The use of the singular "hospital project" herein shall also include the plural "hospital projects" unless the context clearly requires a different connotation. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and when found by the governing body of an issuer to be so required, necessary, or convenient, "hospital project" shall include the following:

(1) any land, buildings, equipment, machinery, furniture, facilities, and improvements;

(6) any property or material used in the landscaping, equipping, or furnishing of a hospital project and other similar items necessary or convenient for the operation of a hospital project; and

(7) any other structure, facility, or equipment related to, or essential to, the operation of any health facility or system except that a hospital project shall not include any nursing home licensed as such, or which would be required to be licensed as such, under the authority of the State of Texas. "Hospital project" may include any combination of one or more of the foregoing.

(h) "Issuer" means any authority, city, county, or district.

(i) "Non-profit corporation" means (1) a non-profit corporation established under the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, as amended (Article 1396–1.01, et seq., Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), or any other similar statute, or (2) an association, foundation, trust, cooperative, or similar person or organization no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual and which incurs a contractual obligation with an issuer with respect to a hospital project in accordance with the provisions of this Act. The use of the singular "non-profit corporation" herein shall also include the plural “non-profit corporations” unless the context clearly requires a different connotation.

Payment of Bonds or Notes

Sec. 4. Bonds or notes issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall not be deemed to constitute general obligations of the State of Texas, the issuer, or any other political subdivision or agency of this state or a pledge of the faith and credit of any of them but such bonds or notes shall be payable solely from revenues of the hospital project for which they are issued and/or from such other revenues as may be provided by a non-profit corporation. No money of the State of Texas or any political subdivision or agency of this state, whether raised from taxation or any other source, except for revenue of the hospital project being financed with the bonds, shall ever be used to pay the principal of, redemption premium, if any, or interest on any revenue bonds or notes or refunding bonds or notes issued under this Act. All such revenue bonds or notes shall contain on the face thereof statements to the effect (a) that neither the State of Texas, the issuer, nor any political subdivision or agency of the State of Texas shall be obligated to pay the same or the interest thereon except from the revenues pledged thereto and (b) that neither the faith, credit, nor the taxing power of the State of Texas, the issuer, or any political subdivision or agency thereof is pledged to the payment of the principal of, redemption premium, if any, or interest on such bonds or notes. The issuer shall not be authorized to incur financial obligations under this Act which cannot be paid from the proceeds of the bonds or notes, revenues derived from operating a hospital project, or any other revenues as may be provided by a non-profit corporation, in accordance with the provisions of this Act. In no event shall any appropriation be made by the Legislature of Texas or any issuer to pay all or any part of any cost of a hospital project or any operating cost of such hospital project in accordance with the provisions of this Act. The issuer shall be paid, out of money from the proceeds of the sale and delivery of its revenue bonds or notes issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act, an amount of money equal to all of the issuer’s out-of-pocket expenses and costs in connection with the issuance, sale, and delivery of such bonds or notes, including, without limitation, all financing, legal, printing, and other expenses and costs incurred in issuing such bonds or notes, plus an amount of money equal to the compensation paid any of such issuer’s employees for the time such employees spent on activities related to the issuance, sale, and delivery of such bonds or notes. All such costs and expenses shall be deemed to be a “cost” of a hospital project as defined in Section 3(c) of this Act.

Sec. 5. In addition to all other powers which it may now or hereafter have, each issuer is authorized and empowered as follows:

(a) to provide, or cause to be provided by a non-profit corporation, by acquisition (whether by purchase, devise, gift, lease, or any one or more of such methods), construction, or improvement one or more hospital projects located within this state, and within or partially within the issuer’s boundaries; provided that with respect to the acquisition of one or more hospital projects, (a) the issuer shall only acquire such hospital project from a non-profit corporation which has been in existence and has operated such hospital project for a period of at least three years prior to the date of acquisition by the issuer and (b) the issuer affirmatively finds that the cost of such hospital project is not more than (1) the actual audited cost of the hospital project to the date of acquisition or (2) the fair market value of the hospital project at the date of acquisition as determined by an appraisal obtained by the issuer, the cost of which appraisal shall be a cost of the hospital project; provided that as to a city, a hospital project may be situated outside its territorial limits if it is within its extraterritorial jurisdiction as provided by the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes); and further provided that as to a city, a hospital project may be situated within the territorial limits of any other city if the governing body of such other city shall consent to the former city providing such hospital project;

(b) to cause title to a hospital project provided in accordance with the provisions of this Act to be vested in a non-profit corporation; provided that if the governing body of the issuer deems it advisable to so vest title in a non-profit corporation, such issuer may retain a mortgage interest in such hospital project, which mortgage interest shall expire if and when all bonds or notes of the issuer sold to provide such hospital project have been paid or provision has been made for their final payment;

(c) to enter into leases or other contracts with a non-profit corporation with respect to any hospital project whereby such non-profit corporation shall use, operate, or acquire such hospital project, and such leases or contracts may be for such payment and upon such terms and conditions as the governing body may deem advisable; and to sell such hospital project to any non-profit corporation, including a non-profit corporation using such hospital project, such sale to be by installment payments or otherwise, and to be fully consummated if and when all bonds or notes of the issuer sold to provide such hospital project have been paid or provision has been made for their final payment;

(d) to refund outstanding obligations, mortgages, or advances issued, made, or given by a non-profit corporation for the cost of a hospital project.

Sec. 6. No issuer shall have the power under this Act to acquire any hospital project, or any part thereof, to be sold or leased under this Act, by the exercise of the power of eminent domain. Land previously acquired by an issuer in the exercise of the power of eminent domain may be sold or leased, under the provisions of this Act; provided that the governing body of the issuer determines that (a) such use will not interfere with the purpose for which such land was originally acquired or that such land is no longer needed for such purpose, (b) at least seven years have elapsed since such land was so acquired, and (c) such land was not acquired for park purposes unless such sale or lease of park land has been approved at an election held under the authority of Article 1112, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended by Chapter 108, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, 1973.

Sec. 7. (a) Each issuer is hereby authorized to provide by resolution, from time to time, for the issuance of negotiable revenue bonds or notes or any other evidences of indebtedness for the purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of a hospital project. The bonds or notes of each issue shall be dated, shall bear interest at such rate or rates, and shall mature at such time or times, not exceeding 40 years from their date, as may be determined by the issuer and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the issuer, at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be determined by the issuer.

(c) One or more series of bonds or notes may be issued for each hospital project or any hospital projects may be combined in one or more series of bonds or notes if the governing body, in the exercise of its discretion, deems the same to be in the best interest of the issuer, but each hospital project may be considered separately with respect to the provisions of Sections 8 and 9 of this Act.

(d) The issuer shall determine the form of the bonds or notes, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto, and shall determine the denomination or denominations of the bonds or notes and the place or places of payment of principal, redemption premium, if any, and interest. Provision may be made for execution of the bonds or notes and coupons, if any, under the provisions of Chapter 204, Acts of the 57th Legislature, 1961, as amended (Article 717j-1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). In cases where any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature shall appear on any bonds, notes, or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds or notes, such signature or such facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if he had remained in office until such delivery. The bonds or notes may be issued in coupon or in registered form, or both, or may be payable to a specific person, as the issuer may determine, and provisions may be made for the registration of any coupon bonds or notes as to the principal alone and also as to both principal and interest, and provision may be made for the conversion of coupon bonds or notes into registered bonds or notes without coupons and for the reconversion into coupon bonds or notes of any registered bonds or notes without coupons. If the duty of such conversion or reconversion is imposed upon a trustee in a trust agreement, the substituted bonds or notes need not be reapproved by the Attorney General of Texas, and they shall remain uncontestable. The issuer shall sell the bonds or notes at such price or prices as shall be determined by the governing body of the issuer.

(e) The proceeds of the bonds or notes shall be used solely for the payment of the cost of the hospital project for which the bonds or notes were issued, and shall be disbursed in such manner and under such restrictions, if any, provided in the resolution authorizing their issuance or in the trust agreement securing the same. If the proceeds of the bonds or notes shall exceed the cost of the hospital project for which the same shall have been issued, the surplus shall be deposited to the credit of the sinking fund for such bonds or notes.

(f) From the proceeds from the sale of the bonds or notes, the governing body may set aside amounts for payments into reserve funds, and provisions for such funds may be made in the resolution authorizing the bonds or notes or any other instrument securing the bonds or notes; or (2) in certificates of deposit of any bank or trust company which deposits are secured by such obligations. Any bank or trust company with trust powers may be designated by the governing body to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or notes or of contract or lease revenues. Such bank or trust company shall furnish such indemnifying bonds or pledge such securities as may be required by the issuer to secure the deposits.

(g) Prior to the preparation or issuance of definitive bonds or notes, the issuer may issue interim receipts or temporary bonds or notes, with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds or notes when such bonds or notes shall have been executed and are available for delivery. Such interim receipts or temporary bonds or notes shall be for a maximum term of two years. The issuer shall submit such interim receipts or temporary bonds or notes to the Attorney General of Texas in accordance with Subsection (i) of this Section 7.

(h) Bonds or notes may be issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act without obtaining the consent of any department, division, commission, board, bureau, or agency of the State of Texas, and without any proceedings or the happening of any conditions or things other than those proceedings, conditions, or things which are specifically required by this Act.

(i) After issuance of the bonds or notes is authorized and before the bonds or notes may be delivered to the purchaser thereof, the bonds or notes and the proceedings authorizing their issuance and securing the bonds or notes shall be presented to the Attorney General of Texas for examination. Where such bonds or notes recite that they are secured by a pledge of all or any part of the revenues of the issuer to be derived from any lease or other contract, such contracts shall also be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas. If the attorney general finds that such bonds or notes have been duly authorized in accordance with the constitution and laws of the State of Texas and that such contracts, if any, submitted to him securing and relating to the bonds or notes have been made in accordance with the constitution and laws of the State of Texas, he shall approve the bonds or notes and such contracts. The bonds or notes when approved shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. After such approval and registration, the bonds or notes and any and all contracts submitted therewith shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms, and shall be incontestable in any court or other forum.

(j) Nothing in this Act shall supercede the provisions of the state certificate of need law.

(k) Before authorizing the issuance of any bonds or notes or calling an election on any matters authorized by this Act, the issuer shall deposit with the chief administrative officer of the issuer a full and complete description of any proposed hospital project, including a detailed listing and explanation of projected costs, the reasons for the hospital project, and the names of the owners of the non-profit corporation for whom the hospital project is to be constructed. All of the information deposited or required to be deposited by this section is public information.

Resolution for Issuance of Bonds or Notes; Publication; Protest of Authorization of Issuance; Election

Sec. 8. Before issuing any bonds or notes in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the governing body of an issuer shall adopt a resolution declaring its intention to do so and stating the maximum amount of bonds or notes proposed to be issued, the purpose for which the bonds or notes are to be issued, and the tentative date, time, and place at which the governing body proposes to authorize the issuance of such bonds or notes. A substantial copy of such resolution shall be published three times in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the territorial limits of the issuer. The first publication shall be made not more than 45 days prior to the tentative date fixed in such resolution and the third publication shall be made not less than 10 days prior to the tentative date fixed in such resolution for the authorization of the bonds or notes. If at least 5 percent or 20,000 of the qualified electors of the issuer, whichever is less, shall file a written protest against the issuance of such proposed bonds or notes at no later than the close of business the business day before the tentative date specified for the authorization of such bonds or notes, then an election on the question of the issuance of such bonds or notes shall be called and held as herein provided. If no such protest is filed, then such bonds or notes may be issued by the issuer without an election at any time within a period of two years after the tentative date specified in the resolution; provided, however, that the governing body of an issuer, in its discretion, may call an election on such question, in which event it shall not be necessary to publish the notice of its intention to issue bonds or notes as provided herein.

Election on Issuance of Bonds or Notes

Sec. 9. If an election is called, notice thereof shall be published three times in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the territorial limits of the issuer. The first publication shall be made not more than 45 days prior to the date fixed for such election, and the third publication shall be made not less than 10 days prior to the date fixed for such election. The election shall be conducted in accordance with the general laws of Texas pertaining to bond elections in cities, except as modified by the provisions of this Act. The order calling the election shall specify the date of such election, the place or places of holding the election, and the presiding judge and alternate judge for each voting place, and shall provide for clerks as provided in the Election Code of the State of Texas. The form of ballot shall be in conformity with the applicable provisions of such election code and the ballots shall provide for voting for or against the following proposition: "The issuance of revenue bonds or notes or other evidences of indebtedness for the hospital project or hospital projects." As soon as practical after such election is held, the governing body of the issuer shall convene and canvass the returns of the election, and in the event a majority of the voters voting in such election approves the proposition, such governing body shall so find and declare and shall be authorized to proceed with the authorization of bonds or notes. No election shall again be called on the proposition of issuing revenue bonds or notes for any hospital project which has been defeated by a majority of the voters voting in an election within six months of the proposed new election, and no bonds or notes shall be issued for any such hospital project until a majority of the voters voting in an election held for that purpose approve the issuance of such bonds or notes.

Sec. 11. An issuer is hereby authorized to provide by resolution for the issuance of its revenue refunding bonds or notes for the purpose of refunding any bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness then outstanding, issued to provide a hospital project, which bonds, notes, or evidences of indebtedness may or may not have been issued under the provisions of this Act, including the payment of any redemption premium thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of such bonds, notes, or evidences of indebtedness. The bonds, notes, or evidences of indebtedness previously issued and to be refunded by the revenue refunding bonds or notes described in this Section 11 need not have been originally issued by the issuer of the revenue refunding bonds or notes. The issuance of such bonds or notes, the maturities and other details thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the rights, duties, and obligations of the issuer in respect of the same, shall be governed by the provisions of this Act as the same may be applicable. Within the discretion of the issuer, the refunding bonds or notes may be issued in exchange or substitution for outstanding bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness or may be sold and the proceeds used for the purpose of paying or redeeming outstanding bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness.

Securing Bonds or Notes by Trust Agreement

Sec. 12. (a) Any bonds or notes issued under the provisions of this Act may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the issuer and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within the State of Texas. Any such trust agreement may pledge or assign lease income, contract payments, fees, or any other charges to be received from a non-profit corporation. Such bonds or notes, within the discretion of the governing body of the issuer, may be additionally secured by a mortgage, a deed of trust lien, or other security interest upon a designated hospital project vesting in the trustee power to sell such hospital project for the payment of the indebtedness, power to operate such hospital project, and all other powers and authority for the further security of the bonds or notes.

(b) The trust agreement may evidence a pledge of all or any part of the revenues of the issuer to be derived from the ownership, operation, lease, use, mortgage, and/or sale of any hospital project for the payment of principal of, redemption premium, if any, and interest on such bonds or notes as the same shall become due and payable and may provide for the creation and maintenance of reserves. Any such trust agreement or any resolution providing for the issuance of such bonds or notes may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the holders thereof as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the issuer and the non-profit corporation in relation to the acquisition of property and the construction, improvement, maintenance, repair, operation, and insurance of the hospital project in connection with which such bonds or notes shall have been issued, and the custody, safeguarding, and application of all money. Any such trust agreement may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders or note-holders and of the trustee, and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders or note-holders as is customary in trust agreements or trust indentures securing bonds and debentures of corporations. In addition to the foregoing, any such trust agreement may contain such provisions as the issuer may deem reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders or note-holders and may also contain provisions governing the issuance of bonds and notes to replace lost, stolen, or mutilated bonds or notes. All expenses incurred by any issuer in carrying out the provisions of any such trust agreement may be treated as a part of the cost of the operation of the hospital project with respect to which the bonds or notes have been issued.

Default in Payment of Bonds or Notes; Enforcement by Mandamus or by Appointment of Receiver

Sec. 13. Any agreement or contract made in accordance with the provisions of this Act may contain a provision that, in the event of a default in the payment of the principal of, redemption premium, if any, or the interest on bonds or notes issued in accordance with, or relating to, such agreement, or in the performance of any agreement contained in the proceedings, mortgage, or instruments relating to such bonds or notes, such payment and performance may be enforced by mandamus or by the appointment of a receiver in equity with power to charge and collect rates, rents, or contract payments and to apply the revenues from the hospital project in accordance with such resolution, mortgage, or instruments.

Foreclosure of Mortgage to Secure Bonds or Notes

Sec. 14. Any mortgage to secure bonds or notes issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act may also provide that, in the event of a default in the payment thereof or the violation of any agreement contained in the mortgage, the property secured by the mortgage may be foreclosed and sold under proceedings in equity or in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law. Such mortgage may also provide that any trustee under such mortgage or the holder of any of the bonds or notes secured thereby may become the purchaser at any foreclosure sale if the highest bidder therefor.

Members of Governing Body; Method of Selecting and Term of Office

Sec. 15. If an authority issues bonds or notes in accordance with the provisions of this Act, notwithstanding any provision of law, and under no circumstances, shall the method of selecting and the term of office of any of the members of the governing body of such authority be prescribed in the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or notes, the trust agreement securing such bonds or notes, or any other agreement relating to such bonds or notes.

Authority of Governing Body

Sec. 16. Except as limited by the provisions of this Act, each governing body of an issuer shall have full and complete authority with respect to bonds or notes of such issuer, lease agreements in which such issuer is lessor, sales agreements, and all other contracts and the provisions thereof.

Tax Exemption for Bonds or Notes

Sec. 17. In carrying out the purposes of this Act, the issuer will be performing an essential public function and any bonds or notes issued by it and their transfer and the interest therefrom, including any profits made from the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation by the State of Texas or any municipality or political subdivision thereof.

Bonds or Notes as Securities

Sec. 18. Bonds or notes issued under the provisions of this Act, and coupons, if any, representing interest thereon, shall when delivered be deemed and construed to be a "security" within the meaning of Chapter 8, Investment Securities, of the Uniform Commercial Code, as amended (Chapter 8, Title I, Business & Commerce Code), and shall be exempt securities under the Texas Securities Act, as amended (Article 581-1, et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). A lease agreement, sales agreement, or other contract under this Act shall not be a security within the meaning of the Texas Securities Act.

Bonds or Notes as Legal and Authorized Investments and Security

Sec. 19. Unless the bonds and notes issued under this Act are ineligible for investments in accordance with the criterion established in other statutes, rulings, or regulations of the State of Texas or the United States, then the bonds and notes under this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for any banks; savings banks; trust companies; building and loan associations; insurance companies; fiduciaries; trustees and guardians; and sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds or notes shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and they shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits at their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons, if any, appurtenant thereto.

Expenses of Relocation, Rerouting, Altering Construction, etc.

Sec. 20. In the event any issuer, in the exercise of the power of relocation or any other power, makes necessary the relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, cable television transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipelines, all such necessary relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the issuer or the non-profit corporation. Such expense shall be paid from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds or notes. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, changing the grade of, or alteration of construction to provide comparable replacement, without enhancement, of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Severability

Sec. 21. The provisions of this Act are severable. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, section, part, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of this Act shall nevertheless be valid; and the legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconsti-

The department of water resources has the powers and duties specifically prescribed in this Act and all other powers necessary or convenient to carry out its responsibilities. The department of water resources shall consult with the department with respect to the public health aspects, and with the Texas Air Control Board with respect to the air pollution control and ambient air quality aspects, of the matters placed under the jurisdiction of the department of water resources by this Act.

(c) Where both municipal solid waste and industrial solid waste are involved in any activity of collecting, handling, storing, processing, or disposing of solid waste, the department is the state agency responsible and has jurisdiction over the activity; and, with respect to that activity, the department may exercise all of the powers, duties and functions vested in the department by this Act.

Sec. 4. (a) As used in this section the term "state agency" refers to either the department or the department of water resources, and "state agencies" means both the department and the department of water resources.

(b) The department is authorized to develop a state municipal solid waste plan, and the department of water resources is authorized to develop a state industrial solid waste plan. The state agencies shall coordinate the solid waste plans developed. Before a state agency adopts its solid waste plan or makes any significant amendments to the plan, the Texas Air Control Board shall have the opportunity to comment and make recommendations on the proposed plan or amendments, and shall be given such reasonable time to do so as the state agency may specify.

(c) Each state agency may adopt and promulgate rules and regulations consistent with the general intent and purposes of this Act, and establish minimum standards of operation for all aspects of the management and control of the solid waste over which it has jurisdiction under this Act, including but not limited to collection, handling, storage, processing, and disposal.

(d) Each state agency is authorized to inspect and approve sites used or proposed to be used for the storage, processing, or disposal of the solid waste over which it has jurisdiction.

(e) Except as provided in Subsection (f) of this section with respect to certain industrial solid wastes, each state agency has the power to require and issue permits authorizing and governing the operation and maintenance of sites used for the storage, processing, or disposal of solid waste. This power may be exercised by a state agency only with respect to the solid waste over which it has jurisdiction under this Act. If this power is exercised by a state agency, that state agency shall prescribe the form of and reasonable requirements for the permit application and the procedures to be followed in processing the application, to the extent not otherwise provided for in this subsection. The following additional provisions apply if a state agency exercises the power authorized in this subsection:

(1) The state agency to whom the permit application is submitted shall mail a copy of the application or a summary of its contents to the Texas Air Control Board, to the state agency, to the mayor and health authorities of any city or town within whose territorial limits or extraterritorial jurisdiction the solid waste storage, processing, or disposal site is located, and to the county judge and health authorities of the county in which the site is located. The governmental entities to whom the information is mailed shall have a reasonable time, as prescribed by the state agency to whom the application was originally submitted, to present comments and recommendations on the permit application before that state agency acts on the application.

(2) A separate permit shall be issued for each site. The permit shall include the names and addresses of the person who owns the land where the solid waste storage, processing, or disposal site is located and the person who is or will be the operator or person in charge of the site; a legal description of the land on which the site is located; and the terms and conditions on which the permit is issued, including the duration of the permit.

(3) The state agency may extend or renew any permit it issues in accordance with reasonable procedures prescribed by the state agency. The procedures prescribed in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection (e) for permit applications apply also to applications to extend or renew a permit.

(4) Before a permit is issued, extended or renewed, the state agency to which the application is submitted shall issue notice and hold a hearing in the manner provided for other hearings held by the agency.

(5) Before a permit is issued, extended or renewed, the state agency to which the application is submitted may require the permittee to execute a bond or give other financial assurance conditioned on the permittee’s satisfactorily closing the disposal site on final abandonment.

(6) If a permit is issued, renewed or extended by a state agency in accordance with this Subsection (e), the owner or operator of the site does not need to obtain a license for the same site from a county, or from a political subdivision exercising the authority granted in Section 6 of this Act.

(7) A permit is issued in personam and does not attach to the realty to which it relates. A permit may not be transferred without prior notice to and prior approval by the state agency which issued it.

(8) The state agency has the authority, for good cause, after hearing with notice to the permittee and to the governmental entities named in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection (e), to revoke or amend any permit it issues for reasons pertaining to public health, air or water pollution, land use, or violation of this Act or of any other applicable laws or regulations controlling the disposal of solid waste.

(9) Manufacturing and processing establishments, commonly known as rendering plants, which process for any purpose waste materials originating from animals, poultry, and fish (all hereinafter referred to as "animals") and materials of vegetable origin, including without limitation animal parts and scraps, offal, paunch manure, and waste cooking grease of animal and vegetable origin are subject to regulation under the industrial solid waste provisions of this Act and may also be regulated under Chapter 26, Water Code. When a rendering establishment is owned by a person who operates the rendering establishment as an integral part of an establishment engaged in manufacturing or processing for animal or human consumption food derived wholly or in part from dead, slaughtered, or processed animals, poultry, or fish, the combined business may operate under authority of a single permit issued pursuant to Chapter 26, Water Code. The provisions of this subsection do not apply to those rendering plants in operation and production on or before August 27, 1973.

(f)(1) This subsection applies to the collection, handling, storage, processing, and disposal of industrial solid waste which is disposed of within the property boundaries of a tract of land owned or otherwise effectively controlled by the owners or operators of the particular industrial plant, manufacturing plant, mining operation, or agricultural operation from which the waste results or is produced, and which tract of land is within 50 miles from the plant or operation which is the source of the industrial solid waste. This subsection does not apply if the waste is collected, handled, stored, or disposed of with solid waste from any other source or sources or if the waste, which is collected, handled, stored, processed, or disposed of is hazardous waste. The department of water resources may not require a permit under this Act for the disposal of any solid waste to which this subsection applies, but this does not change or limit any authority the department of water resources may have with respect to the requirement of permits, the control of water quality, or otherwise, under Chapter 26, Water Code. However, the department of water resources may adopt rules and regulations as provided under Subsection (c) of this section to govern and control the collection, handling, storage, processing, and disposal of the industrial solid waste to which this subsection applies so as to protect the property of others, public property and rights-of-way, groundwater, and other rights requiring protection. The department of water resources may require a person who disposes or plans to dispose of industrial solid waste under the authority of this subsection to submit to the department of water resources such information as may be reasonably required to enable the department of water resources to determine whether in its judgment the waste disposal activity is one to which this subsection applies.
HEALTH—PUBLIC

Sec. 5. (a) Every county has the solid waste management powers which are enumerated in this Section 5. However, the exercise of the licensing authority and other powers granted to counties by this Act does not preclude the department or the department of water resources from exercising any of the powers vested in the department or the department of water resources under other provisions of this Act, including specifically the provisions authorizing the department and the department of water resources to issue permits for the operation and maintenance of sites for the processing or disposal of solid waste. The powers specified in Subsections (d) and (e) of this section and Section 18 of the County Solid Waste Control Act (Article 4477–8, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes) may not be exercised by a county with respect to the industrial solid waste disposal practices and areas to which Subsection (f) of Section 4 of this Act applies. The department or the department of water resources, by specific action or directive, may supersede any authority or power granted to or exercised by a county under this Act, but only with respect to those matters which are, under this Act, within the jurisdiction of the state agency acting.

(b) A county is authorized to appropriate and expend money from its general revenues for the collection, handling, storage and disposal of solid waste and for administering a solid waste program; and to charge reasonable fees for the services.

(c) A county may develop county solid waste plans and coordinate those plans with the plans of local governments, regional planning agencies, other governmental entities, the department, and the board.

(d) Except as provided in Subsection (a) of this section, a county is empowered to require and issue licenses authorizing and governing the operation and maintenance of sites used for the processing or disposal of solid waste in areas not within the territorial limits or extraterritorial jurisdiction of incorporated cities and towns. If a county elects to exercise licensing authority, it must adopt, promulgate, and enforce rules or regulations for the management of solid waste. The rules or regulations shall not be less stringent than those of, and must be approved by, the department or the board as appro-

(2) After the expiration of 90 days following the identification and listing of wastes as hazardous waste, no person shall process, store, or dispose of hazardous industrial solid wastes under this subsection without having first obtained a hazardous waste permit issued by the board; provided, however, that any person processing, storing, or disposing of hazardous waste under this subsection who has filed a hazardous waste permit application in accordance with the rules and regulations of the board may continue to process, store, or dispose of hazardous waste until such time as the board approves or denies the application. Upon its own motion or the request of a person affected, the board may hold a public hearing on an application for a hazardous waste permit. The board by rule shall establish procedures for public notice and any public hearing authorized by this subsection.

(g) The state agencies may, either individually or jointly:

(1) provide educational, advisory, and technical services to other agencies of the state, regional planning agencies, local governments, special districts, institutions, and individuals with respect to solid waste management and control, including collection, storage, handling, processing, and disposal;

(2) assist other agencies of the state, regional planning agencies, local governments, special districts, institutions and in acquiring federal grants for the development of solid waste facilities and management programs, and for research to improve the state of the art; and

(3) accept funds from the federal government for purposes relating to solid waste management, and to expend money received from the federal government for those purposes in the manner prescribed by law and in accordance with such agreements as may be necessary and appropriate between the federal government and each state agency.

If a state agency engages in any of the programs and activities named in this subsection on an individual basis, it may do so only as the participation by that state agency is related to the management and control of the solid waste over which it has jurisdiction. When the state agencies do not participate jointly, they shall coordinate on any efforts undertaken by either one individually so that similar programs and activities of the state agencies will be compatible.

(h) The state agencies are authorized to administer and expend state funds provided to them by legislative appropriations, or otherwise, for the purpose of making grants to local governments for solid waste planning, the installation of solid waste facilities, and the administration of solid waste programs. The grants made under the terms of this Act shall be distributed in a manner determined by the state agency to whom the appropriation is made. Any financial assistance granted by the state through either of the state agencies to any local government under the terms of this Act must, at a minimum, be equally matched by local government funds.
Art. 4477-7 HEALTH—PUBLIC

Subject to the limitation specified in Subsection (a) of this section, a county may designate land areas not within the territorial limits or extraterritorial jurisdiction of incorporated cities and towns as suitable for use as solid waste disposal sites. The county shall base these designations on the principles of public health, safety, and welfare, including proper land use, compliance with state statutes, and any other pertinent considerations.

(f) A county is authorized to enforce the requirements of this Act and the rules and regulations promulgated by the department and the board as related to the handling of solid waste.

made by the owner of such records that the records would divulge trade secrets if made public, then the department or the board shall consider such copied records as confidential. Nothing in this subsection shall require the board or the department to consider the composition or characteristics of solid waste being treated, stored, disposed, or otherwise handled to be held confidential.

Prohibited Acts; Violations; Penalties; Injunction

Sec. 8. (a) No person may cause, suffer, allow or permit the collection, storage, handling or disposal of solid waste, or the use or operation of a site for the disposal of solid waste, in violation of this Act or of the rules, regulations, permits, licenses or other orders of the department or the department of water resources, or a county or a political subdivision exercising the authority granted in Section 6 of this Act within whose jurisdiction the violation occurs.

(b) Any person who violates any provision of this Act or of any rule, regulation, permit, license, or other order of the department or the department of water resources, or a county or a political subdivision exercising the authority granted in Section 6 of this Act within whose jurisdiction the violation occurs, is subject to a civil penalty of not less than $50.00 nor more than $1,000.00 for each act of violation and for each day of violation, as the court may deem proper, to be recovered in the manner provided in this Section 8.

(c) Whenever it appears that a person has violated, or is violating or threatening to violate, any provision of this Act, or of any rule, regulation, permit, license, or other order of the department or the department of water resources, then the department or the department of water resources may cause a civil suit to be instituted in a district court for injunctive relief to restrain the person from continuing the violation or threat of violation, or for the assessment and recovery of a civil penalty of not less than $50.00 nor more than $1,000.00 for each act of violation and for each day of violation, as the court may deem proper, or for both injunctive relief and civil penalty. Upon application for injunctive relief and a finding that a person is violating or threatening to violate any provision of this Act or any rule, regulation, permit, or other order of the department or the department of water resources, the district court shall grant appropriate injunctive relief. At the request of the department or the executive director of the department of water resources when authorized by the Texas Water Development Board, the attorney general shall institute and conduct a suit in the name of the State of Texas for injunctive relief or to recover the civil penalty, or for both injunctive relief and penalty, as authorized in this subsection.

(d) Whenever it appears that a violation or threat of violation of any provision of this Act, or of any rule, regulation, permit, license, or other order of the department, the department of water resources, a county, or a political subdivision exercising the authority granted in Section 6 of this Act, has occurred or is occurring within the jurisdiction of that county or political subdivision, the county or political subdivision, in the same manner as the department of water resources and the department, may cause a civil suit to be instituted in a district court through its own attorney for the injunctive relief or civil penalties, or both, as authorized in Subsection (c) of this section, against the person who committed, is committing, or is threatening to commit, the violation.

(e) Whenever it appears that a violation or threat of violation of any provision of this Act, or of any rule, regulation, permit, license, or other order of the department, the department of water resources, a county, or political subdivision exercising the authority granted in Section 6 of this Act, has occurred or is occurring within the area of the extraterritorial jurisdiction of an incorporated city or town, or is causing or will cause injury to or an adverse effect on the health, welfare or physical property of the city or town or its inhabitants, then the city or town, in the same manner as the department of water resources and the department, may cause a civil suit to be instituted in a district court through its own attorney for the injunctive relief or civil penalties, or both, as authorized in Subsection (c) of this section, against the person who committed, is committing, or is threatening to commit, the violation.

(f) A suit for injunctive relief or for recovery of a civil penalty, or for both injunctive relief and penalty, may be brought either in the county where the defendant resides or in the county where the violation or threat of violation occurs. In any suit brought to enjoin a violation or threat of violation of this Act or of any rule, regulation, permit, license or other order of the department of water resources, the department, a county, or a political subdivision exercising the authority granted in Section 6 of this Act, the court may grant the governmental entity bringing the suit, without bond or other undertaking, any prohibitory or mandatory injunction the facts may warrant, including temporary restraining orders after notice and hearing, temporary injunctions, and permanent injunctions.

(g) In a suit brought by a local government under Subsection (d) or (e) of this section, the department of water resources and the department are necessary and indispensable parties.

(h) Any party to a suit may appeal from a final judgment as in other civil cases.

(i) All civil penalties recovered in suits instituted under this Act by the State of Texas through the department of water resources or the department shall be paid to the General Revenue Fund of the State of Texas. All civil penalties recovered in suits first instituted by a local government or governments under this Act shall be equally divided between the State of Texas on the one hand and the local government or governments on the other, with 50 per cent of the recovery to be paid to the General Revenue Fund of the State of Texas and the other 50 per cent equally to the local government or governments first instituting the suit.

Appeals

Sec. 9. A person affected by any ruling, order, decision, or other act of the department or the department of water resources may appeal by filing a petition in a district court of Travis County. A person affected by any ruling, order, decision, or other act of a county, or of a political subdivision exercising the authority granted in Section 6 of this Act, may appeal by filing a petition in a district court having jurisdiction in the county or political subdivision. The petition must be filed within 30 days after the date of the action, ruling, order, or decision of the governmental entity complained of. Service of citation must be accomplished within 30 days after the date the petition is filed. The plaintiff shall pursue his action with reasonable diligence. If the plaintiff does not prosecute his action within one year after the action is filed, the court shall presume that the action has been abandoned. The court shall dismiss the suit on a motion for dismissal made by the governmental entity whose action is appealed, unless the plaintiff, after receiving due notice, can show good and sufficient cause for the delay. In an appeal from an action by the department, the department of water resources, a county, or a political subdivision exercising the authority granted in Section 6 of this Act, the issue is whether the action is invalid, arbitrary or unreasonable. Art. 4477-10. Treating and Conveying Waste in Cities of 1,200,000 or More

Application

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to all incorporated cities, including home-rule cities, having a population of 1,200,000 or more according to the last preceding federal census (hereinafter called "eligible city").

Acquisition of Property; Construction of Improvements; "Waste" Defined

Sec. 2. An eligible city is authorized to acquire, by purchase, lease or otherwise, any or all property (real, personal or mixed) and to construct or otherwise acquire, improve and equip any property for the purposes of treating and conveying waste, including, but not limited to waste treatment facilities including plants, disposal fields, lagoons and areas devoted to sanitary landfills for the purposes of treating, neutralizing, stabilizing or disposal of waste, and sewer systems including pipelines, conduits, canals, pumping stations, force mains, and all other constructions, devices, and appurtenant appliances used to transport waste (such waste treatment facilities and sewer systems are hereinafter called "project" or "projects"). An eligible city is also authorized to enter into leases and other contracts, including installment sale agreements, with persons, firms or corporations to use or acquire a project or projects of such city and to enter into agreements under which the project or projects may be operated on behalf of such city; such leases, contracts and agreements to contain such terms and conditions as the eligible city deems appropriate. Each and all of the foregoing purposes are hereby found and declared to be public purposes and proper municipal functions. The term "waste" as used in this section has the meaning defined in the Texas Water Quality Act, codified as Chapter 21 of the Texas Water Code, as heretofore and hereafter amended.

Issuance of Bonds

Sec. 3. For any purpose or purposes authorized under Section 2 of this Act, the governing body of an eligible city may issue its revenue bonds from time to time in one or more series to be payable from and secured by liens on all or part of the revenues derived from any project or projects.

Ordinances Authorizing Bonds; Maturity; Registration as "Security"; Disposition of Proceeds from Sale; Property Tax

Sec. 4. (a) Said bonds may be issued when authorized by ordinance duly adopted by an eligible city's governing body and may mature serially or otherwise within not to exceed 40 years from their date or dates, and provision may be made for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under any terms or conditions that may be set forth in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds.

(b) Said bonds, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, shall be deemed and construed to be a "security" within the meaning of Chapter 8, Investment Securities, Uniform Commercial Code (Chapter 785, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967). The bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to principal and interest, and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions and details, and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and such bonds shall bear interest at such rates, all as shall be determined and provided in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.
(c) If so provided in said ordinance, the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during and after the period of the acquisition, construction or improvement of any project or projects, for paying expenses of operation and maintenance of said project or projects, for creating a reserve fund for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds, and for establishing any other funds. The proceeds of sale of the bonds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent, and in the manner provided, in the bond ordinance.

(d) An eligible city is authorized to levy and pledge to the payment of the operation and maintenance of any project or projects, either as a supplement to the pledge of revenues for such purpose or in lieu thereof, a continuing annual ad valorem tax at a rate or rates on each $100 valuation of taxable property within said city sufficient for such purposes, all as may be provided in said ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds; provided, that such taxes shall be within any constitutional or charter limit for eligible cities; and provided further, that no part of any moneys raised by such taxes shall ever be used for the payment of the interest on or principal of any bonds issued hereunder. The proceeds of any such taxes thus pledged shall be utilized annually to the extent required by, or provided in, the ordinance for operation and maintenance of such projects, and such city in its discretion may covenant in such ordinance that certain costs of operating and maintaining such projects, as may be enumerated therein, or all of such costs, will be paid by the eligible city from the proceeds of such tax.

(e) An eligible city shall not acquire or construct any such project or projects with the proceeds of bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness the interest on which is exempt from federal income taxation by virtue of Section 103(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as heretofore or hereafter amended, unless (1) such project is operated by an eligible city or a political subdivision of the State of Texas on behalf of such eligible city or, (2) such project provides pretreatment for waste which is then discharged into a project operated by an eligible city or a political subdivision on behalf of such city.

2 Business and Commerce Code, § 8.101 et seq.

Fees, Purchase Prices, Rentals, Rates and Charges

Sec. 5. An eligible city is authorized to fix and collect fees, purchase prices, rentals, rates and charges for the sale, occupancy, use or availability of all or any of the projects in such amounts and in such manner as may be determined by the governing body of the eligible city.

Sec. 6. (a) An eligible city may pledge all or any part of the revenues, income or receipts from such fees, purchase prices, rentals, rates and charges to the payment of the bonds, including the payment of principal, interest and any other amounts required or permitted in connection with the bonds. The pledged fees, purchase prices, rentals, rates and charges shall be fixed and collected in amounts that will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds, and, to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds, to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds, and for the payment of operation, maintenance and other expenses in connection with the projects.

(b) The bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on any real property relating to the projects owned or to be acquired by the eligible city and by chattel mortgages, liens or security interests on any personal property appurtenant to that real property. The governing body of the eligible city may authorize the execution of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust or other forms of encumbrances to evidence the indebtedness.

(c) An eligible city may also pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenues or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 7. (a) Any bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for that purpose under any terms or conditions as are determined by ordinance of the governing body of the eligible city. All appropriate provisions of this Act are applicable to refunding bonds, and the refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds. The refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts necessary to pay the principal, interest and redemption premium, if any, of bonds to be refunded, at maturity or on any redemption date.

(b) The refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded by them. In that case, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance authorizing the refunding bonds. The exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.
Art. 4477-10

HEALTH—PUBLIC

(e) Bonds issued at any time by a city under this Act also may be refunded in the manner provided by any other applicable law.

Examination of Bonds by Attorney General; Approval and Registration

Sec. 8. All bonds issued under this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If the bonds recite that they are secured by a pledge of revenues or rentals from a contract or lease, a copy of the contract or lease and the proceedings relating to it shall also be submitted to the attorney general. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized and any contract or lease has been made in accordance with law, he shall approve the bonds and the contract or lease, and thereupon the bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After approval and registration the bonds and any contract or lease relating to them are incontestable for any reason, and are valid and binding obligations for all purposes in accordance with their terms.

Bonds as Legal and Authorized Investments and Security

Sec. 9. All bonds issued under this Act are legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of the state, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. The bonds are also eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of it, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. The bonds are also eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of the state, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. The bonds are also eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of it, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of the bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect; Conflicting Laws

Sec. 10. This Act is cumulative of all other law on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized by it without reference to any other law or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided. When any bonds are issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any law or home-rule-charter provision, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control. An eligible city shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Severability

Sec. 11. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance, shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Art. 4494r—5. Payment of Current Operating Expenses of County-Wide Hospital District in Counties of 1,000,000 or More

Applicability of Act

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to counties now or hereafter containing a population of 1,000,000 or more according to the last preceding federal census, wherein there exists a county-wide hospital district whose taxes are levied and collected by the commissioners court and which has teaching hospital facilities that are affiliated with a state-owned medical school, such counties hereinafter referred to as "authorized counties."
Revenue Anticipation Agreements Authorized

Sec. 2. The commissioners court of any authorized county is hereby authorized to enter into and execute with any bank or banks or other corporations, partnerships, persons, financial institutions, or lending institutions revenue anticipation agreements in accordance with this Act.

Advances and Repayments: Revenue Anticipation Agreements

Sec. 3. Upon a finding and determination by the commissioners court of an authorized county that the projected revenues and tax collections of and for the hospital district will not be received by the district at the times necessary to pay when due the district's operating and maintenance expenses, the commissioners court may execute a revenue anticipation agreement by which the other contracting party (or parties) agrees to advance to the district, and the authorized county and the district agree to repay (from the sources hereinbelow specified), funds necessary for the operation and maintenance of the district's hospital facilities during the term of the revenue anticipation agreement. The revenue anticipation agreement may be upon such terms as the parties may agree, subject to the following limitations:

(a) The term of the revenue anticipation agreement shall not exceed two years.

(b) Advances made to the district during the term of the agreement shall not be made more frequently than once each month and each shall not be greater in amount than the difference between (i) the accumulated and unpaid operating and maintenance expenses of the district, and (ii) the revenues and income of the district, including tax revenues, actually received by the district to the date of the advance and lawfully available for the purpose of paying such expenses. The party or parties making the advances may conclusively rely on certifications made by authorized officers of the district as to the facts specified in this subsection.

(c) The advances under the revenue anticipation agreement may bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding the rate permitted by law for revenue bonds of the district, shall mature and become due and payable on a date not later than the last day of the term of the revenue anticipation agreement, shall be subject to prepayment without penalty at any time before their maturity date, and they shall not be refunded or in any manner refinanced or extended. The agreement may provide that the rates or rate of interest on the advances may be determined at the time made by reference to such determinative factors and formulae as the parties may agree.

(d) If, in any month during the term of the agreement while advances are outstanding, revenues, including tax revenues, are received and are not required to pay and are not lawfully committed to the payment of other obligations and expenses of the district, the commissioners court shall apply the same upon receipt to the payment or prepayment of any advances at the time outstanding and unpaid under the revenue anticipation agreement, and no advances shall be made under a subsequent revenue anticipation agreement until all advances made under the prior agreement have been paid in full, retired, and canceled.

(e) Advances made under the revenue anticipation agreement shall be and are hereby directable to be secured by and payable, either or both, (1) from a pledge of and lien upon revenues of the district derived from the operation and maintenance of its hospital facilities, and/or (2) from tax revenues when collected, levied for the purpose of operating and maintaining the district's facilities for the year during which the advances are made. Upon default in the payment or repayment of any advances made under the terms of the revenue anticipation agreement when due or when required to be prepaid under the terms of this Act, any district court may be petitioned by mandamus or otherwise to enforce the agreement and prepayment as required by this Act.

Use of Advances

Sec. 4. Funds received from advances made pursuant to revenue anticipation agreements authorized by this Act shall be used solely for the purposes authorized by this Act. However, it shall not be a defense to repayment of advances that the funds have been used for a purpose not authorized hereby. The auditor of the affairs of the hospital district shall concurrently with the regular audit thereof audit the use of said funds and shall certify to the commissioners court whether or not the funds have been used for proper operating and maintenance purposes as authorized hereby.

Bonds or Notes; Ad Valorem Taxes

Sec. 5. (a) The commissioners court of an authorized county is authorized to include in any revenue anticipation agreement provisions pursuant to which the authorized county will agree to execute and deliver, concurrently with the making of advances under the agreement, interest-bearing bonds (which also may be designated as notes) evidencing the obligation of the authorized county and the hospital district to repay the advances made pursuant to the agreement and in accordance therewith and with this Act. Such bonds or notes may be delivered upon such terms and may contain such provisions.
not inconsistent with Section 3 of this Act as may be prescribed in the revenue anticipation agreement.

(b) The provisions hereof relating to advances shall apply to bonds or notes evidencing the obligations to repay the same issued under this section. It is provided, however, that if such hospital district was created pursuant to the authority granted to the legislature by Article IX, Section 4, of the Texas Constitution and the creation of such hospital district was approved at an election held in such hospital district as required by Article IX, Section 4, of the Texas Constitution or if such hospital district was created pursuant to any other constitutional provision which would permit the levy and pledge of taxes as hereinafter authorized, then regardless of any restrictions in any other law of this state the commissioners court also is authorized in addition to the mandatory security required in Section 3(c) hereof to pay and secure the bonds or notes issued under this section from and by annual ad valorem taxes levied and to be levied on all taxable property in such hospital district, and such annual ad valorem taxes may be pledged to the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds or notes to the extent required therein and in the agreement. If such annual ad valorem taxes are thus pledged it shall be the duty of the commissioners court annually to levy a tax on all taxable property in the hospital district sufficient or to the extent necessary to pay the principal of and the interest on the bonds or notes when due, but the rate of the tax, if any, for each year may be fixed after giving consideration to the amount of money estimated to be received from revenues pledged under Section 3 hereof which may be available for the payment of such principal and interest, all to the extent and in the manner provided in the revenue anticipation agreement, but provided further that such annual ad valorem tax levied together with all other annual ad valorem taxes levied in the hospital district shall never exceed a maximum annual rate of 75 cents on the $100 valuation of all taxable property within such hospital district. Further, if such annual ad valorem taxes are thus pledged, it shall be the duty of the commissioners court during each year while any of the bonds or notes or interest thereon are outstanding and unpaid; and said tax shall be assessed and collected each such year and used for such purpose to the extent so required.

(c) Upon the issuance, sale, and delivery of bonds or notes under the authority of this section, such bonds or notes shall be incontestable in any court or other forum for any reason and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms and conditions for all purposes. Such bonds or notes shall constitute "investment securities" under the Uniform Commercial Code of Texas. Any such bonds or notes shall be legal and authorized security for public funds of this state and its political subdivisions and shall be legal and authorized investments by all banks, savings banks, savings and loan associations, and insurance companies of all types.

Cumulative Effect: Conflicting Provisions

Sec. 6. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the execution of revenue anticipation agreements and the issuance of bonds or notes to evidence obligations to repay advances made thereunder and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby without reference to any other laws or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided; and when any bonds are being issued pursuant to the authority of this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control.

Annual Registration Renewal

Sec. 8. It shall be unlawful for any person who shall be licensed for the practice of chiropractic by the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners as created by this Act, unless such person be registered as such practitioner with the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners on or before the first day of January A.D. 1950, or thereafter registered in like manner annually as provided by this Act on or before the first day of January each year to practice chiropractic in this State. Each person so licensed and registered shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements and prerequisites of the laws governing the practice of chiropractic in this State. Each person so licensed and registered shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements and prerequisites of the laws governing the practice of chiropractic in this State. Each person so registered with the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners shall pay in connection with each annual registration and for the receipt hereafter provided for, a fee fixed by the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners not to exceed Fifty Dollars ($50), which fee shall accompany the application of every such person for registration. Such payment shall be made to the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners. Every person so registered shall file with said Board a written application for annual registration, setting forth his full name, his age, post office address, his place of residence, the county or counties in which his certificate entitling him to practice chiropractic has been registered, and the place or places where he is engaged in the practice of chiropractic, as well as the college of chiropractic from which he graduated, and the number and date of his license certificate. Upon receipt of such application, accompanied by the registration fee, the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners, after ascertaining either from the records of the Board or from other sources deemed by it to be reliable, that the applicant is a licensed practitioner of chiropractic in this State, shall issue to the applicant an annual registration receipt certifying that the applicant has filed such application and has paid the registration fee mentioned for the year in question; provided, that the filing of such application, the payment of the registration fee and the issuance of such receipt shall not entitle the holder thereof to lawfully practice chiropractic within the State of Texas unless he has in fact been previously licensed as such chiropractor by the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners, as prescribed by law, and has recorded his license certificate entitling him to practice, as issued by said Board, in the district clerk's office of the several counties in which the same may be required by law to be recorded, and unless his license to practice chiropractic is in full force and effect; and provided further that, in any prosecution for the unlawful practice of chiropractic as denominated in Section 6 hereof, such receipt showing payment of the annual registration fee required by this Section shall not be treated as evidence that the holder thereof is lawfully entitled to practice chiropractic.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 8a to 9] Examination of Applicants for License; Persons Practicing or Beginning Study Before Date of Act

Sec. 10. All applicants for license to practice chiropractic in this State, not otherwise licensed under the provisions of this law, must successfully pass an examination by the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners established by this law. The Board is authorized to adopt and enforce rules of procedure not inconsistent with the statutory requirements. All applicants shall be eligible for examination who are citizens of the United States and present satisfactory evidence to the Board that they are more than twenty-one (21) years of age, of good moral character, have completed sixty (60) semester hours of college courses, other than a chiropractic school, and are graduates of bona fide reputable chiropractic schools (whose entrance requirements and course of instruction are as high as those of the better class of chiropractic schools in the United States); a reputable chiropractic school shall maintain a resident course of instruction equivalent to not less than four (4) terms of eight (8) months each, or a resident course of not less than the number of semester hours required by The University of Texas for the granting of a Bachelor of Arts degree; shall give a course of instruction in the fundamental subjects named in Section 12 of this Act; and shall have the necessary teaching force and facilities for proper instruction in all of said subjects. Applications for examination must be made in writing, verified by affidavit, and filed with the secretary of the Board, on forms prescribed by the Board, accompanied by a fee of Fifty Dollars ($50). All applicants shall be given due notice of the date and place of such examination.

The Board shall grant a license without a written examination to an applicant that holds a National Board of Chiropractic Examiners certificate who meets the requirements of this chapter and who has satisfactorily passed a personal interview and a practical examination and has paid an additional fee of Fifty Dollars ($50). The Board shall periodically determine to its satisfaction whether those applicants who hold National Board of Chiropractic Examiners certificates have been adequately examined. When the Board determines that those applicants have not been adequately examined, the Board shall require those applicants to be examined in accordance with other provisions of this Act.

If any applicant, because of failure to pass the required examination, shall be refused a license, he or she, at such time as the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners may fix, not exceeding one (1) year, shall be permitted to take a subsequent examination, upon such subjects required in the original examination as the Board may prescribe except that the applicant shall not be required to take a re-examination on subjects in which he has made a grade of seventy-five per cent (75%) or more, provided the applicant shall apply for re-examination within one (1) year upon the payment of such part of Fifty Dollars ($50) as the Board may determine and state.
In the event satisfactory grades shall be made in the subjects prescribed and taken on such re-examination, the Board shall grant to the applicant a license to practice chiropractic. The Board shall determine the grade to be given the examinees on the answers turned in on the subjects of complete and partial examination, and its decision thereupon shall be final.

Provided, however, that those who are regularly engaged in the practice of chiropractic in this State on April 18, 1949, and who have completed a resident course and hold diplomas from schools recognized by the Board as being regularly organized and conducted as chiropractic schools at the time of the issuance of such diplomas, shall be licensed under this Act, provided they apply therefor within six (6) months after the effective date of this Act, and provided further that they shall meet the provisions of this Act with reference to citizenship, age, and good moral character; and

Provided that those who have begun the study of chiropractic prior to the effective date of this Act in institutions regularly organized and conducted as chiropractic schools shall be licensed under this Act, provided they complete a standard chiropractic resident course of one hundred and twenty (120) semester hours in such school or schools and receive diplomas therefrom; and provided further that they shall meet the provisions of this Act with reference to citizenship, age, and good moral character.

The hearing to rescind the probation shall be called by the chairman of the board who shall cause to be issued a notice setting the time and place for the hearing and containing the charges or complaints against the probationer, said notice to be served on the probationer or his counsel at least 30 days prior to the time set for the hearing. Art. 4544. Examination for License to Practice Dentistry

It shall be the duty of the Board to examine all applicants for license to practice dentistry in this State; and the Board shall examine and grade all papers submitted by such applicants and report to such applicants within a reasonable time after the date of such examination, and said report shall give to each applicant the grades made by said applicant upon each and every subject which he or she was examined by said Board. Each person applying for an examination shall pay to said Board a fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100) and shall be granted a license to practice dentistry in this State upon his satisfactorily passing an examination given by said Board on subjects and operations pertaining to dentistry which shall include Anatomy, Physiology, Anaesthesia, Biochemistry, Dental Materials, Diagnosis, Treatment Planning, Ethics, Jurisprudence, Hygiene, Pharmacology, Operative Dentistry, Oral Surgery, Orthodontia, Perodontia, Prosthetic Dentistry, Pathology, Microbiology, and such other subjects as are regularly taught in reputable Dental Schools as the Board may in its discretion require. The Texas State Board of Dental Examiners may provide in its rules and regulations the procedures, fees, and requirements for graduates of foreign and/or nonaccredited Dental Schools to become licensed to practice dentistry in Texas.

It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to practice dentistry in this State under the name of a corporation, company, association, or trade name; or under any name except his own proper name, which shall be the name used in his license as issued by the State Board of Dental Examiners. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to operate, manage, or be employed in any room, rooms, office, or offices where dental service is rendered or contracted for under the name of a corporation, company, association, or trade name, or in any other name than that of the legally qualified dentist or dentists actually engaged in the practice of dentistry in such room, rooms, office, or offices; provided, however, this shall not prevent two or more legally qualified dentists from practicing dentistry in the same offices as a firm, partnership, or as associates in their own names as stated in licenses issued to them. Provided, however, that any dentist practicing under his own license may be employed by any person, firm or partnership practicing dentistry under licenses issued to them. Each day of violation of this Article shall constitute a separate offense. This prohibition shall not prohibit a dentist or dentists from incorporating their dental practice in accordance with the Texas Professional Corporation Act (Article 1528e, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), where such corporate practice complies with the rules and regulations of the State Board of Dental Examiners governing such corporate practice.

(c) Proof that the applicant has been guilty of dishonest or illegal practices in or connected with the practice of dentistry.

The Texas State Board of Dental Examiners and the District Courts of this State shall have concurrent jurisdiction and authority, after notice and hearing as hereinafter provided, to suspend or revoke a dental license for any one or more of the following causes:

(a) Proof of insanity of the holder of a license, as adjudged by the regularly constituted authorities.

(b) Proof of conviction of the holder of a license of a felony involving moral turpitude under the laws of this State or any other State or of the United States.

(c) That the holder thereof has been or is guilty of dishonorable conduct, malpractice or gross incompetency in the practice of dentistry.

(d) That the holder thereof has been or is guilty of any deception or misrepresentation for the purpose of soliciting or obtaining patronage.

(e) That the holder thereof procured a license through fraud or misrepresentation.

(f) That the holder thereof is addicted to habitual intoxication or the use of drugs.

(g) That the holder thereof employs or permits or has employed or permitted persons to practice dentistry in the office or offices under his control or management, who were not licensed to practice dentistry.

(i) That the holder thereof has failed or refused to comply with any of the provisions of this Act.

(j) That the holder thereof has failed or refused to comply with the adopted and promulgated rules and regulations of the Board.

(k) That the holder thereof is physically or mentally incapable of practicing dentistry legally or with safety to dental patients.

(l) That the holder thereof has been negligent in the performance of dental services which injured or damaged dental patients.

Proceedings to suspend or revoke a dental license on account of any one or more of the causes set forth in this Article shall be taken as follows:

(a) Proceedings before the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners shall be as follows:

All complaints to be considered by the Board shall be made in writing, subscribed and sworn to by the person presenting such complaint, which complaint shall set out the alleged violations of such Statutes and declaring it to be the opinion of the person presenting such complaint that the person or persons so accused have so violated said Statutes.

All complaints as received shall be presented to the Secretary of the Board or an authorized employee of the Board who shall cause copies of all complaints to be made and mailed or delivered to each member of the Board. When a complaint is made by a member of the Board, its agents or employees, the Secretary of the Board shall cause such complaint to be docketed on its records in the name of the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners against the person against whom such complaint has been made, and shall mail a copy of such docketed complaint by registered mail to the accused person under the jurisdiction of the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners charged with having violated such Statutes. When a complaint is made by others than the members of the Board, its agents or employees, the Board or its duly authorized representative shall cause an investigation of such complaint to be made to determine the facts in such case, and if the facts as determined by such investigation, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Board, justify the docketing of such complaint for hearing before the Board, then the Secretary of the Board shall cause such complaint to be docketed on its records in the name of the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners against the person against whom such complaint has been made, and shall mail a copy of such docketed complaint by registered mail to the accused person under the jurisdiction of the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners charged with having violated such Statutes.

The Secretary of the Board or its authorized officer or employee shall not less than ten (10) days prior to the next meeting of the Board called for the purpose of hearing and considering such complaint, mail by registered mail to the last known address of such person or persons against whom a complaint has been so docketed a notice of hearing, which notice shall contain the date, time, and place of the meeting of the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners called to consider such complaint, and such notice shall contain the alleged violations of such Statutes, and shall state that such accused person may appear and offer such evidence as is pertinent to his defense to such complaint. Such hearing shall be governed by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Board, and the Board shall have the authority to subpoena and compel the attendance of such licensees or other persons deemed to have knowledge which would aid the Board in reaching a proper decision and for the enforcement of this Act. After such hearing, the Board shall enter an order in its minutes, as in the opinion of the majority of the Board the facts brought out at such hearing justify and require. Provided, however, that any order revoking or suspending such license or licenses shall be signed by a majority of such Board and by all the members of such Board present at such hearing.

If said Board shall make and enter any order revoking or suspending any license or licenses as hereinabove provided, the person or persons whose license shall have been so revoked or suspended may, within thirty (30) days after the making and entering of such order, take an appeal to the District Court of the County of the residence of the person or persons whose license shall have been so revoked or suspended, by filing an appropriate petition for such purpose. Said cause shall be placed on the docket of said Court in the name of the party or parties filing same, as plaintiff, and the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners, as defendants. It shall be the duty of said Board, upon the filing of a petition asking for an appeal and review of such proceedings of said Board by the person or persons accused, and after citation in such cause has been issued and served as in other civil cases, to prepare and transmit to such District Court a transcript of the orders hereinabove provided for, the same to be certified as true and correct by the Secretary of said Board. Such District Court shall thereafter and under the rules of procedure applicable to other civil cases, proceed to set such cause for hearing as in other civil cases. Upon the hearing of such cause, if such Court shall find that the action of such Board, in revoking or suspending such license or licenses is not well taken, such Court shall by appropriate order and judgment set aside such action of said Board; but if such Court or jury shall sustain such action of said Board in revoking or suspending such license or licenses an order shall be made and entered in appropriate form sustaining and affirming the action of such Board; provided, however, that the person or persons whose license shall have been so revoked or suspended may waive the impanelling of a jury, from which order an appeal may be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals, as in other civil causes.
(b) Proceedings before the District Courts of this State shall be as follows:

It shall be the duty of the several District and County Attorneys of this State, on the request of any member of the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners or by complaint presented to any District Court of the State or county in which such alleged offense occurred, to file and prosecute appropriate judicial proceedings in the name of the State against the person or persons alleged to have so violated such Statute. Such complaint shall be made in writing and filed in the District Court of the State or county in which the alleged offense occurred, and such complaint shall distinctly set forth the charges and grounds thereof and shall be subscribed and sworn to. When such complaint is made by any County or District Attorney, as herein provided, it shall be subscribed and sworn to by the prosecutor and shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court. The Court, upon the filing of said complaint, shall order the accused dentist to show cause why his license to practice dentistry in this State shall not be suspended or revoked.

Citation therein shall be issued in the name of the State of Texas and in manner and form as in other cases and the same shall be served upon the defendant at least ten (10) days before the trial date set therein. Upon the return of said citation executed, if the defendant shall appear and deny the charge, the cause shall be docketed for trial and conducted in the name of the State of Texas against the defendant. A jury of twelve (12) men shall be summoned as in cases during term time of the Court when no regular jury is available and as prescribed by law and shall be impaneled unless waived by the defendant, and the cause shall be tried in like manner as in other civil cases. If the said accused dentist be found guilty or shall fail to appear and deny the charge after being cited as aforesaid, the Court may by proper order entered on the minutes, suspend his license for a time or revoke and cancel it entirely and shall give proper judgment of costs, except that the investigation files and records which shall be confidential and their contents may not be forced to be divulged until after the investigation is complete or has been inactive for 60 days at which time this exception expires and the records open to inspection.

Section 2 of the 1977 amendatory act amended art. 4548; §§ 3 and 4 thereof provided:

"Sec. 3. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word in this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance for any reason is held invalid or unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining portions of this Act, and the legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portions of this Act despite such invalidity or unconstitutionality of any part or portion thereof."

Art. 4550. Records of the Board

The Board shall keep records in which shall be registered the name and residence or place of business of all persons authorized under this law to practice dentistry, dental hygiene and such other professions or businesses under its jurisdiction as provided by law. All of the records and files of the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners shall be public records and open to inspection at reasonable times, except the investigation files and records which shall be confidential and their contents may not be forced to be divulged until after the investigation is complete or has been inactive for 60 days at which time this exception expires and the records open to inspection.

Each person so registering shall pay in connection with such annual registration for the receipt herein-after provided for, a fee of not less than Twelve Dollars ($12) nor more than Seventy-Five Dollars ($75) as determined by said Board according to the needs of said Board, such payment to be made by each licensee to such Board, and every person so registering shall file with said Board a written application setting forth such facts as the Board may require. Upon receipt of such applications, accompanied by such fees, said Board, after ascertaining either from its records or other sources deemed by it to be reliable, that the applicant is a duly licensed practitioner of dentistry in this State, shall issue to the applicant an annual registration certificate or receipt certifying that he has filed such application and has paid the required fee; provided, that the filing of such application, the payment of such fee, and the issuance of such receipt therefor, shall not entitle the holder thereof to lawfully practice dentistry within the State of Texas unless he has in fact been previously licensed as such practitioner by the

Art. 4571. Licenses

Annual License Renewal

Sec. 1. (a) The Texas State Board of Podiatry Examiners shall set and may from time to time change the amount of the annual license renewal fee as in the Board’s judgment may be needed to provide for the reasonable costs and expenses of the Board in performing its duties and administering this Act, but such annual license renewal fee shall not exceed Fifty Dollars ($50). The annual license renewal fee shall be paid to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board.

(b) The Secretary-Treasurer of the Texas State Board of Podiatry Examiners on or before August first of each year shall notify, by mail, all Texas licensed podiatrists at their last known address that the annual license renewal fee is due on the following September first.

(c) If the annual license renewal fee is not paid on or before the following December first, the delinquent shall be notified by mail at his last known address by the Secretary-Treasurer that such fee is due and unpaid and a delinquent penalty of Twenty Dollars ($20) is assessed and shall be paid on or before the following January first. If such fees are not paid by January first, it shall be the duty of the Texas State Board of Podiatry Examiners to suspend or revoke the license for nonpayment of the annual license renewal and delinquent fees for the current year.

(d) The Board by rule may adopt a system under which licenses expire on various dates during the year, and the dates for sending notice that payment is due and dates of suspension, revocation, and assessment of a penalty for nonpayment shall be adjusted accordingly. For the year in which the license renewal date is changed, license fees payable on September 1 shall be prorated on a monthly basis so that each licensee shall pay only that portion of the license fee which is allocable to the number of months during which the license is valid. On renewal of the license on the new expiration date, the total license renewal fee is payable.

Reissuance of Lost or Amended License

Sec. 4. If any license issued by the Board is lost, destroyed or stolen from the legally qualified and authorized person to whom it was issued, the owner of the license shall report the fact to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board, in an affidavit form. The affidavit shall set forth detailed information as to the loss, destruction or theft, giving dates, place and circumstances. If the owner of a license desires to have an amended license issued to him because of a lawful change in the name or degree designation of the licensee or for any other lawful and sufficient reason, the owner of the license shall make application for such amended license to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board setting forth the reasons the issuance of an amended license is requested. A duplicate or amended license shall be issued upon regular application of the owner of the original license and payment of a fee set by the Board for the duplicate or amended license; however, the Board shall not issue a duplicate or amended license until sufficient evidence by the owner of the original license has been submitted to prove the license has been lost or to establish the lawful reason an amended license should be issued, and unless the records of the Board show a license had been issued and been in full force and effect at the time of such loss, destruction or theft, or such request for an amended license. If an amended license is issued, the original license shall be returned to the Board.

(c) As to the licenses of funeral establishments, except when the accused admits a violation and agrees in writing to a judgment of the Board suspending or revoking the license in question or placing the accused on probation or fining the accused, the Board shall have no power or authority to fine the accused or suspend or revoke the license of the accused. However, the Board shall have the right to initiate a civil action in a District Court in the county in which the accused resides for the purpose of seeking a revocation or suspension of such license or probationary action or fine all as hereinafter provided.

If the Board shall be of the opinion that the license of the accused should be revoked or suspended for a period not to exceed three years, and if the accused will accept a decision of the Board to such effect, it shall prepare a formal judgment and submit the same to him; and upon his agreement to its entry, evidenced by memorandum in writing signed and acknowledged by him, the Board shall enter judgment accordingly and the same shall have the force and effect of a judgment of the District Court of the county of the residence of the accused. The formal complaint shall be the pleading by which the proceeding is instituted. The formal complaint shall be filed in the name of the Texas State Board of Morticians as plaintiff against the accused licensee as defendant and shall set forth the violation with which the defendant is charged. The prayer may be that the defendant "be placed on probation or his (its) license suspended or revoked or he (it) be fined as the facts shall warrant."

The answer of the defendant to the formal complaint shall either admit or deny each allegation of the petition, except where the defendant is unable to admit or deny the allegation, in which case defendant shall set forth the reasons he (it) cannot admit or deny.

Proceedings under formal complaint shall be entitled to preferred setting at the request of either party.

If the court shall find from the evidence in a case tried without a jury, or from the verdict of the jury, if there be one, that the defendant is guilty of no violation, he shall enter judgment so declaring and dismiss the complaint; but if he shall find the defendant guilty, he shall determine whether the party shall be (a) placed under probation (in which case he shall specify the terms thereof), (b) the license suspended (in which case he shall fix the term of suspension), (c) the license revoked, or (d) fined (in which case he shall set the amount thereof); and he shall enter the judgment accordingly. Sec. 1. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the Natural Death Act.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act:

   (1) "Attending physician" means the physician selected by, or assigned by the physician selected by, the patient who has primary responsibility for the treatment and care of the patient.
   (2) "Directive" means a written document voluntarily executed by the declarant in accordance with the requirements of Section 3 of this Act. The directive, or a copy of the directive, shall be made part of the patient's medical records.
   (3) "Life-sustaining procedure" means a medical procedure or intervention which utilizes mechanical or other artificial means to sustain, restore, or supplant a vital function, which, when applied to a qualified patient, would serve only to artificially prolong the moment of death and where, in the judgment of the attending physician, noted in the qualified patient's medical records, death is imminent whether or not such procedures are utilized. "Life-sustaining procedure" shall not include the administration of medication or the performance of any medical procedure deemed necessary to alleviate pain.

(4) "Physician" means a physician and surgeon licensed by the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners.

(5) "Qualified patient" means a patient diagnosed and certified in writing to be afflicted with a terminal condition by two physicians, one of whom shall be the attending physician, and the other shall be chosen by the patient or the attending physician, who have each personally examined the patient.

(6) "Terminal condition" means an incurable condition caused by injury, disease, or illness, which, regardless of the application of life-sustaining procedures, would, within reasonable medical judgment, produce death, and where the application of life-sustaining procedures serves only to postpone the moment of death of the patient.

Directive for Withholding or Withdrawal of Life-Sustaining Procedures in Event of Terminal Condition

Sec. 3. Any adult person may execute a directive for the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures in the event of a terminal condition. The directive shall be signed by the declarant in the presence of two witnesses not related to the declarant or an employee of the attending physician, who have each personally examined the patient.

The declarant has been personally known to me, and I am emotionally and mentally competent to make this directive.

DIRECTIVE TO PHYSICIANS

Directives made this ____ day of ____, (month, year).

I , being of sound mind, willfully and voluntarily make known my desire that my life shall not be artificially prolonged under the circumstances set forth below, and do hereby declare:

1. If at any time I should have an incurable condition caused by injury, disease, or illness certified to be a terminal condition by two physicians, and where the application of life-sustaining procedures would serve only to artificially prolong the moment of my death and where my attending physician determines that my death is imminent whether or not life-sustaining procedures are utilized, I direct that such procedures be withheld or withdrawn, and that I be permitted to die naturally.

2. In the absence of my ability to give directions regarding the use of such life-sustaining procedures, it is my intention that this directive shall be honored by my family and physicians as the final expression of my legal right to refuse medical or surgical treatment and accept the consequences from such refusal.

3. If I have been diagnosed as pregnant and that diagnosis is known to my physician, this directive shall have no force or effect during the course of my pregnancy.

4. I have been diagnosed and notified at least 14 days ago as having a terminal condition by M.D., whose address is ____________________________, and whose telephone number is ___________. I understand that if I have not filled in the physician's name and address, it shall be presumed that I did not have a terminal condition when I made out this directive.

5. This directive shall have no force or effect five years from the date filled in above.

6. I understand the full import of this directive and I am emotionally and mentally competent to make this directive.

7. I understand that I may revoke this directive at any time.

Revocation of Directive

Sec. 4. (a) A directive may be revoked at any time by the declarant, without regard to his mental state or competency, by any of the following methods:

(1) by being canceled, defaced, obliterated, or burnt, torn, or otherwise destroyed by the declarant or by some person in his presence and by his direction;

(2) by a written revocation of the declarant expressing his intent to revoke, signed and dated by the declarant. Such revocation shall become effective only on communication to an attending physician by the declarant or by a person acting on behalf of the declarant or by mailing said revocation to an attending physician. An attending physician or his designee shall record in the patient's medical record the time and date when he received notification of the written revocation and shall enter the word
"VOID" on each page of the copy of the directive in the patient's medical records; or

(3) by a verbal expression by the declarant of his intent to revoke the directive. Such revocation shall become effective only on communication to an attending physician by the declarant or by a person acting on behalf of the declarant.
An attending physician or his designee shall record in the patient's medical record the time, date, and place of the revocation and time, date, and place, if different, of when he received notification of the revocation and shall enter the word
"VOID" on each page of the copy of the directive in the patient's medical records.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, there shall be no criminal or civil liability on the part of any person for failure to act on a revocation made pursuant to this section unless that person has actual knowledge of the revocation.

Sec. 5. A directive shall be effective for five years from the date of its execution unless sooner revoked in a manner prescribed in Section 4 of this Act. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent a declarant from re-executing a directive at any time in accordance with the formalities of Section 3 of this Act, including re-execution subsequent to a diagnosis of a terminal condition. If the declar-ant has executed more than one directive, such time shall be determined from the date of execution of the last directive known to the attending physician.
If the declarant becomes comatose or is rendered incapable of communicating with the attending physician, the directive shall remain in effect for the duration of the comatose condition or until such time as the declarant's condition renders him or her able to communicate with the attending physician, but in any event shall terminate at the end of five years from the date of execution.

Civil or Criminal Liability

Sec. 6. No physician or health facility which, acting in accordance with the requirements of this Act, causes the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures from a qualified patient, shall be subject to civil liability therefrom unless negligent.
No health professional, acting under the direction of a physician, who participates in the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be subject to any civil liability unless negligent. No physician, or health professional acting under the direction of a physician, who participates in the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of any criminal act or of unprofessional conduct unless negligent. No physician, health care facility, or health care professional shall be liable either civilly or criminally for failure to act pursuant to the declarant's directive where such physician, health care facility, or health care professional had no knowledge of such directive.

Failure to Execute Directive

Sec. 7. (a) Prior to effecting a withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures from a qualified patient pursuant to the directive, the attending physician shall determine that the directive complies with the form of the directive set out in Section 3 of this Act, and, if the patient is mentally competent, that the directive and all steps proposed by the attending physician to be undertaken are in accord with the existing desires of the qualified patient and are communicated to the patient.

(b) If the declarant was a qualified patient at least 14 days prior to executing or re-executing the directive, the directive shall be conclusively presumed, unless revoked, to be the directions of the patient regarding the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures. No physician, and no health professional acting under the direction of a physician, shall be criminally or civilly liable for failing to effectuate the directive of the qualified patient pursuant to this subsection. A failure by a physician to effectuate the directive of a qualified patient pursuant to this subsection may constitute unprofessional conduct if the physician refuses to make the necessary arrangements or fails to take the necessary steps to effect the transfer of the qualified patient to another physician who will effectuate the directive of the qualified patient.

(c) If the declarant becomes a qualified patient subsequent to executing the directive, and has not subsequently re-executed the directive, the attending physician may give weight to the directive as evidence of the patient's directions regarding the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures and may consider other factors, such as information from the affected family or the nature of the patient's illness, injury, or disease, in determining whether the totality of circumstances known to the attending physician justifies effectuating the directive. No physician, and no health professional acting under the direction of a physician, shall be criminally or civilly liable for failing to effectuate the directive of the qualified patient pursuant to this subsection.

Effect on Offense of Aiding Suicide and Insurance Policies

Sec. 9. A person who willfully conceals, cancels, defaces, obliterates, or damages the directive of another without such declarant's consent shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor. A person who falsifies or forges the directive of another, or willfully conceals or withholds personal knowledge of a revocation as provided in Section 4 of this Act, with the intent to cause a withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures contrary to the wishes of the declarant, and thereby, because of any such act, directly causes life-sustaining procedures to be withheld or withdrawn and death to thereby be hastened, shall be subject to prosecution for criminal homicide under the provisions of the Penal Code.

Mercy Killing not Condoned

Sec. 10. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to condone, authorize, or approve mercy killing, or to permit any affirmative or deliberate act or omission to end life other than to permit the natural process of dying as provided in this Act.

Act as Cumulative

Sec. 11. Nothing in this Act shall impair or supersede any legal right or legal responsibility which any person may have to effect the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures in any lawful manner. In such respect the provisions of this Act are cumulative.

4. Make available to physicians, hospitals, and other health care providers protection against potential liability through the insurance mechanism at reasonably affordable rates;

5. Make affordable medical and health care more accessible and available to the citizens of Texas;

6. Make certain modifications in the medical, insurance, and legal systems in order to determine whether or not there will be an effect on rates charged by insurers for medical professional liability insurance; and

7. Make certain modifications to the liability laws as they relate to health care liability claims only and with an intention of the legislature to not extend or apply such modifications of liability laws to any other area of the Texas legal system or tort law.

(3) repeated or recurring meritorious health care liability claims which in the opinion of the board evidence professional incompetence likely to injure the public.

Temporary Suspension of License

Sec. 2.13. If the board determines from evidence or information presented to it that a person licensed to practice medicine in this state by his continuation in practice would constitute an immediate danger to the public, the board, on majority vote of the members, may temporarily suspend the license of that person without notice or hearing on the complaint, provided institution of proceedings for a hearing before the board is initiated simultaneously with the temporary suspension and provided that a hearing is held as soon as can be accomplished under Chapter 6, Title 71, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act.

Sec. 2.14. A person against whom disciplinary action is taken pursuant to this subchapter shall have the right of judicial appeal as provided under Article 4506, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, provided that the person may not be allowed to practice medicine or deliver health care services in violation of any disciplinary order or action of the board while the appeal is pending unless otherwise stayed by the district court judge where the venue of the appeal lies.

SUBCHAPTER F. INFORMED CONSENT

Definition

Sec. 6.01. In this subchapter, "panel" means the Texas Medical Disclosure Panel.

Theory of Recovery

Sec. 6.02. In a suit against a physician or health care provider involving a health care liability claim that is based on the failure of the physician or health care provider to disclose or adequately disclose the risks and hazards involved in the medical care or surgical procedure rendered by the physician or health care provider, the only theory on which recovery may be obtained is that of negligence in failing to disclose the risks or hazards that could have influenced a reasonable person in making a decision to give or withhold consent.

Texas Medical Disclosure Panel

Sec. 6.03. (a) The Texas Medical Disclosure Panel is created to determine which risks and hazards related to medical care and surgical procedures must be disclosed by health care providers or physicians to their patients or persons authorized to consent for their patients and to establish the general form and substance of such disclosure.

(b) The panel is a division of the Texas Department of Health Resources and is under the supervision and subject to the rules and procedures of the Texas Department of Health Resources.

(c) The panel is composed of nine members, with three members licensed to practice law in this state and six members licensed to practice medicine in this state. Members of the panel shall be selected by the Director of Health Resources.

(d) Members of the panel serve for terms of two years, with their terms expiring on September 1 of each odd-numbered year. Vacancies on the panel are filled in the manner provided in Subsection (c) of this section for making the original selection and the person appointed to fill the vacancy serves for the unexpired term.

(e) Members of the panel are not entitled to compensation for their services, but each panelist is entitled to reimbursement of any necessary expense incurred in the performance of his duties on the panel including necessary travel expenses.

(f) Meetings of the panel shall be held at the call of the chairman or on petition of at least three members of the panel.

(g) At the first meeting of the panel after its members assume their positions, the panelists shall select one of the panel members to serve as chairman and one of the panel members to serve as vice-chairman. The chairman shall preside at meetings of the panel, and in his absence, the vice-chairman shall preside.

(h) Employees of the Texas Department of Health Resources shall serve as the staff for the panel.

Duties of Panel

Sec. 6.04. (a) To the extent feasible, the panel shall identify and make a thorough examination of all medical treatments and surgical procedures in which physicians and health care providers may be involved in order to determine which of those treatments and procedures do and do not require disclosure of the risks and hazards to the patient or person authorized to consent for the patient.

(b) The panel shall prepare separate lists of those medical treatments and surgical procedures that do and do not require disclosure and for those treatments and procedures that do require disclosure shall establish the degree of disclosure required and the form in which the disclosure will be made.

(c) Lists prepared under Subsection (b) of this section together with written explanations of the degree and form of disclosure shall be published in the Texas Register.

(d) At least annually, or at such other period the panel may determine from time to time, the panel will identify and examine any new medical treatments and surgical procedures that have been developed since its last determinations, shall assign them to the proper list, and shall establish the degree of disclosure required and the form in which the disclosure will be made. These determinations shall be published in the Texas Register.

Duty of Physician or Health Care Provider

Sec. 6.05. Before a patient or a person authorized to consent for a patient gives consent to any medical care or surgical procedure that appears on the panel's list requiring disclosure, the physician or health care provider shall disclose to the patient, or person authorized to consent for the patient, the risks and hazards involved in that kind of care or procedure. A physician or health care provider shall be considered to have complied with the requirements of this section if disclosure is made as provided in Section 6.06 of this subchapter.

Manner of Disclosure

Sec. 6.06. Consent to medical care that appears on the panel's list requiring disclosure shall be considered effective under this subchapter if it is given in writing, signed by the patient or a person authorized to give the consent and by a competent witness, and if the written consent specifically states the risks and hazards that are involved in the medical care or surgical procedure in the form and to the degree required by the panel under Section 6.04 of this subchapter.

Effect of Disclosure

Sec. 6.07. (a) In a suit against a physician or health care provider involving a health care liability claim that is based on the negligent failure of the physician or health care provider to disclose or adequately to disclose the risks and hazards involved in the medical care or surgical procedure rendered by the physician or health care provider:

1. Both disclosure made as provided in Section 6.05 of this subchapter and failure to disclose based on inclusion of any medical care or surgical procedure on the panel's list for which disclosure is not required shall be admissible in evidence and shall create a rebuttable presumption that the requirements of Sections 6.05 and 6.06 of this subchapter have been complied with and this presumption shall be included in the charge to the jury; and

2. Failure to disclose the risks and hazards involved in any medical care or surgical procedure required to be disclosed under Sections 6.05 and 6.06 of this subchapter shall be admissible in evidence and shall create a rebuttable presumption of a negligent failure to conform to the duty of disclosure set forth in Sections 6.05 and 6.06 of this subchapter, and this presumption shall be included in the charge to the jury; but failure to disclose may be found not to be negligent if there was an emergency or if for some other reason it was not medically feasible to make a disclosure of the kind that would otherwise have been negligence.

(b) If medical care or surgical procedure is rendered with respect to which the panel has made no determination either way regarding a duty of disclosure, the physician or health care provider is under the duty otherwise imposed by law.

SUBCHAPTER G. RES IPSA LOQUITUR

Application of Res Ipsa Loquitor

Sec. 7.01. The common-law doctrine of res ipsa loquitur shall only apply to health care liability claims against health care providers or physicians in those cases to which it has been applied by the appellate courts of this state as of the effective date of this subchapter.

Effective Date

Sec. 8.05. This subchapter will take effect if and only if the State Bar of Texas fails to certify to the Supreme Court of Texas by January 31, 1979, that it has adopted rules for appropriate disciplinary measures against an attorney who has been determined to have filed a claim in bad faith. If the provisions of this section are held unconstitutional or invalid for any reason, the legislature specifically declares this section to be severable and that such holding shall in no way affect the validity of the other sections of this subchapter.

SUBCHAPTER I. ADVANCE PAYMENTS

Advance Payments not Admission of Liability

Sec. 9.01. In an action brought to recover damages based on a health care liability claim, no advance payment made on that claim by the defendant health care provider or physician, or the professional liability insurer, to or for the claimant, or any other person, shall be construed as an admission of liability by the health care provider or physician or any person for any injuries or damages suffered by the claimant or anyone else.

Admissibility of Advance Payments

Sec. 9.02. Except as provided in this subchapter, evidence of an advance payment shall not be admissible during the trial of an action based on a health care liability claim at any stage of the proceedings, unless and until there is a final award in favor of the claimant, in which event the trial judge shall reduce the award to the claimant to the extent of the advance payment.

Adjustments for Advance Payments

Sec. 9.03. The advance payment shall inure to the exclusive benefit of the defendant or his or its carrier making the advance payment, and in the event the advance payment exceeds the pro rata liability of the defendant or the carrier making the payment, the trial judge shall order any adjustment necessary to equalize the amount which each defendant is obligated to pay under this subchapter, exclusive of costs.

CHAPTER EIGHT. PENALTIES

Art. 5069-8.01. Contracting For, Charging or Receiving Interest, Time Price Differential or Other Charges Greater Than Authorized; Failure to Perform Duty or Committing Prohibited Act; Correction of Violations

(a) Any person who violates this Subtitle by contracting for, charging or receiving interest, time price differential or other charges which are greater than the amount authorized by this Subtitle, shall forfeit to the obligor twice the amount of interest or time price differential and default and deferment charges contracted for, charged or received, and reasonable attorneys' fees fixed by the court.

(b) Any person who violates this Subtitle or Chapter 14 of this Title by

(i) failing to perform any duty or requirement specifically imposed on him by any provision of this Subtitle or Chapter 14 of this Title, or by

(ii) committing any act or practice prohibited by this Subtitle or Chapter 14 of this Title, shall be liable to the obligor for a penalty in an amount equal to twice the time price differential or interest contracted for, charged, or received but not to exceed $2,000 in a transaction in which the amount financed is $5,000 or less, and not to exceed $4,000 in a transaction in which the amount financed is in excess of $5,000 and reasonable attorneys' fees fixed by the court.

(c)(1) A person has no liability to an obligor for a violation of this Subtitle or of Chapter 14 of this Title if within 60 days after having actually discovered such violation such person corrects such violation as to such obligor by performing the required duty or act or by refunding any amount in excess of that authorized by law; provided, however, that such person gives written notice to such obligor of such violation prior to such obligor having given written notice of or having filed an action alleging such violation of this Subtitle or of Chapter 14 of this Title.

As used herein, the term "actually discovered" shall not be construed, interpreted, or applied in such manner as to refer to the time or date when, through reasonable diligence, an ordinarily prudent person could or should have discovered or known as a matter of law or fact of the violation in question, but such term shall be construed, interpreted, and applied to refer to the time of the discovery of the violation in fact, provided, however, that the actual discovery of such violation in one transaction may constitute actual discovery of the same violation in other transactions if the violation actually discovered is of such nature that it would necessarily be repeated and would be clearly apparent in such other transactions without the necessity of examining all such other transactions.

(2) A person has no liability to an obligor for a violation of this Subtitle or of Chapter 14 of this Title if prior to the effective date of the Act or within 60 days after the effective date of the Act such person corrects such violation as to such obligor by performing the required duty or act or by refunding any amount in excess of that authorized by law; provided, however, that such person gives written notice to such obligor of such correction prior to such obligor having given written notice of or having filed an action alleging such violation of this Subtitle or of Chapter 14 of this Title.

(3) If, subsequent to the times specified in Article 8.01(c)(1) and (2) of this Act but prior to the obligor having given written notice of or having filed an action alleging a violation for which a penalty is provided in Article 8.01(b) of this Act, such violation is corrected as to such obligor by performing the required duty or act and written notice of such violation is given to such obligor, then the liability of any person to such obligor shall be limited in each transaction to a penalty in an amount equal to the time price differential or interest contracted for, charged, or received but not to exceed $2,000 and reasonable attorneys' fees fixed by the court.

(4) If, subsequent to the times specified in Article 8.01(c)(1) and (2) of this Act but prior to the obligor having given written notice of or having filed an action alleging a violation for which a penalty is provided in Article 8.01(a) of this Act for contracting for, charging, or receiving

(i) other charges in excess of the amount authorized by law, or

(ii) interest or time price differential in excess of the amount authorized by law, where such excess is directly and solely attributable to and calculated upon the amount of such other charges, or

(iii) both of the foregoing, such violation is corrected as to such obligor by refunding the amount of the excess and written notice of such refund is given to such obligor, then the liability of any person to such obligor shall be limited in each transaction to a penalty in an amount equal to the time price differential or interest contracted for, charged, or received but not to exceed $2,000 and reasonable attorneys' fees fixed by the court.

(5) For purposes of this Article the giving of written notice shall be accomplished by and upon the delivery of such notice to the person to whom such notice is directed or to such person's duly authorized agent or attorney of record, such delivery to be made either in person or by United States mail to the address shown on the most recent documents in the transaction. Deposit of such notice as registered or certified mail in a postage paid, properly addressed wrapper in a post office or official depository under the care and custody of the United States Postal Service shall constitute prima facie evidence of the delivery of such notice to such person.

(d) The action of a person who corrects a violation of this Subtitle or of Chapter 14 of this Title pursuant to Article 8.01(e) of this Act shall be effective as to all persons in the same transaction, and such persons shall be entitled to the same protection as that provided by Article 8.01(c) of this Act to the person who makes the correction.

(e) If a person has violated both Articles 8.01(a) and 8.01(b) of this Act as part of the same transaction, then he shall be liable only for the penalties set forth in Article 8.01(a) of this Act.

(f) A person may not be held liable in any action brought under this Article for a violation of this Subtitle or of Chapter 14 of this Title if such person shows by a preponderance of evidence that (1) the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adopted to avoid such violation or that (2) the violation was an act done or omitted in good faith in conformity with any rule, regulation, or interpretation of this Title by any state agency, board, or commission, or with the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act (15 U.S.C.
Section 1601 et seq.) or with any rule, regulation, or interpretation thereof by any federal agency, board, or commission, notwithstanding that after such act or omission has occurred, such rule, regulation, or interpretation is amended, rescinded, or determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

(g) Multiple violations of this Subtitle or Chapter 14 of this Title occurring in a single transaction shall entitle the obligor to a single recovery.

(h) The liability of any person under this Article for a violation of this Subtitle is in lieu of and not in addition to his liability under the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act (15 U.S.C. Section 1601 et seq.).
A final judgment granting or denying relief under the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act (15 U.S.C. Section 1601 et seq.) shall bar any subsequent action under this Article by the same obligor with respect to the same violation. If a final judg-mint has been rendered against any person in favor of an obligor pursuant to this Article and thereafter an action is instituted with respect to the same violation by the obligor under the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act (15 U.S.C. Section 1601 et seq.)
against the same person, then such person may in the same or in an independent action have a cause of action against the obligor who obtained such judgment to recover the amount of the judgment rendered under this Article and reasonable attorneys' fees fixed by the court.

"Sec. 4. This Act shall supersede any other act passed at the Regular Session of the 65th Legislature which amends any article or section of Chapter 8 regardless of the relative date of the passage or approval of such other act."

"Sec. 5. If any provision, paragraph, subsection, or section of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is determined to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other application thereof which can be given effect without the invalid or unconstitutional provision or application, and to this end the provisions, paragraphs, subsections, and sections of the Act are severable."

Art. 5069-8.02. Contracting For, Charging or Receiving Interest, Time Price Differential or Other Charges in Excess of Double the Amount Authorized

ning for, charging or receiving interest, time price differential or other charges which are in the aggregate in excess of double the total amount of interest, time price differential and other charges authorized by this Subtitle shall forfeit to the obligor as an additional penalty all principal or principal balance, as well as all interest or time price differential, and all other charges, and shall pay reasonable attorneys' fees actually incurred by the obligor in enforcing the provisions of this Article; provided further that any such person violating provisions of this Article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than One Hundred Dollars. Each contract or transaction in violation of this Article shall constitute a separate

(7) "Credit sale" refers to any sale with respect to which credit is extended or arranged by the seller. The term includes any contract in the form of a bailment or lease if the bailee or lessee contracts to pay as compensation for use a sum substantially equivalent to or in excess of the aggregate value of the property and services involved, and it is agreed that the bailee or lessee will become, or for no other or a nominal consideration has the option to become, the own-

   3 Article 5069–3.01.

Art. 5069–14.03. Regulations

(a) The Commissioner shall, as deemed necessary, determine what disclosure requirements are necessary in order to bring the duties and requirements imposed under this Title into conformity with the applicable federal consumer protection law and any lawful regulations promulgated under that law, from time to time, and transmit his findings to the Commission.

(b) The Commission may prescribe from time to time such rules and regulations as may be necessary or proper in carrying out the provisions of this Chapter. Such rules and regulations may contain such classifications, differentiations, or other provisions and may provide for such adjustments and exceptions as in the judgment of the Commission are necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of this Chapter, to prevent circumvention or evasion thereof, or to facilitate compliance therewith; provided, however, that no such rule or regulation shall contain any classification, differentiation, or other provision with respect to, or provide for any adjustment or exception for, any class of transaction which would result in less stringent disclosure requirements than afforded that class of transaction under the federal consumer protection law and Regulation Z issued by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System pursuant thereto.

(c) Before the Commission makes such regulations, the Commissioner shall conduct a public hearing on the proposed regulations and make such recommendations to the Commission regarding such regulations as he finds are necessary to effectuate the purposes of this Chapter. Any person who violates any valid regulation or any provision thereof so adopted and promulgated shall be subject to the penalties hereinafter provided.
Art. 5069—14.04. Determination of Finance Charge

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Article, the amount of the finance charge in connection with any consumer-credit transaction shall be determined as the sum of all charges payable directly or indirectly by the person to whom the credit is extended and imposed directly or indirectly by the creditor as an incident to the extension of credit, including any of the following types of charges which are applicable:

1. interest, time-price differential, and any amount payable under a point, discount, or other system of additional charges;
2. service or carrying charge;
3. loan fee, finder's fee, or similar charge;
4. fee for an investigation or credit report; or
5. premium or other charge for any guarantee or insurance protecting the creditor against the obligor's default or other credit loss.

(b) Charges or premiums for credit-life, accident, or health insurance written in connection with any consumer-credit transaction shall be included in the finance charge unless:

1. the coverage of the debtor by the insurance is not a factor in the approval by the creditor of the extension of credit, and this fact is clearly disclosed in writing to the person applying for or obtaining the extension of credit; and
2. in order to obtain the insurance in connection with the extension of credit, the person to whom the credit is extended must give specific affirmative written indication of his desire to do so after written disclosure to him of the cost thereof.

(c) Charges or premiums for insurance, written in connection with any consumer-credit transaction, against loss of or damage to property or against liability arising out of the ownership or use of property shall be included in the finance charge unless a clear and specific statement in writing is furnished by the creditor to the person to whom the credit is extended, setting forth the cost of the insurance if obtained from or through the creditor and stating that the person to whom the credit is extended may choose the person through which the insurance is to be obtained.

Art. 5069—14.05. Determination of Annual Percentage Rate

(a) The annual percentage rate applicable to any extension of consumer credit shall be determined, in accordance with the regulations of the Commission:

1. in the case of any extension of credit other than under an open-end credit plan, as
   (A) that nominal annual percentage rate which will yield a sum equal to the amount of the finance charge when it is applied to the unpaid balances of the amount financed, calculated according to the actuarial method of allocating payments made on a debt between the amount financed and the amount of the finance charge, pursuant to which a payment is applied first to the...
accumulated finance charge and the balance is applied to the unpaid amount financed; or

(B) the rate determined by any method prescribed by the Commission as a method which materially simplifies computation while retaining reasonable accuracy as compared with the rate determined under Subparagraph (A) of this Subsection;

(2) in the case of any extension of credit under an open-end credit plan, as the quotient (expressed as a percentage) of the total finance charge for the period to which it relates divided by the amount upon which the finance charge for that period is based, multiplied by the number of such periods in a year.

(b) Where a creditor imposes the same finance charge for balances within a specified range, the annual percentage rate shall be computed on the median balance within the range, except that if the Commission determines that a rate so computed would not be meaningful, or would be materially misleading, the annual percentage rate shall be computed on such other basis as the Commission may by regulation require.

(c) The annual percentage rate may be rounded to the nearest quarter of 1 percent for credit transactions payable in substantially equal installments when a creditor determines the total finance charge on the basis of a single add-on, discount, periodic, or other rate and the rate is converted into an annual percentage rate under procedures prescribed by the Commission.

(d) The Commission may authorize the use of rate tables or charts which may provide for the disclosure of annual percentage rates which vary from the rate determined in accordance with Section (a)(1)(A) of this Article by not more than such tolerances as the Commission may allow. The Commission may not allow a tolerance greater than 8 percent of that rate except to simplify compliance where irregular payments are involved.

(e) In the case of creditors determining the annual percentage rate in a manner other than as described in Section (c) or (d) of this Article, the Commission may authorize other reasonable tolerances.

Art. 5069-14.06. Administrative Enforcement

(a) Compliance with the requirements imposed under this Chapter shall be enforced by the Commissioner, who may exercise for such purpose any authority conferred upon him by law.

(b) The Commissioner shall be responsible for seeking exemption from federal administration of the provisions of any federal consumer protection law to the extent and in the manner prescribed by any such law or any regulation duly issued pursuant thereto.

(c) At such time as the Commissioner shall deem necessary to insure compliance with this Chapter, he or his authorized representative shall examine the records of any creditor doing business in the State. In the course of such examination the Commissioner or his authorized representative shall have free access to the office, place of business, files, safes, and vaults of such creditor and shall have the right to make copies of any book, account, paper, correspondence, or record. The Commissioner or his representative may, during the course of such examination, administer oaths and examine any person under oath upon any subject pertinent to any matter about which the Commissioner is authorized by this Chapter to consider, investigate, or secure information. Any creditor refusing to let the Commissioner or his authorized representative examine or make copies of all relevant documents shall be subject to the penalties provided in Article 14.08 of this Chapter. The information obtained in the course of such examination shall be confidential. Each creditor shall pay to the Commissioner an amount assessed by the Commissioner to cover the direct and indirect cost of such examination and a proportionate part of general administrative expenses.

Art. 5069-14.07. Views of Other Agencies

In exercising the functions under this title, the Commissioner may obtain, upon request, the views of any other agencies which, in the judgment of the Commissioner, exercise regulatory or supervisory functions with respect to any class of creditors subject to this Title.

Art. 5069-14.08. Criminal Liability for Willful and Knowing Violation

Whoever willfully and knowingly (1) gives false or inaccurate information or fails to provide information which he is required to disclose under the provisions of this Chapter or any regulation issued thereunder, (2) uses any chart or table authorized by the Commission under Article 14.05 in such manner as to consistently underestimate the annual percentage rate determined under Article 14.05(a)(1)(A), or (3) otherwise fails to comply with any requirement imposed under this Chapter, shall be fined not more than Five Thousand Dollars or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

No civil or criminal penalty provided under this Chapter for any violation thereof may be imposed upon the United States or any agency thereof, or upon any state or political subdivision thereof, or any agency of any state or political subdivision. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 421, ch. 184, § 1, eff. Dec. 31, 1975.]

Art. 5069-14.10. Liability of Assignees

Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Title, any civil action for a violation of this Title which may be brought against the original creditor in any credit transaction may be maintained against any subsequent assignee of the original creditor where the violation from which the alleged liability arose is apparent on the face of the instrument assigned unless the assignment is involuntary. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 421, ch. 184, § 1, eff. Dec. 31, 1975.]

(a) Each creditor shall disclose clearly and conspicuously, in accordance with the regulations of the Commission, to each person to whom consumer credit is extended and upon whom a finance charge is or may be imposed, the information required under this Chapter.

(b) If there is more than one obligor, a creditor need not furnish a statement of information required under this Chapter to more than one of them.

(c) For the purpose of Section (a), the information required under this Chapter shall include a full statement of closing costs to be incurred by the consumer, which shall be presented, in accordance with the regulations of the Commission:

(1) prior to the time when any down payment is made; or

(2) in the case of a consumer-credit transaction involving real property, at the time the creditor makes a commitment with respect to the transaction.

The Commission may provide by regulation that any portion of the information required to be disclosed by this Article may be given in the form of estimates where the provider of such information is not in a position to know exact information. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 421, ch. 184, § 1, eff. Dec. 31, 1975.]

Art. 5069-14.12. Form of Disclosure; Additional Information

(a) Regulations of the Commission need not require that disclosures pursuant to this Chapter be made in the order set forth in this Chapter and may permit the use of terminology different from that employed in this Chapter if it conveys substantially the same meaning.

(b) Any creditor may supply additional information or explanations with any disclosures required under this Chapter. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 421, ch. 184, § 1, eff. Dec. 31, 1975.]

Art. 5069-14.13. Effect of Subsequent Occurrence

If information disclosed in accordance with this Chapter is subsequently rendered inaccurate as the result of any act, occurrence, or agreement subsequent to the delivery of the required disclosures, the inaccuracy resulting therefrom does not constitute a violation of this Chapter. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 421, ch. 184, § 1, eff. Dec. 31, 1975.]

Art. 5069-14.14. Right of Rescission as to Certain Transactions

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Article, in the case of any consumer-credit transaction in which a security interest, including any such interest arising by operation of law, is or will be retained or acquired in any real property which is used or is expected to be used as the residence of the person to whom credit is extended, the obligor shall have the right to rescind the transaction until midnight of the third business day following the consummation of the transaction or the delivery of the disclosures required under this Article and all other material disclosures required under this Chapter, whichever is later, by notifying the creditor, in accordance with regulations of the Commission, of his intention to do so. The creditor shall clearly and conspicuously disclose, in accordance with the regulations of the Commission, to any obligor in a transaction subject to this Article the rights of the obligor under this Article. The creditor shall also provide, in accordance with regulations of the Commission, an adequate opportunity to the obligor to exercise his right to rescind any transaction subject to this Article.

(b) When an obligor exercises his right to rescind under Section (a) of this Article, he is not liable for any finance or other charge, and any security interest given by the obligor, including any such interest arising by operation of law, becomes void upon such a rescission. Within ten days after receipt of a notice of rescission, the creditor shall return to the obligor any money or property given as earnest money, down payment, or otherwise and shall take any action necessary or appropriate to reflect the termination of any security interest created under the transaction. If the creditor has delivered any property to the obligor, the obligor may retain possession of it. Upon the performance of the creditor's obligations under this Article, the obligor shall tender the property to the creditor, except that if return of the property in kind would be impracticable or inequitable, the obligor shall tender its reasonable value. Tender shall be made at the location of the property or at the residence of the obligor, at the option of the obligor. If the creditor does not take possession of the property within ten days after tender by the obligor, ownership of the property vests in the obligor without obligation on his part to pay for it.
(c) Notwithstanding any rule of evidence, written acknowledgment of receipt of any disclosures required under this Chapter by a person to whom a statement is required to be given pursuant to this Article does no more than create a rebuttable presumption of delivery thereof.

(d) The Commission may, if it finds that such action is necessary in order to permit homeowners to meet bona fide personal financial emergencies, prescribe regulations authorizing the modification or waiver of any rights created under this Article to the extent and under the circumstances set forth in those regulations.

(e) This Article does not apply to the creation or retention of a first lien against a dwelling to finance the acquisition of that dwelling or to a consumer-credit transaction in which an agency of the State is the creditor.

(f) An obligor's rights of rescission shall expire three years after the date of consummation of the transaction or upon the sale of the property, whichever occurs earlier, notwithstanding the fact that the disclosures required under this Article or any other material disclosures required under this Chapter have not been delivered to the obligor.

Art. 5069-14.15. Content of Periodic Statements

(a) If a creditor transmits periodic statements in connection with any extension of consumer credit other than under an open-end consumer-credit plan, then each of those statements shall set forth each of the following items:

(1) the annual percentage rate of the total finance charge;
(2) the date by which or the period (if any) within which payment must be made in order to avoid additional finance charges or other charges; and
(3) such of the items set forth in Article 14-16(b) as the Commission may by regulation require as appropriate to the terms and conditions under which the extension of credit in question is made.

Art. 5069-14.16. Open-End Consumer-Credit Plans

(a) Before opening any account under an open-end consumer-credit plan, the creditor shall disclose to the person to whom credit is to be extended each of the following items, to the extent applicable:

(1) the conditions under which a finance charge may be imposed, including the time period (if any) within which any credit extended may be repaid without incurring a finance charge, except that the creditor may, at his election and without disclosure, impose no such finance charge if payment is received after the termination of such time period;
(2) the method of determining the balance upon which a finance charge will be imposed;
(3) the method of determining the amount of the finance charge, including any minimum or fixed amount imposed as a finance charge;
(4) where one or more periodic rates may be used to compute the finance charge, each such rate, the range of balances to which it is applicable, and the corresponding nominal annual percentage rate determined by multiplying the periodic rate by the number of periods in a year;
(5) if the creditor so elects:
(A) the average effective annual percentage rate of return received from accounts under the plan for a representative period of time; or
(B) whenever circumstances are such that the computation of a rate under Subparagraph (A) of this Subsection would not be feasible or practical, or would be misleading or meaningless, a projected rate of return to be received from accounts under the plan. The Commission shall prescribe regulations, consistent with commonly accepted standards for accounting or statistical procedures, to carry out the purposes of this Subsection;
(6) the conditions under which any other charges may be imposed, and the method by which they will be determined; and
(7) the conditions under which the creditor may retain or acquire any security interest in any property to secure the payment of any credit extended under the plan, and a description of the interest or interests which may be so retained or acquired.

(b) The creditor of any account under an open-end consumer-credit plan shall transmit to the obligor, for each billing cycle at the end of which there is an outstanding balance in that account or with respect to which a finance charge is imposed, a statement setting forth each of the following items to the extent applicable:

(1) the outstanding balance in the account at the beginning of the statement period;
(2) the amount and date of each extension of credit during the period and a brief identification on or accompanying the statement of each extension of credit in a form prescribed by regulations of the Commission sufficient to enable the obligor to identify the transaction or relate it to copies of sales vouchers or similar instruments previously furnished;
Art. 5069-14.16 INTEREST—CONSUMER CREDIT—CONSUMER PRO. 2126

(3) the total amount credited to the account during the period;

(4) the amount of any finance charge added to the account during the period, itemized to show the amounts, if any, due to the application of percentage rates and the amount, if any, imposed as a minimum or fixed charge;

(5) where one or more periodic rates may be used to compute the finance charge, each such rate, the range of balances to which it is applicable, and, unless the annual percentage rate (determined under Article 14.05(a)(2)) is required to be disclosed pursuant to Subsection (6), the corresponding nominal annual percentage rate determined by multiplying the periodic rate by the number of periods in a year;

(6) where the total finance charge exceeds fifty cents for a monthly or longer billing cycle, or the pro rata part of fifty cents for a billing cycle shorter than monthly, the total finance charge expressed as an annual percentage rate (determined under Article 14.05(a)(2)), except that if the finance charge is the sum of two or more products of a rate times a portion of the balance, the creditor may, in lieu of disclosing a single rate for the total charge, disclose each such rate expressed as an annual percentage rate, and the part of the balance to which it is applicable;

(7) at the election of the creditor, the average effective annual percentage rate of return (or the projected rate) under the plan as prescribed in Section (a)(5) of this Article;

(8) the balance on which the finance charge was computed and a statement of how the balance was determined. If the balance is determined without first deducting all credits during the period, that fact and the amount of such payments shall also be disclosed;

(9) the outstanding balance in the account at the end of the period; and

(10) the date by which or the period (if any) within which payment must be made to avoid additional finance charges, except that the creditor may, at his election and without disclosure, impose no such additional finance charge if payment is received after such date or the termination of such period.

(c) In the case of any open-end consumer-credit plan in existence on the effective date of this Act, the items described in Section (a) of this Article, to the extent applicable, shall be disclosed in a notice mailed or delivered to the obligor not later than thirty days after the effective date of this Act; provided, however, this Subsection shall not apply to any creditor who has made such disclosure and notification under the provisions of the Truth in Lending Act.

Art. 5069-14.17. Sales not Under Open-End Credit Plans

(a) In connection with each consumer-credit sale not under an open-end credit plan, the creditor shall disclose each of the following items which is applicable:

1. the cash price of the property or service purchased;

2. the sum of any amounts credited as down payment (including any trade-in);

3. the difference between the amount referred to in Subsection (1) and the amount referred to in Subsection (2) of this Section;

4. all other charges, individually itemized, which are included in the amount of the credit extended but which are not part of the finance charge;

5. the total amount to be financed (the sum of the amount described in Subsection (3) plus the amount described in Subsection (4) of this Section);

6. except in the case of a sale of a dwelling, the amount of the finance charge, which may in whole or in part be designated as a time-price differential or any similar term to the extent applicable;

7. the finance charge expressed as an annual percentage rate except in the case of a finance charge:

(A) which does not exceed Five Dollars and is applicable to an amount financed not exceeding Seventy-five Dollars, or

(B) which does not exceed Seven Dollars and fifty cents and is applicable to an amount financed exceeding Seventy-five Dollars.

A creditor may not divide a consumer-credit sale into two or more sales to avoid the disclosure of an annual percentage rate pursuant to this Section;

8. the number, amount, and due dates or periods of payments scheduled to repay the indebtedness;

9. the default, delinquency, or similar charges payable in the event of late payments; and

10. a description of any security interest held or to be retained or acquired by the creditor or in connection with the extension of credit, and a clear identification of the property to which the security interest relates.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this Chapter, the disclosures required under Section (a) of this Article shall be made before the credit is extended, and may be made by disclosing the information in the contract or other evidence of indebtedness to be signed by the purchaser.
(c) If a creditor receives a purchase order by mail or telephone without personal solicitation, and the cash price and the deferred-payment price and the terms of financing, including the annual percentage rate, are set forth in the creditor's catalog or other printed material distributed to the public, then the disclosures required under Section (a) of this Article may be made at any time not later than the date the first payment is due.

(d) If a consumer-credit sale is one of a series of consumer-credit sales transactions made pursuant to an agreement providing for the addition of the deferred payment price of that sale to an existing outstanding balance and the person to whom the credit is extended has approved in writing both the annual percentage rate or rates and the method of computing the finance charge or charges and the creditor retains no security interest in any property as to which he has received payments aggregating the amount of the sales price including any finance charges attributable thereto, then the disclosure required under Section (a) of this Article for the particular sale may be made at any time not later than the date the first payment for that sale is due. For the purposes of this Section, in the case of items purchased on different dates, the first purchased shall be deemed first paid for, and in the case of items purchased on the same date, the lowest priced shall be deemed first paid for.

Art. 5069–14.18. Consumer Loans not Under Open-End Credit Plans

(a) Any creditor making a consumer loan or otherwise extending consumer credit in a transaction which is neither a consumer-credit sale nor under an open-end consumer-credit plan shall disclose each of the following items, to the extent applicable:

1. the amount of credit of which the obligor will have the actual use or which is or will be paid to him or for his account or to another person on his behalf;

2. all charges, individually itemized, which are included in the amount of credit extended but which are not part of the finance charge;

3. the total amount to be financed (the sum of the amounts referred to in Subsection (1) plus the amounts referred to in Subsection (2) of this Section);

4. except in the case of a loan secured by a first lien on a dwelling and made to finance the purchase of that dwelling, the amount of the finance charge;

5. the finance charge expressed as an annual percentage rate except in the case of a finance charge:

(A) which does not exceed Five Dollars and is applicable to an extension of consumer credit not exceeding Seventy-five Dollars, or

(B) which does not exceed Seven Dollars and fifty cents and is applicable to an extension of consumer credit exceeding Seventy-five Dollars.

A creditor may not divide an extension of credit into two or more transactions to avoid the disclosure of an annual percentage rate pursuant to this Section;

6. the number, amount, and the due dates or periods of payments scheduled to repay the indebtedness;

7. the default, delinquency, or similar charges payable in the event of late payments; and

8. a description of any security interest held or to be retained or acquired by the creditor in connection with the extension of credit and a clear identification of the property to which the security interest relates.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this Chapter, the disclosures required by Section (a) of this Article shall be made before the credit is extended, and may be made by disclosing the information in the note or other evidence of indebtedness to be signed by the obligor.

(c) If a creditor receives a request for an extension of credit by mail or telephone without personal solicitation and the terms of financing, including the annual percentage rate for representative amounts of credit, are set forth in the creditor’s printed material distributed to the public or in the contract of loan or other printed material delivered to the obligor, then the disclosures required under Section (a) of this Article may be made at any time not later than the date the first payment is due.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Article, any creditor who fails in connection with any consumer-credit transaction to disclose to any person any information required under this Chapter to be disclosed to that person is liable to that person in an amount equal to the sum of:

1. twice the amount of the finance charge in connection with the transaction, except that the liability under this Section shall not be less than One Hundred Dollars nor greater than One Thousand Dollars; and

2. in the case of any successful action to enforce the foregoing liability, the costs of the action together with a reasonable attorney’s fee as determined by the court.
Art. 5069-14.19 INTEREST—CONSUMER CREDIT—CONSUMER PRO.

(b) A creditor has no liability under this Article if within fifteen days after discovering an error and prior to the institution of an action under this Article or the receipt of written notice of the error the creditor notified the person concerned of the error and makes whatever adjustments in the appropriate account are necessary to ensure that the person will not be required to pay a finance charge in excess of the amount or percentage rate actually disclosed.

(c) A creditor may not be held liable in any action brought under this Article for a violation of this Chapter if the creditor shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid any such error.

(d) Any action which may be brought under this Article against the original creditor in any credit transaction involving a security interest in real property may be maintained against any subsequent assignee of the original creditor where the assignee, its subsidiaries, or affiliates were in a continuing business relationship with the original creditor either at the time the credit was extended or at the time of the assignment unless the assignment was involuntary, or the assignee shows by a preponderance of evidence that it did not have reasonable grounds to believe that the original creditor was engaged in violations of this Chapter and that it maintained procedures reasonably adapted to apprise it of the existence of any such violation.

(e) Any action under this Article shall be brought in any court of this State having jurisdiction thereof within four years from the date of the loan or retail installment transaction or two years from the last maturity date, whichever is earlier, except, in the case of open-end credit transactions, two years from the date of the occurrence of the violation.

(f) No provision of this Article or Article 14.08, imposing any liability, shall apply to any act done or omitted in good faith in conformity with any rule, regulation, or interpretation thereof by the Commission, notwithstanding that after such act or omission has occurred, such rule, regulation, or interpretation is amended, rescinded, or determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

(g) The multiple failure to disclose to any person any information required under this Chapter to be disclosed in connection with a single account under an open-end consumer-credit plan, other single consumer-credit sale, consumer loan, or other extension of consumer credit, shall entitle the person to a single recovery under this Section, but continued failure to disclose after a recovery has been granted shall give rise to rights to additional recoveries.

(h) [Blank]
under an open-end credit plan may set forth any of the specific terms of that plan or the appropriate rate determined under Article 14.16(a)(5) unless it also clearly and conspicuously sets forth all of the following items:

1. the time period, if any, within which any credit extended may be repaid without incurring a finance charge;
2. the method of determining the balance upon which a finance charge will be imposed;
3. the method of determining the amount of the finance charge, including any minimum or fixed amount imposed as a finance charge;
4. where periodic rates may be used to compute the finance charge, the periodic rates expressed as annual percentage rates; and
5. such other or additional information for the advertising of open-end credit plans as the Commission may by regulation require to provide for adequate comparison of credit costs as between different types of open-end credit plans.

Art. 5069-14.24. Advertising of Credit other than Open-End Plans

(a) Except as provided in Section (b), this Article applies to any advertisement to aid, promote, or assist directly or indirectly any consumer-credit sale, loan, or other extension of credit subject to the provisions of this Title other than an open-end credit plan.

(b) The provisions of this Article do not apply to advertisements of residential real estate except to the extent that the Commission may by regulation require.

(c) If any advertisement to which this Article applies states the rate of a finance charge, the advertisement shall state the rate of that charge expressed as an annual percentage rate.

(d) If any advertisement to which this Article applies states the amount of the down payment, if any, the amount of any installment payment, the dollar amount of any finance charge, or the number of installments or the period of repayment, then the advertisement shall state all of the following items:

1. the cash price or the amount of the loan as applicable;
2. the down payment, if any;
3. the number, amount, and due dates or period of payments scheduled to repay the indebtedness if the credit is extended; and
4. the rate of the finance charge expressed as an annual percentage rate.

Art. 5069-14.25. Nonliability of Media

There is no liability under this Chapter on the part of any owner or personnel, as such, of any medium in which an advertisement appears or through which it is disseminated.

Any advertisement to aid, promote, or assist directly or indirectly the extension of consumer credit repayable in more than four installments shall, unless a finance charge is imposed, clearly and conspicuously state, in accordance with the regulations of the Commission: THE COST OF CREDIT IS INCLUDED IN THE PRICE QUOTED FOR THE GOODS AND SERVICES.

Art. 5069-14.27. Conflict with Other Provisions

The purpose of this Chapter is to make the Texas law relating to disclosure of credit terms and conditions consistent with the federal consumer protection law and to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency relating to such disclosure requirement between this Chapter and any other provisions of this Title, as amended, the disclosure provisions of this Chapter prevail; provided, however, nothing herein shall be construed to eliminate any prohibition, duty, or requirement imposed by other provisions of this Title which are not inconsistent or in conflict with the disclosure requirements imposed by this Chapter; provided further, nothing herein shall be construed to affect the penalties provided for in Chapters 1 and 8 and Section 17 (Article 5069-51.17, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) of this Title as they relate to prohibitions, duties, and requirements not covered by this Chapter.

Art. 5069-14.28. Use of Cash Discounts

(a) With respect to a credit card which may be used for extensions of credit in sales transactions in which the seller is a person other than the card issuer, the card issuer may not, by contract or otherwise, prohibit any such seller from offering a discount to a cardholder to induce the cardholder to pay by cash, check, or similar means rather than use a credit card.

(b) With respect to any sales transaction, any discount not in excess of 5 percent offered by the seller for the purpose of inducing payment by cash, check, or other means not involving the use of a credit card shall not constitute a finance charge as determined under Article 14.04 if such discount is offered to all prospective buyers and its availability is disclosed to all prospective buyers clearly and conspicuously in accordance with regulations of the Commission; provided, however, nothing herein shall be construed to increase any allowable charges authorized elsewhere in this Title.

CHAPTER FIFTY-ONE. PAWNSHOPS

Art. 5069-51.08. Examinations

At such times as the Commissioner may deem necessary, the Commissioner, or his duly authorized representative, may make an examination of the place of business of each licensee and may inquire into and examine the transactions, books, accounts, papers, correspondence and records of such licensee insofar as they pertain to the business regulated by this Act. Such books, accounts, papers, correspondence and records shall also be open for inspection at any reasonable time by any peace officer, without need of judicial writ or other process. In the course of an examination, the Commissioner or his duly authorized representative shall have free access to the office, place of business, files, safes, and vaults of such licensee, and shall have the right to make copies of any books, accounts, papers, correspondence and records. The Commissioner or his duly authorized representative may, during the course of such examination, administer oaths and examine any person under oath upon any subject pertinent to any matter about which the Commissioner is authorized or required by this Act to consider, investigate, or secure information. Any licensee who fails or refuses to let the Commissioner or his duly authorized representative or any peace officer examine or make copies of such books, or other relevant documents shall thereby be deemed in violation of this Act and such failure or refusal shall constitute grounds for the suspension or revocation of such license. The information obtained in the course of any examination or inspection shall be confidential and privileged, except for use in a criminal investigation or prosecution. Each licensee shall pay to the Commissioner an amount assessed by the Commissioner to cover the direct and indirect cost of such examinations and a proportionate share of general administrative expense, not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars in any calendar year, and in the event a licensee hereunder is also licensed to do business under Chapter 3 of the Texas Credit Code, Chapter 3 of Subtitle 2, Chapter 274, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, in the same place of business licensed hereunder, the aggregate charges for examinations authorized by the said Chapter 3 of the Texas Credit Code and by this Act shall not exceed Five Hundred Dollars in any calendar year.

Art. 5115. Jails Provided

The Commissioners Court shall provide safe and suitable jails for their respective counties, and shall cause the same to be maintained in good sanitary condition at all times, properly ventilated, heated and lighted; structurally sound, fire resistant and kept in good repair. Furthermore, they shall cause the jails in their respective counties to be kept in a clean and healthy condition, provided with water of safe quality and ample quantity and sewer disposal facilities in accordance with good sanitary standards, and provided with clean, comfortable mattresses and blankets, sufficient for the comfort of the prisoners, and that food is prepared and served in a palatable and sanitary manner and according to good dietary practices and of a quality to maintain good health. Such jails shall comply with the provisions of this Act and with the rules and procedures of the Commission on Jail Standards.

SUITABLE SEGREGATION

The term "safe and suitable jails," as used in this Act, shall be construed to mean jails which provide adequate segregation facilities by having separate enclosures, formed by solid masonry or solid metal walls, or solid walls of other comparable material, separating witnesses from all classifications of prisoners; and males from females; and juveniles from adults; and first offenders, awaiting trial, from all classifications of convicted prisoners; and prisoners with communicable or contagious diseases from all other classifications of prisoners. Furthermore, the term "safe and suitable" jails shall be construed to mean jails either now or hereafter constructed, except that, in lieu of maintaining its own jail, any county whose population is not large enough to justify building a new jail or remodeling its old jail shall be exempt from the provisions of this Act by contracting with the nearest available county whose jail meets the requirements set forth in this Act for the incarceration of its prisoners at a daily per capita rate equal to the cost of maintaining prisoners in said jail, or at a daily rate mutually agreed to by the contracting counties.

No person suspected of insanity, or who has been legally adjudged insane, shall be housed or held in a jail, except that such a person who demonstrates homicidal tendencies, and who must be restrained from committing acts of violence against other persons, may be held in a jail for a period of time not to exceed a total of twenty-four (24) hours, during which period he shall be kept under observation continuously. At the end of the twenty-four (24) hour period, such person shall be released or taken to a hospital or mental hospital. Furthermore, for such temporary holding of each person suspected of insanity, or who has been legally adjudged insane, there shall be provided a special enclosure or room, not less than forty (40) square feet and having a ceiling height of not less than eight (8) feet above the floor. Furthermore, the floor and the walls of such enclosure shall be provided with a soft covering designed to protect a violent person, temporarily held therein, from self-injury or destruction. One hammock, not less than two (2) feet, three (3) inches wide and six (6) feet, three (3) inches long, made of elastic or fibrous material shall be provided in each such special enclosure.

SUITABLE SECURITY AND SAFETY

For the purpose of this Act, the term "safe and suitable jails" is further defined to mean jails which provide adequate security and safety facilities by having separate cells or compartments, dormitories, and day rooms, of varying dimensions and capacities for prisoners confined therein, except that, if practicable, no one such cell or compartment shall be designed for confining two (2) prisoners only. Cells or compartments shall be designed to accommodate from one (1) to eight (8) prisoners each, and furthermore, such dormitories and day rooms shall be designed to accommodate not more than twenty-four (24) prisoners each. Furthermore, in each such jail there shall be provided individual one-man or one-woman cells to accommodate not less than thirty per cent (30%) of the total designated prisoner capacity of the jail and dormitory-type space may be provided to accommodate not more than forty per cent (40%) of the total designated prisoner capacity of the jail. All cells, compartments and dormitories for sleeping purposes, where each such cell, compartment or dormitory is designed to accommodate three (3) or more prisoners, shall be accessible to a day room to which prisoners may be given access during the day. Cells for one (1) prisoner only shall have a minimum floor area of forty (40) square feet and all other cells, compartments, dormitories and day rooms (including safety vestibule area) shall have a minimum floor area equal to eighteen (18) square feet for each prisoner to be confined therein. The ceiling height above finished floor shall be not less than eight (8) feet for any cell, compartment, dormitory or day room where prisoners are confined.

The term “safe and suitable jails,” as used in this Act, is further defined to mean that, for reasons of safety to officers and security, the entrance and/or exit to each group of enclosures forming a cell block or group of cells and/or compartments used for the confinement of three (3) or more prisoners shall be through a safety vestibule having one (1) or more interior doors in addition to the main outside entrance door to such cell block, all arranged to be locked, unlocked, opened or closed by control means located outside of any such enclosure or cell block.

SUITABLE SANITATION AND HEALTH

The term “safe and suitable jails” is further defined to mean jails which provide adequate facilities for maintaining proper standards in sanitation and health. Each cell designed for one (1) prisoner only shall be provided with a water closet and a combination lavatory and drinking fountain, table and seat. Each cell, compartment or dormitory designed for three (3) or more prisoners, shall be provided with one (1) water closet and one (1) combination lavatory and drinking fountain for each twelve (12) prisoners or fraction thereof to be confined therein. Furthermore, all such cells, compartments and dormitories shall be provided with one (1) bunk, not less in size than two (2) feet, three (3) inches wide and six (6) feet, three (3) inches long, for each prisoner to be confined therein. Furthermore, each day room for the confinement of three (3) or more prisoners shall be provided with one (1) water closet, one (1) combination lavatory and drinking fountain and one (1) shower bath for each twelve (12) prisoners or fraction thereof to be confined therein. Furthermore, each day room shall be otherwise suitably furnished.

The provision of this Act, as amended, shall become applicable to all jails upon its effective date. The standards prescribed by this Act are minimum standards only. The provisions of this Act are enforceable by the Commission on Jail Standards.

Membership—Appointment, Terms, Vacancies

Sec. 4. (a) The commission consists of nine members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. Two members shall be county sheriffs, one from a county with a population of over 200,000 persons and one from a county with a population of 200,000 or less, according to the latest United States census. One member shall be a county judge; one shall be a practitioner of medicine licensed by the State Board of Medical Examiners; the other five positions shall be filled by citizens of the state who hold no public office. The sheriffs and the county judge appointed to the commission shall perform the duties of a member of the commission in addition to their other duties.

(b) Except as provided by Subsection (c) of this section, members are appointed for a term of six years expiring on January 31 of an odd-numbered year.
Art. 5115c

(c) For terms that begin within 60 days after the effective date of this Act, the governor shall appoint:

(1) three members for terms that expire on January 31, 1981;
(2) three members for terms that expire on January 31, 1979; and
(3) three members for terms that expire on January 31, 1977.

(d) If a sheriff or county judge on the commission ceases to hold office or if a vacancy otherwise occurs in the membership of the commission, the governor shall appoint a replacement who possesses the same qualifications as the member who vacated his position, with the advice and consent of the senate, to serve the unexpired portion of the term. If a vacancy occurs at a time when the senate is not in session, the vacancy shall nevertheless be filled on an interim basis, and the interim appointee shall serve as a member of the commission until his nomination has been acted on by the senate.

Chairman; Vice-Chairman

Sec. 5. The commission shall biennially elect one of its members chairman and one vice-chairman for a term of two years beginning on February 1 of each odd-numbered year.

Meetings; Quorum; Rules

Sec. 6. (a) The commission shall hold a regular meeting each calendar quarter and may hold special meetings at the call of the chairman or on the written request of three members. The chairman, or in his absence, the vice-chairman, shall preside at all meetings of the commission.

(b) Five members constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

(c) The commission shall adopt, amend, and rescind rules for the conduct of its proceedings.

Expenses

Sec. 7. Members of the commission are not entitled to compensation but are entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in performing their official duties.

Director; Staff

Sec. 8. (a) The commission shall employ an executive director to serve at the will of the commission. The executive director is subject to the policy direction of the commission and is the chief executive officer of the commission.

(b) The executive director may employ personnel as necessary to enforce and administer this Act.

(c) The executive director and employees are entitled to compensation and expenses as provided by legislative appropriation.

Sec. 9. (a) The commission shall:

(1) promulgate reasonable rules and procedures establishing minimum standards for the construction, equipment, maintenance, and operation of county jails;
(2) promulgate reasonable rules and procedures establishing minimum standards for the custody, care, and treatment of prisoners;
(3) promulgate reasonable rules establishing minimum standards for the number of jail supervisory personnel and for programs and services to meet the needs of prisoners;
(4) promulgate reasonable rules and procedures establishing minimum requirements for programs of rehabilitation, education, and recreation in county jails;
(5) revise, amend, or change rules and procedures if necessary, in a manner not inconsistent with this Act;
(6) provide consultation and technical assistance to local government officials with respect to county jails;
(7) review and comment on plans for the construction and major modification or renovation of county jails;
(8) require that the sheriff and commissioners of each county submit to the commission, on a form prescribed by the commission, an annual report on the conditions in each county jail within their jurisdiction, including all information necessary to determine compliance with state law, commission orders, and the rules promulgated under this Act;
(9) review the reports submitted under subdivision (8) of this subsection and require its employees to inspect county jails regularly to insure compliance with state law, commission orders, and rules and procedures promulgated under this Act; and
(10) determine annually, or more often, whether each county jail is in compliance with the rules and procedures promulgated under this Act.

(b) The fact that compliance with a commission rule or procedure requires major modification or renovation of an existing jail or construction of a new jail does not render a commission rule or procedure unreasonable.

Annual Report

Sec. 10. The commission shall make a report to the governor, the lieutenant governor, and the speaker of the house of representatives, not later than January 31 of each year, covering its operations, its findings concerning county jails during the preceding year, and whatever recommendations it deems appropriate.

Enforcement of Jail Standards

Sec. 11. (a) The commission shall be granted access at any reasonable time to any county jail facility or part of any county jail facility and shall be granted access to all books, records, and data pertaining to any county jail which the commission or the executive director deems necessary for the administration of the commission’s functions, powers, and duties. The commissioners and sheriff of each county shall furnish the commission or any of its members, or the executive director or any employee designated by the executive director, any information which he states is necessary to enable the commission to discharge its functions, powers, and duties, to determine whether its rules are being observed or whether its orders are being obeyed and otherwise to implement the purposes of this Act. In the exercise of its function, powers, and duties, the commission may issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, records, and documents, administer oaths, and take testimony concerning all matters within its jurisdiction. The commission is not bound by strict rules of evidence or procedure in the conduct of its proceedings, but its determinations shall be founded on sufficient legal evidence to sustain them. The commission may delegate to the executive director the authority conferred by this subsection.

(b) When the commission finds that a county jail is not in compliance with state law, or the rules and procedures of the commission, or fails to meet the minimum standards prescribed by the commission or by state law, it shall report the noncompliance to the commissioners and sheriff of the county responsible for the jail that is not in compliance. The commission shall send a copy of the report to the governor.

c) The commission shall grant the county or sheriff a reasonable time, not to exceed one year after a report of noncompliance, to comply with its rules and procedures and with state law. On application of the sheriff or commissioners of a county, if clearly justified by the facts and circumstances, the commission may grant reasonable variances for operation of county jails not in strict compliance with state law, except that no variance may be granted to permit unhealthy, unsanitary, or unsafe conditions.

d) If the commissioners or sheriff does not comply within the time granted by the commission, the commission may, by order, prohibit the confinement of prisoners in the noncomplying jail and designate another detention facility for their confinement. If a prohibition and transfer order is issued, the sheriff of the county in which the noncomplying jail is situated shall immediately transfer all prisoners to the detention facility specified by the commission.

(e) The county responsible for a nonconforming jail shall bear the cost of transportation and maintenance of prisoners transferred from a noncomplying jail by order of the commission. The costs of transportation and maintenance shall be determined by the commission and shall be paid into the treasury of the entity operating the detention facility to which the prisoners are transferred.

(f) The commission, in lieu of closing a county jail, may institute an action in its own name to enforce, or enjoin the violation of, its orders, rules, or procedures, or of Article 5115, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. The commission shall be represented by the attorney general. An action brought pursuant to this subsection is in addition to any other action, proceeding, or remedy provided by law, and may be brought in a district court of Travis County. A suit brought under this subsection shall be given preferential setting and shall be tried by the court, without a jury. The court shall issue an injunction ordering compliance if it finds:

(1) that the county jail is being operated in such a manner that it does not comply with the rules and procedures promulgated by the commission or with state law; and

(2) that the commissioners or sheriff has been given a reasonable time to comply with the rules and procedures and has failed to do so.

Judicial Review

Sec. 12. (a) A county may appeal a commission order issued under Subsection (d), Section 11, of this Act by filing a petition in a district court of Travis County.

(b) The petition must be filed within 30 days after the date of the commission’s order.

(c) Service of citation on the commission must be accomplished within 30 days after the date the petition is filed. Citation may be served on the executive director.

(d) In an action brought under this section, the court is confined to the record developed by the commission, and the only issues before the court are:

(1) whether the order of the commission is based on substantial evidence; and

(2) whether the order is arbitrary, capricious, or illegal.

Regulations

Sec. 13. (a) The commission shall promulgate the regulations required by Section 9 of this Act on or before January 1, 1977.

(b) On or before March 1, 1977, the commission shall mail a copy of the regulations promulgated pursuant to Section 9 of this Act to each county sheriff in this state. The chairman shall certify to the governor that the commission has complied with the requirements established by this section.

Qualifications of Jail Personnel

Sec. 14. (a) The Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education shall establish minimum physical, mental, educational, and moral standards for persons employed or utilized in the operation of county jails.

(b) The authority and power of the Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education is extended to cover all county jail personnel. The staff of the Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education shall be enlarged sufficiently to discharge the additional responsibilities imposed by this section. Counties shall have a period of one year following establishment of standards for county jail personnel within which to have all jail personnel certified by the Commission on Law Enforcement Officers Standards and Education.

Art. 5115c. Intercounty Cooperation Regarding Furnishing and Operating Jail Facilities

Sec. 1. Two or more counties, acting through their commissioners courts, may contract with one another for the joint operation of a jail to serve the contracting counties. The contract may provide for the construction or acquisition of a facility for this purpose or for the use of an existing facility. The joint facility is not required to be located at the county seat of one of the contracting counties.

Sec. 2. A county that is party to a contract under this Act may use any method of financing its share of the capital expenditures under the contract for acquisition, construction, enlargement, or improvement of the joint facility, including necessary acquisition of land, as would be available to it if the county operated its own jail, including the issuance as provided by law of general obligation bonds or other evidences of indebtedness.

Sec. 3. (a) The administration of a jail operated under this Act is the responsibility of the sheriff of the county where the jail is located unless he declines that responsibility by filing a written statement to that effect with the commissioners court of that county. If the sheriff so declines, the commissioners courts of the contracting counties by joint action shall appoint a jail administrator for the jail.

(b) The sheriff or jail administrator responsible for the administration of the jail has all the powers, duties, and responsibilities with regard to the keeping of prisoners and operation of the jail that are conferred by law on a sheriff in a county that operates its own jail.

(c) Action by a sheriff declining the responsibility for the administration of a jail operated under this Act does not take effect until a jail administrator has been appointed and has assumed his duties. If there is a vacancy in the position of jail administrator, the sheriff of the county where the jail is located is responsible for the administration of the jail until a new jail administrator is appointed and assumes the position.

A child support office may serve more than one county. The child support office shall receive the payments and shall disburse the funds in the manner the court determines to be for the best interest of the parties involved in each case.

(b) The judges of the District Courts and Domestic Relations Courts may appoint an administrator and such assistants as in their judgment may be necessary for a term of two years. The judges of the District Courts and Domestic Relations Courts shall determine the duties to be assigned the administrator and his assistants and the salaries of the personnel of the child support office to be paid in equal monthly installments out of the general fund of the county, the child support fund, or other available fund. All claims for expenses of the administrator and his assistants and administrative expenses for operation of the child support office, including all necessary equipment and supplies, shall, before payment, be approved by the judges.

(c) If a child support office serves more than one county, the judges of the District Courts and the Domestic Relations Courts in those counties shall determine the location of the child support office. The powers and duties of the county officials and employees prescribed in this section shall be performed by the officials and employees of the county in which the child support office is located. The counties served by the child support office shall pay the salaries of the personnel, premiums for a bond, and other expenses in accordance with the proportion that the population of each county bears to the total population of all counties served by that office.

(d) Each administrator of a child support office shall make a surety bond in a solvent surety company authorized to make such bonds in Texas, conditioned on the faithful performance of the duties of his position and further conditioned on his properly accounting for the money entrusted to him. The county shall pay the premiums for the bond out of the general fund, the child support fund, or other available fund.

(f) A service fee for receiving and disbursing payments, not to exceed $1 per month, shall be assessed each payor or payee of child support who is ordered by a court to pay support to a child support office. However, if the payor is a member of the armed services and the monthly payments for child support exceed the amount ordered by the court, the recipient (payee) of the support payments shall be the person responsible for paying the service fee into the child support office. The service fee applies to all payments ordered paid to a child support office after the effective date of this amendment and to all other such payments, even though ordered prior to the effective date of this amendment, when the person ordered to make such payments has defaulted and has been cited for contempt of court. The service fee shall be collected by the child support office from the payor annually in advance and shall be paid to the county treasurer on the last day of each calendar month, to be kept in a separate account to be known as the “Child Support Fund.” This fund shall be administered by the judges of the District Courts and Domestic Relations Courts, subject to the approval of the Commissioners Court, for the purpose of assisting in the payment of the salaries and operating expenses of the child support office. The first service fee shall be due on the date the payor of support payments has been ordered by the court to commence payments for child support and thereafter on each succeeding annual anniversa-

In those instances where the payee is charged with the responsibility of making the service fee payments, the first payment shall be due on the date of receipt of the initial support payment and annually thereafter on the anniversary of the date of the receipt of the first support allotment check so long as the payor is a member of the armed services and so long as support allotment payments exceed the amount of support ordered by the court. Failure or refusal of a person to pay the service fee on time and in the amount ordered by the court shall make that person susceptible to an action of contempt of court. A record shall be kept of all service fees collected and expended. The Child Support Fund is subject to regular audit by the County Auditor or other duly authorized person. Annual reports of receipts and expenditures in this account shall be made to the Commissioners Court.

Bonds Payable Only from Revenues

Sec. 4. Bonds issued under the provisions of this Act shall not be deemed to constitute a debt of the state, the issuer, or of any other political subdivision or agency of this state or a pledge of the faith and credit of any of them, but such bonds shall be payable solely from the funds herein provided therefor from revenues. There shall be printed in each bond a statement to the effect that neither the issuer nor any political subdivision or agency of the state shall be obligated to pay the same or the interest thereon except from revenues of the particular project for which the bonds are issued, and that neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the state, the issuer, or any political subdivision or agency thereof is pledged to the payment of the principal of or the interest on such bonds. The issuer shall not be authorized to incur financial obligations which cannot be paid from revenues realized from the lease of a project.

Approval of Project; Rules and Regulations; Appeals

Sec. 5. No issuer shall institute proceedings to authorize bonds under the provisions of Section 6 of this Act until the commission has given final approval of the project by the approval of (1) financial responsibility of the ultimate lessee and (2) the contents of any lease agreement, and the securities shall not be offered for sale until the issuer has complied with the requirements of The Securities Act (Article 581–1 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

The commission shall prescribe rules and regulations setting forth minimum standards for lease agreements and guidelines with respect to financial responsibilities of the lessee and ultimate lessee, if any, but in no event shall the commission give final approval to any project unless it affirmatively finds the lessee and ultimate lessee have the business experience, financial resources, and responsibility to provide reasonable assurance that all bonds and interest thereon to be paid from or by reason of such agreement will be paid as the same become due.

Appeal from any adverse ruling or decision of the commission under this section may be made by an issuer to the district court of Travis County. The substantial evidence rule shall apply.
Rules, regulations, and guidelines promulgated by the commission and amendments thereto shall be effective only after they have been filed with the secretary of state.

Resolution of Intention to Issue Bonds; Notice; Protest; Election; Issuance and Delivery

Sec. 6. (a) Before issuing any bonds hereunder the governing body shall adopt a resolution declaring its intention to do so, stating the amount of bonds proposed to be issued, the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued, and the tentative date upon which the governing body proposes to authorize this issuance of such bonds. Notice of such intention shall be published once a week for at least two consecutive weeks in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the territorial limits of the issuer. The first publication shall be made not less than 14 days prior to the tentative date fixed in such resolution for the authorization of the bonds. In cities and counties with a population of 500,000 or more people, according to the last federal census, notice of such intention shall be published once a week for at least three consecutive weeks in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the territorial limits of the issuer, and the first publication shall be made 45 days prior to the tentative date fixed in such resolution for the authorization of the bonds. If 5 percent or 20,000 of the qualified electors of the issuer, whichever is less, shall file a written protest against the issuance of such bonds on or before the tentative date specified for the authorization of such bonds, then an election on the question of the issuance of such bonds shall be called and held as herein provided.

If no such protest is filed, then such bonds may be issued without an election at any time within a period of two years after the tentative date specified in the resolution; provided, however, the governing body of such issuer, in its discretion, may call an election on such question, in which event it shall not be necessary to publish the notice of its intention to issue bonds.

(b) Where an election is called, notice thereof shall be published once a week for at least two consecutive weeks in at least one newspaper of general circulation within the territorial limits of the issuer. The first publication of such notice shall be made not less than 14 days prior to the date fixed for such election. The election shall be conducted in accordance with the general laws of Texas pertaining to general elections, except as modified by the provisions of this Act. The order calling the election shall specify the date, place or places of holding the election, and the presiding judge and alternate judge for each voting place and shall provide for clerks as provided in the Texas Election Code. Only qualified electors of the issuer shall be permitted to vote at such election.

The form of ballot shall be in conformity with Sections 61, 62, and 63, Texas Election Code, as amended (Articles 6.05, 6.06, and 6.07, Vernon's Texas Election Code), so that ballots provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The issuance of revenue bonds for the project." The ballots shall also state the amount of bonds to be voted on by the qualified electors and to be issued by the issuer.

Within 10 days after such election is held or as soon thereafter as possible, the governing body of the issuer shall convene and canvass the returns of the election, and in the event such election results are favorable (majority vote) to the proposition, such governing body shall so find and declare and shall be authorized to proceed with the authorization of bonds.

(c) A series of bonds may be issued for each project and any of such projects may be combined in a single series of bonds if the governing body, in the exercise of its discretion, deems the same to be in the best interest of the issuer, but each project shall be considered separately with respect to the provisions of Section 5 and Subsections (a) and (b) of this section.

(d) Bonds shall be issued and delivered within three years of the approval of the commission or within three years of the final judgment in any litigation affecting the validity of the bonds or the provision made for their payment, whichever date is later. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the commission from conditioning its approval of the project upon the completion of the financing thereof within a lesser period of time.

Revenue Bonds

Sec. 7. Each issuer is hereby authorized to provide by order or ordinance, from time to time, for the issuance of revenue bonds for the purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of acquiring, constructing, enlarging, or improving a project. The principal of and the interest on such bonds shall be payable solely from the funds provided for such payment and from the revenues of the particular project for which such bonds were authorized. No money raised or to be raised from sources other than from the lease of a project shall be used to pay the principal of or interest on any revenue or refunding bonds or interim notes issued under this Act. The bonds of each issue shall be dated, shall bear interest at such rate or rates, shall mature at such time or times not exceeding 40 years from their date as may be determined by the issuer, and may be made redeemable before maturity at the option of the issuer at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the issuer prior to the issuance of the bonds.

The issuer shall determine the form of the bonds, including any interest coupons to be attached there-
Art. 5190.5  LABOR

Any such trust agreement may pledge or assign lease revenues to be received from a lessee or ultimate lessee.

The trust agreement may evidence a pledge of the lease income to be received for the use of any project for the payment of principal of and interest on such bonds as the same shall become due and payable and may provide to create and maintain reserves for such purposes. Any such trust agreement or order or ordinance providing for the issuance of such bonds may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper.

Revenue Refunding Bonds

Sec. 8. An issuer is hereby authorized to provide by order or ordinance for the issuance of its revenue refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding any bonds then outstanding, issued on account of a project, which shall have been issued under the provisions of this Act, including the payment of any redemption premium thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of such bonds and, if deemed advisable by the issuer, for the additional purpose of constructing improvements, extensions, or enlargements to the project in connection with which the bonds to be refunded shall have been issued. The issuance of such bonds, the maturities and other details thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the rights, duties, and obligations of the issuer in respect of the same shall be governed by the provisions of this Act insofar as the same may be applicable. Within the discretion of the issuer the refunding bonds may be issued in exchange for outstanding bonds or may be sold and the proceeds used for the purpose of redeeming outstanding bonds.

Trust Agreement

Sec. 9. Any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the issuer and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within the state. Any such trust agreement may pledge or assign lease revenues to be received from a lessee or ultimate lessee.

The trust agreement may evidence a pledge of the lease income to be received for the use of any project for the payment of principal of and interest on such bonds as the same shall become due and payable and may provide to create and maintain reserves for such purposes. Any such trust agreement or order or ordinance providing for the issuance of such bonds may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper.

It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the state which may act as depository of the proceeds of bonds or of revenues to furnish such indemnifying bonds or to pledge such securities as may be required by the issuer. Any such trust agreement may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and of the trustee and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders as is customary in trust agreements or trust indentures securing bonds and debentures of corporations. In addition to the foregoing, any such trust agreement may contain such provisions as the issuer may deem reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of any such trust agreement may be treated as a part of the cost of the operation of the project.

Default; Option to Purchase

Sec. 10. Any agreement between a lessee and ultimate lessee relating to any project shall be for the benefit of the issuer, as shall any agreement between the issuer and the lessee. Any such agreement shall contain a provision that in the event of a default in the payment of the principal of or the interest on such bonds or in the performance of any agreement contained in such proceedings, mortgage, or instrument, such payment and performance may be enforced by mandamus or by the appointment of a receiver in equity with power to charge and collect rents and to apply the revenues from the project in accordance with such resolution, mortgage, or instrument.

Any mortgage to secure bonds issued thereunder may also provide that in the event of a default in the payment thereof or the violation of any agreement contained in the mortgage, the mortgage may be foreclosed and sold under proceedings in equity or in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law. Such mortgage may also provide that any trustee under such mortgage or the holder of any of the bonds secured thereby may become the purchaser at any foreclosure sale if the highest bidder therefor.

An issuer may grant a lessee or ultimate lessee an option to purchase all or any part of a project when all bonds of the issuer delivered to provide such facilities have been paid or provision has been made for their final payment, provided during the time the bonds or interest thereon remains unpaid there is no failure to pay the lease rentals at the time and in the manner as the same become due, provided a payment shall be deemed paid when and as due if no event of default is declared and the payment is made within 15 calendar days after the date it was scheduled to become due. The provisions of this law are procedurally exclusive for authority to convey or grant an option to purchase, and reference to no other law shall be required.

Authority of Governing Body

Sec. 11. Except as limited by the provisions of this law or as limited by the rules, regulations, and guidelines of the commission, each governing body shall have full and complete authority with respect to bonds, lease agreements, and the provisions thereof.

No bonds shall be approved by the attorney general until the commission has given approval as required by Section 5 of this Act, nor shall such bonds be approved if any authorizing proceedings or provisions for security and payment of lease payments are not in conformity with this law.

Public Function; Bonds Tax Free; Security

Sec. 14. In carrying out the purposes of this Act, the issuer will be performing an essential public function, and any bonds issued by it and their transfer and the issuance therefor shall at all times be free from taxation by the state or any municipality or political subdivision thereof. The leasehold interest in the ultimate lessee shall be subject to ad valorem taxes.
Bonds issued under the provisions of this Act and coupons (if any) representing interest thereon shall when delivered be deemed and construed to be a "security" within the meaning of Chapter 8, Investment Securities, of the Business & Commerce Code.

Severability

Sec. 19. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to violate any provision of the federal or state constitution, and all acts done under this Act shall be in such manner as will conform thereto, whether expressly provided or not. Where any procedure hereunder may be held by any court to be violative of either of such constitutions, the issuer shall have the power by resolution to provide an alternative procedure conformable with such constitutions. If any provisions of this Act should be invalid, such fact shall not affect the validity of any other provisions of this Act, and the legislature hereby declares that it would have enacted the valid provisions of this Act notwithstanding the invalidity of any other provision or provisions hereof.

any individual on the effective date of a valid claim shall remain the maximum benefit amount payable to that individual until that individual establishes a new benefit year.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (c) and (d)]

(e) Benefit Wage Credits: “Benefit wage credits” means those wages as defined in this subsection of the Act, which are used in determining an individual’s right to benefits. “Wages” as used in this Section shall be as defined in subsection (n) of Section 19 of this Act, except that the six-thousand-dollar limitation on wages as set out in subsection (n)(1) of Section 19 shall not be applicable for the purposes of this Section 3; provided that, for the purposes of this Section 3, wages received by an individual in any calendar year shall include all remuneration from each employer for employment up to the maximum amount of wages as defined in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (Section 3121, Chapter 21, Subtitle C, Internal Revenue Code of 1954), as amended, or as it may hereafter be amended; and provided further, that wages which have been used to qualify an individual for regular benefits under this Act or under any other unemployment compensation law shall not be used again to qualify such individual for regular benefits.

If an employer fails to report wages which were paid to a claimant during a base period when requested by the Commission, the Commission may establish wage credits for such claimant for such base period on the basis of the best information which has been obtained by the Commission.

(f) Equal Treatment: Benefits based on services for all employers in employment defined in subsection 19(f) shall be payable in the same amount, on the same terms, and subject to the same conditions; except that:

(1) with respect to services in an instructional, research, or principal administrative capacity for an educational institution, benefits shall not be payable based on those services for any week commencing during the period between two (2) successive academic years or terms (or, when an agreement provides instead for a similar period between two (2) regular but not successive terms, during that period) to any individual if the individual performs those services in the first of the academic years (or terms) and if there is a contract or reasonable assurance that the individual will perform services in that capacity for any educational institution in the second of the academic years (or terms);

(2) with respect to services in any other capacity for an educational institution (other than an institution of higher education), benefits shall not be payable on the basis of those services to any individual for any week which commences during a period between two (2) successive academic years or terms if the individual performs those services in the first of the academic years or terms and there is a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform those services in the second of the academic years or terms; and

(3) with respect to any services described in Paragraphs (1) and (2), benefits shall be denied to any individual for any week which commences during an established and customary vacation period or holiday recess if such individual performs such services in the period immediately before such vacation period or holiday recess and there is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform such services in the period immediately following such vacation period or holiday recess.

(g) Athletes: Benefits shall not be payable to any individual on the basis of any services, substantially all of which consist of participating in sports or athletic events or training or preparing to so participate, for any week which commences during the period between two (2) successive sport seasons (or similar periods) if the individual performed those services in the first of the seasons (or similar periods) and there is a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform those services in the later of the seasons (or similar periods).

(h) Aliens: Benefits shall not be payable on the basis of services performed by an alien unless the alien is an individual who was lawfully admitted for permanent residence at the time such services were performed, was lawfully present for purposes of performing such services, or was permanently residing in the United States under color of law at the time such services were performed (including an alien who was lawfully present in the United States as a result of the application of the provisions of Section 209(a)(7) or Section 212(d)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act), provided that:

(1) any data or information required of individuals applying for benefits to determine whether or not benefits are payable to them because of their alien status shall be uniformly required from all applicants for benefits; and

(2) in the case of an individual whose application for benefits would otherwise be approved, no determination that benefits are not payable to that individual because of his alien status may be made except on a preponderance of the evidence.

Provided that any modifications to the provisions of Section 3304(a)(14) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act as provided by Public Law 94-566 which specify other conditions or other effective date for the denial of benefits based on services performed by aliens and which modifications are required to be implemented under state law as a condition for full tax credit against the tax imposed by the Federal Unemployment Tax Act shall be considered applicable under the provisions of this Section.

(i) Previously Uncovered Services: With respect to weeks of unemployment beginning after December 31, 1977, benefit wage credits shall include wages for previously uncovered services, provided that benefit payments based on those services are reimbursable from the federal government in accordance with provisions of Public Law 94–566 and provided that no employer's account shall be charged with payments based on those benefit wage credits either as chargebacks or reimbursements. For the purpose of this subsection, the term "previously uncovered services" means services which were not employment and which were not services for an employer under any provision of this Act at any time during the one-year period ending December 31, 1975, and which constitute employment and services for an employer after December 31, 1977, in accordance with the provisions of Section 19 of this Act as services in agricultural labor, domestic services, services for a governmental employer, or services for a nonprofit educational institution which is not an institution of higher education, except to the extent that assistance under Title II of the federal Emergency Jobs and Unemployment Assistance Act of 1974 was paid on the basis of those services. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 897, ch. 334, § 9, eff. June 6, 1975; Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 981, ch. 368, §§ 1, 2, eff. Jan. 1, 1978.]

Art. 5221b–2. Benefit Eligibility Conditions
An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any benefit period only if the Commission finds that:

(a) He has registered for work at, and thereafter has continued to report at, an employment office in accordance with such regulations as the Commission may prescribe;

(b) He has made a claim for benefits in accordance with the provisions of Subsection 6(a) of this Act; 1

(c) He is able to work;

(d) He is available for work;

(e) He has within his base period received benefit wage credits for employment by employers of not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500) and has total benefit wage credits in his base period of not less than one and one-half (1½) times his high quarter benefit wage credits in his base period, or within at least one quarter of his base period received wages for employment by employers equal to two-thirds (2/3) of the maximum amount of wages as defined in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (Section 3121, Chapter 21, Subtitle C, Internal Revenue Code), 2 as amended, or as it may hereafter be amended, provided that any claimant who has had a prior benefit year must have earned wages of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250) or more subsequent to the beginning date of the prior benefit year.

(f) Prior to the first payment of benefits following an initial claim he has been totally or partially unemployed for a waiting period of seven (7) consecutive days. No week shall be counted as a waiting period week for the purposes of this Subsection:

1) Unless he has registered for work at an employment office in accordance with Subsection (a) of this Section;

2) Unless it is a week following the filing of an initial claim;

3) Unless he reports at an office of the Commission and certifies that he has met the waiting period requirements herein prescribed for the preceding seven (7) days;

4) If benefits have been paid or are payable with respect thereto;

5) If the individual does not meet the eligibility conditions of Subsections (c) and (d) of this Section 4;

6) If the individual has been disqualified for benefits for such seven (7) day period under the provisions of Subsections (a), (b), (c), or (d) of Section 5 of this Act; 3

7) Provided, notwithstanding any other provision of this Subsection (f), when an individual has been paid benefits in his current benefit year equal to three times his weekly benefit amount, he shall be eligible to receive benefits on his waiting period claim in accordance with the terms of the Act. [Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 984, ch. 368, § 3, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 5221b-2a. Prohibitions Against Denial of Benefits

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (a) and (b)]

(c) Benefits shall not be denied to an individual solely on the basis of pregnancy or termination of pregnancy.

Art. 5221b-3. Disqualification for Benefits

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

(a) If the Commission finds that he has left his last work voluntarily without good cause connected with his work. Such disqualification shall be for not less than one (1) nor more than twenty-five (25) benefit periods following the filing of a valid claim, as determined by the Commission according to the circumstances in each case.

(b) If the Commission finds he has been discharged for misconduct connected with his last work. Such disqualification shall be for not less than one (1) nor more than twenty-six (26) benefit periods following the filing of a valid claim, as determined by the Commission according to the seriousness of the misconduct.

(c) If the Commission finds that during his current benefit year he has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work when so directed by the Commission or to accept suitable work when offered him, or to return to his customary self-employment (if any) when so directed by the Commission. Such disqualification shall be for not less than one (1) nor more than thirteen (13) benefit periods following the failure, as described above to apply for or accept suitable work, the degree of disqualification to be determined by the Commission according to the circumstances in each case.

(1) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the Commission shall consider the degree of risk involved to his health, safety and morals at the place of performance of his work, his physical fitness and prior training, his experience and prior earnings, his length of unemployment and prospects for securing local work in his customary occupation, and the distance of the available work from his residence.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, no work shall be deemed suitable and benefits shall not be denied under this Act to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions: (a) If the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute; (b) If the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality; (c) If as a condition of being employed the individual would be required to join a company union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization.

(d) For any benefit period with respect to which the Commission finds that his total or partial unemployment is (i) due to the claimant's stoppage of work because of a labor dispute at the factory, establishment, or other premises (including a vessel) at which he is or was last employed, or (ii) because of a labor dispute at another place, either within or without this State, which is owned or operated by the same employing unit which owns or operates the premises at which he is or was last employed, and supplies materials or services necessary to the continued and usual operation of the premises at which he is or was last employed; provided that this subsection shall not apply if it is shown to the satisfaction of the Commission that:

(1) He is not participating in or financing or directly interested in the labor dispute; provided, however, that failure or refusal to cross a picket line or refusal for any reason during the continuance of such labor dispute to accept and perform his available and customary work at the factory, establishment, or other premises (including a vessel) where he is or was last employed shall be considered as participation and interest in the labor dispute; and

(2) He does not belong to a grade or class of workers of which, immediately before the commencement of the labor dispute, there were members employed at the premises (including a vessel) at which the labor dispute occurs, any of whom are participating in or financing or directly interested in the dispute; provided, that if in any case separate branches of work which are commonly conducted as separate businesses in separate premises are conducted in separate departments of the same premises, each such department shall, for the purposes of this subsection, be deemed to be a separate factory, establishment, or other premises; and where a disqualification arises from the employee's failure to meet the requirements of this paragraph (2) of this subsection (d) his disqualification shall cease if he shall show that he is not, and at the time of the labor dispute was not, a member of a labor organization which is the same as, represented by, or directly affiliated with, or that he, or such organization of which he is a member, if any, is not acting in concert or in sympathy with a labor organization involved in the labor dispute at the premises at which the labor dispute occurred, and he has made an unconditional offer to return to work at the premises at which he is or was last employed.

(e) For any benefit period with respect to which he is receiving or has received remuneration in the form of:

(1) Wages in lieu of notice;

(2) Compensation for temporary partial disability, temporary total disability or total and permanent disability under the Workmen's Compensation Law of any State or under a similar law of the United States;

(3) Old Age Benefits under Title II of the Social Security Act as amended, or similar payments under any Act of Congress, or a State Legislature; provided, that if such remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under this Act, he shall be entitled to receive for such benefit period, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of such remuneration. If any such benefits, payable under this subsection, after being reduced by the amount of such remuneration, are not an even multiple of One Dollar ($1), they shall be adjusted to the next higher multiple of One Dollar ($1).

(f) In determining the number of benefit periods during which any individual is entitled to receive benefits in a benefit year, the Commission shall deduct any period of disqualification as provided in subsections (a), (b), and (c) of this Section from the total number of benefit periods during which he would otherwise be entitled to receive benefits except for such disqualification; provided, that in no case shall the number of benefit periods so deducted exceed the number of benefit periods during which the claimant is then eligible to receive benefits except for such disqualification; and provided further, that in no event shall a disqualification imposed under subsection (a) or (c) of this Section result in a total reduction of the claimant's benefit rights in his benefit year.

(g) For the duration of any period of unemployment with respect to which the Commission finds that such individual has left his most recent work for the purpose of attending an established educational institution; provided, that this subsection shall not apply during a period in which an individual is in training with the approval of the Commission.

(h) For weeks of unemployment beginning after March 31, 1980, for any benefit period with respect to which the individual is receiving a governmental or other pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity, or any other similar periodic payment which is based on the previous work of the individual and which is reasonably attributable to that benefit period; provided that if the remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under this Act, the individual shall be entitled to receive for that benefit period, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of the remuneration. If those benefits payable under this subsection, after being reduced by the amount of the remuneration, are not an even multiple of One Dollar ($1), they shall be adjusted to the next higher multiple of One Dollar ($1).

The Legislature declares that the preceding paragraph is enacted because Section 3304(a)(15) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act as provided in Public Law 94–566 requires this provision in State law as of January 1, 1978, as a condition for full tax credit against the tax imposed by the Federal Unemployment Tax Act; and it further declares that if Section 3304(a)(15) is amended to provide modifications of these requirements, the modified requirements, to the extent that they are required for full tax credit, shall be considered applicable under the provisions of this Section rather than the provisions stated in the preceding paragraph.

Art. 5221b–4. Claims for Benefits

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (a)]

(b) An unemployed individual who has no current benefit year may file an initial claim in accordance with rules or regulations prescribed by the Commission. The claimant shall constitute notice of the filing of such initial claim to the individual or organization for which the claimant last worked prior to the effective date of the initial claim. If the individual or organization has more than one branch or division operating at different locations, notice of the filing of such initial claim shall be mailed to the branch or division where claimant last worked. Mailing of notice of the initial claim to the correct address of the individual or organization or the branch or division where claimant last worked shall constitute due notice to such individual or organization. If the individual or organization to which such notice is mailed to his or its last known address as reflected by Commission records.

Notwithstanding any provision in this Act under which benefits may be paid or denied, benefits shall be paid promptly in accordance with a determination or redetermination of an examiner, a decision of an appeal tribunal, the Commission, or a reviewing court, on the issuance of that determination, redetermination or decision (regardless of the pendency of the period to apply for reconsideration, file an appeal, or petition for judicial review, or the pendency of that application, filing, or petition), unless and until that determination, redetermination, or decision has been modified or reversed by a subsequent redetermination or decision, in which event benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the modifying or reversing redetermination or decision. If a determination or decision is finally modified or reversed to deny benefits, no chargeback shall be made to the employer’s account by reason of payments made to the claimant for any benefit period with respect to which he is finally denied benefits, and any benefits paid to the claimant which were not in accordance with the final decision shall be refunded by the claimant to the Commission or in the discretion of the Commission shall be deducted from future benefits payable to him under this Act.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (c) to (e)]

(f) Procedure: The manner in which disputed claims shall be presented, the reports thereon required from the claimant and from employers, or other individuals or organizations, and the conduct of hearings and appeals shall be in accordance with rules or regulations prescribed by the Commission for determining the rights of the parties. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings in connection with a disputed claim and all testimony at any hearing upon a disputed claim shall be recorded.

Art. 5221b-4a. Extended Benefits

(a) Definitions: As used in this Section, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:
(2) There is a national "on" indicator for a week if, for the period consisting of that week and the immediately preceding twelve (12) weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states equaled or exceeded four and five-tenths percent (4.5%). The rate of insured unemployment, for the purposes of this subsection, shall be determined by the Secretary of Labor by reference to the average monthly covered employment for the first four (4) of the most recent six (6) calendar quarters ending before the close of that period.

(3) There is a national "off" indicator for a week if, for the period consisting of that week and the immediately preceding twelve (12) weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states was less than four and five-tenths percent (4.5%). The rate of insured unemployment, for the purposes of this subsection, shall be determined by the Secretary of Labor by reference to the average monthly covered employment for the first four (4) of the most recent six (6) calendar quarters ending before the close of that period.

(5) There is a State "off" indicator for this State for a week if the Commission determines, in accordance with the regulations of the United States Secretary of Labor, that, for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding twelve (12) weeks, either paragraph (A) or (B) of subdivision (4) is not satisfied. Provided that with respect to benefits for weeks of unemployment beginning after December 31, 1977, the determination of whether there has been a State "on" or "off" indicator beginning or ending any extended benefit period shall be made under this section as if subdivision (4) did not contain paragraph (A) thereof, and as if the figure "four" (4) contained in paragraph (B) thereof were "five" (5); except that, notwithstanding any other provision of this Section, any week for which there would otherwise be a State "on" indicator shall continue to be such a week and shall not be determined to be a week for which there is a State "off" indicator.

(10) "Exhaustee" means an individual who, with respect to any benefit period of unemployment in his eligibility period:

(A) has received, prior to such benefit period, all of the regular benefits that were available to him under this Act or any other state law (including dependents' allowances and benefits payable to federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen under 5 U.S.C. Chapter 85) in his current benefit year that includes such benefit period;

Provided, that, for the purposes of this subparagraph, an individual shall be deemed to have received all of the regular benefits that were available to him although, as a result of a pending appeal with respect to wage credits that were not considered in the original monetary determination in his benefit year, he may subsequently be determined to be entitled to added regular benefits, or

(B) had a benefit year that expired prior to such benefit period and has no, or insufficient, wage credits on the basis of which he could establish a new benefit year that would include such benefit period; and

(C)(i) has no right to unemployment benefits or allowances, as the case may be, under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act, the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, the Automotive Products Trade Act of 1965, or such other federal laws as are specified in regulations issued by the United States Secretary of Labor, and

(ii) has not received and is not seeking unemployment benefits under the unemployment compensation law of Canada; but if he is seeking such benefits and the appropriate agency finally determines that he is not entitled to benefits under such law, he is considered an exhaustee.

(g) Financing:

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Act, with respect to weeks of unemployment beginning after December 31, 1978, extended benefit payments based on benefit wage credits earned from a state, or any political subdivision thereof, or any instrumentality of any one (1) or more of the foregoing which is wholly owned by one (1) or more states or political subdivisions shall be charged to the employer at the rate of one hundred per cent (100%) rather than at the rate of fifty per cent (50%) as provided for other employers under this Act, and any such employer which is a taxed employer may receive notice that its maximum potential charge-back may be increased by as much as fifty per cent (50%) rather than twenty-five per cent (25%) as provided for other employers.

Sections 2 and 3 of Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1, ch. 1, provided:

"Sec. 2. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith, insofar as they do conflict herewith, are hereby repealed, but such repeal shall in no way be construed as forfeiting or waiving any rights of the State of Texas or of the Texas Employment Commission which have accrued thereunder."

(c) Experience rating:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (c)(1) and (2)(A)]

(2)(B) To each employer to whom notice of an initial claim has not already been mailed under subsection 6(b) of this Act,2 and whose account is potentially chargeable with benefits as the result of such initial claim and payment of benefits, a notice of his maximum potential chargebacks shall be mailed when benefits are first paid and an opportunity afforded for protest of his potential chargebacks. If any such employer desires to protest his potential chargebacks, he shall, within twelve (12) days after such notice was mailed to him, mail his protest, including a statement of the facts upon which his protest is based, to the Commission at Austin, Texas. Any employer who does not protest his potential chargebacks within twelve (12) days after notice was mailed to him shall be deemed to have waived his right to protest such chargebacks. If a timely protest is filed, the examiner shall promptly decide the issues involved in such protest and shall mail a notice of his decision thereon to the protesting employer. Such decision shall become final twelve (12) days from the date of mailing thereof, unless such employer mails to the Commission at Austin, Texas, a written appeal therefrom within such twelve (12) days. Administrative review hereunder shall be in accordance with Commission rules or regulations, and appeals to the Courts shall be permitted only after such employer has exhausted his administrative remedies (not including a motion for rehearing) before the Commission, and within the time prescribed by subsection 6(h) and subsection 6(i) of this Act3 with respect to Commission decisions on benefits. Venue and jurisdiction of appeals to the Courts with respect to chargebacks shall be the same as venue and jurisdiction of suits to collect contributions and penalties under this Act.

If notice of the claim has been sent previously to the employer under the provisions of Section 6 of this Act,4 the employer shall be mailed a notice of the amount of his potential chargeback resulting from the claim, and may, within twelve (12) days from the date such notice was mailed, protest any clerical or machine error as to amounts. Such employer shall be mailed a decision on such protest and may appeal within twelve (12) days from the date notice of such decision was mailed to him.

(5) The replenishment ratio for a calendar year is a quotient, stated to the nearest hundredth, derived from the following numerator and denominator.

The numerator of the replenishment ratio shall be the amount of benefits paid from the Unemployment Compensation Fund during the twelve (12) months ending September 30 of the preceding year after deductions have been made for:

(A) benefit warrants canceled,

(B) repayment of benefits which have been overpaid, and

(C) benefits paid which are repayable from reimbursing employers, the federal government, or any other governmental entity.

The denominator of the replenishment ratio shall be the total amount of chargebacks to the accounts of all taxed employers during the twelve (12) months ending September 30, of the preceding year.

The replenishment ratio for each calendar year shall be determined prior to the due date of the first contribution payment with respect to wages for employment paid in that year and such replenishment ratio thus determined shall not be affected or revised by virtue of any subsequent adjustment of any chargebacks of any employer.

Art. 5221b-5a. Reimbursements

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (a) to (h)]

(i) Authority to Terminate Elections: If any reimbursing employer is delinquent in making reimbursements as provided under this Section, the Commission may terminate such reimbursing employer’s election to make reimbursements as of the beginning of the next taxable year and such termination shall be effective for that and the succeeding taxable year.
(j) Bond: In the discretion of the Commission, any reimbursing employer (or group of such employers) that elects to become liable for reimbursements may be required to execute and file with the Commission a surety bond approved by the Commission. The amount of such bond shall be determined in accordance with rules prescribed by the Commission. The Commission may require adjustments to be made in a previously filed bond if it deems such action appropriate. Failure by any reimbursing employer covered by such bond to pay the full amount of reimbursements when due, together with any applicable interest and penalties provided for under this Act, shall render the surety liable on such bond to the extent of the bond, as though the surety was such employer. If any reimbursing employer fails to make bond when directed to do so by the Commission, the Commission may terminate such employer’s election to make reimbursements as of the beginning of the next taxable year and such termination shall be effective for that and the succeeding taxable year.

(m) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Act, with respect to benefits paid for weeks of unemployment beginning after December 31, 1978, if the reimbursing employer is a state or political subdivision thereof, or any instrumentality of any one (1) or more of the foregoing which is wholly owned by one (1) or more states or political subdivisions, that employer shall pay one hundred percent (100%) of the extended benefits based on benefit wage credits earned from that employer instead of one-half (½) or fifty percent (50%) as indicated for other employers covered under this Act.

Art. 5221b–5b. Special Contributions for Governmental Employers

(a) Notwithstanding any provision in this Act to the contrary, after December 31, 1977, a governmental employer subject to the provisions of this Act and which pays contributions shall pay in accordance with the following:

(b) Contributions:

(1) Payments: Contributions shall accrue and become payable by each governmental employer for each calendar year, or portion thereof, in which it is subject to this Act with respect to wages for employment paid during the calendar year or portion thereof. The contributions shall become due and be paid by each such employer to the Commission for the fund in accordance with rules prescribed by the Commission and shall not be deducted in whole or in part from the wages of individuals in the employer’s employ.

(2) Rate of Contributions: Each governmental employer shall pay contributions equal to one percent (1%) of the wages paid by the employer with respect to employment during each quarter for calendar years 1978 and 1979. The contribution rate for calendar year 1980 shall be a percentage adjusted to the next higher one-tenth of one percent (½%), as indicated for other employers under subsection 14(a) of this Act (not including benefit payments which are reimbursable from any other source), and the denominator shall include the total wages paid by all employers which pay contributions under this Section (not including benefit payments which are reimbursable from any other source), and the denominator shall include benefit payments and wages paid by the employers for only the one calendar year prior to the calendar year for which the rate is computed.

Provided, if the total benefits paid during the period used for determining the rate are greater than the total contributions paid by these same employers for the same period, the amount of benefits paid in excess of the amount of contributions collected for the period shall be added to the numerator in determining the contribution rate, and if the amount of benefits paid for the period is less than the contributions paid by these employers for the same period, that amount shall be deducted from the numerator in computing the rate; provided that in no year shall the contribution rate under this Section be less than one-tenth of one percent (½% of 1%).

(3) Interest and Penalties on Past Due Contributions: If any governmental employer shall fail to pay contributions due under this Section on the date on which they are due and payable as prescribed by the Commission, the employer shall be subject to the same penalties as provided for other employers under subsection 14(a) of this Act.¹

(c) Collections:

(1) The provisions for collecting delinquent contributions provided under Section 14 of this Act ² shall be applicable with respect to governmental employers.

(2) If any governmental employer is delinquent in payment of contributions or reimbursements under any section of this Act, the Commission shall notify the Comptroller of Public Accounts in writing of the name of the governmental employer and the amount of the delinsuch termination shall be effective January 1 of the employer subject to this Act except as of the first day of January of any calendar year, and only then

(d) Reports: Each governmental employer shall keep such records and file such reports with the Commission with respect to individuals in its employment as the Commission may prescribe by rules. A governmental employer failing to keep or file these reports when due shall be subject to the same penalties as provided for other employers under subsection 14(c) of this Act.3

(e) Separate Accounting: Benefit payments based on wages from employers under this Section shall be paid from the fund; provided the Commission shall establish separate accounting with respect to benefits paid and contributions collected under this Section and these benefits and contributions shall not be used in determining contribution rates under Section 7 of this Act.4

(4) An election by an employer under subsection 8(b)(2) or 8(b)(3) of this Act to be a reimbursing employer shall be made within forty-five (45) days after the date notice is mailed to the employer that it is subject to the provisions of this Act. The election will be effective January 1 of the year in which the employer became subject to the Act. All elections under subsections 8(b)(2) and 8(b)(3) of this Act may be terminated after the minimum required period by filing with the Commission a written request for termination not later than thirty (30) days preceding the last day of a calendar year, and such termination shall be effective January 1 of the following year.

Sec. 2. Unless otherwise specifically exempted in this Act, all boilers operated within the State shall be registered with the Department of Labor and Standards. In addition, such boilers shall not be operated unless they have satisfactorily passed a Certificate of Inspection and have qualified for a Certificate of Operation. The Certificate of Operation shall remain in full force and effect until expiration of the same or near the boiler for which it is issued. No prosecution shall be maintained where the issuance of or the renewal of such Certificate of Operation shall have been requested and shall remain unacted upon. The affidavit of the Chief Inspector or any Deputy Inspector that its operation constitutes a menace to the life and safety of any person or persons in or about the premises, shall be sufficient proof to warrant the immediate granting of a temporary restraining order.

Board of Boiler Rules

Sec. 2a. There is established within the Department of Labor and Standards a Board of Boiler Rules, consisting of nine members appointed by the Commissioner. Except for the initial appointees, members hold office for terms of six years expiring on January 31 of odd-numbered years. In making the initial appointments, the Commissioner shall designate three for terms expiring in 1979, three for terms expiring in 1981, and three for terms expiring in 1983.

The Commissioner may remove any member of the Board for inefficiency or neglect of duty in office. Upon the resignation, death, suspension, or incapacity of any member, the Commissioner shall fill the vacancy for the remainder of the vacated term with an individual representative of the same interests with which the predecessor was identified.

No decision of the Board shall be effective unless supported by the vote of at least five members.

The Board shall act in an advisory capacity to the Commissioner in formulating definitions, rules and regulations for the safe construction, installation, inspection, operating limits, alteration, and repair of boilers and their appurtenances.

The Board members shall serve without salary, but are entitled to reimbursement for actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as board members.

Exemptions from Act

Sec. 3. The following are exempt from the provisions of this Act:

(1) Power boilers shall receive a certificate inspection annually and shall also be externally inspected annually while under pressure if possible.

(2) Steam heating boilers and hot water heating boilers shall receive a certificate inspection biennially.

(3) Hot water supply boilers and lined potable water heaters shall receive a certificate inspection triennially.

(4) Portable steam boilers shall be inspected externally each time it is moved to a new location, provided that an internal inspection shall be made of each such boiler at least once each twelve (12) months.

(5) Nuclear boilers shall be inspected and reported in such form and with such appropriate information as the Commissioner shall designate.

If such boilers referred to herein are found, upon inspection, to be in a safe condition for operation, a Certificate of Operation shall be issued by the Commissioner for its operation for a period not longer than the interval required for certificate inspections. If any inspection authorized hereunder shall show the inspected boiler to be in an unsafe or dangerous condition, the Chief Inspector or any Deputy Inspector shall issue a preliminary order requiring such repairs and alterations to be made to such boiler as may be necessary to render it safe for use, and may also order the use of such boiler discontinued until such repairs and alterations are made or such dangerous and unsafe conditions are remedied. Unless such preliminary order be complied with by the owner or user, a hearing before the Commissioner shall be allowed, upon written request, at which the owner or user, making the request, shall have opportunity to appear and show cause why the preliminary order should not be complied with. If it shall thereafter appear to the Commissioner that such boiler is unsafe and that the requirements contained in said preliminary order should be complied with, or that other things should be done to make said boiler safe, the Commissioner may order or confirm the withholding of the Certificate of Operation for said boiler and may make such requirements as may be deemed proper for the repair or alteration of said boiler or the correction of such dangerous and unsafe conditions. The Chief Inspector may issue a temporary Certificate of Operation for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days, pending the completion of replacements or repairs. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to limit the authority of the Commissioner as set forth in Section 6 of this Act. Any boiler which cannot be rendered safe for use shall be condemned and the use of such boiler shall be prohibited.
Interval Between Internal Inspections

Sec. 4a. Upon the approval of the Commissioner and the inspection agency having jurisdiction, the interval between internal inspections may be extended to a period not to exceed twenty-four (24) months for power boilers and forty-eight (48) months for waste heat boilers and for other unfired steam boilers using heat resulting from the operation of a process system, the interval may be extended to the next scheduled down time, but not to exceed 60 months provided: (1) continuous water treatment under competent and experienced supervision has been in effect since the last internal inspection for the purpose of controlling and limiting corrosion and deposits; (2) accurate and complete records are available showing that since the last internal inspection samples of boiler water have been taken or monitored at regular intervals not greater than twenty-four (24) hours of operation and that the water condition in the boiler is satisfactorily controlled; (3) accurate and complete records are available showing the dates such boiler has been out of service and the reasons thereof since the last internal inspection, and such records shall include the nature of all repairs to the boiler, the reasons why such repairs were made; and (4) the last internal and current external inspection of the boiler indicates the inspection period may be safely extended. When such an extended period between internal inspections has been approved by the Commissioner and the inspection agency having jurisdiction, as outlined in this Section, a new Certificate of Operation shall be issued for that extended period of operation.

Intervals of Inspection for Nuclear Boilers

Sec. 4b. Intervals of inspection for Nuclear Boilers shall be as established by the Commissioner and the owner.

Insurance Company Reports; Inspection by Authorized Inspector; Certificate of Operation; Notice of Cancellation or Expiration of Insurance Policy

Sec. 5. Every insurance company authorized to insure and inspect boilers in this State shall, within thirty (30) days after a certificate inspection file a report with the Commissioner stating the condition of the boiler. The report shall also include the location of the boiler, date inspected, and the name of the inspector.

Any boiler inspected by an authorized inspector shall be exempt from other inspections and inspection fees under the provisions of this Act; provided nothing in this Section shall prevent the Commissioner from authorizing the inspection of any boiler at any reasonable time when, in the opinion of the Commissioner, such boiler may be in an unsafe condition. The Commissioner shall contact the insurance company carrying insurance on the boiler and request the authorized inspector to participate with the Chief Inspector or Deputy Inspector to jointly inspect the boiler, within twenty (20) days. No additional charge shall be made for this inspection.

The Commissioner is authorized to issue a Certificate of Operation to the owner or user of all boilers subject to inspection under this Act. The owner or user shall remit to the Texas Department of Labor and Standards the sum of Five Dollars ($5) for each Certificate of Operation to be issued. This fee is included in the internal and external inspection fee authorized in Section 11 of this Act.

Every insurance company shall notify the Commissioner in writing of the cancellation or expiration of every policy of insurance issued by it with reference to boilers in this State, within twenty (20) days after the expiration or cancellation of said policy, giving the cause or reason for such cancellation or expiration. Such notice of cancellation or expiration shall show the date of the policy and the date when the cancellation or expiration has or will become effective.

Rules and Regulations; Special Inspection Service; Exchange of Information

The Commissioner is hereby authorized and empowered to promulgate and enforce a code of rules and regulations in keeping with standard usage, for the construction, inspection, installation, use, maintenance, repair, alteration, and operation of boilers. The Commissioner may adopt rules and regulations to provide inspection procedures for use of nondestructive examination equipment to comply with the inspection requirements specified in Section 4 of this Act. The Commissioner is empowered to provide special inspection service to owner-users and manufacturers including surveys required for certification to construct, assemble or repair boilers or pressure vessels. Provided that the Commissioner or any employee of the Department, shall not have authority to prescribe the make, brand or kind of boilers to buy or purchase.

The Commissioner may exchange information and experience data with other authorities having boiler inspection divisions or departments in assembling data for the promulgation of rules and regulations authorized under the provisions of this Act.

Prior to the adoption, amendment, or repeal of any rules, the Commissioner shall give at least 30 days' notice of the intended action. Notice of the proposed rule shall be filed with the secretary of state and published by the secretary of state in the Texas Register. The notice must include:

Each notice of a proposed rule becomes effective as legal notice when published in the Texas Register. The notice shall be mailed to all persons who have made timely written requests of the Commissioner for advance notice of the rulemaking proceedings. However, failure to mail the notice does not invalidate any actions taken or rules adopted.

Prior to the adoption of any rule, the Commissioner shall afford all interested persons reasonable opportunity to submit data, views, or arguments, orally or in writing. In the case of substantive rules, opportunity for public hearing must be granted if requested by at least 25 persons or by any association having at least 25 members. The Commissioner shall consider fully all written and oral submissions concerning the proposed rule. The rule may be effective for a period of not longer than 120 days renewable once for a period not exceeding 60 days, but the adoption of an identical rule under the provisions of this section is not precluded. Art. 5221f. Mobile Homes Standards Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Texas Mobile Homes Standards Act.

Purpose

Sec. 2. It is the legislature’s intent to improve the general welfare and safety of the citizens of this state. The legislature finds that mobile homes have become a primary housing resource of many of the citizens of the state; that a growing awareness exists that many consumers are injured by unprincipled and dishonest members of the mobile home industry, that current warranties are deficient, that existing means of remedying these injustices are inadequate and do not provide a viable means for protecting the consumer, and that it is the responsibility of the state to provide for the protection of its citizens through the imposition of certain regulations on the mobile home industry. In recognition of these findings, the legislature deems it necessary to expand various regulatory powers to deal with these problems. The legislature finds this to be the most economical and efficient means of dealing with this problem and serving the public interest. Accordingly, this Act shall be liberally construed and applied to promote its underlying policies and purposes.

Definitions

Sec. 3. Whenever used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, the following words and terms have the following meanings:

(a) “Mobile home” means a structure, transportable in one or more sections, which is eight body feet or more in width and is 32 body feet or more in length, and which is built on a permanent chassis and designed to be used as a dwelling with or without a permanent foundation when connected to the required utilities, and includes the plumbing, heating, air-conditioning, and electrical systems contained therein.
(b) "Dealer" means any person other than a manufacturer engaged in the business of buying for resale, selling, or exchanging mobile homes or offering such for sale, exchange, or lease-purchase to consumers. No person shall be considered a dealer unless engaged in the sale, exchange, or lease-purchase of three or more mobile homes to consumers in any consecutive 12-month period.

(c) "Manufacturer" means any person who manufactures or assembles mobile homes and sells them to dealers or consumers.

No person shall be considered a broker unless engaged in the sale, exchange, or lease-purchase of three or more mobile homes to consumers in any consecutive 12-month period.

(g) "Consumer" means any person who seeks or acquires by purchase, exchange, or lease-purchase a mobile home from a manufacturer, dealer, or broker.

(l) "Installer" means any person, including a mobile home dealer or manufacturer, who performs installation functions on mobile homes.

(m) "Alteration" means the replacement, addition, and modification, or removal of any equipment or installation after sale by a manufacturer to a dealer but prior to sale by a dealer to a purchaser which may affect the construction, fire safety, occupancy, plumbing, heat-producing or electrical system. It includes any modification made in the mobile home which may affect the compliance of the home with the standards, but it does not include the repair or replacement of a component or appliance requiring plug-in to an electrical receptacle where the replaced item is of the same configuration and rating as the one being replaced. It also does not include the addition of an appliance requiring "plug-in" to an electrical receptacle, which appliance was not provided with the mobile home by the manufacturer, if the rating of the appliance does not exceed the rating of the receptacle to which it is connected.

(o) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of the Texas Department of Labor and Standards.

(p) "Code" means the Texas Mobile Home Standards Code.

(2) It is unlawful for any person to sell or offer for sale within this state any mobile home that does not meet the standards and requirements adopted by the department pursuant to this Act.

(3) The existing standards for the plumbing, heating, and electrical systems and construction of mobile homes shall remain in full force and effect upon the effective date of this Act, and until amended in accordance with the procedure set forth in this section.

(b) The department may adopt such minimum standards as it deems necessary for the installation of mobile homes except those in the inventories of manufacturers and dealers within this state so that such mobile homes shall withstand winds of mini-of plumbing, heating, and electrical systems in mobile homes, for the body and frame design and construction of mobile homes, and for the installation of mobile homes shall be known as the Texas Mobile Homes Standards Code.

Compliance with Federal Standards

Sec. 5. The Texas Mobile Homes Standards Code shall be in compliance with the federal standards established under Title VI of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, entitled the National Mobile Home Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974. In case of a conflict between such federal standards and the fundamental principles adopted or issued as ANSI Standard A119.1 and as amended from time to time by the American National Standards Institute (ANSI) applicable to mobile homes, the federal standards shall be applicable and given full force and effect.

The application for a seal shall include an affidavit stating that the unit has been brought up to or meets code requirements in effect at the time the mobile home was manufactured.

Administration and Enforcement

Sec. 9. (a) The department is hereby charged with the administration and enforcement of this Act.

(c) The department shall adopt rules and regulations, promulgate administrative orders, and take all actions necessary to comply with the provisions of the National Mobile Home Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974 and to provide for the effective enforcement of all mobile home construction and safety standards in order to have its state plan approved by the secretary of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

(d) At least 30 days before the adoption or promulgation of any change in or addition to the rules and regulations authorized in Subsections (b) and (c) of this section, the department shall publish in the Texas Register a notice including:

Employment of State Inspectors

Sec. 10. (a) The department may employ state inspectors as the department deems necessary to carry out the functions of this Act.

(b) To carry out the provisions of this Act, the department may authorize the state inspectors to travel within or without the state for the purpose of inspecting the manufacturing facilities for mobile homes or for any other purpose in connection with this Act.

Fees

Sec. 11. (a) There shall be a fee of $15 for the inspection of the installation of mobile homes which shall be paid by the dealer or manufacturer who sold the mobile home to the consumer. Said fee shall be paid to the state. This fee shall be paid within 30 days and shall accompany notification to the department of the exact location of the mobile home. The department shall make fee distributions to local governmental subdivisions performing inspections pursuant to contracts or other official designations.

(b) Looking for guidance to the rules and regulations promulgated under Title VI of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 and to that Act itself, the commissioner shall set fees for the following functions:

1. There shall be a schedule of fees for the review of mobile home blueprints and supporting data when the department acts as a Design Approval Primary Inspection Agency. This fee shall be paid by the manufacturer seeking approval.
(2) There shall be an inspection fee on all mobile homes manufactured or assembled within the State of Texas. This fee shall be paid by the manufacturer of the home. The manufacturer shall also be charged for the actual cost of travel for representatives of the department to and from the manufacturing facility.

(3) The fees in Subsections (1) and (2) shall not be applicable when an accepted inspection agency authorized by the Department of Housing and Urban Development, other than the department, acts as the Design Approval Primary Inspection Agency or the In-Plant Inspection Agency.

(4) There shall be a fee for inspection of new or used mobile homes at dealer locations to check compliance with the code and to determine if the mobile home has been damaged in transit. This fee shall be paid by the dealer in possession of the mobile homes at the time the inspection was made. For any given mobile home at a dealer location, this fee may not be assessed more than once.

(5) There shall be a fee charged on an hourly basis for inspection of alterations made upon the structure, plumbing, heating, or electrical systems of mobile homes. This fee shall be paid by the dealer making the alteration. The dealer shall also be charged for the actual cost of travel for representatives of the department to and from the dealership making the alteration.

(6) There shall be a fee for the issuance of seals for used mobile homes which shall be paid by the dealer.

(c) Fees assessed under this Act shall be paid to the State Treasury and placed in the General Revenue Fund except as otherwise provided in Subsection (a) of this section. In addition, the reimbursements for travel expenses provided in Parts (2) and (4), Subsection (b) of this section, are hereby reappropriated to the department for use in its mobile home program.

(d) The existing fees charged by the department shall remain in effect upon the effective date of this Act and until the new schedule of fees set forth in Subsection (b) of this section has been promulgated and adopted.

Sec. 12. [Deleted.]

Sec. 13. (a) As of the effective date of this Act, manufacturers, dealers, and salespersons are required to file either a performance bond, a cash deposit, or other security in such form as the commissioner may prescribe along with such information as the commissioner may deem necessary to insure compliance with the intent of this Act.

(b) If a performance bond is filed, it shall be continuous and remain in effect until cancelled by the surety company with notice as provided by this Act. A cash deposit or other security need not be posted annually so long as the applicable amount specified in Subsection (i) of this section remains posted. If a claim is made against a cash deposit causing the deposit to be lessened, the depositor has 20 calendar days in which to deposit additional money or other security so that compliance may be had with the requirements of Subsection (i) of this section. If the deficit is not eliminated within 20 days, any subsequent contract between a consumer and the inadequately covered dealer, manufacturer, or salesperson is voidable at the option of the consumer.

(e) At the time a consumer enters into a contract, if a manufacturer, dealer, or salesperson has neither posted a cash deposit or other security, nor filed a performance bond, the contract between a consumer and that manufacturer, dealer, or salesperson is voidable at the option of the consumer.

(d) If a cash deposit or other security is posted, the interest from said deposit shall go to the depositor.

(e) The bond shall be a surety bond issued by a company authorized to do business in this state and shall be in conformity with the Insurance Code. The cash deposit or other security shall be in such a form as the commissioner may deem appropriate to insure compliance with the intent of this Act.

(f) The bond, cash deposit, or other security shall be to the state for the use by a consumer, the state, or any political subdivision thereof who establishes liability against a manufacturer, dealer, or salesperson for damages, restitution, or expenses including reasonable attorney's fees resulting from a cause of action connected with the sale or lease-purchase of a mobile home. A consumer, the state, or any political subdivision thereof may recover against the principal or surety jointly and severally for such damages, restitution, or expenses. The bond or other security shall be open to successive claims up to the amount of face value or required security. The surety shall not be liable for successive claims in excess of the bond amount, regardless of the number of years the bond remains in force.

(g) A consumer shall inform the manufacturer, dealer or salesperson, and the department of any claim against the bond or security no later than two years after the purchase of the mobile home. Whenever the department receives notice of a claim against a bond, the department shall promptly notify the bonding company involved. At the time of sale or delivery of a mobile home to a consumer, the consumer must be given conspicuous written notification of this two-year limit and the notice requirements.
(h) Any manufacturer or dealer who maintains a place of business at one or more locations shall file with the department a separate bond or security for each location.

(i) A manufacturer shall be bonded, supply a cash deposit or other security in the amount of $100,000. A dealer shall be bonded, supply a cash deposit, or other security in the amount of $25,000. A salesperson shall be bonded, supply a cash deposit or other security in the amount of $2,000.

(j) The bonding company must provide written notification to the department at least 60 days prior to the cancellation of any bond required by this Act. Any cash deposit or other security on file with the department shall remain on file with the department two years after the manufacturer or dealer ceases the business of manufacturing or selling mobile homes or such time as the department may determine that no claims exist against the cash deposit or security.

(k) Brokers shall be considered to be dealers. Brokers shall not be considered to be dealers if they possess a valid real estate broker or salesperson license as required by The Real Estate License Act (Article 6573(a), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). In order for a licensed real estate broker or salesperson to qualify for this exemption he or she may only sell used mobile homes installed on and a part of the sale of real property.

Warranties

Sec. 14. (a) After the effective date of this Act, all new mobile homes sold by a manufacturer or dealer to consumers shall be covered by the mobile home warranty set forth in this Act.

(b) The mobile home warranty provided for in this Act shall apply to the manufacturer of the mobile home as well as to the dealer who sells the mobile home to the buyer, except as otherwise provided.

(c) The mobile home warranty shall be set forth in a separate written document; shall be delivered to the consumer by the dealer at the time the contract of sale is signed; and shall contain, but is not limited to, the following terms:

1. that the mobile home complies with the code;
2. that the warranty shall be in effect for a period of at least one year from date of initial set-up;
3. that the mobile home and all appliances and other equipment installed and included therein by the manufacturer or dealer are free from defects in materials or workmanship;
4. that installation functions performed on the mobile home are performed in compliance with this Act, and other applicable state requirements, provided that such installation operations shall not be performed by any person other than a dealer, manufacturer, or their duly authorized agents;
5. that the manufacturer or dealer or both shall take appropriate corrective action within a reasonable period of time in instances of defects in materials or workmanship, or failures to comply with the code;
6. that the manufacturer and dealer shall be jointly and severally liable to the consumer for the fulfillment of the terms of the mobile home warranty, except as provided in Part (4), Subsection (c) of this section, and that the consumer may notify either one or both of the need for appropriate corrective action in instances of defects of workmanship, or failures to comply with the code;
7. that the warranty contains the address of the dealer and manufacturer where notices of defects may be given.

Monitoring Contracts

Sec. 15. The department may enter into contracts with the Department of Housing and Urban Development or its designees for the purpose of nationwide monitoring of Department of Housing and Urban Development programs.

Judicial Review

Sec. 16. (a) Any party to a hearing aggrieved by the decision or order of the commissioner may secure judicial review thereof in the following manner:

1. The petition must be filed in a district court of Travis County, Texas, within 30 days after the decision or order of the commissioner becomes final.

2. The filing of a petition for review shall not itself stay the effect of the decision or order complained of, but the commissioner or the reviewing court may order a stay upon appropriate terms and if a stay is so granted no supersedeas bond shall be required.

3. Service of process: the petition for review shall be served on the commissioner and upon all parties of record in any hearing before the commissioner in respect to the matter for which review is sought. After service of such petition upon the commissioner and within the time permitted for filing an answer, or as soon thereafter as the record is made available to the commissioner, the commissioner shall certify to the district court in which such petition is filed the record of the proceedings to which the petition refers. The cost of preparing and certifying such record shall be paid to the commissioner by the petitioner and taxed as part of the cost in the case, to be paid as directed by the court upon final determination of said cause.
(4) The review of any decision or order of the commissioner shall be tried by the court without a jury in the same manner as civil actions generally, but no evidence shall be admissible which was not adduced at the hearing.

(5) The burden of proof shall be on the plaintiff. The reviewing court may affirm the action complained of or remand the matter to the commissioner for further proceedings.

(6) Appeals from any final judgment may be taken by either party in the manner provided for in civil actions generally, but no appeal bond shall be required of the commissioner.

Penalties

Sec. 17. (a) A person who violates a provision of this Act or any rule or regulation of the department commits a Class A misdemeanor.

(b) Any dealer, manufacturer, or salesperson who violates any provision of this Act or the rules and regulations of the department may be assessed a civil penalty to be paid to the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed $1,000 for each such violation as the court may deem proper, except that the maximum civil penalty may not exceed $1,000,000 for any related series of violations occurring within one year from the date of the first violation.

(c) Whenever it appears that any dealer, manufacturer, or salesperson who violates any provision of this Act or of the rules and regulations of the department, either the attorney general or the department may cause a civil suit to be instituted either for injunctive relief to restrain such dealer, manufacturer, or salesperson from continuing the violation or threat of violation or for the assessment and recovery of the civil penalty or for both.

(d) Failure by a manufacturer or dealer to comply with the warranty provisions in Section 14 of this Act or the code provisions in Section 4 of this Act is considered a deceptive trade practice in addition to any of the provisions of this Act or of the rules and regulations of the department, either the attorney general or the department may cause a civil suit to be instituted either for injunctive relief to restrain such dealer, manufacturer, or salesperson from continuing the violation or threat of violation or for the assessment and recovery of the civil penalty or for both.

Miscellaneous Provisions

Sec. 18. (a) Any waiver by a consumer of the provisions of this Act is contrary to public policy and is unenforceable and void.

(b) No provision of this Act shall exclude any other remedy available at law or equity to the consumer.

(c) If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this extent the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

In addition to any other action, proceeding, or remedy authorized by law, the Board shall have the right to institute an action in its own name against any person to enjoin any violation of this Act or any rule or regulation of the Board and in order for the Board to sustain such action it shall not be necessary to allege or prove, either that an adequate remedy at law does exist, or that substantial or irreparable damage would result from the continued violation thereof. The Board may adopt such reasonable rules and regulations for the orderly conduct of its affairs as it may deem necessary, and may from time to time amend such rules and regulations.

The first Board appointed under the provisions of this Act shall hold its first meeting within thirty (30) days after the members have been qualified and shall hold at least two (2) regular meetings each year at such time and place as the Chairman may designate. Qualifications for Registration

Sec. 6. From and after January first following the effective date of this Act, no person except those exempted from the operation of this Act as provided for in Section 3 hereof, shall engage or continue in the practice of Public Surveying as defined herein unless such person shall be registered as provided herein. The following classes of persons shall be qualified for registration:

1 Article 5429a.
(a) All persons residing in Texas and engaged in the practice of Public Surveying on the effective date of this Act, and who have been so engaged for five (5) years immediately preceding the effective date hereof, upon satisfactory showing to the Board of the moral and educational fitness of such person to continue in such practice. Applications to register under this subsection (a) of Section 6 must be filed within one (1) year after this Act becomes effective.

(b) All persons who can show to the satisfaction of the Board that they have had at least eight (8) years experience in land surveying in Texas of which at least two (2) years were in responsible charge of surveying work. Within the meaning of this subsection, two (2) years of basic engineering course in an accredited school or college shall be considered the equivalent of two (2) years of land surveying. Applicants to register under subsection (b) of Section 6 must be filed within five (5) years after this Act becomes effective.

(c) All persons who apply to take, and successfully pass, an examination given by the Board to determine the fitness and qualification of the person examined shall be qualified for registration. Such examination shall be written and oral, and shall be designed to reflect knowledge and ability on the part of the applicant, showing to the Board that he is qualified to be placed in charge of surveying work. The following shall be considered as minimum evidence satisfactory to the Board that the applicant is qualified to be admitted to examination as a public surveyor:

1. The applicant is more than twenty-one (21) years of age.

2. The applicant is of good character and reputation.

3. The applicant has satisfied one of the following educational and experience requirements:

   (A) has successfully completed a full four (4) year course of study in land surveying or civil engineering at an accredited college or university leading to a bachelor's or higher degree and has a specific experience record of two (2) or more years as a subordinate to a registered public surveyor or a person qualified in land surveying in the active practice of land surveying, of a character indicating that the applicant was in responsible charge of the accuracy and correctness of the surveying work performed; or

   (B) has successfully completed a full four (4) year course of study other than land surveying or civil engineering at an accredited college or university leading to a bachelor's or higher degree and has a specific experience record of four (4) or more years as a subordinate to a registered public surveyor, or a person qualified in land surveying in the active practice of land surveying, of a character indicating the applicant was in responsible charge of the accuracy and correctness of the surveying work performed. The course of study shall have included not less than thirty-two (32) semester hours of study or its academic equivalent, in any combination of courses in civil engineering, land surveying, mathematics, photogrammetry, forestry, or land law and the physical sciences; or

   (C) has successfully completed a course of study in land surveying or Board approved survey-related courses at an accredited college or university of thirty-two (32) semester hours of study, or its academic equivalent, and has a specific experience record of six (6) or more years as a subordinate to a registered public surveyor or a person qualified in land surveying in the active practice of land surveying, five (5) years of such experience shall be of a character indicating that the applicant was in responsible charge of the accuracy and correctness of the surveying work performed; or

   (D) is a graduate of an accredited high school and has a specific experience record of six (6) or more years as a subordinate to a registered public surveyor or a person qualified in land surveying in the active practice of land surveying, of a character indicating that the applicant was in responsible charge of the accuracy and correctness of the surveying work performed. Applicants under this subsection without the college or university credits listed in Paragraph (A), (B), or (C) must show they have become self-educated in the surveying field.

An applicant desiring to register as a Public Surveyor shall file with the Board an application therefor in writing, accompanying the application with a registration fee, the amount having been determined by the Board but in no event to exceed Fifty Dollars ($50). If the Board finds that the applicant is qualified to register as herein provided for, it shall issue to him a Certificate of Registration and assign to him a registration number which shall not thereafter be assigned to, nor used by any other surveyor. Such number shall be placed on the Certificate of Registration and recorded in the permanent records of the Board, and shall constitute the registration number of such surveyor and shall be used by him on all his official documents. The Certificate of Registration shall also show the full name of registrant and shall be signed by the Chairman and Secretary of the Board. If the Board finds that an applicant is not qualified to be registered at the time of making his application, but is qualified to take an examination, it shall set and notify the applicant of the time and name a place for the applicant to take such examination. The applicant may take the examination upon payment of an examination fee set by the Board not to exceed $100. Upon passing the examination to the satisfaction of the Board, the applicant shall be entitled to a Certificate of Registration as hereinabove provided.

Applications for registration shall be on forms prescribed and furnished by the Board, shall contain statements made under oath, showing the applicant's education and a detailed summary of his technical work, and shall contain not less than five (5) references, of whom three (3) or more shall be surveyors having personal knowledge of his surveying experience. The scope of the examinations and the methods of procedure shall be prescribed by the Board with special reference to the applicant's ability which shall insure safety to the public welfare and property rights. A candidate failing an examination may apply for re-examination at the expiration of six (6) months by filing an updated application and paying an additional examination fee.

All Certificates of Registration shall expire on the last day of the month of December following their issuance or renewal or on a date set by the Board as part of a staggered renewal system and shall become invalid on that date unless renewed. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Board to notify every person registered under this Act of the date of the expiration of his certificate and the amount of the fee that shall be required for its renewal for one (1) year; such notice shall be mailed at least one (1) month in advance of the date of the expiration of said certificate. Renewal may be effected at any time during the month of expiration by the payment of a fee to be set by the Board but not to exceed Fifty Dollars ($50). The failure on the part of any registrant to renew his certificate annually in the month of expiration as required above shall not deprive such person of the right of renewal, but the fee to be paid for the renewal of a certificate after the month of expiration shall be increased ten per cent (10%) for each month or fraction of the month that renewal payment is delayed; provided, however, that the maximum fee for delayed renewal shall not exceed twice the normal renewal fee; and provided further that if such failure to renew shall continue for more than one (1) year after the date of expiration of the registration certificate, the applicant must reapply for registration and must qualify under the foregoing provisions of this section before being registered. All renewal certificates shall carry the same registration number as the original certificate. All original and renewal Certificates of Registration shall be evidence that the person whose name and registration number appears thereon is qualified to practice as a Registered Public Surveyor so long as such certificate is valid and in force. Each registrant hereunder shall, upon receiving his Certificate of Registration, obtain a seal of the design authorized by the Board, bearing the registrant's name and number and the legend "Registered Public Surveyor"; plats, field notes and reports prepared by a registrant or under his direction shall be stamped with the said seal when filed with public authorities or delivered to a private client. It shall be unlawful for anyone to stamp or seal any document with said seal after the certificate of the registrant named thereon has expired or has been revoked, unless said certificate shall have been renewed or reissued.

Reciprocal Certificate

Sec. 6B. (a) The Board may issue a Certificate of Registration on a reciprocal basis to a person who:

(1) has passed a written examination with the same or higher standards as those of this state given by a governmental authority outside of this state and holds a current registration with that governmental authority;

(2) meets the relevant requirements of this Act and the rules and regulations of the Board;

(3) passes a written examination not less than four hours in duration which includes questions on laws, the issuance of grants and land titles, procedures, and practices relevant to the practice of public surveying in this state; and

(4) pays a fee set by the Board not to exceed Fifty Dollars ($50).

(b) The Board may issue a Certificate of Registration on a reciprocal basis to a person who holds a current registration as a public surveyor with a governmental authority outside of this state, but who has not passed a written examination given by that governmental authority, and who:

(1) meets the requirements in Subdivisions (2), (3), and (4) of Subsection (a) of this section; and

(2) passes other examinations which the Board may require.
Sec. 7. The Board shall have the power to reprimand or to revoke or suspend the Certificate of Registration of any registrant who is charged with and found guilty of:

(a) The practice of any fraud or deceit in obtaining a Certificate of Registration;
(b) Any gross negligence, incompetency, or misconduct in the practice of surveying as a registered public surveyor; or
(c) The violation of a provision of this Act or a rule or regulation promulgated by the Board.

In determining the truth of any such charges, the Board shall proceed upon sworn information furnished by any reliable resident of this State; such information shall be in writing and shall be duly verified by the person familiar with the facts therein charged, and three (3) copies of the same shall be filed with the Secretary of the Board. Upon receipt of such information the Board, if it deems the information sufficient to support further action on its part, shall make an order setting the charges therein contained for hearings at a specified time and place, and the Secretary of the Board shall cause a copy of the Board's order and of the information contained in the written charges to be served upon the accused at least thirty (30) days before the date appointed in the order for the hearing. The accused may appear in person or by counsel, or both at the time and place named in the order and make his defense to the same. If the accused fails or refuses to appear, the Board may proceed to hear and determine the charges in his absence. If the accused pleads guilty, or upon a hearing of the charges, the Board by a majority of its members shall find them to be true, it may enter an order revoking the Certificate of Registration of such registered public surveyor. The Board shall have the power, through its Chairman or Secretary, to administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses before it as in civil cases in the District Court by subpoena issued over the signature of the Secretary and seal of the Board. If the accused desires the evidence to be preserved and shall so inform the Board before the hearing is begun and shall deposit with the Board such a sum of money as the Board may deem reasonably necessary for the employment of a competent reporter, then the Board shall employ such reporter and, when so employed, he shall be the official reporter of the Board for the purpose of reporting the evidence and proceedings of such Board. In proceedings under this section, a majority of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

The Board may employ persons for the purpose of gathering evidence necessary to enable the Board to arrive at a just decision.

When the Board has completed such hearing, it shall make a record of its findings and shall order and cause a certified copy thereof to be forwarded to the accused.

Any person who may feel himself aggrieved by reason of the revocation of his Certificate of Registration by the Board, as hereinabove authorized, shall have the right to file suit within thirty (30) days after receiving notice of the Board's order revoking his Certificate of Registration, in the District Court of Travis County, Texas, to annul or vacate the order of the Board revoking the Certificate of Registration; said suit to be filed against the Board as defendant, and service of process may be had upon its Chairman or Secretary. The only issues to be tried in such cause shall be whether such person has been guilty as originally found by the Board, which issues shall be tried de novo, as that term is commonly used in connection with an appeal from the justice of the peace court to the county court, and the substantial evidence rule shall not apply.

The Board, for equitable reasons it may deem sufficient, may reissue a Certificate of Registration to any person whose certificate has been revoked, provided four (4) or more members of the Board vote in favor of such reissuance. A new Certificate of Registration, to replace any certificate revoked, lost, destroyed, or mutilated, may be issued, subject to the rules of the Board, and a charge of Ten Dollars ($10) shall be made for such issuances.

Sec. 8. After the effective date of this Act, as defined in Section 6 hereof, any person who shall practice, or offer to practice, the profession of Public Surveying in this State without being registered or exempted in accordance with the provisions of this Act, or any person presenting or attempting to use as his own the Certificate of Registration or the seal of another, or any person who shall give any false or forged evidence of any kind to the Board or to any member thereof in obtaining or assisting to obtain for another a Certificate of Registration, or any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this Act or a rule or regulation promulgated by the Board, shall be fined not less than Two Hundred Dollars ($200) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or be confined in jail for a period not exceeding three (3) months, or both. Each day of such violation shall be a separate offense. Before instituting a criminal action against a person, the Board may invite the person to show cause why the action should not be instigated.

The Board is charged with the duty of aiding in the enforcement of the provisions of this Act, and any member of the Board may present to a prosecuting officer complaints relating to violations of any of the provisions of this Act; and the Board, through its members, officers, counsel and agents may assist in the trial of any cases involving alleged violations of said statutes, subject to the control of the prosecuting officers.

The Attorney General or his assistants shall act as legal advisor of the Board and shall render such legal assistance as may be necessary in enforcing and making effective the provisions of this Act; provided that this shall not relieve the local prosecuting officers of any of their duties under the law as such.

Sec. 5. (a) The board shall have the authority and power to make and enforce all rules necessary to the performance of its duties and may from time to time amend such rules.

(b) A roster showing the names and addresses of all licensed state land surveyors shall be prepared by the assistant secretary-treasurer during the month of October of each year. Copies of this roster shall be mailed to each person so licensed, placed on file with the secretary of state, and furnished to the public upon request.

(c) The board shall give both an oral and a written examination upon the theory of surveying, the law of land boundaries, the history and functions of the General Land Office, and such other matters pertaining to surveying as the board may deem important, such examination to be given in the General Land Office in Austin. All applications for license shall be on forms prescribed and furnished by the board and shall contain statements made under oath showing applicant's education and experience. The application will be accompanied by an examination fee of $35.

Qualifications for License

Sec. 6. All persons who apply to take, and successfully pass, an examination given by the board shall receive a license. An applicant must:

(1) be found by the board to be of good character and reputation; and

(2) be a registered public surveyor duly registered under the Registered Public Surveyors Act of 1955, as amended (Article 5282a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Examination

Sec. 7. (a) If the board finds that an applicant has successfully passed the examination, it shall issue a license to him; provided, however, such license shall not issue until applicant has taken the oath of office and filed the bond as hereinafter required. Such examination, including questions and answers, shall be deposited in the General Land Office and safely kept for at least two years.

(b) If a license be refused an applicant, he may take any subsequent examination under the same conditions as in the first instance, and by the payment of the same fee, provided that such examination shall not be given before the expiration of at least five months after the preceding examination.

License: Term of; Grounds for Revocation; Resignation

Sec. 8. Each licensed state land surveyor shall procure a seal of office. Around the margin shall be the words "Licensed State Land Surveyor," which shall be his official title, and between the points of the star in the seal shall be the word "Texas." He shall attest with the seal all his official acts authorized under the provisions of the law. No act, paper, or map of a licensed state land surveyor shall be filed in the county records or the General Land Office unless certified to under the seal of such surveyor.

License: Term of; Grounds for Revocation; Resignation

Sec. 9. (a) A license issued to an applicant under these provisions shall be valid for life provided the licensee pays a yearly renewal fee, not to exceed $20, as determined by the board, during the month of September and receives a card validating the license for an additional year. It shall be the duty of the assistant secretary-treasurer of the board to notify every person licensed under this Act of the requirement for a renewal card and the amount of the fee required during the month of August of each year. For this and other uses, each licensee is required to notify the commissioner of any change of address as it occurs. The failure on the part of any licensee to renew his license annually in the month of September as required above shall not deprive such person of the right of renewal, but the fee to be paid for the renewal shall be increased 10 percent for each month or fraction of a month that renewal payment is delayed; provided, however, that the maximum fee for delayed renewal shall not exceed twice the normal renewal fee; and provided further that if such failure to renew shall continue for more than one year after the date of expiration of the renewal card, the licensee must reapply for a license as any new applicant. Current license holders must pay the annual renewal fee beginning the September following the effective date of this Act. The license is valid as above unless the licensee resigns as herein provided or the license is revoked by the board because the holder:

(1) has been found by a court of competent jurisdiction guilty of a felony or adjudged to have committed a theft, or fraud, or to be insane;

(2) shall be found by the board to be incompetent or to have been directly or indirectly interested in the purchase or in the acquisition of title to any public land; or

(3) shall be found by the board guilty of any act or default discreditable to the surveying profession.

(b) A licensed state land surveyor may resign as such surveyor at any time he may so desire by filing his resignation in writing with the commissioner of the General Land Office. On receipt of such resignation the commissioner shall cause to be made an entry on his records showing such act on the part of the licensee, and thereupon the duties of such licensee as a licensed state land surveyor shall cease, but such resignation shall not operate to relieve the principal and sureties of said surveyor's official bond of any liability that may have accrued prior to the effectiveness of such resignation. The attorney general shall represent the board in all actions and proceedings to enforce the provisions of this Act.

Impersonation of a Licensed State Land Surveyor

Sec. 10. Any person who impersonates a licensed state land surveyor by the signing of his name as such or by using the seal of such when not entitled to shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and when found guilty shall be subject to a fine of up to $500 or up to six months confinement in the county jail for each day of such impersonation, or both fine and confinement.

Revocation of License

Sec. 11. Before any license issued under these provisions shall be revoked, the holder thereof shall have been notified by the board by registered mail addressed to him at his last known address, at least 30 days before the day fixed for a hearing, stating the charges and the time and place for such hearing.
The evidence adduced at such hearing shall be reduced to writing. If the board finds the charges sustained by the evidence, the license of such surveyor shall be revoked. The surveyor whose license has been revoked may within 60 days from the date the charges are sustained by the board, appeal from such revocation to a district court in Travis County.
Such case may be carried to the appellate courts, as in other cases, by either the board or such surveyor.
On such appeal the court shall admit in evidence the written record of the board together with such other evidence as may be offered on either side in accordance with the rules of evidence in such courts.

Oath and Bond

Sec. 12. (a) Before a surveyor's license issues, and before one who has successfully passed the examination as provided in this Act shall be authorized to perform the duties of a licensed state land surveyor, he shall take the official oath and shall make a good and sufficient bond in the sum of $1,000, payable to the governor, conditioned that he will faithfully, impartially, and honestly perform all the duties of a licensed state land surveyor to the best of his skill and ability in all matters wherein he may be employed. No surveyor's license shall be issued hereunder to any person residing outside the State of Texas.

(b) Such bond may be executed by two or more solvent personal sureties or by some solvent surety company authorized to transact business in this state. Should the bond be signed by personal sureties each shall take and subscribe an oath that he is worth over and above all debts and exemptions at least double the penalty of the bond. Such personal bond shall also be approved by the commissioners court of the county where the applicant resides.
After the oath and bond have been executed as herein provided they shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the applicant resides and after being so recorded shall be filed in the General Land Office, accompanied with a $3 filing fee, and thereupon a license shall be issued to applicant, and he shall be authorized to enter upon the discharge of the duties of a licensed state land surveyor. If for any reason the liability on the bond herein provided for shall be terminated, said licensee shall not be authorized to perform the duties of a licensed state land surveyor until a new bond is made as in the first instance. No surety on such bond, however, shall be relieved of liability thereon without first giving the commissioner of the General Land Office 30 days' notice in writing. The termination of said bond as herein provided, or the revocation of such surveyor's license, shall not relieve the sureties thereon from any liability that may have therefore accrued thereon.

Authority of Licensee and Method of Obtaining Right to Survey on Private Land

Sec. 13. (a) Land surveyors licensed under this Act are hereby authorized to perform surveys under the provisions of Article 5299, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and to perform the duties that may be performed by the county surveyors and shall be subject to the direction of the commissioner of the General Land Office in matters of land surveying in such cases as may come under the supervision of such authorities. The jurisdiction of such licensees shall be coextensive with the limits of the state.

(b) They may hold the office of county surveyor, and if so elected shall qualify as provided by law for county surveyors, but such election for any particular county shall not limit the jurisdiction of said surveyor to such county nor shall the election of a county surveyor for any particular county prevent any licensed state land surveyor from performing the duties of a surveyor in such county.

(c) All official field notes made by a surveyor licensed under this law shall be signed by such surveyor, followed by the designation: "Licensed State Land Surveyor."

(d) When a person licensed under this Act is denied permission to cross the land owned by a private party when surveying under the provisions of this Act, then in such case, the county attorney of the county in which the land is located shall promptly seek an order from a court of competent jurisdiction giving such licensee authority to cross such private lands.
Field Notes to be Recorded

Sec. 14. The field notes and plats of every survey of public land made by any surveyor licensed under this Act shall be recorded in the county surveyor’s records of the county in which the land may be situated. The field notes and plats of public land made by any licensed state land surveyor affecting the lines, boundaries, and areas of such land shall be forwarded to the General Land Office after the same have been recorded under the provisions of this Act. All field notes made by licensed state land surveyors in any county in this state shall have the same force and effect and be admissible in evidence the same as field notes made by a county surveyor.

Undisclosed Land

Sec. 15. If a licensed state land surveyor discovers any undisclosed tract of public land, he shall not make known that fact to anyone except to such person as may have it enclosed, except that, he shall forward to the commissioner of the General Land Office a report of the existence of such tract and the acreage therein and its probable value.

Compensation

Sec. 16. A licensed state land surveyor shall receive as compensation for his services such sums as may be mutually agreed upon between the surveyor and the interested party, including other expenses incident to the survey, whether the same be a private person, a county, a court, or the state.

County Surveyor Authorized to Record Field Notes and Documents in County Surveyor’s Records; Exceptions; Fees; Access to Records

Sec. 17. (a) In cases where a county has a county surveyor, such surveyor alone shall be authorized to file and record field notes and plats of all surveys made in his county, and other documents subject by law to being recorded in the county surveyor’s records, and issue certificates of fact and certify the correctness of copies of any document or record or entry shown by the records of a county surveyor; provided, however, that when a county surveyor or his authorized deputy or deputies are absent from his office, the county clerk of the county shall have free access to the county surveyor’s office and public records and shall, in such event, be authorized to record field notes, plats, and other documents subject to being recorded in the county surveyor’s records and issue certificates of fact and certify the correctness of copies of any document or record or entry shown on the official records of the county surveyor; and provided further that in cases where a county has no county surveyor, the county clerk of the county shall be the legal custodian of the surveyor’s records and is authorized to make all such certificates and certify such copies as a legally authorized county surveyor may make.

(b) The fees for recording documents in the surveyor’s records and issuing certificates and making certified copies shall be such as are now or hereafter provided by law. The county surveyor shall be entitled to fees for all documents recorded by him or his deputies and for all certificates and certified copies issued by him or his deputies, and the county clerk shall be entitled to all fees for documents recorded by him and for all certificates and certified copies issued by him under the provisions of this Act.

(c) All licensed state land surveyors shall, for the purpose of information and examination, have access to the records of county surveyors, and no examination fee shall be charged in cases where an investigation of the records is being made with a view to making surveys of public lands under the laws regulating the sale or lease of the same or of identifying and establishing the boundaries thereof. All examinations shall be made under such regulations as may be provided by the county surveyor or the commissioners court for the safekeeping and preservation of the records.

Disposition of Fees

Sec. 18. The sums received by the board or so much thereof as may be necessary may be used to defray the actual expense incurred by the members of said board in the execution of this law, and other expense necessary for the proper administration hereof, and the remainder shall be deposited annually in the state treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund. No appropriation shall ever be made to defray the expenses of said board or to carry into effect the provisions of this law.

Examination and Licenses

Sec. 19. (a) No person shall be authorized to perform the duties of a licensed state land surveyor without first taking and passing the examination herein provided for and obtaining a license as provided by this Act.

(b) No surveyor holding a license as a licensed state land surveyor issued under former law shall be required to take and pass the examination provided for by this Act, and the authority of such surveyor to act as a licensed state land surveyor shall not be questioned by reason of his failure to take and pass said examination.

Repeal of Conflicting Legislation with Proviso

Sec. 20. (a) Articles 5268 through 5282, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, are repealed.

(b) This Act shall not be construed as repealing or amending any laws affecting or regulating registered public surveyors or registered professional engineers in performing their duties or profession, and as such shall not be subject to the provisions of this Act, nor shall this Act be construed to affect or prevent the practice of any other legally recognized profession by the members of such profession licensed or registered by the state or under its authority. [Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1445, ch. 589, §§ 1 to 20, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Sec. 3. The legislature finds and declares that:

(a) Marine commerce is a vital element of the state's economy and the benefits derived therefrom are realized directly or indirectly by the entire state.

(b) The coastal public lands and the coastal marshes and similar coastal areas located on both publicly and privately owned lands are similarly vital elements of the state's economy, and to the maintenance, preservation, and enhancement of the environment, wildlife, and fisheries, the benefits of which are similarly realized directly or indirectly by the entire state.

(c) The coastal public lands and related natural resources constitute a vital asset of the state to be managed for the benefit of all citizens of the State of Texas.

(d) The Gulf Intracoastal Waterway traverses coastal public lands and areas in close proximity to the coastal marshes and similar coastal areas located on both publicly and privately owned lands.

(e) The Gulf Intracoastal Waterway can be maintained, operated, and improved in such a way as to prevent waste of both publicly and privately owned natural resources, that adverse environmental impacts are avoided or minimized, and that in some cases beneficial environmental effects can be realized.

(f) It is in the best interest of all citizens to accomplish the policy of the State of Texas as stated in Section 2 of this Act for the State of Texas to meet the responsibilities as required by federal law of the nonfederal sponsor of the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway.

Definitions

Sec. 4. As used in this chapter:

(a) “Coastal public lands” means all or any portion of the state-owned submerged land, the waters overlying those lands, and all state-owned islands or portions of islands that may be affected by the ebb and flow of the tide.

(b) “Coastal marshes and similar areas” means those soft, low-lying watery or wet lands and drainage areas in the coastal areas of the state which may or may not be subject to the ebb and flow of the tide but which are of ecological significance to the environment and to the maintenance, preservation, and enhancement of wildlife and fisheries.

(e) “Person” means any individual, firm, partnership, association, corporation (public or private, profit or nonprofit), trust, or political subdivision or agency of the state.

Administrative Provisions

Sec. 5. (a) This Act shall be administered by the State Highway Commission.
ART. 5415e-2

LANDS—PUBLIC

(b) The provisions of this Act are cumulative of all other Acts relating to the commission.

(c) Nothing in this Act shall diminish the duties, powers, and authorities of the School Land Board to manage the coastal public lands of the state.

Duties and Powers

Sec. 6. (a) The commission shall cooperate and work with the Department of the Army, all other appropriate federal and state agencies, navigation districts and port authorities, counties, and other appropriate persons to determine specifically what must be done by the State of Texas to satisfy federal local sponsorship requirements relating to the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway in a manner consistent with the policy of the State of Texas as stated in Section 2 of this Act.

(b) The commission shall fulfill, in a manner consistent with the policy of the state as stated in Section 2 of this Act, the local sponsorship requirements of the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway as agent for the state.

(c) Subject to the provisions of Subsection (g) of this section, the commission is authorized to acquire by gift, purchase, or condemnation any property or interest in property of any kind or character deemed necessary by the commission to fulfill its responsibilities under this Act as the nonfederal sponsor of the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway, including but not limited to easements and rights-of-way for dredge material disposal sites and easements and rights-of-way for channel expansion, relocation, or alteration, save and except oil, gas, sulphur, and other minerals of any kind or character which can be recovered without utilizing the surface of any such land for exploration, drilling, or mining purposes. All other provisions relating to the exercise of the power of eminent domain shall be in accord with the commission's existing powers and authority relating to eminent domain. However, the commission does not have the authority to condemn any submerged public lands under the jurisdiction of the School Land Board.

(d) Proposed actions and actions of the commission pursuant to this Act which have potential for significant environmental impact or effect upon coastal public lands, coastal marshes and similar areas, wildlife, and fisheries shall be coordinated with appropriate state and federal agencies having environmental, wildlife, and fisheries responsibilities.

(e) All agencies and political subdivisions of the State of Texas shall, within their legal authority and available resources, assist the commission in carrying out the purposes of this Act. All such agencies and political subdivisions are hereby authorized without any form of advertisement to make conveyance of title or rights and easements, owned by any such body, to any property needed by the commission to meet its responsibilities under this Act as the nonfederal sponsor of the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway.

(f) The commission, in cooperation with all appropriate persons, shall continually evaluate the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway as it relates to Texas. Such evaluations shall include an assessment of the importance of the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway, including an identification of direct and indirect beneficiaries; identification of principal problems and possible solutions to such problems, including estimated costs, economic benefits, and environmental effects; evaluation of the need for significant modifications to the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway; and specific recommendations for legislative actions that the commission believes to be in the best interest of the state in carrying out the policy of the state as declared in Section 2 of this Act. The results of this evaluation shall be published in a report to be presented to each regular session of the legislature.

(g) Prior to approval or implementation by the commission of any plan or project for acquisition or acquisition of any property or interest in property for any dredge material disposal site, or for the widening, relocation, or alteration of the main channel of the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway which requires the acquisition of any additional property or interest in property, to satisfy federal local sponsor requirements, the commission shall hold public hearings for the purpose of receiving evidence and testimony concerning the desirability of such proposed dredge material disposal site and of any such widening, relocation, or alteration of the main channel of the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway, prior to which hearing the commission shall publish notice of such plan, project, and hearing, at least once a week for three successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county seat of each county in which any such proposed dredge material disposal site or part thereof is located and in which the channel or any portion of the channel of the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway to be widened, relocated, or altered is located, of the date, time, and place of such hearing. If after such public hearing the commission shall determine that such proposed dredge material site plan or project or such proposed plan or project for widening, relocation, or alteration of the main channel of the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway, as the case may be, can be accomplished without unjustifiable waste of publicly or privately owned natural resources and without permanent substantial adverse impact on the environment, wildlife, or fisheries, the commission may then, upon its approval of such plan or project, proceed to implement such plan or project and acquire, in such manner as is provided in Section 6(e) of this Act, such additional property or interest in property necessary to satisfy federal local sponsorship requirements for implementation of such plans for such dredge material site or for... such widening, relocation, or alteration of the main channel of the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway.

Funding

Sec. 7. The legislature is hereby authorized to appropriate from the General Revenue Fund funds in the amount necessary to accomplish the purposes of this Act.

Saved from Repeal

This article was expressly saved from repeal by art. 1, § 2(b) of Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 2690, ch. 871, enacting the Natural Resources Code.

Art. 5415e-3. Coastal Wetlands Acquisition Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as Coastal Wetlands Acquisition Act.

Policy

Sec. 2. It is the declared policy of the state:

(a) to protect the property rights of those who sell interests in land to the state by fairly compensating such sellers therefor;

(b) to protect those coastal wetlands which are most essential to the public interest by acquiring fee and lesser interests in such coastal wetlands and managing them in a manner that will preserve and protect the productivity and integrity of such lands as coastal wetlands; and

(c) to assure that the state does not expend funds to acquire any coastal wetlands to which it already holds a valid title at the time of the expenditure.

Definitions

Sec. 3. For the purposes of this Act, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) “Acquiring agency” means the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

(b) “Certifying agency” means the General Land Office.

(c) “Coastal wetlands” means marshes and other areas of high biologic productivity where seawater is present during times other than and in addition to storms or hurricanes as defined by the Beaufort Wind Scale. “Coastal wetlands” shall not, however, include any areas seaward of the line of mean annual low spring tide, nor shall it include any mainland area where seawater is present only during storms or hurricanes as defined by the Beaufort Wind Scale. The presence at a given point of vegetation characteristic of marshes containing seawater shall be prima facie evidence that seawater is present at such point during times other than and in addition to storms or hurricanes as defined by the Beaufort Wind Scale.

(d) “Seaward” means the direction away from the shore and toward the body of water bounded by such shore.

(e) “Seawater” means any water containing a concentration of one-twentieth of one percent or more by weight of total dissolved inorganic salts derived from the marine waters of the Gulf of Mexico.

Duties and Authority of Acquiring Agency

Sec. 4. (a) The acquiring agency has the following duties and authorities:

(1) to accept gifts, grants, or devises of interest in land;

(2) to acquire, by purchase or condemnation, fee and lesser interests in the surface estate in coastal wetlands certified by the certifying agency as most essential to protection of the public interest, provided that in each instance in which an interest in land is acquired by the acquiring agency pursuant to this section, a sufficient interest shall be acquired to preserve and protect the productivity and integrity of such lands as coastal wetlands; and

(3) to manage interests in lands acquired pursuant to this section in a manner that will preserve and protect the productivity and integrity of such lands as coastal wetlands.

(b) This Act shall not be construed to authorize the condemnation of any interest in the mineral estate in any coastal wetland.

(c) The acquiring agency shall promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations as may be necessary to preserve and protect the productivity and integrity of such lands as coastal wetlands acquired pursuant to this Act. Such rules and regulations shall include regulations governing activities conducted on such lands in conjunction with mineral exploration, development, and production.

(d) If the acquiring agency seeks to condemn an interest less than the fee interest in the surface estate in any coastal wetland pursuant to this Act, the owner of such coastal wetland may demand that the acquiring agency instead seek condemnation of the fee interest in the surface estate in such coastal wetland. Upon such demand, the acquiring agency shall either:

(1) seek to condemn the fee interest in the surface estate in such coastal wetland; or

(2) cease all condemnation proceedings pursuant to this Act against such coastal wetland.
Art. 5415e-3

Agricultural Exemption

Sec. 5. Coastal wetlands used only for farming or ranching activities, including maintenance and repair of buildings, earthworks, and other structures, shall not be subject to any power of condemnation exercised pursuant to this Act. However, such exemption from condemnation shall terminate upon the receipt by any state or federal agency of an application for a permit, license, or other authorization to conduct upon such wetlands activities other than (1) farming and ranching activities, including irrigation and water well drilling, and (2) activities necessary to exploration, development, or production of the underlying mineral estate.

Duties and Authority of Certifying Agency

Sec. 6. (a) The certifying agency has the following duties and authorities:

(1) to certify to the acquiring agency those coastal wetlands which are most essential to the public interest in accordance with the criteria in this Act, to assign priorities for acquisition of interests in such coastal wetlands, and to revoke certification made pursuant to this section when it is in the public interest to do so; and

(2) to publicize the importance to the public interest of coastal wetlands in general, and of designated coastal wetlands in particular.

(b) A certification, assignment of priority for acquisition, or revocation of certification made pursuant to this Act shall not constitute a "contested case" within the definition, intent, and purpose of this Act, to assign priorities for acquisition of interests in such coastal wetlands, and to revoke certification made pursuant to this section when it is in the public interest to do so; and

(2) within 45 days of receipt of a certification from the Commissioner of the General Land Office, the commissioners court shall send to the Commissioner of the General Land Office their written recommendation concerning such certification.

(3) If the commissioners court of a county described in Subsection (c)(1) of this section agrees that the portion of the certified wetland within such county should be certified, or if the commissioners court does not submit recommendations to the Commissioner of the General Land Office within the time specified in Subsection (c)(2) of this section, then as to such portion of such wetlands, the certification shall continue in full force and effect.

(4) If the commissioners court of any county described in Subsection (c)(1) of this section recommends that the certified wetlands or any part of them within such county should not be certified, then such certification shall be revoked as to that part of the wetlands.

(5) If the Commissioner of the General Land Office wishes to contest a revocation of certification pursuant to Subsection (c)(4) of this section, he shall forward the certification to the governor, together with the recommendations of the commissioners courts thereon and such further information as the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall deem advisable.

(6) If the governor determines that any certification revoked pursuant to Subsection (c)(4) of this section should be reinstated in whole or in part, he shall so notify the Commissioner of the General Land Office within 60 days of receipt of the certification pursuant to Subsection (c)(5) of this section. Upon receipt of such notice from the governor, the Commissioner of the General Land Office may recertify such part of the wetlands to the acquiring agency, and such certification shall be in full force and effect.

Most Essential Coastal Wetlands Certification

Sec. 7. (a) In selecting and certifying those coastal wetlands most essential to the public interest, and in assigning priorities of acquisition to such coastal wetlands, the certifying agency shall consider the following criteria:

(1) whether such lands are coastal wetlands within the definition, intent, and purpose of this Act;

(2) whether the state owns such coastal wetlands or claims title to them, which title can be validated by bringing an appropriate action therefor in a court of law;

(3) whether the biological, geological, or physical characteristics of such coastal wetlands, including the interrelationship of such coastal wetlands with other coastal wetlands, are essential to the public interest;

(4) the degree to which such coastal wetlands are in danger of being altered, damaged, or destroyed, and the imminence of such danger; and

(5) the cost of acquiring such coastal wetlands.

(b) The legislature hereby declares that certifications, assignments of priority for acquisition, and revocations of certifications made pursuant to Section 5 of this Act are made only for the purpose of administering the provisions of this Act. No such certifications, assignments of priority for acquisition, or revocations of certification shall be grounds for an inference, or admissible in a court of law to prove, that any coastal wetland is of greater or lesser value than any other coastal wetland for any purpose other than administering the provisions of this Act.

(b) It is the declared policy of the state that the state should not duplicate the exercise of such authority by the corps of engineers, but should instead exercise such authority in lieu of the corps of engineers, so that no permit application is subject to duplicate levels of regulation.

Limitations
Sec. 4. (a) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing any state agency or political subdivision to regulate the discharge of dredged or fill material in the navigable waters of the state in any manner different from or inconsistent with the requirements of Section 404.

(b) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing any state agency or political subdivision to regulate the discharge of dredged or fill material in the navigable waters of the state:

(1) by the corps of engineers;

(2) by persons operating under contract with the corps of engineers;

(3) when the corps of engineers certifies that such discharge is incidental to a project undertaken by the corps of engineers or persons operating under contract with the corps of engineers, and that such incidental discharge was announced and reviewed at the same time and under the same conditions as such project; or

(4) by cities which own and operate deepwater port facilities, or by navigation districts or port authorities, or by persons operating under contract with such cities, navigation districts, or port authorities, when such discharges are part of or incidental to a navigation project to be paid for with public funds or when such navigation project is to be owned by such cities, navigation districts, or ports.

(c) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing any state agency or political subdivision to regulate the discharge of dredged or fill material in the navigable waters of the state in any manner unless and until an agreement as described in this Act is validly entered into and in effect.

(d) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing any state agency or political subdivision to exercise any authority under this Act except in accordance with an executive order of the governor.
Art. 5415e-4  LANDS—PUBLIC

Agreement

Sec. 5. (a) The governor is hereby authorized to enter into an agreement on behalf of the State of Texas, with the United States, acting through its authorized officials, under the terms of which the agency will regulate the discharge of dredged or fill material in the navigable waters of the state.

(b) The governor is expressly authorized to include whatever terms and conditions in such agreement he may deem to be in the best interest of the state, including provisions regarding the termination of such agreement.

(c) The authority of the governor under the Act to enter into such an agreement shall not be delegated.

(d) The legislature expressly finds that the provisions of this section are necessary to enable the governor to carry out his responsibilities under this Act.

Sec. 4. The governor is hereby designated as the officer of the state to approve or disapprove an application to the secretary of transportation to own, construct, or operate a deepwater port off the Texas Gulf Coast. The commissioner of the general land office is hereby designated the officer of the state charged with the administration, implementation, and coordination of the provisions of this Act relating to the determination by state or local agencies that such an application complies with state and local laws relating to environmental protection, land and water use, and coastal zone management.

Determination of Compliance with State and Local Law

Sec. 5. (a) Upon receipt of a copy of an application transmitted from the secretary of transportation pursuant to the federal Deepwater Port Act of 1974, 33 U.S.C.A. 1501 et seq., the governor shall immediately transmit a copy of the application to the commissioner of the general land office and to the Attorney General of Texas.

(b) If the governor determines that the application transmitted from the secretary of transportation is substantially similar to a previous application already reviewed under the terms of this Act, the governor may notify the secretary of transportation whether the governor approves or disapproves the application, and there shall be no further proceedings under this Act on such application.

(c) Within 15 days after the receipt of an application from the governor, the commissioner shall publish notice of the application in any official register of the State of Texas, in the newspaper of greatest general circulation in Travis County and in each of the five most populous counties in Texas, according to the latest United States census, and in a newspaper in the adjacent coastal county and in any county adjoining the adjacent coastal county in which such notice would not have otherwise been published under this subsection.

(d) Within 30 days after the receipt of an application from the governor, the attorney general shall determine and forward to the governor and to the commissioner a list of the state or local agencies which have jurisdiction to administer laws relating to environmental protection, land and water use, and coastal zone management, and also within whose boundaries are located facilities constituting a deepwater port, as defined by Section 3(5) herein.

(e) Upon receipt of the list of state or local agencies prepared by the attorney general pursuant to Subsection (c) of this section, the commissioner shall immediately transmit a copy of the application to each such state or local agency for review and determination of whether the application complies with the laws or regulations administered by such state or local agency.

(f) The state or local agency shall report such determination to the commissioner in writing within 60 days after its receipt of a copy of the application from the commissioner.

(g) If any state or local agency reports to the commissioner that the application is not in compliance, such agency shall set forth in detail the manner in which the application does not comply with any law or regulation administered by the agency and shall report to the commissioner how the application can be brought into compliance with the law or regulation involved. A copy of such report shall be forwarded by the commissioner to the applicant, and the applicant shall be entitled to respond in writing to the state or local agency which issued such report and to request that a public hearing be held by the commissioner on the provisions of the application determined by the state or local agency not to comply with state or local law.

(h) The failure of a state or local agency to forward a determination report to the commissioner within the time period established in Subsection (e) of this section shall constitute a presumption that the application complies with the law or regulations administered by that agency.

(i) One copy of the application shall be filed in the general land office and in the office of the county judge of the adjacent coastal county for public inspection and shall be available to the public for inspection or duplication during normal business hours. A person requesting a copy of the application may be charged a reasonable fee for duplicating and mailing costs. The applicant may be charged a reasonable fee to cover the costs of reproducing and mailing copies of applications to state and local agencies, unless the applicant provides the number of copies required by such agencies.

Hearings on the Application

Sec. 6. (a) As provided in Section 5(f) of this Act, an applicant shall be entitled to a public hearing on the provisions in his application which have been determined by a state or local agency not to be in compliance with the laws which they have jurisdiction to administer.

(b) Upon receipt of a request from an applicant for such a hearing, the commissioner shall publish notice of such hearing as provided in Section 5(b) of this Act. The notice shall describe the purpose of the hearing and the date, time, and place of the hearing. The date of the publication and of any personal notice of the hearing shall be not less than 10 days before the date set for the hearing.

(c) The commissioner may also hold a public hearing on the determination of compliance reports submitted to him by the state and local agencies. Notice of such hearing shall be given as provided by Subsection (b) of this section.

(d) The commissioner may consolidate any hearing held under this section with the hearing required by the federal Deepwater Port Act of 1974, 33 U.S.C.A. 1501 et seq., to be held in Texas by the secretary of transportation.
Art. 5415i  LANDS—PUBLIC  2214

(c) All hearings on the application shall be concluded not later than 120 days after the date on which the commissioner received the application from the governor; provided, however, that the commissioner shall be entitled to hold a hearing after such 120 day period if the federal hearing required to be held in Texas has not been held and the commissioner has determined and given notice that a hearing provided for in this section will be held in conjunction with the federal hearing.

(f) Notwithstanding Subsection (e) of this section, the commissioner shall be required to comply with the date provided in Section 7(a) for transmitting his report to the governor.

Report to the Governor

Sec. 7. (a) Within 150 days after the receipt of an application from the governor, the land commissioner shall transmit to the governor a report in the form of a written summary of the determination of compliance reports submitted by any state or local agency, together with the transcript and testimony from any public hearing held by the commissioner or any joint hearing held in the state with the secretary of transportation.

(b) If the commissioner's report contains a determination by a state or local agency that the application does not comply with a law relating to environmental protection, land and water use, or coastal zone management, the commissioner shall include in his report the manner in which the application does not comply and how the application can be brought into compliance.

(c) The failure of the commissioner to transmit his summary report to the governor within the time period established in Subsection (a) of this section shall constitute a presumption that the application complies with state and local law.

Action on the Application by the Governor

Sec. 8. (a) Upon receipt of the report from the commissioner, and not later than 45 days after the last public hearing held on the application by the secretary of transportation pursuant to Section 5(g) of the federal Deepwater Port Act of 1974, 33 U.S.C. 1501 et seq., the governor shall notify the secretary of transportation whether he approves or disapproves the application.

(b) If the governor concludes that the application does not comply with state laws relating to environmental protection, land and water use, and coastal zone management, he may disapprove the application. However, if he concludes that the application can be amended to comply with such laws, he may approve the application and shall notify the secretary of transportation of the manner in which the application does not comply and how the application can be brought into compliance with such laws.

(c) The governor shall transmit copies of his notification to the secretary, the applicant, the commissioner, and to the state and local agencies to whom were transmitted copies of the application by the commissioner pursuant to Section 5(d) herein.

Art. 5421c-13. Trades of Interests in Public Free School Fund Lands

Sec. 1. (a) The School Land Board in conjunction with the General Land Office is authorized to trade fee and lesser interests in Public Free School Fund Lands for fee and lesser interests in lands not dedicated to the Public Free School Fund upon decision by the School Land Board and the Commissioner of the General Land Office that such trade or trades are in the best public interest of the People of Texas. Such trade or trades may be made either for the purpose of aggregating sufficient acreage of contiguous lands to create a manageable unit; for acquiring lands having unique biological, geological, cultural, or recreational value; or to create a buffer zone for the enhancement of already existing public land, facilities, or amenities. Such trades shall be on an appraised value basis (such appraisal to be made by appraisers of the General Land Office and concurred in by the School Land Board, and such appraisal shall be conclusive proof of the value of the land). The trades shall be for land of at least equal value. Such trades shall be by a deed to be signed jointly by the Commissioner of the General Land Office and the Governor. Failure of the Governor to sign such a deed constitutes his veto of the proposed trade, and the proposed trade shall not be made.

(b) All lands acquired by trade under the authority of this Act shall be dedicated to the Public Free School Fund.

Sec. 1A. If the State of Texas retains the subsurface mineral rights to all oil, gas, and other minerals in public free school fund land traded under Section 1 of this Act, an unrestricted right of ingress to and egress from the land by the state and its lessees shall be retained for the purpose of exploration, development, and production of the oil, gas, and other minerals to which rights are retained by the state. The state is entitled to lease the subsurface mineral rights retained under this section in the same manner and under the same conditions as subsurface mineral rights in permanent school fund land in which the state owns the surface title and the subsurface mineral rights. A lessee of the subsurface mineral rights retained under this section is liable to the owner of the land for actual damages to the land that may occur as a result of exploration... for and development and production of the oil, gas, and other minerals to which rights are retained under this section. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this article, the School Land Board, in order to consummate a trade of equal value, is given the discretionary right to convey the surface estate and to reserve all the oil, gas, and other minerals with the surface owner acting as agent for the state under what is commonly known as the Relinquishment Act, thereby receiving one-half the bonus, rental, and royalty as agent for the state in leasing the land and for surface damages in the leasing of oil and gas. The surface owner shall also receive 40 percent of the bonus, rental, and royalty for leasing and as compensation for surface damages for all leases negotiated by such agent covering sulphur, coal, lignite, uranium, and potash as set out under Chapter 16, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 5421e–10, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).2

Sec. 2. In the event any such trade or trades be made, the School Land Board shall report each trade to the succeeding legislature, setting out such facts as warranted the trade or trades.

Sec. 3. The authority granted by this Act to trade Public Free School Fund Lands shall expire on December 31, 1978, and no trades shall be made after that date.

Sec. 2. (a) Before the end of each even-numbered year, the governor shall prepare and submit to the legislature a report on the organization and efficiency of state agencies.

(b) In preparing the report, the governor shall use the staff of the Governor’s Budget and Planning Office.

(c) In the report, the governor shall group state agencies into functional areas and shall include the following matters about the state agencies in each functional area;

(1) information regarding the efficiency with which the state agencies operate;

(2) recommendations regarding the reorganization of the state agencies and the consolidation, transfer, or abolition of their functions; and

(3) any other material relating to the organization or efficiency of state agencies that the governor considers necessary to include.

(d) The Legislative Budget Board shall coordinate the collection of information in this report.

Recommendations of Interagency Planning Councils

Sec. 3. (a) In preparing the report, the governor shall request and consider information from each interagency planning council regarding the efficiency of state agencies within the functional area represented by that interagency planning council and recommendations regarding the need for reorganization of state agencies within the functional area.

(b) Before submitting the report to the legislature, the governor shall present to each interagency planning council for review and comment the part of the proposed report dealing with the state agencies in the functional area represented by that interagency planning council, and the comments of each interagency planning council shall accompany the report when it is submitted to the legislature.

Art. 5429k. Sunset Act

Short Title

Sec. 1.01. This Act may be cited as the Texas Sunset Act.

Definitions

Sec. 1.02. In this Act:

(1) “State agency” means:

(A) an agency that is expressly made subject to this Act; or

(B) a department, commission, board, or other agency (except a university system or an institution of higher education as defined in Section 61.003, Texas Education Code, as amended) that:

(i) is created by statute after January 1, 1977;

(ii) is part of any branch of state government; and

Art. 5429k

(2) "Advisory committee" means a committee, council, commission, or other entity created by or pursuant to state law whose primary function is to advise a state agency.

(3) "Commission" means the Sunset Advisory Commission.

Sunset Advisory Commission

Sec. 1.03. (a) The Sunset Advisory Commission is created.

(b) The commission is composed of four members of the senate appointed by the lieutenant governor and four members of the house appointed by the speaker of the house. Each appointing authority may designate himself as one of the four appointees.

(c) Members appointed by the lieutenant governor and the speaker of the house serve four-year terms, with terms staggered so that the terms of one-half of the membership from each house expire every two years. When making the initial appointments, the lieutenant governor and the speaker of the house shall determine which of their respective appointees serve two-year terms and which serve four-year terms. If the lieutenant governor or the speaker serves on the commission, he continues to serve until resignation from the commission or until he ceases to hold the office.

(d) Once a person has served six years on the commission, he is not eligible for appointment to another term or part of a term. A member who has served more than half of a full term may not be appointed to an immediately succeeding term. These restrictions do not apply to the lieutenant governor or the speaker of the house.

(e) Each appointing authority shall make his appointments to the commission as soon as possible after final adjournment of the regular session.

(f) A member of the commission vacates his position on the commission when he ceases to be a member of the house from which he was appointed.

(g) A vacancy on the commission shall be filled for the unexpired part of the term in the same manner as the original appointment.

(h) The members of the commission elect a chairman every two years from among their members. The chairmanship must alternate between the house and senate.

(i) A quorum shall consist of at least six members, three of whom must be appointees of the lieutenant governor, and three of whom must be appointees of the speaker of the house. No final action or recommendation may be made unless approved by a record vote of a majority of the full membership of the appointees of the lieutenant governor and of the appointees of the speaker of the house.

(j) Each member of the commission is entitled to reimbursement from the appropriate fund of the member's respective house for the expenses he actually and necessarily incurs in performing the duties of the commission.

Staff

Sec. 1.04. (a) The personnel of the Performance and Evaluation Section, or its successor, of the Legislative Budget Board shall serve as the staff of the commission.

(b) In addition to the staff provided for under Subsection (a) of this section, the commission may employ other persons authorized by appropriations and necessary for administering the provisions of this Act.

Report on Advisory Committees

Sec. 1.05. Before October 30 of each calendar year, each state agency shall file an annual report with the Secretary of State to register all of its advisory committees and report the following information regarding the agency's advisory committees:

(1) the official names of the advisory committees;

(2) the statutory authority, if any, for the advisory committees;

(3) the advisory committees' objectives and functions;

(4) the period of time necessary for the advisory committees to carry out their objectives;

(5) a reference to the reports that the advisory committees have presented to the agency;

(6) the names and occupations of the current members of the advisory committees; and

(7) other available information that will assist the staff and the commission to determine the need for continuing the advisory committees.

Agency Report to Commission

Sec. 1.06. Before October 30 of the odd-numbered year before the year a state agency is abolished according to this Act, the agency shall report to the commission:

(1) information regarding the application to the agency of the criteria in Section 1.10 of this Act;

(2) information specified in Section 1.05 of this Act regarding each of the agency's advisory committees; and

(3) any other information that the agency considers appropriate or that is requested by the commission.

Commission Duties

Sec. 1.07. Before June 1 of the even-numbered year before the year a state agency and its advisory committees are abolished according to this Act, the commission shall:
(1) review and take action necessary to verify the reports submitted by the agency under Section 1.06 of this Act;
(2) consult the Legislative Budget Board, the Governor's Budget and Planning Office, the state auditor, and the comptroller of public accounts, or their successors, on the application to the agency of the criteria provided in Section 1.10 of this Act; and
(3) conduct a performance evaluation of the agency based on the criteria provided in Section 1.10 of this Act and prepare a written report, which is a public record.

Public Hearings

Sec. 1.08. Between June 1 and November 1 of the calendar year before the year a state agency and its advisory committees are abolished according to this Act, the commission shall conduct public hearings on but not limited to the application to the agency of the criteria provided in Section 1.10 of this Act, except that the commission may hold the public hearings before June 1 if the evaluation required by Section 1.07(3) of this Act has been completed and made available to the public.

Commission Report

Sec. 1.09. Before December 15 of the calendar year before the year a state agency and its advisory committees are abolished according to this Act, the commission shall present to the legislature and the governor a report on the agency and its advisory committees. In the report the commission shall include its specific findings with regard to each of the criteria set forth in Section 1.10 of this Act, its recommendations based on the matters set forth in Section 1.11 of this Act, and other information considered necessary by the commission for a complete evaluation of the agency.

Criteria for Review

Sec. 1.10. The staff and the commission shall consider the following criteria in determining whether a public need exists for the continuation of a state agency or its advisory committees or for the performance of the functions of the agency or its advisory committees:

(1) the efficiency with which the agency or advisory committee operates;
(2) an identification of the objectives intended for the agency or advisory committee and the problem or need which the agency or advisory committee was intended to address, the extent to which the objectives have been achieved, and any activities of the agency in addition to those granted by statute and the authority for these activities;
(3) an assessment of less restrictive or other alternative methods of performing any regulation that the agency performs which could adequately protect the public;
(4) the extent to which the advisory committee is needed and is used;
(5) the extent to which the jurisdiction of the agency and the programs administered by the agency overlap or duplicate those of other agencies and the extent to which the programs administered by the agency can be consolidated with the programs of other state agencies;
(6) whether the agency has recommended to the legislature statutory changes calculated to be of benefit to the public rather than to an occupation, business, or institution that the agency regulates;
(7) the promptness and effectiveness with which the agency disposes of complaints concerning persons affected by the agency;
(8) the extent to which the agency has encouraged participation by the public in making its rules and decisions as opposed to participation solely by those it regulates, and the extent to which the public participation has resulted in rules compatible with the objectives of the agency;
(9) the extent to which the agency has complied with applicable requirements of an agency of the United States or of this state regarding equality of employment opportunity and the rights and privacy of individuals;
(10) the extent to which changes are necessary in the enabling statutes of the agency so that the agency can adequately comply with the criteria listed in this section;
(11) the extent to which the agency issues and enforces rules relating to potential conflict of interests of its employees;
(12) the extent to which the agency complies with the “Open Records Act,” Chapter 424, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, as amended (Article 6252–17a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), and with the “Open Meetings Act,” Chapter 271, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6252–17, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes); and
(13) the impact in terms of federal intervention or loss of federal funds if the agency is abolished.

Recommendations

Sec. 1.11. In its report on a state agency, the commission shall:

(1) make recommendations on the abolition, continuation, or reorganization of each affected state agency and its advisory committees and on the need for the performance of the functions of the agency and its advisory committees;
(2) recommend appropriation levels for each state agency and advisory committee for which abolition or reorganization is recommended under Subdivision (1) of this section; and
(3) include drafts of legislation necessary to carry out the commission's recommendations under Subdivision (1) of this section.

Rules

Sec. 1.12. The commission shall adopt rules necessary to carry out this Act.

Abolition of Advisory Committees

Sec. 1.13. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, every advisory committee whose primary function is to advise a particular state agency is abolished on the date set for abolition of the agency unless the advisory committee is expressly continued by law.

Agencies Created in Future

Sec. 1.14. Every state agency created by law enacted after January 1, 1977, is subject to this Act and to this section except as otherwise expressly provided by the law creating the agency. A state agency created by law enacted in a fiscal biennium is abolished at the end of the sixth succeeding fiscal biennium unless continued by law.

Continuation by Law

Sec. 1.15. (a) During the regular session immediately preceding the abolition of a state agency or an advisory committee that is subject to this Act, the legislature by law may continue the agency or advisory committee for a period not to exceed 12 years.

(b) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit the legislature from terminating a state agency or advisory committee subject to this Act at a date earlier than that provided in this Act. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit the legislature from considering any other legislation relative to a state agency or advisory committee subject to this Act.

Legislative Consideration

Sec. 1.16. (a) No more than one state agency and its functions and advisory committees may be considered for continuation, transfer, or modification in a bill, except that when consolidation of agencies or advisory committees or their functions is proposed, only the agencies or advisory committees involved in the consolidation may be considered in a legislative bill.

(b) In a bill to continue a state agency, to transfer its functions, or to consolidate it with another agency, the affected agency or agencies shall be mentioned in the title of the bill.

After Termination

Sec. 1.17. (a) On abolition in the odd-numbered year, each state agency may continue in existence until September 1 of the next succeeding year for the purpose of concluding its business. Unless otherwise provided by law, abolition does not reduce or otherwise limit the powers or authority of each respective state agency during such concluding year. Upon the expiration of the one-year period after abolition each respective state agency is terminated and shall cease all activities.

(b) Any unobligated and unexpended appropriations of a state agency or advisory committee lapse on September 1 of the even-numbered year after abolishment of the agency or advisory committee.

(c) All money in a dedicated fund of an abolished state agency or advisory committee on September 1 of the even-numbered year after abolishment of the agency or advisory committee is transferred to the General Revenue Fund, except as provided in Subsection (f) of this section and as otherwise provided by law. The part of the law dedicating the money to a specific fund of an abolished agency becomes void on September 1 of the even-numbered year after abolishment of the agency.

(d) If an abolished state agency or advisory committee is funded in the General Appropriations Act for both years of the biennium, the abolished agency or advisory committee may not spend or obligate any of the money appropriated to it for the second year of the biennium, unless otherwise provided by law or rider in the appropriations bill.

(e) Property and records in the custody of a state agency or advisory committee on September 1 of the even-numbered year after abolishment of the agency or advisory committee are transferred to the State Board of Control, except that where an appropriate state agency is designated by the governor pursuant to Subsection (f) of this section, the property and records are transferred to the state agency so designated.

(f) The legislature recognizes the state's continuing obligation to pay bonded indebtedness incurred by any agency abolished by the terms of this Act, and it is not the intention of this Act to impair or impede the payment of bonded indebtedness in accordance with its terms. If an abolished state agency has remaining outstanding bonded indebtedness, the bonds remain valid and enforceable in accordance with their terms and subject to all applicable terms and conditions of the laws and proceedings authorizing the bonds, notwithstanding the abolishment of the agency that issued the bonds. The governor shall designate an appropriate state agency, which shall continue to carry out all covenants contained in the bonds and the proceedings authorizing them, including the issuance of bonds to complete the construction of projects, and shall provide payment from the sources of payment of the bonds in accordance with the terms of the bonds, whether from taxes, revenues, or otherwise, until the bonds and interest on the bonds are paid in full. All funds established by laws or proceedings authorizing the bonds shall remain with the State Treasurer or previously designated trustees, if so provided in the proceedings; if not so provided, the funds shall be transferred to the designated state agency.

Subpoena Power

Sec. 1.18. The commission may issue process to witnesses at any place in the state and compel their attendance and the production of books, records, papers, and other objects that may be necessary or proper for the purposes of the committee proceedings. The commission may issue attachments when necessary to obtain compliance with subpoenas or other process, which may be addressed to and served by any peace officer in this state. The chairman of the commission shall issue, in the name of the commission, the subpoenas that a majority of the commission may direct. In the event the chairman is absent, the designee of the chairman is authorized to issue subpoenas or any other process in the same manner as the chairman. Witnesses attending proceedings of the commission under process are entitled to the same mileage and per diem as allowed witnesses before a grand jury in this state. The testimony taken under subpoena must be reduced to writing and must be given under oath subject to the penalties of perjury.

Assistance of and Access to State Agencies

Sec. 1.19. (a) The commission may request the assistance of state agencies and officers, and they shall assist the commission when requested to do so.

(b) In carrying out their functions under this Act, the commission or its designated staff member may inspect the records, documents, and files of any state agency.

Relocation of Employees

Sec. 1.20. When an employee is displaced because of the abolishment, reorganization, or continuation of a state agency or its advisory committees, the agency and the Texas Employment Commission shall make a reasonable effort to relocate the displaced employee.

Saving Clause

Sec. 1.21. Except as otherwise expressly provided, abolition of a state agency does not affect rights and duties that matured, penalties that were incurred, civil or criminal liabilities that arose, or proceedings that were begun before the effective date of the abolition.

Art. 5434a. Application of Sunset Act

The Texas Library and Historical Commission is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the commission is abolished effective September 1, 1983.

Art. 5442c. Maintenance and Disposition of Certain County Records

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "County record" means any record required or authorized by law to be maintained in a county or precinct office or the office of district clerk.

(2) "Custodian" means the officer responsible for keeping a county record.

Sec. 2. (a) The state librarian shall direct the staff of the regional historical resource depository program in the preparation of a county records manual. Those preparing the manual shall consult with affected local officials and other interested persons.

(b) The manual shall list the various types of county records, state the minimum retention period prescribed by law for those records for which a minimum retention period is so prescribed, and prescribe a minimum retention period for all other county records except those subject to Section 8 of this Act. When the manual takes effect, those retention periods prescribed by it for county records for which no retention period is prescribed by law have the same effect as if they were prescribed by law.

(c) The manual also shall contain information to assist local officials in carrying out their functions under this Act, including model records schedules and implementation plans, and may prescribe rules consistent with this Act governing the disposition of obsolete county records.

(d) The manual has no legal effect until it is approved by a majority of the members of a review committee constituted as provided in Section 3 of this Act. The committee's approval is effective when a copy of the manual and a statement of its approval, signed and acknowledged by a majority of the members of the committee, is filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

(e) The state librarian may amend the manual from time to time. An amendment is effective when the state librarian files a certified copy of the amendment in the office of the Secretary of State, except that an amendment must first be approved by a review committee in the same manner as provided for approval of the original manual if it:

(1) prescribes a minimum retention period for a county record required by law to be kept and for which a minimum retention period is not prescribed by state law;

(2) changes a minimum retention period established by the manual; or

(3) changes the rules governing disposition of obsolete county records.

Review Committee

Sec. 3. (a) A review committee required under this Act is composed of:

(1) the state librarian, who is chairman of the committee;

(2) the attorney general;

(3) a representative of the Texas Historical Commission, appointed by the commission; and

(4) one county clerk; one district clerk; one county judge or county commissioner; one county auditor; one county, district, or criminal district attorney; one county treasurer; one sheriff; and one county assessor-collector of taxes, each of whom shall be appointed by the state librarian.

(b) Except as provided in Subsection (d) of this section, an officer is eligible for appointment to the review committee under Subdivision (4), Subsection (a) of this section only if:

(1) he has been nominated by a petition signed by at least 50 other officers of the type nominated; or

(2) he has been nominated by an organization representing officers of the type nominated that has as members at least 50 of those officers.

c) For the purposes of Subsection (b) of this section, county judges and commissioners are of the same type and county, district, and criminal district attorneys are of the same type.

d) At least 30 days before making an appointment under Subdivision (4), Subsection (a) of this section, the state librarian shall cause to be published in the Texas Register a notice of his intention to make the appointment. If the state librarian does not receive a nomination for a particular type of officer meeting the requirements of Subsection (b) of this section before the 31st day after the notice is published, a nomination is not required.

e) Service on a review committee by a public officer is an additional duty of his office.

(f) Members of the committee receive no compensation, but they are entitled to be paid their actual expenses incurred on committee business. The payment of the expenses of the attorney general and the representative of the Texas Historical Commission shall be paid from funds of the attorney general’s office and the commission, respectively. The payment of the expenses of other members of the committee shall be from funds of the Texas Library and Historical Commission.

g) A review committee ceases to exist when it completes the work for which it was constituted unless it is sooner discharged by the state librarian.

Records Schedule and Implementation Plan

Sec. 4. (a) A custodian of county records may prepare a records schedule applicable to his office and a plan for its implementation. On the request of the custodian, the state librarian and the staff of the regional historical resource depository program shall assist the custodian in this regard by furnishing him recommended model records schedules and implementation plans and other information.

(b) A records schedule, if prepared, shall contain an inventory of county records kept by the custodian. It shall prescribe a minimum retention period for each type of record. The retention period for each type of record must be at least as long as that prescribed by law or established in the county records manual.

c) If a custodian prepares a records schedule, he shall also prepare an implementation plan that prescribes, in conformity with this Act, the manner and procedure for disposing of records no longer needed on the expiration of the applicable retention period.

(d) The records schedule and implementation plan take effect when the custodian files a certified copy of the schedule and plan in the office of the county clerk. The custodian may amend an existing schedule or plan. An amendment takes effect when the custodian files a certified copy of it in the office of the county clerk.

Disposition of Obsolete Records

Sec. 5. (a) When the retention period expires for a county record subject to an approved records schedule and implementation plan, and in the judgment of the custodian the record is no longer needed, he may dispose of the record in accordance with the implementation plan, the county records manual, and the provisions of this Act.

(b) No county record may be destroyed pursuant to an implementation plan unless at least 60 days before the day it is destroyed the custodian gives written notice to the state librarian of his intention to destroy the record. The notice must sufficiently describe the record to enable the state librarian to determine if it should be transferred to the state library for preservation in a regional historical resource depository. If the state librarian requests that a record be transferred, the custodian shall comply with the request. Otherwise, the record may be destroyed.

c) County records may be destroyed only by the sale of them for recycling purposes or by shredding them or burning them. Regardless of the method used, adequate safeguards must be employed to ensure that they do not remain in their original state and are no longer recognizable as county records.

d) No later than the 10th day before records are destroyed, the custodian shall file and record with the county clerk a notice stating which records are to be destroyed, how they are to be destroyed, and the date they are to be destroyed. The same day the notice is filed, the county clerk shall post a copy of it in the same manner that notices of meetings are posted under Chapter 271, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6252–17, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

e) No person is civilly liable for the destruction of a record in accordance with this Act and an approved records schedule and implementation plan.

Transferral of Records to State Library

Sec. 6. (a) A custodian may transfer to the state library for preservation in a regional historical resource depository any county record that is not needed for administrative purposes.

(b) When a custodian transfers a county record to the state library under Subsection (a) of this section or under Subsection (b), Section 5 of this Act, the state librarian shall give the custodian a receipt for the record. The custodian is not required to make a microfilm or other copy of the record before transferring it.

(c) The state librarian may make certified copies of county records that have been transferred to the state library. Each certified copy shall state that it is a true and correct copy of the record in the state librarian's custody. A certified copy made under the authority of this subsection has the same force and effect for all purposes as a copy certified by the county clerk or other custodian as provided by law.

Microfilming of Records

Sec. 7. This Act does not require the microfilming of county records, but an implementation plan may include provision for microfilming of records in accordance with other state law.

Exceptions

Sec. 8. This Act does not permit the establishment of a retention period for:

1. any county record that affects the title to real property, other than a recorded lien that is no longer enforceable;
2. a will;
3. the minutes of a commissioners court; or
4. the pleadings or any order, decree, or judgment, or any instrument incorporated by reference in an order, decree, or judgment, in a civil case in a court of record.

Purpose

Sec. 1. The purpose of this article is to enable the Texas State Library, the Central Education Agency, the State Commission for the Blind, volunteer organizations involved in the production of Braille or recorded materials for the blind, the Library of Congress, and related types of organizations to work together more closely and effectively, with minimum cost, through establishing a comprehensive central state depository for Braille, large print, slow speed records and machines, tape recordings and tape players, and related forms of communicative media. It is the intent of this article to allow various agencies and organizations interested in and responsible for such services to work together cooperatively in one facility, without requiring one central management.

CHAPTER ONE. JUDGMENT LIENS

Article 5449(a). Discharge of Judgments and Judgment Liens Against Bankrupts [NEW].

Art. 5449(a). Discharge of Judgments and Judgment Liens Against Bankrupts

Application for Discharge and Cancellation of Judgment and Lien

Sec. 1. At any time after one year has elapsed since a bankrupt or debtor has been discharged from his debts, before or after the effective date of this Act, pursuant to the acts of Congress relating to bankruptcy, the bankrupt or debtor, or his, her, or its receiver, trustee, or any other interested person, including a corporation, may apply, upon proof of the discharge of the bankrupt or debtor, to the court in which a judgment was rendered against the bankrupt or debtor for an order directing the discharge and cancellation of the judgment, any abstract or abstracts of said judgment, and the lien represented thereby.

Order of Discharge and Cancellation: Entry; Effect; Recording

Sec. 2. If it appears upon the hearing that the bankrupt or debtor has been discharged from the payment of the obligation or debt represented by the judgment, the court shall enter an order of discharge and cancellation of said judgment and any abstracts of said judgment, which order of discharge shall be entered upon the docket of the court. Said order of discharge shall constitute a release, discharge, and cancellation of said judgment and any unsatisfied judgment liens represented by all abstracts of said judgment then or thereafter recorded in the judgment lien records of a county in which an abstract of judgment has been or is thereafter recorded in order to discharge and cancel said abstract of judgment in said county.

Notice of Application for Discharge: Service; Publication

Sec. 3. Notice of said application for discharge, accompanied by copies of the papers upon which it is made, shall be served on the judgment creditor or his attorney of record in the action in which said judgment was rendered, in the manner prescribed for service of a notice in an action, if the residence or place of business of the judgment creditor, or of his attorney, is known. Upon proof by affidavit that the address of neither the judgment creditor nor his attorney is known, and that the address of neither can be ascertained after due diligence, or that the judgment creditor is a nonresident of this state, and his attorney is dead, or removed from the state, or cannot be found within the state, a judge or justice of the court may by order direct that the notice of the application be published in a newspaper designated in the order once a week for not more than three consecutive weeks. Such publication, shown by the affidavit of the publisher, shall be sufficient service upon the judgment creditor of the application.

Judgment as Lien on Real Property

Sec. 4. III. MENTALLY RETARDED PERSONS ACT [NEW]

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Short Title
Sec. 1. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the Mentally Retarded Persons Act of 1977.

Purposes
Sec. 2. (a) It is the public policy of the state that mentally retarded persons should have the opportunity to develop to the fullest extent possible their potential for becoming productive members of society. Therefore, it is the purpose of this Act to provide and assure a continuum of quality services to meet the needs of all mentally retarded persons in this state. The responsibility placed upon the state shall not in any way replace or impede parental rights and responsibilities or terminate the activities of those persons, groups, and associations that advocate for and assist mentally retarded persons.

(b) The legislature recognizes that the preservation and promotion of home-living situations where feasible is desirable. When home-living situations are not possible and placement in a residential facility for mentally retarded persons is necessary, the legislature declares that those persons must be admitted in accordance with basic due process requirements, giving due consideration to parental desires where possible, to a facility which provides habilitative training for the person's condition, which fosters the personal development of the resident and enhances the person's ability to cope with the environment.

(c) Recognizing that persons have been denied rights solely on the basis of mental retardation, the legislature seeks to educate the general public to the fact that mentally retarded persons who have not been adjudicated incompetent and for whom a guardian has not been appointed by a due process proceeding in a court of law have the same rights and responsibilities enjoyed by all citizens of Texas. The legislature urges all citizens to assist mentally retarded persons in acquiring and maintaining their rights and in participating in community life as fully as possible.

The departmental facility or the community center shall develop a plan for appropriate programs or placement in programs or facilities approved or operated by the department. These programs or placements shall be suited to the needs of the proposed client and shall be consistent with the rights guaranteed in previous subchapters of this Act. (b) The superintendent or director files or causes to be filed an application for judicial commitment. For purposes of this Act, the county in which the facility is located shall be deemed as the county of residence of the proposed resident; and

(c) Pending a final determination on the application, the court may, upon a finding of good cause, issue an order of protective custody, ordering the resident to remain in the facility where he was voluntarily admitted, or other suitable place designated by the court as provided in Subsection (k) of Section 37 of this Act.

Commitment to a Residential Care Facility

Sec. 37. (a) No person shall be committed to a residential care facility under the provisions of this Act except pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(4) a short and plain statement explaining the inappropriateness of admission to less restrictive services.

(h) A copy of the summary report and recommendations of the diagnosis and evaluation team, if completed, shall be included in the application.

(i) On the filing of the application, the court shall immediately set a date for a hearing to determine the appropriateness of the commitment of the proposed resident to a residential care facility. The court shall also order an immediate comprehensive diagnosis and evaluation of the proposed resident unless such a comprehensive diagnosis and evaluation has been completed or updated within six months prior to the date of the scheduled hearing.

(j) Copies of the application, notice of the time and place of the hearing, and if appropriate, the order for the comprehensive diagnosis and evaluation shall be served on the proposed resident or his representative, the parent of a minor, guardian of the person, and the department not less than 10 days before the hearing. (k) If the county court in which an application has been filed in accordance with this section finds, pursuant to certificates filed with the court, that the proposed resident is believed to be mentally retarded and is likely to cause injury to himself or others if not immediately restrained, the judge may order any health or peace officer to take the proposed resident into protective custody and immediately transport him to a designated residential care facility when space is available or to a place deemed suitable by a county health officer, and detain him for a period not to exceed 20 days pending order of the court. No person may be detained in protective custody in a nonmedical facility used for the detention of persons charged with or convicted of a crime, except because of and during an extreme emergency and in no case for a period longer than 24 hours. The county health officer shall see that a person held in protective custody receives proper care and medical attention pending removal to a residential care facility. The head of a facility in which a person is held under this subsection shall discharge such person within 20 days if the court has not issued further orders; provided, however, if the head of such facility believes the person is dangerous to himself or others, he shall immediately so advise the court which issued the order of protective custody.

(l) If the proposed resident cannot afford counsel, the court shall appoint an attorney not less than 10 days before the hearing. An attorney appointed pursuant to this section shall be entitled to a reasonable fee to be paid from the general fund of the county in which the proceeding is brought. In all cases the proposed resident’s attorney shall represent the rights and legal interests of the proposed resident regardless of who may initiate the proceeding or pay the attorney’s fees.

(m) A full hearing on the application shall be held as soon as practicable after the application is filed in accordance with the following procedures:

(1) The hearing shall be open to the public unless the proposed resident or his representative requests that the hearing be closed and the court determines there is good cause therefor.
(2) Any party to the proceedings may demand a jury, or the court on its own motion may order a jury. The Texas Rules of Civil Procedure shall apply to the selection of the jury, the court’s charge to the jury, and all other aspects of the proceedings and trial except when inconsistent with the provisions of this section.
(3) The proposed resident shall have the right to be present throughout the entire proceeding. If the court shall determine that the presence of the proposed resident would result in harm to the proposed resident, then the court may waive the requirement of this subsection in writing, clearly stating the basis for the determination.
(4) The proposed resident shall be represented by counsel and be provided the right and opportunity to confront and cross-examine all witnesses. The parent of a minor or guardian of the person may also be represented by counsel.
(5) The usual rules of evidence shall apply. The results of the current diagnosis and evaluation shall be presented in evidence.
(6) The party who filed the application shall prove beyond a reasonable doubt that long-term placement of the proposed resident in a residential care facility is appropriate.
(7) In all cases, the court shall promptly report in writing its decision and findings of fact.
(n) If the court determines that long-term placement in a residential care facility is inappropriate, the court shall enter a finding to that effect, dismiss the application, and, if appropriate, recommend application for admission to voluntary services pursuant to Sections 32, 33, and 34 of this Act.

(o) If the court determines that long-term placement in a residential care facility is appropriate, the court shall order commitment of the proposed resident for care, treatment, and training to a community center or the department when space is available in a residential care facility, and the court shall immediately forward a copy of the commitment order to the department or community center.

(p) Any party shall have the right to appeal the judgment of the court to the appropriate court of civil appeals, and such appeals, if any, shall be controlled by the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. Appeals pursuant to this section shall be given a preference setting. The county court may grant a stay of the commitment pending appeal.

(q) In no case shall an order for commitment be considered an adjudication of mental incompetency.

(r) When a resident committed to a residential care facility pursuant to the provisions of this section is absent from the assigned facility without permission from the proper authority, the superintendent or director of the facility may immediately issue an order authorizing any peace officer to detain the resident. When a peace officer takes a resident into custody, he shall immediately notify the superintendent or director. When requested by the superintendent or director, the peace officer shall cause the resident to be returned promptly to the assigned facility.

SUBCHAPTER I. TRANSFER AND DISCHARGE OF CLIENTS

Transfer and Discharge

Sec. 38. Transfer and discharge of clients shall be made only in accordance with the rules and regulations of the department and provisions of this subchapter. This subchapter shall not apply to transfers for emergency medical, dental, or psychiatric care for a period of time not to exceed 30 consecutive days, nor shall it apply to a voluntary withdrawal of a client from mental retardation services. This subchapter shall not apply to a discharge by a superintendent or director on the grounds that a person is not mentally retarded based upon a comprehensive diagnosis and evaluation, in which case a client shall be discharged without further hearings; provided, however, that the administrative hearing to contest the comprehensive diagnosis and evaluation provided for in Section 31 shall be available.

Sec. 39. When a service provider finds that placement of a client in a facility is no longer appropriate to the person’s individual needs or that the client can be better treated and habilitated in another facility, the service provider shall transfer or discharge the client pursuant to this subchapter.

Request of Client, Parent, Guardian

Sec. 40. A client or the parent of a minor or guardian of the person may request a transfer or discharge, and the service provider shall determine the appropriateness of the requested transfer or discharge. If such request is denied, the administrative hearing referred to in Section 41 shall be available.

Right to Administrative Hearing

Sec. 41. (a) A client shall not be transferred to another facility or discharged from any mental retardation services under this subchapter unless provided with a prior opportunity to request and receive an administrative hearing to contest the proposed transfer or discharge.

(b) No transfer of a client from one facility to another shall occur without prior approval and knowledge of the parents or guardian of the client.

Notice

Sec. 42. The client and the parent or guardian shall be given 30 days notice of the proposed transfer or discharge under this subchapter. The client and parent or guardian shall also be informed of the right to an administrative hearing for the purpose of contesting the proposed transfer or discharge.

Hearing to be Held

Sec. 43. If the client, parent of a minor, or guardian of the person wishes to contest the proposed or denied transfer or discharge, an administrative hearing shall be provided in accordance with the requirements of this section:

(a) The hearing shall be held as promptly as possible within 30 days and in a convenient location and with reasonable notice;

(b) The client, parent of a minor, guardian of the person, and the superintendent shall have the right to be present and represented at the hearing;

(c) The client, parent of a minor, and guardian of the person shall have reasonable access at a reasonable time prior to the hearing to any records concerning the client on which the proposed action may be based;

(d) Evidence shall be presented, which shall include oral and written testimony;

(e) In all cases the hearing officer shall promptly report his decision to the parties in writing, including findings of fact and the basis for those findings;

(f) Any party to such hearing shall have the right to appeal without the necessity of filing a motion for rehearing with the hearing officer. The appeal shall be brought in the county court of Travis County or the county in which the proposed client resides. The appeal shall be by trial de novo and shall be given a preference setting over all other cases;

(g) The decision of the hearing officer shall be final within 30 days after the date of the decision, unless a party files an appeal within such time pursuant to Subsection (f). The filing of an appeal suspends the decision of the hearing officer, and no party may take any action based on such decision. If no appeal is filed from a final order that the request for transfer or discharge should be granted, the superintendent shall proceed with such transfer or discharge. If no appeal is filed from a final order that the request for transfer or discharge should be denied, the client shall remain in the same program or facility where he is presently receiving services.

Alternative, Follow-up Supportive Services

Sec. 44. The department shall provide appropriate alternative or follow-up supportive services consistent with available resources. Provision of alternative or follow-up supportive services shall be made by agreement between the department and the client, parent of a minor, or guardian of the person, and shall be consistent with the rights guaranteed in Subchapters C, D, and E of this Act. Placement in a residential care facility, under the provisions of this Act, other than by transfer from another residential care facility shall be made only pursuant to Sections 34 and 37 of this Act.

Leave, Furlough

Sec. 45. The superintendent or director of a residential care facility, shall have the authority to grant or deny a resident a leave of absence or furlough.

Transfer to Mental Hospitals

Sec. 46. (a) Voluntary Residents. No voluntary resident shall be transferred to a state mental hospital for other than the emergency care provided for in Section 38 of this Act without legally adequate consent to such transfer.

(b) The superintendent or director of a residential care facility shall have the authority according to the procedures of this subchapter to transfer a resident committed pursuant to Section 37 of this Act to a state mental hospital under the control and management of the department for mental health care when an examination of the resident by a licensed physician indicates symptoms of mental illness to the extent that care, treatment, control, and rehabilitation in a state mental hospital would be in the best interest of the resident.

(c) For purposes of this Act, upon transfer of a court-committed resident to a state mental hospital, the director of the state mental hospital to which the resident was transferred shall immediately cause an evaluation of the resident's condition to be made. If at any time such an evaluation reveals that continued hospitalization is necessary for a period in excess of 30 days, the director shall promptly initiate appropriate court-ordered transfer proceedings in accordance with this section. In no event shall a resident transferred from a residential care facility to a state mental hospital remain in said hospital for more than 30 consecutive days unless such resident is transferred to the hospital under the provisions of this section.

(d) If a court-committed resident of a residential care facility requires hospitalization in excess of 30 consecutive days, the court transfer referred to in Subsection (c) above shall be accomplished in the following manner. The director of the state mental hospital shall request an order of transfer to the state mental hospital from the court which originally committed the resident to the residential care facility. In support of such request, the director of the state mental hospital shall forward Certificates of Medical Examination for Mental Illness as described in Article 5547–32 of the Texas Mental Health Code, as amended (Articles 5547–1 to 5547–204, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), completed by two physicians stating that the resident is mentally ill and requires observation and/or treatment in a mental hospital. Upon receipt of the director's request and the certificates of medical examination, the committing court shall set a date for a hearing on the proposed transfer. At least seven days prior to the date of the hearing, a copy of the transfer request and the notice of the hearing shall be personally served on the proposed patient. If the patient is a minor, notice shall also be served on his parents. If the patient has been declared to be incompetent under the Probate Code and a guardian for his person has been appointed, notice shall also be served on the guardian. A jury shall be had unless a waiver of trial by jury is made in writing under oath by the adult resident, his parent if a minor, or his guardian of the person. Notwithstanding the executed waiver, the jury shall determine the issues in the case if jury trial is demanded by the adult resident, his parent if a minor, his guardian of the person, or by his attorney at any time prior to determination of the hearing.

The county judge may hold a hearing on the petition at any suitable place within the county, but such hearing should be held in a physical setting not likely to have a harmful effect on the condition of the resident. The resident shall not be denied the right to be present at the hearing, although the court may dispense with the presence of the resident if it is determined by the court to be in the resident’s best interest. The hearing shall be open unless the court finds it in the best interests of the resident that the hearing be closed and the court obtains the consent of the adult resident, his parent if a minor, his guardian of the person, and his attorney for the closing of the hearing. At least two physicians, at least one of whom is a psychiatrist, who have examined the resident within the 15 days immediately preceding the hearing shall testify at the hearing. No person shall be transferred under this section to a mental hospital except upon the basis of competent medical or psychiatric testimony. The court or jury as the case may be shall make the determination:

1. whether the resident is mentally ill,
2. whether the resident requires a transfer to a state mental hospital for treatment for his own welfare and protection or the protection of others.

If the court or jury, as the case may be, finds that the patient is mentally ill and requires treatment in a state mental hospital for his own welfare and protection or the protection of others, the court shall issue an order approving the transfer of the resident to the state mental hospital.

(e) If the resident no longer requires treatment in a state mental hospital or a residential care facility, he shall be discharged. If he no longer requires treatment in a state mental hospital but requires treatment in a residential care facility, the superintendent or director of the residential care facility from which the resident is transferred shall be responsible for the immediate return of the resident to the residential care facility upon notification by the director of the mental hospital that hospitalization is no longer necessary or appropriate and that care in a residential care facility is required. If the resident has been transferred by a court to the state mental hospital under the provisions of this Act, the transfer to the residential care facility shall be made in accordance with the following provisions. The head of the state mental hospital shall forward a certificate evidencing that the resident is no longer in need of hospitalization in a state mental hospital but is still in need of care in a residential care facility due to a continuing diagnosis of mental retardation. The head of the state mental hospital shall request that the resident be transferred to a residential care facility. Such requested transfer shall be made only with the approval of the judge of the committing court by the entry of an order approving such transfer, in accordance with the provisions of Article 5547-75A of the Texas Mental Health Code.

Discharge from Residential Care Facility—Notice to Court

Sec. 47. On discharge of a resident committed pursuant to Section 37 of this Act, the department shall notify the committing court.

Habeas Corpus

Sec. 48. Nothing in this subchapter shall in any way alter or limit the right of a resident to a writ of habeas corpus.

Admission and Commitments Under Prior Law

Sec. 49. (a) Mentally retarded persons admitted or committed to facilities under the jurisdiction of the department under law previously in force may remain in the residential care facility unless and until such time as necessary and appropriate alternate placement is found or until such time as they can be admitted or committed to a facility under the provisions of this Act if such readmission or commitment is necessary to meet the due process requirements of this Act.

(b) Except as hereinafter provided, a mentally retarded person voluntarily admitted to a residential care facility under laws previously in force shall be discharged within 96 hours of receipt by the superintendent or director of a written request from the person on whose application the mentally retarded person was admitted, or upon his own request. If, however, the superintendent or director deems the person’s condition to be such that the person cannot be discharged with safety to himself or with safety to the general public, the superintendent or director may forthwith file or cause to be filed in the county in which the residential care facility is located an application for commitment under Section 37 of this Act. Pending a final determination of the application for commitment, the court may upon showing of good cause order the mentally retarded person placed in protective custody in the residential care facility as provided for in Subsection (k) of Section 37 of this Act.

person and records relating to the diagnosis,

(d) The committee shall present an annual report

SUBCHAPTER K. CONFIDENTIALITY OF RECORDS

Confidentiality of Records

Sec. 57. (a) Records of the identity, diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment of any person which are maintained in connection with the performance of any program or activity relating to mental retardation shall be confidential and disclosed only for the purposes and under the circumstances expressly authorized under Subsection (b) of this section.

(b) The content of any record referred to in Subsection (a) of this section may be disclosed in accordance with the prior written consent of the person with respect to whom such record is maintained, or parent if such person is a minor, or guardian if the person has been adjudicated incompetent to manage his personal affairs, but only to such extent, under the circumstances, and for the purposes as may be allowed under the regulations prescribed pursuant to Subsection (b) of this section. The content of any record referred to in Subsection (a) of this section is to be made available upon the request of any person thought to be mentally retarded upon whose behalf the record was made unless the qualified professional responsible for supervising the client's habilitation states in a signed written statement that it would not be in the best interest of the person in question.
However, the parent of a minor or guardian of the person shall have access to the contents of any record referred to in Subsection (a) of this section.

(c) Whether or not the person with respect to whom any given record referred to in Subsection (a) follows:

(1) to medical personnel to the extent necessary to meet a bona fide medical emergency;

(2) to qualified personnel for the purpose of management audits, financial audits, program evaluation, or research approved by the department, but such personnel may not identify, di-services in any report of such research, audit, or

(3) if authorized by an appropriate order of a court of competent jurisdiction granted after application showing good cause therefor. In assessing good cause the court shall weigh the public interest and the need for disclosure against the injury to the person receiving services. On the granting of the order, the court, in determining the extent to which any disclosure of all or any part of any record is necessary, shall impose appropriate safeguards against unauthorized disclosure; and

(4) to personnel legally authorized to conduct investigations concerning complaints of abuse or denial of rights of mentally retarded persons.

(d) Except as authorized by a court order granted under Subsection (e)(3) of this section, no record referred to in Subsection (a) of this section may be used to initiate or substantiate any criminal charges against a person receiving services or to conduct any investigation of a person receiving services.

(e) The prohibitions of this section continue to apply to records concerning any individual who has received services irrespective of when the person received services.

(f) The prohibitions of this section apply to any interchange of records between governmental agencies or persons, except for interchanges of information necessary for delivery of services to clients or for payment for mental retardation services as defined in this Act.

(g) A person who receives information deemed confidential by this section, other than the person thought to be mentally retarded on whose behalf the records are made, the parent of a minor, or guardian of the person shall not disclose the information except to the extent that disclosure is consistent with the authorized purpose for which the information was first obtained.

(h) The department shall prescribe regulations to carry out the purposes of this section. These regulations may contain such definitions and may provide for such safeguards and procedures as in the judgment of the department are necessary or proper to effectuate the purposes of this section, to prevent circumvention or evasion thereof, or to facilitate compliance therewith.

(i) Nothing contained in this subchapter shall prevent a qualified professional from disclosing the current physical and mental condition of a mentally retarded person to his or her parent, guardian, relatives, or friends.

Other agencies given legislative authority for providing all persons education, support, related services, rehabilitation, and other services shall cooperate with the department in carrying out its responsibilities under this Act. (d) Unpaid charges for support and maintenance accruing after the effective date of this Act due by parents for the support and maintenance of mentally retarded persons who are minors and residents in residential care facilities operated by the department shall be a claim in favor of the state for such support and maintenance, and shall constitute a lien against the parents' property and estate, but shall not constitute a lien against any other estate or property of the mentally retarded person.

(e) With respect to a mentally retarded person who is a resident in a residential care facility operated by the department, the cost of his support and maintenance may be determined under rules and regulations adopted by the department provided that total charges from all sources for support and maintenance shall not exceed the actual cost of such support and maintenance, and the costs determined under such rules and regulations shall constitute a claim by the state against the entire estate or any property of the mentally retarded person including but not limited to any share he may have by gift, descent, or devise in his parents' estates or any other person's estate, except as provided in Subsection (g) of this section.

(g) For the purposes of this subchapter no portion of the corpus or income of a trust or trusts, with an aggregate principle amount not to exceed $50,000, of which a mentally retarded person is a beneficiary shall be considered to be the property of such mentally retarded person or his estate, and no portion of the corpus or income of such trust shall be liable for the support and maintenance of such mentally retarded person regardless of his age.

Fees for Services

Sec. 62. The department shall charge reasonable fees to cover costs for services provided to nonindigent persons. It shall provide services free of charge to indigent persons.

SUBCHAPTER O. PENALTIES AND REMEDIES

(e) This Section does not limit the authority of persons authorized to apprehend offenders to secure the custody of an alleged offender until proper authority may be notified.

Restraint of Persons Charged With Offenses

Sec. 10. Any person subject to this Code charged with an offense under this Code shall be ordered into arrest or confinement, as circumstances may require; but when charged with only an offense normally tried by a summary court-martial, such person shall not ordinarily be placed in confinement. When any person subject to this Code is placed in arrest or confinement prior to trial, immediate steps shall be taken to inform him of the specific wrong of which he is accused and to try him or to dismiss the charges and release him. Persons confined other than in a guardhouse, whether before, during, or after trial by a military court, shall be confined in civil jails.

Reports and Receiving of Prisoners

Sec. 11. (a) No provost marshal, commander of a guard, master at arms, warden, keeper, or officer of a city or county jail or any other jail, designated under Section 10 of this Code, may refuse to receive or keep any prisoner committed to his charge, when the committing person furnishes a statement, signed by him, of the offense charged against the prisoner.

(b) Every commander of a guard, master at arms, warden, keeper, or officer of a city or county jail or of any other jail, designated under Section 10 of this Code, to whose charge a prisoner is committed shall, within 24 hours after that commitment or as soon as he is relieved from guard, report to the commanding officer of the prisoner the name of the prisoner, the offense charged against him, and the name of the person who ordered or authorized the commitment.

Punishment Prohibited Before Trial

Sec. 12. Reserved.

Sec. 13. Subject to Section 57 of this Code, no person, while being held for trial or the result of trial, may be subjected to punishment or penalty other than arrest or confinement upon the charges pending against him, nor shall the arrest or confinement imposed upon him be any more rigorous than the circumstances require to insure his presence, but he may be subjected to minor punishment during that period for infractions of discipline.

Delivery of Offenders to Civil Authorities

Sec. 14. (a) Under such regulations as may be prescribed under this Code a person subject to this Code who is on active state duty who is accused of an offense against civil authority may be delivered, upon request, to the civil authority for trial.

(b) When delivery under this Section is made to any civil authority of a person undergoing sentence of a court-martial, the delivery, if followed by conviction in a civil tribunal, interrupts the execution of the sentence of the court-martial, and the offender, after having answered to the civil authorities for his offense, shall, upon the request of competent military authority, be returned to military custody for the completion of his sentence.

SUBCHAPTER III. NON-JUDICIAL PUNISHMENT

Sec. 15. (a) Under such regulations as the Governor may prescribe, limitations may be placed on the powers granted by this Section with respect to the kind and amount of punishment authorized, the categories of commanding officers and warrant officers exercising command authorized to exercise those powers, the applicability of this Section to an accused who demands trial by court-martial and the kinds of courts-martial to which the case may be referred upon such a demand. However, except in the case of a member attached to or embarked in a vessel, punishment may not be imposed upon any member of the state military forces under this Section if the member has, before the imposition of such punishment, demanded trial by court-martial in lieu of such punishment. Under similar regulations, rules may be prescribed with respect to the suspension of punishments authorized hereunder. If authorized by regulations of the Governor, the Governor or an officer of general rank in command may delegate his powers under this Section to a principal assistant. If disciplinary punishment other than admonition or reprimand is to be imposed, the accused shall be afforded the opportunity to be represented by defense counsel having the qualifications prescribed under Section 27(b), if available. Otherwise, the accused shall be afforded the opportunity to be represented by any available commissioned officer of his choice. The accused may also employ civilian counsel of his own choosing at his own expense. In all proceedings, the accused is allowed 3 duty days, or longer on written justification, to reply to the notification of intent to impose punishment under this Section.

(b) Subject to subsection (a) of this Section, any commanding officer may, in addition to or in lieu of admonition or reprimand, impose one or more of the following disciplinary punishments for minor offenses without the intervention of a court-martial:

(1) upon officers of his command;
   (A) restriction to certain specified limits with or without suspension from duty, for not more than 30 days;
   (B) if imposed by the Governor, or an officer of general rank in command;
      (i) arrest in quarters for not more than 30 days;
      (ii) forfeiture of not more than one-half of 1 month's pay per month for 2 months or a fine of not more than $75;
      (iii) restriction to certain specified limits, with or without suspension from duty, for not more than 60 days;
      (iv) detention of not more than one-half of one month's pay per month for 3 months;
   (2) upon other personnel of his command;
      (A) if imposed upon a person attached to or embarked in a vessel, confinement for not more than 3 days;
      (B) correctional custody for not more than 7 days;
      (C) forfeiture of not more than 7 days pay or a fine of not more than $10;
      (D) reduction to the next inferior pay grade, if the grade from which demoted is within the promotion authority of the officer imposing the reduction or any officer subordinate to the one who imposes the reduction;

(E) extra duties including fatigue or other duties, for not more than 30 days, which need not be consecutive, and for not more than 2 hours per day, holidays included;
(F) restriction to certain specified limits, with or without suspension from duty for not more than 14 days;
(G) detention of not more than 14 days pay;
(H) if imposed by an officer of the grade of major or above:
   (i) the punishment authorized under subsection (b)(2)(A) of this Section;
   (ii) correctional custody for not more than 30 days;
   (iii) forfeiture of not more than one-half of 1 month's pay per month for 2 months or a fine of not more than $75;
   (iv) reduction to the lowest or any intermediate pay grade, if the grade from which demoted is within the promotion authority of the officer imposing the reduction or any officer subordinate to the one who imposes the reduction, but an enlisted member in a pay grade above E-4 may not be reduced more than 2 pay grades;
   (v) extra duties, including fatigue or other duties, for not more than 45 days which need not be consecutive and for not more than 2 hours per day, holidays included;
   (vi) restriction to certain specified limits with or without suspension from duty, for not more than 60 days;
   (vii) detention of not more than one-half of 1 months pay per month for 3 months. Detention of pay shall be for a stated period of not more than 1 year but if the offender's term of service expires earlier, the detention shall terminate upon that expiration. No 2 or more of the punishments of arrest in quarters, correctional custody, extra duties, and restriction may be combined to run consecutively in the maximum amount imposable for each. Whenever any of those punishments are combined to run consecutively, there must be an apportionment. In addition, fine or forfeiture of pay may not be combined with detention of pay without an apportionment. For the purposes of this subsection "correctional custody" is the physical restraint of a person during duty or non-duty hours and may include extra duties, fatigue duties, or hard labor. If practicable, correctional custody will not be served in immediate association with persons awaiting trial or held in confinement pursuant to trial by courts-martial.
(c) An officer in charge may impose upon enlisted members assigned to the unit of which he is in charge such of the punishments authorized under subsection (b)(2)(A)-(G) of this Section as the Governor may specifically prescribe by regulation.

(d) The officer who imposes the punishment authorized in subsection (b) or his successor in command, may, at any time, suspend probationally any part or amount of the unexecuted punishment imposed and may suspend probationally a reduction in grade or fine or forfeiture imposed under subsection (b), whether or not executed. In addition, he may, at any time, remit or mitigate any part or amount of the unexecuted punishment imposed and may set aside in whole or in part the punishment, whether executed or unexecuted; and restore all rights, privileges, and property affected. He may also mitigate reduction in grade to fine or forfeiture or detention of pay.

When mitigating:

(1) arrest in quarters to restriction, or
(2) extra duties to restriction, the mitigated punishment shall not be for a greater period than the punishment mitigated. When mitigating forfeiture of pay to detention of pay, the amount of the detention shall not be greater than the amount of the forfeiture. When mitigating reduction in grade to fine, forfeiture or detention of pay, the amount of the fine, forfeiture or detention shall not be greater than the amount that could have been imposed initially under this Section by the officer who imposed the punishment mitigated.

(e) A person punished under this Section who considers his punishment unjust or disproportionate to the offense may, through the proper channel, appeal to the next superior authority. The appeal shall be promptly forwarded and decided, but the person punished may in the meantime be required to undergo the punishment adjudged. The superior authority may exercise the same powers with respect to the punishment imposed as may be exercised under subsection (d) of this Section by the officer who imposed the punishment. Before acting on an appeal from a punishment of:

(1) arrest in quarters for more than 7 days;
(2) correctional custody for more than 7 days;
(3) forfeiture of more than 7 days pay;
(4) reduction of 1 or more pay grades from the fourth or a higher pay grade;
(5) extra duties for more than 14 days;
(6) restriction of more than 14 days pay;
(7) detention of more than 14 days pay; the authority who is to act on the appeal shall refer the case to a judge advocate or legal officer of the state military forces for consideration and advice, and may so refer the case upon appeal from any punishment imposed under subsection (b).

(f) The imposition and enforcement of disciplinary punishment under this Section for any act or omission is not a bar to trial by court-martial for a serious crime or offense growing out of the same act or omission, and not properly punishable under this Section, but the fact that a disciplinary punishment has been enforced may be shown by the accused upon trial, and when so shown shall be considered in determining the measure of punishment to be adjudged in the event of a finding of guilt.

(g) The Governor may, by regulation, prescribe the form of records to be kept of proceedings under this Section and may also prescribe that certain categories of those proceedings shall be in writing.

SECTION 16. The three kinds of courts-martial in each of the state military forces are:

(1) general court-martial, consisting of:
   (A) a military judge and not less than 5 members; or
   (B) only a military judge, if before the court is assembled the accused, knowing the identity of the military judge and after consultation with defense counsel, requests in writing a court composed only of a military judge and the military judge approves;

(2) special court-martial, consisting of:
   (A) not less than 3 members; or
   (B) a military judge and not less than 3 members; or
   (C) only a military judge, if one has been detailed to the court, and the accused under the same conditions as those prescribed in clause (1)(B) so requests; and

(3) summary court-martial, consisting of 1 officer, who shall be a military judge or an attorney licensed to practice law in this state.

Jurisdiction of Courts-martial in General

Sec. 17. Each force of the state military forces has court-martial jurisdiction over all persons subject to this Code. The exercise of jurisdiction by one force over personnel of another force shall be in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Governor.

Jurisdiction of General Courts-martial

Sec. 18. (a) Subject to Section 17 of this Code, general courts-martial have jurisdiction to try persons subject to this Code for any offense made punishable by this Code and may, under such limitations as the Governor may prescribe, adjudge any of the following punishments:
Art. 5788
MILITIA—SOLDIERS, SAILORS AND MARINES

(1) A fine of not more than $200 or confinement for not more than 200 days;
(2) Forfeiture of pay and allowances;
(3) A reprimand;
(4) Dismissal or dishonorable discharge;
(5) Reduction of a noncommissioned officer to the ranks; or
(6) Any combination of these punishments.

(b) A dismissal or dishonorable discharge may not be adjudged unless a complete record of the proceedings and testimony has been made, counsel having the qualifications prescribed under Section 27(b) of this title was detailed to represent the accused, and a military judge was detailed to the trial.

Jurisdiction of Special Courts-martial

Sec. 19. (a) Subject to Section 17 of this Code, special courts-martial have jurisdiction to try persons subject to this Code, except commissioned officers, for any offense for which they may be punished under this Code. A special court-martial has the same powers of punishment as a general court-martial, except that a fine or confinement imposed by a special court-martial may not be more than $100 fine or confinement of not more than 100 days for a single offense.

(b) A dismissal or dishonorable discharge may not be adjudged unless a complete record of the proceedings and testimony has been made, counsel having the qualifications prescribed under Section 27(b) of this title was detailed to represent the accused, and a military judge was detailed to the trial because of physical conditions or military exigencies. In any such case in which a military judge was not detailed to the trial, the convening authority shall make a detailed written statement, to be appended to the record, stating the reason or reasons a military judge could not be detailed.

Jurisdiction of Summary Courts-martial

Sec. 20. (a) Subject to Section 17 of this Code, summary courts-martial have jurisdiction to try persons subject to this Code, except officers, for any offense made punishable by this Code.

(b) No person with respect to whom summary courts-martial have jurisdiction may be brought to trial before a summary court-martial if he objects thereto. If objection to trial by summary court-martial is made by an accused, trial may be ordered by special or general court-martial, as may be appropriate.

(c) A summary court-martial may sentence to a fine of not more than $25 or confinement for not more than 25 days for a single offense, to forfeiture of pay and allowances, and reduction of a noncommissioned officer to the ranks.

Sec. 20A. Reserved.

Sec. 21. The provisions of this chapter conferring jurisdiction upon courts-martial do not deprive military commissions, provost courts, or other military tribunals of concurrent jurisdiction with respect to offenders or offenses that by statute or by the law of war may be tried by military commissions, provost courts, or other military tribunals.

SUBCHAPTER V. COMPOSITION OF COURTS–MARTIAL

Who May Convene General Courts-martial

Sec. 22. In the militia or state military forces not in federal service general courts-martial may be convened by:

(a) the Governor of the State of Texas; or
(b) the Adjutant General or any other General Officer under such regulations as the Governor may promulgate.

Who May Convene Special Courts-martial

Sec. 23. In the state military forces not in federal service, the commanding officer of a garrison, fort, post, camp, air base, auxiliary air base, or other place where troops are on duty, or of a division, brigade, regiment, wing, group, detached battalion, separate squadron, or other detached command, may convene special courts-martial. Special courts-martial may also be convened by superior authority. When any such officer is an accuser, the court may be convened by superior competent authority if considered advisable by him.

Who May Convene Summary Courts-martial

Sec. 24. (a) In the state military forces not in federal service, the commanding officer of a garrison, fort, post, camp, air base, auxiliary air base, or other place where troops are on duty, or of a regiment, wing, group, detached battalion, detached squadron, detached company, or other detachment, may convene a summary court-martial.

Who May Serve on Courts-martial

Sec. 25. (a) Any state commissioned officer in a duty status is eligible to serve on all courts-martial for the trial of any person who may lawfully be brought before such courts for trial.

(b) Any warrant officer in a state duty status is eligible to serve on general and special courts-martial for the trial of any person, other than a commissioned officer, who may lawfully be brought before such courts for trial.

(c)(1) Any enlisted member of the state military forces in a state duty status who is not a member of the same unit as the accused is eligible to serve on general and special courts-martial for the trial of any enlisted member of the state military forces who may lawfully be brought before such courts for trial.
but he shall serve as a member of a court only if, before the conclusion of a session called by the military judge under Section 39(a) of this Code prior to trial or, in the absence of such a session, before the court is assembled for the trial of the accused, the accused personally has requested in writing that enlisted members serve on it. After such a request, the accused may not be tried by a general or special court-martial the membership of which does not include enlisted members in a number comprising at least one-third of the total membership of the court, unless eligible members cannot be obtained on account of physical conditions or military exigencies. If such members cannot be obtained, the court may be convened and the trial held without them, but the convening authority shall make a detailed written statement, to be appended to the record, stating why they could not be obtained.

(2) In this Section, the word “unit” means any regularly organized body of the state military forces.

(d)(1) When it can be avoided, no person subject to this Code may be tried by a court-martial, any member of which is junior to him in rank or grade.

(2) When convening a court-martial, the convening authority shall detail as members thereof such members of the state military forces as, in his opinion, are best qualified for the duty by reason of age, education, training, experience, length of service, and judicial temperament. No member of the state military forces is eligible to serve as a member of a general or special court-martial when he is the accused or a witness for the prosecution or has acted as investigating officer or as counsel in the same case.

Military Judge of a Court-martial

Sec. 26. (a) The authority convening a general court-martial shall, and, subject to regulations issued by the Governor, the authority convening a special or summary court-martial may detail a military judge thereto. A military judge shall preside over open sessions of the court-martial to which he has been detailed.

(b) A military judge shall be a commissioned officer of the state military forces who is a member of the bar of a Federal court and a member of the bar of the highest court of the state and who is certified to perform legal functions under this Code, shall be used interchangeably, as needed, among all of the state military forces.

Detail of Trial Counsel and Defense Counsel

Sec. 27. (a) For each general, special, and summary court-martial the authority convening the court shall detail trial counsel and defense counsel and such assistants as he considers appropriate. No person who has acted as investigating officer, military judge, or court member in any case may act later as trial counsel, assistant trial counsel, or, unless expressly requested by the accused, as defense counsel, or assistant defense counsel in the same case. No person who has acted for the prosecution may act later in the same case for the defense, nor may any person who has acted for the defense act later in the same case for the prosecution.

(b) Trial counsel or defense counsel detailed for a general court-martial:

(1) Must be a graduate of an accredited law school and a member of the bar of a Federal court or of the highest court of a state; and

(2) Must be certified as competent to perform such duties by the State Judge Advocate General.

(c) In the case of a special or summary court-martial:

(1) The accused shall be afforded the opportunity to be represented at the trial by counsel having the qualifications prescribed under Section 27(b) of this Code unless counsel having such qualifications cannot be obtained on account of physical conditions or military exigencies. If counsel having such qualifications cannot be obtained, the court may be convened and the trial held but the convening authority
Art. 5788

shall make a detailed written statement, to be appended to the record, stating why counsel with such qualifications could not be obtained;

(2) If the trial counsel is qualified to act as counsel before a general court-martial, the defense counsel detailed by the convening authority must be a person similarly qualified; and

(3) If the trial counsel is a judge advocate, or a member of the bar of a Federal court or the highest court of a state, the defense counsel detailed by the convening authority must be one of the foregoing.

Detail or Employment of Reporters and Interpreters

Sec. 28. Under such regulations as the Governor may prescribe, the convening authority of a general or special court-martial, military commission, court of inquiry, or a military tribunal shall detail or employ qualified court reporters who shall record the proceedings of and testimony taken before that court, commission, or tribunal. Under like regulations the convening authority may detail or employ interpreters who shall interpret for the court, commission, or tribunal.

Absent and Additional Members

Sec. 29. (a) No member of a general or special court-martial may be absent or excused after the court has been assembled for the trial of the accused except for physical disability or as the result of a challenge or by order of the convening authority for good cause.

(b) Whenever a general court-martial, other than a general court-martial composed of a military judge only, is reduced below 5 members the trial may not proceed unless the convening authority details new members sufficient in number to provide not less than 5 members. The trial may proceed with the new members present after the recorded evidence previously introduced has been read to the court in the presence of the military judge, the accused, and counsel for both sides.

(c) Whenever a special court-martial, other than a special court-martial composed of a military judge only, is reduced below 3 members, the trial may not proceed unless the convening authority details new members sufficient in number to provide not less than 3 members. The trial shall proceed with the new members present as if no evidence had previously been introduced at the trial, unless a verbatim record of the evidence previously introduced or stipulation thereof is read in court in the presence of the military judge, if any, the accused, and counsel for both sides.

(d) If the military judge of a court-martial composed of a military judge only is unable to proceed with the trial because of physical disability, as a result of a challenge, or for other good cause, the trial shall proceed, subject to any applicable conditions of Section 16(1)(B) or (2)(C) of this Code, after the detail of a new military judge as if no evidence had previously been introduced, unless a verbatim record of the evidence previously introduced or stipulation thereof is read in court in the presence of the new military judge, the accused, and counsel for both sides.

SUBCHAPTER VI. PRE-TRIAL PROCEDURE

Charges and Specifications

Sec. 30. (a) Charges and specifications shall be signed by a person subject to this Code under oath before a commissioned officer of the state military force authorized to administer oaths and shall state:

(1) That the signer has personal knowledge of, or has investigated, the matters set forth therein; and

(2) That they are true in fact to the best of his knowledge and belief.

(b) Upon the preferring of charges, the proper authority shall take immediate steps to determine what disposition should be made thereof in the interest of justice and discipline, and the person accused shall be informed of the charges against him as soon as practicable.

Compulsory Self-Incrimination Prohibited

Sec. 31. (a) No person subject to this Code may compel any person to incriminate himself or to answer any question the answer to which may tend to incriminate him.

(b) No person subject to this Code may interrogate, or request any statement from an accused or a person suspected of an offense without first informing him of the nature of the accusation and advising him that he does not have to make any statement regarding the offense of which he is accused or suspected and that any statement made by him may be used as evidence against him in a trial by court-martial.

(c) No person subject to this Code may compel any person to make a statement or produce evidence before any military tribunal if the statement or evidence is not material to the issue and may tend to degrade him.

(d) No statement obtained from any person in violation of this Section, or through the use of coercion, unlawful influence, or unlawful inducement may be received in evidence against him in a trial by court-martial.

Investigation

Sec. 32. (a) No charge or specification may be referred to a general court-martial for trial until a thorough and impartial investigation of all the matters set forth therein has been made. This investi-selection if such counsel is reasonably available, or gation shall include inquiry as to the truth of the by counsel detailed by the officer exercising general provided by him, or military counsel of his own desire in his own behalf, either in defense or mitiga­ shape of charges, and a recommendation as to the disposition which should be made of the case in the interest of justice and discipline.

(b) The accused shall be advised of the charges against him and of his right to be represented at that investigation by counsel. Upon his own request, he shall be represented by civilian counsel if provided by him, or military counsel of his own selection if such counsel is reasonably available, or
by counsel detailed by the officer exercising general court-martial jurisdiction over the command. At that investigation full opportunity shall be given to the accused to cross-examine witnesses against him if they are available and to present anything he may desire in his own behalf, either in defense or mitigation, and the investigating officer shall examine available witnesses requested by the accused. If the charges are forwarded after the investigation, they shall be accompanied by a statement of the substance of the testimony taken on both sides and a copy thereof shall be given to the accused.

(c) If an investigation of the subject matter of an offense has been conducted before the accused is charged with the offense, and if the accused was present at the investigation and afforded the opportunities for representation, cross-examination, and presentation prescribed in subsection (b) of this Section, no further investigation of that charge is necessary under this Section unless it is demanded by the accused after he is informed of the charge. A demand for further investigation entitles the accused to recall witnesses for further cross-examination and to offer any new evidence in his own behalf.

(d) The requirements of this Section are binding on all persons administering this Code but failure to follow them does not constitute jurisdictional error.

Forwarding of Charges

Sec. 33. When a person is held for trial by general court-martial the commanding officer shall, within 8 days after the accused is ordered into arrest or confinement, if practicable, forward the charges, together with the investigation and allied papers, to the officer exercising general court-martial jurisdiction. If that is not practicable, he shall report in writing to that officer the reasons for delay.

Advice of Staff Judge Advocate and Reference for Trial

Sec. 34. (a) Before directing the trial of any charge by general court-martial, the convening authority shall refer it to his staff judge advocate or legal officer for consideration and advice. The con­ voking authority may not refer a charge to a general court-martial for trial unless he has found that the charge alleges an offense under this Code and is warranted by evidence indicated in the report of investigation.

(b) If the charges or specifications are not formally correct or do not conform to the substance of the evidence contained in the report of the investigating officer, formal corrections, and such changes in the charges and specifications as are needed to make them conform to the evidence may be made.

Service of Charges

Sec. 35. The trial counsel to whom court-martial charges are referred for trial shall cause to be served upon the accused a copy of the charges upon which trial is to be had. In time of peace no person may, against his objections, be brought to trial, or be required to participate by himself or counsel in a session called by the military judge under Section 39(a) of this Code in a general court-martial case within a period of 5 days after the service of charges upon him, or in a special court-martial case within a period of 3 days after the service of charges upon him.

SUBCHAPTER VII. TRIAL PROCEDURE

Governor May Prescribe Rules

Sec. 36. The procedure, including modes of proof, in cases before military courts and other military tribunals may be prescribed by the Governor by regulations, which shall, so far as he considers practicable, apply the principles of law and the rules of evidence generally recognized in the trial of criminal cases in the courts of the State of Texas, but which may not be contrary to or inconsistent with this Code.

Unlawfully Influencing Action of Court

Sec. 37. (a) No authority convening a general, special or summary court-martial nor any other commanding officer, or officer serving on the staff thereof, may censure, reprimand, or admonish the court or any member, military judge, or counsel thereof, with respect to the findings or sentence adjudged by the court, or with respect to any other exercise of its or his functions in the conduct of the proceeding. No person subject to this Code may attempt to coerce or, by any unauthorized means, influence the action of the court-martial or any other military tribunal or any member thereof, in reaching the findings or sentence in any case, or the action of any convening, approving, or reviewing authority with respect to his judicial acts. The foregoing provisions of the subsection shall not apply with respect to (1) general instructional or informational courses in military justice if such courses are designed solely for the purpose of instructing members of a command in the substantive and procedural aspects of court-martial, or (2) to statements and instructions given in open court by the military Duties of Trial Counsel and Defense Counsel

Sec. 38. (a) The trial counsel of a general or special court-martial shall prosecute in the name of the State of Texas, and shall, under the direction of the court, prepare the record of the proceedings.

(b) The accused has the right to be represented in his defense before a general, special or summary court-martial by civilian counsel if provided by him, or by military counsel of his own selection if reasonably available, or by the defense counsel detailed under Section 27 of this Code. Should the accused have counsel of his own selection, the defense counsel, and assistant defense counsel, if any, who were detailed, shall, if the accused so desires, act as his associate counsel; otherwise they shall be excused by the military judge or by the president of a court-martial without a military judge.

(c) In every court-martial proceeding, the defense counsel may, in the event of conviction, forward for attachment to the record of proceedings, a brief of such matters he feels should be considered in behalf of the accused on review, including any objection to the contents of the record which he considers appropriate.

(d) An assistant trial counsel of a general court-martial may, under the direction of the trial counsel or when he is qualified to be a trial counsel as required by Section 27 of this Code, perform any duty imposed by law, regulation, or the custom of the service upon the trial counsel. An assistant trial counsel of a special court-martial may perform any duty of the trial counsel.

(e) An assistant defense counsel of a general or special court-martial may, under the direction of the defense counsel or when he is qualified to be the defense counsel as required by Section 27 of this Code, perform any duty imposed by law, regulation, or the custom of the service upon counsel for the accused.

Sec. 39. (a) At any time after the service of charges which have been referred for trial to a court-martial composed of a military judge and members, the military judge may, subject to Section 35 of this Code, call the court into session without the presence of the members for the purpose of:

(1) Hearing and determining motions raising defenses or objections which are capable of determination without trial of the issues raised by a plea of not guilty;

(2) Hearing and ruling upon any matter which may be ruled upon by the military judge under this chapter, whether or not the matter is appropriate for later consideration or decision by the members of the court;

(3) If permitted by regulations of the Governor, holding the arraignment and receiving the pleas of the accused; and

(4) Performing any other procedural function which may be performed by the military judge under this chapter or under rules prescribed pursuant to Section 36 of this Code and which does not require the presence of the members of the court. These proceedings shall be conducted in the presence of the accused, the defense counsel, and the trial counsel and shall be made a part of the record.

(b) When the members of a court-martial deliberate or vote, only the members may be present. All other proceedings, including any other consultation of the members of the court with counsel or the military judge, shall be made a part of the record and shall be in the presence of the accused, the defense counsel, the trial counsel, and in cases in which a military judge has been detailed to the court, the military judge.

Sec. 40. The military judge or a court-martial without a military judge may, for reasonable cause, grant a continuance to any party for such time, and as often, as may appear to be just.

Sec. 41. (a) The military judge and members of a general or special court-martial may be challenged by the accused or the trial counsel for cause stated to the court. The military judge, or, if none, the court shall determine the relevancy and validity of challenges for cause, and may not receive a challenge to more than 1 person at a time. Challenges by trial counsel shall ordinarily be presented and decided before those by the accused are offered.

(b) Each accused and the trial counsel are entitled to 1 peremptory challenge, but the military judge may not be challenged except for cause.
Oaths

Sec. 42. Before performing their respective duties, military judges, members of general and special courts-martial, trial counsel, assistant trial counsel, defense counsel, assistant defense counsel, reporters, and interpreters shall take an oath to perform their duties faithfully. The oath or affirmation shall be taken in the presence of the accused, and shall read as follows:

(a) Court members:

"You, __________, do swear (or affirm) that you will faithfully perform all the duties incumbent upon you as a member of this court; that you will faithfully and impartially try, according to the evidence, your conscience, and the laws and regulations provided for trials by courts-martial, the case of (the) (each) accused now before this court; and that if any doubt should arise not explained by the laws and regulations, then according to the best of your understanding and the customs of the service in like cases; that you will not divulge the findings and sentence in any case until they shall have been duly announced by the court; and that you will not disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court upon a challenge or upon the findings or sentence unless required to do so before a court of justice in due course of law. So help you God."

(b) Military judge:

"You, __________, do swear (or affirm) that you will faithfully and impartially perform, according to your conscience and the laws and regulations provided for trials by courts-martial, all the duties incumbent upon you as military judge of this court; that if any doubt should arise not explained by the laws and regulations, then according to the best of your understanding and the customs of the service in like cases; and that you will not divulge the findings or sentence in any case until they shall have been duly announced by the court. So help you God."

(c) Trial counsel and assistant trial counsel:

"You, __________ (and) __________, do swear (or affirm) that you will faithfully perform the duties of trial counsel and will not divulge the findings or sentence of the court to any but the proper authority until they shall be duly disclosed. So help you God."

(d) Defense counsel and assistant defense counsel:

"You, __________ (and) __________, do swear (or affirm) that you will faithfully perform the duties of defense (and individual) counsel and will not divulge the findings or sentence of the court to any but the proper authority until they shall be duly disclosed. So help you God."

(e) Court of inquiry:

The recorder of a court of inquiry shall administer to the members the following oath: "You shall well and truly examine and inquire, according to the evidence, into the matter now before you without partiality, favor, affection, prejudice or hope of reward. So help you God." After which the president of the court shall administer to the recorder the following oath: "You do swear that you will according to your best abilities, accurately and impartially record the proceedings of the court and the evidence to be given in the case in hearing. So help you God."

(f) Witnesses:

All persons who give evidence before a court-martial or court of inquiry shall be examined on oath administered by the presiding officer in the following form: "You swear (or affirm) that the evidence you shall give in the case now in hearing shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. So help you God."

(g) Reporter or interpreter:

"You swear (or affirm) that you will faithfully perform the duties of reporter (or interpreter) to this court. So help you God."

Statute of Limitations

Sec. 43. (a) A person charged with desertion or absence without leave in time of war, or with aiding the enemy or with mutiny may be tried and punished at any time without limitation.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this Section, a person charged with desertion in time of peace or with the offenses punishable under Sections 115, 116 and 117 of this Code is not liable to be tried by court-martial if the offense was committed more than 3 years before the receipt of sworn charges and specifications by an officer exercising summary court-martial jurisdiction over the command.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this Section, a person charged with any offense is not liable to be tried by court-martial or punished under Section 15 of this Code if the offense was committed more than 2 years before the receipt of sworn charges and specifications by an officer exercising summary court-martial jurisdiction over the command, or before the imposition of punishment under Section 15 of this Code.

(d) Periods in which the accused was absent from territory in which the state has the authority to apprehend him, or in the custody of civil authorities, or in the hands of the enemy, shall be excluded in computing the period of limitation prescribed in this Section.

Former Jeopardy

Sec. 44. (a) No person may be tried a second time in any military court of the State of Texas for the same offense.

(b) No proceedings in which an accused has been found guilty by a court-martial upon any charge or specification is a trial in the sense of this Section until the finding of guilty has become final after review of the case has been fully completed.

(c) A proceeding which, after the introduction of evidence but before a finding, is dismissed or terminated by the convening authority or on motion of the prosecution for failure of available evidence or witnesses without any fault of the accused is a trial in the sense of this Section.

Pleas of the Accused

Sec. 45. (a) If an accused after arraignment makes an irregular pleading, or after a plea of guilty sets up matter inconsistent with the plea, or if it appears that he has entered the plea of guilty improvidently or through lack of understanding of its meaning and effect, or if he fails or refuses to plead, a plea of not guilty shall be entered in the record, and the court shall proceed as though he had pleaded not guilty.

(b) With respect to any charge or specification to which a plea of guilty has been made by the accused and accepted by the military judge, or by a court-martial without a military judge, a finding of guilty of the charge or specification may, if permitted by regulations of the Governor, be entered immediately though the accused had pleaded not guilty.

Opportunity to Obtain Witnesses and Other Evidence

Sec. 46. (a) The trial counsel, the defense counsel, accused, and the court-martial shall have equal opportunity to obtain witnesses and other evidence. Each shall have the right of compulsory process for obtaining witnesses.

(b) The presiding officer of a court-martial may:

(1) Issue a warrant for the arrest of any accused person who having been served with a warrant and a copy of the charges, disobey a written order by the convening authority to appear before the court;

(2) Issue subpoenas duces tecum and other subpoenas;

(3) Enforce by attachment the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers; and

(4) Sentence for refusal to be sworn or to answer, as provided in actions before civil courts of the state.

Refusal to Appear or Testify

Sec. 47. (a) Any person not subject to this Code who:

(1) Has been duly subpoenaed to appear as a witness or to produce books and records before a military court or before any military or civil officer or peace officer designated to take a deposition to be read in evidence before a court;

(2) Has been duly paid or tendered the fees and mileage of a witness at the rates allowed to witnesses under Section 145 of this Code. These fees are to be paid by the Adjutant General’s Department as hereinafter provided; and

(3) Wilfully neglects or refuses to appear, or refuses to qualify as a witness or to testify or to produce any evidence which that person may have been legally subpoenaed to produce; is guilty of an offense against the state and may be punished by fine not to exceed $1,000 or confinement not to exceed 60 days in jail, or by both fine and confinement, and such witness shall be prosecuted in the appropriate county court.

(b) The appropriate prosecuting official for the state in any county court having jurisdiction where the military proceeding was convened shall, upon submission of a complaint to him by the presiding officer of a military court, commission, court of inquiry, or board, file an information against and prosecute any person violating this Section.

Contempts

Sec. 48. A military court may punish for contempt any person who uses any menacing word, sign, or gesture in its presence, or who disturbs its proceedings by any riot or disorder. Punishment may not exceed confinement for 30 days or a fine of $100, or both.

Depositions

Sec. 49. (a) At any time after charges have been signed, as provided in Section 30 of this Code, any party may take oral or written depositions unless the military judge, a court-martial without a military judge hearing the case, or, if the case is not being heard, an authority competent to convene a court-martial for the trial of those charges forbids it for good cause. If a deposition is to be taken before charges are referred for trial, such an authority may designate commissioned officers to represent the prosecution and the defense and may authorize those officers to take the deposition of any witness.

(b) The party at whose instance a deposition is to be taken shall give to every other party reasonable written notice of the time and place for taking the deposition.

(c) Depositions may be taken before and authenticated by any military or civil officer authorized by laws of the state or by the laws of the place where the deposition is taken to administer oaths.

(d) Any duly authenticated deposition taken upon reasonable notice to the other parties, so far as otherwise admissible under the rules of evidence, may be read in evidence before any military court or commission, or in any proceeding before a court of inquiry or military board, if it appears:

(1) That the witness resides or is beyond the state in which the court-martial or court of inquiry is ordered to sit, or beyond the distance of 100 miles from the place of trial or hearing;

(2) That the witness by reason of death, age or sickness, bodily infirmity, imprisonment, military necessity, non-amenability to process, or other reasonable cause, is unable or refuses to appear and testify in person at the place of trial or hearing; or

(3) That the present whereabouts of the witness is unknown.

Admissibility of Records of Courts of Inquiry

Sec. 50. (a) In any case not extending to the dismissal of a commissioned officer, the sworn testimony, contained in the duly authenticated record of proceedings of a court of inquiry, of a person whose oral testimony cannot be obtained, may, if otherwise admissible under the rules of evidence, be read in evidence by any party before a court-martial if the accused was a party before the court of inquiry and if the same issue was involved or if the accused consents to the introduction of such evidence.

(b) Such testimony may be read in evidence only by the defense in cases extending to the dismissal of a commissioned officer.

(c) Such testimony may also be read in evidence before a court of inquiry or a military board.

(d) In all courts of inquiry both enlisted men and officers shall have the right to counsel and the right to cross examination of all witnesses.

(b) The military judge and, except for questions of challenge, the president of a court-martial without a military judge shall rule upon all questions of law and all interlocutory questions arising during the proceedings. Any such ruling made by the military judge upon any question of law or any interlocutory question other than the factual issue of mental responsibility of the accused, or by the president of a court-martial without a military judge upon any question of law other than a motion for a finding of not guilty, is final and constitutes the ruling of the court. However, the military judge or the president of a court-martial without a military judge may change his ruling at any time during the trial. Unless the ruling is final, if any member objects thereto, the court shall be cleared and closed and the question decided by a voice vote as provided in Section 52 of this Code beginning with the junior in rank.

(c) Before a vote is taken on the findings, the military judge or the president of a court-martial without a military judge shall, in the presence of the accused and counsel, instruct the members of the court as to the elements of the offense and charge them:

(1) That the accused must be presumed to be innocent until his guilt is established by legal and competent evidence beyond reasonable doubt;

(2) That in the case being considered, if there is a reasonable doubt as to the guilt of the accused, the doubt must be resolved in favor of the accused and he must be acquitted;

(3) That, if there is a reasonable doubt as to the degree of guilt, the finding must be in a lower degree as to which there is no reasonable doubt; and

(4) That the burden of proof of establishing the guilt of the accused beyond reasonable doubt is upon the state.

(d) Subsections (a), (b), and (c) of this Section do not apply to a court-martial composed of a military judge only. The military judge of such a court-martial shall determine all questions of law and fact arising during the proceedings and, if the accused is convicted, adjudge an appropriate sentence. The military judge of such a court-martial shall make a general finding and shall in addition on request find the facts specially. If an opinion or memorandum of decision is filed, it will be sufficient if the findings of fact appear therein.

Number of Votes Required

Sec. 52. (a) No person may be convicted of an offense, except by the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present at the time the vote is taken.

(b) All sentences shall be determined by the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present at the time the vote is taken.

(c) All other questions to be decided by the members of a general or special court-martial shall be determined by a majority vote. A tie vote on a motion for a finding of not guilty or on a motion relating to the question of the accused's sanity is a determination against the ac-ings and sentence to the parties as soon as deter-

Record of Trial

Sec. 54. (a) Each general court-martial shall keep a separate record of the proceedings of the trial of each case brought before it and the record shall be authenticated by the signature of the military judge.
If the record cannot be authenticated by the millitary judge by reason of his death, disability, or absence, it shall be authenticated by the signature of the trial counsel or by that of a member if the trial counsel is unable to authenticate it by reason of his death, disability, or absence. In a court-martial consisting of only a military judge, the record shall be authenticated by the court reporter under the same conditions that would impose such a duty on a member under this subsection. If the proceedings have resulted in an acquittal of all charges and specifications or, if not affecting a general or flag officer, in a sentence not including discharge and not in excess of that which may otherwise be adjudged by a special court-martial, the record shall contain such matters as may be prescribed by regulations of the Governor.

(b) Each special and summary court-martial shall keep a separate record of the proceedings in each case, and the record shall contain the matter and shall be authenticated in the manner required by such regulations as the Governor may prescribe.

(c) A copy of the record of the proceedings of each general and special court-martial shall be given to the accused as soon as it is authenticated.

SUBCHAPTER VIII. SENTENCES

Cruel and Unusual Punishments Prohibited

Sec. 55. Punishment by flogging, or by branding, marking or tattooing on the body, or any other cruel or unusual punishment, may not be adjudged by any court-martial or inflicted upon any person subject to this Code. The use of irons, single or double, except for the purpose of safe custody, is prohibited.

Maximum Limits

Sec. 56. The punishment which a court-martial may direct for an offense may not exceed the limits prescribed by this Code nor limits prescribed by the Governor of the State of Texas.

Effective Date of Sentences

Sec. 57. (a) Whenever a sentence of a court-martial as lawfully adjudged and approved includes a forfeiture of pay or allowances in addition to confinement not suspended or deferred, the forfeiture may apply to pay or allowances becoming due on or after the date the sentence is approved by the convening authority. No forfeiture may extend to any pay or allowances accrued before that date.

(b) Any period of confinement included in a sentence of a court-martial begins to run from the date the sentence is adjudged by the court-martial, but periods during which the sentence to confinement is suspended or deferred shall be excluded in computing the service of the term of confinement.

(e) On application by an accused who is under sentence to confinement that has not been ordered executed, the convening authority or, if the accused is no longer under his jurisdiction, the officer exercising general court-martial jurisdiction over the command to which the accused is currently assigned, may in his sole discretion defer service of the sentence to confinement. The deferment shall terminate when the sentence is ordered executed. The deferment may be rescinded at any time by the officer who granted it or, if the accused is no longer under his jurisdiction, by the officer exercising gen-

Execution of Confinement

Sec. 58. (a) A sentence of confinement adjudged by a military court, whether or not the sentence

MILITIA—SOLDIERS, SAILORS AND MARINES
includes discharge or dismissal, and whether or not the discharge or dismissal has been executed, may be carried into execution by confinement in any place of confinement under the control of any of the forces of the state military forces or in any jail, penitentiary, or prison designated for that purpose.
Persons so confined in a jail, penitentiary, or prison are subject to the same discipline and treatment as persons confined or committed to the jail, penitentiary, or prison by the courts of the state or of any political subdivision thereof.

(b) The omission of the words "hard labor" from any sentence or punishment of a court-martial ad­ judging confinement does not deprive the authority executing that sentence or punishment of the power to require hard labor as a part of the punishment.

(c) The keepers, officers, and wardens of city or county jails and other jails, penitentiaries, or prisons designated by the Governor, or by such person as he may authorize to act under Section 10 of this Code, shall receive persons ordered into confinement between trial and persons committed to confinement by a military court and shall confine them according to law. No such keeper, officer, or warden may require payment of any fee or charge for so receiving or confining a person.

SUBCHAPTER IX. REVIEW OF COURTS-MARTIAL

Sec. 59. (a) A finding or sentence of a court­ martial may not be held incorrect on the ground of an error of law unless the error materially prejudices the substantial rights of the accused.

(b) Any reviewing authority with the power to approve or affirm a finding of guilty may approve or affirm, instead, so much of the finding as includes a lesser included offense.

Initial Action on the Record

Sec. 60. After trial by court-martial the record shall be forwarded to the convening authority, and action thereon may be taken by the person who convened the court, a commissioned officer commanding for the time being, a successor in command, or any officer exercising general court-martial jurisdiction.

Sec. 61. The convening authority shall refer the record of each general court-martial to his judge advocate who shall submit his written opinion thereon to the convening authority. If the final action of the court has resulted in an acquittal of all charges and specifications, the opinion shall be limited to questions of jurisdiction.

Reconsideration and Revision

Sec. 62. (a) If a specification before a court-martial has been dismissed on motion and the ruling does not amount to a finding of not guilty, the convening authority may return the record to the court for reconsideration of the ruling and any further appropriate action.

(b) Where there is an apparent error or omission in the record or where the record shows improper or inconsistent action by a court-martial with respect to a finding or sentence which can be rectified without material prejudice to the substantial rights of the accused, the convening authority may return the record to the court for appropriate action. In no case, however, may the record be returned:

(1) For reconsideration of a finding of not guilty, or a ruling which amounts to a finding of not guilty;

(2) For consideration of a finding of not guilty of any charge, unless the record shows a finding of guilty under a specification laid under that charge, which sufficiently alleges a violation of some Section of this Code; or

(3) For increasing the severity of the sentence unless the sentence prescribed for the offense is mandatory.

Rehearings

Sec. 63. (a) If the convening authority disapproves the finding and sentence of a court-martial he may, except where there is lack of sufficient evidence in the record to support the findings, order a rehearing. In such a case he shall state the reasons for disapproval. If he disapproves the findings and sentence and does not order a rehearing, he shall dismiss the charges.

(b) Each rehearing shall take place before a court­ martial composed of members not members of the court-martial which first heard the case. Upon a rehearing the accused may not be tried for any offense of which he was found not guilty by the first court-martial, and no sentence in excess of or more severe than the original sentence may be imposed, unless the sentence is based upon a finding of guilty of an offense not considered upon the merits in the original proceedings, or unless the sentence prescribed for the offense is mandatory.

Approval by the Convening Authority

Sec. 64. In acting on the findings and sentence of a court-martial, the convening authority may approve only such findings of guilty, and the sentence or such part or amount of the sentence, as he finds correct in law and fact and as he in his discretion determines should be approved. Unless he indicates otherwise, approval of the sentence is approval of the findings and sentence.
Art. 5788 MILITIA—SOLDIERS, SAILORS AND MARINES

Disposition of Records After Review by Convening Authority

Sec. 65. (a) If the convening authority is the Governor, his action on the review of any record of trial is final.

(b) In all other cases not covered by subsection (a) of this Section, if the sentence of a special court-martial as approved by the convening authority includes a dishonorable discharge, whether or not suspended, the entire record shall be sent to the appropriate judge advocate or legal officer of the state military forces concerned to be reviewed in the same manner as a record of trial by general court-martial. The record and the opinion of the judge advocate or legal officer shall then be sent to the State Judge Advocate General for review.

(c) All other special and summary court-martial records shall be sent to the judge advocate or legal officer of the appropriate force of the state military forces and shall be acted upon, transmitted, and disposed of as may be prescribed by regulations prescribed by the Governor.

(d) The State Judge Advocate General shall review the record of trial in each case sent to him for review as provided under subsection (b) of this Section. If the final action of the court-martial has resulted in an acquittal of all charges and specifications, the opinion of the State Judge Advocate General is limited to questions of jurisdiction.

(e) The State Judge Advocate General shall take final action in any case reviewable by him.

Review by State Judge Advocate General

Sec. 66. (a) In a case reviewable by the State Judge Advocate General under this Section, the State Judge Advocate General may act only with respect to the findings and sentence as approved by the convening authority. He may affirm only such findings of guilty, and the sentence or such part or amount of the sentence, as he finds correct in law and fact and determines, on the basis of the entire record, should be approved. In considering the record, he may weigh the evidence, judge the credibility of witnesses, and determine controverted questions of fact, recognizing that the trial court saw and heard the witnesses. If the State Judge Advocate General sets aside the findings and sentence, he may, except where the setting aside is based on lack of sufficient evidence in the record to support the findings, order a rehearing. If he sets aside the findings and sentence and does not order a rehearing, he shall order that the charges be dismissed.

(b) In a case reviewable by the State Judge Advocate General under this or the preceding Section, he shall instruct the convening authority to act in accordance with his decision on the review. If he has ordered a rehearing but the convening authority finds a rehearing impracticable, he may dismiss the charges.

Review by Texas Court of Military Appeals

Sec. 67. (a)(1) There is hereby established a Texas Court of Military Appeals, located for administrative purposes only in the Adjutant General’s Department, State of Texas. The court shall consist of 5 judges appointed by the Adjutant General of Texas upon the advice and recommendation of the State Judge Advocate General for a term of 6 years. Initial appointments to this court will be: 1 judge for a 2-year term, 2 judges for a 4-year term, and 2 judges for a 6-year term. The term of office of all successor judges shall be for a 6-year period of time, but any judge appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of his predecessor. The Adjutant General of Texas, upon the advice and recommendation of the State Judge Advocate General, shall appoint the chief judge of this court. A person is eligible for appointment to this court who:

(A) is a member of the bar of the highest court of this state;
(B) is a member of a Federal bar;
(C) is a graduate of an accredited school of law;
(D) is a commissioned officer of the state military forces, active or retired, or a retired commissioned officer in the reserves of the armed forces of the United States of America;
(E) has been engaged in the active practice of law for at least 5 years;
(F) has at least 5 years experience as a staff judge advocate, judge advocate, or legal officer with the state military forces. The requirements in (E) and (F) of this Section may be satisfied by equivalent experience or practice in the armed forces of the United States.

(2) The court may promulgate its own rules of procedure, provided, however, that a majority shall constitute a quorum and the concurrence of 3 judges shall be necessary to a decision of the court.

(3) Judges of the Texas Court of Military Appeals may be removed by the Adjutant General of Texas, upon notice and hearing for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, or for mental or physical disability.

(4) If a judge of the Texas Court of Military Appeals is temporarily unable to perform his duties the Adjutant General upon the advice and recommendation of the State Judge Advocate General may designate a military judge, as defined in this Code, to fill the office for the period of disability.

(5) The judges of the Texas Court of Military Appeals, while actually sitting in review of a matter placed under their jurisdiction by this Code, and while travelling to and from such session, shall be paid compensation equal to that compensation as prescribed for the Judges of the Texas Courts of Civil Appeals, as per the then current appropriation bill for the State of Texas, together with the actual cost of their meals and lodging and actual travel expense or the amount set by the then current appropriation bill if private transportation is utilized.

(b) The Texas Court of Military Appeals shall have appellate jurisdiction, upon petition of an accused, to hear and review the record in:

(1) All general and special court-martial cases; and

(2) All other cases where a judge of this court has made a determination that there may be a constitutional issue involved.

(c) The accused has 60 calendar days, from the time of receipt of actual notice of the final action on his case, under this Code to petition the Texas Court of Military Appeals for review. The court shall act upon such a petition within 60 calendar days of the receipt thereof. In the event the court fails or refuses to grant such petition for review the final action of the convening authority will be deemed to have been approved; notwithstanding any other provision of this Code, upon the court granting a hearing of an appeal, the court may grant a stay or defer service of the sentence of confinement or any other punishment under this Code until the court's final decision upon the case.

(d) In a case reviewable under subsection (b)(1) of this Section the Texas Court of Military Appeals may act only with respect to the findings and sentence as finally approved and ordered executed by the convening authority. In a case reviewable under subsection (b)(2) of this Section this court need take action only with respect to issues specified in the grant of review. This court shall take action only with respect to matters of law, and the action of this court is final.

(e) If the Texas Court of Military Appeals sets aside the findings and sentence, it may, except where the setting aside is based on lack of sufficient evidence in the record to support the findings, order a rehearing. If it sets aside the findings and sentence and does not order a rehearing, it shall order that the charges be dismissed. After the Texas Court of Military Appeals has acted on the case, the record shall be returned to the State Judge Advocate General who shall notify the convening authority of the court's decision. If further action is required the State Judge Advocate General shall instruct the convening authority to take action in accordance with that decision. If the court has ordered a rehearing, but the convening authority finds a rehearing impracticable, he may dismiss the charges.

(b) The Governor may, for good cause, substitute an administrative form of discharge for a discharge or dismissal executed in accordance with the sentence of a court-martial.

Restoration

Sec. 75. (a) Under such regulations as the Governor may prescribe, all rights, privileges, and property affected by an executed part of a court-martial sentence which has been set aside or disapproved, except an executed dismissal or discharge shall be restored unless a new trial or rehearing is ordered and such executed part is included in a sentence imposed upon a new trial or hearing.

(b) If a previously executed sentence of dishonorable discharge is not imposed on a new trial, the Governor shall substitute therefor a form of discharge authorized for administrative issuance unless the accused is to serve out the remainder of his enlistment.

c) If a previously executed sentence of dismissal is not imposed on a new trial, the Governor shall substitute therefor a form of discharge authorized for administrative issue unless the accused is to serve out the remainder of his enlistment.

Finality of Proceedings, Findings, and Sentences

Sec. 76. The appellate review of records of trial provided by this Code, the proceedings, findings, and sentences of courts-martial as reviewed and approved, as required by this Code, and all dismissions and discharges carried into execution under sentences by courts-martial following review and approval as required by this Code, are final and conclusive. Orders publishing the proceedings of the courts-martial and all action taken pursuant to those proceedings are binding upon all departments, courts, agencies, and officers of the state, subject only to action upon a petition for a new trial as provided in Section 73 of this Code.

"(5) 'Surface mining operation' means those activities conducted at or near the mining site and concomitant with the surface mining including extraction, storage, processing, and shipping of minerals and reclamation of the land affected.'"

Section 2 of the Act amended §§ 7, 17, and 18 of this article to read:

"Sec. 7. (a) A rule or regulation or any amendment thereof adopted by the commission may differ in its terms and provisions as between particular conditions, particular mining techniques, type of minerals being extracted, particular areas of the state or other conditions that appear relevant and necessary so long as the action taken is consistent with attainment of the general intent and purposes of the Act.

"(b) On passage of any federal surface mining legislation, the commission shall take the steps necessary to establish the exclusive jurisdiction of this state over the regulation of surface mining and reclamation of land thereby exposed, and should the federal administrative agency disapprove the regulatory program of this state as submitted, the commission shall take all necessary and appropriate steps, including making recommendations for remedial legislation, to clarify, alter, or amend such program to comply with the requirements of the federal act."

"Application of the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act"

"Sec. 17. The commission shall comply with the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act in all proceedings under this Act except where inconsistent with this Act."

"Judicial Review"

"Sec. 18. (a) Any party to the administrative proceedings whose interest is or may be adversely affected by any ruling, order, decision, or other act of the commission may appeal by filing a petition in a district court of Travis County or in the county in which the greater portion of the land in question is located.

"(b) The plaintiff shall pursue his action with reasonable diligence. If the plaintiff does not prosecute his action within one year after the action is filed, the court shall presume that the action has been abandoned. The court shall dismiss the suit on a motion for delay.

"(c) The court shall hear such complaint solely on the record made before the commission. The findings of the commission, if supported by substantial evidence, shall be upheld.

"(d) The court may, under such conditions as it may prescribe, grant such temporary relief as it deems appropriate pending final determination of the proceedings."

"The commencement of a proceeding under this section shall not, unless specifically ordered by the court, operate as a stay of the action, order, or decision of the commission."

"(d) Any action arising under this Act shall be given precedence by the court over cases of a different nature."

Section 3 of the Act amended subs. (a) and (d) of § 8 to read:

"(a) No person shall conduct any surface mining operation without having obtained a surface mining permit issued by the commission pursuant to this Act; provided, however, that any operator may, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, continue to conduct such surface mining operation until such time as the commission approves or denies his application.

"(d) After approval but prior to issuance of the surface mining permit, the applicant shall pay an approved application fee in the amount of $10 per acre of the permit area, which may be paid in annual installments apportioned over the term of the permit."

"Section 4 of the Act amended subsec. (a) of § 12 to read:

"(a) Any part of the proposed operation area designated as unsuitable for surface mining as designated by Section 13 of this Act, provided, however, the application may be amended to exclude such designated area;
"(3) the commission is advised by the Texas Water Quality Board that the proposed mining operation would cause pollution of any water of the state, or by the Texas Air Control Board that the proposed mining operation will cause pollution of the ambient air of the state, in violation of the laws of this state;

"(4) the applicant has had any other permit issued hereunder revoked, or any bond posted to comply with this Act forfeited, and the conditions causing the permit to be revoked or the bond to be forfeited have not been corrected to the satisfaction of the commission;

"(5) the commission determines that the proposed operation will endanger the health and safety of the public;

"(6) the surface mining operation will adversely affect any public highway or road;

"(7) the operator is unable to produce the bonds or otherwise meet the requirements of Section 14 of this Act."

Section 5 of the Act amended subsection (d) of § 13 to read:

"(d) Any person shall have the right to petition the commission to have an area designated as unsuitable for surface mining operations or to have such a designation terminated. Such a petition shall contain allegations of facts with supporting evidence which in the opinion of the commission would tend to establish the allegations. The commission shall make a determination of the validity of the petition. If the petition is found to be valid, it shall be kept on file by the commission and made available for public inspection. Upon application for a surface mining permit for which a valid petition has been filed, the commission shall hold a public hearing in accordance with the requirements of Section 16 of this Act in the locality of the proposed mining operation. Any person affected may intervene prior to such public hearing by filing allegations of facts with supporting evidence which would tend to establish the allegations. In the event that all the petitioners and the applicant stipulate agreement prior to the requested hearing, such hearing need not be held."

Section 6 of the Act amended subsection (b) of § 15 to read:

"(b) Revision. During the term of any surface mining permit, the permittee may submit an application, together with a revised reclamation plan, to the commission for a revision of the permit."

"An application for a revision of a permit shall not be approved unless the commission finds that reclamation as required by the Act can be accomplished under the revised reclamation plan. The commission shall by rule or regulation establish guidelines for a determination of the scale or extent of a revision request for which all permit application information requirements and procedures, including notice and hearings, shall apply; provided that any revisions which propose a substantial change in the intended future use of the land or significant alteration in the reclamation plan shall, at a minimum, be subject to the notice and hearing requirements set out in Section 16 of this Act."

"Any extensions to the area covered by the permit except incidental boundary revisions must be made by application for another permit or for revision of a permit."

Section 7 of the Act amended § 5 to read:

"Exclusions and Exemptions

"Sec. 5. (a) The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any of the following activities or areas:

"(1) surface mining operations conducted on public lands regulated by the General Land Office; provided that such affected lands are reclaimed in a manner consistent with the provisions of this Act; and

"(2) any land where the overburden has been removed and any minerals have been produced prior to the date of enactment of this Act.

"(b) In situ mining operations permitted by the Texas Water Quality Board prior to January 1, 1978, shall not require a permit pursuant to this Act until such time as the Texas Water Quality Board issued permit expires or is revised in accordance with this Act. On January 1, 1978, the permits issued pursuant to the authority of the Texas Water Quality Board shall be transferred to the commission and administered by the commission.

"(c) A verbatim transcript and complete record of the proceedings of each public hearing shall be retained by the commission. On request, the commission shall transcribe all or part of any such proceedings and shall furnish a verbatim transcript within a reasonable time to the requesting party; provided that the commission may charge a fee based on the estimated cost of the service of transcribing and printing the requested material."

Eligibility

2. To be eligible for appointment as a Notary Public, a person shall be a resident citizen of the United States and of this state and at least eighteen (18) years of age, and either a resident of the county in which he is appointed, or shall maintain his principal place of business or of employment in such county; provided that any person may be appointed in only one county in the state at the same time; and provided further that nothing herein shall invalidate any commission as Notary Public which has been issued and is outstanding at the time this Act becomes effective.

Procedure for Appointment; Application; Contents; Duties of County Clerks

3. Any person desiring appointment as a Notary Public shall make application in duplicate to the county clerk of his county of residence, or the county in which he maintains his principal place of business or of employment, on forms prescribed by the Secretary of State, which includes his name as it will be used in acting as such Notary Public, his post-office address, his county of residence, his business address, the name of the county in which his business is located, his social security number, a statement that he has never been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, and shall satisfy the clerk that he is at least eighteen (18) years of age and otherwise qualified by law for the appointment which is sought; provided that if the person is a qualified Notary Public in another county his commission in that county shall be surrendered to the Secretary of State at the time application for the appointment is made. One copy of each application, along with the names of all persons making such application shall be sent in duplicate by the county clerk to the Secretary of State with the certificate of the county clerk that according to the information furnished him, such person is eligible for appointment as Notary Public in such county. The Secretary of State shall act upon all such names submitted at the earliest practicable time and notify the county clerk whether such appointment or appointments have been made. Upon receiving notice from the Secretary of State of such appointments, the county clerk shall forthwith notify all persons so appointed to appear before him within fifteen (15) days from the date of such appointment and qualify as hereinafter provided. The appointment of any person failing to qualify within the time allowed shall be void, and if any such person desires thereafter to qualify, his name shall be resubmitted in the same manner as hereinabove provided.

Notice to Secretary of State; Issuance of Commission; Rejection of Application; Appeal

5. Immediately after the qualification of any Notary Public, the county clerk shall forthwith notify the Secretary of State that such person has qualified and the date of such qualification, and shall remit with such notice the fee due the Secretary of State, whereupon, the Secretary of State shall cause a commission to be issued to such Notary Public, which commission shall be effective as of the date of qualification. All such commissions shall be forwarded to the proper county clerk for delivery to such persons entitled to receive them. Nothing herein shall prevent any qualified Notary Public from performing the duties of his office from and after his qualification and before the receipt of his commission.

The Secretary of State may, for good cause, reject any application, or revoke the commission of any Notary Public, but such action shall be taken subject to the right of notice, hearing and adjudication, and the right of appeal therefrom. Such appeal shall be made to the District Court of Travis County, Texas, but upon such appeal the Secretary of State shall have the burden of proof and such trial shall be conducted de novo.

"Good cause" shall include final conviction for a crime involving moral turpitude, any false statement knowingly made in an application, and final conviction for the violation of any law concerning the regulation of the conduct of Notaries Public in this state, or any other state.

Reappointment; Change of Address; Vacation of Office

6. (a) Any qualified Notary Public whose term is expiring may be reappointed by the Secretary of State without the necessity of the county clerk resubmitting his name to the Secretary of State, provided such appointment is made in sufficient time for such Notary Public to be qualified on the expiration date of the term for which he is then serving.

(b) Upon receiving notice of reappointment made by the Secretary of State for the next term of office, the County Clerk of each county shall forthwith notify such persons, who are reappointed from his or her county, to qualify not later than the expiration date of the term for which he is serving, which qualifying shall become effective on the expiration date of his term and shall not be effective prior thereto. The County Clerk shall give this notification not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the expiration of the person's term. The reappointment of any person who fails to qualify within the time allowed shall be void, and if the person later desires to qualify, his name must be resubmitted in the same manner as provided in Section 3 of this Article.

(c) Each Notary Public shall notify the Secretary of State and the County Clerk of the county in which he has been appointed of any change of his address within ten (10) days after the change.

(d) If a Notary Public removes his residence from this state, his office is automatically vacated. If he removes his residence or his principal place of business or employment to another county in this state, so that he maintains neither his residence nor his principal place of business or employment in the county in which he was appointed, his office is automatically vacated, and if he desires to continue to act as a Notary Public, he must surrender his commission to the Secretary of State and make application for appointment in such other county in the same manner as for an initial appointment.

Bond

7. Any person appointed or reappointed a Notary Public after the effective date of this Act, before entering upon his official duties, shall execute a bond in the sum of Two Thousand Five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars with two or more solvent individuals, or one solvent surety company authorized to do business in this State, as surety, such bond to be approved by the county clerk of his county, payable to the Governor, and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office; and shall also take and subscribe his name and social security number to the official oath of office which shall be endorsed on said bond with the certificate of the official administering the same. Said bond shall be deposited in the office of the county clerk and shall not be void on the first recovery, and may be sued on in the name of the party injured from time to time until the whole amount thereof has been recovered. Any such person shall be deemed to be qualified when he has taken the official oath of office, furnished the bond and paid the fees herein provided for, all within the time allowed therefor. All Notaries Public who have been appointed, and who have qualified prior to the effective date of this Act, will not be required to increase their bond until they are reappointed.

OFFICERS—REMOVAL OF

Art. 5963. Trial by Senate

(a) All persons against whom articles of impeachment are preferred by the House of Representatives shall be tried by the Senate sitting as a court of impeachment in the manner provided by Article XV of the Constitution of Texas.

(b) If the Senate is in session, at a regular or called session of the Legislature when articles of impeachment are preferred by the House, the Senate shall receive the articles when presented and, on a day and time to be set by the Senate, shall resolve into a court of impeachment to consider the articles. The Senate may continue in session as a court of impeachment beyond any date of expiration of the session for legislative purposes or may adjourn as a court of impeachment to a day and time set by the Senate.

(c) If the Senate is not in session at a regular or called session of the Legislature when articles of impeachment are preferred by the House, the Senate shall cause a certified copy of the articles of impeachment to be delivered, by personal messenger or registered or certified mail, to the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, and each member of the Senate. A record of the deliveries and a copy thereof shall be delivered to the Lieutenant Governor and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate. Thereupon, the Senate shall convene for the purpose of considering such articles of impeachment in the following manner:

1. By proclamation of the Governor; or if the Governor fails to issue such proclamation within ten days after the day the articles of impeachment are preferred by the House, then

2. By proclamation of the Lieutenant Governor; or if the Lieutenant Governor fails to issue such proclamation within fifteen days from the day the articles of impeachment are preferred by the House, then

3. By proclamation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate; or, if the President Pro Tempore of the Senate fails to issue such proclamation within twenty days from the day the articles of impeachment are preferred by the House, then

4. By proclamation in writing signed by a majority of the members of the Senate.

(d) The proclamation convening the Senate shall be in writing, shall state the purposes for which the Senate is to be convened and shall fix the date for the convening thereof, which may not be later than twenty days from the issuance of the proclamation. The proclamation shall be published in at least three daily newspapers of general circulation, and a copy of the proclamation shall be sent by registered or certified mail to each member of the Senate and the Lieutenant Governor. On the day set for the convening of the Senate, the Senate shall convene, shall receive the articles of impeachment when presented, and shall resolve into a court of impeachment for purposes of considering the articles of impeachment.

(e) Once the Senate resolves into a court of impeachment, it shall adopt rules of procedure and shall proceed to consider the articles of impeachment. It may from time to time recess or adjourn to a day and time to be set by the Senate. The Senate may designate the day and time of reconvening in relation to the occurrence of one or more events specified in the motion and may make the reconvening contingent on the occurrence of those events. At all times the Senate is scheduled to be in session as a court of impeachment it is the duty of each member of the Senate to be in attendance. The Senate may compel the attendance of any absent Senator. Two-thirds of the members of the Senate constitute a quorum, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day and compel the attendance of absent members.

(f) The Senate shall have and exercise the power to send for persons, papers, records, books, and other documents, to compel the giving of testimony, to punish for contempt to the same extent as the district courts, and to meet in closed sessions for purposes of deliberation, and all other powers necessary to carry out its duties under Article XV of the Texas Constitution. The Senate may employ such aid and assistance as it deems necessary to enforce, execute, and carry into effect the lawful orders, mandates, writs, process, and precepts of the Senate sitting as a court of impeachment and may empower its officers, committees, or agents to exercise such powers as the Senate may prescribe.

State Commission on Judicial Conduct

"Commission", "Master", and "Judge"

Sec. 1. As used in this chapter, "commission" means the State Commission on Judicial Conduct provided for in Section 1-a of Article V of the Constitution, "master" means a special master appointed by the Supreme Court pursuant to said Section 1-a, and, unless the context otherwise requires, "judge" means a justice or judge who is the subject of an investigation or proceeding under said Section 1-a. All constitutional and statutory references to the State Judicial Qualifications Commission shall be construed to mean the State Commission on Judicial Conduct.

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 1A. The State Judicial Qualifications Commission is subject to the Texas Sunset Act, but it is not abolished under that Act. The commission shall be reviewed under the Texas Sunset Act during the period in which state agencies abolished effective September 1 of 1987 and of every 12th year after 1987 are reviewed.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 2 and 3]

Cooperation With and Assistance and Information to Commission

Sec. 4. State and local public bodies and departments, officers and employees thereof, and officials and attaches of the courts of this state shall cooperate with and give reasonable assistance and information to the commission and any authorized representative thereof, or to a master, in connection with any investigations or proceedings within the jurisdiction of the commission, or a master, including contempt proceedings by a master.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 5 to 6A]

Willful or Persistent Conduct Inconsistent with Performance of Duties

Sec. 6B. A judge engages in willful or persistent conduct, which is clearly inconsistent with the prop-er performance of his said duties if he willfully, persistently, and without justifiable cause fails to execute the business of his court in a timely manner, considering the quantity and complexity of that business. This section shall not be construed as containing an exclusive definition of that which constitutes a judge's willful or persistent conduct that is clearly inconsistent with the performance of his duties.

Petition for Order Compelling Person to Attend or Testify or Produce Writings or Things: Service of Order to Appear Before Court; Order to Appear Before Commission or Master: Contempt

Sec. 8. If any person other than the judge refuses to attend or testify or produce any writings or things required by any such subpoena, the commission or the master may petition any district court for an order, or the master may issue an order, compelling such person to attend and testify or produce the writings or things required by the subpoena before the commission or the master. The court or the master shall order such person to appear before it at a specified time and place and then and there show cause why he has not attended or testified or produced the writings or things as required. A copy of the order shall be served upon him. If it appears to the court or the master that the subpoena was regularly issued, the court or the master shall order such person to appear before the commission or the master at the time and place fixed in the order and testify or produce the required writings or things. Upon failure to obey the order, such person shall be dealt with as for contempt of court.

Depositions: Petition for Order Requiring Person to Appear and Testify Before Designated Officer: Subpoena

Sec. 9. In any pending investigation or formal proceeding, the commission or the master may order the deposition of a person residing within or without the State to be taken in such form and subject to such limitations as may be prescribed in the order. If the judge and counsel for the commission do not stipulate as to the manner of taking the deposition, either the judge or counsel may file in any district court a petition entitled "In the Matter of Proceeding of State Commission on Judicial Conduct No.," (state number)," and stating generally, without identifying the judge, the nature of the pending matter, the name and address of the person whose testimony is desired, and, directions, if any, of the commission or master, asking that an order be made requiring such person to appear and testify before a designated officer. Upon the filing of the petition, the court may make an order requiring such person to appear and testify. A subpoena for such deposition shall be issued by the clerk and the deposition shall be taken and returned, in the manner prescribed by law for depositions in civil actions. If the deposition is that of a person residing or present within this state, the petition shall be filed in the district court of the county in which such person resides or is present, otherwise in the district court of any county in which the commission maintains an office. Upon the failure to obey such subpoena or any order issued in connection therewith, such a person shall be dealt with as for contempt of court.
Art. 5966a  OFFICERS—REMOVAL OF

Fees and Mileage of Witnesses

Sec. 10. Each witness, other than an officer or employee of the state or a political subdivision or an officer or employee of a court of this state, shall receive for his attendance the same mileage and per diem as is allowed witnesses before any grand jury in the state. The amounts shall be paid by the commission from funds appropriated for the use of the commission.

Compensation of Active or Retired Judge or Justice as Master

Sec. 12. Any active district judge or justice of the court of civil appeals appointed to act as master under said Section 1–a shall, in addition to and cumulative of all other compensation and expenses authorized by law, receive, while in the performance of their duties as master, a per diem of $25 for each day, or fraction thereof, spent in the performance of their duties as such master. Any retired judge or justice of a district court, a court of civil appeals, the Court of Criminal Appeals, or the Supreme Court appointed to act as such master shall receive while in the performance of their duties as master a per diem of $25 for each day or fraction thereof spent in the performance of their duties as master and in addition an amount representing the difference between all of the retirement benefits of such judge or justice as a retired judge or justice and the salary and compensation received from the state by active judges or justices of the district courts, courts of civil appeals, the Court of Criminal Appeals, or the Supreme Court as the case might be. Such retirement allowances shall continue to be paid by and from the same source as in the instance of a retired judge who had not been assigned duties. Payments of the additional amounts provided for by this section shall be upon certificates of approval by the commission.

Immunity

Sec. 14. Any person other than the judge who refuses to testify, give testimony or produce documents or things in any proceeding or deposition in connection with any proceeding before the commission or a master upon the ground that his testifying, his testimony or the production of such document or thing may tend to incriminate him, may nevertheless be required to testify and to produce such document or thing, but when so required under the provisions of Section 8 hereof over his proper claim of privilege against self-incrimination or his right not to testify, such person shall not be subject to indictment or prosecution for any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he truthfully testified or produced evidence, documentary or otherwise. A master has the same powers as a district judge in matters of contempt and granting immunity.

Art. 6066e. Underground Natural Gas Storage and Conservation Act of 1977

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be referred to as the Underground Natural Gas Storage and Conservation Act of 1977.

Declaration of Policy

Sec. 2. The underground storage of natural gas promotes the conservation of natural gas, permits the building of reserves for orderly withdrawal in periods of peak demand, makes more readily available natural gas resources to residential, commercial, and industrial customers of this state, provides a better year-round market to the various gas fields, and promotes the public interest and welfare of this state.

Definitions

Sec. 3. In this Act:

(a) “Person” means any natural person, partnership or other combination of natural persons, corporation, group of corporations, trust, or governmental entity.

(b) “Gas utility” means a gas utility as defined in Section 3, Public Utility Regulatory Act (Article 1446c, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), or Article 6060, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

(c) “Native gas” means any gaseous material composed predominantly of the following hydrocarbons or mixtures thereof: methane, ethane, propane, butane (normal or isobutane), in either its original or manufactured state, or gas which has been processed to separate it into one or more of its component parts after its withdrawal from the earth.

(d) “Native gas” means (1) natural gas which has not previously been withdrawn from the earth, or (2) natural gas which has been withdrawn from the storage facility, processed, and reinjected into the storage facility.

(e) “Storage facility” means any subsurface sand, stratum, or formation used or to be used for the underground storage of natural gas and all surface and subsurface rights and appurtenances necessary to the operation of a facility for the underground storage of natural gas.

(f) “Storer” means (1) a gas utility, (2) a wholly owned subsidiary of a gas utility, (3) the parent corporation of a gas utility, or (4) a wholly owned subsidiary of a parent corporation which also wholly owns a subsidiary gas utility. A nonutility storer included in Category (2), (3), or (4) above must operate the storage facility pursuant to a contract with its affiliated gas utility that provides that all withdrawals of natural gas from the storage facility must be delivered to the affiliated gas utility.

(g) “Substantially depleted” means that at least 75 percent of the estimated volume of recoverable native gas reserves originally in place in any gas-bearing sand, formation, or stratum have been withdrawn from the sand, formation, or stratum.

(h) “Interested person” means any person who enters an appearance at the commission hearing required by Section 4 of this Act.
(i) "Commission" means the Railroad Commission of Texas.

Findings of Commission

Sec. 4. (a) Any storer desiring to exercise the right of eminent domain for the acquisition of a storage facility shall, as a condition precedent to the filing of its petition in the appropriate court, obtain from the commission an order finding:

(1) that the underground formation or stratum sought to be acquired is classified by the commission as a gas reservoir and is suitable for the underground storage of natural gas and that the storage of natural gas is necessary for the gas utility to provide adequate service to the public and in the public interest;
(2) that the use of the formation or stratum as a storage facility will cause no injury to surface or underground water resources;
(3) that the formation or stratum does not contain native gas producible in paying quantities unless the recoverable volumes of native gas originally in place are substantially depleted and unless the formation or stratum has a greater value of ultimate use to the consuming public as a storage facility to ensure an adequate supply of natural gas or for the conservation of natural gas than the production of native gas which remains;
(4) the extent of the horizontal limits of the reservoir expected to be penetrated by displaced or injected gas; and
(5) that no portion of the formation or stratum sought to be acquired has been condemned or is being utilized for the injection, storage, and withdrawal of gas by others.

(b) The designation of a storage facility does not prevent any storer from instituting additional proceedings in the event it is later determined that the underground reservoir should be extended to prevent the escape, displacement, or withdrawal by others of injected gas.

Commission Jurisdiction

Sec. 5. The commission shall have jurisdiction to supervise the construction and operation of all storage facilities formed pursuant to this Act, and in addition to the findings required by Section 4 of this Act, the commission shall include in any order of approval a requirement that the storer file a report each month, including each month prior to the time the storage facility is in operation, with the commission showing, for that month, the volume of gas injected and stored gas withdrawn from storage.

Withdrawal of Native Gas

Sec. 6. A storer may withdraw from storage injected and stored gas as market demand dictates. However, anytime a storer's withdrawals from a storage facility equal the volume of gas injected for storage the storer shall not withdraw additional gas from the storage facility without first obtaining specific authority from the commission.

Storage Operations Must be Bona Fide

Sec. 7. A storer must initiate injection operations for gas storage within 12 months after the condemnation order of the court becomes final and storage operations must continue with reasonable diligence thereafter. Should the monthly reports to the commission indicate that bona fide underground gas storage operations are not being conducted, the commission may on its own motion or on motion of any interested person schedule a public hearing, giving the storer the opportunity to show cause why the commission approval of the project should not be withdrawn. If the commission finds that the storage project is not being conducted in a bona fide manner, it shall issue an order withdrawing approval of the storage facility, and all property, both mineral and surface, that was condemned by the storer shall revert to those who owned the property at the time of condemnation or their successors.

Relocation of Facilities

Sec. 8. In the event the acquisition or operation of a storage facility acquired through the exercise of the power of eminent domain requires the relocation or alteration of any railroad, electric, telegraph, telephone, or pipeline lines or facilities, the expense of the relocation or alteration shall be borne by the storer. The expense of relocation means the actual cost incurred in providing a comparable replacement line or facility, less net salvage value from the sale or other disposition of the old facility.

Appropriation of Storage Facilities; Limitations

Sec. 9. After an order of the commission is issued approving a storage facility, a storer may condemn without further attack as to its right to condemn any subsurface sand, stratum, or formation for the underground storage of natural gas, condemning all mineral and royalty rights as are reasonably necessary for the operation of the storage facility, subject to the limitations of this Act, and the storer may condemn any other interests in property that may be required, including interests in the surface estate in the sand, stratum, or formation reasonably necessary to the operation of the storage facility, provided that:

(1) no part of a reservoir is subject to condemnation unless the storer has acquired by option, lease, conveyance, or other negotiated means at least 66% percent of the ownership of minerals, including working interests, and 66% percent of the ownership of the royalty interests, computed in relation to the surface area...
overlying the part of the reservoir which as found by the commission to be expected to be penetrated by displaced or injected gas;
(2) no dwelling, barn, store, or other building is subject to condemnation; and
(3) the right of condemnation is without prejudice to the rights of the owners or holders of other rights or interests of lands to drill through the storage facility under such terms and conditions as the commission may prescribe for the purpose of protecting the storage facility against pollution or escape of natural gas and is without prejudice to the rights of the owners or holders of other rights or interests of the lands to all other uses so long as those uses do not interfere with the operation of the storage facili-y.

Institution of Condemnation Proceedings

Sec. 10. (a) The finding by the commission that underground storage is in the public interest is binding on all persons that the storer has the right to condemn. After that finding of the commission, the storer has the right to condemn all of the underground storage area and any surface area required for the use and enjoyment of the storage facility.

(b) The storer shall initiate eminent domain procedings in the court having jurisdiction wherein a portion of the land is situated. The petition shall set forth the purpose for which the property is sought to be acquired; a description of the sand, stratum, or formation and of the land under which it is alleged to be contained; the names of the owners thereof as shown by the deed records of the county; and a description of all other property and rights sought to be appropriated for use in connection with the storage facility, including any parts of the surface necessary for any facilities incidental to the operation of the storage facility. The petition shall state facts showing that the storer has obtained the findings of the commission required by Section 4 of this Act; that the storer in good faith has been unable to acquire the rights sought to be appropriated; that the storer has acquired, prior to the filing of the petition, by any means other than condemnation, at least 66% percent of the ownership of the minerals, including working interests, and 66% percent of the royalty interests of the property rights in the storage facility required for that purpose; and shall describe the surface area overlying the storage facility the storer seeks to acquire and the names of the owners of those rights and interests.

(c) Where more than one tract of land is involved, al or any tracts may be joined in one proceeding, without prejudice to the right of the storer to institute additional proceedings; provided, however, that the failure to make service upon a defendant does not affect the right of the storer to proceed against any or all other of the defendants upon whom service has been made.

Exercise of Right of Eminent Domain

Sec. 11. All proceedings in connection with the condemnation and acquisition of storage facilities shall be in accordance with Articles 3264 through 3271, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. To the extent of any conflict with this Act, the provisions of this Act prevail.

Ownership of Stored Gas

Sec. 12. All natural gas in the stratum condemned which is not native gas, and which is subsecuently injected into storage facilities is personal property and is the property of the injector or its assigns, and in no event is such gas subject to the right of the owner of the surface of the lands or of any mineral or royalty owner's interest under which the storage facilities lie, or of any person other than the injector to produce, take, reduce to possession, either by means of the law of capture or otherwise, use, or otherwise interfere with or exercise any control over a storage facility. Upon failure, ne-eglect, or refusal of such person to comply with this section, the storer has the right to compel compliance by injunction or by other appropriate relief by application to a court of competent jurisdiction.

Rights of Purchasers of Native Gas

Sec. 13. In the event there are remaining reserves of native gas in the storage facility which are dedicated to a purchaser and the purchaser and storer are unable to agree on an equitable settlement of rights with respect to the remaining native gas within a period of time that will prevent interference with the operation of the storage facility, the storer or purchaser may apply to the commission for an adjudication concerning remaining reserves of native gas. Upon such an application, the commission shall direct a settlement of remaining reserves of native gas that is equitable to all parties, but which does not interfere with the public benefits arising from the operation of the storage facility.
In addition to any other disposition that is equitable to all parties, the commission may make a finding of the quantity of remaining recoverable native gas and an allocation of future production on a reasonable production schedule and order delivery to the purchaser by the storer of the amounts of native gas that the commission finds would have been taken by the purchaser during the term of the purchase agreement.

Abandonment

Sec. 14. When a storer has permanently abandonned the storage facility, the storer shall file with the commission a Notice of Abandonment, and shall file an instrument in the deed records in the appropriate county or counties, stating that (1) the storage has ceased, and (2) all property, both mineral and surface, condemned by the storer has reverted to those who owned the property at the time of condemnation, or their heirs, successors, or assigns. The storer shall also file in the deed records in the appropriate county or counties a list of the owners of the mineral, royalty, and surface owners to whom the various interests have reverted, together with an affidavit that the storer has compiled the list from a current examination of title records and that the list is true and correct to the best of the knowledge of the affiant.

PATRIOTISM AND THE FLAG

Art. 6142a. Clarifying Description of Texas Flag [See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 1 to 5]

Rules Governing the Use of the Texas Flag

Sec. 6. When the Texas Flag is displayed outdoors, it should be on either a flagpole or a staff, and the staff should be at least two and one-half times as long as the Flag. The Flag is always attached at the spearhead end of the staff, and the heading must be made of material strong enough to protect the Colors.

The Texas Flag should not be displayed outdoors earlier than sunrise nor later than sunset. However, when a patriotic effect is desired, the Texas Flag may be displayed 24 hours a day if properly illuminated during the hours of darkness, or under the same circumstances as the Flag of the United States of America may be displayed.

The Texas Flag should not be displayed on days when the weather is inclement, unless a weather-proof flag is displayed.

The Texas Flag should be displayed on all State Memorial Days and on special occasions of historical significance.

Every school in Texas should fly the Texas Flag on all regular school days. This courtesy is due to the Lone Star Flag of Texas.

The Texas Flag should always be hoisted briskly, and furled slowly with appropriate ceremonies.

The Texas Flag should not be fastened in such a manner that it can be torn easily.

When the Texas Flag is flown from a flagpole or staff, the white stripe should always be at the top of the Flag, except in cases of distress, and the red stripe should be directly underneath the white.

The Texas Flag should be on the marching left when it is carried in a procession in which the Flag of the United States of America is unfurled.

The Texas Flag should be on the left of the Flag of the United States of America, and its staff should be behind the staff of the Flag of the United States of America when the two are displayed against a wall from crossed staffs.

When the Texas Flag is flown on a flagpole adjacent to the flagpole on which the Flag of the United States of America is flown, it should be unfurled after the Flag of the United States of America, and it should be displayed at the left of the Flag of the United States of America.

When the Texas Flag and the Flag of the United States of America are displayed at the same time, they should be flown on separate flagpoles of equal length, and the Flags should be approximately the same size. However, when it is necessary for the Texas Flag and the Flag of the United States of America to be flown from the same halyard, the Texas Flag must be beneath the Flag of the United States of America.

When the Texas Flag is flown from a window-sill, balcony, or front of a building, and flat against the wall, it should be on a staff, and the blue field should be at the observer's left.

When the Texas Flag and the Flag of the United States of America are displayed on a speaker's platform at the same time, the Texas Flag should be on the left side of the speaker, while the Flag of the United States of America is on the right side of the speaker.

The Texas Flag should never be used to cover a platform or speaker's desk, nor to drape over the front of a speaker's platform.

When the Texas Flag is displayed flat on the wall of a platform, it should be above the speaker, and the blue field must always be at the Flag's right.

When the Texas Flag is displayed on a motor car, the staff should be fastened firmly to the chassis of the car, or clamped firmly to the right fender, unless the Flag of the United States of America is flown on the right fender, in which case the Texas Flag should be so displayed on the left fender.

When the Texas Flag is displayed on a float in a parade, it should always be attached securely to a staff.

The Texas Flag should not be allowed to touch the ground or the floor, nor to trail in water.

The Texas Flag should not be draped over the hood, top, sides, or back of any vehicle, or of a railroad train, boat, or aircraft.
Art. 6142a

The Texas Flag should not be used as a covering for a ceiling.

The Texas Flag should not be used as any portion of a costume or athletic uniform.

The Texas Flag should not be embroidered upon cushions or handkerchiefs, nor printed on paper napkins or boxes.

The Texas Flag must not be treated disrespectfully by having printing or lettering of any kind placed upon it.

The Texas Flag should not be used in any form of advertising, and, under no circumstances, may advertisements of any kind be attached to the flagpole or staff.

It is disrespectful to the Texas Flag to use it for purposes of decoration, either as a covering for automobiles or floats in a parade, or for draping speakers’ platforms or stands, or for any other similar purpose of decoration. For such purposes of decoration the colors of the Flag may be used in bunting or other cloth.

The Texas Flag should, whenever practicable, not be carried flat or horizontally, but always aloft and free, as it is carried in a parade.

The Texas Flag is flown at half-mast by first raising it to the top of the flagpole, and then slowly lowering it to a position one-half of the distance down the flagpole, and there leaving it during the time it is to be displayed. In taking the Flag down, it should first be raised to the top of the flagpole, and then slowly lowered with appropriate ceremony.

The Texas Flag should not be displayed, used, nor stored in such a manner that it can be easily soiled or otherwise damaged.

When the Texas Flag is in such condition of repair that it is no longer a suitable Emblem for displaying, it should be totally destroyed, preferably by burning, and that privately; or this should be done by some other method in keeping with the spirit of respect and reverence which all Texans owe the Emblem which represents the Lone Star State of Texas.

Secretary; Meetings; Seal; Repairs; Revenues; Bonds

Sec. 6. The Commission shall select one of its members as Chairman, and shall select a Secretary who may or may not be a member. The Commission shall meet on the first Thursday of each month and at such other times as the Chairman deems necessary, by giving the other members notice in writing thereof. The Commission shall procure and adopt a seal bearing the words “State of Texas Battleship Texas Commission” encircled by the oak and olive branches.

The Commission shall have the duty of maintaining and keeping in proper repair the Battleship Texas located in San Jacinto State Park, and shall exact fees or charges from persons for the admission to and inspection of said vessel. Said Commission shall have the power to let concession contracts to the highest bidders for the sale of wares or merchandise to visitors in connection with admission to and inspection of said vessel, and such fees and charges and concession revenues shall be used to pay the operation, repair, and maintenance expenses of said vessel. Said Commission shall also have the power and authority to issue negotiable revenue bonds in the name of “State of Texas Battleship Texas Commission” for the purpose of repairing or improving said vessel or for the construction of protective improvements, including the construction of a bulk-head or bulkheads to prevent erosion around the slip wherein said vessel is berthed or located. Said bonds shall be secured by and payable solely from the net revenues derived by the hereinabove mentioned fees and charges and concession contracts. The Commission is hereby given complete discretion in fixing the form, conditions, and details of such bonds, and in entering into covenants relating to the use of the net revenues in connection with said bonds. Said bonds shall not in any manner constitute an indebtedness of the State of Texas or of said Commission, but shall be payable solely from the net revenues as above specified, and each of said bonds shall have words to this effect printed on the face thereof. Any interest or principal falling due during the period of the construction of repairs or improvements or protective work and all costs incident to the issuance and sale of the bonds may be paid from the bond proceeds. Said bonds shall mature serially over a period of years not to exceed forty (40), bear interest at a rate not to exceed three (3%) per cent per annum, be signed by the Chairman of the Commission and countersigned by the Secretary; provided that the interest coupons may bear the facsimile signatures of such officers. Said bonds shall be sold for not less than their par value plus accrued interest. Said bonds shall be submitted to the Attorney General for examination, and upon approval, shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts. After such approval and registration and delivery to the purchaser or purchasers, said bonds shall be incontestable. Such bonds and the interest thereon shall be exempt from taxation by the State of Texas or by any municipal corporation, county or political subdivision, or taxing district of the State. While said bonds or any of them are outstanding, the Commission shall fix said fees and charges for admission and inspection and the payments under the concession contracts in an amount as will be ample to produce sufficient net revenues (the revenues remaining from the gross revenues after the payment of all proper expenses of operation and maintenance) to pay all requirements of such bonds and to create, establish, and maintain such reserves as may be specified in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such bonds. The Commission shall have the power and duty to revise the fees and charges so that the net revenues will at all times be sufficient for the purpose described above. Any bonds issued under this Act may be refunded at the same or a lower rate of interest upon the cancellation by the Comptroller of the bonds being refunded at the time of registration of the refunding bonds, the said refunding bonds to be issued under the terms and conditions of this Act relating to the original bonds.

No net revenues derived from admission or inspection fees and charges or from concession contracts shall be paid into the General Revenue Fund when there are outstanding revenue bonds payable from said net revenues; provided that if there are no such outstanding revenue bonds, then on August 31st of each year while there are no such outstanding bonds, the Commission shall cause to be paid into the State Treasury of the State of Texas for the benefit of the General Revenue Fund all net revenues then on hand in excess of Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($300,000).

The surviving spouse may select an option plan in the same manner as the member could have if he had retired on the last day of the month of his death. If there is no surviving spouse, the guardian of the deceased member's surviving minor children may select an option plan for the benefit of the minor children. If there is no surviving spouse or minor children, no annuity may be paid pursuant to this subdivision.

16. “Average prior service earnings” shall mean the average monthly earnings received by an employee for service rendered to a participating subdivision during the thirty-six (36) months immediately preceding the effective date of participation of such subdivision in the System, or if there be less than thirty-six (36) months of such service, the average shall be computed for the number of months of such service within such thirty-six (36) months of such service; provided, however, that in calculating the average prior service earnings of any member as employee of a subdivision having a participation date prior to January 1, 1978, actual earnings in any month shall be excluded to the extent that they exceed the lower of the following rates of earnings:

(a) the annual earnings prescribed by the governing body at the time of its determination to participate in the System as the maximum current service earnings for current service deposits and contributions; or
(b) annual earnings in excess of Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000.00) per annum.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 2.17 to 2.19]

20. “Basic Annuity” means that portion of a member’s retirement benefit that is attributable to the sum of the member’s accumulated deposits and the member’s Accumulated Current Service Credit.

21. “Supplemental Annuity” means that portion of a member’s retirement benefit that is attributable to the sum of the member’s Accumulated Program Prior Service Credit and his Accumulated Multiple Matching Credit. The Supplemental Annuity shall also include any increase in monthly benefit payments to annuitants granted by the participating subdivision or after January 1, 1978.

26. “Actuarial Equivalent” shall mean a benefit of equal present value when computed upon the basis of such annuity or mortality tables as shall be adopted by the Board, and upon the assumption of regular interest.

27. “Current Interest” shall mean interest at a rate per centum per annum ascertained each year by dividing (1) the amount in the Interest Fund on December 31 of such year before the transfer of interest to other funds, less an amount equal to regular interest on the sum of the mean amount in the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund during such year and the amount in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund at the beginning of such year by (2) an amount equal to the amount in the Endowment Fund at the beginning of such year and plus the sum of the accumulated deposits in the Employees Saving Fund at the beginning of such year to the credit of all members included in the membership of the System on December 31 of such year before any transfers for retirements effective December 31 of such year are made, it being provided that the above division shall be carried to only three (3) decimal places and shall never be taken as greater than the rate of regular interest.

28. “Regular Interest” as to all periods of time elapsing prior to January 1, 1977, means interest at the rate of three per centum (3%) per annum compounded annually, and as to all periods of time elapsing from and after January 1, 1977, means interest at the rate of four per centum (4%) per annum compounded annually; provided, however, that this provision shall not alter or require recalculation of the amount of any annuity on which a monthly benefit payment was made prior to July 1, 1977.

2. Participation of Employees.

The membership of the System shall be composed as follows:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 3.2(a) and (b)]

(e) Any person, not a member of this System, who has been an employee of a participating subdivision prior to the effective date of participation of such subdivision but who is not an employee of such participating subdivision on the effective date of participation of such subdivision, shall, if he again becomes an employee of such subdivision after the effective date of its participation become a member of the System upon the date he again becomes an employee, provided he is then under the age of sixty (60) or as to persons sixty (60) years or over, if such re-employment is within five (5) years after the effective date of the subdivision's participation, provided the extent of his prior service to such subdivision is equal to or in excess of the period by which his then attained age exceeds the age of sixty (60) years; and otherwise such person shall not be eligible to become a member of this System.

(d) Any person who has been a member of this System and whose membership has terminated by withdrawal, shall, if he again becomes an employee of a participating subdivision, become a member of the System upon the first day of the month following the date such person again becomes an employee if he is then under the age of sixty (60) years, but any such person who is then sixty (60) years or over shall not be eligible to become a member of the System.

Sec. 4. Member deposits.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 4.1(a) and (b)]

(c) The governing body of any subdivision having a participation date prior to January 1, 1978 by appropriate order or resolution, certified to the Board, may provide that earnings of the several employees of the subdivision in excess of the sum of Three Thousand Six Hundred Dollars ($3,600) in any year, or earnings in excess of any other greater multiple of One Thousand Two Hundred Dollars ($1,200) per year, shall be excluded in calculating the deposits and contributions to be made by reason of current service of its employee-members; and the amounts required to be paid in each month by the members as deposits shall not exceed deposits calculated on the basis of one-twelfth (1/12th) of the maximum annual earnings to be considered for retirement purposes as specified by such order or resolution. In like manner, the governing body may increase the amount of earnings on which such deposits and contributions shall be made.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 4.1(d) to (h)]

2. Subdivision Contributions.

(a) Each participating subdivision shall make benefit contributions to the System each month equal to the amount paid to the System by all of its employees for the same payroll period. All such benefit contributions shall be credited to the subdivision's account in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund.

(b) Each participating subdivision shall make payment of the expense contribution to the System each month of the same amount as the contributions made to the Expense Fund by all of its employees for the same payroll periods.

(c) On or before the fifteenth day of each month, each participating subdivision shall remit or cause to be paid to the System at its office the amounts of the benefit contributions and expense contributions due for the preceeding month as herein provided.

(d) Unless otherwise provided for and paid by a subdivision all contributions of the subdivision shall be paid out of the fund from which earnings are paid to the members or out of the General Fund of the subdivision.

Method of Financing

Sec. 5.

1. Funds of the System:

All the assets of the System shall be credited according to the purpose for which they are held to one (1) of six (6) funds, namely, the Employees Saving Fund, the Subdivision Accumulation Fund, the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund, the Interest Fund, the Endowment Fund and the Expense Fund.

2. The Employees Saving Fund:

The Employees Saving Fund shall be a Fund in which shall be accumulated the deposits from the compensation of members plus current interest earnings. Contributions to and payments from the Employees Saving Fund shall be made as follows:

(a) Each participating subdivision shall cause to be deducted from the salary of each member, on each and every payroll of such employer for each and every payroll period, a sum of money equal to seven per cent (7%), six per cent (6%), five per cent (5%), or four per cent (4%) of his current-service earnings, as fixed by the governing body of the participating subdivision. In determining the amount earnable by a member in a payroll period, the Board may consider the rate of annual compensation payable to such member on the first day of the payroll period as continuing throughout such payroll period, and it may omit deductions from earnings for any period less than a full payroll period, if the employee was not a member on the first day of the payroll period, and to facilitate the making of deductions, it may modify the deduction required of any member for any payroll period by the amount of twenty-five cents (25¢) or less.
(b) The deductions provided for herein shall be made notwithstanding that the minimum compensation provided for by law for any member shall be reduced thereby. Every member shall be deemed to consent and agree to the deductions made and provided for herein and shall receive for his salary or compensation and payment of salary or compensation, less said deduction, shall be a full and complete discharge and acquittance of all claims and demands whatsoever for the services rendered by such person during the period covered by such payment, except as to the benefits provided under this Act. The employer shall certify to the Board on each and every payroll, or in such other manner as said Board may prescribe, the amounts to be deducted; and each of said amounts shall be deducted, and when deducted shall be paid into said Employees Saving Fund, and shall be credited to the individual account of the member from whose compensation said deduction was made.

(c) During the time that the United States is at war (as hereinafter defined) and for twelve (12) months thereafter, a member of the System (1) in the Armed Forces of the United States or their auxiliaries or in the Armed Forces Reserve of the United States and their auxiliaries or in the service of the American Red Cross, as a result of having volunteered or having been drafted or conscripted thereinto, or (2) in war work as a result of having been drafted or conscripted by governmental action into said war work, shall be permitted to deposit each year to the System a sum not to exceed the amount deposited by him to said System during the last year that he was employed as an employee under the provisions of this Act. The sum so deposited by such member and received by the System shall be deposited by said System in the Employees Saving Fund to the credit of the member's individual account and shall be treated in the same manner as funds deposited by the member while he was last employed as under the provisions of this Act. The subdivision by which such person was last employed shall make concurrent benefit contributions matching those so made by such member.

(d) Current interest on member's deposit shall be credited annually as of the thirty-first day of December and shall be allowed on the amount of the accumulated deposits standing to the credit of the member at the beginning of the year and shall not be allowed for parts of a year.

(e) Should a member cease to be an employee of a participating subdivision except by death or retirement under the provisions of this Act, upon the filing of formal application therefor, such member's accumulated deposits shall be paid to him and his account in the Employees Saving Fund closed.

Following the automatic termination of membership in the System for those members who have been absent from service in all participating subdivisions more than sixty (60) consecutive months, the Employees Saving Fund account of such members shall cease to draw interest.

(f) Should a member die before retirement the amount of his accumulated deposits shall be paid as provided in Section VII of this Act.

(g) Upon the retirement of a member his accumulated deposits shall be transferred from the Employees Saving Fund to the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund.

3. Subdivision Accumulation Fund:

The Subdivision Accumulation Fund shall be the Fund in which shall be accumulated all benefit contributions made to the Texas County and District Retirement System by the participating subdivisions and from which transfers and payments shall be made as below provided.

(a) The balances standing to the credit of each participating subdivision in its accumulation accounts in the System on December 31, 1977, after all other closing entries for such year have been made shall be credited to such subdivision's account in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund effective January 1, 1978. All benefit contributions thereafter payable by participating subdivisions shall be paid into the Subdivision Accumulation Fund and shall be credited to the accounts of the respective participating subdivisions in such Fund.

(b) Upon the retirement of a member, an amount equal to that proportion of his accumulated deposits in the Employees Saving Fund which the participating subdivision agreed on its participation date to provide as reserves for the Basic Annuity of the member shall be transferred from the Subdivision Accumulation Fund into the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund. If the accumulated deposits of such retiring members have accumulated from deposits made while an employee of a single participating subdivision, such subdivision's account in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund shall be reduced by the amount so transferred. If such accumulated deposits arose from service in more than one participating subdivision, the accounts of the involved participating subdivisions in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund shall be reduced by the respective amounts chargeable to such participating subdivisions.
Art. 6228g  PENSIONS

(c) All payments under prior service annuities heretofore granted and in force and all payments under Supplemental Annuities arising from credits granted by a participating subdivision shall be paid from this Fund and charged to such participating subdivision’s account in this Fund subject to the following: The Board shall have the power to reduce proportionately all payments under such annuities at any time and for such period of time as is necessary so that the payments under such annuities in any year shall not exceed the amounts available in such participating subdivision’s account in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund.

4. Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund:

The Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund shall be the Fund in which shall be held all reserves for current service annuities heretofore granted and in force and for all Basic Annuities hereafter granted, and from which shall be paid all such annuities and all benefits in lieu of such annuities, payable as provided in this Act. This Fund shall be made up of transfers as follows:

(a) At the time of service or disability retirement, the accumulated deposits of a retiring member shall be transferred from the Employees Saving Fund to the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund as reserves for the Basic Annuity purchased by said member’s deposits.

(b) An amount equal to that proportion of the accumulated deposits of each retiring member which the participating subdivision agreed on its participation date to provide at retirement, shall be transferred, upon such member’s retirement, from the Subdivision Accumulation Fund as additional Basic Annuity reserves.

Transfers and payments from the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund shall be made as provided in Section VII of this Act, upon the death, restoration to active service or removal from the disability list, of an annuitant retired on account of disability.

5. Interest Fund:

The Interest Fund is hereby created to facilitate the crediting of interest to the various other Funds. All income, interest and dividends derived from the deposits and investments authorized by this Act shall be paid into the Interest Fund. Once each year on the thirty-first day of December, interest shall be allowed and transferred to the other Funds respectively. After interest-bearing funds have been duly credited with interest for the year in the manner provided by this Act, the Board annually shall transfer all excess earnings from the Interest Fund to one or another of the several special accounts of the Endowment Fund as in its judgment the needs and condition of the System may require.

6. Endowment Fund:

The Endowment Fund shall be a Fund in which shall be accumulated gifts, awards, funds and assets accruing to the System which are not specifically required by other Funds established by this Act. The Endowment Fund shall consist of the following special accounts: the general reserves account; the distributive benefits account; the perpetual endowment account; and such other special accounts as the Board by resolution may establish.

(a) There shall be credited to the general reserves account all current interest allocable to the Endowment Fund, and there shall be transferred from the Interest Fund to said account such portion of the excess earnings, as in the judgment of the Board may be necessary: (1) to provide adequate reserves against insufficient future earnings on investments to allow regular interest on Funds entitled thereto under the provisions of this Act; (2) to provide adequate reserves against special and general contingency requirements of other Funds of the System; and (3) to provide such amount, if available, as is required for the administrative expenses of the System in the ensuing year. The requirements of this account shall constitute a first charge against excess interest earnings standing to the credit of the Interest Fund at the end of any year. If in the judgment of the Board, the amount to the credit of the general reserves account is in excess of that needed to provide adequate reserves against insufficient earnings on investments, and special and general contingent requirements, then so much of any excess as remains as is required to pay administrative expenses for the ensuing year may be transferred to the Expense Fund.

(b) After the requirements of the general reserves account of this Fund have been satisfied, the Board may transfer any balance of excess earnings remaining in the Interest Fund at the end of a calendar year to a special account in the Endowment Fund to be denominated the “distributive benefits account.” If in the judgment of the Board the amount to the credit of the distributive benefit account at the end of the year is sufficient to warrant such action, the Board may by resolution:

(1) authorize the distribution and payment of all or part of said amount as a distributive benefit to the persons who were annuitants of the System on the last day of said calendar year in the ratio that the monthly benefit of each such annuitant bears to the total of all annuity payments made by the System for the final month of such year.

(2) authorize the distribution and application of all or part of said amount as supplemental interest earned by, and to be paid and credited to the respective individual accounts of members in the Employees Saving Fund, and to the respective accounts of participating subdivisions in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund, in proportion to the current interest allowed on individual accounts of members in the Employees Saving Fund and the regular interest allowed on accounts of participating subdivisions in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund. The supplemental interest shall be allowed on the Employees Saving Fund in the same manner that current interest is allowed on said Fund; and supplemental interest shall be allowed on the Subdivision Accumulation Fund in the same manner that regular interest is allowed on said Fund.

(c) The perpetual endowment account shall be the account in which there shall be deposited and kept such funds, gifts and awards as the grantors thereof may designate as a perpetual endowment for the System.

7. Expense Fund:

The Expense Fund shall be the Fund from which the expenses of administration and maintenance of the System shall be paid.

(a) The Director shall prepare annually an itemized budget showing the amount required to defray the expenses for the ensuing fiscal year and shall submit the report to the Board for its review, amendment and adoption.

(b) The amount estimated to be required to meet the expenses of the System shall be paid from the general reserves account of the Endowment Fund to the extent available. The Board, as evidenced by a resolution of the Board recorded in its minutes, may transfer to the Expense Fund the amount required to cover the expenses as estimated for the year.

(c) If the amount estimated to be required to meet said expenses of the System is in excess of the amount in the general reserves account of the Endowment Fund which is available for administrative expenses, the Board, by a resolution recorded in its minutes, shall assess the estimated additional amount against and collect the same from the participating subdivisions and from members as Expense Fund contributions.

Creditable Service

Sec. 6.

5. Creditable service at retirement on which the retirement allowance of a member shall be based shall consist of the current service rendered by him for which he has contributions credited to his account in the Employees Saving Fund, and also, if he has a prior service certificate which is in full force and effect, the length of the service credited on his prior service certificate.

Any participating subdivision by order of its governing body may allow those persons who are members at the date of said order and who have terminated a previous membership in the System by withdrawal of then-accumulated deposits and who at date of such order have or thereafter accumulate at least twenty-four (24) consecutive months of creditable service with such subdivision since reestablishment of membership, to redeposit with the System in a single sum the accumulated deposits made as an employee of such subdivision, plus a withdrawal charge of five percent (5%) per annum from date of withdrawal to date of redeposit, and to provide that such member shall thereupon be entitled to restoration of all creditable service deriving from service performed by such member for such subdivision, which the member had at date of termination of the earlier membership.

Any such eligible member who makes the required deposits and pays the withdrawal charges above provided shall thereupon be entitled to restoration of all creditable service derived from service with such participating subdivision, which the member had at date of such previous membership; and the amount redeposited shall be placed in the member’s individual account in the Employees Saving Fund of the System, but the five percent (5%) per annum withdrawal charge shall be deposited in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund to the credit of the participating subdivision assuming the other obligations arising from granting of credit for such former service. In such event the consenting subdivision’s account in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund shall be charged with the necessary reserves to fund any credits restored to the member. No such restoration of credits shall be undertaken by any participating subdivision unless it shall first be determined by the actuary that the granting of such credits by the participating subdivision would not impair the ability of the subdivision to meet all present and prospective liabilities of the subdivision’s account in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund, and would not impair the ability of the subdivision to provide for payment of Basic Annuities or Supplemental Annuities.

7. “Allocated Prior Service Credit” shall mean that percentage of the calculated “Maximum Prior Service Credit” of a member which is granted by the subdivision to the member, such percentage to be the same for all of the members of the subdivision and to be such that the total “Allocated Prior Service Credits” granted by the subdivision will not exceed in the aggregate an amount for which the prospective benefit contributions of such subdivision will be adequate:

(a) to fund, within twenty-five (25) years from such subdivision's participation date, all obligations that are charges against its account in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund; and

(b) to provide the amount required according to this Act to be paid during such period under Supplemental Annuities arising from credits granted by such participating subdivision, and to provide such amounts as will be required to provide Basic Annuities in accordance with Paragraph b of Subsection 4 of Section V.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 6.8]

9. (a) "Current Service Credit" as used herein means an amount equivalent to a percentage (determined as hereinafter provided) of the deposits made to the System by a member during a given calendar year. Such percentage of deposits shall be the percentage agreed to by the subdivision on its participation date. For subdivisions participating on or after January 1, 1978, such percentage shall be 100%.

(b) "Accumulated Current Service Credit" shall mean the "current service credit" allowed a member for a given calendar year, accumulated at interest (as provided in this subsection) from the end of such year until the effective date of such member's retirement. Interest shall be allowed for each respective year of the accumulation period at the rate of interest allowed by the System on members' deposits for such year, but interest shall not be allowed for part of a year.

10. (a) "Multiple Matching Credit" shall mean an amount equivalent to a percentage (determined as hereinafter provided) of the deposits made to the System by a member during a given calendar year. Such percentage shall be 0% until some greater percentage is elected by the member's participating subdivision in accordance with the provisions of Subsection 11 of Section VI. The Multiple Matching Credit of a member shall include the excess, if any, of his Current Service Credit in force on January 1, 1978, over his Current Service Credit as defined in Paragraph (a) of Subsection 9 of this Section VI.

(b) "Accumulated Multiple Matching Credit" shall mean the Multiple Matching Credit allowed a member for a given calendar year, accumulated at interest (as provided in this subsection) from the end of such year until the effective date of such member's retirement. Interest shall be allowed for each respective year of the accumulation period at the rate of interest allowed by the System on members' deposits for such year, but interest shall not be allowed for part of a year.

11. (a) A participating subdivision may increase benefits theretofore granted, or credits upon which future retirements will be allowed, or may adopt any additional coverage allowed by this Act, in the time and manner, and subject to the conditions set out in this section.

(b) A participating subdivision may provide for increase in such benefits or credits or may adopt additional coverage only after an actuarial valuation (as prescribed by Section 8, Section 4(e)) has been made as of December 31 valuation date which is co-terminal with, or subsequent to, completion of three or more years of participation from and after the later of the following dates, viz:

(1) the original date of participation by the subdivision involved; or

(2) the effective date of the latest preceding increase in benefits, or extension of coverage, allowed by such subdivision under this section.

(c) Any extension of coverage, or increase in benefits, may be made effective only on January 1 of a calendar year, and after the lapse of twelve months from the actuarial valuation date above mentioned.

(d) The increases in credits or benefits and additional coverages which may be adopted and allowed by the subdivision (conditioned that it may provide for funding the same as hereinafter provided) are one or more of the following:

(1) Increase in Multiple Matching Credits theretofore allowed and to be allowed thereafter with such increase to be a multiple of 10% of member deposits, provided that all Multiple Matching Credits theretofore allowed shall be further increased, if necessary, so that all Multiple Matching Credits are provided on the basis of the same percentage of member deposits;

(2) Increase in monthly benefit payments attributable to benefits payable from the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund;

(3) Increase in Allocated Prior Service Credits theretofore granted and in effect;

(4) Increase in monthly benefit payments attributable to benefits payable from the Subdivision Accumulation Fund;

(5) Granting the right of deferred service retirement, as hereinbelow defined, to any of its employees who has accumulated twenty (20) or more years of Creditable Service with such subdivision and other participating subdivisions which have adopted twenty-year deferred service eligibility.

The terms "right of deferred service retirement" as used above means the right to remain in service and to file a written selection with the Retirement Board of an optional allowance and designated nominee (as provided in Subsection 3 of Section 7), and in the event the member thereafter dies while in service he shall be con-considered to have retired effective as of the last day of the calendar month next preceding the month in which death occurs. In event any person eligible for deferred service retirement shall die without having a written selection of optional allowance and designated beneficiary on file with said Board, or whose designated nominee under options 1 or 2 is not living at the date of death of the member; such member shall be considered to have elected Option 4A retirement, or (at the election of his beneficiary) shall be considered as having been an active member at date of death and the beneficiary may thereby elect to receive the accumulated contributions of the deceased member.

(6) Granting prior service credit for any periods of active service (not in excess of 36 months total), in the armed forces of the United States performed during the time the United States was involved in organized conflict with foreign forces, whether in a formal state of war or police action, to any person who was an employee of such subdivision immediately prior to the beginning of such service in the armed forces, who entered such service without intervening employment and who returned to the employment of the participating subdivision within one hundred eighty (180) days following his discharge from or release from active duty with the armed forces.

(7) Granting the right of deferred service retirement, as that term is defined in Paragraph (5) above, to any of its employees who shall have attained the age of sixty (60) years and has accumulated twelve (12) or more years of creditable service with such subdivision and other participating subdivisions which have adopted twelve-year deferred service eligibility, provided, however, that no participating subdivision shall be eligible to grant the benefits described in this Paragraph (7) unless such subdivision has previously granted or is currently granting the twenty-year deferred service benefits as described in Paragraph (5) above.

(8) Granting to any of its employees who has accumulated at least twelve (12) years of creditable service with such subdivision and other participating subdivisions which have adopted twelve-year vesting, the right, if he withdraws from service prior to attainment of age sixty (60), to remain a member and to retire at age sixty (60), or at any date subsequent thereto which is not later than the date of mandatory retirement, conditioned that the member is still living at date of retirement and conditioned that he has not withdrawn his accumulated contributions.

(9) Granting to any person who is or was a member of the military service during the time the United States was or is involved in organized conflict with foreign forces, whether in a state of war or a police action involving conflict with foreign forces, or for reason of crisis within this country, and within a period of twelve (12) months after the end of the conflict, and who has been or is relieved from active military service under conditions other than dishonorable, and who at any time thereafter becomes a member of the Texas County and District Retirement System, either as an elective or appointive officer or an employee, the right to apply for and receive credit for retirement service under this Act, upon the following conditions having been met: (A) If such elective official or appointive official or employee has been employed by a participating subdivision or subdivisions for ten (10) years and has ten (10) years' retirement credit as an employee, he shall be allowed Current Service Credit and Multiple Matching Credit for each month of his active military service, but not to exceed three (3) years. (B) If such elective official or appointive official or employee has been employed by a participating subdivision or subdivisions for fifteen (15) years, and has fifteen (15) years' retirement credit as an employee, he shall be allowed Current Service Credit and Multiple Matching Credit for each month of his active military service, but not to exceed five (5) years. (C) Notwithstanding any other provisions herein no person otherwise eligible for credit for military service herein shall be eligible to receive such credit if such person shall be receiving or hereafter receives any military retirement provided by any federal law or regulation or federal retirement act, for at least twenty (20) years' active duty. No person shall be granted credit for any such service that is simultaneously credited by the Texas County and District Retirement System or by any other retirement system or program established under or governed by the laws of this State. All applications for credit for military service under this Act must be made within one year after the effective date of granting by the subdivision of such credit for military service, or within one year of the date the person making such application first is eligible for said credit, whichever is later. Any person applying for credit authorized by this provision shall pay to the Texas County and District Retirement System a sum equal to the number of months in actual service for which credit or additional credit is sought times his average per month deposit, not to exceed Fifteen Dollars ($15) per month, made with the retirement system during the first twelve (12) years of active service (not in excess of 36 months total), in the armed forces of the United States performed during the time the United States was involved in organized conflict with foreign forces, whether in a formal state of war or police action, to any person who was an employee of such subdivision immediately prior to the beginning of such service in the armed forces, who entered such service without intervening employment and who returned to the employment of the participating subdivision within one hundred eighty (180) days following his discharge from or release from active duty with the armed forces.
months as an employee after becoming a member of the retirement system. Such contributions made for military retirement credit shall be deposited in the member's individual account in the Employees Saving Fund. Benefit contributions shall be made by the subdivision in an amount equal to the amount deposited by the member, and shall be deposited to its account in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund. The Board of Trustees of the Texas County and District Retirement System shall determine and by order define the period or periods which shall be recognized as organized conflict or crisis within the contemplation of this Act; and thereupon shall allow credit for every full month of such period or periods.

(e) No increase in monthly benefit payments attributable to benefits payable from the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund or from the Subdivision Accumulation Fund, Allocated Prior Service Credits, Current Service Credits, or Multiple Matching Credits theretofore allowed shall be permitted which would produce greater benefits for such completed service than would be provided for Current Service Credits and Multiple Matching Credits allowable for comparable current and future service.

(f) No such proposed increase in benefits or credits, or proposed extension of coverage shall be permitted if the result thereof (on the basis of calculations made by the actuary and approved by the Board) would impair the ability of the subdivision to fund within twenty-five (25) years from date of the December 31 valuation referred to in 11(b) above all obligations that are charges against its account in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund.

(g) No such increase in benefits or credits or proposed extension of coverage shall be permitted unless it is determined and certified by the actuary that the particular December 31 valuation date referred to in 11(b) above, all obligations of the subdivision then existing before any such increase, would be amortized on or before the 20th anniversary of said particular December 31 valuation date.

(h) No such increase in benefits or credits, or proposed extension of coverage shall be effective unless and until the proposal is approved by the Board as conforming to all of the requirements above.

18. Each subdivision having active members and annuitants who have had benefit credits calculated on a basis other than the member's full earnings may elect, effective January 1, 1978, or at the beginning of any subsequent calendar year, to have all such benefit credits of members not retired, and future payments of retirement benefits in force on the date of election recalculated on a full earnings basis, subject to the following conditions:

(a) Each member in the electing subdivision shall have his Maximum Prior Service Credit (or Maximum Special Prior Service Credit, if applicable) recalculated as the sum of:

(1) an amount determined in accordance with the provisions of Subsection 6 of Section VI (or Subsection 9(e) of Section X, if applicable) provided that such member's average prior service earnings for the purpose of such recalculation shall be as defined in Subsection 16 of Section II, except that actual earnings in excess of limits imposed by Subsections 16(a) and (b) of Section II shall not be excluded in determining such member's average prior service earnings; and

(2) an amount determined as two times the excess of (i) over (ii), discounted at regular interest from the date one year prior to the date of election to the subdivision's participation date, where (i) is the amount of accumulated deposits the member would have had one year prior to the date of election if in each calendar year since his date of membership in the System he had contributed on the basis of the deposit rate applicable at that time and his total earnings at that time, and (ii) is his actual accumulated deposits one year prior to the date of election.

(b) Each annuitant in the electing subdivision will have future payments of his monthly retirement benefit recalculated as the amount the annuitant would have been receiving as a monthly benefit on the date of election if at date of the member's retirement the monthly benefit had been calculated in accordance with the formula set out in the above Paragraph (a) of this subsection, except that the accumulated deposits used in the calculation shall be determined as of the member's retirement date.

(c) Each subdivision electing this option must also elect for its members to make deposits after the date of election on a full earnings basis.

(d) No such recalculation of benefit credits shall be permitted if it is determined by the actuary that such recalculation would impair the ability of the subdivision to fund all obligations that are charges against its account in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund within the twenty-five (25) year period specified in Subsection 11(g) above.

Sec. 7.

1. Composition of Retirement Benefits.

Each retirement benefit shall be composed of a Basic Annuity as defined in Subsection 20 of Section II and a Supplemental Annuity as defined in Subsection 21 of Section II. The Basic Annuity shall be payable from the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund, and the Supplemental Annuity shall be payable from the Subdivision Accumulation Fund. All Supplemental Annuities shall be subject to reduction by the Board under the circumstances provided in Section V of this Act.

2. Service Retirement Eligibility.

(a) Any member, after one (1) year from the effective date of his membership, shall be eligible for service retirement who (1) shall have attained the age of sixty (60) years and shall have completed at least twelve (12) years of creditable service, or (2) shall have completed thirty (30) years of creditable service.

(b) Application for service retirement shall be made to the Board setting forth the date the member desires his retirement to become effective provided: (1) such application shall be executed and filed at least thirty (30) days and not more than ninety (90) days prior to the date on which such retirement is to become effective; (2) the effective date specified in the application shall be the last day of a calendar month, and shall not be a date preceding the termination of the member's employment with an employing subdivision.

(c) With the provision that no retirement shall be effective within one (1) year after the effective date of his membership, each member shall be retired from employment by all subdivisions on the last day of the calendar year in which the age of seventy (70) is attained, or upon the last day of the calendar year in which he completes twelve (12) years of creditable service, whichever shall last occur; provided, however, that in exceptional cases and for substantial cause such retirement may be deferred by mutual consent of the member and the employing subdivision from year to year for a period of not to exceed one (1) year at any time.

(d) Any member who has accepted service retirement shall be ineligible and disqualified to resume or continue service in any participating subdivision.

3. (a) Standard Service Retirement Benefit.

A member who retires upon the basis of service eligibility shall be entitled to receive a "standard service retirement benefit" which shall be the actuarial equivalent of the sum of a member's accumulated deposits, Accumulated Current Service Credit, Accumulated Allocated Prior Service Credit, and Accumulated Multiple Matching Credit.

The standard service retirement benefit shall be payable during the life of the member, but with the provision that upon the member's death an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the member's accumulated deposits at time of retirement over the sum of the "standard service retirement benefit" payments received by the member shall be paid to the member's estate unless he has directed such amount to be paid otherwise. Such excess shall be paid from the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund and the Subdivision Accumulation Fund in the proportion that parts of the member's standard service retirement benefit that were payable from the respective funds bear to the whole benefit determined as of the effective date of retirement.

(b) Optional Service Retirement Benefits.

In lieu of the "standard service retirement benefit" allowable under Subsection 3(a) above, and provided that the member shall make such election and nomination within thirty (30) days after the date fixed for retirement, any member retiring for service may elect to receive the actuarial equivalent of his standard service retirement benefit as an optional service retirement benefit payable to the member during his lifetime, but with the provision that:

Option 1. Upon his death, the optional service retirement benefit shall be continued throughout the life of, and paid to, such person as the member shall nominate by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the Board within the time above provided; or

Option 2. Upon his death, one-half of the optional service retirement benefit shall be continued throughout the life of, and paid to, such person as the member shall nominate by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the Board within the time above provided; or

Option 3. In the event of his death before sixty (60) monthly payments have been made of the optional service retirement benefit, the payments shall be continued to such person as the member nominates by written designation (or if no such designated beneficiary survives the member, to the member's estate) until the remainder of the sixty (60) monthly payments have been made; or

Option 4A. In the event of his death before one hundred twenty (120) payments have been made of his optional service retirement benefit, the payments shall be continued to such person as the member nominates by written designation (or if no such designated beneficiary survives the member, to the member's estate) until the remainder of the one hundred twenty (120) monthly payments have been made; or

Option 5. Some other benefit or benefits may be paid either to the member or to such person or persons as he may nominate, provided the same shall be approved by the Board, and provided such other benefit or benefits, shall be certified by the actuary to be the actuarial equivalent of the standard service retirement benefit.
benefit to which the member is entitled at the effective date of his retirement.

Any member retiring for service who dies within thirty (30) days after the effective date of his retirement and who has not made an election to receive an optional service retirement benefit as herein provided shall be considered to have elected Option 4A above or, at the election of his beneficiary, such deceased member shall be considered as having been an active member at death and the beneficiary may thereby elect to receive the accumulated contributions of the deceased member.

Any member who shall have accumulated at least twenty (20) years of creditable service may withdraw from service prior to the attainment of the age sixty (60) and shall become entitled to retirement with a Service Retirement Allowance upon his attainment of the age of sixty (60) years, or at his option at any date subsequent to his attainment of said age but not later than the date of his mandatory retirement as set out in paragraph (c) of subsection 2 of this Section VII provided that such member is then living and has not withdrawn his contributions and provided that such retirement may not be effective prior to one year after the effective date of his membership and will be effective only as of the last day of a calendar month and will be effective not less than thirty (30) days or more than ninety (90) days subsequent to the execution and filing with the Retirement Board of written application therefor.

Any member who has accumulated thirty (30) or more years of creditable service shall have the right, until the date of his mandatory retirement as set out in paragraph (c) of subsection 2 of this Section VII, to remain in service and to file a written selection with the Retirement Board, in such form as the Retirement Board may prescribe, of an optional allowance and designated nominee, as provided for in subsection 3(b) of this Section, and in the event such member thereafter dies while in service he shall be considered to have retired effective as of the last day of the calendar month next preceding the month in which death occurs or as of the end of one year after the effective date of his membership whichever date shall occur last, and any such member who has filed such selection of optional allowance and designated nominee, may at his option from time to time, prior to retirement or death, file an amended written selection of optional allowance and designated nominee. Any such member who has accumulated thirty (30) or more years of creditable service who dies in service without having a written selection of optional allowance and designated nominee on file with the Retirement Board or whose designated nominee under such written selection of Option 1 or Option 2 of the options provided by subsection 3(b) of this Section VII last filed with the Retirement Board is not living on the date of death of the member, shall be considered to have elected Option 4A above or, at the election of his beneficiary, such deceased member shall be considered as having been an active member at death and the beneficiary may thereby elect to receive the accumulated contributions of the deceased member.

5. Disability Retirement Eligibility:

With the provision that no retirement shall be effective within one (1) year after the effective date of membership, upon the application of a member or of his employer or his legal representative acting in his behalf, any member with less than twelve (12) years of creditable service may be retired by the Board, not less than thirty (30) and not more than ninety (90) days next following the date of filing of such application, on a disability retirement allowance, provided that the Medical Board, after a medical examination of such member, shall certify that such member is mentally or physically incapacitated for the further performance of duty, that such incapacity is the direct result of injuries sustained subsequent to the effective date of membership by external and violent means as a direct and proximate result of the performance of his duties, that such incapacity is likely to be permanent and that such member should be retired.

With the provision that no retirement shall be effective within one (1) year after the effective date of membership, upon the application of a member or of his employer or his legal representative acting in his behalf, any member with twelve (12) years or more of creditable service, who is not eligible for service retirement, may be retired by the Board, not less than thirty (30) and not more than ninety (90) days next following the date of filing of such application on a disability retirement allowance, provided that the Medical Board, after a medical examination of such member, shall certify that such member is mentally or physically incapacitated for the further performance of duty, that such incapacity is likely to be permanent and that such member should be retired.

6. Standard Disability Retirement Benefits:

Upon retirement for disability a member shall receive a disability retirement benefit which shall be the actuarial equivalent of the sum of the member's accumulated deposits, Accumulated Current Service Credit, Accumulated Allocated Prior Service Credit and Accumulated Multiple Matching Credit.

7. Requirements and Conditions Applicable to Disability Benefits:

Once each year during the first five (5) years following retirement of a member on a disability retirement benefit, and once in every three-year period thereafter, the Board may, and upon his application shall, require any disability annuitant who has not yet attained the age of sixty (60) years to undergo a medical examination, such examination to be made at the place of residence of said annuitant or any other place mutually agreed upon, by a physician or physicians designated by the Board. Should any disability annuitant who has not yet attained the age of sixty (60) years refuse to submit to at least one (1) medical examination in any such periods by a physician or physicians designated by the Board, his allowance shall be discontinued until his withdrawal of such refusal, and should his refusal continue for one (1) year, all his rights in and to his allowance shall be revoked by the Board.

(a) Should the Medical Board report and certify to the Board that such disability annuitant is no longer physically or mentally incapacitated for the performance of duty, or that such disability annuitant is engaged in or is able to engage in a gainful occupation, and should the Board by a majority vote concur in such report, then his allowance shall be discontinued.

(b) Should a disability annuitant under the age of sixty (60) years be restored to active service in a participating subdivision, his retirement allowance shall cease, he shall again become a member of the System, and any reserves on his Basic Annuity at that time in the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund shall be transferred to the Employees Saving Fund and to the Subdivision Accumulation Fund, respectively, in proportion to the original sum transferred to the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund at retirement. Upon restoration to membership, any Prior Service Certificate on the basis of which his service was computed at the time of his retirement shall be restored to full force and effect, and in addition, upon his subsequent retirement, he shall be credited with all his membership service. Should a disability annuitant die or be removed from the disability list for any cause other than restoration to active service, an amount equal to the amount by which such annuitant’s accumulated deposits at the time of disability retirement exceed the sum of the Basic Annuity and Supplemental Annuity payments received by such annuitant under his disability allowance, if any such excess exists, shall be paid from the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund and the Subdivision Accumulation Fund, in the proportion that parts of the disabled annuitant’s disability retirement benefit that were payable from the respective funds bear to the whole benefit determined as of the effective date of retirement. Such payment shall be made to such annuitant if living; otherwise, such amount shall be paid to his estate unless he has directed such amount to be paid otherwise.

8. Return of Deposits Upon Other Terminations:

Should a member cease to be an employee of a participating subdivision except by death or retirement under the provisions of this Act, he shall, upon application, be paid in full the amount of the accumulated deposits standing to the credit of his individual account in the Employees Saving Fund. In the event of death of a member before retirement, and prior to the accumulation of thirty (30) or more years of creditable service, the amount of his accumulated deposits standing to the credit of his individual account in the Employees Saving Fund shall be paid to his estate unless he has directed the account to be paid otherwise. Seven (7) years after cessation of service, if no previous demand has been made, any accumulated deposits of a contributor shall be returned to him or to his estate. If the contributor or the administrator of his estate cannot then be found, his accumulated deposits shall be escheated to the Retirement System, and shall be credited to the perpetual endowment account of the Endowment Fund.

The Board of Trustees is authorized to increase the monthly benefits payable after July 1, 1977, on each current service annuity on which a monthly benefit payment was made on June 30, 1977. The monthly benefits payable may be increased by the percentage by which (a) exceeds (b), where (a) is the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund balance as of July 1, 1977, plus regular interest on the mean balance of such fund from January 1, 1977, to July 1, 1977, and (b) is the System’s current service annuity reserve calculated on the basis of four percent (4%) interest and such mortality and other tables adopted by the Board as may become effective on July 1, 1977.

10. Valuation Basis Adjustment in Prior Service Annuities.

The Board of Trustees is authorized to increase the monthly benefits payable after July 1, 1977, on each prior service annuity on which a monthly benefit payment was made on June 30, 1977. The monthly benefit payable may be increased for annuitants in each participating subdivision by the percentage by which (a) exceeds (b), where (a) is the subdivision’s prior service reserve calculated on the basis of three percent (3%) interest and such mortality and other tables adopted by the Board as are in effect on June 30, 1977, and (b) is the subdivision’s prior service annuity reserve calculated on the basis of four percent (4%) interest and such mortality and other tables adopted by the Board as may become effective July 1, 1977. It is further provided that no increase in monthly benefits payable on prior service annuities for annuitants of a particular subdivision shall be made in an amount which (according to calculations made by the actuary on the basis of four percent (4%) interest and such mortality and other tables as are adopted by the Board) would result in a probable future depletion of the subdivision's account in the Subdivision Prior Service Accumulation Fund with the resulting need to reduce prior service annuities payable to retired members.

Sec. 8.

1a. The Board of Trustees of the Texas County and District Retirement System is subject to the Texas Sunset Act, but it is not abolished under that Act. The board shall be reviewed under the Texas Sunset Act during the period in which state agencies abolished effective September 1 of 1989 and of every 12th year after 1989 are reviewed.

2. The Board shall have, in addition to all other powers and duties arising out of this Act not otherwise specifically reserved or delegated to others, the following specific powers and duties and is hereby authorized and directed to:

(a) Hold regular meetings in March, June, September and December of each year, and such special meetings at such other times as may be called by the Director upon written notice to the trustees. Five (5) days notice of each special meeting shall be given to each trustee, unless such notice is waived. (d) Obtain such information from any member or from any participating subdivision as shall be necessary for the proper operation of the System.

(e) Establish an office in the Capital City or in one of the participating subdivisions. All books and records of the System shall be kept in such office.

(f) Appoint a Director for the purpose of managing this System, investing the Funds and carrying out the administrative duties of the System. The Board shall also appoint an actuary for the purpose of carrying out all the necessary actuarial requirements of the System; appoint an attorney; appoint a Medical Board; and employ such additional actuarial, clerical, legal, medical and other assistants as shall be required for the efficient administration of the System; and determine and fix the compensation to be paid.

(g) Have the accounts of the System audited at least annually by a Certified Public Accountant.

(h) Submit an annual statement to the governing body of each subdivision and to any member, upon request, as soon after the end of each calendar year as possible. Such statement shall include at least the following: a balance sheet showing the financial and actuarial condition of the System as of the end of the calendar year; a statement of receipts and disbursements during each year; a statement showing changes in the asset, liability, reserve and surplus accounts during the year; and such additional statistics as are deemed necessary for a proper interpretation of the condition of the System.

(i) The Board annually on December 31 shall allow regular interest on the mean amount in the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund for the year then ending and shall allow regular interest on the amount in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund at the beginning of such year and shall allow current interest as defined in Section II of this Act on the amount in the Endowment Fund at the beginning of such year and on an amount in the Employees Saving Fund equal to the sum of the accumulated deposits standing to the credit at the beginning of such year of all members included in the membership of the System on December 31 of such year, before any transfers for retirement effective December 31 of such year are made. The amounts so allowed shall be due and payable to said funds and shall be credited thereto by the Board on December 31 of each year from the moneys of the System held in the Interest Fund, provided that current interest shall not be at a rate greater than regular interest and that any excess earnings over such amount required shall be paid to one or another of the several accounts of the Endowment Fund as provided in Section V of this Act.

(j) Accept any gift, grant or bequest of any money or securities for the purposes designated by the grantor, if such purposes are specified as providing an endowment or retirement benefits to some or all of the participating employees or annuitants of this System, or if no such purposes are designated, for deposit to the credit of the Endowment Fund.

(k) Determine the limitations on the amounts of cash to be invested in order to maintain such cash balances as may be deemed advisable to meet payments of benefits and expenses, and invest the remaining available cash in securities in accordance with Subsection (7) of this Section.

(I) Keep in convenient form such data as shall be necessary for all required calculations and valuations as required by the actuary and keep a permanent record of all the proceedings of the Board.

(n) Establish such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of the Act and generally carry on such other reasonable activities as are deemed necessary or desirable for the efficient administration of the System.

Merger of Existing County Systems

Sec. 10.

5. All persons who conform to the definition of "employee" as set out in Subsection 6 of Section II, but who were not eligible for membership in the local system as established, and are not members of the local system at the date of merger, shall become members of the state system under the merger agreement, unless such person executes a waiver of membership in the time and manner prescribed below; provided, however, that no employee who is sixty (60) years of age or more at date of merger shall be eligible for membership unless his service to such subdivision prior to the date of merger is equal to or is in excess of the period by which his then attained age exceeds the age of sixty (60) years.

Any person who becomes a member of the state system as of the date of merger under this Subsection 5 shall not be allowed any credit for service prior thereto except upon the following conditions:

If, for all months during which such person performed service as an employee (as defined in subsection 6, Section II, above) of the subdivision between the time the local system was established and the date of merger, such person shall pay to the state system (within 90 days after date of merger) a sum equal to the deposits which a member of the local system drawing the same compensation during the same period was required to make to the local system, and if the subdivision pursuant to the merger agreement contributes to the state system within the 90-day period an equal amount, then in such event:

(a) the sum so deposited by such member with the state system shall be deposited by it to the credit of such member's individual account in the Employees Saving Fund and shall be treated in the same manner as provided in subsection 9(a) below as to transfer upon merger of individual deposits of members of the local system;

(b) the sum so deposited by the subdivision shall be received and deposited in the subdivision's account in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund in the manner provided in subsection 9(c) below; and

(c) such member shall thereupon receive credit for all service to the subdivision antedating the effective date of merger.

Any person not a member of the local system, but who would become a member of the state system under the terms of this subsection may elect not to become a member if within thirty (30) days after the effective date of the merger agreement, he shall execute and file, with the Director of the state system a written waiver of membership in such form as the Board may prescribe. Any such person who files such a waiver of membership may apply for membership in the state system as of the first day of any month thereafter, if the person would then be eligible for membership in the system as a beginning employee of the subdivision, and such person may thereupon become a member of the system but without credit for any service antedating date of membership.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 10.6 to 10.8]

9. Upon merger, the total assets of the local system shall be transferred to the state system, valued as provided in Subsection 8 above, and such assets shall be credited as follows:

(a) An amount equal to the sum of the accumulated deposits of the individual members of the local system will be credited to the Employees Saving Fund of the state system. The state system will establish individual accounts for all such members and will credit to such individual accounts the respective accumulated deposits of the individual members as of the effective date of merger. No current service credits shall accrue in this System to the members of the local system on account of the accumulated deposits so transferred and credited upon merger.

(b) An amount equal to the required annuity reserve, based on such annuity tables as shall be adopted by the Board with regular interest, for current service annuities in effect in the local system as of the date of merger shall be credited to the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund of this System and such current service annuities shall thereafter be obligations of and paid from the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund of this System.

(c) The remaining assets of the local system will be credited to the subdivision's account in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund of the state system for the partial funding of the obligations assigned to such account in accordance with this Act.

(d) Each member transferred under the merger, and each person who becomes a member at the date of merger and qualifies for creditable service antedating merger as provided by Subsection 5 above, will be given an “allocated special prior service credit” determined as provided in paragraphs (e) and (f) following.

(e) “Maximum Special Prior Service Credit,” as used in this Section shall mean an amount equivalent to the accumulation at interest of a series of monthly payments for the number of months of all creditable service allowed to the member pursuant to the merger agreement for service to the date of merger, each such monthly payment being equal to twice the subdivision's initial deposit rate multiplied by the member's “average local system earnings,” with such accumulation then being reduced by an amount equal to the individual member's accumulated deposits transferred on merger or paid in by the member in accordance with Subsection 5 of this Section. Such accumulation shall be at regular interest and on the basis that interest is allowed at the end of each twelve (12) months period and is allowed on the accumulation at the beginning of each such twelve (12) months period and is not allowed for parts of a year.

“Average local system earnings” as used in this subsection means the average monthly earnings received by an employee for service rendered to the local system subdivision during the thirty-six (36) months immediately preceding the effective date of merger of such subdivision's local system into the System, or if there be less than thirty-six (36) months of such service, the average shall be computed for the number of months of such service within such thirty-six (36) months period, or if there be no such service during said thirty-six (36) months, the average shall be computed for the number of months of service rendered to the local system subdivision during the twenty-four (24) months immediately preceding said thirty-six (36) months; provided however, that in calculating the “average local system earnings” of any employee, actual earnings in any month shall be excluded to the extent that they exceed the lower of the following rates of earnings: (i) the annual earnings prescribed by the governing body at the time of merger as the maximum current service earnings for current service deposits and contributions; or (ii) annual earnings in excess of Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000.00) per annum.

(f) “Allocated Special Prior Service Credit” as used in this section and in merger agreements thereunder shall mean that percentage of the calculated “Maximum Special Prior Service Credit” of a member which is granted by the subdivision to the member, such percentage, except as hereinafter provided in this paragraph, to be the same for all of the members of the subdivision and to be such that the total “Allocated Special Prior Service Credits” granted by the subdivision will not exceed in the aggregate an amount for which the assets credited to the Subdivision Accumulation Fund on merger and the prospective benefit contributions of such subdivision will be adequate:

(i) to fund, within twenty-five (25) years from such subdivision’s participation date, all obligations that are charges against its account in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund; and

(ii) an amount for which the prospective benefit contributions of such subdivision will be adequate to provide the amount required according to this Act to be paid during such period under Supplemental Annuities arising from credits granted by such participating subdivision, and to provide such amounts as will be required to provide Basic Annuities in accordance with paragraph (b) of Subsection 4 of Section V.

merger agreement become members of the state system shall be governed by the provisions of Sections 1 through IX of this Act, except as modified by the terms of the merger agreement and by the provisions of this Section; and provided, as to local systems which have been merged into the state system prior to December 31, 1977, that the balances standing to the credit of the participating subdivision in its accumulation accounts in the System on December 31, 1977, after all other closing entries for such year have been made, shall be credited to such subdivision’s account in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund effective January 1, 1978.

Optional Coverage of Employees Receiving Supplemental Compensation From Participating Counties

Sec. 11A.
[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 11A.1]

2. All persons who on the effective date specified in the order are within the class designated to be included in the System by the order of the governing body of any participating subdivision under this section, shall become members of the System at the effective date specified in the order unless the person executes a waiver of membership in the time and manner prescribed below. Any person thereafter employed for the first time by the subdivision in any covered employment shall become a member of the System at the date of his employment if he is at that date less than sixty (60) years of age.

6. Any person who becomes a member of the System by virtue of this section as an employee of a county which prior to its participation in this System operated and maintained a “local system” (as defined in Section 10) that was merged into this System pursuant to Section 10 shall not be allowed credit for service rendered the subdivision prior to the effective date of the merger, except upon the following conditions:

(a) The member and the subdivision make the deposits in the amounts and within the time prescribed by Subsection 4, above, to entitle the member to current service credit as provided in Subsection 4; and

(b) For all months during which the person performed service as an employee (as defined in Subsection 6, Section 2) of the subdivision between the time the local system was established and the date of merger, the person shall pay to the State system an amount equal to the deposits which a member of the local system drawing the same compensation during the same period was required to make to the local system, and the subdivision shall contribute to the State system within said ninety (90) day period an equal amount to match the members’ deposits.

In the event the deposits required under this subsection are made within the time specified, the sum so deposited by the member with the State system shall be deposited by it to the credit of the member’s individual account in the Employees Saving Fund and shall be treated in the same manner as provided in Subsection 9(a) of Section 10, as to the transfer upon merger of individual deposits of members of the local system; the sum so deposited by the subdivision shall be received and deposited in the subdivision’s account in the Subdivision Accumulation Fund in the manner provided in Subsection 9(c) of Section 10; and the member shall receive credit for all service to the subdivision antedating the effective date of merger, and will be given an “Allocated Special Prior Service Credit” determined in the same manner and on the same percentages of Maximum Special Prior Service Credit as was used in determining the Allocated Special Prior Service Credit of employees of the county who became members of the State system at the effective date of merger.

Sec. 12.

3. All annuities and other benefits payable under the provisions of this Act and all accumulated deposits of members in this System shall be exempt from all state, county or municipal taxes, shall be unassignable and shall not be subject to execution, garnishment or attachment.

   (E) the Texas County and District Retirement System.

(2) "Creditable service" means service earned or allowed in satisfaction of length-of-service requirements prescribed for eligibility for service retirement by the act governing the system in which such service is credited.

(3) "Combined creditable service" means the total of the person's creditable service in only those statewide retirement systems for which the length-of-service requirements for service retirement would be satisfied by such total creditable service at the person's attained age. Service which, due to length-of-service requirements in the system in which it was earned, does not qualify as combined creditable service in that system shall be excluded in determining combined creditable service in other statewide retirement systems. Creditable service earned with or allowed by more than one statewide retirement system for the same period of time shall be counted only once in determining the amount of a person's combined creditable service. Creditable service earned with or allowed by a subdivision or municipality electing not to participate in the program established by this Act may not be considered in determining combined creditable service.

Membership

Sec. 2. Membership in a statewide retirement system does not terminate for absence from employment covered by that system during a period for which the member is allowed creditable service in an employment covered by another statewide retirement system. For the purpose of membership terminations only, absence from employment for those whose membership in a statewide retirement system is continued by this section shall be calculated from the last date of employment covered by any statewide retirement system. A member may continue membership in a particular system after he or she is absent from service with all systems if, according to the laws governing that system, he or she would be eligible to continue membership, assuming his or her creditable service maintained in all statewide retirement systems had all been earned with that system. In this section "employment covered by another statewide retirement system" does not include employment by a subdivision or municipality which is not participating.

Fractional Benefits

Sec. 3. (a) Combined creditable service applies only to determine eligibility for service retirement, and not to determine eligibility for disability retirement, death benefits, or any other eligibility requirements, except eligibility for service retirement, prescribed by the laws governing any statewide retirement system. A person having service in a statewide retirement system may use his or her combined creditable service only to satisfy the length-of-service requirements of that system for service retirement.

(b) Any person who has membership in two or more statewide retirement systems shall have his or her eligibility for service retirement benefits from any of the systems determined by the laws governing that system but, for the purpose of determining whether the member satisfies length-of-service requirements defining eligibility for but not amount of benefits, as if his or her combined creditable service were all creditable service with that system.
(e) The amount of the benefit payable by any statewide retirement system shall be computed according to and in the manner prescribed by the laws governing that system and based solely on the member's credits in that system and on service credits earned with or allowed by that system.

(d) A person receiving service retirement or lifetime disability benefits from one or more statewide retirement systems may rely on the provisions of this Act to qualify for subsequent service retirement under any other statewide retirement system in which he or she has rendered creditable service, either if he or she was not eligible to retire under the latter system at the time of any previous service retirement or qualification for lifetime disability benefits from a statewide retirement system or if his or her previous retirement did not rely on combined creditable service.

(e) Retirement annuity minimums which do not vary in amount directly with the amount of creditable service of a member, postretirement fixed lump-sum death benefits, and survivor benefits payable to beneficiaries of retirees of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, when paid to or on behalf of a person who has relied on this section to qualify for benefits from at least one statewide retirement system, shall be calculated as a percentage of the normal benefit payable had the member retired only in that system. The percentage applied shall be equal to the amount of creditable service actually granted for employment covered by that system divided by the amount of creditable service in that system which would have been required for the member to have been granted a service retirement without benefit of this Act, such percentage not to exceed 100 percent.

(f) The beneficiary of a person receiving service retirement benefits from more than one statewide retirement system which also provides death benefits for its retirees is entitled to such death benefits from each system calculated as provided in Subsection (e) of this section if the retiree has relied on this section to qualify for benefits from at least one of the systems.

Election of Participation

Sec. 4. (a) Each participating subdivision of the Texas County and District Retirement System and each participating municipality in the Texas Municipal Retirement System as of January 1, 1978, may elect to participate in the program of fractional benefits established in this Act. The election shall be made by vote of the governing body of the particular subdivision or municipality in the same manner as other such actions of the governing body and shall be effective on February 1, 1978. Notice of an election made as provided in this section must be received by the board of trustees of the Texas County and District Retirement System or the Texas Municipal Retirement System, as appropriate, before February 1, 1978. Failure to notify the system board of trustees of an election prior to February 1, 1978, waives the right of election and the participating subdivision or municipality failing to notify automatically becomes a participant in the program on February 1, 1978.

(b) A subdivision or municipality electing not to participate in the program established in this Act may subsequently elect to participate. The effective date of participation by a subdivision or municipality is the first day of the month after the date of receipt by the appropriate board of trustees of notice of an election.

(c) Each subdivision or municipality electing to begin participation in either system after January 31, 1978, simultaneously becomes a participant in the program established in this Act by virtue of the election.

(d) Participation in the program established in this Act applies to all employees and former employees of the participating subdivision or municipality who are included in the membership of the retirement system as provided by law on or after the effective date of participation by the participating subdivision or municipality in the program established in this Act.

Special Provisions

Sec. 5. (a) Any member who, on or before December 31, 1977, has met the length-of-service requirements under the terms of laws in effect on that date governing the Employees Retirement System of Texas, the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, and the Judicial Retirement System of Texas may retire from the service used in satisfaction of those requirements on meeting the age requirements in effect on December 31, 1977.

(b) The Board of Trustees of the Employees Retirement System of Texas may, by rule or regulation:

(1) consider the classes of service under the terms of Chapter 352, Acts of the 50th Legislature, Regular Session, 1947, as amended (Article 6228a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as if they were classes in separate systems under the terms of this Act;

(2) permit a member who retires with 10 or more years' service credit in the Employees Retirement System of Texas, exclusive of military service credit, to receive retirement benefits as an elective state official for such percentage of his eligible military service as is derived by dividing the number of months actually served as an elective state official by 96 months, but not more than 100 percent;
Art. 6228k

PENSIONS

(3) permit persons who are retiring exclusively from programs administered by the board to use the shortest vesting period required for any class of service in which the member has retirement credit in such programs.

Administration

Sec. 6. Each board of trustees of a statewide retirement system may adopt such rules as are necessary to implement the provisions of this Act. Each system shall determine the eligibility of its members for benefits, including whether sufficient combined creditable service exists to qualify the member for benefits under this Act, and the amount and duration of benefits payable by that system under this Act pursuant to the respective laws governing each system. Each statewide retirement system shall cooperate with the other statewide retirement systems in the implementation of this Act. The Employees Retirement System of Texas, not later than December 15th of each even-numbered year, shall report to the governor and the Legislative Budget Board on the current and long-range fiscal and actuarial effects of this Act on that system and shall include in its biennial budget estimates a reasonable amount for reimbursement of expenses incurred by it in the performance of duties required of the system by this Act.

Confidentiality of Records

Sec. 7. Records of all individual members and beneficiaries in the custody of statewide retirement systems are personnel records and are deemed to be confidential information under the provisions of Chapter 424, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, as amended (Article 6252-17a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), except that information in the records may be transferred between statewide retirement systems to the extent necessary to administer the Act.

Statutory Construction

Sec. 8. The provisions of this Act which conflict with any other statutory provisions governing each statewide retirement system shall be considered as exceptions which shall prevail over such laws only as explicitly provided in this Act and shall be construed strictly as against those statutory provisions. It is the legislative intent of this Act to implement the authority granted the legislature in Article XVI, Section 67, of the Texas Constitution, to provide a system of fractional benefits to qualified members of more than one statewide retirement system. It is contrary to the legislative intent of this Act for any person or class of persons to receive by virtue of this service in more than one statewide retirement system a proportionately greater benefit from a particular statewide retirement system than persons who have rendered faithful career service under that statewide retirement system only. The provisions of this Act do not in any respect repeal the provisions of Chapter 75, Acts of the 54th Legislature, 1955, as amended (Article 6228a–2, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

Repealer

Sec. 9. Chapter 573, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, as amended (Article 6228i, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), is repealed.

Effective Date

Art. 6228j. Audits, Reports, and Actuarial Studies of Certain Retirement Systems

Sec. 1. In this Act, “public retirement system” means a continuing, organized program of service retirement, disability retirement, or death benefits for officers or employees of the state or a political subdivision. The term does not include, however, the Employees Retirement System of Texas, the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, the Judicial Retirement System of Texas, the Texas Municipal Retirement System, the Texas County and District Retirement System, an optional retirement program for officers or employees of institutions of higher education, a retirement program for which the only funding agency is a life insurance company, a program providing only workers’ compensation benefits, or a program administered by the federal government.

Sec. 2. The governing body of a public retirement system shall employ an actuary, as a full- or part-time employee or as a consultant, to make a valuation of the assets and liabilities of the system on the basis of assumptions and methods that are reasonable in the aggregate, taking into account the experience of the plan and reasonable expectations, and which, in combination, offer the actuary’s best estimate of anticipated experience under the plan. The first valuation shall be done within a one-year period beginning January 1, 1978, and subsequent valuations shall be done not less frequently than once every three years. Based on this valuation, the actuary shall make recommendations to insure the actuarial soundness of the system. The actuary employed by the system must be a fellow of the Society of Actuaries, a member of the American Academy of Actuaries or an enrolled actuary under the Federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.¹

Sec. 3. The governing body of a public retirement system shall have the accounts of the system audited at least annually by a certified public accountant.
Sec. 4. The governing body of a public retirement system shall publish an annual report showing the financial condition of the system as of the last day of the 12-month period covered in the report, and including a statement of receipts and disbursements during the 12-month period, a statement showing changes in various accounts within the system during the 12-month period, and a statement showing any investments of the system existing on the last day of the 12-month period. This annual report shall also show the actuarial condition of the system based on the most recent actuarial valuation of the system.

2. CITY PENSIONS

Art. 6243a. Firemen’s, Policemen’s and Fire Alarm Operators’ Pension System; Cities and Towns of 432,000 or More Having Fully or Partially Paid Departments

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 1 to 1B]

Administrator of Fund; Professional Investment Management Services

Sec. 1C. (a) The Board of Trustees shall have the authority to appoint an administrator to keep records, make computations and perform various other related duties necessary for the operation of the Firemen, Policemen, and Fire Alarm Operators’ Pension Fund, but except for clerical assistance, he shall not have any duties relating to investment of the Reserve Retirement Fund, as provided in Section 15 hereof. Compensation for such an administrator shall be determined by the city and paid out of the general funds of the city.

(b) A person appointed administrator of the Fund shall not, by virtue of that appointment, become Secretary of the Board, but the Board may also appoint him as its Secretary, in which event he shall serve in that capacity with no additional compensation.

(c) If the Board appoints an administrator for the Fund, he shall perform in his office the functions of the City Secretary as they are specified in any other Sections hereof, and the City Secretary shall be relieved of such functions, except that the City Secretary shall continue to attest all certificates and documents issued under the seal of the city.

(d) In the administration of the Reserve Retirement Fund pursuant to Section 15, if the Board of Trustees determines that assistance provided by advisory service alone, as authorized under Section 1A above, will not enable the Board to make investments of such funds as efficiently and beneficially as could be done with the service of professional investment management, the Board may contract for such service with one or more organizations in such business, including a bank maintaining a trust department, any such investment manager to have the qualifications required by law and also the approval of the Board; provided the Board does not delegate its ultimate responsibility for investing the Reserve Retirement Fund. In any such contract, the Board, in the exercise of its discretion with respect to investments, shall specify policies and guidelines with which the investment manager must comply in respect to each investment arranged by such manager.

(e) The cost of any investment management services contracted for by the Board of Trustees may be paid in whole or in part by the city. If the city does not make provision for payment of such cost, either in whole or in part, then the amount required to make payment in full shall be paid from the Firemen, Policemen, and Fire Alarm Operators’ Pension Fund.

 Custody of Fund

Sec. 5. The Treasurer of said city or town shall be Ex-officio Treasurer of said Fund. All money for said Fund shall be paid over to and received by the Treasurer for the use of said Fund, and the duties thus imposed upon such Treasurer shall be additional duties for which he shall be liable under his oath and bond as such city or town Treasurer, but he shall receive no compensation therefor. The principal duties hereby imposed on the Treasurer are that he receive and promptly deposit income, including periodic contributions to the Fund, and make transfers of sums in conformity with the system adopted by the Board to make funds available for investment, paying annuities, making refunds, and other authorized payments.

Investment Custody Account Agreements

Sec. 5A. (a) If the Board contracts for investment management service, as authorized by Section 1C(d) above, it may, with respect to every such contract, also enter into an investment custody account agreement, designating a bank as custodian for all the assets allocated to the Reserve Retirement Fund for a particular investment manager.

(b) Under a custody account agreement, the Board shall require the designated bank to perform the duties and assume the responsibilities of custodian in relation to the investment contract to which the custody account agreement is established.

(c) The authority of the Board to make a custody account agreement is supplementary to its authority to make an investment management contract to which it relates. Allocation of assets to a custody account shall be coordinated by the Treasurer and the bank designated as custodian for such assets.

(d) The cost of any custody account agreement entered into by the Board of Trustees may be paid in whole or in part by the city. If the city does not make provision for payment of such cost, either in whole or in part, then the amount required to make payment in full shall be paid from the Firemen, Policemen, and Fire Alarm Operators’ Pension Fund.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 6 to 13]

Share of Cost to be Paid Out of Public Treasury

Sec. 14. The financial share of the cost of the pension system to be paid out of the public Treasury shall be as follows:

(a) Funds contributed by the city as its share of the amount required for the payment of benefits due members under the pension system and for no other purpose. Such contributions shall be annually appropriated by the City Council and periodically paid on the basis of a percentage of the total wages and salaries of the members of the Police and Fire Departments who are under the pension system. The amount of this percentage and any change in it can be determined only by a majority vote of the voters of the city.

(b) Funds appropriated by the City Council to carry out various other provisions of the Act that authorize expenditures in connection with the administration of the Act.

Investment of Surplus

Sec. 15. (a) Whenever, in the opinion of said Board, there is on hand in said Pension Fund a surplus over and above a reasonably safe amount to take care of current demands upon said Fund, such surplus, or so much thereof as in the judgment of said Board is deemed proper, shall be put into a Reserve Fund for investment for the sole benefit of said Pension Fund.

(b) In making investments and supervising investments, members of the Board of Trustees shall exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing, which men of ordinary prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation but in regard to probable income therefrom as well as the probable safety of their capital.

(c) The Board of Trustees has the ultimate responsibility for the investment of funds, which the Board may exercise directly by purchasing or selling securities or other investments, but it shall have the authority to exercise discretion in determining the procedure that it deems most efficient and beneficial for the Reserve Retirement Fund in carrying out such responsibility. The Board may contract for professional advisory service pursuant to Section 1A(a) and also may contract for professional investment management service pursuant to Section 1C(d). Any contract that the Board may make with an investment manager shall set forth policies and guidelines of the Board with references to standard rating services and specific criteria for determining the quality of investments.

(d) The Board, in exercising its control, may at any time, and shall at frequent intervals, monitor the investments made by any investment manager, and shall enforce full compliance with the requirements of the Board.

(e) No investment manager other than a bank that has a contract with the Board to provide assistance in making investments shall be the custodian of any of the securities or other assets of the Reserve Retirement Fund. Pursuant to Section 5A(a), the Board may designate a bank to serve as custodian to perform the customary duty of safekeeping as well as duties incident to the execution of transactions. When the demands of the Pension Fund require, the Board shall withdraw from the custodian money for use in paying benefits to members of the Pension System and for such other uses as are authorized by this Act and approved by a majority of the Board.

(f) The regulations set forth in this Section for the investment of surplus funds shall apply to the original Pension System specifically established in this Act, as well as to any amended plan established pursuant to Section 11A hereof by Section 11B or related provision of law.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 789, ch. 304, §§ 1 to 5, eff. May 27, 1975.]

Section 6 of the 1975 amendatory act provided:

"If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of the Act are declared to be severable."

Death Benefits, Widows, etc.

Sec. 9. In the case of the death before or after retirement of any member of the fire department, police department, or fire alarm operators' department of any city or town resulting from disease contracted or injury received while in the line of duty or from any other cause through no fault of his own and who at the time of his death or retirement was a contributor to said Fund, leaving a widow and no children, the widow shall be entitled to receive monthly from said Fund an amount not exceeding one-third of the monthly salary received by such member immediately preceding his retirement; and, if not retired before death, one-third of such monthly salary received by such member immediately preceding his retirement, and,

ly salary received by such member immediately preceding his death; and, if at the time of the death of such contributor, under the circumstances and conditions hereinabove set forth, such contributor leaves a child or children under sixteen (16) years of age and the wife of such contributor is dead or divorced from such contributor, the child or children under sixteen (16) years of age shall be entitled to receive monthly from said Fund an amount not exceeding one-third of such monthly salary received by such member immediately preceding his retirement, and, if not retired before death, one-third of such monthly salary received by such member immediately preceding his death, said sum so paid to be equally divided among said children under sixteen (16) years of age, if more than one; and if at the time of the death of the widow, and a child or children under sixteen (16) years of age, the widow shall be entitled to receive monthly from said Fund (for the joint benefit of herself and such child or children) an amount not exceeding one-half of the monthly salary received by such member immediately preceding his death, and if not retired before death, one-half of such monthly salary received by such member immediately preceding his death, said payments to be made until such child or all of said children, if more than one, as the case may be, shall reach sixteen (16) years of age, and after said child or all of said children, as the case may be, have reached the age of sixteen (16) years, then the widow shall be entitled to receive monthly from said Fund (for her benefit) an amount not exceeding one-third of the monthly salary received by such member immediately preceding his retirement, and if not retired before death, one-third of such monthly salary received by such member immediately preceding his death. In no case shall the amount paid to any one family exceed monthly the amount of one-half of the monthly salary earned by the deceased immediately prior to the time of his retirement, or, if not retired, prior to the time of his death. On the remarriage of any widow, such pension paid to her for her benefit shall cease and in the event that there are child or children under sixteen (16) years of age at the time of said remarriage, one-third of the monthly salary received by such member immediately preceding his retirement, and if not retired before death, one-third of such monthly salary received by such member immediately preceding his retirement, and, if not retired before death, one-third of such month-children, and upon the marriage or death of any child receiving such pension, or upon any child receiving such pension reaching sixteen (16) years of age, such pension payment for the benefit of said child shall cease, and if there remains a child or children under sixteen (16) years of age, the share of the said child who is married or dead or reaching sixteen (16) years of age, shall be paid for the benefit of the remaining child or children under sixteen (16) years of age. In the event that a contributor leaves a widow and child or children under sixteen (16) years of age who are not the children of said widow, the Pension Board may, in its discretion, either pay monthly to the widow for the benefit of herself and said child or children, an amount not exceeding one-half of the monthly salary received by such member immediately preceding his retirement, or immediately preceding his death, if not retired before death, as hereinabove provided, or said Board may order one-fourth of said monthly salary received by such member paid to the widow and one-fourth of said monthly salary paid to said child or children. No widow or child of any such member resulting from any marriage contracted subsequent to the date of retirement of said member shall be entitled to a pension under this law; provided, however, that the provisions of this Section shall not be construed so as to change any pension now being paid any pensioner under the provisions of Chapter 101 of the General and Special Laws of the Forty-third Legislature, First Called Session, and as amended by Chapter 346 of the General and Special Laws of the Regular Session of the Forty-fourth Legislature. The provisions of this section are subject to change under the provisions of Section 10A of this Act.

Death Benefits, Father, etc.

Sec. 10. If any member of the fire department, police department, or fire alarm operators' department dies from injuries received or disease contracted while in the line of duty, or from any cause through no fault of his own, who was a contributor to said fund and entitled to participate in said fund himself, leaves no wife or child, but who shall leave surviving him a dependent father, mother, brother, or sister, wholly dependent upon said person for support, such dependent father, mother, sister and brother shall be entitled to receive in the aggregate one-half of the salary earned by said deceased immediately prior to his death, to be equally divided between those who are wholly dependent on said deceased, so long as they are wholly dependent. The board shall have authority to determine the facts as to the dependency of said parties and each of them, as to how long the same exists, and may at any time upon the request of any contributor to such fund, reopen any award made to any of said parties and discontinue such pension as to all or any of them as it may deem proper, and the findings of said board in regard to such matter and as to all pensions granted under this law shall be final upon all parties seeking a pension as a dependent of said deceased, or otherwise, until such award of the trustees shall have been set aside or revoked. The provisions of this section are subject to change under the provisions of Section 10A of this Act.

Modification of Benefits, Membership Qualifications, Eligibility Requirements and Contributions; Conditions

Sec. 10A. (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in other parts of this Act, the Board of Trustees of the Firemen, Policemen, and Fire Alarm Operators Pension Fund may, by majority vote of the whole board, make from time to time one or more of the following changes, or modifications:

1. modify or change prospectively or retroactively in any manner whatsoever any of the benefits provided by this Act, except that any retroactive change or modification shall only increase pensions or benefits;
2. modify or change prospectively in any manner whatsoever any of the membership qualifications;
3. modify or change prospectively or retroactively in any manner whatsoever any of the eligibility requirements for pensions or benefits;
4. increase or decrease prospectively the percentage of wages less than the one per cent (1%) minimum or above the six per cent (6%) maximum provided in Section 2 of this Act to be contributed to the fund; or
5. provide prospectively for refunds, in whole or in part, and with or without interest, of contributions made to the fund by employees who leave the city service before qualifying for a pension.

(d) Any eligible and qualified fireman who has completed 20 years of service or more and of participation in a fund in a city to which this section is applicable, before reaching the age of 50 years, may apply to the board of trustees for, and the board shall issue, a certificate showing the completion of service and showing and certifying that the fireman, when reaching the age of 50 years, is entitled to the retirement and other applicable benefits of this Act. When any fireman is issued a certificate he is, when reaching retirement age, entitled to all the applicable benefits of this Act, even though he is not engaged in active service as a fireman after the issuance of the certificate. However, the fireman shall continue to pay his pension contribution monthly or in advance until the fireman reaches retirement age. Any fireman who does not make his pension contribution monthly or in advance shall automatically forfeit any retirement or other benefits he or his beneficiaries may have been entitled to under this Act.

(e) All firemen entering a fire department coming within the provisions of this section after the effective date of this Act shall retire under the benefit provisions of Subsection (b) of this section unless the retirement is for disability.

(f) All firemen who retire under the provisions of this section or Section 6 or 7 of this Act shall have their retirement allowances adjusted annually in accordance with the Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers as determined by the United States Department of Labor. The adjusted pension allowance shall never be less than the amount granted the member on the date of his retirement without regard to changes in the consumer price index. The adjusted pension allowance shall never be more than the amount granted the member on the date of his retirement increased by three percent annually notwithstanding a greater increase in the consumer price index.

Pension Allowance at Age of 50; Calculation

Sec. 5. Any fireman who has served in such fire department for a period of at least 10 years and for a period of less than 20 years shall be entitled to a pension allowance at age 50 years. The pension allowance shall be calculated as follows:

(a) The monthly pension allowance shall be equal to the sum of one and seven-tenths percent of his average monthly salary multiplied by the number of years of service of the fireman.

(b) The average monthly salary shall be for the highest 36 months of service of the fireman.

(c) In the event the fireman dies:

(1) before he has reached the age of 50 years, his widow or other beneficiaries shall be eligible for a pension allowance on the date the deceased fireman would have been 50 years of age.

(2) after he reached 50 years of age, his widow or other beneficiaries shall be eligible for a pension allowance. The pension allowances shall be granted by the provisions of this section.

Disability Retirement; Amount of Pension; Service Retirement Election

Sec. 6. (a) Whenever a fireman becomes physically or mentally disabled while in or as a consequence of the performance of his duty or becomes physically or mentally disabled from any cause whatsoever after he has participated in a fund for a period of 20 years or more, the board of trustees shall, on his request, or without a request, if they determine that the fireman is not capable of performing the usual and customary duties of his classification or position, retire the fireman on a monthly disability allowance of an amount equal to 50 percent of his average monthly salary for the highest 36 months during his service, or so much thereof as he may have served.

(b) If the fireman is eligible to be retired under the provisions of Section 4 of this Act, he may elect to have his monthly pension allowance calculated under that section.

Death or Disability From Any Cause Other Than Performance of Duty; Monthly Pension Allowance to Fireman or Beneficiary; Computation; Service Retirement Election; Annual Adjustment

Sec. 7. (a) Whenever a fireman dies or becomes disabled from any cause other than a disability acquired in the performance of his duty as a fireman, a monthly pension allowance shall be paid to the fireman or his beneficiaries.

(b) The monthly pension allowance shall be computed as follows:

(1) If the fireman becomes disabled, he shall be paid a monthly pension allowance equal to 25 percent of the average monthly salary of the fireman, plus two and one-half percent of the average monthly salary for each full year of service and of participation in a fund except that the monthly pension allowance shall not exceed 50 percent of the average monthly salary. The average monthly salary shall be based on the monthly average of the fireman’s salary for the highest 36 months during his service, or so much as he may have served preceding the date of the retirement.

(2) If the fireman was eligible to be retired under the provisions of Section 4 of this Act, he or his beneficiaries may elect to have their monthly pension allowance calculated under that section.
(3) If a fireman dies and leaves surviving him both a widow who married the fireman prior to his retirement, and a child or children of the fireman under the age of 18 years, the board of trustees shall order paid to the widow of the fireman a monthly pension allowance equal to one-half of the amount the fireman would have been entitled to receive, if disabled, under the provisions of Subdivision (1) of this subsection, and in addition the board of trustees shall order paid to the widow or other person having the care and custody of the child or children under the age of 18 years a monthly pension allowance for the use and benefit of the child or children equal to the amount provided for the widow. If the fireman leaves no child under the age of 18 years surviving him or if at any time after the death of the fireman no child is entitled to allowance, then the monthly pension allowance to be paid the widow shall be equal to the full amount the fireman would have been entitled to receive, if disabled, under Subdivision (1) of this subsection, except that the allowance to a widow, if no child is entitled to allowance, shall not exceed one-half of the maximum base salary for the position of pipeman at the time of the death of the fireman.

(4) If the fireman dies and if his widow dies after being entitled to her allowance, or in the event that there is no widow to receive an allowance, the amount of the monthly pension allowance to be paid, for use and benefit of the child or children under the age of 18 years, to the person having the care and custody of the child or children shall be computed as follows: an amount equal to one-half of the amount the fireman would have been entitled to receive, if disabled, under the provisions of Subdivision (1) of this subsection shall be paid for each of the fireman's children under the age of 18 years, except that the total monthly pension allowance provided for children shall not exceed the amount to which the fireman would have been entitled under Subdivision (1) of this subsection, nor shall the allowance for the children exceed one-half of the maximum base salary provided for the position of pipeman at the time of the death of the fireman.

(5) If the fireman dies and only if no widow or child is entitled to an allowance under the provisions of this section, a monthly pension allowance equal to one-half of the amount the fireman would have been entitled to receive, if disabled, under Subdivision (1) of this subsection shall be paid to each parent of the deceased fireman on proof to the board of trustees that the parent was dependent on the fireman immediately prior to the death of the fireman, except that the total monthly pension allowance provided for parents shall not exceed one-half of the maximum base salary provided for the position of pipeman at the time of the death of the fireman.

(c) Allowance or benefits payable under the provisions of this section for any minor child shall cease when that child becomes 18 years of age or marries. If a fireman who is covered by a provision of this Act dies and leaves a child who is totally disabled as a result of a physical or mental illness, injury, or retardation, that child is entitled to receive any pension allowance to which he is entitled under this Act and is further entitled to continue receiving the allowance so long as he remains totally disabled. If the child is not entitled to a pension allowance under this Act solely because he is over the maximum age at the time of the death of his parent and the child is totally disabled as a result of a physical or mental illness, injury, or retardation, the child is entitled to receive as an allowance that to which he would have been entitled had he been under the maximum age at the time of the death of his parent.

(d) The provisions of this section are not applicable to a fireman or his beneficiaries if the fireman's death or disability results from suicide or attempted suicide before the fireman has completed two years of service with the fire department for which he was employed.

(e) The wife of a deceased fireman who had served actively for a period of 20 years or more in a regularly active fire department shall, insofar as the provisions of this section are concerned, be considered the fireman's widow as long as she is not married, notwithstanding that she may have married and divorced or married after the fireman died and she became a widow. A widow covered under this section shall be limited to the pension allowance of the deceased member of this fund, to whom she was last married.

(f) The monthly pension allowance of beneficiaries of a deceased fireman who retired after the effective date of this Act shall have their monthly pension allowances provided for under this section or Section 11 adjusted annually in accordance with the Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers as determined by the United States Department of Labor. The adjusted pension allowance shall never be less than the amount granted the beneficiaries on the death of the member without regard to changes in the consumer price index. The adjusted pension allowance shall never be more than the amount granted the beneficiaries on the death of the member increased by three percent annually notwithstanding a greater increase in the consumer price index.

Certificates of Disability

Sec. 8. (a) No person may be retired either for total or temporary disability, except as provided in this Act, nor receive any allowance from the fund, unless and until there has been filed with the board of trustees certificates of his disability or eligibility signed and sworn to by that person and his physician or by any physician selected by the board of trustees. The board of trustees, in its discretion, may require other or additional evidence of disability before ordering retirement or payment.

(b) Any fireman or beneficiary who is entitled to receive a pension allowance under any provision of this Act is entitled to receive the allowance from and after the date on which the fireman ceases to carry out his regular duties as a fireman, notwithstanding the fact that the fireman may remain on the payroll of his fire department or receive sick leave, vacation, or other pay after the termination of his regular duties as a fireman, except that in the event of a delay resulting from the requirements of Subsection (a) of this section, the fireman or beneficiary shall, when the allowance is approved by the board, be paid the full amount of the allowance which has accrued since the termination of the fireman’s regular duties as a fireman.

(c) If any fireman or one or more beneficiaries of a fireman shall be or becomes entitled to receive payments from a fund under the provisions of more than one section of this Act, the fireman or beneficiaries shall be entitled to and shall be required to elect one section under which the payments shall be computed and paid.

Contributions of Members

Sec. 9. Each fireman who is a member of a fully paid fire department which has a firemen’s relief and retirement fund, and who was participating in the firemen’s relief and retirement fund of his city on July 22, 1957, shall be required to make the contributions to the fund provided by this Act, and each fireman shall be entitled to participate in the benefits provided by this Act.

(d) Each person who becomes a fireman in any city which has a firemen’s relief and retirement fund in which he is eligible for membership, shall become a member of the fund as a condition of his appointment, and shall by acceptance of the position agree to make and shall make contributions required under this Act of members of the fund, and shall participate in the benefits of membership in the fund as provided in this Act, except that no person shall be eligible to membership in the fund who is more than 30 years of age at the time he first enters service as a fireman. Any person who enters service as a fireman may be denied or excused from membership in the fund if the board of trustees of the fund determines that the person is not of sound health. The applicant shall pay the cost of any physical examination required in that instance by the board of trustees.

(e) Each person who is an active member of the firemen’s relief and retirement fund previously organized and existing under the laws of this state at the effective date of this Act shall continue as a member of the fund, and he shall retain and be allowed credit for all service to which he was entitled in the fund of which he was a member immediately prior to the effective date of this Act.

(f) If any member’s employment by the city, as an employee of the fire department, is terminated for any reason other than those qualifying the employee for a pension, neither the employee nor his beneficiary or estate shall receive any amount paid by him into the pension fund or any interest his contributions may have accrued.

Allowance to Beneficiaries of Deceased Members

Sec. 11. (a) If a member of a fire department who has been retired on allowances because of length of service or disability dies from any cause whatsoever, or if while in service any member dies from any cause growing out of or in consequence of the performance of his duty and the member is participating in a fund, or dies from any cause whatsoever after he has become entitled to an allowance or pension certificate, and if the fireman leaves surviving a widow, a child or children under the age of 18 years, or a dependent parent or parents, the board of trustees shall order paid a monthly pension allowance which shall be based on the amount which the fireman would have been entitled to receive had he continued to live and be retired on allowance at the date of his death. The allowance or allowances shall be paid as follows:

(c) Money deducted from salaries or compensation as provided by this section and the payments and contributions provided by this section shall become and form a part of the firemen’s relief and retirement fund of the city in which the contributing fireman serves.
(1) If the member dies and leaves surviving him both a widow who married the member prior to his retirement and a child or children of the member under the age of 18 years, the board of trustees shall order paid to the widow of the member a monthly pension allowance equal to one-half of the amount the member would have been entitled to receive, and in addition the board of trustees shall order paid to the widow or other person having the care and custody of the child or children under the age of 18 years a monthly pension allowance, for the use and benefit of the child or children, equal to the amount provided for the widow. If the member leaves no child under the age of 18 years surviving him or if at any time after the death of the member no child is entitled to allowance, the monthly pension allowance to be paid the widow shall equal the full amount the member would have been entitled to receive, except that the allowance to a widow, if no child is entitled to allowance, shall not exceed one-half of the maximum base salary provided for the position of pipeman at the time of the death of the member.

(2) If the member dies and if his widow dies after being entitled to her allowance, or in the event there is no widow to receive an allowance, the amount of the monthly pension allowance to be paid, for the use and benefit of the child or children under the age of 18 years, to the person having the care and custody of the child or children shall be computed as follows: an amount equal to one-half of the amount that member would have been entitled to receive shall be paid for each of the member's children under the age of 18 years, except that the total monthly pension allowance provided for children shall not exceed the amount which the member would have been entitled to receive, nor shall such allowance for the children exceed one-half of the maximum base salary provided for the position of pipeman at the time of the death of the member.

(3) If the member dies and only if no widow or child is entitled to an allowance under the provisions of this section, a monthly pension allowance equal to one-half of the amount that member would have been entitled to receive shall be paid to each parent of the deceased member on proof of the board of trustees that the parent was dependent on the member immediately prior to the death of the member, except that the total monthly pension allowance provided for parents shall not exceed one-half of the maximum base salary provided for the position of pipeman at the time of the death of the member.

(b) Allowance or benefits payable under the provisions of this section for any minor child shall cease when the child becomes 18 years of age or marries, except that if a fireman who is covered by a provision of this Act dies and leaves a child who is totally disabled as a result of a physical or mental illness, injury, or retardation, that child is entitled to receive any pension allowance to which he is entitled under this Act and is further entitled to continue receiving the allowance so long as he or she remains totally disabled. If the child is not entitled to a pension allowance under this Act solely because he or she is over the maximum age at the time of the death of his or her parent and the child is totally disabled as a result of a physical or mental illness, injury, or retardation, the child is entitled to receive as an allowance that to which he or she would have been entitled had he or she been under the maximum age at the time of the death of his parent.

(c) The wife of a deceased fireman who has been retired on disability allowances because of length of service or has been retired for disability after having served actively for a period of 20 years or more shall, insofar as the provisions of this section are concerned, be considered the fireman's widow as long as she is not married, notwithstanding that she may have married and divorced or married and became a widow after such fireman died. A widow covered under this section shall be limited to the pension allowance of the deceased member to whom she was last married.

Exemption of Benefits from Judicial Process

Sec. 12. No portion of the fireman's relief and retirement fund shall, either before or after its order of disbursement by the board of trustees to retired or disabled fireman or the widow, the guardian of any minor child or children, or the dependent parent of any deceased, retired, or disabled fireman, be ever held, seized, taken, subjected to, or detained, or levied on by virtue of any execution, attachment, garnishment, injunction, or other writ, order, or decree, or any process or proceedings whatsoever issued out of, or by, any court for the payment or satisfaction in whole or in part of any debt, damage, claim, demand, or judgment against a fireman or his widow, the guardian of his minor child or children, or his dependent father or mother, nor shall the fund or any claim be directly or indirectly assigned or transferred, and any attempt to transfer or assign the same shall be void. The fund shall be sacredly held, kept, and disbursed for the purposes provided by this Act and for no other purpose.

Integration of Fund with Social Security Benefits

Sec. 13. No benefit or pension allowance shall ever be integrated with benefits payable under the federal Social Security Act, and benefits which might be available to a fireman under the federal...
Social Security Act may never be taken into account in a city where firemen are eligible to enroll for or receive retirement benefits under the Social Security Act when determining the amount of benefits which a fireman may receive under the provisions of this Act.

Certificate to Fireman Eligible For the Retirement or Disability Allowance; Continuance in Service

Sec. 14. Any fireman possessing the qualifications and being eligible for voluntary retirement who elects to continue in the service of the fire department may apply to the board of trustees for a certificate, and if found to possess the qualifications and be eligible for retirement as provided in this Act, the board of trustees shall issue to the fireman a certificate showing him to be entitled to retirement or disability allowance, and on his death the certificate is prima facie proof that his widow or dependents are entitled to their respective allowances without further proof except as to her or their relationship.

Medical Examination of Persons Retiring for Disability

Sec. 15. The board of trustees, in its discretion, at any time may cause any person retired for disability under the provisions of this Act to undergo a medical examination by any physician appointed or selected by the board of trustees for the purpose, and the result of the examination and report by the physician shall be considered by the board of trustees in determining whether the relief in the case shall be continued, increased (if less than the maximum provided), decreased, or discontinued. Should any person receiving relief under the provisions of this Act, after due notice from the board of trustees to appear and be reexamined, unless excused by the board, fail to appear or refuse to submit to reexamination, the board of trustees may in its discretion reduce or entirely discontinue relief.

Recall for Duty in Emergency

Sec. 16. Any retired fireman may be recalled to duty in case of great conflagration and shall perform such duty as the chief of the fire department may direct, but shall have no claim against a city for payment for duty so performed.

Appeal to District Court

Sec. 17. Any person possessing the qualifications required for retirement for length of service or disability or having claim for temporary disability, or any of his beneficiaries, who deems himself aggrieved by the decision or order of the board of trustees, whether because of rejection or the amount allowed, may appeal from the decision or order of the board of a district court in the county where the board is located by giving written notice of the intention to appeal. The notice shall contain a statement of the intention to appeal, together with a brief statement of the grounds and reasons why the party feels aggrieved. The notice shall be served personally on the chairman or secretary or treasurer of the board within 20 days after the date of the order or decision. After service of the notice, the party appealing shall file with the district court a copy of the notice of intention to appeal, together with the affidavit of the party making service showing how, when, and on whom the notice was served. Within 30 days after service of the notice of intention to appeal upon the board, the secretary or treasurer of the board shall make up and file with the district court a transcript of all papers and proceedings in the case before the board and when the copy of the notice of intention to appeal and the transcript has been filed with the court, the appeal shall be deemed perfected and the court shall docket the appeal, assign the appeal a number, fix a date for hearing the appeal, and notify both the appellant and the board of the date fixed for the hearing. At any time before rendering its decision on the appeal, the court may require further or additional proof or information, either documentary or under oath. On rendition of a decision on the appeal, the court shall give to each party to the appeal a copy of the decision and shall direct the board as to the disposition of the case. The final decision or order of the district court is appealable in the same manner as are civil cases generally.

Employment of Certified Public Accountants; Audit

Sec. 18. The board of trustees may engage and employ a certified public accountant or firm of certified public accountants to perform an audit of the firemen's relief and retirement fund at times and intervals as it may deem necessary. Computation of Length of Service

Sec. 19. In computing the time or period for retirement for length of service, less than one year out of service or any time served in the armed forces of the nation during war or national emergency shall be construed as continuous service, but if out more than one year and less than five years, credit shall be given for prior service but deduction made for the length of time out of service. If out of service more than five years, no previous service shall be counted, except that if a fireman is out of service over five years through no fault of his own and subsequently returns to the department, this period of time shall not be counted against him insofar as his retirement time is concerned.

Sec. 21. (a) Whenever, in the opinion of the board of trustees, there is on hand in the firemen's relief and retirement fund a surplus over and above a reasonably safe amount to take care of current demands upon the fund, the surplus, or so much of the fund as in the judgment of the board is deemed proper, may be invested in bonds or other interest bearing obligations and securities of the United States, the State of Texas, or any county, city, or other political subdivision of the State of Texas; in shares or share accounts of savings and loan associations, where the shares or share accounts are insured under and by virtue of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation; in first lien real estate mortgage securities issued by the Federal Housing Administration under the National Housing Act of the United States, as amended from time to time; and in such corporation bonds, preferred stocks, and common stocks as the board may deem to be proper investments for the fund.

(b) In making each and all investments, the board shall exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which men of ordinary prudence, discretion, and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income as well as the probable safety of their capital.

(c) Not more than four percent of the fund shall be invested in corporate securities issued by any one corporation, nor shall more than five percent of the voting stock of any one corporation be owned.

(d) Stocks eligible for purchase shall be restricted to stocks of companies incorporated within the United States which have paid dividends for five consecutive years or longer immediately prior to the date of purchase and which, except for bank stocks and insurance stocks, are listed on an exchange registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or its successors.

Sec. 22. The board of trustees may engage and employ professional investment counselors to advise and assist the board in the investment of the assets of the fund. The investment counseling service must be provided by a nationally known organization whose business functions include rendering continuous investment advisory service to public pension and retirement funds. Termination of Active Service; Allowances and Benefits

Sec. 26. After a fireman terminates his active service, the amounts of all allowances and benefits which the fireman or his beneficiaries may thereafter become entitled to receive from a firemen's relief and retirement fund shall be computed on the basis of the schedule of allowances and benefits in effect for the firemen's relief and retirement fund at the time of the termination of the fireman's active service.

Employment of Attorney

Sec. 27. The board of trustees of the firemen's relief and retirement fund may employ an attorney to render a legal opinion or to represent the trustees in any litigation involving matters coming under this Act.

(4) the increase does not deprive a member, without his written consent, of a right to receive benefits which have already become fully vested and matured in a member.

Cities With Full Paid Fire Department; Transfer of Firemen

Sec. 30. (a) A fireman who transfers from the fire department of one city to that of a city covered by this Act and desires to participate in the fund of that city shall:

(1) be less than 55 years old;
(2) pass a physical examination taken at his expense and performed by a physician selected by the board; and

(c) In addition to the lump-sum death benefit, the spouse and dependents shall receive in equal shares a survivor's benefit equal to two-thirds of the disability benefit the decedent would have received at date of death. As long as both spouse and one or more dependents survive, an additional one-third of the disability benefit the decedent would have received at date of death shall be paid to the dependents in equal shares.

(d) If a member fire fighter dies after retirement, the surviving spouse shall receive two-thirds of the monthly pension the decedent was receiving at the time of death.

(e) The spouse is eligible to receive benefits as long as the spouse is unmarried.

(f) Lump-sum death benefits are subject to the laws of descent and distribution if the decedent has not provided for testamentary disposition.

(g) When a fire fighter names more than one beneficiary for the lump-sum death benefit, the benefit shall be divided equally among the named beneficiaries unless the fire fighter designates a proportional division. If the fire fighter designates a proportional division, each beneficiary shall receive the proportion of the lump-sum benefit designated by the fire fighter.

Sec. 6. (a) No right to retirement benefits vests until five years of qualified service are completed.

(b) Vested retirement benefits are nonforfeitable.

(c) Full retirement benefits vest at the following rates:

(d) The local board shall file a transcript of the local board hearing with the commissioner within 30 days after receiving notice of appeal.

(e) The commissioner shall, within 30 days after receiving a notice of appeal, set a date for a hearing and notify the claimant and the local board.

(f) A written copy of the commissioner's decision must be sent to the claimant and the local board.

(g) A claimant may appeal the commissioner's decision to the state board of trustees. The appeal must be filed within 20 days after receiving notice of the commissioner's decision.

(h) The state board of trustees shall, within 30 days after receiving notice of appeal, set a date for a hearing and notify the claimant, the local board, and the commissioner.

(i) The claimant, the local board, and the commissioner may present any written or oral evidence necessary for deciding a claim.

(j) The local board, the state board, and the commissioner may administer oaths, receive evidence, issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers and documents related to the hearing, and make findings of fact and decisions in administering this Act.

(k) The attorney general shall represent the commissioner in all proceedings under this Act which require representation.

(1) The local board may be represented by the city attorney or, where appropriate, the county attorney or counsel it may choose to employ.

(m) The Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) applies to all hearings authorized by this Act.

Certification of Physical Fitness

Sec. 8. A fire fighter entering service in a member fire department after the effective date of this Act must be certified as physically fit by the local board of trustees prior to admission to the pension system.

Transfer of Accrued Benefits

Sec. 9. A member fire fighter who terminates service and later resumes service with the same fire department or transfers to another member department may transfer all accrued benefits to the new or resumed service.

Entering the Pension System; Required Election

Sec. 10. (a) An election must be held within the local fire department to merge its current pension plan with the pension system.

(b) The election must be held within 14 days after:

(1) a petition calling for an election and signed by 50 percent of the active fire fighters in the department is filed at the local department; and

(2) the disclosure required by Section 16 of this Act is made to the fire fighters in the local department.

(c) If the current pension plan of the fire department is not solvent, the election to enter the pension system in this Act must be decided by a majority of the votes cast by qualified fire fighters in the department.

(d) If the current pension plan of the fire department is solvent, the election to enter the pension system in this Act must be decided by at least 60 percent of all votes cast.

(e) In the election required in this section, a fire fighter's vote must be multiplied by the number of years of participation in the current pension plan.

Merger of the Current Pension Plan with the Pension System

Sec. 11. (a) When a fire department under a current pension plan elects to participate in the pension system in this Act, the current pension plan is merged with the pension system.

(b) The costs of the current pension plan shall be determined on an actuarially sound basis using the attained-age normal method and actuarial assumptions described in Subdivision 6 of Section 1 of this Act. The costs must be certified by a qualified actuary as of the effective date of merger or within three years preceding the date of merger.
(c) On the date of merger, all assets and liabilities of the current pension plan are transferred to the pension system and become an allocated part of the system. The assets may be merged with the pension system assets for investment purposes, but a separate account must be maintained for the funds allocated to each plan that has merged with the system.

(d) Following merger, a member's retirement benefits in the pension system are determined by either the future-service method or the buy-back method. The options are available only to fire fighters participating in the current pension plan.

(e)(1) In the future-service method, the qualified service required to earn retirement benefits in the pension system begins as of the date of merger. For determining a person's retirement benefits in the pension system, a fire fighter may choose the formula for benefits used in the current pension plan or the formula for benefits as outlined in this Act. Any retirement benefits accrued prior to the date of merger will also be paid on retirement according to the formula for benefits under the current pension plan.

(2) In the buy-back method in determining the fire fighters' retirement benefits in the pension system, a fire fighter may choose the formula for benefits used in the current pension plan or the formula for benefits as outlined in this Act. The fire fighter who has less than 15 years of service remaining before retirement as of the date of merger may count time served under the current pension plan before the date of merger as qualified service. The time period necessary to make 15 years of service before retirement may be used.

(f) A fire fighter who terminates service prior to the date of merger of his fire department's current pension plan with the pension system is entitled to receive at retirement age the retirement benefits vested under the pension plan in effect during his service. The pension system pays his benefits.

(g) Any benefits being paid by the current pension plan at the date of merger will be paid by the pension system following merger.

(h) On merger of a current pension plan with the pension system, the sponsors of the current pension plan are obligated to make contributions to the pension system in this Act to fund the unfunded prior-service cost. The unfunded prior-service cost is determined as of the date of merger using the attained-age normal method and the actuarial assumptions in the definition of "actuarially sound pension system." The period of funding these contributions shall not exceed 40 years measured from the date of merger.

(i) An election for the local board of trustees must be held within 30 days of entering the pension system. The names of the elected trustees are filed with the commissioner.

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a Municipal Pension System in all cities in this state having a population of one million two hundred thousand (1,200,000) or more according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census.

Pension Board

Sec. 5.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 5(a) to (i)]

(j) The Pension Board shall determine each member's credited service on the basis of the personnel and financial records of the city and the records of the Pension Board. The Board may permit any member to pay into the Pension Fund and thereby obtain credit for any service with the city for which credit would otherwise be allowable under this amended Act save only for the fact that no contributions were made by such member with respect to such service, or the fact that contributions, although made with respect thereto, were thereafter refunded to such member as a separation allowance and not subsequently repaid. The following provisions shall apply to such payments:

(1) For service during the period September 1, 1943, to May 29, 1967, the employee shall pay a sum computed at the rate of Twelve Dollars ($12) a month, and the city shall pay into the Pension Fund one and one-half (1½) times the amount so paid by the employee.

(2) For service during the period May 29, 1967, to January 5, 1970, the employee shall pay a sum computed at the rate of three percent (3%) of his salary with the minimum payment being Twelve Dollars ($12) a month, and the city shall pay into the Pension Fund one and one-half (1½) times the amount so paid by the employee.

(3) For service during the period January 5, 1970, to September 1, 1971, the employee shall pay a sum computed at the rate of three percent (3%) of his salary with the minimum payment being Twelve Dollars ($12) a month, and the city shall pay into the Pension Fund an amount equal to eleven and one-quarter percent (11¼%) of such salary for the same period of time.

(4) For service during the period September 1, 1971, to January 1, 1976, the employee shall pay a sum computed at the rate of four percent (4%) of his salary, and the city shall pay into the Pension Fund an amount equal to thirteen and one-half percent (13½%) of such salary for the same period of time.

(5) For service on and after January 1, 1976, the employee shall pay a sum computed at the rate of four percent (4%) of his salary, and the city shall pay into the Pension Fund an amount equal to eighteen percent (18%) of such salary for the same period of time.

(6) In addition to the amounts to be paid by the employee as specified above, the employee shall also pay interest on the same amounts at the rate of six percent (6%) per annum from the time the contributions would have been deducted, if made, or the time contributions were refunded as a separation allowance, as the case may be, to the time of repayment of such contributions into the Pension Fund.

Sec. 8. In addition to the payments provided for in the next preceding section, such city shall pay monthly into such Pension Fund, from its general fund or other available source, an amount equal to eighteen percent (18%) of the total of the monthly salaries paid to members for the same period of time, less an amount equal to the total amount of the employer’s part of the payments made by the city for such period of time with respect to such members, to the federal government under the provisions of the Social Security Act and Federal Insurance Contributions Act, it being the intention hereof that the combined total of the payments made by such city, as an employer, with respect to such members, for social security and pension fund purposes shall at all times be eighteen percent (18%) of the total of all salaries paid to all such members.

Sec. 10. (a) Whenever, in the opinion of the said Pension Board, there is on hand in said Pension Fund a surplus over and above a reasonably safe amount to take care of current demands upon such Funds, such surplus, or so much thereof as in the judgment of the said Pension Board is deemed proper, may be invested in the following:

(1) In bonds or other interest-bearing obligations and securities of the United States, the State of Texas, or any county, city or other political subdivision of the State of Texas;

(2) In first lien real estate mortgage securities insured by the Federal Housing Administration under the National Housing Act of the United States, as amended from time to time;

(3) In such corporation bonds, preferred stocks and common stocks as the Pension Board may deem to be proper investments for said Funds, provided, however, that not more than fifty percent (50%) of said Funds shall be invested at any given time in corporate stocks, nor shall investments in securities issued by any one (1) corporation be more than five percent (5%) of this Fund, nor shall more than five percent (5%) of the voting stock of any one (1) corporation be owned; and provided further, that stocks eligible for purchase shall be restricted to stocks of companies incorporated within the United States which have paid dividends for ten (10) consecutive years or longer immediately prior to the date of purchase and which, except for bank stocks and insurance stocks, are listed.
upon an exchange registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or its successors, except that two percent (2%) of the Fund may be invested in common stocks that do not have a ten (10) year dividend record; or

(4) In real property, divided or undivided, whether or not productive or unproductive of income, including, without limitation, investments of undivided interests in real property consisting of beneficial shares or interests in any commingled fund or any commingled trust which is established for the purpose of, and is primarily engaged in, investment in real property, such as, for example, a group or collective investment trust administered and controlled by a bank or trust company; provided that not more than ten percent (10%) of said Fund shall be invested at any given time in such real property.

(b) In making each and all such investments said Pension Board shall exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which men of ordinary prudence, discretion, and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the safety of their capital. The said Board shall have authority to buy and sell any of its authorized investments.

Retirement on Pension

Sec. 11. (a) Any member of such Pension System who has attained fifty (50) years of age and completed twenty-five (25) or more years of credited service, and any member of such Pension System who has attained fifty-five (55) years of age and completed twenty (20) or more years of credited service, and any member of the Pension System who has attained sixty (60) years of age and completed ten (10) or more years of credited service shall be eligible for a pension.

(b) The amount of pension a month for each such member shall equal two percent (2%) of the member's average monthly salary multiplied by the total number of years of credited service of such member. For purposes of this Subsection, such average monthly salary shall be computed by adding together the thirty-six (36) highest monthly salaries paid to a member during his period of credited service and dividing the sum by thirty-six (36). Provided, however, that no member's pension shall be more than eighty percent (80%) of such average monthly salary; and no member's pension shall be less than Eight Dollars ($8) a month for each year of credited service, or One Hundred Dollars ($100) a month total pension, whichever is the greater amount.

(c) A member shall continue to accrue benefits in the Pension System as long as he remains an employee, regardless of his age. Any present employee who was prohibited by previous amendments from accruing any additional benefits upon reaching seventy (70) years of age and prevented from making further contributions into the Pension Fund shall be permitted to continue the accrual of credited service for the period from age seventy (70) until retirement by repaying in one lump sum Twelve Dollars ($12) a month for each month of service with the city from the date that he reached seventy (70) years of age to the effective date of this amendment and making regular employee contributions thereafter. Any present employee who failed to become a member because he had passed sixty (60) years of age at the time his employment commenced shall now be permitted to become a member by repaying, in one lump sum, Twelve Dollars ($12) a month for each month of service with the city to the effective date of this amendment and making regular employee contributions thereafter. Any elected official who becomes a member of the Pension System as permitted by this amended Act may receive credit for any service as an elected official that preceded the effective date of this amended Act by paying, in one lump sum, Twelve Dollars ($12) a month for each month of such preceding service and making regular employee contributions for any service with the city after the effective date of this amended Act. The city shall also contribute one and one-half (1 1/2) times the amount so paid into the Fund by such employees and officials.

(d) All members who retire under this section or under Section 12 on or after January 1, 1976, shall have their pensions adjusted annually upward or downward in accordance with the Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers as determined by the United States Department of Labor. The adjusted pension shall never be less than the basic pension which the retired member would otherwise be entitled to receive without regard to changes in the Consumer Price Index. The adjusted pension shall never be greater than the amount of the retired member's basic pension plus cumulative increases of not to exceed two percent (2%) annually, notwithstanding a greater increase in the Consumer Price Index.

Disability Pensions

Sec. 12.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 12(a) to (c)]

(d) Any member receiving a pension on account of "ordinary" or "accidental disability" shall, each January 1, submit a sworn affidavit stating his earnings, if any, obtained from any gainful occupation. If the earnings together with the pension being received by any member exceed the monthly salary of such member at the time of his separation from service, the Pension Board shall have authority to reduce the amount of pension. Failure to submit an affidavit of earnings or a materially false affidavit shall be cause for suspension of the pension upon proper action by the Pension Board.

No member shall receive payment of a pension under Section 11 and this section at the same time. However, in the event a member already eligible for retirement under Section 11 should retire for disability under this section, and, thereafter, although his disability ceases to exist, he does not return to work for the city, he shall be entitled to continue to receive a pension under Section 11, calculated in accordance with the length of service and the schedule of benefits for Section 11 which would have been applicable at the time of his original retirement for disability.

When any member has been retired for ordinary or accidental disability, he shall be subject at all times to re-examination by the Pension Board and shall submit himself to such further examination as the Pension Board may require. If any member shall refuse to submit himself to any such examination, the Pension Board may, within its discretion, order said payments stopped. If a member who has been retired under the provisions of this Section should thereafter recover so that in the opinion of the Pension Board he is able to perform the usual and customary duties formerly handled by him for said city, and such member is reinstated or tendered reinstatement to the position he had at the time of his retirement, then the Pension Board shall order such pension payments stopped.

monthly Allowance to Widows and Children

Sec. 13. If any member of the Pension System, as herein defined, shall die from any cause whatsoever after having completed ten (10) years of service with the city, or if, while in the service of the city, any member shall die from any cause growing out of or in consequence of the performance of his duty, or shall die after he has been retired on pension because of length of service or disability and shall leave a surviving widow or widower, or a child or children under the age of eighteen (18) years, or both such widow or widower and child or children, said Board shall order paid monthly allowances as follows:

(a) To the widow or widower, so long as she or he remains a single person and provided she or he shall have married such member prior to her or his retirement, a sum equal to one-half (½) of the retirement benefits that the deceased member would have been entitled to had she or he been totally disabled at the time of her or his retirement or death, but the allowance payable to any such widow or widower shall not in any event be less than Fifty Dollars ($50) a month.

(b) To the guardian of each child the sum of Sixteen Dollars ($16) a month until such child reaches the age of eighteen (18) years.

(c) In the event the widow or widower dies after being entitled to her or his allowance as provided, or in the event there be no widow or widower to receive such allowance, the amount shall be paid to the guardian of any child or children under the age of eighteen (18) years shall be increased to the sum of Thirty-Two Dollars ($32) a month for each such child; provided, however, that the total allowance to be paid all beneficiaries or dependents, as herein provided, shall not exceed the monthly pension that would have been paid the pensioner had he continued to live and retire on pension at the date of his death. Allowances or benefits payable to any minor child shall cease when such child becomes eighteen (18) years of age or marries, provided that when there are only children to collect a pension as beneficiaries, if at the time the last child reaches eighteen (18) years of age, the amount the employee contributed has not been paid out in pensions, the balance shall be refunded to the children. By the term "guardian," as used herein, shall be meant the surviving widow or widower with whom the child or children reside, or any guardian appointed by law, or the person standing in "loco parentis" to such dependent minor child responsible for his or her care and upbringing. termination of Employment; Death; Reemployment

Sec. 16. When any member of such Pension System shall leave the employment of such city, either voluntarily or involuntarily, before becoming eligible for a retirement or disability pension, he shall thereupon cease to be a member of such Pension System, and shall have refunded to him all of the payments made by him into said Pension Fund by way of salary deductions without interest, subject to the following provisos:

(a) If such member has completed twenty-five (25) or more years of service at the time of termination of employment but has not yet attained the age of fifty (50) years he may, by written notice to the Pension Board, make an irrevocable election to leave his contributions in the Pension Fund, in which event he shall, upon reaching the age of fifty (50) years, be entitled to a pension on the basis of the schedule of benefits for retiring members that was in effect at the time of his separation from the service.

Art. 6243g

PENSIONS

(b) If such member has completed twenty (20) or more years of service at the time of termination of employment but has not yet attained the age of fifty-five (55) years he may, by written notice to the Pension Board, make an irrevocable election to leave his contributions in the Pension Fund, in which event he shall, upon reaching the age of fifty-five (55) years, be entitled to a pension on the basis of the schedule of benefits for retiring members that was in effect at the time of his separation from service.

(c) If such member has completed fifteen (15) or more years of service at the time of termination of employment but has not yet attained the age of sixty (60) years he may, by written notice to the Pension Board, make an irrevocable election to leave his contributions in the Pension Fund, in which event he shall, upon reaching the age of sixty (60) years, be entitled to a pension on the basis of the schedule of benefits for retiring members that was in effect at the time of his separation from service.

(d) If, while still employed by the city, whether eligible for a pension or not, a member dies, then, unless the provisions of Section 13 hereof are applicable, all of his rights in the Pension Fund shall be satisfied by the refund to his designated beneficiary, if any, or if none, to his estate, of all the payments theretofore made by him into the Pension Fund by way of employee's contributions, without interest.

(e) The provisions of Section 13 concerning payments to widows, widowers and children shall apply in the case of any former member who has made the election permitted by (a), (b) or (c), above, and who dies before reaching the age at which he would be entitled to a pension. If there be no surviving widow, widower or children, then all of such member's rights in the Pension Fund shall be satisfied by the refund to his designated beneficiary if any, or if none, to his estate, of all the payments theretofore made by him into the Pension Fund by way of employee's contributions, without interest.

(f) It is not the intention of this Amendatory Act to change the status of any former member of the Pension System whose services with the city were terminated under a previous Act. Refunds of contributions above provided for shall be paid such departing member, his beneficiary or estate in a lump sum, but if, in the opinion of the Pension Board, the funds on hand are too low to justify such lump sum payment, said payment shall be refunded on a monthly basis in such amounts as may be determined by the Pension Board.

(g) When a member has left the service of such city, as aforesaid, and has therefore ceased to be a member of such Pension System, if such person shall thereafter be reemployed by the city, he shall thereupon be reinstated as a member of such Pension System, provided he is in good physical and mental condition as evidenced by a written certificate by a duly licensed and practicing physician residing in said city, satisfactory to the Pension Board. Previous service of such member with such city shall not be counted toward his retirement pension unless such member returns to the service of the city within ten (10) years from his separation therefrom and also shall, within three (3) months after his reemployment by the city, repay in one lump sum to such Pension Fund all moneys withdrawn by him upon his separation from the service plus interest thereon at the rate of six percent (6%) a year from the date of such withdrawal. The three (3) months limitation above mentioned is subject, nevertheless, to the Board's authority as expressed in Section 5(j).

(h) If any member of the pension system, after having made the election permitted by (a), (b) or (c), above, at the time of separation from the service of the city, shall be reemployed by the city before becoming eligible to receive pension benefits, the following provisions shall apply to the computation of the pension due such member upon his subsequent retirement:

1. The portion of such member's pension attributable to his period of credited service accrued prior to his making the aforesaid election shall be calculated on the basis of the schedule of benefits for retiring members that was in effect at the time said election was made.

2. The portion of such member's pension attributable to his period of credited service accrued after his reemployment by the city shall be calculated on the basis of the schedule of benefits for retiring members that is in effect at the time of such subsequent retirement.

Provided, however, that the minimum pension payable to retired employees shall be One Hundred Dollars ($100) a month, and as to those surviving spouses of former employees, who receive pensions under Section 13 of this Act, the minimum pension shall be Fifty Dollars ($50) a month, it being further provided that this provision

Monthly Payment by City

Sec. 7. In addition to the payments in the next preceding Section, the city shall pay monthly into the Pension Fund, from the general or other appropriate fund of the city, an amount equal to seven and one-half percent (7½%) of the payroll of the police department. However, should the Police Pension Board deem it necessary for the welfare of the Pension System to increase the contribution of each member of the Police Pension System within the statutory limits of Section 6 of this Act, then the contribution made to the Police Pension System by the city may, with the approval of the City Council, be increased by not less than one and one-half (1½) times the percentage increase in contribution of the members. As an example: If contributing members are assessed at a six percent (6%) contribution rate, then the city may, by appropriate Council action, raise its contribution to not more than nine percent (9%) of the payroll of the police department. Effective on January 1, 1976, the city shall pay monthly into the Pension Fund, from the general or other appropriate fund of the city, an amount equal to two times the sum of the salary deductions paid into the pension fund by members of the pension system.

Retirement: Amount of Pension

Sec. 11. (a) A person who becomes a member of the Pension System on or after the effective date of this amendatory Act and who has been in the service of the city police department for the period of twenty (20) years may retire at the age of fifty (50) years and shall be entitled to a retirement pension of an amount equal to thirty percent (30%) of the base salary provided for the classified position in the police department held by the member, provided that if the member has not held the same classified position for five (5) years prior to the date of retirement, the retirement pension shall be based on the average monthly base salary of the member for five (5) years preceding retirement. Except as provided in Subsection (a-1) of this section, no retirement pension may be paid to a member who has not attained the age of fifty (50) years. Subject to the limitations provided in Subsection (b) of this section, the computation of retirement pension shall include any increase or decrease of the base salary or the average monthly base salary for the classified position or positions on which the member retired even though the increase or decrease occurs after retirement.

(a-1) A person who was a member of the pension system before the effective date of this amendatory Act, may retire regardless of age upon completion of twenty (20) years of service in the city police department and shall be entitled to a retirement pension of an amount equal to thirty percent (30%) of the base salary provided for the classified position in the police department held by the member, provided that if the member has not held the same classified position for five (5) years preceding retirement. Subject to the limitations provided in Subsection (b) of this section, the computation of retirement pension shall include any increase or decrease of the base salary or the average monthly base salary for the classified position or positions on which the member retired even though the increase or decrease occurs after retirement.

(b) If a member of the Police Pension System is promoted or appointed to any classified position above the third highest in the personnel classification schedule, that member's contribution and retirement benefits will be computed on the base salary of the third highest classified positions in the police department. For the purposes of this Act, the position of Chief of Police shall be considered the highest classified position in the personnel classification schedule in the police department.

(c) Any member of such Pension System who has been in the service of the city police department for a period of years in excess of twenty (20) years, and who retires from the service of the police department, shall, in addition to the thirty percent (30%) of his base salary be paid an additional sum equal to two percent (2%) of his base salary per month for each year of service in the police department in excess of twenty (20) years. For example, a member with twenty-five (25) years' service would be entitled to forty percent (40%); a member with thirty (30) years, fifty percent (50%); etc.

(d) It shall be compulsory for any member to retire from the service of the police department upon attaining the age of sixty-five (65) years. Failure of any member of the Pension System to comply with this provision shall deprive the member and his dependents of any of the benefits provided for here­in. If at the time of retirement because of maximum age requirements, the member has completed less than twenty (20) years of service, his monthly retirement pension shall be prorated on the basis of one and one-half percent (1½%) of the base salary of the classified position of the member per month for each year of service completed. Subject to the limitations provided in Subsection (b) of this section, the computation of retirement pension shall include any increase or decrease of the base salary or the average monthly base salary for the classified position or positions on which the member retired even though the increase or decrease occurs after retire­ment.

(e) Upon a member’s completion of twenty (20) years of service in the police department and there­after, when such member retires, whether such retirement be voluntary or involuntary, such monthly payment shall begin forthwith and continue for the remainder of the member’s life. However, when such member has completed twenty (20) years’ serv­ice in the police department and if the physicians of Pension Board agree that the member is physically fit to continue his active duties in the police department, they may so certify, and the member may continue in the service of the city police department until the member attains the age of sixty-five (65) years, at which time his retirement pension shall be computed as hereinbefore stated.

(f) No member shall be required to make any payments into the Pension Fund after the member has retired from the service of the police depart­ment.

Rights of Survivors

Sec. 13. (a) If any member of the police depart­ment who has been retired on allowance because of length of service or disability thereafter dies from any cause whatsoever after he has become entitled to an allowance or pension, or if while in service any member dies from any cause growing out of or in consequence of any act which is clearly not in the actual performance of his official duty, his surviving spouse or dependent child or children shall be refunded any contributions which the member made to the Pension System.

(b) Any person who retired prior to January 1, 1974, and who held a position above the third highest classification in the police department salary sched­ule shall be entitled to a retirement pension of an amount equal to thirty percent (30%) of the base salary provided for the classified position in the police department held by the member, but if the member had not held the same classified position for five (5) years prior to the date of retirement, the retirement pension shall be based on the average monthly base salary of the member for five (5) years preceding retirement. In addition, he shall be paid an additional sum equal to two percent (2%) of his base salary per month for each year of service in the police department in excess of twenty (20) years. The computation of retirement pension shall include any increase or decrease of the base salary or the average monthly base salary for the classified position or positions on which the member retired, even though the increase or decrease occurs after retire­ment.

(e) Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 382, ch. 171, § 2, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of IV, 1(d) to 2(b)]

(e) Each participating municipality shall make payment of Prior Service Contributions to the Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund of the System each month of an amount equal to a per cent of the earnings during such month of the members of the System employed by such participating municipality which per cent shall be calculated annually by the actuary and approved by the Board as being the necessary and required per cent, on the basis of regular interest:

Sec. V. All of the assets of the System shall be credited according to the purpose for which they are held to one (1) of eight (8) funds, namely, the Employees Saving Fund, the Municipality Current Service Accumulation Fund, the Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund, the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund, the Prior Service Annuity Reserve Fund, the Interest Fund, the Endowment Fund and the Expense Fund.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of V, 1 and 2]

3. Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund:

The Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund shall be the Fund in which shall be accumulated all prior service contributions made to the Retirement System by the participating municipalities for the purpose of providing the amounts required for payment of prior service annuities; and from which prior service annuities shall be paid to the extent herein provided.

Contributions to and payments from this Fund shall be made as follows:

(a) All prior service contributions payable by participating municipalities shall be paid into the Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund and shall be credited to the accounts of the respective participating municipalities in such Fund.

(b) All payments under annuities arising from prior service credits, special prior service credits, and antecedent service credits, or updated service credits granted by a participating municipality, as well as increased payments authorized by the participating municipality under Sections XVIII on or after January 1, 1978, shall be paid from this Fund and charged to such participating municipality's account in this Fund subject to the following: the Board shall have the power to reduce proportionately all payments under all such annuities and other benefits payable from said account, at any time and for such period of time as is necessary so that all such payments in any year shall not exceed the amounts available in such participating municipality's account in the Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund in such year.

(c) Whenever, at the end of any year, the amount accumulated in any municipality's account in the Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund shall equal or exceed the reserve required, as of the end of such year, according to calculations made by the actuary and approved by the Board on the basis of mortality and other tables adopted by the Board, to meet all future payments in full under prior service annuities, arising from prior service credits, special prior service credits, and antecedent service credits, or updated service credits granted by such participating municipality, then in effect or to become effective thereafter, then the payment of prior service contributions to the System by such participating municipality shall be discontinued.

Thereafter, should it be determined, according to calculations made by the actuary and approved by the Board on the basis of mortality and other tables adopted by the Board, that the amount to the credit of such participating municipality's account in the Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund at the end of any year is less than the reserve required as of the end of such year to meet all future payments in full under prior service annuities, then in effect or to become effective thereafter arising from prior service credits, special prior service credits, antecedent service credits, or updated service credits granted by such participating municipality, such municipality shall resume payment of Prior Service Contributions, subject to the limitations of Section IV of this Act.

5. Refunds to Certain Municipalities.

If any participating municipality has no employees who are currently members of the System, and has no present or potential liabilities resulting from the participation of former employees, in such event any amount standing to the credit of such municipality in the Prior Service Accumulation Fund and in the Municipality Current Service Accumulation Fund shall upon its application be repaid to such municipality, and its participation in the System shall cease.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of V, 6 to 8]
1976, "Prior Service Credit" shall mean an amount equivalent to the accumulation at interest of a series of equal monthly payments of ten percent (10%) of a member's "average prior service compensation" (not to exceed Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) per month) for the number of months of prior service certified to in such member's Prior Service Certificate. Such accumulation shall be at regular interest and on the basis that interest is allowed at the end of each twelve (12) months period and is allowed on the accumulation at the beginning of each such twelve (12) months period and is not to be allowed for parts of a year.

(b) As to employees of municipalities beginning participation in the System on and after January 1, 1976, "Prior Service Credit" shall mean such percentage (any multiple of ten percent (10%) but not exceeding one hundred percent (100%)) of the "Base Prior Service Credit" as may be specified in the participation ordinance adopted by the governing body, condition that it shall first have been determined, according to calculations made by the actuary and approved by the Board, that the municipality has the ability to fund within twenty-five (25) years from date of participation all prior service obligations proposed to be undertaken by the municipality. "Base Prior Service Credit" shall be determined as an amount equivalent to the accumulation at three percent (3%) interest of a series of monthly payments for the number of months of prior service certified to in such member's Prior Service Certificate. Each monthly payment will be equal to the member's "average prior service compensation" multiplied by the sum of (1) the member's deposit rate and (2) the member's deposit rate multiplied by the municipal current service matching ratio.

8. Any member who has terminated a previous membership by withdrawal of then-accumulated deposits while absent from service, may if the municipality with which he is presently employed agrees to underwrite and assumes the obligations therefor and if the member has at least twenty-four (24) consecutive months of creditable service with his present employer since reestablishment of membership, deposit in the System in a lump-sum payment the amount withdrawn, plus a withdrawal charge of five percent (5%) of such amount per annum from the date of withdrawal to the date of redeposit, and shall thereupon be entitled to credit for all service to which he had been entitled at date of termination of the earlier membership, with like effect as if all such service had been performed as an employee of the consenting municipality. The amount so redeposited shall be placed in the member's individual account in the Employees Saving Fund of the System, but the five percent (5%) per annum charge shall be deposit-municipality's account in the Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund to its account in the Municipality Current Service Accumulation Fund. No such transfer shall be authorized, unless it shall be determined, according to calculations made by the actuary, that such transfer would not impair the ability of the municipality to meet all liabilities of the municipality's account in the Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund and would not impair the ability of the municipality to provide for payment of prior service annuities.

2. Standard Benefit on Service Retirement;
(a) A member who retires upon the basis of service eligibility shall be entitled to receive a “standard service retirement benefit” which shall be an allowance payable in equal monthly installments during the lifetime of the member, and in the event of his death before sixty (60) monthly payments of such benefit have been made, such payments shall continue to be paid to the member's beneficiary until the remainder of the sixty (60) monthly payments have been made. The “standard service retirement benefit” of a member shall consist of (1) a current service benefit which is the actuarial equivalent of his current service annuity reserve, and (2) a prior service benefit to which his Accumulated Prior Service Credit, Accumulated Special Prior Service Credit, and Accumulated Antecedent Service Credit, or to which his Accumulated Updated Service Credit, if any, entitles him under the provisions of this Act.

(2) An additional sum, from the Municipality Current Service Accumulation Fund, equal to the accumulated deposits provided by the member, or such greater sum as the participating municipality has undertaken to provide.

c) The prior service annuity reserve shall be (i) the sum of his Accumulated Prior Service Credit, Accumulated Special Prior Service Credit, and Accumulated Antecedent Service Credit, or (ii) of his Accumulated Updated Service Credit, if any, at the time of retirement.

3. Optional Service Retirement Benefits;
(a) In lieu of the standard service retirement benefit allowable under the preceding subsection, and provided that he shall make such election and nomination within thirty (30) days after the date fixed for retirement, any member retiring for service may elect to receive the actuarial equivalent of his current service benefit in a current service annuity payable to the member during his lifetime, but with the provision that:

Option 1. Upon his death, the current service annuity shall be continued throughout the life of, and paid to, such person as the member shall nominate by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the Board within the time above provided; or

Option 2. Upon his death, one-half of the current service annuity shall be continued throughout the life of, and paid to, such person as the member shall nominate by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the Board within the time above provided; or

Option 3. In the event of his death before one hundred twenty (120) monthly payments have been made of his reduced current service annuity, the payments shall be continued to his beneficiary (or to his estate) until the remainder of the one hundred twenty (120) monthly payments have been made; or

Option 4A. In the event of his death before one hundred eighty (180) monthly payments have been made of his reduced current service annuity, the payments shall be continued to his beneficiary (or to his estate) until the remainder of the one hundred eighty (180) monthly payments have been made; or

Option 4B. A benefit payable in equal monthly installments only during the lifetime of the member; or

Option 5. Some other benefit or benefits may be paid either to the member, or to such person or persons as he may nominate, provided the same shall be approved by the Board, and provided such other benefit or benefits, together with the current service annuity of the member, shall be certified by the actuary to be the equivalent in actuarial value of the current service annuity reserve to which the member is entitled at the date fixed for his retirement.

(b) Any member who makes an effective election to have his current service benefit paid in accordance with Option 1, Option 2, Option 3, Option 4A, Option 4B or Option 5, shall likewise receive his prior service benefit, if any, in an adjusted annuity payable upon the same conditions and to the same beneficiary as that selected for his current service benefit, but with the further proviso that all prior service benefits shall be subject to reduction by the Board under the circumstances provided for in Section V of this Act.

4. Deferred Service Retirement with Optional Selection;

Any member who has accumulated sufficient creditable service and who is otherwise qualified for service retirement shall have the right to apply in writing (on such forms as the Board may prescribe) for "deferred retirement" under this subsection, and continue in service of a participating municipality, accumulating additional creditable service, upon the terms and with the effect hereinbelow provided.

In the application for deferred retirement, the member shall apply for retirement to be effective on or before the last day of the calendar year in which he reaches seventy (70) years of age, and shall select the standard benefit or one of the optional benefits authorized under Subsection 3, above, and designate the beneficiary of the optional benefits selected. After filing of the application for deferred retirement, the member may continue in the service of a participating municipality, and he may thereafter retire at the end of any month, by filing an amended application in writing for commencement of payment of benefits with the Board at least thirty (30) days before the amended effective date of retirement; or, if such member shall die while in service, or before payments of his deferred annuity have begun, he shall be considered to have retired effective as of the last day of the calendar month preceding the month in which his death occurs, and his optional selection shall be effective as of that date. Any such member who has applied for deferred retirement may from time to time, prior to beginning of payments of his annuity to him, file an amended application, changing his written selection of optional allowance and/or designated beneficiary. A member who executes an application for deferred retirement will automatically be retired on the last day of the calendar year in which he becomes seventy (70) years of age. A member who is entitled to have applied for deferred retirement hereunder, but who has not executed and filed an application therefor, shall in case of his death be considered as having retired on an Option 4A benefit effective at the end of the calendar month preceding that in which he dies; or, at the election of his beneficiary, such deceased member shall be considered as having been an active member at death and the beneficiary may thereby elect to receive the accumulated contributions of the deceased member, with interest determined as provided in Subsection 8 of Section VIII. [See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of VII, 5]

6. Standard Disability Retirement Benefits;

Upon retirement for disability a member shall receive a disability retirement benefit consisting of (1) his accumulated deposits credited to his account in the Employees Saving Fund at the time of retirement; and (2) an additional sum from the Municipality Current Service Accumulation Fund equal to the accumulated deposits provided by the member, or such greater sum as the participating municipality has undertaken to provide.

(b) If at time of retirement, a member is entitled to and has in full force and effect any prior service credits, special prior service credits, antecedent service credits, or updated service credits, the prior service annuity shall be the actuarial equivalent of his Accumulated Prior Service Credit, Accumulated Special Prior Service Credit and Accumulated Antecedent Service Credit, or of his Accumulated Updated Service Credit, as applicable, at time of retirement. Upon the recommendation of the actuary, the Board shall have the power to reduce payments for prior service annuities as provided in Section V of this Act.

7. Requirements and Conditions Applicable to Disability Benefits;

Once each year during the first five (5) years following retirement of a member on a disability retirement allowance, and once in every three-year period thereafter, the Board may, and upon his application shall, require any disability annuitant who has not yet attained the age of sixty (60) years to undergo a medical examination, such examination to be made at the place of residence of said annuitant or any other place mutually agreed upon, by a physician or physicians designated by the Board. Should any disability annuitant who has not yet attained the age of sixty (60) years refuse to submit to at least one (1) medical examination in any such periods by a physician or physicians designated by the Board, his allowance shall be discontinued until his withdrawal of such refusal, and should his refusal continue for one (1) year, all his rights in and to his allowance shall be revoked by the Board. [See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of VII, 7(a)]

(b) Should a disability annuitant under the age of sixty (60) years be restored to active service in a participating department of a participating municipality, his retirement allowance shall cease, he shall again become a member of the System, and any reserves on his current service annuity at that time in the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund shall be transferred to the Employees Saving Fund and to the Municipality Current Service Accumulation Fund, respectively, in proportion to the original sum transferred to the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund. Upon restoration to membership, any Prior Service Credit, Special Prior Service Credit, Antecedent Service Credit, or Updated Service Credit, on the basis of which his service was computed at the time of his retirement shall be restored to full force and effect, and in addition, upon his subsequent retirement, he shall be credited with all his membership service. Should a disability annuitant die or be removed from the disability list for any cause other than restoration to active service, an amount equal to the amount by which such annuitant's accumulated deposits at the time of disability retirement exceed the current service annuity payments received by such annuitant under his disability allowance, if any such excess exists, shall be paid from the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund to such annuitant if living; otherwise, such amount shall be paid to his estate unless he has directed such amount to be paid otherwise.

8. Return of Deposits Upon Other Terminations;

Should a member cease to be an employee of a participating department except by death or retirement under the provisions of this Act, he shall, upon application, be paid in full the amount of the accumulated deposits standing to the credit of his individual account in the Employees Saving Fund. In the event of death of a member before retirement, and prior to eligibility of the member to deferred retirement as hereinabove provided, the amount of his accumulated deposits standing to the credit of his individual account in the Employees Saving Fund (together with interest on the amount of his accumulated contributions at the beginning of the year in which death occurs, computed from the first day of such year to the first day of the month in which death occurs at the annual rate of interest credited by the System on member accounts during the preceding year) shall be paid to his estate unless he has directed the account to be paid otherwise. Seven (7) years after cessation of service, if no previous demand has been made, any accumulated deposits of a contributor shall be returned to him or to his estate. If the contributor or the administrator of his estate cannot then be found, his accumulated deposits shall be escheated to the Retirement System, and shall be credited to the permanent endowment account of the Endowment Fund.

9. Valuation Basis Adjustment in Current Service Annuities;

The Board of Trustees is authorized to increase the monthly benefits payable after July 1, 1977, on each current service annuity on which a monthly benefit payment was made on June 30, 1977. The monthly benefits payable may be increased by the percentage by which (a) exceeds (b), where (a) is the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund balance as of July 1, 1977, plus regular interest on the mean balance of such Fund from January 1, 1977, to July 1, 1977, and (b) is the System's current service annuity reserve calculated on the basis of four percent (4%) interest and such mortality and other tables adopted by the Board to become effective on July 1, 1977.

10. Valuation Basis Adjustment in Prior Service Annuities;

The Board of Trustees is authorized to increase the monthly benefits payable after July 1, 1977, on each prior service annuity on which a monthly benefit payment was made on June 30, 1977. The monthly benefit payable may be increased for annuitants in each municipality by the percentage by which (a) exceeds (b), where (a) is the municipality's prior service annuity reserve calculated on the basis of three percent (3%) interest and such mortality and other tables adopted by the Board that are in effect on June 30, 1977, and where (b) is the municipality's prior service annuity reserve calculated on the basis of four percent (4%) interest and such mortality and other tables adopted by the Board to become effective July 1, 1977. It is further provided that no increase in monthly benefits payable on prior service annuities for annuitants of a particular municipality shall be made in an amount which (according to calculations made by the actuary on the basis of four percent (4%) interest and such mortality and other tables adopted by the Board) would result in a probable future depletion of the municipality's account in the Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund with the resulting need to reduce prior service annuities payable to retired members.

11. Reduction in Payments at Request of Annuitant;

At the written request of any person receiving payments of an annuity, the Director may cause the monthly amount payable as such benefit to be reduced to such amount as the person entitled to such payment shall request, and on written request of the person entitled to such payment may thereafter increase the amount of the monthly payment during the remaining period for which the benefit is payable to an amount not exceeding the monthly amount originally payable under such annuity. Any amounts by which the monthly benefit is reduced at the annuitant's request shall be relinquished to the System, and no person shall have any claim to recover any amounts, the payment of which is foregone under the provisions hereof.

Optional Provision for Increased Current Service Annuities

Sec. XIV. Any participating municipality electing to do so may provide for an increased current service annuity reserve at retirement of employees of such municipality, upon the following terms and conditions:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of XIV, 1 to 5]

6. The increased rate of contributions authorized hereunder shall only be made effective at the beginning of a calendar year. A municipality beginning participation in the System on or after January 1, 1976, however, may elect to begin participation on the basis of contributing at retirement one hundred fifty percent (150%) or two hundred percent (200%) of its member's accumulated deposits arising from service during each year such undertaking remains in effect.

7. A participating municipality may revert to current-service contributions on an equal-matching basis, or reduce from two hundred per centum (200%) matching to one hundred fifty per centum (150%) matching of deposits as to any service rendered by its members or after the 1st day of January of the ensuing calendar year after adoption of an ordinance terminating (as to such future service) contributions at the higher percentages allowed under this Section; provided such ordinance shall have been adopted prior to the 1st day of January of the ensuing calendar year.

Optional Provision for Antecedent Service Credits

Sec. XV. Any participating municipality electing to do so may provide for "special prior service credits" to be allowed as to employees of such municipality retiring subsequent to the effective date of the undertaking of the municipality to provide such increased credits, upon the following terms and conditions:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of XV, 1 to 6]

7. No participating municipality may allow special prior service credits after January 1, 1976, but any such credits theretofore allowed shall remain in effect, unless supplanted by Updated Service Credits allowed by such municipality.

Optional Provision for Updated Service Credits

Sec. XVII. (1)(a) Under the conditions hereinbelow set forth, any municipality participating in this System prior to January 1, 1975, may provide for each of its members to be granted an "Updated Service Credit" as a substitute for and in lieu of all Prior Service Credits, Special Prior Service Credits and Antecedent Service Credits theretofore allowed such member by reason of service with such municipality, or as a substitute for previously granted Updated Service Credits.

(b) Any municipality beginning participation between January 1, 1975, and December 1, 1975, shall not be eligible to allow Updated Service Credits until it has been a participating municipality in the System for one or more calendar years. Any municipality beginning participation on or after January 1, 1976, shall not be eligible to allow Updated Service Credits until it has been a participating municipality in the System for four or more calendar years.

(2) The governing body by ordinance shall determine whether to grant Updated Service Credits to members by reason of employment with such municipality, and shall designate the effective date of election of such credits; provided that the date elected shall be the beginning of any calendar year subsequent to the effective date of this section and further provided that the System shall receive the ordinance prior to the effective date of election. Except for the first election to grant Updated Service Credits, the effective date of any such election by a participating municipality must be four or more years subsequent to the effective date of any previous election.

(3) Updated Service Credit shall mean such percentage (any multiple of ten percent (10%) but not exceeding one hundred percent (100%)) of the "Base Updated Service Credit" as the governing body may select; provided, however, that each member shall be entitled as a minimum to an Updated Service Credit that is equal to the total of the member's Accumulated Prior Service Credit, Accumulated
Art. 6243h

Special Prior Service Credit and Accumulated Antecedent Service Credit, or his previously granted Accumulated Updated Service Credit, as of the study date. The study date on which updated service credits are calculated shall be one year prior to the effective date of election of such Updated Service Credits.

(4) "Base Updated Service Credit" shall be determined as the number 1.03 multiplied by the difference by which the amount calculated as provided in (a) below, exceeds the amount calculated as provided in (b) below, and where:

"(a)" is an amount equivalent to the accumulation at three percent (3%) interest of a series of monthly payments for the number of months of creditable service standing to the credit of the member for service to the study date. Each such monthly payment shall be equal to the member's average updated service compensation, as defined below, multiplied by the sum of (1) the member's deposit rate and (2) the member's deposit rate multiplied by the municipal current service matching ratio in effect at the effective date of election. "Average updated service compensation" means the monthly average compensation received by an employee member for the three (3) years immediately preceding the study date; but if there are less than three (3) years of such service, the average shall be computed for the number of months of such service within such thirty-six (36) month period. If an employee member has no service during the three (3) years immediately preceding the study date, then the average shall be computed for the three (3) years, or fraction thereof, of service rendered in the most recent period preceding the study date; and

"(b)" is an amount equal to the sum of: (1) the member's accumulated contributions on the study date subject to a 1 to 1 matching ratio multiplied by 2, and (2) the member's accumulated contributions on the study date subject to a 1.5 to 1 matching ratio multiplied by 2.5, and (3) the member's accumulated contributions on the study date subject to a 2 to 1 matching ratio multiplied by 3.

(5) Municipality liabilities attributable to Updated Service Credits shall be an obligation of the municipality to the Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund and shall be paid for by prior service contributions by the participating municipality as provided elsewhere in this statute. The actuary shall annually determine the municipality prior service contribution rate necessary to pay for these liabilities and other liabilities of the municipality to the Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund.

(6) No Updated Service Credit shall be permitted, and no provision therefor shall become effective, unless and until the proposal is approved by the Board as conforming to requirements of this Act. The Board shall adopt such rules as it deems necessary to insure that the System receives from the participating municipality such certified information as is required by the actuary in sufficient time to make the necessary studies prior to the effective date of election of Updated Service Credits. The Board shall not approve the allowance of Updated Service Credit by any participating municipality until it shall have been determined (according to calculations made by the Actuary and approved by the Board, on the basis of mortality and other tables adopted by the Board) that (a) all obligations of the Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund including those arising from the Updated Service Credits can be funded by the municipality within its maximum total contribution rate by the end of the twenty-fifth year from the latest effective date of election of allowance of Updated Service Credits, or from the latest effective date of increase in annuities to retired members and their beneficiaries, whichever period is longer; and (b) prior service annuities payable thereafter will not result in a probable future depletion of the Municipality's Prior Service Accumulation Fund with the resulting need to reduce prior service annuities payable to retired members.

(7) Accumulated Updated Service Credit shall mean Updated Service Credit accumulated at regular interest from the effective date of election of Updated Service Credits until the effective date of such member's retirement.

(8) Any participating municipality electing to provide Updated Service Credits must also elect on the same date to base member's monthly deposits on the member's total monthly earnings, if not previously so elected.

(9) Any municipality granting Updated Service Credits shall not be eligible to grant Special Prior Service Credits, as defined in Section XV, and Antecedent Service Credits, as defined in Section XVI, subsequent to their date of election of Updated Service Credits.

Optional Increases in Benefits to Persons Drawing Annuities

Sec. XVIII. (1) Subject to the limitations hereinbelow set out, any participating municipality may from time to time authorize and provide for increases in the current service annuities and prior service annuities being paid to retired employees and to beneficiaries of deceased employees of such municipality.

(2) The increased benefit shall be ten percent (10%), twenty percent (20%), thirty percent (30%), forty percent (40%), or fifty percent (50%) of the then benefit being paid to such retired member or beneficiary by reason of service performed by such member for the municipality undertaking to grant such increase; and the governing body of the municipality shall by ordinance determine the percentage of increase to be so allowed.

(3) All increases in monthly benefit payments on account of current service annuities and of prior service annuities hereafter authorized under this Section shall be obligations of the participating municipality’s account in the Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund, and shall be subject to the limitations of Section V, providing that all benefit payments chargeable to the account of the participating municipality in the Prior Service Accumulation Fund in any year may not exceed the amounts available in said account in said year.

(4) The reserves required to fund increases allowed by such municipality in payments on account of current service annuities and of prior service annuities being paid to its retired employees and their beneficiaries, shall become a charge against and an additional obligation of the municipality’s account in the Prior Service Accumulation Fund of the System; and such liabilities, together with all other liabilities chargeable to its account in the Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund, shall be paid for by contributions to said Fund as elsewhere provided in this statute. The actuary shall annually determine the municipality prior service contribution rate necessary to pay for the additional liabilities above, and all other liabilities of the municipality to the Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund, within a period of twenty-five (25) years from effective date of latest increases in annuities to retired members and beneficiaries, or from the latest effective date of allowance by the municipality of Updated Service Credits, whichever is later.

(5) The increases in benefits payable to retired employees and their beneficiaries may be made effective on the first day of the next ensuing calendar year; provided, that no additional increase in benefits shall be allowed by a participating municipality until four years have elapsed since the effective date of the latest increase in any such benefits; and provided further that any annuitant receiving a benefit which became effective after the participating municipality last adopted Updated Service Credits, shall be ineligible to receive any increase in payments on account of such annuity, unless the participating municipality shall simultaneously allow Updated Service Credits in substitution for those previously granted.

(6) No increases in benefits being paid to retired members and their beneficiaries shall be permitted, and no provision therefor shall become effective, unless and until the proposal is approved by the Board as conforming to requirements of this Act. The Board shall not approve the allowance by any participating municipality of increases in annuities to retired employees and their beneficiaries, until it shall have been determined (according to calculations made by the Actuary and approved by the Board, on the basis of mortality and other tables adopted by the Board) that (a) all obligations of the municipality in the Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund, including those arising from such increased benefits can be funded by the municipality within its maximum total contribution rate by the end of the twenty-fifth year from the effective date of election of such increased benefits or the granting of Updated Service Credits, whichever is later, and (b) prior service annuities payable thereafter will not result in a probable future depletion of the municipality’s account in the Municipality Prior Service Accumulation Fund with the resulting need to reduce prior service annuities payable to retired members.

Optional Supplemental Death Benefits

Sec. XIX. 1. Establishment of Supplemental Death Benefits Fund.

(a) The Board of Trustees shall establish in addition to the several Funds listed in Section V, an additional and separate Fund to be known as the “Supplemental Death Benefits Fund” to provide for payment of supplemental death benefits upon the terms and conditions hereinafter stated.

(b) The Supplemental Death Benefits Fund and the coverage authorized under this section shall not become operative until a sufficient number of municipalities elect to participate in the Fund to cover the Fund at least four thousand (4,000) members of the System. The Board shall determine the operative date and shall furnish to municipalities which have elected to participate in the Fund notice of the effective date of their participation in the Fund, which shall not precede the operative date of the Fund. Municipalities electing to participate in the Fund after the operative date may begin participation on the first day of any calendar month following notification to the Board of its election to enter the Fund.

2. Participation in Fund by Municipalities.

(a) Any municipality which has one or more of its departments participating in this System on a full-salary basis may, by action of its governing body, elect to participate in the Supplemental Death Benefits Fund for the purpose of providing for its current employees who are members of the System an in-service death benefit described below, and, if the municipality shall further elect such additional coverage, providing the post-retirement death benefits described below for annuitants of the System who were employees of such municipality at time of retirement. If the municipality has less than ten (10) employees who are members of the System, the Board may require evidence satisfactory to the...
Art. 6243h  PENSIONS  2396

Board of the good health of such members prior to permitting such municipality to participate in the Fund.

(b) Any municipality may elect to discontinue participation in the Supplemental Death Benefits Fund and terminate the coverage herein provided for effective January 1 of any year by giving the System written notice of its intention to discontinue not later than October 31 preceding the date of termination. The Board of Trustees shall have the right to place such restrictions as it deems proper upon the right of that municipality to again participate in the Fund, if it has previously discontinued participation in the Fund.

3. In-service Death Benefits.

(a) Conditions and Amount of Payment. In the event of the death of a covered member while in service as an employee of a municipality participating in the Supplemental Death Benefits Fund or while such member is covered by Extended Supplemental Death Benefit protection as hereinafter provided, there will be paid from the Fund a cash benefit equal in amount to the current annual salary of the member. The current annual salary shall be the amount actually paid to such employee as compensation for services and on which contributions were made to the System during the period of twelve (12) calendar months preceding the month of death. If the employee has been employed for a lesser period, the current annual salary shall be determined by converting to an annual basis the compensation which was actually paid to the member and on which contributions were made to the System for the period of his actual employment. If the employee received no compensation for services during the period of twelve (12) calendar months preceding the month of death, the current annual salary shall be determined by converting to an annual basis the compensation paid during the month of death. For the member who is covered by Extended Supplemental Death Benefit protection as hereinafter provided, the current annual salary shall be determined as described above and as if the member had died during the first month of such protection. The Board shall have the power to require such proof of amounts of compensation and periods of employment as it deems necessary.

(b) Period of coverage. A person employed by a participating municipality will be covered for in-service supplemental death benefits effective on the first day of the first month during which all of the following requirements are satisfied:

(i) the employing municipality is participating in the Supplemental Death Benefits Fund for coverage of all System members in its employment;

(ii) the employee is a member of the System; and

(iii) the employee-member is obligated to make a contribution to the System.

Coverage once established will continue in effect during each month thereafter in which all of the above requirements are satisfied as to the employee-member involved; coverage terminates (unless the member qualifies for extended supplemental death benefit protection) on the last day of any month in which the person involved fails to satisfy all of the above requirements. However, in no event will coverage continue beyond the date of termination of such coverage by the municipality or beyond the date of termination of membership in the System.

If a member makes deposits to the System during the same month as an employee of more than one municipality participating in the Fund, a death benefit will be payable only on the basis of the member’s employment in such municipality for which he last worked.

(c) Extended Supplemental Death Benefit Protection. A member covered for in-service supplemental death benefits who fails in a succeeding month to earn compensation for service to a municipality participating in this Fund may be granted Extended Supplemental Death Benefit protection despite failure to make a contribution to the System, provided the member applies for such extended coverage and submits proof satisfactory to the Board:

(i) that as a result of illness or injury, the member is unable to engage in any gainful employment; and

(ii) that the member made to the System a required contribution as an employee of a municipality participating in the Supplemental Death Benefits Fund for the month preceding the first entire month for which the Board finds the member to have been unable to engage in any gainful employment.

The Extended Supplemental Death Benefit protection once approved by the Board shall continue for such member until the end of the month in which occurs the first of the following events:

(i) the member returns to work as an employee of a participating municipality; or

(ii) the Board finds that the member has become able to engage in gainful employment; or

(iii) the person ceases to be a member of the System; or

(iv) the member retires under the provisions of this Act.

The Board may require that satisfactory proof of continued inability to engage in gainful occupation be submitted once every twelve (12) months, and the Board may require the member to submit to examination by physicians designated by the Board as a condition to granting or continuation of such extended protection. Failure of a member to submit to an examination shall be sufficient grounds for finding that the member has become able to engage in gainful employment.

In the event that the municipality for which an annuitant was last employed as a member of the System has elected to provide post-retirement supplemental death benefits and such annuitant shall die while such coverage under the Supplemental Death Benefits Fund is maintained in effect by such municipality, there shall be paid from the Fund a cash benefit in the amount of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00).

No benefit shall be payable by reason of death of an annuitant subsequent to the date of termination of such coverage by the municipality by which the annuitant was last employed as a member of the System.

5. Contributions Required of Municipalities Participating in Fund.

(a) Board to Adopt Tables and Rates. Based upon the recommendations of the actuary, the Board shall adopt, to become effective on the date that the Supplemental Death Benefits Fund and the coverage under this section become operative, such rates and tables as are considered necessary to determine the Supplemental Death Benefits contribution rates required of each municipality. As soon as is practicable after the establishment of the Supplemental Death Benefits program and periodically thereafter as part of each general investigation of the mortality and service experience of the members and annuitants of the System, the actuary shall make such investigation of the mortality experience of the members and eligible annuitants participating in the Supplemental Death Benefits program as is deemed necessary and on the basis of such investigation shall recommend for adoption by the Board such rates and tables as are considered necessary to determine Supplemental Death Benefits contribution rates.

The rates and tables recommended by the actuary and adopted by the Board may provide for the anticipated mortality experience of persons covered under the Fund, and for a contingency reserve.

(b) Contribution Rates for Supplemental Death Benefits. At the beginning of each municipality's participation in the Supplemental Death Benefits Fund, the actuary shall calculate the Supplemental Death Benefits contribution rate applicable to the municipality for the remainder of that calendar year and thereafter shall calculate the rate applicable for each succeeding calendar year for participation in the Fund. The rate of contribution shall be calculated on the basis of the rates and tables adopted by the Board and effective for the period for which such determination is made and shall be expressed as a percentage of earnings of members of the System employed by such municipality.

Each municipality participating in the Supplemental Death Benefits Fund shall make monthly contributions to the Fund in an amount determined by multiplying the Supplemental Death Benefits contribution rate applicable to such municipality (as calculated by the actuary and approved by the Board) by all earnings during the month of members of the System employed by such municipality.

Such contributions shall be in addition to and shall not be included within the limitations prescribed in other sections of this Act on the rate of contribution which may be made by the participating municipality for benefits under the System.

All Supplemental Death Benefits contributions required of and paid in by municipalities participating in the Supplemental Death Benefits Fund shall be credited to said Fund, and not to separate accounts of the municipalities participating therein. All Supplemental Death Benefits payable under the provisions of this section shall be paid from said Fund and shall be obligations only of said Fund, and not of other funds of the System.

If at any time the amount of benefit payments due from the Supplemental Death Benefits Fund exceeds the balance of such Fund, the Board may direct that funds be transferred from the Endowment Fund General Reserves Account (to the extent that such money is available) to the Supplemental Death Benefits Fund in such amounts as are necessary to cover the deficiency, and the Board may provide for adjustments in future contributions to the Supplemental Death Benefits Fund such as may be required to restore to the General Reserves Account of the Endowment Fund the amounts theretofore transferred to the Supplemental Death Benefits Fund.

The Supplemental Death Benefits Fund shall be managed, controlled, and handled as are other funds of the System. Regular interest shall be allowed by the Board on December 31 in each year on the mean amount in the Fund during the year, and the sum so allowed shall be transferred to the Supplemental Death Benefits Fund from the Interest Fund at the time and in the manner in which interest is allowed to other interest-bearing funds of the System.

7. Discontinuance of Fund.

If the total number of members covered under the Fund becomes less than four thousand (4,000), the Board may order the Fund to be discontinued and all coverage terminated at the end of a calendar year as designated by the Board; provided that no such termination date shall be fixed that is less than six
Art. 6243h  PENSIONS

(6) months beyond the date of adoption of the order of termination.

The Board is authorized, if in its judgment such action is necessary, to secure reinsurance from one or more stock insurance companies doing business in this state, to protect against adverse claim experience. Premiums for such reinsurance shall be paid from the Supplemental Death Benefits Fund.

Unless the member shall otherwise direct on written forms adopted by the Board the Supplemental Death Benefit shall be paid:

(a) to such person as a covered member has designated as the beneficiary to whom his accumulated contributions shall be paid; or

(b) to such person as a covered annuitant has designated as the person to whom any remaining payments of the benefit are to be continued after death of the annuitant.

If no designated beneficiary survives the covered member or covered annuitant, as the case may be, the Supplemental Death Benefit shall be paid to his or her estate.

Section 17 of the 1975 amendatory act provided: "If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Section 10 of Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 126, ch. 58, provided:

"If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 6243j. Police Officers' Pension System in Cities of 50,000 to 400,000

Sec. 1. There is hereby created in this State a Police Officers' Pension System in all cities having a population of not less than fifty thousand (50,000) inhabitants, nor more than four hundred thousand (400,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census; provided, however, that once such pension system becomes operative in any city, any right or privilege accruing to any member thereunder shall be a vested right and the same shall not be denied or abridged thereafter through any change in population of any such city taking such city out of the population bracket as herein prescribed, and said pension system shall continue to operate and function regardless of whether or not any future population exceeds or falls below said population bracket.

Art. 6252-6. State Property, Responsibility and Accounting

Legislative Findings and Purpose

Sec. 1. The Legislature finds that the State has a very substantial investment in real and personal property and that a substantial portion of the annual income of the State is spent to acquire property for State purposes and to maintain State property. The purpose of this Act is to establish a system for the orderly accounting for State property, to establish responsibility for the maintenance and care of State property and to prescribe the method of fixing pecuniary liability for the misuse of State property by officials and employees. The principles embodied in this Act are now found in the common law and Statutes of this State; this Act restates those principles and prescribes the implementing procedures. The State has a real interest in its property and is entitled to having it managed and used in a sound and businesslike manner so that the maximum benefits may be obtained from it and the State's investment therein protected.

Definitions

Sec. 2. The provisions of Articles 10, 11, 12, 14, 22, and 23, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and Acts, Fiftieth Legislature, 1947, Chapter 359, on the interpretation of Statutes shall apply specifically to this Act. In addition to these standard definitions, in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Agency" shall include any State department, agency, board or other instrumentality, whether it is financed in whole or part by funds appropriated by the Legislature or not; but shall not include local political subdivisions of the State, such as counties, cities, towns, school districts, flood control districts, irrigation districts, and the like.

(b) "Agency head" shall mean the full-time State elected or appointed official or officials who administer the agency or the executive who has been appointed to administer the agency by a part-time State elected or appointed official or officials. 1

Property Accounting

Sec. 3. All real and personal property belonging to the State shall be accounted for by the head of the agency which has possession of the property.

(a) The State Board of Control shall administer the property accounting system established by this Act. The State Auditor shall administer the property responsibility system established by this Act. The Board of Control shall issue such rules and regulations and manual of instruction and prescribe such records, reports, and forms as he deems necessary to accomplish the objects of this Act subject to the approval of the State Auditor. The State Auditor is directed to cooperate with the Board of Control in the exercise of the Board of Control's rule-making powers herein granted by giving technical assistance and advice.

(b) The Board of Control shall maintain a complete and accurate set of centralized records of State property. However, where the Board of Control finds that an agency has demonstrated its ability and competence to maintain complete and accurate detailed records of the property it possesses without the detailed supervision by the Board of Control, the Board of Control may direct that the detailed records be kept at the principal office of such agency. Where the Board of Control issues such order, the Board of Control shall keep only summary records of the property of such agency and the agency shall keep such detailed records as the Board of Control directs and furnish the Board of Control with such reports at such times as the Board of Control directs.

(c) Each agency head shall cause each item of State property possessed by his agency to be marked so as to identify it. The agency head shall follow the instructions issued by the Board of Control in marking State property.

Agencies and Property Subject to Control

Sec. 4. (a) All State agencies shall comply with the provisions of this Act and shall keep the property records required by the Act.

(b) All real property owned by the State shall be accounted for by the agency which possesses the property. However, the real property administered by the General Land Office shall be accounted for by that office and not by the system prescribed in this Act, and the real property administered by the permanent funds established by the Legislature and people shall be accounted for by the agency now charged with its administration and not by the System prescribed in this Act.

(c) All personal property owned by the state shall be accounted for by the agency that possesses the property. The Board of Control shall by regulation define what is meant by personal property for the purposes of this Act, but such definition shall not include non-consumable personal property having a value of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars (£250.00) or less per unit. In promulgating such regulations, the Board of Control shall take into account the value of the property, its expected useful life, and the cost of record keeping should bear a reasonable relationship to the cost of the property upon which records are kept. The Board of Control shall consult with the State Auditor in making such regulations and the Auditor shall cooperate with the Board of Control in the exercise of this rule making power by giving technical assistance and advice.
(d) All medical, surgical, technical equipment and supplies provided by the Texas Department of Health Resources to Local Public Health Units, Local Public Health Laboratories, state institutions, and non-profit institutions, contributing to the promotion and maintenance of public health by the usage of such medical, surgical, technical equipment and supplies shall be accounted for by that Department and not by the system prescribed in this Act.

And providing further, that all medical, surgical, technical equipment and supplies provided by the Texas Department of Health Resources to Local Public Health Units, Local Public Health Laboratories, state institutions, and non-profit institutions, contributing to the promotion and maintenance of public health by the usage of such medical, surgical, technical equipment and supplies which are now being accounted for and complying with the provisions under the present system of accounting shall be deleted from and not required after the passage and the effective date of this Act.

Provided, however, the Texas Department of Health Resources shall maintain at all times a complete record of such medical, surgical, technical equipment and supplies provided and such records shall be verified by the State Auditor and available to the Federal Auditors for the Agency of the Federal Government making such grants for assistance in the purchase of such medical, surgical, technical equipment and supplies.

Property Responsibility

Sec. 5. Each agency head is responsible for the proper custody, care, maintenance, and safekeeping of the State property possessed by his agency.

(a) Each agency head shall designate either himself or one of his employees as property manager. The Board of Control shall be informed in writing by the agency head of the name of the property manager and shall be informed of any changes. Where the Board of Control finds that convenience and efficiency will be served, he may permit more than one property manager to be appointed by the agency head.

(b) The property manager shall maintain the required records on all property possessed by the agency and shall be the custodian of all such property.

(c) No person shall entrust State property to any State official or employee or to anyone else to be used for other than State purposes.

(d) When an agency's property is entrusted to some person other than the property manager, the property manager shall require a written receipt for such property executed by the person receiving custody of the property. When the possession of property of one agency is entrusted to another agency on loan, such transfer shall be done only when authorized in writing by the agency head who is lending such property and the written receipt shall be executed by the agency head who is borrowing such property. The property manager is relieved of the responsibility for property which is the subject of such a receipt.

(e) Each agency shall make a complete physical inventory of all property in its possession once a year. The inventory shall be taken on the date prescribed for the agency by the Board of Control.

(f) The agency head shall forward a signed statement describing the method by which the inventory was verified, along with a copy of such inventory within forty-five (45) days after the inventory date for the agency.

(g) The Board of Control shall supervise the property records of each agency so that the records accurately reflect the property currently possessed by the agency. The Board of Control shall prescribe the methods whereby items of property are deleted from the property records of the agency. Property that has become surplus, or obsolete and no longer serviceable and has been turned over to the Board of Control for disposal under the laws relating thereto shall be deleted from the records of that agency upon the authorization of the Board of Control. Property that is missing from the agency or property that is disposed of directly by the agency in a legal manner shall be deleted from the Board of Control's records upon the authorization of the State Auditor.

Property Responsibility

Sec. 6. When there is a change in agency heads or property managers, the incoming agency head or property manager shall execute a receipt for all agency property accounted for to the outgoing agency head or property manager. A copy of such receipt shall be delivered to the Board of Control, to the State Auditor and to the outgoing agency head or property manager. No further warrants in favor of the outgoing agency head or property manager shall be drawn or paid until the State Auditor has certified that the agency property has been properly accounted for. The State Auditor may make this certification without requiring that a physical inventory be taken.

Pecuniary Liability

Sec. 7. Where agency property disappears, whether through theft or other cause, as a result of the failure of the agency head, property manager or agency employee entrusted with the property in writing to exercise reasonable care for its safekeeping, such person shall be pecuniarily liable to the State for the loss sustained by the State. Where agency property deteriorates as a result of the failure of the agency head, property manager or agency employee entrusted with the property in writing to exercise reasonable care to maintain and service the property, such person shall be pecuniarily liable to the State for the loss thus sustained by the State. Where agency property is damaged or destroyed as a result of an intentional wrongful act or of a negligent act of any State official or employee, such person shall be pecuniarily liable to the State for the loss thus sustained by the State. The liability prescribed by this Section may be found to attach to more than one person in a particular instance; in such cases, the liability shall be joint and several.

Reports—Investigation

Sec. 8. When any State property has been lost, destroyed or damaged through the negligence or fault of any State official or employee, the agency head responsible for such property under the provisions of this Act shall immediately report such loss, destruction, or damage to the State Auditor. Upon learning in any manner of such property loss, destruction, or damage, the State Auditor shall investigate the matter. If the investigation discloses that an injury has been sustained by the State through the fault of a State official or employee, the State Auditor shall make written demand upon such State official or employee for reimbursement to the State for the loss so sustained.

Enforcement of State’s Claim

Sec. 9. In case the demand made by the State Auditor, in accordance with this Act, for reimbursement for property loss, destruction, or damage is refused or disregarded by the State official or employee upon whom such demand is made, the State Auditor shall report the facts to the Attorney General. If, after an investigation of the facts, the Attorney General finds that legal liability may be adjudged against the State official or employee, he shall take such legal action to recover the monetary loss of the State property occasioned by the loss, damage or destruction as in his opinion may be deemed necessary. Venue for all such suits instituted against a State official or employee shall lie in the Courts of appropriate jurisdiction of Travis County.

Sanctions

Sec. 10. When any agency fails to keep the records required under the provisions of this Act or fails to take the annual physical inventory, the Board of Control shall so inform the Comptroller and the Comptroller may refuse to draw any warrants on behalf of such agency.

Information Copy to State Employees

Sec. 11. Each agency head shall distribute a copy of this Act to each official and employee of his agency and shall give a copy to each new employee of the agency.

Sections 2 to 6 of the 1977 Act amended arts. 6252-6a and 666; § 7 thereof provided that the effective date is November 1, 1977.

Any agency of the State of Texas as defined by Section 2 of this Act is hereby authorized to transfer any personal property of the State under its control or jurisdiction to any other agency of the State of Texas as defined by Section 2 of this Act, with or without reimbursement between the agencies; provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any real property.

When any personal property under the control or jurisdiction of one agency is transferred to the control or jurisdiction of any other agency pursuant to the provisions of this Act, such transfers shall be immediately and simultaneously reported to the State Board of Control by the transferor and the transferee on forms prescribed by the State Board of Control, and it shall be the duty of the State Board of Control to adjust the inventory records of the agencies involved in making the transfer. Whenever any transfer made pursuant to this Act is made with reimbursement from funds deposited in the State Treasury, the transferee shall issue a P-1 Voucher payable to the transferor, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall issue warrants for reimbursement.

Art. 6252-13a. Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act

Purpose

Sec. 1. It is declared the public policy of this state to afford minimum standards of uniform practice and procedure for state agencies, to provide for public participation in the rulemaking process, to provide adequate and proper public notice of proposed agency rules and agency actions through publication of a state register, and to restate the law of judicial review of agency action.

Short Title

Sec. 2. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act.

Definitions

Sec. 3. As used in this Act:

(1) "Agency" means any state board, commission, department, or officer having statewide jurisdiction, other than an agency wholly financed by federal funds, the legislature, the courts, the Industrial Accident Board, and institutions of higher education, that makes rules or determines contested cases.

(2) "Contested case" means a proceeding, including but not restricted to ratemaking and licensing, in which the legal rights, duties, or privileges of a party are to be determined by an agency after an opportunity for adjudicative hearing.

(3) "License" includes the whole or part of any agency permit, certificate, approval, registration, or similar form of permission required by law.

(4) "Licensing" includes the agency process respecting the granting, denial, renewal, revocation, suspension, annulment, withdrawal, or amendment of a license.

(5) "Party" means each person or agency named or admitted as a party.

(6) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental subdivision, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency.

(7) "Rule" means any agency statement of general applicability that implements, interprets, or prescribes law or policy, or describes the procedure or practice requirements of an agency. The term includes the amendment or repeal of a prior rule but does not include statements concerning only the internal management or organization of any agency and not affecting private rights or procedures.

(8) "Register" means the Texas Register established by this Act.

Public Information; Adoption of Rules; Availability of Rules and Orders

Sec. 4. (a) In addition to other rulemaking requirements imposed by law, each agency shall:

(1) adopt rules of practice setting forth the nature and requirements of all formal and informal procedures available;

(2) index and make available for public inspection all rules and all other written statements of policy or interpretations formulated, adopted, or used by the agency in the discharge of its functions; and

(3) index and make available for public inspection all final orders, decisions, and opinions.

(b) No agency rule, order, or decision made or issued on or after the effective date of this Act is valid or effective against any person or party, nor may it be invoked by the agency for any purpose, until it has been indexed and made available for public inspection as required by this Act. This provision is not applicable in favor of any person or party who has actual knowledge of the rule, order, or decision.

Procedure for Adoption of Rules

Sec. 5. (a) Prior to the adoption of any rule, an agency shall give at least 30 days' notice of its intended action. Notice of the proposed rule shall be filed with the secretary of state and published by the secretary of state in the Texas Register. The notice must include:
Art. 6252-13a PUBLIC OFFICES, OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

(1) a brief explanation of the proposed rule;
(2) the text of the proposed rule, except any portion omitted as provided in Section 6(c) of this Act, prepared in a manner to indicate the words to be added or deleted from the current text, if any;
(3) a statement of the statutory or other authority under which the rule is proposed to be promulgated;
(4) a fiscal note stating the fiscal implications of the proposed rule to the state and to the units of local government of the state, including the total probable cost of enforcing or administering the rule and the amount of revenue that will need to be raised, or will be lost or spent, as a consequence of the rule, each year for the first five years; or stating that the proposed rule has no fiscal implications for the state or for units of local government;
(5) a request for comments on the proposed rule from any interested person; and
(6) any other statement required by law.

(b) Each notice of a proposed rule becomes effective as notice when published in the register. The notice shall be mailed to all persons who have made timely written requests of the agency for advance notice of its rulemaking proceedings. However, failure to mail the notice does not invalidate any actions taken or rules adopted.

c) Prior to the adoption of any rule, an agency shall afford all interested persons reasonable opportunity to submit data, views, or arguments, orally or in writing. In the case of substantive rules, opportunity for public hearing must be granted if requested by at least 25 persons, by a governmental subdivision or agency, or by an association having at least 25 members. The agency shall consider fully all written and oral submissions concerning the proposed rule. On adoption of a rule, the agency, if requested to do so by an interested person either prior to adoption or within 30 days after adoption, shall issue a concise statement of the principal reasons for and against its adoption, incorporating in the statement its reasons for overruling the considerations urged against its adoption.

d) If an agency finds that an imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare requires adoption of a rule on fewer than 30 days' notice and states in writing its reasons for that finding, it may proceed without prior notice or hearing or on any abbreviated notice and hearing that it finds practicable to adopt an emergency rule. The rule may be effective for a period of not longer than 120 days renewable once for a period not exceeding 60 days, but the adoption of an identical rule under Subsections (a) and (c) of this section is not precluded. An emergency rule adopted under the provisions of this subsection, and the agency's written reasons for the adoption, shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state for publication in the Texas Register.

(e) No rule hereafter adopted is valid unless adopted in substantial compliance with this section. A proceeding to contest any rule on the ground of noncompliance with the procedural requirements of this section must be commenced within two years after the effective date of the rule.

(f) An agency may use informal conferences and consultations as means of obtaining the viewpoints and advice of interested persons concerning contemplated rulemaking. Each agency also is authorized to appoint committees of experts or interested persons or representatives of the general public to advise it with respect to any contemplated rulemaking. The powers of these committees are advisory only.

g) Each house of the legislature shall adopt rules establishing a process under which the presiding officer of each house shall refer each proposed agency rule to the appropriate standing committee for review prior to adoption of the rule. When an agency files notice of a proposed rule with the secretary of state pursuant to Subsection (a) of this section, it shall also deliver a copy of the notice to the lieutenant governor and the speaker. On the vote of a majority of its members, a standing committee may transmit to the agency a statement supporting or opposing adoption of a proposed rule.

Creation of Texas Register

Sec. 6. (a) The secretary of state shall compile, index, and publish a publication to be known as the Texas Register, which shall contain:

(1) notices of proposed rules issued after the effective date of this Act and filed in the office of the secretary of state as provided in Section 5 of this Act;

(2) the text of rules adopted after the effective date of this Act and filed in the office of the secretary of state;

(3) notices of open meetings issued after the effective date of this Act and filed in the office of the secretary of state as provided by law;

(4) executive orders issued by the governor after the effective date of this Act;

(5) summaries of requests made after the effective date of this Act for opinions of the attorney general, which shall be prepared by the attorney general and forwarded to the secretary of state;

(6) summaries of opinions of the attorney general issued after the effective date of this Act, which shall be prepared by the attorney general and forwarded to the secretary of state;
(7) other information of general interest to the public of Texas, which may include, but is not limited to, federal legislation or regulations affecting the state or state agencies and state agency organizational and personnel changes.

(b) The secretary of state shall publish the register at regular intervals, but not less than 100 times each calendar year.

(c) The secretary of state may omit from the register any information the publication of which he deems cumbersome, expensive, or otherwise inept in printed or processed form by the adopting agency on application for it, and if the register contains a notice stating the general subject matter of the information and the manner in which a copy of it may be obtained.

(d) One copy of each issue of the register shall be made available free on request to each board, commission, and department having statewide jurisdiction, to the governor, to the lieutenant governor, to the attorney general, to each member of the legislature, to each county clerk in the state, and to the supreme court, court of criminal appeals, and each court of civil appeals.

(e) The secretary of state shall make copies of the register available to other persons on payment of reasonable fees to be fixed by the secretary of state.

Filing of Existing Documents

Sec. 7. Before March 1, 1976, each agency shall file in the office of the secretary of state two certified copies of each rule existing on the effective date of this Act. Existing rules become effective immediately on filing with the secretary of state.

Filing Procedures

Sec. 8. (a) Each agency shall file a document for publication in the Texas Register by delivering to the office of the secretary of state during normal working hours two certified copies of the document to be filed. On receipt of a document required by this Act to be filed in the office of the secretary of state and published in the register, the secretary of state shall note the day and hour of filing on the certified copies. One certified copy of each filed document must be maintained in original form or on microfilm in a permanent register in the office of the secretary of state and, on filing, shall be made available immediately for public inspection during regular business hours.

(b) If there is a conflict, the official text of a rule is the text on file with the secretary of state, and not the text published in the register or on file with the issuing agency.

(c) The secretary of state may promulgate rules to insure the effective administration of this Act. The rules may include, but are not limited to, rules prescribing paper size and the format of documents required to be filed by this Act. The secretary of state may refuse to accept for filing and publication any document that does not substantially conform to the promulgated rules.

(d) The secretary of state may maintain on microfilm the files of agency rules and any other information required by this Act to be published in the register and, after microfilming, destroy the original copies of all information submitted for publication.

Tables of Contents; Certification; Liaison

Sec. 9. (a) Each issue of the register must contain a table of contents.

(b) A cumulative index to all information required by this Act to be published during the previous year shall be published at least once each year.

(c) Each document submitted to the secretary of state for filing or publication as provided in this Act must be certified by an official of the submitting agency authorized to certify documents of that agency.

(d) Each agency shall designate at least one individual to act as a liaison through whom all required documents may be submitted to the secretary of state for filing and publication.

Effect of Filing

Sec. 10. (a) Each rule hereafter adopted becomes effective 20 days after the filing of two certified copies in the office of the secretary of state, except that:

(1) if a later date is required by statute or specified in the rule, the later date is the effective date; and

(2) subject to applicable constitutional or statutory provisions, an emergency rule becomes effective immediately on filing with the secretary of state, or on a stated date less than 20 days thereafter, if the agency finds that this effective date is necessary because of imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare; and

(3) if a federal statute or regulation requires that an agency implement a rule by a certain date, the rule is effective on the prescribed date.

(b) An agency finding, as described in Subsection (a)(2) of this section, and a brief statement of the reasons for it, shall be filed with the rule. The agency shall take appropriate measures to make emergency rules known to persons who may be affected by them.

(c) A rule adopted as provided in Subsection (a)(3) of this section shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state and published in the register.
Section 11. Any interested person may petition an agency requesting the adoption of a rule. Each agency shall prescribe by rule the form for petitions and the procedure for their submission, consideration, and disposition. Within 60 days after submission of a petition, the agency either shall deny the petition in writing, stating its reasons for the denial, or shall initiate rulemaking proceedings in accordance with Section 5 of this Act.

Declaratory Judgment on Validity or Applicability of Rules

Section 12. The validity or applicability of any rule, including an emergency rule adopted under Section 5(d) of this Act, may be determined in an action for declaratory judgment in a district court of Travis County, and not elsewhere, if it is alleged that the rule, or its threatened application, interferes with or impairs, or threatens to interfere with or impair, the legal rights or privileges of the plaintiff. The agency must be made a party to the action. A declaratory judgment may be rendered whether the plaintiff has requested the agency to pass on the validity or applicability of the rule in question. However, no proceeding brought under this section may be used to delay or stay a hearing after notice of hearing has been given if a suspension, revocation, or cancellation of a license by an agency is at issue before the agency.

Contested Cases; Notice; Hearings; Records

Section 13. (a) In a contested case, all parties must be afforded an opportunity for hearing after reasonable notice of not less than 10 days.

(b) The notice must include:

(1) a statement of time, place, and nature of the hearing;
(2) a statement of the legal authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing is to be held;
(3) a reference to the particular sections of the statutes and rules involved; and
(4) a short and plain statement of the matters asserted.

(c) If the agency or other party is unable to state the matters in detail at the time the notice is served, the initial notice may be limited to a statement of the issues involved. Thereafter, on timely written application, a more definite and detailed statement must be furnished not less than three days prior to the date set for the hearing.

(d) Opportunity must be afforded all parties to respond and present evidence and argument on all issues involved.

(e) Unless precluded by law, informal disposition may be made of any contested case by stipulation, agreed settlement, consent order, or default.

(f) The record in a contested case includes:

(1) all pleadings, motions, and intermediate rulings;
(2) evidence received or considered;
(3) a statement of matters officially noticed;
(4) questions and offers of proof, objections, and rulings of them;
(5) proposed findings and exceptions;
(6) any decision, opinion, or report by the officer presiding at the hearing; and
(7) all staff memoranda or data submitted to or considered by the hearing officer or members of the agency who are involved in making the decision.

(g) Proceedings, or any part of them, must be transcribed on written request of any party. The agency may pay the cost of the transcript or assess the cost to one or more parties. This Act does not limit an agency to a stenographic record of proceedings.

(h) Findings of fact must be based exclusively on the evidence and on matters officially noticed.

Rules of Evidence, Official Notice

Section 14. (a) In contested cases, irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitious evidence shall be excluded. The rules of evidence as applied in nonjury civil cases in the district courts of this state shall be followed. When necessary to ascertain facts not reasonably susceptible of proof under those rules, evidence not admissible thereunder may be admitted, except where precluded by statute, if it is of a type commonly relied upon by reasonably prudent men in the conduct of their affairs. Agencies shall give effect to the rules of privilege recognized by law. Objections to evidentiary offers may be made and shall be noted in the record. Subject to these requirements, if a hearing will be expedited and the interests of the parties will not be prejudiced substantially, any part of the evidence may be received in written form.

(b) In connection with any contested case held under the provisions of this Act, an agency may swear witnesses and take their testimony under oath.

(c) On its own motion or on the written request of any party to a contested case pending before it, on a showing of good cause, and on deposit of sums that will reasonably insure payment of the amounts estimated to accrue under Subsections (1)(1) and (2) of this section, an agency shall issue a subpoena addressed to the sheriff or any constable to require the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, records, papers, or other objects as may be necessary and proper for the purposes of the proceedings.

(d) On its own motion or on the written request of any party to a contested case pending before it, on a showing of good cause, and on deposit of sums that will reasonably insure payment of the amounts estimated to accrue under Subsections (1)(1) and (2) of this section, an agency shall issue a commission, addressed to the several officers authorized by statute to take depositions, to require that the deposition of a witness be taken, which commission shall authorize the issuance of any subpoenas necessary to require that the witness appear and produce, at the time the deposition is taken, books, records, papers, or other objects as may be necessary and proper for the purposes of the proceeding. The deposition of a member of an agency board may not be taken after a date has been set for hearing.

(e) The place of taking the depositions shall be in the county of the witness' residence, or where the witness is employed or regularly transacts business in person. The commission shall authorize and require the officer or officers to whom it is addressed, or either of them, to examine the witness before him on the date and at the place named in the commission and to take answers under oath to questions which may be propounded to the witness by the parties to the proceeding, the agency, or the attorneys for the parties or the agency. The commission shall require the witness to remain in attendance from day to day until the deposition is begun and completed.

(f) The witness shall be carefully examined, the testimony shall be reduced to writing or typewriting by the officer taking the deposition, or by some person under the officer's personal supervision, or by the deponent in the officer's presence, and by no other person, and shall, after it has been reduced to writing or typewriting, be subscribed by the deponent.

(g) The officer taking the oral deposition may not sustain objections to any of the testimony taken, or exclude any of it, and any of the parties or attorneys engaged in taking testimony have their objections reserved for the action of the agency before which the matter is pending. The administrator or other officer conducting the hearing is not confined to objections made at the taking of the testimony.

(h) When the testimony is fully transcribed, the deposition shall be submitted to the witness for examination and read to or by the witness, unless the examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties in writing. However, if the witness is a party to the contested case pending before the agency with an attorney of record, the deposition officer shall notify the attorney of record in writing by registered mail or certified mail that the deposition is ready for examination and reading at the office of the deposition officer, and if the witness does not appear and examine, read, and sign the deposition within 20 days after the mailing of the notice, the deposition shall be returned as provided in this Act for unsigned depositions. In any event, the witness must sign the deposition at least three days prior to the hearing, or it shall be returned as provided in this Act for unsigned depositions. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make shall be entered on the deposition by the officer with a statement of the reasons given by the witness for making them. The deposition shall then be signed by the witness, unless the parties present at the taking of the deposition by stipulation waive the signing or the witness is ill, cannot be found, or refuses to sign. If the deposition is not signed by the witness, the officer shall sign it and state on the record the fact of the waiver, illness, or absence of the witness or the fact of the refusal to sign, together with the reason, if any, given for failure to sign. The deposition may then be used as fully as though signed.

(i) A deposition may be returned to the agency before which the contested case is pending either by mail, or by a party interested in taking the deposition, or by any other person. If returned by mail, the agency shall endorse on the deposition that it was received from the post office and shall cause the agency employee so receiving the deposition to sign it. If not sent by mail, the person delivering it to the agency shall make affidavit before the agency that he received it from the hands of the officer before whom it was taken, that it has not been out of his possession since, and that it has undergone no alteration.

(j) A deposition, after being filed with the agency, may be opened by any employee of the agency at the request of either party or his counsel. The employee shall endorse on the deposition on what day and at whose request it was opened, signing the deposition, and it shall remain on file with the agency for the inspection of any party.

(k) Regardless of whether cross interrogatories have been propounded, any party is entitled to use the deposition in the contested case pending before the agency.

(l) A witness or deponent who is not a party and who is subpoenaed or otherwise compelled to attend any hearing or proceeding to give a deposition or to produce books, records, papers, or other objects that may be necessary and proper for the purposes of the proceeding under the authority of this section is entitled to receive:

(1) mileage of 10 cents a mile, or a greater amount as prescribed by agency rule, for going to, and returning from the place of the hearing or the place where the deposition is taken, if the place is more than 25 miles from the person's place of residence; and

(2) a fee of $10 a day, or a greater amount as prescribed by agency rule, for each day or part of a day the person is necessarily present as a witness or deponent.
Art. 6252-13a PUBLIC OFFICES, OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

(m) Mileage and fees to which a witness is entitled under this section shall be paid by the party or agency at whose request the witness appears or the deposition is taken, on presentation of proper vouchers sworn by the witness and approved by the agency.

(n) In the case of failure of a person to comply with a subpoena or commission issued under the authority of this Act, the agency issuing the subpoena or commission, acting through the attorney general, or the party requesting the subpoena or commission, may bring suit to enforce the subpoena or commission in a district court in Travis County. The court, if it determines that good cause exists for the issuance of the subpoena or commission, shall order compliance with the requirements of the subpoena or commission. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as contempt.

(o) In contested cases, documentary evidence may be received in the form of copies or excerpts if the original is not readily available. On request, parties shall be given an opportunity to compare the copy with the original.

(p) In contested cases, a party may conduct cross-examinations required for a full and true disclosure of the facts.

(q) In connection with any hearing held under the provisions of this Act, official notice may be taken of all facts judicially cognizable. In addition, notice may be taken of generally recognized facts within the area of the agency's specialized knowledge. Parties shall be notified either before or during the hearing, or by reference in preliminary reports or otherwise, of the material officially noticed, including any staff memoranda or data, and they must be afforded an opportunity to contest the material so noticed. The special skills or knowledge of the agency and its staff may be utilized in evaluating the evidence.

(r) In contested cases, all parties are entitled to the assistance of their counsel before administrative agencies. This right may be expressly waived.

Discovery, Entry on Property; Use of Reports and Statements

Sec. 14a. (a) Upon motion of any party showing good cause therefor and upon notice to all other parties, and subject to such limitations of the kind provided in Rule 186b of the Rules of Civil Procedure as the agency may impose, the agency in which an action is pending may order any party:

(1) to produce and permit the inspection and copying or photographing by or on behalf of the moving party any of the following which are in his possession, custody, or control: any designated documents, papers, books, accounts, letters, photographs, objects, or tangible things, not privileged, which constitute or contain, or are reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of, evidence material to any matter involved in the action; and

(2) to permit entry upon designated land or other property in his possession or control for the purpose of inspecting, measuring, surveying, or photographing the property or any designated object or operation thereon which may be material to any matter involved in the action.

(b) The order shall specify the time, place, and manner of making the inspection, measurement, or survey and taking the copies and photographs and may prescribe such terms and conditions as are just.

(c) The identity and location of any potential party or witness may be obtained from any communication or other paper in the possession, custody, or control of a party, and any party may be required to produce and permit the inspection and copying of the reports, including factual observations and opinions, of an expert who will be called as a witness. Provided, that the rights herein granted shall not extend to other written statements of witnesses or other written communications passing between agents or representatives or the employees of any party to the suit or to other communications between any party and his agents, representatives, or other employees, where made subsequent to the occurrence or transaction upon which the suit is based, and made in connection with the prosecution, investigation, or defense of such claim or the circumstances out of which same has arisen.

(d) Any person, whether or not a party, shall be entitled to obtain, upon request, a copy of any statement he has previously made concerning the action or its subject matter and which is in the possession, custody, or control of any party. If the request is refused, the person may move for an agency order under this section. For the purpose of this paragraph, a statement previously made is (1) a written statement signed or otherwise adopted or approved by the person making it, or (2) a stenographic, mechanical, electrical, or other recording, or a transcription thereof, which is a substantially verbatim recital of an oral statement by the person making it and contemporaneously recorded.

Examination of Record by Agency

Sec. 15. If in a contested case a majority of the officials of the agency who are to render the final decision have not heard the case or read the record, the decision, if adverse to a party to the proceeding other than the agency itself, may not be made until a proposal for decision is served on the parties, and an opportunity is afforded to each party adversely affected to file exceptions and present briefs to the officials who are to render the decision. If any party files exceptions or presents briefs, an opportunity must be afforded to all other parties to file replies to the exceptions or briefs. The proposal for decision must contain a statement of the reasons for the proposed decision and of each finding of fact and conclusion of law necessary to the proposed decision, prepared by the person who conducted the hearing or by one who has read the record. The proposal for decision may be amended pursuant to exceptions, replies, or briefs submitted by the parties without again being served on the parties. The parties by written stipulation may waive compliance with this section.

Decisions and Orders

Sec. 16. (a) A final decision or order adverse to a party in a contested case must be in writing or stated in the record.

(b) A final decision must include findings of fact and conclusions of law, separately stated. Findings of fact, if set forth in statutory language, must be accompanied by a concise and explicit statement of the underlying facts supporting the findings. If, in accordance with agency rules, a party submitted proposed findings of fact, the decision shall include a ruling on each proposed finding. Parties shall be notified either personally or by mail of any decision or order. On written request, a copy of the decision or order shall be delivered or mailed to any party and to his attorney of record.

(c) A decision is final, in the absence of a timely motion for rehearing, on the expiration of the period for filing a motion for rehearing, and is final and appealable on the date of rendition of the order or order of the reviewing court.

(d) The final decision or order must be rendered within 60 days after the date the hearing is finally closed. In a contested case heard by other than a majority of the officials of an agency, the agency may prescribe a longer period of time within which the final order or decision of the agency shall be issued. The extension, if so prescribed, shall be announced at the conclusion of the hearing.

(e) Except as provided in Subsection (e) of this section, a motion for rehearing is a prerequisite to an appeal. A motion for rehearing must be filed within 15 days after the date of rendition of a final decision or order. Replies to a motion for rehearing must be filed with the agency within 25 days after the date of rendition of the final decision or order, and agency action on the motion must be taken within 45 days after the date of rendition of the final decision or order. If agency action is not taken within the 45-day period, the motion for rehearing is overruled by operation of law 45 days after the date of rendition of the final decision or order. The agency may by written order extend the period of time for filing the motions and replies and taking agency action, except that an extension may not extend the period for agency action beyond 90 days after the date of rendition of the final decision or order. In the event of an extension, the motion for rehearing is overruled by operation of law on the date fixed by the order, or in the absence of a fixed date, 90 days after the date of the final decision or order.

(f) The parties may by agreement with the approval of the agency provide for a modification of the times provided in this section.

Ex Parte Consultations

Sec. 17. Unless required for the disposition of ex parte matters authorized by law, members or employees of an agency assigned to render a decision or to make findings of fact and conclusions of law in a contested case may not communicate, directly or indirectly, in connection with any issue of fact or law with any agency, person, party, or their representatives, except on notice and opportunity for all parties to participate. An agency member may communicate ex parte with other members of the agency, and pursuant to the authority provided in Subsection (q) of Section 14, members or employees of an agency assigned to render a decision or to make findings of fact and conclusions of law in a contested case may communicate ex parte with employees of the agency who have not participated in any hearing in the case for the purpose of utilizing the special skills or knowledge of the agency and its staff in evaluating the evidence.

Licenses

Sec. 18. (a) When the grant, denial, or renewal of a license is required to be preceded by notice and opportunity for hearing, the provisions of this Act concerning contested cases apply.

(b) When a licensee has made timely and sufficient application for the renewal of a license or a new license for any activity of a continuing nature, the existing license does not expire until the application has been finally determined by the agency, and in case the application is denied or the terms of the new license limited, until the last day for seeking review of the agency order or a later date fixed by order of the reviewing court.
Art. 6252-13a PUBLIC OFFICES, OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

(c) No revocation, suspension, annulment, or withdrawal of any license is effective unless, prior to the institution of agency proceedings, the agency gave notice by personal service or by registered or certified mail to the licensee of facts or conduct alleged to warrant the intended action, and the licensee was given an opportunity to show compliance with all requirements of law for the retention of the license.

Judicial Review of Contested Cases

Sec. 19. (a) A person who has exhausted all administrative remedies available within the agency and who is aggrieved by a final decision in a contested case is entitled to judicial review under this Act. This section is cumulative of other means of redress provided by statute.

(b) Proceedings for review are instituted by filing a petition within 30 days after the decision complained of is final and appealable. Unless otherwise provided by statute:

(1) the petition is filed in a District Court of Travis County, Texas;
(2) a copy of the petition must be served on the agency and all parties of record in the proceedings before the agency; and
(3) the filing of the petition vacates an agency decision for which trial de novo is the manner of review authorized by law, but does not affect the enforcement of an agency decision for which another manner of review is authorized.

(c) If the manner of review authorized by law for the decision complained of is by trial de novo, the reviewing court shall try all issues of fact and law in the manner applicable to other civil suits in this state but may not admit in evidence the fact of prior agency action or the nature of that action (except to the limited extent necessary to show compliance with statutory provisions which vest jurisdiction in the court). Any party to a trial de novo review may have, on demand, a jury determination of all issues of fact on which such a determination could be had in other civil suits in this state.

(d) If the manner of review authorized by law for the decision complained of is other than by trial de novo:

(1) after service of the petition on the agency, and within the time permitted for filing an answer (or such additional time as may be allowed by the court), the agency shall transmit to the reviewing court the original or a certified copy of the entire record of the proceeding under review. By stipulation of all parties to the review proceedings, the record may be shortened. A party unreasonably refusing to stipulate to limit the record may be taxed by the court for the additional costs. The court may require or permit subsequent corrections or additions to the record;
(2) any party may apply to the court for leave to present additional evidence and the court, if it is satisfied that the additional evidence is material and that there were good reasons for the failure to present it in the proceeding before the agency, may order that the additional evidence be taken before the agency on conditions determined by the court. The agency may modify its findings and decision by reason of the additional evidence and shall file such evidence and any modifications, new findings, or decisions with the reviewing court;
(3) the review is conducted by the court sitting without a jury and is confined to the record, except that the court may receive evidence of procedural irregularities alleged to have occurred before the agency but which are not reflected in the record.

(e) The scope of judicial review of agency decisions is as provided by the law under which review is sought. Where the law authorizes appeal by trial de novo, the courts shall try the case in the manner applicable to other civil suits in this state and as though there had been no intervening agency action or decision. Where the law authorizes review under the substantial evidence rule, or where the law does not define the scope of judicial review, the court may not substitute its judgment for that of the agency as to the weight of the evidence on questions committed to agency discretion but may affirm the decision of the agency in whole or in part and shall reverse or remand the case for further proceedings if substantial rights of the appellant have been prejudiced because the administrative findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are:

(1) in violation of constitutional or statutory provisions;
(2) in excess of the statutory authority of the agency;
(3) made upon unlawful procedure;
(4) affected by other error of law;
(5) not reasonably supported by substantial evidence in view of the reliable and probative evidence in the record as a whole; or
(6) arbitrary or capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion or clearly unwarranted exercise of discretion.

Appeals

Sec. 20. Appeals from any final judgment of the district court may be taken by any party in the manner provided for in civil actions generally, but no appeal bond may be required of an agency.

Exceptions

Sec. 21. (a) This Act does not apply to suspensions of driver's licenses as authorized in Article IV, Chapter 173, Acts of the 47th Legislature, Regular Section 19, 1941, as amended (Article 6687b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(b) Sections 12 through 20 of this Act do not apply to the granting, payment, denial, or withdrawal of financial or medical assistance or benefits under service programs of the State Department of Public Welfare.

(c) Sections 12 through 20 of this Act do not apply to the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation in the allocation of grants-in-aid by the department to mental health and mental retardation services provided by community centers.

Text of subsec. (d) added by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1960, ch. 780, § 2

(d) This Act does not apply to matters related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency.

Text of subsec. (d) added by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 2193, ch. 866, § 1

(d) Sections 12 through 20 of this Act do not apply to action by the Commissioner of Banking or the State Banking Board with respect to the issuance of a state bank charter for a bank to assume the assets and liabilities of a state bank the commissioner deems to be in an unsafe condition as defined in Section 1, Article 1a, Chapter VIII, Texas Banking Code of 1943.1

(e) Sections 12 through 20 of this Act do not apply to the Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles in the conducting of hearings or interviews relating to the grant, rescission, or revocation of parole or other form of administrative release.

The secretary of state may also omit from the code any information the publication of which he deems cumbersome, expensive, or otherwise inexpedient, if the information is made available in printed or processed form by the adopting agency on application for it, and if the code contains a notice stating the general subject matter of the information and the manner in which a copy of it may be obtained. Art. 6252-26. State's Liability for and Defense of Claims Based on Certain Conduct of State Officers and Employees

Persons and Conduct Covered; Limits on Liability

Sec. 1. (a) The State of Texas is liable for and shall pay actual damages, court costs, and attorney fees adjudged against officers or employees of any agency, institution, or department of the state; against a former officer or employee of an agency, institution, or department of the state who was an officer or employee when the act or omission on which the damages are based occurred; or against the estate of such a person where the damages are based on an act or omission by the person in the course and scope of his office or employment for the institution, department, or agency and:

(1) the damages arise out of a cause of action for negligence, except a willful or wrongful act or an act of gross negligence; or
(2) the damages arise out of a cause of action for deprivation of a right, privilege, or immunity secured by the constitution or laws of this state or the United States, except when the court in its judgment or the jury in its verdict finds that the officer or employee acted in bad faith.

(b) This Act shall not be construed as a waiver of any defense, immunity, or jurisdictional bar availaand to $10,000 for a single occurrence of injury of or damage to property.

Application of Act

Sec. 2. This Act applies to judgments in all cases filed on or after the effective date of this Act and to all judgments in cases pending or on appeal on the effective date of the Act.

Defense of Actions; Conflict of Interest; Security for Cost or Bond

Sec. 3. (a) The attorney general shall defend a present or former officer or employee or his estate in a cause of action covered by this Act. The state is not liable for the defense of an action or for the damages, court costs, or attorney fees unless either the attorney general has been served in the case and the state has been given an opportunity to defend the suit, or the officer or employee, former officer or employee, or estate against whom the action is brought has delivered to the attorney general all process served on him or it not later than 10 days after the service. The attorney general may settle or compromise the portion of a lawsuit that may result in liability of the state under this Act. It is not a conflict of interest for the attorney general to defend a person or estate under this Act and also to prosecute a legal action against that person or estate as may be required or authorized by law if different assistant attorneys general are assigned the responsibility for each action.

(b) In a case defended by the attorney general under this Act, neither the officer, employee, former officer or employee, estate, or attorney general may be required to advance security for cost or give bond on appeal or on review by writ of error.

Sec. 4. No funds other than those appropriated by the legislature from the General Revenue Fund to the attorney general may be used to conduct the defense or prosecution of any action that the attorney general is required to defend or prosecute under the provisions of this Act. Sec. 7. (a) Competency as referred to in Section 6 of this Act shall be established by an examination prepared by or contracted for by the commission. The examination shall be given at such times and at such places within the state as the commission shall prescribe. The examination shall be of scope sufficient in the judgment of the commission to determine that a person is competent to act as a real estate broker or salesman in a manner to protect the interest of the public. The examination for a salesman license shall be less exacting and less stringent than the examination for a broker license. The commission shall furnish each applicant with study material and references on which his examination shall be based. When an applicant for real estate licensure fails a qualifying examination, he may apply for reexamination by filing a request therefor together with the proper fee. The examination requirement shall be satisfied within one year from the date the application for a license is filed. Courses of study required for licensure shall include but not be limited to the following: arithmetical calculations as used in real estate transactions; rudimentary principles of conveyancing; the general purposes and effect of deeds, deeds of trust, mortgages, land contracts of sales, leases, liens, and listing contracts; elementary principles of land economics and appraisals; fundamentals of obligations between principal and agent; principles of real estate practice and canons of ethics pertaining thereto; and the provisions of this Act and rules and regulations of the commission.

(c) From and after the effective date of this Act, each applicant for broker licensure shall furnish the commission satisfactory evidence that he has had not less than two years active experience in this state as a licensed real estate salesman practitioner during the 36-month period immediately preceding the filing of the application; and, in addition, prior to January 1, 1977, shall furnish the commission satisfactory evidence that he has successfully completed 180 classroom hours in real estate courses or related courses accepted by the commission. On or after January 1, 1977, an applicant for real estate broker licensure shall submit evidence, satisfactory to the commission, of successful completion at an accredited college or university of 12 semester hours of real estate or related courses accepted by the commission, or of a course of study accepted by the commission as being equivalent to the courses offered by accredited colleges and universities. On or after January 1, 1979, the number of required semester hours shall be increased to 15; on or after January 1, 1981, the number of required semester hours shall be increased to 36; and on or after January 1, 1983, the number of required semester hours shall be increased to 48. On or after January 1, 1985, an applicant for a real estate broker license shall submit evidence, satisfactory to the commission, that he has successfully completed 60 semester hours in real estate or related courses accepted by the commission from an accredited college or university, or that he has completed a course of study accepted by the commission as being equivalent to the courses offered by accredited colleges and universities. The requirement of not less than two years experience as a Texas real estate licensee during the 36-month period immediately preceding the filing of the application for broker licensure shall not apply to applications submitted on or after January 1, 1985. These qualifications for broker licensure shall not be required of an applicant who, at the time of making the application, is duly licensed as a real estate broker by any other state in the United States if that state’s requirements for licensure are comparable to those of Texas.

(d) From and after the effective date of this Act, as a prerequisite for applying for salesman licensure prior to January 1, 1977, each applicant shall furnish the commission satisfactory evidence that he has completed 30 classroom hours in a basic real estate fundamentals course or related course accepted by the commission. As a condition for the second annual certification of salesman licensure privileges, the licensee shall furnish the commission satisfactory evidence that he has successfully completed an additional 30 classroom hours of real estate courses or related courses accepted by the commission, and as a condition for the third annual certification of salesman licensure privileges, the licensee shall furnish the commission satisfactory evidence that he has successfully completed an additional 30 classroom hours of real estate courses or related courses accepted by the commission. On or after January 1, 1977, an applicant for real estate salesman licensure shall submit evidence, satisfactory to the commission, of successful completion at an accredited college or university of six semester hours of real estate courses or related courses accepted by the commission, or of a course of study accepted by the commission as being equivalent to the courses offered by accredited colleges and universities. On or after January 1, 1979, the number of required semester hours shall be increased to 12; on or after January 1, 1981, the number of required semester hours shall be increased to 21; and on or after January 1, 1983, the number of required semester hours shall be increased to 36.

(e) On or after January 1, 1985, the commission shall accept applications for broker licensure only, and each license issued on or after January 1, 1985, shall be designated as a license to practice real estate.

(f) Insofar as is necessary for the administration of this Act, the commission is authorized to inspect and accredit educational programs or courses of study in real estate and to establish standards of accreditation for such programs conducted in the State of Texas, other than accredited colleges and universities. Schools, other than accredited colleges and universities, which are authorized to offer real estate educational courses pursuant to provisions of this section shall be required to maintain a corporate surety bond in the sum of $10,000 payable to the commission, for the benefit of a party who may suffer damages resulting from failure of a commission approved school or course to fulfill obligations attendant to the approval.

(g) A person who is licensed as a real estate salesman, on the effective date of this Act, is not subject to the educational requirements or prerequisites of this Act as a condition for holding salesman licensure privileges. A person who is licensed as a broker on the effective date of this Act, is not subject to the educational requirements or prerequisites of this Act as a condition for holding broker licensure privileges.

Real Estate Recovery Fund

Sec. 8. Part 1. (a) The commission shall establish a real estate recovery fund which shall be set apart and maintained by the commission as provided in this section. The fund shall be used in the manner provided in this section for reimbursing aggrieved persons who suffer monetary damages by reason of certain acts committed by a duly licensed real estate broker or salesman, or by an unlicensed employee or agent of a broker or salesman, provided the broker or salesman was licensed by the State of Texas at the time the act was committed, provided the act was performed in the scope of activity which constitutes a broker or salesman as defined by this Act, and provided recovery is ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction against the broker or salesman.

The use of the fund as provided in Part 1 of this section is limited to an act that is either:

(1) a violation of Section 15(3) and (4) of this Act, or

(2) conduct which constitutes fraud, misrepresentation, deceit, false pretenses, or trickery.

(b) On the effective date of this Act, the commission shall collect from each real estate broker and salesman licensed by this state a fee of $10 which shall be deposited in the real estate recovery fund. The commission shall suspend a license issued under the provisions of this Act for failure to pay this fee. After the effective date of this Act, when a person makes application for an original license pursuant to this Act he shall pay, in addition to his original license application fee, a fee of $10 which shall be deposited in the real estate recovery fund. If the commission does not issue the license, this fee shall be returned to the applicant.

Part 2. If on December 31 of any year the balance remaining in the real estate recovery fund is less than $500,000, each real estate broker and each real estate salesman, on recertification of his license during the following calendar year, shall pay, in addition to his license recertification fee, a fee of $10, which shall be deposited in the real estate recovery fund, or a pro rata share of the amount necessary to bring the fund to $1 million, whichever is less.

Part 3. (a) No action for a judgment which subsequently results in an order for collection from the real estate recovery fund shall be started later than two years from the accrual of the cause of action. When an aggrieved person commences action for a judgment which may result in collection from the real estate recovery fund, the real estate broker or real estate salesman shall notify the commission in writing to this effect at the time of the commencement of the action.

(b) Upon the entry of a final judgment in any suit which may involve payment from the real estate recovery fund, the judgment creditor shall promptly notify the commission of the granting of the judgment. In the event payment is to be requested from the real estate recovery fund, such notice must be given at least 20 days prior to any post-judgment hearing held in accordance with this Act.
(c) When an aggrieved person recovers a valid judgment in a court of competent jurisdiction against a real estate broker, or real estate salesman, on the grounds described in Part 1(a) of this section that occurred on or after the effective date of this Act, the aggrieved person may, after final judgment has been entered, execution returned nulla bona, and a judgment lien perfected, file a verified claim in the court in which the judgment was entered and, on 20 days' written notice to the commission, may apply to the court for an order directing payment out of the real estate recovery fund of the amount unpaid on the judgment, subject to the limitations stated in Part 8 of this section.

(d) The court shall proceed on the application forthwith. On the hearing on the application, the aggrieved person is required to show that:

(1) the judgment is based on facts allowing recovery under Part 1(a) of this section;
(2) he is not a spouse of the debtor, or the personal representative of the spouse;
(3) he has complied with all the requirements of Part 3 of this section;
(4) he has obtained a judgment as set out in Part 3(c) of this section, stating the amount of the judgment and the amount owing on the judgment at the date of the application;
(5) he has made all reasonable searches and inquiries to ascertain whether the judgment debtor is possessed of real or personal property or other assets liable to be sold or applied in satisfaction of the judgment;
(6) that by the search he has discovered no real or personal property or other assets liable to be sold or applied, or has discovered insufficient real or personal property or other assets liable to be sold or applied, and that he has taken all necessary action and proceedings for the realization of satisfaction of the judgment, and that the amount realized was insufficient to satisfy the judgment, stating the amount realized and the balance remaining due on the judgment after application of the amount realized.

(e) The court shall make an order directed to the commission requiring payment from the real estate recovery fund of whatever sum it finds to be payable on the claim, pursuant to and in accordance with the limitations contained in this section, if the court is satisfied, on the hearing, of the truth of all matters required to be shown by the aggrieved person by Part 3(d) of this section and that the aggrieved person has fully pursued and exhausted all remedies available to him for recovering the amount awarded by the judgment of the court.

(f) If the commission pays from the real estate recovery fund any amount toward satisfaction of a judgment against a licensed real estate broker or real estate salesman, the license of the broker or salesman shall be automatically revoked on the issuance of a court order authorizing payment from the real estate recovery fund. No broker or salesman is eligible to receive a new license until he has repaid in full, plus interest at the rate of six percent a year, the amount paid from the real estate recovery fund on his account. A discharge in bankruptcy shall not relieve a person from the penalties and disabilities provided in this Act.

Part 4. The sums received by the real estate commission for deposit in the real estate recovery fund shall be held by the commission in trust for carrying out the purposes of the real estate recovery fund. These funds may be invested and reinvested in the same manner as funds of the Texas State Employees Retirement System, and the interest from these investments shall be deposited to the credit of the real estate recovery fund, provided, however, that no investments shall be made which will impair the necessary liquidity required to satisfy judgment payments awarded pursuant to this section.

Part 5. When the real estate commission receives notice of entry of a final judgment and a hearing is scheduled under Part 3(d) of this section, the commission may notify the Attorney General of Texas of its desire to enter an appearance, file a response, appear at the court hearing, defend the action, or take whatever other action it deems appropriate on behalf of, and in the name of, the defendant, and take recourse through any appropriate method of review on behalf of, and in the name of, the defendant. In taking such action the real estate commission and attorney general shall act only to protect the fund from spurious or unjust claims.

Part 6. When, on the order of the court, the commission has paid from the real estate recovery fund any sum to the judgment creditor, the commission shall be subrogated to all of the rights of the judgment creditor to the extent of the amount paid. The judgment creditor shall assign all his right, title, and interest in the judgment up to the amount paid by the commission which amount shall have priority for repayment in the event of any subsequent recovery on the judgment. Any amount and interest recovered by the commission on the judgment shall be deposited to the fund.

Part 7. The failure of an aggrieved person to comply with the provisions of this section relating to the real estate recovery fund shall constitute a waiver of any rights under this section.

Part 8. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision, payments from the real estate recovery fund are subject to the conditions and limitations in Subsections (b) through (d) of this part.
(b) Payments may be made only pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, as provided in Part 3, and in the manner prescribed by this section.

(c) Payments for claims arising out of the same transaction shall be limited in the aggregate to $10,000 irrespective of the number of claimants.

(d) Payments for claims based on judgments against any one licensed real estate broker or salesman may not exceed in the aggregate $20,000 within any calendar year, but in no event may payments for claims based on judgments against any one licensed real estate broker or salesman exceed in the aggregate $40,000, until the fund has been reimbursed by the licensee for all amounts paid.

Part 9. Nothing contained in this section shall limit the authority of the commission to take disciplinary action against a licensee for a violation of this Act or the rules and regulations of the commission; nor shall the repayment in full of all obligations to the real estate recovery fund by a licensee nullify or modify the effect of any other disciplinary proceeding brought pursuant to this Act.

Part 10. Any person receiving payment out of the real estate recovery fund pursuant to Section 8 of this Act shall be entitled to receive reasonable attorney fees as determined by the court, subject to the limitations stated in Part 8 of this section.

Issuance of License; Annual Certification Fees; Expiration Dates

Sec. 9. (a) When an applicant has satisfactorily met all requirements and conditions of this Act, a license shall be issued which may remain in force and effect so long as the holder of the license remains in compliance with the obligations of this Act, which include payment of the annual certification fee as provided in Section 11 of this Act. Annual certification fees shall be paid in September, October, and November of each calendar year. Each salesman license issued shall be delivered or mailed to the broker with whom the salesman is associated and shall be kept under his custody and control.

(b) An applicant is not permitted to engage in the real estate business either as a broker or salesman until a license evidencing his authority to engage in the real estate business has been received.

(c) The commission by rule may adopt a system under which licenses expire on various dates during the year. Dates for payment of the annual certification fee shall be adjusted accordingly. For the year in which the certification date is changed, annual certification fees payable shall be prorated on a monthly basis so each licensee shall pay only that portion of the license fee which is allocable to the number of months during which the license is valid. On certification of the license on the new certification date, the total annual certification fee is payable.

Refusal to Issue License; Review

Sec. 10. If the commission declines or fails to license an applicant, it shall immediately give written notice of the refusal to the applicant. Before the applicant may appeal to a district court as provided in Section 18 of this Act, he must file within 10 days after the receipt of the notice an appeal from the ruling, requesting a time and place for a hearing before the commission. A sponsoring broker is an applicant and must file the appeal if an application to license a person as a salesman has been disapproved. The commission shall set a time and place for the hearing within 30 days from the receipt of the appeal, giving 10 days’ notice of the hearing to the applicant. The time of the hearing may be continued from time to time with the consent of the applicant. Following the hearing, the commission shall enter an order which is, in its opinion, appropriate in the matter concerned.

If an applicant fails to request a hearing as provided in this section, the commission’s ruling shall become final and not subject to review by the courts.

Fees

Sec. 11. The commission shall charge and collect the following fees:

1. a fee not to exceed $40 for the filing of an original application for real estate broker licensure;
2. a fee not to exceed $40 for annual certification of real estate broker licensure status;
3. a fee of $20 for the filing of an original application for salesman licensure;
4. a fee of $20 for annual certification of real estate salesman licensure status;
5. a fee not to exceed $10 for taking a license examination;
6. a fee of $10 for filing a request for a license for each additional office or place of business;
7. a fee of $10 for filing a request for a license for a change of place of business or change of sponsoring broker;
8. a fee of $10 for filing a request to replace a license lost or destroyed;
9. a fee of $400 for filing an application for approval of a real estate course pursuant to the provisions of Subsection (f) of Section 7 of this Act; and
10. a fee of $200 per annum for and in each year of operation of a real estate course, established pursuant to the provisions of Subsection (f) of Section 7 of this Act.
Art. 6573a  REAL ESTATE DEALERS  2432

Maintenance and Location of Offices; Display of License

Sec. 12. (a) Each resident broker shall maintain a fixed office within this state. The address of the office shall be designated on the broker's license. Within 10 days after a move from a previously designated address, the broker shall submit applications for new licenses for himself and each salesman associated with him, designating the new location of his office, together with the required fee, or fees, whereupon the commission shall issue a license, or licenses, reflecting the new location, provided the new location complies with the terms of this section.

(b) If a broker maintains more than one place of business within this state, he shall apply for, pay the required fee for, and obtain an additional license to be known as a branch office license for each additional office he maintains.

(c) The license or licenses of the broker shall at all times be prominently displayed in the licensee's place or places of business.

(d) Each broker shall also prominently display in his place or in one of his places of business the license of each real estate salesman associated with him.

Inactive Licenses

Sec. 13. (a) When the association of a salesman with his sponsoring broker is terminated, the broker shall immediately return the salesman license to the commission. The salesman license then becomes inactive.

(b) The salesman license may be activated if, within the calendar year, a request, accompanied by the required fee, is filed with the commission by a licensed broker advising that he assumes sponsorship of the salesman.

Unlawful Employment or Compensation; Nonresident License

Sec. 14. (a) It is unlawful for a licensed broker to employ or compensate directly or indirectly a person for performing an act enumerated in the definition of real estate broker in Section 2 of this Act if the person is not a licensed broker or licensed salesman in this state or an attorney at law licensed in this state or in any other state. However, a licensed broker may pay a commission to a licensed broker of another state if the foreign broker does not conduct in this state any of the negotiations for which the fee, compensation, or commission is paid.

(b) A resident broker of another state may obtain a license as a broker in this state by complying with all requirements of this Act, provided that the nonresident broker is licensed as a broker by the state of his residence and provided that the state of his residence has legal standards of qualification which the commission finds equivalent to this Act and which state offers the same privileges to licensed brokers of this state. A nonresident licensee need not maintain a place of business within this state. The commission may license the nonresident broker without examination if he has qualified for a broker license in the state in which he resides by written examination considered equivalent to that offered by this state and if his state of residence permits licenses to be issued without written examinations to brokers resident in and licensed after passing an examination by this state. However, the commission may, in its discretion, refuse to issue a broker license to an applicant who is not a resident of this state for the same reasons that it may refuse to license a resident of this state.

(c) Each nonresident applicant shall file an irrevocable consent that legal actions may be commenced against him in the proper court of any county of this state in which a cause of action may arise, or in which the plaintiff may reside, by service of process or pleading authorized by the laws of this state, or by serving the administrator or assistant administrator of the commission. The consent shall stipulate that the service of process or pleading shall be valid and binding in all courts as if personal service had been made on the nonresident broker in this state. The consent shall be duly acknowledged, and if made by a corporation, shall be authenticated by its seal. A service of process or pleading served on the commission shall be by duplicate copies, one of which shall be filed in the office of the commission and the other forwarded by registered mail to the last known principal address which the commission has for the nonresident broker against whom the process or pleading is directed. No default in an action may be taken except on certification by the commission that a copy of the process or pleading was mailed to the defendant as provided in this section, and no default judgment may be taken in an action or proceeding until 20 days after the day of mailing of the process or pleading to the defendant.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, a nonresident of this state who resides in a city whose boundaries are contiguous at any point to the boundaries of a city of this state, and who has been an actual bona fide resident of that city for at least six months immediately preceding the filing of his application, is eligible to be licensed as a real estate broker or salesman under this Act in the same manner as a resident of this state. If he is licensed in this manner, he shall at all times maintain a place of business either in the city in which he resides or in the city in this state which is contiguous to the city in which he resides, and he may not maintain a place of business at another location in this state unless he also complies with the requirements of Section 14(b) of this Act. The place of business must satisfy the requirements of Subsection (a) of Section 12 of this Act, but the place of business shall be deemed a definite place of business in this state within the meaning of Subsection (a) of Section 12.

(CC) failing without just cause to surrender to the rightful owner, on demand, a document or instrument coming into his possession.

The provisions of this section do not relieve a person from civil liability or from criminal prosecution under this Act or under the laws of this state.

Unauthorized Practice of Law

Sec. 16. A license granted under the provisions of this Act shall be suspended or revoked by the commission on proof that the licensee, not being licensed and authorized to practice law in this state, for a consideration, reward, pecuniary benefit, present or anticipated, direct or indirect, or in connection with or as a part of his employment, agency, or fiduciary relationship as a licensee, drew a deed, note, deed of trust, will, or other written instrument that may transfer or anywise affect the title to or an interest in land, or advised or counseled a person as to the validity or legal sufficiency of an instrument or as to the validity of title to real estate.

Hearings

Sec. 17. (a) Before a license is suspended or revoked, the licensee is entitled to a public hearing. The commission shall prescribe the time and place of the hearing. However, the hearing shall be held, if the licensee so desires, within the county where the licensee has his principal place of business, or if the licensee is a nonresident, the hearing may be called for and held in any county within this state. The notice calling the hearing shall recite the allegations against the licensee and the notice may be served personally or by mailing it by certified mail to the licensee's last known business address, as reflected by the commission's records, at least 10 days prior to the date set for the hearing. In the hearing, all witnesses shall be duly sworn and stenographic notes of the proceedings shall be taken and filed as a part of the records in the case. A party to the proceeding desiring it shall be furnished with a copy of the stenographic notes on the payment to the commission of a fee of $1.50 per page plus applicable sales tax and postage. After a hearing, the commission shall enter an order based on its findings of fact adduced from the evidence presented.

(b) The commission may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of records or documents. The process issued by the commission may extend to all parts of the state, and the process may be served by any person designated by the commission. The person serving the process shall receive compensation to be allowed by the commission, not to exceed the fee prescribed by law for similar services. A witness subpoenaed who appears in a proceeding before the commission shall receive the same fees and mileage allowances as allowed by law, and the fees and allowances shall be taxed as part of the cost of the proceedings.

(c) If, in a proceeding before the commission, a witness fails or refuses to attend on subpoena issued by the commission, or refuses to testify, or refuses to produce a record or document, the production of which is called for by the subpoena, the attendance of the witness and the giving of his testimony and the production of the documents and records shall be enforced by a court of competent jurisdiction of this state in the same manner as the attendance, testimony of witnesses, and production of records are enforced in civil cases in the courts of this state.

Judicial Review

Sec. 18. (a) A person aggrieved by a ruling, order, or decision of the commission has the right to appeal to a district court in the county where the hearing was held within 30 days from the service of notice of the action of the commission.

(b) The appeal having been properly filed, the court may request of the commission, and the commission on receiving the request shall within 30 days prepare and transmit to the court, a certified copy of its entire record in the matter in which the appeal has been taken. The appeal shall be tried in accordance with Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

(c) In the event an appeal is taken by a licensee or applicant, the appeal does not act as a supersedeas unless the court so directs, and the court shall dispose of the appeal and enter its decision promptly.

(d) If an aggrieved person fails to perfect an appeal as provided in this section, the commission’s ruling becomes final.

Penalties; Injunctions

Sec. 19. (a) A person acting as a real estate broker or real estate salesman without first obtaining a license is guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed one year, or both; and if a corporation, shall be punishable by a fine of not less than $1,000 nor more than $2,000. A person, on conviction of a second or subsequent offense, shall be punishable by a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $1,000, or by imprisonment for a term not to exceed two years, or both; and if a corporation, shall be punishable by a fine of not less than $2,000 nor more than $5,000.

(b) In case a person received money, or the equivalent thereof, as a fee, commission, compensation, or profit by or in consequence of a violation of a provision of this Act, he shall, in addition, be liable to a penalty of not less than the amount of the sum of money so received and not more than three times the sum so received, as may be determined by the court, which penalty may be recovered in a court of competent jurisdiction by an aggrieved person.

(c) When in the judgment of the commission a person has engaged, or is about to engage, in an act or practice which constitutes or will constitute a violation of a provision of this Act, the county attorney or district attorney in the county in which the violation has occurred or is about to occur, or in the county of the defendant’s residence, or the attorney general may maintain an action in the name of the State of Texas in the district court of such county to abate and temporarily and permanently enjoin the acts and practices and to enforce compliance with this Act. The plaintiff in an action under this subsection is not required to give a bond, and court costs may not be adjudged against the plaintiff.

Actions for Compensation or Commission; Abstracts or Title Insurance

Sec. 20. (a) A person may not bring or maintain an action for the collection of compensation for the performance in this state of an act set forth in Section 2 of this Act without alleging and proving that the person performing the brokerage services was a duly licensed real estate broker or salesman at the time the alleged services were commenced, or was a duly licensed attorney at law in this state or in any other state.

(b) An action may not be brought in a court in this state for the recovery of a commission for the sale or purchase of real estate unless the promise or agreement on which the action is brought, or some memorandum thereof, is in writing and signed by the party to be charged or signed by a person lawfully authorized by him to sign it.

(c) When an offer to purchase real estate in this state is signed, the real estate broker or salesman shall advise the purchaser or purchasers, in writing, that the purchaser or purchasers should have the abstract covering the real estate which is the subject of the contract examined by an attorney of the purchaser's own selection, or that the purchaser or purchasers should be furnished with or obtain a policy of title insurance. Failure to advise the purchaser as provided in this subsection precludes the payment of or recovery of any commission agreed to be paid on the sale.

Art. 6663b. Mass Transportation
Sec. 1. (a) The State Department of Highways and Public Transportation:

Sections 3 and 4 of the 1975 Act amended arts. 6663 and 6669; § 5 thereof repealed art. 4413(4) creating the Mass Transportation Commission.

Art. 6663c. Administration and Funding of Mass Transportation

Findings and Purpose

Sec. 1. (a) The legislature finds that:

(1) transportation is the lifeblood of an urbanized society, and the health and welfare of that society depend on the provision of efficient, economical, and convenient transportation within and between urban areas;

(2) public transportation is an essential component of the state's transportation system;

(3) energy consumption and economic growth are vitally influenced by the availability of public transportation;

(4) providing public transportation has become so financially burdensome that private industry can no longer provide service in many areas in the state and that the continuation of this essential service on a private or proprietary basis is threatened; and

(5) providing public transportation is a public, governmental responsibility and a matter of direct concern to state government and to all the citizens of the state.

(b) The purposes of this Act are to provide:

(1) improved public transportation for the state through local governments acting as agents and instrumentalities of the state;

(2) state assistance to local governments and their instrumentalities in financing public transportation systems to be operated by local governments as determined by local needs; and

(3) coordinated direction by a single state agency of both highway development and public transportation improvement.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) “Capital improvement” means the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, or improvement of facilities, equipment, or land for use by operation, lease, or otherwise in public transportation service in urbanized areas, and all expenses incidental to the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, or improvement including designing, engineering, supervising, inspecting, surveying, mapping, relocation assistance, acquisition of rights-of-way, and replacement of housing sites.

(2) “Commission” means the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission.

(3) “Department” means the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

(4) “Federally funded project” means a public transportation project proposed for funding under this Act which is being funded in part under the provisions of the Urban Mass Transportation Act of 1964, as amended, the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1973, as amended, or other federal program for funding public transportation.

(5) “Local share requirement” means the amount of funds which are required and are eligible to match federally funded projects for the improvement of public transportation in this state.

(6) “Public transportation” means transportation by bus, rail, watercraft, or other means which provides general or specialized service to the public on a regular or continuing basis.

(7) “Urbanized area” means an area so designated by the United States Bureau of the Census or by general state law.

Formula Program

Sec. 3. (a) The commission shall administer the formula program and allocate 60 percent of the funds in the public transportation fund to that program.

(b) Only an urbanized area with a population in excess of 200,000 according to the last preceding federal census is eligible for participation in the formula program. A municipality, regional authority, or other local governmental entity designated as a recipient of federal funds by the governor with the concurrence of the Secretary of the United States Department of Transportation is a designated recipient of funds under the formula program.

(c) The funds allocated to the formula program shall be apportioned annually on the basis of a formula under which the designated recipients of an eligible urbanized area are entitled to receive an amount equal to the sum of:

1. one-half of the total amount apportioned to the formula program for the year multiplied by the ratio by which the population of the eligible urbanized area bears to the total population of all eligible urbanized areas that are eligible for the formula program; and

2. one-half of the total amount apportioned to the formula program for the year multiplied by the ratio by which the number of inhabitants per square mile of the eligible urbanized area bears to the combined number of inhabitants per square mile of all eligible urbanized areas.

(d) Designated recipients may only use formula program funds to provide 65 percent of the local share requirement of federally funded projects for capital improvements.

(e) Within 30 days after an application for funds under the formula program is received, if there are unallocated formula funds for the applicant, the commission shall certify to the federal government that the state share of the local share requirement is available. The application must contain a certification by the designated recipient that:

1. funds are available to provide 35 percent of the local share requirement of federally assisted programs; and

2. the proposed public transportation project is consistent with ongoing, continuing, cooperative, and comprehensive regional transportation planning being carried out in accordance with the provisions of the Urban Mass Transportation Act of 1964, as amended, and the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1973, as amended.

(f) If the commission has previously certified that the state share is available for a project, the commission shall direct that payment of the state share be made to the designated recipient within 30 days after federal approval of a proposed transportation project proposal.

(g) Funds allocated by the department for use in the formula program which are unencumbered and unexpended one year after the close of the fiscal year for which the funds were originally allocated shall be transferred at that time by the commission for use in the discretionary program.

Discretionary Program

Sec. 4. (a) The commission shall allocate 40 percent of the funds annually credited to the public transportation fund to the discretionary program, which shall be administered by the commission.

(b) Except as provided in Subsection (e) of this section, only rural and urban areas of the state other than urbanized areas eligible for participation in the formula program are eligible for participation in the discretionary program. Any local government having the power to operate or maintain a public transportation system may be a designated recipient of funds from the discretionary program.

(c) Designated recipients under the discretionary program may use discretionary program funds only to provide 65 percent of the local share requirement of federally funded projects for capital improvements, except that if a designated recipient certifies that federal funds are unavailable for a proposed project and the commission finds that the project is vitally important to the development of public transportation in this state, the commission may supply 50 percent of the total cost of that public transportation project to the designated recipient.

(d) In considering any project under this section, the commission shall take into consideration the need for fast, safe, efficient, and economical public transportation.

(e) Designated recipients in urbanized areas eligible for participation in the formula program and any local government having the power to operate or maintain a public transportation system within an urbanized area are also eligible to apply for and receive funds allocated by the commission for use in the discretionary program which are unexpended and unencumbered one year after the close of the fiscal year for which the funds were originally allocated and all unexpended and unencumbered funds transferred from the formula program to the discretionary program. The commission shall make grants out of the discretionary fund to designated recipients under the provisions of this section.

Public Transportation Fund

Sec. 5. The Public Transportation Fund is established as a special fund in the State Treasury. The Public Transportation Fund may only be used by the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation in carrying out the responsibilities and duties of the commission and the department for public transportation purposes as established under this state law. Grants of money to the state from public and private sources for public transportation shall be deposited in the Public Transportation Fund. On the effective date of this Act, the comptroller of public accounts shall transfer the sum of $1,000,000 from the General Revenue Fund to the Public Transportation Fund. There is hereby appropriated from the Public Transportation Fund the sum of $1,000,000 for use by the department for the period from the effective date of this Act through August 31, 1975, and thereafter. On September 1, 1975, and on September 1, 1976, the comptroller of public accounts shall transfer the sum of $15,000,000 each year from the General Revenue Fund to the Public Transportation Fund. There is hereby appropriated from the Public Transportation Fund the sum of $15,000,000 for each year of the biennium beginning September 1, 1975, for use by the department for public transportation in the state.

Art. 6669. Engineer-Director

The Commission shall elect a State Engineer-Director for Highways and Public Transportation who shall be a Registered Professional Engineer in the State of Texas and a competent civil engineer, experienced and skilled in highway construction and maintenance and in public and mass transportation planning or development. He shall hold his position until removed by the Commission. Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 3a. The Texas Turnpike Authority is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the authority is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1979.

1 Article 5429k.
Texas Turnpike Authority Feasibility Study Fund

Sec. 12b. Any funds of the Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike remaining on December 31, 1977, or on such earlier date as the tolls may be lifted in the authority’s discretion, after provision for transition expenses, debts, and obligations pursuant to Section 17a of this Act shall be deposited by the authority in a fund which shall be entitled “Texas Turnpike Authority Feasibility Study Fund.” No more than One Million Dollars shall be so deposited on such date. The amount deposited shall be reduced by the cost of feasibility studies, if any, requested by the authority and approved by the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission between April 4, 1977, and the date of such deposit. Such fund shall be a revolving fund held in trust by a banking institution chosen by the authority separate and apart from the funds of any project. No funds from any other existing, presently constructed project shall be added to this fund. Such fund shall be used for the purpose of paying the expenses of studying the cost and feasibility and any other expenses relating to the preparation and issuance of turnpike revenue bonds for the construction of any turnpike project; the study of which thereafter shall be authorized by the Texas Turnpike Authority, subject to the prior approval of the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission. The funds expended from this fund on behalf of any such new project shall be regarded as a part of the cost of such new project, and said fund shall be reimbursed out of the proceeds of turnpike revenue bonds issued for the construction of any such additional project. After this Act is signed by the governor, all money reimbursable from the sale of bonds of projects whose studies and other expenses have been advanced from funds of the Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike shall be reimbursed to this fund for use as a part hereof. For the same purposes the authority may borrow money and issue promissory notes or other interest-bearing evidences of indebtedness payable out of this fund, pledging or hypothecating thereto any sums therein or to be placed therein.

In addition to the above, any municipality or group of municipalities, any county or group of counties, or any combination of municipalities and counties, or any private group or combination of individuals within the state may pay all or part of the expenses of studying the cost and feasibility and any other expenses relating to the preparation and issuance of turnpike revenue bonds for the construction of a turnpike project. The funds expended on behalf of any new project shall be regarded as part of the cost of such new project and, with the consent of the Texas Turnpike Authority, shall be reimbursable to the party paying the expenses out of the proceeds of turnpike revenue bonds issued for the construction of such new project.

Toll Free Status of Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike; Transition Plan

Sec. 17a. This section shall apply only to the Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike, constructed pursuant to this Act and presently existing in Dallas and Tarrant Counties, and to no other project now or hereafter existing and shall supersede any provisions of this Act in conflict herewith. The Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike shall become toll free, at 12:00 p.m. on December 31, 1977, or on such earlier date as the tolls may be lifted in the authority’s discretion. The authority shall, with the approval of the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission, effectuate a plan for an orderly transition of the Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike to the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation on the date when tolls are lifted. In no event shall the transition plan operate to extend the cutoff time for the collection of tolls set out above. The transition plan shall provide a reasonable time within which said plan shall be consummated and shall include retention by the authority of toll collection and accounting equipment, toll booths and other equipment, furnishings, and supplies usable by the authority in the operation of other projects, the provision of funds for unemployment compensation and other payments required by state law in the termination of employment of state employees, the payment of debts and other contractual obligations of the authority payable from funds of the Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike, including but not limited to the payment to the City of Fort Worth and Tarrant County of their proportionate interests in the balance remaining in the Special Trust Fund created to hold money paid by said city and county for free use of the Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike from Oakland Boulevard to the Fort Worth terminus and such other requisites to the transition as may be appropriate. Money for the payment of such transition expenses, debts, and obligations shall be set aside and retained by the authority for such purposes in a trust fund with a banking institution chosen by the authority to be used for such purposes and the payment of expenses appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 27. Notwithstanding any conflicting provisions in this Act and superseding the same where in conflict with this section, the authority is hereby authorized and empowered, but only as to projects located wholly within the same county and subject to all the provisions of this section:

(a) To determine after a public hearing, subject to prior approval by the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission and a resolution approving the same duly passed by the county commissioners court of the county where the projects are located, that any two or more projects now or hereafter constructed or determined to be constructed by the authority in the same county shall be pooled and designated as a "pooled project." Any existing project or projects may be pooled in whole or in part with any new project or projects or parts thereof. Upon designation such "pooled project" shall become a "project" or "turnpike project" as defined in Section 4(c) of this Act and as used in other sections of this Act. No project may be pooled more than once. Consistent with the trust indenture regarding securing bonds of that project, the resolution of the county commissioners court shall set a date certain when each of the projects being authorized to be pooled shall become toll free.

(b) Subject to the terms of this Act and subject to the terms of any trust agreement securing the payment of any turnpike revenue bonds, the authority is authorized to provide by resolution from time to time for the issuance of turnpike revenue bonds of the authority for the purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of any pooled project or the cost of any part of such pooled project and to pledge revenues of such pooled project or any part thereof.

(c) Subject to the terms of any trust agreement securing the payment of any turnpike revenue bonds, the authority is authorized to issue by resolution turnpike revenue refunding bonds of the authority for the purpose of refunding any bonds then outstanding, issued on account of any pooled project or any part of any pooled project issued under the provisions of this Act, including the payment of any redemption premium thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of such bonds and, if deemed advisable by the authority, for the additional purpose of constructing improvements, extensions, and enlargements to the pooled project or to any part of any pooled project in connection with which or in connection with any part of which bonds to be refunded shall have been issued. Revenues of all or any part of such pooled project may be pledged to the payment of such refunding and improvement bonds. Such improvements, extensions, or enlargements are not restricted to and need not be constructed on any particular part of a pooled project in connection with which bonds to be refunded may have been issued but may be constructed in whole or in part on other parts of the pooled project not covered by the bonds to be refunded. The issuance of such bonds, the maturities and other details thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the rights, duties, and obligations of the authority in respect of the same shall be governed by the provisions of this Act insofar as the same may be applicable. Within the discretion of the authority, the refunding bonds may be issued in exchange for outstanding bonds or may be sold and the proceeds used for the purpose of redeeming outstanding bonds.

Whether bonds be refunded or not, the authority may, subject to the terms of any trust agreement securing the payment of any turnpike revenue bonds, issue from time to time by resolution, bonds, of parity or otherwise, for the purpose of paying the cost of all or any part of any pooled project or for the purpose of constructing improvements, extensions, or enlargements to all or any part of any pooled project and to pledge revenues of all or any part of such pooled project to the payment thereof. Art. 6686. Dealer's and Manufacturer's License Plates and Tags

(a) Dealer's and Manufacturer's License Plates for Unregistered Motor Vehicles, Motorcycles, House Trailers, Trailers, and Semitrailers.

(1) Dealer's License. Any dealer in motor vehicles, motorcycles, house trailers, trailers, or semitrailers doing business in this State may, instead of registering each vehicle he operates or permits to be operated for any reason upon the streets or public highways, apply for and secure a general distinguishing number and master dealer's license plate which may be attached to any such vehicle he owns and operates or permits to be operated unregistered. Each dealer holding a current distinguishing number and master dealer's license plate may apply for and be issued additional or supplemental metal dealer's plates, as hereinafter provided, which may be attached to any vehicle which he owns and operates or permits to be operated unregistered in the same manner as a vehicle operated on the master dealer's license plate. A dealer within the meaning of this Act means any person, firm, or corporation regularly and actively engaged in the business of buying, selling, or exchanging motor vehicles, motorcycles, house trailers, trailers, or semitrailers at an established and permanent place of business; provided, however, that at each such place of business a sign in letters at least six (6) inches in height must be conspicuously displayed showing the name of the dealership under which such dealer is doing business, and that each such place of business must have a furnished office and, except for dealers who are licensed by the Texas Motor Vehicle Commission pursuant to the Texas Motor Vehicle Commission Code and dealers who sell vehicles to or exchange vehicles with no person other than another dealer licensed under this Act, sufficient space to display five (5) vehicles of the type customarily bought, sold, or exchanged by such dealer.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of (a)(2)]

(3) Buyer's Temporary Cardboard Tags. Each dealer holding a current distinguishing number may issue temporary cardboard tags, which may be used by a buyer to operate an unregistered vehicle he purchased from said dealer for a period of twenty (20) days from the date of purchase; provided, however, that a dealer may issue only one (1) buyer's tag to a purchaser for each unregistered vehicle said dealer sells. The specifications, color, and form of such buyer's cardboard tag shall be prescribed by the Department; provided, however, that each dealer shall be responsible for the safekeeping and distribution of all cardboard tags obtained by him; and furthermore, each dealer is responsible for showing in ink on each buyer's cardboard tag he issues the actual date of sale of each unregistered vehicle together with other information asked for thereon.

(4) Dealer's Temporary Cardboard Tags. Each dealer holding a current distinguishing number may issue temporary cardboard tags, which may only be used by such dealer or his employees for the following purposes:

(a) to demonstrate or cause to be demonstrated his unregistered vehicles to prospective buyers only for the purpose of sale; provided, however, that no provision of this Act shall be construed to prohibit a dealer from permitting a prospective buyer to operate such vehicles in the course of demonstration.

(b) to convey or cause to be conveyed his unregistered vehicles from the dealer's place of business in one part of the State to his place of business in another part of the State, or from his place of business to a place to be repaired, reconditioned, or serviced, or from the point in this State where such vehicles are unloaded to his place of business, including the moving of such vehicles from the State line to his place of business, or to convey such vehicles from one dealer's place of business to another dealer's place of business or from the point of purchase of such vehicles by the dealer to the dealer's place of business, or for the purpose of road testing, and such vehicles displaying such tags while being so conveyed shall be exempt from the mechanical inspection requirements of Sections 140 and 141 of the Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways.

Such tags shall not be used to operate vehicles for the personal use of a dealer or his employees. Whenever a dealer sells an unregistered vehicle to a retail purchaser, it shall be such dealer's responsibility to display the Buyer's Temporary Cardboard Tag thereon pursuant to Subsection (3) of this Act. The specifications, form, and color of such dealer's cardboard tags shall be prescribed by the Department.

(5) Cancellation of License. It shall be the duty of the Department to cancel the dealer's or manufacturer's license issued to a person, firm or corporation when such license was obtained by submitting false or misleading information; and the Department is hereby authorized to cancel dealer's licenses whenever a person, firm, or corporation fails, upon demand, to furnish within thirty (30) days to the Department satisfactory and reasonable evidence of being regularly and actively engaged in the business of buying, selling, or exchanging new or used motor vehicles, motorcycles, house trailers, trailers, or semitrailers at either wholesale or retail; and, it is also provided that the Department may cancel dealer's or manufacturer's licenses issued under this Act for the violation of any provisions of this Act or for the misuse or for allowing the misuse of any cardboard tag authorized under this Act; and, furthermore, the Department is hereby authorized to cancel such licenses whenever a dealer refuses to show on such tags the date of sale or any other reasonable information required to be shown thereon by the Department; provided, however, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit new entries into the business of buying, selling, exchanging, or manufacturing such vehicles; and provided further that any dealer or manufacturer whose license was cancelled under the terms of this Act shall, within ten (10) days, surrender to a representative of the Department any and all license plates, cardboard tags, license stickers, and receipts issued pursuant to this Act. If any dealer or manufacturer shall fail to surrender to the Department the license plates, the cardboard tags, license stickers, and receipts as provided herein, the Department shall forthwith direct any peace officer to secure possession thereof and to return same to the Department. Whenever a dealer’s or manufacturer’s license is cancelled under the provisions of this Act, all benefits and privileges afforded to Texas licensed dealers or manufacturers under the Certificate of Title Act (Article 6687-1, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), are automatically cancelled, also.

(6) Limited Use of Dealer’s Plates and Tags. The use of dealer’s license or dealer’s temporary cardboard tags is prohibited on service or work vehicles or on commercial vehicles carrying a load; provided, however, that a boat trailer carrying a boat will not be considered to be a commercial vehicle carrying a load, and a dealer complying with the provisions of this Act may affix to the rear of a boat trailer he owns or to the rear of a boat trailer he sells such dealer’s distinguishing number or cardboard tags pursuant to the provisions of Subsections (1), (3) and (4) of this section; and, further provided, that the term “commercial vehicle carrying a load” shall not be construed to prohibit the operation or conveyance of unregistered vehicles by licensed dealers (or buyers therefrom) utilizing the full mount method, the saddle mount method, the tow bar method, or any combination thereof, pursuant to Subsections (3) and (4) of this section.

(7) Fees and Forms. Each applicant for a dealer’s or manufacturer’s general distinguishing number and master dealer’s license plate shall pay to the Department an annual fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100) for the number and master dealer’s plate and Ten Dollars ($10) for each additional or supplemental metal dealer’s plate desired, and all such fees shall be deposited in the State Highway Fund. Applications for a dealer’s or manufacturer’s license plate, and for renewals thereof, shall be made in writing on forms prescribed and furnished by the Department, and such applications shall require any pertinent information, including sufficient information for the Department to determine that the applicant is actively and regularly engaged in the sale of motor vehicles, motorcycles, house trailers, trailers, or semitrailers as a dealer, to insure proper enforcement and administration; and, furthermore, each such application shall contain a statement to the effect that the applying dealer agrees to permit the Department to examine during working hours the ownership papers for each vehicle, registered or unregistered, in the possession of said dealer or under his control. All facts stated in an application shall be sworn to before an officer authorized to administer oaths and no dealer’s or manufacturer’s distinguishing number shall be issued until this Act is complied with. All such applications for dealer’s or manufacturer’s licenses, accompanied by the prescribed fee, should be made to the Department by January 15 of each year and the license plates for those applications meeting the provisions of this Act will be mailed to the applicants during the succeeding months of February and March. Each dealer’s and manufacturer’s license shall expire at the expiration of the “Motor Vehicle Registration Year.”

Provisions relating to the inspection of trailers, semitrailers, pole trailers, or mobile homes shall not apply when the gross weight of such vehicles and the load carried thereon is four thousand (4,000) pounds or less. Only the mechanism and equipment designated in this section may be inspected, and the owner shall not be required to have any other equipment or part of his motor vehicle inspected as a prerequisite for the issuance of an inspection certificate.

(b) If such inspection discloses the necessity for adjustments, corrections, or repairs, the vehicle shall be adjusted, corrected, or repaired before a certificate is issued as hereinafter provided. The owner may have such adjustments, corrections, or repairs made by such qualified person or persons as he may choose, subject to reinspection as hereinafter provided.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 140(c) and (d)]

(e) After the fifth (5th) day following the expiration of the period designated for the inspection, no person shall operate on the highways of this State any motor vehicle registered in this State unless a valid certificate of inspection is displayed thereon as required by this Section. It is a defense to a prosecution under this Section that a valid inspection permit for the vehicle is in effect at the time of the arrest. Any peace officer of the Department of Public Safety, or any sheriff or deputy sheriff, or any City policeman who shall exhibit his badge or other signs of authority, may stop any vehicle not displaying this inspection certificate as required by the Department and require the owner or operator to produce an official inspection certificate for the vehicle being operated.

(g) Any person operating a vehicle on the highways of this State, other than a vehicle licensed in another State and being temporarily and legally operated under a valid reciprocity agreement, in violation of the provisions of this Act or without displaying a valid inspection certificate or having equipment which does not comply with the provisions of Article XIV of this Act is guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be punished as provided in Section 148 of this Act.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 140(h)]

State Appointed Inspection Stations

Sec. 141. (a) The Department may establish state-appointed inspection stations to carry out the provisions of this Section. Such stations may be located anywhere in the state, and should any be established or appointed, there shall be at least one (1) for each county. The Department is authorized to furnish instructions to, and to supervise official inspection stations and mechanics for inspection of motor vehicles, trailers, semitrailers, pole trailers, and mobile homes for the proper and safe performance of the required items of inspection. The certification of persons to inspect vehicles shall be in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the Department. Every person desiring to operate as an official inspection station shall file an application for a certificate of appointment with the Department.

The application shall be made upon a form prescribed and furnished by the Department, and shall set forth the name of the applicant, the name under which the applicant transacts or intends to transact business, the location of his place of business within the state, and such other information as the Department may require. If the applicant has or intends to have more than one place of business within the state, a separate application shall be made for each place of business.
If the applicant is an association, the application shall set forth the names and the addresses of the persons constituting the association, and if a corporation, the names and addresses of the principal officers thereof, and any other information prescribed by the Department for purposes of identification. The application shall be signed and verified by oath or affirmation by the owner, if a natural person; in the case of a corporation, by an executive officer thereof or some person specifically authorized by the corporation to sign the application, to which shall be attached written evidence of his authority.

Only such locations which fulfill the Department's requirements and whose owners or proprietors comply with the Department regulations shall qualify and be appointed and issued a certificate. Upon approval of an application, the Department shall issue to the owner a certificate of appointment as an official inspection station for the place of business within the state set forth in the application.

Certificates of appointment shall not be assignable, and shall be valid for the owners in whose names issued and for the transaction of business at the place designated therein, and shall at all times be conspicuously displayed at the place for which issued.

An applicant for appointment as an inspector shall submit with his first application a certificate fee of Five Dollars ($5). An individual's first appointment as an inspector is effective until August 31 of the year following the date of appointment. Thereafter, appointments as inspectors shall be made for one-year periods, and the certificate fee for each year shall be Five Dollars ($5).

Upon being advised that an application will be approved, an applicant for an appointment as an inspection station shall pay a fee of Thirty Dollars ($30) which shall constitute the certificate fee until August 31st of the odd-numbered year following the date of appointment. Thereafter, appointments as inspectors shall be made for two-year periods and the certificate fee for each such period shall be Thirty Dollars ($30). All certificate fees shall be placed in a fund in the State Treasury to be known as the Motor Vehicle Inspection Fund and shall be used by the Department in the administration of this Act.

(b) Any owner of an official inspection station who by himself, agent, servant, or employee, violates any provision of Section 140, 141, or 142 of this Act, or requires the repair of any mechanism or equipment other than that set forth in the uniform standards of safety items to be inspected as established, shall upon conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding Two Hundred Dollars ($200).

(c) The fee for compulsory inspection to be made under this Section shall be Four Dollars ($4.00). One Dollar ($1.00) of each fee shall be paid to the Department and shall be placed in the Motor Vehicle Inspection Fund for the purpose of paying the expense of the administration of this law. The Department may require each official inspection station to make an advance payment of One Dollar ($1.00) for each inspection certificate furnished to it, and the money so received shall be placed in the Motor Vehicle Inspection Fund, and no further payment to the Department shall be required upon issuance of the certificate. If such advance payment has been made, the Department shall refund to the inspection station the amount of One Dollar ($1.00) for each unissued certificate which the inspection station returns to the Department in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the Department.

If an inspection disclosed the necessity for adjustments, corrections, or repairs, such vehicle shall be reinspected once within seven (7) days from the date of inspection. If the inspection disclosed the necessity for adjustment, corrections, or repairs have been made. Any such vehicle under the terms of this Act, if involved in an accident subsequent to the required inspection, which accident affects the safe operation of any item of inspection, shall return to an inspection station after adequate repairs are made. The subsequent inspection shall be as if the vehicle had not been inspected before. The inspection fee shall be charged for reinspection.

(d) No certificate of inspection shall be issued by any inspector or inspection station until the vehicle has been inspected and found to be in proper and safe condition and to comply with the uniform standards of safety, inspection rules and regulations, and laws of this state. No person shall make, issue, or knowingly use an imitation or counterfeit of an official inspection certificate.

No person shall display or cause or permit to be displayed any inspection certificate knowing the same to be fictitious or issued for another vehicle or issued without the required inspection having been made. No person may transfer an inspection certificate from one windshield or location to another windshield or location.

No person shall perform an inspection or issue an inspection certificate without such person first having been certified to do so by the Department.

No person shall drive or move on any highway any motor vehicle, trailer, semitrailer, pole trailer, mobile home, or combination thereof unless the equipment upon any and every said vehicle is in good working order and adjustment as required in this Act and said vehicle is in such safe mechanical condition as not to endanger the driver or other occupant or any person or property.

(e) The Department may appoint as official inspection stations, for the limited purpose of inspecting vehicles owned by political subdivisions and agencies of the state, vehicle maintenance facilities owned and operated by the political subdivisions or agencies. The political subdivisions and agencies may not be required to pay the vehicle-inspection fee provided for in Subsection (c) of this section, but shall pay to the Department an advance payment of One Dollar ($1.00) for each inspection certificate issued to it. The funds received by the Department shall be placed in the Motor Vehicle Inspection Fund for the purpose of paying the expense of the administration of this Act. Inspection stations appointed under this subsection must satisfy all requirements set forth in Sections 140, 141, and 142 of this Act except the provisions relating to the fee contained in Subsection (a) of this section. No officer, employee, or inspector of any political subdivision or agency shall place or cause to be placed any inspection certificate received from the Department under the provisions of this subsection on any vehicle other than a vehicle owned by the political subdivision or agency.

(f) The Director may deny an application for a license or revoke or suspend an outstanding certificate of any inspection station or the certificate of any person to inspect vehicles, in addition to action taken under Subsection (g) of this section, for any of the following reasons:

1. Issuing a certificate without required adjustments, corrections, or repairs having been made when an inspection disclosed the necessity for those adjustments, corrections, or repairs;
2. Refusing to allow the owner of the vehicle to have required corrections or adjustments made by any qualified person he may choose;
3. Issuing an inspection certificate without having made an inspection of the vehicle;
4. Knowingly or wilfully issuing an inspection certificate for a vehicle without the required items of inspection or with items which were not at the time of issuance in good condition and in conformity with the laws of this state or in compliance with rules of the Commission;
5. Failure to charge the required fee for inspection;
6. Charging more than the required inspection fee;
7. Issuing an inspection certificate without being certified to do so by the Department;
8. Proof of unfitness of applicant or licensee under standards set out in this Act or in Commission rules;
9. Material misrepresentation in any application or any other information filed under this Act or Commission rules;

(10) Wilful failure to comply with this Act or any rule promulgated by the Commission under the provisions of this Act;
(11) Failure to maintain the qualifications for a license; or
(12) Any act or omission by the licensee, his agent, servant, employee, or person acting in a representative capacity for the licensee which act or omission would be cause to deny, revoke, or suspend a license to an individual licensee.

When there is cause to deny an application for a certificate of any inspection station or the certificate of any person to inspect vehicles or revoke or suspend the outstanding certificate, the Director shall, in less than thirty (30) days before refusal, suspension, or revocation action is taken, notify the person, in writing, in person, or by certified mail at the last address supplied to the Department by the person, of the impending refusal, suspension, or revocation, the reasons for taking that action, and of his right to an administrative hearing for the purpose of determining whether or not the evidence is sufficient to warrant the refusal, suspension, or revocation action proposed to be taken by the Director. If, within twenty (20) days after the personal notice of the notice is sent or notice has been deposited in the United States mail, the person has not made a written request to the Director for this administrative hearing, the Director, without a hearing, may suspend or revoke or refuse to issue any certificate. On receipt by the Director of a written request of the person within the twenty-day (20-day) period, an opportunity for an administrative hearing shall be afforded as early as is practicable. In no case shall the hearing be held less than ten (10) days after written notification, including a copy of the charges, is given the person by personal service or by certified mail sent to the last address supplied to the Department by the applicant or certificate holder. The administrative hearing in these cases shall be before the Director or his designee. The Director or his designee shall conduct the administrative hearing and may administer oaths and issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of relevant books, papers, or documents. On the basis of the evidence submitted at the hearing, the Director acting for himself or upon the recommendation of his designee may refuse the application or suspend or revoke the certificate.

Any person dissatisfied with the action of the Director, without filing a motion for rehearing, may appeal the action of the Director by filing a petition within thirty (30) days after the action is taken in a district court in the county where the person resides or in a district court of Travis County, and the court is vested with jurisdiction, and it shall be the duty of the court to set the matter for hearing upon ten (10) days written notice to the Director and the attorney.
representing the Director. The court in which the petition of appeal is filed shall determine whether any action of the Director shall be suspended pending hearing and enter its order accordingly, which shall be operative when served upon the Director, and the Director shall provide the attorney representing the Director with a copy of the petition and order. The Director shall be represented in these appeals by the district or county attorney of the county, or the attorney general, or any of their assistants.

(g) No person who performs an inspection at a state-appointed inspection station may fraudulently represent to an applicant that a mechanism or item of equipment required to be inspected must be repaired, adjusted, or replaced before the vehicle will pass inspection when that is not the case. The Department may cancel or suspend the certificate of appointment of any state-appointed inspection station or the certificate of the person performing the inspection if it finds, after notice and hearing, that a violation of this Section occurred at the inspection station.

Safety Standards and Inspection Certificates

Sec. 142. (a) The Public Safety Commission shall establish uniform standards of safety whenever applicable with respect to items to be inspected as provided by Section 140 of this Act and shall list those items to be inspected in conformity with these standards established as provided by law. Every vehicle inspected shall conform in all respects to the uniform standards of safety and the list of items to be inspected established pursuant to this Section.

(b) The Department shall furnish serially numbered certificates of inspection to inspection stations. Each certificate, when issued, shall bear such information as required by the Department for the type of vehicle that was inspected. The certificate shall be invalid after the end of the twelfth month in which the vehicle was last inspected, approved, and the certificate of inspection issued. A certificate of inspection and approval for any vehicle shall be attached to or produced for such vehicle as the Department shall require. The Department shall require that certificates for motorcycles be attached to the rear of the vehicle near the license plate. A record and report as prescribed by the Department shall be made of every inspection and every certificate so issued. No unused certificates of inspection representing a prior inspection period shall be issued after the beginning of the next ensuing period.

(c) The Department may adopt rules necessary for the administration and enforcement of Article XV of this Act.

The number of miles per hour by which an offender exceeds the posted speed limit is determined by subtracting the posted prima facie speed limit from the number of miles per hour the offender is alleged to have driven at the time of the offense according to the summons or promise to appear. The state treasurer shall deposit funds received under this Section in the General Revenue Fund.

(d) The governing body of an incorporated city, town, or village in which a public or private institution of elementary or secondary education is located shall hold upon request a public hearing at least once each calendar year to consider maximum prima facie speed limits on streets and highways, including highways in the State Highway System, near the institution. If a county road outside the State Highway System is located within 500 feet of a public or private institution of elementary or secondary education that is not within the limits of an incorporated city, town, or village, the county commissioners court shall hold upon request a public hearing at least once each calendar year to consider the maximum prima facie speed limit on the road near the institution. A municipal governing body or commissioners court may hold upon request one public hearing for all public and private institutions of elementary or secondary education within its jurisdiction.

(d) The commanding officer of a United States military reservation, with respect to any highway, street, or part of a highway or street, including one marked as a route of a highway of the State Highway System, within the limits of the military reservation, has the same authority by order to alter maximum prima facie speed limits on the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation as that delegated to the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission with respect to any officially designated or marked highway, road, or street of the State Highway System. However, a commanding officer may not modify or alter the basic rule established in Subsection (a) of Section 166 of this Act, as amended, nor may he establish a speed limit higher than sixty (60) miles an hour. An order of the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission declaring a speed limit on any part of a designated or marked route of the State Highway System made pursuant to Section 167 or Section 169B of this Act, as amended, supersedes any conflicting order of a commanding officer.

(e) The chairman of the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission and the chairman of the State Board of Education shall provide assistance and information relevant to consideration of speed limits to commissioners courts, municipal governing bodies, and other interested persons.

to size of vehicles stated in this Section shall not apply to vehicles on which implements of husbandry are being carried or moved provided such vehicles are being moved by the owner thereof or his agent or employee for the purpose of carrying on agricultural operations, and provided further that such implements are being moved or carried a distance of not more than fifty (50) miles, and excepting further, that the width of a motor bus or trolley bus operated exclusively within the limits of an incorporated city or town in this State and suburbs contiguous thereto and the county in which said incorporated city is located shall not exceed one hundred and two (102) inches.

No vehicle, other than vehicles herein exempted from these provisions, which has a total outside width, including any load thereon, in excess of the applicable width herein stated shall be permitted to operate on the public highways except under a special permit issued for such movement as prescribed in Section 2 of this Act or in Chapter 41, General Laws of the Forty-first Legislature, Second Called Session, 1929, as amended (Article 6701a of Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes) or except as authorized in some other Statute permitting or regulating such movement.

Weight of Load

Sec. 5. Except as otherwise provided by law, no commercial motor vehicle, truck-tractor, trailer or semitrailer, nor combination of such vehicles, shall be operated over, on, or upon the public highways outside the limits of an incorporated city or town, having a weight in excess of one or more of the following limitations:

(1) No such vehicle nor combination of vehicles shall have a greater weight than twenty thousand (20,000) pounds carried on any one axle, including all enforcement tolerances; or with a tandem axle weight in excess of thirty-four thousand (34,000) pounds, including all enforcement tolerances; or with an overall gross weight on a group of two or more consecutive axles produced by application of the following formula:

where \(W\) = overall gross weight on any group of two or more consecutive axles to the nearest 500 pounds, \(L\) = distance in feet between the extreme of any group of two or more consecutive axles, and \(N\) = number of axles in group under consideration, except that two consecutive sets of tandem axles may carry a gross load of 34,000 pounds each providing the overall distance between the first and last axles of such consecutive sets of tandem axles is thirty-six (36) feet or more; provided, that such overall gross weight may not exceed eighty thousand (80,000) pounds, including all enforcement tolerances.

(2) No such vehicle nor combination of vehicles shall have a greater weight than six hundred (600) pounds per inch width of tire upon any wheel concentrated upon the surface of the highway and using high-pressure tires, and a greater weight than six hundred and fifty (650) pounds per inch width of tire upon any wheel concentrated upon the surface of the highway and using low-pressure tires, and no wheel shall carry a load in excess of eight thousand (8,000) pounds on high-pressure tires and ten thousand (10,000) pounds on low-pressure tires, nor any axle a load in excess of sixteen thousand (16,000) pounds on high-pressure tires, and twenty thousand (20,000) pounds on low-pressure tires.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as permitting size or weight limits on the national system of interstate and defense highways in this state in excess of those permitted under 23 U.S.C. Section 127. If the federal government prescribes or adopts vehicle size or weight limits greater than those now prescribed by 23 U.S.C. Section 127 for the national system of interstate and defense highways, the increased limits shall become effective on the national system of interstate and defense highways in this state.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to deny the operation of any vehicle or combination of vehicles that could be lawfully operated upon the highways and roads of this state on December 16, 1974.

(5) In this section, an axle load is defined as the total load transmitted to the road by all wheels whose centers may be included between two (2) parallel transverse vertical planes forty (40) inches apart, extending across the full width of the vehicle. Tandem axle group is defined as two (2) or more axles spaced forty (40) inches or more apart from center to center having at least one (1) common point of weight suspension.

Weighing Loaded Vehicles by Inspectors

Sec. 6. Subd. 1. Any License and Weight inspector of the Department of Public Safety, any highway patrolman or any sheriff or his duly authorized deputy, having reason to believe that the gross weight or axle load of a loaded motor vehicle is unlawful, is authorized to weigh the same by means of portable or stationary scales furnished or approved by the Department of Public Safety, or cause the same to be weighed by any public weigher, and to require that such vehicle be driven to the nearest available scales for the purpose of weighing. In the event the gross weight of such vehicle be found to exceed the maximum gross weight authorized by law, plus a tolerance allowance of five per cent (5%) of the gross weight authorized by law, such license and weight inspector, highway patrolman, sheriff or his duly authorized deputy, shall demand and require the operator or owner of such motor vehicle to unload such portion of the load as may be necessary to decrease the gross weight of such vehicle to the maximum authorized by law plus such tolerance allowance, except as otherwise provided. Such operator or owner shall forthwith unload such vehicle to the extent necessary to reduce the gross weight thereof to such lawful maximum and such vehicle may not be operated further over the public highways or roads of the State of Texas until the gross weight of such vehicle has been reduced to a weight not in excess of the maximum limit plus such tolerance allowance. In the event the axle load of any such vehicle be found to exceed the maximum authorized by law, plus a tolerance allowance of five per cent (5%) of the axle load authorized by law, such officer shall demand and require the operator or owner thereof to rearrange his cargo, if possible, to bring such vehicle and load within the maximum axle load authorized by law, and if this cannot be done by rearrangement of said cargo, then such portion of the load as may be necessary to decrease the axle load to the maximum authorized by law plus such tolerance allowance shall be unloaded before such vehicle may be operated further over the public highways or roads of the State of Texas. Provided, however, that if such load consists of livestock, then such operator shall be permitted to proceed to destination without being unloaded provided destination be within the State of Texas.

It is further provided that in the event the gross weight of the vehicle exceeds the registered gross weight, the License and Weight Inspector, State Highway Patrolman or Sheriff or his duly authorized deputy shall require the operator or owner thereof to apply to the nearest available County Tax Assessor-Collector for additional registration in an amount that will cause his gross registration to be equal to the gross weight of the vehicle, provided such total registration shall not exceed gross weight allowed for such vehicle, before such operator or owner may proceed. Provided, however, that if such load consists of livestock or perishable merchandise then such operator or owner shall be permitted to proceed with his vehicle to the nearest practical point in the direction of his destination where his load may be protected from damage or destruction in the event he is required to secure additional registration before being allowed to proceed. It shall be conclusively presumed and deemed prima facie evidence that where an operator or owner is apprehended and found to be carrying a greater gross load than that for which he is licensed or registered, he has been carrying similar loads from the date of purchase of his current license plates and will therefore be required to pay for the additional registration from the date of purchase of such license. Provided further that when an operator or owner is required to purchase additional registration in a county other than the county in which the owner resides, the Tax Assessor-Collector of such county shall remit the fees collected for such additional registration to the State Highway Department to be deposited in the State Highway Fund. It shall be the duty of the State Highway Department, and the necessary funds are hereby appropriated, to remit the counties' portion of such fees collected to the county of the residence of the owner; and it is provided further that the provisions of this Section will in no way conflict with Article 6675a, Section 2, of the Revised Civil Statutes.

It is further provided that all forms and accounting procedure necessary to carry out the provisions of this Section shall be prescribed by the State Highway Department.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 6, 2 to 5]

Subd. 6. Notwithstanding Subdivision 1 of Section 6 of this Article, neither the operator nor the owner of a motor vehicle loaded with timber or pulp wood or agricultural products in their natural state being transported from the place of production to the place of market or first processing shall be required to unload any portion of his load.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 1 to 3]

ARTICLE III—SECURITY FOLLOWING ACCIDENT

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 4 and 4A]

Sec. 5. (a) If twenty (20) days after the receipt of a report of a motor vehicle accident within this State which has resulted in bodily injury or death, or damage to the property of any one person of at least Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250), the Department does not have on file evidence satisfactory to it that the person who would otherwise be required to file security under Subsection (b) of this section has been released from liability, or has been finally adjudicated not to be liable, or has executed a duly acknowledged written agreement providing for the payment of an agreed amount in installments with respect to all claims for injuries or damages resulting from the accident, and the Department finds that there is a reasonable probability of a judgment being rendered against the person as a result of the accident, the Department shall determine the amount of security which shall be sufficient in its judgment, and in no event less than Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250) to satisfy any judgment or judgments for damages resulting from such accident as may be recovered against each operator or owner.

(b) The Department shall, subject to the provisions of Subsection (c) of this section, suspend the license and all registrations of each operator and owner of a motor vehicle in any manner involved in such accident, if there is found to be a reasonable probability of a judgment being rendered against that person as a result of the accident, and if such operator or owner is a nonresident the privilege of operating a motor vehicle within this State, and the privilege of the use within this State of any motor vehicle owned by him unless such operator, owner or operator and owner shall deposit security in the sum so determined by the Department or by a person presiding at a hearing and in no event less than Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250), and unless such operator and owner shall give proof of financial responsibility.

Before suspension of a license, registration, or privilege, the Department must find that there is a reasonable probability of a judgment being rendered against the person as a result of the accident and the amount of security that must be deposited. For this purpose it may consider the report of the investigating officer, the accident reports of all parties involved, and any affidavits of persons having knowledge of the facts. Notice of the determination by the Department shall be served personally on the person or mailed by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the affected person's last known address, as shown by the records of the Department. The notice shall specify that the license to operate a motor vehicle and the registration, or nonresident's operating privilege, will be suspended unless the person, within twenty (20) days after personal service or the mailing of the notice, establishes that the provisions of this section are not applicable to him and that he has previously furnished such information to the Department or that there is no reasonable probability of a judgment being rendered against
If a written request for a hearing is not delivered or mailed to the Department within twenty (20) days after personal service or the mailing of notice and the person has not established within that time that the provisions of this section do not apply to him or if within twenty (20) days after a hearing and exhaustion of the appeal procedure, if an appeal is made in which the decision is against the person requesting the hearing, security and proof of financial responsibility are not deposited with the Department, the Department shall suspend the person's license to operate a motor vehicle, the vehicle registration, or nonresident's operating privilege until the person complies with the provisions of this Act.

Notice of such suspension shall be sent by the Department to such operator and owner not less than ten (10) days prior to the effective date of such suspension and shall state the amount required as security and the necessity for proof of financial responsibility. Where erroneous information is given the Department with respect to the matters set forth in subdivisions 2, 3, and 4 of Subsection (c) of this Section, it shall take appropriate action as hereinafter provided, within sixty (60) days after receipt by it or correct information with respect to said matters.

The determination by the Department or by a person presiding at a hearing of the question of whether there is a reasonable probability of a judgment being rendered against a person as a result of an accident may not be introduced in evidence in any civil suit for damages arising from the accident.

(c) This section shall not apply under the conditions stated in Section 6 nor:

1. To a motor vehicle operator or owner against whom the Department or a person presiding at a hearing finds there is not a reasonable probability of a judgment being rendered as a result of the accident;
2. To such operator or owner if such owner had in effect at the time of such accident a motor vehicle liability policy with respect to the motor vehicle involved in such accident;
3. To such operator, if not the owner of such motor vehicle, if there was in effect at the time of such accident a motor vehicle liability policy or bond with respect to his operation of motor vehicles not owned by him;
4. To any person employed by the government of the United States, when such person is acting within the scope or office of his employment;
5. To such operator or owner if the liability of such operator or owner for damages resulting from such accident is, in the judgment of the Department, covered by any other form of liability insurance policy or bond; nor
6. To any person qualifying as a self-insurer under Section 34 of this Act, or to any person operating a motor vehicle for such self-insurer. No such policy or bond shall be effective under this section or under Section 7 unless issued by an insurance company or surety company authorized to write motor vehicle liability insurance in this State, except that if such motor vehicle was not registered in this State, or was a motor vehicle which was registered elsewhere than in this State at the effective date of the policy, or the most recent renewal thereof, such policy or bond shall not be effective under this section unless the insurance company or surety company if not authorized to do business in this State shall execute a power of attorney authorizing the Department to accept service on its behalf of notice or process in any action upon such policy or bond arising out of such accident; providing, however, every such policy or bond is subject, if the accident has resulted in bodily injury or death, to a limit, exclusive of interest and costs, of not less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident and, subject to said limit for one person, to a limit of not less than Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000) because of bodily injury to or death of two (2) or more persons in any one accident, and, if the accident has resulted in injury to or destruction of property, to a limit of not less than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one accident. The policy or bond may exclude coverage for the first Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250) of liability for bodily injury to or death of any one person in any one accident, and, subject to that exclusion for one person, may exclude coverage for the first Five Hundred Dollars ($500) of liability for the bodily injury to or death of two (2) or more persons in any one accident and may exclude coverage for the first Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250) of liability for the injury to or destruction of property of others in any one accident.

7. Wherever the word “bond” appears in this section or this Act, it shall mean a bond filed with and approved by the Department of Public Safety.

CHAPTER FIVE. BRIDGES AND FERRIES

Art. 6795b-1. Causeways, Bridges, Tunnels, Turnpikes, or Highways Authorized in Gulf Coast Counties of 50,000 or More

Construction and Operation Authorized; Cost and Expenses

Sec. 1. Any county in the State of Texas which borders on the Gulf of Mexico or any bay or inlet opening thereinto and which has a population of fifty thousand (50,000) or more, according to the last Federal Census preceding the authorization of bonds hereunder, acting through its Commissioners Court, is hereby authorized and empowered to construct, acquire, improve, operate and maintain a causeway, bridge, tunnel, turnpike, highway, or any combination of such facilities, including all necessary overpasses, underpasses, interchanges, entrance plazas, toll houses, service stations, approaches, fixtures, accessories, equipment, and administration, storage, and other necessary buildings, together with all property rights, easements, and interests acquired in connection therewith (all of which are hereinafter referred to as “the project”) from one (1) point in said county to another, or from one (1) point in said county to a point in another county (regardless of the population of such other county), and to issue its tax bonds, revenue bonds, or combination tax and revenue bonds, to pay the cost of such construction, acquisition, or improvement. Among other things, the cost of the project may include the following: the cost of construction; the cost of all property, real, personal, and mixed, and all appurtenances, easements, contracts, franchises, pavements, and properties of every nature, used or useful in connection with the construction, acquisition, improvement, operation, and maintenance of the project; the payment of the cost of condemning any such property, including both the payment of the award and the payment of the court costs and attorneys fees; the payment of all legal, fiscal, and engineering expenses incurred in connection with the acquisition and construction of the project and the making of preliminary surveys and investigations and the authorization and issuance of the bonds; and the payment of interest on the bonds and operating expenses on the project prior to and during the period occupied by the construction of the project and for one (1) year thereafter. If the Commissioners Court shall consider it desirable to acquire, through pur-c chase or lease, existing ferry properties for the purpose of operating such properties during the period of construction, over the route to be traversed by the project, such properties may be so acquired and the cost thereof paid from the proceeds of the bonds.
Any preliminary expenses paid from county funds shall be repaid to such funds from the proceeds of the bonds when available, and all engineering and fiscal contracts and agreements for such projects heretofore entered into are hereby validated and confirmed. Where any causeway, bridge, tunnel, turnpike, highway, or combination thereof constructed or acquired and financed hereunder extends from a point in the county issuing the bonds to a point in another county, it may be so constructed or acquired only after there shall have been adopted by the Commissioners Court of the county not issuing the bonds, a resolution approving and consenting to such construction or acquisition, and the Commissioners Court of any such county is hereby authorized to adopt such resolution. So long as and to the extent that the project, or part thereof, has not been designated as part of the State Highway System and is not considered a Turnpike Project, as defined in Chapter 410, Acts of the Fifty-Third Legislature, 1953, as amended, 1 that part of the project (which has not been so designated and is not so considered) in each county shall be considered a part of the county road system of such county, and all laws relating to the maintenance and operation of county roads are hereby made applicable to any project constructed or acquired hereunder in so far as they do not conflict with the provisions hereof; and each county into which the project extends may acquire necessary lands or right of ways or other property by purchase, condemnation or otherwise, under the General Laws of Texas, and the county issuing the bonds shall have such powers with respect to necessary lands or right of ways or other property in each county into which the project extends; provided that provision for the payment of the purchase price, award, or other costs may be upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the Commissioners Courts of the county issuing the bonds and the other county, and the proceeds of the bonds issued hereunder may be used for such purposes; and provided, further, that no election shall be necessary to authorize the issuance of any bonds issued hereunder payable solely from revenues, but in case no election is held, notice of intention to issue such bonds shall be given as provided in Sections 2 and 3 of the Bond and Warrant Law of 1981, as amended, 2 and the authority to issue such bonds shall be subject to the right of referendum provided in Section 4 of said Law.
Bonds authorized to be issued under this law shall be sold in such manner, either at public or private sale, and for such price as the Commissioners Court of the county issuing the bonds may determine to be for the best interests of the county.

1 Article 6674v.
2 Article 2368a.

Sec. 2. No bonds authorized pursuant to Subsection (a) of this section shall ever be a debt of the county issuing them, but shall be solely a charge upon the revenues of the project and shall never be reckoned in determining the powers of the county to issue any bonds, payable in whole or in part from taxes, for any purpose authorized by law. Each such bond payable solely from the revenues of a project shall contain this clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation." All bonds issued hereunder may be presented to the Attorney General for his approval in the same manner and with like effect as is provid-ded for the approval of tax bonds issued by counties.
In such case the bonds shall be registered by the State Comptroller as in the case of other county bonds. But notwithstanding any limitations in this Act or in the law which it amends, any county proceeding hereunder after this amendatory Act becomes effective may issue bonds for such purpose secured by any one of the following methods:

(a) Solely by the pledge of revenues as prescribed hereinafter in this Section and elsewhere in Chapter 304, Acts of the Regular Session of the Fiftieth Legislature, as amended; 1 or

(b) A pledge of and payable from either an ad valorem tax levied under Article 8, Section 9 of the Constitution, or an unlimited ad valorem tax authorized under Article 8, Section 52 of the Constitution and laws enacted pursuant thereto; or

(c) A designated part of the bonds to be secured solely by a pledge of revenues as provided under sub-section (a) and a designated part of the bonds to be secured by pledges of such ad valorem tax as provided under sub-section (b) of this Section; or

(d) A combination of the methods prescribed under sub-sections (a) and (b) wherein all of the bonds are to be supported and secured by such ad valorem tax with the duty imposed on the County to collect tolls for use of the facilities so long as any of the bonds are outstanding so that in the manner to be prescribed in the bond resolution or the trust indenture the amount of the tax to be collected from time to time may be reduced or abated to the extent that the reve-ues from the operation of the facilities are sufficient to meet the requirements for operation and maintenance and to provide funds for the bonds as prescribed in the indenture.

But no such bonds wholly or partially supported by an ad valorem tax shall be issued unless and unti they shall have been authorized at an election at which the question of their issuance shall have been submitted.

Pooled Projects

Sec. 2a. Any two or more projects constructed by a county proceeding hereunder may, upon the adoption of a resolution approving the same, duly passed by the Commissioners Court, be pooled and designated as a "pooled project." Any existing project or projects may be pooled in whole or in part with any new project or projects thereof. After being so designated, such "pooled project" shall become a "project" as used in Chapter 304, Acts of the Regular Session of the Fiftieth Legislature, 1947, as amended. No project may be pooled more than once. Consistent with the resolution or order providing for the issuance of the bonds or the trust indenture securing the same, the resolution of the Commissioners Court shall set a date certain when each of the projects being authorized to be pooled shall be available for the free use of the public.
Subject to the terms of any such bond resolution or trust indenture, any county proceeding hereunder is authorized to issue from time to time bonds of the county as hereinbefore authorized, including bonds which are payable either in whole or in part from the revenues of a pooled project, for the purpose of
(i) paying all or any part of the cost of such pooled project or the cost of any part of such pooled project, (ii) paying the costs of constructing improvements, extensions, or enlargements to all or any part of any pooled project, or (iii) refunding any bonds then outstanding issued on account of any pooled project or any part of any pooled project, including the payment of any redemption premium thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of re redemption of such bonds, and, if deemed advisable by the Commissioners Court, paying the costs of constructing improvements, extensions, and enlargements to the pooled project or to any part of any pooled project in connection with which or in connection with any part of which bonds to be refunded shall have been issued. Revenues of all or any part of such pooled project may be pledged to the payment of such bonds. Improvements, extensions, or enlargements to be paid from refunding bonds is­ due may have been issued but may be constructed in whole or in part on other parts of the pooled project not covered by the bonds to be refunded. Within the discretion of the issuing county, refunding bonds issued hereunder may be issued in exchange for outstanding bonds or may be sold and the proceeds used for the purpose of redeeming outstanding bonds. Any county having previously designated a "pooled project" may from time to time, subject to the terms of any bond resolution or trust indenture, add to, delete from, or otherwise amend the extent or component parts of any pooled project, which pooled project as so amended shall be and become a project as used in Chapter 304, Acts of the Regular Session of the Fiftieth Legislature, Regular Session, 1947, as amended.

Contract or Agreement for Project Construction, Acquisition, etc.; Project Feasibility Studies and Surveys

Sec. 3a. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, any county proceeding hereunder may contract or agree with any other county, city, village, town, special district, or any other legally constituted political subdivision or agency of the State of Texas, or any combination of these, to construct, acquire, improve, operate, and maintain a project. Any such contract or agreement may provide for joint ownership of the project or for title to the project to be in any one of the contracting parties. In addition, any contracting county proceeding hereunder may issue its bonds, as authorized herein, for the purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of a project which said county is obligated to pay under any such contract or agreement. Any contract or agreement entered into under this section may contain any terms and extend for any period of time to which the parties can agree, and may provide that it will continue in effect until bonds specified in it and refunding bonds issued in lieu of those bonds are paid. If any such contract or agreement so provides, payments made thereunder shall be operating and maintenance expenses of the project, and the revenues derived from operation of such project may be pledged to such payment.

If on the effective date of this amendment any agency of the State of Texas has expended funds in the amount of $75,000 or more for the purpose of conducting studies and surveys or making other investigations for the purpose of determining the feasibility and practicability of constructing a toll project, a county proceeding hereunder may not, without the consent of such state agency, assume sole responsibility for the construction, acquisition, improvement, operation, and maintenance of the project and thereby exclusively preempt the state agency from constructing such project; provided, however, that the foregoing restriction set forth in this sentence shall not apply to any county proceeding hereunder if such county has given the state agency written notice by certified mail of its intention to proceed with construction, acquisition, improvement, operation, and maintenance of the project and the state agency has failed or refused for any reason within six months from the date of such notice to issue its bonds in the amount required to pay the cost of the project.
Sec. 4. The bonds issued hereunder may be authorized by resolution at one time or from time to time. If such bonds are payable in whole or in part from the revenues to be derived from the operation of the project, it shall be the mandatory duty of the authorized by resolution at one time or from time to impose such tolls and charges for use of the project as will be fully sufficient, when taken with any other funds or revenues available for such purposes, to pay the maintenance and operating expenses which are charged against the revenues of the project, to pay the principal of and premium, if any, and interest on the bonds when due, to establish such reserve therefor as may be provided, and to establish an adequate fund for depreciation and replacement. As to such bonds which are payable either in whole or in part from the revenues to be derived from the operation of a project, the operating and maintenance expenses of the project which shall be charged against the revenues of the project shall include only such items as are set forth and defined in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such bonds. The Commissioners Court shall have full discretion in fixing the details of the bonds authorized to be issued hereunder and in determining the manner of sale thereof, provided that the bonds, whether term, serial, or combination thereof, shall mature not more than forty (40) years from their date. The bonds may contain such mandatory or optional redemption provisions and may mature in such manner and at such prices as may be determined by the Commissioners Court prior to the issuance of the bonds. All bonds issued hereunder shall and are hereby declared to have all of the qualifications and incidents of negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instruments Law of Texas. Provision may be made for registration of such bonds as to principal or interest or both. The proceeds of the bonds shall be used solely to pay the cost of the project as above defined, and shall be disbursed under such restrictions as may be provided in the bond resolution or trust indenture hereinafter mentioned, and there shall be and is hereby created and granted a lien upon such moneys until so applied in favor of the holders of the bonds or any trustee provided for in respect of such bonds. Unless otherwise provided in such resolution or indenture, if the proceeds of the bonds prove insufficient to pay the cost of the project, additional bonds may be issued to the amount of the deficit and shall be deemed to be of the same issue and entitled to payment from the same fund without preference or priority of the bonds first issued. Any surplus remaining from bond proceeds after the cost of the project has been paid in full shall be used in paying interest on and retiring bonds unless otherwise provided in the bond resolution or trust indenture. Prior to the issuance of definitive bonds, interim bonds, with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds may be issued. Such bonds may be authorized and issued without any proceedings or the happening of any conditions or things or the publication of any proceedings or notices other than those specifically specified and required by this Act, and may be authorized and issued without regard to the requirements, restrictions, or procedural provisions contained in any other law. The resolution authorizing the bonds may provide that such bonds shall contain a recital that they are issued pursuant to this Act and such recital shall be conclusive evidence of their validity and the regularity of their issuance.

If so provided by the Commissioners Court, the bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the county and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or outside of the State of Texas. Such trust indenture may pledge or assign tolls and revenues but shall not convey or mortgage the project itself or any part thereof. Either the resolution providing for the issuance of the bonds or such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the county in relation to the acquisition of properties and the construction, maintenance, operation, repair, and insurance of the project, and the custody, safeguarding, and application of all moneys. It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company in this State to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the project and to furnish such indemnity bonds or to pledge such securities as may be required by the county. Such bond resolution or indenture may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and of the trustee and may restrict the individual rights of action of the bondholders. In addition to the foregoing, such bond resolution or trust indenture may contain such other provisions as the Commissioners Court may deem reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders including, but without limitation, covenants prescribing all happenings or occurrences which constitute events of default and the terms and conditions upon which any or all of the bonds shall become or may be declared to be due before maturity and as to the rights, liabilities, powers and duties arising upon the breach by the county of any of its duties or obligations.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 5 and 5a]

Operating Board

Sec. 5b. Any county proceeding hereunder, upon a determination by the Commissioners Court thereof that a project could be developed, constructed, operated, and managed better and more efficiently by an operating board, may provide for the appointment of such an operating board. An operating board so appointed shall have and may exercise, subject to such limitations and restrictions as may be prescribed by the Commissioners Court, the same power and authority, including the power of eminent domain, as may be exercised by the Commissioners Court in regard to the development, construction, operation, and management of a project; provided, however, that an operating board appointed hereunder shall not have the power to tax or to borrow money. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such an operating board shall have the power and authority, subject to the restrictions and limitations prescribed by the Commissioners Court, to design the project, to acquire necessary lands or rights-of-way or other property for the project by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, to establish and revise from time to time the rates and tolls charged for use of said project, to establish and prescribe the methods, systems, procedures, and policies for the operation, maintenance, and use of the project, and to employ consultants, attorneys, engineers, financial advisors, agents, and other employees or contractors in connection with the development, construction, operation, and management of the project.

Bonds for Payment of Outstanding Toll Bridge Revenue Bonds

Sec. 8a. When any county has heretofore issued or may hereafter issue bonds under authority of Chapter 304, Acts of the Regular Session of the Fiftieth Legislature, 1947, as amended payable from the revenues derived from tolls collected for the use of a project and which bonds are also payable from such limitations and restrictions as may be prescribed by the Commissioners Court in regard to the development, construction, operation, and management of a project; provided, however, that an operating board appointed hereunder shall not have the power to tax or to borrow money. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such an operating board shall have the power and authority, subject to the restrictions and limitations prescribed by the Commissioners Court, to design the project, to acquire necessary lands or rights-of-way or other property for the project by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, to establish and revise from time to time the rates and tolls charged for use of said project, to establish and prescribe the methods, systems, procedures, and policies for the operation, maintenance, and use of the project, and to employ consultants, attorneys, engineers, financial advisors, agents, and other employees or contractors in connection with the development, construction, operation, and management of the project.

[Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., ch. 861, §§ 1 to 7, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Section 8 of the 1977 amendatory act provided:

"If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, or part of this Act shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, it shall not affect any other word, phrase, clause, sentence, or part of this Act, and such remaining portions shall remain in full force and effect."

Art. 6795c. Toll Bridges in Counties Bordering River Between Texas and Mexico

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 1 and 2]

Tolls, Fees and Charges; Power of County to Collect; Purpose of Tolls

Sec. 3. Any such county thus acquiring any such toll bridge or bridges or constructing a new toll bridge shall have power, through its Commissioners Court as expressed by appropriate resolution or order thereof, to fix and to enforce and collect tolls, fees and charges for the use thereof, and for the passage or transportation of persons or property, passengers, vehicles, freight and commodities, over and across such toll bridge or bridges. Such tolls, fees and charges shall be fixed from time to time by the Commissioners Court of such county and collected under its direction in accordance with the provisions and requirements of any permits or franchises granted or extended by any governmental authority in respect of or applicable thereto; and, subject to the provisions and requirements of such permits or franchises, such tolls, fees and charges shall be just and reasonable and non-discriminatory, as determined by the Commissioners Court of such county, and, subject to the provisions and requirements of any such permits and franchises, shall be sufficient to at least produce revenues adequate:

(a) To pay all expenses necessary for the maintenance and operation of such toll bridge or bridges, and to comply with the requirements and make all payments necessary under the provisions of any such permits and franchises thereafter;

(b) To pay the interest on and the principal of all bonds and/or warrants issued under this Act, when and as the same shall become due and payable;

(c) To pay all sinking fund and/or reserve fund payments agreed to be made in respect of any such bonds and/or warrants, and, payable out of such revenues, when and as the same shall become due and payable; and

(d) To fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of such bonds and/or warrants and/or with any person in their behalf;

(e) To recover a reasonable rate of return on invested capital;

(f) Out of the revenues which may be received in excess of those required for the purposes specified in (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) above, the Commissioners Court of any such county may in its discretion use such excess revenues for any or all of the following:

(1) to establish a reasonable depreciation and emergency fund;
Art. 6795c

ROADS, BRIDGES, AND FERRIES

(2) to retire by purchase and cancellation or redemption any outstanding bonds or outstanding warrants issued under the authority of this Act and amendments thereto;
(3) to provide needed budgetary support to local government for legitimate public purposes and for the general welfare;
(4) to apply the same to accomplish the purposes of this Act and amendments thereto;

(g) It is the intention of this Act that the tolls, fees and charges herein provided for shall be those necessary to fulfill all obligations imposed by this Act and amendments thereto, and shall be sufficient to produce revenues to comply with the above subparagraphs (a), (b), (e), (d), (e), and (f). Nothing herein shall be construed as depriving the State of Texas or the United States of America, or other appropriate agencies having jurisdiction, of its power to regulate and control tolls and charges to be collected for such purposes, provided that the State of Texas does hereby pledge to and agree with the purchasers and successive holders of the bonds and/or warrants issued hereunder that the State will not limit or alter the power hereby vested in any such county and the Commissioners Court thereof to establish and collect such tolls and charges as will produce revenues sufficient to pay the items specified in subparagraph (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f) of this Section 3 of this Act, or exercise its powers in any way which may impair the rights or remedies of the holders of the bonds and/or warrants, or of any person acting in their behalf until the bonds and/or warrants, together with interest thereon and with interest on unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any acts or proceedings by or on behalf of the bondholders and/or warrant holders and all other obligations of any such county is connection with such bonds and/or warrants are fully met and discharged.

(b) This section shall apply to international toll bridges now in existence and owned by a county or that may be acquired or controlled by a county in the future.

Operating Board

Sec. 3a. Any such county acquiring any such toll bridge or bridges, upon a determination by the Commissioners Court thereof that the same could be better and more efficiently operated by an operating board, may provide by either the resolution or order providing for the issuance of bonds or the trust indenture securing same that such toll bridge or bridges will be operated by an operating board to be appointed as provided in such resolution, order, or trust indenture and with such powers, except the power of eminent domain and the power to borrow money, as may be granted by such resolution, order, or trust indenture.

CHAPTER SIX. PARTicular COUNTIES LAW RELATING TO

Art. 6812f. Road Improvements and Assessments by Galveston County Commissioners Court

Improvements Authorized

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court of Galveston County may cause to be improved any county road in the county, whether by filling, grading, raising, paving, or repairing in a permanent manner, or by constructing, reconstructing, repairing, or realigning curbs, gutters, and sidewalks, or by constructing drains and culverts.

Constitutional Basis

Sec. 2. This Act is a local law relating to the maintenance of public roads authorized by Article VIII, Section 9, of the Texas Constitution.

Assessments Against Property Owners; Liens

Sec. 3. (a) The commissioners court by order may assess all or any part of the cost of constructing, reconstructing, repairing, or realigning curbs, gutters, and sidewalks, and not more than nine-tenths of the cost of any other improvements authorized by this Act, against property abutting on the portion of the county road to be improved, and against the owners of that property. The commissioners court may provide the time, terms, and conditions of payment and default of the assessments, and may prescribe the rate of interest on them, which may not exceed eight percent a year.

(b) Any assessment against abutting property is a first and prior lien on the property from the date improvements are ordered, and is a personal liability and charge against the owner or owners of the property, whether named or not. Nothing in this Act empowers the commissioners court to fix a lien against any interest in property that is exempt at the time the improvements are ordered, but the owner or owners of the property are personally liable for any assessment in connection with the property.
Sec. 4. The part of the cost of improvements on each portion of the county road ordered improved which is assessed against abutting property and owners of the property shall be apportioned among the parcels of abutting property and the owners thereof in accordance with the front foot plan or rule, except that if the application of this rule would, in the judgment of the commissioners court, in particular cases, result in injustice or inequity, the commissioners court may apportion and assess the costs against abutting property owners in a manner that the commissioners court determines is just and equitable, so as to produce a substantial equality of benefits received and burdens imposed. Provided, however, it is expressly found and determined that railroad rights-of-way will not benefit from such improvements and may not be assessed therefor.

Certificates
Sec. 5. (a) The commissioners court may order the issuance of assignable certificates in evidence of assessments levied, declaring the lien on the property and the liability of the true owner or owners of the property, and may fix the terms and conditions of the certificates. Any certificate that recites substantially that the proceedings referred to in it have occurred in compliance with law and that all prerequisites to the fixing of the assessment lien against the property described in the certificate and the personal liability of the owner or owners of the property have been performed, is prima facie evidence of all matters recited in the certificate, and no further proof of the matters is required.

(b) In any suit on an assessment or reassessment in evidence of which a certificate may be issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act, it is sufficient to allege the substance of the recitals in the certificate and that the recitals are in fact true. Further allegations as to the proceedings relating to the assessment or reassessment are not necessary.

(c) The assessments are collectable with interest, expense of collections, and reasonable attorney's fee, if any are incurred, and are a first and prior lien on the property assessed, superior to all other liens and claims except county, school district, and city ad valorem taxes, and are a personal liability and charge against owners of the property assessed.

Joint Assessments
Sec. 6. Assessments against several parcels of property may be made in one assessment when owned by the same person, firm, corporation, or estate, and property owned jointly may be assessed jointly.

Estimate
Sec. 7. No assessment is valid unless the commissioners court makes or causes to be made an estimate of the cost of the improvement or improvements to be constructed, and the estimate is included in any published or mailed notice of the public hearing required by this Act.

Public Hearing and Notice
Sec. 8. (a) No assessment may be made against any abutting property or its owners until after notice and opportunity for hearing has been provided in accordance with this Act, and no assessment may be made against any abutting property or owners of it in excess of the special benefits to the property and owners resulting from the enhanced value of the property by means of the improvement, as may be determined at the hearing.

(b) Notice shall be by advertisement inserted at least three times in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, the first publication to be made at least 21 days before the date of the hearing. Additional written notice of the hearing shall be given by depositing in the United States mail, at least 14 days before the date of the hearing, postage prepaid, in an envelope addressed to the owners of the respective properties abutting the county road to be improved, as the names of the owners are shown on the tax records of the county, at the addresses listed there. To be sufficient and binding on any person owning or claiming the abutting property, or any interest in it, the mailed notice must describe in general terms the nature of the improvements for which assessments are to be levied, the county road or portion of it to be improved, the estimated cost per front foot proposed to be assessed against the property and the owner or owners of the property, the estimated total cost of the improvement or improvements, and the time and place of the hearing. The notice to be mailed may be a copy of the public notice, which must contain all of the information required for a mailed notice to be sufficient and binding. If the owner is listed on the county tax roll as "unknown," no notice is required to be mailed. If the owner is shown on the county tax roll as an estate, the mailed notice may be addressed to the estate.

(c) The commissioners court shall hold the hearing. Any person owning abutting property or any interest in it may be heard at the hearing on any matter relating to the improvement or assessment, including the amount of the proposed assessment or assessments, the lien and liability created by it, the special benefits to the abutting property and owners of the property by the improvements for which assessments are to be levied, and the accuracy, sufficiency, regularity, and validity of the proceedings and contract in connection with the improvements and proposed assessments.

(d) The commissioners court may correct any errors, inaccuracies, irregularities, and invalidities, and may supply any deficiencies, and may determine the amount of assessments and all other matters necessary, and may levy the assessments before, during, or after the construction of the improvements, except no part of any assessment may be made to mature prior to acceptance by the county of the improvements for which the assessment is levied.

Appeal

Sec. 9. Any person owning or claiming any interest in any property assessed under the provisions of this Act, who desires to contest any assessment because of the amount of it or any inaccuracy, irregularity, invalidity, or insufficiency of the proceedings or contract with reference to it, or with reference to the improvements, or because of any matter or thing not in the discretion of the commissioners court, may appeal to a district court in the county within 15 days after the time the assessment is levied. Any person who fails to institute suit within this time shall be held to have waived every matter that might have been heard at the hearing before the commissioners court, and shall be barred and estopped from contesting or questioning the assessment or any matter relating to it, and the only defense to any assessment in a suit to enforce it is that the notice of hearing was not mailed or delivered as required by this Act, was not published, or did not contain the information required by this Act, or that the assessments exceeded the amount of the estimate. No words or acts of any officer or employee of the county, or any member of the commissioners court, shall in any way affect the force and effect of the provisions of this Act.

Changes in Proceedings

Sec. 10. The commissioners court may provide for any changes in plans, methods, or contracts for improvements, but any change substantially affecting the nature or quality of any improvements may be made only after it is determined by a four-fifths vote of the commissioners court that it is not practical to proceed with the improvement as previously provided, and following any such vote, the commissioners court may make the substantial change only after first obtaining the consent of the person, firm, or corporation with which the commissioners court has contracted for construction of the improvements, and after obtaining a new estimate for the cost of the improvements and holding a new hearing, together with the issuance of proper notice as required by this Act. The commissioners court may at any time abandon any improvement with the consent of the person, firm, or corporation constructing the improvements, and shall by order cancel any assessments levied for abandoned improvements.

Correction

Sec. 11. If any assessment is for any reason held or determined to be invalid or unenforceable, the commissioners court may supply any deficiency in proceedings and correct any mistake or irregularity relating to the assessment, and may at any time make and levy reassessments after notice and hearing as nearly as possible in the manner provided by this Act for the original improvements. Recitals in certificates issued in evidence of reassessments shall have the same force as provided for recitals relating to original assessments.

Art. 6823a. Travel Regulations Act of 1959

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 1]

Application of Act

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall apply to all officers, heads of state agencies, state employees, and prospective state employees incurring expenses when requested to visit a state agency, department, or institution of higher education for the purpose of being interviewed and evaluated for employment. Heads of state agencies shall mean elected state officials, excluding members of the Legislature who shall receive travel reimbursement as provided by the Constitution, appointed state officials, appointed state officials whose appointment is subject to Senate confirmation, directors of legislative interim committees or boards, heads of state hospitals and special schools, and heads of state institutions of higher education.

Basis of Reimbursement or Advance; Per Diem and Transportation Allowance; Rate and Computation; Revolving Petty Cash Fund

Sec. 3. a. A reimbursement or advance from funds appropriated by the Legislature for traveling and other necessary expenses incurred by the various officials, heads of state agencies, and employees of the state in the active discharge of their duties shall be on the basis of either a per diem or actual expenses as specifically fixed and appropriated by the Legislature in General Appropriation Acts. A per diem allowance shall mean a flat daily rate payment in lieu of actual expenses incurred for meals and lodging and as such shall be legally construed as additional compensation for official travel purposes only.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 3b]

c. All agencies, boards, commissions, departments, and institutions are authorized to establish a revolving petty cash fund out of funds in the State Treasury or local funds in accordance with Section 6, Subsection g of this Article. The sole purpose of the petty cash fund shall be to advance projected travel expense. This fund shall be reimbursed by warrants drawn and approved by the Comptroller of Public Accounts out of funds in the State Treasury or checks drawn against funds held outside the treasury.

Advanced Approval of Governor; Travel Outside United States

Sec. 5. Any travel connected with official business of the state for which reimbursement for travel expenses incurred is claimed or for which an advance for travel expenses to be incurred is sought, with the exception of travel to, in, and from the several states, United States possessions, Mexico, and Canada, must have the advance written approval of the Governor. Blanket authority by the Governor may be given to the International Trade Development Division personnel of the Texas Industrial Commission and to the Department of Public Safety to law enforcement personnel.

Rules and Regulations; Standard Expense Account Forms; Reimbursement or Advance Payment for Travel by Private Conveyance; Overpayment

Sec. 6.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 6a]

b. Standard expense account forms shall be used by all state agencies in preparing the expense accounts for traveling state employees. Such forms shall contain information stating

(1) the point of origin and the town, place or point of destination of each trip and the reimbursable mileage travelled, or projected, between each point, town, or place. This provision shall also apply to intra-city mileage;

(2) the actual period of time the employee is away, or plans to be away, from his designated headquarters entitling him to travel expenses; and

(3) a brief statement which clearly shows the purpose of the trip and the character of official business performed or to be performed.

c. In determining transportation reimbursement or advance payment for travel by private conveyance, the Comptroller shall determine the mileage by shortest highway distance between point of origin and the destination via intermediate points at which official state business is conducted and other necessary mileage at points where official state business is conducted. In determining the amounts of reimbursement or advance payment for transportation by personal car within the State, the Comptroller shall compute all distances according to the shortest route between points. In determining the amount of reimbursement or advance payment for transportation by personal car within this state, the Comptroller shall adopt a mileage guide including a chart of distances showing the shortest route between points, and which shall include all Farm-to-Market roads and shall be reissued annually.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 6d]

e. When two, three, or four officials or employees of the same state agency with the same itinerary on the same dates are required to travel on the same official state business for which travel reimbursement for mileage in a personal car is claimed, or for which an advance payment is sought, a payment will be claimed and allowed for only one of the employees except as provided hereafter. To the extent of mileage claimed, the Comptroller shall consider such travel claims as multiple claims and may pay only one such claim. If more than four employees attend such meeting or conference in more than one car, full mileage shall be allowed for one car for each four employees and for any fraction in excess of a multiple of four employees. If, in any instance, it is not feasible for these officials or employees to travel in the same car, then prior official approval from the head of the state department or agency shall be obtained and shall be considered as authorization and the basis for reimbursement, or advance payment, for travel for each person authorized to use his personal car in such travel.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 6f]

g. The Comptroller shall, by promulgation of appropriate rules and regulations, establish a procedure by which a state officer or employee may receive in advance the projected travel expense to be incurred in a particular exercise of official duties. The Comptroller shall require a final accounting after the actual travel expense has been determined to provide for reimbursement and adjustment, as necessary, to equalize the allowance and the actual expense incurred.

Double Travel Expense Payments; Compensation by Non-state Agency

Sec. 7. Double travel expense payments to state officials or employees are prohibited. When an employee engages in travel for which he is to be compensated by a non-state agency, he shall not receive any reimbursement, and may not seek an advance payment, for such travel from authorized amounts in the General Appropriation Acts.

Local Transportation Allowance; Limits

Sec. 8. An employee whose duties customarily require travel within his designated headquarters may be authorized a local transportation allowance for this travel. Such allowance, however, may not exceed the transportation allowance for use of a privately owned automobile as set by the Legislature in the General Appropriations Acts, except that an employee with a physical handicap which precludes his personal operation of a privately owned automobile may, without regard to the standard otherwise set in the General Appropriations Acts, be authorized a reasonable transportation allowance not to exceed the amount to which such handicapped employee would be entitled for similar travel occurring outside of his designated headquarters.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of 9]

Public Conveyances; Courtesy Cards

Sec. 10. The provisions of this Act shall not preclude reimbursement of claims, or requests for advance payments, by officials or employees for use of public conveyances. Transportation is authorized by courtesy cards for air, rail and bus lines.

ART. 6840. GROUNDS FOR ISSUANCE AND DISSOLUTION

Sec. 1. (a) Judges of the district and county courts and justices of the peace shall, at the commencement or during the progress of any civil suit, before final judgment, have power to issue writs of sequestration, returnable to their respective courts, in the cases and upon the grounds provided for in Subsections (b) through (e) of this section.

(b) When a person sues for the title or possession of any personal property or fixtures of any kind or kind or sues for the foreclosure or enforcement of a mortgage or lien or security interest upon personal property of fixtures of any type or kind, a writ of sequestration may be issued if a reasonable conclusion may be drawn that there is immediate danger that the defendant or party in possession thereof will conceal, dispose of, ill-treat, waste, or destroy such property, or remove the same out of the limits of the county during the pendency of the suit.

(c) When a person sues for the title or possession of real property or sues for the foreclosure or enforcement of a mortgage or of a lien on real property, a writ of sequestration may be issued if a reasonable conclusion may be drawn that there is immediate danger that the defendant or party in possession thereof will make use of his possession to injure or ill-treat such property or waste or convert to his own use the timber, rents, fruits, or revenue thereof.

(d) A writ of sequestration may be issued when any person sues for the title or possession of any property from which he has been ejected by force or violence.

(e) A writ of sequestration may be issued when any person sues to try the title to any real property, or to remove cloud upon the title to such real property, or to foreclose a lien upon any such real property, or for a partition of real property, and makes oath that the defendant or either of them, in the event there be more than one defendant, is a nonresident of this state.

Sec. 2. The application for the issuance of the writ shall be made under oath and shall set forth specific facts stating the nature of the plaintiff's claim, the amount in controversy, if any, and the facts justifying the issuance.

Sec. 3. (a) When a writ of sequestration has been issued as provided in this article and the rules of civil procedure, the defendant may seek a dissolution of the writ by written motion filed with the court.

(b) A hearing on the motion to dissolve the writ shall be held and the issue determined not later than 10 days after the motion to dissolve is filed, unless the parties agree to an extension of time. At the hearing, the writ shall be dissolved unless the party who secured the issuance of the writ proves the specific facts alleged and the grounds relied upon for its issuance.

(c) If the writ is dissolved, the action shall proceed as if no writ had been issued except that an action for damages for wrongfully securing the issuance of the writ must be brought as a compulsory counterclaim. In addition to all other elements of damages, the party moving to dissolve the writ may recover his reasonable attorney's fees incurred in the dissolution of the writ.

(d) If the writ is dissolved and the personal property sought to be subjected to the writ is consumer goods, as that term is defined in the Texas Business and Commerce Code, the defendant or the party in possession shall be entitled to damages which shall be reasonable attorney's fees and the greatest of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), the finance charge contracted for, or actual damages. No damages may be awarded for the failure of the plaintiff to prove by a preponderance of the evidence the specific facts alleged and such failure is a result of a bona fide error. For a bona fide error to be available as a defense, the plaintiff must prove the use of reasonable procedures to avoid such error.

(e) A motion to dissolve the writ is cumulative of the right of replevy, and the filing of the motion to dissolve shall stay any further proceedings under the writ until a hearing is had, and the issue is determined.

Sec. 4. Requisites of Writ of Sequestration. There shall be prominently displayed on the face of the writ, in 10-point type and in a manner calculated... to advise a reasonably attentive person of its contents, the following:

"YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO REGAIN POSSESSION OF THE PROPERTY BY FILING A 'REPLEVY' BOND."

"YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO SEEK TO REGAIN POSSESSION OF THE PROPERTY BY FILING WITH THE COURT A MOTION TO DISOLVE THIS WRIT."

Sec. 4. In this Act

(1) "Disaster" means the occurrence or imminent threat of widespread or severe damage, injury, or loss of life or property resulting from any natural or man-made cause, including fire, flood, earthquake, wind, storm, wave action, oil spill or other water contamination, volcanic activity, epidemic, air contamination, blight, drought, infestation, explosion, riot, hostile military or paramilitary action, or other public calamity requiring emergency action.

(2) "Political subdivision" means a county or incorporated city.

(3) "Organized volunteer groups" means organizations such as the American National Red Cross, the Salvation Army, Civil Air Patrol, Radio Amateur Civil Emergency Services, and other similar organizations recognized by federal or state statute, regulation, or memorandum.

(5) "Interjurisdictional agency" means a county government and the government of the city which is the county seat, the governments of a group of municipalities within a single county, or the government of a single county and the governments of all or any number of municipalities in that county.

The Governor and Disaster Emergencies

Sec. 5. (a) The governor is responsible for meeting the dangers to the state and people presented by disasters.

(b) Under this Act, the governor may issue executive orders, proclamations, and regulations and amend or rescind them. Executive orders, proclamations, and regulations have the force and effect of law.

(c) The governor may establish by executive order a Disaster Emergency Services Council to advise and assist him in all matters relating to disaster preparedness, emergency services, and disaster recovery. The Disaster Emergency Services Council is composed of the heads of state agencies, boards, and commissions and representatives of organized volunteer groups.

(d) A disaster emergency may be declared by executive order or proclamation of the governor if he finds a disaster has occurred or that the occurrence or the threat of disaster is imminent. The state of disaster emergency continues until the governor finds that the threat or danger has passed or the disaster has been dealt with to the extent that emergency conditions no longer exist and terminates the state of disaster emergency by executive order, but no state of disaster emergency may continue for longer than 30 days unless renewed by the governor. The legislature by law may terminate a state of disaster emergency at any time. On termination by the legislature, the governor shall issue an executive order ending the state of disaster emergency. All executive orders or proclamations issued under this subsection shall indicate the nature of the disaster, the area threatened, and the conditions which have brought it about or which make possible termination of the state of disaster emergency. An executive order or proclamation shall be disseminated promptly by means calculated to bring its contents to the attention of the general public and, unless the circumstances attendant on the disaster prevent or impede, promptly filed with the State Division of Disaster Emergency Services, the secretary of state, and the county clerk or city secretary in the area or areas to which it applies.

(e) An executive order or proclamation setting forth a state of disaster emergency activates the disaster response and recovery aspects of the state, local, and interjurisdictional disaster emergency plans applicable to the political subdivision or area in question and is authority for the deployment and use of any forces to which the plan or plans apply and for use or distribution of any supplies, equipment, and materials and facilities assembled, stockpiled, or arranged to be made available pursuant to this Act or any other provision of law relating to disaster emergencies.

(f) During the continuance of any state of disaster emergency and the pursuant recovery period, the governor is commander-in-chief of state agencies, boards, and commissions having emergency responsibilities. To the greatest extent practicable, the governor shall delegate or assign command authority by prior arrangement embodied in appropriate executive orders or plans, but nothing in this Act restricts his authority to do so by orders issued at the time of the disaster emergency.

(g) In addition to any other powers conferred on the governor by law, he may

(1) suspend the provisions of any regulatory statute prescribing the procedures for conduct of state business or the orders, rules, or regulations of any state agency if strict compliance with the provisions of any statute, order, rule, or regulation would in any way prevent, hinder, or delay necessary action in coping with the emergency;

(2) utilize all available resources of the state government and of each political subdivision of the state which are reasonably necessary to cope with the disaster emergency;

(3) temporarily reassign direction, personnel, or functions of state executive departments and

1 42 U.S.C.A. §§ 5121 et seq., 5174.
agencies or their units for the purpose of performing or facilitating emergency services;

(4) subject to any applicable requirements for compensation under Section 13 of this Act, commandeer or utilize any private property if he finds this necessary to cope with the disaster emergency;

(8) suspend or limit the sale, dispensing, or transportation of alcoholic beverages, firearms, explosives, and combustibles;

(9) enter into purchase, lease, or other arrangements with an agency of the United States for temporary housing units to be occupied by disaster victims and to make units available to any political subdivision of the state;

(10) assist any political subdivision which is the locus of temporary housing for disaster victims to acquire sites necessary for temporary housing and to do all things required to prepare the site to receive and utilize temporary housing units by advancing or lending funds available to the governor from any appropriation made by the legislature or from any other source; “passing through” funds made available by any agency, public or private; or becoming a copartner with the political subdivision for the execution and performance of any temporary housing for disaster victims project;

(11) under such regulations as he shall prescribe, temporarily suspend or modify for not to exceed 60 days any public health, safety, zoning, transportation within or across the state, or other requirement of law or regulation within this state when by proclamation he deems the suspension or modification essential to provide temporary housing for disaster victims;

(12) on his determination that a local government of the state has or will suffer a substantial loss of tax and other revenues from a major disaster and has demonstrated a need for financial assistance to perform its governmental functions, apply to the federal government on behalf of the local government for a loan, receive and disburse the proceeds of any approved loan to any applicant local government, determine the amount needed by any applicant local government to restore or resume its governmental functions, certify that to the federal government provided that no application amount may exceed 25 percent of the annual operating budget of the applicant for the fiscal year in which the major disaster occurs, and recommend to the federal government, based on his review, the cancellation of all or any part of repayment when in the first three full fiscal-year periods following the major disaster the revenues of the local government are insufficient to meet its operating expenses, including additional disaster-related expenses of a municipal operation character;

(13) through the use of state departments or agencies or the use of any of the state's instrumentalities, clear or remove from publicly or privately owned land or water, debris and wreckage that may threaten public health or safety or public or private property in any disaster emergency declared by the governor or major disaster as declared by the President of the United States;

(14) accept funds from the federal government and utilize the funds to make grants to any local government for the purpose of removing debris or wreckage from publicly or privately owned land or water;

(15) on his determination that financial assistance is essential to meet disaster-related necessary expenses or serious needs of individuals or families adversely affected by a major disaster which cannot be otherwise adequately met from other means of assistance, accept a grant by the federal government to fund financial assistance, subject to terms and conditions as may be imposed on the grant, and enter into an agreement with the federal government or any officer or agency of the United States pledging the state to participate in funding not more than 25 percent of the financial assistance authorized in this subsection;

(16) make financial grants to meet disaster-related necessary expenses or serious needs of individuals or families adversely affected by a major disaster which cannot otherwise adequately be met from other means of assistance, which shall not exceed an aggregate amount in excess of that established by federal statute to an individual or family in any single major disaster declared by the President of the United States; and

(17) make rules and regulations as are necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act, including standards of eligibility for persons applying for benefits, procedures for applying and administration, methods of investigation, filing, and approving applications, and formation of local or statewide boards to pass on applications and procedures for appeals.
Art. 6889-7

STATE AND NATIONAL DEFENSE

(h) The governor may designate the Texas Department of Public Welfare or other state agency to carry out the functions of providing financial aid to individuals or families qualified for disaster relief. The governor may allocate funds appropriated under this Act to implement the purposes of this Act.

(i) Nothing in this Act may be construed to limit the governor's authority to apply for, administer, or expend any grant, gift, or payment in aid of disaster prevention, preparedness, response, or recovery.

(j) No debris or wreckage from public or private property may be removed until the affected local government, corporation, organization, or individual presents an unconditional authorization for removal to the governor. No debris or wreckage may be removed from private property until the state is indemnified against any claim arising from removal. Whenever the governor provides for clearance of debris or wreckage under the provisions of this Act, state employees or other individuals acting by authority of the governor may enter on private land or water to perform tasks necessary to the removal or clearance operation. Except in cases of willful misconduct, gross negligence, or bad faith, a state employee or agent performing his duties while complying with orders of the governor issued under the provisions of this Act shall not be liable for the death of or injury to persons or damage to property.

(k) Any political subdivision of this state is expressly authorized to acquire, temporarily or permanently, by purchase, lease, or otherwise, sites required for installation of temporary housing units for disaster victims and to enter into whatever arrangements (including purchase of temporary housing units and payment of transportation charges) which are necessary to prepare or equip the sites to utilize the housing units.

State Division of Disaster Emergency Services

Sec. 6. (a) A Division of Disaster Emergency Services is established in the office of the governor. The division shall have a director appointed by and shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. The division shall have coordinating and planning officers and other professional, technical, secretarial, and clerical employees necessary for the performance of its functions.

(b) The Division of Disaster Emergency Services shall prepare and maintain a comprehensive state disaster plan and keep it current. The plan may include

1. provisions for prevention and minimization of injury and damage caused by disaster;
2. provisions for prompt and effective response to disaster;
3. provisions for emergency relief;
4. identification of areas particularly vulnerable to disasters;
5. recommendations for zoning, building, and other land-use controls, safety measures for securing mobile homes or other nonpermanent or semipermanent structures, and other preventive and preparedness measures designed to eliminate or reduce disasters or their impact;
6. provisions for assistance to local officials in designing local emergency action plans;
7. authorization and procedures for the erection or other construction of temporary works designed to protect against or mitigate danger, damage, or loss from flood, conflagration, or other disaster;
8. preparation and distribution to the appropriate state and local officials of state catalogs of federal, state, and private assistance programs;
9. organization of manpower and channels of assistance;
10. coordination of federal, state, and local disaster activities;
11. coordination of the state disaster plan with the disaster plans of the federal government; and
12. other necessary matters relating to disasters.

(c) The Division of Disaster Emergency Services shall take an integral part in the development and revision of local and interjurisdictional disaster plans prepared under Section 8 of this Act. To this end it shall employ or otherwise secure the services of professional and technical personnel capable of providing expert assistance to political subdivisions, their disaster agencies, and interjurisdictional planning and disaster agencies. These personnel shall consult with subdivisions and agencies on a regularly scheduled basis and shall make field reviews of the areas, circumstances, and conditions to which particular local and interjurisdictional disaster plans are intended to apply and may suggest revisions.

(d) In preparing and revising the state disaster plan, the Division of Disaster Emergency Services shall seek the advice and assistance of local government, business, labor, industry, agriculture, civic, and volunteer organizations and community leaders. In advising local and interjurisdictional agencies, the Division of Disaster Emergency Services shall encourage them to seek advice from the sources.

(e) The state disaster plan or any part of it may be incorporated in regulations of the Division of Disaster Emergency Services or executive orders which have the force and effect of law.

(f) The Division of Disaster Emergency Services shall

1. determine requirements of the state and its political subdivisions for food, clothing, and other necessities in event of an emergency;
(2) procure and pre-position supplies, medicines, materials, and equipment;
(3) promulgate standards and requirements for local and interjurisdictional disaster plans;
(4) periodically review local and interjurisdictional disaster plans;
(5) provide for mobile support units;
(6) establish and operate or assist political subdivisions, their disaster agencies, and interjurisdictional disaster agencies to establish and operate training programs and programs of public information;
(7) make surveys of public and private industries, resources, and facilities in the state which are necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act;
(8) plan and make arrangements for the availability and use of any private facilities, services, and property and provide for payment for use under terms and conditions agreed on if the facilities are used and payment is necessary;
(9) establish a register of persons with types of training and skills important in emergency prevention, preparedness, response, and recovery;
(10) establish a register of mobile and construction equipment and temporary housing available for use in a disaster emergency;
(11) prepare, for issuance by the governor, executive orders and regulations necessary or appropriate in coping with disasters;
(12) cooperate with the federal government and any public or private agency or entity in achieving any purpose of this Act and in implementing programs for disaster prevention, preparation, response, and recovery; and
(13) do other things necessary, incidental, or appropriate for the implementation of this Act.

Financing

Sec. 7. (a) It is the intent of the legislature and declared to be the policy of the state that funds to meet disaster emergencies always be available.

(b) The Disaster Emergency Funding Board, which is composed of the governor, the lieutenant governor, the chairman of the State Board of Insurance, the commissioner of the State Department of Public Welfare, and the director of the Division of Disaster Emergency Services, is established.

(c) A disaster contingency fund is established which shall receive money appropriated by the legislature.

(d) It is the legislative intent that the first recourse shall be to funds regularly appropriated to state and local agencies. If the governor finds that the demands placed on these funds in coping with a particular disaster are unreasonably great, he may with the concurrence of the Disaster Emergency Funding Board make funds available from the Disaster Contingency Fund.

(e) Whenever the federal government or any other public or private agency or individual offers to the state or through the state to any political subdivision of the state, services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds as gifts, grants, or loans for purposes of emergency services or disaster recovery, the governor, if required by the donor, and the political subdivision through its executive officer or governing body may accept the offer in behalf of the state or its political subdivision. The governor or his designated agent is authorized to accept the same when a public calamity or disaster has occurred. Where any gift, grant, or loan is accepted by the state, the governor or on his designation the State Disaster Emergency Services Council or the State Coordinator of Disaster Emergency Services may dispense the gift, grant, or loan directly to accomplish the purpose for which it was made or allocate and transfer to any political subdivision of this state, services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds in the amount he or his designated agent may determine. All these funds received by the state shall be placed in a special fund or funds and shall be disbursed by warrants issued by the comptroller of public accounts on order of the governor or his designated agent, who may be named by him either in a written agreement accepting the funds or in a written authorization filed with the secretary of state. Where the funds are to be used for the purchase of equipment, supplies, or commodities of any kind, it is not necessary that bids be obtained or that the purchases be approved by any other agency. On receipt of an order for disbursement, the comptroller shall issue a warrant without delay. Political subdivisions are authorized to accept and utilize all services, equipment, supplies, materials, and funds to the full extent authorized by the agreement under which they are received by the state or by the political subdivision.

Local and Interjurisdictional Disaster Agencies and Services

Sec. 8. (a) Each political subdivision within this state is within the jurisdiction of and served by the Division of Disaster Emergency Services and by a local or interjurisdictional agency responsible for disaster preparedness and coordination of response.

(b) Each county shall maintain a disaster agency or participate in a local or interjurisdictional agency responsible for disaster agency which, except as otherwise provided under this Act, has jurisdiction over and serves the entire county or interjurisdictional area.

(c) The governor shall determine which municipal corporations need disaster agencies of their own and shall recommend that they be established and maintained. He shall make his determinations on the basis of the municipality’s disaster vulnerability and capability of response related to population size and concentration. The disaster agency of a county shall cooperate with the disaster agencies of municipalities situated within its borders but shall not have jurisdiction in a municipality having its own disaster agency. The Division of Disaster Emergency Services shall publish and keep current a list of municipalities required to have disaster agencies under this subsection. Nothing in this subsection may be construed as limiting the constitutional and statutory powers of local governments.

(d) The governor may recommend that a political subdivision establish and maintain a disaster agency jointly with one or more contiguous political subdivisions if he finds that the establishment and maintenance of any agency or participation in it is made necessary by circumstances or conditions that make it unusually difficult to provide disaster prevention, preparedness, response, or recovery services under other provisions of this Act.

(e) Each political subdivision which does not have a disaster agency and has not made arrangements to secure or participate in the services of an agency shall have a liaison officer designated to facilitate the cooperation and protection of that subdivision in the work of disaster prevention, preparedness, response, and recovery.

(f) The mayor, county judge, or other principal executive officer of each political subdivision in the state shall notify the Division of Disaster Emergency Services of the manner in which the political subdivision is providing or securing disaster planning and emergency services, identify the person who heads the agency from which the service is obtained, and furnish additional pertinent information that the division requires.

(g) Each local and interjurisdictional agency shall prepare and keep current a local or interjurisdictional disaster emergency plan for its area.

(h) The local or interjurisdictional disaster agency shall prepare in written form and distribute to all appropriate officials a clear and complete statement of the emergency responsibilities of all local agencies and officials and of the disaster channels of assistance.

(i) A political subdivision may make appropriations for disaster emergency services as provided by law for making appropriations for ordinary expenses of the political subdivisions and may enter into agreements for the purpose of organizing disaster emergency service divisions, provide for a mutual method of financing the organization of units on a basis satisfactory to the political subdivisions, and render aid to other subdivisions under mutual aid agreements provided that the functioning of said units shall be coordinated by the State Disaster Emergency Services Council. For the payment of the cost of any equipment, construction, acquisition, or any improvements for carrying out the provisions of this Act, counties and incorporated cities and towns may issue time warrants. These time warrants shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 163, General Laws, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1931, as amended (Article 2368a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes). Time warrants shall not be issued for financing permanent construction or improvements for disaster emergency services purposes except on the right of a referendum vote as provided in Section 4, Chapter 163, General Laws, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1931, as amended (Article 2368a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

Establishment of Interjurisdictional Disaster Planning and Service Areas

Sec. 9. (a) If the governor finds that two or more adjoining counties would be better served by an interjurisdictional arrangement than by maintaining separate disaster agencies and services, he may delineate by executive order or regulation an interjurisdictional area adequate to plan for, prevent, or respond to disaster in that area and direct steps to be taken as necessary, including the creation of an interjurisdictional relationship, a joint disaster emergency plan, mutual aid, or an area organization for emergency planning and services. A finding of the governor pursuant to this subsection shall be based on one or more factors related to the difficulty of maintaining an efficient and effective disaster prevention, preparedness, response, and recovery system on a unijurisdictional basis, such as

1. small or sparse population;
2. limitations on public financial resources severe enough to make maintenance of a separate disaster agency and services unreasonably burdensome;
3. unusual vulnerability to disaster as evidenced by a past history of disasters, topographical features, drainage characteristics, disaster potential, and presence of disaster-prone facilities or operations;
4. the interrelated character of the counties in a multicounty area; or
5. other relevant conditions or circumstances.

(b) If the governor finds that a vulnerable area lies only partly within this state and includes territory in another state or states or territory in a foreign jurisdiction and that it would be desirable to establish an interstate or international relationship, mutual aid, or an area organization for disaster, he shall take steps to that end as desirable. If this action is taken with jurisdictions that have enacted the Interstate Civil Defense and Disaster Compact (Article 6889–5, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), any resulting agreement or agreements may be considered supplemental agreements pursuant to Article 6 of that compact.

(c) If the other jurisdiction with which the governor proposes to cooperate pursuant to Subsection (b) of this section has not enacted that compact, he may negotiate special agreements with the jurisdiction. Any agreement, if sufficient authority for its making does not otherwise exist, becomes effective only after its text has been communicated to the legislature and provided that neither house of the legislature has disapproved it by adjournment of the next ensuing session competent to consider it or within 30 days of its submission, whichever is longer.

Intergovernmental Arrangements

Sec. 10. (a) This state has enacted into law and enters into the Interstate Civil Defense and Disaster Compact (Article 6889–5, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes) with all states, as defined in that Act, bordering this state which have enacted or may enact the compact in the form substantially contained in Chapter 312, Acts of the 52nd Legislature, 1951 (Article 6889–5, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

(b) The governor may enter into the compact with any state which does not border this state if he finds that joint action with that state is desirable in meeting common intergovernmental problems of emergency disaster planning, prevention, response, and recovery.

(c) Nothing in Subsections (a) and (b) of this section may be construed to limit previous or future entry into the Interstate Civil Defense and Disaster Compact of this state with other states.

(d) If any person holds a license, certificate, or other permit issued by any state or political subdivision of any state evidencing the meeting of qualifications for professional, mechanical, or other skills, the person may render aid involving the skill in this state to meet an emergency or disaster, and this state shall give due consideration to the license, certificate, or other permit.

Local Disaster Emergencies

Sec. 11. (a) A local disaster emergency may be declared only by the governing body of a political subdivision. It may not be continued or renewed for a period in excess of seven days except by or with the consent of the governing body of the political subdivision. Any order or proclamation declaring, continuing, or terminating a local disaster emergency shall be given prompt and general publicity and shall be filed promptly with the city secretary or county clerk as applicable.

(b) The effect of a declaration of a local disaster emergency is to activate the response and recovery aspects of any and all applicable local or interjurisdictional disaster emergency plans and to authorize the furnishing of aid and assistance under the declaration.

(c) No interjurisdictional agency or its official may declare a local disaster emergency unless expressly authorized to do so by the agreement pursuant to which the agency functions. However, an interjurisdictional disaster agency shall provide aid and services in accordance with the agreement pursuant to which it functions.

Disaster Prevention

Sec. 12. (a) In addition to disaster prevention measures as included in the state, local, and interjurisdictional disaster plans, the governor shall consider on a continuing basis steps that could be taken to prevent or reduce the harmful consequences of disasters. At his direction and pursuant to any other authority and competence they have, state agencies including but not limited to those charged with responsibilities in connection with floodplain management, stream encroachment and flow regulation, weather modification, fire prevention and control, air quality, public works, land use and land-use planning, and construction standards shall make studies of disaster-prevention-related matters. The governor from time to time shall make recommendations to the legislature, local governments, and other appropriate public and private entities as may facilitate measures for prevention or reduction of the harmful consequences of disasters.

(b) The Water Development Board and other state agencies in conjunction with the Division of Disaster Emergency Services shall keep land uses and construction of structures and other facilities under continuing study and identify areas which are particularly susceptible to severe land shifting, subsidence, flood, or other catastrophic occurrence. The studies undertaken under this subsection shall concentrate on means of reducing or avoiding the dangers caused by this occurrence or its consequences.

(c) If the Division of Disaster Emergency Services believes on the basis of the studies or other competent evidence that an area is susceptible to a disaster of catastrophic proportions without adequate warning, that existing building standards and land-use controls in that area are inadequate and could add substantially to the magnitude of the disaster, and that changes in zoning regulations, other land-use regulations, or building requirements are essential in order to further the purposes of this section, it shall specify the essential changes to the governor. If the governor on review of the recommendations finds after public hearing that the changes are essential, he shall make appropriate recommendations to the agencies or local governments with jurisdiction over the area and subject matter. If no action or insuffi-
Compensation

Sec. 13. (a) Each person in this state shall conduct himself and keep and manage his affairs and property in ways that will reasonably assist and will not unreasonably detract from the ability of the state and the public successfully to meet disaster emergencies. This obligation includes appropriate personal service and use or restriction on the use of property in time of disaster emergency. This Act neither increases nor decreases these obligations but recognizes their existence under the constitution and statutes of this state and the common law. Compensation for services or for the taking or use of property shall be only to the extent that obligations recognized in this Act are exceeded in a particular case and then only to the extent that the claimant may not be deemed to have volunteered his services or property without compensation.

(b) No personal services may be compensated by the state or any subdivision or agency of the state except pursuant to statute or ordinance.

(c) Compensation for property shall be made only if the property was commandeered or otherwise used in coping with a disaster emergency and its use or destruction was ordered by the governor or a member of the disaster emergency forces of this state.

(d) Any person claiming compensation for the use, damage, loss, or destruction of property under this Act shall file a claim for compensation with the Division of Disaster Emergency Services in the form and manner the Division of Disaster Emergency Services provides.

(e) Unless the amount of compensation on account of property damaged, lost, or destroyed is agreed between the claimant and the Division of Disaster Emergency Services, the amount of compensation shall be calculated in the same manner as compensation due for taking of property pursuant to the condemnation laws of this state.

(f) Nothing in this section applies to or authorizes compensation for the destruction or damaging of standing timber or other property in order to provide a firebreak or to the release of water or the breach of impoundments in order to reduce pressure or other danger from actual or threatened flood, or contravention of Article I, Section 17, of the Texas Constitution, or statutes pertaining to that section.

Communications

Sec. 14. The Division of Disaster Emergency Services shall ascertain in cooperation with the Criminal Justice Council or its successor agency what means exist for rapid and efficient communication in times of disaster emergencies. The division shall consider the desirability of supplementing these communication resources or of integrating them into a comprehensive state or state-federal telecommunication or other communication system or network. In studying the character and feasibility of any system or its several parts, the division shall evaluate the possibility of their multipurpose use for general state and local governmental purposes. The division shall make recommendations to the governor as appropriate.

Mutual Aid

Sec. 15. (a) Political subdivisions not participating in interjurisdictional arrangements pursuant to this Act nevertheless shall be encouraged and assisted by the Division of Disaster Emergency Services to conclude suitable arrangements for furnishing mutual aid in coping with disasters. The arrangements shall include provision of aid by persons and units in public employ.

(b) In reviewing local disaster plans, the governor or his agent shall consider whether they obtain adequate provisions for the rendering and receipt of mutual aid.

(c) It is a sufficient reason for the governor or his agent to require an interjurisdictional agreement or arrangement pursuant to Section 9 of this Act that the area involved and political subdivisions in it have available equipment, supplies, and forces necessary to provide mutual aid on a regional basis and that the political subdivisions have not already made adequate provision for mutual aid, but in requiring the making of an interjurisdictional arrangement to accomplish the purpose of this section, the governor need not require establishment and maintenance of an interjurisdictional agency or arrangement for any other disaster purposes.

Weather Modification

Sec. 16. The Division of Disaster Emergency Services shall keep continuously apprised of weather conditions which present danger of precipitation or other climatic activities service enough to constitute a disaster. If the division determines that precipitation that may result from weather modification operations, either by itself or in conjunction with other precipitation or climatic conditions or activity, would create or contribute to the severity of a disaster, it shall request in the name of the governor that the officer or agency empowered to issue permits for weather modification operations suspend the issuance of the permits. On the governor's request, no permits may be issued until the division informs the officer or agency that the danger has passed.

Sec. 17. Property damage insurance covering state facilities may be purchased by agencies of the state when necessary to qualify for federal disaster assistance funds. If sufficient funds are not available for the required insurance, then the agency may petition the Disaster Emergency Funding Board to purchase the insurance in the agency's behalf. The board may expend money from the Disaster Contingency Fund to purchase the required insurance.

Sec. 18. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act, and to this end the provisions of this Act are held to be severable. All plans, regulations, and executive orders and proclamations not in conflict herewith are continued in full force and effect.

Sec. 19. The Texas Disaster Act of 1973 (Article 6889-6, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) is repealed.

Art. 6910b. Payment for Livestock Purchased for Slaughter

Definitions

Sec. 1. As used in this Act, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following words and phrases shall have the meaning ascribed to them in this section:

(a) "Livestock" means cattle, sheep, goats, or hogs.
(b) "Meat Processor" means a person, corporation, association, or other legal entity engaged in the business of slaughtering cattle, sheep, goats, or hogs, and processing or packaging them for sale as meat.

Method and Time of Payment

Sec. 2. A meat processor who purchases livestock from a seller, or any person, corporation, association, or other legal entity who purchases livestock from a seller for slaughter, shall make payment by cash or check for the purchase price of the livestock and actually deliver the cash or check to the seller or his representative at the location where the purchase takes physical possession of the livestock on the day the transfer of possession occurs or shall wire transfer of funds on the business day within which the possession of said livestock is transferred; provided that if the transfer of possession is accomplished after normal banking hours, said payment shall be made in the manner herein provided not later than the close of the first business day following said transfer of possession. In the case of "grade and yield" selling, the purchaser shall make payment by wire transfer of funds not later than the close of the first business day following determination of "grade and yield." Provided, however, that an alternate method of payment may be made by an agreement in writing between the owner of the livestock and the purchaser thereof, or their respective representatives with express authority; that such agreement must state that it may be cancelled at any time by either party, from and after which cancellation, payment as herein provided shall be required. No such agreement shall alter any other provision of this or any other section of this Act.

Further, all instruments issued in payment hereunder shall be drawn on banks which are so located as to not to artificially delay collection of funds through mail or otherwise cause a lapse of undue time in the clearance process.

Penalty for Noncompliance

Sec. 3. In all cases where a purchaser who purchases livestock for slaughter from a seller shall fail to make payment for such livestock as herein provided or shall artificially delay collection of funds for the payment of such livestock, such purchaser shall be liable to pay the owner of such livestock, in addition to the price of the livestock, twelve percent (12%) damages on the amount of such price, together with interest on the purchase price of the livestock at the highest legal rate from and after the transfer of possession until payment is made as herein provided, together with a reasonable attorneys' fee for the prosecution of collection of such payment.

Lien to Secure Sales Price

Sec. 4. Any person, partnership, firm, corporation, or other organization who sells livestock for slaughter shall have a lien on such animal, its carcass, all products therefrom, and proceeds thereof to secure all or a part of its sales price.
Attachment and Perfection of Lien

Sec. 5. The lien provided herein shall be deemed to have attached and to be perfected upon delivery of the livestock to the purchaser without further action, and such lien shall continue in the livestock, its carcass, all products therefrom, and proceeds thereof without regard to possession thereof by the party entitled to such lien without further perfection.

Lien on Commingled Livestock, Carcasses or Products

Sec. 6. If the livestock or its carcass or products therefrom are so commingled with other livestock, carcasses, or products therefrom so that the identity thereof is lost, then the lien herein granted shall extend to the same effect as if same had been perfected originally in all such animals, carcasses, and products with which it has become commingled; provided, however, that all liens so extended under this section to such commingled livestock, carcasses, and products shall be on a parity with one another, and provided further that with respect to such commingled carcasses or products upon which a lien or liens have been so extended under this section, no such lien shall be enforceable as against any purchaser without actual knowledge thereof purchasing one or more of such carcasses or products in the ordinary course of trade or business from the party having commingled such carcasses or products, nor against any subsequent transferee from such purchaser, but in the event of such sale, such lien shall instead extend to the proceeds of such sale.

Priority of Lien

Sec. 7. The lien provided for in this article shall have priority over any other lien or perfected security interest in the livestock, its carcass, all products therefrom, and proceeds thereof not granted hereunder.

Severability

Sec. 8. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Sec. 3. (a) In administering the program, the experiment station may:

(1) require the registration of all hatcheries and hatchery supply flocks;

(2) examine, test, monitor, and collect samples from any flock, whether a hatchery supply flock or not, if the flock is suspected of being infected or a potential source of infection;

(3) examine, test, monitor, and collect samples from any hatchery supply flock;

(4) enter premises where flocks are kept or eggs are hatched as necessary to carry out the administration of this Act; and

(5) promulgate rules necessary to the control and eradication of pullorum disease and fowl typhoid.

(b) If a person conducting an inspection of premises under Subdivision (4) of Subsection (a) of this section desires to be accompanied by a peace officer, he may apply to any magistrate in the county where the property is located for the issuance of a search warrant. In applying for the warrant, he shall describe the premises or place to be entered and shall by oath or affirmation give evidence of probable cause to believe that entry is necessary for the control or eradication of pullorum disease or fowl typhoid. The application for the warrant and the warrant itself need only describe the property or premises in terms sufficient to enable the owner or caretaker to know what property is referred to in the documents. The warrant entitles the person to whom it is issued to be accompanied by a peace officer and by assistants. The issuing magistrate may not charge court costs or other fees for the issuance of this warrant.

Quarantine

Sec. 4. (a) If the experiment station determines that any part of a flock is infected, it shall certify that information to the commission, and the commission shall verify the infection and immediately quarantine part or all of the flock. The commission shall give notice of the quarantine in the same manner as provided by law for the quarantine of other livestock and fowl. The commission shall also order a cessation in the sale, movement, or exhibition of any quarantined poultry or eggs and may seek an injunction to enforce any order concerning infected flocks.

(b) A quarantined flock shall be disposed of in a manner prescribed by the commission. If disposal involves movement to a state or federally inspected poultry processing establishment, the commission shall issue a certificate to accompany the flock. When the flock is disposed of and other measures necessary to the control and eradication of pullorum disease and fowl typhoid are taken, the commission shall remove the quarantine.

(c) The owner of a quarantined flock is entitled to a retesting of his flock before its disposal.
Public Exhibitions

Sec. 5. All poultry entered in public exhibition shall originate from flocks or hatcheries free of pullorum disease and fowl typhoid or have a negative pullorum-typhoid test within 90 days before exhibition. Chickens or turkeys entered in public exhibition shall be accompanied by a certificate of purchase from the hatchery.

Assistance of Flock Owner

Sec. 6. The owner of a flock shall assist the experiment station and the commission in handling the poultry and shall pen and present them on request.

Fee

Sec. 7. Neither the experiment station nor the commission may charge a fee for any testing or laboratory examination provided for under this Act.

Penalty

Sec. 8. Any person who refuses to comply with an order of the commission or experiment station concerning infected flocks or who refuses to admit a person with a search warrant obtained as provided in Section 2 of this Act is guilty of a Class C misdemeanor. Each day of refusal constitutes a separate offense.

7425a–3. Authority of Fiduciaries and Custodians Regarding Certain Securities [NEW].
7425d–1. Death Benefits Under Employees' Trusts [NEW].

IN GENERAL

Art. 7425a–3. Authority of Fiduciaries and Custodians Regarding Certain Securities

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Fiduciary" has the meaning given it in Section 1, Chapter 1002, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1971 (Article 7425a–2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and includes a state or national bank acting in a fiduciary capacity.

(2) "Clearing corporation" has the meaning given it in Section 8.102, Business and Commerce Code, as amended.

Sec. 2. In the absence of contrary or limiting provisions in the court order or decree appointing a fiduciary, or in a subsequent order or decree, or in the will, deed, or other instrument appointing a fiduciary, any fiduciary holding securities in its fiduciary capacity, and any bank, trust company, or private banker holding securities as a custodian for a fiduciary or as a managing agent or custodian, is authorized if a member of the Federal Reserve System to deposit, or arrange for the deposit if not a member of the Federal Reserve System, with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, of any securities the principal and interest of which the United States or any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States has agreed to pay or has guaranteed payment. A bank, trust company, or private banker so depositing securities with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas shall be subject to such rules with respect to making and maintenance of the deposit as, in the case of state chartered or private banking institutions, the Finance Commission of Texas, and, in the case of national banking associations, the Comptroller of the Currency, may from time to time issue. The records of the fiduciary, bank, trust company, or private banker shall at all times show the ownership of securities held in such an account.

The Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas may apply book entry procedures to the securities in such an account, whereby the ownership of and other interests in the securities may be transferred by entries on the books of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas without physical delivery of the securities. A bank, trust company, or private banker acting as custodian for a fiduciary, on demand by the fiduciary, shall certify in writing to the fiduciary the securities so deposited by the bank, trust company, or private banker with the Federal Reserve Bank. Any fiduciary or any bank, trust company, or private banker acting as fiduciary, custodian, custodian for a fiduciary, or managing agent, on demand by any party to its accounting or on demand by the attorney for the party, shall certify in writing to the party the securities so deposited by the bank, trust company, or private banker with the Federal Reserve Bank.

Sec. 3. (a) In the absence of contrary or limiting provisions in the court order or decree appointing a fiduciary, or in a subsequent order or decree, or in the will, deed, or other instrument appointing a fiduciary, any fiduciary holding securities in its fiduciary capacity, and any bank, trust company, or private banker holding securities as custodian, custodian for a fiduciary, or managing agent is authorized to deposit or arrange for the deposit, either in this state or elsewhere, of such securities in a clearing corporation, irrespective of whether the clearing corporation is domiciled, located, has any office or place of business, or is licensed or authorized to do business in this state. When the securities are so deposited, certificates representing securities of the same class of the same issuer may be merged and held in bulk in the name of the nominee of the clearing corporation with any other securities deposited in the clearing corporation by any person, regardless of the ownership of the securities, and certificates of small denomination may be merged into one or more certificates of larger denomination. The records of the fiduciary and the records of the bank, trust company, or private banker acting as a custodian for a fiduciary, managing agent, or custodian shall at all times show the name of the party for whose account the securities are so deposited. Ownership of, and other interests in, the securities may be transferred by entries on the books of the clearing corporation.
without physical delivery of certificates representing the securities. A bank, trust company, or private banker so depositing securities pursuant to this Act shall be subject to such rules as, in the case of state chartered or private banking institutions, the Finance Commission of Texas, and, in the case of national banking associations, the Comptroller of the Currency, may from time to time issue. A bank, trust company, or private banker acting as custodian for a fiduciary, on demand by the fiduciary, shall certify in writing to the fiduciary the securities so deposited by the bank, trust company, or private banker in the clearing corporation for the account of the fiduciary. Any fiduciary or any bank, trust company, or private banker acting as fiduciary, custodian for a fiduciary, custodian, or managing agent, on demand by any party to its accounting or on demand by the attorney for the party, shall certify in writing to the party the securities deposited by the fiduciary, bank, trust company, or private banker with the clearing corporation.

(b) As between the fiduciary and the beneficial owner of securities deposited by the fiduciary in a clearing corporation, the fiduciary is liable for any loss occasioned by the acts or omissions of the clearing corporation, but nothing in this Act affects the liabilities as between the fiduciary and the clearing corporation.

Sec. 4. (a) This Act applies to any fiduciary holding securities in its fiduciary capacity and to any bank, trust company, or private banker holding securities as fiduciary, custodian for a fiduciary, custodian, or managing agent, acting on the effective date of this Act or thereafter, regardless of the date of the agreement, instrument, or court order by which it is appointed and regardless of whether or not the fiduciary, custodian for a fiduciary, managing agent, or custodian owns capital stock of the clearing corporation.

(b) This Act does not apply to securities held by any fiduciary, bank, trust company, or private banker on behalf of any domestic insurance company, unless the prior express approval of the State Board of Insurance is obtained. The State Board of Insurance may grant that approval generally to all domestic insurance companies or specifically to individual domestic insurance companies on a case-by-case basis.

UNIFORM COMMON TRUST FUND ACT

Art. 7425b-48. Uniform Common Trust Fund Act
Sec. 1. Establishment of common trust funds. (a) Any bank or trust company qualified to act as fiduciary in this State may establish common trust funds for the purpose of furnishing investments to itself as fiduciary, including itself as custodian under the Uniform Gifts to Minors Act, as amended (Article 5923-101, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), or to itself and others, as cofiduciaries; and may, as such fiduciary or cofiduciary, invest funds which it lawfully holds for investment in interests in such common trust funds, if such investment is not prohibited by the instrument, judgment, decree, or order creating such fiduciary relationship, and if, in the case of cofiduciaries, the bank or trust company procures the consent of its cofiduciaries to such investment. Any bank or trust company which is a member of an affiliated group, as defined in Section 1504 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended (26 U.S.C. Section 1504), with a bank or trust company maintaining common trust funds may participate in one or more of those funds as though they were maintained by the participating bank or trust company.

(b) A common trust fund includes a fund qualified for exemption from federal income taxation as a common trust fund and maintained exclusively for eligible fiduciary accounts and also includes a fund consisting solely of assets of retirement, pension, profit sharing, stock-bonus, and other employees' trusts that are exempt from federal income taxation.

Art. 7425d-1. Death Benefits Under Employees' Trusts

Definitions
Sec. 1. When used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Death benefits" means benefits of any kind, including, but not limited to, proceeds of life-insurance policies of which a trustee of an employees' trust is beneficiary and other payments, in cash or property, pursuant to an employees' trust (or contract purchased by such a trust) or pursuant to a retirement-annuity contract, payable on account of an employee's death to or for the benefit of his beneficiary.

(b) "Employees' trust" means a trust forming a part of a stock-bonus, pension, or profit-sharing plan described in Section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and pension trusts described in Article 7425d, Title 125A, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes.
TRUSTS AND TRUSTEES

Sec. 2. Death benefits may be made payable to a trustee of a trust, the terms of which are evidenced by a written instrument or declaration of trust in existence on the date of the death of the employee, if such trustee is designated as beneficiary in accordance with the terms of the plan of which the employees' trust is a part or in accordance with the terms of the retirement-annuity contract. Such death benefits shall be held, administered, and disposed of in accordance with the terms of the trust created by such will, regardless of when created.

Sec. 3. Death benefits may be made payable to a trustee named, or to be named, as trustee of a trust created by a will of the employee, if such trustee is designated as beneficiary in accordance with the terms of the plan of which the employees' trust is a part or in accordance with the terms of the retirement-annuity contract.

Sec. 4. In the event no trustee makes claim to the death benefits within a period of one year after the date of death of the employee or if satisfactory evidence is furnished to a trustee or other fiduciary of the employees' trust or other obligor within such one-year period that there is or will be no trustee to receive the death benefits, payment of such death benefits shall be made as required or permitted by such employee's beneficiary designation, the plan of which the employees' trust is a part, or the retirement-annuity contract, and failing such other designation or provision in such plan or contract, such death benefits shall be paid to the personal representative of the deceased employee as a part of such deceased employee's estate.

Sec. 5. Unless the trust agreement, declaration of trust, or will provides otherwise, death benefits paid to a trustee in accordance with Sections 2, 3, and 4 of this Act (i) shall not be deemed part of the deceased employee's estate, (ii) shall not be subject to any obligation to pay debts of the deceased employee or his estate or other charges enforceable against such estate, and (iii) shall not be subject to any obligation to pay any taxes enforceable against the deceased employee's estate to any greater extent than if such death benefits were payable, free of, trust, to beneficiaries other than the executor or administrator of the estate of the deceased employee.

Sec. 6. Death benefits paid to a trustee in accordance with Sections 2, 3, or 4 of this Act may be commingled with any other assets accepted by such trustee either before or after receipt of such death benefits, and held in trust.

Sec. 7. Nothing in this Act shall affect the validity of any beneficiary designation heretofore made by an employee, in accordance with the terms of the plan of which the employees' trust is a part or in accordance with the terms of the retirement-annuity contract, naming a trustee of a trust under a trust agreement, declaration of trust, or under a will as beneficiary of death benefits.

Sections 2, 3, and 4 of this Act may be applied to death benefits payable to a trustee of a trust created by a will of an employee, if such will has been probated at the death of the employee and the death benefits shall be payable to such trustee to be held, administered, and disposed of in accordance with the terms of the trust created by such will.
Sec. 8. This Act shall, insofar as possible, be deemed declaratory of the common law of the State of Texas and shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the intent that death benefits received by a trustee of a trust under a trust agreement, declaration of trust, or will are not subject to the obligations of the employee or of his estate unless such trust expressly provides otherwise. Neither a reference in any will to any death benefits nor the naming of the trustee of a trust created by a will shall cause such death benefits to be included in the property administered as a part of the testator's estate or require inclusion of such death benefits in any inventory filed with the county court.

Sec. 2. A veterinarian who, on his own initiative or at the request of a person other than the owner, renders emergency treatment to an ill or injured animal is not liable to the owner for damages to the animal except in cases of gross negligence. Confidentiality of Records: Fraudulent Claims or Claimants

Sec. 9a. (a) Information in a worker's claim file is confidential and may not be disclosed except as provided in this section.

(b) If there is a workers' compensation claim for the named claimant open or pending before the Industrial Accident Board or on appeal to a court of competent jurisdiction from the Board or which is the subject matter of a subsequent suit where the carrier is subrogated to the rights of the named claimant at the time a record search or request for information is presented to the Board, the information shall be furnished as provided in this section. The first, middle, and last name of the claimant, age and social security number, and, if possible, dates of injury and the names of prior employers must be given in the request for information by the requesting party. The Board will furnish the requested information or a record check only to the following:

1. the claimant;
2. the attorney for the claimant;
3. the carrier;
4. the employer at the time of the current injury;
5. third-party litigants; or
6. the State Board of Insurance.

A third-party litigant in a suit arising out of an occurrence with respect to which a workers' compensation claim was filed is entitled to the information without regard to whether or not the compensation claim is still pending.

c) All information of the Industrial Accident Board concerning any person who has been finally adjudicated to be a fraudulent claimant as provided in this section is not confidential and shall be furnished to any person requesting the information, notwithstanding any other provision of this law.

d) The Board shall release to any employer with whom a person has made application for employment within the 14 days prior to the request the date of injury and nature of injury to that person if that person has had three or more general injury claims filed in the preceding five years in which weekly compensation payments have been made. The request for information shall give the name, address, and social security number of the person about whom information is sought. The Board shall release this information only if the employer has written authorization from the person about whom information is sought. The Board shall release the information by telephone, but the employer must file the written authorization with the Board within 10 days after the information is released. If the employer requests information about three or more persons at the same time, the Board may refuse to release the information except on written request from the employer and receipt of the written authorization from each person about whom the information is sought. An employer who receives the information but fails to file the authorization within the required period is guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be fined not more than $1,000. Failure to file each authorization is a separate offense.

e)(1) The attorney general shall promptly investigate any allegation of fraud on the part of an employer, employee, attorney, person or facility furnishing medical services authorized by Section 7 of Article 8306, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, or insurance company or its representative relating to any claim. In order to carry out the requirements of this section, the attorney general is vested with complete power to investigate and prosecute any and all allegations of fraudulent claim practices which may be submitted to the Board or which may be discovered through the attorney general's own efforts. The attorney general shall cooperate with professional grievance committees, law enforcement officials, the Industrial Accident Board, and other state agencies in the investigation and prosecution of fraudulent practices. It shall be the responsibility of the attorney general to prosecute those cases in which he finds the reasonable probability that acts of fraud exist before all hearings of the Board or on appeal from the determination of such hearings.

(2) In those cases in which a claimant makes a fifth claim for compensation within any five-year period, the Board shall automatically notify the attorney general who shall investigate to determine if the probability of fraud exists in connection with the current claim or any of the prior claims.

(3) If the attorney general finds that a reasonable probability of fraud exists, the attorney general shall request a hearing and the Board shall set the matter for hearing. On the setting of this matter, the Board shall promptly notify the person under investigation, as well as the other parties involved in the case, in writing of the allegation against him and of his rights to attend and offer evidence at the hearing. This notice must be mailed by certified mail to the last known address of the person, must state the time and place for the hearing, which shall be within 45 days after determination by the attorney general that the probability of fraudulent acts exists and must notify the person of his right to counsel and his right of access to the complete Board files relating to the claim or claims under investigation. This notice shall be forwarded to the person, return receipt requested, acknowledging receipt at least 30 days before the hearing. Any investigation initiated under this section shall be concluded within 60 days unless by a unanimous vote of the Board the time is extended, which in no event may be more than an additional 60 days.

(f) In addition to the powers granted under Section 4 of this article, as amended, the Board or any member thereof has the power to compel the attendance of witnesses, take evidence, and require the production of any records in conjunction with this hearing. The person under investigation has the same power to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of records and documents.

(g) After this hearing, the Board shall reduce its findings to writing and provide the person under investigation, as well as the other parties involved in the case, with a copy. If the Board determines that the claimant has been fraudulent in any or all of his claims for compensation, the Board shall then classify that claimant as a fraudulent claimant, which classification is final unless appealed by the claimant as provided in this section. If the Board determines that any other person except an employer under investigation has been fraudulent in connection with a claim for compensation, the Board may exercise its authority under Section 4 of this article, as amended, or report its findings to the appropriate professional grievance committee, law enforcement officials, or other state agencies for prosecution, or both. An employer who has been adjudicated to be fraudulent shall be subject to the provisions of Chapter 115, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1971 (Article 8307c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as if he had discriminated against an employee for filing a claim. Actions taken by the Board in accordance with this procedure may be appealed by the aggrieved person by trial de novo to a district court of competent jurisdiction in the county of his residence, whose final judgment shall be determinative of his classification as a fraudulent claimant. Appeal shall be in accordance with Section 5 of this article, as amended.

(h) Pending an investigation and hearing or appeal of allegations of fraud under this section, the Board may not approve a compromise settlement agreement or make a final award in connection with the worker's claims then pending before the Board.

(i) If any worker shall be finally adjudicated to be a fraudulent claimant, the Board may terminate any compensation which the fraudulent claimant is currently drawing and require repayment to the association of any amounts so drawn.

(j) If any worker is finally adjudicated to be a fraudulent claimant, that fact shall automatically be furnished to any employer, any insurance carrier, or any attorney for the claimant as regards all claims then pending before the Board and as regards all future claims which that claimant may thereafter file with the Industrial Accident Board; otherwise, the Board shall process the claim as generally provided under the workers' compensation law.

(k) Nothing in the preceding sections shall diminish the power of the Industrial Accident Board on its own initiative to investigate or punish fraudulent acts.

(l) This section does not give authority to withhold information from committees of the legislature to use for legislative purposes.

(m) Any information pertaining to a worker's compensation file which is confidential by virtue of any of the terms of this Act shall retain such confidentiality when released to any investigative, legislative, or law enforcement agency including the attorney general, district attorneys, grand juries, or legislative committees. Any individual who shall

Sec. 10. (a) Said Board or any member thereof may hold hearings or take testimony or make investigations at any point within this state, reporting the result thereof, if the same is made by one member, to the Board. The Board shall also employ and use the assistance of a sufficient number of pre-hearing officers for the purpose of adjusting and settling claims for compensation; provided, however, that pre-hearing officers shall not be empowered to take testimony.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Act, no claimant shall be required to appear before the Board or Board Member within a distance greater than one hundred (100) miles from the courthouse of the county of the claimant's residence or within a greater distance than one hundred (100) miles of the courthouse of the county where the injury occurred.

(b) The Board shall examine and review all controverted claims and shall schedule and hold pre-hearing conferences on such claims as the Board may designate. It shall have the power to direct the parties, their attorneys, or authorized agents of the parties to appear before the Board, any member thereof or a pre-hearing officer for pre-hearing conferences to attempt to adjust and settle the claim amicably and to take such other action other than taking of testimony that may aid in the disposition of the claim. Provided, however, that no matter occurring during, or fact developed in, a pre-hearing conference shall be deemed as admissions or evidence or impeachment against the association, employee or the subscriber in any other proceedings except before the Board.

Provided further that pre-hearing officers shall prepare a report to the Board Members on cases not settled at pre-hearing conference, stating the pre-hearing officer's recommendations for the award, and the basis therefor, with copies of said recommendations furnished to all interested parties and the association shall furnish a copy of the recommendation to the subscriber.

The Board shall provide a reasonable time to all interested parties in each case for filing a formal statement of respective positions, both factual and legal, as well as reply to pre-hearing officer's recommendations, all of which evidence shall be duly considered by the Board Members in making said final award. Unrepresented claimants are exempted from the provision requiring formal statement of respective positions.

The Association and counsel for claimant shall be required to admit, deny, or qualify each point in the pre-hearing officer's recommendations.

The Board shall promulgate procedural rules and regulations not inconsistent with this law to govern such pre-hearing conferences and provided further, such rules and regulations shall not affect nor change any substantive portion of this law.

Art. 8307d. Nonsuit in Appeals from Industrial Accident Board Award

At any time before the jury has retired in the trial of a workmen's compensation case on appeal from an award of the Industrial Accident Board, the plaintiff may take a nonsuit after notice to the other parties to the suit and a hearing held by which time all parties must perfect their cause of action, but he shall not thereby prejudice the right of an adverse party to be heard on his claim for affirmative relief. When the case is tried by the judge of a district or county court, such nonsuit, after notice and hearing, may be taken at any time before the decision is announced.
