PREFACE

This 1977 Supplement to West's Texas Statutes and Codes, Compact Edition, includes the text of all the general and permanent laws of the State of Texas enacted at the Regular Session of the 64th Legislature (1975), the Regular and First Called Sessions of the 65th Legislature (1977), and the text of changes in the Texas Constitution as adopted by the people at the Elections held on April 22, 1975 and November 8, 1977.

The laws in West's Texas Statutes and Codes are under the same classification as Vernon's Annotated Texas Statutes and Vernon's Texas Codes Annotated. Therefore, the user of this Supplement may go from any article or section herein to the same article or section in the annotated editions, where the complete constructions of the laws by the state and federal courts, historical data relative to the origin and development of the law, and other helpful research aids, are conveniently available.

New Codes

Included are the complete texts, as amended, of three new Codes adopted during the period covered by this Supplement under the Texas Legislative Council's statutory revision program, authorized by Civil Statutes, Art. 5429b-1:

- Alcoholic Beverage Code, enacted by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., ch. 194;
- Natural Resources Code, enacted by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., ch. 871;
- Parks and Wildlife Code, enacted by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., ch. 545.

Disposition Tables, providing a means of tracing repealed subject-matter into the new Codes, and detailed descriptive word Indexes, facilitating the search for specific provisions therein, are included following the text of each Code.

Special Law Tables

Special laws pertaining to education and water, enacted or amended in 1975 and 1977, are tabulated following the Education and Water Codes.
PREFACE

Indexes

The index references following each Code and the Civil Statutes cover both new and amendatory laws. With respect to new laws the coverage is complete. For amendatory laws, references are added only when the existing Compact Edition references are inadequate to cover the changed provisions.

Licensing of Foundation, Registered, and Certified Seed and Plant Producers

Sec. 4. (a) The board may establish, not inconsistent with federal law, procedures for and eligibility of various kinds and varieties of seed and plants for genetic purity and identity certification. The board may establish standards of genetic purity and identity, not inconsistent with federal law, for classes of certified seed and plants of various kinds or varieties for which the board determines that standards are desirable. The board shall report to the commissioner the standards promulgated for the certification eligibility of various kinds and varieties of seed and plants and shall report to the commissioner the various kinds and varieties eligible for certification. In establishing the standards, the board may consider all factors affecting the quality of seed and plants. This Paragraph (a) shall not go into effect until one year from the time of passage of this Act.

(b) A person who wants to produce a certified class of seed or plant for which the board has established standards of genetic purity and identity may apply to the board for licensing as a Foundation, Registered, or Certified producer of seed or plants. To be licensed as a producer, a person must satisfy the board that:

(1) he is of good character and has a reputation for honesty;

(2) his facilities meet board requirements for producing and maintaining seed or plants for the certification generations desired; and

(3) he has met any other board requirements as to knowledge of the production or maintenance of seed or plants for the certification generations for which he applies to be licensed.

(c) The board may prescribe regulations governing the production and handling by licensed producers of certified classes of seed and plants to insure the maintenance of genetic purity and identity.

(d) A license to produce Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants is not transferable and is permanent unless revoked as provided in this Act. A person licensed as a producer of Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants is eligible to produce certified seed or plants, as provided in his license, of the class for which he is licensed or of any lower class of certified seed or plants, as determined by the board.

Registration of Plant Breeders

Sec. 5. (a) A person engaging in the development, maintenance, or production of seed or plants for which standards of genetic purity and identity have been established by the board may apply to the board for registration as a plant breeder. Application for a certificate of registration shall be made on forms prescribed by the board, accompanied by a non-refundable registration fee of not more than $100, as determined by the board. To be registered as a plant breeder, a person must satisfy the board that he is skilled in the science of plant breeding. The board may require skill to be shown by evidence of accomplishments in the field and may require an oral or written examination in the subject.

(b) A certificate of registration is not transferable and is permanent unless revoked as provided in this Act.

Protection of Foundation, Registered, and Certified Cotton Varieties

Sec. 6. (a) The board shall promulgate regulations governing the registration for certification eligibility of newly developed varieties of cotton. A person desiring to register a new variety of cotton shall apply for registration to the board on forms prescribed by the board. To obtain registration for a new variety of cotton, a person must satisfy the board that the cotton to be registered is a distinct new variety and must meet board requirements regulating control of production, maintenance, and handling of the cotton for genetic purity and identity.

(b) On issuance of a certificate of registration for a new cotton variety, the board shall notify the commissioner of the eligibility for certification of seed of the variety.

(1) After issuance of a certificate of registration for a new cotton variety, no person may use the name given the new variety by the registrant in the sale of noncertified cottonseed for a period of 17 years from the date of issuance of the certificate of registration.

(2) Subdivision (1), Subsection (b) of this section does not apply to a variety for which an application is pending for United States plant variety protection, not specifying sale by variety name only as a class of certified seed, nor to a variety for which a certificate has been issued for United States plant variety protection, not specifying sale by variety name only as a class of certified seed.

(c) This section does not require registration of new varieties of cotton. On 10 days' notice to the board, a person may withdraw from the operation of this section a cotton variety previously registered to him.
(d) This section does not prohibit contracts between a registrant and seedmen or farmers for the production or sale of certified seed of the new cotton variety.

(e) This section does not prohibit one farmer from selling to another farmer cottonseed of a new variety grown on his own farm, as provided in Subsection (c), Section 5 of the Texas Seed Law, as amended (Article 93b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(f) At any time when the board determines that a critical situation exists because rain, hail, drouth, insects, or other natural elements beyond producers' control have reduced the supply of planting seed of a registered cotton variety, the board may hold a public hearing to determine the extent of the emergency. Notice of the time, place, and nature of the hearing shall be published in at least three newspapers of general circulation in the state at least seven days before the hearing. At the hearing, if the board deems advisable after presentation of evidence from interested parties, the board may allow noncertified seed grown from certified seed of the variety in which a shortage exists to be sold by variety name for that crop year only. This subsection does not apply to a variety for which an application is pending for United States plant variety protection, specifying sale by variety name only as a class of certified seed, nor to a variety for which a certificate has been issued for United States plant variety protection, specifying sale by variety name only as a class of certified seed.

(g) This section does not apply to seeds marketed or approved for certification eligibility before September 1, 1969.

Other Board Duties

Sec. 7. The board shall approve tests for certified classes of seed and plants and formats of labels for certified classes of seed and plants. The board shall prescribe qualifications for inspectors and shall nominate candidates for employment by the commissioner as certified seed and plant inspectors.

Certification of Seed and Plants

Sec. 8. (a) The state department of agriculture is the certifying agency in Texas for the certification of seed and plants. The commissioner shall appoint a sufficient number of inspectors nominated by the board to carry out the inspection provisions of this Act.

(b) A person licensed as a Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plant producer, registered as a plant breeder, or having a certificate of registration for a cotton variety is eligible to have seed or plants of an eligible class and variety certified by the commissioner. On request by a licensed producer, registered plant breeder, or registrant of a cotton variety to have his seed or plants certified, the commissioner shall cause inspections to be made of the producer's or registrant's fields, facilities, and seed or plants. Inspection may include tests approved by the board and carried out by inspectors under the authority of the commissioner. After inspection, if the commissioner determines that the production of seed or plants has met the standards and regulations prescribed by the board, he shall cause to be attached to each container of the product a label identifying the seed or plant and the certified class and including such other information as prescribed by statute or regulations of the board.

(c) However, as a condition to the granting of certification labels, the commissioner shall collect inspection fees in amounts determined by the commissioner to be necessary to cover the costs of inspection and labels.

Seed and Plants from Outside the State

Sec. 9. (a) The commissioner may promulgate regulations, tests, and standards which must be met before seed or plants represented to be of a certified class may be shipped into the state for distribution in the state. Regulations, tests, and standards promulgated shall be designed to insure buyers in the state of having available certified seed and plants of known origin, genetic purity, and identity. Regulations, tests, and standards promulgated shall correspond to appropriate regulations, tests, and standards used in certifying seed and plants produced in Texas.

(b) The commissioner may require inspections of seed and plants represented to be of a certified class and shipped into the state for distribution in the state, unless the person has first complied with any regulations, tests, and standards promulgated. The commissioner may require inspection fee payment before distribution in the state.

(c) No person may distribute in this state seed or plants represented to be of a certified class and shipped into the state for distribution in the state, unless the person has first complied with any regulations, tests, and standards promulgated. The commissioner may order the seed or plants shipped into the state.

(d) No person may sell or offer for sale in this state seed or plants represented to be of a certified class and shipped into the state for distribution in the state, unless the seed or plants have been certified by an official certifying agency in the state, province, or country of origin or have been certified by the commissioner.

(e) Seed or plants shipped into the state for distribution in the state which are represented to be of a certified class and which are found by the commissioner after investigation to violate the requirements of this section are restricted from distribution. In addition, the commissioner may order the seed or plants in violation confiscated and retained under his general supervision. An owner or consignee of restricted or confiscated seed or plants may appeal the commissioner's order by filing an appeal within 10 days of the order. Appeal is in the county court of the county where the seed or plants are restricted or were confiscated. The appeal in county court is by trial de novo. If no appeal is filed as provided in this Act, or if after an appeal in county court, the commissioner's action is not reversed, the commissioner may cause confiscated seed or plants to be destroyed.

Prohibited Acts

Sec. 10. (a) No person may sell or offer for sale in this state seed or plants with labeling or packaging accompanying the seed or plants using the terms “from officially inspected fields,” “state inspected,” “approved seed,” “approved plants,” “approved sods,” “approved trees,” “inspected foundation seed,” “certified plants,” or terms having the same meaning, unless the seed or plants have been certified as being Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants.

(b) No person may represent himself to be a registered plant breeder or licensed producer of Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants unless he has been registered or licensed as provided in this Act.

(c) No person may sell or offer for sale in this state Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants not in compliance with this Act or with regulations authorized by this Act to be promulgated.

(d) No person may sell or offer for sale seed or plants represented to be certified in explicit oral or written statements or by misleading oral or written statements if the seed or plants have not been certified or have not been certified as being of the class of which they are represented.

Revocation of Registration, License, and Certification

Sec. 11. (a) If an inspector reports to the commissioner that a registered plant breeder or licensed producer of Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants has made exaggerated claims for his products or has failed to observe any regulation governing the maintenance and production of a certified class of seed or plants which he is registered or licensed to produce or maintain, the commissioner may give written notice to the breeder or producer of the time and place of a revocation hearing to be held by the commissioner not less than 10 days after issuance of notice.

(b) If at the hearing, the commissioner finds that the registered plant breeder or licensed producer has made exaggerated claims or has violated any regulation for the production and maintenance of the certified class of seed or plants involved, the commissioner may revoke the registration or license and order the cancellation and withdrawal of all appropriate certification labels previously issued for the seed or plants.

(c) A registered plant breeder or licensed producer whose registration or license has been revoked and whose certification labels have been cancelled and withdrawn may appeal the commissioner's action to the board by filing a notice of appeal with the commissioner within 30 days of the revocation. The commissioner shall report the notice of appeal to the board, which shall give written notice of the time and place for an appeal hearing to the appellant. The hearing on appeal may not be less than 10 nor more than 30 days after notice of appeal is filed with the commissioner. If the commissioner's action is reversed at the appeal hearing, the board shall direct the commissioner to reinstate the registration or license and reissue certification labels for seed or plants for which labels were previously cancelled and withdrawn.

Deposit of Fees

Sec. 12. All fees collected under the provisions of this Act shall be deposited in the State Treasury in a special account known as the special agricultural fund, to be used in the administration of this Act.

Duties and Authority of the Commissioner of Agriculture

Sec. 6. (a) The duty of enforcing this Act and carrying out its provisions and requirements shall be vested in the Commissioner of Agriculture. It shall be the duty of such officer, who may act through his authorized agents:

(1) To sample, inspect, make analysis of, and test agricultural and vegetable seed transported, sold, offered, or exposed for sale within this State for sowing purposes, at such time and place and to such extent as he may deem necessary to determine whether said agricultural or vegetable seed is in compliance with the provisions of this Act, and to notify promptly the person who transported, sold, offered, or exposed the seed for sale of any violation.

(1) Maintain and furnish such records as the Commissioner of Agriculture may require to reflect accurately the total pounds of agricultural seed handled, sold, offered for sale or distributed for sale as planting seed. The Commissioner of Agriculture or his duly authorized agents shall have permission to examine the records of the permittee during normal working hours.

(2) File with the Commissioner of Agriculture within thirty days after the close of each quarter year ending the last day of November, February, May and August, sworn reports covering the total pounds of all sales of agricultural seed subject to an inspection fee sold during the preceding quarter. An inspection fee penalty of 10 percent of the amount due or $10, whichever is greater, is incurred if a report is not submitted when due and prior written approval for a delayed report has not been obtained.

(3) When located outside the State of Texas and when distributing agricultural seed in the State of Texas, shall maintain in the State of Texas the records and information required by Subsection (d), Section 7, of this Act or pay all costs incurred in the auditing of records at a location outside the state. The Commissioner of Agriculture is authorized and directed to revoke the permit of any person who fails to comply with this requirement. Itemized statements of costs incurred in any such audits shall be furnished the permittee by the Commissioner promptly on completion of any such audit, and the permittee must pay the costs within thirty (30) days from the date of the statement.

(4) Affix to each container of agricultural seed sold, offered for sale, or otherwise distributed and to the invoice of each lot of agricultural seed sold, offered for sale, or otherwise distributed in bulk, a plainly printed or written statement giving the information required in Section 3 of this Act.

Any failure of a permittee to observe these regulations, file required reports, or pay fees required shall be grounds for cancellation of the permit.

(e) The inspection fee must be paid during each germination period that said seed remains offered or exposed for sale. For any seed on which the germination test has expired, payment of the inspection fee is the responsibility of the custodian of said seed.

(f) Any person who sells, offers or exposes for sale, or otherwise distributes seed in bulk when inspection fee payment is by means other than the reporting system must furnish to the purchaser one Texas Tested Seed Label printed with the analysis information required in Section 3 of this Act for each 100 pounds or fraction of 100 pounds sold.
(g) The Commissioner of Agriculture is authorized to prescribe, amend, adopt, and publish after public hearing following public notice, such rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out and make effective the provisions of this section.

(b) After public notice and a public hearing, the Commissioner of Agriculture may determine from time to time the license fee required of an applicant for an original or renewal vegetable seed license. Application for a license must be made on forms prescribed by the Commissioner. A vegetable seed license expires on August 31 of each year.

(c) No license is required of a person who sells, offers or exposes for sale, or otherwise distributes for sale vegetable seed in containers bearing the name and address of a person licensed under this section.

CHAPTER SIX. FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Art. 118b. Citrus Fruit Growers Act

License Fee; Surety Bond

Sec. 4. (a) All applications for license under this Act shall be accompanied by a tender of payment in full of the fee for such license required; on receipt of said application duly executed, together with required fee, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner or his agents and/or employees thereunto duly authorized to immediately issue such license, provided that no license shall issue to any person when the application for license filed by such person shall indicate that such person is a suspended licensee within the State of Texas, or that such person's license to do business in Texas has been revoked until the Commissioner is furnished with satisfactory proof that the applicant is, on the date of the filing of such application, qualified to receive the license applied for; the issuance of license to persons who have suffered prior suspension or revocation of license in this State shall be discretionary with the Commissioner; in the exercise of such discretion, the Commissioner is authorized to take into consideration the facts and circumstances pertaining to the prior suspension and/or revocation; the financial condition of the applicant, as of the date of this application, and the obligations due and owing by the applicant to growers and producers of citrus fruits and/or perishable agricultural commodities; “obligation,” as the term is used in this Section, shall be construed to mean any judgment of any court within this State outstanding against the applicant or certified claims as of the date of the application under consideration by the Commissioner; prior to refusal of license by the Commissioner, any applicant for license shall be entitled to an open hearing on the facts pertaining to such application, said hearing to be conducted by the Commissioner, or his agent thereunto duly authorized; if, after such hearing, the Commissioner, in the exercise of his discretion, refuses the license applied for, the applicant shall, within ten (10) days from and after the denial of such license by the Commissioner and not thereafter, file his appeal from the order of the Commissioner denying such license, in any court of competent jurisdiction within this State; if the Commissioner shall determine that the license applied for shall not be granted, the Commissioner shall deduct from the license fee tendered with such application the sum of Five Dollars ($5), said Five Dollars ($5) to be retained by the Commissioner to defray costs and expenses incident to the filling and examination of said application and shall return the balance of the license fee so tendered with such application to the applicant.

(b) The following fees are hereby prescribed and shall be paid by applicants for license under this Act, and the Commissioner, his agents and employees are hereby authorized to collect the same.

(1) For license as a “dealer” or “handler” of citrus fruit, the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25).

(2) For license as a “commission merchant” and/or “contract dealer,” as the term is in this Act defined, Twenty-five Dollars ($25).

(3) For a license as a “buying agent,” the sum of One Dollar ($1).

(4) For a license as a “transporting agent,” the sum of One Dollar ($1).

(5) For a license as a “dealer” who sells any citrus fruit from door to door or from temporary locations, the sum of One Dollar ($1).

(c) All “commission merchants” and/or “dealers” and “contract dealers,” all retailers whose annual sales of vegetables and citrus fruit comprise seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the retailer's total sales and whose annual purchases of vegetables and citrus fruit exceed Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) a year, and all retailers who employ buying agents who buy directly from producers, except persons applying only for licenses to sell citrus fruit from door to door or from temporary locations, shall, in addition to the license fee herein prescribed, deliver to the Commissioner, together with their application for license, a fee of Two Hundred Dollars ($200). All retailers whose annual sales of vegetables and citrus fruit comprise seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the retailer's total sales and whose annual purchases of vegetables and citrus fruit are less than Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) shall pay a fee of Fifty Dollars ($50) in addition to the fee required in Subsection (b) of this Section. The fee shall be paid annually at the time application is made for licensing, and the Commissioner may not issue a license to a person who fails to pay the fee. No cooperative association organized pursuant to Chapter 8, Title 93 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, that handles fruit only for its members shall be required to pay the fee required in this Subsection. Any such cooperative association dealing in citrus fruit other than for its producer members shall be required to pay the fee as any other dealer. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the Legislature to make these exemptions with reference to cooperative associations because of the fact that the producer members pool their fruit for sale rather than immediately selling it.

(d) A person with whom the "commission merchant" and/or "dealer" or "contract dealer" deals in purchasing, handling, selling, and accounting for sales of citrus fruit and who is aggrieved by an action of that merchant in violation of the terms or conditions of a contract made by that merchant or dealer may initiate a claim against the Produce Recovery Fund in accordance with the provisions of this Section. The aggrieved party must file with the Commissioner a sworn complaint against the merchant or dealer and a Fifteen Dollar ($15) filing fee. The filing fee shall be refunded if the complainant is not satisfied with the decision of the board or corporation who is ineligible for licensing. An individual or corporation may not issue a new license to that merchant or dealer for four years from the date of cancellation. If the merchant or dealer is a corporation, no officer or director of the corporation, and no person owning more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the stock in that corporation, may be licensed as a "commission merchant" or "contract dealer" during the four-year period in which the corporation is ineligible for licensing. An individual or corporation who is ineligible for licensing as a "commission merchant" and/or "dealer" or "contract dealer" under this Act is ineligible for licensing as a commission merchant under Chapter 218, Acts of the 58th Legislature, 1963, as amended (Article 1287-3, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), during the period of ineligibility.

(h) The Commissioner may not pay any claim against a "commission merchant" and/or "dealer" or "contract dealer" who was not licensed under this Act at the time of the transaction on which the claim is based and he may not pay any claim against a cash dealer.

period of twelve (12) months from and after the date of issuance thereof unless said permit shall be cancelled in the manner hereinafter provided and pursuant to the proceedings hereinafter required, to wit: any person aggrieved, injured or damaged by virtue of any violation of the terms and provisions of this Act by any licensee or by the transporting or buying agent of any licensee hereunder, may file with the Commissioner, or his duly authorized agent or employee a verified complaint, setting out the specific violation complained of; the complaint must be filed within twelve (12) months from the date of the act that injured the complaining party; the Commissioner, on receipt of said verified complaint, shall set a date not more than ten (10) days from the receipt of such complaint for the hearing thereof; Commissioner shall, by registered mail to the last known address, notify the person complained of and shall furnish such person with a copy of such complaint; the Commissioner may, at his discretion, recess the hearing provided for in this Section from day to day if in his discretion the ends of justice demand such continuance; for the purpose of said hearings the Commissioner shall have the authority to summon witnesses; to inquire into matters of fact; to administer oaths, and to issue the subpoena duces tecum, for the purpose of obtaining any books, records, instruments of writing, and other papers pertinent to the investigation at hand; upon the conclusion of said hearing and the introduction of all evidence by the respective parties thereto, the Commissioner shall, within a reasonable length of time after studying all evidence, make his decision on the basis of the evidence introduced therein, and shall, if the evidence warrants, issue his order canceling the license of the person complained of; any licensee, whose license is so cancelled by an order of the Commissioner, shall be notified in writing by registered mail after said notification of cancellation, provided that after receipt by licensee of notice of said cancellation, and provided further that the effect of said cancellation shall expire and become null and void. Any license issued to applicant under the provisions of this Act, which expires by its own terms, may be renewed upon completion of a renewal application and payment to the Commissioner of Agriculture of the proper license fee as provided for the original issuance thereof. Said license and the identification cards hereinafter provided shall not be assignable and any attempt to assign same shall void such license or identification card. Upon application to the Commissioner by any licensed dealer, a reasonable number of "buying agent" and "transporting agent" identification cards may be issued and accredited to such dealer, under such rules and regulations as said Commissioner may prescribe, and said Commissioner is hereby empowered to charge a fee not to exceed One Dollar ($1) for each card so issued:

(a) Such cards shall bear the name of the licensee, dealer, and the number of his license, also the name of the dealer's agent, and shall state thereon that said licensed dealer, as the principal, has authorized the agent named on the card, the holder thereof, to act for and on behalf of said principal, either as "buying agent" or as "transporting agent" as above defined. "Buying agent" identification cards shall be of a different color from "transporting agent" cards. Such identification cards shall be at all times carried upon the persons of such agents who shall, upon demand, display such cards to the Commissioner or his agents or representatives, or to any person with whom said agent may be transacting business under this Act.

(b) If and when the holder of any identification card ceases to be the agent of the dealer by whom he was employed, it shall be the duty of said agent to return immediately such agent's card to the Commissioner for cancellation and failure to do so shall constitute a violation of this Act.

Regulations as to Purchase

Sec. 13. It shall be unlawful for any dealer, packer, processor or warehouseman to purchase or receive or handle any citrus fruit without requiring the person from whom such citrus fruit is purchased or received, to furnish a statement in writing of (a) the owner of said citrus fruit, (b) the grower of said citrus fruit, together with the approximate location of the orchard where said fruit was grown, (c) the date said fruit was gathered and by whose authority same was gathered, and such records shall be kept in a permanent book or folder and shall be available to inspection by any interested party. The Commistion or his authorized representatives may periodically investigate licensees or persons alleged to be selling citrus fruit in violation of this Act and, without notice, require evidence of purchase of any citrus fruit in their possession.

Sec. 14. (a) For the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Act, the Commissioner is hereby vested with full power and authority and it shall be his duty, either upon his own initiative or upon the receipt of a properly verified complaint, to investigate all alleged violations of this Act and for the purpose of making such investigation, he shall have, at all times, free and unimpeded access to all books, records, buildings, yards, warehouses, storage, and transportation and other facilities or places in which any citrus fruit is kept, stored, handled, processed or transported, and in furtherance of such investigation either the Commissioner in person or through his authorized representatives, may examine any portion of the ledger, books, accounts, memorandum, documents, scales, measures, and other matters, objects or persons pertinent to such alleged violation under investigation. The Commissioner shall take such action and hold such public hearings as in his judgment are shown to be necessary after such investigations, and shall take the proper action with reference to the cancellation or suspension of the license of any dealer hereunder shown to have been guilty of a violation of the terms of this Act. Such hearings shall be held in the nearest city or town in the county where violations are alleged to have occurred. Any order made by the Commissioner with reference to the revocation or cancellation of any license granted under the provisions of this Act, shall be subject to review by a Court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) If a person who has received at least 15 days' notice of an order of the Commissioner refuses to comply with that order, the Commissioner may seek temporary or permanent relief to require compliance. The district court has jurisdiction to grant this relief.

Sec. 21. From and after the effective date of this Act any person who shall:

(a) Act as a dealer and/or handler, as the terms "dealer" and/or "handler" are in this Act defined, without first obtaining a license to act as such dealer and/or handler, shall be fined not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500), and each day upon which any dealer or handler shall act or assume to act in violation of the requirements of this Act shall constitute a separate offense.

(b) Act or assume to act as a transporting agent or buying agent as the terms are herein defined, without first obtaining from the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Texas a license or a buying agent’s or a transporting agent’s card as by the terms and provisions of this Act required, shall be fined not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500), and each day upon which any buying agent or transporting agent shall act or assume to act in violation of the requirements of this Act shall constitute a separate offense.

(c) Any buying or transporting agent who ceases to be employed by a dealer or handler or the agent of any dealer or handler to whom such buying agent’s or transporting agent’s card was issued and who fails and refuses on the termination of such employment to turn over to the Commissioner of Agriculture the buying or transporting agent’s card issued to such person shall be fined not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500).

(d) Any person who shall act or assume to act as a commission merchant and/or dealer or a contract dealer, as the terms “commission merchant” and/or “dealer” or “contract dealer” are used in this Act without first paying to the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Texas the fee required in Subsection (c) of Section 4 of this Act and obtaining a license to act as such commission merchant and/or dealer or contract dealer shall be fined not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500), and each day upon which such person shall act or assume to act as such commission merchant and/or dealer or contract dealer shall constitute a separate offense.

(e) Any licensee or any transporting or buying agent of any licensee under this Act who shall violate any of the terms and provisions of this Act shall be fined not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500).

(f) Fifty percent (50%) of all fines collected under this Section shall be deposited in the Produce Recovery Fund. The clerk of the county court or county court-at-law and the custodian of county treasury funds shall keep separate records of all fines collected under this Section. On the first day of each January, April, July, and October, the custodian of the funds in the county treasury shall remit this portion of the fines collected to the comptroller of public accounts, and the comptroller shall deposit that amount in the Produce Recovery Fund.

Sec. 22. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to a retailer of citrus fruit, except a retailer whose annual sales of citrus fruit and vegetables comprise seventy-five percent (75%) or more of his total sales or who employs a buying agent who buys directly from producers, nor to any person shipping less than six (6) standard boxes of citrus fruit in any one separate shipment nor shall this Act apply to noncommercial shipments.
Sec. 23. Any citrus grower who handles and markets only citrus fruit grown by him, shall file an application for a license as a dealer in citrus fruit and upon so filing said application with the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Texas in the form prescribed, he shall be entitled to a license as a minimum dealer of citrus fruit; i.e., one handling not in excess of one thousand (1000) standard boxes, or the equivalent thereof, per twelve-month period and said license shall be issued to him without the payment of any fee and he shall thereupon be entitled to handle, market, sell, and dispose of his citrus fruit in accordance therewith subject to the pertinent provisions of this Act.

Sec. 25. Any person who purchases citrus fruit only from dealers duly qualified as such under this Act and receives said fruit at the dealer's place of business and pays therefor prior to or at the time of delivery or taking possession of such citrus fruit so purchased in current money of the United States shall be exempt from paying the fee provided for in Subsection (c) of Section 4 of this Act and such person shall indicate on his application for license that he desires to operate as a cash buyer, buying only from dealers duly qualified as such under this Act, in accordance with the provisions of this Section and thereupon such person shall be entitled to a license as a cash citrus dealer, purchasing only from dealers duly qualified under this Act, upon the payment by such applicant of the license fee as required under this Act. Such dealer shall be subject to all the pertinent provisions of this Act. Any violation of this Section shall be deemed a misdemeanor and be punishable, as provided in Section 21 of this Act.

(1) to any pesticide or device subject to this Act:

(A) if its labeling bears any statement, design, or graphic representation relating to the pesticide, device, or the ingredients of either which is false or misleading in any particular;

(B) if it is an imitation of or is distributed under the name of another pesticide or device; or

(C) if any word, statement, or other information required by this Act or regulations promulgated as provided in this Act to appear on a label or labeling, is not prominently placed on a label or labeling with such conspicuousness, as compared with other material on the label or labeling, and in such terms as to render it likely to be read and understood by the ordinary individual under customary conditions of purchase and use;

(2) to any pesticide:

(A) if its labeling bears any reference to registration under the provisions of this Act unless the reference is required by regulations promulgated as provided in this Act;

(B) if the labeling does not contain a statement of the use classifications for which the product is registered;

(C) if the label does not bear:

(i) the name, brand, or trademark under which the pesticide is distributed;

(ii) an ingredient statement on that part of the immediate container which is presented or displayed under customary conditions of purchase, and on any outer container or wrapper of a retail package, if the ingredient statement on the immediate container cannot be clearly read without removing the outer wrapping;

(iii) directions for use which are necessary for effecting the purpose for which the product is intended, and if complied with, are adequate for the protection of health and the environment;

(iv) if the pesticide contains arsenic in any form, a statement of the percentages of total water-soluble arsenic, calculated as elementary arsenic;

(v) the name and address of the manufacturer, registrant, or person for whom the pesticide was manufactured; or

(vi) numbers or other symbols to identify the lot or batch of the manufacturer of the contents of the package;

(D) if the label does not clearly display appropriate warnings, symbols, and cautionary statements commensurate with the toxicity or use classification of the pesticide; or

(E) if the pesticide container does not bear a label or if the label does not contain all information required by this Act or regulations promulgated as provided in this Act.

Pesticide Advisory Committee

Sec. 4. (a) The Pesticide Advisory Committee is a committee consisting of the deans of the departments of agriculture of Texas A & M University and Texas Tech University, the executive director of the Parks and Wildlife Department, the commissioner of the State Department of Health, and the commissioner of agriculture, or their designated representatives. Members of the committee serve as ex officio members and receive no compensation as committee members but are entitled to reimbursement from the funds of their respective departments or agencies for actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

(b) The committee meets at least once a year and at such other times as determined by the commissioner, for the purpose of advising the commissioner on the best use of pesticides for the protection of the public health and welfare, animal life, and property. The committee shall receive requested assistance from state universities and state agencies, including assistance from consultants retained by state universities or state agencies, to aid the committee in its recommendations to the commissioner regarding any pesticide program or any other related matter submitted by the commissioner for committee recommendations.

Registration of Pesticides

Sec. 5. (a) Every pesticide which is distributed within this state or is delivered for transportation or transported in intrastate commerce or between points within this state through any point outside the state, must be registered with the commissioner by the manufacturer, or by any person whose name appears on the label of the pesticide, if not the manufacturer, before the pesticide may be distributed, delivered for transportation, or transported as provided in this subsection. However, registration is not required for the transportation of a pesticide from one plant or warehouse to another plant or warehouse operated by the same person and used solely at the second plant or warehouse as a constituent part of a pesticide registered under the provisions of this Act.

(b) A person who applies for registration of a pesticide shall file with the commissioner a statement including:

(1) the name and address of the applicant and the name and address of the person whose name will appear on the pesticide label, if not the applicant’s;
(2) the name of the pesticide;
(3) a complete copy of all labeling to accompany the pesticide and a statement of all claims to be made for it, including the directions for use;
(4) the use classification, whether for restricted or general use, as provided in the federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act, as amended,¹ or in regulations promulgated as provided in the Act;
(5) the use classification proposed by the applicant, if the pesticide is not required by federal law to be registered under a use classification; and
(6) other information required by the commissioner for the determination of eligibility for registration.

(c) The commissioner may require the submission of the complete formula for a pesticide, including active and inert ingredients, as a prerequisite to registration. The commissioner may require a full description of the tests made and the results of the tests on which claims are based before approving registration of a pesticide not registered under federal law or a pesticide for which federal or state restrictions on use are being considered.

(d) A person located outside this state shall, as a condition to registration of a pesticide, file with the commissioner an instrument in writing designating a resident agent for service of process in actions taken in the administration or enforcement of this Act. In lieu of designating a resident agent, the person may designate in writing the secretary of state as the recipient of service of process for the person in this state.

(e) Registration expires annually on December 31. A person who applies for renewal of registration must include in his application only such information as is different from the information furnished at the time of the most recent registration or renewal of registration.

(f) As a condition to registration, an applicant shall pay to the commissioner an annual registration fee of $30 for each pesticide to be registered as provided in this Act.

(g) Any pesticide registration in effect on December 31 for which a renewal application has been filed and a renewal registration fee paid continues in effect until the commissioner notifies the applicant that the registration has been renewed or denied renewal.

(h) A person who fails to apply for renewal of pesticide registration before March 1 of any year shall, as a condition to the renewal of registration, pay a late registration fee of $5 for each brand to be renewed, to be added to the amount of the renewal registration fee.

(i) The commissioner may not approve an application for registration of a pesticide unless he finds that the composition of the pesticide warrants the proposed claims made for it and that the pesticide, its labeling, and other materials required to be submitted as provided in this Act comply with the requirements of this Act.

(j) The commissioner may register pesticides for additional uses and methods of application not covered by federal regulation but not inconsistent with federal law, for the purpose of meeting special local needs. Before approval of any registration for special local needs, the commissioner shall determine that the applicant meets other requirements of this section.

Denial or Cancellation of Registration

Sec. 6. (a) If the commissioner has reason to believe that any use of a registered pesticide is in violation of the provisions of this Act or is dangerous or harmful, he may issue to the registrant of the pesticide written notice of a hearing on denial or cancellation of registration. The notice must contain a statement of the time and place of the hearing, which may not be less than 10 days after issuance of notice. After opportunity at the hearing for presentation of evidence by interested parties, the commissioner may deny or cancel the registration of the pesticide if he finds that:

(1) use of the pesticide has demonstrated uncontrollable adverse environmental effects;

(2) use of the pesticide is a detriment to the environment which outweighs benefits received by its use;

(3) even when properly used, the pesticide is detrimental to vegetation, except weeds, or to domestic animals or the public health and safety;

(4) any false or misleading statement about the pesticide has been made or implied by the registrant or his agent, in writing, verbally, or through any form of advertising literature; or

(5) the registrant or the pesticide has not complied with a requirement of this Act or rule promulgated as provided in this Act.

Experimental Use Permit

Sec. 7. (a) Any person may apply to the commissioner for an experimental use permit for a pesticide. The commissioner may issue an experimental use permit if the commissioner determines that the applicant needs the permit in order to accumulate data necessary to register a pesticide under this Act. An application for an experimental use permit may be filed before or after an application for registration is filed.

(b) Use of a pesticide under an experimental use permit is under the supervision of the commissioner and is subject to such terms and conditions and be for such period of time as the commissioner may prescribe in the permit.

(c) The commissioner may revoke any experimental use permit at any time if he finds that its terms or conditions are being violated or that its terms and conditions are inadequate to avoid unreasonable adverse effects on the environment.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 8. (a) The commissioner may, after due notice and a public hearing, make appropriate regulations for carrying out the provisions of this Act, including but not limited to regulations providing for:

(1) the collection, examination, and reporting of records, devices, and samples of pesticides;

(2) the safe handling, transportation, storage, display, distribution, and disposal of pesticides and their containers; and

(3) labeling requirements for all pesticides and devices required to be registered under the provisions of this Act.

(b) After due notice and a public hearing, the commissioner may adopt from time to time lists of state-limited-use pesticides for the entire state or for designated areas within the state. If the commissioner determines that a pesticide requires restrictions or additional restrictions on distribution or use to prevent unreasonable adverse effects on the environment, he may include the pesticide on a list of state-limited-use pesticides. The commissioner may regulate the time and conditions of use of a state-limited-use pesticide and may require that it be purchased or used only with permission of the commissioner, only under his direct supervision in certain areas under certain conditions, and only in specified quantities and concentrations. The commissioner may require persons authorized to distribute or use state-limited-use pesticides to maintain records of their distribution and use of all state-limited-use pesticides and may require that the records be kept separately from other business records.

Pesticide Dealer License

Sec. 9. (a) No person may distribute in this state restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides without having a valid current pesticide dealer license issued by the commissioner for each location in the state which is used for distribution. Any person licensed as a dealer under Chapter 349, Acts of the 53rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1953, as amended (Article 135b-4, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) shall not be required to pay an additional fee for the license prescribed in this section.
forms prescribed by the commissioner, accompanied by a nonrefundable annual registration fee of not more than $100, as determined by the commissioner. A pesticide dealer license expires on December 31 of each year.

(c) A person without a place of business in the state may obtain one pesticide dealer license for all of his out-of-state locations. As a condition to the issuance of a license, he shall file a statement as provided in Subsection (d), Section 5, of this Act.

(d) Each pesticide dealer license must be prominently displayed in the dealer's place of business. Failure to so display a license is a ground for revocation of the license.

(e) If an application for a renewal of a pesticide dealer license is not filed with the commissioner by March 1 of any year, a late license fee of $5 is due in addition to the annual license fee and must be paid before issuance of the renewal license.

(f) Licensed pesticide dealers shall maintain for a period of two years records of each restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticide sold. Information included in the records shall be as prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner may require submission of records to him. Failure to submit requested records is a ground for revocation of a license.

(g) This section does not apply to a licensed pesticide applicator who distributes restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides only as an integral part of his pesticide application business and who dispenses the pesticides only through equipment used in his pesticide application business. This section does not apply to any federal, state, county, or municipal agency which provides pesticides only for its own programs.

Denial or Revocation of Pesticide Dealer License

Sec. 10. (a) If the commissioner has reason to believe that an applicant has failed to comply with requirements of Section 9 of this Act or regulations promulgated as provided in Section 9, or if the commissioner has reason to believe that a licensee has failed to comply with requirements of Section 9 or regulations promulgated as provided in Section 9, he may issue written notice to the applicant or licensee of the time and place of a hearing to be held by the commissioner on denial or revocation of license. The hearing may not be less than 10 days after issuance of notice.

(b) After opportunity at the hearing for presentation of evidence by the applicant or licensee, the commissioner may refuse to issue a pesticide dealer license or revoke a pesticide dealer license, if he finds that the applicant or licensee has failed to comply with applicable requirements of Section 9 of this Act or regulations promulgated as provided in Section 9.

Sec. 11. (a) The commissioner or his authorized agents may enter at reasonable hours any building or place owned, controlled, or operated by a registrant or dealer, where from probable cause it appears that the building or place contains pesticides, for the purpose of inspection, examination of records, and sampling. The commissioner or his authorized agents may take a sample for official analysis from any package or lot of pesticides found within the state.

(b) The commissioner may issue and enforce a written or printed stop-sale order to the owner or custodian of any pesticide which he has reason to believe is in violation of any of the provisions of this Act, prohibiting further sale of the pesticide until the commissioner determines that the pesticide is no longer in violation of the Act.

(c) The owner or custodian of a pesticide to which a stop-sale order applies may appeal from the order to a court of competent jurisdiction in the county where the pesticide is found. Appeal is by trial de novo. This section does not limit the right of the commissioner to proceed as authorized by other sections of this Act.

(d) The commissioner may institute an action in his own name to enjoin any violation of a provision of this Act. Venue is in the county where the alleged violation occurred or is occurring.

Other Powers and Duties of the Commissioner

Sec. 12. (a) The commissioner may contract with state colleges and universities, state agencies, or commercial laboratories for examination of pesticides. Contracts with commercial laboratories may be let only on the basis of competitive bidding.

(b) The commissioner shall make or provide for sample tests of pesticides on request, and he may charge and collect fees for the tests necessary to cover expenses incurred in making or providing for the tests.

Prohibited Acts

Sec. 13. (a) No person may distribute within the state, or deliver for transportation or transport in intrastate commerce or between points within this state through any point outside this state, any of the following:

(1) any pesticide which has not been registered as provided in this Act;
(2) any pesticide if any of the claims made for it or any of the directions for its use or other labeling differs from the representations made in connection with its registration;
(3) any pesticide unless it is in the registrant's or the manufacturer's unbroken immediate container and there is affixed to the container, and to the outside container or wrapper of the retail package, if there is one through which the required information on the immediate container cannot be clearly read, a label bearing the information required in this Act and the regulations adopted under this Act; provided that an applicator may after acquiring such an unbroken container, open and transport the open container to and from application and storage sites as necessary;

(4) any pesticide which has not been colored or discolored as required by the provisions of this Act;

(5) any pesticide which is adulterated or misbranded or any device which is misbranded; or

(6) any pesticide in a container which is unsafe due to damage.

(b) No person may:

(1) detach, alter, deface, or destroy, wholly or in part, any label or labeling provided for in this Act or regulations adopted under this Act, or to add any substance to or take any substance from a pesticide in a manner that may defeat the purpose of this Act or the regulations adopted thereunder;

(2) use or cause to be used any pesticide contrary to its labeling or to regulations of the commissioner limiting use of the pesticide;

(3) handle, transport, store, display, or distribute a pesticide in a manner that violates the provisions of this Act or rules promulgated by the commissioner as provided in this Act; or

(4) dispose of, discard, or store any pesticide or pesticide container in a manner that is calculated to cause injury to humans, vegetation, crops, livestock, wildlife, pollinating insects or to pollute any water supply or waterway.

(c) No person, except the person to whom a pesticide is registered, may use for his advantage or information relating to pesticide formulae, trade secrets, or commercial or financial information privileged or confidential by the registrant.

(4) a pesticide or device manufactured or formulated solely for export to a foreign country and prepared or packed according to the specifications or directions of the purchaser. If not so exported, the provisions of this Act apply.

(b) Chemical compounds being used only to develop plot data as to the possible pesticidal action of the chemicals are exempt from registration requirements of this Act.

Regulation of Pesticide Use and Application

Sec. 15. (a) The Texas Department of Agriculture is the lead agency and is responsible for coordinating activities of state agencies in the regulation of pesticide use and application and is responsible for submitting a state plan for the certification of pesticide applicators to the administrator of the federal Environmental Protection Agency. This agency shall have the responsibility for coordinating, planning, and approving of training programs and shall utilize the resources of the state, both private and public, including but not limited to state universities, colleges, junior colleges, and community colleges as well as the Texas A & M Extension Service and Experiment Stations. The agency shall make all plans in this area on the basis of convenience to applicants, thoroughness of preparation and testing, and maximum economy in expenditures for this purpose. The agency may make full use of authorizations contained in Section 31 of this Act in carrying out these provisions.

(b) The commissioner shall certify pesticide applicators involved in agricultural pest control (except animal pest control), forest pest control, ornamental and turf pest control (except as provided in the Texas Structural Pest Control Act, as amended (Article 135b, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), seed treatments, right-of-way pest control, regulatory pest control, and demonstration pest control.

(c) The Texas Animal Health Commission shall certify, as provided in this Act, pesticide applicators involved in animal pest control.

(d) The Texas Water Quality Board shall certify, as provided in this Act, pesticide applicators involved in aquatic pest control.
limited-use pesticides in designated areas during specified periods of time. Regulations shall be promulgated only after consideration of precautions or restrictions necessary to prevent unreasonable adverse effects on the environment.

Pesticide Use Without License or Certification

Sec. 17. No person, except an individual acting under the direct supervision of a certified applicator, or except a private applicator, may use or supervise the use of any restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticide, unless he is licensed as a certified commercial or noncommercial applicator and is authorized by his license to use restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories covering his proposed pesticide use. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit any property owner from using in his house or on his lawn or in his garden any pesticide labeled for such use except one that may be registered and classified for use only by certified applicators.

Classification of Commercial and Noncommercial Licenses

Sec. 18. The head of each regulatory agency may classify commercial and noncommercial licenses under subcategories of license use categories, according to the subject, method, or place of pesticide application. An agency head shall establish separate testing requirements for licensing in each license use category for which his agency is responsible, and may establish separate testing requirements for licensing in subcategories within a license use category. Each regulatory agency may charge a nonrefundable testing fee of not more than $10 for testing in each license use category.

Commercial Applicator License

Sec. 19. (a) No person, except an individual working under the direct supervision of a certified applicator, may apply restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides to the land of another for hire or compensation at any time without having a valid current commercial applicator license issued by a regulatory agency for the license use categories and subcategories, if any, in which the pesticide application is to be made.

(b) Application for an original or renewal license shall be on forms prescribed by the regulatory agency and shall be accompanied by an annual license fee of not more than $100, as determined by the head of the regulatory agency. Each license application shall include such information as is prescribed by regulation of the head of the regulatory agency.

(c) Before issuance of an original commercial applicator license, an applicant must pass an examination demonstrating his competence and knowledge of the use and effects of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories or subcategories for which he has applied to be li-licensed. An individual to whom a commercial applicator license is issued is a certified applicator authorized to use and supervise the use of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories and any subcategories in which he is licensed. If a license is issued in the name of a business, the business must have a certified applicator employed at all times. Failure to have a certified applicator employed is a ground for revocation of a business commercial applicator license.

(d) A regulatory agency may not issue a commercial applicator license until the license applicant files with the agency evidence of financial responsibility, consisting either of a bond executed by the applicant as principal and by a corporate surety licensed to do business in Texas as surety or a liability insured policy or certification of a policy, protecting persons who may suffer damages as a result of the operations of the applicant. The bond or liability insurance policy, however, need not apply to damages or injury to agricultural crops, plants, or land being worked upon by the applicant. The surety bond or insurance must be approved by the regulatory agency and conditioned on compliance with the requirements of this Act and any regulations promulgated as provided in this Act.

(e) The amount of the bond or liability insurance required may not be less than $5,000 nor more than $100,000 for property damage insurance and may not be less than $5,000 for bodily injury insurance. The head of the regulatory agency may, by regulation, require different amounts of bond or insurance coverage for different classifications of operations under this Act. The bond or liability insurance must be maintained at not less than the sum set by the agency head at all times during a period licensed. The head of the regulatory agency shall be notified by the party taking action at least 10 days prior to any reduction requested by a licensee or any cancellation of a bond or policy; otherwise, liability of the surety or insurer for all claims is limited to the face amount of the bond or liability insurance policy. The agency head may accept a liability insurance policy or bond in the proper sum which has a deductible clause in an amount of not more than $1,000 for the total amount of liability insurance or bond required by this section. However, if the applicant has not satisfied the requirement of the deductible amount in any prior legal claim, a policy or bond with a deductible clause may not be accepted by an agency head unless the applicant furnishes the agency with a surety bond which satisfies the amount of the deductible clause as to all claims that may arise as a result of his operation. Should the surety furnished become insufficient or otherwise unsatisfactory, a licensee shall, on notice of the insufficiency or other defect, immediately file a new bond or policy of insurance. Failure to file a bond or policy of insurance and failure to maintain the security in the required amounts are grounds for suspension or revocation of a commercial applicator license.

(f) The head of a regulatory agency may not issue a commercial applicator license if it has been determined that:

1. The applicant has been convicted of a felony involving moral turpitude in the last five years;
2. The applicant has had a previous license, authorized by this Act to be issued, revoked within the last two years;
3. The applicant, or his representative if the applicant is a business, has been unable to satisfactorily fulfill certification requirements;
4. The applicant for any other reason cannot be expected to be able to fulfill the provisions of this Act applicable to the license use category for which application has been made.

Noncommercial Applicator License

Sec. 20. (a) A person not engaged in the pesticide application business who is not a private applicator, except a person acting under the direct supervision of a certified or private applicator, may not use restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides without having a valid current noncommercial applicator license issued by a regulatory agency for the license use categories and subcategories, if any, in which the pesticide application is to be made.

(b) Application for an original or renewal license shall be on forms prescribed by the regulatory agency. A nongovernmental applicant shall accompany his application with an annual license fee of not more than $50, as determined by the head of the regulatory agency. No license fee may be charged a governmental entity applying for a license.

(c) Before issuance of an original noncommercial applicator license, an applicant must pass an examination demonstrating his competence and knowledge of the use and effects of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories and subcategories for which he has applied to be licensed. An individual to whom a noncommercial applicator license is issued is a certified applicator authorized to use and supervise the use of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories and any subcategories in which he is licensed. If a license is issued in the name of a governmental entity, the entity must have a certified applicator employed at all times. Failure to have a certified applicator employed is a ground for revocation of a governmental entity noncommercial applicator license.

Private Applicator Exemption

Sec. 21. A private applicator is not required to have a license or to be certified to use restricted-use pesticides in the license use categories and any subcategories, if any, in which he is licensed. An individual to whom a noncommercial applicator license is issued is a certified applicator authorized to use and supervise the use of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories and any subcategories in which he is licensed. If a license is issued in the name of a governmental entity, the entity must have a certified applicator employed at all times. Failure to have a certified applicator employed is a ground for revocation of a governmental entity noncommercial applicator license.

Noncommercial Applicator License

Sec. 20. (a) A person not engaged in the pesticide application business who is not a private applicator, except a person acting under the direct supervision of a certified or private applicator, may not use restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides without having a valid current noncommercial applicator license issued by a regulatory agency for the license use categories and subcategories, if any, in which the pesticide application is to be made.

(b) Application for an original or renewal license shall be on forms prescribed by the regulatory agency. A nongovernmental applicant shall accompany his application with an annual license fee of not more than $50, as determined by the head of the regulatory agency. No license fee may be charged a governmental entity applying for a license.

(c) Before issuance of an original noncommercial applicator license, an applicant must pass an examination demonstrating his competence and knowledge of the use and effects of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories and subcategories for which he has applied to be licensed. An individual to whom a noncommercial applicator license is issued is a certified applicator authorized to use and supervise the use of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories and any subcategories in which he is licensed. If a license is issued in the name of a governmental entity, the entity must have a certified applicator employed at all times. Failure to have a certified applicator employed is a ground for revocation of a governmental entity noncommercial applicator license.

Private Applicator Exemption

Sec. 21. A private applicator is not required to have a license or to be certified to use restricted-use pesticides in the license use categories and any subcategories, if any, in which he is licensed. An individual to whom a noncommercial applicator license is issued is a certified applicator authorized to use and supervise the use of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories and any subcategories in which he is licensed. If a license is issued in the name of a governmental entity, the entity must have a certified applicator employed at all times. Failure to have a certified applicator employed is a ground for revocation of a governmental entity noncommercial applicator license.
or state-limited-use pesticides. The commissioner is authorized to establish a program to certify private applicators, on a voluntary basis, who wish to apply restricted use pesticides in compliance with federal law.

Recurrent Agreements

Sec. 22. The head of a regulatory agency may waive part or all of any license examination requirements on a reciprocal basis with any other state or federal agency which has substantially the same examination standards.

License Renewal

Sec. 23. Each commercial applicator license and noncommercial applicator license expires on December 31 of the year in which it was issued. A person having a valid current license may renew the license for another year without retesting by paying to the regulatory agency an annual license fee, as provided in this Act, unless the head of the regulatory agency determines that additional knowledge is required in the license use categories or subcategories in which the licensee applies for license renewal, in which case the passing of a new examination is necessary for license renewal. However, if a certified applicator does not file with the regulatory agency by March 1 of any year his application for license renewal, accompanied by payment of the annual license fee, he must pass another examination before he may be recertified.

Maintenance of Records

Sec. 24. Each regulatory agency shall require its licensees except private applicators to maintain records of their use of pesticides. Information to be included in the records is as prescribed by regulation of the regulatory agency. A regulatory agency may require its licensees to keep records of their application of specific restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides and may require the records to be kept separately from other business records. Records must be kept for a period of two years from the date of pesticide application. A licensee shall, on written request of the regulatory agency, furnish the agency a copy of any records requested pertaining to the application of pesticides.

Registration and Inspection of Equipment

Sec. 25. (a) Each regulatory agency shall provide for the registration and inspection of equipment used in the commercial application of restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides and may require repairs or alterations of equipment before further use. The head of a regulatory agency shall by regulation promulgate standards that must be met before registration of equipment.

(b) Each piece of registered equipment shall be identified by a license plate or decal furnished by a regulatory agency at no cost to the licensee and attached to the equipment in a manner and location as prescribed by the regulatory agency.

Suspension and Revocation of a Certified Applicator License

Sec. 26. (a) The head of a regulatory agency which licensed a certified applicator may suspend temporarily for not more than 10 days, after written notice of noncompliance, and, after opportunity for a hearing not less than 10 days after issuance of written notice to the licensee of the time, place, and nature of the hearing, may suspend, modify, or revoke any provision in the license of a certified applicator, if he finds that the licensee has committed any of the following acts, each of which is a violation of this Act:

1. made a pesticide recommendation or application inconsistent with the labeling or with the restrictions of the use of the pesticide imposed by the federal Environmental Protection Agency or the state;
2. operated in a faulty, careless, or negligent manner;
3. refused or, after notice, failed to comply with any applicable provision of this Act, the rules and regulations adopted as provided in this Act, or any lawful order of the head of a regulatory agency by which he is licensed;
4. refused or neglected to keep and maintain the records required by this Act or to make reports when and as required;
5. failed to maintain a bond or policy of insurance as required by this Act;
6. made false or fraudulent records, invoices, or reports;
7. used fraud or misrepresentation in making an application for, or renewal of, a license; or
8. aided or abetted a licensed or an unlicensed person to evade the provisions of this Act, conspired with a licensed or an unlicensed person to evade the provisions of this Act, or allowed his license to be used by another person.

(b) In addition to revocation, modification, or suspension of a license, a licensee who violates Subsection (a) of this section is subject to the other penalty provisions of this Act. An unlicensed person who violates Subsection (a) of this section, to the extent that it is applicable to unlicensed persons, is subject to the penalty provisions of this Act.

Appeal

Sec. 27. (a) A person whose application for registration of a pesticide has been denied or whose registration for a pesticide has been cancelled may appeal the action of the commissioner by filing an appeal in the district court of Travis County within 30 days of the date of denial or cancellation by the commissioner. A copy of the notice of appeal shall be delivered to the commissioner.

(b) A person whose application for experimental use permit, pesticide dealer license, commercial applicator license, or noncommercial applicator license has been denied, or whose experimental use permit, pesticide dealer license, commercial applicator license, or noncommercial applicator license has been revoked, modified, or suspended for more than 10 days, may appeal the action of the commissioner or head of a regulatory agency by filing an appeal in the district court of the county of his residence or in the district court of Travis County, within 30 days of the date of denial, revocation, modification, or suspension. A copy of the notice of appeal shall be delivered to the person whose action has been appealed.

(c) Appeal is governed by the substantial evidence rule.

Reports of Pesticide Damage Claims

Sec. 28. (a) Any person claiming damages from a pesticide application may file with the regulatory agency which licensed the certified applicator whose action allegedly caused damage a written statement claiming that he has been damaged. To be eligible for consideration by the agency, the report must be filed within 90 days of the alleged occurrence, or if a growing crop is alleged to have been damaged, the report must be filed prior to the time that 25 percent of the crop has been harvested or within 30 days, whichever is less. The report must contain, but is not limited to, the name of the person allegedly responsible for the application of the pesticide, the name of the owner or lessee of the land on which the crop is grown and for which damage is alleged to have occurred. The regulatory agency shall prepare a form to be furnished to persons to be used in filing damage reports, and the form may contain such other information as is required by the head of the regulatory agency.

(b) The regulatory agency shall, on receipt of a report, notify the licensee and the owner or lessee of the land on which the alleged acts occurred, and any other person who may be charged with responsibility for the damages claimed. The regulatory agency shall furnish copies of the report to these people on request. (c) The failure to file a report is no bar to the maintenance of any criminal or civil action. However, if the person failing to file a report is the only person claiming injury from the particular use or application of a pesticide, the regulatory agency, when in the public interest, may refuse to hold a hearing for the denial, suspension, or revocation of a license issued under this Act to a person alleged to have caused damage.

(d) If damage is alleged to have occurred, the claimant shall permit representatives of the regulatory agency and the licensee to observe within reasonable hours the land or nontarget organism alleged to have been damaged, in order that the damage may be assessed.

(b) The board shall develop standards and criteria for issuing Structural Pest Control Business Licenses to persons engaged in the business of structural pest control. (b) A licensee whose license has been lost or destroyed shall be issued a duplicate license after application therefor and the payment of a fee of $10.

(c) The board may retroactively grant a Structural Pest Control Business License or a Certified Applicator’s License to the applicant for a renewal license if such applicant pays a late renewal fee of $25 and if his application is filed with the board not more than 30 days after the expiration of his license. If such application is received between 30 and 60 days after the expiration of the applicant’s license, the board may retroactively grant the renewal license when said application is accompanied by a renewal fee of $50. An applicant who applies for a renewal license more than 60 days after the expiration of his license is subject to re-examination by the board.

(d) After September 30, 1976, each time an applicant takes a test for a license, he shall pay the board a testing fee of not more than $25, as determined by the board, for each test taken.

(e) If the board determines that new developments in pest control have occurred that are so significant that their proper knowledge is necessary to protect the public, the board may require proof of

(b) The policy or contract shall be maintained at all times in an amount not less than $30,000. Failure to renew the policy or contract or maintain it in the required amount is a ground for suspension or revocation of a Structural Pest Control Business License.

Sec. 7B. The board may require each licensee to make records, as prescribed by the board, of his use of pesticides. Records required shall be maintained for at least two years on business premises of the licensee and shall be made available for inspection by the board and by its authorized agents during normal business hours.

Whenever it appears that a person has violated or is threatening to violate any provision of this chapter, or any rule, regulation, license, or other order of the board, then the board, or the executive director when authorized by the board, may have a civil suit instituted in a district court for injunctive relief to restrain the person from continuing the violation or threat of violation, or for the assessment and recovery of a civil penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $1,000 for each act of violation and for each day of violation, or for both injunctive relief and civil penalty.

(b) Upon application for injunctive relief and a finding that a person is violating or threatening to violate any provision of this chapter or any rule, regulation, license, or other order of the board, the district court shall grant the injunctive relief the facts may warrant.

(c) At the request of the board, or the executive director when authorized by the board, the attorney general shall institute and conduct a suit in the name of the State of Texas for injunctive relief or to recover the civil penalty or for both injunctive relief and penalty, as authorized in Subsection (a) of this section.

ANIMALS

1. CRUELTY TO ANIMALS

Art. 182a. Disposition of Cruelly Treated Animals [NEW]

Sec. 1. In this Act "cruelly treated" means tortured, seriously overworked, unreasonably abandoned, unreasonably deprived of necessary food, care, or shelter, cruelly confined, caused to fight with another animal, or otherwise cruelly treated.

Sec. 2. (a) If a county sheriff or an officer who has responsibility for animal control in an incorporated city or town has reason to believe that an animal has been or is being cruelly treated, he may apply to a justice court in the county where the animal is located for a warrant to seize the animal. On a showing of probable cause to believe that the animal has been or is being cruelly treated, the court shall issue the warrant and set a time within 10 days for a hearing in the court to determine whether the animal has been cruelly treated. The officer executing the warrant shall cause the animal to be impounded and shall give written notice to the owner of the animal of the time and place of the justice court hearing.

Sec. 3. (a) If the owner of the animal is found guilty in county court of a violation of Section 42.11, Penal Code, involving the animal, this finding is prima facie evidence at the hearing that the animal has been cruelly treated. Statements of an owner made at a hearing provided for in this Act are not admissible in a trial of the owner for a violation of Section 42.11, Penal Code. After all interested parties have been given an opportunity to present evidence at the hearing, if the court finds that the owner of an animal has cruelly treated the animal, the court shall order the animal returned to the owner. Sec. 3. (b) Notice of an auction ordered as provided in this Act must be posted on a public bulletin board where other public notices are posted for the city, town, or county. At the auction, a bid by the former owner of the animal or his representative may not be accepted.

(b) Proceeds from the sale of the animal shall be applied first to the expenses incurred in caring for the animal during impoundment and in conducting the auction. The officer conducting the auction shall pay any excess proceeds to the justice court ordering the auction. The court shall cause the excess proceeds to be returned to the former owner of the animal.

(c) If the officer is unable to sell the animal at auction, he may cause the animal to be destroyed or may give the animal to a nonprofit animal shelter, pound, or society for the protection of animals.

Sec. 4. An owner of an animal ordered sold at public auction as provided in this Act may appeal the ruling by giving notice of appeal in justice court within 10 days of the hearing. Appeal is by means of a hearing in county court in the county where the animal was impounded. At the hearing in county court, the court may assess costs of the hearing. During the pendency of an appeal under this section the animal shall not be sold, destroyed, or given away as provided in Sections 2 and 3 of this Act. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., ch. 77, § 5, eff. Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, to designate one of the regularly elected district judges, or a retired district judge, or an active or retired appellate judge with judicial experience on a district court, who, if retired, voluntarily retired from office, who resides within the district, and who has certified his willingness to serve, in each of said districts as Presiding Judge of the Administrative Judicial District. Adequate quarters for the operation of such District and preservation of records shall be provided in the courthouse of the county in which such Presiding Judge resides. Upon the death, resignation or expiration of the term of office of such Presiding Judge, the Governor shall thereafter immediately appoint or reappoint a Presiding Judge of the Administrative District, as in the first instances above. Presiding Judges of Administrative Judicial Districts shall serve for a term of four (4) years from date of qualification as such administrative judge.

Assignment of Retired Regular, and Former Judges; Duty to Accept Assignment and Compensation

Sec. 5a. Retired district judges, as defined by Article 6228(b) of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, who have consented to be subject to assignment, all regular district judges in this state, and all former district judges who were elected at a general election or appointed by the governor; who have not been defeated for re-election; who have not been removed from office by impeachment, the Supreme Court, the governor upon address of the legislature, the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, or by the legislature's abolishment of the judge's court; who are not more than 70 years of age; and who certify to the presiding judge a willingness to serve and to comply with the same prohibitions relating to the practice of law that are imposed on a retired judge by Section 7, Article 6228(b) of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended or hereafter amended, may be assigned under the provisions of this Act by the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district wherein such assigned judge resides, and while so assigned, shall have all the powers of a judge thereof. When such district judge is so assigned by the presiding judge of an administrative judicial district to a court in the same administrative district, or to a court in another administrative district upon call of the presiding judge of such other administrative district and then reassigned as provided for in Section 6 of this Act, as amended, it shall be the duty of such judge so assigned or reassigned to serve in such court or administrative district to which he may be assigned, or reassigned unless for good cause presented by him in writing to the presiding judge of his administrative district, he shall be relieved of such assignment by such presiding judge; provided, however, after the presentation of a written statement declining such duty for good cause by such district judge, if the presiding judge refuses to relieve the district judge from the assignment, the district judge may, within five days after such refusal, petition the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of Texas to be relieved from such assignment for good cause, which said Chief Justice may at his discretion grant or refuse.

The compensation, salaries and expenses of such judges while so assigned or reassigned shall be paid in accordance with the laws of the state, except that the salary of such retired judges shall be paid out of moneys appropriated from the General Revenue Fund for such purpose in an amount representing the difference between all of the retirement benefits of such judge as a retired district judge and the salary and compensation from all sources of the judge of the court wherein he is assigned, and determined pro-rata for the period of time he actually sits as such assigned judge. On certification of the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district that a former district judge has rendered services under the provisions of this Act, the former district judge shall be paid, out of county funds and out of money appropriated by the legislature for such purpose, for services actually performed, the same amount of compensation, salary, and expenses that the regular judge is entitled to receive from the county and from the state for such service.

Assignment of Retired District Judges to Domestic Relations or Juvenile Courts

Sec. 5b. A retired district judge, as defined by Chapter 99, Acts of the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949, as amended (Article 6228b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), may be assigned by the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district wherein the assigned judge resides to a domestic relations or juvenile court within the geographic limits of the respective administrative judicial district. A presiding judge may, with the consent of a retired district judge within his district, make an assignment outside of his judicial district with the specific authorization of the presiding judge of the district in which that assignment is made. The assignment shall be governed by all other provisions of this Act, except that the county wherein the domestic relations or juvenile court is located shall pay the salary stipulated in Section 5a of this Act.

Extended or Special Terms; Election Contests

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of any district judge of any district within the Administrative District to diligently discharge the administrative responsibilities of office, to rule on a case within three months after that case has been taken under advisement, to extend the regular terms of his court, and to call special terms, when necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act and dispose of pending litigation. It shall also be the duty of a district judge in whose court an election contest or suit brought for the removal of a local official is filed to request the Presiding Judge of the Administrative Judicial District to assign a judge of the Administrative District who is not a resident of the county to hold a special or regular term of court in that county in order to dispose of such suits. A district judge shall request the Presiding Judge to assign a judge of the Administrative District to hear any motions to recuse such district judge from a case pending in his court. If the term be extended as herein provided no other term of the court in such district shall fail because of said extension, but such other terms may be opened and held as usual. The Presiding Judge of one Administrative District may call upon the Presiding Judge of another Administrative District to furnish judges to aid in the disposition of litigation pending in any judicial district within the Administrative District in which such judge so making the request has been designated as the Presiding Judge. For the trial of cases and the entry of orders and the disposition of other business necessary, the judge of any district in this State, or any District Judge sent to any district in this State by the Presiding Judge of an Administrative District, shall have power, by entering an order on the minutes, to convene a special term of the court for the disposition of the business coming before the district court.

TITLE 14—APPENDIX

B. CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Adopted July 25, 1974

Effective September 1, 1974

Amended to November 9, 1976

Canon 1
A Judge Should Uphold the Integrity and Independence of the Judiciary.

An independent and honorable judiciary is indispensable to justice in our society. A judge should participate in establishing, maintaining, and enforcing, and should himself observe, high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary may be preserved. The provisions of this Code should be construed and applied to further that objective.

Canon 2
A Judge Should Avoid Impropriety and the Appearance of Impropriety in all his Activities

A. A judge should respect and comply with the law and should conduct himself at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary.

B. A judge should not allow his family, social, or other relationships to influence his judicial conduct or judgment. He should not lend the prestige of his office to advance the private interests of others; nor should he convey or permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence him. He should not testify voluntarily in an adjudicative proceeding as a character witness.

Canon 3
A Judge Should Perform the Duties of his Office Impartially and Diligently

The judicial duties of a judge take precedence over all his other activities. His judicial duties include all the duties of his office prescribed by law. In the performance of these duties, the following standards apply:

A. Adjudicative Responsibilities.

(1) A judge should be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it. He should be unswayed by partisan interests, public clamor, or fear of criticism.

(2) A judge should maintain order and decorum in proceedings before him.

(3) A judge should be patient, dignified, and courteous to litigants, jurors, witnesses, lawyers, and others with whom he deals in his official capacity, and should require similar conduct of lawyers, and of his staff, court officials, and others subject to his direction and control.

(4) A judge should accord to every person who is legally interested in a proceeding, or his lawyer, full right to be heard according to law, and, except as authorized by law, neither initiate nor consider ex parte or other private communications concerning a pending or impending proceeding.

(5) A judge should dispose promptly of the business of the court.

(6) A judge should abstain from public comment about a pending or impending proceeding in any court, and should require similar abstention on the part of court personnel subject to his direction and control. This subsection does not prohibit judges from making public statements in the course of their official duties or from explaining for public information the procedures of the court.

(7) A judge should prohibit broadcasting, televising, recording, or taking photographs in the courtroom and areas adjacent thereto during sessions of court or recesses between sessions (Estes vs. Texas,
B. CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT

381 U.S. 532; Sheppard vs. Maxwell, 384 U.S. 333), except that a judge may authorize:

(a) the use of electronic or photographic means for the presentation of evidence, for the perpetuation of a record, or for other purposes of judicial administration;

(b) the broadcasting, televising, recording, or photographing of investitive, or ceremonial proceedings;

(c) the photographic or electronic recording and reproduction of appropriate court proceedings under the following conditions:

(i) the means of recording will not distract participants or impair the dignity of the proceedings;

(ii) the parties have consented, and the consent to being depicted or recorded has been obtained from each witness appearing in the recording and reproduction;

(iii) the reproduction will not be exhibited until after the proceeding has been concluded and all direct appeals have been exhausted; and

(iv) the reproduction will be exhibited only for instructional purposes in educational institutions.

(d) Oral arguments by the parties in the appellate courts may be recorded by electronic means upon the prior consent obtained from the court, or the chief justice or presiding judge as the case may be, where the means of recording will not distract the participants or impair the dignity of the proceedings.

Amended Nov. 9, 1976.

B. Administrative Responsibilities.

(1) A judge should diligently discharge his administrative responsibilities, maintain professional competence in judicial administration, and facilitate the performance of the administrative responsibilities of other judges and court officials.

(2) A judge should require his staff and court officials subject to his direction and control to observe the standards of fidelity and diligence that apply to him.

(3) A judge should take or initiate appropriate disciplinary measures against a lawyer for unprofessional conduct of which the judge may become aware.

(4) A judge should not make unnecessary appointments. He should exercise his power of appointment only on the basis of merit, avoiding nepotism and favoritism. He should not approve compensation of appointees beyond the fair value of services rendered.

C. Disqualification. (Art. V, Sec. 11 Texas Constitution; Art. 15 V.A.T.S.; C.C.P. Art. 30.01).

(1) A judge should disqualify himself in a proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned, including, but not limited to, instances where:

(a) he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(b) he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(c) he knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(2) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(3) For the purposes of this section:

(a) “fiduciary” includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(b) “financial interest” means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, advisor, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a “financial interest” in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) an office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(iii) the proprietary interest of a policy holder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.
A Judge May Engage in Activities to Improve the Law, the Legal System, and the Administration of Justice

A judge, subject to the proper performance of his judicial duties, may engage in the following quasi-judicial activities, if in doing so he does not cast doubt on his capacity to decide impartially any issue that may come before him:

A. He may speak, write, lecture, teach, and participate in other activities concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice.

B. He may appear at a public hearing before an executive or legislative body or official on matters concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice, and he may otherwise consult with an executive or legislative body or official, but only on matters concerning the administration of justice.

C. He may serve as a member, officer, or director of an organization or governmental agency devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. He may assist such an organization in raising funds and may participate in their management and investment, but should not personally participate in public fund raising activities. He may make recommendations to public and private fund-granting agencies on projects and programs concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice.

A Judge Should Regulate his Extra-Judicial Activities to Minimize the Risk of Conflict with his Judicial Duties

A. Avocational Activities. A judge may write, lecture, teach, and speak on non-legal subjects, and engage in the arts, sports, and other social and recreational activities, if such avocational activities do not detract from the dignity of his office or interfere with the performance of his judicial duties.

B. Civic and Charitable Activities. A judge may participate in civic and charitable activities that do not reflect adversely upon his impartiality or interfere with the performance of his judicial duties.

(1) A judge should not serve if it is likely that the organization will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him or will be regularly engaged in adversary proceedings in any court.

(2) A judge should not solicit funds for any educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, political, or civic organization, or use or permit the use of the prestige of his office for that purpose, but he may be listed as an officer, director, delegate, or trustee of such an organization. He should not be a speaker or the guest of honor at an organization's fund raising events, but he may attend such events.

(3) A judge should not give investment advice to such an organization, but he may serve on its board of directors or trustees even though it has the responsibility for approving investment decisions.

Amended Nov. 9, 1976.

C. Financial Activities.

(1) A judge should refrain from financial and business dealings that tend to reflect adversely on his impartiality, interfere with the proper performance of his judicial duties, exploit his judicial position, or involve him in frequent transactions with lawyers or persons likely to come before the court on which he serves.

(2) Subject to the requirement of subsection (1), a judge may hold and manage investments, including real estate, and engage in other remunerative activity including the operation of a business. A judge should not be an officer, director or manager of a publicly owned business. For purposes of this Canon, a "publicly owned business" is a business having more than ten owners.

(3) A judge should manage his investments and other financial interests to minimize the number of cases in which he is disqualified. As soon as he can do so without serious financial detriment, he should divest himself of investments and other financial interests that might require frequent disqualification.

(4) Neither a judge nor a member of his family residing in his household should accept a gift, bequest, favor, or loan from anyone except as follows:

(a) a judge may accept a gift incident to a public testimonial to him; books supplied by publishers on a complimentary basis for official use; or an invitation to the judge and his spouse to attend a bar-related function or activity devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice;

(b) a judge or a member of his family residing in his household may accept ordinary social hospitality; a gift, bequest, favor, or loan from a relative; a wedding or engagement gift; a loan from a lending institution in its regular course of business on the same terms generally available to persons who are not judges; or a scholarship or fellowship awarded on the same terms applied to other applicants;
B. CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT

A Judge Should Regularly File Reports of Compensation Received for Quasi-Judicial and Extra-Judicial Activities

A judge may receive compensation and reimbursement of expenses for the quasi-judicial and extra-judicial activities permitted by this Code, if the source of such payments does not give the appearance of influencing the judge in his judicial duties or otherwise give the appearance of impropriety, subject to the following restrictions:

A. Compensation. Compensation should not exceed a reasonable amount nor should it exceed what a person who is not a judge would receive for the same activity.

B. Expense Reimbursement. Expense reimbursement should be limited to the actual cost of travel, food, and lodging reasonably incurred by the judge and, where appropriate to the occasion, by his family. Any payment in excess of such an amount is compensation.

C. A judge shall file with the Judicial Qualifications Commission of this State on or before the last Friday of April of each year a financial report consisting of the following documents:

(a) A true copy of the most recent Federal income tax return filed by him.

(b) An affidavit which asserts compliance with Article 6252-9b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, the financial disclosure law.

(c) A verified list of the names of the corporations, businesses or other financial undertakings in which he has an interest. If any of the above have no name, then a description of their nature shall be given.

(d) At the expiration of two years from the time a judge by reason of death, disability or other reason is no longer subject to recall to judicial service, the Commission shall destroy the documents filed by a judge in compliance with this Canon.

The copy of income tax return called for in subparagraph (a) above shall be transmitted in a sealed envelope, placed by the Commission in safekeeping, and shall be opened only during an investigation and pursuant to a majority vote of the full Commission duly assembled.

If the federal government has granted an extension of time for the filing of an income tax return, that fact shall be made known to the Judicial Qualifications Commission on or before the last Friday of April of the year in which the tax return is due. The judge shall in that case file the copy of his income tax return with the Judicial Qualifications Commission within ten days after he files his income tax return with the government.

(5) take such other action as may be appropriate for the improvement and more efficient administration of criminal justice.

Reprimand, Disqualification, or Removal from Office

Sec. 10. (a) A prosecuting attorney may be reprimanded, disqualified, or removed from office as hereinafter provided.

(b) For purposes of this Act:

(1) "incompetency" means:
   (A) gross ignorance or neglect of official duty;
   (B) physical or mental defect which prohibits the prompt or proper discharge of official duties; or
   (C) failure to maintain the qualifications required by law for election to the office.
(2) "misconduct" means:
   (A) any unlawful behavior defined in Chapter 39 of the Penal Code;
(B) any act which is a felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; or
(C) willful or persistent conduct which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of official duties.

c) A prosecuting attorney is disqualified from performing the duties and functions or exercising the privileges of his office when a petition for removal from office has been filed against him as provided in this Act.

d) A prosecuting attorney shall be suspended from office when:

(2) he has been found guilty in a court of competent jurisdiction of any felony or any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude;
(3) a finding of incompetency or misconduct following a trial on the merits of a petition for removal.

e) A prosecuting attorney shall be removed from office upon final adjudication or conviction for any cause of action which was the basis for his suspension.

(f) (1) During a period of disqualification, the prosecuting attorney shall be entitled to receive the compensation provided by law for such office but shall be disqualified from the performance of any official duties imposed upon his office by law or exercising any privilege incident thereto.
(2) During a period of suspension, the prosecuting attorney shall not be entitled to any compensation provided by law for his office and shall be disqualified from the performance of any official duties imposed upon his office by law or exercising any privilege incident thereto. If the trial court judgment which causes a suspension is upon final determination overturned, then he shall be entitled to receive as compensation an amount equal to the total compensation he would have received during the period of such suspension.

(g) (1) After investigation of a complaint of prosecuting attorney incompetency or misconduct, the council may, in its discretion, issue a private reprimand, order a hearing to be held before the council, or request the supreme court to appoint a master to hold a hearing.
(2) The supreme court shall by rule provide for the procedure before the council and masters in hearings relating to the investigation of complaints of prosecuting attorney incompetency or misconduct, consistent with this Act and due process of law.
(3) In the conduct of investigations or hearings, any member of the council or the master may administer oaths and issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and to compel testimony and the production of books, records, papers, accounts, and documents relevant to any investigation or hearing. Orders for attendance of witnesses, testimony, or production of evidence shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings in the district court.

(h) It shall be the duty of all law enforcement officers to serve process and execute all lawful orders of the council or master. Such process and orders may also be served by any other person designated by the master, the council, or their authorized representative.

(i) In any investigation or hearing, process shall extend to all parts of the state, and each witness, other than an officer or employee of the state or a political subdivision, shall receive the same fees and mileage as allowed witnesses in civil cases.

(j) In any investigation or hearing, the council or master may order the deposition of any person be taken in accordance with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

(k) Upon the appointment of a master, notice shall be given to the prosecuting attorney who is the subject of any complaint or investigation, specifying the matters under investigation and the complaint against him and setting a formal hearing for the first Monday next after expiration of 30 days after the service thereof.

(l) After the conclusion of the hearing, the master shall file with the council a statement of his findings of fact, together with a complete transcript of all proceedings had in the cause. Such findings and transcripts shall be filed with the council not later than 30 days after the date set for the hearing to commence. For good cause shown, the council may, in its discretion, extend the time for filing such findings and transcripts.

(m) All proceedings and records before the council or a master shall be confidential and privileged until such time as they are introduced in evidence in any proceeding for removal.

(n) If, after examining the records and proceedings before it, the council finds by majority vote of the council membership good cause therefor, it shall cause to be filed in the district court of the county in which the prosecuting attorney resides a petition for removal. Such petition shall be filed in the name of the State of Texas and docketed on the civil docket of the court. Such petition shall allege incompetency or misconduct, together with the facts which form the basis of the allegations. The trial on a petition for removal shall proceed in accordance with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure and shall have priority on the docket of the court.

(o) When a petition for removal is filed pursuant to this section, the judge of the court in which it is filed shall request the appointment of a special judge who shall hear the case. Upon appointment, the special judge shall appoint an attorney to prosecute the case, such counsel to be selected from a list of not less than five qualified attorneys submitted by the council.

(m) Upon disqualification or suspension of a prosecuting attorney, the duties of his office shall be performed by a prosecuting attorney pro tem as otherwise provided by law.

Severability

Sec. 11. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end, the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Effect of Constitutional Amendment

Sec. 12. Should the voters of Texas approve a constitutional amendment giving the Judicial Qualifications Commission jurisdiction over prosecuting attorneys covered by this Act, then the powers, duties, and authority granted by this Act to the Texas Prosecutors Coordinating Council shall be vested in the Judicial Qualifications Commission to the extent that said powers, duties, and authority do not conflict with the powers, duties, and authorities of the commission established by law and the Texas Constitution. If such powers, duties, and authority are transferred from the Texas Prosecutors Coordinating Council to the Judicial Qualifications Commission, then the existence of the Texas Prosecutors Coordinating Council shall terminate.

Art. 342-208a. Examination of Nonbanking Affiliates

The Commissioner may examine the affiliates of a state bank to the extent it is necessary to safeguard the interest of depositors, creditors, and stockholders of the bank and to enforce the provisions of The Texas Bank Code of 1943. The Commissioner may conduct the examination in conjunction with any examination of the state bank or affiliate conducted by any other state or federal regulatory authority. For the purpose of this Article, “affiliate” means any bank holding company of which the state bank is a subsidiary and any nonbanking subsidiary of that bank holding company, as “subsidiary” is defined by Section 2 of the federal Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C., Sec. 1841(d), as amended).

the charter application is necessary to a full development of the factual record. Subject to the above qualification, the list of incorporators and proposed officers and directors who support the application for a charter shall be available to public inspection.

C. The Commissioner shall require deposit of such charter fees as are required by law and shall proceed to conduct a thorough investigation of the application, the applicants and their personnel, and the charter conditions alleged. The actual expense of such investigation and report shall be paid by the applicants, and the Commissioner may require a deposit in an estimated amount, the balance to be paid in full prior to hearing of the application. A written report of the investigation shall be furnished to the State Banking Board and shall be made available to all interested parties at their request.

D. Upon filing of the application, the Commissioner shall promptly set the time and place for public hearing of the application for charter, giving the applicants and such other banks in the same trade area reasonable notice thereof. After full and public hearing the Board shall vote and determine whether the necessary conditions set out in Section A above have been established. Should the Board, or a majority of the Board, determine all of the said conditions affirmatively, then the application shall be approved; if not, then the application shall be denied. If approved, and when the Commissioner receives satisfactory evidence that the capital has been paid in full in cash, the Commissioner shall deliver to the incorporators a certified copy of the Articles of Association, and the bank shall come into corporate existence. Provided however, that the State Banking Board may make its approval of any application conditional, and in such event shall set out such condition in the resolution granting the charter, and the Commissioner shall not deliver the certified copy of the Articles of Association until such condition has been met, after which the Commissioner shall in writing inform the State Banking Board as to compliance with such condition and delivery of the Articles of Association.

E. The provisions of the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) governing contested cases do not apply to charter applications filed for the purpose of assuming the assets and liabilities of any bank deemed by the Commissioner to be in an unsafe condition. CHAPTER FOUR. STOCK, STOCKHOLDERS, BY-LAWS, DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES

Article 342-401a. Transfer of Stock—Review by Commissioner [NEW].

342-411a. Exemption from Securities Law [NEW].

Art. 342-401a. Transfer of Stock—Review by Commissioner

A. No person may acquire any voting security of a state bank or of any corporation or other entity owning voting securities of a state bank if, after the acquisition, the person would own or possess the power to vote twenty-five per cent (25%) or more of the voting securities of the bank unless an application is filed with the Commissioner for his review of the proposed transaction and for his action, if any, as provided in this Article.

B. The application shall be on a form prescribed by the Commissioner and shall be made under oath. The application shall, except to the extent expressly waived by the Commissioner, contain the following information:

(1) the identity, personal history, business background and experience, and financial condition of each person by whom or on whose behalf the acquisition is to be made, including a description of the managerial resources and future prospects of each acquiring party and a description of any material pending legal or administrative proceedings in which he is a party;

(2) the terms and conditions of any proposed acquisition and the manner in which the acquisition is to be made;

(3) the identity, source, and amount of the funds or other consideration used or to be used in making the acquisition, and if any part of these funds or other consideration has been or is to be borrowed or otherwise obtained for the purpose of making the acquisition, a description of the transaction, the names of the parties, and arrangements, agreements, or understandings with such persons;

(4) any plans or proposals which any acquiring party making the acquisition may have to...
liquidate the bank, to sell its assets or merge it with any company, or to make any other major changes in its business or corporate structure or management;

(5) the terms and conditions of any offer, invitation, agreement, or arrangement under which any voting security will be acquired and any contract affecting such security or its financing after it is acquired; and

(6) such other information that the Commissioner by rule shall require to be furnished in an application as well as any information that the Commissioner orders to be included in the particular application being filed.

The applicant shall pay the appropriate filing fee when he files the application. A "person" proposing to acquire voting securities subject to the provisions of this Article includes an individual, two (2) or more individuals acting in concert, any type of partnership, corporation, syndicate, trust, or any other organization, or any combination of the foregoing, and the information required by the Commissioner may be required of each member of the group, as directed by the Commissioner. Information obtained by the Commissioner under this Article is confidential and may not be disclosed by the Commissioner or any officer or employee of the Banking Department, except that the Commissioner may in his discretion, if he deems it necessary or proper to the enforcement of the laws of this state or the United States and to the best interest of the public, divulge such information to any department, agency, or instrumentality of the state or federal government, and provided that notice of the application, its date of filing, and the identity of all parties thereto shall be submitted to the Texas Register by the Commissioner upon receipt of the said application and shall be published in the next issue thereof following the date such information is received.

C. The Commissioner shall issue an order denying an application if he finds that:

(1) the acquisition would substantially lessen competition or would in any manner be in restraint of trade and would result in a monopoly or would be in furtherance of a combination or conspiracy to monopolize or attempt to monopolize the banking industry in any part of the State, unless he also finds that the anticompetitive effects of the proposed acquisition are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of acquisition in meeting the convenience and needs of the community to be served and that the proposed acquisition is not in violation of any law of this State or the United States;

(2) the poor financial condition of any acquiring party might jeopardize the financial stability of the bank being acquired;

(3) plans or proposals to liquidate or sell the bank or its assets are not in the best interest of the bank;

(4) the experience, ability, standing, competence, trustworthiness, or integrity of the applicant is such that the acquisition would not be in the best interest of the bank;

(5) the bank will not be solvent, have adequate capital structure, or be in compliance with the laws of this State after the acquisition;

(6) the applicant has failed to furnish all of the information pertinent to the application reasonably requested by the Commissioner; or

(7) the applicant is not acting in good faith.

D. If an application filed under this Article is not denied by the Commissioner within thirty (30) days after it is filed, the transaction may be consummated. The Commissioner may, before the expiration of the thirty-day period, give the applicant written notice that the application will not be denied, in which case the transaction may be consummated. Any agreement entered into by the applicants and the Commissioner as a condition that the application will not be denied is enforceable against the bank and is considered for all purposes an agreement under the provisions of this Code.

E. If the Commissioner issues an order denying an application, the applicant is entitled to a hearing if he requests one in writing no later than the thirtieth (30th) day after the day the application is filed or the fifteenth (15th) day after the day the application is denied, whichever date is later. After hearing the matter, the Commissioner shall, within thirty (30) days, enter a final order either affirming his denial or withdrawing his denial of the application. An applicant may not appeal the Commissioner's denial of an application or order affirming his denial until a final order is entered. Any applicant herein shall have the right to appeal such final order to the district court of Travis County, Texas, and not elsewhere, against the Banking Commissioner of Texas as defendant. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature. The action shall not be limited to questions of law and the substantial evidence rule shall not apply, but such action shall be tried and determined upon a trial de novo to the same extent as now provided for in the case of an appeal from the justice court to the county court. Either party to said action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court over all causes of a different character therein pending. The Commissioner shall not be required to give any appeal bond in any cause arising hereunder. The filing of an appeal pursuant to this Article shall not stay the order of the Commissioner adverse to the applicant.

F. This Article does not apply to:

1. the acquisition of securities in connection with the exercise of a security interest or otherwise by way of foreclosure on default in the payment of a debt previously contracted for in good faith, provided that the person acquiring such securities does not vote the securities so acquired without having given written notice of such foreclosure to the Commissioner;

2. transactions governed by Article 8, 9, or 10 of Chapter III of this Code; 1

4. acquisitions by the owner of more than fifty per cent (50%) of the voting securities of the bank; or acquisitions of less than ten per cent (10%) of the voting securities of the bank in any one (1) year by the owner of twenty-five per cent (25%) or more, but not more than fifty per cent (50%), of those voting securities, provided that such acquisition does not result in the owner of twenty-five per cent (25%) or more acquiring fifty per cent (50%) or more of the voting securities;

5. acquisitions or transfers by operation of law or by will or intestate succession, provided that the person acquiring such securities does not vote the securities so acquired without having given written notice of acquisition to the Commissioner; or

6. any transaction which the Commissioner by rule or order may exempt as not being contemplated by the purposes of this Article or the regulation of which is not necessary or appropriate to achieve the objectives of this Article.

No provision of this Section shall excuse or diminish the notice requirements provided elsewhere in this Code.

G. No provision of this Article shall be construed to prevent the Commissioner from investigating, commenting upon, or seeking to enjoin or set aside any transfer of voting securities, whether the transfer is included within this Article or not, if the Commissioner deems the transfer to be against the public interest.

H. If it appears to the Commissioner that any person has committed or is about to commit a violation of this Article or any rule or order of the Commissioner adopted under it, the Attorney General on behalf of the Commissioner may apply to the district court of Travis County for an order enjoining the violation and for any other equitable relief as the nature of the case may require.

I. Any person who willfully and knowingly makes a materially false or misleading statement to the Commissioner with respect to the information required herein may be fined in an amount not exceeding Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000), or be confined in jail for a period not to exceed one (1) year, or both. This provision is cumulative of other remedies contained herein.

J. The Commissioner by rule shall adopt a schedule of fees for the filing of applications and the holding of hearings. The schedule may be graduated so that those applications and hearings that are more difficult to review or administer will require a larger fee. An application fee is not refundable on denial of the application, but the Commissioner may refund a portion of the fee if the application is withdrawn before he completes review of it. Fees collected under this Article shall be retained by the Department and may be used only for expenses of the Department.

Art. 342-402. Stockholders' Meetings—Quorum—Voting

The stockholders of each state bank shall hold one regular meeting each year at the time prescribed in its bylaws and such special meetings as may be deemed necessary after notice as prescribed in the bylaws. At all stockholders' meetings the owners of a majority of the capital stock, present in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum. In the absence of a quorum, a stockholders' meeting may be adjourned from time to time without notice to the stockholders. Each stockholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock owned by such stockholder, which vote may be cast in person or by proxy duly authorized in writing filed among the records of the bank. Stock owned of record by an estate shall be voted by its personal representative, and stock held in a fiduciary capacity shall be voted by the fiduciary, provided, however, that in the election of directors, shares of its own stock held solely by a state bank in any such capacity, whether registered in its own name in such capacity or in the name of its nominee, shall not be voted by the bank unless under the terms of the will or trust, the manner in which such shares shall be voted may be determined by a donor or beneficiary of the will or trust and unless such donor or beneficiary actually directs how such shares shall be voted, and shares of its own stock held by state bank and one or more persons in any such capacities may be voted by such other person or persons in the same manner as if such person or persons were the sole personal representative or sole trustee. Whenever shares of stock cannot be voted by reason of being held by the bank as sole personal representative or sole trustee, such shares shall be excluded in determining whether matters voted upon by the shareholders were adopt­ed by the requisite percentage of shares.

Section 2 of the 1977 Act provided as follows:

"Any provision or part of a provision in the Texas Banking Code of 1943, as amended (Article 342-101 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), which is in conflict with the provisions of this Act is hereby repealed to the extent of the conflict only."

Art. 342-110. Directors, Officers and Employees—Liability—Reimbursement for Expenses

Except as otherwise provided by statute, directors and officers of state banks shall be liable for financial losses sustained by state banks to the extent that directors and officers of other corporations are now responsible for such losses in equity and common law. Any officer or director who does not approve of any act or omission of the board, and desires to relieve himself from any personal liability for such act or omission shall promptly announce his opposition to such act or omission and cause such opposition to be spread upon the minutes of the directors' meeting. If for any reason such opposition is not spread upon the minutes of the directors' meeting, he shall promptly report the facts to the Commissioner.

Any person may be indemnified or reimbursed by a state bank, through action of its board, for reasonable expenses actually incurred by him in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which he is a party by reason of his being or having been a director, officer or employee of said bank. The board may authorize the purchase by the bank of insurance covering the indemnification of directors, officers or employees. If there is a compromise of such an action or threatened action, there shall be no indemnification or reimbursement for the amount paid to settle the claim or for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with such claim without the vote, or the written consent, of the owners of record of a majority of the stock of the bank. No such person shall be indemnified or reimbursed if he has been finally adjudged to have been guilty of, or liable for, willful misconduct, gross neglect of duty, or a criminal act. This article shall not bar any right or action to which such person would be entitled at common law or any other statute of this State.

Art. 342-411a. Exemption from Securities Law

A person who is an officer, director, or employee of a state bank or national bank domiciled in the state with less than five hundred (500) shareholders is exempt from the registration and licensing provi­sions of The Securities Act, as amended (Article 581-1 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), with respect to that person's participation in a sale or other transaction involving securities issued by the bank of which that person is an officer, director, or employee. An officer, director, or employee may not be compensated for services provided under this Article.

[Added by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1038, ch. 378, § 1, eff. June 10, 1977.]

CHAPTER FIVE. LOANS AND INVESTMENTS

Art. 342-507. Limit of Liability of Any One Borrower—Exceptions—Penalty

No state bank shall permit any person or any corporation to become indebted or in any other way liable to it in an amount in excess of twenty-five per cent (25%) of its capital and certified surplus. The phrase "indebted or in any other way liable" shall be construed to include liability as partner or otherwise. The above limitation shall not apply to the following classes of indebtedness or liability:

1. Liability as endorser or guarantor of commercial or business paper discounted by or assigned to the bank by the actual owner thereof who has acquired it in the ordinary course of business.

2. Indebtedness evidenced by bills of exchange or drafts drawn against actually existing values and secured by a lien upon goods in transit with shippers' order bills of lading or comparable instruments attached.

3. Indebtedness evidenced by notes or other paper secured by liens upon agricultural products, manufactured goods, or other chattels in storage in bonded warehouses or elevators with warehouse or elevator receipts attached, cotton yard tickets, signed by a bonded weigher, when the value of the security is not less than one hundred twenty-five per cent (125%) of the indebtedness, and the bank's interest therein is adequately insured against loss, with insurance policies or certificates of insurance attached.

4. Deposit in a reserve depository, or a Federal Reserve Bank.

5. Indebtedness of another state or national bank arising out of short-term loans when such loans are made out of the excess cash reserve funds of the lending bank and have settlement periods of less than one week.

6. Indebtedness arising out of the daily transaction of the business of any clearing house association in this State.

7. Bonds and other legally created general obligations of any State or of any county, city, municipality or political subdivision thereof and indebtedness of the United States of America, or any instrumentality or agency of the United States Government.

8. Any portion of any indebtedness which the United States Government or any agency or instrumentality of the United States Government has unconditionally agreed to purchase or has unconditionally guaranteed as to payment of both principal and interest.

9. Liability under an agreement by a third party to repurchase from the bank an indebtedness that the United States Government or any agency or instrumentality of the United States Government has unconditionally agreed to purchase or has unconditionally guaranteed as to payment of both principal and interest, to the extent that the agreed repurchase price does not exceed the purchase price agreed to or value guaranteed by the United States, its agency or instrumentality.

A state bank may permit any person, partnership, association or corporation to become indebted or in any other way liable to it in an amount equal to or less than fifteen per cent (15%) of its capital and certified surplus in addition to any indebtedness or liability of such person, partnership, association or corporation to the bank in an amount not in excess of twenty-five per cent (25%) of its capital and certified surplus, when such additional indebtedness or liability to the bank is secured by bonds or notes of the United States issued since April 24, 1917, certificates of indebtedness of the United States, Treasury bills of the United States, or obligations fully guaranteed both as to principal and interest by the United States, the market value of which security is at all times not less than one hundred twenty per cent (120%) of such indebtedness or liability to the bank.

Any officer, director or employee of a state bank who knowingly violates or participates in the violation of any provision of this Article shall upon conviction be fined not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) or confined in the State penitentiary not more than five (5) years, or both.

Art. 342-508. Loan Fees Prohibited—Exception

No bank shall charge or collect any loan fee or any other charge, by whatever name called, for the granting of a loan unless authorized by law. Provided, however, a bank may require an applicant for a loan or discount to pay the cost of any abstract, attorney’s opinion or title insurance policy, or other form of insurance, and filing or recording fees or appraisal fees. Expenses necessary or proper for the protection of the lender, and actually incurred in connection with the making of the loan may be charged. In all loan transactions in which the amount loaned is $100 or more and the loan period is one month or more, a bank may charge any borrower the reasonable value of services rendered in connection with the making of any loan, including the drawing of notes, the taking of acknowledgments and affidavits, the preparation of financial statements, and the investigation or analysis of the financial responsibility of the borrower or any endorser, surety or co-signer, in an amount agreed upon, but not to exceed $15 for each loan transaction, which shall be in lieu of all interest and other charges which could otherwise be collected in connection with the loan. No bank shall induce or permit any person, or husband and wife, to be obligated directly or indirectly under more than one loan contract under this article at the same time for the purpose, or with the effect, of obtaining a higher authorized charge than would otherwise be permitted. The charge authorized herein shall not apply to any renewal or extension of an obligation on which the charge has been previously imposed; provided, however, that such renewal or extension may bear interest at the rate that is otherwise provided by law. The charge shall not apply to a loan transaction wherein the borrower applies all or a portion of the loan proceeds to discharge a prior loan made by the same lender to the same borrower and in connection with which the above charge was imposed.

CHAPTER NINE. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 342-912. Acquisition of Bank or Holding Company under Federal Law—Notice to Commissioner—Recommendations of Commissioners.

Article 342-913. Acquisition of Nonbanking Institution under Federal Law—Notice to Commissioner—Order and Appeal.

Art. 342-903. Branch Banking Prohibited

No State, national or private bank shall engage in business in more than one place, maintain any branch office, or cash checks or receive deposits except in its own banking house. For purposes of this article “banking house” means the building in whose offices the business of the bank is conducted and which is functionally one place of business, including (a) office facilities whose nearest wall is located within five hundred (500) feet of the nearest wall of the central building and is physically connected to the central building by tunnel, passageway or hallway providing direct access between the central building and the connected office facility or by closed circuit television or pneumatic tube or other physically connected delivery device, and (b) in addition, if authorized in the manner hereinafter provided, not more than one (1) automobile drive-in facility whose nearest boundary is located within two thousand (2,000) feet of the nearest wall of the central building but more than five hundred (500) feet therefrom and is connected to the central building by tunnel, passageway or hallway providing direct access between the central building and the connected automobile drive-in facility or by closed circuit television, pneumatic tube or other physically connected delivery device. The entire banking house shall for all purposes under the law be considered one integral banking house. The term "automobile drive-in facility" as herein used shall mean a facility offering banking services solely to persons who arrive at such facility in an automobile and remain therein during the transaction of business with the bank.

An automobile drive-in facility whose nearest boundary is located within two thousand (2,000) feet of the nearest wall of the central building but more than five hundred (500) feet therefrom shall be authorized only in the following manner: Written application for authority to operate the same shall be filed with the Commissioner by the bank proposing such facility, which application shall specify the location of the proposed facility. Promptly upon the filing of such written application the Commissioner shall, by registered United States mail, postage prepaid, notify each bank, if any, whose central building is situated within a one (1) mile radius of said proposed facility, hereinafter called the "Interested Banks," of the filing of such application, transmitting with such notice a true copy of said application. If within thirty (30) days following the mailing of such notice no written protest to the operation of the said proposed facility has been filed with the Commissioner by an Interested Bank, or, if there are no Interested Banks, said proposed facility shall thereupon be fully authorized without the necessity of any further action by the applying bank or by the Commissioner. However, if a written protest to the operation of said proposed facility is filed with the Commissioner during said thirty (30) day period by one or more of the Interested Banks, said application shall be promptly considered by the State Banking Board at a public hearing duly called, noticed and held in the same manner as hearings to consider applications for the granting of bank charters, and authorization to operate said proposed facility shall be granted at such hearing unless the State Banking Board shall find that the operation thereof will substantially and adversely affect one or more of the Interested Banks, in which case authorization shall be denied. National banks and private banks doing business in this State shall voluntarily submit to the jurisdiction of the State Banking Board, and abide by the determination of the Board as to whether or not permission should be granted to establish and operate an additional drive-in facility authorized under this article, provided that any national bank which does not abide by the determination of the Board shall immediately forfeit all rights it may have under State law to act as reserve depository for any State chartered bank and to act as depository for the public funds of the State and any county, city, municipality, school district or any other political subdivision of the State, and such funds shall be immediately withdrawn by the depositor and shall not be deposited thereafter in said national bank unless and until the Commissioner certifies to the depositor that said national bank is conducting its business in compliance with the Board's determinations and orders. In addition the Attorney General shall seek an injunction against any violation of the Board's orders under this article by any national bank or private bank. Any bank adversely affected by a violation of this article may, and the Attorney General, upon request of the Commissioner, shall bring suit in a court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin a violation of this article. The party who prevails in such proceeding shall recover costs of suit and reasonable attorney's fees. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 531, ch. 215, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 342-910a. Legal Holidays For Banks or Trust Companies—Alternative Legal Holidays For Banks or Trust Companies—Discrimination Prohibited

Sec. 1. Legal Holidays For Banks or Trust Companies. Notwithstanding any existing provisions of law relative to negotiable or nonnegotiable instruments or commercial paper, but subject to the provisions of Section 2 of this article, only the following enumerated days are declared to be legal holidays for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company in Texas shall remain closed: Saturdays, Sundays, January 1, the third Monday in February, the last Monday in May, July 4, the first Monday in September, the second Monday in October, the 11th day of November, the fourth Thursday in November, and December 25.

When the dates July 4, November 11, or December 25 fall on Saturday, then the Friday immediately preceding such Saturday shall also be a legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company in Texas shall remain closed. When the dates January 1, July 4, November 11, or December 25 fall on Sunday, then the Monday next following such Sunday shall also be a legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company in Texas shall remain closed.

All such legal holidays shall be neither business days nor banking days under the laws of this State or the United States, and any act authorized, required or permitted to be performed at or by any bank or trust company on such days may be performed on the next succeeding business day and no liability or loss of right of any kind shall result therefrom to any bank or trust company.
Sec. 2. Alternative Legal Holidays For Banks Or Trust Companies. Any bank or trust company may elect to designate days on which it may close for general banking purposes pursuant to the provisions of this section, instead of Section 1 of this article, provided that any bank or trust company which has elected to be governed by this section shall remain closed on the following enumerated days, which days are declared to be legal holidays for banking purposes: Sundays, January 1, the third Monday in February, the last Monday in May, July 4, the first Monday in September, the second Monday in October, the 11th day of November, the fourth Thursday in November, and December 25. When the dates July 4, November 11, or December 25 fall on Saturday, then the Friday immediately preceding such Saturday shall also be a legal holiday for all banking purposes on which each bank or trust company shall remain closed. When the dates January 1, July 4, November 11, or December 25 fall on Sunday, then the Monday next following each Sunday shall also be a mandatory legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company shall remain closed. Except as herein provided, any bank or trust company doing business in this state may, at its option, elect to be governed by this section and close for general banking purposes either on Saturday or on any other weekday as herein provided in addition to mandatory legal holidays, provided:

(a) such day is designated at least 15 days in advance by adoption of a resolution concurred in by a majority of the board of directors thereof (or, if an unincorporated bank or trust company, by its owner or a majority of its owners, if there be more than one owner); and

(b) notice of the day or days designated in such resolution is posted in a conspicuous place in such bank or trust company for at least 15 days in advance of the day or days designated; and

(c) a copy of such resolution certified by the president or cashier of such bank or trust company is filed with the Banking Department of Texas.

The filing of such copy of resolution as aforesaid with the Banking Department of Texas shall be deemed to be proof in all courts in this state that such bank or trust company has duly complied with the provisions of this section. Any such election to so close shall remain in effect until a subsequent resolution shall be adopted and notice thereof posted and a copy thereof filed in the manner above provided.

If any bank or trust company elects to close for general banking purposes on Saturday or any other weekday as herein provided, it may, at its option, remain open on such day for the purpose of performing limited banking services. Notice of election to perform limited banking services shall be contained in the resolution and notices, above provided, with respect to closing for general banking purposes. Limited banking services may include such of the ordinary and usual services provided by the bank as the board of directors may determine, except the following: making loans, renewing or extending loans, certifying checks, and issuing cashier's checks.

Such day upon which such bank or trust company may elect to close for general banking purposes shall with respect to such institution be treated as a legal holiday for all purposes and not a business day; provided that if such bank shall elect to perform limited banking services on such day, the same shall not be deemed a legal holiday for the performance of limited banking services. Any bank or trust company which elects to close for general banking purposes on Saturday or any other weekday but which elects to perform limited banking services shall not be subjected to any liability or loss of rights for performing limited banking services or refusing to perform any other banking services on such day.

Art. 342-912. Acquisition of Bank or Holding Company under Federal Law—Notice to Commissioner—Recommendations of Commissioner

Sec. 1. A state bank, a national bank in the state, or a bank holding company seeking to acquire a state bank or national bank within the state, that submits an application for approval to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System pursuant to Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1842), shall transmit a copy of the application, as and when finally accepted for filing by the board of governors, to the commissioner.

Sec. 2. If the application is made by a state bank or involves the acquisition of the voting shares or assets of a state bank, the commissioner, on receipt of the notice prescribed by Subsection (b) of Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1842(b)), shall respond in writing within the time limit prescribed by that subsection. The response shall set forth the views and recommendations of the commissioner concerning the application. If the commissioner disapproves the application, he shall, with the assistance of the attorney general, present evidence at the hearing held pursuant to Subsection (b) of Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1842(b)).

Sec. 3. If the application is made by a national bank in the state or involves the acquisition of the voting shares or assets of a national bank in the state, the commissioner shall advise the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System of any views and recommendations he may have concerning the application and other material before the board of governors in connection with the application. If the commissioner recommends to the board of governors that the application be denied, he shall request that a hearing pursuant to Subsection (b) of Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1842(b)) be held. If the board of governors should grant such request, the commissioner shall, with the assistance of the attorney general, present evidence at the hearing as hereinabove provided. If the board of governors should deny such request, the commissioner is authorized and directed to pursue the remedies available to him as an aggrieved party in accordance with the provisions of Section 9 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Section 1848).

Art. 342-913. Acquisition of Nonbanking Institution under Federal Law—Notice to Commissioner—Order and Appeal

Sec. 1. A bank holding company doing business in the state that submits an application or notice to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System concerning an acquisition or activity regulated by Section 4 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1843), other than an application or notice concerning an activity initiated prior to the effective date of this article, shall transmit a copy of the application or notice, as and when finally accepted for filing by the board of governors, to the commissioner. The commissioner may on his own motion order a public hearing on the matter. The commissioner shall order a hearing if the holding company requests a hearing in writing at the time it transmits the application or notice to the commissioner.

Sec. 2. After the close of the hearing, if one is held, the commissioner shall disapprove the acquisition or activity unless he finds that it can reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience or increased competition, that outweigh possible adverse effects such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interest, or unsound banking practices.

Sec. 3. An acquisition or activity is approved if:

(1) the applicant does not request a hearing and the commissioner does not, within 30 days after the application or notice is filed, order that a hearing be held; or

(2) a hearing is held and the commissioner's final order approves the acquisition or activity.

Sec. 4. The Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act governs proceedings under this article, except that the final order of the commissioner approving or disapproving the acquisition or activity shall be rendered within 30 days after the hearing is closed.

Sec. 5. If it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged in or is about to engage in an acquisition or activity subject to this article without complying with the provisions of this article or in violation of an order of the commissioner entered pursuant to this article, the attorney general on behalf of the commissioner may apply to the district court of Travis County for an order enjoining the acquisition or activity and for any other equitable relief the nature of the case may require. A "person" subject to the provisions of this section shall include an individual, two or more individuals acting in concert, any type of partnership, corporation, association, syndicate, trust, or any other organization, or any combination thereof.

The statement of condition shall be filed in the form prescribed by the banking commissioner and shall be accompanied by a filing fee of $50. The statement of condition is for the information of the banking commissioner and his employees only and its contents shall not be made public except in the course of some judicial proceeding in this state.

Sec. 3. The banking commissioner shall annually examine or cause to be examined the books and accounts of any mortgage banking institution which meets the requirements of Section 1. The institution being examined shall pay the actual expenses incident to the examination and a fee of not more than $50 per day per person engaged in the examination. D. The distribution by a corporation of securities direct to its stockholders as a stock dividend or other distribution paid out of earnings or surplus;

E. Any offer and any transaction pursuant to any offer by the issuer of its securities to its existing security holders (including persons who at the time of the transaction are holders of convertible securities or nontransferable warrants) if no commission or other remuneration (other than a stand-by commission) is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any security holder in this state.

F. The issue in good faith of securities by a company to its security holders, or creditors, in the process of a bona fide reorganization of the company made in good faith, or the issue in good faith of securities by a company, organized solely for the purpose of taking over the assets and continuing the business of a predecessor company, to the security holders or creditors of such predecessor company, provided that in either such case such securities are issued in exchange for the securities of such holders or claims of such creditors, or both, and in either such case security holders or creditors do not

The commissioner may by order revoke or suspend the exemption under this clause (c) with respect to any security if he has reasonable cause to believe that the plan of business of the issuer of such security, the security, or the sale thereof would tend to work a fraud or deceit upon the purchaser or purchasers thereof, such order to be subject to review in the manner provided by Section 24 of this Act. The revocation or suspension of this exemption shall be inapplicable to the issuer until such issuer shall have received actual notice from the commissioner of such revocation or suspension.

Provided, however, this exemption shall not be applicable to agents and salesmen of any farmers' cooperative association or farmers' cooperative society when the sale of such securities is made to non-members, or when the sale of such securities is made to members or non-members and a commission is paid or contracted to be paid to the said agents or salesmen;

O. The sale by a registered dealer of outstanding securities provided that:

(9) Such securities or other securities of the issuer of the same class have been registered by qualification, notification or coordination under Section 7 of this Act; or at the time of such sale at least the following information about the issuer shall appear in a recognized securities manual or in a statement, in form and extent acceptable to the commissioner, filed with the commissioner by the issuer or by a registered dealer:

(c) Profit and loss statements and a record of the dividends paid, if any, for a period of not less than three (3) years prior to the date of such balance sheet or for the period of existence of the issuer, if such period of existence is less than three (3) years.

The term "recognized securities manual" shall include the manuals published by Moody's Investment Service, Standard & Poor's Corporation, Best's Life Insurance Reports, and such other nationally distributed manuals of securities as may be approved for use hereunder by the commissioner.

The commissioner may issue a stop order or by order prohibit, revoke or suspend the exemption under this Subsection O with respect to any security if he has reasonable cause to believe that the plan of business of the issuer of such security, the security, or the sale thereof would tend to work a fraud or deceit upon any purchaser or purchasers thereof, such order to be subject to review in the manner provided by Section 24 of this Act. Notice of any court injunction enjoining the sale, or resale, of any such security, or of an order revoking or suspending the exemption under this subdivision with respect to any security, shall be delivered or shall be mailed by certified or registered mail with return receipt requested, to any dealers believed to be selling, or offering for sale, securities of the type referred to in the notice; and the prohibitions of (6) and (7) above of this Subsection O shall be inapplicable to any dealer until he has received actual notice from the commissioner of such revocation or suspension.

Except for the manuals published by Moody's Investment Service, Standard & Poor's Corporation, and Best's Life Insurance Reports, the commissioner may for cause shown revoke or suspend the recognition hereunder of any manuals previously approved by the commissioner under this Subsection but no such action may be taken by the commissioner unless upon notice and opportunity for hearing as provided by Section 24 of this Act. A judgment sustaining the commissioner in the action complained of shall not bar after one year an application by the plaintiff for approval of its manual or manuals hereunder, nor shall a judgment in favor of the plaintiff prevent the commissioner from thereafter revoking such recognition for any proper cause which may thereafter accrue or be discovered.

(2) Securities entitled to registration by notification shall be registered by the filing with the Commissioner by the issuer or by a registered dealer of a registration statement as required by subsection (a), and completion of the procedures outlined in subsection b hereof:

a. A registration statement in a form prescribed by the Commissioner signed by the applicant filing such statement and containing the following information:
   1. Name and business address of main office of issuer and address of issuer’s principal office, if any, in this state;

   3. Price at which securities are to be offered for sale to the public, amount of securities to be offered in this state, and amount of registration fee, computed as hereinafter provided;

   8. Filing of a consent to service of process conforming to the requirements of Section 8 of this Act, if the issuer is registering the securities and is not a resident of this state or is not incorporated under the laws of this state.

b. Such filing with the Commissioner shall constitute the registration of securities by notification and such registration shall become effective five (5) days after receipt of the registration statement and all accompanying papers by the Commissioner; provided that the Commissioner may in his discretion waive or reduce the five (5) days waiting period in any case where he finds no injury to the public will result therefrom. Upon such registration by notification, securities may be sold in this state by registered dealers and registered salesmen. Upon the receipt of a registration statement, prospectus, if any, payment of the filing fee and registration fee, and, if required, a consent to service of process, the Commissioner shall record the registration by notification of the securities described. Such registration shall be effective for a period of one (1) year and may be renewed for additional periods of one (1) year, if the securities are entitled to registration under this subsection at the time of renewal, by a new filing under this section together with the payment of the renewal fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00).

c. If at any time, before or after registration of securities under this section, in the opinion of the Commissioner the information in a registration statement filed with him is insufficient to establish the fact that the securities described therein are, or were, entitled to registration by notification under this section, or that the registration information contains, or contained, false, misleading or fraudulent facts, he may order the applicant who filed such statement to cease and desist from selling, or offering for sale, such securities registered, or proposed to be registered, under provisions of this section, until there is filed with the Commissioner such further information as may in his judgment be necessary to establish the fact that such securities are, or were, entitled to registration under this section. The provisions of Section 24 of this Act as to hearing shall be applicable to an order issued hereunder.

C. Registration by Coordination.

It shall be unlawful and punishable with the penalties set forth in Section 29G of this Act for any person to issue, distribute, or publish, within this State, any circular, advertisement, pamphlet, prospectus, program or other matter, as to any security, unless such advertising is filed with the Commissioner prior to its use in this State and unless such advertising complies with the requirements hereinafter set forth in this Section 22; in addition, the State and purchasers shall have all other remedies provided for where the unlawful sales are made under this Act.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of B to E]

Art. 581-25. Receiverships of Persons or Assets of Persons Acting as Dealers

A. Whenever it shall appear to the commissioner, either upon complaint or otherwise, that:

(1) any person or company, a substantial portion of whose business consists of acting as a dealer (as defined in Subsection C of Section 4 of this Act), whether or not duly registered by the commissioner as in this Act provided, shall have engaged in any act, transaction, practice, or course of business declared by Section 32 of this Act to be a fraudulent practice;

(2) such person or company shall have acted as a dealer in connection with such fraudulent practice; and

(3) the appointment of a receiver for such person or company, or the assets of such person or company, is necessary in order to conserve and protect the assets of such person or company for the benefit of customers, security holders, and other actual and potential claimants of such person or company the commissioner may request the attorney general to bring an action for the appointment of a receiver for such person or company or the assets of such person or company.

B. Upon request by the commissioner pursuant to Subsection A of this Section 25–1, and if it appears to the attorney general that the facts enumerated in Paragraphs (1) through (3) of Subsection A of this Section 25–1 exist with respect to any person or company, the attorney general may bring an action in the name and on behalf of the State of Texas for the appointment of a receiver for such person or company. The facts set forth in the petition for such relief shall be verified by the commissioner upon information and belief. Such action may be brought in a district court of any county wherein the fraudulent practice complained of has been committed in whole or part, or of any county wherein any defendant with respect to whom appointment of a receiver is sought has its principal place of business, and such district court shall have jurisdiction and venue of such action; this provision shall be superior to any other provision of law fixing jurisdiction or venue with regard to suits for receivership. In any such action the attorney general may apply for and on due showing be entitled to have issued the court's subpoena requiring the forthwith appearance of any defendant and his employees, salesmen, or agents and the production of documents, books, and records as may appear necessary for any hearing, to testify and give evidence concerning matters relevant to the appointment of a receiver.

C. In any action brought by the attorney general pursuant to Subsection B of this Section 25-1, the court, upon a proper showing by the attorney general of the existence of the facts enumerated in Paragraphs (1) through (3) of Subsection A of this Section 25-1 with respect to any person or company, may appoint a receiver for such person or company or the assets of such person or company. If such receiver is appointed without notice to and opportunity to be heard for such person or company, such person or company shall be entitled to apply in writing to the court for an order dissolving the receivership, and, if such application is made within 30 days after service upon such person or company of the court’s order making such appointment, shall be entitled to a hearing thereon upon 10 days written notice to the attorney general.

D. No person shall be appointed a receiver pursuant to this Section 25-1 unless such person be found by the court, after hearing the views of the attorney general, the commissioner, and, if deemed by the court to be practicable, the person or company against whom such relief is sought, to be qualified to discharge the duties of receiver giving due consideration to the probable nature and magnitude of the duties of receiver in the particular case. No bond for receivership shall be required of the commissioner or attorney general in any proceeding under this Section 25-1 but the court shall require a bond of any receiver appointed hereunder, conditioned upon faithful discharge of the receiver’s duties, in an amount found by the court to be sufficient giving due consideration to the probable nature and magnitude of the duties of receiver in the particular case.

E. The remedy of receivership provided by this Section 25-1 shall be in addition to any and all other remedies afforded the commissioner or the attorney general by other provisions of statutory or decisional law of this state, including, without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, any such provision authorizing receiverships.

Art. 581-28. Subpoenas or Other Process in Investigations by Commissioner

The Commissioner may require, by subpoena or summons issued by the Commissioner, the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of any books, accounts, records, papers and correspondence or other records or indices showing the names and addresses of the stockholders (except such books of account as are necessary to the continued conduct of the business, which books the Commissioner shall have the right to examine or cause to be examined at the office of the concern and to require copies of such portion thereof as may be deemed necessary touching the matter in question, which copies shall be verified by affidavit of an officer of such concern and shall be admissible in evidence as provided in Section 30 hereof), relating to any matter which the Commissioner has authority by this Act to consider or investigate, and for this purpose the Commissioner may sign subpoenas, administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses and receive evidence; provided, however, that all information of every kind and nature contained therein shall be treated as confidential by the Commissioner and shall not be disclosed to the public except under order of court; but nothing in this section shall be interpreted to prohibit or limit the publication of rulings or decisions of the Commissioner nor shall this limitation apply to hearings provided for in Sections 24 and 25 of this Act. In case of disobedience of any subpoena, or of the contumacy of any witness appearing before the Commissioner, the Commissioner may invoke the aid of the District Court within whose jurisdiction any witness may be found, and such court may thereupon issue an order requiring the person subpoenaed to obey the subpoena or give evidence, or produce books, accounts, records, papers, and correspondence touching the matter in question. Any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by such court as contempt thereof.

In the course of an investigation looking to the enforcement of this Act, or in connection with the application of a person or company for registration or to qualify securities, the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner shall have free access to all records of the Board of Insurance Commissioners, including company examination reports to the Board and reports of special investigations made by personnel of the Board, as well as records and reports of and to any other department or agency of the state government. In the event, however, that the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner should give out any information which the law makes confidential, the affected corporation, firm or person shall have a right of action on the official bond of the Commissioner or Deputy for his injuries, in a suit brought in the name of the state at the relation of the injured party.

The Commissioner may in any investigation cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or without the state to be taken in the manner prescribed for depositions in civil actions under the laws of Texas.

Each witness required to attend before the Commissioner shall receive, for each day’s attendance, the sum of Two Dollars ($2.00), and shall receive in addition the sum of Ten Cents (10¢) for each mile traveled by such witness by the usual route going to and returning from the place where his presence is required. All disbursements made in the payment of such fees shall be included in and paid in the same manner as is provided for the payment of other expenses incident to the administration and enforcement of this Act as hereinafter provided.

The sheriff's or constable's fee for serving the subpoena shall be the same as those paid the sheriff or constable for similar services. The fees, expenses and costs incurred at or in connection with any hearing may be imposed by the Commissioner upon any party to the record, or may be divided between any and all parties to the record in such proportions as the Commissioner may determine.

Any subpoena, summons, or other process issued by the Commissioner may be served, at the Commissioner's discretion, by the Commissioner, his authorized agent, a sheriff, or a constable.

The Commissioner may, at his discretion, disclose any confidential information in his possession to any governmental authority approved by Board rule; or to any quasi-governmental authority charged with overseeing securities activities which is approved by Board rule. The disclosure does not violate any other provision of this Act or any provision of Chapter 424, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973 (Article 6252-17a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Art. 581-28-1. Adoption of Rules and Regulations

A. For purposes of this Section 28-1, the term "rule and regulation" shall mean any statement by the board of general and future applicability that implements, interprets, or prescribes law or policy or describes the organization, procedure, or practice requirements of the board. The term includes the amendment or repeal of a prior rule or regulation, but does not include statements concerning only the internal management of the board not affecting private rights or procedures or forms or orders adopted or made by the board or the commissioner pursuant to other provisions of this Act.

B. The board may, from time to time, in accordance with the provisions of this Section 28-1, make or adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out and implement the provisions of this Act, including rules and regulations governing registration statements, applications, notices, and reports, and defining any terms, whether or not used in this Act, insofar as the definitions are not inconsistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this Act. For the purpose of adoption of rules and regulations, the board may classify securities, persons, and matters within its jurisdiction, and prescribe different requirements for different classes. The board may, in its discretion, waive any requirement of any rule or regulation in situations where, in its opinion, such requirement is not necessary in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

C. No rule or regulation may be made or adopted unless the board finds, after notice and opportunity for comment in accordance with the provisions of this Section 28-1, that the action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this Act.

D. The board may, by rule or regulation adopted in accordance with this Section 28-1, delegate to the commissioner or the deputy commissioner such of the authority granted to the board under this Section 28-1 to hold hearings for adoption of rules and regulations and to make or adopt rules and regulations, or to waive the requirements thereof, as it may, from time to time, deem appropriate. All rules and regulations made or adopted by the commissioner or the deputy commissioner pursuant to such delegated authority shall be made or adopted in accordance with this Section 28-1.

E. No provision of this Act imposing any liability or penalty applies to any act done or omitted in good faith in conformity with any rule or regulation of the board, notwithstanding that the rule or regulation may later be amended or rescinded or be determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

F. In exercising the power granted by this Section 28-1 to make or adopt rules and regulations, the board shall be bound by and shall follow the provisions of any administrative procedure act or other like act of general applicability to state boards, commissions, or departments having statewide jurisdiction, heretofore or hereafter adopted by the legislature of this state, with respect to procedures for adoption, filing, and taking effect, availability, and declaratory judgments on the validity or applicability of rules and regulations; provided, however, that, if there is no such act of general applicability, the board shall be bound by and shall follow the provisions of Subsections G through L of this Section 28-1 with respect to such matters.

G. A notice of any proposed rule or regulation shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Travis County and shall set forth the full text of any proposed rule or regulation or a summary thereof indicating the place where copies of the full text of such proposed rule or regulation may be obtained, the date on which the board intends its action to be effective, the place or places to which any person may mail or at which any person may deposit written data, views or arguments relating to the proposed action and the final date by which such data, views or arguments must be received for consideration by the board, which date shall not be earlier than 30 days from the date on which notice was first published in accordance with this Section 28-1.

H. The board, at its discretion, may call a hearing to take public testimony concerning a proposed rule or regulation. If the board calls a hearing, a notice setting forth the time, place, and nature of the hearing shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Travis County at least 20 days prior to the hearing date. All hearings shall be public.

I. After consideration of all relevant matters presented to the board, the board may make any modifications to the proposed rule or regulation that it shall find necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this Act and the rule or regulation as originally promulgated. The board may then promulgate the rule or regulation, as modified, provided that it shall not be effective until at least 45 days after the date the notice of proposed action was first published pursuant to Subsection G of this Section 28-1. Notice of the adoption of any proposed rule or regulation shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Travis County and shall set forth the full text of the rule or regulation, as adopted, or a summary thereof indicating the place where copies of the full text of the rule or regulation may be obtained.

J. At the time of publication of any notice published pursuant to Subsections G, H, or I of this Section 28-1, the board shall mail a copy of such notice to each person who has requested in writing that copies of such notices be mailed to him and who has paid to the board the fee, if any, prescribed by the board therefor. The failure of the board to mail a copy of any notice to any person or persons or the failure of any person or persons to receive any such copy shall not affect the validity of any rule or regulation adopted by the board pursuant to this Section 28-1 or of any proceedings in connection therewith or pursuant thereto.

K. The board shall maintain a copy of all rules and regulations in effect, for public inspection, at the principal office of the board.

L. The validity of any rule or regulation adopted pursuant to the power granted by Subsection B of this Section 28-1 may be determined in any proceeding brought pursuant to any other section of this Act to which the board or the commissioner is a party; otherwise, the validity of any such rule or regulation may be determined only in an action for declaratory judgment in the District Court of Travis County, and not elsewhere, and then only if it is alleged that the rule or regulation, or its threatened application, interferes with or impairs or threatens to interfere with or impair the legal rights or privileges of the plaintiff. The board shall be made a party to any such declaratory judgment action. A declaratory judgment may be rendered whether or not the plaintiff has requested the board to pass upon the validity or applicability of the rule or regulation in question.

Article 601a. Application of Sunset Act [NEW].

Art. 601a. Application of Sunset Act
The State Board of Control is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished effective September 1, 1987.
[Added by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1852, ch. 735, § 2.144, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 606a. State Telecommunications Consolidation Act of 1975

Short Title
Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the State Telecommunications Consolidation Act of 1975.

Definitions
Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) “Telecommunications services” as used in this Act pertains to intercity communications facilities or services, provided that any dedicated circuits included as part of the consolidated system are considered to begin and end at the main connecting frame. “Telecommunications services” does not include single agency point-to-point radio systems or facilities or services of criminal justice information communication systems.

(2) “Consolidated telecommunications systems” is the network of telecommunications services serving the government of the State of Texas.

(3) “State agency” or “agency” means:

(A) any department, commission, board, office, or other agency that:
   (i) is in the executive branch of state government;
   (ii) has authority that is not limited to a geographical portion of the state; and
   (iii) was created by the constitution or a statute of this state; or

(B) a university system or an institution of higher education as defined in Section 61.003, Texas Education Code, as amended, other than a public junior college or community college.

System of Telecommunications Services
Sec. 3. (a) The State Board of Control shall plan, establish, and manage the operation of a system of telecommunications services for all state agencies. Each agency shall identify its particular telecommunications services requirements and the site at which the service shall be provided.

(b) The board shall fulfill the telecommunication requirements of each state agency to the extent possible and to the extent that funds are appropriated or available for this purpose.

(c) The board may negotiate rates and execute contracts with telecommunication service utilities for services, lease transmission facilities on a competitive bid basis if possible, and develop, establish, and maintain carrier systems necessary to the operation of the telecommunications system established under this Act.

(d) All contracts with telecommunications carriers shall contain the provision that the State Board of Control or any participating agency may obtain any data relating to the costs to the state of parallel tolls.

Policies and Guidelines
Sec. 4. (a) In order to insure efficient utilization of telecommunication systems at minimum cost to the state, the board shall promulgate and disseminate to all agencies appropriate policies, guidelines, operating procedures, and telephone directories.

(b) Each agency shall comply with the policies, guidelines, and operating procedures promulgated by the board. The board, with the advice of the State Auditor, shall maintain records relating to the consolidated telecommunications system as necessary to enable the board to analyze the cost effectiveness of the system to the state agencies, and shall advise the legislature at each session as to the cost effectiveness of the system. If, in the opinion of the board, the total cost of the system reaches a level which would justify total state ownership and operation of the system, the board shall recommend to the legislature the implementation of such action.

Balancing of Technological Advancements and Existing Facilities

Sec. 5. In the planning, design, implementation, and operation of the telecommunication systems and facilities, the board shall maintain an appropriate balance between the adoption of technological advancements and the efficient utilization of existing facilities and services in order to avoid misapplication of state funds and degradation or loss of the integrity of existing systems and facilities.

Facilities and Services to be Integrated or Shared

Sec. 6. Telecommunication facilities and services, to the extent feasible and desirable, shall be provided on an integrated or shared basis, or both, to avoid waste of state funds and manpower.

Payment for Services and Facilities

Sec. 7. (a) The board shall develop a system of billings and charges for services provided in operating and administering the consolidated telecommunication system, which allocates the total state cost to each entity serviced based on proportionate usage.

(b) The comptroller of public accounts shall establish in the State Treasury a revolving account for the administration of this Act. The account shall be used as a depository for funds received from entities served and as a source of funds to purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire services, supplies, and equipment, and to pay salaries, wages, and other costs directly attributable to the provisions and operations of the system.

(c) In order to provide an adequate cash flow as may be necessary for purposes of this Act, using state agencies and other entities, upon proper notification, shall make monthly payments into the telecommunication revolving fund account from appropriated or other available funds. The legislature, in its discretion, may appropriate funds for the operation of the system directly to the board. In that case the revolving fund shall be used to receive funds due from local government entities and other agencies to the extent that their funds are not subject to legislative appropriation.

Participation by Local Governments, et cetera

Sec. 8. The board may contract with each house of the legislature, legislative agencies, counties, cities, districts, and other political subdivisions and agencies not within the definition of “state agency,” for utilization of the state telecommunication system.

Designated Agent

Sec. 9. The board is designated as the agency of this state responsible for obtaining telecommunication services.

Purpose

Sec. 1. (a) The purpose of this article is to further the State of Texas' policy of encouraging and assisting handicapped citizens to achieve maximum productive activities.

(b) This article is additionally based on legislative findings that:

(1) the program herein established will result in job opportunities needed by multiply handicapped blind persons who, unless provided with such employment opportunities, have no practical alternative other than to become lifetime, nonproductive residents of state institutions; and

(2) the immense savings in costs of permanent institutionalization of such multiply handicapped blind persons will greatly exceed the nominal costs of the program hereby established.

(c) The further purpose of this article is to research, demonstrate, and develop approaches through which the state's purchase of blind-made goods and services may, if shown to be sound and effective in meeting the needs of severely handicapped individuals, be generally extended to disability groups other than the blind.

Sec. 2. There is hereby established a committee to be known as the Texas Committee on Purchases of Blind-Made Goods and Services (hereinafter referred to as the committee) to be composed of a private citizen conversant with the problems incidental to the employment of the blind, a representative of a sheltered workshop for the blind organized under the laws of the State of Texas, a representative of a volunteer organization operated primarily for the purpose of serving a disability group other than the blind, and a representative of each of the following agencies or departments of the government of the State of Texas: the State Board of Control, the department of any state-supported institution of higher education offering an advanced degree in vocational rehabilitation counseling, the department of the Central Education Agency concerned with vocational education or with special education, the State Commission for the Blind, and the State Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. The members of the committee shall be appointed by the Governor's Coordinating Office for the Visually Handicapped for terms of two years expiring on January 31 of odd-numbered years, shall serve without compensation other than reimbursement for expenses actually incurred in the performance of services performed in connection with the work of the committee, and shall designate one of their number to be chairman. A member of the committee who is unable personally to attend a scheduled meeting of the committee may designate a person from his agency or department to represent him at the meeting.

Sec. 5. In carrying out the duties specified in this article, the committee shall have available to it technical consultation by representatives of the governor’s budget office and the Legislative Budget Board on matters relating to the cost-benefit consequences of this program for the government of the State of Texas, and such representatives of the governor’s budget office and the Legislative Budget Board shall have complete access to all records pertinent to the program herein established and shall make such reports to the legislature as they might from time to time deem indicated.

Sec. 7. The committee is expressly authorized to adopt, insofar as applicable, procedures, practices, and standards utilized by any presently existing or subsequently authorized federal program of like effect to the state program herein established.

Feasibility Study: Reports and Recommendations

Sec. 8. As part of its activities under this article, the committee shall study the feasibility of extending the program herein established to severely handicapped individuals whose disabilities are not of a visual nature. The study shall include an assessment of the potential market of the State of Texas and its political subdivisions for goods and services manufactured by severely handicapped individuals in nonprofit, sheltered workshop facilities throughout Texas, estimated number of individuals who might benefit from an extension of the program and who are not being effectively served through other available state-supported programs of education and special services for the handicapped, consideration of the manufacturing capabilities of sheltered workshops throughout the state, and consideration of additional costs, if any, or additional savings, if any, accruing to the state’s general revenue fund in the event of the program’s expansion. The committee shall report its findings to the governor and the legislature, together with the committee’s specific recommendations as to any indicated statutory changes and timetables for the implementation and administration of an expansion of the program, if the committee recommends expansion of the program in the future.

The Board may inform other state agencies of the existence, kind, number, location and condition of any surplus property. Any state agency when so informed may negotiate directly with the other agencies for an interagency transfer of the property but shall inform the Board of its interest in order that the property will not be sold or disposed of before a transfer may be made. If a transfer of surplus property is made the agencies taking part in the transfer shall mutually agree on the value of the transferred property and shall report the value to the Comptroller. The Comptroller shall credit and debit their respective appropriations. After surplus property is reported to the Board it shall not be sold by the reporting agency unless written authority to sell is given by the Board. The Board shall adjust the state inventory records to show the transfer if inventoried property is transferred.

All agencies for whom salvage property is sold or who sell salvage property under authorization of the Board or who destroy worthless salvage under authorization of the Board or for whom the Board has ordered destruction of property as worthless salvage shall report the items sold or destroyed and the prices realized, if any, to the Comptroller. The disposal of salvage by any of these methods shall authorize the Board to then remove reported property from the state inventory if any reported items were on the state inventory. Authorization by the Board to delete salvage items not its own from the state inventory shall not be required. It is not the intention of this subsection to alter, enlarge or amend the law providing for the deletion from inventory upon the authorization of the Auditor of property that is missing from any agency.

(d) The Board of Control shall adopt rules and regulations to govern occasions when more than one county, municipality, school district, or junior college district, or any combination thereof expresses a desire to negotiate for the same surplus or salvage material or equipment. The Board may adopt other necessary rules and regulations to govern the sale or transfer of surplus or salvage material and equipment to counties, municipalities, school districts, and junior college districts.

(e) If no state agency negotiates an interagency transfer of the equipment or material within 30 days from the date of the notice from the Board of Control, the Board may authorize the sale or transfer of surplus or salvage material or equipment within 30 days from the date of the notice from the Board of Control, if the Board determines that the equipment or material will not satisfy a state need, the Board may authorize the sale or transfer of surplus or salvage material or equipment to any county, municipality, school district, or junior college district which has expressed a desire to negotiate.

(c) The board shall adopt standards regarding the uses of and the needs for space by state agencies and the types of space needed by state agencies.

Sec. 3. The board may consolidate the requests for space of two or more state agencies with similar needs and obtain and allocate space so that it can be shared by the agencies.

Sec. 4. In filling a request for space, the board shall give a preference to available state-owned space under the control of the board.

Art. 678i. Energy Conservation in Buildings Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Energy Conservation in Buildings Act.
Sec. 2. The purpose of this Act is to provide for the development of improved design, lighting, insulation, and architectural standards to promote efficient energy use in state buildings including buildings of state-supported institutions of higher education, to reduce wasteful or uneconomic consumption of energy by balancing the cost of energy procurement against the cost of energy conserving building practices to achieve the minimum lifetime cost for all new state buildings, including new buildings of state-supported institutions of higher education, measured by combined construction and operating costs, and to provide information to the public relating to energy saving uses, designs, construction methods, and techniques for all new and existing buildings.

Adoption and Promulgation of Standards for State Buildings

Sec. 3. (a) Within one year after the effective date of this Act, the State Building Commission, after consultation with the Governor's Energy Advisory Council, shall adopt and publish energy conservation design standards that all new state buildings, including buildings of state-supported institutions of higher education, are required to meet. These standards shall include both performance and procedural standards for maximum energy conservation allowed by the latest and most effective technology consistent with the requirements of public health and safety regulations and economic considerations.

(b) The standards shall be promulgated in terms of energy consumption allotments and shall take into consideration the various classes of building uses. Performance standards shall allow for design flexibility since only the total allotment of energy is prescribed.

(c) Procedural standards shall be directed toward specific design and building practices that produce good thermal resistance and low air leakage and toward requiring practices in the design of mechanical and electrical systems which conserve energy. The procedural standards shall address, when applicable, the following items:

(1) insulation,
(2) lighting, according to the lighting necessary for the tasks for which each area is intended to be used,
(3) ventilation,
(4) the potential use of new systems for saving energy in ventilation, climate control, and other areas, and
(5) any other item which the State Building Commission deems appropriate.

Design Standards by Other Entities

Sec. 4. (a) The boards of regents and boards or governing bodies of state agencies, commissions, and institutions exempted under the State Building Construction Administration Act (Article 678, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall adopt and publish energy conservation design standards as provided in Section 3 of this Act for all new buildings under their authority. The standards shall be consistent with those promulgated by the State Building Commission for other state buildings and be prepared in cooperation and consultation with the State Building Commission and the Governor's Energy Advisory Council.

(b) The State Building Commission shall assist the boards and governing bodies of state agencies, commissions, and institutions subject to the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section with the preparation of energy conservation standards by providing technical assistance and advice.

Technical Assistance Program

Sec. 5. The State Building Commission, after consultation with the Governor's Energy Advisory Council and the Texas Department of Community Affairs, shall prepare model energy conservation building codes and make them available for use by cities in enacting or amending their ordinances.

Staff

Sec. 6. The State Building Commission may employ staff necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Energy Conservation Manual

Sec. 7. (a) Within 180 days after the effective date of this Act, the State Building Commission shall produce and publish an energy conservation manual for potential use by designers, builders, and contractors of residential and nonresidential buildings. The manual shall be furnished on request at a reasonable price sufficient to cover the costs of printing and help defray research costs in establishing design standards. The manual shall contain the following:

(1) guidelines for energy conservation established by the State Building Commission;
(2) forms, charts, tables, and other data to assist designers and builders in meeting the guidelines;
(3) design suggestions for meeting or exceeding the guidelines; and
(4) any other information which the State Building Commission finds will assist persons to become familiar with the latest technologies that they might use in meeting the guidelines.

(b) The manual shall be updated periodically as significant new energy conservation information becomes available.

Art. 695a-2. Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children

Adoption of Compact

Sec. 1. The Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children is adopted by this state and entered into with all other jurisdictions joining therein in form substantially as follows:

INTERSTATE COMPACT ON THE PLACEMENT OF CHILDREN

ARTICLE I. PURPOSE AND POLICY

It is the purpose and policy of the party states to cooperate with each other in the interstate placement of children to the end that:

(a) Each child requiring placement shall receive the maximum opportunity to be placed in a suitable environment and with persons or institutions having appropriate qualifications and facilities to provide a necessary and desirable degree and type of care.

(b) The appropriate authorities in a state where a child is to be placed may have full opportunity to ascertain the circumstances of the proposed placement, thereby promoting full compliance with applicable requirements for the protection of the child.

(c) The proper authorities of the state from which the placement is made may obtain the most complete information on the basis on which to evaluate a projected placement before it is made.

(d) Appropriate jurisdictional arrangements for the care of children will be promoted.

ARTICLE II. DEFINITIONS

As used in this compact:

(a) “Child” means a person who, by reason of minority, is legally subject to parental, guardianship, or similar control.

(b) “Sending agency” means a party state, officer, or employee thereof; a subdivision of a party state; a person, corporation, association, charitable agency, or other entity which sends, brings, or causes to be sent or brought any child to another party state.

(c) “Receiving state” means a party state, or officer or employee thereof; a subdivision of a party state; a person, corporation, association, charitable agency, or other entity which receives, brings, or causes to be made.

(d) “Placement” means the arrangement for the care of a child in a family home or in foster care or as a preliminary to a possible adoption.

(e) “Receiving state” means the state to which a child is sent, brought, or caused to be sent or brought, whether by public authorities or private persons or agencies, and whether for placement with state or local public authorities or for placement with private agencies or persons.

(f) “Placement” means the arrangement for the care of a child in a family home or in foster care or as a preliminary to a possible adoption.

(g) “Receiving state” means the state to which a child is sent, brought, or caused to be sent or brought, whether by public authorities or private persons or agencies, and whether for placement with state or local public authorities or for placement with private agencies or persons.

(h) “Placement” means the arrangement for the care of a child in a family home or in foster care or as a preliminary to a possible adoption.

(i) “Receiving state” means the state to which a child is sent, brought, or caused to be sent or brought, whether by public authorities or private persons or agencies, and whether for placement with state or local public authorities or for placement with private agencies or persons.

ARTICLE III. CONDITIONS FOR PLACEMENT

(a) No sending agency shall send, bring, or cause to be sent or brought into any other party state any child for placement in foster care or as a preliminary to a possible adoption unless the sending agency shall comply with each and every requirement set forth in this article and with the applicable laws of the receiving state governing the placement of children therein.

(b) Prior to sending, bringing, or causing any child to be sent or brought into a receiving state for placement in foster care or as a preliminary to a possible adoption, the sending agency shall furnish the appropriate public authorities in the receiving state written notice of the intention to send, bring, or place the child in the receiving state. The notice shall contain:

(1) the name, date, and place of birth of the child;

(2) the identity and address or addresses of the parents or legal guardian;

(3) the name and address of the person, agency, or institution to or with which the sending agency proposes to send, bring, or place the child;

(4) a full statement of the reasons for such proposed action and evidence of the authority pursuant to which the placement is proposed to be made.

(c) Any public officer or agency in a receiving state which is in receipt of a notice pursuant to Paragraph (b) of this article may request of the sending agency, or any other appropriate officer or agency of or in the sending agency’s state, and shall be entitled to receive therefrom, such supporting or additional information as it may deem necessary under the circumstances to carry out the purpose and policy of this compact.

(d) The child shall not be sent, brought, or caused to be sent or brought into the receiving state until the appropriate public authorities in the receiving state shall notify the sending agency, in writing, to the effect that the proposed placement does not appear to be contrary to the interests of the child.

ARTICLE IV. PENALTY FOR ILLEGAL PLACEMENT

The sending, bringing, or causing to be sent or brought into any receiving state of a child in violation of the terms of this compact shall constitute a violation of the laws respecting the placement of children of both the state in which the sending agency is located or from which it sends or brings the child and of the receiving state. Such violation may be punished or subjected to penalty in either jurisdiction in accordance with its laws. In addition to liability for any such punishment or penalty, any such violation shall constitute full and sufficient... grounds for the suspension or revocation of any license, permit, or other legal authorization held by the sending agency which empowers or allows it to place or care for children.

ARTICLE V. RETENTION OF JURISD ICTION

(a) The sending agency shall retain jurisdiction over the child sufficient to determine all matters in relation to the custody, supervision, care, treatment, and disposition of the child which it would have had if the child had remained in the sending agency's state, until the child is adopted, reaches majority, becomes self-supporting or is discharged with the concurrence of the appropriate authority in the receiving state. Such jurisdiction shall also include the power to effect or cause the return of the child or its transfer to another location and custody pursuant to law. The sending agency shall continue to have financial responsibility for support and maintenance of the child during the period of the placement. Nothing contained herein shall defeat a claim of jurisdiction by a receiving state sufficient to deal with an act of delinquency or crime committed therein.

(b) When the sending agency is a public agency, it may enter into an agreement with an authorized public or private agency in the receiving state providing for the performance of one or more services in respect of such case by the latter as agent for the sending agency.

(c) Nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent a private charitable agency authorized to place children in the receiving state from performing services or acting as agent in that state for a private charitable agency of the sending state; nor to prevent the agency in the receiving state from discharging financial responsibility for the support and maintenance of a child who has been placed on behalf of the sending agency without relieving the responsibility set forth in Paragraph (a) hereof.

ARTICLE VI. INSTITUTIONAL CARE OF DELINQUENT CHILDREN

A child adjudicated delinquent may be placed in an institution in another party jurisdiction pursuant to this compact but no such placement shall be made unless the child is given a court hearing on notice to the parent or guardian with opportunity to be heard, prior to his being sent to such other party jurisdiction for institutional care and the court finds that:

1) equivalent facilities for the child are not available in the sending agency's jurisdiction; and

2) institutional care in the other jurisdiction is in the best interest of the child and will not produce undue hardship.

ARTICLE VII. COMPACT ADMINISTRATOR

The executive head of each jurisdiction party to this compact shall designate an officer who shall be general coordinator of activities under this compact in his jurisdiction and who, acting jointly with like officials of other party jurisdictions, shall have pow­ more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE VIII. LIMITATIONS

This compact shall not apply to:
(a) the sending or bringing of a child into a receiving state by his parent, step-parent, grandparent, adult brother or sister, adult uncle or aunt, or his guardian and leaving the child with any such relative or nonagency guardian in the receiving state;

(b) any placement, sending, or bringing of a child into a receiving state pursuant to any other interstate compact to which both the state from which the child is sent or brought and the receiving state are party, or to any other agree­

Retention of Jurisdiction and Financial Responsibility of Sending Agency; Failure to Support; Concurrence in Discharge

Sec. 3. (2) institutional care in Texas is in the best interests of the child and will not produce undue hardship.

Private Charitable Agencies

Sec. 5. This Act does not prevent a private charitable agency authorized to place children in this state from performing services or acting as agent in this state for a private charitable agency in a sending state, nor prevent the agency in this state from discharging financial responsibility for the support and maintenance of a child who has been placed on behalf of a sending agency, without altering financial responsibility as provided in Section 8 of this Act.

Exemptions

Art. 695m. Pilot Multipurpose Service Centers for Displaced Homemakers

[Text of article effective until August 31, 1981]

Findings and Purpose

Sec. 1. (a) The legislature finds and declares that there is an increasing number of persons in this state who, having fulfilled a role as homemaker, find themselves "displaced" in their middle years through divorce, death of spouse, or other loss of family income. As a consequence, displaced homemakers are very often left with little or no income; they are ineligible for categorical welfare assistance; they are subject to the highest rate of unemployment of any sector of the work force; they face continuing discrimination in employment because of their age and lack of recent paid work experience; they are ineligible for unemployment insurance because they have been engaged in unpaid labor in the home; they are ineligible for social security benefits because they are too young, and many never qualify because they have been divorced from the family wage earner; they may have lost beneficiaries' rights under employers' pension and health plans through divorce or death of spouse; and they are often unacceptable to private health insurance plans because of their age. Homemakers are an unrecognized part of the work force who make an invaluable contribution to the strength, durability, and purpose of our state.

(b) It is the intention of the legislature in enacting this legislation to provide the counseling, training, and service programs for displaced homemakers necessary to promote the health and welfare of this growing group of citizens and to enable them to enjoy independence and economic security.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) "Displaced homemaker" is an individual who:

(A) is 40 years of age or older and has worked without pay as a homemaker for his or her family;

(B) is not gainfully employed on a full-time basis or has had, or would have, difficulty in finding adequate employment; and

(C) has depended for support on the income of a family member and has lost that income or has depended on and received income support primarily from another source while working as a homemaker or parent and has lost that support.

(2) "Department" means the Texas Rehabilitation Commission.

(3) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of the Texas Rehabilitation Commission.

Establishment of Centers

Sec. 3. (a) The commissioner shall establish two multipurpose service centers for displaced homemakers, one which shall be in a reasonably central location within the largest federal Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area, as determined by the U.S. Bureau of the Census, in the state. The second pilot service center shall be established in a county with a population of 100,000 or less.

(b) The commissioner shall contract with a nonprofit organization or a unit of local government, or both, to operate each center. Payment for the oper-tion of each center for the first month shall be made in advance, but payments for subsequent months of operation shall be made on a billing basis under the terms of the contract. To the greatest extent possible, the staff of each service center, including supervisory, technical, and administrative personnel, shall be filled by displaced homemakers. If necessary, the center may provide for on-the-job training of potential staff members by independent contractors or volunteer agencies.

Job-Counseling Program

Sec. 4. Each multipurpose service center shall provide a job-counseling program for displaced homemakers. Job counseling shall be specifically designed for the person entering the job market after a number of years as a homemaker. Counseling shall take into account and build upon the skills and experiences of a homemaker and shall emphasize job readiness as well as skill development.

Job-Training Program

Sec. 5. Each multipurpose service center shall provide a job-training program for displaced homemakers. The job-training program shall utilize existing skills and be directed toward meeting community needs and creating new jobs, as well as filling available positions, in both public and private employment. Each center shall work with agencies of local government, nonprofit organizations, and private employers in developing job-training cooperative agreements for various vocations. Each center shall provide stipends for job trainees within the limits of available funds. The Texas Employment Commission shall assist each center in finding permanent employment for persons who have completed the job-training program conducted through each center.

Service Programs

Sec. 6. (a) Each multipurpose service center shall operate a health information service to disseminate information about preventive health care and nutrition. The service shall emphasize the health problems, including menopause, of older persons. The clinic service shall provide information, which may include lectures, discussions, and informal courses, on alcohol and drug addiction and the causes of addiction in older persons. The service may, with the assistance of a county medical society or hospital staff, establish a referral service to direct displaced homemakers to physicians.

(b) Each service center shall provide information, which may include lectures, discussions, and informal courses, on money management, specifically including information about insurance, taxes, mortgages, loans and probate problems.

(c) Each service center may establish additional service programs designed to prepare the displaced homemaker to be a wage earner, to manage his or her own affairs, or to enable the displaced homemaker to provide for his or her physical or mental well-being and security.

Funding Sources

Sec. 7. In addition to legislative appropriation, the department shall explore all possible legal sources of funding for the pilot multipurpose service centers. The department may accept gifts, grants, and in-kind contributions from federal, local, and private sources and may use federal funds under Title 20, Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1397 et seq. (1975), if they become available. The department shall seek contributions of building space, equipment, and services.

Fees and Regulations

Sec. 8. The local director of each service center may establish a schedule of fees, based on ability to pay, for various counseling and service programs offered by the center. Fees shall be designed to help defray the costs of operation of the centers. Each local director may also establish guidelines for participation in the job-training program, taking into account the degree of need of the displaced homemaker, the extent of existing agreements with training employers, and the limits of available funds. Each local director shall establish a schedule of stipends, based on need and the extent of any compensation by the training employer, for job trainees.

Reports

Sec. 9. The department is responsible for monitoring the operation of each service center four times each year. The local director of each service center shall prepare an annual report to the department, accounting for all funds provided the centers and describing in detail the services performed at and through the center during the preceding 12-month period and shall make records of the operation of the centers available to the commissioner at his request. The department shall prepare an annual evaluation of the performance of each center in meeting the needs of displaced homemakers in the area. The evaluation shall consider the effectiveness of the programs offered by each center in terms of number of persons served, quality of services rendered, number of job placements, and degree of need for continuance of similar programs.

Expiration Date

Art. 695n. Employment Incentive Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Employment Incentive Act.

(C) he is terminated from the employment due to circumstances beyond his control.

Sec. 6. (a) The commission shall establish a system of periodic review to determine whether registrants comply with Section 5 of this Act. In each case reviewed, the commission shall determine whether the registrant without good cause failed to comply. Before making its decision, the commission shall give the registrant an opportunity for an adjudicative hearing.

(b) In determining suitability of employment, the commission shall consider the facts and circumstances relative to the particular registrant, including but not limited to his health, his training and education, the degree of risk to his health and safety, his experience and prior earnings, his prospects of securing work in his customary occupation, and the commuting distance and expense.

(c) Employment is not suitable if the commission determines that:

(1) the compensation, work hours, or other conditions of work are substantially less favorable to the registrant than those prevailing for similar work in the locality;
(2) as a condition of employment the registrant is required to join, resign from, or refrain from joining a labor organization;
(3) the work site is subject to a strike or lockout at the time of the offer of employment;
(4) the degree of risk to the registrant's health or safety is unreasonable;
(5) the registrant is physically or mentally unfit to perform the work;
(6) the commuting distance is unreasonable; or
(7) the employment fails to satisfy standards established under applicable federal law.

(d) If the final decision of the commission is that a registrant failed to comply with Section 5 of this Act without good cause, the commission promptly shall give the Commissioner of Public Welfare written notice of the decision. However, if the registrant appeals the decision, the commission shall delay notification pending the final outcome of the appeal.

Sec. 7. (a) If a registrant has failed to comply with Section 5 of this Act without good cause as determined by the commission, the registrant is ineligible to receive AFDC payments. The ineligibility takes effect on the date the commission's decision on the matter becomes final.

(b) AFDC ineligibility resulting from the application of Subsection (a) of this section continues until the registrant's eligibility is reinstated by the commission.

(c) On application by a registrant for reinstatement of AFDC eligibility in the manner prescribed by rule of the commission, the commission shall determine whether to reinstate eligibility.

(d) The commission shall reinstate AFDC eligibility if it finds that the registrant, after having lost eligibility under Subsection (a) of this section, obtained employment of at least 30 hours a week. Before making its decision, the commission shall give the registrant an opportunity for an adjudicative hearing.

(e) On reinstatement of a registrant's AFDC eligibility, the commission shall give the Commissioner of Public Welfare written notice of the reinstatement.

Deduction for Unsuccessful Appeal

Sec. 8. (a) If the final outcome of a registrant's appeal of a decision made by the commission under Section 6 of this Act upholds the commission's decision, the department of public welfare shall deduct the amount of AFDC payments made to the registrant during the pendency of the appeal from any future AFDC payments made to the registrant.

(b) In each case in which a deduction is required under Subsection (a) of this section, the commission shall give the Commissioner of Public Welfare written notice of the time elapsed between the rendering of the commission's decision and the reviewing court's judgment.

Sec. 9. The commission, a hearing examiner appointed by the commission, or an appeal tribunal established under the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act (Article 5221b–22h, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) may conduct an adjudicative hearing held under this Act.

Venue of Appeal

Sec. 10. Venue in an appeal of a decision made by the commission under this Act is in the district court of the county in which the registrant resides.

Sec. 11. [Adds § 19–B to art. 695c]

Art. 695o. AFDC Education and Employment Act [Text of article effective until August 31, 1983]

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the AFDC Education and Employment Act.

Findings and Purposes

Sec. 2. The legislature finds and declares as follows:

(1) There are more that 90,000 households receiving assistance through the AFDC program. More than 9 of the 10 (96%) AFDC households are headed by women. The State of Texas spends more than substantial funds in providing approximately $8,600 annually in assistance and services, which include: financial grants, food stamps, day care, medical services, and administrative overhead. Past efforts directed at assisting AFDC heads of families to be economically self-sufficient have had limited effect in reducing the welfare rolls.

(2) AFDC caretakers have many handicaps when entering the job market. Lacking marketable skills, they are relegated to low-paying jobs. Thus, there is often an economic disincentive to go to work. The vast majority of AFDC caretakers are unable to earn enough income to offset child-care and transportation expenses. Because of sexual and racial discrimination, job availability is limited to a narrow range of career choices, many of which do not offer as much as the federally established minimum wage. A majority of AFDC caretakers have not attained an adequate education. Chances of effective employment are reduced.

(3) A viable solution is a Texas AFDC Employment and Education Pilot Project established by this Act. This pilot project will provide the necessary experience and basis to give new direction to Texas and national AFDC welfare policies. It is the intention of this legislation to provide assistance to AFDC recipients in obtaining employment experience and skills training from postsecondary vocational training institutions, community colleges, universities, C.E.T.A. (the federal Comprehensive Employment and Training Act), skills centers, industry, on-the-job training, and other related employment, education, and social service agencies.

AFDC Education and Employment Pilot Project

Sec. 3. (a) The AFDC Education and Employment Pilot Project is established. The pilot project... is administered by the State Department of Public Welfare, and the department shall adopt the rules necessary for its implementation consistent with this Act.

(b) The purpose of the pilot project is to develop an effective means of assisting and encouraging persons who are receiving AFDC assistance to become self-sufficient members of society by providing them with vocational and general educational opportunities and with assistance in obtaining and retaining employment. In this Act, “AFDC” means aid to families with dependent children authorized under the Public Welfare Act of 1941, as amended (Article 695c, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

(c) The pilot project is financed with state money, to the extent provided by legislative appropriation, and with any federal money obtained for the purpose. The department may also accept private grants and donations for the pilot project.

(d) To qualify for participation in the pilot project, a person must be eligible to receive AFDC assistance from the department.

Education Component

Sec. 4. (a) As a component of the pilot project, the department shall develop an education program designed to provide occupational and general education for persons participating in the pilot project, using, to the extent practicable, community colleges, colleges, universities, and other educational institutions in this state that elect to participate in the education program. Participation of an educational institution in the education program is subject to the approval of the department. The department shall consult with participating educational institutions in developing curricula for the education program.

(b) The department may reimburse participating educational institutions for all or any part of the costs of providing educational services under the program established by this section.

(c) In developing the education program, the department shall emphasize training in skills or trades that offer the opportunity for earning power in excess of the federal minimum wage, as illustrated by, but not limited to, welding, carpentry, electronics, data processing, paraprofessional work, and machinist trades.

Employment Component

Sec. 5. (a) As a component of the pilot project, the department, after consultation with the Texas Employment Commission, shall develop an employment program designed to assist persons participating in the pilot project in obtaining and retaining employment and to provide them with on-the-job training.

(b) The department shall establish a number of pilot sites in both rural and urban areas of the state to administer the program on a local level. The department may contract with private nonprofit corporations to administer the sites.

(c) The site offices may contract with employers, prospective employers, or labor unions to provide on-the-job training or apprenticeships for project participants. In placing project participants in positions in which they receive on-the-job training, the site offices shall emphasize training in the kind of skills and trades specified in Section 4(c) of this Act.

(d) The site offices may contract or enter into cooperative agreements with other publicly financed employment programs to provide job-placement services.

(e) In staffing the site offices, the department or nonprofit corporation shall employ, to the greatest extent practicable, persons who are eligible to receive AFDC assistance from the department and who have the knowledge and experience required for the positions.

(f) Each site office shall attempt to place each participant in employment commensurate with his ability, training, and experience.

Sec. 6. Within any limitations imposed under federal law, child care, health services, transportation, and other welfare services to which a person was entitled at the time he became a participant in the pilot project are continued after he obtains employment for the period of time and to the extent the department determines necessary to allow the person to adjust to the demands of a self-sufficient life. The department by rule shall establish standards for determining when and to what extent the services are discontinued.

Advisory Committee

Sec. 7. (a) The Commissioner of Public Welfare, with approval of the State Board of Public Welfare, shall appoint eight persons to serve as members of an advisory committee for the pilot project. Vacancies on the advisory committee are filled in the same manner.

(b) In making the appointments to the advisory committee, the commissioner shall give consideration to the ethnic and sexual makeup of the state in an effort to achieve fair representation and shall attempt to appoint at least one person from business, labor, local government, and the general public.

(c) Advisory committee members serve for the duration of the pilot project and receive no compensation.
(d) The advisory committee shall elect a chairman from among its members. The commissioner shall designate one member to serve as chairman until the committee elects a chairman. The committee meets at the call of the chairman at the place specified in the call.

(e) Each member of the advisory committee is entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary traveling and lodging expenses incurred in attending meetings of the committee.

(f) The advisory committee shall monitor and evaluate the pilot project and report to the department in the manner prescribed by department rule.

The committee may include recommendations in its report.

(g) The department shall provide technical and administrative assistance to the advisory committee.

Annual Report

Sec. 8. The department shall prepare an annual report evaluating the pilot project.

Expiration

Sec. 9. This Act expires August 31, 1983.

Sec. 6. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1132, ch. 431, § 1, eff. June 19, 1975.]
Art. 717k-2. Public Securities; Issuance by Public Agencies; Interest Rate

Sec. 1. As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) The term "public agency" shall mean and include the State of Texas, any department, board, agency, or instrumentality of the State of Texas, any municipal corporation, any political subdivision, any district, and any body politic and corporate of the State of Texas.

(b) The term "public securities" shall mean any bonds, notes, or other obligations payable from taxes, or revenues, or both, which any public agency is now or hereafter may be authorized to issue pursuant to provisions of law other than this Act.

(c) The term "net interest cost" with reference to an issue or series of public securities shall mean the total of all interest to accrue and come due thereon through the final scheduled maturity date thereof, plus any discount or minus any premium included in the price paid therefor. The term "discount" with reference to an issue or series of public securities shall mean the principal amount (par value) of such issue or series plus any accrued interest to the date of delivery minus the total sum of money paid to the issuer. The term "premium" with reference to an issue or series of public securities shall mean the total sum of money paid to the issuer for such an issue or series minus the principal amount (par value) thereof, and also minus any accrued interest to the date of delivery. The term "bond years" with reference to each separate bond, note, or other obligation constituting part of an issue or series of public securities shall mean the figure obtained by dividing the principal amount (par value) of each such bond, note, or other obligation by one-thousand (1000) and multiplying such quotient by the number of years from the date interest commences to accrue thereon to its scheduled maturity date. If any portion of an issue or series of public securities is subject to a mandatory redemption prior to scheduled maturity which at the time of delivery of such public securities is scheduled to occur on a date or dates certain, net interest cost and bond years shall be calculated as if the face amount of bonds, notes, or other obligations required to be redeemed on each such earlier date were scheduled to mature on such earlier date and net interest required to be paid on any such mandatory redemption date.

(d) The term "net effective interest rate" with reference to an issue or series of public securities shall mean the figure obtained by dividing the amount of the net interest cost of such issue or series by the aggregate total number of bond years of all bonds, notes, or other obligations constituting such issue or series, and then dividing such quotient by ten (10) and expressing the result as a rate of interest in per cent per annum.

Sec. 2. The maximum rate of interest for any issue or series of public securities shall be a net effective interest rate of ten per cent (10%), and any public agency is hereby authorized to issue and sell any issue or series of its public securities at any price or prices and bearing interest at any rate or rates (provided that the net effective interest rate does not exceed ten per cent (10%)), as shall be determined within the discretion of the governing body of the public agency, subject to the exceptions hereinafter provided. Any public securities heretofore authorized by an election may be issued, sold, and bear interest as provided in this Act, except that public securities heretofore authorized by an election required by the Constitution of Texas shall not be issued at an interest rate greater than authorized at such election unless a further election is held resulting favorably to the issuance of such previously voted public securities at a price and at a rate authorized by this Act. Elections for that purpose shall be called and held, and notice thereof given, in the same manner as provided by law applicable to the previous election authorizing such public securities.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act concerning sale price and the maximum rates of interest which public securities may bear shall apply to all public securities notwithstanding the provisions or restrictions of any general or special law or charter to the contrary, but shall not apply to any public securities whose maximum rate of interest or maximum net effective interest rate is, at the time of issuance thereof, otherwise specifically fixed by the Constitution.

Sec. 4. If an issue or series of public securities is issued in exchange for property, labor, services, materials, or equipment pursuant to provisions of law other than this Act, such public securities may bear interest at any rate or rates, as shall be determined within the discretion of the governing body of the public agency, subject to the exceptions hereinafter provided, provided that the maximum interest rate shall not exceed ten per cent (10%).

Art. 717k-5. Validation of Contracts, Warrants and Refunding Bonds Authorized by Counties, Cities or Towns

Sec. 1. In every instance where the commissioner of a county or the governing board of a city, including home-rule cities, or town in this state has entered into contracts for, or has determined the advisability thereof by giving notice of intention to issue interest-bearing time warrants in payment thereof, the construction of public works or improvements, the purchase of land or interests in land, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, wages, salaries, or professional or personal services, and has heretofore adopted orders or ordinances to authorize the issuance of scrip or time warrants to pay or evidence the indebtedness of such county or city, including home-rule cities, or town for the cost of such public works or improvements, land, material, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, wages, salaries, or professional or personal services, all such contracts, scrip and time warrants, and the proceedings adopted by the commissioners court or governing body, as the case may be, relating thereto are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed, and approved. All scrip warrants and time warrants heretofore issued by the commissioners court or governing body, as the case may be, in payment of work done by such county or city, including home-rule cities, or town and paid for by the day as the work progressed, and for materials and supplies purchased in connection with such work and for professional or personal services rendered to the county, city, or town, and each of these are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed, and approved and all such warrants shall be payable in accordance with their respective terms. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify, or confirm any contract, scrip warrant, or time warrant executed or issued by any county with a population in excess of 350,000, according to the last preceding federal census, or any contract, scrip warrant, or time warrant, the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective if the question is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Sec. 2. All proceedings, governmental acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions, and other instruments heretofore adopted or executed by a commissioners court or governing body of a city, including home-rule cities, or town, and of all officers and officials thereof authorizing the issuance of or pertaining to refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding scrip or time warrants issued by any county or city, including home-rule cities, or town and all such warrants and all refunding bonds, heretofore issued for such purpose, and each of these are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved, and confirmed. Such refunding bonds now in process of being issued and authorized by proceedings, ordinances, and resolutions heretofore adopted may be issued, irrespective of the fact that the commissioners court or governing body in giving the notice of intention to issue refunding bonds may not have in all respects complied with statutory provisions. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify, or confirm any proceedings, governmental acts, orders, resolutions, or other instruments, or bonds executed, adopted, or issued by any county with a population in excess of 350,000, according to the last preceding federal census, or any proceedings, governmental acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions, or other instruments, or bonds, the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective if the question is ultimately determined against the validity thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any proceedings which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 3. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word in this Act or application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the legislature hereby declares it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity.

The governing body of the local government may authorize the execution of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other forms of encumbrances to evidence the indebtedness.

(c) The local government may also pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenues, or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

(d) No holder of any bond or bonds issued under this Act shall ever have the right to demand payment thereof out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

Public Purpose

Sec. 8. The acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, equipment, operation, and maintenance of any property, buildings, structures, or other facilities authorized under this Act are public purposes and proper functions of local governments.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 9. (a) Any bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for that purpose, under any terms or conditions, as are determined by ordinance of the governing body of the local government. All appropriate provisions of this Act are applicable to refunding bonds, and the refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds. The refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts necessary to pay the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of bonds to be refunded, at maturity or on any redemption date.

(b) The refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded by them. In that case, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance authorizing the refunding bonds. The exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.

(c) Bonds issued at any time by a local government under this Act also may be refunded in the manner provided by any other applicable law.

Approval and Registration of Bonds

Sec. 10. All bonds issued under this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If the bonds recite that they are secured by a pledge of revenues or rentals from a contract or lease, a copy of the contract or lease and the proceedings relating to it shall be submitted to the attorney general also. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized and any contract or lease has been made in accordance with law, he shall approve the bonds and the contract or lease, and thereupon the bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After approval and registration the bonds and any contract or lease relating to them are incontestable in any court or other forum for any reason, and are valid and binding obligations for all purposes in accordance with their terms.

Authorized Investments and Security for Deposits

Sec. 11. All bonds issued under this Act are legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of the state, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. The bonds also are eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of it, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of the bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 12. This Act is cumulative of all other law on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized by it without reference to any other law or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided. When any bonds are issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control. A local government has the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied; granted by this Act.

CHAPTER EIGHT. SUPERVISION AND REGULATION, BOOKS AND RECORDS, ACCOUNTING PRACTICES, STATEMENTS, REPORTS, AUDITS, EXAMINATIONS, VIOLATIONS, RECEIVERSHIP
[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 8.01 to 8.12]

Commissioner Shall Order Discontinuance of Violations

Sec. 8.13. If the Commissioner as a result of any examination or investigation of the affairs of an association finds that such association is violating or has violated or is about to violate any provision of its charter or bylaws or any law, or willfully violates any rule or regulation governing its operations to an extent which would tend to cause a substantial reduction in net worth or is engaging in, or has engaged in, or if the Commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that the association is about to engage in an unsafe and unsound practice or practices, he shall deliver a formal written order to the board of directors of the association in which the facts known to the Commissioner are set forth with an order to cease and desist from any such violation or practice. Such order may, by provisions which may be mandatory or otherwise, require the association, its directors, officers, employees, or agents to take affirmative action to correct the conditions resulting from any such violation or practice. Such order shall become final 10 days after the same has been delivered unless the association shall within such time request a hearing before the Commissioner in regard to such order, at which hearing any pertinent evidence relating to said order or the facts stated therein may be presented. Such hearing shall be promptly held, and the Commissioner, on the basis of the evidence presented and any matters of record in his office, shall thereupon either continue such order in effect, modify the same, or set it aside.

An unsafe and unsound practice with respect to an association is such action or inaction as is likely to cause insolvency or substantial dissipation of assets or earnings or to otherwise prejudice its ability to timely satisfy withdrawal requests of savings account holders.

Commissioner May Remove Directors and Officers Participating in Violations

Sec. 8.14. Whenever in the opinion of the Commissioner, any director or officer of an association has committed any violation of law, rule, or regulation, or refused to comply with a cease and desist order which has become final, or has engaged or participated in any unsafe or unsound practice or practices in connection with the association, or has committed or engaged in any act, omission, or practice which constitutes a breach of his fiduciary duty as such director or officer, and it appears that the association has suffered or probably will suffer substantial financial loss or other damage or that its ability to timely satisfy withdrawal requests of savings account holders could be seriously prejudiced thereby, the Commissioner may require any such director or officer be removed from the office. Prior to entering an order of removal, the Commissioner shall deliver a full statement of the acts and conduct to which he objects to the board of directors of the association and the person or persons concerned and of his intention to enter a removal order. Such order shall become final within 10 days after such delivery unless within such time a hearing is requested. The Commissioner shall promptly hold a hearing if timely request is made at which any pertinent evidence relating to the matters set forth in such statement may be presented. After such hearing the Commissioner, on the basis of the evidence presented at such hearing, may proceed to enter an order for the immediate removal of the director or officer affected, a reprimand of the individuals and association concerned or a dismissal of the entire matter. If no hearing is requested within the time specified, the Commissioner may proceed to enter an order of removal on the basis of the facts set forth in his original statement.

All proceedings in regard to such applications shall be governed by the laws of this State applicable to receiverships generally. The Commissioner, or his deputy or a Savings and Loan Examiner shall be appointed by the court as a receiver. The receiver, upon appointment by the court, shall immediately take charge of the affairs of the association, subject to the direction of the court, and proceed to conduct the business of the association or to take such steps as may be necessary to conserve the assets and protect the rights of the creditors of the association and its members as may be ordered by the court. The official who is appointed receiver shall receive no additional compensation for such service. If the association is an institution insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, said corporation may be tendered appointment as receiver or co-receiver. If it accepts such appointment, it may, nevertheless, make loans on the security of or purchase at public or private sale

CHAPTER TEN. CONVERSION, REORGANIZATION, MERGER AND CONSOLIDATION, VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION

Sec. 10.03. Pursuant to a plan adopted by the board of directors and approved by the Commissioner as equitable to the members of the association and as not impairing the usefulness and success of other properly conducted associations, an association shall have power to reorganize or to merge or consolidate with another association or Federal association; provided, that the plan of such reorganization, merger or consolidation shall be approved by a majority of the total vote the members are entitled to cast. Approval may be voted at either an annual meeting or at a special meeting called to consider such action. In all cases the corporate continuity of the resulting corporation shall possess the same incidents as that of an association which has converted in accordance with this Act. In the case of prior merger possessing the largest assets shall be designated as the home office. Any order of the Commissioner approving the reorganization, merger, or consolidation of any association with another association or Federal association shall become final within the vicinity of the reorganizing, merging, or consolidating associations shall within such time request a public hearing before the Commissioner in regard to such order, objecting to such order on the basis that the reorganization, merger, or consolidation would materially constrict the ability of the objecting association to compete in its vicinity. Such hearing shall be promptly held, and the Commissioner on the basis of the evidence presented shall thereupon either continue such order in effect, modify the same, or set it aside.

CHAPTER ELEVEN. MISCELLANEOUS

Exemption from Securities Laws

Sec. 11.01. Savings accounts, certificates, and other evidences of interests in the savings liability of associations subject to this Act and of Federal associations are not "securities" for any purpose under The Securities Act, as amended (Article 581-1, et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). Securities of these associations other than interests in the savings liability of the associations are not subject to the registration requirements of The Securities Act, as amended. Any person whose principal occupation is that of an officer of an association is exempt from the registration and licensing provisions of The Securities Act, as amended, with respect to that person's participation in a sale or other transaction involving securities of the association of which the person is an officer.

Disclosure of Examiners—Penalty

Sec. 11.18. The Commissioner and any examiner, inspector, deputy, assistant or clerk, appointed or acting under the provisions of this Act, failing to keep secret any facts or information regarding an association obtained in the course of an examination or by reason of his official position, except when the public duty of such officer required him to report upon or take official action regarding the affairs of the association so examined, or who wilfully makes a false official report as to the condition of such association, shall be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500), or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than one (1) year, or both. Reports of examinations made to the Commissioner shall be regarded as confidential and not for public record or inspection, except that for good reason same may be made public by the Commissioner, but copies thereof may, upon request of the association, be furnished to the Federal Home Loan Bank Board or to the Federal Home Loan Bank for the purpose of meeting the requirements of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act. Nothing herein shall prevent the proper exchange of information relating to associations and the business thereof with the representatives of savings and loan departments of other states, but in no case shall the private business or affairs of any individual association be disclosed. Any official violating any provision of this Section, in addition to the penalties herein provided, shall be liable, with his bondsmen, to the person or corporation injured by the disclosure of such secrets. The foregoing provisions shall not apply to any facts or information or to any reports of investigations obtained or made by the Commissioner or his staff in connection with any application for a charter under this Act or in connection with any hearing held by the Commissioner under this Act, and any such facts, information or reports may be included in the record of the appropriate hearing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Commissioner shall report promptly to the Savings and Loan Section of the Finance Commission when either a cease and desist or removal order under Sections 8.13 and 8.14 of this article has been issued to an association. The Commissioner shall furnish such information about the association as the section members shall require in executive session.
Permanent Reserve Fund Stock to be Called Capital Stock

Sec. 11.19. The stock issued by an association under the authority of Section 2.02 shall hereafter be called "Capital" stock rather than "Permanent Reserve Fund" stock and the term "Permanent Reserve Fund" wherever such term appears in the Texas Savings and Loan Act, as amended (Article 852a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is hereby changed to "Capital."

Savings and Loan Section to Adopt Rules and Regulations for Reporting Change of Control of Associations

Sec. 11.20. The Savings and Loan Section of the Finance Commission shall adopt and promulgate such rules and regulations as may be required to effectively cause the timely reporting to the Commissioner of any change in the control of an association occurring by reason of change in ownership of voting stock or holdings of voting rights in the association. A report shall be required whenever any person, partnership, trust, or group of associated persons acquires, receives, or becomes holder of:

(a) 25 percent or more of the outstanding shares of any class of voting stock of an association or of the voting rights thereto;
(b) 25 percent or more of the outstanding voting rights of an association; or
(c) any appointment, designation, or right or substitution with respect to 25 percent or more of the outstanding voting rights of the institution.

Section 6 of the 1977 amendatory act provided:

Transportation of Cornish Hens or Commercial Broilers

Sec. 1d. Provided, however, that in any proceeding in which or in connection with which the Commission specifically finds that the public interest requires that specialized motor carriers of Cornish hens and/or commercial broilers or other specified special commodities should be permitted to commence new certificated operations or to perform new certificated services under existing conditions and without prior approval by the Commission of rates, fares and charges for such new service, then, in such event, and pursuant to such finding, such new certificated operations or new certificated services may be commenced and performed under existing conditions and absent prior approval by the Commission of applicable rates, fares and charges. The term "Cornish hen" means a chicken which is approximately five weeks of age and the term "commercial broiler" means a chicken which is seven to eight weeks of age.

Identification Plate on Motor Vehicles

Sec. 18. It shall be unlawful for any motor carrier as hereinbefore defined to operate any motor vehicle within this State unless there shall be displayed and firmly fixed upon the front of such vehicle an identification plate to be furnished by the Commission. Each plate shall be designed so as to identify the vehicle on which the same is attached as being a vehicle authorized to operate under the terms of this law; said plate shall bear the number given to the vehicle by the Commission and such other marks of identification as may be necessary. The plate for common carrier vehicles and the plate for contract carrier vehicles shall be different in design. The identification plate provided for herein shall be in addition to the regular license plates required by law. It shall be the duty of the Commission to provide the plate and each motor vehicle operating in this State shall display such plate as soon as the same is received and such plate shall be issued annually thereafter and attached to each motor vehicle not later than September 1st of each year, or as soon thereafter as possible. The Commission shall be authorized to collect from the applicant a fee of one dollar ($1) for each plate so issued, and all fees for such plates shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the "Motor Carrier Fund."

Every cemetery association which has established and is now maintaining, operating or conducting a perpetual care cemetery and every association which shall hereafter establish, maintain, operate or conduct a perpetual care cemetery within this state, pursuant to this Act, shall establish with a trust company or a bank with trust powers, no two (2) of the directors of which shall be directors of the cemetery association for the benefit of which such fund is established, an endowment fund of which the proceeds of perpetual care shall never be voluntarily reduced, but shall remain inviolable and shall forever be maintained separate and distinct by the trustee or trustees from all other funds. Any such trustee...

or trustees and the perpetual care trust operated by them shall in all respects be governed by the provisions of the Texas Trust Act. The principal of such fund shall be invested, from time to time reinvested, and kept invested as required by law for the investment of such funds, and the net income arising therefrom shall be used solely for the general care and maintenance of the property entitled to perpetual care in the cemetery for which the fund is established, and shall be applied in such manner as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine to be for the best interest of the cemetery for which such fund is established, but shall never be used for improvement or embellishment of unsold property to be offered for sale. In the event the Board of Directors shall fail to generally care for and maintain that portion of the cemetery entitled to perpetual care, as hereinbefore provided, any five (5) or more lot owners in said cemetery whose lots are entitled to perpetual care shall have the right by suit for mandatory injunction or for a Receiver to take charge of and expend said net income, filed in the District Court of the county in which the cemetery is located, to compel the expenditure either by the Board of Directors or by such Receiver of the net income from the perpetual care fund for the purpose hereinabove set forth.

If a cemetery association is operating a cemetery without provision for perpetual care, and if it is authorized by law and wishes to operate said cemetery as a perpetual care cemetery, it shall so notify the Banking Commission of the State of Texas and shall, in accordance with the foregoing provisions hereof, establish a perpetual care fund equal to the amount which would have theretofore been paid into such a fund, in accordance with provisions of this Act, if such cemetery had been operated as a perpetual care cemetery from and after the date of the first sale of burial space therein, or the minimum amount provided in Section 29 of this Act, whichever is the greater. If the amount of the perpetual care fund so established is the minimum amount provided in Section 29 of this Act, such cemetery association or corporation shall be entitled to a credit against amounts hereafter required by the provisions of this Act to be paid by it unto such perpetual care fund equal to the excess of the amount of such perpetual care fund, as originally established by it, over what would have been the amount thereof if its amount had been determined without regard to Section 29 of this Act.

In establishing its perpetual care trust fund the association may from time to time adopt plans for the general care, maintenance and embellishment of its cemetery.

A cemetery association which has established a perpetual care fund may also take, receive, and hold therefor and as a part thereof or as an incident thereto any property, real, personal or mixed, bequeathed, devised, granted, given or otherwise contributed to it therefor.

The perpetual care trust fund authorized by this Section and all sums paid therein or contributed thereto are, and each thereof is hereby, expressly permitted and shall be and be deemed to be for charitable and eleemosynary purposes. Such perpetual care shall be deemed to be a provision for the discharge of a duty due from the person or persons contributing thereto to the persons interred and to be interred in the cemetery and likewise a provision for the benefit and protection of the public by preserving and keeping cemeteries from becoming places of disorder, reproach, and desolation in the communities in which they are situated. No payment, gift, grant, bequest, or other contribution for such general perpetual care shall be or be deemed to be invalid by reason of any indefiniteness or uncertainty of the persons designated as beneficiaries in the instruments creating said trust, nor shall said fund or any contribution thereto be or be deemed to be invalid as violating any law against perpetuities or the suspension of the power of alienation of title to property.

Each perpetual care cemetery shall deposit in its perpetual care trust fund an amount equivalent to such amount as may have been stipulated in any contract under which perpetual care property was sold prior to March 15, 1934, plus a minimum of twenty cents (20¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after March 15, 1934, until such fund reaches a minimum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), after which each such cemetery shall deposit an amount equivalent to a minimum of ten cents (10¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after March 15, 1934, until September 3, 1945. Each such cemetery shall deposit in its perpetual care trust fund an amount equivalent to a minimum of twenty cents (20¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after September 3, 1945, and thereafter an amount equivalent to a minimum of ten cents (10¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property between said dates. A minimum of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) per each crypt interment right for mausoleum interment sold or disposed of as perpetual care property and a minimum of Five Dollars ($5.00) per each niche interment right for columbarium interment sold or disposed of as perpetual care property between March 15, 1934, and July 1, 1963, shall also be placed in such perpetual care trust fund. From and after July 1, 1963, until September 1, 1975, each such cemetery shall deposit in such perpetual care trust fund an amount equivalent to a minimum of fifty cents (50¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property between said dates. A minimum of Forty Dollars ($40.00) per each crypt interment right for mausoleum interment sold or disposed of as perpetual care property, except that on crypts accessible only through another crypt the minimum requirement shall be Twenty Dollars ($20.00) per each such crypt, and a minimum of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per each niche interment right for columbarium interment sold or disposed of subsequent to July 1, 1963, shall also be placed in such perpetual care trust fund. Such minimum requirements shall apply to all property in which the exclusive right of sepulture has been sold and paid for, whether used for interment purposes or not.

After July 1, 1963, each agreement for the sale of burial space in a perpetual care cemetery shall set out separately the part of the aggregate amount agreed to be paid by the purchaser which is to be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund. If the aggregate amount agreed to be paid by the purchaser is payable in installments, all amounts paid thereon shall be applied, first, to the part thereof not required to be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund, to the extent thereof, and the remainder shall, when received by the seller, be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund. Any funds required to be deposited in its perpetual care trust fund by a seller of burial space shall be so deposited not later than ten (10) days after the end of the calendar month during which they are received. If the seller shall fail to so deposit such funds within the time required hereunder, it shall be liable for, and the Banking Commissioner shall collect as a penalty the sum of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) per each crypt interment right for mausoleum interment sold or disposed of as perpetual care property, except that on crypts accessible only through another crypt the minimum requirement shall be Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) per each such crypt, and a minimum of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) per each niche interment right for columbarium interment sold or disposed of subsequent to September 1, 1975, shall also be placed in such perpetual care trust fund. The amount of money to be placed in the perpetual care trust fund for lawn crypts shall be the same as crypts in an aboveground mausoleum. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 86, ch. 40, § 3, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

The amount to be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund shall be separately shown on the original purchase agreement and a copy thereof shall be delivered to the purchaser. In the sale of burial space, no commission shall be paid a broker or salesman on the amount to be deposited in the fund.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the laws of the State of Texas or any provision in a trust agreement executed for the purpose of providing perpetual care for a cemetery, such trust agreement may, by agreement entered into between the cemetery association and the trustee or trustees acting under such trust agreement, be amended so as to include any provision which is not inconsistent with any provision in this Act.

Sec. 5. [Text of subd. (a) as amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1002, ch. 365, § 1]

(a) No home rule or general law city may annex any area, whether publicly or privately owned, unless the width of such area at its narrowest point is at least 500 feet, except that a city having a population of twelve thousand (12,000) inhabitants or less may annex an area that is less than 500 feet in width if the corporate limits of the city are contiguous with the property on at least two sides; and except that adjacent cities may accomplish mutually agreeable adjustments in their boundaries of areas that are less than 500 feet in width.

[Text of subd. (a) as amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1719, ch. 686, § 1]

(a) No home rule or general law city may annex any area, whether publicly or privately owned, unless the width of such area at its narrowest point is at least 500 feet, except that a city having a population of twelve thousand (12,000) inhabitants or less may annex an area that is less than 500 feet in width if the corporate limits of the city are contiguous with the property on at least two sides, provided, however, that the provisions of this paragraph (a) shall not apply to any annexation initiated upon written petition of the owner or owners or of a majority of the qualified voters of the area to be annexed.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 7, B-1(b) to 7, D]

Annexation of Municipal Reservoir

Sec. 7a. A general law city may annex a reservoir owned by the city and used to supply water to the city, any land adjoining the reservoir that is subject to an easement for flood control purposes in favor of the city, and the right-of-way of any public roads or highways connecting the reservoir to the city by the most direct route, even though part of the annexed area is outside the city’s extraterritorial jurisdiction or is narrower than five hundred (500) feet, if:

(1) none of the annexed territory is more than five (5) miles from the city’s corporate limits;
(2) no part of the annexed territory is in another city’s extraterritorial jurisdiction; and
(3) the annexed area, excluding road or highway right-of-way, is less than six hundred (600) acres.

B. The provisions of this Act limiting the amount of territory a city may annex in a calendar year do not apply to an annexation covered by this section. Territory may be annexed under this section without the consent of the owners or residents of the annexed area.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 8 to 10]

Annexation of Certain Political Subdivisions

Sec. 11. A. In this Section, “water or sewer district” means any district or authority created by authority of either Article III, Section 52, Subsection (b), Subdivisions (1) and (2), or Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution, proposing to provide or actually providing water and sewer services or either of these services to household users as the principal function of the district, but does not include a district or authority if its primary function is the wholesale distribution of water.

B. A city may not annex territory within the boundaries of a water or sewer district unless it annexes the entire portion of the district that is outside the city’s boundaries. This restriction does not apply to the annexation of territory in a water or sewer district if the water or sewer district is wholly or partly inside the extraterritorial jurisdiction of more than one city.

C. An annexation subject to Subsection B of this Section is exempt from the provisions of this Act limiting annexation authority to territory within a city’s extraterritorial jurisdiction if:

(1) immediately before the annexation, at least half the area of the water or sewer district is inside the city’s boundaries or its area of extraterritorial jurisdiction; and
(2) the city does not, in the annexation proceeding, annex any territory outside its extraterritorial jurisdiction except the part of the water or sewer district that is outside its extraterritorial jurisdiction.

D. Territory annexed in an annexation subject to Subsection B of this Section is included in computing the amount of territory the city may annex in a calendar year under Subsections B and C, Section 7 of this Act. If the area to be annexed exceeds the amount of territory the city otherwise would be permitted to annex, the city may nevertheless make the annexation, but it may make no other annexations in the remainder of the calendar year except annexations subject to Subsection B of this Section and annexations of territory that are excluded in the computation of territory a city may annex in a calendar year under Subsection B, Section 7 of this Act.

Art. 974a. Plating and Recording Subdivisions or Additions

the same shall have been approved by the City Planning Commission of any city affected by this Act, if said city has a City Planning Commission and if it has no City Planning Commission, unless and until the said plan, plat, or replat shall have been approved by the governing body of such city. If a city has a City Planning Commission, the governing body may, by ordinance, additionally require approval of said plan, plat, or replat by the governing body. If such land lies outside of and within five (5) miles of more than one (1) city affected by this Act, then the requisite approval shall be by the City Planning Commission or governing body, or both, as the case may be, of such of said cities having the largest population; provided, however, that the governing body of any city having the largest population may enter into an agreement with any other city or cities affected, or the governing body of the largest city may enter into an agreement with any other city within five (5) miles conferring the power of approval of such land lies outside of and within five (5) miles from the filing date. If said plat be not disapproved within thirty (30) days from said filing date, it shall be deemed to have been approved by the Commission, or the governing body if there is no Commission. If a city with a Commission has required that approval be given by the governing body, then the governing body shall act upon the same within thirty (30) days after the approval by the Commission, or after the approval by reason of nonaction. If said plat be not disapproved by the governing body within said thirty (30) days, it shall be deemed to have been approved by the governing body. A certificate showing the filing dates hereunder and the failure to take actions thereon within the periods herein prescribed shall on demand be issued by the City Planning Commission or governing body, as the case may be, of such city, and said certificate shall be sufficient in lieu of the written endorsement or other evidence of approval herein required. If the plan, plat, or replat is approved, such Commission or governing body shall indicate such finding by certificate endorsed thereon, signed by the Chairman or presiding officer of said Commission or governing body and attested by its Secretary, or signed by a majority of the members of said Commission or of the Governing Body when appropriate under this Act. Such Commission or governing body shall keep a record of such applications and the action taken thereupon, and upon demand of the owners of any land affected, shall certify its reasons for the action taken in the matter.

999f. Salary Continuation Payments to Municipal Employees; Subrogation [NEW]
Art. 999d. Purchase of Liability Insurance for Certain Municipal Employees

A municipality may insure the officers and employees of the fire and police departments and other municipal employees who drive emergency vehicles against liability to third persons arising from and out of the use and operation of automobiles, motor trucks, and other motor vehicles used as municipal emergency medical, fire, or police vehicles in the line of duty by procuring policies for that purpose with insurance companies authorized to do business in this state. All insurance taken out by a municipality shall be on forms approved by the State Board of Insurance. No municipality may purchase liability insurance in excess of $100,000 because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident, $200,000 because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident, and $5,000 because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one accident.

Art. 999e. Automobile Liability Coverage for Peace Officers and Fire Fighters

Sec. 1. (a) Every incorporated city or town shall provide for insuring peace officers and fire fighters in its employ against liability to third persons arising out of the operation, maintenance, or use of any motor vehicle owned or leased by such city or town.

(b) Any incorporated city or town may elect to reimburse the actual cost of extended automobile liability insurance endorsements obtained by its peace officers and fire fighters on the individually owned automobile liability insurance policies of such peace officers and fire fighters. Such extended endorsement shall be in amounts not less than those required under this Act and shall extend the coverage to include the operation and use of city vehicles by such peace officers or fire fighters in the scope of their employment. Provided, however, that any incorporated city or town which elects to use the reimbursement method authorized under this subsection may require that all peace officers and fire fighters who operate and use motor vehicles present proof that an extended coverage endorsement has been purchased and that such extended coverage is current.

Sec. 2. Liability coverage provided pursuant to the requirements of this Act shall be in amounts not less than the amounts required by the Texas Motor Vehicle Safety-Responsibility Act, as amended (Article 6701h, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), to provide proof of financial responsibility.

Sec. 3. “Motor vehicle” means any motor vehicle for which motor vehicle automobile insurance is written under the provisions of Subchapter A, Chapter 5, Insurance Code, as amended.

Art. 999f. Salary Continuation Payments to Municipal Employees; Subrogation

If an incorporated city, town, or village pays benefits to a municipal employee under a salary continuation program when the employee is injured, the municipality is subrogated to the employee's right of recovery for personal injuries caused by the tortious conduct of a third party other than another employee of the same municipality. The subrogation extends only to the extent of payments made by the municipality. That a municipal employee has a cause of action against a third party for personal injuries is not a ground for the municipality to deny benefits under a salary continuation program.

Art. 1001. Treasurer, Duties, etc.

The treasurer shall give bond in favor of the city in such amount, and in such form as the city council may require, with sufficient security to be approved by the city council, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties. He shall receive and securely keep all moneys belonging to the city, and make all payments for the same upon the order of the mayor, attested by the secretary under the seal of the corporation. No order shall be paid unless the said order shall show upon its face that the city council has directed its issuance, and for what purpose. He shall render a full and correct statement of his receipts and payments to the city council, at their first regular meeting in every quarter and whenever, at other times, he may be required by them so to do. He shall do and perform such other acts and duties as the city council may require. He shall receive such compensation as the city council shall fix.

Art. 1003. Qualifications of Appointee

No person other than an elector resident of the city shall be appointed to any office by the city council. This article does not apply to the appointment of a city health officer appointed under Article 4425, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, by the board of aldermen of an incorporated town or village containing fewer than 10,000 inhabitants.

[Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 891, ch. 335, § 1, eff. May 30, 1977.]

(b) After an election held under this Act, a two-year period of time must elapse prior to the calling of another election on the same proposition.

[Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 2979, ch. 928, §§ 1 to 8, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 1011e. Changes

Such regulations, restrictions, and boundaries may from time to time be amended, supplemented, changed, modified, or repealed. In case, however, of a written protest against such change, signed by the owners of 20 per cent or more either of the area of the lots or land included in such proposed change, or of the lots or land immediately adjoining the same and extending 200 feet therefrom, such amendment shall not become effective except by the favorable vote of three-fourths of all members of the legislative body of such municipality. The legislative body of a municipality may also provide by ordinance that a vote of three-fourths of all its members is required to overrule a recommendation of the zoning commission that a proposed amendment, supplement, or change be denied. The provisions of the previous section relative to public hearing and official notice shall apply equally to all changes or amendments.

Sec. 3. Any such city or town thus acquiring any such toll bridge shall have power, to be exercised by its Governing Body as expressed by Ordinance, to fix and to enforce and collect tolls and charges for the use thereof, and for the passage or transportation of persons or property, passengers, vehicles, freight and commodities, over and across such toll bridge. Such tolls and charges shall be fixed from time to time by the Governing Body of any such city or town, and collected under its direction, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of any permits or franchises granted or extended by any governmental authority in respect of or applicable thereto; and, subject to the provisions and requirements of any such permits or franchises, shall be just and reasonable and non-discriminatory, as determined by such Governing Body of any such city or town, and with no free service until the bonds herein provided to be issued to acquire such properties, together with the interest thereon, and all duties and obligations incident thereto or arising therefrom are first fully paid, met, and discharged; and, subject to the provisions and requirements of any such permits and franchises, shall be sufficient to produce revenues adequate:

(a) to pay all expenses necessary to the maintenance and operation of such toll bridge, and to

Nothing herein shall be construed as depriving the State of Texas or the United States of America, or other appropriate agencies having jurisdiction, of power to regulate and control tolls and charges to be collected for such purposes, or to provide for bridges over any such river to be used free of any tolls or charges, provided that the State of Texas does hereby pledge to and agree with the purchasers and successive holders of the bonds and/or warrants issued hereunder that the State will not limit or alter the power hereby vested in any such city or town or the Governing Body thereof to establish and collect such tolls and charges as will produce revenues sufficient to pay the items specified in subparagraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (d−1), and (e) of this Section 3 of this Act, or exercise it powers in any way to impair the rights or remedies of the holders of the bonds and/or warrants, or of any person in their behalf, until the bonds and/or warrants, together with the interest thereon, with interest on unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf of the bondholders and/or warrant holders and all other obligations of any such city or town in connection with such bonds and/or warrants are fully met and discharged.

Art. 1066c. Local Sales and Use Tax Act

Delinquent Taxes; Collection Suits; Notice and Limitations; Parties; Seizure and Sale of Property

Sec. 12. A. In any city where the Local Sales and Use Tax has been imposed, if any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid by him under this Act or in the event a determination has been made against him for taxes and penalty under this Act, the limitation for bringing suit for the collection of such delinquent tax and penalty shall be the same as that provided in Article 20.09, Chapter 20, Title 122A. Where any person is delinquent in payment of taxes under this Act, the Comptroller shall notify the Tax Collector of the city to which delinquent taxes are due under this Act by United States Registered Mail or Certified Mail and shall send a copy of the notice to the Attorney General. The city, acting through its attorney, may join in any suit brought by the Attorney General as a party plaintiff to seek a judgment for the delinquency of a taxpayer for the local sales and use tax constitutes a certification of the amount owed and is prima facie evidence of the determination of the tax and of the delinquency of the amounts of local sales and use tax set forth in the notice.

C. (1) A city that has adopted the tax authorized by this Act may bring suit for the collection of sales, excise, or use taxes imposed by this Act which have been certified as provided in Subsection A of this Section and are owed to the city under this Act if at least 60 days before the filing of the suit, written notice by certified mail of the tax delinquency and of the intention to file suit is given to the taxpayer, the Comptroller, and the Attorney General and if neither the Comptroller nor the Attorney General disapproves the suit by written notice to the city.

(2) The Comptroller or Attorney General may disapprove the institution of suit tax by a city if:

(i) negotiations between the State and the taxpayer are being conducted for the purpose of the collection of delinquent taxes owed to the State and the city seeking to bring suit;

(ii) the taxpayer owes substantial taxes to the State and there is a reasonable possibility that the taxpayer may be unable to pay the total amount owed in full;

(iii) the State will bring suit against the taxpayer for the collection of all sales, excise, and use taxes due under Chapter 20, Title 122A, Taxation—General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and this Act; or

(iv) the suit involves a critical legal question relating to the interpretation of State law or a provision of the Texas or United States Constitution in which the State has an overriding interest.

(3) A notice of disapproval to a city must give the reason for the determination of the Comptroller or Attorney General. A disapproval is final and not subject to review. A city, after one (1) year from the date of the disapproval, may proceed again as provided in paragraph (1) of Subsection C of this Section, even though the liability of the taxpayer includes taxes for which the city has previously given notice and the Comptroller or Attorney General has previously disapproved the suit.

(4) In any suit under this Subsection for the collection of city tax, a judgment for or against the taxpayer does not affect any claim against the taxpayer by another city or the State unless the State is a party to the action.

(5) A copy of the final judgment in favor of a city in a case in which the State is not a party shall be abstracted by the city and a copy of the judgment together with a copy of the abstract shall be sent to the Comptroller. The city shall collect the taxes awarded to it under the judgment as provided by Article 20.09(G)(4), Chapter 20, Title 122A, Taxation—General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and is responsible for the renewal of the judgment before the expiration of the 10-year period. If a collection is made by a city on a judgment, notice of the amount collected shall be sent by certified mail to the Comptroller. The Comptroller may prescribe a form for the notice to be used by cities.

Art. 1066d. Tax Increment Act of 1977

[Text of article conditioned on constitutional amendment]

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the “Texas Tax Increment Act of 1977.”

Public Purposes

Sec. 2. It is hereby found and declared that the blighted commercial areas of municipalities in this state constitute a serious and growing menace, injurious and inimical to the public health, safety, morals, and welfare of the residents of the state; that the existence of such areas necessitates excessive and disproportionate expenditures of public funds for the preservation of the public health and safety and for the maintenance of adequate police and fire protection and other public services and facilities, and that the existence of such areas constitutes an economic and social liability and substantially impairs the sound growth of such municipalities; that the prevention and elimination of blight in the commercial areas of municipalities is a matter of state policy and state concern in order that the state and its municipalities shall not continue to be endangered by areas which, while contributing little to the tax income of the state and its municipalities, consume an excessive proportion of its revenues because of the extra services required for police, fire, and other forms of protection; that such prevention and elimination, property values freed from the depressing influence of blight will be stabilized, and tax burdens will be distributed more equitably, employment will be increased, and the financial and capital resources of the state, required for the prosperity of and provision of necessary governmental services to its people will be strengthened; that this menace can best be remedied by conjunctive action of private enterprise and municipal governments through exercise of the powers provided hereunder and acting pursuant to approved redevelopment plans; that the execution of plans for the repair and rehabilitation of buildings and improvements in such areas, the furnishing of public improvements where necessary to eliminate conditions of blight or to prevent the development, spread, or recurrence of such conditions in such areas, and any other assistance which may be given by any municipality in connection therewith, are public uses and purposes for which public credit may be used; and that the necessity in the public interest for the provisions herein enacted is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination.

Definitions

Sec. 3. In this Act:

(a) “Blight” means a condition characterized by the presence of deteriorated or deteriorating buildings, structures, or improvements, or by reason of the predominance of defective or inadequate streets or defective or inadequate street layout or accessibility, or by reason of the existence of unsanitary, unhealthful, or other hazardous conditions which endanger the public health, safety, morals, or welfare of inhabitants of the municipality, or by reason of the predominance of the deterioration of site or other improvements, or by reason of the existence of conditions which endanger life or property by fire or from other causes, or by reason of the existence of tax delinquencies, or by reason of the existence of any combination of the hereinabove stated causes, factors, or conditions, which produces effects that substantially retard or arrest the provision of a sound and healthful environment, or which results in an economic or social liability to the municipality, and thus constitutes a menace to the public health, safety, morals, or public welfare of the municipality.

(b) “Captured market value” means any amount by which the current market value of property within the boundaries of a redevelopment district exceeds its market value at the time such district was designated in accordance with the requirements of this Act.

(c) “Commercial area” means a mercantile area, whether so designated by zoning or otherwise, the predominant uses within which are related to commerce and business activities.

(d) “Governing body” means the legislative body of any municipality in this state.

(e) “Municipality” means any city, town, or village incorporated under the laws of this state.

(f) “Redevelopment district” means a specific area within the corporate limits of any municipality which has been so designated by the governing body. No less than 60 percent of the area of any such district shall consist of land which has been platted and developed.

(g) “Redevelopment plan” means a statement of objectives respecting the improvement of a redevelopment district.

(h) “Redevelopment program” means a series of planned activities undertaken in a redevelopment district for the elimination or prevention of blight.

(j) “Tax assessor-collector” means the tax assessor-collector of the municipality.

(k) “Taxing entity” means any governmental unit, including the state and its political subdivisions, but not including municipalities, authorized by law to levy taxes on property located within a redevelopment district.

(l) “Tax increment” means that amount of property taxes levied and collected each year on property within a redevelopment district in excess of that amount which was levied and collected on such property during the year prior to the date the redevelopment plan for such district was adopted. A tax increment is calculated by multiplying the total in property taxes levied and collected by the municipality and all other taxing entities on the taxable property within a redevelopment district in any year by a fraction having a numerator equal to that year’s market value of all taxable property in such district minus the tax incremental base and a denominator equal to that year’s market value of all taxable property in such district.

(m) “Tax incremental base” means the aggregate market value of all taxable property within a redevelopment district on the date such district was designated by the governing body.

(n) “Tax increment fund” means a special fund into which all tax increments produced from the captured market value of property located within a redevelopment district are paid, and from which money is disbursed to pay redevelopment costs with respect to such district or to satisfy claims of holders of tax increment bonds issued with respect to such district.

Powers of Municipalities

Sec. 4. (a) In addition to any other powers conferred by law, a municipality may exercise any powers necessary and convenient to carry out the purposes of this Act, including the power to:

1. create and define the boundaries of redevelopment districts;
2. cause redevelopment plans to be prepared, to approve such plans, and to implement the provisions and effectuate the purposes of such plans;
3. issue tax increment bonds; or
4. enter into any contracts or agreements, including agreements with bondholders or with the governing body of any taxing entity, determined by the governing body to be necessary or convenient to implement the provisions and effectuate the purposes of redevelopment plans.

(b) Consistent with any redevelopment plan adopted by the governing body, the municipality may acquire blighted, deteriorated, deteriorating undeveloped, or inappropriately developed real property for the preservation or restoration of historic sites, beautification or conservation, or for the provision of public works or facilities or other public purposes, acquire, construct, reconstruct, or install public works, facilities, and sites or other improvements, including but not limited to utilities, streets, street lights, water and sewer facilities, pedestrian malls and walkways, parks, flood and drainage facilities, and parking facilities.

(c) The governing body may create a new agency or may designate an existing agency to administer any redevelopment district authorized under this Act. The administrator of such agency may, subject to any limitations imposed by the governing body, exercise the following powers:

1. acquire property or easements through negotiation;
2. enter into operating contracts on behalf of the municipality for operation of any public facilities constructed pursuant to this Act;
3. enter into contracts for construction of any public facilities within the redevelopment district; or
4. apply for grants from the government of the United States of America or other sources.

Designation of Development Districts

Sec. 5. (a) The governing body may designate a redevelopment district within the boundaries of the municipality after the following requirements are met:

1. The governing body has conducted a public hearing at which interested parties are afforded a reasonable opportunity to express their views on the proposed redevelopment district. Notice of such hearing shall be published in a newspaper having general circulation in the municipality not more than 20 nor less than 10 days prior to the hearing. Prior to such publication, a copy of the notice shall be sent by registered mail to the chief executive officer of each taxing entity.

2. The governing body has adopted a resolution which:

   (i) describes the boundaries of the redevelopment district with sufficient definiteness to identify with ordinary and reasonable certainty the territory included therein;
   (ii) provides for the creation of the proposed redevelopment district as of a date prescribed by such resolution;
   (iii) assigns a name to such district for identification purposes. The first such district created shall be known as “Redevelopment District Number One, City of ”. Each subsequently created district shall be assigned the next consecutive number;
Sec. 6. (a) For purposes of this Act, the market value of property located within a redevelopment district shall be determined by the tax assessor-collector, and only the tax assessor-collector, during the time such district exists. Provided, however, that such determination shall require the concurrence of the comptroller; and provided further, that any property owner aggrieved by a determination of the tax assessor-collector shall have the same right of appeal provided by law to owners of property not affected by this Act.

(b) At the time a redevelopment district is designated by the governing body, the tax assessor-collector shall, with the concurrence of an independent real estate appraiser, certify to the governing body the market value of property within the boundaries of such district. Property taxable at the time the redevelopment district is designated shall be included at its most recently determined market value; property exempt from taxation at the time of redevelopment district was designated shall be included at zero.

(c) The tax assessor-collector shall, within one year of the time a redevelopment district is designated and annually thereafter, certify to the governing body the amount of the captured market value of property within the boundaries of the district and the amount in tax increments produced from such captured market value.

(d) For any years in which taxes are to be paid into the tax increment fund required under Paragraph (4) of Subsection (a) of Section 5, any captured market value with respect to a redevelopment district shall not be considered by any taxing entity in computing any debt limitation or for any other purpose except in determining the amount to be paid into the tax increment fund.

Allocation of Tax Collections and Tax Increments

Sec. 7. (a) For purposes of this Act, the tax assessor-collector shall have the sole authority and duty to collect the taxes levied by the municipality and all other taxing entities on property located within a redevelopment district, and for allocating taxes and tax increments in the manner required by this Act.

(b) Commencing with the first payment of taxes levied by the municipality or other taxing entities subsequent to the time a redevelopment district is designated, receipts from such taxes shall be allocated and paid over as follows:

(1) There shall first be allocated and paid over in such amounts as belong to each respectively, to the municipality and to each other taxing entity, all of the property taxes collected which are produced from the tax incremental base.

(2) There shall next be deposited into the tax increment fund established for such district all tax increments produced from the captured market value of property located within the district.

Tax Increment Bonds

Sec. 8. (a) A municipality shall, in addition to any other powers vested in it, have the power to issue tax increment bonds, the proceeds of which may be used to pay redevelopment costs with respect to the district on behalf of which the bonds were issued or to satisfy claims of holders of such bonds. The municipality shall also have the power to issue refunding bonds for the payment or retirement of tax increment bonds previously issued by it. Such tax increment bonds shall be made payable, as to both principal and interest, solely from tax increments allocated to and paid into the tax increment fund established by the municipality in accordance with this Act, or from any private sources, or contributions or other financial assistance from the state or United States government, or by any combination of these methods.

(b) Tax increment bonds issued under this Act, together with interest thereon and income therefrom, shall be exempt from all taxes. Bonds issued under this Act shall be authorized by resolution or ordinance of the governing body and may be issued in one or more series and shall bear such date or dates, be payable upon demand or mature at such time or times, bear interest at such rates or rate, be in such denomination or denominations, be in such form (either coupon or registered), carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption (with or without premium), be secured in such manner, and have such other characteristics as may be provided by such resolution or trust indenture or mortgage issued pursuant thereto. Such bonds may be sold at not less than par at public sales held after notice published prior to such sale in a newspaper having a general circulation in the municipality and in such other medium of publication as the governing body may determine, or may be exchanged for other bonds on the basis of par. Any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be fully negotiable. In any suit, action, or proceeding involving the validity or enforceability of any bond issued under this Act or the security therefor, any such bond reciting in substance that it has been issued by the municipality in connection with a redevelopment district, as hereinafter defined, shall be conclusively deemed to have been issued for such purposes, and the redevelopment of such district shall be conclusively deemed to have been planned, located, and carried out in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(c) All banks, trust companies, bankers, savings banks and institutions, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, investment companies, and other persons carrying on a banking or investment business; all insurance companies, insurance associations, and other persons carrying on an insurance business; and all executors, administrators, curators, trustees, and other fiduciaries, may legally invest any sinking funds, money, or other funds belonging to them or within their control in any tax increment bonds issued by a municipality pursuant to this Act. Such bonds shall be authorized security for all public deposits. Any persons, political subdivisions, and officers, public or private, are authorized to use any funds owned or controlled by them for the purchase of any such bonds. Nothing in this Act with regard to legal investments shall be construed as relieving any person of any duty of exercising reasonable care in selecting securities.

(d) Tax increment bonds shall be payable only out of the tax increment fund created pursuant to Paragraph (4) of Subsection (a) of Section 5. The governing body may irrevocably pledge all or a part of such fund to the payment of such bonds or notes. Such fund or the designated part thereof may thereafter be used only for the payment of such bonds and interest thereon until the same have been fully paid, and a holder of such bonds or of any coupons appertaining thereto shall have a lien against such fund for payment of such bonds or notes and interest thereon and may either at law or in equity protect and enforce such lien.

(e) To increase the security and marketability of tax increment bonds, the municipality may create a lien for the benefit of the bondholders upon any public improvements or public works financed thereby or the revenues therefrom, or make such covenants and do any and all such acts as may be necessary or convenient or desirable in order to additionally secure such bonds or tend to make the bonds more marketable according to the best judgment of the governing body.

(f) Money shall be disbursed from the tax increment fund only to satisfy the claims of holders of tax increment bonds issued in aid of the redevelopment district with respect to which the fund was established, or to pay redevelopment costs with respect to such district. "Redevelopment costs" means any expenditure made or estimated to be made, or monetary obligations incurred or estimated to be incurred, by the municipality which are listed in a redevelopment plan as costs of public works or improvements within a redevelopment district, plus any costs incidental thereto, diminished by any income or revenues other than tax increments received or reasonably expected to be received by the municipality in connection with the implementation of such plan. Such redevelopment costs include, but are not limited to:

(1) capital costs, including but not limited to the actual costs of the construction of public works or improvements, new buildings, structures, and fixtures; the demolition, alteration, remodeling, repair, or reconstruction of existing buildings, structures, and fixtures; the acquisition of equipment; and the clearing and grading of land;

(2) financing costs, including but not limited to all interest paid to holders of tax increment bonds issued to pay for redevelopment costs and any premium paid over the principal amount thereof because of the redemption of such obligations prior to maturity;

(3) professional service costs, including but not limited to costs incurred for architectural, planning, engineering, or legal services;

(4) imputed administrative costs, including but not limited to reasonable charges for the time spent by employees of the municipality in connection with the implementation of a redevelopment plan; or

(5) organizational costs, including but not limited to the costs of conducting studies and the costs of informing the public with respect to the creation of redevelopment districts and the implementation of redevelopment plans.

(g) Subject to any agreement with the holders of tax increment bonds, money in a tax increment fund may be temporarily invested in the same manner as other municipal funds.

(h) After all redevelopment costs and all tax increment bonds issued with respect to a redevelopment district have been paid or the payment thereof provided for, and subject to any agreement with bondholders, if there remain in such fund any money, it shall be paid over to the municipality and other taxing entities levying taxes on property within such district in such amounts as belong to each respectively.

(i) Tax increment bonds issued under this Act shall not be general obligations of the municipality, nor in any event shall they give rise to a charge against its general credit or taxing powers or be payable other than as provided by this Act, and any tax increment bonds issued under this Act shall so state on their face.

(j) Tax increment bonds issued under this Act shall not be included in any computation of the debt of the issuing municipality.

(k) Tax increment bonds may not be issued in an amount exceeding the aggregate costs of implementing the redevelopment plan for the district in aid of which they were issued, and such bonds shall mature over a period not exceeding 20 years from the date thereof.

Annual Report

Sec. 9. (a) On or before July 1 of each year, the governing body shall submit to the chief executive officer of every taxing entity a report on the status of such district. The report shall include the following information:

(1) the amount and source of revenue in the tax increment fund established in accordance with the requirements of this Act;

(2) the amount and purpose of expenditures from the fund;

(3) the amount of principal and interest due on any outstanding bonded indebtedness;

(4) the tax incremental base and the current captured market value retained by the district; and

(5) the captured market value shared by the municipality and other taxing entities, the total in tax increments received, and any additional information necessary to demonstrate compliance with the tax increment financing plan adopted by the governing body.

(b) On or before July 1 of each year, the governing body shall cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality a statement showing:

(1) the tax increments received and expended during the previous year;

(2) the original market value and captured market value of all property located within the redevelopment district;

(3) the amount in outstanding indebtedness incurred in aid of the redevelopment district; and

(4) any additional information the governing body deems necessary.

Commencement and Completion of Redevelopment

Sec. 10. Any redevelopment plan approved in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall fix a date upon which redevelopment activities shall:

(1) commence, which date shall not be more than six months from the date the plan is approved by the governing body; and
Art. 1066d

(2) be completed, which date shall be not more than five years from the date the plan was approved.

Limitation on Exercise of Powers

Sec. 11. The powers conferred upon municipalities by this Act shall be exercised only in commercial areas.

Severability

Sec. 12. Except to the extent otherwise specifically provided in this Act, if any provision of this Act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Effect of Act

Sec. 13. This Act takes effect only if and when the constitutional amendment proposed by S.J.R. No. 44, 65th Legislature, is adopted by the qualified electors of this state. [Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 956, ch. 361, §§ 1 to 13, eff. upon adoption of S.J.R. No. 44.]

The 1977 Act provides in § 2 as follows:

“If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is declared invalid; such invalidity shall not affect any other provision or application of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared severable.”

Art. 1118n–12. Refunding Certain Bonds and Other Obligations of Cities, Towns, and Villages

Definitions

Sec. 1. (a) The term “Issuer,” as used in this Act, shall mean each city, town, and village in the state which at any time has outstanding bonds or other obligations which are secured solely by a pledge of the net revenues of its electric light and power system.

(b) The term “Board,” as used in this Act, shall mean the city council, city commission, board of commissioners, board of aldermen, or other group which is the governing body of an issuer.

Authority to Issue Refunding Bonds; Security; New Bonds; Maturity; Negotiability; Conversion; Election not Required

Sec. 2. The board of any issuer is authorized to issue refunding bonds to refund all or any part of any outstanding bonds or other interest bearing obligations secured solely by a pledge of the net revenues of the issuer's electric light and power system, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto. One or more outstanding issues and any part of one or more outstanding issues of bonds or other interest bearing obligations, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, may be refunded under this Act; provided that when part of one or more of these issues is being refunded, the board must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the attorney general, prior to his approval of the bonds as required in this Act, that adequate pledged resources are estimated to be available, based on then current conditions, to provide for the payment, when due, of the unrefunded part of the issue or issues. The refunding bonds, and the interest and redemption premium, if any, may be secured by first or subordinate liens on and pledges of, and made payable from, the same source as the obligations being refunded and may be secured by first or subordinate liens on, and pledges of, and made payable from, any other revenues, income, or property, and other, different, or additional source or resources, of the board or the issuer, or any combination of those sources or resources, except any taxes, all within the sole discretion of and in the manner provided by the board; and the refunding bonds additionally may be secured by mortgages, deeds of trust, trust indentures, trust agreements, or other instruments evidencing liens on any real, personal, or mixed property; and the refunding bonds may be issued in combination with new bonds, and with provision for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under the terms or conditions and with the security, set forth in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the refunding bonds, all as determined within the discretion of the board; provided, however, that no bonds shall be issued contrary to the provisions of the Texas Constitution. If and when the board desires to issue refunding bonds in combination with new bonds for any purpose or purposes for which the issuer is then authorized by any law or home rule charter provision to issue revenue bonds or other interest bearing obligations, the new bonds may be issued for any purpose or purposes under the provisions of, and be secured and payable as provided in, this Act, and the provisions of this Act shall be fully applicable thereto without regard to any other requirements, in the manner provided by the board in the proceedings authorizing the bonds. All bonds issued under the provisions of this Act may be issued to mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed 50 years from their date, and may be issued to bear interest at any rate or rates, all within the discretion of the board. The bonds and any interest coupons appurtenant thereto, are negotiable instruments within the meaning of the Uniform Commercial Code, except that the bonds and the interest thereon may be made payable to a named payee or made registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest, and may be payable at any place or places, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, may provide for capitalized interest during construction and thereafter, capitalized operating and maintenance expenses, and capitalized reserve and contingency funds, and may be issued in the form, denominations, and manner, and under the terms, conditions, and details, and may be executed, as provided by the board in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds. The board may provide and covenant for the conversion of any form of bond into any other form or forms of bond, and for reconversion of bonds into any other form. The board may provide procedures for the replacement of lost, stolen, destroyed, or mutilated bonds or interest coupons in the manner prescribed by the board in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds. If the duty of replacement, conversion, or reconversion of bonds is imposed upon a corporate trustee under a trust agreement or trust indenture, or upon a place of payment (paying agent) for the bonds, the replacement, converted, or reconverted bond need not be re-approved by the attorney general or reregistered by the comptroller of public accounts as provided in Section 3 of this Act. Otherwise, all replacement, converted, or reconverted bonds must be so approved and registered as provided in Section 3 of this Act, in accordance with the procedures established in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds. All bonds issued under the provisions of this Act may be issued without any election or referendum in connection with their issuance or the creation of any encumbrance in connection with their issuance.

Approval by Attorney General; Registration; Incontestability

Sec. 3. All bonds permitted to be issued under the provisions of this Act, and the appropriate and applicable proceedings authorizing the issuance, shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized in accordance with this Act, he shall approve them, and then they shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts; and after the approval and registration, the bonds shall be incontestable in any court, or other forum, for any reason, and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes.

Bonds as Legal and Authorized Investments

Sec. 4. All bonds issued under the provisions of this Act are investment securities governed by Chapter 8, Uniform Commercial Code, and are legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, and trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, school districts, and other political subdivisions or public agencies of the state. The bonds also are eligible to secure deposits of any public funds of the state or any political subdivision or public agency of the state, and are lawful and sufficient security for the deposits to the extent of their market value, when accompanied by any unmatured coupons attached to the bonds.

Exchanges

Sec. 5. The refunding bonds authorized by this Act may be issued in exchange for, and upon surrender and cancellation of, any obligations being refunded, and in that case, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the obligations being refunded, in accordance with the provisions of the proceedings authorizing the refunding bonds, and any exchange may be made in one or in several installment deliveries. However, instead of issuing the refunding bonds to be exchanged for any obligations being refunded, the board shall be authorized, in its discretion, to issue refunding bonds to be sold for cash in principal amounts necessary to provide all or any part of the money required to pay the principal of and interest on any obligations being refunded, as they mature and come due, and to provide all or any part of the money required to redeem any obligations being refunded, prior to maturity, on any future date or dates upon which the obligations have been called for such redemption, within the discretion of the board, including principal, any required redemption premium, and the interest to accrue on the obligations to the redemption date or dates, together with an amount sufficient to pay all expenses related to the issuance of the bonds and the expenses of paying the obligations being refunded under this Act; and also to provide any amounts deemed necessary or required by the board to fund or provide for deposits into any debt service reserve funds, interest and sinking funds, or other funds created in the proceedings authorizing the bonds, and to provide amounts to pay interest on all bonds issued under the provisions of this Act excepting any exchange refunding bonds, may be sold for cash in the manner, under the procedures, at public or private sale, and at the price or prices, as shall be determined solely within the discretion of the board. If any of the obligations being refunded through the sale of refunding bonds under this Act are subject to redemption prior to maturity, they may, at the option and within the discretion of the board, be called for redemption on any future date or dates upon which they are redeemable, within the discretion of the board, and the proceedings pertaining to the call shall be submitted to the attorney general along with the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the refunding bonds. When the board has authorized any of the refunding bonds and any new bonds in combination with the refunding bonds to be sold for cash under the provisions of this Act, the refunding bonds and any new bonds in combination with the refunding bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts after they are approved by the attorney general, without any surrender, exchange, or cancellation of any obligations being refunded.

Deposit of Proceeds with State Treasurer; Duties

Sec. 6. When any refunding bonds issued under the provisions of this Act are sold and delivered to the purchaser, the board immediately shall have deposited with the state treasurer, from the proceeds of the sale, and any other funds available for that purpose, the amount which will be required to pay the principal of and interest on the obligations being refunded as they mature, and come due, and the amount which will be required to redeem prior to maturity any obligations being refunded, on the date or dates upon which these obligations have been called for redemption, including principal, any required redemption premium, and the interest to accrue on those obligations to the redemption date or dates, together with an additional amount to pay the state treasurer for his services and to reimburse him for his expenses in performing his duties under this Act, equal to one-twentieth of one percent of the principal or par amount of the obligations being refunded, and one-eighth of one percent of the interest to accrue thereon, but not to exceed a total of $1,000 in connection with each issue of refunding bonds issued under this Act, plus an additional amount of money sufficient to pay the service charges of the place or places of payment of the obligations for paying and redeeming them. The state treasurer may rely on a certificate or other instrument or document which shall be filed with him by the issuer showing clearly the date or dates upon which the principal matures and interest comes due on the obligations being refunded, and the amounts thereof, and the date or dates, if any, on which the obligations have been called for redemption prior to maturity, together with the redemption price, and the place or places of payment of the obligations being refunded, and the charges to be made by the place or places of payment for paying and redeeming the obligations. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to make the appropriate required part of the deposits available at the place or places of payment, in current and immediately available funds, on or before, but not later than, each maturity date, due date, or redemption date, respectively, of the obligations being refunded, in order to pay the required amounts on each date, plus the service charges of the place or places of payment.

Investment of Proceeds

Sec. 7. It is provided, however, that instead of depositing money with the state treasurer as required by Section 6 of this Act, except for the money to be paid to him for his services and expenses, which in all events shall be deposited in cash, the board may, at its option, unless the board determines, in its sole discretion, that money is required to be deposited, immediately invest all or any part of the proceeds from the sale of the refunding bonds, and any other necessary available funds, in direct obligations of the United States of America, or in obligations the payment of the principal of and interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States of America, or in obligations which, in the opinion of the Attorney General of the United States of America, are general obligations of the United States of America and backed by its full faith and credit, which investments will mature, and bear interest payable, at such times and in such amounts as will provide, without any reinvestment, not less than the amount of money, in addition to any money initially deposited for that purpose, required for the payment of the principal of and interest on the obligations being refunded, as they mature and come due, and for the payment of the redemption price of any obligations being refunded and redeemed prior to maturity, on the date or dates on which the obligations being refunded have been called for redemption, including principal, any required redemption premium, and the interest to accrue on the obligations to the redemption date or dates, together with the additional amount required to pay the service charges of the place or places of payment of the obligations for paying and redeeming them. The board shall deposit all of the investments immediately with the state treasurer. In calculating the amount of the investments required to be so deposited, the issuer and the state treasurer shall rely on receiving both the principal and interest. The board shall deposit all of the investments immediately with the state treasurer. In calculating the amount of the investments required to be so deposited, the issuer and the state treasurer shall rely on receiving both the principal and interest. The board shall deposit all of the investments immediately with the state treasurer. In calculating the amount of the investments required to be so deposited, the issuer and the state treasurer shall rely on receiving both the principal and interest. The board shall deposit all of the investments immediately with the state treasurer. In calculating the amount of the investments required to be so deposited, the issuer and the state treasurer shall rely on receiving both the principal and interest.

Duties of Treasurer as to Handling and Safekeeping of Proceeds

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer, ex officio, in his official capacity of public office, to accept and keep safely all deposits of money and investments made under this Act, and all proceeds from said investments; but no part of such deposits of money and investments, or proceeds therefrom, excepting the amount paid to him for his services and expenses, shall constitute a part of the state treasury, or be used by or for the state or for the benefit of any creditor of the state, and shall not be commingled with the general revenue fund of the state or any other special funds or accounts held by the state treasurer. The state treasurer shall keep and maintain each such deposit of money and investments, and proceeds from them, excepting the amount paid to him for his services and expenses, separate and apart from all other deposits, money, funds, accounts, and investments, and each such deposit of money and investments, and proceeds from them, shall be kept and held in escrow and in trust by the state treasurer, for and on behalf of, and charged with an irrevocable first lien and pledge in favor of, the holders of the obligations to be paid the deposits, and the deposits of money and investments, and proceeds from them, shall be used only for the purposes provided in this Act. Each deposit of money and investments, and proceeds from them shall be public funds, and legal title shall be in the state treasurer, in his official capacity as trustee, until paid out as provided in this Act, but equitable title shall be in the issuer, until paid out. The writ of mandamus and all other legal and equitable remedies shall be available to any bondholder, the issuer, or any other party at interest to require the state treasurer to perform his functions and duties under this Act. The surety bond or bonds given by the state treasurer in connection with the proper performance of his duties of office, excepting any special bonds given to protect funds of the United States shall protect and be construed as protecting all the deposits of money and investments, and proceeds from them. The state treasurer shall not in any way invest or reinvest any money deposited with him or received by him from investments deposited with him under this Act. In the event that any surplus funds should be on hand with the state treasurer in connection with any deposit of money or investments, or proceeds from them, the surplus shall be returned to the issuer.

Place of Payment

Sec. 9. If there is more than one place of payment for any obligations being refunded under this Act, the state treasurer shall make all deposits required under this Act at the place of payment located in the state, if there is one, or if there is more than one place of payment located in the state, or if no place of payment is located in the state, then at the one of the places of payment having the largest capital and surplus. It shall be the statutory duty of the place of payment, and the state treasurer shall instruct it, to make the appropriate financial arrangements so that the necessary required current funds will be available, to the extent necessary, at the other places of payment, to pay or redeem the obligations when due; provided that this section shall not apply in the event the board proceeds under Section 10 of this Act.

Alternative Place of Deposit

Sec. 10. It is further provided, however, that in the alternative to making the deposit of money or investments with the state treasurer in connection with refunding bonds issued and sold under this Act, and notwithstanding any provisions of this Act to the contrary, the board shall have the option of making the deposit of money or investments with any place of payment (paying agent), wherever located, for the obligations being refunded, or, at the option of the board, with any trustee under any trust indenture, trust agreement, deed of trust, or other instrument, securing the obligations being refunded. In that case the place of payment or trustee shall, to the extent practicable, substantially perform the applicable and pertinent functions and duties provided in this Act for the state treasurer, to the extent appropriate and practical, and the place of payment or trustee shall be substituted for the state treasurer under this Act to the extent appropriate and practical, except as otherwise provided by this section. Such deposits of money and investments shall be held for safekeeping, in escrow, in trust for, and charged with an irrevocable first lien and pledge in favor of, and for the benefit of, the holders of the obligations being refunded, and the issuer and the place of payment or trustee, may execute an appropriate trust or escrow agreement on the terms and conditions, and for the consideration agreeable to the parties to the agreement. The agreement may provide that any deposits of money may be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America, or obligations the payment of principal of and interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States of America, or obligations which, in the opinion of the Attorney General of the United States of America, are general obligations of the United States of America and backed by its full faith and credit, or may be placed in interest bearing time deposits secured at all times by an equal amount in market value of any of the federal obligations named above. The agreement further shall provide for deposits with the place or places of payment (paying agent or agents) to pay or redeem the obligations being refunded when due, and may provide that at any time the amount of money and investments held in escrow exceeds the amount required for purposes of this Act, the excess shall be transferred and delivered to the issuer, or as directed by the board, to be used for any lawful purpose, including the payment of revenue bonds issued pursuant to this Act or otherwise, all at the option of the board.

Rights of Holders of Obligations

Sec. 11. The holder or holders of any obligations being refunded by any refunding bonds sold pursuant to this Act shall never have the right to demand or receive payment of them prior to the scheduled date or dates of the maturities, due dates, or redemption date or dates, respectively, of the obligations being refunded, and the holder or holders shall not be paid for them prior to the date or dates, unless the board specifically and affirmatively provided for and authorized the earlier payment of the obligations in the proceedings authorizing the refunding bonds.

Discharge and Final Payment or Redemption of Obligations; Subordination to Refunded Obligations

Sec. 12. When the initial deposit of money or investments is made with the state treasurer or with a place of payment (paying agent) or trustee in accordance with this Act for any obligations being refunded under this Act, the deposit shall constitute the making of firm banking and financial arrangements for the discharge and final payment or redemption of the obligations being refunded, and although the obligations being refunded continue to be obligations of the issuer, automatically they become obligations of the issuer secured solely by and payable solely from the deposit and the proceeds from them; and on making the deposit, all previous encumbrances, including all liens, pledges, mortgages, deeds of trust, trust indentures, or trust agreements, existing in connection with the obligations being refunded, whether in connection with revenues, real, personal, and mixed property, or any other source of security or payment, automatically terminate and are finally discharged and released, as a matter of law, and the encumbrances shall be of no further force or effect; and although the obligations being refunded will remain outstanding, they shall be regarded as being outstanding only for the purpose of receiving the funds provided by the issuer for their payment or redemption under this Act, and they shall not be regarded as being outstanding in ascertaining the power of the issuer to issue bonds, or in calculating any limitations in connection therewith, or for any other purpose. It is further provided, however, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, that the board may, in the alternative to the foregoing provisions of this section, provide in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the refunding bonds that the refunding bonds are subordinate to the obligations being refunded, but only in the manner and to the extent provided in the authorizing proceedings; and, except for any specific provisions to the contrary in the authorizing proceedings, the foregoing provisions of this section are fully applicable.

Cumulative and Prevailing Effects of Act; Use of Other Laws

Sec. 13. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other laws, or home rule charter provisions, or any restrictions or limitations contained therein; and to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provision of this Act and any provision of any other law, including any law passed at the current session of the legislature, or any home rule charter provision, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that the board shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws or home rule charter provisions not in

Management; Lease of System

Sec. 11. During the time any such system is encumbered either as to its revenues or as to both its physical properties and revenues, or whether or not such system is encumbered during any period established by ordinance of the governing body of such city, the management and control of such system may be by the terms of the instrument evidencing such encumbrance or by the terms of such ordinance, be placed with the governing body of such city, or may be placed with a board of trustees to be named in such instrument or such ordinance, consisting of not more than five (5) members, one (1) of whom shall be the mayor of such city. The compensation of such trustees shall be fixed by such instrument or such ordinance, but shall never exceed two per cent (2%) of the gross receipts of such system in any one (1) year. The terms of office of such board of trustees, their powers and duties, the manner of exercising same, the election of their successors, and all matters pertaining to their organization and duties may be specified in such instrument or such ordinance. In all matters where such instrument or such ordinance is silent, the laws and rules controlling the governing body, of such city shall govern said board of trustees so far as applicable. The governing body of any such city or any board of trustees in whose management and control any such system may be placed, with the approval of the governing body of such city, evidenced by adoption of a resolution, in lieu of operating any such system, shall have power and authority to enter into any lease or other contractual arrangement for the operation of same by any privately owned and operated corporation in consideration of such rentals either guaranteed or contingent, based on revenues or gross profits or net profits, or any other basis of compensation, which may be determined to be reasonable by such governing body or such board as the case may be; providing however, that any such lease or contractual arrangement between such city and private corporation, shall be preceded by a public notice and request for the submission of bids in the manner required by law for the taking of bids for public construction contracts, and said city shall accept the best bid submitted, taking into consideration the rental to be paid, the experience and financial responsibility of the corporations submitting such bids.

Art. 1118x. Metropolitan Rapid Transit Authorities

Findings

Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(a) A dominant part of the state's population is located in its rapidly expanding metropolitan areas which generally cross the boundary lines of local jurisdictions and often extend into two or more counties;

(b) The concentration of population in such areas is accompanied by a corresponding concentration of motor vehicles which are generally powered by internal combustion engines that emit pollutants into the air, which emissions result in increasing dangers to the public health and welfare, including damage to and deterioration of property as well as harm to persons, and hazards to air and ground transportation;

(c) Such concentration of motor vehicles places an undue burden on existing streets, freeways and other traffic ways, resulting in serious vehicular traffic congestion that retards mobility of persons and property and adversely affects the health and welfare of the citizens and the economic life of the areas;

(d) The proliferation of the use of motor vehicles for passenger transportation in such areas is caused in substantial part by the absence or inefficiency and high cost of mass transit services available to the citizens of such areas, and it is in the public interest to encourage and provide for efficient and economical local mass rapid transit systems in such areas for the benefit and convenience of the people and for the purpose of improving the quality of the ambient air therein and reducing vehicular traffic congestion; and

(e) The inalienable right of all natural persons to use the air for natural purposes does not vest in any person the right to pollute the air by artificial means, but such artificial use is subject to regulation and control by the state.

Definitions

Sec. 2. The following words and terms, wherever used and referred to in this Act, have the following respective meanings, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:
(a) "Metropolitan area" means any area within the State of Texas having a population density of not less than 250 persons per square mile and containing not less than 51 percent of the incorporated territory comprising a city having a population of not less than 600,000 inhabitants according to the last preceding or any future federal census, and in which there may be situated other incorporated cities, towns and villages and the suburban areas and environs thereof; provided, however, that bi-county metropolitan areas as subsequently defined herein, are not included or in any way affected by this Act.

Creation of Rapid Transit Authority

Sec. 3. (a) The governing body of a principal city in a metropolitan area may, on its own motion, shall, as provided in Subsection (b) of this section, and shall, upon being presented with a petition so requesting signed by not less than 5,000 qualified voters residing within such metropolitan area, institute proceedings to create a rapid transit authority in the manner prescribed in this section.

(b) Such governing body shall by ordinance or resolution fix a time before December 1, 1977, and a place for holding a public hearing on the question of creating an authority. The governing body also shall by ordinance or resolution, after receipt of a petition as provided in Subsection (a) of this section, and may, on its own motion, fix a time and place for holding a public hearing on a proposal to create an authority. The ordinance or resolution shall define the boundaries of the area proposed to be included in such authority. The initial territory included in an authority shall be all the territory included in the county in which the major portion of the principal city is situated, plus any additional territory that is in an adjacent county and is included in the ordinance or resolution.

(c) Notice of the time and place of such public hearing, including a description of the area proposed to be included in such authority, shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in such metropolitan area, the first publication to be not less than 15 days prior to the date fixed for such hearing. The governing body of any principal city shall furnish to the Texas Mass Transportation Commission or any successor thereof, a copy of the notice described herein.

(d) The governing body of the principal city shall conduct said hearing at the time and place specified in such notice, and may continue such hearing from day to day and from time to time until completed. Any interested person may appear and offer evidence for or against the creation of the proposed authority, and may present evidence as to whether or not the creation of such proposed authority and the construction and operation of a mass transit system in such metropolitan area

(1) would be of benefit to persons and property situated within the boundaries of the proposed authority,

(2) would be of public utility, and

(3) would be in the public interest, as well as any other facts bearing upon the creation of such an authority and the construction and operation of such system.

(e) If, after hearing the evidence adduced at such hearing, the governing body of the principal city finds that the creation of such an authority, and the operation of such a system, would be of benefit to persons and property situated within the boundaries of the proposed authority, would be of public utility, and would be in the public interest, such governing body shall adopt an ordinance creating the authority and prescribing the territory to be included, but the actual territory included in the authority is subject to the results of the election provided for in this Act. The authority shall bear a name to be designated in the ordinance creating the authority and when so created and confirmed at an election held for that purpose, shall have and may exercise the powers authorized by this Act.

(f) After such hearing by the governing body of the principal city, it shall submit the proposed plan to the governor's interagency transportation council for their review and comment.

Transit Authority Board

Sec. 4. (a) (1) Until such time as the composition of the board is changed in accordance with other provisions of this Act, the management, control, and operation of an authority and its properties shall be vested in a board composed of five members, who shall be appointed by the governing body of the principal city and shall serve for a term of two years.

(2) In metropolitan areas where the principal city's population exceeds 1,200,000 according to the last preceding federal census or any federal census hereafter, the management, control, and operation of an authority and its properties shall be vested in a board composed of seven members, five of whom shall be appointed by the mayor of the principal city subject to confirmation by the governing body of the principal city, one of whom shall be appointed by the commissioners court of the county of the principal city, and one of whom shall be appointed jointly by the mayors of all incorporated municipalities within the county of the principal city except the principal city. Each member shall serve a term of two years. Upon confirmation, the board's composition shall remain the same except to the extent that it conflicts with the requirements of Section 6B of this Act. Until a confirmation and call special meetings as may be necessary. The board, when organized, shall by resolution spread upon the minutes, set the time, place and day of the regular meetings, and shall likewise adopt rules and regulations and such bylaws as it may deem necessary for the conduct of its official meetings. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum of the board for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers and action may be taken by the authority upon a vote of a majority of the board members present unless the bylaws require a larger number for a particular action.

Confirmation and Tax Election
Sec. 5. (a) After the original board is organized, at such time as it deems implementation of the authority to be feasible, it shall call a confirmation and tax election in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(b) Before ordering an election the board shall by order entered in its minutes determine the nature and rate of any tax that it desires to levy.

(c) Before ordering an election, the board shall notify the commissioners court of each county included in whole or part within the initial territory of the authority of its intention to do so. Within 30 days after receipt of the notice, each commissioners court by order shall create not more than five designated election areas in the unincorporated portion of the appropriate county. Each designated election area's outer boundaries, to the extent practicable, shall coincide with a boundary of a county voting precinct so that insofar as practicable no county voting precinct is divided between two different designated election areas. The total area of all designated election areas shall include all of the unincorporated area within the initial territory of the authority.

(d) When the board orders a confirmation and tax election, it shall submit to the qualified voters within the authority the following proposition:

"Shall the creation of (name of authority) be confirmed and shall the levy of the proposed tax be authorized?"

(e) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, notice of the election shall be given in accordance with the general election laws. The notice of the election shall include a description of the nature and rate of the proposed tax. A copy of the notice of the election and any other election held under the provisions of this Act shall be furnished to the Texas Mass Transportation Commission or its successor.

(f) The election shall be conducted so that votes are separately tabulated and canvassed and that the result is declared in separate units of election within the authority, as follows:

(1) the portion of the principal city inside the initial limits of the authority plus any incorporated cities or towns which are wholly located within the perimeter of the outer boundary of the principal city constitutes a unit of election;
Art. 1118x  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

(2) each designated election area created by a commissioners court constitutes a unit of election;

(3) every other incorporated city or town wholly located within the initial limits of the authority shall constitute a unit of election.

(g) Immediately after the election, the presiding judge of each election precinct shall return the results to the board, which shall canvas the returns and declare the results separately with respect to each unit of election. In those units of election where a majority of the votes cast is in favor of the confirmation of the creation of the authority and the levy of the proposed tax, the authority shall continue to exist and be comprised of those units. In those units of election where a majority of the votes cast is against the confirmation of the creation of the authority and the levy of the proposed tax, the authority shall cease to exist. Unless the vote is favorable in the unit of election which includes the principal city, the authority shall cease to exist in its entirety. If the votes cast are such that the authority will continue to exist, the board shall enter the results on its minutes and adopt an order declaring that the creation of the authority is confirmed and describing the territory which comprises the authority. A certified copy of the order shall be filed with the Texas Mass Transportation Commission or its successor and in the deed records of each county in which the authority is located.

(h) If the votes cast are such that the authority ceases to exist in its entirety, the board shall enter an order so declaring and file a certified copy of the order with the Texas Mass Transportation Commission or its successor, and the authority shall be dissolved.

(i) The cost of the confirmation and tax election shall be paid by the principal city.

(j) If the election results in the confirmation of an authority, the authority shall, within the limits confirmed, be authorized to function in accordance with the terms of this Act, and the board may levy and collect the proposed tax within those limits.

(k) If the continued existence of an authority is not confirmed by election within three years after the effective date of the ordinance creating the authority, the authority ceases to exist on the expiration of the three years.

1 See, now, State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, art. 6663 et seq.

Powers of the Authority

Sec. 6. (a) The authority, when created and confirmed, shall constitute a public body corporate and politic, exercising public and essential governmental functions, having all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this Act, including, but not limited to, the following powers granted in this section.

(b) The authority shall have perpetual succession.

(c) The authority may sue and be sued in all courts of competent jurisdiction and may institute and prosecute suits without giving security for costs and may appeal from a judgment or judgments without giving supersedeas or cost bond.

(d) The authority may acquire by grant, purchase, gift, devise, lease, or otherwise, and may hold, use, sell, lease or dispose of, real and personal property of every kind and nature whatsoever, and licenses, patents, rights and interests necessary, convenient or useful for the full exercise of any of its powers pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

(e) The authority shall have the power to acquire, construct, complete, develop, own, operate and maintain a system or systems within its boundaries, and both within and without the boundaries of incorporated cities, towns and villages and political subdivisions, and for such purposes shall have the right to use the streets, alleys, roads, highways and other public ways and to relocate, raise, reroute, change the grade of, and alter the construction of, any street, alley, highway, road, railroad, electric lines and facilities, telegraph and telephone properties and facilities, pipelines and facilities, conduits and facilities, and other properties, whether publicly or privately owned, as necessary or useful in the construction, reconstruction, repair, maintenance and operation of the system, or to cause each and all of said things to be done at the authority's sole expense. The authority shall not proceed with any action to change, alter or damage the property or facilities of the state, its municipal corporations, agencies or political subdivisions or of owners rendering public services, or which shall disrupt such services being provided by others, or to otherwise inconvenience the owners of such property or facilities, without having first obtained the written consent of such owners or unless the authority shall have first obtained the right to take such action under its power of eminent domain as herein specified. In the event the owners of such property or facilities desire to handle any such relocation, raising, change in the grade of, or alteration in the construction of such property or facilities with their own forces, or to cause the same to be done by contractors of their own choosing, the authority shall have the power to enter into agreements with such contractors for the necessary relocations, changes or alterations of such property or facilities by the owners and/or such contractors and the reimbursement by the authority to such owners of the costs incurred by such owners in making such relocations, changes or alterations and/or in causing the same to be accomplished by such contractors.
(f) In the event the authority, in exercising any of the powers conferred by this Act, makes necessary the relocation, adjustment, raising, lowering, rerouting or changing the grade of or altering the construction of any street, alley, highway or road, any railroad track, bridge or other facilities or properties, any electric lines, conduits or other facilities or properties, any telephone or telegraph lines, conduits or other facilities or properties, any gas transmission or distribution pipes, pipelines, mains or other facilities or properties, any water, sanitary sewer or storm sewer pipes, pipelines, mains or other facilities or properties, any cable television lines, cables, conduits or other facilities or properties, or any other pipelines and any facilities or properties relating thereto, any and all such relocations, adjustments, raising, lowering, rerouting or changing of grade or altering of construction shall be accomplished at the sole cost and expense of the authority, and all damages which may be suffered by the owners of such property or facilities shall be borne by the authority.

(g) The authority shall have the right of eminent domain to acquire lands in fee simple and any interest less than fee simple in, on, under and above lands, including, without limitation, easements, rights-of-way, rights of use of air space or subsurface space, or any combination thereof; provided that such right shall not be exercised in a manner which would unduly interfere with interstate commerce or which would authorize the authority to run its vehicles on railroad tracks which are used to transport property.

(h) Eminent domain proceedings brought by the authority shall be governed by the provisions of Title 52, Eminent Domain, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as they now exist or hereafter may be amended, insofar as such provisions are not inconsistent with this Act. Proceedings for the exercise of the power of eminent domain shall be commenced by the adoption by the board of a resolution declaring the public necessity for the acquisition by the authority of the property or interest therein described in the resolution, and that such acquisition is necessary and proper for the construction, extension, improvement or development of the system and is in the public interest. The resolution of the authority shall be conclusive evidence of the public necessity of such proposed acquisition and that such real or personal property or interest therein is necessary for public use.

(i) The authority shall have the power to enter into agreements with any other public utility, private utility, communication system, common carrier, or transportation system for the joint use of their respective facilities, installations and properties of whatever kind and character within the authority and to establish through routes, joint fares or transfer of passengers.

(j) The authority shall establish and maintain rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents or other compensation for the use of the facilities of the system acquired, constructed, operated or maintained by the authority which shall be reasonable and nondiscriminatory and which, together with receipts from taxes collected by the authority, shall be sufficient to produce revenues adequate:

1. to pay all expenses necessary to the operation and maintenance of the properties and facilities of the authority;
2. to pay the interest on and principal of all bonds issued by the authority under this Act which are payable in whole or in part from such revenues, when and as the same shall become due and payable;
3. to pay all sinking fund and reserve fund payments agreed to be made in respect of any such bonds, and payable out of such taxes and revenues, when and as the same shall become due and payable; and
4. to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of such bonds or with any person in their behalf.

(k) It is the intention of this Act that taxes levied and the rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents and other compensation for the use of the facilities of the system shall not be in excess of what may be necessary to fulfill the obligations imposed upon the authority by this Act. Nothing herein shall be construed as depriving the State of Texas of its power to regulate and control such taxes, rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents and other compensation, provided that the State of Texas does hereby pledge to and agree with the purchasers and successive holders of the bonds issued hereunder that the state will not limit or alter the powers hereby vested in the authority to establish and collect such taxes, rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents and other compensation as will produce revenues sufficient to pay the items specified in Subdivisions (1), (2), (3) and (4), Subsection (j) of this subsection, or in any way to impair the rights or remedies of the holders of the bonds, or of any person in their behalf, until the bonds, together with the interest thereon, with interest on unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf of the bondholders and all other obligations of the authority in connection with such bonds, are fully met and discharged.

(l) The authority may make contracts, leases and agreements with, and accept grants and loans from, the United States of America, its departments and agencies, the State of Texas, its agencies, counties, municipalities and political subdivisions, and public or private corporations and persons, and may generally perform all acts necessary for the full exercise of the powers vested in it. The authority may acquire rolling stock or other property under conditional sales contracts, leases, equipment trust certificates, or any other form of contract or trust agreement. Any revenue bond indenture may provide limitations upon the exercise of the powers stated in this section and such limitations shall apply so long as any of the revenue bonds issued pursuant to such indenture are outstanding and unpaid.

(m) The authority may sell, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of any of its rights, interests or properties which are not needed for, or, in the case of leases, which are not inconsistent with, the efficient operation and maintenance of the system. It may sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of, at any time, any surplus materials or personal or real property not needed for its requirements or for the purpose of carrying out its power under this Act.

(n) The authority shall by resolution make all rules and regulations governing the use, operation and maintenance of the system and shall determine all routings and change the same whenever it is deemed advisable by the authority.

(o) The authority shall have power to lease the system or any part thereof to, or contract for the use or operation of the system or any part thereof by, any operator; provided, however, that a lease of the entire system shall be subject to the written consent and approval of the governing body of the principal city.

(p) The acquisition of any land or interest therein pursuant to this Act, the planning, acquisition, establishment, development, construction, improvement, maintenance, equipment, operation, regulation, protection, and policing of the authority’s system and facilities, and the exercise of any other powers herein granted an authority, are hereby declared to be public and governmental functions, exercised for a public purpose, and matters of public necessity.

(q) The authority may contract with any city, county, or other political subdivision for the authority to provide public transportation services to any area outside the boundaries of the authority on such terms and conditions as may be agreed to by the parties.

Addition of Territory

Sec. 6A. (a) Territory may be added to an authority only according to the provisions of this section.

(b) The governing body of any incorporated city or town located in whole or in part within a county in which the authority is situated may hold an election on the question of whether the city or town shall be annexed to the authority. If a majority of the qualified voters in the city or town votes for annexation, the governing body shall certify the results of the election to the board of the authority, and the city or town shall become a part of the authority, except as provided in Subsection (f) of this section.

(c) The commissioners court of a county in which the authority is situated in whole or in part or that is adjacent to a county in which the authority is situated in whole or in part may hold an election in any one or more of the designated election areas, formed for the election by order of the commissioners court, on the question of whether the area in which the election is held shall be annexed to the authority. The boundaries of a designated election area shall coincide, to the extent practicable, with a boundary of a county voting precinct, so that insofar as practicable no county voting precinct is divided. If a majority of the qualified voters in any area where such an election is held votes in favor of annexation, the commissioners court shall certify the results of the election to the board of the authority, and the area shall become a part of the authority, except as provided in Subsection (f) of this section.

(d) If a city or town which is a part of an authority lawfully annexes additional territory which is not a part of the authority, the annexed territory becomes a part of the authority.

(e) At the time territory is added to an authority under the provisions of this section, any tax which the board of the authority has already been authorized to levy applies to the added territory.

(f) Territory in which an election is held as provided in Subsections (b) or (c) of this section becomes a part of the authority on the 31st day after the election, if the voters approve the addition as provided in Subsections (b) or (c), and unless the board of the authority notifies the appropriate governing body in writing before that date that the addition, because it is not contiguous to the existing authority, would create a fiscal hardship on the authority.

Composition of the Board

Sec. 6B. (a) If less than 50 percent of that part of the population of the county (the county in which not less than 51 percent of the incorporated area of the principal city is situated) which is outside the corporate limits of the principal city resides within the limits of the authority, the board of the authority shall consist of the original five members or their successors plus one additional member to be appointed jointly by the mayors of all incorporated municipalities except the principal city within the authority as confirmed, and one other additional member to be appointed by the commissioners court of the county described in this subsection.

(b) If more than 50 percent but less than 75 percent of the population of the county described in Subsection (a) of this section outside the corporate limits of the principal city resides within the limits of the authority, the board of the authority consists of the original five members or their successors, plus two additional members to be appointed jointly by the mayors of all incorporated municipalities, except the principal city, located within the authority, and two other members appointed by the commissioners court of the county. Population figures shall be computed on the basis of the last preceding United States census.

(c) If 75 percent or more of the population of the county described in Subsection (a) of this section outside the corporate limits of the principal city resides within the limits of the authority, the board consists of 11 members, including the original five members or their successors, two additional members appointed jointly by the mayors of all incorporated municipalities except the principal city located within the authority, three other additional members appointed by the commissioners court of the county, and one member, who serves as chairman, who is appointed by the other ten members.

(d) When this Act requires that the mayors of municipalities except the principal city appoint a member of the board, the mayor of the municipality of greatest population among the municipalities shall serve as chairman of an appointment board composed of the mayors of all appropriate municipalities and shall, by notice in writing to all members, call meetings of the appointment board as necessary to make the appointments. Appointments shall be made within 60 days after a position comes into existence or becomes vacant. If the boundaries of the authority at any time include unincorporated areas of a county other than the county described in Subsection (a) of this section, the county judge of the appropriate county is entitled to serve on the appointment board, with powers equal to the other members of the board, as if the unincorporated area of the county were a municipality and the county judge of that county were the mayor of the municipality.

(e) The terms of office of all members of the board appointed after the confirmation and tax election are two years, except that in order to provide staggered terms, the terms of office of one-half of the first members appointed by an appointing agency after the election, if an even number is to be appointed by the agency, and a bare majority of the first members appointed by an agency, if an odd number greater than one is to be appointed by the agency, are one year. In addition, the appointing agency may shorten the initial terms to make the expiration dates coincide with those of the previously existing positions. To be eligible for appointment to the board, a person must be a qualified voter residing within the boundaries of the authority.

(f) Vacancies on the board are filled by appointment by the same agency that made the original appointments for the vacant positions. Each member of the board whose term expires shall continue to serve until his successor has been appointed.

(g) In the event the membership of the board must be increased under the provisions of this section, the board as previously constituted may continue to act as the governing board of the authority until the additional members have been appointed and seated.

Station or Terminal Complexes

Sec. 6C. (a) The acquisition of any land or any interest in land pursuant to this Act; the planning, acquisition, establishment, development, construction, improvement, maintenance, equipment, operation, regulation, protection, and policing of the authority’s system and facilities; and the exercise of any other powers granted an authority, including without limitation the rights, powers, and authority relating to station or terminal complexes as provided in this section, are declared to be public and governmental functions, exercised for a public purpose, and matters of public necessity for public use and public benefit.

(b) The authority shall have the right, power, and authority to acquire by grant, purchase, gift, devise, lease, or eminent domain proceedings and to own lands in fee simple and any interest less than fee simple in, on, under, and above lands, including, without limitation, easements, rights-of-way, rights of use of air space or subsurface space or any combination thereof, adjacent or accessible to stations and other mass transit facilities, developed or to be developed by the authority, that may be required for or in aid of the development of one or more station or terminal complexes, as part of its mass transit system and may sell, lease, or otherwise transfer the same, or any part thereof, to individuals, corporations, or governmental entities, subject to the restrictions provided in this section.

(c) Any lands or interests in land acquired for a station or terminal complex must be part of or contained within a station or terminal complex designated as part of the system within a comprehensive transit plan approved by resolution of the board. Before a station or terminal complex may be included in the system, the board must find and determine that the proposed station or terminal complex will encourage and provide for efficient and economical mass transit service, will facilitate access to mass transit service and provide other mass transit purposes, will reduce vehicular congestion and air pollution in the metropolitan area, and is reasonably essential to the successful operation of the system. The board may amend its comprehensive transit plan to include other station or terminal complexes upon making these findings.
(d) Any station or terminal complex shall include adequate provisions for the transfer of passengers between the various modes of transportation available to the complex. A complex may include provisions for commercial, residential, recreational, institutional, and industrial facilities, except that no lands or interests in land more than 1,500 feet in distance from the center point of the complex may be acquired for the facilities by eminent domain proceedings, and the board shall designate the center point prior to the commencement of eminent domain proceedings. If a proposed station or terminal complex is to be located within the city limits or extraterritorial jurisdiction of a city or town, the governing body of the city or town must approve the location of the complex as to conformity with the comprehensive or general plan of the city or town by motion, resolution, or ordinance duly adopted.

(e) The authority may sell, lease, or otherwise transfer lands or interests in land acquired within a station or terminal complex, and may enter into contracts with respect to it, in accordance with the comprehensive transit plan approved by the board, subject to such covenants, conditions, and restrictions, including covenants running with the land and obligations to commence construction within a specified time, as the board may deem to be in the public interest or necessary to carry out the purposes of this section, all of which shall be incorporated into the instrument transferring or conveying title or right of use. Any lease, sale, or transfer shall be at fair value, taking into account the use designated for the land in the comprehensive transit plan for the system and the restrictions on, and the covenants, conditions, and obligations assumed by, the purchaser, lessee, or transferee. However, if the authority offers the property for sale, the original owner from whom the property was acquired by eminent domain proceedings or through threat of eminent domain proceedings has the first right to repurchase at the price at which it is offered to the public.

(f) No station or mass transit facility may be considered a "station or terminal complex" governed by this section unless it has been designated as such in the comprehensive transit plan pursuant to the specific authority granted by this section.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 7(a) and (b)]

(c) In order to secure the payment of such bonds or notes, such authority shall have full power and authority to encumber and pledge all or any part of the revenue realized from any tax which the authority is authorized to levy, and all or any part of the revenues of its rapid transit system or systems, and to mortgage and encumber all or any part of the properties thereof, and everything pertaining there-to acquired or to be acquired and to prescribe the terms and provisions of such bonds and notes in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. If not prohibited by the resolution or indenture relating to outstanding bonds or notes, any such authority shall have full power and authority to encumber separately any item or items of real estate or personalty, including motorbuses, transit cars and other vehicles, machinery and other equipment of any nature, and to acquire, use, hold or contract for any such property under any lease arrangement, chattel mortgage or conditional sale, including, but not limited to, transactions commonly known as equipment trust transactions. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting any such authority from encumbering any one or more rapid transit systems for the purpose of purchasing, building, constructing, enlarging, extending, repairing or reconstructing, another one or more of said systems and purchasing necessary property, both real, personal and mixed, in connection therewith.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 7(d) to (g)]

(h) Bonds payable solely from revenues may be issued by resolution of the board, but no bonds, except refunding bonds, payable wholly or partially from taxes, may be issued until authorized by a majority vote of the qualified voters of the authority voting in an election called and held for that purpose.

Motor Vehicle Emission Taxes

Sec. 8. (a) Subject to approval at an election, the board of an authority shall be authorized to levy and cause to be collected motor vehicle emission taxes as herein provided. No increase in taxes as originally authorized may be levied unless the increase is approved at an election. Such taxes shall be collected by the county tax assessor-collector of each county, situated in whole or in part within the authority from each motor vehicle owner whose residence is within such county and within the authority. Not later than November 1 of each year, the board shall certify to the county tax assessor-collector of each county situated in whole or in part within the authority's boundaries the rate of tax prescribed for each class of motor vehicles for the ensuing tax year. At the time the owner of a motor vehicle applies each year to the State Highway Department through the county tax assessor-collector of the county in which he resides for the registration of each such vehicle owned or controlled by him for the ensuing or current motor vehicle registration year or unexpired portion thereof, such owner shall pay to the county tax assessor-collector the motor vehicle emission taxes due or to become due to such authority on such motor vehicle for the ensuing or current tax year at the applicable rate prescribed by the board. The county tax assessor-collector shall refuse to issue a registration license for a motor vehicle until the emission tax thereon for the period covered by such registration license has been paid.
Act, the board of an authority may levy and collect any kind of tax, other than an ad valorem tax on property, which is not prohibited by the Texas Constitution.

(b) No tax of any kind may be levied and collected by the board until a proposition proposing the tax has first been submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified electors of an authority voting at an election held by the board for that purpose. A separate proposition must be submitted for each kind of tax proposed, and propositions may be submitted in the alternative with provision for the method of determining the results of the election. Each proposition must include a brief statement of the nature of the proposed tax. The notice of the election must include a statement or description of the basis or rate at which the tax is proposed to be levied. Any subsequent increase in a tax must also be approved at an election.

(c) Prior to an election to authorize a tax other than motor vehicle emission taxes or a sales and use tax, the board shall adopt a complete tax code and rules and regulations providing for the nature and amount of any tax with provisions for complete administration and enforcement, including the time and manner of payment, exemptions, liens, interest, penalties, discounts for advance payment, refunds for erroneous payment, fees for collection, collection procedures, manner of enforcement, required returns, registration and reports of taxpayers, the duties and responsibilities of tax officers and taxpayers, the delegation to tax officers to make additional rules and regulations and determinations and to obtain records as may be appropriate, and every other provision which may be determined to be desirable, including incorporation of any tax laws and remedies for the administration and enforcement that are available to the state or any political entities under general law.

(d) A tax code and rules and regulations may be amended by the board from time to time after an election approving a tax, but no amendment may increase the amount of a tax unless the increase is approved at an election.

Local Sales and Use Tax

Sec. 11B. (A) Subject to approval at a tax election in accordance with this Act, the board of an authority shall be authorized to levy, collect and impose a local sales and use tax for the benefit of the authority, the sales tax portion of which shall not exceed one percent on receipts from the sale at retail of all taxable items within the authority area which are subject to taxation under the provisions of the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, as enacted and as heretofore or hereafter amended. The provisions of this section shall be applicable to the levy, imposition and collection of such tax.

(B) (a) The following words and terms shall have the following respective meanings unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(1) "Authority area" means the geographical limits of the authority.
(2) "Comptroller" means the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas.
(3) "Local Sales and Use Tax" means any sales and use tax imposed by a city within the authority area under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act (Article 1066c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(b) Every retailer within the authority area shall add the tax imposed by the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, any applicable Local Sales and Use Tax and the tax imposed under the authority of this Act to his sale price, and when added, the combined tax shall constitute a part of the price, shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price. The combined taxes on the transaction shall be determined by multiplying the amount of the sale by the total of the combined applicable tax rates. Any fraction of one cent which is less than one-half of one cent of tax shall not be collected. Any fraction of one cent of tax equal to one-half of one cent or more shall be collected by the retailer as a whole cent of tax. Provided, however, that any retailer who can establish to the satisfaction of the comptroller that 50 percent or more of his receipts from the sale of taxable items arise from individual transactions where the total sales price when multiplied by the combined rates of the taxes imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, any applicable Local Sales and Use Tax, and this section equals an amount that is less than one-half of one cent may exclude the receipts from such sales when reporting and paying the tax imposed under this Act, the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and any applicable Local Sales and Use Tax. No retailer shall avail himself of this provision without prior written approval of the comptroller. The comptroller shall grant such approval when he is satisfied that the retailer qualifies on the basis set forth in this section and when the retailer has submitted satisfactory evidence that he can and will maintain records adequate to substantiate the exclusion herein authorized. Any attempt on the part of any retailer to exercise this provision without prior written approval of the comptroller shall be deemed to be a failure and refusal to pay the taxes imposed by this Act, the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and any applicable Local Sales and Use Tax, and the retailer shall be subject to assessment for both taxes, penalties and interest as provided for in this Act, the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and any applicable Local Sales and Use Tax.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 8(b) to 11]

(e)(1) In every authority area where the tax authorized by this Act has been adopted pursuant to the provisions of this Act, there is hereby imposed an excise tax on the storage, use or other consumption within such authority area of taxable items purchased, leased, or rented from any retailer on or after the effective date for collection of the sales tax portion of the sales and use tax for storage, use or other consumption in such authority area at the same rate as the sales tax levied under this Act of the sales price of the taxable item or, in the case of leases or rentals, of said lease or rental price; provided, that if no excise tax on the storage, use or other consumption of any taxable item is owed to or collected by the state under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, then the tax imposed by this section shall not be owed to and shall not be collected by, for or in behalf of such authority for storage or other consumption of such taxable item within such authority area.

(2) In each authority where the tax authorized by this Act has been imposed as provided in this Act, the excise tax imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and any applicable excise tax under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act on the storage, use or other consumption of taxable items and the excise tax imposed by this Act shall be added together to form a combined rate of excise tax which is equal to the sum of the applicable taxes. The tax imposed by this section shall be collected by the comptroller on behalf of and for the benefit of such authority. The formula prescribed in paragraph (b) of this subsection shall be applicable to the collection of the excise tax imposed under this section.

(3) The provisions of Article 20.031, Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act shall be applicable to the collection of the tax imposed by this paragraph (c), provided that the name of the authority where the sales and use tax authorized by this Act has been adopted shall be substituted for that of the state where the words “this state” are used to designate the taxing authority or to delimit the tax imposed; and provided further that the effective date for commencing the collection of the sales tax portion of the tax imposed by this Act in any authority area shall be substituted for the phrase “the effective date of this chapter.”

(d)(1) On and after the effective date of any tax imposed under the provisions of this Act, the comptroller shall perform all functions incident to the administration, collection, enforcement and operation of the tax, and the comptroller shall collect, in addition to the taxes imposed by the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, an additional tax under the authority of this Act specified by the authority, but not to exceed one percent on the receipts from the sale at retail or on the sale price or lease or rental price on the storage, use or other consumption of all taxable items within such authority area, which items are subject to the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act. The tax imposed hereunder and the tax imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and any applicable Local Sales and Use Tax shall be collected together and reported upon such forms and under such administrative rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the comptroller not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. On and after the effective date of any proposition to abolish such Local Sales and Use Tax in any authority area, the comptroller shall comply therewith.

(2) The comptroller shall make to the authority substantially the same reports as to taxes within the authority area as are made to cities under Subsections 5(b), (c) and (d) of the Local Sales and Use Tax Act.

(e) The following provisions shall govern the collection by the comptroller of the tax imposed by this Act:

(1) All applicable provisions contained in the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act shall apply to the collection of the tax imposed by this Act, except as modified in this Act.

(2) The provisions contained in Section 6 of the Local Sales and Use Tax Act shall apply to the levy, imposition and collection of the tax imposed by this Act except as modified herein.

(3) The penalties provided in the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act for violations of that Act are hereby made applicable to violations of this Act.

(4) The sales and use tax collected by the comptroller under this Act shall be deposited, held, accounted for and transmitted for the authority as provided in Section 7 of the Local Sales and Use Tax Act.

(f) Each authority's share of all sales and use tax collected under this Act by the comptroller shall be transmitted to the treasurer or the officer performing the functions of such office of such authority by the comptroller payable to the authority periodically as promptly as feasible. Transmittals required under this Act shall be made at least twice in each state fiscal year. Before transmitting such funds, the comptroller shall deduct two percent of the sum collected from each such authority during such period as a charge by the state for its services specified in this Act, and the amounts so deducted shall be deposited by the comptroller in the State Treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund of the state. The comptroller is authorized to retain in the suspense account of any authority a portion of the authority's share of the tax collected under this Act. Such balance so retained in the suspense account shall not exceed five percent of the amount remitted to the authority. The comptroller is authorized to make refunds from the suspense account of any authority for overpayments made to such accounts and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of the suspense account of such authority. When any authority shall abolish such tax, the comptroller may retain in the suspense account of such authority for a period of one year five percent of the final remittance to each such authority at the time of termination of collection of such tax in such authority to cover possible refunds for overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of such tax in such authority, the comptroller shall remit the balance in such accounts to the authority and close the account.

(g) The comptroller may promulgate reasonable rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, to implement the enforcement, administration and collection of the taxes authorized herein.

(h)(1) In any authority where the sales and use tax authorized by this Act has been imposed, if any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid by him under this Act or in the event a determination has been made against him for taxes and penalty under this Act, the limitation for bringing suit for the collection of such delinquent tax and penalty shall be the same as that provided in Article 20.63, Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act. Where any person is delinquent in payment of taxes under this Act, the comptroller shall notify the authority to which delinquent taxes are due under this Act by United States registered mail or certified mail and shall send a copy of the notice to the attorney general. The authority, acting through its attorney, may join in any suit brought by the attorney general as a party plaintiff to seek a judgment for the delinquent taxes and penalty due such authority. The notice sent by the comptroller to the authority showing the delinquency of a taxpayer constitutes a certification of the amount owed and is prima facie evidence of the determination of the tax and of the delinquency of the amounts of sales and use tax set forth in the notice.

(2) Where property is seized by the comptroller under the provisions of any law authorizing seizure of the property of a taxpayer who is delinquent in payment of the tax imposed by the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and where such taxpayer is also delinquent in payment of any tax imposed by this Act, the comptroller shall sell sufficient property to pay the delinquent taxes and penalty due any authority under this Act in addition to that required to pay any amount due the state under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and due any city under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act. The proceeds from such sale shall first be applied to all sums due the state, then all sums due any city under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act, and the remainder, if any, shall be applied to all sums due such authority.

(3) An authority that has adopted the tax authorized by this Act may bring suit for the collection of sales, excise, or use taxes imposed by this Act which have been certified as provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and are owed to the authority under this Act if at least 60 days before the filing of the suit, written notice by certified mail of the tax delinquency and of the intention to file suit is given to the taxpayer, the comptroller, and the attorney general and if neither the comptroller nor the attorney general disapproves the suit by written notice to the authority.

(4) The comptroller or attorney general may disapprove the institution of tax suit by an authority if:

(i) negotiations between the state and the taxpayer are being conducted for the purpose of the collection of delinquent taxes owed to the state and the authority seeking to bring suit;

(ii) the taxpayer owes substantial taxes to the state and there is a reasonable possibility that the taxpayer may be unable to pay the total amount owed in full;

(iii) the state will bring suit against the taxpayer for the collection of all sales, excise and use taxes due under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and this Act; or

(iv) the suit involves a critical legal question relating to the interpretation of state law or a provision of the Texas or United States Constitution in which the state has an overriding interest.

(5) A notice of disapproval to an authority must give the reason for the determination of the comptroller or attorney general. A disapproval is final and not subject to review. An authority,
Art. 1118x

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

after one year from the date of the disapproval, may proceed again as provided in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph even though the liability of the taxpayer includes taxes for which the authority has previously given notice and the comptroller or attorney general has previously disapproved the suit.

(6) In any suit under this paragraph for the collection of the authority tax, a judgment for or against the taxpayer does not affect any claim against the taxpayer by a city or the state unless the state is a party to the action.

(7) A copy of the final judgment in favor of an authority in a case in which the state is not a party shall be abstracted by the authority and a copy of the judgment together with a copy of the abstract shall be sent to the comptroller. The authority shall collect taxes awarded to it under the judgment as provided by Subsection (4) of Section (G), Article 20.09, Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and is responsible for the renewal of the judgment before the expiration of the 10-year period. If a collection is made by an authority on a judgment, notice of the amount collected shall be sent by certified mail to the comptroller. The comptroller may prescribe a form for the notice to be used by authorities.

Pledge of Revenues; Collection of Fees and Charges; Payment of Interest and Principal; Sale of Revenue Bonds

Sec. 3. Revenue bonds may be issued secured solely by a pledge of and payable from the net revenues derived from the operation of all or any designated part or parts of the improvements and facilities then in existence or to be improved, constructed, or otherwise acquired, with the duty of the city to charge and collect fees, tolls, and charges, so long as any of the revenue bonds or interest thereon are outstanding and unpaid, sufficient to pay all maintenance and operation expenses of the improvements and facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged), the interest on such bonds as it accrues, the principal of such bonds as it matures, and to make any and all other payments as may be prescribed in the bond ordinance and other proceedings authorizing and relating to the issuance of such bonds. If a city ordinance adopted under Section 7 of this Act places management and control of the improvements, facilities, and properties under a board of trustees while revenue bonds and the interest on them remain outstanding or unpaid, the board of trustees, if authorized by Home Rule Charter, may fix charges, authorize expenditures, prepare budgets, and otherwise manage and control the pledged revenues. "Net revenues" as used herein shall mean the gross revenues derived from the operation of those improvements and facilities the net revenues of which are pledged to the payment of the bonds less (a) the reasonable expenses of maintaining and operating said improvements and facilities, and said maintenance and operation expenses shall include, among other things, necessary repair, upkeep, and insurance of said improvements and facilities, and (b) if the city is operating under a Home Rule Charter, any annual payment of the city as may be set out in said Charter. Revenue bonds issued hereunder may be sold at public or private sale, notwithstanding the provisions or restrictions
Sec. 7. While any revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this Act or any interest thereon remain outstanding and unpaid, the management and control of such improvements and facilities (and the physical properties comprising the same) and of the income and revenue from them, including the authority to fix charges, prepare budgets, and authorize expenditures, by the terms of the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds may be placed in the hands of the governing body of the city or may be placed in the hands of a board of trustees to be named in such ordinance, consisting of not more than seven (7) members, one (1) of whom shall be a member of the governing body of such city; provided, if the city is operating under a Home Rule Charter and said Charter contains provisions requiring that the improvements and facilities be managed or controlled by a board of trustees, then the provisions of such Charter shall be followed. The compensation of the members of the board of trustees, the terms of office of such members, their powers and duties, the manner of exercising the same, the election or appointment of their successors, and all matters pertaining to their organization and duties shall be specified in said ordinance; provided, if the city is operating under a Home Rule Charter as mentioned above and the Charter contains provisions relating to any of the foregoing matters mentioned in this sentence, it is expressly provided that the provisions of such ordinance relating to such matters shall be in accordance with and governed by the Charter provisions. In all matters where such ordinance or Charter are silent, the laws and rules governing the governing body of the city shall govern said board of trustees so far as applicable.

Sec. 8. Sec. 1. There is created in the city of Midland a court of record to be known as the “City of Midland Municipal Court,” to be held in that city if the governing body of the city of Midland, by ordinance, finds and determines that the formation of a municipal court of record is necessary in order to provide a more efficient disposition of appeals arising from the municipal court.
The authority of the governing body of the city of Midland to create a municipal court of record in the city of Midland includes the authority to establish, in the manner set forth in this section, more than one municipal court of record if the governing body determines that it is necessary in order to dispose of the cases arising in the city. If more than one municipal court of record is created, the judges of the municipal courts may at any time exchange benches and sit and act for and with each other in a case, matter, or proceeding pending in a municipal court, and any and all acts thus performed by a judge are valid and binding on all parties to the case, matter, and proceeding.

The municipal court of record authorized in this section is referred to in this Act as the "municipal court."

Application of Other Laws Regarding Municipal Courts

Sec. 2. The general laws of the state regarding municipal courts, and regarding justice courts on matters where there is no law for municipal courts, and the valid charter provisions and ordinances of the city of Midland relating to the municipal court apply to the municipal court authorized in this Act, unless the laws, charter provisions, and ordinances are in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

Judge; Qualifications

Sec. 3. The municipal court shall be presided over by a judge, who shall be a licensed attorney in good standing in this state and a citizen of the United States and of this state. He need not be a resident of the city at the time of his appointment, but he shall maintain his residence in the city during his tenure of office. He shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office and shall not engage in the private practice of law while in office. He shall be appointed by the governing body of the city. He shall be paid a salary to be determined by the governing body of the city. The salary shall not be based on or in any way contingent on the fines, fees, or costs collected by the municipal court.

If more than one municipal court is created by the governing body of the city, a judge shall be appointed for each court and the governing body of the city shall designate a judge to be the presiding judge.

Court Clerk

Sec. 4. The governing body of the city shall provide a clerk of the municipal courts, and such deputy clerks, warrant officers, and other municipal court personnel, including at least one bailiff for each court, as are necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts. It is the duty of the clerk to keep the records of proceedings of the municipal courts and to issue all processes and generally to perform the duties now prescribed by law for clerks of the county courts at law exercising criminal jurisdiction insofar as the same may be applicable. The clerk of the municipal courts and all other personnel shall perform the duties of the office under the direction and control of the municipal court judge.

The qualifications of the court reporter shall be determined by the judge, or if there is more than one judge, by the presiding judge.

The record of proceedings may be preserved by the court reporter by written notes, transcribing equipment, recording equipment, or any combination of them. The court reporter is not required to take testimony in cases where neither the defendant, the prosecutor, nor the judge demands it.

Ordinances; Judicial Notice

Sec. 6. The municipal court shall take judicial notice of the ordinances of the city.

Appeal; Appellate Courts

Sec. 7. A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment of conviction in the municipal court under the rules prescribed in this Act. The County Court of Midland County has jurisdiction over the appeals from the municipal court.

Sec. 8. Each appeal from a conviction in the municipal court shall be determined by the appellate court solely on the basis of errors pointed out in the defendant's motion for new trial and presented in the transcript and statement of facts prepared from the municipal court proceedings leading to the conviction. No appeal from the municipal court may be by trial de novo.

Motion for New Trial

Sec. 9. In order to perfect an appeal, a written motion for new trial must be filed by the defendant no later than the 10th day after the rendition of the judgment of conviction, and may be amended by leave of court at any time before it is acted on within 20 days after it is filed. The motion for new trial shall be presented to the court within 10 days after the filing of the original or amended motion, and shall be determined by the court within 20 days after the filing of the original or amended motion. For good cause shown the time for filing or amending may be extended by the court. An original or amended motion shall be deemed overruled by operation of law at the expiration of the 20 days allowed... for determination of the motion if it is not acted on by the court within that time. The motion shall set forth the points of error complained of by the defendant. For purposes of appeal, a point of error not distinctly set forth in the motion for new trial shall be considered as waived.

Notice of Appeal

Sec. 10. In order to perfect an appeal, the defendant shall give timely notice of appeal. In the event the defendant requests a hearing on his motion for new trial, the notice of appeal may be given orally in open court upon the overruling of the motion for new trial; otherwise, the notice of appeal shall be in writing and filed with the municipal court no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled.

Appeal Bond

Sec. 11. If the defendant is not in custody, an appeal may not be taken until the required appeal bond has been filed with and approved by the municipal court. The appeal bond must be filed no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled. If the defendant is in custody, he shall be committed to jail unless he posts the required appeal bond. The appeal bond shall be in an amount not less than double the amount of fine and costs adjudged against the defendant. However, the bond may not in any case be for a less sum than $100. The bond shall recite that in the cause the defendant is too poor to pay or give security for the transcriptions without charge to the defendant if the court finds, after hearing in the response to affidavit by the defendant, that he is too poor to pay or give security for the transcriptions.

Record on Appeal

Sec. 12. The record on appeal in a case appealed from the municipal court consists of a transcript and, where necessary to the appeal, a statement of facts.

Contents of Transcript

Sec. 13. (a) The municipal court clerk, upon written request from the defendant, shall prepare under his hand and seal of the court for transmission to the appellate court a true transcript of the proceedings in the municipal court that shall always include the following:

(6) the notice of appeal;
(7) all written motions and pleas and orders of the court; and
(8) bills of exception, if any are filed.

(b) The municipal court clerk may include in the transcript additional portions of the proceedings in the municipal court if so instructed in writing by either the defendant or the prosecuting attorney.

Bills of Exception

Sec. 14. Either party may include bills of exception in the transcript on appeal, subject to complying with the applicable provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure governing the preparation of bills of exception and their inclusion in the record on appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals, except that the bills of exception shall be filed with the municipal court clerk within 60 days after the giving or filing of the notice of appeal.

Statement of Facts; Agreed Statement; Designated Items and Payment

Sec. 15. (a) A statement of facts, when included in the record on appeal, shall consist of:

(1) a transcription of all or any part of the municipal court proceedings in the case that are shown by the notes of the court reporter to have occurred before, during, or after the trial if such transcription is requested of the court reporter by the defendant; or
(2) a brief statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial, as agreed to by the defendant and the prosecuting attorney; or
(3) a partial transcription and the agreed statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial.

(b) The court reporter shall transcribe any portion of his notes of the court proceedings in the case at the request of the defendant. The defendant shall pay for the transcription. The cost to the defendant for the transcription shall not exceed the fees or charges normally being made by court reporters in the county for similar transcriptions. The municipal court shall order the court reporter to make the transcriptions without charge to the defendant if the court finds, after hearing in the response to affidavit by the defendant, that he is too poor to pay or give security for the transcriptions.

Filing of Transcript and Statement of Facts; Time Limits; Completion and Approval of Record; Transfer of Record to Clerk of Appellate Court

Sec. 16. (a) Within 60 days of the giving or filing of the notice of appeal, the parties shall file with the municipal court clerk:

(1) the statement of facts;
(2) a written designation of all matter that is to be included in the transcript in addition to matter required to be included in the transcript by Section 13 of this Act; and
(3) any matter designated to be included in the transcript that is not then in the custody of the municipal court clerk.
(b) On completing the record as designated by the parties in Subdivision (2), Subsection (a) of this section, the municipal court judge shall approve the record in the manner provided by law for record completion notification and approval in appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

(e) On the municipal court judge’s approval of the record, the municipal court clerk shall promptly forward it to be filed with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the defendant and the prosecuting attorney that the record has been filed.

Procedure on Appeal; Review or Error

Sec. 18. The appellate court shall hear and determine appeals from the municipal court at the earliest practical time it may be done, with due regard to the rights of parties and proper administration of justice, and no affirmance or reversal of a case shall be determined on mere technicalities or on technical errors in the preparation and filing of the record on appeal. Oral arguments before the appellate court shall be under the rules which the appellate court may determine, and the parties may submit the case on the records and briefs without oral arguments.

Disposition on Appeal; Presumptions; Decision

Sec. 19. (a) The appellate court may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss the case, or may reform or correct the judgment, as the law and the nature of the case may require.

(b) The appellate court shall presume (1) that the venue was proven in the court below; (2) that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn; (3) that the defendant was arraigned and that he pleaded to the complaint; and (4) that the court’s charge was certified by the municipal court judge before it was read to the jury; unless such matters were made an issue in the trial court, or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or statement of facts.

(c) In each case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion or order either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overruled no reason need be given by the appellate court, but cases relied on by the court may be cited. If an assignment of error is sustained, the appellate court shall set forth the reasons for the decision. Copies of the decision of the appellate court shall be mailed by the clerk of the appellate court to the parties and the judge of the municipal court as soon as the decision is rendered by the appellate court.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings; Filing of Record; Enforcement of Judgment

Sec. 20. When the judgment of the appellate court becomes final, the clerk of the appellate court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and shall mail the certificates to the clerk of the municipal court. When the certificate is received by the clerk of the municipal court, he shall file it with the papers in the case and note it on the docket. If the judgment has been affirmed, no proceeding need be had after filing the certificate in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except to forfeit the bond of the defendant, to issue a capias for the defendant, or to issue an execution against his property.

New Trial

Sec. 21. If the appellate court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as it would have stood if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court.

Appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals; Record

Sec. 22. When a judgment is affirmed by the appellate court, the defendant shall have the right to appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals if the fine assessed against the defendant in the municipal court exceeded $100. The appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals shall be governed by provisions in the Code of Criminal Procedure relating to direct appeals from county and district courts to the Court of Criminal Appeals except that:

1. (1) the record and briefs on appeal in the appellate court, plus the transcript of proceedings in the appellate court, shall constitute the record and briefs on appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals unless the rules of the Court of Criminal Appeals provide otherwise; and
2. (2) the record and briefs shall be filed directly with the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Sec. 23. All laws in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby conformed to the provisions of this Act.

Art. 1200dd. Sweetwater

Creation; Formation by Ordinance

Sec. 1. There is created in the city of Sweetwater a court of record to be known as the “City of Sweetwater Municipal Court,” to be held in that city if the governing body of the city of Sweetwater, by ordinance, finds and determines that the formation of a municipal court of record is necessary in order to provide a more efficient disposition of appeals arising from the municipal court.

The authority of the governing body of the city of Sweetwater to create a municipal court of record in the city of Sweetwater includes the authority to establish, in the manner set forth in this section, more than one municipal court of record if the governing body determines that it is necessary in order to dispose of the cases arising in the city. If more than one municipal court of record is created, the judges of the municipal courts may at any time exchange benches and sit and act for and with each other in a case, matter, or proceeding pending in a municipal court, and any and all acts thus performed by a judge are valid and binding on all parties to the case, matter, and proceeding.

Application of Other Laws Regarding Municipal Courts

Sec. 2. The general laws of the state regarding municipal courts, and regarding justice courts on matters where there is no law for municipal courts, and the valid charter provisions and ordinances of the city of Sweetwater relating to the municipal court apply to the municipal court authorized in this Act, unless the laws, charter provisions, and ordinances are in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

Judge; Qualifications

Sec. 3. The municipal court shall be presided over by a judge, who shall be a licensed attorney in good standing in this state and a citizen of the United States and of this state. He need not be a resident of the city at the time of his appointment, but he shall maintain his residence in the city during his tenure of office. He shall be appointed by the governing body of the city. He shall be paid a salary to be determined by the governing body of the city. The salary shall not be based on or in any way contingent on the fines, fees, or costs collected by the municipal court.

If more than one municipal court is created by the governing body of the city, a judge shall be appointed for each court and the governing body of the city shall designate a judge to be the presiding judge.

Sec. 4. The governing body of the city shall provide a clerk of the municipal courts, and such deputy clerks, warrant officers, and other municipal court personnel, including at least one bailiff for each court, as are necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts. It is the duty of the clerk to keep the records of proceedings of the municipal courts and to issue all processes and generally to perform the duties now prescribed by law for clerks of the county courts at law exercising criminal jurisdiction insofar as the same may be applicable. The clerk of the municipal courts and all other personnel shall perform the duties of the office under the direction and control of the municipal court judge.

For the purpose of preserving a record in the cases tried before the municipal court, the city shall provide a court reporter, who shall be appointed by the municipal court judge and whose compensation shall be determined by the governing body of the city. The qualifications of the court reporter shall be determined by the judge, or if there is more than one judge, by the presiding judge.

Sec. 8. Each appeal from a conviction in the municipal court shall be determined by the appellate court solely on the basis of errors pointed out in the defendant’s motion for new trial and presented in the transcript and statement of facts prepared from the municipal court proceedings leading to the conviction. No appeal from the municipal court may be by trial de novo.

Sec. 9. In order to perfect an appeal, a written motion for new trial must be filed by the defendant no later than the 10th day after the rendition of the judgment of conviction, and may be amended by

For good cause shown the time for filing or amending may be extended by the court. An original or amended motion shall be deemed overruled by operation of law at the expiration of the 20 days allowed for determination of the motion if it is not acted on by the court within that time. The motion shall set forth the points of error complained of by the defendant. For purposes of appeal, a point of error not distinctly set forth in the motion for new trial shall be considered as waived.

Notice of Appeal

Sec. 10. In order to perfect an appeal, the defendant shall give timely notice of appeal. In the event the defendant requests a hearing on his motion for new trial, the notice of appeal may be given orally in open court upon the overruling of the motion for new trial; otherwise, the notice of appeal shall be in writing and filed with the municipal court no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled.

The names of persons who have not been impaneled and who have not served as many as four days shall be immediately returned to the wheel by the clerk or his deputy, and the cards bearing the names of the persons serving as many as four days shall be put in a box provided for that purpose for the use of the officers who shall next select the jurors from the wheel. If any of the lists drawn are not used, the clerk or his deputy shall open the envelopes containing the cards bearing the names of the unused lists immediately after the expiration of the three-month period and return the cards to the wheel. A juror serving on a jury in the court shall receive not less than $10 for each day and for each fraction of a day he attends the court as a juror, and in no event less than that paid in county courts.

(c) Any citizen of the appropriate municipality shall have the right of trial by jury in civil cases in municipal courts which shall be governed by the Rules of Civil Procedure and the laws governing jury trials in the justice courts. No particular form or content of such notice shall be required, other than that it shall give reasonably ascertainable notice of the intent to appeal. An appeal bond, not to exceed $10 in amount, must be filed with the court within 10 days after the order overruling the motion for new trial or its equivalent has been rendered in order for an appeal to be perfected.

Bail on Appeal

Sec. 25. In appeals from the judgments and sentence of a municipal court in a criminal case, the judge may at his discretion require the defendant to give bail in an amount not to exceed the total amount of fines and costs adjudged against him or he may order the defendant released on his personal recognizance pending appeal. Bail shall be payable to the State of Texas and in no event shall the amount of bail required be for a sum in excess of $200. The bond or personal recognizance shall recite that in the cause the defendant shall make his personal appearance instanter or shall appear by his attorney before the court to which the appeal is taken, if the court is in session, and, if the court is not in session, then at its next session, and there remain from day to day and answer in the cause.

Each party, on filing his brief with the clerk of the appellate court, shall cause a true copy of his brief to be delivered to the opposing party.

Time for Hearing Appeals; Oral Arguments

Sec. 33. The court to which the appeal is taken shall hear and determine appeals from municipal courts at the earliest time it may be done, with due regard to the rights of parties and proper administration of justice. Oral arguments before the court shall be under such rules as the court may determine and the parties may submit the case on the records and briefs without oral argument.

Disposition on Appeal; Opinion

Sec. 34. The court, having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts, may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss the case, or may reform or correct the judgment, or may retry the case, as the law and the nature of the case may require. Sec. 35. When the judgment of the court having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts becomes final, the clerk of the court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and mail the certificate to the clerk of the municipal court from which the appeal was taken. When the record is received by the clerk of the municipal courts, he shall file it with the papers in the case and note it upon the docket of the municipal court. Where the judgment has been affirmed, no proceedings need be had after filing the record in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except forfeiture of the bond of the defendant, issuance of a capias for the defendant, or an execution against his property.

Sec. 2. (a) The governing body of a city may undertake improvement projects that confer a special benefit on a definable part of the city. The governing body may levy and collect special assessments on property in the area, based on the benefit conferred by the improvement project, to pay all or part of its cost.

(b) A public improvement project may include:

(1) landscaping; the erection of distinctive lighting and signs; the improvement, widening, narrowing, closing, or rerouting of streets or sidewalks; the construction or improvement of pedestrian malls; the establishment or improvement of parks; the erection of fountains; the acquisition and installation of articles of sculpture; and the acquisition, construction, or improvement of off-street parking facilities;

(2) other improvements similar to those described in Subdivision (1) of this subsection; and

(3) the acquisition of real property in connection with an authorized improvement.

Act is Alternative

Sec. 3. This Act is a complete alternative to other methods by which a city may finance public improvements by assessing property owners.

Financing Combined Improvements

Sec. 4. An improvement project on two or more streets or two or more types of improvements in, on, or adjacent to the same street or streets may be included in one proceeding and financed as one improvement.

Petition for Improvement

Sec. 5. (a) A petition for any improvement authorized to be financed under this Act may be filed with the city secretary or other officer who performs the function of city secretary. The petition must state:

(1) the general nature of the proposed improvement;

(2) the estimated cost of the improvement;

(3) the boundaries of the proposed assessment district;

(4) the proposed method of assessment;

(5) the proposed apportionment of cost between the improvement district and the city as a whole; and

(2) the record owners of property composing at least two-thirds of the area liable for assessment under the proposal.

(c) When a petition which meets the requirements of this section is filed, the governing body of the city may make findings by resolution as to the advisability of the improvement, the estimated cost, the method of assessment, and the apportionment of cost between the improvement district and the city as a whole.

Feasibility Report, Etc.

Sec. 6. (a) Before holding a hearing on the advisability of a proposed improvement, the governing body of a city may require that a feasibility report be made to assist in determining whether an improvement should be made as proposed or otherwise or whether it should be made in combination with other improvements authorized by this Act. The governing body may also require that a preliminary estimate of the cost of the improvement or combination of improvements be made. The governing body may use the services of employees of the city to make the report or estimate, or it may employ consultants.

(b) The governing body may also take other preliminary steps prior to the hearing or before ordering an improvement or letting a contract that will be of assistance in determining the feasibility and desirability of an improvement.

Hearing as to Advisability

Sec. 7. (a) No contract may be let or work ordered or authorized for an improvement financed under this Act unless the governing body of the city first by resolution orders that a public hearing be held on the advisability of the improvement and gives notice of the hearing as required by this section.

(b) Notice of the hearing shall be given by not less than four publications in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The four publications must be at least a week apart and the final publication must be at least three days before the date of the hearing. The notice shall include the following information:

(1) the time and place of the hearing;
(2) the general nature of the proposed improvement;
(3) the estimated cost of the improvement;
(4) the boundaries of the proposed assessment district;
(5) the proposed method of assessment; and
(6) the proposed apportionment of cost between the improvement district and the city as a whole.

(c) The hearing may be adjourned from time to time until the governing body makes findings by resolution as to the advisability of the improvement, the nature of the improvement, the estimated cost, the boundaries of the improvement district, the method of assessment, and the apportionment of cost between the district and the city as a whole.

(d) The area of the improvement district to be assessed according to the findings of the governing body may be less than the area proposed in the notice of the hearing, but it may not include any property not within the original proposed boundaries unless there is an additional hearing, preceded by the required notice.

May Order Improvements

Sec. 8. (a) At any time within six months after the final adjournment of the hearing on the advisability of an improvement, the governing body of the city by a majority vote of all members may adopt a resolution authorizing the improvement in accordance with its finding as to the advisability of the improvement. The authorization takes effect when it has been published one time in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. Actual construction of the improvement may not begin until 20 days after the authorization takes effect.

(b) An improvement may not be commenced if, within 20 days after the authorization takes effect, written protests signed by at least two-thirds of the owners of record of property within the improvement district or the owners of record of at least two-thirds of the total area of the district are filed with the city secretary or other officer who performs the function of city secretary.

(c) Any person may withdraw his name from a protest at any time before the governing body convenes its meeting to determine the sufficiency of the protest.

Assessment Plan

Sec. 9. (a) The portion of the cost of an improvement to be assessed against the property in the improvement district shall be apportioned by the governing body of the city based on the special benefits accruing to the property because of the improvement.

(b) The cost may be assessed equally per front foot or per square foot against all property within the district; it may be assessed against property according to the value of the property as determined by the governing body of the city, with or without regard to structures or other improvements on the property; or it may be assessed on the basis of any other reasonable assessment plan that results in imposing equal shares of the cost on property similarly benefitted.

(c) The governing body may establish by ordinance reasonable classifications and formulas for the apportionment of the cost between the city and the area to be assessed and the methods of assessing the special benefits for various classes of improvements.

Apportionment of Costs

Sec. 10. (a) An assessment plan must provide that at least 20 percent of the cost of an improvement be paid by special assessments against property in the improvement district.

(b) If any property in the improvement district is exempt from the payment of the special assessment, the assessment that would otherwise be levied against that property shall be paid by the city as a whole. Assessments paid by the city as a whole under this subsection are counted as having been paid by special assessment for the purpose of Subsection (a) of this section.

Preparing Assessment Roll; Notice; Etc.

Sec. 11. (a) When the total cost of an improvement is determined, the governing body shall cause the assessments against each parcel of land within the benefit district to be determined in accordance with the manner of assessment set forth in the resolution as to the advisability of the improvement. The governing body shall also cause a proposed assessment roll to be prepared.
Art. 1269j-4.12 CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

(b) The proposed assessment roll shall be filed with the city secretary or other officer who performs the function of city secretary and be open for public inspection. The governing body shall direct the secretary to publish notice that the governing body will meet to consider the proposed assessments at a public hearing. The notice must be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city at least 10 days before the hearing and shall state the date, time, and place of the hearing, the general nature of the improvement, the cost of the improvement, the boundaries of the assessment district, and that written or oral objections will be considered at the hearing.

(c) At the time the assessment roll is filed with the city secretary or other officer, the city secretary or other officer shall also mail to the owners of property liable for assessment, at their last known address, a notice of the hearing which contains all the information required of the notice published in a newspaper. The failure of a property owner to receive the notice does not invalidate the proceedings.

Assessments: Hearing, Levy, Payment

Sec. 12. (a) At the hearing on proposed assessments or at any adjournment of the hearing, the governing body shall hear and pass on all objections to each proposed assessment. The governing body may amend the proposed assessments as to any parcel. When all objections have been heard and action has been taken with regard to them, the governing body by ordinance shall levy the assessments as special assessments on the property. The governing body by ordinance shall specify the method of payment of the assessments and may provide that they be payable in not more than 20 equal annual installments.

(b) All assessments bear interest at a rate specified by the governing body, which may not exceed six percent per annum. Interest on the assessment between the effective date of the ordinance levying the assessment and the date the first installment is payable shall be added to the first installment. The interest for one year on all unpaid installments shall be added to each subsequent installment until paid.

An assessment or any reassessment is a lien against the property until it is paid. The owner of any property assessed may pay the entire assessment against any lot or parcel with accrued interest to the date of the payment at any time.

Supplemental Assessments

Sec. 13. After notice and hearing in the manner required for original assessments, the governing body may make supplemental assessments to correct omissions or mistakes in the assessment relating to the total cost of the improvement.

Reassessments and New Assessments

Sec. 14. If an assessment against a parcel of land is set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction, found excessive by the governing body, or determined to be invalid by the governing body on the written advice of counsel, the governing body may make a reassessment or new assessment as to the parcel.

Separate Improvement Funds

Sec. 15. A separate improvement fund shall be created in the city treasury for each improvement or combination of improvements. The proceeds from the sale of bonds, temporary notes and time warrants, and any other sums appropriated to the fund by the governing body shall be credited to the fund. The fund may be used solely to pay the costs incurred in the making of the improvement. When the improvement is completed, the balance shall be transferred to the fund established for the retirement of the bonds.

Special Improvement Fund

Sec. 16. (a) A city proposing to make an improvement to be financed under the authority of this Act may establish by ordinance a special improvement fund in the city treasury. The city may levy annually a tax of not to exceed 10 cents on each $100 valuation of the assessed taxable property of the city for the purpose of the fund.

(b) The fund may be used to pay the costs of planning any improvement authorized by this Act and for preparing preliminary plans, studies, and engineering reports preparatory to the consideration of the feasibility of an improvement and to pay the initial cost of the improvement when ordered by the governing body until temporary notes, time warrants, or improvement bonds have been issued and sold.

(c) The fund shall be reimbursed from the proceeds of the issuance of improvement bonds and shall never exceed one percent of the total assessed property valuation of the city for the preceding year or $200,000, whichever is less.

(d) The fund need not be budgeted for expenditure during any year, but the amount of the fund shall be stated in the city's annual budget. All grants-in-aid or contributions made to the city for planning and preparation of plans for improvements which are authorized under this Act may be credited to the special improvement fund, and the amount of the aid or contribution shall not be considered in calculating the limitation on the fund imposed by Subsection (c) of this section.

Payment of Costs

Sec. 17. (a) The cost of any improvement made under the authority of this Act shall be paid in accordance with this section.
(b) All costs payable by the city as a whole may be paid from general funds available for the purpose or from other available general improvement funds. Costs payable by special assessments which have been paid in full shall be paid from those assessments.

(d) Costs payable by special assessments to be paid in installments and costs made payable by the city as a whole but not payable from available general funds or other available general improvement funds shall be paid by the issuance and sale of revenue or general obligation bonds.

(e) During the progress of an improvement the governing body may issue temporary notes or time warrants of the city to pay costs of the improvements and on the completion of the work issue revenue or general obligation bonds.

(f) The costs of more than one improvement may be paid from a single issue and sale of bonds without other consolidation proceedings prior to the bond issue.

General Obligation Bonds

Sec. 18. A city may issue general obligation bonds under the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, to pay all or part of the costs covered by Section 17(d) of this Act.

Issuance of Revenue Bonds

Sec. 19. For the payment of all or part of the costs covered by Section 17(d) of this Act, the governing body may issue revenue bonds from time to time in one or more series to be payable from and secured by liens on all or part of the revenue derived from improvements authorized under this Act, including installment payments of special assessments.

Terms and Conditions of Bonds

Sec. 20. (a) Revenue bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise within not more than 40 years from their date, and provision may be made for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds or subordinate lien bonds under any terms or conditions that may be set forth in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(b) The bonds and any interest coupons appertaining thereto are negotiable instruments within the meaning and for all purposes of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code. The bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest, and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and said bonds shall bear interest at such rates, all as shall be determined and provided in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(c) If so provided in the bond ordinance, the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during and after the period of the acquisition or construction of any improvement to be provided through the issuance of the bonds, for creating a reserve fund for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds, and for creating any other funds. The proceeds of the bonds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent, and in the manner provided, in the bond ordinance.

Pledges

Sec. 21. (a) The governing body may pledge all or any part of the income from improvements financed under this Act, including the installment payments described in Section 17(d) of this Act, to the payment of the bonds, including the payment of principal, interest, and any other amounts required or permitted in connection with the bonds. The pledged income shall be fixed and collected in amounts that will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds, and, to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds, to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds, and for the payment of operation, maintenance, and other expenses in connection with the improvements authorized under this Act.

(b) The bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on any real property relating to the facilities authorized under this Act owned or to be acquired by the city and by chattel mortgages, liens, or security interests on any personal property appurtenant to that real property. The governing body may authorize the execution of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other forms of encumbrances to evidence the indebtedness.

(c) The governing body may also pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenues, or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 22. (a) Any revenue bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for that purpose, under any terms or conditions, as are determined by ordinance of the governing body of the local government. All appropriate provisions of this Act are applicable to refunding bonds, and the refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds. The refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts necessary to pay the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any,

In that case, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance authorizing the refunding bonds. The exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.

(c) General obligation bonds issued under this Act also may be refunded in the manner provided by law.

Approval and Registration of Bonds

Sec. 22. (a) All revenue bonds issued under this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If the bonds recite that they are secured by a pledge of revenues or rentals from a contract or lease, a copy of the contract or lease and the proceedings relating to it shall be submitted to the attorney general also. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized and any contract or lease has been made in accordance with law, he shall approve the bonds and the contract or lease, and thereupon the bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After approval and registration the bonds and any contract or lease relating to them are incontestable in any court or other form for any reason and are valid and binding obligations for all purposes in accordance with their terms.

(b) General obligation bonds issued under this Act shall be approved and registered as provided by law.

Authorized Investments and Security for Deposits

Sec. 24. Each and all of the foregoing purposes are hereby found and declared to be public purposes and proper municipal functions.

Revenue Bonds Authorized

Sec. 3. For any purpose or purposes authorized under Section 2 of this Act, the governing body of the city may issue its revenue bonds from time to time in one or more series to be payable from and secured by liens on all or part of the revenues derived from any Facility or Facilities.

The proceeds of sale of the bonds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent and in the manner provided in the bond ordinance.

(d) Any such city shall also be authorized to levy and pledge to the payment of the operation and maintenance of any Facility or Facilities, either as a supplement to the pledge of revenues for such purpose or in lieu thereof, a continuing annual ad valorem tax at a rate on each $100 valuation of taxable property within said city sufficient for such purposes, all as may be provided in said ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds; provided, that such taxes shall be within any constitutional or charter limit for cities included by this Act; and provided further, that no part of any moneys raised by such taxes shall ever be used for the payment of the interest on or principal of any bonds issued hereunder. The proceeds of any such taxes thus pledged shall be utilized annually to the extent required by or provided in the ordinance for operation and maintenance of such Facilities, and such city in its discretion may covenant in such ordinance that certain costs of operating and maintaining such Facilities, as may be enumerated therein, or all of such costs will be paid by the city from the proceeds of such tax.

Sec. 5. Each such city shall be authorized to fix and collect fees, rentals, rates, and charges for the occupancy, use, or availability of all or any of the Facilities in such amounts and in such manner as may be determined by the governing body of the city.

Sec. 8. All bonds issued under this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If the bonds recite that they are secured by a pledge of revenues or rentals from a contract or lease, a copy of the contract or lease and the proceedings relating to it shall be submitted to the attorney general also. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized and any contract or lease has been made in accordance with law, he shall approve the bonds and the contract or lease, and thereupon the bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After approval and registration, the bonds and any contract or lease relating to them are incontestable for any reason and are valid and binding obligations for all purposes in accordance with their terms.

Legal and Authorized Investments; Security for Deposit of Public Funds

Sec. 9. All bonds issued under this Act are legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of the state, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. The bonds also are eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of it, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of the bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect; Conflicting Provisions

Sec. 10. This Act is cumulative of all other law on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized by it without reference to any other law or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided. When any bonds are issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any law or home-rule charter provision, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control. A city shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Severability

Sec. 11. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 3]

Definitions

Sec. 4. The following terms wherever used or referred to in this Act, shall have the following meanings, unless a different meaning is clearly indicated by the context.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 4(a) to (w)]

(x) When this Act is applied to a county, "mayor" means county judge, "city council" means the commissioners court, and the "city" means county, unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(y) "Comptroller" means the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas.

(z) "Captured Market Value" means any amount by which the current market value of property within the boundaries of an urban renewal project area exceeds its market value at the time such urban renewal project was designated in accordance with the requirements of this Act.

(a) "Taxable Property" means all real taxable property, but shall not include personal property or intangible property.

(bb) "Tax Assessor-Collector" means the tax assessor-collector of the municipality.

(cc) "Taxing Entity" means any governmental unit, including the State and its political subdivisions, but not including municipalities, authorized by law to levy taxes on property located within an urban renewal project area.

(dd) "Tax Increment" means that amount of property taxes levied and collected each year on property within an urban renewal project area in excess of the amount levied and collected on such property during the year prior to the date of adoption of the urban renewal project plan. A tax increment is calculated by multiplying the total in property taxes levied and collected by the municipality and all other taxing entities on the taxable property within an urban renewal project area in any year by a fraction having a numerator equal to that year's market value of all taxable property in such area minus the tax incremental base and a denominator equal to that year's market value of all taxable property in such area.

(ee) "Tax Incremental Base" means the aggregate market value of all taxable property within an urban renewal project area on the date of approval of the urban renewal project plan in accordance with the requirements of this Act.

(ff) "Tax Increment Fund" means a fund into which all tax increments produced from the captured market value of property located within an urban renewal project area are paid, and from which moneys are disbursed to pay costs with respect to such project or to satisfy claims of holders of tax increment bonds issued with respect to such project.

Finding of Necessity; Powers of Counties

Sec. 5. (a) No city shall exercise any of the powers conferred upon cities by this Act until after the City Council shall have adopted a resolution, after giving notice and ordering an election on the question of whether the City Council shall adopt such resolution, finding that: (1) one or more slum or blighted areas exist in such city; and (2) the rehabilitation, conservation, or slum clearance and redevelopment, or a combination thereof, of such area or areas is necessary in the interest of public health, safety, morals or welfare of the residents of such city. Such notice shall be published at least twice in the newspaper officially designated by the City Council and shall state that on a date certain, which date shall be stated in the notice and shall be not less than sixty (60) days after the publication of the first of such notices, the City Council will consider the question of whether or not it will order an election to determine if it should adopt such a resolution. On the date specified in the notice to consider such question the City Council may, on its own motion, call an election to determine whether it shall adopt such a resolution and shall, in any event, call such election if there has been presented to it during such period a petition that such election be held, signed by at least five per cent (5%) of the legally qualified voters residing in such city and owning taxable property within the boundaries thereof, duly rendered for taxation. If it be determined to call such an election, at least thirty (30) day's notice thereof shall be given. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, no powers granted by this Act shall be exercised by any city until an election shall have been held as herein provided with a majority of the votes cast at such election being cast in favor of the exercise of such powers by such city. Only qualified voters residing in said city, owning taxable property within the boundaries thereof, who have duly rendered the same for taxation, shall be entitled to vote at such election. If a majority of those voting at such election shall vote in favor of the adoption of such resolution, the City Council shall then be authorized to adopt it. If a majority of those voting at such election shall vote against the adoption of such resolution, the City Council shall not adopt it and such resolution shall not again be proposed within the period of one (1) year.

(b) Any county that has a population of more than 700,000, according to the last preceding federal census, may exercise all powers provided for cities under this Act. Those powers may be exercised only with respect to areas of the county not inside the corporate limits of a city or town. The county may not exercise any power under this Act unless the commissioners court adopts a resolution as provided in Subsection (a) of this section, the adoption of which has been first approved at an election. The election shall be held throughout the county in the same way an election is held in a city under Subsection (a) of this section. The adoption of a resolution is not approved unless a majority of the voters voting on the question in the entire county as well as in each incorporated city and town in the county approves adoption. In cities only partly in the county, only voters residing in the county may vote. [See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 5a]

Approval of Tax Increment Financing

Sec. 5b. A city may not use the tax increment method of financing prescribed by Sections 22a, 22b, 22c, and 22d of this Act unless a majority of the qualified voters of the city voting on the question, who own taxable property within the city that is duly rendered for taxation, approve that method of financing in an election held by the city. At an election held under this section, the ballots shall provide for voting for or against the proposition: "Use of tax increment financing for urban renewal purposes." An election under this section may be held in conjunction with an election held under Section 5 or 5a of this Act. This referendum shall not be necessary if the constitutional amendment on tax increment financing is approved by the voters.

Preparation and Approval of Urban Renewal Plan

Sec. 7.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 7(a) to 7(h)]

(i) Upon approval of an urban renewal plan by the city and approval of the tax increment method of financing as required under Section 5b of this Act, a fund, to be known as the "Tax-increment Fund" shall be established by the adoption of a resolution by the City Council.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 8]
Powers

Sec. 9. A city shall have all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this Act, including the following powers in addition to others herein granted:

(a) To conduct preliminary surveys to determine if the undertakings and carrying out of urban renewal projects is feasible.

(b) To undertake and carry out urban renewal projects within its area of operation.

(c) To make and execute contracts and other instruments necessary or convenient to the exercise of its powers under this Act.

(d) To provide or arrange or contract for the furnishing or repair by any person or agency, public or private, of services, privileges, works, streets, roads, public utilities or other facilities for or in connection with an urban renewal project; to install, construct and reconstruct streets, utilities, parks, playgrounds, and other public improvements necessary for carrying out urban renewal projects.

(e) To acquire by purchase, lease, option, gift, grant, or bequest, devise, eminent domain or otherwise, any real property (or personal property for its administrative purposes) together with any improvements thereon, necessary or incidental to an urban renewal project; to hold, improve, clear or prepare for redevelopment any such property; to mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or otherwise encumber or dispose of any real property; to insure or provide for the insurance of any real or personal property or operations of the city against any risks or hazards, including the power to pay premiums on any such insurance; and to enter into any contracts necessary to effectuate the purpose of this Act.

(f) To invest any urban renewal project funds held in reserves or sinking funds or any such funds not required for immediate disbursements, in property or securities in which banks may legally invest funds subject to their control; to redeem such bonds as have been issued pursuant to Section 15 of this Act at the redemption price established therein or to purchase such bonds at less than redemption price, and all such bonds so redeemed or purchased to be canceled.

(g) To borrow money and to apply for and accept advances, loans, grants, contributions and any other form of financial assistance from the Federal Government, the State, County or other public body or from any sources, public or private, for the purposes of this Act, and to give such security as may be required and to enter into and carry out contracts in connection therewith. A city may include in any contract for financial assistance with the Federal Government for an urban renewal project such provisions and conditions imposed pursuant to Federal Law as the city may deem reasonable and appropriate and which are not inconsistent with the purposes of this Act.

(h) Within its area of operation, to make or have made all plans necessary to the carrying out of the purposes of this Act and to contract with any person, public or private, in making and carrying out such plans and to adopt or approve, modify and amend such plans. The City is authorized to develop, test and report methods and techniques and carry out demonstrations and other activities, for the prevention and the elimination of slums and urban blight, and to apply for, accept and utilize grants of funds from the Federal Government for such purposes.

(i) To prepare plans and provide reasonable assistance for the relocation of persons (including families, business concerns, and others) displaced from an urban renewal project area to the extent essential for acquiring possession of and clearing such area or parts thereof to permit the carrying out of the urban renewal project.

(j) To appropriate such funds and make such expenditures as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act, and to levy taxes and assessments for such purposes; to close, vacate, plan or replan streets, roads, sidewalks, ways or other places; to plan or replan, zone or rezone any part of the city and to make exceptions from building regulations; and to enter into agreements with an urban renewal agency vested with urban renewal powers under Section 15 of this Act (which agreements may extend over any period, notwithstanding any provision or rule or law to the contrary), restricting action to be taken by such city pursuant to any of the powers granted by this Act; provided, however, that no taxes or assessments shall be levied under authority or for the purposes of this Act unless and until such levy shall first have been submitted to a vote of the property-owning taxpayers of said city, and said proposition shall have received a majority of the votes cast as being "for" such levy.

(k) Within its area of operation to organize, coordinate and direct the administration of the provisions of this Act as they apply to such city in order that the objective of remedying slum and blighted areas and preventing the causes thereof within such city may be most effectively promoted and achieved, and to establish such new office or offices of the city or to reorganize existing offices in order to carry out such purpose most effectively.

(l) To issue tax increment bonds.

(m) To exercise all or any part or combination of powers herein granted.

Computation of Tax Increments

Sec. 22a. (a) For purposes of this Act, the market value of property located within an urban renewal project area shall be determined by the tax assessor-collector, and only the tax assessor-collector, during the time such project exists. Provided, however, that such determination shall require the concurrence of the comptroller; and provided, further, that any property owner aggrieved by a determination of the tax assessor-collector shall have the same right of appeal provided by law to owners of property not affected by this Act.

(b) At the time an urban renewal project is designated by the governing body, the tax assessor-collector shall, with the concurrence of the comptroller, certify to the governing body the market value of property within the boundaries of such district. Property taxable at the time the urban renewal project is designated shall be included at its most recently determined market value; property exempt from taxation at the time the redevelopment district was designated shall be included at zero.

(c) The tax assessor-collector shall, within one year of the time an urban renewal project is designated, and annually thereafter, certify to the governing body the amount of the captured market value of property within the boundaries of the district and the amount of tax increments produced from such captured market value.

(d) For any years in which taxes are to be paid into the tax increment fund required under Subsection (i), Section 7 of this Act, any captured market value with respect to an urban renewal project shall not be considered by any taxing entity in computing any debt limitation or for any other purpose except in determining the amount to be paid into the tax increment fund.

Allocation of Tax Collections and Tax Increments

Sec. 22b. (a) For purposes of this Act, the tax assessor-collector shall have the sole authority and the duty to collect the taxes levied by the city and all other taxing entities on property located within an urban renewal project and for allocating taxing and tax increments in the manner required by this Act.

(b) Commencing with the first payment of taxes levied by the city or other taxing entities subsequent to the time an urban renewal project is designated, receipts from such taxes shall be allocated and paid over as follows:

(1) There shall first be allocated and paid over in such amounts as belong to each respectively, to the city and to each other taxing entity, all of the property taxes collected which are produced from the tax incremental base.

(2) There shall next be deposited into the tax increment fund established for such project all tax increments produced from the captured market value of property located within the project.

Tax Increment Bonds

Sec. 22c. (a) A city shall, in addition to any other powers vested in it, have the power to issue tax increment bonds, the proceeds of which may be used to pay redevelopment costs with respect to the urban renewal project on behalf of which the bonds were issued or to satisfy claims of holders of such bonds. Upon approval of two-thirds of the resident property taxpayers who are qualified electors of the city, such city shall also have the power to issue refunding bonds for the payment or retirement of tax increment bonds previously issued by it. Such tax increment bonds shall be made payable, as to both principal and interest, solely from tax increments allocated to and paid into the tax increment fund established by the city in accordance with this Act, or from any private sources, or contributions or other financial assistance from the State or United States Government, or by any combination of these methods.

may be issued in one or more series, and shall bear such date or dates, be payable upon demand or mature at such time or times, bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denomination or denominations, be in such form either coupon or registered, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption (with or without premium), be secured in such manner, and have such other characteristics, as may be provided by such resolution or trust indenture or mortgage issued pursuant thereto. Such bonds may be sold at not less than par at public sales held after notice published prior to such sale in a newspaper having a general circulation in the city and in such other medium of publication as the governing body may determine or may be exchanged for other bonds on the basis of par. Any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be fully negotiable. In any suit, action or proceeding involving the validity or enforceability of any bond issued under this Act or the security therefor, any such bond reciting in substance that it has been issued by the city in connection with an urban renewal project, as herein defined, shall be conclusively deemed to have been issued for such purposes and the urban renewal project shall be conclusively deemed to have been planned, located and carried out in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(c) All banks, trust companies, bankers, savings banks and institutions, buildings and loan associations, savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking or investment business; all insurance companies, insurance associations, and other persons carrying on an insurance business; and all executors, administrators, curators, trustees, and other fiduciaries, may legally invest any sinking funds, moneys, or other funds belonging to them or within their control in any tax increment bonds issued by a city pursuant to this Act. Such bonds shall be authorized security for all public deposits. Any persons, political subdivisions and officers, public or private, are authorized to use any funds owned or controlled by them for the purchase of any such bonds. Nothing in this Act with regard to legal investments shall be construed as relieving any person of any duty of exercising reasonable care in selecting securities.

(d) Tax increment bonds shall be payable only out of the tax increment fund created pursuant to Subsection (i), Section 7 of this Act. The City Council may irrevocably pledge all or a part of such fund to the payment of such bonds or notes. Such fund or the designated part thereof may thereafter be used only for the payment of such bonds and interest thereon until the same have been fully paid; and a holder of such bonds or of any coupons appertaining thereto shall have a lien against such fund for payment of such bonds or notes and interest thereon and may either at law or in equity protect and enforce such lien.

(e) To increase the security and marketability of tax increment bonds, the city may create a lien for the benefit of the bondholders upon any public improvements or public works financed thereby or the revenues therefrom, or make such convenants and do any and all such acts as may be necessary or convenient or desirable in order to additionally secure such bonds or tend to make the bonds more marketable according to the best judgment of the City Council.

(f) Moneys shall be disbursed from the tax increment fund only to satisfy the claims of holders of tax increment bonds issued in aid of the urban renewal project with respect to which the fund was established, or to pay project costs. "Project costs" means any expenditure made or estimated to be made or monetary obligations incurred or estimated to be incurred by the city which are listed in an urban renewal project, plus any costs incidental thereto, diminished by any income or revenues other than tax increments, received or reasonably expected to be received by the city in connection with the implementation of such plan. Such project costs include, but are not limited to:

(1) capital costs, including, but not limited to, the actual costs of the construction of public works or improvements, new buildings, structures, and fixtures; the demolition, alteration, remodeling, repair or reconstruction of existing buildings, structures and fixtures; the acquisition of equipment; and the clearing and grading of land;

(2) financing costs, including, but not limited to, all interest paid to holders of tax increment bonds issued to pay for project costs and any premium paid over the principal amount thereof because of the redemption of such obligations prior to maturity;

(3) professional service costs, including, but not limited to, costs incurred for architectural, planning, engineering or legal services;

(4) imputed administrative costs, including, but not limited to, reasonable charges for the time spent by employees of the city in connection with the implementation of an urban renewal plan; or

(5) organizational costs, including, but not limited to, the cost of conducting studies and the cost of informing the public with respect to the creation of urban renewal projects and the implementation of project plans.

(g) Subject to any agreement with the holders of tax increment bonds, moneys in a tax increment fund may be temporarily invested in the same manner as other municipal funds.

(h) After all project costs and all tax increment bonds issued with respect to an urban renewal project have been paid or the payment thereof provided for, and subject to any agreement with bondholders, if there remain in such fund any moneys, they shall be paid over to the city and other taxing entities levying taxes on property within such project in such amounts as belong to each respectively.

(i) Tax increment bonds issued under this Act shall not be general obligations of the city, nor in any event shall they give rise to a charge against its general credit or taxing powers, or be payable other than as provided by this Act; and any tax increment bonds issued under this Act shall so state on their face.

(j) Tax increment bonds issued under this Act shall not be included in any computation of the debt of the issuing city.

(k) Tax increment bonds may not be issued in an amount exceeding the aggregate costs of implementing the urban renewal plan for the project in aid of which they were issued, and such bonds shall mature over a period not exceeding twenty (20) years from the date thereof.

Annual Report

Sec. 22d. (a) On or before July 1 each year, the City Council shall submit to the chief executive officer of every taxing entity a report on the status of such district. The report shall include the following information:

1. the amount and source of revenue in the tax increment fund established in accordance with the requirements of this Act;
2. the amount and purpose of expenditures from the fund;
3. the amount of principal and interest due on any outstanding bonded indebtedness;
4. the tax incremental base and the current captured market value retained by the project; and

(b) On or before July 1 of each year, the City Council shall cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city a statement showing:

1. the tax increment received and expended during the previous year;
2. the original market value and captured market value of all property located within the urban renewal project;
3. the amount in outstanding indebtedness incurred in aid of the urban renewal project; and
4. any additional information the City Council deems necessary.

In order to exercise such powers, the municipality must have adopted the provisions of the Texas Urban Renewal Law in the manner prescribed by such Act.

Sec. 7. This Act shall not be construed to alter or change the status, operations, contracts, or obligations of any existing urban renewal agency adopted pursuant to the Texas Urban Renewal Law, nor should any provisions of this Act be construed as to prevent the governing body of any municipality from adopting the provisions of and authority granted under the Texas Urban Renewal Law.

Art. 1269-5. Housing Rehabilitation Act

Short Title

Section 1. This Act may be cited as the Texas Housing Rehabilitation Act.

Legislative Findings

Sec. 2. The legislature finds that:

(1) a substantial amount of housing in the State of Texas is deteriorating and does not conform to accepted minimum standards applicable to structures for human habitation;

(2) deteriorating housing contributes to the decline of residential areas in urban and rural communities throughout this state, and such housing causes reductions in the taxable values of cities, counties, and other units of local government;
(8) declining residential areas require large-scale public investment to mitigate the effect of slums, health and safety problems, and retard the development of socially and economically disruptive conditions within affected communities;

(4) many owners of deteriorating housing cannot afford to make needed repairs and improvements without expending more than a reasonable portion of their incomes for housing, and some homeowners are financially unable to afford to spend any amount whatsoever to upgrade the quality of their dwellings;

(5) existing programs sponsored by public and private agencies to facilitate the rehabilitation of housing owned by persons of low and moderate income are inadequate to meet current and future needs, and a cooperative state-local government housing rehabilitation program therefore is clearly warranted; and

(6) unless the problem of deteriorating housing and other problems associated with the decline of residential areas are affirmatively addressed by the legislature, the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of such areas, as well as the citizens of the State of Texas generally, will be detrimentally affected.

Policy; Purpose

Sec. 3. It is the policy of the state and the purpose of this Act to provide a means by which the further deterioration of housing and the decline of residential areas in urban and rural communities throughout the State of Texas can be arrested and prevented. The legislature therefore declares that all of the purposes of this Act are public purposes and uses for which public money may be borrowed, expended, and loaned.

Definitions

Sec. 4. In this Act:

(1) “Borrower” means a household whose loan application is approved by a local government.

(2) “Department” means the Texas Department of Community Affairs.

(3) “Direct housing rehabilitation cost” means the amount contracted for between borrowers and contractors in a contract approved by a local government.

(4) “Fund” means the Texas Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund.

(5) “Household” means a person or persons owning housing in an area designated under this Act.

(6) “Housing” means a structure which is situated on a permanent foundation and which consists of from one to four family units used exclusively for residential purposes.

(7) “Local agency” means a nonprofit organization whose principal purpose is to improve housing conditions or a local housing authority, urban renewal agency, or other public entity.

(8) “Local government” means a county, city, town, or village.

(9) “Rehabilitation” means the repair, renovation, or other improvement of housing with the object of making such housing decent, safe, sanitary, and more habitable.

Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund

Sec. 5. (a) Funds for the implementation and administration of this Act shall be provided by the General Appropriations Act. A special account in the state treasury, to be known as the Texas Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund is hereby created. Funds appropriated by the legislature for housing rehabilitation loans, together with any funds received from other sources for the purpose of making loans under this Act, must be placed in the fund. All repayments received from borrowers for loans made from the fund, income from the transfer of interests in property acquired in connection with rehabilitation loans made from the fund, and interest earned on deposits and investments of the fund shall be credited to the fund. It is the intent of this Act that the housing rehabilitation loan fund operate as a revolving fund whereby all appropriations and payments made thereto may be applied and reapplied to the purposes of this Act.

(b) The state treasurer shall invest and disburse money from the fund upon the written authorization of the executive director of the department. The department shall administer the fund as a revolving loan fund for carrying out the purposes of this Act and may designate separate accounts in the fund and the purposes for which the accounts are to be used.

(c) Money in the fund may be used only for:

(1) financing loans made pursuant to this Act, including the administrative charge provided for in Subsection (c) of Section 12 of this Act; and

(2) paying expenses incurred by the department in connection with the acquisition or disposal of real property under this Act.

Area Rehabilitation Plan

Sec. 6. (a) In order to qualify households within its boundaries for rehabilitation loans under this Act, a local government must designate a specific area, or areas, in conformity with standards established by the department, and must prepare an area rehabilitation plan for each designated area in the form prescribed by the department.

(b) An area rehabilitation plan must provide relevant information concerning the area and must include the following elements:
(1) a description of the physical, social, and economic characteristics of the area(s);
(2) a description of housing conditions in the area(s);
(3) an assessment of the need for housing rehabilitation loans in the area(s), such assessment to be expressed in terms of numbers and characteristics of households and average and total loan amounts;
(4) a description of methods by which the local government will determine whether the rehabilitation of housing in the area(s) is economically feasible;
(5) a description of methods by which rehabilitation work will be supervised and methods by which compliance with departmental regulations governing materials, fixtures, and rehabilitation contracts will be ensured;
(6) a description of methods and procedures that will be used to enforce local housing, building, fire, and related codes, or if such codes have not been enacted, a description of methods and procedures for enforcing the standards promulgated by the department;
(7) an assessment of the need for additional public improvements and public services in the area(s), together with a description of the specific means by which these improvements and services will be provided; and
(8) a description of methods by which private investment to improve conditions in the area(s) will be encouraged.

(c) An area rehabilitation plan must be approved by resolution or order of the governing body of the local government and submitted to the department for review. The department shall determine whether the designated area meets the standards established by the department and whether the plan contains all the prescribed elements. If so, the department must accept the plan. Upon acceptance of the plan, households in the designated area are qualified to apply for housing rehabilitation loans. If an area does not meet the department's standards or a plan does not contain all the prescribed elements, the department shall return the plan to the local government with a list of deficiencies. No loans may be made within a designated area unless the deficiencies are corrected and the plan is resubmitted and accepted by the department.

Authority of the Department

Sec. 7. The department has all the powers necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this Act. The department may:

(1) acquire interests in property necessary to and in connection with the making of rehabilitation loans under this Act as set forth in Section 8 of this Act;

(2) make contracts and agreements with the federal government, other agencies of the state, any other public agency, or any other person, association, corporation, local government, or other entity in exercising its powers and performing its duties under this Act;

(3) make regulations governing the disposition or further encumbrance by the borrower of property subject to a lien in connection with a rehabilitation loan;

(4) expend funds appropriated by the legislature to employ staff and for travel, supplies, materials, and equipment or to contract for services necessary to carry out its powers and duties under this Act;

(5) provide technical assistance to local governments; and

(6) seek and accept funding from any public or private source.

Interests in Property; Disposition

Sec. 8. (a) The department may not construct residential housing, nor may the department acquire residential housing except in connection with the enforcement of a lien under this Act, and then only by a foreclosure of a mortgage, a sale under a deed of trust, or by a voluntary conveyance from a borrower in full or partial settlement of a rehabilitation loan.

(b) If the department acquires residential housing in the enforcement of a lien, it must, within six months of such acquisition, offer the housing for public sale or auction. Notice of the public sale or auction must be provided by the department by publication once each week for three consecutive weeks prior to the day of the sale or auction in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the housing is located. The notice must contain a description of the property and must specify procedures for submitting competitive bids and the time and location of the public sale or auction. The department may reject any or all bids.

(c) If a sale cannot be effected by public sale or auction, the department may enter negotiations with any party for the expeditious sale of the housing. First priority must be given to selling the housing to a purchaser that will be required to pay ad valorem taxes on the property. If it is not practicable to sell it to such a purchaser, the department shall attempt to sell it to a purchaser that is exempt from ad valorem taxes but will make payments in lieu of taxes on the property. If neither type of purchaser is available, the department may sell it to any purchaser.

Regulations and Standards

Sec. 9. (a) The department shall adopt regulations for making and servicing housing rehabilitation loans, and for the foreclosure of defaulted loans. The regulations must require that each loan be evidenced by a promissory note payable to the state and secured by a valid lien on real property in this state.

(b) The department shall establish:

(1) standards by which households within the boundaries of a local government may qualify for loans;
(2) standards and procedures for the administration of this Act by local governments and local agencies;
(3) standards for the selection of contractors and for contracts between borrowers and contractors performing rehabilitation work under this Act; and
(4) standards for materials and fixtures used in performing rehabilitation work under this Act.

(c) The department shall set minimum and maximum interest rates for loans made under this Act.

(d) The department shall adopt minimum housing, building, fire, and related code standards for application in designated areas for which a rehabilitation plan has been accepted and no such local government standards are in effect.

Administration by Department

Sec. 10. (a) The department shall audit the local administration of rehabilitation loans under this Act to determine if good faith efforts are being made to comply with the applicable area rehabilitation plan and the regulations, standards, and guidelines adopted by the department.

(b) If in any fiscal year anticipated rehabilitation loans exceed estimated available funds, the department shall allocate the estimated available funds for that fiscal year among the local governments that have filed area rehabilitation plans, taking into account the probable amount of rehabilitation loans to be made by each local government.

(c) Upon receipt of notification of approval of a loan application by a local government, the director shall authorize the state treasurer to disburse the approved amount from the fund to the local government unless:

(1) the department has found that the local government is currently not making good faith efforts to substantially comply with the applicable area rehabilitation plan or the regulations, standards, and guidelines adopted by the department; or
(2) the remaining portion of the fund allocated to the local government under Subsection (b) of this section is insufficient to allow payment of the approved amount.

Loans Eligibility

Sec. 11. (a) The department shall establish eligibility guidelines for local governments to use in determining whether households qualify for housing rehabilitation loans under this Act. In establishing these guidelines, the department shall take into account:

(1) household gross income;
(2) household income available for housing needs;
(3) household size;
(4) the value and condition of the housing to be rehabilitated; and
(5) the ability of households to compete successfully in the private housing market and to pay the amounts at which private enterprise is providing sanitary, decent, and safe housing.

(b) The department shall not approve any loan unless it finds that the benefit to an area designated pursuant to the requirements of Section 6 of this Act will exceed the financial commitment of the department and that the approval of the particular loan will be of benefit to the state and its taxpayers.

General Powers and Duties of Local Governments

Sec. 12. (a) A local government may approve or disapprove loan applications from households according to the eligibility guidelines and regulations of the department. Upon approval of a loan application, the local government shall notify the department of the amount of the approved loan.

(b) A local government shall fix the interest rate for each loan within the minimum and maximum rates established by the department and shall fix the term of each loan and any other necessary conditions pertaining to the repayment of the loan pursuant to this Act and the regulations of the department.

(c) A local government may impose an administrative charge of not more than three percent of the direct housing rehabilitation cost and may deduct the charge from the amount loaned to borrowers.

(d) A local government may contract with any public or private entity for servicing rehabilitation loans.

(e) The governing body of a local government may designate a local agency or agencies to carry out any of the powers and duties of the local government under this Act. Any power or duty that a governing body delegates to a local agency may be withdrawn by the governing body at any time.

(f) A local government engaged in housing rehabilitation under this Act shall carry on a program of general education designed to inform residents in designated areas of methods for maintaining their housing and of the availability of housing rehabilitation loans.
Loan Conditions

Sec. 13. (a) Rehabilitation loans must be used primarily to make housing comply with state, county, or municipal building, housing maintenance, fire, health, or similar codes and standards applicable to housing.

(b) No loan made under this Act may exceed an amount which, when added to all other existing indebtedness secured by the property, would exceed the market value of the rehabilitated property as determined by the local government. No loan may exceed the total of the approved direct housing rehabilitation cost together with the administrative charge provided for in Subsection (c) of Section 12 of this Act.

(c) The term of a loan made under this Act may not exceed 20 years. It must be repaid by installments and must be secured as required by this Act and the regulations of the department. The local government may allow deferment of payments or adjust the interest rate or term of the note if the borrower is unable to make the required payments.

(d) A borrower must agree that if he voluntarily destroys, moves, or relinquishes ownership of the rehabilitated housing within one year after completion of the rehabilitation, the loan is immediately due and payable, together with an interest surcharge sufficient to make the total interest paid equivalent to an amount determined by prevailing interest rates for rehabilitation loans from private sources at the time of the sale. If the local government finds that the borrower must sell due to financial hardship or similar circumstances, the interest surcharge may be waived by the local government with the consent of the department.

(e) The department may take title by foreclosure to any project where such acquisition is necessary to protect any loan previously made therefor by the department and to pay all costs arising out of such foreclosure.

Rehabilitation Contracts

Sec. 14. (a) A borrower and contractor may not enter into a contract for rehabilitation work to be financed under this Act unless the proposed contract has first been approved by the local government in accordance with standards established by the department. The local government shall supervise all work performed under the contract. The contractor is not entitled to payment until the work has been approved by the local government, and the borrower is not liable to the contractor for any work not approved by the local government.

(b) Any contract involving the expenditure of more than $3,000 for housing rehabilitation construction or other work financed by means of loan funds applied by the department may be made only after advertising in the manner provided by Chapter 163, General Laws, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1931, as amended (Article 2368a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). The provisions of Article 5180, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, relating to performance and payment bonds, shall apply to construction contracts.

Pledge of State Credit Prohibited

Sec. 15. The department shall have no power at any time to borrow money, incur pecuniary obligations, or in any manner to pledge the credit or taxing power of the State of Texas or any of its political subdivisions.

Transfer of Encumbered Property

Sec. 16. Upon sale or gift of the encumbered property, or upon the death of the borrower, the local government may, subject to approval of the department, declare all or part of any deferred payments due and payable, declare the balance of the loan due and payable, or allow the buyer, donee, or other successor in title of the borrower to assume the loan if the buyer, donor, or successor qualifies under the provisions of Section 11 of this Act. Examination for Eligibility Lists

Sec. 9. The Commission shall make provisions for open, competitive and free examinations for persons making proper application and meeting the requirements as herein prescribed. All eligibility lists for applicants for original positions in the Fire and Police Departments shall be created only as a result of such examinations, and no appointments shall ever be made for any position in such Departments except as a result of such examination, which shall be based on the applicant’s knowledge of and qualifications for fire fighting and work in the Fire Department, or for police work and work in the Police Department, as shown by competitive examinations in the presence of all applicants for such position, and shall provide for thorough inquiry into the applicant’s general education and mental ability.

An applicant who has served in the armed forces of the United States and who received an honorable discharge shall receive five (5) points in addition to his competitive grades.
Appropriate physical examinations shall be required of all applicants for beginning or promotional positions, and the examinations shall be given by a physician appointed by the Commission and paid by such city; and in the event of rejection by such physician, the applicant may call for further examination by a board of three (3) physicians appointed by the Commission, but at the expense of the applicant, whose findings shall be final. The age and physical requirements shall be set by the Commission in accordance with provisions of this law and shall be the same for all applicants.

No person shall be certified as eligible for a beginning position with a Fire Department who has reached his thirty-sixth birthday. No person shall be certified as eligible for a beginning position with a Police Department who has reached his thirty-sixth birthday unless the applicant has at least five (5) years prior experience as a peace officer. No person shall be certified as eligible for a beginning position with a Police Department who has reached his forty-fifth birthday.

All police officers and firemen coming under this Act must be able to intelligently read and write the English language.

When a fireman or policeman is given a physical examination to determine if he is physically able to continue his duties, the physician will be appointed by the Commission and paid by such city. If the physician determines that he is no longer able to continue his duties, the fireman or policeman may call for further examinations by a board of three (3) physicians appointed by the Commission, but at the expense of the fireman or policeman, whose findings shall be final.

A fireman or policeman who has been certified by a physician selected by a firemen's or policemen's relief or retirement fund as having recovered from a disability for which he has been receiving a monthly disability pension shall, with the approval of the Commission and if otherwise qualified, be eligible for reappointment to the classified position that he held as of the date that he qualified for a monthly disability pension.

D. (1) All applicants shall be given an identical examination in the presence of each other, which promotional examination shall be entirely in writing and no part of which shall be by oral interview, and all of the questions asked therein shall be prepared and composed in such a manner that the grading of the examination papers can be promptly completed immediately after the holding of the examination and shall be prepared so as to test the knowledge of the applicants concerning information and facts, and all of said questions shall be based upon material which has been made available to all members of the Fire or Police Department involved and shall be based upon the duties of the position sought and upon any study courses given by such Departmental Schools of Instruction and upon the applicant's efficiency. When one of the applicants taking an examination for promotion has completed his answers, the grading of such examination shall begin, and all of the examination papers shall be graded as they are completed, at the place where the examination is given and in the presence of any applicants who wish to remain during the grading.

(2) The grade which shall be placed on the eligibility list for each policeman applicant shall be computed by adding such policeman applicant's points for seniority and his credit based on the average of his last two (2) semi-annual efficiency reports to his grade on such written examination. Grades on such written examination shall be based upon material which has been made available to all members of the Fire or Police Department involved and shall be based upon the duties of the position sought and upon any study courses given by such Departmental Schools of Instruction and upon the applicant's efficiency. When one of the applicants taking an examination for promotion has completed his answers, the grading of such examination shall begin, and all of the examination papers shall be graded as they are completed, at the place where the examination is given and in the presence of any applicants who wish to remain during the grading.

A. All promotional examinations shall be open to all policemen and firemen who have ever held a continuous position for two (2) years or more in the classification immediately below in salary of that classification for which the examination is to be held. In fire and police departments that have adopted a classification plan that classifies positions on the basis of similarity in duties and responsibilities, all promotional examinations shall be open to a fireman or policeman who has ever held a continuous position for two (2) years or more at the next lower pay-grade, if it exists, in the classification for which the promotional examination is being offered. When there is not a sufficient number of members in the next lower position with two (2) years service in that position to provide an adequate number of persons to take the examination, the Commission may extend the examination to the members in the second lower position in salary to that for which the examination is to be held.

Promotions; Filling Vacancies

Sec. 14. The Commission shall make rules and regulations governing promotions and shall hold promotional examinations to provide eligibility lists for each classification in the Police and Fire Departments, which examinations shall be held substantially under the following requirements:

A. All promotional examinations shall be open to all policemen and firemen who have ever held a continuous position for two (2) years or more in the classification immediately below in salary of that classification for which the examination is to be held. In fire and police departments that have adopted a classification plan that classifies positions on the basis of similarity in duties and responsibilities, all promotional examinations shall be open to a fireman or policeman who has ever held a continuous position for two (2) years or more at the next lower pay-grade, if it exists, in the classification for which the promotional examination is being offered. When there is not a sufficient number of members in the next lower position with two (2) years service in that position to provide an adequate number of persons to take the examination, the Commission may extend the examination to the members in the second lower position in salary to that for which the examination is to be held.

D. (1) All applicants shall be given an identical examination in the presence of each other, which promotional examination shall be entirely in writing and no part of which shall be by oral interview, and all of the questions asked therein shall be prepared and composed in such a manner that the grading of the examination papers can be promptly completed immediately after the holding of the examination and shall be prepared so as to test the knowledge of the applicants concerning information and facts, and all of said questions shall be based upon material which has been made available to all members of the Fire or Police Department involved and shall be based upon the duties of the position sought and upon any study courses given by such Departmental Schools of Instruction and upon the applicant's efficiency. When one of the applicants taking an examination for promotion has completed his answers, the grading of such examination shall begin, and all of the examination papers shall be graded as they are completed, at the place where the examination is given and in the presence of any applicants who wish to remain during the grading.

(2) The grade which shall be placed on the eligibility list for each policeman applicant shall be computed by adding such policeman applicant's points for seniority and his credit based on the average of his last two (2) semi-annual efficiency reports to his grade on such written examination. Grades on such written examination shall be based upon material which has been made available to all members of the Fire or Police Department involved and shall be based upon the duties of the position sought and upon any study courses given by such Departmental Schools of Instruction and upon the applicant's efficiency. When one of the applicants taking an examination for promotion has completed his answers, the grading of such examination shall begin, and all of the examination papers shall be graded as they are completed, at the place where the examination is given and in the presence of any applicants who wish to remain during the grading.

(3) The grade which shall be placed on the eligibility list for each fireman applicant shall be computed by adding the fireman applicant's points for seniority to his grade on the written examination. Grades on the written examination shall be based on a maximum grade of one hundred (100) points and shall be determined entirely by the correctness of each fireman applicant's answers to the questions. The minimum passing score for the written examination is seventy (70) points.

(4) Each applicant shall have the opportunity to examine his examination and his answers thereto together with the grading thereof and if dissatisfied shall, within five (5) days, appeal the same to the Commission for review in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(5) No person shall be eligible for promotion unless he has served in such Department for at least two (2) years at any time prior to the day of such promotional examination in the next lower position or other positions specified by the Commission, and no person with less than four (4) years actual service in such Department shall be eligible for promotion to the rank of captain. Provided, however, that the requirement of two (2) years service in the Department at any time prior to the day of promotional examination shall not be applicable to those persons recalled on active military duty for a period not to exceed twenty-four (24) months. Such persons shall be entitled to have time spent on active military duty considered as duty in the Department concerned. However, any person whose absence for active military duty exceeds twelve (12) months, shall be required to serve ninety (90) days upon returning to the Department before he shall become eligible to participate in a promotional examination, such period of time to be considered essential for bringing him up to date on equipment and techniques.

(6) No person shall be eligible for appointment as Chief or Head of the Fire or Police Department of any city coming under the provisions of this Act who has not been a bona fide fire fighter in a Fire Department or a bona fide law enforcement officer for (5) years.

Crossover Promotions

Sec. 14A. (a) In any city in this state having a population of 1,200,000 or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census, all members of the police department, who shall be employed by such department with duties in a specialized technical area, to wit: (1) technical class, which includes but is not limited to criminal laboratory analysis and interpretations, and the technical criminal aspects of identification and photography, or (2) communications class, which includes but is not limited to the technical operations of police radio communications, shall be eligible for promotions within their respective classes.

(b) In no event shall the members of the technical class, communications class, or uniformed and detective class be eligible for promotion to a position outside of their respective class. This section shall be construed so as to preclude the lateral crossover by promotion of members of the technical and communications classes into the uniformed and detective class of the department; also to preclude the lateral crossover by promotion of members of the uniformed and detective class into the technical and communications classes of the department. In the event a member of one class desires to change classes, such may be accomplished upon qualification and only by entry into the new class at the lowest entry level of that class.

(c) This section shall not operate so as to prevent the chief of police, assistant chiefs of police, and deputy chiefs of police or their equivalent, by whatever name or title they may be called, from exercising the full sanctions, powers, duties, and authority of their respective offices in the supervision, management, and control over the uniformed and detective class, technical class, and communications class.

(d) All provisions of this article regarding eligibility lists, examinations, appointments, and promotions shall apply to members of the technical class and communications class, uniform class and detective class. However, said provisions shall apply only to the appointment and promotion of a member of a particular class to a new position within such class.

Purpose of Law: Hearings

Sec. 16a. It is hereby declared that the purpose of the Firemen and Policemen's Civil Service Law is to secure to the cities affected thereby efficient Police and Fire Departments, composed of capable personnel, free from political influence, and with permanent tenure of employment as public servants. The members of the Civil Service Commissions are hereby directed to administer the civil service law in accordance with this purpose; and when sitting as a board of appeals for a suspended or aggrieved employee who has invoked any review procedures under the provisions of this Act, they are to conduct such hearing fairly and impartially under the provisions of this law and are to render a fair and just decision, considering only the evidence presented before them in such hearing.

Procedure before Commission

Sec. 17. In order for a Fireman or Policeman to appeal to the Commission from any action for which an appeal or review is provided under the terms of this Act, it shall only be necessary for him to file within ten (10) days with the Commission an appeal setting forth the basis of his appeal, which in the case of an indefinite suspension shall include a statement denying the truth of the charge as made, or a statement taking exception to the legal sufficiency of such charges, and asking for a hearing by the Commission. In all hearings, appeals, and reviews of every kind and character, wherein the Commission is performing an adjudicatory function, the employee shall have the right to be represented by counsel; the witnesses may be placed under the rule. All such proceedings shall be public. The Commission shall have the authority to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum for the attendance of witnesses and for the production of documentary material. The Commission shall maintain a permanent public record of all proceedings with copies available at cost.

Appeal to District Court

Sec. 18. In the event any Fireman or Policeman is dissatisfied with any decision of the Commission, he may, within ten (10) days after the rendition of such final decision, file a petition in the District Court, asking that the decision be set aside, and such case shall be tried de novo. Such cases shall be advanced on the docket of the District Court, and shall be given a preference setting over all other cases. The court in such actions may grant such legal or equitable relief as may be appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this Act, including reinstatement or promotion with back pay where an order of suspension, dismissal, or demotion is set aside. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party and assess court costs against the nonprevailing party.

Produce Recovery Fund and Board

Sec. 6. (a) There is established a special fund with the State Treasurer to be known as the Produce Recovery Fund and to be administered by the Commissioner, without appropriation, for the payment of claims against commission merchants and dealers and for administration of the claims process under both this Act and Chapter 236, Acts of the 45th Legislature, Regular Session, 1937, as amended (Article 118b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). No more than ten percent (10%) of the fund may be expended during any one year for administration of the claims process.

(b) There is established the Produce Recovery Fund Board. The board consists of three members appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. One member appointed shall be a producer, one shall be a commission merchant licensed under this Act or Chapter 236, Acts of the 45th Legislature, Regular Session, 1937, as amended (Article 118b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and one shall be a member of the general public. Each member must reside in a different state senatorial district. In making the initial appointments, the Governor shall designate that the term of one member expires in 1979, that one expires in 1981, and that one expires in 1983. Thereafter, members serve for staggered terms of six years. The terms of office for members expire January 31 of odd-numbered years. Members of the board are entitled to per diem and reimbursement for actual expenses incurred while carrying out their duties.

(e) The Produce Recovery Fund Board shall:

(1) advise the Commissioner on all matters pertaining to the Produce Recovery Fund, including the fund's budget and the revenues necessary to accomplish the purposes of the fund;

(2) advise the Commissioner in the promulgation of rules relating to the payment of claims from the fund and to the administration of the fund; and
(d) All commission merchants, retailers whose annual sales of vegetables and citrus fruit comprise seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the retailer’s total sales and whose annual purchases of vegetables and citrus fruit exceed Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) a year, and retailers who employ buying agents who buy directly from producers shall, in addition to the license fee herein prescribed, deliver to the Commissioner, together with their application for license, a fee of Two Hundred Dollars ($200). All retailers whose annual sales of vegetables and citrus fruit comprise seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the retailer’s total sales and whose annual purchases of vegetables and citrus fruit are less than Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) shall pay a fee of Fifty Dollars ($50) in addition to the license fee required in Section 5 of this Act. The fee must be paid annually at the time application is made for licensing, and the Commissioner may not issue a license to a person who fails to pay the fee. All fees collected under this Section shall be paid into the Produce Recovery Fund.

(e) A person with whom a commission merchant deals in purchasing, handling, selling, and accounting for sales of vegetables and who is aggrieved by an action of that commission merchant as the result of a violation of terms or conditions of a contract made by that commission merchant may initiate a claim against the Produce Recovery Fund in accordance with the provisions of this Section. The aggrieved party must file with the Commissioner a sworn complaint against the commission merchant and a filing fee of Fifteen Dollars ($15). The filing fee shall be refunded if the aggrieved party is awarded recovery from the fund. The Commissioner shall conduct an investigation of the complaint and shall determine the amount due the aggrieved party. If the amount determined by the Commissioner is not disputed by the merchant or by the aggrieved party, the Commissioner shall pay the claim, within the limits prescribed in this Section, from the Produce Recovery Fund. If the amount is disputed, the Produce Recovery Fund Board shall conduct a hearing on the claim in the manner provided for contested cases under the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act (Article 6252-13a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes). After a hearing on the disputed amount, the board shall determine the amount due the aggrieved party and the Commissioner shall pay the aggrieved party that amount, within the limits prescribed in this Section, from the Produce Recovery Fund. A party not satisfied with the decision of the board may appeal that decision in the manner provided under the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act (Article 6252-13a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

The total payment of all claims arising from the same transaction may not exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000). The total payment of claims against a single commission merchant may not exceed Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) in any one year.

(g) If the Commissioner pays a claim against a commission merchant, the Commissioner is subrogated to all rights of the aggrieved party against that merchant to the extent of the amount paid to the aggrieved party.

(h) If the Commissioner pays a claim against a commission merchant, the merchant must either reimburse the fund immediately or agree in writing to reimburse the fund on a schedule to be determined by rule of the Commissioner. In addition, the commission merchant must either pay the aggrieved party immediately the amount due him or agree in writing to pay the aggrieved party on a schedule to be determined by rule of the Commissioner. The payments made to the fund and to the aggrieved party shall include interest at the rate of eight percent (8%) a year. If the commission merchant does not reimburse the fund or pay the aggrieved party, or does not agree in writing to do so, or defaults on a scheduled payment, the Commissioner shall cancel his license and may not issue a new license to that commission merchant for four years from the date of cancellation. If the merchant is a corporation, no officer or director, and no person owning more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the stock in that corporation, may be licensed as a commission merchant under this Act during the four-year period in which the corporation is ineligible for licensing. An individual or corporation who is ineligible for licensing under this Act is ineligible for licensing as a commission merchant, dealer, or contract dealer under Chapter 236, Acts of the 45th Legislature, Regular Session, 1937, as amended (Article 118b, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), during the period of ineligibility.

(i) The Commissioner may not pay any claim against a commission merchant who was not licensed at the time of the transaction on which the claim is based and he may not pay any claim against a cash dealer.

(j) Payments from the Produce Recovery Fund during a fiscal year may not exceed the amount of payments into the fund during that fiscal year, except that surplus funds remaining at the end of each fiscal year may be credited to the funds available for the payment of claims during any succeeding year.
(k) With the advice of the Produce Recovery Fund Board, the Commissioner shall promulgate rules, consistent with this Act, for the payment of claims from the Produce Recovery Fund.

(a) any party aggrieved, injured or damaged by virtue of any violations of the terms and provisions of this Act by any licensee or by the transporting or buying agent of any licensee hereunder, may file with the Commissioner or his duly authorized agent or employee a verified complaint, setting out the specific violations complained of. The complaint must be filed within twelve (12) months from the date of the act that injured the complaining party.

(b) The Commissioner shall set a date not more than ten (10) days from the receipt of such complaint for the hearing thereof; and notify the person complained of, furnishing him with a copy of such complaint, by registered mail to the last known address of such person.

(c) The Commissioner may, at his discretion, recess the hearing provided for in this Section from day to day if in his discretion the ends of justice demand such continuance; for the purpose of said hearings the Commissioner shall have the authority to summon witnesses; to inquire into matters of fact; to administer oaths, and to issue the subpoena duces tecum, for the purpose of obtaining any books, records, instruments, or writing, and other papers pertinent to the investigation at hand.

(d) Upon the conclusion of said hearing and the introduction of all evidence by the respective parties thereto, the Commissioner shall make his decision on the basis of the evidence introduced therein, and shall, if the evidence warrants, issue his order canceling the license of the person complained of.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 8 and 9]

Publication of List of Licenses

Sec. 9a. The Commissioner may publish as often as he considers necessary a list in pamphlet form of all persons licensed under this Act.

Expiration and Renewal of License; Identification Cards; Contents; Return

Sec. 12. (a) Any license issued hereunder will authorize the licensee and none other, to engage in the business as a dealer for one year from date of issuance, at which time said license shall expire and become null and void. Any license issued to applicant under the provisions of this Act, which expired by its own terms, may be renewed upon completion of a renewal application and payment to the Commissioner of Agriculture of the proper license fee as provided for the original issuance thereof. Said license and the identification cards hereinafter provided shall not be assignable and any attempt to assign same shall void such license or identification card. Upon application to the Commissioner by any licensed dealer, a reasonable number of “buying agent” and “transporting agent” identification cards may be issued and credited to such dealer, under such rules and regulations as said Commissioner may prescribe, and said Commissioner is hereby empowered to charge a fee not to exceed One Dollar ($1) for each card so issued.

The Commissioner shall take such action and hold such public hearing as in his judgment are shown to be necessary after such investigations, and shall take the proper action with reference to the cancellation or suspension of the license of any dealer hereunder shown to have been guilty of a violation of the terms of this Act. Such hearings shall be held in the county where violations are alleged to have occurred. Any order made by the Commissioner with reference to the revocation or cancellation of any license granted under the provisions of this Act, shall be subject to review by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) If a person who has received at least 15 days’ notice of an order of the Commissioner refuses to comply with that order, the Commissioner may seek temporary or permanent relief to require compliance. The district court has jurisdiction to grant this relief.

Abolition of Office

Sec. 2. A county which has established an office of county budget officer may abolish such office only by formal action of the commissioners court taken after February 1 and before June 1, at which time the county auditor shall assume all lawful responsibilities as the chief budget officer of the county.

Preparation of Budget

Sec. 3. Such budget shall be carefully itemized so as to make possible as clear a comparison as practicable between expenditures included in the proposed budget and actual expenditures for the same or similar purposes for the preceding year. The budget shall be so prepared as to show with reasonable accuracy each of the various projects for which appropriations are set up in the budget and the estimated amount of money carried in the budget for each of such projects.

Contents of Budget

Sec. 4. The county budget officer shall obtain from the county auditor the necessary information so that the budget will contain a complete financial statement of the county showing all outstanding obligations of the county, the cash on hand to the credit of every and each fund of the county government, the funds received from all sources during the previous year, the funds and revenue estimated by the auditor to be received from all sources during the previous year, the funds and revenue estimated by the auditor to be received from all sources during the ensuing year, together with a statement of all accounts and contracts on which sums are due to or by the county as of December 31 of the year preceding, except taxes and court costs.

Public notice shall be given that on the date of said hearing the budget as prepared by the county budget officer will be considered by the commissioners court. Said notice shall name the hour, the date, and the place the hearing shall be conducted and shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in said county. Any taxpayer of such county shall have the right to be present and participate in said hearing. At the conclusion of the hearing, the budget as prepared by the county budget officer shall be acted upon by the commissioners court. The court shall have authority to make such changes in the budget as in its judgment the facts and the law warrant and the interest of the taxpayers demand, provided the amounts budgeted for current expenditures from the various funds of the county shall not exceed the balances in said funds as of January 1, plus the anticipated revenue for the current year for which the budget is made as estimated by the county auditor.

Filing of Budget Upon Final Approval

Sec. 7. Upon final approval of the budget by the commissioners court, a copy of such budget as approved shall be filed with the county auditor, the clerk of the court, and the state auditor, and no expenditures of the funds of the county shall thereafter be made except in strict compliance with said budget. Said court may upon proper application transfer an existing budget surplus during the year to a budget of like kind and fund, but no such transfer shall increase the total of the budget.

Obtaining Necessary Information

Sec. 8. In the preparation of the budget, the county budget officer shall have authority to require of any district, county, or precinct officer of the county such information as may be necessary to properly prepare the budget.

CHAPTER FOUR A. FAMILY DISTRICT COURTS [NEW]

Art. 1926a. Family District Court Act

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Short title
Sec. 1.01. This Act may be cited as the Family
District Court Act.

Purpose
Sec. 1.02. (a) This Act substitutes district courts of general jurisdiction, to be called family district courts, for the existing domestic relations courts and special juvenile courts. It also restructures existing juvenile boards in certain counties and provides for the future creation and organization of juvenile boards in other counties. Subchapter A contains general provisions applicable to all family district courts, now or later created, and Subchapter B creates the new family district courts. Subchapter C contains temporary provisions.

(b) This Act is designed so that future legislatures may create new family district courts by adding a section to Subchapter B without repeating the general provisions of Subchapter A relating to jurisdiction, terms, personnel, facilities, and administration of all family district courts.

Jurisdiction
Sec. 1.03. (a) A family district court has the jurdiction and power provided for district courts by the constitution and laws of this state. Its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of other district courts in the county in which it is located.

(b) A family district court shall have primary responsibility for cases involving family law matters.
These matters include but are not limited to:

1. adoptions;
2. birth records;
3. divorce and marriage annulment;
4. child welfare, custody, support and reciprocal support, dependency, neglect, and delinquency;
5. parent and child; and
6. husband and wife.

(c) This Act does not limit the jurisdiction of other district courts nor relieve them of responsibility for handling cases involving family law matters.

Terms of Court
Sec. 1.04. The terms of a family district court begin on the first Monday in January and the first Monday in July of each year. Each term of court continues until the next succeeding term begins.

Judge
Sec. 1.05. (a) A family district court judge's qualifications and term of office are the same as those prescribed by the constitution and laws of this state for district judges. A family district court judge is elected in the same manner as a district judge.

(b) A family district court judge is entitled to the same compensation and allowances provided by the state and county for the other district judges in his county.
Sec. 1.06. (a) Each family district court judge may appoint an official court reporter. The reporter must have the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and is entitled to the same compensation, fees, and allowances provided by law for other official court reporters in the county.

(b) The district attorney, criminal district attorney, or county attorney, and the sheriff and district clerk shall serve each family district court in his county in the same manner he serves the district court or courts of his county.

c) The commissioners court of the county in which a family district court is located shall provide the physical facilities and the deputy clerks, bailiffs, and other personnel necessary to operate the family district court.

County Juvenile Board

Sec. 1.07. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, when a family district court is created in a county, that county's juvenile board is composed of the county judge, the family district court judge or judges, the district judge or judges whose jurisdiction includes the county, and the judges of all other courts in the county having jurisdiction over juvenile matters. Except in counties where there is only one family district court judge, the members of the juvenile board shall select a family district court judge to serve as chairman of the board. The juvenile board has the powers and duties prescribed by law.

(b) The juvenile board shall appoint a chief juvenile probation officer who shall serve as the chief administrative officer of the family district court at the pleasure of the juvenile board. Subject to approval of the juvenile board, the chief juvenile probation officer shall select as many assistant probation officers and other personnel as are necessary to perform the duties assigned him by the juvenile board.

c) The commissioners court may compensate juvenile board members for their duties performed on the juvenile board beyond such compensation as is otherwise provided for by law, and this compensation is in addition to all other compensation paid by the state or county to district, family district, and county judges. On recommendation of the juvenile board, the commissioners court shall also:

1) fix the compensation of the chief juvenile probation officer and the members of his staff; and
2) provide the physical facilities necessary to operate the juvenile board.

d) The creation of a family district court in a county also creates a juvenile board in that county if one does not exist.

(c) This Act does not affect the composition or organization of any juvenile board existing on the effective date of the Act, except that the judges of the courts of domestic relations and of the juvenile courts are replaced by the family district court judges.

Judicial Retirement

Sec. 1.08(b).1 Each judge, at his option, may pay into the State Treasury no less than six percent plus interest of that salary that would have been paid to him had he been paid by the state for his full tenure on any court of domestic relations or special juvenile court. Upon such payment and the compliance with the transfer herein provided the judge will be given full credit for such tenure toward state judicial retirement.

In addition for such full credit to apply, any judge of the family district court who elects to secure credit in the judicial retirement system pursuant to this section shall forfeit all rights to any county and district retirement system other than the reserves for the additional funds, if any, paid by the county to such judge over and above the amount of state salary paid to district judges by the state, for the tenure for which credit is sought. Such county and district retirement systems shall transfer to the judicial retirement system all sums credited to the account of such judge except the amount paid in for such additional salary, if any, whether paid by the judge or by the employer, plus accumulated interest thereon, in such county and district retirement system. Such sum paid into the judicial retirement system by any county and district retirement systems shall be first applied against the judges' required six percent payment herein set out and any remainder shall remain in the General Revenue Fund.

"The purpose of this Act is to improve the administration of justice in county courts, in view of the problems inherent in the crowded condition of the dockets of constitutional county courts, in the numerous and diverse nature of other nonjudicial duties devolving upon county judges, and in the fact county judges are not required to be licensed attorneys although confronted by questions of increasing legal complexity."

The courts shall, by rule, designate and set out the qualifications of and duties to be performed by the court manager and coordinators to improve criminal justice and expedite the processing of criminal cases through the county courts. The court manager and coordinators in each such county shall cooperate with state agencies having duties in the operation of the courts to promote uniform and efficient justice in the state. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to diminish the statutory duties and powers conferred on the clerk of the court, sheriff, district attorney, or any officer of the court. The court manager and coordinators shall serve by and at the pleasure of the courts, and shall receive reasonable compensation, to be determined by the judges of the courts, not more than 60 percent for the court manager and 50 percent for the coordinators of the salary paid to the judges of the courts. McLennan County

Art. 1970-298d. County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County

Sec. 1. The County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County is created on the date determined by the provisions of Section 11 of this Act.

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County has jurisdiction in all matters and causes, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, over which by the general laws and constitution of the state the county court of the county would have jurisdiction, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of McLennan County and the County Court at Law of McLennan County. This provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the commissioners court, or of the county judge as presiding officer of the commissioners court, as to roads, bridges, and public highways, and matters that are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the county judge as presiding officer. The county judge of McLennan County shall be the judge of the County Court of McLennan County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of McLennan County, except insofar as the same shall by this Act be committed to the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County.

(b) The County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest, as provided by general law.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County or its judge has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, and supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court or tribunal inferior to that court. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts.

Sec. 4. (a) The judges of the county court and the county courts at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts. However, no case may be transferred from one court to another court without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(b) The county judge and the judges of the county courts at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or in a county court at law and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of either court may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending.

(c) In cases transferred to either of the courts by order of the judge of one of the other courts, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases, as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases, shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 5. The terms of the County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County shall be held on the first Mondays in January, March, May, July, September, and November in each year, and each term of the court shall continue in session until and including the Saturday next preceding the beginning of the next succeeding term. The practice in the court, and appeals and writs of error therefrom, shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to county courts.

Sec. 6. Regardless of whether the court is created prior to January 1, 1979, beginning at the general election in 1978 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters in McLennan County, for a term beginning on January 1 following each election, a judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County, who shall be a qualified voter in the county, who shall be a regularly licensed attorney at law in this state, who shall be well informed in the laws of this state, who shall have resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in this state or as the judge of a court for a period of not less than five years next preceding such general election, and who shall hold his office until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.
Sec. 7. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Sec. 8. A special judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County may be appointed or elected when and under such circumstances as are provided by law relating to county courts and to the judges thereof, who shall receive for each day he actually serves the same compensation as provided for a special judge of the County Court at Law of McLennan County, to be paid out of the general fund of the county by the commissioners court.

Sec. 9. The clerk of the County Court of McLennan County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County. The seal of the court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts except that the seal shall contain the words "Clerk of the County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County." The sheriff of McLennan County shall in person or by deputy attend the court when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 10. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County is authorized to appoint an official shorthand reporter for the court. A person is eligible for appointment who is well skilled in his profession. On appointment the reporter is to serve as a sworn officer of the court, holding his office at the pleasure of the court.

(b) The reporter is not required to take testimony in a case unless a party to the case or the judge demands that testimony be taken. In cases in which the reporter is required to take testimony, the court clerk shall tax a $3 fee as costs in the case. The clerk shall deposit fees collected under this section in the treasury of McLennan County. The reporter shall be available for matters being considered in the county court if a reporter is requested by the litigants before that court and the request is approved by the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County.

(c) The reporter may receive the same compensation as the official shorthand reporters of the district courts in McLennan County, which compensation is to be paid in the same manner as is the compensation of the official shorthand reporters of the district courts in McLennan County. The county judge, the county auditor, the commissioners court, and any other officials of McLennan County charged with preparing and approving the county budget are authorized to amend the budget of McLennan County to provide for paying compensation to the reporter.

(d) Except where inconsistent with this Act, all general laws relating to court reporters apply to the official court reporter of the County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County.

Sec. 11. Any vacancy in the office of the judge of the court created by this Act shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of McLennan County until the next general election. The County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County is created on January 1, 1979, or on a date determined by the commissioners court by an order entered in its minutes, whichever date is earlier. If the court is created prior to January 1, 1979, the commissioners court shall appoint a judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County, who shall serve for a term ending on December 31, 1978, and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified.

Sec. 12. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County shall assess the same fees as are or may be established by law relating to county judges, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and be paid monthly by him into the county treasury, and the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County may receive an annual salary equal to the annual salary of the judge of the County Court at Law of McLennan County, payable monthly out of the county treasury by the commissioners court.

Upon concurrence of the judges of the county courts at law and the county judge, jurors may be summoned for service in all of those courts and shall be used interchangeably in all of those courts.

Equalization of case load shall be the primary objective in establishing the initial case docket for the county court at law.

(b) On the transfer of all cases specified in Subsection (a) of this section to the county court at law, and in cases transferred to any of the courts in Webb County by order of the judge of another court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. However, the judge of either court may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending. CHAPTER SEVEN. THE JURY

Art. 2101. Interchangeable Juries

The provisions of this article shall be applicable only to such counties of this State as may now maintain three or more district courts, or in which three or more district courts may be hereafter established. A criminal court in any county with jurisdiction in felony cases shall be considered a district court within the meaning of this article. The "Interchangeable Jury Law" shall not apply to a selection of jurors in lunacy cases or in capital cases.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 5]

6. A. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, in a county in which two district courts have jurisdiction, both district judges may meet together at such times as they may agree upon and determine approximately the number of jurors that are reasonably necessary for jury service in the district courts of the county for each week for as many weeks in advance as they deem proper, and may order the drawing of such number of jurors for each of said weeks, which jury is known as the general panel of jurors for service in both district courts for the respective weeks for which they are designated to serve. Both judges shall act together in carrying out the provisions of this section. They may increase or diminish the number of jurors to be selected for any week and may order the jurors drawn for as many weeks in advance of service as they deem proper. From time to time they shall designate the judge to whom the general panel shall report for duty, and the designated judge, for the time he is chosen to act, shall organize the jury and have immediate supervision and control of them. The jurors, after being regularly drawn from the wheel, shall be served by the sheriff to appear and report for jury service before the judge so designated, who shall hear the excuses of the jury and swear them in for service for the week that they are to serve to try all cases that may be submitted to them in either of the district courts. The jurors, when impaneled, constitute a general jury panel for service as jurors in both district courts in the county and shall be used interchangeably. In the event of a deficiency of jurors at any given time to meet the requirement of either court, the judge having control of the general panel shall order such additional jurors to be drawn from the wheel as may be sufficient to meet the emergency, but such jurors shall act only as special jurors and shall be discharged as soon as their services are no longer needed. Resort to the wheel shall be had in all cases to fill out the general panel.
Art. 2101

COURTS—PRACTICE IN DISTRICT AND COUNTY

3. JURY FOR THE WEEK

Art. 2122. Pay of Jurors

(a) Each grand juror and each petit juror in a civil or criminal case in a district or criminal district court, county court, county court at law, or justice court is entitled to receive not less than $5 nor more than $30 for each day or fraction of a day that he serves as a juror. The commissioners court of each county shall determine annually, within the minimum and maximum prescribed in this subsection, the amount of per diem for jurors, which shall be paid out of the jury fund of the county. A person who responds to the process of a court, but who is excused from petit jury service by the court for any cause after being tested on voir dire, is entitled to receive not less than $5 nor more than $30 for each day or fraction of a day that he attends court in response to such process.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of (b)]

4. THE JURY IN COURT

Art. 2133. Qualifications

All persons both male and female eighteen years of age or older are competent jurors, unless disqualified under some provision of this chapter. No person shall be qualified to serve as a juror who does not possess the following qualifications:

1. He must be a citizen of the State and of the county in which he is to serve and qualified under the Constitution and laws to vote in said county.
2. He must be of sound mind and good moral character.
3. He must be able to read and write, except as otherwise provided herein.
4. He must not have served as a juror for six (6) days during the preceding six (6) months in the District Court, or during the preceding three (3) months in the County Court.
5. He must not have been convicted of a felony.
6. He must not be under indictment or other legal accusation of theft or of any felony.

A person who is legally blind is not disqualified to serve as a juror in a civil case solely by reason of his legal blindness, but is subject to a challenge for cause in a civil case unless, in the opinion of the court and all parties to the suit and the prospective juror, his legal blindness does not render him unfit to act as a juror in that particular case. If a party to the suit challenges a prospective juror by reason of his legal blindness, it shall not count as one of that party's peremptory challenges.

Wherever it shall be made to appear to the court that the requisite number of jurors able to read and write cannot be found within the county, the court may dispense with the exception provided for in the third subdivision; and the court may in like manner dispense with the exception provided for in the fourth subdivision, when the county is so sparsely populated as to make its enforcement seriously inconvenient.

Where the word "he" is used in this Section it shall be used in the generic term so as to include both male and female persons.

In this Article, "legally blind" shall mean having not more than 20/200 of visual acuity in the better eye with correcting lenses, or visual acuity greater than 20/200 but with a limitation in the field of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees.

Art. 2194a. Bringing Meals into Jury Room

(a) Whenever the judge deems it advisable, in order to expedite the final disposition of any district court civil case for which a jury is empaneled, to keep the jury together for deliberation rather than to dismiss it for meals, he shall have the power to draw a warrant on the jury fund or other appropriate fund of the county in which the case is being tried, to cover the cost of buying meals and bringing same into the jury room. However, not more than Three Dollars ($3) may be spent per meal for any juror.

Any person, corporation, partnership, or other legal entity having a valid claim against a person or corporation for services rendered, labor done, material furnished, overcharges on freight or express, lost or damaged freight or express, or stock killed or injured or suits founded upon a sworn account or accounts, or suits founded on oral or written contracts, may present the same to such persons or corporation or to any duly authorized agent thereof; and if, at the expiration of 30 days thereafter, payment for the just amount owing has not been tendered, the claimant may, if represented by an attorney, also recover, in addition to his claim and costs, a reasonable amount as attorney’s fees. The provisions hereof shall not apply to contracts of insurers issued by insurers subject to the provisions of the Unfair Claim Settlement Practices Act (Article 21.21-2, Insurance Code), nor shall it apply to contracts of any insurer subject to the provisions of Article 3.62, Insurance Code, or to Chapter 287, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957, as amended (Article 3.62-1, Vernon’s Texas Insurance Code), or to Article 21.21, Insurance Code, as amended, or to Chapter 9, Insurance Code, as amended, and each such article or chapter shall be and remain in full force and effect.

Art. 2338-1d. Master in Domestic Relations Court in Counties Over 1,500,000

Matters Referred to a Master

Sec. 2. If the judge of a court of domestic relations in such county or any successor court thereto deems it advisable, he may appoint a master and refer to the master any civil case involving motions of contempt for failure or refusal to pay child support, temporary support, or separate maintenance; motions for failure or refusal to comply with court orders concerning visitation with children growing out of separate maintenance and divorce actions; motions for changes of conservatorships; motions for revision of child-support payments; and motions for revision of visitation privileges.

Powers

Sec. 3. (a) In all cases designated in Section 2 of this Act, the judge of a court of domestic relations in a county of more than 1,500,000 population or any successor court thereto may authorize the master to hear evidence, to make findings of fact thereon, to formulate conclusions of law, and to recommend judgment to be entered in such cases. In all cases referred to the master, the order of reference may specify or limit the powers of the master and may direct him to report only on particular issues, or to do or perform particular acts, or to receive and report on evidence only, and may fix the time and place for beginning and closing hearings and for filing reports.

(b) Subject to the limitations and specifications stated in the order, the master shall have the power to regulate all proceedings in every hearing before him and to do all acts and take all measures necessary and proper for the efficient performance of his duties under the order. He may require the production of evidence before him on all matters embraced in the reference, and he may rule on the admissibility of evidence, unless otherwise directed by the order of reference. He has the authority to issue summons for the appearance of witnesses and to swear the witnesses for the hearing and may examine them himself. Sec. 4. On the conclusion of the hearing in each case, the master shall transmit to the referring judge all papers relating to the case, together with his findings and a statement that notice of his findings and of the right to a hearing before the judge has been given to all adult principals, minors, or parents, guardians, or custodians of any minor whose case has been heard by the master. This notice may be given at the hearing or otherwise as the referring court directs.

Disposition by Referring Judge

Sec. 5. After it is filed, the referring court may adopt, modify, correct, reject, or reverse the master's report or recommit it for further information as the court may deem proper and necessary in the particular circumstances of the case. Where judgment has been recommended, the court in its discretion may approve the recommendation and hear further evidence before rendition of judgment.

Hearing by Judge upon Request

Sec. 6. Adult principals or a minor child or his parents, guardians, or custodians are entitled to a hearing by the judge of the referring court if within three days after receiving notice of the findings of the master they file a request with the court for a hearing. The referring court may allow the hearing at any time.

Failure to Request Hearing

Sec. 7. If no hearing before the judge of the referring court is requested or the right to such hearing is waived, the findings and recommendations of the master become the decree of the court when adopted by an order of the judge.

Notice of Hearing by Master

Sec. 8. Prior to the hearing by the master, the parties litigant shall be given due notice as provided by law of the time and place of the hearing.

Jury Trial

Sec. 9. In any proceeding where a jury trial has been demanded, the master shall refer the case back to the referring court for a full hearing before the court and jury, subject to the usual rules of the court in such cases.

Appointment of Master not Mandatory

Sec. 10. Nothing in this Act shall be interpreted to require any judge of a court of domestic relations to appoint a permanent or standing master to serve in such court.

(g) With the approval of the board of directors, the president may appoint a credit manager to serve in lieu of the credit committee. The credit manager, if so appointed, shall supervise the making of loans to members and shall have the same powers, duties, rights, and prerogatives extended the credit committee under the provisions of this section. A credit union may have only one credit manager, who may be the same person as the president.

Art. 2461-5.06. Compensation and Bond

(a) No director may receive compensation, directly or indirectly, for serving as a director or committee member. Directors may receive reimbursement for actual expenses incurred in carrying out their duties.

(b) The board of directors shall purchase from a surety company authorized to do business in this state a blanket security bond covering all officers, employees, members of official committees, attorneys at law, and other agents of the credit union to protect the credit union against loss caused by the failure of a person to faithfully perform his duties.

Art. 2461-5.07. Audits

(a) The board of directors shall make or cause to be made a comprehensive annual audit of the books and affairs of the credit union, in accordance with established principles and regulations promulgated by the commissioner, and shall submit a summary of the audit to the members of the credit union at the next annual membership meeting. The board shall report the results of the audit to the department. The board of directors shall make or cause to be made any supplementary audits or examinations that it deems necessary. The board of directors shall make or cause to be made verifications of the accounts of the members with the records of the credit union if required by regulations promulgated by the commissioner.

(b) If the representative examiners from the department find that the board of directors is not acting in accordance with this Act and the regulations issued under it, the commissioner may appoint an independent committee from outside the credit union and its membership to perform an audit, the costs and expenses of which are borne by the credit union.

Art. 2461-5.08. Misconduct and Penalties for Misconduct

(a) No person may demand or receive, directly or indirectly, any bonus, commission, or other consideration on account of the making of a loan or investment or the purchase of any asset by a credit union.

(b) Any officer, director, committee member, loan officer, or employee of a credit union who knowingly permits a loan to be made to a nonmember or participates in a loan to a nonmember commits a Class B misdemeanor. Additionally, the offender is primarily liable to the credit union for the amount illegally loaned. The illegality of the loan is no defense in any action of the credit union to recover on the loan. Extension of credit to a nonmember for the sale of real or personal property owned by the credit union or for the sale of assets acquired in liquidation or repossess shall not be construed as a loan to a nonmember.

(c) Any officer, director, committee member, loan officer, or employee of a credit union, or any person who knowingly permits or participates in a loan in violation of this Act, the bylaws of the credit union, or rules and regulations of the commissioner, other than a loan in violation of Subsection (b) of this section, commits a felony of the third degree.

Art. 2461-5.09. Officers, Directors, and Employees; Cease and Desist; Removal; Appeal

(a) The commissioner may find that an officer, director, or employee of a credit union, or the credit union itself, acting through any authorized person, has:

1. violated the provisions of this Act or any other law or regulation applicable to credit unions;
2. refused to comply with the provisions of this Act or any other law or regulation applicable to credit unions;
3. willfully neglected to perform duties, or committed a breach of trust or fiduciary duty;
4. committed any fraudulent or questionable practice in the conduct of the credit union's business which endangers the credit union's reputation or threatens its solvency;
5. refused to submit to examination under oath;
6. conducted business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner; or
7. violated any conditions of its charter or of any agreement entered with the commissioner or the department.

(b) If the commissioner makes any of these findings, he shall give notice in writing to the credit union and the offending officer, director, or employee, stating the particular violations or practices found. The commissioner shall call a meeting of the directors of the credit union and lay before them the findings and demand a discontinuance of the violations and practices found.

(c) If the commissioner finds that an order to cease and desist is necessary and in the best interest of the credit union involved and its depositors, creditors, and members, then at the directors' meeting above provided or within 30 days thereafter the commissioner may serve the officer, director, or employee with an order to cease and desist from the violations or practices enumerated in the order and to take such affirmative action as may be necessary to correct the conditions resulting from the violations or practices. The cease and desist order is effective immediately if the commissioner finds that immediate and irreparable harm is threatened to the credit union, its depositors, or members; otherwise, the order shall state the effective date, not less than 10 days after delivery or mailing of the notice. Unless the credit union or directors file a notice of appeal with the commissioner within 10 days after the delivery or mailing of notice, whichever is the case, the order of removal is effective and final as of the date of suspension, and the person removed may not hold office, be employed by, or participate in the affairs of the credit union. A copy of the order shall be entered in the minutes of the directors, and an officer shall acknowledge receipt of the order and certify to the commissioner that the person has been removed from office.

(d) If the commissioner subsequently finds by examination or other credible evidence that the offending officer, director, or employee has committed violations or practices previously charged and found by the commissioner, after notice and demand made under Subsection (b) of this section, and further finds that removal from office or employment is necessary and in the best interest of the credit union and its depositors, creditors, and members, then the commissioner may serve the officer, director, or employee with an order of removal. The order shall state the grounds for removal with reasonable certainty and shall effect immediate suspension from office or employment. Unless the credit union, the director, or the person removed files a notice of appeal with the commissioner within 10 days after the delivery or mailing of notice, whichever is the case, the order of removal is effective and final as of the date of suspension, and the person removed may not hold office, be employed by, or participate in the affairs of the credit union. A copy of the order shall be entered in the minutes of the directors, and an officer shall acknowledge receipt of the order and certify to the commissioner that the person has been removed from office.

(e) If the person removed files a timely appeal, the commissioner shall set a time and place for hearing the appeal, giving reasonable notice to the person removed. The commission may adopt any rules or procedures necessary to govern the fair hearing and adjudication of the questions appealed.

(f) If, after a cease and desist order or an order of removal becomes effective and final, a credit union or its board of directors or any duly authorized officer of the credit union fails or refuses to comply with an order, then the commissioner may, after giving notice, assess a civil penalty against the credit union in an amount not to exceed $100 for each day the credit union is in violation of the order. If a credit union fails to pay the penalty assessed, the commissioner may institute a suit for collection of the civil penalty in a district court of Travis County. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

CHAPTER 6. CAPITAL ACCOUNTS

Art. 2461-6.01. Capital

The capital of a credit union consists of the aggregate amount of the share and deposit accounts of its members plus all reserves and undivided earnings of the credit union. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]
Art. 2461-6.02. Share Accounts

(a) Share accounts consist of payments made by members on shares, all of which are common shares of one class, subscribed, paid for, and transferred in the manner prescribed by the bylaws.

(b) Without qualifying any other statutory right to a setoff or lien, and subject to any contractual provisions accepted by the credit union, a credit union has a lien on the shares or deposits of a member for any sum due to the credit union from the member or for any loan endorsed by the member.

(c) The credit union may require 60 days' notice for withdrawal of shares.

Art. 2461-6.03. Deposit Accounts

Deposit accounts, if any, are operated in accordance with the policies and conditions prescribed by the board of directors.

Art. 2461-6.04. Thrift Club Accounts

Christmas clubs, vacation clubs, and other thrift programs, if provided for the use of members, are operated in accordance with the policies and conditions prescribed by the board of directors.

Art. 2461-6.05. Multiple-party Accounts

(a) A member may designate any person, organization, association, corporation, or partnership to hold shares, deposits, and thrift club accounts with the member in joint tenancy. One or more of the joint tenants may make deposits and withdrawals subject to the terms of a multiple-party account agreement accepted by the credit union. A credit union shall maintain all multiple-party account agreements as a permanent part of the records pertaining to multiple-party accounts. At least one party to a multiple-party account must be a member of the credit union in which the account is established. No joint tenant, unless also a member, may vote, obtain loans, or hold office in the credit union. Payment of part or all of a multiple-party account to any one or more of the joint tenants discharges, to the extent of the payment, the liability of the credit union to all.

(b) The net contribution of a party to a multiple-party account as of any given time is the sum of all deposits or shares made by or for the party, less all withdrawals made by or for the party which have not been paid to or applied to the use of any other party, plus a pro rata share of any interest or dividends included in the current balance. The net contribution includes, in addition, any share or deposit of life insurance proceeds added to the account by reason of the death of the party whose net contribution is in question. During the lifetime of all parties to a multiple-party account, unless the multiple-party account agreement with the credit union provides otherwise, sums on deposit or in share accounts may be paid on the demand of one or more parties even though it is presumed that sums on deposit or in share accounts belong to the parties in proportion to the net contributions by each to the sums on deposit or in share accounts. Unless the multiple-party account agreement with the credit union provides otherwise, and in the absence of satisfactory proof of the net contributions, those who are parties from time to time shall be presumed to own the joint account in equal undivided interests.

(c) The death of any party to a multiple-party account has no effect on the beneficial ownership of the account, other than to transfer the decedent's right in the account to the estate of the decedent, unless the account is a survivorship account or trust account established in accordance with the laws and with the constitution of this state and the bylaws of the credit union. Nothing in this Act otherwise prevents a credit union from operating the account in accordance with the terms of the multiple-party account agreement.

(d) A multiple-party account payable to two or more persons, jointly or severally, that does not expressly provide that there is a right of survivorship, is presumed to be a nonsurvivorship account.

(e) Without qualifying any other statutory right to a setoff or lien, and subject to any contractual provisions accepted by the credit union, when a party to a multiple-party account is indebted to a credit union, the credit union has a right to set off against the entire amount of the account.

(f) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as in conflict with the laws of the United States or of the State of Texas as those laws govern the taxation of multiple-party accounts.

Art. 2461-6.06. Minor Accounts

A credit union may issue shares or deposits in the name of a minor, and a minor may withdraw the shares or deposits. Payments made on withdrawals by a minor are valid. A minor may vote in the meetings of the members if permitted by the bylaws, except no minor may vote through his parent or guardian. No minor is eligible for any office or committee membership within the credit union unless the bylaws specify otherwise.

Art. 2461-6.07. Trust Accounts
A credit union may issue shares or deposits in the name of a member in trust for a beneficiary, including a minor, but no beneficiary, unless the beneficiary is also a member, may vote, obtain loans, hold office, or be required to pay an entrance fee. Payment of part or all of the shares or deposits to a member shall, to the extent of the payment, discharge the liability of the credit union to the member and the beneficiary, and the credit union shall be under no obligation to see the application of the payment. If a member to whom shares or deposits are issued or held in trust dies, and the credit union has no other written evidence of the existence or terms of any trust, the credit union shall pay the shares or deposits and any dividends or interest to the beneficiary or to the legal representative of the beneficiary; otherwise, the credit union shall administer and distribute the shares or deposits so issued or held under the provisions of the trust agreement, a copy of which must remain on file with the credit union until termination of the trust. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-6.08. Third Party Claims
No credit union organized under the laws of this state, nor any federal credit union domiciled in this state is required to recognize the claim of any third party to the shares or deposits, or to withhold payment of any shares or deposits to the depositor or to the order of the depositor, unless and until the credit union is served with citation or other appropriate process issuing out of a court of competent jurisdiction in connection with a suit instituted by the third party for the purpose of recovering or establishing an interest in the deposit or share account. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Chapter 7. Loans

Art. 2461-7.01. Purpose, Terms, and Interest Rate
If made in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner, a credit union may make loans to members for such purposes and on such security and terms as the credit committee, credit manager, or loan officer approves, at rates of interest not exceeding one percent per month on the unpaid monthly balance. Every loan must be evidenced by a written instrument. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-7.02. Loan Limit
No credit union may make a loan or aggregate of loans to any one member in an amount greater than ten percent of the unimpaired capital and surplus of the credit union. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-7.03. Line of Credit
The credit committee, an authorized loan officer, or the credit manager may approve in advance a line of credit, and may grant advances to a member within the limit of the extension of credit. If a line of credit has been approved, no additional loan applications are required if the aggregate obligation does not exceed the limit of the extension of credit. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-7.04. Participation Loans and Other Loan Programs
(a) A credit union may participate in loans to members jointly with other credit unions, corporations, or financial organizations.
(b) A credit union may participate in guaranteed loan programs of the federal and state governments. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-7.05. Loans to Officials
(a) A credit union may make loans and extend lines of credit to its directors, employees, loan officers, credit manager, and to members of its credit committee, if:
   (1) the loan complies with the requirements of this Act with respect to loans to other borrowers and is not on terms more favorable than those extended to other borrowers; and
   (2) the board of directors approves the loan, if the loan or aggregate of outstanding loans to any one person is greater than $2,500, plus pledged shares and deposits.
(b) A credit union may permit a director, employee, loan officer, credit manager, and member of its credit committee to act as co-maker, guarantor, or endorser of a loan to another member, unless the loan standing alone or added to any outstanding loan or loans to the co-maker, guarantor, or endorser exceeds $2,500, plus pledged shares and deposits, in which case approval of the board of directors is required. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-7.06. Prepayment Privilege
Any loan may be prepaid in whole or in part, without penalty, during regular working hours on any day on which the credit union is open for business. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Chapter 8. Investments

Art. 2461-8.01. Investment of Funds
A credit union may invest funds not used in loans to members:
   (1) in capital shares, obligations, participation certificates, or preferred stock issues of any agency, association, or company organized either as a stock company, mutual association, membership corporation, or trust company, if the membership or ownership of the agency, association, or company is confined or restricted to credit unions and their members or organizations of credit unions, and if the agency, association, or company is designed to serve or otherwise assist credit union operations; in loans to any credit union association or corporation, national or state, of which the credit union is a member; and investments in any one agency, association, or company of the type described in this subsection may not exceed an aggregate amount of five percent of the credit union’s total assets or the amount of its reserve fund, whichever is less;

(2) in obligations of the State of Texas or any of its political subdivisions;

(3) in certificates of deposit or passbook accounts issued by a state or national bank, or issued by a building and loan association or a savings and loan association, subject to regulations promulgated by the commissioner;

(4) in securities, obligations, participations, or other instruments of, issued by, or fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by, the federal government or any of its agencies, or in any trust or trusts established for investing directly or collectively in the same;

(5) in loans to other credit unions in an amount not to exceed 25 percent of the total dollar amount of the capital of the lending credit union, or to any trust or trusts established for lending directly or collectively to credit unions;

(6) in purchases from any liquidating credit union, in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner, of notes or certificates of deposit of the lending credit union at such prices as may be agreed to by the commissioner, or by the liquidating agent or board of directors of the liquidating credit union and the board of directors of the purchasing credit union.

CHAPTER 9. RESERVE ALLOCATIONS; DIVIDENDS; SHARE REDUCTION

Art. 2461–9.01. Reserve Allocations

(a) The commissioner shall, with the approval of the commission, promulgate rules and regulations prescribing reserve allocations and requiring credit unions to maintain any reserves necessary to protect the interests of their members.

(b) The reserve fund belongs to the credit union. The credit union shall use its reserve fund to meet all losses except those resulting from an excess of expenses over income. The credit union may not distribute its reserve fund except on liquidation of the credit union or in accordance with a plan approved by the department. The board of directors may increase, or if the fund equals or exceeds the percentage established by regulations promulgated under this Act, may decrease the proportion of the gross income to be placed in the reserve fund, and may transfer part or all of the undivided earnings to the reserve fund.

Art. 2461–9.02. Dividends

The board of directors of a credit union may declare a dividend from undivided earnings in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner.

Art. 2461–9.03. Share Reduction

When the losses of any credit union, resulting from a depreciation in value of its loans or investments or otherwise, exceed its undivided earnings and reserve fund and the estimated value of its assets is less than the total amount due the shareholders, the credit union may, by a majority vote of the entire membership, order a reduction in shares of each of its shareholders to divide the loss proportionately among the members. If the credit union later realizes from its assets a greater amount than was fixed by the order of reduction, the credit union shall divide the excess among the shareholders whose assets were reduced, but only to the extent of the reduction.

CHAPTER 10. CHANGE IN CORPORATE STATUS

Art. 2461–10.01. Suspension

(a) If the commissioner finds that the capital of a credit union is seriously impaired, or that it is conducting its affairs in an unsafe, unauthorized, or unlawful manner, or that it refuses to submit to examination, the commissioner may take possession of the property and business of the credit union and retain possession until the commissioner permits it to resume business or orders its liquidation. Simultaneously, the commissioner shall cause notice of suspension to be given to the board of directors and shall call for a hearing within 10 days, at which hearing the board of directors may show cause why the suspension should not be continued or the credit union should not be liquidated. The board of directors may waive this hearing.
Art. 2461-10.02. Liquidation

(a) When the commissioner finds that the interests of depositors and creditors of a credit union are seriously jeopardized through insolvency or imminent insolvency and that it is to the best interest of the depositors and creditors that the credit union be closed and its assets liquidated, the commissioner may close and liquidate the credit union.

(b) Unless involuntary liquidation has already been initiated by the commissioner, a majority of the credit union members present at a meeting specially called to consider the matter, but not less than a quorum, may vote to dissolve and liquidate the credit union if a notice of the special meeting was mailed to the members of the credit union at least 10 days prior to the meeting. Immediately after the mailing of a notice of a special meeting called to consider the matter of liquidation, the credit union shall cease to operate except for the purposes of accepting payments on loans or other obligations due the credit union. If the vote to dissolve and liquidate the credit union passes, the credit union may do no further business except that incidental to liquidation. The chairman of the board or the president and the secretary shall, within five days following the meeting and the affirmative vote to dissolve and liquidate, notify the department of intention to liquidate and shall include a list of the names of the directors and officers of the credit union together with their addresses. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, the commissioner may appoint a liquidating agent to act for the board of directors of the credit union in liquidation if it is found that it is to the best interests of the depositors and creditors to do so.

(c) At any time within five days after the commissioner has closed any credit union under the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section or has appointed a liquidating agent to act for the board of directors under the provisions of Subsection (b) of this section, the credit union acting through its directors may sue in the district court of the county in which the credit union is located to enjoin the commissioner from liquidating the credit union. The court may, without notice or hearing, restrain the commissioner from liquidating the assets of such credit union pending hearing of the suit on the merits, and shall, in that event, instruct the commissioner to hold the assets of the credit union in the commissioner’s possession pending final disposition of the suit. The commissioner may, with approval of the court, take such actions as may be necessary or proper to prevent loss or depreciation in the value of the assets. The court shall, as soon as possible, hear the suit on the merits and shall enter a judgment either enjoining the commissioner from liquidating the assets of the credit union or refusing to issue an injunction. Appeal shall lie from the judgment as in other civil cases, but the commissioner, irrespective of the character of judgment entered by the trial court or of any supersedeas bond filed, shall retain possession of the assets of such credit union pending final disposition on appeal.

(d) The credit union in liquidation shall continue in existence for the purpose of discharging its debts, collecting and distributing its assets, and doing all acts required in order to wind up its business, and may sue and be sued for the purpose of enforcing such debts and obligations until its affairs are fully adjusted. The board of directors or the liquidating agent shall use the assets of the credit union to pay:

1. expenses incidental to liquidation including any surety bond that may be required;
2. any liability due nonmembers;
3. depositors;
4. thrift club accounts as provided in this Act; and
5. distributions to members proportionate to the shares held by each member as of the date liquidation was voted.

(e) A liquidating agent may, subject to the control and supervision of the commissioner and under the rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner:

1. receive and take possession of the books, records, assets, and property of the credit union in liquidation; sell, enforce collection of, and liquidate all assets and property; compound all bad or doubtful debts; sue in the name of the liquidating agent or in the name of the credit union in liquidation; and defend actions brought against the liquidating agent or against the credit union;
2. receive, examine, and pass on all claims against the credit union in liquidation, including claims of members on shares;
3. make distribution and payment to creditors and members as their interests may appear; and
4. execute such documents and papers and do such other acts and things that the liquidating agent may deem necessary or desirable to discharge his duties.

(f) Subject to the control and supervision of the commissioner and under the rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner, the board of directors or liquidating agent of a credit union in liquidation shall:

(1) cause notice to be given to creditors and members to present and make legal proof of their claims, which notice must be published once a week in each of three successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in each county where the credit union in liquidation maintained an office or branch for the transaction of business on the date it ceased unrestricted operations; except that when the aggregate book value of the assets and property of the credit union in liquidation is less than $10,000, the commissioner shall declare the credit union in liquidation to be a "no publication" liquidation, and publication notice to creditors and members is not required in such case;

(2) from time to time make a ratable liquidation dividend on all claims that have been proved to the satisfaction of the board of directors or the liquidating agent or adjusted in a court of competent jurisdiction and, after the assets of the credit union have been liquidated, make further liquidation dividends on all claims previously proved or adjusted (the statement of any amount due to the creditor as shown on the books and records of the credit union may be accepted in lieu of a formal proof of claim on behalf of any creditor or member); but all claims not filed before payment of the final dividend are barred; claims rejected or disallowed by the board of directors or by the liquidating agent are also barred unless suit is instituted within three months after notice of rejection or disallowance; and

(3) in a "no publication" liquidation, determine from all sources available, and within the limits of available funds of the credit union, the amounts due to creditors and members, and after 60 days have elapsed from the date of notification to the department of a voluntary liquidation or from the date of appointment of the liquidating agent distribute the funds of the credit union to creditors and members ratably and as their interests may appear.

(g) The commissioner shall prescribe the certificate to be completed by the liquidating agent or by the board of directors attesting to liquidation, that distribution has been made and that liquidation has been completed. The commissioner, on receipt and approval of the certificate, shall cancel the charter of the credit union. The corporate existence of the credit union shall continue for a period of three years from the date of cancellation of its charter, during which period the liquidating agent, or any duly appointed successor, or such persons as the commissioner may designate, may act on behalf of the credit union for the purpose of paying, satisfying, and discharging any existing liabilities or obligations, collecting and distributing its assets, and doing all other acts required to adjust and wind up its business and affairs, and it may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

(h) No liquidating agent, officer, director, or employee of a credit union in liquidation may acquire any of the assets of the credit union or purchase any loans of the credit union. None of these persons may obtain from the liquidation any compensation or profit for personal benefit, whether directly, indirectly, for the benefit of any member of the person's family or any person associated with the person, or for the benefit of any business enterprise with which the person is associated, except for the credit union in liquidation. The liquidating agent may receive such reasonable compensation as may be set forth in the contract of employment, and nothing in this Act shall prevent compensation of the liquidating agent or those salaried employees and salaried officers of the credit union during the pendency of the liquidation, which payments shall be considered expenses incidental to liquidation. Any person who participates in a violation of this subsection commits a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000 and not less than $100, or by confinement in jail for not more than six months, or both.

Art. 2461–10.03. Merger

(a) A credit union may, with the approval of the department, merge with any other credit union under the existing charter of the other credit union, pursuant to a plan agreed to by the majority of the board of directors of each credit union joining in the merger and approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of each credit union present at the meetings of members called for that purpose. The commissioner may waive the requirement that the plan be approved by a majority of the members of the credit unions.

(b) After agreement by the directors and approval by the members of each credit union, the president and secretary of each credit union shall execute a certificate of merger containing the following information:

(1) the time and place of the meeting of the board of directors at which the plan of merger was agreed to;

(2) the vote of the board of directors in favor of and against the adoption of the plan;

(3) a copy of the resolution or other action by which the plan of merger was agreed to;

(4) the time and place of the meeting of the members at which the plan was approved;
Art. 2461-10.04. Conversion

The commissioner shall promulgate regulations to permit the conversion of a credit union organized under this Act to a federal credit union, and the conversion of a federal credit union to a credit union organized under this Act.

Art. 2461-11.04. Vacancies

In the event of the death, resignation, or removal of a member of the commission, or if a member ceases to have the qualifications necessary to original appointment, the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, shall appoint a qualified person to fill the unexpired term.

Art. 2461-11.05. Expenses of Members

Art. 2461-11.06. Meetings

In the event the State Depository, as designated in the preceding Article, shall elect to deposit said pledged securities, above mentioned, with the State Treasurer, the said securities shall be delivered to the Treasurer and receipted for by him, and retained by him in the vaults of the State Treasury. Provided, however, that such bank so designated as depository shall have the option, instead of depositing said pledged securities with the State Treasurer, of depositing same with another State or National Bank situated in the State, subject to the approval of the Board; said securities to be held in trust by said custodian bank to secure funds deposited by the State Depository in the State Depository bank. Upon the receipt of said securities, said custodian bank shall immediately issue and deliver to the State Treasurer controlled trust receipts for said securities pledged to the State Treasurer. The security evidenced by such trust receipts shall be subject to inspection by the Board or its agents at any time deemed advisable by said Board. Said custodian bank shall have a capital stock and permanent surplus of not less than Five Hundred Thousand ($500,000.00) Dollars, and said bank designated as depository shall itself defray the charges, if any, of such custodian bank for accepting and holding said securities.

A State Depository bank shall also have the option of depositing said pledged securities with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas; such securities to be held by said Bank to secure funds deposited by the State Treasurer in the State Depository bank. When such pledged securities are so deposited and subject to the approval of the Board, the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas may apply book entry procedures to the pledged securities so held. The records of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas shall at all times reflect the name of the State Depository bank for whose account the pledged securities are so deposited, and an Advice of Transaction shall be issued by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas to the State Treasurer and the State Depository bank.

A custodian bank, holding in trust securities of a State Depository bank pledged to secure funds deposited by the State Treasurer in the State Depository bank, as provided above, shall also have the option of depositing said pledged securities with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas provided that the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas is the third party to the transaction; such securities to be held by said Federal Reserve Bank to secure funds deposited by the State Treasurer in the State Depository bank. When such pledged securities held by a custodian bank are so deposited, and, subject to the approval of the Board, the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas may apply book entry procedures to the pledged securities so held. The records of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas shall at all times reflect the name of the custodian bank for whose account the pledged securities are so deposited, and an Advice of Transaction or other document evidencing each deposit of securities shall be issued by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas to the custodian bank. The custodian bank shall immediately issue and deliver to the State Treasurer controlled trust receipts for said pledged securities. The trust receipt shall reflect that the custodian bank has deposited with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas the pledged securities held in trust for the State Depository bank.

Subject to the approval of the Board, a State Depository may have the right to substitute one group of securities for another group of securities pledged with the State Treasurer, when and as such State Depository may desire to make such substitution, so long as the securities desired to be substituted by such bank shall come within the classification of securities acceptable under the terms of this Act.

If, in any case, or at any time, such bonds or other securities are not satisfactory security, in the opinion of the Board, for the deposits made under this Act, they may require such additional security to be given as will be satisfactory to them. Said Board shall, from time to time inspect such bonds and see that the same are actually kept in the vaults of the State Treasury and in said custodian banks. If the pledged securities are deposited with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, the Board shall conduct such audits and inspections of the records of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas as may be reasonably necessary to verify the existence of and proper accounting for said pledged securities. In the event that any State Depository shall fail to pay deposits or any part thereof on the check of the Treasurer, he shall have the power to forthwith realize upon such bonds or other securities deposited by said bank, and disburse the money arising therefrom, according to law, upon the warrants drawn by the Comptroller upon the funds for which said bonds or other securities were secured. Any bank making deposits of bonds or other securities with the Treasurer under the provisions of this Act may cause such bonds or other securities to be endorsed or stamped, as they may deem proper, so as to show that they are deposited as collateral and not transferable, except as herein provided.

Upon request of the owner or owners, the Treasurer or custodian bank may surrender interest coupons or other evidence of interest when due on securities deposited by depository banks, provided, said securities are ample to meet the requirements of the State.

Whenever any private bank now organized as provided for by the private banking laws of Texas should seek to become a depository for State funds or any other governmental agency, it shall agree in writing to submit itself to examination as to its solvency.

All funds received by the State Treasurer under the provisions of this Article or from the escheat of any deposit, credit, account or other property held by any bank or other institution covered by Section 1(a) hereof shall be deposited into a separate fund to be known as the "State Conservator Fund," from which there shall be set aside and maintained a revolving expense fund of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) for the purpose of paying expenses incurred by the State Treasurer in the enforcement of the provisions of this Article, including the expense of publications, forms, notices, examinations, travel, and employment of necessary personnel; and thereafter any amounts remaining unpaid to owners shall be transferred to the Available School Fund; provided that the State Conservator Fund shall never be reduced below Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000). Art. 3737g. Advance Payment to Tort Claimants; Introduction of Evidence

Purpose of Act

Sec. 1. The purpose of this Act is to promote the making of advance payments for economic loss to claimants without permitting the introduction of evidence of advance payments on the issue of liability or damages during subsequent litigation, but permitting the allowance of advance payments as a credit against any sum judicially established as a claimant’s total damages. The making of periodic payments to claimants for medical expenses, wages lost, and property damaged, often without taking any form of release, will avoid delays in and promote payments for economic loss to persons in need.
"Advance Payment" Defined

Sec. 2. In this Act, "advance payment" includes but is not limited to, any partial payment or payments made by any person, corporation, or insurer to another which is predicated on possible tort liability for medical, surgical, hospital, or rehabilitation services, facilities, or equipment; loss of earnings; out-of-pocket expenses; bodily injury; death; or property damage, loss, or destruction.

Inadmissibility of Evidence of Advance Payment at Trial

Sec. 3. In any civil action in which a party or someone on his behalf, such as his insurer, has made an advance payment prior to trial, any evidence of or concerning the advance payment shall be inadmissible at the trial on liability or damages in any action brought by the claimant, his survivor, or his personal representative to recover damages for personal injuries or related damages, for wrongful death of another, or for property damage or destruction.

Admissibility of Evidence of Advance Payment after Verdict or Decision; Right to Jury Trial Undenied

Sec. 4. If an action results in a jury verdict or decision of the court for damages in favor of a party, the party against whom the verdict or decision is entered may introduce evidence of advance payments after the verdict or decision and before final judgment, and the court shall then reduce the amount awarded to the claimant by the amount of the advance payment proved to have been made prior to trial. Such advance payments shall not be permitted as a reduction of the amount awarded unless there is evidence at the trial on liability that the party to whom the advance payments were made suffered loss as described in Section 2 herein, equal to or exceeding the amount of such advance payments. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to deny to any party his constitutional right to trial by jury on the amount of the credit at a time subsequent to the trial on liability and damages.

Application of Act

Sec. 5. This Act applies to any action filed after the effective date of this Act, regardless of the site of the accident, location of property, or residence of the parties.

Statute of Limitations Tolled

Sec. 6. The making of an advance payment tolls the running of the statute of limitations until the last payment is made unless the person making the advance payment notifies the recipient in writing at the time of each payment that the applicable statute of limitations is not tolled. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 962, ch. 364, §§ 1 to 6, eff. June 19, 1975.]
Art. 3810. Sales Under Deed of Trust

All sales of real estate made under powers conferred by any deed of trust or other contract lien shall be made in the county in which such real estate is situated. Where such real estate is situated in more than one county then notices as herein provided shall be given in both or all of such counties, and the real estate may be sold in either county, and such notice shall designate the county where the real estate will be sold. Notice of such proposed sale shall be given by posting written notice thereof at least 21 days preceding the date of the sale at the courthouse door of the county in which the sale is to be made, and if the real estate is in more than one county, one notice shall be posted at the courthouse door of each county in which the real estate is situated.

In addition, the holder of the debt to which the power is related shall at least 21 days preceding the date of sale serve written notice of the proposed sale by certified mail on each debtor obligated to pay such debt according to the records of such holder. Service of such notice shall be completed upon deposit of the notice, enclosed in a postpaid wrapper, properly addressed to such debtor at the most recent address as shown by the records of the holder of the debt, in a post office or official depository under the care and custody of the United States Postal Service. The affidavit of any person having knowledge of the facts to the effect that such service was completed shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of service. Such sale shall be made at public vendue between the hours of 10:00 a. m. and 4:00 p. m. of the first Tuesday in any month.

Section 2 of the 1975 amendatory act provided: "This Act shall become effective on January 1, 1976, and it shall apply only to sales made after that date."

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1 to 6]

Inspection Fee

Sec. 7. (a) For the purpose of administering the Texas Commercial Feed Control Act of 1957, including the cost of equipment and facilities and the cost of inspecting, analyzing, and examining commercial feed manufactured for sale, sold, offered or exposed for sale or otherwise distributed in this state, and the expense of experiments and research relative to the value thereof, persons engaged in the manufacture, sale, or distribution of commercial feeds or other components of commercial feeds shall pay to the Director, at his office in College Station, Texas, an inspection fee of Twelve Cents (12¢) per ton on all such commercial feed. With the approval of the Board of Regents of The Texas A & M University System, the Director may reduce or increase the inspection fee in increments of one cent (1¢) per fiscal year, as needed, to a minimum of Ten Cents (10¢) or a maximum of Twenty-five Cents (25¢) per ton. The inspection fee herein levied shall be deposited in the State Treasury and shall there be set apart as a special fund to be known as the Feed Control Fund, and shall be used with the approval and consent of the Board of Directors of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas for the purposes stated in this Section 7(a) of this Act.

(b) The procedure for paying the inspection fee shall, subject to the approval and consent of the Director, be either by the use of tax tags (or certificates) or by means of the tonnage reporting system or by a combination of both such procedures, and shall, in addition to regulations which the Director is herewith authorized to issue, be in compliance with all the provisions of this Act.

(c) When the inspection fee is to be paid by the use of the tax tag (or certificate) on any commercial feed which is manufactured for sale, sold, or offered for sale, or otherwise distributed in this state, the manufacturer or any other person who causes it to be manufactured for sale or who sells the same or offers it for sale or makes delivery or distribution of any such commercial feed within the State of Texas, shall affix to each container or package of such commercial feed, except customer-formula feed, and to the invoice of such customer-formula feed distributed in bulk or otherwise, and to the invoice of each lot of such other commercial feed distributed in bulk, a tag (or certificate), to be furnished by the Director, stating that all charges specified in this Article have been paid, and containing the information provided for in Section 6 of this Act. The Director is hereby authorized, empowered, and directed to prescribe the form and denomination of such tags and certificates; provided, however, that if at any time the actual cost to the Feed Control Service of tags (or certificates), including the printing and handling thereof, should be in excess of fifty percent (50%) of the amount of the inspection fee as provided in this Section 7, the Director may, after giving reasonable notice in such manner as he deems desirable, charge all persons who cause commercial feed to be manufactured, sold, exposed, or offered for sale or otherwise distributed, for the total actual cost of such tags (or certificates) in addition to the inspection fee; and provided further, that on individual containers of five (5) pounds or less, a manufacturer or other person may for each state fiscal year (September 1st to August 31st, inclusive) or any fractional part thereof, pay in advance a fee of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for each brand of commercial feed manufactured for sale, sold, offered for sale or otherwise distributed in this state, and such manufacturer or other person shall not be required to affix official tags (or certificates) to such containers of the brands of commercial feed so registered.

(d) When the inspection fee is to be paid by means of the Tonnage Reporting System, the Director is authorized, at his discretion and under such rules and regulations as he may promulgate, to prescribe and furnish such forms and to require the filing of such reports, and shall issue permits bearing a number assigned by the Director on application therefor to any person who manufactures, sells, offers for sale, or who otherwise distributes or has available for distribution in this state, regardless of the manner, means or circumstances as to its entry, presence or existence within this state, any commercial feed. Each applicant for the issuance of a permit must deposit with the Director cash in the amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) or securities acceptable to and approved by the Director of a value of at least One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), or must post with the Director a surety bond payable to the State of Texas in the amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), executed by a corporate surety company authorized to do business in Texas and approved by the Director, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the provisions of this Article; or must post with the Director a bond with at least two good and sufficient and solvent personal sureties, payable to the State of Texas in the amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) and approved by the Director, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the provisions of this Article. Each such bond shall be in such form and be effective for such period of time as the Director may prescribe. In addition to all other provisions of this Act, each person who is issued a permit to sell, offer for sale, or otherwise distribute commercial feed and pay the inspection fee in accordance with the tonnage reporting system shall:

(1) Maintain and furnish such records as the Director may require to reflect accurately the total tonnage of all feed handled, and the portion of such tonnage that is sold, offered for sale, or otherwise distributed as commercial feed and is subject to the inspection fee. The Director or his duly authorized representatives shall have permission to examine the records of the permittee at all reasonable times. All records shall be preserved and retained in usable condition, and shall be available for examination by the Director or his representatives for a period of not less than two (2) years unless otherwise authorized by the Director, and the Director may require the retention of such records for a period of more than two years in instances where it is deemed desirable to do so.

(2) File in the office of the Director at College Station, Texas, within thirty (30) days after the close of each quarter year ending with the last day of November, February, May, and August, sworn reports covering the tonnage of all feed sold during the preceding quarter together with the payment of tax due for such quarter. A penalty of ten per cent (10%) of any tax which is not paid within the time allowed shall be added to the amount of the tax due, and the amount of the tax and the penalty shall constitute a debt, and shall be recoverable out of the bond hereinbefore referred to; provided that the Director may, if he deems it desirable to do so, require additional reports for the purpose of identification and verification of records.

(3) When located outside of the State of Texas and when distributing commercial feed in the State of Texas, maintain in the State of Texas the records and information required by this Section 7(d) of this Act or pay all costs incurred in the auditing of records at a location outside of the state. The Director is authorized and directed to revoke the permit and cancel all registrations of any permittee who fails to comply with this requirement. Itemized statements of costs incurred in any such audits shall be furnished the permittee by the Director promptly upon completion of any such audit, and he must pay the same within thirty (30) days from the date of such statement.

(4) Affix to each container or package of such commercial feed, except customer-formula feed, and to the invoice of each lot of commercial feed, except customer-formula feed, sold or otherwise distributed in bulk a printed statement setting forth the information provided for in Section 6(a) and (b) of this Act.

(5) Affix to the invoice of each customer-formula feed sold or otherwise distributed a statement setting forth the information provided for in Section 6(c) of this Act.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 4.06(a) and (b)]

(c) The Commission may deny a dealer application to establish a dealership if the same line-make of new motor vehicle is then represented in the county in which the proposed dealership site is located, or in an area within 25 miles of the proposed dealership site, by a dealer who is in compliance with his franchise agreement with the manufacturer or distributor, is adequately representing the manufacturer or distributor in the sale and service of its new motor vehicles, and no good cause is shown for an additional dealer license in the public interest.

SUBCHAPTER E. PROHIBITIONS

Manufacturers; Distributors; Representatives

Sec. 5.02. It shall be unlawful for any manufacturer, distributor or representative to:

(1) Require or attempt to require any dealer to order, accept delivery of or pay anything of value, directly or indirectly, for any motor vehicle, appliance, part, accessory or any other commodity unless voluntarily ordered or contracted for by such dealer.

(2) Refuse or fail to deliver in reasonable quantities and within a reasonable time after receipt of an order to a dealer having a franchise agreement for the retail sale of any motor vehicles sold or distributed by such manufacturer, distributor, or representative, any new motor vehicle or parts or accessories to new motor vehicles as are covered by such franchise if such vehicle, parts or accessories are publicly advertised as being available for delivery or are actually being delivered; provided, however, this provision is not violated if such failure is caused by acts of God, work stoppage or delays due to strikes or labor disputes, freight embargoes or other causes beyond the control of the manufacturer, distributor, or representative.

(3) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, terminate or refuse to continue any franchise with a dealer unless (A) the dealer and the Commission have received written notice sixty days before the effective date thereof setting forth the specific grounds for termination or noncontinuance and (B) if the dealer files a protest with the Commission, it is established by a preponderance of evidence at a hearing called by the Commission that there is good cause for the termination or noncontinuance. The Commission shall consider all the existing circumstances in determining good cause, including without limitation the dealer's sales in relation to the market, the dealer's investment and obligations, injury to public welfare, adequacy of service facilities, equipment, parts and personnel of the dealer and other dealers of new motor vehicles of the same line-make, whether warranties are being honored, and compliance with the franchise agreement. Good cause shall not be shown solely by a desire for further market penetration. If a franchise is terminated or not continued, another franchise in the same line-make will be established within a reasonable time unless it is shown to the Commission that the community or trade area cannot reasonably support such a dealership. If this showing is made, no dealer license shall be thereafter issued in the same area unless a change in circumstances is shown.

(4) Use any false, deceptive or misleading advertising, as defined in Section 17.12 of the Business and Commerce Code, as amended.

(5) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, prevent any dealer from changing the capital structure of his dealership or the means by or through which he finances the operation thereof, provided that the dealer meets any reasonable capital requirements agreed to by contract of the parties.

(6) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, fail to give effect to or attempt to prevent any sale or transfer of a dealer, dealership or franchise or interest therein or management thereof unless it is shown to the Commission after hearing that the result of such sale or transfer will be detrimental to the public or the representation of the manufacturer or distributor.

(7) Require or attempt to require that a dealer assign to or act as an agent for any manufacturer, distributor or representative in the securing of promissory notes and security agreements given in connection with the sale or purchase of new motor vehicles or the securing of policies of insurance on or having to do with the operation of vehicles sold.

(8) Fail, after complaint and hearing, to perform the obligations placed on the manufacturer in connection with the delivery, preparation and warranty of a new motor vehicle as provided in the manufacturer's warranty, preparation, and delivery agreements on file with the Commission.

Art. 4413(47b). Energy Development Act of 1977

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act shall be known as “The Texas Energy Development Act of 1977.”

Declaration of Policy

Sec. 2. The legislature finds and declares that:

(1) Texas, the largest producer and consumer of energy among the 50 states, currently relies on oil and gas to supply at least 98 percent of its energy needs. Texas and the United States have less than 10 years' supply of oil and gas reserves based on current rates of production.

(2) Although an end to federal price controls on oil and gas would stimulate greater development of oil and gas supplies, the rapid depletion of these fossil fuels is inevitable.

(3) The nation and the state must develop known resources of more plentiful fuels and begin the shift to total reliance on alternate abundant energy resources.

(4) Development of alternative energy technologies is both an expensive and risky activity which often discourages adequate funding by private sources alone. Precedent exists for government involvement in research, development, and demonstration of new technologies.

(5) While the major responsibility for energy research, development, and demonstration lies with the federal government, federal programs will often overlook projects of regional or state significance in order to concentrate on national priorities. Federal programs often bypass competent local research facilities in preference to federal laboratories or contractors.

(6) Other states have been able to attract federally funded energy development projects with the use of matching funds or seed money. Texas is interested in competing with these other states to secure such projects.

(7) The most effective development of alternate technologies depends on the close cooperation and coordination among federal, state, and local governments and private participants. Such coordination can be enhanced through the planning, programming, and implementation of a state energy development fund.

(8) Funding of energy research and development under this Act should concentrate on technologies which offer the realistic promise of significant energy contributions within 25 years and which are of particular importance to Texas.

Definitions

Sec. 3. In this Act:

(1) “Fund” means the Energy Development Fund created by this Act.

(2) “Board” means the Energy Development Fund Board.

(3) “Person” means an individual, corporation, association, organization, business trust, or any other legal entity.

Creation of the Energy Development Fund

Sec. 4. The Energy Development Fund is created in the state treasury and is composed of funds provided by legislative appropriation, not to exceed $5 million, plus such additional funds as are received from other sources in accordance with Section 7 of this Act. The fund is created to support research in and development of solar, geothermal, lignite, biomass, wind, conservation, and other alternate abundant energy resource technologies. Expenses incurred in the administration of this Act shall be payable out of the fund at a level not to exceed 10 percent of the total appropriated.

Creation of the Energy Development Fund Board

Sec. 5. There is created an Energy Development Fund Board which shall consist of the members of the Texas Energy Advisory Council.

Administration of the Fund

Sec. 6. (a) The board shall administer the fund.

(b) The board shall promulgate a plan for the development of alternative energy technologies. Such a plan shall prescribe detailed regulations for: submission and solicitation of proposals, evaluation and selection of proposals by an impartial group of technical experts, the disbursement of contracted funds, project cost accounting, and project reporting requirements. Such a plan shall be published within 60 days of the effective date of this Act. Within 90 days thereafter, the board shall adopt the plan following public hearing and appropriate review.

(c) The board may contract with universities, nonprofit institutions, and other persons that meet the criteria for funding adopted by the board.

Additional Sources of Funding

Sec. 7. The board may receive funds from private or public sources for the purposes of this Act.

Initial Appropriation

Sec. 8. There is hereby appropriated to the Energy Development Fund from the General Revenue Fund the sum of $1,500,000.

Effective Date

Sec. 9. This Act shall take effect on September 1, 1977.

Policy

Sec. 2. It is the declared policy of the state to:

(a) protect, develop, and utilize, and, where feasible, restore or enhance the natural resources of the state for present and future generations;
(b) protect private and public property rights; and

Natural Resources Council

Sec. 3. (a) The Natural Resources Council shall be composed of 16 voting members. If and at such time as the University of Houston System shall be created by the legislature, the membership of the NRC shall be increased to 17 voting members. Each of the following shall be represented on the NRC by one voting member:

(9) Texas Forest Service.

(c) The governor shall chair the NRC. The governor may designate a full-time alternate to chair the NRC in his stead. Such alternate shall hold no state office or state employment other than as a member of the governor’s staff. Such designee shall have the same voting power as the governor when chairing the NRC as the governor’s alternate.

(d) In addition to the governor, the voting members of the NRC and the nonvoting delegates to it shall be as follows:

(1) Each agency or university system which is both listed in Section 3(a) of this Act and governed by an appointive board or commission shall be represented on the NRC by an eligible member of such board or commission who shall be designated by the governor and who shall serve at the governor’s pleasure. Only those board or commission members who do not serve as ex officio members of their respective boards or commissions shall be eligible to be designated by the governor for service on the NRC. Each such designated representative on the NRC may name an alternate representative from among the eligible members of the board or commission he represents to serve in his stead on the NRC.

(2) The commissioner of agriculture and the attorney general shall represent themselves, or be represented by their respective designees.

(8) Only a representative given voting power by this section, or that person's designee chosen in accordance with this section, shall have voting power on the NRC.
(e) A member of the NRC or delegate to the NRC who is unwilling or unable to continue in such capacity shall be replaced respectively by a member or delegate selected in the same manner as the member or delegate replaced.

(f) While on the business of the NRC, both the voting members of and the nonvoting delegates to the NRC shall be considered as on the business of the respective agencies, university systems, elected officials, or other bodies they represent.

(g) The governor is empowered to employ for the NRC a staff director and such other staff as he may deem necessary, to serve at the pleasure of the governor. In order to minimize additional expense to the taxpayers of the state, NRC staff requirements shall be minimized insofar as practicable by making maximum use of existing state agency personnel.

(h) Meetings of the NRC shall be held quarterly. In addition, a meeting of the NRC shall be held at the call of the governor, or upon written request of a majority of the members of the NRC. Notice of the date, hour, place, and subject of each meeting of the NRC, or of any committee of the NRC, shall be published in the Texas Register by the NRC not less than three days nor more than 14 days prior to such meeting. This requirement shall not be construed to alter, amend, or repeal any notice requirement pursuant to any other law of this state.

(j) The NRC may make contracts and execute instruments that are necessary or convenient to the exercise of its powers or the performance of its duties.

Until criteria are developed for the evaluation of certificate of need applications, the existing comprehensive health plans developed by the Governor's Office of Comprehensive Health Planning, area-wide comprehensive health plans, the medical facilities plan developed by the State Department of Health, and other plans of state health agencies are to be used to assist in the evaluation of the need for a proposed service or facility.

Pending Projects

Sec. 6.02. (a) A person is eligible for an exemption certificate for a project under this Act who (1) within the period of 365 days immediately preceding the effective date of this Act filed an application for a health-care facility license, including submission of preliminary plans, and the agency approved the facility’s preliminary plans, and (2) within 120 days after the effective date of this Act, applies for an exemption certificate. However, an exemption certificate issued under this section is void on and after February 1, 1976, if before that date the certificate holder has not begun development of the project, and it is void on and after January 15, 1977, if before that date the certificate holder has not placed on file with the commission a valid notice of construction completion indicating a completion date of not later than January 15, 1978, and certifying that the completed project is within the scope of the previously submitted and approved preliminary plans. An exemption certificate issued under this section shall be applicable only to that portion of the project actually completed within the time limits prescribed by this section. The commission may extend the foregoing time limits by no more than a total of one year if good cause is shown why an extension should be granted.

(b) For the purposes of this section, “substantial progress” means: (1) For structures of three or fewer stories, completion of the foundations and footings; the structural frame; the mechanical, electrical, and plumbing rough-in; the rough flooring; the exterior walls and windows; and the finished roof. (2) For structures of more than three stories, in addition to (1) above, a contractor’s schedule of work shall be filed with the commission by January 15, 1977. (c) The commission may promulgate rules determined to be necessary for the administration and enforcement of this section.

Administrative Procedure

Sec. 6.03. Until January 1, 1976, except to the extent inconsistent with this Act, Sections 3, 4, 5, 10–16, and 18–20 of the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act are incorporated by reference and made applicable to proceedings of the commission under this Act. However, until January 1, 1976, the provision of Section 10 of that Act requiring publication of rules in the Texas Register is not incorporated or applicable, and in lieu of the provisions of Section 5 that require publication of notices in the Texas Register, the commission by rule shall provide and give notice in a manner that is reasonably calculated to give notice to persons likely to be interested in proposed rules.

Policy

Sec. 1. The policy of the State of Texas is to encourage and enable the blind, the visually handicapped, and the otherwise physically disabled to participate fully in the social and economic life of the state, to achieve maximum personal independence, to become gainfully employed, and to otherwise fully enjoy and use all public facilities available within the state.

Definitions

Sec. 2. (a) In this Act, unless the context requires a different definition,

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 2(a)(1) to (a)(3)]

(4) “Handicapped person” means anyone who has a mental or physical handicap, which would include mental retardation, hardness of hearing, deafness, speech impairment, visual handicap, being crippled, or any other health impairment which requires special ambulatory devices or services.

(5) “Housing accommodations” means any real property, or portion thereof, which is used or occupied or is intended, arranged, or designed to be used or occupied as the home, residence, or sleeping place of one or more human beings, but shall not include any single family residence the occupants of which rent, lease, or furnish for compensation not more than one room therein.
Discrimination Prohibited

Sec. 3.

(f) An employer who conducts business in this state may not discriminate in his employment practices against a handicapped person on the basis of the handicap if the person's ability to perform the task required by a job is not impaired by the handicap and the person is otherwise qualified for the job.

(g) It is the policy of the State of Texas that the blind, the visually handicapped, and the otherwise physically disabled shall be employed by the state, by political subdivisions of the state, in the public schools, and in all other employment supported in whole or in part by public funds on the same terms and conditions as the able-bodied, unless it is shown that the particular disability prevents the performance of the work involved.

(h) The blind, the visually handicapped, and the otherwise physically disabled shall be entitled to full and equal access, as other members of the general public, to all housing accommodations offered for rent, lease, or compensation in this state, subject to the conditions and limitations established by law and applicable alike to all persons.

(1) Nothing in this section shall require any person renting, leasing, or providing for compensation real property to modify his property in any way or provide a higher degree of care for a blind person, visually handicapped person, or otherwise physically disabled person than for a person who is not physically disabled.

(2) Every totally or partially blind person who has a guide dog, or who obtains a guide dog, shall be entitled to full and equal access to all housing accommodations provided for in this section, and he shall not be required to pay extra compensation for such guide dog but shall be liable for any damage done to the premises by such a guide dog.

Board of Directors

Sec. 4. (a) The Authority shall be governed by a Board of Directors consisting of not less than seven (7) nor more than eleven (11) members to be determined at the time of creating the Authority. Unless otherwise provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds or the Trust Indenture securing them, the number of Directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to the ordinance creating the Authority adopted by the Governing Body of the City or ordinances creating the Authority adopted by the Governing Bodies of the Cities, but no decrease in number shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent Director. Except as hereinafter in this Section provided, the first Directors shall be appointed by the Governing Body of the City or by the Governing Bodies of the Cities, and they shall serve until their successors are appointed as hereinafter provided. If Authority includes more than one City, each Governing Body shall appoint an equal number of Directors unless otherwise agreed by the Cities. When the Authority issues its revenue bonds the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or the Trust Indenture securing them may prescribe the method of selecting and the term of office of a majority of the members of the Board. The remaining members of the Board shall be appointed by the Governing Body of the City or the Governing Bodies of the Cities for two (2) year terms. The Trust Indenture may also provide that, in event of default as defined in the Trust Indenture, the Trustee may appoint all of the Directors, in which event the terms of the Directors then in office shall automatically terminate. Unless and until provision is made in the Bond Resolution or Indenture in connection with the issuance of bonds for the appointment by other means of part of the Directors, all of the Directors shall be appointed by the Governing Body of the City or each of the Cities, as the case may be, for terms not to exceed two (2) years, but the terms of Directors appointed prior to the issuance of the first issue of revenue bonds shall be subject to the exercise of the provision herein made for appointment of a majority of the members of the Board in connection with the issuance of the bonds. No officer or employee of any such City shall be eligible for appointment as a Director. Directors shall not receive compensation for services but shall be entitled to reimbursement of their expenses incurred in performing such service.

(b) In the event the Authority purchases from a nonprofit corporation a hospital then in existence or in process of construction, the first members of the Board of Directors and their successors shall be determined as provided in the contract of purchase.

Sec. 5. The Board of Directors shall elect from among their members a president and vice-president, and shall elect a secretary and a treasurer who may or may not be Directors, and may elect such other officers as may be authorized by Authority's bylaws. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be combined. The president shall have the same right to vote on all matters as other members of the Board. A majority of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum and when a quorum is present action may be taken by a majority vote of Directors present. If the bylaws so provide, the Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the Directors in office, may designate one or more committees, which, to the extent and in the manner provided in such resolution or in the bylaws, shall have and exercise the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Authority. Each such committee shall consist of two or more persons who are directors and may have additional nonvoting members who, if such resolution or the bylaws so provide, need not be directors. The Board of Directors may not, however, provide for the delegation to such committees of the Authority of the power to issue bonds, enter into or amend a lease of a Hospital or a management agreement with respect to a Hospital or to employ or discharge a manager or an executive director. The Board may employ a manager or executive director of the Hospital and such other employees, experts and agents as it may see fit, or enter into a management agreement with any person and it may delegate to the manager the power to manage the Hospital and to employ and discharge employees. The Board may lease the Hospital as otherwise provided by law and may employ legal counsel.

Sec. 6. (a) The Authority shall have the power to construct, enlarge, furnish and equip Hospitals, purchase existing Hospitals, furnishings and equipment for its Hospitals, and to operate and maintain Hospitals. A Hospital need not be located within the City or Cities.

(b) The Authority may sell any of its property without an election to a political subdivision of the State for the fair market value of the property if:

1. the Board of Directors has notice of its intention to sell the property, a description of the property, and the scheduled date of the sale published in a newspaper or newspapers providing general circulation in the Authority once each week for two consecutive weeks, the first publication at least 14 days before the scheduled date of the sale; and

2. a petition requesting an election on a proposition for or against the sale, signed by 10 percent or more of the qualified voters residing in the Authority is not presented to the secretary or president of the Board of Directors before the scheduled date of the sale.

(c) If a petition described in Subdivision (2), Subsection (b) of this section is presented to the secretary or president of the Board of Directors before the scheduled date of the sale, the property may be sold to a political subdivision only if an election on the proposition is held and a majority of the qualified voters voting in the election favor the sale. The Board shall call the election on receiving the petition or may call the election on its own motion if no petition is filed. The Board shall determine and the order calling the election shall specify the date, place, or places of holding the election, the form of ballot, and the presiding judge, alternate judge, and clerks for each voting place. Section 9b, Texas Election Code (Article 2.01b, Vernon's Texas Election Code), does not apply to the election. A substantial copy of the election order shall be published in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the Authority once a week for two consecutive weeks, the first publication to appear at least 30 days before the election date. The form of the ballots at the election shall be in conformity with Section 61, Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 6.05, Vernon's Texas Election Code), so that ballots may be cast for or against the following proposition:

Operation of Hospital; Rates Charged; Creation of Funds; Lease Conditions

Sec. 14. The Hospital shall be operated without the intervention of private profit for the use and benefit of the public. If the Hospital is not leased it shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to charge sufficient rates for services rendered by the Hospital and to utilize other sources of its revenues that revenues will be produced sufficient to pay all expenses in connection with the ownership, operation and upkeep of the Hospital, to pay the interest on the bonds as it becomes due, to create a sinking fund to pay the bonds as they become due, and to create and maintain a bond reserve fund and other funds as provided in the Bond Resolution of Trust Indenture. In the event the Hospital is leased, it shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to provide that the lessee shall charge sufficient rates for services rendered by the Hospital which together with other sources of the lessee’s revenues will produce revenues sufficient to enable the lessee to pay all expenses in connection with the operation and upkeep of the Hospital and to pay lease rentals to the Authority which will be sufficient, when taken with other pledged sources of the Authority’s estimated revenues, to pay the interest on the bonds as it becomes due, to create a sinking fund to pay the bonds as they become due, and to create and maintain a bond reserve fund and other funds as provided in the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture. The Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture may prescribe systems, methods, routines, procedures, and policies under or in accordance with which the hospital shall be operated, and in the event the Hospital is leased, the Authority may delegate to the lessee the duty to establish the systems, methods, routines, procedures, and policies under or in accordance with which the Hospital shall be operated.
