Art. 1970–353. Parker County; Jurisdiction of County Court

Sec. 1. The County Court of Parker County shall have and exercise the general jurisdiction of a probate court, shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards; grant letters testamentary and of administration; settle the accounts of executors, administrators, and guardians; transact all business pertaining to the estates of deceased persons, minors, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the partition, settlement, and distribution of estates of deceased persons pending in such court; conduct lunacy hearings; apprentice minors as provided by law, and issue all writs necessary for the enforcement of its own jurisdiction; punish for contempt under such provisions as now or may be provided for by general law governing county courts throughout the state; and in addition thereto, the County Court of Parker County and the judge thereof, shall have all original and appellate civil and criminal jurisdiction as normally exercised by county courts under the constitution and general laws of this state. All present and future statutes pertaining to probate matters and eminent domain enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas shall be operative in Parker County as fully as though this statute had not been enacted.

Sec. 2. All concurrent jurisdiction between the County Court of Parker County and the 43rd District Court previously existing by authority of this article is hereby abolished.

Sec. 3. Jurisdiction over juvenile matters in Parker County shall be as established by the constitution and general laws of this state.

Sec. 4. The District Clerk of Parker County shall file, within 30 days after the effective date of this amendment, with the County Clerk of Parker County, all original papers in cases herein transferred to the County Court of Parker County and all judge's dockets and certified copies of any interlocutory judgment or other order entered in the minutes of the 43rd District Court in a case transferred. The county clerk shall immediately docket all such cases on the docket of the County Court of Parker County in the same manner and place as each stands on the docket of the district court. It shall not be necessary that the county clerk refile any papers heretofore filed by the district clerk, but papers in the case bearing the file mark of the district clerk prior to the time of the transfer shall be held to have been filed in the case as of the date filed without being refiled by the county clerk. The district clerk in cases so transferred shall accompany the papers with a certified bill of costs, and against all costs deposit, the district clerk shall charge accrued fees due the district clerk and the remainder of the deposit, if any, the district clerk shall pay to the county court as a deposit in the particular case for which the deposit was made. Credit shall be given all litigants for all jury fees paid in the district court.

Creation

Sec. 1. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Victoria County is created.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court at Law No. 2 has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, juvenile, and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Victoria County and the County Court at Law of Victoria County. This provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or of the county judge of Victoria County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court as to roads, bridges, and public highways within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the county judge as presiding officer.

(b) The County Court at Law No. 2 has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $20,000, exclusive of interest.

(c) The County Court at Law No. 2, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.

(d) The county judge of Victoria County is the judge of the County Court of Victoria County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Victoria County unless by this Act committed to the judges of the county courts at law.

Terms

Sec. 3. The terms of the County Court at Law No. 2 are the same as those for the County Court of Victoria County.

Judge

Sec. 4. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 must be a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas who has been a bona fide resident of Victoria County, and actively engaged in the practice of law in Victoria County for a period of not less than two years prior to his appointment or election.

(b) When this court is created, the Commissioners Court of Victoria County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law No. 2, who shall serve until the next general election and until his or her successor is elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1982 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Victoria County a judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. A vacancy in the office shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Victoria County until the next general election. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as provided by the laws of this state for removal of county judges.
Art. 1970-356a

(c) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges.

(d) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 shall receive a salary not to exceed 90 percent of the amount paid a district court judge having jurisdiction in Victoria County. The Commissioners Court of Victoria County may provide traveling expenses, office expenses, and administrative and clerical help which it deems necessary.

(e) A special judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 with the same qualifications as the regular judge may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. If a judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

(f) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 shall be a member of the juvenile board in Victoria County and shall be entitled to additional compensation for the additional duties hereby imposed, to be fixed by the commissioners court and paid in 12 equal installments out of the general fund or other available fund of the county. Such compensation shall be in addition to all other compensation provided in this Act.

Personnel

Sec. 5. (a) The criminal district attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Victoria County shall serve as criminal district attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law No. 2. They shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices.

(b) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 may appoint an official court reporter who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be as provided by law. The official court reporter is entitled to compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Victoria County.

Practice

Sec. 6. Practice in the County Court at Law No. 2 shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Victoria County.

(c) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges.

Sec. 7. (a) The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the County Court at Law No. 2.

(b) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court or courts may, on request of either the county judge or a judge of the county courts at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in either the county court or county courts at law.

Seal

Sec. 8. The seal of the court shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 2 of Victoria County," but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Victoria County.

Transfer of Cases

Sec. 9. (a) The judges of the county court and the county courts at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(b) In cases transferred to any of the courts by order of the judge of another court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred to as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Exchange of Benches

Sec. 10. The county judge and the judges of the county courts at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him or her without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Any of these judges may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or a county court at law and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his or her own docket. However, a judge may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his or her court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending.

Effective Date

Sec. 11. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Victoria County is created on January 1, 1982, or on a date determined by the commissioners court by an order entered in its minutes, whichever date is earlier.

HAYS COUNTY

Art. 1970–358. County Court at Law of Hays County

[See Compact Edition Volume 3, for text of 3]

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, original, and appellate, prescribed by the law for county courts, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Hays County. The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the amount in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $20,000, exclusive of interest. The county court at law, the County Court of Hays County, and the district court in Hays County have jurisdiction over juvenile matters, and any of those courts may be designated a juvenile court. The county court at law does not have jurisdiction over causes and proceedings concerning roads, bridges, and public highways which are within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or County Court of Hays County.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3, for text of 2(b) to (d)]

(e) In addition to the jurisdiction conferred on the County Court at Law of Hays County by the other provisions of this Act, the county court at law has concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in Hays County in suits and causes involving family law matters, including adoptions; birth records; removal of disability of minority or coverture; change of name of persons; divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights, custody and support of minor children involved, temporary support pending final hearing, and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings; and independent actions involving child welfare, custody, support and reciprocal support, dependency, neglect, and delinquency; and independent actions involving controversies between parent and child and between husband and wife. The provisions in this subsection do not diminish the jurisdiction of the district court in Hays County, and the district court shall retain and continue to exercise the jurisdiction that is conferred by law on district courts.

[See Compact Edition Volume 3, for text of 3]

Sec. 4. (a) There shall be elected a judge of the County Court at Law of Hays County who must have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than four years, who must be well informed in the laws of this state, and who must have resided and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Hays County for a period of not less than one year prior to the general election. Beginning at the general election in 1974 and every four years thereafter, the qualified voters of the county shall elect a judge who holds office for four years and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified.

Sec. 5. (a) The criminal district attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Hays County shall serve as criminal district attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Hays County, except that the district clerk shall serve as clerk of the county court at law in cases enumerated in Section 2(e) of this Act and shall establish a separate docket for the county court at law. The Commissioners Court of Hays County may employ as many assistant district attorneys, deputy sheriffs, and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices in Hays County.

[Sear Compact Edition Volume 3, for text of 5(b) and (c)]

Sec. 6. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Hays County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Hays County, except that practice and procedure, rules of evidence, issuance of process and writs, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in the county court at law involving those matters of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Section 2(e) of this Act shall be governed by the provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts, general or special, as well as county courts. If a case enumerated in Section 2(e) of this Act is tried before a jury, the jury shall be composed of 12 members.

(b) The judges of the county court and the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. All cases within the concurrent jurisdiction of the county court at law and the district court may be instituted in or transferred between the county court at law and the district court in Hays County. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred; and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

[Sear Compact Edition Volume 3, for text of 6(c)]

(d) In cases transferred to any of the courts by order of the judge of another court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

BRAZOS COUNTY

Art. 1970-359. County Court at Law of Brazos County

Sec. 1. On January 1, 1977, the County Court at Law of Brazos County is created.

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, original and appellate, civil, criminal, juvenile, and probate, prescribed by law for county courts.

(b) The county court at law has the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Brazos County, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Brazos County in probate, administrations, guardianship, and mental illness proceedings. The County Court of Brazos County shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal, original or appellate. This provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the County Judge of Brazos County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court.

(c) The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases, in juvenile proceedings if designated to serve as juvenile court, and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $10,000, exclusive of interest.

(d) The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.

(e) The County Judge of Brazos County is the judge of the County Court of Brazos County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Brazos County unless by this Act committed to the judge of the county court at law.
judge of the court created by this Act for a two-year term beginning on January 1, 1977. Every four years thereafter, this officer shall be elected by the qualified voters of Brazos County. The judge of the county court at law of Brazos County may be re-elected to a second term as provided in Article XVI, Section 30, of the Texas Constitution.

The judge of the county court at law may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as provided by the laws of this state for removal of county judges.

The judge of the county court at law shall receive a salary to be determined by the Commissioners Court of Brazos County, and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the commissioners court of the county of the county court at law of Brazos County. The judge shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges.

The judge of the county court at law may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special judge of the county court at law. A special judge of the county court at law shall perform the duties, and be entitled to the compensation fixed by law for the judge of the county court at law, and may occupy his own courtroom or the courtroom of the other judge while sitting. In case of absence, sickness, or disqualification of the judge, the other judge may hear and determine any probate matter there pending in either court, without having the case changed from one court to the other. In the discretion of the judge, the docket of the other court may be transferred to the docket of the judge, and the docket of the judge may be transferred to the docket of the other judge.

The judge of the county court at law of Brazos County may, in his discretion, either in term or between terms, transfer any probate matter on his docket to the docket of the other judge. Either judge may, in their discretion, in any probate matter, agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the county of the county court at law of Brazos County, shall serve as the county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of the county court at law of Brazos County. They shall continue in office until the expiration of the term of office beginning on January 1, 1977. They shall have the same powers and duties and be subject to the same qualifications as the regular county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff. The law of Brazos County and the Texas Constitution shall apply to the county court at law of the county of Brazos County.

The same court of probate and county courts shall continue their proceedings and provide their advertised and required court services in the same manner as before the effective date of this Act. The judges of the county court at law of the county of the county court at law of Brazos County shall conform to that prescribed by the commissioners court of the county of the county court at law of Brazos County.
to as are fixed by law and by this Act. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the matter as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer may be made.

Sec. 7. (a) The laws that govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law.

(b) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court may, on request of the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in the county court at law. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 110, ch. 50, eff. Jan. 1, 1977.]

Section 8 of the 1975 Act amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 4, ch. 2 (Art. 1970-310 note) and 5 9 thereof provided: "With the exception of Section 4, Subsections (a) and (b), this Act becomes effective on January 1, 1977."

WEBB COUNTY

Art. 1970-360. County Court at Law of Webb County

Sec. 1. The County Court at Law of Webb County is created. It shall sit in Laredo.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law of Webb County has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil and criminal, juvenile and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts. However, it does not have jurisdiction over causes and proceedings concerning roads, bridges, and public highways and the general administration of county business which is now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court of Webb County. The county court at law also has concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Webb County in all matters of probate, and shall proclaim wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and habitual drunkards, including the settlement, partition, and distribution of the estates of deceased persons, and apprentice minors as provided by law.

Sec. 3. (a) The County Court at Law of Webb County has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $10,000, exclusive of interest.

(b) In addition to the jurisdiction conferred on the County Court at Law of Webb County by the other provisions of this Act, the county court at law has concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts of Webb County in suits, causes, and matters involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected, or dependent child proceedings, Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, and all jurisdiction, powers, and authority now or hereafter placed in the district or county courts under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this state; and of all divorce, marriage, and annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons, and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons; corporations, trustees, or other legal entities, which are now or may hereafter be within the jurisdiction of the district or county courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law, and the county court at law and its judge have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce its jurisdiction. The provisions in this subsection do not diminish the jurisdiction of the several district courts in Webb County, and the district courts shall retain and continue to exercise such jurisdiction as is now or may be hereafter conferred by law, and the jurisdiction given in this subsection is concurrent with the jurisdiction of the district courts.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Webb County shall have and retain concurrently with the court created by this Act the general jurisdiction of a probate court. The county court shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal, original or appellate. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised and retained by the judge of the County Court of Webb County, except as provided by this Act or otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 5. The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas; and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges, except that such judge of the county court at law shall in no way have any authority over the administrative business of Webb County which is now performed by the County Judge of Webb County.
Sec. 6. The County Court at Law of Webb County shall hold six terms of court each year, commencing on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September, and November of each year and each term shall continue until the business of the court has been disposed of. However, no term of the court shall continue beyond the date fixed for the commencement of its new term, except on an order entered on its minutes during the term extending the term for any particular cause therein specified.

Sec. 7. (a) The judge of the county court at law shall have been a bona fide resident of Webb County for two years prior to his appointment or election and shall be a qualified voter in Webb County. He shall be a licensed attorney in this state who has been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of five years prior to this appointment or election.

(b) The judge of the county court at law shall not engage in the private practice of law after his appointment or election.

(c) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Webb County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law of Webb County. The judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section and serves until the general election in 1976 and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1976, there shall be elected a judge of the county court at law for a term ending on December 31, 1978. At the general election in 1978 and every fourth year thereafter shall be elected by the qualified voters of Webb County a judge of the County Court at Law of Webb County for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution.

(d) A vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of county court at law shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Webb County, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

(e) The judge of the county court at law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(f) The judge of the county court at law shall receive a salary of not less than $20,000 per annum and no more than $30,000 per annum, to be paid out by the county treasury by order of the commissioners court, and the salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The judge of the county court at law shall be entitled to traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help, in the same manner as is allowed the county judge. The judge of the County Court at Law of Webb County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed or may be established by law, relating to the county judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the county treasury on collection, and no part of which shall be paid to the judge, but he shall draw the salary as specified in this section.

(g) A special judge of the county court at law with the same qualifications as the regular judge may be appointed or elected in the manner provided by law for the appointment or election of a special county judge. If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Sec. 8. (a) The District Attorney of the 49th Judicial District and the Sheriff of Webb County shall serve as district attorney and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Webb County, except that the County Attorney of Webb County shall handle and prosecute all juvenile, child welfare, and mental health cases and the other civil cases where the State of Texas is a party. The District Clerk of Webb County shall serve as clerk of the county court at law in the cases enumerated in Section 3 of this Act, and the County Clerk of Webb County shall serve as the clerk of the county court at law in cases enumerated in Section 2 of this Act. These officials, either personally or by the appointment of a deputy or assistant, shall perform the duties and responsibilities of their office and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices. The commissioners court may employ as many deputy sheriffs and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court.

(b) The judge of the county court at law shall appoint an official court reporter who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. The official court reporter is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Webb County.

Sec. 9. (a) As soon as practicable following the effective date of this Act, the county clerk shall establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act from among pending matters filed originally in the County Court of Webb County and shall transfer those matters to the docket of the court created by this Act, and the district clerk shall establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act from among pending matters filed originally in the district courts of Webb County and may transfer a sufficient number of those matters to the docket of the court created by this Act to equalize...

the dockets. Equalization of case load shall be the primary objective in establishing the initial case docket for the county court at law.

(b) On the transfer of all cases specified in Subsection (a) of this section to the county court at law, and in cases transferred to any of the courts in Webb County by order of the judge of another court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of the bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

(c) The judge of the county court and the judge of the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts, in matters within their jurisdiction, in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. All cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated or included in Section 3 of this Act may be instituted or transferred between the district courts of Webb County and the County Court at Law of Webb County. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(d) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other in matters within their jurisdiction so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law, but only in matters within his jurisdiction, and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of either court may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending. This provision providing for the exchange of benches by and between the judge of the county court and the judge of the county court at law is cumulative of and in addition to the provisions herein provided for the selection and appointment of a special judge of the county court at law.

Sec. 10. (a) Practice in the county court at law shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts, except that practice and procedure, rules of evidence, issuance of process and writs, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in the county court at law involving those matters of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Subsection (b), Section 3 of this Act shall be governed by the provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts, general or special, as well as county courts. If a case enumerated in Subsection (b), Section 3 of this Act is tried before a jury, the jury shall be composed of 12 members.

(b) The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law.

(c) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court or courts may, on request of either the county judge or the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in either the county court or county court at law.

Sec. 11. The Commissioners Court of Webb County shall furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the court created by this Act.

Sec. 12. The seal of the court created by this Act shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words “County Court at Law of Webb County.”

NACOGDOCHES COUNTY

Art. 1970-361. County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County

Sec. 1. On the effective date of this Act, the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County is created.

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts. The County Court of Nacogdoches County shall have no jurisdiction over the matters of which jurisdiction is given to the county court at law by this Act. This provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the County Judge of Nacogdoches County as the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court.

(b) The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest.
(c) The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.

(d) The County Judge of Nacogdoches County is the judge of the County Court of Nacogdoches County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Nacogdoches County unless by this Act committed to the judge of the county court at law.

Sec. 3. The terms of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County shall begin on the first Mondays in January, April, July, and October in each year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1978 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Nacogdoches County a judge of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. Any vacancy in the office shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Nacogdoches County, and the appointee holds office until January 1 of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. The judge of the county court at law may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as provided by the laws of this state for removal of county judges.

(c) The judge of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges.

(d) The judge of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County shall receive an annual salary 'to be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Nacogdoches County at an amount not less than $15,000 or more than 80 percent of the total annual salary paid to the judge of the 145th Judicial District of Texas. This sum shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury of Nacogdoches County on orders from the commissioners court. Additionally, he shall be entitled to reasonable traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help. The judge of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County shall charge the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury. During his term of office, the judge of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County shall diligently discharge the duties of his office on a full-time basis and shall not engage in the private practice of law.

(e) A special judge of the court at law with the same qualifications as the regular judge may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try or recuses himself from trying a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Sec. 5. (a) The County Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Nacogdoches County shall serve as county attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County. They shall perform the duties and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices.

(b) The judge of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for the court who shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. All provisions of the general laws of Texas relating to the appointment of a reporter for the district court shall apply, so far as applicable, to the official shorthand reporter authorized to be appointed by the judge of the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County. The reporter shall be entitled to the same fees and shall perform the same duties as provided in the general laws and in addition shall receive a salary, not to exceed the compensation paid to the official shorthand reporter of the district court of Nacogdoches County, to be determined by the judge of the county court at law.
and paid out of the county treasury on order of the commissioners court.

(c) The seal of the court shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County," but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Nacogdoches County.

Sec. 6. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts.

(b) All cases and matters, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, pending before the County Court of Nacogdoches County on the effective date of this Act are transferred to the County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County. All processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, and other obligations issued or made in the cases transferred shall be returned to and filed in the county court at law. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the county court at law as fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the county court at law.

Sec. 7. The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law.

COLLIN COUNTY

Art. 1970-362. County Court at Law of Collin County

Sec. 1. The County Court at Law of Collin County is created.

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, juvenile, and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts.

(b) The county court at law has the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Collin County, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Collin County in probate, administrations, guardianship, and mental-illness proceedings. The County Court of Collin County has the general jurisdiction of a probate court but does not have jurisdiction for matters of eminent domain or other original civil or criminal jurisdiction or appellate civil or criminal jurisdiction. All future statutes pertaining to probate matters enacted by the legislature shall be operative in Collin County as fully as though this statute had not been enacted. The County Judge of Collin County is the judge of the County Court of Collin County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Collin County unless by this Act committed to the judge of the county court at law.

(c) The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent-domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest.

(d) The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.

Sec. 3. The terms of the county court at law shall commence on the first Monday in January and on the first Monday in July of each year. Each term of court continues until the next succeeding term begins.

Sec. 4. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law of Collin County must be a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas who has been a bona fide resident of Collin County and actively engaged in the practice of law in Collin County for a period of not less than two years prior to his appointment or election.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Collin County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law of Collin County. The judge appointed serves until the general election in 1976 and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1976, there shall be elected a judge of the county court at law for a term ending on December 31, 1978. At the general election in 1978 and every four years thereafter, the judge of the county court at law shall be elected for a regular four-year term as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of the county court at law shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Collin County, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified.

(c) The judge of the county court at law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The judge of the County Court at Law of Collin County shall receive an annual salary to be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Collin County at an amount not less than $18,000 nor more than 80 percent of the total annual salary paid to the judge of a district court having jurisdiction in Collin County. The salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury on order of the commissioners court. The judge of the county court at law shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury and which may not be paid to the judge.

(e) The judge of the County Court at Law of Collin County is a member of the Juvenile Board of Collin County.

(f) A special judge of the county court at law may be appointed or elected in the manner provided by law for the appointment or election of a special county judge. A special judge must have the same qualifications, and is entitled to the same rate of compensation, as the regular judge.

(g) During his term of office, the judge of the county court at law shall diligently discharge the duties of his office on a full-time basis and shall not engage in the private practice of law.

Sec. 5. (a) The Criminal District Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Collin County shall serve as criminal district attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Collin County. They shall perform the duties and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowance prescribed by law for their respective offices.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Collin County.

(c) The seal of the court shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Collin County," but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Collin County.

Sec. 6. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Collin County shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts.

(b) The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for the county courts apply to the county court at law.

Sec. 7. All cases and matters within the jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Collin County pending before the 199th District Court on the effective date of this Act are transferred to the County Court at Law of Collin County. All processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, and other obligations issued or made in the cases transferred shall be returned to and filed in the county court at law. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the county court at law as fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the county court at law. If, in a civil or criminal case within the jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Collin County on appeal from the 199th District Court, the court of civil appeals, the supreme court, or the court of criminal appeals enters judgment remanding the case for a new trial or for further proceedings, the case shall be remanded to the County Court at Law of Collin County, and all jurisdiction in respect to that particular case shall thereafter vest in the county court at law. The county clerk and district clerk shall promptly take all necessary steps to effect the transfer of a certified bill of cost and any unused cost deposit or jury fee, all original papers, and certified copies of interlocutory judgments or orders in the cases transferred and shall docket the cases on the docket of the county court at law in the same manner and place as each stands on the docket of the 199th District Court. This Act does not affect final judgments heretofore rendered by the 199th District Court pertaining to matters and causes transferred to the county court at law by this Act, and the district court retains jurisdiction to enforce those final judgments.

Section 8 of the 1975 Act amended §§ 1 to 3 of art. 513 HH; § 9 repealed subsections (b) to (e) of art. 1974, § 3, 2, 1974; and § 10 provided: "The effective date of this Act is January 1, 1976."

Art. 1970–362a. County Court at Law No. 2 of Collin County

Text of article effective January 1, 1981

Creation

Sec. 1. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Collin County is created.

Jurisdiction: Writ Power

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law created by this Act has jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, juvenile, and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with the jurisdiction of the County Court at Law of Collin County.

(b) The county court at law created by this Act has the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Collin County, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Collin County and the County Court at Law of Collin County in probate, administrations, guardianship, and mental-illness proceedings. The County Court of Collin County has the general jurisdiction of a probate court but does not have jurisdiction over matters of eminent domain or other original civil or criminal jurisdiction or appellate civil or criminal jurisdiction. All future statutes pertaining to probate matters enacted by the legislature shall be operative in Collin County as fully as though this statute had not been enacted. The County Judge of Collin County is the judge of the County Court of Collin County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Collin County unless by this Act committed to the judges of the county courts at law.

(c) the county court at law created by this Act has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent-domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $20,000, exclusive of interest.

(d) The county court at law created by this Act, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law created by this Act has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.

Sec. 3. The terms of the court created by this Act shall commence on the first Monday in January and on the first Monday in July of each year. Each term of court continues until the next succeeding term begins.

Judge

Sec. 4. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Collin County must be a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas who has been a bona fide resident of Collin County and actively engaged in the practice of law in Collin County for a period of not less than two years prior to his appointment or election.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Collin County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Collin County. The judge appointed serves until the general election in 1980 and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1980, there shall be elected a judge of the court created by this Act for a term ending on December 31, 1982. At the general election in 1982 and every four years thereafter, the judge of the county court at law shall be elected for a regular four-year term as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of the court created by this Act shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Collin County, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified.

(c) The judge of the court created by this Act shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. The judge may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Collin County shall receive an annual salary to be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Collin County at an amount not more than 90 percent of the total annual salary paid to the judges of the district courts having jurisdiction in Collin County. The salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury on order of the commissioners court. The judge of the court created by this Act shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury and which may not be paid to the judge.

(e) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Collin County is a member of the Juvenile Board of Collin County.

(f) A special judge of the court created by this Act may be appointed or elected in the manner provided by law for the appointment or election of a special county judge. A special judge must have the same qualifications, and is entitled to the same rate of compensation, as the regular judge.

(g) During his or her term of office, the judge of the court created by this Act shall diligently discharge the duties of the office on a full-time basis and not engage in the private practice of law.

Personnel; Seal

Sec. 5. (a) The criminal district attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Collin County shall serve as criminal district attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Collin County. They shall perform the duties and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowance prescribed by law for their respective offices.

(b) The judge of the court created by this Act shall appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Collin County.
(c) The seal of the court shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 2 of Collin County," but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Collin County.

Practice; Jurors

Sec. 6. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law No. 2 of Collin County shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts.

(b) The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for the county courts apply to the court created by this Act.

Transfer of Cases

Sec. 7. (a) The judges of the County Court at Law of Collin County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Collin County may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts, in matters within their jurisdiction, in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to another without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(b) In cases transferred to either of the county courts at law by order of the judge of the other court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of the bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases, as well as all bonds and recognizances taken before transfer, shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Exchange of Benches

Sec. 8. The judges of the County Court at Law of Collin County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Collin County may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other in matters within their jurisdiction so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him or her without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the County Court at Law of Collin County or the County Court at Law No. 2 of Collin County, but only in matters within their jurisdiction, and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his or her own docket. However, a judge may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his or her court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending. The provisions providing for the exchange of benches by and between the judges are cumulative of and in addition to the provisions provided in this Act for the selection and appointment of a special judge of the court created by this Act. MONTGOMERY COUNTY

Art. 1970–363. County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County

Sec. 1. On the effective date of this Act, the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County is created.

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, juvenile, and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for the County Court of Montgomery County, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Montgomery County.

(b) The county court at law shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the justice courts in all criminal matters which by the general laws of this state are conferred on justice courts. This Act does not deprive the justice courts of the jurisdiction now conferred on him by law, but grants concurrent original jurisdiction to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County over the matters specified in this Act. This Act does not deny the right of appeal to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County from the justice court where the right of appeal to the county court now exists by law.

(c) The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest.

Sec. 3. (a) The county court at law or its judge may issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.
(b) The County Judge of Montgomery County is the judge of the County Court of Montgomery County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Montgomery County unless by this Act committed to the judge of the county court at law.

(c) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County is a member of the Montgomery County Juvenile Board.

Sec. 4. The terms of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County are the same as those for the County Court of Montgomery County.

Sec. 5. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County must be a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five years who has resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Montgomery County for a period of not less than two years prior to his appointment or election, and shall be well informed in the laws of the state.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Montgomery County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County. The judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section and serves until January 1 of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. At the next general election after the effective date of this Act, a judge shall be elected to serve until January 1, 1979. At the general election in 1978 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Montgomery County a judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 80, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. Any vacancy in the office shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Montgomery County, and the appointee holds office until January 1 of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified.

(c) During his term of office, the judge shall not engage in the private practice of law while serving as the county court at law judge.

(d) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(e) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County shall receive a salary to be determined by the Commissioners Court of Montgomery County in an amount not less than the salary of the County Judge of Montgomery County. He shall be entitled to traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help, in the same manner as is allowed the county judge.

(f) A special judge of the county court at law may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge when the judge of the county court at law is disqualified. A special judge must have the same qualifications as the judge of the county court at law and is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Sec. 6. (a) The County Attorney of Montgomery County shall represent the state in all prosecutions in the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County, as provided by law for prosecutions in the county court.

(b) The County Clerk and Sheriff of Montgomery County shall serve as clerk and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County. The Commissioners Court of Montgomery County may employ as many additional deputy sheriffs and clerks as are necessary to serve the court created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices in Montgomery County.

(c) The judge of the county court at law shall appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Montgomery County, and shall serve at the pleasure of the judge of the county court at law.

Sec. 7. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Montgomery County.

(b) The judges of the county court and the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(c) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of either court may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending.

(d) In cases transferred to either of the courts by order of the judge of the other court, all processes, wrists, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 8. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Montgomery County and the judge thereof for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors shall also be exercised by the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County and the judge of the county court at law. Jurors summomed for either of the courts may by order of the judge of the court in which they are summoned be transferred to the other court for service and may be used as if summoned for the court to which they may be transferred. On concurrence of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County and the Judge of the County Court of Montgomery County, jurors may be summoned for service in both courts and shall be used interchangeably in both courts. All summons for petit jurors for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect shall be as valid as if no change had been made, and and the persons constittuting such jury panels shall be required to appear and serve at the ensuing term of the courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had been selected as jurors in the court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 9. (a) The Commissioners Court of Montgomery County shall furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the county court at law.

(b) The county court at law shall have a seal identical with the seal of the County Court of Montgomery County, except that it shall contain the words “County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County.”

Sec. 10. This Act becomes effective on July 1, 1975.

tion. Any vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law of Fort Bend County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Fort Bend County, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified.

(c) The judge of the county court at law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The judge of the county court at law shall receive a salary in an amount not less than $18,000, and other compensation for office expense, travel expense, service on the juvenile board, and other allowances paid by the county. The salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury on order of the commissioners court. The judge of the county court at law shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may be paid to the judge.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law may be appointed or elected in the manner provided by law for the appointment or election of a special county judge. A special judge must have the same qualifications and is entitled to the same rate of compensation, as the regular judge.

Sec. 4. (a) The Criminal District Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Fort Bend County shall serve as criminal district attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Fort Bend County. The Commissioners Court of Fort Bend County may employ as many additional assistant criminal district attorneys, deputy sheriffs, and clerks as are necessary to serve the court created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances, prescribed by law for their respective offices in Fort Bend County.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Fort Bend County.

Sec. 5. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Fort Bend County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Fort Bend County.

(b) The judges of the county court and the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts so that the business may be equally distributed between them. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred to the county court at law unless it is within the jurisdiction of that court.

(c) Jurors regularly impaneled for the week by the district courts of Fort Bend County, may, at the request of either the judge of the county court or of the county court at law, be made available by the district judges in the numbers requested and shall serve for the week in either or both the county court or the county court at law.

Sec. 6. The judge of the County Court at Law of Fort Bend County shall be a member of the Juvenile Board of Fort Bend County and receive the same additional compensation for service on the juvenile board as paid by Fort Bend County to the County Judge of Fort Bend County for acting as a member of the juvenile board.

Sec. 7. The effective date of this Act is November 1, 1975.

HOUSTON COUNTY

Art. 1970-365. County Court at Law of Houston County

Sec. 1. On the effective date of this Act, the County Court at Law of Houston County is created.

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts. The County Court of Houston County shall have no jurisdiction over the matters of which jurisdiction is given to the county court at law by this Act. This provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the County Judge of Houston County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court.

(b) The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest.

(c) The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.

(d) The County Judge of Houston County is the judge of the County Court of Houston County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Houston County unless by this Act committed to the judge of the county court at law.

Sec. 3. The terms of the County Court at Law of Houston County shall begin on the first Mondays in January, April, July, and October in each year, and each term of the court shall continue in session until the convening of the next succeeding term.

Sec. 4. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law of Houston County must be a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas who has been a bona fide resident of Houston County for two years prior to his appointment or election and actively engaged in the practice of law in the State of Texas for a period of not less than five years prior to his appointment or election.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Houston County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law of Houston County. The judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section and serves until January 1st of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1978 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Houston County a judge of the County Court at Law of Houston County for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. Any vacancy in the office shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Houston County, and the appointee holds office until January 1st of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. The judge of the county court at law may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as provided by the laws of this state for removal of county judges.

(c) The judge of the County Court at Law of Houston County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges.

(d) The judge of the County Court at Law of Houston County shall receive an annual salary to be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Houston County. This sum shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury of Houston County on orders from the commissioners court. Additionally, he shall be entitled to reasonable traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help. The judge of the County Court at Law of Houston County shall charge the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury. During his term of office, the judge of the County Court at Law of Houston County shall diligently discharge the duties of his office on a full-time basis and shall not engage in the private practice of law.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law with the same qualifications as the regular judge may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try or excuses himself from trying a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Sec. 5. (a) The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Houston County shall serve as county attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Houston County. They shall perform the duties and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices.

(b) The judge of the County Court at Law of Houston County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for the court, who shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. All provisions of the general laws of Texas relating to the appointment of a reporter for the district court shall apply, so far as applicable, to the official shorthand reporter authorized to be appointed by the judge of the County Court at Law of Houston County. The reporter shall be entitled to the same fees and shall perform the same duties as provided in the general laws and in addition shall receive a salary not to exceed the compensation paid to the official shorthand reporter of the district court of Houston County, to be determined by the judge of the county court at law and paid out of the county treasury on order of the commissioners court.

(c) The seal of the court shall contain the words “County Court at Law of Houston County,” but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Houston County.

Sec. 6. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Houston County shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts.

(b) All cases and matters, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, pending before the County Court of Houston County on the effective date of this Act are transferred to the County Court at Law of Houston County. All processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, and other obligations issued or made in the cases transferred shall be returned to and filed in the county court at law. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recogni-zances at the terms of the county court at law as fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the county court at law.

Sec. 7. The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law.

HENDERSON COUNTY

County

Sec. 1. On the date determined by the provisions of Section 8 of this Act, the County Court at Law of Henderson County is created.

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil and criminal, original and appellate, as prescribed by law for county courts, and its jurisdiction in those matters is concurrent with that of the County Court of Henderson County. This provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or of the County Judge of Henderson County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court as to roads, bridges, public highways, and all other matters which are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the county judge as presiding officer. The County Court of Henderson County shall retain the general jurisdiction of a probate court and the county court at law does not have probate jurisdiction.

(b) The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest.

(c) The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county.
The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts.
The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.

(d) The County Judge of Henderson County is the judge of the County Court of Henderson County.
All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Henderson County.

Sec. 3. The terms of the County Court at Law of Henderson County are the same as those for the County Court of Henderson County.

Sec. 4. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law of Henderson County must be a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas.
He may not actively engage in the private practice of law while serving as judge of the county court at law.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as provided by the laws of this state for removal of county judges.

(c) The judge of the County Court at Law of Henderson County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges.

(d) The judge of the County Court at Law of Henderson County shall receive a salary to be determined by the Commissioners Court of Henderson County in an amount not less than $20,000 per year nor more than $25,000 per year and to be paid from the same fund and in the same manner as other county officials. In addition to a salary, the commissioners court may provide office and traveling exenses which it deems necessary. The judge of the county court at law shall charge the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law with the same qualifications as the regular judge may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Sec. 5. (a) The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Henderson County shall serve as county attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Henderson County. They shall perform the duties and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. The official court reporter is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Henderson County.

(c) The seal of the court shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Henderson County," but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Henderson County.

Sec. 6. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Henderson County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Henderson County.

(b) The judges of the county court and the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtroom with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of either court may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending.

(c) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of either court may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending.

(d) In cases transferred to either of the courts by order of the judge of the other court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred to as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 7. (a) The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law.

(b) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court or courts may, on request of either the county judge or the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in either the county court or county court at law.

Sec. 8. (a) It is expressly provided that the provisions of this Act shall not become effective until the Commissioners Court of Henderson County enters an order adopting the same.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Henderson County shall have the option of either appointing a judge to the County Court at Law of Henderson County or allowing said judge to be elected at the next general election. If a judge is appointed, said judge serves until the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. If a judge is appointed or elected as provided herein and completes an unexpired term, then said judge shall stand for election at the next general election and every fourth year thereafter for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. If this Act is made effective and a judge of the County Court at Law is elected for the first time to a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution, said judge shall stand for election every fourth year thereafter for a regular term of four years as provided in said sections of the Constitution. Any vacancy in the office shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Henderson County until the next general election. The judge of the county court at law may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as provided by the laws of this state for the removal of county judges.

Sec. 9. The Henderson County Commissioners Court is hereby empowered to submit the question of creating a county court at law for Henderson County to a vote of the people of Henderson County at any countywide general or special election.

WALKER COUNTY

Art. 1970–367. County Court at Law of Walker County

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a county court at law in Walker County, Texas. It shall sit in Huntsville and shall be known as the County Court at Law of Walker County.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law of Walker County has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil and criminal, juvenile and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts. However, it does not have jurisdiction over causes and proceedings concerning roads, bridges, and public highways and the general administration of county business which is now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court of Walker County. The county court at law has concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Walker County in all matters of probate, and shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and habitual drunkards, and shall grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of administrators, executors, and guardians, transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition, and distribution of the estates of deceased persons, and apprentice minors as provided by law.

Sec. 3. (a) The County Court at Law of Walker County has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $10,000, exclusive of interest.

(b) In addition to the jurisdiction conferred on the County Court at Law of Walker County by the other provisions of this Act, the county court at law has concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district court of Walker County in suits, causes, and matters involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected, or dependent child proceedings, Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, and all jurisdiction, powers, and authority now or hereafter placed in the district or county courts under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this state; and of all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, temporary support pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons, and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons, corporations, trustees, or other legal entities, which are now or may hereafter be within the jurisdiction of the district or county courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law, and the county court at law and its judge have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary to enforce its jurisdiction. The provisions in this subsection do not diminish the jurisdiction of the district court in Walker County, and the district court shall retain and continue to exercise such jurisdiction as is now or may be hereafter conferred by law, and the jurisdiction given in this section is concurrent with the jurisdiction of the district court.

Sec. 4. The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, execution, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges, except that such judge of the county court at law shall not have any authority over the administrative business of Walker County which is now performed by the County Judge of Walker County.

Sec. 5. The County Court of Walker County shall have and retain concurrently with the court created by this Act the general jurisdiction of a probate court. The county court shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal, original or appellate. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised and retained by the judge of the County Court of Walker County, except as provided by this Act or otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 6. The County Court at Law of Walker County shall hold four terms of court each year which terms shall begin on the first Mondays in January, April, July, and October in each year, and each term of the court shall continue in session until the convening of the next succeeding term.

Sec. 7. (a) The judge of the county court at law shall have been a bona fide resident of Walker County for two years prior to his appointment or election and shall be a qualified voter in Walker County. He shall be a licensed attorney in this state who has been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of five years prior to his appointment or election.

(b) The judge of the county court at law shall not engage in the private practice of law after his appointment or election.

(c) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Walker County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law of Walker County. The judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section and shall serve until the general election in 1978 and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1978 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Walker County a judge of the County Court at Law of Walker County for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 80, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution.

(d) A vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of county court at law shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Walker County and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

(e) The judge of the county court at law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(f) The judge of the county court at law shall receive a salary of not less than 83 percent of the annual salary of the district judge in Walker County, to be paid by the county treasurer by order of the commissioners court, and the salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The judge of the county court at law shall be entitled to traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help, in the same manner as is allowed the county judge. The judge of the County Court at Law of Walker County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed or may be established by law, relating to the county judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the county treasury on collection, and no part of which shall be paid to the judge, but he shall draw the salary as specified in this section.

(g) A special judge of the county court at law with the same qualifications as the regular judge may be appointed or elected in the manner provided by law for the appointment or election of a special county judge. If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Sec. 8. (a) The County Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Walker County shall serve as county attorney, clerk and sheriff respectively of the County Court at Law of Walker County, except that the District Clerk of Walker County shall serve as clerk of the county court at law in the cases enumerated in Subsection (b), Section 3 of this Act. These officials, either personally or by the appointment of a deputy or assistant, shall perform the duties and responsibilities of their office and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices. The commissioners court may employ as many deputy sheriffs and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law, which reporter shall serve at the pleasure of the judge of the county court at law. The official court reporter is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Walker County. The judge of the county court at law may, in lieu of appointing an official court reporter, contract for the services of a court reporter under guidelines to be established by the commissioners court.

Sec. 9. (a) As soon as practicable following the effective date of this Act, the county clerk shall establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act from among pending matters filed originally in the County Court of Walker County and shall transfer those matters to the docket of the court created by this Act, and the district clerk shall establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act from among pending matters filed originally in the district court in Walker County and may transfer a sufficient number of those matters to the docket of the court created by this Act to equalize the dockets. Equalization of case load shall be the primary objective in establishing the initial case docket for the county court at law.

(b) On the transfer of all cases specified in Subsection (a) of this section to the county court at law, and in cases transferred to any of the courts in Walker County by order of the judge of another court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of the bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

(c) The judge of the county court and the judge of the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts in matters within their jurisdiction. All cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated or included in Section 3 of this Act may be instituted in or transferred between the district court in Walker County and the county court at law in Walker County. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.
(d) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other in matters within their jurisdiction so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law, but only in matters within his jurisdiction, and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of either court may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending. This provision providing for the exchange of benches by and between the judge of the county court and the judge of the county court at law is cumulative of and in addition to the provisions herein provided for the selection and appointment of a special judge of the county court at law.

Sec. 10. (a) Practice in the county court at law shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts, except that practice and procedure, rules of evidence, issuance of process and writs, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearing in the county court at law involving those matters of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Subsection (b), Section 3 of this Act shall be governed by the provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts, general or special, as well as county courts. If a case enumerated in Subsection (b), Section 3 of this Act is tried before a jury, the jury shall be composed of 12 members.

(b) The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law.

(c) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court or courts may, on request of the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in the county court at law.

Sec. 11. The Commissioners Court of Walker County shall furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the court created by this Act.

Sec. 12. The seal of the court created by this Act shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words “County Court at Law of Walker County.” The County Court at Law of Walker County shall be a court of record.

Sec. 13. Appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of the county court at law shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals as is now or may be hereafter provided for appeals from district and county courts and in all criminal cases shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Sec. 14. All cases appealed from the justice courts and other inferior courts in Walker County shall be made direct to the County Court at Law of Walker County, unless otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 15. The effective date of this Act is September 1, 1977.

[Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 129, ch. 68, §§ 1 to 15, eff. Sept. 1, 1977.]

COMAL COUNTY

Art. 1970-368. County Court at Law of Comal County

Sec. 1. There is created a court in Comal County to be known as the County Court at Law of Comal County.

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil and criminal, original and appellate, as is prescribed by the constitution and general laws of the state for county courts. The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in Comal County in juvenile matters and proceedings and in all civil and criminal matters and proceedings, original and appellate, for which jurisdiction was transferred from the county court to the district court by Chapter 35, Acts of the 18th Legislature, Regular Session, 1883. The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the amount in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $10,000, exclusive of interest, as provided by general law. The county court at law does not have jurisdiction over causes and proceedings concerning roads, bridges, and public highways and the general administration of county business which is now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court of Comal County.

(b) The county court at law has the general jurisdiction of a probate court within the limits of Comal County, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Comal County in probate matters and in proceedings.

(c) The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any other court in the county of inferior jurisdiction. The court and judge also have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges, and he is a magistrate and conservator of the peace.

(d) The County Judge of Comal County is the judge of the County Court of Comal County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Comal County except insofar as the same are, by this Act, committed to the judge of the County Court at Law of Comal County.

(e) In addition to the jurisdiction conferred on the county court at law by the other provisions of this Act, the county court at law has concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts in Comal County in suits and causes involving family law matters, including adoptions; birth records; removal of disability of minority and coverture; change of name of persons; divorce and marriage annulment proceedings; and independent actions involving child welfare, custody, support and reciprocal support, dependency, neglect, and delinquency; and independent actions involving controversies between parent and child and between husband and wife. The provisions in this subsection do not diminish the jurisdiction of the district courts in Comal County, and the district courts shall retain and continue to exercise the jurisdiction that is conferred by law on district courts.

Sec. 3. The terms of the County Court at Law of Comal County are the same as those for the County Court of Comal County, Texas.

Sec. 4. (a) There shall be elected, by the qualified voters of the county, a judge of the County Court at Law of Comal County, who must have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five years, who must be well informed in the laws of this state, and who must have resided and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Comal County for a period of not less than one year prior to the general election. The judge elected holds office for four years and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. During his term of office, the judge shall not engage in the private practice of law.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Comal County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law of Comal County. The judge appointed must have the qualifications prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section and serves until the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. Beginning at the general election in 1978 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected a judge of the county court at law for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. A vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law of Comal County may be filled by appointment by the commissioners court, and the appointee holds office until the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified.

(c) The judge of the County Court at Law of Comal County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The Commissioners Court of Comal County shall fix the salary of the judge of the County Court at Law of Comal County. The judge shall assess the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury, and which may not be paid to the judge.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law may be appointed or elected as provided by law for county courts. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

(f) If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. The special judge selected is entitled to the compensation provided in Subsection (e) of this section.

Sec. 5. (a) The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Comal County shall serve as county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Comal County, except that the district clerk of Comal County shall serve as clerk of the county court at law in the cases enumerated in Subsection (e) of Section 2 of this Act and shall establish a separate docket for the county court at law. The Commissioners Court of Comal County may employ as many assistant county attorneys, deputy sheriffs, and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court created by this Act. Those serving shall perform the duties, and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices in Comal County.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter who serves at the pleasure of the judge and who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the commissioners court. The official court reporter must have the qualifications prescribed by law for district court reporters.

(c) The seal of the court shall contain the words “County Court at Law of Comal County,” but in other respects is identical with the seal of the County Court of Comal County.
Sec. 6. (a) Practice in the County Court at Law of Comal County shall conform to that prescribed by law for the County Court of Comal County, except that practice and procedure, rules of evidence, issuance of process and writs, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in the county court at law involving those matters of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Subsection (e), Section 2, of this Act shall be governed by the provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts, general or special, as well as county courts. If a case enumerated in Subsection (e), Section 2, of this Act is tried before a jury, the jury shall be composed of 12 members.

(b) The judges of the county court and the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts, in matters within their concurrent probate jurisdiction, in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. All cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated or included in Subsection (a) or (e) of Section 2 of this Act may be instituted in or transferred between the district court in Comal County and the County Court at Law of Comal County. However, no case may be transferred from one court to another court without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(c) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the cause or proceeding. Either judge may hear all or any part of a cause or proceeding pending in the county court or county court at law, and he may rule or enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the cause or proceeding without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of either court may not sit or act in any cause or proceeding unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the matter is pending.

(d) In cases transferred to any of the courts by order of the judge of another court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 7. (a) The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the county clerk and the county judge of Comal County for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors and talesmen shall also be exercised by the county court at law and its judge.

(b) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court or courts may, on request of either the county judge or the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in either the county court or county court at law.

TOM GREEN COUNTY

Art. 1970-369. County Court at Law of Tom Green County

Sec. 1. The County Court at Law of Tom Green County is created.

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has jurisdiction in all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, juvenile, and probate, original and appellate, over which by the constitution and general laws of the state the county courts have jurisdiction, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the county court of Tom Green County. This provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or of the county judge of Tom Green County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court. The county judge of Tom Green County shall be the judge of the county court of Tom Green County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the county court of Tom Green County unless by this Act committed to the judge of the county court at law.

(b) The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases as provided by general law and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $10,000, exclusive of interest.

Sec. 3. The county court at law or its judge may issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.

Sec. 4. The terms of the county court at law are the same as those for the county court of Tom Green County.

Sec. 5. (a) The judge of the county court at law shall have been a bona fide resident of Tom Green County for two years prior to his appointment or election. He shall be a licensed attorney in this state who has been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of five years prior to this appointment or election. He shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office and shall not engage in the private practice of law while in office.

(b) When this court is created, the commissioners court shall appoint a judge to the county court at law who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1978 or 1982, and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Tom Green County a judge of the county court at law for a regular term of four years, as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. A vacancy in the office of the judge of the county court at law shall be filled by appointment from the commissioners court, and the appointee holds office until January 1 of the year following the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified.

(d) The judge of the county court at law may receive a salary to be set by the commissioners court to be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury by the commissioners court. He may be entitled to traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help, in the same manner as is allowed the county judge. The judge of the county court at law shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed or may be established by law relating to the county judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the county treasury on collection.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge when the judge of the county court at law is disqualified. A special judge must have the same qualifications as the judge of the county court at law and is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Sec. 6. (a) The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Tom Green County shall serve as county attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the county court at law. These officials, either personally or by the appointment of a deputy or assistant, shall perform the duties and responsibilities of their offices and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices. The commissioners court may employ as many deputy sheriffs and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office, who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Tom Green County, and who shall serve at the pleasure of the judge of the county court at law. Except where inconsistent with this Act, all general laws relating to court reporters apply to the official court reporter of the county court at law. The reporter shall be available for matters being considered in the county court and in the district courts in Tom Green County, with the approval of the judge of the county court at law.

Sec. 7. (a) Practice in the county court at law shall conform to that prescribed by law for the county court.

(b) In order that the business may be equally distributed between the courts, the judges of the county court at law and the county court may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts and the judges of the county court at law and the district courts may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts. However, no case may be transferred from one court to another court without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(c) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may, in their discretion, exchange benches from time to time, and either of the judges may, in his own courtroom, try and determine any case or proceeding pending in either of the courts without having the case transferred, or may sit in either of the courts and there hear and determine any case there pending, and each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending. The judges may try different cases in the same court at the same time and each may occupy his own courtroom or the room of any other court. In case of absence, sickness, or disqualification of either of the judges, the other judge may hold court for him. Either of the judges may hear any part of any case or proceeding pending in either of the courts and determine the same or may hear and determine any question in any case, and either of the judges may complete the hearing and render judgment in the case. However, the judge of either court may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court.

(d) In cases transferred to any of the courts by order of the judge of another court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 8. The laws that govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law. A general panel of jurors, or jurors impaneled for a week by a district court, may be made available and shall serve for the week in the county court at law.

Sec. 9. (a) The Commissioners Court of Tom Green County shall furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the county court at law.

(b) The county court at law shall have a seal identical with the seal of the county court of Tom Green County, except that it shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Tom Green County."

Sec. 10. The County Court at Law of Tom Green County is created on January 1, 1980, or on a date determined by the commissioners court by an order entered in its minutes, whichever date is earlier. [Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 688, ch. 260, §§1 to 10, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

MIDLAND COUNTY

Art. 1970-369. County Court at Law of Midland County

Sec. 1. The County Court at Law of Midland County is created on the date determined by the provisions of Section 10a of this Act.

Sec. 2. (a) The county court at law has jurisdiction in all causes and proceedings, civil, criminal, juvenile, and probate, original and appellate, over which by the constitution and general laws of the state the county courts have jurisdiction, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court of Midland County. This provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or of the county judge of Midland County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court. The county judge of Midland County shall be the judge of the county court of Midland County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the county court of Midland County unless by this Act committed to the judge of the county court at law.

(b) The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest, as provided by general law.

Sec. 3. The county court at law or its judge may issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.

Sec. 4. The terms of the county court at law are the same as those for the County Court of Midland County.

Sec. 5. (a) The judge of the county court at law must be a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas who has resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Midland County for a period of not less than two years prior to his appointment or election.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the commissioners court shall appoint a judge to the county court at law who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified. At the general election in 1978 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Midland County a judge of the county court at law for a regular term of four years beginning on January 1, 1979, as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. A vacancy in the office of the judge of the county court at law shall be filled by appointment by the commissioners court, and the appointee holds office until January 1 of the year following the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified.

(c) The judge of the county court at law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(d) The judge of the county court at law shall receive a salary to be set by the commissioners court and to be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury by the commissioners court. He shall be entitled to traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help, in the same manner as is allowed the county judge. The judge of the county court at law shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed or may be established by law relating to the county judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the county treasury on collection.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law may be appointed or elected in the manner provided by law for the appointment or election of a special county judge. A special judge must have the same qualifications as the judge of the county court at law and is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Sec. 6. (a) The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Midland County shall serve as county attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, of the county court at law. These officials, either personally or by the appointment of a deputy or assistant, shall perform the duties and responsibilities of their offices and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices. The commissioners court may employ as many deputy sheriffs and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter, who must meet the qualifications prescribed by law for that office, who is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Midland County, and who shall serve at the pleasure of the judge of the county court at law. Except where inconsistent with this Act, all general laws relating to court reporters apply to the official court reporter of the county court at law. The reporter shall be available for matters being considered in the county court and in the district courts in Midland County, with the approval of the judge of the county court at law.

Sec. 7. (a) Practice in the county court at law shall conform to that prescribed by law for the county court.

(b) In order that the business may be equally distributed between the courts, the judges of the county court at law and the county court may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts. However, no case may be transferred from one court to another court without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(c) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of either court may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending.

(d) In cases transferred to any of the courts by order of the judge of another court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred to as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 8. The laws that govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law. A general panel of jurors, or jurors impaneled for a week by a district court, may be made available and shall serve for the week in the county court at law. A general panel of jurors or jurors impaneled for a week by a district court or summoned for the county court or county court at law may, on request of a justice of the peace, be made available in such numbers as may be requested for service in the justice court and shall serve in the justice court as if summoned for the justice court to which they are transferred.

Sec. 9. (a) The Commissioners Court of Midland County shall furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the county court at law.

(b) The county court at law shall have a seal identical with the seal of the county court of Midland County, except that it shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Midland County."
Art. 1970–370  COURTS—COUNTY

Sec. 10. The judge of the county court at law is a member of the Midland County Juvenile Board.

Sec. 10a. The County Court at Law of Midland County is created on January 1, 1980, or on an earlier date determined by the Commissioners Court of Midland County by an order entered in its minutes, finding and determining that the conditions of the docket of the district courts serving Midland County require the creation of the county court at law to properly dispose of cases arising in Midland County. In determining the need of a county court at law, the commissioners court may submit the question in a nonbinding referendum to the voters of Midland County at any countywide general election or special election called for that purpose.

Section 12 of the 1977 Act provides that the provisions of this Act take effect on January 1, 1978.

RANDELL COUNTY

Art. 1970–371. County Court at Law of Randall County

Sec. 1. The County Court at Law of Randall County is created on the date determined by the provisions of Section 13 of this Act.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law of Randall County, concurrently with the County Court of Randall County, has jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil and criminal, juvenile and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by the constitution and general laws of this state for county courts. However, it does not have jurisdiction over causes and proceedings concerning roads, bridges, and public highways and the general administration of county business which is now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court of Randall County.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law of Randall County has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $10,000, exclusive of interest.

Sec. 4. In addition to the jurisdiction conferred on the County Court at Law of Randall County by the other provisions of this Act, the county court at law has concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts of Randall County in suits, causes, and matters involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, wife and child desertion, delinquent, neglected, or dependent child proceedings, Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, and all jurisdiction, powers, and authority now or hereafter placed in the district or county courts under the juvenile and child welfare laws of this state; and of all divorce, marriage, and annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, temporary support pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support of minors, change of name of persons, and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, or between any of these and third persons; corporations, trustees, or other legal entities, which are now or may hereafter be within the jurisdiction of the district or county courts; all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law, and the county court at law and its judge have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of its jurisdiction. The provisions in this subsection do not diminish the jurisdiction of the several district courts in Randall County, and the district courts shall retain and continue to exercise such jurisdiction as is now or may be hereafter conferred by law, and the jurisdiction given in this subsection is concurrent with the jurisdiction of the district courts.

Sec. 5. The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges, except that such judge of the county court at law shall in no way have any authority over the administrative business of Randall County which is now performed by the County Judge of Randall County.

Sec. 6. The county court at law shall hold two continuous terms which commence on the first Monday in January and on the first Monday in July of each year. Each term of court continues until the next succeeding term begins.

Sec. 7. (a) The judge of the county court at law shall be a qualified voter in Randall County. He shall be a licensed attorney in this state who has been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of five years prior to his appointment or election.

(b) The judge of the county court at law shall not engage in the private practice of law after his appointment or election.
(c) When this court is created, the Commissioners Court of Randall County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law of Randall County. The judge appointed serves until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified. Beginning at the general election in 1978 or 1982 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Randall County a judge of the county court at law for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution.

(d) A vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of county court at law shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Randall County, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

(e) The judge of the county court at law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(f) The judge of the county court at law may receive a salary to be set by the commissioners court and to be paid out of the county treasury by the commissioners court. The salary may be paid in equal monthly installments. The judge of the county court at law may be entitled to traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help, in the same manner as is allowed the county judge. The judge of the county court at law shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed or may be established by law, relating to the county judge’s fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the county treasury on collection, and no part of which shall be paid to the judge.

(g) A special judge of the county court at law with the same qualifications as the regular judge may be appointed or elected in the manner provided by law for the appointment or election of a special county judge. If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Sec. 8. (a) The criminal district attorney and sheriff of Randall County shall serve as district attorney and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Randall County. The district clerk of Randall County shall serve as clerk of the county court at law in cases enumerated in Sections 3 and 4 of this Act, and the county clerk of Randall County shall serve as clerk of the county court at law in cases enumerated in Section 2 of this Act. These officials, either personally or by the appointment of a deputy or assistant, shall perform the duties and responsibilities of their office and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices. The commissioners court may employ as many deputy sheriffs and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court.

(b) The judge of the county court at law shall appoint an official court reporter who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. The official court reporter is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Randall County.

Sec. 9. (a) As soon as practicable after this court is created, the county clerk shall establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act from among pending matters filed originally in the County Court of Randall County and shall transfer those matters to the docket of the court created by this Act, and the district clerk shall establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act from among pending matters filed originally in the district courts of Randall County and may transfer a sufficient number of those matters to the docket of the court created by this Act to equalize the dockets. Equalization of case load shall be the primary objective in establishing the initial case docket for the county court at law.

(b) On the transfer of all cases specified in Subsection (a) of this section to the county court at law, and in cases transferred to any of the courts in Randall County by order of the judge of another court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of the bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

(c) The judge of the county court and the judge of the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts, in matters within their jurisdiction, in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. All cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Sections 3 and 4 of this Act may be instituted in or transferred between the districts courts of Randall County and the County Court at Law of Randall County. However, no case may be transferred from one court to another without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(d) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other in matters within their jurisdiction so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law, but only in matters within their jurisdiction, and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. The district judges and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other in matters within their concurrent jurisdiction so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, another may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either of the judges may hear all or any part of a case pending in the district court or county court at law, but only in matters within their jurisdiction, and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, a judge may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending. The provisions providing for the exchange of benches by and between the judges are cumulative of and in addition to the provisions herein provided for the selection and appointment of a special judge of the county court at law.

Sec. 10. (a) Practice in the county court at law shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts, except that practice and procedure, rules of evidence, issuance of process and writs, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in the county court at law involving those matters of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Section 4 of this Act shall be governed by the provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts, general or special, as well as county courts. If a case enumerated in Section 4 of this Act is tried before a jury, the jury shall be composed of 12 members.

(b) The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law.

(c) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court or courts may, on request of either the county judge or the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in either the county court or county court at law.

Sec. 11. The Commissioners Court of Randall County shall furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the court created by this Act.

Sec. 12. The seal of the court created by this Act shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Randall County."

Sec. 13. The County Court at Law of Randall County is created on January 1, 1980, or on a date determined by the commissioners court by an order entered on its minutes, which ever date is earlier.

REEVES COUNTY

Art. 1970–372. County Court at Law of Reeves County

Sec. 1. The County Court at Law of Reeves County is created on the date determined by the provisions of Section 20 of this Act. It shall sit in Pecos, Texas.

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court at Law of Reeves County has jurisdiction in all matters and causes, civil, criminal, juvenile, and probate, original and appellate, over which, by the general laws of the state, the county court of the county would have jurisdiction. This provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the commissioners court, or of the County Judge of Reeves County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court, as to roads, bridges, and public highways, and matters which are now in the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the judge thereof.

(b) The County Court at Law of Reeves County has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases, as provided by general law, and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $10,000, exclusive of interest.

(c) The County Court at Law of Reeves County has concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district court in Reeves County in suits, causes, and matters involving adoptions, removal of disability of minor, and over which, by the general laws of the state, the county court of the county would have jurisdiction.

(d) Nothing in this Act shall diminish the jurisdiction of the district courts in Reeves County, and the district courts shall retain and continue to exercise such jurisdiction as is now or may be hereafter conferred by law, and the jurisdiction given in this Act is concurrent with the jurisdiction of the district courts.

Sec. 3. The County Court of Reeves County shall have no jurisdiction, civil, criminal, juvenile, or probate, original or appellate. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised and retained by the judge of the County Court of Reeves County, except insofar as same shall by this Act be committed to the County Court at Law of Reeves County.

Sec. 4. The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the County Court at Law of Reeves County. Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court may, on request of the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in the county court at law.

Sec. 5. (a) Practice in the county court at law shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts, except that practice and procedure, rules of evidence, issuance of process and writs, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in the county court at law involving those matters of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Subsection (e) of Section 2 of this Act shall be governed by the provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts, general and special, as well as county courts. If a case enumerated in Subsection (c) of Section 2 is tried before a jury, the jury shall be composed of 12 members.

(b) The county court at law shall have the same terms of court as the district court sitting in Reeves County as presently established or as they may hereinafter be changed.

(c) The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts.

Sec. 6. At the general election in 1978 and every four years thereafter, there shall be elected a judge of the County Court at Law of Reeves County who shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five years, who shall be well informed in the laws of the state, who shall have resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Reeves County for a period of not less than two years prior to the general election, and who shall hold his office for four years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. When this court is created, the commissioners court shall appoint a judge of the County Court at Law of Reeves County who shall have the qualifications prescribed in this section and who shall serve until December 31, 1978, and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. A vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law of Reeves County shall in like manner be filled by the commissioners court, with the appointee to hold office until the next succeeding general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 7. The judge of the County Court at Law of Reeves County may receive a salary in an amount determined by the commissioners court, not to exceed 90 percent of the total salary paid the district judge, to be paid out by the county treasurer by order of the commissioners court. The salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The judge of the county court at law is entitled to traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help. The judge of the County Court at Law of Reeves County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed by law relating to the county judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court, shall be paid into the county treasury on collection, and no part of which shall be paid to the judge.

Sec. 8. The judge of the County Court at Law of Reeves County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county and district judges.

Sec. 9. The judge of the county court at law shall not engage in the practice of law in this or any other court in the State of Texas.

Sec. 10. The judge of the County Court at Law of Reeves County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any county judge may be removed under the laws of this state.

Sec. 11. A special judge of the County Court at Law of Reeves County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts. In the case of a disqualification of the judge of the county court at law to try a case pending in this court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge to try the case. A special judge, whether appointed, elected, or selected by the parties, shall receive, as compensation for each day he actively serves, an amount equal to 1/365th of the annual salary of the judge of the County Court at Law of Reeves County, to be paid out of the general fund of the county by the commissioners court.
Sec. 12. The county attorney of Reeves County shall represent the state in the County Court at Law of Reeves County as provided by law for prosecutions in county court, and shall be entitled to the fees prescribed by law for prosecutors in the county court.

Sec. 13. The sheriff of Reeves County shall in person or by deputy attend the court when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 14. The county clerk of Reeves County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law of Reeves County, except that the district clerk of Reeves County shall be the clerk of the county court at law in all those cases enumerated in Subsection (c), Section 2, of this Act.

Sec. 15. The judge of the County Court at Law of Reeves County shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for the court who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. The reporter shall take the oath required of official court reporters, and shall receive a salary to be set by the commissioners court of Reeves County and to be paid out of the county treasury of Reeves County, as other county officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to official court reporters shall apply insofar as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter authorized in this Act to be appointed and insofar as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 16. The seal of the court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Reeves County." The commissioners court of Reeves County shall furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the court created by this Act.

Sec. 17. All cases of concurrent jurisdiction may be instituted in or transferred between the district court of Reeves County and the County Court at Law of Reeves County.

Sec. 18. All cases appealed from the justice courts and other inferior courts in Reeves County shall be appealed to the County Court at Law of Reeves County under the provisions governing such appeals to the county courts. The laws of the State of Texas, the rules of procedure, and the rules of evidence shall be applicable to and control trials and proceedings in the County Court at Law of Reeves County, and shall be applicable to and govern the proceedings in and appeals to and appeals from the County Court at Law of Reeves County.

Sec. 19. When the county court at law is created, all cases and matters pending before the County Court of Reeves County are transferred to the County Court at Law of Reeves County. All processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, and other obligations issued or made in the cases transferred shall be returned to and filed in the county court at law. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the county court at law as fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the county court at law.

Sec. 20. The County Court at Law of Reeves County is created on January 1, 1978, or on a date determined by the commissioners court by an order entered in its minutes, whichever date is earlier. [Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1736, ch. 692, §§ 1 to 20, eff. June 15, 1977.]

VAL VERDE COUNTY

Art. 1970-373. County Court at Law of Val Verde County

Creation

Sec. 1. The County Court at Law of Val Verde County is created on the date determined by the provisions of Section 17 of this Act. It shall sit in Del Rio, Texas.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court at Law of Val Verde County has jurisdiction concurrently with the County Court of Val Verde County in all matters and causes, civil, criminal, juvenile and probate, original and appellate, over which, by the constitution and general laws of the state, the county court has jurisdiction. This provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the commissioners court, or of the county judge of Val Verde County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court, as to roads, bridges, and public highways, and matters which are now in the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the judge thereof, or the administrative business of Val Verde County that is now performed by the county judge of Val Verde County.

(b) The County Court at Law of Val Verde County has concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $10,000, exclusive of interest.

(c) The County Court at Law of Val Verde County has concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district court of Val Verde County in suits, causes and matters involving adoptions, termination of parental rights, removal of disability of minority and coverture, all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, temporary support pending final hearing, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child support and custody of minors, and change of name of persons.

(d) The county court at law has the concurrent jurisdiction with the district court that is specified in this section, which concurrent jurisdiction does not diminish the jurisdiction of the district court in Val Verde County, and the district court shall retain and continue to exercise the jurisdiction that is conferred by law on district courts.

Jurors

Sec. 3. The laws that govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law. Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court may, on request of the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in the county court at law.

Practice and Procedure

Sec. 4. Practice in the county court at law shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts, except that practice and procedure, rules of evidence, issuance of process and writs, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in the county court at law involving those matters of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Section 2(c) of this Act shall be governed by the provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts, general and special, as well as county courts. If a case enumerated in Section 2(c) is tried before a jury, the jury shall be composed of 12 members.

Terms

Sec. 5. The county court at law shall have the same terms of court as the district court sitting in Val Verde County as presently established or as they may be changed.

Writ Power

Sec. 6. The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts.

Sec. 7. At the general election in 1982 and every four years thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Val Verde County a judge of the county court at law, who shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five years, who shall be well informed in the laws of the state, who shall have resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Val Verde County for a period of not less than two years prior to the general election, and who shall hold office for four years and until his successor is elected and has qualified. When this court is created, the commissioners court shall appoint a judge of the county court at law, who shall have the qualifications prescribed in this section and who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified. A vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the judge of the county court at law shall be filled by the commissioners court, with the appointee holding office until the next succeeding general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

Compensation

Sec. 8. The judge of the county court at law may receive an annual salary to be determined by the commissioners court in an amount not less than $20,000 and not more than 90 percent of the total compensation paid the district judge. The salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments by the county treasurer by order of the commissioners court. The judge of the county court at law is entitled to traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help. The judge of the county court at law shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed by law relating to the county judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court, shall be paid into the county treasury on collection, and no part of which shall be paid to the judge.

Bond and Oath

Sec. 9. The judge of the county court at law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county and district judges.

Private Practice Prohibited

Sec. 10. The judge of the county court at law shall not engage in the private practice of law after his appointment or election.

Removal

Sec. 11. The judge of the county court at law may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any county judge may be removed under the laws of this state.
Art. 1970-373

Special Judge

Sec. 12. A special judge of the county court at law may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts. In the case of a disqualification of the judge of the county court at law to try a case pending in this court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge to try the case. A special judge, whether appointed, elected, or selected by the parties, shall receive, as compensation for each day he actively serves, an amount equal to $100 of the annual salary of the judge of the county court at law, to be paid out of the general fund of the county by the commissioners court.

Personnel

Sec. 13. (a) The county attorney of Val Verde County shall represent the state in the county court at law as provided by law for prosecutions in county court, and shall be entitled to the fees prescribed by law for prosecutors in the county court.

(b) The sheriff of Val Verde County shall in person or by deputy attend the court when required by the judge thereof.

(c) The county clerk of Val Verde County shall be the clerk of the county court at law, except that the district clerk of Val Verde County shall be the clerk of the county court at law in all those cases enumerated in Section 2(c) of this Act.

(d) The judge of the county court at law shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for the court, who shall have the qualifications required by law, shall be a sworn officer of the court, and shall hold the office at the pleasure of the court. The reporter shall take the oath required of official court reporters, and shall receive a salary to be set by the commissioners court of Val Verde County and to be paid out of the county treasury, as other county officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of the law relating to official court reporters shall apply insofar as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter authorized in this Act to be appointed and insofar as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Seal and Courtroom

Sec. 14. The seal of the court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words “County Court at Law of Val Verde County.” The commissioners court of Val Verde County may furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the court created by this Act.

Transfer of Cases

Sec. 15. (a) On the first day of the court’s existence, the county clerk shall establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act from among pending matters filed originally in the County Court of Val Verde County, by transferring the odd-numbered suits to the docket of the court created by this Act and leaving the even-numbered suits in the county court.

(b) The judge of the county court and the judge of the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts, in matters within their jurisdiction, in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. All cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Section 2(b) and 2(c) of this Act may be instituted in or transferred between the district courts of Val Verde County and the County Court at Law of Val Verde County. However, no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred from one court to another without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred.

Exchange of Benches

Sec. 16. The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other in matters within their jurisdiction so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law, but only in matters within their jurisdiction, and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring the case to his own docket. However, a judge may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending. The provisions providing for the exchange of benches by and between the judges are cumulative of and in addition to the provisions herein provided for the selection and appointment of a special judge of the county court at law.

Effective Date

Sec. 17. The County Court at Law of Val Verde County is created on January 1, 1982, or on a date determined by the commissioners court by an order entered in its minutes, whichever date is earlier. [Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 341, ch. 156, §§ 1 to 17, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

WISE COUNTY

Art. 1970-374. County Court at Law of Wise County

Sec. 1. The County Court at Law of Wise County is created. The court shall sit in Decatur, Texas.

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court at Law of Wise County has the same jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil and criminal, juvenile and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by law for county courts, and its jurisdiction in those matters is concurrent with that of the County Court of Wise County. This provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or the county judge of Wise County as the presiding officer of the commissioners court.

(b) The county court at law has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest.

(c) The county court at law or its judge has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges.

(d) The county judge of Wise County is the judge of the County Court of Wise County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the County Court of Wise County unless this Act provides otherwise.

Sec. 3. The term of the county court at law is continuous on an annual basis, beginning on January 1 of each year and concluding on December 31 of the same year.

Sec. 4. (a) The judge of the county court at law must be a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas who has been a bona fide resident of Wise County for six months prior to his appointment or election.

(b) When this Act becomes effective, the commissioners court shall appoint a judge to the county court at law to serve until January 1 of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. At the next general election after the effective date of this Act, a judge shall be elected to serve until January 1, 1981. At the general election in 1982 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Wise County a judge of the County Court at Law of Wise County for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. A vacancy in the office shall be filled by the commissioners court and the appointee holds office until January 1 of the year following the next general election and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. The judge of the county court at law may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as provided by the laws of this state for removal of county judges.

(c) The judge of the county court at law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges.

(d) The judge of the county court at law shall receive an annual salary in an amount to be fixed by the commissioners court, which shall not exceed 90 percent of the amount paid district judges from the General Revenue Fund of the state and which shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury of Wise County on orders from the commissioners court. Additionally, he shall be entitled to reasonable traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help. The judge of the county court at law shall charge the fees prescribed by law for county judges, which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury.

(e) A special judge of the county court at law with the same qualifications as the judge of the county court at law may be appointed in the manner provided by law for the appointment of a special county judge. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Sec. 5. (a) The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Wise County shall serve in their respective capacities in the county court at law. They shall perform the duties and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official shorthand reporter for the court who shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. All provisions of the general laws of Texas relating to the appointment of a reporter for the district court shall apply, so far as applicable, to the official shorthand reporter authorized to be appointed by the judge of the county court at law. The reporter shall be entitled to the same fees and shall perform the same duties as provided in the general laws and in addition shall receive a salary, not to exceed the compensation paid to the official shorthand reporter of the district court of Wise County, to be determined by the judge of the county court at law and paid out of the county treasury on order of the commissioners court.

(c) The seal of the court shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Wise County," but in other respects is identical with the seal of the county court of Wise County.
Art. 1970-374 COURTS—COUNTY

Sec. 6. (a) Practice in the county court at law shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts.

(b) The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law.

(c) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court or courts may, on request of the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in the county court at law.

Sec. 7. (a) In order that the business may be equally distributed between the courts, the judges of the county court at law and the county court may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts and the judges of the county court at law and the district courts may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts. However, no case may be transferred from one court to another court without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(b) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may, in their discretion, exchange benches from time to time, and either of the judges may, in his own courtroom, try and determine any case or proceeding pending in either of the courts without having the case transferred, or may sit in either of the courts and there hear and determine any case there pending, and each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending. The judges may try different cases in the same court at the same time and each may occupy his own courtroom or the room of any other court. In case of absence, sickness, or disqualification of either of the judges, the other judge may hold court for him. Either of the judges may hear any part of any case or proceeding pending in either of the courts and determine the same or may hear and determine any question in any case, and either of the judges may complete the hearing and render judgment in the case. However, the judge of either court may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court.

(c) In cases transferred to any of the courts by order of the judge of another court or by Section 10 of this Act, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases transferred shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 8. The judge of the county court at law is a member of the juvenile board of Wise County.

Sec. 9. The commissioners court shall furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the court created by this Act.

Sec. 10. All cases and matters, civil, criminal, and probate, original and appellate, pending before the County Court of Wise County on the effective date of this Act are transferred to the County Court at Law of Wise County.

GREGG COUNTY

Art. 1970-375. County Court at Law of Gregg County

Creation

Sec. 1. The County Court at Law of Gregg County is created on the date determined under Section 11 of this Act.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court at Law of Gregg County, concurrently with the County Court of Gregg County, has jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil and criminal, juvenile and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by the constitution and general laws of this state for county courts. However, it does not have jurisdiction over causes and proceedings concerning roads, bridges, and public highways and the general administration of county business which is now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court of Gregg County.

(b) The County Court at Law of Gregg County has concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $20,000, exclusive of interest.

Writ Power

Sec. 3. The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges, except that such judge of the county court at law shall in no way have any authority over the administrative business of Gregg County which is now performed by the County Judge of Gregg County.

Terms

Sec. 4. The county court at law shall hold two continuous terms which commence on the first Monday in January and on the first Monday in July of each year. Each term of court continues until the next succeeding term begins.

Judge

Sec. 5. (a) The judge of the county court at law shall be a qualified voter in Gregg County. He shall be a licensed attorney in this state who has been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of five years prior to his appointment or election.

(b) The judge of the county court at law shall not engage in the private practice of law after his appointment or election.

(c) When this court is created, the Commissioners Court of Gregg County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law of Gregg County. The judge appointed serves until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified. Beginning at the general election in 1982 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Gregg County a judge of the county court at law for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution.

(d) A vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of county court at law shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Gregg County, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

(e) The judge of the county court at law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(f) The judge of the County Court at Law of Gregg County and the county judge of Gregg County shall receive an annual salary to be set by the commissioners court in an amount not to exceed 90 percent of the total annual salary paid to the judges of the district courts having jurisdiction in Gregg County. The salary may be paid in equal monthly installments. The judge of the county court at law may be entitled to traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help, in the same manner as is allowed the county judge. The judge of the county court at law shall assess the same fees as are prescribed by law relating to county judges' fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the county treasury on collection, and no part of which shall be paid to the judge.

(g) A special judge of the county court at law with the same qualifications as the regular judge may be appointed or elected in the manner provided by law for the appointment or election of a special county judge. If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Court Officials and Personnel

Sec. 6. (a) The criminal district attorney and sheriff of Gregg County shall serve as district attorney and sheriff, respectively, of the County Court at Law of Gregg County. The district clerk of Gregg County shall serve as clerk of the county court at law in cases enumerated in Section 2(b), and the county clerk of Gregg County shall serve as clerk of the county court at law in cases enumerated in Section 2(a) of this Act. These officials, either personally or by the appointment of a deputy or assistant, shall perform the duties and responsibilities of their office and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices. The commissioners court may employ as many deputy sheriffs and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court.

(b) The judge of the county court at law shall appoint an official court reporter who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. The official court reporter is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Gregg County.

(c) The judge of the County Court at Law of Gregg County, Texas, with the consent of the commissioners court, may employ a secretary, the secretary being entitled to a salary as determined by the commissioners court.

Transfer of Cases and Exchange of Benches

Sec. 7. (a) As soon as practicable after this court is created, the county clerk shall establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act from among pending matters filed originally in the County Court of Gregg County and shall transfer those matters to the docket of the court created by this Act, and the district clerk shall establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act from among pending matters filed originally in the district courts of Gregg County and may transfer a sufficient number of those matters to the docket of the court created by this Act to equalize the dockets. Equalization of case load shall be the primary objective in establishing the initial case docket for the county court at law.
(b) The judge of the county court and the judge of the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts, in matters within their jurisdiction, in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. All cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Section 2(b) of this Act may be instituted in or transferred between the district courts of Gregg County and the County Court at Law of Gregg County. However, no case may be transferred from one court to another without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(c) On the transfer of all cases specified in Subsection (a) of this section to the county court at law, and in cases transferred to any of the courts in Gregg County by order of the judge of another court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of the bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as are fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases as well as all bonds and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

(d) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other in matters within their jurisdiction so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law, but only in matters within their jurisdiction, and may rule and render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending. The provisions for the exchange of benches by and between the judges are cumulative of and in addition to the provisions in this Act for the selection and appointment of a special judge of the county court at law.

Practice and Jurors

Sec. 8. (a) Practice in the county court at law shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts.

(b) The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law.

(c) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court or courts may, on request of either the county judge or the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in either the county court or county court at law.

Courtroom

Sec. 9. The Commissioners Court of Gregg County shall furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the court created by this Act.

Seal

Sec. 10. The seal of the court created by this Act shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Gregg County."

Effective Date

Sec. 11. The County Court at Law of Gregg County is created on January 1, 1981, or on a date determined by the commissioners court by an order entered on its minutes, whichever date is earlier. [Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 889, ch. 409, §§ 1 to 11, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

MEDINA COUNTY

Art. 1970–376. County Court at Law of Medina County

Creation

Sec. 1. The County Court at Law of Medina County is created on the date determined by Section 10 of this Act.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court at Law of Medina County has jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil and criminal, juvenile and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by the constitution and general laws of the state for county courts, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with the jurisdiction of the County Court of Medina County. It does not have jurisdiction over causes and proceedings concerning roads, bridges, and public highways and the general administration of county business which is now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court of Medina County.

(b) The County Court at Law of Medina County has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in eminent domain cases and in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $5,000 and does not exceed $20,000, exclusive of interest, as provided by general law.

(c) In addition to the jurisdiction conferred on the County Court at Law of Medina County by the other provisions of this Act, the county court at law has concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts in Medina County in suits and causes involving family law matters, including adoptions; birth records; removal of disability of minority or coverture; change of name of persons; divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights, custody and support of minor children involved, temporary support pending final hearing, and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings; and independent actions involving child welfare, custody, support and reciprocal support, dependency, neglect, and delinquency; and independent actions involving controversies between parent and child and between husband and wife. The provisions in this subsection do not diminish the jurisdiction of the district courts in Medina County, and the district courts shall retain and continue to exercise the jurisdiction that is conferred by law on district courts.

(d) The county court at law, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county. The court and judge have the power to punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts. The judge of the county court at law has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges, except that such judge of the county court at law shall in no way have any authority over the administrative business of Medina County which is now performed by the county judge of Medina County.

Terms

Sec. 3. The county court at law shall hold two continuous terms which commence on the first Monday in January and on the first Monday in July of each year. Each term of court continues until the next succeeding term begins.

Judge

Sec. 4. (a) The judge of the county court at law shall be a qualified voter in Medina County, shall have been a resident of Medina County for two years, and shall be a licensed attorney in this state who has been actively engaged in the practice of law or has been a judge of a court in this state, or both combined, for four years prior to the judge’s appointment or election.

(b) When this court is created, the governor shall appoint a judge to the county court at law, who shall serve until the next general election after he or she takes office, and until his or her successor is elected and has qualified. Beginning at the general election in 1982 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Medina County a judge of the county court at law for a regular term of four years as provided by Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution.

(c) After the initial appointment, a vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of the county court at law shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Medina County, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his or her successor is elected and has qualified.

(d) The judge of the county court at law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. The judge may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(e) The judge of the county court at law shall receive a salary to be set by the commissioners court and to be paid out of the county treasury by the commissioners court in an amount not to exceed 90 percent of the amount paid a district judge having jurisdiction in Medina County. The salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments. The judge of the county court at law shall be entitled to traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help, in the same manner as is allowed the county judge. The judge of the county court at law shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed or may be established by law, relating to the county judge’s fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the county treasury on collection, and no part of which shall be paid to the judge.

(f) A special judge of the county court at law with the same qualifications as the regular judge may be appointed or elected in the manner provided by law for the appointment or election of a special county judge. If a judge of the county court at law is disqualified to try a case pending in his or her court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

Personnel

Sec. 5. (a) The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Medina County shall serve as county attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, for the county court at law, except that the district clerk of Medina County shall serve as clerk of the county court at law in cases enumerated in Section 2(c) of this Act and shall establish a separate docket for the county court at law. These officials, either personally or by the appointment of a deputy or assistant, shall perform the duties and responsibilities of their office and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices. The commissioners court may employ as many deputy sheriffs and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court.
(b) The judge of the county court at law shall appoint an official court reporter who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be as provided by law for official court reporters. The official court reporter is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners Court of Medina County.

Transfer of Cases and Judges

Sec. 6. (a) As soon as practicable after this court is created, the county clerk shall establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act from among pending matters filed originally in the county court, and shall transfer those matters to the docket of the court created by this Act, and the district clerk shall establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act from among pending matters filed originally in the district courts of Medina County and may transfer a sufficient number of those matters to the docket of the court created by this Act to equalize the dockets. Equalization of case load shall be the primary objective in establishing the initial case docket for the county court at law.

(b) The judge of the county court and the judge of the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts, in matters within their jurisdiction, in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. All cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Section 2(c) of this Act may be instituted in or transferred between the district courts of Medina County and the County Court at Law of Medina County. However, no case may be transferred from one court to another without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(c) On the transfer of all cases specified in Subsection (a) of this section to the county court at law, and in cases transferred to any of the courts in Medina County by order of the judge of another court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of the bonds or recognizances at the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases, as well as all bonds and recognizances taken before transfer, shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

(d) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other in matters within their jurisdiction so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him or her without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law, but only in matters within their jurisdiction, and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his or her own docket. However, a judge may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his or her court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending. The provisions providing for the exchange of benches by and between the judges are cumulative of and in addition to the provisions here-in provided for the selection and appointment of a special judge of the county court at law.

Practice and Procedure

Sec. 7. (a) Practice in the county court at law shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts, except that practice and procedure, rules of evidence, issuance of process and writs, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in the county court at law involving those matters of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Section 2(c) of this Act shall be governed by the provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts, general or special, as well as county courts. If a case enumerated in Section 2(c) of this Act is tried before a jury, the jury shall be composed of 12 members.

(b) The laws which govern the drawing, selection, service, and pay of jurors for county courts apply to the county court at law.

(c) Jurors regularly impaneled for a week by the district court or courts may, on request of either the county judge or the judge of the county court at law, be made available and shall serve for the week in either the county court or county court at law.

Courtroom

Sec. 8. The commissioners court shall furnish and equip a suitable courtroom and office space for the court created by this Act.

Seal

Sec. 9. The seal of the court created by this Act shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words “County Court at Law of Medina County.”

Date of Creation

Sec. 10. The County Court at Law of Medina County is created on January 1, 1980, or on a date determined by the commissioners court by an order entered on its minutes, whichever date is earlier. [Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 931, ch. 426, §§ 1 to 11, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]
TITLE 42

COURTS—PRACTICE IN DISTRICT AND COUNTY

CHAPTER ONE. INSTITUTION, PARTIES AND VENUE

3. PARTIES TO SUITS

Art. 1994. Suit and Representation by Next Friend

Minors, lunatics, idiots or non compos mentis persons who have no legal guardian may sue and be represented by “next friend” under the following rules:

1. In such cases when a judgment is recovered for money or other personal property, the court may by order entered of record, authorize such next friend or other person to take charge of such money or other property for the use and benefit of the plaintiff when he has executed a proper bond (in the sum at least double the value of the property), payable to the county judge, conditioned that he will pay said money with lawful interest thereon or deliver said property and its increase to the person entitled to receive the same when ordered by the court to do so, and that he will use such money or property for the benefit of the owner under the direction of the court. The bond shall be in a sum at least double the value of the property and money recovered, with the exception that a bond which is executed by the next friend or other person taking charge of the money or property, as principal, and by a solvent surety company authorized under the laws of Texas to execute such bonds, as surety, shall be in a sum equal to the value of the property and money recovered.

2. The judge of the court in which the judgment is rendered upon an application and hearing, in termtime or vacation, may provide by decree for an investment of the funds accruing under such judgment. Such decree, if made in vacation, shall be recorded in the minutes of the succeeding term of the court.

3. The person who takes such money or property shall receive such compensation as the court may allow and shall make such disposition thereof as the court may order; and he shall return such money or property into court upon the order of the court.

4. If any person has an interest in such recovery, the court may hear evidence as to such interest, and order such claim, or such part as is deemed just, to be paid to whoever is entitled to receive the same.

5. If not otherwise invested in the manner provided in this article, any moneys recovered by the plaintiff, regardless of the amount, may be invested as follows by either the next friend or the Clerk of the Court:

(a) in savings accounts or certificates of any savings and loan association domiciled in this State provided such accounts are insured by the Federal Savings & Loan Insurance Corporation; or

(b) in interest-bearing time deposits in any bank doing business in this State provided the payment of such time deposits is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; and if such moneys are so invested in such manner as to prevent the withdrawal of such moneys from the financial institution in which they are invested without an order of the court no bond shall be required of the “next friend” in respect to such moneys until the same are withdrawn from such financial institution, at which time the court shall order such bond to be made as may be appropriate under the other provisions of this article, or the court may order such funds turned over directly to the person entitled thereto upon the court finding that the previous disability had ceased to exist.

6. If not otherwise invested in the manner provided in this article, the judge of the court in which the judgment is rendered upon application of the next friend or a duly appointed guardian ad litem for the minor, or either or both of them, after hearing and upon a finding that the best interests of the minor would be served thereby, may by decree entered of record direct the clerk to deliver any funds accruing under such judgment to any trust company or state or national bank in Texas having trust powers, as trustee, to be held and invested as a trust estate for the benefit of such minor, under such terms and provisions of trust as may be provided by the court; provided, however, that any decree establishing such a trust estate shall contain the following trust provisions, in addition to such other terms, provisions, conditions, or limitations not inconsistent therewith as may be established by the court:

(a) the minor shall be the sole beneficiary of such trust;
(b) the trustee shall be authorized to disburse such amounts of the corpus, income, or both, of the trust as may be reasonably necessary in the sole discretion of the trustee to provide for the health, education, support, or maintenance of the beneficiary. Any income not so distributed by the trustee shall be added to the corpus of the trust;

(c) the trust shall provide for termination of the trust upon the death of the beneficiary or upon the beneficiary attaining a stated age, which shall not exceed 25 years of age. Upon termination, the then existing trust principal and any undistributed income shall be paid to the beneficiary or to the personal representative of the estate of a deceased beneficiary;

(d) the trust shall provide that the trustee serve without bond and that the trustee receive reasonable compensation, to be paid out of the income or corpus of the trust, or both, upon application and approval of the court. Any trust established by the court pursuant to this article may provide for distributions of a stated percentage of the then existing trust corpus prior to termination of the trust, as the beneficiary from time to time attains a particular stated age, and may also provide that all distributions and all uses and applications of trust funds, either income or corpus, may be made directly to or expended for the benefit of the beneficiary without the intervention of any legal guardian or other legal representative, and that the trustee may pay any income or principal distribution to or for the benefit of a beneficiary directly to such beneficiary; to the legal or natural guardian or person having custody of such beneficiary; or directly for the maintenance or support of such beneficiary. Any trust established by the court pursuant to this article shall not be subject to revocation by the beneficiary or any guardian of the beneficiary's estate, but shall remain subject to amendment, modification, or revocation by the court at any time prior to termination of the trust. If any trust established hereunder is revoked by the court prior to the beneficiary attaining the age of 18, the court may enter such further or additional orders concerning the trust corpus and any undistributed income as may be authorized by this article. If any trust established hereunder is revoked by the court after the beneficiary has attained the age of 18, after payment of all proper and necessary expenses, the trust corpus and any undistributed income shall be delivered to the beneficiary. Any trust established pursuant to this article shall take precedence over any existing law or statute concerning minors or their property, and such trust shall continue in full force and effect until terminated or revoked notwithstanding the appointment of a guardian of the estate for such minor or such minor attaining his majority.

4. VENUE

Art. 1995. Venue, General Rule

No person who is inhabitant of this State shall be sued out of the county in which he has domicile except in the following cases:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 5]

6. Executors, administrators, etc.—If the suit is against an executor, administrator or guardian, as such, to establish a money demand against the estate which he represents, the suit may be brought in the county in which such estate is administered, or if the suit is against an executor, administrator or guardian growing out of a negligent act or omission of the person whose estate the executor, administrator or guardian represents, the suit may be brought in the county where the negligent act or omission of the person whose estate the executor, administrator or guardian represents occurred.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 7 to 9]

9a. Negligence.—A suit based upon negligence per se, negligence at common law or any form of negligence, active or passive, may be brought in the county where the act or omission of negligence occurred in the county where the defendant has his domicile. The venue facts necessary for plaintiff to establish by the preponderance of the evidence to sustain venue in a county other than the county of defendant's residence are:

1. That an act or omission of negligence occurred in the county where suit was filed.

2. That such act or omission was that of the tort-feasor, in person, or that of his servant, agent or representative acting within the scope of his employment, or that of the person whose estate the defendant represents as executor, administrator, or guardian.

3. That such negligence was a proximate cause of plaintiff's injuries.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 10 to 31]

Art. 2039b. Citation of Nonresidents for Tax Purposes

Acceptance of Benefits Relating to Taxation Deemed Equivalent to Appointment of Agent

Sec. 1. In addition to any procedures for citation provided under Rule 117a, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, the acceptance by a nonresident of this state, or by a person who was a resident of this state at the time of the accrual of a cause of action but who subsequently removes therefrom, of the rights, privileges, and benefits extended by law to such person(s) of owning, having, or claiming an interest in property, real or personal, subject to taxation by the State of Texas and its legal subdivisions, or any of them, shall be deemed equivalent to appointment by such nonresident of the comptroller of public accounts of this state or his successor in office, to be his true and lawful attorney and agent upon whom may be served all lawful process in any civil action or proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted against such nonresident(s) growing out of taxation by the state and its legal subdivisions, or any of them, of property in which such nonresident(s) owned, had, or claimed a taxable interest on the first day of any tax year(s) for which taxes on such property have not been paid. Such service of process, as herein provided, shall have the same effect as if made personally on the defendant within the State of Texas.

Manner and Method of Service

Sec. 2. Service of process under this Act shall be in the same manner and method as that prescribed in Chapter 125, Acts of the 41st Legislature, Regular Session, 1929, as last amended by Chapter 502, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959 (compiled as Article 2039a of Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), which relates to citation of nonresident motor vehicle operators by serving the chairman of the state highway commission; provided, however, in the service of such process certified mail shall be used rather than registered mail.

"Nonresidents" Defined

Sec. 3. “Nonresidents” as used in this Act includes corporations, partnerships and all other legal entities or representatives owning, having, or claiming a taxable interest in such property at the time(s) specified in Section 1 hereof.

Severability Clause

Sec. 4. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

CHAPTER SIX. CERTAIN DISTRICT COURTS

Art. 2093e. Assignment Clerk of Districts Courts of Bexar County

A majority of the Judges of the 37th, 45th, 57th, 73rd, 150th, 131st, 166th, 144th, 175th, 186th, 187th, 224th, 225th, 226th, and 227th District Courts may appoint an Assignment Clerk to serve said Courts in Bexar County under the presiding Judge of said District Courts in the coordination, setting and disposing of cases on the general docket. Such Assignment Clerk shall perform such duties as are assigned to him by said Judges in connection with the coordination, setting and disposing of cases. The Assignment Clerk shall receive reasonable compensation to be determined by the Judges of those Courts, not to exceed 70 percent of the salary paid by the state to the Judges of those Courts. The Commissioners Court of such County shall provide for the payment of the salary of the Assignment Clerk out of the general fund or the jury fund of said County. The appointment shall be for a term of two (2) years, but he shall be subject to dismissal by a majority of said Judges for inefficiency or misconduct.
Art. 2104. Selecting Names for Jury Wheel

Between the first and fifteenth days of August of each year, in each county in this State, the tax collector, sheriff, county clerk, and district clerk of the county, each in person or represented by one of his deputies, shall meet at the county courthouse and reconstitute the jury wheel, using as the sole and mandatory source, all names on the voter registration lists from all precincts in the county and the register of permanently exempt persons maintained by the county tax collector under Article 2137a.

Art. 2100a. Selection in Counties with Aid of Mechanical or Electronic Means; Adoption of Plan

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 and 2(a)]

(b) It shall specify that the sources from which names are to be taken for jury purposes are all voter registration lists from all precincts in the county and the register of permanently exempt persons maintained by the county tax collector under Article 2137a.

Art. 2101. Interchangeable Juries

The provisions of this article shall be applicable only to such counties of this State as may now maintain three or more district courts, or in which three or more district courts may be hereafter established. A criminal court in any county with jurisdiction in felony cases shall be considered a district court within the meaning of this article. The "Interchangeable Jury Law" shall not apply to a selection of jurors in lunacy cases or in capital cases.

6. A. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, in a county in which two district courts have jurisdiction, both district judges may meet together at such times as they may agree upon and determine approximately the number of jurors that are reasonably necessary for jury service in the district courts of the county for each week for as many weeks in advance as they deem proper, and may order the drawing of such number of jurors for each of said weeks, which jury is known as the general panel of jurors for service in both district courts for the respective weeks for which they are designated to serve. Both judges shall act together in carrying out the provisions of this section. They may increase or diminish the number of jurors to be selected for any week and may order the jurors drawn for as many weeks in advance of service as they deem proper. From time to time they shall designate the judge to whom the general panel shall report for duty, and the designated judge, for the time he is chosen to act, shall organize the juries and have immediate supervision and control of them. The jurors, after being regularly drawn from the wheel, shall be served by the sheriff to appear and report for jury service before the judge so designated, who shall hear the excuses of the jury and swear them in for service for the week that they are to serve to try all cases that may be submitted to them in either of the district courts. The jurors, when impaneled, constitute a general jury panel for service as jurors in both district courts in the county and shall be used interchangeably. In the event of a deficiency of jurors at any given time to meet the requirement of either court, the judge having control of the general panel shall order such additional jurors to be drawn from the wheel as may be sufficient to meet the emergency, but such jurors shall act only as special jurors and shall be discharged as soon as their services are no longer needed. Resort to the wheel shall be had in all cases to fill out the general panel.

B. With the approval of both district judges, jurors impaneled under the provisions of Subdivision A of this subsection may constitute a general jury panel for service as jurors in all county courts and statutory county courts in the county, in addition to service as jurors in both district courts, and in such event, shall be used interchangeably in all district and county courts.

C. The provisions of this subsection are cumulative of and in addition to the methods now authorized by law for the selection of a jury panel in the counties herein named, and the adoption of the method provided in this subsection is entirely optional with and in the discretion of the district judges of any such county coming under the terms of this law.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 330, ch. 137, § 1, eff. May 8, 1975.]

3. JURY FOR THE WEEK

Art. 2122. Pay of Jurors

(a) Each grand juror and each petit juror in a civil or criminal case in a district or criminal district court, county court, county court at law, or justice court is entitled to receive not less than $6 nor more than $30 for each day or fraction of a day that he serves as a juror. The commissioners court of each county shall determine annually, within the minimum and maximum prescribed in this subsection, the amount of per diem for jurors, which shall be paid out of the jury fund of the county. A person who responds to the process of a court, but who is excused from petit jury service by the court for any cause after being tested on voir dire, is entitled to receive not less than $6 nor more than $30 for each day or fraction of a day that he attends court in response to such process.

4. THE JURY IN COURT

Art. 2133. Qualifications

All persons both male and female eighteen years of age or older are competent jurors, unless disqualified under some provision of this chapter. No person shall be qualified to serve as a juror who does not possess the following qualifications:

1. He must be a citizen of the State and of the county in which he is to serve and qualified under the Constitution and laws to vote in said county.
2. He must be of sound mind and good moral character.
3. He must be able to read and write, except as otherwise provided herein.
4. He must not have served as a juror for six (6) days during the preceding six (6) months in the District Court, or during the preceding three (3) months in the County Court.
5. He must not have been convicted of a felony.
6. He must not be under indictment or other legal accusation of theft or of any felony.

A person who is legally blind is not disqualified to serve as a juror in a civil case solely by reason of his legal blindness, but is subject to a challenge for cause after being tested on voir dire, to act as a juror in that particular case. If a party to the suit challenges a prospective juror by reason of his legal blindness, it shall not count as one of that party's peremptory challenges.

Whenever it shall be made to appear to the court that the requisite number of jurors able to read and write cannot be found within the county, the court may dispense with the exception provided for in the third subdivision; and the court may in like manner dispense with the exception provided for in the fourth subdivision, when the county is so sparsely populated as to make its enforcement seriously inconvenient.

Where the word "he" is used in this Section it shall be used in the generic term so as to include both male and female persons.

In this Article, "legally blind" shall mean having not more than 20/200 of visual acuity in the better eye with correcting lenses, or visual acuity greater than 20/200 but with a limitation in the field of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees.

Art. 2135. Jury Service

All competent jurors are liable to jury service, except the following persons:

1. All persons over sixty-five (65) years of age.
2. All persons who have legal custody of a child or children under the age of ten (10) years if jury service by that person would necessitate leaving the child or children without adequate supervision.
3. All students of public or private secondary schools.
4. Every person who is enrolled and in actual attendance at an institution of higher education.

Art. 2137a. Permanent Exemption for Elderly

Eligibility for Permanent Exemption

Sec. 1. A person who is exempt from jury service on the ground of being over 65 years of age may establish a permanent exemption from jury service on that ground by claiming the exemption as provided by this article.

Claim Filed with Tax Assessor-Collector

Sec. 2. (a) A person may claim the permanent exemption by filing with the county tax assessor-collector at any time a signed statement affirming that he or she is over 65 years of age and desires a permanent exemption on that ground.

(b) The statement may be filed by mail or by personal delivery.

ClaimFiled with Court Clerk

Sec. 3. (a) A person summoned for jury service who files a statement with the court clerk under Section 1, Article 2137, claiming an exemption from jury service on the ground of being over 65 years of age, may claim the permanent exemption by including in the statement a declaration that he or she desires a permanent exemption on that ground.
(b) Promptly after a statement claiming the permanent exemption is filed, the court clerk with whom it is filed shall have a copy delivered to the county tax assessor-collector.

Register of Permanently Exempt Persons
Sec. 4. The county tax assessor-collector shall maintain a current register indicating the name of each claimant who is entitled to the permanent exemption from jury service.

Permanently Exempt Persons Excluded from Jury List
Sec. 5. The names of persons listed on the register of persons permanently exempt from jury service may not be placed in the jury wheel or otherwise used in preparing the record of names from which a jury is selected.

Rescission of Permanent Exemption
Sec. 6. (a) The claimant of a permanent exemption from jury service under this article may rescind the exemption at any time by filing a signed request for rescission with the county tax assessor-collector.

(b) Rescission does not affect a person’s right to claim the permanent exemption at a later time. (Added by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 252, ch. 131, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.)

CHAPTER EIGHT. TRIAL OF CAUSES
5. CASE TO JURY

Art. 2194a. Bringing Meals into Jury Room
(a) Whenever the judge deems it advisable, in order to expedite the final disposition of any district court civil case for which a jury is empaneled, to keep the jury together for deliberation rather than to dismiss it for meals, he shall have the power to draw a warrant on the jury fund or other appropriate fund of the county in which the case is being tried, to cover the cost of buying meals and bringing same into the jury room. However, not more than Three Dollars ($3) may be spent per meal for any juror. (Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 252, ch. 131, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.)

CHAPTER NINE. JUDGMENTS AND REMITTITUR

Art. 2212b. Indemnity Provisions in Mineral Agreements Where Negligence Attributable to Indemnitee
[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 3]

Sec. 4. (a) The provisions of this Act do not apply to loss or liability for damages, or any other expenses, arising from: (1) death or bodily injury to persons or injury to property resulting from radioactivity; (2) injury to property resulting from pollution; (3) injury to property resulting from reservoir or underground damage; or (4) death or bodily injury or injury to property resulting from the performance of services to control a wild well so as to protect the safety of the general public and/or to prevent depletion of vital natural resources. The term “wild well” as used in this section means any well from which the escape of oil and/or gas is unintended and cannot be controlled by the equipment used in normal drilling practice.

Art. 2226. Attorney’s Fees
Any person, corporation, partnership, or other legal entity having a valid claim against a person or corporation for services rendered, labor done, material furnished, overcharges on freight or express, lost or damaged freight or express, or stock killed or injured, or suits founded upon a sworn account or accounts, or suits founded on oral or written contracts, may present the same to such persons or corporation or to any duly authorized agent thereof; and if, at the expiration of 30 days thereafter, payment for the just amount owing has not been tendered, the claimant may, if represented by an attorney, also recover, in addition to his claim and costs, a reasonable amount as attorney’s fees. The usual and customary fees in such cases shall be presumed to be reasonable, but such presumption may be rebutted by competent evidence. In a proceeding before the court, or in a jury case where the issue of amount of attorney’s fees is submitted to the court for determination by agreement, the court may in its discretion take judicial knowledge of the usual and customary fees in such matters and of the contents of the case file without receiving further evidence. The provisions hereof shall not apply to contracts of insurers issued by insurers subject to the provisions of the Unfair Claim Settlement Practices Act (Article 21.21–2, Insurance Code), nor shall it apply to contracts of any insurer subject to the provisions of Article 3.62, Insurance Code, or to Chapter 387, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957, as amended (Article 3.62–1, Vernon’s Texas Insurance Code), or to Article 21.21, Insurance Code, as amended, or to Chapter 9, Insurance Code, as amended, and each such article or chapter shall be and remain in full force and effect. This Act shall be liberally construed to promote its underlying purposes.

Section 2 of the 1979 amendatory act provided:

"This Act is remedial in character and is intended to apply to all pending and future actions, regardless of the time of institution thereof or of the accrual of any cause of action asserted."

CHAPTER TWELVE. APPEAL AND WRIT OF ERROR

Art. 2250. Appeal from Interlocutory Order
An appeal shall lie from an interlocutory order of the District, County Court at Law, or County Court:
1. Appointing a receiver or trustee in any cause;
2. Overruling a motion to vacate an order appointing a receiver or trustee in any case; or
3. Certifying or refusing to certify a class in a suit brought pursuant to Rule 42 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

Art. 2320b

Art. 2320b. Receivers of Mineral Interests Owned by Nonresidents or Absentees

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 and 2]

Execution of Mineral Leases; Assignment of Outstanding Undivided Mineral Leasehold Interest; Unitization Agreements; Payment and Application of Consideration

Sec. 3. Such receiver, under the orders of the court, shall have power, authority and duty, subsequent to his appointment and from time to time thereafter, to (1) execute and deliver to a lessee, or successive lessees, mineral leases on such outstanding mineral interests, (2) to execute and deliver to a lessee, or successive lessees, an assignment of any such outstanding undivided mineral leasehold interest, and (3) to enter into any unitization agreement, which has been duly authorized by the Railroad Commission of Texas. Such receiver shall execute such leases or assignments, or enter into such unitization agreements forthwith upon the entry of any such decree by the District Court. The money consideration, if any, to be paid for the execution of the aforementioned leases, assignments and/or unitization agreements by such receiver, shall be paid over to the clerk of the District Court in which the cause is pending, prior to the execution of the instrument by the receiver, and thereafter, after applying such money consideration, if any, to costs that may have accrued in such cause, the district clerk shall retain the balance of such funds for the use and benefit of such nonresident or unknown owners of such mineral interests or leasehold interests, as the case may be, and any future payments paid under such mineral lease, assignment of leasehold interest or unitization agreement, shall be paid directly into the registry of the court and impounded for the use and benefit of such nonresident and unknown owners.

3. OFFICIAL COURT REPORTER

Art. 2321. Appointment and Examination

Each judge of a court of record shall appoint an official court reporter who shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold office at the pleasure of the court.

Art. 2324. Duty of Reporter

Each Official Court Reporter shall upon request:

Attend all sessions of the court; take full shorthand notes of all oral testimony offered in cases tried in said court, together with all objections to the admissibility of the evidence, the rulings and remarks of the court thereon, and all exceptions thereeto; take full shorthand notes of closing arguments when requested to do so by the attorney for any party to such case, together with all objections to such arguments, the rulings and remarks of the court thereon, and all exceptions thereeto;

Preserve all shorthand notes taken in said court for future use or reference for three full years, and furnish to any person a transcript of all such evidence or other proceedings, or any portion thereof as such person may order, upon the payment to the official shorthand reporter of the fees provided by the judge.

When any party to any suit reported by any such reporter shall desire a transcript of the evidence in said suit, said party may apply for same by written demand, and the reporter shall make up such transcript and shall receive as compensation therefor a reasonable amount, subject to the approval of the judge of the court if objection is made thereto, taking into consideration the difficulty and technicality of the material to be transcribed and the time within which the transcript is requested to be prepared. The original transcript fee charged shall pay for the original plus one copy of the transcript, and additional copies may be purchased for a fee per page not in excess of one-third (1/3) of the original cost per page. In addition such reporter may make a reasonable charge, subject to the approval of the trial court if objection shall be made thereto, for postage and/or express charges paid; photoostating, blue-printing or other reproduction of exhibits; indexing; and preparation for filing and special binding of original exhibits. Provided further, that in case any such reporter shall charge in excess of the fees herein allowed by the judge, whether by accident or design, he shall, on demand filed with the court, make refund of the excess to the party to which it is due. Provided, however, that the Supreme Court of Texas under its rulemaking authority shall provide for the duties and fees of court reporters in all civil judicial proceedings, except as provided by law.

Art. 2324b. Regulation and Certification of Court Reporters

Certificate Required

Sec. 1. No person may be appointed an official court reporter or deputy court reporter or may engage in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this state unless that person is the holder of a certificate in full force and effect issued by the Supreme Court of Texas.
Sec. 2. A person engaging in the practice of shorthand reporting who violates the provisions of Section 1 of this Act is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor, and each day of violation shall constitute a separate offense.

Sec. 3. In this Act, "the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this state" means the making of a verbatim record of an oral court proceeding, deposition, or proceeding before a grand jury, referee, or court commissioner by means of written symbols or abbreviations in shorthand or machine shorthand writing or oral stenography.

Sec. 4. There is hereby created the Texas Court Reporters Committee to consist of the following nine members appointed by the supreme court:

(1) one active district judge who shall serve as the committee's chairman;
(2) two active members of the State Bar who have been practicing members of the bar during more than five consecutive years next preceding their appointment; and
(3) three active official court reporters and three active free-lance court reporters who have been engaged in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this state during more than five consecutive years next preceding their appointment.

Sec. 5. The regular term of office of committee members shall be six years, but initially the terms of two court reporters and one attorney shall expire on December 31, 1978, and the terms of two court reporters and one attorney shall expire on December 31, 1980, and the terms of two court reporters and the district judge shall expire on December 31, 1982.

Sec. 6. Committee members shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of their successors. An interim vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term in the same manner as the appointment at the expiration of a full term. Committee members may succeed themselves in office only if they have served less than three consecutive years.

Sec. 7. Committee members shall receive no compensation for their services but are entitled to receive actual and necessary expenses for traveling and other necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties as members of the committee.

Sec. 8. The committee may hold its meetings, hearings, examinations, and other proceedings at such times and places as it shall determine but shall meet in Austin, Texas, at least once each year. Five members constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The committee shall keep a complete record of all of its proceedings and all certificates issued, renewed, or revoked, together with a detailed statement of receipts and disbursements.

Sec. 9. The committee is charged with the executive functions necessary to effectuate the purposes of this Act under such rules as may be promulgated by the supreme court. The committee may appoint subcommittees as it deems necessary or proper. The committee may employ the employees it deems necessary for the performance of the duties and exercise of the powers conferred on the committee and may pay from funds available to it all expenses reasonably necessary to effectuate the purposes of this Act.

Sec. 10. Each applicant for a certificate under this Act shall file an application with the committee at least 30 days before the date fixed for examination, accompanied by the required fee. The fee for an examination given by the committee shall be fixed by the committee, subject to the approval of the supreme court.

Sec. 11. (a) Each person to whom a certificate is issued shall, as a condition precedent to its issuance and in addition to any other fee which may be payable, pay the initial certificate fee which shall be fixed by the committee, subject to approval by the supreme court.

(b) Each certificate issued under this Act that has not been renewed shall expire at the date of the second anniversary of the date of the issuance of the certificate. To renew a certificate, the certificate holder shall, on or before the expiration date of the certificate, pay the renewal fee which shall be fixed by the committee, subject to approval by the supreme court.

Sec. 12. (a) The committee shall have the powers and duties enumerated in Subsections (b) through (e) of this section.

(b) The committee shall administer tests to determine the qualifications of persons applying for certificates under this Act. Each test shall be given in two parts to be designated Part A and Part B. Part A shall be composed of five minutes of two-voice dictation of questions and answers given at 225 words per minute, five minutes of dictation of jury charge given at 200 words per minute, and five minutes of dictation of selected literary material given at 180 words per minute. Each applicant shall personally take down the test, either in his own writing or his own voice, and shall reduce to writing the takedown on either a manual or electric typewriter. The minimum passing grade on each section of Part A of the test shall be 95 percent accuracy. An error shall be charged for each wrong word, for each omitted word, for each added word not dictated, for each contraction where read as two words, for each misused word, for each misplaced period that would materially alter the sense of a group of words or a sentence, for each misspelled word, for each plural or singular where the opposite was dictated, and for each wrong number. The use of a dictionary will be permitted during Part A of the test. Applicants will be allowed three hours to complete the transcription of Part A of the test. If time permits, the applicant may review his transcript but shall use only his original takedown from which his transcript was prepared to review the transcript. Part B of the test shall consist of objective questions touching on elementary aspects of court reporting, spelling, and grammar. The use of a dictionary will not be permitted during Part B of the test. The minimum passing grade on Part B will be 75 percent. Anyone discovered cheating on the tests is disqualified and will not be eligible for retesting for a period of two years.

(c) The committee shall charge and collect from all applicants for certificates and renewal of certificates the fees provided in this Act.

(d) The committee shall determine the qualifications and pass on the eligibility of all persons applying for certificates under this Act.

(e) The committee shall certify to the supreme court the applicants that are determined on examination by the committee to be qualified in professional shorthand reporting.

(f) Rules not inconsistent with this section may be promulgated by the supreme court.

Revocation of Certificate; Grievance Procedures

Sec. 13. (a) On a verified complaint, the committee may revoke any certificate issued under this Act for unprofessional conduct or other sufficient cause after notice and opportunity of a hearing. The notice shall state the cause for the contemplated revocation and the time and place of the hearing and shall be mailed to the registered address of the holder of the certificate at least 30 days before the hearing. Each committee member is empowered to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, and take evidence and require the production of any records concerning any matter within the jurisdiction of the committee, at the direction of a majority of the committee. The committee shall reduce to writing a summary of the evidence given before it and shall make a written finding of the facts thereon. A certificate may be revoked for fraud, dishonesty, corruption, willful violation of duty, having become incompetent to continue to perform the duties as a court reporter, or fraud or misrepresentation in obtaining a certificate under this Act. A disciplinary action of the committee may be appealed by the aggrieved person on trial de novo, with or without a jury, to the district court in the county of the aggrieved person's residence. If the aggrieved party is the official court reporter or deputy court reporter of the court in which the proceeding would be heard, the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district shall appoint the judge of another court or a retired judge to hear and determine the complaint. The committee shall not have the power to suspend a certificate issued under this Act.

(b) A person desiring to file a complaint against a court reporter holding a certificate under this Act shall obtain from the committee a complaint form, which shall be completed and signed under oath, attaching thereto any pertinent documentary evidence. On receipt of the form properly executed, it is the duty of the committee to duplicate and furnish copies of the complaint and attachments to the committee.

(c) Within 30 days from the date the verified complaint is received by the committee, it shall set a date for the hearing, if a hearing is deemed advisable by the committee, and shall immediately notify the certificate holder of the date of the hearing.

(d) The committee shall govern the treatment of the request for continuances with regard to hearings before the committee.

(e) Rules not inconsistent with this section may be promulgated by the supreme court. At the hearing, the committee will adhere to the general rules of evidence applicable before the district courts of the state.

(f) Five members of the committee shall constitute a quorum. The chairman or his designee shall preside at the hearings.

(g) A copy of the findings and rulings of the committee shall be forwarded to the complainant and the aggrieved person.

Employment of Noncertified Reporters

Sec. 14. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit the employment of a shorthand reporter not holding a certificate until a certified shorthand reporter is available. Oral depositions, however, may be reported by a person not certified under this Act.
only if the noncertified reporter delivers to the parties or their counsel present at the deposition an affidavit that no certified shorthand reporter is then available or, on stipulation on the record at the commencement of the deposition, by the parties or their counsel present at the deposition. The provisions of this section do not apply to depositions taken outside this state for use in this state.

Persons Excluded from Act

Sec. 15. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to a party to the litigation involved, his attorney, or to a full-time employee of either.

Certification of Present Reporters

Sec. 16. (a) No examination shall be required of an applicant who is an official court reporter of any court of record in this state as of the effective date of this Act, and said applicant shall be issued a certificate by the supreme court.

(b) Upon application to the committee, no examination shall be required of any court reporter who can verify that prior to the effective date of this Act, said applicant had been actually engaged in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this state. Upon approval by the committee, the supreme court shall issue its certificate.

(c) On certification, a court reporter is entitled to use the title "Certified Shorthand Reporter" or the abbreviation "CSR." A certified shorthand reporter may administer oaths to witnesses anywhere in this state.

Art. 2326a. Expenses and Manner of Payment

All official shorthand reporters and deputy official shorthand reporters of the District Courts of the State of Texas composed of more than one county, when engaged in the discharge of their official duties in any county in this state other than the county of their residence shall, in addition to the compensation now provided by law for their services, be allowed their actual and necessary expenses while actually engaged in the discharge of such duties, not to exceed the sum of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) per day for hotel bills, and not to exceed Six Cents (6¢) a mile when traveling by railroad or bus lines, and not to exceed Sixteen Cents (16¢) a mile when traveling by private conveyance in going to and returning from the place where such duties are discharged, traveling the nearest practical route. Such expenses shall be paid after the completion of each term of court by the respective counties of the Judicial District for which they are incurred, each county paying the expenses incidental to its own regular or special term of court, and said expenses shall be paid to the official or deputy official shorthand reporter by the Commissioners Court of the county, out of the general fund of the county, upon the sworn statement of the reporter, approved by the Judge.

Provided there shall not be paid to any such official shorthand reporter, or his deputy, more than Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) in any one year under the provisions of this Act; provided further, that in districts containing two counties only, the expenses herein allowed shall never exceed Four Hundred Dollars ($400.00) per annum; in districts containing three counties only, the expenses herein allowed shall never exceed Eight Hundred Dollars ($800.00) per annum; in districts containing four counties only, the expenses herein allowed shall never exceed One Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars ($1,400.00) per annum; in districts containing five or more counties the expenses herein allowed shall never exceed Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) per annum.

The account for such services herein provided for shall be sworn to in duplicate by the reporter, and approved by the District Judge, and one copy of said account shall be filed by the reporter with the clerk of the District Court of the county where the Judge of the district resides.

Whenever a special term of any District Court in this state is convened and the services of an additional official or deputy official shorthand reporter is required, then this Act shall also apply to said shorthand reporter so employed by the Judge of said special term, and all expenses as herein provided shall be allowed and paid said shorthand reporter so employed for said special term by the county wherein said special term is convened and held, and shall be in addition to the expenses herein provided for the official or deputy official shorthand reporter of the district.

Provided, however, that whenever any official or deputy official shorthand reporter is called upon to report the proceedings of any special term of court, or on account of the sickness of any official shorthand reporter of any Judicial District, necessitating the employment of a shorthand reporter from some other county within the state, then the shorthand reporter so employed shall receive and be paid all actual and necessary expenses in going to and returning from the place where he or she may be called on to report the proceedings of any regular or special terms of court.

dicial district who is required to leave the county of his residence to report the proceedings as a substitute for the official reporter of the county visited is entitled to receive his actual and necessary expenses in going to and returning from the place where he is called on to report the proceedings and, in addition to his regular salary from the county or counties in which the reporter is regularly employed, is entitled to receive a per diem payment of $30 for each day, or part of a day, which the reporter spends outside the county of his residence in the performance of the duties as a substitute court reporter.

Sec. 2. The traveling expense and per diem payment provided in this Act shall be paid to the substitute court reporter or deputy court reporter by the commissioners court of the county visited, out of the general fund of the county, on the sworn statement of the reporter, approved by the district judge presiding in the court where the proceedings were reported.

See, now, arts. 2326j-13a and 3912k note.

Art. 2326j-13a. Compensation of Reporter for 23rd Judicial District

Sec. 1. The official court reporter of the 23rd Judicial District may receive a salary not to exceed $16,500 per annum, in addition to all travel expenses, transcript fees, and all other compensation provided by law to be paid to the official court reporter. The specific amount of the salary of the official court reporter may be fixed by the district judge of such judicial district and approved by the commissioners courts of the counties in the district.

Sec. 2. The salary of the official court reporter as herein fixed shall be paid monthly by the respective counties composing any of said judicial district in accordance with the proportion fixed, made, and determined by the district judge of said judicial district as to the amount to be paid monthly by each county in the judicial district. Such salary shall be paid out of the general fund or out of the jury fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose.

Section 2 of the 1979 amendatory act provided:
"Section 3, Chapter 622, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1971 (Article 3912k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), applies to the 130th Judicial District."

Art. 2326j-29a. Compensation and Expenses of Reporter for 31st Judicial District

Sec. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any local or general law to the contrary, the judge of the 31st Judicial District shall determine and order, on the basis of annual case loads in each county, the proportionate amount of the salary set by the judge for the official shorthand reporter of the 31st Judicial District to be paid by each county in the judicial district. The amount of the salary allocated to each county in the 31st Judicial District shall be paid monthly out of the general fund, jury fund, or other fund available for the purpose, as determined by the commissioners court.

Sec. 2. The official shorthand reporter shall, in addition, receive allowances for actual and necessary meals and traveling and hotel expenses while actually engaged in the discharge of the reporter's duties. These allowances may be in the same amounts as are allowed for employees of the State of Texas. The expenses shall be paid by the respective counties of the judicial district for which they are incurred, each county paying the expense incidental to its own regular or special term of court, and the expenses shall be paid to the official shorthand reporter by the commissioners court of the county out of the general fund of the county on the sworn statement of the reporter approved by the judge.

Art. 2327. In County Court

When either party to a civil case pending in the county court or county court at law applies therefor, the judge thereof shall appoint a certified shorthand reporter, to report the oral testimony given in such case. A certified shorthand reporter shall be appointed to report the oral testimony given in any contested probate matter heard in a county court. In a county in which no certified shorthand reporter is a resident, a noncertified shorthand reporter or stenographer shall be appointed to report the oral testimony. The reporter or stenographer shall take the oath required of official court reporters, and shall receive not less than five dollars per day, to be taxed and collected as costs. In such cases the provisions of this title with respect to the preparation of the statement of facts, the time to be allowed therefor, and for the presentation to the opposite party, and the approving and filing thereof by the court, shall apply to all statements of facts in civil and probate cases tried in said courts, and all provisions of law governing statement of facts and bills of exception to be filed in district courts and the use of same on appeal, shall apply to civil and probate cases tried in said courts.

5. JUDICIAL COUNCIL

Art. 2328a. Judicial Council

Creation; Purposes

Sec. 1. There is hereby created the Texas Judicial Council for the continuous study of and report upon the organization, rules, procedure and practice of the judicial system of the State of Texas, the work accomplished and the results produced by that system and its various parts, and methods for its improvement.

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 1a. The Texas Civil Judicial Council is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the council is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1987.

Sec. 3. The ex officio members of the Council shall consist of the following: (1) the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas, who shall remain a member as long as he holds the position of Chief Justice; (2) the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, who shall remain a member as long as he holds the position of Presiding Judge; (3) two Justices of the Courts of Civil Appeals, to be designated by the Governor for overlapping four-year terms, one to be designated in January, 1971, for a four-year term and one to be designated in January, 1973, for a four-year term with the replacement in each case to be designated by the Governor in January of odd-numbered years; (4) two presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts, to be designated by the Governor for four-year terms, one to be designated in January, 1971, for a four-year term and one to be designated in January, 1973, for a four-year term, with the replacement in each case to be designated by the Governor in January of odd-numbered years; (5) the Chairman and the immediate past Chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee; and (6) the Chairman and the immediate past Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court may from time to time designate some other Justice of that Court to act in his stead, and at his pleasure, as member of the Council. The Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals may from time to time designate some other Judge of that Court to act in his stead, and at his pleasure, as member of the Council. The foregoing references to justices and judges, other than the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, include respectively such retired justices and judges of the same grade as are legally eligible for assignment to part-time judicial duties. In the event the Chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee or the Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee is reappointed to such position, his immediate predecessor shall continue to serve on the Council as immediate past Chairman, it being the intent of the Legislature that two members of the Senate and two members of the House be at all times members of the Council; provided, however, that in the case of legislative members, cessation of membership in the Legislature shall not terminate their membership on the Council, but they shall continue to serve for their full term notwithstanding their cessation of membership in the Legislature. In the event of a vacancy in a legislative membership, such vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term only by the presiding officer of the appropriate house of the Legislature, and vacancies in other official memberships shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment and for the unexpired term only. Ex officio members of the Council shall be entitled to all the privileges of full membership thereon and shall be regarded and treated in every respect as full members thereon.

Duties of Council

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the Council:

1. To make a continuous study of the organization of the courts; the rules and methods of procedure and the practice of the judicial system of the State; of the work accomplished, the results attained and the uniformity of the discretionary powers of the courts, to the end that procedure may be simplified, business expedited, and justice better administered.

2. To receive and consider suggestions from judges, public officers, members of the bar, and citizens, touching remedies for faults in the administration of justice.

3. To formulate methods for simplifying judicial procedure, expediting the transaction of judicial business, and correcting faults in the administration of justice.

4. To gather judicial statistics and other pertinent data from the several judges and other court officials of the State.

5. To make a complete detailed report, on or before December 1st of each year, to the Governor and to the Supreme Court, of all its proceedings, suggestions and recommendations, and such supplemental reports from time to time as the Council may deem advisable. All such reports shall be considered public reports and may be given to the press as soon as filed.

6. To make investigations and reports upon such matters, touching the administration of justice as may be referred by the Supreme Court or the Legislature.
Art. 2328a  COURTS—PRACTICE IN DISTRICT AND COUNTY  2580

7. To hold one meeting in each calendar year, and such other meetings as may be ordered by the Council or under its authority, and at such time and place as may be designated by it or under its authority.

6. CIVIL JUDICIAL COUNCIL

Art. 2328b. Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act, unless the context requires a different definition:

(1) “Court” means any tribunal forming a part of the judicial branch of government.

(2) “Trial court” means any tribunal forming a part of the judicial branch of government with the exception of the supreme court, the court of criminal appeals, and the courts of civil appeals.

(3) “Office of Court Administration” means the Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System.

Promulgation of Rules

Sec. 2. The supreme court shall promulgate rules of administration for the efficient administration of justice in this state and other rules necessary for the enforcement of this Act. When promulgating rules of administration for the efficient administration of criminal justice in this state, the supreme court will seek the advice of the court of criminal appeals.

Creation of Office; Direction and Supervision; Duties

Sec. 3. (a) The Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System is hereby created.

(b) The office of court administration shall operate under the direction and supervision of the supreme court. It shall perform the duties provided in this Act and such other duties as may be directed by the supreme court and shall provide the necessary staff functions for the efficient operation of the Texas Judicial Council.

Administrative Director

Sec. 4. (a) The supreme court shall appoint the administrative director of the courts, who shall serve at the will of the court and shall be subordinate to, and act by authority of and under the direction of, the chief justice of the supreme court. The administrative director shall direct the operations of the office of court administration and, as an additional duty of his office, shall serve as executive director of the Texas Judicial Council. He shall serve in such other capacities as may be directed by the supreme court or the chief justice.

(b) The administrative director shall devote full time to his official duties.

Employment of Personnel

Sec. 5. The administrative director, with the approval of the chief justice, shall employ such personnel as are necessary for the efficient operation of the office of court administration and of the Texas Judicial Council.

Duties of Administrative Director

Sec. 6. Under the direction and supervision of the chief justice, the administrative director shall implement the provisions of this Act and the rules of administration and other rules promulgated by the supreme court for the efficient administration of justice in this state. He shall:

(1) assist the justices and judges of the various courts in discharging their administrative duties;

(2) consult with and assist the administrative judges in discharging their duties under provisions of law and rules promulgated by the supreme court;

(3) make such recommendations to the supreme court as may be appropriate for the implementation of this Act;

(4) examine the administrative and business methods and systems employed in the offices of the clerks of court and other offices related to and serving the courts and make recommendations for necessary improvement and recommend forms and other documents used to record the business of the courts;

(5) examine the state of the dockets and practices and procedures of the courts and make recommendations for the promotion of the orderly and efficient administration of justice;

(6) prepare and submit budget estimates of state appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system, and study and make recommendations on the expenditure of state funds appropriated for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system;

(7) consult with and assist the clerks of court and other officers and employees of the courts and of offices related to and serving the courts to provide for the efficient administration of justice;

(8) consult with and make recommendations to the court administrators and court coordinators of the courts of the state to provide for uniform administration and promote the efficient administration of justice in all courts of the state;

(9) perform such additional duties as may be assigned by the supreme court and by the chief justice; and

(10) prepare an annual report of the activities of his office to be published in the annual report of the Texas Judicial Council.

Clerical Personnel

Sec. 7. The authority of the courts to appoint clerical personnel is not limited by any provision of this Act.
TITLE 43

COURTS—JUVENILE

Art. 2338–1.1. Jurisdiction of District and County Courts; Actions of Juvenile Judge Not Licensed as Attorney

Each district court, county court, and statutory county court exercising any of the constitutional jurisdiction of either a county court or a district court has jurisdiction over juvenile matters and may be designated a juvenile court. Any action taken by a juvenile judge not licensed as an attorney by the State of Texas shall be subject to the trial de novo and appeal provisions as authorized by Sections 51-04, 51.18, and 56.01 of the Family Code.

Art. 2338–1c. Appointment of Retired Special Juvenile Court or Domestic Relations Court Judge to Sit for Regular Family District Court Judge

Sec. 1. (a) When the regular judge of a Family District Court as created by the Family District Court Act in this state is absent or is from any cause disabled or disqualified from presiding, a retired judge of a special juvenile court or a domestic relations court may be appointed by the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district in which the appointed judge resides to sit for the regular judge of a Family District Court within the geographic limits of the respective administrative judicial district, provided the retired judge voluntarily retired from office and certifies his willingness to serve.

(b) When the docket of a Family District Court in this state becomes so excessive that the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district in which that court is located deems it an emergency, a retired judge of a special juvenile court or a domestic relations court residing within the geographic limits of the respective administrative judicial district, who meets the qualifications set out in Subsection (a) of this section, may be appointed by the presiding judge to sit for the regular judge for as long as the emergency exists.

(c) A presiding judge may, with the consent of a retired judge of a special juvenile court or a domestic relations court, within his district make an assignment outside of his judicial district with the specific authorization of the presiding judge of the district in which that assignment is made.

Bond and Oath of Retired Judge

Sec. 2. A retired judge appointed to sit for a regular judge under the provisions of this Act shall execute the bond and take the oath of office which is required by law for the regular judge for whom he is sitting.

Power and Jurisdiction

Sec. 3. A retired judge appointed under the provisions of this Act has all the power and jurisdiction of the court and the regular judge for whom he is sitting and may sign orders, judgments, decrees, or other process of any kind as “Judge Presiding” when acting for the regular judge.

Compensation

Sec. 4. A retired judge appointed to sit for the regular judge under the provisions of this Act shall receive for the services actually performed the same amount of salary which the regular judge is entitled to receive for such services. The amount to be paid for such services shall be paid in the same manner as the regular judge is paid on certification by the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district that the retired judge has rendered the services and is entitled to receive the salary. Such payment shall be made from the item in the judiciary section, comptrollers department, of the appropriations act providing for payment of salaries of district judges and criminal district judges. This Act does not entitle the retired judge of a special juvenile court or a domestic relations court to participate in the state Judicial Retirement System. No part of the amount paid to a retired judge sitting for the regular judge shall be deducted or paid out of the salary of the regular judge.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 5. The provisions of the Act are cumulative of all laws pertaining to the election or appointment of a special judge, and if, in addition to a retired judge, a retired judge of a special juvenile court or a domestic relations court is appointed to sit for the regular judge.
Judge, a special judge is needed, he shall be appointed or elected as now authorized by law.

Art. 2338–1d. Master in Domestic Relations Court in Counties Over 1,500,000

Authorization to Appoint Master; Termination; Qualifications; Compensation

Sec. 1. (a) Each judge of a court of domestic relations in a county of more than 1,500,000 population or any successor court thereto may appoint a master as provided in this Act. The services of the master may be terminated if the performance of his duties is unsatisfactory to the judge of the court, by which the master was appointed.

(b) A master shall be an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Texas and shall be a citizen of this state. The compensation for a master shall be fixed by the judge of the court making such appointment. If the judge of the court determines that the parties litigant are unable to defray the costs of the master's compensation, such costs shall be paid out of the jury fund of the county.

Matters Referred to a Master

Sec. 2. If the judge of a court of domestic relations in such county or any successor court thereto deems it advisable, he may appoint a master and refer to the master any civil case involving motions of contempt for failure or refusal to pay child support, temporary support, or separate maintenance; motions for failure or refusal to comply with court orders concerning visitation with children growing out of separate maintenance and divorce actions; motions for changes of conservatorships; motions for revision of child-support payments; and motions for revision of visitation privileges.

Powers

Sec. 3. (a) In all cases designated in Section 2 of this Act, the judge of a court of domestic relations in a county of more than 1,500,000 population or any successor court thereto may authorize the master to hear evidence, to make findings of fact thereon, to formulate conclusions of law, and to recommend judgment to be entered in such cases. In all cases referred to the master, the order of reference may specify or limit the powers of the master and may direct him to report only on particular issues, or to do or perform particular acts, or to receive and report on evidence only, and may fix the time and place for beginning and closing hearings and for filing reports.

(b) Subject to the limitations and specifications stated in the order, the master shall have the power to regulate all proceedings in every hearing before him and to do all acts and take all measures necessary and proper for the efficient performance of his duties under the order. He may require the production of evidence before him on all matters embraced in the reference, and he may rule on the admissibility of evidence, unless otherwise directed by the order of reference. He has the authority to issue summons for the appearance of witnesses and to swear the witnesses for the hearing and may examine them himself. A witness appearing before him that is duly sworn is subject to the penalties of perjury. If a witness after being duly summoned fails to appear or having appeared refuses to answer questions, on certification of such refusal to the referring court, the court may issue an attachment against the witness and may fine or imprison the witness.

Report to Referring Judge; Notice to Parties

Sec. 4. On the conclusion of the hearing in each case, the master shall transmit to the referring judge all papers relating to the case, together with his findings and a statement that notice of his findings and of the right to a hearing before the judge has been given to all adult principals, minors, or parents, guardians, or custodians of any minor whose case has been heard by the master. This notice may be given at the hearing or otherwise as the referring court directs.

Disposition by Referring Judge

Sec. 5. After it is filed, the referring court may adopt, modify, correct, reject, or reverse the master's report or recommit it for further information as the court may deem proper and necessary in the particular circumstances of the case. Where judgment has been recommended, the court in its discretion may approve the recommendation and hear further evidence before rendition of judgment.

Hearing by Judge upon Request

Sec. 6. Adult principals or a minor child or his parents, guardians, or custodians are entitled to a hearing by the judge of the referring court if within three days after receiving notice of the findings of the master they file a request with the court for a hearing. The referring court may allow the hearing at any time.

Failure to Request Hearing

Sec. 7. If no hearing before the judge of the referring court is requested or the right to such hearing is waived, the findings and recommendations of the master become the decree of the court when adopted by an order of the judge.
Notice of Hearing by Master

Sec. 8. Prior to the hearing by the master, the parties litigant shall be given due notice as provided by law of the time and place of the hearing.

Jury Trial

Sec. 9. In any proceeding where a jury trial has been demanded, the master shall refer the case back to the referring court for a full hearing before the court and jury, subject to the usual rules of the court in such cases.

Appointment of Master not Mandatory

Sec. 10. Nothing in this Act shall be interpreted to require any judge of a court of domestic relations to appoint a permanent or standing master to serve in such court.

TITLE 44

COURTS—COMMISSIONERS

2. POWERS AND DUTIES

Art. 2344. Seal

Each commissioners court shall have a seal, whereon shall be engraved either a star with five points or a design selected by the court and approved by the secretary of state, and the words, "Commissioners Court, _______ County, Texas," (the blank to be filled with the name of the County) which seal shall be kept by the clerk of said court and used in authentication of all official acts of the court, or of the presiding officer or clerk of said court, in all cases where a seal may be necessary for the authentication of any said acts.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 42, ch. 21, § 1, eff. March 20, 1975.]

2. POWERS AND DUTIES

Art. 2351a-6. Rural Fire Preventing Districts

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 11]

Limitation on Indebtedness; Assessment of Property; Election; Ballots

Text of section effective January 1, 1982

Sec. 12. No indebtedness shall be contracted in any one year in excess of funds then on hand or which may be satisfied out of current revenues for the year. The Board of Fire Commissioners shall annually levy and cause to be assessed and collected a tax upon all properties, real and personal, situated within the district and subject to district taxation, in an amount not to exceed three cents (3¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation for the support of the district, and for the purposes authorized in this Act. Such tax levy shall be certified to the County Tax Assessor-Collector, who shall be the Assessor-Collector for the district.

Dissolution of District; Petition; Notice of Hearing

Sec. 19. (a) When it is proposed to dissolve a Rural Fire Prevention District created under this Act, a petition shall be presented to the Board of Fire Commissioners for the district signed by not less than one hundred (100) of the qualified voters who own taxable real property within the district. If there are less than one hundred (100) such voters, a majority of those qualified voters who own taxable real property in the district must sign the petition.

(b) If the petition is in proper form the Board of Fire Commissioners shall set the day, place, and hour when it will hear and consider the petition.

(c) The Board of Fire Commissioners shall issue notices of the hearing which shall include:

1. the name of the district;
2. a description of the district's boundaries;
3. the proposal that the district be dissolved; and
4. the place, date, and time of the hearing on the petition.

(d) The notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the district once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks. The first published notice must appear at least twenty (20) days before the date of the hearing.

Hearing of Petition; Appeal

Sec. 20. (a) The Board of Fire Commissioners shall hear the petition and all issues concerning the dissolution of the district. Any person interested may appear before the board and oppose or support the proposed dissolution. The board shall grant or deny the petition.

(b) Any person or owner of real or personal property situated within the district may appeal the decision of the Board of Fire Commissioners to a district court in one (1) of the counties in which the district is located.

Election to Confirm Dissolution

Sec. 21. (a) On granting the petition, the board shall call an election to confirm the dissolution of the district.

(b) The election shall be held not less than thirty (30) days nor more than sixty (60) days after the date of the board’s decision on the petition.

(c) Notice of the election shall be given in the same manner as required by Section 19 of this Act. The notice shall include:

(1) the proposition to be submitted to the voters;
(2) the classification of voters who are authorized to vote; and
(3) the time and place for holding the election.

(d) The ballot shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the following: “Dissolving the . . . . . . . . . Rural Fire Prevention District.”

(e) The presiding judge of each voting place shall supervise the counting of all votes cast and shall certify the results to the Board of Fire Commissioners within ten (10) days after the date of the election. A copy of the results shall be filed with the County Clerk in any county in which the district is located and shall become a public record.

(f) If the majority of the voters voting in the election vote to dissolve the district, the Board of Fire Commissioners shall declare the result and proceed with dissolution.

(g) If the proposition to dissolve the district fails to carry at the election, the Board of Fire Commissioners may not order another election for the same purpose within one (1) year after the result is announced.

(h) After the dissolution of a Rural Fire Prevention District, no election may be held to create a new Rural Fire Prevention District within the boundaries of the old district for a period of one (1) year.

Administration of Property, Debts and Assets

Sec. 22. (a) The Board of Fire Commissioners shall continue to control and administer the property, debts, and assets of the district until all funds have been disposed of and all debts of the district have been paid or settled.

(b) The Board of Fire Commissioners may not dispose of the district’s assets except for due compensation unless debts are transferred to another governmental entity or agency embracing the district or within the district, and the transfer will benefit the citizens of the district.

Text of subsection effective until January 1, 1982

(c) After issuing the dissolution order the Board of Fire Commissioners shall:

(1) determine the debt, if any, owed by the district;
(2) correct the last approved assessment rolls of the district by adding any property accidentally left off before the dissolution petition was decided upon; and
(3) levy and collect a tax on the property included in the correct tax roll in proportion of the debt to the value of the property.

Text of subsection effective January 1, 1982

(c) After issuing the dissolution order the Board of Fire Commissioners shall:

(1) determine the debt, if any, owed by the district; and
(2) levy and collect a tax on the property included in the tax roll of the district in proportion of the debt to the value of the property.

(d) Each taxpayer may pay the tax at once, and the Board of Fire Commissioners shall have suit instituted, if necessary, to enforce payment of taxes and to foreclose liens to secure the payment of taxes due the district.

(e) When all outstanding debts and obligations of the district are paid, the Board of Fire Commissioners shall order the secretary of the district to return all unused tax money to the taxpayers of the district on a pro rata basis. A taxpayer may request that his share of surplus tax money be credited to his county taxes. The board shall direct the secretary to transmit any funds so requested to the County Tax Assessor-Collector.

(f) After all debts have been paid and all assets and funds have been disposed of as provided in this Act, the Board of Fire Commissioners shall file a written report with the Commissioners Court of each county in which all or part of the district is located setting forth a summary of the actions taken by the Board of Fire Commissioners in the dissolution of the district. Within ten (10) days after receiving the report and after determining that the requirements of this Act have been fulfilled, each of the Commissioners Courts shall enter an order finding the Rural Fire Prevention District dissolved, and on entry of the order, the fire commissioners shall be discharged from liability under their bonds, and the district shall be officially dissolved.

Art. 2351f-1. Perpetual Trust Fund to Maintain Cemeteries

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 7]

Sec. 8. Except as provided for counties with a population of 6,500 or less, the trustee, the commissioners court, and other elected public officials of the county are hereby prohibited from paying or using any public funds, or using county employees or county equipment and property for the purpose of maintenance and upkeep of neglected and unkept public and private cemeteries.

Sec. 9. If on September 1, 1976, a county owned a cemetery and continued to own it on January 1, 1979, or if during 1976 a county used county funds, employees, equipment, or property for the maintenance and upkeep of a county-owned cemetery, the county may continue to own the cemetery or to provide for its maintenance and upkeep, or both, and the prohibition stated in Section 8 of this Act does not apply. A county exercising the power granted herein shall file with the secretary of state a certified copy of its commissioners court certifying that such county qualifies under this section. Such order shall be kept in a register entitled "County-Owned and Operated Cemeteries."

Art. 2351f-2. Counties of 6,500 or Less; Ownership, Operation, and Maintenance of Cemeteries

Sec. 1. A county with a population of 6,500 or less according to the last preceding federal census may own, operate, and maintain cemeteries and may sell the right of burial within the cemetery. The sale of the right of burial is exempt from the requirements of Article 1577, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. Revenue received from the sale of the right of burial may be used for the purchase of additional land to be used for cemetery purposes and for general upkeep of county cemetery property.

Sec. 2. The commissioners court of a county subject to this Act may spend money in the general fund for the purpose of maintenance and upkeep of public cemeteries in the county, and may dedicate up to one-eighth of the maximum allowable tax levy to that purpose.

Sec. 3. The commissioners court of a county subject to this Act shall serve as the Cemetery Board of the county and be responsible for the management of the cemetery property.

Art. 2352g. Water Supply or Sewage System in Matagorda County

Sec. 1. Matagorda County, acting through its commissioners court, may acquire or construct and may operate a water supply or sewage system serving parts of the county outside the limits of an incorporated city or town.

Sec. 2. Matagorda County may enter management or lease agreements with another public or private entity for operation of a county water or sewage system acquired or constructed under this Act.

Sec. 3. Matagorda County may apply for and receive grants or other assistance from any state or federal governmental entity for the purposes of this Act.

Art. 2352h. Contracts or Agreements for Water Supply or Sewer System in Counties Over 800,000

Contract or Agreement with District

Sec. 1. The commissioners court of a county having a population of more than 800,000, according to the last preceding federal census, may enter into contracts or other agreements with any district created under Article 3, Sections 52(b)(1) and (2), or Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution under which the district will provide and operate a water supply or sewage system or both in parts of the county outside the limits of an incorporated city or town in the county.

Distribution of Federal and State Funds

Sec. 2. The commissioners court, by order, may distribute to a district that is a party to a contract or agreement under Section 1 of this Act, federal funds and state water conservation and development funds received by the county. Funds distributed by the commissioners court under this section shall be used only for the construction, renovation, and maintenance of a water supply or sewage system or both that is covered by a contract or other agreement made by the county under this Act.

Acts and Services to be Within District Powers

Sec. 3. The acts performed by and the services provided by a district under a contract or agreement under this Act must be within the scope of the powers, duties, and purposes of the district as provided by the laws under which the district was created.

Jeopardization of Quality of Service Prohibited

Sec. 4. No contract or agreement may be entered into under this Act if it will jeopardize the quality of service provided by the district to those persons residing in the district as determined by the Texas Department of Water Resources.

Contract or Agreement Covering City or Town Extraterritorial Jurisdiction; Approval

Sec. 5. Before a district and a county may enter into a contract or agreement under this Act covering any of the extraterritorial jurisdiction of a city or town as defined in the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), the parties must submit the contract or agreement to the city or town and must receive the approval of the city or town for the contract.

Area Outside District; Use of Funds Prohibited

Sec. 6. If a contract or agreement under this Act covers an area that is not located within the boundaries of the contracting district, no funds of the district may be used to carry out the provisions of the contract or agreement.

Approval of Contract or Agreement

Sec. 7. Before the parties to a contract or agreement under this Act enter into a binding contract or agreement, the parties shall submit the contract or agreement to and shall have it approved by the Texas Department of Water Resources. The Texas Department of Water Resources shall examine the contract or agreement to assure that the interests of the residents of the district will be served and protected and may submit suggested changes to the parties for inclusion in the contract or agreement before the department gives its final approval.

Art. 2368a. Requirements Governing Advertising for Bids by Counties and Cities

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1]

Competitive Bidding for Contracts for Public Works; Notice to Bidders; Advertisement; Exceptions; Conflicting Provisions; Noncompliance With Law

Text of section as amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 540, ch. 256, § 1, and by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1902, ch. 770, § 8

Sec. 2. (a) No county, acting through its Commissioners Court, and no city in this state shall hereafter make any contract calling for or requiring an expenditure or payment in an amount set forth in Subsection (b) of this section out of any fund or funds of any city or county or subdivision of any county creating or imposin an obligation or liability of any nature or character upon such county or any subdivision of such county, or upon such city, without first submitting such proposed contract to competitive bids.

(b) The amount of money requiring competitive bidding under Subsection (a) of this section is:

1. more than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) for any city with a population of less than eighty thousand (80,000), according to the most recent federal census, or any county or subdivision of a county; or

2. more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) for any city with a population of eighty thousand (80,000) or more, according to the most recent federal census.

(c) Notice of the time and place when and where such contracts shall be let shall be published in such county (if concerning a county contract or contracts for such subdivision of such county) and in such city, (if concerning a city contract), once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks prior to the time set for letting such contract, the date of the first publication to be at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date set for letting said contract; and said contract shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder. The court and/or governing body shall have the right to reject any and all bids, and if the contract is for the construction of public works, then the successful bidder shall be required to give a good and sufficient bond in the full amount of the contract price, for the faithful performance of such contract, executed by some surety company authorized to do business in this state in accordance with the provisions of Article 5160, Revised Statutes of 1925, and the amendments thereto. However, the city or county in making any contract calling for or requiring the expenditure or payment of less than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) may, in lieu of the bond requirement, provide in the contract that no money will be paid to the contractor until completion and acceptance of the work by the city or county.

If there is no newspaper published in such county, the notice of the letting of such contract by such county shall be given by causing notice thereof to be posted at the County Court House door for fourteen (14) days prior to the time of letting such contract. If there is no newspaper published in such county, then the notice of letting such contract shall be given by causing notice thereof to be posted at the City Hall for fourteen (14) days prior to the time of letting such contract. Provided, that in case of public calamity, where it becomes necessary to act at once to appropriate money to relieve the necessity of the citizens, or to preserve the property of such county, subdivision, or city, or when it is necessary to preserve or protect the public health of the citizens of such county or city, or in case of unforeseen damage
Art. 2368a TO PUBLIC PROPERTY, MACHINERY OR EQUIPMENT, THIS PROVISION SHALL NOT APPLY; AND PROVIDED FURTHER, AS TO CONTRACTS FOR PERSONAL OR PROFESSIONAL SERVICES; WORK DONE BY SUCH COUNTY OR CITY AND PAID FOR BY THE DAY, AS SUCH WORK PROGRESSES; AND THE PURCHASE OF LAND AND RIGHT-OF-WAY FOR AUTHORIZED NEEDS AND PURPOSES, THE PROVISIONS HEREOF REQUIRING COMPETITIVE BIDS SHALL NOT APPLY AND IN SUCH CASES THE NOTICE HEREIN PROVIDED SHALL BE GIVEN BUT ONLY WITH RESPECT TO AN INTENTION TO ISSUE TIME WARRANTS WITH RIGHT OF REFERENDUM AS CONTEMPLATED IN SECTIONS 3 AND 4 HEREOF RESPECTIVELY.

(d) Provisions in reference to notice to bidders, advertisement thereof, requirements as to the taking of sealed bids based upon specifications for public improvements or purchases, the furnishing of surety bonds by contractors and the manner of letting of contracts, as contained in the charter of a city, if in conflict with the provisions of this Act, shall be followed in such city notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act.

(e) Any and all such contracts or agreements hereafter made by any county or city in this state, without complying with the terms of this Section, shall be void and shall not be enforceable in any court of this state and the performance of same and the payment of any money thereunto may be enjoined by any property taxpaying citizen of such county or city.

COMPARATIVE BIDDING FOR CONTRACTS FOR PUBLIC WORKS; NOTICE TO BIDDERS; ADVERTISEMENT; EXCEPTIONS; CONFLICTING PROVISION; NONCOMPLIANCE WITH LAW

Sec. 2. (a) No county, acting through its Commissioners Court, and no city in this state shall hereafter make any contract calling for or requiring the expenditure of payment of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) or more out of any fund or funds of any city or county or subdivision of any county creating or imposing an obligation or liability of any nature or character upon such county or any subdivision of such county, or upon such city, without first submitting such proposed contract to competitive bids. Notice of the time and place when and where such contracts shall be let shall be published in such county (if concerning a county contract or contracts for such subdivision of such county) and in such city, (if concerning a city contract), once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks prior to the time set for letting such contract, the date of the first publication to be at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date set for letting said contract; and said contract shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder. The court and/or governing body shall have the right to reject any and all bids, and if the contract is for the construction of public works, then the successful bidder shall be required to give a good and sufficient bond in the full amount of the contract price, for the faithful performance of such contract, executed by some surety company authorized to do business in this state in accordance with the provisions of Article 5160, Revised Statutes of 1925, and the amendments thereto. However, the city or county in making any contract calling for or requiring the expenditure of payment of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) or more and less than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) may, in lieu of the bond requirement, provide in the contract that no money will be paid to the contractor until completion and acceptance of the work by the city or county. If there is no newspaper published in such county, the notice of the letting of such contract by such county shall be given by causing notice thereof to be posted at the County Court House door for fourteen (14) days prior to the time of letting such contract. If there is no newspaper published in such city, then the notice of letting such contract shall be given by causing notice thereof to be posted at the City Hall for fourteen (14) days prior to the time of letting such contract. Provided, that in case of public calamity, where it becomes necessary to act at once to appropriate money to relieve the necessity of the citizens, or to preserve the property of such county, subdivision, or city, or when it is necessary to preserve or protect the public health of the citizens of such county or city, or in case of unforeseen damage to public property, machinery or equipment, this provision shall not apply; and provided further, as to contracts for personal or professional services; work done by such county or city and paid for by the day, as such work progresses; and the purchase of land and right-of-way for authorized needs and purposes, the provisions hereof requiring competitive bids shall not apply and in such cases the notice herein provided shall be given but only with respect to an intention to issue time warrants with right of referendum as contemplated in Sections 3 and 4 hereof respectively.

(b) Provisions in reference to notice to bidders, advertisement thereof, requirements as to the taking of sealed bids based upon specifications for public improvements or purchases, and the manner of letting of contracts, as contained in the charter of a city, if in conflict with the provisions of this Act, shall be followed in such city notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act.

(c) The provisions of this Act and of Article 5160, Revised Statutes of 1925, as amended, relating to the furnishing of surety bonds by contractors may be adopted by ordinance of the governing body of a city, notwithstanding conflicting city charter provisions.

(d) Any and all such contracts or agreements hereafter made by any county or city in this state, without complying with the terms of this Section, shall be void and shall not be enforceable in any court of this state and the performance of same and the payment of any money thereunder may be enjoined by any property taxpaying citizen of such county or city.

Art. 2368a.2. Public Property Finance Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the Public Property Finance Act.

Purpose

Sec. 2. The legislature finds and determines that the acquisition, use, and purchase of property by governmental agencies and the financing of such activities are necessary to the efficient and economic operation of government. This Act facilitates a public purpose by furnishing governmental agencies with a feasible means to acquire, use, purchase, and finance public property.

Definitions

Sec. 3. In this Act:

(1) “City” means any city, town, or village incorporated in this state, whether governed by the general laws of the state or the laws pertaining to home-rule cities.

(2) “Conservation and reclamation district” means any district or county organized or operating pursuant to Article XVI, Section 59, or Article III, Section 52, of the Texas Constitution.

(3) “Contract” means an agreement entered into pursuant to this Act.

(4) “County” means a political subdivision of the State of Texas created and established under Article IX, Section 1, of the Texas Constitution.

(5) “Governing body” means the board, council, commission, agency, court, or other body or group that is authorized by law to acquire property for each respective governmental agency.
Art. 2368a.2

(6) "Governmental agency" means any city, county, school district, conservation and reclamation district, hospital organization, or other political subdivision of the State of Texas.

(7) "Hospital organization" means any district, authority, board, or joint board organized pursuant to the laws of this state for hospital purposes.

(8) "Net effective interest rate" means, with reference to a contract, the interest amount deemed by the governing body of a governmental agency to accrue on a contract and shall be calculated as simple interest.

(9) "Net interest cost" means the total of all interest to accrue and come due on a contract through the last date a payment is due on the contract, plus any discount or minus any premium included in the contract price or principal sum.

(10) "Person" means any individual, corporation, organization, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, association, and any other legal entity.

(11) "Property" means personal property, appliances, equipment, facilities or furnishings, or an interest therein, whether movable or fixed, deemed by the governing body of the governmental agency to be necessary, useful, or appropriate to one or more purposes of the governmental agency, but shall not include real property.

(12) "School district" means any independent school district, common school district, community college district, junior college district, or regional college district organized pursuant to the laws of this state.

Authority to Contract for Property

Sec. 4. (a) The governing body of a governmental agency is authorized to execute, perform, and make payments under contracts with any person for use, acquisition, or purchase of any property. The contracts may be on the terms and conditions that are deemed appropriate by the governing body. Contracts may be in the form of a lease, a lease with option or options to purchase, installment purchase, or any other form deemed appropriate by the governing body. All contracts shall be obligations of the governmental agency. The contracts may be for a term approved by the governing body, and in each case, the contract may contain an option or options to renew or extend the term and may be made payable from a pledge of all or any part of any revenues, funds, or taxes or revenues, or funds and taxes available to the governmental agency for its public purposes.

(b) Each contract which retains to the governing body of the governmental agency the continuing right to terminate at the expiration of each budget period of the governmental agency during the term of the contract shall be considered to be a commitment of the governmental agency's current revenues only. All applicable constitutional requirements of approval by the voters shall be met. The contracts may provide for the payment of interest on the unpaid amounts of the contract at a rate or rates and may contain prepayment provisions, termination penalties, and such other provisions as shall be determined within the discretion of the governing body of the governmental agency. Subject only to applicable constitutional restrictions, the governing body has authority to obligate taxes or revenues for the full term of the contract for the payment of the contract. The net effective interest rate on any such contract shall not exceed the net effective interest rate at which public securities may be issued in accordance with Chapter 3, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969, as amended (Article 717k–2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Compliance with Other Acts

Sec. 5. Each governmental agency currently subject thereto shall comply with the terms of Chapter 183, General Laws, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1931, as amended (Article 2368a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), in entering into contracts, including the requirement that certain contracts be awarded pursuant to public bids, except that it is not necessary for a governmental agency to submit the question of entering into a contract to a referendum.

Approved and Registered Contracts

Sec. 6. After a contract providing for payment aggregating $100,000 or more by a governmental agency is authorized by the governing body, the contract and the record relating to the contract may, at the discretion of the governmental agency, be submitted to the attorney general for his examination as to the validity of the contract. If the contract has been made in accordance with the constitution and laws of the state, the attorney general shall approve the contract, and the contract then shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts.

After the contract has been approved by the attorney general and registered by the comptroller of public accounts, the validity of the contract is incontestable for any cause. The legal obligations of the lessor, vendor, or supplier of the property to the governmental agency shall not be diminished in any respect by the approval and registration of a contract.

Contract as Authorized Investment

Sec. 7. A contract entered into pursuant to this Act is a legal and authorized investment for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, and trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas.

Term of Contracts

Sec. 8. A contract may have any term not to exceed 25 years.

Construction and Effect of Act

Sec. 9. This Act is wholly sufficient authority within itself for entering into contracts and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized by this Act, without reference to any other laws, or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as specifically provided in this Act. When contracts are entered into under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control, except that any governmental agency may use the provisions of any other law, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act. This Act shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purpose. Notwithstanding any contrary provision, this Act does not apply to a contract solely for the construction of improvements to real property.

Art. 2368a.3. Competitive Bidding on Public Works Contracts

Applicability

Sec. 1. This Act applies to:

(1) a county;
(2) an incorporated city, town, or village;
(3) a common or independent school district;
(4) a special district or authority created under Article III, Section 52, or Article XVI, Section 59, Texas Constitution;
(5) a hospital district or authority;
(6) a housing authority; or
(7) an agency or instrumentality of a unit of government described in one of the preceding subdivisions.

Procedure for Bidding

Sec. 2. If a governmental entity covered by this Act is required by statute to award a contract for the construction, repair, or renovation of a structure, road, highway, or other improvement or addition to real property on the basis of competitive bids, such bidding shall be accomplished as provided herein.

Advertisement for Bids

Sec. 3. (a) The governmental entity shall advertise for bids. The advertisement for bids must include a notice that:

(1) describes the work;
(2) states where the bidding documents, plans, specifications, or other data may be examined by all bidders; and
(3) states the time and place for submitting bids and the time and place that bids will be opened.

(b) The advertisement must be published as required by law. If no legal requirement for publication exists, the advertisement must be published at least twice in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the county or counties where the work is to be performed. The second publication must be no later than the 10th day before the first day on which bids may be submitted.

(c) The governmental entity must mail a notice containing the information required under Subsection (a) of this section to any organization that:

(1) requests in advance that notices for bids be sent to it;
(2) agrees in writing to pay the actual cost of mailing the notice; and
(3) certifies that it circulates notices for bids to the construction trade in general.

(d) The governmental entity shall mail a notice required under Subsection (c) of this section not later than the date on which the first newspaper advertisement under this section is published.

Opening of Bids

Sec. 4. Bids may be opened only by the governing body at a public meeting or by an officer or employee of the governmental entity at or in an office of the governmental entity.

Award of Bid

Sec. 5. A governmental entity shall have the right to reject any and all bids. Contracts covered by this Act shall be awarded to the lowest, responsible bidder, but a contract may not be awarded to a bidder who is not the lowest bidder unless prior to the award each lower bidder is given notice of the proposed award and is given an opportunity to appear before the governing body of the governmental entity or the designated representative of the governing body and present evidence concerning the bidder's responsibility.

Effect of Noncompliance

Sec. 6. A contract awarded in violation of this Act is void.

General Provisions

Sec. 7. (a) To the extent a municipal home-rule charter conflicts with this Act, the charter prevails.
Art. 2368a.3  COURTS—COMMISSIONERS  2594

(b) The provisions of the Professional Services Procurement Act (Article 664-4, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes) are not affected by this Act.

(c) This Act does not apply to a contract which does not call for or require the expenditure of more than $10,000 out of the funds of the governmental entity.

Repealer
Sec. 8. The last sentence of Section 2 of the Bond and Warrant Law of 1931 (Article 2368a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes) and all of Section 2(e) of The Certificate of Obligation Act of 1971 (Article 2368a.1, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes) following the word “Texas” are repealed.
[Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1901, ch. 770, §§ 1 to 8, eff. June 13, 1979.]

Art. 2368a-13. Validation of Time Warrants in Counties of Less than 1,000,000

Sec. 1. The governmental acts and proceedings performed by the commissioners court of any county with a population of less than 1,000,000, according to the most recent federal census, in authorizing the issuance of time warrants are validated in all respects as of the date the act or proceeding if the time warrants were issued after August 1, 1976. Time warrants issued in connection with the proceedings are validated according to their terms and as of the date they were issued. The acts, proceedings, or time warrants issued in connection with them may not be held invalid because they were not performed in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. This Act does not apply to any matter involved in litigation on the date this Act takes effect if the litigation ultimately results against the legality of the matter. This Act does not apply to any matter that has been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.
[Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 2010, ch. 508, §§ 1, 2, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 2370b. County Office, Courts and Jail Buildings; Construction, Improvement, etc.

Power to Acquire, Construct, Reconstruct, Remodel, Etc., Buildings
Sec. 1. Whenever the Commissioners Court of any county determines that the county courthouse is not adequate in size or facilities to properly house all county and district offices and all county and district courts and all justice of the peace courts for the precincts in which the courthouse is situated, and to adequately store all county records and equipment (including voting machines) and/or that the county jail is not adequate in size or facilities to properly confine prisoners and other persons who may be legally confined or detained in a county jail, the Commissioners Court may purchase, construct, reconstruct, remodel, improve and equip, or otherwise acquire an office building or buildings, or courts building or buildings, or jail building or buildings (in addition to the existing courthouse and/or jail), or an additional building or buildings in which any one or more of the county or district offices or county, district or justice of the peace courts, or the county jail or any other county facilities or functions may be housed, conducted and maintained; and may purchase and improve the necessary site or sites therefor, and may use such building or buildings for any or all of such purposes, provided that any such building or buildings so acquired shall be located in the county seat, but provided that any regional jail facility built according to the provisions of Section 4(h), The Interlocal Cooperation Act, as amended (Article 4413(32c), Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), may be located outside the county seat, and further provided that no justice of the peace court shall be housed, conducted or maintained in any such building if said building is located out of the boundaries of the precinct of such justice of the peace court.

Art. 2370b-2. Auxiliary Courts in Counties of 1,200,000 or More

The commissioners court in any county with a population of 1,200,000 or more according to the last preceding federal census may authorize specific geographic locations within the county other than the county courthouse as auxiliary courts for purposes of conducting nonjury proceedings and may designate those locations as auxiliary county seats for such purposes.

Art. 2370b-3. Office Buildings or Jails Outside County Seat

Sec. 1. The commissioners court of any county may provide one or more office buildings or jail facilities at any place in the county outside the county seat in the same manner as the commissioners court may provide for these facilities at the county seat. The commissioners court may provide office space in a building provided under this Act for any county or precinct office, except courts required by law to sit at the county seat. Each county officer shall maintain an office at the county seat in which the officer shall keep all original records of the office.

Sec. 2. The office building or jail may be provided for by the issuance of bonds, as is provided by Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or by the issuance of other evidences of indebtedness, in the same manner as bonds or evidences of indebtedness for courthouses and jails at county seats.

Sec. 3. The authority granted by this Act is in addition to that provided by other laws.

[Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 28, ch. 18, §§ 1 to 3, eff. Sept. 1, 1979.]

Art. 2370c-2. Criminal Justice Facilities in Certain Counties and Cities

Eligible Counties and Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to any county in this state and to any city in such county which city is not the county seat of such county but has a population of more than 17,500 according to the last preceding federal census.

Authorization

Sec. 2. Counties and cities to which this Act is applicable are hereby authorized jointly or severally to own, construct, equip, enlarge, and maintain a building or buildings in such city to constitute a criminal justice center providing facilities of a public nature with relation to or incidental in the administration of criminal justice, including, without limitation, accommodations for the handling, processing, and detention of prisoners, and offices for state, county, and city administrative and judicial officials, courtrooms, garages, and parking areas.

Contracts

Sec. 3. Such county and city shall have authority to specify by contract the purpose, terms, rights, objectives, duties, and responsibilities of each of the contracting parties, including the amount, or proportionate amount, of money to be contributed by each for land acquisition, building acquisition, construction, and equipment; the method or methods by which such moneys are to be provided; the account or accounts in which such money is to be deposited; the party which shall award construction or other contracts or that such contracts shall be awarded by action of both parties; and the manner in which disbursements shall be authorized. Such contract may further provide for the creation of an administrative agency or may designate one of the parties to supervise the accomplishment of the purposes of the contract and to operate and maintain the joint facilities, and any administrative agency so created or party so designated shall have authority to employ personnel and engage in other administrative activities as necessary in accomplishing the purposes of the contract and in operating and maintaining the joint facilities.

Methods of Meeting Costs

Sec. 4. The county and city contract may specify that moneys required of them in meeting the cost of providing the criminal justice center shall be derived from current income and funds on hand budgeted by them for such purpose, or through the authorization and issuance of bonds by either or both the county and city under the procedures prescribed for the issuance of general obligation bonds for other public buildings and purposes, or by the issuance by either or both the county and the city of certificates of obligation under the provisions of Article 2368a-1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, or by a combination of those methods. In lieu of or in combination with the employment of taxing power in the payment of such bonds or certificates of obligation, same may be payable from and secured by income derived from the criminal justice center facilities, including that from leases and from the proceeds of parking or other fees. In the financing of the facilities herein authorized eligible counties and cities jointly or severally may accept grants, gratuities, advances, and loans from the United States, the State of Texas, or any of their agencies, any private or public corporation, or any other person.

Office Facilities

Sec. 5. As applicable to counties eligible to employ the provisions of this Act, any county officer, in addition to the office he maintains at the county seat, may maintain office facilities in the herein authorized criminal justice center notwithstanding provisions of Article 1605, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other law limiting the location of county offices to the county seat of their respective counties.

1 So in enrolled bill; probably should read "2368a-l.".

Art. 2370c-3. Justice Centers Located on State Line

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Law" means a statute of a state, a written opinion of a court of record, a municipal ordinance, an order of a county commissioners court, or a rule authorized by and lawfully adopted pursuant to a statute.

(2) "Municipality" means an incorporated city or town.

Authorization for Contract

Sec. 2. (a) A county in this state and a municipality in that county, both located on the state line, may contract with an adjoining county and any municipality in that county located on the other side of the state line for the joint construction, financing,
Art. 2370c-3  COURTS—COMMISSIONERS

operation, and management of a justice center to be located on the state line. The contracting municipality in this state need not be the county seat of the contracting county in this state. The county and municipality in this state may contract for the center to contain:

1. courtrooms and office space needed by municipal, justice, county, district, and appellate courts;
2. jail, lockup, and other detention facilities;
3. federal, county, precinct, and municipal offices for prosecuting attorneys and other personnel as needed;
4. adult or juvenile probation offices;
5. any other offices that either county or municipality is separately authorized or required to operate or provide; or
6. parking space, dining areas, and other facilities incidental to operation of the center.

(b) A court of civil appeals or a district, county, justice, or municipal court having jurisdiction in the county or municipality in which a part of the center is located may maintain offices and courtrooms and hold proceedings at the center, except that no justice court other than the justice court for the precinct in which the part of the center in this state is located may maintain an office and courtroom in the center.

(c) A court of this state may not hold proceedings in the part of the center located in the other state. Courts of the other state may hold proceedings in the part of the center in this state.

Sec. 3. The governing body of a Texas municipality or Texas county contracting as provided by Section 1 of this Act may finance its share of the construction, financing, operation, or management of the center by any means that it could finance the type of facilities in the center to be used or provided by it. The contract may take advantage of the availability of federal funds to finance any part of the center.

Sec. 4. The contracting parties may specify in the contract the manner of determining the persons responsible for:

1. the operation, alteration, maintenance, cleaning, and repair of the facilities;
2. the employment of center personnel;
3. the purchase of materials, supplies, tools, and other equipment to be jointly used by offices provided or used by the contracting parties;
4. preparing reports to the governing bodies of the contracting parties;
5. joint record-keeping, communications, or dispatch systems; and
6. the performance of any other powers or duties relating to operation of the center.

Sec. 5. The contracting parties may provide in the contract the manner of determining the personnel policies and employment benefit programs for center personnel.

Sec. 6. The contract must provide that the sheriffs of the two counties are jointly responsible for operation of any jail, lockup, or other detention facility in the center and the custody, care, and treatment of persons in custody in the facility or must provide for the hiring of a jailer with those responsibilities.

Sec. 7. (a) Except as otherwise provided by this Act, the law of both states regarding rights, duties, liabilities, privileges, and immunities arising from conduct applies to conduct in any part of the center. If, however, it is impossible for a person to conform his or her conduct in the center to the law of both states, that person may choose which state's law governs that conduct. If a person chooses to conform his or her conduct in the center to the law of the other state, the conflicting law of this state does not apply to that conduct.

(b) The physical plant of the center and equipment and facilities used by personnel of both states employed at the center are constructively present in both states.

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d) of this section, property in any part of the center that is owned by or in the possession of a person in custody or summoned to appear in the center is constructively present in the state of the person was taken into custody or summoned to appear.

(d) Possession of property that constitutes an offense committed in the center is conduct to which Subsection (a) of this section applies. A person's exercise of a duty in regard to property in the center is conduct to which Subsection (a) of this section applies.

(e) Property that is ordered by a court to be produced in the center or that is in the possession of a peace officer or a party to a proceeding for use as evidence before a court holding a proceeding in the center is constructively present in the state of the court.

(f) Property in the center that is not covered by Subsection (c), (d), or (e) of this section is constructively present in both states.

(g) The law of a state in which property is constructively present applies to that property to the same extent that that law would apply if the property were actually present in that state. If property is constructively present in only one state, the law of the state in which the property is not constructively present may be applied to that property only to the extent that that law would apply if the property were actually outside that state.

(h) Except as otherwise provided by this Act, the courts of both states have concurrent jurisdiction over the geographic area of both states in the center, but the state in which a prosecution is first instituted for an offense committed in the center retains jurisdiction to apply that state's law to the exclusion of the other state's jurisdiction, unless the prosecution is terminated without jeopardy attaching under the law of the state of the first prosecution. For the purposes of this Act, a prosecution is commenced in this state on the filing of an indictment, information, or complaint, and the attachment of jeopardy in this state is determined by Article 27.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

Arrest, Extradition, and Service of Process

Sec. 8. (a) A person who is in the custody of a peace officer or center personnel under Texas law:

(1) is constructively present in Texas while that person is in custody in the part of the center in the other state;

(2) may be prosecuted for an offense against Texas law without extradition of that person; and

(3) may be personally served in any part of the center for a proceeding in Texas.

(b) A person who is in the center in the custody of a peace officer or center personnel under the law of the other state:

(1) is constructively present in the other state while that person is in custody in the part of the center in Texas;

(2) may not be prosecuted for an offense against Texas law without extradition of that person; and

(3) may not be personally served with process in any part of the center for a proceeding in Texas.

(c) Texas agrees that a person who is in the center in the custody of a peace officer or center personnel under the law of the other state may be prosecuted for an offense against the law of the other state without extradition of that person. Texas agrees that a person who is in the center in the custody of a peace officer or center personnel under the law of the other state may be personally served with process in any part of the center for a proceeding in the other state.

(d) Center personnel or a peace officer of either state may transfer across the state line in the center a person in custody in the center under the law of either state and may exercise control over that person on both sides of the state line in the center.

(e) A person in the center who has not been confined in the center, taken to the center under arrest, or summoned to appear in the center may be arrested in any part of the center for an offense against the law of either state without extradition of that person. Extradition of a person who was arrested in the center under those circumstances is not required in order to prosecute the person for an offense against the law of either state if the person is physically present in any part of the center or the state of the prosecution at the time of the prosecution.

(f) A person who is summoned to appear in the center under Texas law:

(1) is constructively present in Texas while that person is appearing under the summons in the part of the center in the other state;

(2) without extradition, may be arrested in any part of the center for an offense against Texas law and prosecuted for that offense if that person is physically present in any part of the center or Texas at the time of the prosecution; and

(3) may be personally served with process in any part of the center for a proceeding in Texas.

(g) A person who is summoned to appear in the center under the law of the other state:

(1) is constructively present in the other state while that person is appearing under the summons in the part of the center in Texas;

(2) without extradition, may not be arrested under Texas law in any part of the center for an offense against Texas law; and

(3) may not be personally served with process in any part of the center for a proceeding in Texas.

(h) Texas agrees that a person who is summoned to appear in the center under the law of the other state may be arrested in any part of the center for an offense against the law of the other state and prosecuted for that offense without extradition if that person is physically present in any part of the center or the other state at the time of the prosecution.

Texas agrees that a person who is summoned to appear in the center under the law of the other state may be personally served with process in any part of the center for a proceeding in the other state.

(i) If a person in the center is constructively present in one state under this section, the law of the state in which the person is not constructively present may be applied to that person only to the extent that that law would apply if the person were actually outside that state. However, the law applicable to that person's conduct in the center is governed by Section 7 of this Act, and whether extradition is required to arrest or prosecute that person for an offense committed in the center is governed by Section 8 of this Act.

(j) If the other state enacts legislation as provided in Section 9 of this Act, a peace officer of Texas may:

(1) arrest a person under Texas law in the part of the center in the other state for an offense against Texas law if that peace officer would be authorized to make that arrest in the part of the center in Texas; and

(2) arrest a person under the law of the other state in any part of the center for an offense against the law of the other state if a peace officer of the other state would be authorized to make that arrest in the part of the center in the other state.

(k) Texas agrees that a peace officer of the other state may arrest a person under Texas law in any part of the center for an offense against Texas law if a peace officer of Texas would be authorized to make that arrest in the part of the center in Texas.

(l) Texas agrees that a peace officer of the other state may arrest a person under the law of the other state in the part of the center in Texas for an offense against the law of the other state if that peace officer would be authorized to make that arrest in the part of the center in the other state.

(m) Notwithstanding Sections 3 and 6, Article 51-13, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, the governor of this state may recognize a demand for the extradition of a person charged with crime in the other state if the demand alleges that any element of the offense occurred in any part of the center.

Other State's Legislation

Sec. 9. A county and a municipality in this state may contract with a county and a municipality in an adjoining state as provided by Sections 2 and 3 of this Act only if the other state enacts legislation relating to the establishment of a justice center pursuant to a contract as provided in those sections that:

(1) provides for joint responsibility of the sheriffs of the two counties over the operation of a jail, lockup, or other detention facility in the center and persons in custody in the facility, or the hiring of a jailer with those responsibilities;

(2) provides for the application and enforcement of the law of both states in the manner provided by Section 7 of this Act;

(3) provides that a person in custody in the center under Texas law may be prosecuted for an offense against Texas law without extradition of that person, as provided by Section 8 of this Act;

(4) provides that a person in custody in the center under Texas law may not be prosecuted for an offense against the law of the other state without extradition of that person or personally served with process in the center for a proceeding in the other state;

(5) provides that a person summoned to appear in the center under Texas law may not be personally served with process in any part of the center for a proceeding in the other state and may be arrested in any part of the center for an offense against Texas law and prosecuted for that offense without extradition of the person if the person is physically present in any part of the center or Texas at the time of the prosecution, as provided by Section 8 of this Act;

(6) provides that a person summoned to appear in the center under Texas law may not be arrested in any part of the center for an offense against the law of the other state;

(7) provides that center personnel or a peace officer of either state may transfer across the state line in the center a person in custody in the center under the law of either state and may exercise control over that person on both sides of the state line in the center, as provided by Section 8 of this Act;

(8) provides that a person in the center who is not confined in the center, taken to the center under arrest, or summoned to appear in the center may be arrested in any part of the center for an offense against the laws of either state without extradition of that person, and that extradition of a person who was arrested in the center under those circumstances is not required in order for the person to be prosecuted for an offense against the law of either state if the person is physically present in any part of the center or the state of the prosecution at the time of the prosecution, as provided by Section 8 of this Act;

(9) authorizes a peace officer of either state, under Texas law, to arrest a person in any part of the center for an offense against Texas law if a peace officer of Texas would be authorized to make that arrest in the part of the center in Texas, as provided by Section 8 of this Act; and

(10) authorizes a peace officer of either state, under the law of the other state, to arrest a person in any part of the center for an offense against the law of the other state if a peace officer of the other state would be authorized to make that arrest in the part of the center in the other state, as provided by Section 8 of this Act.

Art. 2372d-6. Lease and Sale of Land for Hotel in Conjunction With County Convention Center in Counties Over 700,000

Lease of County Property
Sec. 1. The commissioners court of any county with a population of more than 700,000 according to the most recent federal census is authorized to lease real property owned by such county and the air rights above such real property owned by such county to private persons, corporations, or associations as provided in this Act.

Use of Leased Property
Sec. 2. The commissioners court is authorized to lease real property owned by the county, as well as the air rights above such property, to private persons, corporations, or associations for the construction, maintenance, and operation of a privately owned hotel and related facilities which are operated in conjunction with an existing convention center owned by the county.

Effect of Existing Bond Indentures
Sec. 3. The commissioners court may lease the real property and air rights thereto, as provided herein, notwithstanding that the real property leased is presently encumbered by existing revenue bond indentures. In leasing the county-owned land or the air rights thereto, the commissioners court shall abide by all applicable terms and conditions of the existing revenue bond indentures, except such terms as are waived by the holders of the revenue bonds.

Creation of Encumbrance Prohibited
Sec. 4. No lease of county-owned land or air rights thereto hereunder shall in any way subject the county-owned land to a mortgage or encumbrance not heretofore existing and any lease executed hereunder shall specifically provide that such county-owned land shall not be deemed to be encumbered or mortgaged by any lease executed hereunder, or any agreement executed in connection with such lease.

Land May not be Mortgaged
Sec. 5. The county-owned land which may be leased hereunder shall not be in any way pledged or mortgaged (other than by existing revenue bond indentures or refunding or other release of existing revenue bond indentures), by any lease or agreement executed hereunder, and the county executing a lease hereunder shall not in any way lend its credit to any private corporation, association, or person in connection with a lease executed hereunder.

Duration of Lease
Sec. 6. Any lease entered into hereunder by the commissioners court is authorized to be initially for the term of any mortgage covering the construction of the hotel and related facilities and is authorized to provide an option to renew thereafter in the parties constructing, owning, or operating the hotel or related facilities for such term as the parties may mutually agree.

Lease Terms and Conditions
Sec. 7. Any lease hereunder of county-owned property or air rights thereto shall be leased upon a competitive bid and for a consideration of not less than the fair market lease value and may otherwise be upon such terms and conditions as the parties may mutually agree upon consistent with the constitution and laws of this state.

Sale of Property
Sec. 8. (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of the law to the contrary, the commissioners court is specifically authorized to enter an agreement hereunder to provide for the sale of specified county-owned land to a private association, corporation, or individual once the following conditions have been fulfilled:

(1) all existing revenue bond obligations have been fully discharged to bond holders;
(2) a hotel has been built on the land in conjunction with an existing convention center and the operation of the hotel has been continuous for at least five years from its inception;
(3) the parties mutually agree to a sale of the realty and air rights thereto;
(4) the county receives an adequate sale price which is fair under the then existing market conditions for the sale of the land and any air rights thereto.

(b) The commissioners court may impose such deed restrictions or reverters as may be advisable to preserve the use of the land for a purpose consistent with the construction, expansion, ownership, and operation of a hotel and related facilities in conjunction with a convention center.

(c) The sale of the land may include land appurtenant to the land upon which said hotel or related facilities have been built.

Contracts: Parties, Purposes
Sec. 9. The power of the commissioners court to enter into agreements and contracts hereunder shall extend to one or more private associations, corporations, or individuals for all or any of the following purposes: construction of a hotel and related facilities, ownership of a hotel and related facilities, and operation, maintenance, and expansion of a hotel and related facilities.
Sec. 10. In agreements and contracts authorized by this Act, the commissioners court may expend tax funds consistent with the provisions of this Act and other provisions of state law, but the commitment and expenditure of tax funds must be from current revenues of the county.

Art. 2372h-4. Payroll Deductions; Authorized Purposes

Sec. 1. (a) The commissioners court of any county of 20,000 or more population may authorize payroll deductions to be made from the wages and salaries of county employees, on each employee’s written request, to a credit union, to pay membership dues in a labor union or a bona fide employees association, and to pay fees for parking in county owned facilities.

(b) Each employee requesting a deduction under this Act shall submit to the county auditor a written request indicating the amount to be deducted from the employee’s wages or salary and to transfer the withheld funds to the credit union, proper labor union or employees association, or county funds. The request shall remain in effect until the county auditor receives written notice of revocation signed by the employee.

(c) The amount deducted from an employee’s wages or salary for the purpose stated in this Act shall not be more than the amount stipulated in the written request.

(d) Participation in the program authorized by this Act is voluntary on the part of any county employee and the county.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not alter, amend, modify, or repeal any of the provisions of Chapter 135, Acts of the 50th Legislature, 1947 (Article 5154c, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

Sec. 3. Public funds shall not be used to defray the administrative cost of making the deductions authorized under this Act, except those deductions relating to payment for parking. The credit union, labor union or employees association shall pay the full and complete administrative cost, if any, as determined and approved by the commissioners court of the deductions made for their benefit under this Act.

Art. 2372p-2. Personal Bond Offices

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 3]
Art. 2372q-3. Licensing and Regulation of Bail Bondsmen

Requirements of License

Sec. 3.

(c) The provisions of this Act do not apply to the execution of bail bonds in counties having a population of less than 110,000 according to the last preceding federal census.

County Bail Bond Board

Sec. 5. (a) There is hereby created in all counties having a population of 110,000 or more, according to the last preceding federal census, a County Bail Bond Board.

Other Procedural Provisions

Sec. 12.

(b) Any licensee under this Act may execute bail bonds in the county in which his license is issued and, after being certified by the sheriff in his county, may present a bail bond to any sheriff in the state having custody of the accused person named therein, except that a sheriff of a county having a population in excess of 110,000 according to the last preceding federal census may require that all bail bonds be executed by persons licensed in that county.

Art. 2372q-1. Regulation of Private Water Companies in Counties Over 1,500,000

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Commissioners court" means the commissioners court of any county with a population of more than 1,500,000, according to the last preceding federal census.

(2) "Private water company" means a privately owned entity organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of furnishing a water supply or sewer services or both to the public, to cities and towns including home-rule cities, or to special districts, counties, or other political subdivisions of the state.

Assumption of Regulatory Authority Over Rates and Services; Rates Schedule

Sec. 2. (a) The rates and services of a private water company in a county with a population of more than 1,500,000, according to the last preceding federal census, shall be regulated by the commissioners court as provided in this Act, if:

(1) the private water company is charging or proposes to charge residential rates in any service area which exceed by 30 percent or more the highest residential rates charged by the water department of the largest city in the county; or

(2) a petition is submitted to the commissioners court signed by at least 30 percent of the persons residing, according to the last preceding federal census, in one or more of the service areas served by a private water company requesting that the commissioners court exercise regulatory authority over the company serving them.

(b) To determine whether or not the commissioners court should assume regulatory authority over a private water company under Subdivision (1), Subsection (a) of this section, each private water company operating inside the boundaries of a county with a population of more than 1,500,000, according to the last preceding federal census, on the effective date of this Act shall submit to the commissioners court copies of all rate schedules in effect on the effective date of this Act. After examining these rate schedules, the commissioners court shall determine whether or not the private water company will come under the regulatory authority of the commissioners court as a result of the provisions of Subdivision (1), Subsection (a) of this section.

(c) After the initial determination under Subsection (b) of this section, each private water company that is not operating under the regulatory authority of the commissioners court shall submit copies of each new or changed rate schedule that it plans to adopt at least 30 days before the rates are to take effect so that the commissioners court may make a determination whether or not the private water company will come under the regulatory authority of the commissioners court under Subdivision (1), Subsection (a) of this section. The commissioners court shall issue an order designating which private water companies within the county will be under its regulatory authority as a result of the provisions of Subdivision (1), Subsection (a) of this section.
Art. 2372q-1  COURTS—COMMISSIONERS  2602

(d) If the commissioners court finds that a private water company qualifies for regulation by it under Subsection (a) of this section, it shall issue its order assuming regulatory authority over the company, and the regulatory authority of the commissioners court shall take effect 15 days after the order is issued.

Filing of Rate Schedules; Proposed Changes

Sec. 3. (a) Each private water company over which the commissioners court assumes regulatory authority shall file with the commissioners court copies of all of its schedules of rates and charges and proposed schedules of rates and charges within 15 days after the commissioners court assumes regulatory authority unless this information has already been filed under some other section of this Act.

(b) A private water company regulated under this Act which proposes to change any of its rates, charges, or both shall file with the commission copies of the proposed schedules of rates, charges, or both at least 40 days before they are to take effect.

Hearing

Sec. 4. On receiving schedules of existing or proposed rates, charges, or both from a private water company under the regulatory authority of the commissioners court, the commissioners court shall set a time, place, and date for a public hearing to consider approval of the rates, charges, or both and shall issue notice as provided in this Act. The hearing shall be held not earlier than 25 nor later than 30 days after the date the schedules are filed.

Notice of Hearing

Sec. 5. (a) Notice of a hearing shall be posted in at least one public place in each service area affected by or to be affected by the proposed rates, charges, or both and at the courthouse in the place for posting notice of meetings of the commissioners court.

(b) Notice of the hearing shall be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in each service area affected by or to be affected by the rates, charges, or both.

(c) The private water company whose rates, charges, or both are being considered at the hearing shall be given notice by certified mail return receipt requested.

(d) Notice required by this section shall be given at least 10 days before the day of the hearing.

Access to Books, Records and Information of Water Company

Sec. 6. The commissioners court and its employees and agents are entitled to access to all books, records, and other information of a private water company which may be necessary for the commissioners court to determine if it may exercise regulatory authority under Section 2(a)(1) of this Act and to carry out its regulatory authority under this Act.

Inspection of Files and Information Gathered

Sec. 7. At least 10 days before the date set for the hearing, the commissioners court shall make all files and information gathered by it and its employees and agents relating to the matter to be heard available for inspection during regular office hours.

Personal Appearance at Hearing; Recess

Sec. 8. (a) Any person who desires to appear at the hearing and present testimony, evidence, exhibits, or other information may do so in person, by counsel, or both.

(b) The commissioners court may recess the hearing from day to day.

Compelling Testimony; Oaths; Subpoenas

Sec. 9. The commissioners court may compel the testimony of any person necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act, and may administer oaths to persons who appear to testify before the commissioners court. Also, the commissioners court may issue subpoenas to compel the testimony of any persons and the production of any documents or information necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Determination; Written Order

Sec. 10. (a) Within 30 days after the conclusion of the hearing, the commissioners court shall determine whether or not to approve the schedules of rates, charges, or both that were considered at the hearing and if the schedules are to be adopted, shall decide on any modifications in the schedules that the commissioners court considers necessary based on its own investigation and evidence and information gathered at the hearing.

(b) On making a determination, the commissioners court shall issue a written order stating its determination and the reasons for its determination.

Fair Return on Value of Property; Public Relations Expenses

Sec. 11. (a) No rate or charge determined by the commissioners court may yield more than a fair return on the fair value of property used and useful in rendering service to the public and no return on a rate or charge may exceed eight percent a year.

(b) In making a determination on a rate, charge, or both, the commissioners court shall not include in the basis for establishment of the rate, charge, or both any amounts spent by the private water company for advertising or other public relations expenses.

Appeal

Sec. 12. Orders of the commissioners court issued under this Act may be appealed to a district court in the county in which the commissioners court has jurisdiction.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 13. (a) The commissioners court, after notice and hearing, may adopt by order any rules and regulations that it considers necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act.

(b) The commissioners court by rules and regulations may adopt reasonable standards to be followed by private water companies operating under its regulatory authority in delivering their services to the public.

Annual Report of Water Company

Sec. 14. (a) Each private water company under the regulatory authority of the commissioners court shall file with the commissioners court before January 1 of each year a report which shall include:

1. the amount of a lien or mortgage on any property of the company;
2. other indebtedness of the company and the consideration for it;
3. the actual cost of the visible physical property of the company and the date it was installed and the present value of it with land, machinery, buildings, pipes, mains, and other items of property being listed separately; and
4. the annual cost of operating the facilities of the company including amounts paid for actual salaries; labor; fixed charges including interest, taxes, and insurance; fuel; extension and repairs; maintenance; damages, claims, or suits for damages; and miscellaneous expenses.

(b) If machinery or equipment of the company is abandoned, worn out, or its use discontinued within the preceding year, this shall be stated in the report together with the original cost and the present value.

(c) The report shall state the gross earnings of the company including revenues from every source and shall state each item separately and the amount received by the company.

Civil Penalty

Sec. 15. A private water company that violates any provision of this Act or any rule, regulation, or order of the commissioners court is subject to a civil penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $1,000 for each act of violation and for each day of violation to be recovered as provided in this Act.

Injunctive Relief or Civil Penalty

Sec. 16. (a) Whenever it appears that a private water company has violated or is violating, or is threatening to violate, any provision of this Act, or any rule, regulation, or order of the commissioners court, the commissioners court may have a civil suit instituted in a district court in the county in which the commissioners court has jurisdiction for injunctive relief to restrain the person from continuing the violation or threat of violation, or for the assessment and recovery of a civil penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $1,000 for each act of violation and for each day of violation, or for both injunctive relief and civil penalty.

(b) On application for injunctive relief and a finding that a person is violating or threatening to violate any provisions of this Act or any rule, regulation, or order of the commissioners court, the district court shall grant the injunctive relief the facts may warrant.

(c) At the request of the commissioners court, the county attorney shall institute and conduct a suit in the name of the county for injunctive relief or to recover the civil penalty, or both, as authorized in Subsection (a) of this section.

Art. 2372r. Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 114, ch. 52, § 1, eff. April 18, 1975

See, now, art. 6145.1.

Art. 2372s. Parking Stations Near Courthouses in Counties Over 800,000

Power to Construct and Operate Parking Stations; Leases

Sec. 1. The commissioners court of any county with a population in excess of 800,000 according to the most recent federal census upon finding that it is to the best interest of the county and its inhabitants shall have the power to construct, enlarge, furnish, equip and operate a parking station in the vicinity of the courthouse of the county. It is further authorized from time to time to lease said parking station to a person or corporation on such terms as the commissioners court shall deem appropriate.

Art. 2372s–1. Regulation of Parking in Certain Courthouse Parking Lots

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply in every county having a population of not less than 12,500 nor more than 13,000, and in every county having a population of not less than 14,000 nor more than 14,100, and in every county having a population of not less than 15,000 nor more than 15,340, and in every county having a population of not less than 18,093 nor more than 18,099, and in every county having a population of not less than 27,800 nor more than 28,000, and in every county having a population of not less than 140,000 nor more than 180,000, according to the last preceding federal census.
Art. 2372s-1  COURTS—COMMISSIONERS  2604

Sec. 2. The commissioners court is authorized to purchase such equipment as is necessary and make and enforce regulations for parking in county-owned or county-leased parking lots in, under, adjacent to, or near the county courthouse. The commissioners court may in its discretion contract with the city for enforcement of the regulations and likewise the city in its discretion may contract with the county. The Sheriff's Department of such counties is hereby authorized to enforce any and all regulations passed by the Commissioners Court.

Art. 2372s-3. Parking on County Property

Adoption of Regulations

Sec. 1. The commissioners court of a county by order may adopt regulations as to the parking of vehicles on property owned or leased by the county.

Regulations

Sec. 2. Regulations adopted under this Act may:

(1) limit the use of parking spaces to certain vehicles or types of vehicles;
(2) limit the time a vehicle may remain parked in a specific space or area; and
(3) prohibit the parking of vehicles in certain areas.

Signs

Sec. 3. If parking is restricted or prohibited in a place, the county shall erect at the place one or more appropriately worded signs reasonably calculated to inform the drivers of vehicles of the restriction or prohibition. No sign is required to indicate that parking is prohibited on a lawn or other area that does not appear to be a place intended for use as a parking area.

Violations; Defenses

Sec. 4. An individual who parks a vehicle in violation of a regulation adopted under this Act commits a Class C misdemeanor. It is a defense to prosecution under this section that:

(1) the place where the actor parked is one where a sign or signs are required by Section 3 of this Act; and
(2) a sign or signs meeting the requirements of Section 3 of this Act were not in place at the time the actor parked.

Sec. 5. A county may provide for the towing away and storing at the owner's expense of any vehicle parked in violation of regulations adopted under this Act. This section does not authorize the towing away of a vehicle that is parked under circumstances where the person parking it would have a defense to prosecution under Section 4 of this Act. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 569, ch. 228, eff. May 20, 1975.]

Art. 2372s-4. Parking Regulations and Purchase of Equipment by Counties of 235,000 or More

Sec. 1. The commissioners court of a county having a population of 235,000 or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census, may purchase necessary equipment and make and enforce parking regulations for parking in a county-owned or county-leased parking lot in, under, adjacent to, or near the county courthouse.

Sec. 2. (a) The commissioners court may contract with the governing body of the city in which the county seat is located for enforcement of the parking regulations promulgated under the provisions of Section 1 of this Act.

(b) The sheriff's department of the county may enforce parking regulations promulgated under the provisions of Section 1 of this Act.

Sec. 3. A person who violates a parking regulation promulgated under the provisions of Section 1 of this Act commits a misdemeanor and on conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $1 nor more than $20. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2198, ch. 702, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2372t. Emergency Ambulance Service in Counties of 9,500 to 20,000

Sec. 1. The commissioners court of any county with a population in excess of 9,500 inhabitants but less than 20,000, according to the last preceding federal census, may provide within the county for emergency ambulance service, including all necessary equipment, personnel, and maintenance for the service.

Art. 2372u. Regulation of Outdoor Lighting and Subdivisions Near Major Astronomical Observatories

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Major astronomical observatory" means a facility established for making scientific observation of astronomical phenomena and equipped with a telescope having an aperture at least 75 inches in diameter.

(2) "Outdoor lighting" means any type of lighting equipment, fixed or movable, designed or used for illumination outside of buildings or homes, including lighting for billboards, street lights, searchlights used for advertising purposes, externally or internally illuminated on- or off-site advertising signs, and area-type lighting. It does not include lighting equipment required by law to be installed on motor vehicles, or lighting required for the safe take-off and landing of aircraft.

County Regulatory Authority

Sec. 2. (a) To protect against the use of outdoor lighting in a way that interferes with scientific astronomical research, the commissioners court of a county may adopt orders regulating the installation and use of outdoor lighting within the unincorporated territory located within the same county and within 75 miles of a major astronomical observatory, regardless of whether the observatory is in the coun-y.

(b) Orders adopted under this section may:

(1) require that a permit be obtained from the county for the installation or use of certain types of outdoor lighting, and establish fees for the issuance of permits;

(2) prohibit the use of those types of outdoor lighting found to be incompatible with the effective use of the observatory;

(3) establish requirements for the shielding of outdoor lighting; and

(4) regulate the times during which various types of outdoor lighting may be used.

Regulation of Subdivisions

Sec. 3. (a) This section applies only to real estate subdivisions subject to the plat-approval authority of a commissioners court and located within 75 miles of a major astronomical observatory.

(b) A commissioners court may adopt orders essablishing standards applicable to proposed subdivisions designed to minimize the interference with observatory activities from outdoor lighting. The commissioners court may not approve a plat of a proposed subdivision that does not meet those requirements.

Standards May Vary

Sec. 4. Orders adopted under this Act may apply more stringent standards in areas where the impact of outdoor lighting on activities of the observatory is greater.

Adoption of Orders

Sec. 5. No orders may be adopted by a commissioners court under this Act, unless:

(a) a request for such orders be made by the Director of McDonald Observatory; then

(b) such requested orders may be adopted by a commissioners court after a public hearing has been held on the proposed order; of which

(c) at least two weeks public notice has been given of such hearing.

Exemption

Sec. 6. No outdoor lighting in existence or under construction on the effective date of this Act shall be subject to the provisions of this Act.

Enforcement; Penalty

Sec. 7. (a) An individual, corporation, or association that violates an order adopted under this Act commits a Class C misdemeanor.¹

(b) A county or district attorney may sue in the district court to enjoin violation of this Act.

e) Both civil and criminal enforcement may be used against the same conduct.

Art. 2372v. Regulation of Massagers and Massage Establishments

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Massage" means the rubbing, kneading, tapning, compression, vibration, application of friction, or percussion of the human body or parts of it by hand or with an instrument or apparatus.

(2) "Massager" means an individual who administers massages for compensation.

(3) "Massage establishment" means a business establissement where massagers practice massage.

(4) "Unincorporated territory" means the territory outside the corporate limits of an incorporated city or town.

Adoption of Regulations; Penalty for Violations

Sec. 2. (a) The commissioners court of any coun-y by order may adopt regulations applicable to the practice of massage and operation of massage estabishments in unincorporated territory in the county.

(b) Regulations adopted under this Act may:

(1) require the licensure by the county of massagers and massage establishments and establish reasonable requirements and fees for obtaining a license;
(2) establish standards applicable to the practice of massage and the operation of massage establishments designed to protect public health;

(3) provide procedures for suspending or canceling the licenses of massagers and massage establishments for violation of a regulation adopted under this Act, for the conviction of an offense defined in Chapter 43, Penal Code, or for the conviction of any other offense reasonably indicating the licensee's unfitness to practice massage or operate a massage establishment;

(4) provide for the inspection of massage establishments;

(5) provide reasonable standards for clothing worn by persons employed by a massage establishment; and

(6) establish any other reasonable procedures or prohibitions consistent with the police power to protect the public health and safety and to prevent violations of state law.

(c) A person who violates a regulation adopted under this Act commits a Class B misdemeanor.

Exemptions from Act

Sec. 3. (a) Ordinances adopted under this Act do not apply to a licensed physical therapist, a licensed athletic trainer, a licensed cosmetologist, or a licensed barber performing functions authorized under the license held, nor do ordinances adopted under this Act apply to a licensed physician or chiropractor, or any individual working under the direct supervision of a licensed physician or chiropractor, while engaged in practicing the healing arts.

(b) Ordinances adopted under this Act do not apply to the administration of massage for therapeutic purposes in a hospital, nursing home, or other health care facility.

Inspection and Licensing Officer; Enforcement

Sec. 4. The county commissioners court shall designate the sheriff of the county as the inspection and licensing officer under this Act. Any peace officer certified by the State of Texas may enforce the regulations.

Severability

Sec. 5. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of the Act or the application of such sections, provisions, clauses, or words to any situation or circumstance shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of the Act or the application of such sections, provisions, clauses, or words to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that the Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

The city or county may require the obtaining of a permit for the operation of a restricted establishment. The city or county may charge a fee for the permit, but the fee may not exceed the actual cost of processing the permit application.

(c) A city that has in effect a comprehensive zoning ordinance adopted under Chapter 283, Acts of the 40th Legislature, Regular Session, 1927, as amended (Article 1011a, et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), must comply with all applicable procedural requirements of that statute in adopting regulations under this Act within the scope of that statute.

Sec. 5. (a) A city or county may sue in the district court to enjoin the violation of a regulation adopted under this Act.

(b) Violation of a county regulation adopted under this Act is a Class B misdemeanor.

(c) In a city that has a comprehensive zoning ordinance as described in Subsection (c), Section 4, of this Act, a violation of an ordinance adopted under this Act is punishable by the same penalty prescribed for a violation of the zoning ordinance. In all other cities, violation of an ordinance adopted under this Act is a Class B misdemeanor.

This Act does not legalize anything prohibited under the Penal Code or other state law.

Sec. 6. If any provision of this Act or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid for any reason, the invalidity does not affect any other provision or application of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

In a county in which there is a public beach or a beach to which a substantial portion of the public has free access, located on a bay or inlet of the Gulf of Mexico, the commissioners court by order may close a portion of the beach for a maximum of three days a year to allow one or more nonprofit organizations to hold events on the beach to which the public is invited and for which a nominal admission fee may be charged.

Sec. 7. This Act does not legalize anything prohibited under the Penal Code or other state law.

Severability

Sec. 6. If any provision of this Act or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid for any reason, the invalidity does not affect any other provision or application of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

TITLE 45

COURTS—JUSTICE

CHAPTER ONE. JUSTICES AND JUSTICE COURTS

Art. 2385. Jurisdiction

Justice courts shall, in addition to their other powers and duties, have and exercise original jurisdiction in civil matters of all cases where the amount in controversy is five hundred dollars, or less, exclusive of interest, of which exclusive original jurisdiction is not given to the district or county courts, and of cases of forcible entry and detainer, and to foreclose mortgages and enforce liens on personal property, where the amount in controversy is within their jurisdiction.

CHAPTER TWO. INSTITUTION OF SUIT

Art. 2390. Suits, Where Brought

Every suit in the justice court shall be commenced in the county and precinct in which the defendant or one or more of the several defendants resides, except in the following cases and such other cases as are or may be provided by law:

1. Cases of forcible entry and detainer must be brought in the precinct where the premises, or a part thereof, are situated.

2. Suits against executors, administrators and guardians as such must be brought in the county in which such administration or guardianship is pending, and in the precinct in which the county seat is situated.

3. Suits against counties must be brought in such county and in the precinct in which the county seat is situated.

In the following cases the suit may, at the plaintiff's option, be brought either in the county and precinct of the defendant's residence or in that provided in each exception:

4. (a) Suits upon a contract in writing promising performance at any particular place, may be brought in the county and precinct in which such contract was to be performed, provided that in all suits to recover for labor actually performed, suit may be brought and maintained where such labor is performed, whether the contract for same be oral or in writing.

(b) Suits by creditors upon contracts for goods, services, or loans, intended primarily for personal, family, household, or agricultural use may only be brought in the county and precinct in which the contract was signed or in the county and precinct of the defendant's residence, notwithstanding any provision in the contract to the contrary.

5. Suits for the recovery of rents may be brought in the county and precinct in which the rented premises, or a part thereof are situated.

6. Suits for damages for torts may be brought in the county and precinct in which the injury was inflicted.

7. Suits against transient persons may be brought in any county and precinct where such defendant is to be found.

8. Suits against non-residents of the State or persons whose residence is unknown, may be brought in the county and precinct where the plaintiff resides.

9. Suits for the recovery of personal property may be brought in any county and precinct in which the property may be.

10. Suits against private corporations, associations and joint stock companies may be brought in any county and precinct in which the cause of action or a part thereof arose, or in which such corporation, association or company has an agency or representative, or in which its principal office is situated.

11. Suits against railroad and canal companies, or the owners of any line of transportation vehicles of any character, for any injury to person or property upon the road, canal, or line of vehicles of the defendant, or upon any liability as a carrier, may be brought in any precinct through which the road, canal or line of vehicles may pass, or in any precinct where the route of such railroad, canal, or vehicle may begin or terminate.

12. Suits against fire, marine or inland insurance companies may be brought in any county and precinct in which any part of the insured property was situated; and suits against life and accident insurance companies or associations may be brought in the county and precinct in which the persons insured, or any of them resided at the time of such injury or death.

13. Suits against the owners of a steamboat or other vessel may be brought in any county or precinct where such steamboat or vessel may be found, or where the cause of action arose or the liability was contracted or accrued. In every suit commenced in a county or precinct in which the defendants or one of them may reside, it shall be affirmatively shown in the citation or pleading, if any, that such suit comes within one of the exceptions named in this article.

CHAPTER THREE. APPEARANCE AND TRIAL

See, now, art. 2122.

CHAPTER SEVEN. SMALL CLAIMS COURT

Art. 2460a. Creation; Jurisdiction; Procedure

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 10]

Judgments Not Claimed by Plaintiff

Sec. 10a. (a) If a judgment against a defendant has not been paid and the whereabouts of the plaintiff who was awarded the judgment are unknown, the defendant shall use due diligence to locate the plaintiff, which includes sending a letter by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to the plaintiff at his last known address and the address appearing in the plaintiff's statement of his claim and any other records of the court.

(b) If, after the use of due diligence, the plaintiff is not located, the defendant may deposit payment of the judgment into the court in trust for the plaintiff and obtain a release of the judgment, which release shall be executed without delay by the judge of said court on behalf of the plaintiff.

(c) All trust funds paid into the court, as provided in this section, shall be paid over by the judge at least once a month to the county clerk to be deposited in and withdrawn from the clerk's trust fund account in the county depository for trust funds in the possession of the county clerk, in the same manner as trust funds deposited in county and district courts to abide the result of a legal proceeding are deposited and withdrawn.

(d) If the plaintiff does not claim the payment of his judgment within two (2) years from the date of its deposit in the county clerk's trust fund account, the money shall escheat to the state.

Showing where subject matter of former Articles 2461-1 to 2461-49 is now covered by Articles 2461-1.01 to 2461-11.17, as revised and amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2240, ch. 707, § 1.
Art. 2461-1.02  CREDIT ORGANIZATIONS

(5) "Deputy commissioner" means the Deputy Credit Union Commissioner.

Art. 2461-1.03. Effect of Headings
The division of this Act into chapters and sections and the use of section and chapter headings are solely for convenience and have no legal effect in construing this Act.

CHAPTER 2. ORGANIZATION PROCEDURE

Art. 2461-2.01. Incorporators
Any seven or more adult persons, a majority of whom are residents of this state, and all of whom share a definable community of interest, may act as incorporators of a credit union by signing, verifying, and delivering in duplicate to the commissioner articles of incorporation for the credit union.

Art. 2461-2.02. Articles of Incorporation
The articles of incorporation shall set forth:
(1) the name which contains the words "credit union" and is different from that of any other existing credit union;
(2) the name of the town or city and county where the proposed credit union will have its principal place of business;
(3) the term of existence of the credit union, which shall be perpetual;
(4) the fiscal year of the credit union, which ends on December 31 of each calendar year;
(5) the par value of the shares of the credit union, which shall be $5, or multiples thereof;
(6) the name and address of each incorporator and the number of shares subscribed by each; and
(7) the number of directors constituting the initial board of directors and the names and addresses of the persons who will serve as directors until the first annual meeting or until their duly elected successors are elected and qualify.

Art. 2461-2.03. Filing of Articles of Incorporation
(a) The incorporators shall file with the commissioner:
(1) a duplicate of the original articles of incorporation;
(2) a duplicate of the original bylaws for the general operation of the credit union; and
(3) biographical information concerning each member of the original board of directors, entered on forms prescribed by the commissioner and signed by each member.
(b) With the approval of the commission, the commissioner shall set a uniform charter fee and uniform investigation and report charges for all credit unions. The department shall publish the fees and rates for charges set by the commissioner.
(c) The commissioner may investigate the charter application, bylaws, and the biographical information concerning each director named in the application to determine whether the proposed credit union and its initial board of directors meet the requirements of this Act and of the regulations promulgated under this Act.
(d) If the proposed credit union or its initial board of directors does not meet the requirements of this Act and of the regulations promulgated under this Act, the commissioner shall deny the application in writing. If the incorporators file a written notice of appeal with the commission within 30 days after denial of the application, the commission shall set a date for a hearing on the application. On that date, the commission shall hold a hearing in accordance with the regulations promulgated under this Act.
(e) If the commissioner determines that all statutory requirements and regulations have been satisfied, or if on a hearing the commission determines that they have been satisfied, the commissioner shall issue a certificate of incorporation and shall return copies of the articles of incorporation and bylaws to the incorporators.

Art. 2461-2.04. Effect of Issuance of Certificate of Incorporation
The corporate existence of a credit union begins at the time the commissioner issues a certificate of incorporation. The certificate of incorporation is conclusive evidence of the incorporators' compliance with the requirements of this Act and of the credit union's incorporation under this Act.

Art. 2461-2.05. Requirement Before Commencing Business
A credit union may not transact any business or incur any indebtedness, except such as is incidental to its organization or to obtaining subscriptions to or payment for its shares, until:
(1) it has received minimum paid-in capital of at least $1,000;
(2) it has a membership of at least 100 persons; and
(3) it has so notified the department.
Art. 2461-2.06. Right to Amend Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

A credit union may amend its articles of incorporation or its bylaws in the manner provided in its bylaws. A credit union shall submit amendments to its articles of incorporation or bylaws to the commissioner in duplicate. Amendments to articles of incorporation or bylaws become effective at the time the commissioner issues a certificate of approval. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2219, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-2.07. Restrictions on Use of Name

No person, corporation, partnership, or association, other than a credit union or association of credit unions organized under this Act or the Federal Credit Union Act, may use a name or title containing the words “credit union” or any derivation thereof, represent itself as a credit union, or conduct business as a credit union. Violation of this section constitutes a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000, by confinement in jail for not more than two years, or both. The commissioner may petition a court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin a violation of this section. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2219, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-2.08. Place of Business

A credit union shall maintain a principal place of business and shall file with the commissioner a statement specifying the post office address of its principal place of business. If a credit union gives the commissioner prior written notification, a credit union may establish at locations other than its principal place of business additional offices that are reasonably necessary to furnish services to its members. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2219, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-2.09. Reports

On or before February 1 of each year, each credit union organized under this Act shall report to the department on a form supplied by the department for this purpose. On filing the report, a credit union shall pay to the commissioner a filing fee of $10, except no credit union chartered within the preceding six-month period is required to pay a filing fee. The department may, in its discretion, require a credit union to file additional reports. If a credit union does not file a report within 15 days after February 1 of any year, the commissioner shall charge the credit union a late fee of $5 for each day that the report is in arrears, except the commissioner may waive payment of the late fee for good cause shown. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2219, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-2.10. Exemption from Certain Taxes

Each credit union organized under this Act is exempt from all franchise and other license taxes. The intangible property of a credit union organized under this Act is not taxable by the state or any of its political subdivisions. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2219, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

CHAPTER 3. MEMBERSHIP

Art. 2461-3.01. Membership Defined

(a) Membership in a credit union is limited to the incorporators and other persons who:

(1) share a definable community of interest, in accordance with the bylaws of the credit union, including a community of interest based on occupation, association, or residence;

(2) have paid an entrance fee if one is required by the bylaws;

(3) have subscribed to and paid for one or more shares; and

(4) have complied with any other requirements contained in the articles of incorporation and bylaws.

(b) For the purposes of Subsection (a) of this section, the State of Texas acting through the state comptroller as administrator of the State of Texas deferred compensation program or a political subdivision acting through the appropriate officer of the political subdivision as administrator of the political subdivision’s deferred compensation program shall be considered a person for membership qualifications in order to fund a deferred compensation program. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section, the payment of an entrance fee may not be a membership requirement for the State of Texas or a political subdivision funding a deferred compensation program. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2219, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975; Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1543, ch. 665, § 2, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 2461-3.02. Meetings of Members

Members of a credit union shall hold annual and special meetings at the time, place, and in the manner provided in the bylaws. At all meetings, each member has only one vote, regardless of his holdings. No member may vote by proxy, except a member that is an organization may be represented and vote by one of its members or shareholders who is authorized, in writing, by the organization’s governing body to represent the organization. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2219, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]
Art. 2461-4.01  CREDIT ORGANIZATIONS  2614

CHAPTER 4. POWERS OF CREDIT UNION

Art. 2461-4.01. General Powers

Subject to the provisions of this Act, the articles of incorporation, and the bylaws of the credit union, each credit union organized under this Act may:

1. make contracts;
2. sue and be sued in the name of the credit union;
3. adopt and use a common seal and alter its seal at pleasure;
4. purchase, hold, lease, or dispose of property necessary or incidental to its operations, subject to regulations issued by the commissioner;
5. require the payment of an entrance or membership fee not to exceed $1;
6. receive from its members payments on shares or deposits and to conduct Christmas clubs, vacation clubs, and other thrift programs for the membership;
7. act as fiscal agent of the United States, under such regulations as the secretary may promulgate, as agent for any instrumentality of the United States, and as agent of this state or any governmental division or instrumentality of this state;
8. lend its funds to its members in the manner provided in this Act;
9. purchase or otherwise provide insurance for the benefit or convenience of its members;
10. borrow money from any source, but if, after incurring a debt, the total debt of the credit union will exceed an amount equal to 25 percent of its shares, deposits, and surplus, the debt may not be incurred without the prior approval of the commissioner, and the commissioner shall grant or deny a request for approval under this subsection within 10 days after it is made;
11. act under the order or appointment of any court of record, without giving bond, as guardian, receiver, trustee, executor, administrator, custodian, or as depository for any money paid into court for members; act as depository for any money constituting the estates of deceased members; accept funds or money for deposit by fiduciaries, trustees, or receivers, if managing or holding funds in behalf of a credit union or one or more members of the credit union; accept funds or money for deposit by building and loan associations, savings departments of banks, commercial banks, savings banks and trust companies, or insurance companies if the membership or the primary ownership of the institutions, associations, or companies is confined or restricted to or for the benefit of credit unions and their members or organizations of credit unions, or if the institutions, associations, or companies are designed to serve or otherwise assist credit union operations; and act as custodian of individual retirement accounts, custodian of pension funds of self-employed individuals or of the sponsor of a credit union, or as trustee under pension and profit-sharing plans; and all powers granted under the provisions of this subsection are subject to standards prescribed by regulations promulgated under this Act;
12. invest funds in the manner provided in this Act;
13. make deposits in legally chartered banks, trust companies, and central-type credit union organizations, and purchase shares and invest in savings and loan associations;
14. hold membership in other credit unions organized under this Act or other laws, subject to rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner, and hold membership in other organizations as may be approved by the board of directors;
15. declare dividends, pay interest on deposits, and pay interest refunds to borrowers in the manner provided in this Act;
16. impress a lien on the shares and accumulation of dividends and interest of any member to the extent of any loans made to the member directly or indirectly, or on which the member is surety, and for any other obligations due by the member;
17. change its principal place of business to another place in the state, or change the location in the state of any subsidiary places of business, on giving written notice to the commissioner;
18. collect, receive, and disburse money in connection with the sale of travelers checks, money orders, and similar instruments, and for other purposes that may provide benefit or convenience for its members, and for those purposes, levy incidental charges;
19. levy a charge not to exceed reasonable administrative costs for each check negotiated to the credit union by a member or other person if the check is returned by the drawee bank because it is drawn against insufficient funds, there is a stop payment order, the account on which it is drawn is closed, or it is drawn against uncollected funds, or if it is returned for a similar reason; this charge is in addition to interest authorized by law and is not a part of the interest collected or agreed to be paid on a subject loan under any state law that limits the rate of interest that may be charged in any transaction, but the charge is an expense of administration;
20. make donations or contributions to any nonprofit, civic, charitable, or community organization as authorized by the board of directors.
subject to rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner and subject to federal or state laws regulating these contributions;

(21) operate as a central credit union, with the approval of the commissioner; and

(22) cause any or all records kept by the credit union to be copied or reproduced by any photographic, electronic, or microfilming process that correctly and permanently copies, reproduces, or forms a medium for copying or reproducing the original record on a file or other durable material, subject to any regulations promulgated by the commissioner, and dispose of the original record. Any copy or reproduction shall be deemed to be an original record for all purposes and shall be treated as an original record in all courts or administrative agencies for the purpose of its admissibility in evidence. A facsimile, exemplification, or certified copy shall, for all purposes, be deemed a facsimile, exemplification, or certified copy of the original record.

Art. 2461-4.02. Incidental Powers

A credit union may exercise all powers necessary or appropriate to accomplish the purposes for which the credit union is organized. A credit union may exercise the powers granted corporations organized under the laws of this state, including those powers necessary or requisite to enable the credit union to promote and carry on most effectively its purposes. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-4.03. Conformity to Federally Chartered Credit Unions

The commissioner by rule or regulation may authorize credit unions organized under this Act to engage in any activity in which the credit unions could engage if they were operating as federally chartered credit unions at the time authority is granted, if on investigation or hearing, the commissioner finds it necessary to preserve and protect the welfare of the credit unions and to promote the general economy of this state. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

CHAPTER 5. DIRECTION OF AFFAIRS

Art. 2461-5.01. Management

The business and affairs of a credit union are managed by a board of directors of not less than five members, by a credit committee of not less than three members, and by those officers prescribed in the bylaws of the credit union.

Art. 2461-5.02. Certificate of Election

The chairman of the board and the secretary shall execute a certificate of election that sets forth the names and addresses of the officers, directors, and committee members elected or appointed, and shall file a copy of the certificate of election with the department within 30 days after the election or appointment.

Art. 2461-5.03. Board of Directors

(a) Directors of the credit union are elected at an annual membership meeting, by and from the membership, and in the manner provided in the bylaws.

(b) The duties of the board of directors are prescribed by the bylaws.

(c) The terms of the members of the board of directors are prescribed in the bylaws.

(d) The board of directors shall elect from its own members a chairman, who shall preside at all meetings of the board. The board shall elect from its own members a treasurer and secretary of the credit union.

Art. 2461-5.04. Officers

(a) The officers of a credit union consist of:

(1) a chairman of the board;

(2) a chief executive officer in charge of operations whose title is president, who may or may not be a member of the board of directors;

(3) a treasurer;

(4) a secretary; and

(5) such other officers as may be prescribed in the bylaws.

(b) The board of directors may employ or shall designate the president, who may or may not be, in the discretion of the board, the same person as the treasurer or credit manager. The treasurer and the secretary may be the same person, but the president and secretary may not be the same person.

(c) The board of directors shall elect the officers of the credit union at the time and in the manner prescribed by the bylaws.

(d) Each officer shall serve for one year or until his successor is elected and qualifies.

(e) The duties of the officers are prescribed in the bylaws.

Art. 2461-5.05. Credit Committee; Credit Manager; Loan Officers

(a) The board of directors shall appoint a credit committee in the manner prescribed by the bylaws.
Art. 2461-5.05

CREDIT ORGANIZATIONS

(b) The terms of the members of the credit committee are prescribed in the bylaws.

c) The credit committee shall supervise the making of loans to members.

d) The credit committee shall meet at least once a month or more frequently if the business of the credit union requires.

(e) A credit union may not make a loan unless it has been considered by the credit committee and approved by a majority of the credit committee present at the meeting at which the loan is considered.

(f) The credit committee may appoint one or more loan officers and delegate to each loan officer the power to approve loans. At least once a month, each loan officer shall furnish to the credit committee a record of each loan approved or not approved by the loan officer during the month preceding the date of the meeting of the credit committee. The loan officer may make loans without the necessity for any meetings other than those prescribed in this subsection and without the necessity of the prior approval by any members of the credit committee, if the bylaws permit. The credit committee shall consider and act on all applications for loans not approved by the loan officer within 30 days after the date the application or request for loan is forwarded to the credit committee.

(g) With the approval of the board of directors, the president may appoint a credit manager to serve in lieu of the credit committee. The credit manager, if so appointed, shall supervise the making of loans to members and shall have the same powers, duties, rights, and prerogatives extended the credit committee under the provisions of this section. A credit union may have only one credit manager, who may be the same person as the president.

Art. 2461-5.06. Compensation and Bond

(a) No director may receive compensation, directly or indirectly, for serving as a director or committee member. Directors may receive reimbursement for actual expenses incurred in carrying out their duties.

(b) The board of directors shall purchase from a surety company authorized to do business in this state a blanket security bond covering all officers, employees, members of official committees, attorneys at law, and other agents of the credit union to protect the credit union against loss caused by the failure of a person to faithfully perform his duties.

Art. 2461-5.07. Audits

(a) The board of directors shall make or cause to be made a comprehensive annual audit of the books and affairs of the credit union, in accordance with established principles and regulations promulgated by the commissioner, and shall submit a summary of the audit to the members of the credit union at the next annual membership meeting. The board shall report the results of the audit to the department. The board of directors shall make or cause to be made any supplementary audits or examinations that it deems necessary. The board of directors shall make or cause to be made verifications of the accounts of the members with the records of the credit union if required by regulations promulgated by the commissioner.

(b) If the representative examiners from the department find that the board of directors is not acting in accordance with this Act and the regulations issued under it, the commissioner may appoint an independent committee from outside the credit union and its membership to perform an audit, the costs and expenses of which are borne by the credit union.

Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.

Art. 2461-5.08. Misconduct and Penalties for Misconduct

(a) No person may demand or receive, directly or indirectly, any bonus, commission, or other consideration on account of the making of a loan or investment or the purchase of any asset by a credit union.

(b) Any officer, director, committee member, loan officer, or employee of a credit union who knowingly permits a loan to be made to a nonmember or participates in a loan to a nonmember commits a Class B misdemeanor. Additionally, the offender is primarily liable to the credit union for the amount illegally loaned. The illegality of the loan is no defense in any action of the credit union to recover on the loan. Extension of credit to a nonmember for the sale of real or personal property owned by the credit union or for the sale of assets acquired in liquidation or repossession shall not be construed as a loan to a nonmember.

(c) Any officer, director, committee member, loan officer, or employee of a credit union, or any person who knowingly permits or participates in a loan in violation of this Act, the bylaws of the credit union, or rules and regulations of the commissioner, other than a loan in violation of Subsection (b) of this section, commits a felony of the third degree.

Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.

Art. 2461-5.09. Officers, Directors, and Employees; Cease and Desist; Removal; Appeal

(a) The commissioner may find that an officer, director, or employee of a credit union, or the credit union itself, acting through any authorized person, has:

Art. 2461–6.02

(1) violated the provisions of this Act or any other law or regulation applicable to credit unions;

(2) refused to comply with the provisions of this Act or any other law or regulation applicable to credit unions;

(3) willfully neglected to perform duties, or committed a breach of trust or fiduciary duty;

(4) committed any fraudulent or questionable practice in the conduct of the credit union's business which endangers the credit union's reputation or threatens its solvency;

(5) refused to submit to examination under oath;

(6) conducted business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner; or

(7) violated any conditions of its charter or of any agreement entered with the commissioner or the department.

(b) If the commissioner makes any of these findings, he shall give notice in writing to the credit union and the offending officer, director, or employee, stating the particular violations or practices found. The commissioner shall call a meeting of the directors of the credit union and lay before them the findings and demand a discontinuance of the violations and practices found.

(c) If the commissioner finds that an order to cease and desist is necessary and in the best interest of the credit union involved and its depositors, creditors, and members, then at the directors' meeting above provided or within 30 days thereafter the commissioner may serve on the credit union, its board of directors, and any offending officers, directors, or employees, a written order to cease and desist from the violations and practices enumerated in the order and to take such affirmative action as may be necessary to correct the conditions resulting from the violations or practices. The cease and desist order is effective immediately if the commissioner finds that immediate and irreparable harm is threatened to the credit union, its depositors, or members; otherwise, the order shall state the effective date, not less than 30 days after delivery or mailing of the notice. Unless the credit union or directors file a notice of appeal with the commissioner within 10 days after the delivery or mailing of notice, whichever is the case, the order of removal is effective and final as of the date of suspension, and the person removed may not hold office, be employed by, or participate in the affairs of the credit union. A copy of the order shall be entered in the minutes of the directors, and an officer shall acknowledge receipt of the order and certify to the commissioner that the person has been removed from office.

(e) If the person removed files a timely appeal, the commissioner shall set a time and place for hearing the appeal, giving reasonable notice to the person removed. The commissioner may adopt any rules or procedures necessary to govern the fair hearing and adjudication of the questions appealed.

(f) If, after a cease and desist order or an order of removal becomes effective and final, a credit union or its board of directors or any duly authorized officer of the credit union fails or refuses to comply with an order, then the commissioner may, after giving notice, assess a civil penalty against the credit union in an amount not to exceed $100 for each day the credit union is in violation of the order. If a credit union fails to pay the penalty assessed, the commissioner may institute a suit for collection of the civil penalty in a district court of Travis County.

CHAPTER 6. CAPITAL ACCOUNTS

Art. 2461–6.01. Capital

The capital of a credit union consists of the aggregate amount of the share and deposit accounts of its members plus all reserves and undivided earnings of the credit union.

Art. 2461–6.02. Share Accounts

(a) Share accounts consist of payments made by members on shares, all of which are common shares of one class, subscribed, paid for, and transferred in the manner prescribed by the bylaws.

(b) Without qualifying any other statutory right to a setoff or lien, and subject to any contractual provisions accepted by the credit union, a credit union has a lien on the shares or deposits of a member for any sum due to the credit union from the member or for any loan endorsed by the member.

(c) The credit union may require 60 days' notice for withdrawal of shares.

Art. 2461-6.03. Deposit Accounts

Deposit accounts, if any, are operated in accordance with the policies and conditions prescribed by the board of directors.

Art. 2461-6.04. Thrift Club Accounts

Christmas clubs, vacation clubs, and other thrift programs, if provided for the use of members, are operated in accordance with the policies and conditions prescribed by the board of directors.

Art. 2461-6.05. Multiple-party Accounts

(a) A member may designate any person, organization, association, corporation, or partnership to hold shares, deposits, and thrift club accounts with the member in joint tenancy. One or more or all of the joint tenants may make deposits and withdrawals subject to the terms of a multiple-party account agreement accepted by the credit union. A credit union shall maintain all multiple-party account agreements as a permanent part of the records pertaining to multiple-party accounts. At least one party to a multiple-party account must be a member of the credit union in which the account is established. No joint tenant, unless also a member, may vote, obtain loans, or hold office in the credit union. Payment of part or all of a multiple-party account to any one or more of the joint tenants discharges, to the extent of the payment, the liability of the credit union to all.

(b) The net contribution of a party to a multiple-party account as of any given time is the sum of all deposits or shares made by or for the party, less all withdrawals made by or for the party which have not been paid to or applied to the use of any other party, plus a pro rata share of any interest or dividends included in the current balance. The net contribution includes, in addition, any share or deposit of life insurance proceeds added to the account by reason of the death of the party whose net contribution is in question. During the lifetime of all parties to a multiple-party account, unless the multiple-party account agreement with the credit union provides otherwise, sums on deposit or in share accounts may be paid on the demand of one or more parties even though it is presumed that sums on deposit or in share accounts belong to the parties in proportion to the net contributions by each to the sums on deposit or in share accounts. Unless the multiple-party account agreement with the credit union provides otherwise, and in the absence of satisfactory proof of the net contributions, those who are parties from time to time shall be presumed to own the joint account in equal undivided interests.

(c) The death of any party to a multiple-party account has no effect on the beneficial ownership of the account, other than to transfer the decedent's right in the account to the estate of the decedent, unless the account is a survivorship account or trust account established in accordance with the laws and with the constitution of this state and the bylaws of the credit union. Nothing in this Act otherwise prevents a credit union from operating the account in accordance with the terms of the multiple-party account agreement.

(d) A multiple-party account payable to two or more persons, jointly or severally, that does not expressly provide that there is a right of survivorship, is presumed to be a nonsurvivorship account.

(e) Without qualifying any other statutory right to a setoff or lien, and subject to any contractual provisions accepted by the credit union, when a party to a multiple-party account is indebted to a credit union, the credit union has a right to set off against the entire amount of the account.

(f) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as in conflict with the laws of the United States or of the State of Texas as those laws govern the taxation of multiple-party accounts.

Art. 2461-6.06. Minor Accounts

A credit union may issue shares or deposits in the name of a minor, and a minor may withdraw the shares or deposits. Payments made on withdrawals by a minor are valid. A minor may vote in the meetings of the members if permitted by the bylaws, except no minor may vote through his parent or guardian. No minor is eligible for any office or committee membership within the credit union unless the bylaws specify otherwise.

Art. 2461-6.07. Trust Accounts

A credit union may issue shares or deposits in the name of a member in trust for a beneficiary, including a minor, but no beneficiary, unless the beneficiary is also a member, may vote, obtain loans, hold office, or be required to pay an entrance fee. Payment of part or all of the shares or deposits to a member shall, to the extent of the payment, discharge the liability of the credit union to the member and the beneficiary, and the credit union shall be under no obligation to see the application of the payment. If a member to whom shares or deposits are issued or held in trust dies, and the credit union has no other written evidence of the existence or terms of any trust, the credit union shall pay the shares or deposits and any dividends or interest to the beneficiary or to the legal representative of the beneficiary; otherwise, the credit union shall administer and distribute the shares or deposits so issued or held under the provisions of the trust agreement, a copy of which must remain on file with the credit union until termination of the trust. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-6.08. Third Party Claims

No credit union organized under the laws of this state, nor any federal credit union domiciled in this state is required to recognize the claim of any third party to any share account or deposit, or to withhold payment of any share account or deposit to the depositor or to the order of the depositor, unless and until the credit union is served with citation or other appropriate process issuing out of a court of competent jurisdiction in connection with a suit instituted by the third party for the purpose of recovering or establishing an interest in the deposit or share account. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

CHAPTER 7. LOANS

Art. 2461-7.01. Purpose, Terms, and Interest Rate

If made in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner, a credit union may make loans to members for such purposes and on such security and terms as the credit committee, credit manager, or loan officer approves, at rates of interest not exceeding one percent per month on the unpaid monthly balance. Every loan must be evidenced by a written instrument. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-7.02. Loan Limit

No credit union may make a loan or aggregate of loans to any one member in an amount greater than 10 percent of the unimpaired capital and surplus of the credit union. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-7.03. Line of Credit

The credit committee, an authorized loan officer, or the credit manager may approve in advance a line of credit, and may grant advances to a member within the limit of the extension of credit. If a line of credit has been approved, no additional loan applications are required if the aggregate obligation does not exceed the limit of the extension of credit. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-7.04. Participation Loans and Other Loan Programs

(a) A credit union may participate in loans to members jointly with other credit unions, corporations, or financial organizations.

(b) A credit union may participate in guaranteed loan programs of the federal and state governments. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-7.05. Loans to Officials

(a) A credit union may make loans and extend lines of credit to its directors, employees, loan officers, credit manager, and to members of its credit committee, if:

(1) the loan complies with the requirements of this Act with respect to loans to other borrowers and is not on terms more favorable than those extended to other borrowers; and

(2) the board of directors approves the loan, if the loan or aggregate of outstanding loans to any one person is greater than $2,500, plus pledged shares and deposits.

(b) A credit union may permit a director, employee, loan officer, credit manager, and member of its credit committee to act as comaker, guarantor, or endorser of a loan to another member, unless the loan standing alone or added to any outstanding loan or loans to the comaker, guarantor, or endorser exceeds $2,500, plus pledged shares and deposits, in which case approval of the board of directors is required. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-7.06. Prepayment Privilege

Any loan may be paid or prepaid in whole or in part, without penalty, during regular working hours on any day on which the credit union is open for business. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

CHAPTER 8. INVESTMENTS

Art. 2461-8.01. Investment of Funds

A credit union may invest funds not used in loans to members:

(1) in capital shares, obligations, participation certificates, or preferred stock issues of any agen-
Art. 2461-8.01  CREDIT ORGANIZATIONS  2620
cy, association, or company organized either as a stock company, mutual association, membership corporation, or trust company, if the membership or ownership of the agency, association, or company is confined or restricted to credit unions and their members or organizations of credit unions, and if the agency, association, or company is designed to serve or otherwise assist credit union operations; in loans to any credit union association or corporation, national or state, of which the credit union is a member; and investments in any one agency, association, or company of the type described in this subsection may not exceed an aggregate amount of five percent of the credit union's total assets or the amount of its reserve fund, whichever is less;

(2) in obligations of the State of Texas or any of its political subdivisions;

(3) in certificates of deposit or passbook accounts issued by a state or national bank, or issued by a building and loan association or a savings and loan association, subject to regulations promulgated by the commissioner;

(4) in securities, obligations, participations, or other instruments of, issued by, or fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by, the federal government or any of its agencies, or in any trust or trusts established for investing directly or collectively in the same;

(5) in loans to other credit unions in an amount not to exceed 25 percent of the total dollar amount of the capital of the lending credit union, or to any trust or trusts established for lending directly or collectively to credit unions;

(6) in purchases from any liquidating credit union, in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner, of notes made by individual members of the liquidating credit union at such prices as may be agreed to by the commissioner, or by the liquidating agent or board of directors of the liquidating credit union and the board of directors of the purchasing credit union.

CHAPTER 9. RESERVE ALLOCATIONS; DIVIDENDS; SHARE REDUCTION

Art. 2461-9.01. Reserve Allocations
(a) The commissioner shall, with the approval of the commission, promulgate rules and regulations prescribing reserve allocations and requiring credit unions to maintain any reserves necessary to protect the interests of their members.

(b) The reserve fund belongs to the credit union. The credit union shall use its reserve fund to meet all losses except those resulting from an excess of expenses over income. The credit union may not distribute its reserve fund except on liquidation of the credit union or in accordance with a plan approved by the department. The board of directors may increase, or if the fund equals or exceeds the percentage established by regulations promulgated under this Act, may decrease the proportion of the gross income to be placed in the reserve fund, and may transfer part or all of the undivided earnings to the reserve fund.

Art. 2461-9.02. Dividends
The board of directors of a credit union may declare a dividend from undivided earnings in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner.

Art. 2461-9.03. Share Reduction
When the losses of any credit union, resulting from a depreciation in value of its loans or investments or otherwise, exceed its undivided earnings and reserve fund and the estimated value of its assets is less than the total amount due the shareholders, the credit union may, by a majority vote of the entire membership, order a reduction in shares of each of its shareholders to divide the loss proportionately among the members. If the credit union later realizes from its assets a greater amount than was fixed by the order of reduction, the credit union shall divide the excess among the shareholders whose assets were reduced, but only to the extent of the reduction.

CHAPTER 10. CHANGE IN CORPORATE STATUS
Art. 2461-10.01. Suspension
(a) If the commissioner finds that the capital of a credit union is seriously impaired, or that it is conducting its affairs in an unsafe, unauthorized, or unlawful manner, or that it refuses to submit to examination, the commissioner may take possession of the property and business of the credit union and retain possession until the commissioner permits it to resume business or orders its liquidation. Simultaneously, the commissioner shall cause notice of suspension to be given to the board of directors and shall call for a hearing within 10 days at which hearing the board of directors may show cause why the suspension should not be continued or the credit union should not be liquidated. The board of directors may waive this hearing.

(b) If the commissioner, after issuing notice of suspension and providing opportunity for a hearing, rejects the credit union's plan to continue operations, the commissioner may issue a notice of involuntary liquidation and appoint a liquidating agent who shall proceed as provided in Section 10.02 of this Act. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2461-10.02. Liquidation

(a) When the commissioner finds that the interests of depositors and creditors of a credit union are seriously jeopardized through insolvency or imminent insolvency and that it is to the best interest of the depositors and creditors that the credit union be closed and its assets liquidated, the commissioner may close and liquidate the credit union.

(b) Unless involuntary liquidation has already been initiated by the commissioner, a majority of the credit union members present at a meeting specially called to consider the matter, but not less than a quorum, may vote to dissolve and liquidate the credit union if a notice of the special meeting was mailed to the members of the credit union at least 10 days prior to the meeting. Immediately after the mailing of a notice of a special meeting called to consider the matter of liquidation, the credit union shall cease to operate except for the purposes of accepting payments on loans or other obligations due the credit union. If the vote to dissolve and liquidate the credit union passes, the credit union may do no further business except that incidental to liquidation. The chairman of the board or the president and the secretary shall, within five days following the meeting and the affirmative vote to dissolve and liquidate, notify the department of intention to liquidate and shall include a list of the names of the directors and officers of the credit union together with their addresses. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, the commissioner may appoint a liquidating agent to act for the board of directors of the credit union in liquidation if it is found that it is to the best interests of the depositors and creditors to do so.

(c) At any time within five days after the commissioner has closed any credit union under the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section or has appointed a liquidating agent to act for the board of directors under the provisions of Subsection (b) of this section, the credit union acting through its directors or liquidating agent shall use the assets of the credit union to pay, and the secretary shall, within five days following the date all assets and property; compound all bad or doubtful debts; sue in the name of the credit union in liquidation; and defend actions brought against the liquidating agent or in the name of the credit union in liquidation; and on appeal.

(d) The credit union in liquidation shall continue in existence for the purpose of discharging its debts, collecting and distributing its assets, and doing all acts required in order to wind up its business, and may sue and be sued for the purpose of enforcing such debts and obligations until its affairs are fully adjusted. The board of directors or the liquidating agent shall use the assets of the credit union to pay, in the following order:

1. expenses incidental to liquidation including any surety bond that may be required;
2. any liability due nonmembers;
3. depositors;
4. thrift club accounts as provided in this Act; and
5. distributions to members proportionate to the shares held by each member as of the date liquidation was voted.

(e) A liquidating agent may, subject to the control and supervision of the commissioner and under the rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner:

1. receive and take possession of the books, records, assets, and property of the credit union in liquidation; sell, enforce collection of, and liquidate all assets and property; compound all bad or doubtful debts; sue in the name of the liquidating agent or in the name of the credit union in liquidation; and defend actions brought against the liquidating agent or against the credit union;
2. receive, examine, and pass on all claims against the credit union in liquidation, including claims of members on shares;
3. make distribution and payment to creditors and members as their interests may appear; and
4. execute such documents and papers and do such other acts and things that the liquidating agent may deem necessary or desirable to discharge his duties.

(f) Subject to the control and supervision of the commissioner and under the rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner, the board of directors or liquidating agent of a credit union in liquidation shall:

1. cause notice to be given to creditors and members to present and make legal proof of their claims, which notice must be published once a week in each of three successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in each county where the credit union in liquidation maintained an office or branch for the transaction of business on the date it ceased unrestricted operations; except that when the aggregate book value of the assets and property of the credit union in liquidation is less than $10,000, the commissioner shall declare the credit union in liquidation to be a "no publication" liquidation, and publication notice to creditors and members is not required in such case.

(2) from time to time make a ratable liquidation dividend on all claims that have been proved to the satisfaction of the board of directors or the liquidating agent or adjusted in a court of competent jurisdiction and, after the assets of the credit union have been liquidated, make further liquidation dividends on all claims previously proved or adjusted (the statement of any amount due to the creditor as shown on the books and records of the credit union may be accepted in lieu of a formal proof of claim on behalf of any creditor or member); but all claims not filed before payment of the final dividend are barred; claims rejected or disallowed by the board of directors or by the liquidating agent are also barred unless suit is instituted within three months after notice of rejection or disallowance; and

(3) in a "no publication" liquidation, determine from all sources available, and within the limits of available funds of the credit union, the amounts due to creditors and members, and after 60 days have elapsed from the date of notification to the department of a voluntary liquidation or from the date of appointment of the liquidating agent distribute the funds of the credit union to creditors and members ratably and as their interests may appear.

(g) The commissioner shall prescribe the certificate to be completed by the liquidating agent or by the board of directors attesting to liquidation, that distribution has been made and that liquidation has been completed. The commissioner, on receipt and approval of the certificate, shall cancel the charter of the credit union. The corporate existence of the credit union shall continue for a period of three years from the date of cancellation of its charter, during which period the liquidating agent, or any duly appointed successor, or such persons as the commissioner may designate, may act on behalf of the credit union for the purpose of paying, satisfying, and discharging any existing liabilities or obligations, collecting and distributing its assets, and doing all other acts required to adjust and wind up its business and affairs, and it may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

(h) No liquidating agent, officer, director, or employee of a credit union in liquidation may acquire any of the assets of the credit union or purchase any loans of the credit union. None of these persons may obtain from the liquidation any compensation or profit for personal benefit, whether directly, indirectly, for the benefit of any member of the person's family or any person associated with the person, or for the benefit of any business enterprise with which the person is associated, except for the credit union in liquidation. The liquidating agent may receive such reasonable compensation as may be set forth in the contract of employment, and nothing in this Act shall prevent compensation of the liquidating agent or those salaried employees and salaried officers of the credit union during the pendency of the liquidation, which payments shall be considered expenses incidental to liquidation. Any person who participates in a violation of this subsection commits a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000 and not less than $100, or by confinement in jail for not more than six months, or both.

Art. 2461-10.03. Merger

(a) A credit union may, with the approval of the department, merge with any other credit union under the existing charter of the other credit union, pursuant to a plan agreed to by the majority of the board of directors of each credit union joining in the merger and approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of each credit union present at the meetings of members called for that purpose. The commissioner may waive the requirement that the plan be approved by a majority of the members of the credit unions.

(b) After agreement by the directors and approval by the members of each credit union, the president and secretary of each credit union shall execute a certificate of merger containing the following information:

(1) the time and place of the meeting of the board of directors at which the plan of merger was agreed to;
(2) the vote of the board of directors in favor of and against the adoption of the plan;
(3) a copy of the resolution or other action by which the plan of merger was agreed to;
(4) the time and place of the meeting of the members at which the plan was approved;
(5) the vote of the membership in favor of and against approval of the plan; and
(6) the name of the surviving credit union.

(c) The merging credit union shall submit the certificates and a copy of the plan of merger to the department. On approving the merger, the depart-
Art. 2461-10.04. Conversion
The commissioner shall promulgate regulations to permit the conversion of a credit union organized under this Act to a federal credit union, and the conversion of a federal credit union to a credit union organized under this Act.

Art. 2461-11.02. Qualifications of Members
All members of the commission must have a minimum of five years' active experience in the operation of a credit union. No two members of the commission may be residents of the same state senatorial district.

Art. 2461-11.03. Appointment and Terms of Members
The members of the commission are appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, for terms of six years, with the terms of two members expiring every two years. As of the effective date of this Act, the terms of the respective members of the Credit Union Commission then serving shall continue until their normal expiration dates.

Art. 2461-11.04. Vacancies
In the event of the death, resignation, or removal of a member of the commission, or if a member ceases to have the qualifications necessary to original appointment, the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, shall appoint a qualified person to fill the unexpired term.

Art. 2461-11.05. Expenses of Members
Each member of the commission is entitled to reimbursement of the reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties.

Art. 2461-11.06. Meetings
(a) The commission shall hold regular meetings at least two times each year. The chairman of the commission, the commissioner, or any three members of the commission may call special meetings. The commission may adopt rules and regulations governing the time and place of meetings, the character of notice of special meetings, and the conduct of all meetings, including the form in which minutes of the meetings are maintained.

(b) A majority of the membership of the commission constitutes a quorum for the purpose of transacting any business.
(c) The commission shall annually elect one of its members to serve as chairman. The chairman shall preside at all meetings of the commission.

(d) The commissioner shall attend meetings of the commission and shall preside in the absence of the chairman. The commissioner may not vote at any meeting.

(e) No commission member may act on matters under consideration which specifically relate to any credit union incorporated under Chapter 2 of this Act in which the member of the commission is an officer, director, or shareholder.

Art. 2461-11.07. Rulemaking Power

(a) The commissioner, with the approval of the commission, shall promulgate general rules and regulations pursuant to this Act and from time to time may amend the same. The rules and regulations shall apply to all credit unions organized under this Act.

(b) The commissioner and the commission may not promulgate rules and regulations in contradiction of existing rules and regulations until notice of the terms or substance of the proposed rule or regulation or amendment is submitted, in writing, to all credit unions subject to regulation. Each credit union may, within 60 days after the date of issuance of the notice, submit, in writing, comments or questions relevant to the proposed rule or regulation to the commissioner. The commission shall consider the written comments or questions submitted by the credit union, together with relevant materials available from the files and records of the department. The commission may hold a public hearing if necessary. The commission shall promulgate rules and regulations in writing. The commissioner, with the approval of the commission, shall promulgate rules and regulations governing the conduct of any public hearings.

Art. 2461-11.08. Credit Union Commissioner

The commission shall appoint, by at least four affirmative votes, a Credit Union Commissioner who shall serve as an employee and at the pleasure of the commission. The commissioner must have at least 5 years' practical experience within the 10 years immediately prior to his appointment. The experience may consist of experience in the executive management of a credit union or in the employment of a credit union regulatory agency.

Art. 2461-11.09. Deputy Credit Union Commissioner

Subject to the approval of the commission, the commissioner may appoint a Deputy Credit Union Commissioner. The deputy commissioner must meet the same qualifications as does the commissioner. The deputy commissioner, if any, shall serve at the pleasure of the commissioner. He may exercise all the powers and prerogatives of the commissioner and shall perform all the duties of the commissioner during the commissioner's absence or inability to act or otherwise at the direction of the commissioner.

Art. 2461-11.10. Powers of Credit Union Commissioner

(a) On the appointment and qualification of a commissioner, the commissioner shall supervise and regulate all credit unions doing business in this state, except federal credit unions organized and existing under federal law, in accordance with this Act and the rules and regulations promulgated under this Act.

(b) The commissioner shall enforce the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations promulgated from time to time.

(c) With the approval of the commission, the commissioner shall levy and collect all supervision fees, penalties, charges, and revenues required to be paid by credit unions.

(d) The commissioner shall submit to the commission at least once a year a full and complete report of the receipts and expenditures of the department. The commission may require more frequent reports. The commission shall adopt and from time to time amend, budgets that direct the purposes and prescribe the amounts for which the fees, penalties, charges, and revenues may be expended or levied.

(e) The commissioner, with the approval of the commission, shall promulgate rules and regulations requiring credit unions doing business within the state to provide or cause to be provided share and deposit insurance for members and depositors.

Art. 2461-11.11. Credit Union Examiners

Subject to recruitment and qualifications approved by the commission, the commissioner shall appoint credit union examiners in sufficient number to perform fully the duties and responsibilities under this Act and the laws of this state.

Art. 2461-11.12. Annual Examination

The department, by and through its duly appointed examiners, shall perform an examination of the books and records of each credit union subject to this Act at least once each year. Each credit union shall furnish the examiner full access to all books, papers, securities, records, and other sources of information under the control of the credit union. The examiner may administer oaths. The examiner shall report the results of each examination on a form prescribed by the commissioner and approved by the commission. The examiner shall include in the report a general statement of the affairs and condition of the credit union. The department shall send a copy of the report to the board of directors of the credit union within 30 days after the examination. Each credit union shall pay an examination fee based on the costs of performing the examination.

Art. 2461-11.13. Oaths of Office; Bond

The commissioner, the deputy commissioner, if any, each credit union examiner, and every other officer and employee of the commission, shall, before assuming the duties of office, take an oath and make fidelity bond in the sum of $10,000 payable to the governor and all successors in the office of governor, in individual, schedule, or blanket form, executed by a surety appearing on the list of approved sureties acceptable to the United States government. Each oath and bond required under this Act must be in a form approved by the commission. The premiums for the bond are paid out of the funds of the department.

The attorney general shall defend any action brought against any member of the commission or against any of its officers or employees by reason of the official act or omission of the person, whether or not the person is a member, officer, or employee of the commission at the time of the initiation of the action. Venue for any actions taken against the commission, its officers, or employees lies in Travis County.

Art. 2461-11.15. Compensation of Employees

The commissioner, the deputy commissioner, if any, each examiner, and every other officer of the commission, except commission members, are employees of the commission, subject to its orders and directions, and are entitled to receive compensation fixed by the commission, but in no event may any employee receive compensation exceeding that paid to the governor. The compensation is paid from funds of the department.

Art. 2461-11.16. Transfers to General Revenue Fund

The department shall transfer $1,000 each year to the general revenue fund to cover the costs of governmental service rendered by other departments.

Art. 2461-11.17. Exemption from Securities Laws

Credit unions, their officers, employees, and agents in the sale, issuance, or offering of savings and share accounts of any credit union and their deposit and share accounts, whether state or federally chartered, are exempt from the registration provisions of the laws of this state, other than this Act, which provide for the supervision, registration, or regulation in connection with the sale, issuance, or offering of securities as the term is defined in Section 4, Securities Act, as amended (Article 581-4, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). The sale, issuance, or offering of any such accounts or shares is legal without any action or approval on the part of any official, other than the credit union commissioner, authorized to license, regulate, or supervise the sale, issuance, or offering of securities.

CHAPTER ONE. STATE DEPOSITORIES

Art. 2525a. Application of Sunset Act

The State Depository Board is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished effective September 1, 1983.

Art. 2530. Deposit of Securities

In the event the State Depository, as designated in the preceding Article, shall elect to deposit said pledged securities, above mentioned, with the State Treasurer, the said securities shall be delivered to the Treasurer and receipted for by him, and retained by him in the vaults of the State Treasury. Provided, however, that such bank so designated as depository shall have the option, instead of depositing said pledged securities with the State Treasurer, of depositing same with another State or National Bank situated in the State, subject to the approval of the Board; said securities to be held in trust by said custodian bank to secure funds deposited by the State Treasurer in the State Depository bank. Upon the receipt of said securities, said custodian bank shall immediately issue and deliver to the State Treasurer controlled trust receipts for said securities. The trust receipt shall evidence that the custodian bank has deposited with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas the pledged securities so held. The records of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas shall at all times reflect the name of the State Depository bank for whose account the pledged securities are so deposited, and an Advice of Transaction shall be issued by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas to the State Treasurer and the State Depository bank.

A custodian bank, holding in trust securities of a State Depository bank pledged to secure funds deposited by the State Treasurer in the State Depository bank as provided above, shall also have the option of depositing said pledged securities with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas provided that the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas is the third party to the transaction; such securities to be held by said Federal Reserve Bank to secure funds deposited by the State Treasurer in the State Depository bank. When such pledged securities held by a custodian bank are so deposited, and, subject to the approval of the Board, the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas may apply book entry procedures to the pledged securities so held. The records of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas shall at all times reflect the name of the custodian bank for whose account the pledged securities are so deposited, and an Advice of Transaction or other document evidencing each deposit or transfer of such securities shall be issued by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas to the custodian bank. The custodian bank shall immediately issue and deliver to the State Treasurer controlled trust receipts for said pledged securities. The trust receipt shall reflect that the custodian bank has deposited with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas the pledged securities held in trust for the State Depository bank.

Subject to the approval of the Board, a State Depository may have the right to substitute one group of securities for another group of securities pledged with the State Treasurer, when and as such State Depository may desire to make such substitution, so long as the securities desired to be substituted by such bank shall come within the classification of securities acceptable under the terms of this Act.

If, in any case, or at any time, such bonds or other securities are not satisfactory security, in the opinion of the Board, for the deposits made under this Act, they may require such additional security to be given as will be satisfactory to them. Said Board shall, from time to time inspect such bonds and see that the same are actually kept in the vaults of the State Treasury and in said custodian banks. If the pledged securities are deposited with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, the Board shall conduct such audits and inspections of the records of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas as may be reasonably necessary to verify the existence of and proper accounting for said pledged securities. In the event that any State Depository shall fail to pay deposits or any part thereof on the check of the Treasurer, he shall have the power to forthwith realize upon such bonds or other securities deposited by said bank, and disburse the money arising therefrom, according to law, upon the warrants drawn by the Comptroller upon the funds for which said bonds or other securities were secured. Any bank making deposits of bonds or other securities with the Treasurer under the provisions of this Act may cause such bonds or other securities to be endorsed or stamped, as they may deem proper, so as to show that they are deposited as collateral and not transferable, except as herein provided.

Upon request of the owner or owners, the Treasurer or custodian bank may surrender interest coupons or other evidence of interest when due on securities deposited by depository banks, provided, said securities are ample to meet the requirements of the State.

Whenever any private bank now organized as provided for by the private banking laws of Texas should seek to become a depository for State funds or any other governmental agency, it shall agree in writing to submit itself to examination as to its solvency.

CHAPTER ONE. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Acts 1977, 65th Leg., ch. 871, repealing this article, enacts the Natural Resources Code.

For disposition of the subject matter of the repealed article, see Disposition Table following the Natural Resources Code.

CHAPTER TWO. STATE HOSPITALS

Art. 3184. Superintendent, Qualifications

Sec. 1. The Superintendent of the Austin State Hospital, San Antonio State Hospital, Wichita Falls State Hospital, Big Springs State Hospital, Rusk State Hospital, Terrell State Hospital, Kerrville State Hospital, Vernon Center and the Texas Research Institute of Mental Sciences shall meet such requirements for eligibility for appointment as Superintendent as the Board, by substantive rule adopted in accordance with the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), may adopt.

Sec. 2. In adopting requirements for eligibility for appointment as Superintendent, the Board shall give appropriate consideration to the desirability of the need if possible of a physician authorized to practice medicine in Texas who has experience in the treatment of mental disease and who has proven administrative experience and ability. In appointing superintendents, the Commissioner shall give preferential consideration to a qualified candidate who is authorized to practice medicine in Texas and who has proven administrative experience and ability.

Sec. 3. If no such physician as described in Section 2 is available, the Board may appoint as Superintendent of the institutions described in Section 1 of this Act a person of proven administrative experience and ability, however, prior to said appointment, the Board shall have authority and shall promulgate appropriate rules and regulations to insure that all duties of admitting patients, providing appropriate medical care and treatment and determinations whether a patient has recovered to the extent that cure is effected or the patient no longer needs to be restrained and should be discharged, or that it would be in the best interest of patients that he or she should be sooner released prior to the period of detention, as well as all medical decisions are only made by physicians licensed to practice medicine in Texas.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not be construed to:

(a) authorize the Department or any person, other than a duly licensed physician, acting within the scope of his or her license, to engage, directly or indirectly, in the practice of medicine; or

(b) authorize the Department, or any person to regulate, interfere, or intervene in any manner in the practice of medicine.

Persons Chargeable with Expenses of Patients

Sec. 2. Where the patient has no sufficient estate of his own, he shall be maintained at the expense:

Of the husband or wife of such person, if able to do so;

Of the father or mother of such person, if able to do so, provided such person is less than 18 years old.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 3 to 7]

Art. 3196a–1. Admission of Patients Eligible for Services Under Department of Health Program

(a) The Texas Board of Health may admit to any hospital under its supervision a patient who is eligible to receive patient services under a program of the Texas Department of Health and who will benefit from the hospitalization.
(b) Admission to a hospital as authorized by this Act is subject to the availability of appropriate space after the needs of eligible tuberculosis and chronic respiratory disease patients have been met and to the availability of trained medical personnel for the necessary medical care and treatment.

(c) The board may enter into contracts and make rules necessary to implement this Act.

d) This Act does not require the board or department to admit a patient to a particular hospital, guarantee the availability of space at any hospital, or provide treatment for a particular medical need at any hospital.

(c) Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2194, ch. 700, § 3, eff. June 21, 1975.

Disposition of Fees and Charges

Sec. 6A. Fees and charges collected by each hospital for physicians' services shall be retained locally and shall be used only for the purpose of recruiting, retaining, and supplementing the salaries of the hospital's medical staff. Distribution of fees and charges for physicians' services shall be subject to rules and regulations adopted by the medical staff, not inconsistent with the laws of this state regulating the practice of medicine.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2194, ch. 700, §§ 2 and 3, eff. June 21, 1976.]

Art. 3201a-4. Transfer of Control of East Texas Chest Hospital

Intent of Act

Sec. 1. By this Act the legislature does intend:

(1) that the East Texas Chest Hospital shall continue to serve as a "state tuberculosis hospital" under the terms and provisions of the Texas Tuberculosis Code; 1

(2) that the Texas Department of Health Resources 2 shall continue to have the authority and power to assign and send tuberculosis patients to the East Texas Chest Hospital for treatment and/or hospitalization under the terms and provisions of the Texas Tuberculosis Code;

(3) that The University of Texas System shall provide and pay for the care and treatment of tuberculosis patients in the East Texas Chest Hospital out of such funds as the legislature may appropriate for the hospital to use for that purpose;

(4) that The University of Texas System shall honor and perform all existing contracts heretofore entered into by, for, or on behalf of the East Texas Chest Hospital, including but not limited to the existing contracts covering the training and education of osteopathic resident physicians at the East Texas Chest Hospital;

(5) that if future contracts are required to provide for the care and treatment of the outpatients of the East Texas Chest Hospital, The University of Texas System shall pay for that care and treatment out of such funds as the legislature may appropriate for such hospital to use for that purpose, or The University of Texas System shall transfer to the Texas Department of Health Resources, out of such funds as the legislature may appropriate for the East Texas Chest Hospital to use for that purpose, money to pay for the care and treatment of the outpatients of that hospital, whichever may be appropriate; and

(6) that except for the transfer of the governance and management of the East Texas Chest Hospital from the Texas Board of Health Resources to The University of Texas System, the power and authority of the Texas Department of Health Resources to examine, diagnose, isolate, quarantine, hospitalize, treat, and/or otherwise care for tuberculosis patients under the terms and provisions of the Texas Tuberculosis Code shall remain undiminished, unchanged, and in full force and effect.

1 Article 4477-11
2 Name changed to Department of Health; see art. 4418q.

Transfer of Control to University of Texas System

Sec. 2. From and after the effective date of this Act, the governance, operation, management, control, and ownership of the East Texas Chest Hospital and all land, buildings, facilities, improvements, equipment, supplies, and property comprising said hospital shall be, and are hereby, transferred from the Texas Board of Health Resources to the Board of Regents of The University of Texas System. Said hospital, land, buildings, facilities, improvements, equipment, supplies, and property shall be governed, operated, managed, and controlled pursuant to such powers, duties, and responsibilities as are now, or as may be hereafter, conferred by law upon the Board of Regents of The University of Texas System for the governance, management, and control of the component institutions comprising said system.
Art. 3201a–4

ELEEMOSYNARY INSTITUTIONS 2630

Transfer of Appropriations and Funds

Sec. 3. All appropriations heretofore or hereafter made by the legislature for the use and benefit of the East Texas Chest Hospital under the governance of the Texas Board of Health Resources shall be transferred to the Board of Regents of The University of Texas System for the use and benefit of such hospital, and all other funds held for the use and benefit of the East Texas Chest Hospital shall be similarly transferred.

Validation of Contracts

Sec. 4. All contracts heretofore entered into in behalf of the East Texas Chest Hospital, or in names previously used by such hospital, are hereby ratified, confirmed, and validated for and on its behalf.

Use and Name of Hospital

Sec. 5. The Board of Regents of The University of Texas System is authorized to use the East Texas Chest Hospital as a teaching hospital and is authorized to change the name of the hospital, if and when deemed appropriate, so as to conform to the policies, rules, and regulations of said board.

Chest Diseases

Sec. 6. It shall continue to be the policy of the State of Texas to provide a program of treatment of the citizens of this state who are affected with chest diseases, and in pursuance of that policy the East Texas Chest Hospital shall among other functions continue to serve as the primary facility in this state to conduct research, develop diagnostic and treatment techniques and procedures, provide training and teaching programs, and provide diagnosis and treatment for both inpatients and outpatients with respect to all chest diseases.

Application of Tuberculosis Code

Sec. 7. The East Texas Chest Hospital shall among other functions continue to serve as a "state tuberculosis hospital" under the terms and provisions of the Texas Tuberculosis Code (Article 4477–11, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), but insofar as applicable to the East Texas Chest Hospital, Subsections (b) through (e) of Section 12 and all of Section 15, Texas Tuberculosis Code (Article 4477–11, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), are repealed.

Repealer

Sec. 8. Chapter 528, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969, as amended (Article 4477–13, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is repealed, and all other laws or parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed to the extent of such conflict.

Effective Date

Sec. 9. The effective date of this Act shall be September 1, 1977.

Severability

Sec. 10. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any other provision or application of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Art. 3255c. Transfer of Land, Facilities and Functions; Change of Name

Transfer of Waco State Home

Sec. 1. The custody, control, and management of the land, buildings, and facilities of the Waco State Home are transferred to the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation effective September 1, 1979.

Change of Name

Sec. 2. Effective September 1, 1979, the name of the Waco State Home is changed to the Waco Center for Youth.

Purpose of Center

Sec. 3. The Waco Center for Youth shall be used as a residential treatment facility for emotionally disturbed juveniles who:

1. have been committed to a facility of the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation under the provisions of the Texas Mental Health Code, as amended; 1 or
2. are under the managing conservatorship of the Texas Department of Human Resources and have been committed to the Waco Center for Youth under the provisions of the Texas Mental Health Code, as amended.
3. No emotionally disturbed juvenile who has been found to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision under Title 3 of the Texas Family Code 2 will be admitted to the Waco Center for Youth.

Educational Services

Sec. 4. The Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation will provide free, appropriate educational services for all clients who reside at the Waco Center for Youth. The cost of such services will be paid by the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation from funds appropriated for that purpose to said facility. No client of said facility, other than those who are legal residents of the Waco Independent School District, will receive educational services from the Waco Independent School District without the prior approval of the superintendent of said school district.

Disposition of Property

Sec. 5. The Texas Youth Council and the Texas Board of Mental Health and Mental Retardation by agreement shall provide for the transfer or retention by the Texas Youth Council of all items of state property now located at the Waco State Home, including furniture, equipment, vehicles, tools, supplies, linens, machinery, and utensils. The Texas Youth Council and the Texas Board of Mental Health and Mental Retardation shall inform the State Board of Control of the disposition made of all such property on or before September 1, 1979.

Transfer of Funds

Sec. 6. (a) From funds appropriated to the Texas Youth Council for the Waco State Home for the biennium ending August 31, 1979, the Texas Youth Council may transfer to the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation an amount determined by agreement between the Texas Youth Council and the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. Any of these funds may be used by the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation for renovation, remodeling, and alteration of buildings and facilities and purchase of equipment for the Waco Center for Youth as required to house emotionally disturbed clients or for the payment of salaries for personnel involved in the planning, development, or provision of services to emotionally disturbed clients at the facility.

(b) The Texas Department of Human Resources may transfer funds from its Fund 117, Federal Public Welfare Administrative Fund, to the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation in an amount determined by agreement between the Texas Department of Human Resources and the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation to be used for renovation, remodeling, and alteration of buildings and facilities and purchase of equipment for the Waco Center for Youth as required to house emotionally disturbed clients.

San Antonio State School

Art. 3263g. San Antonio State School

Sec. 1. There is hereby established the San Antonio State School for the education, care, and treatment of mentally retarded persons. The Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation may enter into agreements with the State Department of Health for use of the excess facilities of the San Antonio Chest Hospital in the operation of the school.

Sec. 2. The Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation shall appoint personnel necessary to operate and maintain the school and to adequately treat the persons admitted within the limits of legislative appropriations. The Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation shall admit persons and shall provide for their care and maintenance under the state laws, rules, and regulations governing the admission and care of mentally retarded persons.

Art. 3265. Rule of Damages

6. Where a plaintiff after filing a petition in condemnation, desires to dismiss or abandon the proceedings, said plaintiff shall by a motion filed to the judge of the court be heard thereon, and the court hearing the same shall make an allowance to the landowner for all necessary and reasonable attorneys', appraisers', and photographers' fees and all other expenses incurred to the date of such hearing on said motion; provided, however, after a special commissioners hearing has been held and the special commissioners have made an award, the plaintiff will not be permitted to dismiss the condemnation proceedings merely to file a new petition in condemnation involving substantially the same taking against the landowner in an effort to secure a lower commissioners award from a second special commissioners hearing. If the plaintiff does dismiss and files a second petition in condemnation to condemn from the same landowner the same substantial interest in the land as in the first petition in condemnation, the landowner is entitled to three (3) times the amount of all expenses allowed the landowner prior to the dismissal of the first petition in condemnation. The court will not appoint new commissioners under the second petition in condemnation, but the court will merely enter the special commissioners award as previously found under the first petition in condemnation as the award of the special commissioners in the second petition filed by the plaintiff.

7. The owner of the land who is actually and physically displaced and permanently moved from his dwelling or place of business shall be entitled to, as a separate item of damages, the reasonable moving expenses for personal property when personal property is moved from a place of residence or from a place of business, but the maximum distance of movement to be considered shall be fifty (50) miles. In no event shall such expenses exceed the market value of such personal property; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply in any condemnation proceeding whether before special commissioners or the court where the owner is entitled to reimbursement for moving expenses under other existing law.

Art. 3271a. Texas Engineering Practice Act

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1 to 3]

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 3a. The State board of Registration for Professional Engineers is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1981.

Qualifications of Members of Board

Sec. 4. Each member of the Board shall be a citizen of the United States and a resident of this State for a period of 10 years prior to appointment, and shall have been engaged in the practice of the profession of engineering for at least 10 years, two years of which may be credited for graduation from an approved engineering school. Responsible charge of engineering teaching and the teaching of engineering shall be considered as the practice of professional engineering as defined by this Act for purposes of this section and for all other purposes in regard to the administration and enforcement of this Act.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 5 to 10]

Roster of Registered Engineers

Sec. 11. A roster showing the names and places of business of all registered professional engineers shall be prepared and published by the Board each biennium at a time determined by the Board. Copies of this roster shall be furnished without charge to any engineer licensed by the Board on the written request of the engineer, placed on file with the Secretary of State, and furnished to any person upon written request who tenders a reproduction fee set by the Board in an amount not to exceed Five Dollars ($5.00).

Applications and Registration Fees

Sec. 13. Applications for registration shall be on forms prescribed and furnished by the Board, shall contain statements made under oath, showing the applicant's education and a detailed summary of his actual engineering work, and shall contain not less than five (5) references, of whom three (3) or more shall be engineers having personal knowledge of his engineering experience.

The registration fee for professional engineers shall be Fifty Dollars ($50.00).

Expiration and Renewals

Sec. 16. It shall be the duty of the Board to notify every person registered under this Act of the date of the expiration of his certificate and the amount of the fee that shall be required for its renewal for one year; such notice shall be mailed at least one month in advance of the date of the expiration of said certificate. Renewal may be effected by the payment of a renewal fee set by the Board not to exceed Forty-five Dollars ($45.00). The Board is hereby given authority and duty to determine the amount of such renewal fee required to effectually carry out the administration and enforcement of all the provisions of this Act. Failure on the part of any registered engineer to renew his certificate annually shall not deprive such person of the right of renewal, but the fee to be paid for the renewal of a certificate when the renewal is past due shall be increased ten per cent (10%) for each month or fraction of a month that renewal payment is delayed; provided, however, that the maximum fee for delayed renewal shall not exceed twice the normal renewal fee.

Sections 2 and 3 of Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 965, ch. 362, provided:

"Sec. 2. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word is this Act, or application thereof to any person or circumstance for any reason is held invalid, such holdings shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the legislature hereby declares it would have passed such remaining portions of this Act despite such invalidity of any part thereof.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws in conflict or inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency only."
Art. 3272b. Duties of Depositories of Dormant or Inactive Accounts

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1 to 3]

Report to State Treasurer

Sec. 4. On or before May 1st of the year following the first publication required by this Article, the depository shall submit in duplicate copies a report to the State Treasurer listing the names of all such depositors or creditors whose names were published, whose whereabouts and the whereabouts of any owner of such deposit or credit still remain unknown, and each of whose deposits or accounts still remain in a dormant or inactive status. Such report shall set forth in alphabetical order the name and last known address of the depositor or creditor, the date and amount appearing to be due each depositor or creditor when the account first became dormant or inactive, or on January 1, 1959, whichever date is later, the amount credited to such account at the time of the report, the date of the last transaction with the depositor or creditor, and its identification number, if any. If the amount then credited to an account is less than the amount of the initial dormant deposit or inactive account, except for its share of publication costs, the reason for such reduction shall be stated.

The subscribing officer shall certify under oath that the report is a complete and correct statement of all dormant deposits and inactive accounts held by the depository subject to the reporting provisions of Section 4 of Article 3272b; that the existence and whereabouts of the listed depositors or creditors are unknown to the depository; and that the listed depositors or creditors have not asserted any claim or exercised any act of ownership with respect to the reported accounts during the past seven (7) years.

Together with the foregoing report, the depository shall deliver to the State Treasurer a sum equal to the total amount of the accounts listed in the report, and the State Treasurer shall sign a receipt therefor and shall assume custody thereof. The State shall be responsible for the safekeeping thereof, and any depository delivering such deposits or accounts to the State Treasurer under this Act is relieved of all liability for any claim which then exists or which may thereafter arise or be made in respect to the property.

Sec. 5. All funds received by the State Treasurer under the provisions of this Article or from the escheat of any deposit, credit, account or other property held by any bank or other institution covered by Section 1(a) hereof shall be deposited into a separate fund to be known as the "State Conservator Fund," from which there shall be set aside and maintained a revolving expense fund of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) for the purpose of paying expenses incurred by the State Treasurer in the enforcement of the provisions of this Article, including the expense of publications, forms, notices, examinations, travel, and employment of necessary personnel; and therefrom any amounts remaining unpaid to owners shall be transferred to the Available School Fund; provided that the State Conservator Fund shall never be reduced below Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000). This sum shall remain available for payments to those who may at any time in the future establish their ownership or right as herein provided to any deposit or account delivered to the State Treasurer under this Act. The moneys in such fund over Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) shall be invested from time to time by the State Treasurer in investments which are approved by law for the investment of any State funds, and the income thereof shall be and become a part of the said State Conservator Fund. The expense fund of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) is hereby appropriated to the State Treasurer for the purposes above stated for the biennium ending August 31, 1963.

The State Banking Commissioner shall transfer to the State Treasurer for deposit in the State Conservator Fund all dormant deposits and other funds formerly owned by or deposited in liquidated depositories which have been held by the Commissioner for more than twenty (20) years and of which the whereabouts of the depositors, creditors or owners have been unknown to him for more than twenty (20) years. Upon delivery, together with a certificate of such facts under oath of the State Banking Commissioner, the funds shall be subject to conservation and disposition under the terms of this Article. The State Banking Commissioner shall deliver to the State Treasurer a record of the names of the liquidated depositories, and the names and last known addresses of the depositors and creditors and the amounts of the deposits, credits, or other funds.

The State Treasurer shall compile an alphabetical list containing the name and last known address of each depositor or creditor listed on the depository reports and the amount of each depositor account. The State Treasurer shall revise the list not later than June 1 of each year. The list shall be available for public inspection at all reasonable business hours.

Art. 3731a. Official Written Instruments, Certificates, Records, Returns and Reports; Proceedings of the State Legislature; Foreign Laws

Proceedings of the State Legislature

Sec. 1a. All available written or electronic records of the proceedings of the state legislature which are required by the rules of the respective houses to be preserved may be attested by the presiding officer of each house or by a deputy designated by him for such purpose. The attested records or copies or duplications thereof shall be, so far as relevant, admitted in the courts of this state as evidence of the matters stated therein, subject to the provisions of Section 3 of this Act, without the necessity of the presence in the court of the presiding officer or deputy designated to attest, preserve, or display the records, copies, or duplications.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 2 and 3]

Authentication of Copy

Sec. 4. Such writings or electronic records may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy or electronic duplication attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by his deputy. Except in the case of a copy of an official writing or official electronic recording from a public office of this State or a subdivision thereof, the attestation shall be accompanied with a certificate that the attesting officer has the legal custody of such writing. If the office in which the record is kept is within the United States or within a territory or insular possession subject to the dominion of the United States, the certificate may be made by a judge of a court of record of the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of his office. If the office in which the record is kept is in a foreign state or country, the certificate may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent or by any officer in the foreign service of the United States, or by any officer of a United States military government, stationed in the foreign state or country in which the record is kept, and authenticated by the seal of his office. In the case of the matters in Section 2a, the substance, contents, and/or wording of any of such matters may also be evidenced by certification, as to existence on a particular date or dates by the governmental head of such country or his secretary, or such country’s attorney (such as attorney general) or assistant attorney or chief legal head, or the president, leader or head of its or one of its law-making bodies or the secretary thereof; or judge or any justice of any appellate court of such country and if none, judge or any justice of one or any one of its highest judicial tribunals. All such attested and certified instruments and the contents of the certificate and the title of the person making same, shall be evidence of the matters, statements, representations and title contained therein.

Art. 3737g. Advance Payment to Tort Claimants; Introduction of Evidence

Purpose of Act

Sec. 1. The purpose of this Act is to promote the making of advance payments for economic loss to claimants without permitting the introduction of evidence of advance payments on the issue of liability or damages during subsequent litigation, but permitting the allowance of advance payments as a credit against any sum judicially established as a claimant’s total damages. The making of periodic payments to claimants for medical expenses, wages lost, and property damaged, often without taking any form of release, will avoid delays in and promote payments for economic loss to persons in need.

“Advance Payment” Defined

Sec. 2. In this Act, “advance payment” includes but is not limited to, any partial payment or payments made by any person, corporation, or insurer to another which is predicated on possible tort liability for medical, surgical, hospital, or rehabilitation services, facilities, or equipment; loss of earnings; out-of-pocket expenses; bodily injury; death; or property damage, loss, or destruction.

Inadmissibility of Evidence of Advance Payment at Trial

Sec. 3. In any civil action in which a party or someone on his behalf, such as his insurer, has made an advance payment prior to trial, any evidence of or concerning the advance payment shall be inadmissible at the trial on liability or damages in any action brought by the claimant, his survivor, or his personal representative to recover damages for personal injuries or related damages, for wrongful death of another, or for property damage or destruction.

Admissibility of Evidence of Advance Payment after Verdict or Decision; Right to Jury Trial Undenied

Sec. 4. If an action results in a jury verdict or decision of the court for damages in favor of a party, the party against whom the verdict or decision is entered may introduce evidence of advance payments after the verdict or decision and before final judgment, and the court shall then reduce the amount awarded to the claimant by the amount of the advance payment proved to have been made prior to trial. Such advance payments shall not be permitted as a reduction of the amount awarded unless there is evidence at the trial on liability that the party to whom the advance payments were made suffered loss as described in Section 2 herein, equal to or exceeding the amount of such advance payments. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to deny to any party his constitutional right to jury by jury on the amount of the credit at a time subsequent to the trial on liability and damages.

Application of Act

Sec. 5. This Act applies to any action filed after the effective date of this Act, regardless of the site of the accident, location of property, or residence of the parties.

Statute of Limitations Tolled

Sec. 6. The making of an advance payment tolls the running of the statute of limitations until the last payment is made unless the person making the advance payment notifies the recipient in writing at the time of each payment that the applicable statute of limitations is not tolled.

Art. 3737h. Necessity of Services and Reasonableness of Charges

Sec. 1. (a) In a civil action other than an action on sworn account, the amount charged for services by a person or institution, when supported by affidavit that the charges reflected in the affidavit were reasonable at the time and place that the services were rendered and that the services were necessary, is sufficient evidence to support a finding of fact by judge or jury that the services were necessary or that the amount charged was reasonable, or both. The affidavit shall be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths, shall be made by a person who rendered the services or who is in charge of records that show the services rendered and the charges made, and shall include an itemized statement of the services and the charges.

(b) As a condition precedent to applicability of Subsection (a) of this Section 1, the party asserting such applicability, or such party's attorney of record, shall file the affidavit provided for in said Subsection (a) with the clerk of the court and shall serve a copy thereof on each other party to the cause, or such other party's attorney of record, at least 14 days prior to the day on which presentation of evidence at trial of the cause commences. As a condition precedent to controverting a claim covered by an affidavit so filed and served, any party intending to controvert all or part of any such claim shall, within 10 days after receipt of such party's copy of such affidavit, or with leave of court first had and obtained at any time prior to commencement of evidence at trial of the cause, file a counter-affidavit with the clerk of the court and serve a copy thereof on each other party to the cause, or such other party's attorney of record. The counter-affidavit shall give reasonable notice of the basis upon which the party filing it intends at trial to controvert all or part of the claim covered by the initial affidavit. The counter-affidavit shall be taken before a person authorized to administer oaths and may be made upon information and belief by the party filing it, or such party's attorney of record. When a counter-affidavit is so filed and served, then Subsection (a) of this Section 1 shall thereafter have no force or effect at the trial of the cause.

Sec. 2. This Act does not apply to civil actions in which judgment was rendered prior to the effective date of this Act, nor to attorney fees charged in the trial of the cause or preparation thereof.

TITLE 56
EXECUTION

Article 3827a. Collection of Judgments by Court Proceedings.

Art. 3810. Sales Under Deed of Trust

All sales of real estate made under powers conferred by any deed of trust or other contract lien shall be made in the county in which such real estate is situated. Where such real estate is situated in more than one county then notices as herein provided shall be given in both or all of such counties, and the real estate may be sold in either county, and such notice shall designate the county where the real estate will be sold. Notice of such proposed sale shall be given by posting written notice thereof at least 21 days preceding the date of the sale at the courthouse door of the county in which the sale is to be made, and if the real estate is in more than one county, one notice shall be posted at the courthouse door of each county in which the real estate is situated.

In addition, the holder of the debt to which the power is related shall at least 21 days preceding the date of sale serve written notice of the proposed sale by certified mail on each debtor obligated to pay such debt according to the records of such holder. Service of such notice shall be completed upon deposit of the notice, enclosed in a postpaid wrapper, properly addressed to such debtor at the most recent address as shown by the records of the holder of the debt, in a post office or official depository under the care and custody of the United States Postal Service. The affidavit of any person having knowledge of the facts to the effect that such service was completed shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of service. Such sale shall be made at public vendue between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. of the first Tuesday in any month.

Section 2 of the 1975 amendatory act provided: "This Act shall become effective on January 1, 1976, and it shall apply only to sales made after that date."

Art. 3827a. Collection of Judgments by Court Proceedings

(a) A judgment creditor whose judgment debtor is the owner of property, including present or future rights to property, which cannot readily be attached or levied on by ordinary legal process and is not exempt from attachment, execution, and every type of seizure for the satisfaction of liabilities, is entitled to aid from a court of appropriate jurisdiction by injunction or otherwise in reaching the property to satisfy the judgment.

(b) The court may order the property of the judgment debtor referred to in Subsection (a) of this section, together with all documents or records related to the property, that is in or subject to the possession or control of the judgment debtor to be turned over to any designated sheriff or constable for execution or otherwise applied toward the satisfaction of the judgment. The court may enforce the order by proceedings for contempt or otherwise in case of refusal or disobedience.

(c) The court may appoint a receiver of the property of the judgment debtor referred to in Subsection (a) of this section, with the power and authority to take possession of and sell the nonexempt property and to pay the proceeds to the judgment creditor to the extent required to satisfy the judgment.

(d) These proceedings may be brought by the judgment creditor in the same suit in which the judgment is rendered or in a new and independent suit.

(e) In a proceeding under this section, a judgment creditor is entitled to recover reasonable costs, including attorney's fees.

1. PROPERTY EXEMPT FROM FORCED SALE

Art. 3836. Personal Property Exempt from Satisfaction of Liabilities

(a) Personal property (not to exceed an aggregate fair market value of $15,000 for each single, adult person, not a constituent of a family, or $30,000 for a family) is exempt from attachment, execution and every type of seizure for the satisfaction of liabilities, except for encumbrances properly fixed thereon, if included among the following:

1. Furnishings of a home, including family heirlooms, and provisions for consumption;
2. All of the following which are reasonably necessary for the family or single, adult person, not a constituent of a family: implements of farming or ranching; tools, equipment, apparatus (including a boat), and books used in any trade or profession; wearing apparel; two firearms and athletic and sporting equipment;
3. All passenger cars and light trucks, as those terms are defined by Section 2, Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways, as amended (Article 6701d, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), that are not held or used for production of income or, whether held or used for production of income or not, any two of the following categories of means of travel: two animals from the following kinds with a saddle and bridle for each: horses, colts, mules, and donkeys; a bicycle or motorcycle; a wagon, cart, or dray, with harness reasonably necessary for its use; an automobile or station wagon; a truck cab; a truck trailer; a camper-truck; a truck; a pickup truck;
4. Livestock and fowl not to exceed the following in number and forage on hand reasonably necessary for their consumption: 5 cows and their calves, one breeding-age bull, 20 hogs, 20 sheep, 20 goats, 50 chickens, 30 turkeys, 30 ducks, 30 geese, 30 guineas;
5. A dog, cat, and other household pets;
6. The cash surrender value of any life insurance policy in force for more than two years to the extent that a member or members of the family of the insured person or a dependent or dependents of a single, adult person, not a constituent of a family, is beneficiary thereof;
7. Current wages for personal services.

Art. 3881e. Commercial Feed Control Act of 1957

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1 to 6]

Inspection Fee

Sec. 7. (a) For the purpose of administering the Texas Commercial Feed Control Act of 1957, including the cost of equipment and facilities and the cost of inspecting, analyzing, and examining commercial feed manufactured for sale, sold, offered or exposed for sale or otherwise distributed in this state, and the expense of experiments and research relative to the value thereof, persons engaged in the manufacture, sale, or distribution of commercial feeds or the components of commercial feeds shall pay to the Director, at his office in College Station, Texas, an inspection fee of Twelve Cents (12¢) per ton on all such commercial feed. With the approval of the Board of Regents of The Texas A & M University System, the Director may reduce or increase the inspection fee in increments of one cent (1¢) per fiscal year, as needed, to a minimum of Ten Cents (10¢) or a maximum of Twenty-five Cents (25¢) per ton. The inspection fee herein levied shall be deposited in the State Treasury and shall there be set apart as a special fund to be known as the Feed Control Fund, and shall be used with the approval and consent of the Board of Regents of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas for the purposes stated in Section 7(a) of this Act.

(b) The procedure for paying the inspection fee shall, subject to the approval and consent of the Director, be either by the use of tax tags (or certificates) or by means of the tonnage reporting system or by a combination of both such procedures, and shall, in addition to regulations which the Director is herewith authorized to issue, be in compliance with all the provisions of this Act.

(c) When the inspection fee is to be paid by the use of the tax tag (or certificate) on any commercial feed which is manufactured for sale, sold, or offered for sale, or otherwise distributed in this state, the manufacturer or any other person who causes it to be manufactured for sale or who sells the same or offers it for sale or makes delivery or distribution of any such commercial feed within the State of Texas, shall affix to each container or package of such commercial feed, except customer-formula feed, and to the invoice of such customer-formula feed distributed in bulk or otherwise, and to the invoice of each lot of such other commercial feed distributed in bulk, a tag (or certificate), to be furnished by the Director, stating that all charges specified in this Article have been paid, and containing the information provided for in Section 6 of this Act. The Director is hereby authorized, empowered, and directed to prescribe the form and denomination of such tags and certificates; provided, however, that if at any time the actual cost to the Feed Control Service of tags (or certificates), including the printing and handling thereof, should be in excess of fifty percent (50%) of the amount of the inspection fee as provided in this Section 7, the Director may, after giving reasonable notice in such manner as he deems desirable, charge all persons who cause commercial feed to be manufactured, sold, exposed, or offered for sale or otherwise distributed, for the total actual cost of such tags (or certificates) in addition to the inspection fee; and provided further, that on individual containers of five (5) pounds or less, a manufacturer or other person may for each state fiscal year (September 1st to August 31st, inclusive) or any fractional part thereof, pay in advance a fee of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for each brand of commercial feed manufactured for sale, sold, offered for sale or otherwise distributed in this state, and such manufacturer or other person shall not be required to affix official tags (or certificates) to such containers of the brands of commercial feed so registered.

(d) When the inspection fee is to be paid by means of the Tonnage Reporting System, the Director is authorized, at his discretion and under such rules and regulations as he may promulgate, to prescribe and furnish such forms and to require the filing of such reports, and shall issue permits bearing a number assigned by the Director on application therefor to any person who manufactures, sells, offers for sale, or who otherwise distributes or has available for distribution in this state, regardless of the manner, means or circumstances as to its entry, presence or existence within this state, any commercial feed. Each applicant for the issuance of a permit must deposit with the Director cash in the amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) or securities acceptable to and approved by the Director of a value of at least One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), or must post with the Director a surety bond payable to the State of Texas in the amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), executed by a corporate surety company authorized to do business in Texas and approved by the Director, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the provisions of this Article; or must post with the Director a bond with at least two good and sufficient and solvent personal sureties, payable to the State of Texas in the amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) and approved by the Director, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the provisions of this Article. Each such bond shall be in such form and be effective for such period of time as the Director may prescribe. In addition to all other provisions of this Act, each person who is issued a permit to sell, offer for sale, or otherwise distribute commercial feed and pay the inspection fee in accordance with the tonnage reporting system shall:

(1) Maintain and furnish such records as the Director may require to reflect accurately the total tonnage of all feed handled, and the portion of such tonnage that is sold, offered for sale, or otherwise distributed as commercial feed and is subject to the inspection fee. The Director or his duly authorized representatives shall have permission to examine the records of the permittee at all reasonable times. All records shall be preserved and retained in usable condition, and shall be available for examination by the Director or his representatives for a period of not less than two (2) years unless otherwise authorized by the Director, and the Director may require the retention of such records for a period of more than two years in instances where it is deemed desirable to do so.

(2) File in the office of the Director at College Station, Texas, within thirty (30) days after the close of each quarter year ending with the last day of November, February, May, and August, sworn reports covering the tonnage of all feed sold during the preceding quarter together with the payment of tax due for such quarter. A penalty of ten per cent (10%) of any tax which is not paid within the time allowed shall be added to the amount of the tax due, and the amount of the tax and the penalty shall constitute a debt, and shall be recoverable out of the bond hereinbefore referred to; provided that the Director may, if he deems it desirable to do so, require additional reports for the purpose of identification and verification of records.

(3) When located outside of the State of Texas and when distributing commercial feed in the State of Texas, maintain in the State of Texas the records and information required by this Section 7(d) of this Act or pay all costs incurred in the auditing of records at a location outside of the state. The Director is authorized and directed to revoke the permit and cancel all registrations of any permittee who fails to comply with this requirement. Itemized statements of costs incurred in any such audits shall be furnished the permittee by the Director promptly upon completion of any such audit, and he must pay the same within thirty (30) days from the date of such statement.

Art. 3883i-3. Compensation of Judges of Probate Court; Counties of Not Less Than 700,000

In all counties of this state having a population of not less than 700,000 inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census, the salary of each of the judges of the probate courts shall be fixed by the commissioners court at not less than the total annual salary, including supplements, received by the judges of the district courts in such counties, which shall be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments. [Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1640, ch. 686, § 5, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 3886h. Compensation of District Attorneys, Assistants, Investigators, Secretaries and Office Personnel in 34th District

Sec. 1. The District Attorney of the Thirty-fourth Judicial District may be paid a salary in an amount not to exceed the total salary and supplemental compensation paid from the state and county funds to the Judge of the Thirty-fourth Judicial District of Texas. The amount of county contributions to the salary paid by the State of Texas to the District Attorney of the Thirty-fourth Judicial District shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of El Paso County. The salaries of Assistant District Attorneys, Investigators, secretaries, and other office personnel shall be fixed by the District Attorney, subject to approval of the Commissioners Court of El Paso County.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of El Paso County, Texas, in said Thirty-fourth Judicial District, is hereby authorized to pay the salaries of the Assistant District Attorneys, Investigators, secretaries, and other office personnel as provided in Section 1 of this Act, and to supplement the salary of the District Attorney paid by the State of Texas in such an amount that the total salary paid shall not exceed the maximum provided for in Section 1 hereof. Nothing shall affect the present existing law relating to the manner of selecting and determining the number of Assistant District Attorneys and Investigators except as herein provided. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 276, ch. 118, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

(b) In those counties wherein the county officials are on a salary basis and in which counties there is a criminal district attorney or a county attorney performing the duties of a district attorney, there shall be deposited in the officers salary fund on the first day of September, January and May of each year, such sums as may be apportioned to such county under the provisions of this Act out of the available appropriations, made by the Legislature for such purposes; provided, however, that in counties wherein the Commissioners Court is authorized to determine whether county officers shall be compensated on a salary basis, no apportionment shall be made to such county until the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall have been notified of the order of the Commissioners Court that the county officers of such county shall be compensated on a salary basis for the fiscal year. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller of Public Accounts to annually apportion to such counties any monies appropriated for said year for such apportionment; each such county entitled to participate in such apportionment shall receive for the benefit of its officers salary fund or funds its proportionate part of the appropriation which shall be distributed among the several counties entitled to participate therein, on the basis of the per capita of each such county according to the last preceding Federal Census; provided the annual apportionment for such purposes shall be determined as follows: the apportionment shall not exceed Ten Cents (10¢) per capita of said population in those counties under eighty five hundred (8500) inhabitants; the apportionment shall not exceed Seven and One-half Cents (7 1/2¢) per capita of said population in those counties having a population of not less than eighty five hundred (8500) and not more than nineteen thousand (19,000) inhabitants; the apportionment shall not exceed Five Cents (5¢) per capita of said population in those counties having a population of not less than nineteen thousand and one (19,001) and not more than seventy five thousand (75,000) inhabitants and the apportionment shall not exceed Four Cents (4¢) per capita in those counties having a population of over seventy five thousand (75,000) inhabitants. Provided the provisions of this Act shall also apply to Harris County for the Criminal District Court of Harris County at not to exceed Four Cents (4¢) per capita. The Comptroller shall, at the option of the criminal district attorney, pay directly to the criminal district attorney in all counties with a population in excess of six hundred thousand (600,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census a sum equal to the sum authorized in the general appropriations bill for district attorneys. Such sum shall be paid in twelve (12) equal installments on the first day of each month. Any such sums so paid shall be deducted from any sum due to said county under the provisions of this Act. In no event shall the total salary and allowances of the criminal district attorney of any such county from all sources be less than the salary of such criminal district attorney paid by said county on the effective date of this Act.

Section 7 of the Public Prosecutors Act (Art. 3226-4) provides that § 13(b) of this article continues in force only as to those counties and district attorneys not subject to said Act.

The 1977 Act, amending § 13(b) of this article, provides in §§ 2 and 3 as follows:

"Sec. 2. All laws or portions thereof in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict.

"Sec. 3. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision."

Art. 3912f-7. Longevity Pay for Deputy Sheriffs in Counties of Not Less Than 150,000

(a) The commissioners court of each county in this state with a population of not less than 150,000, according to the last preceding federal census, shall provide longevity pay for each commissioned deputy of the sheriff's department in accordance with this Act.

(b) Each commissioned deputy shall receive, in addition to his regular compensation, longevity pay of not less than $5 per month for each year of service in the department. Years of service in excess of 25 do not count for the purposes of this subsection.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (c)]

Section 2 of the 1977 amendatory act provided:

"In counties required for the first time to provide longevity pay for deputy sheriffs because of this amendatory Act, the requirement is not mandatory until the first day of the first county fiscal year beginning after this Act takes effect."

Art. 3912k. County and Precinct Officials and Employees Who Are Paid Wholly From County Fund; Compensation, Expenses and Allowances

(1) In addition to the fees authorized and required by Article 3930 of this title, as amended, county clerks and county recorders are authorized and required to collect the fees specified by this article for services rendered by them to all persons, firms, corporations, legal entities, governmental agencies, and governmental representatives. Unless otherwise specified, each fee shall be collected at the time the service is rendered.

(2) A total fee of $7.50 shall be collected for services rendered in connection with the execution of each declaration of informal marriage under Section 1.92 of the Family Code.

Art. 3930(b). County Clerks and Clerks of County Courts

Sec. 1. County clerks and clerks of county courts are hereby authorized and required to collect the following fees for services rendered by them to all persons, firms, corporations, legal entities, governmental agencies and/or governmental representatives:

A. Fees for County Civil Court Dockets

(1) For each cause or action, or docket in County Civil Courts: for filing, or filing and registering, or filing and recording, and for docketing and including taxing costs for each and all applications, complaints, petitions, returns, documents, papers, legal instruments, records and/or proceedings; for issuing, including the recording of the return thereon, each and all citations, notices, subpoenas, commissions to take depositions, executions while the docket is still open, garnishments before judgments, orders, writs, processes, or any and all other instruments, documents or papers authorized, permitted or required to be issued by said county clerk or said clerk of county courts on which a return must be recorded; for all attendances in court as clerk of court; for impaneling a jury; for swearing witnesses; for approving bonds involved in court actions; for administering oaths; and for all other clerical duties in connection with such county civil court docket:

(a) For each original cause or suit in a County Civil Court, including, but not limited to, appeals from Justice of the Peace Courts or Corporation Courts and transfers of causes or suits from other jurisdictions, a fee to be due and payable, and to be paid by the plaintiff or plaintiffs, or appellant or appellants, at the time said cause or suit is filed, started or initiated, which fee is to be paid but one time in each cause or docket, or suit, and which fee excludes the items listed in Paragraphs B, C, D and E of this Section 1:

(1) For causes or dockets involving damages, debts, specific performance of contracts and agreements, pleas of privilege, appeals from Justice of the Peace Courts and Corporation courts, for appeals from driver's license suspension, and other causes of action not otherwise listed in this Paragraph A(1)(a): a fee of $10.00.

(ii) For eminent domain, or condemnation proceedings, with or without objections: a fee of $25.00.

(iii) For garnishments after judgment: a fee of $12.50

(b) For each interpleading, or cross-action, or any other action other than the original action, in a cause or suit in a County Civil Court, a fee to be due and payable, and to be paid by the party or parties starting or initiating each such interpleading, or other action, or cross-action, at the time of starting or initiating each such cross-action or interpleading, or other action, which fee is to be paid but one time for each such cross-action, or interpleading, or other action, but excluding items listed in Paragraphs B, C, D and E of this Section 1: a fee of $10.00.

B. Fees for Probate Court Dockets

(1) For each cause or action, or docket in Probate Courts: for filing, or filing and registering, or filing and recording, and for docketing and including taxing costs for each and all applications, wills, complaints, petitions, returns, documents, papers, legal instruments, records and/or proceedings; for issuing, including the recording of the return thereon, each and all citations, notices, subpoenas, commissions to take depositions, orders, writs, processes, or any and all other instruments, documents, or papers authorized, permitted or required to be issued by said county clerk or said clerk of probate courts on which a return must be recorded; for all attendances in court as clerk of court; for swearing witnesses; for approving bonds involved in court actions; for administering oaths; and for all other clerical duties in connection with such probate court docket:

(a) For each original cause or action in a Probate Court, a fee to be due and payable and to be paid by the party or parties starting or initiating said cause or estate action, or with the permission of the court, payable at the time of qualifying of the legal or personal representative of such cause or estate action, or when a Veterans' Administration Chief Attorney is attorney of record in a cause, payable when the legal or personal representative of such cause or estate action receives funds with which to make such payment, for such services for the period of time as shown, and which fee excludes the items listed in Paragraphs A, B(1)(b), B(1)(d), C, D and E of this Section 1:

(i) For probating will with independent executor; for administration with will attached, for administration of an estate, for guardianship or receivership of an estate, for muniment of title, a fee for one year from the starting or initiating such cause of action: a fee of $25.00

(ii) For community survivors: a total fee of $20.00

(iii) For small estates: a total fee of $5.00

(iv) For affidavits of heirship, including filing of affidavit, after approval by Judge, in Small Estates Records in the Recorder's Office: a total fee of $7.50

(v) For mentally ill: Total costs for all services listed in Article 5547-13, Article 5547-14 and Article 5547-15, Vernon's Civil Statutes of Texas, shall be in the amount of $40.00

(b) For each probate docket remaining open after its first anniversary date, the following fees shall be paid in cash at the time earned, which fee shall be separate and apart from other fees listed in Paragraphs A, B, C, D and E of this Section 1 hereof:

(i) For filing, or filing and recording, of each instrument of writing, legal document, paper or record in an open Probate Docket after its first anniversary date: a fee of $4.00

(ii) For approving and recording each bond relating only to an open Probate Docket after said Docket's first anniversary date, a fee of $3.00

(iii) For administering each oath relating to an open Probate Docket after said Docket's first anniversary date, a fee of $2.00

(c) For each adverse action or contest, other than the filing of a claim against an estate, in a clause or docket in a probate court, a fee to be due and payable and to be paid by the party or parties starting or initiating such adverse action or contest, but excluding other items listed in Paragraphs A, B, C and D of this Section 1, of $25.00

(d) For filing and entering each claim against an estate in the claim docket, a fee, to be paid by claimant at the time of filing such claim, of $2.00

C. Where no cause is pending, as is contemplated in Section 1, Paragraphs A and B hereof, the clerk shall charge as follows for the hereinafter listed services, for issuing (including recording of the returns thereon), each citation, notice, commission to take depositions, execution, order, writ, process, or any other instrument, document, or paper authorized, permitted; or required to be issued by said county clerk or said clerk of county courts on which a return must be recorded:

(i) For issuing each such instrument, document, or paper, including the original and one copy, and the recording of the return, a fee, to be paid at the time each order is placed, of $4.00

(ii) For issuing for the same docket at the same time more than one set of one original and one copy of the same instrument, document, or paper, including recording the return thereon, a fee, per set, to be paid at the time the order is placed, of $4.00

D. For issuing each certificate, certified copy, notice, statement, transcript, or any other instrument, document, or paper authorized, permitted; or required, to be issued by said county clerk or clerk of county courts on which there is no return to be recorded:

For each page, or part of a page, a fee, to be paid at the time each order is placed, of $1.00 plus $1.00 for the clerk's certificate.

However, nothing in this Act shall be construed to limit or deny to any person, firm, or corporation, full and free access to any papers, documents, proceedings, and records referred to in this Act, the right of such parties to read and examine the same, and to copy information from any microfilm or other photographic image, or other copy thereof under reasonable rules and regulations of the county clerk at all reasonable times during the hours the county clerk's office is open to the public, and without making payment of any charge, being hereby established and confirmed.

E. For issuing each Letter Testamentary, Letter of Guardianship, Letter of Administration and each Abstract of Judgment a fee of $ 2.00

F. For filing and keeping "Wills Held for Safekeeping", a fee, to be paid at the time said wills are filed, of $ 5.00

Sec. 2. If the final judgment has not been entered for a docket, or cause, in a county civil court on the date this Act becomes effective, the amount of costs for such docket, or cause, accruing to such effective date shall be paid in full before final judgment is filed or recorded, and no further costs shall accrue in each such docket, or cause, after said effective date, except that the fees specified in Paragraphs A(1)(a)(iii), A(1)(b), C, D, and E of Section 1, for items and services therein specified shall apply after said effective date to each of such dockets, or such causes, and shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of said paragraphs. If the final judgment has not been entered for a docket, or cause, or estate action, in a probate court on the date this Act becomes effective, the amount of costs for such docket, or cause, or estate action, accruing to such effective date shall be paid in full, and no further costs shall accrue, prior to the next anniversary date of such docket, or cause, or estate action, except that the fees specified in Section 1, Paragraphs B(1)(b), B(1)(c), B(1)(d), and C, D, and E of Section 1, for items and services therein specified shall apply after said effective date to such dockets, or such causes, or such estate actions, and shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of said paragraphs. Any deposit balance or balances left after applying all costs accrued through the date this Act becomes effective, including the adjustments stipulated hereinafore, for a docket, or cause, or estate action, except that the fees specified in Section 1, Paragraphs B(1)(b), B(1)(c), B(1)(d), and C, D, and E of Section 1, for items and services therein specified shall apply after said effective date to such dockets, or such causes, or such estate actions, and shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of said paragraphs. Any deposit balance or balances left after applying all costs accrued through the date this Act becomes effective, including the adjustments stipulated hereinafore, for a docket, or cause, or estate action, except that the fees specified in Section 1, Paragraphs B(1)(b), B(1)(c), B(1)(d), and C, D, and E of Section 1, for items and services therein specified shall apply after said effective date to such dockets, or such causes, or such estate actions, and shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of said paragraphs. Any deposit balance or balances left after applying all costs accrued through the date this Act becomes effective, including the adjustments stipulated hereinafore, for a docket, or cause, or estate action, except that the fees specified in Section 1, Paragraphs B(1)(b), B(1)(c), B(1)(d), and C, D, and E of Section 1, for items and services therein specified shall apply after said effective date to each of such dockets, without delay and all further fees and charges shall be paid for at the time of filing, or issuing, or otherwise becoming due and payable. Said clerk shall continue to collect, at the time said fees or costs accrue, or are earned, or are payable, all fees, or costs, authorized, or required, to be collected by said clerk, including, but not limited to: law library fees, county judge's fees, county judge's commissions, jury fees, and fees for state officials.

Art. 3930(c). Specifications for Legal Papers for Filing and for Recording

Sec. 1. (a) Each legal paper offered or presented to a county clerk and county recorder for filing or recording other than fees authorized in Article 3930(b), Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, should meet the requirements specified in Subsections (b) through (g) of this section.

(b) A page is defined as one side of a sheet of paper, no more than 8½ inches wide and 14 inches long, of sufficient weight and substance that printing or typing or handwriting thereon will not smear or "bleed-through," and the paper shall be suitable otherwise for reproducing from it a readable record by photocopy or photostatic or microphotographic process or processes used in the offices of county clerks.

(c) A clearly identifying heading, similar to the headings on most commercially supplied printed forms, shall be placed at the top of the first page to identify the type or kind of legal paper.

(d) Printing and typing and handwriting shall be clearly legible.

(e) Names shall be legibly typed or printed immediately under each signature.

(f) All photostats, photocopies, and other types of reproduction shall have black printing, typing, or handwriting on a white background, commonly known as positive prints.

(g) Riders and attachments shall not be larger than the size of the page as defined in this article. Not more than one rider or attachment shall be included in or attached to a page.

Sec. 2. (a) The filing fee or recording fee for each page of a legal paper which is offered or presented for filing or for recording to a county clerk or county recorder and which fails to meet the requirements for, or which is deficient in, one or more of the items specified in Section 1 of this article, shall be equal to twice the regular filing fee or recording fee provided by statute for that page.

(b) When a page of a legal paper has more riders or attachments than one, the filing fee or recording fee for each attachment in excess of one is twice the regular filing fee or recording fee provided by statute.

(c) When a page of a legal paper has one or more riders or attachments larger than the size of a page as defined in Section 1(b) of this article, the filing fee or recording fee for each oversize attachment is twice the regular filing fee or recording fee provided by statute for the attachment.

Art. 3933a. Sheriffs and Constables

(a) Sheriffs and Constables shall receive the following fees:

For each person, corporation or legal entity, on whom service of citation, subpoena, summons, or process not otherwise provided for, is performed or attempted and return made, including mileage, if any, a fee of

(a) Small Claims Courts $ 5.00
(b) Justice Courts $ 8.00
(c) All other Courts $10.00

For executing or attempting to execute each writ of garnishment, injunction writ, distress warrant, writ of attachment, writ of sequestration, writ of execution, order of sale, writ of execution and order of sale, or writ not otherwise provided for, and making return thereon including mileage, if any, a fee of

(a) Small Claims Courts $ 6.00
(b) Justice Courts $10.00
(c) All other Courts $12.00

For posting written notices in public places, as may be required by law, a fee for posting each location including mileage, if any $5.00

For the taking and approving of bonds as may be required by law, and returning same to the court as may be required, a fee of $6.00

For each case tried in District or County Court, a jury fee of $5.00

For executing a deed to each purchaser of real estate under execution or order of sale, a fee of $6.00

For executing a bill of sale to each purchaser of personal property under an execution or order of sale, when demanded by purchaser a fee of $6.00

Collecting money on an execution or an order of sale, when the same is made by a sale, for the first One Hundred Dollars ($100) or less, ten percent (10%); for the second One Hundred Dollars ($100), seven percent (7%); for all sums over Two Hundred Dollars ($200) and not exceeding One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), four percent (4%); for all sums over One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) and not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), two percent (2%); for all sums over Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), one percent (1%).

When the money is collected by the Sheriff or Constable without a sale, one-half (½) of the above rates shall be allowed him.

(b) An officer who is unable to effect service of a document referred to in Subsection (a) of this section may not return the document unexecuted prior to its expiration unless its return is requested by the court or by the litigant at whose request it was issued or by the litigant’s attorney.

(c) A Sheriff or Constable is not entitled to a fee under Subsection (a) of this section for the attempted service of citation, subpoena, summons, or process unless the officer who attempted to serve the instrument actually went to each place where the court or litigant requesting service directed that service be attempted and the officer was not able to find the person to be served at that place. In no case may a Sheriff or Constable be paid more than one fee under Subsection (a) of this section for attempted service of the same instrument, regardless of the number of times service is attempted.

Prior to repeal, art. 4075b was amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1336, ch. 499, §§ 1 to 7 and Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1855, ch. 580, §§ 1 to 3. Said Acts were incorporated into the Parks and Wildlife Code by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1212, ch. 456, §§ 13 and 20.
Art. 4101-2. Good Neighbor Commission

Creation of Commission; Members; Terms; Absence From Meetings

Sec. 1. There is hereby created the Good Neighbor Commission of Texas which shall be composed of nine (9) members, each of whom shall be a citizen of the United States and a resident of the State of Texas, and shall be appointed by the Governor with advice and consent of the Senate. Each member must have expertise in one or more of the following areas: international trade and tourism, industrial development, education and research, diplomacy, or Hispanic culture, law, sociology, economics, or language. Each two (2) years the Governor shall appoint three (3) members of this Commission for a term of six (6) years. No person shall be eligible to appointment to the Commission who has contributed more than $1,000 on behalf of the political candidacy of the Governor who makes the appointments under this Act, or to any political action committee supporting such candidacy. The appointments made under this Act shall be made without regard to race, creed, sex, religion, or national origin. Failure by any member to attend at least one-half of the regularly scheduled meetings of the Commission will cause his position on the Commission to be automatically vacated.

Open Meetings; Administrative Procedure

Sec. 1a. The Commission shall comply with all provisions of the state open meetings act, as amended (Article 6252-17, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 1b. The Good Neighbor Commission is subject to the Texas Sunset Act (Article 5429k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the commission is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1991.

[b]Powers[/b]

Sec. 4. (a) The Commission shall have the power to:

1) elect from its members a chairman and other such officers as it may be deemed desirable. All officers of the Commission shall serve as such only during the pleasure of the Commission;
2) hold such meetings at such times as the Commission may designate;
3) appoint committees from its membership and prescribe their duties;
4) appoint consultants and committees to the Commission;
5) make rules and regulations for its government and that of its officers and committees; and prescribe the duties of its officers, consultants and employees. If the appropriate standing committees of both houses of the legislature acting under Section 5(g), Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, transmit to the Commission statements opposing adoption of a rule under this section, the rule may not take effect;
6) provide information to individuals and governmental entities about the nations of the Western Hemisphere and their citizens and about Texans of Hispanic heritage for the purpose of advancing inter-American understanding and goodwill;
7) provide language translation services to State agencies and other governmental entities and assist State agencies in disseminating information to the public about bilingual publications;
8) sponsor and provide administrative guidance to the Pan American Student Forum for the purpose of encouraging the study and appreciation of the peoples and nations of the Western Hemisphere and the multilingual and multicultural traditions of this State;
9) assist private, nonprofit organizations whose objectives are the establishment of friendly relations in inter-American affairs; and
(10) gather information, conduct investigations, and perform research relating to inter-American affairs and accept grants for this purpose.

(b) If requested to do so by the Governor, the Commission shall:

(1) gather information about matters of mutual interest to this State and the nations of the Western Hemisphere;

(2) maintain connections with the governors of nations of the Western Hemisphere and act as a source of information about State affairs for the consular corps stationed in this State;

(3) research, develop, or implement interstate compacts relating to relations between states sharing international borders or experiencing problems related to international borders;

(4) represent the Governor at public events, make arrangements for State officers to appear at public events, and receive dignitaries from Western Hemisphere countries;

(5) serve as protocol advisor or interpreter at meetings between State officers and officers of Western Hemisphere countries;

(6) gather information in cooperation with governmental entities and interagency task forces about the relationship between this State and Western Hemisphere countries or their citizens; and

(7) establish and maintain offices in Mexico to provide information to the people of Mexico about this State and to promote a mutually beneficial relationship between Mexico and this State.

(c) A member, executive director, or staff person of the Commission may not negotiate any agreement or contract with any individual or business entity from a foreign country or a foreign government unless the member, executive director, or staff person has the Commission’s prior approval to do so. An agreement or contract negotiated in accordance with this subsection is valid only after approval by the Commission.

Offices; Reports

Sec. 5. The Commission shall maintain its office in the City of Austin and shall hold at least one meeting each year in the city of Austin. On or before the first day of December of each year the Commission shall make in writing a complete and detailed report to the Governor and to the presiding officer of each House of the Legislature of its activities and shall include in the report an accounting of all funds received by the Commission, including funds received from the Pan American Student Forum or received for hospitality or special events.

Expenses

Sec. 6. Members of the Commission are entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in performing the functions of the Commission. Reimbursement to members shall be paid upon verified and itemized accounts approved by the chairman of the Commission. The necessary clerical and other expenses of the Commission shall be paid in like manner.

Deposit of Funds; Audit

Sec. 7a. (a) Except as provided by Subsection (b) of this section, funds received by the Commission shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

(b) Funds received by the Commission from the Pan American Student Forum, including funds received as part of a Pan American Student Forum scholarship program, shall be deposited in financial institutions selected by the Commission. The Commission shall administer the funds to finance activities, including scholarship programs, of the Pan American Student Forum.

(c) The Commission’s accounting books and records relating to funds deposited in financial institutions are subject to audit by the State auditor. The Commission shall furnish to the State auditor any information requested by the auditor for an audit.

Art. 4344. Certain Duties
Among other duties the Comptroller shall:
1. Procure a seal with words "Comptroller's Office, State of Texas" engraved around the margin and a five-pointed star in the center, which shall be used as the seal of his office to authenticate all his official acts, except warrants drawn on the State Treasury.
2. Adopt such regulations not inconsistent with the constitution and laws as he may deem essential to the speedy and proper assessment and collection of the revenues of the State.
3. Superintend the fiscal concerns of the State, as the sole accounting officer thereof, and manage the same in the manner required by law.
4. Require all accounts presented to him for settlement not otherwise provided for by law to be made on forms prescribed by him, all such accounts to be verified by affidavit as to their correctness, and he may administer the oath himself in any case in which he may deem it necessary.
5. Prescribe and furnish the form to be used by all persons in the collection of the public revenue and the mode and manner of keeping and stating their accounts.
6. Prescribe forms of the same class, kind and purpose so as to be uniform in size, arrangement, matter and form.
7. From time to time require all persons receiving money or having the disposition or management of any property of the State, of which an account is kept in his office, to render statements thereof to him.
8. Require all persons who have received and not accounted for any money belonging to the State to settle their accounts.
9. Keep and settle all accounts in which the State is interested, including all moneys received by the State as interest and other payments on land and office fees of his and other departments of the State government, and all other moneys received by the State from whatever source and for whatever purpose.
10. Examine and settle the accounts of all persons indebted to the State and certify the amount or balance to the Treasurer, and direct and superintend the collection of all moneys due the State.
11. Audit the claims of all persons against the State in cases where provision for the payment thereof has been made by law, unless the audit of any such claim is otherwise specially provided for.
12. Keep a book to register and index all audit-ed claims against the State, and on the meeting of the regular session of the Legislature make a minute report of the same to both houses thereof, giving the names and amounts of all audited claims.
13. Keep and state all accounts between this State and the United States.
14. Keep journals through which all entries are made in the ledger.
15. Remit or make an allowance to each tax collector in the auditing of his accounts for all sums of money which, in his judgment, have been illegally assessed.
16. Draw warrants on the Treasurer for the payment of all moneys directed by law to be paid out of the Treasury.
17. Suggest plans for the improvement and management of the general revenue.
18. Preserve the books, records, papers and other things belonging in his office and deliver the same in good condition to his successor.

19. Have the authority to accept federal moneys for any state agency not otherwise restricted by statute or by rider or special provision in the General Appropriations Act. These moneys may only be accepted if the agency has certified to the Comptroller the agency will be responsible for compliance with all applicable federal and state laws.

Section 7 of the 1979 amendatory act provided:

"On January 1, 1980, all books and records, property, and personnel in the office of the comptroller of public accounts that are involved or used in administration of ad valorem taxation are transferred to the State Property Tax Board. The state auditor shall resolve any dispute over what property, books, or records are subject to this section, and the auditor's decision is final."

Art. 4344c. Temporary Transfer of Surplus Cash

Sec. 1. The comptroller of public accounts, with the consent of the State Treasurer, may transfer surplus cash, excluding constitutionally dedicated revenues, between funds in the State Treasury. Those transfers are authorized to allow effective management of the cash flow of the General Revenue Fund and to avoid temporary cash deficiency in the General Revenue Fund. The comptroller shall return the surplus cash to the fund from which it was transferred as soon as practicable. The comptroller shall preserve the fund equity and the State Treasurer shall allocate the depository interest as if the transfers had not been made.

Sec. 2. If the comptroller submits a statement to the governor and to the legislature under Article III, Section 49a, of the Texas Constitution when surplus cash transferred under this article is in the General Revenue Fund, in that statement the comptroller shall indicate that the transferred surplus cash:

(1) is in the General Revenue Fund;
(2) is a liability of the General Revenue Fund; and
(3) is not available for appropriation by the legislature.

Art. 4348b. Taxpayer Assistance to Victims of Natural Disasters

The comptroller may assist any taxpayer in reconstructing and recouping business records that are damaged or destroyed by natural disaster.

Art. 4350. Warrants on Treasurer

No warrant shall be issued to any person indebted or owing delinquent taxes to the State, or to his agent or assignee, until such debt or taxes are paid.

Art. 4351b. Miscellaneous Claims

Comptroller of Public Accounts to Pay Miscellaneous Claims

Sec. 1. The comptroller shall pay, from available funds appropriated for that purpose, miscellaneous claims, including but not limited to state ad valorem tax refund claims, qualified under Section 3 of this Act.

Comptroller of Public Accounts to Maintain Records

Sec. 2. The comptroller shall maintain records of all transactions made under authority of this Act. The records must show

(1) the amount of each miscellaneous claim paid, the identity of each claimant, and the purpose for which each claim was made; and
(2) the identity of the fund or account against which the claim is to be charged.

Qualification of Claims

Sec. 3. (a) Under the authority of this Act the comptroller shall pay only those claims for which no appropriation otherwise exists.

(b) No warrant may be prepared for the payment of a miscellaneous claim until the claim has been

(1) verified and substantiated by the administrator of the special fund or account against which the claim is to be charged;
(2) audited by the state auditor; and
(3) verified by the attorney general as a legally enforceable obligation of the State of Texas.

Limitation

Sec. 4. (a) No single claim, nor any aggregate of claims by any single claimant, in an amount in excess of $10,000 may be paid during any biennium under the authority of this Act.

(b) For purposes of this section, all claims which were originally held by one person shall be considered as held by a single claimant, without regard to whether those claims were subsequently assigned or otherwise transferred.

Art. 4359. Pay Warrants Register

The Comptroller shall provide a pay warrant register for each class of pay warrants, each volume of which shall be appropriately designated by class, number or otherwise. When a pay warrant is prepared, it shall be registered in the pay warrant register for the class to which it belongs; and such registry shall consist of an entry of the amount of the warrant, name of the payee, appropriation to which charged, and such other information as may be deemed advisable by the Comptroller. After a warrant has been prepared and registered as herein provided it shall be checked against the claim, and the warrant number shall be entered on the claim papers. The initials of the person checking the warrant with the claim shall be written on both the warrant and the claim, and the warrant together with the claim upon which it is based shall be passed to the Comptroller for his signature, except as provided by Article 4359a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as added, or for the signature of such person as may be authorized by law to sign the same in his stead; and such warrant together with a copy of the warrant register shall then be passed to the State Treasury and registered in the Treasury, and signed, except as provided by Article 4359a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as added, by the State Treasurer or some person authorized by law to sign for him, and returned to the Comptroller's Department. Such warrant shall then be delivered by the Comptroller to the person entitled to receive it, and the Comptroller shall at his option take a receipt therefor and file the receipt in his office. The Comptroller shall also keep a "warrants cancelled register" in which shall be entered the details of all warrants cancelled.

It is hereby provided that a department, court, school, or other state agency may prepare and present payroll claims to the Comptroller prior to the end of the payroll period, which said payroll claims shall be verified by affidavit as to services theretofore actually performed within such payroll period prior to the date of such payroll claims; and such payroll claims need not be verified by affidavit as to any services to be performed during such payroll period subsequent to the date of such payroll claims. Such claims when so presented shall be prepared and approved as otherwise provided below. The Comptroller shall accept such payroll claim when presented and prepare warrants in payment thereof prior to date such claims become due and payable, and hold such warrants for delivery until the claims become due and payable. Such warrants shall be dated as of the due date of the claim and shall not be delivered to the claimant until the end of the pay period. The Treasurer is hereby authorized to countersign such warrants and to make such entry as to properly take them into account. In order that such warrants may be ready for delivery at the end of the pay period the Comptroller is authorized to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary for filing payroll claims in advance of the pay period, and for the preparation and writing of warrants in payment thereof to adequately and properly achieve such purpose.

One person shall be designated by the Comptroller as Chief of the Claims Division, and such person shall prepare or be responsible for the preparation of all pay warrants, and shall be accountable to the Comptroller for warrants coming into his possession. [Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 207, ch. 117, § 2, eff. May 9, 1979.]

Art. 4359a. Signature on Pay Warrants after Change in Office

If by resignation, death, or other reason a person ceases to hold or perform the duties of the office of comptroller or treasurer, existing stocks of pay warrants bearing that person's printed name, signature, or facsimile signature may be used in accordance with this section until they are exhausted. If they are used, the person holding or performing the duties of the office of comptroller shall cause them to be issued with a strike through the obsolete printed name, signature, or facsimile signature; with the printed name of the person currently holding or performing the duties of the office of comptroller or treasurer substituted for the obsolete name, signature, or facsimile signature; and with the following inscription: "Printed name authorized by law." The inscription shall appear on the warrants near the printed name of the person currently holding or performing the duties of the office of comptroller or treasurer.

Section 4 of the 1979 Act provided:

"Stocks of pay warrants that exist on the effective date of this Act and that contain the printed name, signature, or facsimile signature of a person who held or performed the duties of the office of comptroller or treasurer before the effective date of this Act may be used in accordance with this Act."

Art. 4365. Duplicate Warrants

The Comptroller, when satisfied that any original warrant drawn upon the State Treasurer has been lost, destroyed, or stolen, or that the payee's endorsement on the original warrant has been forged, or when any certificate or other evidence of indebtedness approved by the auditing board of the State has been lost, is authorized to issue a duplicate warrant in lieu of the original warrant or a duplicate or a copy of such certificate, or other evidence of indebtedness in lieu of such original; but no such duplicate warrant, or other evidence of indebtedness, shall issue until the applicant has filed with the Comptroller his affidavit, stating that he is the true owner of such instrument, and that the same is in fact lost, destroyed, or stolen, or that the payee's endorsement on the instrument has been forged, and shall also file with the Comptroller his bond in double the amount of the claim with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the Governor, to be approved by the Comptroller, and conditioned that the applicant will hold the State harmless and return to the Comptroller, upon demand at once, the warrant, if unpaid, or the amount paid out by the State, if so return to the Comptroller, upon demand mentioned that the applicant will hold the State harm­ nor, to be approved by the Comptroller, and condi­ ting the same. Provided, however, that any state agency, or federal agency, shall not be required to make bond for the issuance of duplicate warrants.
The head of such state agency or federal agency and one other person connected with the handling of warrants for such agency shall be required to make the affidavit for duplicate to issue in case of lost or destroyed warrant belonging to such agency. In the case of a stolen warrant or a warrant on which the payee's endorsement has been forged, if the Comtroller is satisfied that the warrant is in the possession of the appropriate law enforcement officials, and if the applicant is the same person as the payee, the Comptroller may issue the duplicate warrant without requiring a bond. Any entity, other than a law enforcement official, that has possession of a stolen warrant or a warrant on which the payee's endorsement has been forged shall immediately de­ deliver the warrant to the issuing agency or the Comtroller upon request. The agency or Comptroller shall then issue a receipt for the warrant. After the issuance of said duplicate or copy if the Comptroller should ascertain that the same was improperly issued, or that the applicant or party to whom the same was issued was not the owner thereof, he shall at once demand the return of said duplicate or copy if unpaid, or the amount paid out by the State, if so paid; and, upon failure of the party to return same or the amount of money called for, suit shall be instituted upon said bond in Travis County. The Comptroller shall adopt rules, regulations, and forms regarding the issuance of duplicate warrants.

Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 4366b. Federal Revenue Sharing Trust Fund
[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1
and 2]

Sec. 3. In order to insure that the State of Texas obtains the full benefit of the Federal Revenue Sharing Trust Fund, the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas is hereby authorized to invest any cash held in such fund, which is determined to be in excess of cash requirements for current expenditures, in United States Government securities, in direct obligations of or obligations the principal and interest of which are guaranteed by the United States of America, in direct obligations of or participation certificates guaranteed by the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank, Federal Land Banks, Federal National Mortgage Association, Federal Home Loan Banks, and Banks for Cooperatives, in savings and loans insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, in certificates of deposit of any bank or trust company the deposits of which are fully secured by a pledge of securities of any of the kind hereinabove specified, in any other securities made eligible for such investment by other laws and constitutional provisions, or in any combination of the foregoing.

Art. 4366c. School Taxing Ability Protection Fund

Sec. 1. The School Taxing Ability Protection Fund is established as a special fund in the state treasury. The fund may be appropriated to finance formulas designed to protect school districts against estimated revenue losses resulting from implementation of Article VIII, Sections 1-b(c), 1-b(d) and 1-d–1 of the Texas Constitution.

Sec. 2. Money appropriated from the School Tax­ing Ability Protection Fund shall be allocated to school districts on the basis of formulas, conditions, and limitations prescribed by law.

Sec. 3. As soon as possible, consistent with sound management of state funds, the comptroller shall transfer from the general revenue fund to the School Taxing Ability Protection Fund the sum of $450 million for use in the 1979–80 and 1980–81 school years.

Sec. 4. The Act takes effect only if and when the constitutional amendment proposed by H.J.R. No. 1, 65th Legislature, 2nd Called Session, 1978, is adopted.
[Added by Acts 1978, 65th Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 22, ch. 10, §§
1 to 4.]
H.J.R. No. 1 was adopted by vote of the people at an election held on Nov. 7, 1978.

CHAPTER THREE. STATE TREASURER

Art. 4371. Money Paid Out, How

The Treasurer shall countersign, except as provided by Article 4359a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as added, and pay all warrants drawn by the Comptroller on the Treasury which are authorized by law. No money shall be paid out of the Treasury except on the warrants of the Comptroller, and no warrant shall be paid by the Treasurer unless presented for payment within two years from the close of the fiscal year in which such warrant was issued, but claims for the payment of such warrants may be presented to the Legislature for appropriations to be made from which such claims may be paid.

HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS

Art. 4375. Employes

The Treasurer shall appoint a First Assistant who shall be required to give bond with a good and solvent surety company authorized to do business in this State, in the sum of twenty-thousand dollars, payable to and to be approved by the Governor, and conditioned as is the bond of the State Treasurer, and shall appoint such other employes and clerks as may be authorized by law. All such employes, whether clerks or otherwise, who, as a part of their duties, handle any money, drafts, checks, bills of exchange, warrants, or securities or other evidences of debt which are, or may be, convertible into money, shall give bond with a good and solvent surety company authorized to do business in this State, payable to the Treasurer in such sum as he may require, conditioned that he or she will faithfully execute and perform the duties of his or her position. The Treasurer shall employ security officers to provide needed security services at the Treasury Department and may commission the officers as peace officers. The security officers shall give bond in the same manner required by this Article of employes who handle money as part of their duties. The cost and expense incident to the execution of the bond of the First Assistant and of the bonds of the respective employes shall be paid by the State by appropriation.

Art. 4376. First Assistant To Act

Whenever the Treasurer from sickness, unavoidable absence or other cause is not able to act, the first assistant shall sign except as provided by Article 4359a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as added, his own name as "Acting Treasurer" and do such other acts and things as the State Treasurer himself might legally do. The legal acts and signatures of such first assistant as Acting Treasurer, shall be as valid as the acts and signatures of the Treasurer himself.

[Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 207, ch. 117, § 2, eff. May 9, 1979; Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 505, ch. 235, § 2, eff. May 17, 1979.]

Art. 4381a. Time and Demand Deposit Records and Annual Reports

Sec. 1. The state treasurer shall maintain accurate records of the daily balances of, and the interest income from, funds deposited by the state treasurer or the state depository board in time and demand deposit accounts in each bank acting as a state depository. The treasurer shall maintain and preserve these records according to the provisions of the Preservation of Essential Records Act (Article 5441d, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and of Chapter 424, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973 (Article 6252-17a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Sec. 2. The treasurer annually shall make a complete report to the legislature and the governor concerning the amounts of interest income earned on funds deposited by the state treasurer or the state depository board in each bank acting as a state depository. The report shall contain the following: (a) the name of each bank serving as a state depository during the fiscal year; (b) for each bank, the balance at the beginning of the fiscal year, the balance at the end of the fiscal year, and the average daily balance in demand deposit accounts placed by the state treasurer or the state depository board; (c) for each bank, the balance at the beginning of the fiscal year, the balance at the end of the fiscal year, and the average daily balance in time deposit accounts placed by the state treasurer or the state depository board, and the amount of interest income earned on these accounts; and (d) the totals of these amounts aggregated for all state depositories.

Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1405, ch. 545, repealing these articles, enacts the Parks and Wildlife Code.

Art. 4386c-1. Disposition of Money Collected or Received by the Department of Agriculture

Sec. 1. Regardless of any other law previously enacted, all money collected or received by the Texas Department of Agriculture shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

Sec. 2. The unexpended and unencumbered balance of the Special Department of Agriculture Fund on September 1, 1977, is transferred to the General Revenue Fund.

Sec. 3. This Act takes effect September 1, 1977.

Art. 4388. Daily Statement from Departments

The State Treasurer shall receive daily from the head of each Department, each of whom is specifically charged with the duty of making same daily, a detailed list of all persons remitting money the status of which is undetermined or which is awaiting the time when it can finally be taken into the Treasury, together with the actual remittances which the Treasurer shall cash and place in his vaults or in legally authorized depository banks, if the necessity arises. The report from the General Land Office shall include all money for interest, principal and leases of school, university, asylum and other lands. A deposit receipt shall be issued by the Comptroller for the daily total of such remittances from each Department; and the cashier of the Treasurer's Department shall keep a cash book, to be called "suspence cash book," in which to enter these deposit receipts, and any others issued for cash received for which no deposit warrants can be issued, or when their issuance is delayed. As soon as the status of money so placed with the Treasurer on a deposit receipt is determined, it shall be transferred from the suspense account by placing the portion of it belonging to the State in the Treasury by the issuance of a deposit warrant, and the part found not to belong to the State shall be refunded. When deposit warrants are issued, they shall be entered in this cash book, as well as any refunds, and the balance shall represent the aggregate of the items still in suspense. Refunds shall be made in a manner similar to that in present use, except that separate series of warrants shall be used for making such refunds, to be called "refund warrants," and such warrants shall be written and signed, except as provided by Article 4359a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as added, by the Comptroller and countersigned, except as provided by Article 4359a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as added, by the Treasurer and charged against the suspense funds to which they apply. Such warrants shall then be returned to the Comptroller and delivered to the person entitled to receive them.

Art. 4393a. Trust Funds

Sec. 1. All moneys and other securities placed in the hands of the State Treasurer in trust for any legal purpose shall be received by the State Treasurer on a deposit receipt issued by the State Comptroller as provided in Article 4354, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended by House Bill No. 495, Chapter 243, Acts of the Regular Session, 42nd Legislature. Such moneys or other securities shall be held in trust by the State Treasurer in like manner as the Departmental Suspense Account is held under Article 4888, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended by House Bill No. 493, Chapter 242, Acts of the Regular Session, 42nd Legislature. Such moneys or other securities shall be withdrawn by trust and suspense draft in the case of money, and withdrawal authorization in the case of other securities, which instruments shall be issued serially and signed, except as provided by Article 4359a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as added, by the State Comptroller. Any and all monies received in trust, or for any legal purpose for which a state deposit warrant has not or cannot immediately be issued, shall be handled by the Treasurer in the same manner as items deposited in departmental suspense accounts. All moneys and securities now held in trust in the State Treasury shall immediately be transferred to the trust and suspense section of the state's accounting, and henceforth transferred, refunded or disposed of according to the provisions of this Act. Adequate registers, ledgers and files shall be maintained by the State Treasurer, and by the State Comptroller, to account for the receiving and disposing of all trust and suspense moneys and other securities, which registers and ledgers shall be known as "Trust and Suspense Record."

1 Article 4379c.

CHAPTER FOUR. ATTORNEY GENERAL

Art. 4399. Whom to Advise

The Attorney General at the request of the Governor, or the head of any department of the State government, including the heads and boards of penal and eleemosynary institutions, and all other State boards, regents, trustees of the State educational institutions, committees of either branch of the Legislature, county auditors authorized by law, and the chairman of the governing board of any river authority, shall give them written advice upon any question touching the public interest, or concerning their official duties. He shall advise the several district and county attorneys of the State, in the prosecution and defense of all actions in the district or inferior courts, wherein the State is interested, whenever requested by them, after said attorney shall have investigated the question, and shall with such question, also submit his brief. He shall advise the proper legal authorities in regard to the issuance of all bonds that the law requires shall be approved by him. He is hereby prohibited from giving legal advice or written opinions to any other than the officers or persons named herein.

Art. 4405. Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 568, ch. 226, § 1, eff. May 20, 1975

Art. 4412b. Defense of District Judge, Grand Juror or Commissioner

(a) The Attorney General of Texas is responsible for defending a state district judge in any action or suit in the federal courts in which the judge is a defendant because of his office as district judge if the district judge requests the attorney general's assistance in the defense of the suit.

(b) The attorney general is responsible for defending a state grand jury commissioner or a state grand juror in an action or suit in the federal courts in which the commissioner or the juror is a defendant if:

(1) the suit involves an act of the defendant while in the performance of his duties as a grand jury commissioner or a grand juror; and

(2) the commissioner or the juror requests the attorney general's assistance in the defense of the suit.

4413a–8a. Application of Sunset Act
4413a–14A. Subpoenas Issued by Committee.
4413a–14B. Service of Subpoena; Enforcement.
4413a–14C. Compensation of Witnesses.

Art. 4413a–7b. Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 591, ch. 242, § 7, eff. May 20, 1975
See, now, art. 413b.

Art. 4413a–8a. Application of Sunset Act

The Legislative Audit Committee is subject to the Texas Sunset Act;¹ and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the committee is abolished effective September 1, 1989.

Art. 4413a–14. Examination of State Departments; Reports; Recommendations

In addition to the other duties provided for the State Auditor, he shall thoroughly examine all departments of the State Government with special regard to their activities and the duplication of efforts between departments and the quality of service being rendered by subordinate employees in each of the several departments.

Upon completing the examination of any department, he shall furnish the chief executive officer and governing body thereof with a report of, among other things, (a) the efficiency of the subordinate employees; (b) the status and condition of all public funds in charge of such department; (c) the amount of duplication between work done by the departments so examined and other departments of the State Government; (d) the expense of operating the department; (e) breaches of trust and duty, if any, by an officer, department, institution, board, bureau, or other custodian or disbursing officer of public funds; (f) any suggested changes looking toward economy and reduction of number of clerical and other employees, and the elimination of duplication and inefficiency. Copies of each report shall be filed with the Governor, the Lieutenant-Governor, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Secretary of State, and each member of the Legislature.

The State Auditor shall file an annual report with the Governor; copies of such report shall be filed with the Speaker of the House, the Lieutenant-Governor, and in the office of the Secretary of State. Such annual report shall contain, among other things, copies of, or the substance of reports made to the various departments, bureaus, institutions, and boards, as well as a summary of changes made in the system of accounts and records thereof.

Reports shall also contain specific recommendations to the Legislature for the amendment of existing laws or the passage of new laws designed to improve the functioning of various departments, boards, bureaus, institutions or agencies of State Government to the end that more efficient service may be rendered and the cost of government reduced.

All recommendations submitted by the State Auditor shall be confined to those matters properly coming within his jurisdiction, which is to see that the laws passed by the Legislature dealing with the expenditure of public moneys are in all respects carefully observed, and that the attention of the Legislature is directed to all cases of violation of the law and to those instances where there is need for change of existing laws or the passage of new laws to secure the efficient spending of public funds. The State Auditor shall not include in his recommendations to the Legislature any recommendations as to the sources from which taxes shall be raised to meet the governmental expense.

All reports by the State Auditor shall call attention to any funds, which, in his opinion, have not been expended in accordance with law or appropriations by the Legislature; and shall make recommendations to the Legislature as to the manner or form of appropriations, which will avoid any such improper expenditure of money in the future.

Each of the auditings herein provided for shall be made and concluded as directed by the Legislative Audit Committee, and in accordance with the terms of this Act; but shall be concluded and reports thereof made not later than thirty (30) days before the convening of each Regular Session of the Legislature. The Committee shall direct the Auditor to make any special audit or investigation that in its judgment is proper or necessary to carry out the purpose of this Act, or to assist the Legislature in the proper discharge of its duties.

The Committee shall direct the printing or mimeographing of such number of any reports as it thinks necessary and proper.

All reports filed by the Secretary of State shall be open to public inspection.

Art. 4413a-14A. Subpoenas Issued by Committee
(a) At the request of the state auditor or on its own motion the Legislative Audit Committee may subpoena witnesses or any books, records, or other documents reasonably necessary to carrying out an examination under this Act.¹
(b) Each subpoena must be signed by the chairman or secretary of the committee.

Art. 4413a-14B. Service of Subpoena; Enforcement
(a) On the request of the chairman or secretary, the sergeant-at-arms or an assistant sergeant-at-arms of either house of the legislature or any peace officer shall serve a subpoena issued under this Act.¹
The officer shall serve the subpoena in the same manner as a subpoena issued by a district court is served.
(b) If the person to whom a subpoena is directed fails to comply, the committee may bring suit in the district court to enforce the subpoena. If the court determines that good cause exists for the issuance of the subpoena, the court shall order compliance. The court may modify the requirements of a subpoena that the court determines are unreasonable. Failure to comply with the order of the district court is punishable as contempt.

Art. 4413a–14C. Compensation of Witnesses
The Legislative Audit Committee may provide for the compensation of subpoenaed witnesses. The amount of compensation may not exceed the amount paid to a witness subpoenaed by a district court in a civil proceeding.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1]

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 1a. The Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education is subject to the Texas Sunset Act;¹ and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the commission is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1987.

Powers of Commission

Sec. 2. The Commission shall have the authority and power to:

(a) Promulgate rules and regulations for the administration of this Act including the authority to require the submission of reports and information by any state, county, or municipal agency within this state which employs peace officers.

(b) Establish minimum educational, training, physical, mental and moral standards for admission to employment as a peace officer:

(1) in permanent positions, and

(2) in temporary or probationary status.

(c) Certify persons as being qualified under the provisions of this Act to be peace officers or to be jailers or guards of county jails.

(d) Certify persons as having qualified as law enforcement officer instructors under such conditions as the Commission may prescribe.

(e) Establish minimum curriculum requirements for preparatory, in-service and advanced courses and programs for schools or academies operated by or for the state or any political subdivisions thereof for the specific purpose of training peace officers or recruits for the position of a peace officer or for training jailers and guards of county jails or recruits for those positions.

(f) Consult and cooperate with counties, municipalities, agencies of this state, other governmental agencies, and with universities, colleges, junior colleges, and other institutions concerning the development of peace officer training schools and programs of courses of instruction.

(g) Approve, or revoke the approval of, institutions and facilities for schools operated by or for the state or any political subdivision thereof for the specific purpose of training peace officers or jailers and guards of county jails or recruits for those positions, and issue certificates of approval to such institutions and revoke such certificates of approval.

(h) Operate schools and facilities thereof and conduct courses therein, both preparatory, in-service, basic and advanced courses, for peace officers and recruits for the position of peace officer as the Commission may determine.

(i) Contract with other agencies, public or private, or persons, as the Commission deems necessary for the rendition and affording of such services, facilities, studies and reports as it may require to cooperate with municipal, county, state and federal law enforcement agencies in training programs, and to otherwise perform its functions.

(j) Make or encourage studies of any aspect of law enforcement, including police administration.

(k) Conduct and stimulate research by public and private agencies which shall be designed to improve law enforcement and police administration.

(l) Employ an Executive Director and such other personnel as may be necessary in the performance of its functions.

(m) Visit and inspect all institutions and facilities conducting courses for the training of peace officers and recruits for the position of peace officer and make evaluations as may be necessary to determine if they are complying with the provisions of this Act and the Commission's rules and regulations.

(n) Adopt and amend rules and regulations, consistent with law, for its internal management and control.

(o) Accept any donations, contributions, grants or gifts from private individuals or foundations or the federal government.

(p) Report annually to the Governor and to the Legislature at each regular session on its activities, with its recommendations relating to any matter within its purview, and make such other reports as it deems desirable.

(q) Meet at such times and places in the State of Texas as it deems proper; meetings shall be called by the Chairman upon his own motion, or upon the written request of five members.

(r) Establish procedures for the revocation of certificates issued to a peace officer or to a jailer or a guard of a county jail under the provisions of this Act.

Reserve Officers; Minimum Standards; Probationary Appointments

Sec. 2A. (a) The Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education shall establish minimum training standards for all reserve law enforcement officers.

tionary reserve law enforcement officer who fails to complete the required training within the probationary period must be removed from the position and may not be reappointed on a probationary basis unless 12 months have passed since the date of removal from the position and the Commission approves reappointment. The probationary period expires six months after the date of the original appointment except that:

(1) if a probationary reserve law enforcement officer is enrolled in and attending approved law enforcement training at the end of the six-month period, the probationary period is extended until the reserve law enforcement officer completes or ceases to attend the training course; and

(2) if a probationary reserve law enforcement officer is appointed in a regional planning commission area in which no approved course is offered during the six-month period, the probationary period is extended until the date the first course in that area is offered and, if the reserve law enforcement officer enrolls in and attends the course, until the date on which the reserve law enforcement officer completes or ceases to attend the course.

(c) The Commission shall establish minimum physical, mental, educational, and moral standards for all reserve law enforcement officers.

Reporting Standards and Procedures

Sec. 2B. (a) The Commission shall establish such reporting standards and procedures for matters of employment and termination of peace officers by law enforcement agencies, for matters concerning the activities of certified training academies, and for other matters it deems necessary for the administration of this Act.

(b) The Commission shall furnish each agency and certified training academy with the required reporting forms.

(c) The chief administrative officer of a law enforcement agency or certified training academy shall be responsible for compliance with the reporting standards and procedures.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 3 to 5]

Peace Officers; Tenure; Probationary Appointments; Training

Sec. 6.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 6(a)]

(b) A person who has not satisfactorily completed preparatory training in law enforcement at a school that is operated by or approved by the Commission is eligible to be appointed as a peace officer only on a probationary basis. A probationary peace officer who fails to complete the required training within the probationary period must be removed from office and may not be reappointed on a probationary basis unless 12 months have passed since the date of removal from office and the Commission approves reappointment. The probationary period expires six months after the date of the original appointment except that:

(1) if a probationary peace officer is enrolled in and attending approved law enforcement training at the end of the six-month period, the probationary period is extended until the peace officer completes or ceases to attend the training course; and

(2) if a probationary peace officer is employed in a regional planning commission area in which no approved course is offered during the six-month period, the probationary period is extended until the date the first course in that area is offered and, if the peace officer enrolls in and attends the course, until the date on which the peace officer completes or ceases to attend the course.

(c) In addition to the requirements of Subsection (b) of this section, the Commission, by rules and regulations, may establish other qualifications for the employment of peace officers, including minimum age, education, physical standards, citizenship, good moral character, experience, and such other matters as relate to the competence and reliability of persons to assume and discharge the responsibilities of peace officers, and the Commission shall prescribe the means of presenting evidence of fulfillment of these requirements. No person shall be appointed as a peace officer unless, before appointment, the Commission certifies that he is qualified to be a peace officer. A person desiring Commission certification must file an application with the Commission in accordance with Commission rule.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 6(d)]

(e) Any person who accepts appointment as a peace officer, or any person who appoints or retains an individual as a peace officer, in violation of Subsections (b) or (c) of this section or in violation of Section 7A of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00).

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 6(f) and 6(g)]

(h) "Peace officer," for the purposes of this Act, means only a person so designated by Article 2.12, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, and by Section 51.212, Texas Education Code.

Revocation of Certificate

Sec. 6A. The Commission may revoke a certificate issued to a peace officer or to a jailer or guard of a county jail under the provisions of this Act if the Commission determines that the holder of the certificate has violated a rule, regulation, requirement, specification, or other standard established by the Commission. The Commission shall revoke a certificate issued to a peace officer or to a jailer or guard of a county jail under the provisions of this Act if the holder of the certificate is convicted in any state or federal court of a felony.

Training Programs for Peace Officers and Jailers

Sec. 7. (a) The Commission shall establish and maintain peace officer training programs and training programs in the operation of county jails to be conducted by its own staff or through such agencies and institutions as the Commission may deem appropriate.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 7(b)]

Peace Officer Qualifications; Psychological and Emotional Health

Text of section as added by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1140, ch. 546, § 1

Sec. 7A. (a) A person may not be certified by the Commission as qualified to be a peace officer or be appointed as a peace officer unless, before certification and appointment, the person is examined by a licensed psychologist or a licensed physician and is declared in writing by the psychologist or physician to be in satisfactory psychological and emotional health to be a peace officer. The psychologist's or physician's declaration is not public information.

(b) The examining psychologist or physician shall be selected by the agency desiring to appoint a person as a peace officer.

(c) The agency desiring to appoint a person as a peace officer shall forward a copy of the psychologist's or physician's declaration to the Commission with the person's application for Commission certification. The Commission shall keep the copy on file.

Jailers and Guards; Training Requirements; Exceptions; Temporary Appointees; Certification

Text of section as added by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1293, ch. 599, § 4

Sec. 7A. (a) A jailer or a guard of a county jail serving under permanent appointment before September 1, 1979, is not required to meet the requirements of Subsections (b) and (c) of this section as a condition of continued employment, nor does the failure of a jailer or guard to fulfill the requirements of this section make the person ineligible for a promotional examination for which the person is otherwise eligible. Those jailers and guards have satisfied the requirements of this section by their experience. Those jailers or guards are eligible to attend training courses in the operation of a county jail subject to the rules of the Commission. This subsection applies to a jailer or guard who was employed in a county jail before September 1, 1979, and whose employment was terminated before that date because of failure to satisfy educational standards adopted under Section 14, Chapter 480, Acts of the 64th Legislature, 1975 (Article 5115.1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), except that:

(1) this subsection does not apply to an individual who attempted to satisfy those standards by taking an examination and because he or she committed a dishonest act regarding the examination, failed to pass or was not permitted to complete the examination; and

(2) this subsection does not apply to an individual if he or she attempted to prove compliance with those standards with a forged document.

(b) After September 1, 1979, a person may not be appointed as a jailer or guard of a county jail, except on a temporary or probationary basis, unless the person has satisfactorily completed a preparatory program of training in the operation of a county jail at a school approved or operated by the Commission. A jailer or guard of a county jail who has received a temporary or probationary appointment on or after September 1, 1979, and who fails to satisfactorily complete a basic course in the operation of a county jail, as prescribed by the Commission, within a one-year period from the date of his original appointment, forfeits his position and shall be removed from the position. The temporary or probationary employment may not be extended beyond one year by renewal of appointment or otherwise, except that after the lapse of one year from the date of the person's forfeiture and removal, the sheriff may petition the Commission for reinstatement of the person to temporary or probationary employment.

(c) In addition to the requirements of Subsection (b) of this section, the Commission may make rules about other qualifications for a jailer or guard of a county jail, including minimum age, education, physical and mental standards, citizenship, good moral character, experience, and other matters that relate to competence and reliability. The Commission shall prescribe the means of presenting evidence of fulfillment of these requirements. A person may not be appointed as a jailer or guard of a county jail unless the person fulfills these requirements.

(d) The Commission shall issue a certificate to a person who has fulfilled the requirements of Subsections (b) and (c) of this section. An applicant who presents evidence required by the Commission's rules of satisfactory completion of a program or course of instruction in another jurisdiction that is equivalent in content and quality to that required by the Commission may be issued a certificate.

(e) A person who knowingly accepts appointment as a jailer or guard of a county jail or a person who knowingly appoints or retains an individual as a jailer or guard of a county jail who is not certified under this section commits an offense. An offense under this section is punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000.
Art. 4413(29aa)  HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS  2674

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 8]

Convicted Felons as Peace Officers, Jailers, or Guards

Sec. 8A. (a) No person who has been convicted of a felony under the laws of this state, another state, or the United States may be certified by the Commission as qualified to be a peace officer, or a jailer or guard at a county jail.

(b) Final conviction of a felony under the laws of this state, another state, or the United States disqualifies a person previously certified by the Commission as qualified to be a peace officer, or a jailer or guard at a county jail, and the Commission shall immediately revoke the certification of a person so convicted.

Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education Fund

Sec. 9B. (a) There is hereby created and established in the State Treasury a special fund to be known as the Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education Fund to be used by the Commission in administering this Act and performing other duties imposed on the Commission by law.

(b) The sum of One Dollar ($1.00) shall be paid as costs of court, in addition to other taxable court costs, by any person convicted of any criminal offense. Convictions arising under the traffic laws of this state are specifically included as follows:

1. any offense defined in Chapter 173, Acts of the 47th Legislature, Regular Session, 1941, as amended (Article 6687b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); and

2. any offense defined in the Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways, as amended (Article 6701d, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), except Sections 34, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 93, 94, 95, 96, and 97 of that Act.

(c) Court costs due under this section shall be collected in the same manner as other fines or costs are collected in the case.

(d) The officer collecting the costs in a municipal court case shall keep separate records of the funds collected as costs under this section, and shall deposit the funds in the municipal treasury. The officer collecting the costs in a justice, county, and district court case shall keep separate records of the funds collected as costs under this section, and shall deposit the funds in the county treasury.

(e) All officers collecting court costs under this section shall file the reports required by Articles 1001 and 1002, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1925.

(f) The custodians of the municipal and county treasuries shall keep records of the amount of funds on deposit collected under this section, and shall on the tenth day of December, March, June and September of each year remit to the Comptroller of Public Accounts the funds collected under this section during the preceding quarter. Each city and county collecting funds under this section is hereby authorized to retain five percent (5%) of the funds collected by them as a service fee for said collection.

(g) The Comptroller of Public Accounts shall deposit the funds received by him under this section in the Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education Fund.

(h) The Comptroller of Public Accounts shall, on requisition of the Commission, draw warrants from time to time on the State Treasury for the amount specified in the requisition, not exceeding, however, the amount in the fund at the time of making a requisition. All money expended by the Commission in the administration of this Act and in performing the duties otherwise imposed upon it by law, shall be specified and determined by itemized appropriation in the general appropriations bill for the Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education, and not otherwise. At the end of each state fiscal year, any unused portion of the money in this special fund, except those funds theretofore appropriated to the Commission to administer this Act and to perform the duties otherwise imposed on it by law for the next fiscal year, shall be paid into the state General Revenue Fund.

(i) This Act takes effect September 1, 1977.

Art. 4413(29bb). Private Investigators and Private Security Agencies Act

(21) "Registration" means a permit granted by the board to an individual to perform the duties of a private investigator, manager, or branch office manager.
(22) "Registrant" means an individual who has filed an application with the board to perform the duties of a private investigator, manager, or branch office manager.
(23) "Handgun" has the meaning given in Section 46.01(5), Penal Code.
(24) "Director" means the director of the Texas Board of Private Investigators and Private Security Agencies.
(25) "Alarm systems response runner" means a person who responds to the first signal of entry.

Exceptions
Sec. 3. (a) This Act does not apply to:
(1) a person employed exclusively and regularly by one employer in connection with the affairs of an employer only and where there exists an employer-employee relationship; provided, however, any person who shall carry a handgun in the course of his employment shall be required to obtain a private security officer commission under the provisions of this Act;
(2) an officer or employee of the United States of America, or of this State or a political subdivision of either, while the employee or officer is engaged in the performance of official duties;
(3) a person who has full-time employment as a peace officer as defined by Article 2.12, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, who receives compensation for private employment on an individual or an independent contractor basis as a patrolman, guard, or watchman if such person is:
(a) employed in an employee-employer relationship; or
(b) employed on an individual contractual basis;
(c) not in the employ of another peace officer; and
(d) not a reserve peace officer;
(4) a person engaged exclusively in the business of obtaining and furnishing information for purposes of credit worthiness or collecting debts or ascertaining the financial responsibility of applicants for property insurance and for indemnity or surety bonds, with respect to persons, firms, and corporations;
(5) an attorney-at-law in performing his duties;
(6) admitted insurers, insurance adjusters, agents, and insurance brokers licensed by the State, performing duties in connection with insurance transacted by them;
(7) a person who engages exclusively in the business of repossessing property that is secured by a mortgage or other security interest;
(8) a locksmith who does not install or service detection devices, does not conduct investigations, and is not a security service contractor;
(9) a person who owns and installs burglar detection or alarm devices on his own property or, if he does not charge for the device or its installation, installs it for the protection of his personal property located on another's property, and does not install the devices as a normal business practice on the property of another;
(10) an employee of a cattle association who is engaged in inspection of brands of livestock under the authority granted to that cattle association by the Packers and Stockyards Division of the United States Department of Agriculture;
(11) the provisions of this Act shall not apply to common carriers by rail engaged in interstate commerce and regulated by state and federal authorities and transporting commodities essential to the national defense and to the general welfare and safety of the community;
(12) registered professional engineers practicing in accordance with the provisions of the Texas Engineering Practice Act;¹
(13) a person whose sale of burglar alarm signal devices, burglary alarms, television cameras, still cameras, or other electrical, mechanical, or electronic devices used for preventing or detecting burglary, theft, shoplifting, pilferage, or other losses is exclusively over-the-counter or by mail order;²

Text of subsection as added by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 518, ch. 242, § 1

(14) a person who holds a license or other form of permission issued by an incorporated city or town to practice as an electrician and who installs fire or smoke detectors in no building other than a single family or multifamily residence.

Text of subsection as added by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 2179, ch. 830, § 3

(14) a person or organization in the business of building construction that installs electrical wiring and devices that may include in part the installation of a burglar alarm or detection device if:
(A) the person or organization is a party to a contract that provides that the installation will be performed under the direct supervision of and inspected and certified by a person or organization licensed to install and certify such an alarm or detection device and that the licensee assumes full responsibility for the installation of the alarm or detection device; and

(B) the person or organization does not service or maintain burglar alarms or detection devices; or

(15) response to a burglar alarm or detection device by a law enforcement agency or by a law enforcement officer acting in an official capacity.

(b) Licensees and employees of licensees under the provisions of this Act shall not be required to obtain any authorization, permit, franchise, or license from or pay any other fee or franchise tax to or post a bond in any city, county, or other political subdivision of this State to engage in business or perform any service authorized under this Act.

(c) Except as otherwise specifically provided in this subsection, no city, county, or other political subdivision of this State shall impose any charge, service charge, fee, or any other type of payment for the use of city, county, or other public facilities in connection with businesses or services rendered by the licensees under this Act, except that any city or town may levy and collect reasonable charges for the use of central alarm installations located in a police office, that is owned, operated, or monitored by such city or town. Provided further, that any city or town may require discontinuation of service of any alarm signal device which, because of mechanical malfunction or faulty equipment, causes at least five false alarms in any 12-month period. Such city or town may cause the disconnection of any such device until the same is repaired to the satisfaction of the appropriate municipal official, and the city or town may levy and collect reasonable inspection fees in connection therewith. "Mechanical malfunction" and "faulty equipment" shall not relate, for the purposes of this section, to false alarms caused by human error or an act of God.

(d) Although under the provisions of this Act the security department of a private business that hires or employs an individual in the capacity of a private security officer to possess a handgun in the course and scope of his duties is required to make application for a security officer commission for the individual according to the provisions of this Act, the security department of a private business shall not be required to make application to the board for any license under this Act.

1 Article 5429k.

SUBCHAPTER B. ADMINISTRATION

Creation of Board

Sec. 4. (a) A Texas Board of Private Investigators and Private Security Agencies is created to carry out the functions and duties conferred on it by this Act.

(b) The position of director of the Texas Board of Private Investigators and Private Security Agencies is created. He shall serve as chief administrator of the board. He shall not be a member of the board, but shall be a full-time employee of the board, fully compensable in an amount to be determined by the Legislature. The director shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by the board, and shall have no financial or business interests, contingent or otherwise, in any security services contractor or investigations company.

(c) All legal process and all documents required by law to be served upon or filed with the board shall be served or filed with the director at the designated office of the board. All official records of the board or affidavits by the director as to the content of such records shall be prima facie evidence of all matters required to be kept by the board.

(d) The Texas Board of Private Investigators and Private Security Agencies is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1981.

Board Membership

Sec. 5. The board is composed of the following members:

(1) the director of the Texas Department of Public Safety or his designated representative shall serve as an ex officio member of such board, and such service shall not jeopardize the individual’s official capacity with the State of Texas;

(2) the Attorney General or his designated representative shall serve as an ex officio member of such board, and such service shall not jeopardize the individual’s official capacity with the State of Texas;

(3) one city or county law enforcement officer shall be appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate;

(4) two members shall be appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, who are citizens of the United States and residents of the State of Texas; and

(5) three members shall be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, who are licensed under this Act, who have been engaged for a period of five consecutive years as a private investigator or security services contractor, and who are not employed by the same person as any other member of the board.

1 Article 5429k.
Art. 4413(29bb)  HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS  2678

Oath of Office

Sec. 6. (a) The members of the board appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate shall take the constitutional oath of office before an officer authorized to administer an oath within this state.

(b) Upon presentation of the oath, together with the certificate of appointment, the secretary of state shall issue commissions to appointees as evidence of their authority to act as members.

Terms of Office

Sec. 7. (a) The appointed members of the board serve staggered six-year terms, and the terms of two appointed members expire on January 31 of each odd-numbered year. Each appointed member shall hold office until his successor is appointed and has qualified.

(b) The director of the Department of Public Safety and the attorney general, or their representatives, serve on the board during their terms of office and shall perform the duties required of members of the board by this Act in addition to those duties required of them in other official capacities.

Vacancies

Sec. 8. The governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall fill vacancies occurring among appointed members of the board with appointments for the duration of the unexpired term.

Designated Representatives

Sec. 9. (a) The Attorney General and the director of the Department of Public Safety may delegate to a personal representative from their respective offices the authority and duty to represent them on the board.

(b) The designated representative may exercise all of the powers, duties, and responsibilities of the member while engaged in the performance of official board business, but a member is responsible for the acts and decisions of his delegated representative.

Compensation of Board Members

Sec. 10. The members of the board shall serve without pay but shall be reimbursed for their necessary and actual expenses. The number of employees and the salaries of each shall be fixed in the General Appropriations Bill.

Rules of Procedure and Seal

Sec. 11. (a) The board shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) to determine the qualifications of licensees, registrants, and commissioned security officers as provided in this Act;

(2) to investigate alleged violations of the provisions of this Act and of any rules and regulations adopted by the board;

(3) to promulgate all rules and regulations necessary in carrying out the provisions of this Act after giving 30 days' notice to interested parties of proposed rules and regulations and an opportunity for the parties to express their views and be represented by an attorney;

(4) to establish and enforce standards governing the safety and conduct of persons licensed, registered, and commissioned under the provisions of this Act; and

(5) to provide for grievances and appeal procedures for persons whose license, registration, or security officer commission is revoked or suspended, or who is denied an application for a license, registration, or security officer commission, or who has received any other penalty or sanction by the board.

(b) The board shall have a seal, the form of which it shall prescribe.

Subpoenas and Injunctions

Sec. 11A. (a) In the conduct of any investigation conducted under the provisions of this Act, the board may issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of pertinent books, accounts, records, and documents. The officer conducting a hearing may administer oaths and may require testimony or evidence to be given under oath.

(b) No witness is privileged to refuse to testify to any fact, or to produce any paper, respecting which he is properly examined by the officer conducting the hearing. Any person called upon to testify or to produce papers upon any matter properly under inquiry by the board, who refuses to so testify or produce papers upon the ground that his testimony or the production of papers would incriminate him or tend to incriminate him, shall nevertheless be required to testify or to produce papers, but when so required under these objections he is not subject to indictment or prosecution for any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he truthfully testifies or produces evidence.

(c) If a witness refuses to obey a subpoena or to give any evidence relevant to proper inquiry by the board, then the board may petition a district court of the county in which the hearing is held to compel the witness to obey the subpoena or to give the evidence. The court shall immediately issue process to the witness and shall hold a hearing on the petition as soon as possible. If the witness then refuses, without reasonable cause or legal grounds, to be examined or to give any evidence relevant to proper inquiry by the board, the court shall punish the witness for contempt.
(d) Investigators employed by the board are authorized to take statements under oath in any investigation of a matter covered by this Act.

(e) The board may sue in district court to enjoin a violation of this Act. The attorney general shall represent the board in injunction actions.

Sec. 11B. (a) The board may revoke or suspend any registration, license, or security officer commission, reprimand any registrant, licensee, or commissioned security officer, or deny an application for a registration, license, or security officer commission, or renewal thereof on proof:

(1) that the applicant, licensee, commissioned security officer, or registrant has violated any provisions of this Act or of the rules and regulations promulgated under this Act;

(2) that the applicant, licensee, commissioned security officer, or registrant has committed any act resulting in conviction of a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude;

(3) that the applicant, licensee, commissioned security officer, or registrant has practiced fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation;

(4) that the applicant, licensee, commissioned security officer, or registrant has made a material misstatement in the application for or renewal of a license, registration, or security officer commission;

(5) that the applicant, licensee, commissioned security officer, or registrant has demonstrated incompetence or untrustworthiness in his actions.

(b) The board shall, before acting under Subsection (a) of this section provide 30 days' written notice to the applicant, licensee, commissioned security officer, or registrant of the charges and give him an opportunity to request a hearing before the board and be represented by an attorney. A hearing shall be scheduled by the board on such request.

(c) In the event that the board denies the application for, or revokes or suspends any license, security officer commission, or registration, or imposes any reprimand, the board's determination shall be in writing and officially signed. The original copy of the determination when so signed, shall be filed with the board and copies shall be mailed to the applicant, licensee, commissioned security officer, or registrant, and the complainant within two days after the filing.

(d) The board may suspend any registration on conviction in this state or any other state or territory of the United States, or in any foreign country, of a felony for a period not exceeding 30 days pending a hearing and a determination of charges. If the licensee is a corporation, proof of actual participation and knowledge on the part of the registrant is required. If the hearing is adjourned at the request of the registrant, the suspension may be continued for an additional period of the adjournment.

Organization and Meetings of the Board

Sec. 12. (a) The board shall meet within 30 days after the effective date of this Act, and thereafter at regular intervals to be decided by a majority vote of the board.

(b) The board, including the representative of the director of the Department of Public Safety if he so designates one, shall elect from among its members a chairman, vice-chairman, and secretary to serve two-year terms commencing on September 1, of each odd-numbered year. The chairman, or in his absence, the vice-chairman, shall preside at all meetings of the board and perform the other duties prescribed in this Act.

(c) A majority of the board constitutes a quorum to transact business.

(d) At the first meeting, the board shall specify the date and place of the first examinations for licenses to be held.

SUBCHAPTER C. LICENSES

License Required and False Representation Prohibited

Sec. 13. (a) It shall be unlawful and punishable as provided in Section 44 of this Act for any person to engage in the business of, or perform any service as an investigations company, guard company, alarm systems company, armored car company, courier company, or guard dog company or to offer his services in such capacities or engage in any business or business activity required to be licensed by this Act unless he has obtained a license under the provisions of this Act.

(b) It is unlawful and punishable as provided in Section 44 of this Act for any person to represent falsely that he is employed by a licensee or represent falsely that he is licensed, registered, or commissioned.

(c) It shall be unlawful and punishable as provided in Section 44 of this Act for any individual to make application to the board as manager or to serve as manager of an investigations company, guard company, alarm systems company, armored car company, courier company, or guard dog company unless the individual intends to maintain and maintains that supervisory position on a daily basis for the company.

Qualifications

Sec. 14. (a) An applicant for a license or his manager must:

(1) be at least 18 years of age;

(2) be a citizen of the United States;
Art. 4413(29bb)  HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS  2680

(3) not have been convicted in any jurisdiction of any felony or any crime involving moral turpitude for which a full pardon has not been granted;

(4) not have been declared by any court of competent jurisdiction incompetent by reason of mental defect or disease and has not been restored;

(5) not be suffering from habitual drunkenness or from narcotics addiction or dependence;

(6) not have been discharged from the armed services of the United States under other than honorable conditions;

(7) be of good moral character;

(8) be in compliance with any other reasonable qualifications that the board may fix by rule.

(b) An applicant who applies for a license to engage in the business of an investigations company or his manager shall have three (3) years consecutive experience prior to the date of said application in the investigative field, as an employee, manager, or owner of an investigations company or other requirements as shall be set by the board. The experience of the applicant must be reviewed by the board or by the director, and determined to be adequate to qualify the applicant to engage in the business of an investigations company.

(c) An applicant who applies for a license to engage in the business of a security services contractor or his manager shall have two (2) consecutive years experience prior to the date of said application in each security services field for which he applies, as an employee, manager, or owner of a security services contractor or other requirements as shall be set by the board. The experience of the applicant must be reviewed by the board or by the director, and determined to be adequate to qualify the applicant to engage in the business of a security services contractor.

Application and Examination

Sec. 15. (a) An application for a license under this Act shall be in the form prescribed by the board. The application shall include:

1. the full name and business address of the applicant;

2. the name under which the applicant intends to do business;

3. a statement as to the general nature of the business in which the applicant intends to engage;

4. a statement as to the classification under which the applicant desires to be qualified;

5. the full name and residence address of each of its partners, officers, and directors, and its manager, if the applicant is an entity other than an individual;

6. two recent photographs of a type prescribed by the board of the applicant, if the applicant is an individual, or of each officer and of each partner or shareholder who owns a 25 percent or greater interest in the applicant, if the applicant is an entity;

7. one classifiable set of fingerprints of the applicant, if the applicant is an individual, or of each officer and of each partner or shareholder who owns a 25 percent or greater interest in the applicant, if the applicant is an entity;

8. a verified statement of his experience qualifications in the particular field of classification in which he is applying;

9. a letter from the police department and a letter from the sheriff's department of the city and county wherein the applicant resides concerning the character of the applicant and containing any objection or recommendation as to his application; and a letter from the Texas Department of Public Safety setting forth the record of any convictions of any applicant for a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude; and

10. any other information, evidence, statements, or documents as may be required by the board.

(b) An application for a license under this Act shall include the Social Security number of the one making application.

(c) The board may require an applicant or his manager to demonstrate qualifications in his field of classification by an examination to be determined by the board.

(d) Payment of the application fee prescribed by this Act entitles the applicant or his manager to one examination without further charge. If the person fails to pass the examination, he shall not be eligible for any subsequent examination except upon payment of the reexamination fee which shall be set by the board in an amount not in excess of the renewal fee for the license classification for which license application was originally made.

Classification of License

Sec. 16. (a) No person may engage in any operation outside the scope of his license.

(b) For the purpose of defining the scope of licenses, the following license classifications are established:

1. Class A: investigations company license, covering operations as defined in Subdivision (3), Section 2, of this Act;

2. Class B: security services contractor license, covering operations as defined in Subdivision (9), Section 2, of this Act;

3. Class C: covering the operations included within Class A and Class B.
(c) A person licensed only as a security services contractor may not make any investigation except as incidental to the theft, loss, embezzlement, misappropriation, or concealment of any property which he has been hired or engaged to protect.

(d) A Class A, B, or C license does not authorize the licensee to perform any services for which he has not qualified. The board shall indicate on the license which services the licensee is authorized to perform, and the licensee may not perform any service not indicated on the license.

Fees

Sec. 17. (a) The fee for making application for an original Class A or Class B license is $150, and $75 of the fee is not refundable.

(b) The fee for making application for an original Class C license is $225, and $75 of the fee is not refundable.

(c) The fee for renewing an original license is the same as the original license fee.

(d) The fee to reinstate a suspended license is $100.

(e) The fee for an original branch office license as defined in Subdivision (20), Section 2 of this Act is $100. The renewal fee for a branch office license is $100.

(f) The fee for changing the business name of a licensee is $50.

(g) The delinquency fee for not renewing a license in the month prior to its expiration date is $100.

Manager to Control Business

Sec. 18. (a) The business of each licensee shall be operated under the direction and control of one manager, and no licensee shall make application to qualify more than one individual to serve as manager.

(b) No person shall act as a manager of a licensee until he has complied with each of the following:

1. demonstrated his qualifications by a written examination;

2. made a satisfactory showing to the board that he has the qualifications prescribed by Section 14 of this Act, and that none of the facts stated in Subsection (a), Section 11B, of this Act exist as to him.

(c) If the manager, who has qualified as provided in this section, ceases to be manager for any reason whatsoever, the licensee shall notify the board in writing within 14 days from such cessation. If notice is given, the license shall remain in force for a reasonable length of time to be determined by the rules of the board pending the qualifications as provided in this Act, of another manager. If the licensee fails to notify the board within the 14-day period, his license shall be subject to suspension or revocation.

(d) When the individual on the basis of whose qualifications a license under this Act has been obtained ceases to be connected with the licensee for any reason whatsoever, the business may be carried on for such temporary period and under such terms and conditions as the board shall provide by regulation.

(e) If a manager lacks the experience to qualify to manage all categories of service included in a license or application, a supervisor qualified as required in Subsection (b) of this section must be responsible for each service for which the manager is unqualified.

Handgun; Security Officer Commission

Sec. 19. (a) It is unlawful and punishable as provided in Section 44 of this Act:

1. for any person to hire or employ an individual or for any individual to accept employment in the capacity of a private security officer to carry a handgun in the course and scope of his duties unless the private security officer is issued a security officer commission by the board.

(b) The board, with the concurrence of the Texas Department of Public Safety, may issue a security officer commission to an individual employed as a uniformed private security officer provided the geographical scope of the security officer commission is restricted to one named county in the State of Texas and all counties contiguous to the named county, except as allowed in Subsection (c) of this section.

(c) The board, with the concurrence of the Texas Department of Public Safety, may issue a security officer commission to an individual employed as a private security officer if the board has not issued him a security officer commission under this section; or

2. for any person to hire or employ an individual to knowingly carry a handgun during the course of performing his duties as a private security officer if the board has not issued him a security officer commission under this section.

(d) The board, with the concurrence of the Texas Department of Public Safety, shall issue a security officer commission to a qualified employee of an armored car company that is a carrier that has a permit or certificate to conduct its business in accordance with the permit or certificate. A security officer commission issued to an employee of an armored car company shall be broad enough in its geographical scope to cover the county or counties in this state in which the armored car company has a permit or certificate to conduct its business.
(e) The employer of a private security officer who makes application for a security officer commission shall submit an application to the board on a form provided by the board. A $15 fee shall accompany each application for a security officer commission.

(f) No security officer commission may be issued to any individual who is under 18 years of age, who is a convicted felon, or who has committed any act which if committed by a licensee would be grounds for suspension or revocation of a license under this Act.

(g) The board shall send a copy of each application for a security officer commission to the Texas Department of Public Safety and to the sheriff of the county and the chief of police of the principal city of the county in which the applicant resides. A sheriff or chief of police who wishes to object to the issuance of a security officer commission to a particular applicant may do so by mailing or otherwise delivering a written statement of his objection and his reasons to the board. If the board decides to issue a security officer commission over the objections of a sheriff or chief of police, it shall mails a notice of its decision to the objecting officer and give him an opportunity to request a hearing before the board to contest the board’s decision. If the objecting officer files a request for a hearing within 30 days after the date the notice was mailed to him, the board shall set the matter for a hearing. The board may not issue a security officer commission over the objection of a sheriff or chief of police unless it finds at the hearing that there is good cause to issue the commission over the objection or, if no hearing is requested, until the time for requesting a hearing has passed.

(h) Each security officer commission issued under this section shall be in the form of a pocket card designed by the board, and shall identify the licensee or the security department of a private business by which a licensee or the security department of a private business may issue a temporary security officer commission to a private security officer who has made application to the board for a security officer commission.

(k) Subsection (a) of this section does not apply to the holder of a valid temporary security officer commission issued under this section if the holder is in uniform and in possession of only one handgun and engaged in the performance of his duties.

(I) The board may suspend or deny a security officer commission if the holder or applicant is indicted for a felony or for a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude.

Training Programs

Sec. 20. (a) The board shall establish training programs to be conducted by agencies and institutions approved by the board. The board may approve training programs conducted by licensees if the licensees offer the courses listed in Subsection (b) of this section, and if the instructors of the training program are qualified instructors approved by the board. The board shall approve a training program conducted by the security department of a private business to train its own personnel, without regard to its curriculum, if it is adequate for the business’ security purposes.

(b) The basic training course approved by the board shall consist of a minimum of 30 hours and shall include:

1. legal limitations on the use of handguns and on the powers and authority of a private security officer;
2. familiarity with this Act;
3. field note taking and report writing;
4. range firing and procedure, and handgun safety and maintenance; and
5. any other topics of security officer training curriculum which the board deems necessary.

(c) The board shall develop a commissioned security officer training manual to be used in the instructing and training of commissioned security officers.

(d) The board shall promulgate all rules necessary to administer the provisions of this section concerning the training requirements of this Act.

(e) The board may not issue a security officer commission to an applicant employed by a licensee unless the applicant submits evidence satisfactory to the board that:

1. he has completed the basic training course at a school or under an instructor approved by the board;
2. he meets all qualifications established by this Act and by the rules of the board;
3. he has satisfied his handgun training instructor that he has attained a minimum average marksmanship competency of 160 out of 300 on an "Army L" target or a minimum of 80 out of 150 on an F.B.I. Silhouette target (N.R.A. B-27), at 50 feet with 10 shots slow fire, 10 shots time fire, and 10 shots double-action.

(f) The board may not issue a security officer commission to an applicant employed by the security department of a private business unless the applicant submits evidence satisfactory to the board that:

(1) he has completed an approved training course conducted by the security department of the business; and

(2) he meets all qualifications established by this Act and by the rules of the board.

(g) In addition to the requirements of Subsections (e) and (f) of this section, the board, by rules and regulations, shall establish other qualifications for persons who are employed by licensees or the security department of a private business in positions requiring the carrying of handguns. These qualifications may include physical and mental standards, standards of good moral character, and other requirements that relate to the competency and reliability of individuals to carry handguns. The board shall prescribe appropriate forms and rules and regulations by which evidence that the requirements are fulfilled is presented.

(h) The board shall prescribe appropriate rules and regulations for the maintenance of records relating to persons issued security officer commissions by the board.

Psychological Testing

Sec. 20A. The board shall contract with one or more licensed psychologists practicing to study the feasibility of developing psychological and emotional standards of applicants for a private security officers commission and the possibility of developing an examination that will test those standards. If the examination can be validated, the board shall implement the examination by January 1, 1981. In the event no examination is being utilized by the board by January 1, 1981, it shall be incumbent upon the legislature to review this section.

Failure to Pass Psychological Test; Licensee or Private Business Security Department Held Harmless and Defense Provided

Sec. 20B. Should an applicant for a private security commission file legal action against a licensee or a security department of a private business as a result of failing to pass a psychological and emotional standards examination approved by the board, the State of Texas agrees to hold harmless and provide legal defense for the licensee or the security department of a private business.
his representative, any information he may acquire as to any criminal offense, but he shall not divulge to any other person except as he may be required by law so to do, any information acquired by him except at the direction of the employer or client for whom the information was obtained.

(b) No licensee or officer, director, partner, manager, or employee of a licensee shall knowingly make any false report to his employer or client for whom information was being obtained.

(c) No written report shall be submitted to a client except by the licensee, qualifying manager, or a person authorized by one or either of them, and such person submitting the report shall exercise diligence in ascertaining whether or not the facts and information in such a report are true and correct.

(d) No licensee or officer, director, partner, manager, or employee of a licensee shall use a title, or wear a uniform, or use an insignia, or use an identification card, or make any statement with the intent to give an impression that he is connected in any way with the federal government, a state government, or any political subdivision of a state government.

Employee Records

Sec. 29. Each licensee shall maintain a record containing such information relative to his employees as may be prescribed by the board.

Advertisements

Sec. 30. Every advertisement by a licensee soliciting or advertising business shall contain his company name and address and license number as they appear in the records of the board.

Branch Offices

Sec. 31. (a) Each licensee shall file in writing with the board the address of each branch office, and within 14 days after the establishment, closing, or changing of location of a branch office shall notify the board in writing of such fact.

(b) Upon application of a licensee the board shall issue a branch office license. The fee for a branch office license shall be $100; the fee for a renewal for such license shall be $100.

Registration of Employees or Private Investigators

Sec. 32. (a) Every employee of a licensee who is employed as a private investigator, manager, or branch office manager must be registered with the board within 14 days after the commencement of such employment.

(b) The minimum age of a person registered under this section shall be 18 years of age.

(c) The board may promulgate by rule any additional qualifications of an individual registered under this section as a private investigator, manager, or branch office manager.

Application for Registration

Sec. 33. The application for registration shall be verified and shall include:

(1) the full name, residence address, residence telephone number, date and place of birth, and the Social Security number of the employee;

(2) a statement listing any and all names used by the employee, other than the name by which he is currently known, together with an explanation setting forth the place or places where each name was used, the date or dates of each use, and a full explanation of the reasons why each such name was used. If the employee has never used a name other than that by which he is currently known, this fact shall be set forth in the statement;

(3) the name and address of the employer and the date the employment commenced and a letter from the licensee requesting that the employee be registered under his license;

(4) the title of the position occupied by the employee and a description of his duties;

(5) two recent photographs of the employee, of a type prescribed by the board, and two classifiable sets of his fingerprints;

(6) a letter from the police department and a letter from the sheriff's department of the city and county wherein the applicant resides concerning the character of the applicant and containing any objection or recommendation as to his application;

(7) such other information, evidence, statements, or documents, as may be required by the board.

Pocket Card

Sec. 34. A pocket card of such size, design, and content as may be determined by the board shall be issued to each registrant under this Act. The date of issuance shall be noted on such pocket card, and the date of expiration shall also be noted. Such pocket card shall contain a color photograph and signature of the registrant.

Undercover Agents: Exemption

Sec. 35. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, employees of a licensee who are employed exclusively as undercover agents shall not be required to register under this Act with the board.

Pocket Card: Annual Renewal

Sec. 36. The pocket card of each registrant expires on the date the license of the licensee who employs the registrant expires. On notification from the board the month before expiration of the registrant's pocket card, each registrant shall file for renewal of registration on a form designed by the board.

Pocket Card: Return

Sec. 37. When an individual to whom a pocket card has been issued under Section 32 of this Act terminates his position, he shall return the pocket card to the licensee within five days after his date of termination.

Cancellation

Sec. 38. Within seven days after the licensee has received the pocket card of a terminated registered employee, the licensee shall mail or deliver the pocket card to the board for cancellation, along with a letter from the licensee stating the date the registered employee terminated, the date the licensee received the pocket card of the terminated registered employee, and the cause for which or the conditions under which the registered employee terminated.

Registration Fee

Sec. 39. The registration fee for private investigators, managers, supervisors, and branch office managers required by this Act is $15. The annual renewal registration fee for private investigators, managers, and branch office managers required by this Act is $15.

Bonds and Insurance Filed for Licensee

Sec. 40. (a) No license shall be issued under this Act unless the applicant files with the board a surety bond executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this State in the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) conditioned to recover against the principal, its servants, officers, agents and employees by reason of its wrongful or illegal acts in conducting such business licensed under this Act; in addition to the surety bond required hereunder, every applicant for a license shall, prior to the issuance of the same, file with the board proof of a policy of public liability insurance in the sum of not less than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) conditioned to compensate any person for damages, including but not limited to bodily injuries, caused by wrongful acts of the principal, its servants, officers, agents and employees in the conduct of any business licensed by this Act.

(b) No license shall be issued under this Act unless the applicant files with the board proof of a policy of public liability insurance in the form of a certificate of insurance executed by an insurer authorized to do business in this state and countersigned by a local recording agent licensed in this state. The policy of public liability insurance shall be conditioned to pay on behalf of the licensee all sums which the licensee becomes legally obligated to pay as damages because of bodily injury, limit of liability Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000), property damage, limit of liability Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000), and personal injury, limit of liability Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000), caused by an occurrence involving the principal, its servants, officers, agents, or employees in the conduct of any business licensed under this Act.

Action on Bonds to Recover Damages

Sec. 41. The bond required by this Act shall be made payable to the State of Texas, and anyone so injured by the principal, its servants, officers, agents and employees, shall have the right and be permitted to sue directly upon this obligation in their own names, and this obligation shall be subject to successive suits for recovery until complete exhaustion of the face amount hereof.

Suspension for Failure to File Surety Bond or Insurance

Sec. 42. (a) Every licensee shall at all times maintain on file with the board the surety bond and certificate of insurance required by this Act in full force and effect and upon failure to do so, the license of such licensee shall be forthwith suspended and shall not be reinstated until an application therefor, in the form prescribed by the board, is filed together with a proper bond, insurance certificate, or both.

(b) The board may deny the application notwithstanding the applicant's compliance with this section:

(1) for any reason which would justify refusal to issue or a suspension or revocation of a license; or

(2) for the performance by applicant of any practice while under suspension for failure to keep his bond or insurance certificate in force, for which a license under this Act is required.

(c) Bonds executed and filed with the board pursuant to this Act shall remain in force and effect until the surety has terminated future liability by a 30-day notice to the board.

(d) Insurance certificates executed and filed with the board pursuant to this Act shall remain in force and effect until the insurer has terminated future liability by a 10-day notice to the board.

Cash Deposited in Lieu of Surety Bond

Sec. 43. The sum of $10,000 in cash may be deposited with the State of Texas, in lieu of the surety bond required by this Act.
Art. 4413(29bb)  HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS  2686

SUBCHAPTER D. ENFORCEMENT PROVISIONS
Penal Provisions

Sec. 44. Any person who knowingly falsifies the fingerprints or photographs submitted under Subdivisions (6) and (7) of Subsection (a), Section 15, is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than five years. Any person who violates any of the other provisions of this Act is guilty of a misdemeanor or punishable by fine not to exceed $500 or by imprisonment in the county jail. not to exceed one year, or both.

Expiration and Renewal of License

Sec. 45. (a) A license issued under this Act expires at 12 midnight on the last day of the 11th month after the month in which it is issued.

(b) Removal of a license shall not prohibit the bringing of disciplinary proceedings for an act committed before the effective date of the renewal.

(c) The renewal period for a license is the month preceding the month in which it expires.

Expiration Dates of Licenses; Proration of Fees

Sec. 46. The board by rule may adopt a system under which the expiration date of a license may be changed at renewal time so that a licensee may pay only that portion of the license renewal fee which is allocable to the number of months during which the license is valid. On renewal of the license on the new expiration date, the total license renewal fee is payable.

Activity During Suspension of License

Sec. 47. A suspended license is subject to expiration and shall be renewed as provided in this Act, but such renewal does not entitle the licensee, while the license remains suspended and until it is reinstated, to engage in the licensed activity, or in any other activity or conduct in violation of the order or judgment by which the license was suspended.

Reinstatement of a Revoked License

Sec. 48. A revoked license may not be reinstated.

Notification of Conviction for Felony or Crime Involving Moral Turpitude

Sec. 49. The Texas Department of Public Safety shall notify the board, and the police department and the sheriff's department of the city and county wherein any person licensed, commissioned, or registered under this Act resides of the conviction of such person for a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude.

Expiration of Licenses and New Licenses

Sec. 50. (a) A license which is not renewed within one year after its expiration may not be renewed, restored, reinstated, or reissued thereafter.

(b) The holder of the license may obtain a new license only on compliance with all of the provisions of this Act relating to the issuance of an original license.

Section 27 of Acts 1977, 65th Leg., ch. 746 provided: "A person licensed on the effective date of this Act may continue to offer the services he is currently offering without reappraisal or additional qualifications."

Section 2 of Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 519, ch. 242, provided: "Section 3(a), Private Investigators and Private Security Agencies Act (Article 4413(29bb), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as amended by this Act, does not affect any right or duty that matured, any penalty that was incurred, any civil or criminal liability that arose, or any proceeding that began before the effective date of this Act."

Section 2 of Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1042, ch. 471, provided: "Section 20(b), Private Investigators and Private Security Agencies Act (Article 4413(29bb), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as amended by this Act, applies only to an individual who completes a basic training course after the effective date of this Act."

Art. 4413(29cc). Polygraph Examiners Act

Sec. 5.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 5(a) to (d)]

(e) The Polygraph Examiners Board is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; 1 and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1981.

CHAPTER SEVEN. INTERGOVERNMENTAL COOPERATION

Article

Art. 4413(32). Interagency Cooperation Act

Sec. 4. Before any services may be rendered or received, a written agreement or contract shall be entered into, specifying the kinds and amounts of services to be rendered, the bases for calculating reimbursable costs, and the maximum amount of the costs during the time period covered by the agreement. In emergency situations for the defense or safety of the civil population, or in planning and preparation therefor, or in cooperative efforts, proposed by the Governor, for the economic development of the State, or where the amount involved is less than Three Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($350), no written contract or advance approval by the Board of Control is required. To be valid, the written agreement or contract must have the advance approval of the administrator of the State agencies which are parties thereto, and of the Board of Control.

Art. 4413(32a). Interagency Planning Councils

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1 to 3]

Sec. 4. (a) The Governor shall establish a Division of Planning Coordination within his office.

(b) Responsibilities of the Division of Planning Coordination.

(1) The Division shall coordinate the activities of the Interagency Planning Councils. The several councils may participate jointly in studies providing information common to all planning efforts.

(2) The Division shall serve as the State Clearinghouse on all state agency applications for federal grant or loan assistance, and shall be notified of all applications for federal grant or loan assistance prior to actual submittal of such applications.

(3) The Division may provide for the review and comment of all state plans of state agencies required as a condition for federal assistance and may provide for the review and comment on all state agency applications for grant or loan assistance.

(4) The Division shall establish policies and guidelines for the effective review and comment on such state plans and applications for federal grant or loan assistance.

(5) The Division shall cooperate with the Legislative Budget Board in developing information requirements pertaining to the review and comment process.

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 4a. The Texas Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; 1 and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the commission is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1983.

1 Article 5429k.

Membership; Duties

Sec. 5. The commission shall be composed of twenty-four appointed members and two ex officio members as follows: four county officials, four city officials, two public school officials, two representatives of other political subdivisions, two federal officials residing in Texas and responsible for federal programs operating in the State, and four private citizens all appointed by the Governor; three State Senators appointed by the Lieutenant Governor; three State Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House; and the Lieutenant Governor (ex officio) and Speaker of the House of Representatives (ex officio). The duties to be performed by each public official or employee appointed to the commission or serving ex officio shall be considered duties in addition to those otherwise required by that person's office.

Terms of Office; Vacancies; Records

Sec. 7. (a) Appointed members of the commission shall hold office for staggered terms of six years, with the terms of eight appointed members, including one Senator and one Representative, expiring on the first day of September in each odd-numbered year.

Art. 4413(32c). Interlocal Cooperation Act

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1 and 2]

Definitions

Sec. 3. As used in this Act:

(1) "local government" means a county; a home rule city or a city; village, or town organized under the general laws of this state; a special district; a school district; a junior college district; any other legally constituted political subdivision of the...
State of Texas or any adjoining state; or a combination of political subdivisions.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 3(2) to 3A]

Authority to Make Interlocal Contracts and Agreements

Sec. 4.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 4(a) to (c)]

(d) The contracting parties to any interlocal contract or agreement shall have full authority to create an administrative agency or designate an existing political subdivision for the supervision of performance of an interlocal contract or agreement and any administrative agency so created or political subdivision so designated shall have the authority to employ personnel and engage in other administrative activities and provide other administrative services necessary to execute the terms of any interlocal contract or agreement. For purposes of this Act any body politic and corporate organized under the laws of this state shall be considered a political subdivision.

(e) The contracting parties to any interlocal contract or agreement shall have full authority to contract with state departments and agencies as defined in Article 4413(32), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, or any similar department or agency of an adjoining state. The contracting parties to interlocal contract or agreement shall have specific authority to contract with the Department of Corrections for the construction, operation and maintenance of a regional correctional facility provided that title to the land on which said facility is to be constructed is deeded to the Department of Corrections and provided further that a contract is executed by and between all the parties as to payment for the housing, maintenance and rehabilitative treatment of persons held in jails who cannot otherwise be transferred under authority of existing statutes to the direct responsibility of the Department of Corrections.

(h)(1) By resolution of the governing body, a political subdivision of the state may contract with other political subdivisions of the state to participate in the ownership, construction, and operation of a regional jail facility. The regional jail shall be located within the geographic boundaries of one of the participating political subdivisions, but the regional jail need not be located in a county seat.

(2) Prior to acquisition and construction of the regional jail facility, bonds to finance the acquisition and construction of the facility shall be issued by the participating subdivisions in the manner prescribed by law for issuance of permanent improvement bonds.

(3) The participating political subdivisions may establish by agreement that the police chief or sheriff of the political subdivision in which the regional jail is located shall be appointed as jailer of the facility and shall have authority to supervise the operation and maintenance of the jail, that a committee composed of the sheriff or police chief of each participating political subdivision may be established to appoint a jailer to supervise the maintenance and operation of the jail, or that each police chief or sheriff may continue the supervision and responsibility over the prisoners he has incarcerated in the regional jail facility. The participating political subdivisions may also employ or authorize the jailer to employ additional personnel necessary to operate and maintain the facility.

(4) When an agreement is established pursuant to Subdivision (3) of this subsection, prisoners incarcerated in the regional jail shall be under the supervision of the person designated to have responsibility for the supervision of the regional jail. If a prisoner is transferred back to the originating political subdivision from a regional jail, the appropriate law enforcement official in the originating political subdivision shall assume supervision and responsibility for the prisoner.

(5) While a prisoner is incarcerated in a regional jail facility, a sheriff or police chief not assigned to supervise the regional jail is not liable for the escape of the prisoner or for any injury or damage caused by or to the prisoner unless the escape, injury, or damage is directly caused by the sheriff or police chief.

(6) A jailer in charge of a regional jail and any assistant jailers he may employ must be commissioned peace officers.

Emergency Assistance

Sec. 5A. (a) A local government may provide emergency assistance to another local government, regardless of whether the local governments have previously agreed or contracted to provide that kind of assistance, if:

(1) in the opinion of the presiding officer of the governing body of the local government desiring emergency assistance, a state of civil emergency exists in the local government that requires assistance from another local government and the presiding officer requests the assistance; and

(2) before the emergency assistance is rendered, the governing body of the local government that is to provide the assistance, by resolution or other official action, has authorized the local government to provide the assistance.

(b) This section does not apply to emergency assistance rendered by law enforcement officers under Section 2, Chapter 81, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969, as amended (Article 999b, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 6 to 8]

Section 4 of the 1975 amendatory act provided: “Any law in conflict with this Act is hereby repealed to the extent of the conflict.”

Art. 4413(32e). Joint Advisory Committee on Government Operations

Purpose

Sec. 1. The purpose of this Act is to promote the economical delivery of the services provided by state government by means of a comprehensive review of governmental structure and administration.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) “Committee” means the Joint Advisory Committee on Government Operations.

(2) “Departments and Agencies” means all departments, bureaus, agencies, boards, commissions, and other instrumentalities of the executive branch of the state government.

Creation of Committee

Sec. 3. There is created the Joint Advisory Committee on Government Operations.

Membership

Sec. 4. (a) The committee consists of the lieutenant governor, the speaker of the house of representatives, the secretary of state, and other members appointed as provided by this section.

(b) The governor shall appoint nine persons, none of whom may be members of the house or of the senate.

(c) The lieutenant governor shall appoint three members of the senate.

(d) The speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint three members of the house of representatives.

Terms and Vacancies

Sec. 5. (a) The initial members of the committee shall take office within 30 days after the effective date of this Act and shall serve until the expiration of the committee.

(b) Vacancies among the appointed members shall be filled for the unexpired terms in the same manner as the original appointments were made.

Compensation

Sec. 6. (a) Legislative members of the committee shall serve without additional compensation. Each member shall be reimbursed from the appropriate fund of the member’s respective house for travel, subsistence, and other necessary expenses incurred in performing the duties of the committee.

(b) Persons appointed pursuant to Section 4(b) of this Act shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel, subsistence, and other necessary expenses from appropriations made by the legislature to the committee.

(c) The duties to be performed by each public official or employee appointed to the committee shall be considered duties in addition to those otherwise required by that person’s office.

Officers

Sec. 7. The lieutenant governor shall serve as chairman of the committee. The speaker of the house of representatives shall serve as vice-chairman of the committee.

Quorum

Sec. 8. Ten members of the committee shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of business.

Duties

Sec. 9. The committee shall:

(1) examine and evaluate the organization and methods of operation of the departments and agencies of state government;

(2) develop proposals for improving the structure and administration of state government in order to assure the delivery of governmental services at the lowest possible cost;

(3) recommend policies and programs to minimize creation of new departments and agencies of state government and to control the growth of existing departments and agencies; and

(4) recommend suspension of government programs and services that duplicate and exceed in cost those same services offered by private business.

Powers

Sec. 10. The committee or any subcommittee of its membership designated by the chairman may:

(1) appoint and fix the compensation of necessary staff, including the retention of independent auditors;

(2) hold open hearings, take testimony, and administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses;

(3) secure directly from any department or agency of state government any information deemed necessary for the implementation of this Act;
Art. 4413(32e)  HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS  2690

(4) make findings and issue reports in the execution of the duties imposed by Section 9 of this Act.

Appropriations; Private Funds

Sec. 11. The legislature shall appropriate money necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act in the General Appropriations Act for the biennium ending August 31, 1977, or in special appropriation acts for the purpose. Private funds including public or private foundation funds may be used to defray the cost of conducting any of the affairs of the committee upon authorization by the committee.

Cooperation of Other Departments and Agencies

Sec. 12. (a) The Texas Legislative Council, the Legislative Budget Board, the Legislative Audit Committee, the Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations, and the Division of Planning Coordination shall, through their respective administrative officers, furnish staff assistance to the committee upon request.

(b) Each department and agency of state government is directed to furnish assistance and information to the committee upon request.

Reports; Recommendations; Dissolution

Sec. 13. The committee may make an interim report on its progress, together with any specific recommendations it may deem desirable, to any session of the 64th Legislature, and shall make its final report to the 65th Legislature not later than 30 days after that legislature is organized. Unless extended by the 65th Legislature, the committee is dissolved on May 31, 1977.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 949, ch. 357, §§ 1 to 13, eff. June 19, 1975.]

Art. 4413(32f). Closeup Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Texas Closeup Act.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) "Board" means the Texas Closeup Board;

(2) "Program" means the Texas Closeup Program.

Creation of Program

Sec. 3. The Texas Closeup Program is created. Under this program, 11th and 12th grade students and supervising teachers from participating school districts and private institutions may be brought to Austin in order to observe and evaluate state government.

Texas Closeup Board

Sec. 4. (a) Control of the program is vested in the Texas Closeup Board, which is composed of nine members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. The term of office of members is six years, and the terms shall be staggered at two-year intervals. In making the initial appointments, the governor shall designate three members for terms expiring on January 31 of each of the succeeding three consecutive odd-numbered years.

(b) Vacancies in the offices of members must be filled by appointment by the governor for the unexpired term.

(c) The board shall elect from among its members a chairman to serve for a term of one year.

(d) The board shall have its office in Austin.

(e) Members of the board serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in carrying out official duties.

(f) Five members constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

(g) The Texas Closeup Board shall expire on December 31, 1981, unless its existence is extended prior to that date by legislative action.

Duties of Board

Sec. 5. The board shall in conjunction with the board and executive officers of the Closeup Foundation:

(1) develop the tours, seminars, and other activities of the program;

(2) promulgate rules necessary for the administration of the program, including rules governing the eligibility requirements for participating students and the compensation to be provided supervising teachers;

(3) coordinate the program with the National Closeup Foundation;

(4) prepare and submit annually to the governor and legislature an operating budget; and

(5) solicit gifts, grants, and endowments from public and private sources.

Executive Director

Sec. 6. (a) The board shall employ an executive director and may delegate to him authority to manage and operate the affairs of the program subject to orders of the board.

(b) The director shall:

(1) serve as liaison with the board and executive officers of the Closeup Foundation;

(2) hire adequate staff to carry out the program;
(3) coordinate the program with administrators of participating school districts and private institutions;
(4) develop for board approval a plan to divide the state into regions and select regional coordinators for implementation of the program; and
(5) carry out the orders of the board in the administration and development of the program.

Texas Closeup Advisory Council

Sec. 7. (a) There is created the Texas Closeup Advisory Council, to be composed of the following members:

(1) the governor;
(2) the lieutenant governor;
(3) the secretary of state;
(4) the comptroller of public accounts;
(5) the treasurer;
(6) the commissioner of the General Land Office;
(7) the attorney general;
(8) the chairman of the Railroad Commission of Texas;
(9) the chief justice of the Supreme Court;
(10) the presiding judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals;
(11) the speaker of the house;
(12) two members of the senate, appointed biennially for two-year terms by the lieutenant governor;
(13) five members of the house of representatives, appointed biennially for two-year terms by the speaker of the house;
(14) the commissioner of education; and
(15) one representative from each teacher, school administrator, school board, or other professional organization involved in high school education, as determined by the board, appointed by the board for a term of two years.

(b) The governor or his designee from among the other members shall serve as chairman of the advisory council.

(c) The advisory council shall meet at least once a year and at other times it considers necessary.

(d) The advisory council shall advise and assist the board in the development and implementation of the program and shall recommend changes in the program considered necessary in order to improve its services and functions.

Grants and Gifts; No State Funds

Sec. 8. The board may accept and administer, without appropriation, grants and gifts from the federal government and from any foundation, trust fund, corporation, individual, or organization for the use and benefit of the program. No state funds may be specifically appropriated to support the program.

CHAPTER NINE. COMMISSIONS AND AGENCIES

Art. 4413(33a). Distribution of State Agency Publications

Secs. 1 to 3. [Amends § 17(e) of art. 5446a and art. 5442a; repeals art. 5442]

Definitions

Sec. 4. In this Act:

(1) “Person” means an individual, association, or corporation.

(2) “Publication” means printed matter containing news or other information. It includes magazines, newsletters, newspapers, pamphlets, and reports.

(3) “State agency” means any department, commission, board, office, or other agency that:

(A) is in the executive branch of state government;

(B) has authority that is not limited to a geographical portion of the state; and

(C) was created by the constitution or a statute of the state.

Publication Request Forms

Sec. 5. (a) Each state agency that distributes publications to any person or other state agency shall distribute a publication request form on request or with each copy of the last publication that it distributes before January 1 of each year.

(b) The publication request form provides a means of requesting a state agency’s publications.
Art. 4413(33a)  HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS  2692

(c) The comptroller of public accounts shall have the publication request forms printed and shall furnish the forms to each state agency that distributes publications. The comptroller shall furnish the forms in sufficient quantities to enable each state agency annually to distribute a form to each person or state agency that receives a publication.

Publication Distribution List

Sec. 6.  (a) If a state agency receives a completed publication request form or a written request for its publications, the agency may place the name of the requestor on its publication distribution list.

(b) A state agency shall compile a distribution list after January 1 of each year from the forms and written requests received for publications for that calendar year.

(c) A state agency may not place the name of a person, state agency, or other entity on the publication distribution list unless the distributing agency has received a completed publication request form or a written request for publications from that person, state agency, or other entity.

Distribution of Publications

Sec. 7.  Except as provided by Section 5 of this Act, a state agency may not distribute a publication to a person, state agency, or other entity unless the name of the person, agency, or entity appears on the distributing agency's publication distribution list.

Distribution to Those Not on the List

Sec. 8.  (a) A state agency may distribute a copy of a publication to a person, state agency, or other entity that is not listed on the publication distribution list if the person, agency, or entity:

(1) has orally or in writing requested a specific copy of a publication prior to or after this Act; or
(2) is a newly elected or appointed state officer, newly appointed executive head of a state agency, or newly established state agency.

(b) A state agency shall send to the Legislative Reference Library five copies of each publication that it distributes. The library shall make available to its users the publications of each state agency.

Filing the Publication Request List

Sec. 9.  Before March 1 of each year, each state agency that distributes publications shall file a copy of its publication distribution list with the comptroller of public accounts. When filed, the lists are public information.

Application

Sec. 10.  Sections 4 through 9 of this Act do not apply to the distribution of information that is required by law.

Effective Date

Sec. 11.  (a) Except as provided by Subsection (b) of this section, Sections 4 through 9 of this Act take effect September 1, 1979.

(b) Sections 7 and 8 of this Act take effect January 1, 1980.

Art. 4413(34).  Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2063, ch. 678, § 5, eff. June 20, 1975

The repealed article, creating the Mass Transportation Commission, was derived from Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1825, ch. 615.

See, now, arts. 6663b, 6663c.

Art. 4413(34a).  Coordination of Regulatory Agency Functions

Sec. 1.  In this Act, "regulatory agency" means a constitutionally or statutorily created department, commission, board, office, or other agency that:

(1) is in the executive branch of state government;
(2) has authority not limited to a geographical part of the state; and
(3) has authority to grant, deny, renew, suspend, or revoke a license, permit, certificate, registration, or other form of permission to engage in an occupation or to operate a business.

Sec. 2.  (a) Before a regulatory agency inspects, surveys, investigates, or requires a report to be filed by a regulated individual or business, the executive head of the agency shall determine if that agency's or another regulatory agency's previous inspection, survey, investigation, or reporting requirement has gathered information about the individual or business that substantially satisfies the present information need of the agency. If so, the regulatory agency may not inspect, survey, investigate, or require a report to be filed by the individual or business.

(b) The executive head of a regulatory agency, on request, shall release to the executive head of another regulatory agency any information not made confidential by statute and within the requesting regulatory agency's statutory jurisdiction about a regulated individual or business that it gathers in an inspection, survey, or investigation of the individual or business or in a report filed by the individual or business.

(c) The executive head of a regulatory agency shall coordinate its inspections, surveys, investigations, and reporting requirements within the agency and with those of other regulatory agencies to avoid the duplication of those functions.

Art. 4413(34b). Aircraft Pooling Act

Short Title
Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the State Aircraft Pooling Act.

Definitions
Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) "Agency" means an office, department, board, commission, institution, or other agency to which legislative appropriations are made. The term does not include any institution, component, or agency which owns and operates an airport approved by the Federal Aeronautics Administration.

(2) "Board" means the State Aircraft Pooling Board.

Board
Sec. 3. The State Aircraft Pooling Board is created.

Composition
Sec. 4. (a) The board is composed of:

(1) an appointee of the governor;

(2) an appointee of the lieutenant governor;

(3) an appointee of the speaker of the house of representatives;

(4) a representative of the State Board of Control designated from time to time by the chairman of the State Board of Control; and

(5) a representative of the State Auditor's Office designated from time to time by the state auditor.

(b) The three appointed members of the board hold office for staggered terms of six years, with the term of one member expiring on January 31 of each odd-numbered year. A vacancy shall be filled by the original appointing authority for the unexpired portion of the term.

(c) The representatives of the State Board of Control and the State Auditor's Office are ex officio, nonvoting members of the board and serve only in an advisory capacity.

Chairman, Meetings, etc.
Sec. 5. (a) The voting members of the board shall biennially elect one of them as chairman.

(b) The board shall adopt rules to govern the calling and holding of meetings and the conduct of business.

(c) Two voting members of the board constitute a quorum.

Staff
Sec. 6. The board may employ and compensate staff as provided by legislative appropriation or may utilize staff provided by the State Board of Control or the State Auditor's Office.

Aircraft Subject to Act
Sec. 7. All aircraft owned or leased by the state are subject to the provisions of this Act.

Aircraft Transferred to Board
Sec. 8. The custody, control, operation, and maintenance of all aircraft owned or leased by the state are transferred to the board.

Powers of Board
Sec. 9. (a) The board shall establish and operate a pool for the custody, control, operation, and maintenance of all aircraft owned or leased by the state. The board may purchase aircraft with funds appropriated for the purpose.

(b) The board by interagency contract may lease state-owned aircraft to an agency. The agency which was the prior owner or lessee of an aircraft shall have first option to lease that aircraft from the board. The lease may provide for operation or maintenance, or both, by the board or by the agency.

(c) Whenever funds appropriated to an agency may be expended for the lease of an aircraft, the lease must be executed by the board or approved by order of the board.

(d) To the extent that aircraft are available, the board shall provide transportation on request to state officers and employees who are traveling on official business; provided the agency leasing an aircraft shall be given first option on use of the aircraft except in cases of state emergency.

Facilities
Sec. 10. The board may acquire appropriate facilities for the accommodation of all aircraft owned or leased by the state. The facilities may be purchased or leased as determined by the board to be most economical for the state and as provided by legislative appropriations. The facilities may include adequate hangar space, an indoor passenger waiting area, a flight-planning area, communications facilities, and other related and necessary facilities. No state agency shall acquire such facilities without permission from the board.

Art. 4413(34c). Investment of Local Funds

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Local funds" means public funds in the custody of a state agency or political subdivision that are not required by law to be deposited in the state treasury and that the agency or subdivision has legal authority to invest.
(2) “State agency” means an office, department, commission, board, or other agency, including an institution of higher education or a river authority, that is a part of any branch of state government.

(3) “Political subdivision” means a county, incorporated city or town, or special purpose district.

Rules Governing Investment of Local Funds

Sec. 2. Each state agency or political subdivision shall adopt rules governing the investment of local funds of the agency or subdivision. The rules shall clearly specify the scope of authority of officers and employees of the agency or subdivision that are designated to invest the local funds.

Designation of Investment Officers

Sec. 3. (a) If an officer is not assigned the function by law, a state agency or political subdivision by rule, order, ordinance, or resolution shall designate one or more officers or employees of the agency or subdivision to be responsible for the investment of local funds.

(b) No person may deposit, withdraw, invest, transfer, or otherwise manage local funds of a state agency or political subdivision that are eligible for investment without express written authority of the governing body or chief executive officer of the agency or subdivision.

Internal Management Reports

Sec. 4. At least once each year, the investment officer of a state agency or political subdivision shall prepare a written report concerning the agency’s or subdivision’s local funds investment transactions for the preceding year and describing in detail the investment position of the agency or subdivision as of the date of the report. If the agency or political subdivision has two or more investment officers, those officers shall prepare the report jointly. The report shall be signed by each investment officer and shall be delivered to the governing body and the chief executive officer of the agency or subdivision.

Private Auditors

Sec. 5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a state agency shall employ private auditors if authorized to do so by the Legislative Audit Committee on its own initiative or upon request of the governing body of the agency.

Investment Rate of Return

Sec. 6. A state agency or political subdivision shall invest local funds in investments that yield the highest possible rate of return while providing necessary protection of the principal consistent with the operating requirements as determined by the governing body.
personnel or recruits for the position of fire protection personnel, and issue certificates of approval to such institutions and revoke such certificates of approval;

(8) operate schools and facilities thereof and conduct courses therein, both preparatory, in-service, basic, and advanced courses, for fire protection personnel and recruits for the position of fire protection personnel as the commission may determine;

(9) contract with other agencies, public or private, or persons, as the commission deems necessary for the rendition and affording of such services, facilities, studies, and reports as it may require to cooperate with municipal, county, state, and federal agencies in training programs, and to otherwise perform its functions;

(10) make or encourage studies of any aspect of fire protection, including fire administration;

(11) conduct and stimulate research by public and private agencies which shall be designed to improve fire protection and fire administration;

(12) employ an executive director and such other personnel as may be necessary in the performance of its functions;

(13) visit and inspect all institutions and facilities conducting courses for the training of fire protection personnel and recruits for the position of fire protection personnel and make evaluations as may be necessary to determine if they are complying with the provisions of this Act and the commission’s rules and regulations;

(14) adopt and amend rules and regulations, consistent with state law, for its internal management and control;

(15) accept any donations, contributions, grants, or gifts from private individuals or foundations or the federal government;

(16) report annually to the Governor and to the Legislature at each regular session on its activities, with its recommendations relating to any matter within its purview, and make such other reports as it deems desirable;

(17) meet at such times and places in the State of Texas as it deems proper, meetings to be called by the chairman upon his own motion, or upon the written request of five members; and

(18) establish minimum standards for protective clothing and equipment for fire protection personnel, with which every state, county, and municipal agency that employs fire protection personnel may comply.

Personnel Qualifications and Standards; Rules; Certificate; Penalty

Sec. 6.

(See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 6(a) to (g))

(h) The commission shall formulate and publish the requirements for certification as a marine fireman by September 1, 1978. After September 1, 1978, no person may be appointed as a marine fireman except on a probationary basis unless the person has completed training prescribed by the commission. A marine fireman who is appointed on a probationary basis after September 1, 1978, must complete the prescribed training within a two-year period from the date of appointment. Marine firemen serving under permanent appointment and with five or more years of service on September 1, 1978, have satisfied the training requirements by their experience. A marine fireman serving under permanent appointment and with less than five years of experience on September 1, 1978, must complete the prescribed training by September 1, 1980. For the purposes of this Act, a marine fireman is one who works for a fire department and aboard fireboats and fights fires which occur on or adjacent to a waterway, waterfront, channel, or turning basin.

(i) A person who accepts appointment as a marine fireman or a person who appoints a marine fireman in violation of Subsection (h) of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000.

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1.01 and 1.02]

Definitions

Sec. 1.03. In this Act, unless the context requires a different definition:

(1) “Motor vehicle” means every fully self-propelled vehicle which has as its primary purpose the transport of a person or persons, or property, on a public highway, and having two or more wheels.
[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1.03(2) to (7)]

(8) "Franchise" means one or more contracts under which (A) the franchisee is granted the right to sell new motor vehicles manufactured or distributed by the franchisor; (B) the franchisee as an independent business is a component of franchisor’s distribution system; (C) the franchisee is substantially associated with franchisor’s trademark, tradename and commercial symbol; (D) the franchisee’s business is substantially reliant on franchisor for a continued supply of motor vehicles, parts, and accessories for the conduct of its business; or (E) any right, duty, or obligation granted or imposed by this Act is affected.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1.03(9)]

(10) “Broker” means a person who, for a fee, commission, or other valuable consideration, arranges or offers to arrange a transaction involving the sale, for purposes other than resale, of a new motor vehicle, and who is not:
(A) a dealer or a bona fide agent or employee of a dealer;
(B) a representative or a bona fide agent or employee of a representative;
(C) a distributor or bona fide agent or employee of a distributor; or
(D) at any point in the transaction the bona fide owner of the vehicle involved in the transaction.

SUBCHAPTER B. ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS
[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 2.01]

Application of Sunset Act
Sec. 2.01a. The Texas Motor Vehicle Commission is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; 1 and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the commission is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1991.

1 Article 5429k.

Members of Commission
Sec. 2.02. The Commission shall consist of nine persons appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Qualifications of Members
Sec. 2.03. (a) Each member of the Commission shall be a citizen of the United States and a resident of this State. Five members shall be dealers, no two of which are franchised to sell the motor vehicles manufactured or distributed by the same person or a subsidiary or affiliate of the same person. Four members shall be persons from the public who are not licensed hereunder and who do not have, except as consumers, interests in any business that manufactures, distributes, or sells new motor vehicles. (b) The persons initially appointed to the Commission as dealer-members shall be persons whose principal occupation has been as franchised new motor vehicle dealers in this State for at least ten years. The dealer-members appointed to the Commission after the initial appointments are made shall be licensed dealers under this Act.

(c) The office of a member is automatically vacated and shall be filled as any other vacancy, if:
(1) the person is a dealer-member of the Commission and ceases to be a licensed dealer under this Act;
(2) the person is a public member of the Commission and acquires an interest in a business that manufactures, sells, or distributes new motor vehicles;
(3) the member becomes an officer, employee, or paid consultant of a trade association in the new motor vehicle industry; or
(4) a person related to the member within the second degree by consanguinity or affinity becomes an officer, employee, or paid consultant of a trade association in the new motor vehicle industry.

Terms of Members
Sec. 2.04. (a) Except as provided by Subsections (b) and (c) of this section, the members of the Commission shall hold office for terms of six years, with the terms of three members expiring on January 31 of each odd-numbered year. The Governor shall make the appointments in such a way that there are always four members on the Commission from the public at large. No person shall serve two consecutive full six-year terms as a member of the Commission.

(b) The Governor shall appoint the three additional members to the Commission before the 91st day after September 1, 1979, and shall designate one to serve a term expiring January 31, 1981, one for a term expiring January 31, 1983, and one for a term expiring January 31, 1985.

(c) A person holding office as a member of the Commission on September 1, 1979, continues to hold the office for which the member was originally appointed. The term of office succeeding a Commission member’s term that expires on September 1, 1979, expires on January 31, 1985. The term of office succeeding a Commission member’s term that expires on September 1, 1981, expires on January 31, 1987. The term of office succeeding a Commission member’s term that expires on September 1, 1983, expires on January 31, 1989.

(d) A term of office shortened under Subsection (c) of this section or the term expiring January 31, 1985, under Subsection (b) of this section is considered a full six-year term for the purpose of the prohibition against serving two consecutive full six-year terms as a member of the Commission.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 2.05 to 2.07]

Commission Meetings

Sec. 2.08. (a) The Commission shall hold a regular annual meeting in September of each year and elect a chairman and vice-chairman to serve for the ensuing year. The Commission shall have regular meetings as the majority of the members specifies and special meetings at the request of any two members. Reasonable notice of all meetings shall be given as Commission rules prescribe. A majority of the Commission, including at least two of the public members, shall constitute a quorum to transact business.

(b) The Commission is subject to the open meetings law, Chapter 271, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6252–17, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

Executive Director; Staff

Sec. 2.09. (a) The Commission shall employ an executive director who shall be the chief administrative officer of the Commission, who shall maintain all minutes of Commission proceedings, and who shall be custodian of the files and records of the Commission. The executive director shall employ the staff authorized by the Commission. The Commission may by interagency contract utilize assistance of any State agency.

(b) An employee of the Commission is subject to dismissal who has an interest, except as a consumer, or is related within the second degree by consanguinity or affinity to a person who has an interest, except as a consumer, in a business that manufactures, distributes, or sells new motor vehicles.

(c) A person who is required to register as a lobbyist under Chapter 422, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, as amended (Article 6252–9c, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), may not act as the general counsel to or serve as a member of the Commission.

Revenues

Sec. 2.10. (a) The Commission shall send all moneys received by it from license fees paid under this Act to the State Treasurer, who shall deposit them in the General Revenue Fund in the State Treasury.

(b) Before September 1 of each year, the Commission shall file a written report with the legislature and the Governor in which the Commission accounts for all funds received and disbursed by the Commission during the preceding year.

(c) The State Auditor shall audit the financial transactions of the Commission during each fiscal year.

SUBCHAPTER C. POWERS AND DUTIES

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 3.01]

Rules

Sec. 3.02. The Commission, after hearing, shall make, amend, and enforce rules reasonably required to effectuate the provisions of this Act and govern procedure and practice before the Commission. The Commission shall comply with the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act (Article 6252–13a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes). If the appropriate standing committees of both houses of the legislature acting under Section 5(g), Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as added (Article 6252–13a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), transmit to the Commission a statement opposing adoption of a rule under that section, the rule may not take effect or, if the rule has already taken effect, the rule is repealed effective on the date the Commission receives the committees’ statement.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 3.03]

Hearings

Sec. 3.04. (a) The Commission shall hear all contested cases, as defined in the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act (Article 6252–13a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), arising under this Act. The Commission may hold hearings, administer oaths, receive evidence, issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers and documents related to the hearing, and make findings of fact and decisions in administering the Act and the rules, orders, and other actions of the Commission.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 3.04(b) to 3.04(f)]

(g) All persons whose rights may be affected at any hearing shall have the right to appear personally and by counsel, to cross-examine adverse witnesses and to produce evidence and witnesses in their own behalf. If a hearing is not held before the whole Commission, such person shall have the right to appear before the Commission and present oral argument when the matter comes before them for decision.

(h) A retail buyer of a new motor vehicle may make a complaint concerning defects in a new motor vehicle which are covered by the warranty agreement applicable to the vehicle. Such complaint must be made by letter to the dealer, a copy of which shall be sent to the applicable manufacturer or distribu-
i) After the Commission schedules a hearing on a complaint made by a retail buyer under this section or by a licensed dealer under Section 4.06(c) of this Act, the Commission may cancel or adjourn the hearing if it determines, by an order entered on the records of the Commission, that the complaint was made for purposes of harassment of the dealer, the applicant, or the Commission.

(j) No dealer member of the Commission may participate in, deliberate on, hear, or consider, or decide any matter involving denial under Section 4.06(c) of this Act of an application to establish a dealership to sell the same motor vehicles manufactured or distributed by the same person or a subsidiary or affiliate of the same person for which the dealer member is franchised.

Enforcement; Contracts; Instruments

Sec. 3.05. The Commission shall conduct investigations and, if appropriate, shall cause legal proceedings to be instituted to enforce this Act and its rules, orders, and decisions, whenever the Commission has reason to believe, through receipt of a complaint or otherwise, that a violation of this Act or a Commission rule, order, or decision has occurred or is likely to occur. Should it appear from any investigation of a possible violation of any other law or regulation that a violation of this Act may have occurred, the matter shall be referred to the Commission to determine whether proceedings under this Act are also appropriate. The Commission may make contracts and execute instruments necessary or convenient to the exercise of its power or performance of its duties.

Complaint Status

Sec. 3.06. The Commission shall keep an information file about each complaint filed with the Commission. If a written complaint is filed with the Commission relating to a licensee under this Act, the executive director of the Commission, at least as frequently as quarterly, shall notify the persons involved of the status of the complaint until it has been resolved.

SUBCHAPTER D. LICENSES

License Required

Sec. 4.01. No person shall engage in business as, serve in the capacity of, or act as a dealer, manufacturer, distributor, or representative in this State without obtaining a license therefor as provided in this Act. All licenses shall expire one year from date of issue.

Expiration Dates of Licenses; Proration of Fees

Sec. 4.01A. The commission by rule shall adopt a system under which licenses expire, beginning in 1981, on various dates during the year. For 1981 only, license fees payable on the date of issuance shall be prorated on a monthly basis so that each licensee shall pay only that portion of the license fee which is allocable to the number of months during which the license is valid. On renewal of the license on the new expiration date, the total license fee is payable.

Notice of License Expiration

Sec. 4.01B. The Commission shall notify each person licensed under this Act of the date of license expiration and the amount of the fee required for license renewal. The notice shall be mailed at least thirty days before the date of license expiration.

Dealer Application

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 4.02(a) to (c)]

(d) A dealer licensed hereunder shall promptly notify the Commission of a change in ownership, location or franchise of a dealer, or any other matter the Commission may require by rule. Prior to a change in location of a dealership, a new license must be applied for as in any original application.

Manufacturer, Distributor and Representative Application

Sec. 4.03.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 4.03(a) and (b)]

(c) Each application for a manufacturer's license shall include an instrument setting forth the terms and conditions of all warranty agreements in force and effect on the products it sells in this State to ascertain the degree of protection afforded the retail purchasers of those products and the obligations of dealers in connection therewith as well as the basis for compensating dealers for labor, parts and other expenses incurred in connection with such manufacturer's warranty agreements including a statement of the manufacturer's compliance with Subdivision 9, Section 5.02 of this Act. In addition, all manufacturers shall specify on or with the application the delivery and preparation obligations of their dealers prior to delivery of a new motor vehicle to a retail purchaser and the schedule of compensation to be paid to dealers for the work and service performed by them in connection with such delivery.

Fees

Sec. 4.05. (a) The annual license fees for licenses issued hereunder shall be as follows:
(1) For each manufacturer and distributor, $300.00.
(2) For each dealer who sold more than 200 new motor vehicles during the preceding calendar year, $100.00.
(3) For each dealer who sold 200 or less new motor vehicles during the preceding calendar year, $50.00.
(4) For each representative, $25.00.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 4.06(b)]

Denial, Revocation or Suspension of License

Sec. 4.06. (a) The Commission may deny an application for a license or revoke or suspend an outstanding license, for any of the following reasons:

(1) Proof of unfitness of applicant or licensee under standards set out in this Act or in Commission rules.
(2) Material misrepresentation in any application or other information filed under this Act or Commission rules.
(3) Willful failure to comply with this Act or any rule promulgated by the Commission hereunder.
(4) Failure to maintain the qualifications for a license.
(5) Willfully defrauding any retail buyer to the buyer's damage.
(6) Willful violation of any law relating to the sale, distribution, financing, or insuring of new motor vehicles.
(7) Any act or omission by an officer, director, partner, trustee, or other person acting in a representative capacity for a licensee which act or omission would be cause for denying, revoking, or suspending a license to an individual licensee.
(8) Repeated failure to fulfill written agreements between the licensee and retail buyers of new motor vehicles.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 4.06(b)]

(c) The Commission may deny a dealer application to establish a dealership if the same line-make of new motor vehicle is then represented in the county in which the proposed dealership site is located, or in an area within 25 miles of the proposed dealership site, by a dealer who is in compliance with his franchise agreement with the manufacturer or distributor, is adequately representing the manufacturer or distributor in the sale and service of its new motor vehicles, and good cause is shown why an additional dealer license is not in the public interest, provided that the Commission shall consider the desirability of a competitive marketplace in all determinations made pursuant to this subsection.

Required Notice to Buyers

Sec. 4.07. (a) A dealer licensed under this Act shall provide notice of the complaint procedures provided by Section 3.04(h) of this Act to each person to whom the dealer sells a new motor vehicle.

(b) The Commission may require its approval of the contents of notices required by Subsection (a) of this section or may prescribe the contents of required notices.

(c) Failure to give the notice required by Subsection (a) of this section is a ground for suspension or revocation of a dealer's license.

SUBCHAPTER E. PROHIBITIONS

Dealers

Sec. 5.01. It shall be unlawful for any dealer to:

(1) Require a retail purchaser of a new motor vehicle as a condition of sale and delivery thereof to purchase special features, equipment, parts, or accessories not ordered or desired by the purchaser, provided such features, equipment, parts, or accessories are not already installed on the new motor vehicle when received by the dealer.

(2) Use false, deceptive, or misleading advertising, in connection with any of the business of a dealer, as defined in Section 17.12 of the Business and Commerce Code, as amended.

(3) Fail to perform the obligations placed on the selling dealer in connection with the delivery and preparation of a new motor vehicle for retail sale as provided in the manufacturer's preparation and delivery agreements on file with the Commission and applicable to such vehicle.

(4) Fail to perform the obligations placed on the dealer in connection with the manufacturer's warranty agreements on file with the Commission.

(5) Operate as a dealer without a currently valid license from the Commission or otherwise violate this Act or rules promulgated by the Commission hereunder.

Manufacturers; Distributors; Representatives

Sec. 5.02. It shall be unlawful for any manufacturer, distributor or representative to:

(1) Require or attempt to require any dealer to order, accept delivery of or pay anything of value, directly or indirectly, for any motor vehicle, appliance, part, accessory or any other commodity unless voluntarily ordered or contracted for by such dealer.

(2) Refuse or fail to deliver in reasonable quantities and within a reasonable time after receipt of an order to a dealer having a franchise agreement for the retail sale of any motor vehicles sold or distributed by such manufacturer, distributor, or representative, any new motor vehicle or parts or accessories to new motor vehicles as are covered by such franchise if such vehicle, parts or accessories are publicly advertised as being available for delivery or are actually being delivered; provided, however, this provision is not violated if such failure is caused by acts of God, work stoppage or delays due to strikes or labor disputes, freight embargoes or other causes beyond the control of the manufacturer, distributor, or representative.
Art. 4413(36) HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS

(8) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, terminate or refuse to continue any franchise with a dealer unless (A) the dealer and the Commission have received written notice sixty days before the effective date thereof setting forth the specific grounds for termination or non-continuance and (B) if the dealer files a protest with the Commission, it is established by a preponderance of evidence at a hearing called by the Commission that there is good cause for the termination or noncontinuance. The Commission shall consider all the existing circumstances in determining good cause, including without limitation the dealer’s sales in relation to the market, the dealer’s investment and obligations, injury to public welfare, adequacy of service facilities, equipment, parts and personnel of the dealer and other dealers of new motor vehicles of the same line-make, whether warranties are being honored, and compliance with the franchise agreement. Good cause shall not be shown solely by a desire for further market penetration. If a franchise is terminated or not continued, another franchise in the same line-make will be established within a reasonable time unless it is shown to the Commission that the community or trade area cannot reasonably support such a dealership. If this showing is made, no dealer license shall be thereafter issued in the same area unless a change in circumstances is shown.

(4) Use any false, deceptive or misleading advertising, as defined in Section 17.12 of the Business and Commerce Code, as amended.

(5) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, prevent any dealer from changing the capital structure of his dealership or the means by or through which he finances the operation thereof, provided that the dealer meets any reasonable capital requirements agreed to by contract of the parties.

(6) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, fail to give effect to or attempt to prevent any sale or transfer of a dealer, dealership or franchise or interest therein or management thereof unless it is shown to the Commission after hearing that the result of such sale or transfer will be detrimental to the public or the representation of the manufacturer or distributor.

(7) Require or attempt to require that a dealer assign to or act as an agent for any manufacturer, distributor or representative in the securing of promissory notes and security agreements given in connection with the sale or purchase of new motor vehicles or the securing of policies of insurance on or having to do with the operation of vehicles sold.

(8) Fail, after complaint and hearing, to perform the obligations placed on the manufacturer in connection with the delivery, preparation and warranty of a new motor vehicle as provided in the manufacturer’s warranty, preparation, and delivery agreements on file with the Commission.

(9) Fail to compensate its dealers for the work and services they are required to perform in connection with the dealer’s delivery, preparation, and warranty work shall be paid within thirty days after approval and shall be approved or disapproved within thirty days after receipt. When any claim is disapproved, the dealer shall be notified in writing of the grounds for disapproval. The dealer’s delivery, preparation, and warranty obligations as filed with the Commission shall constitute the dealer’s sole responsibility for product liability as between the dealer and manufacturer.

(10) Operate as a manufacturer, distributor, or representative without a currently valid license from the Commission or otherwise violate this Act or rules promulgated by the Commission hereunder.

(11) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, to prevent or refuse to honor the succession to a dealership by any legal heir or devisee under the will of a dealer or under the laws of descent and distribution of this State unless it is shown to the Commission, after notice and hearing, that the result of such succession will be detrimental to the public interest or to the representation of the manufacturer or distributor; provided, however, nothing herein shall prevent a dealer, during his lifetime, from designating any person as his successor dealer, by written instrument filed with the manufacturer or distributor.
Sec. 5.03. A person may not act as, offer to act as, or hold himself or herself out to be, a broker.

SUBCHAPTER F. ENFORCEMENT

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 6.01 to 6.05]

Application of Other Law

Sec. 6.06. (a) In addition to the other remedies provided by this subchapter, a person who has sustained actual damages as a result of a violation of Section 5.01 or Subdivision (1), (2), (4), (7), (8), or (10), Section 5.02 of Subchapter E of this Code may maintain an action pursuant to the terms of Subchapter E, Chapter 17, Business and Commerce Code.¹

(b) In any action brought against a licensee under Subsection (a) of this section, or for any other type of conduct which is actionable pursuant to the provisions of Subchapter E, Chapter 17, Business and Commerce Code, the $1,000 limitation set forth in Section 17.50(b)(1) of Subchapter E, Chapter 17, Business and Commerce Code shall be adjusted to reflect any change in the consumer price index after the effective date of this section. The $1,000 limitation shall be increased or decreased, as applicable, by a sum equal to the amount of the $1,000 limitation multiplied by the percentage of increase or decrease in the consumer price index between the effective date of this section and the time at which the damages are awarded by final judgment or settlement. The term “consumer price index” means the National Consumer Price Index For All Urban Consumers, or a substantially similar successor, and the court may take judicial notice of said index.

Art. 4413(40). Civil Air Patrol Commission

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1]

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 1a. The Commission for the Texas Civil Air Patrol is subject to the Texas Sunset Act;¹ and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the commission is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1981.

¹Article 5429k.

Powers

Sec. 2. The commission may:

(1) advise the Governor's Division of Disaster Emergency Services as to (i) the deployment of voluntarily offered aviation resources in search and rescue operations and (ii) disaster-related planning, training, and operations under the Texas Disaster Act of 1975 (Article 6889–7, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes); and

(2) provide assistance to private aviators, including partial reimbursement for funds expended, in meeting the actual costs of aircraft operation requested by the governor or his designee.

Clerical and Administrative Services

Sec. 2a. The Governor’s Division of Disaster Emergency Services shall provide clerical and other administrative services to the commission.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 3 to 5]

Duties

Sec. 6. In carrying out the duties and responsibilities of the commission it shall have the following duties:

(a) to meet at such times and places in the State of Texas as it deems proper; meeting shall be called by the chairman upon his own motion, or upon the written request of five members;

(b) to contract with other agencies, public or private, or persons, as it deems necessary for the rendition and affording of such services, facilities, studies, and reports as it may require to exercise the powers granted in Section 2 of this Act as amended.

Art. 4413(41). Amusement Machine Commission

Creation; Members; Appointment; Terms

Sec. 1. There is hereby created an agency of the State of Texas which shall be designated as the Texas Amusement Machine Commission; said Commission shall consist of three (3) members to be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate and three (3) ex officio members, who shall have the right to vote, to be the Director of the Department of Public Safety, or his nominee; the Commissioner of Consumer Credit, or his nominee; and the Attorney General, or his nominee. None of the three appointed members, shall be or have ever been an "owner" or "operator" of any "coin-operated" machine as those terms are defined in Chapter 13, Title 122A, Taxation—General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended. Members of the Commission shall serve for six (6) years. Appointees shall hold office until their successors are appointed and qualified.

Sec. 1B. The Texas Amusement Machine Commission is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the commission is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1981.

Sec. 4. All members of the Commission shall be compensated in an amount of Thirty-five Dollars ($35.00) per day for each day they are actually engaged in performing their duties whether or not in attendance at a meeting; provided, however, they shall not draw compensation for more than sixty (60) days in any one fiscal year. In addition to the per diem provided for herein, members of the Commission shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary traveling expenses in the performance of their duties.

Sec. 8. (a) The Commission may create an advisory committee to assist it in the execution of its duties under this Act.

(b) If the Commission creates an advisory committee, it may appoint no more than six persons to the committee. A person is qualified to be appointed to the advisory committee if he engages in any aspect of the coin-operated machine industry.

(c) A member of the advisory committee receives no salary. Each member is entitled to be reimbursed for his actual and necessary traveling and per diem expenses incurred in serving on the committee. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1045, ch. 407, §§ 1 and 2, eff. Sept. 1, 1975; Acts 1977, 66th Leg., p. 1837, ch. 795, § 2.066, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

[3] Section 3 of the 1975 amendatory act amended Taxation—General, Arts. 13.01 to 13.17; §§ 4 to 6 thereof provided:
Membership

Sec. 4. (a) The committee consists of the lieutenant governor, the speaker of the house of representatives, the secretary of state, and other members appointed as provided by this section.

(b) The governor shall appoint six persons, none of whom may be members of the house or of the senate, two of these members being deaf consumers, two members being parents of deaf consumers, and two members being professionals serving the deaf as defined by this Act.

(c) The lieutenant governor shall appoint one member of the senate.

(d) The speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint one member of the house of representatives.

Terms and Vacancies

Sec. 5. (a) The initial members of the committee shall take office within 30 days after the effective date of this Act and shall serve until the expiration of the committee.

(b) Vacancies among the appointed members shall be filled for the unexpired terms in the same manner as the original appointments were made.

Compensation

Sec. 6. (a) Legislative members of the committee shall serve without additional compensation. Each member shall be reimbursed from the appropriate fund of the member's respective house for travel, subsistence, and other necessary expenses incurred in performing the duties of the committee.

(b) Persons appointed pursuant to Section 4(b) of this Act shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel, subsistence, and other necessary expenses from appropriations made by the legislature to the committee.

(c) The duties to be performed by each public official or employee appointed to the committee shall be considered duties in addition to those otherwise required by that person's office.

Officers

Sec. 7. The lieutenant governor shall serve as chairman of the committee. The speaker of the house of representatives shall serve as vice-chairman of the committee.

Quorum

Sec. 8. Six members of the committee shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of business.

Duties

Sec. 9. The committee shall:

1. examine and evaluate the organization and methods of operation of the departments and agencies of state government related to educational programs for the deaf;
2. develop proposals for improving the structure and administration of state educational services to the deaf in order to assure the delivery of quality governmental services at the lowest possible cost;
3. recommend suspension of government programs and services that duplicate and exceed in cost those same services offered by private business; and
4. make findings and issue reports in the execution of the duties imposed by this section.

Powers

Sec. 10. The committee or any subcommittees of its membership designated by the chairman may:

1. appoint and fix the compensation of necessary staff;
2. hold open hearings, take testimony, and administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses;
3. secure directly from any department or agency of state government any information deemed necessary for the implementation of this Act; and
4. make findings and issue reports in the execution of the duties imposed by Section 9 of this Act.

Cooperation of Other Departments and Agencies

Sec. 11. (a) The Texas Legislative Council, the Legislative Budget Board, the Legislative Audit Committee, the Texas Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations, and the Division of Planning Coordination shall, through their respective administrative officers, furnish staff assistance to the committee upon request.

(b) Each department and agency of state government is directed to furnish assistance and information to the committee upon request.

Reports; Recommendations; Dissolution

Sec. 12. The committee may make an interim report on its progress, together with any specific recommendations it may deem desirable, to any session of the 65th Legislature, and shall make its final report to the 66th Legislature not later than 30 days after that legislature is organized. Unless extended by the 66th Legislature, the committee is dissolved on May 31, 1979.

This article constituted the Energy Policy Planning Act of 1975, enacted by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 971, ch. 370, which by § 8 thereof expired on September 1, 1977. See, now, art. 4413(47c).

The repealed article, the Energy Policy Planning Act of 1977, was derived from Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1906, ch. 795. See, now, art. 4413(47c).

Art. 4413(47b). Energy Development Act of 1977

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act shall be known as “The Texas Energy Development Act of 1977.”

Declaration of Policy

Sec. 2. The legislature finds and declares that:

(1) Texas, the largest producer and consumer of energy among the 50 states, currently relies on oil and gas to supply at least 98 percent of its energy needs. Texas and the United States have less than 10 years' supply of oil and gas reserves based on current rates of production.

(2) Although an end to federal price controls on oil and gas would stimulate greater development of oil and gas supplies, the rapid depletion of these fossil fuels is inevitable.

(3) The nation and the state must develop known resources of more plentiful fuels and begin the shift to total reliance on alternate abundant energy resources.

(4) Development of alternative energy technologies is both an expensive and risky activity which often discourages adequate funding by private sources alone. Precedent exists for government involvement in research, development, and demonstration of new technologies.

(5) While the major responsibility for energy research, development, and demonstration lies with the federal government, federal programs will often overlook projects of regional or state significance in order to concentrate on national priorities. Federal programs often bypass competent local research facilities in preference to federal laboratories or contractors.

(6) Other states have been able to attract federally funded energy development projects with the use of matching funds or seed money. Texas is interested in competing with these other states to secure such projects.

(7) The most effective development of alternate technologies depends on the close cooperation and coordination among federal, state, and local governments and private participants. Such coordination can be enhanced through the planning, programming, and implementation of a state energy development fund.
Sec. 3. In this Act:

(1) "Fund" means the Energy Development Fund created by this Act.

(2) "Council" means the Texas Energy and Natural Resources Advisory Council.

(3) "Person" means an individual, corporation, association, organization, business trust, or any other legal entity.

Creation of the Energy Development Fund

Sec. 4. The Energy Development Fund is created in the State Treasury and is composed of funds provided by legislative appropriation, not to exceed $5 million, plus such additional funds as are received from other sources in accordance with Section 7 of this Act. The fund is created to support research, development, and demonstration of alternate energy supplies and energy conservation technologies of particular importance to Texas.

Texas Energy and Natural Resources Advisory Council

Sec. 5. The Texas Energy and Natural Resources Advisory Council shall be responsible for the proper administration of the Energy Development Fund and shall have the director for energy analysis and development submit to the governor and legislature before March 1 of each odd-numbered year a comprehensive report on the operation of the fund.

Administration of the Fund

Sec. 6. (a) The council shall provide for the administration of the fund.

(b) The council shall promulgate a plan for the development of alternative energy technologies. Such a plan shall prescribe detailed regulations for: submission and solicitation of proposals, evaluation and selection of proposals by an impartial group of technical experts, the disbursement of contracted funds, project cost accounting, and project reporting requirements. Such a plan shall be published within 60 days of the effective date of this Act. Within 90 days thereafter, the council shall adopt the plan following public hearing and appropriate review.

(c) The council may contract with universities, nonprofit institutions, and other persons that meet the criteria for funding adopted by the council.

Additional Sources of Funding

Sec. 7. The council may receive funds from private or public sources for the purposes of this Act.

Effective Date

Sec. 9. This Act shall take effect on September 1, 1977.

Art. 4413(47c). Energy and National Resources Advisory Council

Creation of the Texas Energy and Natural Resources Advisory Council

Sec. 1. (a) The Texas Energy and Natural Resources Advisory Council is established.

(b) The council is composed of 21 members. The members are the following officials: the governor, the lieutenant governor, the speaker of the house of representatives, the attorney general, a member of the Railroad Commission of Texas designated by the Railroad Commission of Texas, a member of the Public Utility Commission of Texas designated by the Public Utility Commission of Texas, the chairman of the Texas Air Control Board, the chairman of the Texas Water Development Board, the chairman of the Parks and Wildlife Commission, the Commissioner of the General Land Office, the commissioner of agriculture, the comptroller of public accounts, the Director of the Bureau of Economic Geology of The University of Texas at Austin, two senators appointed by the lieutenant governor, two members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house, and four citizens appointed by the governor. Appointees serve at the pleasure of the appointing officer.

(c) The governor and lieutenant governor are co-chairmen of the council. The speaker of the house of representatives is vice-chairman.

(d) Eleven members of the council constitute a quorum.

(e) The council shall meet at least once every three months or at the call of either cochairman. At any time a majority of the council may petition the cochairmen for a meeting of the council at a time certain.

(f) A member of the council is entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in performing functions as a member of the council. The lieutenant governor, speaker of the house, senate members on the council, and members of the house of representatives on the council shall be reimbursed from the appropriate fund of the member's respective house of the legislature. Other members shall be reimbursed from the funds of the office or agency in which the member serves. The citizen members are to be reimbursed from the council's funds appropriated for that purpose.
Art. 4413(47c)  HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS  2706

Directors and Staff

Sec. 2. (a) There shall be appointed by the cochairmen an executive director. The executive director with the approval of the cochairmen may hire directors to assist him in carrying out the duties and functions of the council. The executive director and directors shall serve at the pleasure of the cochairmen.

(b) The executive director shall employ staff necessary to administer the functions of the council and may contract with individuals, consultants, partnerships, corporations, universities, state agencies, and other governmental bodies to provide services necessary to perform the duties of the council.

(c) The executive director shall perform functions relating to the conservation of energy resources or the allocation of fuel products that the governor is responsible for performing as designated by law and that the governor may delegate to the executive director.

(d) The executive director may with the approval of the cochairmen and with the advice of the council issue such orders as may be necessary to implement programs and priorities concerning the allocation and conservation of fuels.

(e) The executive director and the directors may represent the council at state, regional, national, or international energy or natural resource meetings at the cochairmen's request.

(f) All staff responsible for technical assessments or for the development of computer or econometric systems, excluding administrative personnel, must be qualified by academic training and actual work experience in the area of their respective responsibilities.

(g) The executive director and the directors are entitled to compensation as provided by the general appropriations bill.

(h) Compensation for staff members shall be determined according to the classification act for other state employees.

Divisions

Sec. 3. The executive director with the approval of the cochairmen may establish divisions to carry out the functions of the council. The executive director with the approval of the cochairmen may add, remove, or transfer duties among divisions.

Energy Analysis and Development Division

Sec. 4. (a) The energy analysis and development division is established as a division of the council.

(b) The director may contract with the approval of the executive director with individuals, consultants, partnerships, corporations, universities, state agencies, and other governmental bodies to provide services necessary to perform the duties of the division.

(c) The energy analysis and development division shall:

1. develop and maintain an energy data base system and econometric modeling of the state and nation;
2. prepare an annual Texas energy outlook report and an assessment of the United States Department of Energy, Energy Information Administration's Annual Report to Congress;
3. provide energy information and policy analysis for the council and others as the cochairmen may direct;
4. recommend energy policy positions to the council;
5. recommend legislation to the council to foster the development of increased energy supplies and more efficient energy systems not inconsistent with other laws of the state;
6. administer the Texas Energy Development Fund as directed by the council;
7. maintain an awareness of all energy-related research of importance to this state conducted inside and outside this state in order to promote information exchange and coordination and in order to coordinate and support necessary energy technology research, development, and demonstration;
8. coordinate and support energy-related technology research, development, and demonstration; and
9. perform other duties as assigned by the executive director.

Energy Conservation Division

Sec. 5. (a) The energy conservation division is established as a division of the council.

(b) The director may contract with the approval of the executive director with individuals, consultants, partnerships, corporations, universities, state agencies, and other governmental bodies to provide services necessary to perform the duties of the division.

(c) The energy conservation division shall:

1. provide and develop energy conservation information and policy analysis for the council and others as the cochairman may direct;
2. recommend energy conservation policy positions to the council;
3. recommend legislation to the council to foster energy conservation;
4. coordinate and support energy conservation related technology, research, development, and demonstration; and
5. perform other duties as assigned by the executive director.
Functions of the Council

Sec. 6. The council shall:

(1) adopt and continually reassess an energy policy for the state;
(2) adopt and continually reassess a natural resources policy for the state;
(3) recommend legislation to the United States Congress and the Texas Legislature implementing energy policy and natural resources policy of the state;
(4) review existing and proposed actions and policies of federal agencies to determine the energy and natural resources impact on this state and to recommend to the legislature and the governor alternative actions and policies consistent with state energy and natural resources policy;
(5) adopt a plan and award contracts for the development of alternative energy technologies under the Energy Development Fund;
(6) represent the governor at state, regional, national, or international energy or natural resources meetings at the governor's request;
(7) provide staff and technical assistance to the advisory committees;
(8) adopt a budget and an annual operating plan;
(9) develop projects and programs to insure proper protection and development of the state's natural resources including the participation of all necessary entities;
(10) study problems and issues connected with state agency permitting processes; and
(11) perform such other tasks as may be assigned by the governor and/or accepted by the council.

Advisory Committees

Sec. 7. (a) The cochairmen may appoint advisory committees composed of public officials or private citizens to advise the Texas Energy and Natural Resources Advisory Council.

(b) A member of an advisory committee is not entitled to compensation for services performed as a member of the committee. A member is entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in attending meetings of the advisory committee.

(c) The council shall prescribe the operating procedures for advisory committees.

Gifts and Grants

Sec. 8. (a) The executive director may accept on behalf of the state a gift, grant, or donation from any source to be used to administer the council's functions.

(b) A gift, grant, or donation received by the executive director shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of a special fund to be known as the Texas Energy and Natural Resources Advisory Council Fund and may be used only to administer the council's functions.

Report

Sec. 9. Before December 1 of each year, the executive director shall file a report with the governor and the legislature about the activities of the council during the preceding year.

Rules

Sec. 10. The council may adopt rules necessary to accomplish the purposes of this Act.

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 11. The council is subject to the Texas Sunset Act, as amended (Article 5429k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). Unless continued in existence as provided by that Act, the council is abolished and this Act expires effective September 1, 1983.

Secs. 12, 13. [Amends subsec. (2) of § 3, and §§ 4 to 7 of art. 4413(47b)]

Abolition and Succession of Agencies

Sec. 14. The Texas Energy Advisory Council, created by Chapter 795, Acts of the 65th Legislature, Regular Session, 1977 (Article 4413(47a), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and the Natural Resources Council are abolished and are succeeded by the Texas Energy and Natural Resources Advisory Council. The records and other property in the custody of the agencies are transferred to the Texas Energy and Natural Resources Advisory Council.

CHAPTER ELEVEN. GOVERNOR’S COORDINATING OFFICE FOR THE VISUALLY HANDICAPPED

Article 4413(202). Repealed.

Acts 1979, 66th Leg., ch. 842, repealing this article, enacts the Human Resources Code.

For disposition of the subject matter of the repealed article, see Disposition Table following the Human Resources Code.

The repealed article, relating to the Governor’s Coordinating Office for the Visually Handicapped, was added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2386, ch. 734, § 14.

CHAPTER TWELVE. CONSERVATORSHIP BOARD

Article 4413(203). Conservatorship Board

Art. 4413(203). Conservatorship Board

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) “State agency” means a department, commission, board, office, or other agency, including a university system or an institution of higher education except a public junior college, that:

(A) is in the executive branch of state government;
(B) is or was created by statute; and
(C) does not have statutory geographical boundaries limited to a part of the state.

(2) “Gross fiscal mismanagement” includes:

(A) failure to keep adequate fiscal records;
(B) failure to maintain proper control over assets;
(C) failure to discharge fiscal obligations in a timely manner; and
(D) misuse of state funds.

(3) “State fiscal management policies” means laws or rules relating to:

(A) fiscal recordkeeping and reporting;
(B) use or control of state property;
(C) timely discharge of fiscal obligations; or
(D) use of state funds.

Agencies Exempted

Sec. 2. This Act does not apply to an agency that is under the direction of an elected officer, board, or commission.

Board; Members; Terms

Sec. 3. (a) The State Conservatorship Board is established.

(b) The board consists of three members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate.

(c) The governor shall appoint to the board only persons who are residents of this state and who are qualified by experience or education in administration or fiscal management. A public officer is ineligible to serve on the board.

(d) Members hold office for terms of six years, with the term of one member expiring on January 31 of each odd-numbered year. In making the initial appointments, the governor shall designate one member for a term expiring on January 31, 1981, one member for a term expiring on January 31, 1983, and one member for a term expiring on January 31, 1985.

Chairman; Meetings

Sec. 4. (a) A majority of the board constitutes a quorum.

(b) The governor shall designate one of the members of the board to serve as chairman for a term, in that capacity, of two years expiring on January 31 of each odd-numbered year.

(c) The board shall meet at the call of the chairman or as provided by board rule. The board shall hold the organizational meeting at the call of the governor.

Compensation; Expenses

Sec. 5. A member of the board may not receive compensation for his service on the board but is entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duties.

Administration

Sec. 6. The governor shall provide the board with administrative services. If necessary, the governor may use appropriations made pursuant to Article 4351, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, to provide the services.

Finding of Mismanagement; Order of Conservatorship

Sec. 7. If the Legislative Audit Committee finds that a condition of gross fiscal mismanagement exists in a state agency, it shall notify the governor of Assumption of Agency Functions

Sec. 8. If the governor directs the board to act as conservator of an agency, the board shall assume all the powers and duties of the officer or officers responsible for policy direction of the agency, and that officer or officers may not act unless authorized to do so by the board.

Board Responsibility; Powers

Sec. 9. (a) As conservator of an agency, the board is responsible for bringing the agency into compliance with state fiscal management policies.

(b) While acting as conservator of an agency, the board may:

1. terminate any employee if it determines that his or her conduct contributed to the condition that brought about the conservatorship;
2. employ personnel for the agency;
3. make organizational or structural changes in the agency that are necessary to alleviate the conditions that brought about the conservatorship; and
4. contract with entities or persons, whether public or private, for management or administrative services necessary to effect the conservatorship.

(c) The board may delegate all or any part of its powers or duties as conservator, except the adoption of rules, to an entity or person with whom it contracts pursuant to Subdivision (4) of Subsection (b) of this section.

Periodic Reports

Sec. 10. Within 60 days after the date the governor directs the board to act as conservator of an agency and at the end of every subsequent 60-day period until the conservatorship is dissolved, the board shall report on the conservatorship to the governor and the Legislative Audit Committee. The report shall include a description of the measures taken to bring the agency into compliance with state fiscal management policies and an estimate of the progress the board has made in attaining that goal.

Rules

Sec. 11. The board may adopt and enforce rules necessary to administer this Act.

Duration of Conservatorship

Sec. 12. The board's conservatorship of an agency continues until:

1. the governor issues a proclamation declaring that the condition of gross fiscal mismanagement in the agency no longer exists and that the conservatorship is dissolved; or
2. the Legislative Audit Committee finds and certifies to the governor that the condition of gross fiscal mismanagement in the agency no longer exists, in which case the conservatorship is dissolved.

CHAPTER ONE. HEALTH BOARDS AND LAWS

Art. 4414a. Department of Health Created
To better protect and promote the health of the people of Texas, the Texas Department of Health is created. The Texas Department of Health consists of the Texas Board of Health, the Commissioner of Health, and an administrative staff.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 832, ch. 323, § 5.07, eff. May 28, 1975; Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1226, ch. 474, § 1, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 4414aa. Application of Sunset Act
The Texas Department of Health Resources 1 is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; 2 and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the department is abolished effective September 1, 1985.

1 Name changed to Department of Health; see art. 4418g.
2 Article 5429h.

Art. 4415a. Appointment, Composition and Terms of the Board
(a) The Board consists of 18 members appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Governor shall make appointments so that:

(1) six members are physicians licensed under the laws of this state, each of whom has been engaged in the practice of medicine in this state for at least five years prior to appointment;

(2) two members are hospital administrators with at least five years' experience in hospital administration in this state prior to appointment;

(3) one member is a dentist who is licensed under the laws of this state and who has been engaged in the practice of dentistry for at least five years in this state prior to appointment;

(4) one member is a registered nurse who is licensed to practice professional nursing under the laws of this state and who has been engaged in the practice of nursing in this state for at least five years prior to appointment;

(5) one member is a veterinarian who is licensed under the laws of this state and who has been engaged in the practice of veterinary medicine in this state for at least five years prior to appointment;

(6) one member is a pharmacist who is licensed under the laws of this state and who has been engaged in the practice of pharmacy in this state for at least five years prior to appointment;

(7) one member is a nursing home administrator who is licensed under the laws of this state and who has been engaged as a nursing home administrator in this state for at least five years prior to appointment;

(8) one member is an optometrist who is licensed under the laws of this state and who has been engaged in the practice of optometry in this state for at least five years prior to appointment;

(9) one member holds a civil engineering degree from an accredited university or college, is licensed by the State of Texas as a professional engineer, and has specialized in the practice of sanitary engineering in this state for at least five years prior to appointment;

(10) one member is a doctor of chiropractic who is licensed under the laws of this state and who has been engaged in the practice of chiropractic for at least five years in this state prior to appointment; and

(11) two members are citizens who have none of the qualifications required of the other 16 members.
Art. 4416a. Quorum and Meetings of the Board
A majority of the members of the Board constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The Board shall meet at Austin or at other places fixed by the Board at least once each month, on dates to be fixed by the Board, and shall hold such special meetings as may be called by the Chairman. Timely notice of such special meetings shall be given to each member.

Art. 4417a. Compensation and Oath of Office of the Board
The members of the Board receive no fixed salary, but each member shall be allowed, for each and every day in attending the meetings of the Board, the sum of $50, and said members shall be allowed traveling and other necessary expenses while in the performance of official duty. The members of the Board shall qualify by taking the constitutional oath of office before an officer authorized to administer oaths within this state, and, upon presentation of such oath of office, together with the certificate of their appointment, the Secretary of State shall issue Commissions to them, which shall be evidence of their authority to act as such.

Art. 4418a. Powers and Duties of the Board
(a) The Texas Board of Health shall:
   (1) employ the Commissioner of Health, who shall be a person licensed to practice medicine in the State of Texas, who shall serve at the will of the Board;
   (2) investigate the conduct of the work of the Department, and for this purpose to have access, at any time, to all books and records thereof, and to require written or oral information from any officer or employee thereof;
   (3) adopt rules, not inconsistent with law, for its own procedure, and for the conduct and performance of every duty imposed on the Board, the Department, or the Commissioner of Health by law, a copy of which rules shall be filed in the Department.
   (b) The Board may appoint advisory committees to assist the Board in performing its duties. If not otherwise specified by law, a member of an advisory committee appointed by the Board is entitled to receive $50 for each advisory committee meeting the member attends and the per diem and travel allowance authorized by the General Appropriations Act for state employees. Two members of each advisory committee must be representatives of the general public. A person is eligible to be appointed and to serve as a public member of an advisory committee if the person and the person's spouse are not licensed by an occupational regulatory agency in the health care field, are not employed by any health care facility, agency, or corporation or by a corporation authorized to underwrite health care insurance, do not govern or administer a health care facility, agency, or corporation, and do not have, other than as consumers, a financial interest in a health care facility, agency, or corporation.

Art. 4418d. Duties of the Commissioner of Health
The Commissioner of Health shall be the executive head of the Department, and he shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, perform the duties assigned to him by the Board.
ment of public health laws. The Commissioners Court of any County shall have the authority to appropriate and expend money from the general revenues of its County for and in behalf of public health and sanitation within its County.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 832, ch. 323, § 5.07, eff. May 28, 1975; Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1226, ch. 474, § 1, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 4418g. Powers, Duties and Functions Transferred to the Department of Health

(a) The Texas Board of Health has all of the powers, duties, and functions granted by law to the State Board of Health, the State Commissioner of Health, the State Department of Health, the Texas Board of Health Resources, and the Texas Department of Health Resources.

(b) Any reference in the law to the Texas Board of Health Resources means the Texas Board of Health.

(c) Any reference in the law to the Texas Department of Health Resources means the Texas Department of Health.

(d) Whenever any law grants a power or imposes a duty on the State Commissioner of Health, the power shall be exercised or the duty performed by the Texas Board of Health or a designee of the Board, subject to the direction and control of the Board.

Art. 4418g–1. The Texas Board of Health Dental Advisory Committee

Appointment, Composition, Terms, Vacancies, and Officers

Sec. 1. (a) The Texas Board of Health Dental Advisory Committee is composed of nine members. The members shall be appointed as follows:

(1) the governor shall appoint four dentists and one dental hygienist licensed under the laws of this state, each of whom has engaged in the practice of dentistry or dental hygiene in this state for at least five years prior to appointment, three of whom are members of the Texas Dental Association, and one of whom is a member of the Gulf States Dental Association, and one of whom is a member of the Texas Dental Hygienists Association;

(2) the State Board of Dental Examiners shall appoint one of its members;

(3) the governor shall appoint two members who are representatives of the general public, who are not licensed dentists, and who do not have, other than as consumers, financial interests in the dental health industry;

(4) on a rotating basis, each of the three dental schools in the state shall appoint one member who is a member of the faculty of the dental school.

(b) Except for the initial appointees, the nine voting members of the advisory committee hold office for staggered terms of six years, with the terms of three members expiring on February 1 of each even-numbered year. The Texas Board of Health shall designate three initial members for terms expiring on February 1, 1984, three initial members for terms expiring on February 1, 1982, and three initial members for terms expiring on February 1, 1980.

(c) A vacancy on the advisory committee for any cause shall be filled by a successor who is appointed in the same manner as his or her predecessor. The successor shall serve for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor.

(d) At a regular meeting in April of each year, the advisory committee shall elect from its membership a chairman, vice-chairman, and secretary.

(e) A member of this advisory committee serves without compensation. A member is not entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in performing the duties of the advisory committee.

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 2. The advisory committee is subject to the Texas Sunset Act, as amended (Article 5429k, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes). Unless the advisory committee is continued in existence as provided by that Act, the advisory committee is abolished and this Act expires effective September 1, 1985.

Quorum and Meetings

Sec. 3. A majority of the members of the advisory committee constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The committee shall meet at Austin or at other places fixed by the committee at least four times per calendar year on dates to be fixed by the committee and shall hold special meetings at the call of the chairman. Timely notice of the special meetings shall be given to each member of the committee.

Oath of Office

Sec. 4. The members of the committee shall qualify by taking the constitutional oath of office before an officer authorized to administer oaths within this state, and on presentation of the oath of office, the secretary of state shall issue commissions to them, which shall be evidence of their authority to act as members of the committee.

Powers and Duties

Sec. 5. The advisory committee shall:

(1) investigate the various public dental service programs in the state, identify the various funding sources for the programs, and make recommendations to the Texas Board of Health about the best manner in which to administer those funds to provide the maximum use of the funds for the purpose of providing the best dental care possible to the citizens of the state within the available funding levels;

(2) review current rules adopted by the Texas Board of Health and rules proposed by the board relating to dental health care and draft proposed recommended rules relating to dental health care or relating to the conduct and performance of the duties relating to dental health care imposed on the board by law and submit those recommendations to the board for final approval and implementation; and

(3) make investigations and studies of the dental health care delivery system in the state necessary to develop procedures by which the provision of dental services can be coordinated to provide the most economical and effective dental care delivery system to serve the maximum number of patients from current funding levels and submit the procedures to the Texas Board of Health for approval and implementation.

Art. 4418h. Health Planning and Development Act

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Short Title
Sec. 1.01. This Act may be cited as the Texas Health Planning and Development Act.

Policy, Purpose
Sec. 1.02. The policy of this state and the purpose of this Act are to ensure that health-care services and facilities are made available to all citizens in an orderly and economical manner and to meet the requirements of, and to implement, the National Health Planning and Resources Development Act of 1974 (P.L. 93–641), the federal rules and regulations promulgated under that Act, and other pertinent federal authority. To achieve this public policy and purpose, it is essential that appropriate health planning activities be undertaken and implemented and that health-care services and facilities be provided in a manner that is cost effective and that is compatible with the health-care needs of the various areas and populations of the state.

Definitions
Sec. 1.03. In this Act:

(1) “Applicant” means any person who makes application to the commission pursuant to this Act.

(2) “Application” means a written request for consideration by the commission pursuant to this Act.

(3) “Certificate holder” is the person named in the certificate of need or exemption certificate and any person owning title or interest in the person named in the certificate of need or exemption certificate.

(4) “Certificate of need” means a written order of the commission setting forth the commission’s affirmative finding that a proposed project sufficiently satisfies the criteria prescribed for such projects by this Act and by rule of the commission.

(5) “Commission” means the Texas Health Facilities Commission.

(6) “Department” means the Texas Department of Health Resources.

(7) “Development” means those activities, other than planning or predevelopment activities, as determined by rule of the commission, which on their completion result in the consummation of a project or a significant financial commitment toward the consummation of a project, and includes the adoption of ordinances, orders, or resolutions authorizing the issuance of bonds.

(9) “Health-care facility,” referred to as “facility,” includes, regardless of ownership, but is not limited to, a public or private hospital, institution, extended care facility, skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility, home health agency, outpatient care facility, outpatient surgical and single procedure facility, ambulatory health-care facility, health center, family planning clinic, kidney disease treatment facility, radiation therapy facility, alcoholism and drug treatment facility, health maintenance organization, and other specialized facilities where inpatient or outpatient health-care services for observation, diagnosis, active treatment, or overnight care for patients with obstetric, medical, mental or psychiatric, surgical, tubercular, alcoholic, chronic, or rehabilitative conditions are provided requiring daily direct supervision by a physician or a practitioner of the healing arts, but does not include the office of those physicians or practitioners singly or in groups in the conduct of their profession.

(10) “Health maintenance organization,” referred to as “HMO,” has the meaning given the term in the Texas Health Maintenance Organization Act.
Interagency Contracts

Sec. 1.06. Agencies, departments, instrumentalities, grantees, political subdivisions, and institutions of higher education of the state shall cooperate with the commission and the department in the performance of their assigned duties and functions.

Limitations on Powers

Sec. 1.07. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorize the commission or the department or any employee or official of the commission or the department to:

(1) exercise any supervision or control over the practice of medicine or the manner in which physician's services in private practice are provided, or over the selection, tenure, compensation, or fees of any physician in the delivery of physician's services;

(2) perform any duty or function under the provisions of Title XI of the Social Security Act 1 (Section 249(f) of P.L. 92–603) or rules or regulations promulgated thereunder; or

(3) apply for grants under the provisions of Section 1526, P.L. 93–641.2

1 42 U.S.C.A. § 1301 et seq.
2 42 U.S.C.A. § 300m–5.

Health-Related State Agencies: Regional Administration

Sec. 1.08. The Texas Department of Health Resources, the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, the State Department of Public Welfare, and as directed by the governor, other health-related state agencies shall divide the state into regions for administrative or regulatory purposes that coincide with the health service areas established pursuant to P.L. 93–641.1

1 42 U.S.C.A. § 300k et seq.

SUBCHAPTER B. TEXAS HEALTH FACILITIES COMMISSION

Establishment

Sec. 2.01. The Texas Health Facilities Commission is established and is administratively attached to the Texas Department of Health Resources. The department, at the request of the commission, shall provide administrative assistance to the commission; and the department and the commission shall coordinate administrative responsibilities in order to avoid unnecessary duplication of facilities and services. The department, at the request of the commission, shall submit the commission's budget requests to the legislature.

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 2.01a. The Texas Health Facilities Commission is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; 1 and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the commission is abolished, and Subchapters B and C of this Act expire effective September 1, 1985.

1 Article 5429k.
Composition

Sec. 2.02. The commission is under the direction of three commissioners appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. At least one commissioner, at the time of appointment, must be a resident of a county having a population of less than 50,000, according to the last preceding federal decennial census. However, a commissioner by moving to another county does not vacate the office. The governor shall not appoint to the commission any person who is actively engaged as a health care provider or who has any substantial pecuniary interest in a facility.

Terms of Office

Sec. 2.03. Commissioners hold office for staggered terms of six years, with the term of one commissioner expiring on February 1 of each odd-numbered year. In making the initial appointments, the governor shall designate one commissioner for a term expiring February 1, 1977, one for a term expiring February 1, 1979, and one for a term expiring February 1, 1981.

Chairman, Vice-chairman

Sec. 2.04. The governor shall biennially designate one commissioner to serve as chairman and one commissioner to serve as vice-chairman.

Compensation; Expenses

Sec. 2.05. Each commissioner is entitled to a salary within the limits of legislative appropriations and to reimbursement for actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred in performing their official duties.

General Duties of Commission

Sec. 2.06. In addition to the other powers and duties prescribed by this Act, the commission shall:

(1) administer a state certificate of need program as prescribed by this Act and to comply with federal law;

(2) promulgate and adopt rules determined to be necessary for the administration and enforcement of Subchapters B and C of this Act;

(3) issue written orders regarding certificates of need, exemption certificates, declaratory rulings, and other matters which may properly come before it;

(4) make an annual report to the governor and the legislature of the commission’s operations and provide other reports that the governor or the legislature may require;

(5) administer all funds entrusted to the commission; and

(6) prescribe the personnel policies for the commission and perform other duties and functions that may be prescribed by law.

Executive Officer

Sec. 2.07. (a) The chairman is the chief executive and administrative officer of the commission.

(b) In addition to the other powers and duties prescribed by this Act, the chairman as chief executive officer of the commission shall:

(1) administer the duties and functions of the commission;

(2) employ and remove personnel and prescribe their duties, responsibilities, and compensation; and

(3) submit through and with the approval of the commission requests for appropriations and other funds to operate the commission.

(c) In the absence of the chairman for any cause, the vice-chairman has the powers and duties assigned to the chairman.

Offices and Divisions

Sec. 2.08. The commission shall establish offices and divisions of the commission that it deems necessary to carry out the functions and duties of the commission. The commission may assign functions and duties to the various offices and divisions, provide for additional offices and divisions, and reorganize the commission if necessary to improve its efficiency or effectiveness.

Funds

Sec. 2.09. For the purpose of carrying out its duties and functions, the commission may apply for, contract for, receive, and expend any appropriations or grants from the state, the federal government, or any other public source, subject to any limitations and conditions prescribed by legislative appropriation.

Review of Institutional Health Services

Sec. 2.10. The commission, after consultation with the department, the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, the State Department of Public Welfare, and other appropriate health-related state agencies, shall review and determine the appropriateness of all institutional health services being offered in the state and shall make public its determinations by filing a report with the secretary of state.

Capital Expenditure Review Program

Sec. 2.11. The commission, when authorized by the governor, may negotiate an agreement with the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare on behalf of the State of Texas to administer a state capital expenditure review program pursuant to Section 1122 of the Social Security Act, the federal rules and regulations promulgated under that Act, and other pertinent federal authority, if after thorough review and study, the commission determines... that such a review program would be in the best interest of the people of Texas.

SUBCHAPTER C. STATE CERTIFICATE OF NEED PROGRAM

Services and Facilities Requiring Certificates

Sec. 3.01. (a) Each person must obtain from the commission a certificate of need or an exemption certificate in accordance with this Act for a proposed project to:

(1) expand or substantially expand a service currently offered or provide a service not currently offered by the facility;
(2) construct a new facility or change the bed capacity of an existing facility;
(3) modify an existing facility;
(4) convert a structure into a health-care facility;
(5) organize an HMO.

(b) For purposes of Subsection (a) of this section:
(1) the determination of a change in the bed capacity of a facility is based on the bed capacity of the facility, at the time of the application; and
(2) modification includes the acquisition, repair, or replacement of facilities or equipment.

(c) The commission by rule shall define and determine the terms and conditions under which a project comes within the meaning of Subdivisions (1)-(5) of Subsection (a) of this section. In addition, the commission shall promulgate rules for determining the costs of acquiring or modifying facilities or equipment.

(d) If a project does not come within the meaning of Subdivisions (1)-(5) of Subsection (a) of this section, a certificate of need or an exemption certificate is not required for the project.

Exemption Certificate

Sec. 3.02. (a) The commission shall issue an exemption certificate exempting a proposed project from the certificate of need requirement when, on petition by the applicant, it is determined that:

(i) in the case of expansion of services, the proposed project would not substantially expand a service currently offered; or
(ii) in the case of modification of an existing facility, the total cost of the proposed modification will not exceed $150,000.

(b) The commission shall promulgate rules of procedure whereby a person may make application for and be granted an exemption certificate.

(c) The commission by rule, not inconsistent with Subsection (a) of this section, may establish criteria for determining the eligibility of a project for an exemption certificate.

(d) The commission may prescribe, as conditions to the issuance and continued validity of an exemption certificate, reasonable time limits for development and completion of the project.

(e) If the application for an exemption certificate is denied, the applicant may apply for a certificate of need, and if the application for a certificate of need is denied, the applicant may raise in proceedings for judicial review as provided by this Act any error of the commission in denying the exemption certificate.

Declaratory Ruling

Sec. 3.03. On the application of a person sufficiently describing a proposed project, the commission may issue a declaratory ruling on whether this Act requires a certificate of need or an exemption certificate for the project. If the commission rules that a certificate of need or an exemption certificate is required, the applicant may apply for an exemption certificate or a certificate of need and may seek judicial review of the declaratory ruling only in proceedings to review the denial of a certificate of need as provided by this Act.

Application for Certificate of Need

Sec. 3.04. (a) A person may apply for a certificate of need by submitting a written application to the commission. The application must be prepared in the form and contain the information required in rules promulgated by the commission.

(b) Each application for a certificate of need must be accompanied by the required application fee. All application fees shall be deposited in the state treasury and shall be expended by the commission for the administration and enforcement of this Act.

Application Fee

Sec. 3.05. The maximum application fee is $7,500 or 2 percent of the total cost of the proposed project, whichever is less, and the minimum application fee is $25, and within these limits the commission by rule shall establish a schedule of application fees for the various types and sizes of projects, with fees for the more substantial projects set at nearer the maximum and fees for the smaller projects set at nearer the minimum.

Application Review

Sec. 3.06. (a) Each application for a certificate of need shall be reviewed and a determination made within 10 working days after the date of its receipt whether the application complies with the rules governing the preparation and submission of applications.

(b) If the application complies with the rules governing the preparation and submission of applications, the chairman shall, pursuant to commission rules:
(1) declare the application to be sufficient and shall accept and date the application;

(2) schedule a hearing on the application which on a showing of good cause by the applicant or the parties, may be postponed for a reasonable period of time not to exceed 45 days; and

(3) provide written notification to affected persons and to the health systems agency within whose boundary the project is located of the time, place, and matter to be considered at the hearing.

(c) If the application does not comply with the rules governing the preparation and submission of applications, the chairman shall notify the applicant in writing and provide a list of deficiencies.

(d) All applications for certificates of need shall be filed in the commission, indexed, and made available for public inspection.

Publication of Notice by Applicant

Sec. 3.07. (a) The applicant shall publish public notice of the hearing to be held by the commission on an application for a certificate of need in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the locality within which the proposed service or facility would be developed.

(b) The commission shall prescribe the form of publication and the date or dates of publication which shall not be later than 30 days after the application is accepted and dated.

Review by Health Systems Agencies

Sec. 3.08. (a) A health systems agency may review an application transmitted to it and may provide written comments to the commission and to the applicant not later than the 60th day after the day the application is dated.

(b) The review, if any, of an application by a health systems agency must be conducted according to rules promulgated by the commission.

(c) A health systems agency may hold a hearing on an application referred to it. The hearing must be conducted in accordance with rules promulgated by the commission.

(d) If at the time of the application a health systems agency is not currently designated for the area in which the project is to be located, the commission may perform the functions of the health systems agency.

Commission Hearings

Sec. 3.09. (a) The chairman shall designate a hearing officer to conduct a hearing for each dated application. The hearing officer must be an employee of the commission who is an attorney licensed to practice law in this state.

(b)(1) If a health systems agency has submitted written comments concerning an application to the commission and the applicant as provided in Section 3.06 of this Act, a representative or representatives of that agency may present testimony and evidence for or against that application at the hearing. Any other interested party may present evidence or testimony for or against an application pursuant to rules promulgated by the commission. Testimony may be presented orally or in writing.

(b)(2) The commissioner of insurance may review an HMO application and provide written comments to the commission. The review and comment on an HMO application by the commissioner of insurance must be conducted according to rules promulgated by the commission. When written comments are provided on an HMO application, the commissioner of insurance or a representative may participate in the hearing on the application as a party.

(c) The hearing officer shall keep a complete record of each hearing and transmit the record to the commission when completed. Each record must include in addition to any other items required by rules promulgated by the commission:

(1) evidence received or considered;
(2) a statement of matters officially noticed;
(3) objections and rulings thereon;
(4) staff memoranda or data submitted to or considered by the hearing officer or the commission in connection with the hearing; and
(5) the recommendations of the hearing officer concerning the approval or disapproval of the application.

(d) The hearing officer shall forward to the commission the complete record of the hearing on an application for a certificate of need as provided by commission rules.

(e) At the request of the applicant and with the concurrence of the commission, an uncontested application may be reviewed by and acted on by the commission without a hearing under rules promulgated by the commission.

Criteria for Review

Sec. 3.10. (a) The commission shall promulgate rules establishing criteria to determine whether an applicant is to be issued a certificate of need for the proposed project.

(b) Criteria established by the commission must include at least the following:

(1) whether a proposed project is necessary to meet the health-care needs of the community or population to be served;
(2) whether a proposed project can be adequately staffed and operated when completed;
(3) whether the cost of a proposed project is economically feasible;
Art. 4418h HEALTH—PUBLIC

(4) if applicable, whether a proposed project meets the special needs and circumstances for rural or sparsely populated areas; and

(5) if applicable, whether the proposed project meets special needs for special services or special facilities.

(c) In developing criteria the commission shall consider at least the following:

(1) the recommendations, if any, of the Texas Board of Health Resources, the Texas Board of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, the State Board of Public Welfare, and the governing boards of other state agencies;

(2) the relationship of a proposed project to the state health plan, the state medical facilities plan, and the health systems plan and annual implementation plan of the appropriate health systems agency;

(3) the special needs and circumstances of facilities that provide substantial services to indigents;

(4) the special needs and circumstances of facilities that provide a substantial portion of their services to persons residing outside the areas in which the facilities are located;

(5) the possible effects of a project on existing facilities; and

(6) the special needs and circumstances of health maintenance organizations.

Orders of Commission

Sec. 3.11. (a) The commission shall either grant or deny a certificate of need by written order not later than the 90th day following the date of publication of public notice, unless the date of the hearing was delayed pursuant to Section 3.09(b)(2) of this Act, in which case the deadline for the order is extended accordingly, or unless a later date is agreed on in writing by the applicant and the commission.

(b) Copies of the order must be forwarded to the applicant, the appropriate health systems agency, and the parties of record.

(c) Copies of the order and the record of the hearing shall be filed together in the office of the commission, indexed, and made available for public inspection.

(d) The commission may prescribe as conditions to a certificate of need limits on project cost, time periods for development and completion of a project, limits on the scope of the project, and project status reports.

Development May Commence

Sec. 3.12. Development of a project may commence only on the granting of a certificate of need or an exemption certificate.
(d) No permit to build or license to operate a facility or license to provide a service may be issued for a project or to a person in violation of this Act, by the state or a political subdivision or instrumentality of the state.

(e) A person who violates this Act is subject to a civil penalty of no greater than $100 for each act of violation and for each day of violation, as the court may deem proper, to be recovered in the manner provided in this subchapter. Such civil penalties assessed for violations of this Act shall be deposited in the State Treasury and shall be expended by the commission for the administration and enforcement of this Act.

(f) A person who has been judicially determined to be in violation of this Act, and who has paid all imposed civil penalties and has made application to the commission for a certificate of need or an exemption certificate, shall not be deemed to be in violation of this Act.

Judicial Review

Sec. 3.15. An applicant or party who is aggrieved by an order of the commission granting or denying a certificate of need or an exemption certificate, shall not be deemed to be in violation of this Act.

SUBCHAPTER D. FUNCTIONS OF DEPARTMENT

Health Planning and Development Agency

Sec. 4.01. The Texas Department of Health Resources is designated as the state health planning and development agency for the State of Texas.

General Powers and Functions

Sec. 4.02. The department shall perform the duties and functions prescribed by state law and, after consultation with the commission, the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, the State Department of Public Welfare, and other appropriate health-related state agencies, those of the state health planning and development agency.

Assistance to Statewide Health Coordinating Council

Sec. 4.03. The department shall assist the Statewide Health Coordinating Council in the performance of its functions.

Preliminary State Health Plan

Sec. 4.04. The department shall prepare, review, and revise a preliminary state health plan.

State Medical Facilities Plan

Sec. 4.05. The department shall prepare and administer a state medical facilities plan. However, no application for assistance under Title XVI of the Public Health Service Act1 may be considered by the department until the requirements of Subchapters B and C of this Act have been complied with:

1 42 U.S.C.A. § 1396a et seq.

2 West's Tex. Stats. & Codes '79 Supp. — 59

Authority to Collect Data

Sec. 4.06. (a) The department, after consultation with the commission, shall adopt rules establishing reasonable procedures for the collection and dissemination of data determined to be necessary to facilitate and expedite proper and effective health planning and resource development.

(b) The department shall file, index, and periodically publish in a coherent manner summaries or analyses of the data collected.

(c) Persons who fail to comply with the rules promulgated pursuant to this section are in violation of this Act.

Contracts

Sec. 4.07. With the approval of the governor and after a public hearing, the department may contract with an appropriate state agency to perform specific state health planning and development agency functions of the department.

SUBCHAPTER E. AMENDMENTS AND REPEALS

Sec. 5.01. [Adds § 2.24 to art. 5547–202]

Sec. 5.02. [Amends subsecs. (a), (b) of art. 5547–91]

Sec. 5.03. [Amends subsec. (a) of art. 5547–93]

Sec. 5.04. [Adds § 9A to art. 4437f]

Sec. 5.05. [Adds § 6A to art. 4442c]

Sec. 5.06. [Amends §§ 1 to 5, 8 and adds § 6A to art. 4447c]

Sec. 5.07. [Amends arts. 4414a, 4415a, 4416a, 4417a, 4418a, 4418d, 4418f and adds art. 4418g]

Sec. 5.08. [Repeals arts. 4418h, 4418h–1, 4418c, 4418e, 4442c–1, and § 6 of art. 4447c]
the effective date of this Act filed an application for a health-care facility license, including submission of preliminary plans, and the agency approved the facility’s preliminary plans, and (2) within 120 days after the effective date of this Act, applies for an exemption certificate. However, an exemption certificate issued under this section is void on and after February 1, 1976, if before that date the certificate holder has not begun development of the project, and it is void on and after January 15, 1977, if before that date the certificate holder has not placed on file with the commission an affidavit from the building department having jurisdiction indicating that substantial progress has been made on the project and the certificate holder has not placed on file with the commission a valid notice of construction completion indicating a completion date of not later than January 15, 1978, and certifying that the completed project is within the scope of the previously submitted and approved preliminary plans. An exemption certificate issued under this section shall be applicable only to that portion of the project actually completed within the time limits prescribed by this section. The commission may extend the foregoing time limits by not more than a total of one year if good cause is shown why an extension should be granted.

(b) For the purposes of this section, “substantial progress” means: (1) For structures of three or fewer stories, completion of the foundations and footings; the structural frame; the mechanical, electrical, and plumbing rough-in; the rough flooring; the exterior walls and windows; and the finished roof. (2) For structures of more than three stories, in addition to (1) above, a contractor’s schedule of work shall be filed with the commission by January 15, 1977. Every three months thereafter, until completion, evidence shall be submitted to the commission that construction is progressing on that schedule.

(c) The commission may promulgate rules determined to be necessary for the administration and enforcement of this section.

Administrative Procedure

Sec. 6.03. Until January 1, 1976, except to the extent inconsistent with this Act, Sections 3, 4, 5, 10–16, and 18–20 of the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act1 are incorporated by reference and made applicable to proceedings of the commission under this Act. However, until January 1, 1976, the provision of Section 10 of that Act requiring publication of rules in the Texas Register is not incorporated or applicable, and in lieu of the provisions of Section 5 that require publication of notices in the Texas Register, the commission by rule shall provide and give notice in a manner that is reasonably calculated to give notice to persons likely to be interested in proposed rules.

1 Article 6252-13a.

Sec. 3. The Crippled Children's Division of the State Department of Health is empowered to take census, make surveys and establish permanent records of crippled children and children who have cancer; to procure medical and surgical service for eligible children, provided that only physicians legally qualified to practice medicine and surgery in Texas be employed for purposes of diagnosis and treatment, that not more than the customary minimum fees be paid for such services, and that physicians or surgeons so employed shall be approved by the State Board of Health as qualified to render such service; to select and designate hospitals for the care of children contemplated by this Act, and to take such other steps as may be necessary in order to accomplish the purposes of this Act.

At the discretion of the State Department of Health, transportation, appliances, braces and material necessary in the proper handling of crippled children or children who have cancer may be in part or entirely provided. Such appliances, braces and material, being a part of the care and treatment program and necessary to the physical restoration of the individual crippled child as defined in this Act or a child who has cancer, shall not be considered to be state-owned personal property and shall be excluded from the personal property inventory required of state-owned property; and all such property including appliances, braces and materials, being a part of the care and treatment program, and which are now being accounted for under the provisions of the present system of accounting shall be deleted from and not required after the passage and effective date of this Act. The State Department of Health, however, shall maintain at all times a complete record of such appliances, braces and materials provided and such records shall be verified by the State Auditor.

The State Department of Health is directed to provide in Rules and Regulations, the necessary details for the conduct of this work, in accordance with the purposes of this Act, which shall permit as far as possible, the free choice of patients in their selections of physicians and hospitals, and shall arrange with hospitals, brace departments and other services providing for crippled children's work and children who have cancer, compensation for such services, provided that such fees or charges shall not exceed the average charges for the same services rendered to patients in the hospitals approved for purposes of this Act.

Sec. 4. No child shall be entitled to the care and treatment provided in this Act unless the Texas Department of Health determines that every person who has a legal obligation to provide care and treatment for the child is financially unable to provide for said care and treatment.

A person who has a legal obligation to provide care and treatment for a child and who is financially able to bear a portion of the expenses shall be required to pay for or reimburse the department for a portion of the cost of the services provided by the department to the child for whom the application is made or by whom the services are received. A schedule to govern this required proportional payment or reimbursement of the cost of services shall be included in the department's rules.

Provided further that at least one physician, regularly practicing under the laws of the State of Texas, must certify that the physician has examined said child and recommends said child as coming under the provisions and intent of this Act. Provided further that no employee, agent, or representative of the Department, or other official agent, shall, by virtue of this Act, have any right to enter any home over the objection of the person who has the legal responsibility to provide care and treatment for the child, and nothing in this Act shall be construed as limiting the power of those persons over such child.

Provided further that funds of the Division of Crippled Children's Services may be expended for the care of any patients either under the regular Crippled Children's Program, the Children's Cancer Services Program, or the Cardiac Program who expire while being hospitalized under the State Program for the following:

Transportation of the deceased and a parent or anyone who may accompany the body of the deceased from the hospital to the place of burial designated by the parents.

Expenses incidental to embalming of the deceased as required for transportation.

A casket purchased at the minimum price as required for transportation.

Any other necessary expenses directly related to the care of the body of the deceased and the return of the body to place of burial.

Eligibility for Other Benefits; Reimbursement of Department

Sec. 4A. (a) In this section, "other benefit" means a benefit to which a person is entitled other than a benefit under this Act for payment of the costs of medical care and treatment or burial, including but not limited to the following:

(1) benefits available under:
   (A) an insurance policy, group health plan, or prepaid medical care plan;
   (B) Title XVIII or Title XIX of the Social Security Act, as amended;¹
   (C) the Veterans Administration;
   (D) the Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Uniformed Services;
Art. 4419c

(E) workers' compensation or any other compulsory employers' insurance program; or

(F) a public program created by federal law, state law, or the ordinances or rules of a municipality or political subdivision of the state; or

(2) benefits available from a cause of action for medical expenses to a child applying for or receiving services from the department or a settlement or judgment based on such a cause of action, if the expenses are related to the need for services provided by the program.

(b) A child is not eligible to receive services provided by this Act to the extent that the child or a person who has a legal obligation to support the child is eligible for some other benefit that would pay for the service or part of the service provided by this Act.

(c) An applicant or recipient of services provided by this Act shall inform the department at the time of application or at any time during eligibility and receipt of services of any other benefit to which the child for whom the application is made, the child’s parent, the child’s managing conservator, or other person who has a legal obligation to support the child may be entitled.

(d) The parent of a child, the managing conservator of a child, or other person who has a legal obligation to support the child may be entitled.

(e) The department may recover the expenditure for services provided under this Act from a person who does not reimburse the department as required by Subsection (d) of this section or from any third party upon whom there is a possible legal obligation to pay other benefits and to whom notice of the department's interest in the other benefits has been given. At the request of the commissioner of health, the attorney general may bring suit in the appropriate court of Travis County on behalf of the department. The court may award attorney's fees, court costs, and interest accruing from the date the department provides the service to the date the department is reimbursed in a judgment in favor of the department.

Acts 1979, 66th Leg., ch. 842, repealing this article, enacts the Human Resources Code.

Prior to repeal, this article was amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 352, §§ 1, 2; Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1203, ch. 466, §§ 1 to 3.

Art. 4419f. Children’s Vision Screening Act of 1979

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act shall be known as and may be cited as “The Texas Children’s Vision Screening Act of 1979.”

Purpose

Sec. 2. The purpose of children’s vision screening is to identify those children who need a thorough eye examination by a professional eye examiner. Such screening is particularly necessary in early childhood since many visual defects will become incurable if detected too late. Screening is not a diagnostic procedure and decisions about the need for treatment can only be made after a professional eye examination. Besides discovering vision defects which may interfere with the child’s education, vision screening helps the teacher prepare assessments of the child’s educational potential and helps to detect those children who are needing special educational services because of insufficient vision. It shall not be the intent of the legislature to impose any added fiscal implications or additional costs on units of local government.

Definitions

Sec. 3. (a) “Board” means the Texas Board of Health.

(b) “Department” means the Texas Department of Health.

(c) “Vision screening” means a test or battery of tests for rapid determination of the need for a more complete visual examination by an eye specialist.

Children’s Vision Screening Required; Exception

Text of section effective September 1, 1980

Sec. 4. (a) It is required for all children enrolling in any public, private, parochial, or denominational school in Texas for the first time, that the parent, managing conservator, or other person having a legal responsibility for the child’s support shall submit to the admitting officer of the school within 90 days after admission a certificate which states that the child has either (1) been examined by a physician licensed to practice in the United States or an optometrist licensed to practice in the United States or
(2) undergone a vision screening test which has been approved by the board and which discloses the results of the examination or test.

(b) Subject to the exception in Subsection (c) of this section, the board may by rule modify the requirement of Subsection (a) to require the additional periodic examination or screening of children it determines is necessary.

c) A child may be provisionally admitted to a kindergarten, elementary, or secondary school upon the submission of an affidavit signed by the parent, managing conservator, or person having a legal responsibility for the child's support, that the child will undergo the required vision screening test or examination as rapidly as is feasible.

(d) The requirements of this section are mandatory except in the event that the affected child's parent, managing conservator, or person having a legal responsibility for the child's support presents to the school authorities an affidavit signed by the parent, managing conservator, or person having a legal responsibility for the child's support stating that the visual screening test conflicts with the Tenets or practices of a recognized church or religious denomination of which the affiant is an adherent or a member.

(e) The governing body of each school shall ensure that all parents, managing conservators, or persons having a legal responsibility for the support of school children within the jurisdiction of the governing body present the required certificate of examination or screening, or an affidavit of exemption based on religious tenet or practice.

Required Certificate

Text of section effective September 1, 1980

Sec. 5. (a) The certificate required shall be in a form prescribed by the board and shall contain that information which may be required by the board to carry out the intent of this Act.

(b) The certificate may be signed by:

(1) a physician licensed to practice in the State of Texas or an optometrist licensed to practice in the United States who performed the eye examination;

(2) a physician licensed to practice in the State of Texas or an optometrist licensed to practice in the United States who personally supervised a vision screening test; or

(3) health personnel, volunteers, school nurses or aides, or other school personnel who have undergone a special training program in the administration of children's vision screening testing which meets the standards approved by the board.

c) The requirement of Section 4 may be met by an entry made in the official school record of the child which states that the child has undergone a vision screening test which meets the standards set by the board, that the test was administered by a person authorized in this section to sign the required certificate, and which discloses the results of the test.

Examination or Test Records; Reporting

Sec. 6. (a) Each school covered by this Act shall keep an individual eye examination or vision screening record for each student during the period of attendance for each child admitted, and the records shall be open for inspection at all reasonable times by representatives of the local health departments or the Texas Department of Health.

(b) Each school covered by this Act shall cooperate in transferring student's eye examination or vision screening records between other schools. Specific approval from the parent, managing conservator, or other person having a legal responsibility for the child's support is not required prior to making such transfers.

c) The department shall develop the form for a required annual report of the results of the examinations or tests and the report will be submitted according to the instructions of the board.

Powers of the Texas Board of Health

Sec. 7. (a) The board is authorized to establish a vision screening program in the department.

(b) The board, in consultation with the advisory committee, shall adopt rules to carry out the intent of this Act. These rules shall include, but not be limited to, rules prescribing the following:

(1) form and content of the required certificate;

(2) the closing dates for presenting such certificates;

(3) transfer of individual certificates between schools;

(4) criteria for rescreening and referral;

(5) reporting of results and referrals to the department;

(6) standards required for vision screening tests and screener training courses to ensure excellence and uniformity in the vision screening program.

c) The board acting through the department and in consultation with the advisory committee shall:

(1) train or approve the training of persons who will administer vision screening tests;

(2) monitor the quality of screening activities in an appropriate manner;
(3) directly or through local health departments or regional public health offices, assist school districts and other organizations in developing programs to provide vision screening for children;

(4) compile and publish statistical analyses of reports relating to examination and screening results and referrals to ascertain the impact of the requirements on public health.

Advisory Committee on Vision Screening

Sec. 8. The board shall appoint an advisory committee on children’s vision to consult with and advise the board in determining acceptable technical and professional standards which must be met by any individual or public or private health care entity undertaking to perform the vision screening tests allowed in Section 4 of this Act. The advisory committee will also advise the board on referral and appropriate follow-up.

(a) The advisory committee shall be composed of:

(1) two physicians who are licensed to practice in Texas and whose medical specialty is ophthalmology;

(2) two optometrists who are licensed to practice in Texas, one of whom must be a member of the Texas Optometric Association and one of whom must be a member of the Texas Association of Optometrists; and

(3) two persons to represent the public who have experience in and an interest in children’s visual problems.

(b) Except for those first appointed, members are appointed for terms of six years expiring on August 31 of the odd-numbered years. If a vacancy occurs on the committee, the board shall appoint a member to serve the unexpired portion of the term.

(c) The advisory committee shall serve without compensation; however, the committee members may be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred while fulfilling their duties as committee members.

(d) The advisory committee, after approval from the department, may from time to time invite the participation of representatives of professional and volunteer organizations in their activities.

Interagency Committee on Children’s Vision

Sec. 9. (a) The functioning of the vision screening program shall be assisted by an interagency committee on children’s vision. The commissioner of education, the commissioner of human resources, the executive director of the State Commission for the Blind, and the commissioner of health shall appoint one member from their agency to the committee. The committee members shall coordinate preschool and school vision screening programs and the vision health programs in their respective agencies in the State of Texas. The committee may invite the advisory committee on children’s vision, authorized under this Act, to meet with it and to offer professional consultation when requested.

(b) The interagency committee shall select one of its members as chairman and may elect other officers that it considers necessary. The committee may meet as often and at any place that it may decide, but shall meet at least once in each calendar year.

Limitation on Authority

Sec. 10. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as giving anyone authority to require the maintenance of any forms or filing of reports that were not required prior to the passage of this Act.

Initial Appointments

Sec. 11. In making the initial appointments to the advisory committee, the board shall appoint one ophthalmologist and one optometrist for terms expiring on August 31, 1981; one optometrist and a person representing the public for terms expiring August 31, 1983; and one ophthalmologist and a person representing the public for terms expiring August 31, 1985.

Effective Date

Sec. 12. The effective date of this Act is September 1, 1979; provided, however, that the requirements of Section 4 and Section 5 shall not be effective until September 1, 1980.

[Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 2053, ch. 804, §§ 1 to 3, 6 to 12, eff. Sept. 1, 1980; §§ 4, 5, eff. Sept. 1, 1980.]

Art. 4437e. Hospital Authority Act

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1]

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this law, “City” means any incorporated city or town in this State;

“Governing Body” means the council, commission or other governing body of a City;

“Authority” means a Hospital Authority created under this Act;

“Board” or “Board of Directors” means the board of directors of the Authority;

“Bond” or “Bonds” means bonds or notes;

“Bond Resolution” means the resolution authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds;

“Trust Indenture” means the mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument pledging revenues of, or creating a mortgage lien on properties, or both, to secure the revenue bonds issued by the Authority;

“Trustee” means the trustee under the Trust Indenture;
Sec. 4. (a) The Authority shall be governed by a Board of Directors consisting of no less than seven (7) nor more than eleven (11) members to be determined at the time of creating the Authority. Unless otherwise provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds or the Trust Indenture securing them, the number of Directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to the ordinance creating the Authority adopted by the Governing Body of the City or ordinances creating the Authority adopted by the Governing Bodies of the Cities, but no decrease in number shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent Director. Except as hereinafter in this Section provided, the first Directors shall be appointed by the Governing Body of the City or by the Governing Bodies of the Cities, and they shall serve until their successors are appointed as hereinafter provided. If Authority includes more than one City, each Governing Body shall appoint an equal number of Directors unless otherwise agreed by the Cities. When the Authority issues its revenue bonds the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or the Trust Indenture securing them may prescribe the method of selecting and the term of office of a majority of the members of the Board. The remaining members of the Board shall be appointed by the Governing Body of the City or the Governing Bodies of the Cities for two (2) year terms. The Trust Indenture may also provide that, in event of default as defined in the Trust Indenture, the Trustee may appoint all the Directors, in which event the terms of the Directors then in office shall automatically terminate. Unless and until provision is made in the Bond Resolution or Indenture in connection with the issuance of bonds for the appointment by other means of part of the Directors, all of the Directors shall be appointed by the Governing Body of the City or each of the Cities, as the case may be, for terms not to exceed two (2) years, but the terms of Directors appointed prior to the issuance of the first issue of revenue bonds shall be subject to the exercise of the provision herein made for appointment of a majority of the members of the Board in connection with the issuance of the bonds. No officer or employee of any such City shall be eligible for appointment as a Director. Directors shall not receive compensation for services but shall be entitled to reimbursement of their expenses incurred in performing such service.

(b) In the event the Authority purchases from a nonprofit corporation a hospital then in existence or in process of construction, the first members of the Board of Directors and their successors shall be determined as provided in the contract of purchase.

Sec. 5. The Board of Directors shall elect from among their members a president and vice-president, and shall elect a secretary and a treasurer who may or may not be Directors, and may elect such other officers as may be authorized by Authority’s bylaws. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be combined. The president shall have the same right to vote on all matters as other members of the Board. A majority of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum and when a quorum is present action may be taken by a majority vote of Directors present. If the bylaws so provide, the Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the Directors in office, may designate one or more committees, which, to the extent and in the manner provided in such resolution or in the bylaws, shall have and exercise the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Authority. Each such committee shall consist of two or more persons who are directors and may have additional nonvoting members who, if such resolution or the bylaws so provide, need not be directors. The Board of Directors may not, however, provide for the delegation to such committees of the Authority of the power to issue bonds, enter into or amend a lease of a Hospital or a management agreement with respect to a Hospital or to employ or discharge a manager or an executive director. The Board may employ a manager or executive director of the Hospital and such other employees, experts and agents as it may see fit, or enter into a management agreement with any person and it may delegate to the manager the power to manage the Hospital and to employ and discharge employees. The Board may lease the Hospital as otherwise provided by law and may employ legal counsel.

Sec. 6. (a) The Authority shall have the power to construct, enlarge, furnish and equip Hospitals, purchase existing Hospitals, furnishings and equipment for its Hospitals, and to operate and maintain Hospitals. A Hospital need not be located within the City or Cities.

(b) The Authority may sell any of its property without an election to a political subdivision of the State for the fair market value of the property if:

(1) the Board of Directors has notice of its intention to sell the property, a description of the property, and the scheduled date of the sale published in a newspaper or newspapers providing general circulation in the Authority once each week for two consecutive weeks, the first publication at least 14 days before the scheduled date of the sale; and

(2) a petition requesting an election on a proposition for or against the sale, signed by 10 percent or more of the qualified voters residing in the Authority is not presented to the secretary or president of the Board of Directors before the scheduled date of the sale.

(c) If a petition described in Subdivision (2), Subsection (b) of this section is presented to the secretary or president of the Board of Directors before the scheduled date of the sale, the property may be sold to a political subdivision only if an election on the proposition is held and a majority of the qualified voters voting in the election favor the sale. The Board shall call the election on receiving the petition or may call the election on its own motion if no petition is filed. The Board shall determine and the order calling the election shall specify the date, place, or places of holding the election, the form of ballot, and the presiding judge, alternate judge, and clerks for each voting place. Section 9b, Texas Election Code (Article 2.01b, Vernon’s Texas Election Code), does not apply to the election. A substantial copy of the election order shall be published in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the Authority once a week for two consecutive weeks, the first publication to appear at least 30 days before the election date. The form of the ballots at the election shall be in conformity with Section 61, Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 6.05, Vernon’s Texas Election Code), so that ballots may be cast for or against the following proposition: “The sale of . . . . . . . . . . . . . Hospital Authority.” The Board shall canvass the returns and announce the results. Except as specifically provided in this section, the election shall be governed by the Texas Election Code.

(d) The Board may sell real property acquired by donation, gift, or purchase that the Board determines is not needed for Hospital purposes if the sale does not contravene (1) a trust indenture or bond resolution relating to outstanding bonds of the Authority, or any prior restrictions or limitations placed on the use of the property, or (2) any agreement entered into either prior to or after the effective date of this Section 6(d) between the Authority and a non-profit corporation under the provisions of Senate Bill No. 243, as enacted, Acts of the 64th Legislature, Regular Session, 1975.¹ The Board shall sell the property through sealed bids or at a public auction. If the Board conducts the sale by sealed bids, the Board shall provide notice of the sale in the manner provided by Chapter 455, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969, as amended (Article 5421e–12, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes). If the Board conducts the sale by public auction, the Board shall publish notice of the sale, including a description of the property and the date, time, and place of the auction, in a newspaper with general circulation in each City of the Authority once a week for three consecutive weeks, the first notice to appear at least 20 days before the auction. Nothing in this Section 6(d) is intended to affect or amend the powers granted to the Authority by Senate Bill No. 243, as enacted, Acts of the 64th Legislature, Regular Session, 1976.

Revenue Bonds

Sec. 7. The Authority may issue revenue bonds to provide funds for any of its purposes. Such bonds shall be payable from and secured by a pledge of all or any designated part of the revenues to be derived from the operation of the Hospital or Hospitals and any other revenues resulting from the ownership of the Hospital properties. The bonds may be additionally secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property of Authority or by a chattel mortgage on its personal property, or by both.

Procedure for Bond Issue; Requisites; Maturity; Sales; Registration

Sec. 8. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution adopted by a majority vote of a quorum of the Board of Directors, and shall be signed by the president or vice-president and countersigned by the secretary, or either or both of their facsimile signatures may be printed thereon. The seal of the Authority shall be impressed or printed thereon. The bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years and may be sold at a price and under terms determined by the Board of Directors to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, provided that the net effective interest rate as defined by law in Article 717k–2 does not exceed ten percent (10%) per annum, and within the discretion of the Board, may be made callable prior to maturity at such times and prices as may be prescribed in the resolution authorizing the bonds, and may be made registrable as to principal or has to both principal and interest.

Junior Lien Bonds; Parity Bonds

Sec. 10. Bonds constituting a junior lien on the revenues or properties may be issued unless prohibited by the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture. Parity bonds may be issued under conditions specified in the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture.
Money Set Aside Out of Bond Sale Proceeds

Sec. 11. Money for the payment of not more than two (2) years' interest on the bonds and an amount estimated by the Board to be required for operating expenses during the first year of operation and an amount to fund any bond reserve fund or other reserve funds provided for in the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture may be set aside for those purposes out of the proceeds from the sale of the bonds.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 12. Bonds may be issued for the purpose of refunding outstanding bonds in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds, and may be exchanged by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas or sold and the proceeds applied in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Chapter 503, Acts of the Fifty-fourth Legislature 2 or other applicable law.

Operation of Hospital; Rates Charged; Creation of Funds; Lease Conditions

Sec. 14. The Hospital shall be operated without the intervention of private profit for the use and benefit of the public. If the Hospital is not being used, operated, or acquired by a nonprofit corporation under the provisions of the Hospital Project Financing Act (Article 4437e–2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) or not leased it shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to charge sufficient rates for services rendered by the Hospital and to utilize other sources of its revenues that revenues will be produced sufficient to pay all expenses in connection with the ownership, operation and upkeep of the Hospital, to pay the interest on the bonds as it becomes due, to create a sinking fund to pay the bonds as they become due, and to create and maintain a bond reserve fund and other funds as provided in the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture. In the event the Hospital is not being used, operated, or acquired by a nonprofit corporation under the provisions of the Hospital Project Financing Act (Article 4437e–2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) or leased, it shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to provide that such nonprofit corporation or the lessee shall charge sufficient rates for services rendered by the Hospital which together with other sources of such nonprofit corporation's or the lessee's revenues will produce revenues sufficient to enable such nonprofit corporation or the lessee to pay all expenses in connection with the operation and upkeep of the Hospital and to make payments or to pay lease rentals to the Authority which will be sufficient, when taken with other pledged sources of the Authority's estimated revenues, to pay the interest on the bonds as it becomes due, to create a sinking fund to pay the bonds as they become due, and to create and main-

Sec. 18. The law as to the security for and the investment of funds, applicable to Cities, shall control, insofar as applicable the investment of funds belonging to Authority. The Bond Resolution or the Indenture or both may further restrict the making of such investments. In addition to other powers Authority shall have the right to invest the proceeds of its bonds, until such money is needed, in the manner authorized in the Bond Resolution or Indenture, and the proceeds of its bonds may be deposited in such banks and may be paid out pursuant to such terms as may be provided in the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture.

Art. 4437e-2. Hospital Project Financing Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the "Hospital Project Financing Act."

Purpose

Sec. 2. It is hereby found, determined, and declared that it is the policy of the State of Texas that the present and prospective health, safety, and general welfare of the people of this state require as a public purpose the promotion and development of new and expanded hospital projects, as defined in this Act. It is essential that the people of this state have access to adequate medical care and health facilities and that such facilities be provided with appropriate additional means to assist in the development and maintenance of the public health. It is the purpose of this Act to enable certain issuers, as defined in this Act, to provide the facilities and structures, at a reasonable cost, which are determined to be needed by the various issuers; therefore the issuance of revenue bonds and notes by such issuers as herein provided for the promotion of medical care, public health, and medical research, including training and teaching, is hereby declared to be in the public interest and a public purpose. The necessity in the public interest of the provisions hereinafter enacted is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination.

Definitions

Sec. 3. When used in this Act, unless the context requires a different definition:

(a) "Authority" means a hospital authority created and established in accordance with Chapter 472, Acts of the 55th Legislature, 1957, as amended (Article 4437e, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); or Chapter 122, Acts of the 58th Legislature, 1963 (Article 4494r, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); or any other public health authority presently existing or created hereafter by law in this state.

(b) "City" means any municipal corporation of this state presently existing or created hereafter, whether existing or created by general law or pursuant to a home-rule charter.

(c) "Cost" as applied to a hospital project, as herein defined, means and includes any and all costs of a hospital project, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, "cost" as applied to a hospital project and used in this Act shall include the following:

1. The cost of the acquisition of all land, rights-of-way, options to purchase land, easements, and interests of all kinds in land related to a hospital project;

2. The cost of the acquisition, construction, repair, renovation, remodeling, or improvement of all buildings and structures to be used as, or in conjunction with, a hospital project;

3. The cost of site preparation, including the cost of demolishing or removing any buildings or structures the removal of which is necessary or incident to providing a hospital project;

4. The cost of architectural, engineering, legal, and related services, plans and specifications, studies, surveys, estimates of cost and of revenue, and all other expenses necessary or incident to planning, providing, or determining the feasibility and practicability of a hospital project;

5. The cost of all machinery, equipment, furniture, and facilities necessary or incident to the equipping of a hospital project so that it may be placed in operation;

6. The cost of financing charges and interest prior to and during construction and for a maximum of two years after completion of construction and the start-up costs of a hospital project during construction and for a maximum of two years after completion of construction;

7. Any and all cost incurred in connection with the financing of a hospital project, including without limitation, the cost of financing, legal, accounting, and appraisal fees, expenses, and disbursements; the cost of printing, engraving, and reproduction services; and the cost of the initial or acceptance fee of any trustee or paying agent;

8. All direct and indirect costs of the issuer, as herein defined, incurred in connection with providing a hospital project, including, without limitation, reasonable sums to reimburse the issuer for time spent by its employees with respect to providing a hospital project and the financing thereof; and

9. The cost of all fees, charges, and expenses incurred in connection with the authorization, preparation, sale, issuance, and delivery of any bonds or notes issued in accordance with the terms of this Act.

(d) "County" means a political subdivision of the State of Texas created and established under Article IX, Section 1, of the Constitution of Texas.

(e) "District" means a hospital district presently existing or created hereafter under authority of the constitution and laws of Texas.

(f) "Governing body" means, with reference to an issuer, as herein defined, the board of directors, council, commission, commissioners court, trustees, or similar body charged by law with the governance of an issuer.

(g) "Hospital project" means and includes any real, personal, or mixed property, or any interest therein, the financing, refinancing, acquiring, providing, constructing, enlarging, remodeling, renovating, improving, furnishing, or equipping of which is found by the governing body of an issuer to be required or necessary for medical care, research, training, and teaching, any one or all, within this state, irrespective of whether such property is in existence or to be provided after the making of such finding. The use of the singular "hospital project" herein shall also include the plural "hospital projects" unless the context clearly requires a different connotation. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and when found by the governing body of an issuer to be so required, necessary, or convenient, "hospital project" shall include the following: or district.

(2) any structure suitable for use as a hospital, clinic, health facility, extended care facility, out-patient facility, rehabilitation or recreation facility, pharmacy, medical laboratory, dental laboratory, physicians’ office building, or laundry or administrative facility or building related to a health facility or system;

(3) any structure suitable for use as a multi-unit housing facility for medical staff, nurses, interns, other employees of a health facility or system, patients of a health facility, or relatives of patients admitted for treatment or care in a health facility;

(4) any structure suitable for use as a support facility related to a hospital project such as an office building, parking lot or building, or maintenance, safety, or utility facility, and related equipment;

(5) any structure suitable for use as a medical or dental research facility, medical or dental training facility, or any other facility used in the education or training of health care personnel;

(6) any property or material used in the landscaping, equipping, or furnishing of a hospital project and other similar items necessary or convenient for the operation of a hospital project; and

(7) any other structure, facility, or equipment related to, or essential to, the operation of any health facility or system except that a hospital project shall not include any nursing home licensed as such, or which would be required to be licensed as such, under the authority of the State of Texas. “Hospital project” may include any combination of one or more of the foregoing.

(h) “Issuer” means any authority, city, county, or district.

(i) “Non-profit corporation” means (1) a non-profit corporation established under the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, as amended (Article 1396–1.01, et seq., Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), or any other similar statute, or (2) an association, foundation, trust, cooperative, or similar person or organization no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual and which incurs a contractual obligation with an issuer with respect to a hospital project in accordance with the provisions of this Act. The use of the singular “non-profit corporation” herein shall also include the plural “non-profit corporations” unless the context clearly requires a different connotation.

Sec. 4. Bonds or notes issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall not be deemed to constitute general obligations of the State of Texas, the issuer, or any other political subdivision or agency of this state or a pledge of the faith and credit of any of them but such bonds or notes shall be payable solely from revenues of the hospital project for which they are issued and/or from such other revenues as may be provided by a non-profit corporation. No money of the State of Texas or any political subdivision or agency of this state, whether raised from taxation or any other source, except for revenue of the hospital project being financed with the bonds, shall ever be used to pay the principal of, redemption premium, if any, or interest on any revenue bonds or notes or refunding bonds or notes issued under this Act. All such revenue bonds or notes shall contain on the face thereof statements to the effect (a) that neither the State of Texas, the issuer, nor any political subdivision or agency of the State of Texas shall be obligated to pay the same or the interest thereon except from the revenues pledged thereto and (b) that neither the faith, credit, nor the taxing power of the State of Texas, the issuer, or any political subdivision or agency thereof is pledged to the payment of the principal of, redemption premium, if any, or interest on such bonds or notes. The issuer shall not be authorized to incur financial obligations under this Act which cannot be paid from the proceeds of the bonds or notes, revenues derived from operating a hospital project, or any other revenues as may be provided by a non-profit corporation, in accordance with the provisions of this Act. In no event shall any appropriation be made by the Legislature of Texas or any issuer to pay all or any part of any cost of a hospital project or any operating cost of such hospital project in accordance with the provisions of this Act. The issuer shall be paid, out of money from the proceeds of the sale and delivery of its revenue bonds or notes issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act, an amount of money equal to all of the issuer’s out-of-pocket expenses and costs in connection with the issuance, sale, and delivery of such bonds or notes, including, without limitation, all financing, legal, printing, and other expenses and costs incurred in issuing such bonds or notes, plus an amount of money equal to the compensation paid any of such issuer’s employees for the time such employees spent on activities related to the issuance, sale, and delivery of such bonds or notes. All such costs and expenses shall be deemed to be a “cost” of a hospital project as defined in Section 3(e) of this Act.

Powers of Issuer

Sec. 5. In addition to all other powers which it may now or hereafter have, each issuer is authorized and empowered as follows:
(a) to provide, or cause to be provided by a non-profit corporation, by acquisition (whether by purchase, devise, gift, lease, or any one or more of such methods), construction, or improvement one or more hospital projects located within this state, and within or partially within the issuer's boundaries; provided that with respect to the acquisition of one or more hospital projects, (a) the issuer shall only acquire such hospital project from a non-profit corporation which has been in existence and has operated such hospital project for a period of at least three years prior to the date of acquisition by the issuer and (b) the issuer affirmatively finds that the cost of such hospital project is not more than (1) the actual audited cost of the hospital project to the date of acquisition or (2) the fair market value of the hospital project at the date of acquisition as determined by an appraisal obtained by the issuer, the cost of which appraisal shall be a cost of the hospital project; provided that as to a city, a hospital project may be situated outside its territorial limits if it is within its extraterritorial jurisdiction as provided by the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); and further provided that as to a city, a hospital project may be situated within the territorial limits of any other city if the governing body of such other city shall consent to the former city providing such hospital project;

(b) to cause title to a hospital project provided in accordance with the provisions of this Act to be vested in a non-profit corporation; provided that if the governing body of the issuer deems it advisable to so vest title in a non-profit corporation, such issuer may retain a mortgage interest in such hospital project, which mortgage interest shall expire if and when all bonds or notes of the issuer sold to provide such hospital project have been paid or provision has been made for their final payment;

(c) to enter into leases or other contracts with a non-profit corporation with respect to any hospital project whereby such non-profit corporation shall use, operate, or acquire such hospital project, and such leases or contracts may be for such payment and upon such terms and conditions as the governing body may deem advisable; and to sell such hospital project to any non-profit corporation, including a non-profit corporation using such hospital project, such sale to be by installment payments or otherwise, and to be fully consummated if and when all bonds or notes of the issuer sold to provide such hospital project have been paid or provision has been made for their final payment; provided that during the time the bonds or notes or interest thereon remains unpaid there is no failure to make any payments owing under any lease or contract at the time and in the manner as the same become due; and

(d) to refund outstanding obligations, mortgages, or advances issued, made, or given by a non-profit corporation for the cost of a hospital project.

Eminent Domain

Sec. 6. No issuer shall have the power under this Act to acquire any hospital project, or any part thereof, to be sold or leased under this Act, by the exercise of the power of eminent domain. Land previously acquired by an issuer in the exercise of the power of eminent domain may be sold or leased, under the provisions of this Act; provided that the governing body of the issuer determines that (a) such use will not interfere with the purpose for which such land was originally acquired or that such land is no longer needed for such purpose, (b) at least seven years have elapsed since such land was so acquired, and (c) such land was not acquired for park purposes unless such sale or lease of park land has been approved at an election held under the authority of Article 1112, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended by Chapter 108, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, 1973.

Issuance of Bonds or Notes

Sec. 7. (a) Each issuer is hereby authorized to provide by resolution, from time to time, for the issuance of negotiable revenue bonds or notes or any other evidences of indebtedness for the purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of a hospital project. The bonds or notes of each issue shall be dated, shall bear interest at such rate or rates, and shall mature at such time or times, not exceeding 40 years from their date, as may be determined by the issuer and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the issuer, at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be determined by the issuer.

(b) The principal of, redemption premium, if any, and the interest on such bonds or notes shall be payable from and secured by a pledge of all or any part of the revenues of the issuer to be derived from the ownership, operation, lease, use, mortgage, and/or sale of the hospital project for which such bonds or notes have been issued and/or from such other revenues, if any, as may be provided by a non-profit corporation, all as specified by the resolution of the governing body or in any trust indenture or other instrument securing the bonds or notes.

(c) One or more series of bonds or notes may be issued for each hospital project or any hospital projects may be combined in one or more series of bonds or notes if the governing body, in the exercise of its discretion, deems the same to be in the best interest of the issuer, but each hospital project may be considered separately with respect to the provisions of Sections 8 and 9 of this Act.
(d) The issuer shall determine the form of the bonds or notes, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto, and shall determine the denomination or denominations of the bonds or notes and the place or places of payment of principal, redemption premium, if any, and interest. Provision may be made for execution of the bonds or notes and coupons, if any, under the provisions of Chapter 204, Acts of the 57th Legislature, 1961, as amended (Article 717j–1, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes). In cases where any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature shall appear on any bonds, notes, or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds or notes, such signature or such facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if he had remained in office until such delivery. The bonds or notes may be issued in coupon or in registered form, or both, or may be payable to a specific person, as the issuer may determine, and provisions may be made for the registration of any coupon bonds or notes as to the principal alone and also as to both principal and interest, and provision may be made for the conversion of coupon bonds or notes into registered bonds or notes without coupons and for the reconversion into coupon bonds or notes of any registered bonds or notes without coupons. If the duty of such conversion or reconversion is imposed upon a trustee in a trust agreement, the substituted bonds or notes need not be reapproved by the Attorney General of Texas, and they shall remain incontestable. The issuer shall sell the bonds or notes at such price or prices as shall be determined by the governing body of the issuer.

(e) The proceeds of the bonds or notes shall be used solely for the payment of the cost of the hospital project for which the bonds or notes were issued, and shall be disbursed in such manner and under such restrictions, if any, provided in the resolution authorizing their issuance or in the trust agreement securing the same. If the proceeds of the bonds or notes shall exceed the cost of the hospital project for which the same shall have been issued, the surplus shall be deposited to the credit of the sinking fund for such bonds or notes.

(f) From the proceeds from the sale of the bonds or notes, the governing body may set aside amounts for payments into reserve funds, and provisions for such funds may be made in the resolution authorizing the bonds or notes or any instruments securing the same. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds or notes may be invested: (1) in direct, indirect, or guaranteed obligations of the United States government or its agencies maturing in the manner that may be specified by the resolution authorizing the bonds or notes or any other instrument securing the bonds or notes; or (2) in certificates of deposit of any bank or trust company which deposits are secured by such obligations. Any bank or trust company with trust powers may be designated by the governing body to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or notes or of contract or lease revenues. Such bank or trust company shall furnish such indemnifying bonds or pledge such securities as may be required by the issuer to secure the deposits.

(g) Prior to the preparation or issuance of definitive bonds or notes, the issuer may issue interim receipts or temporary bonds or notes, with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds or notes when such bonds or notes shall have been executed and are available for delivery. Such interim receipts or temporary bonds or notes shall be for a maximum term of two years. The issuer shall submit such interim receipts or temporary bonds or notes to the Attorney General of Texas in accordance with Subsection (i) of this Section 7.

(h) Bonds or notes may be issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act without obtaining the consent of any department, division, commission, board, bureau, or agency of the State of Texas, and without any proceedings or the happening of any conditions or things other than those proceedings, conditions, or things which are specifically required by this Act.

(i) After issuance of the bonds or notes is authorized and before the bonds or notes may be delivered to the purchaser thereof, the bonds or notes and the proceedings authorizing their issuance and securing the bonds or notes shall be presented to the Attorney General of Texas for examination. Where such bonds or notes recite that they are secured by a pledge of all or any part of the revenues of the issuer to be derived from any lease or other contract, such contracts shall also be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas. If the attorney general finds that such bonds or notes have been duly authorized in accordance with the constitution and laws of the State of Texas and that such contracts, if any, submitted to him securing and relating to the bonds or notes have been made in accordance with the constitution and laws of the State of Texas, he shall approve the bonds or notes and such contracts. The bonds or notes when approved shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. After such approval and registration, the bonds or notes and any and all contracts submitted therewith shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms, and shall be incontestable in any court or other forum.

(j) Nothing in this Act shall supersede the provisions of the state certificate of need law.

(k) Before authorizing the issuance of any bonds or notes or calling an election on any matters authorized by this Act, the issuer shall deposit with the chief administrative officer of the issuer a full and complete description of any proposed hospital project, including a detailed listing and explanation... of projected costs, the reasons for the hospital project, and the names of the owners of the non-profit corporation for whom the hospital project is to be constructed. All of the information deposited or required to be deposited by this section is public information.

Resolution for issuance of bonds or notes; publication; protest of issuance; election

Sec. 8. Before issuing any bonds or notes in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the governing body of an issuer shall adopt a resolution declaring its intention to do so and stating the maximum amount of bonds or notes proposed to be issued, the purpose for which the bonds or notes are to be issued, and the tentative date, time, and place at which the governing body proposes to authorize the issuance of such bonds or notes. A substantial copy of such resolution shall be published three times in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the territorial limits of the issuer. The first publication shall be made not more than 45 days prior to the tentative date fixed in such resolution and the third publication shall be made not less than 10 days prior to the tentative date fixed in such resolution for the authorization of the bonds or notes. If at least 5 percent or 20,000 of the qualified electors of the issuer, whichever is less, shall file a written protest against the issuance of such proposed bonds or notes at no later than the close of business the business day before the tentative date specified for the authorization of such bonds or notes, then an election on the question of the issuance of such bonds or notes shall be called and held as herein provided. If no such protest is filed, then such bonds or notes may be issued by the issuer without an election at any time within a period of two years after the tentative date specified in the resolution; provided, however, that the governing body of an issuer, in its discretion, may call an election on such question, in which event it shall not be necessary to publish the notice of its intention to issue bonds or notes as provided herein.

Election on issuance of bonds or notes

Sec. 9. If an election is called, notice thereof shall be published three times in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the territorial limits of the issuer. The first publication shall be made not more than 45 days prior to the date fixed for such election, and the third publication shall be made not less than 10 days prior to the date fixed for such election. The election shall be conducted in accordance with the general laws of Texas pertaining to bond elections in cities, except as modified by the provisions of this Act. The order calling the election shall specify the date of such election, the place or places of holding the election, and the presiding judge and alternate judge for each voting place, and shall provide for clerks as provided in the Election Code of the State of Texas. The form of ballot shall be in conformity with the applicable provisions of such election code and the ballots shall provide for voting for or against the following proposition: "The issuance of revenue bonds or notes or other evidences of indebtedness for the hospital project or hospital projects." As soon as practicable after such election is held, the governing body of the issuer shall convene and canvass the returns of the election, and in the event a majority of the voters voting in such election approves the proposition, such governing body shall so find and declare and shall be authorized to proceed with the authorization of bonds or notes. No election shall again be called on the proposition of issuing revenue bonds or notes for any hospital project which has been defeated by a majority of the voters voting in an election within six months of the proposed new election, and no bonds or notes shall be issued for any such hospital project until a majority of the voters voting in an election held for that purpose approve the issuance of such bonds or notes.

Leases and other contracts; terms

Sec. 10. Any lease or other contract entered into pursuant to this Act may be for such term as the parties may agree, and may provide that it shall continue in effect until the bonds or notes specified therein, or refunding or substitution bonds or notes issued in lieu of such bonds or notes, are fully paid or provision has been made for their final payment.

Refunding bonds or notes

Sec. 11. An issuer is hereby authorized to provide by resolution for the issuance of its revenue refunding bonds or notes for the purpose of refunding any bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness then outstanding, issued to provide a hospital project, which bonds, notes, or evidences of indebtedness may or may not have been issued under the provisions of this Act, including the payment of any redemption premium thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of such bonds, notes, or evidences of indebtedness. The bonds, notes, or evidences of indebtedness previously issued and to be refunded by the revenue refunding bonds or notes described in this Section 11 need not have been originally issued by the issuer of the revenue refunding bonds or notes. The issuance of such bonds or notes, the maturities and other details thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the rights, duties, and obligations of the issuer in respect of the same, shall be governed by the provisions of this Act insofar as the same may be applicable.

Within the discretion of the issuer, the refunding bonds or notes may be issued in exchange or substitution for outstanding bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness or may be sold and the proceeds used for the purpose of paying or redeeming
Securing Bonds or Notes by Trust Agreement

Sec. 12. (a) Any bonds or notes issued under the provisions of this Act may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the issuer and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within the State of Texas. Any such trust agreement may pledge or assign lease income, contract payments, fees, or any other charges to be received from a non-profit corporation. Such bonds or notes, within the discretion of the governing body of the issuer, may be additionally secured by a mortgage, a deed of trust lien, or other security interest upon a designated hospital project vesting in the trustee power to sell such hospital project for the payment of the indebtedness, power to operate such hospital project, and all other powers and authority for the further security of the bonds or notes.

(b) The trust agreement may evidence a pledge of all or any part of the revenues of the issuer to be derived from the ownership, operation, lease, use, mortgage, and/or sale of any hospital project for the payment of principal of, redemption premium, if any, and interest on such bonds or notes as the same shall become due and payable and may provide for the creation and maintenance of reserves. Any such trust agreement or any resolution providing for the issuance of such bonds or notes may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the holders thereof as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the issuer and the non-profit corporation in relation to the acquisition of property and the construction, improvement, maintenance, repair, operation, and insurance of the hospital project in connection with which such bonds or notes shall have been issued, and the custody, safeguarding, and application of all money. Any such trust agreement may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders or noteholders and of the trustee, and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders or noteholders as is customary in trust agreements or trust indentures securing bonds and debentures of corporations. In addition to the foregoing, any such trust agreement may contain such provisions as the issuer may deem reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders or noteholders and may also contain provisions governing the issuance of bonds and notes to replace lost, stolen, or mutilated bonds or notes. All expenses incurred by any issuer in carrying out the provisions of any such trust agreement may be treated as a part of the cost of the operation of the hospital project with respect to which the bonds or notes have been issued.

Sec. 13. Any agreement or contract made in accordance with the provisions of this Act may contain a provision that, in the event of a default in the payment of the principal of, redemption premium, if any, or the interest on bonds or notes issued in accordance with, or relating to, such agreement, or in the performance of any agreement contained in the proceedings, mortgage, or instruments relating to such bonds or notes, such payment and performance may be enforced by mandamus or by the appointment of a receiver in equity with power to charge and collect rates, rents, or contract payments and to apply the revenues from the hospital project in accordance with such resolution, mortgage, or instruments.

Foreclosure of Mortgage to Secure Bonds or Notes

Sec. 14. Any mortgage to secure bonds or notes issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act may also provide that, in the event of a default in the payment thereof or the violation of any agreement contained in the mortgage, the property secured by the mortgage may be foreclosed and sold under proceedings in equity or in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law. Such mortgage may also provide that any trustee under such mortgage or the holder of any of the bonds or notes secured thereby may become the purchaser at any foreclosure sale if the highest bidder therefor.

Members of Governing Body; Method of Selecting and Term of Office

Sec. 15. If an authority issues bonds or notes in accordance with the provisions of this Act, notwithstanding any provision of law, and under no circumstances, shall the method of selecting and the term of office of any of the members of the governing body of such authority be prescribed in the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or notes, the trust agreement securing such bonds or notes, or any other agreement relating to such bonds or notes.

Authority of Governing Body

Sec. 16. Except as limited by the provisions of this Act, each governing body of an issuer shall have full and complete authority with respect to bonds or notes of such issuer, lease agreements in which such issuer is lessee, sales agreements, and all other contracts and the provisions thereof.

Tax Exemption for Bonds or Notes

Sec. 17. In carrying out the purposes of this Act, the issuer will be performing an essential public function and any bonds or notes issued by it and their transfer and the interest therefrom, including any profits made from the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation by the State of Texas or any municipality or political subdivision thereof.
Art. 4437f. Texas Hospital Licensing Law

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1 to 6]

Application for License; Approval; Fees; Disposition

Sec. 7. Applications for license shall be made to the Licensing Agency upon forms provided by it, and shall contain such information as the Licensing Agency may reasonably require. It shall be necessary that the Licensing Agency issuing licenses require that each hospital show evidence that there are one or more physicians on the medical staff of the hospital, and that these physicians are currently licensed by the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners.

The Licensing Agency may require that the application be approved by the local health officer, or other local official, for the compliance with city ordinances on building construction, fire prevention, and sanitation. Hospitals outside city limits shall comply with corresponding state laws.

Each application shall be accompanied by a license fee. In the event the application for a license is denied, such fee shall be refunded to the applicant.

All license fees collected shall be deposited with the State Treasury to the credit of the Licensing Agency and said license fees are hereby appropriated to said agency for its use in the administration and enforcement of this Act.

Each hospital so licensed shall pay a license fee, both initially and annually thereafter, of Two Dollars ($2.00) per bed; but in no event shall the total fee exceed the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 8 and 9]

Failure to Comply with Health Planning and Development Act

Sec. 9A. The Licensing Agency shall deny, cancel, revoke, or suspend a license if its finds that the applicant or licensee has failed substantially to comply with any applicable provisions of the Texas Health Planning and Development Act 1 requiring a certificate of need or an exemption certificate.

Art. 4437f-1. Hospital Laundry Cooperative Associations; Health Related State-Supported and Nonprofit Institutions Within Medical Centers in Counties Over 1,600,000 Population

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1]

Definitions

Sec. 2. The following terms used in this Act shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Eligible institutions" shall include only political subdivisions and municipalities of the State of Texas; health-related state-supported institutions, including, but not limited to, Texas A&M University System, The University of Texas System, and Texas Woman's University; nonprofit health-related institutions; and cooperative associations created to provide certain systems as defined in Subsection (2), Section 2, Chapter 196, Acts of the 64th Legislature, Regular Session, 1975 (Article 4447r, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), a unit of which is situated in any county of this State having a population in excess of 1,600,000 inhabitants according to the most recent federal census. In addition to other activities, such entities must be engaged in health-related pursuits to become eligible institutions, and, except for cooperative associations, must be exempt from federal income tax. It is not a requirement of this Act that any component institution of any state-supported institution be a member of any association created under this Act, but any one or more of such component institutions may be a member of any one or more associations.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 2(2)]

Powers, Rights and Functions

Sec. 3. Associations established under this Act shall have the following specific powers, rights, and functions:

(1) to acquire, own, and operate a laundry system on a cooperative basis solely for the benefit of eligible institutions whether or not members of the association and to engage in such activities for the benefit of such eligible institutions as are necessarily related to the acquisition, ownership, operation, and maintenance of a laundry system;

(2) to acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise lands and estates in lands (whether leasehold or otherwise) appropriate or reasonably incidental to the laundry system, and to own, hold, improve, develop, and manage any real estate so acquired, and to construct or cause to be constructed, improve, enlarge, and equip buildings or other structures on any such real estate, and to encumber and dispose of any lands or estates in lands and any buildings or other structures at any time owned or held by the association;

(3) to acquire by purchase, lease, manufacture, or otherwise any personal property appropriate or reasonably incidental to the laundry system, including property for the cleaning, washing, steam ing, bleaching, dry cleaning, and disinfecting of all types of clothing, cloths, and fabrics and the transportation and distribution of these articles, and to encumber and dispose of any such personal property;

(4) to acquire by purchase or otherwise any uniforms, clothing, or linen for its members;

(5) to borrow or raise money without limit as to amount; to sell, grant security interests in, pledge, and otherwise dispose of and realize upon accounts receivable, contract rights and other choses in action; to make, draw, accept, endorse, execute, and issue bonds, debentures, notes, or other obligations for money so borrowed or in payment for property purchased, and to secure the payment thereof by mortgage upon, or creation of security interests in, or pledge of, or conveyance or assignment in trust of, the whole or any part of the property, real or personal, of the association.

Cooperative and Nonprofit Requirements; Franchise Tax Exemption; Annual Written Report; Disposition of Surplus Revenue

Sec. 6. Associations established under this Act shall be purely cooperative and not for profit, and shall not be required to pay any annual franchise tax, but shall nevertheless file a written report to the Secretary of State showing their assets and the condition of their affairs annually. Such associations may by their directors, in accordance with their bylaws, pass any surplus revenue derived from the laundry system to the surplus fund or divide such funds among the patrons thereof in proportion to their respective contributions to the working capital of the association and patronage.

Section 7 of the 1977 amendatory act provided:

"If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."
Art. 4437h. Surveys and Inspections of Health Care Facilities

Sec. 1. The purpose of this Act is to require that state agencies, including the Texas Department of Health Resources,1 the Department of Public Welfare,2 and those agencies with which each contracts, who perform surveys, inspections, and investigations of health care facilities, do not duplicate their procedures or subject such health care facilities to duplicitous rules and regulations.

Sec. 2. For the purposes of this Act:

(1) "Health care facility" shall have the same definition as that given in the Texas Health Planning and Development Act (Article 4418h, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(2) "Inspection" means all surveys, inspections, investigations, and other procedures necessary for a state agency or a division or unit thereof to perform in order to carry out various obligations imposed on such agency by applicable state and federal law and regulations.

Sec. 3. State agencies shall make or cause to be made only such inspections necessary to carry out the various obligations imposed on each agency by applicable state and federal law and regulations. Any on-site inspection by a state agency or a division or unit thereof to perform in order to carry out various obligations imposed on such agency by applicable state and federal law and regulations.

Sec. 4. (a) All hospitals licensed by the Texas Department of Health Resources which have been certified under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, as added July 30, 1965 (Public Law 89–97),3 or which have obtained accreditation from the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals or which have obtained accreditation from the American Osteopathic Association shall not be subject to licensing inspections under the Texas Hospital Licensing Law4 by the agency so long as such certification or accreditation is maintained. Such hospitals shall only be required to annually remit the statutory licensing fees in order to be issued a license by the licensing agency.

(b) The State Department of Public Welfare and the Texas Department of Health Resources shall establish procedures to eliminate or reduce duplication of functions in certifying nursing homes for payments under the requirements of the Medical Assistance Act of 1967, as amended (Article 695–1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and federal laws and regulations relating to Title XIX of the Social Security Act.5 The procedures established under this section shall provide for use by both agencies of information collected by each of them in making inspections for certification purposes and in investigating complaints regarding matters that would affect the certification of a nursing home.

Art. 4438a. Denial of Emergency Treatment by Hospital Officer or Employee for Inability to Pay

Sec. 1. No officer or employee of a general hospital supported with public funds may deny a person diagnosed by a licensed physician on the staff of that hospital as seriously ill or injured emergency services customarily provided at the hospital because the person is unable to establish his ability to pay for the services.

Sec. 2. An officer or employee of a hospital who violates the provisions of Section 1 of this Act is guilty of a Class C misdemeanor and on conviction is subject to a fine not exceeding $200.

Sec. 3. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to relieve a person of his obligation to pay for services provided by a hospital.

Art. 4442a–1. Adult Day Care Act

Purpose

Sec. 1. It is the purpose of this Act to establish programs of quality adult day care and day health care that will enable elderly and handicapped persons with medical or psychological impairments to maintain maximum independence and to prevent premature or inappropriate institutionalization. It is the purpose of this Act to provide adequately regulated supervision for elderly and handicapped persons while enabling them to remain in a family environment and affording the family a measure of normalcy for their daily activities. It is therefore the intent of the legislature to provide for the development of policies and programs that will:

(1) provide alternatives to institutionalization;
(2) establish facilities for adult day care and day health care throughout the state that offer services and are accessible to economically disadvantaged persons; and
(3) prevent inappropriate institutionalization.

Sec. 2. This Act may be cited as the Adult Day Care Act.

Definitions
Sec. 3. In this Act:

(1) “Adult day care facility” means a facility that provides counseling, recreation, or food or any combination of these services on a daily or regular basis but not overnight to four or more elderly or handicapped persons who are not related by blood, marriage, or adoption to the owner of the facility.

(2) “Adult day health care facility” means a facility that provides health care or physical therapy or both and that may also provide adult day care services on a daily or regular basis but not overnight to four or more elderly or handicapped persons who are not related by blood, marriage, or adoption to the owner of the facility.

(3) “Elderly person” means a person 65 years of age or older.

(4) “Handicapped person” means a person whose physical or mental functioning is sufficiently impaired to require frequent medical attention, counseling, physical therapy, therapeutic or corrective equipment, or another person's attendance and supervision.

(5) “Department” means the Texas Department of Human Resources.

(6) “Licensing agency” means the Texas Department of Health.

(7) “Person” means an individual, corporation, or association.

Department Duties
Sec. 4. (a) The department shall adopt rules for implementing this Act.

(b) The department shall set standards for:
(1) the health, safety, and welfare of persons attending a facility;
(2) the eligibility of persons to attend a facility;
(3) the scope of services provided by a facility;
(4) adequate supervision for persons attending a facility;
(5) the professional staff and other personnel at a facility;
(6) adequate and healthful food service, where it may be offered;

(7) procedures for consultation with family members, case workers, or other persons responsible for the welfare of a person attending a facility; and
(8) prohibiting racial discrimination.

(c) The department may contract with political subdivisions or persons for transporting persons to a facility.

Licensing Agency Duties
Sec. 5. The licensing agency shall adopt rules for the licensing procedures and set standards for the safety and sanitation requirements for a licensed facility.

License
Sec. 6. (a) The licensing agency shall issue a license to operate an adult day care facility or an adult day health care facility to a person who has met the application requirements and received approval after an on-site inspection.

(b) A license issued under this Act expires one year from the date of issuance.

(c) The department may contract with the licensing agency for cooperative and efficient evaluation of an applicant for a license or license renewal.

(d) An applicant for a license that is already licensed by the licensing agency as a health care provider is entitled to have inspections and license renewal procedures coordinated so that one inspection may fulfill various licensing requirements.

License Application
Sec. 7. (a) An applicant for a license to operate an adult day care or an adult day health care facility must file an application on a form prescribed by the licensing agency together with a license fee of $25.

(b) The applicant shall provide evidence of:
(1) the ability to comply with the department's and licensing agency's requirements;
(2) responsible management; and
(3) qualified professional staff and personnel.

(c) A person who operates a facility that is licensed under this Act shall file an application for a renewal license before the expiration date of the current license on a form prescribed by the licensing agency together with a renewal fee of $25.

Inspections
Sec. 8. (a) The licensing agency may enter the premises at reasonable times and make an inspection necessary to issue a license or renew a license.

(b) Any person may request an inspection of a facility by notifying the licensing agency in writing of an alleged violation of a licensing requirement. The complaint shall be as detailed as possible and signed by the complainant. The licensing agency shall perform an on-site inspection within 10 days after receiving the complaint unless it determines after an investigation that the complaint is frivolous. The licensing agency shall respond to a complainant in writing. The licensing agency shall also receive and investigate anonymous complaints.
Art. 4442a-1

HEALTH—PUBLIC

2738

License Denial, Suspension, or Revocation

Sec. 9. (a) The licensing agency may deny, suspend, or revoke the license of an applicant or holder of a license who fails to comply with the rules or standards for licensing required by this Act.

(b) The licensing agency may revoke or suspend a license to be effective immediately when the health and safety of persons attending a facility are threatened. A person whose license is suspended or revoked under this subsection is entitled to a hearing within seven days after the effective date of the suspension or revocation.

Disposition of Funds

Sec. 10. All fees collected under this Act shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

Certificate of Need Requirement

Sec. 11. The acquisition, development, construction, or modification of an adult day health care facility or the expansion of services of an adult day health care facility licensed under this Act is subject to the requirements for a certificate of need or an exemption certificate and other applicable provisions of the Texas Health Planning and Development Act, as amended (Article 4418h, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. [Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1509, ch. 562, §§ 1 to 11, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1]

Definitions

Sec. 2.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 2(a) to 2(d)]

(e) “Respite care” means the provision by an institution of room, board, and care at the level ordinarily provided for permanent residents of the institution to a person for not more than two weeks for each stay in the institution.

(f) “Plan of care” means a written description of the medical care or the supervision and nonmedical care needed by a person during respite care.

(g) “Elderly person” means a person who is 65 years of age or older.

(h) “Handicapped person” means a person whose physical or mental functioning is sufficiently impaired to require medical attention, counseling, physical therapy, therapeutic or corrective equipment, or another person’s attendance and supervision. [See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 3]

Application for License

Sec. 4. An application for a license shall be made to the Licensing Agency upon forms provided by it and contain such information as the Licensing Agency requires which may include affirmative evidence of ability to comply with reasonable standards, rules and regulations as are lawfully prescribed hereunder. The application shall be accompanied by a license fee which shall be in the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25) plus One Dollar ($1) for each unit of capacity or bed space for which a license is sought. Such license fee shall be paid annually in said amount with each application for renewal of the institution’s license. All license fees provided for herein shall be waived for the State of Texas and its departments, divisions, boards and agencies. All license fees collected shall be deposited with the State Treasury to the credit of the Licensing Agency and said license fees are hereby appropriated to said Agency for its use in the administration and enforcement of this Act.

Upon receipt of an application for a license the Licensing Agency shall issue a license if upon inspection and investigation it finds that the applicant and facilities meet the requirements established under this law. A license, unless suspended or revoked, shall be renewed annually after an inspection and upon tender of the annual license fee together with the filing by the licensee and approval by the Licensing Agency of an annual report upon such date and containing such information in such form as the Licensing Agency prescribes by regulation. Such license shall be issued only for the premises and persons or governmental units and for the maximum number of beds named in the application and shall not be transferable or assignable. Any approved increase in the bed space shall be subject to an additional fee. Any violation of these provisions shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be subject to the penalties provided for in Section 12 of this Act.

Fire Safety Requirements

Sec. 4A. (a) The Licensing Agency shall require all nursing homes and custodial care homes and major additions over One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) to existing nursing homes and custodial care homes which are approved for construction or conversion after September 1, 1979, to comply with the 1976 edition of the Code for Safety to Life from Fire in Buildings and Structures, known as the Life

(b) After September 1, 1979, those building sections of a licensed nursing home or custodial care home, regardless of ownership, which have complied with or without waiver, with either the 1967 or 1973 edition of the Life Safety Code of the National Fire Protection Association will be recognized as meeting licensing requirements for fire safety as long as they continue to be in substantial compliance with either the 1967 or 1973 code edition.

(c) The requirements of this section do not preclude an institution from conforming to a higher or additional fire safety standard or provision where required by federal law or regulation. Where provisions of this section conflict with federal laws or regulations adopted after September 1, 1979, then the federal requirements prevail, if required for participation in federal programs.

(d) As provided in the 1976 edition of the Life Safety Code, the Licensing Agency shall have discretionary powers to grant exceptions to the code under certain conditions or in the interest of common and uniform applicability.

(e) Fire safety requirements for institutions other than nursing homes or custodial care homes shall be as determined by the Licensing Agency.

Failure to Comply with Health Planning and Development Act

Sec. 6A. The Licensing Agency shall deny, cancel, revoke, or suspend a license if it finds that the applicant or licensee has failed substantially to comply with any applicable provisions of the Texas Health Planning and Development Act requiring a certificate of need or an exemption certificate.

Emergency Suspension and Closing Order

Sec. 6B. (a) If the Licensing Agency finds an institution operating in violation of the standards prescribed by this Act and the violations create an immediate threat to the health and safety of a resident in the institution, the Licensing Agency shall suspend the license or order an immediate closing of the institution or part of an institution; and the Licensing Agency shall by rule provide for patient placement during the period of suspension to assure the health and safety of the patients in said institution.

(b) The order suspending a license under Subsection (a) of this section is immediately effective upon written notice to the license holder or on the date specified on the order.

(c) The order suspending the license and ordering an institution or part of an institution closed is valid for 10 days after the effective date.

Rules, Regulations and Enforcements

Sec. 7. The Licensing Agency is authorized to adopt, amend, promulgate, publish and enforce minimum standards in relation to:

(a) Construction of the home or institution, including plumbing, heating, lighting, ventilation and other housing conditions, which shall insure the health, safety and comfort of the residents and protection from fire hazard;

(b) Regulate the number and qualification of all personnel, including management and nursing personnel, having responsibility for any part of the care given to residents, and establish requirements for in-service education of all employees who have any contact with residents;

(c) All sanitary and related conditions within the nursing home and its surroundings, including water supply, sewage disposal, food handling and general hygiene, which shall insure the health, safety and comfort of the residents;

(d) Diet related to the needs of each resident and based upon good nutritional practice or on recommendations which may be made by the physician attending the resident;

(e) Equipment essential to the health and welfare of the residents;

(f) At least one unannounced inspection per year shall be mandatory; further inspections may be required by the Licensing Agency;

(g) For at least one unannounced inspection in each year as required by Subsection (f) of this section, the Licensing Agency shall arrange to invite in the inspection at least one person as a citizen advocate from one of the following groups: American Association of Retired Persons, the Texas Senior Citizen Association, or the Texas Retired Federal Employees, or any other statewide organization for the elderly;

(h) The use and administration of medications in conformity with applicable law and rules and regulations on the use and administration of medications; all personnel administering medications must have completed a state-approved training program in medication administration;

(i) Grading each home or institution so as to recognize those homes or institutions that go beyond the minimum level of services and personnel, as established by the agency and such attained grade shall be prominently displayed for public view and as incentive to attain the superior grade, allow each home or institution to advertise such grade.

(j) The Licensing Agency shall require one medical examination per patient per year. The details of this examination will be specified by the Licensing Agency.
The Licensing Agency is further authorized to provide for advice to and coordination of its personnel and facilities with any local agency of a city or county where such city or county shall see fit to supplement the state program with further regulations required to meet local conditions.

Language Requirements Prohibited

Sec. 7A. No institution may prohibit a resident or employee from communicating in his or her native language with other residents or employees for the purpose of acquiring or providing medical treatment, nursing care, or institutional services.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 8]

Respite Care

Sec. 8A. (a) An institution that is licensed under this Act may provide respite care for an elderly or handicapped person according to a plan of care that is filed at the institution and agreed upon between the institution and the person arranging the respite care before the institution admits the person for the care.

(b) The plan of care must be signed by a licensed physician if the person for whom respite care is arranged needs medical care or treatment. If the person does not need medical care or treatment, the plan of care must be signed by the person arranging for the respite care.

(c) The institution may keep an agreed plan of care for not longer than six months from the date it is received and during that period admit a person for respite care as frequently as is needed and as accommodations are available.

(d) An institution that offers respite care shall notify the licensing agency in writing that it is offering respite care.

(e) The licensing agency, at the time of ordinary licensing inspections, or at other times if the agency determines necessary, shall inspect the institution's records of respite care services, the physical accommodations available for respite care, and the plan of care records to insure that the respite care services comply with the licensing standards of this Act and with any rules the licensing agency may adopt to regulate respite care services.

(f) The licensing agency may suspend the license of an institution that provides respite care that does not comply with the licensing standards of this Act. The licensing agency may require an institution to cease providing respite care if the agency determines that the respite care does not meet the standards required by this Act and that the institution cannot comply with those standards in the respite care it provides. The licensing agency may suspend the license of an institution that continues to provide respite care after receiving an order in writing from the licensing agency that it is to cease.

(g) The licensing agency may adopt rules for the regulation of respite care provided by a licensed institution.

Inspections and Consultations

Sec. 9. The Licensing Agency shall make or cause to be made such inspections and investigations as it deems necessary. The Licensing Agency shall hold at least one open hearing a year in each licensed institution to hear any complaints of substandard care or licensing violations. The Licensing Agency shall notify the institution, the designated closest living relatives or legal guardians of the institution's residents, and other appropriate State or Federal agencies that work with the institution of the time, place, and date of the hearing. The Licensing Agency may exclude an institution's administrators and personnel from the hearing. The Licensing Agency shall notify an institution of any complaints received at the hearing. The Licensing Agency shall provide a summary of the complaints without identifying the source thereof to the licensed institution. The Licensing Agency shall determine and implement a mechanism to notify confidentially the complainant of the results of the investigation which followed the complaint. It is further provided that the Licensing Agency shall wherever possible utilize the services and consultation of other State and local agencies in carrying out its responsibility under the provisions of this Act and shall use wherever possible the facilities of the State Department of Public Welfare especially in setting up and maintaining standards with reference to the humane treatment of the individuals in the institutions.

The Licensing Agency is hereby given the authority to cooperate with local public health officials of any county or incorporated city in carrying out the provisions of this Act and may in its discretion delegate to said local agencies the power to make the inspections and recommendations to the Licensing Agency in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Act.

Injunction and Temporary Restraining Order

Sec. 11. (a) When the Licensing Agency finds that a person's violations of the standards prescribed by this Act create an immediate threat to the health and safety of the residents of an institution, the Licensing Agency may petition the district court for a temporary restraining order to restrain the person from continuing the violations.

(b) When a person violates the licensing requirements or the standards prescribed by this Act, the Licensing Agency may petition the district court for an injunction to prohibit a person from continuing the violation or to restrain or prevent the establishment, conduct, management, or operation of an in­ itution without a license under this Act. A suit for a temporary restraining order or other injunctive relief must be brought in the judicial district that includes the county of the alleged violation.

(c) On application for injunctive relief and a finding that a person is violating the licensing requirements or standards prescribed by this Act, the district court shall grant the injunctive relief the facts may warrant.

(d) At the request of the Licensing Agency, the attorney general shall institute and conduct the suits authorized in Subsections (a) and (b) of this section in the name of the State of Texas.

Penalties

Sec. 12. (a) Any person establishing, conducting, managing, or operating any institution without a license under this law shall be guilty of a misedemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200) for the first offense and not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100) for each subsequent offense, and each day of a continuing violation after conviction shall be considered a separate offense.

(b) A person who violates this Act or who fails to comply with a rule or regulation authorized by this Act determined by the Licensing Agency to threaten the health and safety of the patient is subject to a civil penalty of not less than $100 nor more than $500 for each act of violation, and each day of a continuing violation constitutes a separate ground of recovery.

Sec. 13. Repealed by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., 1st

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 14 and 15]

Reports of Abuse and Neglect

Sec. 16. (a) Persons required to Report.

(1) Any person or any owner or employee of a nursing home having cause to believe that a nurs­ing home resident’s physical or mental health or welfare has been or may be adversely affected by abuse or neglect caused by another person or persons shall report in accordance with Section 16(b).

(2) Each nursing home employee shall be required to sign a statement that he or she realizes his or her criminal liability for failure to report such abuses as a condition of employment by the nursing home.

(b) Contents of Report. (1) Nonaccusatory reports reflecting the reporting person’s belief that a nursing home resident has been or will be abused or neglected or has died of abuse or neglect shall be made to:

(A) the Licensing Agency; or
(B) any local or state law enforcement agency.

(2) All reports must contain the name and address of the nursing home resident, the name and address of the person responsible for the care of the resident, if available, and any other relevant information.

(3) All reports received by any local or state law enforcement agency shall be referred to the Licensing Agency or to the agency designated by the court to be responsible for the protection of the nursing home resident.

(4) An oral report shall be made immediately on learning of the abuse or neglect and a written report shall be made within five days to the same agency. Anonymous reports, while not encourgaged, will be received and acted on in the same manner as acknowledged reports. Anonymous reports about a specific individual, accusing the individual of abuse or neglect, need not be investigated.

(c) Immunities. Any person reporting pursuant to this chapter is immune from liability, civil or criminal, that might otherwise be incurred or imposed because of the making of the report or reports.
Immunity extends to participation in any judicial proceeding resulting from the report. Persons reporting in bad faith or with malice are not protected by this section. A person making a bad faith, malicious, or reckless report is subject to the criminal penalty of a Class A misdemeanor, in addition to any civil penalties.

(d) Privileged Communications. In any proceeding regarding the abuse or neglect of a nursing home resident or the cause of any abuse or neglect, evidence may not be excluded on the ground of privileged communication except in the case of communications between attorney and client.

(e) Investigation and Report of Receiving Agency.

(1) The Licensing Agency or the agency designated by the court to be responsible for the protection of nursing home residents shall make a thorough investigation promptly after receiving either the oral or written report. The primary purpose of the investigation shall be the protection of the nursing home resident.

(2) In the investigation the agency shall determine:

(a) the nature, extent, and cause of the abuse or neglect;

(b) the identity of the person responsible for the abuse or neglect;

(c) the names and conditions of the other nursing home residents in the nursing home;
(d) an evaluation of the persons responsible for the care of the nursing home residents;
(e) the adequacy of the nursing home environment; and
(f) all other pertinent data.

(3) The investigation shall include a visit to the resident’s nursing home and an interview with the subject nursing home resident. If admission to the nursing home, or any place where the nursing home resident may be, cannot be obtained, the district court, upon cause shown, shall order the persons responsible for the care of the nursing home resident, or the person in charge of any place where the nursing home resident may be, to allow entrance for the interview and investigation.

(4) If, before the investigation is complete, the opinion of the Licensing Agency is that immediate removal is necessary to protect the nursing home resident from further abuse or neglect, the Licensing Agency shall file a petition for temporary care and protection of the nursing home resident.

(5) The agency designated by the court to be responsible for the protection of the nursing home resident or the Licensing Agency shall make a complete written report of the investigation. The report, together with its recommendations, shall be submitted to the district attorney and the appropriate law enforcement agency.

(f) Central Registry. The Licensing Agency shall establish and maintain in Austin, Texas, a central registry of reported cases of nursing home resident abuse or neglect. The Licensing Agency may adopt rules and regulations as are necessary in carrying out the provisions of this section. The rules shall provide for cooperation with hospitals and clinics in the exchange of these reports.

(g) Failure to Report; Penalty. (1) A person commits an offense if the person has cause to believe that a nursing home resident’s physical or mental health or welfare has been or may be further adversely affected by abuse or neglect and knowingly fails to report in accordance with Subsection (a)(1).

(2) An offense under this section is a Class A misdemeanor.

(h) Confidentiality. The reports, records, and working papers used or developed in an investigation made under this chapter are confidential and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with the regulations adopted by the investigating agency.

Prohibition of Remuneration

Sec. 17. (a) No institution may receive remuneration, either monetary or otherwise, from any individual, corporation, company, or agency which furnishes services or materials to the institution or its occupants for a fee.

(b) The Licensing Agency may seek the revocation of the license of an institution that violates the prohibition in Subsection (a) of this section.

See, now, the Health Planning and Development Act, classified as art. 4418h.

Art. 4442d. Nursing Home Administrators Licensure Act

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1 and 2]

Creation and Composition of Board

Sec. 3. (1) There is hereby created the Texas Board of Licensure for Nursing Home Administrators which shall consist of nine (9) members. The Commissioner of Human Resources for the State of Texas, or his designee, and the Commissioner of Health of the Texas Department of Health, or his designee, shall be ex officio nonvoting members of the board. Such designees shall be chosen from those representatives of the respective departments who are actively assigned to and are engaged in work in the nursing home field. One member shall be a physician duly licensed by the State of Texas; one member shall be an educator connected with a university program in public health or medical or nursing home care administration within the State of Texas or a psychiatrist whose field includes geriatric or institutional psychiatry, or a psychologist whose field includes clinical psychology or educational psychology. Four (4) members shall be duly licensed nursing home administrators of the State of Texas; however, at least one of these four shall represent a nonproprietary nursing home. Three (3) members must be representatives of the general public who are not licensed under this Act.
Appointments to the board shall be made by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. Appointments to the board shall be made without regard to the race, creed, sex, religion, or national origin of the appointees.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 3(3)]

(4) Appointed members of the board serve staggered terms of six (6) years with the terms of three (3) members expiring on January 31 of each odd-number year. Vacancies on the board shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired portion of the term.

(5) All appointive members of the board who are nursing home administrators shall hold degrees from an accredited four year college or university and shall have special interest, background, and experience in the field of care for the aged. They shall be residents of the State of Texas and citizens of the United States and shall be of good character.

In lieu of the degree requirement above specified an appointee who is a nursing home administrator representative may nevertheless qualify by submitting to the Governor satisfactory evidence of two (2) years of practical experience as a nursing home administrator for each year, whether one or more, of four (4) years of college and such appointee shall receive credit toward his qualifications for each full year of credits earned by him in an accredited college or university.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 3(6) to 3(8)]

(9) All money collected under this Act shall be deposited in the state treasury in a designated separate account in the name of the board and shall be subject to appropriation by the legislature only for use by the board.

(10) The Texas Board of Licensure for Nursing Home Administrators is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1991.

Sec. 4. (1) As soon as practicable after appointment, appointive members of the board shall be certified by the Governor's office and shall take the constitutional oath of office for officers of the State of Texas. The board shall elect from its appointive members a chairman and vice chairman and these officers shall be elected to serve for one (1) year or so much thereof as shall remain, and elections for these offices shall be held annually thereafter for the term of a year. Elections to fill vacancies shall be held in the same manner for the balance of any unexpired term. The board shall appoint a person to be secretary to the board who shall serve at the pleasure of the board and who shall be the chief executive officer to the board but not a member thereof. The secretary shall have such powers and shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by law or delegated to him by the board under its rules and regulations. Suitable office space, equipment and supplies and additional agents or employees as may be required for discharging the functions of the board shall be provided within the limits of the funds available to the board as hereinafter provided for. The board shall adopt an official seal which shall be affixed to licenses, certificates and other official documents of the board.

(2) The secretary and such other person as the board may designate, as an alternate, shall act as fiscal agent for the board and shall be responsible for the receipt, deposit, safekeeping and disbursement of all funds of the agency, provided, however, that at all times the board shall cause to be maintained in force a fidelity bond covering the secretary and such other person in an amount which shall at all times exceed any reasonable expectations as to the total amount of funds to be held at any one time to the account of the board. At no time shall the fidelity bond or bonds be for an amount less than $25,000.00.

(3) The board shall hold not less than four meetings per year after due notice thereof and at any meeting a majority of the board shall constitute a quorum. Board members shall receive a per diem of $25.00 while engaged in board business together with actual and necessary expenses.

(4) Each member of the board shall be present for at least one-half of the regularly scheduled meetings held each year by the board. The failure of a member to meet this requirement automatically removes the member from the board and creates a vacancy on the board.

(5) The Texas Board of Licensure for Nursing Home Administrators shall be administratively attached to the Texas Department of Health. The department shall provide administrative assistance to the board; and the department and the board shall coordinate administrative responsibilities in order to avoid unnecessary duplication and in furtherance of the objective of providing quality nursing home services. The department shall submit the board’s budget requests to the legislature. The department and the board shall share investigative staff and other employees. However, the board may employ its own additional investigative staff.

Functions and Duties of the Board

Sec. 6. It shall be the function and duty of the board to:

(1) develop, impose, and enforce standards which must be met by individuals in order to receive a license as a nursing home administrator and standards which must be met by licensees, which standards shall be designed to insure that nursing home administrators will be individuals who are of good character and are otherwise suitable, and who, by training or experience in the field of institutional administration, are qualified to serve as nursing home administrators and satisfactorily perform the duties of nursing home administrators;

(2) develop and apply appropriate techniques, including examinations and investigations, for determining whether an individual meets such standards;

(3) issue licenses to individuals determined, after application of such techniques, to meet such standards, and revoke or suspend licenses previously issued by the board in any case where the individual holding any such license is determined substantially to have failed to conform to the requirements of such standards;

(4) establish and carry out procedures designed to insure that individuals licensed as nursing home administrators will, during any period that they serve as such, comply with the requirements of such standards;

(5) receive, investigate, and take appropriate action with respect to, any charge or complaint filed with the board to the effect that any individual licensed as a nursing home administrator has failed to comply with the requirements of such standards;

(6) conduct a continuing study and investigation of nursing homes and administrators of nursing homes within the State with a view to the improvement of the standards imposed for the licensing of such administrators and of procedures and methods for the enforcement of such standards with respect to administrators of nursing homes who have been licensed as such;

(7) conduct or cause to be conducted, one or more courses of instruction and training sufficient to meet the requirements of this Act, and make provisions for the conduct of such courses and their accessibility to residents of the State, unless it finds that there are a sufficient number of courses conducted by others within this State to meet the needs of the State. In lieu thereof the board may approve courses conducted within and without the State as sufficient to meet the education and training requirements of this Act; and

(8) on request, provide to each individual who fails an examination administered by the board an analysis of the individual’s performance on the examination.

Posting of Complaint Information Sign

Sec. 7A. There shall at all times be prominently displayed in every nursing home regulated by the state, a sign in letters not smaller than one inch in height, the contents of which shall contain the name, mailing address, and telephone number of the Texas Board of Licensure for Nursing Home Administrators and which shall contain a statement informing consumers that complaints against nursing home administrators can be directed to the board.

Rulemaking Authority

Sec. 8. (a) The Board shall have the authority to make rules and regulations not inconsistent with law as may be necessary or proper for the performance of its duties, and to take such other actions as may be necessary to enable the State to meet the requirements set forth in Section 1908 of the Social Security Act, the Federal rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and other pertinent Federal authority; provided, however, that no rule shall be promulgated, altered or abolished without the approval of a two-thirds majority of the Board.

(b) If the appropriate standing committees of both houses of the legislature acting under Section 5(g), Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252–13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), transmit to the Board statements opposing adoption of a rule under that section, the rule may not take effect or, if the rule has already taken effect, the rule is repealed effective on the date the Board receives the committees' statements.

Qualifications for Licensure

Sec. 9. The Board shall have authority to issue licenses to qualified persons as nursing home administrators, and shall establish qualification criteria for such nursing home administrators. No license shall be issued to a person as a nursing home administrator unless:

1. He is at least 18 years of age, of good moral character, and sound in mental and physical health;

2. He has satisfactorily completed a course of instruction and training prescribed by the Board, which course shall be conducted by or in cooperation with an accredited postsecondary educational institution and which course shall be so designed as to content and so administered as to present sufficient knowledge of the proper needs to be served by nursing homes; laws governing the operation of nursing homes and the protection of the interests of patients therein; and the elements of good nursing home administration; or has presented evidence satisfactory to the Board of sufficient education, training or experience in the foregoing fields to enable him to administer, supervise and manage a nursing home;

3. He has passed an examination administered by the Board and designed to test for competence in the subject matters referred to in subsection (2) hereof;

4. That applicant submit written evidence, on forms provided for such purpose by the Board, that he has successfully completed a course of study and has been graduated from a high school or secondary school approved by and recognized by the educational authorities of the State in which such school is located, or a political division thereof, or has submitted a certificate indicating that he has obtained high school or secondary school equivalency, such certificate being certified by a State educational authority or a political division thereof; and

5. That applicant has complied with all other qualifications and requirements as may have been established by rule and regulation of the Board.

Sec. 10.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 10(1)]

(2) Every holder of a nursing home administrator's license shall renew it biennially, by making application to the Board. The license remains valid and is subject to renewal for 30 days after the expiration date of the license. The Board shall notify each person licensed under this Act of the expiration date of the person's license and the amount of the fee that is required for its renewal. The notice shall be mailed at least 30 days before the expiration date of the license. A person renews an unexpired license or a license that has been expired for 30 days or less by paying to the Board the renewal fee. A person renews a license that has been expired for more than 30 days but less than one year by paying to the Board the renewal fee plus $20.00. A person may not renew a license that has been expired for one year or more, but the person may obtain a new license by applying for the license in the manner that a person applies for an original license. Renewal of licenses shall be granted as a matter of course, unless the Board finds, after due notice and hearing, that the applicant has acted or failed to act in such a manner or under circumstances, as would constitute grounds for suspension or revocation of a license.

(3) Each person licensed as a nursing home administrator shall pay an initial license fee to be fixed by the Board which shall not exceed $100.00. Renewal licenses shall be issued biennially at a fee to be set by the Board which shall not exceed $100.00 for the biennium. Reasonable fees shall be set by the Board for the issuance of copies of public records in its office as well as for certificates or transcripts and duplicates of lost instruments. Each applicant for examination and license shall accompany the application with an examination fee not to exceed $100.00 which shall not be refundable, for investigation, processing, and testing purposes. Upon the certification by any department, division, board or agency of the State of Texas of the necessity therefor, all examination fees and license fees provided for herein shall be waived for any employee of such state entity so long as such person remains an employee of the State of Texas and does not serve as a nursing home administrator of a nursing home operated other than by such state entity. The Board shall set the fees in amounts that produce sufficient money for administering this Act.

(4) The Board may issue a nursing home administrator's license for the regular fee to any person who holds a current license as a nursing home administrator from another jurisdiction, provided that the board finds that the standards for licensure in such other jurisdiction are at least the substantial equivalent of those prevailing in this State; and that the applicant is otherwise qualified; and that the other state gives similar recognition and endorsement to nursing home administrators licenses of the State of Texas.

(5) The board shall have authority to receive and disburse funds received pursuant to Section 1908(e)(1) of the Social Security Act 1 or from any other Federal source of funds or grants for the furtherance of board duties and responsibilities hereunder.

Disciplinary Action

Sec. 11. (1) The board shall be authorized to revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew, a nursing home administrator's license after due notice and hearing upon the following grounds or any of them:

(a) upon proof that such licensees has wilfully or repeatedly violated any of the provisions of this Act or the rules adopted in accordance therewith;

(b) upon proof that such licensee has wilfully or repeatedly acted in a manner inconsistent with the health and safety of the patients of the home of which he is administrator;

(c) upon proof that the licensee was guilty of fraud in securing his license;

(d) upon proof of the inimperate use of alcohol or drugs which in the opinion of the board creates a hazard to patients;

(e) upon proof of a judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction finding the licensee insane;

(f) upon proof that such licensee has been convicted in a court of competent jurisdiction of a misdemeanor or a felony involving moral turpitude; and

(g) upon proof that the licensee has been grossly negligent in his duties as a nursing home administrator.

(2) The board shall have jurisdiction to hear all disciplinary charges brought under the provisions of this Act against persons licensed as nursing home administrators and upon such hearings shall determine such charges on their merits. Proceedings under this Act shall be begun by filing with the board written charges under oath. Such charges may be preferred by any person and after notice in writing of not less than fifteen (15) full days, stating the place and date of the hearing, accompanied by a copy of the complaint or charges, the board, or a majority thereof, shall hold a hearing on said charges, cause a written record to be made of the evidence given at the hearing, accord the person charged a right to present evidence, be represented by an attorney, and to cross-examine the witnesses. In this connection the board shall be authorized to issue subpoenas for witnesses at the hearing, either at the request of the person cited or on behalf of the board or its representative; to compel the attendance of witnesses, and administer oaths to witnesses. Disobedience of a subpoena duly issued by the board or by its secretary under its direction, shall constitute a contempt of the board which shall be enforceable by any district court sitting in the county in which the hearing is being held upon petition of the board and the presentation to the court of evidence of wilful disobedience and if the district judge is of the opinion and finds that the subpoena was wilfully disobeyed, such judge shall be authorized to punish a subpoenaed witness in like manner and to the extent provided in like cases in civil actions in the district courts of Texas.

(3) Strict rules of evidence shall not apply in a hearing before the board but all decisions of the board shall be supported by sufficient legal and competent evidence.

(4) The failure of the nursing home to comply with Texas State Department of Health requirements for licensure of nursing homes may be considered by the board in determining whether the licensee meets standards for licensure as a nursing home administrator.

(5) If a written complaint is filed with the board or the Texas Board of Health relating to a licensee under this Act, the board, at least as frequently as quarterly, shall notify the complainant of the status of the complaint until the complaint is finally resolved.

(6) The board must within 31 days from the date of filing of the complaint determine whether a hearing shall be held on such complaint or whether such complaint shall be dismissed and shall notify both the person who filed the complaint and the person against whom the complaint has been filed of the board's decision.

(7) If the board determines that a hearing should be held on a complaint, the board shall designate a hearing officer to conduct the hearing on the complaint. The hearing shall be held within 61 days from the date that the written complaint was filed unless such time is extended in writing by the board.

(8) The hearing officer shall keep a complete record of the hearing and shall transmit the record to the board when completed.

(9) The hearing officer shall forward to the board the complete record of the hearing not later than 30 days from the date of the hearing along with the hearing officer's recommendations concerning what disciplinary action, if any, should be taken by the board with respect to the complaint.

(10) The board shall take action on such complaint by written order not later than the 120th day folloing the filing of the complaint, unless the date for hearing was delayed pursuant to Subsection (7) of this section, in which case the deadline for the order is extended accordingly. Copies of the order and the record of the hearing shall be filed together in the office of the board, indexed, and made available for public inspection.

(11) The board shall maintain an information file on each complaint it receives.

Injunction

Sec. 11A. A person who violates Section 7 of this Act or who engages in conduct that is grounds for revocation or suspension of the person’s license under Section 11 of this Act, on petition of the board, may be enjoined or restrained by a district court from practicing nursing home administration.

Section 6 of the 1979 amendatory act provided:

“Membership. (a) In making the initial appointments of public members to the Texas Board of Licensure for Nursing Home Administrators, the governor shall designate one public member for a term expiring on January 31, 1983, one for a term expiring on January 31, 1984, and one for a term expiring on January 31, 1983.

(b) A person holding office as a member of the Texas Board of Licensure for Nursing Home Administrators on September 1, 1979, other than the ex officio members, who satisfies the provisions of this Act, continues to hold office for the term for which the member was originally appointed.”

Art. 4445c. Laboratory Tests for Venereal Diseases; Reporting Results

Notification of Findings; Duty

Sec. 1. (a) Any person who is in charge of a clinical or hospital laboratory, blood bank, mobile unit, or other facility in which a laboratory examination of any specimen derived from a human body yields microscopical, cultural, serological, or other evidence suggestive of those venereal diseases significant from a public health standpoint listed in Section 3 of this Act shall notify the Communicable Disease Services Section, Texas State Department of Health, of such findings.

(b) Notification shall be submitted by the person in charge of the laboratory to the Communicable Disease Services Section, Texas State Department of Health, through the local health officer having jurisdiction of the area containing the office address of the physician for whom the examination or test was performed or, if the examination or test was not performed for a physician, the area in which the facility is located. In the absence of a local full-time health officer, said report(s) will be forwarded directly to the Communicable Disease Services Section, Texas State Department of Health.

Notification of Findings; Contents

Sec. 2. (a) Notification shall contain the date and result of the test performed, the name and age of the person from whom the specimen was obtained, and the name and address of the physician for whom such examination or test was performed or, if the examination or test was not performed for a physician, a notation to that effect and a statement of the reason it was performed. Also, notification shall be submitted in writing and in such form and manner as prescribed by the Communicable Disease Services Section, Texas Department of Public Health.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 2(b) to 4]

Communications with Patient and Physician

Sec. 5. (a) Except when acting on the basis of information other than the laboratory notification, neither the Communicable Disease Services Section, Texas State Department of Health, nor the local health director will under any circumstances communicate with the patient or the potential contacts unless a diagnosis has been reported to the Department of Health by the attending physician, if any, but if there is no attending physician, communications with the person from whom the specimen was derived and other potential contacts may proceed as in cases in which the information is received from other than laboratory notification.

Art. 4447c. Texas Coordinating Commission for State Health and Welfare Services

Creation; Membership; Terms

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a “Texas Coordinating Commission for State Health and Welfare Services,” to be composed of the following persons:

(a) The Director of Health Resources, the chairman of the Texas Health Facilities Commission, the Commissioner of Education, the Commissioner of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, the Chairman of the Texas Employment Commission, the Commissioner of Public Welfare, the Executive Secretary-Director of the State Commission for the Blind, the Executive Director of the Texas Youth Council, and the executive heads of other health-related state agencies designated by executive order of the Governor, each of whom, or his designee, is an ex officio, non-voting member of the Commission;

(b) Three members of the Senate appointed by the Lieutenant Governor;

(c) Three members of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House;

(d) Three citizen members appointed by the Governor and chosen for their recognized interest in health or welfare activities of the state, local governments, and private agencies.

The terms of members of the Commission first appointed shall be from the date of their appointment to December 31, 1976, and appointments thereafter shall be for two-year periods ending on December 31 of even-numbered years.

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 1a. The Texas Coordinating Commission for State Health and Welfare Services is subject to the Texas Sunset Act;¹ and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the commission is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1985.

Organization; Chairman

Sec. 2. The Texas Coordinating Commission for State Health and Welfare Services shall meet within thirty (30) days after the appointment of all its members. The Governor shall biennially designate one member as chairman and another as vice-chairman.

Staff and Services Assistance

Sec. 3. The Governor shall provide the staff and services necessary to assist the Commission in performing its duties. To the extent practicable, all health-related state agencies with ex officio representatives on the Commission shall provide staff and services assistance.

Meetings

Sec. 4. Regular meetings of the Texas Coordinating Commission for State Health and Welfare Services shall be held in Austin or at other locations within the state as determined by the Commission, and after its initial organization the Commission shall meet at least once every three months. Called meetings of the Commission may be held at such times and at such places as it may determine. A majority of the appointed members shall constitute a quorum.

Compensation; Expenses

Sec. 5. Members of the Commission shall serve without compensation, but appointed members of the Commission shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses while in attendance upon meetings of the Commission from funds appropriated by the Legislature.

Application for Federal Grant; Study and Analysis of Services and Programs

Sec. 6A. (a) Whenever any state agency or institution applies for a federal grant for health purposes, prior to or at the time the application is submitted to the federal government, the agency or institution shall provide the Commission with a copy of the application. The Commission may review and comment on the application. If the agency or institution receives funds pursuant to the application, it shall so report to the Commission and shall advise the Commission of the disposition of the funds.

(b) The Commission shall make a continuing study and analysis of the services and programs of all health-related state agencies and shall include its findings and recommendations in its annual report.

Sec. 8. The Commission shall compile annual reports on its activities for submission to the Governor and the Legislature. The reports shall be submitted not later than December 1 of each year and shall include any recommendations which the Commission may have for legislative action.

Art. 4447d–2. Immunization Reminder Notices

In a program administered by the State Department of Health in which immunization reminder notices for children are sent to persons, the notices must be sent without discrimination on the basis of the legitimacy of the child and must be addressed to an adult or parent without including an indication of the marital status of the addressee and without use of the terms “Mr.,” “Mrs.,” “Miss,” or “Ms.”

Art. 4447e. Phenylketonuria and Other Heritable Diseases

Sec. 1. The Texas Department of Health shall establish, maintain, and carry out a program designed to combat mental retardation in children suffering from phenylketonuria and other heritable diseases. The Texas Board of Health is authorized to adopt regulations necessary to carry out the program. The Board may adopt a rule specifying the heritable diseases covered by this Act. The Department shall establish and maintain a diagnostic laboratory for conducting experiments, projects, and other undertakings necessary to develop tests for the early detection of phenylketonuria and other heritable diseases; for developing ways and means of discovering methods to be used for the prevention and treatment of phenylketonuria and other heritable diseases in children; and for such other purposes considered necessary by the Department to carry out the program.
Sec. 2. The physician attending a newborn child, or the person attending a newborn child that was not attended by a physician, shall cause the child to be subjected to tests for phenylketonuria and other heritable diseases that have been approved by the Department. The tests required by this Act must be performed by the Department's diagnostic laboratory or by a laboratory approved by the Department under Section 2A of this Act. Providing, however, that such tests shall not be given to any child whose parents or guardian object thereto on the grounds that such tests conflict with their religious tenets or practices. Provisions of this Act are mandatory with the exception above-stated; however, no physician, technician, or person giving such tests shall be liable or responsible because of the failure or refusal of the parent or guardian to give permission or consent to tests herein provided. The city or county health officer shall follow up all positive tests with the attending physician who notified such officer or with the parent of the newborn child if such notification was made by a person other than a physician. The Department may follow up positive tests with the attending physician, the attending physician's designee, the city or county health officer, or the parents of the newborn child. When a positive test is confirmed, the services and facilities of the Department, and those of other boards, departments, agencies, and political subdivisions of the State cooperating with the Department in carrying out the program, shall be made available to the extent needed by the family and physician. The Department and the other departments, boards, agencies, and political subdivisions of the State cooperating with it shall, in cooperation with an attending physician, provide for the continued medical care, dietary, and other related needs of such children where necessary or desirable.

Sec. 2A. (a) The Department may develop a program to approve any laboratory that wishes to perform the tests required to be administered under this Act. To the extent that they are not otherwise provided in this Act, the Board may adopt rules prescribing procedures and standards for the conduct of the program.

(b) The Department may prescribe the form and reasonable requirements for the application and the procedures for processing the application.

(c) The Department may prescribe the test procedure to be employed and the standards of accuracy and precision required for each test.

(d) The Department may extend or renew any approval in accordance with reasonable procedures prescribed by the Board.

(e) The Department may for good cause, after notice to the affected laboratory and a hearing if requested, restrict, suspend, or revoke any approval granted under this program.

(f) Hearings under this section shall be conducted in accordance with the hearing rules adopted by the Board and the applicable provisions of the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Sec. 3. The various boards, departments, agencies and political subdivisions of the State capable of assisting the Department in carrying out any program established under the authority of this Act may cooperate with the department and are encouraged to furnish their services and facilities in aid of any such program.

Sec. 4. The Department may invite the cooperation of all physicians and hospitals in the state which provide maternity and newborn infant care to participate in any program established by the Department under the authority of this Act.

[Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 578, ch. 269, §§ 1 to 5, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 4447e-1. Hypothyroidism

Detection Program; Diagnostic Laboratory

Sec. 1. The Texas Department of Health shall establish a program to detect hypothyroidism in newborn infants. The department shall establish a diagnostic laboratory for conducting screening and other undertakings necessary to develop and carry out tests for the early detection of hypothyroidism.

Sec. 2. The department may adopt rules necessary to carry out the program established pursuant to this Act.

Test Requirement

Sec. 3. The physician attending a newborn infant or the person attending a newborn infant who is not attended by a physician shall cause the child to be subjected to a test or tests for hypothyroidism which have been approved by the department. The tests required by this Act must be performed at the department's diagnostic laboratory or at a laboratory that has been approved by the department under Section 4 of this Act.

Approval of Laboratories

Sec. 4. (a) The Texas Department of Health may develop a program to approve any laboratory that wishes to perform the tests required to be administered under this Act. To the extent that they are not otherwise provided in this Act, the board is authorized to adopt rules prescribing procedures and standards for the conduct of the laboratory approval program.
Art. 4447e-1  HEALTH—PUBLIC

(b) The department may prescribe the form and reasonable requirements for the application and the procedures for processing such application.

(c) The department may prescribe the test procedure to be employed and the standards of accuracy and precision required for each test.

(d) The department may extend or renew any approval in accordance with reasonable procedures prescribed by the department.

(e) The department may for good cause after notice to the affected laboratory and an opportunity for hearing restrict, suspend, or revoke any approval granted under this program.

(f) Hearings under this section shall be conducted in accordance with the hearing rules adopted by the board and the applicable provisions of the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended, (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Provisions Mandatory; Exception for Religious Tenets; Liability for Failure to Give Permission for Tests

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Act are mandatory; provided, however, that such test or tests shall not be given to any child whose parents or guardian object thereto on the grounds that such tests conflict with their religious tenets or practices. Provided further, that no physician, technician, or person giving a test for hypothyroidism is liable or responsible because of the failure or refusal of a parent or guardian to give permission for tests provided in the screening program under this Act.

Follow Up of Positive Tests

Sec. 6. The city or county health officer shall follow up all positive tests with the attending physician who notified such officer or with the parent of the newborn child if such notification was made by a person other than a physician. The Texas Department of Health is authorized to follow up positive tests with the attending physician or the physician's designee, the city or county health officer, or the parent of the newborn infant.

Diagnosis and Treatment

Sec. 7. When a positive test is confirmed, the services and facilities of the department and other boards, agencies, and political subdivisions in the state cooperating in the program shall be made available to establish a definitive diagnosis and to supervise treatment as a service to the family and attending physician.

Services and Facilities to Aid Program

Sec. 8. The various boards, agencies, and political subdivisions of the state capable of assisting the department in carrying out a program established under this Act are encouraged to furnish their services and facilities to aid the program.

Cooperation of Physicians and Hospitals

Sec. 9. The department may invite the cooperation of physicians and hospitals in the state which provide maternity and newborn infant care to participate in any program established under this Act.

Gifts and Donations

Sec. 10. The department may receive gifts and donations on behalf of the program established under this Act.

Art. 4447e-2. Sudden Infant Death Syndrome

Sec. 1. When a child under the age of two years dies within this state under circumstances of sudden death, cause unknown, or found dead, cause unknown, that death shall be immediately reported to the justice of the peace, coroner, medical examiner, or other proper official under the law, wherein the body lies, whereupon the justice of the peace, coroner, or medical examiner shall inform the parents or legal guardian of the child that they may request an autopsy performed on the child, the reasonable cost of which shall be borne by the state. An autopsy requested by the parents or legal guardians shall be arranged for by the justice of the peace, coroner, or medical examiner and the parents or legal guardians shall be promptly notified of the results of that autopsy. The reasonable cost of the autopsy performed under this section shall be reported to the director of Health Resources who shall in turn instruct the comptroller to pay the account to the person entitled thereto out of funds appropriated for this purpose by the legislature. The reasonableness and propriety of all claims and accounts under this section shall be passed upon and determined by the director of Health Resources. Nothing in this section shall be construed as interfering with the duties and responsibilities of the justice of the peace, coroner, or medical examiner as defined in other sections of the law.

Sec. 2. Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS) is hereby recognized and may be used as a primary cause of death, when applicable, in such certification as is required by Rule 40a, Sanitary Code for Texas, as amended (Article 4477, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925).

Sec. 3. The Texas Department of Health Resources shall develop and disseminate to proper agencies, governmental bodies, officials, physicians, nurses, health professionals, and citizens a model program that can be used in follow-up consultation and information about Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS) and its characteristic grief-guilt reaction. It is the intent of this section to initiate a model program that can be used to humanize and maximize the understanding and the handling of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS) in this state. The Texas Department of Health Resources may appoint an advisory committee to assist it in the development of such program.

Department of Health Resources abolished and Department of Health created by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., ch. 474; see art. 4418g.

Art. 4447e–3. Pilot Program to Identify Infants with High Risk of Impaired Hearing

Text of article effective until September 1, 1981

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) “Board” means the Texas Board of Health.
(2) “Department” means the Texas Department of Health.

Program Established

Sec. 2. The department shall establish and implement a program in certain public health regions of the state to identify infants at high risk of having impaired hearing and to assure that an infant who is identified as being at high risk of having impaired hearing is tested for hearing loss.

Regions Served

Sec. 3. The department shall implement the program in two public health regions, as that term is defined by the board. The board shall establish the program in one public health region with a population greater than 2,000,000, according to the most recent federal census, and in one public health region with a population of less than 1,000,000, according to the most recent federal census.

Registry of Infants at High Risk

Sec. 4. (a) The board shall establish criteria for determining if an infant is at high risk of having impaired hearing.
(b) The department shall establish a registry of infants who, before they are 29 days old, are determined to be at high risk of having impaired hearing. With the consent of the child’s parent or other person having care, custody, or control of the child, the department shall place on the registry the name of a child who meets criteria for being at high risk of having hearing impairment.
(c) The department shall remove the name of a child from the registry if the child is determined to have no hearing impairment.

Audiological Testing

Sec. 5. (a) If possible, the department shall contact the parents or other person having care, custody, or control of a child whose name is placed on the registry before the child enters school, determine if the child’s hearing has been tested, and refer the child to the Central Education Agency and to other appropriate agencies for needed services.
(b) The department shall establish an audiological testing program for testing the hearing of children whose names are on the registry and who have not been tested for hearing impairment. Audiological testing provided by the department shall be limited to those children whose families meet financial criteria set by the board.
(c) The board shall set a fee scale based on financial need to be charged for audiological testing.

Repayment

Sec. 6. If the parent, managing conservator, or other person having a legal obligation to support an infant or child served by this program receives money, or is entitled to receive money, from an insurance policy, a group health or prepaid medical plan, or a public program created by law for the payment of the costs of services provided by this Act, that person shall reimburse the department to the extent of the benefit received for the cost to the department of providing the services.

Powers of the Board

Sec. 7. The board may:

(1) adopt rules necessary for the implementation of this Act;
(2) enter into contracts or agreements with physicians or hospital staff as necessary for the audiological testing program; and
(3) accept federal or private grants or donations for the program.

Medical Advisory Committee

Sec. 8. The board shall appoint an advisory committee of professionals experienced in the areas of audiological testing and treatment of children with impaired hearing. The committee shall offer advice and assistance to the board in adopting rules and determining policy concerning the program established by this Act.

Evaluation

Sec. 9. The department shall evaluate the results of the program created by this Act and shall report the results of the evaluation to the 67th Legislature.

Duration of the Program

Sec. 10. This Act expires September 1, 1981, unless specifically reenacted by the legislature and unless funds are appropriated for its continued existence.

[Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 2069, ch. 809, §§ 1 to 10, eff. Sept. 1, 1979.]
Art. 4447r. Cooperative Associations by Eligible Institutions

Establishment; Names; Purposes

Sec. 1. Associations may hereafter be established for the purpose of enabling "eligible institutions" (as defined in this Act) to cooperate with each other for the purposes named in this Act. Only eligible institutions can become members of associations established under this Act. Each association chartered under this Act shall contain as part of its name the words "Cooperative Association," and its purposes shall be limited to establishing, operating, and maintaining a "system" or "systems" (as defined in this Act) on a cooperative basis solely for the use and benefit of eligible institutions. Eligible institutions are authorized to create and establish each association only under such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the governing bodies of the respective eligible institutions.

Definitions

Sec. 2. The following terms used in this Act shall have the following meanings:

(1) The term "eligible institutions" shall include only political subdivisions and municipalities of the State of Texas; health-related state-supported institutions, including, but not limited to, Texas A & M University System, The University of Texas System, and Texas Woman's University, and non-profit health-related institutions; and cooperative associations created to provide a system as defined in Subsection (2) of this Section 2, a unit of which is situated in any county of this state having a population in excess of 1,600,000 inhabitants according to the most recent federal census. In addition to other activities, such entities must be engaged in health-related pursuits to become eligible institutions, and, except for cooperative associations, must be exempt from federal income tax. It is not a requirement of this Act that any component institution of any state-supported institution be a member of any association created under this Act, but any one or more of such component institutions may be a member of any one or more associations.

(2) The term "system" shall include all properties and facilities necessary, incidental, and appropriate for the purposes of providing laundering services, central heating and cooling services (including steam and chilled water supply), cable television and other communication services, including transmission of x-rays, records, and other copy, parking facilities and traffic control facilities and devices on private streets, and food processing and dietary food preparation and supply services, together with the buildings and land (whether leasehold or other interests) necessary to provide the foregoing services, properties and facilities, all by and for the benefit of the members of the cooperative associations created under this Act.

Powers, Rights and Functions

Sec. 3. Each association established under this Act shall have the following specific powers, rights, and functions:

(1) to acquire, own, and operate a system or systems on a cooperative basis solely for the benefit of the eligible institutions whether or not members of the association and to engage in such activities for the benefit of such eligible institutions as are necessarily related to the acquisition, ownership, operation, and maintenance of the system or systems as defined in this Act;

(2) to acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, lands and estates in lands (whether leasehold or otherwise) appropriate or reasonably incidental to the system or systems as defined in this Act; to own, hold, improve, develop, and manage any real estate so acquired; to construct, or cause to be constructed, improve, enlarge, and equip buildings or other structures on any such real estate; and to encumber and dispose of any lands or estates in lands or any such buildings or other structures at any time owned or held by the association;

(3) to acquire by purchase, lease, manufacture, or otherwise, any personal property appropriate or reasonably incidental to the system or systems as defined in this Act; and

(4) to borrow or raise money; to sell, grant security interests in, pledge, and otherwise dispose of and realize upon accounts receivable, contract rights, and other choses in action; and to make, draw, accept, endorse, execute, and issue bonds, debentures, notes, or other obligations for money so borrowed or in payment for property purchase, and to secure the payment thereof by mortgage upon, or creation of security interests in, or pledge of, or conveyance or assignment in trust of, the whole or any part of the property, real or personal, of the association, all of the above being authorized to the extent necessary to accomplish the purposes set forth in this Act.

Public Funds

Sec. 4. No public funds appropriated to any department of the state government or to any state institution shall be used in establishing any association authorized by this Act.

Articles of Incorporation

Sec. 5. Eligible institutions desiring to establish associations hereunder may, in the exercise of the rights herein granted and subject to the limitations herein provided, prepare and file articles under the general corporation laws of the State of Texas, which corporation laws, including the Texas Business Corporations Act, shall upon such filing govern such associations except wherein such laws conflict with the provisions of this Act.

Franchise Tax Exemption; Reports; Surplus Revenue

Sec. 6. The associations established under this Act shall be purely cooperative and not for profit, and shall not be required to pay any annual franchise tax, but shall nevertheless file a written report to the secretary of state showing their assets and the condition of their affairs annually. Such associations may by their directors, in accordance with their bylaws, pass any surplus revenue derived from each system to the surplus fund or divide such funds among the patrons thereof in proportion to their respective contributions to the working capital of the association and patronage.

Loaning Money to Members

Sec. 7. The associations established under this Act shall not have the power to loan money to their members.

Loans From Public or Private Sources; Services and Costs

Sec. 8. The associations established under this Act shall only have the powers enumerated in Section 3 of this Act. The creation, operation, or maintenance of each system may be accomplished in whole or in part with the proceeds of loans obtained from any public or private source. Such associations are authorized to furnish services from each system to any and all eligible institutions and to determine the amounts to be charged as the cost of furnishing such services.

Bonds, Notes or Other Obligations

Sec. 9. From time to time each association established under this Act shall have authority to borrow money and to deliver evidences of indebtedness to include bonds or notes in such amounts as may be necessary for the purpose of creating, enlarging, operating, or maintaining the system or systems. Such bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness authorized by this Act shall be paid solely from the revenues received from the operation of the system or systems or from funds specifically provided for that purpose from other sources, and said revenues and funds may be pledged to secure the payment of such bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness. Said bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness authorized under this Act shall never constitute indebtedness of the State of Texas or of any of the eligible institutions that are members of any association, and the holders thereof shall never have the right to demand or to enforce payment of principal or interest of the bonds, notes, or other evidences of obligations out of funds, other than those specifically pledged to the payment thereof.

Bonds as Legal and Authorized Investments

Sec. 10. All bonds of the associations established by this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be legal, eligible, and authorized investments for banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, and trustees.

Election to Membership; Voting Rights; Suspension or Expulsion; Transfer of Membership Certificates

Sec. 11. (a) Membership in the associations established under this Act shall be limited to eligible institutions and can be obtained only by election to membership at the time of organization by the organizers thereof, or by the board of directors of the association, when organized under such rules and limitations as may be contained in the bylaws. Members shall have voting rights in the management of the affairs of the association contained in the bylaws of the association.

(b) Members may be suspended or expelled for misconduct under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed in the bylaws. In case of expulsion, the association shall pay to the members such amount and at such time as may be fixed in its bylaws in cancellation of such membership; provided, however, that such member's contractual obligations pledged to the payment of the association's notes, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness shall have been fully paid or provided for.

(c) Membership certificates shall be transferable only to eligible institutions under and subject to such rules and regulations as may be adopted by any association in its bylaws.

(d) All amounts paid or property conveyed or transferred to any association by expelled members not returned as hereinunder provided shall be retained by the association and any facilities or property theretofore acquired shall remain the property of the association, and the members shall have no lien or other rights with regard thereto.

Liability to Creditors; Financial Commitments

Sec. 12. Unless otherwise herein provided, the members of any association established hereunder shall not be responsible to such association or to its creditors in excess of amounts contracted for by the member, and when the contracts are paid in the amounts and at the times therein specified, the liability of each such member shall cease. Nothing contained in this Act shall be interpreted to authorize any health-related state-supported institution to make a financial commitment extending beyond the then current budget period for such institution.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 13. This Act shall be cumulative of all laws now in effect relating to eligible institutions.
Art. 4447r

Tax Exemption

Sec. 14. The accomplishment of the purposes stated in this Act being for the health and benefit of the people of this state, and for the improvement of their properties and industries, the associations in carrying out the purposes of this Act will be performing essential public functions under the constitution, and the associations shall not be required to pay any tax or assessment on its properties or any part thereof or on any purchases made by the associations.

Severability; Liberal Construction

Sec. 15. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the applications thereof to any person or circumstances shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of this Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision. All of the terms and provisions of this Act are to be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes, powers, rights, functions, and authorities herein set forth. [Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 458, ch. 195, eff. May 13, 1975. Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1528, ch. 621, §§ 1, 2, eff. June 15, 1977. Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., ch. 165, §§ 1 to 3, eff. Art. 4447s. Disclosure of Agreements for Payment of Laboratory Tests

Sec. 1. No person licensed in this state to practice medicine, dentistry, podiatry, veterinary medicine, or chiropractic shall agree with any clinical, bioanalytical, or hospital laboratory, wherever located, to make payments to such laboratory for individual tests, combination of tests, or test series for patients unless such person discloses on the bill or statement to the patient or third party payors the name and address of such laboratory and the net amount or amounts paid to or to be paid to such laboratory for individual tests, combination of tests, or test series or makes available on request to the patient or third party payors the net amount or amounts paid to or to be paid to such laboratory for individual tests, combination of tests, or test series. Such information made available shall be in writing and shall show the charge for such laboratory test or test series and may include explanation in net dollar amounts or percentages the charge from such laboratory, the charge for handling, and an interpretation charge.

Sec. 2. The board or agency responsible for licensing and regulation of persons practicing medicine, dentistry, podiatry, veterinary medicine, and chiropractic, in addition to other authority granted, may deny an application for license or other authority to practice for violation of Section 1 of this Act. [Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1528, ch. 621, §§ 1, 2, eff. June 15, 1977. Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 65, ch. 40, § 1, eff. April 11, 1979.]

Art. 4447t. Determination of Death

Sec. 1. (a) A person will be considered legally dead if, based on ordinary standards of medical practice, there is the irreversible cessation of spontaneous respiratory and circulatory functions.

(b) If artificial means of support preclude a determination that spontaneous respiratory and circulatory functions have ceased, a person will be considered legally dead if in the announced opinion of a physician, based on ordinary standards of medical practice, there is the irreversible cessation of all spontaneous brain function. Death will have occurred at the time when the relevant functions ceased.

(c) Death is to be pronounced before artificial means of supporting respiratory and circulatory functions are terminated.

Sec. 2. A physician who determines death in accordance with the provisions of Section 1(b) of this Act is not liable for damages in any civil action or subject to prosecution in any criminal proceeding for his or her acts or the actions of others based on that determination.

Sec. 3. A person who acts in good faith in reliance on a determination of death by a physician is not liable for damages in any civil action or subject to prosecution in any criminal proceeding for his or her act. [Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 368, ch. 165, §§ 1 to 3, eff. May 15, 1979.]

Art. 4447u. Home Health Services

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Home health agency" means a place of business that provides a home health service for pay or other consideration in a patient's residence, ordinarily according to a written and signed plan of treatment.

(2) "Home health service" means the provision of a health service for pay or other consideration in a patient's residence.

(3) "Health service" means:

(A) nursing;

(B) physical, occupational, speech, or respiratory therapy;

(C) a medical social service;

(D) the service of a home health aide;
(E) the furnishing of medical supplies (other than drugs and medicines) and medical equipment; or
(F) nutritional counseling.

(4) "Residence" means a place where a person resides, including a home, nursing home, or convalescent home for the disabled or aged.

(5) "Certified agency" means a person who provides a home health service and holds a current letter of approval signed by an official of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare and indicating compliance with conditions of participation in Title XVIII of the federal Social Security Act. 1

(6) "Department" means the Texas Department of Health.

(7) "Council" means the Home Health Services Advisory Council.

(8) "Person" means an individual, corporation, or association.

(9) "Place of business" means any office of a home health agency which is required to maintain the official patient records and directs patient services.

1 42 U.S.C.A. § 1395 et seq.

Home Health Services Advisory Council
Sec. 2. (a) The Home Health Services Advisory Council is created.
(b) The council is composed of nine members appointed by the governor as follows:
(1) one member to represent the department;
(2) two members to represent consumers of home health agency services;
(3) one member to represent the Texas Department of Human Resources;
(4) one member to represent the Texas Association of Home Health Agencies, Incorporated;
(5) one member to represent private nonprofit home health agencies;
(6) one member to represent voluntary nonprofit agencies;
(7) one member to represent proprietary agencies; and
(8) one member to represent an official department home health agency.

c) Members of the council serve staggered terms of two years, the terms of five members expiring on January 31 of each even-numbered year and the terms of four members expiring on January 31 of each odd-numbered year.

(d) The council shall elect a presiding officer from among its members to preside at meetings and to notify members of meetings. The presiding officer shall serve for one year and may not serve in that capacity for more than two years.

(e) The council shall meet at least once a year and at other times at the call of the presiding officer, any three members of the council, or the commissioner of health.

(f) Members of the council serve without compensation.

Council Duties
Sec. 3. The council shall advise the department on standards for licensing.

Rules and Standards
Sec. 4. (a) The department shall prescribe forms necessary to perform its duties and shall adopt rules necessary to implement this Act.

(b) The department shall set minimum standards for home health services licensed under this Act that pertain to:

(1) qualifications for professional personnel;
(2) qualifications for nonprofessional personnel;
(3) treatment and services provided by a home health agency and the coordination of treatment and services;
(4) supervision of professional and nonprofessional personnel;
(5) organizational structure of the agency, lines of authority, and delegation of responsibility;
(6) clinical records kept by the agency;
(7) business records; and
(8) other aspects of home health services necessary to protect the public.

Licenses Required
Sec. 5. (a) No certified agency may engage in the business of providing home health services unless the person has acquired from the department a Class A home health service license for each place of business from which home health services are directed.

(b) No person, other than a certified agency, may engage in the business of providing home health services unless the person has acquired from the department a Class B home health service license for each place of business from which home health services are directed.

Persons Exempted from License Requirement
Sec. 6. The following persons are not required to be licensed under Section 5 of this Act:

(1) a licensed physician;
(2) an individual whose permanent residence is in the patient's residence;
(3) an employee of a person holding a license under this Act who provides home health services only as an employee of the licensed person and who receives no benefit for providing home health services other than wages from the employer;

(4) a home, nursing home, convalescent home, or other institution for the disabled or aged that provides health services only to residents of the home or institution;

(5) a person who provides one health service through a contract with a person licensed under Section 5 of this Act;

(6) a durable medical equipment supply company;

(7) a drug store or wholesale medical supply company that furnishes no services to persons in their houses except supplies;

(8) a hospital or other licensed health care facility serving in-patient residents; or

(9) a person providing home health services to an injured employee pursuant to Article 8306 et seq. of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

License Application

Sec. 7. (a) An applicant for a license to provide a home health service must:

(1) file a written application on a form prescribed by the department;

(2) file with the application the name of the owner of the service or a list of names of persons who own an interest in the service and a list of any businesses with which the service business subcontracts and in which the owner or owners of the service business hold as much as five percent of the ownership;

(3) cooperate with any inspections the department may require for a license; and

(4) pay to the department a license fee as prescribed by Section 8 of this Act.

(b) In addition to the above requirements: (1) for a Class A license, if the applicant is at the time of filing an application a certified home health agency, it shall include a copy of its letter of approval from the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare showing its compliance with federal conditions of participation. If the applicant is not at the time of filing its application a certified home health agency, it must attach a copy of its certificate of need, exemption certificate, or declaratory ruling. It must also have been surveyed and be in the process of receiving its certificate from the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

(2) For a Class B license, the applicant must show proof of the services provided and geographical territory in which such services have been provided as of the effective date of this Act and it must have requested a survey for the purposes of confirming the services provided and territory covered. If the applicant is not providing services as of the effective date of this Act, it must attach a copy of its certificate of need, exemption certificate, or declaratory ruling.

(c) The license fee shall be returned to the applicant if the license application is denied.

License Fees

Sec. 8. (a) Except as provided by Subsections (b) and (c) of this section, the Class A home health service license fee and the Class B home health service license fee for each place of business is $100.

(b) The Class A home health service license fee for each place of business of a certified agency that has been operated during the year immediately preceding the date of the application is a figure in dollars that equals one percent of the total number of home visits made by the agency from the place of business during the year immediately preceding the date of the application, but not less than $100 nor more than $400.

(c) The Class B home health service license fee for each place of business of a person, other than a certified agency, providing home health services during the year immediately preceding the date of the application is the fee specified in the following schedule according to the number of home health service hours billed from the place of business during the year immediately preceding the date of the application:

<table>

Issuance of License

Sec. 9. (a) The department shall issue a Class A or Class B home health service license for each place of business to each applicant who:

(1) qualifies for the type of license requested;

(2) submits an application as required by this Act; and

(3) complies with all licensing standards required or adopted by the department under this Act.

(b) A license issued under this Act may not be transferred or assigned.

(c) A license issued under this Act expires one year from the date of issuance.

Inspections

Sec. 10. The department or its authorized representatives may enter the premises of a license applicant or license holder at reasonable times to make an inspection incidental to the issuance of a license.
License Denial, Suspension, or Revocation

Sec. 11. (a) The department may deny, suspend, or revoke the license of an applicant or holder of a license who fails to comply with the rules or standards for licensing required by this Act.

(b) The department may revoke or suspend a license to be effective immediately when the health and safety of persons are threatened. A person whose license is suspended or revoked under this subsection is entitled to a hearing within seven days after the effective date of the suspension or revocation.

(c) The licensing agency shall deny, cancel, revoke, or suspend a license if it finds that the applicant or licensee has failed substantially to comply with any applicable provisions of the Texas Health Planning and Development Act requiring a certificate of need or an exemption certificate.

Injunctions

Sec. 12. (a) When a person violates the licensing requirements of this Act, the department may petition a district court to restrain the person from continuing the violation. A suit for injunctive relief must be brought in Travis County.

(b) On application for injunctive relief and a finding that a person is violating this Act, the district court shall grant the injunctive relief if the facts warrant.

(c) At the request of the department, the attorney general shall institute and conduct the suit authorized in Subsection (a) of this section in the name of the State of Texas.

Disposition of Funds

Sec. 13. All fees received by the department under this Act shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 14. This Act and the council created thereby are subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence by that Act, the council is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1991.

Effective Date

Sec. 15. This Act takes effect September 1, 1979, except that Section 5 takes effect January 1, 1980. [Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1466, ch. 642, § 1 to 4, 6 to 15, eff. Sept. 1, 1979; § 5, eff. Jan. 1, 1980.]

Art. 4476-6a. Purchase of Imported Beef by State Agencies and Subdivisions

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) “State agency” means any agency, department, board, or commission of the state or any state eleemosynary, educational, rehabilitative, correctional, or custodial facility.

(2) “Subdivision” means any county, incorporated city or town, or any school, junior college, water, hospital, reclamation, or other special-purpose district.

Sec. 2. No state agency or subdivision may purchase beef, or any product consisting substantially of beef, which has been imported from outside the United States of America.

Sec. 3. The State Department of Health has responsibility for enforcing the provisions of this Act and is the agency for receipt of notifications of violations of this Act.

Sec. 4. The State Department of Health shall promulgate rules and regulations for the reporting of purchases covered by this Act by state agencies and subdivisions and for the reporting of violations of this Act.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 368, ch. 159, §§ 1 to 4, eff. May 8, 1975.]

Art. 4476-6b. Purchase of Imported Dairy Products by State Agencies and Subdivisions

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) “State agency” means any agency, department, board or commission of the state or any state eleemosynary, educational, rehabilitative, correctional, or custodial facility.

(2) “Subdivision” means any county, incorporated city or town, or any school, junior college, water, hospital, reclamation, or other special-purpose district.

(3) “Dairy product” means milk, cream, butter, cheese, or any product consisting largely of one or more of them.

Sec. 2. No state agency or subdivision may purchase a dairy product that has been imported from outside the United States of America. This Act does not apply to the purchase of milk powder when, in the normal course of business, domestic milk powder is not readily available.

Art. 4476-13. Hazardous Substances; Labeling; Sales

Definitions

Sec. 1. When used in this Act, unless the context requires a different definition:

(1) “Department” means the Texas Department of Health.

(2) “Person” includes any individual, partnership, corporation or association, or legal representative or agent.

(3) “Commerce” means any and all commerce within the State of Texas and subject to the jurisdiction thereof; and includes the operation of any business or service establishment.

(4) “Hazardous substance” means any substance or mixture of substances which is toxic, corrosive, flammable, an irritant, a strong sensitizer, or generates pressure through decomposition, heat, or other means, if the substance or mixture of substances may cause substantial personal injury or substantial illness during or as a proximate result of any customary or reasonably foreseeable handling or use, including reasonably foreseeable ingestion by children, or any toy or other article other than clothing intended for use by children which presents an electrical, mechanical, or thermal hazard; and any radioactive substance if, with respect to the substance as used in a particular class of article or as packaged, the department finds by regulation that the substance is sufficiently hazardous to require labeling in accordance with the provisions of this Act in order to protect the public health. The term “hazardous substance” does not apply to economic pesticides subject to the State or Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act or to foods, drugs, and cosmetics subject to the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act or to beverages complying with or subject to the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, or to the Texas Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, nor to substances intended for use as fuels when stored in containers and used in the heating, cooking or refrigeration system of a private residence, nor does it apply to or include any source material, special nuclear material, or by-product material as defined in the federal Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, and regulations issued pursuant thereto by the Atomic Energy Commission.

(5) "Toxic" means any substance other than a radioactive substance which has the capacity to produce personal injury or illness to any person through ingestion, inhalation, or absorption through any body surface.

(6) "Highly toxic" means any substance which produces death within 14 days in half or more than half of a group of 10 or more laboratory white rats each weighing between 200 and 300 grams, at a single dose of 50 milligrams or less per kilogram of body weight, when orally administered, or when inhaled continuously for a period of one hour or less at an atmospheric concentration of 200 parts per million by volume or less of gas or vapor or two milligrams per liter by volume or less of mist or dust, if the inhaled concentration is likely to be encountered by any person when the substance is used in any reasonably foreseeable manner; or which produces death within 14 days in half or more than half of a group of 10 or more rabbits tested in a dosage of 200 milligrams or less per kilogram of body weight, when administered by continuous contact with the bare skin for 24 hours or less. However, if the department finds that available data based on human experience indicate results different from those obtained on animals, the human data shall take precedence.

(7) "Corrosive" means any substance which in contact with living tissue will cause destruction of that tissue by chemical action. It does not refer to chemical action on inanimate surfaces.

(8) "Irritant" means any noncorrosive substance which on immediate, prolonged, or repeated contact with normal living tissue will induce a local inflammatory reaction.

(9) "Strong sensitizer" means any substance which will cause on normal living tissue, through an allergic or photodynamic process, a hypersensitivity which becomes evident on reapplication of the same substances. Before designating any substance as a strong sensitizer, the department, upon consideration of the frequency of occurrence and severity of the reaction, shall find that the substance has a significant potential for causing hypersensitivity.

(10) "Flammable" applies to any substance which has a flash point of above 20 degrees to and including 80 degrees Fahrenheit, as determined by the Tagliabue Open Cup Tester. Any substance which has a flash point at or below 20 degrees Fahrenheit, as determined by the Tagliabue Open Cup Tester shall be designated "extremely flammable." However, the flammability of solids, fabrics, children's clothing, household furnishings, and of the contents of self-pressurized containers shall be determined by methods found by the department to be generally applicable to these materials or containers, and shall be established by regulations issued by the department.

(11) "Radioactive substance" means a substance which emits ionizing radiation.

(12) "Label" means a display of written, printed, or graphic matter upon the immediate container of any substance, or in the case of an article which is unpackaged or is not packaged, in an immediate container intended or suitable for delivery to the ultimate consumer, a display of this matter directly on the article involved or on a tag or other suitable material affixed thereto.

(13) "Immediate container" does not include package liners.

(14) "Misbranded hazardous substance" means a hazardous substance (including a toy, or other article intended for use by children, which is a hazardous substance, or which bears or contains a hazardous substance in a manner which is susceptible of access by a child to whom the toy or other article is entrusted, intended or packaged in a form suitable for use in the household or by children) which fails to bear a proper label as required by this Act.

(15) "Electrical hazard" means an article which, in normal use or when subjected to reasonably foreseeable damage or abuse, by its design or manufacture may cause personal injury or illness by electrical shock.

(16) "Mechanical hazard" means an article which, in normal use or when subjected to reasonably foreseeable damage or abuse, by its design or manufacture presents an unreasonable risk of personal injury or illness;

(A) from fracture, fragmentation, or disassembly of the article;

(B) from propulsion of the article or any part or accessory thereof;

(C) from points or other protrusions, surfaces, edges, openings, or closures;

(D) from moving parts;

(E) from lack or insufficiency of controls to reduce or stop motion;

(F) as a result of self-adhering characteristics of the article;

(G) because the article or any part or accessory thereof may be aspirated or ingested;
Art. 4476-13  HEALTH—PUBLIC  2760

apply to the manufacture, sale, distribution, or use of fireworks of any class.

Penalty

Sec. 7.  (a) A person commits an offense if he intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly violates any provision of this Act or any rule issued pursuant to the authorization of this Act.

(b) An offense under this section is a Class B misdemeanor unless the person's intent is to defraud another, in which event the offense is a Class A misdemeanor.

Art. 4476-14. Dangerous Drugs

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1]

Definitions

Sec. 2. For the purposes of this Act:

(a) The term "dangerous drug" means any drug or device that is not included in Penalty Groups I through IV of the Texas Controlled Substances Act and that is unsafe for self-medication, and includes the following:

(1) Procaine, its salts, derivatives, or compounds or mixtures thereof except ointments and creams for topical application containing not more than two and one-half percent (2 1/2%) strength.

(2) Any drug or device which bears or is required to bear the legend: Caution: federal law prohibits dispensing without prescription, or the legend: Caution: federal law restricts this drug to use by or on the order of a licensed veterinarian.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 2(b) to 4]

Duties of Exempt Persons

Sec. 5. Persons (other than carriers) exempt from the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of Section 3 by virtue of Section 4 shall:

(a)(1) Make a complete record of all stocks of drugs set forth in Section 2(a)(1) hereof, on hand on the effective date of this Act, and retain such record for not less than two (2) calendar years immediately following such date, and

(2) Retain each commercial or other record relating to those drugs set forth in Section 2(a)(1) hereof, maintained by them in the usual course of their business or occupation, for not less than two (2) calendar years immediately following the date of such record, to create and maintain a perpetual record of the purchases of those drugs set forth in Section 2(a)(1) hereof.

(b) Pharmacies as set forth in Section 4(b)(1) shall, in addition to complying with the provisions of subsection (2) above, retain each prescription for those drugs set forth in Section 2(a)(1) hereof, received by them for not less than two (2) calendar years immediately following the date of the filling or the date of the last refilling of such prescription, whichever is the later date, to create and maintain a perpetual record of the sales of those drugs set forth in Section 2(a)(1) hereof.

Files or Records; Inspection; Inventory of Drugs
Sec. 6. Persons required to keep files and records relating to those drugs set forth in Section 2(a)(1) hereof, by Section 5 shall
(1) make such files or records available for inspection by any public official or employee engaged in the enforcement of this Act, at all reasonable hours, for inspection and copying; and
(2) accord to such officer or employee full opportunity to make inventory of all stocks of those drugs set forth in Section 2(a)(1) hereof, on hand; and it shall be unlawful for any such person to fail to make such files or records available or to accord such opportunity to check their correctness.

Section 10 of the 1979 amendatory act provided:
"This Act applies only to offenses committed on or after its effective date, and a criminal action for an offense committed before this Act takes effect is governed by the law existing before the effective date, which law is continued in effect for this purpose as if this Act were not in force. For purposes of this section, an offense is committed on or after the effective date of this Act if any element of the offense occurs on or after the effective date."

(36) Phencyclidine.

(c) Any of the following opium derivatives, their salts, isomers, and salts of isomers, unless specifically excepted, whenever the existence of these salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation:

(1) Acetorphine;
(2) Acetyldihydrocodeine;
(3) Benzylmorphine;
(4) Codeine methylbromide;
(5) Codeine-N-Oxide;
(6) Cyprenorphine;
(7) Desomorphine;
(8) Dihydromorphine;
(9) Drotebanol;
(10) Etorphine (except hydrochloride salt);
(11) Heroin;
(12) Hydromorphinol;
(13) 1-fethyldesorphine;
(14) 1-fethyldihydromorphine;
(15) 1-ionoacetylmorphine;
(16) 1-iorphine methylbromide;
(17) 1-forphine methylsulfonate;
(18) 1-iorphine-N-Oxide;
(19) 1-fyrophine;
(20) Nicocodeine;
(21) Nicomorphine;
(22) Normorphine;
(23) Pholcodine;
(24) Thebacon.

(d) Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following hallucinogenic substances, or which contains any of its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers whenever the existence of such salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation (for purposes of this paragraph only, the term “isomer” includes the optical, position, and geometric isomers):

(1) 4-bromo-2, 5-dimethoxyamphetamine (Some trade or other names: 4-bromo-2, 5-dimethoxy-alpha-methylphenethylamine; 4-bromo-2, 5-DMA);
(2) 2, 5-dimethoxyamphetamine (Some trade or other names: 2, 5-dimethoxy-alpha-methylphenethylamine; 2, 5-DMA);
(3) 4-methoxyamphetamine (Some trade or other names: 4-methoxy-alpha-methylphenethylamine; paramethoxyamphetamine; FMA);
(4) 5-methoxy-3, 4-methylenedioxy amphetamine;
(5) 4-methyl-2, 5-dimethoxyamphetamine (Some trade and other names: 4-methyl-2, 5-dimethoxy-alpha-methylphenethylamine; “DOM”; and “STP”);
(6) 3, 4-methylenedioxyamphetamine;
(7) 3, 4, 5-trimethoxyamphetamine;
(8) Bufotenine (Some trade and other names: 3-(beta-Dimethylaminoethyl)-5-hydroxyindole; 3-(2-dimethylaminoethyl)-5-indolol; N, N-dimethylserotonin; 5-hydroxy-N, N-dimethyltryptamine; mappine);
(9) Diethyltryptamine (Some trade and other names: N, N-Diethyltryptamine, DET);
(10) Dimethyltryptamine (Some trade and other names: DMT);
(11) Ibogaine (Some trade or other names: 7-Ethyl-6, 6, beta, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12, 13, -octahydro-2-methoxy-6, 9-methano-5H-pyrido [1', 2',1, 2] aze­pino [5, 4-b] indole; tabernanthe iboga);
(12) Lysergic acid diethylamide;
(13) Marihuana;
(14) Mescaline;
(15) Peyote, unless unharvested and growing in its natural state, meaning all parts of the plant presently classified botanically as Lophophora, whether growing or not; the seeds thereof; any extract from any part of such plant; and every compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, mixture, or preparation of such plant, its seeds, or extracts;
(16) N-ethyl-3-piperidyl benzilate;
(17) N-methyl-3-piperidyl benzilate;
(18) Psilocybin;
(19) Psilocin;
(20) Tetrahydrocannabinols.

Synthetic equivalents of the substances contained in the plant, or in the resinous extractives of Cannabis, and/or synthetic substances, derivatives, and their isomers with similar chemical structure and pharmacological activity such as the following:

-delta-1 cis or trans tetrahydrocannabinol, and their optical isomers;
-delta-6 cis or trans tetrahydrocannabinol, and their optical isomers;
-delta-3, 4 cis or trans tetrahydrocannabinol, and its optical isomers.

(Since nomenclature of these substances is not internationally standardized, compounds of these structures, regardless of numerical designation of atomic positions are covered.)

(21) Thiophene Analog of Phencyclidine (Some trade or other names: 1-[1-(2-thienyl) cyclohexyl] piperidine; 2-Thienyl Analog of Phencyclidine; TPCP);
(e) Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having a depressant or stimulant effect on the central nervous system, including its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers whenever the existence of such salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation:

1. Fenethylline;
2. Mecloqualone; and

Schedule II
Sec. 2.04. (a) Schedule II shall consist of the controlled substances listed in this section.

(b) Any of the following substances, except those narcotic drugs listed in other schedules, however produced:

1. Opium and opiate, and any salt, compound, derivative, or preparation of opium or opiate, excluding naloxone and its salts, and excluding naltrexone and its salts, but including the following:
   (A) Raw opium;
   (B) Opium extracts;
   (C) Opium fluid extracts;
   (D) Powdered opium;
   (E) Granulated opium;
   (F) Tincture of opium;
   (G) Codeine;
   (H) Ethylmorphine;
   (I) Etorphine hydrochloride;
   (J) Hydromorphone;
   (K) Metopen;
   (M) Morphine;
   (N) Oxycodone;
   (O) Oxymorphone;
   (P) Thebaine;
(2) Any salt, compound, isomer, derivative, or preparation thereof which is chemically equivalent or identical with any of the substances referred to in paragraph (1) of this subsection, but not including the isoquinoline alkaloids of opium;
(3) Opium poppy and poppy straw;
(4) Cocaine, including its salts, isomers (whether optical, position, or geometric) and salts of such isomers; coca leaves, and any salt, compound, derivative, or preparation thereof which is chemically equivalent or identical with any of these substances, but not including decocainized coca leaves or extractions which do not contain cocaine or eгонine;
(5) Concentrate of poppy straw (the crude extract of poppy straw in either liquid, solid, or powder form which contains the phenanthrine alkaloids of the opium poppy);
(6) 1-Phenylecylexylamine; and
(7) 1-Piperidinocelexylhexane-Carbonitrile.

(c) Any of the following opiates, including their isomers, esters, ethers, salts, and salts of isomers, whenever the existence of these isomers, esters, ethers, and salts is possible within the specific chemical designation:

1. Alphaprodine;
2. Anileridine;
3. Bezitramide;
4. Dihydrocodeine;
5. Diphenoxylate;
6. Fentanyl;
7. Isomethadone;
8. Levomethorphan;
9. Levorphanol;
10. Metazocine;
11. Methadone;
12. Methadone-Intermediate, 4-cyano-2-dimethylamino-4,4-diphenyl butane;
13. Moramide-Intermediate, 2-methyl-3-morpholino-1,1-diphenyl-propane-carboxylic acid;
14. Pethidine;
15. Pethidine-Intermediate-A, 4-cyano-1-methyl-4-phenylpiperidine;
16. Pethidine-Intermediate-B, ethyl-4-phenylpiperidine-4-carboxylate;
17. Pethidine-Intermediate-C, 1-methyl-4-phenylpiperidine-4-carboxylic acid;
18. Phenazocine;
19. Piminozine;
20. Racemethorphan;

(d) Phenylacetone and methylamine if possessed together with intent to manufacture methamphetamine.

(e) Unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having a potential for abuse associated with a stimulant effect on the central nervous system:

1. Amphetamine, its salts, optical isomers, and salts of its optical isomers;
2. Methamphetamine, including its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers;
3. Methylphenidate and its salts; and
4. Phenmetrazine and its salts.
Art. 4476-15  HEALTH—PUBLIC  2764

(f) Unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having a depressant effect on the central nervous system, including its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers whenever the existence of such salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation:

(1) Methaqualone;
(2) Amobarbital;
(3) Secobarbital;
(4) Pentobarbital.

Schedule III

Sec. 2.05. (a) Schedule III shall consist of the controlled substances listed in this section.

(b) Unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having a potential for abuse associated with a depressant effect on the central nervous system:

(1) any compound, mixture, or preparation containing amobarbital, secobarbital, pentobarbital, or any salt thereof and one or more active medicinal ingredients which are not listed in any schedule;
(2) any suppository dosage form containing amobarbital, secobarbital, pentobarbital, or any salt of any of these drugs and approved by the Food and Drug Administration for marketing only as a suppository;
(3) any substance which contains any quantity of a derivative of barbituric acid, or any salt of a derivative of barbituric acid, except those substances which are specifically listed in other schedules;
(4) Chlorhexadol;
(5) Glutethimide;
(6) Lysergic acid;
(7) Lysergic acid amide;
(8) Methyprylon;
(9) Sulfondiethylmethane;
(10) Sulfonethylmethane;
(11) Sulfonmethane.

c) Nalorphine.

d) Any material, compound, mixture, or preparation containing limited quantities of any of the following narcotic drugs, or any salts thereof:

(1) not more than 1.8 grams of codeine, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or not more than 90 milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts;
(2) not more than 1.8 grams of dihydrocodeinone, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or not more than 15 milligrams per dosage unit, with a fourfold or greater quantity of an isoquinoline alkaloid of opium;
(3) not more than 300 milligrams of dihydrocodeinone, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or not more than 15 milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts;
(4) not more than 300 milligrams of dihydrocodeinone, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or not more than 15 milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts;
(5) not more than 1.8 grams of dihydrocodeinone, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or not more than 90 milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts;
(6) not more than 300 milligrams of ethylmorphine, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or not more than 15 milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts;
(7) not more than 500 milligrams of opium per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams, or not more than 25 milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts;
(8) not more than 50 milligrams of morphine, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts.

e) Any compound, mixture, or preparation containing any stimulant listed in Subsection (e) of Section 2.04 or depressant substance listed in Subsection (b) of this section is excepted from the application of all or any part of this Act if the compound, mixture, or preparation contains one or more active medicinal ingredients not having a stimulant or depressant effect on the central nervous system, and if the admixtures are included therein in combinations, quantity, proportion, or concentration that vitiate the potential for abuse of the substances which have a stimulant or depressant effect on the central nervous system.

(f) Unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having a stimulant effect on the central nervous system, including its salts, isomers (whether optical, position, or geometric), and salts of such isomers whenever the existence of such salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible, within the specific chemical designation:
HEALTH—PUBLIC
Art. 4476–15

(1) Benzzphetamine;
(2) Chlorphentermine;
(3) Clortermine;
(4) Mazindol;
(5) Phendimetrazine.

Schedule IV

Sec. 2.06. (a) Schedule IV shall consist of the controlled substances listed in this section.

(b) Any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having a potential for abuse associated with a depressant effect on the central nervous system:

(1) Barbital;
(2) Chloral betaine;
(3) Chloral hydrate;
(4) Chloridiazepoxide;
(5) Clonazepam;
(6) Clorazepate;
(7) Diazepam;
(8) Ethchlorvynol;
(9) Ethinamate;
(10) Flurazepam;
(11) Lorazepam;
(12) Mebutamate;
(13) Meprobamate;
(14) Methohexital;
(15) Methylphenobarbital;
(16) Oxazepam;
(17) Paraldehyde;
(18) Pentazocine, its salts, derivatives, or compounds or mixtures thereof;
(19) Petrichloral;
(20) Phenobarbital;
(21) Prazerpam.

(c) Any compound, mixture, or preparation containing any depressant substance listed in Subsection (b) of this section is excepted from the application of all or any part of this Act if the compound, mixture, or preparation contains one or more active medicinal ingredients not having a depressant effect on the central nervous system, and if the admixtures are included therein in combinations, quantity, proportion, or concentration that vitiate the potential for abuse of the substances which have a depressant effect on the central nervous system.

(d) Unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having a stimulant effect on the central nervous system, including its salts, isomers (whether optical, position, or geometric), and salts of such isomers whenever the existence of such salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific designation:

(1) Diethylpropion;
(2) Phentermine;
(3) Fenfluramine;
(4) Pemoline (including organometallic complexes and chelates thereof).

(e) OTHER SUBSTANCES. Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances, including its salts:

(1) Dextropropoxyphene (Alpha-(+)-4-dimethylamino-1, 2-diphenyl-3-methyl-2-propionoxybutane).

(f) Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation containing limited quantities of any of the following narcotic drugs, or any salts thereof:

(1) Not more than 1 milligram of difenoxin and not less than 25 micrograms of atropine sulfate per dosage unit.

Schedule V

Sec. 2.07. (a) Schedule V shall consist of the controlled substances listed in this section.

(b) Any compound, mixture, or preparation containing limited quantities of any of the following narcotic drugs, which also contains one or more nonnarcotic active medicinal ingredients in sufficient proportion to confer upon the compound, mixture, or preparation valuable medicinal qualities other than those possessed by the narcotic drug alone:

(1) not more than 200 milligrams of codeine, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams;

(2) not more than 100 milligrams of dihydrocodeine, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams;

(3) not more than 100 milligrams of ethylmorphine, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams;

(4) not more than 2.5 milligrams of diphenoxylate and not less than 25 micrograms of atropine sulfate per dosage unit;

(5) not more than 15 milligrams of opium per 29.5729 milliliters or per 28.35 grams.

(6) not more than 0.5 milligram of difenoxin and not less than 25 milligrams of atropine sulfate per dosage unit.

(c) Loperamide.
Sec. 2.17. The following substances are dangerous drugs regulated by the provisions of Chapter 425, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959, as amended (Article 4476-14, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes):

(1) procaine, its salts, derivatives, or compounds or mixtures thereof; or

(2) any substance that bears or is required to bear the legend: Caution: federal law prohibits dispensing without prescription; or the legend: Caution: federal law restricts this drug to use by or on the order of a licensed veterinarian.

SUBCHAPTER 3. REGULATION OF MANUFACTURE, DISTRIBUTION, AND DISPENSING OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES

Registration Requirements

Sec. 3.01.

(c) The following persons need not register and may lawfully possess controlled substances under this Act:

(1) an agent or employee of any registered manufacturer, distributor, analyzer, or dispenser of any controlled substance if he is acting in the usual course of his business or employment;

(2) a common or contract carrier or warehouseman, or an employee thereof, whose possession of any controlled substance is in the usual course of business or employment;

(3) an ultimate user, as that term is defined herein, or a person in possession of any controlled substance pursuant to a lawful order of a practitioner or in lawful possession of a Schedule V substance; or

(4) an official of the Texas Department of Health, a medical school researcher, or a research program participant possessing tetrahydrocannabinols and their derivatives as authorized under Subchapter 7 of this Act.

Sec. 3.02. (a) The director may promulgate reasonable rules.

(b) The director may charge an annual fee of up to $5 per registrant for the costs necessary to administer this Act. Except as provided by Subsection (c) of this section, the fees shall be paid to the director of the department of public safety.

(c) The director may authorize a contract between the department of public safety and an appropriate state agency for the collection and remittance of fees required under this section.

(d) The director by rule may provide for remittance of registration fees collected by state agencies for the department of public safety.

(e) Fees collected by the director of the department of public safety under the terms of this section shall be deposited in the state treasury in the operator's and chauffeur's license fund and said fees deposited may be used only by the department of public safety in the administration of this Act.

Grounds for Revocation and Suspension

Sec. 3.04. (a) A registration under Section 3.03 to manufacture, distribute, analyze, or dispense a controlled substance may be suspended, denied or revoked in accordance with this Act upon a finding that the registrant:

(1) has furnished false or fraudulent material information in any application filed under this Act;

(2) has been convicted of a felony offense under any state or federal law relating to any controlled substance or convicted of any other felony;
(3) has had his registration under the Federal Controlled Substances Act suspended or revoked to manufacture, distribute, analyze, or dispense controlled substances;

(4) has had his practitioner's license under the laws of this state suspended or revoked;

(5) has failed to establish and maintain effective controls against diversion of controlled substances into other than legitimate medical, scientific, or industrial channels as provided by federal regulations or laws now in effect or hereafter promulgated; or

(6) has willfully failed to maintain records required to be kept or has willfully or unreasonably refused to allow an inspection authorized by this Act.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 3.04(b) to 3.07]

Prescriptions

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 3.08(a) to (c)]

(d) A controlled substance listed in Subdivision (1) or (2), Subsection (b), Section 2.07 of this Act, may not be dispensed without the prescription of a practitioner, except when dispensed directly to an ultimate user by a practitioner other than a pharmacy, and a prescription for the substances may not be filled or refilled more than six months after the date of the prescription or be refilled more than five times, unless renewed by the practitioner. A controlled substance included in Schedule V shall not be distributed or dispensed other than for a medical purpose.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 3.08(e)]

(f) A practitioner, as defined by Section 1.02(24)(A) of this Act, may not prescribe, dispense, or administer a controlled substance or cause a controlled substance to be administered under his direction and supervision except for a valid medical purpose and in the course of professional practice.

SUBCHAPTER 4. OFFENSES AND PENALTIES

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 4.01]

Criminal Classification

Sec. 4.02.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 4.02(a)]

(b) Penalty Group 1. Penalty Group 1 shall include the following controlled substances:

(1) Any of the following opiates, including their isomers, esters, ethers, salts, and salts of isomers, esters, and ethers, unless specifically excepted whenever the existence of these isomers, esters, ethers, and salts is possible within the specific chemical designation:

(A) Allylprodine;
(B) Benzethidine;
(C) Betaprodine;
(D) Clonitazene;
(E) Diampromide;
(F) Diethylthiambutene;
(G) Difenoxin;
(H) Dimenoxadol;
(I) Dimethylthiambutene;
(J) Dioxaphetyl butyrate;
(K) Dipipanone;
(L) Ethylmethylthiambutene;
(M) Etonitazene;
(N) Etoxeridine;
(O) Furethidine;
(P) Hydroxypropethidine;
(Q) Ketobemidone;
(R) Levophenacylmorphan;
(S) Meproprone;
(T) Methadol;
(U) Moramide;
(V) Morphoridine;
(W) Noracymethadol;
(X) Norlevorphanol;
(Y) Normethadone;
(Z) Norpiperone;
(AA) Phenadoxone;
(BB) Phenampromide;
(CC) Phenomorphan;
(DD) Phenoperidine;
(EE) Piriramidine;
(FF) Proheptazine;
(GG) Properidine;
(HH) Propiram;
(II) Trimeperidine.

(2) Any of the following opium derivatives, their salts, isomers, and salts of isomers, unless specifically excepted, whenever the existence of these salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation:

(A) Acetorphine;
(B) Acetyldihydrocodeine;
(C) Benzylmorphine;
(D) Codeine methylbromide;
(E) Codeine-N-Oxide;
(F) Cyprenorphine;
(G) Desomorphine;
(H) Dihydromorphine;
(I) Drotebanol;
(J) Etorphine;
(K) Heroin;
(L) Hydromorphanol;
(M) Methyldesorphine;
(N) Methyldihydromorphine;
(O) Monoaetethylmorphine;
(P) Morphine methylbromide;
(Q) Morphine methylsulfonate;
(R) Morphine-N-Oxide;
(S) Myrophine;
(T) Nicocodeine;
(U) Nicomorphine;
(V) Normorphine;
(W) Pholcodine;
(X) Thebacon.

(3) Any of the following substances, except those narcotic drugs listed in another group, however produced:

(A) Opium and opiate, and any salt, compound, derivative, or preparation of opium or opiate, excluding naloxone and its salts, and excluding nalatrexone and its salts, but including the following:
   (i) Raw opium;
   (ii) Opium extracts;
   (iii) Opium fluid extracts;
   (iv) Powdered opium;
   (v) Granulated opium;
   (vi) Tincture of opium;
   (vii) Codeine;
   (viii) Ethylmorphine;
   (ix) Hydrocodone;
   (x) Hydromorphone;
   (xi) Metopon;
   (xii) Morphine;
   (xiii) Oxycodone;
   (xiv) Oxymorphone;
   (xv) Thebaaine;

(B) Any salt, compound, isomer, derivative, or preparation thereof which is chemically equivalent or identical with any of the substances referred to in paragraph (A), but not including the isoquinoline alkaloids of opium;

(C) Opium poppy and poppy straw;

(D) Cocaine, including its salts, isomers (whether optical, position, or geometric), and salts of such isomers, coca leaves and any salt, compound, derivative, or preparation of coca leaves, and any salt, compound, derivative, or preparation thereof which is chemically equivalent or identical with any of these substances, but not including decocainized coca leaves or extractions which do not contain cocaine or eegonine;

(E) Concentrate of poppy straw (the crude extract of poppy straw in either liquid, solid or powder form which contains the phenanthrene alkaloids of the opium poppy).

(4) Any of the following opiates, including their isomers, esters, ethers, salts, and salts of isomers, whenever the existence of these isomers, esters, ethers, and salts is possible within the specific chemical designation:

(A) Alphaproine;
(B) Anileridine;
(C) Bezitramide;
(D) Dihydrocodeine;
(E) Diphenoxylate;
(F) Fentanyl;
(G) Isomethadone;
(H) Levomethorphan;
(I) Levorphanol;
(J) Metazocine;
(K) Methadone;
(L) Methadone-Intermediate,
   4-cyano-2-dimethylamino-4, 4-diphenyl butane;

(M) Moramide-Intermediate,
   2-methyl-3-morpholino-1, 1-diphenyl-propa-carboxylic acid;

(N) Pethidine;
(O) Pethidine-Intermediate-A,
   4-cyano-1-methyl-4-phenylpiperidine;
(P) Pethidine-Intermediate-B, ethyl-4-phenylpiperidine-4 carboxylate;
(Q) Pethidine-Intermediate-C,
   1-methyl-4-phenylpiperidine-4-carboxylic acid;
(R) Phenazocine;
(S) Piminodine;
(T) Racemorphan;
(U) Racemorphan.

(5) Lysergic acid diethylamide, including its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers.

(6) Methamphetamine, including its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers.

(7) 1-Phenylcyclohexylamine;

(8) Phenylacetone and methylamine, if possessed together with intent to manufacture methamphetamine;
(9) 1-Piperidinocyclohexane-Carbonitrile;
(10) Phencyclidine.

c) Penalty Group 2. Penalty Group 2 shall include the following controlled substances: (1) Any quantity of the following hallucinogenic substances, their salts, isomers, and salts of isomers, unless specifically excepted, whenever the existence of these salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation (for purposes of this paragraph only, the term "isomer" includes the optical, position, and geometric isomers):

(A) 4-bromo-2, 5-dimethoxyamphetamine (Some trade or other names: 4-bromo-2, 5-dimethoxy-alpha-methylphenethylamine; 4-bromo-2, 5-DMA);
(B) 2, 5-dimethoxyamphetamine (Some trade or other names: 2, 5-dimethoxy-alpha-methylphenethylamine; 2, 5-DMA);
(C) 4-methoxyamphetamine (Some trade or other names: 4-methoxy-alpha-methylphenethylamine; paramethoxyamphetamine; PMA);
(D) 5-methoxy-3, 4-methylenedioxyamphetamine;
(E) 4-methyl-2, 5-dimethoxyamphetamine (Some trade and other names: 4-methyl-2, 5-dimethoxy-alpha-methylphenethylamine; "DOM"; and "STP");
(F) 3, 4-methylenedioxyamphetamine;
(G) 3, 4, 5-trimethoxyamphetamine;
(H) Bufotenine (Some trade and other names: 3-(beta-Dimethylaminoethyl)-5-hydroxyindole; 3-(2-dimethylaminoethyl)-5-indolol; N, N-dimethylserotonin; 5-hydroxy-N, N-dimethyltryptamine; mappine);
(I) Diethyltryptamine (Some trade and other names: N, N-Diethyltryptamine, DET);
(J) Dimethyltryptamine (Some trade and other names: DMT);
(K) Ibogaine (Some trade or other names: 7-Ethyl-6, 8, beta 7, 8, 9, 10, 12, 13, -octahydro-2-methoxy-6, 9-methano-5H-pyrido [1', 2';1, 2] azepino [5, 4-b] indole; tabernanthe iboga.);
(L) Mescaline;
(M) N-ethyl-3-piperidyl benzilate;
(N) N-methyl-3-piperidyl benzilate;
(O) Psilocin;
(P) Psilocybin;
(Q) Tetrahydrocannabinols, other than marihuana, and synthetic equivalents of the substances contained in the plant, or in the resinous extracts of Cannabis, and/or synthetic substances, derivatives, and their isomers with similar chemical structure and pharmacological activity such as the following:
delta-6 cis or trans tetrahydrocannabinol, and their optical isomers;
delta-3, 4 cis or trans tetrahydrocannabinol, and its optical isomers.
(Since nomenclature of these substances is not internationally standardized, compounds of these structures, regardless of numerical designation of atomic positions are covered.)
(R) Thiophene Analog of Phencyclidine (Some trade or other names: 1-[1-(2-thienyl) cyclohexyl] piperidine; 2-Thienyl Analog of Phencyclidine; TPCP);
(S) Etorphine Hydrochloride.

d) Penalty Group 3. Penalty Group 3 shall include the following controlled substances:
(1) Any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having a potential for abuse associated with a stimulant effect on the central nervous system:
(A) Amphetamine, its salts, optical isomers, and salts of its optical isomers;
(B) Fenethylline;
(C) Methylphenidate and its salts;
(D) Phenmetrazine and its salts;
(2) Methaqualone;
(3) Meclorqualone.
(4) Any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having a potential for abuse associated with a depressant effect on the central nervous system:
(A) Any substances which contain any quantity of a derivative of barbituric acid, or any salt of a derivative of barbituric acid not otherwise covered by this subsection;
(B) Any compound, mixture, or preparation containing amobarbital, secobarbital, pentobarbital, or any salt of any of these, and one or more active medicinal ingredients which are not listed in any schedule;
(C) Any suppository dosage form containing amobarbital, secobarbital, pentobarbital, or any salt of any of these drugs, and approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration for marketing only as a suppository:
(D) Amobarbital;
(E) Secobarbital;
(F) Pentobarbital;
(G) Chlordiazepoxide;
(H) Clonazepam;
(I) Clorazepate;
(J) Chlorhexadol;
(K) Diazepam;
Art. 4476-15 HEALTH—PUBLIC

(L) Flurazepam;
(M) Glutethimide;
(N) Lorazepam;
(O) Lysergic acid, including its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers;
(P) Lysergic acid amide, including its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers;
(Q) Mebutamate;
(R) Methyprylon;
(S) Nitrazepam;
(T) Oxazepam;
(U) Pentazocine, its salts, derivatives, or compounds or mixtures thereof;
(V) Prazepam;
(W) Sulfondiethylmethane;
(X) Sulfonethylmethane;
(Y) Sulfonmethane.

(5) Narorphine.

(6) Any material, compound, mixture, or preparation containing limited quantities of any of the following narcotic drugs, or any salts thereof:

(A) not more than 1.8 grams of codeine, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or not more than 90 milligrams per dosage unit, with an equal or greater quantity of an isquinoline alkaloid of opium;

(B) not more than 1.8 grams of codeine, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or not more than 90 milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts;

(C) not more than 300 milligrams of dihydrocodeinone, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or not more than 15 milligrams per dosage unit, with a fourfold or greater quantity of an isquinoline alkaloid of opium;

(D) not more than 300 milligrams of dihydrocodeinone, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or not more than 15 milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts;

(E) not more than 1.8 grams of dihydrocodeine, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or not more than 90 milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts;

(F) not more than 300 milligrams of ethylmorphine, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or not more than 15 milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts;

(G) not more than 500 milligrams of opium per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams, or not more than 25 milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts;

(H) not more than 50 milligrams of morphine, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams with one or more active, nonnarcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts.

(I) not more than 1 milligram of difenoxin and not less than 25 micrograms of atropine sulfate per dosage unit.

(7) Any compound, mixture, or preparation containing any stimulant listed in Subsection (d)(1) of this section or depressant substance listed in Subsection (d)(4) of this section is excepted if the compound, mixture, or preparation contains one or more active medicinal ingredients not having a stimulant or depressant effect on the central nervous system, and if the admixtures are included therein in combinations, quantity, proportion, or concentration that vitiate the potential for abuse of the substances which have a stimulant or depressant effect on the central nervous system.

(8) Any material, compound, mixture or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances:

(A) Barbital;

(B) Chloral betaine;

(C) Chloral hydrate;

(D) Ethchlorvynol;

(E) Ethinamate;

(F) Methohexital;

(G) Meprobamate;

(H) Methylphenobarbital;

(I) Paraldehyde;

(J) Petrichloral;

(K) Phenobarbital.

(9) Any compound, mixture, or preparation containing any depressant substance listed in Subsection (d)(8) is excepted if the compound, mixture, or preparation contains one or more active medicinal ingredients not having a depressant effect on the central nervous system, and if the admixtures are included therein in combinations, quantity, proportion, or concentration that vitiate the potential for abuse of the substances which have a depressant effect on the central nervous system.

(10) Peyote, unless unharvested and growing in its natural state, (meaning all parts of the plant presently classified botanically as Lophophora, whether growing or not; the seeds thereof; any extract from any part of such plant; and every compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, mixture, or preparation of such plant, its seeds, or extracts);

(11) Unless listed in another penalty group, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having a stimulant effect on the central nervous system, including its salts, isomers
(whether optical, position, or geometric), and salts of its isomers, if the existence of the salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible, within the specific chemical designation:

(A) Benzphetamine;
(B) Chlorphentermine;
(C) Clortermine;
(D) Diethylpropion;
(E) Fenfluramine;
(F) Mazindol;
(G) Pemoline (including organometallic complexes and chelates thereof);
(H) Phendimetrazine;
(I) Phentermine.

(12) OTHER SUBSTANCES. Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another penalty group, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances, including its salts:

(A) Dextropropoxyphene (Alpha- (+)-4-dimethylamino-1, 2-diphenyl-3-methyl-2-propionoxybutane).

(e) Penalty Group 4. Penalty Group 4 shall include the following controlled substances: (1) Any compound, mixture, or preparation containing any of the following limited quantities of narcotic drugs, which shall include one or more nonnarcotic active medicinal ingredients in sufficient proportion to confer upon the compound, mixture, or preparation valuable medicinal qualities other than those possessed by the narcotic drug alone:

(A) not more than 200 milligrams of codeine per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams;
(B) not more than 100 milligrams of dihydrocodeine per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams;
(C) not more than 100 milligrams of ethylmorphine per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams;
(D) not more than 2.5 milligrams of diphenoxylate and not less than 25 micrograms of atropine sulfate per dosage unit;
(E) not more than 15 milligrams of opium per 29.5729 milliliters or per 28.35 grams;
(F) not more than 0.5 milligram of difenoxin and not less than 25 micrograms of atropine sulfate per dosage unit.

(2) Loperamide.

Fraud Offenses

Sec. 4.09. (a) It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally:

(1) to distribute as a registrant a controlled substance classified in Schedule I or II, except pursuant to an order form as required by Section 3.07 of this Act;
(2) to use in the course of the manufacture or distribution of a controlled substance a registration number which is fictitious, revoked, suspended, or issued to another person;
(3) to acquire, obtain, or attempt to acquire or obtain possession of a controlled substance by misrepresentation, fraud, forgery, deception, or subterfuge;
(4) to furnish false or fraudulent material information in, or omit any material information from, any application, report, or other document required to be kept or filed under this Act, or any record required to be kept by this Act; or
(5) to make, distribute, or possess any punch, die, plate, stone, or other thing designed to print, imprint, or reproduce the trademark, trade name, or other identifying mark, imprint, or device of another or any likeness of any of the foregoing upon any controlled substance or container or labeling thereof so as to render the controlled substance a counterfeit substance.

(b) An offense under Subsection (a) with respect to:

(1) a controlled substance classified in Schedule I or II is a felony of the second degree;
(2) a controlled substance classified in Schedule III is a felony of the third degree;
(3) a controlled substance classified in Schedule IV or V is a Class B misdemeanor.

SUBCHAPTER 5. ENFORCEMENT AND ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 5.01 and 5.02]

Forfeitures

Sec. 5.03. (a) The following are subject to forfeiture as authorized by this subchapter:

(1) all controlled substances that are or have been manufactured, distributed, dispensed, delivered, acquired, obtained, or possessed in violation of this Act;
(2) all raw materials, products, and equipment of any kind that are used, or intended for use, in manufacturing, compounding, processing, delivering, importing, or exporting any controlled substance in violation of this Act;
(3) all property that is used, or intended for use, as a container for property described in paragraph (1) or (2) of this subsection;
Art. 4476-15 HEALTH—PUBLIC

(4) all books, records, and research products and materials, including formulas, microfilm, tapes, and data that are used, or intended for use, in violation of this Act;

(5) any conveyance, including aircraft, vehicles, vessels, trailers, and railroad cars, that is used or intended for use to transport for delivery or in any manner facilitate the transportation for delivery of any property described in paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of this subsection, provided that no conveyance used by any person as a common carrier shall be forfeited under this subchapter unless the owner or other person in charge of the conveyance is a consenting party or privy to a violation of this Act, and no conveyance shall be subject to forfeiture if the delivery involved is an offer to sell;

(6) all money derived from the sale, manufacture, distribution, dispensation, delivery, or other commercial undertaking violative of this Act.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 5.03(b) to 5.04]

Notification of Forfeiture Proceeding

Sec. 5.05. (a) When any property, other than a controlled substance or raw material, is seized, proceedings under this section shall be instituted within ten (10) days after the seizure and not thereafter.

(b) The seizing officer shall immediately cause to be filed in the name of the State of Texas with the clerk of the district court of the county in which the seizure is made, or if the property is a conveyance, in any county in which the conveyance was used or intended for use to transport for delivery or in any manner facilitate the transportation for delivery of any property described in Paragraph (1), (2) or (3) of Section 5.03(a), a notice of the seizure and intended forfeiture. Certified copies of the notice shall be served upon the following persons as provided for in the serving of process by citation in civil cases:

(1) the owner of the property, if address is known;

(2) any secured party who has registered his lien or filed a financing statement as provided by law; and

(3) any other bona fide lienholder or secured party or other person holding an interest in the property in the nature of a security interest, of whom the Texas Department of Public Safety has knowledge.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 5.05(c) to (k)]

Replevy of Seized Property

Sec. 5.06. Any property, other than a controlled substance or raw material, or money derived from the sale, manufacture, distribution, dispensation, delivery, or other commercial undertaking violative of this Act, seized under this subchapter may be repleved by the owner, lienholder, secured party, or other party holding an interest in the nature of a security interest affecting the property, upon execution by him of a good and valid bond with sufficient surety in a sum double the appraised value of the property repleved, which bond shall be approved by the seizing officer and shall be conditioned upon return of the property to the custody of the officer on the day of hearing of the forfeiture proceeding and abide the judgment of the court.

Forfeiture Hearing

Sec. 5.07. (a) An owner of property, other than a controlled substance or raw material, that has been seized shall file a verified answer within 20 days of the mailing or publication of notice of seizure. If no answer is filed, the court shall hear evidence that the property is subject to forfeiture and may upon motion forfeit the property to the state or an agency of the state or to a political subdivision of the state authorized by law to employ peace officers. If an answer is filed, a time for hearing on forfeiture shall set within 30 days of filing the answer and notice of the hearing shall be sent to all parties.

(b) If the owner of the property has filed a verified answer denying that the property is subject to forfeiture then the burden is on the state to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the property is subject to forfeiture. However, if no answer has been filed by the owner of the property, the notice of seizure may be introduced into evidence and is prima facie evidence that the property is subject to forfeiture.

(c) At the hearing any claimant of any right, title, or interest in the property may prove his lien, security interest, or other interest in the nature of a security interest to be bona fide and created without knowledge or consent that the property was to be used so as to cause the property to be subject to forfeiture.

(d) If it is found beyond a reasonable doubt that the property is subject to forfeiture, then the judge shall order the property released to him if

(i) If the property is a conveyance, the owner of the property has filed a verified answer within 10 days after the seizure, and no answer is filed by the owner of the conveyance within 30 days of filing the answer and notice of the hearing, a time for hearing on forfeiture shall be set within 30 days of filing the answer and notice of the hearing shall be sent to all parties.

If the owner of the property has filed a verified answer denying that the property is subject to forfeiture then the burden is on the state to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the property is subject to forfeiture. However, if no answer has been filed by the owner of the property, the notice of seizure may be introduced into evidence and is prima facie evidence that the property is subject to forfeiture.

(c) At the hearing any claimant of any right, title, or interest in the property may prove his lien, security interest, or other interest in the nature of a security interest to be bona fide and created without knowledge or consent that the property was to be used so as to cause the property to be subject to forfeiture.

(d) If it is found beyond a reasonable doubt that the property is subject to forfeiture, then the judge shall order the property released to him if
(e) Upon petition of the seizing officer, filed in the name of the State of Texas with the clerk of the district court of the county in which the seizure of any controlled substance or raw material is made, the district court having jurisdiction may order the controlled substance or raw material summarily forfeited except when lawful possession and title can be ascertained. If a person is found to have had lawful possession and title prior to seizure, the court shall order the controlled substance or raw material returned to the owner, if the owner so desires.

Disposition of Forfeited Property

Sec. 5.08. (a) Regarding all controlled substances and raw materials which have been forfeited, the district court shall by its order direct a law enforcement agency to:

(1) retain the property for its official purposes;
(2) deliver the property to a government agency or department for official purposes;
(3) deliver the property to a person authorized by the court to receive it; or
(4) destroy the property that is not otherwise disposed. A record of the place where the controlled substances and raw materials were seized, of the kind and quantities so destroyed, and of the time, place, and manner of destruction, shall be kept, and a return under oath, reporting the destruction, shall be made to the district court by the officer who destroys them.

(b) All other property that has been forfeited, except the money derived from the sale, manufacture, distribution, dispensation, delivery, or other commercial undertaking violative of this Act, and except as provided below, shall be sold at a public auction under the direction of the county sheriff after notice of public auction as provided by law for other sheriff's sales. The proceeds of the sale shall be delivered to the district clerk and shall be disposed of as follows:

(1) to any bona fide lienholder, secured party, or other party holding an interest in the property in the nature of a security interest, to the extent of his interest; and
(2) the balance, if any, after deduction of all storage and court costs, shall be forwarded to the state comptroller and deposited with and used as general funds of the state.

(c) The state or an agency of the state or a political subdivision of the state authorized by law to employ peace officers may maintain, repair, use, and operate for official purposes all property that has been forfeited to it if it is free from any interest of a bona fide lienholder, secured party, or other party who holds an interest in the property in the nature of a security interest. The department or agency receiving the forfeited vehicle may purchase the interest of a bona fide lienholder, secured party, or other party who holds an interest so that the property can be released for use by the department or agency receiving the forfeited vehicle. The department or agency receiving the forfeited vehicle may maintain, repair, use, and operate the property with money appropriated to the department or agency for current operations. If the property is a motor vehicle susceptible of registration under the motor vehicle registration laws of this state, the department or agency receiving the forfeited vehicle is deemed to be the purchaser and the certificate of title shall be issued to it as required by Subsection (e) of this section.

(d) Storage charges on any property accrued while the property is stored at the request of a seizing officer of the department or agency receiving the forfeited vehicle pending the outcome of the forfeiture proceedings shall be paid by the department or agency out of its appropriations if such property after final hearing is not forfeited to the department or agency.

Education and Research

Sec. 5.12.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 5.12(a) and 5.12(b)]

(c) The executive director of the Texas Department of Community Affairs may establish accreditation standards for drug abuse treatment programs and treatment personnel consistent with those required by federal law and regulation and certify those drug abuse treatment programs and treatment personnel meeting accreditation standards.

SUBCHAPTER 7. MEDICAL AND RESEARCH PROGRAM

Research Program

Sec. 7.01. The Texas Board of Health shall establish a controlled substance therapeutic research program for the supervised use of tetrahydrocannabinols for medical and research purposes to be conducted in accordance with this Act.

Research Program Review Board

Sec. 7.02. (a) The Research Program Review Board is created. The review board members are appointed by the Texas Board of Health and serve at the board's pleasure.

(b) The review board shall be composed of:

(1) a licensed physician who is certified by the American Board of Ophthalmology;
(2) a licensed physician who is certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine and also certified in the subspecialty of medical oncology;

(3) a licensed physician who is certified by the American Board of Psychiatry;

(4) a licensed physician who is certified by the American Board of Surgery;

(5) a licensed physician who is certified by the American Board of Radiology; and

(6) a licensed attorney who has experience in law pertaining to the practice of medicine.

(c) Members serve without compensation but are entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in performing official duties.

Review Board Powers and Duties

Sec. 7.03. (a) The review board shall review research proposals submitted and medical case histories of persons recommended for participation in a research program and determine which research programs and persons are most suitable for the therapy and research purposes of the program. The review board shall approve the research programs, certify program participants, and conduct periodic reviews of the research and participants.

(b) The review board, after approval of the Board of Health, may seek authorization to expand the research program to include diseases not covered by this subchapter.

(c) The review board shall maintain a record of all persons in charge of approved research programs and of all persons who participate in the program as researchers or as patients.

Termination of Tetrahydrocannabinols Distribution to Program

Sec. 7.04. The Texas Board of Health may terminate the distribution of tetrahydrocannabinols and their derivatives to a research program as it determines necessary.

Patient Participation

Sec. 7.05. (a) A person may not be considered for participation as a recipient of tetrahydrocannabinols and their derivatives through a research program unless the person is recommended to a person in charge of an approved research program and the review board by a physician licensed by the Board of Medical Examiners attending the person.

(b) A physician may not recommend a person for the research program unless the person:

(1) has glaucoma or cancer;

(2) is not responding to conventional treatment for glaucoma or cancer or is experiencing severe side effects from treatment; and

(3) has symptoms or side effects from treatment that may be alleviated by medical use of tetrahydrocannabinols or their derivatives.

Sec. 7.06. The Texas Board of Health shall acquire the tetrahydrocannabinols and their derivatives for use in the research program by contracting with the National Institute on Drug Abuse to receive tetrahydrocannabinols and their derivatives that are safe for human consumption according to the regulations promulgated by the institute, the Food and Drug Administration, and the Drug Enforcement Administration.

Distribution of Controlled Substance

Sec. 7.07. The Texas Board of Health shall supervise the distribution of the tetrahydrocannabinols and their derivatives to program participants. The tetrahydrocannabinols and derivatives thereof may be distributed only by the person in charge of the research program, under rules promulgated by the Texas Board of Health in such manner as to prevent unauthorized diversion of the substances and in compliance with any and all requirements of the Drug Enforcement Administration, to physicians caring for program participant patients. The physician is responsible for dispensing the substances to patients.

Rules

Sec. 7.08. The Texas Board of Health shall adopt rules necessary for implementing the research program.

Report

Sec. 7.09. The commissioner of health shall publish a report before January 2 of each year in which the Texas Legislature meets in regular session on the medical effectiveness of the use of tetrahydrocannabinols and their derivatives and any other medical findings of the research program.

Authorized Possession or Delivery not Violation

Sec. 7.10. The possession or delivery of tetrahydrocannabinols or chemical derivatives of tetrahydrocannabinols or the possession of an instrument that has on it a quantity of any of those substances is not a violation of Section 4.03, 4.04, 4.05, or 4.07 of this Act if the possession or delivery is for use in the program established under this subchapter.

Section 2 of Acts 1975, 64th Leg., ch. 58, provided: "For the fiscal year ending August 31, 1975, all money in the fund, or as much of it as is necessary, is appropriated to the department of public safety to be used for the purpose of performing the department's functions under the Texas Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476–15, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes)."
HEALTH—PUBLIC

Art. 4476-15a. R.B. McAllister Drug Treatment Program Act

ARTICLE I. DEFINITIONS

Sec. 100. This Act shall be cited as the R.B. McAllister Drug Treatment Program Act.

Definitions

Sec. 101. For purposes of this Act:

(1) "Executive director" means the executive director or his designee of the Texas Department of Community Affairs.

(2) "Commitment" means the relationship established by a court order that places a drug-dependent person or person incapacitated by controlled substances in the custody of the executive director for purposes of treatment under this Act.

(3) "Controlled substance" means any substance designated as such in the Texas Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) or toxic inhalants as defined by the executive director.

(4) "Criminal justice system" means law enforcement officials, district attorney(s), county attorney(s), courts, and the Texas Department of Corrections.

(5) "Drug-dependent person" means a person who is using a controlled substance and who is in a state of psychic or physical dependence or both arising from administration of a controlled substance. Drug dependence is characterized by behavioral and other responses that include a strong compulsion to take a controlled substance in order to experience its psychic effects or to avoid the discomfort of its absence.

(6) "Day care services" means treatment services for drug dependence provided for a part-time resident client in a treatment facility.

(7) "Nearest relative" means, in the order of priority stated, a person's legal guardian, spouse, adult issue, whether natural or adopted, parent or adult sibling, or any other person with whom the person is residing, whether related or not.

(8) "Outpatient services" means treatment services for drug dependence provided to a client who is not a resident of a treatment facility.

(9) "Person incapacitated by controlled substances" means a person who, as a result of the effects of one or more controlled substances, needs treatment and either is unconscious of or has had his judgment so impaired that he is incapable of making a rational decision with respect to his need for treatment.

(10) "Private facility" means any facility providing treatment services which is not operated by the federal, state, or local government, whether or not it receives public funds and whether or not it operates for profit.

(11) "Public facility" means any facility providing treatment services which is operated by the federal, state, or local government.

(12) "Residential services" means treatment services for drug dependence provided for a full-time resident client in a treatment facility.

(13) "Treatment" means (A) emergency services for drug-dependent persons, persons incapacitated by controlled substances; or persons under the influence of controlled substances; and (B) the full range of residential, day care, and outpatient services for drug-dependent persons designed to aid them to gain control over or eliminate their dependence on controlled substances and to become productive, functioning members of the community. Treatment includes but is not limited to diagnostic evaluation; medical, psychiatric, psychological, and social services; drug maintenance services; vocational rehabilitation, job training, and career counseling; educational and informational guidance; family counseling; and recreational services.

(14) "Treatment facility" means a public or private facility to which the executive director has authorized public agencies to refer persons for treatment.

(15) "Prevention" means a constructive process designed to promote personal and social growth of the individual toward full human potential and thereby inhibit or reduce physical, mental, emotional, or social impairment which results in or from the abuse of licit or illicit chemical substances.

ARTICLE II. ORGANIZATION, OBJECTIVE, AND STANDARDS OF DRUG DEPENDENCE TREATMENT PROGRAM

Establishment of Program

Sec. 201. (a) The executive director shall establish and supervise a drug dependence treatment program. Within funds appropriated to the Texas Department of Community Affairs, the executive director shall provide integrated health, education, information, and welfare services through appropriate public and private facilities to persons who seek the services voluntarily or who are referred from public or private agencies.

(b) The program shall include, so far as practicable, a comprehensive range of treatment services in each locality. The number, location, and types of services included in the treatment program and the amount of public resources allocated thereto shall be determined by the executive director based in whole or in part by the estimated size and location of the current and potential numbers of drug-dependent persons in designated council of government regions. The executive director shall give particular attention to the potential drug problem in rural areas in developing the program.

(c) In establishing and supervising the program, the executive director may contact any public or private person, agency, organization, or institution for services or for the use of any facility or personnel.

(d) The executive director shall utilize and coordinate public and private treatment facilities and resources, wherever practicable, utilizing community mental health centers and general hospitals.

Powers and Duties of Executive Director

Sec. 202. The director shall:

(1) prescribe by rule those controlled substances that pose a substantial risk of severe psychic or physical dependence and the types of drug dependence for which treatment is feasible and available under this Act;

(2) require programs receiving funds under this Act to meet established standards;

(3) prepare, publish, and distribute throughout the state as often as necessary a list of all public and private treatment facilities the director finds to conform to the established standards and periodically notify the courts of the treatment facilities within their respective jurisdictions and of the types of services offered at each facility;

(4) evaluate, on a continuing basis, the services provided by treatment facilities funded through this Act to assure that the services are effective, humanely operated, and properly staffed and meet the standards established under this Act, and make the evaluations a matter of public record;

(5) use funds appropriated through this Act to carry out the mandate of this Act, the Texas Controlled Substances Act, and Public Law 92-255, the Drug Abuse Office and Treatment Act of 1972;¹ and

(6) use funds to provide matching funds for local programs and to increase the overall state allotment of federal funds.

¹21 U.S.C.A. § 1101 et seq.

Sec. 203. The executive director shall develop prevention services that include:

(1) information to promote awareness within the general public about controlled substances and inhalants and treatment services for drug dependence;

(2) education designed to promote a deeper understanding of drug abuse and its concomitant problems and to promote the support, participation, and cooperation of selected groups in drug abuse prevention education;

(3) intervention services to persons who do not require drug dependence treatment but who are risking drug dependence and are not being adequately served by the standard social service institutions; and

(4) alternatives to drug abuse through the development of public activities that promote positive growth and fulfillment.

Coordination with Other Treatment Agencies

Sec. 204. (a) The executive director shall establish coordinated efforts with the Texas Rehabilitation Commission, Texas Department of Human Resources, Texas Department of Health, Texas Adult Probation Commission, Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, councils of government, and other appropriate agencies.

(b) The executive director and the director of the Texas Department of Corrections may establish appropriate drug dependence treatment in the correctional institutions of this state.

Other Duties of Executive Director

Sec. 205. In addition to the other duties specified in this Act, the executive director shall:

(1) develop, encourage, and evaluate public and private plans and services to discourage the improper use of controlled substances, with special attention to developing, in cooperation with the schools, public health agencies, courts, and other public and private agencies, programs to discourage the improper use of controlled substances by juveniles and young adults;

(2) provide, so far as practicable, technical assistance and advice to public and private agencies within and without the state on services designed to treat drug-dependent persons;

(3) conduct, in cooperation with the United States Departments of Justice and Health, Education and Welfare, the police, the courts, and other public and private agencies, a program for educating policemen, prosecuting attorneys, court personnel, the judiciary, probation and parole officers, correctional officials, and other criminal justice personnel on the causes, effects, and treatment of drug dependence; and
(4) conduct and develop, in cooperation with the Texas Department of Human Resources and the Texas Rehabilitation Commission, services for educating all personnel of those agencies on the causes, effects, and treatment of drug dependence.

Treatment Services in Program
Sec. 206. The treatment program shall include:
(1) residential services for short-term and long-term treatment of drug-dependent persons; residential services for persons not incarcerated under sentence shall be provided at a location other than a correctional institution unless no other facilities are available, in which case those persons shall be segregated from persons incarcerated under sentence; and
(2) day care and outpatient services; the executive director shall give priority to developing these services, which must be community-based and readily accessible to patients, and may include clinics, social centers, vocational rehabilitation and job referral facilities, welfare centers, and supportive residential facilities such as foster homes and halfway houses.

Treatment Objective
Sec. 207. For a drug-dependent person being treated under this Act, the primary purpose of treatment is to enable the person to live as a productive, functioning member of the community. Insofar as possible, treatment shall be designed to aid the person to overcome his dependence on controlled substances. Treatment also may be designed to maintain or control the person’s drug dependence through approved drug maintenance services that conform to applicable state and federal laws and are limited to persons who consent to such treatment.

ARTICLE III. VOLUNTARY TREATMENT OF DRUG-DEPENDENT PERSONS AND OTHER PERSONS

Application
Sec. 301. (a) A person, whether adult or minor, who needs emergency services as a result of using controlled substances may apply directly to a treatment facility.

(b) A person, whether adult or minor, who considers himself drug-dependent may apply directly to a treatment facility. A private physician who diagnoses a person as drug-dependent and determines he is unable to provide adequate treatment may refer the person, with his consent, to a treatment facility.

(c) The executive director shall make necessary efforts to develop outreach services that identify drug-dependent persons and encourage application for treatment under this Act.

ARTICLE IV. TREATMENT AND CIVIL COMMITMENT OF PERSONS CHARGED WITH CRIMES

Applicability
Sec. 401. This article applies to policies of the State of Texas regarding referral procedures between the criminal justice system and the executive director which apply to a person from the time he is first taken into police custody for the purpose of being charged with a crime under the laws of this state until the charge is dismissed or, if the person is convicted, until his sentence has been finally discharged.

State Interagency Cooperation
Sec. 402. The executive director is authorized, within funds appropriated to the Texas Department of Community Affairs, to accept persons referred from the criminal justice system under the terms of bail, probation, conditional discharge, parole, or other conditional release which is not inconsistent with medical or clinical judgment or in conflict with this Act or applicable federal rules, regulations, or standards.

Emergency Treatment of Persons in Police Custody
Sec. 403. The executive director, within funds appropriated for this Act, may develop emergency treatment resources for persons who appear to be (1) incapacitated by controlled substances, (2) under the influence of controlled substances and in need of medical attention, or (3) drug-dependent and undergoing withdrawal or experiencing medical complications.

Treatment of Drug-Dependent Persons on Conditional Release
Sec. 404. (a) The director of the Texas Department of Corrections and the Board of Pardons and Paroles may refer persons who are or were drug-dependent to treatment facilities established under this Act if available when they are placed on work release, parole, or other conditional release.

(b) A person who is released from any correctional institution on the condition that he participate in the treatment program established under this Act may be required to submit to periodic urinalysis or other medically accepted means of detecting the presence of controlled substances in the body. If, in the judgment of the physician in charge of his treatment, a person fails to conform to the conditions of treatment, the court or the Board of Pardons and Paroles shall decide whether to retain, restrict, or revoke parole or other conditional release according to what is most consistent with both the treatment of the individual and the safety of the community.

(c) If required for effective treatment, the director of the Texas Department of Corrections and the Board of Pardons and Paroles may transfer an offender placed on conditional release from one day care or outpatient treatment facility to another.

(d) The executive director shall report periodically to the director of the Texas Department of Corrections and the Board of Pardons and Paroles on compliance with the conditions of treatment by persons participating in the program under this section.

ARTICLE V. EMERGENCY TREATMENT AND POLICE REFERRAL OF PERSONS NOT CHARGED WITH CRIMES

Applicability

Sec. 501. This article applies to a person against whom no criminal charge is pending under the laws of this state or for whom any sentence previously assessed has been finally discharged.

Emergency Treatment for Persons Under the Influence of Controlled Substances

Sec. 502. (a) When, in the judgment of a law enforcement officer, a person is under the influence of a controlled substance in a public place and needs emergency treatment, the person may be taken to his home or to a treatment facility. If the person is taken to a treatment facility and the physician in charge of emergency services confirms the need for treatment, the person shall, with his consent, be either admitted or referred to another treatment facility. If the person is admitted, reasonable efforts shall be made to notify his nearest relative. If the person is referred to another treatment facility, reasonable efforts shall be made to provide transportation to that facility. Medical assistance may be provided to a person who is neither admitted nor referred.

(b) A person admitted to a treatment facility under this section may be detained until emergency treatment is completed, but he may not be detained without his consent for longer than 24 hours after admission.

Emergency Treatment for Incapacitated Persons

Sec. 503. (a) If a law enforcement or public health officer is notified by an interested person that another person appears incapacitated by controlled substances, the law enforcement or public health officer may take the person to a treatment facility for emergency treatment. If a person appears incapacitated by controlled substances in a public place in the judgment of a law enforcement officer or in a treatment facility in the judgment of a public health officer, the person may be brought to or detained at a treatment facility for emergency treatment. A law enforcement or public health officer, in detaining a person in or taking him to a treatment facility, takes him into protective custody and shall make every effort to protect his health and safety. Entry into protective custody under this section is not to be considered an arrest, and no entry or other record may be made to indicate that the person has been arrested for or charged with a crime.

(b) A person brought to a treatment facility under Subsection (a) of this section shall be examined as soon as practicable by the physician in charge of emergency services. If the physician determines that the person is incapacitated by controlled substances, the person shall be either admitted as a client or referred to another treatment facility. If he is admitted, the patient's nearest relative shall be notified as soon as practicable. If the person is referred to another treatment facility, the referring facility shall arrange for his transportation. If the physician determines that the person is not incapacitated by controlled substances and does not admit or refer the person for treatment under Section 502 of this Act, the person may be taken to his home.

(c) A person admitted to a treatment facility under this section may be required to remain until he is no longer incapacitated by controlled substances, but no longer than 48 hours unless commitment is authorized by a court in accordance with other applicable law.

(d) Law enforcement officers, public health officers, and physicians are not criminally or civilly liable for acts undertaken in the good faith conduct of their official functions under this section.

Release and Conditional Referral to Treatment Services by Police

Sec. 504. (a) This section applies to a person who has been apprehended, either with or without a warrant, for a violation of Section 4.04, 4.05, or 4.07 of the Texas Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(b) With the consent of a person covered by Subsection (a) of this section, a police or law enforcement officer may, in lieu of normal criminal processing, take the person before a magistrate, and with the approval of the magistrate refer the person for treatment. If the person agrees to participate in treatment, the police officer may either (1) release the person unconditionally, or (2) issue a conditional citation for the offense for which the person was apprehended to be returned to the police department in 90 days and to be dismissed if the person has participated satisfactorily in the treatment program. The person's agreement to participate in treatment shall not be used against him in any criminal proceeding nor does it waive any rights that he has in any criminal proceedings later brought on the original offense.

(c) If, in the judgment of the person or agency supervising the treatment program, a person who has been issued a citation under Subsection (b) of this section fails to participate satisfactorily in the program or if the person fails to appear on the return date of the citation, a warrant shall issue for his arrest on the original offense, unless he is already in police custody. Timeliness of the person’s initial appearance before the court on the original offense shall be determined on the basis of the return date of the citation.

(d) The police department shall record all dispositions under Subsection (b) of this section as detentions and not as arrests. Such records shall be treated as confidential, except for use in determining whether a person is given the benefit of this section upon apprehension at a later time.

ARTICLE VI. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Policy for Governmental and Private Employees

Sec. 601. (a) The executive director may develop and maintain, in cooperation with other state and local agencies, appropriate services for the prevention and treatment of drug dependence among state and local employees consistent with this Act. Drug-dependent employees of this state or any political subdivision shall be granted the same employment and other benefits as persons afflicted with serious illness while undergoing treatment under Article III or V of this Act and shall not be denied pension, retirement, medical, or other rights because of their drug dependence. However, acceptance of appropriate treatment may be made a condition of their continued employment.

(b) The executive director shall encourage private industry to develop treatment services within the state.

Applicability to the Mentally Ill

Sec. 602. The services provided under this Act shall be made available to a mentally ill, drug-dependent person.

Applicability to Juveniles

Sec. 603. Articles III, IV, and V of this Act are available to a juvenile. Nothing in this Act shall take precedence over any provision of the Family Code relating to juveniles unless expressly stated herein.

Rules and Delegation of Powers

Sec. 604. The executive director may promulgate rules for the implementation of this Act and may designate any state officer or employee to carry out any of its functions under this Act.

ARTICLE VII. MISCELLANEOUS

Continuation of Rules

Sec. 701. Any orders and rules promulgated under any law affected by this Act and in effect on the effective date of this Act and not in conflict with it continue in effect until modified, superseded, or repealed.

Sec. 702. The sum of $210,000 is appropriated from the General Revenue Fund to the Texas Department of Community Affairs for each year of the biennium beginning September 1, 1979, for the purpose of implementing the provisions of this Act.

Effective Date

Sec. 703. This Act takes effect September 1, 1979; provided that for the period beginning September 1, 1979, and ending August 31, 1981, the Act shall authorize but not require the executive director to make emergency drug treatment services available pursuant to this Act.

[Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1843, ch. 750, §§ 101 to 703, eff. Sept. 1, 1979.]

CHAPTER FOUR. SANITARY CODE

Art. 4477. Sanitary Code

The following rules are hereby enacted as the “Sanitary Code for Texas,” adopted for the promotion and protection of the public health and for the general amelioration of the sanitary and hygienic condition within this State, for the suppression and prevention of infectious and contagious diseases, and for the proper enforcement of quarantine, isolation and control of such diseases, to wit:

Rule 3. “Contagious Diseases.”—The term “contagious disease” as used in these regulations shall be held to include the following diseases, whether contagious or infectious; and as such shall be reported to all local health authorities and by said authority reported in turn to the Chairman of the State Board of Health: Asiatic cholera, bubonic plague, typhus fever, yellow fever, Hansen’s disease, smallpox, scarlet fever (scarlatina), diphtheria (membranous group), epidemic cerebrospinal meningitis, dengue, typhoid fever, epidemic dysentery, trachoma, and anthrax.

Rule 13. Dangerous Contagious Diseases; Modified Quarantine.—In the management and control of smallpox, scarlet fever (scarlatina), diphtheria (membranous group), and dengue, it is required that the house be placarded, premises placed in modified quarantine, patient in modified isolation, and complete disinfection done upon death or recovery.
Rule 47a. Form and Contents of Birth Certificates; Supplementary Certificate; Certificates of Adoption, Annulment and Revocation.—The standard certificate of birth shall be in such form and shall provide for such items of information as may be prescribed by the State Department of Health. Any person may apply to the State Department of Health to have any indication of illegitimacy removed from his or her birth record, including separate medical records. The Department shall charge a fee of $10.00 for this service. All items prescribed on the certificate of birth are hereby declared necessary for the legal, social, and sanitary purposes served by registration records. The name of the father or any information by which he might be identified may be written in the birth or death certificate of any child:

(a) whose mother was married at the time of conception or birth; or whose mother was subsequently married to the father; or

(b) where paternity of the father has been established in a judicial proceeding. The State Department of Health shall be specifically authorized to use and to provide upon request to other state agencies records pertaining to all births in connection with programs to notify the mothers of young children about health needs for the children.

Subject to the regulations of the State Department of Health, any person:

(a) who becomes the legitimate child of its father by the subsequent marriage of its parents;

(b) whose parentage has been determined by a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(c) adopted under the law existing at the time of adoption in this state or any other state or territory of the United States of America may request the state registrar to file a supplementary certificate of birth on the basis of the status subsequently acquired or established and of which proof is submitted. The application to file a supplementary certificate of birth may be filed by the person, if of age, or a legal representative of the person. The state registrar shall require such proof in these cases as the State Department of Health may by regulation prescribe. The preparation and filing of supplementary certificates of birth based on legitimation, paternity determination, and adoption shall be in accordance with the regulations of the State Department of Health. Provided, however, that when a child is adopted the new birth certificate shall be in the names of the parents by adoption, and the copies of birth certificates or birth records made therefrom shall not disclose the child to be adopted. After the supplementary certificate is filed, any information disclosed from the record shall be made from the supplementary certificate, and access to the original certificate of birth and to the documents filed upon which the supplementary certificate is based shall not be authorized except upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

A certificate of each adoption, annulment of adoption, and revocation of adoption ordered or decreed in this state shall be filed with the state registrar as hereinafter provided. The information necessary to prepare the certificates shall be supplied to the clerk of the court by the petitioner for adoption, annulment of adoption, or revocation of adoption at the time the petition is filed. The clerk of the court shall thereupon prepare the certificate on a form furnished by and containing such items of information as may be determined by the State Department of Health and shall, immediately after the decree becomes final, complete the certificate. On or before the 10th of each month, the clerk shall forward to the state registrar the certificates completed by him for decrees which have become final during the preceding calendar month.

Provided, that the above provisions shall not, in any way, be construed as affecting the property rights of natural or adoptive parents or of natural or adopted children, or as amending, modifying, or repealing any of the present laws of the State of Texas governing descent and distribution of property.

Subject to the regulations of the State Department of Health, any person whose name has been changed by court order may request the state registrar to attach to the original birth record an amendment reflecting the change of name. The request to attach such amendment may be made by the person, if of age, or a legal representative of the person. The state registrar shall require such proof of change of name as the State Department of Health may by regulation prescribe.

Rule 47b. "For Medical and Health Use Only" Section of Birth Certificate.—The section entitled "For Medical and Health Use Only" shall not be considered a part of the legal certificate of birth. [See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of Rules 48 to 51]

Rule 51a. Blanks and Registration Forms; Index of Births and Deaths; Records; Transcripts; Fees; Delayed Registrations; Judicial Procedure to Establish Facts of Birth.—A. The State Department of Health shall prepare, print, and supply to local registrars all blanks and forms used in registering, recording, and preserving the returns, or in otherwise carrying out the purposes of this Act, and each city and incorporated town shall supply its local registrar, and each county shall supply the county clerk with permanent record books, in forms approved by the State Registrar, for the recording of all births, deaths, and stillbirths occurring within their respective jurisdictions. The State Registrar shall prepare and issue such detailed instructions as may be required to procure the uniform observance of its provisions and the maintenance of a perfect system of registration; and no other forms shall be used than those approved by the State Department of Health. He shall carefully examine the certificates received monthly from the local registrars, and if any such are incomplete or unsatisfactory he shall require such further information to be supplied as may be necessary to make the record complete and satisfactory. All physicians, midwives, informants or funeral directors, and all other persons having knowledge of the facts, are hereby required to supply, upon a form provided by the State Department of Health, or upon the original certificate, such information as they may possess regarding any birth, death, or stillbirth upon demand of the State Registrar, in person, by mail, or through the local registrar. After its acceptance for registration by the local registrar, no record of any birth, death, or stillbirth shall be altered or changed; provided, however, that if any such record is incomplete, or satisfactory evidence can be submitted proving the record to be in error in any respect, an amending certificate may be filed for the purpose of completing or correcting such record, which amendment shall be in a form prescribed by the State Department of Health and shall, if accepted for filing, be attached to and become a part of the legal record of such birth, death, or stillbirth. The State Registrar shall further arrange, bind, and permanently preserve the certificates in a systematic manner, and shall prepare and maintain a comprehensive index of all births and deaths registered; said index to be arranged alphabetically, in the case of deaths, by the names of decedents, and in the case of births, by the names of fathers and mothers. When the State Registrar receives the death certificate of a person under 18 years of age whose birth has been registered in this state, the State Registrar shall make a conspicuous notation on the face of the decedent's birth certificate showing that the person is dead and shall provide copies of the death certificate registered by him in a record book to such persons as require them. Each local registrar shall carefully examine each certificate of death is incomplete or unsatisfactory, order to ascertain whether or not it has been made out in accordance with the provisions of this act and the instructions of the state registrar; and if any certificate of death is incomplete or unsatisfactory, it shall be his duty to call attention to the defects in the return. All certificates, either of birth or death, shall be written legibly, in durable black ink, and no certificate shall be held to be complete and correct that does not supply all of the items of information called for therein, or satisfactorily account for their omission.

If a certificate of birth is incomplete, the local registrar shall immediately notify the informant, and require him to supply the missing items of information if they can be obtained. He shall number consecutively the certificates of birth and death, in two separate series, beginning with number 1 for the first birth and the first death in each calendar year, and sign his name as registrar in attest of the date of filing in his office. He shall also make a complete and accurate copy of each birth and each death certificate registered by him in a record book supplied in accordance with provisions of Section 18 of this Act, to be preserved permanently in his office as the local record, in such manner as directed

B. Delayed Registration of Births.
Subject to the regulations and requirements of the State Department of Health:

9. For each application for a delayed certificate of birth, the State Registrar shall be entitled to a fee not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10.00), said fee to be paid by the applicant. All such fees received by the State Registrar under the provisions of this Section shall be deposited and used as provided in Section 21 of this Act.

Rule 52a. Duties of Local Registrars.—That each local registrar shall supply blank forms of certificates to such persons as require them. Each local registrar shall carefully examine each certificate of birth or death when presented for record in order to ascertain whether or not it has been made out in accordance with the provisions of this act and the instructions of the state registrar; and if any certificate of death is incomplete or unsatisfactory, it shall be his duty to call attention to the defects in the return. All certificates, either of birth or death, shall be written legibly, in durable black ink, and no certificate shall be held to be complete and correct that does not supply all of the items of information called for therein, or satisfactorily account for their omission.
by the state registrar, or in the event that local ordinances require that all reports of births and deaths be made in duplicate, he may permanently bind the duplicate reports and index them in the manner prescribed in Section 18 for the state registrar. And he shall, on the tenth day of each month, transmit to the state registrar all original certificates registered by him for the preceding month. And if no births or no deaths occurred in any month, he shall, on the tenth day of the following month, report that fact to the state registrar, on a card provided for such purposes.

When the state registrar notifies the county clerk of the county in which the decedent was born and the local registrar of the district in which the decedent was born, the county clerk and the local registrar shall make a conspicuous notation on the face of the decedent's birth certificate showing that the person is dead. 1 Rule 51a of this article.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 53 to 64]

Rule 54a. Copies of Records.—Subject to the regulations of the Texas Department of Health controlling the accessibility of vital records, the State Registrar shall, upon request, supply to any properly qualified applicant a certified copy of a record, or any part thereof, registered under the provisions of this Act. 1 The State Registrar is entitled to a fee of Three Dollars ($3.00) for the first copy of a record or part of a record and One Dollar ($1.00) for each additional copy of the record or part of the record requested by the applicant in a single request. The fee is to be paid by the applicant. A local registrar who issues certified copies of death certificates shall charge the same fee as is charged by the State Registrar. Certified copies shall be issued only in the form approved by the Texas Department of Health. And any such copy of a record, when properly certified by the State Registrar, shall be prima facie evidence in all courts and places of the facts therein stated. For any search of the files where a record is not found or a certified copy is not made, the State Registrar shall be entitled to a fee of Three Dollars ($3.00), said fee to be paid by the applicant. The State Registrar shall, upon request of any parent or guardian, supply, without fee, a certificate limited to a statement as to the date of birth of any child when the same shall be necessary for admission to school, or for the purpose of securing employment. The State Registrar shall issue free of cost to any veteran, his widow, orphan or other dependents, a certified copy of any record not otherwise prohibited by law when such record is to be used in the settlement of a claim against the government. The State Registrar may issue, upon court order, without fee, a certified copy of a birth record in cases relating to child labor and the public schools. Provided, that the national agency in charge of the collection of vital statistics may obtain, without expense to the State, transcripts of vital records without payment of the fees herein prescribed; and provided further, that the State Registrar is hereby authorized to act as special agent for that agency in accepting the use of the franking privilege and blanks furnished by that agency; and provided further, that the Bureau of Vital Statistics of the Texas Department of Health is hereby authorized to enter into a contract with the national agency in charge of the collection of vital statistics in order to have transcribed for that agency copies of vital records filed with the State Bureau of Vital Statistics. The State Registrar shall keep a true and correct account of all money received by him under these provisions, and deposit, the same with the State Treasurer at the close of each month and at such other intervals as the Registrar deems advisable, and all such money shall be kept by the State Treasurer in a special and separate fund, to be known as the vital statistics fund, and the amounts so deposited in this fund shall be used for defraying expenses incurred in the enforcement and operation of this Act.

The State Registrar shall refund to the applicant any fee received for services which the Bureau cannot render. If the money has been deposited in the vital statistics fund, the Comptroller shall issue a warrant against the fund, upon presentation of a claim signed by the State Registrar, for the purpose of refunding the payment.

The State Registrar shall be entitled to a fee of Five Dollars ($5.00) for filing a new birth certificate based on adoption, a fee of Eight Dollars ($8.00) for filing a new birth certificate based on legitimation or paternity determination, and a fee of Five Dollars ($5.00) for filing an amendment to a birth certificate based on a court order or change of name, said fees to be paid by the applicants. 1 Rules 54a to 55a of this article and art. 4477c.

(b) An offense under this section is a felony of the third degree.

Failure to Furnish Required Information, File Required Certificates, or Perform Required Duties

Sec. 3. (a) A person commits an offense if he:

(1) refuses or fails to furnish correctly any information in his possession affecting any certificate or record required by the Vital Statistics Act;
(2) being required by the Vital Statistics Act to fill out a certificate of birth or death and file same with the local registrar or deliver it upon request to any person charged with the duty of filing the same, shall fail, neglect, or refuse to perform such duty in the manner required by this Act;
(3) being a local registrar, deputy registrar, or subregistrar, shall fail, neglect, or refuse to perform his duty as required by the Vital Statistics Act and by the instructions and directions of the state registrar thereunder.

(b) An offense under this section is a Class C misdemeanor.

Construction with Penal Code

Sec. 4. If the conduct of a person, which constitutes an offense under this Act, also constitutes an offense defined by the Penal Code of the State of Texas, as amended, the provisions of this Act shall not be applicable and the Penal Code shall govern. [Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 316, ch. 146, § 1, eff. May 11, 1979.]

Art. 4477e. Spanish Surname Information on Vital Statistics Records

Purpose

Sec. 1. The purpose of this Act is to enable this state to participate in a study being conducted by a group of states in the Southwest to obtain information about the birth rates and mortality patterns of persons with Spanish surnames and to implement recommendations made by the National Center for Health Statistics for improved methods of maintaining vital statistics.

Revision of Vital Statistic Forms

Sec. 2. In the next official revision of the prescribed forms for birth certificates, fetal death certificates, and death certificates, the Texas Department of Health shall include the following inquiries and instructions:

(A) on a birth certificate or fetal death certificate:

"(1) Is father of Spanish origin?
(2) If yes, specify Mexican, Cuban, Puerto Rican, etc.
(3) Is mother of Spanish origin?
(4) If yes, specify Mexican, Cuban, Puerto Rican, etc."

(B) on a death certificate:

"(1) Was the decedent of Spanish origin?
(2) If yes, specify Mexican, Cuban, Puerto Rican, etc."

CHAPTER FOUR A. SANITATION AND HEALTH PROTECTION

Art. 4477-1

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 11(d) to 22]

Authority of Home Rule Cities Not Affected

Sec. 23. (a) All provisions of this Act are hereby declared to constitute minimum requirements of sanitation and health protection within the State of Texas and shall in no way affect the authority of Home Rule Cities to enact more stringent ordinances pertaining to the matters herein referred to, and shall in no way affect the authority of Home Rule Cities to enact ordinances as granted to them under Article XI, Section V of the State Constitution, and Articles 1175–76 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925.

(b) The Texas Board of Health Resources may adopt rules consistent with the general intent and purposes of this Act, and establish standards and procedures for the management and control of sanitation and health protective measures.

Home-Rule Cities of 800,000 or More; Appointment of Environmental Health Officer

Sec. 23a. In a home-rule city in cities of a population of 800,000 or more according to the last federal census, an environmental health officer may be appointed to enforce the provisions of this article. An environmental health officer must be a registered professional engineer, subscribe to the official oath, and file a copy of his oath and appointment with the State Board of Health. He shall assist the State Board of Health in the enforcement of this article and is subject to the authority of the State Board of Health and to removal from office in the same manner as a city health officer.

Penalty

Sec. 24. Any person, firm or corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of any Section or subdivision of this Act, or any rule adopted under this Act, shall be fined not less than Ten Dollars ($10.00) and not more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), and each day of such violation shall constitute a separate offense.

Enforcement

Sec. 25. The Texas Department of Health Resources may apply to any district court in this state to enforce, prevent, or restrain violations of this Act or violations of rules adopted pursuant to this Act. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 227, ch. 86, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975; Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1188, ch. 456, §§ 1 to 5, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 4477-5. Texas Clean Air Act

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1.01 and 1.02]

Definitions

Sec. 1.03. As used in this Act, unless the context requires a different definition:
(1) "air contaminant" means particulate matter, radioactive material, dust, fumes, gas, mist, smoke, vapor or odor, or any combination thereof produced by processes other than natural;

(2) "source" means a point of origin of air contaminants, whether privately or publicly owned or operated;

(3) "air pollution" means the presence in the atmosphere of one or more air contaminants or combinations thereof, in such concentration and of such duration as are or may tend to be injurious to or to adversely affect human health or welfare, animal life, vegetation or property, or as to interfere with the normal use and enjoyment of animal life, vegetation or property;

(4) "board" means the Texas Air Control Board;

(5) "executive director" means the executive director of the Texas Air Control Board;

(6) "person" means individual, corporation, organization, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, partnership, association, or any other legal entity; and

(7) "local government" means a county, an incorporated city or town; or a health district established under authority of Chapter 63, Acts of the 51st Legislature, 1949, as amended by Chapter 239, Acts of the 56th Legislature, 1959 (Article 4447a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes);

(8) "new source" means any stationary source, the construction or modification of which is commenced after the effective date of this statute;

(9) "modification" means any physical change in, or change in the method of operation of, a stationary source which increases the amount of any air pollutant emitted by such source into the atmosphere or which results in the emission of any air pollutant not previously emitted. Insignificant increases in the amount of any air pollutant emitted are not intended to be included, nor is maintenance or replacement of equipment components which do not increase or tend to increase the amount or change the characteristics of the air contaminants emitted to the atmosphere.

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 201a. The Texas Air Control Board is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; 1 and unless continued in existence as provided by the Act the board is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1985.

1 Article 5429k.

Sec. 2.02. The board is composed of nine members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. Of the nine members appointed by the governor, one shall be a professional engineer with at least ten years experience in the actual practice of his profession which experience shall include work in air control; one shall be a physician licensed to practice in this state, currently engaged in general practice in this state, with experience in the field of industrial medicine; one shall be a person who has been actively engaged in the management of a private manufacturing or industrial concern for at least ten years immediately prior to his appointment; one shall be an agricultural engineer with at least ten years experience in his profession; and five shall be chosen to represent the public interest.

SUBCHAPTER C. POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD

[See Compact Edition, Volume for text of 3.01 to 3.10]

Limitations on Board Actions

Sec. 3.11. The board may not make any rule, regulation, determination or order with respect to air conditions existing solely within buildings and structures used for commercial and industrial plants, works or shops when the source of the offending air contaminants is under the control of the person who owns or operates the plant, works or shops, or which affects the relations between employers and their employees with respect to or arising out of any air condition from such a source. This provision does not and is not intended to limit or restrict in any way the authority or powers granted to the board under the provisions of Subsections (c) and (f) of Section 3.10 of this Act.
(e) If, from the information submitted under subsection (b) of this section, the board finds the proposed facility will utilize at least the best available control technology, with consideration given to the technical practicability and economic reasonableness of reducing or eliminating the emissions resulting from the facility and no indication that the emissions from the proposed facility will contravene the intent of the Texas Clean Air Act, including protection of the health and physical property of the people, the board shall grant within a reasonable time a permit to construct or modify the facility. If the board finds that the emissions from the proposed facility will contravene these standards or will contravene the intent of the Texas Clean Air Act, it shall not grant the permit and shall set out in a report to the applicant its specific objections to the submitted plans of the proposed facility.

(a) The Texas Air Control Board shall submit to the 67th Session of the Legislature a report based on the results of the pilot program and study required by Subsections (b) and (c) of this section. The report required by this subsection shall contain recommendations as to the most feasible program, if any, for controlling motor vehicle emissions in the State of Texas and reflect consideration of the following factors as they relate to the alternative programs listed in Subsection (c):

(1) acceptance by and protection of consumers;
(2) overall effectiveness including costs versus benefits;
(3) resulting social and economic impacts;
(4) appropriate geographic areas of applicability;
(5) the operating of motor vehicle inspection and maintenance, registration, and safety inspection programs in other states; and
(6) any additional factors deemed by the Texas Air Control Board to be appropriate.

(b) The Texas Air Control Board with the assistance and cooperation of the Department of Public Safety and the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation shall develop and conduct either directly or through a private contractor a pilot program utilizing advanced computer technology for the purpose of inspecting, testing, and compiling a list of a representative sample of motor vehicles giving primary attention to vehicles operated in Harris and contiguous counties to determine:

(1) actual emissions of air contaminants from such vehicles and the cause of any excessive emissions and whether specific equipment and operating parameters identified by the Texas Air Control Board as significantly affecting vehicle emissions are installed, adjusted, and operating in accordance with manufacturers' specifications;
(2) whether required vehicle safety features as specified by Section 140 of the Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways, as amended (Article 6701d, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), are properly installed and operating; and
(3) the feasibility of performing any necessary registration of such vehicles at the time of inspection and testing.

(c) In conjunction with the pilot program established pursuant to Subsection (b) and using any available information, including but not limited to that generated by the program, the Texas Air Control Board with the assistance of the Department of Public Safety and the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation shall conduct a comprehensive examination and evaluation of motor vehicle inspection, maintenance, and registration programs utilizing advanced computer technology. The study required by this subsection shall include an analysis of:

(1) the effectiveness of programs requiring actual testing of motor vehicle emissions and needed maintenance or the inspection and adjustment of appropriate vehicle operating parameters which relate to emissions of air contaminants;
(2) the effectiveness and efficiency of such a motor vehicle inspection and maintenance program operated in Texas in conjunction with a motor vehicle safety inspection program such as that required by Section 140 of the Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways, as amended (Article 6701d, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), through:
(A) existing inspection stations;
(B) state-operated inspection centers with vehicle maintenance performed in private repair facilities; or
(C) contractor-operated inspection centers with maintenance performed in private repair facilities; and

(3) the effectiveness and efficiency of such a motor vehicle inspection and maintenance program operated in Texas independently of a motor vehicle safety program such as that required by Section 140 of the Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways, as amended (Article 6701d, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), through:

(A) existing inspection stations;
(B) state-operated inspection centers with vehicle maintenance performed in private repair facilities; or
(C) contractor-operated inspection centers with maintenance performed in private repair facilities; and

(4) the effectiveness and efficiency of a motor vehicle registration program operated in conjunction with one or more of the alternative programs listed in Subsection (c)(1), (c)(2), or (c)(3) above.

(d) The Texas Air Control Board with the assistance and cooperation of the Department of Public Safety and the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation shall develop and make preparations for a motor vehicle inspection and maintenance program for Harris County by designing, planning, and scheduling the implementation of the necessary elements of such program. The design of such program shall be based on the results of the pilot program and study required by Subsections (a) and (b) of this section and shall be consistent with the recommendations to be contained in the report required by Subsection (c) of this section. The schedule for such program:

(1) shall be adequate to allow and achieve full implementation of the inspection and maintenance program as it affects passenger automobiles in Harris County not later than December 31, 1982;
(2) shall not, prior to 120 calendar days after the convening of the 67th Session of the Legislature, require or include:
(A) mandatory participation in the program by the public;
(B) execution of an agreement with a private contractor to operate inspection centers; or
(C) construction or acquisition of inspection centers or acquisition of inspection equipment except as may be necessary or useful to the conduct of the pilot program required by Subsection (a) of this section;
(3) shall, to the maximum extent feasible and consistent with other requirements of this subsection, preserve and facilitate the range of choices available to the 67th Session of the Legislature as to the direction and further development of a motor vehicle inspection and maintenance program for the State of Texas.
(e) The Texas Air Control Board shall cooperate with any legislative committee appointed to monitor the progress made in satisfying the requirements of this section.
(f) This section shall become effective upon approval by the administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency of those provisions of the plan submitted by the governor of the State of Texas in accordance with the Federal Clean Air Act Amendments of 1977, which relate to inspection and maintenance of motor vehicles and the use of emission reductions credited to the pilot program established by this Act to allow for new source growth in affected areas.

Sections 1 and 9 of the 1979 amendatory act provided:
"Sec. 1. Purpose and policy. The Texas Legislature recognizes both the importance and historical effectiveness of this state's efforts to control air pollution in order to protect the public health and improve air quality. It further recognizes the impact of the 1970 Federal Clean Air Act and subsequent amendments on the State of Texas. The Texas Legislature believes that in passing the Clean Air Act, the United States Congress intended that the national air quality standards promulgated thereunder by the Environmental Protection Agency be both reasonable and attainable.

"It is hereby declared the public policy of the State of Texas that the state in cooperation with the federal government should determine the appropriate environmental controls to be applied within its boundaries necessary to protect the public health and improve air quality. The State of Texas should continue to question and challenge federal air quality regulations and programs which establish unreasonable and unattainable standards; particularly when the programs are of doubtful scientific benefit and are established with no consideration of regional differences among the states. The Texas Legislature should undertake to conduct studies and pilot projects necessary to prove the need for air quality programs and control measures which will have major impact on the State of Texas."

"Sec. 9. The provisions of this Act which give the Texas Air Control Board authority to regulate radioactive air contaminants shall become effective only upon an affirmative determination relating to such contaminants by the administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to Section 122 of the Federal Clean Air Act Amendments of 1977."

Art. 4477-6a. Rabies Control and Eradication

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act:
(1) "Animal" means a warm-blooded animal.
(2) "Board" means the Texas Board of Health.
(3) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Health.
(4) "Person" means an individual, corporation, or association.

Duties of Texas Board of Health

Sec. 2. (a) The Texas Board of Health shall administer this Act and may adopt rules necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act.
Art. 4477-6a

(b) The board may enter into contracts with other entities, governmental or private, necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Act. The contracts may provide for payment by the state for materials, equipment, or services.

c) The board shall compile, analyze, and publish information relating to the control of rabies for the education of physicians, veterinarians, public health personnel, and the general public.

Designation of Local Health Authorities

Sec. 3. The commissioners court of each county and the governing body of each city or town shall designate one officer to act as the local health authority for the purposes of this Act. The officer designated may be the county health officer, municipal health officer, animal control officer, peace officer, or any entity that the commissioners court or governing body considers appropriate, except as restricted by rule of the board.

Reports of Exposure to Rabies

Sec. 4. (a) A person having knowledge of an animal bite or scratch or other attack on an individual that the person could reasonably foresee as capable of transmitting rabies, or of an animal that the person suspects is rabid, shall report the incident or animal to a local health authority of the county or the city or town in which the person lives, in which the animal is located, or in which the attack occurs. The report shall include the name and address of any victim and of the owner of the animal, if known.

(b) The owner of an animal that is reported to be rabid or to have attacked an individual, or that the owner knows or suspects to be rabid or to have attacked an individual, shall submit the animal for quarantine to the local health authority of the county or the city or town in which the owner resides.

(c) The local health authority shall investigate all reports filed under this section.

Quarantine of Animals

Sec. 5. (a) The local health authority shall quarantine for at least 10 days any animal that the authority has probable cause to believe is rabid or has attacked an individual.

(b) The board shall adopt rules governing the testing of quarantined animals, the procedures for and method of quarantine, and the types of facilities that may be used for quarantine.

(c) In accordance with the rules of the board, a local health authority may contract with one or more public or private entities for the purpose of providing and operating a quarantine facility.

(d) If a quarantined animal is found to be rabid, the local health authority shall humanely destroy the animal. If an animal dies or is destroyed while in quarantine, the local health authority shall remove the head or brain of the animal and submit it to the nearest Texas Department of Health laboratory for testing.

(e) If a quarantined animal is found to be free from rabies, the local health authority shall release it to the owner following the quarantine period if:

1) the owner has an unexpired rabies vaccination certificate for the animal; or
2) the animal is vaccinated against rabies by a licensed veterinarian at the owner's expense.

(f) The owner of an animal that is quarantined under this Act shall pay to the local health authority the reasonable costs of the quarantine and disposition of the animal, and the local health authority may bring suit to collect those costs. The local health authority may sell and retain the proceeds, keep, grant, or destroy an animal that the owner or custodian does not take possession of on or before the 15th day following the final day of the quarantine.

Vaccination Required

Sec. 6. (a) Except as otherwise provided by rule of the board, the owner of each dog or cat shall have the dog or cat vaccinated against rabies by the time the dog or cat is four months of age and at regular intervals thereafter as prescribed by rule of the board.

(b) A veterinarian who vaccinates a dog or cat against rabies shall issue to the owner of the animal a vaccination certificate in a form approved by the board.

(c) No county, city, or town may register or license an animal that has not been vaccinated in accordance with this section.

Importation of Certain Animals

Sec. 7. The commissioner by rule may adopt a list of types of animals that the commissioner finds have a high probability of carrying rabies and constitute a danger to public health if brought into this state.

Penalties

Sec. 8. (a) A person commits an offense if the person knowingly violates Section 6 of this Act.

(b) A person commits an offense if the person brings into this state an animal that is on the list adopted by the commissioner under Section 7 of this Act.

(c) An offense under this section is a Class C misdemeanor.

Art. 4477-7. Solid Waste Disposal Act
[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1]

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this Act, unless the context requires a different definition:

(1) “person” means individual, corporation, organization, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, partnership, association, or any other legal entity;

(2) “department” means the Texas Department of Health Resources;¹

(3) “department of water resources” means the Texas Department of Water Resources;

(4) “local government” means a county; an incorporated city or town; or a political subdivision exercising the authority granted under Section 6 of this Act;

(5) “solid waste” means all putrescible and nonputrescible discarded or unwanted solid materials, including garbage, refuse, sludge from a waste treatment plant or air pollution control facility, and other discarded material, including solid, liquid, semisolid, or contained gaseous material resulting from industrial, commercial, mining, and agricultural operations and from community activities, but does not include:

(i) solid or dissolved material in domestic sewage, or solid or dissolved material in irrigation return flows, or industrial discharges subject to regulation by permit issued pursuant to the Texas Water Quality Act;

(ii) soil, dirt, rock, sand and other natural or man-made inert solid materials used to fill land if the object of the fill is to make the land suitable for the construction of surface improvements; or

(iii) waste materials which result from activities associated with the exploration, development, or production of oil or gas and are subject to control by the Texas Railroad Commission;

(6) “municipal solid waste” means solid waste resulting from or incidental to municipal, community, commercial, and recreational activities, including garbage, rubbish, ashes, street cleanings, dead animals, abandoned automobiles, and all other solid waste other than industrial solid waste;

(7) “industrial solid waste” means solid waste resulting from or incidental to any process of industry or manufacturing, or mining or agricultural operations;

(8) “garbage” means solid waste consisting of putrescible animal and vegetable waste materials resulting from the handling, preparation, cooking, and consumption of food, including waste materials from markets, storage facilities, handling, and sale of produce and other food products;

(9) “rubbish” means nonputrescible solid waste (excluding ashes), consisting of both combustible and noncombustible waste materials; combustible rubbish includes paper, rags, cartons, wood, excelsior, furniture, rubber, plastics, yard trimmings, leaves, and similar materials; noncombustible rubbish includes glass, crockery, tin cans, aluminum cans, metal furniture, and like materials which will not burn at ordinary incinerator temperatures (1800°F to 1800°F);

(10) “sanitary landfill” means a controlled area of land upon which solid waste is disposed of in accordance with standards, regulations or orders established by the department or the board;

(11) “processing” means the extraction of materials, transfer, volume reduction, conversion to energy, or other separation and preparation of solid waste for reuse or disposal, including the treatment or neutralization of hazardous waste so as to render such waste nonhazardous, safer for transport, amenable for recovery, amenable for storage, or reduced in volume;

(12) “composting” means the controlled biological decomposition of organic solid waste under aerobic conditions;

(13) “person affected” means any person who is a resident of a county or any county adjacent or contiguous to the county in which a site, facility or plant is to be located including any person who is doing business or owns land in the county or adjacent or contiguous county and any local government. Such person affected shall also demonstrate that he has suffered or will suffer actual injury or economic damage; and

(14) “hazardous waste” means any solid waste identified or listed as a hazardous waste by the administrator of the United States Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the Federal Solid Waste Disposal Act.²

(15) “Class I industrial solid waste” means any industrial solid designated as Class I by the Executive Director of the Texas Department of Water Resources as any industrial solid waste or mixture of industrial solid wastes which because of its concentration or physical or chemical characteristics is toxic, corrosive, flammable, a strong sensitizer or irritant, a generator of sudden pressure by decomposition, heat, or other means and may pose a substantial present or potential danger to human health or the environment when improperly treated, stored, transported, or otherwise managed, including hazardous industrial waste.¹

State Solid Waste Agency: Designations; Duties

Sec. 3. (a) The department is hereby designated the state solid waste agency with respect to the collection, handling, storage, processing, and disposal of municipal solid waste, and shall be the coordinating agency for all municipal solid waste activities. The department shall be guided by the Texas Board of Health Resources in its activities relating to municipal solid waste. The department shall seek the accomplishment of the purposes of this Act through the control of all aspects of municipal solid waste collection, handling, storage, processing, and disposal by all practical and economically feasible methods consistent with the powers and duties given the department under this Act and other existing legislation. The department has the powers and duties specifically prescribed in this Act and all other powers necessary or convenient to carry out its responsibilities. The department shall consult with the department of water resources with respect to the water pollution control and water quality aspects, and with the Texas Air Control Board with respect to the air pollution control and ambient air quality aspects, of the matters placed under the jurisdiction of the department by this Act.

(b) The department of water resources is hereby designated the state solid waste agency with respect to the collection, handling, storage, processing, and disposal of industrial solid waste, and shall be the coordinating agency for all industrial solid waste activities. The department of water resources shall seek the accomplishment of the purposes of this Act through the control of all aspects of industrial solid waste collection, handling, storage, processing, and disposal by all practical and economically feasible methods consistent with the powers and duties given it under this Act and other existing legislation. The department of water resources has the powers and duties specifically prescribed in this Act and all other powers necessary or convenient to carry out its responsibilities. The department of water resources shall consult with the department with respect to the public health aspects, and with the Texas Air Control Board with respect to the air pollution control and ambient air quality aspects, of the matters placed under the jurisdiction of the department of water resources by this Act.

(c) Where both municipal solid waste and industrial solid waste, except Class I industrial solid waste which is not routinely collected with municipal solid waste, are involved in any activity of collecting, handling, storing, processing, or disposing of solid waste, the department is the state agency responsible and has jurisdiction over the activity; and, with respect to that activity, the department may exercise all of the powers, duties, and functions vested in the department by this Act. Class I industrial solid waste under the jurisdiction of the Texas Department of Water Resources may be accepted in municipal solid waste disposal facilities if authorized by the department with the concurrence of the Texas Department of Water Resources.
a reasonable time, as prescribed by the state agency to whom the application was originally submitted, to present comments and recommendations on the permit application before that state agency acts on the application.

(2) A separate permit shall be issued for each site. The permit shall include the names and addresses of the person who owns the land where the solid waste storage, processing, or disposal site is located and the person who is or will be the operator or person in charge of the site; a legal description of the land on which the site is located; and the terms and conditions on which the permit is issued, including the duration of the permit.

(3) The state agency may extend or renew any permit it issues in accordance with reasonable procedures prescribed by the state agency. The procedures prescribed in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection (e) for permit applications apply also to applications to extend or renew a permit.

(4) Before a permit is issued, extended or renewed, the state agency to which the application is submitted shall issue notice and hold a hearing in the manner provided for other hearings held by the agency.

(5) Before a permit is issued, extended or renewed, the state agency to which the application is submitted may require the permittee to execute a bond or give other financial assurance conditioned on the permittee's satisfactorily closing the disposal site on final abandonment.

(6) If a permit is issued, renewed or extended by a state agency in accordance with this Subsection (e), the owner or operator of the site does not need to obtain a license for the same site from a county, or from a political subdivision exercising the authority granted in Section 6 of this Act.

(7) A permit is issued in personam and does not attach to the realty to which it relates. A permit may not be transferred without prior notice to and prior approval by the state agency which issued it.

(8) The state agency has the authority, for good cause, after hearing with notice to the permittee and to the governmental entities named in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection (e), to revoke or amend any permit it issues for reasons pertaining to public health, air or water pollution, land use, or violation of this Act or of any other applicable laws or regulations controlling the disposal of solid waste.

(9) Manufacturing and processing establishments, commonly known as rendering plants, which process for any purpose waste materials originating from animals, poultry, and fish (all hereinafter referred to as "animals") and materials of vegetable origin, including without limitation animal parts and scraps, offal, paunch matter, and waste cooking grease of animal and vegetable origin are subject to regulation under the industrial solid waste provisions of this Act and may also be regulated under Chapter 26, Water Code. When a rendering establishment is owned by a person who operates the rendering establishment as an integral part of an establishment engaged in manufacturing or processing for animal or human consumption food derived wholly or in part from dead, slaughtered, or processed animals, poultry, or fish, the combined business may operate under authority of a single permit issued pursuant to Chapter 26, Water Code. The provisions of this subsection do not apply to those rendering plants in operation and production on or before August 27, 1973.

(f)(1) This subsection applies to the collection, handling, storage, processing, and disposal of industrial solid waste which is disposed of within the property boundaries of a tract of land owned or otherwise effectively controlled by the owners or operators of the particular industrial plant, manufacturing plant, mining operation, or agricultural operation from which the waste results or is produced, and which tract of land is within 50 miles from the plant or operation which is the source of the industrial solid waste. This subsection does not apply if the waste is collected, handled, stored, or disposed of with solid waste from any other source or sources or if the waste, which is collected, handled, stored, processed, or disposed of is hazardous waste. The department of water resources may not require a permit under this Act for the disposal of any solid waste to which this subsection applies, but this does not change or limit any authority the department of water resources may have with respect to the requirement of permits, the control of water quality, or otherwise, under Chapter 26, Water Code. However, the department of water resources may adopt rules and regulations as provided under Subsection (c) of this section to govern and control the collection, handling, storage, processing, and disposal of the industrial solid waste to which this subsection applies so as to protect the property of others, public property and rights-of-way, groundwater, and other rights requiring protection. The department of water resources may require a person who disposes or plans to dispose of industrial solid waste under the authority of this subsection to submit to the department of water resources such information as may be reasonably required to enable the department of water resources to determine whether in its judgment the waste disposal activity is one to which this subsection applies.

(2) After the expiration of 90 days following the identification and listing of wastes as hazardous waste, no person shall process, store, or dispose of hazardous industrial solid wastes under this subsection without having first obtained a hazardous waste...
permit issued by the board; provided, however, that any person processing, storing, or disposing of hazardous waste under this subsection who has filed a hazardous waste permit application in accordance with the rules and regulations of the board may continue to process, store, or dispose of hazardous waste until such time as the board approves or denies the application. Upon its own motion or the request of a person affected, the board may hold a public hearing on an application for a hazardous waste permit. The board by rule shall establish procedures for public notice and any public hearing authorized by this subsection.

(g) The state agencies may, either individually or jointly:

(1) provide educational, advisory, and technical services to other agencies of the state, regional planning agencies, local governments, special districts, institutions, and individuals with respect to solid waste management and control, including collection, storage, handling, processing, and disposal;

(2) assist other agencies of the state, regional planning agencies, local governments, special districts, and institutions in acquiring federal grants for the development of solid waste facilities and management programs, and for research to improve the state of the art; and

(3) accept funds from the federal government for purposes relating to solid waste management, and to expend money received from the federal government for those purposes in the manner prescribed by law and in accordance with such agreements as may be necessary and appropriate between the federal government and each state agency.

If a state agency engages in any of the programs and activities named in this subsection on an individual basis, it may do so only as the participation by that state agency is related to the management and control of the solid waste over which it has jurisdiction. When the state agencies do not participate jointly, they shall coordinate any efforts undertaken by either one individually so that similar programs and activities of the state agencies will be compatible.

(h) The state agencies are authorized to administer and expend state funds provided to them by legislative appropriations, or otherwise, for the purpose of making grants to local governments for solid waste planning, the installation of solid waste facilities, and the administration of solid waste programs. The grants made under the terms of this Act shall be distributed in a manner determined by the state agency to whom the appropriation is made. Any financial assistance granted by the state through either of the state agencies to any local government under the terms of this Act must, at a minimum, be equally matched by local government funds.

Sec. 5. (a) Every county has the solid waste management powers which are enumerated in this Section 5. However, the exercise of the licensing authority and other powers granted to counties by this Act does not preclude the department or the department of water resources from exercising any of the powers vested in the department or the department of water resources under other provisions of this Act, including specifically the provisions authorizing the department and the department of water resources to issue permits for the operation and maintenance of sites for the processing or disposal of solid waste. The powers specified in Subsections (d) and (e) of this section and Section 18 of the County Solid Waste Control Act (Article 4477–8, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes) may not be exercised by a county with respect to, the industrial solid waste disposal practices and areas to which Subsection (f) of Section 4 of this Act applies. The department or the department of water resources, by specific action or directive, may supersede any authority or power granted to or exercised by a county under this Act, but only with respect to those matters which are, under this Act, within the jurisdiction of the state agency acting.

(b) A county is authorized to appropriate and expend money from its general revenues for the collection, handling, storage and disposal of solid waste and for administering a solid waste program; and to charge reasonable fees for the services.

(c) A county may develop county solid waste plans and coordinate those plans with the plans of local governments, regional planning agencies, other governmental entities, the department, and the board.

(d) Except as provided in Subsection (a) of this section, a county is empowered to require and issue licenses authorizing and governing the operation and maintenance of sites used for the processing or disposal of solid waste in areas not within the territorial limits or extraterritorial jurisdiction of incorporated cities and towns. If a county elects to exercise licensing authority, it must adopt, promulgate, and enforce rules or regulations for the management of solid waste. The rules or regulations shall not be less stringent than those of, and must be approved by, the department or the board as appropriate. The following additional provisions apply if a county exercises the power authorized in this Subsection (d):

(1) The county shall mail a copy of the license application with pertinent supporting data to the department, the board, and the Texas Air Control Board. The governmental entities to whom the information is mailed shall have a reasonable time, as prescribed by the county, to submit comments and recommendations on the license application before the county acts on the application.
(2) A separate license shall be issued for each site. The license shall include the names and addresses of the person who owns the land where the waste disposal site is located and the person who is or will be the operator or person in charge of the site; a legal description of the land on which the site is located; and the terms and conditions on which the license is issued, including the duration of the license. The county is authorized to charge a fee for a license of not to exceed $100.00, as set by the commissioners court of the county. Receipts from the fees shall be placed in the general revenue fund of the county.

(3) The county may extend or renew any license it issues in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the county. The procedures prescribed in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection (d) apply also to applications to extend or renew a license.

(4) No license for the use of a site for processing or disposal of solid waste may be issued, renewed, or extended without the prior approval, as appropriate, of the department or the department of water resources. If a license is issued, renewed, or extended by a county in accordance with this Subsection (d), the owner or operator of the site does not need to obtain a permit from the department or the department of water resources for the same site.

(5) A license is issued in personam and does not attach to the realty to which it relates. A license may not be transferred without prior notice to and prior approval by the county which issued it.

(6) The county has the authority, for good cause, after hearing with notice to the licensee and to the governmental entities named in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection (d), to revoke or amend any license it issues for reasons pertaining to public health, air or water pollution, land use, or violation of this Act or of any other applicable laws or regulations controlling the disposal of solid waste. For like reasons, the department and the department of water resources each may, for good cause, after hearing with notice to the licensee, the county which issued the license, and the other governmental entities named in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection (d), revoke or amend any license issued by a county, but only as to those sites which fall, under the terms of this Act, within the jurisdiction of the state agency acting.

(e) Subject to the limitation specified in Subsection (a) of this section, a county may designate land areas not within the territorial limits or extraterritorial jurisdiction of incorporated cities and towns as suitable for use as solid waste disposal sites. The county shall base these designations on the principles of public health, safety, and welfare, including proper land use, compliance with state statutes, and any other pertinent considerations.

(f) A county is authorized to enforce the requirements of this Act and the rules and regulations promulgated by the department and the board as related to the handling of solid waste.

(h) A county may enter into cooperative agreements with local governments and other governmental entities for the purpose of the joint operation of solid waste collection, handling, storage, processing or disposal facilities, and to charge reasonable fees for the services.
resources, or a county or a political subdivision exercising the authority granted in Section 6 of this Act within whose jurisdiction the violation occurs.

(b) Any person who violates any provision of this Act or of any rule, regulation, permit, license, or other order of the department or the department of water resources, or a county or a political subdivision exercising the authority granted in Section 6 of this Act within whose jurisdiction the violation occurs, is subject to a civil penalty of not less than $50.00 nor more than $1,000.00 for each act of violation and for each day of violation, as the court may deem proper, to be recovered in the manner provided in this Section 8.

(c) Whenever it appears that a person has violated, or is violating or threatening to violate, any provision of this Act, or of any rule, regulation, permit, or other order of the department or the department of water resources, then the department or the department of water resources may cause a civil suit to be instituted in a district court for injunctive relief to restrain the person from continuing the violation or threat of violation, or for the assessment and recovery of a civil penalty of not less than $50.00 nor more than $1,000.00 for each act of violation and for each day of violation, as the court may deem proper, or for both injunctive relief and civil penalty. Upon application for injunctive relief and a finding that a person is violating or threatening to violate any provision of this Act or any rule, regulation, permit, or other order of the department or the department of water resources, the district court shall grant appropriate injunctive relief. At the request of the department or the executive director of the department of water resources when authorized by the Texas Water Development Board, the attorney general shall institute and conduct a civil suit to be instituted in a district court through its own attorney for the injunctive relief or civil penalties, or both, as authorized in Subsection (c) of this section, against the person who committed, is committing, or is threatening to commit, the violation.

(d) Whenever it appears that a violation or threat of violation of any provision of this Act, or of any rule, regulation, permit, license, or other order of the department, the department of water resources, a county, or a political subdivision exercising the authority granted in Section 6 of this Act, has occurred or is occurring within the jurisdiction of that county or political subdivision, the county or political subdivision, in the same manner as the department of water resources and the department, may cause a civil suit to be instituted in a district court through its own attorney for the injunctive relief or civil penalties, or both, as authorized in Subsection (c) of this section, against the person who committed, is committing, or is threatening to commit, the violation.

(e) Whenever it appears that a violation or threat of violation of any provision of this Act, or of any rule, regulation, permit, license, or other order of the department, the department of water resources, a county, or political subdivision exercising the authority granted in Section 6 of this Act, has occurred or is occurring within the area of the extraterritorial jurisdiction of an incorporated city or town, or is causing or will cause injury to or an adverse effect on the health, welfare or physical property of the city or town or its inhabitants, then the city or town, in the same manner as the department of water resources and the department, may cause a civil suit to be instituted in a district court through its own attorney for the injunctive relief or civil penalties, or both, as authorized in Subsection (c) of this section, against the person who committed, is committing, or is threatening to commit, the violation.

(f) A suit for injunctive relief or for recovery of a civil penalty, or for both injunctive relief and penalty, may be brought either in the county where the defendant resides or in the county where the violation or threat of violation occurs. In any suit brought to enjoin a violation or threat of violation of this Act or of any rule, regulation, permit, license or other order of the department of water resources, the department, a county, or a political subdivision exercising the authority granted in Section 6 of this Act, the court may grant the governmental entity bringing the suit, without bond or other undertaking, any prohibitory or mandatory injunction the facts may warrant, including temporary restraining orders after notice and hearing, temporary injunctions, and permanent injunctions.

(g) In a suit brought by a local government under Subsection (d) or (e) of this section, the department of water resources and the department are necessary and indispensable parties.

(h) Any party to a suit may appeal from a final judgment as in other civil cases.

(i) All civil penalties recovered in suits instituted under this Act by the State of Texas through the department of water resources or the department shall be paid to the General Revenue Fund of the State of Texas. All civil penalties recovered in suits first instituted by a local government or governments under this Act shall be equally divided between the State of Texas on the one hand and the local government or governments on the other, with 50 per cent of the recovery to be paid to the General Revenue Fund of the State of Texas and the other 50 per cent equally to the local government or governments first instituting the suit.

Appeals

Sec. 9. A person affected by any ruling, order, decision, or other act of the department or the department of water resources may appeal by filing a petition in a district court of Travis County. A person affected by any ruling, order, decision, or other act of a county, or of a political subdivision exercising the authority granted in Section 6 of this Act, may appeal by filing a petition in a district court having jurisdiction in the county or political subdivision. The petition must be filed within 30 days after the date of the action, ruling, order, or decision of the governmental entity complained of. Service of citation must be accomplished within 30 days after the date the petition is filed. The plaintiff shall pursue his action with reasonable diligence. If the plaintiff does not prosecute his action within one year after the action is filed, the court shall presume that the action has been abandoned. The court shall dismiss the suit on a motion for dismissal made by the governmental entity whose action is appealed, unless the plaintiff, after receiving due notice, can show good and sufficient cause for the delay. In an appeal from an action by the department, the department of water resources, a county, or a political subdivision exercising the authority granted in Section 6 of this Act, the issue is whether the action is invalid, arbitrary or unreasonable. Art. 4477-10. Treating and Conveying Waste in Cities of 1,200,000 or More

Application

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to all incorporated cities, including home-rule cities, having a population of 1,200,000 or more according to the last preceding federal census (hereinafter called "eligible city").

"Waste" Defined

Sec. 2. An eligible city is authorized to acquire, by purchase, lease or otherwise, any or all property (real, personal or mixed) and to construct or otherwise acquire, improve and equip any property for the purposes of treating and conveying waste, including, but not limited to, waste treatment facilities including plants, disposal fields, lagoons and areas devoted to sanitary landfills for the purposes of treating, neutralizing, stabilizing or disposal of waste, and sewer systems including pipelines, conduits, canals, pumping stations, force mains, and all other constructions, devices, and appurtenant appliances used to transport waste (such waste treatment facilities and sewer systems are hereinafter called "project" or "projects"). An eligible city is also authorized to enter into leases and other contracts, including installment sale agreements, with persons, firms or corporations to use or acquire a project or projects of such city and to enter into agreements under which the project or projects may be operated on behalf of such city; such leases, contracts and agreements to contain such terms and conditions as the eligible city deems appropriate. Each and all of the foregoing purposes are hereby found and declared to be public purposes and proper municipal functions. The term "waste" as used in this section has the meaning defined in the Texas Water Quality Act, codified as Chapter 21 of the Texas Water Code, as heretofore and hereafter amended.

Issuance of Bonds

Sec. 3. For any purpose or purposes authorized under Section 2 of this Act, the governing body of an eligible city may issue its revenue bonds from time to time in one or more series to be payable from and secured by liens on all or part of the revenues derived from any project or projects.

Ordinances Authorizing Bonds; Maturity; Registration as "Security"; Disposition of Proceeds from Sale; Property Tax

Sec. 4. (a) Said bonds may be issued when authorized by ordinance duly adopted by an eligible city's governing body and may mature serially or otherwise within not to exceed 40 years from their date or dates, and provision may be made for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under any terms or conditions that may be set forth in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds.

(b) Said bonds, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, shall be deemed and construed to be a "security" within the meaning of Chapter 8, Investment Securities, Uniform Commercial Code (Chapter 785, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967). The bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to principal and interest, and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions and details, and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and such bonds shall bear interest at such rates, all as shall be determined and provided in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(c) If so provided in said ordinance, the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during and after the period of the acquisition, construction or improvement of any project or projects, for paying expenses of operation and maintenance of said project or projects, for creating a reserve fund for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds, and for establishing any other funds. The proceeds of sale of the bonds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent, and in the manner provided, in the bond ordinance.

(d) An eligible city is authorized to levy and pledge to the payment of the operation and maintenance of any project or projects, either as a supplement to the pledge of revenues for such purpose or in lieu thereof, a continuing annual ad valorem tax at a rate or rates on each $100 valuation of taxable property within said city sufficient for such purposes, all as may be provided in said ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds; provided, that such taxes shall be within any constitutional or charter limit for eligible cities; and provided further, that no part of any moneys raised by such taxes shall ever be used for the payment of the interest on or principal of any bonds issued hereunder. The proceeds of any such taxes thus pledged shall be utilized annually to the extent required by, or provided in, the ordinance for operation and maintenance of such projects, and such city in its discretion may covenant in such ordinance that such taxes shall be within any constitutional or tax limits established for the purpose of operating and maintaining such projects, as may be enumerated therein, or all of such costs, will be paid by the eligible city from the proceeds of such tax.

(e) An eligible city shall not acquire or construct any such project or projects with the proceeds of bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness the interest on which is exempt from federal income taxation by virtue of Section 103(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as heretofore or hereafter amended, unless (1) such project is operated by an eligible city or a political subdivision of the State of Texas on behalf of such eligible city or, (2) such project provides pretreatment for waste which is then discharged into a project operated by an eligible city or a political subdivision on behalf of such city.

Fees, Purchase Prices, Rentals, Rates and Charges

Sec. 5. An eligible city is authorized to fix and collect fees, purchase prices, rentals, rates and charges for the sale, occupancy, use or availability of all or any of the projects in such amounts and in such manner as may be determined by the governing body of the eligible city.

Pledges for Payment of Bonds

Sec. 6. (a) An eligible city may pledge all or any part of the revenues, income or receipts from such fees, purchase prices, rentals, rates and charges to the payment of the bonds, including the payment of principal, interest and any other amounts required or permitted in connection with the bonds. The pledged fees, purchase prices, rentals, rates and charges shall be fixed and collected in amounts that will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds, and, to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds, to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds, and for the payment of operation, maintenance and other expenses in connection with the projects.

(b) The bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on any real property relating to the projects owned or to be acquired by the eligible city and by chattel mortgages, liens or security interests on any personal property appurtenant to that real property. The governing body of the eligible city may authorize the execution of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust or other forms of encumbrances to evidence the indebtedness.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 7. (a) Any bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for that purpose under any terms or conditions as are determined by ordinance of the governing body of the eligible city. Any provisions of this Act are applicable to refunding bonds, and the refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds. The refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts necessary to pay the principal, interest and redemption premium, if any, of bonds to be refunded, at maturity or on any redemption date.

(b) The refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded by them. In that case, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance authorizing the refunding bonds. The exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.

(c) Bonds issued at any time by a city under this Act also may be refunded in the manner provided by any other applicable law.

Examination of Bonds by Attorney General; Approval and Registration

Sec. 8. All bonds issued under this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If the bonds recite that they are secured by a pledge of revenues or rentals from a contract or lease, a copy of the contract or lease and the proceedings relating to it shall also be submitted to the attorney general. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized and any contract or lease has been made in accordance with law, he shall approve the bonds and the contract or lease, and thereupon the bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After approval and registration the bonds and any contract or lease relating to them are incontestable for any reason, and are valid and binding obligations for all purposes in accordance with their terms.

Bonds as Legal and Authorized Investments and Security

Sec. 9. All bonds issued under this Act are legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of the state, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. The bonds are also eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of it, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of the bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect; Conflicting Laws

Sec. 10. This Act is cumulative of all other law on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized by it without reference to any other law or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided. When any bonds are issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any law or home-rule-charter provision, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control. An eligible city shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Sec. 11. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance, shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

CHAPTER FOUR B. TUBERCULOSIS

Art. 4477-11. Texas Tuberculosis Code

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1 and 2]

Definitions

Sec. 3. As used in this Code, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) “Board” means the Texas Board of Health;
(b) “Person” includes firm, partnership, joint stock company, joint venture, association, and corporation;
(c) “Political subdivision” includes a county, city, town, village, or hospital district in this State but does not include the Board or any other department, board, or agency of the State having state-wide authority and responsibility;
(d) “Physician” means a person licensed by the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners to practice medicine in the State of Texas;
(e) “Head of hospital” means the individual in charge of a hospital;
(f) “State Chest Hospital” means a chest hospital operated by the Board and includes San Antonio State Chest Hospital, San Antonio, Texas, and Harlingen State Chest Hospital, Harlingen, Texas;
(g) “Tuberculosis patient” means any person, adult or child, who has any form of tuberculosis disease in any part of the body;
(h) “Person legally responsible” means parents, guardians, spouses, or any person whom the laws of this State hold responsible for the debts incurred as a result of hospitalization and/or treatment;
(i) “Local health authority” means the city or county health officer, a director of a local health department or local board of health, provided that such health officer is a licensed and practicing physician, within their respective jurisdictions;
(j) “Resident of this State” means a person who is physically present and living voluntarily in the State of Texas with the intention of making a home within the State and whose stay is not for temporary purposes. Such intent may be demonstrated by (but not limited to) the following: the presence of personal effects at a specific abode within this State; employment within this State; possession of such documentation as a Texas driver’s license, motor vehicle registration or voter registration forms;
(k) “Department” means the Texas Department of Health.

Control and Sanitary Management of Tuberculosis

Sec. 4. Tuberculosis in a contagious, infectious, or communicable state is hereby declared to be dangerous to public health.
Art. 4477-11  HEALTH—PUBLIC  2798

(a) Any physician, or other person, who makes a diagnosis in, or treats a case of tuberculosis, and every head or manager of a hospital, dispensary, or charitable, or penal institution in which there is a case of tuberculosis, shall report such case as soon as possible, in writing, or by an acknowledged telephone communication to the local health authority, stating the name, address, age, sex, color, and occupation of the diseased person and the date of the onset of the disease, and the probable source of infection.

(b) All local health authorities shall keep a careful and accurate record of all cases of tuberculosis as reported to them with the date, name, age, sex, race, location, and such other necessary data as may be prescribed by the Department. Such health authorities shall make a report of all tuberculosis cases of which they may be cognizant to the Department within forty-eight (48) hours of receiving a report upon blank forms provided by the Department. These reports may be used by the Department for any and all purposes consistent with the care and treatment of individuals afflicted with tuberculosis, for research purposes, for statistical purposes, for investigative purposes, with the ultimate goal being the eradication of tuberculosis in Texas.

(c) It shall be the duty of every physician and of every other person who examines or treats a person having tuberculosis to instruct him in measures for preventing the spread of such disease and of the necessity for treatment until cured.

Notice of Evidence of Tuberculosis

Sec. 4A. (a) The Bureau of Tuberculosis Services must be notified when a laboratory examination of a specimen derived from a human indicates microscopic, cultural, or other evidence of the presence or likely presence of Mycobacterium tuberculosis.

(b) The person in charge of the laboratory in which the evidence of tuberculosis disease is discovered shall notify the local health authority, or if there is no local health authority, the Bureau of Tuberculosis Services in the Department.

(c) The notification must contain:

(1) the name and age of the person from whom the specimen was obtained;
(2) the name and address of the physician requesting the tests; and
(3) the tests performed, the date of the tests, and the results.

(d) Cumulative reports must be reported weekly.

(e) All laboratory notifications required by this section are confidential and are not open for inspection by anyone other than authorized public health personnel.

(f) No person from the Bureau of Tuberculosis Services or the local health authority may communicate with a suspected tuberculosis patient or a person who may be exposed to tuberculosis by a suspected patient until a diagnosis is reported to the Department by the attending physician.

Measures for Protection of Persons not Having Tuberculosis

Sec. 5. Upon receipt of a report of a case of tuberculosis, the local health authority shall institute measures for protection of other persons from infection by such diseased person.

(a) All duly authorized health authorities of this State are authorized to notify any person who is known to be infected with tuberculosis, to place himself under the medical care of a physician licensed by the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners, hospital, or clinic, for treatment or examination until such physician, hospital, or clinic shall furnish such health authority with a certificate that such person examined or treated is free from tuberculosis in an infectious or contagious state. The certificate shall state that the person examined has been given an actual and thorough examination. The test or tests for tuberculosis shall be that type of test or tests as approved by the Department. Such certificates shall also contain the report of the test.

(b) Physicians, local health authorities, and all other persons are prohibited from issuing certificates of freedom from tuberculosis unless the examination includes clinical and appropriate radiographic or laboratory evidence that the person so examined is free from tuberculosis in an infectious or contagious state. Before a certificate of freedom from tuberculosis can be issued in the case of a person who has previously had tuberculosis, it will be necessary that the physician or person on giving the certificate shall submit to the local health authority a report of the examination including the clinical and appropriate radiologic or laboratory evidence that the person no longer has tuberculosis in an infectious or contagious state.

(c) Any person who violates the provisions of Section 4, or who fails to follow the directions of the local health authority, or who fails to follow the directions of his attending physician pursuant to Section 4, or who in the opinion of the local health authority cannot be treated with reasonable safety to the public, at home, may be quarantined, as that term is hereinafter defined, and the local health authority may direct the removal of the person to a suitable place for examination, and if such person is found to have tuberculosis in an infectious and contagious state, then such person may be quarantined, as that term is hereinafter defined, until such person is no longer in an infectious and contagious state.
Quarantine, as used in this Section, means the limitation of movement and separation, during that period of time while infectious and contagious, from other persons not infected, in such places and under such conditions as will prevent the conveyance of such infectious or contagious condition to others not infected.

A person found to have tuberculosis in an infectious and contagious state and quarantined under the provisions of this Section may be placed in any place suitable for the detention and segregation required under the provisions of this Section. If suitable facilities are not available within the jurisdiction of the local health authority, then in such event, the person so quarantined may be transported to a State chest hospital designated by the Board. The Board is hereby empowered and directed to provide suitable facilities for detention of such individuals.

The Commissioners Courts of the various counties and the governing body of all incorporated towns and cities are hereby empowered to provide suitable places for the detention of persons who may be subject to quarantine and who should be segregated for the execution of the provisions of this Section; and such commissioners courts and governing body of incorporated cities and towns are hereby authorized to incur on behalf of their said counties, cities, or towns, the expenses necessary to the enforcement of this Section.

The Commissioners Courts of the various counties and the governing body of all incorporated towns and cities are hereby empowered and directed to provide transportation to the State chest hospital so designated by the Board for any person quarantined under the provisions of this Section when suitable facilities are not available within the jurisdiction of the local health authority.

The local health authority shall inform all persons who are to be released from quarantine for tuberculosis of the status of their disease and what further treatment is required.

(d) It shall be the duty of all persons with tuberculosis, or who, from exposure to tuberculosis, may be liable to endanger others who may come in contact with them, to strictly observe such instructions as may be given them by any local health authority of the State in order to prevent the spread of tuberculosis.

(e) If an attending physician or other person knows or has good reason to suspect that a person having tuberculosis is so conducting himself or herself as to expose others to infection or is about to conduct himself or herself, he shall notify the local health authority of the name and address of the diseased person and the essential facts in the case, and the local health authority shall investigate the facts of the case and shall adopt or employ the necessary measures as set out herein.

Violations; Penalties

Sec. 6. (a) A person commits an offense if he violates the provisions of Section 4, 4A, or 5 of this Act.

(b) An offense under this section is a Class B misdemeanor.

Local Regulations

Sec. 7. These regulations shall not be construed to prevent any city, county, or town from establishing such types of disinfection, isolation, control, and management of tuberculosis cases which they deem necessary for the preservation of the health of the individuals and the public; provided that such rules and regulations are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Code and are subordinate to said Code, and the rules and regulations prescribed by the Department. The local health authority shall at once furnish the Department with a true copy of any such regulations adopted by said local authorities.

Provided, however, that no provision in this Act shall be construed in any manner such that it would deprive any person of his right to depend on prayer or spiritual means alone for healing, in the practice of the principles, tenets, or teachings of his religion; provided that in so doing the isolation and quarantine rules and regulations under this Act are complied with.

Admission

Sec. 8. Residents of Texas as defined in Section 1 herein, having tuberculosis, may be admitted to a State chest hospital. Non-resident indigents with tuberculosis who have been quarantined under the provisions of Section 5 herein may be admitted to a State chest hospital pending their return to the State or country of their residence.

Classification of Patients

Sec. 9. Patients admitted to State chest hospitals shall be two (2) classes:

1. Indigent public patients and
2. Non-indigent public patients.

(a) Indigent public patients are those who possess no property of any kind nor have anyone legally responsible for their support, and who are unable to reimburse the State. This class shall be supported at the expense of the State.

(b) Non-indigent public patients are those who possess some property out of which the State may be reimbursed, or who have someone legally responsible for their support. This class shall be kept and maintained at the expense of the State as in (a) above, but in such case the State shall have the right to be reimbursed for the support of such patients, and the claim of the State shall constitute a valid lien against any property of any such patient, or in case he has a guardian, against any property of his which is in the possession of said guardian, or against the person or persons who may be legally responsible for his support and financially able to contribute as herein provided. Such claim may be collected by suit or other proceedings in the name of the State of Texas by the County or District Attorney of the county from which said patient is sent or the Attorney General against such patient or his guardian or the person or persons legally responsible for his support; and the suit shall be brought in the county from which such patient was sent. Such suit shall be instituted upon the written request of the head of the State chest hospital accompanied by a certificate as to the amount due the State. In all suits or proceedings, the certificate of the head of the hospital shall be sufficient evidence of the amount due the State for the support of such patient. It shall be the duty of said Attorney upon such request being made to institute and conduct such proceedings and for which he shall be entitled to a commission of ten per cent (10%) of the amount collected. All moneys so collected, less such commission, shall be paid by said County Attorney to the head of said hospital, who shall receive and receipt for the same.

Certificate of Examination

Sec. 11. The application for admission to a State chest hospital shall be accompanied by a certificate of a physician licensed to practice medicine in the State of Texas by the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners, or in the case of indigent patients by a certificate from the local health authority if such individual or individuals are licensed to practice medicine in the State of Texas by the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners, stating that he has thoroughly examined the person for whose admission application has been made, and that such person is suffering from tuberculosis. The certificate shall be in the form and contain such information as prescribed by the Department.

In the event that the person applying for admission to a State chest hospital is afflicted with a contagious, infectious, or transmissible disease other than tuberculosis, then in such event the head of the State chest hospital to whom application has been made may use the presence of such contagious, infectious, or transmissible disease other than tuberculosis as a valid reason for delaying admission until such contagious disease is rendered non-contagious.

Duties of Board

Sec. 12. (a) The State chest hospital shall review applications for admission and admit or deny admission to applicants.

(b) The Board shall prepare and adopt by-laws, rules, and regulations for the government, control, and management of all State chest hospitals, prescribing the duties of all officers and employees, and for enforcing the necessary discipline and restraint of all patients.

(c) The Board shall appoint for each of said chest hospitals a physician licensed to practice medicine in the State of Texas by the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners. Each physician so appointed shall be the head of the hospital under his control and shall have power to remove with just cause any person employed in said hospital over which he has such authority. Any such physician so appointed shall be removable at the discretion of the Board. The provisions applying to the powers and duties of the Board and of the head of the hospital as set forth in this Section are in addition to any others provided for by law. The Board shall supply each hospital with the necessary personnel for the operation and maintenance of such hospital.

(d) In addition to the specific authority granted by other provisions of law, the Board is authorized to prescribe the form of application, certificates, records, and reports provided for under this Code and the information required to be contained therein; to require reports from the head of any State chest hospital relating to the admission, examination, diagnosis, release, or discharge of any patient; to visit each hospital regularly to review the admitting procedures and care and treatment of all new patients admitted between visits; to investigate by personal visit complaints made by any patient or by any person on behalf of a patient; and to adopt such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this Code as may be necessary for proper and efficient hospitalization of tuberculosis patients.

(e) Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Code, a power granted to, or a duty imposed upon the Board may be exercised or performed by an authorized employee, but the delegation of a duty does not relieve the Board from its responsibility.

Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Code, a power granted to, or a duty imposed upon the head of a hospital may be exercised or performed by an authorized employee, but the delegation of a duty does not relieve the head of a hospital from his responsibility.
(f) The Board may return a non-resident patient admitted to a State chest hospital in this State to the proper agency of the State of his residence. The Board may permit the return of any resident of this State who is admitted to a tuberculosis hospital in another state.

All expenses incurred in returning admitted patients to other states shall be paid by this State. The expense of returning residents of this State shall be borne by the states making the return.

(g) The Board is authorized to enter into reciprocal agreements with the proper agencies of other states to facilitate the return to the states of their residence of patients admitted to State chest hospitals in this or other states.

No Preference in Admission

Sec. 14. (a) No patient in any state chest hospital shall be discriminated against but all patients shall be treated alike, given equal facilities, equal attention and equal treatment; it being recognized, however, that the condition of the individual patient may necessitate a greater or lesser degree of care and treatment.

(b) No patient in any such hospital shall be permitted to give any officer, servant, agent, or employee in any such hospital any tip, pay, or reward of any kind, and if such patient does so, it shall be a cause for his expulsion from said hospital, and the discharge of any servant accepting the same; and the Board shall see that this provision is rigidly enforced.

Private Additions to State Chest Hospitals

Sec. 15. (a) The Board is hereby authorized, on request of any charitable fraternity or society in this State, to permit the erection, furnishing, and maintenance by such fraternities or societies upon the grounds of any State chest hospital or dormitories and such other accommodations as may be desired by any such fraternity or society for the proper treatment and care of any member or members of such fraternity or society or for any members of their families, or for the widows and children of deceased members of such fraternity or society, who may have tuberculosis, and which accommodations so erected shall be reserved for the preferential use of such members and members of their families and of the widows and children of deceased members of the fraternity or society so erecting, furnishing, and maintaining such accommodations hereunder. The State shall be at no expense whatever in the erection, furnishing, or maintenance of such accommodations, and the fraternity or society entering a patient or patients shall provide such pro rata part for the maintenance of such patient or patients as may be found just and equitable pending the next succeeding appropriation to be made by the Legislature for the maintenance of said State chest hospitals.

“Children” under this Article shall mean any minor child of a deceased member of such fraternity or society. Such accommodations or any part of them not being used or required by those entitled to such preference, may be used and occupied by other patients in said State chest hospitals at the discretion of the head of the hospital and without any charge therefor against the State.

(b) Plan of buildings.

All matters pertaining to the location, construction, style or character of buildings, term of their existence and all other questions arising in connection with the granting of the permission to erect and maintain the accommodations contemplated in the preceding Section, shall be arranged and agreed upon in writing by and between the Board on the part of the State and the properly authorized officers, board, or committee of each respective charitable fraternity or society, and such written agreement in each case shall be recorded at length upon the minutes of the Board.

(c) Rules of admission.

The members of such charitable fraternities or societies, members of their families, and the widows and children of deceased members thereof, shall be classified according to the facts the same as other patients of said State chest hospitals are classified, and shall be admitted, maintained, cared for and treated in said hospitals upon the same terms and conditions and under the same regulations as all other patients therein, save and except that they shall at all times have the preference and right to occupy the accommodations erected and maintained hereunder by their several and respective fraternities or societies when not already filled with others having the same preferential right.

Conveyances by Counties in Establishing Chest Hospitals

Sec. 17. All counties in this State are hereby authorized to donate and convey land to the State of Texas in consideration of the establishment of a State chest hospital by the Board. The desirability, manner, and form of the donation and conveyance shall be within the discretion of the Commissioners Court of the particular county. No provision of this Section shall authorize the Commissioners Court of any such county to convey any land given or donated or granted to the county for the purpose of education in any manner other than that which is or shall be directed by law.
Appropriations

Sec. 18. All appropriations heretofore made and now effective or appropriations hereafter made by the Legislature for the use and benefit of San Antonio State Chest Hospital, San Antonio, Texas, and Harlingen State Chest Hospital, Harlingen, Texas; or in names previously used by these hospitals, shall remain available for their use and benefit.

Contracts

Sec. 19. All contracts heretofore entered into in behalf of San Antonio State Chest Hospital, San Antonio, Texas, and Harlingen State Chest Hospital, Harlingen, Texas; or in names previously used by these hospitals, are hereby ratified, confirmed, and validated for and in their behalf.

[Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1524, ch. 658, §§ 1 to 18, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Repealer

Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 752, ch. 282, classified as Art. 3201a-4, transfers control of the East Texas Chest Hospital from the Department of Health to the University of Texas System. Section 7 of the Act provides, in part, "* * * insofar as applicable to the East Texas Chest Hospital, Subsections (b) through (e) of Section 12 and all of Section 15, Texas Tuberculosis Code (Article 4477-11, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), are repealed."

Art. 4477-12. Prevention, Eradication and Control of Tuberculosis

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1 to 3]

Examination of Pupils for Tuberculosis Infection

Sec. 4. The Texas Board of Health Resources may provide for the examination for tuberculosis infection of pupils in the first and seventh grades of the public, parochial and private schools of this state, and of pupils transferred to the public, parochial and private schools of this state from another state or country.

Certificate of Examination of School Personnel

Sec. 5. (a) The governing body of each public school within the State shall require that each individual who is employed by or who acts as a volunteer for the governing body, and who is included within certain categories designated by the Texas Board of Health, shall present to the governing body a certificate, signed by a physician licensed to practice medicine in Texas, which states that the individual has been examined for tuberculosis and discloses the results of the examination. The governing body of each public school shall verify that each individual within its jurisdiction who is included within this Act, has the required certificate and shall not permit any individual to commence his or her duties in the absence of the certificate. The Texas Board of Health may require reexamination of any individual employee or volunteer as the Board determines is necessary and appropriate to protect the public health.

(b) The Texas Board of Health shall adopt rules describing the following:

1. the designation of the categories of employees or volunteers who are required to be examined;
2. the form and content of the required examination certificate;
3. the closing dates for filing such individual certificates;
4. the transfer of such individual certificates between public school districts;
5. the frequency of such required examinations;
6. the criteria for requiring reexaminations; and
7. the reporting of the results of such examinations to the Texas Department of Health.

(c) This section and the rules adopted by the Texas Board of Health by the authority of this Act, shall be the minimum acceptable standards for the examination of the named categories of individuals for tuberculosis. A school district may adopt and enforce more stringent standards, except that the requirements for a tuberculosis examination may not include exposure to X-rays unless the person being examined consents or the examining physician determines that the X-ray examination is medically necessary and states that determination on the required certificate.

Prior to repeal, this article was amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2193, ch. 700, § 1. See now, art. 3201a-4.
CHAPTER FOUR C. KIDNEY DISEASE

Art. 4477-20. Kidney Health Care Act
[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1 to 8]

Reimbursement of Health Department for Cost of Treatment
Sec. 9. (a) Subject to the limitations set forth in Subsections (b)(1) and (2) below, any person certified by the board as eligible for treatment under the provisions of this Act for whose treatment the board has paid or the person or persons liable for the debts of such patient shall reimburse the Texas State Department of Health for the cost of such treatment and the proceeds resulting from such reimbursement shall be reappropriated to the Division of Kidney Health Care of the Texas State Department of Health for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(b) No person or persons liable for repayment under Subsection (a) of this section shall be liable for more than the sum of:

(1) any proceeds of insurance, group health plan, or prepaid medical care, provided that such proceeds are paid to the insured and are paid by the insurer by reason of liability for the payment of the cost of medical treatment, and

(2) five percent of the adjusted gross income, as defined in the United States Internal Revenue Code for purposes of federal income tax and as amended from time to time, of such person or persons, less a yearly sum of not more than $500 and the yearly premiums such person or persons have paid on insurance which resulted in proceeds under Subsection (b)(1) hereof.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect any arrangement for payment of costs directly to a medical provider by an insurance company, group health plan, or prepaid medical care plan.

Coordination of Benefits
Sec. 9.1. The board shall require the coordination of benefits provided under this Act with all other benefits to which any person certified as eligible under this Act may be entitled. To effect this coordination the board shall:

(1) Require full disclosure of all other benefits to which such person may be entitled.

(2) Require the full utilization of all other benefits to which such person may be entitled before benefits may be received under this Act.

(3) For the purposes of this Act, the term "other benefits" is defined as those benefits which are or upon proper claim could be provided such persons certified as eligible under this Act to cover the expense of medical care, treatment, services, pharmaceuticals, transportation, and supplies by but not limited to the following:

(a) Any policy of insurance, group health plan, or prepaid medical care plan which provides benefits for the care and treatment of kidney disease;

(b) Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, as amended (Medicare); 1

(c) Title XIX of the Social Security Act, as amended (Medicaid); 2

(d) Veterans Administration;

(e) Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Armed Forces (Champus);

(f) Workmen's Compensation or any other compulsory employer's insurance program;

(g) Any other public program created by laws enacted by the Congress of the United States, or the Legislature of this State, or the laws, regulations, or established regulations of any county or municipality.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to abridge the freedom of a person certified as eligible under this Act in exercising his or her choice of treatment modality, treatment facility, or treating physician; provided, however, that such modality, facility, or physician is accredited by the board as provided in Section 3 of this Act.

2 42 U.S.C.A. § 1396 et seq.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1975 amendatory act provided:

"Sec. 2. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with or inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed."

CHAPTER FOUR D. HEMOPHILIA

Article 4477-30. Hemophilia Assistance Program.

Art. 4477-30. Hemophilia Assistance Program

Definitions
Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Hemophilia" means a human physical condition characterized by bleeding resulting from a genetically determined deficiency of a blood coagulation factor or hereditarily resulting in an abnormal or deficient plasma procoagulant.

(2) "Committee" means the hemophilia advisory committee.

(3) "Department" means the Texas Department of Health Resources.

(4) "Program" means the hemophilia assistance program.
Art. 4477-30
HEALTH—PUBLIC  2804

(5) "Director" means the director of health resources.

(6) "Administrator" means a person employed or appointed by the director to administer the program.

Hemophilia Assistance Program
Sec. 2. (a) There is established in the department a hemophilia assistance program to assist persons who have hemophilia and who require continuing treatment with blood, blood derivatives, or manufactured pharmaceutical products but who are unable to pay the entire cost.

(b) The department shall, in the order of priority listed:

(1) set standards of eligibility for assistance under this Act;

(2) provide financial assistance for medically eligible persons, through approved providers, in obtaining blood, blood derivatives and concentrates, and other substances for use in medical or dental facilities or in the home.

Administrator
Sec. 3. (a) The administrator is responsible for carrying out the hemophilia assistance program.

(b) The administrator shall report to the director.

(c) The administrator may employ two persons in carrying out the program.

Funding Sources
Sec. 4. (a) The department may accept grants, gifts, and donations from individuals, private or public organizations, or federal or local funds for the support of the hemophilia assistance program.

(b) The department shall investigate any potential sources of funding from federal grants or programs.

Hemophilia Advisory Committee
Sec. 5. (a) There is established a hemophilia advisory committee which shall review the program and consult with the department in the administration of the program. The department shall make an annual report of the program to the committee.

(b) The committee consists of 12 members appointed by the director as follows:

(1) three members representing hospitals where hemophilia treatment occurs;

(2) two members representing voluntary agencies interested in hemophilia;

(3) three members who are medical specialists in hemophilia patient care;

(4) three members who are adult hemophiliacs or parents of hemophiliacs; and

(5) one member representing the general public.

(c) Except for those first appointed, members are appointed for terms of six years, expiring January 31 of odd-numbered years. If a vacancy occurs on the committee, the director shall appoint a member to serve the unexpired portion of the term.

(d) In making the initial appointments, the director shall appoint four members for terms expiring in 1983, four for terms expiring in 1981, and four for terms expiring in 1979.

(e) The committee shall meet annually, and the committee may meet at other times as necessary.

(f) The members of the committee shall serve without compensation but may be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred by committee activities.

CHAPTER FOUR E. CANCER

Art. 4477-40. Cancer Control Act

Short Title
Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Texas Cancer Control Act.

Purpose
Sec. 2. It is the intent of the legislature to require the establishment and maintenance of a cancer registry for the State of Texas. This responsibility is delegated to the Texas Board of Health, along with the authority to exercise certain powers to implement this requirement. To insure an accurate and continuing source of data concerning cancer and certain specified precancerous and tumorous diseases, the legislature by this Act requires all general and special hospitals, clinical laboratories, and cancer treatment centers within the state to make available to the Texas Board of Health information contained in the medical records of patients who have cancer or specified precancerous or tumorous diseases. It is intended that the product of these efforts will be a central data bank of accurate, precise, and current information regarding the subject diseases which medical authorities agree would serve as an invaluable tool in their early recognition, prevention, cure, or control.

Definitions
Sec. 3. In this Act:

(1) "Board" means the Texas Board of Health.

(2) "Department" means the Texas Department of Health.

(3) "Cancer" includes a large group of diseases characterized by uncontrolled growth and spread of abnormal cells; any condition of tumors having the properties of anaplasia, invasion, and metastasis; a cellular tumor the natural course of which is fatal; and malignant neoplasm.

(4) "Precancerous disease" means abnormality of development and organization of adult cells. It is a condition of early cancer, without the invasion of neighboring tissue.

(5) "Tumorous disease" means a new growth of tissue in which the multiplication of cells is uncontrolled and progressive, also called neoplasm. It is a swelling, enlargement, or abnormal mass, either benign or malignant, which performs no useful functions.

(6) "Hospital" means a general or special hospital licensed under the Texas Hospital Licensing Law, as amended (Article 4437f, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), or The University of Texas System Cancer Center.

(7) "Clinical laboratory" means an accredited facility where tests are performed identifying findings of anatomical changes, and where specimens are interpreted and pathological diagnoses are made.

(8) "Cancer treatment center" means a special health facility devoted to study, prevention, diagnosis, and management of neoplastic and allied diseases.

Cancer Registry

Sec. 4. The board shall establish and maintain a registry that includes a record of the cases of cancer and of precancerous disease and tumorous disease, as specified by the board, that occur within the state and such information concerning these cases as the board determines necessary and appropriate for the recognition, prevention, cure, or control of the subject diseases.

Duties of the Board

Sec. 5. In order to implement this Act, the board may:

(1) adopt rules that the board considers necessary;
(2) execute contracts that the board considers necessary;
(3) receive the data contained in the medical records that are in the custody or under the control of clinical laboratories, hospitals, and cancer treatment centers, of persons having cancer, precancerous disease, and tumorous disease, for the purpose of recording and analysing that data directly related to the subject diseases;
(4) compile and publish statistical and other studies derived from the patient data authorized by this Act to be collected, to provide in an accessible form information useful to physicians, other medical personnel, and the general public;
(5) comply with requirements as necessary to obtain federal funds in the maximum amounts and most advantageous proportions possible; and
(6) receive and use gifts and donations made for the purpose of this Act.

Annual Report

Sec. 6. The department, in cooperation with The University of Texas System Cancer Center and other cancer research institutions, shall publish an annual report to the legislature of the information obtained under this Act.

Availability of Records

Sec. 7. (a) On the request of the board or its authorized representative, each hospital, clinical laboratory, and cancer treatment center within the state shall:

(1) produce and make available to the board or its authorized representative, on a form prescribed by the department, the data that the board determines is necessary and appropriate from each medical record in its custody or under its control of a case of cancer or of those precancerous or tumorous diseases specified by the board; or
(2) make available each medical record to the board or its authorized representative on presentation of proper identification, during normal working hours, on the premises of the respective hospital, clinical laboratory, or cancer treatment center, for the purpose of recording specific data about a patient's cancer, precancerous disease, or tumorous disease, on a form prescribed by the department.

(b) The data required to be produced shall include, but is not limited to:

(1) diagnosis;
(2) stage of disease;
(3) medical history;
(4) laboratory data;
(5) tissue diagnosis;
(6) method of treatment; and
(7) annual lifetime follow-up of each patient.

Confidentiality and Disclosure

Sec. 8. All data obtained directly from medical records of individual patients are for the confidential use of the department, the private and public entities, or the persons that the board determines are necessary to carry out the intent of this Act. The data are privileged and may not otherwise be divulged or made public so as to disclose the identity of an individual whose medical records have been used for acquiring data. Information that could possibly identify individuals whose medical records have been used for collecting data may not be included in materials available to public inspection under Chapter 424, Acts of the 63rd Legislature,
Art. 4477-40

HEALTH—PUBLIC

2806

Regular Session, 1973, as amended (Article 6252-17a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). Statistical information collected under this Act shall be open and accessible to the public.

Immunity from Liability

Sec. 9. No hospital, clinical laboratory, or cancer treatment center, no administrator, officer, or employee of a hospital, clinical laboratory, or cancer treatment center, and no physician subject to the provisions of this Act who acts in compliance with this Act shall be civilly or criminally liable for divulging the information required by this Act.

Freedom of Choice

Sec. 10. This Act does not compel an individual to submit to any medical examination or supervision or to examination or supervision by the board or its authorized representatives.

Effective Date

Sec. 11. This Act takes effect September 1, 1979. However, the provisions of this Act extend to records of all cases of cancer and the specified precancerous and tumors diseases diagnosed on or after January 1, 1979, and to records of all ongoing cases of such diseases diagnosed before January 1, 1979. [Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 170, ch. 94, §§ 1 to 11, eff. Sept. 1, 1979.]

CHAPTER FIVE. COUNTY HOSPITAL

Art. 4478. Authority

The commissioners court of any county shall have power to establish a county hospital and any medical or other health facilities and to enlarge any existing hospitals or facilities for the care and treatment of persons suffering from any illness, disease or injury, subject to the provisions of this chapter. At intervals of not less than twelve months, ten per cent of the qualified property tax paying voters of a county may petition such court to provide for the establishing or enlarging of a county hospital, or any medical or other health facilities, in which event said court within the time designated in such petition shall submit to such voters at a special or regular election the proposition of issuing bonds in such aggregate amount as may be designated in said petition for the establishing or enlarging of such hospital or facilities. Whenever any such proposition shall receive a majority of the votes of the qualified property tax payers voting at such election, said commissioners court shall establish and maintain such hospital or facilities and shall have the following powers:

1. To purchase and lease real property therefor, or acquire such real property, and easements therein, by condemnation proceedings.

2. To purchase or erect all necessary buildings, make all necessary improvements and repairs and alter any existing buildings, for the use of said hospital or facilities. The plans for such erection, alteration, or repair shall first be approved by the State Health Officer, if his approval is requested by the said commissioners court.

3. To cause to be assessed, levied and collected, such taxes upon the real and personal property owned in the county as it shall deem necessary to provide the funds for the maintenance thereof, and for all other necessary expenditures therefor.

4. To issue county bonds to provide funds for the establishing, enlarging and equipping of said hospital or facilities and for all other necessary permanent improvements in connection therewith; to do all other things that may be required by law in order to render said bonds valid.

5. To appoint a board of managers for said hospital or facilities, or both.

6. To accept and hold in trust for the county, any grant or devise of land, or any gift or bequest of money or other personal property or any donation to be applied, principal or income or both, for the benefit of said hospital or facilities, and apply the same in accordance with the terms of the gift.

7. The Commissioners Court may lease all or part of any medical facility so constructed, purchased or acquired under this Act.

8. The Commissioners Court of any county may close by order on terms it considers reasonable any medical facility constructed, purchased, or acquired under this Act, and this order shall be final thirty days after promulgation unless at least ten per cent of the qualified electors in the county petition the Commissioners Court within the thirty days requesting that an election be held in the county to determine whether or not the medical facility should be closed. On proper petition, the Commissioners Court shall set a time for an election and shall submit to the qualified electors of the county ballots providing for voting for or against the proposition: "The closing of (Name of medical facility to be closed)."

Section 2 of the 1977 amendatory act (which added subd. 8 to this article), provided: "Nothing in this Act shall exempt any county commissioners court from any provision of the Health Planning and Development Act of 1975 (Art. 4418h.)"

Art. 4494j. Sale or Lease of County Hospital in Counties Having Assessed Valuation Under $20,000,000

Text of article effective January 1, 1982

Any county in this State having an assessed valuation of property for ad valorem tax purposes of less than Twenty Million Dollars ($20,000,000) and having a county hospital belonging to said county and operated by such county, may, and such county is hereby authorized to sell or lease such hospital, provided the Commissioners Court of such county shall find and determine by an order entered in the minutes of such Court that it is to the best interests of such county to sell or lease said county hospital. The proposed sale or lease shall not be considered by such Commissioners Court unless and until said proposed sale or lease shall be approved by a majority vote in an election to be held in such county for the purpose of determining the will of property taxpaying voters living in the county, in reference to such subject. Such election shall be ordered by the Commissioners Court of any such county upon petition of not less than ten per cent (10%) of such voters and shall be otherwise held under and governed by the election provisions of Article 4478, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, of the State of Texas.

Taxes of District; Deposit of Taxes and Other Income

Text of section effective January 1, 1982

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of any county which has voted to create a Hospital District shall have the power and the authority, and it shall be its duty, to levy on all property subject to hospital district taxation for the benefit of the District, a tax of not to exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation of all taxable property within the Hospital District, for the purpose of (1) paying the interest on and creating a sinking fund for bonds which may have been assumed or which may be issued by the Hospital District for hospital purposes, as herein provided; (2) providing for the operation and maintenance of the hospital or hospital system; and (3) when requested by the Board of Hospital Managers and approved by the Commissioners Court, for the purpose of making further improvements and additions to the hospital system, and for the acquisition of necessary sites therefor, by purchase, lease or condemnation.

The tax so levied shall be collected on all property subject to Hospital District taxation by the Assessor and Collector of Taxes for the county. All income of the Hospital District shall be deposited in the district depository. Warrants against Hospital District funds shall not require the signature of the County Clerk.

The Commissioners Court shall have the authority to levy the tax aforesaid for the entire year in which the said Hospital District is established, for the purpose of securing funds to initiate the operation of the Hospital District, and to pay assumed bonds.

El Paso County Hospital District; Assessment of Taxes; Rate

Sec. 2c. The Commissioners Court of El Paso County on its own motion may order the Assessor and Collector of Taxes to assess the property in the El Paso County Hospital District at a greater or lesser percentage of its fair cash market value than that used in assessing the property for state and county purposes.

Board of Hospital Managers in Counties of 650,000 to 750,000

Sec. 5(a). Notwithstanding the provision of the preceding section, in counties containing a population of more than 650,000, but less than 750,000 according to the last preceding Federal Census, the Commissioners Court shall appoint a Board of Hospital Managers consisting of not less than five (5) nor more than fifteen (15) members who shall serve for a term of two years with overlapping terms if desired, and upon such conditions, and bearing such responsibilities and duties as otherwise set out within this section.

Art. 4494n-3. Validating Creation and Organization of Hospital Districts with Population of Less Than 40,000

Sec. 1. All proceedings and actions had and taken in the creation of any hospital district created under the provisions of Article IX, Section 9 of the Constitution of Texas, with a population of less than 40,000 according to the last preceding federal census, the appointment or election of directors or the governing body of such districts, and all proceedings and actions had and taken by the board of directors or governing body of such districts in organizing, selecting officers, tax elections, voting, authorizing, selling, and issuing bonds of such districts and all proceedings and actions relating to any of the foregoing, are hereby in all things and all respects ratified, confirmed, approved, and validated, notwithstanding that any of the aforementioned proceedings and actions may not in all respects have been had in accordance with statutory provisions.

Sec. 2. The creation, organization, and the tax election of all of such hospital districts and all proceedings relating thereto are hereby in all things and all respects ratified, confirmed, approved, and validated, notwithstanding that same may not in all respects have been accomplished in accordance with statutory provisions.

Sec. 3. All bonds, including tax and revenue bonds, voted or authorized but undelivered bonds, as well as outstanding bonds authorized, approved, sold, or issued of any hospital district, and all elections at which bonds were voted for any purpose, are hereby in all things and all respects ratified, confirmed, approved, and validated, notwithstanding the fact that the governing body of such district may have failed to comply with all statutory requirements and notwithstanding that any election held by any such district may not in all respects have been ordered and held in accordance with statutory provisions. When the attorney general has approved such bonds and they have been registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas and sold and delivered, they shall be binding, legal, valid, and enforceable obligations of any such district, and said bonds shall be incontestable. Provided, however, that, with respect to bonds required by law to be authorized at an election held within any such district, this Act shall apply only to such bonds as were authorized at an election or elections wherein at least a majority of the votes cast by the qualified voters in the district, voting thereat, were in favor of the issuance of the bonds.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not be construed as validating any proceedings or bonds issued or to be issued, the validity of which is contested or under attack in any suit or litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective, if such suit or litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Sec. 5. If any word, phrase, sentence, or portion of this Act is for any reason held unconstitutional, the unconstitutionality thereof shall not affect the remaining words, phrases, sentences, or portions of the Act.

Additional Bond Issue; Election

Text of section effective January 1, 1982

Sec. 12. If the proceeds of the original bond issue shall be insufficient to complete the construction and/or equipment and/or maintenance and/or purchase of hospital buildings and grounds for such district, or if the Trustees determine to provide for additional construction and/or equipment and/or maintenance and/or purchase of hospital buildings and grounds, they shall certify to said court the necessity for an additional bond issue, stating the amount required, the purpose of same, the rate of interest of said bonds and the time for which they are to run. Said court shall thereupon order an election on the issuance of said bonds to be held within such district at the earliest possible legal time. The outstanding bonds and the additional bonds so ordered shall not exceed in amount one-fourth of the assessed value of the real property in such district, as shown by the latest annual assessment thereof made for county taxation.

Taxes of District; Deposit of Taxes and Other Income

Sec. 4.

Text of subsections (a) and (b) effective January 1, 1982

(a) The Commissioners Court of any county which has voted to create a hospital district shall have the power and the authority, and it shall be its duty, to levy on all property subject to hospital district taxation for the benefit of the district, a tax of not to exceed the amount determined by the Commissioners Court in calling the election and so stated on the ballot in which the district was approved, on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation of all taxable property within the hospital district, for the purpose of (1) paying the interest on and creating a sinking fund for bonds which may have been assumed or which may be issued by the hospital district for hospital purposes, as herein provided; (2) providing for the operation and maintenance of the hospital or hospital system; and (3) for the purpose of making further improvements and additions to the hospital system, and for the acquisition of necessary sites therefor, by purchase, lease or condemnation.

(b) The tax so levied shall be collected on all property subject to hospital district taxation by the assessor and collector of taxes for the county. All income of the hospital district shall be deposited in the district depository. Warrants against hospital district funds shall not require the signature of the county clerk.

Art. 4494r. County Hospital Authority Act

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1]

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this law, “County” means any county in the State of Texas; “Governing Body” means the Commissioners Court of a county; “Authority” means a County Hospital Authority created under this Act; “Board” or “Board of Directors” means the board of directors of the Authority; “bond” or “bonds” means bonds or notes; “Bond Resolution” means the resolution authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds; “Trust Indenture” means the mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument pledging revenues of, or creating a mortgage lien on properties, or both, to secure the revenue bonds issued by the Authority; “Trustee” means the trustee under the Trust Indenture; “Hospital” or “Hospitals” means any “Hospital Project” as defined in Section 3(g) of Senate Bill No. 243, as enacted.
Acts of the 64th Legislature, Regular Session, 1975, as now or hereafter amended.\(^1\)

\(^1\) Classified as art. 4437e–2.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 3]

Board of Directors

Sec. 4. (a) The Authority shall be governed by a Board of Directors consisting of not less than seven (7) nor more than eleven (11) members to be determined at the time of creating the Authority. Unless otherwise provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds or the Trust Indenture securing them, the number of Directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to the order creating the Authority adopted by the Governing Body of the County, but no decrease in number shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent Director. Except as hereinafter in this Section provided, the first Directors shall be appointed by the Governing Body of the County, and they shall serve until their successors are appointed as hereinafter provided. When the Authority issues its revenue bonds the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or the Trust Indenture securing them may prescribe the method of selecting and the term of office of a majority of the members of the Board. The remaining members of the Board shall be appointed by the Governing Body of the County. The Trust Indenture may also provide that, in the event of default as defined in the Trust Indenture, the Trustee may appoint all of the Directors, in which event the terms of the Directors then in office shall automatically terminate. Unless and until provision is made in the Bond Resolution or Indenture in connection with the issuance of bonds for the appointment by other means of part of the Directors, all of the Directors shall be appointed by the Governing Body of the County for terms not to exceed three (3) years, but the terms of Directors appointed prior to the issuance of the first issue of revenue bonds shall be subject to the exercise of the provision herein made for appointment of a majority of the members of the Board in connection with the issuance of the bonds. No officer or employee of any such County shall be eligible for appointment as a Director. Directors shall not receive compensation for services but shall be entitled to reimbursement of their expenses incurred in performing such service.

(b) In the event the Authority purchases from a nonprofit corporation a hospital then in existence or in process of construction, the first members of the Board of Directors and their successors shall be determined as provided in the contract of purchase.

Officers; Quorum; Committees; Manager or Executive Director; Lease; Legal Counsel

Sec. 5. The Board of Directors shall elect from among their members a president and vice president, and shall elect a secretary and a treasurer who may or may not be Directors, and may elect such other officers as may be authorized by Authority's bylaws. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be combined. The president shall have the same right to vote on all matters as other members of the Board. A majority of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum and when a quorum is present action may be taken by a majority vote of Directors present. If the bylaws so provide, the Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the Directors in office, may designate one or more committees, which, to the extent and in the manner provided in such resolution or in the bylaws, shall have and exercise the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Authority. Each such committee shall consist of two or more persons who are directors and may have additional non-voting members who, if such resolution or the bylaws so provide, need not be directors. The Board of Directors may not, however, provide for the delegation to such committees of the Authority of the power to issue bonds, enter into or amend a lease of a Hospital or a management agreement with respect to a Hospital or to employ or discharge a manager or an executive director. The Board may employ a manager or executive director of the Hospital and such other employees, experts and agents as it may see fit, or enter into a management agreement with any person and it may delegate to the manager the power to manage the Hospital and to employ and discharge employees. The Board may lease the Hospital as otherwise provided by law and may employ legal counsel.

Construction, Operation and Equipment of Hospitals; Location; Sale of Real Property

Sec. 6. (a) The Authority shall have the power to construct, enlarge, furnish and equip Hospitals, purchase existing Hospitals, furnishings and equipment for its Hospitals, and to operate and maintain Hospitals. A Hospital must be located within the County creating the Authority.

(b) The Board may sell real property acquired by donation, gift, or purchase that the Board determines is not needed for Hospital purposes if the sale does not contravene (1) a trust indenture or bond resolution relating to outstanding bonds of the Authority or (2) any agreement entered into either prior to or after the effective date of this Section 6(b) between the Authority and a nonprofit corporation under the provisions of the Hospital Project Financing Act (Article 4437e–2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). The Board shall sell the property through sealed bids or at a public auction. If the Board conducts the sale by sealed bids, the Board shall provide notice of the sale in the manner provided by Chapter 455, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969, as amended (Article 5421c–12, Ver-
Revenue Bonds

Sec. 7. The Authority may issue revenue bonds to provide funds for any of its purposes. Such bonds shall be payable from and secured by a pledge of all or any part of the revenues to be derived from the operation of the Hospital or Hospitals and any other revenues resulting from the ownership of the Hospital properties. The bonds may be additionally secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property of the Authority or by a chattel mortgage on its personal property, or by both.

Content of Bonds; Maturity

Sec. 8. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution adopted by a majority vote of a quorum of the Board of Directors, and shall be signed by the president or vice president and countersigned by the secretary, or either or both of their facsimile signatures may be printed thereon. The seal of the Authority shall be impressed or printed thereon. The bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years and may be sold at a price and under terms determined by the Board of Directors to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, provided that the net effective interest rate as defined by law in Article 717k—2 does not exceed ten per cent (10%) per annum, and within the discretion of the Board, may be made callable prior to maturity at such times and prices as may be prescribed in the resolution authorizing the bonds, and may be made registrable as to principal or as to both principal and interest.

Junior Lien Bonds; Parity Bonds

Sec. 10. Bonds constituting a junior lien on the revenues or properties may be issued unless prohibited by the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture. Parity bonds may be issued under conditions specified in the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture.

Money Set Aside Out of Bond Sale Proceeds

Sec. 11. Money for the payment of not more than two (2) years' interest on the bonds and an amount estimated by the Board to be required for operating expenses during the first year of operation and an amount to fund any bond reserve fund or other reserve funds provided for in the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture may be set aside for those purposes out of the proceeds from the sale of the bonds.

Refunding Outstanding Bonds

Sec. 12. Bonds may be issued for the purpose of refunding outstanding bonds in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds, and may be exchanged by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas or sold and the proceeds applied in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Chapter 503, Acts of the Fifty-fourth Legislature 1 or other applicable law.

Operation of Hospital; Rates Charged; Creation of Funds; Lease Conditions

Sec. 14. The Hospital shall be operated without the intervention of private profit for the use and benefit of the public. If the Hospital is not being used, operated, or acquired by a nonprofit corporation under the provisions of the Hospital Project Financing Act (Article 4437e—2, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes) or not leased it shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to charge sufficient rates for services rendered by the Hospital and to utilize other sources of its revenues that revenues will be produced sufficient to pay all expenses in connection with the ownership, operation and upkeep of the Hospital, to pay the interest on the bonds as it becomes due, to create a sinking fund to pay the bonds as they become due, and to create and maintain a bond reserve fund and other funds as provided in the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture. In the event the Hospital is being used, operated, or acquired by a nonprofit corporation under the provisions of the Hospital Project Financing Act (Article 4437e—2, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes) or leased, it shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to provide that such nonprofit corporation or the lessee shall charge sufficient rates for services rendered by the Hospital which together with other sources of such nonprofit corporation’s or the lessee’s revenues will produce revenues sufficient to enable such nonprofit corporation or the lessee to pay all expenses in connection with the operation and upkeep of the Hospital and to make payments or to pay lease rentals to the Authority which will be sufficient, when taken with other pledged sources of the Authority’s estimated revenues, to pay the interest on the bonds as it becomes due, to create a sinking fund to pay the bonds as they become due, and to create and maintain a bond reserve fund and other funds as provided in the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture. The Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture may prescribe systems, methods, routines, procedures, and policies under or in accordance with which the Hospital shall be operated, and in the event the Hospital is being used, operated, or acquired by a nonprofit corporation or leased, the Authority may delegate to such nonprofit corporation or the lessee the duty to establish the systems, methods, routines, procedures, and policies under or in accordance with which the Hospital shall be operated.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 16 to 17]

Investment of Funds and Proceeds of Bonds

Sec. 18. The law as to the security for and the investment of funds, applicable to Counties, shall control, insofar as applicable the investment of funds belonging to Authority. The Bond Resolution or the Indenture or both may further restrict the making of such investments. In addition to other powers Authority shall have the right to invest the proceeds of its bonds, until such money is needed, in the manner authorized in the Bond Resolution or Indenture, and the proceeds of its bond may be deposited in such banks and may be paid out pursuant to such terms as may be provided in the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture.

Repeal

Section 16 of this article is repealed by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 2329, ch. 841, § 6(a)(1), effective January 1, 1982, § 1 of which enacts the Property Tax Code, constituting Title 1 of the Tax Code.

Section 2 of the 1975 amendatory act provided:

"If any word, phrase, clause, sentence or part of this Act shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, it shall not affect any other word, phrase, clause, sentence or part of this Act, and such remaining portions shall remain in full force and effect."

Section 2 of Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1605, ch. 679, provided:

"If any word, phrase, clause, sentence or part of this Act shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, it shall not affect any other word, phrase, clause, sentence, or part of this Act, and such remaining portions shall remain in full force and effect."

Art. 4494r-2.1. Advisory Elections in Issuance of Revenue Bonds

The commissioners court of each county which is authorized by law to issue revenue bonds for and on behalf of a hospital district in the county shall have the option, within its discretion and on its own motion, of calling an advisory election for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not a majority of the resident, qualified electors of the hospital district voting at an election held for such purpose favor the issuance of any such revenue bonds. In the event a commissioners court determines to exercise such option, it is authorized to call an election for such purpose, to be held in accordance with the Texas Election Code, except as hereinafter provided. The order of election shall set forth the date of the election, the proposition to be submitted and voted on, the polling places, the hours during which the polls will be open, and any other matters deemed necessary or advisable by the commissioners court. The expenses of holding the election shall be paid from hospital district funds. Notice of the election shall be given by publishing a substantial copy of the election order one time, at least 10 days prior to the date set for the election, in a newspaper of general circulation in the hospital district. The commissioners court shall canvass the returns and declare the results of the election; but the election shall be advisory only and shall not affect the authority of the commissioners court to issue revenue bonds for and on behalf of the hospital district under any applicable law if no election is required thereby.

Art. 4494r-4. Adoption of Tax Rolls by Hospital Districts Board of Equalizations; Assessment and Collections of Taxes

Text of section effective January 1, 1982

Sec. 1. That a hospital district organized pursuant to the provisions of Article IX, Section 9, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, may appoint its own assessor and collector of taxes for the hospital district.

For text of section effective until January 1, 1982, see Compact Edition, Volume 4

Repeal

Section 2 of this article is repealed by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 2329, ch. 841, § 6(a)(1), effective January 1, 1982, § 1 of which enacts the Property Tax Code, constituting Title 1 of the Tax Code.

Art. 4494r-5. Payment of Current Operating Expenses of County-Wide Hospital District in Counties of 1,000,000 or More

Applicability of Act

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to counties now or hereafter containing a population of 1,000,000 or more according to the last preceding federal census, wherein there exists a county-wide hospital district whose taxes are levied and collected by the commissioners court and which has teaching hospital facilities that are affiliated with a state-owned medical school, such counties hereinafter referred to as "authorized counties."

Revenue Anticipation Agreements Authorized

Sec. 2. The commissioners court of any authorized county is hereby authorized to enter into and execute with any bank or banks or other corporations, partnerships, persons, financial institutions, or lending institutions revenue anticipation agreements in accordance with this Act.

Advances and Repayments: Revenue Anticipation Agreements

Sec. 3. Upon a finding and determination by the commissioners court of an authorized county that the projected revenues and tax collections of and for the hospital district will not be received by the district at the times necessary to pay when due the district's operating and maintenance expenses, the commissioners court may execute a revenue anticipation agreement by which the other contracting party (or parties) agrees to advance to the district, and the authorized county and the district agree to repay (from the sources hereinbelow specified), funds necessary for the operation and maintenance of the district's hospital facilities during the term of the revenue anticipation agreement. The revenue anticipation agreement may be upon such terms as the parties may agree, subject to the following limitations:

(a) The term of the revenue anticipation agreement shall not exceed two years.

(b) Advances made to the district during the term of the agreement shall not be made more frequently than once each month and each shall not be greater in amount than the difference between (i) the accumulated and unpaid operating and maintenance expenses of the district, and (ii) the revenues and income of the district, including tax revenues, actually received by the district to the date of the advance and lawfully available for the purpose of paying such expenses. The party or parties making the advances may conclusively rely on certifications made by authorized officers of the district as to the facts specified in this subsection.

(c) The advances under the revenue anticipation agreement may bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding the rate permitted by law for revenue bonds of the district, shall mature and become due and payable on a date not later than the last day of the term of the revenue anticipation agreement, shall be subject to prepayment without penalty at any time before their maturity date, and they shall not be refunded or in any manner refinanced or extended. The agreement may provide that the rates or rate of interest on the advances may be determined at the time made by reference to such determinative factors and formulae as the parties may agree.

(d) If, in any month during the term of the agreement while advances are outstanding, revenues, including tax revenues, are received and are not required to pay and are not lawfully committed to the payment of other obligations and expenses of the district, the commissioners court shall apply the same upon receipt to the payment or prepayment of any advances at the time outstanding and unpaid under the revenue anticipation agreement, and no advances shall be made under a subsequent revenue anticipation agreement until all advances made under the prior agreement have been paid in full, retired, and canceled.

(e) Advances made under the revenue anticipation agreement shall be and are hereby directed to be secured by and payable, either or both, (1) from a pledge of and lien upon revenues of the district derived from the operation and maintenance of its hospital facilities, and/or (2) from tax revenues when collected, levied for the purpose of operating and maintaining the district's facilities for the year during which the advances are made. Upon default in the payment or repayment of any advances made under the terms of the revenue anticipation agreement when due or when required to be prepaid under the terms of this Act, any district court may be petitioned by mandamus or otherwise to enforce the agreement and prepayment as required by this Act.

Use of Advances

Sec. 4. Funds received from advances made pursuant to revenue anticipation agreements authorized by this Act shall be used solely for the purposes authorized by this Act. However, it shall not be a defense to repayment of advances that the funds have been used for a purpose not authorized hereby. The auditor of the affairs of the hospital district shall concurrently with the regular audit thereof audit the use of said funds and shall certify to the commissioners court whether or not the funds have been used for proper operating and maintenance purposes as authorized hereby.

Bonds or Notes; Ad Valorem Taxes

Sec. 5. (a) The commissioners court of an authorized county is authorized to include in any revenue anticipation agreement provisions pursuant to which the authorized county will agree to execute and deliver, concurrently with the making of advances under the agreement, interest-bearing bonds (which also may be designated as notes) evidencing the obligation of the authorized county and the hospital district to repay the advances made pursuant to the agreement and in accordance therewith and with this Act. Such bonds or notes may be delivered upon such terms and may contain such provisions not inconsistent with Section 3 of this Act as may be prescribed in the revenue anticipation agreement.
(b) The provisions hereof relating to advances shall apply to bonds or notes evidencing the obligation to repay the same issued under this section. It is provided, however, that if such hospital district was created pursuant to the authority granted to the legislature by Article IX, Section 4, of the Texas Constitution and the creation of such hospital district was approved at an election held in such hospital district as required by Article IX, Section 4, of the Texas Constitution or if such hospital district was created pursuant to any other constitutional provision which would permit the levy and pledge of taxes as hereinafter authorized, then regardless of any restrictions in any other law of this state the commissioners court also is authorized in addition to the mandatory security required in Section 3(e) hereof to pay and secure the bonds or notes issued under this section from and by annual ad valorem taxes levied in the hospital district sufficient or to the extent necessary to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds or notes to the extent required therein and in the agreement. If such annual ad valorem taxes are thus pledged it shall be the duty of the commissioners court annually to levy a tax on all taxable property in the hospital district sufficient or to the extent necessary to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds or notes when due, but the rate of the tax, if any, for each year may be fixed after giving consideration to the amount of money estimated to be received from revenues pledged under Section 3 hereof which may be available for the payment of such principal and interest, all to the extent and in the manner provided in the revenue anticipation agreement, but provided further that such annual ad valorem tax together with all other annual ad valorem taxes levied in the hospital district shall never exceed a maximum annual rate of 75 cents on the $100 valuation of all taxable property within such hospital district. Further, if such annual ad valorem taxes are thus pledged, it shall be the duty of the commissioners court during each year while any of the bonds or notes or interest thereon is outstanding and unpaid to compute and ascertain a rate and amount of ad valorem tax, if any, which will be sufficient to raise and produce the money required to make the aforesaid payment to the extent required; and said tax shall be based on the latest approved tax rolls of such hospital district, with full allowance being made for tax delinquencies and the cost of tax collection. Said rate and amount of ad valorem tax shall be levied and ordered to be levied subject to the maximum limitation prescribed above against all taxable property in such hospital district for each year while any of the bonds or notes or interest thereon are outstanding and unpaid; and said tax shall be assessed and collected each such year and used for such purpose to the extent so required.

(c) Upon the issuance, sale, and delivery of bonds or notes under the authority of this section, such bonds or notes shall be incontestable in any court or other forum for any reason and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms and conditions for all purposes. Such bonds or notes shall constitute "investment securities" under the Uniform Commercial Code of Texas. Any such bonds or notes shall be legal and authorized security for public funds of this state and its political subdivisions and shall be legal and authorized investments by all banks, savings banks, savings and loan associations, and insurance companies of all types.

Cumulative Effect; Conflicting Provisions

Sec. 6. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the execution of revenue anticipation agreements and the issuance of bonds or notes to evidence obligations to repay advances made thereunder and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby without reference to any other laws or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided; and when any bonds are being issued pursuant to the authority of this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control.

period in which state agencies abolished effective September 1 of 1989 and of every 12th year after 1989 are reviewed.

1 Article 5429k.

Amount and Proportioning of Loans, Grants and Scholarships; Repayment; Credit for Rural Practice; Default

Sec. 7. Applicants who are granted loans, grants or scholarships by the Board shall receive an amount which may defray his or her tuition and other expenses in any reputable, accepted and accredited medical school or medical college or school listed by the World Health Organization, or a scholarship to any such medical college or school for a term not exceeding four (4) years, same to be paid at such time and in such manner as may be determined by the Board. The loans, grants and scholarships herein provided may be proportioned in any such manner as to pay to the medical school to which any applicant is admitted such funds as are required by that school, and the balance to be paid directly to the applicant; all of which shall be under such terms and conditions as may be provided under rules and regulations of the Board. The said loans, grants, or scholarships shall be based upon the condition that the full amount thereof shall be repaid to the State of Texas in cash in full with five percent interest from the date of each payment by the State on such loan, grant or scholarship or by satisfaction of other conditions of the Board or this Act. If the applicant practices his profession in a rural area as defined by the Board, the said loans and grants may, in its discretion, upon payment by an applicant default under his contract at any time the full principal and accrued interest plus a penalty of 10% shall then be made available to Texas residents who attend a medical school outside the United States. Applicants for license under the provisions of this Act shall be in writing, and upon a form prescribed by the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners. Said application shall be accompanied by a diploma or photograph thereof, awarded to the applicant by a reputable medical college, and in the case of an Army Officer or Naval Officer, a certified transcript, or a certificate, or license, or commission issued to the applicant by the Medical Corps of the United States Army or Navy, or by a license, or a certified copy of license to practice medicine, lawfully issued to the applicant, upon examination, by some other State or Territory of the United States; provided that the licensing board of such other State or Territory in its examination requires the same general degree of fitness required by this State and grants the same reciprocal privileges to persons licensed by the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners of this State. Said application shall also be accompanied by an affidavit made by an executive officer of the United States Army or Navy, the President or Secretary of the Board of Medical Examiners which issued the license, or by a duly constituted registration officer of the State or Territory by which the certificate or license was granted, and on which the application for medical registration in Texas is based, reciting that the accompanying certificate or license has not been cancelled, suspended or revoked, except by honorable discharge from the Medical Corps of the United States Army or Navy, and that the statement of the qualifications made in the application for medical license in Texas is true and correct. Applicants for license under the provisions of this Act shall subscribe to an oath in writing before an officer authorized by law to administer oaths, which shall be a part of such application, stating that the applicant will practice medicine in the State of Texas for two (2) years immediately prior to becoming an applicant hereunder.

Priority for Texas Residents

Sec. 7A. Texas residents who attend a medical school within the United States shall have first priority in the distribution of loan funds. Funds shall then be made available to Texas residents who attend a medical school outside the United States. A "Texas resident," as used in this Act, shall be a person who has actually resided in the State of Texas for two (2) years immediately prior to becoming an applicant hereunder.
time of such removal in full force and not cancelled or suspended or revoked. Said application shall also state that the applicant is or suspended or revoked.

such certificate, license, or authority to practice medicine in the State or Territory in which the same was issued; and that no prosecution is pending against the applicant in any State or Federal Court for any offense which under the laws of the State of Texas is a felony. A reputable physician under the meaning of this Act shall be one who would be eligible for examination by the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners. A reputable medical college within the meaning of this Act shall be such as is defined in Article 4501 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended. It is provided, however, that the Board may, in its discretion, grant a license to any reputable physician of another State or Territory, who graduated prior to 1907 from a medical college which at the time of his graduation required only three (3) courses of instruction of not less than six (6) months each for attainment of its diploma, or the Degree of Doctor of Medicine, and which, at the time of his graduation, was generally recognized by the medical examining boards of the States or Territories as maintaining entrance requirements and courses of instruction equal to those maintained by the then better class of medical schools of the United States; provided that the provisions of all other laws of this State are complied with.

Art. 4501b. Foreign Medical School Students

Eligibility for License

Sec. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an individual who has been a student of a foreign medical school is eligible for licensure to practice medicine in this state if he has satisfied the following requirements:

(1) has studied medicine in a medical school located outside the United States which is listed by the World Health Organization;

(2) has completed all of the didactic work of the foreign medical school;

(3) has attained a score satisfactory to a medical school in the United States approved by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education on a qualifying examination and has satisfactorily completed one academic year of supervised clinical training for foreign medical students as defined by the American Medical Association Council on Medical Education under the direction of the medical school in the United States;

(4) has attained a passing score on the Educational Council for Foreign Medical Graduates examination, or other examination, if required by the State Board of Medical Examiners; and

(5) has passed the examination required by the State Board of Medical Examiners of all applicants for licensure.

Additional Requirements for License

Sec. 2. Satisfaction of the requirements of Section 1 of this Act shall be in lieu of the completion of any requirements of the foreign medical school beyond completion of the didactic work, and no other requirements shall be a condition of licensure to practice medicine in this state.

Certification by Educational Council for Foreign Medical Graduates Unnecessary

Sec. 3. Satisfaction of the requirements specified in Section 1 of this Act shall be in lieu of certification by the Educational Council for Foreign Medical Graduates, and such certification shall not be a condition of licensure to practice medicine in this state for candidates who have completed the requirements of Section 1 of this Act.

Hospitals; Additional Requirements

Sec. 4. No hospital licensed by this state, or operated by the state or a political subdivision of the state, or which receives state financial assistance, directly or indirectly, shall require an individual who has been a student of a foreign medical school to satisfy any requirements other than those contained in Subdivisions (1), (2), (3), and (4) of Section 1 of this Act prior to commencing an internship or residency.

Documents or Degrees From Foreign Medical Schools

Sec. 5. A document granted by a medical school located outside the United States which is listed by the World Health Organization issued after the completion of all the didactic work of the foreign medical school shall, on certification by the medical school in the United States in which such training was received of satisfactory completion by the person to whom the document was issued of the requirements listed in Subdivision (3) of Section 1 of this Act, be deemed the equivalent of a degree of doctor of medicine for purposes of licensure and practice of medicine in this state and shall possess all the rights and privileges thereof, including the use of the title "Doctor of Medicine" and the suffix "M.D."

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 462, ch. 197, eff. April 29, 1975.]

Art. 4502. Disposition of Fees; Compensation of Members of Board

The fund realized from all fees payable under this Act shall first be applied to the payment of all necessary expenses of the Board, and the remainder is to be applied by order of the Board to compensate members of the Board, said compensation to each member of the Board to be One Hundred Dollars ($100) per day for any number of days which any such member may be active on business of the Board, whether such business consists of regular meetings, committee work for the Board, grading papers, or any other function which is a legitimate and proper function held to be necessary by the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners; provided, however, that no member of said Board shall be paid a per diem in excess of sixty (60) days of any calendar year. Said daily compensation shall be exclusive of the necessary costs of travel of any Board member, or any other expenses necessary to the performance of his duty. Provided also, that the premium on any bond required by the Board of any officer or employee of the Board shall be paid out of said fund, as well as the necessary expenses of any employee incurred in the performance of his duties.
[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 296, ch. 127, § 1, eff.
May 8, 1975.]

Art. 4511a. Authorized Supplementary Fees that may be Charged by the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners

The Texas State Board of Medical Examiners, in addition to fees authorized heretofore, may charge, collect, receive, and deposit for the use of the board in the manner and for the purposes heretofore provided a reasonable supplementary fee of not more than the following fees for performance of the following duties and functions:

For processing and granting license by reciprocity to licensee of another state .................................. $100

For processing application and administration of complete examination for licensure .................................. $100

For processing application and administration of partial examination for licensure on preclinical subjects $ 85

For processing application and administration of partial examination for licensure on clinical subjects ...... $ 25

For processing application and issuance of a temporary license ...... $ 15

For processing application and issuance of a duplicate license ...... $ 25

For processing application and issuance of license of reinstatement after lapse or cancellation of license. $100

For processing application and issuance of annual registration of licensee .................................. $ 15

For processing and issuance of intitutional permit for interns, residents, and others in approved medical training programs ......................... $ 25

For processing application and issuance of endorsement to other state medical boards ........................ $ 15

For processing application and cer-tification to other state boards of applicants’ grades in basic science examination ................................ $ 25

The board of medical examiners shall set and collect a sales charge for making copies of any paper of record in the office of the board, and for any printed material published by the board, such charges to be in an amount deemed sufficient to reimburse the board for the actual expense.
[Added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 393, ch. 140, § 1, eff.
June 19, 1975.]

Section 2 of the 1975 Act provided: “If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision.”

Art. 4511b. Authority to Receive Criminal Records and Fingerprint Reports

The Texas State Board of Medical Examiners shall have the authority to receive criminal records or reports from any law enforcement agency or source pertaining to its licensees or any applicant for license and, provided further, the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners shall submit to the Texas Department of Public Safety a complete set of fingeprint files of every applicant for license and the Department of Public Safety shall cause same to be classified and checked against those in their finger-print files and shall forthwith certify their findings concerning the criminal record of the applicant or shall report the lack of same, as the case may be, to the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners.

All criminal records and reports received from the Department of Public Safety shall be for the exclusive use of the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners and shall be privileged and shall not be released or otherwise disclosed to any person or agency by the board except upon court order. Any applicant for licensure or any licensee whose license is subject to revocation, cancellation, or suspension because of adverse information contained in such criminal records or reports shall be afforded the opportunity for a hearing before the board prior to any action on the application for license or revocation, cancellation, or suspension of license.
[Added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 948, ch. 356, § 1, eff.
June 19, 1975.]

Section 2 of the 1975 Act provided:
“If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision.”

Art. 4511c. Authority to Extend Temporary
License

Notwithstanding other provisions of law, the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners shall, at its discretion, have the authority to extend the expiration date of a temporary license for a period not to exceed one year if such extension of expiration date is, in the opinion of the board, in the best interest of the public.

CHAPTER SIX ½. ABORTION

Art. 4512.7. Right Not to Perform Abortions

Personnel Not Required to Participate in Abortion Procedures

Sec. 1. A physician, nurse, staff member, or employee of a hospital or other health care facility who objects to performing or participating, directly or indirectly, in an abortion procedure may not be required to perform or participate, directly or indirectly, in an abortion procedure.

Private Hospitals Not Required to Make Facilities Available

Sec. 2. A private hospital or private health care facility may not be required to make its facilities available for the performance of an abortion unless a physician determines that the life of the mother is immediately endangered.

Discrimination Prohibited

Sec. 3. A hospital or health care facility may not discriminate in any manner against a physician, nurse, staff person, or employee who objects to performing or participating in an abortion procedure. No physician, nurse, staff person, or employee shall be discriminated against for their willingness to participate in abortion procedures at other facilities. An educational institution may not discriminate against applicants for admission or employment as students, interns, or residents because of their attitudes concerning abortion.

Remedies

Sec. 4. A person whose rights under this Act are violated may sue a hospital, health care facility, or educational institution in district court in the county where the hospital, facility, or institution is located to enjoin further violations of this Act and for such affirmative relief as may be appropriate, including, but not limited to, admission or reinstatement of employment with back pay plus 10 percent interest, and any other relief necessary to ensure compliance with the provisions of this Act.

[Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1870, ch. 745, §§ 1 to 4, eff. Sept. 29, 1977.]

CHAPTER SIX A. CHIROPRACTORS

Art. 4512a. Responsibilities Delegated to Physician Assistants

(a) The Texas State Board of Medical Examiners by rule shall adopt standards to regulate the extent to which a physician licensed by the board may delegate his or her responsibilities as a physician to a physician assistant. The standards shall take into consideration:

1. the skill of the physician assistant to whom the physician is to delegate the responsibility;
2. the skill of the physician who is to delegate the responsibility;
3. the nature of the responsibility delegated;
4. the extent and nature of the supervision that the physician is to give to the physician assistant to whom the responsibility is delegated;
5. the risks to the patient who is the subject of the delegated responsibility; and
6. other factors considered relevant by the board.

(b) A physician licensed by the board shall comply with the standards adopted by the board as provided by this article.

[Added by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1554, ch. 670, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1979.]

Art. 4512b. Practice of Chiropractic

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1 and 2]

Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners Created; Personnel and Terms; Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 3.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 3(a) and (b)]

(c) The Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1981.

Annual Registration Renewal

Sec. 8. It shall be unlawful for any person who shall be licensed for the practice of chiropractic by the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners as created by this Act, unless such person be registered as such practitioner with the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners on or before the first day of January A.D. 1950, or thereafter registered in like manner annually as provided by this Act on or before the first day of January, each year, to practice chiropractic in this State. Each person so licensed and registered shall be deemed to have complied with the... requirements and prerequisites of the laws governing the practice of chiropractic in this State. Each person so registered with the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners shall pay in connection with each annual registration and for the receipt hereafter provided for, a fee fixed by the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners not to exceed Fifty Dollars ($50), which fee shall accompany the application of every such person for registration. Such payment shall be made to the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners. Every person so registered shall file with said Board a written application for annual registration, setting forth his full name, his age, post office address, his place of residence, the county or counties in which his certificate entitled him to practice chiropractic has been registered, and the place or places where he is engaged in the practice of chiropractic, as well as the college of chiropractic from which he graduated, and the number and date of his license certificate. Upon receipt of such application, accompanied by the registration fee, the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners, after ascertaining either from the records of the Board or from other sources deemed by it to be reliable, that the applicant is a licensed practitioner of chiropractic in this State, shall issue to the applicant an annual registration receipt certifying that the applicant has filed such application and has paid the registration fee mentioned for the year in question; provided, that the filing of such application, the payment of the registration fee and the issuance of such receipt shall not entitle the holder thereof to lawfully practice chiropractic within the State of Texas unless he has in fact been previously licensed as such chiropractor by the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners, as prescribed by law, and has recorded his license certificate entitling him to practice, as issued by said Board, in the district clerk's office of the several counties in which the same may be required by law to be recorded, and unless his license to practice chiropractic is in full force and effect; and provided further that, in any prosecution for the unlawful practice of chiropractic as denounced in Section 6 hereof, such receipt showing payment of the annual registration fee required by this Section shall not be treated as evidence that the holder thereof is lawfully entitled to practice chiropractic.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 8a to 9]

Examination of Applicants for License; Persons Practicing or Beginning Study Before Date of Act

Sec. 10. All applicants for license to practice chiropractic in this State, not otherwise licensed under the provisions of this law, must successfully pass an examination by the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners established by this law. The Board is authorized to adopt and enforce rules of procedure not inconsistent with the statutory requirements. All applicants shall be eligible for examination who are citizens of the United States and present satisfactory evidence to the Board that they are more than twenty-one (21) years of age, of good moral character, have completed sixty (60) semester hours of college courses, other than a chiropractic school, and are graduates of bona fide reputable chiropractic schools (whose entrance requirements and course of instruction are as high as those of the better class of chiropractic schools in the United States); a reputable chiropractic school shall maintain a resident course of instruction equivalent to not less than four (4) terms of eight (8) months each, or a resident course of not less than the number of semester hours required by The University of Texas for the granting of a Bachelor of Arts degree; shall give a course of instruction in the fundamental subjects named in Section 12 of this Act; and shall have the necessary teaching force and facilities for proper instruction in all of said subjects. Applications for examination must be made in writing, verified by affidavit, and filed with the secretary of the Board, on forms prescribed by the Board, accompanied by a fee of Fifty Dollars ($50). All applicants shall be given due notice of the date and place of such examination.

The Board shall grant a license without a written examination to an applicant that holds a National Board of Chiropractic Examiners certificate who meets the requirements of this chapter and who has satisfactorily passed a personal interview and a practical examination and has paid an additional fee of Fifty Dollars ($50). The Board shall periodically determine to its satisfaction whether those applicants who hold National Board of Chiropractic Examiners certificates have been adequately examined. When the Board determines that those applicants have not been adequately examined, the Board shall require those applicants to be examined in accordance with other provisions of this Act.

If any applicant, because of failure to pass the required examination, shall be refused a license, he or she, at such time as the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners may fix, not exceeding one (1) year, shall be permitted to take a subsequent examination, upon such subjects required in the original examination as the Board may prescribe except that the applicant shall not be required to take a re-examination on subjects in which he has made a grade of seventy-five per cent (75%) or more, provided the applicant shall apply for re-examination within one (1) year upon the payment of such part of Fifty Dollars ($50) as the Board may determine and state. In the event satisfactory grades shall be made in the subjects prescribed and taken on such re-examination, the Board shall grant to the applicant a license to practice chiropractic. The Board shall determine the grade to be given the examinees on the answers turned in on the subjects of complete and partial examination, and its decision thereupon shall be final.

Provided, however, that those who are regularly engaged in the practice of chiropractic in this State on April 18, 1949, and who have completed a resident course and hold diplomas from schools recognized by the Board as being regularly organized and conducted as chiropractic schools at the time of the issuance of such diplomas, shall be licensed under this Act, provided they apply therefor within six (6) months after the effective date of this Act, and provided further that they shall meet the provisions of this Act with reference to citizenship, age, and good moral character; and

Provided that those who have begun the study of chiropractic prior to the effective date of this Act in institutions regularly organized and conducted as chiropractic schools shall be licensed under this Act, provided they complete a standard chiropractic resident course of one hundred and twenty (120) semester hours in such school or schools and receive diplomas therefrom; and provided further that they shall meet the provisions of this Act with reference to citizenship, age, and good moral character.

The Board may not establish examination requirements for a license in addition to the requirements provided in this section.

Conduct of Examinations; Subjects

Sec. 12. All examinations for license to practice chiropractic shall be conducted in writing in the English language and in such manner as to be entirely fair and impartial to all applicants. All applicants shall be known to the examiners only by numbers, without names or other method of identification on examination papers by which members of the Board may be able to identify such applicants, or examinees, until after the general averages of the examinees' numbers in the class have been determined, and license granted or refused. Examinations shall be conducted on practical and theoretical chiropractic and in the subjects of anatomy-histology, chemistry, bacteriology, physiology, symptomatology, pathology and analysis of the human spine, and hygiene and public health. Upon satisfactory examination, conducted as aforesaid under the rules of the Board, which shall consist of an average grade of not less than seventy-five per cent (75%) with not less than sixty per cent (60%) in any one subject, applicants shall be granted license to practice chiropractic. All questions and answers, with the grades attached, authenticated by the signature of the examiner, shall be preserved in the executive office of the Board for one (1) year. All applicants examined at the same time shall be given identical questions. All certificates shall be attested by the seal of the Board, and signed by all members of the Board, or a quorum thereof.

Section 3 of Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 22, ch. 15, read: "If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word in this Act, or application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity."

Art. 4512b(1). Peer Review

Definition

Sec. 1. In this article “chiropractor” means a person licensed to practice chiropractic by the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners.

Peer Review Committee

Sec. 2. The chiropractors practicing in this state may elect from their membership a committee which may be denominated a chiropractic peer review committee. The committee shall be elected or appointed by the organization forming such peer review committee.

Duties

Sec. 3. The chiropractic peer review committee shall:

1. Review and evaluate chiropractic treatment and services in disputes involving a chiropractor and a patient or a person obligated to pay a fee for chiropractic services or treatment rendered; and

2. Act as arbitrator in a dispute involving a chiropractor and a patient or person obligated to pay a fee for chiropractic services or treatment.

Liability of Committee Member in Civil Action

Sec. 4. Unless fraud, conspiracy, or malice can be shown, a member of a chiropractic peer review committee is not liable in a civil action for a finding, evaluation, recommendation, or other action made or taken by him as a member of the committee, or by the committee.

Conflict of Interest

Sec. 5. A member of a chiropractic peer review committee may not participate in committee deliberations or other activities involving chiropractic services or treatment rendered or performed by him.

Rights or Remedies Not Deprived

Sec. 6. Except for the express immunity provided by Section 4 of this article, this article deprives no person of a right or remedy, legal or equitable. [Added by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 686, ch. 266, § 1, eff. May 22, 1975.]

Provided, however, that those who are regularly engaged in the practice of chiropractic in this State on April 18, 1949, and who have completed a resident course and hold diplomas from schools recognized by the Board as being regularly organized and conducted as chiropractic schools at the time of the issuance of such diplomas, shall be licensed under this Act, provided they apply therefor within six (6) months after the effective date of this Act, and provided further that they shall meet the provisions of this Act with reference to citizenship, age, and good moral character; and
Art. 4512b(2). Civil Immunity, Official Acts

In the absence of fraud, conspiracy, or malice, no member of the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners, its employees, nor any witness called to testify by said board, nor any consultant or hearing officer appointed by said board shall be liable or subject to suit or suits for damages for alleged injury, wrong, loss, or damage allegedly caused by any of said persons for any investigation, report, recommendation, statement, evaluation, finding, order, or award made in the courts of any of said persons' performing assigned, designated, official or statutory duties. This immunity is enacted to relieve and protect the persons named from being harassed and threatened with legal action while attempting to perform official duties.

[Added by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 606, ch. 217, § 1, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Section 2 and 3 of the 1977 Act provided:
"Sec. 2. All laws or parts of laws in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed."

"Sec. 3. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word in this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance for any reason is held invalid or unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining portions of this Act, and the legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portions of this Act despite such invalidity or unconstitutionality of any part or portion thereof."

CHAPTER SIX B. PSYCHOLOGY

Art. 4512c. Psychologists' Certification and Licensing Act

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1]

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Board" means the Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists provided for by this Act.

(b) A person represents himself to be a "psychologist" within the meaning of this Act when he holds himself out to the public by any title or description of services incorporating the words "psychological," "psychologist," or "psychology," or offers to render or renders psychological services to individuals, corporations, or the public for compensation.

(c) The term "psychological services," means acts or behaviors coming within the purview of the practice of psychology, including, but not limited to, the application of psychological principles to the evaluation and remediation of learning, emotional, interpersonal, and behavioral disorders.

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 4a. The Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1981.

1 Article 5429k.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 5 to 7]

Powers of the Board

Sec. 8. (a) In addition to the powers and duties granted the Board by other provisions of this Act, the Board may make all rules, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this state, which are reasonably necessary for the proper performance of its duties and regulations of proceedings before it. The Board shall adopt and publish a Code of Ethics.

(b) The Board may certify specialties within the field of psychological services and may employ consultants when necessary for the implementation of this Act. The Board shall adopt rules applicable to the certification of specialties and to the employment of consultants. Specialty certifications by the Board may include certifications for clinical psychologists, counseling psychologists, industrial psychologists, and school psychologists.

Qualification of Applicant for Examination for Certification

Sec. 11. An applicant is qualified to take the examination for certification as a psychologist:

(a) if he has received the doctoral degree based upon a program of studies whose content was primarily psychological from an accredited educational institution or its substantial equivalent in both subject matter and extent of training,

(b) if he is at least twenty-one years of age,

(c) if he is a resident of this state,

(d) if he is of good moral character,

(e) if he is a citizen of the United States or has legally declared his intention of becoming a citizen,

(f) if, in the judgment of the Board, he is physically and mentally competent to render psychological services with reasonable skill and safety to his patients and is afflicted with no disease or condition, either mental or physical, which would impair his competency to render psychological services, and

(g) if he has not been convicted of a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude, is not intermarried in the use of or addicted to any drug, has not been guilty of fraud or deceit in making his application, and has not aided or abetted a person, not a licensed psychologist, in representing himself as a psychologist in this state.
Sec. 16. The certification fee, the licensing fee, the specialty certification fee, and the renewal fees shall be an amount fixed by the Board. The Board shall fix the amount of the fees so that the total fees collected will be sufficient to meet the expenses of administering this Act and so that unnecessary surpluses in the Psychologist Licensing Fund are avoided.

Certification—Expiration—Renewal

Sec. 17A. (a) the activities and services of a person who is not a resident of this state and who has no established offices in this state in rendering consulting or other psychological service when these activities and services are rendered for a period which does not exceed in the aggregate more than thirty days during any year if the person is authorized under the laws of the state or country of his residence to perform these activities and services;

(b) the activities and services of a student, intern or resident in psychology, pursuing a course of study in preparation for the profession of psychology under qualified supervision in recognized training institutions or facilities, if these activities and services constitute a part of his supervised course of study, provided that such an individual is designated by a title such as "psychological intern," "psychological trainee," or others clearly indicating such training status;

(c) the activities and services of a person who is not a resident of this state and who has no established offices in this state in rendering consulting or other psychological service when these activities and services are rendered for a period which does not exceed in the aggregate more than thirty days during any year if the person is authorized under the laws of the state or country of his residence to perform these activities and services;

(d) a sociologist who holds a doctoral degree in sociology or social psychology awarded by a recognized institution of higher learning and who elects to represent himself to the public by the title "social psychologist," provided that he has notified the Board of his intention to represent himself as such;

(e) registered nurses licensed by the laws of this state and practicing in accordance with the standards of professional conduct and ethics promulgated by rules and regulations of the Board of Nurse Examiners;

(f) the activities and services of qualified members of other professional groups such as physicians, attorneys, school counselors, marriage or family counselors, social workers, Christian Scientist practitioners who are duly recognized by the Church of Christ Scientist as registered and published in the Christian Science Journal, or duly ordained religions from doing work of a psychological nature consistent with their training and consistent with any code of ethics of their respective professions, provided that they do not represent themselves by any title or in any manner prohibited by this Act;

(g) the services of a licensed optometrist in the evaluation and remediation of learning or behavioral disabilities associated with or caused by a defective or abnormal condition of vision.
Revocation, Cancellation or Suspension of License or Certification

Sec. 23. The Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists shall have the right to cancel, revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew the license or certification of any psychologist upon proof that the psychologist:

(a) has been convicted of a felony or of a violation of the law involving moral turpitude by any court; the conviction of a felony shall be the conviction of any offense which if committed within this state would constitute a felony under the laws of this state; or

(b) is or has had the habit of intemperance or drug addiction such as the use of morphine, opium, cocaine, or other drugs having similar effect; or

(c) has been guilty of fraud or deceit in connection with his services rendered as a psychologist; or

(d) has aided or abetted a person, not a licensed psychologist, in representing himself as a psychologist within this state; or

(e) has been guilty of unprofessional conduct as defined by the rules established by the Board; or

(f) for any cause for which the Board shall be authorized to refuse to admit persons to its examination.

Proceedings under this section shall be begun by filing charges with the Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists in writing and under oath. Said charges may be made by any person or persons. The Chairman of the Board shall set a time and place for hearing, and shall cause a copy of the charges, together with a notice of the time and place fixed for hearing, to be served on the respondent or his counsel at least ten (10) days prior thereto.

When personal service is impossible, or cannot be effected, the Board shall cause to be published once a week for two (2) successive weeks a notice of the hearing in a newspaper published in the county wherein the respondent was last known to live, and shall mail a copy of the charges and of such notice to the respondent at his last known address. When publication of the notice is necessary, the date of hearing shall not be less than ten (10) days after the date of the last publication of the notice. At said hearing the respondent shall have the right to appear either personally or by counsel, or both, to produce witnesses or evidence in his behalf, to cross-examine witnesses, and to have subpoenas issued by the Board. The Board shall thereafter determine the charges upon their merits. All charges, complaints, notices, orders, records, and publications authorized or required by the terms of this Act shall be privileged.

Any person whose license or certification has been cancelled, revoked or suspended by the Board, or whose license or certification the Board has refused to renew for any reason, including the person’s refusal to submit to a physical or mental examination requested by the Board, may, within twenty (20) days after the making and entering of such order, take an appeal to any of the district courts in the county of his residence, but the decision of the Board shall not be enjoined or stayed except on application to such district court after notice to the Board. The proceeding on appeal shall be under the substantial evidence rule, and which appeal shall be taken in any District Court of the county in which the person whose certificate of registration or license is involved resides. Upon application, the Board may recertify the applicant or reissue a license to a person whose license has been cancelled or suspended, but such application, in the case of cancellation or revocation, shall not be made prior to one (1) year after the cancellation or revocation and shall be made in such manner and form as the Board may require.

Provided, however, that the Board shall have the right and may, upon majority vote, rule that the order revoking, cancelling, or suspending the psychologists’ license or certification be probated so long as the probationer conforms to such orders and rules as the Board may set out as the terms of probation. The Board, at the time of probation, shall set out the period of time which shall constitute the probationary period. Provided further, that the Board may at any time while the probationer remains on probation hold a hearing, and upon majority vote, rescind the probation and enforce the Board’s original action in revoking, cancelling, or suspending the psychologists’ license or certification, the said hearing to rescind the probation shall be called by the Chairman of the Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists who shall cause to be issued a notice setting a time and place for the hearing and containing the charges or complaints against the probationer, said notice to be served on the probationer or his counsel at least ten (10) days prior to the time set for the hearing. When personal service is impossible, or cannot be effected, the same provisions for service in lieu of personal service as heretofore set out in this Act shall apply. At said hearing the respondent shall have the right to appear either personally or by counsel or both, to produce witnesses or evidence in his behalf, to cross-examine witnesses, and to have subpoenas issued by the Board. The Board shall thereafter determine the charges upon their merits. All charges, complaints, notices, orders, records, and publications authorized or required by the terms of this Act shall be privileged. The order revoking or rescinding the probation shall not be subject to review or appeal.
Enforcement of Competency Requirements

Sec. 24A. (a) If the Board reasonably believes that a person applying to take the certification examination, or applying for renewal of certification, is not physically and mentally competent to render psychological services with reasonable skill and safety to his patients, or is afflicted with a disease or condition, either physical or mental, which would impair his competency to render psychological services, the Board may request that that person submit to a physical examination by a medical doctor approved by the Board or submit to a mental examination by a medical doctor or licensed psychologist approved by the Board.

(b) If the applicant or person seeking renewal of certification refuses to submit to the examination, the Board may request that that person submit to the examination. Notice shall be given either by personal service or by registered mail return receipt requested. At the hearing the person may appear personally and by counsel and present evidence in justification of his refusal to submit to the examination. After a complete hearing the Board shall issue an order either requiring the person to submit to the examination or withdrawing the request for the examination. Unless the request is withdrawn the person who has refused to take the examination may not take the certification examination, and is not entitled to renewal of his certification. An appeal from the order of the Board may be made under Section 23 of this Act.

CHAPTER SIX C. ATHLETIC TRAINERS

Art. 4512d. Advisory Board of Athletic Trainers

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Board" means the Advisory Board of Athletic Trainers.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1(1)]

(2) "Board" means the Advisory Board of Athletic Trainers.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1(3) and (4)]

Advisory Board of Athletic Trainers

Sec. 2. (a) The Advisory Board of Athletic Trainers, composed of six members, is created. The board is created as a part of the State Department of Health and shall perform its duties as a board within the State Department of Health. To qualify as a member, a person must be a citizen of the United States and a resident of Texas for five years immediately preceding appointment. Members must be licensed athletic trainers.

(b) The members of the board shall be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. Except for the initial appointees, members hold office for terms of six years. The terms expire on January 31 of odd-numbered years.

(c) Each appointee to the board shall qualify by taking the constitutional oath of office within 15 days from the date of his appointment. On presentation of the oath, the secretary of state shall issue commissions to appointees as evidence of their authority to act as members of the board.

(d) In the event of death, resignation, or removal of any member, the vacancy of the unexpired term shall be filled by the governor in the same manner as other appointments.

Appropriations to Department of Health

Sec. 2A. The State Department of Health may expend funds appropriated to it for the purpose of implementing the provisions of this Act.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 3(a)]

(b) The board shall meet at least twice a year. Additional meetings may be held on the call of the chairman or at the written request of any three members of the board.

(c) The quorum required for any meeting of the board is four members. No action by the board or its members has any effect unless a quorum of the board is present.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 3 to 7]

Physical Therapist License

Sec. 8. (a) An applicant for a license as a physical therapist shall file a written application on forms provided by the board together with an examination fee of $50 which is refundable if the applicant does not take the examination; and an application fee of $25 which is not refundable. The applicant shall present evidence satisfactory to the board that he is of good moral character and that he has completed an accredited curriculum in physical therapy education which has provided adequate instruction in the basic sciences, clinical sciences, and physical therapy theory and procedures as determined by the board and:

(1) has completed a minimum of 60 academic semester credits or its equivalent from a recognized college which semester hour credits are acceptable for transfer to The University of Texas, including courses in the biological, social, and physical sciences; or

(2) has received a diploma from an accredited school of professional nursing.

(b) The board shall issue a license to each applicant who passes the examination, meets the qualifications set out in Subsection (a) of this section, and has not committed an act which constitutes grounds for denial of a license under Section 19 of this Act.

Physical Therapist Assistant License

Sec. 9. (a) An applicant for a physical therapist assistant license shall file a written application with the board on forms provided by the board together with an examination fee of $45 which is refundable if the applicant does not take the examination; and an application fee of $25 which is not refundable. The applicant shall present evidence that he is of good moral character and has completed a program of at least two years duration offered by a college accredited by a recognized accrediting agency including elementary or intermediate courses in the anatomical, biological, physical sciences, and clinical procedures as prescribed and approved by the board.

(b) The board shall issue a license to each applicant who passes the examination, meets the qualifications set out in Subsection (a) of this section, and has not committed an act which constitutes grounds for denial of a license under Section 19 of this Act.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 10 to 15A]

Renewal of an Expired License

Sec. 16. (a) A license which has expired for less than five years from the date of application for renewal may be renewed by submission of an application form prescribed by the board, payment of a $2 fee for each year the license was expired without renewal, and payment of a $50 restoration fee.

(b) A license which has expired for more than five years may be reinstated only by complying with the requirements and procedures for issuing the original license.

Penalties; Enforcement

Sec. 18.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 18(a) to 18(o)]

(d) The Attorney General or any District or County Attorney may institute any injunction proceedings or such other proceedings as to enforce the provisions of the Act, and to enjoin any physical therapist, physical therapist assistant, or any other person from the practice of physical therapy without having complied with the provisions hereof, and shall forfeit to the State of Texas the sum of $50 per day as a penalty for each day’s violation, to be recovered in a suit by the District or County Attorney, and/or the Attorney General.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 795, ch. 307, §§ 1 to 4, eff. May 27, 1975; Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1838, ch. 735, § 2.043, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

CHAPTER SIX E. SOCIAL PSYCHOTHERAPY

Art. 4512f. Social Psychotherapist Regulation Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Social Psychotherapist Regulation Act.
Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) A person represents himself to be a "social psychotherapist" within the meaning of this Act if he states or implies he is a "social psychotherapist," or uses the letters "S.P." as part of his professional identification in conjunction with his name.

(2) The term "social psychotherapy" includes acts or behaviors coming within the purview of the practice of social psychotherapy as defined in this Act.

(3) The practice of social psychotherapy means a service in which a special knowledge of social resources, human capabilities, and the part conscious and unconscious motivation plays in determining behavior, is directed at helping people to achieve more adequate, satisfying, and productive emotional adjustments. The application of social psychotherapy includes, but is not restricted to, counseling and using applied psychotherapy of a nonmedical nature with individuals, families, and groups, and doing related research.

(4) Psychotherapy, within the meaning of this Act, is the use of psychotherapeutic methods within a professional relationship to assist the person or persons to achieve a better emotional adaptation, to acquire greater realization of human potential and adaptation, to modify internal and external conditions that affect individuals or groups with respect to behavior, emotions, and thinking with respect to intrapersonal and interpersonal process.

(5) "Board" means the Texas State Board of Examiners in Social Psychotherapy.

(6) "Department" means the State Department of Health.

Practice of Medicine Not Authorized

Sec. 3. Nothing in this Act permits the practice of medicine as defined by the laws of this state.

State Board

Sec. 4. The Texas State Board of Examiners in Social Psychotherapy is created. The board consists of six qualified persons appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. Except for those members first appointed to the board, a member is appointed for a term of six years, expiring January 31 of odd-numbered years. The members of the first board shall be appointed within 90 days after this Act takes effect to serve the following terms: two for terms which expire on January 31, 1981; two for terms which expire January 31, 1979; and two for terms which expire January 31, 1977. Thereafter, at the expiration of the term of each member, the governor shall appoint a successor for each. Before entering on the duties of his office, each member of the board shall take the constitutional oath of office which shall be filed with the secretary of state.

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 4a. The Texas State Board of Examiners in Social Psychotherapy is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1981.

Qualifications of Members of the Board

Sec. 5. Each member of the board shall be a citizen of the United States, a resident of this state, licensed under this Act, and have been actively engaged in the practice of social psychotherapy for five years preceding his appointment, provided, however, that the members comprising the board as first appointed shall meet these requirements with the exception of being licensed under this Act. To assure adequate representation of the diverse field of social psychotherapy, the governor shall appoint six members primarily engaged in rendering social psychotherapeutic services, three who provide such services as a social psychotherapist in private practice; one social psychotherapist who is engaged primarily in the administration of social psychotherapeutic services; one social psychotherapist who is a member of the faculty of an accredited university training program whose graduates may be eligible for certification under the provisions of this Act; and one social psychotherapist who is employed in a private or public agency. A member of the board who has served a six-year term may not succeed himself. Any vacancy in the membership of the board occurring otherwise than by expiration of term shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment of the governor.

Per Diem; Expenses

Sec. 6. A member of the board is not entitled to a salary for duties performed as a member of the board. A member is entitled to $25 for each day he is in attendance at meetings or hearings or on authorized business of the board, including time spent in traveling to and from the place of the meeting, hearing, or other authorized business, and is entitled to reimbursement for travel and other necessary expenses incurred in performing official duties, as evidenced by vouchers approved by the executive secretary.

Executive Secretary

Sec. 7. (a) The executive secretary shall be an employee of the State Department of Health; the state commissioner of health, after consulting with the board, shall designate the employee to serve as executive secretary.
(b) The executive secretary shall be the administrator of social psychotherapy activities for the board. In addition to his other duties prescribed in this Act and by the State Department of Health, the executive secretary shall

(1) keep full and accurate minutes of all transactions and proceedings of the board;
(2) be the custodian of all of the files and records of the board;
(3) prepare and recommend to the board plans and procedures necessary to effectuate the purposes and objectives of this Act, including but not limited to rules and regulations, and proposals on administrative procedures not inconsistent with this Act;
(4) exercise general supervision over all persons employed by the State Department of Health in the administration of this Act; and
(5) be responsible for the investigation of complaints and for the presentation of formal complaints.
(c) The executive secretary, or his authorized representative, shall

(1) attend all meetings of the board but is not entitled to vote; and
(2) handle or arrange for the handling of the correspondence, make or arrange for the inspections and investigations, and obtain, assemble, or prepare the reports and data that the board may direct or authorize.

Staff Services

Sec. 8. The basic personnel and necessary facilities as may be required to carry out the provisions of this Act shall be the personnel and facilities of the State Department of Health acting as the agents of the board. The department may by agreement secure such services as it may deem necessary from any other departments and agencies of this state, may arrange for compensation for these services, and may employ and compensate, within appropriations available, the professional consultants, technical assistants, and employees on a full- or part-time basis necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act. The board may request, and on request is entitled to receive, the assistance of state educational institutions or other state agencies.

Organizations and Meetings of the Board

Sec. 9. The board shall hold a regular annual meeting at which time a chairman and a vice-chairman shall be elected. Other regular meetings shall be held at the times that the rules of the board may provide but not less than two times a year. Special meetings may be held at the times that may be deemed necessary or advisable by the board or a majority of its members. Reasonable notice of all meetings shall be given in the manner prescribed by the rules of the board. The board may employ other persons it deems necessary or desirable to carry out the provisions of this Act. The board shall adopt and have an official seal.

Enforcement Proceedings

Sec. 10. The board, or the executive secretary when duly authorized, generally or specifically, by the department, may cause legal proceedings to be instituted in courts of competent jurisdiction to compel compliance with the provisions of this Act or the rules, regulations, orders, variances, or other decisions of the board.

Rulemaking

Sec. 11. (a) The board may, in accordance with the procedures in this section and subject to the approval of the State Board of Health, make rules and regulations consistent with the general intent and purposes of this Act and amend any rule or regulation it makes.

(b) Before adopting, amending, or repealing rules or regulations, the board shall hold a public hearing. If the rule or regulation, or amendment or repeal, will have statewide effect, notice of the date, time, place, and purpose of the hearing shall be published one time at least 20 days prior to the scheduled date of the hearing in at least three newspapers whose combined circulation will, in the judgment of the board, give reasonable circulation throughout the state. If the rule or regulation, or amendment or repeal, will have effect in only a part of the state, the notice shall be published one time at least 10 days prior to the scheduled date of the hearing in a newspaper or newspapers having general circulation in the area or areas to be affected. The board shall also comply, as appropriate, with the requirements of Chapter 274, Acts of the 57th Legislature, Regular Session, 1961, as amended (Article 6252-13, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

(c) Any person may appear and be heard at the hearing on any rules or regulations. The executive secretary shall record the names and addresses of the persons appearing. The executive secretary shall send written notice to any person heard or represented at the hearing or requesting notice of the action taken by the board.

(d) Before it becomes effective, a rule or regulation, or amendment or repeal, shall be approved in writing by at least four members of the board and approved by the State Department of Health and a certified copy filed with the secretary of state for the time specified in Chapter 274, Acts of the 57th Legislature, Regular Session, 1961, as amended (Article 6252-13, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).
Sec. 12. The board is authorized to adopt rules and regulations, subject to the approval of the State Board of Health, relating to the professional behavior and ethics of the social psychotherapy profession and the qualifications and licensing of social psychotherapists, consistent with the protection of the health and general welfare of the people.

Qualification of Applicant for Examination for Licensing

Sec. 13. An applicant is qualified to take the examination for licensing as a social psychotherapist if

1. he presents evidence of having received a master's degree based on a program of studies whose content was designed to develop skill and competence in the use of psychotherapeutic treatment methods with the degree being from a graduate school accredited by the Council on Social Work Education or from a graduate school equivalent in both subject matter and extent of training for social psychotherapists which meets accreditation requirements of the board;

2. he has at least two years of full-time experience acceptable to the board subsequent to the granting of the master's degree in the use of psychotherapeutic methods under the supervision of a licensed social psychotherapist or a person qualified to become licensed under this Act, except that if the applicant works in a geographical area where no licensed social psychotherapist is available to provide the supervision, he shall have two years of full-time experience subsequent to the granting of the master's degree acceptable to the board in the use of psychotherapeutic methods under the supervision of a licensed psychologist or a board certified psychiatrist;

3. he is at least 21 years of age;

4. he is a resident of this state; and

5. he is of good moral character.

Applications

Sec. 14. Application for examination for the social psychotherapy licensure shall be on the forms prescribed by the board. The board may require that the application be verified. The licensing fee shall accompany the application.

Evaluation of Experience

Sec. 15. In determining the acceptability of the applicant's professional experience, the board may require documentary evidence of the quality, scope, and nature of the applicant's experience the board deems necessary.

Examinations

Sec. 16. The department shall administer examinations to qualified applicants for licensure at least once a year. The board, with the approval of the State Board of Health, shall determine the subject matter, scope, and necessary scores for successful completion of the examinations. Written examinations may be supplemented by oral examinations. An applicant who fails his examination may be reexamined at a subsequent examination on payment of another examination fee. An applicant who fails his written examination has the right to review this examination and to have a full hearing.

Licensing

Sec. 17. (a) A qualified applicant for licensing who has successfully passed the examination prescribed by the board and has paid the licensing fee may be issued a license to hold himself forth as a social psychotherapist by the board.

(b) Until August 31, 1976, a person meeting the requirements of Section 13 of this Act and possessing the equivalent of the education and training requirements of that section as determined by the board, shall be issued a license on application.

(c) The board may, on application and payment of the licensing fee, license as a social psychotherapist a person who is licensed to practice social psychotherapy by another state, territory, or possession of the United States if the requirements of that state, territory, or possession for the license are the substantial equivalent of the requirements of this Act as determined by the board.

Licenses

Sec. 18. (a) The board shall issue a license to each person whom it licenses as a social psychotherapist. The license shall show the full name of the social psychotherapist and his address and shall bear a serial number. The license shall be signed by the chairman and the secretary of the board under the seal of the board.

(b) Licenses must be renewed at least once every two years. Licenses expire on August 31 and are invalid thereafter unless renewed.

(c) Social psychotherapists desiring to renew a license and who have maintained the status required by the board to qualify for licenses shall

1. pay the renewal fee for the license; and

2. if the board requires, give evidence that the social psychotherapist has participated in continuing education courses acceptable to the board toward the furthering of his professional development as a social psychotherapist.

(d) The board shall notify every person licensed under this Act of the amount of the renewal fee. This notice shall be mailed at least 60 days before the expiration of the license. Renewal may be made at any time during the months of July or August on application therefor by meeting the renewal requirements provided for in this Act. Failure to pay the renewal fee prior to September 1 shall not deprive a social psychotherapist of his right to renew his license, but the fee to be paid for renewal after August 31 shall be increased by 50 percent of the regular renewal fee.

Exemptions

Sec. 19. Nothing in this Act restricts the activities of the following; provided, however, no person shall state or imply that he is a "social psychotherapist" or use the letters "S.P." as part of his professional identification in conjunction with his name unless he is licensed under the provisions of this Act:

1. A licensed physician, licensed psychologist, licensed attorney, social worker, lecturer, duly ordained priest, rabbi, minister of the gospel, Christian Science practitioner, or other licensed professional or ordained religious practitioner;

2. A person who is performing activities of a psychotherapeutic nature, provided that he is performing those activities as part of the duties for which he is employed or under contract, and the activities are performed solely within the confines or under the control and supervision of one exempt under Section 19(1) of this Act or the jurisdiction of the organization in which he is employed or under contract, and provided that he does not state or imply that he is licensed to practice social psychotherapy, and provided that he may not offer to engage in the practice of social psychotherapy to the public for a fee, monetary or otherwise, over and above the salary or fee he receives for the performance of his official duties with the organization in which he is employed, or under contract, unless he is licensed under this Act;

3. A person engaging in activities of a psychotherapeutic nature who is employed by accredited academic institutions, public schools, government agencies, or nonprofit institutions engaged in the training of graduate students or interns pursuing the course of study leading to a master's degree from a school accredited by the Council on Social Work Education, or working in a recognized training program, provided that these activities constitute a part of a supervised course of study and that the student is designated by a title such as social psychotherapy intern, social psychotherapy trainee, or other title clearly indicating the training status appropriate to his level of training; or

4. A person from another state offering social psychotherapeutic services in this state; provided the services are performed for no more than five days in a calendar month, except that if the person meets the qualifications and requirements provided in this Act and resides in a state or territory of the United States, or foreign country, or province that does not grant a certification or license to practice social psychotherapy, he may offer social psychotherapeutic services in this state for a total of not more than 30 days in any calendar year without being licensed under this Act.

Revocation, Cancellation, or Suspension of License

Sec. 20. (a) The Texas State Board of Examiners in Social Psychotherapy may cancel, revoke, or suspend the license of any social psychotherapist on proof that the social psychotherapist:

1. Has been convicted of a felony or of a violation of the law involving moral turpitude by any court;

2. Has the habit of intemperance or drug addiction such as the use of morphine, opium, cocaine, or other drugs having similar effects;

3. Has been guilty of fraud or deceit in connection with his services rendered as a social psychotherapist or in connection with application for license renewal;

4. Has aided or abetted a person, not a licensed social psychotherapist, in representing himself as a social psychotherapist within this state;

5. Has been guilty of unprofessional conduct as defined by the rules established by the board;

6. For any cause for which the board shall be authorized to refuse to admit persons to its examination.

(b) Proceedings under this section shall be begun by filing charges with the Texas State Board of Examiners in Social Psychotherapy in writing and under oath. The charges may be made by any person. The chairman of the board shall set a time and place for hearing and shall cause a copy of the charges, together with a notice of the time and place fixed for hearing, to be served on the respondent or his counsel at least 30 days prior to the hearing date. When personal service is impossible, the board shall cause to be published, once a week for two successive weeks, a notice of the hearing in a newspaper published in the county wherein the respondent was last known to live and shall mail a copy of the charges and of such notice to the respondent at his last known address. When publication of the notice is necessary, the date of the hearing shall not be less than 30 days after the date of the last publication of the notice. At the hearing the respondent has the right to appear either personally, by counsel, or both, to produce witnesses or evidence in his behalf, to cross-examine witnesses, and to have subpoenas issued by the board. The board shall thereupon determine the charges on their merits. All charges, complaints, notices, orders, records, and publications authorized or required by the terms of this Act are privileged.

(c) A person whose license has been cancelled, revoked, or suspended by the board may, within 30
Injunctions

Sec. 21. The department may institute an action to enjoin the violation of any provisions of this Act. The action is in addition to any other action, proceeding, or remedy provided by law. The board shall be represented by the attorney general or a county or district attorney of this state.

Violations and Prohibitions Under this Act

Sec. 22. (a) No person, after one calendar year from the effective date of this Act, may represent himself to be a social psychotherapist within this state without being licensed in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(b) No social psychotherapist may continue to practice as a social psychotherapist without renewing his license six months after expiration of his license.

(c) No person may represent himself as a social psychotherapist, or use the letters “S.P.” as part of his professional identification in conjunction with his name, unless he is licensed under the provisions of this Act.

(d) No person licensed under the provisions of this Act may violate a rule or regulation promulgated by the Texas State Board of Examiners in Social Psychotherapy.

Penalties

Sec. 23. A person who violates a provision of this Act, or a rule or regulation or other order of the board, is subject to a civil penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $1,000 for each day of violation.

Enforcement

Sec. 24. (a) When it appears that a person has violated or is violating or is threatening to violate any provision of this Act or any rule, regulation, or order of the board, the board, or the executive secretary when duly authorized by the department, may cause a civil suit to be instituted in a district court for injunctive relief to restrain the person from continuing the violation or threat of violation or for the assessment and recovery of a civil penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $1,000 for each day of violation, as the court may deem proper, or for both injunctive relief and civil penalty. On application for injunctive relief and a finding that a person is violating or threatening to violate any provision of this Act or any rule, regulation, variance, or order of the board, the district court may grant the injunctive relief the facts warrant.

(b) At the request of the board, or the executive secretary when authorized by the department, the attorney general shall institute and conduct a suit in the name of the State of Texas for injunctive relief or to recover the civil penalty, or for both injunctive relief and penalty, as authorized in Subsection (a) of this section.

Revenue, Receipts, and Disbursements

Sec. 25. The State Department of Health shall receive and account for all money derived under this Act and shall pay the money weekly to the state treasurer who shall keep it in a separate fund to be known as the “Social Psychotherapist’s Licensure Fund.” The State Department of Health may make expenditures from this fund for any purpose which is reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act. The State Department of Health may impose examination, license, and renewal fees, in an amount fixed by the State Department of Health. The State Department of Health shall fix the amount of the fees sufficient to meet the expenses of administering this Act without unnecessary surpluses. Surpluses, if any, are reserved for the use of the State Department of Health in this program.
Art. 4512f

HEALTH—PUBLIC

Annual Report of the Board

Sec. 26. Within 90 days after the close of each fiscal year, the board shall submit a report to the governor and the presiding officer of each house of the legislature concerning the work of the board during the preceding fiscal year.

Appropriation

Sec. 27. For the biennium ending August 31, 1977, the funds received in the Social Psychotherapist's Licensure Fund are appropriated to the State Department of Health to be expended by it in the administration of this Act. The salaries paid to persons employed by the State Department of Health shall be comparable to those prescribed in the general appropriations act for persons holding comparable positions. To the extent applicable, the general rules of the general appropriations act apply to the expenditure of funds under this appropriation.

Art. 4513a. Application of Sunset Act

The Board of Nurse Examiners is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished effective September 1, 1981.

Art. 4514. Organization of Board

The members of the board shall elect from their number a president and a treasurer. Special meetings of said board shall be called by the president acting upon the written request of any two members. The board shall have the authority and power to make and enforce all rules and regulations necessary for the performance of its duties and conducting of proceedings before it, to establish standards of professional conduct for all persons licensed under the provisions of this law in keeping with its purpose and objectives, and to regulate the practice of professional nursing. Such rules and regulations shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this law. The executive secretary shall be required to keep a record of each meeting of said board, including a register of the names of all nurses registered under this law, which shall be at all times open to public inspection. Said board shall assist the proper legal authorities in the prosecution of all persons violating any provision of this law. Nothing herein shall either expand or contract the board's present powers as they relate to the regulation of nursing education. [Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1220, ch. 590, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 4518. Accreditation of Schools of Nursing and Educational Programs; Certification of Graduates; Examination by Board of Nurse Examiners and Requirement of Registration

Sec. 1. It shall be the duty of the Board of Nurse Examiners to prescribe and publish the minimum requirements and standards for a course of study in programs which prepare professional nurse practitioners. All other regulations necessary to conduct accredited schools of nursing and educational programs for the preparation of professional nurses shall be as prescribed by the Board, provided, however, that the minimum period of time that the Board may require shall be at least two (2) academic years and the maximum period of time shall not exceed four (4) calendar years. The Board shall accredit such schools of nursing and educational programs as meet its requirements and shall deny or withdraw accreditation from schools of nursing and educational programs which fail to meet the prescribed course of study or other standards.

The Board shall give those persons and organizations affected by its orders or decisions under this Article reasonable notice thereof, not less than twenty (20) days, and an opportunity to appear and be heard with respect to same. The Board shall hear all protests or complaints from such persons and organizations affected by such rule, regulation or decision as to the inadequacy or unreasonableness of any rule, regulation or order promulgated or adopted by it, or the injustice of any order or decision by it. If any person or organization which shall be affected by such order or decision shall be dissatisfied with any regulation, rule or order by such Board, such person or organization shall have the right, within thirty (30) days from the date such order is entered, to bring an action against said Board in the District Court of Travis County, Texas, to have such regulation, rule or order vacated or modified, and shall set forth in a petition therefor the principal grounds of objection to any or all of such rules, regulations or orders. Such appeal as herein provided shall be de novo as that term is known and understood in appeals from the Justice Court to the County Court.
Sec. 3. Every applicant for registration under this law shall present to the Board of Nurse Examiners evidence of successful completion of an accredited program of professional nursing education and a sworn application accompanied by such proof as may be required by the Board showing that the applicant is of good moral character and has such basic educational and other preliminary qualifications and requirements as the Board may prescribe, and shall upon payment of required fees be entitled to take the examination prescribed by the Board, and upon making the passing grade of 350 on all subjects shall be entitled to receive from said Board a certificate signed by the members of said Board, attested by the seal of said Board, entitling such person to practice as a registered nurse in the State of Texas.

Art. 4519. Examination and Fee

Upon filing application for examination each applicant shall pay an examination fee which shall in no case be returned to applicant. If the applicant passes the examination, then no further fee shall be required for registration. Any applicant for registration who fails to successfully pass the examination herein provided for shall have the right to stand a second examination on those subjects wherein he or she has failed to make a grade of 350. A grade of not less than 350 on any one subject shall be required to pass the examination. The examination shall be of such character as to determine the fitness of the applicant to practice professional nursing. If the result of the examination be satisfactory to the board, a certificate shall be issued to the applicant, signed by the president and executive secretary and attested by the seal of said board, which certificate shall qualify the person receiving the same to practice professional nursing in this State.

Art. 4520. Exempt from Examination

No nurse who is engaged in professional nursing at the time of the passage of this law and who has qualified under any previous law of this State and received a certificate from the board under such provisions of law regulating professional nursing, shall be required to stand any further examination under this law.

Art. 4525. Disciplinary Proceedings

(a) The board of nurse examiners may refuse to admit persons to its examinations, may refuse to issue a license or certificate of registration or to issue a certificate of re-registration, may refuse to issue a temporary permit, may issue a warning or reprimand, may suspend for any period not to exceed 2 years, or may revoke the license or certificate of any practitioner of professional nursing, for any of the following reasons:

(1) The violation, or attempted violation, of any of the provisions of this law, any rule, regulation not inconsistent with this law, or order issued hereunder.

(2) Is guilty of fraud or deceit in procuring or attempting to procure a license to practice professional nursing.

(3) Conviction of a crime of the grade of felony, or a crime of lesser grade which involves moral turpitude.

(4) The use of any nursing license, certificate, diploma or permit, or transcript of such license, certificate, diploma or permit, which has been fraudulently purchased, issued, counterfeited, or materially altered.

(5) The impersonation of, or the acting as a proxy for, another in any examination required by law to obtain a license to practice professional nursing.

(6) Aiding or abetting, directly or indirectly, or in any manner whatsoever, any unlicensed person in connection with the unauthorized practice of professional nursing.
(7) Revocation, suspension, or denial of the license to practice nursing in another jurisdiction. Certified copy of the order of denial, suspension, or revocation shall be conclusive evidence thereof.

(8) Intemperate use of alcohol or drugs if the nurse knows or should know that the effects of that use endangers or could endanger patients. Intemperate use includes but is not limited to practicing professional nursing or being on duty or call while under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

(9) Unprofessional or dishonorable conduct which, in the opinion of the board, is likely to injure the public.

(10) Adjudication of mental incompetency.

(11) Lack of fitness to practice by reason of mental or physical health or otherwise.

(b) Proceedings under this Article shall be begun by filing charges with the board of nurse examiners in writing and under oath. Such charges may be made by any person or persons. The board shall make such preliminary investigation of the charges as it deems necessary and may issue a warning or reprimand to the person charged. If the disciplinary proceedings under Subsection (a) of this Article are contemplated or, in any event, if the person charged so requests, a hearing shall follow. The president of the board shall set a time and place for hearing and shall cause a copy of the charges together with a notice of time and place fixed for the hearing to be served on the person charged at least 10 days prior thereto. Notice shall be sufficient if sent by registered or certified mail to the person charged at the address shown on his or her most recent application for certificate of registration or re-registration. At the hearing the person charged shall have the right to appear personally, or to be represented by counsel, or both; to produce witnesses or evidence in his own behalf; to cross-examine witnesses; and to have subpoenas issued by the board. The board shall thereupon determine the charges upon their merits. If requested by the person who is the subject of disciplinary proceedings, the board shall give in writing the reason for its decision. If a licensed professional nurse voluntarily surrenders said license to the board and executes a sworn statement that he or she no longer desires to be licensed, the board may revoke said license without the necessity of formal charges, notice, or opportunity of hearing.

(c) Any person whose license or certificate to practice professional nursing to a person whose license has been revoked or suspended but such application, in case of revocation, shall not be made prior to one year after the revocation was issued and shall be made in such manner and form as the board may require.

(d) The board shall have the right and may, upon majority vote, rule that the order denying an application for a license or any order revoking, canceling, or suspending any license be probated so long as the probated practitioner conforms to such orders and rules as the board may set out in the terms of probation. The board, at the time of probation, shall set out the period of time which shall constitute the probationary period; provided further that the board may at any time while the probationer remains on probation hold a hearing and upon majority vote rescind the probation and enforce the board's original action in denying, revoking, canceling, or suspending such license. The said hearing to rescind the probation shall be called by the president of the board who shall cause to be issued a notice setting the time and place for the hearing and containing the charges or complaints against the probationer, said notice to be served on the probationer or his counsel at least 20 days prior to the time set for the hearing. Notice shall be sufficient if sent by registered or certified mail to the person charged at the address shown on his or her most recent application for certificate of registration or re-registration.

(e) The board of nurse examiners is charged with the duty of aiding in the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter, and may retain legal counsel to represent the board, but prior to retaining outside legal counsel, the board shall request the attorney general to perform such services and may only retain outside counsel if the attorney general so certifies to the board that the attorney general cannot provide such services. The board shall have the power to issue subpoenas, compel the attendance of witnesses, administer oaths to persons giving testimony at hearings, and cause the prosecution of all persons violating any provisions of this chapter. It shall keep a record of all its proceedings and make an annual report to the Governor. Any member of the board may present to a prosecuting officer complaints relating to violations of any of the provisions of this chapter, and the board through its members, officers, counsel, or agents shall assist in the trial of any cases involving alleged violation of this chapter, subject to the control of the prosecuting officers. The Attorney General is directed to render such legal assistance as may be necessary in enforcing and making effective the provisions of this chapter; provided that this shall not relieve the local prosecuting officers of any of their duties under the law as such.

Art. 4526b. Inactive Status List

Any nurse licensed under the provisions of this law, not actively or actually engaged in the practice of professional nursing, at the expiration of any such license upon written request to the board in such form and manner as the board shall determine may be placed on an inactive status list which shall be maintained by the board. No professional nurse on such inactive status list shall perform any professional nursing services or work or violate any of the provisions of this law or any rule or regulation of the board so long as on such inactive status. At any time such person desires to reenter the active practice of professional nursing or again begin performing or offering to perform professional nursing services, such person shall notify the board and upon payment of appropriate fees shall be removed from the inactive status list.

[Added by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1224, ch. 590, § 9, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 4527. Fees

Text of article effective September 1, 1981

All fees received by said Board under this law shall be placed in the State Treasury to the credit of a special fund to be known as the “Professional Nurse Registration Fund” and the Comptroller shall upon requisition of the Board from time to time draw warrants upon the State Treasurer for the amounts specified in such requisition; provided, however, all fees collected by the Board and deposited in the Professional Nurse Registration Fund shall be expended as specified by itemized appropriation in the General Appropriations Act and shall be used by the Board, and under its directions, only for purposes of carrying out this Act. This section shall apply to all fees on hand at the time of the effective date of this section and all fees of whatsoever nature as permitted by law now or as amended. This section shall take effect September 1, 1981.

Art. 4527b. Penalty

A person who violates any provision of this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $500, confinement in jail for a term not to exceed 30 days, or both.

Art. 4527c. Injunction

In addition to any other action, proceeding, or remedy authorized by law, the board shall have the right to institute any action in its own name to enjoin any violation or any provision of this law or rule or regulation of the board, and in order for the board to sustain such action, it shall not be necessary to allege or prove either that an adequate remedy at law does not exist or that substantial or irreparable damage would result from the continued violation thereof; provided, however, that in any such proceeding for injunction the defendant may assert and prove as a complete defense to such action that the actions or proceedings of the board were: (1) arbitrary or capricious; (2) contrary to legal requirements; or (3) conducted without due process of law. Either party to such action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause. The board shall not be required to give any appeal bond in any cause arising under this law.

Art. 4527–1. Authorized Fees that may be Charged by Board of Nurse Examiners

The board of nurse examiners, in addition to other fees authorized heretofore, may charge and receive for the use of the board a reasonable fee not more than the following fees:

- For accreditation of new schools and programs $100.00
- For admission fee to examinations, to be applied to all examinees in each examination $5.00
- For approval of Exchange Visitor Programs $50.00
- For duplicate or substitute of current certificate $5.00
- For duplicate or substitute of permanent certificate $10.00
- For duplicate permits $3.00
- For endorsement with or without examination $50.00
- For filing affidavits in rechange of name $5.00
- For proctoring examinations of examinees from another State $75.00
- For re-registration under Article 4526, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended $25.00
- For verification of records $5.00
- For issuance of a temporary permit under Article 4525(a), Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended $10.00
- For late application for re-registration $10.00
- For reactivating from inactive status $20.00
- For bad checks $10.00

The board of nurse examiners shall set and collect a sales charge for making copies of any paper of record in the office of the board, and for any printed material published by the board, such charges to be in an amount deemed sufficient to reimburse the board for the actual expense.
[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 301, ch. 190, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975; Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1225, ch. 590, § 10, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Sec. 2. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Sec. 3. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER EIGHT. PHARMACY

Article 4542c. Labeling Requirements for Prescriptions Drugs.

Art. 4542a. State Board of Pharmacy to Regulate Practice of Pharmacy

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1]

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 1a. The State Board of Pharmacy is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; 1 and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1981.

1 Article 5429k.

Funds Received, Use Of

Sec. 3. The fund realized from all fees payable under this Act shall first be applied to the payment of all necessary expenses of the Board, and the remainder is to be applied by order of the Board to compensate members of said Board; said compensation to each member of the Board not to exceed Seventy-five Dollars ($75) per day, exclusive of necessary expenses in performance of his duties. Provided, however, that the premium on any bond required of the Secretary, or any other employee of the Board, shall be paid out of said fund, as well as the expenses of any employee incurred in the performance of his duties. The State Board of Pharmacy shall defray all expenses under this law from fees provided in this Act, and the State of Texas shall never be liable for the compensation or expenses of any member of the Board, or its officers or employees, or any other expenses thereof.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 4 to 8]

Fees

Sec. 9. (a) Every person desiring to practice pharmacy in the State of Texas shall be required to pass the examination given by the State Board of Pharmacy. The applicant shall make application by presenting to the secretary of the Board, on forms furnished by the Board, satisfactory sworn evidence that he has attained the age of twenty-one (21) years, is of good moral character, is a citizen of the United States, and has at least graduated from a first grade high school, or has a preliminary education equivalent thereto, permitting matriculation in The University of Texas, and that he has attended and graduated from a reputable university, school, or college of pharmacy which meets with the requirements of the Board, and shall have had at least one thousand (1,000) hours of practical experience under the supervision of a registered pharmacist. A university, school, or college of pharmacy is reputable whose entrance requirements and course of instruction are as high as those adopted by recognized universities, schools, or colleges of pharmacy, and whose course of instruction shall be the equivalent of not less than four (4) terms of eight (8) months each, and approved by the Board.

(b) The examination shall consist of written, oral, and/or practical tests in pharmacy, chemistry, pharmaceutical jurisprudence, posology, toxicology, bacteriology, physiology, pharmacognosy, and pharmacy, and in such other subjects as may be regularly taught in all recognized universities, schools, and colleges of pharmacy.

(c) Each applicant for license to practice pharmacy in Texas shall be given due notice of the time and place of examination. All examinations shall be conducted in writing and by such other means as the State Board of Pharmacy shall deem adequate to ascertain the qualifications of applicants, and in such manner as shall be entirely fair and impartial to all individuals in every recognized school of pharmacy. All applicants examined at the same time shall be given the same regular examinations, and each applicant successfully passing the examination and meeting all requirements of the State Board of Pharmacy shall be registered by the Board as possessing the qualifications required by this law, and shall receive from said Board a license to practice pharmacy in this State. Provided that the State Board of Pharmacy may, in its discretion, upon the payment of an amount, not to exceed Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250), set by the Board, grant a license to practice pharmacy to persons who pass a Texas drug and pharmacy law examination administered by the Board and who furnish proof that they have been registered as pharmacists in some other state or territory, and that they are of good moral character, provided that such other Board in its examination required the same general degree of fitness required by this State, and grants the same reciprocal privileges to pharmacists of this State.

(d) No person who is a member of the Communist Party, or who is affiliated with such party, or who believes in, supports, or is a member of any group or organization that believes in, furthers, or teaches the overthrow of the United States Government by force or by any illegal or unconstitutional methods, shall be authorized to practice pharmacy in the State of Texas, or to receive a license to practice pharmacy in the State of Texas.

(e) Every person admitted to practice pharmacy in the State of Texas shall, before receiving his license, make oath that he is not a member of the Communist Party or affiliated with such party, and that he does not believe in and is neither a member of nor supports any group or organization that believes in, furthers, or teaches the overthrow of the United States Government by force or by any illegal or unconstitutional methods.

(f) Any person who shall falsely make the affidavit prescribed in the foregoing paragraph shall be deemed guilty of fraudulent and dishonorable conduct, and malpractice, and shall be subject to all penalties which may be prescribed for making false affidavit.

Fees, Examination of Books and Records

Sec. 11. The State Board of Pharmacy shall charge a fee not to exceed $75 for examining an applicant for license, which fee must accompany the application. If an applicant who, because of failure to pass the examination, is refused a license, he shall be permitted to take a second examination without additional fee, provided the second examination is taken within a period of one (1) year. The State Auditor of the State of Texas shall, not less than once each year, examine and audit the books and records of the State Board of Pharmacy, and report his findings to the Governor of the State of Texas.

Annual Renewal Fee; Practicing Without Renewal Certificate; Duplicates

Sec. 14. (a) On or before the first day of each year every licensed pharmacist in this state shall pay to the Secretary of the State Board of Pharmacy an annual renewal fee not to exceed Thirty-five Dollars ($35) for the renewal of his license to practice pharmacy for the current year. On receipt of said renewal fee, the Board shall issue an annual renewal certificate bearing the number of the license, the year for which renewed and other information for the records of the Board which said Board may deem necessary. When a pharmacist shall have failed to pay his annual renewal fee before March 1st of each year, said license shall be suspended, and such person in order to be reinstated shall be required to pay one (1) annual renewal fee as a penalty, in addition to the sum of all fees such person may be in arrears. Said renewal fee shall be due on January 1st of each year, and shall become delinquent on March 1st of each year.

Permits for Stores or Factories

Sec. 17.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 17(a) to 17(c)]

(d) The State Board of Pharmacy may, in its discretion, refuse to issue a permit to any applicant, and may cancel, revoke, or suspend the operation of any permit by it granted under the foregoing subsections for any of the following reasons:

(1) That the applicant has been convicted of a felony or a misdemeanor which involves moral turpitude, or if the applicant be an association, joint stock company, partnership, or corporation, that a managing officer has been convicted of a felony or a misdemeanor which involves moral turpitude;

(2) That the applicant has been convicted in either a State or Federal Court of the illegal use, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquor, narcotic drugs, barbiturates, amphetamines, desoxephedrine, their compounds or derivatives, controlled substances as defined in the Texas Controlled Substances Act, or any other dangerous or habit-forming drugs, or if the applicant be an association, joint stock company, partnership, or corporation, that a managing officer has been convicted in either a State or Federal Court of the illegal use, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquor, narcotic drugs, barbiturates, amphetamines, desoxephedrine, their compounds or derivatives, controlled substances, or any other dangerous or habit-forming drugs;

(3) That the applicant applying for, or licensed, pursuant to Subsection (a) hereof has advertised any drug or drugs which bear the legend: "Caution: Federal law prohibits dispensing without prescription" in a deceitful, misleading, or fraudulent manner;

(4) That any owner or employee of an owner of a licensed retail pharmacy, drugstore, dispensary, or apothecary shop, pursuant to Subsection (a), has violated any provision of this Act;

(5) That the applicant has sold counterfeit drugs and medicines, or has sold without a prescription drugs and medicines bearing the legend: "Caution: Federal Law prohibits dispensing without prescription," to persons other than:

(A) the owners or operators of a pharmacy, drug store, dispensary, apothecary shop, or prescription laboratory, duly registered with the State Board of Pharmacy;

(B) practitioners;

(C) persons who procure controlled substances or dangerous drugs for the purpose of lawful research, teaching, or testing, and not for resale;

(D) hospitals which procure controlled substances or dangerous drugs for lawful administration by practitioners;

(E) officers or employees of federal, state, or local government acting in the lawful discharge of their official duties;

(F) manufacturers and wholesalers registered with the Commissioner of Health as required by Chapter 373, Acts of the 57th Legislature, 1961, as amended (Article 4476–5, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes);

(G) carriers and warehousemen.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 17(e)]

(f) The permit provided for in Subsection (a) of this Section shall be issued annually by the Board upon receipt of the proper application accompanied by a fee not to exceed Fifty Dollars ($50).

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 17(g) to 20]

Art. 4542c. Labeling Requirements for Prescription Drugs

(a) All prescription drugs manufactured and sold or distributed to a pharmacist in this state after the effective date of this Act to be subsequently dispensed to the consumer of the drug or drug product shall have affixed to the labeling the name and business address of the original manufacturer of the finished dosage form, and the names and business address of all repackagers or distributors of the prescription drug or drug product prior to its delivery to the pharmacist. This information does not need to be affixed to the container delivered to the patient. Provided, however, that the name and business address of the distributor need not be so affixed if the distributor acts only as a wholesaler or supplier and does not repackage the drug or in any way modify the individual drug package or container or its contents as such was received from the manufacturer, repackager, or other distributor.

(b) An individual, corporation, or association who violates any provision of this Act commits a Class C misdemeanor.

Section 2 of the 1977 Act repealed conflicting laws.

CHAPTER NINE. DENTISTRY

Article

4547a. Aid to the Board.

4551c–1. Peer Review or Grievance Committees.

4551l. Civil Immunity—Peer Review, Judicial or Grievance Committees.

Art. 4543a. Application of Sunset Act

The State Board of Dental Examiners is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished effective September 1, 1981. [Added by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1838, ch. 735, § 2, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 4544. Examination for License to Practice Dentistry

It shall be the duty of the Board to examine all applicants for license to practice dentistry in this State; and the Board shall examine and grade all papers submitted by such applicants and report to such applicants within a reasonable time after the date of such examination, and said report shall give to each applicant the grades made by said applicant upon each and every subject which he or she was examined by said Board. Each person applying for an examination shall pay to said Board a fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100) and shall be granted a license to practice dentistry in this State upon his satisfactorily passing an examination given by said Board on subjects and operations pertaining to dentistry which shall include Anatomy, Physiology, Anaesthesia, Biochemistry, Dental Materials, Diagnosis, Treatment Planning, Ethics, Jurisprudence, Hygiene, Pharmacology, Operative Dentistry, Oral Surgery, Orthodontia, Perodontia, Prosthetic Dentistry, Pathology, Microbiology, and such other subjects as are regularly taught in reputable Dental Schools as the Board may in its discretion require. The examination shall be given either orally or in writing, or by giving a practical demonstration of the applicant's skill, or by any combination of such methods or subjects as the Board may in its discretion require. The Texas State Board of Dental Examiners may provide in its rules and regulations the procedures, fees, and requirements for graduates of foreign and/or nonaccredited Dental Schools to become licensed to practice dentistry in Texas. [Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 366, ch. 174, § 4, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 4547a. Aid to the Board

The Texas State Board of Dental Examiners shall have power and authority to appoint such clerks, advisors, consultants, hygienists, and/or examiners to aid the board to carry out its duties as it deems necessary and advisable and may reimburse said persons so appointed in such amounts as is reasonable and in conformity with the provisions of the general appropriations bill as enacted by the Texas Legislature. [Added by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 969, ch. 365, § 1, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 4548e. Use of Own Proper Name Instead of Corporate or Trade Name; Practice as Partnership

It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to practice dentistry in this State under the name of a corporation, company, association, or trade name; or under any name except his own proper name, which shall be the name used in his license as issued by the State Board of Dental Examiners. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to operate, manage, or be employed in any room, rooms, office, or offices where dental service is rendered or contracted for under the name of a corporation, company, association, or trade name, or in any other name than that of the legally qualified dentist or dentists actually engaged in the practice of dentistry in such room, rooms, office, or offices; provided, however, this shall not prevent two or more legally qualified dentists from practicing dentistry in the same offices as a firm, partnership, or as associates in their own names as stated in licenses issued to them. Provided, however, that any dentist practicing under his own license may be employed by any person, firm or partnership practicing dentistry under licenses issued to them. Each day of violation of this Article shall constitute a separate offense. This prohibition shall not prohibit a dentist or dentists from incorporating their dental practice in accordance with the Texas Professional Corporation Act (Article 1528e, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), where such corporate practice complies with the rules and regulations of the State Board of Dental Examiners governing such corporate practice. [Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1165, ch. 444, § 2, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 4549. Refusing Examination or License; Revocation of License

The Texas State Board of Dental Examiners shall have authority to refuse to examine any person or refuse to issue a license to any person for any one or more of the following causes:

(a) Proof of presentation to the Board of any dishonest or fake evidence of qualification, or being guilty of any illegality, fraud or deception in the process of examination, or for the purpose of securing a license.

(b) Proof of chronic or habitual intoxication or addiction to drugs on the part of the applicant.

(c) Proof that the applicant has been guilty of dishonest or illegal practices in or connected with the practice of dentistry.

(d) Proof of conviction of the applicant of a felony involving moral turpitude under the laws of this State or any other State or of the United States.

The Texas State Board of Dental Examiners and the District Courts of this State shall have concurrent jurisdiction and authority, after notice and hearing as hereinafter provided, to suspend or revoke a dental license for any one or more of the following causes:

(a) Proof of insanity of the holder of a license, as adjudged by the regularly constituted authorities.

(b) Proof of conviction of the holder of a license of a felony involving moral turpitude under the laws of this State or any other State or of the United States.

(c) That the holder thereof has been or is guilty of dishonorable conduct, malpractice or gross incompetency in the practice of dentistry.

(d) That the holder thereof has been or is guilty of any deception or misrepresentation for the purpose of soliciting or obtaining patronage.

(e) That the holder thereof procured a license through fraud or misrepresentation.

(f) That the holder thereof is addicted to habitual intoxication or the use of drugs.

(g) That the holder thereof employs or permits or has employed or permitted persons to practice dentistry in the office or offices under his control or management, who were not licensed to practice dentistry.

(h) That the holder thereof has failed to use proper diligence in the conduct of his practice or to safeguard his patients against avoidable infections.

(i) That the holder thereof has failed or refused to comply with any of the provisions of this Act.

(j) That the holder thereof has failed or refused to comply with the adopted and promulgated rules and regulations of the Board.

(k) That the holder thereof is physically or mentally incapable of practicing dentistry legally or with safety to dental patients.

(l) That the holder thereof has been negligent in the performance of dental services which injured or damaged dental patients.

Proceedings to suspend or revoke a dental license on account of any one or more of the causes set forth in this Article shall be taken as follows:

(a) Proceedings before the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners shall be as follows:

All complaints to be considered by the Board shall be made in writing, subscribed and sworn to by the person presenting such complaint, which complaint shall set out the alleged violations of such Statutes and declaring it to be the opinion of the person presenting such complaint that the person or persons so accused have so violated said Statutes.

All complaints as received shall be presented to the Secretary of the Board or an authorized employee of the Board who shall cause copies of all complaints to be made and mailed or delivered to each member of the Board. When a complaint is made by a member of the Board, its agents or employees, the Secretary of the Board shall cause such complaint to be docketed on its records in the name of the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners versus the person against whom such complaint has been made, and shall mail a copy of such docketed complaint by registered mail to the accused person under the jurisdiction of the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners charged with having violated such Statutes. When a complaint is made by others than the members of the Board, its agents or employees, the Board or its duly authorized representative shall cause an investigation of such complaint to be made to determine the facts in such case, and if the facts as determined by such investigation, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Board, justify the docketing of such complaint for hearing before the Board, then the Secretary of the Board shall cause such complaint to be docketed on its records in the name of the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners versus the person against whom such complaint has been made, and shall mail a copy of such docketed complaint by registered mail to the accused person under the jurisdiction of the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners charged with having violated such Statutes.

The Secretary of the Board or its authorized officer or employee shall not less than ten (10) days prior to the next meeting of the Board called for the purpose of hearing and considering such complaint, mail by registered mail to the last known address of such person or persons against whom a complaint has been so docketed a notice of hearing, which notice shall contain the date, time, and place of the meeting of the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners called to consider such complaint, and such notice shall contain the alleged violations of such Statutes, and shall state that such accused person may appear and offer such evidence as is pertinent to his defense to such complaint. Such hearing shall be governed by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Board, and the Board shall have the authority to subpoena and compel the attendance of such licensees or other persons deemed to have knowledge which would aid the Board in reaching a proper decision and for the enforcement of this Act. After such hearing, the Board shall enter an order in its minutes, as in the opinion of the majority of the Board the facts brought out at such hearing justify and require. Provided, however, that any order revoking or suspending such license or licenses shall be signed. by a majority of such Board and by all the members of such Board present at such hearing.

If said Board shall make and enter any order revoking or suspending any license or licenses as hereinabove provided, the person or persons whose license shall have been so revoked or suspended may, within thirty (30) days after the making and entering of such order, take an appeal to the District Court of the County of the residence of the person or persons whose license shall have been so revoked or suspended, by filing an appropriate petition for such purpose. Said cause shall be placed on the docket of said Court in the name of the party or parties filing same, as plaintiff, and the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners, as defendants. It shall be the duty of said Board, upon the filing of a petition asking for an appeal and review of such proceedings of said Board by the person or persons accused, and after citation in such cause has been issued and served as in other civil cases, to prepare and transmit to such District Court upon notice from such Court a transcript of the orders hereinabove provided for, the same to be certified as true and correct by the Secretary of said Board. Such District Court shall thereafter and under the rules of procedure applicable to other civil cases, proceed to set such cause for hearing as in other civil cases. Upon the hearing of such cause, if such Court shall find that the action of such Board, in revoking or suspending such license or licenses is not well taken, such Court shall by appropriate order and judgment set aside such action of said Board; but if such Court or jury shall sustain such action of said Board in revoking or suspending such license or licenses an order shall be made and entered in appropriate form sustaining and affirming the action of such Board; provided, however, that the person or persons whose license shall have been so revoked or suspended may waive the impanelling of a jury, from which order an appeal may be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals, as in other civil causes.

(b) Proceedings before the District Courts of this State shall be as follows:

It shall be the duty of the several District and County Attorneys of this State, on the request of any member of the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners or by complaint presented to any District Court of the State or county in which such alleged offense occurred, to file and prosecute appropriate judicial proceedings in the name of the State against the person or persons alleged to have so violated such Statute. Such complaint shall be made in writing and filed in the District Court of the State or county in which the alleged offense occurred, and such complaint shall distinctly set forth the charges and grounds thereof and shall be subscribed and sworn to. When such complaint is made by any County or District Attorney, as herein provided, it shall be subscribed and sworn to by the prosecutor and shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court. The Court, upon the filing of said complaint, shall order the accused dentist to show cause why his license to practice dentistry in this State shall not be suspended or revoked.

Citation therein shall be issued in the name of the State of Texas and in manner and form as in other cases and the same shall be served upon the defendant at least ten (10) days before the trial date set therein. Upon the return of said citation executed, if the defendant shall appear and deny the charge, the cause shall be docketed for trial and conducted in the name of the State of Texas against the defendant. A jury of twelve (12) men shall be summoned as in cases during term time of the Court when no regular jury is available and as prescribed by law and shall be impanelled unless waived by the defendant, and the cause shall be tried in like manner as in other civil cases. If the said accused dentist be found guilty or shall fail to appear and deny the charge after being cited as aforesaid, the Court may by proper order entered on the minutes, suspend his license for a time or revoke and cancel it entirely and may also give proper judgment of costs, from which order an appeal may be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals as in other civil cases.

[Amended by Acts 1977, 66th Leg., p. 799, ch. 296, § 1, eff. May 28, 1977.]

Art. 4550. Records of the Board

The Board shall keep records in which shall be registered the name and residence or place of business of all persons authorized under this law to practice dentistry, dental hygiene and such other professions or businesses under its jurisdiction as provided by law. All of the records and files of the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners shall be public records and open to inspection at reasonable times, except the investigation files and records which shall be confidential and their contents may not be forced to be divulged until after the investigation is complete or has been inactive for 60 days at which time this exception expires and the records open to inspection.

Art. 4550a. Application, Registration Fund, and Secretary or Director

1. It shall be the duty of all persons now lawfully qualified and engaged in the practice of dentistry in this State, or who shall hereafter be licensed for such practice by the State Board of Dental Examiners, to annually apply and to be registered as such practitioners with the State Board of Dental Examiners on or before March 1st of each calendar year. Each person so registering shall pay in connection with such annual registration for the receipt hereinafter provided for, a fee of not less than Twelve Dollars ($12) nor more than Seventy-Five Dollars ($75) as determined by said Board according to the needs of said Board, such payment to be made by each licensee to such Board, and every person so registering shall file with said Board a written application setting forth such facts as the Board may require. Upon receipt of such applications, accompanied by such fees, said Board, after ascertaining either from its records or other sources deemed by it to be reliable, that the applicant is a duly licensed practitioner of dentistry in this State, shall issue to the applicant an annual registration certificate or receipt certifying that he has filed such application and has paid the required fee; provided, that the filing of such application, the payment of such fee, and the issuance of such receipt therefor, shall not entitle the holder thereof to lawfully practice dentistry within the State of Texas unless he has in fact been previously licensed as such practitioner by the State Board of Dental Examiners, as provided by this law, and unless said license is in full force and effect; and provided further, that in any prosecution for the unlawful practice of dentistry such receipt showing payment of the annual registration fee required by this chapter shall not be treated as evidence that the holder thereof is lawfully entitled to practice dentistry.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 2 and 3]

4. To aid the Board in performing the duties prescribed in this Section, the Board is hereby authorized to employ an Executive Secretary or Director who shall receive a salary to be fixed by the Board, and who shall make and file a surety bond in a sum not less than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties of his office and the safekeeping and proper disbursement of said “Dental Registration Fund” and all other funds coming into his hands; such salary shall be paid out of said “Dental Registration Fund” and shall not be in any way a charge upon the general revenue of the State. Said Board shall employ and provide such other employees as may be needed to assist the Executive Secretary or Director in performing his duties and in carrying out the purposes of this Act, provided that their compensation shall be paid only out of the said “Dental Registration Fund.” All disbursements from “Dental Registration Fund” shall be made only upon the written approval of the President and Secretary of said Board and upon warrants drawn by the Comptroller to be paid out of said fund.

Section 2 of the 1977 amendatory act amended §§ 5 and 6 of art. 4551; § 3 amended art. 4551; § 4 amended art. 4544; §§ 5 and 6 thereof provided:

"Sec. 5. All laws or parts of laws in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed."

"Sec. 6. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word in this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance for any reason is held invalid or unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining portions of this Act, and the legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portions of this Act despite such invalidity or unconstitutionality of any part or portion thereof."

Art. 4551. Fees and Expenses

Each member of the State Board of Dental Examiners, also known and referred to as the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners, shall receive for his service Seventy-five Dollars ($75) per day for each day he is actually engaged in the duties of his office together with all legitimate expenses incurred in the performance of such duties. All per diem and expenses accruing hereunder shall be paid from monies received by said Board from the “Dental Registration Fund” as provided in this law; no money shall ever be paid to any member of the Board from the General Fund.

Art. 4551a. Persons Regarded as Practicing Dentistry

Any person shall be regarded as practicing dentistry within the meaning of this Chapter:

(1) Who publicly professes to be a dentist or dental surgeon or who uses or permits to be used for himself or for any other person, the title of “Doctor,” “Dr.,” “Doctor of Dental Surgery,” “D.D.S.,” “Doctor of Dental Medicine,” “D.M.D.,” or any other letters, titles, terms or descriptive matter which directly or indirectly represents him as being able to diagnose, treat, remove stains or concretions from teeth, provide surgical and adjunctive treatment for any disease, pain, injury, deficiency, deformity or physical condition of the human teeth, oral cavity, alveolar process, gums, jaws or directly related and adjacent masticatory structures.

(2) Who shall offer or undertake by any means or methods whatsoever, to clean teeth or to remove stains, concretions or deposits from teeth in the human mouth, or who shall undertake or offer to diagnose, treat, operate, or prescribe by any means or methods for any disease, pain, injury, deficiency, deformity, or physical condition of the human teeth, oral cavity, alveolar process, gums, or jaws.

(3) Any person who shall offer or undertake in any manner to prescribe or make, or cause to be made, an impression of any portion of the human mouth, teeth, gums, or jaws, for the purpose of diagnosing, prescribing, treating, or aiding in the diagnosing, prescribing or treating, any physical condition of the human mouth, teeth, gums or jaws, or for the purpose of constructing or aiding in the construction of any dental appliance, denture, dental bridge, false teeth, dental plate or plates of false teeth, or any other substitute for human teeth.

(4) Any one who owns, maintains or operates any office or place of business where he employs or engages, under any kind of contract whatsoever, any other person or persons to practice dentistry as above defined shall be deemed to be practicing dentistry himself and shall himself be required to be duly licensed to practice dentistry as hereinabove defined, and shall be subject to all of the other provisions of this Chapter, even though the person or persons so employed or engaged by him shall be duly licensed to practice dentistry as hereinabove defined.

(5) Any person, firm, group, association, or corporation who shall offer or undertake to fit, adjust, repair, or substitute in the human mouth or directly related and adjacent masticatory structures any dental appliance, structure, prosthesis, or denture, or who shall aid or cause to be fitted, adjusted, repaired, or substituted in the human mouth or directly related and adjacent masticatory structures any dental appliance, structure, prosthesis, or denture.

(6) Who makes, fabricates, processes, constructs, produces, reproduces, duplicates, repairs, relines, or fixes any full or partial denture, any fixed or removable dental bridge or appliance, any dental plate or plates of false teeth, any artificial dental restoration, or any substitute or corrective device or appliance for the human teeth, gums, jaws, mouth, alveolar process, or any part thereof for another, or who in any manner offers, undertakes, aids, abets, or causes another person so to do for another, without a written prescription or work order therefor signed by the dentist legally engaged in the practice of dentistry in this state or in the jurisdiction where such dentist maintains his dental office and who prescribed and ordered same.

(7) Who offers, undertakes, solicits, or advertises in any manner for himself or for another except in person or by agent to a dentist, or through the United States Mail to a dentist, or in regularly published dental publications mailed or delivered to dentists in this state or in other jurisdictions to do or perform any of the acts or services listed in any of the subsections of this Article and except to and for such dentist.

(8) Who shall offer or undertake or cause another to do, directly or indirectly, for any person any act, service, or work in the practice of dentistry or any part thereof as provided for in the laws of Texas relating to the practice of dentistry including without limitation the inducing, administering, prescribing, or dispensing any anesthesia, anesthetic drug, medicine, or agent in anywise incident to or in connection with the practice of dentistry; or who permits or allows another to use his license or certificate to practice dentistry in this state for the purpose of performing any act described in this Article; or who shall aid or abet, directly or indirectly, the practice of dentistry by any person not duly licensed to practice dentistry by the Texas Board of Dental Examiners.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1977 amendatory act provided:

"Sec. 2. All laws or parts of laws in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

"Sec. 3. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word in this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance for any reason is held invalid or unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining portions of this Act, and the legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portions of this Act despite such invalidity or unconstitutionality of any part or portion thereof."

Art. 4551a-1. Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1837, ch. 566, § 2, eff. June 19, 1975

See, now, art. 4551a.

Art. 4551c-1. Peer Review or Grievance Committees

(a) As used in this Act, the term "dental peer review committee" or "dental grievance committee" shall mean members of a committee composed of practicing dentists duly licensed by the State Board of Dental Examiners, and which committee shall act for the purpose of reviewing and evaluating dental treatment and dental services in disputes involving licensed dentists, dental patients and/or third party payors financially obligated to pay in whole or in part for dental treatment or dental services rendered; and such committee, when requested by all parties concerned, shall act as arbitrator between said parties. A dental peer review or grievance committee shall be composed of and elected by a majority of the licensed dentists in the area served by such committee.
Art. 4551c-1

HEALTH—PUBLIC

(b) In the absence of fraud, conspiracy, or malice, neither a dental peer review or grievance committee formed hereunder nor a member thereof, nor any witness or consultant called by such committee, shall be liable for any finding, evaluation, or recommendation of such committee or the testimony or statements made by a member of the committee, or as a witness or consultant thereto. Any member of a dental peer review or grievance committee shall be disqualified from acting as a member thereof where the dental treatment or dental services rendered or performed by him are being reviewed by such committee.

(c) Nothing in this Act shall prevent any party or person from availing himself of any legal remedy except for the specific immunity granted herein.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1975 Act provided:

"Sec. 2. Peer review or grievance committees formed hereunder each elect from their membership one member to serve on and be a member of the state appeals committee of the area committees which state appeals committee shall hear and decide all appeals from area committees. The state appeals committee shall prepare and adopt rules and regulations governing the procedure and operation of the area committees and of the state appeals committee to insure fair and impartial hearings and appeals.

"Sec. 3. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 4551e. Dental Hygienists; Regulation and Licensing

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1]

Qualifications

Sec. 2. A dental hygienist shall be not less than eighteen (18) years of age, a citizen of the United States of America, a graduate of an accredited high school or hold a certificate of high school equivalency (GED) and be a graduate of a recognized and accredited school or college of dentistry or dental hygiene approved by the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners in which the course of instruction shall be the equivalent of not less than two (2) terms of eight (8) months each and who shall have there after passed an examination given by and before the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners on subjects pertaining to dental hygiene, and who shall have complied with all of the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations promulgated by the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners.

Supervision

Sec. 3. All work performed by a dental hygienist in the practice of dental hygiene, as defined in this Act, shall be performed in the dental office of a dentist or dentists legally engaged in the practice of dentistry in this state, by whom he or she must be employed, except where employed by schools, hospitals, state institutions, or public health clinics approved by the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners. It shall be unlawful for more than two dental hygienists to practice dental hygiene for one dentist at any one time, and it shall be unlawful for a dentist legally engaged in the practice of dentistry in this state to employ, under any contractual relationship whatsoever, more than two dental hygienists to practice dental hygiene at any one time.

Dental Hygiene Advisory Committee

Sec. 4A. (a) The Dental Hygiene Advisory Committee is hereby established.

(b) The Dental Hygiene Advisory Committee shall consist of not more than six dental hygienists appointed by the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners. A member of such advisory committee shall serve for a term of one year expiring on May 1 of each year.

(c) The advisory committee shall advise the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners on matters relating to dental hygiene.

Examination

Sec. 5. The Texas State Board of Dental Examiners shall hold meetings at such times and places as the Board shall designate for the purpose of examining qualified applicants for certification as dental hygienists in this State. All applicants for examination shall pay a fee of not less than $25 nor more than $70 to said Board as determined by said Board according to its needs and shall apply upon forms furnished by the Board and shall furnish such other information as the Board may in its discretion require to determine any applicant's qualifications. The Board shall have authority to employ the services of such examiners and clerks as may be needed to aid the Board in the performance of such duties. The examination shall be taken by all applicants on such subjects and operations pertaining to dentistry and dental hygiene which shall include Dental Anatomy, Pharmacology, X-Ray, Ethics, Jurisprudence, and Hygiene, and such other subjects as are regularly taught in reputable schools of dentistry and dental hygiene, as the Board in its discretion may require. The examination shall be given orally or in writing, or by giving a practical demonstration of the applicant's skill or by any combination of such methods or subjects as the Board may in its discretion require. The Board shall grade each applicant upon the various phases of the examination and shall report such grades to the applicant within a reasonable time after such examination, and each applicant who has satisfactorily passed all phases of the examination as determined by the Board shall be entitled to and shall be issued a certificate permitting such applicant to practice dental hygiene in the State of Texas as is defined and regulated by the law of this State.
Renewal of Certificate, Fee

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of each dental hygienist in this State to annually apply to the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners for renewal of his certificate granted him by said Board, and to pay, in the manner and within the time prescribed by the Board in its rules and regulations in connection with such application for renewal, a fee of not less than Ten Dollars ($10) nor more than Fifty Dollars ($50) as determined by said Board according to its needs. Upon the payment of such fee as prescribed by the Board, each dental hygienist shall receive a renewal of his certificate as a receipt for such payment, and the absence of such renewed certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the want of possession of such certificate before the Board and in any court in the State.

Dental hygienists, required to register under this Act, who fail or refuse to register and pay the annual registration fee in the manner and within the time prescribed shall not thereafter practice dental hygiene in this State, and during such time of said person's failure or refusal to register and renew his certificate and to pay the required fee, he shall be subject to the same penalties imposed by law upon any person unlawfully practicing dental hygiene. Such person may, in the discretion of the Board in each instance, be reinstated and permitted to register and renew his certificate within three years upon written application to such Board. Such application shall contain all facts and information which the Board may require and must be accompanied by the payment of all annual registration fees in arrears together with an additional fee of Five Dollars ($5).

Any certificate issued by the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners shall be subject to cancellation for failure to pay all annual registration fees required by law where such certificate holder shall have failed to register and pay such fees for three consecutive years. A revocation to be valid for failure to pay such fees shall be based upon written notice to such person at his last known address not less than 90 days prior to the date of hearing and intended cancellation, if not so paid. Upon such cancellation the Board, in its discretion in each instance, may reinstate such person's certificate upon an affirmative showing by such person that he or she has the degree of professional skill and knowledge currently required of such certificate holders, and that such person is not mentally or physically incompetent and has not been guilty of any immoral or unprofessional conduct. However, the requirements governing the payment of the annual registration fees and penalties for late registration shall not apply to certificate holders who are on active duty with the Armed Forces of the United States of America and are not engaged in private or civilian practice.

Art. 4551h. Narcotic Drugs, Dangerous Drugs, Controlled Substances

It shall be unlawful for a dentist to prescribe, provide, obtain, order, administer, give, or deliver to or for any person, narcotic drugs, dangerous drugs or any controlled substances not necessary or required, or where the use or possession of same would promote or further addiction thereto, or to aid, abet, or cause any of same to be done in any manner. For purposes of this article the terms narcotic drugs, dangerous drugs, and controlled substances shall mean those defined or recognized as such by any law of the State of Texas or of the United States.

Art. 4551g. Civil Immunity—Peer Review, Judicial or Grievance Committees

In the absence of fraud, conspiracy, or malice, the elected members of the dental peer review, judicial or grievance committees of a dental society or association which has not less than 75 percent of the licensed dentists in such area as members, shall not be subject to suit or suits for damages for alleged injury, wrong, loss, or damage for and while performing duties of investigating disagreements or complaints, holding hearings to determine facts, or in making evaluations, recommendations, decisions, or awards involving dentists, dental patients and/or third parties. The Texas State Board of Dental Examiners shall determine the various areas and shall certify the percentage requirements from its records of the dental licensees in such area or areas. This immunity is enacted to relieve and protect the persons named herein from being harassed and threatened with legal action while attempting to perform required duties.

Art. 4551f. See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 7 to 20

Art. 4551j. Civil Immunity, Official Acts

In the absence of fraud, conspiracy, or malice, no member of the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners, its employees, nor any witness called to testify by said board, nor any consultant or hearing officer appointed by said board shall be liable or subject to suit or suits for damages for alleged injury, wrong, loss, or damage allegedly caused by any of said persons for any investigation, report, recommendation, statement, evaluation, finding, order, or award made in the course of any of said persons performing assigned, designated, official, or statutory duties. This immunity is enacted to relieve and protect the members, its employees, nor any witness called to testify thereunto hereby declared that it would have passed such remaining portions of this Act despite such invalidity or unconstitutionality of any part or portion thereof.

Art. 4552-4.01B. Educational Requirement for Renewal

(a) Each optometrist licensed in this state shall take annual courses of study in subjects relating to the utilization and application of scientific, technical, and clinical advances in vision care, vision therapy, visual training, and other subjects relating to the practice of optometry regularly taught by recognized optometric universities and schools.

(b) The length of study required is 12 hours per calendar year.

(c) The continuing education requirements established by this section shall be fulfilled by attendance in continuing education courses sponsored by an accredited college of optometry or in a course approved by the board. Attendance at a course of study shall be certified to the board on a form provided by the board and shall be submitted by each licensed optometrist in conjunction with his application for renewal of his license and submission of renewal fee.

(d) The board may take action necessary in order to qualify for funds or grants made available by the United States or an agency of the United States for the establishment and maintenance of programs of continuing education.

(e) Licensees who have not complied with the requirement of this section may not be issued a renewal license, except for the following persons who are exempt:

1. A person who holds a Texas license but who does not practice optometry in Texas;
2. A licensee who served in the regular armed forces of the United States during part of the 12 months immediately preceding the annual license renewal date;
3. A licensee who submits proof that he suffered a serious or disabling illness or physical disability which prevented him from complying with the requirements of this section during the 12 months immediately preceding the annual license renewal date; or
4. A licensee first licensed within the 12 months immediately preceding the annual renewal date.

[Added by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1151, ch. 486, § 2, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]
Art. 4566-1.12. Fees and Expenses
[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (a) to (d)]

(e) The Secretary-Treasurer of the Board shall, on or before the 10th day of each month, remit to the State Treasurer all of the fees collected by the Board during the preceding month for deposit in the General Revenue Fund.

(f) Each member of the Board is entitled to a per diem of $30 for each day he is engaged in performing the duties of his office. The travel expenses allowance for members of the Board and its employees shall be provided in the General Appropriations Act. The executive director of the Board shall be allowed his actual expenses incurred while traveling on official business for the Board.
[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (g) and (h)]

(i) Funds for the administration of this Act shall be provided by the General Appropriations Act from the General Revenue Fund.

(j) The balance of all money remaining in the “Fitting and Dispensing of Hearing Aids Fund” account on August 31, 1979, is transferred to the General Revenue Fund.

Art. 4566-1.13. Renewal of License
(a) On or before the first day of January 1972, every licensee under this Act shall pay to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board an annual renewal fee of $67.50 for the renewal of his license to fit and dispense hearing aids for the year 1972. On or before the first day of January, 1973, and every year thereafter, every licensee under this Act shall pay to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board an annual renewal fee of $125.00 for renewal of his license to fit and dispense hearing aids for the current year. On receipt of said renewal fee, the Board shall issue an annual renewal certificate bearing the number of his license, the year for which it is renewed, and such other information from the records of the Board as the Board may deem necessary for the proper enforcement of this Act.
[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (b) to (e)]

CHAPTER ELEVEN. PODIATRY

Art. 4568b. Application of Sunset Act
The Texas State Board of Podiatry Examiners is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished effective September 1, 1981.
[Added by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1838, ch. 735, § 2.044, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 4569. Examination Grades; Fee; Subjects; Re-examination
(a) Except as provided in Article 4569a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, all applicants for license to practice podiatry in this State under the provisions of this Act must successfully pass an examination by the Texas State Board of Podiatry Examiners.

(b) The Board is authorized to adopt and enforce rules of procedure for administering this Article that are not inconsistent with the statutory requirements.

(c) The examinations shall be written and practical and in the English language, and all applicants that possess the qualifications required for an examination and who shall pass the examinations prescribed with a general average of seventy-five per cent (75%) in all subjects and not less than sixty per cent (60%) in any one subject shall be issued a license by the Board to practice podiatry in this State.

(d) The subjects the applicant must be examined in are anatomy, chemistry, dermatology, diagnosis, materia-medica, pathology, physiology, microbiology, orthopedics and podiatry, limited in their scope to ailments of the human foot.

(e) The Board shall determine the credit to be given on the answers turned in on the subjects in which examined and the discretion of the Board on the examinations shall be final.

(f) All applicants shall pay to the secretary-treasurer of the Board an examination fee of Seventy-Five Dollars ($75) at least fifteen (15) days before the dates of the regular examinations.

(g) Applicants who fail to satisfactorily pass an examination and are refused a license for such failure, shall be entitled to one (1) re-examination at a regular session of the Board without payment of an additional examination fee, provided this first re-examination is taken within eighteen (18) months after date of the original examination. All applicants shall be required to pay the regular examination fee of Seventy-Five Dollars ($75) for all subsequent re-examinations.

(h) All examinations or re-examinations shall be in all subjects as provided for in this Act.

(i) The secretary-treasurer of the Board shall report to each applicant the grade made in each subject and the general average on the examination within sixty (60) days from the date of the examination.

[Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 320, ch. 149, § 1, eff. May 11, 1979.]
Art. 4569a. Licensure of Podiatry Faculty Members

(a) The board may issue a license to practice podiatry without administering the examination specified in Article 4569, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, to any podiatrist who at the time of applying for a license has accepted an appointment or is serving as a full-time member of the faculty of an educational institution in this state offering an approved or accredited course of study or training leading to a degree in podiatry, who is licensed to practice podiatry in any other state or territory of the United States having requirements for licensing substantially equivalent to those established by the laws of this state, and who otherwise satisfies the requirements of Article 4570, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

(b) In this article a course of study, training, or education is considered approved or accredited if it is approved or accredited by the Texas State Board of Podiatry Examiners as constituting a bona fide reputable course of training, study, or education. In making a decision relating to the approval or accreditation of a course of study, training, or education, the board shall consider whether the course is approved or accredited by the Council on Education of the American Podiatry Association or its successor organization.

(c) Except for the requirement of an examination, any person applying for a license under this article must comply with all application, licensure, and relicensure requirements relating to podiatry and is subject to all laws relating to the practice of podiatry.

(d) A license granted under this article permits the practice of podiatry only for purposes of instruction in the educational institution.

(e) If the faculty appointment of a podiatrist licensed under this article is terminated, his license issued under this article terminates. However, nothing in this article is to be construed to prohibit the podiatrist from applying for and obtaining a license or in any way affect a license obtained by the podiatrist by complying with Article 4569, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and other applicable laws relating to the practice of podiatry.

Art. 4570. Application for License

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (a)]

(b) The applicant shall submit any information reasonably required by the Board, including evidence satisfactory to the Board that the applicant:

(1) has attained the age of twenty-one (21) years;
(2) is of good moral character;

(3) has completed at least ninety (90) semester hours of college courses acceptable at the time they were completed for credit on a Bachelor's Degree at The University of Texas;

(4) is a graduate of a bona fide reputable school of podiatry or chiropody, and shall furnish a diploma from the school; and

(5) has successfully completed any other course of training reasonably required by rule of the Board relating to the safe care and treatment of patients.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (e)]

(d) The State Board of Podiatry Examiners may refuse to admit persons to its examinations, and to issue a license to practice podiatry to any person, for any of the following reasons:

(1) The presentation to the Board of any license, certificate, or diploma, which was illegally or fraudulently obtained, or when fraud or deception has been practiced in passing the examination.

(2) Conviction of a crime of the grade of a felony or any crime which involves moral turpitude, or conviction of a violation of Article 4567c, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

(3) Habits of intemperance, or drug addiction, calculated, in the opinion of the Board, to endanger the health, well-being, or welfare of patients.

(4) Grossly unprofessional or dishonorable conduct, of a character which in the opinion of the Board is likely to deceive or defraud the public.

(5) The violation, or attempted violation, direct or indirect, of any of the provisions of this Act (Title 71, Chapter 11, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended),5 or any rule adopted under this Act, either as a principal, accessory, or accomplice.

(6) The use of any advertising statement of a character tending to mislead or deceive the public.

(7) Advertising professional superiority, or the performance of professional service in a superior manner.

(8) The purchase, sale, barter, or use, or any offer to purchase, sell, barter, or use, any podiatry degree, license, certificate, diploma, or transcript of license, certificate, or diploma, in or incident to an application to the Board of Podiatry Examiners for a license to practice podiatry.

(9) Altering, with fraudulent intent, any podiatry license, certificate, diploma, or transcript of a podiatry license, certificate, or diploma.

(10) The use of any podiatry license, certificate, diploma, or transcript of any such podiatry license, certificate, or diploma, which has been fraudulently purchased, issued, counterfeited, or materially altered.
(11) The impersonation of, or acting as proxy for, another in any examination required by this Act for a podiatry license.

(12) The impersonation of a licensed practitioner, or permitting, or allowing, another to use his license, or certificate to practice podiatry in this State, for the purpose of treating, or offering to treat, conditions and ailments of the feet of human beings by any method.

(13) Employing, directly or indirectly, any person whose license to practice podiatry has been suspended, or association in the practice of podiatry with any person or persons whose license to practice podiatry has been suspended, or any person who has been convicted of the unlawful practice of podiatry in Texas or elsewhere.

(14) The wilful making of any material misrepresentation or material untrue statement in the application for a license to practice podiatry.

(15) The inability to practice podiatry with reasonable skill and safety to patients by reason of age, illness, drunkenness, excessive use of drugs, narcotics, chemicals or any other type of material or as a result of any mental or physical condition. In enforcing this subsection the Board shall, upon probable cause, request a podiatrist to submit to a mental or physical examination by medical doctors designated by it. If the podiatrist refuses to submit to the examination, the Board shall issue an order requiring the podiatrist to show cause why he will not submit to the examination and shall schedule a hearing on the order within 30 days after notice is served on the podiatrist. The podiatrist shall be notified by either personal service or by certified mail with return receipt requested. At the hearing, the podiatrist and his attorney are entitled to present any testimony and other evidence to show why the podiatrist should not be required to submit to the examination. After a complete hearing, the Board shall issue an order either requiring the podiatrist to submit to the examination or withdrawing the request for examination.

(16) The failure to practice podiatry in an acceptable manner consistent with public health and welfare.

(17) Being removed, suspended, or disciplined in another manner by the podiatrist's peers in any professional podiatry association or society, whether the association or society is local, regional, state, or national in scope or being disciplined by a licensed hospital or the medical staff of a hospital, including removal, suspension, limitation of hospital privileges, or other disciplinary action, if any of these actions in the opinion of the Board were based on unprofessional conduct or professional incompetence that was likely to harm the public, provided that the Board finds that the action taken was appropriate and reasonably supported by evidence submitted to the association, society, hospital, or medical staff.

(18) Repeated or recurring meritorious health care liability claims against the podiatrist that in the opinion of the Board are evidence of professional incompetence likely to injure the public.

1 Article 4567 et seq.

Art. 4571. Licenses

Annual License Renewal

Sec. 1. (a) The Texas State Board of Podiatry Examiners shall set and may from time to time change the amount of the annual license renewal fee as in the Board's judgment may be needed to provide for the reasonable costs and expenses of the Board in performing its duties and administering this Act, but such annual license renewal fee shall not exceed Fifty Dollars ($50). The annual license renewal fee shall be paid to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board.

(b) The Secretary-Treasurer of the Texas State Board of Podiatry Examiners on or before August first of each year shall notify, by mail, all Texas licensed podiatrists at their last known address that the annual license renewal fee is due on the following September first.

(c) If the annual license renewal fee is not paid on or before the following December first, the delinquent licensee shall be notified by mail at his last known address by the Secretary-Treasurer that such fee is due and unpaid and a delinquent penalty of Twenty Dollars ($20) is assessed and shall be paid on or before the following January first. If such fees are not paid by January first, it shall be the duty of the Texas State Board of Podiatry Examiners to suspend or revoke the license for nonpayment of the annual license renewal and delinquent fees for the current year.

(d) The Board by rule may adopt a system under which licenses expire on various dates during the year, and the dates for sending notice that payment is due and dates of suspension, revocation, and assessment of a penalty for nonpayment shall be adjusted accordingly. For the year in which the license renewal date is changed, license fees payable on September 1 shall be prorated on a monthly basis so that each licensee shall pay only that portion of the license fee which is allocable to the number of months during which the license is valid. On renewal of the license on the new expiration date, the total license renewal fee is payable.
HEALTH—PUBLIC 2850

Art. 4571

Effect of Practicing Without Renewing License

Sec. 2. Practicing podiatry without an annual renewal certificate for the current year, as provided herein, shall have the same force and effect and be subject to all penalties of practicing podiatry without a license.

Re-examination if License Revoked

Sec. 3. After the Board has declared a license suspended or revoked for nonpayment of the annual license renewal fee as provided for in this Article, the Board may thereafter in its discretion refuse to reinstate the license or issue a new license until the podiatrist, whose license has been declared suspended or revoked has passed the regular examination for license.

Reissuance of Lost or Amended License

Sec. 4. If any license issued by the Board is lost, destroyed or stolen from the legally qualified and authorized person to whom it was issued, the owner of the license shall report the fact to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board, in an affidavit form. The affidavit shall set forth detailed information as to the loss, destruction or theft, giving dates, place and circumstances. If the owner of a license desires to have an amended license issued to him because of a lawful change in the name or degree designation of the licensee or for any other lawful and sufficient reason, the owner of the license shall make application for such amended license to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board setting forth the reasons the issuance of an amended license is requested. A duplicate or amended license shall be issued upon regular application of the owner of the original license and payment of a fee set by the Board for the duplicate or amended license; however, the Board shall not issue a duplicate or amended license until sufficient evidence by the owner of the original license has been submitted to prove the license has been lost or to establish the lawful reason an amended license should be issued, and unless the records of the Board show a license had been issued and been in full force and effect at the time of such loss, destruction or theft, or such request for an amended license. If an amended license is issued, the original license shall be returned to the Board.

Display of License

Sec. 5. Every person licensed by the State Board of Podiatry Examiners to practice in the state shall conspicuously display both his license and an annual renewal certificate for the current year of practice in the place or office wherein he practices and shall be required to exhibit such license and renewal certificate to a representative of the Board upon such representative’s official request for its examination or inspection.

Renewal After Military Service

Sec. 6. Any licensed podiatrist whose license has been suspended or revoked or whose annual renewal certificate has expired while he has been engaged in Federal service or on active duty with the Army of the United States, the United States Navy, the United States Marine Corps, the United States Coast Guard, the United States Air Force, or the United States Maritime Service or the State Militia, called into service or training of the United States of America or in training or education under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the military service, may have his license renewed without paying any lapsed renewal fee or without passing any examination, if, within one (1) year after termination of said service, training or education, other than by dishonorable discharge, he furnishes the State Board of Podiatry Examiners an affidavit to the effect that he has been so engaged and that his service, training or education has been so terminated.

Section 2 of the 1977 amendatory act repealed art. 4571a and § 3 thereof provided:

"All laws or parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed to the extent of such conflict."

See, now, § 1(d) of art. 4571.

Art. 4574. Compensation and Expenses

Each member of the board shall receive for his services fifty dollars a day and necessary traveling and incidental expenses, while actually engaged in the performance of his official duties; except that no board member may be paid the per diem expenses allowed by this article for more than fifty days in a calendar year. The secretary shall receive for his necessary expenses for services actually performed for the board. All printing, postage and other contingent expenses, necessarily incurred in administering this law shall be paid from the fees received by the board, and all expenses shall be itemized, verified, audited and an account kept thereof by the secretary of the board, who shall pay the same out of the fees which accrue to the board.

[Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 137, ch. 66, § 1, eff. April 18, 1977.]

CHAPTER TWELVE. EMBALMING

Art. 4582b. Funeral Directing and Embalming

Definitions

Sec. 1. A. 1. A "funeral director" as that term is used herein, is a person who for compensation engages in or conducts, or who holds himself out as being engaged, for compensation, in preparing, other than by embalming, for the burial or disposition of dead human bodies, and maintaining or operating a funeral establishment for the preparation and disposition, or for the care of dead human bodies.

2. A person who acts as a funeral director without holding a funeral director license violates this Act. This subdivision does not apply to a registered apprentice who works under the supervision of a licensed funeral director. A person who is engaged in the business of funeral directing or who professes to be engaged in that business or who holds himself or herself out to the public as a funeral director shall be a licensed funeral director.

D. The term "embalmer" as herein used is a person who for compensation disinfects or preserves a dead human body, entire or in part by the use of chemical substances, fluids, or gases in the body, or by the introduction of the same into the body by vascular or hypodermic injection, or by direct application into the organs or cavities, or by any other method intended to disinfect or preserve a dead human body, or restore body tissues and structures. The placing of any such chemicals or substances on or in a dead human body by any person who is not a licensed embalmer shall be deemed a violation of this Act, provided that this shall not apply to a registered apprentice working under the supervision of a licensed embalmer. All persons who are engaged in the business of embalming or who profess to be engaged in such business, or hold themselves out to the public as embalmers, shall be licensed embalmers.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of E to J]

J. An "accredited school or college of mortuary science" is a school or college which maintains a course of instruction of not less than forty-eight (48) calendar weeks or four (4) academic quarters or college terms and which gives a course of instruction that includes but is not limited to the following fundamental subjects: (a) mortuary management and administration; (b) legal medicine and toxicology as it pertains to funeral directing; (c) public health, hygiene and sanitary science; (d) mortuary science, to include embalming technique, in all its aspects; chemistry of embalming, color harmony; discoloration, its causes, effects and treatment; treatment of special cases; restorative art; funeral management; and professional ethics; (e) anatomy and physiology; (f) chemistry, organic and inorganic; (g) pathology; (h) bacteriology; (i) sanitation and hygiene; (j) public health regulations; (k) other courses of instruction in fundamental subjects prescribed by the Board; and (l) local, state, and federal rules and laws relating to the care and disposition of dead human bodies.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of K]

L. A "commercial embalmer" or "commercial embalming establishment" is one that embalms for licensed funeral establishments and does not sell any services or merchandise directly or at retail to the public, and shall otherwise meet the requirements of a licensed embalmer as provided in this Act. A commercial embalmer or a commercial embalming establishment may not employ an embalmer who is not licensed under this Act.

M. "Solicitation" means a direct or indirect contact with the family, next of kin, or one who has custody of a person who is deceased or near death for the purpose of securing the right to provide funeral services or merchandise for the deceased or the person near death. Provided, however, that the term "solicitation" shall not be deemed to include any attempt to secure funeral business pursuant to a permit issued under the provisions of Chapter 512, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, as amended (Article 548b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), or to include any method of advertising by publication or broadcasting.

N. "Funeral merchandise" means merchandise sold primarily for use in funeral ceremonies, for embalming, or for the care and preparation of deceased human bodies for burial, cremation, or other disposition.

O. "Funeral services" means services performed incident to funeral ceremonies or for the care and preparation of deceased human bodies for burial, cremation, or other disposition and includes embalming.

P. "Outer enclosure" means an enclosure or container placed in a grave above or around the casket and includes burial vaults, grave boxes, and grave liners.

Q. "Suitable container" means a container other than a casket that can be used to hold and transport a deceased human body.

The Board

Sec. 2. A. (1) There is hereby created the State Board of Morticians, with offices located in Austin, Texas, consisting of nine (9) members who shall be citizens of the United States and residents of the State of Texas. Five (5) members must be licensed embalmers or funeral directors in the State of Texas and each of these members must have a minimum of five (5) years, consecutively, of such experience in this state immediately preceding appointment. At least three (3) such licensed members shall be embalmers. Four (4) members must be representatives of the general public who are not regulated under this Act.

(2) The members of said Board shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the consent of the Senate for staggered terms of six (6) years. Each member shall be subject to removal by the Governor for neglect of duty, incompetence, or fraudulent or dishonest conduct. The Governor shall remove from the Board any member whose license to practice funeral directing and/or embalming has been voided, revoked or suspended. Any vacancy in an unexpired term shall be filled by appointment of the Governor for the unexpired term. No member of the Board shall be appointed for more than one (1) full term of service.

(3) A member of the Board or an employee of the State Board of Morticians who carries out the functions of the Board may not:

(a) be an officer, employee, or paid consultant of a trade association in the funeral industry;
(b) be related within the second degree by affinity or within the third degree by consanguinity to a person who is an officer, employee, or paid consultant of a trade association in the funeral industry;
(c) communicate directly or indirectly with a party or the party’s representative to a proceeding pending before the Board unless notice and an opportunity to participate is given to all parties to the proceeding, if the member or agent is assigned to make a decision, a finding of fact, or a conclusion of law in the proceeding.

(4) Members of the Board, except those members who are duly licensed embalmers or funeral directors, may not have personally, nor be related to persons within the second degree by affinity or third degree by consanguinity who have, except as consumers, financial interests in funeral establishments as officers, directors, partners, owners, employees, attorneys, or paid consultants of the funeral establishments or otherwise.

(5) No member shall be appointed to the Board who is an officer or employee of a corporation or other business entity controlling or operating, directly or indirectly, more than three funeral establishments, if another member of the Board is also an officer or employee of the same corporation or other business entity.

(6) A person who is required to register as a lobbyist under Chapter 422, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, as amended (Article 6252-9c, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), may not act as the general counsel to the Board or serve as a member of the Board.

(7) Appointments to the Board shall be made without regard to the race, creed, sex, religion, or national origin of the appointees.

(8) Each member of the Board shall be present for at least one-half of the regularly scheduled meetings held each year by the Board. The failure of a member to meet this requirement automatically removes the member from the Board and creates a vacancy on the Board.

D. The Board shall elect, after thirty (30) days’ written notice is given to members, a President, Vice-President, and Secretary from the members of the said Board who shall serve one (1) year, or until their successor shall be elected and qualified in cases of resignation or death. In the absence of an Executive Secretary, the Secretary shall be bonded to the State of Texas in a sum equal to the maximum annual anticipated receipts of the Board and any premium payable for such bond shall be paid from the funds of the Board; likewise, the Board will require a bond of the Executive Secretary, if any, and such bond shall be deposited with the State Auditor of the State of Texas. The President of the Board shall preside at all meetings of the Board unless otherwise ordered, and he shall exercise all duties and performances incident to the office of the President of the Board, and in his absence the Vice-President shall preside. A majority of the membership of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

E. The Board shall make an annual report covering the work of the Board for the preceding fiscal year, and such report shall be filed with the Governor and shall include:

1. An itemized account of money received and expended and the purpose therefor which has been duly certified by the State Auditor;
2. The names of all duly licensed funeral directors, embalmers, and funeral establishments. A copy shall be filed with the Secretary of State for permanent record, a certified copy of which, under the hand and seal of the Secretary of State, shall be admissible as evidence in all courts; and
3. A description of the activities of the Board during the preceding fiscal year.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of F to H]

I. Membership of the Board shall be reimbursed for necessary traveling expenses incident to attendance upon the business of the Board, and in addition thereto, each shall receive a per diem allowance of Fifty Dollars ($50) for each day actually spent by such member upon attendance to the business of the Board, not to exceed sixty (60) days within a calendar year. The Secretary, in the absence of an Executive Secretary, notwithstanding membership on the Board, shall receive and be paid a salary for the time he devotes to the business of the Board, and the amount and method of payment shall be fixed by the Board and in addition thereto, he shall receive necessary traveling expenses incurred in the performance of such duty; provided, however, he shall not be paid a per diem allowance during the time he is compensated on a salary basis; and provided that all such expenses, per diem allowance and compensation shall be paid out of the receipts of the Board. All fees and other funds received by the Board shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund. No claim for traveling expenses or per diem allowance shall be allowed or paid unless the claim be in writing and signed by the claimant under oath.

N. The State Board of Morticians is subject to the Texas Sunset Act, as amended (Article 5429k, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes); and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1991.

O. The Board is subject to the open meetings law, Chapter 271, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6252–17, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), and the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252–13a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

P. If the appropriate standing committees of both houses of the legislature acting under Subsection (g), Section 5, Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252–13a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), transmit to the Board statements opposing adoption of a rule under that section, the rule may not take effect, or if the rule has already taken effect, the rule is repealed effective on the date the Board receives the committees’ statements.

Licensees—Funeral Directors and Embalmers

Sec. 3.

B. The minimum requirements for the issuance of licenses by this Board to practice funeral directing and/or embalming in Texas are as follows, to wit:

1. For a license to practice funeral directing: the applicant shall be found by the Board to be not less than eighteen (18) years of age, a resident of the State of Texas, having graduated from an accredited high school or passed examination prescribed by the Texas Education Agency, having graduated from an accredited school or college of mortuary science approved by this Board, having served as an apprentice for at least one (1) year under the personal supervision and instruction of a licensed funeral director and having satisfied the Board through written examination as to his proficiency by examination on the subjects of: (a) the art and technique of funeral directing; (b) signs of death; (c) the manner by which death may be determined; (d) sanitation; (e) hygiene; (f) mortuary management and mortuary law; (g) business and professional ethics; (h) laws applicable to vital statistics pertaining to dead human bodies; (i) local, state, and federal rules and laws relating to the preparation, transportation, care, and disposition of dead human bodies; and such other subjects as may be taught in a recognized school or college of mortuary science. Not later than the 30th day after the day on which a person completes an examination administered by the Board, the Board shall send to the person his examination results. If requested by a person who fails the examination, the Board shall send to the person not later than the 30th day after the day on which the request is received by the Board an analysis of the person’s performance on the examination.

2. For a license to practice embalming: the applicant shall have been found by the Board to be not less than eighteen (18) years of age, a resident of the State of Texas, having graduated from an accredited high school or passed examination prescribed by the Texas Education Agency, having graduated from an accredited school or college of mortuary science approved by this Board, having served as an apprentice for one (1) year under the personal supervision of a licensed embalmer, and having satisfied the Board as to his proficiency through written and practical examination on the subjects of: (a) the anatomy of the human body; (b) the cavities of the human body; (c) the arterial and venous system of the human body; (d) blood and discoloration; (e) bacteriology and hygiene; (f) pathology; (g) chemistry and embalming; (h) arterial and cavity embalming; (i) restorative art; (j) disinfecting; (k) embalming special cases; (l) contagious and infectious diseases; (m) mortuary management; (n) care, preservation, transportation and disposition of dead human bodies; (o) laws applicable to vital statistics pertaining to dead human bodies; (p) sanitary science; (q) local, state, and federal rules and laws relating to the care and disposition of dead human bodies; and such other subjects as may be taught in a recognized school or college of mortuary science. Not later than the 30th day after the day on which a person completes an examination administered by the Board, the Board shall send to the person his examination results. If requested in writing by a person who fails the examination, the Board shall send to the person not later than the 30th day after the day on which the request is received by the Board an analysis of the person's performance on the examination.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of C]

D. It shall be the duty of the Board to prescribe and supervise the course of instruction received by an apprentice while serving his or her apprenticeship, consistent with the following requirements to establish such an apprenticeship registration procedure:

1. Apprenticeship for embalmer: A license to practice the science of embalming shall not be issued unless and until the applicant therefor has served an apprenticeship period of not less than twelve (12) consecutive months under the personal supervision and instruction of a licensed embalmer and has successfully completed all requirements of apprenticeship. The only exception to this requirement shall be in the case of an applicant under reciprocity.

   (a) Any person, eighteen (18) years of age or more, who desires to practice the science of embalming in this state, files application therefor, meets the requirements of the law and this Board, and possesses such qualification to enter into apprenticeship training, may be registered as an apprentice. Apprenticeship for a license to practice the science of embalming must be served by the person after graduation from a school or college of mortuary science. Applicant shall pay a fee not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10) at the time he requests such apprenticeship registration.

   (1) An applicant for a license to practice the science of embalming who attains a grade of 70% or higher on the written examination given by the Board upon payment of a fee not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10) therefor, shall be registered as an apprentice within six (6) months of such examination.

   (b) Each registered apprentice embalmer shall be issued a certificate of apprenticeship or other means of apprenticeship identification by the Board to be served in the State of Texas. During the period of apprenticeship he shall assist in embalming a minimum of sixty (60) dead human bodies, six (6) of which bodies the apprentice shall embalm without aid but in the immediate presence and under the personal supervision of an embalmer duly and currently licensed in the State of Texas. No more than two (2) apprentices may receive credit due for work on any one body.

   (c) An apprentice embalmer must report within ten (10) days after the end of each month each separate case handled by him or with which he has assisted in handling. Each such report shall be certified by the licensee under whom the apprentice performed his work. Throughout the period of apprenticeship, the apprentice shall report on at least one (1) such case of embalming each calendar month, within the month. In any month in which he did not embalm at least one (1) case under the direction of a licensed embalmer, a report shall be made to the Board notwithstanding.

2. Apprentice for Funeral Director: The term of apprenticeship for a funeral director's license shall be a period of not less than twelve (12) months, and may be served concurrently with apprenticeship for an embalmer's license; however, apprenticeship must be served in twelve (12) consecutive months. A person desiring to become an apprentice funeral director shall make application to the Board on a form provided by the Board, and if the Board desires, he shall appear before at least one (1) member of the Board, or a designated representative thereof, for approval of his application, subject to review of it by the entire Board. Applicant must be not less than eighteen (18) years of age and have completed the educational requirements prescribed for a funeral director, except an applicant for a funeral director's license may elect to serve apprenticeship therefor in like manner to that of one who has applied for a license to practice the science of embalming, by serving one (1) year of apprenticeship prior to completing a course of study in funeral directing prescribed by the Board and graduating from a school of embalming or college of mortuary science. The application for registration shall be sworn to and accompanied by a fee of not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10). If the application is accepted, applicant will be issued a certificate of apprenticeship registration upon determination by the Board that his qualifications are satisfactory.

   (a) An applicant for a funeral director's license and the examination therefor who has not completed one (1) year of apprenticeship prior to graduation from a school of embalming or college of mortuary science shall be admitted to apprenticeship only in the event he shall have attained a grade of 70% or higher on the written and practical examination given by the Board, and the payment of a fee of not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10) therefor, whereupon he shall be registered as an apprentice. Provided, however, applicant must register as an apprentice within six (6) months of such examination.

   (b) An apprentice funeral director must report within ten (10) days after the end of each month each separate case with which he has assisted in handling. Each such report shall be... certified to by the licensee under whom the apprentice performed the work. Throughout the period of apprenticeship the apprentice shall report on at least one (1) such case each calendar month, within the month. In any month within which he did not assist a funeral director in handling a funeral, a report shall be made to the Board notwithstanding.

(c) During the course of apprenticeship each apprentice shall assist a licensed funeral director in this state to prepare, other than by embalming, and to make final disposition of not less than sixty (60) dead human bodies, six (6) of which bodies the apprentice shall handle after the first six months of the apprenticeship. No more than two (2) apprentices may receive credit for work done on any one body.

3. Annual renewal apprenticeship certificate: Each certificate of apprenticeship issued by the Board to an apprentice embalmer or apprentice funeral director must be renewed on the first day of January of each year and will be renewed upon payment by the apprentice of a renewal fee not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10), provided the apprentice has observed the rules and regulations of the Board with respect to his apprenticeship. Notice shall be mailed, during the month of December each year, to each registered apprentice at his last known address, notifying him that the renewal fee is due. If the renewal fee is not paid on or before the 31st day of January in the year in which it became due, a penalty in the sum of not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10) will be added to the renewal fee of each certificate when paid. Thirty (30) days after the grace period as above provided, if said annual renewal fee and penalty still remain unpaid, it shall be the duty of the Board, acting through its Secretary, to suspend his certificate for nonpayment of the annual renewal fee and to notify such apprentice of such suspension by registered mail, addressed to his last known address. If the said renewal fee and penalty is not then paid within ninety (90) days from the date of such notice of suspension, the Board shall then cancel such certificate. Provided, however, after an apprentice certificate has been cancelled, the apprentice may apply for reinstatement within eighteen (18) months from the date such apprentice certificate was cancelled and the Board may reinstate said apprentice provided he meets all other requirements of the Board. It is provided that the registration fee of any apprentice who is actively engaged in the military service of the United States may be remitted for the duration of such service or for such fees and such time as the Board may deem advisable upon presentation of proper evidence required by the Board.

3a. The board by rule shall adopt a system under which certificates expire on various dates during the year. The date for sending notice that payment is due, the dates of the grace period, the date on which penalty attaches, and the date for suspension due to nonpayment shall be adjusted accordingly. For the year in which the certificate expiration date is changed, certification fees payable on January 1 shall be prorated on a monthly basis so that each certificate holder shall pay only that portion of the certification fee which is allocable to the number of months during which the certificate is valid. On renewal of the certificate on the new expiration date the total renewal fee is payable.

4. Notification of the Board upon entry into apprenticeship: When an apprentice enters the employ of a licensed embalmer or funeral director, he shall immediately notify the Board the name and place of business of the licensed embalmer or funeral director whose service he has entered and the name of the funeral director or embalmer under whom he will train, and such notification shall be signed by the embalmer or funeral director in each case. If at any time thereafter such apprentice leaves the employ of the licensed embalmer or funeral director whose services he has entered, the said licensed embalmer or funeral director shall give to such apprentice an affidavit showing the length of time he has served as an apprentice with him and the number of cases handled while so employed; the original of said affidavit shall be filed with the Board and made a matter of record, and a copy shall be furnished to the apprentice. The Board shall furnish report forms to be used by each apprentice.

(a) Any apprentice registration shall be cancelled, and the applicant required to re-register, including paying the required fees, for failure to pass the Board’s examination of such apprentice after only part of the apprenticeship has been completed. Provided, however, such applicant shall be given credit for apprenticeship time served under the cancelled license in any new registration.

5. Certificate of Apprenticeship may be suspended or revoked as provided and set forth in Section 3, subsection H.

E. Any person engaged or desiring to engage in the practice of embalming or funeral directing in this state, in connection with the care and disposition of dead human bodies, shall make written application to the Board for a license accompanying same with a fee not to exceed Fifty Dollars ($50). The license or licenses when issued shall be signed by a majority of the Board and shall authorize the licensee to practice the science of embalming and/or funeral directing. All licenses shall be registered in the office of the County Clerk in any county in which the holder thereof resides and practices embalming and/or funeral directing and shall be displayed conspicuously in the place of business. Every licensed embalmer and/or funeral director who desires to continue his practice shall biennially pay to the Secretary of the said Board a fee not to exceed Forty Dollars ($40) for the renewal of each funeral director's license and each embalmer's license. Said license shall become due and payable biennially on the 31st day of May, and the Board will give written notice on or before April 1st, of each year that the license fees are due and payable.

When a licensee under this Act shall fail to pay his biennial registration fee, it shall be the duty of the Board to notify such licensee at his last known address that his biennial registration fee is due and unpaid and that a penalty equal to the amount of the registration fee has been added. If such fee and penalty are not paid within thirty (30) days after notification by regular mail, it shall be the duty of the Board to suspend the license and notify the licensee by certified mail, return receipt requested, of such suspension. Ninety (90) days after the Board shall have declared a license suspended, as provided herein, the license shall be automatically cancelled and the Board may thereafter refuse to reinstate the licensee until the applicant has passed a regular examination for license as provided in this Act. If any license issued under this Act shall be lost or destroyed, the holder of any such license may present his application for duplicate license to the State Board of Morticians, on a form to be prescribed by the Board, together with his affidavit of such loss or destruction, and that he is the same person to whom such license was issued, and such other information concerning its loss or destruction as the State Board of Morticians shall require, and shall, upon payment of a fee not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10), as determined by the Board, be granted a duplicate license. The Board shall adopt rules to carry out the biennial licensing system.

1. Any license that has been cancelled, suspended or lapsed for a period of five (5) years or more may be reinstated only after the applicant shall have passed a written and practical examination by the Board on embalming and/or a written examination on funeral directing.

2. The board by rule shall adopt a system under which licenses expire on various dates during the year. All dates for sending notice regarding payment of fees and dates for license suspension for nonpayment shall be adjusted accordingly. For the year in which the license expiration date is changed, license fees payable on May 31 shall be prorated on a monthly basis so that each licensee shall pay only that portion of the license fee which is allocable to the number of months during which the license is valid. On renewal of the license on the new expiration date, the total license renewal fee is payable.

F. (1) On a reciprocal basis with other states, countries, or territories the Board may issue, without examination, a license to an applicant who has a corresponding certificate or license issued by another state, country, or territory having standards for the license that are at least substantially equivalent to those of this state and who pays a fee of Fifty Dollars ($50). The person's application shall be accompanied by an affidavit made by the President or Secretary of the Board of Mortician Examiners which issued the license, or by a duly constituted registration officer of the state, country, or territory by which the certificate or license was granted, and on which the application for registration in Texas is based, reciting that the accompanying certificate or license has not been cancelled, suspended or revoked, and that the statement of the qualifications made in the application for a license in Texas is true and correct. Applicants for a license under the provisions of this Act shall subscribe to an oath in writing before an officer authorized by law to administer oaths, which shall be a part of such application, stating that the license, certificate, or authority under which the applicant practiced as a funeral director or embalmer in the state, country, or territory from which the applicant removed, was at the time of such removal in full force and effect and not cancelled or suspended or revoked. Said application shall also state that the applicant is the identical person to whom the said certificate, license, or commission was issued, and that no proceeding has been instituted against the applicant for the cancellation, suspension or revocation of such certificate or license in the state, country, or territory in which the same was issued; and that no prosecution is pending against the applicant in any state or federal court for any offense which, under the laws of the State of Texas, is a felony, or is a misdemeanor related to the practice of embalming or funeral directing.

(2) Licenses granted under this subsection shall be on the following basis: Before a license is granted, the applicant shall receive a temporary permit good for one (1) year from date of issuance by the Board. At the end of one (1) year, the holder of said temporary permit shall again be considered by the Board, and if his application for license has been maintained and he meets all other requirements, the Board may grant said applicant a license.

H. The State Board of Morticians may seek appropriate injunctive relief against a funeral establishment, licensed embalmer, or funeral director who fails to comply with any provision of this Act. This Act does not affect any remedy or enforcement power under other laws. The State Board of Morticians may revoke, suspend, or place on probation any licensed funeral director and/or embalmer, or apprentice and may refuse to license or admit persons to examination for any of the following reasons all of which are offenses as provided in Section 6A of this Act:

1. The presentation to the Board of any license, certificate, or diploma which was illegally or fraudulently obtained, or when fraud or deception has been practiced in passing the examination;

2. Conviction of a crime of the grade of a felony or of a misdemeanor that is related to the practice of embalming or funeral directing;

3. Being unfit to practice as a funeral director and/or embalmer by reason of insanity and having been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be of unsound mind;

4. The use of any statement that misleads or deceives the public, including but not limited to false or misleading statements regarding (1) any legal, religious, or cemetery requirement for funeral merchandise or funeral services, (2) the preservative qualities of funeral merchandise or funeral services in preventing or substantially delaying natural decomposition or decay of human remains, (3) the airtight or watertight properties of a casket or outer enclosure, or (4) representations as to licensed personnel in the operation of a funeral establishment;

5. The purchase, sale, barter, or use, or any offer to purchase, sell, barter, or use any license, certificate, or transcript of license or certificate, in or incident to an application to the Board of Morticians for license to practice as a funeral director and/or embalmer;

6. Altering, with fraudulent intent, any funeral director and/or embalmer license, certificate, or transcript of license or certificate;

7. The use of any funeral director and/or embalmer license, certificate, diploma, or transcript of any such funeral director and/or embalmer license, certificate, or diploma, which has been fraudulently purchased, issued, counterfeited, or materially altered;

8. The impersonation of, or acting as proxy for, another in any examination required by this Act for a funeral director and/or embalmer license;

9. The impersonation of a licensed funeral director or embalmer as authorized hereunder, or permitting, or allowing another to use his license, or certificate to practice as a funeral director or embalmer in this state;

10. Using profane, indecent or obscene language within the immediate hearing of the family or relatives of a decedent, in proximity to a deceased person whose body has not yet been interred or otherwise disposed of; or the indecent exposure of a dead human body;

11. Taking custody of, embalming, or refusing to promptly surrender a dead human body to a person or his agent authorized to make funeral arrangements for the deceased or embalming a body without the express written or oral permission of a person authorized to make funeral arrangements for the deceased or without making a documented reasonable effort over a period of at least two (2) hours to obtain the permission;

12. Wilfully making any false statement on a certificate of death;

13. Employment directly or indirectly of any apprentice, agent, assistant, embalmer, funeral director, employee, or other person on a part or full-time basis, or on commission, for the purpose of soliciting individuals or institutions by whose influence dead human bodies may be turned over to a particular funeral director or embalmer;

14. Presentation of false certification of work done as an apprentice on apprenticeship records;

15. Unfitness by reason of present drug addiction;

16. Whenever a licensee, apprentice, or any other person, whether employee, agent or representative, or one in any manner associated with a funeral establishment shall engage in solicitation as defined in this Act;

17. Failure by the Funeral Director in Charge to provide licensed personnel for attendance, direction, or personal supervision for a "first call," as that term is defined in this Act;

18. Failure by a funeral director or embalmer to inform customers by a written notice on or near the casket of the different colors in which the three least expensive caskets displayed are available; or failure by the funeral director or embalmer to provide a casket in an available color requested by a customer if the customer has expressed an intent to purchase the casket and if the casket can be obtained from regular commercial suppliers under normal delivery conditions within twelve (12) hours;

19. Performing acts of funeral directing or embalming, as those terms are defined in this Act, which are outside the licensed scope and authority of the licensee;

20. Engaging in fraudulent or deceptive conduct in providing funeral services or merchandise to a consumer;

21. Statement or implication by a funeral director or embalmer that a customer's concern with the cost of any funeral service or funeral merchandise is improper or indicates a lack of respect for the deceased.
22. Failure by any person arranging for funeral services or merchandise to make available to the customer at the time of discussion or selection of funeral services or funeral merchandise a printed or typewritten list of the retail price of at least the following items, provided they are available for purchase through the establishment: (a) transferring the deceased to the funeral home; (b) embalming; (c) use of facilities for viewing; (d) use of facilities for funeral ceremonies; (e) hearses; (f) limousines; (g) the itemized services of the funeral establishment staff; (h) caskets; (i) outer enclosures; and which contains the name, address, and telephone number of the funeral establishment, an effective date for the prices, and a notice which reads, "You may choose only the items you desire. You will be charged only for the items you use. If you have to pay for any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the memorandum of agreement. Please note that there may be charges for such items as cemetery fees, flowers, and newspaper notices." The person arranging the funeral service shall make known to the customer the availability of the list and shall provide the list, which the customer may keep, before any contractual agreement between the parties;

23. Failure of any person arranging for funeral services or merchandise to provide each customer a written memorandum itemizing the cost of funeral services and funeral merchandise selected by the customer as enumerated in the price list, the requirements of which are set forth in Section 3, Subsection H(22) of this Act; each amount paid or owed to another on behalf of the customer; each fee for the cost of advancing funds or becoming indebted to another on behalf of the customer; and including the name, address, and telephone number of the funeral establishment and the following notice: "Charges are only for those items that are used. If the type of funeral selected requires extra items, we will explain the reasons in writing on this memorandum." Provided, however, that any person arranging for funeral services on merchandise may satisfy the itemization requirements of this Subsection H(22) by providing prices to the purchaser on a component or unit pricing basis that provides a discount to the purchaser if any component or unit is declined or if all components or units are selected. The written memorandum shall also include the name, mailing address, and telephone number of the State Board of Morticians and a statement indicating that complaints can be directed to the Board;

24. Restricting, hindering, or attempting to restrict or hinder (1) the advertising or disclosure of prices and other information regarding the availability of funeral services and funeral merchandise that is not unfair or deceptive to consumers, or (2) agreements for funeral services between any consumer or group of consumers and funeral directors or embalmers;

25. Failure to retain and make available to the State Board of Morticians, upon request, copies of all price lists, written notices, and memoranda of agreement required by this article for two years after the date of their distribution or signing. [See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of I] J. Repealed by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1249, ch. 592, § 11, eff. Sept. 1, 1979.

Funeral Establishments

Sec. 4.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of A and B]

C. Each funeral establishment shall be required to have a physical plant, equipment and personnel consisting of the following:

1. Some facilities in which funeral services may be conducted;

2. A physical plant which meets building standards and fire safety standards of the state and of the municipality in which the establishment is located;

3. Access to rolling stock consisting of at least one motor hearse;

4. A preparation room containing an operating table, sewer facilities, hot and cold running water, and other facilities necessary to comply with the sanitary code of the state and the municipality in which the room is located;

5. A display containing sufficient merchandise to permit reasonable selection, including five (5) or more adult caskets, provided that the least expensive casket offered for sale by a funeral establishment must be displayed in the same general manner as other caskets are displayed;

6. Sufficient licensed personnel who will be available to conduct the operation of the funeral establishment;

7. A physical plant located at a fixed place, and not located on any tax-exempt property or cemetery; and

8. A physical plant which meets the health standards or health ordinances of the state and of the municipality in which the establishment is located.

It is expressly provided, however, that an establishment which functions solely as a commercial embalmer, as that term is defined in this Act, shall have a commercial embalmers establishment license, but shall not be required to meet the requirements of subsections 1 and 5 of this paragraph C.
D. 1. The Board may initiate formal complaint or other action against a funeral establishment or in regard to the license of a funeral establishment only upon the following grounds:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1(a) to (e)]

2. As to asserted violations of provisions of this Section, the Board shall have the following powers, rights and duties:

(a) The Board may, in any case, require a sworn statement setting forth matter complained of as a condition to taking further action.

(b) The Board shall cause an investigation to be made whenever a complaint is filed with or by the Board.

(c) As to the licenses of funeral establishments, except when the accused admits a violation and agrees in writing to a judgment of the Board suspending or revoking the license in question or placing the accused on probation, the Board shall have no power or authority to suspend or revoke the license of the accused. However, the Board shall have the right to initiate a civil action in a District Court in the county in which the accused resides for the purpose of seeking a revocation or suspension of such license or probationary action or fine all as hereinafter provided.

If the Board shall be of the opinion that the license of the accused should be revoked or suspended for a period not to exceed three years, and if the accused will accept a decision of the Board to such effect, it shall prepare a formal judgment and submit the same to him; and upon his agreement to its entry, evidenced by memorandum in writing signed and acknowledged by him, the Board shall enter judgment accordingly and the same shall have the force and effect of a judgment of the District Court of the county of residence of the accused. A copy of the judgment, together with a copy of the complaint, shall be mailed to the clerk of the District Court of the county of residence of the accused for entry in the minutes of the court.

(d) The term “Accusation” or “Complaint” shall embrace all complaints brought before the Board. By the terms “civil suit,” “court action” or “formal complaint” is meant the pleading by which disciplinary action is instituted by the Board in a District Court of this state.

The Texas rules of civil procedure shall govern the procedure in all proceedings under Civil Actions (Formal Complaint).

The Board shall have the right to institute an action in its own name to enjoin the violation of any of the provisions of this Section. Said action for an injunction shall be in addition to any other action, proceeding, or remedy recognized by law. The Board shall be represented by counsel designated by it, or, by the Attorney General and/or County and District Attorney of this state.

Any fine imposed on the accused through judicial proceedings shall be no less than Two Hundred Dollars ($200) nor more than Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000). Any fines collected by the court shall be deposited in the General Fund of the State of Texas.
Art. 4582b

Revocation, Cancellation or Suspension of Licenses of Funeral Directors, Embalmers and Apprentices

Sec. 6. The State Board of Morticians shall have the right to cancel, revoke, or suspend or place on probation the license of any individual person licensed under this Act as provided by subparagraph H of Section 3 above.

Proceedings under this Section shall be initiated by filing charges with the State Board of Morticians in writing and under oath. Said charges may be made by any person or persons. The President of the State Board of Morticians shall set a time and place for hearing. Upon application, the Board may reissue a license to practice as a funeral director or embalmer to a person whose license has been cancelled or suspended, but such application, in the case of cancellation or revocation, shall not be made prior to one (1) year after the cancellation or revocation, and shall be made in such a manner and form as the Board may require.

The State Board shall have the power to appoint committees from the membership. The duties of any committees appointed from the State Board of Morticians membership may consider such matters pertaining to the enforcement of this Act as shall be referred to such committees, and they shall make recommendations to the State Board of Morticians with respect thereto. The State Board of Morticians shall have the power, and may delegate the said power to any committee, to issue subpoenas, duces tecum, and to compel the attendance of witnesses, the production of books, records and documents, to administer oaths, and to take testimony concerning all matters within its jurisdiction. The determination shall be founded on sufficient legal evidence to sustain it. The State Board of Morticians shall have the right to institute an action in its own name to enjoin the violation of any of the provisions of this Act. Said action for an injunction shall be in addition to any other action, proceeding, or remedy authorized by law. The State Board of Morticians shall be represented by the Attorney General and/or the County or District Attorneys of this state, or counsel designated and empowered by the Board. Before entering any order cancelling, suspending, refusing to renew, or revoking a license to practice as a funeral director and/or embalmer, the Board shall hold a hearing in accordance with the procedure as set forth in this Act.

The provisions of this Section shall not apply to funeral establishments or licenses pertaining to funeral establishments.

Sec. 6A. A person commits an offense if the person:

1. acts or holds himself out as a funeral director, embalmer, or apprentice, as those terms are defined in this Act, without being properly licensed under this Act or shall make a "first call" without the authorization or supervision as provided in Section 1C of this Act;
2. is a licensed funeral director or embalmer and engages in a funeral practice that is grounds for suspension or revocation of the person's license.

Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act

Sec. 6C. (a) A person who is denied a license or certificate by the Board is entitled to a hearing before the Board in accordance with the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252–13a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), if the person requests the hearing in writing.

(b) A proceeding conducted by the Board relating to the suspension or revocation of a license or certificate is governed by the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act. Judicial review of the proceeding is by trial de novo and is governed by the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act.

Complaints

Sec. 6D. (a) The Board shall investigate and keep an information file about each complaint received by the Board relating to a funeral director, embalmer, apprentice, or funeral establishment.

(b) The Board shall include in each information file a description of the complaint, the date on which the complaint was filed, the name of the complainant, a description of any information obtained by the Board after investigating the complaint, a description and date of any formal actions taken by the Board relating to the complaint, a description of the current status of the complaint, and other information that the Board considers appropriate.

(c) The Board, at least as frequently as quarterly, shall notify the complainant of the status of the complaint until the complaint is finally resolved.

(d) The information file, except for information in the file obtained by the Board after investigating the complaint, is public information. The information obtained after investigating the complaint is not public information.

(e) If a person files a complaint with the Board relating to a licensed funeral director, embalmer, or funeral establishment, the Board shall furnish to the person an explanation of the remedies that are available to the person under this Act and information about appropriate state or local agencies or officials with which the person may file a complaint.

(f) The Board shall employ at least one person who is a licensed private investigator under the laws
CHAPTER THIRTEEN. ANATOMICAL BOARD

[Violations and penalties]

Section 3. The board, or their duly authorized agents, may take and receive such bodies so delivered as aforesaid, and shall, upon receiving them, distribute and deliver them to and among the schools, colleges, physicians and surgeons aforesaid, including chiropractic colleges, in the manner following: Those bodies needed for lecture and demonstration in the said incorporated schools and colleges shall first be supplied; the remaining bodies shall then be distributed proportionately and equitably, the number assigned to each to be based upon the number of students receiving instruction or demonstration in normal or morbid anatomy and operative surgery, which number shall be certified by the dean of each school.
school or college to the board at such times as it may direct. Instead of receiving and delivering said bodies themselves through their agent or servant, the said board may, from time to time, either directly or by their designated officer or agent authorize physicians and surgeons to receive them, and the number which each shall receive.

[Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 147, ch. 72, § 2, eff. April 25, 1977.]

Persons who May Become Donors, and Purposes for Which Anatomical Gifts May be Made

Sec. 4. The following persons may become donors of gifts of bodies or parts thereof for the purposes stated:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (1)]

(2) any accredited medical, chiropractic, or dental school, college or university for education, research, advancement of medical or dental science or therapy; or

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (3)]

(4) any individual specified by a licensed physician for therapy or transplantation needed by him; or

(5) any eye bank whose medical activities are directed by a licensed physician or surgeon.

[Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 28, ch. 12, §§ 5, 6, eff. March 10, 1977; Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 148, ch. 72, § 3, eff. April 25, 1977.]

Art. 4590–2a. Kidney Donation by Mentally Retarded Person

Sec. 1. (a) "Mentally retarded" as used in this Act means a person who is mentally retarded pursuant to the terms and provisions of the Mentally Retarded Persons Act of 1977 (Article 5547–300, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

(b) The guardian of the person of a mentally retarded ward, 12 chronological years of age or more, may petition a district court which has jurisdiction of the guardian for an order authorizing said ward to donate one of his or her two kidneys to a father, mother, son, daughter, sister, or brother as hereinafter set out.

Sec. 2. (a) The court shall hold a hearing on the petition. An attorney ad litem and a guardian ad litem, neither of which shall be related to the ward within the second degree by consanguinity, shall be appointed by the court to represent the interest of the prospective donor.

(b) Petitioners shall have the burden of establishing good cause for the kidney donation by establishing the statutory prerequisites set out herein. The court may enter an order authorizing the kidney donation if it is established that: (1) the guardian of the prospective donor consents to the donation; (2) the prospective donor assents to the kidney transplant; (3) absent the transplant the donee will soon die or suffer severe and progressive deterioration; and with the transplant the donee will probably benefit substantially; (4) there are no medically preferable alternatives to a kidney transplant for the donee; (5) the risks of the operation and the long-term risks are minimal to the donor, and the donor will not likely suffer psychological harm; and (6) the transplant will promote the proposed donor’s best interests.

(c) Within seven days of the hearing, the court shall conduct an “in chambers” interview with the mentally retarded ward, out of the presence of the guardian, to determine whether the prospective donor assents to the donation. If the court deems it necessary, it may order a comprehensive diagnosis and evaluation, described in Section 3(24), Mentally Retarded Persons Act of 1977 (Article 5547–300, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), to be performed to aid the court in evaluating the prospective donor’s capacity to agree to the donation.

(d) In order to secure a complete record, the hearing shall be adversary in nature. The attorney ad litem shall advocate the ward’s interest, if any, in not being a donor.

(e) Upon request, any party to a proceeding instituted pursuant to this Act shall be entitled to a preferential setting.

Sections 3 and 4 of the 1979 Act provided:

"Sec. 3. This Act takes effect on September 1, 1979.

"Sec. 4. If any sentence, paragraph, or section of this Act shall be held invalid or unconstitutional, such holding shall not invalidate any other sentence, paragraph, or section hereof, and the legislature hereby expressly dictates that it would have passed such remaining sentences, paragraphs, and sections despite such invalidity."
Art. 4590-4. Justice of the Peace or Medical Examiner; Permitting Removal of Corneal Tissue

Permission to Take Tissue

Sec. 1. On a request from an authorized official of a nonprofit corporation chartered under the laws of Texas, to obtain, store, and distribute donor eyes for the justice of the peace or the medical examiner may permit the taking of corneal tissue if:

(1) the decedent from whom the tissue is to be taken died under circumstances requiring an inquest by the justice of the peace or the medical examiner;
(2) no objection by a person listed in Section 2 of this Act is known by the justice of the peace or the medical examiner; and
(3) the removal of corneal tissue will not interfere with the subsequent course of an investigation or autopsy, or alter the postmortem facial appearance.

Objection to Taking

Sec. 2. Objection may be made known to the justice of the peace or the medical examiner by the following persons:

(1) the decedent's spouse;
(2) if no spouse, the decedent's adult children;
(3) if no adult children or spouse, the decedent's parents; or
(4) if no parents, adult children, or spouse, the decedent's brothers or sisters.

Liability for Damages

Sec. 3. The justice of the peace, the medical examiner, and the eye bank official are not liable for damages in a civil action brought by a person listed in Section 2 of this Act who has not objected prior to the removal of the corneal tissue on any theory of civil recovery based on a contention that the consent or autopsy, or alter the postmortem facial appearance.

Art. 4590-5. Eye Enucleation for Anatomical Donations

Persons Who May Enucleate Eye as Anatomical Gift

Sec. 1. Only the following persons may enucleate an eye when an eye is an anatomical gift:

(1) a licensed physician or surgeon;
(2) a licensed doctor of dental surgery or medical dentistry;
(3) a licensed embalmer; or
(4) a technician supervised by a physician or surgeon.

Eye Enucleation Course

Sec. 2. All persons, except licensed physicians, who perform eye enucleations must complete a course in eye enucleation that is taught by an ophthalmologist as defined in this Act and must possess a certificate showing the fulfillment of this requirement.

Requisites of Course

Sec. 3. The course must include anatomy and physiology of the eye, instruction in maintaining a sterile field during the procedure, use of the appropriate instruments, and sterile procedures for removing the corneal button and preserving it in a preservative fluid.

"Ophthalmologist" Defined

Sec. 4. "Ophthalmologist" means for the limited purpose of this Act one licensed to practice medicine who specializes in the treatment of diseases of the eye.

[Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 27, ch. 12, §§ 1 to 4, eff. March 10, 1977.]

CHAPTER SIXTEEN. BASIC SCIENCES

Article 4590c-1. Board of Examiners in Basic Sciences Abolished; Basic Science Requirements of Boards of Medical Examiners and Chiropractic Examiners.

Art. 4590c-1. Board of Examiners in Basic Sciences Abolished; Basic Science Requirements of Boards of Medical Examiners and Chiropractic Examiners

Sec. 1. [Amends art. 4500]

Sec. 2. The State Board of Examiners in the Basic Sciences is abolished. The records and other property in the custody of the board are transferred to the State Board of Control.1

Sec. 3. (a) Prior to the issuance of a license to practice any profession or occupation granted by the Boards of Medical Examiners or Chiropractic Examiners, such board shall require from a person otherwise qualified by law, evidence, verified by transcript of credits, certifying that such person has satisfactorily completed 60 or more semester hours of college credits at a college or university which issues credits acceptable by The University of Texas at Austin leading toward a Bachelor of Arts or a Bachelor of Science degree. Said credits shall include the satisfactory completion of courses in anatomy, physiology, chemistry, bacteriology, pathology, hygiene, and public health with an average of 75 percent or better in each of such courses. The sequence of such courses shall be in the manner as from time to time is required by The University of Texas at Austin.

(b) The applicable board may charge a fee of not more than $50 for verification of the satisfaction of the completion of the courses described in Subsection (a) of this section.

c) Any license to practice issued after the effective date of this Act by the boards identified in Subsection (a) of this section contrary to this Act shall be void.

d) Any person who knowingly obtains a license from the boards identified in Subsection (a) of this section, or assists another in so doing, without complying with this Act, or who presents any information called for in this Act obtained by dishonesty or fraud or by any forged or counterfeit means, or who knowingly acts, advises, or assists another in so doing, shall be subject to a Class A misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished in accordance with Section 12.21, Penal Code.

(e) All funds on hand in the basic science examination fund shall be allocated and transferred by the comptroller to the respective boards identified above, prorated on the basis of the number of certificates of proficiency issued by the Board of Basic Science to licensees of such board during the fiscal year immediately preceding the effective date of this Act. Such funds may be used by the Boards of Medical Examiners and of Chiropractic Examiners to carry out the provisions of this Act.

CHAPTER TWENTY. NATURAL DEATH

Art. 4590h. Natural Death Act

Sec. 1. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the Natural Death Act.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) "Attending physician" means the physician selected by, or assigned by the physician selected by, the patient who has primary responsibility for the treatment and care of the patient.

(2) "Directive" means a written document voluntarily executed by the declarant in accordance with the requirements of Section 3 of this Act. The directive, or a copy of the directive, shall be made part of the patient's medical records.

(3) "Life-sustaining procedure" means a medical procedure or intervention which utilizes mechanical or other artificial means to sustain, restore, or supplant a vital function, which, when applied to a qualified patient, would serve only to artificially prolong the moment of death and where, in the judgment of the attending physician, noted in the qualified patient's medical records, death is imminent whether or not such procedures are utilized. "Life-sustaining procedure" shall not include the administration of medication or the performance of any medical procedure deemed necessary to alleviate pain.

(4) "Physician" means a physician and surgeon licensed by the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners.

(5) "Qualified patient" means a patient diagnosed and certified in writing to be afflicted with a terminal condition by two physicians, one of whom shall be the attending physician, and the other shall be chosen by the patient or the attending physician, who have each personally examined the patient.

(6) "Terminal condition" means an incurable condition caused by injury, disease, or illness, which, regardless of the application of life-sustaining procedures, would, within reasonable medical judgment, produce death, and where the application of life-sustaining procedures serves only to postpone the moment of death of the patient.

Directive for Withholding or Withdrawal of Life-Sustaining Procedures in Event of Terminal Condition

Sec. 3. Any adult person may execute a directive for the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures in the event of a terminal condition. The directive shall be signed by the declarant in the presence of two witnesses not related to the declarant by blood or marriage and who would not be entitled to any portion of the estate of the declarant on his decease under any will of the declarant or codicil thereto or by operation of law. In addition, a witness to a directive shall not be the attending physician, an employee of the attending physician or a health facility in which the declarant is a patient, a patient in a health care facility in which the declarant is a patient, or any person who has a claim against any portion of the estate of the declarant upon his decease at the time of the execution of the directive. The signature of the declarant shall be acknowledged, and the witnesses shall subscribe and swear to the directive before a notary public. The directive shall be in the following form:

"DIRECTIVE TO PHYSICIANS

Directive made this _____ day of _____ (month, year)."
"I, being of sound mind, willfully and voluntarily make known my desire that my life shall not be artificially prolonged under the circumstances set forth below, and do hereby declare:

1. If at any time I should have an incurable condition caused by injury, disease, or illness certified to be a terminal condition by two physicians, and where the application of life-sustaining procedures would serve only to artificially prolong the moment of my death and where my attending physician determines that my death is imminent whether or not life-sustaining procedures are utilized, I direct that such procedures be withheld or withdrawn, and that I be permitted to die naturally.

2. In the absence of my ability to give directions regarding the use of such life-sustaining procedures, it is my intention that this directive shall be honored by my family and physicians as the final expression of my legal right to refuse medical or surgical treatment and accept the consequences from such refusal.

3. If I have been diagnosed as pregnant and that diagnosis is known to my physician, this directive shall have no force or effect during the course of my pregnancy.

4. I have been diagnosed and notified as having a terminal condition by , M.D., whose address is , and whose telephone number is . I understand that if I have not filled in the physician’s name and address, it shall be presumed that I did not have a terminal condition when I made out this directive.

5. This directive shall be in effect until it is revoked.

6. I understand the full import of this directive and I am emotionally and mentally competent to make this directive.

7. I understand that I may revoke this directive at any time.

Signed

Revocation of Directive

Sec. 4. (a) A directive may be revoked at any time by the declarant, without regard to his mental state or competency, by any of the following methods:

(1) by being canceled, defaced, obliterated, or burnt, torn, or otherwise destroyed by the declarant or by some person in his presence and by his direction;

(2) by a written revocation of the declarant expressing his intent to revoke, signed and dated by the declarant. Such revocation shall become effective only on communication to an attending physician by the declarant or by a person acting on behalf of the declarant or by mailing said revocation to an attending physician. An attending physician or his designee shall record in the patient’s medical record the time, date and place of the revocation and the time, date, and place, if different, of when he received notification of the written revocation and shall enter the word “VOID” on each page of the copy of the directive in the patient’s medical records; or

(3) by a verbal expression by the declarant of his intent to revoke the directive. Such revocation shall become effective only on communication to an attending physician by the declarant or by a person acting on behalf of the declarant. An attending physician or his designee shall record in the patient’s medical record the time, date, and place of the revocation and the time, date, and place, if different, of when he received notification of the revocation and shall enter the word “VOID” on each page of the copy of the directive in the patient’s medical records.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, there shall be no criminal or civil liability on the part of any person for failure to act on a revocation made pursuant to this section unless that person has actual knowledge of the revocation.

Duration of Directive

Sec. 5. A directive shall be effective until it is revoked in a manner prescribed in Section 4 of this Act. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent a declarant from reexecuting a directive at any time in accordance with the formalities of Section 3 of this Act, including reexecution subsequent to a diagnosis of a terminal condition. If the declarant has executed more than one directive, such time shall be determined from the date of execution of the last directive known to the attending physician. If the declarant becomes comatose or is rendered incapable of communicating with the attending physician, the directive shall remain in effect for the duration of the comatose condition or until such time as the declarant’s condition renders him or her able to communicate with the attending physician.

Civil or Criminal Liability

Sec. 6. No physician or health facility which, acting in accordance with the requirements of this Act, causes the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures from a qualified patient, shall be subject to civil liability therefrom unless negligent. No health professional, acting under the direction of a physician, who participates in the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be subject to any civil liability unless negligent. No physician, or health professional acting under the direction of a physician, who participates in the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be subject to any civil liability unless negligent. No physician, health care facility, or health care professional shall be liable either civilly or criminally for failure to act pursuant to the declarant’s directive where such physician, health care facility, or health care professional had no knowledge of such directive.

Failure to Execute Directive

Sec. 7. (a) Prior to effecting a withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures from a qualified patient pursuant to the directive, the attending physician shall determine that the directive complies with the form of the directive set out in Section 3 of this Act, and, if the patient is mentally competent, that the directive and all steps proposed by the attending physician to be undertaken are in accord with the existing desires of the qualified patient and are communicated to the patient.

(b) If the declarant was a qualified patient prior to executing or reexecuting the directive, the directive shall be conclusively presumed, unless revoked, to be the directions of the patient regarding the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures. No physician, and no health professional acting under the direction of a physician, shall be criminally or civilly liable for failing to effectuate the directive of the qualified patient pursuant to this subsection. A failure by a physician to effectuate the directive of a qualified patient pursuant to this subsection may constitute unprofessional conduct if the physician refuses to make the necessary arrangements or fails to take the necessary steps to effect the transfer of the qualified patient to another physician who will effectuate the directive of the qualified patient.

(c) If the declarant becomes a qualified patient subsequent to executing the directive, and has not subsequently re-executed the directive, the attending physician may give weight to the directive as evidence of the patient’s directions regarding the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures and may consider other factors, such as information from the affected family or the nature of the patient’s illness, injury, or disease, in determining whether the totality of circumstances known to the attending physician justifies effectuating the directive. No physician, and no health professional acting under the direction of a physician, shall be criminally or civilly liable for failing to effectuate the directive of the qualified patient pursuant to this subsection.

Effect on Offense of Aiding Suicide and Insurance Policies

Sec. 8. (a) The withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures from a qualified patient in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall not, for any purpose, constitute an offense under Section 22.08, Penal Code.

(b) The making of a directive pursuant to Section 3 of this Act shall not restrict, inhibit, or impair in any manner the sale, procurement, or issuance of any policy of life insurance, nor shall it be deemed to modify the terms of an existing policy of life insurance. No policy of life insurance shall be legally impaired or invalidated in any manner by the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures from an insured qualified patient, notwithstanding any term of the policy to the contrary.

(c) No physician, health facility, or other health provider, and no health care service plan, or insurer issuing insurance, may require any person to execute a directive as a condition for being insured for, or receiving, health care services nor may the execution or failure to execute a directive be considered in any way in establishing the premiums for insurance.
Tampering with Directive

Sec. 9. A person who willfully conceals, cancels, defaces, obliterates, or damages the directive of another without such declarant's consent shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor. A person who falsifies or forges the directive of another, or willfully conceals or withholds personal knowledge of a revocation as provided in Section 4 of this Act, with the intent to cause a withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures contrary to the wishes of the declarant, and thereby, because of any such act, directly causes life-sustaining procedures to be withheld or withdrawn and death to thereby be hastened, shall be subject to prosecution for criminal homicide under the provisions of the Penal Code.

Mercy Killing not Condoned

Sec. 10. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to condone, authorize, or approve mercy killing, or to permit any affirmative or deliberate act or omission to end life other than to permit the natural process of dying as provided in this Act.

Act as Cumulative

Sec. 11. Nothing in this Act shall impair or supersede any legal right or legal responsibility which any person may have to effect the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures in any lawful manner. In such respect the provisions of this Act are cumulative.

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE. MEDICAL LIABILITY AND INSURANCE IMPROVEMENT

Art. 4590i. Medical Liability and Insurance Improvement Act

Text of article effective until August 31, 1993

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Short Title
Sec. 1.01. This part may be cited as the Medical Liability and Insurance Improvement Act of Texas.

Findings and Purposes
Sec. 1.02. (a) The Legislature of the State of Texas finds that:

(1) the number of health care liability claims (frequency) has increased since 1972 inordinately;
(2) the filing of legitimate health care liability claims in Texas is a contributing factor affecting medical professional liability rates;
(3) the amounts being paid out by insurers in judgments and settlements (severity) have likewise increased inordinately in the same short period of time;
(4) the effect of the above has caused a serious public problem in availability of and affordability of adequate medical professional liability insurance;
(5) the situation has created a medical malpractice insurance crisis in the State of Texas;
(6) this crisis has had a material adverse effect on the delivery of medical and health care in Texas, including significant reductions of availability of medical and health care services to the people of Texas and a likelihood of further reductions in the future;
(7) the crisis has had a substantial impact on the physicians and hospitals of Texas and the cost to physicians and hospitals for adequate medical malpractice insurance has dramatically risen in price, with cost impact on patients and the public;
(8) the direct cost of medical care to the patient and public of Texas has materially increased due to rising cost of malpractice insurance protection for physicians and hospitals in Texas;
(9) the crisis has increased the cost of medical care both directly through fees and indirectly through additional services provided for protection against future suits or claims; and defensive medicine has resulted in increasing cost to patients, private insurers, and the state and has contributed to the general inflation that has marked health care in recent years;
(10) satisfactory insurance coverage for adequate amounts of insurance in this area is often not available at any price;
(11) the combined effect of the defects in the medical, insurance, and legal systems has caused a serious public problem both with respect to the availability of coverage and to the high rates being charged by insurers for medical professional liability insurance to some physicians, health care providers, and hospitals;
(12) the adoption of certain modifications in the medical, insurance, and legal systems, the total effect of which is currently undetermined, may or may not have an effect on the rates charged by insurers for medical professional liability insurance;
(13) these facts have been verified by the Medical Professional Liability Study Commission, which was created by the 64th Legislature. For further amplification of these facts the legislature adopts the findings of the report of the commission.

(b) Because of the conditions stated in Subsection (a) of this section, it is the purpose of this Act to improve and modify the system by which health care liability claims are determined in order to:

(1) reduce excessive frequency and severity of health care liability claims through reasonable improvements and modifications in the Texas insurance, tort, and medical practice systems;

(2) decrease the cost of those claims and assure that awards are rationally related to actual damages;

(3) do so in a manner that will not unduly restrict a claimant's rights any more than necessary to deal with the crisis;

(4) make available to physicians, hospitals, and other health care providers protection against potential liability through the insurance mechanism at reasonably affordable rates;

(5) make affordable medical and health care more accessible and available to the citizens of Texas;

(6) make certain modifications in the medical, insurance, and legal systems in order to determine whether or not there will be an effect on rates charged by insurers for medical professional liability insurance; and

(7) make certain modifications to the liability laws as they relate to health care liability claims only and with an intention of the legislature to not extend or apply such modifications of liability laws to any other area of the Texas legal system or tort law.

1 See note under Insurance Code, art. 21.49-3.

Definitions

Sec. 1.03. (a) In this part:

(1) “Court” means any federal or state court.

(2) “Health care” means any act or treatment performed or furnished, or which should have been performed or furnished, by any health care provider for, to, or on behalf of a patient during the patient's medical care, treatment, or confinement.

(3) “Health care provider” means any person, partnership, professional association, corporation, facility, or institution duly licensed or chartered by the State of Texas to provide health care as a registered nurse, hospital, dentist, podiatrist, pharmacist, or nursing home, or an officer, employee, or agent thereof acting in the course and scope of his employment.

(4) “Health care liability claim” means a cause of action against a health care provider or physician for treatment, lack of treatment, or other claimed departure from accepted standards of medical care or health care or safety which proximately results in injury to or death of the patient, whether the patient's claim or cause of action sounds in tort or contract.

(5) “Hospital” means a duly licensed public or private institution as defined in Chapter 223, Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959, as amended (Article 4437f, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), or in Section 88, Chapter 243, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957 (Article 5547-88, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(6) “Medical care” means any act defined as practicing medicine in Article 4510, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, performed or furnished, or which should have been performed, by one licensed to practice medicine in Texas for, to, or on behalf of a patient during the patient's care, treatment, or confinement.

(7) “Pharmacist” means one licensed under Chapter 107, Acts of the 41st Legislature, Regular Session, 1929, as amended (Article 4542a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), who, for the purposes of this Act, performs those activities limited to the dispensing of prescription medicines which result in health care liability claims and does not include any other cause of action that may exist at common law against them, including but not limited to causes of action for the sale of mishandled or defective products.

(8) “Physician” means a person licensed to practice medicine in this state.

(9) “Representative” means the spouse, parent, guardian, trustee, authorized attorney, or other authorized legal agent of the patient or claimant.

(b) Any legal term or word of art used in this part, not otherwise defined in this part, shall have such meaning as is consistent with the common law.

SUBCHAPTER B. ADDITIONAL DISCIPLINARY POWERS

Definitions

Sec. 2.01. In this subchapter:

(1) “Board” means the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners.

(2) “Medical peer review committee” means a committee of a state or local professional medical society, the governing board of a licensed hospital in this state or of a medical staff of a licensed hospital, nursing home, or other health care facility, provided the committee or medical staff operates pursuant to written bylaws that have been approved by the policymaking body or the governing board of the society, hospital, nursing home, or other health care facility, or other organization of physicians formed pursuant to state or federal law and authorized to evaluate medical and health care services.

Reporting by Medical Peer Review Committee or Physician

Sec. 2.02. Any medical peer review committee in this state and any physician licensed to practice medicine or otherwise lawfully practicing medicine in this state may report relevant facts to the board relating to the acts of any physician in this state if, in the opinion of the medical peer review committee or the physician, they have knowledge relating to the physician that reasonably raises a question with respect to his or her competency.

Reporting by Professional Society

Sec. 2.03. A professional society in this state comprised primarily of physicians that takes formal disciplinary action against a member relating to professional ethics, medical incompetency, moral turpitude, or drug or alcohol abuse may report in writing to the board the name of the member, together with the pertinent information relating to the action.

Effect of Filing, Investigation, or Disposition by Board

Sec. 2.04. The filing of a report with the board pursuant to this article, investigation by the board, or any disposition by the board shall not, in and of itself, preclude any action by a hospital or other health care facility or professional society comprised primarily of physicians to suspend, restrict, or revoke the privileges or membership of the physician.

Handling of Report

Sec. 2.05. On a determination by the board that a report submitted by a medical peer review committee is without merit, the report shall be expunged from the physician's or applicant's individual historical record in the board's office. A physician or applicant or his authorized representative is entitled on request to examine the physician's or applicant's medical record in the board's office. A physician or applicant or his authorized representative is entitled on request to examine the physician's or applicant's medical record in the board's office. A physician or applicant or his authorized representative is entitled on request to examine the physician's or applicant's medical record in the board's office.

Confidentiality

Sec. 2.06. (a) Reports, information, or records received and maintained by the board pursuant to this subchapter, including any material received or developed by the board during an investigation or hearing, shall be strictly confidential and subject to the provisions of Subsection (c) of this section; however, the board may only disclose this confidential information:

(1) in a disciplinary hearing before the board or in a subsequent trial or appeal of a board action or order;

(2) to the physician licensing or disciplinary authorities of other jurisdictions, to a local, state, or national professional medical society, or to a medical peer review committee located inside or outside this state that is concerned with granting, limiting, or denying a physician hospital privileges;

(3) pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(4) to qualified personnel for bona fide research or educational purposes, if personally identifiable information relating to any person or physician is first deleted.

(b) Orders of the board relating to disciplinary action against a physician shall not be confidential.

(c) In no event shall records and reports received, maintained, or developed by the board, or disclosed by the board to others, pursuant to this article, be available for discovery or court subpoena, or introduced into evidence in a medical professional liability suit or other action for damages arising out of the provision of or failure to provide medical or health care services.

(d) A person found guilty of an unlawful disclosure of this confidential information possessed by the board shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

Immunity from Civil Liability

Sec. 2.07. A person reporting to or furnishing information to a medical peer review committee, and a member, employee, or agent of the committee, who makes a report or other information available to the board pursuant to this subchapter, or who assists in the organization, investigation, or preparation of this information, or who assists the board in carrying out its duties or functions provided by law, shall be immune from civil liability.

Reports and Data from Insurers

Sec. 2.08. (a) Every insurer providing medical professional liability insurance covering a physician or physicians in this state shall submit to the board the report or data described in Subsections (b) and (c) of this section at the time prescribed. The report or data shall be provided with respect to a complaint filed against an insured in a court, if the complaint seeks damages relating to the insured's conduct in providing or failing to provide medical or health care services, and with respect to settlement of a claim or lawsuit made on behalf of the insured:

(b) The following report or data shall be furnished to the board within 90 days after receipt by the insurer of the complaint from the insured:

(1) the name of the insured;

(2) the policy number;

(3) the policy limits;

(4) a copy of the complaint;

(5) a copy of the answer; and

(6) other pertinent data and information within the knowledge of the insurer as the board may require.
Art. 4590i—HEALTH—PUBLIC

(c) The following report or data and information shall be furnished to the board within 90 days from a judgment, dismissal, or settlement of suit involving the insured, or settlement of any claim on behalf of the insured without the filing of a lawsuit:

(1) the date of a judgment, dismissal, or settlement;
(2) whether an appeal has been taken and by which party;
(3) the amount of the settlement or judgment against the insured; and
(4) other pertinent information within the knowledge of the insurer as the board may require.

(d) There shall be no liability on the part of and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against an insurer reporting under this section, or its agents or employees, or the board or its employees or representatives, for any action taken by them pursuant to this section.

(e) In the trial of a suit against a physician based on his conduct in providing or failing to provide medical or health care services, no report or data submitted to the board under this section nor the fact that the report or data has been submitted to the board may be offered in evidence or in any manner used in the trial of the case.

Report of Felony Conviction
Sec. 2.09. Within 30 days after the conviction of a person, known to be a physician, licensed or otherwise lawfully practicing in this state or applying to be so licensed to practice, of a felony under the laws of this state, the clerk of the court of record in which the conviction was entered shall prepare and forward to the board a certified true and correct abstract of record of the court governing the case. The abstract shall include the name and address of the physician or applicant, the nature of the offense committed, the sentence, and the judgment of the court. The board shall prepare the form of the abstract and shall distribute copies of it to all clerks of courts of record within this state with appropriate instructions for preparation and filing.

Report of Board Actions
Sec. 2.10. The board shall report within 30 days the restriction, suspension, or revocation of a physician's license or other disciplinary action by the board against a physician to the appropriate health facilities and hospitals, professional societies of physicians in this state, and any entity responsible for the administration of Medicare and Medicaid in this state.

Denial of License or other Authorization and Discipline of Physician
Sec. 2.11. In addition to other powers previously granted, the board shall have authority to deny an application for a license or other authorization to practice medicine in this state and to discipline a physician licensed or otherwise lawfully practicing in this state, who, after a hearing, as provided in Article 4506, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, has been adjudged by the board of:

(1) professional failure to practice medicine in an acceptable manner consistent with public health and welfare;
(2) being removed, suspended, or having disciplinary action taken by his or her peers in any professional medical association or society, whether the association or society is local, regional, state, or national in scope, or of being disciplined by a licensed hospital or the medical staff of a hospital, including removal, suspension, limitation of hospital privileges, or other disciplinary action, if that action in the opinion of the board was based on unprofessional conduct or professional incompetence which was likely to harm the public, provided that the board finds that the actions taken were appropriate and reasonably supported by evidence submitted to it; or
(3) repeated or recurring meritorious health care liability claims which in the opinion of the board evidence professional incompetence likely to injure the public.

Methods of Discipline
Sec. 2.12. If the board finds any person to have committed any of the acts set forth in Section 2.11 of this subchapter, it may enter an order imposing one or more of the following:

(1) deny the person's application for a license or other authorization to practice medicine;
(2) administer a public or private reprimand;
(3) suspend, limit, or restrict the person's license or other authorization to practice medicine, including the practice of the person to or by the expiration of one or more specified activities of medicine;
(4) revoke the person's license or other authorization to practice medicine;
(5) require the person to submit to care, counseling, or treatment of physicians designated by the board as a condition for initial, continued, or renewal of license or other authorization to practice medicine;
(6) require the person to participate in a program of education or counseling prescribed by the board; or
(7) require the person to practice under the direction of a physician designated by the board for a specified period of time.
Temporary Suspension of License

Sec. 2.13. If the board determines from evidence or information presented to it that a person licensed to practice medicine in this state by his continuation in practice would constitute an immediate danger to the public, the board, on majority vote of the members, may temporarily suspend the license of that person without notice or hearing on the complaint, provided institution of proceedings for a hearing before the board is initiated simultaneously with the temporary suspension and provided that a hearing is held as soon as can be accomplished under Chapter 6, Title 71, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act.

Appeal

Sec. 2.14. A person against whom disciplinary action is taken pursuant to this subchapter shall have the right of judicial appeal as provided under Article 4590i, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, provided that the person may not be allowed to practice medicine or deliver health care services in violation of any disciplinary order or action of the board while the appeal is pending unless otherwise stayed by the district judge wherein the venue of the appeal lies.

Powers Cumulative

Sec. 2.15. The provisions of Subchapter B of this Act are in addition to other laws relating to medical disciplinary powers and procedures of the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners.

SUBCHAPTER C. DISTRICT REVIEW COMMITTEES

Definitions

Sec. 3.01. In this subchapter:

(1) "Board" means the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners.
(2) "Committee" means a district review committee.
(3) "District" means the district established in Section 3.02 of this subchapter.

Districts

Sec. 3.02. For the purposes of this subchapter, there shall be established a reasonable number of districts in Texas. The number of and geographic areas composed of various counties shall be designated by the board. Within six months after the effective date of this Act, the board, after a public hearing, shall designate the number of districts as in its opinion are needed and the counties to be included in the districts, shall notify the governor of the designation, and shall have the designation published in the Texas Register. After the initial designation of geographic areas in accordance with this section, the board, after a public hearing, may revise the number of districts and the composition of the various counties as it shall deem appropriate. In the event of change of the number or the composition of the various counties the board shall follow the same procedure as applies to the initial designations.

Creation of Committees; Composition; Appointment of Members; Qualifications

Sec. 3.03. A district review committee is created under the jurisdiction of the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners for each of the districts established in Section 3.02 of this subchapter. Each committee shall be composed of three persons appointed by the governor from among persons who have resided and practiced medicine in the district for more than three years before their appointment.

Term; Manner of Appointment

Sec. 3.04. (a) Each member of each committee shall be appointed by the governor, after designation of the districts, for a term of six years, except the terms of the initial members shall be as provided in Subsection (c) of this section.
(b) Each member shall hold office as long as qualified and until the appointment and qualification of his successor or until six months have elapsed since the expiration of the term for which he was appointed, whichever first occurs.
(c) The initial members of each committee shall classify themselves by lot, so that one of them shall serve a term which expires January 15, 1978, one of them shall serve a term which expires January 15, 1980, and one of them shall serve a term which expires January 15, 1982.

Filling of Vacancies

Sec. 3.05. Vacancies in the membership of a committee shall be filled by the governor by appointment for the unexpired term in the manner provided for making other appointments to a committee.

Per Diem and Expenses

Sec. 3.06. Each member of the committee shall receive the per diem and expenses provided for board members for actual duty or as provided by the board.

Rules Governing Members

Sec. 3.07. Each member of a committee is subject to law and the rules of the board as if he were a member of the board, except members shall not be subject to the provisions of Chapter 421, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, as amended (Article 6252–9b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Adoption, Amendment, or Repeal of Rules

Sec. 3.08. The board may adopt, amend, or repeal rules as may be reasonably necessary to carry
Art. 4590i

SUBCHAPTER D. NOTICE

Sec. 4.01. (a) Any person or his authorized agent asserting a health care liability claim shall give written notice of such claim by certified mail, return receipt requested, to each physician or health care provider against whom such claim is being made at least 60 days before the filing of a suit in any court of this state based upon a health care liability claim.

(b) In such pleadings as are subsequently filed in any court, each party shall state that it has fully complied with the provisions of this section and shall provide such evidence thereof as the judge of the court may require to determine if the provisions of this Act have been met.

(c) Notice given as provided in this Act shall toll the applicable statute of limitations to and including the date of receipt of a written request for such records; provided, however, that the receipt of a medical authorization executed by the claimant herein shall be considered compliance by the claimant with this section.

SUBCHAPTER E. AD DAMNUM CLAUSE

Sec. 5.01. Pleadings in a suit based on a health care liability claim shall not specify an amount of money claimed as damages. The defendant may file a special exception to the pleadings on the ground that the suit is not within the court's jurisdiction, in which event, the plaintiff shall inform the court and defendant in writing of the total dollar amount claimed. This section does not prevent a party from mentioning the total dollar amount claimed in examining prospective jurors on voir dire or in argument to the court or jury.
(d) The commissioner shall select members of the panel according to the following schedule:

   (1) one attorney and two physicians to serve a term of two years, which term shall begin on September 1, 1979, and expire on August 31, 1981, or until a successor is qualified;

   (2) one attorney and two physicians to serve a term of four years, which terms shall begin September 1, 1979, and expire August 31, 1983, or until a successor is qualified;

   (3) one attorney and two physicians to serve a term of six years, which terms shall begin September 1, 1979, and expire on August 31, 1985, or until a successor is qualified.

Thereafter, at the expiration of the term of each member of the panel so appointed, the commissioner shall select a successor, and such successor shall serve for a term of six years, or until his successor is selected. Any member who is absent for three consecutive meetings without the consent of a majority of the panel present at each such meeting may be removed by the commissioner at the request of the medical care or surgical procedure that appears on the panel submitted in writing and signed by the chairman. Upon the death, resignation, or removal of any member, the commissioner shall fill the vacancy by selection for the unexpired portion of the term.

(e) Members of the panel are not entitled to compensation for their services, but each panelist is entitled to reimbursement of any necessary expense incurred in the performance of his duties on the panel including necessary travel expenses.

(f) Meetings of the panel shall be held at the call of the chairman or on petition of at least three members of the panel.

(g) At the first meeting of the panel each year after its members assume their positions, the panelists shall select one of the panel members to serve as chairman and one of the panel members to serve as vice-chairman, and each such officer shall serve for a term of one year. The chairman shall preside at meetings of the panel, and in his absence, the vice-chairman shall preside.

(h) Employees of the Texas Department of Health shall serve as the staff for the panel.

1 Department of Health Resources abolished and Department of Health created by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., ch. 474; see art. 4418p.

Duties of Panel

Sec. 6.04. (a) To the extent feasible, the panel shall identify and make a thorough examination of all medical treatments and surgical procedures in which physicians and health care providers may be involved in order to determine which of those treatments and procedures do and do not require disclosure of the risks and hazards to the patient or person authorized to consent for the patient.

(b) The panel shall prepare separate lists of those medical treatments and surgical procedures that do and do not require disclosure and for those treatments and procedures that do require disclosure shall establish the degree of disclosure required and the form in which the disclosure will be made.

(c) Lists prepared under Subsection (b) of this section together with written explanations of the degree and form of disclosure shall be published in the Texas Register.

(d) At least annually, or at such other period the panel may determine from time to time, the panel will identify and examine any new medical treatments and surgical procedures that have been developed since its last determinations, shall assign them to the proper list, and shall establish the degree of disclosure required and the form in which the disclosure will be made. The panel will also examine such treatments and procedures for the purpose of revising lists previously published. These determinations shall be published in the Texas Register.

Duty of Physician or Health Care Provider

Sec. 6.05. Before a patient or a person authorized to consent for a patient gives consent to any medical care or surgical procedure that appears on the panel's list requiring disclosure, the physician or health care provider shall disclose to the patient, or person authorized to consent for the patient, the risks and hazards involved in that kind of care or procedure. A physician or health care provider shall be considered to have complied with the requirements of this section if disclosure is made as provided in Section 6.06 of this subchapter.

Manner of Disclosure

Sec. 6.06. Consent to medical care that appears on the panel's list requiring disclosure shall be considered effective under this subchapter if it is given in writing, signed by the patient or a person authorized to give the consent and by a competent witness, and if the written consent specifically states the risks and hazards that are involved in the medical care or surgical procedure in the form and to the degree required by the panel under Section 6.04 of this subchapter.

Effect of Disclosure

Sec. 6.07. (a) In a suit against a physician or health care provider involving a health care liability claim that is based on the negligent failure of the physician or health care provider to disclose or adequately to disclose the risks and hazards involved in the medical care or surgical procedure rendered by the physician or health care provider:

   (1) both disclosure made as provided in Section 6.05 of this subchapter and failure to disclose based on inclusion of any medical care or surgical procedure on the panel's list for which disclosure is not required shall be admissible in evidence and shall create a rebuttable presumption that the requirements of Section 6.05 and 6.06 of this subchapter have been complied with and this presumption shall be included in the charge to the jury; and

(2) failure to disclose the risks and hazards involved in any medical care or surgical procedure required to be disclosed under Sections 6.05 and 6.06 of this subchapter shall be admissible in evidence and shall create a rebuttable presumption of a negligent failure to conform to the duty of disclosure set forth in Sections 6.05 and 6.06 of this subchapter, and this presumption shall be included in the charge to the jury; but failure to disclose may be found not to be negligent if there was an emergency or if for some other reason it was not medically feasible to make a disclosure of the kind that would otherwise have been negligence.

(b) If medical care or surgical procedure is rendered with respect to which the panel has made no determination either way regarding a duty of disclosure, the physician or health care provider is under the duty otherwise imposed by law.

SUBCHAPTER G. RES IPSA LOQUITUR

Application of Res Ipsi Loquitur

Sec. 7.01. The common-law doctrine of res ipsa loquitur shall only apply to health care liability claims against health care providers or physicians in those cases to which it has been applied by the appellate courts of this state as of the effective date of this subchapter.

SUBCHAPTER H. BAD FAITH CAUSE OF ACTION

Separate Cause of Action for Bad Faith

Sec. 8.01. With respect to a health care liability claim actually filed, a cause of action based on bad faith may be filed and litigated in a separate lawsuit.

Definition

Sec. 8.02. As used in this subchapter, "bad faith" means to file and maintain a claim with reckless disregard as to whether or not reasonable grounds exist for asserting the claim.

Notice of Bad Faith Claim

Sec. 8.03. At least 60 days before the filing of a suit based on bad faith in any court of this state, a person or his authorized agent asserting a bad faith cause of action shall give written notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, of the claim, to the defendant or his attorney against whom the claim is being made.
SUBCHAPTER J. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

Limitations on Health Care Liability Claims

Sec. 10.01. Notwithstanding any other law, no health care liability claim may be commenced unless the action is filed within two years from the occurrence of the breach or tort or from the date the medical or health care treatment that is the subject of the claim or the hospitalization for which the claim is made is completed; provided that, minors under the age of 12 years shall have until their 14th birthday in which to file, or have filed on their behalf, the claim. Except as herein provided, this subchapter applies to all persons regardless of minority or other legal disability.

Causes of Action Covered by Other Law

Sec. 10.02. Causes of action accruing between the effective date of this Act and the effective date of Article 5.82, Insurance Code, shall be filed pursuant to Section 4 of Article 5.82.

SUBCHAPTER K. LIABILITY LIMITS

Definition

Sec. 11.01. In this subchapter, "consumer price index" means the index published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor that measures the average change in prices of goods and services purchased by urban wage earners and clerical workers' families and single workers living alone.

Limit on Civil Liability

Sec. 11.02. (a) In an action on a health care liability claim where final judgment is rendered against a physician or health care provider, the limit of civil liability for damages of the physician or health care provider shall be limited to an amount not to exceed $500,000.

(b) Subsection (a) of this section does not apply to the amount of damages awarded on a health care liability claim for the expenses of necessary medical, hospital, and custodial care received before judgment or required in the future for treatment of the injury.

(c) This section shall not limit the liability of any insurer where facts exist that would enable a party to invoke the common law theory of recovery commonly known in Texas as the "Stowers Doctrine."

(d) In any action on a health care liability claim that is tried by a jury in any court in this state, the following shall be included in the court's written instructions to the jurors: Do not consider, discuss, nor speculate whether or not liability, if any, on the part of any party is or is not subject to any limit under applicable law.

Alternative Partial Limit on Civil Liability

Sec. 11.03. In the event that Section 11.02(a) of this subchapter is stricken from this subchapter or is otherwise invalidated by a method other than through legislative means, the following shall become effective:

In an action on a health care liability claim where final judgment is rendered against a physician or health care provider, the limit of civil liability of the physician or health care provider for all past and future noneconomic losses recoverable by or on behalf of any injured person and/or the estate of such person, including without limitation as applicable past and future physical pain and suffering, mental anguish and suffering, consortium, disfigurement, and any other nonpecuniary damage, shall be limited to an amount not to exceed $150,000.

Adjustment of Liability Limits

Sec. 11.04. When there is an increase or decrease in the consumer price index with respect to the amount of that index on the effective date of this subchapter each of the liability limits prescribed in Section 11.02(a) or in Section 11.03 of this subchapter, as applicable, shall be increased or decreased, as applicable, by a sum equal to the amount of such limit multiplied by the percentage increase or decrease in the consumer price index between the effective date of this subchapter and the time at which damages subject to such limits are awarded by final judgment or settlement.

Subchapter's Application Prevails Over Certain Other Laws

Sec. 11.05. The provisions of this subchapter shall apply notwithstanding the provisions contained in Article 4671, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and the provisions of Article 5525, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

SUBCHAPTER L. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Exception From Certain Laws

Sec. 12.01. (a) Notwithstanding any other law, no provisions of Sections 17.41–17.63, Business & Commerce Code, shall apply to physicians or health care providers as defined in Section 1.03(3) of this Act, with respect to claims for damages for personal injury or death resulting, or alleged to have resulted, from negligence on the part of any physician or health care provider.

(b) This section shall not apply to pharmacists.

Sections 41.01 to 41.04 of the 1977 Act provide as follows:

"Sec. 41.01. The provisions of this Act shall apply only to causes of action based on health care liability claims accruing after the effective date of this Act.

"Sec. 41.02. This Act expires at midnight on August 31, 1993."
"Sec. 41.03.  Art. 5.82, Ins.Code, and Section 3, Chapter 331, Acts of the 64th Legislature, Regular Session, 1975, are repealed.

"Sec. 41.04. If any provision of this statute or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this statute which can be given effect without the invalid clause, sentence, subsection, section, article, or provision or application, and shall not affect, impair, invalidate, or nullify the remainder of this Act, but the effect thereof shall be confined to the clause, sentence, subsection, section, article, or provision of the Act so adjudged to be invalid or unconstitutional and to this end the above are declared to be severable."

TITLE 77

INJURIES RESULTING IN DEATH

Art. 4671. Cause of Action

No agreement between any owner of any railroad, street railway, steamboat, stage-coach or other vehicle for transporting passengers or goods, or any industrial or public utility plant, or other machinery, and any person, corporation, trustee, receiver, lessee, joint stock association or other person in control of, or operating the same, shall release such owner, person, trustee, lessee, corporation or joint stock association from any liability fixed by the provisions of this article. An action for actual damages on account of the injuries causing the death of any person may be brought in the following cases:

1. When an injury causing the death of any person, occurring either within or without this state, is caused by the wrongful act, neglect, carelessness, unskillfulness, or default of another person, association of persons, joint stock company, corporation or trustee or receiver of any person, corporation, joint stock company, or association of persons, his, its or their agents or servants, such persons, association of persons, joint stock company, corporation, trustee or receiver, shall be liable in damages for the injuries causing such death. The term "corporation," as used in this article, shall include all municipal corporations, as well as all private and public and quasi public corporations, except counties and common and independent school districts.

2. When an injury causing the death of any person occurring either within or without this state, is caused by the wrongful act, neglect, carelessness, unskillfulness, or default of the proprietor, owner, charterer or hirer of any industrial or public utility plant, or any railroad, street railway, steamboat, stage-coach, or other vehicle for the conveyance of goods or passengers, or by the unfitness, wrongful act, neglect, carelessness, unskillfulness or default of his, their or its servants or agents, such proprietor, owner, charterer or hirer shall be liable in damages for the injuries causing such death.

3. When an injury causing the death of any person, occurring either within or without this state, is caused by the wrongful act, neglect, carelessness, unskillfulness or default of the receiver, trustee or other person in charge of or in control of any railroad, street railway, steamboat, stage-coach, or other vehicle for the conveyance of goods or passengers, or any industrial plant, public utility plant, or any other machinery, or by the wrongful act, neglect, carelessness, unskillfulness or default of his or their servants or agents, such receiver, trustee, or other person shall be liable in damages for the injuries causing such death, and the liability here fixed against such receiver, trustee, or other person shall extend to all cases in which the death is caused by reason of any bad or unsafe condition of the railroad, street railway or other machinery under the control or operation of such receiver, trustee or other person, and to all other cases in which the death results from any other reason or cause for which an action may be brought for damages on account of personal injuries, the same as if said railroad, street railway or other machinery were being operated by the owner thereof.

Art. 4678. Death in Foreign State

Whenever the death or personal injury of a citizen of this State or of the United States, or of any foreign country having equal treaty rights with the United States on behalf of its citizens, has been or may be caused by the wrongful act, neglect or default of another in any foreign State or country for which a right to maintain an action and recover damages thereof is given by the statute or law of such foreign State or country or of this State, such right of action may be enforced in the courts of this State within the time prescribed for the commencement of such actions by the statutes of this State. All matters pertaining to procedure in the prosecution or maintenance of such action in the courts of this State shall be governed by the law of this State, and the court shall apply such rules of substantive law as are appropriate under the facts of the case.

INTEREST—CONSUMER CREDIT—CONSUMER PROTECTION

SUBTITLE ONE—INTEREST

CHAPTER ONE. INTEREST

Article 5069–1.07. Determination of the Rate of Interest on Loans Secured by a Lien on any Interest in Real Property

Section 2 of the 1979 amendatory act provided:
"This Act shall be applicable to all claims of forfeiture made after the effective date of this Act but, with respect to claims of forfeiture in litigation pending at such effective date, the amount forfeited shall be determined under the provisions of this subsection as originally enacted."

Art. 5069–1.07. Determination of the Rate of Interest on Loans Secured by a Lien on Any Interest in Real Property

(a) On any loan or agreement to loan secured or to be secured, in whole or in part, by a lien, mortgage, security interest, or other interest in or with respect to any interest in real property, determination of the rate of interest for the purpose of determining whether the loan is usurious under all applicable Texas laws shall be made by amortizing, prorating, allocating, and spreading, in equal parts during the period of the full stated term of the loan, all interest at any time contracted for, charged, or received from the borrower in connection with the loan. However, in the event the loan is paid in full by the borrower prior to the end of the full stated term of the loan and the interest received for the actual period of the existence of the loan exceeds the maximum lawful rate, the lender contracting for, charging, or receiving all such interest shall refund to the borrower the amount of the excess or shall credit the amount of the excess against amounts owing under the loan and shall not be subject to any of the penalties provided by law for contracting for, charging, or receiving interest in excess of the maximum lawful rate.

(b) Notwithstanding any contrary provisions of law, any person may agree to pay, and may pay pursuant to such an agreement, any rate of interest not exceeding 18 percent per annum, if such agreement is evidenced by a written bond, note, or other contract of such person providing for a loan or other extension of credit in the original principal amount of $250,000, or more, or any series of advances of money if the aggregate of all sums advanced or agreed or contemplated to be advanced pursuant to such agreement equals or exceeds $250,000, or any extension or renewal of such loan or other extension of credit (regardless of whether or not the outstanding principal balance thereof at the time of such renewal or extension is $250,000 or more); and as to any such agreement to pay or payment, the claim or defense of usury by such person or such person's heirs, personal representatives, successors, substitutes, or anyone else on such person's behalf, or by any person acting as guarantor, surety, accommodation maker, or endorser for or with respect to such agreement to pay or payment, or by any person assuming the obligation of such payment or otherwise becoming liable therefor, or by any person owning or acquiring property subject to a lien securing such agreement to pay or such payment is prohibited. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, this Subsection (b) shall not apply to any loan or other extension of credit secured by (i) a lien on a building, constructed or to be constructed, which both is used or intended to be used as a single one-to-four family residence and is occupied or intended to be occupied by a person obligated to pay such loan or other extension of credit or (ii) a lien on land intended to be used primarily for agricultural or ranching purposes. Nothing herein shall be construed to limit or otherwise affect the provisions or application of Article 2.09, Texas Miscellaneous Corporation Laws Act, as amended (Article 1802–1.01 et seq., Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), with respect to loans or other extensions of credit not covered hereby.

(c) Notwithstanding any contrary provisions of law, any person may agree to pay, and may pay pursuant to such an agreement, the same rate of interest as corporations (other than nonprofit corporations) on any loan in the principal amount of $500,000 or more, which is made for the purpose of the payment of the direct or indirect costs of exploration for oil and gas, the development of oil and gas properties, or the reworking of oil and gas wells, provided that the value of the collateral securing such loan is reasonably estimated by the lender at the time of the making of the loan to be in excess of the amount of the loan. Such a loan shall not be subject to the defense of usury or the penalties for usury unless the interest rate exceeds the maximum lawful interest rate for corporations (other than nonprofit corporations).

(d)(1) On any loan or agreement to loan secured or to be secured in whole or in part by a lien, mortgage, security interest, or other interest in or with respect to real property on which is located one or more single family dwellings, or dwelling units for not more than four families in the aggregate, interest may be charged at such rates as may be permitted by other applicable law or at the lesser of the following rates:

(i) 12 percent per annum; or
(ii) a rate equivalent to the average per annum market yield rate adjusted to constant maturities on 10-year United States Treasury notes and bonds as published by the board of governors of the Federal Reserve System for the second calendar month preceding the month in which the lender becomes legally bound to make the loan plus an additional two percent per annum rounded off to the nearest quarter of one percent per annum.

A “dwelling unit” shall mean for the purpose of this section a unified combination of rooms that is designed for residential use by one family.

(2) Before the 20th day of each month, the savings and loan commissioner shall ascertain the average per annum market yield rate adjusted to constant maturities on 10-year United States Treasury notes and bonds for the preceding calendar month and cause such rate to be published in the Texas Register.

(3) The interest rates authorized by this subsection shall not be applicable to any loan made on or after September 1, 1981, unless the lender had become legally bound to make such loan prior to such date.

(4) No prepayment charge or penalty may be collected on any loan transaction of the class defined in Subsection (d)(1) bearing a rate of interest in excess of that authorized by Article 1.04, Title 79, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, except where such collection is required by an agency created by federal law.

Text of (d) as added by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1766, ch. 715, § 3, effective if floating rate provisions of (d) as added by § 1 thereof are held to be unconstitutional

(d)(1) On any loan or agreement to loan secured or to be secured in whole or in part by a lien, mortgage, security interest, or other interest in or with respect to real property on which is located one or more single family dwellings, or dwelling units for not more than four families in the aggregate, interest may be charged at the rate of 12 percent per annum. A “dwelling unit” shall mean for the purpose of this section a unified combination of rooms that is designed for residential use by one family.

(2) The interest rates authorized by this subsection shall not be applicable to any loan made on or after September 1, 1981, unless the lender had become legally bound to make such loan prior to such date.

(3) No prepayment charge or penalty may be collected on any loan transaction of the class defined in Subsection (d)(1) bearing a rate of interest in excess of that authorized by Article 1.04, Title 79, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, except where such collection is required by an agency created by federal law.

(e)(1) In this subsection “financial institution” means a state bank, state savings and loan association, mortgage banking institution, credit union, national bank, or federal savings and loan association, and “housing accommodation” means improved or unimproved real property, or a portion of that property, that is used or occupied or is intended, arranged, or designed to be used or occupied as the residence of one or more individuals.

(2) A financial institution may not charge interest under Subsection (d), Section 1 or Subsection (d) of Section 3 of this Act and the maximum rate of interest that it may charge is limited to the financial institution in connection with such loan discriminates in providing or granting financial assistance to purchase, rehabilitate, improve, or refinance a housing accommodation due, in whole or in part, to the consideration of:

(i) conditions, characteristics, or trends in the neighborhood where the property is located, unless the financial institution can demonstrate that such a consideration in the particular case is required to avoid an unsafe or unsound business practice; or

(ii) race, color, religion, sex, marital status, national origin, or ancestry; or in appraising a housing accommodation or in determining whether or not, or under what terms and conditions, to provide financial assistance to purchase, rehabilitate, improve, or refinance a housing accommodation, considers:

(i) the racial, ethnic, religious, or national origin composition of the neighborhood or geographic area surrounding the property; or

(ii) whether or not that composition is undergoing change, or is expected to undergo change.

1. Article 5069-1.04.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1975 Act provided:

"Sec. 2. If any paragraph, phrase, clause, or section of this statute be held invalid, it shall not affect the balance of this statute, but it is expressly declared to be the intention of the legislature that it would have passed the balance of the Act without such portion as may be held invalid.

"Sec. 3. This Act applies from and after its effective date prospectively and does not have any application to any right or duty, contract, obligation, cause of action, or claim of defense arising prior to its effective date."

Sections 2 and 3 of Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 707, ch. 305, provided:

"Sec. 2. If any paragraph, phrase, clause, or section of this statute be held invalid, it shall not affect the balance of this statute, but it is expressly declared to be the intention of the legislature that it would have passed the balance of the Act without such portion as may be held invalid.

"Sec. 3. This Act applies from and after its effective date prospectively and does not have any application to any right or duty, contract, obligation, cause of action, or claim of defense arising prior to its effective date."

2. The savings and loan section of the finance commission and the savings and loan commissioner are hereby directed to exercise the rule-making powers delegated to them by law and promote specific rules and regulations with respect to the procedure to be followed in making variable interest rate real estate loans by savings and loan associations subject to the Texas Savings and Loan Act. (Art. 5069-1.04, Sec. 2.)

3. If any provision of this Act or any rate of interest fixed hereby is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any other provision of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision and the legislature hereby declares it would have passed such valid provisions despite such invalidity.

Art. 5069-1.08. Interest Charges by Registered Securities Brokers or Dealers

Interest charged by a broker or dealer registered under the Federal Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as now or hereafter amended,¹ and The Securities Act, as now or hereafter amended,² for carrying a debit balance in an account for a customer shall not be subject to any of the limitations or other provisions of Title 79, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas (Article 5069-1, et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) as now or hereafter amended, if such debit balance is payable on demand, or at will by the customer without penalty, and is secured by stocks, bonds, or other securities, and if such interest does not exceed a rate of 1½ percent per month on the monthly debit balance.

Section 2 of the 1977 Act provided:

"If any paragraph, phrase, clause, or section of this statute be held invalid, it shall not affect the balance of this statute, but it is expressly declared to be the intention of the legislature that it would have passed the balance of the Act without such portion as may be held invalid."

SUBTITLE TWO—CONSUMER CREDIT

Chapter 6A. Manufactured Homes Installation Sales

Article 5069-6A.01
Art. 5069-2.02. Creation of the Office of Consumer Credit Commissioner and Division of Consumer Protection

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of (1) to (8)]

(4) The Consumer Credit Commissioner shall enforce the provisions of Chapters 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 15 of this Title in person or through assistant commissioners or any examiner or employee. The Consumer Credit Commissioner, each assistant commissioner, each examiner, and each employee shall not be personally liable for damages occasioned by his official acts or omissions except when such acts or omissions are corrupt or malicious. The Attorney General shall defend any action brought against any of the above-mentioned officers or employees by reason of his official act or omission whether or not at the time of the institution of the act the defendant has terminated his services with the Office of the Consumer Credit Commissioner.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (5) to (7)]

(8) The office of Consumer Credit Commissioner is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the office is abolished effective September 1, 1983.

Art. 5069-2.05. Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2239, ch. 707 § 2, eff. Sept. 1, 1975

Section 1 of the 1975 Act revised and amended the Credit Union Act, art. 2461-1.01 et seq.

CHAPTER 3. REGULATED LOANS

Art. 5069-3.05. License, Annual Fee, Minimum Assets

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of (1)]

(2) Each license shall remain in full force and effect until relinquished, suspended, revoked or expired. Every licensee shall, on or before each December 1st, pay the Consumer Credit Commissioner an annual fee for each license held by him for the succeeding calendar year. The annual fee shall be Two Hundred Dollars, except if on September 30 immediately preceding the due date of the annual fee, the gross unpaid balance of regulated loans in a licensed office is One Hundred Thousand Dollars or less the annual fee for that office shall be One Hundred Dollars. If the annual fee remains unpaid fifteen days after written notice of delinquency has been given to the licensee by the Consumer Credit Commissioner, the license shall thereupon expire but not before December 31st of any year for which an annual fee has been paid.
INTEREST

exceed Five Hundred Dollars for each licensed office.

Art. 5069-3.13. Advertising

No licensee shall advertise or cause to be advertised, in any manner whatsoever, any false, misleading or deceptive statement or representation with regard to the rates, terms or conditions of any loan.

Art. 5069-3.15. Maximum Rates of Interest

(1) Every licensee may contract for and receive on any loan made under this Chapter repayable in consecutive monthly installments, substantially equal in amount, an interest charge, however calculated or shown, that does not exceed an add-on interest charge computed on the cash advance for the full term of the loan contract in accordance with the following schedule:

Eighteen Dollars per One Hundred Dollars per annum on that part of the cash advance not in excess of Three Hundred Dollars, and Eight Dollars per One Hundred Dollars per annum on that part of the cash advance in excess of Three Hundred Dollars but not in excess of Twenty-five Hundred Dollars.

(2) Interest authorized in Section (1) of this Article may be computed at the time the loan is made for the full term of the loan contract notwithstanding the requirement of the loan contract for payment in substantially equal regular installments and may be computed on the basis of a full month for any fractional period in excess of fifteen days. Pre-computed interest authorized by Section (1) of this Article shall be added to the cash advance and said sum shall be the amount of the loan.

(3) Notwithstanding the foregoing, a licensee may make loans which require repayment in other than substantially equal successive monthly installments, as where payable in irregular or unequal installments either in amount or periods of the installments or in equal successive monthly installments followed by or interspersed with an irregular, unequal, or larger installment or installments, or in other than monthly installments or if the first installment is not payable one month from the date of the contract and may compute, contract for, charge, or receive interest charges under any method or formula different from that prescribed in Section (1) of this Article if the interest charges do not exceed an amount that, having due regard for the schedule of installment payments, will provide the same effective return as if the loan were repayable in equal successive monthly installments beginning one month from the date of the contract.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter, a borrower and a licensee may enter into a written agreement pursuant to which one or more loans or advances to or for the account of the borrower may be made from time to time. The agreement shall contain the date of the agreement and the name and address of each borrower and of the licensee and shall be signed by the parties. A copy of the agreement shall be delivered to the borrower. The agreement may provide for a maximum loan charge on the unpaid principal amounts from time to time outstanding not in excess of a rate producing an interest yield equivalent to that which would be permitted on a similar loan made under Section (1) of this Article. The Commissioner shall prescribe monthly rates of charge which produce an interest yield equal to that permitted under Section (1) of this Article on a loan of the same amount. The loan agreement shall clearly set forth the insurance coverages afforded the borrower through the lender and, if a charge for insurance is to be made to the borrower, a simple statement of the amount of such charge or the method by which it will be calculated.

(5) On any loan contract which includes precomputed interest and is payable in substantially equal successive monthly installments, additional interest for default, if contracted for, may equal but shall not exceed Five Cents for each One Dollar of any scheduled installment when any portion of such installment continues unpaid for ten days or more following the date such payment is due, including Sundays and holidays. Interest for such default shall not be collected more than once on the same installment. If the payment date of each wholly unpaid installment, on which no interest for default has been collected is deferred as of an installment date for one or more full months and the maturity of the contract is extended for a corresponding period of time, the licensee may charge and collect additional interest for such deferment. The interest for such deferment may be equal to the difference between the refund which would be required for prepayment in full, as of the date of deferment and the refund which would be required for prepayment in full as one month prior to such date multiplied by the number of months in the deferment period as defined below. The portion of the interest contracted for under Section (1) of this Article applicable to each deferred balance and installment period following a deferment period shall remain the same as that applicable to such balance and period under the original contract of loan. If a loan is prepaid in full during the deferment period defined below, the borrower shall receive, in addition to the refund required under Section (6) of this Article, a pro-rata refund of that portion of the interest for deferment applicable to any unexpired full month or months of such period. The deferment period is that period beginning with the day following the due date of the scheduled installment preceding the first installment being deferred, and during which no payment is made or required by reason of such deferment. The interest for default or interest of deferment may be collected at the time of its accrual, or at any time thereafter. On any loan contract which includes precomputed interest but which is not payable in substantially equal successive monthly installments, the loan contract may provide for interest from the maturity date of any installment until paid at a rate not exceeding the highest lawful contract rate.

(6)(a) When any loan contract which includes precomputed interest and is payable in substantially equal successive monthly installments beginning within one month plus fifteen days after the date of the contract is prepaid in full by cash, a new loan, renewal, or otherwise, or when the licensee makes demand for payment in full of the unpaid balance, after the first installment due date but before the final installment due date, the licensee shall refund or credit the borrower with an amount which shall be as great a proportion of the total interest contracted for under Section (1) of this Article as the sum of the periodic balances scheduled to follow the installment date after the date of prepayment in full or demand for payment in full, bears to the sum of all the periodic time balances under the schedule of payments set out in the loan contract. If such prepayment in full or demand for payment in full occurs before the first installment due date the licensee shall retain for each elapsed day from the date the loan was made, one-thirtieth of the portion of the interest which could be retained if the first installment period were one month and the loan were prepaid in full on the first installment period due date and the interest contracted for under Section (1) of this Article in excess of such amount shall be refunded or credited to the borrower.

(b) When any loan contract which includes precomputed interest and is payable in other than substantially equal successive monthly installments beginning within one month plus fifteen days after the date the contract is prepaid in full by cash, a new loan, renewal, or otherwise, or when the licensee makes demand for payment in full of the unpaid balance prior to final maturity, the licensee may retain earned interest for the period from the date of the loan to the date of prepayment in full or date of demand for payment in full in an amount not to exceed that which would accrue at the simple annual interest rate which the loan contract would have produced over its full term if each scheduled payment had been paid on the date due when applied to the unpaid principal amounts determined to be outstanding from time to time according to the schedule of payments, having due regard for the amount of each scheduled installment and the time of each scheduled installment period. In the event prepayment in full or demand for payment in full occurs on a date during an installment period, the licensee, in addition to interest earnings for the installment period or periods that have elapsed, may retain for each day elapsed from the immediately preceding installment due date to the date of prepayment in full or demand for payment in full an interest charge produced by applying the simple annual interest rate under the contract as heretofore described to the unpaid principal balance of the loan determined to be outstanding according to the schedule of payments as of the immediately preceding installment due date and dividing that product by three hundred sixty-five. All interest contracted for and precomputed in the amount of loan in excess of the interest authorized to be retained by this Subsection shall be refunded or credited to the borrower.

The licensee may also retain earned interest on any additions to principal or other permissible charges added to the loan subsequent to the date of the loan contract, at the simple annual interest rate as described above, from the date such additions are made until paid or until demand for payment in full of the total unpaid balance under the loan contract is made by the licensee.

If the loan contract does not contain precomputed interest, then interest may be earned on the principal balance, including additions to principal subsequent to the loan contract, from time to time unpaid, at the rate contracted for, until the date of payment in full or demand for payment in full.

(c) No refund shall be required for partial prepayments and no refund of less than One Dollar need be made.

[Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1556, ch. 672, §§ 3 to 6, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 5069–3.18. Insurance

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (1) and (2)]

(3) When insurance is required in connection with a loan made under this Chapter, the lender shall furnish the borrower a statement which shall clearly and conspicuously state that insurance is required in connection with the loan, and that the borrower shall have the option of furnishing the required insurance either through existing policies of insurance owned or controlled by him or of procuring and furnishing equivalent insurance coverages through any insurance company authorized to transact business in Texas. In addition when any requested or required insurance is sold or procured by the licensee at a premium or rate of charge not fixed or approved by the State Board of Insurance, the licensee shall include such fact in the foregoing statement, and the borrower shall have the option for a period of five days from the date of loan of furnishing the required insurance coverage either through existing policies of insurance owned or controlled by him or of procuring and furnishing equivalent insurance coverage through any insurance company authorized to transact business in Texas. Such statement or statements may be made as separate written statements delivered in conjunction with the loan contract or may be included as a part of the loan contract.

(4) All insurance for which a charge is included in the loan contract shall be written at lawful rates and in accordance with the provisions of the Texas Insurance Code by a company authorized to do business in this State.

(5) Where insurance for which a charge is included in the loan contract is to be procured by the lender, the lender shall within thirty days after execution of the loan contract deliver, mail, or cause to be mailed to the borrower at his address as specified in the contract, a policy, or policies, or certificates of insurance, clearly setting forth the amount of the premium, the kind or kinds of insurance, the coverages and all of the terms, options, limitations, restrictions and conditions of the policy or policies of insurance.

(6) If a borrower is obligated under the terms of a loan contract to obtain or maintain required insurance coverages and fails to do so or requests the lender to procure that insurance, the lender may procure substitute insurance coverage, which coverage is substantially equivalent to or more limited than that originally required, in accordance with Sections (4) and (5) of this Article, and may procure insurance to cover only the interest of the lender as a secured party if the borrower does not request that the borrower's interest be covered. The lender may add the premium advanced by the lender for that insurance to the unpaid balance of the loan contract and may charge interest on that amount from the time of its addition to the unpaid balance of the loan contract until it is paid at a rate not in excess of the rate that the loan contract would produce over its full term if each scheduled payment were paid on the date due. If any insurance for which a charge is included in or added to the loan contract is cancelled, adjusted or terminated for any reason, the refund for unearned insurance premiums received by the lender shall be credited, except to the extent applied to the purchase by the lender of similar insurance, to any amounts then unpaid on the account and the balance shall be promptly refunded to the borrower; provided, however, that no cash refund shall be required if the amount thereof is less than One Dollar.

Art. 5069-3.19. Licensee's Duty to Borrower

(1) When a loan is made under the authority of this Chapter, the licensee shall deliver to the borrower, or if more than one to one of them, a copy of the note or agreement and all other documents signed by the borrower and a statement in writing in the English language showing the following information:

(a) The names and addresses of the borrower and of the licensee; and

(b) The types of insurance, if any, for which a charge is included in the loan contract in connection with the loan, and the charge to the borrower for such insurance.

If the note or loan contract shows the information required above, a copy of such note or loan contract may be delivered rather than a separate statement.

CHAPTER FOUR. INSTALLMENT LOANS

Art. 5069-4.01. Installment Loans Authorized

(1) Any bank or savings and loan association doing business under the laws of this State or of the United States, and any person licensed to do business under the provisions of Chapter 3 of this Subtitle relating to regulated loans may contract for and receive on any loan made under the authority of this Chapter repayable in consecutive monthly installments, substantially equal in amount, an interest charge, however calculated or shown, which does not exceed an add-on interest charge of Eight Dollars per One Hundred Dollars per annum for the full term of the loan contract.

(2) Interest authorized in Section (1) of this Article may be computed on the cash advance at the time the loan is made for the full term of the loan.
(3) Notwithstanding the foregoing, a lender may make loans which require repayment other than in substantially equal successive monthly installments, as where payable in irregular or unequal installments either in amount or period of the installments or in equal successive monthly installments followed by or interspersed with an irregular, unequal, or larger installment or installments, or in other than substantially equal successive monthly installments, or if the first installment is not payable one month from the date of the contract and may compute, contract for, charge, or receive interest charges under any method or formula different from that prescribed in Section (1) of this Article if the interest charges do not exceed an amount that, having due regard for the schedule of installment payments, will provide the same effective return as if the loan were repayable in equal successive monthly installments beginning one month from the date of the contract.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter, a borrower and a lender may enter into a written agreement pursuant to which one or more loans or advances to or for the account of the borrower shall be made from time to time. The agreement shall contain the date of the agreement and the name and address of each borrower and of the lender and shall be signed by the parties. A copy of the agreement shall be delivered to the borrower. The agreement may provide for a maximum loan charge on the unpaid principal amounts from time to time outstanding not in excess of a rate producing an interest yield equivalent to that which would be permitted on a similar loan made under Section (1) of this Article. The Commissioner shall prescribe monthly rates of charge which produce an interest yield equal to that permitted under Section (1) of this Article on a loan of the same amount.

The loan agreement shall clearly set forth, if a charge for insurance is to be included in the contract, a simple statement of the amount of such charge or the method by which it will be calculated.

(5) On any loan contract which includes precomputed interest and is payable in substantially equal, successive monthly installments, additional interest for default, if contracted for, may equal but shall not exceed Five Cents for each One Dollar of any scheduled installment when any portion of such installment continues unpaid for ten days or more following the date such payment is due, including Sundays and holidays. Interest for such default shall not be collected more than once on the same installment. If the payment date of each wholly unpaid installment, on which no interest for default has been collected is deferred as of an installment date for one or more full months and the maturity of the contract is extended for a corresponding period of time, the lender may charge and collect additional interest for such deferment. The interest for such deferment may be equal to the difference between the refund which would be required for prepayment in full as of the date of deferment and the refund which would be required for prepayment in full as of one month prior to such date multiplied by the number of months in the deferment period as defined below. The portion of the interest contracted for under Section (1) of this Article applicable to each deferred balance and installment period following a deferment period shall remain the same as that applicable to such balance and period under the original contract of loan. If a loan is prepaid in full during the deferment period defined below, the borrower shall receive, in addition to the refund required under Section (6) of this Article, a pro-rata refund of that portion of the interest for deferment applicable to any unexpired full month or months of such period. The deferment period is that period beginning with the day following the due date of the scheduled installment preceding the first installment being deferred, and during which no payment is made or required by reason of such deferment. The interest for default or interest for deferment may be collected at the time of its accrual or deferment or at any time thereafter. On any loan contract which includes precomputed interest but which is not payable in substantially equal successive monthly installments, the loan contract may provide for interest from the maturity date of any installment until paid at a rate not exceeding the highest lawful contract rate.

(6)(a) When any loan contract payable in substantially equal successive monthly installments beginning within one month plus fifteen days after the date of the contract and containing precomputed interest is prepaid in full by cash, a new loan, renewal, or otherwise, or when the lender demands payment in full of the unpaid balance after the first installment due date but before the final installment due date, the lender shall refund or credit the borrower with an amount which shall be as great a proportion of the total interest contracted for under Section (1) of this Article as the sum of the periodic balances scheduled to follow the installment date after the date of prepayment in full or demand for payment in full bears to the sum of all the periodic time balances under the schedule of payments set out in the loan contract. If such prepayment in full or demand for payment in full occurs before the first installment due date the lender shall retain for each elapsed day from date the loan was made, one-thirtieth of the portion of the interest which could be retained if the first installment period were one month and the loan were prepaid in full on the first installment period due date and the interest contract for under Section (1) of this Article in excess of such amount shall be refunded or credited to the borrower.

When any loan contract which includes precomputed interest and is payable in other than substantially equal successive monthly installments beginning within one month plus fifteen days after the date of the contract is prepaid in full by cash, a new loan, renewal, or otherwise, or if the lender demands payment in full of the unpaid balance before the final installment due date, the lender shall retain earned interest for the period from the date of the loan to the date of prepayment in full or demand for payment in full in an amount not to exceed that which would accrue at the simple annual interest rate which the loan contract would have produced over its full term if each scheduled payment had been paid on the date due when applied to the unpaid principal amounts determined to be outstanding from time to time according to the schedule of payments having due regard for the amount of each scheduled installment and the time of each scheduled installment period. In the event prepayment in full or demand for payment in full occurs on a date during an installment period, the lender, in addition to interest earnings for the installment period or periods that have elapsed, may retain for each day elapsed from the immediately preceding installment due date to the date of prepayment in full or demand for payment in full an interest charge produced by applying the simple annual interest rate under the contract as heretofore described to the unpaid principal balance of the loan determined to be outstanding according to the schedule of payments as of the immediately preceding installment due date and dividing that product by three hundred sixty-five. All interest contracted for and precomputed in the amount of loan in excess of the interest authorized to be retained by this subsection shall be refunded or credited to the borrower.

The lender may also retain earned interest on any additions to principal or other permissible charges added to the loan subsequent to the date of the loan contract, at the simple annual interest rate as described above, from the date such additions are made until paid or until demand for payment in full of the total unpaid balance under the loan contract is made by the lender.

If the loan contract does not contain precomputed interest, then interest may be earned on the principal balance, including additions to principal subsequent to the loan contract, from time to time unpaid, at the rate contracted for, until the date of payment in full or demand for payment in full.

(e) No refund shall be required for partial prepayments and no refund of less than One Dollar need be made.

Art. 5069-4.02. Insurance

(3) When insurance is required in connection with a loan made under this Chapter, the lender shall furnish the borrower a statement which shall clearly and conspicuously state that insurance is required in connection with the loan, and that the borrower shall have the option of furnishing the required insurance either through existing policies of insurance owned or controlled by him or of procuring and furnishing equivalent insurance coverages through any insurance company authorized to transact business in Texas. In addition when any requested or required insurance is sold or procured by the lender at a premium or rate of charge not fixed or approved by the State Board of Insurance, the lender shall include such fact in the foregoing statement, and the borrower shall have the option for a period of five days from the date of loan of furnishing the required insurance coverage either through existing policies of insurance owned or controlled by him or of procuring and furnishing equivalent insurance coverage through any insurance company authorized to transact business in Texas. Such statement or statements may be made as separate written statements delivered in conjunction with the loan contract or may be included as a part of the loan contract.

(4) All insurance for which a charge is included in the loan contract shall be written at lawful rates and in accordance with the provisions of the Texas Insurance Code by a company authorized to do business in this State.

(5) Where insurance for which a charge is included in the loan contract is to be procured by the lender, the lender shall within thirty days after execution of the loan contract deliver, mail, or cause to be mailed to the borrower at his address as specified in the contract, a policy, or policies, or certificates of insurance, clearly setting forth the amount of the premium, the kind or kinds of insurance, the coverages and all of the terms, options, limitations, restrictions and conditions of the policy or policies of insurance.

(6) If a borrower is obligated under the terms of a loan contract to obtain or maintain required insurance coverages and fails to do so or requests the lender to procure that insurance, the lender may procure substitute insurance, which coverage is sub-substantially equivalent to or more limited than that originally required, in accordance with Sections (4) and (5) of this Article and may procure insurance to cover only the interest of the lender as a secured party if the borrower does not request that the borrower's interest be covered. The lender may add the premium advanced by the lender for that insurance to the unpaid balance of the loan contract and may charge interest on that amount from the time of its addition to the unpaid balance of the loan contract until it is paid at a rate not in excess of the rate that the loan contract would produce over its full term if each scheduled payment were paid on the date due. If any insurance for which a charge is included in or added to the loan contract is cancelled, adjusted or terminated for any reason, the refund for unearned insurance premiums received by the lender shall be credited, except to the extent applied to the purchase by the lender of similar insurance, to any amounts then unpaid on the account and the balance shall be promptly refunded to the borrower; provided, however, that no cash refund shall be required if the amount thereof is less than One Dollar.
Art. 5069-4.02  INTEREST  2890

Art. 5069-4.03. Lender's Duty to Borrower

(1) When a loan is made under the authority of this Chapter, the lender shall deliver to the borrower, or if more than one to one of them, a copy of the note or agreement and all other documents signed by the borrower and a statement in writing in the English language showing the following information:

(a) The names and addresses of the borrower and of the lender; and

(b) The types of insurance, if any, for which a charge is included in the loan contract in connection with the loan, and the charge to the borrower for such insurance.

If the note or loan contract shows the information required above, a copy of such note or loan contract may be delivered rather than a separate statement. [[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (2) to (4)]]

CHAPTER FIVE. SECONDARY MORTGAGE LOANS

Art. 5069-5.02. Secondary Mortgage Loans Authorized

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (1) to (3)]

(4) When any loan contract is prepaid in full by cash, a new loan, renewal, or otherwise, or when the lender demands payment in full of the unpaid balance, after the first installment due date but before the final installment due date, the lender shall refund or credit the borrower with an amount which shall be as great a proportion of the total interest contracted for under Section (1) of this Article as the sum of the periodic balances scheduled to follow the installment date after the date of prepayment in full or demand for payment in full bears to the sum of all the periodic time balances under the schedule of payments set out in the loan contract. If such prepayment in full or demand for payment in full occurs before the first installment due date the lender shall retain for each elapsed day from date the loan was made, one-thirtieth of the portion of the interest which could be retained if the first installment period were one month and the loan were prepaid in full on the first installment period due date and the interest contracted for under Section (1) of this Article in excess of such amount shall be refunded or credited to the borrower. No refund shall be required for partial prepayments and no refund of less than One Dollar need be made.

(5) In addition to the authorized charges provided in this Chapter no further or other charge or amount whatsoever shall be directly, or indirectly, charged, contracted for, or received. This includes (but is not limited by) all charges such as fees, compensation, bonuses, commissions, brokerage discounts, expenses and every other charge of any nature whatsoever, whether of the types listed herein or not. Without limitation of the foregoing, such charges may be any form of costs or compensation whether contracted for or not, received by the lender, or any other person, in connection with (a) the investigating, arranging, negotiation, procuring, guaranteeing, making, servicing, collecting or enforcing of a loan; or (b) for the forbearance of money, credit, goods or things in action; or (c) for any other service or services performed or offered. However, the prohibition set out herein shall not apply to amounts actually incurred by a lender as:
Art. 5069-5.03. Insurance

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (1) and (2)]

(3) When insurance is required in connection with a loan made under this Chapter, the lender shall furnish the borrower a statement which shall clearly and conspicuously state that insurance is required in connection with the loan, and that the borrower shall have the option of furnishing the required insurance either through existing policies of insurance owned or controlled by him or of procuring and furnishing equivalent insurance coverages through any insurance company authorized to transact business in Texas. In addition when any requested or required insurance is sold or procured by the lender at a premium or rate of charge not fixed or approved by the State Board of Insurance, the lender shall include such fact in the foregoing statement, and the borrower shall have the option for a period of five days from the date of loan of furnishing the required insurance coverages either through existing policies of insurance owned or controlled by him or of procuring and furnishing equivalent insurance coverage through any insurance company authorized to transact business in Texas. Such statement or statements may be made as separate written statements delivered in conjunction with the loan contract or may be included as a part of the loan contract.

(4) All such insurance for which a charge is included in the loan contract shall be written at lawful rates and in accordance with the provisions of the Texas Insurance Code by a company authorized to do business in this State.

Art. 5069-5.04. Lender's Duty to Borrower

(1) When a secondary mortgage loan is made under the authority of this Chapter, the lender shall deliver to the borrower, or if more than one to one of them, a copy of the note and all other documents signed by the borrower and a statement in writing in the English language showing the following information:

(a) The names and addresses of the borrower and of the lender; and

(b) The types of insurance, if any, for which a charge is included in the loan contract in connection with the loan, and the charge to the borrower for such insurance.

If the note or loan contract shows the information required above, a copy of such note or loan contract may be delivered rather than a separate statement.

CHAPTER SIX. RETAIL INSTALLMENT SALES

Art. 5069-6.01. Definitions

As used in this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Goods" means all tangible personal property when purchased primarily for personal, family or household use and not for commercial or business use, including such property which is furnished or used at the time of sale or subsequently, in the modernization, rehabilitation, repair, alteration, improvement or construction of real property so as to become a part thereof whether or not severable therefrom. The term also includes, but
The term includes transactions made pursuant to a retail credit card arrangement as defined in this Article.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (f)]

(g) “Retail charge agreement” means an instrument or instruments prescribing the terms of retail installment transactions which may be made thereunder from time to time (whether secured or unsecured), and under the terms of which a time price differential, as defined in this Article, is to be computed in relation to the buyer’s unpaid balance from time to time. The term includes an instrument or instruments prescribing the terms of a retail credit card arrangement.

(h) “Time price differential,” however denominated or expressed, means the amount which is paid or payable for the privilege of purchasing goods or services to be paid for by the buyer in installments over a period of time. The term includes the amounts authorized by this Chapter when the parties have amended the contract to renew, restate, or reschedule the unpaid balance thereof or to extend or defer the scheduled due date of all or any part of any installment or installments.

In addition the term also includes any amounts paid or payable to a seller or holder as consideration for accepting payment in installments over time for goods and services charged under a retail credit card arrangement as defined by this Chapter.

The term does not include the amount, if any, charged for insurance premiums, delinquency charges, attorneys’ fees, court costs or official fees. Nor shall the term be in anywise considered as interest as defined by the laws of this State.

(i) “Cash price” means the price stated in a retail installment contract or in a sales slip or other memorandum furnished by a retail seller to a retail buyer under or in connection with a retail charge agreement, for which the seller would have sold or furnished to the buyer and the buyer would have bought or obtained from the seller the goods or services which are the subject matter of a retail installment transaction, if the sale had been a sale for cash. The cash price may include any taxes and charges for delivery, installation, servicing, repairs, alterations or improvements and any of the charges described in Subsections (i), (iii), (iv), and (vi) of Section (j) of this Article which are not separately itemized on the contract.

(j) “Itemized Charges” however denominated or expressed means those amounts included in the contract or agreement but not included in the cash price for charges made to the buyer for:

(i) the amount of the fees prescribed by law for filing, recording, or otherwise perfecting and releasing or satisfying, a retained title lien or other security interest created in connection with a retail installment transaction;

(ii) license registration or certificate of title fees;

(iii) any taxes;

(iv) any other fees or charges set or prescribed by law, and not in excess of the amounts allowed by law, that are connected with the sale or inspection of the goods or services;

(v) any premiums or charges for insurance permitted by Article 6.04;

(vi) official filing, recording, and construction permit fees; and

(vii) in a retail installment transaction involving modernization, rehabilitation, repair, alteration, improvement, or construction of real property, the reasonable and necessary fees and costs paid by the seller or holder for charge or title insurance or for title examination and opinion not to exceed the charge or premium promulgated by the State Board of Insurance for title insurance for such a transaction and the reasonable and necessary fees and costs paid by the seller or holder to persons not the salaried employees of the seller or holder of the contract for appraisal and inspection fees, fees and costs of investigation of the credit standing or credit worthiness of applicant, and legal fees to an attorney for the preparation of any and all documents in connection with the transaction.

(k) "Principal balance" means the cash price of the goods or services which are the subject matter of a retail installment contract plus the amounts, if any, included therein for itemized charges, less the amount of the buyer's down payment in money or goods or both.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (i)]

(m) "Holder" means the retail seller of the goods or services under the retail installment contract or retail charge agreement or the credit card issuer under the retail credit card arrangement or the assignee if the retail installment contract or the retail charge agreement or outstanding balance under either has been sold or otherwise transferred.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (n) to (o)]

(p) "Retail credit card arrangement" means an arrangement, payable in one or more installments, pursuant to which a retail seller or credit card issuer gives to a retail buyer or lessee the privilege of using a credit card for the purpose of purchasing or leasing goods or services from that person, a person related to that person, others licensed or franchised to do business under his business or trade name or designation, or other persons authorized to honor the card. The term does not include arrangements operated pursuant to any other Chapter of this Title.

(q) "Credit card issuer" means a person who issues a card, plate, or other identification device used to obtain goods or services under a retail credit card arrangement. The term does not include any person who honors the credit card but did not issue it, nor any bank, savings and loan association, credit union, person licensed to do business under the provisions of Chapter 3 or 4 of this Subtitle, nor any other person who is regularly and principally engaged in the business of lending money to persons for personal, family, and household purposes.

Art. 5069-6.02. Retail Installment Contracts—Requirements—Disclosure

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (1)]

(2) The printed or typed portion of the contract, other than instructions for completion, shall be in a size equal to at least eight-point type. The contract shall be designated "Retail Installment Contract" and shall contain substantially the following notice printed or typed in a size equal to at least ten-point bold type:

"NOTICE TO THE BUYER. DO NOT SIGN THIS CONTRACT BEFORE YOU READ IT OR IF IT CONTAINS BLANK SPACES. YOU ARE ENTITLED TO A COPY OF THE CONTRACT YOU SIGN. UNDER THE LAW YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO PAY OFF IN ADVANCE THE FULL AMOUNT DUE AND UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS MAY OBTAIN A PARTIAL REFUND OF THE FINANCE CHARGE. KEEP THIS CONTRACT TO PROTECT YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS."

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (3) and (4)]

(5) The retail installment contract shall contain and disclose the following items:

(a) The cash price of the goods or services;

(b) The amount of the buyer's down payment, specifying the amounts paid in money and allowed for goods traded in;

(c) Any itemized charges, as defined in Article 6.01. Any charges for insurance permitted by Article 6.04 may be disclosed in the manner described in Article 6.04;
Art. 5069-6.02

(d) In the event of any inconsistency or conflict between the disclosure requirements of this Chapter and those of a federal law, regulation, or an interpretation thereof, the requirements of the federal law, regulation, or interpretation shall control and the inconsistent or conflicting disclosures required by this Chapter need not to be given;

(e) Any promise, whether made in writing or orally, by the seller, made as an inducement to the buyer to become a party to the contract or which is part of the contract or which is made incidental to negotiations between the seller and the buyer with respect to the sale of the goods or services that are the subject of the contract, that the seller will compensate the buyer for referring customers or prospective customers to the seller for goods or services which the seller has for sale or for referring the seller to such customers or prospective customers. In any case in which, pursuant to the preceding provisions, the contract contains a promise to compensate the buyer for referring customers or prospective customers to the seller or the seller to such customers, the contract must contain a provision to the effect that the amount otherwise owing under the contract at any time is reduced by the amount of compensation owing pursuant to such promise.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (6)]

(7)(a) Retail installment contracts or retail charge agreements negotiated and entered into by mail or telephone, without solicitations in person by salesmen or other representatives of the seller, and based upon a catalog of the seller or other printed solicitation which clearly sets forth the cash prices of sales to be made through such medium, may be made as provided in this section. The provisions of this Article with respect to retail installment contracts shall be applicable to such sales, except that the designation and notice provisions of Section (2) of this Article shall not be applicable to such contract.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 7(b) to (9)]

(10) Notwithstanding the provisions of any retail installment contract to the contrary, any buyer may prepay in full the unpaid time balance thereof at any time before its final due date and, if he does so, or if the holder demands payment in full of the unpaid balance prior to its final due date, he shall receive a refund credit thereon for such prepayment or upon such demand for payment in full. The amount of such refund credit shall represent at least as great a proportion of the original time price differential, after first deducting therefrom an amount equivalent to the minimum charge authorized in this Article, as

(a) the sum of the monthly unpaid balances under the schedule of payments in the contract (beginning as of the date after such prepayment or demand for payment in full which is the next succeeding monthly anniversary date of the due date of the first installment under the contract, or, of the prepayment or demand for payment in full is prior to the due date of the first installment under the contract, then as of the date after such prepayment or demand for payment in full which is the next succeeding monthly anniversary date of the date of the contract) bears to

(b) the sum of all the monthly unpaid balances under the schedule of installment payments in the contract. Where the amount of refund credit is less than One Dollar, no refund credit need be made. On contracts payable in other than substantially equal successive monthly installments commencing one month after the date of the contract, the refund shall be computed in a manner proportionate to the above described method, having due regard for the amount of each installment and to the irregularity of each installment period.

If, subsequent to demand of payment in full under a contract, the buyer and holder agree to reinstate such contract, they may do so and may amend the contract pursuant to Section (12) of this Article.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (11)]

(12)(a) The holder of a retail installment contract, upon request of the buyer, may agree to one or more amendments to extend or defer the scheduled due date of all or any part of any installment or installments and may collect for same a charge computed on the amount of the scheduled installment or installments extended or deferred for the period of extension or deferment at the rate of Fifteen Cents for each Ten Dollars per month; provided that a minimum extension or deferment charge of One Dollar may be charged and collected. Such amendments may also include payment by the buyer of the additional cost to the holder of premiums for continuing in force any insurance provided for in the contract and of any additional necessary official fees.

(b) The holder of a retail installment contract, upon request of the buyer may agree to an amendment to renew, restate or reschedule the unpaid balance of the contract and may collect for same a charge to be computed as follows: The sum of the unpaid balance as of the date of the amendment and the cost of any insurance, any additional necessary official fees and any accrued delinquency charges, after deducting an amount which would be equivalent to the required refund credit applicable in the case of prepayment in full as of the date of the amendment charges, shall constitute a principal balance on which a charge may be computed for the term of the amended contract at the applicable rate of charge as provided in Article 6.02.
(c) Any amendment to a retail installment contract must be confirmed in writing and signed by the buyer, and a copy of the writing shall be delivered to the buyer at the time of execution of same. Said writing together with the original contract and any previous amendments thereto shall constitute the retail installment contract.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (13)]

(14)(a) If, in a retail installment transaction, a retail buyer makes any subsequent purchases of goods or services from a retail seller from whom he has previously purchased goods or services under one or more retail installment contracts, and the amounts under such previous contract or contracts have not been fully paid, the subsequent purchases may, at the seller’s option, be included in and consolidated with one or more of such previous contract or contracts. Each subsequent purchase shall be a separate retail installment contract under this Chapter, notwithstanding that the same may be included in and consolidated with one or more of such previous contract or contracts. All the provisions of this Chapter with respect to retail installment contracts shall be applicable to such subsequent purchases except as hereinafter stated in this section.

(b) In the event of such consolidation, in lieu of the buyer’s executing a retail installment contract respecting each subsequent purchase, as provided in this Article, it shall be sufficient if the seller shall prepare a written memorandum of each subsequent purchase, in which case the provisions of Sections (1), (2), (3), and (5) of this Article shall not be applicable. The seller shall deliver to the buyer a copy of such memorandum prior to the due date of the first installation of such consolidated contract.

(c) When such subsequent purchases are made, if the seller has retained title or taken a lien or other security interest in any of the goods purchased under any one of the contracts included in the consolidation, the entire amount of all payments made prior to such subsequent purchases shall be deemed to have been applied to the previous purchases; and each payment after such subsequent purchase made on the consolidated contract shall be deemed to have been allocated to all of the various purchases in the same ratio as the original cash sale prices of the various purchases bear to the total of all. Where the amount of each installment payment is increased in connection with such subsequent purchases, at the seller’s option, the subsequent payments may be deemed to be allocated as follows: an amount equal to the original periodic payment to the previous purchase, the balance to the subsequent purchase. However, the amount of any down payment on the subsequent purchase shall be allocated in its entirety to such subsequent purchase. The provisions of this Subsection (c) shall not apply to cases where such previous and subsequent purchases involve equipment, parts, or other goods attached or affixed to goods previously purchased and not fully paid, or to services in connection therewith rendered by the seller at the buyer’s request.

[Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1569, ch. 672, §§ 29 to 34, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 5069-6.03. Retail Charge Agreements—Requirements—Disclosure

(1) A retail charge agreement may be established by a seller or credit card issuer upon the request of a buyer or prospective buyer. The retail charge agreement shall be in writing and signed by the buyer. A copy of such agreement executed on or after the effective date of this Chapter shall be delivered or mailed to the buyer prior to the date on which the first payment is due thereunder. Any acknowledgment by the buyer of delivery of a copy of the agreement contained in the body thereof shall be in a size equal to at least ten-point bold type and shall appear directly above the buyer’s signature. No agreement executed on or after the effective date of this Chapter shall be signed by the buyer when it contains blank spaces to be filled in after it has been signed. The buyer’s acknowledgment, conforming to the requirements of this section, of delivery of a copy of an agreement, shall be presumptive proof, in any action or proceeding, of such delivery and that the agreement, when signed, did not contain any blank spaces as herein provided. If no copy of the agreement is retained by the seller, a notation in his permanent record showing that such agreement was mailed and the date of mailing shall serve as presumptive proof of such mailing. Any such agreement shall contain substantially the following notice printed or typed in a size equal to at least ten-point bold type:

“NOTICE TO THE BUYER—DO NOT SIGN THIS AGREEMENT BEFORE YOU READ IT OR IF IT CONTAINS BLANK SPACES. YOU ARE ENTITLED TO A COPY OF THE AGREEMENT YOU SIGN. KEEP THIS AGREEMENT TO PROTECT YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS.”

(2) The buyer under the retail charge agreement shall be supplied with a statement as of the end of each monthly period (which need not be a calendar month), or other regular period agreed upon in writing, at the end of which there is any unpaid balance thereunder, which statement shall recite and disclose a legend to the effect that the buyer may at any time pay his total unpaid balance or any part thereof.

(2a) A retail charge agreement that complies with the applicable duties and requirements regarding disclosure under the Consumer Credit Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.), shall be deemed to comply with the duties and requirements regarding disclosure included in Section (2) of this Article.
Art. 5069-6.03

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (3) and (4)]

Art. 5069-6.04. Insurance

(1) On any retail installment contract or retail charge agreement made under the authority of this Chapter, a seller or holder may request or require a buyer to provide credit life insurance and credit health and accident insurance as additional protection for such contract or agreement and include the cost of such insurance as a separate charge in such contract or agreement. Only one policy of life insurance and one policy of health and accident insurance on any one buyer may be in force with respect to any one contract or agreement at any one time.

(2) A seller or holder may, in addition, request or require a buyer to insure the property purchased in, or improved by, goods and services provided under a retail installment transaction subject to this Chapter, including title insurance on real property involved in the retail installment contract or retail charge agreement and subject to a lien or security interest of seller or holder, and include the cost of such insurance as a separate charge in such contract or agreement. If the property involved in such contract or agreement is a boat which may be enrolled or licensed as a yacht with the United States Coast Guard and be subject to the maritime laws of the United States, a seller or holder may also require a buyer to provide protection and indemnity insurance, longshoremen's and harbor worker's compensation insurance and medical payments insurance in connection with the boat, and include the cost of such insurance as a separate charge in such contract or agreement. Such insurance and the premiums or charges for such insurance shall bear a reasonable relationship to the amount, term and conditions of the contract or agreement, the existing hazards or risk of loss, damage or destruction, or the potential liability and shall not provide for unusual or exceptional risks or coverages which are not ordinarily included in policies issued to the general public.

Additionally, the buyer and seller may agree to include in the retail installment contract charges for insurance coverages which (1) cover risks of loss or liability reasonably related to the goods or services sold, the anticipated use thereof, or goods or services related to the goods or services sold and which may be insured with the goods and services sold; and (2) are written on policies or endorsement forms prescribed or approved by the State Board of Insurance; and (3) are ordinarily offered in policies or endorsements offered to the general public. The retail installment contract shall clearly identify the type of coverage for each such type of coverage purchased and the premiums therefor and shall clearly indicate that such coverage is optional.

(3) When insurance is required in connection with such a contract or agreement made under this Chapter, the seller or holder shall furnish the buyer a statement which shall clearly and conspicuously state that insurance is required in connection with the contract or agreement, and that the buyer shall have the option of furnishing the required insurance either through existing policies of insurance owned or controlled by him or of procuring and furnishing equivalent insurance coverages through any insurance company authorized to transact business in Texas. In addition when any requested or required insurance is sold or procured by the seller or holder and a premium or rate of charge not fixed or approved by the State Board of Insurance is included in the retail installment contract or under the retail charge agreement, the seller or holder shall include or cause to be included such fact in a written statement delivered or mailed to the buyer, and the buyer shall have the option for a period of ten days from the date of the contract or agreement or the mailing of the written statement to the buyer of furnishing the required insurance coverage either through existing policies of insurance owned or controlled by him or of procuring and furnishing equivalent insurance coverage through any insurance company authorized to transact business in Texas. Such statement or statements may be made in conjunction with or as part of the retail installment contract required by Article 6.02 or the retail charge agreement required by Article 6.03, respectively, or may be made in a separate written statement or statements.

(4) All such insurance subject to Section (1) or (2) of this Article for which a separate charge is included in the retail installment contract or under the retail charge agreement shall be written at lawful rates and in accordance with the provisions of the Texas Insurance Code by a company or companies authorized to do business in this State.

(5) The contract or agreement, separate written statement, or a specimen copy of a certificate or policy of insurance delivered to the buyer shall identify the type of coverage, term and amount of premium for such insurance coverages described in Sections (1) and (2) of this Article for which a separate charge is included in the retail installment contract or under the retail charge agreement.

(6) The buyer shall have the privilege at the time of execution of the contract or agreement of purchasing such insurance from an agent or broker of his own selection and of selecting an insurance company acceptable to the seller or holder, but, in such case the inclusion of the insurance premium in the contract or agreement shall be optional with the seller or holder.
(7)(a) Subsequent to the execution of the retail installment contract, a buyer and holder may agree to add to the unpaid balance of the contract premiums for insurance policies obtained subsequent to the retail installment transaction and covering the goods or services sold or goods or services related thereto, including premiums for renewal of policies originally included in the contract. Such policies shall comply with the limitations set out in Sections (1), (2), and (4) above, as applicable.

(b) If the buyer fails to present to the holder reasonable evidence that he or she has obtained or maintained a coverage required by the retail installment contract or retail charge agreement, the holder may but shall not be required to procure substitute insurance coverage which is substantially equivalent to or more limited than the coverages originally required and may add the premium advanced for that insurance to the unpaid balance of the contract or under the retail charge agreement. The substitute insurance may cover only the interest of the holder or the interest of the holder and the buyer. The substitute insurance shall be written at lawful rates and in accordance with the Texas Insurance Code by a company authorized to do business in this State.

(c) If any premium is added to the unpaid balance of a retail installment contract under this Section, the rate of time price differential previously agreed to in the retail installment contract remains in effect and shall be applied to the new unpaid balance or the contract may be rescheduled in accordance with Article 6.02. If any premium is added under a retail charge agreement, the premium shall be added to the unpaid balance under the retail charge agreement. When any substitute insurance is obtained by the holder of a retail installment contract or retail charge agreement when the buyer has failed to obtain or maintain a required coverage, the amendment adding the premium or rescheduling the contract need not be signed by the buyer but the holder shall deliver to the buyer or send to the buyer’s last known address as shown by the records of the holder specific written notification of that action.

(8) If the insurance is to be procured by the seller or holder, he shall, within forty-five days after delivery of the goods or furnishing of the services under the contract or agreement, deliver, mail, or cause to be mailed to the buyer at his address as specified in the contract or agreement, a policy, or policies, or certificates of insurance, clearly setting forth the amount of the premium, the kind or kinds of insurance, the coverages and all the terms, options, limitations, restrictions and conditions of the policy or policies of insurance.

(9) If the insurance is cancelled, adjusted or terminated for any reason, the refund for unearned insurance premiums received by the seller or the holder shall, at the seller or holder’s option, be applied to replace required insurance coverages or be credited to the final maturing installments of the retail installment contract or retail charge agreement, and the remaining balance of the unearned insurance premiums shall be refunded to the buyer; provided, however, that no cash refund shall be required if the amount thereof is less than One Dollar.

(10) Any gain, or advantage, to the seller or holder, or any employee, officer, director, agent, general agent, affiliate or associate from such insurance or its provision or sale shall not be considered as an additional charge or further time price differential in connection with any contract or agreement made under this Chapter except as specifically provided herein.

[Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 309, ch. 142, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1979; Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1573, ch. 672, § 37, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 5069-6.05. Prohibited Provisions

No retail installment contract or retail charge agreement shall:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (1) to (6)]

(7) Provide for or grant a first lien upon real estate to secure such obligation, except, (a) such lien as is created by law upon the recording of an abstract of judgment or (b) such lien as is provided for or granted by a contract or series of contracts for the sale or construction and sale of a structure to be used as a residence so long as the time price differential does not exceed an annual percentage rate of 10 percent.

[Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 212, ch. 104, § 1, eff. May 4, 1977.]

Art. 5069-6.08. Application

None of the provisions of this Chapter shall affect or apply to any loans or to the business of making loans under or in accordance with the laws of this State, nor shall any of the provisions of the loan or interest statutes of this State affect or apply to any retail installment transaction. Nor shall any seller pay, promise to pay, or otherwise tender cash to any buyer as a part of any transaction made pursuant to this Chapter unless otherwise specifically authorized by this Chapter. Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to impair or in any way affect any rule of law applicable to or governing retail installment sales not otherwise subject hereto. This Chapter shall apply exclusively to retail installment transactions as defined in Article 6.01 hereof. The provisions of this Chapter defining specific rates and amounts of charges and requiring certain credit disclosures to be made shall be deemed to control over any contrary Texas law respecting those sub-
CHAPTER SIX A. MANUFACTURED HOUSINGS

ARTICLE 5069-6A. INSTALLMENT SALES

ARTICLE 5069-6A.01. Scope.

This chapter regulates the credit sale of manufactured homes as defined herein, mobile homes being previously regulated by either Chapter 7 of Title 79, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended (Article 5069-7.01 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and nonmobile home manufactured housing being previously regulated by Chapter 6 of Title 79, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended (Article 5069-6.01 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

ARTICLE 5069-6A.02. Definitions.

A. "Manufactured home" means any structure, transportable in one or more sections on either a permanent or temporary chassis or other conveyance device, which is eight body feet or more in width and is 32 body feet or more in length and which is manufactured at a location other than the homesite and which is designed to be a single-family or multifamily residence when transported to the homesite and which is designed to be connected to the required utilities and includes the plumbing, heating, air-conditioning, and electrical systems contained therein as well as any furniture, appliances, drapes, carpet, wall covering, or any other items which are attached to or contained in the home and which are included in the cash price and sold in conjunction with the home. Such term shall include all mobile homes and modular homes which satisfy the above definition.

B. "Customer" means a person to whom credit is extended for the purchase of a manufactured home and includes a comaker, endorser, guarantor, or surety for such other person who is obligated to repay the extension of credit.

C. "Creditor" means a person who in the ordinary course of business regularly sells manufactured homes or extends or arranges for the extension of credit for the purchase of a manufactured home for the use by the customer, which is payable by agreement in more than four installments or for which the payment of a finance charge is or may be required. The term includes both the seller and, if known at the time of credit extension, the financer of the credit sale, even if the financer does not regularly extend credit as described above.

D. "Credit sale" means any retail transfer of title of a manufactured home pursuant to an installment contract payable in more than four installments, or for which the payment of a finance charge is or may be required, and with respect to which credit is extended or arranged by the creditor. The term includes any contract in the form of a bailment or lease if the bailee or lessee contracts to pay as compensation for use a sum substantially equivalent to or in excess of the aggregate value of the manufactured home involved and it is agreed that the bailor or lessee will become or for no other consideration or for a nominal consideration has the option to become the owner of the property upon full compliance with his obligations under the contract. The term does not include a transfer of title of a manufactured home in which the proceeds for said transfer are acquired by the customer pursuant to a loan, nor does it include a transfer for wholesale purposes in which the customer purchases the manufactured home for the purpose of reselling the manufactured home to another customer.

E. "Credit" means the right granted by a creditor (as defined herein) to a customer (as defined herein) to purchase a manufactured home and defer payment therefor.

F. "Cash price" means the price at which the creditor offers to sell for cash the manufactured home which is the subject of a credit sale. It may include the cash price of accessories and appliances and the cost of delivery and installation and may include sales tax to the extent imposed on the cash sale.

G. "Down payment" means the amount of any money and value of any property traded in which is applied by the customer to the payment of the cash price for the financing of the credit sale of the manufactured home.

H. "Other charges" means any charge which is part of the credit extended to the customer and which is not included as part of the cash price or the finance charge, and includes but is not limited to such items as sales tax, which the creditor chooses to exclude from the cash price, and such other charges as license fee, certificate of title fee, transfer of title fee, insurance premium, and fees prescribed by the Business & Commerce Code for the perfecting or releasing of a security interest.

I. "Amount financed" means the amount of credit which the customer will have the actual use of as determined hereafter and shall equal the sum of the cash price and the other charges as defined in Subparagraph H above minus the down payment.

J. "Finance charge" means the costs of credit determined in accordance with Section 3 of this chapter and includes time price differential.

K. "Annual percentage rate" means the annual rate of finance charge as determined in accordance with Section 3 of this chapter.

L. "Total of payments" means the sum of the amount financed and the finance charge and equals the total amount to be paid by the customer to the creditor after the signing of the credit sale contract.

M. "Time price differential" means the total amount to be added to the sum of the cash price plus all other charges less the customer's down payment to determine the amount of the customer's indebtedness to be paid under a credit sale contract.

N. Words of the masculine gender include the feminine and the neuter and when the sense so indicates, words of the neuter gender may refer to any gender. Words of the singular include the plural when the sense so indicates and words of the plural include the singular when the sense so indicates.

O. "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, joint venture, trust, association, or any legal entity however organized. "Natural person" means a human being.

Art. 5069-6A.03. Finance Charge, Time Price Differential, and Annual Percentage Rate

A. Rate. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other laws, the time price differential in a credit sale contract payable in substantially equal successive monthly installments shall not exceed an amount determined under the following schedule:

(1) Any manufactured home which is the subject of a retail sale for the first time may be sold at a rate not in excess of $7.50 per $100 per annum.

(2) Any manufactured home which has been the subject of a prior retail sale may be sold at a rate not in excess of $10 per $100 per annum.

(3) Any manufactured home which is the subject of a retail sale with the purchase of said manufactured home being financed for a time period in excess of 60 months from the date of the contract may be sold with either a rate charge calculated pursuant to the applicable subparagraph above or a time price differential charge produced by but not in excess of the amount obtained by applying the true annual percentage rate produced by Subparagraph (1) above for a term of 60 months to the unpaid portion of the amount financed determined to be outstanding from time to time according to the terms and schedule of payments of said contract, so that all contracts in excess of 60 months may be financed at such annual percentage rate.

B. Date of Computation of Finance Charge. The finance charge shall be computed on the amount financed from the date of the credit sale contract until the maturity of the final installment, notwithstanding that the total of payments is required to be paid in installments.

C. Irregular Periods. For a period lesser or greater than 12 months or for amounts lesser or greater than $100, the amount of the maximum charge set forth in the foregoing schedule shall be decreased or increased proportionately. A fractional monthly period of 15 days or more may be considered a full month.

D. Maximum Rate for Irregular Payments. If a credit sale contract is payable other than in substantially equal successive monthly installments, as where payable in irregular or unequal installments either in amount or periods thereof, or in equal successive monthly installments followed by or interspersed with an irregular, unequal, or larger installment or installments, or in other than monthly installments or if the first installment is not payable one month from the date of the contract, the finance charge may not exceed an amount which, having due regard for the schedule of installment payments, will provide the same effective return as if the credit sale contract were payable in substantially equal successive monthly installments beginning one month from the date of the credit sale contract as provided in Subparagraph A above.

E. Annual Percentage Rate. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the annual percentage rate shall be that nominal annual percentage rate determined as follows:

(1) In accordance with the actuarial method of computation so that it may be disclosed with an accuracy at least to the nearest quarter of one percent. The mathematical equation and technical instructions for determining the annual percentage rate in accordance with the requirements of this paragraph are set forth in Supplement I to Regulation Z of the federal Truth-in-Lending Act, said supplement being incorporated in this chapter by reference.

(2) At the option of the creditor, by application of the United States rule so that it may be disclosed with an accuracy at least to the nearest quarter of one percent. Under this rule, the finance charge is computed on the unpaid balance for the actual time the balance remains unpaid and if the amount of a payment is insufficient to pay the accumulated finance charge, the unpaid accumulated finance charge continues to accumulate to be paid from the proceeds of subsequent payments and is not added to the amount financed.

F. Rate Tables. The Regulation Z Annual Percentage Rate Tables produced by the Federal Reserve Board may be used to determine the annual percentage rate, and any such rate determined from these tables in accordance with instructions contained therein will comply with the requirements of this section.

Art. 5069-6A.04. Disclosure Requirements

A. Multiple Creditors. If there is more than one creditor in a transaction, each creditor whose identity is known at the time of the credit extension shall be clearly identified. The disclosure of any one item by any creditor shall satisfy the requirement to disclose such item regardless of which creditor makes the disclosure.

B. Multiple Customers. If there is more than one customer in a credit sale, the creditor need furnish the disclosures required by this chapter to only one of the customers.

C. Leap Year. Any variance in the amount of any finance charge, payment, percentage rate, or other term required under this chapter to be disclosed or stated in any advertisement, which occurs by reason of the addition of February 29 in each leap year, may be disregarded, and such term may be disclosed or stated without regard to such variance.

D. Place and Time of Disclosure. The creditor shall make the disclosures required by this chapter before the customer signs the credit sale contract. At the time disclosures are made, the creditor shall furnish the customer with a duplicate of the instrument or a statement by which the required disclosures are made and on which the creditor is identified. All of the disclosures shall be made together on the credit sale contract on the same side of the page and above or adjacent to the customer’s signature.

E. Signature. The credit sale contract shall be signed by both the customer and creditor and shall state the date of the credit sale contract, which shall be the date that the last signature is made.

F. Required Notice. The printed portion of the credit sale contract, other than instructions for completion, shall be in a size equal to at least eight-point type. Such contract shall contain substantially the following notice:

"NOTICE TO THE CUSTOMER—DO NOT SIGN THIS CONTRACT BEFORE YOU READ IT OR IF IT CONTAINS ANY BLANK SPACES. YOU ARE ENTITLED TO A COPY OF THE CONTRACT YOU SIGN. UNDER THE LAW YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO PAY OFF IN ADVANCE THE FULL AMOUNT DUE AND UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS MAY OBTAIN A PARTIAL REFUND OF THE FINANCE CHARGE. KEEP THIS CONTRACT TO PROTECT YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS."

G. Identity of Parties. The credit sale contract shall contain the names of the creditor and the customer, the address of the place of business of the creditor, the residence or other address of the buyer as specified by the customer, and the name of the manufacturer and model of the manufactured home sold or to be sold.

H. Delinquency Charge. The creditor may collect a delinquency charge on each installment in default for a period of more than 10 days in an amount not to exceed five percent of each installment or not in excess of $10, whichever is less. Only one such delinquency charge may be collected on any installment regardless of the period during which it remains in default. The creditor shall disclose on the credit sale contract the amount or method of computing the amount of any default, delinquency, or similar charges payable in the event of late payments. The charge or collection of a delinquency charge shall not affect the right of a creditor to accelerate the contract pursuant to Section 9 of this chapter.

I. Security Interest. The creditor shall disclose in the credit sale contract whether a security interest is retained. If a security interest is retained, the creditor shall give a general description of the property which is subject to the security interest. For purposes of this subparagraph, it shall be sufficient for the creditor to state that "The creditor retains a purchase money security interest in the manufactured home and all items sold pursuant to this contract."

J. Acknowledged Delivery. The customer’s acknowledgment of delivery of a copy of the credit sale contract shall be conclusive proof of such delivery, and that such contract when signed by the customer did not contain any blank spaces except as herein provided, and of compliance with this section in any action or proceeding by or against a subsequent creditor without knowledge to the contrary when the creditor acquires the credit sale contract.

K. Payment Statement. Upon written request of the customer, the creditor shall give or forward to the creditor a written statement of the dates and amounts of the received installment payments and the total amount unpaid under such contract. Such a statement shall be given the customer once every six months without charge. If any additional statement is requested by the customer, it shall be supplied by the creditor at a charge not in excess of $1 for each additional statement. A customer shall be given a written receipt for any payment when made in cash.

L. Special Order. If a customer desires to order a manufactured home from a creditor and the home is modified from a standard floor plan to fit the customer's specifications and the customer desires to purchase said home by executing a credit sale contract pursuant to this chapter, the creditor may require the customer to pay a deposit not in excess of three percent of the estimated cash price. Upon arrival of the special ordered home but not sooner, the customer shall execute a credit sale contract pursuant to the terms of this chapter and the deposit shall be applied toward the payment of the cash price. Prior to the execution of the credit sale contract, the customer may cancel said order. In such event, the creditor may retain all or any portion of the deposit, and the customer will not be responsible for any costs or expenses other than the forfeited deposit.

M. Price Block Disclosures. The following items, if applicable, shall be disclosed on the credit sale contract in the sequence stated below:

1. the cash price of the manufactured house using the term, "cash price";
2. the amount of the down payment itemized, as applicable, as down payment in money, using the term "cash down payment," down payment in property, using the term "trade-in," and the sum, using the term "total down payment";
3. "other charges," individually itemized, which are included in the amount financed but which are not part of the finance charge, including insurance, taxes;
4. the sum of Subparagraphs (1) and (3) of this paragraph less Subparagraphs (2) and (4) of this paragraph, using the term "amount financed";
5. the total amount of the finance charge, using the term, "finance charge," and where the total charge consists of two or more types of charges, a description of the amount of each type.

N. Annual Percentage Rate. The credit sale contract shall also disclose the finance charge expressed as an annual percentage rate, using the term "annual percentage rate."

O. Payment Schedule. The number, amount, and due dates or periods of payments scheduled to repay the indebtedness and the sum of such payments using the term "total of payments." If any payment is more than twice the amount of an otherwise regularly scheduled equal payment, the creditor shall identify the amount of such payment by the term "balloon payment" and shall state the conditions, if any, under which that payment may be refinanced if not paid when due.

Art. 5069-6A.05. Prepayment

Notwithstanding the provisions of any credit sale contract to the contrary, any customer may prepay it in full at any time before maturity and, if he does so, shall receive a refund credit of the time price differential which shall not be less than the sum obtained by applying each payment first to the time price differential, which is treated as being earned at the time of said payment in the same manner as interest, with the balance of each payment being applied to the unpaid portion of the amount financed and subtracting the sum of the payments and the remaining balance of the amount financed from the total of payments and deducting an acquisition charge of $50 from the remaining "unaccrued" time price differential.

Art. 5069-6A.06. Extension

A. The creditor of a credit sale contract, upon request by the customer, may agree to an amendment thereto to extend or defer the scheduled due date of all or any part of any installment or installments or to renew, restate, or reschedule the unpaid balance of such contract or to increase or reduce the number of installments and may collect for same a charge which will not exceed the amount obtained by the application of the actual annual percentage rate to the remaining balance of the amount financed of the credit sale contract calculated pursuant to Section 5 above for the period that any sum is extended or deferred. The creditor and customer may agree to an unlimited number of different extensions, with each extension for as long a period of time as agreed to by both parties. If the creditor imposes a charge or fee for deferral or extension, the creditor shall disclose to the customer:

1. the amount deferred or extended;
2. the date to which or the time period for which payment is deferred or extended; and
3. the amount of the charge or fee for the deferral or extension.

B. Alternatively, the creditor of a credit sale contract, upon request by the customer, may agree to amend the credit sale contract by renewal, restatement, or rescheduling of the unpaid portion of the total of payments in the following manner. In such event the charge for such extension may be computed as follows: The sum of the unpaid amount financed as of the date of amendment and the cost of any insurance incidental to the amendment, any additional necessary official fees, and any accrued delinquency and collection charges, after deducting the prepayment refund credit required by Section 5 of this chapter, shall constitute an amount financed on which the charge may be computed for the term of the amended contract at the applicable time price differential provided in Section 3(A)(2) of this chapter. The provisions of this chapter relating to minimum charges and acquisition costs shall not apply in calculating the amount financed of the amended contract. The amendment to the contract must be confirmed in a writing signed by the buyer. The writing shall set forth the terms of the amendment and the new due dates and amounts of the installments. A copy thereof shall either be delivered to the buyer or mailed to him at his address as shown on the contract. Said writing together with the original contract and any previous amendments thereto shall constitute the credit sale contract. [Added by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1582, ch. 672, § 39, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 5069-6A.07. Insurance

A. Credit Life and Credit Accident and Health Insurance. On any credit sale contract made under the authority of this chapter, a creditor may request a customer to provide credit life insurance and/or credit health and accident insurance as additional protection for such contract and include the cost of such insurance as a separate charge in such contract. Only one policy of life insurance and one policy of health and accident insurance on any one customer may be in force with respect to any one loan contract at any one time. If the term or the initial amount of insurance of the credit life insurance or the credit accident and health insurance is less than the term of payments or the term of the credit sale contract, then the creditor shall disclose to the customer clearly and conspicuously the initial amount of the insurance and the credit sale contract shall state as follows:

"THE CREDIT LIFE INSURANCE OR CREDIT ACCIDENT AND HEALTH INSURANCE INCLUDED UNDER THIS CONTRACT MAY NOT SATISFY THE INDEBTEDNESS."

However, the creditor may not charge the customer a separate charge for credit life insurance or credit accident and health insurance when the customer is a group beneficiary and the credit insurance is a part of a group policy. In the event of group credit insurance, the creditor shall include the cost of such coverage in the finance charge.

B. Property Insurance. A creditor may, in addition, require a customer to insure tangible personal property involved in a credit sale contract made under authority of this chapter and include the cost of such insurance as a separate charge in such contract.

C. Purchase of Insurance. When insurance is required in connection with a credit sale made under this chapter, the creditor shall furnish the customer a statement which shall clearly and conspicuously state that insurance is required in connection with the contract and that the customer shall have the option of procuring and furnishing equivalent insurance coverages through any insurance company authorized to transact business in Texas. Such statement or statements may be made in conjunction with or as part of the credit sale contract.

D. Forced Place Insurance. If the customer fails to obtain the required insurance at any time, then the creditor may purchase said insurance and add the premium of said insurance together with interest at the rate of 10 percent per annum. At the creditor's option, such sum will be added either to the outstanding balance of the contract and will become due and payable on the date of the last installment or to each unpaid installment in equal increments with the interest being precalculated for the remainder of the term of the contract.

E. Optional Insurance. In addition to credit life insurance and credit accident and health insurance, a creditor may finance as part of the credit sale contract, as optional insurance, any insurance which might be required pursuant to Subparagraph B of this section as well as insurance providing coverage for household goods, personal effects, broad form theft, and comprehensive personal liability insurance as these coverages relate to the ownership and use of the manufactured home financed under this chapter. In the case of the voluntary election by the customer to purchase the optional insurance, the customer must sign a statement indicating the customer's desire to purchase the insurance and describing the term, premium, and type of insurance purchased. This statement may be included as part of the credit sale contract or may be on a separate document.

F. Insurance Disclosure. The credit sale contract shall disclose the term, premium, and type of insurance which is included in the amount financed. If required insurance is not included in the amount financed, then the creditor must disclose only the term and type of insurance required.

G. Insurance less than Contract Term. The premium of any insurance included in the credit sale contract may be included in the amount financed and paid as part of the total of payments even if the term of the insurance is less than the term of the credit sale contract.
H. Insurance Escrow. If agreed to between the creditor and customer, the customer may elect to purchase any insurance through the creditor and include the premiums of such insurance in the credit sale contract or pay to the creditor the first year's premium and on the date each installment is due, pay a sum (hereinafter "funds") equal to one-twelfth of the yearly premium installment for such insurance as reasonably estimated.

The funds shall be held in an institution, the deposits or accounts of which are insured or guaranteed by a federal or state agency. The creditor shall apply the funds to pay said insurance premiums. The creditor may not charge for so holding and Compiling said bills. The creditor shall not be required to pay the customer any interest or earnings on the funds. The creditor shall give to the customer, without charge, an annual accounting of the funds showing credits and debits to the funds and the purpose for which each debit to the funds was made.

If the amount of the funds held by the creditor together with the future monthly installments of funds payable prior to the due dates of insurance premiums shall exceed the amount required to pay said insurance as they fall due, such excess shall be at the customer's option either repaid to the customer or credited to the customer on the future monthly installments of funds. If the amount of the funds held by the creditor shall not be sufficient to pay insurance premiums as they fall due, the customer shall pay to the creditor any amount necessary to make up the deficiency within 30 days from the date notice is mailed by the creditor to the customer requesting payment thereof. If the customer fails to make such adjustment with regard to insurance required pursuant to Subparagraph B above, the creditor may treat the deficiency in the same manner as forced placed insurance described in Subparagraph D of Section 7 of this subchapter.

I. Authorized Insurance Companies. All insurance required by this credit sale contract or included in the credit sale contract shall be written at lawful rates and in accordance with the provisions of the Texas Insurance Code by a company authorized to do business in Texas.

J. Right of Refusal. If the customer procures insurance from someone other than the creditor, the creditor shall have the right for good cause to refuse to accept certain insurance policies from insurance companies designated by the creditor.

K. Unearned Premiums. If the insurance is cancelled, adjusted, or terminated for any reason, the refund for unearned insurance premiums received by the creditor shall be credited to the final maturing installments of the credit sale contract, and the remaining balance of the unearned insurance premiums shall be refunded to the customer; provided, however, that no cash refund shall be required if the amount thereof is less than $1.

L. Creditor Benefits. Any gain or advantage to the creditor or any employee, officer, director, agent, general agent, affiliate, or associate from such insurance or its provision or sale shall not be considered as an additional charge or further finance charge in connection with any credit sale contract made under this chapter except as specifically provided herein. [Added by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1582, ch. 672, § 39, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 5069–6A.08. Transfer
A creditor may agree to accept a subsequent customer as an obligor under an existing obligation. In such event, the creditor may charge and receive a transfer fee not in excess of $50. The creditor shall make the disclosures to the subsequent customer as if the subsequent customer was a customer on a purchase pursuant to a credit sale contract under this chapter. Said disclosures shall be made as of the date of the subsequent purchase. [Added by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., ch. 672, § 39, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 5069–6A.09. Default
A creditor may accelerate the maturity of any part or all of the amount owing on a credit sale contract if and only if the customer is in default on the performance of any obligation under the credit sale contract.

Not less than 30 days prior to taking any action to accelerate the maturity of any installment sales contract, to commence any legal action to recover under such obligation, or to take possession of any security of the installment buyer, the holder shall mail a written notice of intention to take such action by registered or certified mail to the address where the mobile home is located. The notice shall contain the following disclosures made in a clear and concise manner:

(1) the particular obligation or security interest, including the date of installment sale contract according to the records of the holder as well as a brief description of the mobile home;

(2) the nature of the default claimed, which may be stated in general terms—for example: "failure to make the required installment payments when due" or "failure to maintain property damage insurance" take at the expiration of the 30-day notice period;

(3) the right of the installment buyer to cure the default and the exact manner in which he may do so, including the sum of money which must be tendered, if any, in order to cure; the individual or office address to whom it must be tendered; and the form of acceptable payment in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

The notice required above shall not be required when the installment buyer has abandoned or voluntarily surrendered the property which is the subject of the mobile home installment sale; provided that the holder retains evidence thereof satisfactory to the administrator.

In calculating the amount owing, the creditor shall grant to the customer a refund of the finance charge calculated pursuant to Section 5 of this chapter. In addition, the credit sale contract may provide for the payment of an attorney's reasonable fee and for court costs and disbursements, and in the event of repossession, sequestration, or other action necessary to secure possession of the manufactured home securing the payment of the credit sale contract, such contract may provide for the charge and collection of actual and reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with such repossession or foreclosure, including costs of storing, reconditioning, and reselling such manufactured home, subject to the standards of good faith and commercial reasonableness set by the Business & Commerce Code as adopted in Texas. In the event of default, any sum in an insurance escrow account established pursuant to Section 7 of this chapter shall be applied to the remaining balance of the contract.

Art. 5069–6A.10. Prohibited provisions

No credit sales contract shall:

(1) contain a power of attorney to confess judgment in this state or an assignment of wages;

(2) provide that the customer agrees not to assert against a creditor or any assignee of the credit sale contract any claim or defense arising out of the sale;

(3) authorize the creditor or other person acting on his behalf to enter upon the customer's premises unlawfully or to commit any breach of the peace in the repossession of a manufactured home;

(4) provide for or grant a first lien upon real estate to secure such obligation, except (a) such lien as is created by law upon the recording of an abstract of judgment or (b) such lien as is provided for or granted by a contract or series of contracts for the sale or construction and sale of a structure so long as the time price differential does not exceed an annual percentage rate of 10 percent;

(5) provide that a customer is required to enter into an insurance escrow agreement pursuant to Section 7 of this chapter.

A. Right of Transfer. Any person may purchase or acquire or agree to purchase or acquire any credit sale contract or any outstanding balance from any other person on such terms and conditions and for such price as may be mutually agreed upon.

B. Transfer Notice. Notice to the customer of the transfer of rights and any requirement that the creditor be deprived of dominion over payments upon a credit sale contract, or over the manufactured home if returned to or repossessed by the creditor, is not necessary to the validity of a written transfer of the credit sale contract or any outstanding balance as against creditors, subsequent purchasers, pledgees, mortgages, and lien claimants of the creditor.

C. Payment after Transfer. Unless the customer has notice of the transfer of the credit sale contract or any outstanding balance thereunder, payment therefore made by the customer to the creditor last known to him shall be binding upon all subsequent creditors.

Art. 5069–6A.12. Application

None of the provisions of this chapter shall affect or apply to any loans or to the business of making loans under or in accordance with the laws of this state nor shall any of the provisions of the loan or interest statutes of this state affect or apply to any credit sale contract as defined in Section 2 of this chapter. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to impair or in any way affect any rule of law applicable to or governing retail installment sales not otherwise subject hereto. This chapter shall apply exclusively to all credit sale contracts as defined in Section 2 of this chapter.

Art. 5069–6A.13. Waiver

No act or agreement of the customer before or at the time of the making of a credit sale contract or purchase thereunder shall constitute a valid waiver of any of the provisions of this chapter.

Art. 5069–6A.14. Consumer Credit Commissioner

The Consumer Credit Commissioner of Texas shall have the same powers and authority to enforce this Act as those provided in Chapter 2 of Title 79, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended (Article 5069–2.01 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

[Added by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1586, ch. 672, § 39, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]
CHAPTER SEVEN. MOTOR VEHICLE INSTALLMENT SALES

Art. 5069-7.01. Definitions

For the purposes of this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) “Motor Vehicle” means and is limited to any automobile, mobile home, truck, truck tractor, trailer, semi-trailer and bus designed and used primarily to transport persons or property on a public highway, including any commercial vehicles and heavy commercial vehicles as defined in this article, excepting however, any boat trailer, any vehicle propelled or drawn exclusively by muscular power or which is designed to run only on rails or tracks or in the air, or other machinery not designed primarily for highway transportation, but which may incidentally transport persons or property on a public highway.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (b) to (e)]

(f) “Cash Price” means the price stated in a retail installment contract for which the seller would have sold to the buyer and the buyer would have bought from the seller, the motor vehicle and other goods and services which are the subject matter of such contract if such sale had been a sale for cash. The cash price may include any taxes and charges for delivering, servicing, repairing, altering or improving the motor vehicle, or for installation of the motor vehicle or of goods to the motor vehicle, and charges for accessories and goods related to or used with the motor vehicle, if such charges are made to both cash and credit buyers alike and may include any of the charges described in Subsections (ii) and (iii) of Section (g) of this Article if they are not separately itemized on the contract.

(g) “Itemized Charges” however denominated or expressed means those amounts, if any, included in the contract but not included in the cash price for charges made to the buyer for:

(i) any registration, certificate of title, and license fees;
(ii) any taxes;
(iii) any other fees or charges that are set or prescribed by law, that are not more than the amounts allowed by law, and that are connected with the sale or inspection of a motor vehicle; and
(iv) any charges permitted by Article 7.06 for insurance, service contracts, or warranties permitted by Article 7.06.

(h) “Principal Balance” means the cash price plus the amounts, if any, included in the retail installment contract for itemized charges, less the amount of the buyer’s down payment, if any, in money or goods or both.

(h–1) In addition to the provisions of Section (h) of this article, “principal balance” includes a motor vehicle inspection fee and a documentary fee for services actually rendered to, for, or on behalf of the retail buyer in preparing, handling, and processing documents relating to the motor vehicle and the closing of the transaction evidenced by the retail installment contract. If a documentary fee is charged:

(i) it must be charged to both cash and credit buyers;
(ii) it may not exceed $25;
(iii) it shall be disclosed on the retail installment contract as a separate itemized charge; and
(iv) all preliminary worksheets which are exhibited to the buyer in which the motor vehicle retail seller calculates a sale price for the buyer, the buyer’s order, and the retail installment contract shall include in reasonable proximity to the point in the worksheet, buyer’s order, and retail installment contract where the documentary fee is disclosed the amount of the documentary fee to be charged and the following notice in boldface type:

“A DOCUMENTARY FEE IS NOT AN OFFICIAL FEE. A DOCUMENTARY FEE IS NOT REQUIRED BY LAW, BUT MAY BE CHARGED TO BUYERS FOR HANDLING DOCUMENTS AND PERFORMING SERVICES RELATING TO THE CLOSING OF A SALE. BUYERS MAY AVOID PAYMENT OF THE FEE TO THE SELLER BY HANDLING THE DOCUMENTS AND PERFORMING THE SERVICES RELATING TO THE CLOSING OF THE SALE. A DOCUMENTARY FEE MAY NOT EXCEED $25. THIS NOTICE IS REQUIRED BY LAW.”

(v) If the language primarily used in the oral sales presentation is not the same as that in which the retail installment contract is written, the seller shall furnish to the buyer a written statement containing the notice set out in Subsection (iv) in the language primarily used in the oral sales presentation.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (i) and (j)]

(k) “Person” means an individual, partnership, corporation, joint venture, trust, association, or any legal entity however organized.

(l) Words of the masculine gender include the feminine and the neuter, and when the sense so indicates, words of the neuter gender may refer to any gender.

(m) [Blank]
Art. 5069-7.01

INTEREST

2906

(n) "Heavy Commercial Vehicle" means any domestic or foreign truck or truck tractor that weighs 25,000 or more pounds gross vehicular weight (GVW) or any trailer or semitrailer designed for use in combination with any truck or truck tractor weighing 25,000 or more pounds gross vehicular weight (GVW) and that is not used primarily for personal, family, or household use.

[Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 87, ch. 52, §§ 1, 2, eff. Aug. 27, 1979; Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1587, ch. 672, §§ 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1979; Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1587, ch. 672, §§ 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 5069-7.02. Requirements and Prohibitions as to Retail Installment Contracts

(1) Each retail installment contract shall be in writing, dated, signed by both the buyer and the seller, and completed as to all essential provisions before it is signed by the buyer; provided, however, if delivery of the motor vehicle is not made at the time of the execution of the contract, the identifying numbers or marks or similar information and the due date of the first installment may be inserted in the contract after its execution. A retail installment contract need not be contained in a single document.

(2) The printed portion of the retail installment contract, other than instructions for completion, shall be in a size equal to at least eight-point type. Such contract shall contain substantially the following notice in a size equal to at least ten-point bold type:

"NOTICE TO THE BUYER—DO NOT SIGN THIS CONTRACT BEFORE YOU READ IT OR IF IT CONTAINS ANY BLANK SPACES. YOU ARE ENTITLED TO A COPY OF THE CONTRACT YOU SIGN. UNDER THE LAW YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO PAY OFF IN ADVANCE THE FULL AMOUNT DUE AND UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS MAY OBTAIN A PARTIAL REFUND OF THE FINANCE CHARGE. KEEP THIS CONTRACT TO PROTECT YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS."

(3) A retail installment contract or separate written statement shall also contain, in a size equal to at least ten-point bold type, a specific statement that liability insurance coverage for bodily injury and property damage caused to others is not included, if that is the case.

(4) The seller shall deliver to the buyer, or mail to him at his address shown on the retail installment contract, a copy of such contract as accepted by the seller. Until the seller does so, a buyer who has not received delivery of the motor vehicle shall have the right to rescind his contract and to receive a refund of all payments made and a return of all goods traded in to the seller on account of or in contemplation of such contract, or if the goods traded in cannot be returned, the value thereof. Any acknowledgment by the buyer of delivery of a copy of the retail installment contract shall be in a size equal to at least ten-point bold type and shall appear directly above the buyer's signature.

(5) The retail installment contract shall contain the names of the seller and the buyer, the place of business or address of the seller, the residence or other address of the buyer as specified by the buyer, and a description of the motor vehicle sold or to be sold.

(6) The retail installment contract shall specifically set out the following items:

(a) The cash price as defined in Article 7.01;
(b) The amount of the buyer's down payment, if any, specifying the amounts paid in money and in goods traded in;
(c) Any itemized charges, as defined in Article 7.01. Any charges for insurance, service contracts, or warranties permitted by Article 7.06 may be disclosed in the manner described in Article 7.06;
(d) In the event of any inconsistency or conflict between the disclosure requirements of this Chapter and those of a federal law or regulation or an interpretation thereof, the requirements of the federal law, regulation, or interpretation shall control and the inconsistent or conflicting disclosures required by this Chapter need not be given.
(e) The above items need not be stated in the sequence or order set forth and additional information may be included.

(7) The buyer's acknowledgment, conforming to the requirements of this Article, of delivery of a copy of the retail installment contract shall be conclusive proof of such delivery, that such contract when signed by the buyer did not contain any blank spaces except as herein provided, and of compliance with this Article in any action or proceeding by or against a holder of such contract without knowledge to the contrary when he purchases it.

(8) Upon written request of the buyer, the holder of a retail installment contract shall give or forward to the buyer a written statement of the dates and amounts of installment payments and the total amount unpaid under such contract. Such a statement shall be given the buyer once every six months without charge; if any additional statement is requested by the buyer, it shall be supplied by the holder at a charge not in excess of One Dollar for each additional statement. A buyer shall be given a written receipt for any payment when made in cash.

(9)(a) Except as provided in Subsection (b) of this Section, if any scheduled installment of a retail installment contract is more than twice as large as the average of all prior scheduled installments (except the down payment), the buyer has the right, at the buyer's option, to refinance, without being charged an acquisition cost, that payment at the time it is due. The buyer has the right to refinance that payment in installments which are neither larger nor more frequent than the average amount and frequency of payments preceding that payment, and the rate of time price differential applicable to such refinancing shall not exceed that originally agreed upon.

(b) Section (9)(a) of this Article does not apply to:

(i) a transaction for a vehicle to be used primarily for purposes other than personal, family, or household use;

(ii) a transaction for which the payment schedule is adjusted to the seasonal or irregular income or scheduled payments or obligations of the buyer;

(iii) a transaction of a kind determined by the Commissioner as not requiring the protection of the buyer provided in Section (9)(a) of this Article.

Art. 5069-7.03. Finance Charge Limitations

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, the time price differential in a retail installment contract payable in substantially equal successive monthly installments beginning one month after the date of the contract shall not exceed the larger of Twenty-five Dollars or an amount determined under the following schedule:

Class 1. Except the heavy commercial vehicles provided for in Class 2, any new domestic motor vehicle designated by the manufacturer by a year model not earlier than the year in which the sale is made and any new foreign motor vehicle—Seven Dollars and Fifty Cents per One Hundred Dollars per annum.

Class 2. Any new domestic motor vehicle not in Class 1 and, if a domestic motor vehicle, designated by the manufacturer by a year model of the same or not more than two years prior to the year in which the sale is made, any new foreign motor vehicle not more than two years old, and any new or used heavy commercial vehicle not more than two years old—Ten Dollars per One Hundred Dollars per annum.

Class 3. Any used motor vehicle not in Class 2 and, if a domestic motor vehicle, designated by the manufacturer by a year model not more than four years prior to the year in which the sale is made, and, if a foreign motor vehicle, not more than four years old—Twelve Dollars and Fifty Cents per One Hundred Dollars per annum.

Class 4. Any used motor vehicle not in Class 2 or Class 3—Fifteen Dollars per One Hundred Dollars per year. Provided, however, if the principal balance is Three Hundred Dollars or less, the time price differential shall be Eighteen Dollars per One Hundred Dollars per annum.

(2) Such charge shall be computed on the principal balance as defined under Article 7.01(h) of this Chapter from the date of the contract until the maturity of the final installment, notwithstanding that the balance thereof is required to be paid in installments.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (3) and (4)]

(5) A buyer under a retail installment contract may, upon written consent of the holder, transfer his equity in the motor vehicle at any time to another person, but in that event the holder shall be entitled to a transfer of equity fee not exceeding Twenty-five Dollars or Fifty Dollars in the case of a heavy commercial vehicle retail installment transaction.

[Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 88, ch. 52, § 3, eff. Aug. 27, 1979; Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1589, ch. 672, § 43, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 5069-7.04. Refunds on Prepayment

Notwithstanding the provisions of any retail installment contract to the contrary, any buyer may prepay it in full at any time before maturity, and if he does so, or when the holder demands payment in full of the unpaid balance of the contract before its final installment is due, the buyer is entitled to receive the following refund credit thereon:

On a contract payable in substantially equal successive monthly installments commencing one month after the date of the contract, the amount of such refund credit shall represent at least as great a proportion of the finance charge, after first deducting therefrom an acquisition cost of Twenty-five Dollars, as (i) the sum of the monthly balances under the schedule of payments in the contract beginning as of the date after such prepayment or demand for payment in full which is the next succeeding monthly anniversary date of the due date of the first installment under the contract, or, if the prepayment or demand for payment is prior to the due date of the first installment under such contract, then as of the date after such prepayment or demand for payment in full is prior to the due date of the first installment under such contract, then as of the date after such prepayment or demand for payment in full which is one month after the next succeeding monthly anniversary date of the due date of such contract, bears to (ii) the sum of all of the monthly balances under the schedule of payments in such contract. When the amount of refund credit is less than One Dollar no refund credit need be made.

On contracts payable in other than substantially equal successive monthly installments commencing one month after the date of the contract, the refund shall be computed in a manner proportionate to the above-described method, having due regard to the
Art. 5069-7.04

Amendments of Retail Installment Contracts

(1) The holder of a retail installment contract upon request by the buyer, may agree to one or more amendments thereto to extend or defer the scheduled due date of all or any part of any installment or installments to renew, restate or reschedule the unpaid balance of such contract, and may collect for same a charge not to exceed an amount computed under either of the following:

(a) If all or any part of any installment or installments is deferred for not more than three months per annum, the holder may at his election charge and collect on the amount deferred for the period deferred a charge computed at a rate which will not exceed the same effective return as is permitted on monthly payment contracts under Article 7.03; provided that the minimum charge shall be One Dollar. Such amendment may also include payment by the buyer of the additional cost to the holder of premiums for continuing in force any insurance coverages provided for in the contract and any additional necessary official fees.

(b) In any other extension, renewal, restatement or rescheduling of the unpaid balance, the charge may be computed as follows: The sum of the unpaid balance as of the date of amendment and the cost of any insurance incidental to the amendment, any additional necessary official fees, and any accrued delinquency and collection charges, after deducting the prepayment refund credit required by Article 7.04, shall constitute a principal balance on which the charge may be computed for the term of the amended contract at the applicable time price differential provided in Article 7.03 after reclassifying the motor vehicle by its year model at the time of the amendment. The provisions of this Chapter relating to minimum charges under Article 7.03 and acquisition costs under the refund schedule in Article 7.04 shall not apply in calculating the principal balance of the amended contract. The amendment to the contract must be confirmed in a writing signed by the buyer, and a copy of the writing shall either be delivered to the buyer or mailed to him at his last known address as shown by the records of the holder. Said writing together with the original contract and any previous amendments thereto shall constitute the retail installment contract.

Art. 5069-7.06. Insurance

(1) On any retail installment contract made under the authority of this Chapter, a seller or holder may request or require a buyer to provide credit life insurance and credit health and accident insurance as additional protection for such contract, and include the cost of such insurance as a separate charge in such contract. Only one policy of life insurance and one policy of health and accident insurance on any one buyer may be in force with respect to any one loan contract at any one time.

(2) A seller or holder may, in addition, request or require a buyer to insure tangible personal property purchased in a retail installment transaction subject to this Chapter and accessories and related goods subject to the seller's security interest, and include the cost of such insurance as a separate charge in such contract. Such insurance and the premiums or charges therefrom shall bear a reasonable relationship to the amount, term and conditions of the contract, the existing hazards or risk of loss, damage or destruction, and shall not provide for unusual or exceptional risks or coverages which are not ordinarily included in policies issued to the general public. Additionally, the buyer and seller may agree to include in the retail installment contract charges for insurance coverages which (1) cover risks of loss or liability reasonably related to the motor vehicle, the use thereof, or goods or services related to the motor vehicle and which may ordinarily be insured with the motor vehicle; and (2) are written on policies or endorsement forms prescribed or approved by the State Board of Insurance; and (3) are ordinarily available in policies or endorsements offered to the general public. The retail installment contract shall clearly identify the type of coverage for each such type of coverage purchased and the premiums therefore and shall clearly indicate that such coverage is optional.

(3) When insurance is required in connection with such a contract or agreement made under this Chapter, the seller or holder shall furnish the borrower a statement which shall clearly and conspicuously state that insurance is required in connection with the contract, and that the buyer shall have the option of furnishing the required insurance either through existing policies of insurance owned or controlled by him or of procuring and furnishing equivalent insurance coverages through any insurance company authorized to transact business in Texas. In addition when any requested or required insurance is sold or procured by the seller or holder and a premium or rate of charge not fixed or approved by the State Board of Insurance is included in the contract for that insurance, the seller or holder shall include or cause to be included such fact in a written statement delivered or mailed to the buyer, and the buyer shall have the option for a period of ten days from the date of the contract or agreement or the mailing or delivery of the written statement to the buyer of furnishing the required insurance coverage either through existing policies of insurance owned or controlled by him or of procuring and furnishing equivalent insurance coverages through any insurance company authorized to transact business in Texas. Such statement or statements may be made in conjunction with or as part of the retail installment contract required by Article 7.02 or may be made in a separate written statement or statements.

(4) All insurance described in Sections (1) and (2) of this Article for which a separate charge is included in the retail installment contract shall be written at lawful rates and in accordance with the provisions of the Texas Insurance Code by a company authorized to do business in this State.

(5) The retail installment contract must identify the type of coverage, term and amount of premium for such insurance coverages described in Sections
(1) and (2) of this Article for which separate charges are included in the retail installment contract.

(6) If dual interest insurance on the motor vehicle is purchased by the seller or seller’s assignee, as the case may be, it shall within a reasonable time after execution of the retail installment contract, send or cause to be sent to the buyer a policy, or policies, or certificates of insurance written by an insurance company authorized to do business in this State, clearly setting forth the amount of the premium, the kind or kinds of insurance, the coverage and all the terms, options, limitations, restrictions and conditions of the policy or policies of insurance. The buyer shall have the privilege at the time of execution of the contract of purchasing such insurance from an agent or broker of his own selection and of selecting an insurance company acceptable to the holder, but in such case the inclusion of the insurance premium in the retail installment contract shall be optional with the seller.

(7)(a) Subsequent to the execution of the retail installment contract, a buyer and holder may agree to add to the unpaid balance of the contract premi­ s for insurance policies obtained subsequent to the retail installment transaction and covering the motor vehicle or use thereof or goods or services related thereto, including premiums for renewal of policies originally included in the contract. Such policies shall comply with the limitations set out in Sections (1), (2), and (4) above, as applicable.

(b) If the buyer fails to present to the holder reasonable evidence that he or she has obtained or maintained a coverage required by the contract, the holder may but shall not be required to procure substitute insurance coverage, which coverage is substantially equivalent to or more limited than that originally required, and may add the additional premium to the unpaid balance of the contract. The substitute insurance may at the holder’s option cover only the interest of the holder or the interest of the holder and the buyer. The substitute insurance shall be written at lawful rates in accordance with the Texas Insurance Code by a company authorized to do business in this State.

(c) If any premium is added to the unpaid balance under this Section, the rate of time price differential previously agreed to in the retail installment contact remains in effect and shall be applied to the new unpaid balance or the contract may be rescheduled in accordance with Article 7.05, without reclass­ ifying the motor vehicle by its year model at the time of the amendment. When any substitute insurance is obtained by the holder when the buyer has failed to obtain or maintain a required coverage, the amendment adding the premium or rescheduling the contract need not be signed by the buyer but the holder shall deliver to the buyer or send to the buyer’s last known address as shown by the records of the holder specific written notification of that action.

(8) If the insurance is cancelled, adjusted or terminated for any reason, the refund for unearned insurance premiums received by the seller or the holder shall, at holder’s option, be applied to replace required insurance coverages, or be credited to the final maturing installments of the retail installment contract, and the remaining balance of the unearned insurance premiums shall be refunded to the buyer; provided, however, that no cash refund shall be required if the amount thereof is less than One Dollar.

(9) A buyer and seller may agree to include motor vehicle property damage or bodily injury liability insurance, mechanical breakdown insurance, or a warranty or service contract relating to the motor vehicle as a separate charge in a contract for the sale of a motor vehicle. If a charge is added to a contract as provided by this section, the contract shall clearly and conspicuously disclose that fact.

(10) Any gain, advantage to the seller or holder, or any employee, officer, director, agent, general agent, affiliate or associate from such insurance or its provision or sale shall not be considered as an additional charge or further time price differential in connection with any retail installment contract made under this Chapter except as specifically provided herein.

Art. 5069-7.07 Prohibited Provisions

No retail installment contract or retail charge agreement shall:

1. Provide that the seller or holder may accelerate the maturity of any part or all of the amount owing thereunder unless (a) the buyer is in default on the performance of any of his obligations or (b) the seller or holder in good faith believes that the prospect of payment or performance is impaired;

2. Contain a power of attorney to confess judgment in this State or an assignment of wages;

3. Authorize the seller or holder or other person acting on his behalf to enter upon the buyer’s premises in violation of Chapter 9, Business & Commerce Code, as amended, or to commit any breach of the peace in the repossession of a motor vehicle;

4. Provide for a waiver of the buyer’s rights of action against the seller or holder or other person acting therefor for any illegal act committed in the collection of payments under the contract or agreement or in the repossession of a motor vehicle;

5. Contain any provision by which the buyer executes a power of attorney appointing the seller or holder or other person acting on his behalf, as the buyer’s agent in the repossession of a motor vehicle;

6. Provide that the buyer agrees not to assert against the seller or holder of any claim or defense arising out of the sale;

7. Contain an authorization for the seller or holder or any person acting on the seller’s or holder’s behalf to retain or dispose of other tangible personal property that is not subject to a security interest and that is acquired in the repossession of a motor vehicle, except property attached to the vehicle, unless the contract or a separate writing requires the seller or holder to send written notice of such an acquisition to the last known address of the buyer as shown by the records of the holder within fifteen days of the discovery of the personal property by the seller or holder. Such notice shall disclose to the buyer:

a. that the buyer may identify and claim the property at a reasonable time before the end of the thirtieth day after the day on which the notice was mailed or delivered; and

b. the location at which and reasonable times at which the buyer may identify and claim the property during that period.

If a contract contains an authorization complying with this Section and such property is not claimed within the thirty days after notice is mailed or delivered, the seller or holder may retain such property subject to any legal rights of buyer or dispose of such property in a reasonable manner and distribute any proceeds of such disposition according to applicable law.

Art. 5069-7.09 Application

None of the provisions of this Chapter shall affect or apply to any loans or to the business of making loans under or in accordance with the laws of this State, nor shall any of the provisions of the loan or interest statutes of this State affect or apply to any retail installment transaction. Nor shall any seller pay, promise to pay, or otherwise tender cash to any buyer as a part of any transaction made pursuant to this Chapter unless otherwise specifically authorized by this Chapter. Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to impair or in any way affect any rule of law applicable to, or governing retail installment sales not otherwise subject hereto. This Chapter shall apply exclusively to all retail installment transactions as defined in Article 7.01.

The provisions of this Chapter defining specific rates and amounts of charges and requiring certain credit disclosures to be made shall be deemed to control over any contrary Texas law respecting those subjects. Except as displaced by the particular provisions of this Chapter, the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted in Texas, other applicable statutes, and the principles of the common law shall remain applicable to transactions hereunder to the extent they are applicable.

CHAPTER EIGHT. PENALTIES

Art. 5069-8.01. Contracting For, Charging or Receiving Interest, Time Price Differential or Other Charges Greater Than Authorized; Failure to Perform Duty or Committing Prohibited Act; Correction of Violations

(a) Any person who violates this Subtitle by contracting for, charging or receiving interest, time price differential or other charges which are greater than the amount authorized by this Subtitle, shall forfeit to the obligor twice the amount of interest or Any person who violates this Subtitle or Chapter 14 of this Title by

(i) failing to perform any duty or requirement specifically imposed on him by any provision of this Subtitle or Chapter 14 of this Title, or by

(ii) committing any act or practice prohibited by this Subtitle or Chapter 14 of this Title, shall be liable to the obligor for a penalty in an amount equal to twice the time price differential or interest contracted for, charged, or received but not to exceed $2,000 in a transaction in which the amount financed is $5,000 or less, and not to exceed $4,000 in a transaction in which the amount financed is in excess of $5,000 and reasonable attorneys' fees fixed by the court.

(c)(1) A person has no liability to an obligor for a violation of this Subtitle or of Chapter 14 of this Title if within 60 days after having actually discovered such violation such person corrects such violation as to such obligor by performing the required duty or act or by refunding any amount in excess of that authorized by law; provided, however, that such person gives written notice to such obligor of such correction prior to such violation being given to such obligor, then the liability of any person to such obligor shall be limited in each transaction to a penalty in an amount equal to the time price differential or interest contracted for, charged, or received but not to exceed $2,000 and reasonable attorneys' fees fixed by the court.

(2) A person has no liability to an obligor for a violation of this Subtitle or of Chapter 14 of this Title if prior to the effective date of the Act or within 60 days after the effective date of the Act such person corrects such violation as to such obligor by performing the required duty or act or by refunding any amount in excess of that authorized by law; provided, however, that such person gives written notice to such obligor of such correction prior to such obligor having given written notice of or having filed an action alleging such violation of this Subtitle or of Chapter 14 of this Title.

(3) If, subsequent to the times specified in Article 8.01(c)(1) and (2) of this Act but prior to the obligor having given written notice of or having filed an action alleging a violation for which a penalty is provided in Article 8.01(b) of this Act, such violation is corrected as to such obligor by performing the required duty or act and written notice of such violation is given to such obligor, then the liability of any person to such obligor shall be limited in each transaction to a penalty in an amount equal to the time price differential or interest contracted for, charged, or received but not to exceed $2,000 and reasonable attorneys' fees fixed by the court.

(4) If, subsequent to the times specified in Article 8.01(c)(1) and (2) of this Act but prior to the obligor having given written notice of or having filed an action alleging a violation for which a penalty is provided in Article 8.01(a) of this Act for contracting for, charging, or receiving

(i) other charges in excess of the amount authorized by law, or

(ii) interest or time price differential in excess of the amount authorized by law, where such excess is directly and solely attributable to and calculated upon the amount of such other charges, or

(iii) both of the foregoing, such violation is corrected as to such obligor by refunding the amount of the excess and written notice of such refund is given to such obligor, then the liability of any person to such obligor shall be limited in each transaction to a penalty in an amount equal to the time price differential or interest contracted for, charged, or received but not to exceed $2,000 and reasonable attorneys' fees fixed by the court.

(5) For purposes of this Article the giving of written notice shall be accomplished by and upon the delivery of such notice to the person to whom such notice is directed or to such person's duly authorized agent or attorney of record, such delivery to be made either in person or by United States mail to the address shown on the most recent documents in the transaction. Deposit of such notice as registered or certified mail in a postage paid, properly addressed wrapper in a post office or official depositary under the care and custody of the United States Postal Service shall constitute prima facie evidence of the delivery of such notice to such person.

(d) The action of a person who corrects a violation of this Subtitle or of Chapter 14 of this Title pursuant to Article 8.01(c) of this Act shall be effective as to all persons in the same transaction, and such persons shall be entitled to the same protection as that provided by Article 8.01(c) of this Act to the person who makes the correction.

(e) If a person has violated both Articles 8.01(a) and 8.01(b) of this Act as part of the same transac-
Art. 5069-8.01 INTEREST 2912

Sec. 5. If any provision, paragraph, subsection, or section of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is determined to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other application thereof which can be given effect without the invalid or unconstitutional provision or application, and to this end the provisions, paragraphs, subsections, and sections of the Act are severable.

Art. 5069-8.02. Contracting For, Charging or Receiving Interest, Time Price Differential or Other Charges in Excess of Double the Amount Authorized

Any person who violates this Subtitle by contracting for, charging or receiving interest, time price differential or other charges which are in the aggregate in excess of double the total amount of interest, time price differential and other charges authorized by this Subtitle shall forfeit to the obligor as an additional penalty all principal or principal balance, as well as all interest or time price differential, and all other charges, and shall pay reasonable attorneys' fees actually incurred by the obligor in enforcing the provisions of this Article; provided further that any such person violating provisions of this Article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than One Hundred Dollars. Each contract or transaction in violation of this Article shall constitute a separate offense punishable hereunder.

Art. 5069-8.03. Engaging in Lending Business Without License

In addition to the foregoing penalties, if applicable, any person engaging in any business under the scope of Chapters 3, 4, or 5 of this Subtitle without first securing a license provided, or without the authority prescribed, in such Chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by a fine of not more than One Thousand Dollars, and each such loan made without the authority granted by such license shall constitute a separate offense punishable hereunder; and in addition such person shall forfeit all principal and charges contracted for or collected on each such loan, and shall pay reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the obligor.

Art. 5069-8.04. Venue and Limitation Periods

(a) Actions under this Chapter may be brought in the county where the transaction was entered into or where the Defendant resides at the time the action was filed. Such actions may be brought within four years from the date of the loan or retail installment transaction or within two years from the date of the occurrence of the violation, whichever is later; provided, however, that in the case of open-end credit transactions, such actions may be brought within two years from the date of the occurrence of the violation.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act shall become effective at midnight on August 31, 1977, and shall apply to all transactions entered into prior to such date; provided, however, that this Act shall not apply to any action brought under Subtitle 2 or Chapter 14 of Title 79 that is pending on such date; and provided further, that the penalty for any violation of Title 79 of the type referred to in Article 8.01(b) of Section 1 of this Act occurring in a transaction entered into prior to July 1, 1976, which violation has not been corrected as provided in Article 8.01(c) of Section 1 of this Act, shall be determined by the law in effect prior to the effective date of this Act so that the penalty provided for in Article 8.01(b) shall apply only to violations in transactions entered into after June 30, 1976, which have not been corrected as provided in Article 8.01(c).

Sec. 4. This Act shall supersede any other act passed at the Regular Session of the 65th Legislature which amends any article or section of Chapter 8 or Chapter 14 of Title 79, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1923, as amended, regardless of the relative date of the passage or approval of such other act.
(b) If an action alleging any violation or violations of this Subtitle or Chapter 14 of this Title is brought as a class action and is determined by the court to be maintainable as a class action, the class may recover the amount of actual damages proximately caused to the members of the class as a result of a violation or violations. The court may assess a penalty of: (i) such amount for each obligor who is named as a class representative at the time that the action is determined to be maintainable as a class action as could be recovered by such persons under this Chapter; (ii) such amount as the court may allow for all other class members, except as to each such member of the class no minimum recovery shall be applicable, and the total recovery under this subparagraph in any class action or series of class actions arising out of the same failure to comply by the same person shall not be more than the lesser of $100,000 or five percent of the net worth of the person; and (iii) in the case of any successful action to enforce the foregoing liability, the costs of the action together with a reasonable attorney's fee as determined by the court. In determining the amount of award in any class action, the court shall consider, among other relevant factors, the amount of any actual damages awarded, the frequency and persistence of failures of compliance by the creditor, the resources of the creditor, the number of persons adversely affected, and the extent to which the creditor's failure of compliance was intentional or reckless.

Art. 5069–8.05. Violating Terms of Injunction

Any person who violates the terms of an injunction duly issued under this Subtitle shall forfeit and pay to the State a civil penalty of not more than One Thousand Dollars per violation. For the purposes of this Article, the District Court issuing an injunction shall retain jurisdiction, and the cause shall be continued, and in such cases the Attorney General may petition for recovery of such civil penalties.

SUBTITLE THREE—CONSUMER PROTECTION

Chapter

14. Alternative Disclosure Requirements in Coordination with Federal Law

[Repealed] 5069–14.01 consumer; but it does not include a sale of realty in which transaction the purchaser is represented by a licensed attorney or in which the transaction is being negotiated by a licensed real estate broker or in which the transaction is being negotiated by the person who owns the realty not at the residence of the consumer.

to (c)]

(d) Use of the forms and notices of the right to cancel prescribed by the Federal Trade Commission's trade-regulation rule providing a cooling-off period for door-to-door sales constitutes compliance with this section.

(e) A home solicitation sale in which the contract price does not exceed $200 complies with the notice requirements of this Act if:

(1) the consumer may at any time cancel the order, refuse to accept delivery of the goods without incurring any obligation to pay for them, or return the goods to the merchant and receive a full refund of the amount the consumer has paid; and

(2) the consumer's right to cancel the order, refuse delivery, or return the goods without obligation or charge at any time is clearly and conspicuously set forth on the face or reverse side of the sales ticket.

Art. 5069-15. Definitions

The following terms used in this chapter shall have the meanings shown:

(a) “Account” means a revolving loan account or a revolving triparty account.

(b) “Arrangement” means a written agreement that makes an account available to a person and that is accepted by use of the account.

(c) “Average daily balance” means the sum of each day's ending balance in an account during a billing cycle (less any interest included in such balance), divided by the number of days in such billing cycle. Such sum may include purchases and loans posted to the account during such billing cycle and such sum shall be reduced by all payments and credits during such billing cycle.

(d) “Bank” means a person doing business under the authority of and as permitted by The Texas Banking Code of 1943, as amended (Article 342-101 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and any person organized under Title 12, United States Code, as amended.

(e) “Billing cycle” means the time interval between periodic billing statements. Billing cycles in any 12-month period may be considered equal if no billing cycle within such 12-month period varies more than eight days in length from any other billing cycle and if the number of billing cycles in such 12-month period does not exceed 12.

(f) “Creditor” means a bank, savings and loan association, or licensee who lends money or otherwise extends credit to a customer under a credit card or cards and who may authorize other persons to honor such credit card or cards.

(g) “Credit card” means a card, confirmation or identification, or check or other written request by which a customer obtains access to an account.

(h) “Customer” means a person who has accepted an arrangement.

(i) “Licensee” means the holder of a license issued pursuant to Chapter 3 of Subtitle 2 of this Title 79. 1

(j) “Person” means an individual or a partners­ ship, corporation, joint venture, trust, association, or other legal entity however organized.
(k) “Revolving loan account” means an arrangement between a creditor and a customer establishing an open-end line of credit under which

(1) the customer may obtain loans from the creditor;

(2) the unpaid balance of the loans and any interest thereon are debited to an account;

(3) interest is not precomputed but may be computed on the balances of the customer’s account outstanding from time to time; and

(4) the customer may defer payment of any part of the balance.

(1) “Revolving triparty account” means an arrangement between a creditor and a customer establishing an open-end line of credit under which

(1) by means of a credit card, the customer may obtain loans from the creditor, which may be advanced by other participating persons, and lease goods or purchase goods or services from participating lessors or sellers, and the creditor will pay the other participating persons, lessors, or sellers and the customer is obligated to pay the creditor the amount of such loans or the cost of such leases or purchases;

(2) the unpaid balance of such loans, leases, and purchases and any interest thereon are debited to an account;

(3) interest is not precomputed but may be computed on the balances of the customer’s account outstanding from time to time; and

(4) the customer may defer payment of any part of the balance.

(m) “Savings and loan association” means any person doing business under the authority of and as permitted by the Texas Savings and Loan Act (Article 852a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes) or any person incorporated under the provisions of the Home Owners Loan Act of 1933, as amended.5

Art. 5069–15.02. Maximum Rates of Interest

(a) A creditor may charge and collect interest on an account either

(1)(i) on that portion of the average daily balance not above $1,500 at an annual rate not above 18 percent; and (ii) on that portion of the average daily balance above $1,500 and not above $2,500 at an annual rate not above 12 percent; and (iii) on that portion of the average daily balance above $2,500 at an annual rate not above 10 percent; or

(2) on the entire average daily balance at the annual rate of 14.4 percent.

(b) A creditor may charge one-twelfth of the applicable annual rate under Section (a) of Article 15.02 of this chapter in any billing cycle on the average daily balance of an account during such billing cycle, if billing cycles may be considered equal under Article 15.01(e) of this chapter.

(c) The maximum interest which may be contracted for and collected under this article may be computed by a method other than the average daily balance method as defined in this chapter if the amount of interest computed by the other method will not exceed the amount of interest computed under such average daily balance method.

Art. 5069–15.03. More Than One Account

Any customer may request and a creditor may make available to any customer more than one account, and the creditor may charge interest at the rates set out in Article 15.02 of this chapter on each such account, but no creditor may require that a customer have more than one such account for the purpose of collecting more interest.

[Added by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1502, ch. 648, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 5069–15.04. Credit Covered

The provisions of this Chapter 15 shall apply to loans and extensions of credit for both consumer and business purposes under an arrangement.

Art. 5069–15.05. Amendments

A creditor unilaterally may amend an agreement covering an arrangement and account, but no change adverse to the customer shall be effective as to existing balances or future credit until the first billing cycle beginning more than 90 days after written notice of the change to the customer.

[Added by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1503, ch. 648, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 5069–15.06. Compliance with Federal Consumer Credit Protection Act

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to alter any creditor’s obligation to comply with the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act.

[Added by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1503, ch. 648, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 5069–15.09. Conflicts

Arrangements and accounts covered by this chapter shall not be subject to the provisions of any other chapters of this title except as herein specifically provided.

[Added by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1503, ch. 648, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 5069–15.10. Application of This Chapter 15

This Chapter 15 on and after its effective date shall apply

(a) to arrangements and accounts existing on the date of enactment when, before or after the effective date hereof, the creditor shall amend agreements covering such arrangements and accounts to give notice of the application of this Chapter 15 to such arrangements and accounts in compliance with Section 15.05 of this Chapter 15; and

(b) to all arrangements and accounts created after the enactment of this Chapter 15 unless the agreement providing for such arrangement or account provides otherwise.

CHAPTER FIFTY–ONE. PAWNSHOPS

Art. 5069–51.08. Examinations

At such times as the Commissioner may deem necessary, the Commissioner, or his duly authorized representative, may make an examination of the place of business of each licensee and may inquire into and examine the transactions, books, accounts, papers, correspondence and records of such licensee insofar as they pertain to the business regulated by this Act. Such books, accounts, papers, correspondence and records shall also be open for inspection at any reasonable time by any peace officer, without need of judicial writ or other process. In the course of an examination, the Commissioner or his duly authorized representative shall have free access to the office, place of business, files, safes, and vaults of such licensee, and shall have the right to make copies of any books, accounts, papers, correspondence and records. The Commissioner or his duly authorized representative may, during the course of such examination, administer oaths and examine any person under oath upon any subject pertinent to any matter about which the Commissioner is authorized or required by this Act to consider, investigate, or secure information. Any licensee who fails or refuses to let the Commissioner or his duly authorized representative or any peace officer examine or make copies of such books, or other relevant documents shall thereby be deemed in violation of this Act and such failure or refusal shall constitute grounds for the suspension or revocation of such license. The information obtained in the course of any examination or inspection shall be confidential and privileged, except for use in a criminal investigation or prosecution. Each licensee shall pay to the Commissioner an amount assessed by the Commissioner to cover the direct and indirect cost of such examinations and a proportionate share of general administrative expense, not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars in any calendar year, and in the event a licensee hereunder is also licensed to do business under Chapter 3 of the Texas Credit Code, Chapter 3 of Subtitle 2, Chapter 274, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, in the same place of business licensed hereunder, the aggregate charges for examinations authorized by the said Chapter 3 of the Texas Credit Code and by this Act shall not exceed Five Hundred Dollars in any calendar year.

TITLE 81

JAILS

Art. 5115. Jails Provided
The Commissioners Court shall provide safe and suitable jails for their respective counties, and shall cause the same to be maintained in good sanitary condition at all times, properly ventilated, heated and lighted; structurally sound, fire resistant and kept in good repair. Furthermore, they shall cause the jails in their respective counties to be kept in a clean and healthy condition, provided with water of safe quality and ample quantity and sewer disposal facilities in accordance with good sanitary standards, and provided with clean, comfortable mattresses and blankets, sufficient for the comfort of the prisoners, and that food is prepared and served in a palatable and sanitary manner and according to good dietary practices and of a quality to maintain good health.

Such jails shall comply with the provisions of this Act and with the rules and procedures of the Commission on Jail Standards.

SUITABLE SEGREGATION

The term "safe and suitable jails," as used in this Act, shall be construed to mean jails which provide adequate segregation facilities by having separate enclosures, formed by solid masonry or solid metal walls, or solid walls of other comparable material, separating witnesses from all classifications of prisoners; and males from females; and juveniles from adults; and first offenders, awaiting trial, from all other classifications of prisoners. Furthermore, the term "safe and suitable" jails shall be construed to mean jails either now or hereafter constructed, except that, in lieu of maintaining its own jail, any county whose population is not large enough to justify building a new jail or remodeling its old jail shall be exempt from the provisions of this Act by contracting with the nearest available county whose jail meets the requirements set forth in this Act for the incarceration of its prisoners at a daily per capita rate equal to the cost of maintaining prisoners in said jail, or at a daily rate mutually agreed to by the contracting counties.

No person suspected of insanity, or who has been legally adjudged insane, shall be housed or held in a jail, except that such a person who demonstrates homicidal tendencies, and who must be restrained from committing acts of violence against other persons, may be held in a jail for a period of time not to exceed a total of twenty-four (24) hours, during which period he shall be kept under observation continuously. At the end of the twenty-four (24) hour period, such person shall be released or taken to a hospital or mental hospital. Furthermore, for such temporary holding of each person suspected of insanity, or who has been legally adjudged insane, there shall be provided a special enclosure or room, not less than forty (40) square feet and having a ceiling height of not less than eight (8) feet above the floor. Furthermore, the floor and the walls of such enclosure shall be provided with a soft covering designed to protect a violent person, temporarily held therein, from self-injury or destruction. One hammock, not less than two (2) feet, three (3) inches wide and six (6) feet, three (3) inches long, made of elastic or fibrous material shall be provided in each such special enclosure.

SUITABLE SECURITY AND SAFETY

For the purpose of this Act, the term "safe and suitable jails" is further defined to mean jails which provide adequate security and safety facilities by having separate cells or compartments, dormitories, and day rooms, of varying dimensions and capacities for prisoners confined therein, except that, if practicable, no one such cell or compartment shall be designed for confining two (2) prisoners only. Cells or compartments shall be designed to accommodate from one (1) to eight (8) prisoners each, and furthermore, such dormitories and day rooms shall be designed to accommodate not more than twenty-four (24) prisoners each. Furthermore, in each such jail there shall be provided individual one-man or one-woman cells to accommodate not less than thirty per cent (30%) of the total designated prisoner capacity of the jail and dormitory-type space may be provided to accommodate not more than forty per cent (40%) of the total designated prisoner capacity of the jail. All cells, compartments and dormitories for sleeping purposes, where each such cell, compartment or dormitory is designed to accommodate three (3) or more prisoners, shall be accessible to a day room to which prisoners may be given access during the day. Cells for one (1) prisoner only shall have a minimum floor area of forty (40) square feet and all other cells, compartments, dormitories and day rooms (including safety vestibule area) shall have a minimum floor area equal to eighteen (18) square feet for each prisoner to be confined therein. The ceiling height above finished floor shall be not less than eight (8) feet for any cell, compartment, dormitory or day room where prisoners are confined.
Art. 5115

The term "safe and suitable jails," as used in this Act, is further defined to mean that, for reasons of safety to officers and security, the entrance and/or exit to each group of enclosures forming a cell block or group of cells and/or compartments used for the confinement of three (3) or more prisoners shall be through a safety vestibule having one (1) or more interior doors in addition to the main outside entrance door to such cell block, all arranged to be locked, unlocked, opened or closed by control means located outside of any such enclosure or cell block.

SUITABLE SANITATION AND HEALTH

The term "safe and suitable jails" is further defined to mean jails which provide adequate facilities for maintaining proper standards in sanitation and health. Each cell designed for one (1) prisoner only shall be provided with a water closet and a combination lavatory and drinking fountain, table and seat. Each cell, compartment or dormitory designed for three (3) or more prisoners, shall be provided with one (1) water closet and one (1) combination lavatory and drinking fountain for each twelve (12) prisoners or fraction thereof to be confined therein. Furthermore, all such cells, compartments and dormitories shall be provided with one (1) bunk, not less in size than two (2) feet, three (3) inches wide and six (6) feet, three (3) inches long, for each prisoner to be confined therein. Furthermore, each day room for the confinement of three (3) or more prisoners shall be provided with one (1) water closet, one (1) combination lavatory and drinking fountain and one (1) shower bath for each twelve (12) prisoners or fraction thereof, to be confined therein. Furthermore, each day room shall be otherwise suitably furnished.

The provision of this Act, as amended, shall become applicable to all jails upon its effective date. The standards prescribed by this Act are minimum standards only. The provisions of this Act are enforceable by the Commission on Jail Standards. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1283, ch. 480, § 15, eff. June 19, 1975.]

Art. 5115.1. Commission on Jail Standards

Policy

Sec. 1. It is the policy of the State of Texas that all county jail facilities in the state conform to certain minimum standards of construction, maintenance, and operation. It is the purpose of the legislature by this Act to implement this policy by establishing a commission on jail standards with the authority and responsibility to administer the provision of this Act and other laws relating to standards for county jails.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) "Commission" means the Commission on Jail Standards.

(2) "Executive director" means the executive director of the Commission on Jail Standards.

(3) "County jail" means any jail, lockup, or other facility that is operated by or for a county for the confinement of persons accused or convicted of an offense.

(4) "Prisoners" means persons confined in a county jail.

Commission Created

Sec. 3. The Commission on Jail Standards is created.

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 3a. The Commission on Jail Standards is subject to the Texas Sunset Act; and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the commission is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1987.

Membership—Appointment, Terms, Vacancies

Sec. 4. (a) The commission consists of nine members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. Two members shall be county sheriffs, one from a county with a population of over 200,000 persons and one from a county with a population of 200,000 or less, according to the latest United States census. One member shall be a county judge; one shall be a practitioner of medicine licensed by the State Board of Medical Examiners; the other five positions shall be filled by citizens of the state who hold no public office. The sheriffs and the county judge appointed to the commission shall perform the duties of a member of the commission in addition to their other duties.

(b) Except as provided by Subsection (c) of this section, members are appointed for a term of six years expiring on January 31 of an odd-numbered year.

(c) For terms that begin within 60 days after the effective date of this Act, the governor shall appoint:

(1) three members for terms that expire on January 31, 1981;
(2) three members for terms that expire on January 31, 1979; and
(3) three members for terms that expire on January 31, 1977.
(d) If a sheriff or county judge on the commission ceases to hold office or if a vacancy otherwise occurs in the membership of the commission, the governor shall appoint a replacement who possesses the same qualifications as the member who vacated his position, with the advice and consent of the senate, to serve the unexpired portion of the term. If a vacancy occurs at a time when the senate is not in session, the vacancy shall nevertheless be filled on an interim basis, and the interim appointee shall serve as a member of the commission until his nomination has been acted on by the senate.

Chairman; Vice-Chairman

Sec. 5. The commission shall biennially elect one of its members chairman and one vice-chairman for a term of two years beginning on February 1 of each odd-numbered year.

Meetings; Quorum; Rules

Sec. 6. (a) The commission shall hold a regular meeting each calendar quarter and may hold special meetings at the call of the chairman or on the written request of three members. The chairman, or in his absence, the vice-chairman, shall preside at all meetings of the commission.

(b) Five members constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

(c) The commission shall adopt, amend, and rescind rules for the conduct of its proceedings.

Expenses

Sec. 7. Members of the commission are not entitled to compensation but are entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in performing their official duties.

Director; Staff

Sec. 8. (a) The commission shall employ an executive director to serve at the will of the commission. The executive director is subject to the policy direction of the commission and is the chief executive officer of the commission.

(b) The executive director may employ personnel as necessary to enforce and administer this Act.

(c) The executive director and employees are entitled to compensation and expenses as provided by legislative appropriation.

Duties of the Commission

Sec. 9. (a) The commission shall:

(1) promulgate reasonable rules and procedures establishing minimum standards for the construction, equipment, maintenance, and operation of county jails;

(2) promulgate reasonable rules and procedures establishing minimum standards for the custody, care, and treatment of prisoners;

(3) promulgate reasonable rules establishing minimum standards for the number of jail supervisory personnel and for programs and services to meet the needs of prisoners;

(4) promulgate reasonable rules and procedures establishing minimum requirements for programs of rehabilitation, education, and recreation in county jails;

(5) revise, amend, or change rules and procedures if necessary, in a manner not inconsistent with this Act;

(6) provide consultation and technical assistance to local government officials with respect to county jails;

(7) review and comment on plans for the construction and major modification or renovation of county jails;

(8) require that the sheriff and commissioners of each county submit to the commission, on a form prescribed by the commission, an annual report on the conditions in each county jail within their jurisdiction, including all information necessary to determine compliance with state law, commission orders, and the rules promulgated under this Act;

(9) review the reports submitted under Subdivision (8) of this subsection and require its employees to inspect county jails regularly to insure compliance with state law, commission orders, and rules and procedures promulgated under this Act; and

(10) determine annually, or more often, whether each county jail is in compliance with the rules and procedures promulgated under this Act.

(b) The fact that compliance with a commission rule or procedure requires major modification or renovation of an existing jail or construction of a new jail does not render a commission rule or procedure unreasonable.

Annual Report

Sec. 10. The commission shall make a report to the governor, the lieutenant governor, and the speaker of the house of representatives, not later than January 31 of each year, covering its operations, its findings concerning county jails during the preceding year, and whatever recommendations it deems appropriate.

Enforcement of Jail Standards

Sec. 11. (a) The commission shall be granted access at any reasonable time to any county jail facility or part of any county jail facility and shall be granted access to all books, records, and data pertaining to any county jail which the commission or the executive director deems necessary for the administration of the commission's functions, powers, and duties. The commissioners and sheriff of each county shall furnish the commission or any of its members, or the executive director or any employee designated by the executive director, any information which he states is necessary to enable the commission to discharge its functions, powers, and duties, to determine whether its rules are being observed or whether its orders are being obeyed and otherwise to implement the purposes of this Act. In the exercise of its function, powers, and duties, the commission may issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, records, and documents, administer oaths, and take testimony concerning all matters within its jurisdiction. The commission is not bound by strict rules of evidence or procedure in the conduct of its proceedings, but its determinations shall be founded on sufficient legal evidence to sustain them. The commission may delegate to the executive director the authority conferred by this subsection.

(b) When the commission finds that a county jail is not in compliance with state law, or the rules and procedures of the commission, or fails to meet the minimum standards prescribed by the commission or by state law, it shall report the noncompliance to the commissioners and sheriff of the county responsible for the jail that is not in compliance. The commission shall send a copy of the report to the governor.

(c) The commission shall grant the county or sheriff a reasonable time, not to exceed one year after a report of noncompliance, to comply with its rules and procedures and with state law. On application of the sheriff or commissioners of a county, if clearly justified by the facts and circumstances, the commission may grant reasonable variances for operation of county jails not in strict compliance with state law, except that no variance may be granted to permit unhealthy, unsanitary, or unsafe conditions.

(d) If the commissioners or sheriff does not comply within the time granted by the commission, the commission may, by order, prohibit the confinement of prisoners in the noncomplying jail and designate another detention facility for their confinement. If a prohibition and transfer order is issued, the sheriff of the county in which the noncomplying jail is situated shall immediately transfer all prisoners to the detention facility specified by the commission.

(e) The county responsible for a nonconforming jail shall bear the cost of transportation and maintenance of prisoners transferred from a noncomplying jail by order of the commission. The costs of transportation and maintenance shall be determined by the commission and shall be paid into the treasury of the entity operating the detention facility to which the prisoners are transferred.

(f) The commission, in lieu of closing a county jail, may institute an action in its own name to enforce, or enjoin the violation of, its orders, rules, or procedures, or of Article 5115, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. The commission shall be represented by the attorney general. An action brought pursuant to this subsection is in addition to any other action, proceeding, or remedy provided by law, and may be brought in a district court of Travis County. A suit brought under this subsection shall be given preferential setting and shall be tried by the court, without a jury. The court shall issue an injunction ordering compliance if it finds:

(1) that the county jail is being operated in such a manner that it does not comply with the rules and procedures promulgated by the commission or with state law; and

(2) that the commissioners or sheriff has been given a reasonable time to comply with the rules and procedures and has failed to do so.

Judicial Review

Sec. 12. (a) A county may appeal a commission order issued under Subsection (d), Section 11, of this Act by filing a petition in a district court of Travis County.

(b) The petition must be filed within 30 days after the date of the commission's order.

(c) Service of citation on the commission must be accomplished within 30 days after the date the petition is filed. Citation may be served on the executive director.

(d) In an action brought under this section, the court is confined to the record developed by the commission, and the only issues before the court are:

(1) whether the order of the commission is based on substantial evidence; and

(2) whether the order is arbitrary, capricious, or illegal.

Regulations

Sec. 13. (a) The commission shall promulgate the regulations required by Section 9 of this Act on or before January 1, 1977.

(b) On or before March 1, 1977, the commission shall mail a copy of the regulations promulgated pursuant to Section 9 of this Act to each county sheriff in this state. The chairman shall certify to the governor that the commission has complied with the requirements established by this section.

Qualifications of Jail Personnel

Sec. 14. (a) The Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education shall establish minimum physical, mental, educational, and moral standards for persons employed or utilized in the operation of county jails.
(b) The authority and power of the Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education is extended to cover all county jail personnel. The staff of the Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education shall be enlarged sufficiently to discharge the additional responsibilities imposed by this section. Counties shall have a period of one year following establishment of standards for county jail personnel within which to have all jail personnel certified by the Commission on Law Enforcement Officers Standards and Education.

(c) A standard requiring a person to have any degree of formal education or the equivalent is not applicable to a person who was employed or whose services were utilized in the operation of a county jail on August 29, 1977.

Art. 5115c. Intercounty Cooperation Regarding Furnishing and Operating Jail Facilities

Sec. 1. Two or more counties, acting through their commissioners courts, may contract with one another for the joint operation of a jail to serve the contracting counties. The contract may provide for the construction or acquisition of a facility for this purpose or for the use of an existing facility. The joint facility is not required to be located at the county seat of one of the contracting counties.

Sec. 2. A county that is party to a contract under this Act may use any method of financing its share of the capital expenditures under the contract for acquisition, construction, enlargement, or improvement of the joint facility, including necessary acquisition of land, as would be available to it if the county operated its own jail, including the issuance as provided by law of general obligation bonds or other evidences of indebtedness.

Sec. 3. (a) The administration of a jail operated under this Act is the responsibility of the sheriff of the county where the jail is located unless he declines that responsibility by filing a written statement to that effect with the commissioners court of that county. If the sheriff so declines, the commissioners courts of the contracting counties by joint action shall appoint a jail administrator for the jail.

(b) The sheriff or jail administrator responsible for the administration of the jail has all the powers, duties, and responsibilities with regard to the keeping of prisoners and operation of the jail that are conferred by law on a sheriff in a county that operates its own jail.

(c) Action by a sheriff declining the responsibility for the administration of a jail operated under this Act does not take effect until a jail administrator has been appointed and has assumed his duties. If there is a vacancy in the position of jail administrator, the sheriff of the county where the jail is located is responsible for the administration of the jail until a new jail administrator is appointed and assumes the position.

Art. 5119a-1. Transfer of Gatesville State School for Boys to Department of Corrections.

Sec. 1. In consideration of the benefit to the public health, safety, and welfare, and the benefit to the state of relieving congested facilities in the Texas Department of Corrections, the chairman of the Texas Youth Council, on behalf of the Texas Youth Council, shall transfer and convey title to the land, buildings, and facilities of the Gatesville State School for Boys to the Texas Department of Corrections for use and benefit of the Texas Department of Corrections, effective September 1, 1979.

Sec. 2. The Texas Department of Corrections is hereby authorized to take possession, for the purpose of renovation, alteration, and construction, of the buildings and facilities of the Gatesville State School for Boys, according to the following schedule:

(a) On the effective date of this Act, the Texas Department of Corrections shall take possession of the Valley, Riverside, and Live Oak units of the Gatesville State School for Boys.

(b) On June 1, 1979, the Texas Department of Corrections shall take possession of the Terrace and Sycamore units of the Gatesville State School for Boys.

(c) On September 1, 1979, the Texas Department of Corrections shall take possession of the Hackberry and Hilltop units, the administration buildings, and all other land, buildings, and facilities of the Gatesville State School for Boys.

Sec. 3. From funds appropriated to the Texas Youth Council for the Gatesville State School Building and Repair Program for the biennium ending August 31, 1979, the sum of $571,000 is hereby transferred and appropriated to the Texas Department of Corrections for renovation, remodeling, and alteration of buildings and facilities of the Gatesville State School for Boys as required to house adult inmates. From funds appropriated for the same biennium for operation of the Gatesville State School for Boys, the Texas Youth Council may transfer to the Texas Department of Corrections for the same purpose an amount determined by agreement between the Texas Youth Council and the Texas Board of Corrections.

Sec. 4. The Texas Youth Council and the Texas Board of Corrections by agreement shall provide for the transfer or retention by the Texas Youth Council of all items of state property now located at the Gatesville State School for Boys, including furniture, equipment, vehicles, tools, supplies, linens, machin­ery, utensils, livestock, and agricultural implements. The Texas Youth Council and the Texas Board of Corrections shall inform the State Board of Control of the disposition made of all such property on or before September 1, 1979.

Acts 1979, 66th Leg., ch. 842, repealing this article, enacts the Human Resources Code.

For disposition of the subject matter of the repealed article, see Disposition Table following the Human Resources Code.

Art. 5139E-1. Smith County Juvenile Board

(1) There is established a Juvenile Board in Smith County to be composed of the County Judge of the county, the District Judges of the Judicial Districts therein and the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations. The County Judge of said county shall be chairman of such Board and its chief administrative officer. The official title of the Board in said county shall be the name of the county followed by the words: “County Juvenile Board.”

(2) [Deleted]

(3) As compensation for the added duties hereby imposed upon members of such Juvenile Board, each member thereof may be compensated by an annual salary as determined by the Commissioners Court of the county, payable in 12 equal monthly installments; and such compensation shall be in addition to all other compensation now provided for or allowed the Judges of the Domestic Relations, County, and District Courts by law, and shall be paid out of the general fund of the county.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 653, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975; Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1330, ch. 528, § 1, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 5139Z. Andrews County Juvenile Board

Sec. 1. There is hereby established a Juvenile Board for Andrews County, which shall be known as the Andrews County Juvenile Board. It shall be composed of the county judge of Andrews County, the judge of each judicial district which includes Andrews County, and the county attorney of Andrews County or his successor. The judge of the court which is designated as the juvenile court for Andrews County shall be chairman of the board and its chief administrative officer. The board shall have all the powers conferred on juvenile boards created under Article 5139 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, and any amendments thereto.

Art. 5139BB. Liberty County Juvenile Board

Sec. 1. There is hereby established a county juvenile board in Liberty County, which shall be composed of the county judge of the County Court of Liberty County, who shall act as juvenile judge if he qualifies under the provisions of Section 51.04, Family Code, to serve as judge of the juvenile court, and two (2) or more citizens of Liberty County, which citizens shall be appointed by the county judge, with the approval of the County Commissioners Court of Liberty County, for a period of two (2) years. If the county judge is not qualified to act as juvenile judge under the Family Code, a district judge having Liberty County within his jurisdiction shall act as the juvenile judge of Liberty County. The official title of the board shall be the Liberty County Juvenile Board.

Sec. 2. As compensation for the added duties imposed upon the juvenile board, the juvenile judge shall be allowed an additional compensation in an amount to be fixed by the Commissioners Court of the County; such other members of the juvenile board shall be allowed additional compensation in an amount to be fixed by the Commissioners Court of the County. The additional compensation provided in this section shall be paid monthly in twelve (12) equal installments out of the general fund or any other appropriate fund of the County. Such compensation shall be in addition to all other compensation now provided or allowed by law for county judges or any salary now received by said citizen members of the Liberty County Juvenile Board.

Sec. 3. The juvenile board established by this Act shall have all the powers conferred on juvenile boards created under Article 5139 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925 and any amendments thereto. The board may appoint a juvenile officer and such assistants as may be necessary, whose salary shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of said Liberty County, Texas. The juvenile officer shall have the powers and duties prescribed by Article 5142 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925 and any amendments thereto. All claims for expenses of the juvenile officer and his assistants shall be certified by the chairman of the juvenile board as being necessary in the performance of the duties of the juvenile officer. The Commissioners Court shall provide the necessary funds for payment of the salary and expenses of the juvenile officer and his assistants. The same person may serve as the juvenile officer and as a citizen member of the Liberty County Juvenile Board; however, if a citizen member of the Liberty County Juvenile Board also is appointed to serve as the juvenile officer then he shall receive only the compensation set forth herein for the juvenile officer. All salaries referred to in this amendment shall be effective as of January 1, 1978.

Art. 5139CC. Hunt County Juvenile Board

Sec. 1. There is hereby established a County Juvenile Board in Hunt County, which shall be composed of the county judge, the judge of the county court at law in Hunt County, the judge of the 196th Judicial District, and three non-salaried members who are citizens of Hunt County, one to be appointed by the county judge, one by the judge of the county court at law, and one by the district judge. The terms of office of the non-salaried appointed members of the Board are for one year each. The terms of the non-salaried appointed members expire on December 31st of each year.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 2 and 3]

Sec. 4. As compensation for the added duties imposed upon the judicial members of the Juvenile Board, the judges of the county court, county court at law, and district court may be allowed additional compensation not to exceed Three Thousand, Six Hundred Dollars ($3,600) per year, and the clerk of the juvenile court may be allowed additional compensation not to exceed Eight Hundred Dollars ($800) per year. Any additional compensation allowed shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Hunt County, and paid monthly in twelve (12) equal installments out of the general fund or any other available fund of the county. Such compensation shall be in addition to all other compensation not provided or allowed by law for the county judges, district judges, judges of the county court at law, and clerk of the juvenile court and shall not be counted as fees of office. Each other member of the Board serves without compensation. This Act shall be cumulative of existing laws relating to compensation for judges of district courts, county courts, and county courts at law, and clerks of juvenile courts.

SUBCHAPTER B. CHIEF JUVENILE PROBATION OFFICER

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 6 to 9]

Support Payments

Sec. 10. (a) If the juvenile board directs the chief juvenile probation officer to receive payments for the support of wives and children made under the order of the district courts, courts of domestic relations or the juvenile courts of Harris County, he shall receive the payments and shall disburse the funds in the manner the courts determine to be for the best interests of the parties involved in each case.

(b) If the juvenile board directs the district clerk to receive support payments, the clerk shall receive the payments and shall disburse the funds in the manner the courts determine to be for the best interests of the parties involved in each case.
(c) In all cases in which the juvenile board directs the chief juvenile probation officer to receive support payments, he shall enter into a surety bond with some solvent surety company authorized to execute bonds of this type in Texas. The bond shall be conditioned upon the chief juvenile probation officer's faithful performance of the duties of his position and upon his properly accounting for any moneys entrusted to him. The Commissioners Court shall fix the amount of the bond and shall approve its terms. The Commissioners Court shall pay the premium for the bond out of the general funds of the county.

(d) The chief juvenile probation officer shall keep an accurate and complete record of all his receipts and disbursements of support payment funds. The record is open to inspection by the public. The County Auditor shall inspect the record and shall audit the accounts quarterly, making a report of his findings and recommendations to the juvenile board.

(e) If the juvenile board directs the chief juvenile probation officer to receive support payments, a fee, not to exceed One Dollar ($1.00) per month, may be assessed for each individual transaction of receiving and disbursing each individual payment of support moneys. Such fee may be assessed, subject to the approval of the Commissioners Court, upon a determination of the juvenile board that additional funds are necessary to assist in the maintenance of a support office by the chief juvenile probation officer. The fee shall be collected by the chief juvenile probation officer from the payor annually in advance and shall be paid to the County Treasurer to be kept in a separate fund. This fund shall be administered by the juvenile board, subject to the approval of the Commissioners Court, for the purpose of assisting in the payment of the operating expenses of the support office in the juvenile probation office.

(a) appoint assistant juvenile probation officers with the advice and consent of the juvenile board;
(b) investigate all cases referred to him by the board;
(c) investigate all cases brought before the juvenile court;
(d) take charge of juveniles and perform services for them as directed by the board or the juvenile court;
(e) in carrying out the duties required in this Act, act in the best interest of the juvenile;
(f) furnish the board and the juvenile court any information and assistance required by them;
(g) make a written report to the judge of the juvenile court showing facts relating to the environment, treatment, education, welfare, and other information that may assist the court in determining the proper disposition to be made of any juvenile; and
(h) keep a record that will at all times show the names of all referrals and delinquent juveniles within Webb County and the names and addresses of the persons having custody of them.

Sec. 7. The Commissioners Court of Webb County shall fix the salary of persons employed by the juvenile board. The commissioners court may appropriate money from the general fund to the juvenile board for the administration of this Act. The juvenile board shall administer this Act with money appropriated by the commissioners court.

Art. 5139KKK. East Texas Juvenile Board
Sec. 1. (a) The East Texas Juvenile Board, having jurisdiction in the counties of Jasper, Newton, Sabine, and San Augustine, is created.

(b) The board is composed of the county judges of Jasper, Newton, Sabine, and San Augustine counties and the judge of each district court having jurisdiction in any of those counties.

(c) The District Judge of the First Judicial District is chairman of the board and its chief administrative officer. The board shall elect a vice-chairman from among its members who are county judges.

Sec. 2. Within the area of jurisdiction of the East Texas Juvenile Board, the board may designate the juvenile courts, provide a juvenile probation program, and perform all powers and duties prescribed by law for juvenile boards.

Sec. 3. As compensation for the added duties imposed on the members of the East Texas Juvenile Board, each member who is a district judge may be allowed additional compensation to be fixed by a majority of the county commissioners of the participating counties and paid monthly in 12 equal installments out of the general fund or any available fund of the counties on a pro rata basis according to the population of each county in the last preceding federal census, and each member who is a county judge may be allowed additional compensation to be fixed by the commissioners court of his county and paid monthly in 12 equal installments out of the general fund or any available fund of the county. Such compensation shall be in addition to all other compensation provided or allowed by law for county judges and district judges.

Art. 5139LLL. Colorado, Lavaca, Gonzales and Guadalupe Counties; Juvenile Boards
Sec. 1. There is hereby established a county juvenile board in each of the counties of Colorado, Lavaca, Gonzales, and Guadalupe, which shall be composed of the county judge and the judge of each judicial district that includes the county; provided, however, that the County Judge of Guadalupe County, at his option, from time to time, can substitute the Judge of the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County for himself, or provide that both the County Judge and the Judge of the County Court at Law of Guadalupe County shall serve. The official title of the board in each county shall be the name of the county followed by the words “County Juvenile Board.” The judge of the court that is designated as the juvenile court of the county shall be chairman of the board and its chief administrative officer.
Art. 5139LLL

Sec. 2. As compensation for the added duties imposed on members of each juvenile board, each member shall be allowed additional compensation of not less than $100 per month and not more than $400 per month, to be fixed by the commissioners court of the county and paid out of the general fund of the county. Such compensation shall be in addition to all other compensation now provided or allowed by law for county judges and district judges.

Sec. 3. Each juvenile board established by this Act shall have all the powers conferred on juvenile boards created under Article 5139 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and any amendments thereto. The board may appoint a juvenile officer, with the concurrence of the commissioners court, whose salary shall be fixed by the commissioners court of the county. The juvenile officer shall have the powers and duties prescribed by Article 5142 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and any amendments thereto. All claims for expenses of the juvenile officer shall be certified by the chairman of the juvenile board as being necessary in the performance of the duties of the juvenile officer. The commissioners court shall provide the necessary funds for payment of the salary and expenses of the juvenile officer.

Art. 5139NNN. Somervell County Juvenile Board

Sec. 1. There is established a juvenile board for Somervell County to be known as the Rockwall County Juvenile Board. It is composed of the judges of the district courts having jurisdiction in Rockwall County and the county judge of Rockwall County. The judge of the court which is designated as the juvenile court of Rockwall County shall be chairman of the board and its chief administrative officer.

Sec. 2. As compensation for the additional duties imposed upon them, the county and district judge or judges who are members of the board may, if approved by the commissioners court of the county, be compensated by an annual salary to be set by the commissioners court, payable in 12 equal monthly installments out of the general fund or any other available fund of Somervell County. Such compensation shall be in addition to all other compensation now provided or allowed by law for county and district judges.

Sec. 3. This Act shall be cumulative of existing laws relating to compensation of judges of the district courts and county judges.

Sec. 4. The Juvenile Board of Somervell County shall appoint a juvenile officer for Somervell County, who shall meet all the qualifications and perform all the duties of a juvenile officer as prescribed by the laws of this state. The juvenile officer shall be paid a salary to be fixed by the commissioners court and to be paid out of the general fund or any other available fund of Somervell County. The juvenile board by majority vote shall have the power to hire and discharge any appointee and such action need not be approved by the commissioners court.

Art. 5139OOO. Juvenile Boards in Carson, Childress, Collingsworth, Donley, and Hall Counties

Sec. 1. There is hereby established a county juvenile board in Carson County, Childress County, Collingsworth County, Donley County, and Hall County, which shall be composed of the county judge and the judge of the judicial district which includes the county. The official title of the board shall be the name of the county followed by the words, "County Juvenile Board." The judge of the court which is designated as the juvenile court of the county shall be chairman of the board and its chief administrative officer.

Sec. 2. As compensation for the duties imposed on members of each juvenile board, each member shall be paid compensation of not less than $50 per month and not more than $150 per month to be fixed by the commissioners court of the county and paid out of the general fund of the county. Such com-
Sec. 3. Each juvenile board established by this Act shall have all the powers conferred on juvenile boards created under Article 5139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and any amendments thereto. Each board may, with the concurrence of the commissioners court, appoint a juvenile officer whose salary shall be fixed by the commissioners court. The juvenile officer shall have the powers and duties prescribed by Article 5142, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and any amendments thereto. All claims for expenses of the juvenile officer in each county shall be certified by the chairman of the juvenile board as being necessary in the performance of the duties of that juvenile officer. Providing funding for the payment of the salary and expenses of the juvenile officer shall be within the discretion of the commissioners court of each county.

Art. 5139PPP. Galveston County Juvenile Board

Juvenile Board

Sec. 1. There is a juvenile board to be known as the Galveston County Juvenile Board, which is composed of the county judge, the judge of each statutory county court in Galveston County, and the judge of each district court in Galveston County. The juvenile board shall elect its chairman and other officers annually.

Duties

Art. 5142a–2. Wichita County Family Court Services Department

Sec. 1. There is hereby established the Wichita County Family Court Services Department.

Sec. 2. The Wichita County Juvenile Board, as heretofore established and composed of the County Judge of Wichita County and the Judge of each Judicial District which includes Wichita County, shall have all powers conferred upon the Juvenile Board created under Article 5139 of Revised Civil Statutes of 1925 and any amendments thereto. The Wichita County Juvenile Board shall have authority to appoint an Administrator and such assistants as may be necessary, and to determine the duties to be assigned such Administrator and his assistants, and the rate of pay which shall be paid all the personnel comprising the Wichita County Family Court Services.

Sec. 3. The Wichita County Family Court Services Administrator shall have the powers and duties prescribed by Article 5142 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925 and any amendments thereto. The Administrator shall appoint assistants subject to confirmation by the Juvenile Board. The number of assistants shall be determined by the Juvenile Board. The term of office of the Administrator and assistants shall be for a period of two (2) years; provided, however, that the Juvenile Board may at any time, for good cause, suspend or remove an Administrator or an assistant.

Sec. 4. All claims for expenses of the Administrator, the assistants, and administrative expenses for operation of the Family Court Services Department, including all necessary equipment and supplies, shall, before payment thereof, be approved by the Juvenile Board.

Sec. 5. Subject to the advice and consent of the Commissioners Court of Wichita County, the Wichita County Juvenile Board shall determine the funds needed for the operation of the department including payment of salaries and expenses of the Administrator and assistants. Any such funds appropriated shall be in addition to funds received by the Family Court Services Department from any other source.

Sec. 6. The Wichita County Juvenile Board shall have authority to require and approve a good and sufficient surety or personal bond for the faithful performance of duty of any assistant or employee of any institution, under the jurisdiction of the Juvenile Board, in such sum as may be determined by said Board, and paid as an expense of the Family Court Services Department.

Sec. 7. All homes, schools, farms and any and all other institutions or places of housing maintained and used chiefly by the county for the training, education, detention and support or correction of juveniles shall be under the control and supervision of the Juvenile Board, and the superintendent of each such institution shall be appointed by the Wichita County Family Court Services Department Administrator and each such appointment shall be confirmed by the Juvenile Board. The salaries of such superintendents and assistants shall be fixed by the Wichita County Juvenile Board and such superintendent or assistant may at any time, for good cause, be suspended or removed by the appointing authority.

Sec. 8. When, in the opinion of the Wichita County Juvenile Board, the best welfare of any child or children coming within the provisions of Title 21 or Title 3 of the Family Code and any amendments thereto will be served by placement of said child or children in a foster home, said Juvenile Board may authorize the use of such foster home or homes for the temporary care of said child or children. The rate of pay for such foster care shall be determined by said Juvenile Board and payment of the cost of such foster care shall, when authorized by said Juvenile Board, be considered to be a necessary operating expense of the Wichita County Family Court Services Department.

Sec. 9. The Wichita County Juvenile Board shall have power and authority to accept and hold in trust for the operation of the Wichita County Family Court Services Department or any duties or functions of the Wichita County Family Court Services Department, any grant or devise of land or any gift or bequest, or any donation to be applied for the benefit of the Family Court Services Department and to apply same in accordance with the terms of such gift.

Sec. 10. (a) Each month for which a person has been ordered by a District Court of Wichita County to pay child support, alimony, or separate maintenance into the Wichita County Family Court Services Department, the payor of such child support, alimony, or separate maintenance shall also be responsible for payment of a child support service fee in the sum of $1.00 per month, payable annually in advance. However, in those instances where the payor is a member of the Armed Services and wherein the monthly child support, alimony, or separate maintenance payments exceed that amount ordered by the court, the recipient (payee) of such child support, alimony, or separate maintenance shall be the person responsible for paying such annual child support service fee into the Family Court Services Department.

(b) The first such child support service fee shall be due on the date such payor of child support, alimony, or separate maintenance has been ordered by the District Court to commence payments of child support, alimony, or separate maintenance and thereafter for all such persons ordered to pay child support, alimony, or separate maintenance on each succeeding annual anniversary of the original court order for payment. In those instances where the payee is charged with the responsibility of making such service fee payments, the first such payment shall become due on the date of receipt of the initial child support payment and annually thereafter on the anniversary of the date of the receipt of the first child support allotment check so long as the payor is a member of the Armed Services and so long as child support allotment payments exceed the amount of child support ordered by the court.
(c) Such child support service fees shall be for the purpose of meeting certain expenses of the child support office, including postage, equipment, stationery, office supplies, subpoenas, salaries and other expenses of the Family Court Services Department authorized by the Wichita County Juvenile Board.

(d) A record shall be kept of all child support service fees collected, and expended, and such monies shall be deposited in the child support fund and shall be administered by the Juvenile Board of Wichita County.

(e) Failure or refusal of a person to pay such child support service fee on time and in the amount ordered by the court shall make such person susceptible to an action for contempt of court.

(f) This fund shall be subject to regular audit by the county auditor or other duly authorized persons. Annual report of receipts and expenditures in this account shall be made to the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 10a. (a) For purposes of providing legal services, court costs and expenses of service in the handling of child support, separate maintenance, and temporary alimony, there shall be assessed the sum of Ten Dollars ($10) in all matters involving contempt of court for failure and refusal to pay such child support, separate maintenance, or temporary alimony, and in matters involving contempt of court for failure or refusal to abide by orders of the court with respect to child visitation privileges in all such contempt action initiated through the Wichita County Family Court Services Department.

(b) Such fee of Ten Dollars ($10) shall be paid into the Wichita County Family Court Services Department by the person initiating such contempt proceedings but this sum, in addition to any other expenses incurred by the complainant in the prosecution of the contempt action may, in the judgment of the court, be assessed against the contemner for reimbursement to the complainant.

(c) In any such actions filed with the Wichita County Family Court Services Department for alleged contempt of court, the $10 assessment shall be used, as needed, for the payment of services rendered by the office of the District Clerk and/or any peace officer. Provided, however, that the complainant may be required to deposit an additional sum when the cost of service in such action for contempt is expected to exceed the $10 assessment. In such instance, however, any unused funds over and above the $10 assessment shall be refunded to the depositor by the Family Court Services Department.

(d) Receipts of all disbursements of moneys paid into the Family Court Services Department for matters involving actions of contempt shall be kept on file and all such funds received by the Family Court Services Department shall be deposited to the Child Support Account. This fund shall be administered by the Wichita County Juvenile Board and shall be subject to regular audit by the county auditor or other duly authorized person. Annual report of receipts and expenditures in this account shall be made to the Commissioners Court.

(e) The fee prescribed by this Section shall not be collected from any person who has applied for or receives public assistance under the law of this State.

Sec. 11. For the purpose of maintaining adoption investigation services, there shall be taxed, collected and paid as other costs the sum of Ten Dollars ($10) in each adoption case hereafter filed in any District Court in Wichita County. Such cost shall be collected by the District Clerk, and when collected, shall be paid by said District Clerk to the Wichita County Family Court Services Department to be kept by that Department in a separate fund and such fund to be known as the “Adoption Investigation Fund.” This Fund shall be administered by the Juvenile Board of Wichita County for the purpose of assisting in paying the cost of maintaining adoption investigation services in the Family Court Services Department of Wichita County, including salaries and other expenses of the Adoption Investigator and his assistants, the purchase of supplies and equipment, and all other necessary expenses of the Investigator. This Fund shall be supplemented out of the General Fund or other available funds of the County where necessary.

Sec. 12. In all suits for divorce filed in any District Court in Wichita County, where it appears from the petition or otherwise that the parties to such suit have a child or children under eighteen (18) years of age, it shall be the duty of the Administrator, upon order of the Court, to make a complete and thorough examination into the merits of the claim of the parties for custody of the children involved and to report his findings to the Court in connection therewith, and to make a thorough and complete investigation as to the necessities of the child or children, and to make a report thereof to the Court prior to the trial of said case, and if desired by the Court, to produce such evidence as may have been developed in connection with such matters.

Sec. 13. It shall be the duty of the Administrator to keep a record which will at all times show the names of all dependent, neglected or delinquent juveniles within Wichita County, and the names and addresses of the persons having custody of such juveniles; and visitations by such officer and his assistants shall be made at such reasonable times as seem necessary or proper or as may be directed by the Juvenile Board, and a written report shall be made to the Judge of the Juvenile Court showing such facts relating to the environment, treatment, education, welfare and other information which may assist the Court in determining the proper disposition to be made of any juvenile.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 573, ch. 222, § 1, eff. May 20, 1975.]

Art. 5142c-1. Juvenile Officers for Counties Within 23rd and 130th Judicial Districts

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 7]

Child Support Office

Sec. 7a. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the judges of the District Courts and Domestic Relations Courts in each of the counties of Brazoria, Fort Bend, Matagorda, and Wharton may create a child support office in the juvenile office of the county to receive payments for the support of children made under the order of a District Court or Domestic Relations Court. A child support office may serve more than one county. The child support office shall receive the payments and shall disburse the funds in the manner the court determines to be for the best interest of the parties involved in each case.

(b) The judges of the District Courts and Domestic Relations Courts may appoint an administrator and such assistants as in their judgment may be necessary for a term of two years. The judges of the District Courts and Domestic Relations Courts shall determine the duties to be assigned the administrator and his assistants and the salaries of the personnel of the child support office to be paid in equal monthly installments out of the general fund of the county, the child support fund, or other available fund. All claims for expenses of the administrator and his assistants and administrative expenses for operation of the child support office, including all necessary equipment and supplies, shall, before payment, be approved by the judges.

(c) If a child support office serves more than one county, the judges of the District Courts and the Domestic Relations Courts in those counties shall determine the location of the child support office. The powers and duties of the county officials and employees prescribed in this section shall be performed by the officials and employees of the county in which the child support office is located. The counties served by the child support office shall pay the salaries of the personnel, premiums for a bond, and other expenses in accordance with the proportion that the population of each county bears to the total population of all counties served by that office.

(d) Each administrator of a child support office shall make a surety bond in a solvent surety company authorized to make such bonds in Texas, conditioned on the faithful performance of the duties of his position and further conditioned on his properly accounting for the money entrusted to him. The bond shall be in an amount to be fixed by the County Auditor and subject to approval of the County Auditor. The county shall pay the premiums for the bond out of the general fund, the child support fund, or other available fund.

(e) Each child support office shall keep an accurate and complete record of its receipts and disbursements of support payment funds. The record is open to inspection by the public. It is the duty of the County Auditor or other duly authorized person in each county with a child support office to inspect and examine the records and audit the accounts quarterly and to report his findings and recommendations to the judges.

(f) A service fee for receiving and disbursing payments, not to exceed $1 per month, shall be assessed each payor or payee of child support who is ordered by a court to pay support to a child support office. However, if the payor is a member of the armed services and the monthly payments for child support exceed the amount ordered by the court, the recipient (payee) of the support payments shall be the person responsible for paying the service fee into the child support office. The service fee applies to all support payments ordered paid to a child support office after the effective date of this amendment and to all other such payments, even though ordered prior to the effective date of this amendment, when the person ordered to make such payments has defaulted and has been cited for contempt of court. The service fee shall be collected by the child support office from the payor annually in advance and shall be paid to the county treasurer on the last day of each calendar month, to be kept in a separate account to be known as the "Child Support Fund." This fund shall be administered by the judges of the District Courts and Domestic Relations Courts, subject to the approval of the Commissioners Court, for the purpose of assisting in the payment of the salaries and operating expenses of the child support office. The first service fee shall be due on the date the payor of support payments has been ordered by the court to commence payments for child support and thereafter on each succeeding annual anniversary of the original court order for payment. In those instances where the payee is charged with the responsibility of making the service fee payments, the first payment shall be due on the date of receipt of the initial support payment and annually thereafter on the anniversary of the date of the receipt of the first support allotment check so long as the payor is a member of the armed services and so long as support allotment payments exceed the amount of support ordered by the court. Failure or refusal of a person to pay the service fee on time and in the amount ordered by the court shall make that person susceptible to an action of contempt of court. A record shall be kept of all service fees collected and expended. The Child Support Fund is subject to regular audit by the County Auditor or other duly authorized person. Annual reports of receipts and expenditures in this account shall be made to the Commissioners Court.

CHAPTER FOUR. CONTRACTORS' PERFORMANCE AND PAYMENT BONDS

Art. 5160. Bond for Labor and Material; Performance Bond

Contractors' Bonds for Performance and Payment for Labor and Material

A. Any person or persons, firm, or corporation, hereinafter referred to as "prime contractor," entering into a formal contract in excess of $25,000 with this State, any department, board or agency thereof; or any county of this State, department, board or agency thereof; or any municipality of this State, department, board or agency thereof; or any school district in this State, common or independent, or subdivision thereof; or any other governmental or quasi-governmental authority, whether specifically named herein or not, authorized under any law of this State, general or local, to enter into contractual agreements for the construction, alteration or repair of any public building or the prosecution or completion of any public work, shall be required before commencing such work to execute to the aforesaid governmental authority or authorities, as the case may be, the statutory bonds as hereinafter prescribed, but no governmental authority may require a bond if the contract does not exceed the sum of $25,000. Each such bond shall be executed by a corporate surety or corporate sureties duly authorized to do business in this State. In the case of contracts of the State or a department, board, or agency thereof, the aforesaid bonds shall be payable to the State and shall be approved by the Attorney General as to form. In case of all other contracts subject to this Act, the bonds shall be payable to the governmental awarding authority concerned, and shall be approved by it as to form. Any bond furnished by any prime contractor in an attempted compliance with this Act shall be treated and construed as in conformity with the requirements of this Act as to rights created, limitations thereon, and remedies provided.

(a) A Performance Bond in the amount of the contract conditioned upon the faithful performance of the work in accordance with the plans, specifications, and contract documents. Said bond shall be solely for the protection of the State or the governmental authority awarding the contract, as the case may be.

(b) A Payment Bond, in the amount of the contract, solely for the protection of all claimants supplying labor and material as hereinafter defined, in the prosecution of the work provided for in said contract, for the use of each such claimant.

CHAPTER FIVE. HOURS OF LABOR

Art. 5165a. Weekly Working Hours of State Office Employees

Sec. 1. All state employees who are employed in the offices of state departments or institutions or agencies, and who are paid on a fulltime salary basis, shall work forty (40) hours a week. Provided, however, that the administrative heads of agencies whose functions are such that certain services must be maintained on a twenty-four (24) hours per day basis are authorized to require that essential employees engaged in performing such services be on duty for a longer work-week in necessary or emergency situations. Provided further that the provisions of this Act do not apply to houseparents who are employed by and who live at the facilities of the Texas Youth Council.
Art. 5167a. Hours of Peace Officers and Compensation for Extra Hours in Counties over 500,000

Except in cases of emergency, as determined by the sheriff or constable of such county, it shall be unlawful for any county having more than five hundred thousand (500,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census to require any Peace Officer to work more hours during any calendar week than the number of hours in the normal work week of the majority of the employees of said county other than Peace Officers. If a Peace Officer elects to work extra hours during any calendar week, the county shall compensate the officer for the overtime work on a basis consistent with the overtime provisions of the county personnel policy.

Art. 5190.3. Small Business Assistance Act of 1975

Title of Act
Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Small Business Assistance Act of 1975.

Legislative Intent
Sec. 2. The legislature finds that an indispensable element of the American economic system is free and vigorous competition and that the preservation and expansion of economic competition is essential to the economic well-being of this state and of the United States. The legislature further finds that the continuing vitality of small business entities is of utmost importance to economic competition and that it is the policy of this state to insure economic competition by assisting small business entities to the greatest extent possible. It is the intent of the legislature, by this Act, to provide that assistance to small business entities and, by doing so, to promote economic competition to the benefit of all persons in this state. It is the intent of the legislature that each state agency shall attempt to award ten percent of all purchases of articles, supplies, commodities, materials, services, or contracts for services to small business.

Definitions
Sec. 3. In this Act:
(1) "Small business" means a corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship, or other legal entity formed for the purpose of making a profit, which is independently owned and operated, has either fewer than 100 employees or, less than $1,000,000 in annual gross receipts, and is designated a small business as provided by this Act.
(2) "Council" means the Advisory Council on Small Business Assistance.
(3) "State agency" means all agencies, departments, councils, commissions, or boards of the State of Texas.

Advisory Council on Small Business Assistance
Sec. 4. (a) The Advisory Council on Small Business Assistance is created.
(b) The council consists of the executive director of the industrial commission as chairman ex officio, and nine members, appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate, at least six of whom are owners or employees of small businesses.
(c) Service as chairman ex officio of the council is an additional duty of the office of the executive director of the industrial commission.

Appointment and Terms
Sec. 5. (a) Except as provided by Subsection (b) of this section, appointive members of the council are appointed for terms of six years that terminate on January 1 of odd-numbered years.
(b) For terms beginning on the effective date of this Act the governor shall appoint:
(1) three members for terms that expire January 31, 1981;
(2) three members for terms that expire January 31, 1979; and
(3) three members for terms that expire January 31, 1977.

Meetings; Quorum
Sec. 6. (a) The council shall meet at least once each quarter at the call of the chairman.
(b) Five members constitute a quorum.
Expenses

Sec. 7. Members of the council receive no salary for service on the council, but each is entitled to reimbursement for his expenses incurred in attending a meeting of the council.

Assistance to Industrial Commission

Sec. 8. The council shall provide assistance, guidance, and expertise to the industrial commission in the administration of this Act.

Administration by Industrial Commission

Sec. 9. (a) The industrial commission has the primary responsibility for the administration of the provisions of this Act. In order to meet this responsibility the industrial commission may:

(1) provide technical and managerial assistance to small businesses by offering advice and counsel with particular emphasis on how to bid on state supply requirements to which end the board of control may also help;

(2) provide technical and managerial assistance to small businesses by offering advice and counsel on sound management procedures;

(3) cooperate with business, professional, educational, and other organizations and with agencies of this state, and make available to any of these information concerning the management, financing, and operation of small businesses; and

(4) promulgate rules necessary for the proper administration of this Act.

(b) The industrial commission and the board of control may conduct research necessary to:

(1) ascertain which business associations qualify as small businesses under the terms of this Act, designate each as a small business, maintain a master list of small businesses, and revoke the designation when an entity ceases to be a small business;

(2) determine the methods and practices of prime contractors and encourage the letting of subcontracts to small businesses; and

(3) ascertain the means by which the productive capacity of small businesses can be used most effectively.

Assistance by State Agencies

Sec. 10. (a) The industrial commission shall obtain from the agencies of this state appropriate information needed by the industrial commission to carry out its responsibilities under this Act.

(b) The agencies of this State, including, but not limited to, the State Highway Department, Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, Texas Youth Council, Texas Department of Corrections, State Building Commission, and State Board of Control, are charged by this Act with the responsibility to assist the industrial commission in furthering the purposes of this Act; and shall take positive steps to include small businesses on master bid lists, shall take positive steps to inform small businesses of state procurement opportunities, waive bond requirements where feasible, inform small business entrepreneurs as to applicable rules and procedures relating to bidding and the procurement of contracts, and continually monitor the effectiveness of this Act in improving the ability of designated small businesses to do business with the State.

(c) Each state agency shall prepare a written report of its performance each year and shall submit it to the Texas Industrial Commission who will consolidate the reports and, on or before December 1 of each year, shall deliver a copy of the consolidated report to the governor, the lieutenant governor, and the speaker of the house of representatives.

Procurement and Assistance Goals by State Agencies

Sec. 11. Each state agency shall establish annually small business procurement and assistance goals for which positive action will be taken by the state agency.

Inapplicability of Act

Sec. 12. This Act does not apply to purchases made pursuant to Article XVI, Section 21, of the Texas Constitution.

Effective Date

Sec. 13. This Act takes effect September 1, 1975.
advice and consent of two-thirds of the membership of the senate, on the following basis:

(1) one member representing the Central Education Agency;
(2) one member representing all other state agencies of the executive branch except the Central Education Agency;
(3) one member representing the Office of the Governor;
(4) one member representing trade and labor organizations;
(5) one member representing universities and colleges;
(6) one member representing private small businesses and industries with less than 100 employees and less than $1,000,000 annual gross sales;
(7) one member representing private businesses and industries which do not fit into category six;
(8) one member representing consumer interests;
(9) four members to be appointed at large at the discretion of the governor.

(b) Each member is appointed to serve a term of two years.

(c) If a vacancy occurs on the advisory council, the governor shall appoint a member to serve the unexpired term.

Executive Director; Staff
Sec. 6. The advisory council may employ an executive director to supervise the administration of this Act. The executive director may employ additional persons if necessary.

Duties of Advisory Council
Sec. 7. The advisory council shall:

(1) conduct appropriate research to determine the statutory changes that will be required for transition to the metric system;
(2) conduct appropriate research and investigation to determine the problems faced by business, industry, science, engineering, education, labor, consumers, and government agencies at the state and local levels in making a transition to the metric system;
(3) disseminate information to business, industry, science, engineering, labor, education, consumers, and government agencies at the state and local level that pertains to the transition to the metric system;
(4) recommend to the Industrial Commission and the legislature ways to help affected groups or individuals who face problems in making a transition to the metric system;
(5) cooperate with the United States Metric Board where appropriate;
(6) report to the legislature and the governor on the work of the advisory council in January of odd-numbered years; and
(7) perform such other activities as may be deemed necessary to carry out the intent of this Act.

Acceptance of Grants
Sec. 8. The advisory council may accept, on behalf of the state, a gift, grant, or donation from any source, or funds from an agency of the United States, to be used by the advisory council in the performance of its duties.

Expiration and Abolishment
Sec. 9. This Act expires and the Metric System Advisory Council is abolished on August 31, 1983. [Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1380, ch. 552, §§ 1 to 9, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]
Art. 5190.5. Loans for Manufacture of Fuel from Agricultural Products

Definition

Sec. 1. In this Act, “agricultural product” includes a processed or refined agricultural product, such as molasses or sugar, as well as an agricultural product in its natural state.

Loans for Fuel Development

Sec. 2. (a) The Texas Industrial Commission may make loans from the industrial development fund to individuals or other legal entities for the establishment of plants in this state to manufacture alcohol or other fuels from agricultural products as authorized by law. The commission may contract to loan to one or more legal entities an amount not exceeding $500,000 may be made to a small business corporation as defined by the Internal Revenue Code, Chapter 1, Subchapter S.

(b) A recipient of a loan may use the proceeds of the loan only for the following purposes related to the establishment of a plant of the type described in Subsection (a) of this section:

(1) the purchase of land; and
(2) the acquisition of buildings, machinery, and fixtures.

(c) The Industrial Commission may include in the loan agreement any conditions not inconsistent with this Act that the commission considers proper. The commission shall require that the loan be wholly secured by a first lien on real property. Each loan must be payable to the state.

(d) All loans must be repayable not later than 10 years from the date of the loan. The Industrial Commission may require that a loan agreement provide for a shorter repayment period.

(e) Interest shall be charged on a loan made under this Act at a rate determined by the Industrial Commission.

Maximum Amount of Loans

Sec. 3. (a) The Industrial Commission may not make a loan that will cause the total unpaid principal balance of all loans made under this Act then outstanding to exceed $15 million.

(b) In applying the limit prescribed by Subsection (a) of this section, the unpaid principal balance of a loan is not counted if the loan:

(1) is in default; and
(2) the state has obtained a final judgment against the borrower or the borrower’s heirs or assigns for the amount owed.

Loan Repayments

Sec. 4. The Industrial Commission shall deposit all repayments on loans made under this Act in the state treasury to the credit of the industrial development fund.

Rules

Sec. 5. The Industrial Commission may adopt rules to implement this Act.
[Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1073, ch. 503, §§ 1 to 5, eff. June 7, 1979.]

Art. 5190.6. Development Corporation Act of 1979

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the “Development Corporation Act of 1979.”

Definitions

Sec. 2. Wherever used in this Act unless a different meaning clearly appears in the context, the following terms, whether singular or plural, shall mean as follows:

(1) “Board of directors” shall mean the board of directors of any corporation organized pursuant to the provisions of this Act.
(2) “Commission” shall mean the Texas Industrial Commission.
(3) “Corporation” shall mean any industrial development corporation or medical development corporation organized pursuant to the provisions of this Act.
(4) “Cost” as applied to a project or medical research project shall mean and embrace the cost of acquisition, construction, reconstruction, improvement, and expansion, including the cost of the acquisition of all land, rights-of-way, property rights, easements, and interests, the cost of all machinery and equipment, financing charges, interest prior to and during construction and for one year after completion of construction whether or not capitalized, necessary reserve funds, cost of estimates and of engineering and legal services, plans, specifications, surveys, estimates of cost and of revenue, other expenses necessary or incident to determining the feasibility and practicability of acquiring, constructing, reconstructing, improving, and expanding any such project or medical research project, administrative expense and such other expense as may be necessary or incident to the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, improvement, and expansion thereof, the placing of the same in operation, and the financing or refinancing of any such project or medical research project, including the refunding of any outstanding obligations, mortgages, or advances issued, made or given by any person for any of the foregoing costs.

(5) "City" shall mean any municipality of the state incorporated under the provisions of (i) any general or special law or (ii) the home-rule amendment to the constitution.

(6) "County" shall mean a political subdivision of the state created and established under Article IX, Section 1, of the Texas Constitution.

(7) "District" shall mean a conservation and reclamation district established under authority of Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution.

(8) "Governing body" shall mean the board, council, commission, commissioners court, or legislative body of the unit.

(9) "Industrial development corporation" shall mean a corporation created and existing under the provisions of this Act as a constituted authority for the purpose of financing one or more projects.

(10) "Medical development corporation" shall mean a corporation created and existing under the provisions of this Act as a constituted authority for the purpose of financing one or more medical research projects.

(11) "Medical research project" shall mean the land, buildings, equipment, facilities, and improvements (one or more) found by the board of directors to be required for medical research, irrespective of whether in existence or required to be acquired or constructed after the making of such finding by the board of directors.

(12) "Project" shall mean the land, buildings, equipment, facilities, and improvements (one or more) found by the board of directors to be required or suitable for the promotion of commercial or industrial development and expansion, the promotion of employment, or for use by commercial, manufacturing, or industrial enterprises, irrespective of whether in existence or required to be acquired or constructed after the making of such findings by the board of directors.

(13) "Resolution" shall mean the resolution, order, ordinance, or other official action by the governing body of a unit.

(14) "Unit" shall mean a city, county, or district which may create and utilize a corporation.

Findings and Construction
Sec. 3. It is hereby found, determined, and declared:

(1) that the present and prospective health, safety, right to gainful employment, and general welfare of the people of this state require as a public purpose the promotion and development of new and expanded commercial, industrial, manufacturing, medical, and research enterprises;

(2) that the existence, development, and expansion of commerce and industry are essential to the economic growth of the state and to the full employment, welfare, and prosperity of its citizens;

(3) that the means and measures authorized by this Act and the assistance provided in this Act, especially with respect to financing, are in the public interest and serve a public purpose of the state in promoting the health, welfare, and safety of the citizens of the state, not only physically by encouraging medical research but also economically by the securing and retaining of private industrial, commercial, manufacturing, and other enterprises and the resulting maintenance of a higher level of employment, economic activity and stability;

(4) that community industrial development corporations in Texas have themselves invested substantial funds in successful industrial development projects and have experienced difficulty in undertaking such additional projects by reason of the partial inadequacy of their own funds or funds potentially available from local subscription sources and by reason of limitations of local financial institutions in providing additional and sufficiently sizable first mortgage loans; and

(5) that communities in this state are at a critical disadvantage in competing with communities in other states for the location or expansion of such enterprises by virtue of the availability and prevalent use in all other states of financing and other special incentives; therefore, the issuance of revenue bonds by corporations on behalf of political subdivisions of the state as hereinafter provided for the promotion and development of new and expanded commercial, industrial, manufacturing, medical, and research enterprises to provide and encourage employment, public health, and the public welfare is hereby declared to be in the public interest and a public purpose.

This Act shall be liberally construed in conformity with the intention of the legislature herein expressed.

Creation of Corporation
Sec. 4. Any number of natural persons, not less than three, each of whom is at least 18 years of age and a qualified elector of the unit may file with the governing body of a unit a written application requesting that the unit authorize and approve creation of a corporation to act on behalf of the unit. If the governing body by appropriate resolution finds and determines that it is advisable that the corporation be authorized and created and approves the articles of incorporation proposed to be used in organizing the corporation, then the articles of incorporation for the corporation may be filed as hereinafter provided. A unit may authorize and approve creation of one or more corporations, provided that the resolution approving the creation of each corporation shall specify the public purpose or purposes of the unit which the corporation may further on behalf of the unit, which purpose or purposes shall be limited to the promotion and development of commercial, industrial, manufacturing, and medical research enterprises to promote and encourage employment, public health, and the public welfare. No corporation may be formed unless the unit has properly adopted a resolution as herein described.

Form of Corporation

Sec. 5. The corporation shall be a nonmember, nonstock corporation.

Articles of Incorporation

Sec. 6. The articles of incorporation shall set forth:

1. the name of the corporation;
2. a statement that the corporation is a non-profit corporation;
3. the period of duration which may be perpetual;
4. the specific purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized and may issue bonds on behalf of the unit;
5. that the corporation has no members and is a nonstock corporation;
6. any provision not inconsistent with law, including any provision which under this Act is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws, for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation;
7. the street address of its initial registered office and the name of its initial registered agent at such street address;
8. the number of directors constituting the initial board of directors and the names and addresses of the persons who are to serve as the initial directors;
9. the name and street address of each incorporator; and
10. a recital that the unit has specifically authorized the corporation by resolution to act on its behalf to further the public purpose or purposes stated in the resolution and in the articles of incorporation and has approved the articles of incorporation.

Certificate of Incorporation

Sec. 7. (a) Triplicate originals of the articles of incorporation shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of incorporation conform to the requirements of this Act, he shall, when a fee of $25 has been paid:

1. endorse on each original the word "Filed" and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof;
2. file one of such originals in his office; and
3. issue two certificates of incorporation to each of which he shall affix one of such originals.

(b) A certificate of incorporation together with an original of the articles of incorporation affixed thereto by the secretary of state shall be delivered to the incorporators or their representatives and to the governing body of the unit under whose auspices the corporation was created.

(c) Upon the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, the corporate existence shall begin, and such certificate of incorporation shall be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent required to be performed by the incorporators and by the unit have been complied with and that the corporation has been incorporated under this Act.

Registered Office and Agent

Sec. 8. Each corporation shall have and continuously maintain in this state:

1. a registered office which may be, but need not be, the same as its principal office; and
2. a registered agent, which agent may be an individual resident in this state whose business address is identical with such registered office, or a domestic corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, or a foreign corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, authorized to transact business or to conduct its affairs in this state which has a principal or business office identical with such registered office.

Change of Registered Office or Agent

Sec. 9. (a) A corporation may change its registered office or change its registered agent or both upon filing in the office of the secretary of state a statement setting forth:

1. the name of the corporation;
2. the post-office address of its then registered office;
3. if the post-office address of its registered office is to be changed, the post-office address to which the registered office is to be changed;
4. the name of its then registered agent;
5. if its registered agent is to be changed, the name of its successor registered agent;
6. that the post-office address of its registered office and the post-office address of the business office of its registered agent as changed will be identical; and
7. that such change was authorized by its board of directors or by an officer of the corporation so authorized by the board of directors.

2 West's Tex. Stats. & Codes '79 Supp. — 185
Art. 5190.6

(b) Duplicate originals of such statement shall be executed by the corporation by its president or vice-president and verified by him and delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that such statement conforms to the requirements of this Act, he shall, when a fee of $25 has been paid:

(1) endorse on each of such originals the word "Filed" and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof;
(2) file one of such originals in his office; and
(3) return the other original to the corporation or its representative.

(c) Upon such filing, the change of address of the registered office or the appointment of a new registered agent or both, as the case may be, shall become effective.

(d) Any registered agent of a corporation may resign:

(1) by giving written notice to the corporation at its last known address; and
(2) by giving written notice in triplicate to the secretary of state within 10 days after mailing or delivery of said notice to the corporation.

Such notice shall include the last known address of the corporation and shall include the statement that written notice of resignation has been given to the corporation and the date thereof. Upon compliance with the requirements as to written notice, the appointment of such agent shall terminate upon the expiration of 30 days after receipt of such notice by the secretary of state.

(e) If the secretary of state finds that such written notice conforms to the provisions of this Act, he shall:

(1) endorse on each of such originals the word "Filed" and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof;
(2) file one of such originals in his office;
(3) return one original to such resigning registered agent; and
(4) return one original to the corporation at the last known address of the corporation as shown in such written notice.

Service of Process on President or Vice-President; Service on Secretary of State

Sec. 10. (a) The president and all vice-presidents of the corporation and the registered agent of the corporation shall be agents of such corporation upon whom any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation may be served.

(b) Whenever a corporation shall fail to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this state or whenever its registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the registered office, then the secretary of state shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any such process, notice, or demand may be served. Service on the secretary of state of any process, notice, or demand shall be made by delivering to and leaving with him or with the assistant secretary of state or with any clerk having charge of the corporation department of his office duplicate copies of such process, notice, or demand. In the event any such process, notice, or demand is served on the secretary of state, he shall immediately cause one of the copies thereof to be forwarded by registered mail, addressed to the corporation at its registered office. Any service so had on the secretary of state shall be returnable in not less than 30 days.

(c) The secretary of state shall keep a record of all processes, notices, and demands served upon him under this article and shall record therein the time of such service and his action with reference thereto.

Board of Directors

Sec. 11. The corporation shall have a board of directors in which all powers of the corporation shall be vested and which shall consist of any number of directors, not less than three, each of whom shall be appointed by the governing body of the unit under whose auspices the corporation was created for a term of no more than six years, and each of whom shall be removable by the unit for cause or at will. The directors shall serve as such without compensation except that they shall be reimbursed for their actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties hereunder.

Organizational Meeting of Board

Sec. 12. After the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, an organizational meeting of the board of directors named in the articles of incorporation shall be held within this state for the purpose of adopting bylaws, electing officers, and for such other purposes as may come before the meeting. The incorporators calling the meeting shall give at least three days' notice thereof by mail to each director named in the articles of incorporation, which notice shall state the time and place of the meeting.

Adoption and Approval of Initial Bylaws

Sec. 13. The initial bylaws of a corporation shall be adopted by its board of directors and approved by resolution of the governing body of the unit under whose auspices the corporation was created.

Quorum; Actions of Majority at Meeting; Action Without Meeting

Sec. 14. (a) A quorum for the transaction of business by the board of directors shall be whichever is less:

(1) a majority of the number of directors fixed by the bylaws or in the absence of a bylaw fixing the number of directors a majority of the number of directors stated in the articles of incorporation; or

(2) any number, not less than three, fixed as a quorum by the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

(b) The act of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board of directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

(c) Any action required by this Act to be taken at a meeting of the directors of a corporation or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the directors may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action to be taken, shall be signed by all of the directors. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote and may be stated as such in any articles or document filed with the secretary of state under this Act.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers; Notice of Meetings; Waiver of Notice

Sec. 15. (a) The corporation shall have the power to indemnify any director or officer or former director or officer of the corporation for expenses and costs (including attorneys' fees) actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with any claim asserted against him by action in court or otherwise by reason of his being or having been such director or officer, except in relation to matters as to which he shall have been guilty of negligence or misconduct in respect of the matter in which indemnity is sought.

(b) If the corporation has not fully indemnified him, the court in the proceeding in which any claim against such director or officer has been asserted or any court having the requisite jurisdiction of an action instituted by such director or officer on his claim for indemnity may assess indemnity against the corporation, its receiver, or trustee for the amount paid by such director or officer (including attorneys' fees) in satisfaction of any judgment or in compromise of any such claim (exclusive in either case of any amount paid to the corporation), actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection therewith to the extent that the court shall deem reasonable and equitable; provided, nevertheless, that indemnity may be assessed under this section only if the court finds that the person indemnified was not guilty of negligence or misconduct in respect of the matter in which indemnity is sought.

(c) Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held within the state with or without notice as prescribed in the bylaws. Special meetings of the board of directors shall be held upon such notice as is prescribed in the bylaws. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting, unless required by the bylaws.

(d) Whenever any notice is required to be given to any member or director of a corporation under the provisions of this Act or under the provisions of the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice.

Officers

Sec. 16. The officers of a corporation shall consist of a president, one or more vice-presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers and assistant officers as may be deemed necessary, each of whom shall be elected or appointed at such time and in such manner and for such terms not exceeding three years as may be prescribed in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. In the absence of any such provisions, all officers shall be elected or appointed annually by the board of directors.

Amendment of Articles

Sec. 17. (a) The articles of incorporation may at any time and from time to time be amended, provided that the board of directors files with the governing body of the unit under whose auspices the corporation was created a written application requesting that the unit approve such amendment to the articles of incorporation, specifying in such application the amendment or amendments proposed to be made. If the governing body by appropriate resolution finds and determines that it is advisable that the proposed amendment be made, authorizes the same to be made, and approves the form of the proposed amendment, the board of directors shall proceed to amend the articles as hereinafter provided.

(b) The articles of incorporation may also be amended at any time by the governing body of the unit under whose auspices the corporation was created at its sole discretion by adopting an amendment to the articles of incorporation of the corporation by resolution of such governing body and delivering the articles of amendment to the secretary of state as hereinafter provided.

Execution and Verification of Amendments

Sec. 18. The articles of amendment shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or by a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary or by the presiding officer and the secretary or clerk of the governing body of the unit under whose auspices the corporation was created, shall be verified by one of the officers signing such articles, and shall set forth:

(1) the name of the corporation;
(2) if the amendment alters any provision of the original or amended articles of incorporation, an identification by reference or description of the altered provision and a statement of its text as it is amended to read; if the amendment is an addition to the original or amended articles of incorporation, a statement of that fact and the full text of each provision added; and
(3) the fact that such amendment was adopted or approved by the governing body of the unit and the date of the meeting at which the amendment was adopted or approved by such governing body.

Certificate of Amendment; Effect of Amendment

Sec. 19. (a) Triplicate originals of the articles of amendment shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of amendment conform to the requirements of this Act, he shall, when a fee of $25 has been paid:

(1) endorse on each of such originals the word "Filed" and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof;
(2) file one of such originals in his office; and
(3) issue two certificates of amendment to each of which he shall affix an original.

(b) A certificate of amendment together with an original of the articles of amendment affixed thereto by the secretary of state shall be delivered to the corporation or its representative and to the governing body of the unit under whose auspices the corporation was created.

(c) Upon the issuance of the certificate of amendment by the secretary of state, the amendment shall become effective and the articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be amended accordingly.

(d) No amendment shall affect any existing cause of action in favor of or against such corporation or any pending suit to which such corporation shall be a party or the existing rights of persons other than members; and in the event the corporate name shall be changed by amendment, no suit brought by or against such corporation under its former name shall abate for that reason.

Sec. 20. (a) A corporation may, by following the procedure to amend the articles of incorporation provided by this Act including obtaining the approval of the governing body of the unit under whose auspices the corporation was created, authorize, execute, and file restated articles of incorporation which may restate either:

(1) the entire text of the articles of incorporation as amended or supplemented by all certificates of amendment previously issued by the secretary of state; or
(2) the entire text of the articles of incorporation as amended or supplemented by all certificates of amendment previously issued by the secretary of state and as further amended by such restated articles of incorporation.

(b) If the restated articles of incorporation restate the entire articles of incorporation as amended and supplemented by all certificates of amendment previously issued by the secretary of state without making any further amendment thereof, the introductory paragraph shall contain a statement that the instrument accurately copies the articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto that are in effect to date and that the instrument contains no change in the provisions thereof, provided that the number of directors then constituting the board of directors and the names and addresses of the persons then serving as directors may be inserted in lieu of similar information concerning the initial board of directors, and the name and address of each incorporator may be omitted.

(c) If the restated articles of incorporation restate the entire articles of incorporation as amended and supplemented by all certificates of amendment previously issued by the secretary of state and as further amended by such restated articles of incorporation, the instrument containing such articles shall:

(1) set forth for any amendment made by such restated articles of incorporation a statement that each such amendment has been effected in conformity with the provisions of this Act and shall further set forth the statements required by this Act to be contained in articles of amendment, provided that the full text of such amendments need not be set forth except in the restated articles of incorporation as so amended;
(2) contain a statement that the instrument accurately copies the articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto that are in effect to date and as further amended by such restated articles of incorporation and that the instrument contains no other change in any provision thereof; provided that the number of directors then constituting the board of directors and the names and addresses of the persons then serving as directors may be inserted in lieu of similar information concerning the initial board of directors, and the names and addresses of each incorporator may be omitted; and
(3) restate the text of the entire articles of incorporation as amended and supplemented by all certificates of amendment previously issued by the secretary of state and as further amended by the restated articles of incorporation.

(d) Such restated articles of incorporation shall be executed in triplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary and shall be verified by one of the officers signing such articles. Triplicate originals of the restated articles of incorporation shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the restated articles of incorporation conform to law, he shall, when a fee of $25 has been paid:

(1) endorse on each of such originals the word “Filed” and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof;
(2) file one of such originals in his office; and
(3) issue two restated certificates of incorporation to each of which he shall affix one of such originals.

(e) A restated certificate of incorporation together with a triplicate original of the restated articles of incorporation affixed thereto by the secretary of state shall be delivered to the corporation or its representative and to the governing body of the unit under whose auspices the corporation was created.

(f) Upon the issuance of the restated certificate of incorporation by the secretary of state, the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto shall be superseded and the restated articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be articles of incorporation of the corporation.

Sec. 21. Every unit is hereby authorized to utilize a corporation to issue obligations on its behalf to finance the cost of projects or medical research projects to promote and develop commercial, industrial, manufacturing, medical, and research enterprises to promote and encourage employment, the public health, and the public welfare. No unit is or shall be authorized to lend its credit or grant any public money or thing of value in aid of a corporation. The unit will approve all programs and expenditures of the corporation and annually review any financial statements of the corporation, and at all times the unit will have access to the books and records of the corporation.

Sec. 22. Bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be deemed not to constitute a debt of the state, of the unit, or of any other political corporation, subdivision, or agency of this state or a pledge of the faith and credit of any of them, but such bonds shall be payable solely from the funds herein provided therefor from revenues. All such revenue bonds shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the effect that neither the state, the unit, nor any political corporation, subdivision, or agency of the state shall be obligated to pay the same or the interest thereon and that neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the state, the unit, or any other political corporation, subdivision, or agency thereof is pledged to the payment of the principal of or the interest on such bonds. The corporation shall not be authorized to incur financial obligations which cannot be paid from proceeds of the obligations or from revenues realized from the lease or sale of a project or medical research project or realized from a loan made by the corporation to finance or refinance in whole or in part a project or a medical research project. The corporation when established and created pursuant to the terms of the Act shall be a constituted authority and an instrumentality (within the meaning of those terms in the regulations of the treasury and the rulings of the Internal Revenue Service prescribed and promulgated pursuant to Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended) and shall be authorized to act on behalf of the unit under whose auspices it is created for the specific public purpose or purposes authorized by such unit; but the corporation is not intended to be and shall not be a political subdivision or a political corporation within the meaning of the constitution and the laws of the state, including without limitation Article III, Section 52, of the Texas Constitution, and a unit shall never delegate to a corporation any of such unit's attributes of sovereignty, including the power to tax, the power of eminent domain, and the police power.

Powers of Corporation

Sec. 23. (a) In addition to the powers granted to such corporations elsewhere in the laws of Texas that are necessary for the corporation to achieve its purposes, the corporation shall have the following powers with respect to projects and medical research projects together with all powers incidental thereto or necessary for the performance of those hereinafter stated:

(1) to acquire, whether by construction, devise, purchase, gift, lease, or otherwise or any one or more of such methods and to construct, improve, maintain, equip, and furnish one or more projects and medical research projects located within the state and within or partially within the limits of the unit under whose auspices the corporation was created or within the limits of a different unit where the governing body thereof requests the corporation to exercise its powers therein;
(2) to lease to a lessee all or any part of any project or medical research project for such rentals and upon such terms and conditions as its board of directors may deem advisable and not in conflict with the provisions of this Act;

(3) to sell by installment payments or otherwise and convey all or any part of any project or medical research project for such purchase price and upon such terms and conditions as its board of directors may deem advisable and not in conflict with the provisions of this Act;

(4) to make secured or unsecured loans for the purpose of providing temporary or permanent financing or refinancing of all or part of the cost of any project or medical research project, including the refunding of any outstanding obligations, mortgages, or advances issued, made, or given by any person for the cost of a project or medical research project; and to charge and collect interest on such loans for such loan payments and upon such terms and conditions as its board of directors may deem advisable and not in conflict with the provisions of this Act;

(5) to issue revenue bonds for the purpose of defraying all or part of the cost of any project or medical research project and to secure the payment of such bonds as provided in this Act, provided that a corporation created under the auspices of any project or medical research project; and

(6) as security for the payment of the principal of and interest on any revenue bonds issued and any agreements made in connection therewith, to mortgage and pledge any or all of its projects and medical research projects or any part or parts thereof, whether then owned or thereafter acquired, and to assign any mortgage and pledge any security conveyed to the corporation to secure any loan made by the corporation and to pledge the revenues and receipts therefrom;

(7) to sue and be sued, complain and defend, in its corporate name;

(8) to have a corporate seal and to use the same by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed on, affixed to, or in any manner reproduced upon instruments of any nature required to be executed by its proper officers;

(9) to make and alter bylaws not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this state with the approval of the unit under whose auspices the corporation was created by resolution of the governing body for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the corporation;

(10) to cease its corporate activities and terminate its existence by voluntary dissolution as provided herein; and

(11) whether included in the foregoing or not, to have and exercise all powers necessary or appropriate to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized which powers shall be subject at all times to the control of the governing body of the unit under whose auspices the corporation was created.

(b) The corporation shall not have the power to operate any project or medical research project as a business other than as lessor, seller, or lender. The purchase and holding of mortgages, deeds of trust, or other security interests and contracting for any servicing thereof shall not be deemed the operation of a project.

Leases, Sales, and Loan Agreements; Approval of Bonds and Permit for Offer and Sale of Securities

Sec. 24. (a) The commission shall approve the contents of any lease, sale, or loan agreement made under this Act. The commission shall prescribe rules and regulations setting forth minimum standards for lease, sale, and loan agreements and guidelines with respect to financial responsibilities of the lessee, purchaser, or borrower under any such agreement, but in no event shall the commission approve any agreement unless it affirmatively finds the lessee, purchaser, or borrower has the business experience, financial resources, and responsibility to provide reasonable assurance that all bonds and interest thereon to be paid from or by reason of such agreement will be paid as the same become due. Appeal from any adverse ruling or decision of the commission under this subsection may be made by the corporation to the District Court of Travis County. The substantial evidence rule shall apply. Rules, regulations, and guidelines promulgated by the commission and amendments thereto shall be effective only after they have been filed with the secretary of state.

(b) The corporation may submit a transcript of proceedings in connection with the issuance of the bonds to the commission and request that the commission approve such bonds. If the commission refuses to approve such bond issue solely on the basis of law, the corporation may seek a writ of mandamus from the Supreme Court, and for this purpose the chairman of the commission shall be considered a state officer as provided in Article 1733, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925.

(c) The commission may delegate to the executive director of the commission the authority to approve a bond issue or any documents submitted as provided herein.

(d) No corporation shall sell or offer for sale any bonds or other securities until a permit authorizing the corporation to offer and sell such securities has been granted by the securities commissioner under the registration provisions of The Securities Act, as amended (Article 581-1 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil
Sec. 25. (a) The principal of and the interest on any bonds issued by a corporation shall be payable solely from the funds provided for such payment and from the revenues of the one or more projects or medical research projects for which the bonds were authorized. The bonds of each issue shall be dated, shall bear interest at such rate or rates, shall mature at such time or times not exceeding 40 years from their date as may be determined by the board of directors, and may be made redeemable before maturity at the option of the board of directors at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the board of directors of the corporation prior to the issuance of the bonds.

(b) The board of directors shall determine the form of the bonds, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto, and shall fix the denomination or denominations of the bonds and the place or places of payment of principal and interest. In cases where any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature shall appear on any bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds, such signature for all purposes the same as if he had remained in office until such delivery. The bonds may be issued in coupon or in registered form or both as the board of directors of the corporation may determine, and provisions may be made for the registration of any coupon bonds as to the principal alone and also as to both principal and interest and for the reconversion into coupon bonds of any bonds registered as to both principal and interest. The corporation may sell bonds at public or private sale and at an interest rate not to exceed that permitted by the constitution or laws of the state.

(c) The proceeds of the bonds of each issue shall be used solely for the payment of all or part of the cost of or for the making of a loan in the amount of all or part of the cost of the project or projects or medical research project or medical research projects for which authorized as defined herein and shall be disbursed in such manner and under such restrictions, if any, provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or in the trust agreement securing the same. Bond proceeds may be used to pay all costs incurred in issuing the bonds, interest on the bonds for such time as may be determined by the board of directors of the corporation, and to establish reserve funds and sinking funds for the bonds. If the proceeds of the bonds of any series issued with respect to the cost of any project or medical research project shall exceed the cost of the project or medical research project for which the same shall have been issued, the surplus shall be deposited to the credit of the sinking fund for such bonds or used to purchase bonds in the open market.

(d) Prior to the preparation of definitive bonds, the corporation may under like restrictions issue interim notes or temporary bonds with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds when such bonds shall have been executed and are available for delivery. Bonds may be issued and lease, sale, and loan agreements entered into under the provisions of this Act without obtaining the consent or approval of any department, division, commission, board, bureau, or agency of the state except as otherwise provided herein. Bonds may not be issued for a medical project until compliance with the provisions of the Texas Health Planning and Development Act, Chapter 323, Acts of the 64th Legislature, Regular Session, 1975, as amended (Article 4418h, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(e) The principal of and interest on any bonds issued by the corporation shall be secured by a pledge of the revenues and receipts derived by the corporation from the lease or sale of the project or medical research project so financed or from the loan made by the corporation with respect to the project or medical research project so financed or refinanced and may be secured by a mortgage covering all or any part of such project or medical research project, including any enlargements of and additions to such project or medical research project thereafter made. The resolution under which the bonds are authorized to be issued and any such mortgage may contain any agreements and provisions respecting the maintenance of the project or medical research project covered thereby, the fixing and collection of rents, purchase price payments or loan payments, the creation and maintenance of special funds from such revenues and the rights and remedies available in the event of default, all as the board of directors shall deem advisable and not in conflict with the provisions hereof. Each pledge, agreement, and mortgage made for the benefit or security of any of the bonds of the corporation shall continue effective until the principal of and interest on the bonds for the benefit for which the same were made have been fully paid.

(f) The governing body of the unit under whose auspices the corporation was created shall approve by written resolution any agreement to issue bonds adopted by a corporation, which agreement and resolution shall set out the amount and purpose of the bonds. Additionally, no issue of bonds, including refunding bonds, shall be sold and delivered by the corporation without a written resolution of the governing body adopted no more than 60 days prior to the date of sale of the bonds specifically approving the resolution of the corporation providing for the issuance of the bonds.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 26. Each corporation is hereby authorized to provide by resolution for the issuance of its revenue refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding any bonds then outstanding, issued on account of a project or medical research project, which shall have been issued under the provisions of this Act, including the payment of any redemption premium thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of such bonds and, if deemed advisable by the corporation, for the additional purpose of financing improvements, extensions, or enlargements to the project or the medical research project in connection with which the bonds to be refunded shall have been issued or for another project. The issuance of such bonds, the maturities and other details thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the rights, duties, and obligations of the corporation in respect to the same shall be governed by the provisions of this Act insofar as the same may be applicable. Within the discretion of the corporation, the refunding bonds may be issued in exchange for outstanding bonds or may be sold and the proceeds used for the purpose of redeeming outstanding bonds.

Trust Agreements

Sec. 27. Any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the corporation and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the state. Any such trust agreement may evidence a pledge or assignment of the lease, sale, or loan revenues to be received from a lessee or purchaser of or borrower with respect to a project or medical research project for the payment of principal of and interest and any premium on such bonds as the same shall become due and payable and may provide for creation and maintenance of reserves for such purposes. Any such trust agreement or resolution providing for the issuance of such bonds may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties in relation to the acquisition of property and the construction, improvement, maintenance, repair, operation, and insurance of the project or medical research project in connection with which such bonds shall have been authorized, and the custody, safeguarding, and application of all money. It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the state which may act as depository of the proceeds of bonds or of revenues to furnish such indemnifying bonds or to pledge such securities as may be required by the corporation. Any such trust agreement may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and of the trustee and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders as is customary in trust agreements or trust indentures securing bonds and debentures of private corporations. In addition to the foregoing, any such trust agreement may contain such provisions as the corporation may deem reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of any such trust agreement may be treated as a part of the cost of the operation of the project or medical research project.

Enforcement of Agreements or Mortgages

Sec. 28. (a) Any agreement relating to any project or medical research project shall be for the benefit of the corporation. Any such agreement shall contain a provision that, in the event of a default in the payment of the principal of or the interest or premium on such bonds or in the performance of any agreement contained in such proceedings, mortgage, or instrument, such payment and performance may be enforced by mandamus or by the appointment of a receiver in equity with power to charge and collect rents, purchase price payments, and loan payments and to apply the revenues from the project or medical research project in accordance with such resolution, mortgage, or instrument.

(b) Any mortgage to secure bonds issued thereunder may also provide that, in the event of a default in the payment thereof or the violation of any agreement contained in the mortgage, the mortgage may be foreclosed and sold under proceedings in equity or in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law. Such mortgage may also provide that any trustee under such mortgage, the holder of any of the bonds secured thereby may become the purchaser at any foreclosure sale if the highest bidder therefor.

Option to Purchase Granted to Lessee

Sec. 29. A corporation may grant a lessee an option to purchase all or any part of a project or medical research project when all bonds of the corporation delivered to provide such facilities have been paid or provision has been made for their final payment, provided during the time the bonds or interest thereon remains unpaid there is no failure to pay the lease rentals at the time and in the manner as the same become due, provided a payment shall be deemed paid when and as due if no event of default is declared and the payment is made within 15 calendar days of the date it was scheduled to become due. The provisions of this law are procedurally exclusive for authority to convey or grant an option to purchase, and reference to no other law shall be required.

Authority of Corporation Regarding Bonds, Lease, Sale, or Loan Agreements

Sec. 30. Except as limited by the provisions of this Act or as limited by the rules, regulations, and guidelines of the commission, each corporation shall have full and complete authority with respect to bonds, lease, sale, or loan agreements and the provisions thereof.

Bonds as Legal and Authorized Investments

Sec. 31. Any bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds or notes shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Exemption from Taxation

Sec. 32. The legislature finds, determines, and declares that the activities of a corporation created and organized under the provisions of this Act affect all the people of the unit under whose auspices it is created by assuming to a material extent that which might otherwise become the obligation or duty of such unit, and therefore such corporation is an institution of purely public charity within the tax exemption of Article VIII, Section 2, of the Texas Constitution. Accordingly, the corporation, all properties at any time owned by it, the income therefrom, and all bonds issued by it, their transfer, and the income therefrom shall be exempt from all taxation by the state.

Nonprofit Nature of Corporation

Sec. 33. The corporation shall be a nonprofit corporation, and no part of its net earnings remaining after payment of its expenses shall inure to the benefit of any individual, firm, or corporation, except that in the event the board of directors shall determine that sufficient provision has been made for the full payment of the expenses, bonds, and other obligations of the corporation, then any net earnings of the corporation thereafter accruing shall be paid to the unit under whose auspices the corporation was created.

Authority to Alter or Dissolve Corporation

Sec. 34. At any time the unit may in its sole discretion alter the structure, organization, programs, or activities of the corporation or terminate and dissolve the corporation, subject only to any limitation provided by the constitution and laws of the state on the impairment of contracts entered into by the corporation. Such alteration or dissolution shall be made by written resolution of the governing body of the unit and as hereinafter provided.

Dissolution Upon Completion of Purposes

Sec. 35. Whenever the board of directors of the corporation by resolution shall determine that the purposes for which the corporation was formed have been substantially complied with and that all bonds theretofore issued and all obligations theretofore issued by the corporation have been fully paid, the members of the board of directors of the corporation shall, with the approval by written resolution of the unit under whose auspices the corporation was created, thereupon dissolve the corporation as hereinafter provided.

Dissolution and Certificate of Dissolution

Sec. 36. (a) Articles of dissolution shall be executed in triplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary or by the presiding officer and secretary or clerk of the governing body under whose auspices the corporation was created. Triplicate originals of such articles of dissolution shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that such articles of dissolution conform to the requirements of this Act, he shall, when a fee of $25 has been paid:

(1) endorse on each of such originals the word “Filed” and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof;
(2) file one of such originals in his office; and
(3) issue two certificates of dissolution to each of which he shall affix an original.

(b) A certificate of dissolution together with an original of the articles of dissolution affixed thereto by the secretary of state shall be returned to the representative of the dissolved corporation and to the governing body of the unit. Upon the issuance of such certificate of dissolution the existence of the corporation shall cease, except for the purpose of suits, other proceedings, and appropriate corporate action by members, directors, and officers as provided in this Act.

(c) Whenever dissolution occurs, whether instituted by the governing body unit or by the board of directors of the corporation, the dissolution proceedings shall transfer the title to all funds and properties then owned by the corporation to the unit under whose auspices the corporation was created.
Sec. 37. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the creation of the corporations authorized herein and all actions by such corporations authorized hereby without reference to any other general or special laws or specific acts or any restrictions or limitations contained therein; and in any case, to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any other provisions of law, this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, any unit and any corporation shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws not in conflict with the provisions hereof to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

No proceedings, notice, or approval shall be required for the organization of the corporation or the issuance of any bonds or any instrument as security therefor, except as is herein provided, any other law to the contrary notwithstanding; provided that nothing herein shall be construed to deprive the state and its governmental subdivisions of their respective police powers over any properties of the corporation or to impair any police power thereover.

Nothing in this Act shall be construed to violate any provision of the federal or state constitution, and all acts done under this Act shall be in such manner as will conform thereto, whether expressly provided or not. Where any procedure hereunder may be held by any court to be violative of either of such constitutions, the corporation shall have the power by resolution to provide an alternative procedure conformable with such constitutions. If any provisions of this Act should be invalid, such fact shall not affect the validity of any other provisions of this Act, and the legislature hereby declares that it would have enacted the valid provisions of this Act notwithstanding the invalidity of any other provision or provisions hereof.

CHAPTER TWELFTH. RESTRICTIONS ON LABOR

Art. 5207b. Jury Service; Right to Reemployment.

(a) No private employer may terminate the employment of a permanent employee because such employee serves as a juror. The employee is entitled to return to the same employment that he or she held at the time he or she was summoned for jury service.

(b) To be entitled to take advantage of the right to reemployment granted in Subsection (a) of this section, the employee must, as soon as practical upon his or her release from jury service, give actual notice of his or her intention to return to his or her employment.

(c) A person who is injured because of a violation of this section is entitled to just damages, recoverable at law, in an amount not to exceed six months' compensation at the rate at which he or she was compensated at the time he or she was summoned for jury duty. In addition to damages, the injured person is entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees, to be approved by the court.

(d) It is a defense in an action brought under this section that the employer's circumstances changed to such an extent during the time that the employee served as a juror that reemployment was impossible or unreasonable.

CHAPTER THIRTEENTH. EMPLOYMENT AGENTS

Art. 5221a-5. Labor Agency Law

Definitions as Used in the Act

Sec. 1.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (a).]

(b) "Fee" means anything of value including money or other valuable consideration or services or the promise of any of the foregoing received by a Labor Agent or Agency from or on behalf of any person seeking employment, or employers seeking employees, in payment for any service, either directly or indirectly. The term "fee" includes the difference between the amount received by a Labor Agent and the amount paid out by him to persons employed to render personal services to, for, or under the direction of a third person.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1(c) and (d).]

(e) "Labor Agent" means any person in this State who, for a fee, offers or attempts to procure, or procures employment for employees, without a fee offers or attempts to procure, or procures employment for common or agricultural workers; or any person who for a fee attempts to procure, or procures employees for an employer, or without a fee offers or attempts to procure common or agricul... tural workers for employers, or any person, regardless whether a fee is received or due, offers or attempts to supply or supplies the services of common or agricultural workers to any person. The term "Labor Agent" includes any person who, for a fee, employs workers to render personal services in connection with the production of any farm products to, or under the direction of a third person, or who recruits, solicits, supplies, or hires workers on behalf of an employer engaged in the growing or producing of farm products, and who, for a fee, provides in connection therewith one or more of the following services: furnishes board, lodging, or transportation for such workers; supervises, times, checks, counts, weighs, or otherwise directs or measures the work; or disburses wage payments to the workers.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1(f)]

Exceptions

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to persons who charge a fee of not more than Two Dollars ($2) for registration only for procuring employment for school teachers; provisions of this Act shall not apply to any employment agency established and operated by this State, the United States Government, or any municipal government of this State; the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any person who may operate a labor bureau or employment office in conjunction with his own business for the sole and exclusive purpose of employing help for his own use within this State, nor to any common carrier operating in this State who may operate an employment office in conjunction with his own business for the exclusive purpose of employing help for his own use within this State, nor to any person who may operate a labor bureau or employment office in conjunction with his own business for the sole and exclusive purpose of employing help for his own use within this State, nor to any common carrier operating in this State who may operate an employment office in conjunction with his own business for the exclusive purpose of employing help for his own use within this State, nor to any person who may operate a labor bureau or employment office in conjunction with his own business for the exclusive purpose of employing help for his own use within this State, nor to any employee engaged in the growing or producing of farm products, and who, for a fee, provides in connection therewith one or more of the following services: furnishes board, lodging, or transportation for such workers; supervises, times, checks, counts, weighs, or otherwise directs or measures the work; or disburses wage payments to the workers.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1(f)]

Application and Bond

Sec. 3. (a) Application and Bond for a Labor Agency license shall be executed on blank forms prescribed and furnished by the Commissioner. Application for license to act as a Labor Agent may be made in person or by mail to the Commissioner upon blank application form which shall be verified by the applicant. Such application shall also be accompanied by affidavits of at least five (5) creditable citizens who have resided in the county in which said applicant resides for at least three (3) years prior thereto, to the effect that applicant or applicants are persons of good moral character. The application must state the names and addresses of all partners, associates, and profit sharers of the business and shall list the amount of their respective interests.

(b) The Commissioner shall investigate each applicant and the Department of Public Safety shall make available to the Commissioner all arrest and conviction records, of their files, on any applicant for license under this Act.

(c) The application shall be examined by the Commissioner. If he finds that the same complies with the law and that the applicant is entitled to a license and pays the annual license fee of Fifty Dollars ($50), then he shall issue a license to the applicant. Each license issued by the Commissioner shall be good for a period of one year from date of issuance.

(d) Each application for a labor agency license must be accompanied by a surety or cash performance bond in the principal amount of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500). The bond shall be payable to the State for the use and benefit of any damaged party and conditioned that the licensee will pay any judgment recovered by any consumer, the State, or any political subdivision thereof in any suit for damages, penalties or expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees resulting from a cause of action involving the licensee's labor agency activities.

Fees

Sec. 3A. Where a fee is charged for obtaining employment such fee in no event shall exceed the sum of Three Dollars ($3), which may be collected from the applicant only after employment has been obtained and accepted by the applicant. A labor agent may not charge a registration fee.

Persons Disqualified

Sec. 3B. No license to operate as a labor agent may be granted to:

(1) a person who sells or proposes to sell alcoholic beverages in a building or on premises where he... operates or proposes to operate as a labor agent; or

(2) a person whose license has been revoked within three (3) years preceding the date of application.

Notice of Cancellation of Bond

Sec. 3C. Where the surety intends to cancel a bond, thirty (30) days' notice of the cancellation shall be furnished by the surety to the Commissioner prior to the effective date of the cancellation.

Revocation or Suspension of License

Sec. 5. The Commissioner shall have the authority, and it shall be his duty, to revoke the license of any labor agent when it shall appear to his satisfaction, upon hearing, that such agent has been convicted in a State or Federal Court of an offense which under the laws of this State is a felony, or for any offense involving moral turpitude, or that the agent had obtained his license illegally or fraudulently or was guilty of fraud, false swearing, or deception in securing his license. The Commissioner shall have the authority, and it shall be his duty, to revoke or suspend the license of any labor agent when it shall appear to his satisfaction, upon hearing, that the agent has violated any provision of this Act.

The Commissioner shall not revoke or suspend the license of any agent until complaint in writing, made by a credible person, shall be filed with him, specifying in general terms the grounds of the proposed revocation or suspension, and a full and fair hearing given to him thereon. Upon the filing of such complaint, the Commissioner shall fix a time and place, reasonably accessible to the agent complained against of the hearing of said complaint. The Commissioner shall notify the agent so complained against of the time and place fixed for said hearing by a registered letter addressed to him at his post-office address as the same appears upon his application for license, accompanied by an exact copy of the complaint against him; and mailing of such notice and copy shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of proper service of the procedure upon the agent so complained against. The agent so complained against shall have at least ten (10) days after the date said notice is mailed, exclusive of the day of mailing and the day of hearing, before hearing upon said complaint shall be had, and shall have the right to file answer, introduce evidence and to be heard both in person and by counsel. The Commissioner shall have the power to summon and compel the attendance of witnesses before him to testify in relation to any such complaint, and may require the production of any book, paper or document deemed pertinent thereto. Said Commissioner shall also have the power to provide for the taking of deposition of witnesses and evidence may be heard either from witnesses present testifying orally, or by deposition taken under such rules, and in such fair and impartial manner as the Commissioner may prescribe. Said hearing shall be had before the Commissioner and shall be conducted in a fair and orderly manner, and in accordance with rules of procedure to be adopted by the Commissioner, which must be in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act (Article 6252–13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). Any appeal from the decisions of the Commissioner shall be filed in the District Court of Travis County and said appeal shall not have the effect of automatically staying the decisions of the Commissioner.

Failure to File Bond; Suspension of License

Sec. 5A. If a licensee fails to file a bond with the Commissioner within 30 days after notice of cancellation by the surety of the bond, the license issued to the principal under the bond is automatically suspended until such time as a bond is filed. A person whose license is suspended pursuant to this section shall not operate as a labor agent during the period of the suspension.

Reports to Workers

Sec. 7. Any labor agent hiring, enticing, or soliciting common or agricultural workers in this State to be employed beyond the limits of this State, shall provide to each person who was hired, enticed, or solicited to be employed beyond the limits of this State a report correctly showing:

(a) The name and address of the person.
(b) The name and address of the employer.
(c) The kind of work to be performed.
(d) The place where the person is to be employed.
(e) The term of employment.
(f) The wages to be paid, and

(g) Whether or not transportation is to be furnished, arranged for, or paid for by such common laborer or agricultural worker either leaving or returning to this State.

The said Commissioner shall have the authority and it shall be his duty to issue the forms necessary for this section.

Duties of Licensee

Sec. 7A. (a) In addition to the duties inherent in being a labor agent and the duties required by this Act or any other provision of law, a licensee has the duties set forth in this section if he employs workers to render services for third persons.
(b) A licensee shall promptly pay or distribute to the proper individuals all money or other things of value entrusted to the licensee by a third person for such purpose.

e) A licensee shall comply with the terms and provisions of legal and valid agreements and contracts entered into between the licensee in his capacity as a labor agent and third persons.

(d) A licensee shall have available for inspection by his employees and by the third persons with whom he has contracted a written statement in English and Spanish showing the rate of compensation he receives from the third persons and the rate of compensation he is paying to his employees for services rendered to, for, or under the control of such third persons.

(e) A licensee shall take out a policy of insurance with an insurance carrier authorized to do business in the State of Texas in an amount satisfactory to the Commissioner, which insures the licensee against liability for damage to persons or property arising out of the licensee's operation of, or ownership of, any motor vehicle for the transportation of individuals in connection with his business, activities, or operations as a labor agent.

(f) A licensee shall have displayed prominently at the site where the work is to be performed and on all vehicles used by the licensee for the transportation of employees the rate of compensation the licensee is paying to his employees for their services, printed in both English and Spanish.

(g) All vehicles used by a licensee for the transportation of individuals in his operations as a labor agent shall have displayed prominently at the entrance of the vehicle the name of the labor agent and the number of his license issued by the Commissioner.

(h) Each licensee shall, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, furnish each worker employed by him either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately, an itemized statement in writing showing in detail each and every deduction made from the wages.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 7C to 9]

To Display License

Sec. 10. (a) A labor agent shall keep conspicuously posted in his office the license issued to him under this law.

(b) A labor agent shall display a duplicate of his license to each person with whom he deals in his capacity as a labor agent.

Sec. 11. Any person acting as a Labor Agent, as defined by this Act, without having first filed with the Commissioner of Labor and Standards of the State of Texas, an application for license as Labor Agent, as provided by this Act, and without having first secured a State license as provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by fine of not less than Fifty Dollars ($50) nor more than Three Hundred Dollars ($300).

Authority of the Commissioner

Sec. 12. The Commissioner of Labor and Standards and his deputies or inspectors are hereby empowered to enforce the provisions of this Act, and shall have the authority of peace officers in making arrests of any person or persons who violate, in their presence, any of the provisions of this Act; and when such arrest has been made, the Commissioner or his duly appointed deputies or inspectors may enter any employment office at any time when such employment office is open for business and inspect the registers and all other records of whatsoever kind and character of such employment or labor agent for the purpose of ascertaining whether the provisions of this law are being violated, and the refusal of any employment or labor agent to permit such inspection shall be a violation of the Act, and be sufficient reason for the Commissioner to suspend or revoke the license of such agent in accordance with the provisions of Section 5 of this Act.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 12A. The Commissioner shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this Act.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 409, ch. 182, §§ 1, 2, eff. May 13, 1975; Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 256, ch. 134, §§ 1 to 9, eff. May 9, 1979.]

Art. 5221a-6. Repealed by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 574, ch. 263, § 9

Prior to repeal, this article was amended by Acts 1977, 66th Leg., p. 1834, ch. 735, § 2.014; Acts 1977, 66th Leg., p. 1533, ch. 777, §§ 1, 2. See, now, art. 5221a-7.

Art. 5221a-7. Personnel Employment Services

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, legal representative, trustee in bankruptcy, or receiver.

(2) "Fee" means anything of value. The term includes money or other valuable consideration or services or the promise of money or other valuable consideration or services received directly or indirectly by a personnel service from a person seeking employment in payment for a service.
Art. 5221a-7

(3) “Employer” means a person employing or seeking to employ an employee.

(4) “ Applicant” means a person engaging the services of a personnel service for the purpose of securing employment or a person placed by a personnel service with an employer.

(5) “Personnel service” means a person who for a fee or without a fee offers or attempts to procure directly or indirectly permanent employment for an employee or procures or attempts to procure a permanent employee for an employer.

(6) “Counselor” means an individual who interviews and refers an applicant to a prospective employer or who solicits job orders from an employer.

(7) “Owner” means a person possessing a proprietary interest in a personnel service.

(8) “Service file” means a job order, resume, application, workpaper, or other record containing any information relating to an applicant, employer, or position or the operations of a personnel service.

(9) “Job order” means a verbal or written notification from an employer of a job opening.

(10) “Principal location” means the place at which the day-to-day business of the personnel service is operated. An owner may have more than one principal location.

(11) “Management search consultant” means a personnel service that is retained by, acts solely on behalf of, and is compensated only by an employer and that does not collect directly or indirectly any fee from an applicant on account of any service performed by the personnel service.

(12) “Commissioner” means the commissioner of labor and standards.

Exemption

Sec. 2. (a) This Act does not apply to:

(1) a person regulated by Chapter 234, Acts of the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949, as amended (Article 5221a-5, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes);

(2) a personnel service operated by this state, the United States government, or any municipal government of this state;

(3) a personnel service operated by a person in conjunction with the person’s own business for the exclusive purpose of employing help for use in the business; or

(4) a labor union.

(b) Section 7 of this Act does not apply to a management search consultant.

Conduct

Sec. 3. (a) A person who acts as a personnel service in the capacity of an owner, operator of the service, counselor, or agent or employee of the service may not:

(1) impose a fee for the registration of an applicant for employment or other fee on an applicant except for the furnishing of an employment referral that results in the applicant obtaining employment;

(2) engage or attempt to engage in splitting or sharing with an employer, an agent or other employee of an employer, or other person to whom the personnel service has furnished services a payment received by a personnel service from a person seeking employment or from an employer;

(3) make, give, or cause to be made or given to any applicant for employment any false promise, misrepresentation, or misleading statement or information;

(4) refer any applicant for employment except on a valid job order for the referral;

(5) advertise a position without there first being a valid job order verifiable by the employer;

(6) procure or attempt to procure the discharge of a person from his or her current employment;

(7) induce, solicit, or attempt to induce or solicit an employee to terminate his or her employment in order to obtain new employment if the employee’s present employment was obtained by the efforts of the inducing or soliciting personnel service or any other personnel service having a common ownership with the inducing or soliciting personnel service unless the employee initiates the new contact;

(8) deliver, disclose, distribute, receive, or otherwise communicate any service file or any information contained in a service file to or from a person except as authorized by the personnel service owning the file;

(9) advertise in any medium, including a newspaper, trade publication, billboard, radio, television, card, printed notice, circular, contract, letterhead, and any other material made for public distribution, except an envelope, without clearly stating that the advertisement is by a firm providing a private personnel service;

(10) refer an applicant to a place where a strike or lockout exists without first furnishing the applicant a written statement of the existence of the strike or lockout if the personnel service has knowledge of the fact of the strike or lockout;

(11) refer an applicant to employment deleterious to his or her health or morals if the personnel service has knowledge of the deleterious condition of the employment; or
(12) charge a fee of more than 20 percent of the applicant’s gross wages if the position that the applicant accepted as a result of a referral by a personnel service lasts less than 30 calendar days and if the applicant leaves the position with good cause.

(b) An employer seeking employees or a person seeking employment may not:

(1) make any false statement or conceal any material fact for the purpose of obtaining employees or employment by or through a personnel service; or

(2) engage or attempt to engage in the splitting or sharing of fees or payments for services of a personnel service with any person to whom this Act is applicable.

Service File as Trade Secret

Sec. 4. A service file and its contents are trade secrets as defined by Section 31.05 of the Penal Code.

Criminal Penalty

Sec. 5. A person who knowingly or intentionally violates or fails to comply with a provision of this Act commits an offense. An offense under this section is a Class A misdemeanor.

Civil Remedy

Sec. 6. (a) A person who violates a provision of this Act is liable to a person adversely affected by the violation for the amount of all actual damages produced by the violation. In the event a person adversely affected establishes that a violation was committed knowingly, the person shall be awarded three times the amount of actual damages. In this subsection, “knowingly” means actual awareness of the act or practice that is the alleged violation, but actual awareness may be inferred if objective manifestations indicate that a person acted with actual awareness.

(b) In an action filed under this section, a plaintiff who prevails shall receive court costs and attorney’s fees reasonable in relationship to the amount of reasonably necessary work expended.

(c) In an action filed under this section, a plaintiff may seek and the court in its discretion may grant:

(1) an order enjoining the defendant in the suit from violating this Act;

(2) any order necessary to restore to the person any property acquired by the defendant in the suit in violation of this Act; or

(3) other relief that the court considers proper, including the appointment of a receiver if the court’s judgment against the defendant in the suit is not satisfied within three months after the date of the final judgment, the revocation of a certificate authorizing the defendant in the suit to engage in business in this state, or an order enjoining the defendant in the suit from acting as a personnel service.

(d) If a court finds that a civil action filed under this section is groundless and brought in bad faith or for the purpose of harassment, the court may award court costs and reasonable attorney’s fees to the defendant.

(e) This Act does not affect any public or private remedy or enforcement power available under other laws.

Certificate of Authority

Sec. 7. (a) Any person desiring to own a personnel service that is to operate in this state shall file notification of that fact with the commissioner. The notice shall be filed by the owner of the personnel service not later than the 30th day before the commencement of the operation. The notice shall include the principal location of the personnel service, the name and residence address of each owner, the assumed name, if any, under which the personnel service is to operate, and a statement that each owner has read and is familiar with the provisions of this Act. The notice shall be signed and sworn to by the owner before a notary public or other officer authorized to administer oaths.

(b) The notice shall be accepted by the commissioner, and on payment of a filing fee of $50, the commissioner shall issue to the owner a certificate of authority to do business as a personnel service in this state not later than the 15th day after the day of the filing.

(c) The owner shall file with each notification or renewal a good and sufficient bond executed by the applicant with a good and sufficient surety in the sum of $5,000 payable to the State of Texas, conditioned that the obligor will not violate any of the provisions of this Act. The bond shall recite that any person injured or aggrieved by any violation of this Act by the principal or his or her agents or representatives is entitled to bring suit on the bond. One bond is sufficient if an owner has more than one principal location. The commissioner may not issue the certificate of authority until the bond is filed. An owner may deposit $5,000 in cash in lieu of the bond.

(d) The certificate of authority shall be valid for a period of one year from the date of its issuance. It shall be displayed in a prominent place in the principal location of the personnel service.

(e) Renewals of the certificate of authority shall be issued by the commissioner on the filing by an owner of a notice containing the same information specified in Subsection (a) of this section and on the receipt by the commissioner of a filing fee of $50.
Art. 5221a–7

(f) Each person who holds on the effective date of this Act a license under the terms of Chapter 245, Acts of the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949, as amended (Article 5221a–6, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), must file the notice required by this section not later than the 60th day after the effective date of this Act if the person is required to do so by this Act. The commissioner shall notify these persons of this Act and shall furnish, not later than the 30th day after the effective date of this Act, the persons with the forms necessary for filing in compliance with this section.

Disposition of Fees

Sec. 8. The commissioner shall deposit all money received by him or her from fees under this Act in the State Treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

[Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 570, ch. 263, §§ 1 to 8, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Section 9 of the 1979 Act repealed art. 5221a–6.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN. UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION

Art. 5221b–1. Benefits

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (a)]]

(b) Benefit Amount for Total Unemployment: Each eligible individual who is totally unemployed in any benefit period shall be paid with respect to such benefit period, benefits at the rate of one twenty-fifth (1/25) of his wages received from employment by employers during that quarter in his base period in which wages were highest, provided that:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (b)(1)]

(2) Such rate shall not be more than Eighty-four Dollars ($84) per benefit period nor less than Fifteen Dollars ($15) per benefit period on valid initial claims filed on or after October 1, 1977, provided that if the annual average of the manufacturing production workers average weekly wage in Texas exceeds by Ten Dollars ($10) the average weekly wage for those workers in 1976 as determined by the Texas Employment Commission and published in its report, “The Average Weekly Wage,” the maximum weekly benefit amount shall be increased by Seven Dollars ($7) and the minimum weekly benefit amount shall be increased by One Dollar ($1) above the maximum and minimum amounts established herein, the increases to become effective on valid initial claims filed on or after October 1 following publication of “The Average Weekly Wage” report. Thereafter, each cumulative (additional) Ten Dollar ($10) increase in the average weekly wage for manufacturing production workers in Texas, as annually determined and reported by the Texas Employment Commission, shall cumulatively increase the maximum weekly benefit amount by an additional Seven Dollars ($7) and the minimum weekly benefit amount by an additional One Dollar ($1) beginning with the next October 1 following publication of “The Average Weekly Wage” report. The maximum benefit amount payable per benefit period under this section to any individual on the effective date of a valid claim shall remain the maximum benefit amount payable to that individual until that individual establishes a new benefit year.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (c) and (d)]

(e) Benefit Wage Credits: “Benefit wage credits” means those wages as defined in this subsection of the Act, which are used in determining an individual’s right to benefits. “Wages” as used in the Section shall be as defined in subsection (n) of Section 19 of this Act, such that the six-thousand-dollar limitation on wages as set out in subsection (n)(1) of Section 19 shall not be applicable for the purposes of this Section 3; provided that, for the purposes of this Section 3, wages received by an individual in any calendar year shall include all remuneration from each employer for employment up to the maximum amount of wages as defined in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (Section 3121, Chapter 21, Subtitle C, Internal Revenue Code of 1954), as amended, or as it may hereafter be amended; and provided further, that wages which have been used to qualify an individual for regular benefits under this Act or under any other unemployment compensation law shall not be used again to qualify such individual for regular benefits.

If an employer fails to report wages which were paid to a claimant during a base period when requested by the Commission, the Commission may establish wage credits for such claimant for such base period on the basis of the best information which has been obtained by the Commission.

(f) Equal Treatment: Benefits based on services for all employers in employment defined in subsection 19(f) shall be payable in the same amount, on the same terms, and subject to the same conditions; except that:

(1) with respect to services in an instructional, research, or principal administrative capacity for an educational institution, benefits shall not be payable based on those services for any week commencing during the period between two (2) successive academic years or terms (or, when an agreement provides instead for a similar period between two (2) regular but not successive terms, during that period) to any individual if the individual performs those services in the first of the academic years (or terms) and if there is a contract or reasonable assurance that the individual will perform services in that capacity for any educational institution in the second of the academic years (or terms);

(2) with respect to services in any other capacity for an educational institution (other than an institution of higher education), benefits shall not be payable on the basis of those services to any individual for any week which commences during a period between two (2) successive academic years or terms if the individual performs those services in the first of the academic years or terms and there is a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform those services in the second of the academic years or terms; and

(3) with respect to any services described in Paragraphs (1) and (2), benefits shall be denied to any individual for any week which commences during an established and customary vacation period or holiday recess if such individual performs such services in the period immediately before such vacation period or holiday recess and there is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform such services in the period immediately following such vacation period or holiday recess.

(g) Athletes: Benefits shall not be payable to any individual on the basis of any services, substantially all of which consist of participating in sports or athletic events or training or preparing to so participate, for any week which commences during the period between two (2) successive sport seasons (or similar periods) if the individual performed those services in the first of the seasons (or similar periods) and there is a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform those services in the later of the seasons (or similar periods).

(h) Aliens: Benefits shall not be payable on the basis of services performed by an alien unless the alien is an individual who was lawfully admitted for permanent residence at the time such services were performed, was lawfully present for purposes of performing such services, or was permanently residing in the United States under color of law at the time such services were performed (including an alien who was lawfully present in the United States as a result of the application of the provisions of Section 203(a)(7) or Section 212(d)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act), provided that:

(1) any data or information required of individuals applying for benefits to determine whether or not benefits are payable to them because of their alien status shall be uniformly required from all applicants for benefits; and

(2) in the case of an individual whose application for benefits would otherwise be approved, no determination that benefits are not payable to that individual because of his alien status may be made except on a preponderance of the evidence.

Provided that any modifications to the provisions of Section 3304(a)(14) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act as provided by Public Law 94–668, which specify other conditions or other effective date for denial of benefits based on services performed by aliens and which modifications are required to be implemented under state law as a condition for full tax credit against the tax imposed by the Federal Unemployment Tax Act shall be considered applicable under the provisions of this Section.

(i) Previously Uncovered Services: With respect to weeks of unemployment beginning after December 31, 1977, benefit wage credits shall include wages for previously uncovered services, provided that benefit payments based on those services are reimbursable from the federal government in accordance with provisions of Public Law 94–566 and provided that no employer's account shall be charged with payments based on those benefit wage credits either as chargebacks or reimbursements. For the purpose of this subsection, the term "previously uncovered services" means services which were not employment and which were not performed for an employer under any provision of this Act at any time during the one-year period ending December 31, 1975, and which constitute employment and services for an employer after December 31, 1977, in accordance with the provisions of Section 19 of this Act as services in agricultural labor, domestic services, services for a governmental employer, or services for a nonprofit educational institution which is not an institution of higher education, except to the extent that assistance under Title II of the federal Emergency Jobs and Unemployment Assistance Act of 1974 was paid on the basis of those services.

1. Article 5221b–17(o).

6. Sec. 20. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith, insofar as they do conflict herewith, are hereby repealed, but such repeal may in no way be construed as forfeiting or waiving any rights of the State of Texas or of the Texas Employment Commission which have accrued thereunder, including but not limited to the right to collect contributions, interest, or penalties that have accrued and the right of prosecution for violation of any provision thereof; nor may this repeal in any way be construed as forfeiting or waiving the rights of any individual to benefits which accrued thereunder; provided that the commission's determination of the benefit year, the benefit amount for total unemployment, and the duration of benefits made with respect to an initial claim filed prior to January 1, 1978, shall be effective for the remainder of that benefit year.

7. Sec. 21. The amendment to Subsection (c), Section 3, Texas Unemployment Compensation Act, as amended (Article 5221b–1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), contained in Section 1 of this Act takes effect on October 1, 1977. All other provisions of this Act provide for a benefit year ending on January 1, 1978.

8. Sec. 22. If any provision of this Act is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect any provision of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions. Provided further, should any part or parts of Public Law 94–566 or the federal act amend be finally adjudged unconstitutional or invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, then this Act is automatically repealed to the extent of such invalidity.

Art. 5221b–2. Benefit Eligibility Conditions

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any benefit period only if the Commission finds that:

(a) He has registered for work at, and thereafter has continued to report at, an employment...
Art. 5221b-2

office in accordance with such regulations as the Commission may prescribe;

(b) He has made a claim for benefits in accordance with the provisions of Subsection 6(a) of this Act; ¹

(c) He is able to work;

(d) He is available for work;

(e) He has within his base period received benefit wage credits for employment by employers of not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500) and has total benefit wage credits in his base period of not less than one and one-half (1½) times his high quarter benefit wage credits in his base period, or within at least one quarter of his base period received wages for employment by employers equal to two-thirds (2/3) of wages as defined in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (Section 3121, Chapter 21, Subtitle C, Internal Revenue Code), ² as amended, or as it may hereafter be amended, provided that any claimant who has had a prior benefit year must have earned wages of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250) or more subsequent to the beginning date of the prior benefit year.

(f) Prior to the first payment of benefits following an initial claim he has been totally or partially unemployed for a waiting period of seven (7) consecutive days. No week shall be counted as a waiting period week for the purposes of this Subsection:

(1) Unless he has registered for work at an employment office in accordance with Subsection (a) of this Section;

(2) Unless it is a week following the filing of an initial claim;

(3) Unless he reports at an office of the Commission and certifies that he has met the waiting period requirements herein prescribed for the preceding seven (7) days;

(4) If benefits have been paid or are payable with respect thereto;

(5) If the individual does not meet the eligibility conditions of Subsections (c) and (d) of this Section 4;

(6) If the individual has been disqualified for benefits for such seven (7) day period under the provisions of Subsections (a), (b), (c), or (d) of Section 5 of this Act; ³

(7) Provided, notwithstanding any other provision of this Subsection (f), when an individual has been paid benefits in his current benefit year equal to three times his weekly benefit amount, he shall be eligible to receive benefits on his waiting period claim in accordance with the terms of the Act.

Art. 5221b-2a. Prohibitions Against Denial of Benefits

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (a) and (b)]

(c) Benefits shall not be denied to an individual solely on the basis of pregnancy or termination of pregnancy.

Art. 5221b-3. Disqualification for Benefits

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

(a) If the Commission finds that he has left his last work voluntarily without good cause connected with his work. Such disqualification shall be for not less than one (1) nor more than twenty-five (25) benefit periods following the filing of a valid claim, as determined by the Commission according to the circumstances in each case.

(b) If the Commission finds he has been discharged for misconduct connected with his last work. Such disqualification shall be for not less than one (1) nor more than twenty-six (26) benefit periods following the filing of a valid claim, as determined by the Commission according to the seriousness of the misconduct.

(c) If the Commission finds that during his current benefit year he has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work when so directed by the Commission or to accept suitable work when offered him, or to return to his customary self-employment (if any) when so directed by the Commission. Such disqualification shall be for not less than one (1) nor more than thirteen (13) benefit periods following the failure, as described above to apply for or accept suitable work, the degree of disqualification to be determined by the Commission according to the circumstances in each case.

(1) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the Commission shall consider the degree of risk involved to his health, safety and morals at the place of performance of his work, his physical fitness and prior training, his experience and prior earnings, his length of unemployment and prospects for securing local work in his customary occupation, and the distance of the available work from his residence.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, no work shall be deemed suitable and benefits shall not be denied under this Act to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following a labor organization involved in the labor dispute at the premises at which the labor dispute occurred, and he has made an unconditional offer to return to work at the premises at which he is or was last employed.

(e) For any benefit period with respect to which he is receiving or has received remuneration in the form of:

1. Wages in lieu of notice;
2. Compensation for temporary partial disability, temporary total disability or total and permanent disability under the Workmen's Compensation Law of any State or under a similar law of the United States;

3. Old Age Benefits under Title II of the Social Security Act as amended, or similar payments under any Act of Congress, or a State Legislature; provided, that if such remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under this Act, he shall be entitled to receive for such benefit period, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of such remuneration. If any such benefits, payable under this subsection, after being reduced by the amount of such remuneration, are not an even multiple of One Dollar ($1), they shall be adjusted to the next higher multiple of One Dollar ($1).

(f) In determining the number of benefit periods during which any individual is entitled to receive benefits in a benefit year, the Commission shall deduct any period of disqualification as provided in subsections (a), (b), and (c) of this Section from the total number of benefit periods during which he would otherwise be entitled to receive benefits except for such disqualification; provided, that in no case shall the number of benefit periods so deducted exceed the number of benefit periods during which the claimant is then eligible to receive benefits except for such disqualification; and provided further, that in no event shall a disqualification imposed under subsection (a) or (c) of this Section result in a total reduction of the claimant's benefit rights in his benefit year.

(g) For the duration of any period of unemployment with respect to which the Commission finds that such individual has left his most recent work for the purpose of attending an established educational institution; provided, that this subsection shall not apply during a period in which an individual is in training with the approval of the Commission.

(h) For weeks of unemployment beginning after March 31, 1980, for any benefit period with respect to which the individual is receiving a governmental or other pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity, or any other similar periodic payment which is based on the previous work of the individu-

(b) An unemployed individual who has no current benefit year may file an initial claim in accordance with rules or regulations prescribed by the Commission. The Commission shall mail a notice of the filing of such initial claim to the individual or organization for which the claimant last worked prior to the effective date of the initial claim. If the individual or organization has more than one branch or division operating at different locations, notice of the filing of such initial claim shall be mailed to the branch or division where claimant last worked. Mailing of notice of the initial claim to the correct address of the individual or organization or the branch or division where claimant last worked shall constitute due notice to such individual or organization. If the individual or organization to which such notice is mailed has knowledge of any facts that may adversely affect such claimant's right to benefits, or that may affect a charge to its account, it shall notify the Commission of such facts promptly. If such individual or organization does not mail or deliver such notification to the Commission within twelve (12) days from the date notice of a claim was mailed to it by the Commission, such individual or organization shall be deemed to have waived all rights in connection with such claim, including any rights it may have under subsection 7(c)(2) of this Act, except with respect to a clerical or machine error as to the amount of its chargeback or maximum potential chargeback in connection with such claim.

The Commission shall determine whether such initial claim is valid. If such initial claim is valid, the Commission shall determine the benefit year, the benefit amount for total unemployment and the duration of benefits. A notice of the determination of the initial claim shall be mailed to the claimant at his last known address as reflected by Commission records. The claimant may within twelve (12) calendar days from the date such notice was mailed request a redetermination or appeal in the manner provided in this Section.

If such individual or organization for which claimant last worked has filed a notification with the Commission in accordance with this Section, an examiner shall make a determination as to whether the claimant is disqualified from receipt of benefits under Section 5 of this Act, 2 as to any other issue affecting the claimant's right to receive benefits which may have arisen under any other provision of this Act, and as to whether a chargeback shall be made to the account of the individual or organization if benefits are paid, and shall mail a copy of the determination to the claimant and to such individual or organization, or the branch or division for which the claimant last worked. In the absence of such notification from such individual or organization, if, from information on the claim or other information secured, an issue is raised affecting the claimant's rights to benefits under any provision of this Act, an examiner shall prepare a determination reflecting his decision and mail a copy of it to the claimant at his last known address.

Unless the claimant or the individual or organization or branch thereof to which the copy of the determination is mailed files an appeal from such determination within twelve (12) calendar days after such copy of the determination is mailed to his or its last known address as reflected by Commission records, such determination shall be final for all purposes and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance therewith; provided, that within the same period of time, an examiner may file an appeal from such determination, or may, if he discovers error in connection therewith or additional information not previously available, reconsider and redetermine any such determination, and such redetermination shall replace such determination and shall become final unless an appeal therefrom is filed by such claimant or such individual or organization within twelve (12) calendar days after a copy of such redetermination was mailed to his or its last known address as reflected by Commission records.

Notwithstanding any provision in this Act under which benefits may be paid or denied, benefits shall be paid promptly in accordance with a determination or redetermination of an examiner, a decision of an appeal tribunal, the Commission, or a reviewing court, on the issuance of that determination, redetermination or decision (regardless of the pendency of the period to apply for reconsideration, file an appeal, or petition for judicial review, or the pendency of that application, filing, or petition), unless and until that determination, redetermination, or decision has been modified or reversed by a subsequent redetermination or decision, in which event benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the modifying or reversing redetermination or decision. If a determination or decision is finally modified or reversed to deny benefits, no chargeback shall be made to the employer's account by reason of payments made to the claimant for any benefit period with respect to which he is finally denied benefits, and any benefits paid to the claimant which were not in accordance with the final decision shall be refunded by the claimant to the Commission or in the discretion of the Commission shall be deducted from future benefits payable to him under this Act.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (c) to (e)]

(f) Procedure: The manner in which disputed claims shall be presented, the reports thereon required from the claimant and from employers, or other individuals or organizations, and the conduct of hearings and appeals shall be in accordance with rules or regulations prescribed by the Commission for determining the rights of the parties. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings in connection with a disputed claim and all testimony at any hearing upon a disputed claim shall be recorded.

(2) There is a national "off" indicator for a week if, for the period consisting of that week and the immediately preceding twelve (12) weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states was less than four and five-tenths percent (4.5%). The rate of insured unemployment, for the purposes of this subsection, shall be determined by the Secretary of Labor by reference to the average monthly covered employment for the first four (4) of the most recent six (6) calendar quarters ending before the close of that period.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 5 for text of (a)(4)]

(5) There is a State "off" indicator for this State for a week if the Commission determines, in accordance with the regulations of the United States Secretary of Labor, that, for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding twelve (12) weeks, either paragraph (A) or (B) of subdivision (4) is not satisfied. Provided that with respect to benefits for weeks of unemployment beginning after December 31, 1977, the determination of whether there has been a State "on" or "off" indicator beginning or ending any extended benefit period shall be made under this section as if subdivision (4) did not contain paragraph (A) thereof, and as if the figure "four" (4) contained in paragraph (B) thereof were "five" (5); except that, notwithstanding any other provision of this Section, any week for which there would otherwise be a State "on" indicator shall continue to be such a week and shall not be determined to be a week for which there is a State "off" indicator.

(10) "Exhaustee" means an individual who, with respect to any benefit period of unemployment in his eligibility period:

(A) has received, prior to such benefit period, all of the regular benefits that were available to him under this Act or any other state law (including dependents' allowances and benefits payable to federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen under 5 U.S.C. Chapter 85) in his current benefit year that includes such benefit period;

Provided, that, for the purposes of this subparagraph, an individual shall be deemed to have received all of the regular benefits that were available to him although, as a result of a pending appeal with respect to wage credits that were not considered in the original monetary determination in his benefit year, he may subsequently be determined to be entitled to added regular benefits, or

(B) had a benefit year that expired prior to such benefit period and has no, or insufficient, wage credits on the basis of which he could establish a new benefit year that would include such benefit period; and

(C)(i) has no right to unemployment benefits or allowances, as the case may be, under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act, the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, the Automotive Products Trade Act of 1966, or such other federal laws as are specified in regulations issued by the United States Secretary of Labor, and

(ii) has not received and is not seeking unemployment benefits under the unemployment compensation law of Canada; but if he is seeking such benefits and the appropriate agency finally determines that he is not entitled to benefits under such law, he is considered an exhaustee.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Act, with respect to weeks of unemployment beginning after December 31, 1978, extended benefit payments based on benefit wage credits earned from a state, or any political subdivision thereof, or any political subdivisions shall be charged to the employer which is wholly owned by one (1) or more states or political subdivisions shall be charged to the employer at the rate of fifteen per cent (15%) rather than at the rate of fifty per cent (50%) as provided for other employers under this Act, and any such employer which is a taxed employer shall receive notice that its maximum potential chargeback may be increased by as much as fifty per cent (50%) rather than twenty-five per cent (25%) as provided for other employers.

Sections 2 and 3 of Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1, ch. 1, provided:

Sec. 2. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith, or any conflict herewith, are hereby repealed; but such repeal shall in no way be construed as forfeiting or waiving any rights of the State of Texas or of the Texas Employment Commission which have accrued thereunder.

Sec. 3. "If any word, phrase, sentence, paragraph, subsection, or section of this Act shall be held invalid or unconstitutional, such holding shall not invalidate any other word, phrase, sentence, paragraph, subsection, or section hereof, and the legislature hereby expressly declares that it would have passed such remaining words, phrases, sentences, paragraphs, subsections, and sections despite such invalidity."

Art. 5221b-5. Contributions

(a) Payment: Contributions shall accrue and become payable by each employer for each calendar year, or portion thereof, in which he is subject to this Act, with respect to wages for employment paid during such calendar year, or portion thereof. Such contributions shall become due and be paid by each employer to the Commission for the fund in accordance with such rules or regulations as the Commission may prescribe, and shall not be deducted in whole or in part from the wages of individuals in such employer's employ. For agricultural employers subject to this Act, the Commission may require estimated contributions quarterly, but shall require a full report only once each year.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (c)(1) and (2)(A)]

(2)(B) To each employer to whom notice of an initial claim has not already been mailed under subsection 6(b) of this Act, and whose account is potentially chargeable with benefits as the result of such initial claim and payment of benefits, a notice of his maximum potential chargebacks shall be mailed when benefits are first paid and an opportunity afforded for protest of his potential chargebacks. If any such employer desires to protest his potential chargebacks, he shall, within twelve (12) days after such notice was mailed to him, mail his protest, including a statement of the facts upon which his protest is based, to the Commission at Austin, Texas. Any employer who does not protest his potential chargebacks within twelve (12) days after notice was mailed to him shall be deemed to have waived his right to protest such chargebacks. If a timely protest is filed, the examiner shall promptly decide the issues involved in such protest and shall mail a notice of his decision thereon to the protesting employer. Such decision shall become final twelve (12) days from the date of mailing thereof, unless such employer mails to the Commission at Austin, Texas, a written appeal therefrom within such twelve (12) days. Administrative review hereunder shall be in accordance with Commission rules or regulations, and appeals to the Courts shall be permitted only after such employer has exhausted his administrative remedies (not including a motion for rehearing) before the Commission, and within the time prescribed by subsection 6(h) and subsection 6(i) of this Act with respect to Commission decisions on benefits. Venue and jurisdiction of appeals to the Courts with respect to chargebacks shall be the same as venue and jurisdiction of suits to collect contributions and penalties under this Act.

If notice of the claim has been sent previously to the employer under the provisions of Section 6 of this Act, the employer shall be mailed a notice of the amount of his potential chargeback resulting from the claim, and may, within twelve (12) days from the date such notice was mailed, protest any clerical or machine error as to amounts. Such employer shall be mailed a decision on such protest and may appeal within twelve (12) days from the date notice of such decision was mailed to him.
(5) The replenishment ratio for a calendar year is a quotient, stated to the nearest hundredth, derived from the following numerator and denominator.

The numerator of the replenishment ratio shall be the amount of benefits paid from the Unemployment Compensation Fund during the twelve (12) months ending September 30 of the preceding year after deductions have been made for:

(A) benefit warrants canceled,
(B) repayment of benefits which have been overpaid, and
(C) benefits paid which are repayable from reimbursing employers, the federal government, or any other governmental entity.

The denominator of the replenishment ratio shall be the total amount of chargebacks to the accounts of all taxed employers during the twelve (12) months ending September 30, of the preceding year.

The replenishment ratio for each calendar year shall be determined prior to the due date of the first contribution payment with respect to wages for employment paid in that year and such replenishment ratio thus determined shall not be affected or revised by virtue of any subsequent adjustment of any chargebacks of any employer.

(m) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Act, with respect to benefits paid for weeks of unemployment beginning after December 31, 1978, if the reimbursing employer is a state or political subdivision thereof, or any instrumentality of any one (1) or more of the foregoing which is wholly owned by one (1) or more states or political subdivisions, that employer shall pay one hundred percent (100%) of the extended benefits based on benefit wage credits earned from that employer instead of one-half (½) or fifty percent (50%) as indicated for other employers covered under this Act.

Art. 5221b-5b. Special Contributions for Governmental Employers

(a) Notwithstanding any provision in this Act to the contrary, after December 31, 1977, a governmental employer subject to the provisions of this Act and which pays contributions shall pay in accordance with the following.

(b) Contributions:

(1) Payments: Contributions shall accrue and become payable by each governmental employer for each calendar year, or portion thereof, in which it is subject to this Act with respect to wages for employment paid during the calendar year or portion thereof. The contributions shall become due and be paid by each such employer to the Commission for the fund in accordance with rules prescribed by the Commission and shall not be deducted in whole or in part from the wages of individuals in the employer’s employ.

(2) Rate of Contributions: Each governmental employer shall pay contributions equal to one percent (1%) of the wages paid by the employer with respect to employment during each quarter for calendar years 1978 and 1979. The contribution... rate for calendar year 1980 shall be a percentage adjusted to the next higher one-tenth of one percent (1/10 of 1%) based on the following numerator and denominator: The numerator shall include all benefits paid during the preceding two (2) calendar years based on wage credits earned from employers which pay contributions under this Section (not including benefit payments which are reimbursable from any other source), and the denominator shall include the total wages paid by all employers which pay contributions under this Section for the same period. The contribution rate for calendar year 1981 and each calendar year thereafter shall be derived in the same manner as for calendar year 1980, except the numerator and denominator shall include benefit payments and wages paid by the employers for only the one calendar year prior to the calendar year for which the rate is computed.

Provided, if the total benefits paid during the period used for determining the rate are greater than the total contributions paid by these same employers for the same period, the amount of benefits paid in excess of the amount of contributions collected for the period shall be added to the numerator in determining the contribution rate, and if the amount of benefits paid for the period is less than the contributions paid by these employers for the same period, that amount shall be deducted from the numerator in computing the rate; provided that in no year shall the contribution rate under this Section be less than one-tenth of one percent (1/10 of 1%).

(3) Interest and Penalties on Past Due Contributions: If any governmental employer shall fail to pay contributions due under this Section on the date on which they are due and payable as prescribed by the Commission, the employer shall be subject to the same penalties as provided for other employers under subsection 14(a) of this Act.

(e) Separate Accounting: Benefit payments based on wages from employers under this Section shall be paid from the fund; provided the Commission shall establish separate accounting with respect to benefits paid and contributions collected under this Section and these benefits and contributions shall not be used in determining contribution rates under Section 7 of this Act.

Art. 5221b–6. Duration of Coverage and Elections

(2) A State or an instrumentality thereof may voluntarily elect, for a period of not less than two (2) calendar years, to pay reimbursements for benefits paid or to pay contributions.

(3) A political subdivision of a State or any instrumentality thereof may voluntarily elect for a period of not less than two (2) calendar years to pay reimbursements for benefits paid or to pay contributions.

(4) An election by an employer under subsection 8(b)(2) or 8(b)(3) of this Act to be a reimbursing employer shall be made within forty-five (45) days after the date notice is mailed to the employer that it is subject to the provisions of this Act. The election will be effective January 1 of the year in which the employer became subject to the Act. All elections under subsections 8(b)(2) and 8(b)(3) of this Act may be terminated after the minimum required period by filing with the Commission a written request for termination not later than thirty (30) days preceding the last day of a calendar year, and such termination shall be effective January 1 of the following year.

Art. 5221b–12. Rates

Commission with respect to individuals in its employment as the Commission may prescribe by rules. A governmental employer failing to keep or file these reports when due shall be subject to the same penalties as provided for other employers under subsection 14(c) of this Act.

(c)(1) No employing unit shall cease to be an employer subject to this Act except as of the first day of January of any calendar year, and only then if such employer files with the Commission, within the period from January 1 through March 31 of such year, a written application for termination of coverage, and the Commission finds that the employing unit was not an employer as defined in subsection 19(f) of this Act during the preceding year.

Art. 5221b-17. Definitions

As used in this Act, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (a) to (c)]

(d) “Contributions” means the money payments (taxes) to the State Unemployment Compensation Fund required under this Act. Employers who pay contributions under this Act may be referred to as “taxed employers”.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (e)]

(f) “Employer” means:

(1) Any employing unit, other than one to which paragraph (3) or (6) below is applicable, which during any calendar quarter in the current calendar year or the preceding calendar year paid wages of One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500) or more, or on each of some twenty (20) days during the current calendar year or during the preceding calendar year, each day being in a different calendar week, employed at least ten (10) or more individuals in that employment for some portion of the day;

(2) Any individual or employing unit which acquired the organization, trade, or business, or substantially all of the assets thereof, of another which at the time of such acquisition was an employer subject to this Act;

(3) Any employing unit which is a nonprofit organization as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954¹ which is exempt from income tax under Section 501(a) of such Code² and which on each of some twenty (20) days during the current calendar year or during the preceding calendar year, each day being in a different calendar week, employed four (4) or more individuals in employment for some portion of the day;

(4) Any employing unit which has elected to become an employer under Section 8 of this Act;³

(5) Any employing unit which is liable for the payment of taxes under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act⁴ for the current calendar year;

(6) A state or any political subdivision thereof, or any instrumentality of any one (1) or more of the foregoing which is wholly owned by one (1) or more states or political subdivisions;

(7) Any employing unit not an employer by reason of any other paragraph of this subsection which, as a condition for approval of this Act for full tax credit against the tax imposed by the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, is required, pursuant to such Act, to be an “employer” under this Act;

(8) Any employing unit which paid wages for or employed individuals in agricultural labor in accordance with the following; notwithstanding any other provision in this Act, agricultural labor as defined in subsection 19(g)(5)(B) of this Act shall constitute employment if performed for any employing unit which during any calendar quarter in the current calendar year or the preceding calendar year paid wages in cash of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000) or more for such services, or on each of some twenty (20) days during the current calendar year or during the preceding calendar year, each day being in a different calendar week, employed at least ten (10) or more individuals in that employment for some portion of the day; provided that

(A) for purposes of this provision, any individual who is a member of a crew furnished by a crew leader to perform agricultural labor for any other person shall be treated as an employee of the crew leader,

(i) if:

(I) the crew leader holds a valid certificate of registration under the Farm Labor Contractor Registration Act of 1963;⁵ or

(II) substantially all the members of the crew operate or maintain tractors, mechanized harvesting or crop-dusting equipment, or any other mechanized equipment which is provided by the crew leader; and

(ii) if the individual is not an employee of such other person;

(B) for purposes of this provision, in the case of any individual who is furnished by a crew leader to perform agricultural labor for any other person and who is not treated as an employee of the crew leader under paragraph (A) of this subdivision:

(i) the other person and not the crew leader shall be treated as the employer of that individual; and

(ii) the other person shall be treated as having paid cash remuneration to that individual in an amount equal to the amount of cash remuneration paid to that individual by the crew leader (either on his behalf or on behalf of the other person) for the agricultural labor performed for the other person;

(C) for purposes of this provision, the term "crew leader" means an individual who:

(i) furnishes individuals to perform agricultural labor for any other person;

(ii) pays (either on his behalf or on behalf of the other person) the individuals so furnished by him for the agricultural labor performed by them, and

(iii) has not entered into a written agreement with the other person under which the individual is designated as an employee of the other person;

(D) for the purposes of this provision, wages shall not include remuneration paid in any medium other than cash;

(E) this provision shall not be applicable to agricultural labor performed before January 1, 1980, by an individual who is an alien admitted to the United States to perform agricultural labor pursuant to Sections 214(c) and 101(a)(15)(H) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

(9) Any employing unit which paid wages for domestic service in accordance with the following: notwithstanding any other provision in this Act, domestic service in a private home, local college club, or a local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority shall constitute employment if performed for any employing unit which during any calendar quarter in the current calendar year or the preceding calendar year paid wages in cash of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) or more for the domestic service, provided that an employer under this provision shall not be treated as an employer with respect to wages paid for any service other than domestic service unless the employer is treated as an employer under some other provision of this Act with respect to the service.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (g)(1) to (g)(3)]

(D) The term "employment" shall include any service (other than service which is deemed "employment" under the provisions of subsections (g)(2) and (g)(3) of this Section or the parallel provisions of another state's law) performed after 1971 outside the United States (except in a contiguous country with which the United States has an agreement relating to unemployment compensation) by a citizen of the United States as an employee of an American employer, if:

(i) the employer's principal place of business in the United States is located in this State; or

(ii) the employer has no place of business in the United States, but:

(I) the employer is an individual who is a resident of this State; or

(II) the employer is a corporation which is organized under the laws of this State; or

(III) the employer is a partnership or a trust and the number of the partners or trustees who are residents of this State is greater than the number who are residents of any one (1) other state; or

(iii) none of the criteria of divisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph is met but the employer has elected coverage in this State or, the employer having failed to elect coverage in any state, the individual has filed a claim for benefits, based on such service, under the law of this State.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (g)(3)(E)]

(F) The term "United States" when used in a geographical sense includes the States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (g)(3)(G) and (g)(4)]

(5) The term "employment" shall not include:

(A) Service with respect to which unemployment compensation is payable under an Unemployment Compensation System established by an Act of Congress; provided that the Commission is hereby authorized to enter into agreements with the proper agencies under such Act of Congress, which agreements shall become effective ten (10) days after publication thereof in the manner provided in subsection 11(b) of this Act 10 for general rules, to provide reciprocal treatment to individuals who have, after acquiring potential rights to benefits under this Act, acquired rights to unemployment compensation under such Act of Congress, or who have, after acquiring potential rights to unemployment compensation under such Act of Congress, acquired rights to benefits under this Act.

(B) Agricultural labor, which is hereby defined as all services performed:

(i) on a farm, in the employ of any person, in connection with cultivating the soil, or in connection with raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity, including the raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, and management of livestock, bees, poultry, and fur-bearing animals and wildlife;

(ii) in the employ of the owner or tenant or other operator of a farm, in connection with the operation, management, conservation, improvement, or maintenance of such farm and its tools.
and equipment, or in salvaging timber or clearing land of brush and other debris left by a hurricane, if the major part of such service is performed on a farm;

(iii) in connection with the production or harvesting of any commodity defined as an agricultural commodity in Section 15(g) of the Agricultural Marketing Act, as amended (46 Stat. 1550, 3; 12 U.S.C. 1141j), or in connection with the ginning of cotton, or in connection with the operation or maintenance of ditches, canals, reservoirs, or waterways not owned or operated for profit, used exclusively for supplying and storing water for farming purposes;

(iv) in the employ of the operator of a farm in handling, planting, drying, packing, packaging, processing, freezing, grading, storing, or delivering to storage or to market or to a carrier for transportation to market, in its unmanufactured state, any agricultural or horticultural commodity; but only if such operator produced more than one-half (½) of the commodity with respect to which such service is performed;

(II) in the employ of a group of operators of farms (or a cooperative organization of which such operators are members) in the performance of service described in subparagraph (I) above, but only if such operators produced more than one-half (½) of the commodity with respect to which such service is performed;

(III) the provisions of subparagraphs (I) and (II) shall not be deemed to be applicable with respect to service performed in connection with commercial canning or commercial freezing or in connection with any agricultural or horticultural commodity after its delivery to a terminal market for distribution for consumption;

(v) on a farm operated for profit if such service is not in the course of the employer's trade or business or is domestic service in a private home of the employer.

As used in this subsection, the term "farm" includes stock, dairy, poultry, fruit, fur-bearing animal, and truck farms, plantations, ranches, nurseries, ranges, greenhouses or other similar structures used primarily for the raising of agricultural or horticultural commodities, and orchards.

(C) Domestic service in a private home, local college club, or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority;

(D) Service performed by an individual in the employ of his son, daughter, or spouse, and service performed by a child under the age of twenty-one (21) years in the employ of his father or mother;

(E) Service performed in the employ of a church, convention or association of churches, or an organization which is operated primarily for religious purposes and which is operated, supervised, controlled, or principally supported by a church or convention or association of churches;

(F) Services performed in the employ of a political subdivision or any instrumentality thereof which is wholly owned by one (1) or more political subdivisions:

(i) as an elected official;

(ii) as a member of a legislative body;

(iii) as a member of the judiciary;

(iv) as an employee serving on a temporary basis in case of fire, storm, snow, earthquake, flood, or similar emergency; or

(v) in a position which, under or pursuant to law, is designated as a major nontenured policymaking or advisory position, or a policy-making or advisory position the performance of the duties of which ordinarily does not require more than eight (8) hours per week;

(G) Service performed in the employ of a foreign government (including services as a consular or other officer or employee, or a nondiplomatic representative);

(H) Service performed in the employ of an instrumentality wholly owned by a foreign government (i) if the service is of a character similar to that performed in foreign countries by the employees of the United States Government or of an instrumentality thereof; and (ii) if the Commission finds that the United States Secretary of State has certified to the United States Secretary of the Treasury that the foreign government, with respect to whose instrumentality exemption is claimed, grants an equivalent exemption with respect to similar services performed in the foreign country by employees of the United States Government and of instrumentalities thereof;

(I) Service performed as a student nurse in the employ of a hospital or a nurses' training school by an individual who is enrolled and is regularly attending classes in a nurses' training school chartered or approved pursuant to State law; and service performed as an intern in the employ of a hospital by an individual who has completed a four-year course in a medical school chartered or approved pursuant to State law;

(J) Service performed by an individual for a person as an insurance agent or an insurance solicitor, if all such service performed by such individual for such person is performed for remuneration solely by way of commission;

(K) Service performed by an individual under the age of eighteen (18) years in the delivery or distribution of newspapers or shopping news, not including delivery or distribution to any point for subsequent delivery or distribution;

(L) Service covered by an arrangement between the Commission and the agency charged with the administration of any other state or federal unemployment compensation law pursuant to which all services performed by an individual for an employing unit during the period covered by such employing unit's duly approved election are deemed to be performed entirely within such agency's state or under such federal law;

(M) Service performed in the employ of the United States Government or an instrumentality of the United States exempt under the Constitution of the United States from the contributions imposed by this Act, except that to the extent that the Congress of the United States shall permit states to require any instrumentalities of the United States to make payments into an unemployment fund under a state unemployment compensation law, all of the provisions of this Act shall be applicable to such instrumentalities, and to services performed for such instrumentalities, in the same manner, to the same extent, and on the same terms as to all other employers, employing units, individuals, and services; provided, that if this State shall not be certified for any year by the Social Security Board or successor under Section 1603(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the payments required by such instrumentalities with respect to such year shall be refunded by the Commission from the fund in the same manner and within the same period as is provided in subsection 14(j) of this Act with respect to contributions erroneously collected;

(N) Service performed by a duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed minister of a church in the exercise of his ministry or by a member of a religious order in the exercise of duties required by such order;

(O) [Deleted]

(P) Service performed in the employ of a facility conducted for the purpose of carrying out a program of rehabilitation for individuals whose earning capacity is impaired by age or physical or mental deficiency or injury, or providing remunerative work for individuals who because of their impaired physical or mental capacity cannot be readily absorbed in the competitive labor market by an individual receiving such rehabilitative or remunerative work;

(Q) Service performed as part of an unemployment work-relief or work-training program assisted or financed in whole or in part by any federal agency or an agency of a state or political subdivision thereof, by an individual receiving such work relief or work training;

(R) Service performed by an inmate of a custodial or penal institution which is owned or operated by the State or a political subdivision thereof;

(S) Service performed in the employ of a school, college, or university, if such service is performed by a student who is enrolled and is regularly attending classes at such school, college, or university;

(T) Service performed by an individual under the age of twenty-two (22) who is enrolled at a nonprofit or public educational institution which normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and normally has a regularly organized body of students in attendance at the place where its educational activities are carried on as a student in a full-time program, taken for credit at such institution, which combines academic instruction with work experience, if such service is an integral part of such program, and such institution has so certified to the employing unit, except that this subparagraph shall not apply to service performed in a program established for or on behalf of an employer or group of employers; and

(U) Service performed in the employ of a hospital, if such service is performed by a patient of such hospital;

(V) Service performed on a fishing vessel normally having a crew of fewer than ten (10) if the crew member's reimbursement for services performed is a share of the catch and the services are determined not to be employment under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (g)(6) to (j)]

(k) "State" includes, in addition to the States of the United States of America, Puerto Rico, the District of Columbia, and the Virgin Islands.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of (l) and (m)]

(n) "Wages" means all remuneration paid for personal services, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash and gratuities received by any employee in the course of employment to the extent that the gratuities are considered as wages in the computation of taxes under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, 26 U.S.C. Sec. 3301 et seq., except that such term shall not include:

(1) That part of the remuneration which, after remuneration (other than remuneration referred to in the succeeding paragraphs of this subsection) equal to Six Thousand Dollars ($6,000) with respect to employment has been paid to an individual by an employer during any calendar year, is paid to such individual by such employer during any such calendar year;

(2) The amount of any payment (including any amount paid by an employer for insurance or annuities, or into a fund, to provide for any such payment) made to, or on behalf of, an employee or any of his dependents under a plan or system established by an employer which makes provision for his employees generally (or for his employees generally and their dependents), or for a class or classes of his employees (or for a class or classes of his employees and their dependents), on account of:

(A) Retirement, or
(B) Sickness or accident disability, or
(C) Medical or hospitalization expenses in connection with sickness or accident disability, or
(D) Death;

(3) Any payment made to an employee (including any amount paid by an employer for insurance or annuities, or into a fund, to provide for any such payment) on account of retirement;

(4) Any payment on account of sickness or accident disability, or medical or hospitalization expenses in connection with sickness or accident disability, made by an employer to, or on behalf of, an employee after the expiration of six (6) calendar months following the last calendar month in which the employee worked for such employer;

(5) Any payment made to, or on behalf of, an employee or his beneficiary:

(A) From or to a trust described in Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 which is exempt from tax under Section 501(a) of said Code at the time of such payment unless such payment is made to an employee of the trust as remuneration for services rendered as such employee and not as a beneficiary of the trust, or

(B) Under or to an annuity plan which, at the time of such payment, is a plan described in Section 403(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or

(C) Under or to a bond purchase plan which, at the time of such payment, is a qualified bond purchase plan described in Section 405(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(6) The payment by an employer (without deduction from the remuneration of the employee):

(A) Of the tax imposed upon an employee under Section 3101 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding section of prior law);

(7) Remuneration paid in any medium other than cash to an employee for service not in the course of the employer's trade or business;

(8) Any payment (other than vacation or sick pay) made to an employee after the month in which he attains the age of sixty-five (65), if he did not work for the employer in the period for which such payment is made;

(9) Within any calendar year that part of an individual's remuneration from a single employer which, after Six Thousand Dollars ($6,000) has been paid him upon which contributions have been paid under the unemployment law of any state, is paid with respect to employment.

Art. 5221b–22a. Unemployment Compensation Special Administration Fund

There is hereby established as a special fund, separate and apart from all public moneys or funds of this State, an Unemployment Compensation Special Administration Fund which may be used by the Commission for the purposes of paying costs of the administration of this Act including the costs of reimbursing the Unemployment Compensation Benefit Accounts for unemployment compensation benefits paid to former employees of the State of Texas which are based on service for the state, and the costs of construction and purchase of buildings and land necessary in such administration. The State Treasurer shall be the Treasurer and custodian of the fund. He shall administer such fund in accordance with the directions of the Commission, and the Comptroller shall issue warrants upon it in accordance with the directions of the Commission. All interest and penalties collected under the provisions of this Act and all moneys now on deposit in the Unemployment Compensation Special Administration Fund shall be paid into this fund. Said moneys shall not be expended or available for expenditure in any manner which would permit their substitution.
for (or a corresponding reduction in) Federal funds which would, in the absence of said moneys, be available to finance expenditures for the administration of the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act. Nothing in this Section, however, shall prevent said moneys from being used as a revolving fund, to cover expenditures, necessary and proper under the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act, for which Federal funds have been duly requested but not yet received, subject to the charging of such expenditures against such funds when received. The Commission may, by resolution duly entered in its Minutes, authorize to be charged against said moneys any expenditures which it deems proper in the interest of good administration of this Act, provided the Commission in such resolution finds that no other funds are available or can properly be used to finance such expenditures. All moneys which are deposited or paid into the Unemployment Compensation Special Administration Fund may be expended in accordance with the provisions of this Act, upon appropriation by the legislature, and shall not lapse at any time or be transferred to any other fund. All moneys in the Unemployment Compensation Special Administration Fund shall be deposited, administered, and disbursed in the same manner and under the same conditions and requirements as is provided by law for other special funds. The State Treasurer shall be liable on his official bond for the faithful performance of his duties in connection with the Unemployment Compensation Special Administration Fund provided herein. Such liability on the official bond shall be effective immediately upon the enactment of this provision, and such liability shall exist in addition to any liability upon any separate bond existent on the effective date of this provision, or which may be given in the future. All sums recovered on any Surety Bond for losses sustained by the Unemployment Compensation Special Administration Fund shall be deposited in said Unemployment Compensation Special Administration Fund. If it be determined by the Commission in accordance with the provisions of subsection 14(j) of this Act that the Commission should refund penalties which have been erroneously collected and which have been deposited in the Unemployment Compensation Special Administration Fund, the refund of such penalties shall be made, without interest, out of the Unemployment Compensation Special Administration Fund, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 14(j) of this Act 1 that payment of all refunds shall be made out of the Unemployment Compensation Fund. Such refunds paid out of the Unemployment Compensation Special Administration Fund shall be paid upon warrants issued by the Comptroller under the direction of the Commission.

1 Article 5221b–12(j).

CHAPTER FIFTEEN. INSPECTION OF STEAM BOILERS

Art. 5221c. Boiler Inspection Law

Definitions

Sec. 1. The following terms used in this Act mean:

(1) “Act” or “The Act”—The Boiler Inspection Law.

(2) “Alteration”—A change in a boiler that substantially alters the original design.

(3) “Approved”—Approved by the Commissioner.

(5) “Authorized Inspector”—Any Inspector of boilers holding a commission issued by the Commissioner pursuant to Section 10 of this Act.

(6) “Board”—The Board of Boiler Rules.

(7) “Boiler”—Any heating boiler, nuclear boiler, power boiler, or unfired steam boiler.

(A) “Power Boiler”—A boiler in which steam is generated at a pressure in excess of 15 psi (103 kPa) or a High-Temperature Water Boiler.

(B) “High-Temperature Water Boiler”—A water boiler intended for operation at pressures in excess of 160 psi (1,103 kPa) and/or temperatures in excess of 250 degrees F. (121 degrees C).

(C) “Electric Boiler”—A boiler in which the source of heat is electricity.

(D) “Unfired Steam Boiler”—A steam generating system that includes:

(i) Vessels known as evaporators or heat exchangers.

(ii) Vessels in which steam is generated by the use of heat resulting from operation of a processing system containing a number of pressure vessels such as used in the manufacture of chemical and petroleum products.

(iii) Waste Heat Boilers.

(E) “Miniature Boiler”—Any power boiler which does not exceed the following limits:

(i) Sixteen-inch (406 mm) inside diameter of shell.

(ii) Twenty-square-foot (1.86 square meter) heating surface (not applicable to electric boiler).

(iii) Five-cubic-foot gross (0.14 cubic meter) volume exclusive of casing and installation.

(iv) One hundred psi (689 kPa) maximum allowable working pressure.
(F) "Nuclear Boiler"—A nuclear power plant system which produces and controls an output of thermal energy from nuclear fuel and those associated systems essential to the functions of the power system. The components of the system include such items as pressure vessels, piping systems, pumps, valves, and storage tanks.

(G) "Heating Boiler"—Any steam heating boiler, hot water heating boiler, hot water supply boiler, or lined potable water heater, which is directly fired with oil, gas, solar energy, electricity, coal, or other solid or liquid fuels.

(i) "Steam Heating Boiler"—A boiler for operation at pressures not exceeding 15 psi.

(ii) "Hot Water Heating Boiler"—A boiler for operation at a pressure not exceeding 160 psi and/or temperatures not exceeding 250 degrees F. at or near the boiler outlet.

(iii) "Hot Water Supply Boiler"—A boiler for operation at pressures not exceeding 160 psi and/or temperatures not exceeding 250 degrees F. at or near the boiler outlet when any of the following limitations is exceeded:

(a) Heat input of 200,000 Btu/hour.
(b) Water temperatures of 210 degrees F.
(c) Nominal water-containing capacity of 120 gallons (454.21).

(iv) "Potable Water Heater"—A boiler for operation at pressures not exceeding 160 psi and water temperatures not in excess of 210 degrees F. when any of the following limitations is exceeded:

(a) Heat input of 200,000 Btu/hour.
(b) Nominal water-containing capacity of 120 gallons.

(8) "Chief Inspector"—The Inspector appointed in accordance with Section 8 of this Act.
(9) "Code"—ASME Code.
(10) "Commissioner"—The Commissioner of the Department of Labor and Standards of the State of Texas.

(11) "Condemned Boiler"—A boiler inspected and declared unfit for further service by the Chief Inspector, the Deputy Inspector, or the Commissioner.

(12) "Certificate Inspection"—An inspection, the report of which is used by the Chief Inspector to decide whether or not a Certificate of Operation may be issued.

(13) "Certificate of Operation"—A Certificate issued by the Commissioner permitting the operation of a boiler.

(14) "Deputy Inspector"—An Inspector appointed by the Commissioner.

(15) "Existing Installation"—Any boiler constructed, installed, placed in operation, or contracted for before June 8, 1937.

(16) "External Inspection"—An inspection of the exterior of the boiler and its appurtenances made when a boiler is in operation, where possible.

(17) "Electric Boiler"—See Boiler, "Electric".

(18) "Heating Boiler"—See Boiler, "Heating".

(19) "High-Temperature Water Boiler"—See Boiler, "High Temperature Water".

(20) "Hot Water Heating Boiler"—See Boiler, "Hot Water Heating".

(21) "Hot Water Supply Boiler"—See Boiler, "Hot Water Supply".

(22) "Inspection Agency"—An authorized inspection agency providing inspection services in accordance with Section 10 of this Act.

(23) "Inspector"—Chief Inspector, Deputy Inspector, or Authorized Inspector.

(24) "Internal Inspection"—A complete and thorough inspection of the interior of the boiler where construction will permit.

(25) "Lined Potable Water Heater"—See Boiler, "Potable Water Heater".

(26) "Major Repair"—A repair upon which the strength of the boiler will depend.

(27) "Miniature Boiler"—See Boiler, "Miniature".

(28) "National Board"—The National Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessel Inspectors.

(29) "National Board Inspection Code"—The Manual for Boiler and Pressure Vessel Inspectors published by the National Board.

(30) "New Installations"—A boiler constructed, installed, or placed in operation after June 8, 1937.

(31) "Nuclear Boiler"—See Boiler, "Nuclear".

(32) "Non-Standard Boiler"—A boiler that does not qualify as a standard boiler.

(33) "Owner or User"—Any person, firm, or corporation owning or operating boilers within the State.

(34) "Portable Boiler"—A boiler which is primarily intended for use in a temporary location.

(35) "Power Boiler"—See Boiler, "Power".

(36) "Preliminary Order"—A written order issued by the Chief Inspector or any Deputy Inspector to require repairs or alterations to render a boiler safe for use or to require that operation of the boiler be discontinued.

(37) "Reinstalled Boiler"—A boiler removed from its original setting and reinstalled at the same location or at a new location without change of ownership.
Art. 5221c  LABOR  2976

(38) "Repair"—The work necessary to return a boiler to a safe and satisfactory operating condition without changing the original design.

(39) "Rules and Regulations"—The Code of Rules and Regulations promulgated and enforced by the Commissioner in accordance with Section 6 of this Act.

(40) "Safety Appliance"—Safety devices such as safety valves or safety relief valves (within the jurisdictional limits of the boiler as prescribed by the ASME Code and the Rules and Regulations) provided for the purpose of diminishing the danger of accidents.

(41) "Secondhand Boiler"—A boiler of which both the location and ownership have changed.

(42) "Special Inspection"—An inspection by the Chief Inspector or Deputy Inspector other than those in Sections 4, 4a, and 5 in this Act.

(43) "Standard Boiler"—A boiler which bears a Texas stamp, the ASME stamp, or the stamp of any jurisdiction which has adopted a standard of construction equivalent to that required by the Commissioner.

(44) "Steam-Heating Boiler"—See Boiler, "Steam Heating".

(45) "Unfired Steam Boiler"—See Boiler, "Unfired".

Registration of Boilers; Certificate of Operation; Injunction Against Operation of Unsafe Boiler

Sec. 2. Unless otherwise specifically exempted in this Act, all boilers operated within the State shall be registered with the Department of Labor and Standards. In addition, such boilers shall not be operated unless they have satisfactorily passed a Certificate Inspection and have qualified for a Certificate of Operation. The Certificate of Operation shall be placed under glass in a conspicuous place on or near the boiler for which it is issued. No prosecution without changing the original design for the attorney bringing the suit to verify the pleadings or for the State to execute a bond as a condition precedent to the issuing of any injunction or restraining order hereunder. The affidavit of the Commissioner that no application for or no Certificate of Operation exists for such boiler, and the affidavit of the Chief Inspector or any Deputy Inspector that its operation constitutes a menace to the safety of the premises, shall be sufficient proof to warrant the immediate granting of a temporary restraining order.

Board of Boiler Rules

Sec. 2a. There is established within the Department of Labor and Standards a Board of Boiler Rules, consisting of nine members appointed by the Commissioner. Except for the initial appointees, members hold office for terms of six years expiring on January 31 of odd-numbered years. In making the initial appointments, the Commissioner shall designate three for terms expiring in 1979, three for terms expiring in 1981, and three for terms expiring in 1983.

The Commissioner may remove any member of the Board for inefficiency or neglect of duty in office. Upon the resignation, death, suspension, or incapacity of any member, the Commissioner shall fill the vacancy for the remainder of the vacated term with an individual representative of the same interests with which the predecessor was identified.

The nine members shall have experience with boilers, and at least four, when available, shall be registered professional engineers licensed in the State of Texas. Three members shall be representatives of owners or users of boilers, one shall be representative of boiler manufacturers or installers, three shall be representatives of companies insuring boilers in this State, one shall be a mechanical engineer on the faculty of a recognized engineering college within the State, and one shall be a representative of a labor union.

The Chief Inspector shall serve as chairman, and the Commissioner shall be an ex officio member. At the call of the chairman, the Board shall meet at least twice each year at a place designated by the Board. No decision of the Board shall be effective unless supported by the vote of at least five members.

The Board shall act in an advisory capacity to the Commissioner in formulating definitions, rules and regulations for the safe construction, installation, inspection, operating limits, alteration, and repair of boilers and their appurtenances.

The Board members shall serve without salary, but are entitled to reimbursement for actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as board members.
Sec. 3. The following are exempt from the provisions of this Act:

(1) Boilers owned or operated by the Federal Government;
(2) Pressure Vessels and unfired steam boilers, except:
   a. Steam drums of unfired steam boilers.
   b. Waste heat boilers.

Sec. 3a. The following shall be exempt from the requirements of Sections 4, 5, and 11 of this Act:

1. Heating boilers used for heating in buildings occupied solely for residence purposes with accommodations not exceeding four (4) families.

2. Steam drums of unfired steam boilers.
4. Portable steam boilers.
5. Nuclear boilers.

Sec. 4. The Commissioner shall cause boilers subject to the provisions of this Act to be inspected internally and externally (except as provided for in Sections 4 and 4a) as follows:

(1) Power boilers shall receive a certificate inspection annually and shall also be externally inspected annually while under pressure if possible.
(2) Steam heating boilers and hot water heating boilers shall receive a certificate inspection biennially.
(3) Hot water supply boilers and lined portable water heaters shall receive a certificate inspection triennially.
(4) Portable steam boilers shall be inspected externally each time they are moved to a new location, provided that an internal inspection shall be made of each such boiler at least once every twelve (12) months.
(5) Nuclear boilers shall be inspected and reported in such form and with such information as the Commissioner shall designate.
