that political party may name a candidate for such office and certify the name of the nominee to the proper officer.

(c) Nominations by parties not holding primary elections. For any party which is authorized to make nominations by party conventions, as provided in this Code, a nomination for the unexpired term shall be made at the appropriate party convention having power to make nominations for the particular office if the vacancy occurs more than two days prior to the date on which the convention is held. Art. 13.45  Nominations by Parties Receiving Less Than 20 Percent of Vote for Governor

Subd. 2. (a) Any political party whose nominee for governor received less than two percent of the total votes cast for governor in the last preceding general election for that office, or any new party, or any previously existing party which did not have a nominee for governor in the last preceding general election for that office, may nominate candidates by any previously existing party which did not have a nominee for governor in the last preceding general election for that office, as provided in Sections 224 and 225 of this code, but in order to have the names of its nominees printed on the general election ballot there must be filed with the secretary of state, within 30 days after the date for holding the party's state convention, the lists of participants in precinct conventions held by the party in accordance with Sections 222a and 224 of this code, signed and certified by the temporary chairman of each respective precinct convention, listing the names, addresses (including street address or post-office address), and registration certificate numbers of qualified voters attending such precinct conventions in an aggregate number of at least one percent of the total votes cast for governor at the last preceding general election for that office; or if the number of qualified voters attending the precinct conventions is less than that number, there must be filed along with the precinct lists a petition requesting that the names of the party's nominees be printed on the general election ballot, signed by a sufficient number of additional qualified voters to make a combined total of at least one percent of the total votes cast for governor at the last general election for that office. The address and registration certificate number of each signer shall be shown on the petition. No person who, during that voting year, has voted at any primary election or participated in a convention held by any political party during the same voting year, or any person who votes in a primary election or participates in a convention of any other party during the same voting year after having signed the petition, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500.

(b) The following statement shall appear at the head of each page of the petition: "I know the contents of this petition, requesting that the names of the nominees of the _______ Party be printed on the ballot for the next general election. I am a qualified voter at the next general election under the constitution and laws in force, and during the current voting year I have not voted in any primary election or participated in any convention held by any other political party, and I will not vote in a primary election or participate in a convention of any other party during the remainder of this voting year." The petition may be in multiple parts. To each part of the petition shall be attached an affidavit of the person who circulated it, stating that he called each signer's attention to the statement and read it to him before the signer affixed his signature to the petition, and further stating that he witnessed the affixing of each signature, that the correct date of signing is shown on the petition, and that to the best of his knowledge and belief each signature is the genuine signature of the person whose name is signed. A petition so verified is prima facie evidence that the signatures thereon are genuine and the persons signing it are registered voters. The petition may not be circulated for signatures until after the date of the party's precinct conventions. Any signatures obtained on or before that date are void.

(c) Any person who signs a petition after having voted in a primary election or participated in a convention of any other party during the same voting year, or any person who votes in a primary election or participates in a convention of any other party during the same voting year after having signed the petition, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500.

Subd. 1. This section applies to nonpartisan or independent candidates for federal, state, district, county, and precinct offices in the general election provided for in Section 9 of this code (Article 2.01, Vernon's Texas Election Code). Subd. 2. (a) As a condition precedent to having a candidate's name printed on the official ballot as an independent candidate under this section, in addition to the application required by Subdivision 3 of this section, the person must file, by the deadline provided in Section 190 of this code (Article 13.12, Vernon's Texas Election Code), a declaration of his intent to run as an independent candidate. The declaration shall state the person's name, occupation, county of residence, post office address, age, and the office for which he intends to run, and shall be signed and duly acknowledged by the person desiring to be a candidate. It shall be filed with the officer with whom the application required by Subdivision 3 of this section is filed.

(b) The requirements of Paragraph (a) of this subdivision do not apply to candidates for unexpired terms where the vacancy in office occurs subsequent to the tenth day preceding the regular deadline for filing application for a place on a primary election ballot as prescribed in Section 190 of this code (Article 13.12, Vernon's Texas Election Code), and do not apply to candidates for any office for which the filing deadline in a primary election is extended under the provisions of Paragraph 2a of Section 190. However, an independent candidate who is not required to file a declaration of intent under Paragraph (a) of this subdivision must file with the secretary of state or the county judge, as the case may be, his written consent to become a candidate, within 30 days after the second primary election day.

Subd. 3. The name of a nonpartisan or independent candidate may be printed on the official ballot in the column for independent candidates, after a written application signed by qualified voters addressed to the proper officer, as herein provided, and delivered to him within 30 days after the second primary election day, as follows:

If for a district office in a district composed of more than one county, the application shall be signed by three per cent of the entire vote cast for Governor in such district at the last preceding gubernatorial general election, and shall be addressed to the Secretary of State.

If for a district office in a district composed of only one county or part of one county, the application shall be signed by five per cent of the entire vote cast for Governor in such district at the last preceding gubernatorial general election, and shall be addressed to the Secretary of State.

If for a county office, the application shall be signed by five per cent of the entire vote cast for Governor in such county at the last preceding gubernatorial general election, and shall be addressed to the county judge.

If for a precinct office, the application shall be signed by five per cent of the entire vote cast for Governor in such precinct at the last preceding gubernatorial general election, and shall be addressed to the county judge.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the number of signatures required on an application for any district, county, or precinct office need not exceed 500.

Subd. 4. No application shall contain the name of more than one candidate. No person shall sign the application of more than one candidate for the same office; and if any person signs the application of more than one candidate for the same office, the signature shall be void as to all such applications. No person shall sign such application unless he is a qualified voter, and no person who has voted at either the general primary election or the runoff primary election of any party shall sign an application in favor of anyone for an office for which a nomination was made at either such primary election.

Subd. 5. In addition to the person's signature, the application shall show each signer's address, the number of his voter registration certificate, and the date of signing.

Subd. 6. Any person signing the application of an independent candidate may withdraw and annul his signature by delivering to the candidate and to the officer with whom the application is filed (or is to be filed, if not then filed), his written request, signed and duly acknowledged by him, that his signature be cancelled and annulled. The request must be delivered before the application is acted on, and not later than the day preceding the last day for filing the application. Upon such withdrawal, the person shall be free to sign the application of another candidate for the same office.

Art. 13.54. Nominations by Parties Without State Organization

Any political party without a state organization desiring to nominate candidates for county and precinct offices only may nominate such candidates therefor by a county convention held on the second Saturday in May of the election year, which convention shall be composed of delegates from the various election precincts in the county, elected therein at conventions held in such precincts on the first Saturday in May. All nominations made by any such parties shall be certified to the county clerk by the chairman of the county committee of such party, and, after taking the same course as nominations of other parties so certified, shall be printed on the official ballot in a separate column, headed by the name of the party; provided, a written application for such printing shall have been made to the county judge not later than June 30 following the conventions, signed by qualified voters of the county equal in number to at least three per cent of the entire vote cast for governor in such county at the last general election for that office. No person who is affiliated with any other political party is eligible to sign the application. The application shall contain the following information with respect to each person signing it: his address, the number of his voter registration certificate, and the date of signing. The application may not be circulated for signatures until after the date of the precinct conventions, and any signatures obtained on or before that date are void. The application may be in multiple parts. To each part there shall be attached an affidavit of the person who circulated it, who must be a registered voter in the county, stating that he witnessed the affixing of each signature, that the correct date of signing is shown on the application, and that to his best knowledge and belief each signature is the genuine signature of the person whose name is signed. Art. 13.56. Death, Withdrawal, or Ineligibility of Candidate; Filling Vacancy in Nomination

(a) A nominee of a political party may decline and annul his nomination by delivering to the officer with whom the certificate of his nomination is filed and to the chairman of the executive committee having the power to fill a vacancy in such nomination, not later than the 45th day before the day of the general election, a declaration in writing, signed by him and acknowledged before some officer authorized to take acknowledgments, whereupon the officer receiving the declaration shall take the necessary action to have the name of the nominee removed from the ballot. A nominee may not decline the nomination after the 45th day before election day.

(b) If on or before the 45th day before the day of the election, a nominee dies or declines the nomination, or is declared ineligible to be elected to or to hold the office for which he is a candidate, the executive committee of the party for the state, district, county, or precinct, as the office to be nominated may require, may nominate a candidate to supply the vacancy. A certificate of such nomination, signed and duly acknowledged by the chairman of the executive committee, must be filed with the officer with whom the certificate of the original nomination was filed and must set forth the name of the original nominee, the cause of the vacancy, the name of the new nominee, the office for which he was nominated, and when, where, by whom, and how he was nominated. The certificate must be filed not later than the 40th day before the day of the election. The officer with whom the substitute nomination is filed shall immediately take the necessary action to cause the name of the new nominee to be placed on the ballot.

(c) In any case where a district committee is empowered to name a nominee and fails to do so, the state executive committee may name a candidate for such office and certify the name to the proper officer to have the name printed on the official ballot for the general election. The certification must be filed not later than the 5th day after the deadline for certification by the district committee and in any event not later than the 40th day before election day.

(d) If a party nominee dies or declines the nomination or is declared ineligible after the 45th day preceding the day of the general election, the procedure set out in Section 104 of this code shall be followed.

(e) An independent candidate may withdraw his candidacy and cause his name to be kept off the ballot by delivering to the officer with whom the application requesting his name to be placed on the ballot was filed, not later than the 40th day before election day a declaration in writing, signed and duly acknowledged by him, whereupon the officer with whom the declaration is filed shall immediately take the necessary action to cause the candidate's name to be removed from the ballot. A candidate may not withdraw after the 40th day before election day.

(f) If an independent candidate in the general election for state and county officers withdraws or is declared ineligible before the 44th day before election day, his name shall not be printed on the ballot. If he dies after completing all the procedural requirements for candidacy and before the 44th day before election day, his name shall be printed on the ballot if he was the incumbent in the office for which he was a candidate or if no other candidate's name is to be printed on the ballot in that race; otherwise, his name shall not be printed on the ballot. If he dies or is declared ineligible after the 45th day before election day, his name shall be printed on the ballot. When a deceased or ineligible candidate's name is printed on the ballot, the procedure set out in Section 104 of this code shall be followed.

(g) If an independent candidate in any election other than the general election for state and county officers dies before the second day before the filing deadline for independent candidates in that election, or if he withdraws or is declared ineligible before the 20th day before election day, his name shall not be printed on the ballot. If he dies on or after the second day before the filing deadline or if he is declared ineligible on or after the 20th day before election day, his name shall be printed on the ballot and the procedure set out in Section 104 of this code shall be followed.

(h) When a candidate dies and his name is to be removed from the ballot under any provision of this section, the officer responsible for making up the ballot for the election shall remove the candidate's name upon receiving reliable information of the death. However, in the case of a candidate whose name is certified to the county clerk by the secretary of state, the clerk shall not remove the candidate's name from the ballot without authorization from the secretary of state.

(i) The provisions of this section in regard to independent candidates apply to all general and special elections, by whatever authority held, except that charter provisions of a home-rule city supersede the provisions of this section. The term "independent candidate" means any candidate, not the nominee of a political party in a partisan election, who is seeking ballot position in any general or special election.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN. POLITICAL FUNDS REPORTING AND DISCLOSURE ACT

Art. 14.01. Definitions

As used in this chapter—

(A) "Candidate" is defined as any person who has knowingly and willingly taken affirmative action for the purpose of seeking nomination or election to any public office which is required by law to be determined by an election. Some examples of affirmative action are:

1. Filing of application for a position on a ballot.
2. Filing of application for nomination by a convention under Section 224a of this code.
3. Independent candidate’s declaration of intent under Section 224a of this code.
4. Public announcement of a definite intent to run for office at a particular election, either with or without designating the specific office to be sought.
5. Statement of definite intent and solicitation of support through letters or other modes of communication, prior to a public announcement.

The filing of a designation of a campaign treasurer is not affirmative action which makes one a candidate as defined in this chapter.

(B) "Office-holder" is defined as any person serving in a public office as defined herein and any other constitutionally designated member of the Executive Department.

(C) "Corporation" is defined as every organization organized or operating under authority of the Texas Business Corporation Act or the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, any corporation or association organized by authority of any law of Congress or of any other state or nation than Texas, national, state, private or unincorporated banks, trust companies, building and loan associations or companies, insurance companies, reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges, railroad companies, cemetery companies, cooperatives, abstract and title insurance companies, and stock companies. However, any political committee whose only principal purpose is to accept contributions and to make expenditures, as defined in this section, shall not be deemed to be a corporation under the provisions of this chapter if such committee is incorporated for liability purposes only. Incorporation of a political committee shall not relieve any person of any liability, duty, or obligation created pursuant to any provision of the Texas Election Code.

(D) "Contribution" is defined as:

(1) any advance, loan, deposit or transfer of funds, goods, services or any other thing of value, or any contract or obligation, whether enforceable or unenforceable, to transfer any funds, goods, services, or anything of value to any candidate, or political committee, which advance or other such item is involved in an election; providing that an individual or group of persons is involved in an election upon the receipt of a contribution or the making of an expenditure which was given or made and received with the intent that it be used or held for some election and that the receipt of or making of the contribution or expenditure may occur before, during, or after an election; or as

(2) any advance, deposit or transfer of funds, goods, services or anything of value or creation of any contract or obligation, enforceable or unenforceable, to transfer any funds, goods, services, or anything of value knowingly accepted by any office-holder for the purpose of assisting such person in the performance of duties or activities in connection with the office which are nonreimbursable by the state or political subdivision.

(E) "Expenditures" is defined as any payments made or obligations incurred
(1) by a candidate, or political committee, when such payments or obligations are involved in an election; or
(2) by an office-holder, when such payments are made in the performance of duties or activities in connection with the office which are nonreimbursable by the state or the political subdivision.

"Involved in an election" has the same meaning as in (D) above.

(F) "Election" is defined as any election held to nominate or elect a candidate to any public office. It shall also include any election at which a measure is submitted to the people.

(G) "Public office" is defined as any office created by or under authority of the laws of the state, that is filled by the voters.

(H) "State office" is defined as any public office of the state government, which is to be filled by the choice of the voters of the entire state, except presidential electors.

(I) "District office" is defined as any public office of the state government, less than statewide, which is to be filled by the choice of the voters residing in more than one county, and the offices of State Senator, State Representative, and State Board of Education.

(J) "County office" is defined as any public office of the state or county government which is to be filled by the choice of the voters residing in only one county or less than one county, except for those offices specifically enumerated as district offices above.

Unexpended campaign contributions, as defined in Subsection (D)(1) of Section 237, which are lawfully accepted, may be used by an officeholder for expenditures in connection with the office pursuant to subsection (E)(2) of Section 237. Notwithstanding the requirement set forth in subsection (F)(1) of this section, any contribution as defined in Section 237(D)(2), Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 14.01(D)(2), Vernon's Texas Election Code) that has been lawfully accepted prior to the designation of a campaign treasurer may be utilized as campaign contributions after such designation.

(B) Every candidate for nomination to or election to a state or district office and every specific purpose political committee in any such election or in an election involving a statewide or district measure and every general purpose political committee shall designate a campaign treasurer by written appointment filed with the Secretary of State, and may also designate assistant campaign treasurers for each county by written appointment to be filed either with the county clerk of said county, or the Secretary of State.

(E) Any campaign treasurer or assistant campaign treasurer designated as provided in this Section may be removed by the candidate or political committee at any time by the written appointment of a successor filed in the manner provided for the original designations.

(F)(1) Except as expressly permitted in this chapter, no contribution as defined in Section 237(D)(1) shall be accepted nor any expenditure, as defined in Section 237(E)(1), including the paying of any filing fee, made by an individual until he has filed the name of his campaign treasurer with the appropriate authority. No contribution shall be accepted nor any expenditure made by a political committee until it has filed the name of its campaign treasurer with the appropriate authority. If it is not otherwise possible for a candidate or specific purpose political committee to determine which authority is appropriate for the filing of campaign treasurer designation, then a filing with the Secretary of State shall be sufficient, but only until such time as the appropriate authority may be determined in accordance with the provisions of Subsections (a), (b), and (c) of this Section.

If an individual not acting in concert with any person wishes to expend more than $100 for any lawful purpose out of his own funds to aid or defeat any candidate or candidates or measures, he may do so either by making a contribution or by complying with all of the provisions of this chapter as if he were a campaign treasurer of a political committee.

(B) It shall be lawful for any individual to donate his own personal services and personal traveling expenses to aid or defeat any candidate or measure and such a donation shall not constitute a contribution or expenditure, as defined in Section 237 of this code only so long as he either is not compensated or reimbursed for same.

Art. 14.07. Records and Sworn Statement

(A) Each candidate, office-holder, and political committee, or a campaign treasurer representing the same, is hereby required to keep an accurate record of contributions received, and of all expenditures made. Such record shall contain all information hereinafter required to be reported by such candidate, office-holder, or political committee. (B) Each opposed candidate whose name is printed on the ballot, each write-in candidate taking affirmative action in an election and each political committee involved in an election concerning a candidate or measure shall file a sworn statement at each time required herein. Each office-holder and political committee as defined in Subsections (O)(2), (P)(2), or (Q)(2) in Section 237 of this Code, shall file a sworn statement as required herein. (C) The statements filed by a candidate, or office-holder, shall list all contributions received and all expenditures made by the candidate, the office-holder, his campaign treasurer, and his assistant campaign treasurers during the appropriate reporting period as described in Subsection (H) of this section. The statements filed by a political committee, and a campaign treasurer representing the same, shall list all contributions received and expenditures made by the committee during the appropriate reporting period as described in Subsection (H) of this section. Each statement shall include the dates and amounts and the full name and complete address of each person from whom contributions in an aggregate amount of more than $50 has been received or borrowed during the appropriate reporting period as described in Subsection (H) of this section. Each statement shall also include the dates and amounts and the full names and complete addresses of all persons to whom any expenditures aggregating more than $50 were made during the appropriate reporting period, and the purpose of such expenditures. Each report shall also include a total of all contributions received and all expenditures made during the appropriate reporting period and a total of all contributions of $50 and less received and all expenditures of $50 and less made during the appropriate reporting period. However, for purposes of the time and manner of reporting, no expenditure need be deemed to have been made until the amount is readily determinable or, if the character of the expenditure is such that normal business practice is not to disclose the amount until the next periodic bill is received, then such expenditure need not be deemed to have been made until the date of receipt of such bill.

(D) Each political committee receiving contributions or making expenditures on behalf of a candidate, or office-holder, shall notify the candidate, or office-holder, as to the name and address of the political committee and its campaign treasurer, if one is required. The candidate, or office-holder, shall include within each statement required by this code a list identifying the name and address of each such political committee and its campaign treasurer, if one is required. “On behalf of,” means the knowing acceptance of a contribution for a candidate(s), or office-holder(s), or the making of an expenditure for a candidate(s), or office-holder(s). Any campaign treasurer, candidate, office-holder, or other person managing a political committee, who violates the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(E) Such statements shall be accompanied by the following affidavit verified by the person filing the statement:

“I do solemnly swear that the foregoing statement, filed herewith, is in all things true and correct, and fully shows all information required to be reported by me pursuant to the Political Funds Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1975.”

(F) The statement and oath shall be filed as follows: for a county office, or a measure submitted at an election called by a county, with the county clerk of the county; for a district office or a state office, or statewide measure, or other constitutionally designated members of the Executive Department, with the secretary of state; for a municipal office, or a measure submitted at an election called by a municipality, with the city secretary or city clerk of the municipality; and for an office of a political subdivision, or a measure submitted at an election called by a political subdivision other than a county or municipality, with the secretary of the governing body of the political subdivision. General purpose political committees shall file the required sworn statements and oaths with the Secretary of State. The deadline for filing any statement required under this section is 5 p.m. of the last day designated in the pertinent subsection for filing the statement. When the last day of filing falls on a Saturday or Sunday or an official state holiday enumerated in Article 4591, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, the deadline for filing is extended to 5 p.m. of the next day which is not a Saturday or Sunday or enumerated holiday. A statement shall be deemed to be timely filed if it is placed in the United States Post Office or in the hands of a common or contract carrier properly addressed to the appropriate authority within the time limits applicable to the statement. The postmark or receipt mark (if received by a common or contract carrier) will be prima facie evidence of the date that such statement was deposited with the post office or carrier. The person making the report may show by competent evidence that the actual date of posting was to the contrary.

(G) In the event a political committee has elected to comply with the provisions applicable to political committees within this state, the requirements of this paragraph shall not be applicable. A candidate, office-holder, or political committee shall not accept a contribution aggregating more than $500 in a reporting period from a political committee not in this state unless the contribution is accompanied by a written statement which sets forth the full name and complete address of each person who contributed more than $100 to such committee during the preceding twelve months and which is certified by an officer of the contributing political committee. A correct copy of any such statement shall be included with the statement filed on which the contribution is reported. For the purpose of reporting, “political committee not in this state” shall mean any political committee expending 80 percent or more of its expenditures in any combination of elections outside of this state and federal offices not voted on in this state within the immediately preceding twelve-month period.

(H)(1)(a) Candidates and the campaign treasurers of specific purpose political committees as defined in subsection (P)(1) of Section 237, shall file sworn statements at the times required in paragraph (4) of this subsection.

(b)(i) Office-holders and specific purpose political committees assisting office-holder(s) as defined in subsection (P)(2) of Section 237 of this Code shall file sworn statements on January 15 of each year of all contributions received and all expenditures made during the previous calendar year in accordance with the provisions of subsection (C) of this section but reporting only such contributions accepted and expenditures made that have not been previously reported.

(ii) In addition to the annual statement required in subsection (H)(1)(b)(i) above, any such office-holder shall file additional statements to cover all contributions received and expenditures made by such office-holder for that period of time prior to the designation of a campaign treasurer by such officeholder, and after such designation all contributions and expenditures are to be reported pursuant to subsection (H)(1)(a). The statements required by this subsection shall be filed not later than the 15th day following the designation of a campaign treasurer.

(2) Campaign treasurers of general purpose political committees shall file sworn statements at times required in paragraph (7) of this subsection.

(3) If the operations of a political committee necessitate a change in the applicability of paragraph
(1) or (2) of this subsection, the campaign treasurer of such political committee shall make such change and declare the identity of the authorities with whom future filings are expected to be made by filing (a) notification(s) with the authority(ies) with whom such committee has previously been required to file sworn statements. Failure to file such notice(s), when such change has been properly made, between the next applicable deadline for filing sworn statements under the formerly applicable sections, shall constitute a Class B misdemeanor.

(4) Every candidate or specific purpose political committee shall file three sworn statements relating to the election in which such person is involved in addition to any statement as provided in paragraph
(6) below. The three sworn statements shall be filed not later than the 30th day prior to the election, not later than the 7th day before the election, and not later than the 30th day after the election, respectively. A candidate who has been nominated by his party's primary or a specific purpose political committee encompasses nine (9) days prior to the twenty-five (25) days after the election shall include in his first statement prior to the general election all previously unreported contributions and expenditures. The period reported in the first such statement shall begin on the day of the general election and end on and include the 30th day before the election.

(5) In lieu of any third statement required, which falls on the 30th day after any general primary or special elections, whenever a candidate or specific purpose political committee is involved in a run-off election, not later than the 7th day before the runoff election, the candidate or specific purpose political committee shall file a statement of all previously unreported contributions and expenditures through the 10th day before the run-off election. The next statement required shall be filed not later than the 30th day after the run-off election and shall report all contributions received and all expenditures made during a period beginning on the 9th day before the run-off election and ending on the 25th day after the run-off election.

(6) Each year after the last deadline for filing a statement of contributions and expenditures, an ad­ tional statement shall be filed, provided, however, if there have been no expenditures made or contributions knowingly accepted since the last required reporting period, or if any contributions knowingly accepted and any expenditures made have all been reported under Subsection (H)(1)(b) of this section, there shall be no filing required. The annual statement shall be filed on or before January 15 (follow­ ning the last filing) and the period shall cover all previously unreported contributions and expenditures through and including the 31st day of December.

(7) All general purpose political committees shall file sworn statements as designated either in this paragraph or in Paragraph (8) of this subsection:

(a) On January 15th of each year, a statement of all contributions received and all expenditures made during the previous calendar year which have not been previously reported;

(b) Not earlier than the 40th day and not later than the 30th day before the date of an election in which the general purpose committee is involved, a statement of all contributions received and all expenditures made during the period from the date on which the general purpose political committee filed a designation of a campaign treasurer through the 40th day before the date of the election which have not been previously reported;
(c) Not earlier than the 10th day and not later than the 7th day before the date of an election in which the general purpose political committee is involved, a statement of all contributions received and all expenditures made through the 10th day before the date of the election which have not been previously reported;

(d) Not earlier than the 25th day and not later than the 30th day after the date of an election in which the general purpose political committee is involved, a statement of all contributions received and all expenditures made since the date covered by the last report filed under this subsection;

(e) Whenever a general purpose political committee is involved in a run-off election, in lieu of the statement to be filed by not later than the 30th day after the first election, the committee shall file a statement on the 7th day before the date of the run-off election showing all contributions received and all expenditures made since the date of the last report filed under this subsection;

(f) In the event a general purpose political committee becomes involved in an election after the end of any periods covered by the regular reports otherwise required herein, the first applicable sworn statement shall be filed at the next regularly required deadline and its reporting period shall begin on the date of designation of campaign treasurer.

(8) In lieu of the sworn statements required under Paragraph (7), a general purpose political committee may elect to file sworn monthly statements of all contributions received and all expenditures made which have not been previously reported by filing the sworn statements designated herein:

(a) Between January 1 and January 15 of each year, even if there has been no activity, in addition to a statement of all contributions received and all expenditures made during the previous calendar year which have not been previously reported, a notice of intent to file monthly statements pursuant to this paragraph. However, a general purpose political committee formed after January 15 of any particular year may upon designation of its campaign treasurer file at the same time a notice of intent to file monthly statements pursuant to this paragraph;

(b) On the first day of each calendar month, even if there has been no activity, a statement of all previously unreported contributions received and all previously unreported expenditures made through the 25th day of the preceding month. Any general purpose political committee filing under the procedures of this paragraph shall include in each statement the dates and amounts and the full name and complete address of each person from whom contributions in an aggregate amount of more than $10 have been received or borrowed during the reporting period. Each statement shall also include the dates and amounts and the full names and complete addresses of all persons to whom any expenditures aggregating more than $10 were made during the appropriate reporting period and the purpose of such expenditures.

(c) If a general purpose political committee electing to file sworn monthly statements wishes to revert to filing the sworn statements required under Paragraph (7), such committee must file its intent to do so between January 1 and January 15 in addition to a statement of all contributions received and expenditures made which have not previously been reported.

(9) Candidates for offices created under laws of the United States are specifically exempted from the requirements of this section. It is provided, however, that they shall file copies of any reports required by federal laws with the secretary of state on the same date they file such reports with the appropriate federal authorities.

(10) Final Statement. A candidate or political committee may cease filing sworn statements regarding a campaign after a final statement has been filed and designated as such. Any of the required sworn statements may constitute a final statement if its filing results in the completion of the reporting of all contributions and expenditures involved in an election, together with the appropriate related information, required to be reported.

(11) In the event a general purpose political committee makes a contribution to either another general purpose political committee or an out of state political committee, and cannot thereby make the determination of the appropriate times to make filings of sworn statements, such contributing general purpose political committee shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this Section by filing a sworn statement with the Secretary of State fully reporting such contribution (as an expenditure) no later than the next succeeding filing deadline for the January 15th annual statement.

(12) In the event a campaign treasurer of a political committee is terminated, either voluntarily or by action of the political committee, he shall file a sworn statement no later than the 10th day after such termination, reporting all appropriate matters for the period from the end of the period reported in the preceding sworn statement through the day of his termination. Any subsequent sworn statement which is to be filed by a successor campaign treasurer need not report those matters included in the previous campaign treasurer’s termination statement.

Minimum Standard for Valuation of Policies and Contracts

Sec. 4. (a) This Section shall apply to only those policies and contracts issued on or after the operative date of Article 3.44a (the Standard Non-forfeiture Law), except as otherwise provided in Subsection (b) of this Section for coverages purchased on or after the operative date of such subsection under group annuity and pure endowment contracts issued prior to such operative date. Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (b) of this Section, the minimum standard for the valuation of all such policies and contracts shall be the commissioners reserve valuation method defined in Section 5, three and one-half per cent (3½%) interest for policies and contracts issued prior to June 14, 1973, four per cent (4%) interest for policies and contracts, except annuity and pure endowment contracts, issued on or after June 14, 1973, and prior to the operative date of this amendatory Act of 1977, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such contracts, the 1971 Individual Annuity Mortality Table, or any modification of this table approved by the State Board of Insurance, and six per cent (6%) interest for single premium immediate annuity contracts, and four per cent (4%) interest for all other individual annuity and pure endowment contracts.

(b) The minimum standard for the valuation of all individual annuity and pure endowment contracts issued on or after the operative date of this Section 4(b), as defined herein, and for all annuities and pure endowments purchased on or after such operative date under group annuity and pure endowment contracts, regardless of the issue date of such contracts, shall be the commissioners reserve valuation method defined in Section 5(A) or 5(B) and the following tables and interest rates:

(1) For individual annuity and pure endowment contracts issued prior to the effective date of this amendatory Act of 1977, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such contracts, the 1971 Individual Annuity Mortality Table, or any modification of this table approved by the State Board of Insurance, and six per cent (6%) interest for single premium immediate annuity contracts, and four per cent (4%) interest for all other individual annuity and pure endowment contracts.

ance, and five and one-half per cent (5\%\%) interest for single premium deferred annuity and pure endowment contracts and four and one-half per cent (4\%\%) interest for all other such individual annuity and pure endowment contracts.

(4) For all annuities and pure endowments purchased prior to the effective date of this amendatory Act of 1977 under group annuity and pure endowment contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits purchased under such contracts, the 1971 Group Annuity Mortality Table, or any modification of this table approved by the State Board of Insurance, and six per cent (6\%) interest.

(5) For all annuities and pure endowments purchased on or after January 1, 1979, under group annuity and pure endowment contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits purchased under such contracts, the 1971 Group Annuity Mortality Table, or any modification of this table approved by the State Board of Insurance, and seven and one-half per cent (7.5\%) interest.

For all annuities and pure endowments purchased on or after January 1, 1990, under group annuity and pure endowment contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits purchased under such contracts, the 1971 Group Annuity Mortality Table, or any modification of this table approved by the State Board of Insurance, and six per cent (6\%) interest.

After June 14, 1973, any company may file with the State Board of Insurance a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this subsection after a specified date before January 1, 1979, which shall be the operative date of this subsection for such company, provided, a company may elect a different operative date for individual annuity and pure endowment contracts from that elected for group annuity and pure endowment contracts. If a company makes no such election, the operative date of this Subsection (b) for such company shall be January 1, 1979.

Reserves for Life Insurance and Endowment Benefits of Policies Providing Uniform Amount of Insurance and Requiring Payment of Uniform Premiums

Sec. 5. (A) Except as otherwise provided in Section 5(B), reserves according to the commissioners reserve valuation method, for the life insurance and endowment benefits of policies providing for a uniform amount of insurance and requiring the payment of uniform premiums shall be the excess, if any, of the present value, at the date of valuation, of such future guaranteed benefits provided by such policies, over the then present value of any future modified net premiums therefor. The modified net premiums for any such policy shall be such uniform percentage of the respective contract premiums for such benefits that the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of all such modified net premiums shall be equal to the sum of the then present value of such benefits provided for by the policy and the excess of (a) over (b), as follows:

Reserves according to the commissioners reserve valuation method for (1) life insurance policies providing for a varying amount of insurance or requiring the payment of varying premiums, (2) group annuity and pure endowment contracts purchased under a retirement plan or plan of deferred compensation, established or maintained by an employer (including a partnership or sole proprietorship) or by an employee organization, or by both, other than a plan providing individual retirement accounts or individual retirement annuities under Section 408 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended (Title 26, United States Code, as amended), (3) disability and accidental death benefits in all policies and contracts, and (4) all other benefits, except life insurance and endowment benefits in life insurance policies and benefits provided by all other annuity and pure endowment contracts, shall be calculated by a method consistent with the principles of the preceding paragraph, except that any extra premiums charged because of impairments or special hazards shall be disregarded in the determination of modified net premiums. Such impairments and special hazards may also be disregarded in determining present value of benefits.

(B) This subsection shall apply to all annuity and pure endowment contracts other than group annuity and pure endowment contracts purchased under a retirement plan or plan of deferred compensation, established or maintained by an employer (including a partnership or sole proprietorship) or by an employee organization, or by both, other than a plan providing individual retirement accounts or individual retirement annuities under Section 408 of the Internal Revenue Code, as now or hereafter amended.

Reserves according to the commissioners annuity reserve valuation method for benefits under annuity and pure endowment contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such contracts, shall be the greatest of the respective excesses of the present values, at the date of valuation, of the future guaranteed benefits, including guaranteed non-forfeiture benefits, provided by such contracts at the end of each respective contract year, over the present value, at the date of valuation, of any future value considerations derived from future gross considerations, required by the terms of such contract, that become payable prior to the end of such respective contract year. The future guaranteed benefits shall be determined by using the mortality table, if any, and the interest rate or rates specified in such contracts for determining guaranteed benefits. The valuation considerations are the portions of the respective gross considerations applied under the terms of such contracts to determine non-forfeiture values.

Aggregate Reserves for all Life Policies; Minimum Amount

Sec. 6. In no event shall a company's aggregate reserves for all life insurance policies, excluding disability and accidental death benefits, issued on or after the operative date of Article 3.44a (the Standard Non-forfeiture Law), be less than the aggregate reserves calculated in accordance with the methods set forth in Sections 5 and 8 and the mortality table or tables and rate or rates of interest used in calculating non-forfeiture benefits for such policies.

Calculation of Reserves for Policies and Contracts Issued Prior to Operative Date of Standard Non-forfeiture Law; Standards

Sec. 7. Reserves for all policies and contracts issued prior to the operative date of Article 3.44a (the Standard Non-forfeiture Law) may be calculated, at the option of the company, according to any standards which produce greater aggregate reserves for all such policies and contracts than the minimum reserves required by the laws in effect immediately prior to such date.

Reserves for any category of policies, contracts or benefits as established by the State Board of Insurance, issued on or after the operative date of Article 3.44a (the Standard Non-forfeiture Law), may be calculated, at the option of the company, according to any standards which produce greater aggregate reserves for such category than those calculated according to the minimum standard herein provided, but the rate or rates of interest used for policies and contracts, other than annuity and pure endowment contracts, shall not be higher than the corresponding rate or rates of interest used in calculating any non-forfeiture benefits provided for therein.

Any such company which at any time shall have adopted any standard of valuation producing greater aggregate reserves than those calculated according to the minimum standard herein provided may, with the approval of the State Board of Insurance, adopt any lower standard of valuation, but not lower than the minimum herein provided.

Deficiency Reserve

Sec. 8. If in any contract year the gross premium charged by any life insurance company on any policy or contract is less than the valuation net premium for the policy or contract calculated by the method used in calculating the reserve thereon but using the minimum valuation standards of mortality and rate of interest, the minimum reserve required for such policy or contract is the greater of either the reserve calculated according to the mortality table, rate of interest, and method actually used for such policy or contract, or the reserve calculated by the method actually used for such policy or contract but using the minimum standards of mortality and rate of interest and replacing the valuation net premium by the actual gross premium in each contract year for which the valuation net premium exceeds the actual gross premium.

[Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 2098, ch. 842, §§ 1 to 5, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

PART II. AUTHORIZED LOANS

1. First Liens Upon Real Estate.

First liens upon real estate, the title to which is valid and the value of which is at least one-third more than the amount loaned thereon; provided, however, that the aggregate amount of loans secured by first liens on real estate to any one corporation, company, partnership, individual or any affiliated person or group may not exceed ten (10%) per cent of the admitted assets of such insurer, and provided further that the amount of any such single loan secured by a first lien on real estate may not exceed five (5%) per cent of the admitted assets of the insurer. The limitation provided by this subsection shall not apply to any first lien on real estate where the Commissioner of Insurance finds that: (1) the making or acquiring of such lien is beneficial to and protects the interest of the insurer and (2) no substantial damage to the policyholders and creditors of such insurer appears probable from the taking or acquiring of such lien.

2. First Liens Upon Leasehold Estates.

First liens upon leasehold estates in real property and improvements situated thereon, the title to which is valid; provided that the duration of any loan upon such leasehold estates shall not exceed a period equal to four-fifths (%\(\frac{4}{5}\)) of the then unexpired term of such leasehold estate, provided the unexpired term of the leasehold estate must extend at least ten (10) years beyond the term of the loan, and any such

6. Restrictions as to Value of Real Estate Removed Where Loans Insured by the United States.

The foregoing restrictions as to the value of the real estate security compared to the amount loaned thereon and as to the duration of such loans shall not be applied to loans if the entire amount of the indebtedness is insured or guaranteed in any manner by the United States, the Federal Housing Administration pursuant to the National Housing Act of 1934, as amended (12 U.S.C.A. Sec. 1701 et seq.), or by the State of Texas, or, if not wholly insured or guaranteed, the difference between the entire amount of the indebtedness and that portion thereof insured or guaranteed by the United States, the Federal Housing Administration pursuant to the National Housing Act of 1934, as amended, or by the State of Texas, would not exceed the amount of loan permissible under said restrictions.

7. Loans to be Authorized by Board of Directors.

No loan, except policy loans, shall be made by any such insurance company unless the same shall first have been authorized by the Board of Directors or by a committee charged with the duty of supervising such loans.

If any part of the value of buildings is required to be included in the value of such real estate to attain the minimum authorized value of the security, such buildings shall be insured against loss by fire in a company authorized to transact business in the state in which such real estate is located, or in a company recognized as acceptable for such purpose by the insurance regulatory official of the state in which such real estate is located, which insurance shall be in an amount of at least fifty per cent (50%) of the value of such buildings; provided, that the insurance coverage need not exceed the outstanding balance owed to the lending company when the outstanding balance falls below fifty per cent (50%) of the value of the buildings. The loss clause shall be payable to such company.

B. CAPITAL, SURPLUS AND CONTINGENCY FUNDS OVER AND ABOVE POLICY RESERVES

1. Capital Stock, Bonds, and Other Obligations of Solvent Corporations, and Educational or Religious Corporations.

It may loan its capital, surplus, and contingency funds, or any part thereof over and above the amount of its policy reserves, taking as security therefor the capital stock, bonds, bills of exchange, or other commercial notes or bills and the securities of any solvent corporation which has not defaulted in the payment of any debt within five (5) years next preceding such investment; or of any solvent corporation which has not been in existence for five (5) consecutive years next preceding such investment, provided such corporation has succeeded to the business and assets and has assumed the liabilities of another corporation, and which corporation and the corporation so succeeded have not defaulted in the payment of any debt within five (5) years next preceding such investment; or in the bonds or notes of any Educational or Religious Corporation where provision has been made for the payment of a sufficient amount of the first weekly or monthly revenues thereof to an interest and sinking fund account in a bank or trust company as an independent paying agent; provided, the market value of such stock, bills of exchange, or other commercial notes or bills and securities shall be at all times during the continuance of such loan at least fifty per cent (50%) more than the sum loaned thereon; provided that it shall not take as collateral security for any loan its own capital stock, nor shall it take as collateral security for any loan the stock of any one corporation to any extent more than ten per cent (10%) of the amount of its own capital, surplus, and contingency funds, nor shall it take as collateral security for any loan the stock of any manufacturing corporation with a net worth of less than Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000), nor the stock of any oil corporation with a net worth of less than Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000); and provided further, that it shall not take as collateral security for any such loan any stock on account of which the holder or owner thereof may in any event be or become liable to any assessment except for taxes.
Art. 3.40. May Hold Real Estate

Every such insurance company may secure, hold and convey real property only for the following purposes and in the following manner:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of Sections 2, 3, and 4 of this Article which shall not be necessary for its accommodation in the convenient transactions of its business, except interests in minerals and royalties reserved upon the sale of land acquired under such Subdivisions 2, 3, and 4 hereof, and further excepting interests in producing royalties and producing overriding royalties otherwise acquired, shall be sold and disposed of within five (5) years after the company shall have acquired title to the same, or within five (5) years after the same shall have ceased to be necessary for the accommodation of its business. It shall not hold such property for a longer period, unless it shall procure a certificate from the Board that its interests will suffer materially by the forced sale thereof; in which event the time for the sale may be extended to such time as the Board shall direct in such certificate.

In addition to, and without limitation on, the purposes for which real property may be acquired, secured, held or retained pursuant to other provisions of this Article, every such insurance company may secure, hold, retain and convey production payments, producing royalties and producing overriding royalties as an investment for the production of income; provided, however, that the total amount of all such investments in production payments, producing royalties and producing overriding royalties plus the total amount of investments in home office and branch office properties under Subdivision 1(a) of this Article shall not exceed the total amount permitted by and shall be subject to all of the limitations and restrictions of Subdivisions 1(b) and 1(e) of this Article and for this purpose all investments in production payments, producing royalties and producing overriding royalties pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph shall be deemed to be "properties described in Subdivision 1(a)" of this Article; and provided further, that in valuing each such production payment, producing royalty and producing overriding royalty for the purposes of Subdivision 1(e) of this Article the State Board of Insurance may establish such value as being the maximum amount which the company purchasing such production payment, producing royalty and producing overriding royalty could loan against a first lien on such production payment, producing royalty and producing overriding royalty under the provisions of Part II, Section A, Subsection 2 of Article 3.39 of the Insurance Code; and provided further, no such company shall make any investment in such production payments, producing royalties and producing overriding royalties solely as an investment for the production of income if, after making such investment, the total investment of the company at cost in such production payments, producing royalties and producing overriding royalties is in excess of ten percent (10%) of its admitted assets as of December 31st next preceding the date of such investment. For the purposes of this paragraph, a production payment is defined to mean a right to oil, gas or other minerals in place or as produced that entitles its owner to a specified fraction of production until a specified sum of money, or a specified number of units of oil, gas or other minerals, has been received; a royalty and an overriding royalty are each defined to mean a right to oil, gas and other minerals in place or as produced that entitles the owner to a specified fraction of production without limitation to a specified sum of money, or a specified number of units of oil, gas or other minerals; "producing" is defined to mean producing oil, gas or other minerals in paying quantities, provided that it shall be deemed that oil, gas or other minerals are being produced in paying quantities if a well has been "shut in" and "shut in royalties" are being paid. In the event production in paying quantities should cease or decrease from any such royalty interest or overriding royalty interest held by any insurance company, such royalty or overriding royalty shall be sold and disposed of within two (2) years after such production shall have ceased, unless production in paying quantities shall have been resumed, or unless such Insurance Company shall have procured a certificate from the Board that its interests will suffer materially by the forced sale thereof; in which event the sale may be extended to such time as the Board shall direct in such certificate.

Provided, however, that this Article shall not apply to any society, company or other insurer whose activities are by statute exempt from the control of the State Board of Insurance and which is entitled by statute to an exemption certificate from said Board in evidence of its exempt status; provided, further, that this Act shall not be construed to enlarge the powers of any of the insurers subject to this Article.

(b) No application form which is required to be or is attached to the policy, contract or certificate, and no rider or endorsement to be attached to, printed upon or used in connection with any policy, contract or certificate described in Paragraph (a) of this Article shall be delivered, issued or used in this state by any insurer described in Paragraph (a) of this Article unless the form of said application, rider or endorsement has been filed with the State Board of Insurance and approved by said Board as provided in Paragraph (c) of this Article. Each individual accident and sickness insurance policy application form, which is required to be or is attached to the policy, shall comply with the rules and regulations of the Board promulgated pursuant to Subchapter G of this chapter. Provided, however, that this Article shall not apply to riders or endorsements which relate to the manner of distribution of benefits or to the reservation of rights and benefits under such policies, contracts and certificates, and which are used at the request of the holder of the policy, contract or certificate.

(c) Every such filing hereby required shall be made not less than thirty days in advance of any such issuance, delivery or use. At the expiration of thirty days the form so filed shall be deemed approved by the State Board of Insurance unless prior thereto it has been affirmatively approved or disapproved by the written order of said Board. The State Board of Insurance may extend by not more than an additional thirty days the period within which it may so affirmatively approve or disapprove any such form, by giving notice of such extension before expiration of the initial fifteen day period and at the expiration of any such extended period, and in the absence of such prior affirmative approval or disapproval, any such form shall be deemed approved. The State Board of Insurance may withdraw any such approval at any time. Approval of any such form by such Board shall constitute a waiver of any expired portion of the waiting period, or periods, herein provided.

(d) The order of the State Board of Insurance disapproving any such form or withdrawing a previous approval shall state the grounds for such disapproval or withdrawal.

(e) The State Board of Insurance may, by written order, exempt from the requirements of this Article for so long as it deems proper, any insurance document or form specified in such order, to which in its opinion this Article may not practicably be applied, or the filing and approval of which are, in its opinion, not desirable or necessary for the protection of the public.

(f) The State Board of Insurance shall forthwith disapprove any such form, or withdraw any previous approval thereto if, and only if,

(1) It is in any respect in violation of or does not comply with this Code.

(2) It contains provisions which encourage misrepresentation or are unjust, unfair, inequitable, misleading, deceptive or contrary to law or to the public policy of this state.

(3) It has any title, heading or other indication of its provisions which is misleading.

(g)(1) The Board may, after notice and hearing, withdraw any previous approval of an individual accident and sickness insurance policy form if, after consideration of all relevant facts, the Board finds that the benefits provided under such policy form are unreasonable in relation to the premium charged. The Board shall from time to time as conditions warrant, and after notice and hearing, promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations and amendments thereto as are necessary to establish the standard or standards by which any previous approval of a policy form may be withdrawn. Any such rule or regulation shall be promulgated in accordance with Article 3.70–10 of the Texas Insurance Code. Nothing in this section shall be construed as granting the State Board of Insurance any power or authority to determine, fix, prescribe, or promulgate the rates to be charged for any individual accident and sickness insurance policy or policies.

(2) The Board shall require the filing of all rates to be charged for individual accident and sickness policies and may adopt necessary forms to be filed by insurers in conjunction with the annual statement required under Articles 3.07 and 3.20 of this code for reporting the experience on all individual accident and sickness insurance policy forms issued by the insurer so as to determine compliance with Subsection (1).

(h) Appeals from any order of the State Board of Insurance issued under this Article may be taken to the District Court of Travis County, Texas, in accordance with Article 21.44 of Sub-Chapters F of this Insurance Code, or any amendments thereof.

Art. 3.44a. Standard Non-forfeiture Law

Adjusted Premiums

Sec. 5. Except as provided in the third paragraph of this Section, the adjusted premiums for any policy shall be calculated on an annual basis, or at the option of the company on a fully continuous basis provided such basis is consistent with actual policy provisions and the use of such basis is specified therein, and shall be such uniform percentage of the respective premiums specified in the policy for each policy year, excluding any extra premiums charged because of impairments or special hazards, that the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of all such adjusted premiums shall be equal to the sum of (i) the then present value of the future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy; (ii) two per cent (2%) of the amount of insurance, if the insurance be uniform in amount, or of the equivalent uniform amount, as hereinafter defined, if the amount of insurance varies with duration of the policy; (iii) forty per cent (40%) of the adjusted premium for the first policy year; (iv) twenty-five per cent (25%) of either the adjusted premium for the first policy year or the adjusted premium for a whole life policy of the same uniform or equivalent uniform amount with uniform premiums for the whole of life issued at the same age for the same amount of insurance, whichever is less. Provided, however, that in applying the percentages specified in (iii) and (iv) above, no adjusted premium shall be deemed to exceed four per cent (4%) of the amount of insurance or uniform amount equivalent thereto. The date of issue of a policy for the purpose of this Section shall be the date as of which the rated age of the insured is determined.

In the case of a policy providing an amount of insurance varying with duration of the policy, the equivalent uniform amount thereof for the purpose of this Section shall be deemed to be the uniform amount of insurance provided by an otherwise similar policy, containing the same endowment benefit or benefits, if any, issued at the same age and for the same term, the amount of which does not vary with duration and the benefits under which have the same present value at the date of issue as the benefits under the policy; provided, however, that in the case of a policy providing a varying amount of insurance issued on the life of a child under age ten, the equivalent uniform amount may be computed as though the amount of insurance provided by the policy prior to the attainment of age ten were the amount provided by such policy at age ten.

The adjusted premiums for any policy providing term insurance benefits by rider or supplemental policy provision shall be equal to (a) the adjusted premiums for an otherwise similar policy issued at the same age without such term insurance benefits, increased, during the period for which premiums for such term insurance benefits are payable, by (b) the adjusted premiums for such term insurance, the foregoing items (a) and (b) being calculated separately and as specified in the first two paragraphs of this Section.

Except as otherwise provided in Sections 6 and 7, all adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this Article shall for all policies of ordinary insurance be calculated on the basis of the Commissioners 1941 Standard Ordinary Mortality Table, provided that for any category of ordinary insurance issued on male risks, adjusted premiums and present values may be calculated according to an age not more than three years younger than the actual age of the insured and such calculations for all policies of industrial insurance shall be made on the basis of the 1941 Standard Industrial Mortality Table. All calculations shall be made on the basis of the rate of interest not exceeding three and one-half per cent (3½%) per annum, specified in the policy for calculating cash surrender values and paid-up non-forfeiture benefits. Provided, however, that in calculating the present value of any paid-up term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, offered as a non-forfeiture benefit, the rates of mortality assumed may be not more that one hundred and thirty percent (130%) of the rates of mortality according to such applicable table. Provided further, that for insurance issued on a sub-standard basis, the calculation of any such adjusted premiums and present values may be based on such other table of mortality as may be specified by the company and approved by the State Board of Insurance.

Calculation of Adjusted Premiums and Present Values of Ordinary Policies Issued on or After Operative Date of This Section

Sec. 6. In the case of ordinary policies issued on or after the operative date of this Section as defined herein, all adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this Article shall be calculated on the basis of the Commissioners 1958 Standard Ordinary Mortality Table and the rate of interest specified in the policy for calculating cash surrender values and paid-up non-forfeiture benefits provided that such rate of interest shall not exceed three and one-half per cent (3½%) per annum except that a rate of interest not exceeding four per cent (4%) per annum may be used for policies issued on or after June 14, 1973, and prior to the effective date of this amend-

(a) That on cessation of payment of considerations under a contract, the company will grant a paid-up annuity benefit on a plan stipulated in the contract of such value as is specified in Sections 3, 4, 5, 6, and 8 of this Article.

(b) If a contract provides for a lump-sum settlement at maturity, or at any other time, that on surrender of the contract at or prior to the commencement of any annuity payments, the company will pay in lieu of any paid-up annuity benefit a cash...
surrender benefit of such amount as is specified in Sections 3, 4, 6, and 8 of this Article. The company shall reserve the right to defer the payment of such cash surrender benefit for a period of six (6) months after demand therefor with surrender of the contract.

(c) A statement of the mortality table, if any, and interest rates used in calculating any minimum paid-up annuity, cash surrender or death benefits that are guaranteed under the contract, together with sufficient information to determine the amounts of such benefits.

(d) A statement that any paid-up annuity, cash surrender or death benefits that may be available under the contract are not less than the minimum benefits required by any statute of the state in which the contract is delivered and an explanation of the manner in which such benefits are altered by the existence of any additional amounts credited by the company to the contract, any indebtedness to the company on the contract or any prior withdrawals from or partial surrenders of the contract.

Notwithstanding the requirements of this Section, any deferred annuity contract may provide that if no considerations have been received under a contract for a period of two (2) full years and the portion of the paid-up annuity benefit at maturity on the plan stipulated in the contract arising from considerations paid prior to such period would be less than twenty dollars ($20.00) monthly, the company may at its option terminate such contract by payment in cash, of the then present value of such portion of the paid-up annuity benefit, calculated on the basis of the mortality table, if any, and interest rate specified in the contract for determining the paid-up annuity benefit, and by such payment shall be relieved of any further obligation under such contract.

Minimum Non-forfeiture Amounts

Sec. 2. The minimum values as specified in Sections 3, 4, 5, 6, and 8 of this Article of any paid-up annuity, cash surrender, or death benefits available under an annuity contract shall be based upon minimum non-forfeiture amounts as defined in this Section.

(a) With respect to contracts providing for flexible considerations, the minimum non-forfeiture amount at any time at or prior to the commencement of any annuity payments shall be equal to an accumulation up to such time at a rate of interest of three per cent (3%) per annum of percentages of the net considerations (as hereinafter defined) paid prior to such time, decreased by the sum of:

(1) any prior withdrawals from or partial surrenders of the contract accumulated at a rate of interest of three per cent (3%) per annum; and

(2) the amount of any indebtedness to the company on the contract, including interest due and accrued; and increased by any existing additional amounts credited by the company to the contract.

The net considerations for a given contract year used to define the minimum non-forfeiture amount shall be an amount not less than zero and shall be equal to the corresponding gross considerations credited to the contract during that contract year less an annual contract charge of thirty dollars ($30.00) and less a collection charge of one dollar and twenty-five cents ($1.25) per consideration credited to the contract during that contract year. The percentages of net considerations shall be sixty-five per cent (65%) of the net consideration for the first contract year and eighty-seven and one-half per cent (87 1/2%) of the net considerations for the second and later contract years. Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding sentence, the percentage shall be sixty-five per cent (65%) of the portion of the total net consideration for any renewal contract year which exceeds by not more than two times the sum of those portions of the net considerations in all prior contract years for which the percentage was sixty-five per cent (65%).

(b) With respect to contracts providing for fixed scheduled considerations, minimum non-forfeiture amounts shall be calculated on the assumption that considerations are paid annually in advance and shall be defined as for contracts with flexible considerations which are paid annually with two exceptions:

(1) the portion of the net consideration for the first contract year to be accumulated shall be the sum of sixty-five per cent (65%) of the net consideration for the first contract year plus twenty-two and one-half per cent (22 1/2%) of the excess of the net consideration for the first contract year over the lesser of the net considerations for the second and third contract years; and

(2) the annual contract charge shall be the lesser of (i) thirty dollars ($30.00) or (ii) ten per cent (10%) of the gross annual consideration.

(c) With respect to contracts providing for a single consideration, minimum non-forfeiture amounts shall be defined as for contracts with flexible considerations except that the percentage of net consideration used to determine the minimum non-forfeiture amount shall be equal to ninety per cent (90%) and the net consideration shall be the gross consideration less a contract charge of seventy-five dollars ($75.00).

Present Value of Paid-up Annuity

Sec. 3. Any paid-up annuity benefit available under a contract shall be such that its present value on the date annuity payments are to commence is at least equal to the minimum non-forfeiture amount on that date. Such present value shall be computed using the mortality table, if any, and the interest rate specified in the contract for determining the minimum paid-up annuity benefits guaranteed in the contract.

Contracts Which Provide Cash Surrender Benefits

Sec. 4. For contracts which provide cash surrender benefits, such cash surrender benefits available prior to maturity shall not be less than the present value as of the date of surrender of that portion of the maturity value of the paid-up annuity benefit which would be provided under the contract at maturity arising from considerations paid prior to the time of cash surrender reduced by the amount appropriate to reflect any prior withdrawals from or partial surrenders of the contract, such present value being calculated on the basis of an interest rate not more than one per cent (1%) higher than the interest rate specified in the contract for accumulating the net considerations to determine such maturity value, decreased by the amount of any indebtedness to the company on the contract, including interest due and accrued, and increased by any existing additional amounts credited by the company to the contract. In no event shall any cash surrender benefit be less than the minimum non-forfeiture amount at that time. The death benefit under such contracts shall be at least equal to the cash surrender benefit.

Contracts Which Do Not Provide Cash Surrender Benefits

Sec. 5. For contracts which do not provide cash surrender benefits, the present value of any paid-up annuity benefit available as a non-forfeiture option at any time prior to maturity shall not be less than the present value of that portion of the maturity value of the paid-up annuity benefit provided under the contract arising from considerations paid prior to the time the contract is surrendered in exchange for, or changed to, a deferred paid-up annuity, such present value being calculated for the period prior to the maturity date on the basis of the interest rate specified in the contract for accumulating the net considerations to determine such maturity value, and increased by any existing additional amounts credited by the company to the contract. For contracts which do not provide any death benefits prior to the commencement of any annuity payments, such present values shall be calculated on the basis of the interest rate and the mortality table specified in the contract for determining the maturity value of the paid-up annuity benefit. However, in no event shall the present values of a paid-up annuity be less than the minimum non-forfeiture amount at that time.

Maturity Dates

Sec. 6. For the purpose of determining the benefits calculated under Sections 4 and 5 of this Article, in the case of annuity contracts under which an election may be made to have annuity payments commence at optional maturity dates, the maturity date shall be deemed to be the latest date for which election shall be permitted by the contract, but shall not be deemed to be later than the anniversary of the contract next following the annuitant's 70th birthday or the 10th anniversary of the contract, whichever is later.

Statement Indicating No Benefits

Sec. 7. Any contract which does not provide cash surrender benefits or does not provide death benefits at least equal to the minimum non-forfeiture amount prior to the commencement of any annuity payments shall include a statement in a prominent place in the contract that such benefits are not provided.

Benefits Available Other Than On Contract Anniversary

Sec. 8. Any paid-up annuity, cash surrender or death benefits available at any time, other than on the contract anniversary under any contract with fixed scheduled considerations, shall be calculated with allowance for the lapse of time and the payment of any scheduled considerations beyond the beginning of the contract year in which cessation of payment of consideration under the contract occurs.

Contracts Which Provide Both Annuity Benefits and Life Insurance Benefits

Sec. 9. For any contract which provides, within the same contract by rider or supplemental contract provision, both annuity benefits and life insurance benefits that are in excess of the greater of cash surrender benefits or a return of the gross considerations with interest, the minimum non-forfeiture benefits shall be equal to the sum of the minimum non-forfeiture benefits for the annuity portion and the minimum non-forfeiture benefits, if any, for the life insurance portion computed as if each portion were a separate contract. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 3, 4, 5, 6, and 8 of this Article, additional benefits payable (a) in the event of total and permanent disability, (b) as reversionary annuity or deferred reversionary annuity benefits, or (c) as other policy benefits additional to life insurance, endowment and annuity benefits, and considerations for all such additional benefits, shall be disregarded in ascertaining the minimum non-forfeiture amounts, paid-up annuity, cash surrender and death benefits that may be required by this Article. The inclusion of such additional benefits shall not be required in any paid-up benefits, unless such additional benefits separately would require minimum non-forfeiture amounts, paid-up annuity, cash surrender and death benefits.

Inapplicability of Article

Sec. 10. This Article shall not apply to any reinsurance, group annuity purchased under a retirement plan or plan of deferred compensation established or maintained by an employer (including a partnership or sole proprietorship), or by an employee organization, or by both, other than a plan providing individual retirement accounts or individual retirement annuities under Section 408 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended (Title 26, United States Code, as amended), premium deposit fund, variable annuity, investment annuity, immediate annuity, any deferred annuity contract after annuity payments have commenced, or reversionary annuity, nor to any contract which shall be delivered outside this state through an agent or other representative of the company issuing the contract.

Operative Date of Article

Sec. 11. After the effective date of this Article, any company may file with the State Board of Insurance a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this Article after a specified date before the second anniversary of the effective date of this Article. After the filing of such notices, then upon such specified date, which shall be the operative date of this Article for such company, the Article shall become operative with respect to annuity contracts thereafter issued by such company. If a company makes no such election, the operative date of this Article for such company shall be the second anniversary of the effective date of this Article.

SUBCHAPTER E. GROUP; INDUSTRIAL AND CREDIT INSURANCE

Art. 3.50. Group Life Insurance

Definitions

Sec. 1. No policy of group life insurance shall be delivered in this state unless it conforms to one of the following descriptions:

(1) A policy issued to an employer, or to the trustees of a fund established by an employer, which employer or trustees shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure employees of the employer for the benefit of persons other than the employer, subject to the following requirements:

(a) The employees eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all of the employees of the employer, or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their employment. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include the employees of one or more subsidiary corporations, and the employees, individual proprietors, and partners of one or more affiliated corporations, proprietors or partnerships if the business of the employer and of such affiliated corporations, proprietors or partnerships is under common control through stock ownership, contract, or otherwise. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include the individual proprietor or partners if the employer is an individual proprietor or a partnership. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include retired employees.

(b) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder, either wholly from the employer's fund or funds contributed by him, or partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured employees. No policy may be issued on which the entire premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured employees. A policy on which part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured employees may be placed in force only if at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the then eligible employees, excluding any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, elect to make the required contributions. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured employees must insure all eligible employees, or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer.

(c) The policy must cover at least ten (10) employees at date of issue.

(d) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan excluding individual selection either by the employees or by the employer or trustees. No policy may be issued which provides insurance on any employee which together with any other insurance under any group life insurance policies issued to the employer or to the trustees of a fund established by the employer exceeds Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), unless two hundred percent (200%) of the annual compensation of such employee from his employer or employers exceeds Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), in which event all such term insurance shall not exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), or two hundred percent (200%) of such annual compensation, whichever is the lesser, except that this limitation shall not apply to group insurance on other than the term plan where such insurance is to be used to fund the benefits under a pension or profit sharing plan.\n plan and the amount of such insurance does not exceed that required to provide at normal retirement date the pension specified by the plan, and except that a group policy which is issued by the same or another carrier to replace another group policy may provide term insurance not to exceed the amounts provided by the policy which it replaces, or the amounts provided above, whichever are greater.

(2) A policy issued to a labor union, which shall be deemed the employer and policyholder, to insure the members of such union who are actively engaged in the same occupation and who shall be deemed to be the employees of such union within the meaning of this Article.

(3) A policy issued to any association of employees of the United States Government or any subdivision thereof, provided the majority of the members of such association are residents of this state, an association of public employees, an incorporated city, town or village, an independent school district, common school district, state colleges or universities, any association of state employees, any association of state, county and city, town or village employees, and any association of any combination of state, county or city, town or village employees and any department of the state government which employer or association shall be deemed the policyholder to insure the employees of any such incorporated city, town or village, of any such independent school district, of any such common school district, of any such state college or university, of any such department of the state government, members of any association of state, county or city, town or village or of the United States Government or any subdivision thereof, provided the majority of such employees reside in this state, employees for the benefit of persons other than the policyholder subject to the following requirements:

(a) The persons eligible for insurance under the policy shall all be of the employees of the employer or if the policyholder is an association, all of the members of the association.

(b) The premium for a policy issued to any policyholder authorized to be such policyholder under Subsection (3) of Section 1, Article 3.50, Texas Insurance Code, may be paid in whole or in part from funds contributed by the employer, or in whole or in part from funds contributed by the persons insured under said policy; or in whole or in part from funds contributed by the insured employees who are members of such association of employees; provided, however, that any monies or credits received by or allowed to the policyholder pursuant to any participation agreement contained in or issued in connection with the policy shall be applied to the payment of future premiums and to the pro rata abatement of the insured employees' contribution therefor; and provided further, that the employer may deduct from the employees' salaries the employees' contributions for the premiums when authorized in writing by the respective employees so to do. Such policy may be placed in force only if at least 75% of the eligible employees or if an association of employees is the policyholder, 75% of the eligible members of said association, excluding any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, elect to make the required premium contributions and become insured thereunder. Any group policies heretofore issued to any of the groups named in Section (3) above and in existence on the effective date of this Act shall continue in force even though the number of employees or members insured thereunder is less than 75% of the eligible employees or members on the effective date of this Act.

(c) The policy must cover at least ten (10) employees at date of issue, or if an association of employees is the policyholder, ten (10) members of said association at date of issue.

(d) The term employees as used herein in addition to its usual meaning shall include elective and appointive officials of the state.

(4) A policy issued to a creditor, who shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure debtors of the creditor, subject to the following requirements:

(a) The debtors eligible for insurance under the policy shall all be members of a group of persons numbering not less than fifty (50) at all times, who become borrowers, or purchasers of securities, merchandise or other property, under agreement to repay the sum borrowed or to pay the balance of the price of the securities, merchandise or other property purchase, to the extent of their respective indebtedness, but not to exceed Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) on any one life; provided, however, the face amount of any loan or loan commitment, totally or partially executed, made to a debtor for educational purposes or to a debtor with seasonal income by a creditor in good faith for general agricul-

Tural or horticultural purposes, secured or unsecured, where the debtor becomes personally liable for the payment of such loan, may be so insured in an initial amount of such insurance not to exceed the total amount repayable under the contract of indebtedness and, when such indebtedness is repayable in substantially equal installments, the amount of insurance shall at no time exceed the scheduled or actual amount of unpaid indebtedness, whichever is greater, and such insurance on such credit commitments not exceeding one year in duration may be written up to the amount of the loan commitment on a nondecreasing or level term plan, but such insurance shall not exceed Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) on any one.

(b) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder, either from the creditor's funds or from charges collected from the insured debtors, or both.

(c) The insurance issued shall not include annuities or endowment insurance.

(d) The insurance shall be payable to the policyholder. Such payment shall reduce or extinguish the unpaid indebtedness of the debtor to the extent of such payment; provided that in the case of a debtor for educational purposes or of a debtor with seasonal income, under a loan or loan commitment for general agricultural or horticultural purposes of the type described in paragraph (a), the insurance in excess of the indebtedness to the creditor, if any, shall be payable to the estate of the debtor or under the provision of a facility of payment clause.

(5) A policy issued to the trustees of a fund established by two or more employers in the same industry or by one or more labor unions, or to the trustees of a fund established by one or more employers in the same industry and one or more labor unions, or by one or more employers and one or more labor unions whose members are in the same or related occupations or trades, which trustees shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure employees of the employers or members of the unions for the benefit of persons other than the employers or the union, subject to the following requirements:

(a) The persons eligible for insurance shall be all of the employees of the employers and the employees of the trade association of such employers or all of the members of the union, or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their employment, or to membership in the unions, or both. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include retired employees, and the individual proprietor or partners if an employer is an individual proprietor or a partnership. No director of a corporate employer shall be eligible for insurance under the policy unless such person is otherwise eligible as a bona fide employee of the corporation by performing services other than the usual duties of a director. No individual proprietor or partner shall be eligible for insurance under the policy unless he is actively engaged in and devotes a substantial part of his time to the conduct of the business of the proprietor or partnership. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include the trustees or their employees, or both, if their duties are principally connected with such trusteeship.

(b) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the trustees wholly from funds contributed by the employer or employers of the insured persons, or by the union or unions, or by both, or, partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured persons, except that in no event shall the contribution by an insured person toward the cost of his insurance exceed forty cents per thousand per month. A policy on which part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured persons specifically for their insurance may be placed in force only if at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the then eligible persons of each participating employer unit, excluding any as to whom evidence of insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, elect to make the required contributions. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured persons specifically for their insurance must insure all eligible persons, or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer.

(c) The policy must cover at date of issue at least one hundred (100) persons; unless the policy is issued to the trustees of a fund established by employers which have assumed obligations through a collective bargaining agreement and are participating in the fund either pursuant to those obligations with regard to one or more classes of their employees which are encompassed in the collective bargaining agreement or as a method of providing insurance benefits for other classes of their employees, or unless the policy is issued to the trustees of a fund established by one or more labor unions.
(d) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the insured persons or by the policyholder or employer. No policy may be issued which provides term insurance on any person which together with any other term insurance under any group life insurance policy or policies issued to trustees or employers exceeds Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), unless two hundred percent (200%) of the annual compensation of such employee from his employer or employers exceeds Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), in which event all such term insurance shall not exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) or two hundred percent (200%) of such annual compensation, whichever is the lesser.

(e) The limitation as to amount of group insurance on any person shall not apply to group insurance on other than the term plan where such insurance is to be used to fund the benefits under a pension plan and the amount of such insurance does not exceed that required to provide at normal retirement date the pension specified by the plan, and except that a group policy which is issued by the same or another carrier to replace another group policy may provide term insurance not to exceed the amount provided by the policy which it replaces, or the amounts provided above whichever is greater.

(f) No policy may be issued (i) to insure employees of any employer whose eligibility to participate in the fund as an employer arises out of considerations directly related to the employer being a commercial correspondent or business client or patron of another employer (regardless of whether such other employer is or is not participating in the fund); or (ii) to insure employees of any employer which is not located in this state, unless the majority of the employers whose employees are to be insured are located in this state, or unless the policy is issued to the trustees of a fund established by one or more labor unions.

(6) A policy issued to cover any other substantially similar group which, in the discretion of the commissioner of insurance, may be subject to the issuance of a group life insurance policy or contract.

(7) No policy of wholesale, franchise or employee life insurance, as hereinafter defined, shall be issued or delivered in this state unless it conforms to the following requirements:

(a) Wholesale, franchise or employee life insurance is hereby defined as: a term life insurance plan under which a number of individual term life insurance policies are issued at special rates to a selected group. A special rate is any rate lower than the rate shown in the issuing insurance company’s manual for individually issued policies of the same type and to insureds of the same class.

(b) Wholesale, franchise or employee life insurance may be issued to (1) the employees of a common employer or employers, covering at date of issue not less than five employees; or (2) the members of a labor union or unions covering at date of issue not less than five members; or (3) the members of a credit union or credit unions covering at date of issue not less than five (5) members.

(c) The premium for the policy shall be paid either wholly from funds contributed by the employer or employers of the insured persons, or by the union or unions or by both, or partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured person, except that in no event shall the contribution by an insured person toward the cost of his insurance exceed forty cents per thousand per month.

(d) No policy may be issued on a wholesale, franchise or employee life insurance basis which, together with any other term life insurance policy or policies issued on a wholesale, franchise, employee life insurance or group basis, provides term life insurance coverage for an amount in excess of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), unless two hundred percent (200%) of the annual compensation of such employee from his employer or employers exceeds Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), in which event all such term insurance shall not exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), or two hundred percent (200%) of such annual compensation, whichever is the lesser. An individual application shall be taken for each such policy and the insurer shall be entitled to rely upon the applicant’s statements as to applicant’s other similar coverage upon his life.

(e) Each such policy of insurance shall contain a provision substantially as follows: A provision that if the insurance on an insured person ceases because of termination of employment or of membership in the union, such person shall be entitled to have issued to him by the insurer, without eviidence of insurability an individual policy of life insurance without disability or other supplementary benefits, provided application for the individual policy shall be made, and the first premium paid to the insurer, within thirty-one (31) days after such termination.

(f) Each such policy may contain any provision substantially as follows:

(1) A provision that the policy is renewable at the option of the insurer only;

(2) A provision for termination of coverage by the insurer upon termination of employment by the insured employee;

(3) A provision requiring a person eligible for insurance to furnish evidence of individual insurability satisfactory to the insurer as condition to coverage.

(g) The limitation as to amount of group and wholesale, franchise or employee life insurance on any person shall not apply to group insurance on other than the term plan where such insurance is to be used to fund benefits under a pension plan and the amount of such insurance does not exceed that required to provide at normal retirement date the pension specified by the plan, and except that a group policy which is issued by the same or another carrier to replace another group policy may provide term insurance not to exceed the amounts provided by the policy which it replaces, or the amounts provided above, whichever are greater.

(h) Nothing contained in this Subsection (6) shall in any manner alter, impair or invalidate (1) any policy heretofore issued prior to the effective date of this Act; nor (2) any such plan heretofore placed in force and effect provided such prior plan was at date of issue legal and valid; nor (3) any policy issued on a salary savings franchise plan, bank deduction plan, pre-authorized check plan or similar plan of premium collection.

(7A) A policy may be issued to a principal, or if such principal is a life or life and accident or life accident and health insurer, by or to such principal, covering when issued not less than ten (10) agents of the principal, subject to the following requirements:

(a) As used in this section, the term "agents" shall be deemed to include general agents, subagents and salesmen.

(b) The agents eligible for insurance under the policy shall be those who are under contract to render personal services for the principal for a commission or other fixed or ascertainable compensation.

(e) The premium for the policy shall be paid either wholly by the principal or partly from funds contributed by the principal and partly from funds contributed by the insured agents. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured agents must insure all of the eligible agents or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to the services to be rendered by the agents to the principal. A policy on which part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured agents must cover at issue at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the eligible agents or at least seventy-five percent (75%) of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to the services to be rendered by the agents; provided, however, that the benefits may be extended to other classes of agents as seventy-five percent (75%) thereof express the desire to be covered.

(d) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the principal or by the agents. No policy may be issued which provides term insurance on any agent which together with any other term insurance under any group life insurance policy or policies issued to the principal exceeds Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), unless two hundred percent (200%) of the annual commissions or other fixed or ascertainable compensation of such agent from the principal exceeds Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), in which event all such term insurance shall not exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), or two hundred percent (200%) of such annual commissions or other fixed or ascertainable compensation, whichever is the lesser.

(e) The insurance shall be for the benefit of persons other than the principal.

(8) A policy issued to the Veterans Land Board of the State of Texas, who shall be deemed the policyholder to insure persons purchasing land under the Texas Veterans Land Program as provided in Section 16(B) of Article 5421m, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes (Chapter 318, Acts of the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949, as amended).

(9) Any policy of group term life insurance may be extended, in the form of group term life insurance only, to insure the spouse and minor children, natural or adopted, of an insured em-employee, provided the policy constitutes a part of the employee benefit program established for the benefit of employees of the United States government or any subdivision thereof, and provided further, that the spouse or children of other employees covered by the same employee benefit program in other states of the United States are or may be covered by group term life insurance, subject to the following requirements:

(a) The premiums for the group term life insurance shall be paid by the policyholder from funds solely contributed by the insured employee.

(b) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the insured employee or by the policyholder, provided that group term life insurance upon the life of a spouse shall not exceed the lesser of (1) Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) or (2) one-half of the amount of insurance on the life of the insured employee under the group policy; and provided that group term life insurance on the life of any minor child shall not exceed Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00).

(c) Upon termination of the group term life insurance with respect to the spouse of any insured employee by reason of such person's termination of employment or death, or termination of the group contract, the spouse insured pursuant to this section shall have the same conversion rights as to the group term life insurance on his or her life as is provided for the insured employee.

(d) Only one certificate need be issued for delivery to an insured employee if a statement concerning any dependent's coverage is included in such certificate.

(10) A policy of group life insurance may be issued to a nonprofit service, civic, fraternal, or community organization or association which has had an active existence for at least two years, has a constitution or bylaws, was formed for purposes other than obtaining insurance, and which association shall be deemed the policyholder to insure members and employees of such association for the benefit of persons other than the association or any of its officers, subject to the following requirements:

(a) The persons eligible for insurance shall be all the members of the association, or all of any class thereof determined by conditions pertaining to membership in the association.

(b) The amounts of insurance under the policy shall be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the insured members or by the association.

(c) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder from the policyholder's own funds or from funds contributed by the employees or members specifically for their insurance, or from both.

(d) The policy shall cover at least twenty-five (25) persons at date of issue.

(a) The trustee shall establish a plan or plans for active employees and retired employees, and is hereby authorized, empowered, and directed to contract with one or more qualified carriers or a combination of qualified carriers for the establishment of such plans. The trustee is further authorized, empowered, and directed to establish the above referenced plans of group insurance which in the trustee's discretion may include but are not necessarily limited to the following: group life insurance, accidental death and dismemberment, health benefits plans, including but not limited to hospital care and benefits, surgical care and treatment, medical care and treatment, dental care, obstetrical benefits, prescribed drugs, medicines, and prosthetic devices and supplement benefits, supplies, and services in conformity with the provisions of this Act, insurance protection against either long or short term loss of salary and any other coverages of group insurance which in the discretion of the trustee with consultation from the advisory committee shall be deemed advisable. The trustee shall determine the insurance coverages desired for state employees and will submit this information to the State Board of Insurance for any recommendations as to the types and sufficiency of such coverages. The State Board of Insurance will notify the board of trustees within 15 days as to any such recommendations and will furnish the board of trustees with a list of all carriers authorized to do business in the State of Texas who would be eligible to bid on the insurance coverage proposed. The trustee will notify those carriers that competitive bidding will be conducted and that they are to submit their bids to the State Board of Insurance by a specified date if they wish to bid on the contract. The State Board of Insurance will, after the designated closing date for receiving bids, examine and evaluate the bidding contracts and certify their actuarial soundness to the trustee within 15 days from the closing date. The trustee shall select the desired carrier or carriers and will notify the bidding eligible carriers as to the results of the bidding. The trustee shall select the desired carrier or carriers to provide services which shall be in the best interest of the employees covered by this Act. The trustee is not required to select the lowest bid but shall take into consideration other factors such as ability to service contracts, past experience, financial ability, and other relevant criteria. Should the trustee select a carrier whose bid differs from that advertised, such deviation shall be recorded and the reasons for such deviation shall be fully justified and explained in the minutes of the next meeting of the trustee.

(b) In the event the trustee shall select as the carrier one whose bid was not the lowest of all bids submitted, such selection shall be submitted together with justifications and reasons therefor to the State Board of Insurance. Such deviating selection shall not be deemed final and binding unless and until a majority of the State Board of Insurance has certified its approval in writing to the trustee, or upon the expiration of 30 days after receipt thereof by the State Board of Insurance such deviating selection shall be deemed approved.

(c) The trustee will be required to submit for competitive bidding the coverages provided by the group plan as follows:

1. at least every three years;
2. whenever a change in the types and amounts of coverage occurs, provided that submission for competitive bidding shall not be required more than once within a year from the last submission.

(d) No department shall establish, continue, or authorize payroll deductions for any benefits or coverage as provided in this section without the express approval of the trustee, except for benefits from the deferred compensation program established pursuant to Chapter 197, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973 (Article 6252-3b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(e) The trustee is authorized to select and contract for services performed by health maintenance organizations which are approved by the federal government or the State of Texas to offer health care services to eligible employees and annuitants in a specific area of the state. Eligible employees and annuitants may participate in a selected health maintenance organization in lieu of participation in the health insurance benefits in the Employees Uniform Group Insurance Program, and the employer contributions provided by Subsection (a), Section 15 of this Act for health care coverage shall be paid to the selected health maintenance organizations on behalf of the participants.

Benefit Certificates

Sec. 6. The trustees shall provide for the issuance to each employee insured under this Act a certificate of insurance setting forth the benefits to which the employee is entitled, to whom the benefits are payable, to whom the claims shall be submitted, and summarizing the provisions of the policy principally affecting the employee.

Annual Report

Sec. 7. As soon as practicable after the end of each calendar year but not later than 90 days thereafter, the trustee shall make a written report to the State Board of Insurance concerning the insurance coverages provided and the benefits and services being received by all state employees insured under the provisions of this Act. It shall be the duty of the State Board of Insurance to review such report and advise the trustee in regard to the insurance features of the coverages provided for all state employees and cooperate fully with the trustee in carrying out the purposes of this Act.

Reinsurance

Sec. 8. 2. the total of all mortality and other claims, charges, losses, costs, and expenses incurred for that period; and
3. the amounts of the insurers' allowance for a reasonable profit and contingencies for that period.
(b) An excess of the total of Subdivision (a)(1) of this section over the sum of Subdivisions (a)(2) and (a)(3) of this section shall be held by the carrier issuing the policy as a special contingency reserve to be used by the carrier only for charges, claims, costs, and expenses under the policy. The reserve shall bear interest at a rate determined in advance of each policy year by the carrier and approved by the trustee as being consistent with the rates generally used by the carrier for similar funds held under other group insurance policies. When the trustee determines that the special contingency reserve has attained an amount estimated by it to make satisfactory provision for adverse fluctuations in future charges, claims, costs, or expenses under the policy, any further excess shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Employees Life, Accident, and Health Insurance and Benefits Fund. When a policy is discontinued, any balance remaining in the special contingency reserve after all charges have been made shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the fund. The carrier may make the deposit in equal monthly installments over a period of not more than two years.

Exemption from Execution and Taxes on Premiums

Sec. 10. (a) Exemption from Execution. All insurance benefit payments, employee contributions, optional benefits payments, and any and all rights, benefits, or payments accruing to any person under the provisions of this Act, as well as all money in any fund created by this Act, shall be and the same are hereby exempt from execution, attachment, garnishment, or any other process whatsoever and shall be unassigned except for direct payment which the employee may assign to providers of health care services and as specifically provided in this Act.

In addition to the benefits hereinabove provided and subject to the conditions and limitations of the policy or policies purchased by the trustee, such policy or policies shall provide such payments and benefits for employees and retired employees as shall be determined by the trustee. The trustee is also authorized to include the dependents of employees in the group life insurance program.

(b) The trustee shall prescribe regulations providing for the conversion of other than annual rates of pay to annual rates of pay, and specify the types of pay included in annual pay and all other matters necessary to implement this section.

Sec. 12. (a) The amount of group life insurance and group accidental death and dismemberment insurance in force on an employee at the date of his death shall be paid, on the establishment of a valid claim, to the person or persons surviving at the date of his death, in the following order of precedence:

First, to the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the employee in a signed and witnessed writing received before death in the employing office. For this purpose, a designation, change, or cancellation of beneficiary in a will or other document not so executed and filed has no force or effect.

Third, if none of the above, to the child or children of the employee and descendants of deceased children by representation.

Fourth, if none of the above, to the parents of the employee or the survivor of them.

(b) If, within one year after the death of the employee, no claim for payment has been filed by a person entitled under the order of precedence named by Subsection (a) of this section, or if payment to the person within that period is prohibited by any statute or regulation, payment may be made in the order of precedence as if the person had predeceased the employee, and the payment bars recovery by any other person.

(c) If, within two years after the death of the employee, no claim for payment has been filed by a person entitled under the order of precedence named in Subsection (a) of this section, and neither the trustee nor the office established by the administering carrier has received notice that such a claim will be made, payment may be to the claimant who in the judgment of the trustee is equitably entitled thereto, and the payment bars recovery by any other person.

(d) If, within four years after the death of the employee, payment has not been made under this section and no claim for payment by a person entitled under this section is pending, the amount payable escheats to the credit of the fund.

A like amount for each employee shall be appropriated by the governing board of state departments in their respective official operating budgets if their employees are compensated from funds appropriated by such budgets rather than by the General Appropriations Act.

(b) If an employee or annuitant refuses in writing the coverages, benefits, or services provided by this Act by a statement in writing satisfactory to the trustee, then in no event shall the State of Texas or the employee’s department make any contribution to the cost of any other insurance coverages, services, or benefits on such employee or annuitant.

(c) If any insured employee or annuitant applies for coverage for which the premium exceeds the state’s or the employing department’s contribution under this Act, he shall authorize in writing and in a form satisfactory to the trustee a deduction from his monthly compensation or annuity the difference between the cost of premiums under said group policies and the amount contributed therefor by the State of Texas or the employing department.

Employer Contributions

Sec. 15. (a) On or before the first day of November next preceding each regular session of the legislature, the trustee shall certify to the Legislative Budget Board and budget division of the governor’s office for information and review the amount necessary to pay the contributions of the State of Texas to the trustee for insurance premiums on the coverages provided under this Act during the ensuing biennium. This amount shall be included in the budget of the state which the governor submits to the legislature. The trustee shall certify on or before August 31 of each year to the state comptroller of public accounts and the State Treasurer the estimated amount of state contributions to be received for employees covered by this Act during the ensuing year.

(b) From and after the effective date of this Act, there is hereby allocated and appropriated to the trustee, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, from the several funds from which state employees receive their respective salaries, a sum equal to the total of all employer contributions computed in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations of the trustee promulgated pursuant thereto.

(c) All money hereby allocated and appropriated by the state to the trustee under this Act shall be paid to the trustee in monthly installments based on the annual estimate by the trustee of the contributions to be received for all state employees during said year; provided, however, that in the event said estimate of the contributions of the state employees shall vary from the actual amount of the employer contributions during the year, such adjustments shall be made at the close of each fiscal year as may be required. Each of said monthly installments shall be paid into the appropriate fund created by this Act in the amount certified by the trustee.

(d) The trustee shall certify to the governing boards of those state departments who provide contributions for their employees from operating budgets provide from sources other than the General Appropriations Act the proportionate amounts needed to pay their respective contributions. The contributions of employees, annuitants, and the state provided for under this Act shall be paid into the fund. The fund is available:

1. without fiscal year limitation for all payments for any insurance coverages provided for under this Act; and

2. to pay expenses for administering this Act within the limitations that may be specified annually by the legislature.
(b) Portions of the contributions made by employees, annuitants, and the state shall be regularly set aside in the fund as follows: a percentage, not to exceed one percent of all contributions, determined by the trustee to be reasonably adequate to pay the administrative expenses made available by Subsection (a) of this section. The trustee, from time to time and in amounts it considers appropriate, may transfer unused funds for administrative expenses to the contingency reserves of the plans then under contract with the trustee. When funds are so transferred, each contingency reserve shall be credited in proportion to the total amount of the subscription charges paid and accrued to the plan for the contract term immediately before the contract term in which the transfer is made. The income derived from dividends, rate adjustments, or other refunds made by a plan shall be credited to its contingency reserve. The contingency reserves may be used to defray increases in future rates, or may be applied to reduce the contributions of employees and the state to, or to increase the benefits provided by, the plan from which the reserves are derived, as the trustee from time to time shall determine.

(c) The trustee shall have full power to invest and reinvest any of the money in the fund subject only to the restrictions contained in Section 7, Chapter 352, Acts of the 50th Legislature, 1947, as amended (Article 6228a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). The interest on and the proceeds from the sale of these obligations become a part of the fund.

(d) When insurance coverages or benefits provided under this Act are discontinued, the contingency reserve of that plan shall be credited to the contingency reserves of such insurance continuing under this Act for the contract term following that in which termination occurs, each reserve to be credited in proportion to the amount of the subscription charges paid and accrued to the plan for the year of termination.

Sec. 17. (a) The trustee shall make a continuing study of the operation and administration of this Act, including surveys and reports on group insurance coverages and benefits available to employees and on the experience thereof.

(b) Each contract entered into under this Act shall contain provisions requiring carriers to

1. furnish such reasonable reports as the trustee determines to be necessary to enable it to carry out its functions under this Act; and
2. permit the trustee and representatives of the state auditor to examine records of the carriers as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(c) Each state department shall keep such records, make such certifications, and furnish the trustee with such information and reports as may be necessary to enable the trustee to carry out its functions under this Act.

Sec. 18. (a) There is created and established hereby the Group Insurance Advisory Committee, which shall consist of 23 members who shall be active or retired employees of the State of Texas. One nonvoting member shall be the executive director of the Employees Retirement System of Texas. One member shall be a classified employee of the governor's office, appointed by the governor. One member shall be a retired state employee appointed by the trustee for a three-year term. Subsequent appointments or elections shall be for three-year terms. During a term of appointment or election, vacancies shall be filled by an employee of the same agency from which the vacancy occurred, being appointed by the trustees for the balance of the vacated term.

(c) The Group Insurance Advisory Committee shall advise and consult with the trustee on matters concerning all insurance coverages provided under this Act. The committee shall cooperate and work with the trustee in coordinating and correlating the administration of the Employees Uniform Group Insurance Program among the various state departments and agencies. The duties of each member of the Group Insurance Advisory Committee shall be to secure input from fellow employees and shall be considered additional duties required of his or her other state office or employment and all expenses incurred by any such member in performing his or her duties as a member of the committee shall be paid out of funds made available for those purposes to the agency or department of which he or she is an employee or officer.

Coverage for Dependents

Sec. 19. (a) Any employee or annuitant shall be entitled to secure for his dependents any uniform group insurance coverages provided for employees under this Act, as shall be determined by the trustee. Premium payments required of the employee in excess of employer contributions shall be deducted from the monthly pay of the employee or from his retirement benefits in such manner and form as the trustee shall determine.

(b) A surviving spouse of an employee or a retiree who is entitled to monthly benefits paid by a retirement system named in this Act may, following the death of the employee or retiree, elect to retain the spouse's authorized insurance coverage and also retain authorized insurance coverage for any dependent of the spouse, at the group rate for employees, provided such coverage was previously secured by the employee or retiree for the spouse or dependent, and the spouse directs the applicable retirement system to deduct required premiums from the monthly benefits paid the surviving spouse by the retirement system.

(c) The surviving spouse of an employee or a retiree who designated or selected a time certain annuity option, upon expiration of the annuity option, may retain authorized insurance coverage by advance payment of premiums to the Employees Retirement System of Texas under rules and regulations adopted by the trustee.

(C) determine basic procedural and administrative practices for insurance coverages to be provided employees covered under the provisions of this Act, after considering recommendations of the advisory committee.

(D) determine if existing institutional programs meet, equate to, or exceed standards for such basic coverages. If so, such programs may be continued in accordance with existing contractual arrangements between those institutions and their carrier or carriers, provided, however, that each program so continued shall be submitted by the institution for competitive bidding within standards established by the administrative council at least once during each four-year period following the effective date of coverage under this Act. It is further provided that:

(i) The State Board of Insurance shall provide, by request of the institution a list of all carriers authorized to do business in the State of Texas and who will be eligible to bid on the insurance coverage or coverages provided in this Act.

Where institutions do not correct said deficiencies as directed by the administrative council, the council is hereby authorized and empowered to direct the institution to establish such plans as determined by the council, and to report its action to the commissioner of higher education. If such plans are not established within a reasonable time period not to exceed six months from date of notification, the council shall notify the state comptroller of public accounts, who shall withhold state insurance premium matching funds from the affected institutions until notified by the administrative council that the deficiencies have been corrected. These notifications to the state comptroller shall be reported to the commissioner of higher education.

(F) provide that the governing boards of two or more institutions of higher education may procure one or more group contracts with any insurance company or companies authorized to do business in this state, insuring the employees of each participating institution. The purpose of such authorization shall be to provide institutions of higher education with the ability to obtain the benefits of economy and/or improved coverages for their employees which may occur through increased purchasing economies for larger groups of employees. All contracts for basic coverages negotiated from the effective date of this Act shall be in compliance with basic coverage standards, rules, and regulations of the administrative council promulgated pursuant to this Act. Each governing board may provide such additional or optional insurance programs and coverages as it deems desirable for its employees.

(I) publish such additional goals, guidelines, and surveys as are necessary to assist covered institutions in providing their employees with effective benefits programs.

(J) develop policies, practices, and procedures as necessary in accordance with provisions of applicable statutes to provide for greater uniformity in the administration of retirement annuity insurance programs available to employees of Texas state colleges and universities through the Optional Retirement Program, Article 51.351 et seq., Texas Education Code, as amended, and tax sheltered annuity programs as provided in Chapter 22, Acts of the 57th Legislature, 3rd Called Session, 1962, as amended (Article 6228a–5, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

(K) establish rules, regulations, and procedures for preparation and review of the annual reports of the institutions as further provided for under Section 6 of the Act.

(c) The advisory committee shall be selected, serve, and perform duties as hereinafter described:

1. Selection. One member of the advisory committee shall be elected from each of the institutional components, units, or agencies under the policy direction of a single governing board at such times as designated by the administrative council and in accordance with general guidelines for such elections provided by the administrative council.

2. Qualifications of members. The members of the advisory committee shall be chosen from among employees as defined in this Act. The persons so elected shall demonstrate mature judgment, special abilities, and sincere interests in employee insurance programs and be able to represent the needs of all employees of the institution represented with regard to advisory committee actions.

3. Terms of membership. Members of the advisory committee elected under the terms of this Act shall serve for a period of two years, subject to reelection. At the initial meeting of the advisory committee, and subsequently each year, the members who are elected shall elect a chairman and other such officers as may be necessary. A vacancy shall be filled by an employee of the same institution from which the vacancy occurred, being appointed by the president of said institution for the balance of the vacated term.

(B) The advisory committee shall provide a channel for open communication of ideas and suggestions regarding coverages, eligibility, claims, procedures, bidding, administration, and all other aspects of employee insurance benefits.

Benefit Certificates

Sec. 5. The administrative council shall assure that each employee insured under this Act is issued a certificate of insurance setting forth the benefits to which the employee is entitled, to whom the benefits are payable, to whom the claims shall be submitted, and summarizing the provisions of the policy principally affecting the employee.

Annual Report

Sec. 6. As soon as practicable after the end of each contract year, but not later than 180 days thereafter, each institution covered under the provisions of this Act shall submit an annual report to the administrative council, comparing the insurance coverages provided and the benefits and services received by its employees insured under the provisions of this Act. The administrative council shall, within 30 days of receipt of the institutional annual reports, submit the annual reports together with a summary and commentary to the commissioner of higher education for submission to the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System.

(b) The administrative council may determine all rules, regulations, and actions necessary for the providing of such reinsurance through qualified carriers.

(2) the total of all mortality and other claims, charges, losses, costs, contingency reserve for pending and unreported claims and expenses incurred for each of the periods corresponding to each of the periods heretofore described in Subsection (a)(1) of this section;

(3) the amounts of the allowance for a reasonable profit, contingency reserves, and all other administrative charges corresponding to each of the periods as heretofore described in Subsection (a)(1) of this section.

(b) Any excess of the total of Subsection (a)(1) of this section over the corresponding sum of Subsections (a)(2) and (a)(3) of this section may be held by the carrier issuing the policy as a special reserve. Such reserve may be used at the discretion of the institution with prior approval of the administrative council for, but not limited to, providing additional coverage for participating employees, offsetting necessary employee premium rate increases, or to reduce participating employee premium contributions to the coverage. Any reserve held by the carrier would bear interest at a rate determined each policy year by the carrier and approved by the institution as being consistent with the rate generally used by the carrier for similar funds held under other group insurance policies. Alternative report requirements or arrangements may be approved by the administrative council.

Exemption from Execution

Sec. 9. All insurance benefits and other payments and transactions made pursuant to the provisions of this Act to any employee covered under the provisions of this Act shall be exempt from execution, attachment, garnishment, or any other process whatsoever.

Sec. 11. No eligible employee shall be denied enrollment in any of the coverages provided by this Act; provided, however, that the employee may waive in writing any or all such coverages. Each policy of insurance shall provide for automatic coverage on the date the employee becomes eligible for insurance. From the first day of employment, each active full-time employee who has not waived basic coverage or selected optional coverages shall be protected by a basic plan of insurance coverage automatically. The premium for such coverage shall not exceed the amount of the employer contribution. Each employee who is automatically covered under this section may subsequently retain or waive the basic plan and may make application for any other coverages provided under this Act within institutional and administrative council standards.

Payment of Premiums

Sec. 12. Each institution and agency covered under the provisions of this Act shall contribute monthly to the cost of each insured employee's coverage no less than the amount appropriated therefor by the legislature in the General Appropriations Act or as determined by the governing board of the institution in its respective official operating budget, if the employees are compensated from funds appropriated by such budgets rather than by the General Appropriations Act. The employees shall authorize in writing and in a form satisfactory to the institution a deduction from his monthly compensation of the difference between the total cost of benefits and the amount contributed therefor by the institution or agency.

Employer Contributions

Sec. 13. Certification shall be submitted on or before the first day of November next preceding each regular session of the legislature; the institutions and agencies covered under the provisions of this Act shall certify to the Legislative Budget Board and budget division of the Governor's Budget and Planning Office the amount necessary to pay employer contributions for each active and retired employee from the effective date of this Act. No employee covered under the provisions of this Act shall be required to pay out of the amount of employer contributions due him or out of the amount of his additional premiums due for selected coverages, any administrative costs, fees, or tax whatsoever to pay expenses of a state institution, the coordinating board, or committees as herein established for administering this Act. The duties of each member of the administrative council and the advisory committee shall be considered additional duties to those required of his other state office or employment, and all expenses incurred by any such member in performing his duties as a member of the council or committee shall be paid out of funds made available for those purposes to the institution of which he is an employee or officer.

Sec. 16. Any reports which shall be required by action of the administrative council and advisory committee which have been established under the Act shall be a matter of open record, available for review under the provisions of applicable open-record statutes of the State of Texas. This shall not be interpreted to require the release of any records pertaining to individuals insured under the provisions of this Act, the release of which would be in conflict with the rights of these individuals under federal and state privacy statutes. Meetings which are necessary for the administration of the Act shall be subject to applicable provisions of state open-meetings statutes.
Coverage for Dependents

Sec. 17. Any employee or retired employee shall be entitled to secure for his dependents any uniform group insurance coverages provided for such dependents under the rules and regulations to be promulgated by the administrative council. Such payments for such coverages for dependents shall be deducted from the monthly pay of the employee or paid in such manner and form as the administrative council shall determine.

Effective Date

Sec. 18. This Act shall become effective September 1, 1977, and basic coverages shall be provided by each institution covered under this Act beginning no later than September 1, 1979.

Severability

Sec. 19. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act in all its particulars and as to all other persons and circumstances shall be valid and of full force and effect, and the legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Art. 3.51-7. Continuation of Group Life and Group Accident and Health Insurance During Labor Dispute

No group life insurance policy or group accident and health insurance policy shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state where the premiums or any part thereof is paid or is to be paid in whole or in part by an employer pursuant to the terms of a collective bargaining agreement unless the policy provides that in the event of a cessation of work by the employees covered by the policy as the result of a labor dispute, the policy upon timely payment of the premium shall continue in effect with respect to all employees insured by the policy on the date of the cessation of work who continue to pay their individual contribution and who assume and pay the contribution due from the employer for the period of cessation of work, under the following conditions:

(a) If the policyholder is not a trustee or the trustees of a fund established or maintained in whole or in part by the employer, the policy shall provide that the employee’s individual contribution shall be the rate in the policy, on the date cessation of work occurs, applicable to an individual in the class to which the employee belongs as set forth in the policy. If the policy does not provide for a rate applicable to individuals, the policy shall provide that the employee’s individual contribution shall be an amount equal to the amount determined by dividing (1) the total monthly premium in effect under the policy at the date of cessation of work by (2) the total number of persons insured under the policy at such date.

(b) If the policyholder is a trustee or the trustees of a fund established or maintained in whole or in part by the employer, the employee’s contribution shall be the amount which he and his employer would have been required to contribute to the trust for such employee if (1) the cessation of work had not occurred and (2) the agreement requiring the employer to make contributions to the trust were in full force.

(c) The policy may provide that the continuation of insurance is contingent upon the collection of individual contributions by the union or unions representing the employees for policies referred to in Subdivision (a) above and by the policyholder or the policyholder's agent with respect to policies referred to in Subdivision (b) above.

(d) The policy may provide that the continuation of insurance on each employee is contingent upon timely payment of contributions by the individual and timely payment of the premium by the entity responsible for collecting the individual contributions.

(e) The policy may provide that each individual premium rate shall be increased by any amount up to 20 percent, or any higher percent which may be approved by the commissioner, of that otherwise shown in the policy during the period of cessation of work in order to provide sufficient compensation to the insurer to cover increased administrative costs and increased mortality and morbidity. If the policy does provide for such an increase, this shall have the effect of increasing the employee's contribution by a like percent.

(f) Nothing in this article shall be deemed to limit any right which the insurer may have in accordance with the terms of the policy to increase or decrease the premium rates before, during, or after such cessation of work if in fact the insurer would have had the right to increase the premium rate had the cessation of work not occurred. If such a premium rate change is made, it shall be effective, notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, on such date as the insurer shall determine in accordance with the terms of the policy.

(g) The policy may contain such other provisions with respect to such continuation of insurance as the Commissioner of Insurance may approve.

(h) The policy may provide that, if a premium is unpaid at the date of cessation of work and such premium became due prior to such cessation of work, the continuation of insurance is contingent upon payment of such premium prior to the date the next premium becomes due under the terms of the policy.

(i) Nothing herein shall be deemed to require the continuation of any loss of time payments included in any such group accident and health insurance policy, nor of any other coverages beyond the time that 75 percent of the employees continue such coverage or as to any individual employee beyond the time that he takes full-time employment with another employer; nor shall anything herein be deemed to require continuation of coverage more than six months after the cessation of work.

(E) Standards for Policy Provisions.

(1) The Board shall issue reasonable rules and regulations to establish specific standards including standards for readability of policies and for full and fair disclosure, that set forth the manner, content, and required disclosure for the sale of individual policies of accident and sickness insurance which shall be in addition to and in accordance with applicable laws of this state which may cover but shall not be limited to:

(1) The Board shall issue rules and regulations to establish minimum standards for benefits under each of the following categories of coverage in individual policies of accident and sickness insurance:

(2) The Board shall prescribe the format and content of the outline of coverage required by Subsection (1) of this section. “Format” means style, arrangement, and overall appearance, including such items as the size, color, and prominence of type and the arrangement of text and captions. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2190, ch. 703, § 1, eff. June 21, 1975; Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1285, ch. 505, § 1, eff. June 15, 1977.]

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1975 amendatory act amended Subsections (A) and (B) of Art. 3.70-3; § 4 amended Art. 3.42; § 5 amended Art. 3.70-9; and § 6 thereof provided:

Art. 3.70-3. Accident and Sickness Policy Provisions

(A) Required Provisions. Except as provided in paragraph (C) of this section each such policy delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this state shall contain the provisions specified in this subsection in the words in which the same appear in this section; provided, however, that the insurer may, at its option, substitute for one or more of such provisions, provisions of different wording approved by the Board, in accordance with reasonable rules and regulations promulgated by the Board, which are in each instance not less favorable in any respect to the insured or the beneficiary; and provided further that Provisions 6, 8, and 9 shall not be required provisions under this Subsection A for companies organized under Chapter 20 of this code, as amended. Such provisions shall be preceded individually by the caption appearing in this subsection or, at the option of the insurer, by such appropriate individual or group captions or subcaptions as the Board may approve.

(1) A provision as follows:

Entire Contract; Changes: This policy, including the endorsements and the attached pa-persons, if any, constitutes the entire contract of insurance. No change in this policy shall be valid until approved by an executive officer of the insurer and unless such approval be endorsed hereon or attached hereto. No agent has authority to change this policy or to waive any of its provisions.

(2) A provision as follows:

Time Limit on Certain Defenses: (a) After two years from the date of issue of this policy no misstatements, except fraudulent misstatements, made by the applicant in the application for such policy shall be used to void the policy or to deny a claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after the expiration of such two-year period.

(The foregoing policy provision shall not be so construed as to affect any legal requirement for avoidance of a policy or denial of a claim during such initial two-year period, nor to limit the application of Section 3(B), (1), (2), (3), (4), and (5) in the event of misstatement with respect to age or occupation or other insurance.)

(A policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premium (1) until at least age 50 or, (2) in the case of a policy issued after age 44, for at least five years from its date of issue, may contain in lieu of the foregoing the following provision (from which the clause in parentheses may be omitted at the insurer's option) under the caption "incontestible":

After this policy has been in force for a period of two years during the lifetime of the insured (excluding any period during which the insured is disabled), it shall become incontestible as to the statements contained in the application.)

(b) No claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after two years from the date of issue of this policy shall be reduced or denied on the ground that a disease or physical condition not excluded from coverage by name or specific description effective on the date of loss had existed prior to the effective date of coverage of this policy.

(3) A provision as follows:

Grace Period: A grace period of ....... (insert a number not less than "7" for weekly premium policies, "10" for monthly premium policies, and "31" for all other policies) days will be granted for the payment of each premium falling due after the first premium, during which grace period the policy shall continue in force.

(A policy which contains a cancellation provision may add, at the end of the above provision, subject to the right of the insurer to cancel in accordance with the cancellation provision hereof.

A policy in which the insurer reserves the right to refuse any renewal shall have, at the beginning of the above provision:

Unless not less than five days prior to the premium due date the insurer has delivered to the insured or has mailed to his last address as shown by the records of the insurer written notice of its intention not to renew this policy beyond the period for which the premium has been accepted.)

(4) A provision as follows:

Reinstatement: If any renewal premium be not paid within the time granted the insured for payment, a subsequent acceptance of premium by the insurer or by any agent duly authorized by the insurer to accept such premium, without requiring in connection therewith an application for reinstatement, shall reinstate the policy; provided, however, that if the insurer or such agent requires an application for reinstatement and issues a conditional receipt for the premium tendered, the policy will be reinstated upon approval of such application by the insurer or, lacking such approval, upon the forty-fifth day following the date of such conditional receipt unless the insurer has previously notified the insured in writing of its disapproval of such application. The reinstated policy shall cover only loss resulting from such accidental injury as may be sustained after the date of reinstatement and loss due to such sickness as may begin more than ten days after such date. In all other respects the insured and insurer shall have the same rights thereunder as they had under the policy immediately before the due date of the defaulted premium, subject to any provisions endorsed hereon or attached hereto in connection with the reinstatement. Any premium accepted in connection with a reinstatement shall be applied to a period for which premium has not been previously paid, but not to any period more than sixty days prior to the date of reinstatement.

(The last sentence of the above provision may be omitted from any policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premium (1) until at least age 50 or, (2) in the case of a policy issued after age 44, for at least five years from its date of issue.)

(5) A provision as follows:

Notice of Claim: Written notice of claim must be given to the insurer within twenty days after the occurrence or commencement of any loss covered by the policy, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably possible. Notice given by or on
Art. 3.70-3

(In a policy providing a loss-of-time benefit which may be payable for at least two years, an insurer may at its option insert the following between the first and second sentences of the above provision:

Subject to the qualifications set forth below, if the insured suffers loss of time on account of disability for which indemnity may be payable for at least two years, he shall, at least once in every ...... Claim Forms: The insurer, upon receipt of a notice of claim, will furnish to the claimant such forms as are usually furnished by it for filing proofs of loss. If such forms are not furnished within fifteen days after the giving of such notice, the claimant shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this policy as to proof of loss upon submitting, within the time fixed in the policy for filing proofs of loss, written proof covering the occurrence, the character and the extent of the loss for which claim is made.

(7) A provision as follows:

Proofs of Loss: Written proof of loss must be furnished to the insurer at its said office in case of claim for loss for which this policy provides any periodic payment contingent upon continuing loss within ninety days after the termination of the period for which the insurer is liable and in case of claim for any other loss within ninety days after the date of such loss. Failure to furnish such proof within the time required shall not invalidate nor reduce any claim if it was not reasonably possible to give proof within such time, provided such proof is furnished as soon as reasonably possible; and in no event, except in the absence of legal capacity, later than one year from the time proof is otherwise required.

(8) A provision as follows:

Time of Payment of Claims: Indemnities payable under this policy for any loss other than loss for which this policy provides any periodic payment will be paid immediately upon receipt of due written proof of such loss. Subject to due written proof of loss, all accrued indemnities for loss for which this policy provides periodic payment will be paid ...... (insert period for payment which must not be less frequently than monthly) and any balance remaining unpaid upon the termination of liability will be paid immediately upon receipt of due written proof.

(9) A provision as follows:

Payment of Claims: Indemnity for loss of life will be payable in accordance with the beneficiary designation and the provisions respecting such payment which may be prescribed herein and effective at the time of payment. If no such designation or provision is then effective, such indemnity shall be payable to the estate of the insured. Any other accrued indemnities unpaid at the insured's death may, at the option of the insurer, be paid either to such beneficiary or to such estate. All other indemnities will be payable to the insured.

(The following provisions, or either of them, may be included with the foregoing provision at the option of the insurer:

If any indemnity of this policy shall be payable to the estate of the insured, or to an insured or beneficiary who is a minor or otherwise not competent to give a valid release, the insurer may pay such indemnity, up to an amount not exceeding $... (insert an amount which shall not exceed $1,000), to any relative by blood or connection by marriage of the insured or beneficiary who is deemed by the insurer to be equitably entitled thereto. Any payment made by the insurer in good faith pursuant to this provision shall fully discharge the insurer to the extent of such payment.

Subject to any written direction of the insured in the application or otherwise all or a portion of any indemnities provided by this policy on account of hospital, nursing, medical or surgical services may, at the insurer's option and unless the insured requests otherwise in writing not later than the time of filing proofs of such loss, be paid directly to the hospital or person rendering such services; but it is not required that the service be rendered by a particular hospital or person.)

(10) A provision as follows:

Physical Examinations and Autopsy: The insurer at its own expense shall have the right and opportunity to examine the person of the insured when and as often as it may reasonably require during the pendency of a claim hereunder and to make an autopsy in case of death where it is not forbidden by law.

(11) A provision as follows:

Legal Actions: No action at law or in equity shall be brought to recover on this policy prior to the expiration of sixty days after written proof of loss has been furnished in accordance with the requirements of this policy. No such action shall be brought after the expiration of three years after the time written proof of loss is required to be furnished.

(12) A provision as follows:

Change of Beneficiary: Unless the insured makes an irrevocable designation of beneficiary, the right to change of beneficiary is reserved to the insured and the consent of the beneficiary or beneficiaries shall not be requisite to surrender or assignment of this policy or to any change of beneficiary or beneficiaries, or to any other changes in this policy.

(The first clause of this provision, relating to the irrevocable designation of beneficiary, may be omitted at the insurer's option.)

(B) Other Provisions. Except as provided in paragraph (C) of this section, no such policy delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this state shall contain provisions respecting the matters set forth below unless such provisions are in the words in which the same appear in this section; provided, however, that the insurer may, at its option, use in lieu of any such provision a provision of different wording approved by the Board, in accordance with reasonable rules and regulations promulgated by the Board, which is not less favorable in any respect to the insured or the beneficiary. Any such provision contained in the policy shall be preceded individually by the appropriate caption appearing in this subsection or, at the option of the insurer, by such appropriate individual or group captions or subcaptions as the Board may approve.

(1) A provision as follows:

Change of Occupation: If the insured be injured or contract sickness after having changed his occupation to one classified by the insurer as more hazardous than that stated in this policy, the insurer will pay only such portion of the indemnities provided in this policy as the premium paid would have purchased at the rates and within the limits fixed by the insurer for such more hazardous occupation. If the insured changes his occupation to one classified by the insurer as less hazardous than that stated in this policy, the insurer, upon receipt of proof of such change of occupation, will reduce the premium rate accordingly, and will return the excess pro-rata unearned premium from the date of change of occupation or from the policy anniversary date immediately preceding receipt of such proof, whichever is the more recent. In applying this provision, the classification of occupational risk and the premium rates shall be such as have been last filed by the insurer prior to the occurrence of the loss for which the insurer is liable or prior to date of proof of change in occupation with the state official having supervision of insurance in the state where the insured resided at the time this policy was issued; but if such filing was not required, then the classification of occupational risk and the premium rates shall be those last made effective by the insurer in such state prior to the occurrence of the loss or prior to the date of proof of change in occupation.

(2) A provision as follows:

Misstatement of Age: If the age of the insured has been misstated, all amounts payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

(3) A provision as follows:

Other Insurance in This Insurer: If an accident or sickness policy or policies previously issued by the insurer to the insured be in force concurrently herewith, making the aggregate indemnity for . . . . . . . (insert type of coverage or coverages) in excess of $ . . . . . . . (insert maximum limit of indemnity or indemnities) the excess insurance shall be void and all premiums paid for such excess shall be returned to the insured or to his estate; or, in lieu thereof:

Insurance effective at any one time on the insured under a like policy or policies in this insurer is limited to the one such policy elected by the insured, his beneficiary or his estate, as the case may be, and the insurer will return all premiums paid for all other such policies.

(4) A provision as follows:

Relation of Earnings to Insurance: If the total monthly amount of loss of time benefits promised for the same loss under all valid loss of time coverage upon the in-
Art. 3.70-3

INSURANCE CODE

sured, whether payable on a weekly or monthly basis, shall exceed the monthly earnings of the insured at the time disability commenced or his average monthly earnings for the period of two years immediately preceding a disability for which claim is made, whichever is the greater, the insurer will be liable only for such proportionate amount of such benefits under this policy as the amount of such monthly earnings or such average monthly earnings of the insured bears to the total amount of monthly benefits for the same loss under all such coverage upon the insured at the time such disability commences and for the return of such part of the premiums paid during such two years as shall exceed the pro-rata amount of the premiums for the benefits actually paid hereunder; but this shall not operate to reduce the total monthly amount of benefits payable under all such coverage upon the insured below the sum of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) or the sum of the monthly benefits specified in such coverage, whichever is the lesser, nor shall it operate to reduce benefits other than those payable for loss of time.

(The foregoing policy provision may be inserted only in a policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premium (1) until at least age 50 or, (2) in the case of a policy issued after age 44, for at least five years from its date of issue. The insurer may, at its option, include in this provision a definition of “valid loss of time coverage,” approved as to form by the Board, which definition shall be limited in subject matter to coverage provided by governmental agencies or by organizations subject to regulation by insurance law or by insurance authorities of this or any other state of the United States or any province of Canada, or to any other coverage the inclusion of which may be approved by the Board or any combination of such coverages. In the absence of such definition such term shall not include any coverage provided for such insured pursuant to any compulsory benefit statute (including any workmen’s compensation or employer’s liability statute), or benefits provided by union welfare plans or by employer or employee ben-fit organizations.)

(5) A provision as follows:

Unpaid Premium: Upon the payment of a claim under this policy, any premium then due and unpaid or covered by any note or written order may be deducted therefrom.

(6) A provision as follows:

Cancellation: The insurer may cancel this policy at any time by written notice delivered to the insured, or mailed to his last address as shown by the records of the insurer, stating when, not less than five days thereafter, such cancellation shall be effective; and after the policy has been continued beyond its original term the insured may cancel this policy at any time by written notice delivered or mailed to the insurer, effective upon receipt or on such later date as may be specified in such notice. In the event of cancellation, the insurer will return promptly the unearned portion of any premium paid. If the insured cancels, the earned premium shall be computed by the use of the short-rate table last filed with the state official having supervision of insurance in the state where the insured resided when the policy was issued. If the insurer cancels, the earned premium shall be computed pro-rata. Cancellation shall be without prejudice to any claim originating prior to the effective date cancellation.

(7) A provision as follows:

Conformity With State Statutes: Any provision of this policy which, on its effective date, is in conflict with the statutes of the state in which the insured resides on such date is hereby amended to conform to the minimum requirements of such statutes.

(8) A provision as follows:

Illegal Occupation: The insurer shall not be liable for any loss to which a contributing cause was the insured’s commission of or attempt to commit a felony or to which a contributing cause was the insured’s being engaged in an illegal occupation.

(9) A provision as follows:

Intoxicants and Narcotics: The insurer shall not be liable for any loss sustained or contracted in consequence of the insured’s being intoxicated or under the influence of any narcotic unless administered on the advise of a physician.

Art. 3.72. Variable Annuity Contracts

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 1
to 7]

Investment of Separate Account Funds

Sec. 8. Any domestic insurance company which has established one or more separate variable annuity accounts pursuant to this article may invest and reinvest all or any part of the assets allocated to any such account in and only in the securities and investments authorized by Article 3.39 of this Insurance Code for any of the funds of a domestic life insurance company, free and clear of any and all limitations and restrictions in such Article 3.39, and in addition thereto in common capital stocks or other equities which are listed on or admitted to trading in a securities exchange located in the United States of America, or which are publicly held and traded in the “over-the-counter market” as defined by the State Board of Insurance and as to which market quotations have been available. None of the assets allocated to any such variable annuity account shall be invested in common stocks of corporations which shall have defaulted in the payment of any debt within five years next preceding such investment.
No such company shall invest in excess of the greater of (a) Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) or (b) five percent (5%) of the assets of any such variable separate annuity account in any one corporation issuing such common capital stock, except that subject to the approval of the State Board of Insurance all of the assets of a separate account may be invested in the shares of one or more open-end management companies registered under the Federal Investment Company Act of 1940 and qualifying as a diversified company thereunder. The assets and investments of such separate variable annuity accounts shall not be taken into account in applying the quantitative investment limitations applicable to other investments of the company. In the purchase of common capital stock or other equities, the insurer shall designate to the broker, or to the seller if the purchase is not made through broker, the specific variable annuity account for which the investment is made.

Art. 5.03  INSURANCE CODE

(3) the actual paid and incurred loss experience of the insurer;
(4) earnings of the insurer from investments together with a projection of prospective earnings from investments during the period for which the application is made; and
(5) such application meets the reasonable conditions, limitations, and restrictions deemed necessary by the Board.

In considering all matters set forth in such application the Board shall give consideration to the composite effect of items (2), (3), and (4) above and the Board shall deny such application if it finds that the resulting premiums would be inadequate, excessive, or unfairly discriminatory. Any original or renewal policy of insurance issued pursuant to an approved plan of deviation shall have attached to or imprinted on the face of such policy the following notice: “The premium charged for this policy is greater than the premium rates promulgated by the State Board of Insurance.” The notice shall be in 10-point or larger prominent type-size.

Except as the Board may authorize, the deviation provisions in this Article shall not apply to insurance written pursuant to other provisions of this Chapter in which a deviation from standard rates is authorized, including, but not limited to, automobile liability experience rating and fleet rating plans. See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (b) to (f).

Art. 5.06-1. Uninsured or Underinsured Motorist Coverage

(1) No automobile liability insurance (including insurance issued pursuant to an Assigned Risk Plan established under authority of Section 35 of the Texas Motor Vehicle Safety-Responsibility Act), covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of any motor vehicle shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless coverage is provided therein or supplemental thereto, at least the limits described in the Texas Motor Vehicle Safety-Responsibility Act, under provisions prescribed by the Board, for the protection of persons insured thereunder who are legally entitled to recover damages from owners or operators of uninsured or underinsured motor vehicles because of bodily injury, sickness, or disease, including death, or property damage resulting therefrom. The coverage required under this Article shall not be applicable where any insured named in the policy shall reject the coverage; provided that unless the named insured thereafter requests such coverage in writing, such coverage need not be provided in or supplemental to a renewal policy where the named insured has rejected the coverage in connection with a policy previously issued to him by the same insurer.

(2) For the purpose of these coverages: (a) the term “uninsured motor vehicle” shall, subject to the terms and conditions of such coverage, be deemed to include an insured motor vehicle where the liability insurer thereof is unable to make payment with respect to the legal liability of its insured within the limits specified therein because of insolvency.

(b) The term “underinsured motor vehicle” means an insured motor vehicle on which there is valid and collectible liability insurance coverage with limits of liability for the owner or operator which were originally lower than, or have been reduced by payment of claims arising from the same accident to, an amount less than the limit of liability stated in the underinsured coverage of the insured’s policy.

(c) The State Board of Insurance is hereby authorized to promulgate the forms of the uninsured and underinsured motorist coverages. The Board may also, in such forms, define “uninsured motor vehicle” to exclude certain motor vehicles whose operators are in fact uninsured.

(d) The forms promulgated under the authority of this section shall include provisions that, regardless of the number of persons insured, policies or bonds applicable, vehicles involved, or claims made, the total aggregate limit of liability to any one person who sustains bodily injury or property damage as the result of any one occurrence shall not exceed the limit of liability for these coverages as stated in the policy and the total aggregate limit of liability to all claimants, if more than one, shall not exceed the total limit of liability per occurrence as stated in the policy; and shall provide for the exclusion of the recovery of damages for bodily injury or property damage or both resulting from the intentional acts of the insured. The forms promulgated under the authority of this section shall require that in order for the insured to recover under the uninsured motorist coverages where the owner or operator of any motor vehicle which causes bodily injury or property damage to the insured is unknown, actual physical contact must have occurred between the motor vehicle owned or operated by such unknown person and the person or property of the insured.

(3) The limits of liability for bodily injury, sickness, or disease, including death, shall be offered to the insured in amounts not less than those prescribed in the Texas Motor Vehicle Safety-Responsibility Act and such higher available limits as may be desired by the insured, but not greater than the limits of liability specified in the bodily injury liability provisions of the insured’s policy.

(4) (a) Coverage for property damage shall be offered to the insured in amounts not less than those prescribed in the Texas Motor Vehicle Safety-Responsibility Act and such higher available limits as may be desired by the insured, but not greater than the limits of liability specified in the property damage liability provisions of the insured's policy, subject to a deductible amount of $250.

(b) If the insured has collision coverage and uninsured or underinsured property damage liability coverage, the insured may recover only under the coverage which is subject to the lower deductible amount.

(5) The underinsured motorist coverage shall provide for payment to the insured of all sums which he shall be legally entitled to recover as damages from owners or operators of underinsured motor vehicles because of bodily injury or property damage in an amount up to the limit specified in the policy, reduced by the amount recovered or recoverable from the insurer of the underinsured motor vehicle.

(6) In the event of payment to any person under any coverage required by this Section and subject to the terms and conditions of such coverage, the insurer making such payment shall, to the extent thereof, be entitled to the proceeds of any settlement or judgment resulting from the exercise of any rights of recovery of such person against any person or organization legally responsible for the bodily injury, sickness or disease, or death for which such payment is made, including the proceeds recoverable from the assets of the insolvent insurer; provided, however, whenever an insurer shall make payment under a policy of insurance issued pursuant to this Act, which payment is occasioned by the insolvency of an insurer, the insured of said insolvent insurer shall be given credit in any judgment obtained against him, with respect to his legal liability for such damages, to the extent of such payment, but such paying insurer shall have the right to proceed directly against the insolvent insurer or its receiver, and in pursuance of such right such paying insurer shall possess any rights which the insured of the insolvent company might otherwise have had if the insured of the insolvent insurer had made the payment.

(7) If a dispute exists as to whether a motor vehicle is uninsured, the burden of proof as to that issue shall be upon the insurer.

SUBCHAPTER B. CASUALTY INSURANCE AND FIDELITY, GUARANTY AND SURETY BONDS

Art. 5.13-1. Legal Service Contracts

(a) Every insurer governed by Subchapter B of Chapter 5 of the Insurance Code, as amended, and every life, health, and accident insurer governed by Chapter 3 of the Insurance Code, as amended, is authorized to issue prepaid legal services contracts. Every such insurer or rating organization authorized under Article 5.16 of the Insurance Code shall file with the State Board of Insurance all rules and forms applicable to prepaid legal service contracts in a manner to be established by the State Board of Insurance. All rates, rating plans, and charges shall be established in accordance with actuarial principles for various categories of insureds. Rates, rating plans, and charges shall not be excessive, inadequate, unfairly discriminatory, and the benefits shall be reasonable with respect to the rates charged. Certification, by a qualified actuary, to the appropriateness of the charges, rates, or rating plans, based upon reasonable assumptions, shall accompany the filing along with adequate supporting information.

(b) The State Board of Insurance shall, within a reasonable period, approve any form if the requirements of this section are met. It shall be unlawful to issue such forms until approved or to use such schedules of charges, rates, or rating plans until filed and approved. If the State Board of Insurance has good cause to believe such rates and rating plans do not comply with the standards of this article, it shall give notice in writing to every insurer or rating organization which filed such rates or rating plans, stating therein in what manner and to what extent such noncompliance is alleged to exist and specifying therein a reasonable time, not less than 30 days thereafter, in which such noncompliance may be corrected. If the board has not acted on any form, rate, rating plan, or charges within 30 days after the filing of same, they shall be deemed approved. The board may require the submission of whatever relevant information is deemed necessary in determining whether to approve or disapprove a filing made pursuant to this section.

(c) The right of such insurers to issue prepaid legal services contracts on individual, group, or franchise bases is hereby recognized, and qualified agents of such insurers who are licensed under Articles 21.07 and 21.14 of the Insurance Code, as amended, and Chapter 213, Acts of the 54th Legislature, 1955, as amended (Article 21.07–1, Vernon’s Texas Insurance Code), shall be authorized to write such coverages under such rules and regulations as the State Board of Insurance may prescribe.

(d) The State Board of Insurance is hereby vested with power and authority under this article to promulgate, after notice of hearing, and to enforce, rules and regulations concerning the application to the designated insurers of this article and for such clarification, amplification, and augmentation as in the discretion of the State Board of Insurance are deemed necessary to accomplish the purposes of this article.

(e) This article shall be construed as a specific exception to Article 3.54 of the Texas Insurance Code.

(f) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as compelling the State Board of Insurance to establish standard or absolute rates and the board is specifically authorized, in its discretion, to approve different rates for different insurers for the same risk or risks on the types of insurance covered by this article; nor shall this article be construed as to require the State Board of Insurance to establish a single or uniform rate for each risk or risks or to compel all insurers to adhere to such rates previously filed by other insurers; and the board is empowered to approve such different rates for different insurers, and is required to approve such rates as filed by any insurer unless it finds that such filing does not meet the requirements of this article.
Art. 5.13-1 INSURANCE CODE

1 Article 5.13 et seq.
2 Article 3.01 et seq.

Limitations. Section 3 of the 1975 Act provided:

"An insurer operating under the requirements of Section 2 shall not contract itself to practice law in any manner, nor shall it control or attempt to control the relations existing between an insured and his or her attorney. These attorneys shall never be employees of the insurer but shall at all times be independent contractors maintaining a direct lawyer-client relationship with the insured. Such insurer must agree to pay any attorney licensed by the Supreme Court to practice law in Texas for such services rendered."

Art. 5.15. Filing of Rates and Rating Information; Approval

(d) It is expressly provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provision of this subchapter to the contrary, a rate or premium for such insurance greater than the standard rate or premium that has been approved by the Board may be used on any specific risk if:

(1) a written application is made to the Board naming the insurer and stating the coverage and rate proposed;
(2) the person to be insured or person authorized to act in relation to the risk to be insured consents to such rate;
(3) the reasons for requiring such greater rate or premium are stated in or attached to the application;
(4) the person to be insured or person authorized to act for such person signs the application; and
(5) the Board approves the application by order or by stamping.

(e) Any filing for which there is no approved rate shall be deemed approved from the date of filing to the date of such formal approval or disapproval.

(f) If at any time the Board finds that a filing so approved no longer meets the requirements of this subchapter, it may, after a hearing held on not less than twenty (20) days' notice specifying the matters to be considered at such hearing, to every insurer and rating organization which made such filing, issue an order withdrawing its approval thereof. Said order shall specify in what respects the Board finds that such filing no longer meets the requirements of this subchapter and shall be effective not less than thirty (30) days after its issuance. Copies of such order shall be sent to every such insurer and rating organization.

(g) Any person or organization aggrieved by the action of the Board with respect to any filing may, within thirty (30) days after such action, make written request to the Board for a hearing thereon. The Board shall hear such aggrieved party within thirty (30) days after receipt of such request and shall give not less than ten days' written notice of the time and place of the hearing to the insurer or rating organization which made the filing and to any other aggrieved party. Within thirty (30) days after such hearings the Board shall affirm, reverse or modify its previous action. Pending such hearing and decision thereon the Board may suspend or postpone the effective date of its previous action.

Art. 5.15-1. Professional Liability Insurance for Physicians and Health Care Providers

Scope of Article

Sec. 1. This article shall apply to the making and use of insurance rates by every insurer licensed to write or engaged in writing professional liability insurance for any physician or any health care provider including rating organizations, acting on behalf of insurers.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this article:

(1) "Physician" means a person licensed to practice medicine in this state.

(2) "Health care provider" means any person, partnership, professional association, corporation, facility, or institution licensed or chartered by the State of Texas to provide health care as a registered nurse, hospital, dentist, podiatrist, chiropractor, optometrist, blood bank that is a nonprofit corporation chartered to operate a blood bank and which is accredited by the American Association of Blood Banks, or not-for-profit nursing home, or an officer, employee, or agent of any of them acting in the course and scope of his employment.

(3) "Hospital" means a licensed public or private institution as defined in Chapter 223, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959, as amended (Article 4437f, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), or in Section 88, Chapter 243, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957 (Article 5547–88, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Rate Standards

Sec. 3. Rates shall be made in accordance with the following provisions:
(a) Consideration shall be given to past and prospective loss and expense experience inside this state, unless the State Board of Insurance shall find that the group or risk to be insured is not of sufficient size to be deemed credible, in which event, past and prospective loss and expense experience outside this state shall also be considered, to a reasonable margin for underwriting profit and contingencies, to investment income, to dividends or savings allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders or members.

(b) For the establishment of rates, risks may be grouped by classifications, by rating schedules, or by any other reasonable methods. Classification rates may be modified to produce rates for individual risks in accordance with rating plans which establish standards for measuring variations in hazards or expense provisions, or both. Those standards may measure any difference among risks that can be demonstrated to have a probable effect upon losses or expenses.

(c) Rates shall be reasonable and shall not be excessive or inadequate, as defined in this subsection, nor shall they be unfairly discriminatory. No rate shall be held to be excessive unless the rate is unreasonably high for the insurance coverage provided and a reasonable degree of competition does not exist in the area with respect to the classification to which the rate is applicable. No rate shall be held to be inadequate unless the rate is unreasonably low for the insurance coverage provided and is insufficient to sustain projected losses and expenses; or unless the rate is unreasonably low for the insurance coverage provided and the use of the rate has or, if continued, will have the effect of destroying competition or creating a monopoly.

Filing Rates

Sec. 4. (a) The provisions of Article 5.15, Insurance Code, shall apply to the filing of rates and rating information required under this article.

(b) Nothing contained in this article or other provisions of this subchapter concerning the regulation of rates, rating plans, and rating classifications shall, as applies to the writing of professional liability insurance for health care providers and physicians, give the board the power to prescribe uniform or absolute rates; nor shall anything therein be construed as preventing the filing of different rates for risks in a given classification or modified rates for individual risks made in accordance with rating plans, as filed by different insurers or organizations authorized to file such rates. As used in this subsection, “absolute rates” means rates, rating classifications, or rating plans filed by an insurer or authorized rating organization in accordance with this subchapter and the rates, rating classifications, or rating plans so filed are required to be used, to the exclusion of all others, by each insurer lawfully engaged in writing policies.

(c) The State Board of Insurance shall prescribe standardized policy forms for occurrence, claims-made and claims-paid policies of professional liability insurance covering health care providers and physicians, and no insurer may use any other forms in writing professional liability insurance for health care providers and physicians without the prior approval of the State Board of Insurance. However, an insurer writing professional liability insurance for health care providers and physicians may use any form of endorsement if the endorsement is first submitted to and approved by the board.

Reporting of Claims and Claims Information

Sec. 5. Each insurer who issues policies of professional liability insurance covering physicians and health care providers shall file annually with the State Board of Insurance a report of all claims and amount of claims, amounts of claims reserves, investment income of the company derived from medical professional liability premiums, information relating to amounts of judgments and settlements paid on claims, and other information required by the board. The board may formulate and promulgate a form on which this information shall be reported. The form shall be so devised as to require the information to be reported in an accurate manner, reasonably calculated to facilitate interpretation and to protect the confidentiality of the health care provider or physician.

Annual Premiums

Sec. 6. Policies of professional liability insurance under this article shall be written on not less than an annual premium basis.

Notice of Cancellation or Nonrenewal

Sec. 7. An insurer who issues a policy of professional liability insurance covered by this article shall give at least 90 days' written notice to an insured if premiums on the insurance are to be increased or the policy is to be cancelled or is not to be renewed elsewhere than for nonpayment of premiums or because the insured is no longer licensed. If the premiums are to be increased, the notice shall state the amount of the increase, and if the policy is to be cancelled or is not to be renewed, the insurer shall state in the notice the reason for cancellation or nonrenewal. Notice of cancellation under this section may only be given within the first 90 days from the effective date of the policy.

Punitive Damages under Medical Professional Liability Insurance

Sec. 8. No policy of medical professional liability insurance issued to or renewed for a health care provider or physician in this state may include coverage for punitive damages that may be assessed against the health care provider or physician.

Claim Surcharges

Sec. 9. A claim surcharge assessed by an insurer against a health care provider or physician under a professional liability insurance policy may be based only on claims actually paid by an insurer as a result of a settlement or an adverse judgment or an adverse decision of a court.

Art. 5.15-2. Accident Prevention Services

(a) Any insurer desiring to write professional liability insurance for hospitals in Texas shall maintain or provide accident prevention facilities as a prerequisite for a license to write such insurance. Premium rates for reinsurance as between title insurance companies qualified under this Chapter shall not be fixed or promulgated by the Board, and title insurance companies may set such premium rates for reinsurance as such title insurance companies shall agree upon. Under no circumstance shall any premium be charged for any policy of title insurance or other promulgated or approved forms different from those fixed and promulgated by the Board, except for premiums charged for reinsurance. The premium rates fixed by the Board shall be reasonable to the public and nonconfiscatory as to the title insurance companies and title insurance agents. For the purpose of collecting data on which to determine the proper rates to be fixed, the Board shall require all title insurance companies and all title insurance agents operating in Texas to submit such information in such form as it may deem proper, all information as to loss experience, expense of operation, and other material matter for the Board's consideration.

The Board shall hold an annual hearing during November of each calendar year, commencing in 1975, to consider adoption of premium rates and such other matters and subjects relative to the regulation of the business of title insurance as may be requested by any title insurance company, any title insurance agent, any member of the public, or as the Board may determine necessary to consider. Proper notice of such public hearing and the items to be considered shall be made to the public and shall be sent direct to all title insurance companies and title insurance agents qualified or authorized to do business under this Chapter for at least four (4) weeks in advance of such hearing.

Premium rates when once fixed shall not be changed until after a public hearing shall be had by the Board, after proper notice sent direct to all title insurance companies and title insurance agents qualified or authorized to do business under this Chapter, and after public notice in such manner as to give fair publicity thereto for at least four (4) weeks in advance. The Board must call such additional hearing to consider premium rate changes at the request of a title insurance company.

The Board may, on its own motion, following notice as required for the annual hearing hold at any time a public hearing to consider adoption of premium rates and such other matters and subjects relative to the regulation of the business of title insurance as the Board shall determine necessary or proper.

Any title insurance company, any title insurance agent, or other person interested, feeling injured by any action of the Board with regard to premium rates or other action taken by the Board, shall have the right to file a suit in the District Court of Travis County, within thirty (30) days after the Board has made such order, to review the action. Such cases shall be tried de novo in the District Court in accordance with the provisions of Article 21.44 of the Insurance Code and shall be governed by the same rules of evidence and procedure as other civil cases in said court; in which suit the court may enter a judgment setting aside the Board's order, or affirming, the action of the Board.

Art. 9.09. Prohibiting Transacting of Other Kinds of Insurance by Title Insurance Companies or the Transacting of Title Insurance by Other Types of Insurance Companies

Corporations, domestic or foreign, operating under this Chapter shall not transact, underwrite or issue any kind of insurance other than title insurance on real property; nor shall title insurance be transacted, underwritten or issued by any company transacting any other kind of insurance; provided, however, that the above prohibitions shall not apply as to any corporation, domestic or foreign, which on October 1, 1967 was transacting, underwriting and issuing within the State of Texas title insurance and any other kind of insurance. Any corporation now organized and doing business under the provisions of Chapter 8 and actively writing title insurance shall be subject to all the provisions of this Chapter except Article 9.13 relating to investments.

Art. 9.11. Revocation of Right to do Business

Any foreign or domestic corporations issuing any form of title insurance policy or other promulgated or approved forms, or charging any premium rates on an owner, mortgagee, or other title insurance policy, or on other promulgated or approved forms, except for the premium rates charged for reinsurance, on Texas real property other than forms and premium rates prescribed by the Board, under the provisions of this Chapter shall forfeit its right to do business in this state. The provisions of this Article 9.11 shall not, however, be applicable to premium rates charged in connection with reinsurance transactions between or among title insurance companies doing business under the provisions of this Chapter, provided any such reinsurance contract complies with the provisions of Article 9.19 of this Chapter. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1063, ch. 409, § 6, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 9.13. Fees
The general laws applicable to payment of filing fees of corporations having capital stock are hereby made applicable to corporations coming under the provisions of this Chapter. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1063, ch. 409, § 7, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

The original charter of corporations doing the business of title insurance and incorporated under the provisions of this Chapter, or under Subdivision 57, Article 1302, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, or under Article 1302a, Texas Civil Statutes (Acts 1929, 41st Legislature, page 888, Chapter 245, Section 1) or under any other law regardless of the nature of such amendment, shall be certified only to and filed only with the Board, and only the Board shall collect from the said companies filing fees required under the law. All other laws or parts of laws, to the extent that the same are in conflict with the provisions of this Article, shall not hereafter apply to such corporations. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1063, ch. 409, § 8, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 9.15. Certificate of Authority
The Board after having satisfied itself by such investigation as it may deem proper with reference to the payment of capital stock and surplus as required by this Chapter 9, and the value of the assets offered in payment thereof (the expense of which examination shall be borne by the title insurance company), shall issue to such title insurance company a certificate of authority to transact the character of business provided for in this Chapter on either an annual or continuing basis. No title insurance company, domestic or foreign, shall transact business under this Chapter unless it shall hold a valid certificate of authority. [Amended by Acts 1976, 64th Leg., p. 1063, ch. 409, § 9, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 9.19. Maximum Liability
A. No title insurance company operating under the provisions of this Chapter shall issue any policy of title insurance on any real property located within the State of Texas involving a potential liability by virtue of such policy of more than fifty (50%) percent of the capital stock and surplus as stated in the most recent annual statement of the company unless the excess shall in due course be reinsured in some other title insurance company authorized to do business in Texas under this Chapter. Each title insurance company authorized to do business under the provisions of this Chapter may reinsurance any or all of its policies and contracts issued on real property situated within the State of Texas, provided:

(i) the reinsuring title insurance company shall be licensed to do business in the State of Texas under the provisions of this Chapter; and
(ii) the form of the reinsurance contract shall be approved in advance by the Board.

B. If the Board has first approved one or more forms of reinsurance contracts for a title insurance company, such title insurance company may thereafter continue using such form or forms without submitting individual reinsurance contracts to the Board. Authority is reserved to the Board, however, to alter the required form so previously approved by it after first giving written notice to the title insurance company or title insurance companies affected by such required change.

C. No title insurance company authorized to do business in Texas under the provisions of this Chapter may accept reinsurance risks on real property situated within the State of Texas except from other title insurance companies holding a certificate of authority to do business in the State of Texas under the provisions of this Chapter.

D. The Board may, however, upon application and hearing permit any title insurance company licensed to do business in this State under this Chapter to acquire reinsurance upon an individual policy or facultative basis from title insurance companies not licensed to do business in this State, provided:

(i) any such non-admitted foreign title insurance company has a combined capital and surplus of at least $1,400,000 evidenced by its annual statement last preceding the acceptance of such reinsurance; and
(ii) any such title insurance company so authorized to do business under this Chapter has exhausted the opportunity to acquire such reinsurance from all other title insurance companies so authorized to do business under the provisions of this Chapter. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1063, ch. 409, § 10, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 9.25. Capital and Surplus Required; Foreign Corporations
No foreign corporation shall conduct the business of title insurance in this state unless it shall show from its financial statement and such other examination as the Board may desire to make, an unimpaired capital of not less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) and surplus of not less than Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($400,000.00), provided, however, that the minimum unimpaired capital and surplus requirements for a foreign corporation operating under a certificate of authority on the effective date of this Chapter, which corporation on such date had an unimpaired capital of less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) and surplus of less than Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($400,000.00) shall be as follows:

(a) Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) capital and One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) surplus until July 1, 1976;

(b) From July 1, 1976, to July 1, 1977, Five Hundred Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($525,000.00) capital and One Hundred Sixty Thousand Dollars ($160,000.00) surplus;

(c) From July 1, 1977, to July 1, 1978, Six Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($650,000.00) capital and Two Hundred Twenty Thousand Dollars ($220,000.00) surplus;

(d) From July 1, 1978, to July 1, 1979, Seven Hundred Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars ($775,000.00) capital and Two Hundred Eighty Thousand Dollars ($280,000.00) surplus;

(e) From July 1, 1979, to July 1, 1980, Nine Hundred Thousand Dollars ($900,000.00) capital and Three Hundred Forty Thousand Dollars ($340,000.00) surplus; and

(f) After July 1, 1980, every such corporation shall be required to have and maintain unimpaired capital of not less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) and surplus of not less than Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($400,000.00) as otherwise required by this Chapter.

Art. 9.30. Rebates and Discounts

A. No commission, rebate, discount, or other thing of value shall be paid, allowed or permitted by any title insurance company, domestic or foreign, or by any title insurance agent doing the business of title insurance provided for in this Chapter, relating to title policies or underwriting contracts and no portion of any premium shall be paid to any person for soliciting or referring title insurance business; provided this Article 9.30 shall not prevent any title insurance company, domestic or foreign, doing business under this Chapter, from appointing as its title insurance agent in any county any person, firm, or corporation owning and operating an abstract plant of such county as its title insurance agent and making such arrangements for division of premiums as may be approved by the Board.

B. No person shall give and no person shall accept any portion, split, or percentage of any charge made or received for the rendering of a real estate settlement or closing in connection with a transaction involving the conveyance or mortgaging of real estate located in the State of Texas other than for services actually performed.

C. Nothing in this Article 9.30 shall, however, be construed as prohibiting (a) the payment of a fee to attorneys at law for services actually rendered or (b) the payment to any person of a bona fide salary, compensation or other payment for goods or facilities actually furnished or for services actually performed.

Art. 9.40. Right of Title Insurance Company to Examine Agent's Trust Fund Accounts and to Require Reports

Any title insurance company may at such time or times as it sees fit, through its examiners or auditors or through independent certified public accountants commissioned by it, examine the trust fund accounts and records pertaining thereto of any of its title insurance agents, such examination to be made at the expense of the title insurance company; or the title insurance company may require special reports from any such agent regarding any of its transactions. Each title insurance company shall periodically, but at least every two years, audit the unused forms in the possession of each of its title insurance agents so as to determine that all used forms have been reported to the title insurance company. A report of each such audit shall be made to the State Board of Insurance.

Art. 9.48. Title Insurance Guaranty

Title

This article shall be known and may be cited as the "Texas Title Insurance Guaranty Act."

Purpose

This article is for the purposes and findings set forth in Section 1 of Article 21.28—A of the Insurance Code and in supplementation thereto by providing funds in addition to assets of impaired insurers for the protection of the holders of "covered claims" as defined herein through payment and through contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or of substitution or otherwise.

Scope

This article shall apply only to title insurance (direct and reinsurance) written by title insurance companies authorized to do business in this state and doing business under and regulated by the provisions of this Chapter 9.
Art. 9.48

Construction

Sec. 4. This article shall be liberally construed to effect the purpose under Section 2 which shall constitute an aid and guide to interpretation.

Definitions

Sec. 5. As used in this article

(1) A. "State Board of Insurance" is the State Board of Insurance of this State.
B. "Commissioner" is the Commissioner of Insurance of this State.

(2) "Covered claim" is an unpaid claim of an insured which arises out of and is within the coverage and not in excess of the applicable limits of a title insurance policy to which this article applies, issued or assumed (whereby an assumption certificate is issued) by an insurer licensed to do business in this state and covered by this article, if such insurer becomes an "impaired insurer" after the effective date of this article and the insured real property (or lien thereon) is located within this state. Individual "covered claims" shall be limited to $100,000 and shall not include any amount in excess of $100,000. "Covered claim" shall also include any sum up to $100,000 for which any insurer is liable in connection with the fidelity or solvency of any title insurance agent of such insurer as authorized by Article 9.49 of this chapter of this code. "Covered claim" shall not include any amount due any reinsurer, insurer, insurance pool, or underwriting association, as subrogation recoveries or otherwise. "Covered claim" shall not include supplementary payment obligations, incurred prior to the determination that an insurer is an "impaired insurer" under this article.

(3) "Insurer" is any title insurance company authorized to do business in this state, and doing business under and regulated by the provisions of this Chapter 9.

(4) "Impaired insurer" is (a) an insurer which, after the effective date of this article, is placed in temporary or permanent receivership under an order of a court of competent jurisdiction based on a finding of insolvency, and which has been designated an "impaired insurer" by the commissioner; or (b) after the effective date of this article, an insurer placed in conservatorship after it has been deemed by the commissioner to be insolvent and which has been designated an "impaired insurer" by the commissioner.

(5) "Payment of covered claims" is actual payment of claims and also is the utilization of funds of the impaired insurer and funds derived from assessments for consummation of contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or contracts of substitution to provide for liabilities arising from covered claims.

(6) "Net direct written premiums" is the gross amount of premiums paid by policyholders for issuance of policies of title insurance insuring risks located in this state and to which this article applies. The term does not include premiums for reinsurance accepted from other licensed insurers, and there shall be no deductions for premiums for reinsurance ceded to other insurers.

Assessments

Sec. 6. Whenever the commissioner determines that an insurer has become an impaired insurer, the receiver appointed in accordance with Article 21.28 of the Insurance Code or the conservator appointed under the authority of Article 21.28-A or Article 9.29 of the Insurance Code shall promptly estimate the amount of additional funds needed to supplement the assets of the impaired insurer immediately available to the receiver or the conservator for the purpose of making payment of all covered claims. Thereafter, the commissioner shall be empowered to make such assessments as may be necessary to produce the additional funds needed to make payment of all covered claims. The commissioner may make partial assessments as the actual need for additional funds arises for each impaired insurer.

The commissioner shall assess individual insurers in proportion to the ratio that the total net direct written premium collected in the State of Texas by the insurer during the next preceding year bears to the total net direct written premium collected by all insurers (except impaired insurers) in the State of Texas. Assessments during a calendar year may be made up to, but not in excess of, two percent of each insurer's net direct written premium for the preceding calendar year. If the maximum assessment in any calendar year does not provide an amount sufficient for payment of covered claims of impaired insurers, assessments may be made in the next successive calendar years.

Insurers designated as impaired insurers by the commissioner shall be exempt from assessment from and after the date of such designation and until the commissioner determines that such insurer is no longer an impaired insurer.

The commissioner shall designate the impaired insurer for which each assessment or partial assessment is made and it shall be the duty of each insurer to pay the amount of its assessment to the conservator or receiver, as the case may be, within 30 days after the commissioner gives notice of the assessment, and assessments may be collected by the conservator or receiver through suits brought for that purpose. Venue for such suits shall lie in Travis County.
County, Texas, and actions to collect such assessments shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature. Either party to said action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction over said cause, and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said appellate court having jurisdiction over said cause and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court over all causes of a different character therein pending. Neither the receiver nor the conservator shall be required to give an appeal bond in any cause arising hereunder.

Funds derived from assessments under the provisions of this article shall not become assets of the impaired insurer but shall be deemed a special fund loaned to the receiver or the conservator for payment of covered claims, which loan shall be repayable to the extent available from the funds of such impaired insurer, as herein provided. No insurer shall be deemed or considered to have or incur any liability, real or contingent, under the provisions of this Article 9.48 of this Chapter until any such assessment shall have been actually made in writing by the commissioner under the provisions of this Article 9.48.

Penalty for Failure to Pay Assessments

Sec. 7. The commissioner may suspend or revoke, after notice and hearing, the certificate of authority to transact business in this state of any insurer who fails to pay an assessment when due. Any insurer whose certificate or authority to do business in this state is cancelled or surrendered shall be liable for any unpaid assessments made prior to the date of such cancellation or surrender.

Accounting for and Repayment of Assessments

Sec. 8. Upon receipt from an insurer of payment of an assessment or partial assessment, the receiver or conservator shall provide the insurer with a participation receipt which shall create a liability against the impaired insurer, and the holder of such participation receipt shall be regarded as a general creditor of the impaired insurer; provided, however, that with reference to the remaining balance of any portions of assessments received by the receiver or conservator and not expended in payment of "covered claims," the holders of such participation receipts shall have preference over other general creditors and shall share pro rata with other holders of participation receipts. The receiver or conservator of any impaired insurer shall adopt accounting procedures reflecting the expenditure and use of all funds received from assessments or partial assessments and shall make a final report of the expenditure and use of such funds to the commissioner, which final report shall set forth the remaining balance, if any, from the funds collected by assessment. The receiver or conservator shall also make any interim reports concerning such accounting as may be required by the commissioner. Upon completion of the final report, the receiver or conservator shall, as soon thereafter as is practicable, refund pro rata the remaining balance of such assessments to the holders of the participation receipts.

Payment of Covered Claims

Sec. 9. When an insurer has been designated by the commissioner as an impaired insurer, the receiver or conservator, as the case may be, shall marshal all assets of the impaired insurer, including but not limited to those which are designated as or that constituted reserve assets offsetting reserve liabilities for all liabilities falling within the definition of "covered claim" as defined in this article. The receiver or conservator shall apply all of such assets to the payment of covered claims, but may utilize funds received from assessments in the payment of claims, pending orderly liquidation or disposition of such assets. When all covered claims have been paid or satisfied by the receiver or conservator, any balance remaining from the liquidation or disposition of such assets shall first be applied in repayment of funds expended from assessments. Such repayments shall be credited as remaining balances and be refunded as provided in Section 9 of this article.

In addition to authorization to make actual payment of covered claims, the receiver or conservator is specifically authorized to utilize such marshalled assets and funds derived from assessments for the purpose of negotiating and consummating contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or contracts of substitution to provide for outstanding liabilities of covered claims. The commissioner shall not require the insurer that reinsures or assumes the policies of the impaired insurer or enters into an agreement to substitute itself in the place of the impaired insurer, to issue assumption certificates or other written evidence of such agreement to the policyholders of the impaired insurer, except to policyholders that have made a claim for loss arising under their policy (issued by the impaired insurer) before the date of such reinsurance, assumption or substitution agreement. The commissioner shall require that the reinsurance, assumption, or substitution agreement be filed as a public record with the State Board of Insurance. The commissioner shall approve such agreement unless, after public hearing held within 30 days following such filing, he determines that such agreement does not effectively protect the policyholders of the insurers to give notice of such hearing to its policyholders. Such notice shall be by publication, not less than seven days in advance of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation printed in the State of Texas. No cause of action shall lie against the impaired insurer for breach of contract or refund of premium after the agreement has been approved by the commissioner and the notice of hearing before the commissioner shall so advise the policyholders of the impaired insurer.

This article shall not be construed to impose restriction or limitation upon the authority granted or authorized the commissioner, the conservator, or the receiver elsewhere in the Insurance Code and other statutes of this state but shall be construed and authorized for use in conjunction with other portions of the Insurance Code dealing with delinquency proceedings or threatened insolvencies or supervisions or conservatorships.

Approval of Covered Claims

Sec. 10. Covered claims against an impaired insurer placed in temporary or permanent receivership under an order of liquidation, rehabilitation, or conservation by a court of competent jurisdiction shall be processed and acted upon by the receiver or ancillary receiver in the same manner as other claims as provided in Article 21.28 of the Insurance Code and as ordered by the court in which such receivership is pending; provided, however, that funds received from assessments shall be liable only for the difference between the amount of the covered claims approved by the receiver and the amount of the assets marshalled by the receiver for payment to holders of covered claims; and provided further that in ancillary receiverships in this state, funds received from assessments shall be liable only for the difference between the amount of the covered claims approved by the ancillary receiver and the amount of assets marshalled by the receivers in other states for application to payment of covered claims within this state. Such funds received from assessments shall not be liable for any amount over and above that approved by the receiver for a covered claim, and any action brought by the holder of such covered claim appealing from the receiver’s action shall not increase the liability of such funds; provided, however, that the receiver may review his action in approving a covered claim and for just cause modify such approval at any time during the pendency of the receivership.

If a conservator is appointed to handle the affairs of an impaired insurer, the conservator shall determine whether or not covered claims should or can be provided for in whole or in part by reinsurance, assumption, or substitution. Upon determination by the conservator that actual payment of covered claims should be made, the conservator shall give notice of such determination to claimants falling within the class of “covered claims.” The conservator shall mail such notice to the latest address reflected in the records of the impaired insurer. If the records of the impaired insurer do not reflect the address of a claimant, the conservator may give notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation. Such notice shall state the time within which the claimant must file his claim with the conservator, which time shall in no event be less than 90 days from the date of the mailing or publication of such notice. The conservator may require, in whole or in part, that sworn claim forms be filed and may require that additional information or evidence be filed as may be reasonably necessary for the conservator to determine the legality or the amount due under a covered claim. When an impaired insurer has been placed in conservatorship, the funds received from assessments shall be liable only for the difference between the amount of the covered claim approved by the ancillary receiver and the amount of assets marshalled by the conservator for payment to holders of covered claims. Any action brought by the holder of such covered claim against the impaired insurer shall not increase the liability of such funds; provided, however, that the conservator may review his action in approving a covered claim and may for just cause modify such approval at any time during the pendency of the conservatorship.

Upon determination by the conservator that actual payment of covered claims should be made or upon order of the court to the receiver to give notice for the filing of claims, any person who has a cause of action against an insured of the impaired insurer under a title insurance policy issued or assumed by such insurer shall, if such cause of action meets the definition of “covered claim,” have the right to file a claim with the receiver or the conservator, regardless of the fact that such claim may be contingent, and such claim may be approved as a “covered claim” (1) if it may be reasonably inferred from the proof presented upon such claim that such person would be able to obtain a judgment upon such cause of action against such insured; and (2) if such person shall furnish suitable proof that no further valid claims against such insurer arising out of the cause of action other than those already presented can be made; and (3) if the total liability of such insurer to all claimants arising from the same title insurance policy shall be no greater than its total liability would be were it not in liquidation, rehabilitation, or conservation. In the proceedings of considering “covered claims,” no judgment against an insured and the amount taken after the date of the commencement of the delinquency proceedings or the appointment of a conservator shall be considered as evidence of liability, or of the amount of damages, and no judgment against an insured taken by default or by collusion prior to the commencement of the delinquency proceedings or the appointment of a conservator shall be considered as conclusive evidence either (1) of the liability of such insured to such person upon such cause of action, or (2) of the amount of damages to which such person is therein entitled.
The acceptance of payment from the receiver or conservator by the holder of a covered claim or the acceptance of the benefits of contracts negotiated by the receiver or conservator providing for reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or for substitution shall constitute an assignment to the impaired insurer of any cause of action or right of the holder of such covered claim arising from the occurrence upon which the covered claim is based. Such assignment shall be to the extent of the amount accepted or the value of the benefits provided by such contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or substitution. Such assignment to the impaired insurer may be assigned to the insurer executing such reinsurance, assumption or substitution agreement.

Release From Conservatorship or Receivership

Sec. 11. An impaired insurer placed in conservatorship or receivership for which assessments have been made under the provisions of this article shall not be authorized, upon release from conservatorship or receivership, to issue new or renewal insurance policies until such time as the impaired insurer has repaid the assessment amount paid by the receipt holder or its assigns; provided, however, the commissioner may, upon application of the advisory association and after hearing, permit the issuance of new policies in accordance with a plan of operations by the released insurer for repayment of assessments. The commissioner may, in approving such plan, place such restrictions upon the issuance of new or renewal policies as he deems necessary to the implementation of the plan. The commissioner shall give 10 days notice of such hearing to the insurers to whom the participation receipts were issued for an assessment made for the benefit of the released insurer, and the holders of the receipts shall be entitled to appear at and participate in such hearing.

Creation of Advisory Association

Sec. 12. There is created by this article an advisory association to be known as the “Texas Title Insurance Advisory Association”, herein called the “advisory association”, to be composed of four insurers. Within 30 days after the effective date of this article, the State Board of Insurance shall appoint the insurers who will serve as the initial advisory association. Of the initial advisory association members, one shall be appointed to serve for a one-year term of office, one shall be appointed to serve for a two-year term of office, one shall be appointed to serve for a three-year term of office, and one shall be appointed to serve for a four-year term of office. Subsequent members of the advisory association shall serve for the term of office as stated above and shall be elected by insurers, subject to the approval by the commissioner.

The initial members of the advisory association and subsequent members shall be chosen to afford fair representation to all insurers subject to this article, giving due consideration to geographical location and segments of the industry represented in Texas. Vacancies on the advisory association shall be filled for the remaining period of the term in the same manner as the initial appointments.

The advisory association shall conduct its meetings in Austin, Texas, in the Insurance Building of the State of Texas. Meetings shall be held upon call by the commissioner or upon written request of a majority of the members. Meetings shall not be open to the public, and only members of the advisory association, members of the State Board of Insurance, the commissioner, and persons authorized by the commissioner shall attend such meetings.

The advisory association shall advise and counsel with the commissioner upon matters relating to the solvency of insurers. The commissioner shall call a meeting of the advisory association when he determines that an insurer is insolvent or impaired and may call a meeting of the advisory association when he determines that a danger of insolvency or impairment of an insurer exists. The advisory association shall, upon majority vote, notify the commissioner of any information indicating that an insurer may be unable or potentially unable to fulfill its contractual obligations and request a meeting with the commissioner. At such meetings the commissioner may divulge to the advisory association any information in his possession and any records of the State Board of Insurance, including examination reports or preliminary reports from examiners relating to such insurer. The commissioner may summon officers, directors, and employees of an insolvent or impaired insurer, or an insurer the commissioner considers to be in danger of insolvency or impairment, to appear before the advisory association for conference or for the taking of testimony. Members of the advisory association shall not reveal information received in such meetings to anyone unless authorized by the commissioner or the State Board of Insurance or when required as witness in court. Advisory association members shall be subject to the same standard of confidentiality as is imposed upon examiners under Article 1.18 of the Insurance Code, except that no bond shall be required of advisory association members.

The advisory association shall, upon request by the commissioner, attend hearings before the commissioner and meet with and advise the commissioner, the liquidator or conservator appointed by the commissioner, on matters relating to the affairs of an impaired insurer and relating to action that may be taken by the commissioner, liquidator, or conservator to best protect the interests of persons holding covered claims against an impaired insurer and relating to the amount and timing of partial assessments and the marshalling of assets and the processing and handling of covered claims.

Reports or recommendations made by the advisory association to the commissioner, liquidator, or conservator shall not be considered public documents, and there shall be no liability on the part of and no cause of action against a member of the advisory association or the advisory association for any report, individual report, recommendation or individual recommendation by the advisory association or members to the commissioner, liquidator, or conservator.

Members shall serve without pay, but their expenses in attending meetings shall be paid subject to the authorization by the legislature in its appropriations bills or otherwise, and subject to the rules of the State Board of Insurance. Members shall serve until their successors are appointed.

Any insurer that has an officer, director, or employee serving as a member of the advisory association shall not lose the right to negotiate for and enter into contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liability or contracts of substitution to provide for liabilities for covered claims with the receiver or conservator of an impaired insurer. The entering into any such contract shall not be deemed a conflict of interest.

The advisory association or any insurer assessed under this article shall be an interested party under Section 3(h) of Article 21.28 of the Insurance Code.

The State Board of Insurance shall within 90 days after the effective date of this article promulgate reasonable organizational rules for the association which shall set forth, among other things, quorum and attendance requirements for meetings, procedural rules to be followed at association meetings and rules concerning the replacement of members.

Recognition of Assessments in Rates and Premium Tax Offset

Sec. 13. Insurers shall be entitled to recoup assessments up to one percent of their net direct written premiums from rates promulgated, established, or approved by the State Board of Insurance in the next calendar year. The State Board of Insurance in promulgating, establishing, or approving rates shall take into account assessments and refunds of assessments made in accordance with this article and shall include in the formula forming the basis for promulgating, establishing, or approving rates sums sufficient to provide for such recoupment.

Unless the State Board of Insurance has determined that all amounts paid by each insurer on assessments on total net direct written premiums have been included in the rates and premiums as provided above, any amounts not so included shall be allowed to such insurer as a credit against its premium tax under Article 7064, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. The tax credit referred to herein shall be allowed at a rate of 20 percent per year for five successive years following the date of assessment and at the option of the insurer may be taken over an additional number of years.

Sec. 17. Any action or ruling of the commissioner under this article may be appealed as provided in Article 1.04 of the Insurance Code, as amended. authorized and empowered to issue upon request on real property transactions in this state at no charge whatever insured closing and settlement letters, in the form prescribed by the board, in connection with the closing and settlement of loans made by title insurance agents for any title insurance company operating under the provisions of this chapter. After January 1, 1976, only the form prescribed by the board shall be used thereafter in issuing such insured closing and settlement letters. The liability of the title insurance company shall not be changed or altered by the failure of the title insurance company to issue such insured closing and settlement letters as authorized by this Article 9.49.

Art. 9.50. Home Solicitation Transactions Act as Consumer Protection Law

Chapter 246, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973 (Article 5069–13.01 through Article 5069–13.06, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall be deemed and considered a consumer protection law when construed in connection with any policy of title insurance issued in this state.

Art. 9.51. Title Insurance Agents Right to Surrender License

No title insurance agent shall be permitted to surrender his license under the provisions of Article 9.37 of this Chapter 9 if, prior to the offer to surrender such license, an action shall have been commenced under the provisions of Article 9.37 by the commissioner of insurance for revocation of such person's title insurance agent's license.

Art. 9.52. Escrow Officer's Right to Surrender License

No escrow officer shall be permitted to surrender his license under the provisions of Article 9.44 of this Chapter 9 if, prior to the offer to surrender such license, an action shall have been commenced under the provisions of Article 9.44 by the commissioner of insurance for revocation of such person's escrow agent's license.

Art. 9.53. Uniform Closing and Settlement Statements

On or prior to January 1, 1976, the board, after notice and hearing, shall prescribe uniform settlement and closing statement forms to be used in connection with the settlement and closing of any conveyance or mortgaging of real estate in which transaction a title insurance policy is issued by any title insurance company or title insurance agent. The board is specifically authorized to establish separate forms for transactions involving improved residential real property and for all other real property transactions. The forms prescribed by the board shall be designed so that dual forms or separate forms provided for each party to the transaction identifying only the charges made to such party may be used at any settlement or closing.

Every such settlement and closing statement furnished to a party to the transaction shall state thereon the name of any person, firm, or corporation receiving any sum from such party to the settlement or closing. The title insurance company and the title insurance agent, however, shall be required to include within the closing and settlement statement only those items of disbursement as are actually disbursed by the title insurance company or the title insurance agent. If a title is examined or any closing or settlement services rendered by an attorney, other than a full-time employee of either the title insurance company or the title insurance agent, the amount of such fee (shown as included in the premium) and the name of the attorney (which may be expressed by the name of the firm, if applicable) to whom such fee was paid shall be shown thereon. Such form shall also conspicuously and clearly itemize the charges imposed upon such party in connection with the settlement and closing. If a charge for title insurance is made to such party, the form shall state whether the title insurance premium included in such charges covers or insures the mortgagee's interest in the property, the borrower's interest, or both.

Any title insurance company or any title insurance agent may at its election use the uniform closing statement prepared under the provisions of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974 (Public Law 93–533) in lieu of the uniform closing statement prescribed by the board.

The provisions of this Article 9.53 of this Chapter 9 shall not apply to the settlement or closing of any residential real estate transaction regulated by the provisions of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974 (Public Law 93–533).

The provisions of this Article 9.53 of this Chapter 9 shall not apply to a settlement or closing if neither a title insurance company, a title insurance agent, an attorney for a title insurance company or title insurance agent, nor a representative of the title insurance company, title insurance agent or attorney for a title insurance company or title insurance agent has actually handled the closing or settlement of such real estate transaction.

Art. 9.54. Advance Disclosure of Settlement Costs Involving Residential Property

Every title insurance company and every title insurance agent licensed to do business in Texas under the provisions of this Chapter 9 shall, in connection with the issuance of any type of title policy guaranteeing either a lien upon or the title to improved residential property, upon written request of the buyer, seller, or borrower prior to settlement and closing, furnish to any such requesting party to such transaction an itemized disclosure in writing, to the extent that the information is available, of the charge to be made to such party, arising in connection with such closing and settlement, upon any standard real estate settlement and closing form developed, prescribed or authorized under Article 9.53 of this chapter. If information is not available concerning any item or items of charges to be made to such party, proper notation shall be made that a charge is to be made, but the information is not available or that the amount shown is an estimate of such charge. Such person shall be advised in writing as to the identity of the person or organization responsible for such charges to be made for which an estimate has been made or for which notation has been made that the information is not available.

Provided, however, that the title insurance company or title insurance agent providing the disclosures of items of charge shall not be required to disclose costs or charges which the lender is required by any law to disclose to such party. Nothing contained in this Article 9.54 shall be deemed or construed as placing upon any title insurance company or title insurance agent any of the obligations imposed upon lenders by reason of the Federal Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-533).1

The provisions of this Article 9.54 of this Chapter 9 shall not apply to a settlement or closing if neither a title insurance company, a title insurance agent, an attorney for a title insurance company or title insurance agent, nor a representative of the title insurance company, title insurance agent or attorney for a title insurance company or title insurance agent has actually handled the closing or settlement of such real estate transaction.

Art. 9.55. Requirement for Issuance of Owners and Mortgagee Title Policies in Connection With Residential Property

After January 1, 1976, whenever any improved residential real property situated in the State of Texas shall be sold and a mortgagee title policy issued to guarantee the validity of a lien thereon, the title insurance company or title insurance agent so issuing such mortgagee title policy of insurance shall also issue an owner title policy to the owner of such property and the required premium as promulgated by the board shall be charged.

The provisions of this article may, however, be rejected, provided that the person acquiring title shall, at or prior to closing and settlement, execute a written and acknowledged rejection wherein the purchaser rejects issuance of such owner title policy. The form of such rejection shall be prescribed, after notice and hearing, by the board.

The provisions of this Article 9.55 of this Chapter 9 shall not apply to a settlement or closing if neither a title insurance company, a title insurance agent, an attorney for a title insurance company or title insurance agent, nor a representative of the title insurance company, title insurance agent or attorney for a title insurance company or title insurance agent has actually handled the closing or settlement of such real estate transaction.

Subject to the provisions of Article 9.06 of this Chapter 9, and Section 4 of this article, the capital

(b) Any other attorney's title insurance company shall meet the capital and surplus requirements upon organization as required by Article 9.06 of this Chapter 9.

Requirements for Title Attorneys

Sec. 5. No attorney shall act within this state as a title attorney for an attorney's title insurance company without first having been (1) licensed as a title attorney for such company by the board and (2) filing a bond or cash deposit in lieu thereof as required in Section 9; and no attorney's title insurance company shall allow or permit any attorney to act as its title attorney within the state unless said attorney shall first have obtained a license and filed a bond as required by this chapter.

Title Attorney's Licenses

Sec. 6. (a) Before an initial license is issued to any Texas licensed attorney to act as a title attorney within the State of Texas for an attorney's title insurance company, there shall first be filed by the attorney's title insurance company with the board an application for a title attorney's license, on forms to be provided by the board, accompanied by a fee of $2. The application shall be signed and duly sworn to by the attorney's title insurance company and the applicant title attorney. Such application shall contain the following:

(1) that the applicant title attorney is a bona fide licensed Texas attorney, resident of Texas; and

(2) that the applicant title attorney is actively engaged in the practice of law; and

(3) that the applicant title attorney is known to the attorney's title insurance company to have a good business reputation, to be a current member of the State Bar of Texas, in good standing, and is worthy of the public trust and said attorney's title insurance company knows of no fact or condition which would disqualify him from receiving a license; and

(4) that the applicant title attorney is qualified as defined in this Article 9.56 of this Chapter 9.

The board shall grant such title attorney's license if it determines from the application and its own investigation that the foregoing requirements have been met.

(b) On or before the first day of June of each year, every attorney's title insurance company operating under the provisions of this Chapter 9 shall certify to the board, on forms provided by the board, the names and addresses of every title attorney of said attorney's title insurance company, and shall apply for and pay a fee of $2 for an annual license in the name of each title attorney included in said list; if any such attorney's title insurance company shall terminate any licensed title attorney, it shall immediately notify the board in writing of such act and request cancellation of such license, notifying the title attorney of such action. No such attorney's title insurance company shall permit any title attorney appointed by it to write, sign, or deliver title insurance policies within the state until the foregoing conditions have been complied with, and the board has granted said license. The board shall deliver such license to the attorney's title insurance company for transmittal to the title attorney.

Licenses shall continue until the first day of the next June unless previously cancelled; provided, however, that if any attorney's title insurance company surrenders or has its certificate of authority revoked by the board, all existing licenses of its title attorneys shall automatically terminate without notice.

The board shall keep a record of the names and addresses of all licensed title attorneys in such manner that the title attorneys appointed by any attorney's title insurance company authorized to transact the business of an attorney's title insurance company within the State of Texas may be conveniently as­certained and inspected by any person upon request.

(c) If an attorney's title insurance company termi­nates its contract with a title attorney or gives notice of termination to the title attorney, then any such title attorney may, within 30 days after either occurrence apply to the board for continuation of his license with an amendment thereto showing the name of another attorney's title insurance company for whom he is or will be authorized to act.

Authority of Title Attorney

Sec. 7. (a) A duly licensed title attorney may issue policies of title insurance for an attorney's title insurance company only if: (1) such title attorney is an appointed title attorney for an attorney's title insurance company; and (2) such title attorney bases each title opinion upon separate and current title evidence furnished by a licensed abstract plant of the records of the county in which the real property, the title to which is to be insured, is located; and (3) if such title attorney does not own or lease and control a licensed abstract plant and does not partici­pate in a bona fide joint plant operation, such title attorney pays to the licensed abstract plant furnish­ing the title information the portion of the premium which may be agreed upon between the title attorney and the licensed abstract plant and approved by the board under the contract to furnish title infor­mation provided for under Paragraph (b) of this Section 7.

(b) The board shall, not later than January 1, 1976, promulgate the form of the contract to be made and entered into between a title attorney and a licensed abstract plant whereby title information shall be furnished by a licensed abstract plant to a title attorney. Such contract shall state therein the standards for the information which is to be furnished. Contracts shall be entered into between each title attorney and each licensed abstract plant. The board may from time to time alter, change, or amend the form of such contract.

The parties to any such contract shall determine the portion of the premium to be paid by the title attorney to the licensed abstract plant, except that the board is authorized to and may disapprove any division of the premium which the board finds to be excessive or inadequate. Such portion of the premium to be paid to the licensed abstract plant shall be deemed and considered as the "regular charge" for title information as that term is used in Article 9.34 of this Chapter 9. Within 10 days following execu­tion, the parties to each such contract shall file a copy of the executed contract with the board. Each such contract shall be deemed to be approved as to the division of the premium until the parties are notified of disapproval by the board.

(c) In the event a title attorney does not own or lease and control a licensed abstract plant nor is a participant in a bona fide joint plant operation and is unable to contract with a licensed abstract plant to obtain the required title information in the county in which the real property, the title to which is to be insured, is located, such title attorney may deliver (but not issue) title insurance policies in conformity with the provisions of Article 9.34 of this Chapter 9. Likewise, a title attorney may deliver (but not issue) a title insurance policy upon real property in con­formity with the provisions of Article 9.34 of this Chapter 9 when based upon a duly certified abstract of title prepared by a licensed abstract plant cover­ing the particular real property from the sovereignty of the soil to the date of the transaction.

(d) Each annual audit of each title attorney shall include therein disclosure of the payments for title information and to whom such payments were made."

Title Attorneys' Licenses: Surrender, Forfeiture, Grounds for Revocation; Notice, Hearing, and Appeal

Sec. 8. (a) Any title attorney may surrender his license at any time by giving notice to the board and to the attorney's title insurance company concerned, except that no title attorney shall be permitted to surrender his license under the provisions of this Section 8 if prior to the offer to surrender such license an action shall have been commenced under the provisions of this Section 8 by the Commissioner of Insurance for revocation of such title attorney's license. Any title attorney shall automatically forfeit the license under the attorney's title insurance company represented if he shall terminate his rela­tionship with the attorney's title insurance company.

(b) The license of any title attorney may be de­nied, or a license duly issued may be suspended or revoked or a renewal thereof refused by the board, if, after notice and hearing as hereafter provided, it finds that the applicant for or holder of such license:

(1) has wilfully violated any provision of this Chapter 9; or

(2) has intentionally made a material mis­statement in the application for such license; or

(3) has obtained, or attempted to obtain, such license by fraud or misrepresentation; or

(4) has misappropriated or converted to his own use or illegally withheld money belonging to an attorney's title insurance company, an insured, or any other person; or

(5) has otherwise demonstrated lack of trust­worthiness or competence to act as a title attor­ney; or

(6) has been guilty of fraudulent or dishonest practices; or
Art. 9.56

(7) has materially misrepresented the terms and conditions of title insurance policies or contracts; or
(8) is not of good character or reputation; or
(9) has failed to maintain a separate and distinct accounting of escrow funds, and has failed to maintain an escrow bank account or accounts separate and apart from all other accounts; or
(10) has failed to remain a member of the State Bar of Texas, or has been disbarred; or
(11) is no longer actively engaged in the practice of law.

(c) Before the license of any title attorney shall be denied, or suspended or revoked, or the renewal thereof refused hereunder, the board shall give notice of its intention so to do, by registered mail, to the applicant for or holder of such license and to the attorney's title insurance company who desires that hearing, the commissioner of insurance or any regulated mail to the applicant or licensee and the attorney's title insurance company concerned.

(d) No applicant or licensee whose license has been denied, refused, or revoked hereunder shall be entitled to file another application for a license as a title attorney within one year from the effective date of such denial, refusal, or revocation, or, if judicial review of such denial, refusal, or revocation is sought, within one year from the date of final court order or decree affirming such action. Such application, when filed after one year, may be refused by the board unless the applicant shows good cause why the denial, refusal, or revocation of his license shall not be deemed a bar to the issuance of a new license.

(e) If the board shall refuse an application for any license provided for in this Act, or shall suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew any such license at said hearing, then any such applicant or licensee, and any attorney's title insurance company concerned, may appeal from said order by filing suit against the board as defendant in any of the district courts of Travis County, Texas, and not elsewhere, within 20 days from the date of the order of said board. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes of a different nature on the docket. The action shall not be limited to questions of law and shall be tried and determined upon a trial de novo to the same extent as now provided for in the case of an appeal from the justice court to the county court. Any party to said action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause, and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court over all causes of a different character therein pending. The board shall not be required to give any appeal bond in any cause arising hereunder.

Sec. 9. (a) Every attorney who has been licensed as a title attorney shall make, file, and pay for a surety bond with a corporate surety company authorized to write surety bonds in this state, payable to the State Board of Insurance in the sum of $7,500, which bond shall obligate the principal and surety to (1) pay such pecuniary losses as may result to any participant in a real estate settlement or closing where an attorney's title insurance policy is issued by such title attorney which shall be sustained through acts of fraud, dishonesty, theft, embezzlement, or wilful misapplication on the part of any title attorney, (2) to pay such pecuniary loss as any party to an escrow agreement in which the title attorney is escrowee shall sustain through acts of fraud, dishonesty, forgery, theft, embezzlement, or wilful misapplication on the part of such title attorney, either directly and alone, or in connivance with others. In lieu of such bond any title attorney may deposit with the board cash (or securities approved by the board) which cash and securities shall be in the amount of $7,500 and subject to the same conditions as provided for in said bond.

(b) If at any time it appears to the board that the terms of any title attorney's bond may have been violated, the board may require the title attorney to appear in Travis County with such records as the board deems proper on a named date not earlier than 10 days nor later than 15 days from service of notice, and there conduct an examination into the matter. If upon such examination the board is satisfied that the terms of said bond have been violated, the board shall immediately notify the surety and prepare a written statement covering the facts and deliver it to the Attorney General of Texas, whose duty it shall be to investigate the charges, and if satisfied that the terms of said bond have been violated, then to enforce the liability against cash or securities, or by suit on said bond in Travis County in the name of the board for the benefit of all parties who have suffered any loss because of breach of the terms of said bond.
Annual Audit and Report of Title Attorneys

Sec. 10. Every title attorney shall have an annual audit, at his expense, made of trust fund accounts, and within 90 days after January 1 of each calendar year shall send by certified mail, postage prepaid, to the board one copy of such audit report with a letter of transmittal, and each such title attorney shall also send a copy of such letter of transmittal and audit report to the attorney's title insurance company which he represents.

Said audit shall be made by an independent certified public accountant or licensed public accountant, or a firm composed of either, recommended by said title attorney and approved by the title insurance company represented by said title attorney.

Each attorney's title insurance company shall examine and analyze the audit report furnished by each of its title attorneys and shall within three months of receipt of same report to the board on forms to be promulgated by the board, the findings and results of its examination and analysis of such audit report. If an attorney's title insurance company fails to receive an audit report from any of its title attorneys within the time specified above, it shall forthwith report such omission to the board.

All such reports and analyses furnished by the attorney's title insurance company to the board shall, at the election of the commissioner, be classed as confidential and privileged after having been filed with the board.

If any title attorney shall fail or refuse to furnish an audit report within the time required, or shall furnish an audit report which reveals any shortage or other irregularity, or any practice not in keeping with sound, honest business practices, the board may, after notice to the title attorney and the attorney's title insurance company involved and after a hearing at which the attorney and attorney's title insurance company may offer evidence explaining or excusing such omissions or irregularity, revoke the license of such title attorney.

Any title attorney or attorney's title insurance company feeling aggrieved by any action of the board hereunder shall have the right to file a suit in a District Court of Travis County in the time and manner provided in Section 8.

Right of Attorney's Title Insurance Company to Examine Title Attorney's Fund Accounts and Require Reports

Sec. 11. Any attorney's title insurance company may at such time or times as it sees fit, through its examiners or auditors or through independent certified public accountants commissioned by it, examine the trust fund accounts and records pertaining thereto of any of its title attorneys, such examination to be made at the expense of the attorney's title insurance company; or the attorney's title insurance company may require special reports from any such title attorney regarding any of its transactions.

Application to Other Title Insurance Companies

Sec. 12. The business of attorney's title insurance shall only be conducted by attorney's title insurance companies, as defined herein, and no title insurance company, foreign or domestic, or title insurance agent or escrow officer of a title insurance agent presently or hereafter licensed to transact a title insurance business in the State of Texas, pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter 9 of this Insurance Code, may operate as an attorney's title insurance company or a title attorney under the provisions of this chapter.

Exemption From Other Acts

Sec. 13. (a) The sale, issuance, or offering of any capital stock to persons permitted by the provisions of this Article 9.56 to own such capital stock are hereby exempted from all provisions of the laws of this state, other than this Chapter 9, which provide for supervision, registration, or regulation in connection with the sale, issuance, or offering of securities; and the sale, issuance, or offering of any such capital stock to such persons shall be legal without any action or approval whatsoever on the part of any official or state regulatory agency authorized to license, regulate, or supervise the sale, issuance, or offering of securities.

(b) The shares of stock of each attorney's title insurance company (regardless of class) may be owned only (except as provided in Section 3 of this Article 9.56) by attorneys duly licensed by the State Bar of Texas, residing in the State of Texas, and qualified to be appointed a title attorney under the provisions of this Article 9.56. It shall be the duty of the Board of Insurance Commissioners to require any corporation, person, firm, association, local mutual aid association, or any local association, company, or organization to have a certificate of authority before being authorized to carry on any insurance business in this State. If, in any event, any such company, person, firm, association, corporation, local aid association, or local organization is writing any form of insurance whatsoever without a permit or certificate of authority issued by the Department of Insurance of Texas, it shall be the duty of the Board to make known said fact to the Attorney General of the State of Texas, who is hereby required to institute proceedings in the District Court of Travis County, Texas, to restrain such corporation, person, firm, association, company, local aid association, or organization from writing any insurance of any kind or character without a permit; provided no provision of this and the preceding Article shall be construed to apply to associations which limit their membership to bona fide borrowers of a Federal agency in Texas and members of the borrower's immediate family who are living with him and who are not engaged in nonfarm work for their chief income, and which association has been in existence for at least five (5) years, and which are not operated for profit and which pay no commissions to anyone and whose operating expenses do not exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) per month; provided, however, that all such associations shall make annual reports to the Department of Insurance on blanks furnished for that purpose, showing the financial condition, the receipts and expenditures, and such other facts as the Board of Insurance Commissioners may require. No such association shall be permitted to operate, however, without making report to the Insurance Department of the State of Texas and securing a permit to so function. Such permit shall be for the current year or fractional part thereof and shall expire on the thirty-first day of May thereafter and shall be renewed annually upon the approval of the financial statement of the organization by the Board of Insurance Commissioners.

Attention shall be called on the front page of the policy to any reduction or exclusion of benefits provided herein, and the circumstances or conditions under which reduction or exclusion of benefits are applicable shall be plainly stated in the policy. The provisions of this Section 1 of this Article 14.20 shall apply to all outstanding policies already containing such limitations.

Sec. 2. This Section 2 of this Article 14.20 shall not be applicable, however, to any policy of life insurance upon which the reduction of the death benefit is not applicable at the time of the death of such specified insured.
Sec. 3. In the event a policy of life insurance shall provide, during any of the first five years of such policy, for an increase in the death benefit whereby the initial amount of the death benefit for a specified insured shall be increased one or more times during such five-year period, such amount of death benefit for any such specified insured shall at all times during the period or periods of such increasing benefit equal at least 120 percent of the premiums paid on such policy by such specified insured during the period of such increase. This Section 3 of this Article 14.20 shall not be applicable, however, to any policy of life insurance after it has been in force for more than five years from the policy issue date.

Sec. 4. The provisions of Section 2 and Section 3 of this Article 14.20 shall not be applicable to family group life policies as the term "family group life policies" is defined in Section 2(a)(2) of Article 14.15 of this Insurance Code.

Art. 14.40b. Application of Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act

Insofar as the provisions of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, as amended (Article 1396–1.01 et seq., Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), are not inconsistent with or contrary to any applicable provisions of the Insurance Code, as amended, the provisions of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act as amended (Article 1396–1.01 et seq., Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), shall apply to and govern mutual insurance companies as defined in Article 15.01 of this chapter. Provided however, any such mutual insurance company may upon advance approval of the Commissioner of Insurance pay dividends to its members, and wherever in the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, as amended (Article 1396–1.01 et seq., Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), some duty, responsibility, power, authority, or act is vested in, required of, or to be performed by the secretary of state, such is to be vested in, required of, or performed by the Commissioner of Insurance insofar as such mutual insurance companies are concerned.

(3) an evidence of coverage shall be deemed to be deceptive if the evidence of coverage, taken as a whole, and with consideration given to typography and format, as well as language, shall be such as to cause a reasonable person, not possessing special knowledge regarding health care plans, and evidence of coverage therefor, to expect benefits, services, charges, or other advantages which the evidence of coverage does not provide or which the health care plan issuing such evidence of coverage does not regularly make available for enrollees covered under such evidence of coverage.

(b) Article 21.21, as amended, of the Insurance Code, shall be construed to apply to health maintenance organizations and health care plans and evidence of coverage, except to the extent that the commissioner determines that the nature of health maintenance organizations and health care plans and evidence of coverage renders such sections clearly inappropriate.

(c) An enrollee may not be cancelled or not renewed except for the failure to pay the charges for such coverage, or for such other reason as may be promulgated by rule of the commissioner.

(d) No health maintenance organization, unless licensed as an insurer, may use in its name, contracts, or literature, any of the words “insurance,” “casualty,” “surety,” “mutual,” or any other words descriptive of the insurance, casualty, or surety business or deceptively similar to the name or description of any insurance or surety corporation doing business in this state.

(3) For the purpose of examinations, the commissioner and board may administer oaths to and examine the officers and agents of the health maintenance organization and the principals of such physicians and providers concerning their business.

(d) Article 1.19, as amended, of the Insurance Code shall be construed to apply to health maintenance organizations, except to the extent that the commissioner determines that the nature of the examination of a health maintenance organization renders such clearly inappropriate.

Sec. 2. (a) Hereafter, when any person or corporation shall desire to become a agent for a (i) local mutual aid association, (ii) a local mutual burial... association, (iii) a statewide mutual assessment corporation, (iv) a stipulated premium company, (v) a county mutual insurance company, (vi) a casualty company writing accident and health insurance, or (vii) any other type of insurance carrier licensed to do business in the State of Texas and which insurance carrier's agents are required to be licensed under the provisions of Article 21.07, Texas Insurance Code, 1951, as amended, such person or corporation shall, in such form and giving such information as may be reasonably required, make application to the State Board of Insurance for a license to act as an agent. The application shall be accompanied by a certificate on forms to be prescribed and furnished by the State Board of Insurance and signed by an officer or properly authorized representative of the insurance carrier the applicant proposes to represent, stating that the insurance carrier has investigated the character and background of the applicant and is satisfied that he or its officers, directors, and shareholders are trustworthy and qualified to hold himself or the corporation out in good faith to the general public as an insurance agent, and that the insurance carrier desires that the applicant act as an insurance agent to represent it in this state.

(b) The Board shall issue a license to a corporation if the Board finds:

(1) That the corporation is a Texas corporation organized or existing under the Texas Business Corporation Act having its principal place of business in the State of Texas and having as one of its purposes the authority to act as an agent covered by this Article;

(2) That every officer, director, and shareholder of the corporation is individually licensed under the provisions of this Article; and

(3) That such corporation will have the ability to pay any sums up to $25,000 which it might become legally obligated to pay on account of any claim made against it by any customer and caused by any negligent act, error, or omission of the corporation or any person for whose acts the corporation is legally liable in the conduct of its business under this Article. The term "customer" means any person, firm, or corporation to whom such corporation sells or attempts to sell a policy of insurance, or from whom such corporation accepts an application for insurance. Such ability shall be proven in one of the following ways:

(A) An errors and omissions policy issued by an insurance company licensed to do business in the State of Texas insuring such corporation against errors and omissions in at least the sum of $50,000 with no more than a $2,500 deductible feature;

(B) A bond executed by such corporation as principal and a surety company authorized to do business in this State, as surety, in the principal sum of $25,000, payable to the State Board of Insurance for the use and benefit of customers of such corporation, conditioned that such corporation shall pay any final judgment recovered against it by any customer; or

(C) A deposit of cash or securities of the class authorized by Articles 2.08 and 2.10, Insurance Code, as amended, having a fair market value of $25,000 with the State Treasurer. The State Treasurer is directed to accept and receive such deposit and hold it exclusively for the protection of any customer of such corporation recovering a final judgment against such corporation. Such deposit may be withdrawn only upon filing with the Board evidence satisfactory to it that the corporation has withdrawn from business and has no unsecured liabilities outstanding, or that such corporation has provided for the protection of its customers by furnishing an errors and omissions policy or a bond as provided. Securities so deposited may be exchanged from time to time for other qualified securities.

A binding commitment to issue such a policy or bond, or the tender of such securities, shall be sufficient in connection with any application for license.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed to permit any unlicensed employee or agent of any corporation to perform any act of an agent under this Article without obtaining a license.

If at any time, any corporation holding an agent's license does not maintain the qualifications necessary to obtain a license, the license of such corporation to act as an agent shall be cancelled or denied in accordance with the provisions of Sections 10 and 11 of this Article; provided, however, that should any person who is not a licensed agent under this Article acquire shares in such a corporation by devise or descent, he shall have a period of 90 days from date of acquisition within which to obtain a license or to dispose of the shares of a person licensed under this Article.

Should such an unlicensed person acquire shares in a corporation and not dispose of them within a period of 90 days to a licensed agent, then they must be purchased by the corporation for their book value, that is, the value of said shares of stock as reflected by the regular books and records of said corporation, as of the date of the acquisition of said shares by said unlicensed person. Should the corporation fail or refuse to so purchase such shares, its license shall be cancelled.
Any such corporation shall have the power to redeem the shares of any shareholder, or the shares of a deceased shareholder, upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the board of directors and such shareholder or his personal representative, or at a price and upon such terms as may be provided in the articles of incorporation, the bylaws, or an existing contract entered into between the shareholders of the corporation.

Each corporation licensed as an agent under this Article shall file, under oath, a list of the names and addresses of all of its officers, directors, and shareholders with its yearly application for renewal license.

Each corporation shall immediately notify the State Board of Insurance upon any change in its officers, directors, or shareholders.

No other corporation may own any interest in a corporation licensed under this Article, and each owner of an interest in a corporation licensed under this Article shall be a natural person who holds a valid license issued under this Article.

Issuance of License Under Certain Circumstances

Sec. 3. After the State Board of Insurance has determined that such applicant is of good character and trustworthy, the State Board of Insurance shall issue a license to such person or corporation in such form as it may prepare authorizing such applicant to write the types of insurance authorized by law to be issued by applicant's appointing insurance carrier, except that such applicant shall not be authorized to write health and accident insurance unless: (i) applicant, if not a corporation, shall have first passed a written examination as provided for in this Article 21.07, as amended, or (ii) applicant will act only as a ticket-selling agent of a public carrier with respect to accident insurance covering risks of travel or as an agent selling credit life, health and accident insurance issued exclusively in connection with credit transactions, or (iii) applicant will write policies or riders to policies providing only lump sum cash benefits in the event of the accidental death, or death by accidental means, or dismemberment, or providing only ambulance expense benefits in the event of accident or sickness.

Examination of Applicant for License to Write Health and Accident Insurance

Sec. 4. (a) Each applicant for a license under the provisions of this Article 21.07, Texas Insurance Code, 1951, as amended, who desires to write health and accident insurance, other than as excepted in Section 3 of this Article 21.07, within this State shall submit to a personal written examination prescribed and administered in the English or Spanish language by the State Board of Insurance to determine his competency with respect to health and accident insurance and his familiarity with the pertinent provisions of the laws of the State of Texas relating to health and accident insurance, and shall pass the same to the satisfaction of the State Board of Insurance; except that no written examination shall be required of:

(i) An applicant for the renewal of a license issued by the State Board of Insurance pursuant to Article 21.07, Texas Insurance Code, 1951, as amended, which is currently in force at the effective date of this Act;

(ii) An applicant whose license expired less than one year prior to the date of application may, in the discretion of the State Board of Insurance, be issued a license without written examination, provided such prior license granted such applicant the right to sell health and accident insurance; or

(iii) An applicant that is a corporation.

(b)(i) The State Board of Insurance shall, within sixty (60) days from the effective date of this Act, establish reasonable rules and regulations with respect to the scope, type and conduct of such written examination and the times and places within this State where such examinations shall be held; applicants, shall, however, be permitted to take such examinations at least once in each week at the office of the State Board of Insurance. The rules and regulations of the State Board of Insurance shall designate text books, manuals and other materials to be studied by applicants in preparation for examination pursuant to this Section. Such text books, manuals and other materials may consist of matter available to applicants by purchase from the publisher or may consist of matter prepared at the direction of the State Board of Insurance and distributed to applicants upon request therefor and payment of the reasonable cost thereof. All examination questions shall be prepared from the contents of the text books, manuals and other materials designated or prepared by the State Board of Insurance pursuant to this Section and such questions shall be limited to and substantially similar to the questions relating to health and accident insurance contained in the written examination prescribed by the State Board of Insurance pursuant to Article 21.07–1 of this Insurance Code. The State Board of Insurance shall charge each applicant a fee of $10.00 for the privilege of taking such written examination and which fee shall not be returned under any circumstance other than for failure to appear and take the examination after the applicant has given at least 24 hours' notice of an emergency situation to the State Board of Insurance and received board approval. A new examination fee shall be paid for each and every examination.

Failure of Applicant to Qualify for License

Sec. 5. If the State Board of Insurance is not satisfied that the applicant for a license is trustworthy and of good character, or, if applicable, that the applicant, if required to do so, has not passed the written examination to the satisfaction of the State Board of Insurance, the State Board of Insurance shall forthwith notify the applicant and the insurance carrier in writing that the license will not be issued to the applicant, and return to said agent the $25.00 fee for application for license and the $8.00 fee for appointment.

Agent May Be Licensed to Represent Additional Insurers

Sec. 6. Any agent licensed under this Article may represent and act as an agent for more than one insurance carrier at any time while his or its license is in force, if he or it so desires. Any such agent and the insurance carrier involved must give notice to the State Board of Insurance of any additional appointment or appointments authorizing him or it to act as agent for an additional insurance carrier or carriers. Such notice must set forth the insurance carrier or carriers which the agent is then licensed to represent, and shall be accompanied by a certificate from each insurance carrier to be named in each additional appointment, that said insurance carrier desires to appoint the applicant as its agent. This notice shall also contain such other information as the State Board of Insurance may require. The agent shall be required to pay a fee of $8.00 for each additional appointment applied for, which fee shall accompany the notice.

Expiration and Renewal of License

Sec. 7. (a) Each license issued to an agent shall expire two years following the date of issue, unless prior thereto it is suspended or revoked by the State Board of Insurance or the authority of the agent to act for the insurance carrier is terminated.

(b) Licenses which have not expired or which have not been suspended or revoked may be renewed upon request in writing of the agent.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (c)]

(d) The appointment or appointments given under any Section of this Article authorizing the agents to act as an agent for an insurance carrier shall continue in full force and effect without the necessity of renewal until terminated and withdrawn by the insurance carrier in accordance with Section 9 of this Article 21.07 or otherwise terminated in accordance with this Article 21.07, and each renewal license issued to the agent shall authorize him or it to represent and act for the insurance carriers for which he or it holds an appointment until the appointment is so terminated, and the agent shall prima facie be deemed, for the purpose of this Article 21.07, to be the agent of the appointing insurance carriers, provided that on or before April 1st of each and every calendar year, commencing on or before April 1, 1970, each such insurance carrier so appointing such agent shall file with the State Board of Insurance a certificate, upon forms promulgated by the State Board of Insurance, certifying that such insurance carrier desires to continue the appointment of such agent, and if such insurance carrier shall for any reason fail to file such certificate for any year as relates to such agent, it shall be deemed and considered for all purposes that such insurance carrier has terminated the appointment of such agent in like manner as if compliance had been made by such insurance carrier with Section 9 of this Article.

Denial, Refusal, Suspension or Revocation of Licenses

Sec. 10. (a) A license may be denied, or a license duly issued may be suspended or revoked or the renewal thereof refused by the State Board of Insurance if, after notice and hearing as hereafter provided, it finds that the applicant, individually or through any officer, director, or shareholder, for, or holder of, such license:

(1) Has wilfully violated any provision of the insurance laws of this State: or

(2) Has intentionally made a material misstatement in the application for such license; or

(3) Has obtained, or attempted to obtain, such license by fraud or misrepresentation; or

(4) Has misappropriated or converted to his or its own use or illegally withheld money belonging to an insurance carrier or an insured or beneficiary; or

(5) Has otherwise demonstrated lack of trustworthiness or competence to act as an agent; or

(6) Has been guilty of fraudulent or dishonest practices; or

(7) Has materially misrepresented the terms and conditions of any insurance policy or contract; or

(8) Has made or issued, or caused to be made or issued, any statement misrepresenting or making incomplete comparisons regarding the terms or conditions of any insurance contract legally issued by any insurance carrier, for the purpose of inducing or attempting to induce the owner of such contract to forfeit or surrender such contract or allow it to lapse for the purpose of replacing such contract with another; or

(9) Is not of good character or reputation.
(b) Before any license shall be denied (except for failure to pass a required written examination), or suspended or revoked, or the renewal thereof refused hereunder, the Board shall give notice of its intention so to do, by registered mail, to the applicant for, or holder of, such license and the insurance carrier whom he or it represents or who desires that he or it be licensed, and shall set a date not less than twenty days from the date of mailing such notice when the applicant or licensee and a duly authorized representative of the insurance carrier may appear to be heard and produce evidence. In the conduct of such hearing, the Board or any regular salaried employee specially designated by it for such purpose shall have power to administer oaths, to require the appearance of and examine any person under oath, and to require the production of books, records or papers relevant to the inquiry upon its own initiative or upon the request of the applicant or licensee. Upon termination of such hearings, findings shall be reduced to writing and, upon approval by the Board, shall be filed in its office and notice of the findings sent by registered mail to the applicant or licensee and the insurance carrier concerned.

(c) No applicant or licensee whose license has been denied, refused or revoked hereunder (except for failure to pass a required written examination) shall be entitled to file another application for a license as an agent within one year from the effective date of such denial, refusal or revocation, or, if judicial review of such denial, refusal or revocation is sought, within one year from the date of final court order or decree affirming such action. Such application, when filed after one year, may be refused by the Board unless the applicant shows good cause why the denial, refusal or revocation of his or its license shall not be deemed a bar to the issuance of a new license.

Judicial Review of Acts of State Board of Insurance

Sec. 11. If the said Board shall refuse an application for any license provided for in this Article, or shall suspend, revoke or refuse to renew any such license or permit at said hearing, then any such applicant or accused may appeal from said order by filing suit against the State Board of Insurance as defendant in any of the District Courts of Travis County, Texas, or in any District Court in the county of the applicant’s residence or principal place of business, and not elsewhere, within twenty (20) days from the date of the order of said State Board of Insurance.

Said action shall have precedence over all other causes of a different nature on the docket. The action shall not be limited to questions of law and shall be tried and determined upon a trial de novo to the same extent as now provided for in the case of an appeal from the justice court to the county court.

Either party to said action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause, and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court over all causes of a different character therein pending. The State Board of Insurance shall not be required to give any appeal bond in any cause arising hereunder.

Penalty

Sec. 12. Any person or officer, director, or shareholder of a corporation required to be licensed by this Article who individually, or as an officer or employee of an insurance carrier, or other corporation, willfully violates any of the provisions of this Article shall, in addition to any other penalty specifically provided, be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than $500.00 or imprisoned not more than six (6) months, or both, each such violation being a separate offense hereunder. In addition, if such offender or the corporation of which he is an officer, director, or shareholder holds a license as an agent, such license shall automatically expire upon such conviction.

Fees and Use of Funds

Sec. 14. (a) It shall be the duty of the State Board of Insurance to collect from every agent of any insurance carrier writing insurance in the State of Texas under the provisions of this Article, a licensing fee and an initial appointment fee, as provided in Subsection (b) of this section, for each and every appointment by any insurance carrier, which fees shall constitute a fund to be used by the State Board of Insurance to enforce the provisions of this Article 21.07 and all laws of this State governing and regulating agents for such insurance carriers, as provided in Subsection (b) of this section.

(b) For those agents subject to licensing under the provisions of this Article, the license fee shall be Twenty-five Dollars ($25) and Eight Dollars ($8) for each appointment.

Acting for Unauthorized Companies Prohibited

Sec. 2. (a) No person or corporation shall, within this State, solicit, procure, receive, or forward applications for life insurance or annuities, or issue or deliver policies for, or in any manner secure, help, or aid in the placing of any contract of life insurance or annuity for any person other than himself, or itself, directly or indirectly, with any legal reserve life insurance company not authorized to do business in this State.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 2(b)]

Acting as Agent Without License Prohibited; No Commissions To Be Paid to Unlicensed Persons

Sec. 3. (a) No person or corporation shall act as a life insurance agent within this State until he or it shall have procured a license as required by the laws of this State.

(b) No insurer or licensed life insurance agent doing business in this State shall pay directly or indirectly any commission, or other valuable consideration, to any person or corporation for services as a life insurance agent within this State, unless such person or corporation shall hold a currently valid license to act as a life insurance agent as required by the laws of this State; nor shall any person or corporation, other than a duly licensed life insurance agent, accept any such commission or other valuable consideration; provided, however, that the provisions of this Section shall not prevent the payment or receipt of renewal or other deferred commissions to or by any person solely because such person or corporation has ceased to hold a license to act as a life insurance agent.

Application for License; To Whom License May Be Issued

Sec. 4. (a) Each applicant for a license to act as a life insurance agent within this State shall file with the Insurance Commissioner his or its written application on forms furnished by the Commissioner. The application shall be signed and duly sworn by the applicant. The prescribed form shall require the applicant to state his full name; residence; age; occupation and place of business for five years preceding date of the application; whether applicant has ever held a license to solicit life, or any other insurance in any State; whether he has been refused, or has had suspended or revoked a license to solicit life, or any other insurance in any State; what insurance experience, if any, he has had; what instruction in life insurance and in the insurance laws of this State he has had or expects to have; whether any insurer or general agent claims applicant is indebted under any agency contract, and if so, the name of the claimant, the nature of the claim and the applicant’s defense thereto; whether applicant has had an agency contract cancelled and, if so, when, by what company or general agent and the reasons therefor; whether applicant will devote all or part of his efforts to acting as a life insurance agent, and, if part only, how much time he will devote to such work, and in what other business or businesses he is engaged or employed; whether, if applicant is a married woman, her husband has ever applied for or held a license to solicit life, or any other insurance in any State and whether such license has been refused, suspended, or revoked; and such other information pertinent to the licensing of such agent as the Insurance Commissioner in his discretion may prescribe. It is not intended that the Insurance Commissioner shall be authorized to deny a license to an applicant on the sole ground that he will act only part time as a life insurance agent.

(b) The application shall be accompanied by a certificate on forms furnished by the Insurance Commissioner and signed by an officer or properly authorized representative of the legal reserve life insurance company he or it proposes to represent, stating that the insurer has investigated the character and background of the applicant and is satisfied that he or the officers, directors, and shareholders of the corporation are trustworthy and qualified to hold himself or itself out in good faith to the general public as a life insurance agent, that the applicant has completed the educational requirements as provided in sub-section (e), Section 4 of this Act, and that the insurer desires that the applicant be licensed as a life insurance agent to represent it in this State.

(c) The application, when filed, shall be accompanied by a filing fee in the amount of $25.00 and, in the case of applicants required to take an examination administered by the Commissioner of Insurance as hereafter prescribed, by an examination fee in the amount of $10.00. In the event an applicant fails to qualify for, or is refused a license, the filing fee shall be returned; the examination fee shall not be returned for any reason other than for failure to appear and take the examination after the applicant has given at least 24 hours' notice of an emergency situation to the Commissioner of Insurance and received the commissioner's approval. A new examination fee shall be paid for each and every examination.

(d) The Insurance Commissioner shall issue a license to a corporation if he finds:

1. That the corporation is a Texas corporation organized or existing under the Texas Business Corporation Act having its principal place of business in the State of Texas and having as one of its purposes the authority to act as agent under this Act;
2. That every officer, director, and shareholder of the corporation is individually licensed as an agent under the provisions of this Act; and
3. That such corporation will have the ability to pay any sums up to $25,000.00 which it might become legally obligated to pay on account of any claim made against it by any customer and caused by any negligent act, error, or omission of the corporation or any person for whose acts the corporation is legally liable in the conduct of its business as under this Act. The term "customer" as used herein shall mean any person, firm, or corporation to whom such corporation sells or attempts to sell a policy of insurance or from whom such corporation accepts an application for insurance. Such ability shall be proven in one of the following ways:
   (A) An errors and omissions policy issued by an insurance company licensed to do business in the State of Texas insuring such corporation against errors and omissions in at least the sum of $50,000.00, with no more than a $2,500.00 deductible feature; or
   (B) A bond executed by such corporation as principal and a surety company authorized to do business in this State, as surety, in the principal sum of $25,000.00, payable to the State Board of Insurance for the use and benefit of customers of such corporation, conditioned that such corporation shall pay any final judgment recovered against it by any customer; or
   (C) A deposit of cash or securities of the class authorized by Articles 2.08 and 2.10 of the Insurance Code, having a fair market value of $25,000.00 with the State Treasurer. The State Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to accept and receive such deposit and hold it exclusively for the protection of any customer of such corporation recovering a final judgment against such corporation. Such deposit may be withdrawn only upon filing with the Insurance Commissioner evidence satisfactory to it that the corporation has withdrawn from business and has no unsecured liabilities outstanding, or that such corporation has provided for the protection of its customers by furnishing an errors and omissions policy or a bond as hereinbefore provided. Securities so deposited may be exchanged from time to time for other qualified securities.

A binding commitment to issue such a policy or bond, or the tender of such securities, shall be sufficient in connection with any application for license.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed to permit any unlicensed employee or agent of any corporation to perform any act of an agent under this Act without obtaining a license.

If at any time, any corporation holding a license under this Act does not maintain the qualifications necessary to obtain a license, the license of such corporation to act as an agent shall be cancelled or denied in accordance with the provisions of Sections 12 and 13 of this Act; provided, however, that should any person who is not an agent licensed under this Act acquire shares in such a corporation by devise or descent, they shall have a period of 90 days from date of acquisition within which to obtain a license as an agent or to dispose of the shares to an agent licensed under this Act.

Should such an unlicensed person acquire shares in such a corporation and not dispose of them within said period of 90 days to a licensed agent, then they must be purchased by the corporation for their book value, that is, the value of said shares of stock as reflected by the regular books and records of said corporation as of the date of the acquisition of said shares by said unlicensed person. Should the corporation fail or refuse to so purchase such shares, its license shall be cancelled.

Any such corporation shall have the power to redeem the shares of any shareholder, or the shares of a deceased shareholder, upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the board of directors and such shareholder or his personal representative, or at such price and upon such terms as may be provided in the articles of incorporation, the bylaws, or an existing contract entered into between the shareholders of the corporation.

Each corporation licensed as an agent under this Act shall file, under oath, a list of the names and addresses of all of its officers, directors, and shareholders with its yearly application for renewal license.

Each corporation licensed as an agent under this Act shall immediately notify the State Board of Insurance upon any change in its officers, directors, or shareholders.

No other corporation may own any interest in a corporation licensed under this Act, and each owner of an interest in a corporation licensed under this Act shall be a natural person who holds a valid license issued under this Act.

No association, partnership, or any legal entity of any nature, other than an individual person or corporation, may be licensed as a life insurance agent.

(e) Each applicant, prior to sitting for the written examination as provided for in Section 5 of this Act, shall complete, under the supervision of such sponsoring insurer, an educational program that shall include:

(1) such texts as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Insurance on the recommendation of the Advisory Board as provided in Subsection (c) of Section 5 of this Act; and

(2) materials that will provide the applicant with the basic knowledge of:

(A) the broad principles of insurance, licensing, and regulatory laws of this State; and

(B) the obligations and duties of a life insurance agent.

Examination of Applicant for License

Sec. 5. (a) Each applicant for a license to act as a life insurance agent within this State shall submit to a personal written examination administered in the English or Spanish language, and as shall be prescribed by the State Board of Insurance, to determine his competence with respect to insurance and annuity contracts and his familiarity with the pertinent provisions of the laws of this State, and shall pass the same to the satisfaction of the State Board of Insurance; except that no such written examination shall be required of:

(1) An applicant for the renewal of a license issued by the State Board of Insurance pursuant to Article 21.07, Texas Insurance Code, 1951, which is currently in force at the time of the effective date of this Act;

(2) An applicant whose license as a life insurance agent expired less than one year prior to the date of application may, in the discretion of the State Board of Insurance, be issued a license without written examination;

(3) A person who holds the designation Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU);

(4) An applicant that is a corporation.

(b) The Commissioner shall establish rules and regulations with respect to the scope, type and conduct of such written examinations and the times and places within this State where they shall be held; provided, that applicants shall be permitted to take such examinations at least once in each week at the office of the Commissioner, and at least once in each month in the county court house of the residence of the applicant. The rules and regulations of the Commissioner shall designate text books, manuals and other materials to be studied by applicants in preparation for examinations pursuant to this Section. Such text books, manuals or other materials may consist of matter available to applicants by purchase from the publisher or may consist of material prepared at the direction of the Commissioner and distributed to applicants upon request therefor and payment of the reasonable cost thereof. All examination questions shall be prepared from the contents of the text books, manuals and other materials designated or prepared by the Commissioner pursuant to this Section.

(c) The Commissioner shall appoint an Advisory Board consisting of eight persons of whom two shall be holders of licenses issued under this Article, two shall be employed by and familiar with the operations of legal reserve life insurance companies, two shall be general agents and managers, and two shall be citizens of the State of Texas who are neither agents, general managers, nor employees of legal reserve life insurance companies, which shall make recommendations to him with respect to the scope, type, and conduct of written examinations and the times and places within the State where they shall be held. This Advisory Board shall make such recommendations not less frequently than once every four years. The members of the Advisory Board shall serve without pay but shall be reimbursed for their reasonable expenses in attending meetings of the Advisory Board.

(d) An applicant other than a corporation for a license to act as a combination life insurance agent for a combination company, or as an industrial life agent for an industrial company, may, in lieu of taking and passing to the satisfaction of the Insurance Commissioner a personal written examination as provided in Sub-section (a) of this Section 5, submit to a personal written examination given by the combination or industrial insurer for which he is to be licensed, subject to the following definitions and conditions:

(2) Any combination or industrial insurer desiring to qualify to administer the examination to its agents shall file with the Commissioner a complete outline and explanation of the course of study and instruction to be given such applicants and the nature and manner of conducting the examinations of applicants and, after official approval thereof by the Commissioner, may administer such examinations.

(4) It shall be the duty of the Commissioner to investigate the manner and method of instruction and examination of each combination and industrial insurer as often as deemed necessary by the Commissioner and the Commissioner may, in his discretion, withdraw from any insurer the privilege of examining agents in lieu of the examination administered by the Commissioner pursuant to Sub-section (a) of this Section 5.

Agent May Be Licensed to Represent Additional Insurers

Sec. 8. (a) Any life insurance agent licensed in this state may represent and act as a life insurance agent for more than one legal reserve life insurance company at any time while his or its license is in force, if he or it so desires. Any such life insurance agent and the company involved must give notice to the Commissioner of Insurance of any additional appointment or appointments authorizing him or it to act as a life insurance agent for an additional legal reserve life insurance company or companies. Such notice must set forth the insurer or insurers which the agent is then licensed to represent, and shall be accompanied by a certificate from each insurer to be named in each additional appointment, that said insurer desires to appoint the applicant as its agent. This notice shall also contain such other information as the Commissioner may require. The agent shall be required to pay a fee of $8.00 for each additional appointment applied for, which fee shall accompany the notice. Any insurer may file a request with the Insurance Commissioner for notification in the event any agent licensed to represent such insurer has given the Commissioner of Insurance notice of an additional appointment to represent another insurer; and in such event the Commissioner shall notify the insurer filing such request.

(b) Any life insurance agent licensed in this state may place excess or rejected risks with any legal reserve life insurance company lawfully doing business in this state other than an insurer such agent is licensed to represent; provided, however, that such life insurance agent shall procure an additional appointment to represent such other insurer before receiving commissions or other compensation for his or its services.

Expiration and Renewal of License

Sec. 9. (a) Each license issued to a life insurance agent shall expire two years following the date of issue, unless prior thereto it is suspended or revoked by the Insurance Commissioner or the authority of the agent to act for the insurer is terminated.

(b) Licenses which have not expired or which have not been suspended or revoked, may be renewed upon request in writing of the agent.

(c) Each request for renewal of license shall show whether the agent devotes all or part of his or its efforts to acting as a life insurance agent, and if part only, how much time he or it devotes to such work.

(d) Upon the filing of a request for renewal of license, and payment of a renewal fee of $25.00 for such license, prior to the date of expiration, the current license shall continue in force until the renewal license is issued by the Commissioner or until the Commissioner has refused, for cause, to issue such renewal license, as provided in Section 12, of this Act, and has given notice of such refusal in writing to the insurer and the agent.

(e) The appointment or appointments given under Section 4 or Section 8 of this Act authorizing the agents to act as a life insurance agent for a legal reserve life insurance company or companies, shall continue in full force and effect, without the necessity of renewal, until terminated and withdrawn by the companies in accordance with Section 11 of this Act, or otherwise terminated in accordance with this Act, and each renewal license issued to the agent shall authorize him or it to represent and act for the companies for which he or it holds an appointment until the appointment is so terminated, and the agent shall prima facie be deemed, for the purpose of this Article, to be the agent of the appointing companies, provided that on or before April 1st of each and every calendar year, commencing on or before April 1, 1968, each such company so appointing such life insurance agent shall file with the Commissioner a certificate, upon forms promulgated by the Commissioner, certifying that such legal reserve life insurance company desires to continue the appointment of such life insurance agent, and if such company shall for any reason fail to file such certificate for any year as relates to such agent, it shall be deemed and considered for all purposes that such company has terminated the appointment of such life insurance agent in like manner as if compliance has been made by such company with Section 11 of this Act.

Sec. 10. The Life Insurance Commissioner, if he is satisfied with the honesty and trustworthiness of the applicant, may issue a temporary life insurance agent's license, effective for ninety days, without requiring the applicant to pass a written examination, as follows:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 10(a) to (b)(3)]

(4) that such person will complete, under such insurer's supervision, at least forty hours of training as prescribed by sub-section (e) of Section 10 of this Act within fourteen days from the date on which the application and certificate were delivered or mailed to the Commissioner.

(5) The Commissioner shall have the authority to cancel, suspend, or revoke the temporary appointment powers of any life insurance company, if, after notice and hearing, he finds that such company has abused such temporary appointment powers. In considering such abuse, the Commissioner may consider, but is not limited to, the number of temporary appointments made by a company, the percentage of appointees sitting for the examination as life insurance agents under this Article as it may be in violation of sub-section (d) of this Section, and the number of appointees successfully passing said examination. Appeals from the Commissioner's decision shall be made in accordance with Section 13 hereof.

(c) At least forty hours of training must be administered to any applicant for a temporary license as herein defined within fourteen days from the date on which the application and certificate were delivered or mailed to the Commissioner. Such training program shall be constructed so as to provide an applicant with the basic knowledge of:

(1) the broad principles of insurance, licensing, and regulatory laws of this State; and

(2) the obligations and duties of a life insurance agent.

The Commissioner of Insurance may, in his discretion, require that such training program shall be filed with the State Board of Insurance for approval in the event he finds an abuse of temporary appointment powers under sub-section (b)(5) of this Section.

(d) Each insurer is responsible for requiring at least 70 percent of such insurer's applicants for temporary licenses during a fiscal year to sit for the examination as defined in Section 5 of this Act.

Denial, Refusal, Suspension, or Revocation of Licenses

Sec. 12. (a) A license may be denied, or a license duly issued may be suspended or revoked or the renewal thereof refused by the Insurance Commissioner if, after notice and hearing as hereafter provided, he finds that the applicant, individually or through any officer, director, or shareholder, for, or holder of such license:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 12(a)(1) to (8)]

(4) Has misappropriated or converted to his or its own use or illegally withheld money belonging to an insurer or an insured or beneficiary; or

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 12(a)(5) to (8)]

(9) Has obtained, or attempted to obtain such license, not for the purpose of holding himself or itself out to the general public as a life insurance agent, but primarily for the purpose of soliciting, negotiating or procuring life insurance or annuity contracts covering himself or itself or members of his family or his or its business associates; or

(b) Before any license shall be denied (except for failure to pass a required written examination), or suspended or revoked, or the renewal thereof refused hereunder, the Insurance Commissioner shall give notice of his intention so to do, by registered mail, to the applicant for, or holder of such license and the insurer whom he or it represents or who desires that he or it be licensed, and shall set a date not less than twenty days from the date of mailing such notice when the applicant or licensee and a duly authorized representative of the insurer may appear to be heard and produce evidence. In the conduct of such hearing, the Commissioner or any regular salaried employee specially designated by him for such purpose shall have power to administer oaths, to require the appearance of and examine any person under oath, and to require the production of books, records or papers relevant to the inquiry upon his own initiative or upon the request of the applicant or licensee. Upon termination of such hearing, findings shall be reduced to writing and, upon approval by the Commissioner, shall be filed in his office and notice of the findings sent by registered mail to the applicant or licensee and the insurer concerned.

INSURANCE CODE

(c) No applicant or licensee whose license has been denied, refused or revoked hereunder (except for failure to pass a required written examination) shall be entitled to file another application for a license as a life insurance agent within one year from the effective date of such denial, refusal or revocation, or, if judicial review of such denial, refusal or revocation is sought, within one year from the date of final court order or decree affirming such action. Such application, when filed after one year, may be refused by the Commissioner unless the applicant shows good cause why the denial, refusal or revocation of his or its license shall not be deemed a bar to the issuance of a new license.

Judicial Review of Acts of Commissioner

Sec. 13. If the said Insurance Commissioner shall refuse an application for any license provided for in this Act, or shall suspend, revoke or refuse to renew any such license or permit at said hearing, then any such applicant or accused may appeal from said order by filing suit against the Insurance Commissioner as defendant in any of the District Courts of Travis County, Texas, or in any District Court in the county of the applicant's residence or principal place of business, and not elsewhere, within twenty (20) days from the date of the order of said Insurance Commissioner.

Said action shall have precedence over all other causes of a different nature on the docket. The action shall not be limited to questions of law and shall be tried and determined upon a trial de novo to the same extent as now provided for in the case of an appeal from the justice court to the county court. Either party to said action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause, and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court over all causes of a different character therein pending. The Board shall not be required to give any appeal bond in any cause arising hereunder.

Penalty

Sec. 14. Any person or officer, director, or shareholder of a corporation required to be licensed by this Act who individually, or as an officer or employee of a legal reserve life insurance company, or other corporation, violates any of the provisions of this Act shall, in addition to any other penalty specifically provided, be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than $500.00 or imprisoned not more than six months, or both, each such violation being a separate offense hereunder. In addition, if such offender or corporation of which he is an officer, director, or shareholder holds a license as a life insurance agent, such license shall automatically expire upon such conviction.

The term “customer” as used herein shall mean any person, firm or corporation to whom such corporation sells or attempts to sell a policy of insurance, or from whom such corporation accepts an application for insurance. Such ability shall be proven in one of the following ways:

The term “customer” as used herein shall mean any person, firm or corporation to whom such corporation sells or attempts to sell a policy of insurance, or from whom such corporation accepts an application for insurance. Such ability shall be proven in one of the following ways:

Expiration of License; Renewal

Sec. 8. Every license issued to a local recording agent shall expire two years from the date of its issue, unless an application to qualify for the renewal of such license shall be filed with the Board of Insurance Commissioners and fee paid on or before such date, in which event the license sought to be renewed shall continue in full force and effect until renewed or renewal is denied. Every license issued to a solicitor for a local recording agent shall expire on the same date that the license of the local recording agent expires, unless an application to qualify for the renewal of the local recording agent’s license and the solicitor’s license shall be filed with the Board of Insurance Commissioners and fee paid on or before such date, in which event the solicitor’s license sought to be renewed shall continue in full force and effect until renewed or renewal is denied.

Fees Payable Before Examination

Applicants required to be examined shall, at time and place of examination, pay prior to being examined the following fees: For a local recording agent’s license a fee of Twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and for a solicitor’s license a fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00). Art. 21.21A. Misrepresentations of Policy Terms; Penalty

Sec. 1. No insurer or agent thereof may make any contract of insurance or agreement as to such contract other than as expressed in the policy issued thereon, nor may any such insurer or any officer, agent, solicitor or representative thereof, pay, allow or give, or offer to pay, allow or give, directly or indirectly as an inducement to insurance, any rebate of premium payable on the policy, or any special favor or advantage in the dividends or other benefits to accrue thereon or any paid employment or contract for service of any kind, or any thing of value or inducement whatever, not specified in the policy; or give, sell or purchase, or offer to give, sell or purchase, as an inducement to insurance or in connection therewith, any stocks, bonds or other securities of any insurer or other corporation, association or partnership, or any dividends or profits to accrue thereon, or anything of value whatsoever not specified in the policy, or issue any policy containing any special or bond contract or similar provision by the terms of which said policy will share or participate in any special fund derived from a tax or a charge against any portion of the premium on any other policy.

Sec. 2. Nor may any such corporation, society, or association, or officer, director, agent, or representative thereof, or any other person, make any misleading representations or incomplete comparisons of policies or certificates of membership to any person insured in such corporation, association, or society, or member thereof, for the purpose of inducing or tending to induce such person to lapse, forfeit, or surrender said insurance or membership therein.

Sec. 3. If any person violates any of the provisions of this Article, the person shall, in addition to any other penalty specifically provided, be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

Sec. 4. The commissioner, upon giving 10 days' notice of hearing by certified mail, and upon hearing, may suspend or cancel the certificate, charter, permit, or license to engage in the business of insurance of any society, association, corporation, or person violating the provisions of this Article.

SUBCHAPTER D. CONSOLIDATION, LIQUIDATION, REHABILITATION, REORGANIZATION OR CONSERVATION OF INSURERS

Art. 21.25. Mergers and Consolidations of Stock Insurers

Purchase of Outstanding Stock; Conditions and Limitations

Sec. 7. One life insurance corporation may purchase or contract to purchase all or part of the outstanding stock of another life insurance corporation for purposes of merger or consolidation. The provisions contained in Article 3.39 of the Insurance Code which limit investments in the corporate stock of another corporation shall not apply provided that such purchase or contract to purchase shall be subject to the following conditions or limitations:
(b) The purchasing corporation shall either (1) initially purchase or contract to purchase at least the number of shares of the stock of the other insurance corporation necessary to vote an approval of such merger or consolidation under the laws of the state in which such other insurance corporation was organized, (2) offer to purchase, make a tender offer for, request or invite tenders of, or otherwise seek to acquire, in the open market or otherwise, at least the number of shares of the stock of the other insurance corporation necessary to vote an approval of such merger or consolidation under the laws of the state in which such other corporation was organized, or (3) by any combination of the provisions of (1) and (2) hereof, obtain or seek to obtain the number of shares of stock of the other insurance corporation necessary to vote an approval of such merger or consolidation under the laws of the state in which such other insurance corporation was organized; and

(c) No such purchase of stock, offer to purchase, tender offer, request or invitation to purchase stock in excess of the limits of Article 3.39 of the Insurance Code may be made until such proposed purchase, offer to purchase, tender offer, request or invitation to purchase has been filed with and approved by the commissioner in accordance with the provisions of Article 21.49–1 of this code; and

(d) Following the date of the contract to purchase such shares or the date of the commissioner's approval of such purchase, offer to purchase, tender offer, request or invitation to purchase such stock, whichever shall first occur, the corporation whose stock is being purchased shall not purchase or contract to purchase any of its own shares as treasury stock, issue or contract to issue any of its authorized but unissued stock, nor shall such corporation make any investments in or loans to the purchasing corporation or any of its affiliates unless such investment or loan is otherwise authorized and approved in advance by the commissioner under the provisions of Article 21.49–1, as amended, of the Insurance Code; and

(e) The merger or consolidation shall become effective on or before December 31st in the second year following the year in which the initial purchase of such stock is made or the initial contract to purchase is executed, whichever shall occur first, unless the commissioner for good cause shown shall extend such time for the effective date of the merger or consolidation; and

(f) If the merger or consolidation fails to become effective within such time as may be finally determined and extended and approved by the commissioner, the purchasing corporation shall sell or otherwise dispose of such purchased shares which are in excess of the investment limitations of Article 3.39 of this code within six months of such final effective date; and

(g) In no event shall any sums actually paid out by the purchasing corporation for the purchase of stock acquired or obtained hereunder include the minimum capital, minimum surplus, and policy reserves required by law for such corporation.

Art. 21.26. Purchase of Stock for Total Assumption Reinsurance

Sec. 1. Nothing in this Act or in the Insurance Code shall be construed as in any way affecting or limiting the right of a life insurance corporation organized or operating under Chapter Three (3) or Chapter Eleven (11) of the Insurance Code of the State of Texas to purchase or to contract to purchase all or part of the outstanding shares of another life insurance corporation, domestic or foreign, doing a similar line of business for the purpose of reinsuring all of the business of such other insurance corporation and assuming all of the liabilities and taking over all of the assets of such other corporation. The provisions contained in Article 3.39 of the Insurance Code limiting investments in the purchase of the corporate shares of another corporation shall not apply to such purchase or contract to purchase provided that:

(b) The reinsuring corporation shall either (1) initially purchase or contract to purchase the number of shares of the stock of the other insurance corporation necessary to vote an approval of a total assumption reinsurance agreement under the laws of the state in which such other insurance corporation was organized, (2) offer to purchase, make a tender offer for, request or invite tenders of, or otherwise seek to acquire, in the open market at least the number of shares of the stock of the other insurance corporation necessary to vote an approval of such reinsurance agreement under the laws of the state in which such other insurance corporation was organized; and
(c) No such purchase of stock, offer to purchase, tender offer, request or invitation to purchase stock in excess of the limits of Article 3.39 of the Insurance Code may be made until such proposed purchase, offer to purchase, tender offer, request or invitation to purchase has been filed with and approved by the commissioner in accordance with the provisions of Article 21.49-1 of this code; and

(d) Following the date of the contract to purchase such shares or the date of the commissioner's approval of such purchase, offer to purchase, tender offer, request or invitation to purchase such stock, whichever shall first occur, the corporation whose stock is being purchased shall not purchase or contract to purchase any of its own shares as treasury stock, issue or contract to issue any of its authorized but unissued stock, nor shall such corporation make any investments in or loans to the purchasing corporation or any of its affiliates unless such investment or loan is otherwise authorized and approved in advance by the commissioner under the provisions of Article 21.49-1, Insurance Code as amended, of the Insurance Code; and

(e) The reinsurance agreement shall become effective on or before December 31st in the second year following the year in which the initial purchase of such stock is made or the initial contract to purchase is executed, whichever shall occur first, unless the commissioner for good cause shown shall extend such time for the effective date of the reinsurance agreement; and

(f) If the reinsurance agreement fails to become effective within such time as may be finally determined and extended by the commissioner, the purchasing corporation must sell or otherwise dispose of such purchased shares which are in excess of the investment limitations of Article 3.39 of this code within six months of such final effective date; and

Art. 21.28-C. Property and Casualty Insurance Guaranty Act

Scope

Sec. 3. This Act shall apply to all kinds of insurance written by stock and mutual fire insurance companies, casualty insurance companies and fire and casualty insurance companies licensed to do business in this State; and shall also include all kinds of insurance written by county mutual insurance companies, Lloyd's and reciprocal exchanges licensed to do business in this State; but shall not apply to insurance written by farm mutual insurance companies or title insurance companies or title insurance written by any insurer; and shall not apply to mortgage guaranty insurance companies or mortgage guaranty insurance, nor to ocean marine insurance, nor to home warranty insurance; and shall not apply to Mexican casualty insurance companies or to policies of insurance issued by Mexican casualty insurance companies.

Definitions

Sec. 5. As used in this Act

(2) “Covered claim” is an unpaid claim of an insured or third party liability claimant which arises out of and is within the coverage and not in excess of the applicable limits of an insurance policy to which this Act applies, issued or assumed (whereby an assumption certificate is issued to the insured) by an insurer licensed to do business in this State, if such insurer becomes an “impaired insurer” after the effective date of this Act and (a) the third party claimant or liability claimant or insured is a resident of this State at the time of the insured event; or (b) the property from which the claim arises is permanently located in this State. “Covered claim” shall also include seventy-five percent (75%) of unearned premiums but in no event shall a “covered claim” for unearned premiums exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500). Individual “covered claims” shall be limited to Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) and shall not include any amount in excess of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000). “Covered claim” shall not include any amount due any reinsurer, insurer, insurance pool or underwriting association, as subrogation recoveries or otherwise. “Covered claim” shall not include supplementary payment obligations, including but not limited to adjustment fees and expenses, attorneys fees and expenses, court costs, interest and bond premiums, incurred prior to the determination that an insurer is an “impaired insurer” under this Act. With respect to a “covered claim” for unearned premiums, both persons who were residents of this State at the time the policy was issued and persons who are residents of this State at the time the company is found to be an “impaired insurer” shall be considered to have “covered claims” under this Act.
When the board of directors shall determine that additional funds are needed in any of the three accounts, they shall advise the Commissioner who shall make such assessments as may be needed to produce the necessary funds. The Commissioner in determining the proportionate amount to be paid by individual insurers under an assessment shall take into consideration the lines of business written by the impaired insurer and shall assess individual insurers in proportion to the ratio that the total net direct written premium collected in the State of Texas by the insurer for such line or lines of business during the next preceding year bears to the total net direct written premium collected by all insurers (except impaired insurers) in the State of Texas for such lines of business. Assessments during any calendar year may be made up to, but not in excess of, two percent (2%) of each insurer's net direct written premium for the preceding calendar year in the lines of business for which the assessments are being made. If the maximum assessment in any calendar year does not provide an amount sufficient for payment of covered claims of impaired insurers, assessments may be made in the next and successive calendar years.

Insurers designated as impaired insurers by the Commissioner shall be exempt from assessment from and after the date of such designation and until the Commissioner determines that such insurer is no longer an impaired insurer.

It shall be the duty of each insurer to pay the amount of its assessment to the association within thirty (30) days after the Commissioner gives notice of the assessment, and assessments may be collected on behalf of the association by the conservator or receiver through suits brought for that purpose. Venue for such suits shall lie in Travis County, Texas, and actions to collect such assessments shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature. Either party to said action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction over said cause and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said appellate court having jurisdiction over said cause and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court over all causes of a different character therein pending. Neither the receiver, the conservator, nor the association shall be required to give an appeal bond in any cause arising hereunder.

Funds advanced by the association under the provisions of the Act shall not become assets of the impaired insurer but shall be deemed a special fund loaned to the receiver or the conservator for payment of covered claims, which loan shall be repayable to the extent available from the funds of such impaired insurer, as herein provided.
Income from the investment of any of the funds of the association may be transferred to the administrative account authorized in Section 14A(1) of this article. The funds in this account may be used by the association for the purpose of meeting administrative costs and other general expenses of the association. Upon notification by the association of the amount of any additional funds needed for the administrative account the Commissioner shall assess member insurers to obtain the needed funds in the same manner as hereinbefore set out, provided, that he shall take into consideration the net direct written premium collected in the State of Texas for all lines of business covered by this article.

Penalty for Failure to Pay Assessments

Sec. 8. The Commissioner may suspend or revoke, after notice and hearing, the certificate of authority to transact business in this State of any insurer who fails to pay an assessment when due, and the association shall promptly report to the Commissioner any such failure.

Any insurer whose certificate of authority to do business in this State is cancelled or surrendered shall be liable for any unpaid assessments made prior to the date of such cancellation or surrender.

Accounting for and Repayment of Assessments

Sec. 9. Upon receipt from an insurer of payment of an assessment or partial assessment, the association shall provide the insurer with a participation receipt which shall create a liability against the account for the line or lines of business for which the assessment was made. The account from which an advance is made to an impaired insurer for the payment of covered claims shall be regarded as a general creditor of the impaired insurer for the amount of funds so advanced; provided, however, that with reference to the remaining balance of any advances received by the receiver or conservator and not expended in payment of “covered claims” the claim of such account shall have preference over other general creditors. The receiver or conservator of any impaired insurer shall adopt accounting procedures reflecting the expenditure and use of all funds received from the association and shall make a final report of the expenditure and use of such funds to the Commissioner and to the association, which final report shall set forth the remaining balance, if any, from the moneys advanced. The receiver or conservator shall also make any interim reports concerning such accounting as may be required by the Commissioner or requested by the association. Upon completion of the final report, the receiver or conservator shall, as soon thereafter as is practicable, refund by line of business the remaining balance of such advances to the accounts maintained by the association.

Should the association at any time determine that there exist monies in the account for any line of business in excess of those reasonably necessary for efficient future operation under the terms of this Act, it shall cause such excess monies to be returned pro rata to the holders of any participation receipts on which there is a balance outstanding after deducting any credits taken against premium taxes as authorized in Section 15 of this article, which receipts were issued for an assessment on the same line of business as that for which the excess monies are found to exist. If after such a distribution the association finds that an excess amount still exists in any such fund, or if there are no such participation receipts on which there is an outstanding balance, it shall cause such excess amount to be deposited with the State Treasurer for credit to the general fund of this State.

Sec. 10. When an insurer has been designated by the Commissioner as an impaired insurer, the receiver or conservator, as the case may be, shall marshal all assets of the impaired insurer, including but not limited to those which are designated as or that constitute reserve assets offsetting reserve liabilities for all liabilities falling within the definition of “covered claim” as defined in this Act. The receiver or conservator shall apply all of such assets to the payment of covered claims, but may utilize funds received from the association in the payment of claims, pending orderly liquidation or disposition of such assets. When all covered claims have been paid or satisfied by the receiver or conservator, any balance remaining from the liquidation or disposition of such assets shall first be applied in repayment of funds expended from those advanced by the association. Such repayments shall be credited as remaining balances and be refunded as provided in Section 9 of this Act.

In addition to authorization to make actual payment of covered claims, the receiver or conservator is specifically authorized to utilize such marshalled assets and funds derived from the association for the purpose of negotiating and consummating contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or contracts of substitution to provide for outstanding liabilities of covered claims. This Act shall not be construed to impose restrictions or limitations upon the authority granted or authorized the Commissioner, the conservator or the receiver elsewhere in the Insurance Code and other statutes of this State but shall be construed and authorized for use in conjunction with other portions of the Insurance Code dealing with delinquency proceedings or threatened insolvencies or supervisions or conservatorships.
Approval of Covered Claims

Sec. 11. Covered claims against an impaired insurer placed in temporary or permanent receivership under an order of liquidation, rehabilitation or conservation by a court of competent jurisdiction shall be processed and acted upon by the receiver or ancillary receiver in the same manner as other claims as provided in Article 21.28 of the Insurance Code and as ordered by the court in which such receivership is pending; provided, however, that funds received from the association shall be liable only for the difference between the amount of the covered claims approved by the receiver and the amount of the assets marshalled by the receiver for payment to holders of covered claims; and provided further, that in ancillary receiverships in this State, funds received from the association shall be liable only for the difference between the amount of the covered claims approved by the ancillary receiver and the amount of assets marshalled by the receivers in other states for application to payment of covered claims within this State. Such funds received from the association shall not be liable for any amount over and above that approved by the receiver for a covered claim, and any action brought by the holder of such covered claim appealing from the receiver’s action shall not increase the liability of such funds; provided, however, that the receiver may review his action in approving a covered claim and for just cause modify such approval at any time during the pendency of the receivership.

If a conservator is appointed to handle the affairs of an impaired insurer the conservator shall determine whether or not covered claims should or can be provided for in whole or in part by reinsurance, assumption or substitution. Upon determination by the conservator that actual payment of covered claims should be made the conservator shall give notice of such determination to claimants falling within the class of “covered claims.” The conservator shall mail such notice to the latest address reflected in the records of the impaired insurer. If the records of the impaired insurer do not reflect the address of a claimant, the conservator may give notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation. Such notice shall state the time within which the claimant must file his claim with the conservator, which time shall in no event be less than ninety (90) days from the date of the mailing or publication of such notice. The conservator may require, in whole or in part, that sworn claim forms be filed and may require that additional information or evidence be filed as may be reasonably necessary for the conservator to determine the legality or the amount due under a covered claim. When an impaired insurer has been placed in conservatorship, the funds received from the association shall be liable only for the difference between the amount of the covered claim approved by the conservator and the amount of assets marshalled by the conservator for payment to holders of covered claims. Any action brought by the holder of such covered claim against the impaired insurer shall not increase the liability of such funds; provided, however, that the conservator may review his action in approving a covered claim and may for just cause modify such approval at any time during the pendency of the conservatorship.

Upon determination by the conservator that actual payment of covered claims should be made or upon order of the court to the receiver to give notice for the filing of claims, any person who has a cause of action against an insured of the impaired insurer under a liability insurance policy issued or assumed by such insurer shall (if such cause of action meets the definition of “covered claim”) have the right to file a claim with the receiver or the conservator, regardless of the fact that such claim may be contingent, and such claim may be approved as a “covered claim” (1) if it may be reasonably inferred from the proof presented upon such claim that such person would be able to obtain a judgment upon such cause of action against such insured; and (2) if such person shall furnish suitable proof that no further valid claims against such insurer arising out of his cause of action other than those already presented can be made; and (3) if the total liability of such insurer to all claimants arising out of the same act of its insured shall be no greater than its total liability would be were it not in liquidation, rehabilitation or conservation. In the proceedings of considering “covered claims” no judgment against an insured taken after the date of the commencement of the delinquency proceedings or the appointment of a conservator shall be considered as evidence of liability, or of the amount of damages, and no judgment against an insured taken by default or by collusion prior to the commencement of the delinquency proceedings or the appointment of a conservator shall be considered as conclusive evidence either (1) of the liability of such insured to such person upon such cause of action, or (2) of the amount of damages to which such person is therein entitled.

The acceptance of payment from the receiver or conservator by the holder of a covered claim or the acceptance of the benefits of contracts negotiated by the receiver or conservator providing for reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or for substitution shall constitute an assignment to the impaired insurer of any cause of action or right of the holder of such covered claim arising from the occurrence upon which the covered claim is based. Such assignment shall be to the extent of the amount accepted or the value of the benefits provided by such contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or substitution.

Release from Conservatorship or Receivership

Sec. 13. An impaired insurer placed in conservatorship or receivership for which advances have been made under the provisions of this Act shall not be authorized, upon release from conservatorship or receivership, to issue new or renewal insurance policies until such time as the impaired insurer has repaid in full to the association the funds advanced by it; provided, however, the Commissioner may, upon application of the association and after hearing, permit the issuance of new policies in accordance with a plan of operations by the released insurer for repayment of advances. The Commissioner may, in approving such plan, place such restrictions upon the issuance of new or renewal policies as he deems necessary to the implementation of the plan.

Advisory Association

Sec. 14. A. Creation of the Association. (1) There is hereby created a nonprofit legal entity to be known as the Texas Property and Casualty Guaranty Association. All member insurers shall be and remain members of the association as a condition precedent to their authority to transact insurance in this State. The association shall perform its functions under the plan of operation established and approved as set out below and shall exercise its powers through a board of directors established as set out below. For the purposes of administration and assessment, the board shall establish four accounts:

(a) the administrative account;
(b) the workmen’s compensation account;
(c) the automobile account; and
(d) the other lines of insurance account.

(2) The association shall come under the immediate supervision of the Commissioner and shall be subject to the applicable provisions of the insurance laws of this State.

B. Board of Directors. (1) The association shall exercise its powers through a board of directors consisting of eight (8) persons who shall be chosen from employees or officers of the member insurers and who shall be chosen to give fair representation to all member insurers giving due consideration to the various categories of premium income, geographical location, and segments of the industry represented in Texas. Members of the board shall be elected for overlapping four-year terms, with the terms of two of the members expiring each year.

The initial membership of the board of directors shall consist of the industry representatives in the Texas Property and Casualty Advisory Association as it exists under this Act prior to the time this amendment takes effect, and those members shall serve out the terms for which they were elected to the advisory association. Their replacements shall be elected by the member insurers under procedures to be established in the plan of operation. All directors shall be eligible to succeed themselves in office.

(2) Directors shall not receive any remuneration or emolument of office, but they shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual expenses incurred in performing their duties as directors.

C. Powers and Duties of Association. In addition to the powers and duties enumerated in other sections of this article, the association:

(1) May render assistance and advice to the Commissioner, upon his request, concerning rehabilitation, payment of claims, continuations of coverage, or the performance of other contractual obligations of any impaired insurer;
(2) Shall have the standing to appear before any court in this State with jurisdiction over an impaired insurer concerning which the association is or may become obligated under this Act;
(3) May enter into such contracts as are necessary or proper to carry out the provisions and purposes of this article;
(4) May sue or be sued, including taking any legal actions necessary or proper for recovery of any unpaid assessments;
(5) May employ or retain such persons as are necessary to handle the financial transactions of the association, and to perform such other functions as become necessary or proper under this Act;
(6) May negotiate and contract with any liquidator, rehabilitator, conservator, receiver, or ancillary receiver to carry out the powers and duties of the association; and
(7) May take such legal action as may be necessary to avoid the payment of improper claims.

D. Plan of Operation. (1)(a) The association shall submit to the Commissioner a plan of operation and any amendment thereto necessary or suitable to assure the fair, reasonable, and equitable administration of the association. The plan of operation and any amendments thereto shall become effective upon approval in writing by the Commissioner.

(b) If the association fails to submit a suitable plan of operation within one hundred and eighty (180) days following the effective date of this Act, or if at any time thereafter the association fails to submit suitable amendments to the plan, the Commissioner may, after notice and hearing, adopt and promulgate such reasonable rules as are necessary or advisable to effectuate the provisions of this Act. Such rules shall continue in force until modified by the Commissioner or superseded by a plan submitted by the association and approved by the Commissioner.
(2) All member insurers shall comply with the plan of operation.

(3) The plan of operation shall, in addition to requirements enumerated elsewhere in this Act:

(a) establish procedures for handling the assets of the association;
(b) establish the amount and method of reimbursing members of the board of directors under this section;
(c) establish regular places and times for meetings of the board of directors;
(d) establish procedures for records to be kept of all financial transactions of the association, its agents and the board of directors;
(e) establish any additional procedures for assessments under Section 7 of this article; and
(f) contain additional provisions necessary or proper for the execution of the powers and duties of the association.

E. Prevention of Impairments. To aid in the detection and prevention of insurer impairments:

(1) The board of directors shall, upon majority vote, notify the Commissioner of any information indicating any member insurer may be unable or potentially unable to fulfill its contractual obligations and may request appropriate investigation and action by the Commissioner who may, in his discretion, make such investigation and take such action as he deems appropriate.

(2) The board of directors shall advise and counsel with the Commissioner upon matters relating to the solvency of insurers. The Commissioner shall call a meeting of the board of directors when he determines that an insurer is insolvent or impaired and may call a meeting of the board of directors when he determines that a danger of insolvency or impairment of an insurer exists. Such meetings shall not be open to the public and only members of the board of directors, members of the State Board of Insurance, the Commissioner, and persons authorized by the Commissioner shall attend such meetings. The board of directors shall, upon majority vote, notify the Commissioner of any information indicating that an insurer may be unable or potentially unable to fulfill its contractual obligations and request a meeting with the Commissioner. At such meetings the Commissioner may divulge to the board of directors any information in his possession and any records of the State Board of Insurance, including examination reports or preliminary reports from examiners relating to such insurer. The Commissioner may summon officers, directors, and employees of an insolvent or impaired insurer (or an insurer the Commissioner considers to be in danger of insolvency or impairment) to appear before the board of directors for conference or for the taking of testimony. Members of the board of directors shall not reveal information received in such meetings to anyone unless authorized by the Commissioner or the State Board of Insurance or when required as witness in court. Board members and all of such meetings and proceedings under this section shall be subject to the same standard of confidentiality as is imposed upon examiners under Article 1.18 of the Insurance Code, as amended, except that no bond shall be required of a board member.

The board of directors shall, upon request by the Commissioner, attend hearings before the Commissioner and meet with and advise the Commissioner, liquidator, or conservator appointed by the Commissioner, on matters relating to the affairs of an impaired insurer and relating to action that may be taken by the Commissioner, liquidator, or conservator appointed by the Commissioner to best protect the interests of persons holding covered contractual obligations against an impaired insurer and relating to the amount and timing of partial assessments and the marshalling of assets and the processing and handling of contractual obligations.

(3) The board of directors may, upon majority vote, make reports and recommendations to the Commissioner upon any matter germane to the solvency, liquidation, rehabilitation, or conservation of any member insurer. Such reports and recommendations shall not be considered public documents. Reports or recommendations made by the board of directors to the Commissioner, liquidator, or conservator shall not be considered public documents, and there shall be no liability on the part of and no cause of action against a member of the board of directors or the board of directors for any report, individual report, recommendation, or individual recommendation by the board of directors or members to the Commissioner, liquidator, or conservator.

(4) The board of directors may, upon majority vote, make recommendations to the Commissioner for the detection and prevention of member insurer impairments.

(5) The board of directors shall, at the conclusion of any member insurer impairment in which the association carried out its duties under this article or exercised any of its powers under this article, prepare a report on the history and causes of such impairment, based on the information available to the association, and submit a report on same to the Commissioner.

(6) Any insurer that has an officer, director, or employee serving as a member of the board of directors shall not lose the right to negotiate for and enter into contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liability or contracts of substitution to provide for liabilities for contractual obligations with the receiver or conservator of an impaired insurer. The entering into any such contract shall not be deemed a conflict of interest.

(7) The association or any insurer assessed under this article shall be an interested party under Section 3(h) of Article 21.28 of the Insurance Code, as amended.

Recognition of Assessments in Premium Tax Offset

Sec. 15. Any assessment paid by an insurer under this Act shall be allowed to such insurer as a credit against its premium tax under Article 7064, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. The tax credit referred to herein shall be allowed at a rate of twenty percent (20%) per year for five (5) successive years following the date of assessment and at the option of the insurer may be taken over any assessment paid by the insurer and not claimed as such tax credit may be reflected in the books and records of the insurer as an admitted asset of the insurer for all purposes, including exhibition in annual statements pursuant to Article 6.12 of this Code.

Advertising Prohibited

Sec. 17a. It shall be unlawful for any insurer required to participate in the association to advertise or use in any manner for promotional purposes the fact that its policies are protected under this Act, and such acts of advertisement or promotion shall constitute unfair methods of competition or unfair or deceptive acts or practices under Article 21.21, Insurance Code, and shall be subject to the provisions thereof.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 18]

Certain Evidence Not Admissible; Unfair Practices

Sec. 19. (1) In any lawsuit brought by a conservator or receiver of an impaired insurer for the purpose of recovering assets of the impaired insurer, the fact that claims against the impaired insurer have been or will be paid under the provisions of this article shall not be admissible for any purposes and shall not be placed before any jury either by evidence or argument.

(2) The use in any manner of the protection afforded by this article by any person in the sale of insurance shall constitute unfair competition and unfair practices under Article 21.21 of the Insurance Code, as amended, and shall be subject to the provisions thereof.

Control Over Conflicts

Sec. 20. The provisions of this Act and the powers and functions authorized by this Act are to be exercised to the end that its purposes are accomplished. This Act is cumulative of existing laws, but in the event of conflict between this Act and any other law relating to the subject matter of this Act or its application, the provisions of this Act shall control.

Unconstitutional Application Prohibited

Sec. 21. This Act and law does not apply to any insurer or other person to whom, under the Constitution of the United States or the Constitution of the State of Texas, it cannot validly apply.

Severance Clause

Sec. 22. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Art. 21.48A. Prohibiting Certain Practices Relating to Insurance of Real or Personal Property

Definitions

Sec. 1. (1) "Lender" means any person, partnership, corporation, association, or other entity, or any agent, loan agent, servicing agent, or any loan or mortgage broker, who lends money and receives or otherwise acquires a mortgage, lien, deed of trust, or any other security interest in or upon any real or personal property as security for such loan.

(2) "Borrower" means any person, partnership, corporation, association, or other entity, who has or acquires a legal or equitable interest in real or personal property which is or becomes subject to a mortgage, lien, security agreement, deed of trust, or other security instrument.

Prohibited Practices

Sec. 2. (a) No Lender shall require a fee of over Ten Dollars ($10.00) for the substitution by the Borrower of an insurance policy for another insurance policy still in effect, or require any fee for the furnishing by the Borrower of an insurance policy for an existing policy upon termination of the existing policy, when such insurance policy is provided through an insurance company duly licensed to do business in the State of Texas pursuant to the provisions of this Insurance Code.

(b) No Lender shall directly or indirectly impose or require as a condition of any financing or lending of money or the renewal or the extension thereof, that the purchaser or borrower or his successors, shall procure any policy of insurance or the renewal or extension thereof, covering the property involved in the transaction, from or through any particular agent or agents, solicitor or solicitors, insurer or insurers, or any other person or persons, or from or through any particular type or class of any of the foregoing.

(c) No Lender shall use or permit the use of any of the information taken from a policy of insurance insuring the property of a Borrower for the purpose of soliciting insurance business from the Borrower, or make any of such information available to any other person for any purpose, unless such Lender has first been furnished specific written authority from the Borrower permitting or directing such particular use or disclosure; provided, however, this paragraph shall not prevent a Lender who is a licensed local recording agent from selling insurance to a Borrower.

(d) No Lender may require a Borrower to furnish evidence of insurance more than fifteen (15) days prior to the termination date of an existing policy.

Exceptions

Sec. 3. Nothing contained in Section 2 hereof shall be deemed to prevent such Lender from:

(a) requiring evidence, to be produced prior to the commencement or renewal of the risk, that insurance with a fixed termination date providing adequate coverage has been obtained in an amount sufficient to cover the debt or loan and that it will not be cancelled without reasonable notice to the lender;

(b) requiring insurance in an insurer authorized to do business and having a licensed resident agent in this state;

(c) refusing to accept or approve insurance in any particular insurer on reasonable and nondiscriminatory grounds relating to its financial soundness, or its facility to service the policy;

(d) providing adequate insurance coverage to protect the Lender's security interest in any property in accordance with the terms of the mortgage, security agreement, deed of trust, or other security instrument should the Borrower fail to furnish an insurance policy meeting the requirements established by the Lender as authorized by this article within fifteen (15) days prior to the termination date of an existing policy, and in such instance the Lender shall be entitled to use any information contained in the existing policy for the purpose of determining adequate insurance coverage;

(e) requiring at or before the time of delivery of an insurance policy to the Lender by a local recording agent or insurer a statement in writing from the Borrower designating such agent or insurer as his agent for such purpose; provided, however, such statement shall not be required when an agent or insurer is furnishing a renewal of an existing expiring policy provided by such agent or insurer;

(f) furnishing to any person, firm, or corporation who is or becomes the owner or holder of any note or obligation secured by a mortgage, security agreement, deed of trust, or other security instrument the policy of insurance or any information contained therein covering property which is security for such loan; or

(g) processing a claim under the terms of the insurance policy.

Violations, Enforcement, and Civil Remedies

Sec. 4. (a) The attorney general or the commissioner or board may institute any injunction or other proceeding to enforce the provisions of this article and to enjoin any person, partnership, corporation, association, or other entity from engaging or attempting to engage in any activity in violation of this article or any of its provisions. The provisions of this section are cumulative of the other penalties or remedies provided for by law.

(b) A Borrower may recover from any Lender who violates any of the provisions of this article civil damages in an amount equal to three (3) times the annual premium for the policy of insurance in force upon the mortgaged property. In the event that such policy of insurance be for a period of more than one (1) year, the annual premium shall be calculated by dividing the number of years of the duration of such policy into the total premium specified therein for such entire period.

(b) Filing Requirements of Negotiated Agreements. No person who has executed or entered into a privately negotiated agreement or contract directly with shareholders of a domestic insurer to acquire any voting security of such insurer by which, after the consummation thereof, such person would, directly or indirectly, or by conversion or by exercise of any right to acquire, be in control of such insurer, shall consummate or make effective any such agreement or control, or acquire any further right, title, or interest in such voting security, or exercise any control over such insurer, until and unless such person has filed with the commissioner a statement containing the information required by Subsection (c) of this section and such agreement, contract, and acquisition has been approved by the commissioner in the manner hereinafter prescribed. If any such partner, member, or person is a corporation the commissioner may require that the information called for by Clauses (1) through (12) shall be given with respect to such corporation, each officer and director of such corporation, and each person who is directly or indirectly the beneficial owner of more than 10 percent of the outstanding voting securities of such corporation.

If any material change occurs in the facts set forth in the statement filed with the commissioner and sent to such insurer pursuant to this section, an amendment setting forth such change, together with copies of all documents and other material relevant to such change, shall be filed with the commissioner and sent to such insurer within two business days after the person learns of such change.

(d) Alternative Filing Materials. If any offer, request, invitation, contract, agreement, or acquisition referred to in either Subsection (a) or Subsection (b) is proposed to be made by means of a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or in circumstances requiring the disclosure of similar information under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or under a State law requiring similar registration or disclosure, the person required to file the statement referred to in either Subsection (a) or Subsection (b) may utilize such documents in furnishing the information called for by that statement.

(e) Approval by Commissioner; Hearings. (1) The commissioner shall approve any such acquisition of control referred to in either Subsection (a) or Subsection (b) unless, after a public hearing thereon, he finds that:

(i) after the change of control the domestic insurer referred to in either Subsection (a) or Subsection (b) would not be able to satisfy the requirements for the issuance of a license to write the line or lines of insurance for which it is presently licensed;

(ii) the effect of such acquisition of control would be substantially to lessen competition in insurance in this State or tend to create a monopoly therein;

(iii) the financial condition of any acquiring party is such as might jeopardize the financial stability of the insurer, or prejudice the interest of its policyholders or the interests of any remaining security holders who are unaffiliated with such acquiring party;

(iv) the terms of the offer, request, invitation, agreement, or acquisition referred to in Subsection (a) are unfair and unreasonable to the securityholders of the insurer;

(v) the plans or proposals which the acquiring party has to liquidate the insurer, sell its assets or consolidate or merge it with any person, or to make any other material change in its business or corporate structure or management, are unfair, prejudicial, hazardous, or unreasonable to policyholders or stockholders of the insurer and not in the public interest;

(vi) the competence, trustworthiness, experience, and integrity of those persons who would control the operation of the insurer are such that it would not be in the interest of policyholders of the insurer and of the public to permit the merger or other acquisition of control; or

(vii) such acquisition or merger would violate any law of this or any other state or of the United States.

(2) The public hearing referred to in Clause (1) hereof shall be held within 30 days after the statement required by either Subsection (a) or Subsection (b) is filed, and at least 20 days' notice thereof shall be given by the commissioner to the person filing the statement and to the domestic insurer. Not less than 10 days' notice of such public hearing shall be given by the person filing the statement to such other persons as may be designated by the commissioner. The insurer shall give prompt notice of the hearing to its securityholders as prescribed in Subsection (f) hereof. The commissioner shall make a determination within 30 days after the conclusion of such hearing. At such hearing, the person filing the statement, the insurer, any person to whom notice of hearing was sent, and any other person whose interests may be affected thereby shall have the right to present evidence, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and offer oral and written arguments in connection therewith.

(f) Mailings to Shareholders; Payment of Expenses. Except as provided in Subsection (b), all statements, amendments, or other material filed pursuant to Subsection (a), (b), or (e), and all notices of public hearings held pursuant to Subsection (e), shall be mailed by the insurer to its shareholders within five business days after the insurer has received such statements, amendments, other material, or notices. The expenses of mailing shall be borne by the person making the filing. As security for the payment of such expenses, such person shall file with the commissioner an acceptable bond or other deposit in an amount to be determined by the commissioner.

(g) Exemptions. The provisions of this section shall not apply to:

(1) any offers, requests, invitations, agreements, or acquisitions by the person referred to in Subsection (a) who is a broker-dealer under state or federal securities laws of any voting security referred to in Subsection (a) which, immediately prior to consummation of such offer, request, invitation, agreement, or acquisition, was not issued and outstanding and which acquisition is solely for resale under a plan approved by the commissioner that will not reasonably result in acquisition of control on resale and where during the period prior to resale no actual positive act of control by virtue of those shares is committed;

(2) any transaction which is subject to the provisions of: (i) Article 21.25, Sections 1 through 5, of this code, dealing with the merger or consolidation of two or more insurers and complying with the terms of such article until the plan of merger or consolidation has been filed by the insurer with the Commissioner of Insurance in accordance with such Article 21.25. After the filing of such plan of merger or consolidation the transaction shall be subject to the approval provisions of Subsection (e) of Section 5 of this article, but the Commissioner may exempt such transaction from any or all of the other provisions and requirements of Section 5 of this article if he finds that the notice, proxy statement, and other materials furnished to shareholders and security holders in connection with such merger or consolidation contained reasonable and adequate factual and financial disclosure, material and information relating to such transaction, (ii) Article 11.20 of this code, (iii) Article 11.21 of this code, (iv) Article 14.13 of this code, (v) Article 14.61 of this code, (vi) Article 14.63 of this code, (vii) Article 21.26 of this code, provided that the requirements of said article are fully complied with, (viii) Article 22.15 of this code, and (ix) Article 22.19 of this code, provided that the reinsurance is a total direct reinsurance agreement; or

(3) any offer, request, invitation, agreement, or acquisition which the commissioner by order shall exempt therefrom as (i) not having been made or entered into for the purpose and not having the effect of changing or influencing the control of a domestic insurer, or (ii) as otherwise not comprehended within the purposes of this section.

(h) Retention of Control. (1) The following conditions affecting any controlled insurer, regardless of when such control has been acquired, are violations of this article: (i) the violation of this article, or other demonstration of untrustworthiness, by the insurer, its holding company or any controlling person, or any of the officers or directors of either; or (ii) the violation of any provision of Chapter 15 of the Business and Commerce Code, Chapter 785, Acts of the 60th Legislature, 1967, as amended, or any other antitrust law of this State or the holding company or any affiliate. If, after notice and an opportunity to be heard the commissioner determines that any of the foregoing violations exists, he shall reduce his findings to writing and shall have the effect of changing or influencing the control of a domestic insurer, or (ii) as otherwise not comprehended within the purposes of this section.

(2) The commissioner may require the submission of such information as he deems necessary to determine whether any retention of control complies with this article and may require, as a condition of approval of such retention of control, that all or any portion of such information be disclosed to the insurer's stockholders.

(i) Duty of Insurer. Unless subject to registration under Section 3, or unless it is a foreign insurer not subject to disclosure requirements and standards adopted by statute or regulation in the jurisdiction of its domicile which are substantially similar to those contained in this article, or unless acquisition of its control is subject to Subsections (a), (b), (c), and (d) hereof, every authorized insurer shall, on or before November 1, 1971, or within 30 days after any event requiring notice hereunder, whichever is later, notify the commissioner in writing of the identity of any person whom the insurer then knows, or has reason to believe, controls or has taken any action, other than preliminary negotiations or discussions, to acquire control of the insurer.

(j) Violations. The following shall be violations of this section:

(1) the failure to file any statement, amendment, or other material required to be filed pursuant to this section; or

(2) the effectuation or any attempt to effectuate an acquisition of control of, or merger with, a domestic insurer unless the commissioner has given his approval thereto.

(k) Jurisdiction; Consent to Service of Process. The courts of this State are hereby vested with jurisdiction over every person not resident, domiciled, or authorized to do business in this State who files a statement with the commissioner under this section, and over all actions involving such person arising out of violations of this section, and each such person shall be deemed to have performed acts equivalent to and constituting an appointment by such person of the commissioner to be his true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful process in any action, suit, or proceeding arising out of violations of this section. Copies of all such lawful process shall be served on the commissioner and transmitted by registered or certified mail by the commissioner to such person at his last known address.

Subsidiaries of Insurers

Sec. 6. (a) Any domestic insurer, either by itself or in cooperation with one or more persons, may organize, acquire, invest in or make loans to one or more subsidiaries, and may loan to or invest in affiliates, as permitted by the investment provisions of the Insurance Code.

(b) Additional investment authority. In addition to investments in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities permitted under all other sections of the Insurance Code, a domestic insurer may also:

(1) invest in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities of one or more subsidiaries and affiliates organized for any lawful purpose amounts which in the aggregate do not exceed the lesser of five percent of the insurer's assets or 50 percent of the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders, but after such investments the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders must be reasonable in relation to the insurer's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs. In calculating the amount of such investments, there must be included (i) total net money or other consideration expended and obligations assumed in the acquisition or formation of a subsidiary, including all organizational expenses and contributions to capital and surplus of the subsidiary whether or not represented by the purchase of capital stock or issuance of other securities, and (ii) all amounts expended in acquiring additional common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities and all contributions to the capital or surplus of a subsidiary subsequent to its acquisition or formation;

(2) if the insurer's total liabilities, as calculated for National Association of Insurance Commissioners annual statement purposes, are less than 10 percent of assets, invest any amount in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities of one or more subsidiaries and affiliates organized for any lawful purpose, provided that such subsidiary or affiliate agrees to limit its investments in any particular asset so that such investments will not cause the amount of the total investment of the insurer to exceed the amount the insurer could have directly invested in such asset. For the purpose of this clause, "the total investment of the insurer" will include (i) any direct investment by the insurer in an asset and (ii) the insurer's proportionate share of any investment in such asset by any subsidiary or affiliate of the insurer, which must be calculated by multiplying the amount of the subsidiary's or affiliate's investment by the percentage of the insurer's ownership of such subsidiary or affiliate; and

(4) with the prior approval of the commissioner, invest any amount in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, or other securities of one or more subsidiaries and affiliates, but after such investment the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders must be reasonable in relation to the insurer's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs.

Valuation of Investment in a Subsidiary or Affiliate
Sec. 6A. (a) Valuation of an investment by an insurer in a subsidiary or affiliate of an insurer, which is not itself an insurer, shall be valued, subject to the additional provisions of this section, on the basis of the greater of:

(1) the net stockholder equity value owned by the insurer in the subsidiary or affiliate, adjusted to include the value of only such of the assets of such subsidiary as would constitute lawful investments for the insurer if acquired or held directly by the insurer; or

(2) one of the following bases appropriate to each type of subsidiary or affiliate owned by it, provided, however, that an insurer shall not be required to value the stock of all its subsidiaries or affiliates on the same basis:

(i) the net worth of the subsidiary or affiliate determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles as of the end of its most recent fiscal year, provided, subject to the other provisions of this section, that the financial statements of the subsidiary or affiliate for its most recent fiscal year have been audited by an independent certified public accountant in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards; or

(ii) a value equal to the cost of the stock of the subsidiary or affiliate, provided such value is determined and adjusted to reflect subsequent operating results in accordance with any of the otherwise applicable restrictions or prohibitions contained in this code applicable to such investment of a company subject to this code, but such investments are subject to all of the provisions of Section 4 of this Act.

(d) Qualification of Investment. Whether any investment under Subsection (b) hereof meets the applicable requirements thereof is to be determined on a pro forma basis as of the time immediately after such investment is made, taking into account the insurer's assets, liabilities, and surplus as regards policyholders, the then outstanding principal balance of all previous investments in debt obligations of subsidiaries and affiliates, and the value of all previous investments in equity securities of subsidiaries and affiliates.

(e) Cessation of Control. If an insurer ceases to control a subsidiary, it must dispose of any investment therein made under Subsection (b) within three years from the time of the cessation of control or within such further time as the commissioner may prescribe and approve, unless at any time after the investment is made the investment otherwise meets the requirements of and qualifies for investment under any other section of this code, and the insurer has notified the commissioner thereof.

(2) if the insurer's total liabilities, as calculated for National Association of Insurance Commissioners annual statement purposes, are less than 10 percent of assets, invest any amount in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities of one or more subsidiaries and affiliates organized for any lawful purpose, provided, however, that an insurer shall not be required to value the stock of all its subsidiaries or affiliates on the same basis:

(i) the net worth of the subsidiary or affiliate determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles as of the end of its most recent fiscal year, provided, subject to the other provisions of this section, that the financial statements of the subsidiary or affiliate for its most recent fiscal year have been audited by an independent certified public accountant in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards; or

(ii) a value equal to the cost of the stock of the subsidiary or affiliate, provided such value is determined and adjusted to reflect subsequent operating results in accordance with any of the otherwise applicable restrictions or prohibitions contained in this code applicable to such investment of a company subject to this code, but such investments are subject to all of the provisions of Section 4 of this Act.
Art. 21.49-1

with generally accepted accounting principles; or

(iii) the market value of the stock of the subsidiary or affiliate, if the stock is listed on a national securities exchange; or

(iv) the value, if any, placed on the stock of such subsidiary or affiliate by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners; or

(v) any other value which the insurer can substantiate to the satisfaction of the commissioner as being a reasonable value.

(b) Within 60 days after the effective date of this section, an insurer shall file with the commissioner relevant information identifying, supporting, and justifying the value of and basis of valuation used in accordance with the provisions of Subsection (a) hereof for each of its noninsurer subsidiaries and affiliates.

(c) Within 30 days after the acquisition of a noninsurer subsidiary or affiliate, an insurer shall file with the commissioner relevant information identifying, supporting, and justifying the value of and the basis of valuation used in accordance with the provisions of Subsection (a) for each of its noninsurer subsidiaries and affiliates.

(d) A valuation basis used for a subsidiary or affiliate shall thereafter be consistently used unless a change is substantiated as reasonable and on that basis is approved in writing by the commissioner.

(e) If a subsidiary or affiliate is valued on the basis of Subsection (a)(2)(i) and the books of the subsidiary or affiliate are not audited at the time the valuation is included in the insurer's annual statement, the insurer shall thereafter report and explain the difference, if any, between the value of the subsidiary or affiliate as reported in the annual statement and the value as determined by audit. Such report and explanation shall be made as soon as possible following such audit.

(f) If any subsidiary or affiliate, which is not itself an insurance company, is valued other than on a basis of market value as defined in Subsection (a)(2)(iii), there shall be deducted from otherwise determined value a sum equal to the value claimed for any of its assets which would not constitute admitted assets for the insurer if held directly by the insurer, if such assets

(1) are held by the subsidiary or affiliate but used, under a lease agreement or otherwise, significantly in the conduct of the insurer's business; or

(2) were acquired from or purchased for the benefit or use of the insurer by the subsidiary or affiliate under specific circumstances that, in the opinion of the commissioner, support a reasonable finding that the primary purpose of such acquisition or purchase was the evasion or avoidance of the Insurance Code.

(g) The commissioner may, after notice and opportunity to be heard, determine that the basis used for valuation of the stock of any subsidiary or affiliate does not, under the specific circumstances of the case, reflect the value of the subsidiary or affiliate and may order either an adjustment in valuation or the use of one of the other specified bases of valuation.

Recission, Revocation, and Reversal of Unauthorized Transactions

Sec. 16. Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has entered into any transaction or act without having first complied with the provisions of this article applicable to such transaction or act, and in violation hereof, or has obtained his approval of or acquiescence in a transaction or act subject to this article based upon a material fraudulent misrepresentation, misstatement, or omission, the commissioner may, after giving notice and an opportunity to be heard, determine and order that such transaction or act be set aside, rescinded, revoked, reversed, and rendered void and of no force or effect, and that the parties to such transaction or act shall be returned to the position they would have occupied had not such transaction or act occurred in violation of this article.

Joint Underwriting Association

Sec. 3. (a) A joint underwriting association is hereby created, consisting of all insurers authorized to write and engaged in writing, within this state, on a direct basis, automobile liability and liability other than auto insurance on or after January 1, 1975, as provided in the Insurance Code, specifically including and applicable to Lloyds and reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges, but excluding farm mutual insurance companies as authorized by Chapter 16 of this code, and county mutual insurance companies as authorized by Chapter 17 of this code. Every such insurer shall be a member of the association and shall remain a member as a condition of its authority to continue to transact such kind of insurance in this state. The purpose of the association shall be to provide medical liability insurance on a self-supporting basis. The association shall not be a licensed insurer within the meaning of Article 1.14-2, Insurance Code.

(b) The association shall, pursuant to the provisions of this article and the plan of operation with respect to medical liability insurance, have the power on behalf of its members:

(1) to issue, or to cause to be issued, policies of insurance to applicants, including primary, excess, and incidental coverages and subject to limits as specified in the plan of operation; provided that no individual or organization may be insured by policies issued by the association for an amount exceeding a total of $750,000 per occurrence and $1.5 million aggregate per annum;

(2) to underwrite such insurance and to adjust and pay losses with respect thereto, or to appoint service companies to perform those functions;

(3) to either or both accept and refuse the assumption of reinsurance from its members; and

(4) to cede and purchase reinsurance.

(c)(1) The board shall, after consultation with the joint underwriting association, representatives of the public, the Texas Medical Association, the Texas Podiatry Association, the Texas Hospital Association, and other affected individuals and organizations, promulgate a plan of operation consistent with the provisions of this article, to become effective and operative no later than 90 days after the effective date of this Act.

(2) The plan of operation shall provide for economic, fair, and nondiscriminatory administration and for the prompt and efficient provision of medical liability insurance, and shall contain other provisions including, but not limited to, preliminary assessment of all members for initial expenses necessary to commence operations, establishment of necessary facilities, management of the association, assessment of members and assessment of policyholders to defray losses and expenses, administration of the policyholder’s stabilization reserve fund, commission arrangements, reasonable and objective underwriting standards, acceptance, assumption, and cession of reinsurance, appointment of servicing carriers, and procedures for determining amounts of insurance to be provided by the association.

(3) The plan of operation shall provide that any balance remaining in the funds of the association at the close of its fiscal year, meaning its then excess of revenue over expenditures after reimbursement of members’ contributions in accordance with Section 4(b)(5) of this article by the association shall be added to the reserves of the association.

(4) Amendments to the plan of operation may be made by the directors of the association, subject to the approval of the board, or shall be made at the direction of the board.

1Civil Statutes, art. 4590i.
Eligibility for Coverage

Sec. 3A. The board shall establish by order the categories of physicians and health care providers who are eligible to obtain coverage from the association and, from time to time, revise its order to include or exclude from eligibility particular categories of such physicians and health care providers.

Procedures

Sec. 4. (a)(1) Any health care provider or physician included in one of the categories of health care providers eligible for coverage by the association shall, on or after the effective date of the plan of operation, be entitled to apply to the association for such coverage. Such application may be made on behalf of an applicant by an agent authorized pursuant to Article 21.14 of this code.

(2) If the association determines that the applicant meets the underwriting standards of the association as prescribed in the plan of operation and there is no unpaid, uncontested premium, policyholder stabilization reserve fund charge, or assessment due from the applicant for prior insurance (as shown by the insured having failed to pay or make written objection to such charges within 30 days after billing) then the association, upon receipt of the premium and the policyholder stabilization reserve fund charge, or such portion thereof as is prescribed in the plan of operation, shall cause to be issued a policy of medical liability insurance for a term of one year.

(b)(1) The rates, rating plans, rating rules, rating classifications, territories, and policy forms applicable to the insurance written by the association and statistics relating thereto shall be subject to Subchapter B of Chapter 5 of the Insurance Code, as amended, giving due consideration to the past and prospective loss and expense experience for medical professional liability insurance within and without this state of all of the member companies of the association, trends in the frequency and severity of losses, the investment income of the association, and such other information as the board may require; provided, that if any article of the above subchapter is in conflict with any provision of this Act, this Act shall prevail.

(2) Within such time as the board shall direct, the association shall submit, for the approval of the board pursuant to Article 5.15 of the Insurance Code, an initial filing, in proper form, of policy forms, classifications, rates, rating plans, and rating rules applicable to medical liability insurance to be written by the association.

(3) Any deficit sustained by the association in any one year shall be recouped, pursuant to the plan of operation and the rating plan then in effect, by one or more of the following procedures in this sequence:

First, a contribution from the policyholder’s stabilization reserve fund until the same is exhausted.

Second, an assessment upon the policyholders pursuant to section 5(a) of this article;

Third, an assessment upon the members pursuant to Section 5(b) of this article. To the extent a member has paid one or more assessments and has not received reimbursement from the association in accordance with Subdivision (5) of this subsection, a credit against premium taxes under Article 7064, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended shall be allowed. The tax credit shall be allowed at a rate of 20 percent per year for five successive years following the year in which said deficit was sustained and at the option of the insurer may be taken over an additional number of years.

(4) After the initial year of operation, rates, rating plans, and rating rules, and any provision for recoupment should be based upon the association’s loss and expense experience, together with such other information based upon such experience as the board may deem appropriate. The resultant premium rates shall be on an actuarily sound basis and shall be calculated to be self-supporting.

(5) In the event that sufficient funds are not available for the sound financial operation of the association, in addition to assessments paid pursuant to the plan of operation in accordance with Section 3(c)(2) of this article and contributions from the policyholder’s stabilization reserve fund, all members shall, on a basis authorized by the board, as long as the board deems it necessary, contribute to the financial requirements of the association in the manner provided for in Section 5. Any assessment or contribution shall be reimbursed to the members with interest at a rate to be approved by the board.

Pending recoupment or reimbursement of assessments or contributions paid to the association by a member, the unrepaid balance of such assessments and contributions may be reflected in the books and records of the insurer as an admitted asset of the insurer for all purposes, including exhibition in annual statements pursuant to Article 6.12 of this code.

(e) Excess insurance coverage written for a health care provider or a physician by the association under this article shall be written on a following form basis to the primary insurance coverage of that health care provider.

Policyholder’s Stabilization Reserve Fund

Sec. 4A. There is hereby created a policyholder’s stabilization reserve fund which shall be administered as provided herein and in the plan of operation of the association. Each policyholder shall pay annually into the stabilization reserve fund a charge, the amount of which shall be established annually by advisory directors chosen by health care providers and physicians eligible for insurance in the association in accordance with the plan of operation. The charge shall be in proportion to each premium payment due for liability insurance through the association. Such charge shall be separately stated in the policy, but shall not constitute a part of premiums or be subject to premium taxation, servicing fees, acquisition costs, or any other such charges. The policyholder's stabilization reserve fund shall be collected and administered by the association and shall be treated as a liability of the association along with and in the same manner as premium and loss reserves. The fund shall be valued annually by the board of directors as of the close of the last preceding year. Collections of the stabilization reserve fund charge shall continue until such time as the net balance of the stabilization reserve fund is not less than the projected sum of premiums to be written in the year following valuation date. The fund shall be credited with all stabilization reserve fund charges collected from policyholders and shall be charged with any deficit from the prior year's operation of the association.

Sec. 5. (a) Each policyholder shall have contingent liability for a proportionate share of any assessment of policyholders made under the authority of this article. Whenever a deficit, as calculated pursuant to the plan of operation, is sustained by the association in any one year, its directors shall levy an assessment only upon those policyholders who held policies in force at any time within the two most recently completed calendar years in which the association was issuing policies preceding the date on which the assessment was levied. The aggregate amount of the assessment shall be equal to that part of the deficit not recouped from the stabilization reserve fund. The maximum aggregate assessment per policyholder shall not exceed the annual premium for the liability policy most recently in effect. Subject to such maximum limitation, each policyholder shall be assessed for that portion of the deficit reflecting the proportion which the earned premium on the policies of such policyholder bears to the total earned premium for all policies of the association in the two most recently completed calendar years.

(b) All insurers which are members of the association shall participate in its writings, expenses, and losses in the proportion that the net direct premiums, as defined herein, of each such member, excluding that portion of premiums attributable to the operation of the association, written during the preceding calendar year bears to the aggregate net direct premiums written in this state by all members of the association. Each insurer's participation in the association shall be determined annually on the basis of such net direct premiums written during the preceding calendar year, as reported in the annual statements and other reports filed by the insurer that may be required by the board. No member shall be obligated in any one year to reimburse the association on account of its proportionate share in the deficit from operations of the association in that year in excess of one percent of its surplus to policyholders and the aggregate amount not so reimbursed shall be reallocated among the remaining members in accordance with the method of determining participation prescribed in this subdivision, after excluding from the computation the total net direct premiums of all members not sharing in such excess deficit. In the event that the deficit from operations allocated to all members of the association in any calendar year shall exceed one percent of their respective surplus to policyholders, the amount of such deficit shall be allocated to each member in accordance with the method of determining participation prescribed in this subdivision.

Sec. 6. The association shall be governed by a board of nine directors, to be elected annually by the members of the association. On or before 15 days after the effective date of this Act, the State Board of Insurance shall appoint a temporary board of directors of the association which shall consist of nine members who are representatives of the association, selected so as to fairly represent various classes of member insurers and organizations of insurers. Such temporary board of directors shall serve until the first annual meeting of the members of the association or until their successors have been elected in accordance with this section. The first elected board shall be elected at the annual meeting of the members, or their authorized representatives, which shall be held at a time and place designated by the board.

Appeals

Sec. 7. (a) Any person insured or applying for insurance pursuant to this Act, or his duly authorized representative, or any affected insurer who may be aggrieved by an act, ruling, or decision of the association, may, within 30 days after such act, ruling, or decision, appeal to the board of directors of the association. The board of directors of the association shall hear said appeal within 30 days after receipt of such request or appeal and shall give not less than 10 days' written notice of the time and place of hearing to the person making such request or the duly authorized representative. Within 10 days after such hearing, the board of directors of the association shall affirm, reverse, or modify its previous action or the act, ruling, or decision appealed to the board of directors of the association.
Art. 21.49-3

INSURANCE CODE

(b) In the event any person insured or applying for insurance is aggrieved by the final action of the board of directors of the association or in the event the association is aggrieved by the action of the board with respect to any ruling, order, or determination of the board of directors of the association or the board, the aggrieved party may, within 30 days after such action, make a written request to the board for a hearing thereon. The board shall hear the association, or the appeal from an act, ruling, or decision of the association, within 30 days after receipt of such request or appeal and shall give not less than 10 days' written notice of the time and place of hearing to the association making such request or the person, or his duly authorized representative, appealing from the act, ruling, or decision of the board of directors of the association. Within 30 days after such hearing, the board shall affirm, reverse, or modify its previous action or the act, ruling, or decision appealed to the board. Pending such hearing and decision thereon, the board may suspend or postpone the effective date of its previous rule or of the act, ruling, or decision appealed to the board. The association, or the person aggrieved by any order or decision of the board, may thereafter appeal in accordance with Article 1.04(f) of the Insurance Code of Texas.

Privileged Communications

Sec. 8. There shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against the association, its agents or employees, an insurer, any licensed agent, or the board or its authorized representatives, for any statements made in good faith by them in any reports or communications, concerning risks insured or to be insured by the association, or at any administrative hearings conducted in connection therewith.

Annual Statements

Sec. 9. The association shall file in the office of the board, annually on or before the first day of March, a statement which shall contain information with respect to its transactions, condition, operations, and affairs during the preceding calendar year. Such statement shall contain such matters and information as are prescribed and shall be in such form as is approved by the board. The board may, at any time, require the association to furnish additional information with respect to its transactions, condition, or any matter connected therewith considered to be material and of assistance in evaluating the scope, operation, and experience of the association.

Examinations

Sec. 10. The board shall make an examination into the affairs of the association at least annually. Such examination shall be conducted, the report thereon filed, and expenses borne and paid for, in the manner prescribed in Articles 1.15 and 1.16 of the Insurance Code.

Dissolution of the Association

Sec. 11. Upon the effective date of this article, the board shall, after consultation with the joint underwriting association, representatives of the public, the Texas Medical Association, the Texas Podiatry Association, the Texas Hospital Association, and other affected individuals and organizations, promulgate a plan of dissolution consistent with the provisions of this article, to become effective and operative on December 31, 1979, unless the board determines before that time that the association is no longer needed to accomplish the purposes for which it was created and orders its dissolution, in which case, the plan of dissolution shall become effective on the date of dissolution ordered by the board. The plan of dissolution shall contain provisions for maintaining reserves for losses which may be reported subsequent to the expiration of all policies in force. If, at the expiration of five years and annually thereafter, if necessary, from December 31, 1979, or the date of dissolution ordered by the board, the board finds, after notice and hearing, that all known claims have been paid or otherwise disposed of by the association, then the board may wind up the affairs of the association by paying to a special fund created by the statutory liquidator of the board a reasonable reserve to be administered by said liquidator for unknown claims; reimbursing assessments and contributions of members in accordance with Section 4(b)(5) of this article, and distributing the remainder to the policyholders ratably in proportion to premiums and assessments paid during or after the last two years in which the association was issuing policies. If such reserve fund administered by the statutory liquidator proves inadequate, the association shall be treated as an insolvent insurer in respect to the application of the provisions of Article 21.28-C, Property and Casualty Insurance Guaranty Act, Insurance Code. Notice of claim shall be made upon the board.

Authority of the Board Over Dissolution

Sec. 12. Before December 31, 1979, if the board finds that the association is no longer needed to accomplish the purposes for which it was created, the board may issue an order dissolving the association as of a certain date stated in the order.

Termination of Policies

Sec. 13. After December 31, 1979, if no earlier dissolution date is ordered by the board, or after the date ordered for dissolution by the board, no policies will be issued by the association. All then issued policies shall continue in force until terminated in accordance with the terms and conditions of such policies.

The corporations complying with the requirements of this chapter shall be governed and conducted as non-profit nonmembership organizations for the purpose of contracting for and obtaining legal services for their participants through contracting attorneys, in consideration of the payment by the participants of a definite sum to fund the payment of attorneys fees for the legal services to be furnished by the contracting attorneys. Provided further, that each such corporation shall have two funds, namely: the claim fund and the expense fund. The claim fund shall be composed of at least 80 percent of the regular payments by participants, and the application fees. The percentage amounts above stated may be modified by the State Board of Insurance upon showing that such is in the best interest of the then existing persons receiving legal services under contract or that such is necessary for the development of the corporation during its first year of existence. The application fees shall be paid by applicants prior to issuance of a benefit certificate, and shall not apply as a part of the cost of receiving benefits under the benefit certificate issued. Claim fund investments may include, besides lawful money and demand deposits, only certificates of deposits, share accounts, and time deposits in public banks and savings and loan institutions whose deposits are insured by a federal governmental agency, and obligations of a state or the federal government; and the expense fund investments may include only such as are legal investments for the capital, surplus, and contingency funds of capital stock life insurance companies. The net income from the investments shall accrue to the funds, respectively, from which the investments were made. The claim fund shall be disbursed only for the payment of valid claims, taxes on income of such fund, security transfer costs, and refunds of fees paid into such fund; and to the extent approved by the State Board of Insurance, cost of settling contested claims, expenses directly incurred on or for preservation of investments of the claim fund and contracts authorized under Article 23.19 of this code.

Art. 23.14. Supervision
Every corporation complying with the requirements of this chapter shall, before accepting applications for participation in said non-profit legal service plan, have sufficient money in its expense fund to cover initial operations and shall submit to the State Board of Insurance a plan of operation together with a rate schedule of its charges to participants and a schedule and projections of costs of legal services to be contracted for on behalf of the participants; which plan, rate schedule, and the sufficiency of expense fund shall first be approved by the State Board of Insurance as adequate, fair, and reasonable and not excessive before such corporation shall engage in business. Art. 23.24. Hazardous Financial Condition
(a) Whenever the financial condition of any corporation complying with the requirements of this chapter indicates a condition such that the continued operation of such corporation might be hazardous to its participants, creditors, or the general public, then the State Board of Insurance may, after notice and hearing, order such corporation to take such action as may be reasonably necessary to rectify the existing condition, including but not necessarily limited to one or more of the following steps:

(1) to reduce the total amount of present and potential liability for benefits by use of Article 23.19 of this code;

(2) to reduce the volume of new business being accepted;

(3) to reduce expenses by specified methods; or

(4) to suspend or limit the writing of new business for a period of time.

Where none of the foregoing remedies is effective and the hazardous condition is determined to be a shortage of money in the expense fund the State Board of Insurance may after further notice and hearing order funds sufficient to cure the hazardous condition to be placed in the expense fund. The State Board of Insurance shall not have authority hereby to require the maintenance of money in the expense fund except as provided by Article 23.02(3) of this code.

(b) The State Board of Insurance is authorized, by rule and regulations, to fix uniform standards and criteria for early warning that the continued operation of any company might be hazardous to its participants, creditors, or the general public, and to fix standards for evaluating the financial condition of any corporation complying with the requirements of this chapter, which standards shall be consistent with the purposes expressed in this article.

(2) the contract extends for an unreasonable period of time;

(3) the contract does not contain fair and adequate standards of performance;

(4) the persons empowered under the contract to manage the corporation are not sufficiently trustworthy, competent, experienced, and free from conflict of interest to manage the corporation with due regard for the interest of its participants, creditors, or the public; or

(5) the contract contains provisions which impair the interests of the corporation's participants, creditors, or the public in this state.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 126, ch. 60, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

(b) The following provisions of the Insurance Code as they now exist or shall hereafter be amended shall, where not in conflict with this chapter, apply to corporations complying with the provisions of this chapter to the same extent as they apply to insurers and to those doing the business of insurance: Articles 1.01, 1.02, 1.04, 1.08, 1.09, 1.09-1, 1.11, 1.12, 1.13, 1.14, 1.15, 1.16, 1.17, 1.18, 1.19, 1.20, 1.21, 1.22, 1.23, 1.24, 1.25, 1.26, 1.28, 1.28A, and 21.47 and Sections 1, 2, 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, and 17 of Article 1.10 of the Insurance Code, as amended.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (a) to (d)]

(f) “County Judge,” “Probate Judge,” and “Judge” denote the presiding judge of any court having original jurisdiction over probate proceedings, whether it be a county court in the exercise of its probate jurisdiction, a court created by statute and authorized to exercise probate jurisdiction, or a district court exercising probate jurisdiction in contested matters.

(g) “Court” denotes and includes both a county court in the exercise of its probate jurisdiction, a court created by statute and authorized to exercise original probate jurisdiction, or a district court exercising probate jurisdiction in contested matters.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (h) to (p)]

(q) “Independent executor” means the personal representative of an estate under independent administration as provided in Section 145 of this Code. The term “independent executor” includes the term “independent administrator.”

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (r) to (s)]

(t) “Minors” are all persons under eighteen years of age who have never been married or who have not had disabilities of minority removed for general purposes.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (u) to (z)]

(aa) “Personal representative” or “Representative” includes executor, independent executor, administrator, independent administrator, temporary administrator, guardian, and temporary guardian, together with their successors. The inclusion of independent executors herein shall not be held to subject such representatives to control of the courts in probate matters with respect to settlement of estates except as expressly provided by law.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (bb) to (hh)]

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 104, ch. 45, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975; Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2195, ch. 701, § 1, eff. June 21, 1975; Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1061, ch. 390, §§ 1, 2, eff. Sept. 1, 1977.]

Acts 1977, 65th Leg., ch. 390, which by §§ 1 to 8 amended subsecs. (o) and (aa) of this section, §§ 145, 147, 148, 149A(a), (b), and 150 and added § 154A, provided in §§ 9 and 10:

“Sec. 9. All other laws in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed to the extent they conflict.”

“Sec. 10. This Act shall become effective September 1, 1977, and shall apply to estates of decedents who die intestate after September 1, 1977.”

§ 5. Jurisdiction of District Court and Other Courts of Record With Respect to Probate Proceedings and Appeals from Probate Orders

(a) The district court shall have original control and jurisdiction over executors, administrators, guardians and wards under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

(b) In those counties where there is no statutory probate court, county court at law or other statutory court exercising the jurisdiction of a probate court, all applications, petitions and motions regarding probate, administrations, guardianships, and mental illness matters shall be filed and heard in the county court, except that in contested probate matters, the judge of the county court may on his own motion, or shall on the motion of any party to the proceeding transfer such proceeding to the district court, which may then hear such proceeding as if originally filed in such court. In contested matters transferred to the district court in those counties, the district court, concurrently with the county court, shall have the general jurisdiction of a probate court, and it shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition, and distribution of estates of deceased persons and to apprentice minors, as provided by law. Upon resolution of all pending contested matters, the probate proceeding shall be transferred by the district court to the county court for further proceedings not inconsistent with the orders of the district court.
§ 5 TEXAS PROBATE CODE

(e) In those counties where there is a statutory probate court, county court at law, or other statutory court exercising the jurisdiction of a probate court, all applications, petitions and motions regarding probate, administrations, guardianships, and mental illness matters shall be filed and heard in such courts and the constitutional county court, rather than in the district courts, unless otherwise provided by the legislature, and the judges of such courts may hear any of such matters sitting for the judge of any of such courts.

(d) All courts exercising original probate jurisdiction shall have the power to hear all matters incident to an estate, including but not limited to, all claims by or against an estate, all actions for trial of title to land incident to an estate and for the enforcement of liens thereon incident to an estate, all actions for trial of the right of property incident to an estate, and actions to construe wills. When a surety is called on to perform in place of an administrator or guardian, all courts exercising original probate jurisdiction may award judgment against the personal representative in favor of his surety in the same suit.

(e) All final orders of any court exercising original probate jurisdiction shall be appealable to the courts of (civil) appeals.

§ 28. Personal Representative to Serve Pending Appeal of Appointment

Pending appeals from orders or judgments appointing administrators or guardians or temporary administrators or guardians, the appointees shall continue to act as such and shall continue the prosecution of any suits then pending in favor of the estate.

§ 30. Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2197, ch. 701, § 7, eff. June 21, 1975

§ 36. Duty and Responsibility of Judge

It shall be the duty of each county and probate court to use reasonable diligence to see that personal representatives of estates being administered under orders of the court, guardians of the persons of wards, and other officers of the court, perform the duty enjoined upon them by law pertaining to such estates and wards. The judge shall annually, if in his opinion the same be necessary, examine the condition of each of said estates, the well-being of each ward of the court, and the solvency of the bonds of personal representatives of estate and guardians of persons. He shall, at any time he finds that the personal representative's bond is not sufficient to protect such estate or ward, require such personal representatives to execute a new bond in accordance with law. In each case, he shall notify the personal representative, and the sureties on the bond, as provided by law; and should damage or loss result to estates or wards through the gross neglect of the judge to use reasonable diligence in the performance of his duty, he shall be liable on his bond to those damaged by such neglect.

CHAPTER II. DESCENT AND DISTRIBUTION

§ 37A. Means of Evidencing Disclaimer or Renunciation of Property or Interest Receivable from a Decedent Under a Will or by an Inheritance

Any person, or the personal representative of an incompetent, deceased, or minor person, with prior court approval of the court having, or which would have, jurisdiction over such personal representative or any independent executor of a deceased person, without prior court approval, who may be entitled to receive any property under any will of or by inheritance from a decedent and who intends to effect disclaimer irrevocably on or after September 1, 1977, of the whole or any part of such property shall evidence same as herein provided. A disclaimer evidenced as provided herein, shall be effective as of the death of decedent and the property subject thereof shall pass as if the person disclaiming or on whose behalf a disclaimer is made had predeceased the decedent unless decedent's will provides otherwise. Failure to comply with the provisions hereof shall render such disclaimer ineffective except as an assignment of such property to those who would have received same had the person attempting the disclaimer died prior to the decedent. The term "property" as used in this section shall include all legal and equitable interests, powers, and property, whether present or future, whether vested or contingent, and whether beneficial or burdensome, in whole or in part. The term "disclaimer" as used in this section shall include "renunciation." Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude a subsequent disclaimer by any person who shall be entitled to property as a result of a disclaimer.

The following shall apply to such disclaimers:

(a) Written Memorandum of Disclaimer and Filing Thereof. In the case of property receivable under a will or by inheritance, the disclaimer shall be evidenced by a written memorandum, acknowledged before a notary public or other person authorized to take acknowledgments of conveyances of real estate. A written memorandum of disclaimer disclaiming a present interest shall be filed not later than nine months after the death of the decedent and a written memorandum of disclaimer disclaiming a future interest may be filed not later than nine months after the event determining that the taker of the property or interest is finally ascertained and his interest is indefeasibly vested. The written memorandum of disclaimer shall be filed in the probate court in which the decedent's will has been probated or in which proceedings have been commenced for the administration of the decedent's estate or which has before it an application for either of the same; provided, however, if the administration of the decedent's estate is closed, or after the expiration of one year following the date of the issuance of letters testamentary in an independent administration, or if there has been no will of the decedent probated or filed for probate, or if no administration of the decedent's estate has been commenced, or if no application for administration of the decedent's estate has been filed, the written memorandum of disclaimer shall be filed with the county clerk of the county of the decedent's residence, or, if the decedent is not a resident of this state but real property or an interest therein located in this state is disclaimed, a written memorandum of disclaimer shall be filed with the county clerk of the county in which such real property or interest therein is located, and recorded by such county clerk in the deed records of that county.

(b) Notice of Disclaimer. In the event that a personal representative of a decedent is qualified and acting, copies of any written memorandum of disclaimer shall be delivered in person or shall be mailed by registered or certified mail to any qualified and acting personal representative of the decedent or to the holder of legal title to the property to which the disclaimer relates.

(c) Power of Testator to Provide for Disclaimer. Nothing herein shall prevent a testator from providing in a will the making of disclaimers by legatees, devisees and beneficiaries and for the disposition of disclaimed property in a manner different from the provisions hereof.

(d) Irrevocability of Disclaimer. Any disclaimer filed and served under this section shall be irrevocable.

(e) Partial Disclaimer. Any person who may be entitled to receive any property under any will of or by inheritance from a decedent may disclaim such property in whole or in part, including but not limited to specific powers of invasion, powers of appointment, and fee estate in favor of life estates; and a partial disclaimer or renunciation, in accordance with the provisions of this section, shall be effective whether the property so renounced or disclaimed constitutes a portion of a single, aggregate gift or constitutes part or all of a separate, independent gift; provided, however, that a partial disclaimer shall be effective only with respect to property expressly described or referred to by category in such disclaimer; and provided further, that a partial disclaimer of property which is subject to a burdensome interest created by the decedent's will shall not be effective unless such property constitutes a gift which is separate and distinct from undisclaimed gifts.

(f) Disclaimer After Acceptance. No disclaimer shall be effective after the acceptance of the property by the heir, legatee, devisee, or beneficiary. For the purpose of this section, acceptance shall occur only if the person making such disclaimer has previously taken possession or exercised dominion and control of such property in the capacity of heir, legatee, devisee, or beneficiary.

§ 42. Inheritance Rights of Illegitimate Children

(a) Maternal Inheritance. For the purpose of inheritance to, through, and from an illegitimate child, such child shall be treated the same as if he were the legitimate child of his mother, so that he and his issue shall inherit from his mother and from his maternal kindred, both descendants, ascendants, and collaterals in all degrees, and they may inherit from him and his issue.

(b) Legitimation by Marriage. Where a man, having by a woman a child shall afterwards intermarry with such woman, such child shall thereby be legitimated, so that he and his issue shall inherit from his father and from his paternal kindred, both descendants, ascendants, and collaterals in all degrees, and they may inherit from him and his issue.

(c) Legitimation by Voluntary Legitimation Proceeding. Where a man, having by a woman a child shall afterwards legitimate the child pursuant to a voluntary legitimation proceeding under Chapter 13, Family Code, such child and his issue shall inherit from his father but not from his paternal kindred; and the father, but not the father's kindred, shall inherit from such child and his issue.

(d) Homestead Rights, Exempt Property, and Family Allowances. Such child shall also be treated the same as if he were a legitimate child of his mother, and, if legitimated by marriage or by voluntary legitimation, as if he were a legitimate child of his father, for the purpose of determining homestead rights, distribution of exempt property, and the making of family allowances.
(e) Marriages Null in Law. The issue also of marriages deemed null in law shall nevertheless be legitimate.

CHAPTER III. DETERMINATION OF HEIRSHIP

§ 48. Proceedings to Declare Heirship. When and Where Instituted

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (a) and (b)]

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a probate court in which the proceedings for the guardianship of the estate of a ward who dies intestate were pending at the time of the death of the ward may, if there is no administration pending in the estate, determine and declare who are the heirs and only heirs of the ward, and their respective shares and interests, under the laws of this State, in the estate of the ward.

§ 49. Who May Institute Proceedings to Declare Heirship

Such proceedings may be instituted and maintained in any of the instances enumerated above by any person or persons claiming to be the owner of the whole or a part of the estate of such decedent, or by the guardian of the estate of a ward, if the proceedings are instituted and maintained in the probate court in which the proceedings for the guardianship of the estate of the ward were pending at the time of the death of the ward. In such a case an application shall be filed in a proper court stating the name, time, and place of death and the names and residences of the heirs of the decedent, if known to the applicant, and, if the time and place of death or the names and residences of all of the heirs of such decedent, all persons who are named in the application as heirs of such decedent, and all persons who are, at the date of the filing of the application, shown by the deed records of the county in which any of the real property described in such application is situated to own any share or interest in any such real property, shall be made parties in such proceeding.

§ 127A. Guardianship of Person Missing on Public Service

(a) Not less than six months after a person is reported by an executive department of the United States to be a prisoner of war or missing on the public service of the United States, any person may file a written application for the appointment of a guardian of the person of the missing person in the court of the county of residence of the missing person's spouse or, if there is no spouse, in the county of residence of a parent or child of the missing person, or if there is no parent or child, in the county of residence of the missing person's next of kin.

(b) The application shall state:

(h) The jurisdiction of the court over the guardianship is continuing. If the missing person returns, on motion of any interested person after a notice, stating that the motion has been filed and specifying the date of a hearing, has been issued and served on the formerly missing person as in other cases, the court shall amend or vacate the original order of guardianship. A copy of the motion shall accompany the notice.

PART 5. LIMITED GUARDIANSHIP PROCEEDINGS [NEW]

Limited guardianship for mentally retarded persons shall be utilized only as necessary to promote and protect the well-being of the individual, shall be designed to encourage the development of maximum self-reliance and independence in the individual, and shall be ordered only to the extent necessitated by the individual's actual mental and adaptive limitations. A mentally retarded person for whom a limited guardian has been appointed shall not be presumed to be incompetent and shall retain all legal and civil rights and powers except those which have by court order been designated as legal disabilities by virtue of having been specifically granted to the limited guardian. An appointment of a limited guardian shall be made pursuant to the provisions of Part 5, Chapter V. For the purposes of Chapter V, Texas Probate Code, a mentally retarded person is defined as a person with significantly subaverage general intellectual functioning of two or more standard deviations below the age-group mean for the tests used, existing concurrently with deficits in adaptive behavior.

§ 130D. Filing Fee

A fee of $15 shall be charged for filing a petition for limited guardianship, and a fee of $4 shall be charged for the service of notice and citation. However, no fees shall be charged by the court for filing a petition for limited guardianship unless the alleged mentally retarded person has an estate valued in excess of $1500. A party may file with the county clerk an affidavit stating that the estate of the alleged mentally retarded person is valued at less than $1500, and the clerk shall thereupon accept the application and issue process and perform all other services required of him in the same manner as if security had been given.

§ 130E. Notices and Citations in Limited Guardianship Proceedings

(a) On the filing of an application for appointment of a limited guardian, the clerk shall issue a notice setting forth that the application has been filed for the limited guardianship, the name of the person for whom the guardian is sought and the nature of the disability, and by whom the application is made. The notice shall cite all persons interested in the welfare of that person to appear at the time and place stated in the notice and contest the application, if they so desire.

(b) The notice shall be served by posting, and the sheriff or other officer posting the notice shall return the original, signed officially and stating thereon in writing the time and place that he posted the copy.

(c) The alleged mentally retarded person and his parents, if the parents can be found within this state, or the conservator or any person having control of the care and welfare of the alleged mentally retarded person shall be personally served with citation to appear and answer the application for the appointment of a limited guardian. Notwithstanding the foregoing, all persons then living who stand in the first degree of consanguinity or affinity to the alleged mentally retarded person shall be given notice if their whereabouts are known or can be reasonably ascertained.

§ 130F. Examination and Report

Within 30 days after the filing of the petition for limited guardianship, the person alleged to be mentally retarded shall be examined at a facility approved by the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation to perform such service. The examination shall be conducted in accordance with rules promulgated by the commissioner of the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. The facility shall submit a written report of its findings and recommendations to the court with copies to the alleged mentally retarded person and the petitioner. The report may include a description of the alleged mentally retarded person’s degree of incompetency, if any. The findings and recommendations of the examinations shall not be binding on the court.

§ 130G. Hearing

The person alleged to be mentally retarded shall be present at the hearing, unless the court determines that such personal appearance would not be in the person’s best interest. He is entitled to be represented by counsel. If he is unable to pay for counsel, the county is responsible for costs of counsel. He is entitled, on request, to a jury trial. The hearing may be closed if the person alleged to be mentally retarded or his counsel requests a closed hearing. At the hearing, the court shall:

1. Inquire into the nature and extent of the general intellectual functioning of the individual asserted to need a limited guardian;
2. Evaluate the extent of the impairment in his adaptive behavior;
3. Ascertain his capacity to care for himself and manage his property; and
4. Inquire into the qualifications, abilities, and capabilities of the person seeking to be appointed limited guardian.

§ 130H. Order of the Court

If it is found that the alleged mentally retarded person possesses the capacity to care for himself and to manage his property as would a reasonably prudent person or if it is found that the alleged mentally retarded person is totally without capacity to care for himself and to manage his property, the court shall dismiss the petition for the appointment of a limited guardian. If it is found that the alleged mentally retarded person lacks the capacity to do some, but not all, of the tasks necessary to care for himself or to manage his property, the court may appoint a limited guardian for the individual and shall define the powers and duties of the limited guardian so as to permit the mentally retarded person to care for himself or to manage his property...
§ 130H. TEXAS PROBATE CODE

commensurate with his ability to do so. However, the powers and duties granted to and imposed on the limited guardian by the court in its order shall not duplicate or be in conflict with the powers and duties of any other limited guardian, and the powers and duties shall not exceed those applicable to full guardians under this code. An order appointing a limited guardian shall contain findings of fact and shall also specify:

(1) the properties of the mentally retarded person to which the limited guardian is entitled to possession and management, giving the description of the properties that will be sufficient to identify them;
(2) the debts, rentals, wages, or other claims due the mentally retarded person which the limited guardian is entitled to collect, or file suit with respect to, if necessary, and thereafter to possess and manage;
(3) the contractual or other obligations which the limited guardian may incur on behalf of the mentally retarded person;
(4) the claims against the mentally retarded person which the limited guardian may pay, compromise, or defend, if necessary; and
(5) any other powers, limitations, or duties with respect to the care of the mentally retarded person or the management of his property by the limited guardian which the court shall specifically and explicitly specify.

§ 130I. Who May be Guardians

(a) Only a person, institution, or corporation found by the court to be suitable may be appointed limited guardian of a mentally retarded person. The court shall not customarily or ordinarily appoint the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation or a community mental health and mental retardation center, or any other agency, public or private, that is directly providing services to the mentally retarded person, except as a last resort.
(b) Prior to appointment, the court shall make reasonable effort to question the mentally retarded person concerning his preference of the person to be appointed limited guardian, and a preference indicated shall be given due consideration by the court.

§ 130J. Certain Duties of Limited Guardian

(a) It is the duty of the limited guardian to file annually within 90 days after the anniversary date of his appointment and also within 30 days after termination of his appointment as the limited guardian a written verified account of his administration. The court in its discretion may also allow such accounts to be filed at intervals of up to 36 months, with instructions to the limited guardian that any substantial increase in income or assets or substantial change in the mentally retarded person’s condition shall be reported within 30 days of the substantial increase or change.
(b) It is the duty of the limited guardian who is managing properties to prepare and file within three months after his appointment a verified inventory of all the property of the mentally retarded person which shall come to his possession or knowledge, including a statement of all encumbrances, liens, and other secured charges on any item.
(c) To the extent that the order of the court gives the limited guardian control of any property of a mentally retarded person, the limited guardian must take care of and manage the property as a prudent man would manage his own property.
(d) Pursuant to the orders of the court, the limited guardian may expend funds of the limited guardianship in order to care for and maintain the mentally retarded person, including making application for residential care and services provided by public or private facilities. The limited guardian is required to report the condition of the mentally retarded person to the court at regular intervals or otherwise as the court may direct. If the person is receiving residential care in a public or private residential care facility, the limited guardian shall report to the court the necessity for continued care in the facility.

§ 130K. Oath and Bond of Limited Guardian

The limited guardian shall take and subscribe an oath and, unless dispensed with by order of the court, shall file a bond in accordance with the provisions of Section 194, Texas Probate Code, as amended, except that in a limited guardianship of the person and in a limited guardianship of the estate in which the inventory filed with the court shows that the person has total accumulated assets of a value of less than $1500, the court may dispense with the requirement of a bond. If the court dispenses with a bond, the limited guardian shall report to the court any known changes in the accumulated assets of the mentally retarded person that increase the value to more than $1500.

§ 130L. Authority of Limited Guardian

On the filing of the oath and bond, if any, the order of the court appointing the limited guardian shall become effective without the necessity for issuance of letters of guardianship. The order shall be evidence of the authority of the limited guardian to act within the scope of the powers and duties set forth in the order.

§ 130M. Termination, Removal, or Resignation of Limited Guardian

(a) The limited guardianship shall be settled and closed when the mentally retarded person has died, or when he has been found by the court to have full capacity to care for himself and to manage his property, or when a full guardian of the person or estate of such individual has been appointed in this state and has qualified, or being married, when such individual's spouse has qualified as survivor in community.

(b) On petition of the mentally retarded person or any person interested in his welfare and on such notice as the court may direct, the court may remove the limited guardian if the court finds that to be in the best interest of the mentally retarded person. On petition of the limited guardian, the court may accept his resignation.

(c) When a limited guardian dies, resigns, or is removed, the court may, on application and on such notice as the court may direct, appoint a successor limited guardian. A successor limited guardian shall have all of the powers and rights and shall be subject to all of the duties of the prior limited guardian.

(d) An order appointing a limited guardian or a successor limited guardian may specify a minimum period, not exceeding one year, during which no petition for adjudication that the mentally retarded person no longer requires the limited guardianship may be filed without special leave. Subject to this restriction, the mentally retarded person or any person interested in his welfare may petition the court for an order that he is no longer in need of the limited guardianship and that requires the removal or resignation of the limited guardian. A request for this order may be made by informal letter to the court or judge, and a person who knowingly interferes with the transmission of this kind of request to the court or judge may be adjudged guilty of contempt of court.

§ 130N. Venue

A proceeding for the appointment of a limited guardian of a mentally retarded person shall begin in the county where the mentally retarded person resides or where his principal estate is situated.

§ 130O. Transfer of Venue

A court having venue of a limited guardianship proceeding may transfer venue of the limited guardianship proceeding to the court of any other county of the state on application of the limited guardian and with such notice to the mentally retarded person or other interested party as the court may require. A transfer of a limited guardianship proceeding shall be made to the court of the county in which either the limited guardian or the mentally retarded person resides, as the court may deem appropriate, at the time of making application for the transfer. The original order providing for a transfer shall be retained as the permanent record by the clerk of the court in which the order is entered, and a certified copy thereof, together with the original file in the limited guardianship proceeding and a certified transcript of all record entries up to and including the order for the change, shall be transmitted to the clerk of the court to which the proceeding is transferred.

CHAPTER VI. SPECIAL TYPES OF ADMINISTRATION AND GUARDIANSHIP.

PART 4. INDEPENDENT ADMINISTRATION

§ 137. Collection of Small Estates Upon Affidavit

The distributees of an estate shall be entitled thereto, to the extent that the assets, exclusive of homestead and exempt property, exceed the known liabilities of said estate, without awaiting the appointment of a personal representative when:

(a) No petition for the appointment of a personal representative is pending or has been granted; and

(b) Thirty days have elapsed since the death of the decedent; and

(c) The value of the entire assets of the estate, not including homestead and exempt property, does not exceed $10,000; and

(d) There is filed with the clerk of the court having jurisdiction and venue an affidavit sworn to by such distributees as have legal capacity, and, if the facts warrant, by the natural guardian or next of kin of any minor or incompetent who is also a distributee, which affidavit shall be approved by the judge of the court having jurisdiction and venue, to be recorded in "Small Estates" records by the clerk, showing the existence of the foregoing conditions, the names and addresses of the distributees, and their right to receive the money or property of the estate, or to have such evidences of money, property or other rights of the estate as found to exist transferred to them, being heirs, devisees, or assignees, and listing all assets and known liabilities of the estates; and
(e) A copy of such affidavit, certified to by said clerk, is furnished by the distributees of the estate to the person or persons owing money to the estate, having custody or possession of property of the estate, or acting as registrar, fiduciary or transfer agent of or for evidences of interest, indebtedness, property or other right belonging to said estate.

Henceforth the county clerk of every county in this state shall provide and keep in his office an accurate index, in which he shall record every such affidavit so filed, upon being paid his legal recording fee, said index to show the name of decedent and reference to land, if any, involved.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1402, ch. 543, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975; Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 361, ch. 177, § 1, eff. May 20, 1977.]

§ 145. Independent Administration

(a) Independent administration of an estate may be created as provided in Subsection (b) or, if the value of the entire assets of an estate does not exceed $200,000, as provided in Subsections (c) through (e) of this section. Those methods provided in Subsections (c) and (d) only apply to wills and codicils published after September 1, 1977.

(b) Any person capable of making a will may provide in his will that no other action shall be had in the county court in relation to the settlement of his estate than the probating and recording of his will, and the return of an inventory, appraisement, and list of claims of his estate.

(c) In situations where an executor is named in a decedent’s will, but the will does not provide for independent administration of the decedent’s estate as provided in Subsection (b) of this section, all of the distributees of the decedent may agree on the advisability of having an independent administration and collectively designate in the application for probate of the decedent’s will the executor named in the will to serve as independent executor and request in the application that no other action shall be had in the county court in relation to the settlement of the decedent’s estate other than the return of an inventory, appraisement, and list of claims of the decedent’s estate. In such case the county court shall enter an order granting independent administration and appointing the person, firm, or corporation designated in the application as independent administrator, unless the county court finds that it would not be in the best interest of the estate to do so.

(f) In those cases where an independent administration is sought under the provisions of Subsections (c) through (e) above, all distributees shall be served with citation and notice of the application for independent administration unless the distributee waives the issuance or service of citation or enters an appearance in court.

(g) In no case shall any independent administrator be appointed by any court to serve in any intestate administration until those parties seeking the appointment of said independent administrator offer clear and convincing evidence to the court that they constitute all of the said decedent’s heirs.

(h) When an independent administration has been created, and the order appointing an independent executor has been entered by the county court, and the inventory, appraisement, and list aforesaid has been filed by the executor and approved by the county court, as long as the estate is represented by an independent executor, further action of any nature shall not be had in the county court except where this Code specifically and explicitly provides for some action in the county court.
(i) If a distributee described in Subsections (c) through (e) of this section is a minor or an incompetent, the guardian of the person of the distributee may sign the application on behalf of the distributee. If the county court finds that either the granting of independent administration or the appointment of the person, firm, or corporation designated in the application as independent executor would not be in the best interests of the minor or incompetent, then, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Subsections (c) through (e) of this section, the county court shall not enter an order granting independent administration of the estate. If such distributee who is a minor or incompetent has no guardian of the person, the county court may appoint a guardian ad litem to make application on behalf of the minor or incompetent if the county court considers such an appointment necessary to protect the interest of the distributees.

(j) If a trust is created in the decedent's will, the person or class of persons first eligible to receive the income from the trust, when determined as if the trust were to be in existence on the date of the decedent's death, shall, for the purposes of Subsections (c) and (d) of this section, be deemed to be the distributee or distributees on behalf of such trust, and any other trust or trusts coming into existence upon the termination of such trust, and are authorized to apply for independent administration on behalf of the trusts without the consent or agreement of the trustee or any other beneficiary of the trust, or the trustee or any beneficiary of any other trust which may come into existence upon the termination of such trust.

(k) If a life estate is created either in the decedent's will or by law, the life tenant or life tenants, when determined as if the life estate were to commence on the date of the decedent's death, shall, for the purposes of Subsections (c) through (e) of this section, be deemed to be the distributee or distributees on behalf of the entire estate created, and are authorized to apply for independent administration on behalf of the estate without the consent or approval of any remainderman.

(l) If a decedent's will contains a provision that a distributee must survive the decedent by a prescribed period of time in order to take under the decedent's will, then, for the purposes of determining who shall be the distributee under Subsections (c), (d), (h), and (i) of this section, it shall be presumed that the distributees living at the time the filing of the application for probate of the decedent's will survived the decedent by the prescribed period.

(m) In the case of all decedents, whether dying testate or intestate, for the purposes of determining who shall be the distributees under Subsections (c), (d), (e), (h), and (i) of this section, it shall be presumed that no distributee living at the time the application for independent administration is filed shall subsequently disclaim any portion of such distributee's interest in the decedent's estate.

(n) If a distributee of a decedent's estate should die and if by virtue of such distributee's death such distributee's share of the decedent's estate shall become payable to such distributee's estate, then the deceased distributee's personal representative may sign the application for independent administration of the decedent's estate under Subsections (c), (d), (e), (h), and (i) of this section.

(o) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this section, a person capable of making a will may provide in his will that no independent administration of his estate may be allowed. In such case, his estate, if administered, shall be administered and settled under the direction of the county court as other estates are required to be settled.

(p) If an independent administration of a decedent's estate is created pursuant to Subsections (c), (d), or (e) of this section, then, unless the county court shall waive bond, the independent executor shall be required to enter into bond conditioned as required by law in the same manner as other personal representatives.

(q) Absent proof of fraud or collusion on the part of a judge, no judge may be held civilly liable for the commission of misdeeds, or the omission of any required act of any person, firm, or corporation designated as an independent executor under Subsections (c), (d), and (e) of this section. [Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., ch. 390, § 3, eff. Sept. 1, 1977.]

§ 147. Enforcement of Claims by Suit

Any person having a debt or claim against the estate may enforce the payment of the same by suit against the independent executor; and, when judgment is recovered against the independent executor, the execution shall run against the estate of the decedent in the hands of the independent executor which is subject to such debt. The independent executor shall not be required to plead to any suit brought against him for money until after six months from the date that an independent administration was created and the order appointing an independent executor was entered by the county court. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 890, ch. 376, § 1, eff. June 19, 1975; Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1064, ch. 390, § 4, eff. Sept. 1, 1977.]

§ 148. Requiring Heirs to Give Bond

When an independent administration is created and the order appointing an independent executor is entered by the county court, any person having a debt against such estate may, by written complaint filed in the county court where such order was entered, cause all distributees of the estate, heirs at law, and other persons entitled to any portion of such estate under the will, if any, to be cited by personal service to appear before such county court and execute a bond for an amount equal to the full value of such estate, as shown by the inventory and list of claims, such bond to be payable to the judge, and his successors, and to be approved by said judge, and conditioned that all obligors shall pay all debts that shall be established against such estate in the manner provided by law. Upon the return of the citation served, unless such person so entitled to any portion of the estate, or some of them, or some other person for them, shall execute such bond to the satisfaction of the county court, such estate shall thereafter be administered and settled under the direction of the county court as other estates are required to be settled. If the bond is executed and approved, the independent administration shall proceed. Creditors of the estate may sue on such bond, and shall be entitled to judgment thereon for the amount of their debt, or they may have their action against those in possession of the estate.

§ 149A. Accounting

(a) Interested Person May Demand Accounting. At any time after the expiration of fifteen months from the date that an independent administration was created and the order appointing an independent executor was entered by the county court, any person interested in the estate may demand an accounting from the independent executor. The independent executor shall thereupon furnish to the person or persons making the demand an exhibit in writing, sworn and subscribed by the independent executor, setting forth in detail:

1. The property belonging to the estate which has come into his hands as executor.
2. The disposition that has been made of such property.
3. The debts that have been paid.
4. The debts and expenses, if any, still owing by the estate.
5. The property of the estate, if any, still remaining in his hands.
6. Such other facts as may be necessary to a full and definite understanding of the exact condition of the estate.
7. Such facts, if any, that show why the administration should not be closed and the estate distributed.

Any other interested person shall, upon demand, be entitled to a copy of any exhibit or accounting that has been made by an independent executor in compliance with this section.

(b) Enforcement of Demand. Should the independent executor not comply with a demand for an accounting authorized by this section within sixty days after receipt of the demand, the person making the demand may compel compliance by an action in the county court or by a suit in the district court. After a hearing, the court shall enter an order requiring the accounting to be made at such time as it deems proper under the circumstances.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (c) and (d)].

§ 150. Partition and Distribution

If the will does not distribute the entire estate of the testator, or provide a means for partition of said estate, or if no will was probated, the independent executor may file his final account in the county court in which the will was probated, or if no will was probated, in the county court in which the order appointing the independent executor was entered, and ask for partition and distribution of the estate; and the same shall be partitioned and distributed in the manner provided for the partition and distribution of estates administered under the direction of the county court.

§ 154A. Court-Appointed Successor Independent Executor

(a) If a qualified independent executor fails or refuses to continue to serve as independent executor of a decedent's estate, and if, in the event the decedent died testate, the will does not provide for a qualified successor independent executor, all of the distributees of the decedent as of the filing of the application for an order continuing independent administration may apply to the county court for the appointment of a qualified person, firm, or corporation to serve as successor independent executor. If the county court finds that continued administration of the estate is necessary, the county court shall enter an order continuing independent administration and appointing the person, firm, or corporation designated in the application as successor independent executor, unless the county court finds that it would not be in the best interest of the estate to do so. Such successor shall serve with all of the powers and privileges granted to his predecessor independent executor.

(b) If a distributee described in this section is a minor or an incompetent, the guardian of the person of the distributee may sign the application on behalf of the distributee. If the county court finds that either the continuing of independent administration or the appointment of the person, firm, or corpora-

CHAPTER VII. EXECUTORS, ADMINISTRATORS, AND GUARDIANS

PART 2. OATHS AND BONDS OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

§ 200. Bond of Married Person Under Eighteen Years of Age

When a person under eighteen years of age who is or has been married shall accept and qualify as executor, administrator, or guardian, any bond required to be executed by him shall be as valid and binding for all purposes as if he were of lawful age.

PART 5. GENERAL POWERS OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

§ 230. Care of Property of Estates

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of (a)]

(b) Estates of Wards (1) General Powers and Duties. The guardian of the estate of a ward is entitled to the possession and management of all properties belonging to the ward, to collect all debts, rentals, or claims due such ward, to enforce all obligations in his favor, and to bring and defend suits by or against him; but, in the management of the estate, the guardian shall be governed by the provisions of this Code. It is the duty of the guardian of the estate to take care of and manage such estate as a prudent man would manage his own property. He shall account for all rents, profits, and revenues that the estate would have produced by such prudent management.

(2) Power to Make Tax-Motivated Gifts. (A) On application of the guardian or any interested party, and after notice to all interested persons and to such other persons as the court may direct, and on a showing that the ward will probably remain incompetent during his lifetime, the court may, after hearing and by order, authorize the guardian to apply such principal or income of the ward's estate as is not required for the support of the ward during his lifetime or of his family towards the establishment of an estate plan for the purpose of minimizing income, estate, inheritance, or other taxes payable out of the ward's estate. The court may authorize the guardian to make gifts of the ward's personal property or real estate, outright or in trust, on behalf of the ward, to or for the benefit of

(i) organizations to which charitable contributions may be made under the Internal Revenue Code and in which it is shown the ward would reasonably have an interest,
(ii) the ward's heirs at law who are identifiable at the time of the order,
(iii) devisees under the ward's last validly executed will, if there be such a will,
(iv) and a person serving as guardian of the ward provided he is eligible under either category (ii) or (iii) above.

(B) The person making application to the court shall outline the proposed estate plan, setting forth all the benefits to be derived therefrom. The application shall also indicate that the planned disposition is consistent with the intentions of the ward insofar as they can be ascertained. If the ward's intentions cannot be ascertained, the ward will be presumed to favor reduction in the incidence of the various forms of taxation and the partial distribution of his estate as herein provided.

(C) The court may appoint a guardian ad litem for the ward or any interested party at any stage of the proceedings, if deemed advisable for the protection of the ward or the interested party.

(D) Subsequent modifications of an approved plan may be made by similar application to the court.

PART 6. COMPENSATION, EXPENSES, AND COURT COSTS

§ 245. When Costs Are Adjudged Against Representative

When the personal representative of an estate or person neglects the performance of any duty required of him, and any costs are incurred thereby, or if he is removed for cause, he and the sureties on his bond shall be liable for costs of removal and other additional costs incurred that are not authorized expenditures, as defined by this code.

§ 273. Allowance in Lieu of Exempt Property

In case there should not be among the effects of the deceased all or any of the specific articles exempted from execution or forced sale by the Constitution and laws of this state, the court shall make a reasonable allowance in lieu thereof, to be paid to such widow and children, or such of them as there are,as hereinafter provided. The allowance in lieu of a homestead shall in no case exceed Ten Thousand Dollars and the allowance for other exempted property shall in no case exceed One Thousand Dollars, exclusive of the allowance for the support of the widow and minor children which is hereinafter provided for.

PART 4. PRESENTATION AND PAYMENT OF CLAIMS

§ 312. Contest of Claims, Action by Court, and Appeals

[See Compact Edition Volume 2 for text of (a) to (d).]
(e) Appeal. When a claimant or any person interested in an estate or ward shall be dissatisfied with the action of the court upon a claim, he may appeal therefrom to the courts of (civil) appeals, as from other judgments of the county court in probate matters.

§ 313. Suit on Rejected Claim

When a claim or a part thereof has been rejected by the representative, the claimant shall institute suit thereon in the court of original probate jurisdiction in which the estate is pending or in any other court of proper jurisdiction within ninety days after such rejection, or the claim shall be barred. When a rejected claim is sued on, the endorsement made on or annexed thereto shall be taken to be true without further proof, unless denied under oath. When a rejected claim or part thereof has been established by suit, no execution shall issue, but the judgment shall be certified within thirty days after rendition, if of any court other than the court of original probate jurisdiction, and filed in the court in which the cause is pending, entered upon the claim docket, classified by the court, and handled as if originally allowed and approved in due course of administration.

§ 320. Order of Payment of Claims

(a) Estates of Decedents. Executors and administrators, when they have funds in their hands belonging to the estate, shall pay in the following order:

(1) Funeral expenses and expenses of last sickness, in an amount not to exceed Two Thousand Dollars, if the claims therefor have been presented within sixty days from the original grant of letters testamentary or administration, but if not presented within such time, their payment shall be postponed until the allowances made to the widow and children, or to either, are paid.

(2) Allowances made to the widow and children, or to either.

(3) Expenses of administration and the expenses incurred in the preservation, safe-keeping, and management of the estate.

(4) Other claims against the estate in the order of their classification.

(b) Estates of Wards. The guardian shall pay all claims against the estate of his ward that have been allowed or approved, or established by suit, as soon as practicable, in the following order:

(1) expenses for the care, maintenance and education of the ward or his dependents;

(2) expenses of administration;

(3) other claims against the estate.

(c) A claimant whose claim has not been paid may petition the court for determination of his claim at any time before it is barred by the applicable statute of limitations and upon due proof procure an order for its allowance and payment from the estate.

PART 5. SALES

§ 341. Application for Sale of Real Estate

(a) Application may be made to the court for an order to sell property of the estate when it appears necessary or advisable in order to:

(1) Pay expenses of administration, funeral expenses and expenses of last sickness of decedents, and allowances and claims against the estates of decedents and wards.

(2) Make up the deficiency when the income of a ward's estate, and the personal property thereof, and the proceeds of previous sales, are insufficient for the education and maintenance of the ward, or to pay debts against the estate.

(3) Dispose of property of the estate of a ward which consists in whole or in part of an undivided interest in real estate, when it is deemed to the best interest of the estate to sell such interest.

(4) Dispose of real estate of a ward, any part of which is nonproductive or does not produce sufficient revenue to make a fair return upon the value of such real estate, when the improvement of same with a view to making it productive is not deemed advantageous or advisable, and it appears that the sale of such real estate and the investment of the money derived therefrom would be to the best interest of the estate.

(5) Conserve the estate of a ward by selling mineral interest and/or royalties on minerals in place owned by a ward.

(6) Dispose of any interest in real property of the estate of a decedent, when it is deemed to the best interest of the estate to sell such interest.

(b) Any natural or adoptive parent of a minor who is not a ward may apply to the court for an order to sell property of a minor without being appointed guardian, when the value of the property does not exceed $1,500. A sale of property pursuant to an order of the court under the subsection is not subject to disaffirmance by the minor.

(c) Such parent shall make application under oath to the court for the sale of such property. Venue for such application shall be the same as in applications for the appointment for guardians of a minor.
The application shall contain the following information:

1. A legal description of the property.
2. The name of the minor, or minors and his interest in the property.
3. The name of the purchaser.
4. That such sale of the minor's interest is for cash.
5. That all funds received by the parent shall be used for the use and benefit of such minor.

The court shall upon receipt of such application set the same for hearing at a date not less than five days from date of filing of such application, and if it deems necessary may cause citation to be issued.

After the expiration of five days from the filing of a report of sale, the court shall inquire into the manner in which the sale was made, hear evidence in support of or against such report, and determine the sufficiency or insufficiency of the representative's general bond, if any has been required and given; and, if he is satisfied that the sale was for a fair price, was properly made and in conformity with law, and has approved any increased or additional bond which may have been found necessary to protect the estate, the court shall enter a decree confirming such sale, showing conformity with the foregoing provisions of the Code, and authorizing the conveyance of the property to be made by the representative of the estate upon compliance by the purchaser with the terms of the sale, detailing such terms. If the court is not satisfied that the sale was for a fair price, was properly made, and in conformity with law, an order shall be made setting the same aside and ordering a new sale to be made, if necessary. The action of the court in confirming or disapproving a report of sale shall have the force and effect of a final judgment; and any person interested in the estate or in the sale shall have the right to have such decrees reviewed as in other final judgments in probate proceedings.

PART 9. PARTITION OF WARD'S ESTATE IN REALTY

§ 388. Partition of Ward's Interest in Realty

(f) Judicial Proceeding to Secure Partition. If the guardian of the estate of a ward is of the opinion that it is for the best interest of said ward's estate that any real estate which said ward owns in common with others, part owner or owners, should be partitioned, he may bring suit in the court in which such guardianship proceedings are pending against the other part owner for the partition of such real estate; and the court after hearing such suit may, if it is satisfied that such necessity exists, enter an order partitioning such real estate to the owner thereof.

PART 10. INVESTMENTS, LOANS, AND CONTRIBUTIONS OF ESTATES OF WARDS

§ 389A. Other Investments

(a) Application to Invest or Sell. When a guardian of an estate shall deem it to be in the best interest of its ward to invest in or sell any property or security in which a trustee is authorized to invest by either Article 7425b-46 V.A.T.S. (the Texas Trust and Investment Company Act) or Article 7425b-48 V.A.T.S. (the Uniform Common Trust Fund Act), and such investment or sale is not expressly permitted by other Sections of this Code, the guardian may file a written application in the court where the guardianship is pending, asking for an order authorizing it to make such desired investment or sale and stating the reason why the guardian is of the opinion that such investment or sale would be beneficial to the ward. No citation or notice is necessary unless ordered by the court.

PART 12. FINAL SETTLEMENT, ACCOUNTING, AND DISCHARGE

§ 404. Closing Administration of Estates of Decedents and Guardianship of Wards or Their Estates

Administration of the estates of decedents and guardianship of the persons and estates of wards shall be settled and closed:

(a) Estates of Decedents. When all the debts known to exist against the estate of a deceased person have been paid, or when they have been paid so far as the assets in the hands of an administrator or executor of such estate will permit, and when there is no further need for administration.

(b) Persons and Estates of Wards.

1. Of a Minor. When the minor dies, or becomes an adult by becoming eighteen years of age, or by removal of disabilities of minority according to the law of this state, or by marriage.

2. Of Incompetents. When the ward dies, or is decreed as provided by law to have been restored to sound mind or sober habits, or, being married, when his or her spouse has qualified as survivor in community.

3. Of a Person Entitled to Funds From Any Governmental Source. When the ward dies, or when the court finds that the necessity for the guardianship has ended.

4. Exhaustion of Estate. When the estate of a ward becomes exhausted.

5. When Income Negligible. When the foreseeable income accruing to a ward or to his estate is so negligible that maintaining the guardianship in force would be burdensome. In such case the court may authorize such income to be paid to a parent, or some other person who has acted as guardian, to assist as far as possible in the maintenance of the ward, and without liability to account to the court for such income.

§ 404B. Payment by Guardian of Taxes or Expenses

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Code, a Probate Court in which proceedings to declare heirship are maintained, under the provisions of Subsection (c), Section 48 of this Code, may order the payment by the guardian of inheritance or estate taxes or expenses of administering the estate and may order the sale of properties in the ward's estate, when necessary, for the purpose of paying inheritance or estate taxes, or expenses of administering the estate, or for the purpose of distributing the estate among the heirs.

Art. 7057c. [Repealed].
Art. 7057g. Validation of Unenforceable Tax Levies and Junior College District Boundary Changes [NEW].

Art. 7041a. Application of Sunset Act

The board to calculate the ad valorem tax rate is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished effective September 1, 1989.

Art. 7057c. Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2306, ch. 719, art. V, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975

Art. 7057g. Validation of Unenforceable Tax Levies and Junior College District Boundary Changes

Unenforceable Tax Levies and Boundary Changes

Sec. 1. (a) All tax levies and junior college district boundary changes heretofore made by and for any tax unit, which levies or boundary changes are unenforceable because not made in strict compliance with the form and manner required by statute or because of any other defect which may be cured by the legislature, are hereby validated and declared enforceable the same as though they had been regularly made in proper form and manner.

(b) If for any cause any tax unit hereafter fails to make a valid tax levy for any year or years, the tax unit’s last valid tax levy prior to such omitted year or years shall be continued in force as the tax levy of such tax unit for each year in which a valid levy was not made, so that there shall never be a year hereafter for which some valid levy is not in force.

Levies Not Recorded

Sec. 2. Should any tax unit fail to make a proper record of a tax levy for any year or years, but taxes were assessed and collected by the tax unit for that year or years and the tax rate(s) can be determined by examining the tax rolls for such year or years, such assessing and collecting shall constitute notice that a tax levy was made by the tax unit for each such year even though such levy was not properly recorded; and the tax unit’s governing body may make inquiry and determine that a proper tax levy was regularly and validly made for each such year but was not recorded, and the governing body may adopt a proper tax levy ordinance for each such year to be entered in the official records nunc pro tune, and this record shall be conclusive evidence that the tax unit’s levy for such year was properly and regularly made. This provision shall be cumulative of and in addition to all other rights and remedies now available to any tax unit in such cases.

CHAPTER TWO. TAXES BASED UPON GROSS RECEIPTS

Art. 7083a. Allocation of Revenue Derived from Certain Occupations and Gross Receipts Taxes; Appropriations and Allocations for Certain Funds

[See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 1]

Sec. 2. [See Compact Edition, Volume 2 for text of 2, (1) to (4-d)]

(4-d) (A) After the above allocations and payments have been made from the Clearance...
Fund, other than those provided by Subsections (4-a) and (5) of this section, there is allocated and shall be transferred and credited to the State Highway Fund an amount determined by the Highway Cost Index Committee as provided in this subsection.

(B) The Highway Cost Index Committee consists of the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, and the State Comptroller of Public Accounts. In the absence of the Governor, the Secretary of State of Texas serves in place of the Governor.

(C) On or before November 1 of each even-numbered year, the committee created by this subsection shall certify to the Comptroller the estimated amount to be allocated, transferred, and credited to the State Highway Fund under this subsection for the succeeding fiscal biennium, except that the certification of the amount for the biennium beginning on September 1, 1977, must be made not later than 30 days after the effective date of H.B. No. 3, Acts of the 65th Legislature, Regular Session, 1977.

(D) On or before August 1 of each year, the committee shall certify to the Comptroller the amount to be allocated, transferred, and credited to the State Highway Fund under this subsection for the succeeding fiscal year.

(E) Funds allocated and appropriated from the Clearance Fund to the State Highway Fund shall be paid no later than the sixth working day of each month in equal monthly installments. If for any month the amount remaining to the credit of the Clearance Fund is insufficient to provide for the transfer and allocation to the State Highway Fund under this subsection, the difference between the amount transferred and the amount required to be transferred under this subsection shall be transferred and paid from the General Revenue Fund or other funds due to the General Revenue Fund.

(F) On or before November 1, 1978, and on or before each succeeding November 1, the committee shall determine the actual amount of dedicated revenue earned for the State Highway Fund and the actual highway cost index for the preceding fiscal year (except that for fiscal years beginning September 1, 1977, and September 1, 1978, the actual highway cost index is 1.00) and shall determine the amount by which the amount allocated, transferred, and credited to the State Highway Fund under this subsection during the preceding fiscal year differs from the amount that would have been allocated, transferred, and credited to the State Highway Fund during the preceding fiscal year based on the actual dedicated revenue and the actual highway cost index. The committee shall certify to the Comptroller the amount of the difference, if any, and shall certify to the Comptroller the amount by which allocations, transfers, and credits for the remainder of the current fiscal year are to be adjusted to compensate for the amount of the difference.

(G) The amount to be transferred, allocated, and credited each fiscal year to the State Highway Fund shall be determined by application of the following formula:

\text{Amount} = (\text{Base Amount} \times \text{Cost Index}) - \text{Dedicated Revenue}

In this formula:

(i) “Amount” means the amount to be allocated from the Clearance Fund to the State Highway Fund.

(ii) “Base Amount” means $700 million for the fiscal year beginning September 1, 1977, and $750 million for each fiscal year beginning on or after September 1, 1978.

(iii) “Highway Cost Index” means the number determined as provided in Paragraph (H) of this subsection, except that for the fiscal years beginning on September 1, 1977, and September 1, 1978, the highway cost index is 1.00.

(iv) “Dedicated Revenue” means the revenue credited to the State Highway Fund under Articles 9.25, 10.22, 10.72, and 20.13, Title 122A, Taxation—General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended; Article 6686, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended; Sections 1 through 16, Chapter 88, General Laws, Acts of the 41st Legislature, 2nd Called Session, 1929, as amended (Article 6675a—1 et seq., Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes); Chapter 18, General Laws, Acts of the 41st Legislature, 5th Called Session, 1950, as amended (Article 6675a—6e, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes); Section 2, Chapter 178, General Laws, Acts of the 43rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1938, as amended (Article 6675a—13½, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes); Chapter 298, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959 (Article 6675a—5b, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes); Chapter 456, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959, as amended (Article 6675a—6b, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes); Chapter 517, Acts of the 58th Legislature, 1963, as amended (Article 6675a—6e, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes); Chapter 707, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965, as amended (Article 6675a—6d, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes); and Chapter 338, Acts of the 64th Legislature, 1975 (Article 6675a—5e.1, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).
(H) The highway cost index shall be determined by the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation according to procedures approved by the Highway Cost Index Committee. The index shall be based on the weighted combined costs of highway operations, maintenance, and construction for the appropriate fiscal year compared to the costs of those items used for the fiscal year beginning on September 1, 1978.

(I) This subsection does not authorize the transfer of any funds from the State Highway Fund to the Clearance Fund or any other fund even though the actual amount of dedicated revenue exceeds the base amount times the cost index.

(a) Each separate parcel of real property shall be valued at its true and full value in money, excluding the value of crops growing or ungathered thereon.

(b) In determining the true and full value of real and personal property the assessor shall not adopt a lower or different standard of value because the same is to serve as a basis of taxation, nor shall he adopt as a criterion of value the price for which such property would sell at auction or a forced sale or in the aggregate with all the property in his county; but he shall value each tract or lot by itself, and at such sum and price as he believes the same to be fairly worth in money at the time such assessment is made.

(c) In valuing any real property on which there is a coal or other mine, or stone or other quarry, or springs possessing medicinal properties, the same shall be valued at such price as such property, including a mine, or quarry or spring, would probably sell at a fair voluntary sale for cash.

(d) An interest in a mineral which may be removed by surface mining or quarrying from a deposit that is not being produced shall be valued at the price for which the interest would sell while the mineral is in place and not being produced. The value shall be determined by applying a per acre value to the number of acres covered by the interest. The aggregate of the value of such an interest, and all other interests that, if not under separate ownership, would constitute a fee simple estate in any real property, may not exceed the value which would be placed upon the fee estate, if the interest in minerals were not owned separately.
(e) Taxable leasehold estates on non-exempt property shall be valued at such price as such leasehold estates would bring at a voluntary sale for cash, and taxable leasehold estates on exempt property shall be valued at such price as such leasehold estates would bring at a voluntary sale thereof for cash, based upon the value of a comparable improvement if located on non-exempt property, with reductions for reversionary interests, restrictions on use, and credit for normal rental, except that the value of a leasehold may not be less than the total annual rental for the leasehold for the year in which it is valued.

(f) Personal property of every description shall be valued at its true and full value in money.

(g) Money, whether in possession or on deposit, or in the hands of any member of the family, or any person whatsoever, shall be entered in the statement at the full amount thereof.

(h) Every credit for a sum certain, payable either in money or property of any kind, shall be valued at the full value of the same so payable. If for a specified article or for a specified number or quantity of property of any kind, it shall be valued at the current price of such property at the place where payable. Annuities or moneys payable at stated periods shall be valued at the price that the person listing the same believes them to be worth in money. [Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1195, ch. 461, § 1, eff. Aug. 29, 1977; Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1524, ch. 617, § 2, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

(b) The board may promulgate and amend rules of professional conduct appropriate to establish and maintain a high standard of integrity in the practice of assessing and collecting ad valorem taxes, after all persons registered under Section 12 of this Act are notified. The notice shall set forth the proposed rules of professional conduct or amendments to the rules. No rule or amendment shall become operative until it is approved by a majority of the registered professional assessors practicing in this state. The board shall adopt reasonable means for voting on such measures and shall declare the results of elections and proclaim the effective date of the rules or amendments and notify all persons registered by this Act.

Initiation of Proceedings; Notice

Sec. 10. The board may initiate proceedings under this Act, either on its own motion or on the complaint of any person, to insure strict compliance with this Act and the enforcement of this Act and of all rules and regulations adopted by the board. The violation of a provision of this Act, or a rule or regulation of the board, by a person practicing assessing in Texas is sufficient reason or ground to refuse, suspend, or revoke his registration granted under the terms of this Act. The board may institute action in its own name against an individual person to enjoin a violation of a provision of this Act or a rule or regulation of the board. The board is not required to give an appeal bond in a cause arising under this Act. Prior to the initiation of proceedings for a violation of this Act, a written notice shall be sent by certified mail to the prospective defendant stating the nature of the charge and the time and place of the hearing before the board. The notice shall be mailed at least 20 days before the hearing.

A person registered under this Act who fails to pay the annual renewal fee on or before January 31 of each year shall be deleted from the list of persons duly registered to practice assessing in Texas according to the provisions of this Act. Persons applying for reinstatement within 90 days shall pay a penalty, not to exceed $25, set by the board. Reinstatement thereafter shall be denied except on regular application and examination satisfactory to the board. The board may not waive the collection of a fee or penalty described under this Act.

Unprofessional Manner or Violation of Act Required by Governing Body Prohibited

Sec. 22. No governing body of a taxing jurisdiction of this state may, as a necessity for employment, require that an assessor act in an unprofessional manner or commit acts in violation of this Act. A complaint of a violation of this section shall be thoroughly investigated by the board. A proceeding for a violation shall be conducted according to Section 10 of this Act.

Rights and Prohibited Acts of Registrants; Suspension or Revocation for Violations

Sec. 23. (a) An assessor registered under the terms of this Act shall:

Application for a refund must be made by the taxpayer affected and filed with the Tax Collector within three (3) years of the date of the erroneous payment or overpayment. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1347, ch. 506, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 7261a. Acceptance of Checks by Tax Collector for Payment of Fees and Taxes

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) “Tax collector” means the county tax assessor-collector.

(2) “Check” means an instrument signed by the maker; containing an unconditional promise or order to pay a sum certain in money and containing no other promise, order, obligation, or power given by the maker; payable on demand; and drawn on a bank.

(3) “Maker” means the drawer of a check.

Acceptance of Check for Payment of Certain Fees Permitted

Sec. 2. A tax collector may, but is not required to, accept a check for the payment of motor vehicle registration fees (Article 6675a–1 et seq., Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes); motor vehicle sales taxes imposed by Chapter 6, Title 122A, Taxation—General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; occupation taxes paid to the tax collector under Chapter 19, Title 122A, Taxation—General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; motor vehicle title transfer fees under the Certificate of Title Act (Article 6687–1, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes); license or permit fees under the Texas Liquor Control Act (Article 666–1 et seq., Vernon’s Texas Penal Auxiliary Laws), and property taxes.

Sec. 3. The acceptance of a check for the payment of taxes and fees listed in Section 2 of this Act does not constitute payment of the tax or fee, and the tax or fee is not considered paid until the check is honored by the bank on which the check is drawn. This section does not prohibit a tax collector from issuing receipts, license plates, certificates, or other instruments on the receipt of a check, but the issuance is conditional on the payment of the check by the drawee bank.

Identification Required

Sec. 4. When a tax collector receives a check as conditional payment of a tax or fee listed in Section 2 of this Act, he shall require adequate identification of the maker and note on the check or otherwise record the type of identification of the maker and information from the identification to assist in locating the maker in the event the check is not honored.

Liability of Tax Collector and Bondsman

Sec. 5. Except as provided in Section 8 of this Act, a tax collector and his bondsman are not liable for the amount of any taxes and fees for which the tax collector has accepted a check that is not honored by the drawee bank if the tax collector complied with the requirements of Section 4 of this Act and if the tax collector did not know or should not reasonably have known that the check was not properly drawn or that it would not be honored.

Procedures for Collection of Dishonored Checks

Sec. 6. A tax collector may establish procedures for the collection of dishonored checks. The procedures may include:

(1) official notification to the maker that the check has not been honored and that the receipt, registration, certificate, or other instrument issued on the receipt of the check is not valid until payment of the tax or fee is made;

(2) notification of the sheriff or other law enforcement officers that a check has not been honored and that the receipt, registration, certificate, or other instrument held by the maker is not valid; and

(3) notification to the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, the State Comptroller of Public Accounts, or the Department of Public Safety that the receipt, registration, certificate, or instrument held by the maker is not valid.

Dishonored checks; Remission Not Required; Notice; Assistance in Collection

Sec. 7. If taxes and fees listed in Section 2 of this Act are required to be remitted to the State Comptroller of Public Accounts or the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation and if payment was made to the tax collector by a check that was not honored by the drawee bank, the amount of the tax or fee is not required to be remitted, but the tax collector shall notify the appropriate department of the amount of the fee or tax, the type of fee or tax involved, and the name and address of the maker. The State Department of Highways and Public Transportation and the State Comptroller of Public Accounts shall assist the tax collector in collecting the fee or tax and may cancel or revoke any receipt, registration, certificate, or instrument issued in the name of the state conditioned on the payment of the fee or tax.

Liability of Tax Collector for Violations of Act

Sec. 8. If the State Comptroller of Public Accounts or the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation determines that the tax collector of a county has accepted payment for fees and taxes to be remitted to that department in violation of Section 4 of this Act or that more than two percent of the fees and taxes to be received from the tax collector are not remitted because of the acceptance of checks that are not honored by the drawee bank, the department may notify the tax collector that he may not accept a check for the payment of any fee or tax to be remitted to that department. A tax collector who, after notice that he may not receive a check for the payment of fees or taxes to be remitted to a department, accepts a check for the payment of a fee or tax, is liable to the state for the amount of the check accepted.

Rules for Acceptance of Checks and Collection of Dishonored Checks

Sec. 9. The State Comptroller of Public Accounts and the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation may make rules concerning the acceptance of checks by tax collectors and for the collection of dishonored checks.

Sale for Less Than Adjusted Value or Aggregate of Judgments in Suit to Party Other Than Taxing Unit Prohibited; Distribution of Proceeds

Sec. 8. No property sold for taxes under decree in such suit shall be sold to the owner of said property, directly or indirectly or to anyone having an interest therein, or to any party other than a taxing unit which is a party to the suit, for less than the amount of the adjudged value aforesaid of said property or the aggregate amount of the judgments against the property in said suit, whichever is lower, and the net proceeds of any sale of such property made under decree of court in said suit to any party other than any such taxing unit shall belong and be distributed to all taxing units which are parties to the suit which by the judgment in said suit have been found to have tax liens against such property, pro rata and in proportion to the amounts of their respective tax liens as established in said judgment, but any excess in the proceeds of sale over and above the amount necessary to defray the costs of suit and sale and other expenses hereinabove made chargeable against such proceeds, and to fully discharge the judgments against said property, shall be paid by the sheriff or constable making the sale to the clerk of the court out of which execution or other final process issued to be retained and disposed of by him as follows:

Such excess funds shall be retained by the clerk of the court for a period of three (3) years from the date received, unless otherwise ordered by the court, after which time he shall forward such excess funds to the State Treasurer, who shall hold the same in trust to be paid to the owner against whom said taxes were assessed or the heirs or legal representative of a deceased owner. The clerk shall note upon the execution docket in each such case the amount of such excess funds, the date received by him, and the date transmitted to the State Treasurer, and shall accompany such remittance with a statement upon a form to be prescribed by the Comptroller showing the style and number of the case, the court from which execution issued, which statement shall be filed and kept by the Treasurer and a duplicate thereof shall be forwarded to the Comptroller, who shall also keep an account of such excess funds transmitted to the Treasury.

At any time during the three (3) year period such excess funds are retained by the clerk of the court, anyone claiming the same may file a petition in the case out of which execution or other process issued, setting forth in said petition the basis upon which claimant claims such excess funds, and the court shall set the same for hearing. At any time within four (4) years from the date such excess funds are forwarded to the State Treasurer by the clerk of the court, anyone claiming the same may file a petition in the case out of which execution or other final process issued, setting forth in said petition the basis upon which claimant claims such excess funds, and the court shall set the same for hearing. A copy of such petition shall be served on the County or District Attorney of the county, at least twenty (20) days prior to the date of hearing, and a copy of such petition shall be forwarded to the State Treasurer and the Comptroller. The County Attorney, or District Attorney if there be no County Attorney, of such county, shall represent the State at such hearing.

Penalties and Interest

Sec. 4. Penalties and interest continue to accrue during a period of deferment or abatement of suit as a result of this Act. Delinquent ad valorem taxes, penalties, and interest at all times remain a first priority lien upon the land and all mutations thereof until paid. A taxing unit may sue for and foreclose its liens on all accrued delinquent ad valorem taxes and penalties (including "interest") when the homestead is no longer owned and occupied by the person sixty-five (65) years old or older who has claimed protection of this Act.

Payment of Taxes Due Not Precluded

Sec. 5. Nothing in this Act precludes any person sixty-five (65) years old or older from paying the ad valorem taxes due on residential homestead property. He or she may pay for any year(s) without losing his rights to protection under this Act for any year(s) when he is unable to pay or chooses not to pay.

Such excess funds shall be retained by the clerk of the court for a period of three (3) years from the date received, unless otherwise ordered by the court, after which time he shall forward such excess funds to the State Treasurer, who shall hold the same in trust to be paid to the owner against whom said taxes were assessed or the heirs or legal representative of a deceased owner. The clerk shall note upon the execution docket in each such case the amount of such excess funds, the date received by him, and the date transmitted to the State Treasurer, and shall accompany such remittance with a statement upon a form to be prescribed by the Comptroller showing the style and number of the case, the court from which execution issued, which statement shall be filed and kept by the Treasurer and a duplicate thereof shall be forwarded to the Comptroller, who shall also keep an account of such excess funds transmitted to the Treasury.

At any time during the three (3) year period such excess funds are retained by the clerk of the court, anyone claiming the same may file a petition in the case out of which execution or other process issued, setting forth in said petition the basis upon which claimant claims such excess funds, and the court shall set the same for hearing. A full copy of such petition and date set shall be served on the County or District Attorney of the county at least twenty (20) days prior to the date set for the hearing, and if there be intervening plaintiffs or attorney ad litem in the case previously, then a full copy of such petition shall also be timely served on each such plaintiff or attorney. Signed approval or waiver must be obtained from each such plaintiff or attorney before the petition may be approved and granted.

At any time within four (4) years from the date such excess funds are forwarded to the State Treasurer by the clerk of the court, anyone claiming the same may file a petition in the case out of which execution or other final process issued, setting forth in said petition the basis upon which claimant claims such excess funds, and the court shall set the same for hearing. A copy of such petition shall be served on the County or District Attorney of the county, at least twenty (20) days prior to the date of hearing, and a copy of such petition shall be forwarded to the State Treasurer and the Comptroller. The County Attorney, or District Attorney if there be no County Attorney, of such county, shall represent the State at such hearing.
If the court shall find that such claimant is entitled to recover such excess funds, it shall make an order directing the Comptroller to issue his warrant on the Treasury against such trust funds for the payment of same, but without interest or cost; a copy of which order under the seal of the court shall be sufficient voucher for issuing such warrant.

After expiration of four (4) years from date such excess funds are received by the Treasurer he shall transfer the same from the trust fund to the general revenue fund unless there is then pending a petition by a claimant of such excess funds not acted upon, and if such claimant has not within four (4) years as herein provided filed a petition for such excess funds, the same shall be forever barred, and no claim shall be thereafter filed or allowed.

This Act shall apply to and govern the handling and disposition of excess funds arising from delinquent tax sales in the hands of the District Clerk or the State Treasurer at the effective date of this Act. The District Clerk shall submit to the State Treasurer all such excess funds which have been in his hands three (3) years or more prior to the effective date of this Act, but the District Clerk shall have thirty (30) days from the effective date of this Act to comply herewith, and such excess funds may be claimed within (4) years from the effective date of this Act in the same manner as such funds transmitted to the State Treasurer under the terms of this Act after its effective date.

After the expiration of four (4) years from the effective date of this Act such excess funds remaining in the trust fund, unless a petition is then pending claiming such funds, the State Treasurer shall transfer all of such unclaimed funds from the trust fund to the general revenue fund and thereafter the claim for such funds shall be forever barred and no claim shall be thereafter filed or allowed.

Sec. 9. If the property be sold to any taxing unit which is a party to the judgment under decree of Court in said suit, the title to said property shall be bid in and held by the taxing unit purchasing same for the use and benefit of itself and all other taxing units which are parties to the suit and which have been adjudged in said suit to have tax liens against such property, pro rata and in proportion to the amounts of their tax liens as established by the judgment in said suit, and costs and expenses shall not be payable until sale by such taxing unit so purchasing same. During the time the taxing unit has title to the property, it shall preserve the status and value of the property by fencing, leasing, or other reasonable means until the property is redeemed or resold. If the property is leased during the redemption period, the rental income shall be used to maintain and improve the property, and the taxing unit shall keep records of the amount of rental income and its disposition. The taxing unit may sell and convey said property so purchased by it, or which has heretofore been purchased in the name of any officer thereof, at any time in any manner determined to be most advantageous to said taxing unit or units either at public or private sale, subject to any then existing right of redemption; and the purchaser of the property at any such sale shall receive all of the right, title and interest in said property as was acquired and is then held by said taxing unit under such tax foreclosure sale to it; but such property shall not be sold by the taxing unit purchasing the same, at private sale, for less than the adjudged value thereof, if any, as established in the tax judgment, or the total amount for which such judgment was rendered against the property in said suit, whichever is lower, without the written consent of all taxing units which in said judgment shall have been found to have tax liens against said property. All such consents shall be evidenced by the joinder in the conveyance by the consenting taxing units, acting by the officers herein authorized to give such consents. Consent to such sales in behalf of the State of Texas may be given by the County Tax Collector of the county in which the property is located; and consents on behalf of other taxing units may be given by the presiding officers of their governing bodies. Deeds executed hereunder by taxing units shall be executed in their behalf by the presiding officer of their governing body and whose authority to so act in any given case shall be prima facie presumed. When such property is so sold at public or private sale, the proceeds thereof shall be received by or paid over to the taxing unit which purchased said property at the tax foreclosure sale, for the account of itself and all other taxing units adjudged to have a tax lien against such property, and all taxing units so receiving said proceeds shall first pay out of the same all costs and expenses of Court and of sale, and distribute the remainder among all taxing units for which purchasing taxing unit purchased and held said property, pro rata and in proportion to the amounts of their tax liens against said property as established in said judgment. Public sales hereinabove provided for may either be made by the Sheriff, at the request of the taxing unit purchasing the property at the tax foreclosure sale, or by any Commissioner appointed by such taxing unit by resolution of its governing body. If the State of Texas is the taxing unit which purchased said property at the tax foreclosure sale, the Commissioners Court of the county in which the property is located shall have authority to act for the State of Texas in making private sales and conveyances of said property, as herein provided, or in requesting the Sheriff, or in appointing a Commissioner, to make public sale thereof, and in receiving and distributing the proceeds of such sales, and all sales and conveyances made in behalf of the State of Texas by the Commissioners Court, or made by the Sheriff or any Commissioner appointed by the Commissioners Court, under the provisions hereof, shall operate to transfer to the purchaser at such sale all right, title and interest acquired or held by the State of Texas as purchaser at the tax foreclosure sale. Any taxing unit, Sheriff, or Commissioner appointed by a taxing unit, making any sale under provisions hereof shall execute and deliver to the purchaser at such sale a deed of conveyance, conveying all right, title and interest of all the taxing units interested in the tax foreclosure judgment in and to the property so sold; provided, if the period for the redemption of said property from said tax foreclosure sale has not expired at the time of said sale, said conveyance shall be made expressly subject to the right of redemption provided in Section 12 of said Act.

Provided, however, that the methods of sale above set out shall not be exclusive and that if sale has not been made by, or at the instance of, the purchasing taxing unit within six (6) months after the redemption period has expired, any taxing unit which has obtained judgment in said suit may force the sale of said property by the Sheriff by written request to the Sheriff, and in the event such written request is so made to the Sheriff it shall be his duty to sell said property at public sale as hereinafter provided. All public sales provided for in this Section shall be made in the manner prescribed for the sale of real estate under execution. The notice of the sale shall contain a legal description of the property to be sold, the number and style of the suit under which same was sold at tax foreclosure sale and the date of said tax foreclosure sale; and the Sheriff or other officer making such sale is hereby authorized and it is hereby made his duty, to reject any and all bids for said land when in his judgment the amount bid is insufficient or inadequate, and in the event said bid or bids are rejected, the land shall be readvertised and offered for sale as herein provided, but the acceptance by the Sheriff or other officer authorized to make such sale of a bid for said land shall be conclusive and binding on the question of the sufficiency of the bid, and no action shall be sustained in any Court of this State to set aside said sale on the grounds of the inadequacy of the amount bid and accepted. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting any taxing unit participating in said judgment from instituting action to set aside the said sale on the grounds of fraud or collusion between the officer making the sale and the purchaser, provided that such action be brought within two (2) years after such sale is made, and not afterward. The Sheriff or other officer making any such sale shall receive and pay over the proceeds thereof as hereinabove provided, and the same shall be distributed as herein provided.

All sales and conveyances heretofore made by taxing units, or officers thereof, of property purchased by them, or in the name of any officer thereof, at tax foreclosure sales, for the benefit of themselves and all other taxing units interested in the tax judgment, and all sales heretofore made by the Commissioners Courts, or the Attorney General joined by the County Tax Collector, of property purchased by the State of Texas at tax foreclosure sales for the benefit of itself and other taxing units, are hereby in all things confirmed and validated; provided that this validating provision shall in no way apply to or validate any such sale the validity of which is challenged in any now pending litigation; nor shall the same apply to or validate any such sale, in cases where the Sheriff upon written request of any taxing unit, has thereafter made sale of the same property at public outcry and all such so made by the Sheriff as provided in Section 9 of said Act prior to the taking effect of this Amendment, and all such sales so made by the Sheriff are hereby in all things confirmed and validated.

No action attacking the validity of any resale of property purchased by a taxing unit at a tax foreclosure sale, or any of said sale hereafter made in accordance with, or purporting to be made in accordance with, this Section shall be commenced after the expiration of one (1) year from the date of such sale.

[Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1240, ch. 479, § 1, eff. Aug. 29, 1977; Acts 1977, 65th Leg., ch. 481, § 1, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 7345b-3. Limitations On Actions to Recover Real Property Sold at Tax Sale

(a) No cause of action or defense may be asserted or maintained on a claim respecting any land sold for delinquent taxes at a tax sale pursuant to a judicial foreclosure of a tax lien, unless the cause of action or defense is asserted in an action commenced within three years after the filing of record of the deed executed to the purchaser at the tax sale.

(b) If the purchaser's deed was filed before the effective date of this Act, the cause of action or defense may be asserted in an action commenced within three years after the effective date of this Act.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, if a person other than the purchaser at the tax sale or his successor in interest pays taxes on the property during the three consecutive years following the tax sale, the three-year limitations period provided in this Act does not run against the person who paid the taxes unless that person was duly served by process in the previous suit involving foreclosure of the tax lien for delinquent taxes.

(d) When an action for recovery of real property is barred by the provisions of this Act, the purchaser at the tax sale or his successor in interest shall be held to have full title to the land, precluding all other claims.

[Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1680, ch. 663, § 1, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 7345f. Right of Appeal by Property Owner

Time for Filing Petition for Review
Sec. 1. A property owner is entitled to appeal a decision of any board of equalization to a district court of the State of Texas. A party who appeals to a district court must file a petition for review with the district court within 45 days after the tax roll containing the value involved is approved by the taxing authority.

Venue
Sec. 2. Venue is in the county in which the board of equalization that made the decision is located.

Trial by Jury
Sec. 3. Any party is entitled to a trial by jury on demand.

Value of Property Fixed
Sec. 4. (a) The issue to be determined by the district court in an appeal is whether or not the value of the property in question as ascertained by the board of equalization is in error.

(b) If the court or jury finds that the value as ascertained by the board of equalization is in error, meaning it is higher than the value set out by the property owner in a rendition filed prior to the board of equalization hearings as required by law, then the court or jury shall fix a value for the property in question as of January 1 of the tax year in controversy. In fixing the value of the property in question, the court or jury shall determine the cash market value and multiply that value by the assessment ratio, if any, in effect for the taxing authority involved.

(c) The value affixed by the court or jury pursuant to Subsection (b) above shall be binding on the taxing authority or authorities involved in the lawsuit for the tax year in question and for the succeeding tax year. However, in the succeeding tax year the taxing authority may add the value of subsequent improvements to the property, if any, to the value affixed by the court or jury.

Defense to Appeal
Sec. 5. When established by a preponderance of the evidence, it shall be a defense to an appeal under this article that the taxpayer failed to exercise good faith in estimating the cash market value set out in the rendition required in Subsection (b) of Section 4 of this article. A taxpayer does not fail to exercise good faith for purposes of this section if he makes a good faith effort to estimate the cash market value of the property and the assessment ratio, if any, in effect for the taxing authority and renders the value determined by multiplying his estimate of cash market value by the assessment ratio. A taxpayer shall be required to file with the board of equalization a sworn affidavit, in addition to the rendition, prior to invoking the provisions of this article but shall not be required to appear personally or by a representative.

Rights Cumulative
Sec. 6. The rights afforded taxpayers under this article are cumulative and do not preempt other remedies granted by statute or evolving by common law.

Injunctive or Restraining Order Relief
Sec. 7. The cause of action herein granted does not expand upon taxpayers' rights to sue for an injunction or restraining order as a member of a class. Rights granted hereunder are specifically prohibited from being the basis of injunctive or restraining order relief in a class action suit seeking to enjoin the putting into effect of a tax plan of a taxing authority.

Any incorporated city, town or village in this State is hereby authorized by ordinance to authorize the county tax assessor and county tax collector of the county in which said city, town or village is situated, to act as tax assessor and tax collector respectively for said city, town or village. The property in said city, town or village utilizing such county assessor and collector shall be assessed at the same value as it is assessed for county and State purposes, except that real property in an incorporated city in a county of 880,460 population, or greater, according to the last preceding federal census, by ordinance of the city government may be assessed at a greater rate of value than the same property is assessed for state and county purposes. When an ordinance is so passed making available their services, said assessor shall assess the taxes for said city, town or village and perform the duties of tax assessor for said city, town or village according to the ordinances of said city, town or village and according to law; and said collector shall collect the taxes and assessments for said city, town or village and turn over as soon as collected to the city depository of said city or other authority authorized to receive such taxes or assessments, all taxes or money so collected, and shall perform the duties of tax collector of said city, town or village according to the ordinances thereof and according to law, deducting from the taxes so collected his fees provided for herein; and they shall respectively receive for such services one percent of the taxes so collected, except the fee for the collection of taxes of a city in a county having a population of 830,460 or more, according to the last preceding federal census, may be determined by agreement between the county tax assessor-collector and the city of an amount not to exceed the actual costs to the county.

Provided that nothing in this article or in any other laws of this state shall be construed to authorize a refund or credit for franchise tax paid prior to September 1, 1975, by a corporation eligible for exemption by the comptroller to be exempt under this article from the payment of franchise tax, unless the comptroller determines that the corporation through mistake of law or fact overpaid the franchise tax due by it prior to September 1, 1975. The Comptroller of Public Accounts or his authorized representative, or the State Auditor or his authorized representative, shall have full and complete authority to investigate and inquire into and examine the books and records of any such corporation for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of its franchise tax liability.

(1) Any corporation, either domestic or foreign, which shall fail to pay any franchise tax provided for in this Chapter when the same shall become due and payable under the provisions of this Chapter or shall fail to file any report provided for in this Chapter when the same shall become due, shall thereupon become liable to a penalty of five per cent (5%) of the amount of such franchise tax due by such corporation, and if said report has not been filed or said taxes have not been paid within thirty (30) days from the date said report or taxes shall have become due, an additional five per cent (5%) of such tax shall be forfeited; said penalty shall never be less than One Dollar ($1). Delinquent taxes shall draw interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum beginning sixty (60) days from the date due.

2. If the reports required by Articles 12.08, 12.09, and 12.19 be not filed in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, or if the amount of such tax and penalties be not paid in full on or before September 15 of each year or, when an initial tax report or payment is required, on or before ninety (90) days after the time the initial report and payment is required, such corporation shall for such default forfeit its right to do business in this State; which forfeiture shall be consummated without judicial ascertainment by the Comptroller of Public Accounts. Any corporation whose right to do business shall be thus forfeited shall be denied the right to sue or defend in any court of this State, except in a suit to forfeit the charter or certificate of authority of such corporation. In any suit against such corporation on a cause of action arising before such forfeiture, no affirmative relief shall be granted to such corporation unless its right to do business in this State shall be revived as provided in this Chapter.

3. Each director and officer of any corporation whose right to do business within this State shall be so forfeited shall, as to any and all debts of such corporation, which shall include all franchise taxes and penalties thereon which shall become due and payable subsequent to the date of such forfeiture, and which may be created or incurred within this State, after the report or payment becomes due and before the revival of the right of such corporation to do business, be deemed and held liable thereon in the same manner and to the same extent as if such directors and officers of such corporation were partners. However, any officer or director may avoid liability if he shows that the debt was created (1) over his objection, or (2) without his knowledge, if the exercise of reasonable diligence to acquaint himself with the affairs of the corporation would not have revealed the intention to create the debt.

Art. 12.15. Notice of Forfeiture

The Comptroller of Public Accounts shall notify each domestic and foreign corporation which may be or become subject to a franchise tax under the laws of this State and which has failed to file such report or pay franchise tax on or before the time specified by this Chapter that unless such overdue report is filed or such overdue tax together with said penalties thereon shall be paid on or before September 15 of that year or, if an initial report or tax payment is required on or before ninety (90) days after the day on which the initial report or payment was required to be made, the right of such corporation to do business in this State will be forfeited without judicial ascertainment. This notice may be either written or printed and shall be verified by the seal of the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and shall be addressed to such corporation and mailed to the post office named in its articles of incorporation as its principal place of business, or to any other known place of business of the corporation. Any corporation whose right to do business may have been forfeited, as provided in this Chapter, shall be relieved from such forfeiture by paying to the Comptroller of Public Accounts the full amount of the franchise taxes, penalties, and interest due by it. When such taxes, penalties, and interest shall be paid to the Comptroller of Public Accounts, he shall revive the right of the corporation to do business within the State. If any domestic corporation or foreign corporation, whose right to do business within this State shall hereafter be forfeited under the provisions of this Chapter, shall fail to pay the Comptroller of Public Accounts within one hundred and twenty (120) days after such forfeiture, the amount necessary to entitle it to have its right to do business revived under the provisions of this Chapter, such failure shall constitute sufficient ground for the forfeiture of the charter of such domestic corporation, or of the certificate of authority of such foreign corporation. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller of Public Accounts, after such one hundred and twenty (120) days next following such forfeiture, to certify to the Attorney General the names of all corporations whose right to do business within the State has been forfeited as hereinbefore provided. The Attorney General, upon receiving such certificate, shall forthwith institute suit against such corporations certified to him by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as provided in Article 12.16 of this Chapter.

Sec. 26. (1) It shall be unlawful for a person who has a financial interest in a business required to be licensed by this Article or for any agent on behalf of such person to contract either orally or in writing to convey an interest in real property whether by lease, sub-lease or otherwise if such contract contains a provision or provisions in any way limiting the other party's right to secure music or skill or pleasure coin-operated machines from any source.

(2) It shall be unlawful for a person to secure or attempt to secure a contract of lease or bailment of a music or skill or pleasure coin-operated machine by coercion, threats or intimidation, through the commission of, or threat to commit, any act prohibited by the penal laws of this State or the Consumer Credit Code of this State.

(3) A person who violates Subsection (1) of this Section shall be guilty of a third-degree felony.

(4) Any person required to be licensed by this Article may make an extension of credit or lend the licensee's credit to a lessee or a bailee of a music or skill or pleasure coin-operated machine, or on behalf of either for business or commercial purposes when the following terms and conditions have been met and the following duties and obligations satisfactorily assumed and discharged.

(a) Before making the first such extension of credit, the licensee under this Article shall first notify the Consumer Credit Commissioner of the State of Texas of the intent of such licensee to make extensions of credit in the conduct of the licensee's business.

(b) The consideration for such extensions of credit shall not be less than one-half percent or exceed interest or its equivalent at the rate of one and one-half percent (1 1/2%) per month, computed according to the United States Rule. Consideration excludes court costs and attorney's fees as determined by the court, but includes the aggregate interest, fees, bonuses, commissions, brokerage, discounts, expenses, and other forms of costs charged, contracted for, or received by a licensee or any other person in connection with investigating, arranging, negotiating, procuring, guaranteeing, making, servicing, collecting, and enforcing an extension of credit or forbearance of money, credit, goods, or things in action, or any other service rendered. If in any transaction any consideration in excess of that provided above is charged or received by the licensee directly, or indirectly, except as the result of an accidental and bona fide error corrected upon discovery, the unpaid balance of the indebtedness created by such transaction shall be void, and that portion of any indebtedness so created which has been paid to the licensee, either the principal or its equivalent or interest or its equivalent, or both, shall be repaid by the licensee to the person.

(d) Each licensee making extensions of credit authorized by this Section shall keep in this State books and records, which shall be consistent with accepted accounting and auditing practices, relating to all such extensions of credit authorized by this Section sufficient to enable any competent person to determine whether or not such licensee is complying with this Section. Such records shall be preserved for four (4) years from the date of the transaction to which they relate, or two (2) years from the date of the final entry made with regard to such transaction, whichever is later.

(e) At such times as the Consumer Credit Commissioner may deem necessary, or at the request of the commission or the Attorney General, the Consumer Credit Commissioner, or his duly authorized representative, may make an examination of the place of business of each licensee hereunder, and may inquire into and examine the transactions, books, accounts, papers, correspondence, or records of such licensee insofar as they pertain to the extensions of credit regulated by this Section. In the course of such examinations, the Consumer Credit Commissioner or his duly authorized representative, may make an examination of the place of business of each licensee hereunder, and may inquire into and examine the transactions, books, accounts, papers, correspondence, or records of such licensee insofar as they pertain to the extensions of credit regulated by this Section. In the course of such examinations, the Consumer Credit Commissioner or his duly authorized representative shall have free access to the office, place of business, files, safes and vaults of such licensee, and shall have the right to make copies of such books, accounts, papers, correspondence and records. The Consumer Credit Commissioner or his duly authorized representative may, during the course of such examination, administer oaths.
and examine any person under oath upon any subject pertinent to any matter about which the Commissioner is authorized or required by this Section to consider, investigate or secure information. Any licensee who shall fail or refuse to let the Consumer Credit Commissioner or his duly authorized representative examine or make copies of such books or other relative documents shall thereby be deemed in violation of this Section. The information obtained in the course of such examination shall be confidential. Each licensee shall pay to the Consumer Credit Commissioner, and no part of such fee shall ever be paid into the General Revenue Fund of this State. All expenses incurred by the Consumer Credit Commissioner in conducting such examinations shall be paid only from such fees, and no such expense shall ever be charged against the funds of this State.

(f) The Consumer Credit Commissioner may make regulations necessary for the enforcement of this Section and consistent with all its provisions. Before making a regulation the Consumer Credit Commissioner shall give each licensee at least thirty (30) days' written notice of a public hearing, stating the time and place thereof and the terms or substance of the proposed regulation. At the hearing, any licensee or other person may be heard and may introduce evidence, data, or arguments or place the same on file. The Consumer Credit Commissioner, after consideration of all relevant matters presented, shall adopt and promulgate every regulation in written form, stating the date of adoption and date of promulgation. Each regulation shall be entered in a permanent record book which shall be a public record and be kept in the Consumer Credit Commissioner's office. A copy of every regulation shall be mailed to each licensee, and no regulation shall become effective until the expiration of at least twenty (20) days after such mailing. On the application of any person and payment of the cost thereof, the Consumer Credit Commissioner shall furnish such person a certified copy of any such regulation.

(4) Any person who violates Subsection (3) of this Section is guilty of a Class C misdemeanor.
