Sec. 16. The property of the agency, its income, and operations are exempt from all taxes and assessments imposed by the state and all public agencies on property acquired or used by the agency under the provisions of this Act. The agency may, under its terms, conditions, and rules, make payments to public agencies in lieu of ad valorem taxes on any property which the agency has acquired through foreclosure or sale under a deed of trust. It shall be the policy of the agency to make these payments in lieu of taxes whenever practicable with any money lawfully available for this purpose, subject to the provisions, requirements, and restrictions of any bond resolution.

Fiscal Year; Annual Report; Audit

Sec. 17. The agency shall operate on a fiscal year beginning September 1 and ending August 31. The agency shall have an audit of its books and accounts for each fiscal year by the state auditor or by a certified public accountant. The cost of the audit is an expense of the agency. A copy of the audit shall be filed with the governor and the legislature on or before January 1 of each year, except if the audit is being made by the state auditor and is not available by January 1, it shall be filed as soon as it is available. Also, on or before January 1 of each year, the agency shall prepare a report of its activities for the preceding fiscal year for the governor and the legislature. The report shall set forth a complete operating and financial statement.

Annual Budget

Sec. 18. (a) On or before August 1 of each year, the administrator shall file with the board a proposed annual budget for the succeeding fiscal year. The budget shall set forth the general categories of expected expenditures out of revenues and income of the agency, and the amount on account of each, and may include a provision or reserve for contingencies or over expenditures. On or before September 1 in each year, the board shall consider the proposed annual budget and shall approve it or change it as the board determines necessary or advisable. Copies of the annual budget certified by the chairman of the board shall be filed promptly with the governor and the legislature. The annual budget is not effective until it is filed.

(b) If for any reason the agency does not adopt the annual budget before September 2, the budget for the preceding year shall remain in effect until a new budget is adopted.

(c) The agency may adopt an amended annual budget for the current fiscal year, but the amended annual budget may not supersede a prior budget until it is filed with the governor and the legislature.
(d) All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of the Act shall be payable solely from revenues or funds provided or to be provided pursuant to the provisions of this Act, and nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorize the agency to incur any indebtedness or liability on behalf of or payable by the State of Texas, except as provided in this Act, or as otherwise provided by law.

Selection of Depository

Sec. 19. (a) The agency shall choose a depository for its revenues and funds, other than appropriated funds, after inviting bids for favorable interest rates. The agency shall publish notice in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the state at least 14 days before the last day set for the receipt of the bids. The notice shall state the types of deposits planned, the last day on which bids will be received, and the time and place for opening bids.

(b) Sealed bids that are identified as bids on the envelope must be submitted to the agency before the deadline for receiving bids. The state auditor or a member of the auditor's staff must be present at the bid opening. The agency shall provide a tabulation of all submitted bids for public inspection.

(c) The agency shall choose the depository submitting the bid with the most favorable interest rate.

(d) If covenants related to the agency's bonds specify one or more depositories or set out a method of selecting depositories different from the method prescribed by this section, the covenants prevail with respect to the funds to which they apply.

Agency Records

Sec. 20. (a) The agency shall keep complete records and accounts of its business transactions according to generally accepted methods of accounting.

(b) The agency shall keep complete minutes of its meetings. The agency accounts, minutes, and other records shall be kept at its principal office.

Issue of Housing Finance Agency Bonds

Sec. 21. (a) The board of directors of the agency by resolution from time to time may provide for the issuance of negotiable bonds as authorized by the Texas Constitution. The bonds shall be on a parity and shall be called Texas Housing Bonds. The board may issue them in one or several installments and shall date the bonds of each issue.

(b) In addition to the authority to issue general obligation bonds as provided in Subsection (a) of Section 21 of this Act, the agency may issue its revenue bonds for the purpose of providing money with which to carry out, achieve, or effectuate any purpose, power, or duty of the agency under this Act. The agency's bonds may be issued from time to time in one or more series or issues, payable as to principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, from and secured by a first lien or a subordinate lien on and pledge of all or any part of the revenues, income, or other resources of the agency including, without limitation, the repayments of mortgage loans, the earnings from investment or deposit of the reserve fund and other funds of the agency, the fees, charges, and any other amounts or payments received pursuant to this Act, and any appropriations, grants, allocations, subsidies, rent supplements, guaranties, aid, contribution, or donations from the federal government.

(c) Also, the agency may issue its bonds, which may be designated as "bond anticipation notes," which may be made payable as to principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, solely from the proceeds from the sale of the agency's definitive refunding bonds if or when issued and delivered for the purpose of refunding such bond anticipation notes or payable as to principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, from such definitive refunding bonds and any other revenues, income, or resources of the agency, and the agency may covenant that it will issue, sell, and deliver such definitive refunding bonds in such manner as will provide the money necessary to pay any required part of the principal of and interest and redemption premium, if any, on the bond anticipation notes when due; provided that such bond anticipation notes may be refunded in any other manner permitted by the Act.

(d) The payment of the principal of and the interest and redemption premium, if any, on the agency's bonds additionally may be secured by a first lien on or subordinate lien on and pledge of all or any part of the assets and real, personal, or mixed property of the agency (including mortgages and obligations securing same, and investments), and the reserve fund, or other reserves or funds of the agency.

(e) All bonds issued by the agency shall be authorized by resolution of the board and may be secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on property, and/or by trust agreements or trust indentures administered by one or more corporate trustees, in such manner as may be prescribed by the board; and the substantial form of any such mortgage, deed of trust, trust agreement, or trust indenture shall be set forth in and constitute a part of the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds. Any resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds of the agency may provide that part of the proceeds from the sale thereof may be used for paying the costs and expenses of issuing the bonds, for paying interest on the bonds during such period as may be prescribed by the board, and for paying or repaying operation and maintenance expenses of the agency to the extent and for the period of time specified in said resolution, and also for the funding, increasing, or restoring any depletions of the reserve fund or other reserves or funds for any purposes.

(f) The agency may provide for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under such terms or conditions as may be set forth in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.
Art. 12691-6  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

(g) The agency also may issue its bonds for the specific purpose of providing all or any part of the money required for funding or increasing the reserve fund or other reserves or funds of the agency.

Interest on Bonds

Sec. 22. The agency's bonds may be issued to bear interest at any rate or rates as shall be determined by the board.

Form; Denomination; Place of Payment

Sec. 23. (a) The agency's bonds may be issued as serial bonds, or as term bonds, or any combination of each as shall be determined by the board.

(b) The agency's bonds may be issued in coupon form payable to bearer, or in fully registered form, or as coupon bonds payable to bearer but registrable as to principal alone, or as to both principal and interest, or in any other form.

(c) The agency's bonds may be payable at any place or places, may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and shall be executed, all as provided by the board in the resolution authorizing the issuance of said bonds.

(d) The agency's bonds may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms and conditions, as shall be determined by the board.

Maturity of Bonds

Sec. 24. The agency's bonds may mature within any period as shall be determined by the board.

Redemption Before Maturity; Conversion

Sec. 25. (a) The board may provide and covenant for the conversion of any form of bond into any other form or forms of bond, and for reconversion of bonds into any other form.

(b) If the duty of replacement, conversion, or reconversion of bonds is imposed upon a place of payment (paying agent) of any bonds, or upon a corporate trustee under a trust agreement or trust indenture, the replacement, converted, or reconverted bond need not be reapproved by the attorney general or reregistered by the comptroller of public accounts as provided in Section 27 of this Act. Otherwise, all replacement, converted, or reconverted bonds must be so approved and registered as provided in Section 27 of this Act, in accordance with the procedures established in the resolution authorizing the bonds.

Agency's Bonds not Obligations of the State

Sec. 26. (a) The agency's bonds are solely obligations of the agency and are payable solely from funds of the agency, and this Act and the agency's bonds are not and do not create or constitute in any way an obligation, a debt, or a liability of the state, or create or constitute a pledge, giving, or lending of the faith or credit or taxing power of the state except bonds authorized by the Texas Constitution and as provided in Subsection (a) of Section 21 of this Act.

(b) Each bond of the agency not authorized by Subsection (a) of Section 21 of this Act shall contain on its face a statement to the effect that the state is not obligated to pay the principal thereof or interest thereon; and that neither the faith or credit nor the taxing power of the state is pledged, given, or loaned to such payment.

(c) However, the state hereby pledges to and agrees with the holders of any bonds issued under this Act that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the agency to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the said holder thereof or in any way impair the rights and remedies of such holders until such bonds, together with the interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged. The agency is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with the holders of such bonds.

Approval of Bonds; Registration

Sec. 27. All bonds issued by the agency and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for examination. If the attorney general finds that such bonds have been authorized in accordance with this Act, the attorney general shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas.

Execution of Bonds

Sec. 28. The bonds authorized by Subsection (a) of Section 21 of this Act shall be executed on behalf of the board as general obligations of the state in the following manner: the chairman of the board shall sign the bonds; the board shall impress its seal on the bonds; the governor shall sign the bonds; and the secretary of state shall attest the bonds and impress on them the state seal.

Facsimile Signatures and Seals

Sec. 29. The resolution authorizing the issuance of an installment or series of bonds may prescribe the extent to which the board in executing the bonds and appurtenant coupons may use facsimile signatures and facsimile seals instead of manual signatures and manually impressed seals. Interest coupons may be signed by the facsimile signatures of the chairman of the board of the agency.

Signature of Former Officer

Sec. 30. If an officer whose manual or facsimile signature appears on a bond or whose facsimile signature appears on any coupon ceases to be an officer before the bond is delivered, the signature is valid and sufficient for all purposes as if the officer... had remained in office until the delivery had been made.

Bonds Incontestable

Sec. 31. (a) After approval by the attorney general and registration by the comptroller of public accounts, the bonds shall be incontestable in any court or other forum for any reason and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes.

(b) In addition, general obligation bonds issued as provided in Subsection (a) of Section 21 of this Act and after approval and registration as provided in this Act shall constitute general obligations of the state.

Reserve Fund

Sec. 32. (a) There may be created and established by the agency, with the State Treasurer of the State of Texas, a separate and special fund to be entitled the Texas Housing Agency Reserve Fund. The reserve fund may be used for the purpose of paying principal of and interest, and redemption premium, if any, on any of the agency's bonds secured by the reserve fund, or any account therein, in order to prevent or cure a default, if, when, and to the extent the revenues, income, and receipts of the agency are insufficient for such payment, and for such other purposes as are provided in any resolution authorizing the issuance of the agency's bonds. The agency may establish separate accounts within the reserve fund to secure and be applicable only to the agency's bonds for which they are established.

(b) It shall be an additional duty of the State Treasurer, in the State Treasurer's official capacity, ex officio, to accept the reserve fund, as custodian thereof, in accordance with the provisions of this section; but the reserve fund shall not be commingled with the General Revenue Fund of the state or any other special funds or accounts in the State Treasury, and the reserve fund shall not constitute or be a part of the State Treasury. The reserve fund and any account therein shall be kept and maintained separate and apart from all other money, funds, deposits, and accounts and shall be kept and held in escrow and in trust by the State Treasurer, for and on behalf of, and charged with an irrevocable lien and pledge in favor of, the holders of the agency's bonds secured thereby; and the reserve fund shall be used only as provided in this Act. Legal title to the reserve fund shall be in the agency unless or until paid out as herein provided, but the State Treasurer, as custodian, shall administer the reserve fund strictly and solely as provided in this Act and the agency's bond resolutions, and the State Treasurer shall take no action with respect to the reserve fund other than that specified in this Act and in said bond resolutions.

(c) Out of proceeds from the sale and delivery of its first series or issue of bonds which are secured by the reserve fund, or from any other source available to it, the agency may provide for depositing into the reserve fund, or an account therein, such amount as is specified in the bond resolution, and thereafter the reserve fund, or such accounts therein, shall be increased to, when necessary, and maintained at, said amount with respect to all bonds at any time outstanding which are secured by the reserve fund, or such account therein. The board is authorized to establish the procedures for funding, increasing, and maintaining the reserve fund, or any account therein, and the operation and use of, and the priorities of bondholders in connection with, the reserve fund, or any account therein, in the resolutions authorizing the issuance of its bonds. The State Treasurer shall be furnished certified copies of said bond resolutions, and the State Treasurer shall comply therewith.

(d) Amounts in the reserve fund, or any account therein, at any time in excess of the amount then required to be on hand therein, whether by reason of investment or deposit earnings or otherwise, shall be paid by the State Treasurer directly to, or upon the order of, the agency, upon written request by the agency, or disposed of and disbursed by the State Treasurer as provided in any bond resolution of the agency.

(e) The State Treasurer shall place the money in the reserve fund, or any account therein, in demand or time deposits, or invest said money in any direct obligations of, or obligations the payment of the principal of and interest on which are guaranteed by, the federal government, and such deposits and/or investments shall be made by the State Treasurer at the places and in the amounts and manner as provided in written instructions from the agency as to the procedures and details thereof, or as provided in any bond resolution of the agency. If said money is placed in demand or time deposits, such deposits shall be secured at all times by the same type of obligations as those in which the reserve fund may be invested. Earnings from such deposits and investments shall be credited to the reserve fund, or the account therein from which the money was deposited or invested, or disposed of as provided in any bond resolution. Said investments shall be sold promptly by the State Treasurer if and when necessary to prevent or cure any default in connection with the agency's bonds, as provided in this Act and the resolutions authorizing such bonds.

(f) The State Treasurer's surety bond required by law, and conditioned that the State Treasurer will faithfully execute the duties of the treasurer's office, shall be applicable to and cover the execution of the State Treasurer's duties with respect to the reserve fund as required by this Act.

(g) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the agency may or may not, at its option, create or fund the reserve fund and may issue its bonds which are not secured by the reserve fund, or any account therein, but which may be secured by any other or separate reserve fund or account to be kept at any place, or secured in any other manner provided in the agency's bond resolutions.

Payment Enforceable by Mandamus

Sec. 33. The writ of mandamus and all other legal and equitable remedies shall be available to any party at interest to require the agency, the State Treasurer, and any other party to carry out its or their agreements and to perform its or their functions and duties under this Act, the Texas Constitution, or the agency's bond resolutions.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 34. (a) Any bonds issued by the agency may be refunded, or otherwise refinanced, by the issuance by the agency of refunding bonds for such purpose, under such terms, conditions, and details as shall be determined by the board.

(b) All pertinent and appropriate provisions of this Act shall be applicable to such refunding bonds, and they may be issued in the manner provided herein for other bonds authorized under this Act; provided that such refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts sufficient to provide for the payment of the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of any bonds to be refunded, at maturity or on any redemption date, in accordance with such procedures as shall be determined by the board, and the comptroller of public accounts shall register such refunding bonds without the necessity of cancelling the bonds being refunded.

(c) Also, such refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded. In any case where refunding bonds are to be exchanged, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver the same to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded thereby, in accordance with the provisions of the resolution authorizing the refunding bonds; and any such exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.

(d) Bonds issued by the agency also may be refinanced in the manner provided by any other applicable statute, including Chapter 503, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, as amended, and Chapter 784, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969 (Articles 717k and 717k-3, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Bonds Negotiable Instruments

Sec. 35. Notwithstanding any statute to the contrary, each bond and interest coupon issued and delivered by the agency is and constitutes a negotiable instrument within the meaning and for all purposes of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code, except that said bonds may be registered or subject to registration as permitted by this Act.

Payment of Agency's Obligations

Sec. 36. It is the duty of the board to establish and collect sufficient fees and charges for services and facilities and to utilize all other available sources of revenues, income, and receipts, in order to pay all expenses of operation and maintenance of the agency, to pay the principal of and interest on its bonds, and to create and maintain the reserve fund and any other reserves or funds as provided in each resolution authorizing the issuance of its bonds. In any resolution authorizing the issuance of the agency's bonds the board may prescribe systems, methods, routines, and procedures under which the agency shall function, consistent with this Act.

Validity of Liens and Pledges

Sec. 37. Each lien on or pledge of revenues, income, or other resources of the agency, or on the assets of the agency, or on the reserve fund, or other reserves or funds of the agency, as authorized by this Act, shall be valid and binding from the time of payment for and delivery of the bonds authorized by the resolution of the board creating or confirming any such lien or pledge. All such liens and pledges shall be fully effective as to items then on hand or thereafter received, and said items shall be subject to such liens or pledges without any physical delivery thereof or further act. All such liens and pledges shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the agency or other party, irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither any resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds of the agency nor any other instrument by which any such lien or pledge is created or confirmed need be filed or recorded except in the records of the agency, and except that each bond resolution of the agency shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas as required by Section 27 of this Act.

Bonds not Taxable

Sec. 38. As set forth in this act the agency will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this Act, and the bonds of the agency issued pursuant to this Act, and the interest and income therefrom, including any profit made on the sale thereof, and all its fees, charges, gifts, grants, revenues, receipts, and other money received or pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be free from taxation and assessments of every kind by this state and by all public agencies.

Authorized Investments

Sec. 39. (a) All bonds issued by the agency under this Act shall be legal and authorized investments for all:

(1) banks;
(2) savings banks;
(3) trust companies;
(4) building and loan associations;
(5) savings and loan associations;
(6) insurance companies of all kinds and types;
(7) fiduciaries;
(8) trustees;
(9) guardians; and
(10) sinking and other public funds of the state, cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political subdivisions and public agencies of the state.

Security for Deposit of Funds

Sec. 40. All bonds also shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all public agencies, to the extent of the par or market value of said bonds, whichever is greater, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Mutated, Lost, Stolen, Destroyed Bonds

Sec. 41. The board may provide procedures for the replacement of any mutilated, lost, stolen, or destroyed bond or interest coupon.

No Gain Allowed

Sec. 42. Neither the administrator, chairman of the board, nor any director of the agency, for purposes of personal pecuniary gain, shall have or attempt to have any pecuniary interest in any transaction to which the agency is a party.

No Discrimination

Sec. 43. No person in the state shall, on the grounds of race, color, national origin, or sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity funded in whole or in part with funds made available under this Act.

Liberal Construction of the Act

Sec. 44. This Act shall be construed liberally to effectuate the legislative intent and the purposes of this Act, and all powers herein granted shall be broadly interpreted to effectuate such intent and purposes and not as a limitation of powers.

Cumulative Effect of the Act: Conflicting Laws

Sec. 45. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other laws or any restrictions, approvals, or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided; and to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that the board shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws not in conflict with the provisions hereof to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Sec. 46. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act or the application of such sections, provisions, clauses, or words to any situation or circumstance shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act or the application of such sections, provisions, clauses, or words to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Appropriation

Sec. 47. If the General Appropriation Act for the fiscal biennium ending on August 31, 1981, contains an appropriation for the administration of this Act, the validity of the appropriation is not affected by the fact that it refers to the Texas Housing Agency as the Texas Housing Finance Authority.

Authority to Issue General Obligation Bonds Contingent

Sec. 48. Subsection (a) of Section 21 of this Act, to the extent it authorizes the issuance of general obligation bonds, takes effect if and when the Texas Constitution is amended to permit the issuance of such bonds as contemplated by that provision of this Act.

Section 4(c) of the 1981 amendatory act provides:

"The terms used in Section 4 of this Act shall have the same meaning as defined in the Texas Housing Agency Act (Article 12691-6, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes)."

B. The division of this Act into sections, subsections, and paragraphs and the use of captions in connection therewith are solely for convenience and shall have no legal effect in construing the provisions of this Act.

In economically depressed or blighted areas or in federally assisted new communities located within a home-rule city, “mortgagor” may include a person or persons whose adjusted gross aggregate income exceeds the amount constituting moderate income if at least 90 percent of the total mortgage amount available under a home mortgage revenue bond issue is designated for persons of low or moderate income.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, co-partnership, firm, company, corporation, lending institution, association, joint stock company, trust, estate, political subdivision, state agency, or any other legal entity, or its legal representative, agent, or assigns, but shall, when used with reference to a mortgagor or owner of a home, mean a natural person or a trust for the benefit of such natural person.

Purpose of Act—Liberal Construction

Sec. 3. It is hereby determined and declared that the purpose of this Act is to provide a means of financing the cost of residential ownership and development that will provide decent, safe, and sanitary housing for residents of local governmental units at prices they can afford; it is further determined and declared that such residential ownership and development will (a) provide for and promote the public health, safety, morals, and welfare; (b) relieve conditions of unemployment and encourage the increase of industry and commercial activity and economic development so as to reduce the evils attendant upon unemployment; (c) provide for efficient and well-planned urban growth and development including the elimination and prevention of potential urban blight and the proper coordination of industrial facilities with public services, mass transportation, and residential development; (d) assist persons of low and moderate income in acquiring and owning decent, safe, and sanitary housing which they can afford; and (e) preserve and increase ad valorem tax bases of local governmental units; and the foregoing are hereby determined and declared to lessen the burdens of government and to be public purposes and functions; and it is the intent of the legislature by the passage of this Act to authorize local governmental units to create and utilize public nonprofit corporations to issue obligations to accomplish such public purposes. This Act shall be liberally construed in conformity with its intention.

Application to Governing Body of Local Governmental Unit

Sec. 4. A. Whenever any number of individuals, not less than three, each of whom shall be a citizen of the State of Texas, of the age of 18 years or more and residents of the local governmental unit, shall file with the governing body of the local governmental unit an application in writing seeking the incorporation of a housing finance corporation under the provisions of this Act, the governing body shall proceed to consider such application. If the governing body shall by appropriate resolution duly adopted find and determine that it is wise, expedient, necessary, or advisable that the corporation be formed and shall approve the form of articles of incorporation proposed to be used in organizing the corporation, then articles of incorporation for the corporation may be filed as hereinafter provided.

No corporation may be formed unless such application shall have first been filed with the governing body of the local governmental unit and the governing body shall have adopted a resolution as provided in this section. The approval of the articles of incorporation of one corporation shall not preclude the approval by the governing body of the local governmental unit of the articles of incorporation of other corporations with names or designations sufficient to distinguish them from any corporation theretofore incorporated; provided that the governing body of the local governmental unit shall not permit the existence of more than one corporation created on its behalf which has the power to make or acquire home mortgages, or make loans to lending institutions, the proceeds of which will be used to make home mortgages or to make loans on residential developments.
B. Corporations acting on behalf of more than one local governmental unit may be created as set forth in this subsection. Not less than three residents of each local governmental unit on whose behalf the corporation is to be formed who are of the age of 18 years or more, and citizens of the state shall file with the governing body of each local governmental unit on whose behalf the corporation is to be formed (the sponsoring local governmental units) an application in writing seeking the incorporation of a joint housing finance corporation under the provisions of this Act.

If the governing body of each sponsoring local governmental unit shall by appropriate resolution duly adopted find and determine that it is wise, expedient, necessary, or advisable that the joint corporation be formed and shall approve the form of articles of incorporation proposed to be used in organizing the joint corporation, then articles of incorporation for the joint corporation may be filed as hereinafter provided. No joint corporation may be formed unless such application shall have first been filed with the governing body of each proposed sponsoring local governmental unit and the governing body of each such unit shall have adopted a resolution as provided in this subsection. The approval of the articles of incorporation of one joint corporation shall not preclude the approval by the governing body of the local governmental unit of the articles of incorporation of other corporations with names or designations sufficient to distinguish them from any corporation theretofore incorporated; provided, however, (without affecting the power of corporations heretofore created) a local governmental unit that creates a joint corporation may not thereafter create a corporation that has power to make home mortgages or make loans on residential developments.

Incorporators or directors of a joint corporation shall reside in one of the sponsoring local governmental units. Initial directors of a joint corporation shall be appointed by all sponsoring local governmental units. Succeeding directors appointed to the board shall be appointed by one or more of the sponsoring local governmental units as provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

All sponsoring local governmental units of a joint corporation shall be deemed to be one local governmental unit for purposes of this Act. When action of the governing body of a local governmental unit is required, this Act shall be construed to mean action by the governing body of each sponsoring local governmental unit of a joint corporation. A joint corporation shall have all powers granted to corporations pursuant to this Act. A joint corporation shall be deemed to be acting on behalf of all sponsoring local governmental units as provided in the articles of incorporation. Net earnings of a joint corporation and funds and properties of a joint corporation upon dissolution shall be disbursed to the sponsoring local governmental units as provided in the articles of incorporation. Joint corporations may not operate in more than one State planning region.

C. Unless the articles of incorporation provide that a change in the number of directors shall be made only by amendment to the articles of incorporation, a change in the number of directors made by amendment to the bylaws shall be controlling. In all other cases, whenever a provision of the articles of incorporation is inconsistent with a bylaw, the provision of the articles of incorporation shall be controlling.

B. The certificate of incorporation, together with the duplicate original of the articles of incorporation affixed thereto by the secretary of state, shall be delivered to the incorporators or their representatives.

C. Upon the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, the corporate existence shall begin, and such certificate of incorporation shall be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent required to be performed by the local governmental unit and the incorporators have been complied with, and that the corporation has been duly incorporated under this Act. The corporation shall constitute a public instrumentality and nonprofit corporation under the laws of the state. The corporation does not and will not constitute a political corporation or subdivision of the state, but the corporation is authorized to issue bonds and to carry out the public purposes for which it is incorporated on behalf of and for the benefit of the general public, the governmental unit, and the state.

Amendment of Articles of Incorporation—Articles of Amendment

Sec. 8. A. The articles of incorporation may at any time and from time to time be amended so as to make any changes therein and add any provisions thereto which might have been included in the articles of incorporation in the first instance. Any such amendment shall be effected in either of the following manners: (i) the members of the board of directors of the corporation shall file with the governing body of the local governmental unit an application in writing seeking permission to amend the articles of incorporation, specifying in such application the amendment proposed to be made, such governing body shall consider such application and, if it shall by appropriate resolution duly find and determine that it is wise, expedient, necessary, or advisable that the proposed amendment be made and shall authorize the same to be made, and shall approve the form of the proposed amendment, then the board of directors of the corporation may amend the articles of incorporation by adopting such amendment at a meeting of the board of directors and delivering articles of amendment to the secretary of state, or (ii) the governing body of the local governmental unit may, at its sole discretion, and at any time, alter or change the structure, organization, programs, or activities of the corporation (including the power to terminate the corporation) subject to any limitation on the impairment of contracts entered into by the corporation, by adopting an amendment to the articles of incorporation of the corporation at a meeting of the governing body of the local governmental unit and delivering articles of amendment to the secretary of state.

B. The articles of amendment shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or by a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, or by the local governmental unit by its presiding officer and secretary or clerk, shall be verified by one of the officers signing such articles, and shall set forth:

(1) the name of the corporation;

(2) if the amendment alters any provision of the original or amended articles of incorporation, an identification by reference or description of the altered provision and a statement of its text as it is amended to read. If the amendment is an addition to the original or amended articles of incorporation, a statement of that fact and the full text of each provision added;

(3) the date of the meeting of the board of directors, or of the governing body of the local governmental unit, at which the amendment was adopted, and such statement shall include a statement of the fact that such amendment received the vote of a majority of the directors, or of the members of the governing body of the local governmental unit, in office.

Filing of Articles of Amendment—Effect of Certificate of Amendment

Sec. 9. A. Duplicate originals of the articles of amendment shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of amendment conform to law, he shall, when a fee of $25 has been paid:

D. No amendment shall affect any existing cause of action in favor of or against the corporation, or any pending suit to which the corporation shall be a party, or the existing rights of persons other than members; and, in the event the corporate name shall be changed by amendment, no suit brought by or against the corporation under its former name shall abate for that reason.

Board of Directors

Sec. 10. The corporation shall have a board of directors in which all powers of the corporation shall be vested and which shall consist of any number of directors all of whom shall be residents of the local governmental unit. A director may be a member of the governing body, an officer, or an employee of the local governmental unit. The initial board of directors shall be named in the articles of incorporation approved by the local governmental unit and shall hold office for such period as may be specified in the articles of incorporation. Thereafter, directors shall be appointed by the governing body of the local governmental unit in the manner and for the terms provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. Directors may be divided into classes and the terms of office of the several classes need not be uniform. Each director shall hold office for the term for which he is elected or appointed and until his successor shall have been elected or appointed and qualified. A director may be removed from office pursuant to any procedure therefor provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled by appointment by the governing body of the local governmental unit in the manner provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. A majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum, and when a quorum is present action may be taken by a majority vote of the directors present. Meetings of the board of directors, regular or special, may be held within or without the state. Regular meetings may be held with or without notice as prescribed in the bylaws. Special meetings shall be held upon such notice as is prescribed in the bylaws. The officers of the corporation shall consist of a president, one or more vice-presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers and assistant officers as may be deemed necessary, each of whom shall be elected or appointed at such times and in such manner and for such terms as may be prescribed in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

Organization Meeting

Sec. 11. After the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, an organization meeting of the board of directors named in the articles of incorporation shall be held, either within or without this state, at the call of a majority of the incorporators, for the purpose of adopting bylaws, electing officers, and for such other purposes as may come before the meeting. The incorporators calling the meeting shall give at least three days' notice thereof by mail to each director named in the articles of incorporation, which notice shall state the time and place of the meeting.

Registered Office and Registered Agent

Sec. 12. The corporation shall maintain a registered office and registered agent in accordance with the provisions of Article 2.05, Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act. The corporation may change its registered office and registered agent in accordance with the provisions of Article 2.06, Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act. Process may be served on the corporation in accordance with the provisions of Article 2.07, Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act.

(20) to rent, lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of any residential development or home mortgages, in whole or in part, or to loan sufficient funds to any person to defray, in whole or in part, the development costs of any residential development or the costs of purchasing home mortgages, so that the rents or other revenues to be derived with respect to the residential development or home mortgages, together with any insurance proceeds, reserve accounts and earnings thereon shall be designed to produce revenues and receipts at least sufficient to provide for the prompt payment at maturity of principal, interest, and redemption premiums, if any, upon all bonds issued to finance such costs;

(27) whether included in the foregoing or not, to have and exercise all powers necessary or appropriate to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized.

Sec. 14. The exercise of any or all powers granted by this Act may be authorized and the bonds may be authorized to be issued under this Act for the purposes set forth in this Act, by resolution of the board of directors of the corporation, which shall take effect immediately upon adoption. The bonds shall bear interest at such rate or rates as authorized by the provisions of Chapter 3, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969, as amended (Article 717k–2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), may be payable at such times, may be in one or more series, may bear such date or dates, may mature at such time or times, may be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, may carry such registration privileges, may be subject to such terms of redemption at such premiums, may be executed in such manner, may contain such terms, covenants, and conditions, and may be in such form, either coupon or registered, as such resolution may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale in such manner and upon such terms as may be provided in such resolution. Pending the preparation of definitive bonds, interim receipts, or certificates in such form and with such provisions as may be provided in such resolution, may be issued to the purchaser or purchasers of bonds sold pursuant to this Act.

Covenants in Bonds

Sec. 15. Any resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds under this Act may contain covenants as to (a) the use and disposition of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues and receipts from any residential development or home mortgages for which the bonds are to be issued, including the creation and maintenance of reserves; (b) the issuance of other or additional bonds relating to any residential development or any rehabilitation, improvements, renovations, enlargements, or additions thereto; (c) the maintenance and repair of such residential development or any homes; (d) the insurance to be carried on any residential development, home, home mortgage, or bonds and the use and disposition of insurance moneys; (e) the appointment of one or more banks or trust companies within or outside the State of Texas, having the necessary trust powers, as trustee and/or custodian for the benefit of the bondholders, paying agent, or bond registrar; (f) the appointment of one or more mortgage bankers to provide requisite administrative and mortgage servicing functions to assure the proper administration, for the benefit of the bondholders, of the corporation's portfolio of home mortgage loans; (g) the investment of any funds held by such trustee or custodian; (h) the maximum interest rate payable on any home mortgage; and (i) the terms and conditions upon which the holders of the bonds or any portion thereof or any trustees therefor, are entitled to the appointment of a receiver by a court of competent jurisdiction, and said terms and conditions may provide that the receiver may enter and take possession of the residential development or home mortgages, or any part thereto, and maintain, lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of such development or mortgages, prescribe rentals or other payments, and collect, receive, and apply all income and revenues thereafter arising therefrom. Any resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds under this Act may provide that the principal of and interest on any bonds issued under this Act shall be secured by a mortgage, pledge, security interest, insurance agreement, or indenture of trust covering such residential development or home mortgages for which the bonds are issued and may include any improvements or extensions thereafter made. Such mortgage, pledge, security interest, insurance agreement, or indenture of trust may contain such covenants and agreements to properly safeguard the bonds as may be provided for in the resolution authorizing such bonds and shall be executed in the manner as may be provided for in the resolution. The provisions of this Act and any such resolution and any such mortgage, pledge, security interest, or indenture of trust shall constitute a contract with the holder or holders of the bonds and continue in effect until the principal of, the interest on, and the redemption premiums, if any, on the bonds so issued have been fully paid or provision made therefor, and the duties of the corporation and its corporate authorities and officers under this Act and any such resolution and any such mortgage, pledge, security interest, or indenture of trust shall be enforceable as provided therein by any bondholder by mandamus, foreclosure of any such mortgage, pledge, security interest, or indenture of trust or other appropriate suit, action, or proceeding in any court of competent jurisdiction; provided the resolution or any mortgage, pledge, security interest, or indenture of trust under which the bonds are issued may provide that all such remedies and rights to enforcement may be vested in a trustee (with full power of appointment) for the benefit of all the bondholders, which trustee shall be subject to the control of such number of holders or owners of any outstanding bonds as provided therein.

Signature of Officers on Bonds—Validity of Bonds

Sec. 16. The bonds shall bear the manual or facsimile signatures of such officers of the corporation as may be designated in the resolution authorizing such bonds, and such signatures shall be the valid and binding signatures of the officer of the corporation, notwithstanding that before the delivery thereof and payment therefor any or all of the persons whose signatures appear thereon have ceased to be officers of the corporation issuing such bonds. The validity of the bonds is not dependent on nor affected by the validity or regularity of any proceedings relating to the residential development or home mortgages for which the bonds are issued. The resolution authorizing the bonds may provide that the bonds shall contain a recital that they are issued pursuant to this Act, which recital shall be conclusive evidence of their validity and of the regularity of their issuance.

Lien of Bonds

Sec. 17. Bonds issued under this Act may be secured by a pledge of or lien upon all or any part of the revenues, receipts, or resources of the corporation, including the revenues and receipts derived from the residential development or home mortgages or from any notes or other obligations of lending institutions with respect to which the bonds have been issued, and the board of directors may provide in the resolution authorizing such bonds for the issuance of additional bonds to be equally and ratably secured by a lien upon such revenues and receipts or may provide that the lien upon such revenues and receipts is subordinate. Subordinate lien bonds also may be issued unless prohibited in any bond resolution.

Liability for Bonds

Sec. 18. All bonds issued under and pursuant to this Act shall be limited obligations of the corporation payable solely out of the revenues, receipts, and resources pledged to their payment. No holder of any bonds issued under this Act has the right to compel the local governmental unit to pay the bonds, the interest or redemption premium, if any, thereon, and the bonds shall not constitute an indebtedness or obligation of the local governmental unit or any other county, city, or other municipal or political corporation or subdivision of the state or of the state, or a loan of credit of any of them, within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision, nor shall the bonds be construed to create any moral obligation on the part of the local governmental unit or any other county, city, or other municipal or political corporation or subdivision of the state or of the state, with respect to the payment of such bonds, and all such entities are hereby prohibited from making any payments with respect to said bonds. It shall be plainly stated on the face of each bond that it has been issued under the provisions of this Act and that it does not constitute an indebtedness or obligation of the local governmental unit or any other county, city, or other municipal or political corporation or subdivision of the state or of the state, or a loan of credit of any of them, within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provisions.

Investment of Funds

Sec. 19. The corporation, or any trustee or custodian or, on behalf of the corporation, may invest any funds held by it as provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

Exception from Construction and Bidding Requirements for Public Buildings

Sec. 20. The acquisition, construction, or rehabilitation of a private residential development or a home shall not be subject to any requirements relating to public buildings, structures, grounds, works, or improvements imposed by the laws of the State of Texas or any other similar requirements, and any requirement of competitive bidding or restriction imposed on the procedure for award of contracts for such purpose or the lease, sale, or other disposition of property of the local governmental unit is not applicable to any action taken under authority of this Act.

Exemption from Taxation

Sec. 21. It is hereby determined that the creation of the corporation is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state, for the improvement of their health and welfare, and for the promotion of the economy, and that said purposes are public purposes and the corporation, being a public instrumentality and nonprofit corporation, will be performing an essential governmental function on behalf of and for the benefit of the general public, the local governmental unit, and the state. Accordingly, the corporation and all properties at any time owned by it and the income therefrom and all bonds issued by it, and their transfer, and the income therefrom shall be exempt from the franchise tax, license and recording fees, and all other taxes imposed by the State of Texas or any political subdivision thereof as public property used for public purposes. However, a corporation is exempt from the franchise tax imposed by Chapter 171, Tax Code, only if the corporation is exempted by that chapter.

Bonds and Coupons are Securities

Sec. 22. Bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, and coupons, if any, representing interest thereon, shall when delivered be deemed and construed to be a "security" within the meaning of Chapter 8, Investment Securities, of the Uniform Commercial Code, as amended (Chapter 8, Title 1, Business & Commerce Code), and shall be exempt securities under the Texas Securities Act, as amended (Article 581-1 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). No contract under this Act shall be a security within the meaning of the Texas Securities Act.

Bonds are Legal and Authorized Investments and Security

Sec. 23. Bonds issued under the provisions of this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for any banks; savings banks; trust companies; building and loan associations; insurance companies; fiduciaries; trustees and guardians; and sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and they shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits at their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons, if any, appurtenant thereto.

Nonliability of Local Governmental Unit and the State

Sec. 24. The local governmental unit and the state shall not in any event be liable in any manner for or with respect to the bonds of the corporation, and none of the corporation's agreements or obligations shall be construed to constitute an agreement, obligation, or indebtedness of the local governmental unit or the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision whatsoever.

Nonprofit Corporation—Disposition of Earnings

Sec. 25. The corporation shall be a public nonprofit corporation. No dividends shall ever be paid, and no part of the net earnings of the corporation shall be distributed to, or enure to the benefit of, its directors or officers, or other private person, association, or corporation, except in reasonable amounts for services rendered, and except that in the event the board of directors of the corporation shall determine that sufficient provision has been made for the full payment of the expenses, bonds, and other obligations of the corporation, then any net earnings of the corporation thereafter accruing shall be paid to the local governmental unit on behalf of which the corporation was organized; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the board of directors from transferring all or any part of its properties in accordance with the terms of any contract or agreement entered into by the corporation.

Books and Records

Sec. 26. The corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall keep minutes of proceedings of its board of directors.

Completion of Corporate Purpose—Dissolution

Sec. 27. The temporary performance of the duties of any such position by a person who has not been promoted in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall never be construed to promote such person. Sec. 14. The Commission shall make rules and regulations governing promotions and shall hold promotional examinations to provide eligibility lists for each classification in the Police and Fire Departments, which examinations shall be held substantially under the following requirements:

A. (1) All promotional examinations shall be open to all policemen who have held a continuous position for two (2) years or more immediately prior to the examination in the classification immediately below in salary of that classification for which the examination is to be held. In police departments that have adopted a classification plan that classifies positions on the basis of similarity in duties and responsibilities, all promotional examinations shall be open to a policeman who has held a continuous position for two (2) years or more immediately prior to the examination in the classification immediately below in salary to that for which the examination is to be held. In fire departments that have adopted a classification plan that classifies positions on the basis of similarity in duties and responsibilities, all promotional examinations shall be open to a fireman who has held a continuous position for two (2) years or more immediately prior to the examination in the classification immediately below in salary to that for which the examination is to be held.

(2) All promotional examinations shall be open to all firemen who have ever held a continuous position for two (2) years or more in the classification immediately below in salary of that classification for which the examination is to be held. In fire departments that have adopted a classification plan that classifies positions on the basis of similarity in duties and responsibilities, all promotional examinations shall be open to a fireman who has ever held a continuous position for two (2) years or more at the next lower paygrade, if it exists, in the classification for which the promotional examination is being offered. This section shall be construed so as to allow the lateral crossover between classes. When there is not a sufficient number of members in the next lower position with two (2) years service in that position to provide an adequate number of persons to take the examination, the Commission may extend the examination to the members in the second lower position in salary to that for which the examination is to be held.

A. (1) All promotional examinations shall be open to all policemen who have held a continuous position for two (2) years or more immediately prior to the examination in the classification immediately below, in salary, that classification for which the examination is to be held. In police departments that have adopted a classification plan that classifies positions on the basis of similarity in duties and responsibilities, all promotional examinations shall be open to a policeman who has held a continuous position for two (2) years or more immediately prior to the examination at the next lower paygrade, if it exists, in the classification for which the promotional examination is being offered. When there is not a sufficient number of members in the next lower position with two (2) years' service in that position to provide an adequate number of persons to take the examination, the Commission shall open the examination to members in that position with less than two (2) years' service. If there is still an insufficient number, the Commission may extend the examination to members in the second lower position in salary to that for which the examination is to be held.

(2) All promotional examinations shall be open to all firemen who have ever held a continuous position for two (2) years or more in the classification immediately below, in salary, that classification for which the examination is being held. In fire departments that have adopted a classification plan that classifies positions on the basis of similarity in duties and responsibilities, all promotional examinations shall be open to a fireman who has ever held a continuous position for two (2) years or more at the next lower paygrade, if it exists, in the class for which the promotional examination is being offered. This section may not be construed to prohibit lateral crossover between classes. If there are not enough members in the next lower position with two (2) years' service in that position to provide an adequate number of persons to take the examination, the Commission may open the examination to members in that position with less than two (2) years' service. If there is still an insufficient number, the Commission may extend the examination to the members in the second lower position in salary to that for which the examination is to be held with two (2) years' service in that position.

B. Each fireman shall be given one (1) point for each year of seniority in his Department, but never to exceed ten (10) points. Each policeman shall be given one (1) point for each year of seniority as a classified police officer in his Department, but never to exceed ten (10) points.

C. The Commission may formulate proper procedures and rules for semi-annual efficiency reports and grade of each member of the Police or Fire Departments. If the Commission compiles efficiency reports for members of the Police or Fire Department, the Commission shall provide a copy of a member's efficiency report to the member. Any fireman or policeman may, within ten (10) days after receiving his efficiency report, make a statement in writing about the efficiency report. The statement shall be placed in his personnel file with the efficiency report.

D. (1)(a) All applicants shall be given an identical examination in the presence of each other, which promotional examination shall be entirely in writing and no part of which shall be by oral interview, and all of the questions asked therein shall be prepared and composed in such a manner that the grading of the examination papers can be promptly completed immediately after the holding of the examination and shall be prepared so as to test the knowledge of the applicants concerning information and facts, and all of said questions shall be based upon material which is a reasonably current publication and has been made reasonably available to all members of the Fire or Police Department involved and shall be based upon the duties of the position sought and upon any study courses given by such Departmental Schools of Instruction. All promotional examination questions must be taken from sources that are listed in a notice that is posted by the Commission at least thirty (30) days before the date of the examination. Firemen or policemen may suggest source materials for promotional examinations. The notice required by Section 13 of this Act may include the name of each source used and the number of questions taken from each source. The Commission may include the chapter of each source. When one of the applicants taking an examination for promotion has completed his answers, the grading of such examination shall begin, and all of the examination papers shall be graded as they are completed, at the place where the examination is given and in the presence of any applicants who wish to remain during the grading.

(b) The Director is responsible for the preparation and security of all promotional examinations. The fairness of the competitive promotional examinations is the responsibility of the Commission, the Director, and any municipal employee involved in the preparation or administration of the examination. A person who knowingly or intentionally reveals any part of a promotional examination to an unauthorized person or a person who knowingly or intentionally receives from an unauthorized person any part of a promotional examination commits a misdeemeanor and shall be fined not less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) or imprisoned for not more than one (1) year in the county jail or both.

(2) The grade which shall be placed on the eligibility list for each policeman applicant shall be computed by adding such policeman applicant's points for seniority to his grade on such written examination.
Grades on such written examinations shall be based upon a maximum grade of one hundred (100) points and shall be determined entirely by the correctness of each applicant's answers to such questions. The minimum passing score for the written examination is seventy (70) points.

(3) The grade which shall be placed on the eligibility list for each fireman applicant shall be computed by adding the fireman applicant's points for seniority to his grade on the written examination. Grades on the written examination shall be based on a maximum grade of one hundred (100) points and shall be determined entirely by the correctness of each fireman applicant's answers to the questions.
The minimum passing score for the written examination is seventy (70) points.

(4) Each applicant shall have the opportunity to examine the source materials, his examination, and his answers thereto together with the grading thereof and if dissatisfaction shall, within five (5) working days, appeal the same to the Commission for review in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(5) No policeman shall be eligible for promotion unless he has served in such Department for at least two (2) years at any time prior to the day of such promotion examination in the next lower position or other positions specified by the Commission, and no person with less than four (4) years' actual service in such Department shall be eligible for promotion to the rank of captain or its equivalent. No policeman shall be eligible for promotion unless the policeman has served in the Department for at least two (2) years immediately preceding the date of the promotional examination in the next lower position or other positions specified by the Commission, and
no person with less than four (4) years' actual service in the Department shall be eligible for promotion to the rank of captain or its equivalent. Provided, however, that the requirement of two (2) years' service in the Fire Department at any time prior to the day of promotional examination shall not be applicable to those persons recalled on active miliitary duty for a period not to exceed twenty-four (24) months. The Police Department's requirement of two (2) years' service immediately preceding the date of the promotional examination does not apply to persons recalled to active military duty for a period not to exceed twenty-four (24) months. Such persons shall be entitled to have time spent on active military duty considered as duty in the Department concerned. However, any person whose absence for active military duty exceeds twelve (12) months, shall be required to serve ninety (90) days upon returning to the Department before he shall become eligible to participate in a promotional examination, such period of time to be considered essential for bringing him up to date on equipment and techniques.

(6) No person shall be eligible for appointment as Chief or Head of the Fire Department of any city coming under the provisions of this Act who is not eligible for certification by the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education at the intermediate level or its equivalent as deter-dined by that Commission and who has not served at least five (5) years as a fully paid fireman. No person may be eligible for appointment as Chief or Head of the Police Department who is not eligible for certification by the Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education at the intermEDIATE level or its equivalent as determined by that Commission and who has not served as a bona fide law enforcement officer for five (5) years.

E. (1) Upon written request by the Heads of the Departments for a person to fill a vacancy in any classification, the Commission shall certify to the Head of the Department the three (3) names having the highest grades on such eligibility list for such classification for the vacancy requested to be filled.
If fewer than three (3) names remain on the eligibility list, all the names must be submitted to the Head of the Department, and the Head of such Department shall appoint the person having the highest grade, except where such Head of the Department shall have a valid reason for not appointing such highest name, and in such cases he shall, before such appointment, file his reasons in writing, for rejection of the higher name or names, with the Commission, which reasons shall be valid and subject to review by the Commission upon the application of such rejected person.

(2) The name of each person on the eligibility lists shall be submitted to the Head of the Department three (3) times; and if passed over three (3) times with written reasons filed thereafter and not set aside by the Commission, he shall thereafter be dropped from the eligibility list. All promotional eligibility lists shall remain in existence for one (1) year unless exhausted, and at the expiration of one
(1) year they shall expire and new examinations may be given.

F. The Commission shall proceed to hold examinations to create eligibility lists within ninety (90) days after a vacancy in any classification occurs, or new positions are created, unless an eligibility list is in existence. If an eligibility list exists, the Com-mision shall certify within ten (10) days after notification of the vacancy to the Head of the Department the names of persons eligible to fill all promotional positions. The certified names must come from the eligibility list which exists on the date the vacancy occurs.

G. In the event any new classification is established either by name or by increase of salary, the same shall be filled by competitive examination in accordance with this law.

Crossover Promotions

Sec. 14A. (a) In any city in this state having a population of 1,200,000 or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census, all members of the police department, who shall be employed by such department with duties in a specialized technical area, to wit: (1) technical class, which includes but is not limited to criminal laboratory analysis and interpretations, and the technical criminal aspects of identification and photography, or (2) communications class, which includes but is not limited to the technical operations of police radio communications, shall be eligible for promotions within their respective classes.

(b) In no event shall the members of the technical class, communications class, or uniformed and detective class be eligible for promotion to a position outside of their respective class. This section shall be construed so as to preclude the lateral crossover by promotion of members of the technical and communications classes into the uniformed and detective class of the department; also to preclude the lateral crossover by promotion of members of the uniformed and detective class into the technical and communications classes of the department. In the event a member of one class desires to change classes, such may be accomplished upon qualification and only by entry into the new class at the lowest entry level of that class.

(c) This section shall not operate so as to prevent the chief of police, assistant chiefs of police, and deputy chiefs of police or their equivalent, by whatever name or title they may be called, from exercising the full sanctions, powers, duties, and authority of their respective offices in the supervision, management, and control over the uniformed and detective class, technical class, and communications class.

(d) All provisions of this article regarding eligibility lists, examinations, appointments, and promotions shall apply to members of the technical class and communications class, uniform class and detective class. However, said provisions shall apply only to the appointment and promotion of a member of a particular class to a new position within such class.

Purpose of Law; Hearings

Sec. 18a. It is hereby declared that the purpose of the Firemen and Policemen's Civil Service Law is to secure to the cities affected thereby efficient Police and Fire Departments, composed of capable personnel, free from political influence, and with permanent tenure of employment as public servants.

The members of the Civil Service Commissions are hereby directed to administer the civil service law in accordance with this purpose; and when sitting as a board of appeals for a suspended or aggrieved employee who has invoked any review procedures under the provisions of this Act, they are to conduct such hearing fairly and impartially under the provisions of this law and are to render a fair and just decision, considering only the evidence presented before them in such hearing.

Procedure before Commission

Sec. 17. In order for a Fireman or Policeman to appeal to the Commission from any action for which an appeal or review is provided under the terms of this Act, it shall only be necessary for him to file within ten (10) days with the Commission an appeal setting forth the basis of his appeal. The appeal shall include a statement denying the truth of the charge as made, a statement taking exception to the legal sufficiency of such charges, a statement alleging that the recommended action does not fit the offense or alleged offense, or any combination of the statements, and in addition, a request for a hearing by the Commission. In all hearings, appeals, and reviews of every kind and character, wherein the Commission is performing an adjudicatory function, the employee shall have the right to be represented by counsel or any person of his choice. The employee may request the Commission to subpoena any books, records, documents, papers, accounts, or witnesses that the employee considers pertinent to his case. The request to have materials subpoenaed must be made at least ten (10) days before the date of the hearing. If the Commission does not subpoena the requested material, at least three (3) days prior to the hearing date, it shall make a written report to the employee stating the reason it will not subpoena the requested material, and this report shall be read into the public records of the Commission hearing. The witnesses may be placed under the rule. All such proceedings shall be public. The Commission shall consider only evidence submitted at the hearing. The Commission shall have the authority to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum for the attendance of witnesses and for the production of documentary material. The Commission shall maintain a permanent public record of all proceedings with copies available at cost.

Appeal to District Court

Sec. 18. In the event any Fireman or Policeman is dissatisfied with any decision of the Commission, he may, within ten (10) days after the rendition of such final decision, file a petition in the District Court, asking that the decision be set aside, and such case shall be tried de novo. The court in such actions may grant such legal or equitable relief as may be appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this Act, including reinstatement or promotion with back pay where an order of suspension, dismissal, or demotion is set aside. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party and assess court costs against the nonprevailing party. If the court finds for the fireman or policeman, the court shall order the city to pay lost wages to the fireman or policeman.

Disciplinary Suspensions

Sec. 20. The head of either the Fire or Police Department shall have the power to suspend any officer or employee under his jurisdiction or supervision for disciplinary purposes, for reasonable periods, not to exceed fifteen (15) days; provided, that in every such case, the department head shall file with the Commission within one hundred and twenty (120) hours, a written statement of action, and the Commission shall, upon appeal from the suspended officer or employee, hold a public hearing under Section 17 of this Act. The Commission shall determine whether just cause exists therefor. In the event the department head fails to file said statement with the Commission within one hundred and twenty (120) hours, the suspension shall be void and the employee shall be entitled to his full salary. The Commission shall have the power to reverse the decision of the department head and to instruct him immediately to restore such employee to his position and to repay the employee for any lost wages. If the Commission finds that the period of disciplinary suspension should be reduced, it may order a reduction in the period of suspension. In the event such department head refuses to obey the order of the Commission, then the provisions with reference to salaries of the employees and to the discharge of the department head as well as the other provisions of Section 16, pertaining to such refusal of the department head, shall apply.

Military Leave of Absence

Sec. 22a. The Civil Service Commission on written application of a member of the fire or police department shall grant military leave of absence without pay to such member to enable him to enter military service of the United States in any of its branches. Such leave of absence may not exceed the compulsory military service or the basic minimum enlistment period for that branch of service. The Commission shall grant a leave of absence to a member of the fire or police department for initial training or annual duty in military reserves or the national guard. The Civil Service Commission shall grant such leave retroactively back to the commencement of the Korean War. Any such member receiving military leave of absence hereunder shall be entitled to be returned to the position in the department held by him at the time the leave of absence is granted, upon the termination of his active military service, provided he receives an Honorable Discharge and remains physically and mental-that the illness was incurred while in performance of his duties, an extension of sick leave in case of exhaustion of time shall be granted.

In the event that a Fireman or Policeman for any reason leaves the classified service, he shall receive, in a lump sum payment, the full amount of his salary for the period of his accumulated sick leave, provided that if the Fireman or Policeman has more than ninety (90) working days of accumulated sick leave, the employer may limit the payment to that sum equal to the sum that the employee would have been paid had he been allowed to use the ninety (90) days of accumulated sick leave during the last six (6) months of employment. Provided, however, that such payments shall not be based upon more than ninety (90) working days of accumulated sick leave. The lump-sum payment provided in this section is calculated as follows: the employee is compensated for the accumulated time at the highest permanent classification of pay for which the employee was eligible during the last six (6) months of employment. The employee is paid for the same period of time the employee would have been paid if the sick leave had been taken but excluding additional holidays and any sick leave or vacation time which the employee might have accrued during the ninety (90) working days.

If an active Fireman or Policeman dies as a result of a line of duty injury or line of duty illness, the entire amount of his accumulated sick leave shall be paid as provided in this section. Provided, that in order to facilitate the settlement of the accounts of deceased employees of the Fire or Police Departments, all unpaid compensation due such employee at the time of his death shall be paid to the person or persons surviving at the date of death, in the following order or precedence and such payments shall be a bar to recovery by any other person of amounts so paid.

First, to the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the employee in writing to receive such compensation filed with the Civil Service Commission prior to the employee's death;
Second, if there be no such beneficiary, to the widow or widower of such employee;
Third, if there be no such beneficiary or surviving spouse, to the child or children of such employee, and descendants of deceased children, by representation;
Fourth, if none of the above, to the parents of such employee, or the survivor of them;
Fifth, if there be none of the above, to the duly appointed legal representative of the estate of the deceased employee, or if there be none, to the person or persons determined to be entitled thereto under the laws of descent and distribution of the State of Texas.

Provided that all such cities coming under the provisions of this Act shall provide injury leaves of absence and line of duty illness leaves of absence for Firemen and Policemen with full pay for periods of time commensurate with the nature of the line of duty illness or injuries for at least one (1) year. At the expiration of said one-year period, the City Council or governing body may extend such line of duty illness or injury leave, at full or reduced pay, provided that in cities that have a Firemen's or Policemen's Pension Fund, that if said injured employee's salary should be reduced below sixty per cent (60%) of his regular monthly salary, said employee shall have the option of being retired on pension until able to return to duty.

If there are no pension benefits available to an employee who is temporarily disabled by a line of duty injury or illness and the year at full pay and any extensions which may have been granted by the employer have expired, the employee may use accumulated sick leave, vacation time, and other accrued benefits before being temporarily placed on leave.

If an employee is temporarily disabled by an injury or illness not related to the employee's line of duty, the employee may use all sick leave, vacation time, and any other time the employee may have accumulated before being placed on temporary leave.

After recovery from a temporary disability, a Fireman or Policeman shall be reinstated at the same rank and with the same seniority the person had before going on temporary leave. Another Fireman or Policeman may voluntarily do the work of an injured or ill Fireman or Policeman until the Fireman or Policeman returns to duty.

(a) In any city in this State having a population of one million, two hundred thousand (1,200,000) or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census, a fireman or policeman who leaves the classified service for any reason or the beneficiaries of any fireman or policeman who loses his life as a result of a line of duty injury or illness shall receive in a lump sum payment the full amount of his salary for the period of his accumulated sick leave. Sick leave shall be accumulated without limit.

(b) In any city in this State having a population of six hundred and fifty thousand (650,000) or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census, a fireman or policeman who leaves the classified service for any reason shall receive in a lump sum payment the full amount of his salary for the period of his accumulated vacation leave, provided that such payment shall be based upon not more than sixty (60) working days of accumulated vacation leave. Any fireman or policeman who leaves the classified service or loses his life as the result of a line of duty injury or illness or the beneficiaries of such fireman or policeman shall be paid the full amount of his salary for the total number of his working days of accumulated vacation leave.

Upon receiving a petition signed by qualified voters in said city in number not less that ten per cent (10%) of the total number voting in the last preceding municipal election, the governing body of said city shall call and hold an election within sixty (60) days after said petition has been filed with governing body. If at said election a majority of the votes cast shall favor the adoption of this Act, said governing body shall put such Act into effect within thirty (30) days after the beginning of the first fiscal year of said city after said election. The question shall be submitted for the vote of the qualified electors as follows:

This Act may be adopted to apply only to a Fire Department or a Police Department. If the Act, as adopted, is to be limited to one or the other department, the ballot question shall be printed to reflect which department will be covered by this Act.

It shall be unlawful for any city having more than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, to require any policeman to work more hours during any calendar week than the number of hours in the normal work week of the majority of the employees of said city other than firemen and policemen.

Provided, however, that in any such city having more than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, in the event of an emergency, policemen may be required to work more than the number of hours in the normal work week of the majority of other city employees; and in the event policemen are ordered to work a greater number of hours than the number of hours in such normal work week of other city employees, such policemen shall be compensated for any such overtime at a rate equal to one and one-half times the compensation paid to such policemen for regular hours unless a policeman decides, with the approval of the city governing body, to accept compensatory time equal to one and one-half times the number of overtime hours.

Provided, further that in cases where a majority of policemen working for a city sign a written waiver of the prohibition against cities requiring any policeman to work more hours during any calendar week than the number of hours in the normal work week of the majority of the employees of said city other than firemen and policemen, a city may adopt a work schedule for policemen requiring any policeman to work more hours than the number of hours in the normal work week of the majority of the employees of said city other than firemen and policemen, so long as no policeman works more hours during any calendar month than the number of hours in the normal work month of the majority of the employees of said city other than firemen and policemen without overtime pay. Funds Covered by Act

Sec. 2. (a) This Act applies to any funds in the custody or control of a county or precinct officer, including a court, that a person is entitled to receive on demand. That a court must enter an order directing that the funds be paid or that an officer must perform a ministerial act for them to be paid does not remove the funds from the coverage of this Act.

(b) This Act does not apply to a claim, the validity of which is unquestioned, if there is a controversy regarding the amount of funds a person is entitled to receive.

Notice

Sec. 3. (a) If a county or precinct officer has custody or control of funds covered by this Act, he has no knowledge of any controversy about who is entitled to receive the funds, and the person entitled to receive them does not claim them within one year after becoming entitled to them, the officer shall give the person a written notice stating:

(1) that the officer holds funds belonging to the person;

(2) the amount of the funds; and

(3) that the funds will become subject to escheat to the county if the person does not claim them within the time prescribed by law.

(b) Except as provided by Subsection (d) of this section, the officer shall send the notice to the person at the person’s last known address by certified mail, delivery restricted to addressee. If no address is available or if the letter is returned undelivered, the officer shall publish the notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week for at least two consecutive weeks.

(c) The cost of postage, if notice is given by mail, and the cost of newspaper publication, if notice by publication is required, shall be deducted from the funds to which the notice applies. If notice by publication is given for more than one item of funds in a single advertisement, an equal share of the cost of the advertisement shall be paid from each item of funds.

(d) If the cost that would be assessable for giving notice equals or exceeds the funds to which the notice applies, notice shall be given by posting it at the courthouse at or near the place where notices of meetings of public bodies are posted. The notice must remain posted for at least 14 consecutive days.

Petition for Escheat

Sec. 4. (a) If funds are not claimed within four years after notice is given, they are subject to escheat to the county served by the county or precinct officer having custody or control of the funds.

(b) When funds become subject to escheat to the county, the county attorney, or the criminal district attorney in a county without a county attorney, shall file a sworn petition in the district court stating the amount of the unclaimed funds, the name of the person entitled to receive them, and the facts or circumstances causing the funds to be subject to escheat. The petition shall request that the funds be escheated to the county and that a writ of possession for the funds be issued in behalf of the county.

Citation

Sec. 5. Citation is issued and served in the manner provided by law for civil suits generally.

Citation by Publication

Sec. 6. Citation in each case shall also be issued by publication, in the manner provided by law for other civil suits. The citation shall direct any person who may have a claim for the funds to appear and answer. The citation shall contain a brief statement of the contents of the petition.

Appearance by Claimants

Sec. 7. The defendant and any other person claiming an interest in the funds may appear and plead to the proceedings.

A writ of possession shall issue in the manner applicable to other judgments for the recovery of personal property. The writ of possession shall specify the exact amount of the unclaimed funds in the custody or control of the county or precinct officer.

Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1278, ch. 500, classified as art. 1666b, and providing for a budget officer in certain counties over 1,200,000, provides in § 12 that to the extent that any provisions of the Act conflict with provisions in this article, such provisions in this article are repealed to the extent of the conflict.

Art. 1666b. Budget Officer in Certain Counties Over 1,200,000

Authorization to Appoint

Sec. 1. In the preparation of the county budget, the commissioners court in counties having a population in excess of 1,200,000, as shown by the last preceding United States Census, may appoint a budget officer to prepare a county budget for the current fiscal and calendar year.

Abolition of Office

Sec. 2. A county which has established an office of county budget officer may abolish such office only by formal action of the commissioners court taken after February 1 and before June 1, at which time the county auditor shall assume all lawful responsibilities as the chief budget officer of the county.

Preparation of Budget

Sec. 3. Such budget shall be carefully itemized so as to make possible as clear a comparison as practicable between expenditures included in the proposed budget and actual expenditures for the same or similar purposes for the preceding year.
The budget shall be so prepared as to show with reasonable accuracy each of the various projects for which appropriations are set up in the budget and the estimated amount of money carried in the budget for each of such projects.

Contents of Budget

Sec. 4. The county budget officer shall obtain from the county auditor the necessary information so that the budget will contain a complete financial statement of the county showing all outstanding obligations of the county, the cash on hand to the credit of every and each fund of the county government, the funds received from all sources during the previous year, the funds and revenue estimated by the auditor to be received from all sources during the previous year, the funds and revenue estimated by the auditor to be received from all sources during the ensuing year, together with a statement of all accounts and contracts on which sums are due to or by the county as of December 31 of the year preceding, except taxes and court costs.

Limitation on Payments; Budget Available for Public Inspection

Sec. 5. Until a budget has been adopted by the commissioners court, no payments shall be made during the current year except for emergencies and for obligations legally incurred prior to January 1 of such year for salaries, utilities, materials, and supplies. A copy of the budget shall be filed with the clerk of the county court and the county auditor, and it shall be available for inspection to the public.

Public Hearings; Changes in Budget

Sec. 6. The commissioners court in each county shall provide for a public hearing on the county budget, which hearing shall take place on some date to be named by the commissioners court within seven calendar days after the filing of the budget and prior to January 31 of the current year. Public notice shall be given that on the date of said hearing the budget as prepared by the county budget officer will be considered by the commissioners court. Said notice shall name the hour, the date, and the place the hearing shall be conducted and shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in said county. Any taxpayer of such county shall have the right to be present and participate in said hearing. At the conclusion of the hearing, the budget as prepared by the county budget officer shall be acted upon by the commissioners court. The court shall have authority to make such changes in the budget as in its judgment the facts and the law warrant and the interest of the taxpayers demand, provided the amounts budgeted for current expenditures from the various funds of the county shall not exceed the balances in said funds as of January 1, plus the anticipated revenue for the current year for which the budget is made as estimated by the county auditor.

Filing of Budget Upon Final Approval

Sec. 7. Upon final approval of the budget by the commissioners court, a copy of such budget as approved shall be filed with the county auditor, the clerk of the court, and the state auditor, and no expenditures of the funds of the county shall thereafter be made except in strict compliance with said budget. Said court may upon proper application transfer an existing budget surplus during the year to a budget of like kind and fund, but no such transfer shall increase the total of the budget.

Obtaining Necessary Information

Sec. 8. In the preparation and/or monitoring of the budget, the county budget officer shall have authority to require of the county auditor or any district, county, or precinct officer of the county such information as may be necessary to properly prepare and/or monitor the budget.

Art. 1729. Writ of Error or Certificate

All causes mentioned in the preceding article may be carried to the Supreme Court either by writ of error or by certificate from the Court of Appeals, but the Court of Appeals may certify any question of law arising in any such case at any time they may choose, whether before or after the decision of the case in said Court.

Art. 1813. Election and Term of Office; Special Commissioner Appointed When Justice Disabled or Called into Active Military Service

Upon their qualification, after the first election after the creation of any Court of Appeals, the Justices shall draw lots for the terms of office; those drawing number one (1) shall hold for the term of two (2) years; those drawing number two (2) shall hold for a term of four (4) years; and those drawing number three (3) shall hold office for six (6) years. Each of said offices shall be filled by election at the next general election before the respective terms expire; and the person elected shall thereafter hold his office for six (6) years.

(b) After any Justice of any Court of Appeals has become totally disabled to discharge any of the duties of his office, by reason of illness, physical or mental, and has remained in such condition continuously for a period of not less than one (1) year, and if it is probable that such illness will be permanent, and is of such a nature that it will probably continue to incapacitate such Justice for the balance of his term of office, it shall be the duty of the other Justices of the Court of which such incapacitated Justice is a member to certify such facts to the Governor. Upon receipt of such certificate by the Governor, he shall make proper investigation touching the matters therein contained and if he shall determine that the facts contained in such certificate are true, and that a necessity exists therefor, he shall forthwith appoint a Special Commissioner having the requisite qualifications of a member of such Court to assist the same. Such Special Commissioner, when so appointed, may sit with such Court, hear arguments on submitted cases, and write opinions thereon if directed to do so by the Court; and said opinions, if adopted by the Court, shall become thereupon the opinions of the Court.

d) Whenever any Justice of any Court of Appeals is called or ordered into the active military service of the United States, it shall be the duty of the other Justices of the Court of which such Justice is a member to certify that fact to the Governor. Upon receipt of such certificate by the Governor, he shall make proper investigation touching the matters therein contained, and if he shall determine that the facts contained in such certificate are true, and that a necessity exists therefor, he shall forthwith appoint a Special Commissioner having the requisite qualifications of a member of such Court to assist the same. Such Special Commissioner, when so appointed, may sit with such Court, hear arguments on submitted cases, and write opinions thereon if directed to do so by the Court; and said opinions, if adopted by the Court, shall become thereupon the opinions of the Court.

(e) Such Special Commissioner, when so appointed by the Governor, shall receive the same compensation as the regular Justices of the Court of Appeals, and shall serve until the Justice who has been so called or ordered into the active military service of the United States is discharged from such military service, or until the expiration of the term of office of such Justice; provided that in no event shall the term of service of such Special Commissioner continue for a longer period than two (2) years under the same appointment; provided further that when such Justice so called or ordered into the active military service of the United States is discharged from such active military service, the term of such Special Commissioner shall immediately end. When the active military service of such Justice shall have terminated, the other Justices of such Court of Appeals shall certify that fact to the Governor, and their certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the facts so certified.

(f) Nothing in this Act shall be considered as giving any members of any Court of Appeals, or the Governor, the power or authority to remove or suspend any member of the Court of Appeals from office, or to in any manner interfere with him in his Constitutional rights and powers.

Art. 1814. Qualifications of Judges

No person shall be eligible to serve in the office of Justice of a Court of Appeals unless the person is licensed to practice law in this state and at the time of election, has attained the age of thirty-five years, is a resident of the district from which he is elected, and has been a practicing lawyer, or a lawyer and judge of a court of record together, at least ten years.

CHAPTER FOUR A. FAMILY DISTRICT COURTS

Art. 1926a. Family District Court Act

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Short Title

Sec. 1.01. This Act may be cited as the Family District Court Act.

Purpose

Sec. 1.02. (a) This Act substitutes district courts of general jurisdiction, to be called family district courts, for the existing domestic relations courts and special juvenile courts. It also restructures existing juvenile boards in certain counties and provides for the future creation and organization of juvenile boards in other counties. Subchapter A contains general provisions applicable to all family district courts, now or later created, and Subchapter B creates the new family district courts. Subchapter C contains temporary provisions.

(b) This Act is designed so that future legislatures may create new family district courts by adding a section to Subchapter B without repeating the general provisions of Subchapter A relating to jurisdiction, terms, personnel, facilities, and administration of all family district courts.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 1.03. (a) A family district court has the jurisdiction and power for district courts by the constitution and laws of this state. Its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of other district courts in the county in which it is located.

(b) A family district court shall have primary responsibility for cases involving family law matters. These matters include but are not limited to:

1. adoptions;
2. birth records;
3. divorce and marriage annulment;
4. child welfare, custody, support and reciprocal support, dependency, neglect, and delinquency;
5. parent and child; and
6. husband and wife.

(c) This Act does not limit the jurisdiction of other district courts nor relieve them of responsibility for handling cases involving family law matters.

Terms of Court

Sec. 1.04. The terms of a family district court begin on the first Monday in January and the first Monday in July of each year. Each term of court continues until the next succeeding term begins.

Judge

Sec. 1.05. (a) A family district court judge's qualifications and term of office are the same as those prescribed by the constitution and laws of this state for district judges. A family district court judge is elected in the same manner as a district judge.

(b) A family district court judge is entitled to the same compensation and allowances provided by the state and county for the other district judges in his county.

Court Officials, Personnel, and Facilities

Sec. 1.06. (a) Each family district court judge may appoint an official court reporter. The reporter must have the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and is entitled to the same compensation, fees, and allowances provided by law for other official court reporters in the county.

(b) The district attorney, criminal district attorney, or county attorney, and the sheriff and district clerk shall serve each family district court in his county in the same manner he serves the district court or courts of his county.

(c) The commissioners court of the county in which a family district court is located shall provide the physical facilities and the deputy clerks, bailiffs, and other personnel necessary to operate the family district court.

County Juvenile Board

Sec. 1.07. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, when a family district court is created in a county, that county's juvenile board is composed of the county judge, the family district court judge or judges, the district judge or judges whose jurisdiction includes the county, and the judges of all other courts in the county having jurisdiction over juvenile matters. Except in counties where there is only one family district court judge, the members of the juvenile board shall select a family district court judge to serve as chairman of the board. The juvenile board has the powers and duties prescribed by law.

(b) The juvenile board shall appoint a chief juvenile probation officer who shall serve as the chief administrative officer of the family district court at the pleasure of the juvenile board. Subject to approval of the juvenile board, the chief juvenile probation officer shall select as many assistant probation officers and other personnel as are necessary to perform the duties assigned him by the juvenile board.

(c) The commissioners court may compensate juvenile board members for their duties performed on the juvenile board beyond such compensation as is otherwise provided for by law, and this compensation is in addition to all other compensation paid by the state or county to district, family district, and county judges. On recommendation of the juvenile board, the commissioners court shall also:

(1) fix the compensation of the chief juvenile probation officer and the members of his staff; and

(2) provide the physical facilities necessary to operate the juvenile board.

(d) The creation of a family district court in a county also creates a juvenile board in that county if one does not exist.

(e) This Act does not affect the composition or organization of any juvenile board existing on the effective date of the Act, except that the judges of the courts of domestic relations and of the juvenile courts are replaced by the family district court judges.

[Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1821, ch. 730, § 1, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 1970-62.2. County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County

Sec. 1. (a) There is created a court to be held in Tarrant County to be known and designated as the “County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County.”

(b) The County Court at Law of Tarrant County shall be hereafter known and designated as the “County Court at Law No. 1 of Tarrant County.”

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County has jurisdiction of all civil matters and causes, original and appellate, over which by the general laws of the state the county court of the county would have jurisdiction, and its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of the County Court at Law of Tarrant County in civil matters and causes, original and appellate. This provision does not affect the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or of the county judge of Tarrant County as the presiding officer of that court as to roads, bridges, and public highways, and matters which are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or of the judge of the county court of Tarrant County. The county judge of Tarrant County shall be the judge of the county court of Tarrant County, and all ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the judge of the county court of Tarrant County.

(b) In addition to the other jurisdiction conferred by law on the County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County, the County Court at Law No. 2 has concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in Tarrant County in nonjury suits and causes involving family law matters, including adoptions; birth records; removal of disability of minority or coverture; change of name of persons; divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights, custody and support of minor children involved, temporary support pending final hearing, and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings; independent actions involving child welfare, custody, support and reciprocal support, dependency, neglect, and delinquency; and independent actions involving controversies between parent and child and between husband and wife. The provisions of this subsection do not diminish the jurisdiction of the district court in Tarrant County, and the district court shall retain and continue to exercise the jurisdiction that is conferred by law on district courts.

(c) The County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County has jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in civil cases when the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $20,000, exclusive of mandatory damages and penalties, attorney's fees, interest and costs.

Sec. 3. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County, or its judge, has the power to issue writs of injunction, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court, to punish for contempts under such provisions as are, or may be, provided by the general laws governing county courts throughout the state, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court, or of any court or tribunal inferior to that court.

Sec. 4. (a) The judges of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Tarrant County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts. However, no case may be transferred from one court to another court without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(b) The judges of the county courts at law with civil jurisdiction may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in a county court at law and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of any court may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending.

(c) In cases transferred to any of the courts by order of the judge of one of the other courts, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in the courts to which transfer is made shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

Sec. 5. The terms of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County are the same as the terms for the County Court at Law No. 1 of Tarrant County. The practice in the court, and appeals and writs of error therefrom, shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to county courts, except that practice and procedure, rules of evidence, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in the county court at law involving the matters of concurrent jurisdiction with the district court enumerated in Section 2(b) of this Act shall be governed by the laws and rules pertaining to district courts as well as county courts.

Sec. 6. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County must be a citizen of the United States and of this state, who shall have been a practicing lawyer of this state, or a judge of a court in this state, for four years next preceding his election or appointment, and who shall have resided in the county of Tarrant for two years next preceding his election or appointment.

(b) At the primaries and general election in 1978, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Tarrant County a judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 for a four-year term beginning on January 1, 1979. Every four years thereafter, this judge shall be elected by the qualified voters of Tarrant County for a four-year term as provided in the Texas Constitution. A vacancy in the office shall be filled by appointment by the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County until the next general election.

Sec. 7. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to county judges.

Sec. 8. A special judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts and to the judges thereof.

Sec. 9. The county clerk of Tarrant County shall be the clerk for the County Court at Law No. 2, except that the district clerk of Tarrant County shall serve as clerk of the County Court at Law No. 2 in the cases enumerated in Section 2(b) of this Act. The district clerk may establish a separate docket for the County Court at Law No. 2 for family law matters filed originally in the district courts of Tarrant County. All cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Section 2(b) of this Act shall be instituted in the district courts of Tarrant County but may be transferred between the district courts of Tarrant County and the County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred. The seal of the court shall be the same as that provided for county courts, except that the seal shall contain the words, "County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County." The sheriff of Tarrant County shall, in person or by deputy, attend the court when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 10. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court at Law of Tarrant County for the selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by the County Court at Law No. 2.
Art. 1970–62.2  COURTS—COUNTY

Sec. 11. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County shall collect the same fees provided by law for county judges in similar cases, all of which shall be paid by him monthly into the county treasury. The commissioners court may fix the amount of compensation to be paid to the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County, such compensation to be paid monthly out of the county treasury, provided however, that any such compensation shall be equal to the compensation as provided by law and fixed by the commissioners court for the judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Tarrant County. The judge shall not engage in the practice of law while in office.

Sec. 12. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any other county judge may be removed under the laws of this state.

Sec. 13. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County shall appoint an official shorthand reporter, who shall be well skilled in his profession, shall be a sworn officer of the court, and who shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. The provisions of the general laws of Texas relating to the appointment of reporters for the district courts shall apply in all their provisions, insofar as they are applicable, to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and the reporter is entitled to the same fees and salary and shall perform the same duties and shall take the same oath as provided for the reporters of district courts of this state, and shall be governed by any other laws covering the reporters of the district courts of this state.

Sec. 14. With the exception of Subsection (b), Section 6, the provisions of this Act take effect on January 1, 1979.

Sec. 6. (a) As soon as practicable after this court is created, the county clerk may establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act from among pending matters filed originally in the county court of Wichita County and shall transfer those matters to the docket of the court created by this Act. Equalization of case load shall be the primary object in establishing the initial case docket for the County Court at Law of Wichita County. As soon as practicable after this court is created, the district clerk shall establish a separate docket for the County Court at Law of Wichita County. (b) The judge of the county court and the judge of the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts, in matters within their jurisdiction, in order that the business may be equally distributed between them. All cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Subsection (b) of Section 2 of this Act may be instituted in or transferred between the district courts of Wichita County and the County Court at Law of Wichita County. Sec. 7. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

(b) The reporter is not required to take testimony in a case unless a party to the case or the judge demands that testimony be taken. In cases in which the reporter is required to take testimony, the court clerk shall tax a $3 fee as costs in the case. The clerk shall deposit fees collected under this section in the treasury of McLennan County. The reporter shall be available for matters being considered in the county court if a reporter is requested by the litigants before that court and the request is approved by the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County.

(c) The reporter may receive the same compensation as the official shorthand reporters of the district courts in McLennan County, which compensation is to be paid in the same manner as is the compensation of the official shorthand reporters of the district courts in McLennan County. The county judge, the county auditor, the commissioners court, and any other officials of McLennan County charged with preparing and approving the county budget are authorized to amend the budget of McLennan County to provide for paying compensation to the reporter.

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court at Law No. 2 of Cameron County shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the general laws of the state, the county courts have jurisdiction, and shall have jurisdiction concurrent with the County Court at Law of Cameron County in matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate.

(b) The County Court at Law No. 2 of Cameron County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the justice courts and with the County Court at Law of Cameron County in all civil and criminal matters which by the general laws of this state is conferred on justice courts. This Act does not deprive the justice courts of the jurisdiction conferred on them by law, but gives concurrent original jurisdiction to the county courts at law of Cameron County over the matters specified in this subsection. This Act does not deny the right of appeal to the county courts at law of Cameron County from the justice court where the right of appeal to the county court exists by law. All cases appealed from the justice court and other inferior courts in Cameron County shall be made direct to the county courts at law under the provisions governing such appeals.

Sec. 4. The County Court at Law No. 2 of Cameron County shall hold six terms of court each year, commencing on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September, and November of each year, and each term shall continue until the next succeeding term begins.

Sec. 5. (a) There shall be elected in Cameron County, by the qualified voters of the county, a judge of the County Court at Law No. 2. No person may be elected judge of the court who has not been a resident citizen and practicing attorney of Cameron County for at least one year prior to the election and who does not possess all of the qualifications for the office that are required by the general laws of the state for county judges. As soon as this court is created, the Commissioners Court of Cameron County shall appoint a judge to the County Court at Law No. 2 of Cameron County, who shall hold the office as judge until the next general election and until his or her successor is elected and has qualified. Beginning at the general election in 1982 and every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected a judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 for a regular term of four years as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution. A vacancy in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Cameron County shall be filled by appointment of the Commissioners Court of Cameron County, and when so filled, the judge shall hold the office until the next general election and until his or her successor is elected and has qualified.

(b) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

(c) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as provided by law for county judges.

(d) A special judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts and to the judges thereof, who shall be compensated in the same manner as provided for special judges of the county courts.

Compensation

Sec. 6. The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Cameron County may receive an annual salary, the amount of which shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Cameron County. The salary shall be paid out of the county treasury of Cameron County on the order of the commissioners court and shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The amount shall not exceed 90 percent of the amount paid a district court judge having jurisdiction in Cameron County.

Personnel

Sec. 7. (a) The county clerk, county attorney, and sheriff of Cameron County shall serve as clerk, county attorney, and sheriff, respectively, for the County Court at Law No. 2. These officials, either personally or by the appointment of a deputy or assistant, shall perform the duties and responsibilities of their offices and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices.

(b) The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for the court who shall have the qualifications provided by law for official court reporters, shall be a sworn officer of the court, and shall hold office at the pleasure of the judge. The duties of the reporter shall be the same as provided by general law for official court reporters, and the salary of the reporter shall be set by the commissioners court and paid monthly by the commissioners court out of any funds available for the purpose. All other provisions of the law relating to official court reporters shall apply insofar as they are applicable to the court reporter authorized by this Act and insofar as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Jurors

Sec. 8. (a) The jurisdiction and authority vested by law in the county court and the judge thereof for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors shall also be exercised by the county courts at law and the judges thereof. Jurors summoned for a county court at law or the county court may, by order of the judge of the court in which they are summoned, be transferred to any of the other courts for service and may be used as if summoned for the court to which they may be transferred. On concurrence of the judges of the county courts at law and the county judge, jurors may be summoned for service in all of those courts and shall be used interchangeably in all of those courts.

(b) Jurors, regularly impaneled for the week by the district court or courts may, on request of either the county judge or the judge of a county court at law, be made available by the district judge or judges in such numbers as may be requested for service for the week in either or both of the county courts at law or the county court, and such jurors shall serve in the county court and county court at law the same as if they had been drawn and selected as is otherwise provided by law.

Transfer of Cases; Exchange of Benches

Sec. 9. (a) The judges of the county court and the county courts at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts. However, no case may be transferred from one court to another court without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred. In cases transferred to any of the courts by order of the judge of one of the other courts, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances entered into in those cases shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the terms of the court to which the cases are transferred as fixed by law. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases, as well as all bonds and recognizances taken before the transfer, shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

(b) The county judge and the judges of the county courts at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other in matters within their jurisdiction so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him or her without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Any judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or a county court at law, but only in matters within his or her jurisdiction, and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his or her own docket. However, the judge of any court may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his or her court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending. This provision providing for the exchange of benches by and between the judge of the county court and the judges of the county courts at law is cumulative of and in addition to the provisions in this Act for the selection and appointment of a special judge of the county court at law.

Seal

Sec. 10. The seal of the court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 2 of Cameron County, Texas."

Sec. 8. (a) The County Attorney, County Clerk, and Sheriff of Walker County shall serve as county attorney, clerk and sheriff respectively of the County Court at Law of Walker County, except that the District Clerk of Walker County shall serve as clerk of the county court at law in the cases enumerated in Subsection (b), Section 3 of this Act. These officials, either personally or by the appointment of a deputy or assistant, shall perform the duties and responsibilities of their office and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices. The commissioners court may employ as many deputy sheriffs and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court.

(b) The judge of the county court at law may appoint an official court reporter who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law, which reporter shall serve at the pleasure of the judge of the county court at law. The official court reporter is entitled to the compensation fixed by the Commissioners of Walker County. The judge of the county court at law may, in lieu of appointing an official court reporter, contract for the services of a court reporter under guidelines to be established by the commissioners court.

Sec. 9. Equalization of case load shall be the primary objective in establishing the initial case docket for the county court at law.

(b) On the transfer of all cases specified in Subsection (a) of this section to the county court at law, and in cases transferred to any of the courts in Walker County by order of the judge of another court, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the cases shall be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. All bonds executed and recognizances before taken in the cases shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

(c) The judge of the county court and the judge of the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts in matters within their jurisdiction. All cases of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated or included in Section 3 of this Act may be instituted in or transferred between the district court in Walker County and the county court at law in Walker County. However, no case may be transferred from one court to the other without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred, and no case may be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(d) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other in matters within their jurisdiction so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law, but only in matters within his jurisdiction, and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, the judge of either court may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending. This provision providing for the exchange of benches by and between the judge of the county court and the judge of the county court at law is cumulative of and in addition to the provisions herein provided for the selection and appointment of a special judge of the county court at law.

Sec. 10. (a) Practice in the county court at law shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts, except that practice and procedure, rules of evidence, issuance of process and writs, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearing in the county court at law involving those matters of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Subsection (b), Section 3 of this Act shall be governed by the provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts, general or special, as well as county courts. If a case enumerated in Subsection (b), Section 3 of this Act is tried before a jury, the jury shall be composed of 12 members.

2. The judge of the court in which the judgment is rendered upon an application and hearing, in termtime or vacation, may provide by decree for an investment of the funds accruing under such judgment. Such decree, if made in vacation, shall be recorded in the minutes of the succeeding term of the court.

3. The person who takes such money or property shall receive such compensation as the court may allow and shall make such disposition thereof as the court may order; and he shall return such money or property into court upon the order of the court.

4. If any person has an interest in such recovery, the court may hear evidence as to such interest, and order such claim, or such part as is deemed just, to be paid to whoever is entitled to receive the same.

5. If not otherwise invested in the manner provided in this article, any moneys recovered by the plaintiff, regardless of the amount, may be invested as follows by either the next friend or the Clerk of the Court:

(a) in savings accounts or certificates of any savings and loan association domiciled in this State provided such accounts are insured by the Federal Savings & Loan Insurance Corporation; or

(b) in interest-bearing time deposits in any bank doing business in this State provided the payment of such time deposits is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; and if such moneys are so invested in such manner as to prevent the withdrawal of such moneys from the financial institution in which they are invested without an order of the court no bond shall be required of the “next friend” in respect to such moneys until the same are withdrawn from such financial institution, at which time the court shall order such bond to be made as may be appropriate under the other provisions of this article, or the court may order such funds turned over directly to the person entitled thereto upon the court finding that the previous disability had ceased to exist.

6. If not otherwise invested in the manner provided in this article, the judge of the court in which the judgment is rendered upon application of the next friend or a duly appointed guardian ad litem for the minor, or either or both of them, after hearing and upon a finding that the best interests of the minor would be served thereby, may by decree entered of record direct the clerk to deliver any funds accruing under such judgment to any trust company or state or national bank in Texas having trust powers, as trustee, to be held and invested as a trust estate for the benefit of such minor, under such terms and provisions of trust as may be provided by the court; provided, however, that any decree establishing such a trust estate shall contain the following trust provisions, in addition to such other terms, provisions, conditions, or limitations not inconsistent therewith as may be established by the court:

(a) the minor shall be the sole beneficiary of such trust;

(b) the trustee shall be authorized to disburse such amounts of the corpus, income, or both, of the trust as may be reasonably necessary in the sole discretion of the trustee to provide for the health, education, support, or maintenance of the beneficiary. Any income not so distributed by the trustee shall be added to the corpus of the trust;

(c) the trust shall provide for termination of the trust upon the death of the beneficiary or upon the beneficiary attaining a stated age, which shall not exceed 25 years of age. Upon termination, the then existing trust principal and any undistributed income shall be paid to the beneficiary or to the personal representative of the estate of a deceased beneficiary;

(d) the trust shall provide that the trustee serve without bond and that the trustee receive reasonable compensation, to be paid out of the income or corpus of the trust, or both, upon application and approval of the court. Any trust established by the court pursuant to this article may provide for distributions of a stated percentage of the then existing trust corpus prior to termination of the trust, as the beneficiary from time to time attains a particular stated age, and may also provide that all distributions and all uses and applications of trust funds, either income or corpus, may be made directly to or expended for the benefit of the beneficiary without the intervention of any legal guardian or other legal representative, and that the trustee may pay any income or principal distribution to or for the benefit of a beneficiary directly to such beneficiary; to the legal or natural guardian or person having custody of such beneficiary; or directly for the maintenance or support of such beneficiary. Any trust established hereunder shall not be subject to revocation by the beneficiary or any guardian of the beneficiary's estate, but shall remain subject to amendment, modification, or revocation by the court at any time prior to termination of the trust. If any trust established hereunder is revoked by the court prior to the beneficiary attaining the age of 18, the court may enter such further or additional orders concerning the trust corpus and any undistributed income as may be authorized by this article. If any trust established hereunder is revoked by the court prior to the beneficiary attaining the age of 18, the court may enter such further or additional orders concerning the trust corpus and any undistributed income as may be authorized by this article. If any trust established hereunder is revoked by the court prior to the beneficiary attaining the age of 18, the court may enter such further or additional orders concerning the trust corpus and any undistributed income as may be authorized by this article.

Article 2101a. Permanent Exemption for Elderly.

1. JURIES IN CERTAIN COUNTIES

Between the first and fifteenth days of August of each year, in each county in this State, the tax collector, sheriff, county clerk, and district clerk of the county, each in person or represented by one of his deputies, shall meet at the county courthouse and reconstitute the jury wheel, using as the sole and mandatory source, all names on the voter registration lists from all precincts in the county and the register of permanently exempt persons maintained by the tax collector under Article 2137a.

[Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 253, ch. 131, § 2, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 2100a. Selection in Counties with Aid of Mechanical or Electronic Means; Adoption of Plan

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1]

Sec. 2. Any such plan so adopted shall conform to the following requirements:

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 2(a)]

(b) It shall specify that the sources from which names are to be taken for jury purposes are all voter registration lists from all precincts in the county and the register of permanently exempt persons maintained by the county tax collector under Article 2137a.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 2(e) to 2(e)]

Sec. 2a. A jury plan prepared under this Act must provide either for the use of the same list for the selection of persons for jury service until the list is exhausted or for the use of the same list for a specific period of time.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1981 amendatory act provided:

"Sec. 2. If on the effective date of this Act a plan for selection of persons for jury service is in effect in a county, the plan may not be continued in use after December 31, 1981, unless, before that date, it is amended to include a provision complying with the requirements of Section 2a, Section 529, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969 (Article 2100a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as added by this Act.

"Sec. 3. Section 1, Section 529, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969, as amended by Section 5, Chapter 905, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1971 (Article 2100a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is continued in effect. Chapter 38a, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1971, is repealed."

Art. 2101. Interchangeable Juries

The provisions of this article shall be applicable only to such counties of this State as may now maintain three or more district courts, or in which three or more district courts may be hereafter established. A criminal court in any county with jurisdiction in felony cases shall be considered a district court within the meaning of this article. The "Interchangeable Jury Law" shall not apply to a selection of jurors in lunacy cases or in capital cases.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 5]

6. A. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, in a county in which two district courts have jurisdiction, both district judges may meet together at such times as they may agree upon and determine approximately the number of jurors that are reasonably necessary for jury service in the district courts of the county for each week for as many weeks in advance as they deem proper, and may order the drawing of such number of jurors for each of said weeks, as such jury is known as the general panel of jurors for service in both district courts for the respective weeks for which they are designated to serve. Both judges shall act together in carrying out the provisions of this section. They may increase or diminish the number of jurors to be selected for any week and may order the jurors drawn for as many weeks in advance of service as they deem proper. From time to time they shall designate the judge to whom the general panel shall report for duty, and the designated judge, for the time he is chosen to act, shall organize the juries and have immediate supervision and control of them. The jurors, after being regularly drawn from the wheel, shall be served by the sheriff to appear and report for jury service before the judge so designated, who shall hear the excuses of the jury and swear them in for service for the week that they are to serve to try all cases that may be submitted to them in either of the district courts. The jurors, when impaneled, constitute a general jury panel for service as jurors in both district courts in the county and shall be used interchangeably. In the event of a deficiency of jurors at any given time to meet the requirement of either court, the judge having control of the general panel shall order such additional jurors to be drawn from the wheel as may be sufficient to meet the emergency, but such jurors shall act only as special jurors and shall be discharged as soon as their services are no longer needed. Resort to the wheel shall be had in all cases to fill out the general panel.
Art. 2101  COURTS—PRACTICE IN DISTRICT AND COUNTY  3206

B. With the approval of both district judges, jurors impaneled under the provisions of Subdivision A of this subsection may constitute a general jury panel for service as jurors in all county courts and statutory county courts in the county, in addition to service as jurors in both district courts, and in such event, shall be used interchangeably in all district and county courts.

C. The provisions of this subsection are cumulative of and in addition to the methods now authorized by law for the selection of a jury panel in the counties herein named, and the adoption of the method provided in this subsection is entirely optional with and in the discretion of the district judges of any such county coming under the terms of this law. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 330, ch. 137, § 1, eff. May 8, 1975.]

3. JURY FOR THE WEEK

Art. 2122. Pay of Jurors

(a) Each grand juror and each petit juror in a civil or criminal case in a district or criminal district court, county court, county court at law, or justice court is entitled to receive not less than $6 nor more than $30 for each day or fraction of a day that he serves as a juror. The commissioners court of each county shall determine annually, within the minimum and maximum prescribed in this subsection, the amount of per diem for jurors, which shall be paid out of the jury fund of the county. A person who responds to the process of a court, but who is excused from petit jury service by the court for any cause after being tested on voir dire, is entitled to receive not less than $6 nor more than $30 for each day or fraction of a day that he attends court in response to such process.

4. THE JURY IN COURT

Art. 2133. Qualifications

All persons both male and female eighteen years of age or older are competent jurors, unless disqualified under some provision of this chapter. No person shall be qualified to serve as a juror who does not possess the following qualifications:

1. He must be a citizen of the State and of the county in which he is to serve and qualified under the Constitution and laws to vote in said county.

2. He must be of sound mind and good moral character.

3. He must be able to read and write, except as otherwise provided herein.

4. He must not have served as a juror for six (6) days during the preceding six (6) months in the District Court, or during the preceding three (3) months in the County Court.

5. He must not have been convicted of a felony.

6. He must not be under indictment or other legal accusation of theft or of any felony.

A person who is legally blind is not disqualified to serve as a juror in a civil case solely by reason of his legal blindness, but is subject to a challenge for cause in a civil case unless, in the opinion of the court and all parties to the suit, the prospective juror, his legal blindness does not render him unfit to act as a juror in that particular case. If a party to the suit challenges a prospective juror by reason of his legal blindness, it shall not count as one of that party's peremptory challenges.

Whenever it shall be made to appear to the court that the requisite number of jurors able to read and write cannot be found within the county, the court may dispense with the exception provided for in the third subdivision; and the court may in like manner dispense with the exception provided for in the fourth subdivision, when the county is so sparsely populated as to make its enforcement seriously inconvenient.

Where the word "he" is used in this Section it shall be used in the generic term so as to include both male and female persons.

In this Article, "legally blind" shall mean having not more than 20/200 of visual acuity in the better eye with correcting lenses, or visual acuity greater than 20/200 but with a limitation in the field of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees. [Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 474, ch. 202, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.]

Art. 2135. Jury Service
All competent jurors are liable to jury service, except the following persons:
1. All persons over sixty-five (65) years of age.
2. All persons who have legal custody of a child or children under the age of ten (10) years if jury service by that person would necessitate leaving the child or children without adequate supervision.
3. All students of public or private secondary schools.
4. Every person who is enrolled and in actual attendance at an institution of higher education. [Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 804, ch. 363, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 2137a. Permanent Exemption for Elderly Eligibility for Permanent Exemption
Sec. 1. A person who is exempt from jury service on the ground of being over 65 years of age may establish a permanent exemption from jury service on that ground by claiming the exemption as provided by this article.

Claim Filed with Tax Assessor-Collector
Sec. 2. (a) A person may claim the permanent exemption by filing with the county tax assessor-collector at any time a signed statement affirming that he or she is over 65 years of age and desires a permanent exemption on that ground.
(b) The statement may be filed by mail or by personal delivery.

Claim Filed with Court Clerk
Sec. 3. (a) A person summoned for jury service who files a statement with the court clerk under Section 1, Article 2137, claiming an exemption from jury service on the ground of being over 65 years of age, may claim the permanent exemption by including in the statement a declaration that he or she desires a permanent exemption on that ground.
(b) Promptly after a statement claiming the permanent exemption is filed, the court clerk with whom it is filed shall have a copy delivered to the county tax assessor-collector.

Register of Permanently Exempt Persons
Sec. 4. The county tax assessor-collector shall maintain a current register indicating the name of each claimant who is entitled to the permanent exemption from jury service.

Permanently Exempt Persons Excluded from Jury List
Sec. 5. The names of persons listed on the register of persons permanently exempt from jury service may not be placed in the jury wheel or otherwise used in preparing the record of names from which a jury list is selected.

Rescission of Permanent Exemption
Sec. 6. (a) The claimant of a permanent exemption from jury service under this article may rescind the exemption at any time by filing a signed request for rescission with the county tax assessor-collector.
(b) Rescission does not affect a person's right to claim the permanent exemption at a later time. [Added by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 252, ch. 131, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

CHAPTER EIGHT. TRIAL OF CAUSES

1. APPEARANCE AND PROCEDURE

Art. 2166a. Priorities in Setting Matters for Hearing and Trial

Hearing and Trial Priorities
Sec. 1. (a) The trial courts of this state shall regularly and frequently make settings for the hearings and trials of pending matters, giving preference to hearings and trials of the following:

(1) temporary injunctions;
(2) criminal actions, with criminal actions against defendants who are detained in jail pending trial given preference over other criminal actions;
(3) contents of election and suits under the Texas Election Code; and
(4) appeals of final rulings and decisions of the Industrial Accident Board.

(b) Insofar as practicable, the trial courts shall observe the preference provided by Subsection (a) of this section in ruling on, hearing, and trying the matters pending before the courts.

Secondary Priorities
Sec. 2. A matter not included in Section 1 of this Act shall be set at the discretion of the trial court in which the matter is pending, observing the following priorities:

(1) precedence should be given to matters where delay will cause physical or economic injury or harm to either the parties or the public;
(2) matters involving substantial substantive or constitutional rights should take precedence over matters involving permits, licenses, or privileges; and
(3) precedence should be given matters involving important issues that greatly concern the public or materially affect the public welfare.
Art. 2166a  COURTS—PRACTICE IN DISTRICT AND COUNTY  3208

General Repealer
Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws that provide for preference or priority in conflict with this Act for the hearing or trial of pending matters in the trial courts of this state are repealed to the extent of the conflict. This Act does not repeal any provision of the law by which the legislature directs a specific court to give preference to cases involving that court's criminal jurisdiction, family law jurisdiction, or other specified jurisdiction.

5. CASE TO JURY
Art. 2194a. Bringing Meals into Jury Room
(a) Whenever the judge deems it advisable, in order to expedite the final disposition of any district court civil case for which a jury is empaneled, to keep the jury together for deliberation rather than to dismiss it for meals, he shall have the power to draw a warrant on the jury fund or other appropriate fund of the county in which the case is being tried, to cover the cost of buying meals and bringing same into the jury room. However, not more than Three Dollars ($3) may be spent per meal for any juror.

The usual and customary fees in such cases shall be presumed to be reasonable, but such presumption may be rebutted by competent evidence. In a proceeding before the court, or in a jury case where the issue of amount of attorney's fees is submitted to the court for determination by agreement, the court may in its discretion take judicial knowledge of the usual and customary fees in such matters and of the contents of the case file without receiving further evidence. Ex Officio Members

Sec. 3. The ex officio members of the Council shall consist of the following: (1) the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas, who shall remain a member as long as he holds the position of Chief Justice; (2) the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, who shall remain a member as long as he holds the position of Presiding Judge; (3) two Justices of the Courts of Appeals, to be designated by the Governor for overlapping four-year terms, one to be designated in January, 1971, for a four-year term and one to be designated in January, 1973, for a four-year term with the replacement in each case to be designated by the Governor in January of odd-numbered years; (4) two presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts, to be designated by the Governor for four-year terms, one to be designated in January, 1971, for a four-year term and one to be designated in January, 1973, for a four-year term, with the replacement in each case to be designated by the Governor in January of odd-numbered years; (5) the Chairman and the immediate past Chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee; and (6) the Chairman and the immediate past Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court may from time to time designate some other Justice of that Court to act in his stead, and at his pleasure, as member of the Council. The Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals may from time to time designate some other Judge of that Court to act in his stead, and at his pleasure, as member of the Council. The foregoing references to justices and judges, other than the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, include respectively such retired justices and judges of the same grade as are legally eligible for assignment to part-time judicial duties. In the event the Chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee or the Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee is reappointed to such position, his immediate predecessor shall continue to serve on the Council as immediate past Chairman, it being the intent of the Legislature that two members of the Senate and two members of the House be at all times members of the Council; provided, however, that in the case of legislative members, cessation of membership in the Legislature shall not terminate their membership on the Council, but they shall continue to serve for their full term notwithstanding their cessation of membership in the Legislature. In the event of a vacancy in a legislative membership, such vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term only by the presiding officer of the appropriate house of the Legislature, and vacancies in other official memberships shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment and for the unexpired term only. Ex officio members of the Council shall be entitled to all the privileges of full membership thereon and shall be regarded and treated in every respect as full members thereon.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the Council:

1. To make a continuous study of the organization of the courts; the rules and methods of procedure and the practice of the judicial system of the State; of the work accomplished, the results attained and the uniformity of the discretionary powers of the courts, to the end that procedure may be simplified, business expedited, and justice better administered.

2. To receive and consider suggestions from judges, public officers, members of the bar, and citizens, touching remedies for faults in the administration of justice.

3. To formulate methods for simplifying judicial procedure, expediting the transaction of judicial business, and correcting faults in the administration of justice.

To make a complete detailed report, on or before December 1st of each year, to the Governor and to the Supreme Court, of all its proceedings, suggestions and recommendations, and such supplemental reports from time to time as the Council deems advisable. All such reports shall be considered public reports and may be given to the press as soon as filed.

6. To make investigations and reports upon such matters, touching the administration of justice as may be referred to the Council by the Supreme Court or the Legislature.

7. To hold one meeting in each calendar year, and such other meetings as may be ordered by the Council or under its authority, and at such time and place as may be designated by it or under its authority.

7. FOREIGN JUDGMENTS

Art. 2328b-5. Uniform Enforcement of Foreign Judgments Act

Definition

Sec. 1. In this Act, "foreign judgment" means a judgment, decree, or order of a court of the United States or of any other court that is entitled to full faith and credit in this state.

Filing and Status of Foreign Judgments

Sec. 2. A copy of any foreign judgment authenticated in accordance with an act of congress or statutes of this state may be filed in the office of the clerk of any court of competent jurisdiction of this state. The clerk shall treat the foreign judgment in the same manner as a judgment of the court in which the foreign judgment is filed. A filed foreign judgment has the same effect and is subject to the same procedures, defenses, and proceedings for reopening, vacating, staying, enforcing, or satisfying as a judgment of the court in which it is filed.

Notice of Filing

Sec. 3. (a) At the time a foreign judgment is filed, the judgment creditor or the judgment creditor’s attorney shall file with the clerk of the court an affidavit showing the name and last known post office address of the judgment debtor and the judgment creditor.

(b) The clerk shall promptly mail notice of the filing of the foreign judgment to the judgment debtor at the address given and shall note the mailing in the docket. The notice must include the name and post office address of the judgment creditor and if the judgment creditor has an attorney in this state, the attorney’s name and address. The judgment creditor may mail a notice of the filing of the judgment to the judgment debtor and may file proof of mailing with the clerk. Lack of mailing notice of filing by the clerk does not affect the enforcement proceedings if proof of mailing by the judgment creditor has been filed.

Stay

Sec. 4. (a) If the judgment debtor shows the court that an appeal from the foreign judgment is pending or will be taken, or that a stay of execution has been granted and proves that the judgment debtor has furnished the security for the satisfaction of the judgment required by the state in which it was rendered, the court shall stay enforcement of the foreign judgment until the appeal is concluded, the time for appeal expires, or the stay of execution expires or is vacated.

(b) If the judgment debtor shows the court any ground on which enforcement of a judgment of the court of this state would be stayed, the court shall stay enforcement of the foreign judgment for an appropriate period, and require the same security for satisfaction of the judgment that is required in this state.

Fee

Sec. 5. A person filing a foreign judgment shall pay $10 to the clerk of the court. Fees for other enforcement proceedings shall be as otherwise provided by law for judgments of the courts of this state.

Optional Procedure

Sec. 6. The judgment creditor retains the right to bring an action to enforce a judgment instead of proceeding under this Act.

Uniformity of Interpretation

Sec. 7. This Act shall be interpreted and construed to achieve its general purpose to make the law of those states which enact it uniform.

Short Title

Sec. 8. This Act may be cited as the Uniform Enforcement of Foreign Judgments Act.

Art. 2328b-6. Uniform Foreign Country Money-Judgment Recognition Act

Short Title
Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Uniform Foreign Country Money-Judgment Recognition Act.

Definitions
Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) “Foreign country” means a governmental unit other than the United States, or a state, district, commonwealth, territory, or insular possession thereof, or the Panama Canal Zone, or the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

(2) “Foreign country judgment” means a judgment of a foreign country granting or denying a sum of money, other than a judgment for taxes, a fine or other penalty, or a judgment for support in matrimonial or family matters.

Applicability
Sec. 3. This Act applies to any foreign country judgment:

(1) that is final and conclusive and enforceable where rendered even though an appeal is pending or the judgment is subject to appeal; or

(2) that is in favor of the defendant on the merits of the cause of action and is final and conclusive where rendered, even though an appeal is pending or the judgment is subject to appeal.

Recognition and Enforcement
Sec. 4. Except as provided in Section 5 of this Act, a foreign country judgment meeting the requirements of Section 3 is conclusive between the parties to the extent that it grants or denies recovery of a sum of money. The foreign country judgment is enforceable in the same manner as the judgment of a sister state that is entitled to full faith and credit.

Grounds for Nonrecognition
Sec. 5. (a) A foreign country judgment is not conclusive if:

(1) the judgment was rendered under a system which does not provide impartial tribunals or procedures compatible with the requirements of due process of law;

(2) the foreign country court did not have personal jurisdiction over the defendant; or

(3) the foreign country court did not have jurisdiction over the subject matter.

(b) A foreign country judgment need not be recognized if:

(1) the defendant in the proceedings in the foreign country court did not receive notice of the proceedings in sufficient time to enable him to defend;

(2) the judgment was obtained by fraud;

(3) the cause of action on which the judgment is based is repugnant to the public policy of this state;

(4) the judgment conflicts with another final and conclusive judgment;

(5) the proceeding in the foreign country court was contrary to an agreement between the parties under which the dispute in question was to be settled otherwise than by proceedings in that court;

(6) in the case of jurisdiction based only on personal service, the foreign country court was a seriously inconvenient forum for the trial of the action; or

(7) it is established that the foreign country in which the judgment was rendered does not recognize judgments rendered in this state that, but for the fact that they are rendered in Texas, conform to the definition of “foreign country judgment” in Section 2(2) of this Act.

Personal Jurisdiction
Sec. 6. (a) The foreign country judgment shall not be refused recognition for lack of personal jurisdiction if:

(1) the defendant was served personally in the foreign country;

(2) the defendant voluntarily appeared in the proceedings, other than for the purpose of protecting property seized or threatened with seizure in the proceedings or of contesting the jurisdiction of the court over him;

(3) the defendant prior to the commencement of the proceedings had agreed to submit to the jurisdiction of the foreign country court with respect to the subject matter involved;

(4) the defendant was domiciled in the foreign country when the proceedings were instituted, or, being a body corporate had its principal place of business, was incorporated, or had otherwise acquired corporate status, in the foreign country;

(5) the defendant had a business office in the foreign country and the proceedings in the foreign country court involved a cause of action arising out of business done by the defendant through that office in the foreign country; or

(6) the defendant operated a motor vehicle or airplane in the foreign country and the proceedings involved a cause of action arising out of such operation.

(b) The courts of this state may recognize other bases of jurisdiction.

Stay in Case of Appeal
Sec. 7. If the defendant satisfies the court either that an appeal is pending or that he is entitled and intends to appeal from the foreign country judgment, the court may stay the proceedings until the... appeal has been determined or until the expiration of a period of time sufficient to enable the defendant to prosecute the appeal.

Saving Clause

Sec. 8. This Act does not prevent the recognition of a foreign country judgment in situations not covered by this Act.

Uniformity of Interpretation

Sec. 9. This Act shall be construed to carry out its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states that enact it.

Nonapplicability

Sec. 10. This Act does not apply to a judgment rendered before the effective date of this Act.

COURTS—JUVENILE

Article 2338-1.1. Jurisdiction of District and County Courts; Actions of Juvenile Judge Not Licensed as Attorney.

2338-1c. Appointment of Retired Special Juvenile Court or Domestic Relations Court Judge to Sit for Regular Family District Court Judge.

2338-9b.2. Masters in Dallas County Domestic Relations Courts.

Art. 2338-1.1. Jurisdiction of District and County Courts; Actions of Juvenile Judge Not Licensed as Attorney

Each district court, county court, and statutory county court exercising any of the constitutional jurisdiction of either a county court or a district court has jurisdiction over juvenile matters and may be designated a juvenile court. Any action taken by a juvenile judge not licensed as an attorney by the State of Texas shall be subject to the trial de novo and appeal provisions as authorized by Sections 51.04, 51.18, and 56.01 of the Family Code. [Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 387, ch. 178, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 2338-1c. Appointment of Retired Special Juvenile Court or Domestic Relations Court, Judge to Sit for Regular Family District Court Judge

Absent, Disabled or Disqualified Regular Judge; Crowded Docket

Sec. 1. (a) When the regular judge of a Family District Court as created by the Family District Court Act in this state is absent or is from any cause disabled or disqualified from presiding, a retired judge of a special juvenile court or a domestic relations court may be appointed by the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district in which the appointed judge resides to sit for the regular judge of a Family District Court within the geographic limits of the respective administrative judicial district, provided the retired judge voluntarily retired from office and certifies his willingness to serve.

(b) When the docket of a Family District Court in this state becomes so excessive that the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district in which that court is located deems it an emergency, a retired judge of a special juvenile court or a domestic relations court residing within the geographic limits of the respective administrative judicial district, who meets the qualifications set out in Subsection (a) of this section, may be appointed by the presiding judge to sit for the regular judge for as long as the emergency exists.

(c) A presiding judge may, with the consent of a retired judge of a special juvenile court or a domestic relations court, within his district make an assignment outside of his judicial district with the specific authorization of the presiding judge of the district in which that assignment is made.

Bond and Oath of Retired Judge

Sec. 2. A retired judge appointed to sit for a regular judge under the provisions of this Act shall execute the bond and take the oath of office which is required by law for the regular judge for whom he is sitting.

Power and Jurisdiction

Sec. 3. A retired judge appointed under the provisions of this Act has all the power and jurisdiction of the court and the regular judge for whom he is sitting and may sign orders, judgments, decrees, or other process of any kind as "Judge Presiding" when acting for the regular judge.

Compensation

Sec. 4. A retired judge appointed to sit for the regular judge under the provisions of this Act shall receive for the services actually performed the same amount of salary which the regular judge is entitled to receive for such services. The amount to be paid for such services shall be paid in the same manner as the regular judge is paid on certification by the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district that the retired judge has rendered the services and is entitled to receive the salary. Such payment shall be made from the item in the judiciary section, comptrollers department, of the appropriations act providing for payment of salaries of district judges and criminal district judges. This Act does not entitle the retired judge of a special juvenile court or a domestic relations court to participate in the state Judicial Retirement System. No part of the amount paid to a retired judge sitting for the regular judge shall be deducted or paid out of the salary of the regular judge.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 5. The provisions of the Act are cumulative of all laws pertaining to the election or appointment of a special judge, and if, in addition to a retired judge appointed to sit temporarily for a regular judge, a special judge is needed, he shall be appointed or elected as now authorized by law. [Acts 1975, 65th Leg., p. 1989, ch. 552, § 1, eff. Aug. 29, 1975. Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1989, ch. 794, § 2, eff. Aug. 29, 1977; Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 670, ch. 297, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]
Art. 2338-1d. Master in Domestic Relations Court in Counties Over 2,000,000

Authorization to Appoint Master; Termination; Qualifications; Compensation

Sec. 1. (a) Each judge of a court of domestic relations in a county of more than 2,000,000 population or any successor court thereto may appoint a master as provided in this Act. The services of the master may be terminated if the performance of his duties is unsatisfactory to the judge of the court, by which the master was appointed.

(b) A master shall be an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Texas and shall be a citizen of this state. The compensation for a master shall be fixed by the judge of the court making such appointment. If the judge of the court determines that the parties litigant are unable to defray the costs of the master’s compensation, such costs shall be paid out of the jury fund of the county.

Matters Referred to a Master

Sec. 2. If the judge of a court of domestic relations in such county or any successor court thereto deems it advisable, he may appoint a master and refer to the master any civil case involving motions of contempt for failure or refusal to pay child support, temporary support, or separate maintenance; motions for failure or refusal to comply with court orders concerning visitation with children growing out of separate maintenance and divorce actions; motions for changes of conservatorships; motions for revision of child-support payments; and motions for revision of visitation privileges.

Powers

Sec. 3. (a) In all cases designated in Section 2 of this Act, the judge of a court of domestic relations in a county of more than 2,000,000 population or any successor court thereto may authorize the master to hear evidence, to make findings of fact thereon, to formulate conclusions of law, and to recommend judgment to be entered in such cases. In all cases referred to the master, the order of reference may specify or limit the powers of the master and may direct him to report only on particular issues, or to do or perform particular acts, or to receive and report on evidence only, and may fix the time and place for beginning and closing hearings and for filing reports.

(b) Subject to the limitations and specifications stated in the order, the master shall have the power to regulate all proceedings in every hearing before him and to do all acts and take all measures necessary and proper for the efficient performance of his duties under the order. He may require the production of evidence before him on all matters embraced in the reference, and he may rule on the admissibility of evidence, unless otherwise directed by the order of reference. He has the authority to issue summons for the appearance of witnesses and to swear the witnesses for the hearing and may examine them himself. A witness appearing before him that is duly sworn is subject to the penalties of perjury. If a witness after being duly summoned fails to appear or having appeared refuses to answer questions, on certification of such refusal to the referring court, the court may issue attachment against the witness and may fine or imprison the witness.

Report to Referring Judge; Notice to Parties

Sec. 4. On the conclusion of the hearing in each case, the master shall transmit to the referring judge all papers relating to the case, together with his findings and a statement that notice of his findings and of the right to a hearing before the judge has been given to all adult principals, minors, or parents, guardians, or custodians of any minor whose case has been heard by the master. This notice may be given at the hearing or otherwise as the referring court directs.

Disposition by Referring Judge

Sec. 5. After it is filed, the referring court may adopt, modify, correct, reject, or reverse the master’s report or recommit it for further information as the court may deem proper and necessary in the particular circumstances of the case. Where judgment has been recommended, the court in its discretion may approve the recommendation and hear further evidence before rendition of judgment.

Hearing by Judge upon Request

Sec. 6. Adult principals or a minor child or his parents, guardians, or custodians are entitled to a hearing by the judge of the referring court if within three days after receiving notice of the findings of the master they file a request with the court for a hearing. The referring court may allow the hearing at any time.

Failure to Request Hearing

Sec. 7. If no hearing before the judge of the referring court is requested or the right to such hearing is waived, the findings and recommendations of the master become the decree of the court when adopted by an order of the judge.

Notice of Hearing by Master

Sec. 8. Prior to the hearing by the master, the parties litigant shall be given due notice as provided by law of the time and place of the hearing.

Jury Trial

Sec. 9. In any proceeding where a jury trial has been demanded, the master shall refer the case back to the referring court for a full hearing before the court and jury, subject to the usual rules of the court in such cases.

Appointment of Master not Mandatory

Sec. 10. Nothing in this Act shall be interpreted to require any judge of a court of domestic relations to appoint a permanent or standing master to serve in such court.

Before any county shall levy, assess and collect the tax provided for herein the question shall by the Commissioners Court of the county be submitted to a vote of the qualified property taxpaying voters of such county at an election called for that purpose, either on said Commissioners Court’s own motion, or upon petition of ten per cent (10%) of the qualified property taxpaying voters of said county as shown by the returns of the last general election. Said election shall be ordered at a regular session of said Commissioners Court and such order shall specify the rate of tax to be voted on, not to exceed thirty cents (30¢) on each One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation of taxable property within such county, shall state the date when said election shall be held, and shall appoint officers to hold said election in accordance with the election laws of this State. Provided, however, that the proposition submitted to the qualified property taxpaying voters at said election may provide that the tax at a rate not to exceed thirty cents (30¢) on each One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation may be used for the construction and maintenance of Farm-to-Market and Lateral Roads or for Flood Control purposes, either or both, as the Commissioners Court may determine (in which event the ballots shall have written or printed thereon, “For the tax of not exceeding ______ cents on each One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation,” and the contrary thereof, specifying the tax to be voted upon), or the proposition may provide for a specific maximum tax for Farm-to-Market and Lateral Roads purposes and a specific maximum tax for Flood Control purposes, the total of the two (2) specific maximum taxes not to exceed thirty cents (30¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation (in which event the ballots shall have written or printed thereon, “For a Farm-to-Market and Lateral Roads tax of not exceeding ______ cents and a Flood Control tax of not exceeding ______ cents, on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation,” and the contrary thereof, specifying the specific taxes to be voted upon). Provided, further, that elections may subsequently be called and held in the same manner for the purpose of changing the amount of the maximum tax within the limit of thirty cents (30¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation, or for changing the amounts of the maximum specific tax voted for each purpose; provided, however, that such tax or taxes may not be reduced to an extent which would result in the impairment of any bonds or warrants theretofore issued under the provisions of Section 10 of this Act.

Notice of Election; Qualification of Voters

Sec. 8. The County Judge shall cause notice of said election to be posted at a public place in each voting precinct in said county not less than fourteen (14) days next before said election and to be published on the same day in each of two (2) successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published within said county, the date of the first publication to be not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the date set for the election, which notice shall be a substantial copy of the election order, and only those shall be entitled to vote at said election who are qualified, property taxpaying voters in said county, and who have duly rendered the same for taxation.

Tax Levied if Majority Vote in Favor

Sec. 9. If a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters, voting at said election, shall vote in favor of said tax, then the same shall be annually levied, assessed and collected as other county ad valorem taxes are levied, assessed and collected.

Bonds or Time Warrants

Sec. 10. After an election has been held under the provisions of Sections 7 and 8 of this Act, at which election a majority of the qualified, property taxpaying voters, voting at said election, voted in favor of the tax, the Commissioners Court may issue either negotiable county bonds or county time warrants for the purpose of the construction and/or improvement of Farm-to-Market and Lateral Roads, or for the purpose of constructing permanent improvements for Flood Control purposes; provided, however, that any such bonds or warrants must have been authorized by a majority of the qualified property taxing voters who have duly rendered the same for taxation voting at an election duly called by the Commissioners Court, such bonds and warrants to be issued and the taxes to be levied and collected in payment thereof in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, and provided further that each proposition shall be separately submitted to the voters at such election.

State Tax in Counties, Etc., Where Tax Donated

Sec. 10(a). (1) Beginning in the year 1951 and each year thereafter the State Automatic Tax Board created by Article 7041 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, shall cause to be levied annually in each county, political subdivision or other defined area, the full thirty cents (30c) State ad valorem tax for general revenue purposes, the proceeds of which heretofore were donated and granted by the Legislature to certain counties, political subdivisions or other defined areas for the purpose of carrying out and performing actions of preventing calamities, improving, protecting and reclaiming certain areas for and on behalf of the State as more fully declared in each applicable law or laws making such donation or grant and said Board shall continue to levy such tax at said rate in each such designated area until the bonds or other obligations of said areas authorized or incurred in connection with the performance of such action on behalf of the State shall have been fully paid or discharged or until the expiration date of such donation or grant as may be determined from the law or laws making such grant or donation, whichever shall first occur.

(2) The provisions of Article 7043, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended setting up a formula to govern said Board in ascertaining the rate of tax to be levied for state general ad valorem tax purposes shall not apply from and after January 1, 1951. The rate of tax to be levied after said date shall be thirty cents (30c) on each One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation as fixed by the amendment to Section 1–A, Article 8 of the Constitution, as adopted November 2, 1948.

(3) The tax assessors and collectors in each of such Counties shall continue to assess and collect such tax and make the proceeds thereof available to the donees or grantees in the manner provided by the law or laws making such grant or donation. The moneys thus collected by said tax assessors and collectors and received by such grantees or donees shall be used and accounted for annually as prescribed by the law or laws making such grant or donation.

(4) In those instances where less than the full State general ad valorem tax was granted or donated, the portion of the money collected in excess of the amount donated or granted shall be retained by or paid over to the governing body of the county or political subdivision from which such tax is collected; and in the event that the amount of State general ad valorem tax granted, donated and collected is in excess of the amount needed to pay off and fully discharge all legal obligations authorized by law and which were incurred prior to the adoption of Section 1–a of Article VIII of the Constitution of Texas, then such excess shall be retained by or paid over to the governing body of the county or political subdivision from which such tax is collected; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to limit or impair the right of the Upper Colorado River Authority to receive and fully utilize the full amount of moneys heretofore donated and granted said Authority; and provided further, that nothing in this Act shall apply to, nor in anywise affect, the State general ad valorem tax heretofore granted or donated to the Central Colorado River Authority, the boundary of which is co-extensive with that of Coleman County; and provided further, that nothing contained herein shall be construed to diminish or affect any right or authority of the Brazos River Conservation and Reclamation District to receive, obligate or expend the full amount of Three Hundred Nine Thousand ($309,000.00) Dollars each year heretofore donated for the full period of the donation. In the discretion of said governing body such excess shall be used either for the construction and maintenance of farm-to-market roads, or for flood control, only within the county, political subdivision, or defined area from which such tax is collected. The moneys thus retained or paid over shall be fully reported each year to the Comptroller of Public Accounts at the same time such Assessor-Collector makes his annual report as required by law, and the governing body of the county, political subdivision, or defined area thus retaining or being paid such excess money shall likewise report annually to the Comptroller of Public Accounts the sum thus retained or held and the purpose for which it was used. The moneys thus retained or held or declared to be trust funds to be used only for the purpose herein named, and the use thereof for any other purpose shall constitute a misapplication of public money and the person or persons so offending shall be punished as provided for in Article 86 of the Penal Code of the State of Texas.2

Competitive Bidding for Contracts for Public Works; Notice to Bidders; Advertisement; Exceptions; Conflicting Provisions; Noncompliance With Law

Sec. 2. (a) No county, acting through its Commissioners Court, and no city in this state shall hereafter make any contract calling for or requiring an expenditure or payment in an amount exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) out of any fund or funds of any city or county or subdivision of any county creating or imposing an obligation or liability of any nature or character upon such county or any subdivision of such county, or upon such city, without first submitting such proposed contract to competitive bids.

(b) Notice of the time and place when and where such contracts shall be let shall be published in such county (if concerning a county contract or contracts for such subdivision of such county) and in such city, (if concerning a city contract), once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks prior to the time set for letting such contract, the date of the first publication to be at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date set for letting said contract; and said contract shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder. The county and/or governing body shall have the right to reject any and all bids, and if the contract is for the construction of public works, then the successful bidder shall be required to give a good and sufficient bond in the full amount of the contract price, for the faithful performance of such contract, executed by some surety company authorized to do business in this state in accordance with the provisions of Article 5160, Revised Statutes of 1925, and the amendments thereto. However, the city or county in making any contract calling for or requiring the expenditure or payment of less than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) may, in lieu of the bond requirement, provide in the contract that no money will be paid to the contractor until completion and acceptance of the work by the city or county. If there is no newspaper published in such county, the notice of the letting of such contract by such county shall be given by causing notice thereof to be posted at the County Court House door for fourteen (14) days prior to the time of letting such contract. If there is no newspaper published in such city, then the notice of letting such contract shall be given by causing notice thereof to be posted at the City Hall for fourteen (14) days prior to the time of letting such contract. Provided, that in case of public calamity, where it becomes necessary to act at once to appropriate money to relieve the necessity of the citizens, or to preserve the property of such county, subdivision, or city, or when it is necessary to preserve or protect the public health of the citizens of such county or city, or in case of unforeseen damage to public property, machinery or equipment, this provision shall not apply; and provided further, as to contracts for personal or professional services; work done by such county or city and paid for by the day, as such work progresses; and the purchase of land and right-of-way for authorized needs and purposes, the provisions hereof requiring competitive bids shall not apply and in such cases the notice herein provided shall be given but only with respect to an intention to issue time warrants with right of referendum as contemplated in Sections 3 and 4 hereof respectively.

(c) Provisions in reference to notice to bidders, advertisement thereof, requirements as to the taking of sealed bids based upon specifications for public improvements or purchases, and the manner of letting of contracts, as contained in the charter of a city, if in conflict with the provisions of this Act, shall be followed in such city notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act. The provisions of this Act and of Article 5160, Revised Statutes of 1925, as amended, relating to the furnishing of surety bonds by contractors may be adopted by ordinance of the governing body of a city, not withstanding conflicting city charter provisions.

(d) Any and all such contracts or agreements hereafter made by any county or city in this state, without complying with the terms of this section, shall be void and shall not be enforceable in any court of this state and the performance of any money thereunder may be enjoined by any property taxpaying citizen of such county or city.

Sec. 2a. Contracts for the construction of public works or the purchase of materials, equipment and supplies may be let under the provisions of Section 2 on a lump sum basis or on a unit price basis, as the governing body or Commissioners Court shall determine. In the event a contract is to be let on a unit price basis, the information furnished bidders shall specify the approximate quantities estimated upon the best available information, but the compensation paid the contractor shall be based upon the actual quantities constructed or supplied.

In the event it becomes necessary to make changes in the plans or specifications after performance of a contract has been commenced, or it becomes necessary to decrease or increase the quantity of work to be performed or materials, equipment or supplies to be furnished, the Commissioners Court or governing body shall be authorized to approve change orders effecting such changes but the total contract price shall not be increased thereby unless due provision has been made to provide for the payment of such added cost either by appropriating available funds for that purpose or by authorizing the issuance of time warrants as provided in the Act amended hereby.

Where any change order involves a decrease or increase in cost of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) or less, the Commissioner's Court or governing body may grant general authority to one of its administrative officials to approve such change orders.

Provided, however, that the original contract price may not be increased under the provisions of this Section 2a by more than twenty-five (25%) per cent or decreased more than twenty-five (25%) per cent without the consent of the contractor to such decrease.

Procedure for Bidding

Sec. 2. If a governmental entity covered by this Act is required by statute to award a contract for the construction, repair, or renovation of a structure, road, highway, or other improvement or addition to real property on the basis of competitive bids, such bidding shall be accomplished as provided herein.

Advertisement for Bids

Sec. 3. (a) The governmental entity shall advertise for bids. The advertisement for bids must include a notice that:

Art. 2368a.3  COURTS—COMMISSIONERS  3240

(2) agrees in writing to pay the actual cost of mailing the notice; and

(3) certifies that it circulates notices for bids to the construction trade in general.

(d) The governmental entity shall mail a notice required under Subsection (c) of this section not later than the date on which the first newspaper advertisement under this section is published.

Opening of Bids

Sec. 4. Bids may be opened only by the governing body at a public meeting or by an officer or employee of the governmental entity at or in an office of the governmental entity.

Award of Bid

Sec. 5. A governmental entity shall have the right to reject any and all bids. Contracts covered by this Act shall be awarded to the lowest, responsible bidder, but a contract may not be awarded to a bidder who is not the lowest bidder unless prior to the award the lower bidder is given notice of the proposed award and is given an opportunity to appear before the governing body of the governmental entity or the designated representative of the governing body and present evidence concerning the bidder's responsibility.

Effect of Noncompliance

Sec. 6. A contract awarded in violation of this Act is void.

General Provisions

Sec. 7. (a) To the extent a municipal home-rule charter conflicts with this Act, the charter prevails.

(b) The provisions of the Professional Services Procurement Act (Article 664-4, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) are not affected by this Act.

(c) This Act does not apply to a contract which does not call for or require the expenditure of more than $10,000 out of the funds of the governmental entity.

The governmental acts and proceedings performed by the commissioners court of any county with a population of less than 1,000,000, according to the most recent federal census, in authorizing the issuance of time warrants are validated in all respects as of the date of the act or proceeding if the time warrants were issued after August 1, 1976.

Time warrants issued in connection with the proceedings are validated according to their terms and as of the date they were issued. The acts, proceedings, or time warrants issued in connection with them may not be held invalid because they were not performed in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. This Act does not apply to any matter involved in litigation on the date this Act takes effect if the litigation ultimately results against the legality of the matter. This Act does not apply to any matter that has been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 2370b. County Office, Courts and Jail Buildings; Construction, Improvement, etc.

Each county officer shall maintain an office at the county seat in which the officer shall keep all original records of the office.

Sec. 2. The office building or jail may be provided for by the issuance of bonds, as is provided by Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or by the issuance of other evidences of indebtedness, in the same manner as bonds or evidences of indebtedness for courthouses and jails at county seats.

Art. 2370c–2. Criminal Justice Facilities in Certain Counties and Cities

Eligible Counties and Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to any county in this state and to any city in such county which city is not the county seat of such county but has a population of more than 17,500 according to the last preceding federal census.

Authorization

Sec. 2. Counties and cities to which this Act is applicable are hereby authorized jointly or severally to own, construct, equip, enlarge, and maintain a building or buildings in such city to constitute a criminal justice center providing facilities of a public nature with relation to or incidental in the administration of criminal justice, including, without limitation, accommodations for the handling, processing, and detention of prisoners, and offices for state, county, and city administrative and judicial officials, courtrooms, garages, and parking areas.

Contracts

Sec. 3. Such county and city shall have authority to specify by contract the purpose, terms, rights, objectives, duties, and responsibilities of each of the contracting parties, including the amount, or proportionate amount, of money to be contributed by each for land acquisition, building acquisition, construction, and equipment; the method or methods by which such moneys are to be provided; the account or accounts in which such money is to be deposited; the party which shall award construction or other contracts or that such contracts shall be awarded by action of both parties; and the manner in which disbursements shall be authorized. Such contract may further provide for the creation of an administrative agency or may designate one of the parties to supervise the accomplishment of the purposes of the contract and to operate and maintain the joint facilities, and any administrative agency so created or party so designated shall have authority to employ personnel and engage in other administrative activities as necessary in accomplishing the purposes of the contract and in operating and maintaining the joint facilities.

Methods of Meeting Costs

Sec. 4. The county and city contract may specify that moneys required of them in meeting the cost of providing the criminal justice center shall be derived from current income and funds on hand budgeted by them for such purpose, or through the authorization and issuance of bonds by either or both the county and city under the procedures prescribed for the issuance of general obligation bonds for other public buildings and purposes, or by the issuance by either or both the county and the city of certificates of obligation under the provisions of Article 2388a–1, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes, or by a combination of those methods. In lieu of or in combination with the employment of taxing power in the payment of such bonds or certificates of obligation, same may be payable from and secured by income derived from the criminal justice center facilities, including that from leases and from the proceeds of parking or other fees. Art. 2370c–3. Justice Centers Located on State Line

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) “Law” means a statute of a state, a written opinion of a court of record, a municipal ordinance, an order of a county commissioners court, or a rule authorized by and lawfully adopted pursuant to a statute.

(2) “Municipality” means an incorporated city or

Authorization for Contract

Sec. 2. (a) A county in this state and a municipality in that county, both located on the state line, may contract with an adjoining county and any municipality in that county located on the other side of the state line for the joint construction, financing, operation, and management of a justice center to be located on the state line. The contracting municipali-y in this state need not be the county seat of the contracting county in this state. The county and municipality in this state may contract for the center to contain:

(1) courtrooms and office space needed by muunicipal, justice, county, district, and appellate courts;

(2) jail, lockup, and other detention facilities;

(3) federal, county, precinct, and municipal offices for prosecuting attorneys and other personnel as needed;

(4) adult or juvenile probation offices;

(5) any other offices that either county or mu-unicipality is separately authorized or required to operate or provide; or

(6) parking space, dining areas, and other facilities incidental to operation of the center.

(b) A court of civil appeals or a district, county, justice, or municipal court having jurisdiction in the county or municipality in which a part of the center is located may maintain offices and courtrooms and hold proceedings at the center, except that no justice court other than the justice court for the precinct in which the part of the center in this state is located may maintain an office and courtroom in the center.

(c) A court of this state may not hold proceedings in the part of the center located in the other state.
Courts of the other state may hold proceedings in the part of the center in this state.

Financing

Sec. 3. The governing body of a Texas municipali-pality or Texas county contracting as provided by Section 1 of this Act may finance its share of the construction, financing, operation, or management of the center by any means that it could finance the type of facilities in the center to be used or provided by it. The contract may take advantage of the availability of federal funds to finance any part of the center.

Management of Center

Sec. 4. The contracting parties may specify in the contract the manner of determining the persons responsible for:

(1) the operation, alteration, maintenance, cleaning, and repair of the facilities;

(2) the employment of center personnel;

(3) the purchase of materials, supplies, tools, and other equipment to be jointly used by offices provided or used by the contracting parties;

(4) preparing reports to the governing bodies of the contracting parties;

(5) joint record-keeping, communications, or dispatch systems; and

(6) the performance of any other powers or duties relating to operation of the center.

Personnel

Sec. 5. The contracting parties may provide in the contract the manner of determining the personnel policies and employment benefit programs for center personnel.

Jail Management

Sec. 6. The contract must provide that the sheriffs of the two counties are jointly responsible for operation of any jail, lockup, or other detention facility in the center and the custody, care, and treatment of persons in custody in the facility or must provide for the hiring of a jailer with those responsibilities.

Law Applicable to the Center

Sec. 7. (a) Except as otherwise provided by this Act, the law of both states regarding rights, duties, liabilities, privileges, and immunities arising from conduct applies to conduct in any part of the center.
If, however, it is impossible for a person to conform his or her conduct in the center to the law of both states, that person may choose which state's law governs that conduct. If a person chooses to conform his or her conduct in the center to the law of the other state, the conflicting law of this state does not apply to that conduct.

(b) The physical plant of the center and equipment and facilities used by personnel of both states employed at the center are constructively present in both states.

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d) of this section, property in any part of the center that is owned by or in the possession of a person in custody or summoned to appear in the center is constructively present in the state under the law of which the person was taken into custody or summoned to appear.

(d) Possession of property that constitutes an offense committed in the center is conduct to which Subsection (a) of this section applies. A person's exercise of a duty in regard to property in the center is conduct to which Subsection (a) of this section applies.

(e) Property that is ordered by a court to be produced in the center or that is in the possession of a peace officer or a party to a proceeding for use as evidence before a court holding a proceeding in the center is constructively present in the state of the court.

(f) Property in the center that is not covered by Subsection (e), (d), or (e) of this section is constructively present in both states.

(g) The law of a state in which property is constructively present applies to that property to the extent that that state's law would apply if the property were actually present in that state. If property is constructively present in only one state, the law of the state in which the property is not constructively present may be applied to that property only to the extent that that law would apply if the property were actually outside that state.

(h) Except as otherwise provided by this Act, the courts of both states have concurrent jurisdiction over the geographic area of both states in the center, but the state in which a prosecution is first instituted for an offense committed in the center retains jurisdiction to apply that state's law to the exclusion of the other state's jurisdiction, unless the prosecution is terminated without jeopardy attaching under the law of the state of the first prosecution. For the purposes of this Act, a prosecution is commenced in this state on the filing of an indictment, information, or complaint, and the attachment of jeopardy in this state is determined by Article 27.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

Arrest, Extradition, and Service of Process

Sec. 8. (a) A person who is in the center in the custody of a peace officer or center personnel under Texas law: (1) is constructively present in Texas while that person is in custody in the part of the center in the other state; (2) may be prosecuted for an offense against Texas law without extradition of that person; and (3) may be personally served in any part of the center for a proceeding in Texas.

(b) A person who is in the custody of a peace officer or center personnel under the law of the other state: (1) is constructively present in the other state while that person is in custody in the part of the center in Texas; (2) may not be prosecuted for an offense against Texas law without extradition of that person; and (3) may not be personally served with process in any part of the center for a proceeding in Texas.

(c) Texas agrees that a person who is in the center in the custody of a peace officer or center personnel under the law of the other state may be prosecuted for an offense against the law of the other state without extradition of that person.

d) Center personnel or a peace officer of either state may transfer across the state line in the center a person in custody in the center under the law of either state and may exercise control over that person on both sides of the state line in the center.

(e) A person in the center who has not been confined in the center, taken to the center under arrest, or summoned to appear in the center may be arrested in any part of the center for an offense against the law of either state without extradition of that person.

(f) A person who is summoned to appear in the center under Texas law: (1) is constructively present in Texas while that person is appearing under the summons in the part of the center in the other state; (2) without extradition, may be arrested in any part of the center for an offense against Texas law and prosecuted for that offense if that person is physically present in any part of the center or Texas at the time of the prosecution; and (3) may be personally served with process in any part of the center for a proceeding in Texas.

(g) A person who is summoned to appear in the center under the law of the other state: (1) is constructively present in the other state while that person is appearing under the summons in the part of the center in Texas;
(2) without extradition, may not be arrested under Texas law in any part of the center for an offense against Texas law; and

(3) may not be personally served with process in any part of the center for a proceeding in Texas.

(h) Texas agrees that a person who is summoned to appear in the center under the law of the other state may be arrested in any part of the center for an offense against the law of the other state and prosecuted for that offense without extradition if that person is physically present in any part of the center or the other state at the time of the prosecution. Texas agrees that a person who is summoned to appear in the center under the law of the other state may be personally served with process in any part of the center for a proceeding in the other state.

(i) If a person in the center is constructively present in one state under this section, the law of the state in which the person is not constructively present may be applied to that person only to the extent that that law would apply if the person were actually outside that state. However, the law applicable to that person's conduct in the center is governed by Section 7 of this Act, and whether extradition is required to arrest or prosecute that person for an offense committed in the center is governed by Section 8 of this Act.

(j) If the other state enacts legislation as provided in Section 9 of this Act, a peace officer of Texas may:

(1) arrest a person under Texas law in the part of the center in the other state for an offense against Texas law if that peace officer would be authorized to make that arrest in the part of the center in Texas; and

(2) arrest a person under the law of the other state in any part of the center for an offense against the law of the other state if a peace officer of the other state would be authorized to make that arrest in the part of the center in the other state.

(k) Texas agrees that a peace officer of the other state may arrest a person under Texas law in any part of the center for an offense against Texas law if a peace officer of Texas would be authorized to make that arrest in the part of the center in Texas.

(l) Texas agrees that a peace officer of the other state may arrest a person under the law of the other state in the part of the center in Texas for an offense against the law of the other state if that peace officer would be authorized to make that arrest in the part of the center in the other state.

(m) Notwithstanding Sections 3 and 6, Article 51-13, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, the governor of this state may recognize a demand for the extradition of a person charged with crime in the other state if the demand alleges that any element of the offense occurred in any part of the center.
(9) authorizes a peace officer of either state, under Texas law, to arrest a person in any part of the center for an offense against Texas law if a peace officer of Texas would be authorized to make that arrest in the part of the center in Texas, as provided by Section 8 of this Act; and

(10) authorizes a peace officer of either state, under the law of the other state, to arrest a person in any part of the center for an offense against the law of the other state if a peace officer of the other state would be authorized to make that arrest in the part of the center in the other state, as provided by Section 8 of this Act.

Effect of Existing Bond Indentures

Sec. 3. The commissioners court may lease the real property and air rights thereto, as provided herein, notwithstanding that the real property leased is presently encumbered by existing revenue bond indentures. In leasing the county-owned land or the air rights thereto, the commissioners court shall abide by all applicable terms and conditions of the existing revenue bond indentures, except such terms as are waived by the holders of the revenue bonds.

Creation of Encumbrance Prohibited

Sec. 4. No lease of county-owned land or air rights thereto hereunder shall in any way subject the county-owned land to a mortgage or encumbrance not heretofore existing and any lease executed hereunder shall specifically provide that such county-owned land shall not be deemed to be encumbered or mortgaged by any lease executed hereunder, or any agreement executed in connection with such lease.

Land May not be Mortgaged

Sec. 5. The county-owned land which may be leased hereunder shall not be in any way pledged or mortgaged (other than by existing revenue bond indentures or refunding or other release of existing revenue bond indentures), by any lease or agreement executed hereunder, and the county executing a lease hereunder shall not in any way lend its credit to any private corporation, association, or person in connection with a lease executed hereunder.

Duration of Lease

Sec. 6. Any lease entered into hereunder by the commissioners court is authorized to be initially for the term of any mortgage covering the construction of the hotel and related facilities and is authorized to provide an option to renew thereafter in the parties constructing, owning, or operating the hotel or related facilities for such term as the parties may mutually agree.

Lease Terms and Conditions

Sec. 7. Any lease hereunder of county-owned property or air rights thereto shall be leased upon a competitive bid and for a consideration of not less than the fair market lease value and may otherwise be upon such terms and conditions as the parties may mutually agree upon consistent with the constitution and laws of this state.

Sale of Property

Sec. 8. (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of the law to the contrary, the commissioners court is specifically authorized to enter an agreement hereunder to provide for the sale of specified county-owned land to a private association, corporation, or individual once the following conditions have been fulfilled:

(3) the parties mutually agree to a sale of the realty and air rights thereto;

(4) the county receives an adequate sale price which is fair under the then existing market conditions for the sale of the land and any air rights thereto.

(b) The commissioners court may impose such deed restrictions or reverters as may be advisable to preserve the use of the land for a purpose consistent with the construction, expansion, ownership, and operation of a hotel and related facilities in conjunction with a convention center.
(c) The sale of the land may include land appurtenant to the land upon which said hotel or related facilities have been built.

Contracts; Parties, Purposes

Sec. 9. The power of the commissioners court to enter into agreements and contracts hereunder shall extend to one or more private associations, corporations, or individuals for all or any of the following purposes: construction of a hotel and related facilities, ownership of a hotel and related facilities, and operation, maintenance, and expansion of a hotel and related facilities.

Expenditure of Tax Revenue

Sec. 10. In agreements and contracts authorized by this Act, the commissioners court may expend tax funds consistent with the provisions of this Act and other provisions of state law, but the commitment and expenditure of tax funds must be from current revenues of the county.

Sec. 2. The commissioners court by order may set the admission fee authorized by this Act. Admission fees charged and collected under this Act shall be placed in a county special fund to be used by the commissioners court for the payment of costs associated with the administration, maintenance, security, or staffing necessary to operate the building or site. The special fund may not be expended for purposes other than those associated with the building or site.

Art. 2372d-8. Public Improvements in Certain Counties to Attract Visitors and Tourists; Bonds; Occupancy Tax

Improvements to Attract Visitors and Tourists

Sec. 2. A county covered by this article is authorized to establish, acquire, lease as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate, or maintain (any or all) public improvements such as civic centers, civic center buildings, auditoriums, exhibition halls, coliseums, and stadiums, including sports and other facilities (either or all) that serve the purpose of attracting visitors and tourists to the county, and to establish, acquire, lease as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate, or maintain (any or all) structures, parking areas, or facilities located at or in the immediate vicinity of these public improvements to be used in connection with the public improvements for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances. Any lease shall be on such terms and conditions as the county deems appropriate.

Revenue Bonds

Sec. 3. To the extent that these revenues may have been pledged to the payment of revenue or revenue refunding bonds that are still outstanding, the pledge securing the proposed bonds shall be inferior to the previous pledge or pledges. Within the discretion of the commissioners court of the county, and subject to limitations contained in previous pledges, if any, in addition to the pledge of revenues a lien may be given in all or any part of the physical properties acquired out of the proceeds from the sale of the bonds.

(c) When any of the revenues of the public improvements and facilities are pledged to the payment of bonds issued under this article, it is the duty of the commissioners court of the county to cause to be fixed, maintained, and enforced charges for services rendered by properties and facilities, the revenues of which have been pledged, at rates and amounts at least sufficient to comply with and carry out the covenants and provisions contained in the order or orders authorizing the issuance of the bonds.
(d) If the county leases as lessee any one or more of these public improvements, structures, parking areas, or facilities, the county shall have authority to pledge to the lease payments required to be made by the county all or any part of the revenues of the public improvements, structures, parking areas, or facilities.

Hotel Occupancy Tax

Sec. 4. (a) The commissioners court of the county by order may levy a tax on the cost of occupancy of any sleeping room in a hotel in the county for which the cost of occupancy is at the rate of $2 or more per day. The tax may not exceed the applicable percentage specified in this section of the consideration paid to the hotel by the occupant of the sleeping room.

All occupancy taxes to be levied or attempted to be levied pursuant to the orders are hereby declared fully enforceable to the same extent as if levied or attempted to be levied pursuant to valid laws duly enacted by the legislature of this state specifically providing authority for the passage and adoption of the orders and the levy of the taxes.

Orders Relating to Bonds

Sec. 9. In the order or orders authorizing the issuance of any revenue or revenue refunding bonds authorized by this article, the county may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund or funds, reserve fund or funds, and other funds and make additional covenants with respect to the bonds and the pledged revenues and the operation and maintenance of those improvements, and facilities, the revenues of which are pledged, including provision for the operation or for the leasing of all or any part of said improvements or facilities and the use or pledge of money derived from such operation, contracts and leases, as it may deem appropriate. The order or orders may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payable from the revenues on a parity with or subordinate to the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued, subject to the conditions as are set forth in the order or orders. The order or orders may contain other provisions and covenants, as the county may determine, not prohibited by the Constitution of Texas or by this article, and the county may adopt and cause to be executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary or convenient in the issuance of any of the bonds.

Reserve Funds; Investments

Sec. 10. From the proceeds of sale of any bonds issued under this article, the county may appropriate or set aside, out of the bond proceeds an amount for the payment of interest expected to accrue during the period of construction, an amount or amounts to be deposited into the reserve fund or funds as may be provided in the bond order or orders, and an amount necessary to pay all expenses incurred and to be incurred in the issuance, sale, and delivery of the bonds. Until such time or times as the bond proceeds are needed to carry out the bond purpose, the bond proceeds may be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America or may be placed on time deposit, or both. Money in the interest and sinking fund or funds, in the reserve fund or funds, and in any other fund or funds established or provided for in the bond order or orders may be invested in such a manner and in such securities as may be provided in the bond order or orders.

Formal Requirements; Maturity; Approval and Registration

Sec. 11. All bonds shall be signed by the county judge and countersigned by the county clerk and shall have the seal of the county impressed on them, provided that the bond order or orders may provide for the bonds and any attached interest coupons to be signed by facsimile signatures and for the seal of the county on the bonds to be a facsimile as provided by Chapter 204, Acts of the 57th Legislature, Regular Session, 1961 (Article 717—1, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes). Refunding bonds shall be authorized by order or orders and shall be executed and shall mature as is provided in this article for original bonds. They shall be approved by the attorney general as in the case of original bonds and shall be registered by the comptroller on the surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof the order or orders authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to pay the interest on and principal of the underlying bonds to their option or maturity date, and the comptroller shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying bonds. All such refunding bonds, after they have been approved by the attorney general and registered by the comptroller, shall be incontestable except for forgery or fraud.

Negotiability; Authorized Investments; Use as Security

All bonds issued under this article, whether original bonds or refunding bonds, shall be and are hereby declared to be and to have all the qualifications of negotiable instruments under Chapter 8, Business & Commerce Code, and all the bonds shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of every kind or type, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Art. 2372i. Zoning of Padre Island

Board of Adjustment
Sec. 8. The said Commissioners Court may provide for the appointment of a board of adjustment, and in the regulations and restrictions adopted pursuant to the authority of this Act may provide that the said board of adjustment may, in appropriate cases, and subject to appropriate conditions and safeguards, make special exceptions to the terms of the zoning regulations in harmony with their general purpose and intent and in accordance with general or specific rules therein contained.

The board of adjustment shall consist of five members, each to be appointed for a term of two (2) years and removable for cause by the appointing authority upon written charges and after public hearing. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term of any member whose term becomes vacant.

The board shall adopt rules in accordance with the provisions of any order adopted pursuant to this Act. Meetings of the board shall be held at the call of the chairman and at such other times as the board may determine. Such chairman, or in his absence the acting chairman, may administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses. All meetings of the board shall be open to the public. The board shall keep minutes of its proceedings, showing the vote of each member upon each question, or, if absent or failing to vote, indicating such fact, and shall keep records of its examinations and other official actions, all of which shall be immediately filed in the office of the board and shall be a public record.

Appeals to the Board of Adjustment may be taken by any person aggrieved or by any officer, department, board, or bureau of the county or of any municipality affected by any decision of the administrative officer. Such appeal shall be taken within a reasonable time, as provided by the rules of the board, by filing with the officer from whom the appeal is taken, and with the Board of Adjustment, a notice of appeal specifying the grounds thereof. The officer from whom the appeal is taken shall forthwith transmit to the board all the papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken.

An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from, unless the officer from whom the appeal is taken certifies to the Board of Adjustment after the notice of appeal shall have been filed with him that by reason of facts stated in the certificate a stay would, in his opinion, cause imminent peril to life or property. In such case proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by a restraining order which may be granted by the Board of Adjustment or by a court of record on application on notice to the officer from whom the appeal is taken and on due cause shown.

The Board of Adjustment shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of the appeal, give public notice thereof, as well as due notice to the parties in interest, and decide the same within a reasonable time. Upon the hearing any party may appear in person or by agent or by attorney.

The Board of Adjustment shall have the following powers:

1. To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged there is error in any order, requirement, decision, or determination made by an administrative official in the enforcement of this Act or of any order adopted pursuant thereto;
2. To hear and decide special exceptions to the terms of the order upon which such board is required to pass under such order;
3. To authorize upon appeal in specific cases such variance from the terms of the order as will not be contrary to the public interest, where, owing to special conditions, a literal enforcement of the provisions of the order will result in unnecessary hardship, and so that the spirit of the order shall be observed and substantial justice done.

In exercising the above mentioned powers such board may, in conformity with the provisions of this Act, reverse or reaffirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision, or determination as ought to be made, and to that end shall have all the powers of the officer from whom the appeal is taken.

The concurring vote of four (4) members of the board shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision, or determination of any such administrative official, or to decide in favor of the applicant on any matter upon which it is required to pass under any such order, or to effect any variation in such order.

Any person, or persons, jointly or severally, aggrieved by any decision of the Board of Adjustment, or any taxpayer, or any officer, department, board, or bureau of the county or of the municipality, may present to a court of record a petition, duly verified, setting forth that such decision is illegal, in whole or in part, specifying the grounds of the illegality. Such petition shall be presented to the court within ten (10) days after the filing of the decision in the office of the board.

Upon the presentation of such petition the court may allow a writ of certiorari directed to the Board of Adjustment to review such decision of the Board of Adjustment and shall prescribe therein the time within which a return thereto must be made and served upon the relator’s attorney, which shall not be less than ten (10) days and may be extended by the court. The allowance of the writ shall not stay proceedings upon the decision appealed from, but the court may, on application, on notice to the board and on due cause shown, grant a restraining order.

The Board of Adjustment shall not be required to return the original papers acted upon by it, but is shall be sufficient to return certified or sworn copies thereof or of such portions thereof as may be called for by such writ. The return shall concisely set forth such other facts as may be pertinent and material to show the grounds of the decision appealed from and shall be verified.

If, upon the hearing, it shall appear to the court that testimony is necessary for the proper disposition of the matter, it may take evidence or appoint a referee to take such evidence as it may direct and report the same to the court with his findings of fact and conclusions of law, which shall constitute a part of the proceedings upon which the determination of the court shall be made. The court may reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the decision brought up for review.

Costs shall not be allowed against the board unless it shall appear to the court that it acted with gross negligence, or in bad faith, or with malice in making the decision appealed from.

Sec. 6. (a) Any person desiring to act as a bondsman in any court of the county shall file with the County Bail Bond Board a sworn application for a license. The application shall be in such form and shall contain such information as the board may prescribe including the following:

The following shall be included for each parcel listed:

(A) a legal description equivalent to the description required to convey the property by general warranty deed;

(B) current statements from each taxing unit with power to assess or collect taxes against the property indicating that there are no outstanding tax liens against the property and indicating the net value of the property according to the current appraisal made by a member of the Society of Real Estate Advisors or a Member of Appraisal Institute, accompanied by a statement from the applicant agreeing to keep all taxes paid on the property while it remains in trust;

(C) a statement of the applicant that he will not further encumber the property after conveying it in trust to the County Bail Bond Board, without notifying and obtaining the permission of the board;

(D) an agreement to insure and keep current the insurance on any improvements on the property against any damage or destruction while the property remains in trust, in the full amount of the value claimed for the improvements;

(E) a statement indicating whether the applicant is married and, if so, a sworn statement from the spouse agreeing to transfer to the board, as a part of the trust, any right, title, or interest that the spouse may have in the property; and the spouse must execute the deeds of trust to any community property placed in the security deposit required under this section;

(5) A statement indicating the amount of cash or cash value of any certificate of deposit or cashier's checks which the applicant intends to place on deposit with the county treasurer to secure payment of any obligations incurred by the applicant in the bonding business if the license is granted;

(6) A complete, sworn financial statement;

(7) A declaration by the applicant that he will comply with this Act and the rules prescribed by the board.

(b) The application of an individual for a license under this Act shall be accompanied by letters of recommendation from three reputable persons who have known the applicant for a period of at least three years. If the applicant is a corporation, the letters shall be required for the person to be in charge of its business in the county. Each letter shall recommend the applicant or person who will be in charge of its business as having a reputation of honesty, truthfulness, fair dealing, and competency and shall recommend that the license be granted. If the applicant or the person to be in charge of its business has been licensed under this Act in another county, the application shall be accompanied by a letter from each appropriate board stating whether or not the applicant is in good standing in the county where he is licensed.

(c) The application shall be accompanied by a fee of $500 for the filing of any original application, a photograph of the applicant, and a set of fingerprints of the applicant taken by a law enforcement officer designated by the board.

(d) Prior to a hearing on the application, the board or its authorized representative shall conduct necessary inquiries to determine whether the applicant possesses the financial responsibility and meets other requirements of this Act.

(e) A hearing shall be held on the application after the board conducts the inquiries required by Subsection (d) of this section. The board may submit any questions to the applicant and the applicant's agents relevant to its ruling on the application, and the applicant is entitled to present oral and documentary evidence to the board. If, after the hearing, the board is satisfied that no grounds exist on which to refuse the application, the board shall enter an order tentatively approving the application subject to the application being perfected by the filing of the security deposits required of licensees under this Act. If the board is not so satisfied, it shall enter an order refusing the license.

(f) Upon notice from the board that the application has been tentatively approved, the applicant shall then:

(1) deposit with the county treasurer of the county in which the license is to be issued a cashier's check, certificate of deposit, cash, or cash equivalent in the amount indicated by the applicant under Subdivision (5) of Subsection (a) of Section 6 of this Act but in no event less than $5,000 to be held in a special fund to be called the bail security fund; or

(3) If the licensee is a corporation, it shall furnish to the sheriff an irrevocable letter of credit as a cash equivalent to satisfy any final judgment of forfeiture that may be made on any bonds on which the corporate licensee is surety.

(g) No bondsman may execute, in any county, bail bonds that in the aggregate exceed 10 times the value of the property held as security on deposit or in trust under Subsection (f) of this section. A county officer or employee designated by the board shall maintain a current total of the bondsman's potential liability on bonds in force, and no further bonds may be written by or accepted from the bondsman when the limit is reached. When a bondsman's total liability on judgments nisi reaches two times the same amount as he has on deposit as security, no further bonds may be written until the bondsman posts additional security as required in this subsection. A bondsman whose license is suspended or revoked, if the renewal application complies with the requirements of this Act, and if the board knows no legal reason why the application should not be renewed, the license may then be renewed for a period of 24 months in like manner.

Corporation as Surety

Sec. 7. (a) Wherever in this Act any person is required or authorized to give or execute any bail bond, such bail bond may be given or executed by such principal and any corporation authorized by law to act as surety. When any such corporation authorized by law to act as a surety undertakes to be a surety on a bail bond, such corporation, before being acceptable as a surety on a bail bond, shall be required to meet the applicable requirements prescribed by Section 6 of this Act before being acceptable as a personal surety on a bail bond; Subsection (g) of Section 6 does not apply to a corporate surety.

(b) The certificate of authority to do business in this state issued to a corporation by the State Board of Insurance pursuant to Article 21.14, Texas Insurance Code, as amended, shall be conclusive evidence as to the sufficiency of the security, the corporation's solvency, or its credits.

(c) Any corporation which acts as a surety shall, before executing any bail bond, first file in the office of the county clerk of the county where such bail bond is given a power of attorney designating and authorizing the named agent of such corporation to execute such bail bonds by such agent. This power of attorney shall be a valid and binding obligation of the corporation. A separate license is required for each agent operating under a corporate power of attorney.

(d) Notwithstanding any statutory requirements to the contrary, any agent so designated and licensed or approved hereunder for the purpose of writing bail bonds shall not be required to be licensed as a local recording agent as defined in Article 21.14, Texas Insurance Code, as amended, for the purpose of this Act.

(e) It shall be the duty of the board to notify promptly the State Board of Insurance of default by a corporation on any financial obligation which it undertakes in the county.

Expiration and Renewal of License

Sec. 8. (a) A license issued under this Act expires 24 months after the date of its issuance and may not be renewed unless an application for renewal is filed with the board at least 30 days before expiration. The application for renewal shall have the same form and content as an application for an original license under this Act. The application for renewal shall be accompanied by a renewal fee of $500. If the applicant's current license has not been suspended or revoked, if the renewal application complies with the requirements of this Act, and if the board knows no legal reason why the application should not be renewed, the license may then be renewed for a period of 24 months from the date of expiration and may be renewed subsequently each 24 months in like manner.
Sec. 10. (a) The board may revoke or suspend a license in accordance with the procedure provided in this section for the violation of any provision of this Act.

(b) Notice of a hearing to suspend or revoke shall be given by certified mail addressed to the last known address of the licensee at least 10 days prior to a date set for the hearing.

(c) The notice shall specify the charges of violation of this Act made against the licensee, and no other charges shall be made at the hearing pursuant to the notice.

(d) The hearing shall afford to the licensee opportunity to be heard, to present witnesses in his behalf, and to question witnesses against him.

(e) A record of the hearing shall be made. It shall be made available to the licensee on his request subject to his paying reasonable costs of transcription.

(f) If the licensee fails to maintain the security deposit at the proper ratio required by this Act, under Subsection (g) of Section 6 of this Act, the board shall immediately suspend the license while the violation continues. No prior notice or a hearing is necessary. Once the proper ratio is regained, the suspension shall be immediately lifted. The board shall revoke the license with prior notice or hearing if the licensee fails to pay any final judgment connected with the licensee’s bonding business within 30 days and there is not sufficient property held as security to satisfy the final judgment.

Court Review

Sec. 11. An appeal may be taken from any board’s order revoking, suspending, or refusing to issue a license. The appeal must be made within 30 days after written notice of the suspension, revocation, or refusal by filing a petition in a district court in the county in which the license is issued or refused. If no appeal is taken within 30 days after written notice of suspension, revocation, or refusal, such action shall become final. An appeal shall be by trial de novo, as in proceedings appealed from justice to county courts. The decision of the board shall have full force and effect pending the determination of the appeal. All appeals taken from actions of the board shall be against the board and not against the members individually.

Surrender of Principal

Sec. 12. (a) No person who executes a bail bond as a surety for a principal may surrender the principal without the written permission of the judge having jurisdiction of the case after the person who executed the bail bond has executed an affidavit to be filed with the clerk of the court stating:

(1) the date the bond was made;
(2) the fee paid for the bond; and
(3) the reason for the surrender.

(b) If the reason for surrender is deemed without reasonable cause by the principal, any agent of the board, or any attorney representing the state or any accused in the proceeding, that person may bring the matter to the attention of the court.

(c) If the court determines that the person who surrendered the principal did so without reasonable cause, the court in its discretion may require that all or a part of the fees paid as a condition for making the bail bond shall be returned to the principal. In making the determination the court shall determine what fees, whether denominated fees for the making of the bond or not, were in fact paid for the purpose of inducing the surety to make the bond.

(d) Notwithstanding any statute required to the contrary or any provision in the bond, the court may not require or commit the surety to remain during any appeal of a case without previous approval of the surety. When a case is appealed without approval of the surety, the bail shall be discharged. Nothing shall deny the principal any right to an appeal bond as provided in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

Remittitur of Forfeited Bonds

Sec. 13. (a) Prior to final judgment on any forfeiture of an appearance bond in a criminal case the attorney for the state may recommend to the court settlement for an amount less than that stated in the bond, or the court may upon its own motion approve such settlement.

(b) After a forfeiture, if the defendant is incarcerated within two years of a judgment nisi, the bondsman shall be entitled to a remittitur of at least 95 percent if he presents a sworn affidavit stating that the defendant was returned to custody, in part, as a result of money spent or information furnished by the bondsman.

The remittitur shall be credited against an unpaid judgment of forfeiture or if the judgment has been paid, the treasurer shall refund at least 95 percent.

(c) The surety on appearance bonds in criminal cases shall be absolved of liability upon disposition of the case, and disposition as used herein shall mean a dismissal, acquittal, or finding of guilty on the charges made the basis of the bond.

Approval of Bond

Sec. 14. (a) In any county or district case in which the posting of bond is required as a condition of release, the sheriff shall accept or approve a bond posted by a licensed bondsman only in accordance with this Act and the rules prescribed by the board, but a sheriff may not refuse to accept a bail bond from a licensed bondsman who meets the requirements of Subdivision (4) or (5) of Subsection (a) of Section 6 of this Act.

Effect of Default by Corporation

Sec. 14A. (a) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a corporation that is in default on five or more bail bonds in a county may not act as a bail bondsman in that county.

(b) The clerk of the court in which the corporation is in default on a bail bond shall deliver a written notice of the default to the sheriff, chief of police, or other appropriate peace officer in the county in which the bond is forfeited.

(c) A corporation is considered in default on a bail bond from the time the trial court enters its final judgment on the scire facias until the judgment is satisfied or set aside.

(d) For purposes of this section, a corporation is not considered in default on a bond if it deposits with the appropriate court cash in the full amount of the judgment, pending appeal. The deposit shall be applied to the payment of any final judgment in the case.

The commissioner shall call a meeting of the directors of the credit union and lay before them the findings and demand a discontinuance of the violations and practices found.

(c) If the commissioner finds that an order to cease and desist is necessary and in the best interest of the credit union involved and its depositors, creditors, and members, then at the directors' meeting above provided or within 30 days thereafter the commissioner may serve on the credit union, its board of directors, and any offending officers, directors, or employees, a written order to cease and desist from the violations and practices enumerated in the order and to take such affirmative action as may be necessary to correct the conditions resulting from the violations or practices. The cease and desist order is effective immediately if the commissioner finds that immediate and irreparable harm is threatened to the credit union, its depositors, or members; otherwise, the order shall state the effective date, not less than 10 days after delivery or mailing of the notice. Art. 2461-6.05. Multiple-party Accounts
(a) A member may designate any person, organization, association, corporation, or partnership to hold shares, deposits, and thrift club accounts with the member in joint tenancy. One or more or all of the joint tenants may make deposits and withdrawals subject to the terms of a multiple-party account agreement accepted by the credit union. A credit union shall maintain all multiple-party account agreements as a permanent part of the records pertaining to multiple-party accounts. At least one party to a multiple-party account must be a member of the credit union in which the account is established. No joint tenant, unless also a member, may vote, obtain loans, or hold office in the credit union. Payment of part or all of a multiple-party account to any one or more of the joint tenants, regardless of the extent of the payment, shall be the liability of the credit union to all.
(b) The net contribution of a party to a multiple-party account as of any given time is the sum of all deposits or shares made by or for the party, less the bylaws specify otherwise.

(c) The death of any party to a multiple-party account has no effect on the beneficial ownership of the account, other than to transfer the decedent’s right in the account to the estate of the decedent, unless the account is a survivorship account or trust account established in accordance with the laws and with the constitution of this state and the bylaws of the credit union. Nothing in this Act otherwise prevents a credit union from operating the account in accordance with the terms of the multiple-party account agreement.

(d) A multiple-party account payable to two or more persons, jointly or severally, that does not expressly provide that there is a right of survivorship, is presumed to be a nonsurvivorship account.

(e) Without qualifying any other statutory right to a setoff or lien, and subject to any contractual provisions accepted by the credit union, when a party to a multiple-party account is indebted to a credit union, the credit union has a right to set off against the entire amount of the account.

(f) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as in conflict with the laws of the United States or of the State of Texas as those laws govern the taxation of multiple-party accounts.

Art. 2461-6.07. Trust Accounts
A credit union may issue shares or deposits in the name of a member in trust for a beneficiary, including a minor, but no beneficiary, unless the beneficiary is a member, may vote, obtain loans, hold office, or be required to pay an entrance fee. Payment of part or all of the shares or deposits to a member shall, to the extent of the payment, discharge the liability of the credit union to the member and the beneficiary, and the credit union shall be under no obligation to see the application of the payment. If a member to whom shares or deposits are issued or held in trust dies, and the credit union has no other written evidence of the existence or terms of any trust, the credit union shall pay the shares or deposits and any dividends or interest to the beneficiary or to the legal representative of the parties from time to time shall be presumed to own the joint account in equal undivided interests.

(c) The death of any party to a multiple-party account has no effect on the beneficial ownership of the account, other than to transfer the decedent’s right in the account to the estate of the decedent, unless the account is a survivorship account or trust account established in accordance with the laws and with the constitution of this state and the bylaws of the credit union. Nothing in this Act otherwise prevents a credit union from operating the account in accordance with the terms of the multiple-party account agreement.

(d) A multiple-party account payable to two or more persons, jointly or severally, that does not expressly provide that there is a right of survivorship, is presumed to be a nonsurvivorship account.

(e) Without qualifying any other statutory right to a setoff or lien, and subject to any contractual provisions accepted by the credit union, when a party to a multiple-party account is indebted to a credit union, the credit union has a right to set off against the entire amount of the account.

(f) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as in conflict with the laws of the United States or of the State of Texas as those laws govern the taxation of multiple-party accounts.

Art. 2461-9.01 Reserve Allocations

(a) The commissioner shall, with the approval of the commission, promulgate rules and regulations prescribing reserve allocations and requiring credit unions to maintain any reserves necessary to protect the interests of their members.

(b) The reserve fund belongs to the credit union. The credit union shall use its reserve fund to meet all losses except those resulting from an excess of expenses over income. The credit union may not distribute its reserve fund except on liquidation of the credit union or in accordance with a plan approved by the department. The board of directors may increase, or if the fund equals or exceeds the percentage established by regulations promulgated under this Act, may decrease the proportion of the gross income to be placed in the reserve fund, and may transfer part or all of the undivided earnings to the reserve fund.

Art. 2461-9.02. Dividends

If the credit union later realizes from its assets a greater amount than was fixed by the order of reduction, the credit union shall divide the excess among the shareholders whose assets were reduced, but only to the extent of the reduction.

Chapter 10. Change in Corporate Status

Art. 2461-10.01 Suspension

(a) If the commissioner finds that the capital of a credit union is seriously impaired, or that it is conducting its affairs in an unsafe, unauthorized, or unlawful manner, or that it refuses to submit to examination, the commissioner may take possession of the property and business of the credit union and retain possession until the commissioner permits it to resume business or orders its liquidation. Simultaneously, the commissioner shall cause notice of suspension to be given to the board of directors and shall call for a hearing within 10 days, at which hearing the board of directors may show cause why the suspension should not be continued or the credit union should not be liquidated. The board of directors may waive this hearing.

(b) If the commissioner, after issuing notice of suspension and providing opportunity for a hearing, rejects the credit union’s plan to continue operations, the commissioner may issue a notice of involuntary liquidation and appoint a liquidating agent who shall proceed as provided in Section 10.02 of this Act.

Art. 2461-10.02. Liquidation

(a) When the commissioner finds that the interests of depositors and creditors of a credit union are seriously jeopardized through insolvency or imminent insolvency and that it is to the best interest of the depositors and creditors that the credit union be closed and its assets liquidated, the commissioner may close and liquidate the credit union.

(b) Unless involuntary liquidation has already been initiated by the commissioner, a majority of the credit union members present at a meeting specially called to consider the matter, but not less than a quorum, may vote to dissolve and liquidate the credit union if a notice of the special meeting was mailed to the members of the credit union at least 10 days prior to the meeting. Immediately after the mailing of a notice of a special meeting called to consider the matter of liquidation, the credit union shall cease to operate except for the purposes of accepting payments on loans or other obligations due the credit union. If the vote to dissolve and liquidate the credit union passes, the credit union may do no further business except that incidental to liquidation. The chairman of the board or the president and the secretary shall, within five days following the meeting and the affirmative vote to dissolve and liquidate, notify the department of intention to liquidate and shall include a list of the names of the directors and officers of the credit union together with their addresses. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, the commissioner may appoint a liquidating agent to act for the board of directors of the credit union in liquidation if it is found that it is to the best interests of the depositors and creditors to do so.

(c) At any time within five days after the commissioner has closed any credit union under the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section or has appointed a liquidating agent to act for the board of directors under the provisions of Subsection (b) of this section, the credit union acting through its directors may sue in the district court of the county in which the credit union is located to enjoin the commissioner from liquidating the credit union. The court may, without notice or hearing, restrain the commissioner from liquidating the assets of such credit union pending hearing of the suit on the merits, and shall, in that event, instruct the commissioner to hold the assets of the credit union in the commissioner's possession pending final disposition of the suit. The commissioner may, with approval of the court, take such actions as may be necessary or proper to prevent loss or depreciation in the value of the assets. The court shall, as soon as possible, hear the suit on the merits and shall enter a judgment either enjoining the commissioner from liquidating the assets of the credit union or refusing to issue an injunction. Appeal shall lie from the judgment as in other civil cases, but the commissioner, irrespective of the character of judgment entered by the trial court or of any supersedeas bond filed, shall retain possession of the assets of such credit union pending final disposition on appeal.

(d) The credit union in liquidation shall continue in existence for the purpose of discharging its debts, collecting and distributing its assets, and doing all acts required in order to wind up its business, and may sue and be sued for the purpose of enforcing such debts and obligations until its affairs are fully adjusted. The board of directors or the liquidating agent shall use the assets of the credit union to pay, in the following order:

1. expenses incidental to liquidation including any surety bond that may be required;
2. any liability due nonmembers;
3. depositors;
4. thrift club accounts as provided in this Act; and
5. distributions to members proportionate to the shares held by each member as of the date liquidation was voted.

(e) A liquidating agent may, subject to the control and supervision of the commissioner and under the rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner:

1. receive and take possession of the books, records, assets, and property of the credit union in liquidation; sell, enforce collection of, and liquidate all assets and property; compound all bad or doubtful debts; sue in the name of the liquidating agent or in the name of the credit union in liquidation; and defend actions brought against the liquidating agent or against the credit union;
2. receive, examine, and pass on all claims against the credit union in liquidation, including claims of members on shares;
3. make distribution and payment to creditors and members as their interests may appear; and
4. execute such documents and papers and do such other acts and things that the liquidating agent may deem necessary or desirable to discharge his duties.

(f) Subject to the control and supervision of the commissioner and under the rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner, the board of directors or liquidating agent of a credit union in liquidation shall:

1. cause notice to be given to creditors and members to present and make legal proof of their claims, which notice must be published once a week in each of three successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in each county where the credit union in liquidation maintained an office or branch for the transaction of business on the date it ceased unrestricted operations; except that when the aggregate book value of the assets and property of the credit union in liquidation is less than $10,000, the commissioner shall declare the credit union in liquidation to be a "no publication" liquidation, and publication notice to creditors and members is not required in such case;

(2) From time to time make a ratable liquidation dividend on all claims that have been proved to the satisfaction of the board of directors or the liquidating agent or adjusted in a court of competent jurisdiction and, after the assets of the credit union have been liquidated, make further liquidation dividends on all claims previously proved or adjusted (the statement of any amount due to the creditor as shown on the books and records of the credit union may be accepted in lieu of a formal proof of claim on behalf of any creditor or member); but all claims not filed before payment of the final dividend are barred; claims rejected or disallowed by the board of directors or by the liquidating agent are also barred unless suit is instituted within three months after notice of rejection or disallowance; and

(3) In a "no publication" liquidation, determine from all sources available, and within the limits of available funds of the credit union, the amounts due to creditors and members, and after 60 days have elapsed from the date of notification to the department of a voluntary liquidation or from the date of appointment of the liquidating agent distribute the funds of the credit union to creditors and members ratably and as their interests may appear.

(g) The commissioner shall prescribe the certificate to be completed by the liquidating agent or by the board of directors attesting to liquidation, that distribution has been made and that liquidation has been completed. The commissioner, on receipt and approval of the certificate, shall cancel the charter of the credit union. The corporate existence of the credit union shall continue for a period of three years from the date of cancellation of its charter, during which period the liquidating agent, or any duly appointed successor, or such persons as the commissioner may designate, may act on behalf of the credit union for the purpose of paying, satisfying, and discharging any existing liabilities or obligations, collecting and distributing its assets, and doing all other acts required to adjust and wind up its business and affairs, and it may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

(h) No liquidating agent, officer, director, or employee of a credit union in liquidation may acquire any of the assets of the credit union or purchase any loans of the credit union. None of these persons may obtain from the liquidation any compensation or profit for personal benefit, whether directly, indirectly, for the benefit of any member of the person's family or any person associated with the person, or for the benefit of any business enterprise with which the person is associated, except for the credit union in liquidation. The liquidating agent may receive such reasonable compensation as may be set forth in the contract of employment, and nothing in this Act shall prevent compensation of the liquidating agent or those salaried employees and salaried officers of the credit union during the pendency of the liquidation, which payments shall be considered expenses incidental to liquidation. Any person who participates in a violation of this subsection commits a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000 and not less than $100, or by confinement in jail for not more than six months, or both.

Art. 2461-10.03. Merger

(a) A credit union may, with the approval of the department, merge with any other credit union under the existing charter of the other credit union, pursuant to a plan agreed to by the majority of the board of directors of each credit union joining in the merger and approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of each credit union present at the meetings of members called for that purpose. The commissioner may waive the requirement that the plan be approved by a majority of the members of the credit unions.

(b) After agreement by the directors and approval by the members of each credit union, the president and secretary of each credit union shall execute a certificate of merger containing the following information:

(1) The time and place of the meeting of the board of directors at which the plan of merger was agreed to;

(2) The vote of the board of directors in favor of and against the adoption of the plan;

(3) A copy of the resolution or other action by which the plan of merger was agreed to;

(4) The time and place of the meeting of the members at which the plan was approved;

(5) The vote of the membership in favor of and against approval of the plan; and

(6) The name of the surviving credit union.

(c) The merging credit union shall submit the certificates and a copy of the plan of merger to the department. On approving the merger, the department shall return the certificates and plan to the merging credit unions.

(d) After a merger is effected, all property, property rights, and interests of the merged credit union vest in the surviving credit union without deed, endorsement, or other instrument of transfer, and all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the merged credit union are assumed by the surviving credit union under whose charter the merger is effected.

(e) This section shall be construed, whenever possible, to permit a credit union organized under any other act to merge with one organized under this Act.

The files must include all relevant information regarding the nature, status, and disposition of the complaints. Art. 2529b-1. Investment Securities as Security for Deposits of State and Public Agencies
Sec. 1. The following terms, used in this Act, have the meanings set forth below:

(a) “Government securities” means direct obligations of the United States of America, obligations which in the opinion of the attorney general of the United States are general obligations of the United States and backed by its full faith and credit, obligations guaranteed by the United States of America, evidence of indebtedness of or participation certificates guaranteed by Federal Intermediate Credit Banks, Federal Land Banks, Banks for Cooperatives, Federal Farm Credit System, Federal Home Loan Banks, Federal National Mortgage Association, Federal Financing Bank Participation Certificates in the Federal Asset Financing Trust, New Housing Authority Bonds and Project Notes fully secured by contracts with the United States of America provided such term shall not include any obligation with a declining principal balance.

(c) “Public agency” means any board, authority, agency, department, commission, political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, public corporation, body politic, or instrumentality of the State of Texas, including without limitation any county, home-rule charter city, general-law city, town, or village, any state-supported educational institution of higher learning, any school, junior college, hospital, water, sewage, waste disposal, pollution, road, navigation, levee, drainage, conservation, reclamation, or other district or authority, and any other type of political or governmental entity of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. Investment securities or any ownership or beneficial interest herein shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the State of Texas and any public agency to the extent of the market value thereof.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of all other existing laws, but shall be full and complete authority for investment securities to be eligible to secure public funds without reference to any other law.

Art. 2530. Deposit of Securities
In the event the State Depository, as designated in the preceding Article, shall elect to deposit said pledged securities, above mentioned, with the State Treasurer, the said securities shall be delivered to the Treasurer and receipted for by him, and retained by him in the vaults of the State Treasury. Provided, however, that such bank so designated as depository shall have the option, instead of depositing said pledged securities with the State Treasurer, of depositing same with another State or National Bank situated in the State, subject to the approval of the Board; said securities to be held in trust by said custodian bank to secure funds deposited by the State Treasurer in the State Depository bank. Upon the receipt of said securities, said custodian bank shall immediately issue and deliver to the State Treasurer controlled trust receipts for said securities pledged to the State Treasurer. The security evidenced by such trust receipts shall be subject to inspection by the Board or its agents at any time deemed advisable by said Board. Said custodian bank shall have a capital stock and permanent surplus of not less than Five Hundred Thousand ($500,000.00) Dollars, and said bank designated as depository shall itself defray the charges, if any, of such custodian bank for accepting and holding said securities.

A State Depository bank shall also have the option of depositing said pledged securities with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas; such securities to be held by said Bank to secure funds deposited by the State Treasurer in the State Depository bank. When such pledged securities are so deposited and subject to the approval of the Board, the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas may apply book entry procedures to the pledged securities so held. The records of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas shall at all times reflect the name of the State Depository bank for whose account the pledged securities are so deposited, and an Advice of Transaction shall be issued by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas to the State Treasurer and the State Depository bank.

A custodian bank, holding in trust securities of a State Depository bank pledged to secure funds deposited by the State Treasurer in the State Depository bank as provided above, shall also have the option of depositing said pledged securities with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas provided that the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas is the third party to the transaction; such securities to be held by said Federal Reserve Bank to secure funds deposited by the State Treasurer in the State Depository bank. When such pledged securities held by a custodian bank are so deposited, and subject to the approval of the Board, the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas may apply book entry procedures to the pledged securities so held. The records of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas shall at all times reflect the name of the custodian bank for whose account the pledged securities are so deposited, and an Advice of Transaction or other document evidencing each deposit of securities shall be issued by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas to the custodian bank. The custodian bank shall immediately issue and deliver to the State Treasurer controlled trust receipts for said pledged securities. The trust receipt shall reflect that the custodian bank has deposited with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas the pledged securities held in trust for the State Depository bank.

Subject to the approval of the Board, a State Depository may have the right to substitute one group of securities for another group of securities pledged with the State Treasurer, when and as such State Depository may desire to make such substitution, so long as the securities desired to be substituted by such bank shall come within the classification of securities acceptable under the terms of this Act.

If, in any case, or at any time, such bonds or other securities are not satisfactory security, in the opinion of the Board, for the deposits made under this Act, they may require such additional security to be given as will be satisfactory to them. Said Board shall, from time to time inspect such bonds and see that the same are actually kept in the vaults of the State Treasury and in said custodian banks. If the pledged securities are deposited with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, the Board shall conduct such audits and inspections of the records of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas as may be reasonably necessary to verify the existence of and proper accounting for said pledged securities. In the event that any State Depository shall fail to pay deposits or any part thereof on the check of the Treasurer, he shall have the power to forthwith realize upon such bonds or other securities deposited by said bank, and disburse the money arising therefrom, according to law, upon the warrants drawn by the Comptroller upon the funds for which said bonds or other securities were secured. Any bank making deposits of bonds or other securities with the Treasurer under the provisions of this Act may cause such bonds or other securities to be endorsed or stamped, as they may deem proper, so as to show that they are deposited as collateral and not transferable, except as herein provided.

Upon request of the owner or owners, the Treasurer or custodian bank may surrender interest coupons or other evidence of interest when due on securities deposited by depository banks, provided, said securities are ample to meet the requirements of the State.

Whenever any private bank now organized as provided for by the private banking laws of Texas should seek to become a depository for State funds or any other governmental agency, it shall agree in writing to submit itself to examination as to its solvency.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1021, ch. 390, § 1, eff. June 19, 1975; Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 560, ch. 196, § 1, eff. May 20, 1977.]

CHAPTER TWO. COUNTY DEPOSITORIES

Art. 2546. Selecting County Depository

It shall be the duty of the Commissioners Court at ten o'clock a.m. on the first day of each term at which banks are to be selected as county depositaries, to consider all applications filed with the County Judge, cause such applications to be entered upon the minutes of the Court and to select those applicants that are acceptable and who offer the most favorable terms and conditions for the handling of such funds and having the power to reject those whose management or condition, in the opinion of the Court, does not warrant placing of county funds in their possession. The County Commissioners Court shall have the power to determine and designate the character and amount of county funds which will be deposited by it in said depositories that shall be "demand deposits" and what character and amount of funds shall be "time deposits," and may contract with said depositories in regard to the payment of interest on "time deposits" at such rate or rates as may be lawful under any Act of the Congress of the United States and any rule or regulations that may be promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. When the selection of a depository or depositories has been made, the checks of those applicants which have been rejected shall be immediately returned. The check or checks of the applicant or applicants whose applications are accepted shall be returned when said depository or depositories... enter into and file the bond required by law and said bond has been approved by the Commissioners Court, and not until such bond is filed and approved. The term "demand deposits," as used herein, shall mean any deposit which is payable on demand, and the term "time deposits," as used herein, shall mean any deposit with reference to which there is in force a contract, that neither the whole nor any part of such deposit may be withdrawn by check or otherwise prior to the expiration of the period of notice which must be given in writing in advance of withdrawals.

Art. 2547. Bonds

Within fifteen (15) days after the selection of such depository, it shall be the duty of the banking corporation, association or individual banker so selected, to qualify as county depository in one or more of the following ways, at the option of the Commissioners' Court:

(a) By executing and filing with the Commissioners' Court, a bond or bonds, payable to the County Judge and his successors in office, to be approved by the Commissioners' Court, and immediately thereafter filed in the office of the County Clerk of said county, said bond to be signed by not less than five (5) solvent sureties who shall own unencumbered real estate in this State not exempt from execution under the Constitution and laws of this State, of a value equal to, or in excess of, the amount of said bonds where there is more than one bond; said bond or bonds to be in an amount equal to the estimated highest daily balance of such county, as determined by the Commissioners' Court, such estimated daily balance to be in no event less than seventy-five (75%) per cent of the highest daily balance of said county for the next preceding year, less the amount of bond funds received and expended; provided, however, in the event that county funds derived from the sale of county securities during the term of such bond are deposited, such Commissioners' Court shall require additional bond and/or bonds, and/or pledge of securities equal to the amount of such additional county funds. The sureties shall file with the Commissioners' Court at the time of filing said bond or bonds, a statement containing a description of the unencumbered and non-exempt lands owned by them, sufficient to identify such lands on the ground, and such statement shall remain on file with the County Clerk and attached to such bond or bonds; and such statement shall contain a value of each tract of land so listed, together with the value of the improvements thereon.

(b) By having issued and executed by some solvent surety company or companies authorized to do business in the State of Texas, such bond or bonds, as provided by law, to be in the amount and payable as provided in subdivision (a) hereinabove, which said surety bond shall be approved by the Commissioners' Court, and filed in the office of the County Clerk of said county. Provided, however, such surety company or companies may be relieved of its or their obligation on thirty (30) days notice in writing to the Commissioners' Court, such bonding surety company or companies not to be relieved of any liability for loss sustained by the county prior to the expiration date of such bonds or bond; and provided further, in the event any surety company or companies shall ask to be relieved of such bond or bonds, such depository shall, previous to the termination date of such obligation of such surety company or companies, present further security acceptable to the County Commissioners' Court, and filed in the office of the County Clerk of said county, for the securing of county funds in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(c) In lieu of such personal bonds or surety bonds as above specified, said banking corporation, association or individual banker so selected as county depository, may pledge, and said depository bank is authorized to pledge with the Commissioners' Court for the purpose of securing such county funds, securities of the following kind, in an amount equal to the amount of such county funds on deposit in said depository bank, to-wit: bonds and notes of the United States, securities of indebtedness of the United States, and other evidences of indebtedness of the United States, when said evidences of indebtedness are supported by the full faith and credit of the United States of America, and other bonds or other evidences of indebtedness which are guaranteed as to both principal and interest by the United States Government, bonds of the State of Texas, or of any county, city, town, independent school district, common school district, or bonds issued under the Federal Farm Loan Act, or road district bonds, bonds, pledges or other securities issued by the Board of Regents of the University of Texas, bank acceptances of banks having a capital stock of not less than Five Hundred Thousand ($500,000.00) Dollars, notes or bonds secured by mortgages insured and debentures issued by the Federal Housing Administrator of the United States Government, shares or share accounts of any building and loan association organized under the laws of this state, provided the payment of such shares or share accounts is insured by the Federal Savings & Loan Insurance Corporation, and in the shares or share accounts of any Federal Savings & Loan Association domiciled in this state, provided the payment of such shares or share accounts is insured by the Federal Savings & Loan Insurance Corporation; and bonds issued by municipal corporations in Texas, all said securities having a total market value equal to the amount of the depository bond; an amount of the following described securities not to exceed twenty-five (25%) per cent of the assessed value of the property in the county as shown by the certified tax roll for the preceding year, viz.: closed first mortgages on improved and unencumbered real estate situated in the State of Texas, provided such security so offered must be first approved by the Commissioners' Court; and before approving such a mortgage tendered as security for deposits, the Commissioners' Court shall require a written opinion by an attorney selected by the Court, showing that the lien so offered is superior to any and all other claims or rights in the property, and the Court shall also require that the improvements on each tract of real estate described in such mortgage be fully insured in some Stock Fire Insurance Company, or Mutual Fire Insurance Company having One Hundred Thousand ($100,000.00) Dollars surplus in excess of all legal reserves and other liabilities, to be approved by the County Judge, with loss payable clause in favor of the County Judge, such mortgage as may be approved as acceptable security under the provisions of this Article shall be assigned to the County Judge by written instrument, duly acknowledged, and the same shall be placed of record forthwith in each county where any part of said real estate is situated; and as security for such deposits, unencumbered, improved real estate, subject to approval of Commissioners' Court, may be pledged directly by Deed of Trust executed to a trustee selected by the Commissioners' Court, with the County Judge as beneficiary; provided that the Court shall first require the written opinion of an attorney selected by the Court, showing that the lien offered as security for deposits is superior to any and all other claims or rights in the property; and provided further that the Court shall require that all improvements on any real estate, so pledged, be fully insured in a Stock Fire Insurance Company, or Mutual Fire Insurance Company having One Hundred Thousand ($100,000.00) Dollars surplus in excess of all legal reserves and other liabilities, approved by the County Judge, with loss payable clause in favor of the County Judge; and the Commissioners' Court shall investigate all real estate security and determine the value at which such real estate security as is herein described shall be accepted; provided that in no event shall such security be accepted as collateral at a value in excess of fifty (50%) per cent of the reasonable market value of the real property covered by such mortgages, except where such mortgages are insured or guaranteed by the Federal Housing Administrator of the United States; and such real estate security as herein described may be withdrawn and replaced by other real estate securities meeting the requirements of this Act, or any class of securities above enumerated, provided all such withdrawals, substitutions and replacements must be approved by the Commissioners' Court; and the County Judge shall execute such instruments as may be necessary to transfer to the depository or its order, all liens, so withdrawn, and said Commissioners' Court may accept said securities in lieu of such personal or surety bonds; and such securities so pledged by such depository bank shall be deposited as the Commissioners' Court may direct.

When the securities pledged by a depository bank to secure county funds shall be in excess of the amount required under the provisions of this Article, the Commissioners' Court shall permit the release of such excess; and when the county funds deposited with said depository bank shall for any reason, increase beyond the amount of securities pledged, said depository bank shall immediately pledge additional securities with the Commissioners' Court so that the securities pledged shall at no time be less than the total amount of county funds on deposit in said depository bank. The right of substitution of securities shall be granted to depositories, provided the securities substituted meet with the requirements of the law, and are approved by the Commissioners' Court. Upon the request of such depository bank, the Commissioners' Court shall surrender interest coupons or other evidence of interest, when due, on securities deposited with the Commissioners' Court by such depository bank, provided said securities remaining pledged are ample to meet the requirements of said Commissioners' Court. Such depository may secure said funds by one or more of the ways herein provided, at the option of the Commissioners' Court.

The condition of the personal bond or bonds, or contract for securities pledged, as hereinabove provided, shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties and obligations devolving by law upon such depository, and for the payment upon presentation of all checks drawn upon any "demand deposit" account in any depository by the county treasurer of the county, and all checks drawn upon any "time deposit" account, upon presentation, after the expiration of the period of notice required in the case of "time deposits"; and that said county funds shall be faithfully kept by said depository and accounted for according to law. Any suits arising thereon shall be tried in the county for which such depository is selected; and provided further, that upon reasonable notice to the Commissioners' Court, such county depository may change from time to time its method of securing such funds, so long as the same are at all times secured in the amount and manner specified herein.

Where separate bonds are given to secure county funds, each surety thereunder shall be liable only for such part of any loss sustained by failure of the depository, as the amount of each bond shall bear to the aggregate amount of all bonds and/or securities held by the county for protection of the funds covered by said bonds.

In the event of payment of a loss to the county by personal sureties or surety companies, said sureties shall be subrogated by the county in the amounts such payment bears to the deposit secured by them or it, at the time of default of the depository.

It shall be the duty of the Commissioners’ Court to investigate and inquire into the solvency of each and every surety, on any personal bond or bonds so filed by such county depository, and accepted by the Commissioners’ Court and approved as required by law, at least twice during each and every year such bonds are effective and in force; and for that purpose shall have authority to require each surety to render an itemized and verified financial statement, under oath, showing his true financial condition. If any such statement or statements indicate that any of said sureties have become insolvent, or their net worth depreciated below the amount required by law as such sureties, or if any of the assets listed are shown to be, or are known to be depreciated, or their value in any way impaired, then and in any such events, the Commissioners’ Court shall require a new bond meeting fully the requirements of this law; and in case of a bond or bonds the sureties on which are required to own unencumbered and non-exempt real estate as herein provided, such statement shall show each tract of land owned by each surety and the value thereof; and if the statements provided for herein shall indicate that any of such lands have been disposed of or encumbered, and the value of the remaining unencumbered or non-exempt lands shall not be sufficient to meet the requirements of this law, then the said Commissioners’ Court shall require a new bond, meeting fully the requirements of this law. The Commissioners’ Court shall at any time it may deem necessary for the protection of the county, investigate and inquire into the solvency of any surety company or companies issuing a bond or bonds for any depository, and to investigate the value of any of the securities that may be pledged by such depository in lieu of the personal bond; and such Commissioners’ Court may request any such depository if it deem advisable, to execute a new bond. If said new bond required by the Commissioners’ Court for any reason as herein specified be not filed within five (5) days from the time of the service of a copy of said order upon said depository, the Commissioners’ Court may proceed to the selection of another depository, in the same manner as provided for the selection of a depository at the regular time for such selection. Nothing in this law shall in any manner limit, restrict or prevent the Commissioners’ Court from requiring any depository to execute a new bond at any time such Commissioners’ Court may deem it necessary for the protection of the county.

Art. 2549. Designating Depository

(a) As soon as said bond be given and approved by the Commissioners Court, an order shall be made and entered upon the minutes of said Court designating such banking corporation, association or individual banker, as a depository for the funds of said county until sixty (60) days after the time fixed for the next selection of a depository; and thereupon, it shall be the duty of the county treasurer of said county immediately upon the making of such order, to transfer to said depository all the funds belonging to said county, as well as all funds belonging to any district or other municipal subdivision thereof not selecting its own depository, and immediately upon receipt of any money thereafter, to deposit the same with said depository to the credit of said county, district and municipalities. It shall also be the duty of the tax collector of such county to deposit all taxes collected by him, or under his authority, for the State and such county and its various districts and other municipal subdivisions, in such depository or depositories, as soon as collected, pending the preparation of his report of such collection and settlement thereon. The bond of such county depository or depositories shall stand as security for all such funds. Upon such funds being deposited as herein required, the tax collector and sureties on his bond, shall thereafter be relieved of responsibility of its safekeeping. All county depositories shall collect all checks, drafts and demands for money so deposited with them by the county and when due diligence shall not be liable on such collections until the proceeds thereof have been duly received by the depository bank, provided that any expense incurred in collection thereof by the depository, which the depository is not allowed or permitted to pay or absorb by reason of any act of Congress of the United States or any regulation by either the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System or the Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, shall be charged to and paid by the county. All money collected or held by any district, county or precinct officer in such county, or the officers of any defined district or subdivision in such county, including the funds of any municipal or quasi-municipal subdivision or corporation which has the power to select its own depository, but has not done so, shall be governed by this law, and shall be deposited in accordance with its requirements, and shall be considered in fixing the bond of such depository, and shall be protected by such bond; and all warrants, checks, and vouchers evidencing such funds shall be subject to audit and countersignature as now or hereafter provided by law.

(b) If during a school year, a Commissioners Court having control of school district funds elects to transfer the funds from one bank serving as county depository to another bank, the school district affected may require that the Commissioners Court delay the transfer of the district’s funds until the end of the school district’s fiscal year or until September 1, whichever date follows nearest the date the Commissioners Court took action on the transfer.

(c) Unless expressly prohibited by law or unless it is in contravention of any depository contract between a county and any depository bank, the Commissioners Court may direct the county treasurer to:
(1) withdraw any amount of funds of the county that are deposited in a county depository and that are not required immediately to pay obligations of the county or required to be kept on deposit under the terms of the depository contract: and

(2) invest those funds in direct debt securities of the United States.

Acts 1981, 67th Leg., p. 2260, ch. 542, § 3, provides:

"This Act does not apply to funds that, on the effective date of this Act, are on deposit in a depository in accordance with Article 2549 or Article 2561, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as they exist immediately before this Act takes effect."

CHAPTER THREE. CITY DEPOSITORIES

Art. 2561. Designating Depository, etc.

(a) As soon as said bond shall be given and approved, an order shall be made by the council designating said banking corporation, association, or individual banker, as the depository of the funds of the city until the time fixed by this Act for another selection, and such order shall be entered upon the minutes. It shall be the duty of the city treasurer, immediately upon the making of said order, to transfer to said depository all the funds in his hands belonging to the city, and immediately upon the receipt of the money thereafter, he shall deposit the same with said depository to the credit of the city. If any banking corporation, association, or individual banker, after having been selected as such depository, shall fail to give bond within the time provided by this Act, then the selection of such banking corporation, association, or individual banker, as the depository of the city funds shall be set aside and be null and void, and the governing body shall, after the notice published in the manner hereinbefore provided, proceed to receive new applications and select another depository.

(b) Unless expressly prohibited by law or unless it is in contravention of any depository contract between a city, town, or village and any depository bank, the governing body of a city, town, or village may direct the treasurer of the entity to:

(1) withdraw any amount of funds of the entity that are deposited in a depository and that are not required immediately to pay obligations of the entity or required to be kept on deposit under the terms of the depository contract; and

(2) invest those funds in direct debt securities of the United States.

Section 3 of the 1981 amendatory act provides:

"This Act does not apply to funds that, on the effective date of this Act, are on deposit in a depository in accordance with Article 2549 or Article 2561, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as they exist immediately before this Act takes effect."

EMINENT DOMAIN

Art. 3265. Rule of Damages

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 1 to 5]

6. Where a plaintiff after filing a petition in condemnation, desires to dismiss or abandon the proceedings, said plaintiff shall by a motion filed to the judge of the court be heard thereon, and the court hearing the same shall make an allowance to the landowner for all necessary and reasonable attorneys', appraisers', and photographers' fees and all other expenses incurred to the date of such hearing on said motion; provided, however, after a special commissioners hearing has been held and the special commissioners have made an award, the plaintiff will not be permitted to dismiss the condemnation proceedings merely to file a new petition in condemnation involving substantially the same taking against the landowner in an effort to secure a lower commissioners award from a second special commissioners hearing. If the plaintiff does dismiss and files a second petition in condemnation to condemn from the same landowner the same substantial interest in the land as in the first petition in condemnation, the landowner is entitled to three (3) times the amount of all expenses allowed the landowner prior to the dismissal of the first petition in condemnation. The court will not appoint new commissioners under the second petition in condemnation, but the court will merely enter the special commissioners award as previously found under the first petition in condemnation as the award of the special commissioners in the second petition filed by the plaintiff.

7. The owner of the land who is actually and physically displaced and permanently moved from his dwelling or place of business shall be entitled to, as a separate item of damages, the reasonable moving expenses for personal property when personal property is moved from a place of residence or from a place of business, but the maximum distance of movement to be considered shall be fifty (50) miles. In no event shall such expenses exceed the market value of such personal property; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply in any condemnation proceeding whether before special commissioners or the court where the owner is entitled to reimbursement for moving expenses under other existing law.

2. An applicant having a high school education and a specific record of eight (8) or more years of experience or having completed an approved four (4) year curriculum in engineering technology with six (6) years of experience in engineering work of a grade and character satisfactory to the Board, who passes the Board's eight (8) hour written examination in the fundamentals of engineering shall be certified or enrolled as an Engineer-in-Training, if he is otherwise qualified.

3. The fee for Engineer-in-Training certification or enrollment shall be established by the Board and shall accompany the application. This fee may be credited toward the fee necessary for registration.

4. The certification or enrollment of an Engineer-in-Training shall be valid for a period of twelve (12) years.

Examinations

Sec. 14. (a) When oral or written examinations are required, they shall be held at such time and place as the Board shall determine. The scope of the examinations and the methods of procedure shall be prescribed by the Board with special reference to the applicant's ability to design and supervise engineering works, which shall insure the safety of life, health, and property. Examinations shall be given for the purpose of determining the qualifications of applicants for registration in professional engineering. A candidate failing on examination may apply for re-examination at the expiration of six (6) months and will be re-examined without payment of additional fees. Re-examination may be granted at any time upon payment of a fee to be determined by the Board.

(b) Within 30 days after the day on which a licensing examination is administered under this Act, the Board shall notify each examinee of the results of the examination. However, if an examination is graded or reviewed by a national testing service, the Board shall notify examinees of the results of the examination within two weeks after the day that the Board receives the results from the testing service. If the notice of the examination results will be delayed for longer than 90 days after the examination date, the Board shall notify the examinee of the reason for the delay before the 90th day.

(c) If requested in writing by a person who fails the licensing examination administered under this Act, the Board shall furnish the person with an analysis of the person's performance on the examination.

(d) The Board may administer written examinations for record purposes as a convenience to the public and may charge an appropriate fee.
Expirations and Renewals

Sec. 16. (a) It shall be the duty of the Board to notify every person registered under this Act of the date of the expiration of his certificate and the amount of the fee that shall be required for its renewal for one year; such notice shall be mailed at least one month in advance of the date of the expiration of said certificate.

(b) A person may renew an unexpired license by paying to the Board before the expiration date of the license the required renewal fee.

(c) If a person’s license has been expired for not longer than 90 days, the person may renew the license by paying to the Board all unpaid renewal fees and a fee that is one-half of the application fee for the license.

(d) If a person’s license has been expired for longer than 90 days but less than two years, the person may renew the license by paying to the Board all unpaid renewal fees and a fee that is equal to the application fee for the license.

(e) If a person’s license has been expired for two years or longer, the person may not renew the license. The person may obtain a new license by submitting to an examination to be determined by the Board and complying with the requirements and procedures for obtaining an original license.

Reciprocity

Sec. 21. The Board may, upon application therefore, and the payment of a fee, issue a certificate of registration as a professional engineer to any person who holds a certificate of qualification or registration issued to him by proper authority of the National Council of State Boards of Engineering Examiners, or of the National Bureau of Engineering Registration, or of any state or territory or possession of the United States, or any country provided that the requirements for the registration of professional engineers under which said certificate of qualification or registration was issued do not conflict with the provisions of this Act and are of a standard not lower than that specified in Section 12 of this Act. The Board may waive any license requirement for an applicant with a valid license from another state having license requirements substantially equivalent to those of this State.

Sec. 22. The Board shall revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew a registration, shall reprimand a registrant, or may probate any suspension of any registrant who is found guilty of:

(a) The practice of any fraud or deceit in obtaining a certificate of registration;

(b) Any gross negligence, incompetency, or misconduct in the practice of professional engineering as a registered professional engineer; or

(c) A violation of this Act or a Board rule.

Any person who may feel himself aggrieved by reason of the revocation of his certificate of registration by the Board, as hereinabove authorized, shall have the right to file suit in the district court of the county of his residence, or of the county in which the alleged offense relied upon as grounds for revocation took place, to annul or vacate the order of the Board revoking the certificate of registration.

If the Board proposes to suspend or revoke a person’s certificate of registration, the person is entitled to a hearing before the Board. Proceedings for the suspension or revocation of a certificate of registration are governed by the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252–13a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

The Board, for reasons it may deem sufficient, may re-issue a certificate of registration to any person whose certificate has been revoked, provided six (6) or more members of the Board vote in favor of such re-issuance. A new certificate of registration, to replace any certificate revoked, lost, destroyed, or mutilated, may be issued, subject to the rules of the Board.

Information About Complaints

Sec. 22A. (a) The Board shall keep an information file about each complaint filed with the Board relating to a licensee.

(b) If a written complaint is filed with the Board relating to a licensee, the Board, at least as frequently as quarterly, shall notify the parties to the complaint of the status of the complaint until final disposition unless the notification would jeopardize an undercover investigation.

Consumer Information

Sec. 22B. The Board shall prepare information of consumer interest describing the regulatory functions of the Board and describing the Board’s procedures by which consumer complaints are filed with and resolved by the Board. The Board shall make information available to the general public and appropriate state agencies.

Revocation, Suspension, Probation, Reprimand, Re-Issuance and Refusal of Certificate

Sections 2 and 3 of Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 965, ch. 362, provided:

"Sec. 2. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word in this Act, or application thereof to any person or circumstance for any reason is held invalid, such holdings shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the legislature hereby declares it would have passed such remaining portions of this Act despite such invalidity of any part thereof."
"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws in conflict or inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency only."

Sections 2 to 4 of the 1981 amendatory act provide:

"Sec. 2. (a) A person holding office as a member of the State Board of Registration for Professional Engineers on the effective date of this Act continues to hold the office for the term for which the member was originally appointed.

(b) The governor shall appoint three public members to the board. The governor shall designate one public member for a term expiring in 1983, one for a term expiring in 1985, and one for a term expiring in 1987. The terms of office of these appointees begin on the day in 1981 on which the terms of other members of the board begin.

"Sec. 3. A rule adopted by the State Board of Registration for Professional Engineers before September 1, 1981, that conflicts with The Texas Engineering Practice Act (Article 3271a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), as amended by this Act, is void. Within 90 days after September 1, 1981, the board shall repeal the rule.

"Sec. 4. (a) This Act takes effect September 1, 1981.

(b) The requirements of Subsections (c) and (d), Section 7, The Texas Engineering Practice Act (Article 3271a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), as added by this Act, that the executive head of the board develop a career ladder program and a system of annual performance evaluations, shall be implemented before September 1, 1982. The requirement of Subsection (d) of Section 7 that merit pay is to be based on this system shall be implemented before September 1, 1983."
ESCHEAT

Art. 3272. When Estates Shall Escheat

Escheat After Seven Years

Sec. 1. Except as provided by Section 2 of this article, if any person die seized of any real estate or possessed of any personal estate, without any devise thereof, and having no heirs, or where the owner of any real or personal estate shall be absent for the term of seven years, and is not known to exist, leaving no heirs, or devisee of his estate, such estate shall escheat to and vest in the State. Where no will is recorded or probated in the county where such property is situated within seven years after the death of the owner it shall be prima facie evidence that there was no will, and where no lawful claim is asserted to, or lawful acts of ownership exercised in, such property for the period of seven years, and this has been proved to the satisfaction of the court, it shall be prima facie evidence of the death of the owner without heirs. Any one paying taxes to the State on such property, either personally or through an agent, shall be held to be exercising lawful acts of ownership in such property within the meaning of this title, and shall not be concluded by any judgment, unless he be made a party by personal service of citation, if a resident of this State, and his address can be secured by reasonable diligence, but, if he be a non-resident of the State or can not be found, the personal service of citation shall be made upon any agent of such claimant, if such agent, by the use of reasonable diligence, can be found; such diligence to include an investigation of the records of the office and inquiry of the tax collector and tax assessor of the county in which the property sought to be escheated is situated.

Escheat After Fifteen Years

Sec. 2. The portion of a personal estate that consists of travelers checks does not escheat to the State under Section 1 of this article because of the absence of the owner of the travelers checks, nor is the owner presumed to be dead or to have abandoned the checks, until the passage of fifteen years as provided by Section 1(d) of Article 3272a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, instead of seven years as provided by Section 1 of this article.

Art. 3272a. Personal Property Subject to Escheat

Report by Holder of Personal Property

[See Compact Edition, volume 4 for text of 1(a) and 1(b)]

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d) of this Section, the term “subject to escheat” shall include personal property presumed to be subject to escheat by the prima facie conclusions contained in Article 3272, including all personal property (1) of which the existence and whereabouts of the owner are unknown and have been unknown to the holder for more than seven (7) years and (2) on which, from the knowledge and records of the holder it appears that no claim or act of ownership has been asserted or exercised during the past seven (7) years and (3) on which no will of the last known owner has been recorded or probated in the county where the property is situated within the past seven (7) years.

(d) A travelers check is not presumed abandoned or subject to escheat by the provisions of Article 3272 until the 15th anniversary of the date the check was issued, of the date the issuer last received a written communication from the owner concerning the check, or the date of the last indication of the owner’s interest in the check that is evidenced by a writing on file with the issuer, and unless:

(1) the records of the issuer indicate that the check was purchased in this State;

(2) the issuer has its principal place of business in this State and the records of the issuer do not indicate the state in which the check was purchased; or

(3) the issuer has its principal place of business in this State, the records of the issuer indicate the check was purchased in another state, and the laws of the state of purchase do not provide for the escheat or custodial taking of the check or its escheat or unclaimed property law is not applicable to the check.

Form of Report

Sec. 2. The report shall be prepared and returned in triplicate, verified under oath, and shall include the following:

(a) The name, if known, and last known address, if any, of each person appearing from the records of the holder to be the owner of the property reported; or the name and address, if known, of any person who may be entitled to such property; together with a brief description of the property, which in the case of deposits, shall disclose the total balance. If any deductions have been made therefrom by the holder for service, maintenance, or other charges, they shall be disclosed unless such deductions have been fully restored in the total amount reported as provided in subsection (d) below.

(b) In case of unclaimed funds of life insurance corporations, the full name of the insured beneficiary or annuitant and his last known address according to the life insurance corporation's records.

(c) In the case of mineral proceeds, a list of all credits grouped as to the counties from which the credited proceeds were derived, including credits which have theretofore been charged off or disposed of in any manner except by payment to the owner thereof; giving the name and last known address of the owner; description and location of the land or lease from which the oil, gas, or mineral was produced; the name of the person, firm or corporation who operated the oil or gas well or mine; the period of time during which such proceeds accumulated and the price for which such oil, gas, or other mineral was sold, each such several ownerships to be given an identifying number. The nature and identifying number, if any, or description of the property, and the amount appearing from the records to be due, except that items of value under Ten Dollars ($10) each may be reported in aggregate;

(d) The date when the property became payable, demandable, or returnable, and the date of the last transaction with the owner with respect to the property. Since the State upon escheat is entitled to all rights of the former owner, in the case of dormant deposits or accounts on which deductions for service, maintenance, or other charges would be restored under the policy or procedures of the holder upon request by the owner, such deposits or accounts shall be reported and shall be subject to escheat hereunder in the same amount to which the former owner would be entitled upon such request; and

(e) Other information which may be prescribed by rule of the State Treasurer as necessary for the administration of this Article.

(f) The verification under oath at the conclusion of the report shall include the following language:

"The foregoing report contains a full and complete list of all personal property held by the undersigned that, from the knowledge and records of the undersigned, is subject to escheat to the State of Texas."

(g) Verification, if made by a partnership, shall be executed by a partner; if made by an unincorporated association or private corporation, by an officer; and if made by a public corporation, by its chief fiscal officer.

Art. 3272b. Duties of Depositories of Dormant or Inactive Accounts

Reprinted from the Texas Revised Civil Statutes, Volume 4, 1961

Report to State Treasurer

Sec. 4. On or before May 1st of the year following the first publication required by this Article, the depository shall submit in duplicate copies a report to the State Treasurer listing the names of all such depositors or creditors whose names were published, whose whereabouts and the whereabouts of any owner of such deposit or credit still remain unknown, and each of whose deposits or accounts still remain in a dormant or inactive status. Such report shall set forth in alphabetical order the name and last known address of the depositor or creditor, the date and amount appearing to be due each depositor or creditor when the account first became dormant or inactive, or on January 1, 1959, whichever date is later, the amount credited to such account at the time of the report, the date of the last transaction with the depositor or creditor, and its identification number, if any. If the amount then credited to an account is less than the amount of the initial dormant deposit or inactive account, except for its share of publication costs, the reason for such reduction shall be stated.

The subscribing officer shall certify under oath that the report is a complete and correct statement of all dormant deposits and inactive accounts held by the depository subject to the reporting provisions of Section 4 of Article 3272b; that the existence and whereabouts of the listed depositors or creditors are unknown to the depository; and that the listed depositors or creditors have not asserted any claim or exercised any act of ownership with respect to the reported accounts during the past seven (7) years.

Together with the foregoing report, the depository shall deliver to the State Treasurer a sum equal to the total amount of the accounts listed in the report, and the State Treasurer shall sign a receipt therefor and shall assume custody thereof. The State shall be responsible for the safekeeping thereof, and any depository delivering such deposits or accounts to the State Treasurer under this Act is relieved of all liability for any claim which then exists or which may thereafter arise or be made in respect to the property.
Sec. 5. All funds received by the State Treasurer under the provisions of this Article or from the escheat of any deposit, credit, account or other property held by any bank or other institution covered by Section 1(a) hereof shall be deposited into a separate fund to be known as the "State Conservator Fund," from which shall be set aside and maintained a revolving expense fund of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) for the purpose of paying expenses incurred by the State Treasurer in the enforcement of the provisions of this Article, including the expense of publications, forms, notices, examinations, travel, and employment of necessary personnel; and thereafter any amounts remaining unpaid to owners shall be transferred to the Available School Fund; provided that the State Conservator Fund shall never be reduced below Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000). This sum shall remain available for payments to those who may at any time in the future establish their ownership or right as herein provided to any deposit or account delivered to the State Treasurer under this Act. The moneys in such fund over Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) shall be invested from time to time by the State Treasurer in investments which are approved by law for the investment of any State funds, and the income thereof shall be and become a part of the said State Conservator Fund. The expense fund of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) is hereby appropriated to the State Treasurer for the purposes above stated for the biennium ending August 31, 1963.

The State Banking Commissioner shall transfer to the State Treasurer for deposit in the State Conservator Fund all dormant deposits and other funds formerly owned by or deposited in liquidated depositories which have been held by the Commissioner for more than twenty (20) years and of which the whereabouts of the depositors, creditors or owners have been unknown to him for more than twenty (20) years. Upon delivery, together with a certificate of such facts under oath of the State Banking Commissioner, the funds shall be subject to conservation and disposition under the terms of this Article. The State Banking Commissioner shall deliver to the State Treasurer a record of the names of the liquidated depositories, and the names and last known addresses of the depositors and creditors and the amounts of the deposits, credits, or other funds.

The State Treasurer shall compile an alphabetical list containing the name and last known address of each depositor or creditor listed on the depository reports and the amount of each depositor account. The State Treasurer shall revise the list not later than June 1 of each year. The list shall be available for public inspection at all reasonable business hours.

1. WITNESSES AND EVIDENCE

Art. 3712a. Interpreters for Deaf Persons

(a) In all civil cases or in the taking of depositions, where a party or a witness is a deaf person, he shall have the proceedings of the trial interpreted to him in any language that he can understand, including but not limited to sign language, by an interpreter appointed by the court, whose qualifications have been approved by the State Commission for the Deaf. In this Act, "deaf person" means a person who has a hearing impairment, regardless of whether the person also has a speech impairment, that inhibits the person's comprehension of the proceedings or communication with others.

(b) In any case where an interpreter is required to be appointed by the court under this Act, the court shall not commence proceedings until the appointed interpreter is in court in a position not exceeding 10 feet from and in full view of the deaf person.

(c) The interpreter appointed under the terms of this Act shall be required to take an oath that he will make a true interpretation to the deaf person of all the proceedings of the case in a language that he understands; and that he will repeat the deaf person's answer to questions to counsel, court, or jury, in the English language, in his best skill and judgment. When a deaf person communicates through an interpreter to a person under such circumstances that the communication would be privileged, the deaf person could not be compelled to testify as to the communications, the privilege applies to the interpreter as well.

(d) Interpreters appointed under this Act shall be paid a reasonable fee determined by the court after considering the recommended fees of the State Commission for the Deaf. When travel of the interpreter is involved all the actual expenses of travel, lodging, and meals incurred by the interpreter pertaining to the case he is appointed to serve shall be paid at the same rate applicable to state employees. The fee and expenses shall be paid from the general fund of the county in which the case was instituted.

(e) On the court's motion or the motion of a party, the court may order testimony of a deaf witness and the interpretation of that testimony by the interpreter visually, electronically recorded for use in verification of the transcription of the reporter's notes. The clerk of the court shall include the recording in the appellate record if requested by a party.

Proceedings of the State Legislature

Sec. 1a. All available written or electronic records of the proceedings of the state legislature which are required by the rules of the respective houses to be preserved may be attested by the presiding officer of each house or by a deputy designated by him for such purpose. The attested records or copies or duplications thereof shall be, so far as relevant, admitted in the courts of this state as evidence of the matters stated therein, subject to the provisions of Section 3 of this Act, without the necessity of the presence in the court of the presiding officer or deputy designated to attest, preserve, or display the records, copies, or duplications.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 2 and 3]

Authentication of Copy

Sec. 4. Such writings or electronic records may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy or electronic duplication attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by his deputy. Except in the case of a copy of an official writing or official electronic recording from a public office of this State or a subdivision thereof, the attestation shall be accompanied with a certificate that the attesting officer has the legal custody of such writing. If the office in which the record is kept is within the United States or within a territory or insular possession subject to the dominion of the United States, the certificate may be made by a judge of a court of record of the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of his office. If the office in which the record is kept is in a foreign state or country, the certificate may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent or by any officer in the foreign service of the United States, or by any officer of a United States military government, stationed in the foreign state or country in which the record is kept, and authenticated by the seal of his office. In the case of the matters in Section 2a, the substance, and/or wording of any of such matters may also be evidenced by certification, as to existence on a particular date or dates by the governmental head of such country or his secretary, or such country's attorney (such as attorney general) or as-or the secretary thereof; or judge or any justice of any appellate court of such country and if none, judge or any justice of one or any one of its highest

Art. 3737g. Advance Payment to Tort Claimants;
Introduction of Evidence

Purpose of Act

Sec. 1. The purpose of this Act is to promote the making of advance payments for economic loss to claimants without permitting the introduction of evidence of advance payments on the issue of liability or damages during subsequent litigation, but permitting the allowance of advance payments as a credit against any sum judicially established as a claimant's total damages. The making of periodic payments to claimants for medical expenses, wages lost, and property damaged, often without taking any form of release, will avoid delays in and promote payments for economic loss to persons in need.

"Advance Payment" Defined

Sec. 2. In this Act, "advance payment" includes but is not limited to, any partial payment or payments made by any person, corporation, or insurer to another which is predicated on possible tort liability for medical, surgical, hospital, or rehabilitation servces, facilities, or equipment; loss of earnings; out-of-pocket expenses; bodily injury; death; or property damage, loss, or destruction.

Inadmissibility of Evidence of Advance Payment at Trial

Sec. 3. In any civil action in which a party or someone on his behalf, such as his insurer, has made an advance payment prior to trial, any evidence of or concerning the advance payment shall be inadmissible at the trial on liability or damages in any action brought by the claimant, his survivor, or his personal representative to recover damages for personal injuries or related damages, for wrongful death of another, or for property damage or destruction.

Admissibility of Evidence of Advance Payment after Verdict or Decision; Right to Jury Trial Undenied

Sec. 4. If an action results in a jury verdict or decision of the court for damages in favor of a party, the party against whom the verdict or decision is entered may introduce evidence of advance payments after the verdict or decision and before final judgment, and the court shall then reduce the amount awarded to the claimant by the amount of the advance payment proved to have been made prior to trial. Such advance payments shall not be permitted as a reduction of the amount awarded unless there is evidence at the trial on liability that the party to whom the advance payments were made suffered loss as described in Section 2 herein, equal to or exceeding the amount of such advance payments. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to deny to any party his constitutional right to trial by jury on the amount of the credit at a time subsequent to the trial on liability and damages.

Application of Act

Sec. 5. This Act applies to any action filed after the effective date of this Act, regardless of the site of the accident, location of property, or residence of the parties.

Statute of Limitations Tolle}d

Sec. 6. The making of an advance payment tolls the running of the statute of limitations until the last payment is made unless the person making the advance payment notifies the recipient in writing at the time of each payment that the applicable statute of limitations is not tolled.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 962, ch. 364, eff. June 19, 1975.]

Art. 3737h. Necessity of Services and Reasonableness of Charges

Sec. 1. (a) In a civil action other than an action on sworn account, the amount charged for services by a person or institution, when supported by affidavit that the charges reflected in the affidavit were reasonable at the time and place that the services were rendered and that the services were necessary, is sufficient evidence to support a finding of fact by judge or jury that the services were necessary or that the amount charged was reasonable, or both.
The affidavit shall be taken before an officer autho-ized to administer oaths, shall be made by a person who rendered the services or who is in charge of such applicability, or such party's attorney of record, at least 14
copy thereof on each other party to the cause, or

(b) As a condition precedent to applicability of Subsection (a) of this Section 1, the party asserting such applicability, or such party's attorney of record, shall file the affidavit provided for in said Subsection (a) with the clerk of the court and shall serve a copy thereof on each other party to the cause, or such other party's attorney of record, at least 14 days prior to the day on which presentation of evidence at trial of the cause commences. As a condition precedent to controverting a claim covered by an affidavit so filed and served, any party intending to controvert all or part of any such claim shall, within 10 days after receipt of such party's copy of such affidavit, or with leave of court first had and obtained at any time prior to commencement of evidence at trial of the cause, file a counter-affidavit with the clerk of the court and serve a copy thereof on each other party to the cause, or such other party's attorney of record. The counter-affidavit shall give reasonable notice of the basis upon which the party filing it intends at trial to controvert all or part of the claim covered by the initial affidavit.

The counter-affidavit shall be taken before a person authorized to administer oaths and may be made upon information and belief by the party filing it, or such party's attorney of record. When a counter-affidavit is so filed and served, then Subsection (a) of this Section 1 shall thereafter have no force or effect at the trial of the cause.

Sec. 2. This Act does not apply to civil actions in which judgment was rendered prior to the effective date of this Act, nor to attorney fees charged in the trial of the cause or preparation thereof.

Article 3799a. Liability of Officer Executing Writ; Recovery of Seized Property

Sec. 1. Except as provided by Article 3799, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, an officer is not liable for damages resulting from the execution of a writ issued by a Texas court if the officer in good faith executes the writ as provided by law and by the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure and uses reasonable diligence in performing his official duties.

No Indemnification

Sec. 2. An officer shall execute a writ issued by a Texas court without requiring that bond be posted for indemnification of the officer.

Recovery of Seized Property

Sec. 3. (a) Unless property has been sold at an execution sale as provided by law and by the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, a person is entitled to recover his property that has been seized through execution of a writ issued by a court if the judgment upon which the execution is issued is later reversed or set aside.

(b) If the property has been sold, a person who would otherwise be entitled to recover the property is entitled to recover from the judgment creditor the market value of the property sold at the time of the sale.

Art. 3810. Sales Under Deed of Trust

All sales of real estate made under powers conferred by any deed of trust or other contract lien shall be made in the county in which such real estate is situated. Where such real estate is situated in more than one county then notices as herein provided shall be given in both or all of such counties, and the real estate may be sold in either county, and such notice shall designate the county where the real estate will be sold. Notice of such proposed sale shall be given by posting written notice thereof at least 21 days preceding the date of the sale at the courthouse door of the county in which the sale is to be made, and if the real estate is in more than one county, one notice shall be posted at the courthouse door of each county in which the real estate is situated.

In addition, the holder of the debt to which the power is related shall at least 21 days preceding the date of sale serve written notice of the proposed sale by certified mail on each debtor obligated to pay such debt according to the records of such holder. Service of such notice shall be completed upon deposit of the notice, enclosed in a postpaid wrapper, properly addressed to such debtor at the most recent address as shown by the records of the holder of the debt, in a post office or official depository under the care and custody of the United States Postal Service. The affidavit of any person having knowledge of the facts to the effect that such service was completed shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of service. (b) Each month the comptroller shall transfer from the general revenue fund to the state contribution account of the teacher retirement system trust fund the equal monthly payment provided by Section 3.58, Texas Education Code, as amended. If the appropriation provided by the legislature is different from the actual amount of state contributions required, the comptroller shall, after the close of the fiscal year, make adjustments in the teacher retirement fund and the general revenue fund to make the total transfers during the year equal the total amount of the state contribution required by Section 3.58, Texas Education Code, as amended.

(e) If, on the 10th day of a month, the amount available for transfer as provided in this article from the general revenue fund to the programs and funds listed in this article or the amount available for transfer from the general revenue fund to the available school fund, as required by law, is insufficient, subsequent credits to the general revenue fund shall be accumulated in an amount sufficient to make the required transfers to the programs and funds listed in this article or to the available school fund as required by law.

Art. 4365. Duplicate Warrants

The Comptroller, when satisfied that any original warrant drawn upon the State Treasurer has been lost, destroyed, or stolen, or that the payee's endorsement on the original warrant has been forged, or when any certificate or other evidence of indebtedness approved by the auditing board of the State has been lost, is authorized to issue a duplicate warrant in lieu of the original warrant or a duplicate or a copy of such certificate, or other evidence of indebtedness in lieu of such original; but no such duplicate warrant, or other evidence of indebtedness, shall issue until the applicant has filed with the Comptroller his affidavit, stating that he is the true owner of such instrument, and that the same is in fact lost, destroyed, or stolen, or that the payee's endorsement on the instrument has been forged, and shall also file with the Comptroller his bond in double the amount of the claim with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the Governor, to be approved by the Comptroller, and conditioned that the applicant will hold the State harmless and return to the Comptroller, upon demand being made therefor, such duplicates or copies, or the amount of money named therein, together with all costs that may accrue against the State on collecting the same. Provided, however, that any state department, court, school, school district, or other state agency, or federal agency, shall not be required to make bond for the issuance of duplicate warrants.

The head of such state agency or federal agency and one other person connected with the handling of warrants for such agency shall be required to make the affidavit for duplicate to issue in case of lost or destroyed warrant belonging to such agency. In the case of a stolen warrant or a warrant on which the payee's endorsement has been forged, if the Comptroller is satisfied that the warrant is in the possession of the appropriate law enforcement officials, and if the applicant is the same person as the payee, the Comptroller may issue the duplicate warrant without requiring a bond. Any entity, other than a law enforcement official, that has possession of a stolen warrant or a warrant on which the payee's endorsement has been forged shall immediately deliver the warrant to the issuing agency or the Comptroller upon request. The agency or Comptroller shall then issue a receipt for the warrant. After the issuance of said duplicate or copy if the Comptroller should ascertain that the same was improperly issued, or that the applicant or party to whom the same was issued was not the owner thereof, he shall at once demand the return of said duplicate or copy if unpaid, or the amount paid out by the State, if so paid; and, upon failure of the party to return same or the amount of money called for, suit shall be instituted upon said bond in Travis County. The Comptroller shall adopt rules, regulations, and forms regarding the issuance of duplicate warrants.

Psychological and Emotional Health

Sec. 7A. (a) A person may not be licensed by the Commission to be a peace officer, jailer or guard of a county jail, or reserve law enforcement officer unless, before licensing, the person is examined by a licensed psychologist or a licensed physician and is declared in writing by the psychologist or physician to be in satisfactory psychological and emotional health to be a peace officer, jailer or guard of a county jail, or reserve law enforcement officer. The psychologist's or physician's declaration is not public information.

(b) The examining psychologist or physician shall be selected by the agency hiring a person desiring to be licensed as a peace officer, jailer or guard of a county jail, or reserve law enforcement officer.

(c) The agency hiring a person desiring to be licensed as a peace officer, jailer or guard of a county jail, or reserve law enforcement officer shall forward a copy of the psychologist's or physician's declaration to the Commission with the person's application for Commission licensing. The Commission shall keep the copy on file.

Jailers and Guards; Training Requirements; Exceptions; Temporary Appointees

Sec. 7B. (a) A jailer or guard of a county jail serving under permanent appointment before September 1, 1979, is not required to meet the requirements of Subsections (b) and (c) of this section as a condition of continued employment, nor does the failure of a jailer or guard to fulfill the requirements of this section make the person ineligible for a promotional examination for which the person is otherwise eligible. Those jailers and guards have satisfied the requirements of this section by their experience. Those jailers or guards are eligible to attend training courses in the operation of a county jail subject to the rules of the Commission. This subsection applies to a jailer or guard who was employed in a county jail before September 1, 1979, and whose employment was terminated before that date because of failure to satisfy educational standards adopted under Section 14, Chapter 490, Acts of the 64th Legislature, 1975 (Article 5115.1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), except that:

(1) this subsection does not apply to an individual who attempted to satisfy those standards by taking an examination and because he or she committed a dishonest act regarding the examination, failed to pass or was not permitted to complete the examination; and

(2) this subsection does not apply to an individual if he or she attempted to prove compliance with those standards with a forged document.

(b) After September 1, 1979, a person may not be appointed as a jailer or guard of a county jail, except on a temporary or probationary basis, unless the person has satisfactorily completed a preparatory program of training in the operation of a county jail at a school approved or operated by the Commission. A jailer or guard of a county jail who has received a temporary or probationary appointment on or after September 1, 1979, and who fails to satisfactorily complete a basic course in the operation of a county jail, as prescribed by the Commission, within a one-year period from the date of his original appointment, forfeits his position and shall be removed from the position. The temporary or probationary employment may not be extended beyond one year by renewal of appointment or otherwise, except that after the lapse of one year from the date of the person's forfeiture and removal, the sheriff may petition the Commission for reinstatement of the person to temporary or probationary employment.

Convicted Felons

Sec. 8A. (a) No person who has been convicted of a felony under the laws of this state, another state, or the United States may be licensed by the Commission as qualified to be a peace officer, jailer or guard at a county jail, or reserve law enforcement officer.

(b) Final conviction of a felony under the laws of this state, another state, or the United States disqualifies a person previously licensed by the Commission to be a peace officer, jailer or guard at a county jail, or reserve law enforcement officer, and the Commission shall immediately revoke the license of a person so convicted.

(c) Subsection (a) of this section does not apply to a person if the person has been placed on probation pursuant to the deferred adjudication provision of Subsection (a), Section 3d, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965.¹

(c) If a witness refuses to obey a subpoena or to give any evidence relevant to proper inquiry by the board, then the board may petition a district court of the county in which the hearing is held to compel the witness to obey the subpoena or to give the evidence. (e) If the board is authorized to suspend a license under this Act, the board may give the licensee the opportunity to pay a civil penalty rather than have the license suspended. The amount of the civil penalty may not be more than $200 for each day the license was to have been suspended. If the licensee does not pay the penalty before the sixth day after the board notifies him of the amount, he loses the opportunity to pay it and the board shall impose the suspension.

(g) All persons whose rights may be affected at any hearing shall have the right to appear personally and by counsel, to cross-examine adverse witnesses and to produce evidence and witnesses in their own behalf. If a hearing is not held before the whole Commission, such person shall have the right to appear before the Commission and present oral argument when the matter comes before them for decision.

(h) A retail buyer of a new motor vehicle may make a complaint concerning defects in a new motor vehicle which are covered by the warranty agreement applicable to the vehicle. Such complaint must be made by letter to the dealer, a copy of which shall be sent to the applicable manufacturer or distributor, and must specify the defects in the vehicle which are covered by the warranty. The owner may make further complaint by sending to the Commission a copy of the letter. The Commission may hold a hearing on all unsatisfied complaints to determine whether there has been a violation of the Act.

(i) After the Commission schedules a hearing on a complaint made by a retail buyer under this section or by a licensed dealer under Section 4.06(c) of this Act, the Commission may cancel or adjourn the hearing if it determines, by an order entered on the records of the Commission, that the complaint was made for purposes of harassment of the dealer, the applicant, or the Commission.

(j) No dealer member of the Commission may participate in, deliberate on, hear, or consider, or decide any matter involving denial under Section 4.06(c) of this Act of an application to establish a dealership to sell the same motor vehicles manufactured or distributed by the same person or a subsidiary or affiliate of the same person for which the dealer member is franchised.
shall be prorated on a monthly basis so that each licensee shall pay only that portion of the license fee which is allocable to the number of months during which the license is valid. On renewal of the license on the new expiration date, the total license fee is payable.

Notice of License Expiration

Sec. 4.01B. The Commission shall notify each person licensed under this Act of the date of license expiration and the amount of the fee required for license renewal. The notice shall be mailed at least thirty days before the date of license expiration.

Dealer Application

Sec. 4.02.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 4.02(a) to (c)]

(d) A dealer licensed hereunder shall promptly notify the Commission of a change in ownership, location or franchise of a dealer, or any other matters the Commission may require by rule. Prior to a change in location of a dealership, a new license must be applied for as in any original application.

Manufacturer, Distributor and Representative Application

Sec. 4.03.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 4.03(a) and (b)]

(c) Each application for a manufacturer's license shall include an instrument setting forth the terms and conditions of all warranty agreements in force and effect on the products it sells in this State to ascertain the degree of protection afforded the retail purchasers of those products and the obligations of dealers in connection therewith as well as the basis for compensating dealers for labor, parts and other expenses incurred in connection with such manufacturer's warranty agreements including a statement of the manufacturer's compliance with Subdivision (9), Section 5.02 of this Act. In addition, all manufacturers shall specify on or with the application the delivery and preparation obligations of their dealers prior to delivery of a new motor vehicle to a retail purchaser and the schedule of compensation to be paid to dealers for the work and service performed by them in connection with such delivery.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 4.03(d) to 4.04]

Sec. 4.05. (a) The annual license fees for licenses issued hereunder shall be as follows:

(1) For each manufacturer and distributor, $300.00.

(2) For each dealer who sold more than 200 new motor vehicles during the preceding calendar year, $100.00.

(3) For each dealer who sold 200 or less new motor vehicles during the preceding calendar year, $50.00.

(4) For each representative, $25.00.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 4.05(b)]

Denial, Revocation or Suspension of License

Sec. 4.06. (a) The Commission may deny an application for a license or revoke or suspend an outstanding license, for any of the following reasons:

(1) Proof of unfitness of applicant or licensee under standards set out in this Act or in Commission rules.

(2) Material misrepresentation in any application or other information filed under this Act or Commission rules.

(3) Willful failure to comply with this Act or any rule promulgated by the Commission hereunder.

(4) Failure to maintain the qualifications for a license.

(5) Willfully defrauding any retail buyer to the buyer's damage.

(6) Willful violation of any law relating to the sale, distribution, financing, or insuring of new motor vehicles.

(7) Any act or omission by an officer, director, partner, trustee, or other person acting in a representative capacity for a licensee which act or omission would be cause for denying, revoking, or suspending a license to an individual licensee.

(8) Repeated failure to fulfill written agreements between the licensee and retail buyers of new motor vehicles.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 4.06(b)]

(c) The Commission may deny a dealer application to establish a dealership if the same line-make of new motor vehicle is then represented in the county in which the proposed dealership site is located, or in an area within 25 miles of the proposed dealership site, by a dealer who is in compliance with his franchise agreement with the manufacturer or distributor, is adequately representing the manufacturer or distributor in the sale and service of its new motor vehicles, and good cause is shown why an additional dealer license is not in the public interest, provided that the Commission shall consider the desirability of a competitive marketplace in all determinations made pursuant to this subsection.

Required Notice to Buyers

Sec. 4.07. (a) A dealer licensed under this Act shall provide notice of the complaint procedures provided by Section 3.04(h) of this Act to each person to whom the dealer sells a new motor vehicle.
(b) The Commission may require its approval of the contents of notices required by Subsection (a) of this section or may prescribe the contents of required notices.

(c) Failure to give the notice required by Subsection (a) of this section is a ground for suspension or revocation of a dealer's license.

SUBCHAPTER E. PROHIBITIONS

Dealers

Sec. 5.01. It shall be unlawful for any dealer to:

(1) Require a retail purchaser of a new motor vehicle as a condition of sale and delivery thereof to purchase special features, equipment, parts, or accessories not ordered or desired by the purchaser, provided such features, equipment, parts, or accessories are not already installed on the new motor vehicle when received by the dealer.

(2) Use false, deceptive, or misleading advertising, in connection with any of the business of a dealer, as defined in Section 17.12 of the Business and Commerce Code, as amended.

(3) Fail to perform the obligations placed on the selling dealer in connection with the delivery and preparation of a new motor vehicle for retail sale as provided in the manufacturer's preparation and delivery agreements on file with the Commission and applicable to such vehicle.

(4) Fail to perform the obligations placed on the dealer in connection with the manufacturer's warranty agreements on file with the Commission.

(5) Operate as a dealer without a currently valid license from the Commission or otherwise violate this Act or rules promulgated by the Commission hereunder.

Manufacturers; Distributors; Representatives

Sec. 5.02. It shall be unlawful for any manufacturer, distributor, or representative to:

(1) Require or attempt to require any dealer to order, accept delivery of or pay anything of value, directly or indirectly, for any motor vehicle, appliance, part, accessory or any other commodity unless voluntarily ordered or contracted for by such dealer.

(2) Refuse or fail to deliver in reasonable quantities and within a reasonable time after receipt of an order to a dealer having a franchise agreement for the retail sale of any motor vehicles sold or distributed by such manufacturer, distributor, or representative, any new motor vehicle or parts or accessories to new motor vehicles as are covered by such franchise if such vehicle, parts or accessories are publicly advertised as being available for delivery or are actually being delivered; provided, however, this provision is not violated if such failure is caused by acts of God, work stoppage or delays due to strikes or labor disputes, freight embargoes or other causes beyond the control of the manufacturer, distributor, or representative.

(3) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, terminate or refuse to continue any franchise with a dealer unless (A) the dealer and the Commission have received written notice sixty days before the effective date thereof setting forth the specific grounds for termination or noncontinuance and (B) if the dealer files a protest with the Commission, it is established by a preponderance of evidence at a hearing called by the Commission that there is good cause for the termination or noncontinuance. The Commission shall consider all the existing circumstances in determining good cause, including without limitation the dealer's sales in relation to the market, the dealer's investment and obligations, injury to public welfare, adequacy of service facilities, equipment, parts and personnel of the dealer and other dealers of new motor vehicles of the same line-make, whether warranties are being honored and compliance with the franchise agreement. Good cause shall not be shown solely by a desire for further market penetration. If a franchise is terminated or not continued, another franchise in the same line-make will be established within a reasonable time unless it is shown to the Commission that the community or trade area cannot reasonably support such a dealership. If this showing is made, no dealer license shall be thereafter issued in the same area unless a change in circumstances is shown.

(4) Use any false, deceptive or misleading advertising, as defined in Section 17.12 of the Business and Commerce Code, as amended.

(5) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, prevent any dealer from changing the capital structure of his dealership or the means by or through which he finances the operation thereof, provided that the dealer meets any reasonable capital requirements agreed to by contract of the parties.

(6) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, fail to give effect to or attempt to prevent any sale or transfer of a dealer, dealership or franchise or interest therein or management thereof unless it is shown to the Commission after hearing that the result of such sale or transfer will be detrimental to the public or the representation of the manufacturer or distributor.

(7) Require or attempt to require that a dealer assign to or act as an agent for any manufacturer, distributor or representative in the securing of promissory notes and security agreements given in connection with the sale or purchase of new motor vehicles or the securing of policies of insurance on or having to do with the operation of vehicles sold.

(8) Fail, after complaint and hearing, to perform the obligations placed on the manufacturer in connection with the delivery, preparation and warranty of a new motor vehicle as provided in the manufacturer's warranty, preparation, and delivery agreements on file with the Commission.
(9) Fail to compensate its dealers for the work and services they are required to perform in connection with the dealer's delivery and preparation obligations according to the agreements on file with the Commission which must be found by the Commission to be reasonable, or fail to adequately and fairly compensate its dealers for labor, parts and other expenses incurred by such dealer to perform under and comply with manufacturer's warranty agreements. In no event shall any manufacturer or distributor pay its dealers an amount of money for warranty work that is less than that charged by the dealer to the retail customers of the dealer for nonwarranty work of like kind. All claims made by dealers for compensation for delivery, preparation, and warranty work shall be paid within thirty days after approval and shall be approved or disapproved within thirty days after receipt. When any claim is disapproved, the dealer shall be notified in writing of the grounds for disapproval. Notwithstanding the terms of a franchise agreement or provision of law in conflict with this section, the dealer’s delivery, preparation, and warranty obligations as filed with the Commission shall constitute the dealer’s sole responsibility for product liability as between the dealer and manufacturer, and, except for a loss caused by the dealer’s failure to adhere to these obligations, a loss caused by the dealer’s negligence or intentional misconduct, or a loss caused by the dealer’s modification of a product without manufacturer authorization, the manufacturer shall reimburse the dealer for all loss incurred by the dealer, including legal fees, court costs, and damages, as a result of the dealer having been named a party in a product liability action.

(10) Operate as a manufacturer, distributor, or representative without a currently valid license from the Commission or otherwise violate this Act or rules promulgated by the Commission hereunder.

(11) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, to prevent or refuse to honor the succession to a dealership by any legal heir or devisee under the will of a dealer or under the laws of descent and distribution of this State unless it is shown to the Commission, after notice and hearing, that the result of such succession will be detrimental to the public interest or to the representation of the manufacturer or distributor; provided, however, nothing herein shall prevent a dealer, during his lifetime, from designating any person as his successor dealer, by written instrument filed with the manufacturer or distributor.

(12) Require that a dealer pay or assume, directly or indirectly, any part of any refund, rebate, discount, or other financial adjustment made by the manufacturer, distributor, or representative to, or in favor of, any customer of a dealer, unless voluntarily agreed to by such dealer.

Sec. 5.03. A person may not act as, offer to act as, or hold himself or herself out to be, a broker.

Sale of New Motor Vehicles

Sec. 5.04. No person may represent to the public, by advertising or other means, that he is engaged in the business of buying, selling, or exchanging new motor vehicles unless he holds a valid license issued by the Commission for the make or makes of new motor vehicles being bought, sold, or exchanged; or unless such person is acting as a bona fide employee or agent of the licensee; or unless such person is a second stage or allied equipment manufacturer modifying or converting new motor vehicles and offering them for sale with the original manufacturer’s warranty unimpaired.

SUBCHAPTER F. ENFORCEMENT

Application of Other Law

Sec. 6.06. (a) In addition to the other remedies provided by this subchapter, a person who has sustained actual damages as a result of a violation of Section 5.01 or Subdivision (1), (2), (4), (7), (8), or (10), Section 5.02 of Subchapter E of this Code may maintain an action pursuant to the terms of Subchapter E, Chapter 17, Business and Commerce Code.1

(b) In any action brought against a licensee under Subsection (a) of this section, or for any other type of conduct which is actionable pursuant to the provisions of Subchapter E, Chapter 17, Business and Commerce Code, the $1,000 limitation set forth in Section 17.50(b)(1) of Subchapter E, Chapter 17, Business and Commerce Code shall be adjusted to reflect any change in the consumer price index after the effective date of this section. The $1,000 limitation shall be increased or decreased, as applicable, by a sum equal to the amount of the $1,000 limitation multiplied by the percentage of increase or decrease in the consumer price index between the effective date of this section and the time at which the damages are awarded by final judgment or settlement. The term “consumer price index” means the National Consumer Price Index For All Urban Consumers, or a substantially similar successor, and the court may take judicial notice of said index.

If the number of eligible children applying for admission to an approved program exceeds the maximum number specified, the service provider may apply for supplemental funding.

(d) The service provider may charge a fee for intervention services, based on the parent's ability to pay, to be used to offset the cost of providing or securing the services. If a fee is charged, a separate charge shall be made for each type of service. A determination of the parent's ability to pay for services must include a consideration of the availability of financial assistance or other benefits for which the child may be eligible.

(C) related services, including occupational therapy, physical therapy, speech and language therapy, adaptive equipment, transportation, and other therapies as needed or prescribed;
(5) the provider must maintain a plan for in-service personnel training;
(6) the provider must cooperate with the department's monitoring and case management efforts; and

Art. 4413(47b)  HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS  3398

Art. 4413(47b).  Energy Development Act of 1977

Short Title
Sec. 1. This Act shall be known as "The Texas Energy Development Act of 1977."

Declaration of Policy
Sec. 2. The legislature finds and declares that:

(1) Texas, the largest producer and consumer of energy among the 50 states, currently relies on oil and gas to supply at least 98 percent of its energy needs. Texas and the United States have less than 10 years' supply of oil and gas reserves based on current rates of production.

(2) Although an end to federal price controls on oil and gas would stimulate greater development of oil and gas supplies, the rapid depletion of these fossil fuels is inevitable.

(3) The nation and the state must develop known resources of more plentiful fuels and begin the shift to total reliance on alternate abundant energy resources.

(4) Development of alternative energy technologies is both an expensive and risky activity which often discourages adequate funding by private sources alone. Precedent exists for government involvement in research, development, and demonstration of new technologies.

(5) While the major responsibility for energy research, development, and demonstration lies with the federal government, federal programs will often overlook projects of regional or state significance in order to concentrate on national priorities. Federal programs often bypass competent local research facilities in preference to federal laboratories or contractors.

(6) Other states have been able to attract federally funded energy development projects with the use of matching funds or seed money. Texas is interested in competing with these other states to secure such projects.

(7) The most effective development of alternate technologies depends on the close cooperation and coordination among federal, state, and local governments and private participants. Such coordination can be enhanced through the planning, programming, and implementation of a state energy development fund.

(8) Funding of energy research and development under this Act should concentrate on technologies which offer the realistic promise of significant energy contributions within 25 years and which are of particular importance to Texas.

Definitions
Sec. 3. In this Act:

(1) "Fund" means the Energy Development Fund created by this Act.

(2) "Council" means the Texas Energy and Natural Resources Advisory Council.

(3) "Person" means an individual, corporation, association, organization, business trust, or any other legal entity.

Creation of the Energy Development Fund
Sec. 4. The Energy Development Fund is created in the state treasury and is composed of funds provided by legislative appropriation plus such additional funds as are received from other sources in accordance with Section 7 of this Act. The fund is created to support research, development, and demonstration of alternate energy supplies and energy conservation technologies of particular importance to Texas. Although it is the purpose of this Act to focus and coordinate through the council the primary energy-related problems and needs of this state, nothing in this Act shall be construed to restrict, limit, or specify the research, development, or demonstration in energy-related fields that a university, non-profit institution, or any other person might pursue where funds to support such research, development, or demonstration are from sources other than legislative appropriation.

Texas Energy and Natural Resources Advisory Council
Sec. 5. The Texas Energy and Natural Resources Advisory Council shall be responsible for the proper administration of the Energy Development Fund and shall have the director for energy analysis and development submit to the governor and legislature before March 1 of each odd-numbered year a comprehensive report on the operation of the fund.

Administration of the Fund
Sec. 6. (a) The council shall provide for the administration of the fund.

(b) The council shall promulgate a plan for the development of alternative energy technologies. Such a plan shall prescribe detailed regulations for: submission and solicitation of proposals, evaluation and selection of proposals by an impartial group of technical experts, the disbursement of contracted funds, project cost accounting, and project reporting requirements. Such a plan shall be published within 60 days of the effective date of this Act. Within 90 days thereafter, the council shall adopt the plan following public hearing and appropriate review.

(c) The council may contract with universities, nonprofit institutions, and other persons that meet the criteria for funding adopted by the council.

Secs. 6A to 6C. [Blank]

Program to Demonstrate Solar Generation of Heat for Industrial Purposes
Sec. 6D. (a) In this section:

(1) "Solar generation of heat for industrial purposes" means the use of solar energy captured through a concentrating solar collector system to generate, as steam, hot water, hot oil, hot gas, molten salt, molten sodium, or a similar fluid, all or part of the heat needed in an industrial process.
(2) "Concentrating solar collector system" means a system, such as a central receiver system, a line focus system, or a point focus system, in which multiple solar images are directed into a focal region.

(3) "Central receiver system" means an energy conversion system that uses a field of heliostats, which are large flat mirrors, to reflect sunlight onto a central receiver and heat exchanger that transforms the solar energy into a fluid such as molten salt, molten sodium, water, steam, or air for energy transmission to an electric power plant or other energy utilization system.

(4) "Line focus system" means a trough of parabolic or approximately parabolic cross-section, a linear Fresnel lens, or a similar device that directs solar energy from a large area to a pipe passing through the central focal region.

(5) "Point focus system" means a dish of parabolic or approximately parabolic cross-section, a circular Fresnel lens, or a similar device that directs a small circular focal region.

(b) The council may establish and administer a program to expire four years from the effective date of this Act to demonstrate solar generation of heat for industrial purposes.

c) The state may provide no more than 20 percent of the funds for the program. The remainder of the funds for the program shall be obtained from the federal government and private sources subject to the final approval of the council.

Program to Demonstrate Solar Electric Repowering

Sec. 6E. (a) In this section:

(1) "Solar electric repowering" means the use of solar energy captured through a central receiver system to generate all or part of the steam required by a steam electric power plant. In projects demonstrating solar electric repowering, the conventional fossil fuel system may or may not be retained to supply energy if solar energy is not available, but other components of the power plant are retained to function in their usual capacities.

(2) "Central receiver system" means an energy conversion system that uses a field of heliostats, which are large flat mirrors, to reflect sunlight onto a central receiver and heat exchanger that transforms the solar energy into a fluid such as molten salt, molten sodium, water, steam, or air for energy transmission to an electric power plant or other energy utilization system.

(b) The council may establish and administer a program to expire four years from the effective date of this section to demonstrate solar electric repowering in Texas.

c) The state may provide no more than 20 percent of the funds for the program. The remainder of the funds for the program shall be obtained from the federal government and private sources subject to the final approval of the council.

Sec. 1. This service shall make provisions for locating, examining and physically restoring crippled children of the state as hereinafter provided. Eligibility of Children with Cancer; Cancer Defined

Sec. 1A. (a) The department shall provide the medical, dental, and rehabilitative services provided for crippled children under this Act for children under 21 years of age who have cancer and who meet the financial eligibility requirements for receiving crippled children's services.

reasonable to assume that the services provided may cure or arrest the condition (cancer) or prolong the child's period of independent function.

Approval of Qualified Dentist as Primary Provider Not Precluded

Sec. 1B. Nothing in this Act may be interpreted in a manner which would preclude the approval of a qualified dentist who is licensed to practice in Texas to deliver services as the primary provider within the area of his expertise to eligible recipients who have conditions which are covered by the program.

"Crippled Child" Defined; Eligibility

Sec. 2. A crippled child is defined as any person under twenty-one (21) years of age, whose physical functions, movements, or sense of hearing are impaired by reason of a joint, bone, ossicular chain, muscle, or neurological defect or deformity, to the extent that the child is or may be expected to be totally or partially incapacitated for education or remunerative occupation. To be eligible for rehabilitation service under this Act, the child's disability must be such that it is reasonable to expect that such child can be improved through hospitalization, medical, dental, or surgical care, optometric care, artificial appliances, or through a combination of these services. For the purposes of this Act, a "crippled child" includes a child whose sole or primary handicap is blindness or other substantial visual handicap, but the responsibility for rendering services to a child crippled with blindness or other substantial visual handicap is that of the Commission for the Blind.

Powers of Crippled Children's Division; Administration of Properties; Rules and Regulations

Sec. 3. The Crippled Children's Division of the Texas Department of Health is empowered to take census, make surveys, and establish permanent records of crippled children and children who have cancer; to procure medical, dental, and surgical service for eligible children, provided that only physicians and dentists legally qualified to practice medicine, dentistry, or surgery in Texas be employed for purposes of diagnosis and treatment, that not more than the customary minimum fees be paid for such services, and that physicians, dentists, or surgeons so employed shall be approved by the State Board of Health as qualified to render such service; to select and designate hospitals for the care of children contemplated by this Act, and to take such other steps as may be necessary in order to accomplish the purposes of this Act.

At the discretion of the Texas Department of Health, transportation, appliances, braces, and material necessary in the proper handling of crippled children or children who have cancer may be in part or entirely provided. Such appliances, braces, and material, being a part of the care and treatment program and necessary to the physical restoration of the individual crippled child as defined in this Act or a child who has cancer, shall not be considered to be state-owned personal property and shall be excluded from the personal property inventory required of state-owned property; and all such property including appliances, braces, and materials, being a part of the care and treatment program, and which are now being accounted for under the provisions of the present system of accounting shall be deleted from and not required after the passage and effective date of this Act. The Texas Department of Health, however, shall maintain at all times a complete record of such appliances, braces, and materials provided and such records shall be verified by the State Auditor.

The Texas Department of Health is directed to provide in Rules and Regulations, the necessary details for the conduct of this work, in accordance with the purposes of this Act, which shall permit as far as possible, the free choice of patients in their selections of hospitals and licensed physicians and dentists, and shall arrange with hospitals, brace departments and other services providing for crippled children's work and children who have cancer, compensation for such services, provided that such fees or charges shall not exceed the average charges for the same services rendered to patients in the hospitals approved for purposes of this Act.

Right to Care and Treatment; Entering Homes; Death of Hospitalized Patient; Expenses

Sec. 4. No child shall be entitled to care and treatment provided for in this Act unless the Texas Department of Health determines that every person who has a legal obligation to provide care and treatment for the child is financially unable to provide for said care and treatment.

A person who has a legal obligation to provide care and treatment for a child and who is financially able to bear a portion of the expenses shall be required to pay for or reimburse the department for a portion of the cost of the services provided by the department to the child for whom the application is made or by whom the services are received. A schedule to govern this required proportional payment or reimbursement of the cost of services shall be included in the department's rules.

Provided further that at least one physician or dentist, regularly practicing under the laws of the State of Texas and within the scope of their licensing practice act, must certify that the physician or dentist has examined said child and recommends said child as coming under the provisions and intent of this Act. Provided further that no employee, agent, or representative of the Department, or other official agent, shall, by virtue of this Act, have any right to enter any home over the objection of the person who has legal responsibility to provide care and treatment for the child, and nothing in this Act shall be construed as limiting the power of those persons over such child.
Provided further that funds of the Division of Crippled Children's Services may be expended for the care of any patients either under the regular Crippled Children's Program, the Children's Cancer Services Program, or the Cardiac Program who expire while being hospitalized under the State Program for the following:

Transportation of the deceased and a parent or anyone who may accompany the body of the deceased from the hospital to the place of burial designated by the parents.

Expenses incidental to embalming of the deceased as required for transportation.

A casket purchased at the minimum price as required for transportation.

Any other necessary expenses directly related to the care of the body of the deceased and the return of the body to the place of burial.

Eligibility for Other Benefits; Reimbursement of Department

Sec. 4A. (a) In this section, "other benefit" means a benefit to which a person is entitled other than a benefit under this Act for payment of the costs of medical or dental care and treatment or burial, including but not limited to the following:

Art. 4419e. Repealed by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 2429, ch. 842, art. 1, § 2(1), eff. Sept. 1, 1979

Acts 1979, 66th Leg., ch. 842, repealing this article, enacts the Human Resources Code.

Prior to repeal, this article was amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 939, ch. 352, §§ 1, 2; Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1203, ch. 406, §§ 1 to 3.
Sec. 1. This Act shall be known as and may be cited as "The Texas Children's Vision Screening Act of 1979."

Sec. 2. The purpose of children's vision screening is to identify those children who need a thorough eye examination by a professional eye examiner. Such screening is particularly necessary in early childhood since many visual defects will become incurable if detected too late. Screening is not a diagnostic procedure and decisions about the need for treatment can only be made after a professional eye examination. Besides discovering vision defects which may interfere with the child's education, vision screening helps the teacher prepare assessments of the child's educational potential and helps to detect those children who are needing special educational services because of insufficient vision. It shall not be the intent of the legislature to impose any added fiscal implications or additional costs on units of local government.

Sec. 3. (a) "Board" means the Texas Board of Health.

(b) "Department" means the Texas Department of Health.

(c) "Vision screening" means a test or battery of tests for rapid determination of the need for a more complete visual examination by an eye specialist.

Sec. 4. (a) It is required for all children enrolling in any public, private, parochial, or denominational school in Texas for the first time, that the parent, managing conservator, or other person having a legal responsibility for the child's support shall submit to the admitting officer of the school within 90 days after admission a certificate which states that the child has either (1) been examined by a physician licensed to practice in the United States or an optometrist licensed to practice in the United States or (2) undergone a vision screening test which has been approved by the board and which discloses the results of the examination or test.

(b) Subject to the exception in Subsection (c) of this section, the board may by rule modify the requirement of Subsection (a) to require the additional periodic examination or screening of children it determines is necessary.

(c) A child may be provisionally admitted to a kindergarten, elementary, or secondary school upon the submission of an affidavit signed by the parent, managing conservator, or person having a legal responsibility for the child's support, that the child will undergo the required vision screening test or examination as rapidly as is feasible.

(d) The requirements of this section are mandatory except in the event that the affected child's parent, managing conservator, or person having a legal responsibility for the child's support presents to the school authorities an affidavit signed by the parent, managing conservator, or person having a legal responsibility for the child's support stating that the visual screening test conflicts with the tenets or practices of a recognized church or religious denomination of which the affiant is an adherent or a member.

(e) The governing body of each school shall ensure that all parents, managing conservators, or persons having a legal responsibility for the support of school children within the jurisdiction of the governing body present the required certificate of examination or screening, or an affidavit of exemption based on religious tenet or practice.

Sec. 5. (a) The certificate required shall be in a form prescribed by the board and shall contain that information which may be required by the board to carry out the intent of this Act.

(b) The certificate may be signed by:

(1) a physician licensed to practice in the State of Texas or an optometrist licensed to practice in the United States who performed the eye examination;

(2) a physician licensed to practice in the State of Texas or an optometrist licensed to practice in the United States who personally supervised a vision screening test; or

(3) health personnel, volunteers, school nurses or aides, or other school personnel who have undergone a special training program in the administration of children's vision screening testing which meets the standards approved by the board.

(c) The requirement of Section 4 may be met by an entry made in the official school record of the child which states that the child has undergone a vision screening test which meets the standards set by the board, that the test was administered by a person authorized in this section to sign the required certificate, and which discloses the results of the test.

Sec. 6. (a) Each school covered by this Act shall keep an individual eye examination or vision screening record for each student during the period of attendance for each child admitted, and the records shall be open for inspection at all reasonable times by representatives of the local health departments or the Texas Department of Health.

(b) Each school covered by this Act shall cooperate in transferring student's eye examination or vision screening records between other schools. Specific approval from the parent, managing conserva-
(c) The department shall develop the form for a required annual report of the results of the examinations or tests and the report will be submitted according to the instructions of the board.

Powers of the Texas Board of Health

Sec. 7. (a) The board is authorized to establish a vision screening program in the department.

(b) The board, in consultation with the advisory committee, shall adopt rules to carry out the intent of this Act. These rules shall include, but not be limited to, rules prescribing the following:

1. Form and content of the required certificate;
2. The closing dates for presenting such certificates;
3. Transfer of individual certificates between schools;

4. Compile and publish statistical analyses of reports relating to examination and screening results and referrals to ascertain the impact of the requirements on public health.

Advisory Committee on Vision Screening

Sec. 8. The board shall appoint an advisory committee on children's vision to consult with and advise the board in determining acceptable technical and professional standards which must be met by any individual or public or private health care entity undertaking to perform the vision screening tests allowed in Section 4 of this Act. The advisory committee will also advise the board on referral and appropriate follow-up.

(a) The advisory committee shall be composed of:

1. Two physicians who are licensed to practice in Texas and whose medical specialty is ophthalmology;
2. Two optometrists who are licensed to practice in Texas, one of whom must be a member of the Texas Optometric Association and one of whom must be a member of the Texas Association of Optometrists; and
3. Two persons to represent the public who have experience in and an interest in children's visual problems.

(b) Except for those first appointed, members are appointed for terms of six years expiring on August 31 of the odd-numbered years. If a vacancy occurs on the committee, the board shall appoint a member to serve the unexpired portion of the term.

(c) The advisory committee shall serve without compensation; however, the committee members may be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred while fulfilling their duties as committee members.

(d) The advisory committee, after approval from the department, may from time to time invite the participation of representatives of professional and volunteer organizations in their activities.

Interagency Committee on Children's Vision

Sec. 9. (a) The functioning of the vision screening program shall be assisted by an interagency committee on children's vision. The commissioner of education, the commissioner of human resources, the executive director of the State Commission for the Blind, and the commissioner of health shall appoint one member from their agency to the committee. The committee members shall coordinate preschool and school vision screening programs and the vision health programs in their respective agencies in the State of Texas. The committee may invite the advisory committee on children's vision, authorized under this Act, to meet with it and to offer professional consultation when requested.

(b) The interagency committee shall select one of its members as chairman and may elect other officers that it considers necessary. The committee may meet as often and at any place that it may decide, but shall meet at least once in each calendar year.

Limitation on Authority

Sec. 10. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as giving anyone authority to require the maintenance of any forms or filing of reports that were not required prior to the passage of this Act.

Initial Appointments

Sec. 11. In making the initial appointments to the advisory committee, the board shall appoint one ophthalmologist and one optometrist for terms expiring on August 31, 1981; one optometrist and a person representing the public for terms expiring August 31, 1983; and one ophthalmologist and a person representing the public for terms expiring August 31, 1985.

Effective Date

Sec. 12. The effective date of this Act is September 1, 1979; provided, however, that the require-motions of Section 4 and Section 5 shall not be effective until September 1, 1980. [Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 2053, ch. 804, §§ 1 to 3, 6 to 12, eff. Sept. 1, 1979; §§ 4, 5, eff. Sept. 1, 1980.]

Board of Directors

Sec. 4. (a) The Authority shall be governed by a Board of Directors consisting of not less than seven (7) nor more than eleven (11) members to be determined at the time of creating the Authority. Unless otherwise provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds or the Trust Indenture securing them, the number of Directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to the ordinance creating the Authority adopted by the Governing Body of the City or ordinances creating the Authority adopted by the Governing Bodies of the Cities, but no decrease in number shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent Director. Except as hereinafter in this Section provided, the first Directors shall be appointed by the Governing Body of the City or by the Governing Bodies of the Cities, and they shall serve until their successors are appointed as hereinafter provided. If Authority includes more than one City, each Governing Body shall appoint an equal number of Directors unless otherwise agreed by the Cities. When the Authority issues its revenue bonds the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or the Trust Indenture securing them may prescribe the method of selecting and the term of office of a majority of the members of the Board. The remaining members of the Board shall be appointed by the Governing Body of the City or the Governing Bodies of the Cities for two (2) year terms. The Trust Indenture may also provide that, in event of default as defined in the Trust Indenture, the Trustee may appoint all of the Directors, in which event the terms of the Directors then in office shall automatically terminate. Unless and until provision is made in the Bond Resolution or Indenture in connection with the issuance of bonds for the appointment by other means of part of the Directors, all of the Directors shall be appointed by the Governing Body of the City or each of the Cities, as the case may be, for terms not to exceed two (2) years, but the terms of Directors appointed prior to the issuance of the first issue of revenue bonds shall be subject to the exercise of the provision herein made for appointment of a majority of the members of the Board in connection with the issuance of the bonds. No officer or employee of any such City shall be eligible for appointment as a Director. Directors shall not receive compensation for services but shall be entitled to reimbursement of their expenses incurred in performing such service.

(b) In the event the Authority purchases from a nonprofit corporation a hospital then in existence or in process of construction, the first members of the Board of Directors and their successors shall be determined as provided in the contract of purchase.

Sec. 5. The Board of Directors shall elect from among their members a president and vice-president, and shall elect a secretary and a treasurer who may or may not be Directors, and may elect such other officers as may be authorized by Authority's bylaws. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be combined. The president shall have the same right to vote on all matters as other members of the Board. A majority of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum and when a quorum is present action may be taken by a majority vote of Directors present. If the bylaws so provide, the Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the Directors in office, may designate one or more committees, which, to the extent and in the manner provided in such resolution or in the bylaws, shall have and exercise the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Authority. Each such committee shall consist of two or more persons who are directors and may have additional nonvoting members who, if such resolution or the bylaws so provide, need not be directors. The Board of Directors may not, however, provide for the delegation to such committees of the Authority of the power to issue bonds, enter into or amend a lease of a Hospital or a management agreement with respect to a Hospital or to employ or discharge a manager or an executive director. The Board may employ a manager or executive director of the Hospital and such other employees, experts and agents as it may see fit, or enter into a management agreement with any person and it may delegate to the manager the power to manage the Hospital and to employ and discharge employees. The Board may sell, lease, or close the Hospital as otherwise provided by law and may employ legal counsel.

Sec. 6. (a) The Authority shall have the power to construct, enlarge, furnish and equip Hospitals, purchase existing Hospitals, furnishings and equipment for its Hospitals, and to operate and maintain Hospitals. A Hospital need not be located within the City or Cities.

(b) The Authority may sell any of its property without an election to a political subdivision of the State for the fair market value of the property if:

1) the Board of Directors has notice of its intention to sell the property, a description of the property, and the scheduled date of the sale published in a newspaper or newspapers providing general circulation in the Authority once each week for two consecutive weeks, the first publication at least 14 days before the scheduled date of the sale; and

2) a petition requesting an election on a proposition for or against the sale, signed by 10 percent or more of the qualified voters residing in the Authority is not presented to the secretary or president of the Board of Directors before the scheduled date of the sale.

(c) If a petition described in Subdivision (2), Subsection (b) of this section is presented to the secretary or president of the Board of Directors before the scheduled date of the sale, the property may be sold to a political subdivision only if an election on the proposition is held and a majority of the qualified voters voting in the election favor the sale. The Board shall call the election on receiving the petition or may call the election on its own motion if no petition is filed. The Board shall determine and the order calling the election shall specify the date, place, or places of holding the election, the form of ballot, and the presiding judge, alternate judge, and clerks for each voting place. Section 9b, Texas Election Code (Article 2.01b, Vernon's Texas Election Code), does not apply to the election. A substantial copy of the election order shall be published in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the Authority once a week for two consecutive weeks, the first publication to appear at least 30 days before the election date. The form of the ballots at the election shall be in conformity with Section 61, Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 6.05, Vernon's Texas Election Code), so that ballots may be cast for or against the following proposition: "The sale of . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Hospital Authority." The Board shall canvass the returns and announce the results. Except as specifically provided in this section, the election shall be governed by the Texas Election Code.

(d) The Board may sell real property acquired by donation, gift, or purchase that the Board determines is not needed for Hospital purposes if the sale does not contravene (1) a trust indenture or bond resolution relating to outstanding bonds of the Authority, or any prior restrictions or limitations placed on the use of the property, or (2) any agreement entered into either prior to or after the effective date of this Section 6(d) between the Authority and a non-profit corporation under the provisions of Senate Bill No. 243, as enacted, Acts of the 64th Legislature, Regular Session, 1975. The Board shall sell the property through sealed bids or at a public auction. If the Board conducts the sale by sealed bids, the Board shall provide notice of the sale in the manner provided by Chapter 455, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969, as amended (Article 5421c—12, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes). If the Board conducts the sale by public auction, the Board shall publish notice of the sale, including a description of the property and the date, time, and place of the auction, in a newspaper with general circulation in each City of the Authority once a week for three consecutive weeks, the first notice to appear at least 20 days before the auction. Nothing in this Section 6(d) is intended to affect or amend the powers granted to the Authority by Senate Bill No. 243, as enacted, Acts of the 64th Legislature, Regular Session, 1975.
Art. 4437e  HEALTH—PUBLIC

Revenue Bonds

Sec. 7. The Authority may issue revenue bonds to provide funds for any of its purposes. Such bonds shall be payable from and secured by a pledge of all or any designated part of the revenues to be derived from the operation of the Hospital or Hospitals and any other revenues resulting from the ownership of the Hospital properties. The bonds may be additionally secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property of Authority or by a chattel mortgage on its personal property, or by both.

The seal of the Authority shall be impressed or printed thereon. The bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years and may be sold at a price and under terms determined by the Board of Directors to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, provided that the net effective interest rate as defined by law in Article 717k—2 does not exceed ten percent (10%) per annum, and within the discretion of the Board, may be made callable prior to maturity at such times and prices as may be prescribed in the resolution authorizing the bonds, and may be made registrable as to principal or has to both principal and interest.

In the event the Hospital is being used, operated, or acquired by a nonprofit corporation under the provisions of the Hospital Project Financing Act (Article 4437e—2, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes) or leased, it shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to provide that such nonprofit corporation or the lessee shall charge sufficient rates for services rendered by the Hospital which together with other sources of such nonprofit corporation’s or the lessee’s revenues will produce revenues sufficient to enable such nonprofit corporation or the lessee to pay all expenses in connection with the operation and upkeep of the Hospital and to make payments or to pay lease rentals to the Authority which will be sufficient, when taken with other pledged sources of the Authority’s estimated revenues, to pay the interest on the bonds as it becomes due, to create a sinking fund to pay the bonds as they become due, and to create and maintain a bond reserve fund and other funds as provided in the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture. The Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture may prescribe systems, methods, routines, procedures, and policies under or in accordance with which the hospital shall be operated, and in the event the Hospital is being used, operated, or acquired by a nonprofit corporation or leased, the Authority may delegate to such nonprofit corporation or the lessee the duty to establish the systems, methods, routines, procedures, and policies under or in accordance with which the Hospital shall be operated.

a hospital project as defined in Section 3(c) of this

by the issuer, the cost of which appraisal shall be a

Eminent Domain

Sec. 6. No issuer shall have the power under this Act to acquire any hospital project, or any part thereof, to be sold or leased under this Act, by the exercise of the power of eminent domain. Land previously acquired by an issuer in the exercise of the power of eminent domain may be sold or leased, under the provisions of this Act; provided that the governing body of the issuer determines that (a) such use will not interfere with the purpose for which such land was originally acquired or that such land is no longer needed for such purpose, (b) at least seven years have elapsed since such land was so acquired, and (c) such land was not acquired for park purposes unless such sale or lease of park land has been approved at an election held under the authority of Article 1112, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended by Chapter 108, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, 1973.

Issue of Bonds or Notes

Sec. 7. (a) Each issuer is hereby authorized to provide by resolution, from time to time, for the issuance of negotiable revenue bonds or notes or any other evidences of indebtedness for the purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of a hospital project. The bonds or notes of each issue shall be dated, shall bear interest at such rate or rates, and shall mature at such time or times, not exceeding 40 years from their date, as may be determined by the issuer and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the issuer, at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be determined by the issuer.

(b) The principal of, redemption premium, if any, and the interest on such bonds or notes shall be payable from and secured by a pledge of all or any part of the revenues of the issuer to be derived from the ownership, operation, lease, use, mortgage, and/or sale of the hospital project for which such bonds or notes have been issued and/or from such other revenues, if any, as may be provided by a non-profit corporation, all as specified by the resolution of the governing body or in any trust indenture or other instrument securing the bonds or notes.

c) One or more series of bonds or notes may be issued for each hospital project or any hospital projects may be combined in one or more series of bonds or notes if the governing body, in the exercise of its discretion, deems the same to be in the best interest of the issuer, but each hospital project may be considered separately with respect to the provisions of Sections 8 and 9 of this Act.

d) The issuer shall determine the form of the bonds or notes, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto, and shall determine the denomination or denominations of the bonds or notes and the place or places of payment of principal, redemption premium, if any, and interest. Provision may be made for execution of the bonds or notes and coupons, if any, under the provisions of Chapter 204, Acts of the 57th Legislature, 1961, as amended (Article 717j–1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). In cases where any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature shall appear on any bonds, notes, or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds or notes, such signature or such facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if he had remained in office until such delivery. The bonds or notes may be issued in coupon or in registered form, or both, or may be payable to a specific person, as the issuer may determine, and provisions may be made for the registration of any coupon bonds or notes as to the principal alone and also as to both principal and interest, and provision may be made for the conversion of coupon bonds or notes into registered bonds or notes without coupons and for the reconversion into coupon bonds or notes of any registered bonds or notes without coupons. If the duty of such conversion or reconversion is imposed upon a trustee in a trust agreement, the substituted bonds or notes need not be reapproved by the Attorney General of Texas, and they shall remain incontestable. The issuer shall sell the bonds or notes at such price or prices as shall be determined by the governing body of the issuer.

(e) The proceeds of the bonds or notes shall be used solely for the payment of the cost of the hospital project for which the bonds or notes were issued, and shall be disbursed in such manner and under such restrictions, if any, provided in the resolution authorizing their issuance or in the trust agreement securing the same. If the proceeds of the bonds or notes shall exceed the cost of the hospital project for which the same shall have been issued, the surplus shall be deposited to the credit of the sinking fund for such bonds or notes.

(f) From the proceeds of the sale of the bonds or notes, the governing body may set aside amounts for payments into reserve funds, and provisions for such funds may be made in the resolution authorizing the bonds or notes or any instruments securing the same. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds or notes may be invested: (1) in direct, indirect, or guaranteed obligations of the United States government or its agencies maturing in the manner that may be specified by the resolution authorizing the bonds or notes or any other instrument securing the bonds or notes; or (2) in certificates of deposit of any bank or trust company which deposits are secured by such obligations. Any bank or trust company with trust powers may be designated by the governing body to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or notes or of contract or lease revenues. Such bank or trust company shall furnish such indemnifying bonds or pledge such securities as may be required by the issuer to secure the deposits.

(g) Prior to the preparation or issuance of definitive bonds or notes, the issuer may issue interim receipts or temporary bonds or notes, with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds or notes when such bonds or notes shall have been executed and be available for delivery. Such interim receipts or temporary bonds or notes shall be for a maximum term of two years. The issuer shall submit such interim receipts or temporary bonds or notes to the Attorney General of Texas in accordance with Subsection (i) of this Section 7.

(h) Bonds or notes may be issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act without obtaining the consent of any department, division, commission, board, bureau, or agency of the State of Texas, and without any proceedings or the happening of any conditions or things other than those proceedings, conditions, or things which are specifically required by this Act.

(i) After issuance of the bonds or notes is authorized and before the bonds or notes may be delivered to the purchaser thereof, the bonds or notes and the proceedings authorizing their issuance and securing the bonds or notes shall be presented to the Attorney General of Texas for examination. Where such bonds or notes recite that they are secured by a pledge of all or any part of the revenues of the issuer to be derived from any lease or other contract, such contracts shall also be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas. If the attorney general finds that such bonds or notes have been duly authorized in accordance with the constitution and laws of the State of Texas and that such contracts, if any, submitted to him securing and relating to the bonds or notes have been made in accordance with the constitution and laws of the State of Texas, he shall approve the bonds or notes and such contracts. The bonds or notes when approved shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. After such approval and registration, the bonds or notes and any and all contracts submitted therewith shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms, and shall be incontestable in any court or other forum.

(j) Nothing in this Act shall supercede the provisions of the state certificate of need law.

(k) Before authorizing the issuance of any bonds or notes or calling an election on any matters authorized by this Act, the issuer shall deposit with the chief administrative officer of the issuer a full and complete description of any proposed hospital project, including a detailed listing and explanation of projected costs, the reasons for the hospital project, and the names of the owners of the non-profit corporation for whom the hospital project is to be constructed. All of the information deposited or required to be deposited by this section is public information.

A substantial copy of such resolution shall be published three times in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the territorial limits of the issuer. The first publication shall be made not more than 45 days prior to the tentative date fixed in such resolution and the third publication shall be made not less than 10 days prior to the tentative date fixed in such resolution for the authorization of the bonds or notes. Election on Issuance of Bonds or Notes

Sec. 9. If an election is called, notice thereof shall be published three times in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the territorial limits of the issuer. The first publication shall be made not more than 45 days prior to the date fixed for such election, and the third publication shall be made not less than 10 days prior to the date fixed for such election. The election shall be conducted in accordance with the general laws of Texas pertaining to bond elections in cities, except as modified by the provisions of this Act. The order calling the election shall specify the date of such election, the place or places of holding the election, and the presiding judge and alternate judge for each voting place, and shall provide for clerks as provided in the Election Code of the State of Texas. The form of ballot shall be in conformity with the applicable provisions of such election code and the ballots shall provide for voting for or against the following proposition: "The issuance of revenue bonds or notes or other evidences of indebtedness for the hospital project or hospital projects." As soon as practicable after such election is held, the governing body of the issuer shall convene and canvass the returns of the election, and in the event a majority of the voters voting in such election approves the proposition, such governing body shall so find and declare and shall be authorized to proceed with the authorization of bonds or notes. No election shall again be called on the proposition of issuing revenue bonds or notes for any hospital project which has been defeated by a majority of the voters voting in an election within six months of the proposed new election, and no bonds or notes shall be issued for any such hospital project until a majority of the voters voting in an election held for that purpose approve the issuance of such bonds or notes.

Sec. 10. Any lease or other contract entered into pursuant to this Act may be for such term as the parties may agree, and may provide that it shall continue in effect until the bonds or notes specified therein, or refunding or substitution bonds or notes issued in lieu of such bonds or notes, are fully paid or provision has been made for their final payment.

Sec. 11. An issuer is hereby authorized to provide by resolution for the issuance of its revenue refunding bonds or notes for the purpose of refunding any bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness then outstanding, issued to provide a hospital project, which bonds, notes, or evidences of indebtedness may or may not have been issued under the provisions of this Act, including the payment of any redemption premium thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of such bonds, notes, or evidences of indebtedness. The bonds, notes, or evidences of indebtedness previously issued and to be refunded by the revenue refunding bonds or notes described in this Section 11 need not have been originally issued by the issuer of the revenue refunding bonds or notes. The issuance of such bonds or notes, the maturities and other details thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the rights, duties, and obligations of the issuer in respect of the same, shall be governed by the provisions of this Act insofar as the same may be applicable. Within the discretion of the issuer, the refunding bonds or notes may be issued in exchange or substitution for outstanding bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness or may be sold and the proceeds used for the purpose of paying or redeeming outstanding bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness.

Securing Bonds or Notes by Trust Agreement

Sec. 12. (a) Any bonds or notes issued under the provisions of this Act may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the issuer and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within the State of Texas. Any such trust agreement may pledge or assign lease income, contract payments, fees, or any other charges to be received from a non-profit corporation. Such bonds or notes, within the discretion of the governing body of the issuer, may be additionally secured by a mortgage, a deed of trust lien, or other security interest upon a designated hospital project vesting in the trustee power to sell such hospital project for the payment of the indebtedness, power to operate such hospital project, and all other powers and authority for the further security of the bonds or notes.

(b) The trust agreement may evidence a pledge of all or any part of the revenues of the issuer to be derived from the ownership, operation, lease, use, mortgage, and/or sale of any hospital project for the payment of principal of, redemption premium, if any, and interest on such bonds or notes as the same shall become due and payable and may provide for the creation and maintenance of reserves. Any such trust agreement or any resolution providing for the issuance of such bonds or notes may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the holders thereof as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the issuer and the non-profit corporation in relation to the acquisition of property and the construction, improvement, maintenance, repair, operation, and insurance of the hospital project in connection with which such bonds or notes shall have been issued, and the custody, safeguarding, and application of all money. Any such trust agreement may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders or note holders and of the trustee, and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders or noteholders as is customary in trust agreements or trust indentures securing bonds and debentures of corporations. In addition to the foregoing, any such trust agreement may contain such provisions as the issuer may deem reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders or noteholders and may also contain provisions governing the issuance of bonds and notes to replace lost, stolen, or mutilated bonds or notes. All expenses incurred by any issuer in carrying out the provisions of any such trust agreement may be treated as a part of the cost of the operation of the hospital project with respect to which the bonds or notes have been issued.

Default in Payment of Bonds or Notes; Enforcement by Mandamus or by Appointment of Receiver

Sec. 18. Any agreement or contract made in accordance with the provisions of this Act may contain a provision that, in the event of a default in the payment of the principal of, redemption premium, if any, or the interest on bonds or notes issued in accordance with, or relating to, such agreement, or in the performance of any agreement contained in the proceedings, mortgage, or instruments relating to such bonds or notes, such payment and performance may be enforced by mandamus or by the appointment of a receiver in equity with power to charge and collect rates, rents, or contract payments and to apply the revenues from the hospital project in accordance with such resolution, mortgage, or instruments.

Foreclosure of Mortgage to Secure Bonds or Notes

Sec. 14. Any mortgage to secure bonds or notes issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act may also provide that, in the event of a default in the payment thereof or the violation of any agreement contained in the mortgage, the property secured by the mortgage may be foreclosed and sold under proceedings in equity or in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law. Such mortgage may also provide that any trustee under such mortgage or the holder of any of the bonds or notes secured thereby may become the purchaser at any foreclosure sale if the highest bidder therefor.

Members of Governing Body; Method of Selecting and Term of Office

Sec. 15. If an authority issues bonds or notes in accordance with the provisions of this Act, notwithstanding any provision of law, and under no circumstances, shall the method of selecting and the term of office of any of the members of the governing body of such authority be prescribed in the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or notes, the trust agreement securing such bonds or notes, or any other agreement relating to such bonds or notes.

rerouting, or changing the grade of, or altering all such necessary relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, changing the grade of, or alteration of con-of the bonds or notes. The term “sole expense” shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, changing the grade of, or alteration of construction to provide comparable replacement, without enhancement, of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Severability

Sec. 21. The provisions of this Act are severable.
If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, section, part, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of this Act shall nevertheless be valid; and the legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional-word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, section, part, or provision.

“Institution” also means a foster care type residential facility providing room and board to fewer than four persons unrelated within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity to the proprietor and who, in addition to room and board, because of his physical or mental limitation or both, requires a level of care and services suitable to the needs of the individual which contribute to his health, comfort, and welfare; provided, however, that such institution shall be subject to licensure only upon written application for participation in the intermediate care program provided by Federal law as it now reads or may hereafter be amended.

Application for License

Sec. 4. An application for a license shall be made to the Licensing Agency upon forms provided by it and contain such information as the Licensing Agency requires which may include affirmative evidence of ability to comply with reasonable standards, rules and regulations as are lawfully prescribed hereun-
The application shall be accompanied by a license fee which shall be in the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25) plus One Dollar ($1) for each unit of capacity or bed space for which a license is sought. Such license fee shall be paid annually in said amount with each application for renewal of the institution's license. All license fees provided for herein shall be waived for the State of Texas and its departments, divisions, boards and agencies. All license fees collected shall be deposited with the State Treasury to the credit of the Licensing Agency and said license fees are hereby appropriated to said Agency for its use in the administration and enforcement of this Act.

Upon receipt of an application for a license the Licensing Agency shall issue a license if upon inspection and investigation it finds that the applicant and facilities meet the requirements established under this law. A license, unless suspended or revoked, shall be renewed annually after an inspection and upon tender of the annual license fee together with the filing by the licensee and approval by the Licensing Agency of an annual report upon such date and containing such information in such form as the Licensing Agency prescribes by regulation. Such license shall be issued only for the premises and persons or governmental units and for the maximum number of beds named in the application and shall not be transferable or assignable. (b) After September 1, 1979, those building sections of a licensed nursing home or custodial care home, regardless of ownership, which have complied with or without waiver, with either the 1967 or 1973 edition of the Life Safety Code of the National Fire Protection Association will be recognized as meeting licensing requirements for fire safety as long as they continue to be in substantial compliance with either the 1967 or 1973 code edition.

(c) The requirements of this section do not preclude an institution from conforming to a higher or additional fire safety standard or provision where required by federal law or regulation. Where provisions of this section conflict with federal laws or regulations adopted after September 1, 1979, then the federal requirements prevail, if required for participation in federal programs.

(d) As provided in the 1976 edition of the Life Safety Code, the Licensing Agency shall have discretionary powers to grant exceptions to the code under certain conditions or in the interest of common and uniform applicability.

(e) Fire safety requirements for institutions other than nursing homes or custodial care homes shall be as determined by the Licensing Agency.

Sec. 6B. (a) If the Licensing Agency finds an institution operating in violation of the standards prescribed by this Act and the violations create an immediate threat to the health and safety of a resident in the institution, the Licensing Agency shall suspend the license or order an immediate closing of the institution or part of an institution; and the Licensing Agency shall by rule provide for resident placement during the period of suspension to assure the health and safety of the residents in said institution.

(b) The order suspending a license under Subsection (a) of this section is immediately effective upon written notice to the license holder or on the date specified on the order.

(c) The order suspending the license and ordering an institution or part of an institution closed is valid for 10 days after the effective date.

Appointment of Trustee

Sec. 6C. (a) The legislature finds that the closing of nursing and convalescent homes for violations of laws and regulations may, in certain circumstances, have an adverse effect on both the residents of the facilities and the families of the residents. It is the purpose of this Act to provide for the appointment of a trustee to assume the operations of these facilities in a manner calculated to emphasize resident care and reduce resident trauma.

(b) Persons holding a controlling interest in a nursing or convalescent home at any time may request the licensing agency to assume the operation of the nursing home through the appointment of a trustee. Upon receiving a request for a trustee, the licensing agency may, if it considers the appointment desirable, enter into an agreement providing for the appointment of a trustee to take charge of the facility under conditions considered appropriate by both parties. The agreement shall specify all terms and conditions of the trustee’s appointment and authority and shall preserve all rights of the facility residents as granted by law. A trustee appointment made in accordance with this subsection terminates at the time specified by the parties or at the time when either party notifies the other in writing that the party wishes to terminate the appointment agreement.

(c) The licensing agency may request the attorney general to bring an action in the name and on behalf of the State of Texas for the appointment of a trustee to operate a nursing or convalescent home when any of the following conditions exist:

1. the facility is operating without a license;
2. the licensing agency has suspended or revoked the existing license of the facility;
3. revocation or suspension procedures have been initiated and, in the opinion of the licensing agency, there is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the residents pending a final determination on license suspension or revocation;
4. the facility is closing and arrangements for relocation of residents to other licensed facilities have not been made prior to closure; however, the duties of a trustee appointed under this subsection shall be limited to assuring an orderly and safe relocation of the facility’s residents as quickly as possible;
5. the licensing agency determines that an emergency exists that presents an immediate threat to the health and safety of residents of the facility.

(d) If, after hearing, the court finds that involuntary appointment of a trustee is necessary, the court shall appoint a trustee to take charge of the facility. When possible, the court shall appoint as trustee an individual whose background includes institutional medical administration.

(e) A trustee appointed pursuant to this section is entitled to a reasonable fee as determined by the court. The trustee may petition the court to order the release to the trustee of any payment due for care and services provided to the residents that has been withheld, such as payment withheld by the Texas Department of Human Resources at the recommendation of the Texas Department of Health. The funds may include Medicaid, Medicare, insurance or other third-party payments, or medical expenses borne by the resident that may be withheld by a governmental agency or other entity during the appointment of the trustee.

Sec. 7. The Licensing Agency is authorized to adopt, amend, promulgate, publish and enforce minimum standards in relation to:

(e) Equipment essential to the health and welfare of the residents;

(g) For at least one unannounced inspection in each year as required by Subsection (f) of this section, the Licensing Agency shall arrange to invite in the inspection at least one person as a citizen advocate from one of the following groups: American Association of Retired Persons, the Texas Senior Citizen Association, or the Texas Retired Federal Employees, or any other statewide organization for the elderly, except that this subsection does not apply to an institution that provides maternity care;
(h) The use and administration of medications in conformity with applicable law and rules and regulations on the use and administration of medications; all personnel administering medications must have completed a state-approved training program in medication administration;
(i) Grading each home or institution so as to recognize those homes or institutions that go beyond the minimum level of services and personnel, as established by the agency and such attained grade shall be prominently displayed for public view and as incentive to attain the superior grade, allow each home or institution to advertise such grade, except that this subsection does not apply to an institution that provides maternity care.
(j) The Licensing Agency shall require one medical examination per resident per year. The details of this examination will be specified by the Licensing Agency.
(k) Unless another state or federal requirement prohibits, the Licensing Agency may allow a licensed facility to operate a portion of the facility under the standards of a lesser licensing category. The Licensing Agency shall determine the rank of licensing categories and may establish procedures and stan-

Respite Care

Sec. 8A. (a) An institution that is licensed under this Act may provide respite care for an elderly or handicapped person according to a plan of care that is filed at the institution and agreed upon between the institution and the person arranging the respite care before the institution admits the person for the care.

(b) The plan of care must be signed by a licensed physician if the person for whom respite care is arranged needs medical care or treatment. If the person does not need medical care or treatment, the plan of care must be signed by the person arranging for the respite care.

(c) The institution may keep an agreed plan of care for not longer than six months from the date it is received and during that period admit a person for respite care as frequently as is needed and as accommodations are available.

(d) An institution that offers respite care shall notify the licensing agency in writing that it is offering respite care.

(e) The licensing agency, at the time of ordinary licensing inspections, or at other times if the agency determines necessary, shall inspect the institution's records of respite care services, the physical accommodations available for respite care, and the plan of care records to insure that the respite care services comply with the licensing standards of this Act and with any rules the licensing agency may adopt to regulate respite care services.

(f) The licensing agency may suspend the license of an institution that provides respite care that does not comply with the licensing standards of this Act.

The licensing agency may require an institution to cease providing respite care if the agency determines that the respite care does not meet the standards required by this Act and that the institution cannot comply with those standards in the respite care it provides. The licensing agency may suspend the license of an institution that continues to provide respite care after receiving an order in writing from the licensing agency that it is to cease.

(g) The licensing agency may adopt rules for the regulation of respite care provided by a licensed institution.

Inspections and Consultations

Sec. 9. The Licensing Agency shall make or cause to be made such inspections and investigations as it deems necessary. The Licensing Agency shall hold at least one open hearing a year in each licensed institution to hear any complaints of substandard care or licensing violations; provided, however, an institution that provides maternity care is exempt from this specific requirement. The Licensing Agency shall notify the institution, the designated closest living relatives or legal guardians of the institution's residents, and other appropriate State or Federal agencies that work with the institution of the time, place, and date of the hearing. The Licensing Agency may exclude an institution's administrators and personnel from the hearing. The Licensing Agency shall provide a summary of the complaints without identifying the source thereof to the licensed institution. The Licensing Agency shall determine and implement a mechanism to notify confidentially the complainant of the results of the investigation which followed the complaint. It is further provided that the Licensing Agency shall wherever possible utilize the services and consultation of other State and local agencies in carrying out its responsibility under the provisions of this Act and shall use wherever possible the facilities of the Texas Department of Human Resources especially in setting up and maintaining standards with reference to the humane treatment of the individuals in the institutions.

The Licensing Agency is hereby given the authority to cooperate with local public health officials of any county or incorporated city in carrying out the provisions of this Act and may in its discretion delegate to said local authorities the power to make the inspections and recommendations to the Licensing Agency in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Act.

Injunction; Temporary Restraining Order; Appointment of Trustee

Sec. 11. (a) When the Licensing Agency finds that a person's violations of the standards prescribed by this Act create an immediate threat to the health and safety of the residents of an institution, the Licensing Agency may petition the district court for a temporary restraining order to restrain the person from continuing the violations.

(b) When a person violates the licensing requirements or the standards prescribed by this Act, the Licensing Agency may petition the district court for an injunction to prohibit a person from continuing the violation or to restrain or prevent the establishment, conduct, management, or operation of an institution without a license under this Act. A suit for a temporary restraining order or other injunctive relief must be brought in the judicial district that includes the county of the alleged violation.

(e) On application for injunctive relief and a finding that a person is violating the licensing requirements or standards prescribed by this Act, the district court shall grant the injunctive relief the facts may warrant.

(d) At the request of the Licensing Agency, the attorney general shall institute and conduct the suits authorized in Subsections (a) and (b) of this section and Section 6C of this Act, in the name of the State of Texas, including the appointment of a trustee to operate a nursing or convalescent home under appropriate orders of the court.

(b) A person who violates this Act or who fails to comply with a rule or regulation authorized by this Act determined by the Licensing Agency to threaten the health and safety of the patient is subject to a civil penalty of not less than $500 for each act of violation, and each day of a continuing violation constitutes a separate ground of recovery.

The department shall provide administrative assistance to the board; and the department and the board shall coordinate administrative responsibilities in order to avoid unnecessary duplication and in furtherance of the objective of providing quality nursing home services. (6) conduct a continuing study and investigation of nursing homes and administrators of nursing homes within the State with a view to the improvement of the standards imposed for the licensing of such administrators and of procedures and methods for the enforcement of such standards with respect to administrators of nursing homes who have been licensed as such;

(7) conduct or cause to be conducted, one or more courses of instruction and training sufficient to meet the requirements of this Act, and make provisions for the conduct of such courses and their accessibility to residents of this State, unless it finds that there are a sufficient number of courses conducted by others within this State to meet the needs of the State. In lieu thereof the board may approve courses conducted within and without the State as sufficient to meet the education and training requirements of this Act; and

(8) on request, provide to each individual who fails an examination administered by the board an analysis of the individual's performance on the examination.

Posting of Complaint Information Sign

Rulemaking Authority

Sec. 8. (a) The Board shall have the authority to make rules and regulations not inconsistent with law as may be necessary or proper for the performance of its duties, and to take such other actions as may be necessary to enable the State to meet the requirements set forth in Section 1908 of the Social Security Act, the Federal rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and other pertinent Federal authority; provided, however, that no rule shall be promulgated, altered or abolished without the approval of a two-thirds majority of the Board.

(b) If the appropriate standing committees of both houses of the legislature acting under Section 5(g), Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252–13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), transmit to the Board statements opposing adoption of a rule under that section, the rule may not take effect or, if the rule has already taken effect, the rule is repealed effective on the date the Board receives the committees' statements.

Qualifications for Licensure

Sec. 9. The Board shall have authority to issue licenses to qualified persons as nursing home administrators, and shall establish qualification criteria for such nursing home administrators. No license shall be issued to a person as a nursing home administrator unless:

(5) that applicant has complied with all other qualifications and requirements as may have been established by rule and regulation of the board.

Licenses and Fees

Sec. 10.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 4 for text of 10(1)]

(2) Every holder of a nursing home administrator’s license shall renew it biennially, by making application to the board. The license remains valid and is subject to renewal for 30 days after the expiration date of the license. The board shall notify each person licensed under this Act of the expiration date of the person’s license and the amount of the fee that is required for its renewal. The notice shall be mailed at least 30 days before the expiration date of the license. A person renews an unexpired license or a license that has been expired for 30 days or less by paying to the board the renewal fee. A person renews a license that has been expired for more than 30 days but less than one year by paying to the board the renewal fee plus $50. A person may not renew a license that has been expired for one year or more, but the person may obtain a new license by applying for the license in the manner that a person applies for an original license. Renewals of licenses shall be granted as a matter of course, unless the board finds, after due notice and hearing, that the applicant has acted or failed to act in such a manner or under circumstances, as would constitute grounds for suspension or revocation of a license.

(3) Each person licensed as a nursing home administrator shall pay an initial license fee to be fixed by the board which shall not exceed $150. Renewal licenses shall be issued biennially at a fee to be set by the board which shall not exceed $150 for the biennium. Reasonable fees shall be set by the board for the issuance of copies of public records in its office as well as for certificates or transcripts and duplicates of lost instruments. Each applicant for examination and license shall accompany the application with an examination fee not to exceed $150 which shall not be refundable, for investigation, processing, and testing purposes. Upon the certification by any department, division, board or agency of the State of Texas of the necessity therefor, all examination fees and license fees provided for herein shall be waived for any employee of such state entity so long as such person remains an employee of the State of Texas and does not serve as a nursing home administrator of a nursing home operated other than by such state entity. The board shall set the fees in amounts that produce sufficient money for administering this Act.

(4) The board may issue a nursing home administrator’s license for the regular fee to any person who holds a current license as a nursing home administrator from another jurisdiction, provided that the board finds that the standards for licensure in such other jurisdiction are at least the substantial equivalent of those prevailing in this State; and that the applicant is otherwise qualified; and that the other state gives similar recognition and endorsement to nursing home administrators licenses of the State of Texas.

(5) The board shall have authority to receive and disburse funds received pursuant to Section 1908(e)(1) of the Social Security Act or from any other Federal source of funds or grants for the furtherance of board duties and responsibilities hereunder.

Disciplinary Action

Sec. 11. (1) The board shall be authorized to revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew, a nursing home administrator’s license after due notice and hearing upon the following grounds or any of them:

(a) upon proof that such licensee has willfully or repeatedly violated any of the provisions of this Act or the rules adopted in accordance therewith;
(b) upon proof that such licensee has willfully or repeatedly acted in a manner inconsistent with the health and safety of the patients of the home of which he is administrator;
(c) upon proof that the licensee was guilty of fraud in securing his license;
(d) upon proof of the intemperate use of alcohol or drugs which in the opinion of the board creates a hazard to patients;
(e) upon proof of a judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction finding the licensee insane;
(f) upon proof that such licensee has been convicted in a court of competent jurisdiction of a misdemeanor or a felony involving moral turpitude; and
(g) upon proof that the licensee has been grossly negligent in his duties as a nursing home administrator.

(2) The board shall have jurisdiction to hear all disciplinary charges brought under the provisions of this Act against persons licensed as nursing home administrators and upon such hearings shall determine such charges upon their merits. Proceedings under this Act shall be begun by filing with the board written charges under oath. Such charges may be preferred by any person and after notice in writing of not less than fifteen (15) full days, stating the place and date of the hearing, accompanied by a copy of the complaint or charges, the board, or a majority thereof, shall hold a hearing on said charges, cause a written record to be made of the evidence given at the hearing, accord the person charged a right to present evidence, be represented by an attorney, and to cross-examine the witnesses. In this connection the board shall be authorized to issue subpoenas for witnesses at the hearing, either at the request of the person cited or on behalf of the board or its representative; to compel the attendance of witnesses, and administer oaths to witnesses. Disobedience of a subpoena duly issued by the board or by its executive director under its direction, shall constitute a contempt of the board which shall be enforceable by any district court sitting in the county in which the hearing is being held upon petition of the board and the presentation to the court of evidence of wilful disobedience and if the district judge is of the opinion and finds that the subpoena was willfully disobeyed, such judge shall be authorized to punish a subpoenaed witness in like manner and to the extent provided in like cases in civil actions in the district courts of Texas.

(3) Strict rules of evidence shall not apply in a hearing before the board but all decisions of the board shall be supported by sufficient legal and competent evidence.

(4) The failure of the nursing home to comply with Texas State Department of Health requirements for licensure of nursing homes may be considered by the board in determining whether the licensee meets standards for licensure as a nursing home administrator.

(5) If a written complaint is filed with the board or the Texas Board of Health relating to a licensee under this Act, the board, at least as frequently as quarterly, shall notify the complainant of the status of the complaint until the complaint is finally resolved.

(6) The board must within 31 days from the date of filing of the complaint determine whether a hearing shall be held on such complaint or whether such complaint shall be dismissed and shall notify both the person who filed the complaint and the person against whom the complaint has been filed of the board's decision.

(7) If the board determines that a hearing should be held on a complaint, the board shall designate a hearing officer to conduct the hearing on the complaint. The hearing shall be held within 61 days from the date that the written complaint was filed unless such time is extended in writing by the board.

(8) The hearing officer shall keep a complete record of the hearing and shall transmit the record to the board when completed.

(9) The hearing officer shall forward to the board the complete record of the hearing not later than 30 days from the date of the hearing along with the hearing officer's recommendations concerning what disciplinary action, if any, should be taken by the board with respect to the complaint.

(10) The board shall take action on such complaint by written order not later than the 120th day following the filing of the complaint, unless the date for hearing was delayed pursuant to Subsection (7) of this section, in which case the deadline for the order is extended accordingly. Copies of the order and the record of the hearing shall be filed together in the office of the board, indexed, and made available for public inspection.

(11) The board shall maintain an information file on each complaint it receives.

Injunction

Sec. 11A. A person who violates Section 7 of this Act or who engages in conduct that is grounds for revocation or suspension of the person's license under Section 11 of this Act, on petition of the board, may be enjoined or restrained by a district court from practicing nursing home administration.
