B. The provisions of this Act limiting the amount of territory a city may annex in a calendar year do not apply to an annexation covered by this section. Territory may be annexed under this section without the consent of the owners or residents of the annexed area.

Annexation of Municipal Airport

Sec. 7b. (a) A city may annex an airport owned by the city and the right-of-way of any public roads or highways connecting the airport to the city by the most direct route, even though the annexed area is outside the city’s extraterritorial jurisdiction and within another city’s extraterritorial jurisdiction or is narrower than five hundred (500) feet, if:

(1) none of the annexed territory is more than eight (8) miles from the annexing city’s corporate limits; and

(2) the city within whose extraterritorial jurisdiction the airport to be annexed is located agrees to the annexation.

(b) The provisions of this Act limiting the amount of territory a city may annex in a calendar year do not apply to an annexation covered by this Section. Territory may be annexed under this Section without the consent of the owners or residents of the annexed area.

(c) The annexation of territory outside the extraterritorial jurisdiction of the annexing city under this Section does not expand the extraterritorial jurisdiction of the annexing city.
Limitations on Creation of Political Subdivisions Within the Extraterritorial Jurisdiction

Sec. 8. A. No city may be incorporated within the area of the extraterritorial jurisdiction of any city without the written consent of the governing body of such city. Should such governing body refuse to grant permission for the incorporation of such proposed city, a majority of the resident voters, if any, in the territory of such proposed city and the owners of fifty per cent (50%) or more of the land in such proposed city may petition the governing body of such city and request annexation by such city. Should the governing body of such city fail or refuse to annex the area of such proposed city within sixty (60) months after receipt of such petition, proof of such failure or refusal shall constitute authorization for the incorporation of such proposed city insofar as the purposes of this Subsection are concerned. Written consent or authorization for the incorporation of a proposed city, insofar as the provisions of this Subsection are concerned, shall mean only authorization to initiate incorporation proceedings for such proposed city as otherwise provided by law. The provisions of this Subsection shall apply only to the area of a proposed city which lies within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of such city.

B. No political subdivision having as one of its purposes the supplying of fresh water for domestic or commercial uses or the furnishing of sanitary sewer services may be created within the area of the extraterritorial jurisdiction of any city without the written consent of such city. Should the governing body of such city fail or refuse to grant permission for the creation of such proposed political subdivision within sixty (60) days after receipt of a written request for same, a majority of the qualified resident voters in the territory of such proposed political subdivision and the owner or owners of fifty per cent (50%) or more of the land in such proposed political subdivision may petition the governing body of such city and request such city to make available to such territory the water or sanitary sewer service contemplated by the proposed political subdivision. Should the governing body of the city and a majority of the qualified resident voters and the owner or owners of fifty per cent (50%) or more of the land in such proposed political subdivision fail to execute a mutually agreeable contract providing for the water or sanitary sewer service requested within six (6) months after receipt of such petition, such failure shall constitute authorization for the creation of the proposed political subdivision insofar as the provisions of this Subsection are concerned. Authorization for the creation of the proposed political subdivision, insofar as the provisions of this Subsection are concerned, shall mean only authorization to initiate proceedings to create such political subdivision as otherwise provided by law. The provisions of this Subsection shall apply only to the area of such proposed political subdivision which lies within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of such city.

This Subsection shall not apply to any such proposed political subdivision where a valid petition seeking its creation has been filed with the county clerk or other legally designated authority prior to the effective date of this Act.

C. If authorization to initiate incorporation proceedings for a proposed city is obtained under the provisions of Subsection A of this Section, such incorporation must be initiated within six (6) months of the date of such authorization and such incorporation must be finally completed within eighteen (18) months of the date of such authorization. Failure either to initiate such incorporation proceedings or to finally complete the incorporation of such proposed city within such allotted periods of time shall terminate such authorization. If authorization to initiate proceedings to create a proposed political subdivision having as one of its purposes the supplying of fresh water for domestic or commercial purposes or the furnishing of sanitary sewer services is obtained under the provisions of Subsection B of this Section, such proceedings seeking the creation of such a political subdivision must be initiated within six (6) months of the date of such authorization and such proposed political subdivision must be finally completed within eighteen (18) months of the date of such authorization. Failure either to initiate such proceedings seeking the creation of such political subdivision or to finally complete the creation of such proposed political subdivision within such allotted periods of time shall terminate such authorization.

Petition for Annexation or Services

Sec. 9. The petition for annexation provided for in Subsection A of Section 8 of this Article and the petition requesting the availability of services provided for in Subsection B of Section 8 of this Article shall be made by the voters and landowners signing and presenting to the city secretary or clerk a written petition requesting annexation or requesting such services. The signatures to the petition need not be appended to one paper, but each signer shall sign his or her name as it appears on the most recent official list of registered voters and each voter shall note on such petition his or her residence address and the precinct number and voter registration number that appear on his or her voter registration certificate. Each landowner signing the petition shall sign his or her name in ink or indelible pencil, and each signer signing the petition as a voter shall sign his or her name as it appears on the most recent official list of registered voters and each voter shall note on such petition his or her residence address and the precinct number and voter registration number that appear on his or her voter registration certificate. Each landowner signing the petition shall note thereon opposite his or her name the approximate total acreage he or she owns within the territory. The petition shall describe the territory to be annexed or the territory to which such services are requested to be made available and have attached to it a plat of the territory. Prior to circulating the petition for annexation or such services among the voters and landowners, notice of the petition shall be given by means of posting for Disannexation

Sec. 10. A. Prior to the publication of notice of a hearing required under Section 6 of this Act, the governing body of the city proposing the annexation shall direct its planning or other appropriate department to prepare a service plan that provides for the extension of municipal services into each area to be annexed. For purposes of this Section, providing services includes having services provided by any method or means by which the city extends municipal services to any other area of the city.

B. The service plan shall include:

(1) a program under which the city will provide police protection, fire protection, solid waste collection, maintenance of water and waste water facilities, maintenance of roads and streets (including lighting), the maintenance of parks, playgrounds, and swimming pools, and the maintenance of any other publicly owned facility, building, or service within each particular area within sixty (60) days after the effective date of the annexation of that particular area; and

(2) a program under which the city will initiate the acquisition or construction of any capital improvements necessary for providing municipal services for the particular area, the construction to begin within two and one-half (2½) years of the effective date of the annexation of the particular annexed area, and the acquisition or construction of the facilities to be accomplished by purchase, lease, or other contract or by the city’s succeeding to the powers, duties, assets, and obligations of conservation and reclamation districts, as may be authorized or required by law. No moneys received from the sale of bonds or evidenced by other instruments of indebtedness may be allocated to the annexed area for a period of one hundred and eighty (180) days.

C. In no event shall a service plan provide fewer services or a lower level of services in the area to be annexed than was in existence in that area at the time immediately preceding the annexation. However, it is not the intent of this Act to require that a uniform level of services be provided to all areas of the city where differing characteristics of topography, land utilization, and population density are considered as a sufficient basis for providing differing service levels. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to limit or repeal home-rule charter provisions for annexation for limited purposes other than ad valorem taxation.

D. In the event that only a part of the area to be annexed is actually annexed, the governing body shall direct its planning or other appropriate department to prepare a revised service plan for the part actually to be annexed.

E. The proposed service plan shall be made available for inspection and explained to the inhabitants of the area to be annexed at the public hearings held under Section 6 of this Act. The plan may be amended through negotiation at those hearings but cannot have provision of any service deleted from it. On the completion of the public hearings, the service plan shall be attached to the ordinance annexing the area and approved as part of that ordinance. On approval by the governing body of the annexing city, the plan shall be construed as a contractual obligation, not subject to amendment or repeal unless the governing body determines at the hearings required by this subsection that changed conditions or subsequent occurrences make the plan unworkable or obsolete. If the governing body determines that all or part of a plan is unworkable or obsolete, the governing body may amend the plan to conform to changed conditions or subsequent occurrences. An amended service plan shall provide for services comparable to or better than those established in the service plan before amendment, and before any amendment is adopted, the governing body must first provide an opportunity for all interested persons to be heard at public hearings called and held in the manner provided in Section 6 of this Act. Service plans shall be valid for ten (10) years. Renewal shall be at the discretion of the city.

F. From and after the effective date of this Act, any city annexing a particular area shall provide or cause to be provided such area with services in accordance with the service plan required under this Section. In the event a city fails or refuses to provide or cause to be provided such services within the time specified in the service plan for that area or in this Act, a majority of the qualified voters residing within such particular annexed area may petition the governing body of such city to disannex such particular annexed area. Should the governing body of such city fail or refuse to disannex such particular annexed area within sixty (60) days after receipt of a valid petition, any one or more of the signers of such petition may file in a district court in the county in which such annexed area is principally located an action requesting that the particular annexed area be disannexed. Upon the filing of an answer in such cause by the governing body of the annexing city, and upon application of either party, the case shall be advanced and heard without further delay, all in accordance with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. Upon hearing of the case, if the district court finds that a valid petition was filed with the city, and that the city failed to perform its obligations in accordance with a service plan or failed to perform in good faith, it shall enter an order disannexing such particular annexed area.

G. When any such area is disannexed under this Section, it shall not again be annexed within five (5) years of such disannexation, and, if it is again annexed within seven (7) years of disannexation, the period for implementation of a service plan shall not exceed one (1) year from reannexation.

H. The request and petition for disannexation provided for in Subsection F of this Section shall be made by the qualified voters signing and presenting to the city secretary a written petition requesting disannexation. The signatures to the petition need not be appended to one paper, but each signer shall sign his or her name in ink or indelible pencil, and each signer signing the petition as a qualified voter shall sign his or her name as it appears on the most recent official list of registered voters, and each qualified voter shall note on such petition his or her residence address and the precinct number and voter registration number that appear on his or her voter registration certificate. Each landowner signing the petition shall note thereon opposite his or her name the approximate total acreage he or she owns within the particular annexed area. The petition shall describe the particular annexed area to be disannexed and have attached to it a plat of the particular annexed area. Prior to circulating the petition for disannexation among the qualified voters and landowners, notice of the petition shall be given by means of posting for ten (10) days a copy of the petition in three (3) public places in the particular annexed area and by publishing it for one (1) issue in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation serving the particular annexed area at least fifteen (15) days prior to the circulation of the petition. Proof of posting and publication of the notice shall be made by attaching to the petition presented to the city secretary: (1) the sworn affidavit of any qualified voter who signed the petition stating the places where and the dates when the petition was posted, and (2) the sworn affidavit of the publisher of the newspaper or newspapers setting forth the name of the newspaper or newspapers and the issue and date in which the notice was published. In addition, there shall be attached to the petition the sworn affidavit of three (3) or more qualified voters signing the petition, if there be that many, stating the total number of qualified voters residing in the particular annexed area and the approximate total acreage within such particular annexed area.

Annexation of Certain Political Subdivisions

Sec. 11. A. In this Section, "water or sewer district" means any district or authority created by authority of either Article III, Section 32, Subsection (b), Subdivisions (1) and (2), or Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution, proposing to provide or actually providing water and sewer services or either of these services to household users as the principal function of the district, but does not include a district or authority if its primary function is the wholesale distribution of water.

B. A city may not annex territory within the boundaries of a water or sewer district unless it annexes the entire portion of the district that is outside the city's boundaries. This restriction does not apply to the annexation of territory in a water or sewer district if the water or sewer district is wholly or partly inside the extraterritorial jurisdiction of more than one city.

C. An annexation subject to Subsection B of this Section is exempt from the provisions of this Act limiting annexation authority to territory within a city's extraterritorial jurisdiction if:

(1) immediately before the annexation, at least half the area of the water or sewer district is inside...
D. Territory annexed in an annexation subject to Subsection B of this Section is included in computing the amount of territory the city may annex in a calendar year under Subsections B and C, Section 7 of this Act. If the area to be annexed exceeds the amount of territory the city otherwise would be permitted to annex, the city may nevertheless make the annexation, but it may make no other annexations in the remainder of the calendar year except annexations subject to Subsection B of this Section and annexations of territory that are excluded in the computation of territory a city may annex in a calendar year under Subsection B, Section 7 of this Act.

Annexation of Municipal Utility District

Sec. 12. (a) This section applies to any municipal utility district:

(1) that is located entirely within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of a single general-law city; and

(2) that has a common boundary with at least one home-rule city.

(b) A home-rule city having a common boundary with a district covered by this section may annex the territory of the district if:

(1) the annexation is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question at an election held under this section;

(2) the annexation is completed before the first anniversary of the date of the election; and

(3) all the territory of the district is annexed.

(c) Territory annexed in an annexation subject to this section is included in computing the amount of territory the city may annex in a calendar year under Subsections B and C, Section 7 of this Act. If the area to be annexed exceeds the amount of territory the city otherwise would be permitted to annex, the city may nevertheless make the annexation, but it may make no other annexations in the remainder of the calendar year except annexations subject to this section and annexations of territory that are excluded in the computation of territory a city may annex in a calendar year under Subsection B, Section 7 of this Act.

(d) Annexation of the territory of the district as authorized by this section is exempt from provisions of this Act:

(1) prohibiting a city from annexing territory outside its extraterritorial jurisdiction;

(2) prohibiting annexation of territory narrower than 500 feet at the narrowest point; and

(3) prohibiting reduction of the extraterritorial jurisdiction of a city without the written consent of the city’s governing body.

(e) If the district is composed of two or more tracts, at least one of which is not contiguous to the home-rule city, the fact that the annexation will result in one or more parts of the home-rule city not being contiguous to the rest of the city does not affect the home-rule city’s authority to carry out the annexation.

(f) The extraterritorial jurisdiction of a home-rule city is not expanded by the annexation of territory under this section.

(g) The board of directors of the district may order an election under this section. The board shall conduct the election in the territory comprised of the district and the general-law city, and any person qualified to vote in the city or district is eligible to vote at the election.

(h) The board shall set the date of the election for the first authorized uniform election date that falls on or after the 30th day after the date of the order. If a state law prescribing uniform election dates is not then in effect, the board shall set the election for a date that falls on or after the 30th, but before the 60th, day after the date of the order.

(i) The board of directors shall give notice of the election, conduct the election, and canvass the returns in the same manner as would be the case in an election for members of the board of directors of the district if the district included the entire territory in which the election is held. The board of directors shall establish the election precincts and designate the polling place for each precinct. Territory inside the city and territory in the district but outside the city may be included in the same precinct. The board of directors shall appoint an absentee voting clerk to serve the entire territory covered by the election. The place for conducting the absentee voting may be anywhere in the territory covered by the election.

(j) The ballot shall be prepared to permit voting for or against the proposition: “Authorizing the city of (name of home-rule city) to annex the unincorporated territory of the (name of district).”

(k) Promptly after the board of directors declares the result of the election, it shall:

(1) have a certified copy of the resolution declaring the result of the election mailed or delivered to the mayor and city secretary of each of the two affected cities; and

(2) if the election results in authorizing annexation of the district by the home-rule city, have a certified copy of the resolution filed in the deed records of each county in which the district is located.

(l) During the time that an election under this section is pending, the general-law city may not annex territory in the district. For purposes of this requirement, an election is pending during the period that begins on the date on which the board of directors of the district adopts an election order and that ends on the date on which the board of directors declares the result of the election. If on the date on which the election order is adopted the general-law city has instituted but not completed proceedings to annex territory in the district, the general-law city may complete the annexation proceedings while the election is pending. If proceedings are completed while the election is pending, the annexation, to the extent it includes territory in the district, takes effect only if the election results in the defeat of the proposition, in which case it takes effect as to the affected territory on the date on which the result of the election is officially declared.
Art. 970a CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

(m) If the proposition is approved, the period during which the general-law city is prohibited from annexing territory in the district is extended to end on the first anniversary of the date of the election.

(n) If a district holds an election under this section, the district may not hold another election under this section on a date earlier than the first anniversary of the date of the first election, except that if an election is held on a uniform election date prescribed by law, a second election may be held on the corresponding uniform election date of the following year.

Art. 971 Territorial Boundaries

No city or town in this State shall be hereafter incorporated under the provisions of the general charter for cities and towns contained in this title with a superficial area of more than two square miles, when such town or city has less than two thousand inhabitants, nor more than four square miles when such city or town has more than two thousand and less than five thousand inhabitants, nor more than nine square miles, when such city or town has more than five thousand and less than ten thousand inhabitants.

Art. 970b. Areas Treated as Being Within Boundaries of Municipality; Inclusion by Ordinance

Sec. 1. In this Act, "municipality" shall mean any incorporated city, town, or village.

Sec. 2. (a) When an area situated in proximity to a municipality meets all of the criteria set out in Section 3 of this Act, the adoption of an ordinance by the governing body of said municipality declaring the area to be a part of the municipality shall establish an irrebuttable presumption that such area is a part of the municipality for all purposes and such presumption shall be incontestable for any cause from and after the effective date of the ordinance.

Sec. 3. The governing body of a municipality by ordinance may make an area a part of the municipality if on the date of the adoption of the ordinance:

(1) the records of the city indicate that the area has been a part of the municipality for at least the preceding 20 years;

(2) the municipality has provided police protection and other services, and otherwise treated the area as a part of the municipality during the preceding 20 years;

(3) no final judicial determination has been made during the preceding 20 years that the area is outside the boundaries of the municipality; and

(4) no lawsuit is pending that challenges the inclusion of the area as a part of the municipality.

Sec. 4. If an area is made a part of a municipality under this Act, the date on which the area is considered to have become a part of the municipality is the date upon which the area began its continuous treatment of the area as a part of the municipality. This date is used for all purposes for which the date upon which the area became a part of the municipality is relevant, including but not limited to a determination of whether territory purportedly annexed by a municipality was adjacent to the municipality at the time of the purported annexation.

be corrected immediately so as to add thereto the additional territory, indicating on the map the date of annexation, the number of the ordinance, if any, and a reference to the minutes or the ordinance records of the city where such instrument is recorded in full.

Art. 972. Territory Relinquished

The mayor and the board of aldermen of any town or city in this State heretofore incorporated under Title 18 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1895 of this State, and whose boundaries have been established so as to include more territory than is specified in the preceding article, shall immediately cause a resurvey of the boundaries of such city or town to be made, so as not to include more territory than is provided for in the preceding article; such resurvey to be made and the field notes thereof to be recorded as provided in said article.

Art. 973. Discontinuing Territory

Whenever there exists within the corporate limits of any city or town organized under the general laws within this State Territory to the extent of at least ten (10) acres, contiguous and adjoining the lines of any such city or town, which is unincorporated or on which there are fewer than one (1) occupied residence or business structure for every two (2) acres of such territory and fewer than three (3) occupied residences or business structures on any one (1) acre of such territory, the mayor and city or town council may by ordinance duly passed discontinue said territory as a part of said city or town; and when said ordinance has been duly passed, the mayor shall enter an order to that effect on the minutes or records of the city or town council; and from and after the entry of such order said territory shall cease to be a part of said city or town.

Art. 973a. Validation of Discontinuance of Territory, Boundaries and Annexation of Discontinued Territory; Cities of 2,000 or Less

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to all cities and towns incorporated under the General Laws of this state having a population of two thousand (2,000) inhabitants or less at the time of the passage of any ordinance by the City Council of any such city or town discontinuing or attempting to discontinue any territory as a part of said city or town, and to any incorporated city or town contiguous thereto.

Sec. 2. All petitions praying for an ordinance and all ordinances discontinuing or attempting to discontinue any territory from within the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town having a population of two thousand (2,000) inhabitants or less at the time of the discontinuance or attempted discontinuance of any territory forming a part of said city or town, and the boundaries and areas of any such city or town after the discontinuance or attempted discontinuance of any territory forming a part of said city or town, although said city or town, as a result of said discontinuance or attempted discontinuance consists of two or more separate areas, after the discontinuance or attempted discontinuance of any such territory, shall be, and the same are, hereby in all things validated and confirmed, and all cities and towns, having a population of two thousand (2,000) or less at the time of incorporation, whose charters and incorporations may be void by reason of having included in such limits more territory than authorized by Article 971, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, are hereby declared to be valid, the same as if at first authorized.

Sec. 3. In every instance wherein a city or town, coming under the provisions of the Act, has attempted to discontinue territory as a part of said city or town under statutes providing for the discontinuing of territory adjoining the boundary lines of any such city or town, and all actions, resolutions, petitions, ordinances, proceedings, and contracts held, made, or passed in reference thereto, or pursuant thereto, and the boundaries of any such city or town and all cities and towns coming within and under the provisions of this Act after the discontinuance or attempted discontinuance of any such territory, are hereby ratified, validated, and confirmed, although said city, after the discontinuance or attempted discontinuance of such territory as a part of said city, is separated into two or more parcels or areas, as fully and completely as if said actions had been taken and happened under legislative authority previously given.

Sec. 4. The areas and boundaries of all cities and towns affected by this Act as the same have been reduced or attempted to be reduced by discontinuance or attempted discontinuance of territory, or any other action, are hereby in all things ratified, validated and confirmed.

Sec. 5. The Act of the governing body of any contiguous, incorporated city in subsequently annexing the territory thus discontinued, or attempted to be discontinued, is hereby in all things validated, ratified and confirmed.

Sec. 5a. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this Act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this Act and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, and phrase thereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, or phrases be declared unconstitutional or invalid for any reason.

Art. 973b. Validation of Disannexation or Discontinuance of Territory; Cities of 5,000 or Less

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to all cities and towns incorporated under the General Laws of this state having a population of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less at the time of the passage of any ordinance by the city council, aldermen or other governing officials of any such city or town, whether incorporated under the aldermanic form of government or the commission form of government, disannexing or discontinuing or attempting to disannex or discontinue any territory, revoking previous ordinances or previous attempts to annex territory, or discontinuing or attempting to discontinue any territory as a part of any such city or town.

Sec. 2. Ordinances wherein or whereby a city or town coming under the provisions of this Act has attempted to revoke or cancel an ordinance previously adopted annexing territory as a part of said city or town, or to discontinue territory as a part of said city or town, and all actions, resolutions, petitions, ordinances, proceedings, contracts, held, made, or passed in reference thereto, or pursuant thereto and the boundaries of any such city or town coming within the provisions of this Act after the discontinuance or attempted discontinuance of any such territory are hereby ratified, validated and confirmed, although said city or town after the discontinuance or attempted discontinuance thereof of said city or town is separated into two or more parcels or areas, as full and completely as if said actions had been taken and happened under legislative authority previously given.

Sec. 3. Areas and boundaries of all such cities and towns affected by this Act as the same have been reduced or attempted to be reduced by discontinuance or attempted discontinuance of territory or any other action, are hereby in all things ratified, validated and confirmed.

Sec. 4. All ordinances, resolutions and other municipal and governmental proceedings adopted by or performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof disannexing, discontinuing or attempting to disannex or discontinue any such territory are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such ordinances, resolutions, proceedings and acts.

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of any disannexation, attempted disannexation, or attempted discontinuance of any territory as a part of such city or town.

Art. 974. Adjoining Inhabitants

When a majority of the inhabitants qualified to vote for members of the State legislature of any territory adjoining the limits of any city incorporated under, or accepting the provisions of, this title, to the extent of one-half mile in width, shall vote in favor of becoming a part of said city, any three of them may make affidavit to the fact to be filed before the mayor, who shall certify the same to the city council of said city. The said city council may, by ordinance, receive them as part of said city; from thenceforth the territory so received shall be a part of said city; and the inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens, and bound by the acts and ordinances made in conformity thereto and passed in pursuance of this title.

Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 974a. Platting and Recording Subdivisions or Additions

Plats Required

Sec. 1. Hereafter every owner of any tract of land situated within the corporate limits, or within five miles of the corporate limits of any city in the State of Texas, who may hereafter divide the same into two or more parts for the purpose of laying out any subdivision of any tract of land or any addition to any town or city, or for laying out suburban lots or building lots, or any lots, and streets, alleys or parks or other portions intended for public use, or the use of purchasers or owners of lots fronting thereon or adjacent thereto, shall cause a plat to be made thereof which shall accurately describe all of said subdivision or addition by metes and bounds and locate the same with respect to an original corner of the original survey of which it is a part, giving the dimensions thereof of said subdivision or addition, and dimensions of all streets, alleys, squares, parks or other portions of same intended to be dedicated to public use, or for the use of purchasers or owners of lots fronting thereon or adjacent thereto; provided, however, that no plat of any subdivision of any tract of land or any addition to any town or city shall be recorded unless the same shall accurately describe all of said subdivision or addition by metes and bounds and locate the same with respect to an original corner of the original survey of which it is a part giving the dimensions thereof of said subdivision or addition, and dimensions of all streets, alleys, squares, parks or other portions of same intended to be dedicated to public use, or for the use of purchasers or owners of lots fronting thereon or adjacent thereto.

Inapplicability to Certain Tracts Abutting Aircraft Runway

Sec. 1A. The requirement of this Act that a plat be made and recorded does not apply to an owner of a tract of land that is located entirely within an incorporated city or town having a population of 5,000 or fewer persons, according to the most recent federal census, that is divided into parts, all of which are larger than 2½ acres, and that abuts or otherwise attaches to any part of an aircraft runway.
CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Art. 974a

Acknowledgment of Plats

Sec. 2. That every such plat shall be duly acknowledged by owners or proprietors of the land, or by some duly authorized agent of said owners or proprietors, in the manner required for the acknowledgment of deeds; and the said plat, subject to the provisions contained in this Act, shall be filed for record and be recorded in the office of the County Clerk of the County in which the land lies.

Approval of Plat or Plan by Planning Commission or Governing Body; Record

Sec. 3. It shall be unlawful for the County Clerk of any county in which such land lies to receive or record any such plan, plat or replat, unless and until the same shall have been approved by the City Planning Commission of any city affected by this Act, if said city has a City Planning Commission and if it has no City Planning Commission, unless and until the said plan, plat, or replat shall have been approved by the governing body of such city. If a city has a City Planning Commission, the governing body may, by ordinance, additionally require approval of said plan, plat, or replat by the governing body. If such land lies outside of and within five (5) miles of more than one (1) city affected by this Act, then the requisite approval shall be by the City Planning Commission or governing body, or both, as the case may be, of such of said cities having the largest population; provided, however, that the governing body of any city having the largest population may enter into an agreement with any other city or cities affected, or the governing body of the largest city may enter into an agreement with any other city within five (5) miles conferring the power of approval within stated portions of the area upon such other city; but any such agreement shall be revocable by either city at the end of twenty (20) years after the date of the agreement or at the end of such shorter period of time as may be agreed upon. A copy of any such agreement shall be filed with the County Clerk, and during the time the agreement continues in force he shall not receive or record any such plan, plat or replat unless it has been approved by the City Planning Commission or the governing body, or both, as the case may be, of the city or cities upon which the power of approval is conferred by the agreement. Any person desiring to have a plan, plat or replat approved as herein provided, shall apply therefor to and file a copy with the Commission, if there be one, or with the governing body if there is no Commission. The Commission, or governing body, as the case may be, shall act upon same within thirty (30) days from the filing date. If said plat be not disapproved within thirty (30) days from said filing date, it shall be deemed to have been approved by the Commission, or the governing body if there is no Commission. If a city with a Commission has required that approval be given by the governing body, then the governing body shall act upon the same within thirty (30) days after the approval by the Commission, or after the approval by reason of nonaction. If said plat be not disapproved by the governing body within said thirty (30) days, it shall be deemed to have been approved by the governing body. A certificate showing the filing dates hereunder and the failure to take actions thereon within the periods herein prescribed shall on demand be issued by the City Planning Commission or governing body, as the case may be, of such city, and said certificate shall be sufficient in lieu of the written endorsement or other evidence of approval herein required. If the plan, plat, or replat is approved, such Commission or governing body shall indicate such finding by certificate endorsed thereon, signed by the Chairman or presiding officer of said Commission or governing body and attested by its Secretary, or signed by a majority of the members of said Commission or of the Governing Body when appropriate under this Act. Such Commission or governing body shall keep a record of such applications and the action taken thereupon, and upon demand of the owners of any land affected, shall certify its reasons for the action taken in the matter.

Indorsement of Approval of Plat by Planning Commission or Governing Body

Sec. 4. If such plan or plat, or replat shall conform to the general plan of said city and its streets, alleys, parks, playgrounds and public utility facilities, including those which have been or may be laid out, and to the general plan for the extension of such city and of its roads, streets and public highways within said city and within five miles of the corporate limits thereof, regarding being had for access to and extension of sewer and water mains and the instrumentalities of public utilities, and if same shall conform to such general rules and regulations, if any, governing plats and subdivisions of land falling within its jurisdiction and the governing body of such city may adopt and promulgate to promote the health, safety, morals or general welfare of the community, and the safe, orderly and healthful development of said community (which general rules and regulations for said purposes such cities are hereby authorized to adopt and promulgate after public hearing hold thereon), then it shall be the duty of said City Planning Commission or of the governing body of such city, as the case may be, to endorse approval upon the plan, plat or replat submitted to it.

Vacation of Plat or Plan; Recording Replat or Resubdivision Without Vacation

Sec. 5. (a) Any such plan, plat or replat may be vacated by the proprietors of the land covered thereby at any time before the sale of any lot therein by a written instrument declaring the same to be vacated, duly executed, acknowledged and recorded in the same office as the plat to be vacated, provided the approval of the City Planning Commission or governing body of such city, as the case may be, shall have been obtained as above provided, and the execution and recordation of the instrument shall operate to destroy the force and effect of the recording of the plan, plat or replat so vacated. In cases where lots have been sold, the plan, plat or replat, or any part thereof, may be vacated upon the application of all the owners of lots in said plat and with the approval, as above provided, of the City Planning Commission or governing body of said city, as the case may be. The County Clerk of the county in whose office the plan or plat thus vacated has been recorded shall write in plain, legible letters across the plat or plat so vacated the word “Vacated,” and also make a reference on the same to the volume and page in which said instrument of vacated property is recorded.

(b) In the event there is not compliance with Subsection (a) of this section, a replat or resubdivision of a plat, or a portion thereof, without vacating the immediate previous plat, is hereby expressly authorized to be recorded and shall be deemed valid and controlling, when approved, after a public hearing, by the City Planning Commission or other appropriate governing body, as the case may be, when:

(1) it has been signed and acknowledged by only the owners of the particular property which is being resubdivided or replatted;

(2) it has been approved by the City Planning Commission or other appropriate governing body, as the case may be, after a public hearing in relation thereto at which parties in interest and citizens shall have an opportunity to be heard;

(3) it does not attempt to alter, amend or remove any covenants or restrictions; and

(4) there is compliance, when applicable, with Subsections (c) and (d) of this section.

(c) The following additional requirements for approval shall apply, in any resubdivision or replatting of a subdivision, without vacating the immediate previous plat, if any of the proposed area to be resubdivided or replatted was within the immediate preceding five years limited by any interim or permanent zoning classification to residential use for not more than two residential units per lot, or if any lot in the immediate previous subdivision was limited by deed restriction to residential use for not more than two residential units per lot:

(1) Notice of such City Planning Commission or other appropriate governing body hearing shall be given in advance in the following manner:

(A) publication at least 15 days in advance of hearing being published in an official paper or a paper of general circulation in the county in which such governing body is located; and

(B) written notice (with a copy of Subdivision (2) of this subsection attached thereto) of such public hearing forwarded by the City Planning Commission or other appropriate governing body to owners (as the ownership appears on the last approved ad valorem tax roll of such governing body) of all lots in the immediate preceding subdivision plat not less than 15 days prior to the date of such hearing; such notice may be served by depositing the same, properly addressed and postage paid, in a post office or postal depository within the boundaries of such governing body; provided, however, if such immediate preceding subdivision plat shall contain more than 100 lots, such notice shall be mailed only to those owners of lots which are located within 500 feet of the lot or lots which are sought to be replatted or resubdivided.

(2) The City Planning Commission or other appropriate governing body shall require in any resubdivision or replatting to which this subsection applies written approval of 66% percent of:

(A) the owners of all lots in such plat; or

(B) the owners of all lots in such plat within 500 feet of the property sought to be replatted or resubdivided if such immediate preceding plat contains more than 100 lots.

The provisions of Subdivision (2) of this subsection shall, however, apply only if 20 percent, or more, of the owners, to whom notice is required to be given, of the lots in such plat a portion of which is sought to be replatted or resubdivided file with the City Planning Commission or other appropriate governing body written protest of such replatting or resubdivision prior to or at the hearing referred to in the notice of the proposed replatting or resubdivision. In computing percentages of ownership, each lot in such subdivision shall be considered equal to all other lots regardless of size or number of owners, and the owners of each lot shall be entitled to cast only one vote per lot.

(3) Provided, however, compliance with Subdivision (1) or (2) of this subsection shall not be required for approval of a replating or resubdividing of a portion of a prior plat if all of the proposed area sought to be replatted or resubdivided was designated or reserved for usage other than for single or duplex family residential usage by notation on the last legally recorded plat or in the legally recorded restrictions applicable to such plat.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the City Planning Commission or other appropriate governing body of a city is authorized to approve and issue an amending plat which is signed by the applicants only, and which is for one or more of the purposes set forth in the following Subdivisions (1) through (9), both inclusive, and such approval and issuance shall not require notice, hearing, or approval of other lot owners. This subsection shall apply only if the sole purpose of the amending plat is:

(1) to correct an error in any course or distance shown on the prior plat;

(2) to add any course or distance that was omitted on the prior plat;

(3) to correct an error in the description of the real property shown on the prior plat;
(4) to indicate monuments set after death, disability, or retirement from practice of the engineer or surveyor charged with responsibilities for setting monuments;

(5) to show the proper location or character of any monument which has been changed in location or character or which originally was shown at the wrong location or incorrectly as to its character on the prior plat;

(6) to correct any other type of scrivener or clerical error or omission as previously approved by the City Planning Commission or governing body of such city; such errors and omissions may include, but are not limited to, lot numbers, acreage, street names, and identification of adjacent recorded plats;

(7) to correct an error in courses and distances of lot lines between two adjacent lots where both lot owners join in the application for plat amendment. If and neither lot is abolished, provided that such amendment does not attempt to remove recorded covenants or restrictions and does not have a material adverse effect on the property rights of the other owners in the plat;

(8) to relocate a lot line in order to cure an inadvertent encroachment of a building or improvement on a lot line or on an easement; or

(9) to relocate one or more lot lines between one or more adjacent lots where the owner or owners of all such lots join in the application for the plat amendment, provided that such amendment does not:

(A) attempt to remove recorded covenants or restrictions; or

(B) increase the number of lots.

Improvement to Effect Dedication

Sec. 6. The approval of any such plan, plat, or replat shall not be deemed an acceptance of the proposed dedication and shall not impose any duty upon such city concerning the maintenance or improvement of any such dedicated parts until the proper authorities of said city shall have made actual appropriation of the same by entry, use or improvement.

County Clerk's Failure of Duty

Sec. 7. When any such map, plat, or replat is tendered for filing in the office of the County Clerk of any county in which any city of the above class may be situated, it shall be the duty of such Clerk to ascertain that the proposed plan, plat or replat is or is not subject to the provisions of this Act, and if it is subject to its provisions, then to examine said map, plat or replat to ascertain whether the endorsements required by this Act appear thereon. If such endorsements do appear thereon, he shall accept same for registration. If such endorsements do not appear thereon, he shall refuse to accept same for registration. When same does not disclose whether the land covered by said map, plat or replat, or any part thereof, is or is not within five miles of the corporate limits of a city of the class above mentioned, the County Clerk may require one offering said map, plat or replat for registration to file with him an affidavit setting forth such information. The filing or recording of any plan, plat or replat contrary to the provisions of this Act shall constitute a misdemeanor punishable by fine of not less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), and both the County Clerk and any Deputy Filing or recording the same shall be guilty.

Approval Prior to Connection of Public Utilities

Sec. 8. Unless and until any such plan, plat or replat shall have been first approved in the manner and by the authorities provided for in this Act, it shall be unlawful within the area covered by said plan, plat or replat for any city affected by this Act, or any officials of such city, to serve or to change any land, or any part thereof, for the use of the owners or purchasers of said land, or any part thereof, with any public utilities such as water, sewers, light, gas, etc., which may be owned, controlled or distributed by such city.

Disapproval

Sec. 9. If any such plan, plat or replat is disapproved by the City Planning Commission or governing body of such city, as the case may be, such disapproval shall be deemed a refusal by the city of the offered dedication shown thereon.

Adoption in Cities of Less Than 25,000

Saved From Repeal

Acts 1963, 59th Leg., p. 447, ch. 160, enacting the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 970a) provides in Article III of the Act that it shall not repeal Acts 1927, 40th Leg., ch. 291, as amended (this article), unless expressly inconsistent with the Act and then only to the extent of such inconsistency.

Sections 3 to 5 of the 1981 amendatory act provide:

"Sec. 3. This Act shall be applicable to all subdivision plats (or replats) recorded on, after, or prior to the effective date of this Act.

"Sec. 4. All subdivisions, resubdivisions, plats, plans, or replats hereafter approved by the City Planning Commission or other governing body of any city in the State of Texas and which said plat, plan, or replat is filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the real property included within such subdivision, resubdivision, plat, plan, or replat is located, on the effective date of this Act are in all respects validated as of the date of the original filling of the plat, plan, or replat provided, however this validation shall in no manner, term, or respect invalidate, alter, impair, or affect any restrictive covenants which would have otherwise been applicable to any subdivision or any portion thereof.

"Sec. 5. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 974a-1. Enforcement of Land Use Restrictions Contained in Plats; Certain Cities, Towns and Villages

Application

Sec. 1. This Act applies to incorporated cities, towns, or villages if the incorporated city, town, or village does not have zoning ordinances and provided the city, town, or village passes an ordinance that requires uniform application and enforcement of this statute to all property and citizens.

May Sue to Enforce Restrictions

Sec. 2. (a) An incorporated city, town, or village may sue in any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin or abate violation of a restriction contained in a duly recorded plan, plat, replat, or other instrument affecting a subdivision inside its boundaries.

(b) As used in this Act, "restriction" means a limitation which affects the use to which real property may be put, fixes the distance buildings or structures must be set back from property lines, street lines, or lot lines, or affects the size of a lot or the size, type, and number of buildings or structures which may be built on the property.

Previously Recorded Plan, Plat, Replat, or Other Instrument

Sec. 3. Restrictions contained in a plan, plat, replat, or other instrument duly recorded before the effective date of this Act may be enforced as provided in Section 2 but a violation of a restriction occurring before the effective date of this Act may not be enjoined or abated by the said city, town, or village as long as the nature of the violation remains unchanged. An incorporated city, town, or village may not enforce a restriction that violates the Constitution of the United States or of this State.

Art. 974a-2. Commercial Building Permits in Cities of 900,000 or More

Application of Act

Sec. 1. This Act applies to cities having a population of more than 900,000 according to the last preceding Federal Census.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act, unless the context requires a different meaning:

(1) "department" means the agency of a city which has the authority and responsibility for issuing commercial building permits;

(2) "subdivider" means a person who divides a tract of real property under circumstances to which Chapter 231, Acts of the 40th Legislature, Regular Session, 1927, as amended (codified as Article 974a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes and Article 427b, Vernon’s Texas Penal Code), is applicable;

(3) "person" includes a firm, partnership, corporation, or other private entity;

(4) "commercial building" means any building other than a single family residence.

Instrument Containing Restriction on Use or Construction on Property; Filing; Issuance of Permit

Sec. 3. (a) A person who desires a commercial building permit shall file with his application a certified copy of any instrument which contains a restriction on the use of or construction on the property described in the application, together with a certified copy of any amendment, judgment, or other document affecting the use of the property.

(b) When an applicant has complied with this Act and local ordinances relating to commercial building permits, the department shall issue a permit for construction or repair which conforms with all restrictions relating to the use of the property described in the application.

Plat and Restrictions; Filing by Subdivider

Sec. 4. (a) A subdivider shall, at the time he files the subdivision for recordation, file with the department two copies of the plat and any restrictions pertaining to the property included in the plat.

(b) The department shall keep one copy in a safe place as a permanent file.

(c) A person who desires a commercial building permit for property which is included in any plat or restrictions on file with the department is not required to file a copy of the plat and restrictions with his application.

Injunction

Sec. 5. (a) A person who attempts to construct or repair any structure for which a commercial building permit is required without having obtained a permit may be enjoined from any further construction activity until he has complied with this Act.

(b) The city may join with an interested property owner in a suit to enjoin further construction activity by one who does not have a permit issued in compliance with this Act, if the structure or proposed structure is in violation of a restriction contained in the deed or other instrument.
Art. 974c-1

Ordinances Validated

Sec. 3. The city ordinances of all cities in the class described in the foregoing section fixing and prescribing the corporate limits extended by the annexation or attempted annexation of adjacent territory are hereby validated and confirmed.

Extension of Limits Validated

Sec. 4. In every instance wherein a city coming under the provision of this Act has attempted to extend its corporate limits under statutes providing for the annexation of adjoining territory, all actions, resolutions, elections, ordinances, proceedings and contracts held, made or passed, in reference thereto, or pursuant thereto, are hereby confirmed, ratified and validated, irrespective of any irregularities, and in like manner as if said annexation had been done under legislative authority previously given.

Art. 974c. Validating Annexation of Adjacent Territory

That all elections, election orders, election proceedings, affidavits and city ordinances herefore had, subsequent to August 24, 1935, annexing adjacent territory or extending and prescribing the corporate limits of any incorporated city, incorporated and functioning under the General Laws of the State of Texas under the Commission Form of Government are hereby in all things fully validated, confirmed, approved, and legalized irrespective of any irregularities or omissions in such ordinances or in any petitions, elections, affidavits, or other proceedings purporting to authorize the passage of such ordinances.

Art. 974c-1. Cities and Towns of 5,000 or Less; Validation of Annexation of Territory

Sec. 1. This Act shall affect and apply to all cities and towns incorporated under the General Laws of this State and having a population of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less, according to the last preceding Federal Census.

Sec. 2. All elections, election orders, election proceedings, petitions and ordinances annexing territory to or extending and prescribing the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town having a population of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall be and the same are hereby validated and confirmed.

Sec. 3. The ordinances of all cities and towns in the class described in the foregoing Section fixing and prescribing the corporate limits extended by the annexation or attempted annexation of adjacent territory are hereby validated and confirmed.

Sec. 4. In every instance wherein a city or town coming under the provisions of this Act has at-attempted to extend its corporate limits under Statutes providing for the annexation of adjoining territory, all actions, resolutions, elections, ordinances, proceedings and contracts held, made or passed, in reference thereto, or pursuant thereto, are hereby confirmed, ratified and validated, irrespective of any irregularities, as fully and completely as if said actions had been taken and happened under legislative authority previously given.
Art. 974c-1 CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Sec. 5. The areas and boundaries of all cities and towns affected by this Act as the same have been extended or attempted to be extended by annexation or any other action are hereby in all things ratified.

Art. 974c-2. Cities of More Than 5,000 Population; Validation of Annexation, Incorporation, and Other Matters

Sec. 1. (a) All cities in the State of Texas having a population greater than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, and operating under the General Laws of Texas, including those operating under the Mayor and Alderman form of government, as well as those operating under the Commissioner form of government, as in such cases provided by law, and heretofore laid out and established by incorporation under the General Laws of Texas, in the manner prescribed by the laws of this State, are hereby validated in all respects as though they had been duly and legally established and so incorporated under the General Laws of Texas in the first instance. All acts of the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, or the Mayor and Board of Commissioners, or other governing body of said cities, ordering election, or elections, declaring results of such elections for the purpose of annexing additional territory to said cities; and otherwise by ordinance annexing additional territories to said cities under the provisions of Article 974, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, annexing additional territory to such cities or municipalities, and all acts of the governing bodies of any such cities or municipalities in annexing territories thereto, are hereby in all things validated.

(b) The fact that by inadvertence or oversight any act of the officers or governing body of any city or municipality, or of the Commissioners Court of the counties in which said cities are situated, in the creation of any such city, or in the annexation thereto of adjoining territory, was omitted, shall in nowise invalidate the incorporation of such city under the General Laws of Texas, nor the annexation of adjoining territory thereto according to the terms of the ordinances so enacted; and the fact that by inadvertence or oversight any act was omitted by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, the Mayor and Board of Commissioners, or other governing body of any such city, or governing body of any municipality, in ordering an election, or elections, or in declaring the results thereof, or by ordinance annexing adjoining territory thereto under the provisions of Article 974, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, or in levying taxes for such city, or in the issuance of bonds of any such city, shall in nowise invalidate any such proceedings or any bonds so issued by such city or municipality.

(c) All acts of the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, by the Mayor and Board of Commissioners, or other governing body of any and all cities and municipalities operating under the General Laws of this State with a population of five thousand (5,000) or more, according to the last preceding Federal Census, in rearranging, changing, annexing additional or adjoining territory, changing the boundaries of, or subdividing such cities or municipalities, or increasing or decreasing areas thereof in any such city or municipality, or in declaring by general election or by ordinance following the provisions of Article 974, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, annexing additional territory to such cities or municipalities, and all acts of the governing bodies of any such cities or municipalities in annexing territories thereto, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 2. All cities or municipalities mentioned in this Act are hereby authorized and empowered to levy, assess and collect the same rate of tax as herebefore authorized, or attempted to be authorized under the General Laws of this State, or by any act of the governing body of such city or municipality, or by any election of taxing voters of such city or municipality, or by any act of the Legislature of this State, whether General or Special, or as is now being levied, assessed and collected therein and heretofore authorized or attempted to be authorized by any act or acts of said cities or municipalities, or by any act of the Legislature of this State, whether General or Special.

Sec. 3. This law shall not apply to any city or municipality governed by the terms of this Act which is now involved in litigation, or the validity of the organization or creation of which, or annexation of territory in or to such city or municipality is attacked in any suit or litigation filed within forty-five (45) days after the effective date of this Act; provided, further, that this Act shall not apply to any city or municipality which may have been incorporated under the General Laws and which was later returned to its original status; nor shall this Act apply to the annexation of additional territory to any such city or municipality which may have been declared void heretofore by the Courts of this State, or otherwise voided by the governing body themselves of such city or municipality.

Sec. 4. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this Act shall be held by any Court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, or for other reasons void or unconstitutional, it shall not affect any other word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this Act.

Art. 974c-3. Cities and Towns of 5,000 or Less: Validation of Annexation and Related Matters

Sec. 1. This Act shall affect and apply to all cities and towns incorporated under the General Laws of this State and having a population of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less, according to the last preceding Federal Census.

Sec. 2. All elections, election orders, election procedures, petitions and ordinances annexing territory to or extending and prescribing the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town having a population of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall be and the same are hereby validated and confirmed.

Sec. 3. The ordinances of all cities and towns in the class described in the foregoing Section fixing and prescribing the corporate limits extended by the annexation or attempted annexation of adjacent territory are hereby validated and confirmed.

Sec. 4. In every instance wherein a city or town coming under the provisions of this Act has attempted to extend its corporate limits under Statutes providing for the annexation of adjoining territory, all actions, resolutions, elections, ordinances, proceedings and contracts held, made or passed, in reference thereto, or pursuant thereto, are hereby confirmed, ratified and validated, irrespective of any irregularities, as fully and completely as if said actions had been taken and happened under legislative authority previously given.

Sec. 4a. This law shall not apply to any city or town which on the effective date of this Act is involved in litigation which questions the annexation of territory or corporate limits thereof.

Sec. 5. The areas and boundaries of all cities and towns affected by this Act as the same have been extended or attempted to be extended by annexation or any other action are hereby in all things ratified.

Sec. 6. This Act shall not affect the validity of the annexation to or extension of the boundaries of any city or town wherein such annexation to, or extension of the boundaries of, are now, or within one hundred days after this bill becomes a law, involved in litigation, unless the annexation or extension is hereby validated and confirmed.

Art. 974c-4. Annexation or Definition of Boundaries: Validation

Sec. 1. All city charters, city charter amendments, ordinances, and proceedings of the governing bodies of all incorporated cities, including home rule cities, defining the boundaries of such incorporated cities or annexing thereto territory adjoining any such city with the consent of a majority of the inhabitants of such annexed territory, are hereby ratified and confirmed.

Sec. 2. After the expiration of two (2) years from the date of any ordinance defining boundaries of or annexing territory to any incorporated city, consent to the annexation and inclusion of such territory in such city shall be conclusively presumed if no action has then been commenced to annul or review such act.

Sec. 2a. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any territory of any city where the annexation of such territory is the subject of any pending litigation at the time of passage of this Act.

Art. 974c-5. Cities and Towns of 800 Inhabitants or Less: Validation of Annexation and Extension of Boundaries

Sec. 1. The actions and proceedings of all cities and towns in Texas of eight hundred (800) inhabitants or less, according to the last preceding Federal Census, heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under any of the terms and provisions of the General Laws of the State of Texas, whether under the aldermanic or commission form of government, which have attempted to extend the corporate limits of such city or town pursuant to a petition of owners of lands in such annexed area, and a part of which land was, prior to such annexation included in an ordinance of annexation by a neighboring city but was either discontinued as a part of such city or was deleted from the ordinance of annexation before final passage by such neighboring city, and have passed an ordinance or ordinances describing the territory annexed and have caused a certified copy of such ordinance or ordinances to be recorded in the Deed Records of the county in which such city or town is situated, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such annexation or attempted annexation.

Sec. 2. The areas and boundary lines of all such cities and towns covered by the provision of this Act, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation and by any subsequent extension of the area and corporate limits by ordinance adopted pursuant to petition of owners of land included in such extension and annexation are hereby in all things validated, and such annexations and extension of corporate limits of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid because of the inclusion in such limits of more territory than is expressly authorized by Article 971 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925, as amended, or by reason of the inclusion in the corporate area of territory other than that which is intended to be used for strictly town or city purposes.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation question shall not be held void or invalid by reason of the fact that the proceedings may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities including the territory of annexed areas or areas attempted to be annexed which include the territory of an entire water control and improvement district are in all things validated as of the date of the ordinance annexing or attempting to annex said territory.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries or any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof.

1 Article 976a.

Art. 974d-1. Validation of Incorporation of Cities of 600 to 2,000 Inhabitants Incorporated Since January 1, 1935

All cities and towns in this State having more than six hundred (600) and less than two thousand (2,000) inhabitants which have heretofore incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and which are or may be invalid by reason of having included within their corporate limits lands not used for strictly town purposes, but which cities and towns do not include more than two (2) square miles of territory, are hereby declared to be duly and legally incorporated, and the boundaries of such cities as set forth in their incorporation proceedings are hereby expressly authorized and validated; that all actions, proceedings, and elections done or had in connection with the incorporation or attempted incorporation of such cities and towns are in all things validated; and all subsequent acts of such cities and towns, done or performed as a city or town, are hereby validated and declared as binding as if said cities had been duly and legally incorporated. The provisions of this Act shall apply only to cities and towns incorporated since January 1, 1935.

Art. 974d. Validation of Incorporation of Cities of 600 to 2,000 Inhabitants Incorporated Since January 1, 1935

All cities and towns in this State having more than six hundred (600) and less than two thousand (2,000) inhabitants which have heretofore incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, which are or may be invalid by reason of the fact that the proceedings may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities including the territory of annexed areas or areas attempted to be annexed which include the territory of an entire water control and improvement district are in all things validated as of the date of the ordinance annexing or attempting to annex said territory.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries or any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof.

1 Article 976a.
Sec. 2. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns since their incorporation or attempted incorporation, respectively, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective dates of such proceedings, and such governmental proceedings shall be effective the same as if such cities and towns had been regularly incorporated in the first instance.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this bill shall affect no city or town now in litigation.

Art. 97d-2. Validation of Incorporation; Boundaries and Proceedings; Cities and Towns of 5,000 or Less

Sec. 1. All cities and towns, in this State, of five thousand (5,000) inhabitants or less, heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, whether under the aldermanic form of government or the commission form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and by any subsequent extension thereof, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation, or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation.

Art. 97d-3. Validation of Incorporation; Counties of 600,000 Population

Sec. 1. All towns and villages in Texas located in counties of over six hundred thousand (600,000) population according to the last preceding Federal Census, heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws of Texas, Chapter 11, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall affect no town or village now or heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under any of the terms and provisions of the General Laws of the State of Texas, whether under the aldermanic or commission form of government, and which are now functioning or attempting to function as incorporated cities and towns, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation, or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law, or by reason of a failure to properly define the limits of said city or town.

Sec. 3. The areas and boundary lines of all such cities and towns affected by this Act, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and by any subsequent extension thereof, are hereby in all actions, elections and proceedings had or passed in reference thereto or in connection therewith, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such attempted annexation, and such extension of the corporate limits of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other proceedings had in connection with such annexation may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 4. The areas and boundary lines of all such cities and towns affected by this Act, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and by any subsequent extension thereof are in all things validated and the incorporation of such cities and towns or any subsequent extension of the corporate limits of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid because of the inclusion in such limits of more territory than is expressly authorized in Article 971 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925, or by reason of the inclusion in the corporate area of territory other than that which is intended to be used for strictly town purposes.

Sec. 4. All governmental proceedings and acts performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation, or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings and acts.

Sec. 4a. The provisions of this Act shall in no wise affect or invalidate the incorporation or attempted incorporation of any city or town where the election held for such incorporation or attempted incorporation was held prior to January 1, 1933.

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries or any of the Acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof.

Art. 974d-5. Validation of Incorporation; Boundary Lines; Governmental Proceedings; Exceptions; Cities and Towns of 15,000 or Less

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in this State of fifteen thousand (15,000) inhabitants or less, heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, whether under the aldermanic form of government or the commission form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and by any subsequent extension thereof, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation, or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not apply to any municipality which is now involved, or which within sixty (60) days from the effective date becomes involved, in litigation in any District Court of this State, the Court of Civil Appeals, or the Supreme Court of Texas, in which litigation the validity of the organization, annexation, incorporation or creation of such municipality is attacked; and this Act shall not apply to any municipality involved in formal proceedings now pending before such municipality’s commission or council in which proceedings the organization or creation of such municipality is attacked. Provided further, that this Act shall not apply to any municipality which has heretofore been declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction of this State or which may have been established and which was later returned to its original status, nor shall this Act apply to any annexation or incorporation proceedings which have heretofore been declared valid or invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction of this State before the effective date of this Act.

Art. 974d-6. Validation of Organizational Proceedings; Incorporation; Consolidation; Boundaries, etc.; Exception

Sec. 1. All cities (except home rule cities), towns and villages in this State, heretofore incorporated under the general laws of this State, whether under the aldermanic, commission, or council form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities, towns or villages since the date of their incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated, ratified and confirmed as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities, towns and villages shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may not have been in compliance with law.

Sec. 2. In each instance where a charter or amendment or amendments to a charter of a home rule city has been (a) submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of such city at an election, and (b) a majority of the voters participating in such election of such city have approved the charter or amendment or amendments, and (c) the home rule city has functioned under the home rule charter or home rule charter as amended, the charter or the amendment or amendments to the home rule charter shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other proceedings required to adopt or amend home rule charters may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 3. In each instance where two or more incorporated cities (including home rule cities), towns or villages in this State have consolidated or attempted to consolidate under one government, and the question of consolidation has been approved by a majority of the electorate participating in the election in each of the cities sought to be consolidated, the consolidation or attempted consolidation of such cities is hereby in all things ratified, validated, and confirmed, and the consolidation of such cities, towns or villages shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other proceedings of consolidation may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 4. The boundary lines of all cities (including home rule cities), towns or villages, including the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation or consolidation and by any subsequent extension thereof, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 5. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing body of any city (including home rule cities), town or village, including, but not limited to, the adoption of the provisions relating to cities and towns, and all offices and officers thereof since their incorporation, consolidation, adoption of a charter, or amendment or amendments to a home rule charter, are hereby in all respects validated, ratified and confirmed as of the respective dates of such proceedings; provided, however, any provision to the contrary of this Act shall not apply to the Acts of any city, town or village in this State, hereinafter incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws of this State where such Acts come after the effective date of this Act.

Sec. 6. In any instance where an incorporated city, town or village has changed its name by an election in which the question of the change of the name of such city, town or village has been submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of such city, and the majority of the voters of such city voting in such election have approved such change of name, such change of name is hereby validated, ratified and confirmed as of the date of such election, without regard to the fact that the election proceedings or other proceedings involved in such change of name may not have been in compliance with law.

Sec. 7. The validation provisions of this Act shall not apply to litigation pending in any court of competent jurisdiction in this State on the effective date of this Act which litigation questions the legality of any of the matters which would otherwise be validated by the provisions hereof, if such litigation ultimately results in holdings or holding that the matters questioned thereby are invalid.

Art. 974d-7. Validation of Orders of County Judges Declaring Incorporation of Certain Cities, Towns or Villages; Boundaries; Elections and Proceedings; Exceptions

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has been held for the purpose of incorporating a city, town or village, and the territory to be contained in such city, town or village was inadequately or incorrectly described in connection with such election proceedings, or such territory contained a greater area than was permitted by law, and where, thereafter, the County Judge of the county in which such city, town or village is situated entered an order declaring the inhabitants of such city, town or village, incorporated under the General Laws of the State of Texas relating to cities and towns, and fixing and declaring the boundaries thereof, as he finds such boundaries to exist at the time of entering such order, and finding and declaring the names of the officials of any such city, such order by the County Judge is hereby in all things validated, ratified and approved, and such city, town or village shall be known by the name specified in such order.

Sec. 2. Any city, town or village declared to be incorporated by an order as mentioned in Section 1 of this Act is hereby validated and declared to be a duly incorporated city with the boundaries as defined in such order, and the act of the governing body thereof in accepting the provisions of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes, as amended, relating to cities and towns is hereby validated and the officials named in such order are hereby declared to have been the mayor, aldermen and city secretary of such city at the time of the entry of said order, and all elections held for the election of city officials are hereby validated and ratified.

Sec. 3. Any election held heretofore but after the entry of such order by the County Judge resulting favorably to the issuance of bonds of such city, town or village is hereby validated and shall constitute sufficient authority for the governing body to proceed with the issuance of the bonds thus voted.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not apply to any municipality which is now involved in litigation in any District Court of this State, the Court of Civil Appeals, or the Supreme Court of Texas, in which litigation the validity of the organization, incorporation or creation of such municipality is attacked; and this Act shall not apply to any municipality involved in formal proceedings now pending before such municipality's commission or council in which proceedings the organization or creation of such municipality is attacked. Provided further, that this Act shall not apply to any municipality which has heretofore been declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction of this state or which may have been established and which was later returned to its original status.

Art. 974d-8. Validation of Incorporation; Boundary Lines; Governmental Proceedings; Adoption of Home Rule Charter; Cities and Towns of 5,100 to 5,300

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of all cities and towns in this state heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, and having a population according to the Federal Census of 1960 of not less than 5100 nor more than 5300, whether under the aldermanic form of government or the commission form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, and which incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may have not been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and by any subsequent extension thereof, are hereby in all things validated.
Art. 974d-8  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all offices thereof since their incorporation or attempted incorporation are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings.

Sec. 4. The proceedings for the adoption and adopting or attempting to adopt a Home Rule Charter for any such city or town in this state heretofore incorporated or attempting to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas and having a population according to the Federal Census of 1960 of not less than 5100 nor more than 6000, where any legal step required to make such adoption effective has been omitted or was done in an irregular manner and where a majority of the qualified voters of said city voting at said election voted in favor of the adoption of said charter are in all things validated, ratified and confirmed, and such charter shall constitute the Home Rule Charter of said city under the constitution and laws of this state. All elections held under the provisions of said charter for the purpose of electing members of the governing body of the city and the assumption of office by such elected members are hereby in all things validated. All acts of the city officers and officials of any such city are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed as validating the adoption of any charter if the validity of the charter adoption proceedings or of the charter is involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act and such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Art. 974d-9. Validation of Incorporation; Boundary Lines; Governmental Proceedings; Adoption of Home Rule Charter; Cities and Towns of Not More Than 6,000

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of all cities and towns in this state heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, and having a population according to the Federal Census of 1960 of not more than six thousand (6,000), whether under the Aldermanic form of government or the Commission form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may have not been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns covered by the original incorporation proceedings are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings other than annexation proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all offices thereof since their incorporation or attempted incorporation are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings.

Sec. 4. The proceedings for the adoption and adopting or attempting to adopt a Home Rule Charter for any such city or town in this state heretofore incorporated or attempting to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas and having a population according to the Federal Census of 1960 of not more than six thousand (6,000), where any legal step required to make such adoption effective has been omitted or was done in an irregular manner and where a majority of the qualified voters of said city voting at said election voted in favor of the adoption of said charter are in all things validated, ratified and confirmed, and such charter shall constitute the Home Rule Charter of said city under the Constitution and laws of this state. All elections held under the provisions of said charter for the purpose of electing members of the governing body of the city and the assumption of office by such elected members are hereby in all things validated. All acts of the city officers and officials of any such city, other than acts pertaining to annexation, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not be construed as validating the adoption of any charter if the validity of the charter adoption proceedings or of the charter is involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act and such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Art. 974d-10. Validation of Incorporation; Elections; Governmental Proceedings; Adoption of Home Rule Charter; Exceptions; Cities, Towns or Villages

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of any city, town or village in this state heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, whether under the Aldermanic form of government or the Commission form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation and the incorporation of any such city, town or village shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may have not been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. In each instance where an election has been held for the purpose of incorporating a city, town or village, and the territory to be contained in such city, town or village was inadequately or incorrectly described in connection with such election proceedings, or such territory contained a greater area than was permitted by law, and where, thereafter, the county judge of the county in which such city, town or village is situated entered an order ordinance or ordinances annexing territory that village incorporated under the General Laws of the State of Texas relating to cities and towns, and fixing and declaring the boundaries thereof, as such boundaries were originally intended, together with territory annexed prior to any such order, and finding and declaring the names of the officials of any such city, such order by the county judge is hereby in all things validated, ratified and approved, and such city, town, or village shall be known by the name specified in such order.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing body of any such city, town or village and all offices thereof since their incorporation, or attempts to incorporate, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings. Any election held in such city, town or village resulting favorably to the issuance of bonds is hereby validated, and the governing body thereof is authorized to proceed with the issuance of such bonds.

Sec. 4. The proceedings for the adoption and adopting or attempting to adopt a Home Rule Charter for any and each city or town in this state where any legal step required to make such adoption effective has been omitted or was done in an irregular manner and where a majority of the qualified voters of said city voting at said election voted in favor of the adoption of any and each such charter are in all things validated, ratified and confirmed, and such charter shall constitute the Home Rule Charter of said city and each such city under the Constitution and laws of this state. All elections held under the provisions of said charter for the purpose of electing members of the governing body of each such city and the assumption of office by such elected members are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not apply to any city, town or village which is now or was heretofore involved in litigation questioning in any District Court of this state, the Court of Civil Appeals, or the Supreme Court of Texas, the validity or legality of the charter, organization, incorporation, boundaries, extension of boundaries, or creation of such city, town or village. Nor shall this Act validate any act or proceedings of any city, town or village which upon the effective date of this Act is the subject of litigation in a court of competent jurisdiction. This Act shall neither validate any act or proceedings of any city, town or village done subsequent to October 1, 1962, nor shall the Act operate to affect any ordinance or ordinances annexing territory that have been passed on first or subsequent readings by a city, town or village prior to the passage of this Act. This Act shall not apply to any such extensions, acts or proceedings of any city, town or village if such extensions, acts or proceedings have been later rescinded.

Sec. 6. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, or part of this Act shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, or for other reasons void or unconstitutional, it shall not affect any other word, phrase, clause, sentence or part of this Act.

Art. 974d-11. Validation of Incorporation;
Boundary Lines; Governmental Proceedings; Cities Within Extraterrito-rial Jurisdiction of Other Cities; Litigation

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of all cities and towns in this State heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of the State of Texas, whether under the aldermanic or commission form of government, and which have functioned or attempted to function as incorporated cities or towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and any subsequent extensions thereof, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of all such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation or attempted incorporation are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such proceedings.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town incorporated or attempted to be incorporated from and after August 23, 1963, which is situated in whole or in part within the extraterrri-torial jurisdiction of another city or town, unless consent or permission to incorporate was obtained in the manner prescribed by Chapter 160, Article I, Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963, the Municipal Annexation Act, compiled as Article 970a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes.

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries or any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any proceeding which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974d-12. Validation of Incorporation;
Boundary Lines; Governmental Proceedings; Exceptions; Home Rule
Cities and Towns; 8,900 to 7,100

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of all home-rule cities and towns having a population of 6,000 to 7,100 and all cities and towns in this state heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws of the State of Texas, whether under the aldermanic or commission form of government, and which have functioned or attempted to function as incorporated cities or towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. That each charter, and amendment to a charter adopted by any city of more than 5,000 inhabitants in this state, or where such city has amended or attempted to amend or adopt such charter, since the enactment of Chapter 147, Acts of the Regular Session of the 33rd Legislature of the State of Texas, 1915, and as thereafter amended, relating to home rule, and all of the amendments and proceedings had under same, that all bonds issued under any amendment where said bonds issued under any amendment have been approved by the attorney general and registered with the comptroller of public accounts, are hereby declared to be in full force and effect as if adopted in strict compliance with all of the requirements of said Chapter 147, Acts of the 33rd Legislature and as hereafter amended and the general laws of Texas relating thereto.

Sec. 3. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and any subsequent extensions thereof are hereby in all things validated. No boundary extension of any kind shall be deemed invalid by failure to comply with requirements of publication, whether such requirements are imposed by statute, general law or charter, and such extensions are hereby in all things validated. In the event of multiple annexations covering the same territory, the proceedings prior in time shall prevail despite any irregularities hereby validated.

Sec. 4. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of all such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation or attempted incorporation are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such proceedings.

Sec. 5. Where any city in the state which operated under the general law or pursuant to a home rule charter has heretofore at an election submitted to the qualified electors who own taxable property in said city and who have duly rendered the same for taxation purposes for the issuance of the bonds of such city for the purposes stated in such propositions, such bonds being payable from the revenues stated in such propositions or payable from ad valorem taxes to be levied therefor, and such propositions having carried by the vote of a majority of the persons voting in such election, all of the proceedings heretofore had by such city, including all proceedings had and acts done in connection with the calling and holding of the election, despite any failure or failure in such proceedings to comply with the pertinent statutes and all proceedings heretofore had by any such city to authorize the issuance of revenue bonds under the provisions of Section 11 of Article 2365a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes (irrespective of the location of the improvements to be constructed or acquired with bond proceeds) are hereby ratified, validated, and confirmed. The governing body of each such city is authorized to adopt all proceedings necessary or desirable to complete the issuance of such bonds. All of such proceedings relating to the authorization of bonds shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas, and when such bonds have been or are hereafter approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall be incontestable.
Sec. 6. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town incorporated or attempted to be incorporated from and after August 22, 1963, which is situated in whole or in part within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city or town, unless consent or permission to incorporate was obtained in the manner prescribed by Chapter 160, Article I, Acts of the 65th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965, the Municipal Annexation Act, compiled as Article 970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes.

Sec. 7. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any proceedings which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 44, ch. 15, eff. March 13, 1969.]

Art. 974d-14. Validation of Boundary Lines; Cities and Towns of 5,270 to 5,350 Inhabitants

Sec. 1. This Act applies to cities and towns incorporated under the general laws of this state and having a population of not less than 5,270 and not more than 5,350 inhabitants and being situated in a county having a population less than 50,000 inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of the cities and towns, including the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and by subsequent extensions of the boundaries, are validated.

Sec. 3. No boundary extension is invalid for failure to comply with the provisions and requirements of the Municipal Annexation Act. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1021, ch. 381, eff. May 27, 1969.]

Art. 974d-15. Validation of Incorporation, Boundary Lines and Governmental Proceedings; Exceptions; Cities and Towns of 215 to 217

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in Texas having a population of not less than 215 nor more than 217 according to the last federal census, heretofore incorporated under a special Act of the Legislature and thereafter adopting or attempting to adopt the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, which have extended or attempted to extend the corporate limits of such city or town to include territory, the majority of the inhabitants of said territory qualified to vote for members of the State Legislature having voted in favor of becoming a part of said town or city, are hereby in all respects ratified, validated and confirmed as of the date of such annexation or attempted annexation, as fully and completely as if said action had been taken and happened under legislative authority previously given, and such extension of boundaries and all proceedings had in connection therewith shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other proceedings had in connection with such annexation may not have been in accordance with law nor because of the inclusion in such limits of more territory than is expressly authorized in Article 971, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, or by reason of the inclusion in the corporate area of territory other than that which is intended to be used for strictly town purposes, provided, however, that the annexed area does not include any area that was validly within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another incorporated city or town at the time of such annexation.

Sec. 2. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation and the adoption or attempted adoption of the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings.

Sec. 3. All cities and towns in Texas having a population of not less than 215 nor more than 217, according to the last federal census, and heretofore incorporated under a special Act of the Legislature and thereafter adopting or attempting to adopt the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, which have extended or attempted to extend the corporate limits of such city or town to include territory, the majority of the inhabitants of said territory qualified to vote for members of the State Legislature having voted in favor of becoming a part of said town or city, are hereby in all respects ratified, validated and confirmed as of the date of such annexation or attempted annexation, as fully and completely as if said action had been taken and happened under legislative authority previously given, and such extension of boundaries and all proceedings had in connection therewith shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other proceedings had in connection with such annexation may not have been in accordance with law nor because of the inclusion in such limits of more territory than is expressly authorized in Article 971, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, or by reason of the inclusion in the corporate area of territory other than that which is intended to be used for strictly town purposes, provided, however, that the annexed area does not include any area that was validly within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another incorporated city or town at the time of such annexation.

Sec. 4. The validation provisions of this Act shall not apply to litigation pending in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state on the effective date of this Act which litigation questions the legality of any of the matters which would otherwise be validated by the provisions hereof, if such litigation ultimately results in holdings or holding that the matters questioned thereby are invalid.

Sec. 5. If any part or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held invalid, it is hereby declared to be the intention of the Legislature that the remainder hereof and the application of such part or provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Sec. 6. As used in this Act, "the last federal census" means the 1970 census. This is despite any legislation that has been or may be enacted during any session of the 62nd Legislature delaying the effectiveness of the 1970 census for general state and local governmental purposes. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 945, ch. 107, eff. May 11, 1971.]
Art. 974d-16  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES  854

Art. 974d-16. Validation of Incorporation, Boundary Lines and Governmental Proceedings; Cities and Towns of 1,500 to 1,800

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in Texas of more than the one thousand five hundred (1,500) and less than one thousand eight hundred (1,800) inhabitants, heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws of Texas, under the Commission form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation, and where there was an overlapping of territory with another city or town at the time of such incorporation and which overlapping of territory has been corrected by an ordinance of either of such cities or towns, are hereby in all respects validated, as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid on account of such overlapping of territory at the time of such original incorporation.

Sec. 2. That the boundary lines of all such cities and towns, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings, as corrected by such city ordinance, or by any subsequent extension thereof, are in all things validated.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation, or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation.

Art. 974d-18. Validation of Incorporation, Boundary Lines and Governmental Proceedings; Cities and Towns of 1,000 or Less

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in Texas of 1,000 inhabitants or less, heretofore incorporated, or attempted to be incorporated under the terms and provisions of the general laws of the State of Texas under the aldermanic form of government, and which are now functioning or attempting to function as incorporated cities or towns, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation, or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of those cities and towns shall not be held invalid because of the inclusion in the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law, or by reason of a failure to properly define the limits of the city or town.

Sec. 2. The areas and boundary lines of all cities and towns affected by this Act, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and by any subsequent extension thereof, are in all things validated, and the incorporation of the cities and towns or any subsequent extension of the corporate limits of the cities and towns shall not be held invalid because of the inclusion in the limits of more territory than is expressly authorized in Article 971 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings and acts performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation, or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of the proceedings and acts.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in quo warranto questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries or any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof.

Sec. 5. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, or provision of this Act is declared unconstitutional, it is the intention of the legislature that the remaining provisions thereof shall be effective, and that such remaining portions shall remain in full force and effect.
Art. 974d-19. Validation of Incorporation, Boundary Lines and Governmental Proceedings; Exceptions; Cities and Towns Under 10,000

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of all cities and towns in this state with a population of less than 10,000 heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws of the State of Texas, whether under the aldermanic or commission form of government, and which have functioned or attempted to function as incorporated cities or towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and any subsequent extensions thereof by annexation are hereby in all things validated; provided, however, that no provisions of this Act shall validate any boundary line extended by annexation, which extends into or through the extraterritorial jurisdiction [as that term is defined by the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes)], of any other city or town.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of all such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation or attempted incorporation are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such proceedings.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town incorporated or attempted to be incorporated from and after August 23, 1963, which is situated in whole or in part within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city or town, unless consent or permission to incorporate was obtained in the manner prescribed by the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Sec. 5. The provisions of the Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries or any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any proceeding which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974d-20. Validation of Consolidation of Certain Cities

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has heretofore been held in each of two adjoining incorporated cities within the same county in this state on the question of the consolidation or merger of the two cities under one government, and a majority of the voters of each city who participated in the election voted in favor of the proposition submitted to them, and thereafter the officers of the smaller city turned over to the officers of the larger city the record books and assets of the smaller city and the officers of the larger city entered upon the performance of their duties as officers of the consolidated city, and the consolidated city is now functioning or attempting to function as a validly constituted municipality, the consolidation is hereby validated in all respects as of the date of the consolidation or attempted consolidation. All proceedings involved in the consolidation are hereby validated, and the consolidation shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings in either or both of the elections may not have been in accordance with law in regard to the prerequisites for ordering the election, the time of holding the election, the wording of the ballot proposition, the registration of the results, or any other procedure.

Sec. 2. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing body and other officers of a consolidated city which is within the terms of this Act are hereby validated as of the date of the consolidation, and the consolidation is hereby validated in all respects as of the date of the consolidation or attempted consolidation. All proceedings involved in the consolidation are hereby validated, and the consolidation shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings in either or both of the elections may not have been in accordance with law in regard to the prerequisites for ordering the election, the time of holding the election, the wording of the ballot proposition, the registration of the results, or any other procedure.

Sec. 3. This Act does not apply to any proceedings or actions the validity of which is involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof; nor does it apply to any proceedings which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction before the effective date.

Art. 974d-21. Validation of Incorporation, Boundary Lines and Governmental Proceedings: Exceptions

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of all cities and towns incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws before the effective date of this Act, which have functioned or attempted to function as incorporated cities or towns since their incorporation or attempted incorporation, are validated in all respects as of the date of the incorporation or attempted incorporation. The incorporation proceedings may not be held invalid because they were not performed in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of the cities and towns, including any extensions by annexation before June 3, 1975, are validated in all respects, except that the incorporation in or extension of a boundary line by annexation into the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city or town, in violation of
Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of the cities and towns since their incorporation are validated in all respects as of the date of the proceedings.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning any of the acts or proceedings, other than incorporation proceedings or boundary extensions, hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any proceeding which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974d-22. Validation of Incorporation, Charters and Amendments of Cities over 5,000; Boundary Lines; Governmental Proceedings; Revenue Bonds; Exceptions

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of cities and towns (including home-rule cities) heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws of the State of Texas, and which have functioned or attempted to function as incorporated cities or towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or incorporation proceedings may not have been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. That each charter, and amendment to a charter adopted by any city of more than 5,000 inhabitants in this state, or where such city has amended or attempted to amend or adopt such charter, since the enactment of Chapter 147, Acts of the Regular Session of the 33rd Legislature of the State of Texas, 1913, and as thereafter amended, relating to home rule, and all of the amendments and proceedings had under same, and that all bonds issued under any amendment where said bonds issued under any amendment have been approved by the attorney general and registered with the comptroller of public accounts are hereby fully validated, ratified, and confirmed and are hereby declared to be in full force and effect as is adopted in strict compliance with all of the requirements of said Chapter 147, Acts of the 33rd Legislature, and as thereafter amended, and the general laws of Texas relating thereto.

Sec. 3. The boundary lines of all such cities and towns, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and any subsequent extensions thereof, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 4. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of all such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation or attempted incorporation are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such proceedings.

Sec. 5. Where any city in the state which operated under the general law or pursuant to a home-rule charter has heretofore at an election submitted to the qualified electors who own taxable property in said city and who have duly rendered the same for taxation propositions for the issuance of the bonds of such city for the purposes stated in such propositions, such bonds being payable from the revenues stated in such proposition or payable from ad valorem taxes to be levied therefor, and such propositions having carried by the vote of a majority of the persons voting in such election, all of the proceedings heretofore had by such city, including all proceedings had and acts done in connection with the calling and holding of the election, despite any failure or failures in such proceedings to comply with the pertinent statutes and all proceedings heretofore had by any such city to authorize the issuance of revenue bonds under the provisions of Section 11 of Article 2368a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes (irrespective of the location of the improvements to be constructed or acquired with bond proceeds), are hereby ratified, validated, and confirmed. The governing body of each such city is authorized to adopt all proceedings necessary or desirable to complete the issuance of such bonds. All of such proceedings relating to the authorization of bonds shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas, and when such bonds have been or are hereafter approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall be incontestable.

Sec. 6. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries or any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any proceeding which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974d-23. Validation of Consolidation and Governmental Proceedings of Certain Cities

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has heretofore been held in each of two incorporated cities adjoining at a place within the same county in this state on the question of the consolidation or merger of the two cities under one government, and a majority of the voters in each city who participated in the election voted in favor of the proposition submitted to them, and thereafter the officers of the smaller city turned over to the officers of the larger city the record books and assets of the smaller city and the officers of the larger city entered upon the performance of their duties as officers of the consolidated city, and the consolidated city is now functioning or attempting to function as a validly constituted municipality, the consolidation is hereby validated in all respects as of the date of the consolidation or attempted consolidation. All proceedings involved in the consolidation are hereby validated, and the consolidation shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings in either or both of the elections may not have been in accordance with law in regard to the prerequisites for ordering the election, the time of holding the election, the wording of the ballot proposition, the registration of the results, or any other proceeding.

Sec. 2. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing body and other officers of a consolidated city which is within the terms of this Act are hereby validated as of the date of the proceedings against any claim of invalidity because of any defect in the consolidation proceedings or because of any purported authorization for or utilization of advisory services of former officers of the smaller city during a period following the consolidation.

Sec. 3. Nothing in this Act shall relieve the consolidated city from legal claims or actions which may have existed against the smaller city prior to consolidation.

Sec. 4. This Act does not apply to any proceedings or actions the validity of which is involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof, nor does it apply to any proceedings which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction before the effective date.

Art. 974d-24. Validation of Annexations and Other Proceedings of Municipalities of 20,000 or Less

Sec. 1. This Act applies only to incorporated cities, towns, or villages operating under general law or under a home-rule charter and having a population of 20,000 or less, according to the last preceding federal census.

Sec. 2. In any case where a city, town, or village covered by this Act extended its boundaries by annexing adjacent territory, the annexation and boundary lines and all related proceedings are validated, without regard to any procedural irregularity that may have occurred. All governmental acts and proceedings of the city, town, or village since the annexation are validated.

Sec. 3. This Act does not apply to any matter that on the effective date of this Act:

(1) is involved in litigation, if the litigation ultimately results in the matter being held invalid; or

(2) has been held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974d-25. Validation of Boundary Actions of Cities within Counties of 1,000,000 or More

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to all incorporated cities and towns within the boundaries of any county of this state with a population of 1,000,000 persons or more, according to the last preceding federal census.

Sec. 2. In any case where a city, town, or village operating under general law or under a home-rule charter and having a population of 20,000 or less, according to the last preceding federal census, are hereby in all things fully validated, confirmed, and approved, regardless of any irregularities or omissions in such ordinances, petitions, resolutions, elections, or other proceedings.

Sec. 3. The ordinances of all cities and towns in the class described in Section 1 of this Act fixing the corporate limits extended by the annexation or attempted annexation of adjacent territory are hereby validated and confirmed.

Sec. 4. The boundary lines of all cities and towns within the classification described in Section 1 of this Act, including both the boundary lines covered by the original incorporation proceedings and any subsequent extensions thereof, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any proceedings which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974d-26. Validation of Incorporation, Boundary Lines and Governmental Proceedings; Exceptions

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of all cities and towns incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws before the effective date of this Act, which have functioned or attempted to function as incorporated cities or towns since their incorporation or attempted incorporation, are validated in all respects as of the date of the incorporation or attempted incorporation. The incorporation proceedings may not be held invalid because they were not performed in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of such cities and towns, including any subsequent extensions of such boundaries by annexation, and the reduction or contraction of such boundaries by the discontinuation and disannexation of territory are validated in all respects, except that the extension of a boundary line by annexation into the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city or town or the incorporation of a city or town in the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city or town without that city’s or town’s consent, in violation of the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), is not validated by this Act.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of the cities and towns since their incorporation including annexations, disannexations, and apportionment of extraterritorial jurisdiction and notices and attempted notices required therefor are validated in all respects as of the date of the proceedings.

Sec. 4. This Act does not apply to any matter involved in litigation on the date this Act takes effect if the litigation ultimately results against the legality of the matter. This Act does not apply to any matter that has been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974d–27. Validation of Assumption of Municipal Control of Certain Schools

Sec. 1. If an incorporated city or town has assumed control of the public free schools within its corporate limits and if that assumption was approved by a majority of the property taxpaying voters of the city or town voting at an election held for that purpose, the election, the assumption, and all governmental acts and proceedings performed in the election and assumption and in governing the municipal school district are validated in all respects as of the date of the act or proceeding. The acts and proceedings may not be held invalid by reason of the fact that they may not have been performed in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. This Act does not apply to any matter involved in litigation on the date this Act takes effect if the litigation ultimately results against the legality of the matter. This Act does not apply to any matter that has been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974d–28. Validation of Incorporation and Boundary Lines; Exceptions

Purpose; Construction of Act

Sec. 1. This Act is to protect the public interest in confirmed and dependable boundaries and jurisdictions of municipalities. It shall be given the most comprehensive and liberal construction possible to achieve its remedial purpose.

Applicability

Sec. 2. This Act applies to any city, town, or village that incorporated or attempted to incorporate under general law before January 1, 1975, and that has functioned or attempted to function as an incorporated municipality since the date of the incorporation or attempted incorporation, including such a municipality that has adopted a home-rule charter.

Incorporation Proceedings

Sec. 3. The incorporation proceedings of each municipality covered by this Act are validated in all respects as of the date on which they occurred. The proceedings may not be held invalid because the election or other proceedings related to the incorporation were not in accordance with law.

Boundary Lines

Sec. 4. (a) The original boundary lines of each municipality covered by this Act and any extension of those boundaries adopted before January 1, 1975, are validated in all respects, even though the action adopting the original boundaries or an extension of them was not in accordance with law.

(b) Without limiting the generality of Subsection (a) of this section, it is expressly provided that an attempted annexation that occurred before January 1, 1975, may not be held invalid because it did not comply with the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), or any other applicable law, or because the territory the municipality attempted to annex was not contiguous or adjacent to the then existing boundaries of the municipality, or because the municipality was not petitioned for annexation by the owners or residents of the annexed territory.

Exceptions

Sec. 5. This Act does not apply to:

(1) any matter that on the effective date of this Act is involved in litigation if the litigation ultimately results in the matter being held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(2) any matter that on the effective date of this Act has been held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974d–29. Validation of Incorporation, Boundary Lines and Governmental Proceedings; Cities and Towns of 1,000 or Less

Validation of the Incorporation of Certain Cities and Towns

Sec. 1. If any city or town with a population of 1,000 or less, according to the most recent federal census, that previously incorporated or attempted to incorporate under general law with the aldermanic form of government is now functioning or attempting to function as an incorporated city or town within three or more counties, its incorporation or attempted incorporation is in all respects validated as of the date that is occurred. The incorporation may not be held invalid because the incorporation election or other incorporation proceedings were not in accordance with law or because of a failure to properly define the limits of the city or town.

Validation of Boundary Lines

Sec. 2. The areas and boundary lines of each city and town covered by this Act, including the boundary lines and any subsequent extension of them, are validated in all respects. The incorporation of the city or town or any subsequent extension of its corporate limits may not be held invalid because of the inclusion in the limits of more territory than is authorized by the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

Validation of Proceedings and Acts

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings and acts performed since the incorporation or attempted incorporation by the governing bodies or other officers of the cities and towns covered by this Act are in all respects validated as of the date of each proceeding and act.

Quo Warranto Proceedings

Sec. 4. This Act does not apply to any city or town now involved in quo warranto proceedings questioning the legality of its incorporation or extension of boundaries or the legality of any of the acts or proceedings validated by this Act if the litigation is ultimately determined against the legality of the matter.

Pending and Completed Litigation

Sec. 5. All litigation is validated by this Act.

Art. 974d–30. Validation of Incorporation and Boundary Lines: Exceptions

Incorporation Proceedings

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of all cities and towns incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws before the effective date of this Act, which have functioned or attempted to function as incorporated cities or towns since their incorporation or attempted incorporation, are validated in all respects as of the date of the incorporation or attempted incorporation. The incorporation proceedings may not be held invalid because they were not performed in accordance with law.

Boundaries

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of the cities and towns, including any subsequent extensions of the boundaries by annexation, and the reduction or contraction of the boundaries by the discontinuation and disannexation of territory are validated in all respects, except that the extension of a boundary line by annexation into the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city or town or the incorporation of a city or town in the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city or town without that city’s or town’s consent, in violation of the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), is not validated by this Act.

Application

Sec. 1. This Act applies to any incorporated city or town that before the effective date of this Act consolidated with or attempted to consolidate with another incorporated city or town under the general laws and since the consolidation or attempted consolidation has been included as part of a consolidated city or town functioning or attempting to function as a validly constituted municipality.

Proceedings Validated

Sec. 2. (a) The governmental acts and proceedings of a city or town covered by this Act relating to the consolidation or attempted consolidation of the city or town with another city or town are validated as of the dates they occurred. The acts and proceedings may not be held invalid because they were not performed in accordance with law.

(b) The governmental acts and proceedings of the consolidated city or town since the consolidation are validated as of the dates they occurred.

Effect on Prior Claims

Sec. 3. This Act does not relieve the consolidated city or town from legal claims or actions that may have existed against a participating city or town before consolidation.

Effect on Litigation

Sec. 4. This Act does not apply to any matter that on the effective date of this Act:

(1) is involved in litigation if the litigation ultimately results in the matter being held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction; or
Art. 974d–31

(2) has been held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974d–32. Validation of Incorporation and Governmental Proceedings; Cities and Towns of 200 or More

Incorporation Proceedings

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of all cities and towns having a population of 200 or more, according to the most recent federal census, that incorporated or attempted to incorporate under the general laws of this state before the effective date of this Act (including any municipality that later adopted a home-rule charter) and that have functioned or attempted to function as incorporated cities or towns since their incorporation or attempted incorporation, are validated in all respects as of the date of the incorporation or attempted incorporation. The incorporation proceedings may not be held invalid because they were not performed in accordance with law.

Governmental Proceedings

Sec. 2. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns since their incorporation are validated in all respects as of the date of the proceedings.

Pending and Completed Litigation

Sec. 3. This Act does not apply to any matter involved in litigation on the date this Act takes effect if the litigation ultimately results against the legality of the matter. This Act does not apply to any matter that has been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974d–33. Validation of Incorporation, Boundary Lines, and Governmental Proceedings; Exceptions

Incorporation Proceedings

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of all cities and towns initially incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws after May 23, 1980, which have functioned or attempted to function as incorporated cities or towns since their incorporation or attempted incorporation, are validated in all respects as of the date of the incorporation or attempted incorporation. The incorporation proceedings may not be held invalid because they were not performed in accordance with law.

Boundaries

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of such cities and towns, including any subsequent extensions of the boundaries by annexation, and the reduction or contraction of the boundaries by the discontinuation and disannexation of territory are validated in all respects, except that the extension of a boundary line by annexation into the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city or town or the incorporation of a city or town in the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city or town without that city’s or town’s consent, in violation of the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), is not validated by this Act.

Governmental Proceedings

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns since their incorporation are validated in all respects as of the date of the proceedings.

Pending and Completed Litigation

Sec. 4. This Act does not apply to any matter involved in litigation on the date this Act takes effect if the litigation ultimately results against the legality of the matter. This Act does not apply to any matter that has been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974d–34. Validation of Annexation and Governmental Proceedings; Cities, Towns, and Villages of 200 or More

Application

Sec. 1. This Act applies to any incorporated city, town, or village having a population of 200 or more, according to the most recent federal census, that annexed or attempted to annex territory before January 1, 1980.

Proceedings Validated

Sec. 2. (a) Except as provided by Subsection (c) of this section, the governmental acts and proceedings of a city, town, or village covered by this Act relating to the annexation or attempted annexation of territory by the city, town, or village are validated as of the dates they occurred. The acts and proceedings may not be held invalid because they were not performed in accordance with law.

(b) The governmental acts and proceedings of the city, town, or village occurring since the annexation and before the effective date of this Act are validated as of the dates they occurred.

(c) This Act does not validate governmental acts or proceedings relating to a city’s, town’s, or village’s annexation or attempted annexation of:

(1) territory in the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city, town, or village without the consent of that city, town, or village in violation of the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 970a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes); or

(2) an area extending from the coastline into the Gulf of Mexico.
Effect on Litigation

Sec. 3. This Act does not apply to any matter that on the effective date of this Act:

(1) is involved in litigation if the litigation ultimately results in the matter being held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(2) has been held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974d-35. Validation of Incorporation and Governmental Proceedings; Cities and Towns of 5,000 or Less

Incorporation Proceedings,

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of all cities and towns having a population of 5,000 or less, according to the most recent federal census, that incorporated or attempted to incorporate under the general laws of this state before the effective date of this Act (including any municipality that later adopted a home-rule charter) and that have functioned or attempted to function as incorporated cities or towns since their incorporation or attempted incorporation, are validated in all respects as of the date of the incorporation or attempted incorporation. The incorporation proceedings may not be held invalid because they were not performed in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns since their incorporation are validated in all respects as of the date of the proceedings.

Sec. 3. This Act does not apply to any matter involved in litigation on the date this Act takes effect if the litigation ultimately results in the matter being held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974e-1. Procedure for Annexation of Unoccupied Lands to Cities or Towns of 1251 to 1259 Population

Sec. 1. The owner or owners of any land and/or territory, which is vacant and without residents, contiguous and adjacent to any city in this State having a population of not less than twelve hundred fifty-one (1251) and not more than twelve hundred fifty-nine (1259) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census; may by petition in writing to the governing body of such city request the annexation of such contiguous and adjacent land and territory, describing the same by metes and bounds. The governing body of such city or town shall thereafter, and not less than five (5) and not more than thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition, hear such petition and the arguments for and against the same, and grant or refuse such petition as such governing body may see fit. If such governing body shall grant such petition, the said governing body by proper ordinance may receive and annex such territory as a part of said city. Thereafter the territory so received and annexed shall become a part of said city, and the said land and any future inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens of such city; and shall be bound by the acts and ordinances of such city.

Sec. 2. No such petition for annexation of such contiguous and adjacent territory shall be received and acted upon by such governing body of such city unless and until each and every person and corporation having any interest in such land and territory sought to be annexed, shall have executed the petition hereinabove mentioned and duly acknowledged same as provided for acknowledgments for deeds. If such petition shall be granted and the ordinance hereinabove mentioned adopted by such governing body, a certified copy of such ordinance together with a copy or a duplicate of such petition duly acknowledged as required for deeds by each and every person or corporation having an interest in such land, shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such city is situated.

Art. 974e-3. Procedure for Annexation of Unoccupied Lands to Cities or Towns of 1260 or More Population

Sec. 1. The owner or owners of any land and/or territory, or the Board of Trustees of any school or schools which occupy such territory, which is vacant and without residents, contiguous and adjacent to any city in this State having a population of not less than twelve hundred fifty-one (1251) and not more than twelve hundred fifty-nine (1259) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census; may by petition in writing to the governing body of such city request the annexation of such contiguous and adjacent land and territory, describing the same by metes and bounds. The governing body of such city or town shall thereafter, and not less than five (5) and not more than thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition, hear such petition and the arguments for and against the same, and grant or refuse such petition as such governing body may see fit. If such governing body shall grant such petition, the said governing body by proper ordinance may receive and annex such territory as a part of said city. Thereafter the territory so received and annexed shall become a part of said city, and the said land and any future inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens of such city; and shall be bound by the acts and ordinances of such city.
Art. 974e-1

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Sec. 2. No such petition for annexation of such contiguous and adjacent territory shall be received and acted upon by such governing body of such city unless and until each and every person and corporation having any interest in such land and territory sought to be annexed, shall have executed and acknowledged as required for deeds by each and every person or corporation an interest in such land, shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such city is situated. [Acts 1939, 46th Leg., Spec. L., p. 520.]

Art. 974e-2. Procedure for Annexation of Unoccupied Lands to Cities of 20,520 to 20,540 Population

Sec. 1. The owner or owners of any land or territory, which is vacant and without residents contiguous and adjacent to any city in this State having a population of not less than twenty thousand five hundred and twenty (20,520) nor more than twenty thousand five hundred and forty (20,540) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, may by petition in writing to the governing body of such city request the annexation of such contiguous and adjacent land and territory, describing the same by metes and bounds. The governing body of such city or town shall thereafter, not less than five (5) and not more than thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition, hear such petition and the arguments for and against the same and grant or refuse such petition as such governing body may see fit. If such governing body shall grant such petition the said governing body by proper ordinance may receive and annex such territory as a part of said city. Thereafter the territory so received and annexed shall become a part of said city, and the said land and any future inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens of such city; and shall be bound by the acts and ordinances of such city.

Sec. 2. No such petition for annexation of such contiguous and adjacent territory shall be received and acted upon by such governing body of such city unless and until each and every person and corporation having any interest in such land and territory sought to be annexed, have executed the petition hereinabove mentioned and duly acknowledged same as provided for acknowledgments for deeds. If such petition shall be granted and the ordinance hereinabove mentioned adopted by such governing body, a certified copy of such ordinance together with a copy or a duplicate of such petition duly acknowledged as required for deeds by each and every person or corporation having an interest in such land, shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such city is situated. [Acts 1939, 46th Leg., Spec. L., p. 520.]

Art. 974e-3. Procedure for Annexation of Unoccupied Lands to Cities of 14,100 to 14,950 Population

Sec. 1. The owner or owners of any land or territory, which is vacant and without residents, contiguous and adjacent to any city in this State having a population of not less than fourteen thousand, one hundred (14,100) inhabitants and not more than fourteen thousand, nine hundred and fifty (14,950) inhabitants, according to the Federal Census last preceding the exercise of the power herein granted, may by petition in writing to the governing body of such city request the annexation of such contiguous and adjacent land and territory, describing the same by metes and bounds. The governing body of such city or town shall thereafter, not less than five (5) and not more than thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition, hear such petition and the arguments for and against the same and grant or refuse such petition as such governing body may see fit. If such governing body shall grant such petition the said governing body by proper ordinance may receive and annex such territory as a part of said city. Thereafter the territory so received and annexed shall become a part of said city, and the said land and any future inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens of such city, and shall be bound by the acts and ordinances of such city.

Sec. 2. No such petition for annexation of such contiguous and adjacent territory shall be received and acted upon by such governing body of such city unless and until each and every person and corporation owning such part of such land and territory sought to be annexed, have executed the petition hereinabove mentioned and duly acknowledged same as provided for acknowledgments for deeds. If such petition shall be granted and the ordinance hereinabove mentioned adopted by such governing body, a certified copy of such ordinance together with a copy or a duplicate of such petition duly acknowledged as required for deeds by the owners of such land shall be filed in the office of the County Clerk of the county in which such city is situated. [Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 423, ch. 252.]

Art. 974e-4. Procedure for Annexation of Unoccupied Lands to Cities of 1,583 to 1,602 Population

Sec. 1. The owner or owners of any land and/or territory, which is vacant and without residents, contiguous and adjacent to any city in this State having a population of not less than one thousand, five hundred and eighty-three (1,583) inhabitants and not more than one thousand, six hundred and two (1,602) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, may by petition in writing to the governing body of such city request the annexation of such contiguous and adjacent land and territory, describing the same by metes and bounds. The governing body of such city or town shall thereafter, and not less than five and not more than thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition, hear such petition and the arguments for and against the same, and grant or refuse such petition as such governing body may see fit. If such governing body shall grant such petition, the said governing body by proper ordinance may receive and annex such territory as a part of said city. Thereafter the territory so received and annexed shall become a part of said city, and the said land and any future inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of citizens of such city; and shall be bound by the acts and ordinances of such city.

Sec. 2. No such petition for annexation of such contiguous and adjacent territory shall be received and acted upon by such governing body of such city unless and until each and every person and corporation having any interest in such land and territory sought to be annexed, shall have executed the petition hereinabove mentioned and duly acknowledged as required for deeds by each and every person or corporation having interest in such land, shall be filed in the office of the County Clerk of the county in which such city is situated.

Art. 974e-5. Procedure for Annexation of Unoccupied Lands to Cities of 3,944 to 3,964 Population

Sec. 1. The owner or owners of any land and/or territory, or the Board of Trustees of any public school, which occupies such territory, which is vacant and without residents contiguous and adjacent to any city, in this State having a population of not less than nine hundred (900) nor more than nine hundred and twenty (920) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, may by petition in writing to the governing body of such city request the annexation of such contiguous and adjacent land and territory, describing the same by metes and bounds. The governing body of such city or town shall thereafter, and not less than five (5) and not more than thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition, hear such petition and the arguments for and against the same, and grant or refuse such petition as such governing body may see fit. If such governing body shall grant such petition, the said governing body by proper ordinance may receive and annex such territory as a part of said city. Thereafter the territory so received and annexed shall become a part of said city, and the said land and any future inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of citizens of such city; and shall be bound by the acts and ordinance of such city.

Sec. 2. No such petition for annexation of such contiguous and adjacent territory shall be received and acted upon by such governing body of such city unless and until each and every person and corporation having any interest in such land and territory sought to be annexed, shall have executed the petition hereinabove mentioned and duly acknowledged same as provided for acknowledgments of deeds. If such petition shall be granted and the ordinance hereinabove mentioned adopted by such governing body, a certified copy of such ordinance together with a copy or a duplicate of such petition duly acknowledged as required for deeds by each and every person or corporation having interest in such land, shall be filed in the office of the County Clerk of the county in which such city is situated.
acknowledged as required for deeds by each and every person or corporation having interest in such land, shall be filed in the office of the County Clerk of the county in which such city is situated.

Art. 974e-7. Annexation of Vacant Land to City

Sec. 1. The owner or owners of any land and/or territory, which is vacant and without residents, contiguous and adjacent to any city in this State having a population of not less than two thousand, three hundred and fifteen (2,315) inhabitants, and not more than two thousand, four hundred (2,400) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, may by petition in writing to the governing body of such city request the annexation of such contiguous and adjacent land and territory, describing the same by metes and bounds. The governing body of such city or town shall thereafter, and not less than five (5) and not more than thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition, hear such petition and the arguments for and against the same, and grant or refuse such petition as such governing body may see fit. If such governing body shall grant such petition, the said governing body by proper ordinance may receive and annex such territory as a part of said city. Thereafter the territory so received and annexed shall become a part of said city and the said land and any future inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens of such city, and shall be bound by the acts and ordinances of such city.

Sec. 2. No such petition for annexation of such contiguous and adjacent territory shall be received and acted upon by such governing body of such city unless and until each and every person and corporation having any interest in such land and territory sought to be annexed, shall have executed the petition hereinafore mentioned and duly acknowledged same as provided for acknowledgments for deeds. If such petition shall be granted and the ordinance hereinafore mentioned adopted by such governing body, a certified copy of such ordinance together with a copy or a duplicate of such petition duly acknowledged as required for deeds by each and every person or corporation having an interest in such land, shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such city is situated.

Art. 974e-8. Annexation of Levee Improvement District; Effect; Contracts

Sec. 1. Any city, including Home Rule cities and those operating under General Laws or special charters, having a population in excess of four hundred twenty-five thousand (425,000) according to the last preceding Federal Census, which has heretofore annexed or may hereafter annex all of the territory within a levee improvement district organized under the laws of the State of Texas, shall take over the properties and assets and shall assume all debts, liabilities and obligations and perform all functions and services of such district, and such district shall be abolished. No ablation of such levee improvement district shall affect or impair any existing contracts by and between such levee improvement district and any flood control district or other governmental agency for operation or maintenance of levees or other flood control works, but the city shall assume the rights and obligations of the levee improvement district under such contract or contracts. In the event of annexation of the whole district, and the taking over of the assets and liabilities of such a district, the annexing city shall have the power and authority to refund, in whole or in part, any outstanding bonded indebtedness and provide for a sufficient sinking fund to meet the refunding bonds if any are issued.

When less than all of the territory within any such district is so annexed, the governing authorities of such city and district shall be authorized to enter into contracts in regard to the division and allocation of duplicate and overlapping powers, functions and duties between such agencies, and in regard to the use, management, control, purchase, conveyance, assumption and disposition of the properties, assets, debts, liabilities and obligations of such district; provided, however, that the amount of taxes levied by the levee improvement district against any parcel of real estate hereafter so annexed shall be credited against any ad valorem taxes levied against such parcel of real estate by the city. Any such district is expressly authorized to enter into agreements with such city for the operation of the district's utility systems and other properties by such city, and may provide for the transfer, conveyance or sale of such systems and properties of whatever kind and wherever situated (including properties outside the city) to such city upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon by and between the governing bodies of such district and city. Such operating contracts may extend for such period of time not exceeding thirty (30) years as may be stipulated therein and shall be subject to amendment, renewal or termination by mutual consent of such governing bodies. No such contract shall contain any provision impairing the obligation of any existing contract of such city or district.

In the absence of such contract, the district shall be authorized to continue to exercise all the powers and functions and be required to discharge such duties and obligations granted to it, or imposed upon it, by law, wholly unaffected by the annexation. The annexing city shall not be required or be obligated to perform any drainage functions in the district; provided however, that the city may, with the consent of the district, construct and maintain drainage facilities therein consistent with the plan of reclamation of such district. The city may, however, perform all other municipal functions which it is authorized to perform and in which the district is not engaged, nor authorized to perform.
Sec. 2. If any clause, phrase, sentence, paragraph, section or provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any particular person or thing, is held to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remainder of this Act or the application thereof to any other person or thing.

Art. 974f. Annexation of Streets, Highways and Alleys by Cities and Towns of 1245 to 1260; Procedure

All cities and towns within the State of Texas, having a population of not less than twelve hundred and forty-five (1245) and not more than twelve hundred and sixty (1260), according to the last preceding federal census, may, by ordinance duly passed and enacted by the governing bodies of such cities and towns, after the same shall have been advertised as provided by Article 1013 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, annex streets, highways, and alleys adjacent to the city limits of such cities and towns, and incorporate such highways, streets, and alleys within the corporate limits of such cities and towns.

Art. 974f-1. Annexation of Streets, Highways, and Alleys by Cities of 17,850 to 17,900

Sec. 1. Any city incorporated and operating under the general laws of this State, having not less than 17,850 inhabitants nor more than 17,900 inhabitants according to the last preceding federal census, may, by ordinance duly passed and enacted by its governing body, annex streets, highways, and alleys contiguous and adjacent to the city limits, and incorporate such streets, highways, and alleys within the corporate limits of the city.

Sec. 2. Before the governing body of a city may pass and enact the ordinance described in Section 1 of this Act, the governing body must advertise the ordinance as provided by Article 1013, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

Art. 974f-2. Annexation of Adjacent Streets, Highways, and Alleys by Cities of 4,350 to 4,375

Sec. 1. Any city incorporated and operating under the general laws of this state, having a population of not less than 4,350 but less than 4,375 according to the last preceding federal census, may, by ordinance duly passed and enacted by its governing body, annex streets, highways, and alleys contiguous and adjacent to the city limits, and incorporate those streets, highways, and alleys within the corporate limits of the city.

Sec. 2. Before the governing body of a city may pass and enact the ordinance described in Section 1 of this Act, the governing body must advertise the ordinance as provided by Article 1013, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

Art. 974f-3. Annexation of Adjacent Street, Highway, or Alley by City of Wickett

Sec. 1. The city of Wickett by ordinance may annex a street, highway, or alley adjacent to the city limits.

Sec. 2. Not later than the 10th day before the city enacts an annexation ordinance under Section 1 of this Act, the city shall publish notice of the proposed annexation in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The notice shall generally describe the street, highway, or alley to be annexed.

Art. 974g. Annexation by Cities of Territory Occupied by Less Than Three Voters

Sec. 1. The owner or owners of any land or territory, to the extent of one-half (½) mile in width, which is vacant and without residents, or on which less than three (3) qualified voters reside, contiguous and adjacent to any incorporated city or town within this State, may by petition in writing to the governing body of such city or town request the annexation of such contiguous and adjacent land and territory, describing the same by metes and bounds, said petition to be duly acknowledged as required for deeds by each and every person or corporation having an interest in said land. The governing body of such city or town shall thereupon, and not less than five (5) and not more than thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition, hear such petition and the arguments for and against the same, and grant or refuse such petition as such governing body may fit. If such governing body shall grant such petition, the said governing body by proper ordinance may receive and annex such territory as a part of such city or town. Thereafter the territory so received and annexed shall become a part of such city or town, and the said land and any future inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens of such city or town, and shall be bound by the acts and ordinances of such city or town. If such petition shall be granted and the ordinance hereinabove mentioned adopted by such governing body, a certified copy of such ordinance together with a copy or a duplicate of such petition shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such city or town is situated.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject of annexation of land or territory by incorporated cities and towns in the State.

Art. 974g-1. CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Art. 974g-1. Cities, Towns, and Villages; Power to Annex Navigable Streams

Sec. 1. The governing body of any city, town, or village incorporated and operating under the general laws of this state may by ordinance extend the corporate limits thereof to include therein any navigable stream lying adjacent thereto and within the extraterritorial jurisdiction thereof as determined in accordance with the provisions of the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Sec. 2. In any instance where any such city, town, or village incorporated and operating under the general laws of this state has extended its boundaries by annexing navigable streams lying adjacent thereto and within the extraterritorial jurisdiction thereof as determined in accordance with the provisions of the Municipal Annexation Act, the annexation and boundary lines and all related proceedings are validated, without regard to any procedural irregularity that may have occurred and without regard to any lack of authority on the part of such city, town, or village to annex such navigable stream. All governmental acts and proceedings of said city, town, or village since its annexation are valid.

Sec. 3. The validation contained in Section 2 of this article does not apply to any annexation that on the effective date of this article is involved in litigation and such litigation ultimately results in such annexation being held invalid, or to any annexation that has been held invalid by the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction on or before the effective date of this article.

Section 2 of the 1983 Act provides:

"If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, or part of this Act shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, or for other reasons void or unconstitutional, it shall not affect any other word, phrase, clause, sentence or part of this Act, and such remaining portions shall remain in full force and effect."

Art. 974g-2. Cities', Towns', and Villages' Power to Annex Gulfward up to 5,280 Feet

The governing body of any city, town, or village incorporated and operating under the general laws of this state and lying adjacent to the coastline of the Gulf of Mexico may by ordinance extend the corporate limits thereof up to 5,280 feet gulfward beyond the coastline, as that term is defined in Section 11.013 of the Natural Resources Code.

Art. 974-1. Annexation by Petition and Election

 Territory adjoining the limits of any city having a population greater than 5,000 inhabitants according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, and operating under the General Laws of Texas, may become a part of such city in the following manner:

The inhabitants of such territory may petition said city to order an election to be held within such territory for the purpose of voting upon the question of whether such territory shall become a part of such city. Such petition shall contain a metes and bounds description of the territory, which shall not be more than one mile in width, be accompanied by a plat of the territory, and shall be signed by 100, or more, or by a majority, of the qualified electors residing within such territory. Upon the filing of such petition with the City Secretary or City Clerk of such city, the City Council may, by ordinance, order such election so requested. Such ordinance shall specify the day on which such election shall be held, designate the place or places for holding such election, appoint the election officers and prescribe the form of the ballot. Ten days notice of such election shall be given by posting a copy of such ordinance, certified by the City Secretary or City Clerk, in three public places in said territory, and by publishing the same for one time in some newspaper published in such territory or in such city. Such election shall be held in the manner prescribed for general city elections; only qualified electors residing within such territory shall be permitted to vote and the cost of such election shall be paid by such city. Returns of such election shall be made to the City Council of such city, and shall be canvassed and the result of such election declared by the City Council by an order entered in its minutes, which order shall be conclusive of the authority to annex such territory to such city. Should the results of such election show a majority in favor of becoming a part of such city, such City Council may by ordinance receive such territory as a part of such city. Thereafter, the territory so received shall be a part of such city, and the inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens, and bound by the acts and ordinances made in conformity thereto and passed in pursuance of this title.

Art. 974-2. Contest of Annexation Proceeding

To contest the validity of any annexation proceeding had under the provisions of Section 1 of this Act, such contestant shall, within 60 days after the effective date of the ordinance annexing such territory, file with the City Secretary or City Clerk of such city, written notice and a written statement of the grounds on which such contestant relies to sustain such contest. In the event no such contest is filed with the City Secretary or City Clerk in the manner and within the time above stated, it shall be conclusively presumed that said election as held and the results thereof as declared by the City Council or City Commission, are in all respects valid and final and binding upon all courts. The provisions of Chapter 9, Title 50, of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925, and amendments thereto, not in conflict herewith, shall be applicable to all proceedings contesting the validity of any annexation proceeding had under Section 1 hereof, so far as applicable.

1 Article 974-1.

Art. 975. Segregating Territory
Whenever fifty qualified voters of any territory within the limits of any incorporated town shall sign and present a petition to the mayor of such city, praying that such territory, setting the same out by metes and bounds, be declared no longer a part of such town, the mayor thereof shall order an election within thirty days thereafter to be held at the different voting precincts of said town; and if a majority of the legal voters of said town voting at such election cast their votes in favor of discontinuing said territory as a part of said town, the mayor of said city shall declare such territory no longer a part of said city, and shall enter an order to that effect on the minutes or records of the city council, and from and after the date of such order, said territory shall cease to be a part of said town; provided, no city or town shall thus be reduced to a less area than one square mile or one mile in diameter around the center of the original corporate limits.

Art. 976. Liable for Debts
Whenever any territory shall withdraw as above provided, and such city or town shall at the time of such withdrawal owe any debts by bond or otherwise, such withdrawing territory shall not be released from the payment of its pro rata of such indebtedness; but it shall be the duty of said city council to continue to levy an ad valorem tax each year on the property of such territory of the same rate as is levied upon other property of such city, until the taxes collected from said territory shall equal its pro rata share of the indebtedness of said city or town at the time of the withdrawal. The taxes so collected shall be charged only with the cost of levying and collecting the same, and the same shall be applied exclusively to the payment of said pro rata share of indebtedness. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the inhabitants of said territory from paying in full, at any time, their pro rata share of the indebtedness of said city.

Art. 976a. Zoning Ordinances Upon Annexation
Sec. 1. From and after the effective date of this Act, before any municipal corporation or city existing, or which may hereafter come into existence, as provided by Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of this State, and which municipal corporation or city has in effect a comprehensive zoning ordinance as prescribed by the State Statutes, may be annexed to or incorporated into another such municipal corpora-

Art. 976c. Validation of Certain Contracts of Cities of 900,000

Sec. 1. This Act is applicable only to cities (including Home Rule Cities) having a population in excess of 900,000, according to the last preceding Federal Census or any future Federal Census.

Sec. 2. In every instance where the governing body of an incorporated city (including Home Rule Cities) in this State has, prior to the date when this Act becomes effective, entered into contracts involving terms in excess of five (5) years for the use of land or interest in land owned or to be acquired by such city and for the purchase of services related to garbage disposal and for the disposal of garbage on a contract basis and has, prior to the date when this Act becomes effective, adopted orders or ordinances to authorize or ratify execution of such contracts, all such contracts and all proceedings, governmental acts, ordinances, orders, resolutions and other instruments thus adopted or executed by or in behalf of the governing body of any such incorporated city (including Home Rule Cities) relating thereto are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any contract executed by any city (including Home Rule Cities) the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 3. The Legislature hereby finds and declares the election and direction and enforcement of the laws enacted pursuant to the accomplishment of such purposes and the subject matter of this legislation are for the protection and preservation of the health and public welfare of the inhabitants and that this legislation is for a public purpose and validated and the contracts hereby authorized for the promotion of the health and public welfare and use and promotes the public interest and the subject matter of this legislation are for the public convenience, necessity and use, and that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any contract executed by any city (including Home Rule Cities) the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

CHAPTER TWO. OFFICERS AND THEIR ELECTION

Art. 977. City Officials

The municipal government of the city shall consist of a city council composed of the mayor and two (2) aldermen from each ward, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except at called meetings, or meetings for the imposition of taxes, when two-thirds (2/3) of a full board shall be required, unless otherwise specified, provided that where the city or town is not divided into wards, the city council shall be composed of the mayor and five (5) aldermen, and the provisions of this title relating to proceedings in a ward shall apply to a whole city or town. The above-named officers shall be elected by the qualified electors of the city for a term of two (2) years. Other officers of the corporation shall be a treasurer, an assessor and collector, a secretary, a city attorney, a marshal, a city engineer, and such other officers and agents as the city council may from time to time direct, who may either be appointed or elected as provided by ordinance. The city council may confer the powers and duties of one or more of these offices upon other officers of the city.

Art. 978. Election

An election shall be held annually in each ward of said city on the first Saturday in April, at such places as the city council may direct, and of which twenty days' notice shall be given. Such election shall be ordered and notice thereof given, and the election officers and watchers appointed, as provided by the general laws pertaining to elections. The election officers must be qualified voters in the city. The city council shall provide for their compensation.

Art. 978a. Date of Election in Home Rule Cities

Sec. 1. The governing body of any Home Rule City is authorized to set the date of election of officers of such city.

Sec. 2. [Designated as art. 978b and amended].

Art. 978b. Joint Elections in Cities and School Districts

Whenever an election of members of the board of school trustees of any school district, all or part of which is located within all or part of the territory of any home rule city or general law city, is to be held on the same day as an election of city officers of such city, the various officers, boards or bodies charged with the duty of appointing the election officers, providing the supplies, canvassing the returns, and paying the expenses of such elections may agree to hold the elections jointly and may agree upon the method for allocating the expenses for the joint election. Resolutions reciting the terms of the agreement shall be adopted by each of the participating boards or bodies. The agreement may provide for use of a single ballot form at each polling place, to contain all the offices to be voted on at that polling place, or for separate ballot forms, provided that all the offices and candidates for each city shall appear on the same ballot and all the offices and candidates for each school district shall appear on the same ballot; provided further, that no voter shall be given a ballot containing the name of any candidate for whom the voter is ineligible to vote. One set of election officers may be appointed to conduct the joint election, and any person otherwise qualified who is a resident of either the city or school district concerned shall be eligible to serve as an election officer. Poll lists, tally sheets, and return forms for the various elections may be combined in any manner convenient and adequate to record and report the results of each election, and one set of ballot boxes and one stub box may be used for receiving all ballots and ballot stubs for the joint election. Returns on joint or separate forms may be made to, and the canvass made by, each officer, board or body designated by law to receive and canvass the returns of each election, or one of such officers, boards or bodies may be designated to receive and canvass the returns for the joint election and to report the results of each election to the proper authority. Where the counted ballots for two or more of the elections are deposited in a single ballot box, the box containing the counted ballots shall be returned to the officer or board designated in the agreement, which shall be an officer or board designated by law to receive and preserve the counted ballots for one of the elections constituting a part of the joint election.

Art. 979: Ward Election of Councilmen

At the first election under this title there shall be elected a mayor, and two aldermen from each ward, one of whom shall hold office for one year, and the other for two years from the date of their election, to be determined by lot at the first regular meeting after said election. At each annual election thereafter there shall be elected one alderman from each ward, who shall hold office for two years. If the city or town is not divided into wards, the city council may determine by ordinance what number of aldermen shall go out of office in one year, and the manner of deciding which shall hold for the long term and which for the short term.

Art. 980. Conduct of the Election

The ballots for each ward shall be taken separately. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the election shall be held and the returns thereof shall be made and canvassed in accordance with the general laws pertaining to municipal elections, and the persons receiving the highest number of votes for the respective offices shall be declared elected. In the first election held hereunder, the two persons from the same ward receiving the highest number of votes in the city for aldermen of the wards for which they are candidates shall be declared elected aldermen of such wards.

Art. 980a. Election of Governing Body on Place System in Cities of 5,960 to 5,970

The governing body of a city with a population larger than 5,960 but smaller than 5,970, according to the last preceding federal census, may, by ordinance, provide that the members of the governing body shall be elected on the place system rather than the precinct system.

Art. 980b. Election of Aldermen by Place System in Cities and Towns not Divided into Wards

In any city or town not divided into wards and incorporated under the general laws, and which city or town elects its aldermen from the city at large, at least sixty (60) days prior to any regular city election the city council may by ordinance provide that aldermen shall be elected by the place system. As soon as possible after the enactment of such ordinance, the city council shall assign place numbers to the offices of aldermen then held by the incumbent members thereof. Thereafter, as terms of incumbent aldermen expire, any candidate for the office of alderman in any city election in such city or town shall file his application for a specific place on the council, such as, "Alderman, Place No. 1", "Alderman, Place No. 2", "Alderman, Place No. 3", "Alderman, Place No. 4", or "Alderman, Place No. 5." In such election the ballot shall show each office of alderman as a separate office by place number, with the name of each candidate printed thereon under the specific office for which he is a candidate.

days after his election, his office shall be deemed vacant, and a new election held to fill the same. The city council-elect shall meet at the usual place of meeting on the fifth day, Sundays excepted, after their election or as soon thereafter as possible, and be installed under the provisions of this title.

Art. 987. Qualifications of Officers

Sec. 1. No person shall be eligible to the office of mayor unless he is a qualified elector and has resided twelve months next preceding the election within the city limits. In determining whether a person has complied with the durational residency requirement, residency in an area while the area was not within the city limits is considered as residency within the city limits if the area is a part of the city on the date of the election.

Sec. 2. To be eligible for aldermen, one must reside in the ward from which he may be elected at the time of his election. If any alderman removes from the ward in which he was elected, his office shall be deemed vacant.

See, now, art. 988b.

Art. 988a. Purchases by City, Town, or County From Cooperative Association of Which Officer is Member

An incorporated city or town or a county may purchase equipment or supplies from a cooperative association to which one or more members of its governing body or of an appointed board or commission thereunder belongs if no member of the governing body, board, or commission will receive a pecuniary benefit from the purchase except as is reflected in an increase in dividends distributed generally to members of the cooperative association.

Art. 988b. Actions in Which Local Public Official has Interest

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Local public official" means a member of the governing body or another officer, whether elected or appointed, paid or unpaid, of any district (including a school district), county, city, precinct, central appraisal district, transit authority or district, or other local governmental entity who exercises responsibilities beyond those that are advisory in nature.

(2) "Business entity" means a sole proprietorship, partnership, firm, corporation, holding company, joint-stock company, receivership, trust, or any other entity recognized in law.

Substantial Interest

Sec. 2. (a) A person has a substantial interest in a business if:

(1) the interest is ownership of 10 percent or more of the voting stock or shares of the business entity or ownership of $2,500 or more of the fair market value of the business entity; or

(2) funds received by the person from the business entity exceed 10 percent of the person's gross income for the previous year.

(b) A person has a substantial interest in real property if the interest is an equitable or legal ownership with a fair market value of $2,500 or more.

(c) An interest of a person related in the first or second degree by either affinity or consanguinity to the local public official is a "substantial interest."

Prohibited Acts

Sec. 3. (a) Except as provided by Section 5 of this Act, a local public official commits an offense if he knowingly:

(1) participates in a vote or decision on a matter involving a business entity in which the local public official has a substantial interest if it is reasonably foreseeable that an action on the matter would confer an economic benefit to the business entity involved;

(2) acts as surety for a business entity that has a contract, work, or business with the governmental entity; or

(3) acts as surety on any official bond required of an officer of the governmental entity.

(b) An offense under this section is a Class A misdemeanor.

Affidavit

Sec. 4. If a local public official or a person related to that official in the first or second degree by either affinity or consanguinity has a substantial interest in a business entity that would be peculiarly affected by any official action taken by the governing body, the local public official, before a vote or decision on the matter, shall file an affidavit stating the nature and extent of the interest and shall abstain from further participation in the matter. The affidavit must be filed with the official recordkeeper of the governmental entity.

Exceptions

Sec. 5. (a) The governing body of a governmental entity may contract for the purchase of services or personal property with a business entity in which a member of the governing body has a substantial interest if the business entity is the only business entity that provides the needed service or product within the jurisdiction of the governmental entity and is the only business entity that bids on the contract.

(b) The governing body must take a separate vote on any budget item specifically dedicated to a contract with an entity in which a member of the governing body has a substantial interest and the affected member must abstain from that separate vote. The member who has complied in abstaining from such vote under procedures set forth in Sections 3 and 4 of this Act may vote on a final budget only after the matter in which he is concerned has been resolved.

Removal From Office

Sec. 6. The penalties and remedies provided by this article do not limit common law remedies of tort, contract, or equity, including a suit for damages, injunction, or mandamus. The finding by a court of a violation under this article does not render an action of the governing body voidable unless the measure that was the subject of an action involving conflict of interest would not have passed the governing body without the vote of the person who violated this article.

Art. 990. Special Election

Whenever a vacancy occurs by resignation or otherwise, in the municipal offices of any incorporated city or town in this State, so that the vacancy cannot be filled under the charter of said city or town, or under the laws of this State now in force, then the commissioners court of said county in which said town or city is situated, upon a petition of not less than twenty-six tax paying voters living in such city, shall order an election to be held to fill such vacancy, giving notice of not less than ten days in the usual manner provided for such elections, which shall be held in like manner as similar elections and the officers so elected shall in like manner be qualified and installed.

Art. 991. Mayor Pro Tempore

At the first meeting of each new council, or as soon thereafter as practicable, one of the aldermen shall be elected president pro tempore, who shall hold his office for one year. In case of the failure, inability or refusal of the mayor to act, the president pro tempore shall perform the duties and receive the fees and compensation of the mayor.

Art. 992. Change of Wards

The wards of each city accepting the provisions of this title shall be and remain unchanged by its acceptance. The city council shall have power from time to time to cause a division of said city to be made into as many wards as they may deem necessary, and for the good of the inhabitants of said city, and may change the boundaries of the same. No such division or change shall be made unless it be done at least three months preceding the city election next ensuing; and said wards so established shall contain as far as practicable an equal number of voters.

Art. 993

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Art. 994. Oath

Every person elected or appointed to fill an office under this title shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the official oath. The city council by ordinance may require such additional oath as it may deem best calculated to secure faithfulness in the performance of their duties by such officers.

Art. 995. Duties of Mayor

The mayor shall be the chief executive officer of said corporation, and shall be active at all times in causing the laws and ordinances of said city to be duly executed and put in force. He shall inspect the conduct of all subordinate officers in the government thereof, and, shall cause all negligence, carelessness and other violations of duty to be prosecuted and punished. He shall have power, if in his judgment the good of the city may require it, to summon meetings of the city council; and he shall communicate to that body such information and recommend such measures as may tend to the improvement of the finances, the police, health, security, cleanliness, comfort, ornament and good government of said city.

Art. 996. Powers of the Mayor

The mayor shall have power to administer oaths of office. He shall have authority in case of a riot or any unlawful assemblage, or with a view to preserve peace and good order in said city, to order and enforce the closing of any theatre, ball room, or other place of resort, or public room or building, and may order the arrest of any person violating in his presence, the laws of this State, or any ordinance of the city. He shall perform such other duties and possess and exercise such other power and authority as may be prescribed and conferred by the city council.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 997. Ordinances and Resolutions

All ordinances and resolutions adopted by the council shall, before they take effect, be placed in the office of the city secretary; and the mayor shall sign those he approves. Such as he shall not sign, he shall return to the city council with his objections thereto. Upon the return of any ordinance or resolution by the mayor, the vote by which the same was passed shall be reconsidered. If, after such reconsideration, a majority of the whole number of aldermen agree to pass the same, and enter their votes on the journal of their proceedings, it shall be in force. If the mayor shall neglect to approve or object to any such proceedings for a longer period than three days after the same shall be placed in the secretary's office as aforesaid, the same shall go into effect.

Art. 998. Police Officers

The city or town council in any city or town in this State, incorporated under the provisions of this title may, by ordinance, provide for the appointment, term of office and qualifications of such police officers as may be deemed necessary. Such police officers so appointed shall receive a salary or fees of office, or both, as shall be fixed by the city council. Such council may, by ordinance, provide that such police officers shall hold their office at the pleasure of the city council, and for such term as the city council directs. Such police officers shall give bond for the faithful performance of their duties, as the city council may require. Such officers shall have like powers, rights, authority and jurisdiction as are by said title vested in city marshals. Such police officers may serve all process issuing out of a corporation court anywhere in the county in which the city, town or village is situated. If the city, town or village is situated in more than one county, such officers may serve the process throughout those counties.

Art. 998a. Police Reserve Force

(a) The governing body of any city, town, or village may provide for the establishment of a police reserve force. Members of the police reserve force, if authorized, shall be appointed at the discretion of the chief of police and shall serve as peace officers during the actual discharge of official duties.

(b) The governing body shall establish qualifications and standards of training for members of the police reserve force, and may limit the size of the police reserve force.

(c) No person appointed to the police reserve force may carry a weapon or otherwise act as a peace officer until he has been approved by the governing body. After approval, he may carry a weapon only when authorized by the Chief of Police, and when discharging official duties as a duly constituted peace officer.

(d) Members of the police reserve force serve at the discretion of the chief of police and may be called into service at any time the chief of police considers it necessary to have additional officers to preserve the peace and enforce the law.

(e) Members of the police reserve force may serve without compensation but the governing body may provide uniform compensation for members of the police reserve force. The compensation shall be based solely upon time served by a member of the police reserve force while in training for, or in the performance of, official duties.

(f) The governing body may provide hospital and medical assistance to a member of the police reserve force who sustains injury in the course of performing official duties in the same manner as provided by the governing body for a full time police officer, and reserve officers shall be eligible for death benefits as set out in Chapter 86, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6228f, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), provided, however, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorize or permit a member of the police reserve force to become eligible for participation in any pension fund created pursuant to State statute to which regular officers may become a member by payroll deductions or otherwise.

(g) Reserve police officers shall act only in a supplementary capacity to the regular police force and shall in no case assume the full time duties of regular police officers without first complying with all requirements for such regular police officers.

(h) This Act does not limit the power of the mayor of any general-law city to summon into service a special police force, as provided by Article 995, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925.

Art. 999. Marshal, Duties, etc.

The marshal of the city shall be ex officio chief of police, and may appoint one or more deputies which appointment shall only be valid upon the approval of the city council. Said marshal shall, in person or by deputy, attend upon the corporation court while in session, and shall promptly and faithfully execute all writs and process issued from said court. For the purpose of executing all writs and process issued from the corporation court, the jurisdiction of the marshal extends to the boundaries of the county in which the corporation court is situated. If the corporation court is in a city which is situated in more than one county, the jurisdiction of the marshal extends to all those counties. He shall have like power, with the sheriff of the county, to execute warrants; he shall be active in quelling riots, disorder and disturbance of the peace within the city limits and shall take into custody all persons so offending against the peace of the city and shall have authority to take suitable and sufficient bail for the appearance before the corporation court of any person charged with an offense against the ordinance or laws of the city. It shall be his duty to arrest, without warrant, all violators of the public peace, and all who obstruct or interfere with him in the execution of the duties of his office or who shall be guilty of any disorderly conduct or disturbance whatever, to prevent a breach of the peace or preserve quiet and good order, he shall have authority to close any theatre, ballroom, or other place or building of public resort. In the prevention and suppression of crime and arrest of offenders, he shall have, possess and execute like power, authority, and jurisdiction as the sheriff. He shall perform such other duties and possess such other powers and authority as the city council may by ordinance require and confer, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State. The marshal shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the city council may require. He shall receive a salary or fees of office, or both, to be fixed by the city council. The governing body of any city or town having less than five thousand inhabitants according to the preceding Federal census, may by an ordinance, dispense with the office of marshal, and at the same time by such ordinance confer the duties of said office upon any peace officer of the county, but no marshal elected by the people shall be removed from his office under the provisions of this article.

Art. 999a. Marshal May be Dispensed With

The governing body of any city or town operating under the general laws having less than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, may by ordinance, dispense with the office of marshal, and at the same time by such ordinance confer the duties of said office upon a city police officer to be appointed as the city council shall direct.

Art. 999b. Law Enforcement Officers; Interlocal Assistance

Sec. 1. “Municipality” as used herein means any city or town, including home-rule city or a city operating under the general law or a special charter. “Law enforcement officer” as used herein means any policeman, sheriff, or deputy sheriff, constable, or deputy constable, marshal, or deputy marshal.

Sec. 2. Any county or municipality shall have the power by resolution or order of its governing body to make provision for, or to authorize its major or chief administrative officer, chief of police or marshal to make provision for, its regularly employed law enforcement officers to assist any other county or municipality, when in the opinion of the mayor, or other officer authorized to declare a state of civil emergency in such other county or municipality, there exists in such other county or municipality a need for the services of additional law enforcement officers to protect the health, life, and property of such other county or municipality, its inhabitants, and the visitors thereto, by reason of riot, unlawful assembly characterized by the use of force and violence, or threat thereof by three or more persons acting together or without lawful authority, or during time of natural disaster or manmade calamity.

Sec. 2a. A county or municipality may by resolution or order of its governing body enter into an agreement with any neighboring municipality or contiguous county to form a mutual aid law enforcement task force to cooperate in the investigation of criminal activity and enforcement of the laws of this state. Peace officers employed by counties or municipalities entering into such agreements shall have only such additional investigative authority throughout the region as may be set forth in the agreement. The counties or municipalities shall provide for compensation of peace officers involved in the activities of a mutual aid law enforcement task force, which provision for compensation shall be contained in the agreement.

A law enforcement officer employed by a county or municipality covered by an agreement authorized by this section may make arrests outside the county or municipality in which he is employed, but within the area covered by the agreement, provided however, that the law enforcement agencies within such county or municipality shall be notified of such arrest without delay. Such notified agency shall make available the notice of such arrest in the same manner as if said arrest were made by a member of the law enforcement agency of said county or municipality.

Sec. 3. While any law enforcement officer regularly employed as such in one county or municipality is in the service of another county or municipality pursuant to this Act, he shall be a peace officer of such other county or municipality and be under the command of the law enforcement officer therein who is in charge in that county or municipality, with all the powers of a regular law enforcement officer in such other county or municipality, as fully as though he were within the county or municipality where regularly employed and his qualification, respectively, for office where regularly employed shall constitute his qualification for office in such other county or municipality, and no other oath, bond, or compensation need be made.

Sec. 4. Any law enforcement officer who is ordered by the official designated by the governing body of any county or municipality to perform police or peace duties outside the territorial limits of the county or municipality where he is regularly employed as such officer, shall be entitled to the same wage, salary, pension, and all other compensation and all other rights for such service, including injury or death benefits, the same as though the service had been rendered within the limits of the county or municipality where he is regularly employed, and shall also be paid for any reasonable expenses of travel, food, or lodging that he may incur while on duty outside such limits.

Sec. 5. All wage and disability payments, pension payments, damage to equipment and clothing, medical expense, and expenses of travel, food, and lodging shall be paid by the county or municipality regularly employing such law enforcement officer. Upon making such payments, the county or municipality that furnished the services shall, when it so requests, be reimbursed by the county or municipality whose authorized official requested the services out of which the payments arose. Each such county or municipality is hereby expressly authorized to make such payments and reimbursements notwithstanding any provision in its charter or ordinances to the contrary.

Art. 999c. Payment of Hospitalization Costs for Peace Officers and Firemen

Sec. 1. As used in this Act:

(1) “Peace officer” means a peace officer as defined in Article 2.12, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

(2) “City” means an incorporated city or town, whether operated under a home-rule charter or incorporated under the general laws of this state.

Sec. 2. If a peace officer or fireman employed by a city sustains an injury in the performance of his duties which results in permanent incapacity for work and requires constant confinement in a hospital or other institution providing medical treatment, the city may pay all costs of such confinement in
Art. 999f. Salary Continuation Payments to Municipal Employees; Subrogation

If an incorporated city, town, or village pays benefits to a municipal employee under a salary continuation program when the employee is injured, the municipality is subrogated to the employee’s right of recovery for personal injuries caused by the tortious conduct of a third party other than another employee of the same municipality. The subrogation extends only to the extent of payments made by the municipality. That a municipal employee has a cause of action against a third party for personal injuries is not a ground for the municipality to deny benefits under a salary continuation program.

Art. 1006. Secretary, Duties, etc.

The city secretary shall attend every meeting of the city council, and keep accurate minutes of the proceedings thereof in a book to be provided for that purpose, and engross and enroll all laws, resolutions and ordinances of the city council, keep the corporate seal, take charge of and preserve and keep in order all the books, records, papers, documents and files of said council, countersign all commissions issued to city officers, and licenses issued by the mayor, and keep a record or register thereof, and make out all notices required under any resolution or ordinance of the city. The city secretary shall notify the Texas Judicial Council of the name of any person elected or appointed as a mayor, municipal court judge, or clerk of a municipal court of the city not later than the 30th day after the date of that person's election or appointment. He shall draw all the warrants on the treasurer and countersign the same and keep an accurate account thereof in a book provided for that purpose. He shall be the general accountant of the corporation, and shall keep in books regular accounts of the receipts and disbursements for the city, and separately, under proper heads, each cause of receipt and disbursement, and also accounts with each person including officers who have money transactions with the city, crediting accounts allowed by proper authority and specifying the particular transaction to which such entries apply. He shall keep a register of bonds and bills issued by the city, and all evidence of debt due and payable to it, noting the particulars thereof, and all facts connected therewith, as they occur. He shall carefully keep all contracts made by the city council; and he shall perform all such other duties as may be required of him by law, ordinance, resolution or order of the city council. He shall receive for his services an annual salary payable at stated periods, and such additional fees as the city council may allow.

Art. 1001. Treasurer, Duties, etc.

The treasurer shall give bond in favor of the city in such amount, and in such form as the city council may require, with sufficient security to be approved by the city council, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties. He shall receive and securely keep all moneys belonging to the city, and make all payments for the same upon the order of the mayor, attested by the secretary under the seal of the corporation. No order shall be paid unless the said order shall show upon its face that the city council has directed its issuance, and for what purpose. He shall render a full and correct statement of his receipts and payments to the city council, at their first regular meeting in every quarter and whenever, at other times, he may be required by them so to do. He shall do and perform such other acts and duties as the city council may require. He shall receive such compensation as the city council shall fix.

Art. 1002. Control of Officers

The city council shall have power from time to time to require other and further duties of all officers whose duties are herein prescribed, and to define and prescribe the powers and duties of all officers appointed or elected to any office under this title whose duties are not herein specially mentioned, and fix their compensation. They may also require bonds to be given to the said corporation by all officers for the faithful performance of their duties. The city council shall provide for filling vacancies in all offices, not herein provided for. In all cases of vacancy, the same shall be filled only for the unexpired term.

Art. 1004. Officer Disqualified

Any officer who has been intrusted with the collection or custody of funds belonging to a city who shall be in default to said city, shall thereafter be incapable of holding any office under said city, until the amount of his defalcation shall have been fully paid to said city, with ten per cent interest.

Art. 1005. Resignation of Officers

Resignation by any officer authorized by this title to be elected or appointed shall be made to the city council in writing, subject to their approval and acceptance. Any appointee of the mayor may present his written resignation to that officer for his action.

Art. 1006. Removal of Officers

The city council shall have power to remove any officer for incompetency, corruption, misconduct or malfeasance in office, after due notice and an opportunity to be heard in his defense. The city council shall also have power at any time to remove any officer of the corporation elected by them, by resolution declaratory of its want of confidence in said officer; provided, that two-thirds of the aldermen elected vote in favor of said resolution.

Art. 1010. Salary of Officers

The city council shall, on or before the first day of January next preceding each election, fix the salary and fees of office of the mayor to be elected at the next regular election, and fix the compensation to be paid to the officers elected or appointed by the city council. The compensation so fixed shall not be changed during the term for which said officers shall be elected or appointed.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1010a. Cities of 1,200,000 or More; Salary and Expenses of Elected Officials

Sec. 1. The city council of an incorporated city having a population of 1,200,000 or more, according to the last preceding or any future federal census, may set the salary and expenses to be paid elected city officials. Said ordinance shall not take effect until the succeeding term, and the salary of a state district court judge of the county in which the city is located shall be the comparative salary; provided that a councilman’s salary shall not exceed 40 percent of the comparative salary; the comptroller’s salary shall not exceed the comparative salary; and the mayor’s salary shall not exceed 150 percent of the comparative salary.

Sec. 2. (a) The city council may not adopt an ordinance under this Act unless the procedures prescribed by this section are followed.

(b) Before adopting an ordinance the city council shall publish notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. Notice must be published for two consecutive weeks immediately preceding the week in which the meeting is to be held and at which the proposed ordinance is to be considered. The notice must include a general description of the proposed ordinance, a statement that a public hearing will be held before the ordinance is adopted, a statement of the time and place of the hearing, and a statement that any interested person may appear and testify at the hearing.

(c) The city council must hold a public hearing before taking up an ordinance for consideration.

(d) An ordinance must be approved by a majority vote of the membership of the city council.

(e) A certified copy of an ordinance must be filed with the city secretary within 10 days after enactment, and it is effective on the first day of the succeeding term unless the ordinance prescribes a later effective date.

Sec. 3. (a) The city council may submit an ordinance adopted under this Act to the voters for their approval in the same fashion as charter amendments as provided in Article 1170, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

(b) After an election held under this Act, a two-year period of time must elapse prior to the calling of another election on the same proposition.

Art. 1011. Powers

The City Council, or other governing body shall have power to pass, publish, amend or repeal all ordinances, rules and police regulations, not contrary to the Constitution of this State, for the good government, peace and order of the City and the trade and commerce thereof, that may be necessary or proper to carry into effect the powers vested by this title in the corporation, the city government or in any department or office thereof; to enforce the observance of all such rules, ordinances and police regulations, and to punish violations thereof. No fine or penalty shall exceed $1,000 for violations of all such rules, ordinances and police regulations that govern fire safety, zoning and public health and sanitation other than vegetation and litter violations nor exceed $200 for all other violations.

Art. 1011a. Grant of Power for Zoning

For the purpose of promoting health, safety, morals, and for the protection and preservation of places and areas of historical, cultural, or architectural importance and significance, or the general welfare of the community, the legislative body of cities and incorporated villages is hereby empowered to regulate and restrict the height, number of stories, and size of buildings, and other structures, the percentage of land that may be occupied, the size of the yards, courts, and other open spaces, the density of population, and the location and use of buildings, structures, and land for trade, industry, residence, or other purpose; and, in the case of designated places and areas of historic, cultural, or architectural importance and significance, to regulate and restrict the construction, alteration, reconstruction, or razing of buildings and other structures.

Section 2 of the 1983 amendatory act provides:

“The provisions of this Act shall not apply to buildings, structures, or land under the control, administration, or jurisdiction of any federal or state agency.”

Art. 1011b. Districts

For any or all of said purposes the local legislative body may divide the municipality into districts of such number, shape, and area as may be deemed best suited to carry out the purposes of this Act; and within such districts it may regulate and restrict the erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration, repair, or use of buildings, structures, or land. All such regulations shall be uniform for each class or kind of building throughout each district, but the regulations in one district may differ from those in other districts.

Art. 1011c. Purposes in View

Such regulations shall be made in accordance with a comprehensive plan and designed to lessen congestion in the streets; to secure safety from fire, panic, and other dangers; to promote health and the general welfare; to provide adequate light and air; to prevent the overcrowding of land; to avoid undue concentration of population; to facilitate the adequate provision of transportation, water, sewerage, schools, parks, and other public requirements. Such regulations shall be made with reasonable consideration, among other things, to the character of the district and its peculiar suitability for particular uses, and with a view to conserving the value of land throughout such municipality, and it is hereby provided that this Act shall not enable cities and incorporated villages aforesaid to require the removal or destruction of property, existing at the time such city or incorporated village shall take advantage of this Act, actually and necessarily used in a public service business.

Art. 1011d. Method of Procedure

The legislative body of such municipality shall provide for the manner in which such regulations and restrictions and the boundaries of such districts shall be determined, established, and enforced, and from time to time amended, supplemented, or changed. However, no such regulation, restriction, or boundary shall become effective until after a public hearing in relation thereto, at which parties in interest and citizens shall have an opportunity to be heard. At least 15 days' notice of the time and place of such hearing shall be published in an official paper, or a paper of general circulation, in such municipality.

Art. 1011e. Changes

(a) Such regulations, restrictions, and boundaries may from time to time be amended, supplemented, changed, modified, or repealed. In case, however, of a written protest against such change, signed by the owners of 20 per cent or more either of the area of the lots or land included in such proposed change, or of the lots or land immediately adjoining the same and extending 200 feet therefrom, such amendment shall not become effective except by the favorable vote of three-fourths of all members of the legislative body of such municipality. The legislative body of a municipality may also provide by ordinance that a vote of three-fourths of all its members is required to overrule a recommendation of the zoning commission that a proposed amendment, supplement, or change be denied.

(b) The provisions of the previous section relative to public hearing and official notice shall apply equally to all changes or amendments.

(c) In addition to the notice required by Subsection (b) of this section, a general law municipality without a Zoning Commission must provide notice of a proposed change to each property owner who would be entitled to notice under Section 6 of this Act if the municipality had a Zoning Commission. Notice must be given in the same manner as is required for notice to property owners under Section 6 of this Act. The legislative body may not adopt a change until after the 30th day after the day that notice required by this subsection is given.

Art. 1011f. Zoning Commission

(a) In order to avail itself of the powers conferred by this Act, the legislative body of a home-rule city shall, and the legislative body of a general law municipality may, appoint a commission, to be known as the Zoning Commission.

(b) If a Zoning Commission is appointed, it shall recommend the boundaries of the various original districts and appropriate regulations to be enforced therein. Such Commission shall make a preliminary report and hold public hearings thereon before submitting its final report, and such legislative body shall not hold its public hearings or take action until it has received the final report of such Commission; provided, however, that any city or town, by ordinance, may provide for the holding of any public hearing of the legislative body, after published notice required by Section 4 of this Act, jointly with any public hearing required to be held by the Zoning Commission, but such legislative body shall not take action until it has received the final report of such Zoning Commission. Where a City Plan Commission already exists, it may be appointed as the Zoning Commission. Written notice of all public hearings before the Zoning Commission on proposed changes in classification shall be sent to owners of real property lying within two hundred (200) feet of the property for which the change in classification is proposed, such notice to be given, not less than ten (10) days before the date set for hearing, to all such owners who have rendered their said property for city taxes as the ownership appears on the last approved city tax roll. Such notice may be served by depositing the same, properly addressed and postage paid, in the city post office. Where property lying within two hundred (200) feet of the property proposed to be changed is located in territory which was annexed to the city after the final date for making the renditions which are included on the last approved city tax roll, notice to such owners shall be given by publication in the manner provided in Section 4 of this Act.

(c) Any other law that refers to a municipal Zoning Commission or Planning Commission shall be construed as referring to the legislative body in the case of a general law municipality that exercises zoning power without appointment of a Zoning Commission.

Art. 1011f. Board of Adjustment

(a) Such local legislative body may provide for the appointment of a Board of Adjustment, and in the regulations and restrictions adopted pursuant to the authority of this Act may provide that the said Board of Adjustment may, in appropriate cases and subject to appropriate conditions and safeguards, make special exceptions to the terms of the ordinance in harmony with its general purpose and intent and in accordance with general or specific rules therein contained.

(b) The Board of Adjustment shall consist of five (5) members, each to be appointed for a term of two (2) years and removable for cause by the appointing authority upon written charges and after public hearing. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term of any member whose term becomes vacant. Provided, however, that the governing body of any city may, by charter provision or ordinance, provide for the appointment of four (4) alternate members of the Board of Adjustment who shall serve in the absence of one or more regular members when requested to do so by the mayor or city manager, as the case may be. All cases to be heard by the Board of Adjustment will always be heard by a minimum number of four (4) members. These alternate members, when appointed, shall serve for the same period as the regular members and any vacancies shall be filled in the same manner and shall be subject to removal as the regular members.

(c) The Board shall adopt rules in accordance with the provisions of any ordinance adopted pursuant to this Act. Meetings of the Board shall be held at the call of the chairman and at such other times as the Board may determine. Such chairman, or in his absence the acting chairman, may administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses. All meetings of the Board shall be open to the public. The Board shall keep minutes of its proceedings, showing the vote of each member upon each question, or, if absent or failing to vote, indicating such fact, and shall keep records of its examinations and other official actions, all of which shall be immediately filed in the office of the Board and shall be a public record.

(d) Appeals to the Board of Adjustment may be taken by any person aggrieved or by any officer, department, board, or bureau of the municipality affected by any decision of the administrative officer. Such appeal shall be taken within a reasonable time, as provided by the rules of the Board, by filing with the officer from whom the appeal is taken and with the Board of Adjustment a notice of appeal specifying the grounds thereof. The officer from whom the appeal is taken shall forthwith transmit to the Board all the papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken.

(e) An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from, unless the officer from whom the appeal is taken certifies to the Board of Adjustment after the notice of appeal shall have been filed with him that by reason of facts stated in the certificate a stay would, in his opinion, cause imminent peril to life or property. In such case proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by a restraining order which may be granted by the Board of Adjustment or by a court of record on application on notice to the officer from whom the appeal is taken and on due cause shown.

(f) The Board of Adjustment shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of the appeal, give public notice thereof, as well as due notice to the parties in interest, and decide the same within a reasonable time. Upon the hearing any party may appear in person or by agent or by attorney.

(g) The Board of Adjustment shall have the following powers:

1. To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged there is error in any order, requirement, decision, or determination made by an administrative official in the enforcement of this Act or of any ordinance adopted pursuant thereto.

2. To hear and decide special exceptions to the terms of the ordinance will result in unnecessary hardship, and so that the spirit of the ordinance shall be observed and substantial justice done.

3. To authorize upon appeal in specific cases such variance from the terms of the ordinance as will not be contrary to the public interest, where, owing to special conditions, a literal enforcement of the provisions of the ordinance will result in unnecessary hardship, and so that the spirit of the ordinance shall be observed and substantial justice done.

(h) In exercising the above-mentioned powers such Board may, in conformity with the provisions of this Act, reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision or determination appealed from and make such order, requirement, decision or determination as ought to be made, and to that end shall have all the powers of the officer from whom the appeal is taken.

(i) The concurring vote of four (4) members of the Board shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision or determination of any such administrative official, or to decide in favor of the applicant on any matter upon which it is required to pass under any such ordinance, or to effect any variation in such ordinance.

(j) Any person or persons, jointly or severally, aggrieved by any decision of the Board of Adjustment, or any taxpayer, or any officer, department, board or bureau of the municipality, may present to a court of record a petition, duly verified, setting forth that such decision is illegal, in whole or in part, specifying the grounds of the illegality. Such petition shall be presented to the court within ten (10) days after the filing of the decision in the office of the Board.

(k) Upon presentation of such petition the court may allow a writ of certiorari directed to the Board of Adjustment to review such decision of the Board of Adjustment and shall prescribe therein the time within which a return thereto must be made and served upon the relator's attorney, which shall not be less than ten (10) days and may be extended by the court. The allowance of the writ shall not stay proceedings upon the decision appealed from, but the court may, on application, on notice to the Board and on due cause shown, grant a restraining order.

(l) The Board of Adjustment shall not be required to return the original papers acted upon by it, but it shall be sufficient to return certified or sworn copies thereof or of such portions thereof as may be called for by such writ. The return shall concisely set forth such other facts as may be pertinent and material to show the grounds of the decision appealed from and shall be verified.

(m) If, upon the hearing, it shall appear to the court that testimony is necessary for the proper disposition of the matter, it may take evidence or appoint a referee to take such evidence as it may direct and report the same to the court with its findings of fact and conclusions of law, which shall constitute a part of the proceedings upon which the determination of the court shall be made. The court may reverse or affirm wholly or partly, or modify the decision brought up for review.

(n) Costs shall not be allowed against the Board unless it shall appear to the court that it acted with gross negligence, or in bad faith, or with malice in making the decision appealed from.

Art. 1011h. Enforcement and Remedies

The local legislative body may provide by ordinance for the enforcement of this Act and of any ordinance or regulation made thereunder. A violation of this Act or of such ordinance or regulation is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor, and such local legislative body may provide for the punishment thereof by fine or imprisonment or both. It is also empowered to provide civil penalties for such violation.

In case any building or structure is erected, constructed, reconstructed, altered, repaired, converted, or maintained, or any building, structure, or land is used in violation of this Act or of any ordinance or other regulation made under authority conferred hereby, the proper local authorities of the municipality, in addition to other remedies, may institute any appropriate action or proceedings to prevent such unlawful erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration, repair, conversion, maintenance, or use, to restrain, correct, or abate such violation, to prevent the occupancy of said building, structure, or land, or to prevent any illegal act, conduct, business, or use in or about such premises.

Art. 1011i. Repealed by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2352, ch. 721, § 90, eff. Sept. 1, 1976

See, now, the Public Utility Regulatory Act, classified as art. 1446c.

Art. 1011j. Conflict with Other Laws

Wherever the regulations made under authority of this Act 1 require a greater width or size of yards, courts, or other open spaces, or require a lower height of building or less number of stories, or require a greater percentage of lot to be left unoccupied, or impose higher standards than are required in any other statute or local ordinance or regulation, the provisions of the regulations made under authority of this Act shall govern. Wherever the provisions of any other statute or local ordinance or regulation requires a greater width or size of yards, courts, or other open spaces, or require a lower height of building or a less number of stories, or require a greater percentage of lot to be left unoccupied, or impose other higher standards than are required by the regulations made under authority of this Act, the provisions of such statute or local ordinance or regulation shall govern.

Art. 1011k. Neighborhood Zoning Areas in Cities over 290,000

The legislative body of any city having a population of more than 290,000 inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, and which has adopted a comprehensive zoning ordinance under the law of the State of Texas, may by ordinance divide the city into such neighborhood zoning areas after a public hearing in relation thereto, at which parties in interest and citizens shall have an opportunity to be heard. At least fifteen days notice of the time and place of such hearing shall be published in an official paper or a paper of general circulation in such municipality. The Mayor of such city, with the approval of its legislative body, may thereupon appoint for each of said areas a Neighborhood Advisory Zoning Council, consisting of five citizens residing in the area, who shall hold office for two years or until their successors are appointed and qualify. It shall be the duty of such Neighborhood Advisory Zoning Council to furnish to the Zoning Commission of such city information, advice and recommendations with respect to all applications filed with the Zoning Commission for changes in the zoning regulations of such city affecting property within said area. As soon as any such application is filed with the Zoning Commission of the city, the Zoning Commission shall furnish the Neighborhood Advisory Zoning Council for the area which would be affected by such application if granted with a copy thereof, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the Neighborhood Advisory Zoning Council to hold a public hearing in relation thereto, giving at least ten days notice of the time and place of such hearing by publication in an official paper or a paper of general circulation in such municipality, and at or before the hearing on such application before the Zoning Commission it shall be the duty of the Neighborhood Advisory Zoning Council to furnish to the Zoning Commission such information, advice and recommendations with respect to such application as it deems proper. Overruling of any recommendation of the Neighborhood Advisory Zoning Council with respect to the disposition of such application shall require the vote of at least three-fourths (%) of the members of the Zoning Commission present.
Art. 1011k

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Art. 1011j. Joint Municipal Planning in Certain Areas

Grant of Power to Expend Public Funds

Sec. 1. Each city (including home rule charter cities), town, or village incorporated under the laws of this State, or by special act or charter, is hereby authorized, by ordinance duly passed, to expend public funds from the municipal treasury for compiling statistics, conducting studies and formulating plans relative to the future growth and development of such municipality or municipalities.

Municipalities Subject to Act

Sec. 2. Municipalities located or situated in whole or in part within an area wherein the sphere of zoning influence of each municipality is adjacent or contiguous to the other may contribute, and/or expend, public funds from the municipal treasury, to a joint planning commission for the joint planning of the growth and development of two (2) or more of such municipalities that are located or situated in whole or in part within the sphere of influence of such planning commission.

Joint Planning Commission

Sec. 3. Municipalities affected by this Act shall, if they adopt the provisions hereof, by the governing bodies of each of such municipalities, appoint an equal number of representatives, from each of the municipalities affected hereby, to a joint planning commission, and it shall be the duty of such joint planning commission to meet and determine the sphere of influence of such planning commission which they shall describe by metes and bounds in writing and cause the same to be placed upon a map and the same shall be recorded for record with the county clerk of the county within which such municipalities are located or situated.

Powers and Duties of Commission

Sec. 4. The duties, powers and authorities of such joint planning commission, so appointed by the governing body of such municipalities, shall be as follows, as authorized by ordinances duly passed within each of such municipalities, to wit:

(a) To employ engineers, clerks, secretaries, field personnel, and administrative personnel as are necessary to formulate, prepare, and design an organized master plan for the area as designated.

(b) To prepare, formulate, and design an organized master plan for the area which such members represent, including, but not limited to, highway design, street layout, park layout, schooling areas, residential areas, business areas, commercial areas, industrial areas, and water reservoir areas, for the orderly growth of the area, such plan must be approved by each of the municipalities within the area.

(c) To make aerial photographs, land surveys, and topography studies to facilitate such planning.

(d) To keep and maintain a complete record of all activities, meetings, expenditures, and plans.

(e) To submit regular reports of income, expenditures, accounts, and progress reports to each municipality represented.

(f) All records, minutes, books, accounts and meetings shall be open to the public for attendance and/or examination.

(g) To prepare and submit to each municipality represented an annual audit of all accounts, expenditures, funds and moneys coming into the hands of said joint planning commission.

(h) To make all reports, accounts, and records as may be required by each of the municipalities represented, by ordinance or resolution duly passed.

(i) To perform such duties and functions as may be required by each of the municipalities represented, by ordinance or resolution duly passed where the same is approved by a majority of the governing bodies of such municipalities so represented and where such is not inconsistent with the purposes of this Act.
Authority Cumulative

Sec. 5. The authority granted and conferred in Sections 1 and 2 of this Act is cumulative of all other existing authority of municipalities to expend public funds from the municipal treasury for the purpose or purposes of municipal planning and this Act shall not be construed to limit such authority in any manner.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 423, ch. 292.]

Art. 1011m. Regional Planning Commissions

Definitions

Sec. 1. (a) "City" means any incorporated city, town, village in the State of Texas.
(b) "Governmental Unit" means any county, city, town, village, authority, district or other political subdivision of the State.
(c) "Commission" means a Regional Planning Commission, Council of Governments or similar regional planning agency created under this Act.
(d) "Region," "Area," or "Regional" means a geographic area consisting of a county or two or more adjoining counties which have common problems of transportation, water supply, drainage or land use, similar, common or interrelated forms of urban development or concentration, or special problems of agriculture, forestry, conservation or other matters, or any combination thereof. It is the intention of this Act to permit the greatest possible flexibility among the various participating governmental units to organize and establish Commissions most suitable to the nature of the area problems as they see them.
(e) "Comprehensive Development Planning Process" means the process of (1) assessing the needs and resources of an area; (2) formulating goals, objectives, policies and standards to guide its long-range physical, economic, and human resource development; and (3) preparing plans and programs therefor which (a) identify alternative courses of action and the special and functional relationships among the activities to be carried out thereunder, (b) specify the appropriate ordering in time of such activities, (c) take into account other relevant factors affecting the achievement of the desired development of the area, (d) provide an overall framework and guide for the preparation of function and project development plans, (e) make recommendations for long-range programming and financing of capital projects and facilities which are of mutual concern to two or more member governments, and (f) make such other recommendations as may be deemed appropriate.
(f) "General purpose governmental unit" means a county or incorporated municipality.

Objectives

Sec. 2. The purpose of this Act is to encourage and permit local units of government to join and cooperate with one another to improve the health, safety and general welfare of their citizens; to plan for the future development of communities, areas, and regions to the end that transportation systems may be more carefully planned; that communities, areas, and regions grow with adequate street, utility, health, educational, recreational, and other essential facilities; that needs of agriculture, business, and industry be recognized; that residential areas provide healthy surroundings for family life; that historical and cultural value be preserved; and that the growth of the communities, areas, and regions is commensurate with and promotive of the efficient and economical use of public funds.

Creation

Sec. 3. (a) Any two or more general purpose governmental units may join in the exercise, performance, and cooperation of planning, powers, duties, and functions as provided by law for any or all such governmental units. When two or more such governmental units agree, by ordinance, resolution, rule, order, or other means, to cooperate in regional planning, they may establish a Regional Planning Commission. But nothing in this Act shall be construed to limit the powers of the participating governmental units as provided by existing law. The participating governmental units, by appropriate mutual agreement, may establish a Regional Planning Commission for a region designated in such agreement, provided that such region shall consist of territory under their respective jurisdictions, including extraterritorial jurisdiction.
(b) The geographic boundaries of Commissions established under this Act must be consistent with State Planning Regions or Subregions as delineated by the Governor and subject to review and modification at the end of each State biennium.

Powers

Sec. 4. (a) Under this Act, a Regional Planning Commission shall be a political subdivision of this State, the general purpose of which is to make studies and plans to guide the unified, far-reaching development of the area, to eliminate duplication, and to promote economy and efficiency in the coordinated development of the area. The Commission may make plans for the development of the area which may include recommendations on major thoroughfares, streets, traffic and transportation studies, bridges, airports, parks, recreation sites, school sites, public utilities, land use, water supply, sanitation facilities, drainage, public buildings, population density, open spaces, and other items relating to the effectuation of the general purpose.
(b) The plans and recommendations of the Commission may be adopted in whole or in part by the respective governing bodies of the cooperating governmental units. The Commission may assist the participating governmental units individually or collectively in carrying out plans or recommendations developed by the Commission. The Commission may assist any participating governmental unit individually in the preparation or effectuation of local planning consistent with the general purposes of this Act.

(c) The Commission may contract with one or more of its member governments to perform any service which that government could, by contract, have any private organization without governmental powers perform, provided that such contract imposes no cost or obligation upon any member government not signatory thereto.

(d) A Commission may purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, hold, sell or otherwise dispose of real and personal property. It may employ such staff, and consult with and retain such experts as it deems necessary. It may provide for retirement benefits for its employees by means of a jointly contributory retirement plan with an agency, firm, or corporation authorized to do business in this State. A Commission may participate in the Texas Municipal Retirement System, the State Employees Retirement System or the City, County, and District Retirement System when such established systems by legislation or administrative arrangement make such participation permissible.

(e) Agencies of the State government and of governmental units are authorized to detail or loan employees to a Commission on either a reimbursable or nonreimbursable basis as may be mutually agreed by the State agency or governmental unit and the Commission. During the period of loan or detail the person will continue to be an employee of the lending agency or unit for purposes of salary, leave, retirement and other personnel benefits but will work under the direction and supervision of the Commission. A loan or detail made pursuant to this section shall expire at the mutual consent of the loaning or detailing agency or governmental unit and the Commission.

(f) In each State Planning Region or Subregion in which a Commission has been organized, the governing body of each governmental unit within the Region or Subregion, whether or not such unit is a member of the Commission, shall submit to the Commission for review and comment any application for loans or grants-in-aid from agencies of the federal government (for a project for which the federal government at the time is requiring the review and comment of an areawide planning agency) or agencies of the State of Texas before such application is filed with the federal or State government. For federally-aided projects for which an areawide review is required by federal law or regulation, the Commission shall review such application from the standpoint of consistency with regional plans and such other considerations as may be specified in federal or State regulations and shall enter its comments upon the application, returning same to the originating governmental unit.

(g) With respect to other federally-aided projects and to State-aided projects, the Commission shall advise the governmental unit as to whether or not the proposed project for which funds are requested has region wide significance. If it does not have region wide significance, the Commission shall certify that it is not in conflict with the regional plan or policies. If it does have region wide significance, the Commission shall determine whether or not it is in conflict with the regional plan or policies. In making such determination, it may also consider whether the proposed project is properly coordinated with other existing or proposed projects within the region. The Commission shall thereupon record upon the application its views and comments and transmit the application to the originating governmental unit, with a copy to the federal or State agency concerned.

(i) The Governor shall issue guidelines to Commissions and governmental units to carry out the provisions of this Act relating to review and comment procedures.

(i) The Governor and agencies of the State shall provide such technical information and assistance to members of Commissions and their staffs as will increase to the greatest extent feasible the capabilities of such Commissions in discharging the various duties and responsibilities set forth in this Act.

Operations

Sec. 5. The cooperating governmental units may through joint agreement determine the number and qualifications of the governing body of the Commission. The governing body of the Commission shall consist of at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66⅔%) elected officials of general purpose governmental units. The joint agreement may provide for the manner of cooperation and the means and methods of the operation of the Commission. The joint agreement may provide a method for the employment of the staff and consultants, the apportionment of the cost and expenses, and the purchase of property and materials. The joint agreement may allow for the addition of other governmental units to the cooperative arrangement.

Provision of Legal Services

Sec. 5A. (a) A person who provides legal services to a Regional Planning Commission and/or who is a member of the governing body of a Regional Planning Commission may not:

(1) provide legal representation before or to such Regional Planning Commission on behalf of a governmental unit any part of which is located within the boundaries of the Regional Planning Commission; or

(2) be a shareholder, partner, or employee of a law firm that provides such legal services to the governmental unit.

(b) A person who violates Subsection (a) of this section may not receive any compensation or reimbursement for expenses from the Regional Planning Commission or governmental unit.
CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Funds

Sec. 6. (a) A Regional Planning Commission is authorized to apply for, contract for, receive and expend for its purposes any funds or grants from any participating governmental unit or from the State of Texas, federal government, or any other source.

(b) The Commission shall have no power to levy any character of tax whatever. The participating governmental units may appropriate funds to the Commission for the cost and expenses required in the performance of its purposes.

(c) A Commission which meets the conditions set forth below shall be annually eligible for a maximum amount of State financial assistance based on the formula: Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) base grant to each certified organization, plus an additional One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) per dues paying member county, plus an additional ten cents ($.10) per capita for all population served of dues paying member counties and incorporated municipalities. The minimum amount of annual State financial assistance for which a Commission shall apply shall be Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00).

(d) A Commission to qualify for State financial assistance must have an amount of funds available annually from sources other than federal or state governments equal to or greater than one-half of the State financial assistance amount for which the Commission applies.

(e) In order to be eligible for State financial assistance, a Commission shall comply with the regulations of the agency responsible for administering this Act and shall:

1. Offer membership in the Commission to all general purpose governments (counties and incorporated municipalities) included in the State Planning Region or Subregion;

2. Be composed of two or more general purpose governments having a combined population equal to not less than sixty percent (60%) of the total population of the State Planning Region or Subregion, and for purposes of this Act the population of the county shall be the population outside any dues paying member incorporated municipality;

3. Encompass a geographical area that is economically and geographically interrelated and which forms a logical planning area or region and includes at least one full county;

4. Be engaged in a comprehensive development planning process.

Interstate Commissions

Sec. 7. With advance approval of the Governor, a Commission including a region or area which is contiguous to an area lying in another state may join with any similar commission or planning agency in such areas to form an interstate Regional Planning Commission or may permit the Commission in the contiguous area to participate in the planning functions of a Commission formed pursuant to this Act, and the funds provided under the provisions of Section 6 of this Act may be commingled with the funds provided by the state governments having jurisdiction over the contiguous areas.

International Areas

Sec. 8. With advance approval of the governor, a Commission in a region or area contiguous to areas in the Republic of Mexico may expend the funds available under the provisions of Section 6 of this Act in cooperation with agencies of the Republic of Mexico or its constituent states or local governments for planning studies encompassing areas lying both in this state and in contiguous territory of the Republic of Mexico.

Dissolution

Sec. 9. Unless it has been agreed to the contrary, any participating governmental unit may, by a majority vote of its membership qualified in serving, withdraw from its participation in any Regional Planning Commission.

Art. 1012. Style of Ordinances

The style of all ordinances shall be "Be it ordained by the city council of ________ " (inserting the name of the city; but it may be omitted when published in the form of a book or pamphlet.

Art. 1013. Publication of Ordinances

(1) Every ordinance imposing any penalty, fine or forfeiture shall, after the passage thereof, be published in every issue of the official paper for ten (10) days. If the official paper be published weekly, the publication shall be made in one issue thereof. Proof of such publication shall be made by the printer or publisher of such paper by affidavit filed with the city secretary, and shall be prima-facie evidence of such publication and promulgation of such ordinances in all courts of the State. Such ordinances shall take effect and be in force from and after the publication thereof, unless otherwise expressly provided. Ordinances not required to be published shall take effect from their passage, unless otherwise provided.

(2) In lieu of the publication required in Section (1) of this Article, the governing body may in its discretion provide for the publication of a descriptive caption or title, stating in summary the purpose of the ordinance and the penalty for violation thereof.
Art. 1013  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

(3) Any town or city desiring to publish its ordinances in pamphlets or book form need not republish such ordinances as have been previously published. All such ordinances, where printed and published by authority of the city council, shall be admitted and received in all courts without further proof.

Art. 1014. May Remit Fines

The city or town council shall have power to remit in whole or in part by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, any fine or penalty belonging to the city, which may be imposed or incurred under this title, or under any ordinance or resolution passed in pursuance thereof.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1015. Other Powers

The governing body shall also have power:

1. Promotion of health.—To do all acts and make all regulations which may be necessary or expedient for the promotion of health or the suppression of disease.

2. Quarantine regulations.—To make regulations to prevent the introduction of contagious disease into the city; to make quarantine laws for that purpose, and to enforce them within the city and within ten miles thereof.

3. Joint sanitary regulations.—To co-operate with the commissioners’ court of the county in which the municipality is situated in making such improvements as may, by it and said court, be deemed necessary to improve the public health and promote efficient sanitary regulations, and to arrange for the construction of, and payment for, said improvements.

4. Hospitals.—To erect or establish one or more hospitals, and control and regulate the same, and to prohibit or to permit and regulate the establishment of private hospitals.

5. Food inspection, etc.—To regulate the inspection of beef, pork, flour, meal, salt and other provisions; to appoint weighers, gaugers and inspectors, and to prescribe their duties and regulate their fees.

6. Sale of bread.—To regulate the weight and quality of the bread to be sold or used within the city.

7. Butchers.—To make such rules and regulations in relation to butchers as they may deem necessary and proper.

8. Unclean establishments.—To compel the owner or occupant of any grocery, soap, tallow, or chandler establishment, or blacksmith shop, tannery, stable, slaughterhouse, sewers, privy, hide house or other unwholesome or nauseous house or place, to cleanse, remove or abate the same, as may be necessary for the health, comfort and convenience of the inhabitants.

9. Location of establishment.—To direct the location of business, tanneries, blacksmith shops, foundries, livery stables and any manufacturing establishments; to direct the location and regulate the management and construction of, restrain, abate and prohibit within the city limits, slaughtering establishments and hide houses or establishments for making soap, for steaming or rendering lard, tallow, offal and such other substances as may be rendered; and all other establishments or places where any nauseous, offensive or unwholesome business may be carried on.

10. Drains, sinks, etc.—To require the owner of private drains, sinks and privies to fill up, cleanse, drain, alter, relay, repair, fix or improve the same as may be ordered by any resolution or ordinance of said city; and in the event of any failure, neglect or refusal to comply with any such order, the party so failing shall be liable to fine. In the event of there being no person in the city on whom such order can be served, the city may have such work done and such improvements made on account of the owner thereof. All costs, charges and expenses shall be a lien on the property, on the filing of a memorandum by the mayor, under the seal of the corporation thereof, and recording the same with the clerk of the district court. The city may enforce said lien and institute suit in the corporate name and obtain judgment against said party for the amount so due as aforesaid in any court having jurisdiction.

11. Nuisances.—To abate and remove nuisances and to punish the authors thereof by fine, and to define and declare what shall be nuisances and authorize and direct the summary abatement thereof; and to abate all nuisances which may injure or affect the public health or comfort in any manner they may deem expedient.

12. Dead animals, etc.—To prevent any person from bringing, depositing or having within the limits of said city any dead carcass, or other offensive or unwholesome substance or matter, and to require the removal or destruction by any person who shall have placed or caused to be placed upon or near his premises, or elsewhere, of any substance or matter, filth, or any putrid or unsound beef, pork or fish, hides or skins of any kind; and, on his default, to authorize the removal or destruction thereof by some officer of the city, and to require the owner of any dead animal to remove the same to such place as may be designated.

13. Burial of dead, etc.—To regulate the burial of the dead; to purchase, establish and regulate one or more cemeteries; to regulate the registration of marriages; and to direct the keeping of the corporate name and obtain judgment against said party for the amount so due as aforesaid in any court having jurisdiction.

14. Driving animals in city.—To prevent, regulate and control the driving of cattle, horses and other animals into or through the city.
15. Dogs.—To tax, regulate or restrain and prohibit the running at large of dogs and to authorize their destruction when at large contrary to ordinances, and to impose penalties for violation of such ordinances.

16. Pounds.—To establish and regulate public pounds, and to regulate, restrain and prohibit the running at large of horses, mules, cattle, sheep, swine, and goats, and to authorize the distraining, impounding and sale of the same for the costs of the proceedings and the penalty incurred, and to order their destruction when they cannot be sold and to impose penalties on the owners thereof for the violation of any ordinance.

17. Breeding animals.—To pass necessary ordinances to prevent any person, corporation or association of individuals from keeping for breeding purposes a jack, bull or stallion within the corporate limits of such city or town.

18. Control of police.—To create, establish and regulate the police of the city, to appoint watchmen and policemen, and to prescribe their duties and powers and compensation.

19. Workhouses.—To erect and establish one or more workhouses or houses of correction, within or without the city limits, make all necessary rules and regulations thereof, and appoint all necessary keepers or assistants. In such workhouse or house of correction may be confined all vagrants and disorderly persons, who may be committed by the mayor or recorder, and any person who shall fail or refuse to pay the fine or costs imposed for any offense may, instead of being committed to jail, be kept therein.

20. Breach of peace, etc.—To prevent all trespasses, breaches of the peace and good order, assaults and batteries, fighting, quarreling, using abusive, obscene, profane or insulting language and all disorderly conduct, and punish all persons thus offending.

21. Public disturbances.—To suppress and prevent any riot, affray, noise, disturbance or disorderly assembly in any public or private place within the city.

22. Noises and annoyances.—To prohibit and restrain the firing of firecrackers, guns and pistols, use of velocipedes, or use of any pyrotechnic or any other amusements or practices tending to annoy persons passing in the streets or sidewalks, or to frighten horses or teams; to restrain and prohibit the ringing of bells, blowing of horns and bugles, crying of goods, and all other noises, practices and performances tending to the collection of persons on the streets and sidewalks, by auctioneers and others, for the purpose of business, amusement or otherwise.

23. Obstructions on public ways, etc.—To prevent the incumbering of the streets, alleys, sidewalks, and public grounds, with any vehicle whatsoever, boxes, lumber, posts, awnings, signs, or any other substance or material whatever, to compel persons to keep all weeds, filth or any kind of rubbish from the sidewalks and streets and gutters in front of their premises, and to compel the owners of property to fill up, grade, gravel and otherwise improve the sidewalks in front of same.

24. Dangerous buildings, etc.—To order, whenever in the opinion of the city council, any building, fence, shed, awning or any erection of any kind or any part thereof is liable to fall down and endanger persons or property, any owner or agent of the same, or any owner or occupant of the premises on which such building, shed, awning or other erection stands or to which it is attached, to take down and remove the same, or any part thereof, within such time as they may direct; and to punish by fine and imprisonment, or either, any neglect, failure or refusal to comply therewith. The city council shall have power to remove the same at the expense of the city, on account of the owner of the property or premises, and assess the expenses on the land on which it stood or to which it was attached, and shall, by ordinance, provide for such assessment, the mode and manner of giving notice and the means of recovering any such expenses.

25. Bridges, sewers, etc.—To establish, erect, construct and regulate and keep in repair, bridges, culverts, and sewers, sidewalks and crossways, and to regulate the construction and use of the same, and to abate any obstructions or encroachments thereon; and the cost of construction of sidewalks shall be defrayed by the owner of the lot, or part of lot or block, fronting on the sidewalk. The cost of any sidewalk constructed by the city shall be collected, if necessary, by the sale of the lot, or part of lot or block on which it fronts, together with the cost of collection, in such manner as the city council may by ordinance provide. A sale of any lot or part of lot or block to enforce collection of costs of sidewalks shall convey a good title to the purchaser. The balance of proceeds of such sale, after paying the amount due the city and costs of sale, shall be paid to the owner.

26. Street railways.—To compel street railway companies to keep their roads in repair, and to make them conform to the grades of the streets upon which their tracks may be laid, whenever said streets shall have been graded by the city, and to restrain the rate of speed and to compel such railroads to supply ample accommodation for the safe and convenient travel of the people on the street where their track may run. The city council may enforce these regulations by proper ordinances with suitable penalties.

27. Railway companies.—To direct and control the laying and constructing of railroad tracks, turnouts and switches, or prohibit the same in the streets, avenues and alleys, unless the same have been authorized by law, and the location of depots within the city; to require that railroad tracks, turnouts and switches shall be so constructed as to interfere as little as possible with the ordinary travel and use of streets, avenues and alleys and that sufficient space shall be left on either side of a track for the safe and convenient passage of teams, carriages and other vehicles, and persons; to require railroad companies to keep in repair the streets, avenues or alleys through which their track may run, and, if ordered by the city council, to construct and keep in repair, suitable crossings at the intersection of streets, avenues and alleys, and ditches, sewers and culverts, when the city council shall deem it necessary; to direct the use and regulate the speed of locomotive engines in said city, or to prevent and prohibit the use or running of the same within the city.

28. Unsafe driving.—To prevent, prohibit and suppress horseracing, immoderate riding or driving in the streets; to compel persons to fasten their horses or other animals attached to vehicles, or otherwise, while standing or remaining in the streets.

29. Light and gas.—To provide for lighting the streets and erecting lamp posts therein, and regulating the lighting thereof, and from time to time create, alter or extend lamp districts, to exclusively regulate, direct and control the laying and repairing of the gas pipes and gas fixtures in the streets, alleys, sidewalks and elsewhere.

30. Water system.—To provide, or cause to be provided, the city with water; to make, regulate and establish public wells, pumps and cisterns, hydrants and reservoirs in the streets or elsewhere within said city or beyond the limits thereof, for the extinguishment of fires and the convenience of the inhabitants, and to prevent the unnecessary waste of water. Any city or town owning, or that may hereafter own, its water system and plant, shall not lease or sell the same without first submitting the question of such proposed lease or sale to a vote of the qualified voters who are property taxpayers of such town or city as shown by the last preceding tax rolls, at a general election, and shall at all times be subject to inspection by the people of such city.

31. Market house.—To establish or erect, or cause to be established or erected, markets and market houses; designate, control and regulate market places and privileges; inspect and determine the mode of inspecting meat, fish, vegetables and all produce and every article and thing therein brought for sale.

32. Parks, etc.—To provide for inclosing, regulating and improving all public grounds and cemeteries belonging to the city, and to direct and regulate the planting and preserving of ornaments and shade trees in the streets, sidewalks or public grounds.

33. Libraries.—To establish a free library in such city or town; to adopt rules and regulations for the proper management thereof, and to appropriate such part of the revenues of such city or town for the management and increase of such free library as the municipal government of such city or town may determine.

34. Street car taxes.—To assess and collect the ordinary municipal taxes upon street railways.

35. Trade taxes.—To tax all trades, professions, occupations and callings, the taxing of which is not prohibited by the Constitution of this State; which tax shall not be construed to be a tax on property.

36. Chauffeurs, porters, etc.—To license, tax and regulate hackmen, draymen, omnibus drivers and drivers of baggage wagons, porters, and all others pursuing like occupations, with or without vehicles, and prescribe their compensation, and provide for their protection and make it a misdemeanor to attempt to defraud them of any legal charge for services rendered, and to regulate, license and restrain runners for railroads, stages and public houses.

37. Peddlers, theaters, etc.—To license, tax and regulate or suppress and prevent hawkers, peddlers, pawnbrokers and keepers, or other exhibitions, shows and amusements.

38. Circuses, etc.—To license, tax or regulate theaters, circuses, the exhibitions of common showmen, shows of any kind, and the exhibition of natural and artificial curiosities, caravans, menageries and musical exhibitions and performances.

39. Licenses and fees.—To authorize the proper officer of the city to grant and issue licenses, and to direct the manner of issuing and registering thereof, and the fees to be paid therefor. No license shall be issued for a longer period than one year, and shall not be assignable except by permission of the city council.

40. Finances and property.—To manage and control the finances and all property, real and personal and mixed, belonging to the corporation.

41. Appropriations.—To appropriate money, and provide for the payment of debts and expenses of the city.

42. Special funds.—To provide by ordinance special funds for special purposes, and to make the same disburseable only for the purpose for which the fund was created. Any officer of the city misappropriating said special fund shall be deemed guilty of misfeasance in office, and shall, on complaint of any one interested in said funds misappropriated, be removed from office, and be incapable thereafter to hold any office in said city.

43. Improvements.—To appropriate so much of the revenues of the city emanating from whatever source, for the purpose of retiring and discharging the accrued indebtedness of the city, and for the purpose of improving the public markets and streets, erecting and conducting city hospitals, city hall, waterworks, and so forth, as they may from time to time deem expedient; and in furtherance of these objects, to borrow money upon the credit of the city.

[Acts 1926, S.B. 84.]

So in enrolled bill. Words "of theatrical" probably should be inserted.

Art. 1015a. Condemnation of Lands for Parks

In case of the condemnation of land for laying out, establishing or enlarging any parks, parkways or pleasure grounds by any city in Texas which now has or may hereafter have a population of 12,000 or more inhabitants, the governing body of said city may, by ordinance, provide that the cost of such land and improvements shall be paid for, wholly or in part to an extent not exceeding the special benefits received by the property owners owning property in the vicinity thereof and benefited thereby, and may fix liens against said property so benefited to the extent same is specially benefited, provided, however, no assessments nor liens shall hold against homestead property so designated under homestead property so designated under homestead laws.

Art. 1015c. Parks and Recreation Projects

Purchase and Encumbrance

Sec. 1. All cities and towns, including Home Rule cities, in the State of Texas, shall have power to build and purchase, to mortgage and encumber any of the hereinafter named project and/or projects, to wit: parks and/or swimming pools, golf courses, golf course club houses, ball parks, fairgrounds, exposition buildings, airports and the land upon which the same are situated, where encumbrances of any such project and/or projects shall ever be a debt of said city or town, but solely a charge upon the properties project and/or projects so encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of any such city or town to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Election to Authorize Sale

Sec. 2. None of the projects named in Section 1 of this Act, nor the land upon which the same are situated, shall ever be sold until such sale is authorized by a majority vote of the qualified voters of such city or town; nor shall the same be encumbered for more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5000), except for purchase money, or funds with which to construct and equip the same or to refund any existing indebtedness lawfully created, until authorized in like manner. Such vote in either case shall be ascertained at an election, which election shall be held and notice thereof given as is provided in the case of the issuance of municipal bonds by such cities and towns, provided that no election shall be necessary for the encumbering of golf courses, golf course club houses, fairgrounds, airports and exposition buildings and the land upon which the same are situated, where encumbrances of any such project and/or projects has or have already been authorized at the time of the passage of this Act by a majority vote of the qualified voters at an election held for such purpose.

Validation of Bonds or Warrants

Sec. 3. All proceedings heretofore had by the governing bodies of all cities and towns, including Home Rule cities, in the State of Texas in the issuance and sale of bonds, notes and warrants or other obligations to aid in financing any of such project and/or projects for which a loan or grant has been made or applied for the United States through the Federal Emergency Administrator of Public Works or any agency, department or division of the Government of the United States of America, are herein in all things fully validated, confirmed, approved and legalized, and all such bonds, notes or warrants or other obligations issued thereunder are hereby declared to be the valid and binding obligations of said cities or towns and all such bonds, notes or warrants or other obligations which have been heretofore authorized but not yet issued, shall, when delivered and paid for, constitute valid and binding obligations of such cities or towns, and any election heretofore held in such cities and towns, including Home Rule cities, in which the qualified votes of any such city or town have authorized the mortgage or encumbrance of any such project and/or projects named in this Act and the ground on which the same was to be erected, is hereby in all things fully validated, ratified, confirmed, approved, and legalized.
Art. 1015c

CITIES, TOWNS, AND VILLAGES

Records and Accounts; Penalty

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the mayor of such cities or towns to install and maintain, or cause to be installed and maintained, a complete system of records and accounts showing the free service rendered, and the value thereof, and showing separately the amounts expended and/or set aside for operations, salaries, labor, materials, repairs, maintenance, depreciation, replacements, extensions, interest, and the creation of a sinking fund to pay off such bonds and indebtedness.

It shall likewise be the duty of the superintendent or manager of such project and/or projects for the year ending January 1st preceding, showing the total sum of money collected and the balance due, as well as the total disbursements made and the amounts remaining unpaid as the result of operation of such project and/or projects during such calendar year.

Failure or refusal on the part of the mayor to install and maintain, or cause to be installed and maintained, such system of records and accounts within ninety (90) days after the completion of such project and/or projects, or on the part of such superintendent or manager, to file or cause to be filed such report, shall constitute a misdemeanor.

Sec. 6. The superintendent or manager shall be subject to a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100), nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), and any taxpayer residing within such city or town, or holder of a bond of such cities or towns, not later than February 1st, a detailed report of the operations of the project and/or projects for the year ending February 1st, and showing the free service rendered, and the value thereof, and showing separately the amounts expended and/or set aside for operations, salaries, labor, materials, repairs, maintenance, depreciation, replacements, extensions, interest, and the creation of a sinking fund to pay off such bonds and indebtedness.

Art. 1015c-1. Recreational Programs and Facilities; Establishment by Counties, Cities and Towns, Jointly or Singly, Authorized

Purpose

Sec. 1. The purpose of this Act is to promote the establishment, operation and support of public recreational facilities and programs by local government units of this State either singly or jointly.

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this Act:

(a) The term "governing body" means any city council, city commission, county commissioners court, or other body acting in lieu thereof.

(b) The term "governmental unit" means any city, town, or county.

(c) The term "board" means any board, commission, committee or council appointed or designated to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Recreational Powers

Sec. 3. Any governmental unit may establish, provide, acquire, maintain, construct, equip, operate, and supervise recreational facilities and programs, either singly or jointly in cooperation with one (1) or more other governmental units.

Elections

Sec. 4. Any governmental unit may submit the question of whether it shall exercise the powers conferred in Section 3 to an election of the qualified electors of such unit.

Finances

Sec. 5. Any governmental unit may pay costs and expenses of carrying out the provisions of this Act from the general revenues of the unit, or from other revenues now provided by law for the establishment or the operation of parks and recreational facilities. Governmental units jointly exercising the powers conferred in Section 3 may agree upon the manner and method of division of costs and expenses.

Administration

Sec. 6. A governing body may administer and operate recreational facilities and programs through a bureau or department of recreation or through a board established jointly with another governing body. The Board shall adopt and promulgate rules and regulations for administration and operation of recreational facilities and programs in its charge subject to the approval of the establishing governing bodies.

Acceptance of Gifts

Sec. 7. Any governmental unit may accept any grant, lease, loan or devise of real estate, or gift or bequest of money, either principal or income, or any other personal property for either temporary or permanent use for the establishment, operation, or support of public recreation facilities and programs.

Limitations

Sec. 8. This Act shall be cumulative as to all laws, ordinances, and charter provisions relating to public recreation and parks.

Art. 1015c-2. Swimming Pools

Power of Cities; Obligations as Debts of Cities or Towns

Sec. 1. All cities and towns, including Home Rule Cities, operating under Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, as amended, shall have the power to build, purchase, improve, enlarge and repair, to mortgage and encumber their swimming pools and the gross income and revenues thereof, either or both, and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired, and to evidence the obligation thereof by the issuance of its revenue bonds. No such obligation shall ever be a debt of such city or town, but shall be solely a charge upon the properties or income so encumbered, and such bonds shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city or town to issue bonds for any other purpose authorized by law.

Bond Issues

Sec. 2. Except as modified by the provisions of this Act, the issuance of bonds, additional bonds or refunding bonds shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 10 of Title 25, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, which Chapter is hereby made applicable to the bonds authorized to be issued under the provisions of this Act.

Examination and Approval of Bonds; Registration

Sec. 3. Prior to delivery thereof, all bonds authorized to be issued hereunder and the records relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for examination, and if he finds that they have been issued in accordance with the Constitution and this Act, and that they will be binding special obligations of the city or town authorizing their issuance, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and after such approval and registration they shall be incontestable.

Bonds Eligible for Investment and to Secure Deposits

Sec. 4. Such bonds shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments of banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political subdivisions of the State of Texas, and for all public funds of the State of Texas or its agencies including the State Permanent School Fund. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure deposit of public funds of the State of Texas and public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts or other political subdivisions or corporations of the State of Texas, and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect of Law

Sec. 5. This Act is cumulative of all other Acts on the subject and shall not repeal or affect any other law or part of law relating to such subject unless they are expressly inconsistent and then only to the extent of such inconsistency. It is expressly provided that all existing laws relating to the issuance of revenue bonds by cities and towns, including but not limited to those found in Chapter 10, Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall remain unimpaired by the provisions of this Act.

Art. 1015d. Acquisition of Gas Systems and Distribution of Gas by Cities

Sec. 1. Any city (or), town, or village, whether created by general or special law, including cities operating under the Home Rule Amendment to the State Constitution, which is served neither by an artificial gas distribution system nor by a natural gas distribution system, privately owned or owned by said city, may acquire either by purchase, construction, or otherwise a system designed to prepare, to make available, and to distribute to the inhabitants of the city who may subscribe for such service, artificial gas useful for fuel and lighting purposes, manufactured and compounded substantially in the following manner: liquefied butane, a by-product obtained in the manufacture of gasoline from natural gas, is mixed with a proper proportion of propane, resulting in a liquefied gas capable of being transported in tank cars or otherwise to storage tanks, whence it may be drawn and mixed by automatically controlled mixing machines and released into gas storage tanks, said mixture then being suitable for distribution in mains and laterals to consumers, or manufactured and compounded in any other manner which will result in making available for distribution in mains and laterals, an economically useful gas for domestic and commercial fuel and lighting uses.

Sec. 2. The provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118, inclusive, of Revised Civil Statutes of 1925 with all amendments thereto are hereby adopted by reference as prescribing the procedure to be used by such cities and towns in acquiring such gas systems, and in making and evidencing their obligations to pay for same out of revenues pledged for the purpose, in encumbering said systems, in operating said systems and in reference to the enforcement of such obligations to the extent that such provisions are not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, as fully as if all of said provisions were copied herein, including that provision that every contract, note or other evidence of indebtedness issued or under this law shall contain this clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

Sec. 3. In letting contracts for construction of such systems and in providing for the issuance of revenue bonds, notes or warrants under authority of this Act, the applicable provisions of Chapter 163, Acts of the Regular Session of the Forth-second Legislature, known as "The Bond and Warrant Law of 1931" are hereby adopted as the procedure to be followed under this Act instead of said provisions have reference to revenue bonds, notes and warrants.
Art. 1015d  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Sec. 4. This Act shall be cumulative of all existing laws and the powers herein conferred shall be considered as in addition to powers now possessed by cities of the class included in this Act.

Art. 1015e. Licensing Dealers in Motor Vehicles or Accessories

Sec. 1. The power and authority is hereby conferred upon all cities and towns of Texas, whether incorporated under general or special law, to provide suitable ordinances for the regulation, supervision, control and licensing of all persons, firms or corporations engaged, primarily or incidentally, in the sale, barter or exchange of motor vehicles, or parts thereof or accessories thereto within the corporate limits of such city, and to fix penalties for the violation thereof; provided that all sums of money collected from such dealers shall be used by the city for the enforcement hereof, and for the enforcement of all provisions of the law regulating the sale, theft or exchange of motor vehicles or parts, or accessories thereto and for no other purpose.

Sec. 2. In case any section, subdivision, paragraph, or sentence of this Act is declared unconstitutional the validity of the remainder of this Act shall not be affected thereby.

Art. 1015f. Motor Vehicles, Regulation of Operation by Cities of 230,000 to 232,000 Inhabitants

Ordinances Authorized

Sec. 1. All Cities and Towns in the State of Texas, whether incorporated under General or Special Law, including Home Rule Cities, having a population in excess of 230,000 and not exceeding 232,000 inhabitants, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, shall have and they are hereby given the power and authority to pass an ordinance or ordinances:

(a) Requiring all residents of said City, including corporations having their principal office or place of business in said City, owning a motor vehicle used for the transportation of persons or property, to have each and every such motor vehicle tested and inspected and to comply with such requirements, as may be imposed by said ordinance, not more than four times in each calendar year;

(b) Requiring that other and additional tests and inspections may be required of all such motor vehicles involved in any wreck, collision, or accident before the same may be operated on the streets, alleys, or other public thoroughfares of said City after said wreck, collision, or accident;

(c) Requiring as a condition precedent to the right to use the streets, alleys, or other public thorough-fores of said City that such motor vehicles operated thereupon shall have been tested and inspected, shall have been approved by said testing and inspecting authorities, including the State Highway Patrol, and shall have complied with all provisions of said ordinance;

(d) Authorizing City Patrolmen and State Highway Patrolmen in uniform to stop without warrant such drivers of motor vehicles as may fail to comply with said ordinance and issue to the violators such traffic violation tickets as may be provided under said ordinance;

(e) Providing a penalty subject to the limitations of Article 1011 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas for the violation of any of the terms of said ordinance.

Testing Stations

Sec. 2. Said Cities shall be and they are hereby authorized to acquire, establish, erect, equip, improve, enlarge, repair, operate, and maintain motor vehicle testing stations and to pay for the same out of the fees charged for testing and inspecting said motor vehicles.

Fees for Testing and Inspecting Vehicles

Sec. 3. Said Cities shall have and they are hereby given power and authority to prescribe and collect a fee, not to exceed One ($1.00) Dollar per year per vehicle, for the testing and inspecting of each such motor vehicle. All fees so collected to be placed in a separate fund, out of which costs and expenses in connection with, or growing out of the acquisition, establishment, erection, equipping, improvement, enlargement, repairing, operating, and maintaining said testing stations, and automotive and Safety Education programs, may be paid.

Financing Purchase of Testing Stations

Sec. 4. Said Cities shall have and they are hereby given power and authority to pay for such testing stations and the equipping, maintaining, and operating thereof out of past or future earnings of said stations, and may mortgage and encumber said stations and everything pertaining thereto acquired, to secure the payment of funds to construct the same or any part thereof, or to erect, equip, improve, enlarge, repair, operate, or maintain said stations. No such mortgage or encumbrance shall ever be a debt of such City, but solely a charge upon the properties so mortgaged or encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such City to issue bonds for any purpose authorized by law. Said Cities may borrow money and issue warrants to finance in whole or in part the cost of the acquisition, erection, equipping, improvement, enlargement, or repair of said stations and to pledge for the punctual payment of said warrants and interest thereon all or any part of the fees or other receipts derived from the operation of such stations.
Partial Invalidity

Sec. 5. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid or unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of the Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity or unconstitutionality.

Not Applicable to Vehicles Operating Under Certificate from Railroad Commission

Sec. 5a. Nothing herein or in any ordinance passed pursuant hereto shall apply to motor vehicles, trailers, or semitrailers operated under a certificate or permit from the Railroad Commission of Texas.

Art. 1015g. Toll Bridges Over International Boundary Rivers, Powers Respecting Acquisition

Sec. 1. Any city or town in this State now or hereafter incorporated under the General Laws of the State, or incorporated and acting under its Special Charter or Home Rule Charter, and having located within its corporate limits or outside its corporate limits but within a distance of fifteen (15) miles from such corporate limits thereof, a toll bridge over a river between the State of Texas and the Republic of Mexico shall have power to acquire any such toll bridge, with its rights and franchises and appurtenant properties, by purchase thereof from the owner or owners thereof; either by purchase of the properties, as such, or, if such toll bridge is owned by a private corporation, either by purchase from it of the properties, as such, or by purchasing the capital stock of such corporation from the owner or owners of such stock, either all of the outstanding capital stock of such corporation or a sufficient amount thereof as required under the law for the dissolution and liquidation of such corporation, and immediately liquidating such corporation, paying the debts and obligations or liabilities thereof, and winding up its business and affairs, and causing conveyance of its properties to said city or town, taking the title to such stock either in the name of such city or town or in the name of a trustee therefor, and voting or causing such stock to be voted to carry out and accomplish the purposes of this Act, as may be agreed upon by and between such owner or owners and the Governing Body of any such city or town, the action of the latter being expressed by Ordinance, all as consistent with and subject to the provisions of this Act.

General Powers after Acquiring Bridge

Sec. 2. Any such city or town thus acquiring any such toll bridge shall have power to maintain and operate same, and to own, hold, and control the same, and to make or cause to be made any repairs, improvements, replacements, extensions, or additions thereto, and to renew or extend any franchises therefor, and to obtain new or additional franchises therefor, and to do any and all things required or that may be proper or necessary to the maintenance and operation thereof, and conduct of the business thereof, and of rendering the services thereof to the public and to the patrons of said toll bridge; and to such end and for such purpose shall have power to make and enter into, and to carry out, observe, and perform, any and all contracts, agreements, and undertakings, of any and every kind, required by the United States of America or any of its departments, officers, or governmental agencies, or the public authorities thereof; or required by the Republic of Mexico, or any of its departments, officers, or governmental agencies, or the public authorities thereof.

Tolls and Charges

Sec. 3. Any such city or town thus acquiring any such toll bridge shall have power, to be exercised by its Governing Body as expressed by Ordinance, to fix and to enforce and collect tolls and charges for the use thereof, and for the passage or transportation of persons or property, passengers, vehicles, freight and commodities, over and across such toll bridge. Such tolls and charges shall be fixed from time to time by the Governing Body of any such city or town, and collected under its direction, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of any permits or franchises granted or extended by any governmental authority in respect of or applicable thereto; and, subject to the provisions and requirements of any such permits or franchises, shall be just and reasonable and non-discriminatory, as determined by such Governing Body of any such city or town, and with no free service until the bonds herein provided to be issued to acquire such properties, together with the interest thereon, and all duties and obligations incident thereto or arising therefrom are first fully paid, met, and discharged; and, subject to the provisions and requirements of any such permits and franchises, shall be sufficient to produce revenues adequate:

(a) to pay all expenses necessary to the maintenance and operation of such toll bridge, and to comply with the requirements and make all payments necessary under the provisions of any such permits and franchises therefor;
Art. 1015g  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES  894

(b) to pay the interest on and the principal of all bonds and/or warrants issued under this Act when and as the same shall become due and payable;

(c) to pay all sinking fund and/or reserve fund payments agreed to be made in respect of any such bonds and/or warrants, and payable out of such revenues, when and as the same shall become due and payable; and

(d) to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of such bonds and/or warrants and/or with any person in their behalf;

(d-1) to recover a reasonable rate of return on invested capital;

(e) out of the revenues which may be received in excess of those required for the purposes specified in subparagraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), and (d-1) above, the Governing Body of any such city or town may in its discretion use such excess revenues for any or all of the following:

(1) to establish a reasonable depreciation and emergency fund;

(2) to retire by purchase and cancellation or redemption any outstanding bonds or outstanding warrants issued under the authority of this Act and amendments thereto;

(3) to provide needed budgetary support to local government for legitimate public purposes and for the general welfare;

(4) to apply the same to accomplish the purposes of this Act and amendments thereto.

(f) It is the intention of this Act that the tolls and charges herein provided for shall be those necessary to fulfill all obligations imposed by this Act and amendments thereto, and shall be sufficient to produce revenues to comply with the above subparagraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (d-1), and (e). Nothing herein shall be construed as depriving the State of Texas or the United States of America, or other appropriate agencies having jurisdiction, of power to regulate and control tolls and charges to be collected for such purposes, or to provide for tolls or charges, provided that the State of Texas does hereby pledge to and agree with the purchasers and successive holders of the bonds and/or warrants issued hereunder that the State will not limit or alter the power hereby vested in any such city or town or the Governing Body thereof to establish and collect such tolls and charges as will produce revenues sufficient to pay the items specified in subparagraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (d-1), and (e) of this Section 3 of this Act, or exercise it powers in any way to impair the rights or remedies of the holders of the bonds and/or warrants, or of any person in their behalf, until the bonds and/or warrants, together with the interest thereon, with interest on unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf of the bondholders and/or warrant holders and all other obligations of any such city or town in connection with such bonds and/or warrants are fully met and discharged.

(g) This section shall apply to international toll bridges now in existence and owned by a city or that may be acquired or controlled by a city in the future.

Definition of Toll Bridge with its Rights and Franchises and Appurtenant Properties; Acquisition of All or Part

Sec. 4. The term "toll bridge, with its rights and franchises and appurtenant properties" is hereby defined to mean and include the physical properties of any such bridge, together with and including all permits, grants, franchises, rights, and privileges, of every kind granted or extended by the United States of America, or the Congress thereof, or any department, officer, agency, or governmental authority thereof; or by the Republic of Mexico, or the Congress thereof, or any department, officer, agency, or governmental authority thereof; or by any State or municipality or political subdivision of either or both said two (2) Nations; for or in relation to or in respect of the construction, maintenance, or operation of any such toll bridge; or the collection of tolls and charges for the uses thereof; and including all lands, rights of way, easements, leasehold, contractual or other interest of any kind in any lands in either or both said two (2) Nations, held or used or in any manner incident to or for the construction, maintenance, or operation of such bridge, or the approaches thereto, or for the use or occupancy of any buildings, structures, appurtenances, appliances, roads, streets, parks, grounds, or conveniences or facilities of any kind, related or in any manner incident thereto; and including all buildings, structures, appurtenances, appliances, equipment, conveniences and facilities, of every kind, held or used or in any manner incident to or for the construction, maintenance, and operation of said toll bridge; and including all leases and contracts of every kind for the use or occupancy of any such lands, buildings, structures, conveniences, appliances and facilities; and including all rights and properties of every kind incident to or used for the construction, maintenance, or operation of any such toll bridge; each and all whereof shall be construed as included within the meaning of such term "toll bridge, with its rights and franchises and appurtenant properties" as such term is used in this Act; provided, however, that any such city or town, in exercising the powers herein granted, may acquire by purchase as herein provided, all or any part of any such toll bridge, that is, either the entire bridge or only that part thereof which is situated in the State of Texas; and either all or any part of any of the respective such grants, permits, franchises, rights, contracts, privileges, easements, leases, lands, rights of way, buildings, structures, appurtenances, appliances, equipment, facilities, and other interests and items above enumerated, as included within the meaning of such term "toll bridge, with its rights and franchises and appurtenant properties' as used in this Act; as the Governing Body of any such city or town may, in its discretion, determine and deem best.

Parks, Recreation Grounds, Camps, Quarters, Accommodations and Facilities

Sec. 5. Any such city or town acquiring any such toll bridge shall have the power, in connection with the maintenance and operation thereof, to acquire lands and a site or sites for the purpose either within or without the corporate limits of such city or town, within territory adjacent to said city or town or to said toll bridge, and to construct, maintain, and operate parks, recreation grounds and facilities, camps, quarters and accommodations thereof, or any other public or semi-public parks, recreation grounds and facilities, for the use and convenience of the public; and to fix and to enforce and collect fees, rentals, and charges, for the use thereof, which shall be just and reasonable and non-discriminatory, as determined by and fixed from time to time by the Governing Body of such city or town; and to make and enforce reasonable rules and regulations thereof; and if such toll bridge is located within the corporate limits of the city, to manage, control, govern, police and regulate the same, and if the toll bridge is situated outside of the corporate limits of the city to manage, control, govern, police and regulate the same to the same extent as if it were located within the corporate limits of the city.

Borrowing Money: Grants from United States or Agencies

Sec. 6. Any such city or town, to accomplish the purposes of this Act, shall have power to borrow money from any person or corporation, and, without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, to borrow money and accept grants from the United States of America, or from any corporation or agency created by the United States of America, or designated or empowered to act as an agency thereof, and, in connection with any such loan or grant, to enter into such agreements as the United States of America or such agency or corporation may require in respect or in relation thereto.

Issuance of Bonds

Sec. 7. Any such city or town shall have the power to accomplish the purposes of this Act, to issue, sell and deliver, its negotiable bonds; which bonds or the proceeds of the sale thereof may be used to purchase and acquire from the owner or owners thereof any such toll bridge, with its rights and franchises and appurtenant properties, or such part or portion thereof as may be purchased by any such city or town as herein provided for, either by purchase of the properties, as such, or by using such bonds or the proceeds of the sale thereof for the purchase from the owner or owners thereof of the stock of any corporation owning such toll bridge and for the liquidation and winding up of the business and affairs of such corporation and paying the debts and obligations or liabilities thereof, and all in such manner and to such effect as to vest title to such toll bridge, with its rights and franchises and appurtenant properties, or such part or portion thereof as may be purchased, in said city or town as provided for herein; and which bonds may be exchanged for property or sold as herein provided; to accomplish any of the purposes of this Act as herein provided.

Mortgages or Pledges

Sec. 8. Any such city or town shall have the power, in respect to any such bonds issued in pursuance of the provisions of this Act to accomplish any of the purposes of this Act, to mortgage or pledge all or any part of or any interest in any such toll bridge, with its rights and franchises and appurtenant properties, or any of the properties acquired or to be acquired with such bonds or the proceeds of the sale thereof; and all or any part of the gross or net revenues thereafter received by said city or town from or in respect of any such properties so acquired or to be acquired by said city or town with such bonds or the proceeds of the sale thereof; to secure the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds, and of the sinking fund or reserve fund payments agreed to be made in respect of such bonds; and to make and enter into such covenants and agreements with the purchasers of such bonds or any person in their behalf in respect thereto and for securing the payment thereof and for providing rights and remedies to the owners and holders of such bonds or to any person in their behalf, as the Governing Body of any such city or town may in its discretion approve and determine and provide by an Ordinance or Ordinances adopted for such purposes; all in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Amount, Denominations and Terms of Bonds

Sec. 9. Any such bonds issued by any such city or town in pursuance of and to accomplish the purposes of this Act, shall be in such aggregate principal amount or amounts, of such denominations, bearing such date or dates, of such maturities, bearing interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding six (6) per cent per annum, payable at such place or places within or without the State of Texas, as the Governing Body of any such city or town may in its discretion approve and determine and provide by an Ordinance or Ordinances adopted for such purposes; all in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Sale or Exchange of Bonds

Sec. 10. Any such bonds issued by any such city or town in pursuance of and to accomplish the purposes of this Act, may either be:
(a) sold for cash, at public or private sale, at such price or prices as the Governing Body of any such city or town shall determine, provided, that the interest cost of the money received therefor, computed to maturity in accordance with standard bond tables in general use by banks and insurance companies, shall not exceed six (6) per cent per annum; or,

(b) may be issued on such terms as the Governing Body of any such city or town shall determine in exchange for property of any kind, real, personal or mixed, or any interest therein, which the Governing Body of such city or town shall determine to be proper and necessary to accomplish any of the purposes of this Act; or,

(c) may be issued in exchange for like principal amounts of any other bonds of such issue, matured or unmatured.

Deposit of Proceeds

Sec. 11. If such bonds are sold for cash, the proceeds of the sale of such bonds shall be deposited in such depository and shall be paid out pursuant to such terms and conditions, as may be agreed upon between the Governing Body of such city or town and the purchasers of such bonds.

Negotiability, Exemption From Taxation, Investment in Bonds

Sec. 12. Any such bonds issued by any such city or town in pursuance of and to accomplish the purposes of this Act, shall constitute negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instruments Act of this State; and are hereby exempted from any and all State, county, municipal, and other taxation under the laws of this State; and shall be legal investments for banks, trust companies, and insurance companies organized under the laws of this State.

Application of Other Laws

Sec. 13. The provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118, inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended, and of the Bond and Warrant Law of 1931, as amended, shall apply to and govern the purchase of any such properties by any such city or town, in pursuance of the provisions of this Act, and the issuance, sale, and delivery of any such bonds, and manner of securing the payment thereof, and in respect to the enforcement of such obligations, and the rights and remedies of the owners and holders of such bonds or of any person acting in their behalf, in respect to the maintenance and operation of the properties acquired in pursuance of this Act, and in respect to the accomplishment of all the purposes of this Act, except as herein specifically provided for and prescribed by the terms of this Act; and except that none of the limitations and restrictions contained in or imposed by Sections 2, 3, and 4 of said Bond and Warrant Law of 1931, as amended, shall apply to or govern any such purchase of any such properties or issuance of any bonds by any such city or town; and except that, as is hereby expressly provided, any such city or town may purchase any such properties and issue any such bonds, and may use such bonds or the proceeds of the sale thereof for the purchase of any such properties or to accomplish any of the purposes of this Act, by action of its Governing Body as expressed by Ordinance authorizing and effecting same, and without the necessity of any referendum, and without the necessity of calling or holding any election to authorize any such action, and without the necessity of giving or publishing any notice of intention to acquire any such properties or to issue any such bonds, and without the necessity of advertising or calling for any competitive bids in respect thereto; and provided that in the event there is any conflict between the provisions of this Act and the provisions of said Articles 1111 to 1118, inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended, or the provisions of said Bond and Warrant Law of 1931, as amended, or the provisions of any other applicable Act or law, the provisions of this Act shall control; and, in all events, all specific provisions of this Act shall control.

Approval of Bonds by Attorney General; Incontestability

Sec. 13(a). After any such bonds are authorized by the governing body of any such city, the bonds and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General for examination by him. If such bonds shall have been issued in accordance with the Constitution and Laws of the State they shall be approved by the Attorney General and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and after such approval and registration the bonds shall be incontestable.

Bonds or Warrants to Repair, Improve, Alter or Reconstruct Toll Bridge: Issuance

Sec. 13(b). After any such city or town shall have acquired a toll bridge as defined and used in Section 4 of this Act, it may in the manner prescribed in Section 13 of this Act issue and deliver bonds for the purpose of repairing or improving or altering or reconstructing or replacing the toll bridge, or building an additional or supplementary, or auxiliary bridge, for any one or more of said purposes, subject only to the restrictions contained in the ordinance authorizing the original issue and/or subsequent issue of toll bridge revenue bonds, or both, and in the deed of indenture securing such original issue or subsequent issue of bonds, or it may issue warrants, including revenue time warrants, in accordance with applicable Texas law, to accomplish any one or more of such purposes, subject to the restrictions contained in ordinances and deed of indenture authorizing prior issue or issues of bonds or warrants.
Revenue Bonds or Revenue Time Warrants; Charge Against Pledged Revenues

Sec. 13(c). Revenue bonds or revenue time warrants only may be issued to accomplish the purposes of this Act. Such bonds or warrants shall not constitute indebtedness of any such city or town, but shall be a charge only against the pledged revenues, and against the property comprising the toll bridge if a lien is given on such property. And every such bond or warrant shall contain substantially this clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 13(d). The governing body of any such city or town which shall have issued bonds or warrants pursuant to this Act or has outstanding bonds or warrants or bonds and warrants, the interest on and the principal of which are payable from all or part of the gross or net revenues received by said city or town from or in respect to any such properties, shall have power and authority to issue refunding bonds to refund or refund any or all of such bonds and warrants by the issuance of its refunding bonds, and any such governing body may pledge all or part of said gross or net revenues to the refunding bonds and may provide that the refunding bonds shall have the same relative priorities of lien as the bonds or warrants refunded, or in providing for the security of the refunding bonds, may combine liens of differing priorities securing the bonds or warrants refunded, into one or more issues of refunding bonds. The provisions of this Act, where not inconsistent with this Section, concerning form of bonds, sale, approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and delivery pertaining to other bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this Act shall apply to said refunding bonds.

Taxes or Assessments; Pledge of Credit; Not Authorized

Sec. 14. Nothing in this Act shall authorize any such city or town, acting in pursuance hereof or to accomplish any of the purposes hereof, to levy or collect any taxes or assessments therefor or in respect thereto, or to pledge the credit of the State in any manner; or to issue or to sell or deliver any bonds or to create any obligations of any kind or to incur any liabilities of any kind or to make or enter into any contracts or agreements of any kind, to be paid or performed or met or discharged out of or from any taxes or assessments.

How Powers Exercised

Sec. 15. All powers, rights, privileges and functions, conferred by this Act upon any such city or town shall be exercised by and through the Governing Body thereof as expressed by an Ordinance or Ordinances duly adopted to authorize and effectuate the same. No referendum and no election by the voters of any such city or town shall be necessary or required to authorize the exercise of any such powers, rights, privileges, or functions, or the doing of any act or thing to accomplish the purposes of this Act.

Application of Other Laws

Sec. 16. This Act shall constitute full authority for the authorization and issuance of bonds hereunder and no other Act or law with regard to the authorization or issuance of obligations, or the deposit of the proceeds thereof, in any way impeding or restricting the carrying out of the acts and things herein authorized to be done shall be construed as applying thereto or to any acts or proceedings taken hereunder and acts or things done pursuant hereto, and for the accomplishment of the purposes of this Act.

Cumulative Character

Sec. 17. This Act shall be cumulative of all other Acts and laws, and the powers, rights, privileges, and functions hereby conferred on any such city or town, shall not prevent the exercise by any such city or town of any and all other powers, rights, privileges, or functions conferred upon any such city or town by any other Act or law now existing or hereafter enacted.

Liberal Construction

Sec. 18. This Act and all of the terms and provisions hereof shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes set forth herein.

Partial Validity

Sec. 19. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid, the remainder of this Act, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

Art. 1015g-1. Pledge of Revenue Derived from Operation of Toll Bridge

Any city or town in this State incorporated under the General Laws of the State, or incorporated and acting under its Special Charter or Home Rule Charter which is receiving revenue, by virtue of a contract with another city or town concerning the operation of a toll bridge over a river between the State of Texas and the Republic of Mexico, may appropriate or pledge all or any part of such revenue to redeem or pay any bonds, notes or warrants, as well as interest thereon, authorized to be issued by such city or town under any provision of law or to retire any other indebtedness which such city or town may legally incur.

Art. 1015g-2  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES 898

Art. 1015g-2. Validation of Proceedings for Issuance and Sale of Time Warrants for International Toll Bridges

Sec. 1. That all proceedings heretofore had by the governing bodies of all cities and towns, including Home Rule Cities in the State of Texas, in the issuance and sale of revenue time warrants under the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118, Revised Civil Statute of Texas, 1925, as amended, and Chapter 288, Acts of the 49th Legislature, 1945, as amended (Article 1015g, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), to finance and undertaking to finance the cost of repairing, improving, reconstructing, or replacing any existing international toll bridge owned by such city or town is hereby in all things fully validated, confirmed, approved, ratified, and legalized, and any such warrants heretofore sold or heretofore authorized but not yet delivered, are in all things fully validated, confirmed, ratified, approved, and legalized and such warrants are hereby declared to be the valid and binding special obligations of such cities or towns, payable only from sources other than taxation and which do not constitute a tax obligation. All orders, resolutions, ordinances, and actions authorizing the issuance of any such warrant and setting aside and pledging the revenues of any such international toll bridge system are hereby in all things validated, confirmed, approved, ratified, and legalized, and the fact that any city or town, in the issuance and sale of any such obligations or in the pledging of any said revenues of such systems to the payment of such warrants, failed to have or lacked the power and right to do all things necessary to make said obligations legal, shall in no wise impair such obligations nor the pledge of such revenues, but the same are in all things validated, confirmed, ratified, and approved.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings or any obligations issued thereunder, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in any pending suit or litigation; nor shall the provisions of this Act affect, in any way, the title to real estate, the ownership of which has been contested or attacked in any pending suit or litigation.

Art. 1015g-3. Revenue Bonds by Border Cities; Pledge of Revenue from Toll Bridges; Approval and Registration

Sec. 1. Any city or town in this state, including Home Rule Cities, having located within its corporate limits, or outside its corporate limits but within a distance of fifteen (15) miles from such corporate limits, a toll bridge over a river between the State of Texas and the Republic of Mexico, shall have the power, subject to any outstanding covenants relating to or made in favor of the holders of outstanding bonds of any such city or town, to appropriate or pledge all or any part of any revenues derived by any such city or town from or on account of any such toll bridge, including revenues derived by any such city or town from or on account of and pursuant to any contract with another city or town covering or relating to the operation of such a toll bridge, to the payment of bonds issued under and for the purposes permitted by this Act.

Sec. 2. Revenue bonds, payable from the source aforesaid, may be issued by any such city and town for the purpose of acquiring by purchase, construction or otherwise, or making repairs to, or extending or improving, any or all public buildings, utility system or systems and/or other public properties or facilities, considered necessary and appropriate by the governing body of such city or town. Such revenue bonds may be issued without the necessity of an election when authorized by an ordinance or ordinances of such governing body, which ordinance may provide and contain such terms and conditions for such bonds and such covenants and commitments to bondholders with respect thereto as may be deemed appropriate by such governing body, except that each issue of such bonds shall mature in not more than forty (40) years from their date and shall bear interest not to exceed the rate or rates as provided in and computed in accordance with Senate Bill No. 20, 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969. Additionally, such bonds may be refunded upon such terms and at such times and maturing at such times and bearing such rate or rates of interest as the issuer shall deem appropriate.

Sec. 3. The proceedings authorizing such bonds shall be presented to the Attorney General for review and to the Comptroller of Public Accounts for registration, all as in the case of other bonds issued by cities and counties in this state. Upon the approval thereof by the Attorney General, the bonds and such proceedings thus approved shall be incontestable for any cause.

Art. 1015g-4. Eligible City Operating Toll Bridge Over Rio Grande River; Acquisition of Property, etc.; Revenue Bonds

Definition

Sec. 1. As used in this Act the term “eligible city” is defined as and means any incorporated city which owns and operates any portion of a toll bridge over the Rio Grande River.

General Authority

Sec. 2. Each eligible city is authorized to acquire, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, operate, and maintain any property, buildings, structures, activities, operations, or other facilities, for any public purpose.

Authority to Issue Revenue Bonds

Sec. 3. For the purpose of providing funds to acquire, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, and equip any property, buildings, structures, or other facilities, for any public purpose, the governing body of an eligible city may issue revenue bonds of said eligible city from time to time and in one or more issues or series, to be payable from and secured by liens on and pledges of all or any part of any of the revenues, income, or receipts derived by the eligible city from its ownership and operation of any portion of any toll bridge or bridges over the Rio Grande River, and from its ownership and operation of any other property, buildings, structures, activities, operations, or facilities.

Terms and Conditions of Bonds

Sec. 4. (a) The bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise within not to exceed 50 years from their date, and provisions may be made for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under any terms or conditions that may be set forth in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(b) The bonds, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, are and shall constitute negotiable instruments within the meaning and for all purposes of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code, provided that the bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest, and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and said bonds shall bear interest at such rates, all as shall be determined and provided in the ordinance authorizing the issue of the bonds.

(c) If so provided in the bond ordinance, the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during the period of the acquisition or construction of any facilities to be provided through the issuance of bonds, for paying expenses of operation and maintenance of any facilities, for creating a reserve fund for the payment of the principal and interest on the bonds, and for creating any other funds, and such proceeds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent, and in the manner provided, in the bond ordinance.

1 Business and Commerce Code, § 1.101 et seq.

Rentals, Rates, and Charges

Sec. 5. Each eligible city shall be authorized to fix and collect tolls, rentals, rates, and charges for the occupancy, use and availability of all or any of its toll bridge or bridges, and its property, buildings, structures, activities, operations, or other facilities, in such manner and in such manner as may be determined by the governing body of the eligible city.

Pledges

Sec. 6. (a) Each eligible city may pledge all or any part of its revenues, income, or receipts from such tolls, rentals, rates, and charges, or other resources to the payment of the bonds, including the payment of principal, interest, and any other amounts required or permitted in connection with the bonds. The pledged tolls, rentals, rates, and charges shall be fixed and collected in amounts that will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds, and, to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds, to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds, and for the payment of operation, maintenance, and other expenses in connection with the aforesaid toll bridge or bridges, property, buildings, structures, or other facilities.

(b) Said bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on any real property owned by the eligible city and by chattel mortgages or liens on any personal property appurtenant to the real property; and the governing body of the eligible city may authorize the execution of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other forms of encumbrances to evidence same.

(c) Also, each eligible city may pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenues, or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

Additional Powers

Sec. 7. It is hereby found, determined, and declared that the acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, and/or equipment by an eligible city of any property, buildings, structures, or other facilities for lease or rental to the United States of America, or any department or agency thereof, for use in performing federal governmental functions in the city, or in performing federal governmental functions at or near, and relating to, its toll bridge, even though its toll bridge and said federal facilities relating thereto are not located in the city is and constitutes a public purpose and a proper municipal function. Any such property, buildings, structures, or other facilities acquired, purchased, constructed, improved, enlarged, and/or equipped in whole or in part with proceeds from the sale of bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be leased or rented by an eligible city to the United States of America, or any department or agency thereof, upon such terms and conditions, and for such period, as such parties shall agree.

Bonds Not General Obligations of an Eligible City

Sec. 8. bonds issued pursuant to this Act by an eligible city are payable solely from the revenues, income, receipts, or other resources of the eligible city, as provided in this Act, and such bonds are not tax obligations of the eligible city.
Sec. 9. Any bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for such purpose, under such terms, conditions, and details as may be determined by ordinance of the governing body of the eligible city. All pertinent and appropriate provisions of this Act shall be applicable to such refunding bonds, and they shall be issued in the manner provided herein for other bonds authorized under this Act; provided that such refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts necessary to pay the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of bonds to be refunded, at maturity or on any redemption date. Also, such refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded thereby. In the latter case, the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas shall register the refunding bonds and deliver the same to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded thereby, in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance authorizing the refunding bonds; and any such exchange may be made in one delivery, or in several installment deliveries. Bonds issued at any time by an eligible city also may be refunded in the manner provided by any other applicable law.

Sec. 10. All bonds issued pursuant to this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance, shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for examination. If he finds that such bonds have been authorized in accordance with law, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and after such approval and registration such bonds shall be incontestable in any court, or other forum, for any reason, and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes.

Sec. 11. All bonds issued pursuant to this Act are legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, and trustees, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the State of Texas and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities thereof, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. Said bonds also shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the State of Texas and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities thereof, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of said bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 12. This Act shall be cumulative of all other law on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other law or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided; and when any bonds are being issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that any eligible city shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions hereof, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Sec. 13. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance, shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Sec. 1. This Act applies only to incorporated cities and towns whose corporate limits are at any point within 15 miles from the part of the Rio Grande that forms the border between Texas and the Republic of Mexico. In this Act, "eligible city" means a city to which this Act applies.

Sec. 2. (a) Each eligible city is authorized for any public purpose to acquire, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, operate, and maintain one or more toll bridges over the part of the Rio Grande that forms the border between Texas and the Republic of Mexico.

(b) In this Act, "toll bridge" includes:

(1) the physical properties constituting all or part of a toll bridge;
(2) the permits, grants, franchises, rights, and privileges of every kind granted or extended by the United States, the Republic of Mexico, or any state or political subdivision of those nations for or in regard to the construction, maintenance, or operation of a toll bridge or for the collection of tolls or other charges for use of the toll bridge;

(3) the lands, rights-of-way, easements, leaseholds, and contractual or other interests of any kind in lands in either of those nations held or used for or in any manner incident to the construction, maintenance, or operation of a toll bridge or approaches to a toll bridge or for the use or occupancy of any buildings, structures, appurtenances, appliances, roads, streets, railroads, parks, grounds, or conveniences or facilities of any kind related or in any manner incident to a toll bridge;

(4) the buildings, structures, appurtenances, appliances, equipment, conveniences, and facilities of any kind held or used for or in any manner incident to the construction, maintenance, and operation of a toll bridge and the leases and contracts of any kind for the use or occupancy of those lands, buildings, structures, conveniences, appliances, and facilities; and

(5) the rights and properties of any kind incident to or used for the construction, maintenance, or operation of a toll bridge.

(c) An eligible city may make and enter into, carry out, observe, and perform any and all contracts, agreements, and undertakings required by the United States or the Republic of Mexico or any departments, officers, governmental agencies, or public authorities of either nation for the purpose of engaging in the activities authorized by this Act.

Revenue Bonds Authorized; Interim Financing

Sec. 3. (a) For the purpose of providing funds to acquire, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, or equip a toll bridge or a part of a toll bridge or related buildings, structures, or other facilities for any public purpose, the governing body of an eligible city may issue revenue bonds from time to time in one or more issues or series to be payable from and secured by liens on and pledges of all or any part of the revenues, income, or receipts derived by the eligible city from its ownership and operation of any portion of a toll bridge or bridges over the Rio Grande and from its ownership and operation of any other property, buildings, structures, activities, operations, or facilities.

(b) Pending the issuance of revenue bonds pursuant to this Act, an eligible city may use money that is not required by law to be used for other purposes for expenditures in connection with a toll bridge or bridges or may issue notes for those expenditures. If an eligible city uses its money for this purpose, the money may be repaid out of proceeds of the revenue bonds issued under this Act. If notes of the city are issued for this purpose, the notes shall have the characteristics deemed appropriate by the governing body of the city, may bear the rate or rates of interest, may be payable from sources available to pay, and may be secured in the same manner as revenue bonds issued under this Act or payable from the proceeds of refunding bonds issued under this Act or from both revenue bonds and refunding bonds.

Issue of Bonds and Notes; Negotiability

Sec. 4. (a) The bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be issued to mature serially or otherwise not more than 50 years from the date of issue, and provision may be made for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds or subordinate lien bonds under any terms or conditions that may be set forth in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(b) The bonds and notes and interest coupons appertaining to the bonds or notes are negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for the purposes provided by the Texas Uniform Commercial Code; however, the bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest. The bonds and notes shall be executed; may be made redeemable prior to maturity; may be issued in the form, denominations, and manner and under the terms, conditions, and details; may be sold in the manner, at the price, and under the terms; and shall bear interest at the rates provided by the ordinance authorizing issuance of the bonds or notes.

(c) If provided in the bond ordinance, the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during the period of the acquisition or construction of any facilities to be provided through the issuance of bonds, paying expenses of operation and maintenance of any facilities, creating a reserve fund for the payment of the principal and interest on the bonds, and creating any other funds and may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent and in the manner provided by the bond ordinance.

1 Business and Commerce Code, § 1.101 et seq.

Tolls and Charges

Sec. 5. Each eligible city may fix and collect tolls, rentals, rates, and charges for the occupancy, use, and availability of all or any of its toll bridges in the amounts and in the manner as may be determined by the city's governing body.

Security for Bonds

Sec. 6. (a) An eligible city may pledge all or any part of its revenues, incomes, or receipts from tolls, rentals, rates, and charges, or other resources to the payment of bonds issued pursuant to this Act, including the payment of principal, interest, and any other amounts required or permitted in connection with the bonds. The pledged tolls, rentals, rates, and charges shall be fixed and collected in amounts that will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts re-
Art. 1015g-5

required in connection with the bonds and to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing issuance of the bonds to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds and for the payment of operation, maintenance, and other expenses in connection with the toll bridge or bridges.

(b) The bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on any real property owned by the eligible city and by chattel mortgages or liens on any personal property appurtenant to the real property. The governing body of the eligible city may authorize the execution of trust inden­tures, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other forms of encum­brances to evidence the debt.

(c) An eligible city may pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenue, or income received or to be received from the United States or any other public or private source whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

Use of Property by Federal Government

Sec. 7. It is hereby found, determined, and declared that the acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, or equipping by an eligible city of any property, buildings, structures, or other facilities for lease to the United States government for use in performing federal governmental functions in the city or in performing federal governmental functions at or near and relating to its toll bridge, even though the toll bridge and the federal facilities relating to the toll bridge are not located in the city, is and constitutes a public purpose and a proper municipal function. Any property, buildings, structures, or other facilities acquired, purchased, constructed, improved, enlarged, or equipped in whole or in part with proceeds from the sale of bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be leased or rented by an eligible city to the United States under the terms and conditions and for the period agreed to by the parties.

Payment of Bonds and Notes; Taxability

Sec. 8. Bonds and notes issued pursuant to this Act are payable solely from the revenues, income, receipts, or other resources of the issuing city, as provided in this Act, and the bonds and notes are not tax obligations of the eligible city.

Refinancing

Sec. 9. (a) Bonds or notes issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for the purpose and under the terms, conditions, and details prescribed by ordinance of the governing body of the eligible city. All pertinent and appropriate provisions of this Act are applicable to refunding bonds, and they shall be issued in the manner provided for other bonds authorized under this Act. Refund­ing bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts suf­ficient to pay the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of bonds and notes to be refunded at maturity or on any redemption date.

(b) Refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds and notes being refunded. If refunding bonds are issued under this subsection, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refund­ing bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the bonds or notes being refunded in accordance with the ordinance authorizing the refund­ing bonds. An exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.

(c) Bonds and notes issued at any time pursuant to this Act may be refunded in the manner provided by any other applicable law in addition to that provided by this section.

Approval and Registration

Sec. 10. All bonds and notes issued pursuant to this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If he finds that the bonds and notes have been authorized in accordance with law, he shall approve them, and on approval the bonds and notes shall be registered by the comptrol­ler of public accounts. After approval and registra­tion, the bonds and notes are incontestable in any court or other forum for any reason and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes.

Bonds and Notes as Lawful Investments and Deposit Security

Sec. 11. (a) Bonds and notes issued pursuant to this Act are legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance com­panies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, and trustees, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the State of Texas and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of the state, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic.

(b) The bonds and notes when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant to them are eligible and lawful security to the extent of their market value for any deposits of public funds of the state or any agency, subdivision, or instrumentality of the state, including a county, city, town, village, school district or other type of district, public agency, or body politic.

Act Cumulative and Wholly Sufficient

Sec. 12. This Act is cumulative of all other law on the subject, and this Act is wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and notes and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby without reference to any other law or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically pro­vided; and when any bonds or notes are being issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that any eligible city shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws not in conflict with the provisions hereof to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act. [Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 759, ch. 322, §§ 1 to 12, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 1015h. Public Building; Powers of City Owning Natural Gas Distribution System

Application of Act: Powers of Eligible City

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to all incorporated cities, including Home Rule Cities, of more than fifty thousand (50,000) population according to the last preceding Federal Census which own and operate a natural gas distribution system serving the inhabitants of all or part of such city. Any such city, for the purposes of this Act, shall be an "eligible" city.

Any eligible city shall have the power to construct, purchase, equip, improve, repair, remodel and enlarge coliseums, exposition and convention halls, city halls and other public buildings and the necessary sites therefor, and to issue revenue bonds for such purposes. Such cities may acquire one (1) building for any one (1) or more of the foregoing purposes or may acquire one (1) or more buildings for any one (1) or more of such purposes.

Revenue Bonds; Security: Pledge of Revenues of Gas System

Sec. 2. When authorized at an election as hereinafter provided, the governing body of any eligible city shall be authorized to issue the revenue bonds of such city bearing interest at a rate not to exceed five per cent (5%) per annum and maturing within not more than thirty (30) years from their date or dates, and to secure the payment thereof by pledging and encumbering the net revenues of the revenue producing parts of such buildings and, at the option of the governing body, by a further pledge of the net revenues of the city's municipal gas distribution system, either any part or all. Such bonds shall be issued under the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118, both inclusive of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, except where same are in conflict with the provisions of this Act. No such bonds shall be issued, however, until first authorized by a majority vote of the voters qualified to vote in such elections and voting at an election called for such purpose. Such election shall be called and held in the same manner provided for other bond elections for such city. The issuance of revenue bonds to provide funds with which to acquire one (1) or more buildings for any one (1) or more of the foregoing purposes may be submitted as one (1) proposition at such election; provided that all bonds included in one (1) proposition are secured by a pledge of the same revenues.

Ordinances; Books and Accounts

Sec. 3. The governing body of any such city shall be authorized to make such provisions in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of such bonds as it shall deem proper and desirable in regard to the terms and conditions upon which such revenues, or any designated part thereof, shall be pledged, the method of securing the payment of such bonds, the use of the pledged revenues, the establishment of reserves for depreciation, replacements, betterments, additions and extensions, the duties and obligations of the city in regard to the use, maintenance and operation of the facilities whose net revenues are pledged to the payment of such bonds and as to the right of redemption, if any, of such bonds before their respective maturity dates. It shall be the duty of the city to establish and maintain separate books and accounts for each of the properties whose income shall have been pledged.

Additional Bonds

Sec. 4. The governing body of such cities shall be authorized to issue additional revenue bonds for such purposes secured by a pledge of all or any part of the net revenues which are pledged to the payment of previously issued bonds to the extent and in the manner expressly permitted by the ordinance or ordinances authorizing such previously authorized and outstanding revenue bonds. Such additional revenue bonds shall be issued only after being authorized at an election held as hereinabove provided for original issues. Any ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds under this Act may provide for the use by the city of surplus revenues for other lawful purposes.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 5. The governing body of any said city shall be authorized to refund all or any part of any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act by the issuance of refunding bonds without the necessity of an election; provided that the refunding bonds shall not bear interest at a higher rate than that borne by the bonds being refunded.

Act Cumulative; Conflict with Existing Laws

Sec. 6. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but in the event any of its provisions are in conflict with any existing laws, the provisions hereof shall prevail and be effective in regard to the subject matter of this Act.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 7. If any paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remain-

Art. 1015i. Lease of City Owned Hospital; Cities of 65,000 or Less

The governing body of any incorporated city or town (including home rule cities) having a population of sixty-five thousand (65,000) inhabitants or less, according to the last preceding Federal Census, is hereby authorized to lease any city-owned hospital, or part thereof, to be operated by the lessee as a public hospital under such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by such governing body and such lessee. Any such lease shall be authorized by ordinance or resolution adopted by such governing body, and the lease agreement shall be executed, on behalf of the city or town, by the mayor and the city secretary or clerk, and the seal of the city shall be impressed thereon. Such lease may cover any period of time not to exceed fifty (50) years.

Art. 1015j. Appropriations for Advertising and Promoting Growth and Development of General Law Cities

Each city incorporated or operating under the general laws of this State may appropriate from the General Fund of the city an amount not exceeding Five Cents (5¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) assessed valuation, for the purpose of advertising and promoting the growth and development of such city; providing that before the governing body of any city may appropriate any sums for such purpose, the qualified property taxpaying voters of the city shall, by a majority vote at an election, authorize the governing body of the city to thereafter appropriate not to exceed Five Cents (5¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) assessed valuation.

Art. 1015j-1. Promotional Advertising for Growth and Development in Cities of Not More Than 500,000; Board of Development; Appropriations and Expenditures Authorized; Appointment of Manager

Sec. 1. The governing body of any incorporated city having a population of not more than 500,000 according to the last preceding Federal Census may appropriate from the general fund an amount not exceeding one percent of the general fund budget for that year, such appropriation to be for advertising such city and promoting its growth and development.

Sec. 2. Before expending any money appropriated under authority of this Act, the governing body shall create a Citizens' Advisory Committee known as a City Board of Development, or by any other name, consisting of five members, to be appointed by the governing body for two-year terms. Members of the board shall receive no compensation, shall have advisory powers only, and shall not be deemed to be public officers or agents of the city, and their service on the board shall not invalidate city contracts in which they may have an interest.

Sec. 3. The board of development shall investigate the desirability of various methods of advertising and promoting the city and shall make appropriate recommendations to the governing body as to the best method of expending funds already available, and as to the amount which should be appropriated in the next budget. Recommendations of the board are not binding on the governing body, which shall have discretion as to the amount to be appropriated (within the limit of one percent of the general fund budget) and as to the methods of using it.

Sec. 3a. To assist it in carrying out the provisions of this Act, the governing body may appoint a person to manage the promotion, development, tourism, and convention activities of the city, or it may designate a city official to carry out that function. The person appointed or designated shall serve ex officio as the secretary of the board of development.

Sec. 4. This statute is cumulative of any powers which a city has or shall have under its charter, and shall not impair any such charter power.

Art. 1015k. Regulation of Rendering Plants

For the purpose of protecting its residents from health hazards arising from unsanitary conditions which may exist in conjunction with certain industrial establishments, any city, town or village in this State shall have the power by the enactment of the necessary ordinances to regulate the equipment and mode of operation of rendering plants within the city limits or within one (1) mile from the city limits.

Art. 1015l. Parking on Private Property

Any incorporated city or town may by ordinance regulate the parking of motor vehicles on private property, and may enforce the ordinance in the same manner that it enforces ordinances regulating parking in public no-parking zones, including impoundment of offending vehicles.

Art. 1015m. Repealed by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 2087, ch. 835, § 9, eff. Aug. 29, 1977

See, now, art. 6701g-2.
Art. 1015n. Dilapidated Structures; Authority of Certain Cities and Towns

(a) A city or town incorporated or operating under Chapters 1-10, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, may adopt an ordinance that requires the demolition or repair of a building that is dilapidated, substandard, unfit for human habitation, or a hazard to the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens.

(b) The ordinance must:

(1) establish minimum standards for continued use and occupancy that apply to all buildings regardless of date of construction;

(2) provide for proper notice to the owner; and

(3) provide for a public hearing.

(c) After a hearing, if the building is found to be in violation of the standards set out in the ordinance, the city may direct that the building be repaired or removed within a reasonable time.

(d) After the expiration of the allotted time, the city may remove the building at its own expense. If a city incurs removal expenses under this Act, it has a lien against the property to which the building was attached. The lien is extinguished if the property owner reimburses the city for the removal expenses. The lien may not be enforced by forced sale.

Art. 1016. Streets and Alleys, etc.

Any city or town incorporated under the general laws of this State shall have the exclusive control and power over the streets, alleys, and public grounds and highways of the city or town, and to abate and remove encroachments or obstructions thereon; to open, alter, widen, extend, establish, regulate, grade, clean and otherwise improve said streets; to put drains or sewers therein, and prevent encumbering thereof in any manner, and to protect same from encroachment or injury; and to regulate and alter the grade of premises; to require the filling up and raising of same; and, upon submission of a petition signed by all of the owners of real property abutting a street or alley, the governing body of any such city or town shall also have the power, by ordinance, to vacate and abandon and close any such street or alley.

Section 3 of the 1979 amendatory act provided:

"The amendment of Articles 1016 and 1019, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, by this Act does not apply to a petition submitted to a municipal governing body under Article 1016 before the effective date of this Act. Such a petition and all action taken with respect to it are subject to those statutes as they existed when the petition was submitted. The former law is continued in effect for purposes of this section."

Art. 1017. Sale of Parks, Land for Buildings and Abandoned Streets, etc.; Disposition of Proceeds

The governing body of any incorporated city or town in this State, however incorporated, may sell and convey any land or interest in land owned, held or claimed as public square, park or site for city hall or other municipal building, and abandoned parts of streets and alleys, together with all improvements on any such property owned by any such city or town. The proceeds of any such sale shall be used only for the acquisition and improvement of property for the same uses as that so sold. Provided, however, that the title of any purchaser of such property for a valuable consideration shall not be impaired by reason of the failure of such governing body to so apply said funds. Such sales shall be made by an ordinance passed by such governing bodies which shall direct the execution of conveyance by the mayor or city manager of any such city or town.

Art. 1018. Use by Railway, etc.

The charter, or any amendment thereto, may authorize the governing body to close for the exclusive use temporarily or perpetually by any railroad company or other corporation having power of eminent domain, any part or parts, of any street or streets, alley or alleys, and to ratify and confirm any prior ordinances closing any street or streets, alley or alleys, or any part or parts thereof, for the use of any railroad company or any such other corporation.

Art. 1019. Special Election

No public square or park shall be sold until the question of such sale has been submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of the city or town, and approved by a majority of the votes cast at such election.

Section 3 of the 1979 amendatory act provided:

"The amendment of Articles 1016 and 1019, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, by this Act does not apply to a petition submitted to a municipal governing body under Article 1016 before the effective date of this Act. Such a petition and all action taken with respect to it are subject to those statutes as they existed when the petition was submitted. The former law is continued in effect for purposes of this section."

Art. 1020. Towns so Empowered

The provisions of the three preceding articles shall be enforced in towns or cities under five thousand population, or cities over five thousand population which have no special charter, and in towns or cities incorporated under this title, and in cities or towns incorporated under any special law. The power authorized by this article may be conferred upon the governing body by vote of the qualified voters as provided in the preceding article.

Art. 1021. Interest on Indebtedness

No indebtedness of any character whatever, hereafter incurred by said corporation, shall draw a higher rate of interest than six per cent per annum.

See, now, art. 1022a.

Art. 1023a. Auditing of Records and Accounts; Annual Statements

(a) Each incorporated city, town, and village in this state, hereinafter referred to as "city," including any city operating under a special charter, or home-rule city operating under a charter adopted or amended pursuant to Article XI, Section 5, of the Texas Constitution, or city operating under the general laws of this state, shall have its records and accounts audited and a financial statement based on such audit prepared annually. Any such city whose records and accounts are not audited annually by a person or officer prescribed by statute or charter provision, or by a person in the regular employ of such city, must engage at its own expense a Texas Certified Public Accountant or a public accountant holding a permit to practice from the Texas State Board of Public Accountancy to conduct the audit and to prepare the financial statement required herein.

(b) The annual financial statement of such city, together with the auditor's opinion thereon, shall be filed in the office of the city secretary or clerk of such city within 120 days of the close of the city's fiscal year and shall be a public record.

(c) A city that provides a continuing, organized program of service retirement, disability retirement, or death benefits for any of its officers or employees shall include in its annual financial statement a valuation of the financial assets and liabilities of the program as shown in the most recent actuarial valuation of the program. This subsection does not apply to a program for which the only funding agency is a life insurance company, a program providing only workers' compensation benefits, or a program administered by the city as a member of the Texas Municipal Retirement System.

Section 4 of the 1977 Act provided as follows:

"If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 1024. Receiver Appointed

A city or town so situated as is herein set forth, which fails to effect a compromise of its debts, or pending the negotiation of a compromise, shall be permitted, on its application setting forth its financial condition and insolvency, to have the district court of the county in which said city or town is located, in the name of the city, take charge of the collection and appropriate all taxes levied and assessed by said city or town, except so much thereof as is necessary to pay the current expenses of the city or town; and to that end, said court, or the judge thereof in vacation, shall appoint a receiver or make the assessor and collector of said city or town its receiver to collect and pay into a named depository all taxes levied by said city or town for the payment of its debts; and said courts shall decide all questions of priority between conflicting claimants of said funds, and shall provide for the ratable and equitable distribution of said funds among all creditors entitled thereto. But it shall not be lawful for any court to appoint a receiver of or concerning any city or town except upon the voluntary application of such city or town.

Art. 1024a. Relief to Municipalities and Taxing Districts Under Federal Bankruptcy Laws

That all municipalities, political subdivisions and taxing districts in this State which have power to incur indebtedness, either through action of their own governing bodies or through action of the governing bodies of counties or cities in which such political subdivisions or taxing districts are included, are hereby authorized to proceed under all laws enacted by the Congress of the United States under the Federal Bankruptcy powers, which laws have for their object the relief of municipal indebtedness, including H.R. 5950 of the Seventy-Third Congress, entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled 'An Act to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States,' approved July 1, 1898, and acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto," approved May 24, 1934, and the officials and governing bodies of such municipalities, political subdivisions and taxing districts are authorized to adopt all proceedings and to do any and all acts necessary or convenient to fully avail such municipalities, political subdivisions and taxing districts of the provisions of such Acts of Congress.

Art. 1024b. Composition with Creditors Under Federal Bankruptcy Laws

All municipalities, political subdivisions, and taxing districts in this State as defined in Section 81, Chapter 657, Acts of the Seventy-Fifth Congress of the United States, 50 Statutes at Large, Page 654, 11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 401, which have power to incur
CHAPTER FIVE. TAXATION

Art. 1026. Power to Levy

The governing body of any city or town in this State having a population of five thousand or less shall have power by ordinance to levy, assess and collect such taxes as such governing body may determine, not to exceed for any one year one and one-half per cent of the taxable property of such city or town, for current expenses and for the purpose of construction or the purchase of public buildings, water works, sewers, and other permanent improvements, within the limits of such city or town, and for the construction and improvement of the roads, bridges and streets of such city or town within its limits.

Art. 1027. Ad Valorem Tax

The governing body of any incorporated city or town having a population of not more than five thousand inhabitants, shall have power, by ordinance, to levy and collect an annual ad valorem tax of not exceeding one and one-half per cent on the one hundred dollars valuation of taxable property within such city or town for the erection, construction or purchase of public buildings, streets, sewers and other permanent improvements within the limits of such city or town. Within the meaning of this article shall be included building sites and buildings for public free schools and institutions of learning within those cities and towns which have or may assume the exclusive control and management of public free schools and institutions of learning within their limits.

Arts. 1027a to 1027k. Repealed by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., ch. 841, § 6(a)(1), eff. Jan. 1, 1982

Section 1 of Acts 1979, 66th Leg., ch. 841, repealing these articles, enacted the Property Tax Code, constituting Title 1 of the Tax Code.

Art. 1028. Ad Valorem Tax in Large Cities

The governing body of any city in this State having more than five thousand inhabitants, unless otherwise provided in its special charter granted by the Legislature or adopted by the people, shall have power by ordinance to levy, assess and collect such taxes as such governing body may determine, not to exceed for any one year two and one-half per cent of the taxable property of such city, for current expenses and for the purpose of construction or the purchase of public buildings, water works, sewers, and other permanent improvements, and for the construction and improvement of the roads, bridges and streets of such city, within its limits.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]
Art. 1028a  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Section 1 of Acts 1979, 66th Leg., ch. 841, repealing this article, enacted the Property Tax Code, constituting Title 1 of the Tax Code.

Art. 1029. Retirement of Indebtedness

To meet the interest and sinking fund on all indebtedness legally incurred prior to the adoption of the constitutional amendment of September 25, 1883, regarding the power of cities and towns to levy and collect taxes, etc., the governing body of the following cities and towns shall have power by ordinance to levy, assess and collect an annual ad valorem tax sufficient therefor:

1. Of any city or town having a population of five thousand or less.

2. Of any city having more than five thousand inhabitants, unless otherwise provided in the special charter granted by the Legislature or adopted by the people.

Art. 1031. Occupation Tax

The city council shall have the power to levy and collect taxes, commonly known as licenses, upon trades, professions, callings and other business carried on; and each person and firm engaging in the following trades, professions, callings and business, among others, shall be liable to pay such license tax; every person or firm keeping a ball alley, or nine or ten-pin alley; every person or firm selling goods, wares and merchandise at public auction; every merchandise or cotton broker or commission merchant; every person or firm pursuing the occupation of hawkers or peddlers of goods or any article whatever; but this enumeration shall not be held to deprive the city council of the right to levy and collect other license taxes, and from other persons and firms under the general authority herein granted.

Art. 1032. Power to Collect Tax

Nothing herein shall prevent the city council from collecting the license, and each license tax provided for by this title. Each establishment shall be liable to said license tax; and any person or firm pursuing occupations, business, avocations or calling subject to said tax shall pay on each. No license shall extend to more than one establishment, or include more than one occupation, avocation, business or calling.

Art. 1033. Power to Assess Tax

The city council shall have power to provide by ordinance for the assessing and collecting of said taxes, and to determine when taxes shall be paid by corporations, and when by the individual corporators. No tax shall be levied unless by consent of two-thirds of the aldermen elected.

Art. 1034. Collection of License Tax

The license tax shall be collected by the assessor and collector, and shall be paid to that officer by each person and firm owning such license and before engaging in any trade, profession, business, calling, avocation or occupation subject to said tax. This article shall apply to all persons owning any license and failing to pay the same. The city council may collect said license tax by suit under such rules as they may provide by ordinance. Said tax, commonly known as licenses, shall not be construed to be a tax on property within the meaning of the provisions of this title.

Art. 1035. License Revoked

In any case where, by any provision of this title, or by an ordinance passed in pursuance thereof, a person is required to obtain a license for any calling, occupation, business or avocation, and has by the recorder been adjudged guilty of violating any city ordinance in relation thereto, the recorder, in addition to a fine, may institute proceedings to suspend or revoke the license so granted.

Section 1 of Acts 1979, 66th Leg., ch. 841, repealing these articles, enacted the Property Tax Code, constituting Title 1 of the Tax Code.

For disposition of the subject matter of the repealed articles, see Disposition Table preceding the Tax Code.

Art. 1039. Special Taxes

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent the city council from imposing, levying and collecting special taxes and assessments for the improvement of the avenues, streets and alleys, as hereinafter provided.

Art. 1040. Indebtedness

The city council may also levy, assess and collect taxes necessary to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund to satisfy any indebtedness heretofore legally made and undertaken. All such taxes shall be assessed and collected separately from those levied, assessed and collected for current expenses of municipal government, and shall, when levied, specify in the act of levying the purpose therefor. Such taxes may be paid in coupons, bonds or other indebtedness for the payment of which such tax may have been levied.

Art. 1041. Powers of Council
The city council may provide, by ordinance, for the prompt collection of all taxes, except ad valorem taxes, that are assessed, levied and imposed under this title, and is authorized to sell or cause to be sold real as well as personal property, and may make such rules and regulations, and pass all ordinances as they may deem necessary to the levying, laying, imposing, assessing and collecting of any tax herein provided.

Section 1 of Acts 1979, 66th Leg., ch. 841, repealing these articles, enacted the Property Tax Code, constituting Title 1 of the Tax Code.

For disposition of the subject matter of the repealed articles, see Disposition Table preceding the Tax Code.

Art. 1044a. City Councils and Trustees of Independent School Districts Authorized to Fix Compensation of Tax Assessors and Collectors in Counties of 43,010 to 43,040 Population

Sec. 1. The City Councils of all cities and towns within this State may at their option increase the compensation of city tax assessors and collectors in any sum not to exceed Three Hundred Dollars ($300) per annum in addition to the amount that is now allowed as compensation to tax assessors and collectors of said cities and towns.

Sec. 2. The trustees of any independent school district within said counties may at their option increase the compensation of tax assessors and collectors of taxes of said independent school districts in addition to the amount now paid not to exceed the sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300) per annum in all counties with a population of not less than forty-three thousand and thirty (43,030) and not more than forty-three thousand and thirty (43,040), according to the last Federal Census.

Section 1 of Acts 1979, 66th Leg., ch. 841, repealing these articles, enacted the Property Tax Code, constituting Title 1 of the Tax Code.

For disposition of the subject matter of the repealed articles, see Disposition Table preceding the Tax Code.

Art. 1066a. Taxes Levied by Counties and Other Political Subdivisions Not Included in Determining Power of Home Rule City or Town to Levy Taxes

Sec. 1. The taxes levied by any county, any political subdivision of a county, any number of adjoining counties, any political subdivision of the State, or any defined district under or by virtue of Article 3, Section 52 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, shall not be reckoned in determining the power of any city or town to levy city taxes, irrespective of whether such city or town is located wholly or partly within such county, number of adjoining counties, political subdivision, or defined district, or whether such political subdivision or defined district be included wholly or partly within such city.

Sec. 2. In case of conflict between this Act and any city charter or any special law constituting the charter of a city, the provisions of this Act shall prevail.

Sec. 3. Provided, however, that this Act shall not apply except as to cities and towns acting under a home rule charter and which has, prior to the effective date of this Act, attempted to amend its charter and which at the time of said Charter amendment election did not own any of the following utilities from which it could derive revenue: water system, sanitary sewer system, electric light system or natural gas distribution system.

Sec. 4. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not in any manner validate any obligations issued by any such city or town, the validity of which obligations is in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Section 1 of Acts 1979, 66th Leg., ch. 841, repealing this article, enacted the Property Tax Code, constituting Title 1 of the Tax Code.

For disposition of the subject matter of the repealed article, see Disposition Table preceding the Tax Code.

Art. 1066c. Local Sales and Use Tax Act

Title of Act: Definitions

Sec. 1. This Act is known and may be cited as the "Local Sales and Use Tax Act," and the following words shall have the following meanings unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

A. Comptroller. "Comptroller" shall mean the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas.

B. City. "City" shall mean any incorporated city, town, or village in the State of Texas.

Art. 1066c

Chapter 151, Tax Code, as amended before or after the effective date of this Act.

Authority to Adopt Tax; Imposition and Rate; Election and Ballots; Canvas of Returns; Results of Election; City Boundaries; Tax Schedule and Bracket System Formula for Joint Collection of Taxes; Standards

Sec. 2. A. Any city may, by a majority vote of the qualified voters of said city voting at an election held for that purpose, adopt a local sales and use tax for the benefit of such city in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

B. The sales tax portion of any local sales and use tax adopted under this Section is hereby imposed at the rate of one percent (1%) on the receipts from the sale at retail of all taxable items within any city adopting such tax which items are subject to taxation by the State of Texas under the provisions of the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, as enacted, and as heretofore or hereafter amended, and at the rate of one percent (1%) on the receipts from the sale at retail within the city of gas and electricity for residential use as defined by the State Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act.

C. The governing body of any city may, by a majority vote of its members qualified and serving, or shall, upon petition of qualified voters of said city equal in number to at least twenty percent (20%) of the total number of votes cast in the last preceding regular city election, provide by ordinance for the calling and holding of an election on such question.

D. If such election is initiated by petition of qualified voters, the governing body of the city shall have thirty (30) days after receipt of such petition to determine the sufficiency thereof and, if such petition is sufficient, shall within sixty (60) days after receipt of such petition pass the ordinance calling such election.

E. The ordinance calling such election shall provide for the submission of such question at an election to be held not less than thirty (30) days nor more than ninety (90) days after the passage of said ordinance. If the next regular city election is to be held during such period, the submission of such question shall be at such election; otherwise, a special election shall be called for the purpose.

F. Notice of said election shall be given by causing a substantial copy of the ordinance calling the election to be published on the same day of two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published within said city, the date of the first publication to be at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the date set for such election. If there be no newspaper published within the city, such ordinance may be published in some newspaper having general circulation within the city. The provisions of this Section shall prevail over any city charter provision to the contrary.

G. The ballot at such election shall have printed on it the following:

"FOR adoption of a one percent (1%) local sales and use tax within the city."

"AGAINST adoption of a one percent (1%) local sales and use tax within the city."

The election shall be conducted in the manner provided by law for other municipal elections unless otherwise specified herein. If a majority of the votes cast at such an election be in favor of the adoption of a local sales and use tax, the same shall be effective in such city as follows: In order to allow time for the Comptroller's administrative duties under this Act, there shall elapse one whole calendar quarter after the Comptroller receives notice of adoption of such tax provided for in this Act, after which such local sales and use tax shall be effective in such city beginning on the first day of the calendar quarter next succeeding such elapsed quarter.

H. In any city in which a local sales and use tax has been imposed in the manner provided for herein, in the same manner and by the same procedure such city may by majority vote of the qualified voters of said city voting at an election held for that purpose abolish such tax. The ballot for any such election shall have printed on it the following:

"FOR abolition of the local sales and use tax within the city."

"AGAINST abolition of the local sales and use tax within the city."

If a majority of the votes cast at any such election be in favor of the abolition of such tax, such local sales and use tax shall be thereby abolished effective in such city as follows: There shall elapse one whole calendar quarter after the Comptroller receives the notice of abolition of such tax, after which such local sales and use tax shall be abolished in such city beginning on the first day of the calendar quarter next succeeding such elapsed quarter.

I. Within ten (10) days after any election held under the provisions of this Section at which a majority of the qualified voters voting at such election in any city shall vote in favor of the adoption or the abolition of a local sales and use tax within such city, the governing body of such city shall canvass the returns of such election and by ordinance or resolution entered in the minutes declare the results of such election. Thereafter, the City Secretary shall forward to the Comptroller by United States Registered Mail or Certified Mail a certified copy of the ordinance or resolution of the governing body canvassing the returns and declaring the result of such election. Such ordinance or resolution shall reflect the date of the election in such city, the proposition voted on, the total number of votes cast for and against the proposition, and the number of votes by which the proposition was approved, and shall be accompanied by a map of the city clearly showing the boundaries thereof. If a majority of votes be found to be against any proposition, so that the tax status of such city under this Act is not changed, no notice of the results of the election shall be filed with the Comptroller.

J. If any city in which a local sales and use tax has been imposed in the manner provided for herein shall thereafter change or alter its boundaries, the City Secretary of such city shall forward to the Comptroller by United States Registered Mail or Certified Mail a certified copy of the ordinance adding or detaching territory from such city. Such ordinance shall reflect the effective date thereof, and shall be accompanied by a map of the city clearly showing the territory added thereto or detached therefrom. Upon receipt of such ordinance and map, the tax imposed by this Act shall be effective in such added territory or abolished in such detached territory on the first day of the next succeeding quarter; provided that if the Comptroller shall notify the City Secretary in writing within ten (10) days after receipt of such ordinance and map that he requires more time, the Comptroller shall be entitled to the elapsed calendar quarter referred to in Subsection G of this Section before such tax shall be imposed in such added territory or abolished in such detached territory.

K. (1) In each city in which a local sales and use tax has been imposed in the manner provided by this Act, the tax shall be effective in such added territory or abolished in such detached territory on the first day of the next succeeding quarter; provided that if the Comptroller shall notify the City Secretary in writing within ten (10) days after receipt of such ordinance and map that he requires more time, the Comptroller shall be entitled to the elapsed calendar quarter referred to in Subsection G of this Section before such tax shall be imposed in such added territory or abolished in such detached territory.

(2) When such Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax imposed by the State of Texas and the tax imposed by this Act to his sale price, and when added, the combined tax shall constitute a part of the price, shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price. When the sale price in such city shall involve a fraction of a dollar, the two combined taxes shall be added to the sale price upon the schedule and bracket system formula set forth in Paragraphs (2) and (3) of this subsection.

(3) In the event the Legislature shall either increase or decrease the rate of such State Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax, the combined rate of the State Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax and the Local Sales and Use Tax shall be the sum of the two rates, in which event the schedule for collection of such combined taxes shall be calculated by multiplying the combined tax rate times the amount of the sale. Any fraction of one cent ($0.01) which is less than one half of one cent ($0.005) of tax shall not be collected. Any fraction of one cent ($0.01) of tax equal to one half of one cent ($0.005) or more shall be collected by the retailer as a whole cent ($0.01) of tax. The Comptroller may publish a schedule based on the above formula for use in those cities which have imposed a Local Sales and Use Tax under the authority of this Act, and which cities have a need for such schedule under the provisions of this paragraph.

L. In each city in which a local sales and use tax has been imposed in the manner provided by this Act, every retailer selling gas or electricity for residential use shall add the tax imposed by this Act to his sale price and when added the tax shall constitute a part of the price, shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be paid to the Comptroller by United States Registered Mail or Certified Mail a certified copy of the ordinance adding or detaching territory from such city.
re recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price. The amount of the tax on the sale at retail of gas and electricity for residential use shall be calculated by multiplying the amount of the tax by the sales price. Any fraction of one cent ($0.01) which is less than one-half of one cent ($0.005) shall not be collected. Any fraction of one cent ($0.01) of tax equal to or more than one-half of one cent ($0.005) or more shall be collected by the retailer as a whole cent ($0.01) of tax. The Comptroller may publish a schedule based on the above formula for cities imposing a tax on the sale at retail of gas and electricity for residential use.

Frequency of Elections

Sec. 3. No election upon a proposition to adopt a local sales and use tax in any city or to abolish such tax in such city shall be held within one (1) year from the date of the last preceding election in such city on any of such propositions.

Excise Tax: Combined Rate of Excise Tax; Imposition, Rate and Collection of Tax

Sec. 4. (A) Except as provided in Subsection D of this Section, a city where the local sales and use tax has been adopted pursuant to the provisions of this Act, there is hereby imposed an excise tax on the storage, use, or other consumption within such city of tangible personal property purchased, leased, or rented from any retailer on or after the effective date for collection of the sales tax portion of the local sales and use tax for storage, use, or other consumption within the city at the rate of one percent (1%) of the sales price of the gas and electricity for residential use, or in the case of leases or rentals, of the lease or rental price. In every city where the local sales and use tax has been adopted under this Act, there is imposed an excise tax on the storage, use or other consumption within the city of gas and electricity for residential use purchased, leased or rented from any retailer on or after the effective date for collection of the sales tax portion of the local sales and use tax for storage, use or other consumption within the city at the rate of one percent (1%) of the sales price of the gas and electricity for residential use, or in the case of leases or rentals, of the lease or rental price. In every city where the sales and use tax has been adopted under this Act, the excise tax imposed by this Section shall be substituted for that of the State where the words "this State" are used to designate the taxing authority or to delimit the tax imposed.

D. In every city where the local sales and use tax has been adopted under this Act, there is imposed an excise tax on the storage, use or other consumption within the city of gas and electricity for residential use purchased, leased or rented from any retailer on or after the effective date for collection of the sales tax portion of the local sales and use tax for storage, use or other consumption within the city at the rate of one percent (1%) of the sales price of the gas and electricity for residential use, or in the case of leases or rentals, of the lease or rental price. In every city where the local sales and use tax has been adopted under this Act, the excise tax imposed by this Section shall be calculated as provided in Subsection L, Section 2 of this Act and shall be collected by the Comptroller on behalf of and for the benefit of the city in the same manner as if the use, storage or other consumption of gas and electricity for residential use were not exempt under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act.

E. If a sale of tangible personal property is consummated within the State but not within a city that has adopted the taxes imposed by this Act and the tangible personal property is shipped directly into or brought by the purchaser or lessee directly into a city that has adopted the taxes imposed by this Act, the tangible personal property is subject to the use tax imposed by the city under Subsection A of this Section. If the tangible personal property is shipped from outside this State to a customer within this State, the tangible personal property is subject to the sales tax imposed by Subsection A of this Section and not the sales tax imposed by Subsection B, Section 2 of this Act. The use is consummated at the first point in this State where the property is stored, used, or otherwise consumed after interstate transit has ceased. Tangible personal property delivered to a point in this State is presumed to be for storage, use, or other consumption at that point until the contrary is established.

F. If the tangible personal property is shipped from outside this State to a customer within this State, the tangible personal property is subject to the use tax imposed by Subsection A of this Section and not the sales tax imposed by Subsection B, Section 2 of this Act. If the property is shipped from outside this State to a customer within this State, the tangible personal property is subject to the sales tax imposed by Subsection A of this Section and not the sales tax imposed by Subsection B, Section 2 of this Act. If the property is sold for storage, use, or other consumption in this State, the tangible personal property is subject to the sales tax imposed by Subsection A of this Section and not the sales tax imposed by Subsection B, Section 2 of this Act.

C. The provisions of the Limited Sales, Excise, and Use Tax Act relating to the administration and collection of the storage and use tax portion of the state tax is applicable to the collection of the tax imposed by this Section, provided that in Subchapter D of Chapter 151, Tax Code, the name of the city where the local sales and use tax has been adopted shall be substituted for that of the State where the words "this State" are used to designate the taxing authority or to delimit the tax imposed.

Sec. 4A. Effective October 1, 1979, there are exempted from the taxes imposed by this Act the receipts from the sale, production, distribution, lease or rental of, and the use, storage, or other consumption within the city of gas and electricity for residential use within a city adopting the taxes imposed by this Act unless prior to May 1, 1979, the governing body of the city, by a majority vote of the membership of the governing body, votes to continue the taxes authorized by this Act on the sale, production, distribution, lease or rental of, and the use, storage, or other consumption of gas and electricity for residential use. At any time before or after October 1, 1979, the governing body of a city that has adopted the tax authorized by this Act may, by a majority vote of the membership of the governing body, exempt from the taxes imposed by this Act the receipts from the sale, production, distribution, lease or rental of, and the use, storage, or other consumption within the city of gas and electricity for residential use. The governing body of a city that has adopted the tax authorized by this Act and provided for the exemption authorized or required by this section may, by a majority vote of the governing body, reinstate the taxes on the sale, production, distribution, lease or rental of, and the use, storage, or other consumption in the city of gas and electricity for residential use. If a majority of the governing body votes for the exemption authorized by this section or for the reinstitution of the tax under this section, the results of the vote must be entered in the minutes of the city. Thereafter the city secretary shall forward to the comptroller by United States Registered or Certified Mail a copy of the ordinance. On actual receipt by the comptroller of the notification, there shall elapse one whole calendar quarter prior to the exemption or reinstatement becoming effective. The exemption or reinstatement shall take effect beginning on the first day of the calendar quarter next succeeding the elapsed quarter. If the governing body of a city, by a majority vote of the governing body, votes to exempt from the taxes authorized by this Act the receipts from the sale, production, distribution, lease, or rental of, and the use, storage, or other consumption of gas and electricity for residential use, the governing body of the city or the person, firm, or corporation doing business in the city and which has remitted a payment of the tax during the quarter covered by the report.

Comptroller: Administration, Collection, Enforcement and Operation of Tax; Reports

Art. 1066c

Sec. 5. (a) On and after the effective date of any tax imposed under the provisions of this Act, the Comptroller shall perform all functions incident to the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of the tax and the Comptroller shall collect, in addition to the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax for the State of Texas, an additional tax under the authority of this Act of one percent (1%) on the receipts from the sale at retail or on the sale price or lease or rental price on the storage, use, or other consumption of all taxable items within such city which property is subject to the State Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and an additional tax of one percent (1%) on the receipts on the sale at retail or on the sale price or lease or rental price on the storage, use, or other consumption of gas and electricity for residential use within the city as provided in this Act unless exempted as provided in Section 4A of this Act. The tax imposed hereunder and the tax imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act shall be collected together, if both are imposed, and reported upon such forms and under such administrative rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Comptroller not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. On and after the effective date of any provision to abolish such local sales and use tax in any city, the Comptroller shall comply therewith as provided in this Act.

(b) The Comptroller shall make quarterly reports to a city that has adopted this Act and is imposing the tax if the city requests the reports. The report must contain the name, address and account number of each person, firm, or corporation doing business in the city and which has remitted a payment of the tax during the quarter covered by the report.

(c) The Comptroller shall make an additional quarterly report to a city that has adopted this Act and is imposing the tax if the city requests the additional report. The additional report must include the name, address, and account number of, if any, and the amount of the tax due by each person, firm, or corporation doing business in the city and which has failed to pay the tax imposed by the city or imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act. The report by the Comptroller shall also state whether there has been a partial payment of tax by the delinquent taxpayer, whether the taxpayer is delinquent in payment of sales and use taxes to the State, and what steps, if any, have been taken by the Comptroller in order to collect the delinquent taxes.

(d) If a city determines that any person, firm, or corporation doing business in the city is not included in a report from the Comptroller, the city shall report the name and address of the person, firm, or corporation to the Comptroller. On receiving a report from a city the Comptroller shall send, before the expiration of a ninety (90) day period following the day the Comptroller received a report from the city, an explanation to the city as to why the person, firm, or corporation is not obligated to pay the tax imposed by the city, a statement that the person, firm, or corporation is obligated to pay the tax and that the tax is delinquent, or a certification that the person, firm, or corporation is obligated to pay the tax and that the full amount due under the tax has been credited to the account of the city.
Sec. 6. The following provisions shall govern the collection by the Comptroller of the tax imposed by this Act:

A. All applicable provisions contained in Subtitles A and B and Chapter 151 of Title 2, Tax Code, shall apply to the collection of the tax imposed by this Act, except as modified in this Act.

B. (1) For the purposes of the local sales and use tax, “place of business of the retailer” means an established outlet, office, or location operated by the retailer, his agent, or employee for the purpose of receiving orders for taxable items. The term “place of business of the retailer” includes any location at which three or more orders are received by the retailer in a calendar year. A warehouse, storage yard, or manufacturing plant may not be considered a “place of business of the retailer” unless three or more orders are received by the retailer in a calendar year at such warehouse, storage yard, or manufacturing plant. Each “place of business of the retailer” must have a permit issued by the Comptroller in accordance with Article 20-021, Title 122A, Taxation—General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

For the purpose of determining the proper local sales tax imposed by this Act, a retail sale, lease, or rental of tangible personal property sold, leased, or rented is consummated as provided in Paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this subdivision, regardless of where transfer of title or possession or segregation in contemplation of transfer of title or possession of the tangible personal property occurs unless the tangible personal property is delivered directly to the purchaser by the retailer’s supplier.

(d) When transfer of possession of tangible personal property occurs at or shipment or delivery originates from a location within the State other than a place of business of the retailer, the sale, lease, or rental is consummated at the location within this State to which the tangible personal property is shipped or delivered or at which possession is taken by the customer when:

(i) the retailer is an itinerant vendor and has no place of business, or

(ii) the retailer’s place of business where the purchase order is initially received or from which the retailer’s salesman who took the order operates is outside the State, or

(iii) the purchaser places the order directly with the retailer’s supplier and the property is shipped or delivered directly to the purchaser by the supplier.

(e) The sale of natural gas or electricity is consummated at the point of delivery to the consumer.

(2) For the purpose of the excise tax imposed by this Act on any retailer holding tangible personal property purchased on a resale certificate and which property becomes subject to the excise tax by reason of use or other consumption of the property, the use or other consumption of the property is consummated at the place where the property is stored or kept at the time of or just prior to its use or consumption, unless the tangible personal property is delivered by the retailer or his agent to an out-of-state destination or to a common carrier for delivery to an out-of-state destination.

(3) For the purpose of determining the proper local use tax imposed by this Act, a holder of a direct payment permit issued by the Comptroller under the Limited Sales, Excise, and Use Tax Act who becomes liable for local use tax by reason of storage, use, or other consumption of taxable items purchased in this State under a direct payment exemption certificate, shall allocate the tax to the city in which the taxable item was first removed from the permit holder’s storage, or if not stored, the place at which the items are first used or consumed by the permit holder after transportation. As used in this paragraph, storage, use, or other consumption may not include a temporary delay or interruption necessary and incident to the transportation or further fabrication, processing, or assembling of taxable items within this State for delivery to the permit holder. A charge for processing, fabrication, or further assembly in a city that has adopted the local use tax shall be subject to the local use tax. If a taxable item is first stored, used, or consumed within a city that has not adopted the tax imposed by this Act or outside of a city, no local use tax is due.
C. (1) All exemptions granted to agencies of government, organizations, persons, and to the sale, storage, use, and other consumption of certain articles and items taxable under the provisions of Subchapter H, Limited Sales, Excise, and Use Tax Act, are hereby made applicable to the imposition and collection of the tax imposed by this Act, except as specifically provided in Section 151.317(b) of that Act.

(2) The receipts from the sale, use or rental of and the storage, use or consumption in this State, of taxable items are exempt from the tax imposed by this Act, if:

(a) the items are used for the performance of a written contract entered into prior to the date this Act takes effect in any city which may affect the contract, if the contract is not subject to change or modification by reason of the tax; or

(b) the items are used pursuant to an obligation of a bid or bids submitted prior to the date this Act takes effect in any city which may affect the contract, if the bid or bids may not be withdrawn, modified, or changed by reason of the tax imposed by this Act; and

(c) if notice of a contract or bid on which an exemption is to be claimed is given by the taxpayer to the Comptroller within sixty (60) days from the date this Act takes effect in any city which may affect the bid or contract.

The exemption provided by this Subsection shall have no effect after three (3) years from the date this Act takes effect in any city.

D. The same sales tax permit, exemption certificate, and resale certificate required by the Limited Sales, Excise, and Use Tax Act for the administration and collection of the State Limited Sales, Excise, and Use Tax shall satisfy the requirements of this Act, and no additional permit or exemption certificate or resale certificate shall be required; except that the Comptroller may prescribe a form of exemption certificate for an exemption from the tax imposed by this Act as a result of a prior contract under Subsection C of this Section.

E. All discounts allowed the retailer under the provisions of the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act for the collection of and for prepayment of taxes under that Act are hereby allowed and made applicable to any taxes collected under the provisions of this Act.

F. The penalties provided in the Limited Sales, Excise, and Use Tax Act for violations of that Act are hereby made applicable to violations of this Act.

thereafter abolish such tax, the Comptroller may retain in the suspense account of such city for a period of one year five percent (5%) of the final remittance to each such city at the time of termination of collection of such tax in such city to cover possible refunds for overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of such tax in such city, the Comptroller shall remit the balance in such account to the city and close the account.

(b) A city may establish a program by which it refunds to a qualified business, as defined by the Texas Enterprise Zone Act, whose place of business is located in a local enterprise zone the amount of the Local Sales and Use Tax paid by the qualified business and remitted to the city by the Comptroller. The refund must be conditioned on the qualified business having purchased or leased equipment, machinery for use in the local enterprise zone or having purchased or leased materials for use in remodeling, rehabilitation, or constructing a structure in the local enterprise zone.

Pledge of Anticipated Revenue
Sec. 9. Money collected under this Act is for the use and benefit of the cities of the state; but no city may pledge anticipated revenue from this source to secure the payment of bonds or other indebtedness.

Existing Powers of Taxation
Sec. 10. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to abolish or limit existing powers of taxation of any city.

Comptroller; Rules and Regulations
Sec. 11. The comptroller may promulgate reasonable rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, to implement the enforcement, administration, and collection of the taxes authorized herein.

Delinquent Taxes; Collection Suits; Notice and Limitations; Parties; Seizure and Sale of Property
Sec. 12. A. In any city where the Local Sales and Use Tax has been imposed, if any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid by him under this Act or in the event a determination has been made against him for taxes and penalty under this Act, the limitation for bringing suit for the collection of such delinquent tax and penalty shall be the same as that provided in the Limited Sales, Excise, and Use Tax Act. Where any person is delinquent in payment of taxes under this Act, the Comptroller shall notify the Tax Collector of the city to which delinquent taxes are due under this Act by United States Registered Mail or Certified Mail and shall send a copy of the notice to the Attorney General. The city, acting through its attorney, may join in any suit brought by the Attorney General as a party plaintiff to seek a judgment for the delinquent taxes and penalty due such city. The notice sent by the Comptroller to the tax collector of the city showing the delinquency of a taxpayer for the local sales and use tax constitutes a certification of the amount owed and is prima facie evidence of the determination of the tax and of the delinquency of the amounts of local sales and use tax set forth in the notice.

B. Where property is seized by the Comptroller under the provisions of any law authorizing seizure of the property of a taxpayer who is delinquent in payment of the tax imposed by the State Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and where such taxpayer is also delinquent in payment of any tax imposed by this Act, the Comptroller shall sell sufficient property to pay the delinquent taxes and penalty due any city under this Act in addition to that required to pay any amount due the State under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act. The proceeds from such sale shall first be applied to all sums due the State, and the remainder, if any, shall be applied to all sums due such city.

C. (1) A city that has adopted the tax authorized by this Act may bring suit for the collection of sales, excise, or use taxes imposed by this Act which have been certified as provided in Subsection A of this Section and are owed to the city under this Act if at least 60 days before the filing of the suit, written notice by certified mail of the tax delinquency and of the intention to file suit is given to the taxpayer, the Comptroller, and the Attorney General and if neither the Comptroller nor the Attorney General disapproves the suit by written notice to the city.

(2) The Comptroller or Attorney General may disapprove the institution of tax suit by a city if
(i) negotiations between the State and the taxpayer are being conducted for the purpose of the collection of delinquent taxes owed to the State and the city seeking to bring suit;
(ii) the taxpayer owes substantial taxes to the State and there is a reasonable possibility that the taxpayer may be unable to pay the total amount owed in full;
(iii) the State will bring suit against the taxpayer for the collection of all sales, excise, and use taxes due under the Limited Sales, Excise, and Use Tax Act and this Act; or
(iv) the suit involves a critical legal question relating to the interpretation of State law or a provision of the Texas or United States Constitution in which the State has an overriding interest.

(3) A notice of disapproval to a city must give the reason for the determination of the Comptroller or Attorney General. A disapproval is final and not subject to review. A city, after one (1) year from the date of the disapproval, may proceed again as provided in paragraph (1) of Subsection C of this Section, even though the liability of the taxpayer includes taxes for which the city has previously given notice and the Comptroller or Attorney General has previously disapproved the suit.

(4) In any suit under this Subsection for the collection of city tax, a judgment for or against the taxpayer does not affect any claim against the taxpayer by another city or the State unless the State is a party to the action.

(5) A copy of the final judgment in favor of a city in a case in which the State is not a party shall be abstracted by the city and a copy of the judgment before the expiration of the 10-year period. If a collection is made by a city on a judgment, notice of the amount collected shall be sent by certified mail to the Comptroller. The Comptroller may prescribe a form for the notice to be used by cities.

Election Contest; Notice

Sec. 13. A. If the validity of any election held under authority of this Act or the result of such election based on the returns thereof shall be contested, such election contest shall be filed and tried as provided in the Election Code of the State of Texas; provided that the contestant shall notify the Comptroller by United States Registered Mail or Certified Mail within ten (10) days after filing such contest by mailing a copy of such Notice of Contest to the Comptroller showing the style of the contest, the date filed, the case number, and the Court in which the same is pending; and provided further that no such contest shall be heard unless the Comptroller is timely notified as provided herein.

B. Upon receipt of a Notice of Contest, the date upon which such tax shall become effective in any city, or abolished in any city, as a result of such election shall be suspended. When a final judgment shall be entered in such election contest, the City Secretary shall notify the Comptroller by United States Registered Mail or Certified Mail, and shall enclose a certified copy of such final judgment. If the judgment sustains the validity of such election or the result of such election so that the tax status under this Act of such city is changed, the Comptroller shall place in effect such tax, or abolish the same, as the case may be, in such city, substituting the notice of final judgment and the date on which it is received for the notice of the result of such election elsewhere provided for in this Act.

Conflicting Laws

Sec. 14. All laws and parts of laws inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency or conflict only.

Art. 1066e. Tax Increment Financing Act of 1981

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Texas Tax Increment Financing Act of 1981.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) "Captured appraised value" means the amount by which the current appraised value of taxable real property located in the boundaries of a reinvestment zone exceeds its tax increment base. Where multiple assessed valuations are being used by different taxing units within a reinvestment zone, the assessed valuation for such taxing
Art. 1066e

unit shall be used to determine the captured appraised value for the purpose of determining the tax increment for each taxing entity.

(2) "Federally assisted new community" means a federally assisted area that has received or will receive assistance in the form of loan guarantees under Title X of the National Housing Act and a portion of that federally assisted area has received grants under Section 107(a)(1) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended.

(3) "Project costs" means expenditures made or estimated to be made or monetary obligations incurred or estimated to be incurred by the city or town that are listed in a project plan as costs of public works or public improvements in a reinvestment zone, plus other costs incidental to the expenditures or obligations. Project costs include:

(A) capital costs, including the actual costs of the acquisition and construction of public works or public improvements, new buildings, structures, and fixtures; the actual costs of the acquisition, demolition, alteration, remodeling, repair, or reconstruction of existing buildings, structures, and fixtures; and the actual costs of the acquisition of land and equipment and the clearing and grading of land;

(B) financing costs, including all interest paid to holders of evidences of indebtedness or other obligations issued to pay for project costs and any premium paid over the principal amount of the obligations because of the redemption of the obligations prior to maturity;

(C) real property assembly costs;

(D) professional service costs, including those costs incurred for architectural, planning, engineering, and legal advice and services;

(E) imputed administrative costs, including reasonable charges for the time spent by employees of the city or town in connection with the implementation of a project plan;

(F) relocation costs;

(G) organizational costs, including the costs of conducting environmental impact studies or other studies, the costs of publicizing the creation of a reinvestment zone, and the cost of implementing the project plan for the reinvestment zone;

(H) interest prior to and during construction and for one year after completion of construction whether or not capitalized;

(I) the cost of operating the reinvestment zone and project facilities;

(J) the amount of any contributions made by the city or town from general revenue for the implementation of the project plan; and

(K) payments made at the discretion of the governing body of the city or town that the city or town finds necessary or convenient to the creation of a reinvestment zone or to the implementation of the project plans for the reinvestment zone.

(4) "Project plan" means the plan for the development or redevelopment of a reinvestment zone approved as provided by this Act, including all amendments to the plan approved as provided by this Act.

(5) "Reinvestment zone financing plan" means a detailed description of the project costs, including administrative expenses; the estimated amount of bonded indebtedness to be incurred; the expected sources of revenue to finance or pay project costs, including the percentage of tax increment to be derived from the property taxes of each taxing unit that levies real property taxes in the zone; the current total appraised value of taxable real property in the zone; the estimated captured appraised value of the zone during each year of its existence; and the duration of the zone.

(6) "Taxing unit" refers to a taxing unit as defined by Subdivision (12), Section 1.04, Property Tax Code.

(7) "Tax increment" means the amount of property taxes levied for a year on the captured appraised value.

(8) "Tax increment base" means the total appraised value of all taxable real property in a reinvestment zone for the year in which the zone was designated a reinvestment zone as provided by this Act. Where multiple assessed valuations are being used by different taxing units within a reinvestment zone, the assessed valuation for each such taxing unit shall be used to determine the tax increment base.

(9) "Tax increment fund" means a fund into which all tax increments not retained by a taxing unit as provided by the reinvestment zone financing plan are paid, and all revenues from the sale of tax increment finance bonds or notes issued for the zone or to satisfy claims of holders of tax increment bonds or notes issued for the zone.

Criteria for a Reinvestment Zone

Sec. 3. (a) An incorporated city or town may promote development or redevelopment of a contiguous geographic area within its jurisdiction through tax increment financing under this Act if the governing body of the city or town determines that development or redevelopment would not occur solely through private investment in the reasonably foreseeable future. The incorporated city or town must adopt an ordinance in order to designate an area a reinvestment zone for tax increment financing.

Text of (b) as amended by Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 3213, ch. 554, § 1

(b) To be designated as a reinvestment zone an area must:
(1) substantially impair or arrest the sound growth of a city or town, retard the provision of housing accommodations, or constitute an economic or social liability and be a menace to the public health, safety, morals, or welfare in its present condition and use by reason of the presence of a substantial number of substandard, slum, deteriorated, or deteriorating structures; predominate of defective or inadequate sidewalk or street layout; faulty lot layout in relation to size, adequacy, accessibility, or usefulness; unsanitary or unsafe conditions; deterioration of site or other improvements; tax or special assessment delinquency exceeding the fair value of the land; defective or unusual conditions of title; the existence of conditions that endanger life or property by fire or other cause; or any combination of these factors or conditions;

(2) be predominately open and, because of obsolete platting or deterioration of structures or site improvements, substantially impair or arrest the sound growth of the city or town;

(3) be in a federally assisted new community located within a city or town or in an area immediately adjacent to the federally assisted new community.

(4) be located wholly within an area which meets the requirements for federal assistance under Section 119 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended; or

(5) be designated a local or state-federal enterprise zone under the Texas Enterprise Zone Act.¹

Hearings; Procedure

Sec. 4. (a) Not later than the 60th day before the date of the public hearing required by Subsection (e) of this section the governing body of the city or town must notify in writing the governing body of each taxing unit that levies real property taxes in the proposed reinvestment zone that it intends to establish the zone. The notice shall contain a description of the proposed boundaries of the zone, the tentative plans for the development or redevelopment of the zone, and an estimate of the general impact of the proposed zone on property values and tax revenues. The notice may be given later than the 60th day before the date of the public hearing if the governing body of each county and school district that levies real property taxes in the proposed zone agrees to waive the requirement.

(b) A taxing unit may request additional information from the governing body of the city or town. The governing body of the city or town must notify in writing the governing body of each county and school district that levies real property taxes in the proposed reinvestment zone of the impact of the proposed zone on property values and tax revenues. The notice shall contain a description of the proposed boundaries of the zone, the tentative plans for the development or redevelopment of the zone, and an estimate of the general impact of the proposed zone on property values and tax revenues. The notice may be given later than the 15th day after the date on which the notice required by Subsection (a) of this section is given, each taxing unit that levies real property taxes in the proposed reinvestment zone shall designate a representative to meet with the governing body of the city or town to discuss the project plan and the reinvestment zone financing plan and shall notify the governing body of the city or town of its designation. At any time after the 15th day after the notice required by Subsection (a) of this section is given to every taxing unit, the governing body of the city or town may call a meeting of the representatives of the taxing units. The governing body of the city or town may call as many meetings as it considers necessary. Each representative shall be notified of each meeting in advance. At the meetings the governing body of the city or town and the representatives of the other taxing units may discuss the boundaries of the zone, development within the zone, the tax increment that each taxing unit will contribute to the tax increment fund, the retention by a taxing unit of a portion of its tax increment as permitted by Section 10 of this Act, the exclusion of particular parcels of property from the zone, the board of directors of the zone, and tax collection for the zone. On the motion of the governing body of the city or town calling the meeting, any other matter relevant to the proposed reinvestment zone may be discussed.

(d) Before adopting an ordinance providing for a reinvestment zone under this Act, the governing body of the city or town shall prepare the preliminary reinvestment zone financing plan. A copy of the plan shall be sent to the governing body of each taxing unit that levies real property taxes in the city or town and to property in the zone. At the hearing the boundaries of the city or town calling the meeting, any other matter relevant to the proposed reinvestment zone may be discussed.

(e) Prior to adoption of an ordinance providing for a reinvestment zone for tax increment financing a city or town must hold a public hearing on the adoption of the zone and its benefits to the city or town and to property in the zone. At the hearing interested parties may speak for or against the zone, the creation, the boundaries of the reinvestment zone, and the concept of tax increment financing. Notice of the hearing must be published in a newspaper having general circulation in the city or town not later than seven days before the date of the hearing.

(f) A city or town must provide a reasonable opportunity for an owner of property to protest the inclusion of his property in the zone.

(g) The ordinance must:

(1) describe the boundaries of the reinvestment zone with sufficient definiteness to identify with ordinary and reasonable certainty the territory included in the zone;

(2) create a board of directors for the zone and specify the number of members of the board as provided by Section 6 of this Act;

(3) provide that the zone takes effect on January 1 of the year following the year in which the zone is approved by adoption of the ordinance and provide a date for termination of the zone;

(4) assign a name to the district for identification purposes. The first district created shall be known as "Reinvestment Zone Number One, City or Town of [ ]" with each subsequently created zone assigned the next consecutive number;

(5) establish a "Tax Increment Fund," for the zone; and

(6) contain findings that:

(A) improvements in the zone will enhance significantly the value of all the taxable real property in the zone, although the ordinance need not identify the specific parcels enhanced in value, and will be of general benefit to the city or town;

(B) the area meets the requirements set out in Section 3 of this Act.

Restrictions

Sec. 5. (a) A reinvestment zone may not be created if more than 10 percent of the property in the zone, excluding that which is publicly owned, is used for residential purposes, or if the total appraised value of taxable real property in the zone according to the most recent appraisal rolls of the city or town and the total appraised value of taxable real property in existing zones according to the most recent appraisal rolls of the city or town exceeds 15 percent of the current total appraised value of taxable real property in the city or town and in the industrial districts created by the city or town.

(b) The boundaries of a zone may be reduced or enlarged by resolution or ordinance of the city or town; provided, however, that such boundaries may not be changed to include within the zone property more than 10 percent of which, excluding property dedicated to public use, is used for residential purposes, or to include more than 15 percent of the current total appraised value of taxable real property in the city or town and in the industrial districts created by the city or town.

(c) For purposes of this section property is used for residential purposes if it is occupied by a house which has less than five living units.

(d) A reinvestment zone may not be created nor may its boundaries be changed if the creation or change will result in more than 15 percent of the total appraised value of real property taxable by a county or school district according to the most recent appraisal roll of the county or school district being located within one or more reinvestment zones.

Board of Directors

Sec. 6. (a) The number of members of the board of directors may not be fewer than five nor more than 15, unless more than 15 members are required to satisfy the provisions of Subsection (b) of this section.

(b) Each taxing unit that levies real property taxes in the reinvestment zone may appoint one member of the board of directors of the zone. A unit may waive its right to appoint a director. The governing body of the city or town may appoint not more than 10 additional directors to the board. However, if there are fewer than five directors appointed by taxing units other than the city or town, the governing body of the city or town may appoint more than 10 additional directors as long as the total membership of the board does not exceed 15.

(c) Members of the board of directors are appointed for terms of two years unless longer terms are provided pursuant to Article XI, Section 11, Texas Constitution. Terms of members may be staggered. A vacancy on the board is filled for the unexpired term by appointment of the governing body of the taxing unit that appointed the director who served in the vacant seat.

(d) To be eligible for appointment by the governing body of the city or town to the board of directors of a zone, an individual must:

(1) be a qualified voter of the city or town; or

(2) be at least 18 years old and own real property in the zone, without regard to whether he or she resides in the city or town.

(e) Each year the governing body of the city or town shall appoint one member of the board of directors to serve as chairman of the board for a term of one year that begins on January 1 of the following year. The board of directors may elect a vice-chairman to preside in the absence of the chairman or when there is a vacancy in the position of chairman. The board may elect other officers as it sees fit.

Recommendations and Powers

Sec. 7. The board of directors shall make recommendations to the governing body of the city or town concerning administration of this Act in the zone. In addition to the powers delegated to the board of directors under other provisions of this Act, the governing body of the city or town by ordinance may delegate to the board any powers and duties with regard to the implementation of the project plan for the zone that the governing body considers advisable.

Plans

Sec. 8. (a) The board of directors of a reinvestment zone must prepare and adopt a project plan and a reinvestment zone financing plan for the zone and must submit the plans to the governing body of the city or town. These plans must be as consistent as possible with the preliminary plans developed for the zone prior to the creation of the board. The reinvestment zone financing plan must include a statement listing the kind, number, and location of all proposed public works or public improvements in the zone, an economic feasibility study, a detailed list of estimated project costs, and a description of the methods of financing all estimated project costs and the time when related costs or monetary obligations are to be incurred. The project plan must include a map showing existing uses and conditions of real property in the zone and a map showing proposed improvements to and use of real property in the zone. Proposed changes of zoning ordinances, the master plan, building codes, and city ordinances must also be included in the plan along with a list of estimated nonproject costs and a statement of a method of relocating persons to be displaced as a result of implementation of the plan.

(b) The governing body of the city or town must approve a project plan or reinvestment zone financing plan after its adoption by the board. The approval must be by ordinance that finds that the plan is feasible and conforms to the master plan, if any, of the city or town.

(c) The board of directors of the zone at any time may adopt an amendment to the project plan consistent with the requirements and limitations of this Act. The amendment takes effect on approval by the governing body of the city or town. Approval must be by ordinance. If an amendment reduces or increases the geographic area of the zone, increases the amount of bonded indebtedness to be incurred, increases or decreases the percentage of a tax increment to be contributed by a taxing entity, increases the total estimated project costs, or designates additional property within the zone to be acquired by the city, the approval must be by ordinance adopted after a public hearing that satisfies the procedural requirements of Subsections (e) and (f) of Section 4 of this Act.

Powers of Cities or Towns

Sec. 9. A city or town may exercise any power necessary and convenient to carry out this Act, including the power to:

(1) create reinvestment zones and to describe the boundaries of the zones;

(2) cause project plans to be prepared, to approve and implement the plans, and otherwise achieve the purposes of the plan;

(3) acquire real property by purchase, condemnation, or other means to implement project plans and sell such property upon such terms and conditions as it may deem advisable;

(4) issue tax increment bonds or notes;

(5) deposit tax increments into the tax increment fund;

(6) enter into agreements, including agreements with bondholders, determined by the governing body of the city or town to be necessary or convenient to implement project plans and achieve their purposes. The agreements may include conditions, restrictions, or covenants that either run with the land or by other means regulate or restrict the use of land; and

(7) consistent with a project plan for a reinvestment zone adopted by the governing body of the city or town, acquire blighted, deteriorated, deteriorating, undeveloped, inappropriately developed real property, or other property in a blighted area or in a federally assisted new community in the zone for the preservation or restoration of historic sites, beautification or conservation, or the provision of public works or public facilities or other public purposes; or acquire, construct, reconstruct, or install public works, facilities, and sites or other public improvements, including utilities, streets, street lights, water and sewer facilities, pedestrian malls and walkways, parks, flood and drainage facilities, educational facilities, and parking facilities.

Collection and Deposit of Tax Increments

Sec. 10. (a) Each taxing unit that taxes real property in a reinvestment zone shall provide for the collection of its taxes in the zone as for any other property taxed by the unit. The unit shall pay into the tax increment fund for the zone an amount equal to the tax increment produced by the unit, less the sum of:

1. any property taxes produced from the tax increments which are, by contract executed prior to the designation of the area as a reinvestment zone, required to be paid over by the taxing unit to another political subdivision; and
2. a portion, not to exceed 15 percent, of the tax increment produced by the unit as provided by the reinvestment zone financing plan.

(b) The taxing unit shall make the payment provided by Subsection (a) of this section not later than the 90th day after the delinquency date for the unit's property taxes. A delinquent payment incurs a penalty of five percent of the amount delinquent and accrues interest at an annual rate of 10 percent.

(c) A taxing unit is not required to pay a tax increment into the zone's tax increment fund beyond three years from the date the zone was created, or, if the zone was created before the effective date of this Act, beyond September 1, 1986, unless the following conditions exist or have been met within three years from the date the zone was created, or prior to September 1, 1986, in those zones created before the effective date of this Act:

1. bonds have been issued for the zone under Section 11 of this Act;
2. the town or city has acquired property within the zone pursuant to the project plan; or
3. construction of improvements pursuant to the project plan has commenced in the zone.

Tax Increment Bonds or Notes

Sec. 11. (a) A city or town may issue tax increment bonds or notes, the proceeds of which may be used to pay project costs for a reinvestment zone on behalf of which the bonds or notes were issued or to satisfy claims of holders of the bonds or notes. The city or town may issue refunding bonds or notes for the payment or retirement of tax increment bonds or notes previously issued by it. Tax increment bonds shall be made payable, as to both principal and interest, solely from the tax increment fund established by the city or town for the reinvestment zone. A city or town may provide in its contract with the owners or holders of the tax increment bonds that it will pay into the tax increment fund all or any part of the revenue or money produced or received as a result of the operation or sale of a facility acquired, improved, or constructed pursuant to a project plan, to be used to pay principal and interest on the tax increment bonds and, if a city or town so agrees, the owners or holders of the tax increment bonds may have a lien or mortgage on any facility acquired, improved, or constructed with the proceeds of the tax increment bonds. Tax increment bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be issued by ordinance of the city or town without any additional approval other than the approval of the Attorney General of the State of Texas.

(b) Tax increment bonds or notes, together with interest on and income from the bonds or notes, shall be exempt from all taxes. The bonds or notes shall be authorized by ordinance of the governing body of the city or town and may be issued in one or more series. They shall bear a date or dates, be payable upon demand or mature at a time or times, bear interest at a rate or rates, be in a denomination or denominations, be in a form (either coupon or registered), carry conversion or registration privileges, have a rank or priority, be executed in a manner, be payable in a medium of payment at a place or places, and be subject to terms of redemption (with or without premium), be secured in a manner, and have other characteristics as may be provided by the ordinance approving the bonds or notes or by the trust indenture or mortgage issued in connection with the bonds or notes. Any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this Act shall be fully negotiable. In a suit, an action, or other proceeding involving the validity or enforceability of a bond or note issued under this Act or the security for a bond or note issued under this Act, a bond or note reciting in substance that it had been issued by or against the body of the city or town and may be issued in one or more series. They shall bear a date or dates, be payable upon demand or mature at a time or times, bear interest at a rate or rates, be in a denomination or denominations, be in a form (either coupon or registered), carry conversion or registration privileges, have a rank or priority, be executed in a manner, be payable in a medium of payment at a place or places, and be subject to terms of redemption (with or without premium), be secured in a manner, and have other characteristics as may be provided by the ordinance approving the bonds or notes or by the trust indenture or mortgage issued in connection with the bonds or notes. Any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this Act shall be fully negotiable. In a suit, an action, or other proceeding involving the validity or enforceability of a bond or note issued under this Act or the security for a bond or note issued under this Act, a bond or note reciting in substance that it had been issued by the city or town for a reinvestment zone shall be conclusively deemed to have been issued for that purpose, and the development or redevelopment of the zone shall be conclusively deemed to have been planned, located, and carried out as provided by this Act.

(c) All banks, trust companies, savings banks and institutions, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, investment companies, and other persons carrying on a banking or investment business; all insurance companies, insurance associations, and other persons carrying on an insurance business; and all executors, administrators, curators, trustees, and other fiduciaries may legally invest any sinking funds, money, or other funds belonging to them or within their control in tax increment bonds or notes issued by a city or town pursuant to this Act. The bonds or notes shall be authorized security for all public deposits. Any persons, political subdivisions, and officers, public or private, are authorized to use any funds owned or controlled by them for the purchase of any tax increment bonds or notes. This Act does not relieve any person of the duty to exercise reasonable care in selecting securities.

(d) Tax increment bonds or notes shall be payable only out of the tax increment fund. The governing body of the city or town may irrevocably pledge all or a part of the fund for payment of the bonds or notes. The part of the fund pledged in payment may thereafter be used only for the payment of the bonds or notes or interest on the bonds or notes until the bonds or notes have been fully paid. A holder of the bonds or notes or of coupons issued on the bonds shall have a lien against the fund for payment of the bonds or notes and interest thereon and may either at law or in equity protect and enforce such lien.

(e) Tax increment bonds or notes issued under this Act shall not be general obligations of the city or town, nor in any event shall they give rise to a charge against the general credit or taxing powers of the city or town or be payable other than as provided by this Act. Any tax increment bonds or notes issued under this Act shall so state these restrictions on their face.

(f) Tax increment bonds or notes issued under this Act shall not be included in any computation of the debt of the issuing city or town.

(g) Tax increment bonds or notes may not be issued in an amount exceeding the total costs of implementing the project plan for the zone for which they were issued. The bonds or notes shall mature within 20 years of their date of issue.

Annual Reports

Sec. 12. (a) On or before July 1 of each year, the governing body of the city or town shall submit to the chief executive officer of every taxing unit that levies property taxes on taxable real property in the district a report on the status of the zone. The report shall include the following information:

(1) the amount and source of revenue in the tax increment fund established for the reinvestment zone;

(2) the amount and purpose of expenditures from the fund;

(3) the amount of principal and interest due on any outstanding bonded indebtedness;

(4) the tax increment base and the current captured appraised value retained by the zone; and

(5) the captured appraised value shared by the city or town and other taxing units, the total in tax increments received, and any additional information necessary to demonstrate compliance with the tax increment financing plan adopted by the governing body of the city or town.

(b) A copy of this report shall be forwarded to the attorney general.

Termination of a Reinvestment Zone

Sec. 13. A reinvestment zone shall terminate at the time designated in the ordinance creating the zone or at an earlier time designated by a subsequent ordinance, but in any event the zone shall terminate at such time as all project costs and tax increment bonds, and the interest thereon, have been paid in full. However, the tax increment pledged to the payment of bonds and interest on the bonds may be discharged and the reinvestment zone may be terminated if the city or town deposits or causes to be deposited with a trustee or other escrow agent as may be authorized by law funds that, together with the interest earned on the investment of the funds in direct obligations of the United States of America, will be sufficient to pay the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on all bonds issued on behalf of the reinvestment zone at maturity or at the date fixed for the redemption of the bonds, and to pay any other amounts as may become due including escrow creation due or to become due to the trustee or escrow agent.

Tax Increment Fund

Sec. 14. (a) Money shall be disbursed from the tax increment fund for a reinvestment zone only to satisfy the claims of holders of tax increment bonds or notes issued for the reinvestment zone or to pay project costs for the zone.

(b) Subject to an agreement with the holders of tax increment bonds or notes, money in a tax increment fund may be temporarily invested in the same manner as other funds of the city or town.

(c) After all project costs and all tax increment bonds or notes issued for a reinvestment zone have been paid, and subject to any agreement with bondholders, if there is any money in the fund, it shall be paid over to the city or town and other taxing units levying taxes on property within the zone in amounts that reflect the respective share of total tax increments resulting from taxable real property in a reinvestment zone that were deposited in the fund during the fund’s existence.

Sections 2 to 4 of the 1981 Act provide:

"Sec. 2. (a) A reinvestment zone designated pursuant to this Act may not incur tax increments before January 1, 1982.

(b) A tax incremental district approved by a city or town pursuant to Chapter 555, Acts of the 66th Legislature, Regular Session, 1979 (Article 1066e, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), may be designated by ordinance adopted by the governing body of the city or town as a reinvestment zone under this Act. No other act is necessary for the newly designated zone to exercise powers or perform duties as provided by this Act.

"Sec. 3. This Act expires December 31, 1991. A reinvestment zone established before that date may continue in existence beyond that date as provided by the ordinance creating the zone.

"Sec. 4. This Act takes effect only if the constitutional amendment proposed by S.J.R. No. 8, 67th Legislature, 1st Called Session, 1981, is adopted."
Art. 1066e

The constitutional amendment proposed by Acts 1981, 67th Leg., 1st C.S., S.J.R. No. 3, was approved by the voters at an election held November 3, 1981.

Section 2 of Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2227, ch. 554, provided:

"(a) A reinvestment zone created or operated under the Texas Tax Increment Financing Act of 1981 (Article 1066e, Revised Statutes) as it existed before the effective date of this Act (or a reinvestment zone upon which there had been a hearing after a city had made expenditures with respect to its creation) may operate as it existed (or as it was proposed to have existed) prior to the effective date of this Act; provided that, before January 1, 1984, the board of directors of the zone and the plans for the zone are reconstituted to conform to Sections 6 and 8 of the Texas Tax Increment Financing Act of 1981 (Article 1066e, Revised Statutes) as amended by this Act. Nothing herein contained is intended to or shall be construed to authorize the impairment of any contract entered into prior to the effective date of this Act.

"(b) Tax collection for a reinvestment zone for taxes imposed in 1983 and before is governed by Section 10, Texas Tax Increment Financing Act of 1981 (Article 1066e, Revised Statutes) as it existed when the taxes were imposed. Tax collection and the deposit of tax increments into the tax increment fund for 1984 and subsequent tax years are governed by Section 10 of that Act as amended by this Act."

Art. 1066f. Property Redevelopment and Tax Abatement Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Property Redevelopment and Tax Abatement Act.

Agreements for Property Tax Abatement for Property in Need of Improvements

Sec. 2. (a) The governing body of an incorporat ed city or town shall agree in writing with the owner of taxable real property located in an area designated as a reinvestment zone under Section 3 of this Act, but not located within an improvement project financed by tax increment bonds, to exempt from taxation all or part of the value of the property for any period not in excess of 15 years, subject to the rights of holders of outstanding bonds of the city or town, on the condition that the owner of the property make specified improvements or repairs to the property in conformity with the comprehensive plan, if any, of the city or town. Written agreements with property owners located within a reinvestment zone shall contain identical terms regarding the share of the property that is to be exempt from taxation under the agreement and the duration of the exemption.

(b) An agreement under Subsection (a) of this section must include provisions for:

(1) listing the kind, number, and location of all proposed improvements of the property;

(2) access to and inspection of property by municipal employees to ensure that the improvements or repairs are made according to the specifications and conditions of the agreements;

(3) limiting the uses of the property consistent with the general purpose of encouraging development or redevelopment of the zone during the period that property tax exemptions are in effect; and

(4) recapturing property tax revenue lost as a result of the agreement if the owner of the property fails to make the improvements or repairs as provided by the agreement.

(c) An agreement under Subsection (a) or (d) of this section may include, at the option of the city or town, provisions for:

(1) improvements or repairs by the city to streets, sidewalks, and utility services or facilities associated with the property, except that the agreement may not provide for lower charges or rates than are made for other services or properties of a similar character;

(2) an economic feasibility study, including a detailed list of estimated improvement costs, a description of the method of financing all estimated costs, and the time when related costs or monetary obligations are to be incurred;

(3) a map showing existing uses and conditions of real property in the reinvestment zone;

(4) a map showing proposed improvements and uses in the reinvestment zone; and

(5) proposed changes of zoning ordinances, the master plan, the map, building codes, and city ordinances.

(d) If an area is designated a reinvestment zone, every taxing unit that includes inside its boundaries property that is contained inside the boundaries of the reinvestment zone may execute a written agreement with the owner of any property on which the property taxes are abated due to an agreement under Subsection (a) of this section. Such an agreement must contain terms identical to those contained in the agreement with the city or town regarding the share of the property that is to be exempt from taxation under the agreement, the duration of the exemption, and the provisions included in the agreement pursuant to Subsections (b) and (c) of this section. If a taxing unit fails to execute such an agreement, the taxing unit is limited to taxing any property that is the subject of an agreement under Subsection (a) of this section at the same value at which the property was taxed in the year preceding the execution of the agreement with the city or town, for a period of time equal to twice the duration of the agreement with the city or town.

Designation of Reinvestment Zones

Sec. 3. (a) To be designated as a reinvestment zone, an area must:

(1) substantially impair or arrest the sound growth of a city or town, retard the provision of housing accommodations, or constitute an economic or social liability and be a menace to the public health, safety, morals, or welfare in its present condition and use by reason of the presence of a substantial number of substandard, subm, deteriorated, or deteriorating structures; predominance of defective or inadequate sidewalk or street layout;
faulty lot layout in relation to size, accessibility, or usefulness; unsanitary or unsafe conditions; deterioration of site or other improvements; tax or special assessment delinquency exceeding the fair value of the land; defective or unusual conditions of title; the existence of conditions that endanger life or property by fire or other cause; or any combination of these factors or conditions;

(2) be predominantly open and, because of obsolescent platting or deterioration of structures or site improvements, or other factors, substantially impair or arrest the sound growth of the city or town;

(3) be in a federally assisted new community located within a home-rule city or in an area immediately adjacent to the federally assisted new community;

(4) be located wholly within an area which meets the requirements for federal assistance under Section 119 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974; or

(5) be designated a local or state-federal enterprise zone under the Texas Enterprise Zone Act.

(b) For the purposes of Subdivision (3) of Subsection (a) of this section, a federally assisted new community is a federally assisted area that received or will receive assistance in the form of loan guarantees under Title X of the National Housing Act and a portion of the federally assisted area has received grants under Section 107(a)(1) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974.

(c) The governing body of an incorporated city or town may designate, by boundaries, as a reinvestment zone any area within the taxing jurisdiction of the city or town that the governing body finds to satisfy the requirements of Subsection (a) of this section, subject to the limitations set forth by Section 4 of this Act. The governing body of an incorporated city or town shall designate a reinvestment zone eligible for residential property tax abatement, or commercial-industrial tax abatement, or tax incentive financing as provided for in S. B. No. 16, 67th Legislature, 1st Called Session, 1981.

Limitations on the Designation of an Area

Sec. 4. (a) An area of a reinvestment zone for residential tax abatement or commercial-industrial tax abatement may be included in overlapping or coincidental residential and commercial-industrial zones. In that event, the zone in which the property should be considered for the purpose of execution of an agreement under this Act shall be determined by the comprehensive zoning ordinance, if any, of the city or town.

(b) Designation of a zone for residential or commercial-industrial tax abatement expires five years after the date of the designation and may be renewed for periods not to exceed five years. The expiration of the designation does not affect existing agreements under this Act.

(c) Property in a reinvestment zone that is owned or leased by a member of the governing body of the city or town or by a member of a zoning or planning board or commission of the city or town is excluded from property tax abatement or tax increment financing.

(d) In a city or town having a comprehensive zoning ordinance, an improvement, development, or redevelopment taking place pursuant to an agreement under Section 2 of this Act must conform to that comprehensive zoning ordinance.

Hearings, Procedure

Sec. 5. (a) The designation of a reinvestment zone under this Act must be made by an ordinance of the city or town that describes the boundaries of the reinvestment zone and the eligibility of the zone for residential or commercial-industrial tax abatement or for tax increment financing.

(b) An ordinance designating an area as a reinvestment zone may not be adopted until the governing body of the city or town has held a public hearing on the designation and has found that the improvements sought are feasible and practical and would be a benefit to the land to be included in the zone and to the municipality after an agreement entered into in accordance with Section 2 of this Act has expired. At the hearing, interested persons are entitled to speak and present evidence for or against the designation. Notice of the hearing must be published in a newspaper having general circulation in the city or town not later than seven days before the date of the hearing.

(c) To be effective, an agreement made under Section 2 of this Act must be approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the governing body of the city, town, or taxing unit at a regularly scheduled meeting of the governing body. On approval by the governing body, the agreement may be executed as are other contracts made by the city, town, or taxing unit.

Modification or Termination of Agreement

Sec. 6. (a) An agreement made under Section 2 of this Act may be modified by the parties to the agreement to include other provisions that could have been included in the original agreement or to delete provisions that were not necessary to the original agreement at any time during the period of the agreement by the same procedure by which the original agreement was approved and executed. The original agreement may not be amended to extend beyond 15 years from the date of the original agreement.

(b) An agreement made under Section 2 of the Act may be terminated by the mutual consent of the
Art. 1066f

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

3. To require the inhabitants to keep and provide as many fire buckets and ladders, or other means to reach the roof as they shall prescribe, and to regulate the use thereof in times of fire.

4. To compel the owners or occupants of houses or other buildings to have scuttles in the roofs and stairs or ladders leading to the same.

5. To regulate or prevent the carrying on of manufactories and works dangerous in promoting or causing fires; to prohibit or regulate the building and erection of cotton presses and sheds.

6. To regulate or prevent and prohibit the use of fireworks and firearms.

7. To direct, control or prohibit the keeping and management of houses or any buildings for the storing of gun powder and other combustible, explosive or dangerous materials within the city; to regulate the keeping and conveying of the same.

8. To regulate and prescribe the manner and to order the building of parapet and party walls.

9. To authorize the mayor, officers of fire companies or any officer of said city to keep away from the vicinity of any fire all idle, disorderly or suspicious persons, and arrest and imprison the same, and compel all officers of the city and all other persons to aid in the extinguishment of fires and in the preservation of property exposed to danger thereof, and in preventing theft.

10. And generally to establish such regulations for the prevention and extinguishment of fires as the city council may deem expedient.

Art. 1068.

Fire Regulations

The city council shall have power:

1. To prevent and prohibit the dangerous condition of chimneys, flues, fireplaces, stove pipes, ovens or other apparatus used in or about any building or manufactory, and to cause the same to be removed or placed in a secure and safe condition.

2. To prevent the deposit of ashes where they would be liable to produce fire, or in any wooden box or barrel, or within any wooden building, and to appoint officers to enter into any building or enclosure to examine and discover whether the same are in a dangerous state, and to cause such as may be dangerous to be put in a safe condition.

Art. 1070. May Destroy Buildings

When any building in the city is on fire, it shall be lawful for the chief or acting chief engineer, with the concurrence of the mayor, to direct such building, or any other building which they may deem hazardous and likely to take fire and communicate to other buildings, to be torn down or blown up or destroyed, and no action shall be maintained against any person or against the city therefor. Any person interested in any such building so destroyed or injured may, within six months, and not thereafter, apply in writing to the city council to assess and pay the damage he has sustained, and, if the city council and the claimant cannot agree on the terms of adjustment, then the application of such claimant shall be referred to three commissioners, one to be appointed by the claimant, one by the city council and the third by both. Said commissioners shall be qualified voters and owners of real estate in the city. They shall be sworn faithfully to execute their duty according to the best of their ability, shall have power to subpoena and swear witnesses and shall give all parties a fair and impartial hearing, and give notice of the time and place of meeting. They shall take into account the probabilities of the building being destroyed by fire if it had not been so destroyed, and the loss of insurance upon said property, if any, caused by destroying the same, and may report that no damage should equitably be allowed to such claimant. Wherever a report shall be made and finally confirmed for the appraising of said damages, a compliance with the terms thereof by the city council shall be deemed a full satisfaction of said damages.

Art. 1070a. Uniform Fire Hose Couplings and Hydrant Outlets

Sec. 1. That after this Act takes effect all fire department hose couplings and fire hydrant hose outlets now in service or which may hereafter be installed in this State, except those which are commonly known as the large steamer or pumper outlets shall be provided with an uniform thread conforming to the following specifications, to wit:

Inside diameter of male thread 2.5 inches.

Outside diameter of finished male thread 3.0625 inches.

Diameter at root of finished male thread 2.8715 inches.

Pitch diameter of male thread 2.9670 inches.

Clearance between male and female thread .03 inches.

Total length of threaded male end one inch.

Flat at top and valley of thread .01 inch.

Pitch or number of threads per inch 7.5.

Pattern—60 degree V thread. Female end cut ¾ inch shorter than male end for endwise clearance. Outer ends of male and female threads terminated by the "Higbee Cut," to avoid crossing and mutilation of otherwise finely drawn out thread. Outer end of male thread left blank ¼ inch.

Sec. 2. The State Fire Insurance Commission of Texas shall have full supervision over the work necessary to be done in carrying out the provisions of this Act, and that department shall employ competent mechanics and provide all necessary equipment, tools and appliances and proceed with said work, and complete it at the earliest date circumstances will permit.

Sec. 3. The State Fire Insurance Commission shall notify all property owners having equipment for fire protection purposes which it may be necessary for a fire department to use in putting out fire, of the changes necessary to meet the requirements of this Act, and shall render such assistance as may be available in converting their equipment to conform to said requirements.

Sec. 4. The sum of $5,000 or such part thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1928, and $5,000 or such part thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1929, to be used for the purchase of equipment, tools and appliances, and for salaries and traveling expenses and all other necessary expenses of mechanics, in carrying out the provisions of this Act.

Art. 1070b. Cities Bordering Mexico; Mutual Fire Protection Agreements

Sec. 1. Any Texas city bordering on the Republic of Mexico may enter into a mutual fire protection agreement with its corresponding border city in the Republic of Mexico.

Sec. 2. Any Texas fireman responding to a call for fire fighting assistance from the corresponding border city in the Republic of Mexico under the terms of an agreement authorized by Section 1 of this Act shall be deemed to be performing his "official duty" as that term is understood in Article III, Section 51–d, of the Texas Constitution.

CHAPTER SEVEN. SANITARY DEPARTMENT

Art. 1071. Health Officers.

The city council shall appoint a health officer, and as many health inspectors as they may deem necessary, and shall prescribe, by ordinance, the powers and duties and compensation of the same.

Art. 1072. Regulation of Disease, etc.

The city council may take such measures as they may deem effectual to prevent the entrance of any pestilence, contagious or infectious diseases into the city; to stop, detain and examine for that purpose any person coming from any place infected, or believed to be infected, with such disease; to establish, maintain and regulate pesthouses or hospitals at some place within or not exceeding five miles beyond the city limits; to cause any person who shall be suspected of being infected with any such disease to be sent to such pesthouse or hospital; to remove from the city or destroy any furniture, wearing apparel, or property of any kind which shall enter the city, knowingly having on board any person sick of a malignant fever, or pestilential, contagious or infectious disease, unless such person become sick on the way and could not be left, shall, within three hours after the arrival of such sick person, report in writing the facts, with the name of such person and the house where he was put down in the city, to the health officer.

Art. 1073. Public Conveyances

The owner, driver, conductor or person in charge of any stage, railroad car or public conveyance which shall enter the city, knowingly having on board any person sick of a malignant fever, or pestilential, contagious or infectious disease, unless such person become sick on the way and could not be left, shall, within three hours after the arrival of such sick person, report in writing the facts, with the name of such person and the house where he was put down in the city, to the health officer.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

1 Probably should read "became."

Art. 1074. Shall Report Disease

Every keeper of a hotel, boarding or lodging house in the city, in which any inmate thereof shall be sick with any infectious or pestilential disease, shall upon such fact coming to this knowledge, forthwith report the same to the health officer. Every physician in the city shall report, under his hand, to the officer above named, the name, residence and disease of every patient whom he shall have sick of any infectious or pestilential disease, within six hours after he shall have visited such patient.

Art. 1075. Physician, Powers

The health officer may be authorized by the council, when the public interest requires, to exercise for the time being such of the powers and perform such of the duties of the chief of police as the city council may direct, and is authorized to enter all houses and other places, private or public, at all times, in the discharge of such duties, having first asked permission of the owners or occupants. The city council shall have power to punish, by fine, any neglect or refusal to observe the orders and regulations of the health officer.

Art. 1076. Sewerage, etc.

Every city in the State, however organized, having underground sewers or cesspools, shall pass ordinances regulating the tapping of said sewers and cesspools, regulating house draining and plumbing.

Art. 1077. Plumbing Inspector

In any such city where there is no city inspector of plumbing provided for by special charter, the governing body shall elect such inspector of plumbing, who shall hold office for such time as fixed by such board. Such inspector of plumbing may be the city engineer, if the board sees fit to elect him.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Arts. 1078 to 1081. Repealed by Acts 1947, 50th Leg., p. 192, ch. 115, § 16

CHAPTER EIGHT. STREETS AND ALLEYS

The city council shall be invested with full power and authority to grade, gravel, repair, pave or otherwise improve any avenue, street or alley, or any portion thereof, within the limits of said city, whenever, by a vote of two-thirds of the aldermen present, they may deem such improvement for the public interest; provided, the city council pay one-third and the owner of the property two-thirds
Art. 1083. Estimates of Cost

Whenever the city council shall determine to make any such improvement, they shall cause an estimate to be made of the probable cost thereof by the city engineer, or by some other officer of the city, or by a committee of three aldermen; and such engineer or other officer or committee shall also report a full list of all lots or fractional lots, giving number and size of the same, and the number of the block in which situated, and the names of the owners thereof, if known, and such other information as may be required by the city council; and if there be a lot or fractional lot the owner of which is not known, the same shall be entered on said list as unknown. The officer or committee aforesaid shall enter on said list, opposite such lot or fractional lot lying and being on each side of the street, avenue or alley so to be improved as aforesaid, one-third of the estimated expense for such work or improvement on such avenue, street or alley fronting, adjoining or opposite such lot or fractional lot; and, on the acceptance and approval of said report and list by the city council, said amount shall be imposed, levied and assessed as taxes, and shall be a lien upon the property until the payment of the same.

Art. 1084. Execution on Property

After such action on the part of the city council, such officer or committee shall give such notice as may be required by ordinance, of said tax being due and within what time payable, and shall begin to collect the same. After the expiration of the period for payment of said tax, said officer or committee shall levy on so much of any property on said list on which said tax has not been paid as will be sufficient to pay the same, and the same notice of sale as is required in sales for other tax shall be given. If said tax is not paid before the day of sale, said officer or committee shall sell property in the name and under the circumstances, and to the extent and subject to the same conditions which may be provided by ordinance for the sale of real estate in the city charged with the payment of taxes imposed by said corporation. Said officer or committee shall execute a deed to the purchaser at any such sale; and all other provisions of this title in reference to a deed drawn by the assessor and collector shall apply to the deed herein provided for.

Art. 1085. Suit

In addition to the authority granted to the city council to collect said assessment of taxes, they shall have the additional remedy of instituting suit in the corporate name for the recovery against any owner of the property for the amount due for any such work so made as aforesaid. They shall provide by resolution or ordinance under the provision of this title, for carrying out and executing the powers in this chapter conferred, and may adopt necessary resolutions, ordinances and regulations.

Art. 1085a. Freeways

Sec. 1. The State Highway Commission or the governing body of any incorporated city, or town, within their respective jurisdictions may do any and all things necessary to lay out, acquire, construct, maintain and operate any section or portion of any State highway or city street as a freeway, and to make any highway or street within their respective jurisdictions a freeway, except that no existing State highway or city street shall be converted into a freeway except with the consent of the owners of abutting lands, or by the purchase or condemnation of their right of access thereto, providing, however, nothing herein shall be construed as requiring the consent of the owners of abutting lands where a State highway, or city street is constructed, established or located for the first time as a new way for the use of vehicular and pedestrian traffic.

Sec. 2. For the purposes of this Act, the State Highway Commission, County Commissioners Courts and the governing bodies of incorporated cities and towns, may acquire the necessary property and property rights by gift, devise, purchase, or condemnation, in the same manner as such governmental agencies are now or hereafter may be authorized by law to acquire such property for State highways and city streets.

Sec. 2a. The governmental agency which holds the title and property rights to land on which a freeway is located may lease for public purposes the portions of land situated beneath the elevated sections of the freeway.

Sec. 3. “Freeway” means a State highway or city street in respect to which the right or easement of access to or from their abutting lands has been acquired in whole or in part from the owners thereof by the State Highway Commission or the governing body of an incorporated city or town as hereinabove provided.

Sec. 4. The State Highway Commission or the governing body of a city or town is authorized to close any highway or street within their respective jurisdictions at or near the point of its intersection with any freeway or to make provisions for carrying any highway or street over or under or to a connection with the freeway and may do any and all things on such highway or street as may be necessary therefor.
Art. 1085a CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Sec. 5. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this Act is for any reason held unconstitutional, the unconstitutionality thereof shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this Act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the Act and each section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase thereof irrespective of the fact that one or more of the sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict.

Art. 1085b. Private Purposes, Use of Streets and Sidewalks for Incorporated cities and towns in the State of Texas shall have the power and authority to grant the use of a portion of the streets and sidewalks of such cities and towns for private purposes, for such consideration and upon such terms as they may prescribe; provided such use shall not interfere with the public use of such streets and sidewalks, or create any hazardous or dangerous condition thereon.

Art. 1105-4. Validation of Assessments and Reassessments for Street, Sewer and Water Improvements.

Art. 1086. Powers of City

Towns, cities and villages, incorporated under either general or special law, which shall accept the benefits of this chapter as herein provided, shall have power to improve any highway within their limits, by filling, grading, raising, paving or repaving the same in a permanent manner, or by the construction or reconstruction of sidewalks, curbs and gutters, or by widening, narrowing or straightening the same, and to construct necessary appurtenances thereto, including sewers and drains, and cities having a population of less than fifteen thousand (15,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding or any future Federal census and which have levied the maximum rate of tax permitted by law, shall have the power to construct and install sanitary sewers and all of the provisions and authority of this chapter pertaining to highway improvement shall likewise apply to the construction and installation of sanitary sewers. “City” when used herein (except when otherwise provided above) shall include all incorporated towns, cities and villages, and the term “highway” shall include any street, avenue, alley, highway, or public place or square, or portion thereof, dedicated to public use. Provided that before any proposal to construct sanitary sewers hereunder shall be put into effect the Governing Body of any city shall be presented by a petition signed by two-thirds (2/3) of the abutting property owners to be affected requesting the Governing Body of the city to make such improvements.

Art. 1087. Order for Improvements

The Governing Body of any city shall have power to order the improvement of any highway therein, or part thereof, and in cities having a population of less than fifteen thousand (15,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding or any future Federal census and which have levied the maximum rate of tax permitted by law, to order the construction and installation of sanitary sewers, and to select the materials and methods of such improvement, and to contract for the construction of such improvements in the name of the city, and to provide for the payment of the cost of such improvements out of any available funds of the city.

Art. 1088. Costs

The cost of making such improvements may be wholly paid by the city, or partly by the city and partly by the owners of the property abutting thereon. In no event shall more than three-fourths of the cost of any improvement, except sidewalks and curbs, be assessed against such property owners or their property. The whole cost of construction of sidewalks and curbs in front of any property may be assessed against the owner thereof or his property. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1089. Assessments, Railway

Subject to the terms hereof, the governing body of any city shall have the power to assess against the owner of any railroad or street railroad occupying any highway ordered to be improved, the whole cost of the improvement between or under the rails or tracks of said railroad or street railroad and two feet on the outside thereof, and shall have power, by ordinance, to levy a special tax upon said railroad, or street railroad, and its roadbed, ties, rails, fixtures, rights and franchise, which tax shall constitute a lien thereon superior to any other lien or claim, except State, county and municipal taxes, and which may be enforced, either by sale of said property in the manner provided by law in the collection of ad valorem taxes by the city, or by suit against the owner. The ordinance levying said tax shall prescribe when same shall become due and delinquent, and the method of enforcing the same. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1090. Assessment and Certificates

Subject to the terms hereof, the governing body shall have power by ordinance to assess the whole cost of constructing sidewalks or curbs, and not to exceed three-fourths of the cost of any other improvement, against the owners of property abutting on such improvement and against their abutting property benefited thereby, and to provide for the time and terms of payment of such assessments and the rate of interest payable upon deferred payments thereon, which rate shall not exceed eight per cent per annum, and to fix a lien upon the property and declare such assessments to be a personal liability of the owners of such abutting property; and such governing body shall have the power to cause to be issued in the name of the city, assignable certificates declaring the liability of such owners and their property for the payment of such assessments and to fix the terms and conditions for such certificate. If any such certificate shall recite that the proceedings with reference to making such improvements have been regularly had in compliance with law, and that all prerequisites to the fixing of the assessment lien against the property described in said certificate and fixing the personal liability of the owner have been performed, such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the facts so recited. The ordinance making such assessments shall provide for the collection thereof, with costs and reasonable attorney’s fees, if incurred. Such assessments shall be secured by, and constitute a lien on said property, which shall be the first enforceable claim against the property against which it is assessed, superior to all other liens and claims, except State, county and municipal taxes. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1090a. Validating Assessment Ordinances and Liens in Certain Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall affect all cities in the State of Texas having a population of more than one hundred thousand (100,000) according to the last preceding United States Census.

Sec. 2. In every instance where a city, coming under the provisions of this Act, has attempted to fix a lien upon property by assessment ordinance for the improvement and paving of streets, highways and boulevards, where the State, County and Federal Governments have contributed to the cost of such improvement, requiring the impounding of funds by such city for the purpose of guaranteeing its portion of the cost of such paving and improvements, all actions, resolutions, order, ordinances and proceedings taken, made or passed in reference thereto, or pursuant thereto, are hereby confirmed, ratified and validated, and the lien attempted to be fixed by said assessment ordinance is a valid and subsisting lien against the property assessed irrespective of any irregularities or defects in the proceeding and in like manner as if said assessment had been authorized in the first instance. [Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 802, ch. 327.]

Art. 1091. Exempt Property

Nothing herein shall be construed to empower any city to fix a lien by assessment against any property exempt by law from sale under execution; but the owner of such exempt property shall nevertheless be personally liable for the cost of improvements constructed in front of his property, which may be assessed against him. The fact that any improvement is omitted in front of exempt property shall not invalidate the lien of assessments made against other property on the highway improved, not so exempt. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1092. Enforcement of Lien

The lien created against any property, or the personal liability of the owner thereof, may be enforced by suit or by sale of the property assessed in the same manner as may be provided by law for the sale of property for ad valorem city taxes. The recital in any deed made pursuant to such sale, that all legal prerequisites to said assessment and sale have been complied with, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts so recited and shall in all courts be accepted without further proof. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]
No assessments of any part of the cost of such improvement shall be made against any property abutting thereon or its owner, until a full and fair hearing shall first have been given to the owners of such property, preceded by a reasonable notice thereof given to said owners, their agents, or attorneys. Such notice shall be by advertisement inserted at least three times in some newspaper published in the city, town or village where such tax is sought to be levied, if there be such a paper there; if not, then in the nearest to said city, town or village, or general circulation in the county in which said city is located; and, in addition, if the owner of such abutting property is a railway or street railway, written notice of the assessment and hearing thereon shall be served by either delivering in person to the local agent or by depositing the same in the city post office, postage paid, and properly addressed to the offices of the railway or street railway at the address as it appears on the last approved city tax roll; and such written notice, if required, shall be mailed or delivered, and the first publication shall be made, at least ten (10) days before the date of the hearing. The governing body may provide for additional notice cumulative of that notice specified above.

No such assessment or reassessment shall be made without at least ten (10) days written notice thereof, and in case of any mistake or irregularity in any proceedings with reference to such improvement, or the assessment of the cost thereof against abutting property and its owners, and in case of any error or invalidity, to reassess against any abutting property and its owner the cost or part of the cost of improvements, subject to the terms hereof, not in excess of the benefits in enhanced value of such property from such improvement, and to make reasonable rules and regulations for a notice to and hearing of property owners before such reassessment.

Any property owner, against whom or whose property any assessment or reassessment has been made, shall have the right within twenty days thereafter, to bring suit to set aside or correct the same, or any proceeding with reference thereto, on account of any error or invalidity therein. But thereafter such owner, his heirs, assigns or successors, shall be barred from any such action, or any defense of invalidity in such proceedings or assessments or reassessments in any action in which the same may be brought in question.

Any property owner, against whom or whose property any assessment or reassessment has been made, shall have the right within twenty days thereafter, to bring suit to set aside or correct the same, or any proceeding with reference thereto, on account of any error or invalidity therein. But thereafter such owner, his heirs, assigns or successors, shall be barred from any such action, or any defense of invalidity in such proceedings or assessments or reassessments in any action in which the same may be brought in question.

No such assessment or reassessment shall be made without at least ten (10) days written notice and an opportunity to be heard on such question of special benefits given to the owner or owners of such abutting property. Such notice may be served either personally or by publication in some newspaper of general circulation, published in said city or town; and, when any such abutting property is owned by a railway or street railway, notice shall be made both by such publication and by delivery of written notice, either in person to its local agent, or by depositing said written notice in the city post office, postage paid, and properly addressed to the offices of the railway or street railway at the address as it appears on the last approved city tax roll, and the governing body of any such city or town shall have power, not inconsistent herewith, to provide for all procedure, rules, and regulations necessary or proper for such notice and hearing and to levy, assess, and collect such assessment or reassessment.

Art. 1099. Special Lien

Such assessment, or reassessment shall constitute a lien upon such abutting property and a personal charge against the owner or owners thereof, which amount shall not be construed as becoming due, or having become due, before such assessment or reassessment is properly made in accordance with the provisions of this law.

Art. 1100. Time Limit

Such assessment or reassessment as hereinbefore provided shall be begun within three years after the completion of improvements contiguous to the property against which assessment or reassessment is made, and not thereafter. In cases of reassessments where the question of validity of the original assessment may be, or may have been, in litigation, the period of time during which it was in litigation shall not be considered in computing said period of limitation.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1101. Amount of Assessment

Any such assessment or reassessment made by the governing body of any city or town with less than five thousand inhabitants may equal the entire cost of sidewalk, curb and gutter, and the cost of any street improvement, exclusive of street intersections, and such governing body of such town in making such assessment or reassessment, shall follow the procedure prescribed in articles 1082 and 1083 as far as applicable, but no such assessment or reassessment shall be made in excess of the special benefits in enhanced value conferred thereby on the property abutting such improvement, or until the owner or owners of such property shall have had notice, as provided above, and opportunity to contest such issue before such governing body under such rules and regulations as it may, by ordinance, prescribe.

Art. 1102. Enforceable When

Such assessment, or reassessment, shall be due and payable in equal annual installments not less than five in number; provided that the owner of such property shall have the right to appeal from the decision of the governing board to any court of competent jurisdiction within twenty days after such reassessment shall have been made, and upon failure to do so in said period, such assessment shall be final and conclusive upon such owner and property.

Art. 1103. Effect of Law

The provisions of the six preceding articles relating to special assessments or reassessments are cumulative of all powers heretofore granted to any city or town either by general or special law; and all charter provisions of all cities and towns in this State heretofore adopted relative to the subject covered by this law are hereby validated.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1104. Adoption of Provisions

The benefits of the provisions of this article and Articles 1086 to 1096, both inclusive, and Article 1105 shall apply to any city, and the terms thereof extend to the same, when the governing body thereof shall submit the question of the adoption or rejection hereof to a vote of the resident property taxpayers, who are qualified voters of said city, at a special election called for the purpose by said city. Said election shall be held as nearly as possible in compliance with the law with reference to regular city elections in said city, but said governing body is hereby empowered, and it shall be their duty on the written petition of one hundred qualified voters of said city, by resolution, to order said election, and prescribe the time and manner of holding the same. Said body shall canvass and determine the results of such election. If a majority of the voters voting upon the question of the adoption of said article, at such election, shall vote to adopt the same, the result of the election shall be entered by said governing body upon their minutes, and thereupon all the terms of said articles shall be applicable to and govern such city adopting the same. A certified copy of said minutes shall be prima facie evidence of the result of such election and the regularity thereof. When the provisions of said articles have been adopted by any city, the governing body thereof shall have full power to pass all ordinances or resolutions necessary or proper to give full force and effect thereto and to every part thereof.

Art. 1105. Provisions Cumulative

The provisions of Articles 1086 to 1096, both inclusive, and Article 1104 and of resolutions or ordinances passed pursuant thereto shall be cumulative of and in addition to existing laws pertaining to the making of such improvements. In any case in which a conflict may exist or arise between the provisions of said articles and the provisions of any law granting a special charter to any city in this State, the provisions of such special charter shall control.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]
Art. 1105a. Establishing Building Lines on Streets

"Street" Defined

Sec. 1. The word "street" as used in this Act, means any public highway, boulevard, parkway, square or street, or any part or side of any of the same.

Building Lines Authorized

Sec. 2. It shall hereafter be lawful for any city, town, or village to establish building lines on any public street or highway, or part thereof in such city, town, or village.

Ordinance or Resolution; Effect

Sec. 3. The Legislative Body of any such city desiring to establish a building line may do so by adopting a resolution or ordinance describing the street, highway or part thereof to be affected, and the location of the building line or lines, and except as herein otherwise provided, by following the same procedure as that authorized by law in such city for the acquiring of land for the opening of streets.

Condemnation Proceedings

Sec. 4. The procedure for instituting and conducting the condemnation proceedings to condemn the easements and interests necessary to be taken and acquired to establish a building line under the authority of this Act, and to assess and collect benefits against property owners and their property abutting on or the vicinity of said building line arising out of the establishment of said building line, shall be the same as that authorized by law in such city in connection with the opening of streets.

In the condemnation of any tract where the ownership or interests in said tract is in controversy or is unknown, the award may be made in bulk as to such tract, and paid into court for the use of the parties owning or interested therein, whoever they may be, as their interests may appear. The award and findings of the Special Commissioners when filed with the Judge of the County Court, or other court having jurisdiction over the condemnation proceedings, shall be final, and shall be made the judgment of said court. Compensation shall be due and payable upon rendition of the judgment by the court adopting the award.

Time for Conformance; Removal of Structures Within Line

Sec. 5. Whenever and wherever a building line shall be established under authority of this Act, all structures extending within such building lines shall be required to conform to the new lines within a period of not more than twenty-five (25) years from the time of establishing said lines; such time to be provided in the ordinance providing for the establishment of such line. At any time, however, before or after the expiration of the time so fixed, the proper municipal authorities shall have the power to proceed in the manner then provided by law relating to condemnation proceedings by such cities to remove all structures and to condemn any property then within such line, and to assess benefits against property owners and their property benefited thereby, provided, however, that all owners of property so affected shall receive due notice and hearing in the manner then provided by law in the determination of the additional damages then sustained by the removal of such structures or the taking of land then within the building line and in the determination of benefits to be assessed against property owners affected and their property affected.

Act as Cumulative

Sec. 6. This Act shall be in addition to and cumulative of any powers now or hereafter conferred by law on such cities.

Power to Make Improvements; Boundary Streets

Sec. 1. (a) That cities, towns and villages incorporated under either general or special law, including those operating under special charter, or amendments of charter adopted pursuant to the Home Rule provisions of the Constitution, shall have power to cause to be improved, any highway, within their limits by filling, grading, raising, paving, repairing in a permanent manner, and by constructing, reconstructing, repairing and realigning curbs, gutters and sidewalks, and by widening, narrowing and straightening, and by constructing appurtenances and incidentals to any such improvements, including drains and culverts, which power shall include that of causing to be made any one or more of the kinds or classes of improvements herein named or any combination thereof, or of parts thereof.

(b) Whenever a part of the boundary of any such city is upon or along any street or highway, which at that point lies wholly within, partly within and partly without or wholly outside of its limits, such city may improve such portion of such street and assess a part of the cost thereof against the abutting property lying on both sides of such street by the proceedings set forth in this Act, provided that if such street lies wholly or partly within the limits of any other such city the governing body thereof shall consent to the improvement and if assessments are levied against any property lying within the limits of any other city than the one (1) initiating the improvement, the governing body of such other city shall consent to such assessments as heretofore provided. If assessments are finally levied as particularly provided by Section 9 of this Act against any abutting property lying within the limits of any other city than the one (1) initiating the improvements, such assessments shall not be valid unless the governing body of such other city shall by ordinance or resolution ratify and approve the assessments so levied, and any one owning or claiming any such abutting property, in addition to the right of appeal given by said Section of this Act, shall have the further right of appeal from any such assessment for fifteen (15) days after the passage of the ordinance or resolution by which the governing body of such other city so ratifies and approves such assessments; provided further that if the governing body of such other city does not ratify and approve such assessments within thirty (30) days after the date of the ordinance or resolution levying the same, then the city which initiated the project may in the discretion of its governing body repeal and annul all of the proceedings relating thereto, including the contract, if any, for the work; and provided further that failure on the part of the governing body of such other city to so ratify and approve such assessments shall not affect the validity of the assessments which have been levied against any property lying within the limits of the city initiating the improvement.

(c) Whenever a part of the boundary between any two (2) such cities is upon and along any street or highway or is along the edge of any street or highway and the governing bodies of both cities determine the necessity for any such improvement of such portion of said street or highway, then such two (2) cities may contract upon such terms as their respective governing bodies may approve to the effect that one (1) or the other of them shall by the proceedings provided for in this Act, improve such portion of said street and that the other of such two (2) cities shall pay a part of the cost thereof, such payment to be made at such time or times and subject to such conditions as they may so agree upon; and the use by either of such cities of its funds for such purpose shall be lawful whether the street to be improved lies wholly within, partly within and partly without, or wholly outside of its limits.

Sec. 1a. Any city mentioned in Section 1 and having a population in excess of two hundred and eighty-five thousand (285,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census may make the improvements named in Section 1 hereof on any highway or road without the limits of such city if such improvements do not extend more than one hundred and fifty (150) feet from the limits of such city.
Art. 1105b  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES 936

Special Tax on Street Railways for Improvement of Area Occupied

Sec. 5. If improvements be ordered constructed in any part of the area between and under rails, tracks, double tracks, turnouts and switches, and two feet on each side thereof, of any railway, street railway, or interurban, and its road-bed, ties, rails, fixtures, rights and franchises, which tax shall constitute a lien thereon superior to any other lien or claim except State, County, and City ad valorem taxes, and which may be enforced either by sale of said property in the manner provided by law for the collection of ad valorem taxes by the city, or by suit in any court having jurisdiction. The ordinance levying such tax shall prescribe the time, terms and conditions of payment thereof, and the rate of interest, expenses of collection and reasonable attorney’s fees, if incurred. The Governing Body shall have power to cause to be issued assignable certificates in evidence of any such assessments as herein provided.

Assessments on Abutting Property; Certificates

Sec. 6. Subject to the terms hereof, the governing body of any city shall have power by ordinance to assess all the cost of constructing, reconstructing, repairing, and realigning, curbs, gutters, and sidewalks, and not exceeding nine-tenths of the estimated cost of such improvements, exclusive of curbs, gutters, and sidewalks, against property abutting upon the highway or portion thereof ordered to be improved, and against the owners of such property, and to provide the time, terms, and conditions of payment and defaults of such assessments, and to prescribe the rate of interest thereon not to exceed eight (8) per cent per annum. Any assessment against abutting property shall be a first and prior lien thereon from the date improvements are ordered, and shall be a personal liability and charge against the true owners of such property at said date, whether named or not. The governing body shall have power to cause to be issued in the name of the city assignable certificates in evidence of assessments levied declaring the lien upon the property and the liability of the true owner or owners thereof whether correctly named or not and to fix the terms and conditions of such certificates.

If any such certificate shall recite substantially that the proceedings with reference to making the improvements therein referred to have been regularly had in compliance with the law and that all prerequisites to the fixing of the assessment lien against the property described in said certificate and the personal liability of the owner or owners thereof have been performed, same shall be prima facie evidence of all the matters recited in said certificate, and no further proof thereof shall be required. In any suit upon any assessment or reassessment in evidence of which a certificate may be issued under the terms of this Act it shall be sufficient to allege the substance of the recitals in such certificate and that such recitals are in fact true, and further allegations with reference to the proceedings relating to such assessment or reassessment shall not be necessary.

Such assessments shall be collectible with interest, expense of collections, and reasonable attorney’s fees, if incurred, and shall be first and prior lien on the property assessed, superior to all other liens and claims except State, county, school district, and city ad valorem taxes, and shall be a personal liability and charge against said owners of the property assessed.

Assessment Apportioned Under Front Foot Plan Unless Inequitable

Sec. 7. The part of the cost of improvements on each portion of highway ordered improved which may be assessed against abutting property and owners thereof shall be apportioned among the parcels of abutting property and owners thereof, in accordance with the Front Foot Plan or Rule provided that if the application of this rule would, in the opinion of the Governing Body, in particular cases, result in injustice or inequality, it shall be the duty of said Body to apportion and assess said costs in such proportion as it may deem just and equitable, having in view the special benefits in enhanced value to be received by such parcels of property and owners thereof, the equities of such owners, and the adjustment of such apportionment so as to produce a substantial equality of benefits received and burdens imposed.

No Lien on Property Exempt; Personal Liability of Owner; Enforcing Lien

Sec. 8. Nothing herein shall empower any city, or its governing body, to fix a lien against any interest in property exempt, at the time the improvements are ordered, from the lien of special assessment for street improvements, but the owner or owners of such property shall nevertheless be personally liable for any assessment in connection with such property: The fact that any improvement, though ordered, is omitted in front of property, any interest in which is so exempt, shall not invalidate the lien or liability of assessments made against other property.

The lien created against any property and the personal liability of the owner or owners thereof may be enforced by suit in any court having jurisdiction, or by sale of the property assessed in the same manner as may be provided by law or charter in force in the particular city for sale of property for ad valorem city taxes.
Notice and Hearing: Contents of Notice

Sec. 9. No assessment herein provided for shall be made against any abutting property or its owners, nor against any railway, street railway or interurban, or owner, until after notice and opportunity for hearing as herein provided, and no assessment shall be made against any abutting property or owners thereof in excess of the special benefits of such property, and its owners in the enhanced value thereof by means of such improvements as determined at such hearing. Such notice shall be by addressed by the owner of the property or persons having, or claiming to have, any interest therein, who shall desire to institute such suit within such time shall be held to have waived every matter which might have been taken advantage of at such hearing, and shall be barred and estopped from in any manner contesting or questioning such assessment, the amount, accuracy, validity, regularity, and sufficiency thereof.

Notice shall state the highway, highways, portion or portions thereof to be improved, amount of the area between and under rails and tracks, double tracks, turnouts, and switches, and two (2) feet on each side thereof of any railway, street railway or interurban, shall also state the amount proposed to be assessed therefor, and shall state the time and place at which such hearing shall be held, then such notice shall be sufficient, valid and binding upon all owners or claiming such abutting property, or any interest therein, and upon all owning any such railway, street railway or interurban, or any interest therein. The notice to be mailed may consist of a copy of the published notice. In those cases in which an owner of property abutting a highway or portion thereof which is to be improved is listed as "unknown" on the then current city tax roll, or the name of an owner is shown on the city tax roll but no address for such owner is shown, no notice need be mailed. In those cases where the owner is shown to be an estate, the mailed notice may be addressed to such estate. Such hearing shall be by and before the governing body, shall state the estimated amount or amounts per front foot proposed to be assessed against the owner or owners of abutting property and such property on each highway or portion thereof to be improved, shall state the estimated amount or amounts per front foot proposed to be assessed against the owner or owners of abutting property and such property on each highway or portion thereof to be improved, and the governing body shall have power to correct any errors, inaccuracies, irregularities, and invalidities, and to supply any deficiencies, and to determine the amounts of assessments and all other matters necessary, and by ordinance to close such hearing and levy such assessments before, during or after the construction of such improvements, but no part of any assessment shall be made to mature prior to acceptance by the city of the improvements for which assessment is levied.

Anyone owning or claiming any property assessed, or any interest therein, or any railway, street railway, or interurban assessed, or any interest therein, who shall desire to contest any such assessment on account of the amount thereof, or any inequality, irregularity, invalidity, or insufficiency of the proceedings or contract in connection with such improvements and proposed assessments, and the governing body shall have power to correct any errors, inaccuracies, irregularities, and invalidities, and to supply any deficiencies, and to determine the amounts of assessments and all other matters necessary, and by ordinance to close such hearing and levy such assessments before, during or after the construction of such improvements, but no part of any assessment shall be made to mature prior to acceptance by the city of the improvements for which assessment is levied.
and of the proceedings and contract with reference thereto and with reference to such improvement for or on account of any matter whatsoever. And the only defense to any such assessment in any suit to enforce the same shall be that the notice of hearing was not mailed as required or was not published or did not contain the substance of one or more of the requisites therein prescribed, or that the assessments exceed the amount of the estimate, and no words or acts of any officer or employee of the city, or member of any governing body shown in its written proceedings and records shall in any way affect the force and effect of the provisions of this Act.

Changes in Proceedings; Procedure

Sec. 10. The governing body of the city shall have power to provide for changes in plans, methods or contracts for improvements, or other proceedings relating thereto, but any change substantially affecting the nature or quality of any improvements shall only be made when it is determined by two-thirds vote of the governing body that it is not practical to proceed with the improvement as heretofore provided for, and if any such substantial change be made after any hearing has been ordered or held then unless the improvement be abandoned altogether a new estimate of cost shall be made and a new hearing ordered, and held, and new notices given, all with like effect and in like manner as herein provided for original notices and hearings. Changes in or abandonment of improvements must be with the consent of such person, firm or corporation as may have contracted with the city for the construction thereof, if any such contract has been entered into, and in case of abandonment of any particular improvement an ordinance shall be passed which shall have the effect of cancelling any assessments heretofore levied therefor, and all other proceedings relating thereto.

Assessments Against Parcels Owned Jointly

Sec. 11. Assessments against several parcels of property may be made in one assessment when owned by the same person, firm, corporation or estate, and property owned jointly by one or more persons, firms or corporations, may be assessed jointly.

Powers of Governing Body

Sec. 12. Said governing body shall have power to carry out all the terms and provisions of this Act and to exercise all the powers thereof, either by resolution, motion, order or ordinance, except where ordinance is specifically prescribed, and such governing body shall have power to adopt, either by resolution or ordinance, any and all rules or regulations appropriate to the exercise of such powers, the method and manner of ordering and holding such hearings, and the giving of notices thereof.

Correction of Assessments; Reassessment Certificates

Sec. 13. In case any assessment shall for any reason whatsoever be held or determined to be invalid or unenforceable, then the governing body of such city is empowered to supply any deficiency in proceedings with reference thereto and correct any mistake or irregularity in connection therewith, and at any time to make and levy reassessments after notice and hearing as nearly as may be necessary herein herein provided for original assessments, and subject to the provisions hereof with reference to special benefits. Recitals in certificates issued in evidence of reassessments shall have the same force as provided for recitals in certificates relating to original assessments.

Appeal

Sec. 14. Anyone owning or claiming any property or interest in any property against which such reassessment is levied shall have the same right of appeal as herein provided in connection with original assessments, and in the event of failure to appeal within fifteen (15) days from the date of such reassessment, the provisions hereinabove made with reference to waiver, bar, estoppel, and defense shall apply to such reassessment.
assessments were levied (which Act as amended appears as Article 1105b in Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and where not more than all of the cost of constructing, reconstructing, repairing and realigning curbs, gutters and sidewalks and not more than nine-tenths (9/10) of the remaining cost of such improvements as shown on the estimate of costs prepared or caused to be prepared by the governing body of said city, where assessed against the property abutting upon the highway or portion thereof ordered to be improved and against the owners thereof, and where the portion of the cost of the improvements which was assessed against abutting property and the owners thereof was in fact apportioned among the parcels of abutting property and the owners thereof in accordance with the front foot plan or rule, or, where the city, in addition to giving the published notice provided for by Section 9 of Chapter 106 of the Acts of the Fortieth Legislature, First Called Session, 1927, as amended, as it then read, mailed or caused to be mailed by United States mail, postcard mail, or registered mail, a reasonable time prior to the date of the hearing, notices containing the information required to be contained in the published notice, addressed to the owners of the respective properties abutting the highway, highways or portions thereof to be improved as such names of such owners were shown on the then current tax rolls of such city at the addresses as shown, all such assessments and all proceedings levying same are hereby legalized, approved and validated as of the respective times and dates of such assessments and proceedings and according to their terms and shall have the force and effect provided by the provisions of said Chapter 106 of the Acts of the Fortieth Legislature, First Called Session, 1927, as amended, except that nothing herein shall be construed as validating or legalizing any lien against any interest in property exempt at the time the improvements were ordered from the lien of special assessment for street improvements.

Sec. 2. All assignable certificates of special assessment issued in evidence of such assessments or reassessments are hereby validated according to their terms. Any city which has not yet issued assignable certificates of special assessment to evidence such assessments may issue same and such certificates shall be valid and legal.

Sec. 3. This Act is not intended to validate, nor does it apply to any assessments or reassessments for street improvements or utility improvements (regardless whether said assessment or reassessment be in the form of zoning regulations, plat regulations, utility regulations, or direct money assessments), nor to any ordinances or resolutions of the governing bodies of such cities authorizing the issuance of any such certificates of special assessment, which are the subject matter of any litigation pending on the effective date of this Act, in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state in which the validity thereof is being challenged, if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of same.

Art. 1105b-3. Validation of Assessments and Reassessments for Street, Sewer and Water Improvements

Sec. 1. That where any city acting through its governing body has heretofore levied assessments or reassessments for street improvements against property abutting upon a highway or portion thereof ordered to be improved and against the owners of such property, and such city has acted or purported to act under the authority of Chapter 106, pages 489 et seq., Acts of the 40th Legislature, First Called Session, 1927, as amended (which Act as amended appears as Article 1105b in Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), all such assessments and reassessments heretofore levied or purporting to be levied against properties abutting such streets and highways and against the owners of such properties, and all proceedings of the governing bodies of such cities levying or purporting to levy such assessments or reassessments are in all respects heretofore levied, approved and validated as of the respective times and dates of such assessments and reassessments and proceedings and according to their terms and shall have the force and effect provided by the provisions of said Chapter 106, pages 489 et seq., of the Acts of the 40th Legislature, First Called Session, 1927, as amended, and the liens thereof shall be effective from and after the times thereon so provided, except that nothing herein shall be construed as validating or legalizing any lien against any interest in property exempt, at the time the improvements were ordered from the lien of special assessment or reassessment for local improvements under the Constitution of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. That where any city acting through its governing body has heretofore levied assessments or reassessments for improvements to a sanitary sewer system within its limits, or improvements to a water system within its limits, either or both, against benefited properties and the owners thereof, and the city has acted or purported to act under the authority of the provisions of Chapter 192, pages 512 et seq., Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963, as amended (which Act as amended appears as Article 1106c in Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), all such assessments and reassessments and all proceedings levying same are hereby legalized, approved and validated as of the respective times and dates of such assessments and reassessments and proceedings and according to their terms and shall have the force and effect provided by the provisions of Chapter 192, pages 512 et seq., Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963, as amended, and the lien thereof shall be effective from and after the times therein provided, except that nothing herein shall be construed as validating or legalizing any lien against any interest in property exempt from the lien of special assessment or reassessment for local improvements under the Constitution of the State of Texas.

Sec. 3. That where any city acting through its governing body has heretofore levied assessments or reassessments for street improvements against property abutting upon the highway or portions thereof ordered to be improved and against the owners of such property, and where such city has acted or purported to act under the authority of Chapter 106, pages 489 et seq., Acts of the 40th Legislature, First Called Session, 1927, as amended, and has levied or purported to levy said assessments or reassessments for such street improvements in conjunction with a levy of assessments or reassessments against benefited properties and the owners thereof for improvements to a sanitary sewer system within its limits, or for improvements to a water system within its limits, either or both, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 192, pages 512 et seq., Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963, as amended (which Act as amended appears as Article 1106c in Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), all such assessments and reassessments and all proceedings levying same are hereby legalized, approved and validated as of the respective times and dates of such assessments and reassessments and proceedings and according to their terms and shall have the force and effect provided by the provisions of Chapter 106, pages 489 et seq., Acts of the 40th Legislature, First Called Session, 1927, as amended, and by the provisions of Chapter 192, pages 512 et seq., Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963, as amended, and the liens thereof shall be effective from and after the respective times so provided by said respective statutes, except that nothing herein shall be construed as validating or legalizing any lien against any interest in property exempt at the time the lien takes effect from the lien of special assessments or reassessments for local improvements under the Constitution of the State of Texas.

Sec. 4. That all assignable certificates of special assessment issued in evidence of any of such street, water or sanitary sewer assessment or any combination thereof, assessments or reassessments are hereby validated according to their terms. Any city which has not yet issued assignable certificates of special assessment to evidence any of such assessments may issue same and such certificates shall be valid and legal according to their terms.

Sec. 5. This Act is not intended to validate, nor does it apply to any assessments or reassessments for street improvements, nor to any certificates of special assessment or reassessment, nor to any ordinances or resolutions of the governing bodies of such cities authorizing the issuance of any such certificates of special assessment, which are the subject matter of any litigation pending on the effective date of this Act, in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state in which the validity thereof is being challenged, if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of same.

ture, 1963, as amended (Article 1101c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); and

(3) the levy or purported levy of assessments or reassessments as described in Subdivision (1) of this section in conjunction with the levy of assessments or reassessments as described in Subdivision (2) of this section, in a joint proceeding where the city has acted or purported to act under the authority of Section 18, Chapter 192, Acts of the 58th Legislature, 1963 (Article 1110c, Vernon's Texas Statutes).

Sec. 3. Where a city acting through its governing body before the effective date of this Act levied or purported to levy an assessment or reassessment against property and the owners of property as described in Section 2 of this Act, all proceedings of the city relating to the levy or purported levy are validated, ratified, and confirmed as of the time they took place and in accordance with their terms, and the proceedings shall have the full force and effect as is provided under the law under which the city acted or purported to act. The liens created or purported to be created by the levies or purported levies are also validated, ratified, and confirmed, and they shall be effective from and after the respective times provided by the assessment proceedings, except a lien purported to be created against property that at the time was exempt under the Texas Constitution from a lien of special assessment or reassessment for local improvements is not validated, ratified, or confirmed by this Act.

Sec. 4. All assignable certificates of special assessment relating to a proceeding validated by this Act are also validated.

Sec. 5. This Act does not apply to a matter that on the effective date of this Act is involved in litigation in a court of competent jurisdiction instituted for the purpose of attacking the validity of the matter if the litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the matter.

Art. 1105b-5. Validation of Certain Governmental Acts and Proceedings Regarding Paving Contracts

Sec. 1. In any case where an incorporated city or town has contracted on behalf of itself and an independent school district and the county in which the city or town is located for the seal coating of roads or parking areas of the governmental entities by a private contractor, all governmental acts and proceedings and all transactions relating to the contract are validated, notwithstanding the failure of any one or more of the governmental entities to comply with all legal requirements concerning the awarding of the contract.

Sec. 2. This Act does not apply to:

(1) any act, transaction, or proceeding that occurred before September 1, 1975;

(2) any matter that on the effective date of this Act has been declared invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(3) any matter involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act if the litigation ultimately results in the matter being held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 1105c. Cities of More Than 100,000: Elimination of Grade-Level Street Crossings by Railroad Lines

Application of Act; Power of Cities; Purposes

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to every incorporated city or town (including Home Rule Cities) having a population of more than one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants according to the Federal Census last preceding the taking of any action by such city or town under the provisions of this Act. Every such city or town (referred to hereinafter as "city") is hereby empowered and authorized to purchase, build, construct, acquire, improve, enlarge, extend, maintain, repair, and replace any and all properties, improvements and facilities which the governing body thereof deems to be necessary for the elimination of grade-level crossings by railroad lines of the streets of such city and for the relocation of railroad lines within said city, so that the hazards to life and property will be decreased, public safety and convenience will be promoted, traffic conditions will be improved, and the orderly development of the city will be encouraged. Without in any way limiting the generalization of the foregoing, it is expressly provided that "properties, improvements and facilities" mentioned above shall include lands, properties, rights-of-way, elevated structures, grade separations, underpasses, overpasses, passenger stations or depots and other buildings, interchange yards, railroad tracks, removal and relocation of railroad tracks, removal and relocation of utility lines or pipes or other improvements, removal or demolition of buildings or improvements, damages to other properties in connection with any of the foregoing, street improvements in connection with any of the foregoing, and any other properties, buildings, improvements, or facilities which the governing body deems to be necessary to accomplish the desired purposes. The "properties, improvements and facilities" mentioned in this Section 1 are hereinafter referred to as "the Facilities," or "Facilities."

Contracts; Leases; Conveyances and Other Agreements

Sec. 2. The governing body of the city shall have power and authority to make and enter all contracts, leases, conveyances, contracts of sale, lease-purchase contracts, and any other agreements with respect to the Facilities which said governing body shall deem necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes and powers granted in and by this Act, upon such terms and conditions and for such length or period of time as may be prescribed therein. Any such contract, lease, conveyance, contract of sale, lease-purchase contract, or other agreement may be entered into with any person, real or artificial, any corporation, municipal or public or private (including railroad or railway companies), any governmental agency or bureau (including the United States Government and the State of Texas and political subdivisions of said State), and the governing body of the city, shall be executed by its mayor (or presiding officer) and attested by its city clerk (or city secretary). Any such contract, lease, conveyance, contract of sale, lease-purchase contract, or other agreement shall be binding upon the city and the governing body thereof, the powers and provisions set forth herein being complete within themselves, without reference to any other statute or statutes.

Tax Bonds or Revenue Bonds

Sec. 3. For the purpose of providing funds for any of the Facilities provided in Section 1 hereof, the governing body of the city shall have the power and authority to issue, from time to time, tax bonds or revenue bonds of said city, either or both; provided, however, that no tax bonds (except refunding bonds) shall be issued unless and until they have been authorized at an election at which a majority of the duly qualified resident electors of said city who own taxable property within said city and who have duly rendered the same for taxation, voting at said election, have voted in favor thereof, said election to be called and held under the provisions of and in accordance with Chapter 1 of Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as the same is now or may hereafter be amended.

Pledge of Revenues

Sec. 4. Revenue bonds may be issued, secured solely by a pledge of and payable from the net revenues derived from the operation of or use made of all or any designated part or parts of the Facilities then in existence or to be improved, constructed, or otherwise acquired, with the duty of the city to charge and collect fees, tolls, and other charges, so long as any of the revenue bonds or interest thereon are outstanding and unpaid, sufficient to pay all maintenance and operation expenses of the Facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged to the payment of the bonds), the interest on such bonds as it accrues, the principal of such bonds as it matures, and to make any and all other payments as may be prescribed in the bond ordinance and other proceedings authorizing and relating to the issuance of such bonds. "Net revenues" as used herein shall mean the gross revenues derived from the operation or use made of the Facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged to the payment of the bonds) less the reasonable expenses of maintaining and operating said Facilities, and said maintenance and operation expenses shall include, among other things, necessary repair, upkeep, and insurance of said Facilities. At the option of the governing body of the city, the proposition or propositions for the issuance of revenue bonds may be submitted at an election called and held as in the case of tax bonds, or such revenue bonds may be issued without the necessity of an election.

Ordinances; Interest and Sinking Funds; Reserve Funds

Sec. 5. In the ordinance adopted by the governing body authorizing the issuance of any revenue bonds and in the proceedings relating thereto, the governing body may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund, reserve fund or funds, and any other funds provided for therein, and may provide where such funds shall be deposited, and may make such additional covenants with respect to the bonds and the pledged revenues and the operation, maintenance, and upkeep of the Facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged), including provision for the leasing of all or any part or parts of said Facilities and the use or pledge of moneys derived from leases thereof, as it may deem appropriate.

Said ordinance and other proceedings may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues, or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payable from said net revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued, subject to the conditions as are set forth in said ordinance or other proceedings. Such ordinance and other proceedings may contain such other provisions and covenants, as the governing body shall determine, not prohibited by the Constitution of the State of Texas or by this Act, and the governing body may adopt and cause to be executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary or convenient in the issuance of said revenue bonds.

Revenue Bonds Secured by Pledge of Future Revenues

Sec. 6. For the purpose of providing funds for any of the Facilities provided in Section 1 hereof, the governing body of the city shall also have the power to issue, from time to time, revenue bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of the revenues, proceeds, or payments that will accrue to or be received by the city under any lease-purchase contract or contract of sale pertaining to any of the Facilities. Bonds may be issued secured solely by such pledge, and bonds may be issued secured not only by such pledge but also by pledges of net revenues as elsewhere provided in this Act. All the provisions of this Act relating to revenue bonds shall, insofar as the same may be made applicable, also apply to bonds issued by the city secured in the manner authorized by this Section 6. The power and authority granted by this Section 6 shall be in addition to other powers and authority granted to the city by this Act and shall not in any way limit such other powers and authority.

Form of Bonds; Maturity; Examination and Approval; Registration

Sec. 7. All bonds of the city (tax bonds and revenue bonds) issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be authorized by ordinance of the governing body of the city, shall be issued in the name of the city, shall be signed by the mayor (or presiding officer) of the city and countersigned by the city clerk (or city secretary), and shall have the seal of the city impressed thereon; provided, that the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds may provide for the bonds to be signed by the facsimile signatures of said officers, either or both, and for the seal of the city on the bonds to be a printed facsimile seal; and provided further that the interest coupons attached to said bonds may also be executed by the facsimile signatures of said officers, either or both, in not to exceed forty (40) years from their date or dates, and may be sold either at public or private sale (no public advertisement for bids being necessary) at a price and under terms determined by the governing body to be most advantageous and reasonably obtainable, provided that the interest cost to the city, calculated by the use of standard interest tables then currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses, does not exceed six percent (6%) per annum, and within the discretion of the governing body such bonds may be issued as non-option bonds, or may be callable prior to maturity at such time or times and at such price or prices as may be prescribed in the ordinance authorizing the bonds. Such bonds may be made registerable as to principal, or as to both principal and interest.

After bonds have been authorized by the city, such bonds and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination as to the validity thereof, and if such bonds have been authorized in accordance with this Act, the said Attorney General shall approve the same. After such approval, such bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. When such bonds have been approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and delivered to the purchasers, they shall thereafter be incontestable except for forgery or fraud. When any revenue bonds recite that they are secured partially or otherwise by a pledge of the proceeds of a contract or contracts made between the city and another party or parties (public agencies or otherwise), a copy of such contract or contracts and of the proceedings authorizing the same shall be submitted to the Attorney General along with the bond record, and the approval by the Attorney General of the bonds shall constitute an approval of such contract or contracts, and thereafter the contract or contracts shall be incontestable except for forgery or fraud.

Proceeds of Sale

Sec. 8. From the proceeds of sale of any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, the governing body may appropriate or set aside out of such proceeds (i) an amount for the payment of interest expected to accrue during the period of construction, (ii) an amount necessary to pay all expenses incurred and to be incurred in the issuance, sale, and delivery of the bonds, and, (iii) in the case of revenue bonds, such amount or amounts as may be prescribed by the bond ordinance to be deposited into the reserve fund or funds and into any other funds, as specified in said ordinance.

Additional Security; Mortgage of Physical Properties

Sec. 9. As additional security for the payment of any revenue bonds issued hereunder, the governing body of the city may in its discretion have executed in favor of the holders of such revenue bonds an indenture or deed of trust mortgaging and encumbering all or any part of the physical properties comprising the Facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged to the payment of such bonds), including the lands upon which said Facilities are located, and may provide in such mortgage or encumbrance for a grant to any purchaser or purchasers at foreclosure sale of a franchise to operate such Facilities and properties for a term of not over forty (40) years from the date of such purchase, subject to all laws regulating same then in force. Any such indenture or deed of trust may contain such terms and provisions as the governing body shall deem proper and shall be enforceable in the manner provided by the laws of the State of Texas for the enforcement of other mortgages or encumbrances. Under any such sale ordered pursuant to the provisions of such mortgage or encumbrance, the purchaser or purchasers at such sale, and his or their successors or assigns, shall be vested with a permit or franchise conforming to the provisions stipulated in the indenture or deed of trust to maintain the Facilities and properties purchased at such sale with like powers and privileges as may theretofore have been enjoyed by the city in the operation of said Facilities and properties. The purchaser or purchasers of such Facilities and properties at any such sale, and his or their successors and assigns, may operate the same as provided in the last above sentence or may at their option remove all or any part or parts of said Facilities and properties for division to other purposes. The laws of the State of Texas (other than this Act) shall not be applicable to the authorization or execution of any mortgage or encumbrance entered into pursuant to the provisions of this Act, nor to the granting of any franchise hereunder.

Management and Control of Facilities

Sec. 10. While any revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this Act or any interest thereon remain outstanding and unpaid, and whether or not there is an indenture or deed of trust mortgaging and encumbering the physical properties comprising the Facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged), as provided in Section 9 hereof, the management and control of such Facilities (and the physical properties comprising the same), by the terms of the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds, may be placed in the hands of the governing body of the city, or may be placed in the hands of a board of trustees to be named in such ordinance, consisting of not more than seven (7) members, one (1) of whom shall be a member of the governing body of such city. The compensation of such trustees shall be fixed in the bond ordinance, but shall never exceed five per cent (5%) of the gross revenues of such Facilities. The terms of office of the members of such board of trustees, their powers and duties, the manner of exercising same, the election or appointment of their successors, and all matters pertaining to their organization and duties shall be specified in said ordinance. In all matters where such ordinance is silent, the laws and rules governing the governing body of the city shall govern said board of trustees so far as applicable.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 11. (a) The governing body of the city shall have the power and authority to issue tax bonds for the purpose of refunding any outstanding bonds (original or refunding) issued by the city under the provisions of this Act and accrued interest thereon, and no election therefor shall be necessary. Such refunding bonds may be issued to refund bonds of more than one series or issues of outstanding tax bonds. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than that of the bonds refunded unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid.

(b) The governing body of the city shall have the power and authority to issue revenue bonds for the purpose of refunding any outstanding revenue bonds (original or refunding) issued by the city under the provisions of this Act and accrued interest thereon, and no election therefor shall be necessary. Revenue refunding bonds, at the option of the governing body, may be combined with new or original revenue bonds into one series or issue of bonds. Such revenue refunding bonds may be issued to refund bonds of more than one series or issue of outstanding revenue bonds and combine pledges for the outstanding bonds for the security of the refunding bonds, and such revenue refunding bonds may be secured by pledges of other net revenues and additional net revenues; provided, that such refunding will not impair the contract rights of the holders of any of the outstanding revenue bonds which are not to be refunded. Revenue refunding bonds may bear interest at a rate higher than that borne by the bonds refunded; provided, that such interest rate shall not exceed the rate specified in Section 7 of this Act.

(c) Refunding bonds (both tax refunding bonds and revenue refunding bonds) shall be authorized by ordinance of the governing body of the city, and shall be executed and mature as is provided in this Act for original bonds. They shall be approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas as in the case of original bonds, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas upon surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded; but in lieu thereof, the ordinance authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient, net only to pay the principal of the underlying bonds, but also to pay the interest on the underlying bonds to their option or maturity dates, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying bonds. In those situations where the proceeds of revenue refunding bonds are deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, they shall be so deposited under an escrow agreement so that such proceeds will be available for the payment of the interest on and principal of said underlying bonds as such interest and principal respectively become due; and such escrow agreement may provide that such proceeds may, until such time as the same are needed to pay interest and principal as the same become due, be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America, in which instances the interest earned on such investments shall be considered as revenues of the Facilities.

(d) When any refunding bonds (both tax refunding bonds and revenue refunding bonds) have been approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall thereafter be incontestable except for forgery or fraud.

(e) All the provisions of this Act relating to original bonds, insofar as the same may be made applicable, shall also apply to refunding bonds issued hereunder (both tax refunding bonds and revenue refunding bonds).

Applicability of Statutes

Sec. 12. Insofar as the same may be applicable, the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, together with all amendments thereof and additions thereto, shall apply to revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, and any city covered by this Act shall have, with respect to revenue bonds issued hereunder, all the powers granted by said Statutes. However, where the provisions of said Statutes are in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall govern and prevail.

Legal and Authorized Investments

Sec. 18. All bonds issued under the provisions of this Act (tax bonds and revenue bonds, and original bonds and refunding bonds) shall be, and are hereby declared to be, legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value when accompanied by all unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Eminent Domain

Sec. 14. The right of eminent domain is hereby expressly conferred upon any city operating under the provisions of this Act, for the purpose of enabling such city to acquire the fee simple title, easement or right-of-way to, over and through any and all lands, water, lands under water, or any other property or properties of any nature whatsoever, private or public (except land and property used for cemetery purposes), which the governing body of the city deems to be necessary for the accomplishment of any of the purposes provided in Section 1 hereof. In the event of the condemnation, or the taking, damaging or destroying of any property for such purposes, the city shall pay to the owner thereof adequate compensation for the property taken, damaged, or destroyed. Compensation and damages adjudicated in any condemnation proceedings, and damages which may be done to the property of any person or corporation in the accomplishment of such purposes may be paid out of funds derived from the sale of any bonds (tax bonds or revenue bonds) issued pursuant to this Act or from any other available funds of the city. All procedure with reference to condemnation, the assessment of and estimating of damages, payment, appeal, the entering upon the property pending the appeal, etc., shall be in conformity with the procedure prescribed in Title 52, Articles 3264 to 3271,1 both inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and any amendments thereto.

1. Generally repealed; see, now, Property Code, Arts. 21.001 et seq.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 15. This Act is cumulative of all existing laws of the State of Texas that are applicable, but when a city acts under the provisions of this Act, to the extent that such existing laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall govern and prevail. Moreover, the provisions of this Act shall take precedence over any and all conflicting or inconsistent city charter provisions.

Validation of Proceedings and Contracts

Sec. 16. All proceedings heretofore had and all actions heretofore taken and all contracts heretofore entered into by any city relating to any of the matters covered by, or power or authority granted by, the provisions of this Act are hereby in all things validated. It is provided, however, that the validation provisions of this Section 16 shall have no application to litigation pending upon the effective date hereof questioning the validity of any of the matters hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the same.

1. CITY OWNED UTILITIES

Art. 1106. Appropriation of Revenue

The governing body of any city or town in this State, whether operating under special charter or under general law, may appropriate and apply the net revenues of its waterworks system or other public utility system, service or enterprise to the payment of the sinking fund and interest due by said city or town on the bonded indebtedness incurred on account of said system, service or enterprise, producing such revenues in the following manner:

1. Whenever said governing body desires to take advantage of the provisions of this article it shall at the end of its fiscal year, and before the passage of any ordinance levying taxes for that year, appropriate and set aside out of the net revenues such sums for such purpose only as such governing body shall deem to the best interest of the city or town.

2. Where the sums so set aside and appropriated shall be sufficient to pay in full the amounts needed for such sinking fund and interest for the fiscal year in which said revenues are produced, it shall not be thereafter necessary for the governing body to levy any tax for such sinking fund or interest for which this appropriation is made, but when said sums so appropriated shall not be sufficient to meet the required amounts for such sinking fund and interest, then the governing body shall include in the general tax ordinance for that year a tax sufficient to meet the deficiency in such sinking fund and interest allowance for that year. Nothing herein shall authorize said city or town to exceed the authorized tax limit.

Art. 1107. Condemnation of Property

An incorporated city or town shall have the right of eminent domain to condemn private property for either of the following purposes:

1. To open, change or widen any public street, avenue, or alley.

2. To construct water mains, or supply reservoirs, or standpipes for waterworks or sewers.

3. To establish thereon one or more hospitals or pusthouses, within or without the limits of such city or town.

4. To construct and maintain sewer pipes, mains and laterals and connections and also private property upon which to maintain vats, filtration pipes and other pipes, and which to use and occupy as a place for ultimate disposition of sewage in or out of the town or city limits, whenever it be made to appear that the use of any such private property is necessary for successful operation of such sewer system, and when it also be made to appear that such sewer system is beneficial to the public use, health, and convenience.

5. Construct, maintain, and operate municipal airports within or without the limits of such city or town.

6. To dig or drill water wells or well upon or produce water from or construct pump stations or reservoirs thereon, whether within or without the city limits.

7. To open and lengthen streets and alleys; to secure space for the erection of public buildings or space to relieve crowded conditions, within or without the limits of such city or town; provided, however, that the provision of this sub-section 7 shall apply only to incorporated cities or towns having a population of less than two thousand (2,000) inhabitants as shown by the last preceding or any future Federal Census.

Art. 1108. Public Utilities

Any town or city in this State which has or may be chartered or organized under the general laws of Texas, or by special Act or charter, and which owns or operates waterworks, sewers, gas or electric lights, shall have the power and right:

1. To own land for such purposes within or without the limits of such town or city.
Art. 1108. CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

2. To purchase, construct and operate water, sewer and gas and electric light systems inside or outside of such towns or city limits, and regulate and control same in a manner to protect the interests of such town or city.

3. To extend the lines of such systems outside of the limits of such towns or cities and to sell water, sewer, gas, and electric light and power privileges or service to any person or corporation outside of the limits of such towns of cities, or permit them to connect therewith under contract with such town or city under such terms and conditions as may appear to be for the best interest of such town or city; provided that no electric lines shall, for the purposes stated in this section, be extended into the corporate limits of another incorporated town or city.

4. To prescribe the kind of water or gas mains or sewer pipes and electric appliances within or beyond the limits of such town or city, and to inspect the same and require them to be kept in good order and condition at all times and to make such rules and regulations and prescribe penalties concerning same, as shall be necessary and proper.

Art. 1108a. Electric Properties Partly in Texas and Partly in New Mexico

Sec. 1. Where any city in Texas is now or hereafter supplied with electricity by means of a privately owned electric plant and system, part of which, including facilities for the generation and transmission of electricity distributed in part to the inhabitants of said city, is located in the State of New Mexico, such city is hereby authorized to acquire, own and operate such electric plant and system in whole or in part, and in order to pay for the cost of such acquisition to issue the revenue bonds of such city in the manner now provided for the issuance of revenue bonds by cities under the general laws of Texas, and the revenue bonds so issued shall be fully negotiable instruments for all purposes.

Sec. 2. Any city so acquiring an electric plant and system is authorized to sell electricity either at retail or wholesale for distribution in the State of New Mexico and to enter into such contracts and agreements in that connection as may be provided by the governing body thereof.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act are severable, and if any of its provisions shall be held to be invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions shall remain fully effective, it being hereby expressly declared to be the legislative intent that this Act would have been adopted had any such invalid provision not been included therein.

Taxes

Sec. 4. The governing body of the city or town shall levy and have assessed and collected annual ad valorem taxes sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the certificates of indebtedness as the principal and interest mature.

Approval of Attorney General

Sec. 5. After any certificates of indebtedness are authorized by the city or town, the certificates and a record of the proceedings relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for his examination and determination as to their validity. If he finds that the certificates have been authorized in accordance with the constitution and laws of the state, he shall approve the certificates and the certificates shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After registration, the certificates shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes and shall be incontestable in any court or other forum for any reason.

Legal Investments

Sec. 6. Certificates of indebtedness issued under this Act are legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians and for any sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political corporations or subdivisions of the state. The certificates are eligible to secure the deposit of any public funds of the state or of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political corporations or subdivisions of the state and are lawful and sufficient security for the deposits at their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons, if any, appurtenant to them.

Cumulative Act

Sec. 7. This Act is cumulative of all other laws.

Legislative Finding

Sec. 8. The legislature finds that cities and towns in this state are in urgent need of the authority conferred by this Act so that they may proceed immediately with the funding of judgments and settlements of lawsuits in connection with municipally owned and municipally operated gas systems.

Art. 1109. Waterworks

These rules shall govern incorporated cities having more than one thousand inhabitants according to its preceding Federal census and owning and operating their own waterworks systems for the purpose of supplying the inhabitants thereof with wholesome supply of water, any such city may exercise the right of eminent domain, acquire and condemn either public or private lands or property for the extension, improvement or enlargement of its waterworks system, including water supply reservoirs, riparian rights, stand pipes, water sheds, the construction of water supply reservoirs, wells or artesian wells and dams and the construction, building, erection or establishment of any necessary appurtenances or facilities which will furnish to the inhabitants of the city an abundant supply of wholesome water.

4. Any such city shall also have all the powers conferred upon water improvement districts or water control and preservation districts under the statutes now or hereafter existing providing for the exercise of the right of eminent domain, and shall have all the powers conferred by general law authorizing cities and towns to exercise the right of eminent domain.

5. Any such city may acquire the fee simple title to any land or property when same is expressed in the resolution ordering said condemnation proceedings by the governing body.

6. The term “city” or “cities” as used herein shall include all incorporated towns and cities acting hereunder.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1109a. Mortgage of Water System; Extension or Enlargements

Power to Mortgage; Acquisition of Additions; Franchise to Foreclosure Purchaser

Sec. 1. All cities having more than one hundred and sixty thousand (160,000) inhabitants shall have power to issue bonds or notes therefor, and to secure payment thereof, to mortgage and encumber any such water system, and the incomes thereof and everything pertaining thereto.

And to purchase or otherwise acquire additions to, or extensions or enlargements of any such water systems, or additional water powers, riparian rights, or repair of such systems, or either of them; all cities having more than one hundred and sixty thousand (160,000) inhabitants shall have power to issue bonds and notes therefor, and to secure payment thereof, to mortgage and encumber such additions, extensions, enlargements, additional water powers,
Art. 1109a

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Riparian rights, the income therefrom, and everything pertaining thereto, either separately or with such systems, or either of them.

And as additional security therefor, by the terms of such encumbrance, may grant to the purchaser, or purchaser under any sale or foreclosure thereunder, a franchise to operate the system and properties so purchased, for a term not over twenty (20) years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating the same therein force.

Operating Expense First Lien on Income; Rates; Priorities; Agreements as to Payment

Sec. 2. Whenever the income of any water system shall be encumbered under this Act, the expense of operating and maintenance, including all salaries, labor, materials, interest, repairs and extensions necessary to render efficient service, and every proper item of expense shall always be a first lien and charge against such income. The rates charged for services furnished by said system shall be uniform, and no free service shall ever be allowed, except in the discretion of the governing body, for city public schools, or buildings and institutions operated by such city, and there shall be charged and collected for such services a sufficient rate to pay for all operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacement, betterment and interest charges, and for an interest and sinking fund sufficient to pay any bonds or notes issued to purchase, construct or improve such system or any outstanding indebtedness against same.

Where bonds, notes or obligations are issued hereunder, and at the time of the authorization of such bonds or notes in the manner hereinafter prescribed, there are then outstanding other bonds, notes or obligations payable from the revenues of the water system, the additional bonds or notes may nevertheless be issued, but shall be issued in such manner that they are in all respects subordinate to each issue of bonds, notes or obligations then outstanding. Each series of bonds or notes issued hereunder shall, as to lien on the revenues and physical properties of the water system, be subordinate to each series of bonds, notes or obligations theretofore issued and remaining outstanding. Provided, however, in those instances where in the ordinance or Deed of Trust or indenture of trust provision has been or shall be made for the subsequent issuance of additional bonds on a parity with the bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of such ordinance or Deed of Trust or indenture of trust, any such city or town shall have the power to authorize, issue and sell additional bonds payable from the revenues of the water system and secured by pledges and liens on a parity with and of equal dignity with the pledges and liens securing the bonds previously issued; and such additional bonds, notes or obligations when issued shall in all respects be on a parity with and of equal dignity with said previously issued bonds which are then outstanding, provided in the ordinance or Deed of Trust or indenture of trust authorizing or securing such additional bonds they are declared to be on a parity and of equal dignity with said previously issued bonds, but subject in all respects to the conditions imposed upon the issuance of additional bonds by the ordinance, Deed of Trust or indenture of trust issuing or securing the bonds which are outstanding. In the issuance of revenue bonds in the future for any such purpose any such city or town may prescribe in the ordinance or Deed of Trust or indenture of trust for the issuance later of additional issues or series of bonds on a parity with the bonds being issued pursuant to and subject to the restrictions, covenants and limitations contained in such ordinance, Deed of Trust or indenture of trust.

Subject to the terms and provisions hereof, the governing body of the city, in authorizing the issuance of bonds, notes or obligations hereunder, may enter into such agreements and covenants with respect to the manner of payment of such bonds, notes or obligations, and the application of the revenues of the water system as it may deem fit, provided, however, that no such bond, warrant or note shall ever be a general obligation of such city, and it shall be proper for the governing body to apply surplus revenues of the system not needed for the payment of principal of and interest on such bonds, notes or obligations, and not needed for the payment of operating and maintenance expenses, to the payment of any notes, warrants or other obligations the proceeds of which were used for the purpose of improving, repairing, adding to or extending the waterworks system.

Bonds as Charge on Property Encumbered

Sec. 3. All cities acquiring a water system, or any addition, improvement or extension thereto, under this Act, may borrow money on the security of the plant, or addition or extension, so acquired, or owned, for the purpose of paying the purchase price and for the addition, improvement and extension thereof, and may issue bonds, notes or other obligations to evidence the money so borrowed, which bonds, notes or other obligations shall have the characteristics of negotiable instruments under the law merchant. Every contract, bond, or note executed or issued under this Act shall contain this clause “The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.” No such obligation shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the properties so encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city to issue bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Management During Encumbrance

Sec. 4. The management and control of any such system or systems during the time same are encumbered, may by the terms of such encumbrance be placed in the hands of the city council of such city; but if deemed advisable may be placed in the hands of a board of trustees to be named in such encumbrance, consisting of not more than five (5) members, one of whom shall always be the mayor of such city; and the compensation of such trustees shall be fixed by such contract, but shall never exceed five per cent (5%) of the gross receipts of any such systems in any one year. The terms of office of such board of trustees, their powers and duties, the manner of exercising same, the election of their successors, and all matter pertaining to their organization and duties may be specified in such contract of encumbrance; but in all matters where such contract is silent, the laws and rules governing the council of such city shall govern said board of trustees as far as applicable. Said city council or board of trustees having such management and control shall have power to make rules and regulations governing the furnishing of service to patrons and for the payment for same, and providing for discontinuance of such service to those failing to pay therefor when due until payment is made; and such city council shall have power to provide penalties for the violation of such rules and regulations and for the use of such service without the consent or knowledge of the authorities in charge thereof, and to provide penalties for all interference, trespassing or injury to any such systems, appliances or premises on which same may be located.

Default in Payments; Procedure

Sec. 5. Any contract of encumbrance under this Act may name, or provide for the selection of a trustee to make sale upon default in the payment of the principal or interest according to the terms of such contract, and for the selection of his successor, if disqualified or failing to act, and may provide for collection fees not exceeding five per cent (5%) of the principal; but no collection fees shall accrue, and no foreclosure proceedings shall be begun in any court or through any trustee, and no option to mature any part of such obligation, because of default in payment of any installment of principal shall be exercised until ninety (90) days written notice shall have been given to each member of the city council of such city and to each member of such board of trustees, if any, that payment has been demanded and default made, which notice shall date from the sending of a letter to each person to be notified, by registered mail, postage and registration fees prepaid, and addressed to them at the post office in such city; and if the installments of principal and interest then due shall be paid before the expiration of said ninety (90) days, together with the interest prescribed in such contract, not exceeding ten per cent (10%) per annum, from the date of default until the date of payment, it shall have like effect as if paid on the date same was originally due.

Sec. 6. In the encumbrance of any properties under this Act such city may encumber any such water systems, or any extensions, additions or enlargements thereof, singly or together, and may or may not include in such encumbrance the whole or any part of the properties mentioned in Section 1 of this Act; but no such system shall ever be sold until such sale is authorized by a majority vote of the qualified property taxpayers of such city, or under the terms of any such mortgage or encumbrance, such vote where necessary to be ascertained at an election, of which notice shall have been given in like manner as in cases of the issuance of municipal bonds by such cities.

All bonds and notes issued hereunder shall be submitted to the Attorney General for examination, and upon his approval thereof, shall be registered by the State Comptroller in a book kept for that purpose, and the Comptroller shall endorse his certificate of registration on each such bond or note. Any bonds or notes so approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller, and delivered to the purchaser or purchasers for not less than their par value plus accrued interest shall thereafter be incontestable.

Bonds or notes may be issued under the provisions hereof and the revenues or physical properties of the water system encumbered as security for the payment of such bonds and notes; such bonds or notes shall not be issued, however, until such issuance has been authorized by a majority vote of the qualified electors who own taxable property in the city where said election is being held, and who have duly rendered their property for taxation, such electors voting only in the precinct of their residence, and voting on such proposition under the Constitution and Laws of Texas. Such election shall be called and held in the manner provided for the calling and holding of other bond elections in such city. No other notices need be published or opportunities for the filing of petitions granted despite the provisions of any other statute or of the charter of any such city.

Sec. 7. All proceedings heretofore had by cities having more than one hundred and sixty thousand (160,000) inhabitants, in the acquisition of any water systems, and the encumbrance of same, within the authority given by this Act, be and the same are hereby approved and ratified.

Provided, that in cities having a population of more than two hundred and ninety thousand (290,000) according to the last preceding Federal Census, the governing body thereof shall have the power to borrow money and issue bonds or notes which shall be fully negotiable within the meaning and for all purposes under the negotiable instrument law; said bonds and notes to be payable solely out of the income of such system or any extensions, improvements, betterments, additions or improvements which are in the judgment of the governing body of such city, are necessary to render adequate service and to pledge and use the income of such system for the payment of such bonds or notes and such determination by such governing body shall be conclusive and any ordinance pledging or encumbering such rents, income or revenues shall be deemed a part of the contract of said city with the holders of such bonds or notes, and

Provided, further, that the election called for in Section 6 hereof shall not be necessary in said cities having a population of more than two hundred and ninety thousand (290,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, to authorize the issuance of bonds or notes payable solely out of the income of said system, and

Provided, further, that all bonds or notes of said last mentioned cities authorized under Section 1 of this Act shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for his examination and when such bonds or notes have been examined and certified as legal obligations of such cities by said Attorney General they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Texas in a book kept for such purposes, and the Comptroller shall endorse his certificate of registration upon each of such bonds or notes; and any bonds or notes so approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller, and delivered to the purchaser or purchasers for not less than their par value plus accrued interest shall thereafter be incontestable.

Provided, further, that nothing in this Act, however, shall repeal or affect any other legislation pertaining to the same or similar subjects but shall be cumulative of all Acts granting the power to all such cities and towns, including home rule cities, operating under Title 28 of the Revised Statutes of 1925, and it is not intended to limit or impair any power given by any other of such Acts, nor shall any other Act be deemed to limit or impair the power of any city under this Act.

Art. 1109a-1. Validation of Waterworks System Revenue Refunding Bonds and Sewer System Revenue Refunding Bonds

All Waterworks System Revenue Refunding Bonds and all Sewer System Revenue Refunding Bonds heretofore authorized, issued, exchanged, and delivered by cities in Texas operating under the provisions of Special Charters and which refunding bonds have been heretofore validated and confirmed by a final decree of a United States District Court in Texas, be, and the same are hereby in all things ratified, validated, and confirmed, and such refunding bonds so authorized, issued, exchanged, and delivered, shall hereafter be and constitute valid and binding obligations upon the revenues of such systems.

Art. 1109a-2. Warrants for Completion of Waterworks Extensions and Improvements

Sec. 1. In each instance where a city heretofore has issued and sold bonds for the purpose of extending and improving its waterworks system, and the governing body thereof finds and determines that the proceeds from such bonds will not be sufficient to complete such extensions and improvements according to plans and specifications heretofore approved by the governing body, and that such extensions and improvements must be completed immediately in order to afford adequate fire protection and to protect the public health, the governing body is hereby authorized to issue interest-bearing time warrants to pay for the completion of the extensions and improvements. Such warrants may be issued without the prerequisite of an election and without giving notice of intention to issue warrants.

Sec. 2. In the event of conflict between any of the provisions of this Act and any provisions of a city charter, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. Provided, however, that no city shall issue warrants under this law to a greater amount than Thirty Thousand ($30,000.00) Dollars, that such warrants shall bear not more than four (4%) per cent interest, and shall mature in not to exceed five (5) years from their date, and provided further that no ordinance, authorizing the issuance of such warrants, shall be passed after ninety (90) days after the effective date of this Act; but the limitations contained in this sentence shall not restrict the authority conferred by any of the provisions of Section 6 of the Bond and Warrant Law of 1881. 1

Art. 1109a-3. Acquisition of Property for Water Purification and Treatment Facilities

Authority of Certain Cities and Towns

Sec. 1. Cities and towns of this state incorporated under General or Special Law or operating under a Home Rule Charter and which are located within or which have contracted or which may hereafter contract with any Municipal Water Authority or other District organized under the provisions of Section 59 of Article XVI of the Texas Constitution, for a supply of untreated water shall have and are hereby granted the power separately or jointly, in combination with any one or more such cities or towns, to receive and acquire through gift or dedic-
CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Sec. 5. The governing body of any city which may provide water treatment facilities under the provisions of this Act may for such purpose issue negotiable bonds or warrants of such city and levy taxes to provide the interest and sinking fund therefor in the manner provided by law for the issuance of tax supported bonds and warrants of such cities and towns, or may issue bonds supported by the revenues of any one or all of its utilities in the manner provided in Article 1111 et seq., Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

Sec. 6. In addition to any taxes which may be levied by any city or town for the interest and sinking fund of any bonds issued hereunder any city or town acquiring improvements and facilities either separately or jointly pursuant to this Act are authorized and empowered to levy and collect taxes for the purpose of improving, operating and maintaining any such improvements and facilities; provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing any city or town to exceed the limits of taxation placed upon it by the Constitution and Laws of this state or by their home rule charter.

Validation of Water Treatment Contracts

Sec. 7. All acts and proceedings of the governing bodies of cities and towns, eligible under the provisions of this Act, heretofore accomplished in the authorization and execution of water treatment contracts as herein contemplated as well as the terms and provisions of said water treatment contracts themselves are hereby ratified, approved, confirmed and validated and declared to be valid in all respects as of the respective dates thereof with the parties thereto bound accordingly until the terms and provisions of said contracts are lawfully changed by mutual consent of the parties thereto.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 8. This Act is cumulative of all other laws and city charter provisions relating to the same subject and shall take precedence over any city charter provision in conflict but only to the extent of such conflict.

[Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 48, ch. 18, §§ 1 to 8.]

Art. 1109b. Eminent Domain

Incorporated cities and towns shall have the power to appropriate private property for public purposes whenever the governing authorities shall deem it necessary and to take any private property within or without the city limits for any of the following purposes, to wit:

Art. 1109d. Cities and Towns Authorized to Contract with Water Improvement or Water Control and Improvement District for Water Supply

Duration of Contracts

Sec. 1. Any city or town in this state may contract with any Water Improvement District or Water Control and Improvement District deriving its powers from Article XVI, Section 59, of the Constitution of Texas and any such District may contract with any such City or Town, for supplying water to said City. Such contract may run for such length of time as may be agreed upon between the Board of Directors of said District and the governing body of said City, not to exceed 30 years from the date of the contract, but said contract may also provide that it shall run until all warrants, notes or bonds, issued by such District for the acquisition of facilities necessary or convenient to enable the District to supply the City with water, have been paid in full.

Payment for Water Out of Water System Revenues Exclusively

Sec. 2. Payment for water so supplied shall be made out of the water system revenues of such City or town, and the District shall never have the right to demand payment out of money raised or to be raised by taxation, and payments under the contracts herein authorized may be secured by a first lien on, and an irrevocable pledge of the revenues of said water system.

Election Approving Contract; Notice of Election; Ballots

Sec. 3. Provided, however, that no such contract shall become binding until approved by a majority vote of the qualified electors in such City or Town at an election held for that purpose. Such election may be called by the governing body of the city on its own motion. Notice of such election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation published in such City or Town once each week for two consecutive weeks the first of which publications shall be at least ten full days prior to the day set for the election, provided, that if no newspaper is published in such City or Town, notice of said election shall be given by posting notice thereof in each of the voting precincts of such City or Town and one at the City Hall. The notice of election shall state the date upon which the same shall be held, and shall state the proposition to be voted upon in such form as the governing body shall prescribe, but the notice need not set out the contract at length, or detail its provisions. For ten days next, preceding the election the proposed contract shall be on file in the office of the City Secretary and may be examined by any person. The governing body of the City shall prescribe the form of the ballots.

General Election Law to Govern Elections; Qualification of Electors; Returns

Sec. 4. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, said election shall be conducted according to the general election law. Only qualified electors who own taxable property in the City and who have duly rendered the same for taxation, shall be qualified to vote. Returns of said election shall be made to the governing body of the city.

Canvass of Returns; Effect of Election

Sec. 5. The governing body shall canvass the returns of said election as soon as practicable. If a majority of the votes cast at such election are in favor of approving the contract, the contract shall at once become binding and effective; if a majority of the votes are against the contract, the contract shall not become effective.
plants, and all other equipment and supplies, and basins, pipelines, conduits, filtration, and aeration provided herein.

Sec. 6. Any such district may construct, or otherwise acquire and equip, such canals, reservoirs, basins, pipelines, conduits, filtration, and aeration plants, and all other equipment and supplies, and may acquire by purchase, eminent domain, or otherwise all such property as is necessary or convenient for the purpose of supplying water to a city as provided herein.

Issuance of Warrants, Notes, or Bonds; Refunding or Reissuing Bonds

Sec. 7. Any such District may issue warrants, notes or bonds to provide for the acquisition of the facilities necessary or convenient for supplying water to such city or town, and to secure such warrants, notes or bonds by a pledge of the revenues to be derived under any such contract then in existence or thereafter to be made for supplying water to such city or town. Where tax supported bonds hereafter are voted for such purpose, such bonds may be issued, secured by the pledge of such tax levy and by the pledge of such revenues or by either of such pledges. In instances where tax supported bonds have been voted heretofore in any such district but all or part thereof have not yet been sold, such unsold bonds may be issued and sold and the proceeds or any part thereof may be used for such purpose without the necessity of another election, and in such instances the District may secure such bonds by a levy of such taxes and by a pledge of the revenues to be derived under any such contract for supplying water either then in existence or thereafter to be made, or may secure said bonds by either of such methods. Bonds of such Districts hereafter voted may be refunded or re-issued without an election and such refunding or re-issued bonds may be secured as in this section provided.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 8. In the event any provision of this Act shall be in conflict with any other law the provisions of this Act shall be effective.

[Acts 1937, 45th Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 1879, ch. 12.]

Art. 1109e. Contract with District Created to Supply Water to City

Contract Authorized; Provisions of Contract

Sec. 1. Any city or town within this State is hereby authorized to enter into a contract with any district or authority, hereinafter called “district,” created under Article XVI, Section 59 of the Constitution for the purpose of supplying water to such city. Any such city may also by contract lease its water production, water supply, and water supply facilities to such district, or make a contract with such district for operation by the district of its water production, water supply, and water supply facilities, or the operation by the city of the district’s water production, water supply, and water supply facilities. Any contract authorized by this Act may provide that the city shall not obtain water from any source other than the district except to the extent provided in such contract. Any such contract may be upon such terms and for such time as the parties may agree, and it may provide that it shall continue in effect until bonds specified therein and refunding bonds issued in lieu of such bonds are paid.

Rates

Sec. 2. Any water supply contract provided in the preceding section shall be subject to the statutory or the contractual duty of the district from time to time to revise the rate of compensation for water sold and services rendered by the district to the city under such contract so that the net revenues of the district will at all times be sufficient to enable the District to pay its operation and maintenance expense and to pay the principal and interest on bonds secured by such contract to the extent provided in the resolution authorizing said bonds. Money required to be paid by the city to the district under such contract shall constitute an operating expense of the waterworks system of the city.

Election

Sec. 3. (a) No city shall make any contract authorized by this Act unless authorized by a majority vote in an election held in such city. Such election shall be ordered by the governing body of the city and notice thereof shall be published once each week for two (2) consecutive weeks, the first of such publications to be at least fourteen (14) days prior to the election, in a newspaper of general circulation published within the city. If no newspaper is published in the city the notice shall be posted at the City Hall and at two (2) other public places in the city. The notice shall be sufficient if it states the time and place of holding the election, and that the purpose of the election is to determine whether the governing body of the City shall be authorized to make the water supply contract, or make the lease or operating contract, or both as the case may be. Both questions may be submitted in the same proposition.

(b) Only qualified electors of the city who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the same for taxation shall be permitted to vote at such election. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the general election laws shall govern such election.

(c) If a majority of the votes cast at said election are in favor of the proposition the governing body shall pass an ordinance prescribing the form and substance of the lease or contract, or both, as the case may be, and directing the mayor or mayor pro tem to sign it. Such ordinance may be passed by vote of a majority of the members of the governing

Art. 1109e-1. Contracts with Conservation and Reclamation Districts for Water Supply

Sec. 1. Incorporated cities having a population of more than 900,000 according to the next preceding Federal Census which own and operate a municipal water system shall be authorized to enter into contracts and joint enterprises with conservation and reclamation districts created under Article XVI, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas for the conveyance, transportation and distribution of water for and on behalf of such cities or may contract to sell water to such districts and to repurchase all or part thereof at a designated point or points on the district's conveyance, transportation and distribution system. Such contracts may be for such period of time, not exceeding forty (40) years, as may be prescribed therein, and may provide that they shall continue in effect until bonds issued by such districts to finance the cost of such conveyance, transportation and distribution facilities and extensions, enlargements and improvements there-to, and refunding bonds issued in lieu of such bonds, are paid.

Sec. 2. Such contracts may provide that money required to be paid by the city to the district there-under shall constitute an operating expense of the waterworks system of the city or shall be payable from surplus or other funds of the city's waterworks system or from the revenues of specified water sales contracts or from other sources; provided that if such contract involves an obligation by the city to pay all or any part of the consideration out of funds raised or to be raised by taxation, such contract shall not become effective until an election shall have been called, held and carried, in the manner required for bond elections of such city, on the proposition of authorizing the governing body to execute such a contract; otherwise no election shall be required.

Sec. 3. Such cities may enter into contracts for the sale of water to industrial and commercial customers and to municipal corporations and political subdivisions upon such terms and for such periods, not to exceed forty (40) years, as may be prescribed by ordinance.

Sec. 4. This Act shall be cumulative of other legislation pertaining to the same or similar subjects; provided, that cities electing to make contracts under this Act shall be governed solely by the provisions of this Act, any other Statute, charter provision or ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

Art. 1109e-2. Validation of Proceedings and Contracts with Districts to Supply Water

Sec. 1. Where any city or town within this State has heretofore submitted to the qualified resident electors of such city or town who own taxable property within such city or town and who had duly rendered the same for taxation a proposition or propositions to authorize the governing body of such city or town to enter into a contract with any district or authority created under Article XVI, Section 59 of the Constitution for the purpose of supplying water to such city or town, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 342, Acts of the 51st Legislature, 1949; and such water supply contract was approved by a majority vote of the said property-taxpaying voters voting at such election, all such election proceedings, the results thereof, and proceedings of the governing body and officials of such city or town relating to such contracts and the authorization, execution, and delivery thereof are hereby validated, ratified, and confirmed, and any such contract heretofore entered into by any such city or town pursuant to such election is hereby validated, ratified, and confirmed, notwithstanding the fact that only qualified electors of such city or town who owned taxable property there in and who had duly rendered the same for taxation participated in such election.

Sec. 2. The provisions hereof shall not be construed as validating any contract where (i) such contract was required by law to be approved at an election, unless such contract was approved by a majority of the participating resident qualified electors owning taxable property within such city or town who had duly rendered same for taxation and the statutory election contest period has expired prior to the effective date of this Act, or (ii) such contract or election proceedings are involved in litigation questioning the validity thereof on the effective date of this Act.

Art. 1109f. Validation of Contracts for Water Supply

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any contract heretofore executed by and between an "Eligible City" and an "Eligible District" as the terms are defined in this Act. An "Eligible City" is a city having a population in excess of two hundred thousand (200,000) according to the latest Federal Census. An "Eligible District" is one created under Article XVI, Section 59 of the Constitution, which has contracted to furnish water supply service to a city or cities.

Sec. 2. Any water supply contract heretofore execute by and between an Eligible City and an Eligible District obligating the district to convey and make available for delivery water which the city will have the right to use as a supplemental supply, and for which service the city is obligated to make payments from the revenues of its waterworks system and which imposes no obligation on the tax resources of the city, is hereby validated in all things whether or not an election has been held in the city on the question of authorizing or approving such contract.

Sec. 2a. This law shall not apply to any contract by and between an Eligible City and an Eligible District as referenced above, which is now involved in litigation in any District Court of this State, Court of Civil Appeals, or the Supreme Court of Texas in which litigation the validity of any Eligible District or the validity of any contract to furnish water by and between the above referenced parties is attacked.

Art 1109f-1. Validation of Contracts Between Districts and Cities and Towns for Water Supply

Sec. 1. All contracts between districts or authorities heretofore created under the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, of the Constitution of Texas and cities, towns or villages heretofore created under the General Laws of the State of Texas, whereby the district or authority has agreed and contracted to furnish a water supply to such cities, towns or villages, are hereby validated.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to validate any agreement or contract which imposes any obligation upon the tax resources of any such city, town or village, but shall apply only to those contracts whereby payments for a water supply are to be made from the revenues of the purchaser's water distribution system; nor shall this Act apply to any contract now involved in litigation questioning the validity of its provisions, if the question is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Art. 1109g. Water Supply Contracts with Persons, Firms or Corporations

Sec. 1. Any city or town whether operating under the general law or under its special or home rule charter, which owns and operates its water distribution system, is authorized to enter into a contract for such period of time, with such renewal and extension privileges as may be prescribed therein, with any person, firm or corporation (when operating without profit) under the terms of which such supplier will make available for delivery to and use by the municipality all or part of the raw or treated water to be used in or for the distribution system of such municipality.

Sec. 2. If any such contract which is to be effective for a longer period than one (1) year involves an obligation by the municipality to pay all or any part of the consideration for such service out of funds raised or to be raised by taxation, or if it involves the leasing to the supplier or the right to operate a major part of any existing water production or supply facilities belonging to the municipality, or if the contract restricts the municipality from obtaining water from any other supplier, such contract shall not become effective unless and until an election shall have been called, held and carried on the proposition to approve or authorize such contract.

In instances where such contract shall be payable solely from the revenues of the municipality's water system, not involving any obligation against its taxing power and not conferring on the supplier the right to lease or to operate a major part of the municipality's existing water production or supply facilities, and if the contracts do not restrict the municipality from obtaining water from any other supplier, no election shall be necessary. However, within its discretion the governing body of the municipality may order an election on the question before approving any such contract. Any election under this Act shall be held in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 2 of Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas insomuch as such provisions are applicable.

Sec. 3. When any contract made under this law provides for payments solely out of water system revenues of such municipality the money thus required to be paid by the municipality shall constitute an operating expense of the City's water system, and such municipality shall fix and maintain rates and charges for services rendered by such water system as will be sufficient to pay the maintenance and operation expenses thereof as contemplated by Article 1113, Revised Civil Statutes, as amended, and provide for the payment of principal and interest on any revenue bonds of such municipality which shall be payable from its water revenues.

Sec. 4. As is customary under water supply contracts made between cities and towns on the one part and districts and authorities on the other part under Chapter 342, Acts of the Regular Session of the Fifty-first Legislature,1 the service to be rendered by the supplier may include among other items the holding of water available for and the readiness to serve the water needs of such municipality, and the charge to be effective under such contract may include compensation for such item of service.

1 Article 1109e.

Art. 1109h. Eligible City Authorized to Issue Revenue Bonds; Construction and Equipment of Water Supply Project

Eligible City Defined

Sec. 1. An "eligible" city under this Act is one having a population of more than 275,000 under the last preceding federal census, in which a majority of the resident qualified voters who shall have duly rendered their property for taxation, participating in an election, have voted to authorize such city to enter into a contract to acquire a water supply from a River Authority (hereinafter called the "Authority") created by the Legislature under Article XVI, Section 59 of the Constitution, and which shall have obtained a permit from the State Board of Water Engineers to utilize the water from such source of supply.

Alternative Financing Procedure

Sec. 2. The right of an eligible city and of an Authority to proceed to finance the entire cost of the water supply project under law through the issuance by the Authority of its revenue bonds based on the voted contract with an eligible city may be amended by the governing body of the Authority to proceed with the financing of the entire cost or the portion of such cost which is not to be provided by such city of the water supply project under law through the issuance by the Authority of its revenue bonds based on the voted contract with an eligible city that is not affected by the passage of this Act. But as an alternative procedure an eligible city and an Authority may amend the voted contract so as to implement the provisions of this Act, including, but without limiting the extent of such amendments, provisions defining the extent to the city's rights in such water supply project, and the procedures under which the city will make available to the Authority the proceeds of revenue bonds issued under authority of this Act, as needed for payment of construction costs including such city's intake structures, pumping and filtration equipment, or such portion thereof as Authority is not required under such contract to provide through the issuance of its revenue bonds, and arrangements for auditing the funds and accounts to be used in the construction program. Such eligible city may proceed with the issuance and sale of its revenue bonds, payable from the revenues of its waterworks system or, if combined in such city, its waterworks and sanitary sewer system (hereinafter called the "city's revenue bonds") and the use of the proceeds as provided in succeeding sections of this Act.

Ordinance Authorizing Bond Issue; Notice; Petition; Bond Election

Sec. 3. Before passage of an ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds under this Act, the governing body of such city shall give notice of the time when such ordinance is to be passed. Such notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in such city, in at least two issues thereof, the date of the first publication to be not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the date so fixed for passage of the ordinance. Unless prior to the scheduled time for passing the ordinance a petition is filed with the city secretary, signed by not less than 10% of the qualified voters of the city who have duly rendered their property for taxation, requesting that an election be held on the question of issuing such bonds, the governing body may proceed in the issuance thereof without an election. If such petition is duly filed, it shall be the duty of the governing body to proceed in the manner prescribed in Chapter 1 of Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes, with an election on the question, and such bonds shall not be issued unless a majority of the voters voting at such election, vote favorably on the question. The governing body within its discretion may call an election for the issuance of the bonds without awaiting the filing of a petition requesting a referendum election.

Extent of Water Supply Projects; Passage of Bond Issue Ordinance; Amount of Bonds; Operation of Project

Sec. 4. The water supply project of the Authority may consist of a dam, reservoir, related outlet facilities, or any or all of such elements, including but without limiting the meaning of the term, lands, easements, flowage rights and interest during construction. When the designs, plans and specifications for the water supply project of the Authority shall have been completed to the extent that they have been approved by the governing body of the Authority, which will actually construct the water supply project, and likewise by the governing body of such city, such eligible city may pass an appropriate ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of its revenue bonds in an amount estimated to cover the entire cost to be incurred by the Authority in constructing the water supply project, or such portion thereof as the city shall have contracted to provide. Within the discretion of the governing body of such eligible city such revenue bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to cover the cost of providing all other facilities needed to deliver to the city treated water from the water supply project, including but without limiting the effect of this provision, the intake structure, pumping stations and equipment, pipelines, treatment and filtration plants and all intermediate and terminal reservoirs, intermediate reservoirs to be used wholly or in part for storing water from the water supply project and pumping and pipeline facilities for conveying water to and from such intermediate reservoirs, or any or all of such elements, including but without limiting the meaning of the term, lands, easements and rights-of-way needed for such purposes, and interest during construction. The construction and operation of the water supply project will remain the responsibility of the Authority, and except for the water supply project and other facilities specified by contract, city will have the responsibility of constructing and operating, and shall own all such facilities and property, including the intake, pumping stations, pipelines and equipment, treatment and filtration plants and all intermediate and terminal reservoirs. Within the discretion of such city the bonds may be authorized and sold at one time or in installments from time to time.

Bonds, Requisites and Provisions; Additional Bond Issues; Rates, Tolls and Charges; Refunding Bonds

Sec. 5. (a) Such eligible city may authorize such revenue bonds by ordinance. The bonds shall be signed by the Mayor and by another designated officer of the city and the seal of the city shall be impressed thereon; but within the discretion of the governing body evidenced in the ordinance, bonds may be issued bearing the facsimile signature of the Mayor and the seal of such city may be printed thereon, but the signature of the other designated officer in such cases must be manually affixed.

Such bonds shall mature serially or otherwise within such period and at such times as may be prescribed in the ordinance but not exceeding a maximum of 40 years. The bonds may be sold at a price and under terms determined by the governing body of such city to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, provided that the interest cost to the city calculated by use of standard bond interest tables currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses does not exceed 6% per annum.

The bonds may be registrable as to principal only or as to both principal and interest. Appropriate provisions may be inserted in the ordinance authorizing the execution and delivery of bonds for the conversion of registered bonds into bearer of bonds and vice versa. Provision may be made in the bond ordinance for substitution of new bonds for those lost or mutilated.

(b) In the ordinance authorizing such revenue bonds, the right may be reserved under the conditions therein specified to issue additional revenue bonds which will be on a parity with or subordinate to the bonds when being issued.

(c) After such revenue bonds shall have been issued, it shall be the duty of the governing body of such city to fix and from time to time to revise the rates, tolls and charges for sales and services rendered by the city's waterworks system or waterworks and sanitary sewer system, as the case may be, to the end that such rates, tolls and charges will yield sufficient money to pay the expense of operating and maintaining such system or systems, the principal of and interest on said bonds as such principal and such interest mature, and to create and maintain the reserve funds and other funds as prescribed in the ordinance authorizing the bonds.

(d) It shall be the duty of such city to provide for such deposits into the interest and sinking fund, the reserve and other funds to the extent and as prescribed in the ordinance authorizing such bonds. Such ordinance shall require all or any of such deposits to be made from the revenues of its waterworks system or, if combined in such city, its waterworks and sanitary sewer system; but within the discretion of the governing body of such city all or any part of the deposits necessary to pay interest during construction and for not exceeding two additional years, may be provided from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds. The proceeds from the sale of such bonds shall be deposited by such city in a fund which will be utilized solely to pay the expense of issuing and selling said bonds and to pay the construction cost of such portion of the water supply project as the city shall be obligated to provide under the contract with the Authority and to pay the construction cost of that part of the facilities to be constructed, owned and operated by the city as provided in Section 4 of said Chapter 35, Acts of the Regular Session of the 55th Legislature as amended.

(e) Pending the issuance of definitive bonds, such city may authorize the delivery of negotiable interim bonds, eligible to be exchanged for definitive bonds.

(f) Such city is authorized to issue refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding any outstanding bonds and interest thereon, authorized by this Act. The governing body, in its discretion, may inject additional security for the refunding issue. Refunding bonds shall be registrable by the Comptroller of Public Accounts upon surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu of such procedure the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the refunding bonds may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the bank, or in one (1) or more of the banks where the original bonds are payable. In the latter case, the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to pay the interest on the original bonds to their maturity date or to the date on which the bonds are to be redeemed, and the amount of the call premium, if any, as to bonds called for redemption prior to maturity, and in such event the Comptroller shall register the refunding bonds without the concurrent surrender and cancellation of the original bonds. No election shall be necessary in connection with the authorization and issuance of refunding bonds.

(g) No such bonds shall be issued by such city until they shall have been approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas. After the bonds shall have been approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, they shall as well as such bonds as shall be issued by Authority be negotiable instruments and shall be incontestable, provided that when the bonds of an issue shall have been thus approved and registered, the bonds thereafter delivered by such city in lieu thereof, pursuant to subsection (a) of this Section, in connection with the exchange of registered for unregistered bonds, or unregistered bonds for registered bonds, or in lieu of lost or mutilated bonds, need not be reapproved by the Attorney General or re-registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts. Nevertheless, such bonds shall likewise be incontestable, and except for the limitations resulting from registration shall be negotiable.

(h) Proceeds from the sale of any such issue of bonds may be invested during the period of construction or prior to their use for construction purposes, in bonds or other direct obligations of the United States government, and such securities may be sold pursuant to the direction of the governing body of the city when needed for construction purposes.
Art. 1109h

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Bonds as Legal Investments; Security for Deposits of Public Funds

Sec. 6. All such bonds shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, saving and loan associations and insurance companies. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of the principal amount thereof, or their value on the market, whichever is the lesser, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Precedence Over Conflicting Provisions

Sec. 7. The provisions of this Act shall take precedence over conflicting and inconsistent provisions of other statutes and special and home rule charters.

Severability Provision

Sec. 8. The provisions of this Act are severable. If any provisions of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Art. 1109i.

Water Supply and Sewage Transportation and Disposal Contracts of Certain Cities with Trinity River Authority

Eligible City

Sec. 1. Each city or town which either is situated wholly or partly within the boundaries of Trinity River Authority of Texas, created by Chapter 518, Acts of the Regular Session of the 54th Legislature,¹ and any amendments thereto, (hereinafter called the "Authority"), or is situated wholly or partly within the watershed of the Trinity River, is an "Eligible City" within the meaning of this Act.

Contracts Authorized; Revenues Received, Disposition, Etc.

Sec. 2. An Eligible City, pursuant to an ordinance passed by its governing body, is hereby authorized to make a contract with the Authority under which the Authority will make available to the Eligible City, sewage transportation and disposal (including treatment) services or any or all of such services, and when prescribed therein, provision for stand-by service. Such contract may be upon such terms and for such period of time as the parties may agree, and may provide that it will remain in effect until the bonds issued by the Authority as mentioned therein and refunding bonds issued in lieu thereof, are paid. Such City shall have the right to the continued performance of such services after the amortization of the Authority's investment in such facilities during the useful life thereof, upon payment of charges reduced to take into consideration such amortization.

The revenues received by the Authority from the participating Eligible Cities shall be used only (1) for payment of principal of and interest on, and to provide reserves created for, the bonds to be issued by Authority to finance such transportation, disposal (including treatment) facilities, and (2) to pay the operation and maintenance expenses (including within the meaning of the term, legal, administrative and management supervision fees and expenses) in connection therewith; provided that such part of any surplus accumulated for the benefit of a participating Eligible City, as may be prescribed in contract between such City and the Authority, may be expended by the Authority for enlargements and betterments of Authority's facilities which are used to serve, especially, such City.

In consideration of payments made by an Eligible City under such contract, and the services performed by the Authority the Authority shall become the owner of sewage accepted by it for transportation and treatment and shall be solely responsible for the proper treatment and disposal of such sewage and the effluent, and no participating Eligible City shall be entitled to any rights in, nor shall it be liable for any improper treatment or disposal of, such sewage or effluent.

No city shall be entitled to credit of any type either in the exchange of water, money or other consideration for any effluent delivered to the Authority, and no such exchange or sale can be made a condition to any contract hereunder.

Payments by City to Authority; Source; Operating Expense

Sec. 3. Payments by such City to the Authority shall be made from the City's waterworks system or its sanitary sewer system or of both systems or of its combined water and sanitary sewer system, as prescribed in the contract between such City and the Authority, and shall constitute an operating expense of the system or systems whose revenues are thus pledged. Unless the alternative procedure prescribed in Section 4 is followed, neither the Authority nor the holder of any bonds of the Authority shall have the right to demand payment of the City's obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

Outstanding Bonds; Revenues

Sec. 3a. If any such city has revenue bonds outstanding at the time it executes such contract, secured by a pledge of the net revenues from the operation of a combined system comprising a waterworks system and a sanitary sewer system, and in addition thereto either a natural gas distribution system or an electric lighting and power system, that portion of the payments made by such city to the Authority which is used by the Authority for debt service on Authority's bonds may be treated by the city for its accounting purposes as a capital expenditure, provided that and so long as these conditions exist:

(1) The revenues from the city's gas system or electric lighting and power system, as the case may be, are adequate to satisfy the requirements of the bond ordinance or ordinances authorizing all revenue bonds outstanding at the time of making the contract and all such bonds thereafter authorized, for the provision of funds for operation, maintenance, and debt service; and

(2) The revenues from the city's sanitary sewer system and (if encumbered under the contract) the city's waterworks system, are ample to meet the requirements of the contract with the Authority.

Elections: Bond Issues

Sec. 4. (a) If an election is held and carried substantially according to the procedure prescribed in Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes, as amended, in reference to the issuance of bonds by Cities, determining that the governing body of the City is authorized to execute the proposed contract for sewage transportation and disposal (including treatment) or for any of such services, and to levy ad valorem taxes to pay such obligation to the Authority, whether or not the City's obligation is to be credited with application of certain revenues of such system or systems, the contract, in such an event, will constitute an obligation against the taxing power of such City, but may be payable both from taxes and such revenues, as may be prescribed in the contract.

(b) Only qualified electors of the City who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the same for taxation shall be entitled to vote at such election. Except as otherwise provided in this Section and in such Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes as amended, the general election laws shall govern such election.

(c) If a majority of the votes cast at said election are in favor of the proposition the governing body shall pass an ordinance prescribing the form and substance of the contract, and directing the proper officers of the City to sign it.

Rates for Services

Sec. 5. Whenever any such City shall have executed a contract with the Authority involving the performance of such duties by the Authority, if the payments thereunder are to be made either wholly or partly from the revenues of the City's waterworks system or sanitary sewer system or from both systems or a combination of both systems, the duty is hereby imposed on such City and it is hereby authorized to establish and maintain and from time to time to adjust the rates charged by the City for the services of such system or systems, to the end that the revenues therefrom will be sufficient at all times to pay: the expense of operating and maintaining such system in accordance with current standards and requirements for preventing stream pollution; the City's obligations to Authority under such contract; and all of such City's obligations under and in connection with revenue bonds theretofore issued, or which may be issued thereafter for such system or systems. Any such City may charge the users of the system or systems whose revenues are to be used in paying the City's obligation under the contract rates sufficient to pay such obligation of the City. Any such contract may require the use of consulting engineers and financial experts to advise the City whether and when such service rates are to be adjusted.

Contract Provisions

Sec. 6. Any such contract between the Authority and such City may provide for services to be rendered concurrently by the Authority to more than one (1) City through the construction and operation of a multiple City system or plant, the cost for such services to be allocated among the several Cities as determined in such contract or group of contracts. It is expressly provided and recognized that all of the compensation to be received by, and all of the security pledged to the Authority by each such City and all such Cities will be available to the Authority as security for the bonds it will issue to provide necessary construction funds. Any such contract, if to be used by the Authority, as security for Authority's bonds, issued to finance its plant and facilities, must be submitted by Authority to the Attorney General for examination, and when such bonds and contract have been approved by the Attorney General, such contract thereafter shall be incontestable.

Validation of Contracts

Sec. 7. All contracts heretofore executed by and between Eligible Cities and the Authority, pursuant to ordinances passed respectively by the governing bodies thereof and pursuant to action of the Board of Directors of the Authority obligating the Authority to render service which includes transportation and disposal (including treatment) of sanitary sewage or any or all of such services, and obligating the City to pay for such services out of its waterworks system revenues or sanitary sewer system revenues or a combination of its water and sanitary sewer system revenues, are hereby validated. Any such contract for which a tax was levied, when an election has been held resulting favorably to the execution of such contract, including the obligation to make payments from ad valorem taxes, is hereby validated.

Art. 11091-1. CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES 962

Art. 11091-1. Contract with District for Sewage Transportation, Treatment and Disposal Services

Eligible City

Sec. 1. Any city or town, situated wholly or partially within a county containing a District which derives its powers from Article XVI, Section 59 of the Constitution and has statutory authority to make contracts with cities and towns for transportation and disposal of sewage (herein called "District") is an "Eligible City" within the meaning of this Act.

Contracts Authorized; Revenues Received; Disposition

Sec. 2. An Eligible City, pursuant to an ordinance passed by its governing body, is hereby authorized to make a contract with the District under which the District will make available to and provide for the Eligible City, sewage transportation, treatment and disposal services, or any or all of such services, and when prescribed therein, provision for stand-by service, such contract may also provide for use by the District of sewage transportation, treatment and disposal facilities owned by such city. Such contract may be upon such terms and for such period of time as the parties may agree, and may provide that it will remain in effect until the bonds issued by the District mentioned therein and refunding bonds issued in lieu thereof, are paid. Such a contract may contain such other provisions and requirements as the governing body of such Eligible City may find reasonably necessary to accomplish its purpose. Such city shall have the right to the continued performance of such services after the amortization of the District's investment in such facilities during the useful life thereof, upon payment of charges reduced to take into consideration such amortization.

The revenues received by the District from the participating Eligible Cities shall be used only (1) for payment of principal of and interest on, and to provide reserves created for, the bonds to be issued by the District to finance such transportation, treatment and disposal services; and (2) to pay the operation and maintenance expenses (including within the meaning of the term, legal, administrative and management supervision fees and expenses) in connection therewith; provided that such part of any surplus accumulated for the benefit of a participating Eligible City, as may be prescribed in contract between such city and the District, may be expended by the District for enlargements and betterments of District's facilities which are used to serve such city.

Payments by City to District; Operating Expense

Sec. 3. Payments by such city to the District shall be made from the city's waterworks system or its sanitary sewer system or from its combined water and sanitary sewer system, as prescribed in the contract between such city and the District, and shall constitute an operating expense of the system or systems whose revenues are thus to be applied. Unless the alternative procedure prescribed in Section 4 is followed, neither the District nor the holder of any bonds of the District shall have the right to demand payment of the city's obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

Elections; Bond Issues

Sec. 4. (a) If an election is held and carried substantially according to the procedure prescribed in Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes, as amended, in reference to the issuance of bonds by cities, determining that the governing body of the city is authorized to execute the proposed contract for sewage transportation, treatment and disposal or for any of such services, and to levy ad valorem taxes to pay such obligation to the District, whether or not the city's obligation is to be credited with application of certain revenues of such system or systems, the contract, in such an event, will constitute an obligation against the taxing power of such city, but may be payable both from taxes and such revenues, as may be prescribed in the contract.

(b) Only qualified electors of the city who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the same for taxation shall be entitled to vote at such election. Except as otherwise provided in this Section and in such Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes as amended, the General Election Laws shall govern such election.

(c) If a majority of the votes cast at said election are in favor of the proposition the governing body shall pass an ordinance prescribing the form and substance of the contract, and directing the proper officers of the city to sign it.

Rates for Services

Sec. 5. Whenever any such city shall have executed a contract with the District involving the performance of such duties by the District, if the payments thereunder are to be made either wholly or partly from the revenues of the city's waterworks system or sanitary sewer system or from both systems or a combination of both systems, the duty is hereby imposed on such city and it is hereby authorized to establish and maintain and from time to time to adjust the rates charged by the city for the services of such system or systems, to the end that the revenues therefrom will be sufficient at all times to pay: the expense of operating and maintaining such system in accordance with current standards and requirements for preventing stream pollution; the city's obligations to District under such contract; and all of such city's obligations under and in connection with revenue bonds theretofore issued, or which may be issued thereafter for such system or systems. Any such contract may require the use of consulting engineers and financial experts to advise the city whether and when such service rates are to be adjusted.
Contract Provisions

Sec. 6. Any such contract between the District and such city may provide for services to be rendered concurrently by the District to more than one city through the construction and operation of a multiple city system or plant, the cost for such services to be allocated among the several cities as determined in such contract or group of contracts. It is expressly provided and recognized that all of the compensation to be received by, and all of the security pledged to the District by each such city and all such cities will be available to the District as security for the bonds it will issue to provide necessary construction funds.

Art. 1109j. Contracts with Water Districts or Non-profit Corporations for Water, Sewer or Drainage Services

Authorization

Sec. 1. Any city or town, whether operating under the General Law or under its special or home rule charter, is authorized to enter into a contract with a district organized under the authority of Article XVI, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas or any corporation or corporations organized to be operated without profit, and any such district or corporation is authorized to enter into a contract with any such city or town, under the terms of which such district, corporation or corporations will acquire for the benefit of and convey to the city or town one or more water supply or treatment systems, water distribution systems, sanitary sewer collection or treatment systems or works or improvements necessary for the drainage of lands in the city, either singularly or together, and in connection with such acquisition make such improvements, enlargements and extensions of and additions to the existing facilities of such city or town as may be provided for in such contract.

Payments for Water, Sewer or Drainage Services; Purchase of Systems; Pledge of Revenues

Sec. 2. When any such contract shall provide that the city or town shall become the owner of such water, sewer or drainage system or systems upon completion of construction or at such time as all debt incurred by such district or corporation in the acquisition, construction, improvement or extension of such system or systems is paid in full, such city or town shall be authorized to make payments to such district or corporation for water, sewer or drainage services to part or all of the inhabitants of such city or town. Such contract may provide for purchase by the city or town of such system or systems by periodic payments to such district or corporation by the city or town in amounts which, together with the net income of the district or corporation, will be sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds of the district or corporation as they become due. Such contract may provide that any payments under this Section 2 shall be payable from and secured by a pledge of a specified portion of the revenues of the water system, the sewer system or the drainage system or systems of the city or town or may provide for the levying of a tax to make such payments, or may provide for such payments to be made from a combination of such revenues and taxes.

Use of Streets and Public Ways by District or Corporation

Sec. 3. Any such contract may provide that such district or corporation shall have the right to use the streets, alleys and public ways and places of the city or town for water, sewer or drainage purposes for a period of time which shall terminate at the time all such indebtedness of such district or corporation is paid in full and the city or town acquires title to such system or systems in accordance with this Act.

Operation of Systems by City

Sec. 4. Any such contract may provide that the city shall operate the system or systems, and if such contract does so provide, the city or town shall be authorized to operate such system or systems.

Approval of Contract by Governing Body

Sec. 5. Any contract made by any city or town pursuant to this Act may be authorized by a majority vote of the governing body of such city or town.

Acts 1981, 67th Leg., ch. 388, repealing this article, enacts the Agriculture Code.

For disposition of the subject matter of the repealed article, see Disposition Table preceding the Agriculture Code.

Art. 1110. Waterworks Right of Way

To acquire rights of way for digging or excavating canals, laying mains or pipe lines for the purpose of conducting water through the same into the cities or towns for the use of the public, incorporated cities and towns owning their own waterworks system shall have the right of eminent domain to condemn private property for public use in and outside of the city or town limits of such cities or towns.

[Acts 1925, 49th Leg., c. 1136.]
Art. 1110a

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Sec. 1. After Revenue Bonds shall have been issued under Section 1 of this Act, so secured by the pledge of the revenues of such system, and whether or not secured by a lien upon the properties constituting the system and franchise, nevertheless the city may thereafter while all or a part of said bonds are still outstanding issue additional revenue bonds secured by a pledge of the net revenues of such system and by a lien similar to that, if any, securing the outstanding revenue bonds, for improvements, extensions, repairs, or replacements of and to the system, or for any or all of said purposes, to the extent and in the manner expressly permitted by the ordinance or ordinances authorizing such previously authorized and outstanding revenue bonds. Such additional revenue bonds shall be issued only after an authorizing election on the question shall have been held in the manner prescribed by Chapter 1 of Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925. If and when such revenue bonds are subsequently issued in accordance with the limitations contained in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the revenue bonds previously issued under authority of Section 1 of this Act, they shall be secured by a pledge of the revenues of such system and lien upon the properties constituting the system and upon the franchise of equal dignity with the pledge and liens securing such outstanding revenue bonds.

Sec. 2. The acts of all home-rule cities whose charters authorize such cities to furnish electric light and power service both within and without corporate limits of such cities, and which cities now own and operate rural electric systems where, by such acts, such cities have heretofore set up and now own and operate rural electric systems as a unit separate and apart from the city system and as a separate utility, are hereby validated in all respects as though they have been duly and legally established as separate systems in the first instance. All the acts of municipal governing bodies of such municipalities setting up such systems as separate units and all bonds, mortgages, warrants and other evidence of indebtedness hereafter issued or heretofore issued are hereby valid and, and such bonds, mortgages, warrants, and other evidences of indebtedness shall be an obligation of each unit separately. The encumbrances and obligations pertaining to one system shall in no way apply to or affect the other system. No such obligation herefore or hereafter issued shall ever be a debt of such city but solely a charge upon the properties of the system, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city to issue bonds for any purpose authorized by law. The expense of operation and maintenance of such system shall always be a first lien and charge against the income thereof. Included within such expense shall be all salaries, labor, repairs, cost of electrical energy, interest, repairs or extensions necessary to render efficient service, and every other proper operation and maintenance expense. The governing bodies of such cities mentioned in this Act shall charge and collect for such service a sufficient rate to pay all operation and maintenance expenses, depreciation, replacement, betterment and interest charged, and to pay the principal of and interest on all obligations issued against each system separately, and to maintain such reserve or reserves, if any, as may be prescribed in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such obligations. No part of the income of each of such systems shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expense or operation until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid. Every evidence of indebtedness issued by the cities mentioned herein shall contain the clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation." All evidences of indebtedness hereafter issued by the cities mentioned herein shall be payable in not more than forty years from date and shall bear interest at not more than 5% per annum. Such evidences of indebtedness shall be signed by the mayor and countersigned by the city secretary; provided, however, that the facsimile signatures of such officers may be printed or lithographed on any interest coupons attached to any obligation issued by such cities. Such cities mentioned herein need not submit any obligation issued against either of such systems to any public official of this State, the only approval required or authorized under this Act being that of the governing body thereof in heretofore setting up and operating such systems are hereby in all things validated; and such obligations shall be considered as obligations issued under this Act.

Sec. 2. Any obligation issued hereunder shall be exempt from taxation by the State of Texas or by any municipal corporation, county, or other political subdivision or taxing district of the State.

Sec. 3. All acts of any such city and the governing body thereof in heretofore setting up and operating such systems are hereby in all things validated, and all encumbrances and mortgages pertaining to each such system and all obligations heretofore or hereafter issued, secured by a pledge of and/or payable from the revenues thereof, are hereby in all things validated; and such obligations shall be considered as obligations issued under this Act.

Sec. 4. The governing body of any home-rule city to which Section 1 of this Act applies, upon finding that it is in the best interests of its separately owned rural electric system and its municipal electric system, may by ordinance order that its rural electric system shall be merged into and become a part of its municipal electric system. From and after said merger, all laws relating to its municipal electric system, including but not limited to all laws relating to the authorization and issuance of bonds, shall apply to the municipal system as thus enlarged and merged pursuant to this section.

Art. 110c. Improvements to Water and Sewer Systems

Constructing, Extending, Enlarging or Reconstructing Systems

Sec. 1. Cities, towns and villages as hereinafter defined shall have power under this Act to improve any water works system or sanitary sewer system within their limits by constructing, extending, enlarging or reconstructing such water or sanitary sewer systems, which power shall include that of making any one or more of the kinds or classes of improvements herein named or any combination thereof or parts thereof.

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, the term:

(A) "City" shall mean any incorporated city, town or village, including home rule cities, which has all or a major portion of its territory in a county which, at the time any action is taken under the powers herein granted, has a population in excess of 25,000 according to the last preceding Federal Census.

(B) "Improvements to the Sewer System" shall mean the laying of all mains, laterals and extensions, and all appliances and necessary adjuncts thereto necessary for the sanitary disposal of excreta and offal from the area in which such improvements are constructed hereunder, but shall not include such off-site mains, laterals and extensions, and appliances and necessary adjuncts thereto shall be necessary to connect such improvements to the existing sanitary sewer system operated by the city.

(C) "Improvements to the Water System" shall mean the laying of a water main or mains with gates, tees, crosses, taps, meter boxes, manholes or extensions and any and all other appurtenances necessary and required for the furnishing of water for domestic or commercial purposes to the area in which such improvements are constructed hereunder, but shall not include such off-site mains, gates, tees, crosses, taps, meter boxes, manholes or extensions, and other appurtenances as shall be necessary to connect such improvements to the existing water system operated by the city.

(D) "Cost of Improvement" with regard to the construction of improvements to the water system and sewer system, either or both, shall include expenses of engineering, fiscal fees, and other expenses incident to construction of improvements in addition to the other costs of the improvements.

(E) "Construction of Improvement" when used herein shall mean the construction of improvements to the water or sewer system, either or both, as same are herein defined.
(F) "Improvements" when used alone herein shall mean improvements to the sewer or water system, either or both, as herein defined.

(G) "Governing Body" shall mean the city, town or village council or commission which serves as the legislative body of the city.

(H) "Benefited Property" shall mean any lot or tract to which water and sewer service, either or both, is made available under the terms of this Act.

Necessity of Improvements; Determination and Order

Sec. 3. The governing body of the city shall have power to determine the necessity for, and to order, the construction of improvements within said city and to contract for the construction of such improvements in the name of the city, and to provide for the payment of the cost of improvements by the city or partly by the city and partly by assessments as hereinafter provided.

Ordinance or Resolution; Costs; Assessments Against Benefited Property

Sec. 4. By the ordinance or resolution declaring that the necessity exists for such improvements, the city shall state generally the nature and extent of such improvements, and may direct that detailed plans, specifications and cost estimates therefore be prepared and submitted to the governing body. The cost of improvements may be wholly paid by the city, or partly by the city and partly by the property benefited by the construction of improvements and the owners of such property, but if any part of the cost is to be paid by such benefited property and the owners thereof, then before any improvements are actually constructed, either before or after receipt of bids for the proposed construction are received by the city, but before any hearing herein provided for is held, the governing body shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, an estimate of the cost of such improvements; in no event shall more than nine-tenths of the costs of such improvements as shown on such estimate be assessed against such benefited property and the owners thereof.

Tax or Assessment Against Railway, Street Railway or Interurban Right-of-Way

Sec. 5. No special tax or assessment shall be levied against a railway, street railway or interurban right-of-way to defray a portion of the cost of the improvements to a city's water or sanitary sewer system.

Amount of Assessment Against Benefited Property; Payment and Default; Liens; Certificates of Special Assessment; Contents

Sec. 6. Subject to the terms hereof, the governing body of any city shall have power by ordinance to assess nine-tenths of the estimated cost of improvements against benefited property, and against the owners of such property, and to provide the time, terms, and conditions of payment and defaults of such assessments, and to prescribe the rate of interest thereon not to exceed ten per cent per annum. Any assessment against benefited property shall be a first and prior lien thereon, and shall be a personal liability and charge against the true owners of such property at the date upon which said lien is fixed and becomes effective, whether named or not in any notice, instrument, certificate or ordinance provided for hereunder. The governing body shall have power to cause to be issued in the name of the city assignable certificates in evidence of assessments levied hereunder declaring the lien upon the property and liability of the true owners thereof whether correctly named or not and to fix the terms and conditions of such certificates.

If any such certificate shall recite substantially that the proceeding with reference to making the improvements therein referred to have been regularly had in compliance with the law and that all prerequisites to the fixing of the assessment lien against the property described in said certificate and the personal liability of the owner or owners thereof have been performed, same shall be prima facie evidence of all the matters recited in said certificate, and no further proof thereof shall be required. In any suit upon any assessment or reassessment in evidence of which a certificate may be issued under the terms of this Act it shall be sufficient to allege the substance of the recitals in such certificate and that such recitals are in fact true, and further allegations with reference to the proceedings relating to such assessment or reassessment shall not be necessary.

Such assessments shall be collectable with interest, expense of collections, and reasonable attorney's fees, if incurred, and shall be first and prior liens on the property assessed, superior to all other liens and claims except State, county, school district and city ad valorem taxes, and shall be a personal liability and charge against said owners of the property assessed.

Apportionment of Assessments; Front Foot Plan

Sec. 7. That part of the cost of water and sewer improvements, either or both, but computed separately, which may be assessed against benefited property and the owners thereof shall be apportioned among the tracts or parcels of benefited property and the owners thereof in accordance with the front foot plan or rule, provided that if the application of this rule would, in the opinion of the governing body, in particular cases, result in injustice or inequality, it shall be the duty of said body to apportion and assess said costs in such proportion as it may deem just and equitable, having in view the special benefits in enhanced value to be received by such owners, and the adjustment of such apportionment so as to produce a substantial equality of benefits received and burdens imposed. For purposes of computing the amount of the assessment to be made under such front foot plan or rule, each parcel of benefited property shall be assessed ac-local improvements, provided, however, that nothing hereinafter shall empower any city or its governing body or otherwise, shall be exempt from any tax or the filing of the notice herein provided for and not before.

re-assessment upon the property assessed or view of this Act the lien of any assessment or mortgages or deeds of trust and shall index same in the name of the city and in the name of other systems to the improvement of which the notice ratifies.

improvement is to be or has been specially assessed and shall describe such property. It is specially provided that one notice may embrace and include any number of such systems or improvements.

Contents of Notice; Filing

Sec. 9. It shall not be necessary that any notice required by this Act give details or that it be sworn to or acknowledged and same may be filed at any time and the county clerk with whom any such notice is filed shall record same in the records of mortgages or deeds of trust and shall index same in the name of the city and in the name of other designation of the water or sewer system or systems to the improvement of which the notice relates.

Effective Date of Lien

Sec. 10. In all instances coming within the purview of this Act the lien of any assessment or re-assessment upon the property assessed or re-assessed shall take effect and be in force at and from the filing of the notice herein provided for and not before.

Exemptions; Personal Liability for Assessments; Enforcement of Liability

Sec. 11. No property of any kind, church, school or otherwise, shall be exempt from any tax or assessment or assessments authorized hereby for local improvements, provided, however, that nothing herein shall empower any city or its governing body to fix a lien against any interest in property which is exempt from the lien of special assessments for local improvements under the Constitution of Texas at the time the lien takes effect, but the owner or owners of such property shall nevertheless be personally liable for any assessment in connection with such improvement and the city shall have power and authority to refuse water or sewer service, either or both, to the owners of such property until the owner thereof pays to the city the amount of the assessment made against such property or an amount equal to that amount assessed for such improvements against private property of equal or comparable size. The fact that any improvement, though ordered, is omitted as to any property, any interest in which is so exempt, shall not invalidate the lien or liability of assessments made against other property.

The lien created against any property and the personal liability of the owner or owners thereof may be enforced by suit in any court having jurisdiction, or by sale of the property assessed in the same manner as may be provided by law or charter in force in the particular city for sale of property for ad valorem city taxes, and the city, as an aid to the enforcement of the liability imposed by the assessment, may refuse to connect or may disconnect sewer or water service to a tract or parcel of benefited property during the period on which there is a default in the payment of any amount assessed hereunder against such tract or parcel and the owners thereof.

Hearing on Assessment; Notice; Contents Contesting Assessment; Appeal; Defenses

Sec. 12. No assessment herein provided for shall be made against any benefited property of its owners, until after notice and opportunity for hearing as herein provided, and no assessment shall be made against any benefited property or owners thereof in excess of the special benefits of such property and its owners in the enhanced value thereof by means of such improvements as determined at such hearing. Such notice shall be by writing mailed to the address of the owner of such property or the person who last paid taxes on such property as determined from the tax rolls of the city, such written notice to be mailed at least ten days prior to the date set for the hearing, and by advertisement inserted at least three times in some newspaper of general circulation in the city where such special assessment tax is to be imposed, the first publication to be at least ten days before the date of the hearing. Proof of such mailing and such publication shall constitute proof that all notice requirements of this Act have been fully complied with.

If any such notice shall describe in general terms the nature of the improvements for which assessments are proposed to be levied and to which such notice relates, shall state the water or sanitary sewer system, portion or portions thereof to be improved, shall state the estimated amount or amounts per front foot proposed to be assessed against benefited property or the owners thereof and describe the property benefited by each system or portion, with reference to which hearing mentioned in the notice is to be held, and shall state the estimated total cost of the improvements on each such system, portion or portions thereof, and shall state the time and the place at which such hearing shall be held, then such notice shall be sufficient, valid and binding upon all owning or claiming such benefited property, or any interest therein. Such hearing shall be by and before the governing body of such city and all owning or claiming such benefited property, or any interest therein, shall have the right, at such hearing, to be heard on any matter as to which hearing is a constitutional prerequisite to the validity of any assessment authorized by this Act, and to contest the amounts of the proposed assessments, the lien and liability thereof, the special benefits to the benefited property and owners thereof by means of the improvements for which assessments are to be levied, the accuracy, sufficiency, regularity and validity of the proceedings and contract in connection with such improvements and proposed assessments, and the governing body shall have power to correct any deficiencies, and to determine the amounts of assessments and all other matters necessary, and by ordinance to close such hearing and levy such assessments before, during or after the construction or such improvements, but no part of any assessment shall be made to mature prior to acceptance by the city of the improvements for which assessment is levied.

Anyone owning or claiming any property assessed, or any interest therein, who shall desire to contest any such assessment on account of the amount thereof, or any inaccuracy, irregularity, invalidity, or insufficiency of the proceedings or contract with reference thereto, or with reference to such improvements, or on account of any matter or thing not in the discretion of the governing body, shall have the right to appeal therefrom and from such hearing by instituting suit for that purpose in any court having jurisdiction within fifteen days from the time such assessment is levied; and anyone who shall fail to institute such suit within such time shall be held to have waived every matter which might have been taken advantage of at such hearing, and shall be barred and estopped from in any manner contesting or questioning such assessment, the amount, accuracy, validity, regularity and sufficiency thereof, and of the proceedings and contract with reference thereto and with reference to such improvements for or on account of any matter whatsoever. And the only defense to any such assessment in any suit to enforce the same shall be that the notice of hearing was not published or mailed or did not contain the substance of one or more of the requisites therefor herein prescribed, or that the assessments exceed the amount of the estimate, and no words or acts of any officer or employee of the city, or member of any governing body of the city, other than the action of the governing body shown in its written proceedings and records shall in any way affect the force and effect of the provisions of this Act.

1 So in enrolled bill.

Changes or Abandonment in Plans, Methods or Contracts

Sec. 13. The governing body of the city shall have power to provide for changes in plans, methods or contracts for improvements, or other proceedings relating thereto, but any change substantially affecting the nature or quality of any improvements shall only be made when it is determined by two-thirds vote of the governing body that it is not practical to proceed with the improvements as theretofore provided for, and if any such substantial change be made after any hearing has been ordered or held then unless the improvement be abandoned altogether a new estimate of cost shall be made and a new hearing ordered, and held, and new notices given, all with like effect and in the like manner as herein provided for original notice and hearings. Changes in or abandonment of improvements must be with the consent of such person, firm or corporation as may have contracted with the city for the construction thereof, if any such contract has been entered into, and in case of abandonment of any particular improvement an ordinance shall be passed which shall have the effect of cancelling any assessments theretofore levied therefor, and all other proceedings relating thereto.

Assessment Against Parcels Owned by Same Person

Sec. 14. Assessments against several parcels of benefited property may be made in one assessment when owned by the same person, firm, corporation or estate, and benefited property owned jointly by one or more persons, firms or corporations may be assessed jointly.

Exercise of Powers

Sec. 15. Said governing body shall have power to carry out all the terms and provisions of this Act and to exercise all the powers thereof, either by resolution, motion, order or ordinance, except where ordinance is specifically prescribed, and such governing body shall have power to adopt, either by resolution or ordinance, any and all rules or regulations appropriate to the exercise of such powers, the method and manner of ordering and holding such hearings, and the giving of notices thereof.

Invalid or Unenforceable Assessments; Correction of Irregularities; Re-assessments

Sec. 16. In case any assessment shall for any reason whatsoever be held or determined to be invalid or unenforceable, then the governing body of such city is empowered to supply any deficiency in proceedings with reference thereto and correct any mistake or irregularity in connection therewith, and at any time to make and levy re-assessments.
after notice and hearing as nearly as possible in the manner herein provided for original assessments and subject to the provisions hereof with reference to special benefits. Recitals in certificates issued in evidence of re-assessments shall have the same force as provided for recitals in certificates relating to original assessments.

Right of Appeal from Re-assessment

Sec. 17. Anyone owning or claiming any property interest in any property against which such re-assessment is levied shall have the same right of appeal as herein provided in connection with original assessments, and in the event of failure to appeal within fifteen days from the date of hearing relative to such re-assessment, the provisions hereinafter made with reference to waiver, bar, estoppel and defense shall apply to such re-assessment.

Assessments in Conjunction With Street Improvements; Joint Proceeding; Single Assessment Certificate

Sec. 18. Should any city so desire, it may make the improvements and assessments provided for hereunder in conjunction with street improvements and assessments provided for in Article 1100b, V. A. T.C.S. by one joint proceeding and only one hearing shall be necessary, and in such event the procedure herein provided shall govern. A single assessment certificate may be issued against any tract or parcel of benefited property and the owners thereof in evidence of the total assessment made for all or any improvements, including street improvements made in a joint proceeding as provided in the preceding sentence, made under this Act, provided that the amount assessed for each class of said improvements is shown separately and distinctly in the ordinance by which any assessment is made hereunder.

Assessment of Subdivided or Platted Property; Cities of Less Than 700,000

Sec. 19. In cities located in counties with a population of less than 700,000 inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census no assessment or other charge for the construction of improvements to any water or sewer system shall be made against any property or property owners, regardless of who initiates the request for said construction, unless such property is in an area which has been subdivided or platted for a period of at least ten years next preceding the date of assessment. For purposes of determining property or areas to which this Act shall apply, “subdivided or platted property” shall mean such property as has been duly platted under the terms of Article 974-a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes or any property which has been subdivided or platted by map or plat filed for record in the office of any county clerk, by the terms of which map or plat there has been made any dedication of the property to the public use for a street or alley right-of-way or for public utility easements.

Duty to Furnish Water or Sewer Service

Sec. 21-A. It is the intention of the Legislature, due to the emergency nature of this Act, that nothing contained herein shall be construed to effect any change in any way in the law of this state, whether promulgated by Statute or court decision, either or both, relating to the duty of a city in its proprietary capacity to furnish water and sewer service, either or both.

Certificates as Legal and Authorized Investments

Sec. 20. Certificates of special assessment issued under the provisions of this Act, including certificates issued in joint proceedings as herein above set out, shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, and sinking funds of cities, towns and villages, counties, school districts or other political subdivisions of the State of Texas and for all other public funds of the state or its agencies.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 21. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of existing laws. The provisions of this Act shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purposes and substantial compliance with the provisions hereof shall be sufficient.

Home Rule Cities; Plans and Specifications for Improvements; Payment of Contractor; Reimbursement; Assessments

Sec. 22. A home rule city to which this Act applies shall have the power and authority to adopt plans and specifications for improvements in accordance with the provisions hereof and shall have the power to pay to the contractor, the successful bidder, that part of the cost that may be assessed against the owners and their benefited property in cash and the city may reimburse itself for the amount by levying an assessment against benefited property and the owners thereof, after hearing and notice, as in this Act provided, up to the amount of the enhancement in value represented by the benefits and permitted by this Statute, and issue assignable certificates in favor of such city for the assessment. The certificates shall be enforceable in the same manner as herein provided. The city shall likewise have the power to do the improvement or improvements by its own forces if the work can be done more expeditiously and economically.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 23. Should any Section, provision, word, phrase, or clause of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance be held invalid, unconstitutional or ineffective, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Section 3 of the 1967 amendatory act provides:

"If any provisions of this Act or the application thereof to any persons or circumstances is held invalid such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

this article, provided in § 2:

"As used in this Act, the last preceding federal census means the 1970 census or any future decennial federal census. This is despite any legislation that has or may be enacted during any session of the 62nd Legislature declaring the effectiveness of the 1970 census for general State and Local governmental purposes."

Art. 1110d. Improvements to Water and Sewer Systems; Purchase of Properties of Water Control and Improvement Districts

Application of Act

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to any city having a population in excess of 275,000 and whose water and sewer system are operated by a board of trustees or a public service board, and water control and improvement district where all or part of the district is contained within the city and where the district's properties are being separately operated under a contract between the city and the district by a board of trustees or public service board established by the city charter or by ordinance.

Definitions

Sec. 2. Words and terms used in this Act shall have the following meanings:

(a) "city" and "district" mean a city or a district to which this Act is applicable;

(b) "improvement bonds" means bonds issued under this Act where the proceeds thereof are to be used for the purchase of district properties as herein authorized;

(c) "district properties" means the water and sewer properties owned by the District or the portion of such properties which could constitute or be used as improvements, extensions or betterments to the City's water and sewer system.

Issuance of Improvement Bonds; Use of Proceeds; Pledge of Revenues

Sec. 3. A city is authorized to issue its negotiatble improvement bonds for the purpose of improving, extending or bettering the city's water and sewer system and to use the proceeds from the sale of the improvement bonds for the purchase of distict properties, if the amount to be paid by the City to the District, together with other applicable funds of the District, is adequate to make provision for the payment of all outstanding bonds of the District. The Improvement Bonds shall be secured by and payable from a pledge of net revenues of the water and sewer system of the City including the District Properties.

Notice; Petition for Election

Sec. 4. Before the issuance of Improvement Bonds the Mayor of the City shall issue a notice of the City's intent to issue such bonds stating the maximum amount thereof, the maximum interest rate and the maximum maturity, and cause such notice to be published in a newspaper having general circulation in the City once each week for two consecutive weeks, the first such publication shall be not less than fourteen days prior to the date upon which the governing body of the city intends to pass the ordinance directing the issuance of the Improvement Bonds. If, by the date specified for the passage of such ordinance, a petition signed by at least ten per cent of the voters qualified to vote in bond elections and requesting an election on the question of the issuance of such Bonds is filed with the City Secretary or City Clerk, the Improvement Bonds shall not be issued unless such election is held and results in a majority vote in favor of the Bonds. If such petition is not filed, no election is required, and the governing body may, on the date specified in the notice or on a later date, pass the ordinance directing the issuance of the Improvement Bonds. If an election is called, it shall be called and held and notice thereof given as provided in Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Statutes of 1925, as amended.1 The Improvement Bonds shall be approved by the Attorney General of Texas, or may be validated by suit under Chapter 316, Acts of the 56th Legislature,2 or both, and when so approved or validated they shall be incontestable.

savings and loan associations to the extent that such deposits are insured by an agency of the United States Government, or in any combination of such investments and deposits. Money and investments deposited with such bank of payment under this Act shall be held by said bank in trust for the benefit of the holders of the outstanding bonds of the District.

Payment of Interest and Principal on District Bonds

Sec. 7. The investments made of the District's interest and sinking fund shall be in obligations or deposits which will mature and produce income, without reinvestment, at times and in amounts which will pay the interest on the District's bonds as it becomes due and pay the principal as it becomes due or on the date fixed by the District for prior redemption, and any redemption premium on the redemption date, and the fees of the bank of payment.

Other Indebtedness

Sec. 8. If the District owes any indebtedness other than bonds and the amount paid by the City to the District is in excess of the amount required for bond requirements as specified in Section 7 hereof, such excess shall be applied to the payment of the other indebtedness.

Passage of Title to City; Abolishment of District; Operation and Management of Properties

Sec. 9. Upon payment of the money by the City to the District and the investment thereof as provided in this Act, the governing body of the City shall pass an ordinance specifying the date as of which title to the District Properties was or shall be vested in the City. The date so specified may, in the discretion of the governing body of the City, be the first day of the then fiscal year of the City. Title to the District Properties shall, for all purposes, be deemed vested in the City on the date specified in said ordinance. The governing body of the City shall also abolish the District by a provision in the ordinance above described or by a subsequent ordinance. Thereafter, the District Properties shall be operated and managed by the board of trustees or the public service board in which the management and operation of the other water and sewer properties of the City is vested.

Integration or Segregation of Properties

Sec. 10. After title to the District Properties is vested in the City and the District is abolished as provided in this Act, the board of trustees or public service board is authorized to integrate the District Properties with the water and sewer system of the City either completely or to the extent provided by the board. It is provided, however, that the payment and security of the outstanding bonds of the District shall not be impaired, and if money is not available at the bank where the bonds of the District are payable sufficient to pay interest on and principal of said bonds as they become due, said board shall segregate the District Properties with all replacements, renewals, improvements and betterments thereof from the remainder of the City's water and sewer system in such manner that the District Properties shall constitute a complete and operating system to serve substantially the same area as it served at the time title passed from the District to the City. Thereafter, said board shall maintain and operate the District system separately, comply with the terms and provisions of the resolutions authorizing the outstanding bonds of the District, and be vested with all of the powers, duties and obligations theretofore vested in the board of directors of the District insofar as maintenance and operation of the District system, the handling of its funds and the payment of outstanding bonds of the District are concerned. For that purpose the board shall constitute a body corporate and occupy the same position as the District and its board of directors.

Payment of Outstanding District Bonds; Interest and Prior Redemption Premiums

Sec. 11. After money has been deposited with the bank where the outstanding District bonds are payable as provided in this Act, the District or the City, as the case may be, may, at any time and from time to time, pay off any outstanding District bonds provided that the amount of money and investments then remaining to the credit of the interest and sinking fund will be sufficient to provide for the payment of all of the remaining outstanding bonds of the District and the interest thereon to the maturity dates of such bonds or to the date fixed by the District for prior redemption of its bonds, and to provide for the payment of any required prior redemption premium.

Excessive Cash and Investments in Interest and Sinking Fund; Payment to Board of Trustees

Sec. 12. If, at any time, the cash and investments in the interest and sinking fund are in excess of the amount required by Section 7 of this Act the bank in which said fund is invested shall, upon request of the board of trustees or public service board, pay such excess to said board.

Art. 1110e. Waterworks and Sanitary Sewer Systems; “On-Site” and “Off-Site” Improvements; Assessments; Certificates; Procedure

Power to Make Off-Site Improvements and Assessments

Sec. 1. Cities as defined herein shall have the power under this Act to make improvements of the kinds or classes herein named or any combination thereof or part thereof within certain designated or defined areas within their limits so as to enable water service or sanitary sewer service, either or both, to be furnished to property situated in such areas from “off-site” waterworks system or sanitary sewer systems, either or both, as herein defined hereafter constructed, purchased or otherwise acquired by such cities and to assess a portion of the cost of such improvements against the properties benefited thereby and against the owners thereof, regardless of whether or not said property is in an area which has been subdivided or platted preceding the effective date of this Act by a plat filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such city is situated or otherwise.

Definitions

Sec. 2. (a) “City” shall mean any city or town, including general law and home rule cities, and not included in whole or in part within the boundaries of any political subdivision functioning and with an outstanding bonded indebtedness having as one of its purposes the supplying of fresh water for domestic or commercial uses or the furnishing of sanitary sewer services, and which city or town does not have a municipally owned water or sanitary sewer service system at the effective date of this Act. The powers conferred in this Act shall terminate after a period of 5 years from the effective date of this Act.

(b) “On-site” when used in connection with the words sanitary sewer system, water system, mains, gates, tees, crosses, adjuncts, appurtenances or improvements, or improvements to the sewer system or water system shall refer to such segments of a water or sanitary sewer system, or improvements in connection therewith, including mains, gates, tees, crosses, taps, meter boxes, manholes, laterals, extensions, appliances, adjuncts and other appurtenances located within the “Defined Area” within which the benefited property lies. “On-site Improvements” do not include the water and/or sanitary sewer plant proper even though situated within the area.

(c) “Off-site” when used in connection with the words sanitary sewer system, water system, mains, gates, tees, crosses, taps, meter boxes, manholes, laterals, extensions, appliances, adjuncts, appurtenances or improvements, or improvements to the sewer system or improvements to the water system shall refer to mains, gates, tees, crosses, taps, meter boxes, manholes, laterals, extensions, appliances, adjuncts and other appurtenances or segments of a water or sanitary sewer system located outside of the “Defined Area” in which the benefited property lies. “Off-site Improvements” include the waterworks and/or sanitary sewer plant proper whether situated within such area or outside of such area.

(d) “Improvements to the Sanitary Sewer System” shall mean the laying of all mains, laterals and extensions, any and all other appliances or appurtenances or adjuncts thereto and any combinations thereof or of portions thereof above mentioned, and other “on-site improvements” liberally construed, necessary or advisable for the sanitary disposal of excreta and offal from Benefited Properties situated within the “Defined Area” but shall not embrace any connection facilities leading from public mains into private property for service to such property.

(e) “Improvements to the Water System” shall mean the laying of all water mains with gates, tees, crosses, taps, meter boxes, manholes, laterals, extensions, appliances, adjuncts thereto and any and all other appliances or appurtenances or adjuncts thereto and any combinations thereof or of portions thereof above mentioned and other “on-site improvements” liberally construed, advisable or necessary for the furnishing of water for domestic or commercial purposes to the Benefited Properties in the “Defined Areas” but shall not embrace any connection facilities leading from a meter into private property.

(f) “Cost of Improvement” with regard to the construction of improvements to the water system and sewer system, either or both, shall include expenses of engineering, fiscal fees, and other expenses incident to construction of improvements in addition to the other costs of the improvements.

(g) “Construction of Improvement” when used herein shall mean the construction of “on-site” improvements, as same are defined herein, to the water or sewer system, either or both, hereafter constructed, purchased or otherwise acquired by the city.

(h) “Improvements” when used alone herein shall mean “on-site” improvements within designated or defined areas of cities which will enable water service or sanitary sewer service, either or both, to be furnished to property situated in such area from “off-site” waterworks and sanitary sewer systems, either or both, hereafter constructed, purchased or otherwise acquired by such cities.

(i) “Governing Body” shall mean the city, or town council or commission which serves as the legislative body of the municipality.

(j) “Benefitted Property” shall mean any lot or tract of land situated in a “Defined Area” and to which water and sewer service, either or both, is made available under the terms of this Act.

(k) “Defined Area or Areas” means any area or areas within the limits of any city to which this Act applies which is served by neither a municipally owned sanitary sewer or water system the boundaries of which area or areas are defined by the governing body of the city in an ordinance or resolution declaring that a necessity exists for improvements as herein defined.

Power to Make On-Site Improvements and Assessments

Sec. 3. The governing body of the city shall have at any time the power to determine the necessity for and to order the construction of “on-site” improvements within said city to a water system or to a sanitary sewer system, either or both, hereafter constructed, purchased or otherwise acquired by the city and to contract for the construction of such improvements by one or more contracts in the name of the city and to provide for the payment of the costs of such improvements by the city or partly by the city and partly by assessments levied against benefited property and the owners thereof as herein provided.

Ordinance: Cost Estimates; Payment of Cost by Assessment and by City

Sec. 4. By the ordinance or resolution declaring that the necessity exists for such improvements, the city shall state generally the nature and extent of the "on-site" improvements, shall define the area or areas in which the benefited property lies and in which the "on-site" improvements are to be constructed, and may direct that detailed plans, specifications and cost estimates therefor be prepared and submitted to the governing body. The costs of "on-site" improvements may be wholly paid by the city or partly by the city and partly by the property benefited by the construction of the improvements and the owners of such property, but if any part of such cost is to be paid by such benefited property and the owners thereof, then before any "on-site" improvements are actually constructed, either before or after bids for the proposed construction are received by the city, and before any hearing herein provided for is held, the governing body shall prepare or cause to be prepared an estimate of the cost of such "on-site" improvements; in no event shall more than nine-tenths of the costs of such "on-site" improvements as shown on such estimate be assessed against such benefited property and the owners thereof. The city shall pay all of the costs of "off-site" improvements.

Railway Assessment Exemption

Sec. 5. No special tax or assessment shall be levied against a railway, street railway or interurban right-of-way to defray a portion of the cost of improvements to a city's water or sanitary sewer system.

Assessments; Payment and Interest; Priority of Liens; Assignable Certificates; Suits; Collection Costs

Sec. 6. Subject to the terms thereof, the governing body of any city shall have power by ordinance to assess not exceeding nine-tenths of the estimated cost of "on-site" improvements against benefited property, and against the owners of such property, and to provide the time, terms, and conditions of payment and defaults of such assessments, and to prescribe the rate of interest thereon not to exceed 10 percent per annum. Any assessment against benefited property shall be a first and prior lien thereon, from the date improvements are ordered and shall be a personal liability and charge against the true owners of such property at such date whether named or not in any notice, instrument, certificate or ordinance provided for hereunder. The governing body shall have the power to cause to be issued in the name of city assignable certificates in evidence of assessments levied hereunder declaring the lien upon the property and liability of the true owners thereof whether correctly named or not and to fix the terms and conditions of such certificates. Such certificates may be signed by the mayor or mayor pro tem or other authorized officer and attested by the city secretary or city clerk, which signatures may be facsimile signatures in lieu of manual signatures and such facsimile signatures may be printed, engraved, lithographed, stamped or otherwise placed in facsimile thereon. The city seal may likewise be placed in facsimile thereon.

If any such certificate shall recite substantially that the proceeding with reference to making the improvements therein referred to have been regularly had in compliance with the law and that all prerequisites to the fixing of the assessment lien against the property described in said certificate and the personal liability of the owner or owners thereof have been performed, and that the improvements have been completed in accordance with the plans and specifications and have been accepted by the city and the date of such acceptance, same shall be prima facie evidence of all the matters recited in said certificate, and no further proof thereof shall be required. In any suit upon any assessment or reassessment in evidence of which a certificate may be issued under the terms of this Act it shall be sufficient to allege the substance of the recitals in such certificate and that such recitals are in fact true, and further allegations with reference to the proceedings relating to such assessment or reassessment shall not be necessary.

Such assessments shall be collectable with interest, expense of collections, and reasonable attorney's fees, if incurred, and shall be first and prior liens on the property assessed, superior to all other liens and claims except state, county, school district and city ad valorem taxes, and shall be a personal liability and charge against said owners of the property assessed.

Apportionment of Cost

Sec. 7. That part of the cost of water and sewer "on-site" improvements, either or both, but computed separately, which may be assessed against benefited property and the owners thereof in the Defined Area or Areas shall be apportioned among the tracts or parcels of property benefited by such water improvements or sewer improvements, or both, and against the owners thereof in accordance with the square footage of such tract or parcel of land as shown on a recorded plat if such property is platted and the square footage can be computed from the information shown on such plat, or if no such plat is recorded, then as such square footage may be estimated by the city's engineer from such information as is available, provided that if the application of this rule of apportionment would in the opinion of the governing body, in particular cases, result in injustice or inequality it shall be the duty of said body to apportion and assess said costs in such proportion as it may deem just and equitable, having in view the special benefits in enhanced value to be received by such owners, and the adjustment of such apportionment so as to produce a substantial equality of benefits received and burdens imposed. For purposes of computing the amount of the assessment to be made each parcel of benefited property shall be assessed according to the number of square feet of each such parcel irrespective of the location of "on-site" improvements constructed hereunder relative to such parcel so long as such improvements provide water or sanitary sewer service, or both, to the parcel to be assessed.

Notice of Assessment; Requisites; Filing

Sec. 8. Whenever the governing body of any city shall pursuant to this Act determine it to be necessary that any "on-site" improvements should be constructed, then if it is proposed that all or any part of the costs of the "on-site" improvements be levied or assessed and made a lien on property benefited thereby, there may be filed with the county clerk of the county or counties in which such property is situated a notice signed in the name of such city by the city clerk, secretary, mayor or mayor pro tem or other authorized officer, which signatures may be facsimile signatures in lieu of manual signatures, and such facsimile signatures may be printed, engraved, lithographed, stamped or otherwise placed in facsimile thereon. Such notice shall meet all requirements of the Act when it shows substantially that the governing body of such city has ordered, directed or otherwise provided or determined it to be necessary that such system be improved and shall define the outside boundaries of the area or areas in which the benefited property lies (the Defined Area or Areas), either by metes and bounds or by reference to streets, highways, survey lines, city limits lines or lot and block or subdivision lines shown on recorded plats, or shall otherwise identify or designate the area within which the improvements are to be made; and shall state that a portion of the costs of the "on-site" improvements is to be or has been specially assessed as a lien upon the benefited property. It is specially provided that one notice may embrace and include any number of such systems or improvements, or designated areas. If there are lots or parcels of land within any Defined Area or Areas which it has been determined by the governing body or the city's engineer will not be Benefited Property as that term is defined herein, then in such notice or in a later notice filed as promptly as feasible after such fact has been so determined such non-benefited property shall be described as adequately as possible and the inchoate lien against same and liability of the owners thereof shall be declared released and cancelled.

Necessity of Acknowledgment and Filing of Assessment Notice

Sec. 9. It shall not be necessary that any notice required by this Act give details or that it be sworn to or acknowledged and same may be filed at any time and the county clerk with whom any such notice is filed shall record same and index same in the name of the city and in the name or other designation of the water or sewer system or systems to the improvement of which it relates. The lien and liability of the assessment shall not be invalidated should said notice not be filed or not be indexed or recorded as herein provided, or shall be otherwise defective.

Exemptions From Assessment; Lien and Personal Liability: Enforcement

Sec. 10. No property of any kind, church, school or otherwise, shall be exempt from any tax or assessment or assessments authorized hereby for local improvements, provided, however, that nothing herein shall empower any city or its governing body to fix a lien against any interest in property which is exempt from the lien of special assessments for local improvements under the Constitution of Texas at the time the lien takes effect, but the owner or owners of such property shall nevertheless be personally liable for any assessment in connection with such improvement and the city shall have power and authority to refuse water or sewer service, either or both, to the owners of such property until the owner thereof pays to the city the amount of assessment made against such property or an amount equal to the amount assessed for such improvements against private property of equal or comparable size. The fact that any improvement, though ordered, is omitted as to any property, any interest in which is so exempt shall not invalidate the lien or liability of assessments made against other property.

The lien created against any property and the personal liability of the owner or owners thereof may be enforced by suit in any court having jurisdiction, or by sale of the property assessed in the same manner as may be provided by law or charter in force in the particular city for sale of property for ad valorem city taxes, and the city, as an aid to the enforcement of the liability imposed by the assessment, may refuse to connect or may disconnect sewer or water service to a tract or parcel of benefited property during the period on which there is a default in the payment of any amount assessed hereunder against such tract or parcel and the owners thereof.

Notice and Opportunity for Hearing; Publication and Mailing of Notices; Requisites; Powers of Governing Body; Appeal

Sec. 11. No assessment herein provided for shall be made against any benefited property or its owners, until after notice and opportunity for hearing as herein provided, and no assessment shall be made against any benefited property or owners thereof in excess of the special benefits of such property and its owners in the enhanced value thereof by means of such improvements as determined at such hearing. Such notice shall be by advertisement inserted at least three times in some newspaper published in the city where such special assessment is to be imposed, if there be such a paper; if not, then in a newspaper published in the county wherein such city is situated with general circulation in such city; the first publication of such notice of hearing to be made at least 21 days before the date of the hearing; and, additional written notice of the hearing shall be given by depositing in the United States mail, at least 14 days before the date of the hearing, notice of such hearing, (which may consist of a copy of the published notice) postage prepaid, in envelopes addressed to the respective owners of the benefited property, as the names of such owners are shown on the then current rendered tax rolls of such city and at the addresses so shown, or if the names of such respective owners do not appear on such rendered tax rolls, then addressed to such owners as their names are shown on the current unrendered rolls of the city at the addresses shown thereon. The certificate of the city clerk or city secretary of such mailing and such publication shall constitute proof that all notice requirements of this Act have been fully complied with.

If any such notice shall describe in general terms the nature of the improvements for which assessments are proposed to be levied and to which such notice relates; shall name the water or sanitary sewer system to be improved, shall state the estimated amount or amounts per square foot proposed to be assessed against benefited property or the owners thereof, showing separately the amount proposed to be assessed for sanitary sewer improvements; shall define in the manner provided by Section 8 of this Act the outside boundaries of the area or areas in which the benefited property lies or lie (the Defined Area or Areas), with reference to which the hearing mentioned in the notice is to be held; shall state the estimated total cost of the "on-site" improvements to the sewer system; and shall state the time and place at which such hearing shall be held, then such notice shall be sufficient, valid and binding upon all owning or claiming such benefited property or any interest therein. Such hearing shall be held before the governing body of such city and all owning or claiming such benefited property, or any interest therein, shall have the right, at such hearing, to be heard on any matter as to which hearing is a constitutional prerequisite to the validity of any assessment authorized by this Act, and to contest the amounts of the proposed assessments, the lien and liability thereof, the special benefits to the benefited property and owners thereof by means of the improvements for which assessments are to be levied, the accuracy, sufficiency, regularity and validity of the proceedings and contract or contracts in connection with such improvements and proposed assessments, and the governing body shall have power to correct any deficiencies, and to determine the amounts of assessments and all other matters necessary, and by ordinance to close such hearing and levy such assessments before, during or after the construction of such improvements, but no part of any assessment shall be made to mature prior to acceptance by the city of the improvements or the portion of such improvements which make service available to the Benefited Property against which assessment is levied.

Anyone owning or claiming any property assessed, or any interest therein, who shall desire to contest any such assessment on account of the amount thereof, or any inaccuracy, irregularity, invalidity, or insufficiency of the proceedings or contract with reference thereto, or with reference to such improvements, or on account of any matter or thing not in the discretion of the governing body, shall have the right to appeal therefrom and from such hearing by instituting suit for that purpose in any court having jurisdiction within 15 days from the time such assessment is levied; and anyone who shall fail to institute such suit within such time shall be held to have waived every matter which might have been taken advantage of at such hearing, and shall be barred and estopped from in any manner contesting or questioning such assessment, the amount, accuracy, validity, regularity and sufficiency thereof, and of the proceedings and contract with reference thereto and with reference to such improvements for or on account of any matter whatsoever. And the only defense to any such assessment in any suit to enforce the same shall be that the notice of hearing was not published or mailed or did not contain the substance of one or more of the requisites therefor herein prescribed, or that the assessments substantially exceed the amount of the estimate, and no words or acts of any officer or employee of the city, or member of any governing body of the city, other than the action of the governing body shown in its written proceedings and records shall in any way affect the force and effect of the provisions of this Act.

Changes in Improvements

Sec. 12. The governing body of the city shall have power to provide for changes in plans, methods or contracts for improvements, or other proceedings relating thereto, but any change substantially affecting the nature or quality of any improvements shall only be made when it is determined by a majority vote of the governing body that it is not practical to proceed with the improvements as theretofore provided for, and if any such substantial change be made after any hearing has been held or after notice has been given of any such hearing, as herein required, then unless the improvement be abandoned altogether a new estimate of cost shall be made and a new hearing ordered.
and held, and new notices given, all with like effect and in like manner as herein provided for original notice and hearings. The substitution of equivalents shall not be deemed a substantial change. The elimination or change of location of particular mains, laterals, adjuncts and other appurtenances shall not be deemed a substantial change if an ordinance shall be passed which shall have the effect of cancelling any assessments theretofore levied against properties and their owners will as a result of such elimination or change receive neither water nor sewer service and cancelling any assessment so levied for sewer improvements if sewer service is eliminated or for water improvements if water service is to be eliminated, as the case may be. Changes in or abandonment of improvements must be with the consent of such person, firm or corporation as may have contracted with the city for the construction thereof, if any such contract has been entered into.

Separate or Joint Assessments

Sec. 13. Assessments against several parcels of benefited property may be made in one assessment when owned by the same person, firm, corporation or estate, and benefited property owned jointly by one or more persons, firms or corporations may be assessed jointly.

Powers of Governing Body; Rules and Regulations

Sec. 14. Said governing body shall have power to carry out all the terms and provisions of this Act and to enforce all the powers thereof, either by resolution, motion, order or ordinance, except where ordinance is specifically prescribed, and such governing body shall have power to adopt, either by resolution or ordinance, any and all rules or regulations appropriate to the exercise of such powers, the method and manner of ordering and holding such hearings, and the giving of notices thereof.

Invalid Assessments; Correction of Irregularities; Amendment of Assessment; Reassessments; Effect on Certificates

Sec. 15. In case any assessment for any reason whatsoever be held or determined to be invalid or unenforceable, then the governing body of such city is empowered to supply any deficiency in proceedings with reference thereto and at any time before or after suit is filed seeking to enforce such assessment or during the pendency of any such suit but in any event not later than two years after the maturity date of the last installment on the assessment involved extended by the period of time, if any, in which litigation involving such assessment or the certificate evidencing same was pending to make and levy reassessments after notice and hearing as nearly as possible in the manner herein provided for original assessments and subject to the provisions hereof with reference to special benefits; however, such city may at any time correct any mistake or irregularity by amending any assessment without the necessity of reassessment proceedings and without the necessity of new notice and hearing where the original notice to the property owners after the original hearing was published and mailed as required by this Act and contained, in substance, the information required to be contained therein by this Act the irregularity or mistake can be corrected by the substitution of a correct property description for an incorrect one, or the making of a correction showing the true area of a particular tract where an incorrect area was originally shown, so long as such correction is insubstantial and does not go to the question of benefits, or where other similar irregularities exist and where such amendment does not require an increase in the square foot rate previously assessed against the benefited property and the owner thereof nor go to the question of benefits to such property. Recalls in certificates issued in evidence of reassessments or amended assessments shall have the same force as provided for in certificates in certificates relating to the original assessment, and such certificate shall be dated as of the date of the original certificate and shall bear interest as therein provided. Such certificates may be signed by the mayor, mayor pro tern or other authorized officer and attested by the city clerk or city secretary in office at the date of their issuance. Such signatures and the seal of the city may be placed on said reassessment certificates in facsimile in the manner herein provided for assessment certificates.

Reassessments; Appeal

Sec. 16. Anyone owning or claiming any property interest in any property against which such reassessment is levied shall have the same right of appeal as herein provided in connection with original assessments, and in the event of failure to appeal within 15 days from the date of hearing relative to such reassessment, the provisions hereinabove made with reference to waiver, bar, estoppel and defense shall apply to such reassessment.

Construction of Act

Sec. 17. The powers conferred by this Act shall not be construed as precedent beyond the powers specifically granted herein, and nothing contained herein shall be construed to affect in any way the law of this State whether promulgated by Statute or court decision, either or both, relating to the duty of a city in its proprietary capacity to furnish water and sewer service, either or both. Nor shall the legislative history of this Act be construed to affect in any way the law of this State.

Certificates of Assessment; Legal Investments

Sec. 18. Certificates of special assessment issued under the provisions of this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, and sinking funds of cities, towns and villages, counties, school districts or other political subdivisions of the State of Texas and for all other public funds of the State or its agencies.

Certificates of Assessment; Purchase From Contractor; Payment

Sec. 19. Any city to which this Act applies may purchase at not more than face value and accrued interest from the contractor constructing the improvements any certificates of special assessment which may be issued to him pursuant to the provisions of this Act out of the proceeds of any bond funds voted and issued for making such improvements (whether such bond funds be proceeds from the sale of general obligation tax bonds or revenue bonds issued by the city), or out of any other available funds; provided that the amount of the assessment evidenced by any such certificate levied for water improvements, if paid out of bond funds, is paid out of bond funds issued for such improvements and the amount of the assessment evidenced by any such certificates levied for sewer improvements, if paid out of bond funds, is paid out of the proceeds of bond funds voted and issued for such sewer improvements; and further provided that the proceeds from such certificates, both principal and interest, when collected shall be paid into the fund from which the money was obtained to purchase the certificates.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 20. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of existing laws, except that the provisions of this Act shall be controlling as to cities acting under its provisions, over any irreconcilable conflicting provisions of any Act enacted contemporaneously herewith at this session. The provisions of this Act shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purposes and substantial compliance with the provisions hereof shall be sufficient.

Repealer

Sec. 21. All laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of conflict only.

Severability

Sec. 22. Should any section, provision, word, phrase, or clause of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance be held invalid, unconstitutional or ineffective, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Art. 1110f. Sewage; Joint Collection, Transportation, Treatment, and Disposal; Public Utility Agencies

Purpose

Sec. 1. The purpose of this Act is to clarify the authority of public entities that are lawfully authorized to engage in the collection, transportation, treatment, and disposal of sewage, to join together as cotenants or coowners, or by concurrent resolution or ordinance, to create a public utility agency, to engage in the planning, financing, acquiring, constructing, owning, operating, and maintaining of facilities so that each public entity will owe all of the duties, will have and be secure in all of the rights, powers, and liabilities, and shall be entitled to all of the privileges and exemptions attributable to its undivided interest as a cotenant or coowner should the entities elect not to create a public utility agency, as provided by law with respect to an entire interest in facilities planned, financed, acquired, constructed, owned, operated, and maintained by it alone. These alternatives are to serve as a means of achieving economies of scale by providing essential sewage systems to the public and promoting the orderly economic development of the state while providing environmentally sound protection of future wastewater needs of the state and its inhabitants. The provisions of this Act shall be liberally construed to effectuate these purposes but shall not be construed to otherwise enlarge, change, or modify in any way the rights, powers, or authority of any public or private entity under existing law. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to alter, change, abrogate, or otherwise affect the existing contracts in force at the time this Act takes effect.

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this Act:

(1) "Public entity" means any county, city, or other body politic or corporate of the state, including any district or authority created under Article III, Section 52, or Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution.

(2) "Private entity" means any entity other than a public entity solely involved in financing, constructing, operating, and maintaining sewer facilities.

(3) "Facilities" means facilities necessary or incidental to the collection, transportation, treatment, or disposal of sewage, including plant sites, right-of-way, and real and personal property and equipment and rights of every kind useful in connection with collection, transportation, treatment, or disposal of sewage.

(4) "Public utility agency" or "agency" means any agency created under this Act by two or more public entities for the purpose of planning, financing, constructing, owning, operating, and maintaining facilities for the purpose of achieving economies of scale in providing sewer services.

Public Utility Agency

Sec. 3. (a) To more readily accomplish the purposes of this Act, two or more public entities, by concurrent ordinances, may create an agency to be known as a public utility agency. The agency shall be without taxing power, and shall be a separate agency, a political subdivision of the state, and body politic and corporate exercising all of the powers that are conferred by Chapter 10, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended,1 and this Act on a public entity. No agency is authorized to engage in any utility business other than the collection, transportation, treatment, or disposal of sewage for the participating public entities that are joint owners with the agency of a facility located within the state. A public entity, at the time of the passage of the concurrent ordinance, must be one that has the authority to engage in the collection, transportation, treatment, or disposal of sewage for the participating public entities that are joint owners with the agency of a facility located within the state. A public entity, at the time of the passage of the concurrent ordinance, must be one that has the authority to engage in the collection, transportation, treatment, or disposal of sewage for the participating public entities that are joint owners with the agency of a facility located within the state.

Before the passage of a concurrent ordinance to create a public utility agency, the governing body of each public entity shall have notice of its intention to adopt the ordinance published in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the facility is domiciled once a week for two consecutive weeks, the date of the first publication to be at least 14 days before the date set for the passage of the concurrent ordinance. The notice shall state the date, time, and place that the governing body proposes to pass the ordinance and that on the effective date of the concurrent ordinances the public entities adopting them shall have created a public utility agency. If, prior to the day set for the passage of a concurrent ordinance, 10 percent of the qualified electors of the particular public entity present a petition to the governing body requesting that a referendum election be called, the ordinance shall not become effective until a majority of the qualified electors of the entity voting in the election have approved the ordinance. The election shall be called and held in conformity with the Texas Election Code, as amended, Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended,2 and this Act. Except as provided in this Act, a concurrent ordinance shall not be subject to a referendum election.

(b) Public entities that establish a public utility agency may, by concurrent ordinances, provide for the re-creation of the agency by the addition or deletion of one or both of a public entity so long as there is no impairment of obligation of any existing obligation of the agency.

(c) Concurrent ordinances are ordinances or resolutions adopted by the governing bodies of more than one public entity that contain identical provisions with respect to the creation or re-creation of a public utility agency.

Rights and Powers of Participating Public Entities

Sec. 4. (a) Each participating public entity may use its funds for the purpose of planning, acquiring, constructing, owning, operating, and maintaining its undivided interest and may share in the facilities and may issue bonds and other securities to raise funds for these purposes in the same manner and to the same extent and subject to the same conditions that would apply if the undivided interest of the public entity were an entire interest in the facilities.

(b) Each participating public entity may acquire for the use and benefit of all participating public entities by purchase or through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, land, easements, and property for the purpose of jointly owned facilities and may transfer or convey the land, easements, and property or interests in it, or may otherwise have the land, easements, and property, or interests in it, become vested in other participating public entities to the extent and in the manner agreed between those entities. In all cases in which a participating public entity exercises the power of eminent domain conferred by this Act, the public entity shall be controlled by the law governing the condemnation of property by incorporated cities and towns in this state, and the power of eminent domain conferred by this Act shall include the power to take the fee title in land condemned, excluding mineral interests, except that no participating public entity has the right or power to take by the exercise of the power of eminent domain any facilities or interest in any facilities belonging to any other public or private entity.

(c) Each participating public entity is entitled to the same constitutional and statutory exemption from ad valorem taxes and other taxes, including but not limited to excise, sales, and use taxes, attributable to the participating public entity’s interest in the ownership of the jointly owned facilities and the purchase, sale, lease, or use of properties or services in connection with the construction, maintenance, repair, or operation of the jointly owned facilities to the extent that the public entity would have been exempt from the tax of its undivided interest were an entire interest in the facilities and in property and services used or acquired in connection therewith. Each exempt public entity shall be entitled to exemption certificates and other certificates and statements as provided by law to evidence the effective exemption.

(d) Public entities that create a public utility agency or provide for re-creation by addition or deletion of a public entity shall by concurrent ordinances:

1. define the boundaries of the agency to include the territory within the jurisdictional limits of the public entities as changed from time to time;
2. designate the name of the agency;
3. designate the number of directors that will constitute the board of directors of the agency and their initial term; and
4. specify the manner in which the directors shall be appointed, provided that each public entity is entitled to appoint at least one director.

(e) Directors shall serve by places, and the concurrent ordinances shall specify the director for each place and his successors that the governing
The body of the particular public entity may appoint and serve without compensation but are entitled to $50 a day for each day spent in attending meetings of the board and a like amount per diem when authorized by resolution of the board, plus actual expenses incurred in attending the meetings. An employee, officer, or member of the governing body of a public entity may serve as a director of the agency, but directors, officers, and employees may have no personal interest, other than may exist as an employee, officer, or member of the governing body of a public entity, in any contract executed by the agency.

(f) The agency may make contracts, leases, and agreements with and accept grants and loans from the United States of America, its departments and agencies, the State of Texas, its agencies, counties, municipalities, and political subdivisions, and public or private corporations and persons and may generally perform all acts necessary for the full exercise of the powers vested in the agency. Each agency may contract with those public entities creating the agency for the collection, transportation, treatment, and disposal of sewage, and the authority to contract for these services shall also extend to private entities under terms and conditions the agency's board of directors may consider appropriate. The agency may sell, lease, convey, or otherwise dispose of any right, interest, or property that is, in its judgment, not needed for the efficient operation and maintenance of its facilities. The responsibility of management, operation, and control of the properties belonging to the agency shall be vested in the board of directors.

(g) The agency, in contracting with any public or private entity for wastewater collection, transmission, treatment, or disposal services, must charge rates sufficient to produce revenues adequate:

(1) to pay all expenses of operation and maintenance;
(2) to pay all interest and principal due on bonds issued as they become due and payable;
(3) to pay the principal and interest on any legal debt of the agency;
(4) to pay all sinking and reserve fund payments as they become due and payable; and
(5) to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of any bonds.

The agency may also establish a reasonable deprecuation and emergency fund. Payments made pursuant to contracts with the agencies are to constitute an operating expense of the public or private entity served as a result of the contracts unless otherwise prohibited by a previously outstanding obligation of the purchasing entity.

(h) The State of Texas reserves its power to regulate and control the rates and charges by the agency, but pledges and agrees with the purchasers and successive holders of the obligations issued under this Act that the state will not limit or alter the powers vested in the agency to establish and collect rates and charges that will produce revenues sufficient to pay for those items set forth in Subsection (g) of this section, as well as any other obligations of the agency in connection therewith, until they are fully met and discharged.

(i) To the payment of obligations issued by it, the agency may pledge the revenues of all or part of its facilities, including or not including those facilities later acquired, as the agency may determine, but the expense of operation and maintenance, including salaries, labor, materials, and repairs necessary to render efficient service, of the facilities whose revenues are encumbered and pledged shall be a first lien on and charge against the revenues.

(j) The agency may issue revenue bonds or notes, also referred to as obligations in this Act, from time to time, for the accomplishment of its purposes within the interest rate limitations of Chapter 3, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969, as amended (Article 717k-2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(k) From the proceeds of the sale of obligations of the agency, the agency may set aside amounts for payments into the interest and sinking fund and reserve funds, and for interest and operating expenses during construction and development, as may be specified in the authorizing proceedings. Bond proceeds may be invested, pending their use for the purpose for which issued, in securities or interest-bearing certificates or in time deposits specified in the authorizing proceedings.

(l) Prior to delivery, obligations authorized to be issued under this Act and the records relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination, and if he finds that they have been issued in accordance with the constitution and this Act and that they will be binding special obligations of the agency issuing them, he shall approve them, and they shall be registered by the state comptroller. After their approval, registration, sale, and delivery to the purchaser, the bonds are incontestable.

(m) Refunding bonds or notes may be issued for the purpose and in the manner provided by general law, including without limitation Chapter 503, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1953, as amended (Article 717k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and Chapter 784, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969 (Article 717k-3, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as amended.

(n) All obligations issued by an agency pursuant to this Act shall be and are declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, and insurance companies and shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and the obligations shall be lawful and sufficient security for those deposits to the extent of the principal amount of the obligations or their value on the market, whichever is the lesser, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons, if any, appurtenant thereto.
Art. 110f  CITIES, TOWNS  AND VILLAGES  980

(o) The agency may adopt and from time to time amend rules to govern the operation of the agency, its employees, facilities, and service, but contracts for the construction of improvements that involve the expenditure of more than $20,000 shall be awarded by the agency only after notice of intent to receive competitive bids has been published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the agency is domiciled. The date of the first publication shall be at least 14 days before the date set for the receipt of bids.

(p) The bonds or notes shall be signed by the presiding officer or the assistant presiding officer of the agency, shall be attested by its secretary, and shall bear the seal of the agency. The signatures may be printed or lithographed on the bonds and notes if authorized by the agency, and the seal may be impressed on the bonds or notes or may be printed or lithographed on the bonds or notes. The agency may adopt or use for any purpose the signature of any person who has been an officer, notwithstanding the fact that he may have ceased to be an officer at the time that bonds or notes are delivered to a purchaser or purchasers. The bonds or notes shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed 40 years from their respective dates of issuance and may be sold, within interest rate limitations provided by any statute enacted by the Texas Legislature pertaining to the creation, establishment, or operation or regulation under the Water Code, as amended, or other applicable law, of a public entity that may become a coowner of a public utility agency under the provisions of this Act.

Art. 110g. Relocation or Replacement of Sanitation Sewer Laterals; Contracts; Assessments and Liens; Procedure

Definition

Sec. 1. In this Act, "city" means an incorporated city or town.

Contract

Sec. 2. A city by ordinance may contract for the relocation or replacement of a sanitation sewer lateral that serves a residential structure on private property for the purpose of connecting the lateral to a new, renovated, or rebuilt sanitation main constructed by the city.

Assessment; Lien

Sec. 3. (a) The cost of the relocation or replacement of the sewer lateral shall be assessed against the property on which it is located.

(b) A lien is attached to the property for the cost of the relocation or replacement.

Consent

Sec. 4. Before a city makes a contract under Section 2 of this Act, the city must obtain the property owner's written consent to the contract, to the relocation or replacement of the sewer lateral, and to the assessment. The written consent must state that the person giving the consent is the owner of the property or is an authorized representative of the owner, must contain a statement of the owner's address, and must state:

(1) that the consent is freely given;

(2) that the owner understands that as a result of the assessment a lien will be attached to the property for the total cost of the relocation or replacement;

(3) that no part of the cost of the relocation or replacement will be paid by the city; and

(4) that the property owner will have five years from the date the work is completed to repay the cost to the city.
Sec. 5. (a) Before work is begun on the relocation or replacement of a sewer lateral and after the city files the written consent of the property owner with the city clerk or city secretary, the city in accordance with the law applicable to public improvements shall contract for the performance of the work. However, after the city has received the bids for the work and before the contract for the work is made, the city must give notice to the property owner. The notice must state the bid price accepted by the city for the completion of the work and that the contract price may be increased by no more than 10 percent because of the changes without the written consent of the owner. The notice shall be given to the owner by personal delivery or by depositing the notice in the United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the owner at the address contained in the owner's written consent.

(b) Not later than the 45th day after the day on which the notice is mailed, the owner may reject the contract by notifying the city clerk or city secretary of the withdrawal of the owner's consent. If the owner fails to withdraw consent during the 45 days, the city may contract for the performance of the work, the work may proceed, and the assessment may be made without further consent by the owner. After the expiration of the 45 days, the owner may not withdraw the consent previously given.

Changes in Contract

Sec. 6. The contract between the city and the contractor for the performance of the work may be changed as may be necessary for the successful completion of the work. However, the contract price may not be increased by more than 10 percent because of the changes without the written consent of the owner.

Certifying Completion of Work

Sec. 7. (a) Upon receipt by the city of a certificate from the contractor certifying that all work has been completed in accordance with the contract and upon a finding by the city that the work has been properly completed in accordance with the applicable codes and ordinances of the city, the city may pay the contractor the cost of the work completed.

(b) When payment is made to the contractor, the city shall issue a certificate certifying that the work has been completed and that payment has been made under the contract. The certificate shall be filed with the county clerk of the county where the property is located and shall deliver a copy of the certificate to the property owner.

Payment by Property Owner

Sec. 8. (a) The property owner has five years from the date of the issuance of the certificate under Subsection (b) of Section 7 of this Act to pay the city the amount that the city paid for the work completed, as evidenced by the certificate, plus simple interest in an amount not to exceed 10 percent a year as set by the governing body of the city.

(b) Upon payment of the principal amount and accrued interest, the city shall issue a release of the assessment and lien. The release may be filed for record in accordance with law.

Enforcement

Sec. 9. If the property owner does not pay the assessment during the five years, the city may enforce the lien on the property in the same manner in which it is authorized by law to enforce a lien for a paving or other assessment.

Section 10 of the 1983 Act provides:

"Effective Date. This Act takes effect when the amendment to the Texas Constitution proposed by the 68th Legislature, Regular Session, 1983, authorizing the legislature to enact laws permitting a city to expend public funds and levy assessments for the relocation or replacement of sanitation sewer laterals on private property [S.J.R. No. 17] is adopted."

S.J.R. No. 17 was adopted by vote of the people at an election held November 8, 1983.

2. ENCUMBERED CITY SYSTEM

Art. 1111. Powers

All cities and towns including Home Rule Cities operating under this title shall have power to build and purchase, to mortgage and encumber their light systems, water systems, sewer systems, or sanitary disposal equipment and appliances, or natural gas systems, parks and/or swimming pools, either, or all, and the franchise and income thereof and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired and to evidence the obligation therefor by the issuance of bonds, notes or warrants, and to secure the payment of funds to purchase same; or to purchase additional water powers, riparian rights, or to build, improve, enlarge, extend or repair such systems, or any one of them, including the purchase of equipment and appliances for the sanitary disposal of excreta and offal, and as additional security therefor, by the terms of such encumbrance, may grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder, a franchise to operate the systems and properties so purchased for a term of not over twenty (20) years after purchase, subject to all laws regulating same then in force. No such obligation of any such systems shall ever be a debt of such city or town, but solely a charge upon the properties of the system so encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of any such city or town to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Art. 1111a. Additional Bonds and Refunding Bonds; Water or Sewer Systems

Additional Bonds While Prior Bonds Outstanding

Sec. 1. Any city or town including any Home Rule city which heretofore has issued or hereafter may issue bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of the net revenues derived or to be derived from the operation of its water system or sewer system or both in the manner provided by Articles 1111-1118, inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or under any other law applicable to such city or town and while all or part of such bonds remain outstanding shall have the power on one or more occasions to issue bonds or other obligations for the purpose of improving or extending, or both for improving and extending such water system or sewer system, or both, payable from the revenues of such system or systems, and such bonds shall constitute a lien upon the revenues thereof in the order of their issuance inferior to the lien securing the payment of any or all issues and series of bonds previously issued. As to any such bonds issued and outstanding prior to the effective date of this Act the power herein conferred shall not be exercised unless expressly permitted in and shall be subject to any restrictions, covenants or limitations contained in the ordinance authorizing their issuance or in the deed of trust or the indenture of trust securing their payment; provided further, in those instances where in the ordinance or deed of trust or indenture of trust provision was made for the subsequent issuance of additional bonds on a parity with the bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of such ordinance or deed of trust or indenture of trust any such city or town shall have the power to authorize, issue and sell additional bonds payable from the revenues pledged to such bonds previously issued and secured by pledges and liens on a parity with and of equal dignity with the pledge securing the bonds previously issued. In the issuance of revenue bonds in the future for such purposes, any such city or town may prescribe in the ordinance or deed of trust or the indenture of trust for the issuance later of additional issues or series of bonds on a parity with the bonds being issued pursuant to and subject to the restrictions, covenants and limitations contained in such ordinance, deed of trust or indenture of trust.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 2. Refunding bonds may be issued for the purpose of refunding the bonds of a single series or issue or two or more consecutive issues or series of bonds and such refunding bonds shall enjoy the same priority of lien on the revenues pledged to their payment as pledged to the bonds refunded, provided that when two or more consecutive series or issues of bonds are refunded in a single issue of refunding bonds the lien of all such refunding bonds shall be equal if all of the outstanding bonds of the several series or issues of bonds to be refunded are surrendered in exchange for such new refunding bonds. No refunding bonds shall attain any degree of priority of lien greater than that enjoyed by the series or issue then to be refunded having the highest priority of lien. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than borne by the bonds refunded, unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid and that the annual principal and interest burden will not be increased so as to infringe upon or impair the rights of the holders of any bonds enjoying a prior or inferior lien.

Approval and Issuance of Bonds

Sec. 3. Before any such bonds are sold or exchanged as the case may be, they shall be submitted to and approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas in the manner and with the effect provided in Articles 709 to 715, both inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended, and except as otherwise provided by this law, such bonds shall be authorized and issued in accordance with Articles 1111–1118, inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and to the extent of any conflict herewith, this law shall take precedence over such conflicting or inconsistent provisions.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 4. In case any one or more of the sections or provisions of this Act or the application of such sections or provisions to any situation or circumstance shall for any reason be held to be unconstitutional, such unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections or provisions of this Act or the application of such sections or provisions to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this law shall be construed and applied as if such unconstitutional section or provision had not been included herein.

[Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 463, ch. 249.]

Art. 1111b. Additional Bonds and Refunding Bonds: Light and Power Systems

Additional Bonds While Prior Bonds Outstanding

Sec. 1. Any city or town, including any Home Rule City, which has heretofore issued or hereafter may issue bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of revenues from the operation of its electric light and power system, gas system, water system, sewer system, or any combinations of two (2) or more of such systems, in the manner provided by Articles 1111 to 1118, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or under any similar law, and while all or part of such bonds remain outstanding, shall have the power from time to time and on one or more occasions to issue bonds or other obligations for the purpose of extending or improving, or both, such system or systems, and such bonds shall constitute a lien upon the revenues thereof in the order of their issuance inferior to the lien securing the payment of any or all issues and series of bonds previously issued. As to any such revenue bonds issued and outstanding prior to the effective date of this Act the power herein conferred shall not be exercised unless expressly permitted in and shall be subject to any restrictions, covenants or limitations contained in the ordinance authorizing their issuance or in the deed of trust or in the trust indenture securing their payment; provided further that in instances in which the ordinance or deed of trust or trust indenture authorizing or securing such revenue bonds (whether such bonds have been issued prior to the passage of this Act or may be hereafter issued), provide for the subsequent issuance of additional bonds on a parity with or of equal dignity to the previously issued revenue bonds (whether an original issue or a refunding issue), such city or town shall have the power to authorize, issue and sell additional bonds from time to time and in different series payable from the entire revenues of such system or systems on a parity with bonds previously issued and secured by liens on such system or systems on a parity with and of equal dignity with the lien securing the bonds so issued. Such bonds shall be submitted, except to such conditions as may be contained in the ordinance, deed of trust or trust indenture providing for or securing such issue of original bonds or refunding bonds.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 2. Refunding bonds may be issued for the purpose of refunding the bonds of a single series or issue or two or more consecutive issues or series of bonds and such refunding bonds shall enjoy the same priority of lien on the revenues pledged to their payment as pledged to the bonds refunded, provided that when two or more consecutive issues or issues of bonds are refunded in a single issue of refunding bonds the lien of all such refunding bonds shall be equal if all of the outstanding bonds of the several series or issues of bonds to be refunded are surrendered in exchange for such new refunding bonds. No refunding bonds shall attain any degree of priority of lien greater than that enjoyed by the series or issue then to be refunded having the highest priority of lien. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than borne by the bonds refunded, unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid and that the annual principal and interest burden will not be increased so as to infringe upon or impair the rights of the holders of any bonds enjoying a prior or inferior lien.

Approval and Issuance of Bonds

Sec. 3. Before any such bonds are sold or exchanged as the case may be, they shall be submitted to and approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas in the manner and with the effect provided in Articles 709 to 716, both inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended, and except as otherwise provided by this law, such bonds shall be authorized and issued in accordance with Articles 1111-1118, inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and to the extent of any conflict herewith, this law shall take precedence over such conflicting or inconsistent provisions.
the new electric utility facilities are estimated to become operational; and

2. to establish or supplement a reserve fund created for the benefit of the holders of the bonds.

Sec. 2. Bond proceeds, interest and sinking funds, and reserve funds, pending their use for their intended purposes, may be invested in any securities, interest-bearing certificates, or time deposits as are specified in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

Sec. 3. This article is full authority for the exercise of the powers granted. It controls over any other state law or any provision of a city charter.

Art. 1112. Vote, etc.

Sec. 1. Except as provided in Section 2 of this article, no such light, water, sewer or natural gas systems, parks and/or swimming pools, shall be sold without authorization by a majority vote of the qualified voters of such city or town; nor shall same be encumbered for more than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) unless authorized in like manner, except for money for acquisitions, extensions, construction, improvement, or repair of such systems and facilities, or to refund any existing indebtedness lawfully created for such purposes. Such vote to sell or encumber such systems or facilities shall be ascertained at an election, which shall be held in accordance with the laws applicable to the issuance of municipal bonds by such cities and towns. The encumbrasences authorized herein shall be applicable only to bonds payable from revenues derived from said system.

Sec. 2. A city with a population of more than 1,200,000, according to the last preceding federal census, may sell an unencumbered natural gas system owned by it without an election as required by Section 1 of this article.

Art. 1113. Income; Expenses a Lien; Rates; Records; Reports; Penalty

Whenever the income of any light, water, sewer, or natural gas systems, parks and/or swimming pools, shall be encumbered under this law, the expense of operation and maintenance, including all salaries, labor, materials, interest, repairs and extensions necessary to render efficient service and every proper item of expense shall always be a first lien and charge against such incomes. Provided, that only such repairs and extensions, as in the judgment of the governing body of such city or town, are necessary to keep the plant or utility in operation and render adequate service to such city or town and the inhabitants thereof, or such as might be necessary to meet some physical accident or condition which would otherwise impair the original securities, shall be a lien prior to any existing lien. The rates charged for services furnished by any such system shall be equal and uniform, and no free service shall be allowed except for city public schools or buildings and institutions operated by such city or town. There shall be charged and collected for such services a sufficient rate to pay all operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacement, betterment and interest charges, and for interest and sinking fund sufficient to pay any bonds issued to purchase, construct or improve any such systems or any outstanding indebtedness against same. No part of the income of any such system shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expense, or obligation of such city or town except payments made in lieu of ad valorem taxes previously paid by the private owners of the plants or systems mentioned above until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid.

It shall be the duty of the Mayor of such city or town to install and maintain, or cause to be installed and maintained, a complete system of records and accounts showing the free service rendered, and the value thereof, and showing separately the amounts expended and/or set aside for operation, salaries, labor, materials, repairs, maintenance, depreciation, replacements, extensions, interest, and the creation of a sinking fund to pay off such bonds and indebtedness.

It shall likewise be the duty of the superintendent or manager of such plant to file with the Mayor of such city or town, not later than February first, a detailed report of the operations of such plant for the year ending January first preceding, showing the total sums of money collected and the balance due, as well as the total disbursements made and the amounts remaining unpaid as the result of operation of such plan during such calendar year.

Failure or refusal on the part of the Mayor to install and maintain, or cause to be installed and maintained, such system of records and accounts within ninety (90) days after the completion of such plant, or on the part of such superintendent or manager, to file or cause to be filed such report, shall constitute a misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof, such Mayor or superintendent or manager shall be subject to a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100), nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000); and any taxpayer or holder of such indebtedness residing within such city or town shall have the right, by appropriate civil action in the District Court of the County in which such city or town is located, to enforce the provisions of this Act as amended.

Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 421, ch. 251, authorizing the issuance of refunding bonds by cities of 525,000 or over, provided in § 6:

"All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict, and particularly that expression contained in Article 1112, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas which reads, 'No part of the income of any such system shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expense or obligation of such city or town, until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid,' is hereby specially repealed."

Art. 1113a. Transfer of Revenues to General Fund

Incorporated cities, towns, and villages of the State of Texas, and their officials and utility trustees, are hereby authorized to transfer to the general fund of the city, town, or village and use for general or special purposes revenues (now on hand or hereafter received) of any municipally owned utility system in the amount and to the extent that may be authorized or permitted in the indenture, deed of trust, or ordinance providing for and securing payment of revenue bonds issued under Articles 1111-1118, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or other similar laws, notwithstanding any prohibition contained in Article 1113, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or other similar laws.

Art. 1113b. Accounts and Records on Other Than Cash Basis

In lieu of keeping its accounts and records on facilities under this chapter on any other basis, a municipality may keep accounts and records or any accounts and records of the municipality on another basis, in all instances, however, to the extent the same is permitted or required under generally accepted accounting principles for governmental entities. In no event shall a change in accounting methods affect a change in any existing contractual covenant with respect to the power to issue additional obligations payable from such facilities.

Art. 1114. Notes, Etc.

Every contract, bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness issued or included under this law shall contain this clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

Where bonds are issued hereunder, they may be presented to the Attorney General for his approval as is provided for the approval of municipal bonds issued by such cities or towns. In such case, the bonds shall be registered by the State Comptroller as in the case of other municipal bonds.

Art. 1114a. Self-Liquidating

Projects financed in accordance with this law are hereby declared to be self liquidating in character and supported by charge other than by taxation.

[Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., p. 320, ch. 122.]

Art. 1114b. Conflicting Laws Repealed

All laws and parts thereof, in conflict herewith, are hereby repealed to the extent of the conflict, and this law shall take precedence over all conflicting city charter provisions.

[Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., p. 320, ch. 122.]

Art. 1114c. Ordinances, Resolutions, and Securities Validated

The actions of all cities and towns and of all officials in passing ordinances, adopting resolutions, executing securities and delivering securities to accomplish the objects permitted under this Act are hereby expressly authorized and validated in like manner as if this law had been effective at the time of such actions, subject to the provisions of Section 5.

Art. 1114d. Validation of Bonds for Swimming Pools

Sec. 1. All bonds heretofore voted and issued or heretofore voted and not yet issued by any city or town in this State for the purpose of constructing swimming pools in said city or town, are hereby in all things validated, confirmed, and ratified as though they had been legally authorized in the first instance.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not operate to validate any bonds or bond elections which, at the time of the effective date of this Act, are involved in litigation, or the validity of which said bonds or bond elections may be attacked in any suit or litigation instituted within thirty (30) days after the effective date of this Act.

Art. 1115. Control

The management and control of any such system or systems during the time they are encumbered, may by the terms of such encumbrance, be placed in the hands of the city council of such town, or may be placed in the hands of a board of trustees to be named in such encumbrance, consisting of not more than five members, one of whom shall be the mayor of such city or town. The compensation of such trustees shall be fixed by such contract, but shall never exceed five per cent of the gross receipts of such systems in any one year. The terms of office of such board of trustees, their powers and duties, the manner of exercising same, the election of their successors, and all matters pertaining to their organization and duties may be specified in such contract of encumbrance. In all matters where such contract is silent, the laws and rules governing the council of such city or town shall govern said board of trustees so far as applicable.
Art. 1115  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Art. 1116. Rules

The city council or board of trustees having such management and control shall have the power to make rules and regulations governing the furnishing of service to patrons and for the payment of the same, and providing for the discontinuance of such service failing to pay therefor when due until payment is made. The city council shall have power to provide penalties for the violation of such rules and regulations and for the use of such service without the consent or knowledge of the authorities in charge thereof, and to provide penalties for all interference, trespassing or injury to any such systems, appliances or premises on which same may be located.

Art. 1117. Default

A contract of encumbrance may provide for the selection of a trustee to make sale upon default in the payment of the principal or interest according to the terms of such contract, and for the selection of his successor if disqualified or failing to act, and for collection fees not exceeding five per cent of the principal.

Art. 1118. Notice

No collection fees shall accrue, and no foreclosure proceedings shall be begun in any court or through any trustee, and no option to mature any part of such obligation because of default in payment of any installment of principal or interest shall be exercised until ninety days written notice shall be given to each member of the city council of such city or town and to each member of such board of trustees, if any, that payment has been demanded and default made, which notice shall date from the sending of a prepaid registered letter to each person to be notified, addressed to them at the post office in such city or town. If the installments of principal and interest due shall be paid before the expiration of said ninety days, together with the interest prescribed in such contract, not exceeding ten per cent per annum, from the date of default until the date of payment, it shall have like effect as if paid on the date the same was originally due.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1118a. Mortgage of Gas, Water, Light or Sewer Systems by Cities and Towns

Power to Encumber; Obligation Not a Debt

Sec. 1. All cities and towns owning and operating their light systems and gas systems or water systems and gas systems or sewer and gas systems shall have power to mortgage and encumber any one or more of its gas, water, light or sewer systems and the franchise and income thereof and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired, to secure the payment of funds to purchase any one of same or to purchase additional water powers, riparian rights, or to build, improve, enlarge, extend or repair said systems or any one of said systems and as additional security therefor by the terms of such encumbrance may grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder a franchise to operate the system and properties so encumbered for a term not over twenty years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating same then in force. No such obligation shall ever be a debt of such city or town, but solely a charge upon the properties so encumbered and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city or town to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting any such city or town from mortgaging and encumbering any one or more of said systems for the purpose of purchasing, building, improving, enlarging, extending, repairing or reconstructing another one or more of said systems and purchasing necessary land and other properties in connection therewith in the discretion of the governing body thereof.

Vote Required for Sale or Mortgage

Sec. 2. (a) Except as provided in Subsection (b) of this section, no such system or systems shall ever be sold until such sale is authorized by a majority vote of the qualified voters of such city; nor shall same be encumbered for more than Five Thousand Dollars except for purchase money or to refund any existing indebtedness or for repair or reconstruction, unless authorized in like manner. Such vote where required shall be ascertained at an election of which notice shall be given in like manner as and which shall be held in like manner as in the cases of the issuance of municipal bonds by such city.

(b) A city with a population of more than 1,200, 000, according to the last preceding federal census, may sell an unencumbered natural gas system owned by it without an election as required by Subsection (a) of this section.
Prior Act Inapplicable Until June 1, 1934

Sec. 2a. That notwithstanding any of the provisions of House Bill No. 312, Chapter 163, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, 1931, the requirements of said House Bill No. 312, Acts 42nd Legislature, 1931, Chapter 163, with reference to notice, competitive bids, and the right to referendum, shall not apply to cities and towns acting under the authority conferred in this Act, until after June 1, 1934, instead of until after June 1, 1932, as provided in House Bill No. 312, Chapter 163, Acts 42nd Legislature, 1931.

1 Article 2368a.

Operating Expenses as First Lien on Income; Rates

Sec. 3. Whenever the income of any system or systems shall be encumbered under this law, the expense of operation and maintenance, including all salaries, labor, materials, interest, repair and extensions necessary to render efficient service and every proper item of expense shall always be a first lien and charge against such incomes. The rates charged for services furnished for any such system shall be equal and uniform and no free service shall be allowed except for city public schools or buildings and institutions operated by such city. There shall be charged and collected for such service a sufficient rate to pay for all operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacement, betterment and interest charges and for interest and sinking fund sufficient to pay any bonds issued to purchase, construct or improve any such systems or of any outstanding indebtedness against same.

Bond Recital

Sec. 4. Every contract, bond or note issued or executed under this law shall contain this clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

Management Pending Encumbrance

Sec. 5. The management and control of any such system or systems during the time they are encumbered shall by the terms of such encumbrance be placed in the city council or other governing body of said city. Such city council or other governing body shall have the power to make rules and regulations governing the furnishing of service to patrons and for the payment of same and providing for the discontinuance of such service, failing to pay therefor when due until payment is made. Such governing bodies shall have power to provide penalties for the violation of such rules and regulations and for the use of such service without the consent or knowledge of the authorities in charge thereof and to provide penalties for all interference, trespassing or injury to any such system or systems, appliances or premises on which same may be located.

Sec. 6. A contract of encumbrance may provide for the selection of a trustee to make sale upon default in the payment of the principal or interest according to the terms of such contract and for the selection of his successor if disqualified or failing to act and for collection fees not exceeding five (5%) per cent of the principal. Such encumbrance shall provide that in the event of default and sale under foreclosure and the granting of a franchise to operate the system or systems and properties so purchased for a term of not over twenty years, as hereinbefore provided, that said city at any time during any stipulated time during said franchise, not to exceed periods of five (5) years during said time, shall have the right and privilege to repurchase said system or systems upon reasonable terms and at reasonable prices, to be set forth together with said optional periods of redemption in said encumbrance agreement and in said franchise.

1 So in enrolled bill. Session Laws read "of".

Notice of Default

Sec. 7. No collection fees shall accrue, and no foreclosure proceedings shall be begun in any court or through any trustee, and no option to mature any part of such obligation because of default in payment of any installment of principal or interest shall be exercised until ninety days written notice shall be given to each member of the city council of such city or town that payment has been demanded and default made, which notice shall date from the sending of a prepaid registered letter to each person to be notified, addressed to them at the post office in such city or town. If the installments of principal and interest then due shall be paid before the expiration of said ninety days, together with the interest prescribed in such contract, not exceeding ten (10%) per cent per annum, from the date of default until the date of payment, it shall have like effect as if paid on the date the same was originally due.

Property Included in Encumbrance

Sec. 8. In the encumbrance of any properties under this Act such city may encumber any such systems singly or together for the benefit and to secure funds for any one or more of said systems and may omit or include in said encumbrance the whole or any part of the properties mentioned in Section 1 of this Act.

Income Applied to Encumbrance

Sec. 9. No part of the income of any such system or systems so encumbered shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expense or obligation of such city except a debt, expense or obligation of the system or systems encumbered or the system or systems for which said encumbered system or sys-

TOWNS AND VILLAGES
Art. 1118a
988

Sec. 3. The obligation of any such city or town, including home rule cities, as fixed in such indenture or encumbrance, shall not be impaired or affected, modified or released, by the release or discharge of such encumbrance, and such city or town, including home rule cities, shall continue while such city or town shall own and operate any such public utility to pay to any such school district annually from the revenues thereof such amount as a sum in amount equivalent to the average annual taxes assessed in behalf of such school district upon the properties of such utility or utilities for the five (5) years immediately preceding the year in which such utility or utilities shall be acquired by such city or town, including home rule cities; provided, however, that from and after the date of release or discharge of such encumbrance the board of trustees of any such school district and the governing body of such city or town may by mutual agreement from time to time provide for the payment annually from the revenues of such utility or utilities owned and operated by such city or town of such amounts in lieu of school taxes as shall be deemed adequate and just under all the circumstances of the case, due consideration being given to the needs of such school district.

Sec. 4. This Act shall apply solely to purchases or acquisitions, subsequent to the effective date hereof, of then existing public utilities made by any city or town of this state, including home rule cities, and shall not apply to or in any wise affect any purchase or acquisition of a public utility or utilities of whatever character acquired by any such city or town prior to the effective date of this Act. Cities and towns, including home rule cities, shall be authorized to operate under the provisions of this Act in acquiring existing public utilities under any and all laws of the state permitting the acquisition of existing public utilities through the issuance of revenue bonds, including Articles 1111 to 1113, inclusive, of the 1925 Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas and amendments thereto, and including Chapter 314, Acts of the Regular Session of the 42nd Legislature and amendments thereto.¹

Art. 1118b. Bonds and Proceedings Validated

Bonds Issued in Connection With Public Utilities Validated

Sec. 1. That where the governing body of any city or town, owning and operating its light system and gas system, or water system and gas system, or sewer system and gas system, has authorized and/or issued bonds to purchase any one of such systems or to purchase additional water powers, riparian rights, or to build, improve, enlarge, extend or repair said systems, or any one of said systems, under authority of Chapter 314, of the General Laws passed by the 42nd Legislature, at its Regular Session in 1931,¹ and as security therefor has mortgaged and encumbered any one or more of its gas, water, light or sewer systems and the franchise and income thereof, and everything pertaining thereto, acquired or to be acquired, the ordinance or ordinances of such governing body, prescribing the date and maturity of such bonds, the rate of interest the same were to bear, the place of payment of principal and interest, and appropriating revenues of any such system or systems to pay the interest on such bonds and to produce a sinking fund sufficient to pay the bonds at maturity, having been recorded in the minutes or records of such governing body, and where the mortgage or indenture on the properties comprising such system or systems, to secure payment of said bonds, has been duly executed by the proper officials of said city, and the trustee therein named, and recorded in the proper deed of trust and mortgage records of the county or counties in which are situated the properties of such system or systems so mortgaged and encumbered, and such bonds having been herebefore approved by the Legal Department of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation in Washington, D.C., both as to legality and as being eligible for loan under the Act of Congress authorizing loans to municipalities to aid in financing projects which are self-liquidating in character, known as "Emergency Relief and Construction Act of 1932," all acts and proceedings had and done in connection therewith by the governing body and/or the mayor, city secretary, city treasurer or any other officers of such city or town, and the trustee named in such mortgage or indenture in respect of such bonds, the appropriation and pledge of revenues of any such system or systems, and/or the mortgage or indenture on the properties of any such system or systems to secure payment of such bonds are hereby ratified, confirmed, legalized, approved and validated.

Sale of Bonds Validated

Sec. 2. That sale of said bonds, or any parcel or installment thereof, by the governing body of any such city or town, is hereby ratified, confirmed, legalized, approved and validated, and such bonds, so sold and delivered, are hereby legalized and validated, and constituted the legal obligations upon the properties of such city or town so encumbered in accordance with the terms and provisions of such recorded mortgage or indenture.

Issuance of Bonds Not Previously Delivered

Sec. 3. In event any of said bonds, or any parcel or installment thereof, have not been sold, issued, delivered, or put into circulation, power and authority is hereby expressly conferred upon and delegated to the governing body of any such city or town, the mayor, city secretary, city treasurer or other proper officer thereof, and the trustee named in such mortgage or indenture, to discharge and perform all acts and duties necessary in the issuance or sale and delivery of such bonds, and such governing body is hereby further authorized to adopt all other and further orders, resolutions or ordinances necessary in the issuance, sale, delivery and payment of said bonds, or any parcel or installment thereof.

1 Article 1118a.

Art. 1118c. Order of Appropriation of Revenues of Municipal Public Utility Systems

Application

Sec. 1. In making up the annual appropriation of the income and revenue of any waterworks system, electric light plant or system, sewer system, or other public utility system, service, or enterprise now or that may be hereafter owned and operated by any city or town having a population of twelve thousand, four hundred and ten (12,410) inhabitants or less, according to the last preceding Federal Census, and owning and operating its municipal light system and municipal waterworks system in this State, the governing body thereof shall first make provision for the maintenance and operating expenses of such system, service, or enterprise, and shall then make provision for payment of principal and interest of any indebtedness outstanding against such system, service, or enterprise, and may then make such appropriations as the remaining income and revenue of such system, service, or enterprise may justify, to be appropriated among the respective departments of the municipal government, or otherwise appropriated for public uses, as such governing body may deem best; provided this Act shall not apply to municipally owned utilities or enterprises, the income from which has heretofore been pledged to secure payment of bonds or other indebtedness.

No Restrictions on Bonds Payable From Other Than Taxation

Sec. 2. Nothing in this Act shall restrict the power and authority of any such city or town to issue bonds, notes, or warrants, payable from revenues other than taxation, for the purposes, in the manner, and under the restrictions and limitations provided by the laws of this State relative to the issuance of such obligations; and all the provisions of such laws shall apply to and govern such city or town and the governing authorities thereof, except as herein otherwise provided.

Application to Cities of 12,410 or Less

Sec. 3. The benefits of this Act shall apply to any city or town having a population of twelve thousand, four hundred and ten (12,410) inhabitants or less, according to the last preceding Federal Census, and owning and operating its municipal light system and municipal waterworks system and the terms thereof extend to the same, when the governing body thereof shall submit the question of the adoption or rejection hereof, to a vote of the resident property taxpayers who are qualified vot-
Sec. 2. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not be construed as validating any proceedings authorizing the issuance of any such bonds, notes or warrants, or any bonds, notes or warrants issued by virtue thereof where the validity of such proceedings, and bonds, notes or warrants issued thereunder has been contested or attacked in any pending suit or litigation.

Art. 1118f. Validating Revenue Bonds

Sec. 1. That all proceedings herefore had by the governing bodies of all cities and towns, including home rule cities, in the State of Texas, in the issuance and sale of revenue bonds, notes or warrants issued under the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended, to aid in financing any undertaking, for which a loan or grant has been made by the United States through the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, or any other agency or department of the Government of the United States, are hereby in all things fully validated, confirmed, approved and legalized, and any such bonds, notes or warrants herefore sold, or herfore authorized but not yet delivered, are in all things fully validated, confirmed and approved, and such bonds, notes or warrants are hereby declared to be the valid and binding special obligations of such cities or towns payable from sources other than taxation. All orders, resolutions and ordinances authorizing the issuance of any such revenue bonds and setting aside and pledging the revenues of any light system, water system, sewer system or sanitary disposal equipment system, natural gas system, parks or swimming pools, either or all are hereby in all things validated, confirmed and approved, and the fact that any city or town in the issuance and sale of any such obligations or in the pledging of the revenue of any of said systems to the payment of such obligations failed or neglected or lacked the power to do all things necessary to make said obligations legal shall in nowise impair such obligations nor the pledge of such revenues but same are in all things validated, confirmed and approved.

Art. 1118g. Validating Bonds for Public Works

Sec. 1. That all proceedings herfore had by the governing bodies of all cities and towns, including home rule cities, in the State of Texas in the issuance and sale of bonds, to aid in financing any undertaking for which a loan or grant has been made by the United States through the Federal Emergency Administrator of Public Works, or any other agency, department or division of the Government of the United States of America are hereby in all things fully validated, confirmed, approved and legalized and all bonds issued thereunder are hereby declared to be the valid and binding obligations of such cities or towns, and all bonds which have been heretofore authorized for said purpose but not yet issued shall, when delivered and paid for, constitute valid and binding obligations of such city or town. All tax levies made by such governing bodies for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on such bonds, notes or warrants are hereby in all things validated, confirmed, approved and legalized.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings, or obligations issued thereunder, where the validity thereof has been contested or attacked in any suit or pending litigation.

Art. 1118h. Validating Bonds of Cities of Over 15,000 Population

Sec. 1. All bonds heretofore authorized by the necessary vote of the qualified voters of all cities of more than fifteen thousand (15,000) population according to the last preceding Federal Census and all bond elections held in such cities for the purpose of voting such bonds wherein the necessary majority of the voters voted in favor thereof are hereby validated insofar as any irregularities in following the requirements of the provisions of the General Law that such election shall be held not more than thirty (30) days from the time of such election order are concerned; and irregularities in following the requirements of city charters as to time in the calling and holding of such elections shall not in any manner affect the validity of said bonds, but same shall, if otherwise valid, when approved by the Attorney General and registered by the State Comptroller of Public Accounts and sold for not less than par and accrued interest, be a valid subsisting indebtedness of said cities.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings or to any bonds issued thereunder, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in any pending suit or litigation, or in any suit or litigation which may be instituted within sixty (60) days after the effective date of this Act.

Art. 1118i. Validating Bonds of Cities in Counties of Less Than 80,000 and More Than 70,000

In all cases where any city in the State of Texas which operates under the General Laws of Texas and which city is located in any county having a population of less than 80,000 and more than 70,000 according to the last preceding United States Census and is not operating pursuant to a home rule charter and which such city has heretofore and subsequent to the enactment of Chapter 382, Acts of the First Called Session of the Forty-fourth Legislature of Texas, 1935, submitted to the qualified electors of said city the question of the issuance of the bonds of such city pursuant to the provisions of Articles 1111 et seq., of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, said bonds to be payable solely from the revenues derived from operation of the city's waterworks system, and where a majority of the qualified voters of said city voting at said election on said proposition has voted in favor of the issuance of such bonds and in favor of pledging the revenues of said system for the payment of such bonds, said election and all proceedings had in connection with the calling and holding of said election and in connection with the authorization and sale of such bonds are hereby validated, ratified and confirmed, despite any irregularity which may have occurred therein or despite any failure to observe any of the pertinent laws of the State of Texas, and said city is hereby authorized to complete its proceedings for the authorization and delivery of such bonds and to deliver such bonds upon receipt of the purchase price thereof, and such bonds when approved by the Attorney General, registered by the State Comptroller of Public Accounts, sold at not less than par and accrued interest and delivered are hereby declared to be and shall be the valid and legal obligations of said city in accordance with the terms thereof, and shall be paid as to both principal and interest from the revenues of the waterworks system of said city in accordance with the provisions of the proceedings so authorizing the bonds. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any proceedings, levies, or to any bonds or warrants issued there under, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in suit or litigation which is pending at the time this Act becomes a law.

Art. 1118j. Validating Bonds and Proceedings for Loans or Grants From Federal Government in Cities and Towns of Not Over 3,000 Population

Sec. 1. All proceedings heretofore had by the governing bodies of all cities and towns, having a population of not more than three thousand (3,000), according to the preceding Federal Census, in the issuance and sale of Revenue bonds, notes or warrants issued under the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, to aid in financing any undertaking, for which a loan or grant has been made by the United States through the Public Works Administration, or any other agency or department of the Government of the United States, in which the only objection to the validity of said bonds is that such election was ordered and notice thereof given, under the provisions of Article 704, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925 prior to the amendment of October 1935, are hereby in that respectively validated, confirmed, approved and legalized, and any such bonds, notes or warrants heretofore sold, or heretofore authorized but not yet delivered, are in all things fully validated, confirmed and approved, and such bonds, notes or warrants are hereby declared to be the valid and binding special obligations of such cities and towns of said population payable from sources other than taxation. All orders, resolutions and ordinances authorizing the issuance of any such revenue bonds by said cities and towns of said population, and setting aside and pledging the revenues of any light system, water system, sewer system or sanitary disposal equipment system, either or all are hereby in all things validated, confirmed and approved, and legalized.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings, or obligations issued thereon, where the validity thereof has been contested or attacked in any suit or pending litigation.

Art. 1118j-1. Validation of Bond Proceedings in Cities or Towns Over 5,000 to Help Finance Improvements for Which Loan or Grant From Federal Government was Made

Sec. 1. All proceedings heretofore had by the governing bodies of all cities and towns in the State of Texas operating under the provisions of the General Laws of Texas and having a population of more than five thousand (5,000), and where therein has been necessary to expend public funds provision for the erection of certain public improvements for which a loan or grant has been made by any agent or agency of the United States Government, by the issuance and sale of additional bonds to aid in the financing of such certain public improvements, including the orders and notices of elections, the conduct and returns of elections, and the canvassing of such returns of such elections, are hereby in all things fully validated, confirmed, approved, and legalized, including among others, instances wherein there have been irregularities in the giving of notice of elections, notwithstanding the fact that the notice of election was not published on the same day in each of two successive weeks, and all bonds issued thereunder are hereby declared to be the valid and binding obligations of such cities or towns, and all tax levies made by such governing bodies for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on such bonds are hereby in all things validated, confirmed, approved, and legalized.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings or obligations issued thereunder, where the validity thereof has been contested or attacked in any suit or pending litigation.

Art. 1118j-2. Validation of Sewer System Bond Proceedings in Cities and Towns of Not Over 3,000

Sec. 1. All proceedings heretofore had by the governing bodies of all cities and towns having a population of not more than three thousand (3,000), according to the preceding Federal Census, in submitting to the qualified electors, during the year 1941, the question of the issuance of the bonds of any such cities and towns pursuant to the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, said bonds to be payable solely from the revenues derived from the operation of the sanitary sewer system, and where a majority of the qualified voters of any such city or town voting at said election on said proposition has voted in favor of the issuance of any such bonds and in favor of pledging the revenues of said system, or the mortgaging of said system, or by both pledging of the revenues and the mortgaging of said system, for the payment of such bonds, said election or elections and all proceedings heretofore had in connection with the calling and holding of said election or elections and the canvassing of the returns thereof, are hereby validated, ratified and confirmed, despite any irregularity which may have occurred therein, and said cities or towns are hereby authorized to complete the proceedings for the authorization, issuance and delivery of such bonds upon receipt of the purchase price thereof, and such bonds when approved by the Attorney General, registered by the State Comptroller of Public Accounts, sold at not less than par and accrued interest and delivered are hereby declared to be and shall be the valid and legal obligations of any such city or town in accordance with the terms thereof, and shall be paid as to both principal and interest from the revenues of such sanitary sewer system in accordance with the provisions of the proceedings so authorizing the bonds.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings, or obligations issued thereon, where the validity thereof has been contested or attacked in any suit or litigation which is pending at the time this Act takes effect.

Art. 1118k. Validating Bonds in Cities of Over 160,000 Population

All bonds heretofore authorized by the necessary vote of the qualified voters of all cities of more than one hundred sixty thousand (160,000) population according to the last preceding Federal Census and all bond elections held in such cities for the purpose of voting such bonds wherein the necessary majority of the voters voted in favor thereof are hereby validated insofar as any irregularities in following the requirements of the provisions of the General Law that such election shall be held not more than thirty (30) days from the time of such election order and that notice of such election shall be published on the same day of each of two (2) successive weeks in a newspaper, the date of the first publication to be not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the date set for the election, are concerned; and irregularities in following the requirements of city charters as to time in the calling and holding of such elections shall not in any manner affect the validity of said bonds, but same shall, if otherwise valid, when approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts and sold for not less than par and accrued interest, be a valid subsisting indebtedness of said cities.

Art. 1118f. Validating Bonds and Bond Elections in Cities and Towns of 2601 to 2632 Population

Sec. 1. All bonds heretofore authorized by the necessary vote of the qualified voters of all cities and towns having less than two thousand six hundred thirty-two (2632) population and more than two thousand six hundred one (2601) population according to the last preceding Federal Census, and all elections held in such cities and towns for the purpose of voting such bonds wherein the necessary majority of the voters voted in favor thereof are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed and legalized insofar as any irregularities in following the requirements of the provisions of the general law governing the form of election order, notice, ballot and canvassing of returns of such elections are concerned; and, if such bonds are valid in other respects, when same are approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts and sold for not less than par and accrued interest, shall constitute valid and binding obligations of said cities and towns.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings or to any bonds issued thereunder the validity of which is being contested or attacked in any suit pending at the time this Act takes effect.

Art. 1118m. Validating Waterworks Revenue Bond Elections and Bonds in Cities and Towns of 989 to 1,039 in Counties of 98,650 to 98,750

In all instances wherein cities and towns having a population of not more than one thousand and thirty-nine (1,039), and not less than nine hundred and eighty-nine (989), according to the last preceding Federal Census, located in counties having a population of not more than ninety-eight thousand, seven hundred and fifty (98,750) and not less than ninety-eight thousand, six hundred and fifty (98,650), according to the last preceding Federal Census, have heretofore held elections, attempting to comply with the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended, for the issuance of waterworks revenue bonds, and have failed to comply with the requirements as to publication and posting of notice of such election, and where such elections have been held resulting in a vote sufficient under the law to authorize the issuance of said bonds, such elections are hereby validated and the bonds thus authorized, when duly approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, shall constitute valid and binding special obligations of such cities; provided that the provisions of this Section shall not have the effect of validating any elections or the bonds to be issued pursuant thereto which are in litigation at the time of the passage of this Act, or which may be brought into litigation within ninety (90) days after the effective date of this Act.

Art. 1118m-1. Validation of Election Proceedings on Issuance of Bonds for Waterworks in Certain Home-Rule Cities

Sec. 1. In all instances where a home-rule city has heretofore (i) issued and delivered revenue bonds payable from the net revenues of its waterworks and sanitary sewer system and (ii) by ordinance called an election to authorize the issuance of further revenue bonds, having found in the ordinance that the bond election should be called for the purpose of expanding its water system, including bond expenses, engineering, and right-of-way expense, and all other expenses incidental to the expansion of the city's water system; all proceedings relating to the calling of the election and canvass of its returns are hereby validated, ratified, and confirmed, notwithstanding the fact that the purpose for which the bonds were voted was not set forth in the proposition (though elsewhere in the ordinance calling the election) and notwithstanding the fact that the proposition merely provided for the creation of a sinking fund without specifying the net revenue of such utility systems were to be pledged to the payment of the principal of and interest on such revenue bonds.

The bonds may be issued and delivered for the purpose expressed in the ordinance calling the election and may be payable from the net revenue of the waterworks and sanitary sewer system, either or both, which may have been owned by the city at the time of such election. The bonds so issued shall, insofar as such pledged revenues are concerned, be on a parity with or subordinate to the revenue bonds of the city as are outstanding, all in accordance with Chapter 10 of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not beoperative so as to validate any revenue bonds unless (i) a majority of those who participated in the election voted in favor of the issuance of such bonds and (ii) there is no litigation pending on the effective date of this Act questioning the validity of the election, and (iii) no court of competent jurisdiction has, before the effective date of the Act, declared the election to be invalid.
Art. 1118m-1

Art. 1118m-2. Validation of Evidences of Debt for Acquisition of Waterworks Systems

Sec. 1. (a) All bonds, certificates of obligation, warrants, notes, or other evidences of debt of an incorporated city issued to finance the acquisition and purchase of a waterworks system and payable, in whole or in part, by a pledge of the revenues from the operation of the waterworks system are in all respects validated and approved and are declared to be valid and legal special obligations of the city payable and secured in the manner provided in the proceedings relating to their issuance.

(b) Such an obligation is not invalid by reason of a failure to comply with any applicable law requiring the posting or publication of notice of an intention to issue the obligation before its issuance or for failure to make proper presentation of the obligation or the proceedings relating to its issuance for the approval of any state officer, agency, or department. An obligation issued in connection with the acquisition of a waterworks system is not invalid by reason of the status of or business relationship among persons acting for or on behalf of the issuing city or the seller in the acquisition and issuance of obligations.

Sec. 2. This Act does not apply to any matter that on the effective date of this Act:

(1) is involved in litigation if the litigation ultimately results in the matter being held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(2) has been held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 1118n. Bonds Authorized by Elections During 1938 in Cities or Towns Not Owning Certain Utilities

Sec. 1. All bonds heretofore authorized by the necessary vote of the qualified voters of all cities or towns and all bond elections held in such cities or towns for the purpose of financing such bonds wherein the necessary majority of the voters voted in favor thereof, and all orders, resolutions, and ordinances passed or attempted to be passed by the governing body of such cities or towns as shown by the minutes of such governing body, are hereby validated.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, that this Act shall not apply except as to bonds authorized by elections held during the year 1938 in cities or towns which at the time of the holding of such election did not own any of the following utilities from which it could derive revenue: water system, sanitary sewer system, electric light system, or natural gas distribution system.

Art. 1118n-1. Validating Bonds for Waterworks and Sewer Systems in Cities Operating Under General Law

Sec. 1. Where any city in this State which operated under the general law and does not have a home-rule charter has heretofore submitted to the qualified electors thereof propositions for the issuance of the bonds of such city for the purpose of constructing a waterworks system and a sewer system, such bonds to be payable only from the net revenues of such waterworks system and sewer system and secured by a joint mortgage on the properties of such systems, and such propositions have been declared to have carried, and such city has through ordinances adopted by its governing body authorized the issuance of such bonds and prescribed the details thereof and has thereafter reduced the amount of bonds to be so issued and has submitted to the qualified electors thereof propositions for the issuance of the bonds of such city payable from ad valorem taxes for the purpose of constructing a waterworks system and a sewer system, the amount of tax bonds to be so issued being equal to the amount of revenue bonds originally authorized and heretofore determined not to be issued, and such propositions have been declared to have carried, all of the proceedings heretofore had by such city, including all proceedings had and acts done in connection with the calling and holding of the election on the revenue bonds, the proceedings of the governing body authorizing the issuance of such bonds, the indenture authorized and executed for the issuance of such bonds, the indenture authorized and executed for the purpose of reducing the amount of such issue, and the proceedings had in connection with the calling and holding of the election on the question of the issuance of the ad valorem tax bonds, despite any failure or failures in such proceedings to comply with the provisions of the pertinent statutes, are hereby ratified, validated and confirmed.

Sec. 2. The governing body of each such city is authorized to adopt all proceedings necessary or desirable to complete the issuance of the revenue bonds and the ad valorem tax bonds so authorized, to make such changes as it may consider desirable in the existing proceedings and in the details of the bonds as they have been authorized by the existing reduced the amount of bonds to be so issued and prescribed the details thereof and has thereafter authorized the issuance of such bonds and system and secured by a joint mortgage on the properties of the water and sewer systems, in all respects as provided by the statutes relating to the issuance of such bonds.

Sec. 3. The revenue bonds and ad valorem tax bonds of any such city when delivered and paid for pursuant to such existing proceedings, as such proceedings may hereafter be altered or amended, shall be and are hereby declared to be valid and binding obligations of such city in accordance with the terms thereof.

Sec. 4. All proceedings heretofore had in connection with the incorporation of any such city are hereby validated, ratified and confirmed and every such city is hereby declared to be a legally incorporated and subsisting municipal corporation of the State of Texas operating under the provisions of Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925.¹

Sec. 5. Where any such city has not yet levied taxes on the taxable property in such city, but where the City Tax Assessor has prepared an unrendered roll for any year, using as the basis for such roll the valuation of the taxable property in said city as taken from state, county or school district rolls for such year, and where the governing body of the city has approved such roll and has fixed the percentage basis of assessed valuation to actual valuation, the assessed valuation of taxable property in such city as so determined is hereby declared to be the true and correct assessed valuation of taxable property in such city for such year and such assessment roll is declared to be and is authorized to be used as the basis for the imposition of taxes in such city until the assessed valuation of taxable property in such city for the succeeding year has been determined.

Art. 1118n-2. Validating Revenue and Ad Valorem Tax Bonds and Proceedings for Waterworks and Sewer Systems in Other Than Home-Rule Cities

Sec. 1. Where any city in this State which operates under the General Law and does not have a home-rule charter has heretofore submitted to the qualified electors thereof propositions for the issuance of the bonds of such city for the purpose of constructing a waterworks system and a sewer system, such bonds to be payable only from the net revenues of such waterworks system and sewer system and secured by a joint mortgage on the properties of such systems, and such propositions have been declared to have carried, and such city has through ordinances adopted by its governing body authorized the issuance of such bonds and prescribed the details thereof and has thereafter reduced the amount of bonds to be so issued and has submitted to the qualified electors thereof propositions for the issuance of the bonds of such city payable from ad valorem taxes for the purpose of constructing a waterworks system and a sewer system, the amount of tax bonds to be so issued being equal to the amount of revenue bonds originally authorized and theretofore determined not to be issued, and such propositions have been declared to have carried, all of the proceedings heretofore had by such city, including all proceedings had and acts done in connection with the calling and holding of the election on the revenue bonds, the proceedings of the governing body authorizing the issuance of such bonds, the indenture authorized and executed to secure such bonds, the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds, the proceedings had reducing the amount of the revenue bonds, the supplemental indenture authorized or executed for the purpose of reducing the amount of such issue, and the proceedings had in connection with the calling and holding of the election on the question of the issuance of the ad valorem tax bonds, despite any failure or failures in such proceedings to comply with the provisions of the pertinent Statutes, are hereby ratified, validated, and confirmed.

Sec. 2. The governing body of each such city is authorized to adopt all proceedings necessary or desirable to complete the issuance of the revenue bonds and the ad valorem tax bonds so authorized, to make such changes as it may consider desirable in the existing proceedings and in the details of the bonds as they have been authorized by the existing proceedings, and to do everything necessary to the issuance of revenue bonds and ad valorem tax bonds in the amounts so authorized and to secure the revenue bonds by mortgage on the properties of the water and sewer systems, in all respects as provided by the Statutes relating to the issuance of such bonds.

Sec. 3. The revenue bonds and ad valorem tax bonds of any such city when delivered and paid for pursuant to such existing proceedings, as such proceedings may hereafter be altered or amended, shall be and are hereby declared to be valid and binding obligations of such city in accordance with the terms thereof.

Sec. 4. All proceedings heretofore had in connection with the incorporation of any such city are hereby validated, ratified, and confirmed and every such city is hereby declared to be a legally incorporated and subsisting municipal corporation of the State of Texas operating under the provisions of Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925.

Sec. 5. Where any such city has not yet levied taxes on the taxable property in such city, but where the City Tax Assessor has prepared an unrendered roll for any year, using as the basis for such roll the valuation of the taxable property in said city as taken from state, county or school district rolls for such year, and where the governing body of the city has approved such roll and has... fixed the percentage basis of assessed valuation to actual valuation, the assessed valuation of taxable property in such city as so determined is hereby declared to be the true and correct assessed valuation of taxable property in such city for such year and such assessment roll is declared to be and is authorized to be used as the basis for the imposition of taxes in such city until the assessed valuation of taxable property in such city for the succeeding year has been determined. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any proceedings, levies, or to any bonds or warrants issued thereunder, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in suit or litigation which is pending at the time this Act becomes a law, or which may be filed within thirty (30) days after this Act becomes a law.

Art. 1118n-3. Refunding Bonds, Issuance by Cities Operating Under General Law and Owning Waterworks or Sewer System

Eligible Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city or town operating under the General Law relating to cities and towns, and which does not operate under a special or home rule charter, and which owns and operates either its waterworks or its sanitary sewer system, or both, and the principal amount of whose bond and time warrant indebtedness is in an aggregate amount exceeding thirty (30) per cent of the assessed valuation of the property in such city according to the latest approved official tax rolls. Any such city for the purpose of this Act shall be an "eligible" city.

Refunding Bonds Authorized; Prerequisites; Utility Rates

Sec. 2. Any eligible city is authorized to issue refunding bonds to be supported by an ad valorem tax and by a pledge to the payment of the principal and interest thereof, of all or a stipulated part of the net income from the operation of its waterworks system or its sewer system, or both. No such city shall be authorized to exercise the additional powers conferred by this Act unless it obtains a reduction in the principal amount of its indebtedness to the extent of not less than twenty-five (25) per cent. Such city shall not be permitted to deliver such refunding bonds unless and until it shall have obtained consent to such refunding by the holders of at least sixty-six and two-thirds (66 2/3) per cent of aggregate principal amount of its outstanding indebtedness which sixty-six and two-thirds (66 2/3) per cent shall include not less than one hundred (100) per cent of the revenue bonds, if any, outstanding against said system or systems, or unless such refinancing plan shall have been made effective in Composition proceedings instituted by such city under Title 11, Chapter 9 of the United States Code and Amendments thereto.1

Before any income from such utility or utilities shall be used to pay the principal and interest of said refunding bonds the expenses of operation and maintenance shall have first been provided substantially in accordance with the provisions of Article 1113 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, which is applicable to the income of encumbered utility systems. When such city issues refunding bonds under the provisions of this law it shall be the duty of the city after making said pledge of such utility income to establish and maintain utility rates, which, together with taxes levied for the payment of such bonds, will be adequate to yield revenues sufficient to operate and maintain said utility system or systems and to fulfill the city's pledge of such income.

1 11 U.S.C.A. former § 401 et seq.

Revenue Bonds, Refunding Of

Sec. 3. Such city also shall refund par for par, all of its outstanding revenue bonds which are secured by a pledge of the revenues of either or both of such systems, if any such revenue bonds are outstanding, and bonds issued to refund such revenue bonds may be included in any such refunding issue, authorized by this Act.

Negotiability; Registration; Approval

Sec. 4. The refunding bonds issued under this Act shall be fully negotiable and shall be issued in the same manner as refunding bonds for the purpose of taking up outstanding bonds issued under the provisions of Title 22 and Title 28 of the 1925 Revised Civil Statutes of Texas and amendments thereto.1 No notice of intention to issue refunding bonds and no election for the issuance of such bonds shall be required. No such refunding bonds shall be registered in the office of the Comptroller and delivered by him unless and until he shall have received and cancelled in lieu thereof bonds or time warrants in the proportion prescribed in the ordinances authorizing the issuance of such refunding bonds, and in accordance with this Act. The procedure prescribed in Articles 709 to 715 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, in reference to examination and approval of the bonds by the Attorney General shall be applicable to bonds issued under this Act.

Art. 1118n-4. Redemption of Outstanding Waterworks Revenue Bonds; Additional Revenue Bonds

Eligible Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city having a charter, adopted or amended by a vote of the people, with power to levy an ad valorem tax of Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) of assessed valuation, which city, having a charter, adopted or amended by a vote of the people, power to levy an ad valorem tax of Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) of assessed valuation, which city, having a charter, adopted or amended by a vote of the people, with power to levy an ad valorem tax of Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) of assessed valuation, which city, having a charter, adopted or amended by a vote of the people, with power to levy an ad valorem tax of Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) of assessed valuation, which city, having a charter, adopted or amended by a vote of the people, with power to levy an ad valorem tax of Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) of assessed valuation, which city, having a charter, adopted or amended by a vote of the people, with power to levy an ad valorem tax of Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) of assessed valuation, which city,

Deposit in State Treasury of Amount of Outstanding Waterworks Revenue Bonds

Sec. 2. An eligible city shall have the right to deposit in the office of the State Treasurer of the State of Texas a sum of money equal to the principal amount of its said outstanding and unpaid waterworks revenue bonds plus the amount of interest which will accrue on each of said bonds calculated to the date on which it may be redeemed and the amount of contract premium if any, and concurrently with such deposit shall pay to the State Treasurer for his services and to reimburse him for his expenses in performing his duties under this Act a sum of money equivalent to one-eighth (1/8) of one percent (1%) of the principal amount of said bonds and one fourth (1/4) of one percent (1%) of the interest to accrue on all of said bonds, and an additional amount of money sufficient to pay the charges of the bank or trust company at which the principal of and interest on such bonds are payable for its services in paying such principal and interest. The State Treasurer may rely on a certificate by such bank or trust company where the principal of and interest on such bonds are payable for the purposes authorized in said Section 5 unless they shall have been authorized at an election held in such city in accordance with the provisions of Article 704 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and for the purpose of providing money to enable the city to comply with Section 2 of this Act. The deposit authorized by Section 1 hereof to be made with the State Treasurer shall be made prior to or concurrently with the sale and delivery of the new bonds authorized by this Act, but all other proceedings relating to the authorization and issuance of such bonds may be had prior to the making of such deposit. No revenue bonds shall be issued under authority of this Section 5 unless they shall have been authorized at an election held in such city in accordance with the provisions of Article 704 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended by Chapter 382, Acts of the First Called Session of the Forty-fourth Legislature. It is especially provided that regardless of any provisions to the contrary contained in the law under which such new revenue bonds are to be issued, they shall constitute a first charge on the income of the waterworks system or waterworks revenue bonds, for the benefit of which such bonds are payable, for the payment of the expense of maintenance and operation of such system or systems subject only to any payments which must be made to the State Treasurer from such income to prevent any default in principal of or interest on such outstanding revenue bonds, for the benefit of which such deposit shall have been made with the State Treasurer. The right of the holders of said outstanding revenue bonds to have any deficiency paid out of such income shall remain unimpaired.
Art. 1118n-4

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Additional or Subsequent Waterworks Revenue Bonds

Sec. 5. Regardless of any provisions to the contrary contained in the law or laws under which such new revenue bonds shall be issued, so long as any of said new revenue bonds are outstanding no additional revenue bonds secured by a pledge of the revenues of the system shall be issued thereafter except in accordance with limitations prescribed in the ordinance authorizing the revenue bonds first to be issued by such city pursuant to this Act; but it shall be lawful for such city to authorize and issue additional or subsequent waterworks revenue bonds provided that they are issued in all respects in conformity with and subject to limitations contained in such ordinance.

Withdrawal of Deposits from State Treasury

Sec. 6. After an eligible city has made the deposits and payments required under Section 2, at any time it may withdraw from the State Treasury the amount of money, both principal and interest, deposited on account of any bond by exhibiting to the State Treasurer said bond duly cancelled, whereupon the State Treasurer shall make a proper record of the payment and cancellation of such bond.

Rights of Holders of Bonds to Surrender Bonds

Sec. 7. At any time after an eligible city shall have made the deposits and payments required under Section 2, the holder of any such bond, irrespective of its maturity date, shall have the right to surrender such bond to the State Treasurer and shall receive therefor a sum equivalent to all money then remaining on deposit with the State Treasurer, made on account of such surrendered bond. Whereupon such bond shall be duly cancelled by the State Treasurer, and delivered or forwarded to such city.

Approval of Record and Bonds by Attorney General

Sec. 8. When an eligible city shall have duly authorized the issuance of its revenue bonds, and the record pertaining thereto shall have been presented to the Attorney General of Texas, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to approve such record and thereafter when such new revenue bonds are presented to him, to approve such bonds subject to the making of the deposit provided in Section 2 hereof. After such record and bonds have been approved by the Attorney General and after such bonds have been registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall be held for all purposes to be fully negotiable instruments and shall, according to their tenor and effect, be valid and binding revenue obligations of such city and shall be incontestable for any cause from and after such registration.

Bond of State Treasurer

Sec. 9. The bond or bonds given by the State Treasurer under Article 4368 to secure the faithful execution of the duties of his office (except such special bonds as may have been given to protect funds of the United States Government) and any and all other bonds which may have been given by the State Treasurer shall be construed as protecting all moneys and securities deposited or placed with the State Treasurer under this Act.

Art. 1118n-5. Redemption of Outstanding Revenue Bonds and Issuance of New Bonds

Eligible Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city which has outstanding waterworks or waterworks and sewer systems revenue bonds and which has on hand sufficient money to pay said bonds together with the interest thereon to the date when they become due or optional for prior payment and the contract premium if any. Any such city is hereinafter sometimes called "eligible city".

Refunding Bonds to Pay Outstanding Revenue Bonds

Sec. 1a. To provide sufficient money for the purposes stated in Section 1 of the Act hereby amended, a city is authorized to issue refunding bonds and sell them for cash, in which event a certified copy of the ordinance so providing shall be transmitted to the Comptroller of Public Accounts and he shall register such refunding bonds without cancellation of the underlying bonds and deliver them as provided in the ordinance. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed five per cent (5%) per annum, evidenced by coupons, mature serially in not to exceed forty (40) years and be signed as other city bonds. If the bonds thus to be refunded are secured by a deed of trust or other encumbrance in which a trustee is named, the money for the payment of the underlying bonds, interest, stipulated premium, if any, and payment charges, may, in the discretion of the governing body of the city, be deposited with such trustee. Such refunding bonds and any additional bonds may be combined into a single issue. Refunding bonds and any additional bonds may be secured in any manner... authorized by Article 1111, Revised Civil Statutes, as amended. Such refunding bonds may be issued without an election. Refunding bonds shall not be sold for cash in lieu of being exchanged unless all of the bonds to be paid therefrom become due or optional for redemption within three (3) years from the date of the proposed refunding bonds. If the underlying bonds are optional for redemption within said period of time, the city shall call them in the manner therein provided.

Deposits With State Treasurer

Sec. 2. An eligible city shall have the right to deposit in the office of the State Treasurer of the State of Texas a sum of money equal to the principal amount of its said outstanding and unpaid revenue bonds plus the amount of interest which will accrue on each of said bonds calculated to the date on which it is to become due or on which it may be redeemed and the amount of contract premium if any, and concurrently with such deposit shall pay to the State Treasurer for his services and to reimburse him for his expenses in performing his duties under this Act a sum of money equivalent to one-twentieth (1/20) of one (1%) per cent of the principal amount of said bonds and one-eighth (1/8) of one (1%) per cent of the interest to accrue on all of said bonds, and an additional amount of money sufficient to pay the charges of the bank or trust company at which the principal and interest of said bonds are payable for its services in paying such principal and interest. The State Treasurer may rely on a certificate by such city as to the amount of the charges made by such bank or trust company. At the same time such city shall deliver to the State Treasurer a certified copy of the ordinance authorizing said bonds, or a certified excerpt therefrom, showing clearly the amounts and the date or dates on which interest is due on such bonds, the date when the principal becomes subject to redemption, and the name and address of the bank or trust company at which such principal and interest must be paid. It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to accept such deposits, payments, and instruments, and safely to keep and use such money for the purposes set forth in this Act and for no other purpose, and no part of such money except that in payment for his services and to reimburse his expenses in performing such services shall be used by or for the State of Texas or for any creditor of the State of Texas, nor shall such money be commingled with any other money.

Duties of State Treasurer

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer not less than fifteen (15) days before such interest is due according to the tenor and effect of said bonds, and the principal becomes redeemable, to forward by registered mail to the bank or trust company where the principal of and interest on such bonds are payable, an amount sufficient to pay such principal and interest and premium if any, and to pay the service charges of such bank or trust company. The State Treasurer shall notify such bank or trust company to forward to him bonds and coupons thus cancelled, and after he shall have made a record of their payment and cancellation shall forward such cancelled bonds and coupons to such city.

Issuance of New Bonds

Sec. 4. When an eligible city shall have deposited and paid into the office of the State Treasurer the money and shall have done the things required under Section 2 it shall have authority to issue additional revenue bonds, securing them by a pledge of the revenue from the operation of its waterworks system or of its waterworks and sewer systems, in such manner as is authorized by Articles 1111 to 1118 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and for the purposes authorized in said Articles. The deposit authorized by Section 1 hereof to be made with the State Treasurer shall be made prior to or concurrently with the sale and delivery of the new bonds authorized by this Act, but all other proceedings relating to the authorization and issuance of such bonds may be had prior to the making of such deposit. No revenue bonds shall be issued under authority of this Section 5 unless they shall have been authorized at an election held in such city in accordance with the provisions of Article 704 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended by Chapter 382, Acts of the First Called Session of the 44th Legislature. It is especially provided that regardless of any provisions to the contrary contained in the law under which such new revenue bonds are to be issued, they shall constitute a first charge on the income of the waterworks system or waterworks and sewer systems, after the payment of the expense of maintenance and operation of such system or systems subject only to any payments which must be made to the State Treasurer from such income to prevent any default in principal or interest on such outstanding revenue bonds, for the benefit of which such deposit shall have been made with the State Treasurer. The right of the holders of said outstanding revenue bonds to have any deficiency paid out of such income shall remain unimpaired.

Subsequent Issuance of Additional Bonds

Sec. 5. Regardless of any provisions to the contrary contained in the law or laws under which such new revenue bonds shall be issued, so long as any of said new revenue bonds are outstanding no additional revenue bonds secured by a pledge of the revenues of the system shall be issued thereafter except in accordance with limitations prescribed in the ordinance authorizing the revenue bonds first to be issued by such city pursuant to this Act; but it shall be lawful for such city to authorize and issue additional or subsequent waterworks revenue bonds provided that they are issued in all respects in conformity with and subject to limitations contained in such ordinance.
Withdrawal of Deposits

Sec. 6. After an eligible city has made the deposits and payments required under Section 2, at any time it may withdraw from the State Treasurer the amount of money, both principal and interest, deposited on account of any bond by exhibiting to the State Treasurer said bond duly cancelled, whereupon the State Treasurer shall make a proper record of the payment and cancellation of such bond.

Surrender, Payment and Cancellation of Bonds

Sec. 7. At any time after an eligible city shall have made the deposits and payments required under Section 2, the holder of any such bond, irrespective of its maturity date, shall have the right to surrender such bond to the State Treasurer and shall receive therefor a sum equivalent to all money then remaining on deposit with the State Treasurer, made on account of such surrendered bond. Whereupon such bond shall be duly cancelled by the State Treasurer, and delivered or forwarded to such city.

Approval of Record and Bonds; Registration

Sec. 8. When an eligible city shall have duly authorized the issuance of its revenue bonds, and the record pertaining thereto shall have been presented to the Attorney General of Texas, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to approve such record, and thereafter when such new revenue bonds are presented to him, to approve such bonds subject to the making of the deposit provided in Section 2 hereof. After such record and bonds have been approved by the Attorney General and after such bonds have been registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall be held for all purposes to be fully negotiable instruments and shall, according to their tenor and effect, be valid and binding revenue obligations of such city and shall be incontestable for any cause from and after such registration.

Bonds of State Treasurer

Sec. 9. The bond or bonds given by the State Treasurer under Article 4988 to secure the faithful execution of the duties of his office (except such special bonds as may have been given to protect funds of the United States Government) and any and all other bonds which may have been given by the State Treasurer, shall be construed as protecting all moneys and securities deposited or placed with the State Treasurer under this Act.

Act Cumulative

Sec. 10. This Act is cumulative of all other Acts on the subject, but to the extent that its provisions are inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of other laws, the provisions of this Act shall be controlling.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 11. Notwithstanding any other evidence of legislative intent, it is hereby declared to be the controlling legislative intent that if any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

Art. 1118n-6. Validating: Bonds, Bond Elections, and Proceedings for Utility Systems in any City or Town; Home Rule City Elections for Disposition of City Owned Plant, Utility or Business

Sec. 1. All bonds heretofore authorized by any incorporated city, town or village which pledge the revenues of water, sewer, electric, gas, parking meters, auditoriums, or any combination of the revenues of such systems or sources, and any and all proceedings pertaining to the authorization and issuance thereof, are hereby validated, ratified, approved and confirmed notwithstanding any lack of statutory or general authority of such city, town or village or the governing body thereof to authorize such bonds and make such pledge of revenue or revenues, and notwithstanding the fact that the proposition as submitted to the voters might have been defective or insufficient or the fact that the election might not have been ordered and held in all respects in accordance with the provisions of the statutes or General Laws, and irrespective of the sufficiency or existence of the pledge of the revenues so encumbered, and the bonds when approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and sold and delivered, shall be binding, valid and enforceable obligations against the revenues so encumbered, and the bonds shall be incontestable. Provided, however, that this Act shall apply only to such bonds as were authorized at an election or elections wherein a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters who had duly rendered their property for taxation voted in favor of the issuance thereof.

Sec. 1-A. All elections hereinafter called or held in any home rule city prior to the effective date of this Act, for the purpose of authorizing the lease, sale, or other disposition of any city owned plant, utility or business, or any part thereof in attempted compliance with Article 1112 or Article 1268, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed and approved notwithstanding the fact that the proposition submitted to the voters might have been defective or insufficient, or the fact that the election might not have been ordered and held in all respects in accordance with the provisions of the Home Rule Charter.
of such city or the General Laws of this state, including those hereinabove particularly mentioned. Provided, however, that this Act shall only apply to those instances in which the lease, sale or other disposition of any city owned plant, utility or business, or any part thereof, were authorized at an election wherein a majority of the qualified voters of such city had voted in favor thereof.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed as validating any such proceedings or bonds issued or to be issued, the validity of which is contested or under attack in any suit or litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective, if such suit or litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the proceedings.

Art. 1118n-7. Redemption and Refunding of Outstanding Waterworks Revenue Bonds; Additional Revenue Bonds

Eligible Cities

Sec. 1. Any city, including any city operating under a Home Rule Charter, having outstanding water revenue bonds payable from the net revenues of its waterworks system, the net revenues of which system for each of the two (2) fiscal years next preceding the date when it avails itself of this law are equal to two hundred per cent (200%) of the requirements for the payments of interest on and principal of such outstanding revenue bonds for the year when such requirements are the greatest shall, under the provisions of this Act, be considered hereinafter as an "Eligible City."

Negotiable Tax-Supported General Obligation Bonds, Issuance; Tax Levy to Pay

Sec. 2. An Eligible City, through its governing body may, for the express purpose of providing funds for the refunding or redemption of its outstanding water revenue bonds payable from the revenues of its waterworks system, issue negotiable tax-supported general obligation bonds, pledging therefor the full faith and credit of such city, in an aggregate amount not greater than the aggregate principal amount of such outstanding water revenue bonds, and the total interest thereon accruing to the final date of redemption of each such outstanding water revenue bond; provided, however, that if such Eligible City shall issue such negotiable tax-supported general obligation bonds under the authority of this Act, it shall make provision for the payment of such bonds by annual levies of ad valorem property taxes to pay the interest thereon and to provide a sinking fund to pay them at maturity; and provided, further, that no such bonds shall be issued under the authority of this Act unless the issuance thereof, and the levy of annual ad valorem property taxes to provide for the payment of the interest thereon and to create a sinking fund with which to pay them at maturity, shall have been authorized at an election called and conducted under the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and laws amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto,1 which shall govern the issuance of all such bonds under the authority herein given.

1 Article 701 et seq.

Subrogation to Rights of Holders of Water Revenue Bonds Refunded

Sec. 3. Any Eligible City, which may provide funds for the refunding or redemption of its outstanding water revenue bonds in the manner prescribed in Section 2 hereof, shall thereupon become subrogated to the rights of the holders of the water revenue bonds refunded with funds thus provided, in so far as payments from the revenues of its waterworks system are concerned, and be entitled to have paid into its general fund from such revenues like amounts as would have been payable on the water revenue bonds thus refunded or redeemed, had the same remained outstanding; but such rights on the part of such Eligible City shall in no wise limit any encumbrance on the properties of its water system securing any other water revenue bonds secured by such encumbrance, nor shall such encumbrance in any wise inure to the benefit of such Eligible City or in any wise be enforceable by it, but shall remain in full force for the sole benefit of the holders of any unpaid water revenue bonds of such city, whose rights to enforce such encumbrance shall remain superior to the rights of such city to payment from the revenues of its water system as hereinabove prescribed; nor shall any of the provisions of this Section of this Act be deemed as affecting the right of any such Eligible City to payments from such revenues from its water system into its general fund as might be provided by the terms of any contract under which its water revenue bonds may be issued, and any such payments shall be in addition to payments hereinabove prescribed in this Section.

Refinancing or Redemption Agreements; Additional Water System Revenue Bonds; Referendum

Sec. 4. An Eligible City may also enter into such agreements with the holders of its outstanding water revenue bonds as may be necessary to effect a refunding or refinancing or redemption of such outstanding bonds, or any part thereof, and further in aid of such refunding or refinancing or redemption, may enter into agreements with such other persons, firms or corporations as may be deemed advisable by any such city. All water system revenue bonds issued pursuant to this Act, other than water system refunding revenue bonds, and an additional amount of new revenue bonds not exceeding the total amount of the then outstanding revenue bonds, shall be sold in accordance with the charter provisions of any such Eligible City. It may issue its water system refunding revenue bonds in the manner authorized by Chapter 250, Acts, 1949, Fifty-first Legislature, as amended by Chapter 25, Acts, 1951, Fifty-second Legislature,1 and with or without an election, as such City shall determine. Such City may, from time to time, issue additional water system revenue bonds for the purpose of extending or improving said water system or for the purpose of acquiring privately or publicly owned water systems or water system facilities situated in or adjacent to such city, or for the purpose of acquiring an additional water supply by purchase or construction or by contribution to the construction of a reservoir by the Federal Government or any agency thereof and, except as otherwise provided in this Act, such bonds shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, and said additional bonds, when issued, shall be on a parity and of equal dignity with any water system revenue bonds that cannot be obtained for its services in paying such principal and interest. The State Treasurer may rely on a certificate by such city as to the amount of the charges made by such bank or trust company. At the same time, such city shall deliver to the State Treasurer a certified copy of the ordinance authorizing such water system revenue bonds, or a certified excerpt therefrom, showing clearly the amounts and the date or dates on which interest is due on such bonds, the date when the principal matures, and the name and address of the bank or trust company at which such principal and interest must be paid. It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to accept such deposits, payments and instruments, and safely to keep and use such money for the purposes set forth in this Act, and for no other purpose, and no part of such money, except that in payment for his services and to reimburse his expenses in performing such services, shall be used by or for the State of Texas, or for any creditor of the State of Texas, nor shall such money be commingled with any other money.

State Treasurer’s Duties

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer not less than fifteen (15) days before such interest is due according to the tenor and effect of said bonds, and the principal becomes due, to forward by registered mail to the bank or trust company where the principal and interest on such bonds are payable, an amount sufficient to pay such principal and interest, and to pay the service charges of such bank or trust company. The State Treasurer shall notify such bank or trust company to forward to him bonds and coupons thus canceled, and after he shall have made a record of their payment and cancellation shall forward such canceled bonds and coupons to such city. When an Eligible City shall have deposited and paid into the office of the State Treasurer the money and shall have done the things required under Section 3 it shall have authority to issue additional revenue bonds and refunding bonds as permitted in Section 2 hereof.

Rights of Holders to Surrender Bonds

Sec. 7. At any time after an Eligible City shall have paid the principal matured, and the name and address of the bank or trust company at which the principal and interest on said bonds are payable for its services in paying such principal and interest. The State Treasurer may rely on a certificate by such city as to the amount of the charges made by such bank or trust company. At the same time, such city shall deliver to the State Treasurer a certified copy of the ordinance authorizing such water system revenue bonds, or a certified excerpt therefrom, showing clearly the amounts and the date or dates on which interest is due on such bonds, the date when the principal matures, and the name and address of the bank or trust company at which such principal and interest must be paid. It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to accept such deposits, payments and instruments, and safely to keep and use such money for the purposes set forth in this Act, and for no other purpose, and no part of such money, except that in payment for his services and to reimburse his expenses in performing such services, shall be used by or for the State of Texas, or for any creditor of the State of Texas, nor shall such money be commingled with any other money.

State Treasurer’s Duties

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer not less than fifteen (15) days before such interest is due according to the tenor and effect of said bonds, and the principal becomes due, to forward by registered mail to the bank or trust company where the principal and interest on such bonds are payable, an amount sufficient to pay such principal and interest, and to pay the service charges of such bank or trust company. The State Treasurer shall notify such bank or trust company to forward to him bonds and coupons thus canceled, and after he shall have made a record of their payment and cancellation shall forward such canceled bonds and coupons to such city. When an Eligible City shall have deposited and paid into the office of the State Treasurer the money and shall have done the things required under Section 3 it shall have authority to issue additional revenue bonds and refunding bonds as permitted in Section 2 hereof.

Rights of Holders to Surrender Bonds

Sec. 7. At any time after an Eligible City shall have paid the principal matured, and the name and address of the bank or trust company at which the principal and interest on said bonds are payable for its services in paying such principal and interest. The State Treasurer may rely on a certificate by such city as to the amount of the charges made by such bank or trust company. At the same time, such city shall deliver to the State Treasurer a certified copy of the ordinance authorizing such water system revenue bonds, or a certified excerpt therefrom, showing clearly the amounts and the date or dates on which interest is due on such bonds, the date when the principal matures, and the name and address of the bank or trust company at which such principal and interest must be paid. It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to accept such deposits, payments and instruments, and safely to keep and use such money for the purposes set forth in this Act, and for no other purpose, and no part of such money, except that in payment for his services and to reimburse his expenses in performing such services, shall be used by or for the State of Texas, or for any creditor of the State of Texas, nor shall such money be commingled with any other money.
Sec. 8. Regardless of any provisions to the contrary contained in the law or laws under which such refunding bonds and new revenue bonds shall be issued, so long as any of said bonds are outstanding no additional revenue bonds secured by a pledge of the revenues of the system shall be issued thereafter except in accordance with limitations prescribed in the ordinance or deed of trust authorizing and securing the revenue bonds first to be issued by such city pursuant to this Act; but it shall be lawful for such city to authorize and issue additional or subsequent revenue bonds provided that they are issued in all respects in conformity with and subject to limitations contained in such ordinance or deed of trust.

Withdrawal of Deposits From State Treasury

Sec. 9. After an Eligible City has made the deposits and payments required under Section 5, at any time it may withdraw from the State Treasury the amount of money, both principal and interest, deposited on account of any bond by exhibiting to the State Treasurer said bond duly canceled, whereupon the State Treasurer shall make a proper record of the payment and cancellation of such bond.

Approval of Record and Bonds by Attorney General; Registration; Incontestability

Sec. 10. When an Eligible City shall have authorized the issuance of its revenue bonds, and the record pertaining thereto shall have been presented to the Attorney General of Texas, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to approve such record and thereafter when such new revenue bonds are presented to him, to approve such bonds subject to the making of the deposit provided in Section 5 hereof. After such record and bonds have been approved by the Attorney General and after such bonds have been registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall be held for all purposes to be fully negotiable instruments and shall, according to their tenor and effect, be valid and binding revenue obligations of such city and shall be incontestable for any cause from and after such registration.

Bond of State Treasurer

Sec. 11. The bond or bonds given by the State Treasurer under Article 4368 to secure the faithful execution of the duties of his office (except such special bonds as may have been given to protect funds of the United States Government) and any and all other bonds which may have been given by the State Treasurer shall be construed as protecting all moneys and securities deposited or placed with the State Treasurer under this Act.

Cancellation of Bonds; Validation of Issuance and Sale of Canceled Bonds

Sec. 12. Whenever an Eligible City has purchased, from the holders thereof, any of its outstanding water system revenue bonds with money taken from its water system revenue bond interest and sinking fund, or from its Waterworks Bond and Interest Redemption Account, and whenever such bonds have been thereby canceled through error or otherwise, and whenever the governing body of any such city has adopted an ordinance authorizing the issuance or sale of any such canceled bonds, the proceedings authorizing the issuance or sale of such canceled bonds are hereby validated and confirmed, and any such canceled bonds shall constitute valid and legally binding obligations of any such city in accordance with their terms, and each such Eligible City is authorized to do all things necessary to refund or redeem any such canceled bonds, under the authority of this Act.

Act Cumulative

Sec. 13. This Act is cumulative of all other Acts on the subject, but to the extent that its provisions are inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of other laws, or the provisions of the Charter of any Eligible City, the provisions of this Act shall be controlling. Chapter 541, Acts, 1949, Fifty-first Legislature, shall remain unimpaired by the provisions of this Act. 1

Part 1

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 14. Notwithstanding any other evidence of legislative intent, it is hereby declared to be the controlling legislative intent that if any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 854, ch. 320.]

Art. 1118n-8. Refunding Bonds, Issuance by Certain Cities Operating Under General Law and Owning Waterworks, Natural Gas and Sewer Systems

Eligible City

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to cities operating under general law, which own and operate waterworks, natural gas and sanitary sewer systems, and whose outstanding tax bond indebtedness, including accrued and unpaid interest thereon, exists in an aggregate amount of not less than twenty per cent (20%) of the assessed valuation of the property in such city according to the latest approved official tax rolls. Any such city for the purposes of this Act shall be an "eligible" city.
Sec. 2. Any eligible city is authorized to issue refunding bonds for the purpose of taking up all or any part of its outstanding indebtedness, regardless of whether such indebtedness is in its original form or has been funded, or refunded, in whole or in part, such refunding bonds to bear interest at a rate or rates to be determined by the governing body of said city, not exceeding the average rate or rates of interest borne by the indebtedness to be refunded, and no election shall be required as a condition precedent to the issuance of the said refunding securities. The governing body of such eligible city, in addition to the levy of a tax to pay the principal and interest of said refunding bonds, is authorized to pledge to the payment of such principal and interest, a designated annual amount or a designated proportion of the net revenues from the operation of any one or more of the utility systems owned and operated by said city, which pledge shall remain in full force and effect so long as any part of the principal or interest of said refunding bonds is outstanding and unpaid.

Amount of Bond Issue; Procedure for Issuance; Registration

Sec. 3. The refunding bonds authorized in this Act may be issued in an amount not exceeding the combined amount of outstanding principal, matured interest coupons, and accrued interest on said original securities and shall mature at such time or times as the governing body may prescribe. The procedure for the issuance of said refunding bonds shall be that which is prescribed in the statutes for the issuance of refunding bonds to take up outstanding bonds.

Such refunding bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts in exchange for and upon cancellation of such original indebtedness after they shall have been approved by the Attorney General, and when so registered shall have all of the elements of protections of bonds approved by the Attorney General of Texas under the provisions of Articles 709 to 715, both inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925.

Negotiability

Sec. 4. Refunding bonds issued under this Act shall be fully negotiable coupon bonds payable to bearer, constituting general obligations of the issuing city, and the holders thereof shall succeed to all the privileges of the holders of the indebtedness constituting the basis of the refunding bonds except as modified and changed by the express terms of the proceedings employed in the refunding operation.

Act as Cumulative; Conflicting Laws

Sec. 5. This law shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject. In the event that any provisions of this Act conflict with, or are inconsistent with, the provisions of any other law, general or special, or with the provision of the charter of any such eligible city, the provisions of this Act shall take precedence over such conflicting or inconsistent provisions and shall prevail.

Art. 118n-9. Validating City Tax Bonds for Waterworks and Sewage Systems

Sec. 1. All proceedings in connection with any tax bonds heretofore favorably voted in any city, including any Home Rule City, for the purpose of constructing, improving and extending the waterworks and sewage systems of such city, including the acquisition of property necessary therefor, are hereby in all things validated and said bonds may be issued and delivered by the governing body of any such city for the purpose or purposes so voted and in the manner provided by Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, regardless of whether or not any such bonds so voted were submitted in only one proposition and regardless of the wording of the language appearing on the ballots concerning any proposition so submitted.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings, or any obligations issued thereunder, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in any pending suit or litigation.

[Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 714, ch. 337.] 1 Article 701 et seq.

Art. 118n-10. Refunding Outstanding Waterworks and Sewer Revenue Bonds; Additional Refunding Bonds

Eligible City

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city which has outstanding bonds secured by a pledge of net revenue of its sanitary sewer system and other bonds secured by a lien on its waterworks system and the revenues therefrom, and does not have the right to issue additional equal lien bonds payable from its waterworks revenues. As used herein
Refunding Bonds Secured by Pledge of Revenues; Issuance; Interest; Deposits in State Treasury

Sec. 2. An Eligible City is authorized to issue bonds, without the necessity of an election, for the purpose of refunding outstanding waterworks revenue bonds and sewer revenue bonds into an issue of refunding bonds which will be secured by and payable from a pledge of revenues of both the waterworks system and the sewer system. Such refunding bonds shall bear a rate of interest specified by the governing body of the City, but not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum, and mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years. All or any part of such refunding bonds may, in lieu of being exchanged by the Comptroller of Public Accounts for outstanding bonds, be sold for cash, in which event, there shall be deposited with the State Treasurer an amount of money sufficient to pay the unexchanged portion thereof, plus interest to maturity on bonds which are not optional for redemption prior to maturity, and to the option date on bonds which are optional. There shall also be deposited with the State Treasurer the additional amount required by Chapter 541, Acts of the Fifty-first Legislature as amended. The State Treasurer shall hold and disburse such funds as provided in Chapter 541 except that he is not required to transmit money to the Trustee or the bank of payment until one business day before each interest payment date on the bonds being refunded.

Elections Authorizing Bond Issue

Sec. 3. If, prior to such refunding, an Eligible City has had elections authorizing the issuance of bonds to be secured by a pledge of waterworks revenues and other bonds secured by sewer revenues, or either, such bonds may, after the issuance of such refunding bonds, be issued and secured by a pledge of net revenues of both the waterworks system and sewer system without the necessity of an additional election.

Additional Revenue Bonds; Ordinances; Junior Lien Bonds

Sec. 4. An Eligible City may issue additional revenue bonds which will be on a parity with previously issued and outstanding revenue bonds at any time under the conditions specified in the ordinance or ordinances which authorized the issuance of the then outstanding bonds. Articles 1111 to 1118, both inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended, shall be applicable to bonds issued under this law, except as otherwise provided herein. An Eligible City may issue junior lien bonds unless prohibited by the ordinance authorizing outstanding bonds.

Approval of Bonds by Attorney General; Incontestability

Sec. 5. All bonds issued under this Act shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for his approval, and when approved by him, shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and thereafter such bonds shall be incontestable.

[Acts 1963, 56th Leg., p. 321, ch. 119.]

Art. 1118n-11. Refunding Certain Outstanding Interest Bearing Obligations

Issuer Defined

Sec. 1. The term "issuer," as used in this Act shall mean and include any city in the State of Texas which owns the water, sewer and electric utility systems serving such city and which operates all such utilities as a combined system and has issued and has outstanding revenue bonds payable from the revenues of such combined system.

Issuing Refunding Bonds; Security; Election; Maturity and Interest; Negotiability

Sec. 2. Any issuer, by resolution, ordinance, order or other action of its governing body is authorized to issue refunding bonds to refund any outstanding interest bearing obligations, including but not limited to bonds, notes, warrants, certificates of obligation and certificates of indebtedness, and interest coupons appertaining thereto, herefore or hereafter issued by or for or on behalf of said issuer, which obligations have stated maturity dates or are callable prior to maturity not more than 10 years after the date of delivery of such refunding bonds. One or more outstanding issues, and any part of one or more outstanding issues of obligations, and interest coupons appertaining thereto, may be refunded hereunder; provided that obligations unless such refunding results in the ability of the issuer to issue additional interest bearing obligations that could not have been issued but for such refunding due at least in part to provisions in the obligations being refunded or resolutions, ordinances or orders pertaining to such obligations being refunded which would have required a record of earnings or income in excess of that available to the issuer, and would have thus prevented the issuance of such additional interest bearing obligations; provided that when part of one or more of such issues is being refunded, the issuer must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Attorney General of the State of Texas, prior to his approval of the refunding bonds as hereinafter required, that adequate pledged resources are estimated to be available, based on then current conditions, to provide for the payment when due of the unrefunded part of such issue or issues. Such refunding bonds may be secured by liens on, and made payable from, the same source as the obligations being refunded thereby, or may be secured by liens on, and payable
Art. 118n-11

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

from, taxes, revenues, property, any other or different source, or any combination of such sources, to the extent the issuer is otherwise authorized by the Texas Constitution or any statute to pledge, dedicate, or use any such source for the payment or security of any kind or type of interest bearing obligation; and the refunding bonds may be issued in combination with refunding bonds issued under other laws, new bonds, and with provision for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under such terms or conditions and with such security, as may be set forth in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said refunding bonds, all as determined within the discretion of the issuer, provided, however, that no such bonds shall be issued contrary to the provisions of the Texas Constitution. All refunding bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be issued without any election in connection with the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under such terms or conditions and with such security, as may be set forth in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said refunding bonds, as determined within the discretion of the issuer, provided, however, that no such bonds shall be issued contrary to the provisions of the Texas Constitution. All refunding bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be issued without any election in connection with the issuance thereof or the creation of any encumbrance in connection therewith; except that if the Texas Constitution would require an election or vote to permit any procedure, action, or matter pertaining to such refunding bonds, then an election to authorize any such procedure, action, or matter shall be held substantially in accordance with Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, to the extent practicable, applicable, and appropriate. Said bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed 50 years from their date, and may be issued to bear interest at any rate or rates within the discretion of the issuer. Said bonds and any interest coupons appurtenant thereto, shall be negotiable instruments within the meaning of the Uniform Commercial Code (except that such bonds may be made registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest), and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and may be executed, as provided by the issuer in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said refunding bonds.

1 Article 701 et seq.

Bonds Payable from Water, Sewer, and Electric Utility Revenues

Sec. 2A. (a) This section applies only to refunding bonds payable solely from the net revenues of the issuer's combined water, sewer, and electric utility systems.

(b) The requirements of Section 2 of this Act that the obligations to be refunded must have stated maturity dates or be callable prior to maturity not more than 10 years from the date of delivery of the refunding bonds and that the refunding must enable the issuer to issue additional obligations it could not otherwise have issued do not apply to the issuance of refunding bonds covered by this section.

(c) The requirement in Section 4 of this Act that the refunding bonds be sold for not less than par value is not applicable to refunding bonds covered by this section.

(d) As to refunding bonds covered by this section, if obligations to be refunded are not callable at the time of refunding but will be subject to redemption before maturity, the issuer may provide in the refunding proceedings for redeeming those obligations before maturity, and if it does so, the issuer need deposit with the State Treasurer under this Act no more than is necessary to provide for payment of the principal and interest on those obligations as they are redeemed.

Submission of Bonds and Proceedings to Attorney General; Approval and Registration; Incontestability; Registration

Sec. 3. All bonds permitted to be issued under this Act, and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance, shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for examination. If the Attorney General finds that such bonds have been authorized in accordance with this Act, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas; and after such approval and registration, such bonds shall be incontestable in any court, or other forum, for any reason, and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes. Such bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts after they are approved by the attorney general, without any surrender, exchange, or cancellation of the obligations being refunded.

Sale for Cash; Redemption

Sec. 4. The refunding bonds authorized by this Act shall be sold for cash in such manner and at such price (not less than par and accrued interest to date of delivery) as determined within the discretion of the governing body of the issuer, and may be sold in such principal amounts as are necessary to provide all or any part of the money required to pay the principal of any obligation being refunded, as the same mature and come due, or to provide all or any part of the money required to redeem any obligations being refunded, prior to maturity, on the date or dates upon which said obligations have been called for such redemption, including principal, any required premium, the interest to accrue on said obligations to said redemption date or dates, together with an amount sufficient to pay all expenses related to the issuance of the refunding bonds and the expenses of paying the obligations being refunded under this Act. If any of the obligations being refunded through the sale of refunding bonds under this Act are subject to redemption prior to maturity, they shall be duly called for such redemption on a date or dates upon which they are so redeemable, in accordance with the terms thereof, and the proceedings pertaining to such call, and any notice of redemption required in connection therewith, shall be submitted to the at-such obligations shall not be considered as being if the notice of redemption in connection with any ing the issuance of said refunding bonds. However, then subject to redemption prior to maturity for the attorney general along with the proceedings authorizted to be deposited with the state treasurer required to be deposited with the state treasurer under this Act, such amount shall be made suffi­cient to provide for the payment of the principal of and to maturity.

Investment of Proceeds

Sec. 5. The issuer may immediately invest all or any required part of the proceeds from the sale of the refunding bonds, and any other necessary available funds, in direct obligations of, or obligations the interest on and principal of which are uncondi­tionally guaranteed by the United States of Ameri­ca, or in obligations which, in the opinion of the Attorney General of the United States of America, are general obligations of the United States of America and backed by its full faith and credit, which will mature, bear interest, and be payable, at such times and in such amounts as will provide and produce, without any reinvestment, the money (together with any uninvested money) required for the payment of the principal of and interest on the obligations being refunded, as the same mature and come due, and for the payment of the redemption price of any obligations being refunded and rede­emed prior to maturity, on the date or dates upon which said obligations being refunded have been called for redemption, plus the additional amount required to pay the service charges of the place or places of payment of said obligations for paying and redeeming same.

Deposits With Treasurer; Certification of Deposit Adequacy; Duties of Treasurer

Sec. 6. (a) The issuer shall immediately deposit with the state treasurer (1) the proceeds from the sale of the refunding bonds, to the extent such proceeds are not invested, and (2) all of said invest­ments, and (3) an additional amount, if necessary, which shall be sufficient together with such other deposits to pay the principal of and interest on the obligations being refunded, to pay the state treasur­er for his services and to reimburse him for his expenses in performing his duties under this Act, equal to one-twentieth of one percent of the prin­cipal or par amount of the obligations being refunded, and one-eighth of one percent of the interest to accrue thereon (but not to exceed a total of $2,000 in connection with each issue of refunding bonds issued hereunder), plus an additional amount of money sufficient to pay the service charges of the place or places of payment of said obligations for paying and redeeming same. The treasurer shall certify to the issuer as to the adequacy of the investments (and money) deposited, giving due re­gard to the dates the principal and interest on the investments are scheduled to mature and come due. In calculating the adequacy of said investments required to be so deposited, the state treasurer may rely on receiving both the principal and the interest scheduled to mature and come due on said invest­ments in accordance with their terms, respectively, and the amount which otherwise would be required to be so deposited, if no interest were scheduled to come due thereon, may be reduced accordingly. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to accept said deposits of investments and to collect promptly, when due and payable, all principal of and interest on said investments, but he shall not reinvest the same. It is further provided that the aforesaid investments shall be made in such manner that the proceeds therefrom, without any reinvestment, will be available for deposit, and shall be deposited, by the state treasurer, in the place or places of pay­ment, in current available funds, in the required amounts, not later than one business day before each scheduled maturity date, due date, or redemp­tion date, respectively, of said obligations being refunded. The state treasurer may rely on a certifi­cate by the secretary or the chief clerical officer of the governing body of the issuer as to the amount of such service charges of the place or places of payment.

(b) It shall be the duty of the state treasurer, in his official capacity of public office, to accept and keep safely all deposits of money and investments made with him under this Act, and all proceeds from said investments; and no part of such deposits of money and investments, or proceeds therefrom, (excepting the amount paid to him for his services and expenses) shall be used by or for the benefit of the State of Texas, or for the benefit of any creditor of the State of Texas, and shall not be commingled with the General Fund of the state, or any other special funds or accounts held by the state treasur­er. Each such deposit of money and investments, and proceeds therefrom, (excepting the amount paid to him for his services and expenses) shall be kept and maintained separate and apart from all other money and investments, and shall be kept and held, in escrow, and in trust, by the state treasurer, and shall be charged with an irrevocable first lien and pledge in favor of the holders of the obligations to be paid therefrom, and said deposits of money and investments, and proceeds therefrom, shall be used only for the purposes provided in this Act. Each such deposit of money and investments, and proceeds therefrom, (excepting the amount paid to him for his services and expenses) shall be kept and maintained separate and apart from all other money and investments, and shall be kept and held, in escrow, and in trust, by the state treasurer, and shall be charged with an irrevocable first lien and pledge in favor of the holders of the obligations to be paid therefrom, and said deposits of money and investments, and proceeds therefrom, shall be used only for the purposes provided in this Act. Each such deposit of money and investments, and proceeds therefrom, shall be regarded as public funds, and legal title thereto shall be in the state treasurer, in his official capacity as trustee, until paid out as herein provided, but equitable title thereto shall be in the issuer, until so paid out. The writ of mandamus, and all other legal remedies, shall be available to any bondholder, the issuer, or any other party at interest to require the state treasurer to perform his functions and duties under this Act. The surety

bond or bonds given by the state treasurer in connection with the proper performance of his duties of office (excepting any special bonds given to protect funds of the United States government) shall protect and be construed as protecting all said deposits of money and investments, and proceeds therefrom. The state treasurer shall not in any way invest or reinvest any money deposited with him or received by him from any investment under this Act. In the event that any surplus funds should remain on hand with the state treasurer in connection with any deposit of money or investments, after he has finally performed all of his duties relating thereto under this Act, such surplus shall be returned to the issuer.

(c) When there is more than one place of payment for such obligations being refunded, the state treasurer shall make all of the deposits required to be made by him under this Act at the one of said places of payment having the largest capital and surplus and located in the State of Texas, and if none of such places of payment is located in the State of Texas, then at the place of payment having the largest capital and surplus; and it shall be the duty of such place of payment, and the state treasurer shall so instruct it, to make the required current funds available, to the extent necessary, at the other place or places of payment, to pay or redeem said obligations under presentment therefor.

Alternative Place of Deposit: Duties of Places of Payment

Sec. 7. It is further provided, however, that in the alternative to making the deposit of said investments (together with any uninvested money) with the state treasurer, the issuer shall have the option of making such deposit with any place of payment for the obligations being refunded, if said place of payment is a bank or trust company located in the State of Texas, has trust powers, and is a member of the Federal Reserve System. In such case, such place of payment shall perform all applicable and pertinent functions and duties provided in this Act for the state treasurer, and shall be substituted hereunder for the state treasurer to the extent appropriate and practical, except as otherwise provided by this section. The deposits of such investments and money shall be held for safekeeping, in escrow, and in trust for and charged with an irrevocable first lien and pledge in favor of and for the benefit of the holders of the obligations being refunded, all pursuant to an appropriate trust or escrow agreement between the issuer and the place of payment, upon such further terms and conditions, and for such consideration as may be agreeable to the parties thereto. Further, all deposits of money with any such place of payment shall constitute public funds and shall be secured at all times by a pledge of direct obligations of the United States of America, obligations the payment of principal of and interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States of America, or obligations which, in the opinion of the Attorney General of the United States of America, are general obligations of the United States of America and backed by its full faith and credit. When there is more than one place of payment for any such obligations being refunded it shall be the duty of such place of payment, with which such deposit is made, to make the required current funds available, to the extent necessary, at the other place or places of payment to pay or redeem said obligations under presentment therefor.

Discharge and Final Payment or Redemption of Obligations: Subordination to Refunded Obligations

Sec. 8. When the initial deposit of investments (and any uninvested money) is made with the state treasurer or with a place of payment under this Act, such deposit shall constitute the making of firm banking and financial arrangements for the discharge and final payment or redemption of the obligations being refunded, and although such obligations being refunded shall continue to be obligations of the issuer, automatically they shall become obligations of the issuer secured solely by and payable solely from such deposit and the proceeds therefrom; and upon the making of such deposit, all previous encumbrances existing in connection with said obligations being refunded (whether in connection with taxes, revenues, real and personal property or any other source of security or payment) automatically shall terminate and be finally charged and released, as a matter of law, and said encumbrances shall be of no further force or effect; and although said obligations being so refunded will remain outstanding, they shall be regarded as being outstanding only for the purpose of receiving the funds provided by the issuer for their payment or redemption under this Act, and they shall not be regarded as being outstanding in ascertaining the power of the issuer to issue bonds, or in calculating any limitations in connection therewith, or for any other purpose. It is further provided, however, notwithstanding the foregoing language of this section, that the issuer may, in the alternative to the foregoing language of this section, provide in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such refunding bonds that such refunding bonds shall be subordinate to the obligations being refunded, but only in the manner and to the extent provided in said authorizing proceedings; and, except for any such specific provisions to the contrary in said authorizing proceedings, the foregoing language of this section shall be fully applicable.

Rights of Holders of Obligations

Sec. 9. The holder or holders of any such obligations being refunded shall never have the right to demand or receive payment thereof prior to the scheduled date or dates of the maturities, due dates, or redemption date or dates, respectively, of said obligations being refunded, and said holder or holders shall not be paid therefor prior to such date or dates, unless the issuer shall have specifically and affirmatively provided for and authorized the earlier payment of said obligations in the proceedings authorizing said refunding bonds.

Bonds as Legal and Authorized Investments: Security for Deposits

Sec. 10. All bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative and Prevailing Effects of Act; Use of Other Laws

Sec. 11. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but this act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other laws or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided; and when any bonds are being issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provisions of any other law or charter, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that any issuer shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions hereof, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Severability

Sec. 12. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance, shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

The 1977 Act provides in § 2 as follows:

"If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is declared invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any other provision or application of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared severable."

Art. 1118n-12. Refunding Certain Bonds and Other Obligations of Cities, Towns, and Villages

Definitions

Sec. 1. (a) The term "Issuer," as used in this Act, shall mean each city, town, and village in the state which at any time has outstanding bonds or other obligations which are secured solely by a pledge of the net revenues of, or by a pledge of the net revenues of and a mortgage on, its electric light and power system or its electric light and power system and gas system.

(b) The term "Board," as used in this Act, shall mean the city council, city commission, board of commissioners, board of aldermen, or other group which is the governing body of an issuer.

Authority to Issue Refunding Bonds; Security; New Bonds; Maturity; Negotiability; Conversion; Election not Required

Sec. 2. The board of any issuer is authorized to issue refunding bonds to refund all or any part of any outstanding bonds or other interest bearing obligations secured solely by a pledge of the net revenues of, or by a pledge of the net revenues of and a mortgage on, the issuer’s electric light and power system or its electric light and power system and gas system, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto. One or more outstanding issues and any part of one or more outstanding issues of bonds or other interest bearing obligations, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, may be refunded under this Act; provided that when part of one or more of these issues is being refunded, the board must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the attorney general, prior to his approval of the bonds as required in this Act, that adequate pledged resources are estimated to be available, based on then current conditions, to provide for the payment, when due, of the unrefunded part of the issue or issues. The refunding bonds, and the interest and redemption premium, if any, may be secured by first or subordinate liens on and pledges of, and made payable from, the same source as the obligations being refunded and may be secured by first or subordinate liens on and pledges of, and made payable from, any other revenues, income, or property, and other, different, or additional source or resources, of the board or the issuer, or any combination of those sources or resources, except any taxes, all within the sole discretion of and in the manner provided by the board; and the refunding bonds additionally may be secured by mortgages, deeds of trust, trust indentures, trust agreements, or other instruments evidencing liens on any real, personal, or mixed property; and the refunding bonds may be issued in combination with new bonds, and with provision for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under the terms or conditions and with the security, set forth in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the refunding bonds, all as determined within the discretion of the board, provided, however, that no bonds shall be issued contrary to the provisions of the Texas Constitution. If and when the board desires to issue refunding bonds in combination with new bonds for any purpose or purposes for which the issuer is then authorized by any law or home rule charter provision to issue revenue bonds or other interest bearing obligations, the new bonds may be issued for any purpose or purposes under the provisions of, and be secured and payable as provided in, this Act, and the provisions of this Act shall be fully applicable thereto without regard to any other requirements, in the manner provided by the board in the proceedings authorizing the bonds. All bonds issued under the provisions of this Act may be issued to mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed 50 years from their date, and may be issued to bear interest at any rate or rates, all within the discretion of the board. The bonds and any interest coupons appurtenant thereto, are negotiable instruments within the meaning of the Uniform Commercial Code, except that the bonds and the interest thereon may be made payable to a named payee or made registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest, and may be payable at any place or places, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, may provide for capitalized interest during construction and thereafter, capitalized operating and maintenance expenses, and capitalized reserve and contingency funds, and may be issued in the form, denominations, and manner, and under the terms, conditions, and details, and may be executed, as provided by the board in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds. The board may provide and covenant for the conversion of any form of bond into any other form or forms of bond, and for reconversion of bonds into any other form. The board may provide procedures for the replacement of lost, stolen, destroyed, or mutilated bonds or interest coupons in the manner prescribed by the board in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds. If the duty of replacement, conversion, or reconversion of bonds is imposed upon a corporate trustee under a trust agreement or trust indenture, or upon a place of payment (paying agent) for the bonds, the replacement, converted, or reconverted bond need not be re-approved by the attorney general or reregistered by the comptroller of public accounts as provided in Section 3 of this Act. Otherwise, all replacement, converted, or reconverted bonds must be so approved and registered as provided in Section 3 of this Act, in accordance with the procedures established in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds. All bonds issued under the provisions of this Act may be issued without any election or referendum in connection with their issuance or the creation of any encumbrance in connection with their issuance.

Approval by Attorney General; Registration; Incontestability

Sec. 3. All bonds permitted to be issued under the provisions of this Act, and the appropriate and applicable proceedings authorizing the issuance, shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized in accordance with this Act, he shall approve them, and then they shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts; and after the approval and registration, the bonds shall be incontestable in any court, or other forum, for any reason, and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes.

Bonds as Legal and Authorized Investments

Sec. 4. All bonds issued under the provisions of this Act are investment securities governed by Chapter 8, Uniform Commercial Code, and are legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, and trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, school districts, and other political subdivisions or public agencies of the state. The bonds also are eligible to secure deposits of any public funds of the state or any political subdivision or public agency of the state, and are lawful and sufficient security for the deposits to the extent of their market value, when accompanied by any unmatured coupons attached to the bonds.

Exchanges

Sec. 5. The refunding bonds authorized by this Act may be issued in exchange for, and upon surrender and cancelation of, any obligations being refunded, and in that case, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the obligations being refunded, in accordance with the provisions of the proceedings authorizing the refunding bonds, and any exchange may be made in one or in several installment deliveries. However, instead of issuing the refunding bonds to be exchanged for any obligations being refunded, the board shall be authorized, in its discretion, to issue refunding bonds to be sold for cash in principal amounts necessary to provide all or any part of the money required to pay the principal of and interest on any obligations being refunded, prior to maturity, on any future date or dates upon which the obligations have been called for such redemption, within the discretion of the board, including principal, any required redemption premium, and the interest to accrue on the obligations to the redemption date or dates, together with an amount sufficient to pay all expenses related to the issuance of the bonds and the expenses of paying the obligations being refunded under this Act; and also to provide any amounts deemed necessary or required by the board to fund or provide for deposits into any debt service reserve funds, interest and sinking funds, or other funds created in the proceedings authorizing the bonds, and to provide amounts to pay interest on all bonds issued under the provisions of this Act for the period prescribed by the board, and to provide any other amounts deemed required by the board. All bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, excepting any exchange refunding bonds, may be sold for cash in the manner, under the procedures, at public or private sale, and at the price or prices, as shall be determined solely within the discretion of the board. If any of the obligations being refunded through the sale of refunding bonds of any bonds issued under this Act are subject to redemption prior to maturity, they may, at the option and within the discretion of the board, be called for redemption on any future date or dates upon which they are redeemable, within the discretion of the board, and the proceedings pertaining to the call shall be submitted to the attorney general along with the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the refunding bonds. When the board has authorized any of the refunding bonds and any new bonds in combination with the refunding bonds to be sold for cash under the provisions of this Act, the refunding bonds and any new bonds in combination with the refunding bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts after they are approved by the attorney general, without any surrender, exchange, or cancellation of any obligations being refunded.

Deposit of Proceeds with State Treasurer; Duties

Sec. 6. When any refunding bonds issued under the provisions of this Act are sold and delivered to the purchaser, the board immediately shall have deposited with the state treasurer, from the proceeds of the sale, and any other funds available for that purpose, the amount which will be required to pay the principal of and interest on the obligations being refunded as they mature and come due, and the amount which will be required to redeem prior to maturity any obligations being refunded, on the date or dates upon which these obligations have been called for redemption, including principal, any required redemption premium, and the interest to accrue on those obligations to the redemption date or dates, together with an additional amount to pay the state treasurer for his services and to reimburse him for his expenses in performing his duties under this Act, equal to one-twentieth of one percent of the principal or par amount of the obligations being refunded, and one-eighth of one percent of the interest to accrue thereon, but not to exceed a total of $1,000 in connection with each issue of refunding bonds issued under this Act, plus an additional amount of money sufficient to pay the service charges of the place or places of payment of the obligations for paying and redeeming them. The state treasurer may rely on a certificate or other instrument or document which shall be filed with him by the issuer showing clearly the date or dates upon which the principal matures and interest comes due on the obligations being refunded, and the amount thereof, and the date or dates, if any, on which the obligations have been called for redemption prior to maturity, together with the redemption price, and the place or places of payment of the obligations being refunded, and the charges to be made by the place or places of payment for paying and redeeming the obligations. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to make the appropriate required part of the deposits available at the place or places of payment, in current and immediately available funds, on or before, but not later than, each maturity date, due date, or redemption date, respectively, of the obligations being refunded, in order to pay the required amounts on each date, plus the service charges of the place or places of payment.

Investment of Proceeds

Sec. 7. It is provided, however, that instead of depositing money with the state treasurer as required by Section 6 of this Act, except for the money to be paid to him for his services and expenses, which in all events shall be deposited in cash, the board may, at its option, unless the board determines, in its sole discretion, that money is required to be deposited, immediately invest all or any part of the proceeds from the sale of the refunding bonds, and any other necessary available funds, in direct obligations of the United States of America, or in obligations the payment of the principal of and interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States of America, or in obligations which, in the opinion of the Attorney General of the United States of America, are general obligations of the United States of America and backed by its full faith and credit, which investments will mature, and bear interest payable, at such times and in such amounts as will provide, without any reinvestment, not less than the amount of money, in addition to any money initially deposited for that purpose, required for the payment of the principal of and interest on the obligations being refunded, as they mature and come due, and for the payment of the redemption price of any obligations being refunded and redeemed prior to maturity, on the date or dates on which the obligations being refunded have been called for redemption, including principal, any required redemption premium, and the interest to accrue on the obligations to the redemption date or dates, together with the additional amount required to pay the service charges of the place or places of payment of the obligations for paying and redeeming them. The board shall deposit all of the investments immediately with the state treasurer. In calculating the amount of the investments required to be so deposited, the issuer and the state treasurer shall rely on receiving both the principal and interest, if any, scheduled to mature and accrue or come due on the investments, to the extent that the principal and interest are scheduled to mature and accrue or come due prior to the date or dates of the maturities, due dates, or redemption date or dates, respectively, of the obligations being refunded; and the amount which otherwise would be required to be deposited; if no interest or increase were scheduled to mature and accrue or come due, may, at the option of the board, be reduced accordingly. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to accept the deposits of investments and to collect from any creditor of the state, and shall not be reinvested. It is further provided that the aforementioned investments shall be made in a manner that the proceeds from them, without any reinvestment, will be available for deposit, and shall be deposited, by the state treasurer, in the place or places of payment, in current and immediately available funds, in the required amounts, on or before, and not later than, each maturity date, due date, or redemption date, respectively, of the obligations being refunded.

Duties of Treasurer as to Handling and Safekeeping of Proceeds

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer, ex officio, in his official capacity of public office, to accept and keep safely all deposits of money and investments, and proceeds from them; but no part of such deposits of money and investments, or proceeds therefrom, excepting the amount paid to him for his services and expenses, shall constitute a part of the state treasury, or be used by or for the state or for the benefit of any creditor of the state, and shall not be commingled with the general revenue fund of the state or any other special funds or accounts held by the state treasurer. The state treasurer shall keep and maintain each such deposit of money and investments, and proceeds from them, excepting the amount paid to him for his services and expenses, separate and apart from all other deposits, money, funds, accounts, and investments, and each such deposit of money and investments, and proceeds from them, shall be used only for the purposes provided in this Act. Each deposit of money and investments, and proceeds from them shall be public funds, and legal title shall be in the state treasurer, in his official capacity as trustee, until paid out as provided in this Act, but equitable title shall be in the issuer, until paid out. The writ of mandamus and all other legal and equitable remedies shall be available to any bondholder, the issuer, or any other party at interest to require the state treasurer to perform his functions and duties under this Act. The surety bond or bonds given by the state treasurer in connection with the proper performance of his duties of office, excepting any special bonds given to protect funds of the United States shall protect and be construed as protecting all the deposits of money and investments, and proceeds from them. The state treasurer shall not in any way invest or reinvest any money deposited with him or received by him from investments deposited with him under this Act. In the event that any surplus funds should be on hand with the state treasurer in connection with any deposit of money or investments, or proceeds from them, the surplus shall be returned to the issuer.

Place of Payment

Sec. 9. If there is more than one place of payment for any obligations being refunded under this Act, the state treasurer shall make all deposits required under this Act at the place of payment located in the state, if there is one, or if there is more than one place of payment located in the state, or if no place of payment is located in the state, then at the one of the places of payment having the largest capital and surplus. It shall be the statutory duty of the place of payment, and the state treasurer shall instruct it, to make the appropriate financial arrangements so that the necessary required current funds will be available, to the extent necessary, at the other places of payment, to pay or redeem the obligations when due; provided that this section shall not apply in the event the board proceeds under Section 10 of this Act.

Alternative Place of Deposit

Sec. 10. It is further provided, however, that in the alternative to making the deposit of money or investments with the state treasurer in connection with refunding bonds issued and sold under this Act, and notwithstanding any provisions of this Act to the contrary, the board shall have the option of making the deposit of money or investments with any place of payment (paying agent), wherever located, for the obligations being refunded, or, at the option of the board, with any trustee under any trust indenture, trust agreement, deed of trust, or option of the board, with any trustee under any trust indenture, trust agreement, deed of trust, or other instrument, securing the obligations being refunded. In that case the place of payment or trustee shall, to the extent practicable, substantially perform the applicable and pertinent functions and duties provided in this Act for the state treasurer, to the extent appropriate and practical, and the place of payment or trustee shall be substituted for the state treasurer under this Act to the extent appropriate and practical, except as otherwise provided by this section. Such deposits of money and investments shall be held for safekeeping, in escrow, in trust for, and charged with an irrevocable first lien and pledge in favor of, and for the benefit of, the holders of the obligations being refunded, and the issuer and the place of payment or trustee, may execute an appropriate trust or escrow agreement on the terms and conditions, and for the consideration agreeable to the parties to the agreement. The agreement may provide that any deposits of money may be invested in direct obligations of.
the United States of America, or obligations the payment of principal of and interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States of America, or obligations which, in the opinion of the Attorney General of the United States of America, are general obligations of the United States of America and backed by its full faith and credit, or may be placed in interest bearing time deposits secured at all times by an equal amount in market value of any of the federal obligations named above. The agreement further shall provide for deposits with the place or places of payment (paying agent or agents) to pay or redeem the obligations being refunded when due, and may provide that at any time the amount of money and investments held in escrow exceeds the amount required for purposes of this Act, the excess shall be transferred and delivered to the issuer, or as directed by the board, to be used for any lawful purpose, including the payment of revenue bonds issued pursuant to this Act or otherwise, all at the option of the board.

Rights of Holders of Obligations

Sec. 11. The holder or holders of any obligations being refunded by any refunding bonds sold pursuant to this Act shall never have the right to demand or receive payment of them prior to the scheduled date or dates of the maturities, due dates, or redemption date or dates, respectively, of the obligations being refunded, and the holder or holders shall not be paid for them prior to the date or dates, unless the board specifically and affirmatively provided for and authorized the earlier payment of the obligations in the proceedings authorizing the refunding bonds.

Discharge and Final Payment or Redemption of Obligations; Subordination to Refunded Obligations

Sec. 12. When the initial deposit of money or investments is made with the state treasurer or with a place of payment (paying agent) or trustee in accordance with this Act for any obligations being refunded under this Act, the deposit shall constitute the making of firm banking and financial arrangements for the discharge and final payment or redemption of the obligations being refunded, and although the obligations being refunded continue to be obligations of the issuer, automatically they become obligations of the issuer secured solely by and payable solely from the deposit and the proceeds from them; and on making the deposit, all previous encumbrances, including all liens, pledges, mortgages, deeds of trust, trust indentures, or trust agreements, existing in connection with the obligations being refunded, whether in connection with revenues, real, personal, and mixed property, or any other source of security or payment, automatically terminate and are finally discharged and released, as a matter of law, and the encumbrances shall be of no further force or effect; and although the obligations being refunded will remain outstanding, they shall be regarded as being outstanding only for the purpose of receiving the funds provided by the issuer for their payment or redemption under this Act, and they shall not be regarded as being outstanding in ascertaining the power of the issuer to issue bonds, or in calculating any limitations in connection therewith, or for any other purpose. It is further provided, however, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, that the board may, in the alternative to the foregoing provisions of this section, provide in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the refunding bonds that the refunding bonds are subordinate to the obligations being refunded, but only in the manner and to the extent provided in the authorizing proceedings; and, except for any specific provisions to the contrary in the authorizing proceedings, the foregoing provisions of this section are fully applicable.

Cumulative and Prevailing Effects of Act: Use of Other Laws

Sec. 13. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other laws, or home rule charter provisions, or any restrictions or limitations contained therein; and to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provision of this Act and any provision of any other law, including any law passed at the current session of the legislature, or any home rule charter provision, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that the board shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws or home rule charter provisions not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act. This Act shall be liberally construed so as to permit the accomplishment of the purposes of this Act.

Art. 1118o-1. Validating Acts and Proceedings of Cities in Borrowing Money From Federal Agencies to Repair or Extend Dam for Waterworks System

In all cases where any city or town in this State has borrowed money from The Reconstruction Finance Corporation or any other agency of the United States Government, for the purpose of making repairs and extensions, or either, to a dam comprising a part of the waterworks system of said city or town, which the city or town has agreed to repay out of the revenues of said waterworks system, all acts performed by the city officials and all proceedings had by the governing bodies of such cities or towns in connection therewith are hereby validated, and all money so borrowed by such city or town together with the interest thereon at the rate stipulated in such proceedings is hereby declared to be a legal obligation of such city or town, payable out of the revenues of its waterworks system. The fact that a vacancy existed in the office of Mayor during all or any part of such proceedings, or the fact that other revenue obligations were then and are now outstanding against such system shall not affect the obligations and proceedings hereby validated.

Art. 1118p. Refunding Bonds in Counties of 525,000 or More; Payment From Water or Sewer Revenues

Issuance of New Revenue Bonds; Franchise to Foreclosure Purchaser

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply only in counties that have a population of five hundred and twenty-five thousand (525,000) or more, according to the last Federal Census. Any city or town that has issued bonds, warrants, notes, or other obligations payable from the revenues of the water systems and/or sewer systems and/or sewage disposal plants of such city or town, all or a portion of which bonds, warrants, notes, or other obligations are outstanding, may issue new bonds of such city or town payable from the net revenues of the water systems and/or sewer systems and/or sewage disposal plants of such city or town for the purpose of refunding such outstanding bonds, warrants, notes, or other obligations and for the purpose of further building, improving, enlarging, extending, and/or repairing such systems, or any one of them, and may pledge the net revenues thereof to pay the interest on and principal of such refunding and further construction bonds, and in the discretion of the governing body of such city or town, may mortgage and encumber the physical properties of such system or systems, as the case may be, for that purpose, and grant a franchise to the purchaser under foreclosure to operate such system or systems, as the case may be, for a period of not exceeding twenty (20) years after purchase, subject to all the laws regulating the same then in force.

Designation; Maturity; Interest

Sec. 2. Such new bonds may be called Refunding and Further Construction Bonds, and may be made to mature serially or otherwise as the governing body of such city or town may direct not more than thirty (30) years from their date, and may bear interest at not exceeding five (5) per cent per annum; provided such new bonds shall not bear a higher rate of interest than the bonds, warrants, notes, or other obligations that are refunded thereby.

Election

Sec. 3. Before the bonds herein authorized are issued, they shall be authorized by a majority vote of the duly qualified property taxpaying voters of such city or town at an election ordered and held for that purpose, which election shall be ordered and held in the same manner as required by law for holding elections to authorize the issuance of tax supported bonds.

Approval by Attorney General; Registration

Sec. 4. Such bonds and the record authorizing the same shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas and approved by him, substantially the same as is required in the issuance of tax supported bonds. When such bonds shall have been approved by the Attorney General, they shall be turned over to the Comptroller of the State of Texas and by him registered in the following order:

First, the portion of such new bonds equal in principal amount to the outstanding bonds, warrants, notes, and other obligations that are being refunded thereby, shall be registered only upon surrender and cancellation of such outstanding bonds, warrants, notes, and other obligations that are being refunded thereby, until all of such outstanding bonds, warrants, notes, and other obligations shall have been surrendered and cancelled.

Second, after all such outstanding revenue bonds, warrants, notes, and other obligations of such city or town shall have been surrendered and cancelled, and an equal amount of such new bonds registered and delivered in lieu thereof, then the balance of such new bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller and delivered to the Mayor of such city or town, or upon his order, and may be sold by the governing body of such city or town and the proceeds thereof expended in further building, improving, enlarging, extending, and/or repairing such system or systems, as the case may be.

Act as Cumulative; Repeal of Conflicting Laws Only

Sec. 5. This Act is cumulative, and in addition to all other statutes authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds of cities and towns, and is intended to repeal only such laws and parts of laws as are in conflict herewith.

Repeal

Sec. 6. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict, and particularly that expression contained in Article 1111, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas which reads, “No part of the income of any such system shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expense or obligation of such city or town, until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid,” is hereby specially repealed.

Art. 1118q. Hydro-Electric Generating Facilities, Acquisition of

Sec. 1. Any city in Texas which owns an electric distribution system, whether or not such city also owns facilities for the generation of electricity, may acquire by purchase, and improve, maintain and operate any privately owned facilities for the generation of hydro-electric power having an installed capacity of not less than two thousand (2,000) kilowatts, which may exist within five (5) miles of the boundary of such city, including all lands, flowage erights and water rights and related generating and transmission equipment and lines, and for the purpose of paying the cost of such acquisition and improvement may issue the bonds of such city pursuant to the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118, inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as such Articles now exist or may be hereafter amended, which bonds representing purchase money shall be fully negotiable for all purposes. For the purpose of the issuance and payment of such bonds the hydro-electric generating facilities so acquired may be regarded as an independent electric system which, including the revenues thereof, may be pledged to the payment of such bonds without any pledge of the other electric facilities of such city or the revenues derived therefrom. Such acquisition may be effected through the purchase of such facilities or through the issuance of the bonds in exchange for such facilities, provided the same shall have been first authorized at an election held in accordance with the provisions of Article 1112 of the Revised Civil Statutes as amended.

Any city which shall so acquire hydro-electric generating facilities hereunder shall carry out the provisions of all contracts in existence at the time of such acquisition pursuant to which electric current generated by such facilities has been contracted to be sold, except as to any such contract which may be cancelled by voluntary agreement of the city and the party or parties entitled to purchase such electric current thereunder. Subject to the rights of the parties to any such existing contracts, any such city shall take for distribution by its distribution system such part of the output of the generating facilities so acquired as may be needed for that purpose, and may in the proceedings for the authorization of the bonds enter into such covenants for the use of and payment for such electric current from the revenues derived from the re-sale thereof as it may consider proper. Any electric current generated by such facilities which is not used by the city for distribution by its system to its consumers may be sold by the city to other purchasers and any such city is hereby empowered to enter into such short or long-term contracts for such sale as it may deem advisable.

Sec. 2. The invalidity or ineffectiveness of any one or more provisions contained herein shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof.

Art. 1118q-1. Contracts With Conservation and Reclamation Districts for Hydroelectric Power or Energy

Authority to Contract

Sec. 1. Any incorporated city, town, or village, including any home-rule city, in this state may agree or contract with any conservation and reclamation district created under Article XVI, Section

59, of the Texas Constitution for the supply and purchase of hydroelectric power or energy. The agreement or contract shall be on the terms and conditions and for a period as the parties may agree. The agreement or contract constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the city, town, or village and is enforceable in accordance with its terms and provisions. If the agreement or contract so provides, the city, town, or village is obligated to pay for the hydroelectric power or energy irrespective of whether the hydroelectric power or energy is produced or delivered to the city, town, or village.

Furthermore, the agreement or contract may indude provisions for the acquiring, constructing, and equipping of generation and transmission facilities to supply the hydroelectric power and energy to be supplied and purchased under the agreement or contract; provisions with respect to financing the costs and expenses of the generation and transmission facilities; and provisions that the agreement or contract shall continue in force and effect while any obligations specified in the agreement or contract, including refunding obligations, remain outstanding. These provisions are as may be provided and specified in the agreement or contract between the parties.

Additional Provisions

Sec. 2. Amounts required to be paid by the city, town, or village to the district under the agreement or contract shall, if so provided in the agreement or contract, constitute an operating expense of the electric system, or combined utility system of which the electric system constitutes a part, of the city, town, or village in the same manner and effect as other operating and maintenance expenses of the electric system, or combined utility system, as provided by Article 1113, Revised Statutes.

Validation of Contract

Sec. 3. An agreement or contract executed before the effective date of this Act by and between a city, town, or village and a conservation and reclamation district that obligates the city, town, or village in the manner authorized by Section 1 of this Act is validated, ratified, and confirmed and constitutes a lawfully incurred obligation on the part of the city, town, or village and is subject to the other provisions of this Act.

Other Laws

Sec. 4. The powers and authority granted by this Act are in addition to any powers and authority granted to cities, towns, and villages under the laws of this state and constitute additional public purposes of the cities, towns, and villages. This Act is wholly sufficient authority for the performance or effectuation of an agreement or contract entered into under this Act notwithstanding any express or implied limitations on the powers, authority, or purposes of cities, towns, or villages under any other general or special law, charter provision, or ordinance.

Art. 1118r. Electric Light and Power Systems; Validation of Bonds

All revenue bonds issued by any city or town of five thousand inhabitants, or less, for the purpose of acquiring an electric light and power system for said city or town, which bonds were duly sold and delivered to the purchasers thereof at a price of not less than par and accrued interest, and the proceeds of which bonds were duly expended in the acquisition of such electric light and power system, are hereby in all things ratified, validated and confirmed, and such bonds shall constitute legal, valid special obligations of said city or town and shall be payable in the manner provided in the ordinance authorizing their issuance.

Art. 1118s. Revenue Bonds for Sewage Disposal Facilities; Cities Serving Territory Outside Boundaries

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city which owns a sewer system and disposal plant serving territory, other cities, and military establishments outside the corporate limits of the city. Such bonds may be additionally secured by a pledge of all or part of the net revenues to be derived from sewer service to be rendered within the city. In the issuance of such bonds, the city may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to the extent and subject to the conditions to be stated in the ordinance authorizing the bonds.

Sec. 2. For the purpose of purchasing or constructing additional sewage disposal facilities, any city to which this Act is applicable is hereby authorized to issue its negotiable bonds, and to secure the payment of such bonds by pledging the net revenues to be derived from sewer service rendered outside the corporate limits of the city. Such bonds may be additionally secured by a pledge of all or part of the net revenues to be derived from sewer service to be rendered within the city. In the issuance of such bonds, the city may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to the extent and subject to the conditions to be stated in the ordinance authorizing the bonds.

Sec. 3. Any city to which this Act is applicable is authorized to enter into contracts with other cities, persons, corporations and the United States Government to furnish sewer service, and such other cities are authorized to enter into such contracts. Such contracts which have heretofore been entered into and which have not been questioned in litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective, are hereby validated.

Sec. 4. Whenever a city issues bonds under this Act, it shall be the duty of the governing body thereof to fix rates for service in an amount to pay the maintenance and operation expense and sufficient to pay the bonds as they are scheduled to mature and the interest as it accrues, and to establish and maintain the funds as provided in the ordinance authorizing the bonds; provided, however, that where the consideration to be paid for sewer service is fixed by contract, such consideration shall not be increased during the term of the contract except as provided therein or by agreement of both parties.

Sec. 5. Articles 1111 to 1118, inclusive, and Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended, shall be applicable to the issuance of bonds under this Act, except as otherwise provided in this Act, but no election shall be required for their issuance. When such bonds are approved by the Attorney General, they shall be incontestable.

Art. 1118t. Additional Revenue Bonds; Issuance Without Election

Sec. 1. Any incorporated city or town, including any home rule city, which now has or shall hereafter have outstanding revenue bonds issued under Articles 1111 to 1118, inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or other similar statutes, for the purpose of acquiring its electric and gas systems or to refund bonds issued for such purpose, shall have the power to issue additional revenue bonds for the sole purpose of extending and improving said systems and payable from the net revenues of said systems on a parity with said outstanding bonds, in the manner and to the extent authorized by law and by the ordinances or trust indentures authorizing such outstanding acquisition bonds or refunding bonds, without holding any election on the issuance thereof, regardless of other statutory or charter provisions to the contrary; provided, thirty (30) days notice of intention to issue such bonds shall be given. Said notice shall be given as provided in the “Bond and Warrant Law of 1931,” as amended, except that the first publication shall be at least thirty (30) days prior to the date set for authorizing the bonds and that said notice shall contain a description by name and amount outstanding of any bonds or other indebtedness payable from the net revenues of such systems. Unless said notice is given as prescribed by the terms of this Section 1, said notice will be null and void and of no effect, and another notice as provided herein shall be given prior to the authorization of bonds covered by this Act.

Sec. 2. If a petition is filed in accordance with the provisions of said law, the election shall be ordered and held (on the issuance of said bonds) in accordance with said law; provided, however, that the question whether said bonds shall be issued may be submitted in a single proposition and without the necessity of designating the amount of bond proceeds to be expended on each system.

Sec. 3. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, or part of this Act shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, it shall not affect any other word, phrase, clause, sentence, or part of this Act.

1 Article 2368a.

Art. 1118u. Additional Revenue Bonds; Waterworks, Sewers and Swimming Pool

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city which has heretofore issued bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of revenues of its waterworks system, sewer system and swimming pool, retaining therein the right to issue additional parity bonds to be payable from and secured by such revenues, and which has held or hereafter holds an election resulting favorably to the issuance of additional bonds to be payable from and secured by a pledge of waterworks system, sewer system and swimming pool revenues.

Sec. 2. Any city to which this Act is applicable or authorized to issue the bonds authorized or to be authorized by such election and to secure them with a pledge of the net revenues of the waterworks and sewer system, and, in the discretion of the governing body of the city, the bonds may be additionally secured by a pledge of the net revenues of the swimming pool. Such bonds, when approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, shall constitute valid and binding special obligations of such city.

Art. 1118v. Refunding Outstanding Revenue Bonds Issued for Certain Utilities or Combination of Utilities

Sec. 1. Any incorporated city or town, including any home rule city, which now has or hereafter may have outstanding revenue bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of revenues from the operation of its electric light and power system, gas system, water system, sewer system, or any combination of two or more of such systems, and other outstanding revenue bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of revenues from the operation of another of any such system or systems, which bonds have been issued in the manner provided by Articles 1111 to 1118, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, as amended, or under any similar law, may issue refunding bonds to refund such outstanding bonds and pledge the revenues derived from the operation of all the systems whose revenues are pledged for the payment of the bonds to be refunded (regardless of the fact one or more issues of outstanding bonds to be refunded are payable from the revenues of one or more particular systems, and another issue or issues of such outstanding bonds to be refunded are payable from the revenues of a different system or systems); provided, however, that no bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of revenues of a particular system or systems shall be refunded under this Act unless all bonds then outstanding which are so payable from the revenues of that system or systems are so refunded. Refunding bonds issued under this Act shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than borne by the bonds refunded unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of other laws.

Art. 1118w. Mass Transportation Systems; Power to Own, Acquire, Construct, Operate, Etc.; Federal Grants and Loans; Revenue Bonds

Power to Own, Hold, Purchase, Construct, Operate, Etc.

Sec. 1. Any city or town, including any Home Rule City operating under Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas of 1923, as amended 1 (hereinafter referred to as "city" or "such city") shall have power to own, hold, purchase, construct, improve, extend and operate street transportation systems for the carrying of passengers for hire within such city, its suburbs and adjacent areas.

Any such city or town shall be authorized, either individually or in cooperation with agencies of the United States of America, to undertake research, development and demonstration projects for mass transportation systems in such areas and to acquire, construct and reconstruct and improve facilities and equipment for use, by operation or lease or otherwise, in mass transportation service in such city, its suburbs and adjacent areas and in coordinating such service with highway and other transportation in such areas.

Any such city or town shall be authorized, either individually or in cooperation with agencies of the United States of America, to undertake research, development and demonstration projects for mass transportation systems in such areas and to acquire, construct and reconstruct and improve facilities and equipment for use, by operation or lease or otherwise, in mass transportation service in such city, its suburbs and adjacent areas and in coordinating such service with highway and other transportation in such areas.

1 Article 901 et seq.

Mass Transportation Services

Sec. 1a. Any such city or town shall be authorized to accept grants and loans from the United States of America to finance all or a portion of the cost of the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, and improvement of facilities and equipment for use, by operation or lease or otherwise, in mass transportation service in such city, its suburbs and adjacent areas and in coordinating such service with highway and other transportation in such areas.

Any such city or town shall be authorized to issue revenue bonds for such purposes and all of the provisions of the Act amended hereby shall apply to the additional powers and functions herein authorized.

Revenue Bonds or Notes; Power to Issue, Etc.

Sec. 2. Any such city shall have full power to issue bonds and notes from time to time and in such amounts as it shall consider necessary or appropriate for the acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement or extension of such street transportation systems. All such bonds and notes shall be fully negotiable and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the issuing city, at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the issuing city in the ordinance authorizing such bonds or notes. Such bonds and notes shall be sold for such price as the governing body of the city shall consider to be for the best interest of such city, provided that no such sale shall be made at a price so low as to require the payment of interest on the money received therefor at a rate of more than six per cent (6%) per annum, computed with relation to the absolute maturity of the bonds or notes in accordance with standard tables of bond values, excluding however, from such computations the amount of any premium to be paid on redemption of any bonds or notes prior to maturity. Subject to the restrictions contained in this Act each such governing board is given complete discretion in fixing the form, conditions and details of such bonds and notes.

Approval of Obligations by Attorney General; Incontestability

Sec. 3. Prior to delivery thereof, all bonds and notes authorized to be issued hereunder and the records relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for examination and if he finds that they have been issued in accordance with the Constitution and this Act, and that they will be binding special obligations of the city issuing same, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and after such approval and registration they shall be incontestable.

Notice of Bond Issue Ordinance; Petition for Election

Sec. 4. Before passage of an ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes under this Act, the governing body of such city shall give notice of the time when such ordinance is to be passed. Such notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in such city, in at least two (2) issues thereof, the date of the first publication to be not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the date so fixed for passage of the ordinance. Unless prior to the scheduled time for passing the ordinance a petition is filed with the City Secretary, signed by not less than ten per cent (10%) of the qualified voters of the city who have duly rendered their property for taxation, requesting that an election be held on the question of issuing such bonds or notes, the governing body may proceed in the issuance thereof without an election. If such petition is duly filed, it shall be the duty of the governing body to proceed in the manner prescribed in Chapter I of Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, with an election on the question, and such bonds or notes shall not be issued unless a majority of the voters, voting at such election, vote favorably on the question. The governing body within its discretion may call an election for the issuance of the bonds or notes without awaiting the filing of a petition requesting a referendum election.

1 Article 791 et seq.

Power to Encumber; Additional Security

Sec. 5. In order to secure the payment of such bonds or notes such cities shall have full power and authority to encumber all or any part of such street transportation systems, the properties thereof, the revenues therefrom, the franchise thereof, and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired, including but not limited to properties, both real and personal, including motor buses or other vehicles, machinery and other equipment of any nature used in the operation thereof. As additional security for the payment of any such bonds or notes, any such city may, by the terms of the instrument evidencing such encumbrance, grant to the purchaser under the power of sale in such instrument, a franchise to operate any such transportation system, and the properties thereof so purchased, for a term of not over twenty-five (25) years after purchase, subject to all laws regulating same then in force. No such obligation of any such system shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the properties, including the pledged revenues, of the system so encumbered and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of any such city to issue any bonds or notes for any purpose authorized by law. But no such city shall be prohibited from making payment of such bonds or notes out of any other funds which may be lawfully used for the purpose. Any such city shall have full power and authority to encumber separately any item of real estate or personality, including motor buses or other vehicles, machinery or other equipment of any nature, or to acquire, use, hold, contract for any such property under any lease arrangement, chattel mortgage or conditional sale, including but not limited to transactions commonly known as equipment trust transactions. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting any such city from encumbering any one or more transportation systems for the purpose of purchasing, building, constructing, mortgaging, enlarging, extending, repairing, or reconstructing another one or more of said systems and purchasing necessary property, both real and personal in connection therewith.

Additional Bond Issues; Extension or Improvement of System; Lien of Bonds

Sec. 6. Any city issuing bonds or notes payable from and secured by a pledge of revenue from the operation of a street transportation system and while all or part of such bonds remain outstanding, shall have the power, from time to time, and on one or more occasions to issue bonds or notes for the purpose of extending or improving, or both, any such transportation system, or to acquire another or other such transportation system or systems, and such bonds or notes shall constitute a lien upon the revenues, in the order of their issuance, inferior to the liens securing the payment of any or all issues and series of bonds or notes previously issued; provided, however, the foregoing provisions shall not be construed to prevent the passage of an ordinance or execution and issuance of any deed of trust, trust indenture, or similar instrument, providing therein for the subsequent issuance of additional series of bonds or notes to be refunded, on an equal dignity with the previously issued revenue bonds or notes, and where any such ordinance, deed of trust, trust indenture or similar instrument may so provide, any such city shall have the power to authorize, issue, and sell additional bonds or notes, from time to time and in different series, payable from the revenues of such transportation system, and the revenues to be derived from such added sources, on a parity with bonds or notes previously issued and secured by liens on such transportation system, on a parity with and of equal dignity with the lien securing bonds or notes previously issued, subject to such conditions as may be contained in the ordinance, deed of trust or trust indenture providing for or securing such issue of original bonds or notes.

Refunding Bonds or Notes

Sec. 7. Refunding bonds or notes may be issued for the purpose of refunding the bonds or notes of a single series or issue or two (2) or more issues or series of bonds or notes and such refunding bonds or notes shall enjoy the same priority of lien on the revenues pledged to their payment as pledged to the bonds or notes refunded, provided that when two (2) or more series or issues of bonds or notes are refunded in a single issue of refunding bonds or notes the lien of all such refunding bonds or notes shall be equal if all of the outstanding bonds or notes of the several series or issues of bonds or notes to be refunded are thus refunded. No refunding bonds or notes shall attain any degree or priority of lien greater than that enjoyed by the series or issues then to be refunded having the highest priority of lien. Such refunding bonds or notes shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than borne by the bonds or notes refunded, unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid and that the annual principal and interest burden will not be increased so as to infringe upon or impair the rights of the holders of any bonds or notes, if any, enjoying a prior or inferior lien. Any such bonds or notes may shall be equal if all of the outstanding bonds or notes, either to be exchanged for the bonds or notes being refunded and cancelled, or to be sold, with the proceeds thereof to be used for the redemption and cancellation of the bonds or notes being refunded. Such city may provide in any reunding bond or note issue such money as may be needed for paying any call premium and for payment of interest to the date fixed for calling for redemption the outstanding bonds or notes.

Operating Expenses as First Lien on Income; Priorities of Liens; Rates

Sec. 8. Whenever the revenues of any street transportation system shall be encumbered under this law, the expense of operation and maintenance, including all salaries, labor, materials, interest, repairs, and extensions necessary to render efficient service and every proper item of expense shall always be a first lien and charge against such revenues. Provided, that only such extensions, as in the judgment of the governing body of such city, are necessary to keep the system in operation and render adequate service to such city and the inhabitants thereof, or such as might be necessary to meet some condition which would otherwise impair the original securities shall be a charge prior to any existing lien. The fares charged for transportation of passengers by any transportation system may be based on a zone system of determining fares or other fare classification determined by such city to be reasonable. There shall be charged and collected for such service a sufficient rate to pay all operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacement charges (and to provide for extensions to the extent permitted and limited hereby) and to provide and maintain in the manner and at the times prescribed in such ordinances, deeds of trust and indentures, money sufficient for debt service and reserves for the security and orderly payment of such bonds or notes, unless otherwise deemed necessary by the governing body of the city in order to maintain the level and quality of service desired. Except as may be otherwise permitted under the ordinance authorizing or the deed of trust or indenture securing the bonds or notes, no part of the revenues of any such system shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expense, or obligation of such city, except that any such city may receive payments from any such system in lieu of ad valorem taxes previously paid by the owners of an acquired system until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid.

Obligations as Legal Investments

Sec. 9. All such bonds and notes shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust com-paies, building and loan associations, saving and loan associations and insurance companies. Such bonds and notes shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and such bonds and notes shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of the principal amount thereof, or their value on the market, whichever is the lesser, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.
Art. 118w

CITIES, TOWNS, AND VILLAGES

Records and Accounts: Annual Reports: Penalties

Sec. 10. It shall be the duty of the mayor of such city to install and maintain or cause to be installed and maintained, a complete system of records and accounts showing the revenues collected and showing separately the amount either expended or set aside for operation, salaries, labor, materials, repairs, maintenance, depreciation, replacements, extensions, and for debt service as to such bonds or notes. It shall likewise by the duty of the superintendent or manager of such system to file with the mayor of such city, not later than February 1st, a detailed report of the operations for the year ending January 1st preceding, showing the total sums of money collected and the balance due, as well as the total disbursements made and the amounts remaining unpaid as the result of operation of such system during such calendar year. Failure or refusal on the part of the mayor to install and maintain, or to cause to be installed and maintained, such system or records and accounts within ninety (90) days after the completion of such system, or on the part of such superintendent or manager, to file or cause to be filed such report, shall constitute a misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof, such mayor or superintendent or manager shall be subject to a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000); and any taxpayer or holder of such indebtedness residing within such city shall have the right, by appropriate civil action in the District Court of the County in which such city is located, to enforce the provisions of this Act.

Management: Lease of System

Sec. 11. During the time any such system is encumbered either as to its revenues or as to both its physical properties and revenues, or whether or not such system is encumbered during any period established by ordinance of the governing body of such city, the management and control of such system may by the terms of the instrument evidencing such encumbrance or by the terms of such ordinance, be placed with the governing body of such city, or may be placed with a board of trustees to be named in such instrument or such ordinance, consisting of not less than three (3) nor more than nine (9) members, one (1) of whom shall be the mayor of such city. The compensation of such trustees shall be fixed by such instrument or such ordinance, but shall never exceed two per cent (2%) of the gross receipts of such system in any one (1) year. The terms of office of such board of trustees, their powers and duties, the manner of exercising same, the election of their successors, and all matters pertaining to their organization and duties may be specified in such instrument or such ordinance. In all matters where such instrument or such ordinance is silent, the laws and rules controlling the governing body of such city shall govern said board of trustees so far as applicable. The governing body of any such city or any board of trustees in whose management and control any such system may be placed, with the approval of the governing body of such city, evidenced by adoption of a resolution, in lieu of operating any such system, shall have power and authority to enter into any lease or other contractual arrangement for the operation of the same by any privately owned and operated corporation in consideration of such rentals either guaranteed or contingent, based on revenues or gross profits or net profits, or any other basis of compensation, which may be determined to be reasonable by such governing body or such board as the case may be; providing however, that any such lease or contractual arrangement between such city and private corporation, shall be preceded by a public notice and request for the submission of bids in the manner required by law for the taking of bids for public construction contracts, and said city shall accept the best bid submitted, taking into consideration the rental to be paid, the experience and financial responsibility of the corporations submitting such bids.

Art. 118x. Metropolitan Rapid Transit Authorities

Findings

Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:
(a) A dominant part of the state's population is located in its rapidly expanding metropolitan areas which generally cross the boundary lines of local jurisdictions and often extend into two or more counties;
(b) The concentration of population in such areas is accompanied by a corresponding concentration of motor vehicles which are generally powered by internal combustion engines that emit pollutants into the air, which emissions result in increasing dangers to the public health and welfare, including damage to and deterioration of property as well as harm to persons, and hazards to air and ground transportation;
(c) Such concentration of motor vehicles places an undue burden on existing streets, freeways and other traffic ways, resulting in serious vehicular traffic congestion that retards mobility of persons and property and adversely affects the health and welfare of the citizens and the economic life of the areas;
(d) The proliferation of the use of motor vehicles for passenger transportation in such areas is caused in substantial part by the presence or inefficiency and high cost of mass transit services available to the citizens of such areas, and it is in the public interest to encourage and provide for efficient and economical local mass rapid transit systems in such areas for the benefit and convenience of the people and for the purpose of improving the quality of the ambient air therein and reducing vehicular traffic congestion; and

(e) The inalienable right of all natural persons to use the air for natural purposes does not vest in any person the right to pollute the air by artificial means, but such artificial use is subject to regulation and control by the state.

Definitions
Sec. 2. The following words and terms, wherever used and referred to in this Act, have the following respective meanings, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(a) “Metropolitan area” means any area within the State of Texas having a population density of not less than 250 persons per square mile and containing not less than 51 percent of the incorporated territory comprising a city having a population of at least 280,000 inhabitants according to the last preceding or any future federal census, and in which there may be situated other incorporated cities, towns and villages and the suburban areas and environs thereof; provided, however, that bi-county metropolitan areas as subsequently defined herein, are not included or in any way affected by this Act.

(b) “Principal city” means the city of largest population in a metropolitan area.

(c) “Authority” means a rapid transit authority created pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

(d) “Board” means the governing body of an authority.

(e) “Mass transit” means transportation of passengers and hand carried packages and/or baggage of said passengers by means of motorbus, trolley coach, street railway, rail, suspended overhead rail, elevated railways, subways, or any other surface, overhead or underground transportation (except taxis), or by any combination of the foregoing.

(f) “System” means all real and personal property of every kind and nature whatsoever, owned or held at any time by an authority for mass transit purposes, including (without limiting the generality of the foregoing), land, interests in land, buildings, structures, rights-of-way, easements, franchises, rail lines, bus lines, stations, platforms, terminals, rolling stock, garages, shops, equipment and facilities (including vehicle parking areas and facilities and other facilities necessary or convenient for the beneficial use and access of persons and vehicles to stations, terminals, yards, cars, and buses), control houses, signals and land, facilities and equipment for the protection and environmental enhancement of all such facilities.

(g) “Motor vehicle” means a vehicle self-propelled on two or more wheels by an internal combustion engine or motor over roadways other than fixed rails and tracks.

Creation of Rapid Transit Authority
Sec. 3. (a) The governing body of a principal city in a metropolitan area may, on its own motion, shall, as provided in Subsection (b) of this section, and shall, upon being presented with a petition requesting signed by not less than 5,000 qualified voters residing within such metropolitan area, institute proceedings to create a rapid transit authority in the manner prescribed in this section.

(b) Such governing body shall by ordinance or resolution fix a time before December 31, 1985, and a place for holding a public hearing on the question of creating an authority. The governing body also shall by ordinance or resolution, after receipt of a petition as provided in Subsection (a) of this section, and may, on its own motion, fix a time and place for holding a public hearing on a proposal to create an authority. The ordinance or resolution shall define the boundaries of the area proposed to be included in such authority. The initial territory included in an authority shall be all the territory included in the county in which the major portion of the principal city is situated, plus any additional territory that is an adjacent county and is included in the ordinance or resolution.

(c) Notice of the time and place of such public hearing, including a description of the area proposed to be included in such authority, shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in such metropolitan area, the first publication to be not less than 15 days prior to the date fixed for such hearing. The governing body of any principal city shall furnish to the Texas Mass Transportation Commission or any successor thereof, a copy of the notice described herein.

(d) The governing body of the principal city shall conduct said hearing at the time and place specified in such notice, and may continue such hearing from day to day and from time to time until completed. Any interested person may appear and offer evidence for or against the creation of the proposed authority, and may present evidence as to whether or not the creation of such proposed authority and the construction and operation of a mass transit system in such metropolitan area (1) would be of benefit to persons and property situated within the boundaries of the proposed authority, (2) would be of public utility, and (3) would be in the public interest, as well as any other facts bearing upon the creation of such an authority and the construction and operation of such system.

(e) If, after hearing the evidence adduced at such hearing, the governing body of the principal city finds that the creation of such an authority, and the operation of such a system, would be of benefit to persons and property situated within the boundaries of the proposed authority, would be of public utility, and would be in the public interest, such governing body shall adopt an ordinance creating the authority and prescribing the territory to be included, but the actual territory included in the authority is subject to the results of the election provided for in this Act. The authority shall bear a name to be designated in the ordinance creating the authority and when so created and confirmed at an election held for that purpose, shall have and may exercise the powers authorized by this Act.

(f) After such hearing by the governing body of the principal city, it shall submit the proposed plan to the governor's interagency transportation council for their review and comment.

Transit Authority Board

Sec. 4. (a)(1) Until such time as the composition of the board is changed in accordance with other provisions of this Act, the management, control, and operation of an authority and its properties shall be vested in a board composed of five members, who shall be appointed by the governing body of the principal city and shall serve for a term of two years.

(2) In metropolitan areas where the principal city's population exceeds 1,200,000 according to the last preceding federal census or any federal census hereafter, the management, control, and operation of an authority and its properties shall be vested in a board composed of seven members, five of whom shall be appointed by the mayor of the principal city and one of whom shall be appointed by the commissioners court of the county of the principal city, one of whom shall be appointed by the governing body of the principal city, one of whom shall be appointed by the mayors of all incorporated municipalities within the county of the principal city except the principal city. Each member shall serve a term of two years. Upon confirmation, the board's composition shall remain the same except to the extent that it conflicts with the requirements of Section 6B of this Act. Until a confirmation and tax election are held, the principal city shall fund the board for purposes of research and planning.

(b) All vacancies on the board, whether by death or resignation shall be filled for the remainder of the term in the manner provided for the original appointment. On expiration of the terms of office of the members of the board, all or any may be reappointed or another person may be appointed to replace a member for the succeeding term.

(c) Each member of the board shall be reimbursed for his necessary and reasonable expenses incurred in the discharge of his duties. Each member of a board in a metropolitan area in which the principal city's population exceeds 600,000, according to the most recent federal census, is entitled to $50 for each meeting of the board attended, not to exceed five meetings in a calendar month. The principal city shall pay, from taxes or other funds, the sums provided by this subsection for attendance at meetings held before the authority has received any revenues, and shall reimburse members for necessary and reasonable expenses incurred by the members or the board prior to receipt of revenues by the authority, but the authority, after receiving revenues, shall reimburse the principal city for all payments and reimbursements made as provided in this subsection.

(d) The members of the board, who shall be resident citizens and qualified voters of the authority, shall elect from among their number a chairman, a vice-chairman and a secretary, except that if the board is constituted in the manner provided in Sub-section (c) of Section 6B of this Act, the chairman shall be selected as specified in that subsection. The board may appoint such assistant secretaries, either members or nonmembers of the board, as it deems necessary. The secretary and assistant secretaries shall, in addition to keeping the permanent records of all proceedings and transactions of the authority, perform such other duties as may be assigned to them by the board. No member of the board or officer of the authority shall be pecuniarily interested or benefitted, directly or indirectly, in any contract or agreement to which the authority is a party.

(e)(1) Any member of the board may be removed from office by a majority vote of the remaining members of the board for inefficiency, neglect of duty or malfeasance in office; provided, however, that the board shall furnish to such member a statement in writing of the nature of the charges as grounds for such removal, and the member, before the 11th day after receipt of the statement may request a hearing before the board and opportunity to be heard in person or through counsel. After any such hearing, if the board by a majority vote finds that the charges are true, it shall confirm its decision to remove the member.

(2) In addition to the method of removal of board members provided by Subsection (e)(1) of this section, board members of an authority whose principal city has a population of more than 1,200,000, according to the most recent federal census, are subject to removal by the recall procedure provided by subsection (e)(2).

(f) The qualified voters of the authority by petition may require that an election be held to determine whether a member of the board is to be removed from office. A petition is valid if it states that it is intended to require an election in the authority on the question of removing an identified board member, if it is signed by qualified voters equal in number to at least 10 percent of the number of registered voters of the authority according to the most recent official list of registered voters, if the signatures are collected within a period of 90 days prior to the date on which the petition is presented to the board, and if it is submitted to the board before the first day of the final six months of the term of the member whose removal is sought.
(ii) After receiving a petition, the board shall submit it to the secretary of state, who, not later than the 10th day after the day he or she receives the petition, shall determine whether or not the petition is valid and shall notify the board of the finding. If the secretary of state fails to act within the time allowed, the petition is treated as if it had been found valid.

(iii) If the board receives notice from the secretary of state that the petition is valid or if the secretary of state has failed to act within the time allowed, the board shall order that an election be held in the authority on a date not fewer than 25 nor more than 35 days after the last day on which the petition could have been approved or disapproved. A state law requiring local elections to be held on a specified date does not apply to the election unless a specified date falls within the time permitted by this section. At the election, the ballots shall be prepared to permit voting for or against the proposition: "The removal of (name of officer) from the rapid transit authority board by recall."

(iv) If a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question in the election favor the proposition, the member is removed, and the office immediately becomes vacant. The appointing authority that appointed the member removed by recall shall fill the vacancy not later than the 30th day after the day of removal.

(v) A member removed by recall is not eligible for reappointment to fill the vacancy and is not eligible for appointment to any other position on the board for a length of time after the day of removal equal to the length of a normal term of a member of the board.

(f) The board shall hold at least one regular meeting during each month for the purpose of transacting the business of the authority. Upon written notice, the chairman or the general manager may call special meetings as may be necessary. The board, when organized, shall by resolution spread upon the minutes, set the time, place and day of the regular meetings, and shall likewise adopt rules and regulations and such bylaws as it may deem necessary for the conduct of its official meetings. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum of the board for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers and action may be taken by the authority upon a vote of a majority of the board members present unless the bylaws require a larger number for a particular action.

(g) The board shall notice and hold its meetings pursuant to Chapter 271, Acts of the 80th Legislature, Regular Session, 1987, as amended (Article 6232-17, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), except that the board shall have notices of its meetings posted on a bulletin board located at a place convenient to the public at its administrative offices and a bulletin board located at a place convenient to the public at the county courthouse of the most populous county in which the principal city is located.

Confirmation and Tax Election

Sec. 5. (a) After the original board is organized, at such time as it deems implementation of the authority to be feasible, it shall call a confirmation and tax election in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(b) Before ordering an election the board shall by order entered in its minutes determine the nature and rate of any tax that it desires to levy.

(c) Before ordering an election, the board shall notify the commissioners court of each county included in whole or part within the initial territory of the authority of its intention to do so. Within 30 days after receipt of the notice, each commissioners court by order shall create not more than five designated election areas in the unincorporated portion of the appropriate county. Each designated election area's outer boundaries, to the extent practicable, shall coincide with a boundary of a county voting precinct so that insofar as practicable no county voting precinct is divided between two different designated election areas. The total area of all designated election areas shall include all of the unincorporated area within the initial territory of the authority.

(d) When the board orders a confirmation and tax election, it shall submit to the qualified voters within the authority the following proposition:

"Shall the creation of (name of authority) be confirmed and shall the levy of the proposed tax be authorized?"

(e) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, notice of the election shall be given in accordance with the general election laws. The notice of the election shall include a description of the nature and rate of the proposed tax. A copy of the notice of the election and any other election held under the provisions of this Act shall be furnished to the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation or its successor and to the comptroller of public accounts.

(f) The election shall be conducted so that votes are separately tabulated and canvassed and that the result is declared in separate units of election within the authority, as follows:

1. The portion of the principal city inside the initial limits of the authority plus any incorporated cities or towns which are wholly located within the perimeter of the outer boundary of the principal city constitutes a unit of election;

2. Each designated election area created by a commissioners court constitutes a unit of election;

3. Every other incorporated city or town wholly located within the initial limits of the authority shall constitute a unit of election.
Art. 1118x

(g) Immediately after the election, the presiding judge of each election precinct shall return the results to the board, which shall canvass the returns and declare the results separately with respect to each unit of election. In those units of election where a majority of the votes cast is in favor of the confirmation of the creation of the authority and the levy of the proposed tax, the authority shall continue to exist and be comprised of those units. In those units of election where a majority of the votes cast is against the confirmation of the creation of the authority and the levy of the proposed tax, the authority shall cease to exist. Unless the vote is favorable in the unit of election which includes the principal city, the authority shall cease to exist in its entirety. If the votes cast are such that the authority will continue to exist, the board shall enter the results on its minutes and adopt an order declaring that the creation of the authority is confirmed and describing the territory which comprises the authority. A certified copy of the order shall be filed with the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation or its successor, and with the comptroller of public accounts, and in the deed records of each county in which the authority is located. The order shall include the date of the election, the proposition voted on, the number of votes cast for and against the proposition in each election unit, and the number of votes by which the proposition was approved in each election unit in which it was approved and shall be accompanied by a map of the authority clearly showing the boundaries of the authority.

(b) If the votes cast at the confirmation and tax election are such that the authority ceases to exist in its entirety, the board shall enter the order so declaring and file a certified copy of the order with the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation or its successor and with the comptroller of public accounts, and in the deed records of each county in which the authority is located. The order shall include the date of the election, the proposition voted on, the number of votes cast for and against the proposition in each election unit, and the number of votes by which the proposition was approved in each election unit in which it was approved and shall be accompanied by a map of the authority clearly showing the boundaries of the authority.

(i) The cost of the confirmation and tax election shall be paid by the principal city.

(j) If the election results in the confirmation of an authority, the authority shall, within the limits confirmed, be authorized to function in accordance with the terms of this Act, and the board may levy and collect the proposed tax within those limits.

(k) If the continued existence of an authority is not confirmed by election within three years after the effective date of the ordinance creating the authority, the authority ceases to exist on the expiration of the three years.

Election Contest

Sec. 5A. (a) If the validity of any election held under authority of this Act or the result of the election based on the returns thereof shall be contested, the election contest shall be filed and tried as provided in the Election Code of the State of Texas; provided that the contestant shall notify the comptroller of public accounts by United States registered mail or certified mail within 10 days after filing the contest by mailing a copy of such notice of contest to the comptroller showing the style of the contest, the date filed, the case number, and the court in which the same is pending; and provided further that no such contest shall be heard unless the comptroller is timely notified as provided in this subsection.

(b) Upon receipt of a notice of contest, the date upon which such local sales and use tax shall become effective in any authority as a result of the election shall be suspended. When a final judgment shall be entered in the election in the election contest, the presiding officer of the board shall notify the comptroller by United States registered mail or certified mail and shall enclose a certified copy of the final judgment. If the judgment sustains the validity of the election or the result of the election so that the local sales and use tax status under this Act of the authority is changed, the comptroller shall place in effect the tax in the authority, substituting the notice of final judgment and the date on which it is received for the notice of the result of the election. This section applies only to elections held and election contests filed after the effective date of this Act.

1So in enrolled bill.

Effective Date—Local Sales and Use Tax

Sec. 5B. Upon actual receipt by the comptroller of public accounts of notification of adoption of a local sales and use tax containing the information required by Subsection (g) of Section 5, there shall elapse one whole calendar quarter prior to the adoption of a local sales and use tax becoming effective. Thereafter, the adoption shall be effective beginning on the first day of the next calendar quarter following the elapsed calendar quarter.

Powers of the Authority

Sec. 6. (a) The authority, when created and confirmed, shall constitute a public body corporate and politic, exercising public and essential governmental functions, having all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this Act, including, but not limited to, the following powers granted in this section.

(b) The authority shall have perpetual succession.

(c) The authority may sue and be sued in all courts of competent jurisdiction and may institute and prosecute suits without giving supersedeas or cost bond.

(d) The authority may acquire by grant, purchase, gift, devise, lease, or otherwise, and may hold, use, sell, lease or dispose of, real and personal property of every kind and nature whatsoever, and licenses, patents, rights and interests necessary, convenient or useful for the full exercise of any of its powers pursuant to the provisions of this Act. Before an authority acquires an interest in real property for more than $20,000, the board of the authority shall cause the property to be appraised by two appraisers working independently of each other.

(e) The authority shall have the power to acquire, construct, complete, develop, own, operate and maintain a system or systems within its boundaries, and both within and without the boundaries of incorporated cities, towns and villages and political subdivisions, and for such purposes shall have the right to use the streets, alleys, roads, highways and other public ways and to relocate, raise, reroute, change the grade of, and alter the construction of, any street, alley, highway, road, railroad, electric lines and facilities, telegraph and telephone properties and facilities, pipelines and facilities, conduits and facilities, and other properties, whether publicly or privately owned, as necessary or useful in the construction, reconstruction, repair, maintenance and operation of the system, or to cause each and all of said things to be done at the authority's sole expense. The authority shall not proceed with any action to change, alter or damage the property or facilities of the state, its municipal corporations, agencies or political subdivisions or of owners rendering public services, or which shall disrupt such services being provided by others, or to otherwise inconvenience the owners of such property or facilities, without having first obtained the written consent of such owners or unless the authority shall have first obtained the right to take such action under its power of eminent domain as herein specified. In the event the owners of such property or facilities desire to handle any such relocation, raising, change in the grade of, or alteration in the construction of such property or facilities with their own forces, or to cause the same to be done by contractors of their own choosing, the authority shall have the power to enter into agreements with such owners providing for the necessary relocations, changes or alterations of such property or facilities by the owners and/or such contractors and the reimbursement by the authority to such owners of the costs incurred by such owners in making such relocations, changes or alterations and/or in causing the same to be accomplished by such contractors.

(f) In the event the authority, in exercising any of the powers conferred by this Act, makes necessary the relocation, adjustment, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of or altering the construction of any street, alley, highway, overpass, underpass, or road, any railroad track, bridge or other facilities or properties, any electric lines, conduits or other facilities or properties, any telephone or telegraph lines, conduits or other facilities or properties, any gas transmission or distribution pipes, pipelines, mains or other facilities or properties, any water, sanitary sewer or storm sewer pipes, pipelines, mains or other facilities or properties, any cable television lines, cables, conduits or other facilities or properties, or any other pipelines and any facilities or properties relating thereto, any and all such relocations, adjustments, raising, lowering, rerouting or changing of grade or altering of construction shall be accomplished at the sole cost and expense of the authority, and all damages which may be suffered by the owners of such property or facilities shall be borne by the authority.

(g) The authority shall have the right of eminent domain to acquire lands in fee simple and any interest less than fee simple in, on, under and above lands, including, without limitation, easements, rights-of-way, rights of use of air space or subsurface space, or any combination thereof, provided that such right shall not be exercised in a manner which would unduly interfere with interstate commerce or which would authorize the authority to run its vehicles on railroad tracks which are used to transport property.

(h) Eminent domain proceedings brought by the authority shall be governed by the provisions of Title 52, Eminent Domain, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as they now exist or hereafter may be amended, insofar as such provisions are not inconsistent with this Act. Proceedings for the exercise of the power of eminent domain shall be commenced by the adoption of a resolution declaring the public necessity for the acquisition by the authority of the property or interest therein described in the resolution, and that such acquisition is necessary and proper for the construction, extension, improvement or development of the system and is in the public interest. The resolution of the authority shall be conclusive evidence of the public necessity of such proposed acquisition and that such real or personal property or interest therein is necessary for public use. At least 30 days before adopting a resolution under this subsection, however, a board shall hold a public hearing on the question of acquisition of the property or interest for which eminent domain proceedings are being considered. The board shall hold the hearing at a place convenient to residents of the area in which the property is located. The board shall cause notice of the hearing to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the property is located at least once each week for two weeks before the date of the hearing.

(i) The authority shall have the power to enter into agreements with any other public utility, private utility, communication system, common carrier, or transportation system for the joint use of their respective facilities, installations and properties of whatever kind and character within the authority and to establish through routes, joint fares or transfer of passengers.

(j) The authority shall establish and maintain rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents or other compensation for the use of the facilities of the system acquired, constructed, operated or maintained by the authority which shall be reasonable and nondis-
Art. 1118x  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

criminatory and which, together with receipts from taxes collected by the authority, shall be sufficient to produce revenues adequate:

(1) to pay all expenses necessary to the operation and maintenance of the properties and facilities of the authority;

(2) to pay the interest on and principal of all bonds issued by the authority under this Act which are payable in whole or in part from such revenues, when and as the same shall become due and payable;

(3) to pay all sinking fund and reserve fund payments agreed to be made in respect of any such bonds, and payable out of such taxes and revenues, when and as the same shall become due and payable; and

(4) to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of such bonds or with any person in their behalf.

(k) It is the intention of this Act that taxes levied and the rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents and other compensation for the use of the facilities of the system shall not be in excess of what may be necessary to fulfill the obligations imposed upon the authority by this Act. Nothing herein shall be construed as depriving the State of Texas of its power to regulate and control such taxes, rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents and other compensation, provided that the State of Texas does hereby pledge to and agree with the purchasers and successive holders of the bonds issued hereunder that the state will not limit or alter the powers hereby vested in the authority to establish and collect such taxes, rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents and other compensation as will produce revenues sufficient to pay the items specified in Subdivisions (1), (2), (3) and (4), Subsection (j) of this subsection, or in any way to impair the rights or remedies of the holders of the bonds, or of any person in their behalf, until the bonds, together with the interest thereon, are payable in whole or in part from such revenues, the same when and as the same shall become due and payable.

(l) The authority may make contracts, leases and agreements with, and accept grants and loans from, the United States of America, its departments and agencies, the State of Texas, its agencies, counties, municipalities and political subdivisions, and public or private corporations and persons, and may generally perform all acts necessary for the full exercise of the powers vested in it. The authority may acquire rolling stock or other property under conditional sales contracts, leases, equipment trust certificates, or any other form of contract or trust agreement. Any revenue bond indenture may provide limitations upon the exercise of the powers stated in this section and such limitations shall apply so long as any of the revenue bonds issued pursuant to such indenture are outstanding and unpaid.

(m) The authority may sell, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of any of its rights, interests or properties which are not needed for, or, in the case of leases, which are not inconsistent with, the efficient operation and maintenance of the system. It may sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of, at any time, any surplus materials or personal or real property not needed for its requirements or for the purpose of carrying out its power under this Act.

(n) The authority shall by resolution make all rules and regulations governing the use, operation and maintenance of the system and shall determine all routings and change the same whenever it is deemed advisable by the authority.

(o) The authority shall have power to lease the system or any part thereof to, or contract for the use or operation of the system or any part thereof by, any operator; provided, however, that a lease of the entire system shall be subject to the written consent and approval of the governing body of the principal city.

(q) The authority may contract with any city, county, or other political subdivision for the authority to provide public transportation services to any area outside the boundaries of the authority on such terms and conditions as may be agreed to by the parties.

1 Article 3264 et seq.

Addition of Territory

Sec. 6A. (a) Territory may be added to an authority only according to the provisions of this section.

(b) The governing body of any incorporated city or town located in whole or in part within a county in which the authority is situated may hold an election on the question of whether the city or town shall be annexed to the authority. If a majority of the qualified voters in the city or town votes for annexation, the governing body shall certify the results of the election to the board of the authority, and the city or town shall become a part of the authority, except as provided in Subsection (f) of this section.

(c) The commissioners court of a county in which the authority is situated in whole or in part that is adjacent to a county in which the authority is situated in whole or in part may hold an election in any one or more of the designated election areas, formed for the election by order of the commissioners court, on the question of whether the area in which the election is held shall be annexed to the authority. The boundaries of a designated election area shall coincide, to the extent practicable, with a boundary of a county voting precinct, so that insofar as practicable no county voting precinct is divided. If a majority of the qualified voters in any area where such an election is held votes in favor of annexation, the commissioners court shall certify the results of the election to the board of the authority, and the area shall become a part of the authority, except as provided in Subsection (f) of this section.

(e)(1) At the time territory is added to an authority under the provisions of this section, any tax other than a local sales and use tax which the board of the authority has already been authorized to levy applies to the added territory.

(2) If an authority in which a local sales and use tax has been imposed changes or alters its boundaries, the presiding officer of the board shall forward to the comptroller of public accounts by United States registered mail or certified mail a certified copy of the order adding territory to the authority or of the order canvassing the returns and declaring the result of the election. The order shall reflect the effective date of the tax and shall be accompanied by a map of the authority clearly showing the territory added or detached. Upon receipt of the order and map, the tax imposed by Section 11B of this Act shall be effective in the added territory on the first day of the next succeeding quarter. However, if the comptroller notifies the presiding officer of the board in writing within 10 days after receipt of the order and map that he requires more time, the comptroller shall be entitled to delay implementation one whole calendar quarter. Thereafter, the tax shall be effective in the added territory on the first day of the next calendar quarter following the elapsed quarter.

(f) Territory in which an election is held as provided in Subsections (b) or (c) of this section becomes a part of the authority on the 31st day after the election, if the voters approve the addition as provided in Subsections (b) or (c), and unless the board of the authority notifies the appropriate governing body in writing before that date that the addition, because it is not contiguous to the existing authority, would create a fiscal hardship on the authority.

Composition of the Board

Sec. 6B. (a) If less than 50 percent of that part of the population of the county (the county in which not less than 51 percent of the incorporated area of the principal city is situated) which is outside the corporate limits of the principal city resides within the limits of the authority, the board of the authority shall consist of the original five members or their successors plus one additional member to be appointed jointly by the mayors of all incorporated municipalities except the principal city within the authority as confirmed, and one other additional member to be appointed by the commissioners court of the county described in this subsection.

(b) If more than 50 percent but less than 75 percent of the population of the county described in Subsection (a) of this section outside the corporate limits of the principal city resides within the limits of the authority, the board of the authority consists of the original five members or their successors, plus two additional members to be appointed jointly by the mayors of all incorporated municipalities except the principal city, located within the authority, and two other members appointed by the commissioners court of the county. Population figures shall be computed on the basis of the last preceding United States census.

(c) If 75 percent or more of the population of the county described in Subsection (a) of this section outside the corporate limits of the principal city resides within the limits of the authority, the board consists of 11 members, including the original five members or their successors, two additional members appointed jointly by the mayors of all incorporated municipalities except the principal city located within the authority, three other additional members appointed by the commissioners court of the county, and one member, who serves as chairman, who is appointed by the other ten members.

(d) When this Act requires that the mayors of municipalities except the principal city appoint a member of the board, the mayor of the municipality of greatest population among the municipalities shall serve as chairman of an appointment board composed of the mayors of all appropriate municipalities and shall, by notice in writing to all members, call meetings of the appointment board as necessary to make the appointments. Appointments shall be made within 60 days after a position comes into existence or becomes vacant. If the boundaries of the authority at any time include unincorporated areas of a county other than the county described in Subsection (a) of this section, the county judge of the appropriate county is entitled to serve on the appointment board, with powers equal to the other members of the board, as if the unincorporated area of the county were a municipality and the county judge of that county were the mayor of the municipality.

(e) The terms of office of any members of the board appointed after the confirmation and tax election and after the effective date of this Act are four years, except that in order to provide staggered terms, the terms of office of one-half of the first members appointed by an appointing agency after the effective date of this Act, if an even number is to be appointed by an agency, and a bare majority of the first members appointed by the agency, if an odd number greater than one is to be appointed by an agency, are two years. In addition, the appointing agency may shorten the initial terms to make the expiration dates coincide with those of the previously existing positions. To be eligible for appointment to the board, a person must be a qualified voter residing within the boundaries of the authority. No member of the board may serve more than two consecutive four-year terms.

(f) Vacancies on the board are filled by appointment by the same agency that made the original appointments for the vacant positions. Each member of the board whose term expires shall continue to serve until his successor has been appointed.

(g) In the event the membership of the board must be increased under the provisions of this section, the board as previously constituted may continue to act as the governing board of the authority until the additional members have been appointed and seated.

Station or Terminal Complexes

Sec. 6C. (a) The acquisition of any land or any interest in land pursuant to this Act; the planning, acquisition, establishment, development, construction, improvement, maintenance, equipment, operation, regulation, protection, and policing of the authority's system and facilities; and the exercise of any other powers granted an authority, including without limitation the rights, powers, and authority relating to station or terminal complexes as provided in this section, are declared to be public and governmental functions, exercised for a public purpose, and matters of public necessity for public use and public benefit.

(b) The authority shall have the right, power, and authority to acquire by grant, purchase, gift, devise, lease, or eminent domain proceedings and to own lands in fee simple and any interest less than fee simple in, on, under, and above lands, including, without limitation, easements, rights-of-way, rights of use of air space or subsurface space or any combination thereof, adjacent or accessible to stations and other mass transit facilities, developed or to be developed by the authority, that may be required for or in aid of the development of one or more station or terminal complexes, as part of its mass transit system and may sell, lease, or otherwise transfer the same, or any part thereof, to individuals, corporations, or governmental entities, subject to the restrictions provided in this section.

(d) Any station or terminal complex shall include adequate provisions for the transfer of passengers between the various modes of transportation available to the complex. A complex may include provisions for commercial, residential, recreational, institutional, and industrial facilities, except that no land or interest in land that is more than 1,500 feet in distance from the center point of the complex or that has not been included in a master plan of development adopted by the board may be acquired for the facilities. Land or an interest in land more than 1,500 feet in distance from the center point of the complex may not be acquired by eminent domain proceedings, and the board shall designate the center point prior to the commencement of eminent domain proceedings. If a proposed station or terminal complex is to be located within the city limits or extraterritorial jurisdiction of a city or town, the governing body of the city or town must approve the location of the complex as to conformity with the comprehensive or general plan of the city or town by motion, resolution, or ordinance duly adopted.

(e) The authority may sell, lease, or otherwise transfer lands or interests in land acquired within a station or terminal complex, and may enter into contracts with respect to it, in accordance with the comprehensive transit plan approved by the board, subject to such covenants, conditions, and restrictions, including covenants running with the land and obligations to commence construction within a specified time, as the board may deem to be in the public interest or necessary to carry out the purposes of this section, all of which shall be incorporated into the instrument transferring or conveying title or right of use. Any lease, sale, or transfer shall be at fair value, taking into account the use designated for the land in the comprehensive transit plan for the system and the restrictions on, and the covenants, conditions, and obligations assumed by, the purchaser, lessee, or transferee. However, if the authority offers the property for sale, the original owner from whom the property was acquired by eminent domain proceedings or through threat of eminent domain proceedings has the first right to repurchase at the price at which it is offered to the public.

(f) No station or mass transit facility may be considered a "station or terminal complex" governed by this section unless it has been designated as such in the comprehensive transit plan pursuant to the specific authority granted by this section.
Withdrawal From an Authority

Sec. 6D. (a) The governing body of an incorporated city or town that is included within the territory of an authority and that has a population more than 90 percent of which resides outside the county in which the majority of the population of the principal city resides may on any date from April 1, 1980, to September 1, 1980, hold an election on the question of whether the city or town shall withdraw from the authority. If a majority of the qualified voters in the city or town voting on the question votes to withdraw from the authority, the governing body shall certify the results of the election to the board of the authority, and the city or town shall withdraw from the authority.

(b) The board shall enter the results on its minutes and adopt an order declaring the withdrawal of the city or town. A certified copy of the order shall be filed with the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation or its successor and the comptroller of public accounts and in the deed records of each county in which the authority is located. The order shall reflect the date of the election, the proposition voted on, the total number of votes cast for and against the proposition in each election unit, the number of votes by which the proposition was approved in each election unit and shall be accompanied by a map of the authority clearly showing the boundaries of the authority.

(c) Upon actual receipt of the comptroller of public accounts of notification of the withdrawal of a city or town, there shall elapse one whole calendar quarter prior to the withdrawal becoming effective. Thereafter, the withdrawal shall be effective beginning on the first day of the next calendar quarter following the elapsed calendar quarter.

Local Government Approval Committee

Sec. 6E. The rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents, and other compensation established by an authority in a metropolitan area whose principal city has a population of less than 1,200,000, according to the most recent federal census, may not take effect until they are approved by a majority vote of a committee composed of:

(a) five members of the city council of the principal city who are chosen for this committee by the members of that body;

(b) three members of the commissioners court of the county that includes the largest portion of the incorporated area of the principal city, who are chosen for this committee by the members of that court;

(c) three mayors of incorporated municipalities, except the principal city, located within the authority who are chosen for this committee jointly by the mayors of all incorporated municipalities, except the principal city, located within the authority.

Bonds and Notes

Sec. 7. (a) The authority shall have no power to assess, levy or collect any ad valorem taxes on property, nor to issue any bonds or notes secured by ad valorem tax revenues. The authority, however, shall have the full power to issue bonds and notes, from time to time and in such amounts as it shall consider necessary or appropriate, for the acquisition, purchase, construction, reconstruction, repair, equipping, improvement or extension of such rapid transit system or systems and all properties thereof whether real, personal or mixed. All such bonds and notes shall be fully negotiable and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the issuing authority, at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the issuing authority in the resolution authorizing such bonds or notes, and may be sold at public or private sale whichever the board may deem more advantageous.

(b) Prior to delivery thereof, all bonds and notes authorized to be issued hereunder and the records relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for examination, and if he finds that they have been issued in accordance with the constitution and this Act, and that they will be binding obligations of the authority issuing same, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and after such approval and registration and the sale and delivery of the bonds to the purchaser, they shall be incontestable.

(c) In order to secure the payment of such bonds or notes, such authority shall have full power and authority to encumber and pledge all or any part of the revenue realized from any tax which the authority is authorized to levy, and all or any part of the revenues of its rapid transit system or systems, and to mortgage and encumber all or any part of the properties thereof, and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired and to prescribe the terms and provisions of such bonds and notes in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. If not prohibited by the resolution or indenture relating to outstanding bonds or notes, any such authority shall have full power and authority to encumber separately any item or items of real estate or personalty, including motorbuses, transit cars and other vehicles, machinery and other equipment of any nature, and to acquire, use, hold or contract for any such property under any lease arrangement, chattel mortgage or conditional sale, including, but not limited to, transactions commonly known as equipment trust transactions. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting any such authority from encumbering any one or more rapid transit systems for the purpose of purchasing, building, constructing, enlarging, extending, repairing or reconstructing, another one or more of said systems and purchasing necessary property, both real, personal and mixed, in connection therewith.
(d) Refunding bonds or notes may be issued for the purposes and in the manner provided by general law, including, without limitation, Chapter 503, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, as amended (Article 717k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and Chapter 784, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969 (Article 717k-3, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as presently enacted or hereafter amended.

(e) Whenever the revenues of any rapid transit system shall be encumbered under this Act, the expense of operation and maintenance, including all salaries, labor, materials and repairs necessary to render efficient service and every proper item of expense shall always be a first lien and charge against such revenues. The fares charged for transportation of passengers by any rapid transit system may be based on a zone system of determining fares or other fare classification determined by such authority to be reasonable.

(f) All such bonds and notes shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations and insurance companies. Such bonds and notes shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and such bonds and notes shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of the principal amount thereof, or their value on the market, whichever is the lesser, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

(g) If revenue bonds are to be issued by an authority to acquire any existing transportation system, or any part thereof, and the owner thereof is willing to accept said revenue bonds in lieu of cash, then in that event the revenue bonds may be exchanged for the property or for the stock of a corporation owning the property to be dissolved simultaneously.

(h) Bonds payable solely from revenues may be issued by resolution of the board, but no bonds, except refunding bonds, payable wholly or partially from taxes, may be issued until authorized by a majority vote of the qualified voters of the authority voting in an election called and held for that purpose.

(i) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 7, the authority, acting by board order or resolution, has the power to issue short-term bonds or notes secured by revenues or taxes for any purpose; provided that the repayment of the bonds or notes must be satisfied out of revenues or taxes received during the period from the date of issuance to the last day of the fiscal year in which the bonds or notes are issued. Any such short-term bonds or notes need not be approved by the Attorney General of Texas nor registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas.

Motor Vehicle Emission Taxes

Sec. 8. (a) Subject to approval at an election, the board of an authority shall be authorized to levy and cause to be collected motor vehicle emission taxes as herein provided. No increase in taxes as originally authorized may be levied unless the increase is approved at an election. Such taxes shall be collected by the county tax assessor-collector of each county, situated in whole or in part within the authority from each motor vehicle owner whose residence is within such county and within the authority. Not later than November 1 of each year, the board shall certify to the county tax assessor-collector of each county situated in whole or in part within the authority's boundaries the rate of tax prescribed for each class of motor vehicles for the ensuing tax year. At the time the owner of a motor vehicle applies each year to the State Highway Department through the county tax assessor-collector of the county in which he resides for the registration of each such vehicle owned or controlled by him for the ensuing or current motor vehicle registration year or unexpired portion thereof, such owner shall pay to the county tax assessor-collector the motor vehicle emission taxes due or to become due to such authority on such motor vehicle for the ensuing or current tax year at the applicable rate prescribed by the board. The county tax assessor-collector shall refuse to issue a registration license for a motor vehicle until the emission tax thereon for the period covered by such registration license has been paid.

(b) The tax year for motor vehicle emission taxes shall consist of calendar quarters, the first quarter to commence on April 1 of each year. Each application so filed during the second quarter, the third quarter, or the fourth quarter shall be accompanied by three-fourths, one-half, or one-quarter, respectively, of the annual tax; and each application for re-registration filed subsequent to June 30th shall be accompanied by an affidavit that such vehicle has not been previously operated within the boundaries of the authority during any quarter of the current tax year, failing which the tax for the entire tax year shall be paid in full.

(c) The authority shall furnish to the tax assessor-collector of each county situated in whole or in part within the boundaries of the authority, motor vehicle emission tax receipts in triplicate each of which shall, when issued, bear a number or other identifying symbol of the motor vehicle for which issued. The tax assessor-collector shall retain one copy and deliver the original to the taxpayer.

(d) Each tax assessor-collector shall receive a uniform fee of 45 cents for each tax receipt issued by him each tax year pursuant to this Act. Such fees shall be used to pay expenses reasonably incurred in collecting such taxes and issuing all tax receipts pursuant hereto.
(e) Each tax assessor-collector shall remit to the authority on or before the 15th day of each month, or at such other intervals of time as may be agreed upon by the authority and each tax assessor-collector, all taxes, penalties and interest collected on behalf of the authority for the preceding calendar month, or other agreed time interval, after deducting the collection fees and mailing charges described in the next preceding paragraph.

Rate of Tax
Sec. 9. Motor vehicles shall be classified by groups based upon the number of cubic inches of cylinder displacement of their motors or engines and the maximum emissions tax which may be levied by any authority shall not exceed the respective annual sums shown in the following table:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Cylinder Displacement</th>

The board of an authority shall each year fix the rate of tax for each group by fixing the percentage (not more than 10%) of the foregoing respective maximum rates, which percentage shall apply equally and uniformly to all groups and to all members of each group.

Exempt Vehicles
Sec. 10. The owners of motor vehicles listed below shall be exempt from the payment of emission taxes on such vehicles, as follows:

(a) Those vehicles which are the property of and used exclusively in the service of the United States government, the State of Texas, or any county, city, school district or rapid transit authority thereof.

(b) Those used exclusively for firefighting; and

(c) Those owned by any person, association, corporation or partnership residing within the boundaries of an authority and doing business both within and without or wholly without such boundaries, which motor vehicles are not stationed or customarily kept within the boundaries of the authority and which are not regularly operated within such boundaries. “Regularly operated” means an average of two days per calendar week in a tax year or portion thereof for which such tax accrues. Residents of an authority claiming an exemption under this Subparagraph (c) shall file an affidavit with the county tax assessor-collector specifying the vehicles claimed to be exempted.

Payments and Penalties
Sec. 11. Motor vehicle emission taxes shall be due and payable on February 1 of each year for which levied and shall become delinquent if not paid by April 1 of such year; provided that taxes on vehicles becoming subject to such taxes after April 1 of any tax year shall be due and payable on the date such taxes accrue and shall become delinquent if not paid within 60 days thereafter.

The following penalties shall be payable on delinquent emission taxes, to wit: During the first month after delinquency, one percent; during the second month, two percent; during the third month, three percent; during the fourth month, four percent; during the fifth month, five percent; and during or after the sixth month, eight percent.

All delinquent emission taxes shall bear interest at the rate of six percent per annum from the date of their delinquency until paid.

Neither the levy, collection nor payment of a motor vehicle emission tax shall be construed to authorize any act prohibited by law or by any rule or regulation lawfully promulgated.

General Powers of Taxation
Sec. 11A. (a) In addition to or in lieu of the motor vehicle emission taxes provided for in this Act, the board of an authority may levy and collect any kind of tax, other than an ad valorem tax on property, which is not prohibited by the Texas Constitution.

(b) No tax of any kind may be levied and collected by the board until a proposition proposing the tax has first been submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified electors of an authority voting at an election held by the board for that purpose. A separate proposition must be submitted for each kind of tax proposed, and propositions may be submitted in the alternative with provision for the method of determining the results of the election. Each proposition must include a brief statement of the nature of the proposed tax. The notice of the election must include a statement or description of the basis of or rate at which the tax is proposed to be levied. Any subsequent increase in a tax must also be approved at an election.

(c) Prior to an election to authorize a tax other than motor vehicle emission taxes or a sales and use tax, the board shall adopt a complete tax code and rules and regulations providing for the nature and amount of any tax with provisions for complete administration and enforcement, including the time and manner of payment, exemptions, liens, interest, penalties, discounts for advance payment, refunds for erroneous payment, fees for collection, collection procedures, manner of enforcement, required returns, registration and reports of taxpayers, the duties and responsibilities of tax officers and tax payers, the delegation to tax officers to make additional rules and regulations and determinations and to obtain records as may be appropriate, and every other provision which may be determined to be desirable, including incorporation of any tax laws and remedies for the administration and enforce-
A tax code and rules and regulations may be amended by the board from time to time after an election approving a tax, but no amendment may increase the amount of a tax unless the increase is approved at an election.

The board of an authority by order may decrease the local sales and use tax rate or may call an election to increase or decrease the local sales and use tax rate. In addition, the qualified voters of an authority by petition may require that an election be held on the question of increasing the tax rate. A petition is valid if it is signed by qualified voters of the authority equal in number to at least 10 percent of the number of registered voters of the authority according to the most recent official list of registered voters.

After receiving a petition, the board shall submit the petition to the secretary of state for validation. The secretary of state shall rule on the validity of the petition not later than the 30th day after the day on which the petition is received and shall notify the board of the ruling. If the secretary of state finds the petition valid or fails to act within the time allowed, the board shall call an election. The authority shall pay the costs of determining the validity of a petition, if any, and of the election.

At the election, the ballots shall be prepared to permit voting for or against the following proposition: "The increase (decrease) of the local sales and use tax rate to (percentage)." The increase or decrease in the tax rate shall be effective if it is approved by a majority of the votes cast by voters residing within the boundaries of the territory of the authority at the date of the election. A notice of the election and a certified copy of the order canvassing the election results shall be sent to the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation or its successor and the comptroller of public accounts and shall be filed in the deed records of each county in which the authority is located in the same manner as provided for a confirmation and tax election by Section 5 of this Act.

(b) Every retailer within the authority area shall add the tax imposed by the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, any applicable Local Sales and Use Tax act imposed under the authority of this Act to his sale price, and when added, the combined tax shall constitute a part of the price, shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price. The combined taxes on the transaction shall be determined by multiplying the amount of the sale by the total of the combined applicable tax rates. Any fraction of one cent which is less than one-half of one cent of tax shall not be collected. Any fractional of one cent of tax equal to one-half of one cent or more shall be collected by the retailer as a whole cent of tax. Provided, however, that any retailer who can establish to the satisfaction of the comptroller that 50 percent or more of his receipts from the sale of taxable items arise from individual transactions where the total sales price when multiplied by the combined rates of the taxes imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, any applicable Local Sales and Use Tax, and this section equals an amount that is less than one-half of one cent may exclude the receipts from such sales when reporting and paying the tax imposed under this Act, the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and any applicable Local Sales and Use Tax. No retailer shall avail himself of this provision without prior written approval of the comptroller. The comptroller shall grant such approval when he is satisfied. that the retailer qualifies on the basis set forth in this section and when the retailer has submitted satisfactory evidence that he can and will maintain records adequate to substantiate the exclusion hereinafter authorized. Any attempt on the part of any retailer to exercise this provision without prior written approval of the comptroller shall be deemed to be a failure and refusal to pay the taxes imposed by this Act, the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and any applicable Local Sales and Use Tax, and the retailer shall be subject to assessment for both taxes, penalties and interest as provided for in this Act, the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and any applicable Local Sales and Use Tax.

(c)(1) In every authority area where the tax authorized by this Act has been adopted pursuant to the provisions of this Act, there is hereby imposed an excise tax on the storage, use or other consumption within such authority area of taxable items purchased, leased, or rented from any retailer on or after the effective date for collection of the sales tax portion of the sales and use tax for storage, use or other consumption in such authority area at the same rate as the sales tax levied under this Act of the sales price of the taxable item or, in the case of leases or rentals, of said lease or rental price. Except as provided in Subparagraph (4) of this paragraph, the use tax imposed by this section is not owed to and may not be collected by, for, or in behalf of an authority if no excise tax on the storage, use, or other consumption of an item of tangible personal property is owed to or collected by the state under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act or if the tangible personal property is exempted under Subparagraph (1) of this section.

(2) In each authority where the tax authorized by this Act has been imposed as provided in this Act, the excise tax imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and any applicable excise tax under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act on the storage, use or other consumption of taxable items and the excise tax imposed by this Act shall be added together to form a combined rate of excise tax which is equal to the sum of the applicable taxes. The tax imposed by this section shall be collected by the comptroller on behalf of and for the benefit of such authority. The formula prescribed in paragraph (b) of this subsection shall be applicable to the collection of the excise tax imposed under this section.

(3) The provisions of the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act shall be applicable to the collection of the tax imposed by this paragraph (c), provided that in Subchapter D of Chapter 161, Tax Code, 2 the name of the authority where the sales and use tax authorized by this Act has been adopted shall be substituted for that of the state where the words "this state" are used to designate the taxing authority or to delimit the tax imposed.

(4) If a sale of tangible personal property is consummated within the state but not within an authority that has adopted the taxes imposed by this section and the tangible personal property is shipped directly into or brought by the purchaser or lessee directly into an authority that has adopted the taxes imposed by this section, the tangible personal property is subject to the use tax imposed by the authority under Subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. The use is considered consummated at the location where the item is first stored, used, or otherwise consumed after the intrastate transit has ceased.

(5) If the tangible personal property is shipped from outside this state to a customer within this state, the tangible personal property is subject to the use tax imposed by Subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and not the sales tax imposed by Subsection (A) of this section. The use is consummated at the first point in this state where the property is stored, used, or otherwise consumed after interstate transit has ceased. Tangible personal property delivered to a point in this state is presumed to be for storage, use, or other consumption at that point until the contrary is established.

(6) There are exempted from the sales taxes imposed by this article receipts from any sale of tangible personal property which, pursuant to the contract of sale, is shipped to a point outside the authority area by the retailer by means of: (a) facilities operated by the retailer; (b) delivery by the retailer to a carrier for shipment to a consignee at such point; or (c) delivery by the retailer to a customs broker or forwarding agent for shipment outside the authority.

If the tangible personal property exempted under this subparagraph or under Paragraph (F) of Section 16(f)(2) of Chapter 683, Acts of the 66th Legislature, Regular Session, 1979 (Article 1118y, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is shipped or delivered directly to a purchaser in another authority that has adopted the taxes imposed under either article, the tangible personal property is subject to the use tax imposed by Subsection (A) of this section.

(d)(1) On and after the effective date of any tax imposed under the provisions of this Act, the comptroller shall perform all functions incident to the administration, collection, enforcement and operation of the tax, and the comptroller shall collect, in addition to the taxes imposed by the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, an additional tax under the authority of this Act specified by the authority, but not to exceed one percent on the receipts from the sale at retail or on the sale price or lease or rental price on the storage, use or other consumption of all taxable items within such authority area, which items are subject to the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act. Tax imposed hereunder and the tax imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act shall be deemed to be a tax imposed under this Act.
Art. 1118x

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Use Tax Act and any applicable Local Sales and Use Tax shall be collected together and reported upon such forms and under such administrative rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the comptroller not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. On and after the effective date of any proposition to abolish such Local Sales and Use Tax in any authority area, the comptroller shall comply therewith.

(2) The comptroller shall make to the authority substantially the same reports as to taxes within the authority area as are made to cities under Subsections 5(b), (c) and (d) of the Local Sales and Use Tax Act.

(e) The following provisions shall govern the collection by the comptroller of the tax imposed by this Act:

(1) All applicable provisions contained in Title 2, Tax Code, shall apply to the collection of the tax imposed by this Act, except as modified in this Act.

(2) The provisions contained in Section 6 of the Local Sales and Use Tax Act shall apply to the levy, imposition and collection of the tax imposed by this Act except as modified herein.

(3) The penalties provided in Title 2, Tax Code, for violation of that title, are hereby made applicable to violations of this Act.

(4) The sales and use tax collected by the comptroller under this Act shall be deposited, held, accounted for and transmitted for the authority as provided in Section 7 of the Local Sales and Use Tax Act.

(f) Each authority’s share of all sales and use tax collected under this Act by the comptroller shall be transmitted to the treasurer or the officer performing the functions of such office of such authority by the comptroller payable to the authority periodically as promptly as feasible. Transmittals required under this Act shall be made at least twice in each state fiscal year. Before transmitting such funds, the comptroller shall deduct two percent of the sum collected from each such authority during such period as a charge by the state for its services specified in this Act, and the amounts so deducted shall be deposited by the comptroller in the State Treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund of the state. The comptroller is authorized to retain in the suspense account of any authority a portion of the authority’s share of the tax collected under this Act. Such balance so retained in the suspense account shall not exceed five percent of the amount remitted to the authority. The comptroller is authorized to make refunds from the suspense account of any authority for overpayments made to such accounts and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of the suspense account of such authority. When any authority shall abolish such tax, the comptroller may retain in the suspense account of such authority for a period of one year five percent of the final remittance to each such authority at the time of termination of collection of such tax in such authority to cover possible refunds for overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of such tax in such authority, the comptroller shall remit the balance in such accounts to the authority and close the account.

(g) The comptroller may promulgate reasonable rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, to implement the enforcement, administration and collection of the taxes authorized herein.

(h)(1) In any authority where the sales and use tax authorized by this Act has been imposed, if any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid by him under this Act or in the event a determination has been made against him for taxes and penalty under this Act, the limitation for bringing suit for the collection of such delinquent tax and penalty shall be the same as that provided by the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act. Where any person is delinquent in payment of taxes under this Act, the comptroller shall notify the authority to which delinquent taxes are due under this Act by United States registered mail or certified mail and shall send a copy of the notice to the attorney general. The authority, acting through its attorney, may join in any suit brought by the attorney general as a party plaintiff to seek a judgment for the delinquent taxes and penalty due such authority. The notice sent by the comptroller to the authority showing the delinquency of a taxpayer constitutes a certification of the amount owed and is prima facie evidence of the determination of the tax and of the delinquency of the amounts of sales and use tax set forth in the notice.

(2) Where property is seized by the comptroller under the provisions of any law authorizing seizure of the property of a taxpayer who is delinquent in payment of the tax imposed by the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and where such taxpayer is also delinquent in payment of any tax imposed by this Act, the comptroller shall sell sufficient property to pay the delinquent taxes and penalty due any authority under this Act in addition to that required to pay any amount due the state under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and due any city under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act. The proceeds from such sale shall first be applied to all sums due the state, then all sums due any city under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act, and the remainder, if any, shall be applied to all sums due such authority.

(3) An authority that has adopted the tax authorized by this Act may bring suit for the collection of sales, excise, or use taxes imposed by this Act which have been certified as provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and are owed to the authority under this Act if at least 90 days before the filing of the suit, written notice by certified mail of the tax delinquency and of the intention to file suit is given to the taxpayer, the comptroller, and the attorney general and if neither the comptroller nor the attorney general disapproves the suit by written notice to the authority.

(4) The comptroller or attorney general may disapprove the institution of tax suit by an authority if:

(i) negotiations between the state and the taxpayer are being conducted for the purpose of the collection of delinquent taxes owed to the state and the authority seeking to bring suit;

(ii) the taxpayer owes substantial taxes to the state and there is a reasonable possibility that the taxpayer may be unable to pay the total amount owed in full;

(iii) the state will bring suit against the taxpayer for the collection of all sales, excise and use taxes due under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and this Act; or

(iv) the suit involves a critical legal question relating to the interpretation of state law or a provision of the Texas or United States Constitution in which the state has an overriding interest.

(5) A notice of disapproval to an authority must give the reason for the determination of the comptroller or attorney general. A disapproval is final and not subject to review. An authority, after one year from the date of the disapproval, may proceed again as provided in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph even though the liability of the taxpayer includes taxes for which the authority has previously given notice and the comptroller or attorney general has previously disapproved the suit.

(6) In any suit under this paragraph for the collection of the authority tax, a judgment for or against the taxpayer does not affect any claim against the taxpayer by a city or the state unless the state is a party to the action.

(7) A copy of the final judgment in favor of an authority in a case in which the state is not a party shall be sent to the comptroller. The authority shall give the reason for the determination of the comptroller or attorney general. A disapproval is final and not subject to review. An authority, after one year from the date of the disapproval, may proceed again as provided in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph even though the liability of the taxpayer includes taxes for which the authority has previously given notice and the comptroller or attorney general has previously disapproved the suit.

Management

Sec. 12. The responsibility for the management, operation and control of the properties belonging to an authority shall be vested in its board. The board may:

(a) employ all persons, firms, partnerships or corporations deemed necessary by the board for the conduct of the affairs of the authority, including, but not limited to, a general manager, bookkeepers, auditors, engineers, attorneys, financial advisers and operating or management companies, and prescribe the duties, tenure and compensation of each.

All employees may be removed by the board;

(b) become a subscriber under the Texas Workmen's Compensation Act with any old-line legal-reinsurer insurance company authorized to write policies in the State of Texas;

(e) adopt a seal for the authority;

(d) invest funds of the authority in direct or indirect obligations of the United States, the state, or any county, city, school district or other political subdivision of the state; funds of the authority may be placed in certificates of deposit of state or national banks or savings and loan associations within the state provided that they are secured in the manner provided for the security of the funds of counties of the State of Texas; the board, by resolution, may provide that an authorized representative of the authority may invest and reinvest the funds of the authority and provide for money to be withdrawn from the appropriate accounts of the authority for the investments on such terms as the board considers advisable;

(e) fix the fiscal year for the authority;

(f) establish a complete system of accounts for the authority and each year shall have prepared an audit of its affairs by an independent certified public accountant or a firm of independent certified public accountants which shall be open to public inspection; and

(g) designate one or more banks to serve as the depository for the funds of the authority.

All funds of the authority shall be deposited in the depository bank or banks unless otherwise required by orders or resolutions authorizing the issuance of the authority's bonds or notes.

To the extent that funds in the depository bank or banks are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, they shall be secured in the manner provided by law for the security of funds of counties of the State of Texas.

The board, by resolution, may authorize a designated representative to supervise the substitution of securities pledged to secure the authority's funds.

Annual Budget

Sec. 12A. Prior to the commencement of a fiscal year, the board shall adopt an annual operating budget which specifies major expenditures by type and amount. Before the board adopts its annual operating budget, it shall conduct a public hearing and shall make the proposed annual operating budget available to the public at least 14 days prior to the hearing. An annual operating budget must be adopted before the authority conducts business in a fiscal year. The authority may not make operating expenditures in excess of the total budgeted operat­ing expenditures for a fiscal year unless the board amends the operating budget by order after public notice and hearing.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 13. The board may adopt and enforce rea­sonable rules and regulations:
(a) to secure and maintain safety and efficiency in the operation and maintenance of its facilities;
(b) governing the use of the authority’s facilities and services by the public and the payment of fares,
tolls and charges;
(c) regulating privileges on any land, easement, right-of-way, rolling stock or other property owned or controlled by the authority; and
(d) regulating the collection and payment of emis­sion taxes levied by the board.

A condensed substantive statement of the rules and regulations and the penalty for their violation shall be published after adoption once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper with general circulation in the area in which the authority is located, which notice shall advise that breach of the rules and regulations will subject the violator to a penalty and that the full text of the rules and regulations is on file in the principal office of the authority where it may be read by any interested person. Such rules and regulations shall become effective 10 days after the second publication.

The board may set reasonable penalties for the breach of any rule or regulation of the authority which shall not exceed fines of more than $200 or imprisonment for more than 30 days or both. Such penalties shall be in addition to any other penalties provided by the laws of the state and may be enforced by complaint filed in the appropriate court of jurisdiction in the county in which the authority’s principal office is located.

An authority may employ its own peace officers with power to make arrests when necessary to prevent or abate the commission of an offense against the rules and regulations of the authority and against the laws of the state when the offense or threatened offense occurs on any land, easement, right-of-way, rolling stock or other property owned and controlled by the authority and to make arrests in cases of an offense involving injury or detriment to any property owned or controlled by the authori­ty.

Tort Claims

Sec. 13A. Any authority established hereunder shall be within the definition of “unit of govern­ment” as defined by the Texas Tort Claims Act, as amended (Article 6252-19, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), and all operations of an authority are deemed to be essential governmental functions and not proprietary functions for all purposes, including the application of the Texas Tort Claims Act.

Contracts for Construction, Goods, or Services

Sec. 14. (a) Contracts for more than $5,000 for the construction of improvements or the purchase of material, machinery, equipment supplies and all other property except real property, shall be let on competitive bids after notice published once a week for two consecutive weeks, the first publication to be at least 15 days before the date fixed for receiving bids, in a newspaper of general circulation in the area in which the authority is located. The board may adopt rules governing the taking of bids and the awarding of such contracts and providing for the waiver of this requirement in the event of emergency. This subsection does not apply to personal and professional services or to the acquisition of existing transit systems.
(b) The board of an authority may not let a contract (1) that is not subject to competitive bidding requirements, (2) that is for more than $10,000 and
(3) that is for the purchase of real property or for consulting or professional services, unless an announcement that a contract is being considered is posted in a prominent place in the principal office of the authority for at least two weeks before the contract is awarded. This subsection does not apply to the acquisition of existing transit systems.

Exemption of Bicounty Metropolitan Areas

Sec. 15. It is specifically provided that there shall not be included within the metropolitan area, as herein defined, any part of the territory situated within a bicounty metropolitan area. For the purpose of this exclusion, a “bicounty metropolitan area” is defined as an area comprised of two continuous counties in each of which is located a city having a population of 350,000 or more according to the last preceding or any future federal census.

County Authority to Contract with Authority

Sec. 15A. A commissioners court may contract with an authority for the authority to provide public transportation services to any unincorporated area outside the boundaries of the authority for a term and on those conditions as are determined to be desirable by the commissioners court and the board.
The county may levy and collect taxes or pledge and encumber other receipts or revenues as may be required to make any payments to the authority under the provisions of the contract.

Elections

Sec. 15B. (a) This section governs all elections ordered by the board except elections held under the provisions of Section 5 of this Act.
(b) Notice of an election ordered by the board shall be given by publication once a week for three consecutive weeks with the first publication in a newspaper with general circulation in the authority at least 21 days before the election.

(c) A resolution calling an election and the notice of the election are sufficient if the date and hours of the election, the voting places within voting precincts for the election, and the propositions to be voted on are specified. The board may define and declare voting precincts, determine the manner of absentee voting, and prescribe the election officers.

(d) As soon as practicable after an election, the board shall canvass the returns of the election and declare the results.

(e) Where not otherwise provided in this section, the general election laws apply.

Right to Enter Land

Sec. 16. Engineers, employees, and representatives of an authority may go on any land within the authority boundaries to make surveys and examine the land with reference to the location of works, improvements, plants, facilities, equipment or appliances and to attend to any business of the authority; provided that two weeks' notice be given to the owners in possession and that if any of the authority's activities cause damage to the land or property, the land or property shall be restored as nearly as possible to the original state at the sole expense of the authority.

Exemptions from Taxes

Sec. 17. The property, revenues and income of the authority and the interest on bonds and notes issued by the authority shall be exempt from all taxes levied or to be levied by the State of Texas, its political subdivisions, counties or municipal corporations.

Eligibility of Excepted Areas for Federal Funds

Sec. 17A. Ratification by referendum of a regional authority under the terms of this Act by less than all incorporated cities within the metropolitan area as defined herein shall not affect in any way the eligibility of such excepted incorporated cities to receive federal transit grants under the National Mass Transportation Assistance Act of 1974, or any subsequent federal statutes.

Severability Clause

Sec. 18. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, or provision.

Construction of Act

Sec. 19. This Act shall be liberally construed to carry out the purpose of its adoption. This Act shall be cumulative of other laws on the subject but, insofar as the provisions of this Act are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall be controlling.

Section 1 of Acts 1981, 67th Leg., p. 1490, enacted Title 2 of the Tax Code.

Acts 1981, 67th Leg., p. 3261, ch. 858, § 9, provides:

"Section 4 of this Act applies to rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents, and other compensation established on or after the effective date of this Act."

Art. 118y. Regional Transportation Authorities

Findings

Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) An increasing proportion of the state's population is located in its rapidly expanding metropolitan areas;

(2) The concentration of population in such areas is accompanied by a corresponding concentration of motor vehicles that emit pollutants into the air and consume great quantities of limited energy resources;

(3) Such concentration of motor vehicles places an undue burden on existing streets, freeways, and other traffic ways, resulting in serious vehicular traffic congestion that retards mobility of persons and property and adversely affects the health and welfare of the citizenry; and

(4) Mobility for all citizens, which must include alternatives to the private passenger motor vehicle, is essential to the continued growth and maintenance of economic vitality of these metropolitan areas.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Authority" means a regional transportation authority created pursuant to this Act.

(2) "County of a principal city" means a county in which the majority of the territory of a principal city is situated.
Art. 1118y  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

(3) "Creating entities" means the principal city and/or county of the principal city or any contiguous city as provided in Section 24.

(4) "Executive committee" means the directors of the authority who serve as the governing body of the authority.

(5) "General transportation services" means services that complement the public transportation system, including but not limited to parking garages, special transportation services for the elderly and the handicapped, medical transportation services, assistance in street modifications as necessary to accommodate the public transportation system, and construction of new general aviation facilities or renovation or purchase of existing facilities not served by certificated air carriers in order to relieve air traffic congestion at existing facilities.

(6) "Interim executive committee" means the executive committee selected before the confirmation election for the purpose of guiding the establishment of a permanent authority and creating a service plan.

(7) "Interim subregional board(s)" means the subregional board(s) organized to serve before the holding of the confirmation election.

(8) "Metropolitan area" means a federal standard metropolitan statistical area having a population of more than 500,000, not more than 60 percent of which reside in cities of more than 300,000.

(9) "Population" means the population of a city or area as the context may require, according to the last preceding federal census or if there has been no federal census within the preceding five years, then according to the latest population estimates of the appropriate metropolitan planning organization.

(10) "Principal city" means a city having a population of at least 300,000.

(11) "Public transportation" means the conveyance of passengers and hand-carried packages or baggage of passengers by means of any mode of transportation other than a privately owned vehicle.

(12) "Public transportation system" means all real and personal property owned or held by an authority for public transportation or general transportation service purposes, including but not limited to land, interests in land, buildings, structures, rights-of-way, easements, franchises, rail lines, bus lines, mass transportation facilities, rapid transit facilities, stations, platforms, terminals, rolling stock, garages, shops, equipment and facilities (including vehicle parking areas and facilities and other facilities necessary or convenient for the beneficial use and access of persons and vehicles to public transportation), control houses, signals and land, facilities and equipment for the protection and environmental enhancement of all the facilities.

(13) "Service plan" means an outline of the service that would be provided by the authority to those units of election confirming the authority in an election.

(14) "Subregion" means a principal city, the county of the principal city, and any city or unit of election included within the boundaries of a subregion by the creating entity of that subregion and which is confirmed at an election.

(15) "Subregional board" means the board created to represent a subregion pursuant to Sections 6 and 7 of this Act.

(16) "Unit of election" means any one of the following:

(A) a principal city;

(B) a designated unincorporated area created by the commissioners court of a county of a principal city;

(C) any other incorporated city located within the territory of an authority.

Creation of a Regional Transportation Authority

Sec. 3. A regional transportation authority to provide public transportation and general transportation services may be created in a metropolitan area. The process for creating an authority must be initiated by one of the following methods:

(1) The governing body of a principal city and/or county of the principal city from each subregion may agree to initiate the process to create an authority on their own motions. The principal city and/or the county of the principal city in each subregion may become the creating entity. If the creating entity in one subregion initiates the process and a creating entity in the other subregion does not initiate the process within 60 days, the first subregion may proceed on its own.

(2) If a petition requesting creation of an authority signed by at least five percent of the registered voters of the creating entity is presented, the creating entity or entities receiving the petitions shall initiate the process for creating the authority. If the creating entity in one subregion initiates the process and a creating entity in the other subregion does not initiate the process within 60 days, the first subregion may proceed on its own. The entity to which a petition is presented has the primary responsibility for initiating the authority within a subregion. The principal city and county of the principal city of either subregion, however, may by mutual agreement share the responsibility or shift it to the other entity.

Initiating Procedure

Sec. 4. (a) The process shall be initiated by a resolution or order of each creating entity containing the following provisions:

(1) a description of the boundaries of the territory proposed to be included in the subregion(s) of the authority;
(g) After hearing the evidence presented at the hearings, but no earlier than 75 days after the process has been initiated by the creating entity or entities, the creating entity or entities shall each adopt the resolution or order designating the name of the authority, listing the names of the cities whose governing bodies and the unincorporated areas whose county commissioners courts have confirmed initial inclusion in the authority, and authorizing appointment of the interim subregional boards and interim executive committee. If one creating entity fails to adopt this resolution or order within 60 days of the action of the other creating entity, the first creating entity may proceed on its own.

(h) After the hearing, the results of the hearing and the boundaries set by the creating entities shall be submitted to the State Highways and Public Transportation Commission and the comptroller of public accounts.

Regional Transportation Authority Executive Committee

Sec. 5. (a) The control and operation of a regional transportation authority and its property shall be vested in an executive committee comprised of 11 members selected as follows:

(1) seven members from the membership of the subregional board in the subregion containing a principal city having a population greater than 800,000 and
(2) four members from the membership of the subregional board in the subregion containing a principal city having a population of less than 800,000.

(b) Before the confirmation election, the subregional boards shall select their representatives to the executive committee from their membership by a vote of the members. After the confirmation election, the subregional boards shall select their representatives in the same manner and those representatives shall serve at the pleasure of the subregional boards with the confirmation of the appointments made each September 1. To remain on the executive committee a person must maintain membership on a subregional board. A vacancy on the executive committee shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments.

(c) Following the confirmation election each member of the subregional board shall be entitled to the sum of §50 for each meeting of the executive committee or subregional board attended and shall be reimbursed for necessary and reasonable expenses incurred in the discharge of duties.

(d) The members of the executive committee shall elect from among their number a chairman, vice-chairman, and a secretary. The executive committee may appoint such assistant secretaries, either members or nonmembers of the executive committee, as it deems necessary. The secretary and assistant secretary or secretaries shall in addition to keeping the permanent records of all proceedings... and transactions of the authority perform such other duties as may be assigned to them by the executive committee. No member of the executive committee or officer of the authority shall be pecuniarily interested or benefited directly or indirectly in any contract or agreement to which the authority is a party.

(e) The executive committee shall hold at least one regular meeting during each month for the purpose of transacting the business of the authority. Upon written notice, the chairman may call special meetings as may be necessary. The executive committee when organized shall by resolution set the time, place, and day of the regular meetings and shall adopt rules, regulations, and bylaws as it may deem necessary for the conduct of its official meetings. Eight members shall constitute a quorum of the executive committee for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers, and an action may be taken by the authority upon a vote of a majority of the executive committee members present unless the bylaws require a larger number for a particular action.

(f) The executive committee shall receive recommendations for the annual budget from each of the subregional boards and shall obtain approval from each subregional board of the final annual budget as it pertains to that board’s subregion. The executive committee shall make its proposed annual budget available to the governing bodies of the cities within the authority at least 30 days prior to adoption of the final annual budget.

Subregional Board in a Subregion Having a Principal City with Population in Excess of 800,000

Sec. 6. (a) The subregional board in a subregion having a principal city with population in excess of 800,000 shall be organized in accordance with this section.

(b) The commissioners court of the county of the principal city shall appoint one member.

(c) The remaining members of the subregional board shall be apportioned according to the ratio which the population of each incorporated city bears to the total population of the territory included within the subregion. Any combination of cities aggregating a total population of 60,000 shall be entitled to one member on the interim subregional board. Following the confirmation election, any combination of cities who have voted confirmation of the authority may aggregate a population of at least 60,000 for the purpose of appointing one member to the initial subregional board. In establishing the interim subregional board, if the results of the 1980 federal census are unavailable, the most recent population estimates of the appropriate metropolitan planning organization will be used.

(d) No city will be entitled to appoint more than 65 percent of the board members. If it would be so entitled pursuant to Subsection (c) of this section, it will be limited to 65 percent and the remaining members will be apportioned among the other cities in the subregion according to the provisions of Subsection (e) of this section.

(e) Prior to 60 days following the date for establishment of the board or restructuring of the board pursuant to Subsection (f) of this section, any two or more cities lacking a specifically designated board member may combine to be treated as a single city for purposes of Subsection (e) of this section, but no combination will be entitled to appoint more than one member of the board.

(f) Every five years as of the first day of September following the date the census data or population estimates become available, or when a city or an unincorporated area withdraws from or joins in the authority, the board shall be restructured pursuant to Subsections (c) and (h) of this section, if warranted by the withdrawal or addition of cities or unincorporated areas, or by population changes or changes in combinations established pursuant to Subsection (e) of this section.

(g) The members of the board shall serve at the pleasure of the governing body of each appointing governmental entity. The governing body shall confirm its board appointment to begin terms on the first day of September each year.

(h) The total number of members comprising the board shall be governed by the total population of the territory included in the subregion. Specifically, the board size shall be determined by the following formula:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Total Population in Subregion</th>
<th>Total Members on Subregional Board</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Less than 1,000,000</td>
<td>15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1,000,000 to 1,400,000</td>
<td>21</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1,400,000 plus</td>
<td>25</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

(i) Should a city be entitled to more than one board member, the governing body may appoint a number of members less than those allocated, who will be entitled to the same number of votes as the number of members allocated, but a member so appointed shall not cast divided votes.

(j) Sixty-five percent of the members constitutes a quorum for the purpose of conducting business and actions may be taken upon a majority vote of the members present so long as there is a quorum.

Subregional Board in a Subregion Having a Principal City with Population Less than 800,000

Sec. 7. (a) The subregional board in a subregion having a principal city with population less than 800,000 shall be organized in accordance with this section.

(b) The interim subregional board shall be comprised of nine members appointed as follows:

(1) four members appointed by the governing body of the principal city;
(2) four members appointed by the commissioners court of the county of the principal city; and

(3) one member appointed by the governing body of a city having a population in excess of 100,000.

c The permanent subregional board shall be comprised of nine members appointed as follows:

(1) If the entire county of the principal city is confirmed as all or part of the authority, the permanent subregional board shall be appointed in the same manner as the interim subregional board.

(2) If less than the entire county of the principal city is confirmed as all or part of the authority the permanent subregional board shall be appointed as follows:

(A) The commissioners court of the county of the principal city shall appoint at least one member to represent the unincorporated areas and incorporated cities of the county which are not otherwise represented on the subregional board.

(B) The remaining members shall be apportioned to the incorporated cities confirmed as all or part of the subregion according to the ratio which the population of each unit of election bears to the total population of the area confirmed as the subregion. Units of election which fail to receive at least one member shall be aggregated with the county to determine population represented by the county, and appropriate additional members, if any, shall be so apportioned to the county. Units of election which are entitled to one or more members shall have the number of members rounded to the nearest whole number to determine actual apportionment.

(d) Six members of the subregional board shall constitute a quorum of the board for the purpose of conducting business and action may be taken by a majority vote of the members present so long as there is a quorum.

Membership, Terms, Meetings, and Responsibilities of Subregional Boards

Sec. 8. (a) Members of subregional boards must be registered voters residing within the boundaries of the authority. They shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing local governing bodies. Reaffirmation of the appointments will be required each September 1. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments.

(b) A subregional board shall elect from among its membership a chairman, vice-chairman, and secretary. The board may appoint such assistant secretaries, either members or nonmembers of the board, as it deems necessary. The secretary and assistant secretary or secretaries shall in addition to keeping the permanent records of all proceedings and transactions of the board perform such other duties as may be assigned to them by the board. No member of a subregional board shall be pecuniarily interested or benefited directly or indirectly in any contract or agreement to which the authority is a party.

c A subregional board when organized shall by resolution set the time, place, and day of the regular meetings and shall likewise adopt rules and regulations and such bylaws as it may deem necessary for the conduct of its official meetings and special meetings called by written notice of the chairman or vice-chairman.

d The subregional boards shall:

(1) develop, recommend, and approve the annual budget for the appropriate subregion and shall make recommendations for the overall budget; and

(2) make recommendations to the executive committee for operation of services provided by the authority.

Confirmation Election

Sec. 9. (a) After the interim executive committee has organized, it shall develop a service plan and a rate of tax that it desires to levy. After the interim executive committee approves a service plan and a rate of tax that it desires to levy, the governing body of each city acting on behalf of the city and the commissioners court in the county of each unincorporated area acting on behalf of the unincorporated area may by resolution or order approve the service plan and rate of tax. If any governing body or commissioners court fails to so approve within 45 days after the interim executive committee has approved a service plan and rate of tax, the city or the unincorporated area upon whose behalf the governing body or commissioners court acts shall not participate in the service plan nor in a confirmation election that shall be called by the interim executive committee in accordance with the provisions of this section; provided, however, that if the governing body of the principal city of a subregion does not approve the service plan and rate of tax, the interim executive committee shall not call a confirmation election in that subregion.

(b) Not earlier than 60 days after the interim executive committee has approved a service plan and rate of tax, the interim executive committee shall:

(1) finally approve a service plan and rate of tax after modifying its approved service plan and rate of tax only to reflect the nonparticipation of certain cities or unincorporated areas in the service plan; and

(2) notify the commissioners court of each county included in whole or in part within the initial boundaries of the authority of its intention to call a confirmation election. Within 30 days after receipt of the notice, each commissioners court by order shall create not more than five designated units of election in the unincorporated portion of the appropriate county. Each designated unit of election shall have outer boundaries, to the extent practicable, that coincide with a boundary of a county

voting precinct so that insofar as practicable no county voting precinct is divided between two different designated election areas.

(c) When the executive committee orders a confirmation election, it shall submit to the qualified voters of cities and unincorporated areas participating in the election within the authority the following proposition:

"Shall the creation of (name of authority) be confirmed and shall the levy of the proposed tax, not to exceed (rate), be authorized?"

(d) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, notice of the election shall be given in accordance with the general election laws. The notice of the election shall include a description of the nature and rate of the proposed tax. A copy of the notice of the election and any other election held pursuant to this Act shall be furnished to the State Highways and Public Transportation Commission and the comptroller of public accounts.

(e) The election shall be conducted so that votes are separately tabulated and canvassed in each participating unit of election within the authority.

(f) Immediately after the election, the presiding judge of each election precinct shall return the results to the executive committee, which shall canvass the returns and declare the results separately with respect to each unit of election. In those units of election where a majority of the votes cast is in favor of the confirmation of the creation of the authority and the levy of the proposed tax, the authority shall continue to exist; except that unless the vote is favorable in the unit of election which includes the principal city, or in contiguous units of election where the population when aggregated in all the units exceeds 300,000, the authority shall cease to exist in that subregion. If the votes cast are such that the authority will continue to exist in either or both subregions, the executive committee shall enter the results on its minutes and adopt an order declaring that the creation of the authority is confirmed and describing the territory which comprises the authority. All units of election approving the authority and proposed tax shall be included in the authority if their subregion is included, unless the executive committee of the authority notifies the appropriate governing body in writing that it is excepted from the authority and proposed tax because it is not contiguous to the existing authority and would create a fiscal hardship on the authority. A certified copy of the order adopted by the executive committee shall be filed with the State Highways and Public Transportation Commission and the comptroller of public accounts. The order shall reflect the date of the election, the proposition voted on, the total number of votes cast for and against the proposition in each unit of election, and the number of votes by which the proposition was approved in each election unit and shall be accompanied by a map of the authority clearly showing the boundaries of the authority.

(g) If the votes cast are such that the authority ceases to exist in its entirety, the executive committee shall enter an order so declaring and file a certified copy of the order with the State Highways and Public Transportation Commission and the comptroller of public accounts, and the authority shall be dissolved.

(h) The cost of the confirmation election shall be paid by the creating entity or entities.

(i) If the election results in the confirmation of an authority, the authority shall, within the limits confirmed, be authorized to function in accordance with the terms of this Act, and the executive committee may levy and collect the proposed tax within those limits. In no event shall the tax authorized under this Act be levied in any unit of election which has failed to confirm the authority.

(j) If the continued existence of an authority is not confirmed by election within three years after the effective date of the resolution(s) or order(s) initiating the process to create the authority, the authority ceases to exist on the expiration of the three years.

(k) For a period of one year following a confirmation election, the governing body of any unit of election may on its own volition or shall, upon receipt of a petition containing signatures of at least 20 percent of the registered voters within that unit of election, call an election and offer the following proposition: "Shall the (name of authority) be dissolved in (unit of election)?" Should the majority of voters voting in the election vote to dissolve the authority within the unit of election, the authority shall cease to exist within the unit of election as of 12:00 midnight on the date of the canvass of the election and all financial obligations of that unit of election will cease to accrue at that time. The financial obligation shall be computed on a per capita basis for the entire year and taxes will continue to be collected until such time as all financial obligations of the unit of election are paid, at which time the taxes collected to support the authority shall cease within that unit of election.

(l) Should the governing body within a unit of election call an election on its own volition or upon petition as provided in Subsection (k) of this section for the purpose of dissolving the authority within the unit of election more than 12 months after the confirmation election, at least 12 months' notice of intent to hold the election must be provided to the executive committee, the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation and the comptroller of public accounts.

Powers of the Authority

Sec. 10. (a) The authority when created and confirmed shall constitute a public body corporate and politic, exercising public and essential governmental functions, having all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this Act, including but not limited to the following powers granted in this section.

(b) The authority shall have perpetual succession.

c) The authority may sue and be sued in all courts of competent jurisdiction and may institute and prosecute suits without giving security for costs and may appeal from a judgment or judgments without giving supersedeas or cost bond.

d) The authority may acquire by grant, purchase, gift, devise, lease, or otherwise and may hold, use, sell, lease, or dispose of real and personal property of every kind and nature whatsoever and licenses, patents, rights, and interests necessary, convenient, or useful for the full exercise of any of its powers pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

e) The authority shall have the power to acquire, construct, complete, develop, plan, own, operate, and maintain a system or systems within its boundaries and both within and without the boundaries of incorporated cities, towns, and villages and political subdivisions and for such purposes shall have the right to use the streets, alleys, roads, highways, and other public ways and to relocate, raise, reroute, change the grade of, and alter the construction of any street, alley, highway, road, railroad, electric lines and facilities, telegraph and telephone properties and facilities, cable television lines and facilities, pipelines, mains, or other facilities or properties; any gas transmission or distribution pipes, pipelines, mains, or other facilities or properties; any water, sanitary sewer, or storm sewer pipes, pipelines, mains, or other facilities or properties; any gas transmission or distribution pipes, pipelines, mains, or other facilities or properties; any cable television lines, cables, conduits, or other facilities or properties; or any other pipelines and any facilities or properties relating thereto, any and all such relocations, adjustments, raising, lowering, rerouting, or changing of grade or altering of construction shall be accomplished at the sole cost and expense of the authority, and all damages which may be suffered by the owners of such property or facilities shall be borne by the authority.

(f) The authority may acquire by grant, purchase, gift, devise, lease, or otherwise and may hold, use, sell, lease, or dispose of real and personal property of every kind and nature whatsoever and licenses, patents, rights, and interests necessary, convenient, or useful for the full exercise of any of its powers pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

g) The authority shall have the right of eminent domain to acquire lands in fee simple and any interest less than fee simple in, on, under, and above lands, including, without limitation, easements, rights-of-way, rights of use of air space or subsurface space, or any combination thereof; provided that this right shall not be exercised without the approval of each proposed acquisition in a city by the governing body of that city and the approval of each proposed acquisition in an unincorporated area by the commissioners court of the county of that unincorporated area; and provided further that such right shall not be exercised in a manner which would unduly impair the then existing neighborhood character of property surrounding or adjacent to the property sought to be condemned or unduly interfere with interstate commerce on which would authorize the authority to run its vehicles on railroad tracks which are used to transport property.

(h) Eminent domain proceedings brought by the authority shall be governed by the provisions of Title 52, Eminent Domain, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as they now exist or hereafter may be amended, insofar as such provisions are not inconsistent with this Act. Proceedings for the exercise of the power of eminent domain shall be commenced by the adoption by the executive committee of a resolution declaring the public necessity for the acquisition by the authority of the property or interest therein described in the resolution, and that such acquisition is necessary and proper for the construction, extension, improvement, or development of the system and is in the public interest. The resolution of the authority and the approval of the resolution by the appropriate governing body or commissioners court shall be conclusive evidence of the public necessity of such proposed acquisition and that such real or personal property or interest therein is necessary for public use.

(i) The authority shall have the power to enter into agreements with any other public utility, private utility, communication system, common carrier, or transportation system for the joint use of their respective facilities, installations and properties within the authority and to establish through routes, joint fares, or transfer of passengers.

(i) The authority shall establish and maintain rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents, or other compensation for the use of the facilities of the system acquired, constructed, operated, or maintained by the authority which shall be reasonable and nondiscriminatory and which together with grants and receipts from taxes collected by the authority shall be sufficient to produce revenues adequate:

(1) to pay all expenses necessary to the operation and maintenance of the properties and facilities of the authority;

(2) to pay the interest on and principal of all bonds issued by the authority under this Act which are payable in whole or in part from such revenues, when and as the same shall become due and payable;

(3) to pay all sinking fund and reserve fund payments agreed to be made in respect of any such bonds, and payable out of such taxes and revenues, when and as the same shall become due and payable; and

(4) to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of such bonds or with any person in their behalf.

(k) It is the intention of this Act that taxes levied and the rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents, and other compensation for the use of the facilities of the system shall not be in excess of what may be necessary to fulfill the obligations imposed upon the authority by this Act. Nothing herein shall be construed as depriving the State of Texas of its power to regulate and control such taxes, rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents, and other compensation; provided that the State of Texas does hereby pledge to and agree with the purchasers and successive holders of the bonds issued hereunder that the state will not limit or alter the powers hereby vested in the authority to establish and collect such taxes, rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents, and other compensation as will produce revenues sufficient to pay the items specified in Subdivisions (1), (2), (3), and (4).

Subsection (j) of this section or in any way to impair the rights or remedies of the holders of the bonds or of any person in their behalf until the bonds, together with the interest thereon, with interest on unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf of the bondholders and all other obligations of the authority in connection with such bonds are fully met and discharged.

(l) The authority may make contracts, leases, and agreements with and accept grants and loans from the United States of America, its departments and agencies, the State of Texas, its agencies, counties, municipalities, and political subdivisions, and public or private corporations and persons and may generally perform all acts necessary for the full exercise of the powers vested in it. The authority may acquire rolling stock or other property under conditional sales contracts, leases, equipment trust certificates, or any other form of contract or trust agreement. All revenue bond indentures may provide limitations upon the exercise of the powers stated in this section and such limitations shall apply so long as any of the revenue bonds issued pursuant to such indenture are outstanding and unpaid.

(m) The authority may sell, lease, convey, or otherwise dispose of any of its rights, interests, or properties which are not needed for or, in the case of leases, which are not inconsistent with the efficient operation and maintenance of the system. It may sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of at any time any surplus materials or personal or real property not needed for its requirements or for the purpose of carrying out its power under this Act.

(n) The authority shall by resolution make all rules and regulations governing the use, operation, and maintenance of the system and shall determine all routings and change the same whenever it is deemed advisable. The authority shall encourage to the maximum extent feasible the participation of private enterprise.

(o) The authority shall have the power to lease the system or any part thereof to or contract for the use or operation of the system or any part thereof by any operator.

(p) The acquisition of any land or interest therein pursuant to this Act, the planning, acquisition, establishment, development, construction, improvement, maintenance, equipment, operation, regulation, protection, and policing of the authority’s system and facilities, and the exercise of any other powers herein granted an authority are hereby declared to be public and governmental functions, exercised for a public purpose, and matters of public necessity.

(q) The authority may contract with any city, county, or other political subdivision for the authority to provide public transportation services to any area outside the boundaries of the authority on such terms and conditions as may be agreed to by the parties.

(r) The authority shall have the power to acquire, construct, complete, develop, plan, own, operate, and maintain a public transportation system and general transportation services. The powers of the authority may be approved all or in part by referenda proposed by the executive committee. These powers as they relate to a public transportation system and general transportation services are identical to those outlined in other subsections of this section.

(s) The executive committee of the authority may establish a security force and provide for the employment of security personnel. The executive committee may commission any employee of the security... ty force established under this Act as a peace officer if he is certified as qualified to be a peace officer by the Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education. Any person commissioned as a peace officer under this Act shall give an oath and such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the executive committee may require. The bond shall be approved by the executive committee and made payable to the authority. It shall be filed with the executive committee. Any peace officer commissioned under this Act shall be vested with all the rights, privileges, obligations, and duties of any other peace officer in this state while he is on the property under the control of the authority or in the actual course and scope of his employment.

(i) Any and all law enforcement police powers granted pursuant to this section shall be subordinate to the law enforcement police power of an incorporated city wherein the power is attempted to be exercised.

 Authorities Consisting of One Subregion Governed by Subregional Board Created in Section 6; Changes in Service Plan; Procedure

Sec. 10A. (a) After the confirmation election in an authority consisting of one subregion governed by an executive committee comprised of the subregional board created in Section 6, the executive committee shall implement the service plan as finally approved by the interim executive committee. No change may be made in the service plan unless the executive committee follows the procedures provided in this section.

(b) For the purposes of this section “major change in the service plan” means:

(1) one or more of the following changes in the provisions of the service plan for a fixed guideway system:

(A) a change in the location of the right-of-way;

(B) a change in the width of the right-of-way if a width is stated in the service plan or the establishment of a width if no width is stated;

(C) a change in grade separation if a grade separation is stated in the service plan or the establishment of a grade separation if no grade separation is stated;

(D) a change that moves the location of a station; or

(E) a change causing the vertical alignment of a guideway to be redefined between the classification of aerial, at-grade, or subgrade if a vertical alignment is stated in the service plan or the establishment of a vertical alignment if no vertical alignment is stated; or

(2) a change that moves the location, as specified in the service plan, of one of the following facilities:

(A) a parking lot;

(B) a maintenance facility; or

(C) an off-street transfer center; or

(3) the addition of a facility listed in Subsection (b)(1) or (2) or the addition of a route for a fixed guideway system.

(e) Before approving a major change in the service plan, the executive committee shall cause written notice of a public hearing on the proposed change to be sent to:

(1) all owners of real property lying within 400 feet of the proposed boundary of the right-of-way or the proposed boundary of property on which the facility is to be located; and

(2) the governing body of each city and county in which the changed or additional right-of-way or facility is to be located.

(d) The measurement of the 400 feet includes streets and alleys.

(e) The notice must be given not less than 20 days before the date of the hearing by depositing the notice property addressed and postage paid in the United States mail to each governing body and to the property owners as indicated on the last approved city or county tax roll.

(f) After a public hearing, the executive committee may approve a major change in the service plan by a favorable vote of two-thirds of the members present. Other changes in the service plan may be approved by a majority vote of the members present at a meeting without the notice described in Subsection (e) and without a public hearing.

(g) After approval of a major change in the service plan, the executive committee shall give notice that the change has been approved to:

(1) the governing body of each county in which the changed or additional right-of-way or facility is to be located if the change is located in an unincorporated area; and

(2) the governing body of each city in which the changed or additional right-of-way or facility is to be located.

(h) If a major change in the service plan includes the addition of a fixed guideway route, including a route to be added pursuant to an agreement provided for in Section 10(i) of this Act, the governing bodies of each city through which the route would pass, must approve the route before the executive committee may add the route to the service plan.

(i) If there is a conflict between this section and Section 10(n), this section shall control.

 Authorities Consisting of One Subregion Governed by Subregional Board Created in Section 6; Fare and Service Changes; Public Hearing

Sec. 10B. (a) For the purposes of this section:
(1) "Transit route" means a route over which a transit vehicle travels which is specifically labelled or numbered for the purpose of picking up or discharging passengers at regularly scheduled stops and intervals.

(2) "Transit route mile" means a distance of one statute mile along a transit route regularly travelled by transit vehicles while available for the general public to carry passengers. The length of a route is the round trip distance traversed in traveling completely over the route and returning to the starting point to begin another circuit of the route. If a route is only defined in one direction, then this one-directional distance is the route length.

(3) "Transit revenue vehicle mile" means a distance of one statute mile travelled while a transit vehicle is available to the general public to carry passengers.

(4) "Service change" means any addition or deletion resulting in the physical realignment of a transit route, or a change in the type of frequency of service provided in a specific, regularly scheduled transit route.

(5) "Experimental service change" means an addition of service to an existing transit route, or the establishment of a new transit route.

(b) An authority consisting of one subregion governed by an executive committee comprised of the subregional board created in Section 6 must hold a public hearing when:

(1) there is a change in any fare;
(2) there is any change of service of:
   (A) 25 percent or more of the number of transit route miles of a transit route;
   (B) 25 percent or more of the number of transit revenue vehicle miles of a transit route computed on a daily basis for the day of the week for which the change is made; or
   (3) a new transit route is established.

(c) A public hearing is not required for:

(1) reduced or free promotional fares which are instituted on a daily basis or periodically within a period of 180 days;
(2) headway adjustments of up to five minutes during peak hour service, and up to 15 minutes during nonpeak hour service;
(3) standard seasonal variations unless the number, timing, or type of standard seasonal variations changes;
(4) an emergency service change in effect for 180 days or less. A public hearing on the emergency change must be held if the emergency change is to be in effect for more than 180 days and if the change meets the test of Subsection (b)(2) or (3). Examples of emergency service changes include but are not limited to those made because of a power failure for a rail or fixed guideway system, the collapse of a bridge over which bus routes pass, major road or rail construction, inadequate supplies of fuel, or a labor stoppage;
(5) experimental service changes in effect for 180 days or less. The public hearing on an experimental service change is required if the experimental service change remains in effect for more than 180 days and if the change meets the test of Subsection (b)(2) or (3). The hearing may be held prior to the institution of or during the period of the experimental service change and will satisfy the requirement for a final public hearing if the hearing notice required by Subsection (e) states that the experiment may become permanent at the end of the experimental period. If a hearing is not held prior to or during the period of the experimental service change, the service that existed prior to the change must be reinstituted at the end of 180 days and a public hearing held in accordance with Subsection (e) before the experimental service may be continued.

(d) If a number of changes on a route in a fiscal year add up to the percentages in Subsection (b), a public hearing must be held before the last change.

(e) When a public hearing is required by this section, the executive committee shall call the public hearing and cause notice of the hearing to be published one time in a newspaper of general circulation within the territory of the authority at least 30 days before the date of the hearing and shall cause notice to be posted in each transit vehicle in service on any transit route affected by the proposed change for a period of at least two weeks within 30 days before the date of the hearing. The notice must contain:

(1) a description of the contemplated service changes, or the fare change, as appropriate;
(2) the time and place of the hearing; and
(3) if a hearing required by Subsection (d) is held, a description of the last change being contemplated and the prior changes that were made.

(f) The public hearing requirement of this section will be satisfied if a fare change or change in service is addressed at a public hearing which is mandated by federal law. The requirements of Subsection (e) must be followed for the hearing.

Addition of Territory

Sec. 11. (a) Territory may be added to an authority only according to the provisions of this section.

(b) The governing body of an incorporated city or town located in whole or in part within a county in which the authority is situated may hold an election on the question of whether the city or town shall be annexed to the authority. If a majority of the qualified voters in the city or town votes for annexation, the governing body shall certify the results of the election to the executive committee of the authority, and the city or town shall become a part of...
the authority, except as provided in Subsection (f) of this section. Should a principal city of another subregion or the other subregion choose to join the authority, the procedures outlined in Sections 3 and 4 of this Act shall apply. Following the conduct of this section. Should a principal city of another subregional board will be established according to the last preceding decennial census. The population according to the last preceding decennial census may join a separate authority upon otherwise complying with the terms of this Act. In such event thereafter, should a separate authority be established in a county with a principal city, any city within such county which has voted to participate with any authority created pursuant to this Act shall have the following options at that time: to remain a part of the earlier created authority, to join the new authority in the county in which the city is located, or to participate with both authorities. Provided that any such city wherein capital improvements have been previously made at its request by an authority must upon its transfer to a different authority or participation with more than one authority continue to honor reimbursement obligations resulting from such improvements.

(d) The commissioners court of a county in which the authority is situated in whole or in part that is adjacent to a county in which the authority is situated in whole or in part may hold an election for unincorporated areas in any one or more of the designated election areas formed for the election by order of the commissioners court on the question of whether the unincorporated area in which the election is held shall be annexed to the authority. The boundaries of a designated election area shall coincide to the extent practicable with the boundary of a county voting precinct so that insofar as practicable no county voting precinct is divided. If a majority of the qualified voters in any area where such an election is held votes in favor of annexation, the commissioners court shall certify the results of the election to the executive committee of the authority and the unincorporated area shall become a part of the authority, except as provided in Subsection (f) of this section.

(f) If an authority adds territory or alters its boundaries, the presiding officer of the executive committee shall forward to the comptroller of public accounts by United States registered mail or certified mail a certified copy of the order adding territory to the authority or of the order canvassing the returns and declaring the result of the election. The order shall reflect the effective date of the tax and shall be accompanied by a map of the authority clearly showing the territory added or detached.

(2) Upon receipt of the order and map, the tax imposed and authorized to be collected under Section 16 of this Act shall be effective in the added territory on the first day of the next succeeding quarter. However, if the comptroller notifies the presiding officer of the executive committee in writing within 10 days after receipt of the order and map that he requires more time, the comptroller shall be entitled to delay implementation one whole calendar quarter. Thereafter the tax shall be effective in the added territory on the first day of the next succeeding calendar quarter following the elapsed quarter.

(g) Territory in which an election is held as provided in Subsection (b) or (d) of this section becomes a part of the authority on the 31st day after the election, if the voters approve the addition as provided in Subsection (b) or (d) of this section, and unless the executive committee of the authority notifies the appropriate governing body in writing before that date that the addition, because it is not contiguous to the existing authority, would create a fiscal hardship on the authority.

(h) Separate subregional authorities created pursuant to this Act may voluntarily merge upon a subsequent agreement between them.

Separate Subregional Authority

Sec. 12. In the event one subregion should establish a regional transportation authority, the remaining subregion may establish a separate regional transportation authority pursuant to this Act. In a separate subregion with a principal city of less than 800,000, the tax rate shall be approved by the commissioners court before confirmation election as provided in Section 9 of this Act.

Composition of the Executive Committee

Sec. 13. If the existence of the authority is confirmed in both subregions, then the executive committee shall be organized as provided in Section 5 of this Act. If a creating entity in only one subregion initiates the process or if the existence of the authority is confirmed in only one subregion or separate subregion, then the board for that subregion shall become the executive committee and governing body of the authority, and members of the executive committee shall be selected in the manner prescribed for selection of the members of the board for the subregion that comprises the authority.

Station or Terminal Complexes

Sec. 14. (a) The acquisition of any land or any interest in land pursuant to this Act; the planning,
CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Art. 1118y

acquisition, establishment, development, construction, improvement, maintenance, equipment, operation, regulation, protection, and policing of the authority's system and facilities; and the exercise of any other powers granted an authority, including without limitation the rights, powers, and authority relating to station or terminal complexes as provided in this section, are declared to be public and governmental functions, exercised for a public purpose, and matters of public necessity for public use and public benefit.

(b) The authority shall have the right, power, and authority to acquire by grant, purchase, gift, devise, lease, or eminent domain proceedings and to own lands in fee simple and any interest less than fee simple in, on, under, and above lands, including without limitation easements, rights-of-way, rights of use of air space or subsurface space or any combination thereof adjacent or accessible to stations and other public or general transportation facilities developed or to be developed by the authority that may be required for or in aid of the development of one or more station or terminal complexes, as part of its transportation system and may sell, lease, or otherwise transfer the same or any part thereof to individuals, corporations, or governmental entities, subject to the restrictions provided in this section.

(c) Any lands or interests in land acquired for a station or terminal complex must be part of or contained within a station or terminal complex designated as part of the system within a comprehensive service plan approved by resolution of the executive committee. Before a station or terminal complex may be included in the system, the executive committee must find and determine that the proposed station or terminal complex will encourage transportation service and provide other public purposes, will reduce vehicular congestion and air pollution in the metropolitan area, and is reasonably essential to the successful operation of the system. The executive committee may amend its comprehensive service plan to include other station or terminal complexes upon making these findings.

(d) Any station or terminal complex shall include adequate provisions for the transfer of passengers between the various modes of transportation available to the complex. A complex may include provisions for commercial, residential, recreational, institutional, and industrial facilities, except that no lands or interests in land more than 1,500 feet in distance from the center point of the complex may be acquired for the facilities by eminent domain proceedings, and the executive committee shall designate the center point prior to the commencement of eminent domain proceedings. If a proposed station or terminal complex is to be located within the city limits or extraterritorial jurisdiction of a city or town, the governing body of the city or town must approve the location of the complex as to conform with the comprehensive or general plan of the city or town by motion, resolution, or ordinance duly adopted.

(e) The authority may sell, lease, or otherwise transfer lands or interests in land acquired within a station or terminal complex and may enter into contracts with respect to it in accordance with the comprehensive service plan approved by the executive committee, subject to such covenants, conditions, and restrictions, including covenants running with the land and obligations to commence construction within a specified time, as the executive committee may deem to be in the public interest or necessary to carry out the purposes of this section, all of which shall be incorporated into the instrument transferring or conveying title or right of use. Any lease, sale, or transfer shall be at fair value taking into account the use designated for the land in the comprehensive service plan for the system and the restrictions on and the covenants, conditions, and obligations assumed by the purchaser, lessee, or transferee. However, if the authority offers the property for sale, the original owner from whom the property was acquired by eminent domain proceedings or through threat of eminent domain proceedings has the first right to repurchase at the price at which it is offered to the public.

(f) No station or public transportation facility may be considered a "station or terminal complex" governed by this section unless it has been designated as such in the comprehensive service plan pursuant to the specific authority granted by this section.

Bonds and Notes

Sec. 15. (a) The authority shall have no power to assess, levy, or collect ad valorem taxes on property, nor to issue any bonds or notes secured by ad valorem tax revenues. The authority, however, shall have the full power to issue bonds and notes from time to time and in such amounts as it shall consider necessary or appropriate for the acquisition, purchase, construction, reconstruction, repair, equipping, improvement, or extension of the transportation system and all properties thereof whether real, personal, or mixed. All such bonds and notes shall be fully negotiable and may be made redeemable before maturity at the option of the issuing authority at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the issuing authority in the resolution authorizing such bonds or notes and may be sold at public or private sale whenever the executive committee may deem more advantageous.

(b) Prior to delivery, all bonds and notes authorized to be issued hereunder and the records relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for examination, and if he finds that they have been issued in accordance with the constitution and this Act and that they will be binding obligations of the authority, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered.
by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and after such approval and registration and the sale and delivery of the bonds to the purchaser, they shall be incontestable.

(c) In order to secure the payment of such bonds or notes, such authority shall have full power and authority to encumber and pledge all or any part of the revenue realized from any tax which the authority is authorized to levy and all or any part of the revenues of its transportation system and to mortgage and encumber all or any part of the properties thereof and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired and to prescribe the terms and provisions of such bonds and notes in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. If not prohibited by the resolution or indenture relating to outstanding bonds or notes, any such authority shall have full power and authority to encumber separately any item or items of real estate or personality, including motorbuses, transit cars and other vehicles, machinery, and other equipment of any nature, and to acquire, use, hold, or contract for any such property under any lease arrangement, chattel mortgage, or conditional sale, including but not limited to transactions commonly known as equipment trust transactions. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting an authority from encumbering any one or more transportation systems for the purpose of purchasing, building, constructing, enlarging, extending, repairing, or reconstructing another one or more of said systems and purchasing necessary property, both real, personal, and mixed, in connection therewith.

(d) Refunding bonds or notes may be issued for the purposes and in the manner provided by general law, including without limitation Chapter 503, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, as amended (Article 717k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and Chapter 784, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969 (Article 717k-8, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as presently enacted or hereafter amended.

(e) Whenever the revenues of any public transportation system or general transportation services shall be encumbered under this Act, the expense of operation and maintenance, including all salaries, labor, materials, and repairs necessary to render efficient service and every proper item of expense, shall always be a first lien and charge against such revenues. The fares charged for transportation of passengers by any system may be based upon a zone system of determining fares or other fare classification determined by such authority to be reasonable.

(f) All such bonds and notes shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, and insurance companies. Such bonds and notes shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political subdivisions of the State of Texas, and such bonds and notes shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of the principal amount thereof or their value on the market, whichever is the lesser, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

(g) If revenue bonds are to be issued by an authority to acquire any existing transportation system or any part thereof and the owner thereof is willing to accept said revenue bonds in lieu of cash, then in that event the revenue bonds may be exchanged for the property or for the stock of a corporation owning the property to be dissolved simultaneously.

(h) Bonds payable solely from revenues may be issued by resolution of the executive committee, but no bonds, except refunding bonds, payable wholly or partially from taxes may be issued until authorized by a majority vote of the qualified voters of the authority voting in an election called and held for that purpose.

Local Sales and Use Tax

Sec. 16. (a) Subject to approval at a confirmation election in accordance with this Act, the executive committee is authorized to levy, collect, and impose a local sales and use tax for the benefit of the authority, the sales tax portion of which shall not exceed one percent of receipts from the sale at retail of all taxable items within the authority area which are subject to taxation under the provisions of the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, as enacted and as herefore or hereafter amended. The tax rate may be levied or collected only as a quarter of one percent, a half of one percent, three-quarters of one percent, or one percent. The provisions of this section shall be applicable to the levy, imposition, and collection of the tax.

(b) The following words and terms shall have the following respective meanings unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. “Authority area” means the geographical limits of the authority.
2. “Comptroller” means the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas.
3. “Local sales and use tax” means any and all sales and use tax imposed by a city within the authority area under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act (Article 1066c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).
4. The executive committee by filing a certified copy of the order with the comptroller may authorize and direct the comptroller to collect a rate of tax that is lower than the rate approved by the voters at the confirmation election.
5. The executive committee shall not increase the tax rate above the rate approved by the voters at the confirmation election without first receiving a majority vote in favor of the increase at an authority-wide election.

(c) Upon actual receipt by the comptroller of notification of adoption, increase, or decrease of a local sales and use tax containing the information required by Subsection (f) of Section 9 of this Act, there shall elapse one whole calendar quarter prior to the adoption, increase, or decrease of a local sales and use tax becoming effective. Thereafter the adoption, increase, or decrease shall be effective beginning on the first day of the next calendar quarter following the elapsed calendar quarter.

(2) Every retailer within the authority area shall add the tax imposed by the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, any applicable local sales and use tax, and the tax imposed under the authority of this Act to his sale price, and when added, the combined tax shall constitute a part of the price, shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price. The combined taxes on the transaction shall be determined by multiplying the amount of the sale by the total of the combined applicable tax rates. Any fraction of one cent which is less than one-half of one cent of tax shall not be collected. Any fraction of one cent of tax equal to one-half of one cent or more shall be collected by the retailer as a whole cent of tax. Provided, however, that any retailer who can establish to the satisfaction of the comptroller that 50 percent or more of his receipts from the sale of taxable items arise from individual transactions where the total sales price when multiplied by the combined rates of the taxes imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, any applicable local sales and use tax, and this section equals an amount that is less than one-half of one cent may exclude the receipts from such sales when reporting and paying the tax imposed under this Act, the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and any applicable local sales and use tax. No retailer shall avail himself of this provision without prior written approval of the comptroller. The comptroller shall grant such approval when he is satisfied that the retailer qualifies on the basis set forth in this section and when the retailer has submitted satisfactory evidence that he can and will maintain records adequate to substantiate the exclusion herein authorized. Any attempt on the part of any retailer to exercise this provision without prior written approval of the comptroller shall be deemed to be a failure and refusal to pay the taxes imposed by this Act, the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and any applicable local sales and use tax, and the retailer shall be subject to assessment for both taxes, penalties and interest as provided for in this Act, the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and any applicable local sales and use tax.

(2)(A) In every authority area where the tax authorized by this Act has been adopted pursuant to the provisions of this Act, there is hereby imposed an excise tax on the storage, use, or other consumption within such authority area of taxable items purchased, leased, or rented from any retailer on or after the effective date for collection of the sales tax portion of the sales and use tax for storage, use, or other consumption in such authority area at the same rate as the sales tax levied under this Act of the sales price of the taxable item or, in the case of leases or rentals, of said lease or rental price. Except as provided in Paragraph (D) of this subdivision, the use tax imposed by this section is not owed to and may not be collected by, for, or on behalf of an authority if no excise tax on the storage, use, or other consumption of an item of tangible personal property is owed to or collected by the state under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act or if the tangible personal property is first stored, used, or consumed within an authority or area that has not adopted the sales and use tax imposed by this section.

(B) In each authority where the tax authorized by this Act has been imposed as provided in this Act, the excise tax imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and any applicable excise tax under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act on the storage, use, or other consumption of taxable items and the excise tax imposed by this Act shall be added together to form a combined rate of excise tax which is equal to the sum of the applicable taxes. The tax imposed by this section shall be collected by the comptroller on behalf of and for the benefit of such authority. The formula prescribed in Subdivision (1) of this subsection shall be applicable to the collection of the excise tax imposed under this section.

(C) The provisions of the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act shall be applicable to the collection of the tax imposed by this subdivision (2), provided that in Subchapter D, Chapter 151, Tax Code, the name of the authority where the sales and use tax authorized by this Act has been adopted shall be substituted for that of the state where the words "this state" are used to designate the taxing authority or to delimit the tax imposed.

(D) If a sale of tangible personal property is consummated within the state but not within an authority that has adopted the taxes imposed by this section and the tangible personal property is shipped directly into or brought by the purchaser or lessee directly into an authority that has adopted the taxes imposed by this section, the tangible personal property is subject to the use tax imposed by the authority under Paragraph (A) of this subdivision. The use is considered consummated at the location where the item is first stored, used, or otherwise consumed after the intrastate transit has ceased.

(E) If the tangible personal property is shipped from outside this state to a customer within this state, the tangible personal property is subject to the use tax imposed by Paragraph (A) of this subdivision and not the sales tax imposed by Subdivision

Art. 1118y  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES  1050
(1) of this subsection. The use is consummated at the first point in this state where the property is stored, used, or otherwise consumed after interstate transit has ceased. Tangible personal property delivered to a point in this state is presumed to be for storage, use, or other consumption at that point until the contrary is established.

(F) There are exempted from the sales taxes imposed by this article receipts from any sale of tangible personal property which, pursuant to the contract of sale, is shipped to a point outside the authority area as are made to cities under Subsections 5(b), (c), and (d) of the Local Sales and Use Tax Act.

(7)(A) In an authority where the sales and use tax imposed under the provisions of this Act, the comptroller shall perform all functions incident to the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of the tax, and the comptroller shall collect, in addition to the taxes imposed by the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, an additional tax under the authority of this Act specified by the authority, but not to exceed one percent on the receipts from the sale at retail or on the sale price or lease or rental price on the storage, use, or other consumption of all taxable items within such authority area, which items are subject to the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act. The tax imposed hereunder and the tax imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and any applicable local sales and use tax shall be collected together and reported upon such forms and under such administrative rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the comptroller not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. On and after the effective date of any proposition to abolish such local sales and use tax in any authority area, the comptroller shall comply therewith.

(B) The comptroller shall make to the authority substantially the same reports as to taxes within the authority area as are made to cities under Subsections 5(b), (c), and (d) of the Local Sales and Use Tax Act.

(4) The following provisions shall govern the collection by the comptroller of the tax imposed by this Act:

(A) All applicable provisions contained in Title 2, Tax Code, shall apply to the collection of the tax imposed by this Act, except as modified in this Act.

(B) The provisions contained in Section 6 of the Local Sales and Use Tax Act shall apply to the levy, imposition, and collection of the tax imposed by this Act, except as modified herein.

(C) The penalties provided in Title 2, Tax Code, for violations of that Act are hereby made applicable to violations of this Act.

(D) The sales and use tax collected by the comptroller under this Act shall be deposited, held, accounted for, and transmitted for the authority as provided in Section 7 of the Local Sales and Use Tax Act.

(E) The authority's share of all sales and use tax collected under this Act by the comptroller shall be transmitted to the treasurer or the officer performing the functions of such office of such authority by the comptroller payable to the authority periodically as promptly as feasible. Transmittals required under this Act shall be made at least twice in each state fiscal year. Before transmitting such funds, the comptroller shall deduct two percent of the sum collected from the authority during such period as a charge by the state for its services specified in this Act, and the amounts so deducted shall be deposited by the comptroller in the State Treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund of the state. The comptroller is authorized to retain in the suspense account of an authority a portion of the authority's share of the tax collected under this Act. Such balance so retained in the suspense account shall not exceed five percent of the amount remitted to the authority. The comptroller is authorized to make refunds from the suspense account of an authority for overpayments made to such accounts and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of such tax in the authority at the time of termination of collection of such tax in the authority to cover possible refunds for overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of such tax in the authority, the comptroller shall remit the balance in such accounts to the authority and close the account.

(7)(A) In an authority where the sales and use tax authorized by this Act has been imposed, if any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid by him under this Act or in the event a determination has been made against him for taxes and penalty under this Act, the limitation for bringing suit for the collection of such delinquent tax and penalty shall be the same as that provided by the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act. Where any person is delinquent in payment of taxes under this Act, the comptroller shall notify the authority to which delinquent taxes are due under this Act by United States registered mail or certified mail and shall send a copy of the notice to the attorney general. The authority, acting through its attorney, may join in any suit brought by the attorney general as a party plaintiff to seek a judgment for the delinquent taxes and penalty due such authority. The notice sent by the comptroller to the authority showing the delinquency of a taxpayer constitutes a certification of the amount owed and is prima facie evidence of the determination of the tax and of the delinquency of the amounts of sales and use tax set forth in the notice.

(B) Where property is seized by the comptroller under the provisions of any law authorizing seizure of the property of a taxpayer who is delinquent in payment of the tax imposed by the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and where such taxpayer is also delinquent in payment of any tax imposed by this Act, the comptroller shall sell sufficient property to pay the delinquent taxes and penalty due an authority under this Act in addition to that required to pay any amount due the state under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and due any city under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act. The proceeds from such sale shall first be applied to all sums due the state, then all sums due any city under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act, and the remainder, if any, shall be applied to all sums due the authority.

(C) An authority that has adopted the tax authorized by this Act may bring suit for the collection of sales, excise, or use taxes imposed by this Act which have been certified as provided in Paragraph (A) of this subdivision and are owed to the authority under this Act if at least 60 days before the filing of the suit written notice by certified mail of the tax delinquency and of the intention to file suit is given to the taxpayer, the comptroller, and the attorney general and if neither the comptroller nor the attorney general disapproves the suit by written notice to the authority.

(D) The comptroller or attorney general may disapprove the institution of tax suit by an authority if:

(i) negotiations between the state and the taxpayer are being conducted for the purpose of the collection of delinquent taxes owed to the state and the authority seeking to bring suit;

(ii) the taxpayer owes substantial taxes to the state and there is a reasonable possibility that the taxpayer may be unable to pay the total amount owed in full;

(iii) the state will bring suit against the taxpayer for the collection of all sales, excise, and use taxes due under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and this Act; or

(iv) the suit involves a critical legal question relating to the interpretation of state law or a provision of the Texas Constitution or the United States Constitution in which the state has an overriding interest.

(E) A notice of disapproval to an authority must give reason for the determination of the comptroller or attorney general. A disapproval is final and not subject to review. An authority, after one year from the date of the disapproval, may proceed again as provided in Paragraph (C) of this subdivision even though the liability of the taxpayer includes taxes for which the authority has previously given notice and the comptroller or attorney general has previously disapproved the suit.

(F) In any suit under this subdivision for the collection of the authority tax, a judgment for or against the taxpayer does not affect any claim against the taxpayer by a city or the state unless the state is a party to the action.

(G) A copy of the final judgment in favor of an authority in a case in which the state is not a party shall be abstracted by the authority and a copy of the judgment together with a copy of the abstract shall be sent to the comptroller. The authority shall collect taxes awarded to it under the judgment as provided by Section 151.608(e), Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and is responsible for the renewal of the judgment before the expiration of the 10-year period. If a collection is made by an authority on a judgment, notice of the amount collected shall be sent by certified mail to the comptroller. The comptroller may prescribe a form for the notice to be used by an authority.

1 Tax Code, § 151.001 et seq.
2 Tax Code, § 151.101 et seq.
3 Tax Code, § 101.001 et seq.

Differential Tax Rates

Sec. 17. The executive committee by filing a certified copy of the order and a map of the authority clearly showing the boundaries of the subregions with the comptroller may authorize and direct the comptroller to collect a different rate of tax in each subregion as long as neither rate is greater than the rate approved by the voters at the confirmation election. In a subregion with a principal city of less than 900,000, the tax rate shall be approved by the commissioners court before the confirmation election as provided in Section 9 of this Act.

Management

Sec. 18. (a) The responsibility for the operation and control of the properties belonging to an authority shall be vested in its executive committee. The executive committee may:

(1) appoint and prescribe compensation for a general manager who shall employ persons, firms, partnerships, or corporations deemed necessary by the executive committee for the conduct of the affairs of the authority, including but not limited to bookkeepers, engineers, financial advisers, and operating or management companies and in accordance with executive committee policy, prescribe the duties, tenure, and compensation of each; all employees may be removed by the general manager;

(2) appoint auditors and attorneys and prescribe the duties, tenure, and compensation of each;

(3) become a subscriber under the Texas Workers' Compensation Act with any old-line legal-reserve insurance company authorized to write policies in the State of Texas;

(4) adopt a seal for the authority;

(5) invest funds of the authority in direct or indirect obligations of the United States, the state, or any county, city, school district, or other political subdivision of the state; funds of the authority may be placed in certificates of deposit of state or national banks or savings and loan associations within the state provided that they are secured in the manner provided for the security of the funds of counties of the State of Texas; the executive committee by resolution may provide that an authorized representative of the authority may invest and reinvest the funds of the authority and provide for money to be withdrawn from the appropriate accounts of the authority for the investments on such terms as the executive committee considers advisable;

(6) fix the fiscal year for the authority;

(7) establish a complete system of accounts for the authority and each year shall have prepared an audit of its affairs by an independent certified public accountant or a firm of independent certified public accountants which shall be open to public inspection; and

(8) designate one or more banks to serve as the depository for the funds of the authority.

(b) All funds of the authority shall be deposited in the depository bank or banks unless otherwise required by orders or resolutions authorizing the issuance of the authority's bonds or notes.

(c) To the extent that funds in the depository bank or banks are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, they shall be secured in the manner provided by law for the security of funds of counties of the State of Texas.

(d) The executive committee by resolution may authorize a designated representative to supervise the substitution of securities pledged to secure the authority's funds.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 19. (a) The executive committee may adopt and enforce reasonable rules and regulations:

(1) to secure and maintain safety and efficiency in the operation and maintenance of its facilities;

(2) governing the use of the authority's facilities and services by the public and the payment of fares, tolls, and charges; and

(3) regulating privileges on any land, easement, right-of-way, rolling stock, or other property owned or controlled by the authority.

(b) A condensed substantive statement of the rules and regulations shall be published after adoption once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper with general circulation in the area in which the authority is located which notice shall advise that the full text of the rules and regulations is on file in the principal office of the authority where it may be read by any interested person. Such rules and regulations shall become effective 10 days after the second publication.

Competitive Bids

Sec. 20. Contracts for more than $2,000 for the construction of improvements or the purchase of material, machinery, equipment, supplies, and all other property, except real property, shall be let on competitive bids after notice published once at least 15 days before the date fixed for receiving bids in a newspaper of general circulation in the area in which the authority is located. The executive committee may adopt rules governing the taking of bids and the awarding of such contracts. This section shall not apply to personal and professional services or to the acquisition of existing transit systems.

County Authority to Contract with Authority

Sec. 21. A commissioners court may contract with an authority for the authority to provide public transportation services to any unincorporated area outside the boundaries of the authority for a term and on those conditions as are determined to be desirable by the commissioners court and the executive committee. The county may levy and collect taxes or pledge and encumber other receipts or revenues as may be required to make any payments to the authority under the provisions of the contract.

Elections

Sec. 22. (a) This section governs all elections ordered by the executive committee except elections held under the provisions of Section 9 of this Act.

(b) Notice of an election ordered by the executive committee shall be given by publication once a week for three consecutive weeks with the first publication in a newspaper with general circulation in the authority at least 21 days before the election.

(c) A resolution calling an election and the notice of the election are sufficient if the date and hours of the election, the voting places within voting precincts for the election, and the propositions to be voted on are specified. The executive committee may define and declare voting precincts, determine the manner of absentee voting, and prescribe the election officers.
Art. 1118y  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES  1054

(d) As soon as practicable after an election, the executive committee shall canvass the returns of the election and declare the results.

(e) Where not otherwise provided in this section, the general election laws apply.

Exemptions from Taxes

Sec. 23. The property, revenues, and income of the authority and the interest bonds and notes issued by the authority shall be exempt from all taxes levied or to be levied by the State of Texas, its political subdivisions, counties, or municipal corporations.

Incorporated City May Provide Services

Sec. 23A. Nothing contained in this Act shall preclude an incorporated city from providing general transportation services or public transportation services.

Subregional Transportation Authorities in Contiguous Cities

Sec. 24. (a) Nothing contained in this Act shall require any city with a population in excess of 150,000, according to the most recent federal census and with boundaries contiguous to a principal city with a population less than 800,000 according to the most recent federal census, or any city with boundaries contiguous to a principal city and with boundaries extending into two or more adjacent counties, two of which counties include a principal city, to be a part of or participate in the regional transportation authority provided herein. Such cities shall be called "contiguous cities."

(b) Nothing contained in this Act shall prohibit any such contiguous city from establishing a subregional transportation authority.

(c)(1) Within 60 days after initiation of the process provided in Section 3 of this Act by a principal city or a county of the principal city or within 60 days after a confirmation election or any election to dissolve the authority, in which a majority of the votes cast in such contiguous city either fail to confirm the creation of the authority or approve the dissolving of the authority, any such contiguous city may elect by resolution of its governing body not to participate in the regional transportation authority established by a principal city or county of a principal city.

(2) In the event such contiguous city shall elect not to participate in the regional transportation authority proposed or created by the principal city or county of the principal city and shall be excluded from the regional transportation authority, the executive committee may create a subregional transportation authority by one of the following methods:

(1) The governing body of a contiguous city may initiate the process to create a subregional transportation authority on its own motion.

(2) If a petition requesting creation of a subregional transportation authority signed by at least five percent of the registered voters of the contiguous city is presented, the governing body of the contiguous city shall initiate the process for creating the subregional transportation authority.

(e) The subregional transportation authorities created in any two or more contiguous cities may establish a joint subregional transportation authority by contract. A subregional transportation authority or joint subregional transportation authorities may enter into contracts with a regional transportation authority.

(f) Except as it may conflict with the intent of this Section 24, the initiating procedure for a subregional transportation authority shall be the same as that provided in Section 4 of this Act. Where the word "principal city" is used therein, it shall mean contiguous city and where the word "authority" is used therein, it shall mean the subregional transportation authority.

(g)(1) The management, control, and operation of a subregional transportation authority and its property shall be vested in an executive committee comprised of five members selected by the governing body of the contiguous city.

(2) The members of the executive committee shall elect from among their number a chairman, a vice-chairman, and a secretary. The executive committee may appoint such assistant secretaries, either members or nonmembers of the executive committee, as it deems necessary. The secretary and assistant secretary shall, in addition to keeping the permanent records of all proceedings and transactions of the subregional transportation authority, perform such other duties as may be assigned to them by the executive committee. No member of the executive committee or officer of the subregional transportation authority shall be pecuniarily interested or benefited directly or indirectly in any contract or agreement to which the authority is a party.

(3) The executive committee shall hold at least one regular meeting during each month for the purpose of transacting the business of the subregional transportation authority. Upon written notice, the chairman may call special meetings as may be necessary. The executive committee, when organized, shall by resolution set the time, place, and day of the regular meetings and shall adopt rules, regulations, and bylaws as it may deem necessary for the conduct of its official meetings. Four members shall constitute a quorum of the executive committee for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers, and action may be taken by the subregional transportation authority upon a vote of a majority of the executive committee members present unless the bylaws require a larger number for a particular action.

(4) The executive committee shall receive recommendations for the annual budget from the governing body of the contiguous city and shall obtain approval of the final annual budget from said contiguous city.

(b)(1) After the interim executive committee has organized, developed a service plan, and determined the rate of tax that it desires to levy, it shall call a confirmation election in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) When the executive committee orders a confirmation election, it shall submit to the qualified voters within the subregional transportation authority the following proposition: "Shall the creation of (name of authority) be confirmed and shall the levy of the proposed tax be authorized?"

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, notice of the election shall be given in accordance with the general election laws. The notice of the election shall include a description of the nature and rate of the proposed tax. A copy of the notice of the election and any other election held pursuant to this Act shall be furnished to the State Highways and Public Transportation Commission.

(4) Immediately after the election, the presiding judge of each election precinct within the contiguous city shall return the results to the executive committee, which shall canvass the returns and declare the results of the election and adopt an order declaring the creation of the subregional transportation authority.

(5) If the votes cast are such that the subregional transportation authority ceases to exist in its entirety, the executive committee shall enter an order so declaring and file a certified copy of the order with the State Highways and Public Transportation Commission, and the authority shall be dissolved.

(6) The cost of the confirmation election shall be paid by the creating entity.

(7) If the election results in the confirmation of a subregional transportation authority, the authority shall, within the limits confirmed, be authorized to function in accordance with the terms of this Act, and the executive committee may levy and collect the proposed tax within those limits.

(8) If the continued existence of a subregional transportation authority is not confirmed by election within three years after the effective date of the resolution(s) or order(s) initiating the process to create the subregional transportation authority, the subregional transportation authority ceases to exist on the expiration of the three years.

(9) For a period of one year following a confirmation election, the governing body of any contiguous city may on its own volition or shall, upon receipt of a petition containing signatures of at least 20 percent of the registered voters within the contiguous city call an election and offer the following proposition: "Shall the (name of authority) be dissolved in this city?" Should the majority of voters voting in the election vote to dissolve the subregional transportation authority within the contiguous city, the subregional transportation authority shall cease to exist within the city as of 12 midnight on the date of the canvass of the election and all financial obligations of that unit of election will cease to accrue at that time. The financial obligation shall be computed on a per capita basis for the entire year and taxes will continue to be collected until such time as all financial obligations of the contiguous city are paid, at which time the taxes collected to support the subregional transportation authority shall cease within the contiguous city.

(i) The following sections of this Act shall not apply to subregional transportation authorities:

Sections 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 11, and 12.

(j) Sections 10, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, and 23 shall be applicable to the subregional transportation authorities. Whenever the term "authority" is used, it shall mean subregional transportation authority.

(k)(1) If a city or town which is a part of an authority lawfully annexes additional territory which is not a part of the subregional transportation authority, the annexed territory becomes a part of the subregional transportation authority.

(2) At the time territory is added to a subregional transportation authority under the provisions of this section, any tax which the board of the subregional transportation authority has already been authorized to levy applies to the added territory.

Eligibility of Excepted Areas for Federal Funds

Sec. 25. Ratification by referendum of an authority under the terms of this Act by less than all incorporated cities within the metropolitan area as defined herein shall not affect in any way the eligibility of such excepted incorporated cities to receive federal transit grants under the Surface Transportation Assistance Act of 1978 or any subsequent federal statutes.

1 See 23 U.S.C.A. § 101 et seq.

Severability Clause

Sec. 26. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutionel, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, or provision. It is provided, however, that the provisions of Subsection (b) of Section 4 of this Act are not severable in whole or in part.

3. CITY REGULATION

See, now, the Public Utility Regulatory Act, classified as art. 1446c.

Art. 1120. Protective Ordinances, Etc.

The governing body shall have power to pass such ordinances as they may deem proper to protect any said company, corporation or person, in the free enjoyment of all their rights and franchises, to any said company, corporation or person, in the free of the Tax Code.

Art. 1134a. Incorporation of Cities and Towns Validated

Irregularities Not Invalidating Incorporation

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in Texas of five thousand (5000) inhabitants or less, heretofore incorporated and/or attempted in good faith to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, whether under the aldermanic form of government or under the commission form of government, and which have in good faith functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated, as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid on account of irregularities in the petition for election, order for election, notice of election, returns of election, order declaring result of election, or other incorporation proceedings.

Governmental Proceedings Validated

Sec. 2. All governmental proceedings performed in good faith by the governing bodies of such cities and towns since their incorporation or attempted incorporation, respectively, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective dates of such proceedings, and such governmental proceedings shall be effective the same as if such cities and towns had been regularly incorporated in the first instance.

Inapplicable to City or Town in Litigation

Sec. 3. The provisions of this bill shall affect no city or town now in litigation.

[Acts 1925, 46th Leg., p. 125, ch. 58.]

Art. 1134b. Validating Incorporation of Cities of 600 or Over

All cities and towns of six hundred inhabitants or more which have heretofore attempted to accept the provisions of Title XXVIII\(^1\) and to become incorporated cities and towns of six hundred inhabitants or more under the General Laws of Texas, and have failed to comply with all the requirements of said General Laws, or which are not included within the literal meaning of those cities which are authorized to accept the provisions of said general laws, and all towns and villages incorporated under Chapter 14 or Chapter 11 of Title XXVIII of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925,\(^2\) and which now have six hundred inhabitants or more, and which have heretofore attempted to accept the provisions of Title XXVIII and to become incorporated cities of six hundred inhabitants or more, but which said cities have from and after the dates of their several attempted incorporations and their several efforts to accept the provisions of said Title XXVIII, have exercised the functions of cities of the class named, and were by the State of Texas recognized as such cities, are hereby declared to be cities of six hundred inhabitants; and the several acts whereby they attempted

2 Article 1133 et seq. or 1133 et seq.

Art. 1134c. Validation of Incorporation of Cities and Towns Between 200 and 10,000

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in Texas of more than two hundred (200) and less than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925,1 and Senate Bill 144, passed by the Forty-seventh Legislature, Regular Session, 1941,2 whether under the aldermanic form of government or the commission form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation; and the incorporation of such cities and towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election may have been ordered by the Commissioners Court instead of the County Judge, nor shall such incorporation be held invalid on account of irregularities in the petition for election, order of election, notice of election, returns of election, order declaring result of election, or other incorporation proceedings.

Sec. 2. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns since their incorporation, or attempted incorporation, respectively, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective dates of such proceedings, and such governmental proceedings shall be effective the same as if such cities and towns had been regularly incorporated in the first instance.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act shall affect no city or town now in litigation.

1 Article 961 et seq.
2 Article 1133.

Art. 1134d. Validation of Incorporation, Boundary Lines and Governmental Proceedings; Towns and Villages Involved in Litigation Resulting in Agreed Judgment

Scope of Act

Sec. 1. This Act applies to any municipality originally incorporated or attempted to have been incorporated under Chapter 11, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended (Article 1133, et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), which after the date of its incorporation or attempted incorporation was party to a suit in the district court in which another city, town, or village was a party and the issue was raised that the incorporation or attempted incorporation violated the territory or extraterritorial jurisdiction of the other city, town, or village, and the suit resulted in the entry of an agreed judgment upholding the validity of the incorporation or attempted incorporation and providing for the adjustment of boundaries and areas of extraterritorial jurisdiction for the two municipalities, which judgment was either not appealed or not reversed on appeal.

Proceedings Validated

Sec. 2. The following are validated as of the dates on which they occurred:

1. The incorporation or attempted incorporation of a municipality covered by this Act;
2. The boundary lines of the municipality covered by the original incorporation or attempted incorporation proceedings;
3. Any governmental proceedings of the municipality relating to the adoption or attempted adoption of the provisions of Chapters 1 through 10, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended (Article 961, et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), whether the proceedings were carried out after an adoption or attempted adoption before or after an adoption or attempted adoption by the municipality of the provisions of Chapters 1 through 10, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended;
4. All adjustments in the boundaries and areas of extraterritorial jurisdiction of the municipality that were carried out in accordance with the agreed judgment or the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), whether the proceedings were carried out before or after an adoption or attempted adoption by the municipality of the provisions of Chapters 1 through 10, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended;
5. Any proceedings of the municipality carried out after an adoption or attempted adoption by the municipality of the provisions of Chapters 1 through 10, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, relating to the issuance of general obligation bonds, the issuance of which was approved by a majority of the qualified voters of the municipality voting on the question in an election; and
6. All other governmental acts or proceedings of the municipality.
Sec. 3. This Act does not apply to any matter that on the effective date of this Act:

(1) has been declared invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(2) is involved in litigation if the litigation ultimately results in the matter being held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 1135. Adjoining Territory Added

Whenever a majority of the inhabitants, who are qualified voters of any territory adjoining the limits of any town or village incorporated heretofore, shall vote in favor of becoming a part of said town or village, any three of them may make affidavit to such fact and file such affidavit with the mayor of said town or village, and such mayor shall certify the same to the council of said town or village. Thereupon, such council may, by ordinance, receive such inhabitants as a part of said town or village. Thenceforth the territory so received shall be a part of said town or village and the inhabitants shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens and bound by all the acts and ordinances made in conformity thereto and passed in pursuance of this chapter; provided, that the area of no town or village shall ever exceed that of the proposed town for the six months next preceding such election, who shall select two judges and two clerks to assist in holding it. After a previous notice of ten days, by posting advertisement thereof at three public places in the town or village, the election shall be held in the manner prescribed for holding elections in other cases.

Art. 1136. Election Order

If satisfactory proof is made that the town or village contains the requisite number of inhabitants, the county judge shall make an order for holding an election on a day therein stated and at a place designated within the town or village for the purpose of submitting the question to a vote of the people. He shall appoint an officer to preside at the election, who shall select two judges and two clerks to assist in holding it. After a previous notice of ten days, by posting advertisement thereof at three public places in the town or village, the election shall be held in the manner prescribed for holding elections in other cases.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1137. Qualifications of Electors

Every person who has attained the age of twenty-one years and who has resided within the limits of the proposed town for the six months next preceding and is a qualified elector under the laws of this State, shall be entitled to vote at the election.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1138. Ballots

On each ticket the voter must write or cause to be written or printed, "corporation" or "no corporation."

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1139. Returns

If a majority of the votes are cast in favor of incorporation the officers holding the election shall make return thereof to the county judge within ten days after the same was held. The county judge shall, within twenty days after the receipt thereof make an entry upon the records of the commissioners court that the inhabitants of the town or village are incorporated within the boundaries thereof; which boundaries shall also be designated in the entry. A certified copy of such entry, together with the plat of the town or village, shall thereupon be recorded in the proper record of deeds of such county.

Art. 1139a. Validating the Incorporation of Certain Cities and Towns

Where, in any city or town heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, the petition calling for an election for the purpose of incorporating any such city or town, the order of the County Judge ordering such election, the notice, or notices of such election, the order of the County Judge declaring the result of such election, by inadvertence, oversight, or mistake, contained an incorrect description by metes and bounds of the territory incorporated or here attempted to be incorporated as such city or town, or where any other such irregularity in the proceedings for such incorporation was had, and where the governing body of such city or town has entered an ordinance correcting and setting forth the true field notes of the territory so incorporated or attempted to be incorporated, or where such ordinance has been entered correcting any other such irregularity in the proceedings for the incorporation of such city or town, and where such city or town has been acting or operating as an incorporated city or town, such incorporation, and any and all ordinances correcting the field notes, or any other irregularity of the proceedings has 1 for incorporation, are hereby in all things ratified, confirmed and validated and such cities or towns are hereby declared to be legally and validly incorporated.

1 As in enrolled bill; probably should read "had."

Art. 1140. Powers of Corporation

When the entry mentioned in the preceding article has been made, the town shall be invested with all the rights incident to such corporation under this chapter, and shall have power to sue and be sued, plead and be imploaded, and to hold and dispose of
Art. 1140

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

real and personal property, provided such real property is situated within the limits of the corporation.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1141. Election of Officers

The county judge shall immediately order an election for a mayor, a marshal and five aldermen. No person shall be eligible to any of said offices unless he possess the requisites provided by this chapter for persons qualified to vote hereunder.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1142. Commission

The county judge shall, immediately after the returns have been made, commission the candidate who received the highest number of votes for the office of mayor, and shall deliver certificates of election to the other officers elected.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1143. Term of Office

(a) The mayor, alderman and all other officers elected at the first election under this chapter, regardless of the time of such first election, shall hold their offices until their successors shall have been duly elected and qualified at the next succeeding annual election, according to the provisions of the succeeding article.

(b) In lieu of one year terms of office, the board of aldermen may provide by ordinance for two year staggered terms of office for the mayor and aldermen. If such an ordinance is adopted, the mayor and two aldermen, determined by lot at the first meeting of the board of aldermen following the next annual election after the adoption of the ordinance, shall serve two year terms. The remaining aldermen hold office for an initial term of one year. Thereafter, all members of the board of aldermen hold office for terms of two years and until their successors have qualified.

Art. 1144. Annual Election

The annual election of officers of all towns and villages incorporated under the provisions of this chapter shall be held on the first Saturday in April of each year. The mayor, or in case of his inability or refusal to act, any two aldermen, shall order such annual election by notice posted for at least twenty days at three public places within the corporate limits. The returns of such election shall be made to the town or village council, and certificates of election given by the mayor or person acting as such to the persons elected to the various offices of such corporation.

Art. 1145. Quorum May Pass By-laws

The mayor shall be the president of the board of aldermen. At the first meeting of each new board of aldermen or as soon as practicable, the board shall elect one alderman to serve as president pro tempore for a term of one year and to perform the duties of the mayor in the event of the mayor's failure, inability, or refusal to act. The mayor shall, with three of the aldermen, constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the mayor's absence, any four of the aldermen constitute a quorum. The quorum has the power to appoint any alderman as a presiding officer at any meeting at which the mayor and president pro tempore are absent. The quorum shall have power to enact such by-laws and ordinances not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of this State as shall be deemed proper for the government of the corporation.

Art. 1145a. Code of Civil and Criminal Ordinances

The board of aldermen of a town or village shall have the power to codify its civil and criminal ordinances and to adopt a civil and criminal code of ordinances, together with appropriate penalties for the violation thereof, which said code when adopted shall have the force and effect of an ordinance regularly enacted with the usual prerequisites of law.

Art. 1146. Powers of Aldermen

The board of aldermen shall:

1. Have power to levy and collect an occupation tax of not more than one-half of the amount levied by the State; also to levy taxes on persons and property, real and personal, within the corporation, subject to taxation by the laws of this State; but the tax on persons and property shall not, in any one year, exceed the rate of one-fourth of one percent on the one hundred dollars valuation.

2. Have and exercise exclusive control over the streets, alleys and other public places within the corporate limits; provided, that, with the consent of the board of aldermen, where streets are continuations of public roads, the commissioners court shall have power to construct bridges and other improvements thereon which facilitate the practicability of travel on said streets.

3. Have the power to cause the male inhabitants between the ages of twenty-one and forty-five years, except ministers of the gospel actually engaged in the discharge of their duties, to work on the streets and public alleys not to exceed five days in any one year, or furnish a substitute, or a sum of money, not to exceed one dollar for each day's work demanded, to employ such substitute.
4. Prevent, as far as practicable, any nuisances within the limits of the corporation, and cause such as exist to be removed at the expense of the person by whom they were occasioned or upon whose property they may be found.

5. Have power to prescribe the fine to be imposed by the mayor for the violation of any by-laws or ordinance, which shall in no case exceed one hundred dollars; but no fine shall be imposed except upon the verdict of a jury, should the defendant demand a trial by jury.

6. Fill, for the unexpired term, any vacancy which may occur in any office created by this chapter or by the board of aldermen under its provisions, such vacancy to be filled by the acting aldermen.

7. Have power to appoint such officers, other than those mentioned in this chapter, as shall be deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of the same, to prescribe their duties and to fix their compensation; and shall also have power to dismiss them at any time and appoint others in their stead.

8. Prescribe the bonds and security which the marshal and such other officers as may be appointed shall give, which shall be executed and approved by the mayor, before the marshal or other officer shall enter upon the discharge of his duties, said bond to be payable to the corporation.

9. Have power to appoint another marshal or officer in the place of the one so elected or appointed if the bond required in the preceding paragraph is not given within five days after the marshal is elected or appointed.

10. The board of aldermen may establish markets and may do whatever else may be necessary to give effect to the provisions of this chapter.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1146A. Appointment of Health Officer

If the board of aldermen appoints a city health officer under Article 4425, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, the appointee is not required to be a resident of the city.

Repeal

Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 798, ch. 190, added art. 4436b and repealed arts. 4422 to 4435, 4436a-1, and 4437a. Section 3(b) of said Act provides:

"The following Acts are repealed to the extent of any conflict with the provisions of this Act: Articles 1002 and 1146A, as amended, Revised Statutes."

Art. 1147. Powers of Marshal

The marshal shall have the same power within the town that constables shall have within their precincts, and shall be entitled to the same fees. He shall discharge all other duties that may be prescribed by the by-laws and ordinances, not inconsistent with the laws of this State, and shall receive therefor such fees as may be fixed by the board. He shall assess and collect the corporation tax, and if the same be not voluntarily paid, he shall have power to make the collection in the same manner and with like effect as is prescribed in chapter 5 of this title for collection of taxes in cities, so far as applicable.

1 Article 1025 et seq.

Section 1 of Acts 1979, 66th Leg., ch. 841, repealing this article, enacted the Property Tax Code, constituting Title 1 of the Tax Code.

Art. 1149. Condemnation for Highways

Any town or village in this State, incorporated under this chapter or by special charter, shall have the right, and they are hereby empowered, to condemn the right of way and roadbed of any railway company whose roadbed runs within the corporate limits of such town or village, when deemed necessary and so declared, by a majority vote of the board of aldermen, for the purpose of opening, widening or extending the streets of such town or village; provided, there are less than four railroad tracks. Failing to agree on the damages to be paid therefor, the mayor shall prepare a statement in writing showing the point on said railroad right of way where said street is desired to be opened, widened or extended, giving the width and length of that portion of the right of way of the railroad sought to be condemned, and describing it so that it can be clearly identified, the object for which it is sought to be condemned, the name and style of the railway company, and file the same with the county judge of the county in which such town or village is situated, whereupon proceedings shall be had to condemn said right of way.

Art. 1150. Commissioners Court May Condemn

County commissioners shall have the right, upon petition of twenty freeholders of any community, or unincorporated town or city, to condemn roadbed of railroads for the same purpose mentioned in the preceding article.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1151. Crossings: Duty of Railroad

Every railroad company in this State shall place and keep that portion of its roadbed and right of way over or across which any public street of any incorporated town or village may run, in proper condition for the use of the traveling public; and in case of its failure to do so for thirty days after written notice given to the section boss of the section where such work or repairs are needed, by the town marshal of such town or village, it shall be liable to a penalty of twenty-five dollars for each week such railroad may fail or neglect to comply with the requirements of this article, recoverable in any court having jurisdiction of the amount involved, in a suit in the name of such town or village.
Art. 1151

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1152. Publication of Ordinances

Sec. 1. No ordinance or by-law shall be enforced until it has been published at least ten days in three public places in the town, or in a newspaper if one be published in the corporation. If no newspaper is published in the corporation, such ordinance or by-law may be published in some newspaper having general circulation in the town. If such newspaper be published weekly, the publication shall be made in one issue thereof.

Sec. 2. In lieu of the publication required in Section 1 of this Article, the governing body may in its discretion provide for the publication of a descriptive caption or title, stating in summary the purpose of the ordinance or by-law and the penalty for violation thereof.

Art. 1153. Amendment of Charter

Towns and villages heretofore incorporated by the Congress of the Republic or the Legislature of this State may, by a resolution of the board of aldermen and a two-thirds vote of the voters at an election held therefor, amend their charters in any particular not in conflict with the constitution of this State or the Revised Statutes. In order to amend the charter of any town or village, it shall be necessary, before said amendment shall go into effect, for the board of aldermen to adopt a resolution setting forth the amendment; and a certified copy of the same shall be approved by the Attorney General and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State before the same shall take effect.

Art. 1153a. Change in Designation From Town to City

Sec. 1. Any town in this state which has been duly and legally created under the laws relating to cities and towns, and which has heretofore adopted or may hereafter adopt the provisions of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended,1 may by ordinance passed by the governing body of such town, change its designation from town to city; provided, however, the change in the designation of such town shall in no wise affect its corporate existence or powers.

Sec. 2. Any bonds which have been voted by such town and which bonds are unissued prior to the change of such designation from town to city may be issued in the name of such city as designated in the ordinance changing its designation.

CHAPTER TWELVE. COMMISSION FORM OF GOVERNMENT

Art. 1154. Petition for Election; Change to Aldermanic Form

Sec. 1. Whenever ten (10%) per cent of the qualified voters of any incorporated city of town having a population of over five hundred (500) and less than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants incorporated under the provisions of this title or any previous General Law, or hereafter incorporated under any General Law, or of any incorporated town or village having a population of more than five hundred (500) and less than one thousand (1,000) inhabitants incorporated under Chapter 11, of this Title1 or any previous General Law, or hereafter incorporated under any General Law, shall petition in writing the Mayor of said city, town or village requesting that an election be ordered to determine whether or not the Commission form of government shall be adopted. Thirty (30) days notice of such election where a city changes from a Commission form of government shall be called and held under the same procedure provided for the adoption of the Commission form of government.

sion form to an Aldermanic form of government, the Mayor and two Commissioners shall continue in office as Mayor and Aldermen respectively for the remainder of their respective terms.

1 Article 1132 et seq.

Art. 1155. Unincorporated Towns

If any unincorporated city or town in this State, having a population of over five hundred and less than five thousand inhabitants, or any unincorporated town or village in this State having a population of more than two hundred and less than one thousand inhabitants, shall desire to be incorporated under the commission form of government as herein provided, an election to determine whether such incorporation may be had shall be called by the county judge of the county under the provisions herein governing incorporated cities and towns, and incorporated towns and villages, and notice of such election shall be given as herein provided, and if satisfactory proof is made that the city or town or village contains the requisite number of inhabitants, the county judge shall make an order for holding an election on a day therein stated, and at a place designated within the city or town or village, for the purpose of submitting the question to a vote of the people.

Art. 1156. Ballot

The ballots to be used in said election shall have written or printed thereon "For Commission" or "Against Commission."

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1157. Election

The mayor or county judge, as the case may be, shall appoint two judges of election, one of which shall be designated as the presiding judge, and two clerks, to hold said election. The election shall be held and governed by the general laws of this State except as herein otherwise provided, and the returns shall be made to the mayor or the county judge, as the case may be within five days after said election shall have been held. If a majority of the votes cast are "For Commission," then the mayor or county judge shall enter an order to that effect upon the minutes of the city council, or board of aldermen, of the commissioners court, and after the entry of said order said incorporated city or town or village shall be under the commission form of government, and said unincorporated city or town, or unincorporated town or village, shall be incorporated and under the commission form of government.

Art. 1158. Officers

At such election there shall be elected two commissioners, who shall serve until the first Saturday in April following, and in said unincorporated cities and towns, and unincorporated towns and villages, there shall at such elections be elected a mayor and two commissioners, who shall serve until the first Saturday in April following. The mayor of the incorporated cities and towns, and incorporated towns and villages, adopting the commission form of government shall continue to hold his office for the term for which he was elected. The term of office of the mayor and commissioners, except the first elected under the provisions hereof, shall be two years, and they shall be elected on the first Saturday in April every two years.

Art. 1159. Vacancies

In case of the death or the resignation of the mayor or commissioners, the others shall fill the place by appointment, provided that shall a vacancy occur from death, resignation, or failure to qualify, or any other cause, of the mayor and one commissioner at the same time, or of two commissioners at the same time, the vacancy shall be filled by special election called by the county judge of the county, upon notice for the time, and subject to all the regulations herein for the original election; the result of said election shall be certified by the county judge to the clerk of said commission, and shall be entered upon the minutes.

Art. 1160. Shall Supersede Council

In incorporated cities and towns and incorporated towns and villages, adopting the commission form of government under the provisions hereof, the members of the city council, and board of aldermen shall hold their offices until the commissioners elected hereunder shall have qualified, and after such qualification, the officers of the city council, and board of aldermen shall be abolished, and the mayor and commissioners herein provided for shall constitute the "Board of Commissioners" of said city or town, or town or village.

Art. 1161. Officers Appointed

Said "Board of Commissioners" shall appoint a competent person to be Clerk, who shall also be Assessor and Collector of Taxes of such city or town, or town or village. He shall before entering upon the duties of his office, enter into a good and sufficient bond, to be executed by a surety company authorized to do business in the State of Texas, in an amount sufficient to adequately protect the funds of such city or town, but in no event less than twice the largest amount collected at any one time in the preceding fiscal or calendar year, to be determined by the Board of Commissioners, and said bond to be approved by the Board and filed and recorded in the minutes thereof. Said Clerk shall be invested and charged with and shall exercise all the power, rights and duties conferred upon and imposed by the General Laws, upon the Clerk, Treasurer, Assessor and Collector of Taxes, of cities and towns, or towns and villages, as the case may be. The Board shall also have the authority to appoint a City Attorney and such police force and such other officers as they may deem necessary, and fix the salary or other compensation to be received by such Clerk, and by such officers, and define their duties, and at any time may abolish any office which it creates, and may discharge any officer, clerk or employee which it appoints.

Art. 1162. Bond of Officers

The mayor and each commissioner shall enter into a bond in the sum of three thousand dollars each, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their office; said bond of the officers, first elected hereunder, shall be approved within twenty days after the entry upon the minutes of the city council, or board of aldermen or the commissioners court, as the case may be, by the county judge of the county in which such city or town, or town or village is located, and to be payable to said city or town or town or village for its use and benefit. All subsequent bonds of officers elected hereunder shall be approved by the "Board of Commissioners."

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1163. Commissioners, Duties, etc.

The "Board of Commissioners" of all incorporated and unincorporated cities or towns or towns and villages of over five hundred and less than five thousand inhabitants incorporated under or adopting the commission form of government under the provisions of this chapter, shall have all of the authority and powers, and be subject to all of the duties granted and conferred under Chapters 1 to 10 both inclusive of this title except where same may conflict with some provision of this chapter. In incorporated and unincorporated towns and villages of more than two hundred and not more than five hundred inhabitants, adopted or incorporated under the commission form of government hereunder, the "Board of Commissioners" shall have all authority and powers conferred under Chapter 11 of this title except where the same may be in conflict with some provision contained herein.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

1 Article 1161 et seq.
2 Article 1162 et seq.

Art. 1164. Meetings and Salary

Said Board shall hold at least one regular monthly meeting, and the mayor and two (2) commissioners may call as many special meetings as may be necessary to attend to the municipal business. Each commissioner and said mayor shall receive for his service Five Dollars ($5) per day for each regular meeting, and Three Dollars ($3) per day for each special meeting. The mayor or any commissioner shall not receive pay for more than five (5) special meetings in any one month. In lieu of such per diem said "Board of Commissioners" of any such town or city with not less than two thousand (2,000) population, may fix the salary to be received by the mayor and commissioners, not to exceed the sum of Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1200) per year for said mayor and Six Hundred Dollars ($600) per year for each commissioner.

In lieu of such per diem said "Board of Commissioners" of any such town or city containing less than two thousand (2,000) population, according to the last preceding Federal Census, may fix salary to be received by the mayor not to exceed the sum of Six Hundred Dollars ($600) per year.

Art. 1164a. Incorporations Validated

In all cities and towns heretofore incorporated, or attempted to be incorporated, under the provisions of Chapter 12, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of incorporation, or attempted incorporation, and the boundaries of which have been defined by the Board of Commissioners of such cities and towns, by ordinance duly adopted and placed in the Minutes of such Board of Commissioners, the incorporation of such cities and towns to include the exact territory described in said ordinance so adopted, be and the same is hereby validated, ratified, approved, and confirmed; and the boundaries of said cities and towns as defined in such ordinance shall control and prevail over the boundaries set-forth in the incorporation proceedings of such cities and towns.

[Acts 1945, 49th Leg., p. 540, ch. 326, § 1.]

1 Article 1154 et seq.

Art. 1164b. Special Elections Changing Form of Government Validated

Sec. 1. In each instance where, prior to January 1, 1971, a special election has been held in a city or town operating under the general laws for the purpose of changing the form of government of such city or town from the aldermanic form to the commission form, or for the purpose of changing the form of government of such city or town from the commission form to the aldermanic form, as authorized by Article 1154, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and such special election was held on the same day that a primary election was held throughout the state as prescribed in the Election Code of the State of Texas, as amended, such special election for the purpose of changing the form of government in such city or town, and the election of city officials under the new form of government so adopted by the voters at such special election, shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that such special election was held on the same day as a primary election day. Such special election to change the form of government in any such city or town is hereby in all things ratified, validated, and confirmed, and the election of city officials under the new form of government so adopted by the voters at such election is hereby ratified, validated, and confirmed.

Sec. 2. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all offices thereof since such election changing the form of government of all such cities and towns are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of an election changing the form of government under Article 1154, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or the election of city officials under the new form of government so adopted at such election, if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such towns included by the original incorporation proceeding which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 1164a-3. Validation of Incorporation, Boundary Lines and Governmental Proceedings

Sec. 1. All towns heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the commission form of government (as provided by Chapter 12 of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended 1), which are now functioning or attempting to function as an incorporated municipality are hereby in all respects validated, ratified, and confirmed as of the date of the canvass of the returns and declaration of the result of the incorporation election; and the incorporation of such towns shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact the election or other proceedings may not have been in accordance with law, provided the election order was entered by the county judge or the person purporting to act as mayor of an unincorporated municipality at least 10 days prior to the election on incorporation, and a majority of the voters at the election approved such incorporation.

Sec. 2. The area and boundary lines of all such towns included by the original incorporation proceedings are in all things hereby validated, ratified, approved, and confirmed.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings and acts performed by the governing bodies of such towns, except such governmental proceedings that relate to any boundary changes subsequent to the date of incorporation or attempted incorporation, and all actions of officers thereof since their incorporation or attempted incorporation are hereby in all respects validated, ratified, approved, and confirmed as of the respective date of such proceedings and acts.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation which constitutes a direct attack on the legality of the proceedings pursuant to which the incorporation or attempted incorporation was accomplished or to any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated, if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof.

qualified electors voting for mayor at the last preceding city election, requesting the mayor to call a special election for the adoption of this Act, it shall be the duty of the mayor within ten (10) days after the filing of such petition, to issue a proclamation calling a special election for such purpose, and such election shall be held within thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition. Such proclamation shall state that the election is called in order to submit this Act for adoption, and shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the city clerk, and shall be published in some newspaper of general circulation within the city for one time not less than ten (10) days preceding said election. Such proclamation shall be posted in at least five (5) conspicuous places within such city not less than ten (10) days preceding such election.

The ballots used for the submission of such question shall be substantially as follows:

FOR the governing body of the city of (naming the city) appointing a city manager and fixing by ordinance the salary of such manager.

AGAINST the governing body of the city of (naming the city) appointing a city manager and fixing by ordinance the salary of such manager.

1 Article 1164a-1 et seq.

Art. 1164a-4. Appointment of City Manager; Salary

If a majority of all votes cast at such election shall be in favor of the appointment of a city manager, then the governing body of such city shall within sixty (60) days after such election appoint a city manager and by ordinance shall fix his salary.

[Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 615, ch. 356, § 4.]

Art. 1164a-5. Powers and Term of Manager

If such city has authorized by vote, as in this Act provided, the appointment of a city manager, then after the appointment of such city manager as herein provided, the administration of the city's business shall be in the hands of such manager. The manager shall be appointed by the governing body and shall hold office at the pleasure of the governing body. The governing body shall be responsible for the manager's efficient administration of the city's business. The governing body by ordinance may delegate to and confer upon such manager such additional powers and duties as in their judgment may be proper for the efficient administration of the city's affairs.

Art. 1164a-6. Qualifications of Manager

The manager shall be chosen solely upon the basis of administrative ability. Qualities shall not be limited by any resident qualifications. The manager shall give bond for the faithful performance of his duties, in such amount as may be provided by ordinance.

[Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 615, ch. 356, § 6.]

Art. 1164a-7. All Officers to be Appointive

When a majority of the voters have adopted the provisions of this Act as set out in Section 3, thereafter all officers of such city except members of the governing body shall be appointed as may be provided by ordinance; provided that any officer who has been elected by a vote of the people shall be allowed to serve until the expiration of his term of office.

Art. 1164a-8. Abandonment of City-Manager Plan; Petition; Election

Any such city which has authorized the appointment of a city manager as in this Act provided may abandon such city-manager plan at any time after any such city has elected to come under the provisions of this Act, and on the filing of a petition with the city clerk signed by not less than twenty (20) percent of the total number of legally qualified electors voting for mayor at the last preceding city election, requesting the mayor to call a special election for the abandonment of the city-manager form of government, it shall be the duty of the mayor within ten (10) days after the filing of such petition, to issue a proclamation calling a special election for such purpose, and such election shall be held within thirty (30) days after the filing of such petition. Such proclamation shall state that the election is called in order to submit the question of the abandonment of the city-manager plan of government as previously adopted by such city, and such proclamation shall be published as provided in Section 3 of this Act.

The ballots used for the submission of such question shall be substantially as follows:

FOR abandoning the city-manager plan of government in the city of (naming the city).

AGAINST abandoning the city-manager plan of government in the city of (naming the city).

as may be prescribed by the Legislature. No charter or any ordinances passed under said charter shall contain any provision inconsistent with the Constitution or general laws of this State; said cities may levy, assess and collect such taxes as may be authorized by law, or by their charters; but no tax for any purpose shall ever be lawful for any one year which shall exceed two and one-half per cent of the taxable property of such city, and no debt shall ever be created by any city unless at the same time provision be made to assess and collect annually a sufficient sum to pay the interest thereon and create a sinking fund of at least two per cent thereon. No city charter shall be altered, amended or repealed oftener than every two years. The governing body of such city may, by two-thirds votes of its members, or upon petition of ten per cent of the qualified voters of said city, shall provide by ordinance for the submission of the question, "shall a commission be chosen to frame a new charter."

Art. 1166. Requisites of Submission

The ordinance providing for the submission of such question shall require that it be submitted at the next regular municipal election, if one should be held, not less than thirty nor more than ninety days after the passage of said ordinance; otherwise it shall provide for the submission of the question at a special election to be called and held not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days after the passage of said ordinance and the publication thereof in some newspaper published in said city. The ballot containing such question shall bear no party designation, and provision shall be made thereon for the election from the city at large of a charter commission of not less than fifteen members, nor more than one member for each three thousand inhabitants, provided, that a majority of the qualified voters, voting on said question shall have voted in the affirmative.

Art. 1167. Submission of Charter

The charter so framed by said commission shall be submitted to the qualified voters of said city at an election to be held at a time fixed by the charter commission not less than forty nor more than ninety days after the completion of the work of the charter commission; provision for which shall be made by the governing body of the city in so far as not prescribed by the general law. Not less than thirty days prior to such election, the governing body shall cause the city clerk or city secretary to mail a copy of the proposed charter to each qualified voter in said city as appears from the list of registered voters maintained as required by law by the registrar of voters for each county in which the city is located. In preparing the charter the commission shall, as far as practicable, segregate each subject so that the voter may vote "Yes" or "No" on the same.

Art. 1168. First Election

Where the legislative or governing authority of any city, or where any mass meeting has selected a charter committee or charter commission, or where the mayor of any city has appointed a charter committee which has proceeded with the formation of a charter for said city, the provisions hereof as to the selection of the charter commission shall not apply to the first charter election to be held in said city under the terms of this law.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1169. Adoption of Charter

If such proposed charter is approved by a majority of the qualified voters, voting at said election, it shall become the charter of said city until amended or repealed. No charter shall be considered adopted until an official order has been entered upon the records of said city by the governing body thereof declaring the same adopted.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1170. Amendments

When the governing body desires to submit amendments to any existing charter, said body may, on its own motion, in the absence of a petition, and shall, upon receiving a petition signed by qualified voters in such city, town or political subdivision in number not less than five per cent (5%) thereof or 20,000 signatures, whichever is less, submit any proposed amendment or amendments to such charter. The ordinance providing for the submission of such amendment or amendments shall require the submission thereof at an election to be held not less than thirty (30) days nor more than ninety (90) days after the passage of said ordinance. If the next regular municipal election is to be held during said period, the submission of said amendment or amendments shall be at such election. Otherwise, a special election shall be called for the purpose. Notice of the election for the submission of said amendment or amendments shall be given by publication thereof, in some newspaper of general circulation published in said city, on the same day in each of two (2) successive weeks; the date of the first publication to be not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the date set for said election. The form of such notice shall be as prescribed by the governing body or as may be otherwise prescribed by law, and shall include a substantial copy of the proposed amendment or amendments. Every amendment submitted must contain only one subject, and in preparing the ballot for such amendment, it shall be done in such manner that the voter may vote "Yes" or "No" on any amendment or amendments without voting "Yes" or "No" on all of said amendments. Each such proposed amendment, if approved by the majority of the qualified voters voting at said election, shall become a part of the charter of said city. No amendment shall be considered adopted until an official order has been entered upon the records of said city by the governing body thereof declaring the same adopted.

Art. 1170a. Validation of Proceedings to Amend Charter: Ordinance Not Published as Required

In any instance where the charter of a home rule city requires ordinances to be published in full in a newspaper once each week for three (3) consecutive weeks prior to passage and which city has heretofore held an election for the purpose of amending its charter and such election was called and held in all things in accordance with the applicable general laws of the State of Texas, and such election resulted favorably to the adoption of the amendment submitted as shown by resolution adopted by the governing body of any such city, all of the proceedings relating to the calling of such election, irrespective of whether such ordinance was published as required by its charter, the notice given precedent to or subsequent to the passage of the ordinance calling such election and the resolution adopted canvassing the returns and declaring the result of such election are hereby validated; and the charter of any such city as thus amended shall constitute the charter of such city under the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas.

Art. 1172. Other Issues

Nothing in this chapter shall prevent the qualified voters of any city of five thousand inhabitants from adopting any charter or amendment thereto, and at the same time electing officers under such charter or amendment.

Art. 1173. Certification

Upon the adoption of any such charter or amendment to any existing charter as provided herein, the mayor or chief executive officer exercising like or similar powers, upon the adoption and approval of any such charter or any amendment thereof by the qualified voters as herein provided, shall record at length upon the records of the city, in a separate book to be kept in his office for such purpose, any such charter, or amendment so adopted. When such charter or any amendment thereof shall be so recorded, it shall be deemed a public act and all courts shall take judicial notice of same and no proof shall be required of same. All cities may institute and prosecute suits without giving security for cost and may appeal from judgment without giving supersedeas or cost bond.

Art. 1174. Registration

The city secretary of any such city or officer exercising like or similar powers, upon the adoption and approval of any such charter or any amendment thereof by the qualified voters as herein provided, shall record at length upon the records of the city, the date of the adoption of any such charter, or any amendment to any existing charter as provided herein, the same adopted.

Art. 1174a-1. Validation of Adoption of Charter and Election and Assumption of Office

In each instance where an election has been held heretofore in a city for the purpose of voting upon the adoption of a home rule charter for such city, and where copies of the proposed charter with the date of the election shown thereon were mailed to all of the voters within said city as shown by the tax rolls thereof, and a news item showing the date and purpose of said election was published in a newspaper published within said city at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the said election, and such news item did not state that the voting would be limited to property owners or taxpayers in the city, and where the officers holding the election did not deny anyone the right to vote upon the ground that he was not a property owner or taxpayer, and such election resulted favorably to the adoption of the charter as shown by a resolution adopted by the

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has heretofore been held in an incorporated city for the purpose of voting upon the adoption of a home rule charter for such city, where copies of the proposed charter with the date of the election shown thereon were mailed to all voters within said city as shown by the tax rolls thereof, and a news item showing the date and purpose of said election was published in a newspaper published within such city at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of such election, and a majority of the qualified voters of said city voting at said election voted in favor of the adoption of such charter, all such proceedings relating to the adoption of said charter are hereby in all things validated, ratified, and confirmed, and such charter shall constitute the home rule charter of said city under the constitution and laws of this State. All elections held under the provisions of said charter for the purpose of electing members of the governing body of the city and the assumption of office by such elected members are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed as validating the adoption of any charter amendment, or the charter as so amended, if the validity of the charter amendment proceedings, or of the charter, are involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act in a court of competent jurisdiction of this State and such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Sec. 3. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, or part of this Act shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, it shall not affect any other word, phrase, clause, sentence, or part of this Act.

Art. 1174a-4. Validation of Adoption of Charter; Elections and Assumption of Office; Acts of Officers

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has heretofore been held in an incorporated city for the purpose of voting upon the adoption of a home rule charter for such city, where copies of the proposed charter with the date of the election shown thereon were mailed to all voters within said city as shown by the tax roll thereof, and a news item showing the date and purpose of said election was published in a newspaper published within such city at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of such election, and the proposed charter in its entirety was printed and published in a newspaper published within such city at least twenty (20) days prior to the date of such election, and a majority of the qualified voters of said city voting at said election voted in favor of the adoption of such charter, all such proceedings relating to the adoption of said charter are hereby in all things validated, ratified, and confirmed, and said charter shall constitute the home rule charter of said city under the Constitution and Laws of this State. All elections held under the provisions of said charter for the purpose of electing members of the governing body of the city and the assumption of office by such elected members are hereby in all things validated. All acts of the city officers and officials of any such city are hereby in all things validated.

Art. 1174a-3. Validation of Amendment of Charter; Elections and Assumption of Office; Acts of Governing Boards

Sec. 1. In any instance where a home rule city has previously held an election for the purpose of adopting an amendment or amendments to an existing home rule charter, and copies of the proposed charter amendment or amendments were mailed to every qualified voter in the city as prescribed by law, and a majority of the qualified voters of said city voting at said election voted in favor of adopting such amendment or amendments, and such city did not publish the proposed amendment or amendments after calling said election as required by Turner v. Lewis, 201 S.W.2d 86, is, and such proceedings are, hereby in all things validated, ratified and confirmed as if such notice had been published. All elections held under the provisions of said charter, as amended, for the purpose of electing members of the governing body of the city and the assumption of office by those persons receiving the highest votes at such election and all elections thereafter called and/or held to authorize the issuance of bonds by such city, are hereby in all things validated. All acts of said officers and officials of any such city are hereby in all things validated.

Art. 1174a-5. Validation of Amendment of Charter; Elections and Assumption of Office; Acts of Governing Boards

Sec. 1. In any instance where a Home Rule City has previously held an election for the purpose of adopting an amendment or amendments to an existing Home Rule Charter, and the Notice of Intention had been published in the official newspaper published in the city at least eighteen days prior to the passage of the ordinance calling the election and that the ordinance calling the election was published in an “Extra Edition” of the official newspaper published in the city at least twenty-eight days prior to the date of the election, and copies of the proposed Charter amendment or amendments were mailed to every qualified voter in the city as prescribed by law, and a majority of the qualified voters of said city voted in favor of adopting such amendment or amendments is, and such proceedings are, hereby in all things validated, ratified and confirmed. All elections held under the provisions of said Charter as amended for the purpose of electing members of the governing body of the city and the assumption of office by those persons receiving the highest votes at such election and all elections thereafter and are held to authorize the issuance of bonds in such city are hereby in all things validated. All acts of said officers and officials in such city are hereby in all things validated and the Charter of any such city as thus amended shall constitute the Charter of such city under the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed as validating the adoption of any Charter amendment or the Charter as so amended if the validity of the Charter amendment proceedings or the Charter are involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act in a court of competent jurisdiction of the state and such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Art. 1174a-6. Validation of Adoption of Charter of Home Rule Cities with Population in Excess of 10,000; Elections

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to every Home Rule City in the State of Texas having a population in excess of ten thousand (10,000) persons according to the 1960 Federal Census, which has adopted or attempted to adopt a new Home Rule Charter. All proceedings had and actions taken in connection with the adoption of said new charter are hereby in all things validated. Without in any way limiting the generalization of the foregoing, it is expressly provided that all election proceedings relating to the adoption of said new charter, at which elections more than a majority of the qualified voters voting at said elections voted in favor of the proposition or propositions submitted at said elections, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 2. The validation provisions of this Act shall have no application to litigation pending upon the effective date of this Act questioning the validity of any matters hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the same.

Art. 1174a-7. Validation of Adoption of Charter of Home Rule City in Counties of 500,000 or More; Elections and Assumption of Office; Acts of Officers

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has heretofore been held in an incorporated city in counties of five hundred thousand (500,000) or more according to the last preceding Federal Census for the purpose of voting upon the adoption of a home rule charter, where copies of the proposed charter with the date of election shown therein were mailed to each qualified voter in said city as appeared from the tax collector’s roll for the year ending January 31 preceding such charter election, and a majority of the qualified voters of such city voting at said election voted in favor of the adoption of such charter as shown by the official canvass of election returns, all proceedings relating to the adoption of said charter are hereby in all things validated, ratified and confirmed, and said charter shall constitute the home rule charter of said city under the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas. All elections held under the provisions of said charter for the purpose of electing members of the governing body of the city and the assumption of office by such elected members are hereby in all things validated. All acts of the city officers and officials of any such city are hereby in all things validated, except to the extent that such acts have been heretofore invalidated by judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction or are hereafter so invalidated in litigation pending on the effective date of this Act.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed as validating the adoption of any charter or the charter so adopted if the validity of the charter adoption proceedings or of the charter are involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act in a court of competent jurisdiction of this state and such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Art. 1174a-8. Validation of Adoption of Charter; Elections; Governmental Proceedings

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has heretofore been held in an incorporated city for the purpose of voting upon the adoption of a Home Rule Charter for such city, and in each instance where a home rule city has previously held an election for the purpose of voting upon the adoption of an amendment or amendments to an existing Home Rule Charter and a majority of the qualified voters (as shown by the canvass of the returns and declaration of the result of said election) participating at said election voted in favor of the adoption of such Charter, amendment or amendments, all of the proceedings relating to such election are hereby in all things ratified, confirmed and validated and said obligations shall have effect according to their purport and tenor.

Sec. 2. All actions heretofore taken by the governing body of such city in the calling and holding of an election for the selection of members of the governing body of the city so the same shall consist of the number of persons specified in such Charter, amendment or amendments are hereby ratified and confirmed and the persons so elected and qualified are recognized as the governing body of such city.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings of home-rule cities, save and except those relating to annexation of territory in calling and holding elections for bonds and in the authorization, issuance, and delivery of bonds, warrants, scrip, and certificates of indebtedness or of assessment are hereby ratified and confirmed and said obligations shall have effect according to their purport and tenor.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not be construed as validating any proceedings or actions the validity of which is involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act and such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Art. 1174a-9. Validation of Adoption of Charter; Elections; Governmental Proceedings

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has heretofore been held in an incorporated city for the purpose of voting upon the adoption of a home-rule charter for the city, and in each instance where a home-rule city has previously held an election for the purpose of voting upon the adoption of an amendment or amendments to an existing home-rule charter and a majority of the qualified voters (as shown by the canvass of the returns and declaration of the result of said election) participating at the election voted in favor of the adoption of such charter, amendment or amendments, all the proceedings relating to such election are hereby in all things ratified, confirmed, and validated, and the charter or the charter as so amended, as the case may be, shall constitute the home-rule charter of the city.

Sec. 2. All actions heretofore taken by the governing body of the city in the selection of members of the governing body of the city so the same shall consist of the number of persons specified in the charter, amendment or amendments are hereby ratified and confirmed and the persons so elected and qualified are recognized as the governing body of the city.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings of home-rule cities, save and except those relating to annexation of territory, are hereby ratified and confirmed and all actions of the governing bodies of home-rule cities in calling and holding elections for bonds and in the authorization, issuance, and delivery of bonds, warrants, scrip, and certificates of indebtedness or of assessment are hereby ratified and confirmed and said obligations shall have effect according to their purport and tenor.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not be construed as validating any proceedings or actions the validity of which is involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act and such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Art. 1174a-10. Validation of Adoption of Charter; Governmental Acts and Proceedings

Applicability

Sec. 1. This Act applies to any incorporated city or town that before the effective date of this Act adopted or attempted to adopt a home-rule charter and since the adoption or attempted adoption has functioned as a home-rule city.

Proceedings Validated

Sec. 2. (a) All governmental acts and proceedings of a municipality covered by this Act regarding the adoption of a home-rule charter are validated as of the dates on which they occurred.

(b) All governmental acts and proceedings of the municipality since adoption or attempted adoption of the charter are validated as of the dates on which they occurred.

Effect on Litigation

Sec. 3. This Act does not apply to any matter that on the effective date of this Act:

(1) is involved in litigation if the litigation ultimately results in the matter being held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction; or to amend its charter and since the amendment or attempted amendment of the city's charter are validated as of the dates they occurred. The acts and proceedings may not be held invalid because they were not performed in accordance with law.

(b) The governmental acts and proceedings of the city occurring since the amendment of the charter and before the effective date of this Act are validated as of the dates they occurred, except that the extension of a boundary line by annexation into the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city or town without that city or town's consent, in violation of the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 1174a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is not validated by this Act.

Effect on Litigation

Sec. 3. This Act does not apply to any matter that on the effective date of this Act:

(1) is involved in litigation if the litigation ultimately results in the matter being held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(2) has been held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 1174b. Validation of Annexation Proceedings of Home Rule Cities

Sec. 1. All elections, election orders, election proceedings and city ordinances annexing adjacent territory to, or extending and prescribing the corporate limits of, any Home Rule City that has adopted a charter under Article Eleven (11), Section Five (5), of the Constitution of Texas, and the provisions of Chapter 147, Acts of the Regular Session of the Thirty-third Legislature of the State of Texas, 1913, but which City did not in fact have a population of five thousand according to the 1920 Federal Census, are hereby validated and confirmed.

Sec. 2. The city ordinances of all Home Rule Cities in the class described in the foregoing Section fixing and prescribing the corporate limits extended by the annexation or attempted annexation of adjacent territory are hereby validated.

[Acts 1930, 41st Leg., 5th C.S., p. 139, ch. 16.]

Art. 1174c. Validating Annexation of Adjacent Territory

Sec. 1. All elections, election orders, election proceedings, city ordinances and amendments to charters annexing adjacent territory to, or extending and prescribing the corporate limits of any home rule city that has adopted a charter under Article 11, Section 5, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, and the provisions of Chapter 147, Acts of the Regular Session of the Thirty-third Legislature of the State of Texas, 1913, and Article 1175 of Vernon's Annotated Texas Statutes, by which said city did not in fact have separate elections and separate election boxes for the city voters and the territory to be annexed, and did not comply with other requirements of the law, be and the same are hereby validated and confirmed.

Sec. 2. The city ordinances and charter amendments of all home rule cities in the class described in the foregoing section, fixing and prescribing the corporate limits extended by the annexation or attempted annexation of adjacent territory are hereby validated.

[Acts 1936, 44th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 2102, ch. 506.]

Art. 1174d.  Validation of Annexation Proceedings in Home Rule Cities of 8,920 to 9,580 Population

All ordinances and proceedings and all actions, proceedings, and contracts taken or made in pursuance thereof, heretofore undertaken by virtue of Article 1175, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, providing for the extension of the corporate limits of Home Rule cities by any city which at such time was acting under a Home Rule charter, and which such ordinances, actions, proceedings, and contracts were undertaken prior to April 1, 1930, are hereby ratified and confirmed, and such extensions of the city limits of such cities so undertaken, as well as all proceedings and contracts taken or made in pursuance thereof and the exercise of dominion and governmental functions over such added territory by extension shall be deemed and held valid in all respects and to the same extent as if done under legislative authority previously given. The provisions of this Act shall apply only to cities having a population of not less than eight thousand, nine hundred and twenty (8,920) nor more than nine thousand, five hundred and eighty (9,580), according to the last preceding Federal Census.

Art. 1174e.  Validation of Annexation Proceedings of Certain Home Rule Cities Occurring Before March 1, 1961

Sec. 1. All ordinances, resolutions and proceedings passed and adopted and all contracts made pursuant thereto, prior to the 1st day of March, 1961, by a home rule city undertaking to annex adjacent and contiguous territory to its corporate limits by virtue of the provisions of Article 1175 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925 and the amendments thereto, or by virtue of the applicable provisions of its city charter, are hereby ratified and confirmed, and such extensions of the city limits of such cities so undertaken, as well as all proceedings and contracts taken or made in pursuance thereof and the exercise of dominion and governmental functions over such added territory, by annexation, shall be deemed and held valid in all respects and to the same extent as if done under legislative authority previously given.

Sec. 1(a). Nothing herein shall validate any annexation proceedings where no bonds have been voted or issued by the annexing municipality prior to March 1, 1961, and after the commencement of such annexation proceedings.

Sec. 2. The effective date of this Act shall be January 1, 1962, and the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city if its annexation proceedings are involved in litigation at the time this law becomes effective.

[Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 1069, ch. 409.]

Art. 1175.  Enumerated Powers

Cities adopting the charter or amendment hereunder shall have full power of local self-government, and among the other powers that may be exercised by any such city the following are hereby enumerated for greater certainty:

1. The creation of a commission, aldermanic or other form of government; the creation of offices, the manner and mode of selecting officers and prescribing their qualifications, duties, compensation and tenure of office.

2. The power to fix the boundary limits of said city, to provide for the extension of said boundary limits and the annexation of additional territory lying adjacent to said city, to provide for the disannexation of territory within such city and to provide for the exchange of territory with other cities or towns, according to such rules as may be provided by said charter not inconsistent with the procedural rules prescribed by the Municipal Annexation Act.

3. To hold by gift, deed, devise or otherwise any character of property, including any charitable or trust fund; to plead and be impleaded in all courts, and to act in perpetual succession as a body politic.

4. To provide that no public property or any other character of property owned or held by said city shall be subject to any execution of any kind or nature.

5. To provide that no fund of the city shall be subject to garnishment, and the city shall never be required to answer in any garnishment proceedings.

6. To provide for the exemption from liability on account of any claim for any damages to any person or property, or to fix such rules and regulations governing the city's liability as may be deemed advisable.

7. To provide for the levying of any general or special ad valorem tax for any purpose not inconsistent with the Constitution of this State.

8. To provide for the mode and method of assessing taxes, both real and personal, against any person and corporation, including the right to assess the franchise of any public corporation using and occupying the public streets or grounds of the city, separately from the tangible property of such corporation.

9. To provide for the collection of all taxes, including the right to impose penalties for delinquent taxes.

10. The power to control and manage the finances of any such city; to prescribe its fiscal year and fiscal arrangements; the power to issue bonds upon the credit of the city for the purpose of making permanent public improvements or for other public purposes in the amount and to the extent provided by such charter, and consistent with the Constitution of this State; provided, that said bonds shall have first been authorized by a majority vote by the duly qualified property tax-paying voters voting at an election held for that purpose. Thereafter all such bonds shall be submitted to the Attorney General for his approval, and the Comptroller for registration, as provided by law, provided that any such bonds after approval, may be issued by the city, either optional or serial or otherwise as may be deemed advisable by the governing authority. Whenever any city has heretofore been authorized, under any special charter, creating such city, to issue any bonds by the terms of such charter, the provisions of this chapter shall not be construed to interfere with the issuance of any such bonds under the provisions of any charter under which such bonds were authorized.

11. To have the exclusive right to own, erect, maintain and operate water works and water works system for the use of any city, and its inhabitants, to regulate the same and have power to prescribe rates for water furnished and to acquire by purchase, donation or otherwise, suitable grounds within and without the limits of the city on which to erect any such works and the necessary right of way, and to do and perform whatsoever may be necessary to operate and maintain the said water works or water works system and to compel the owners of all property and the agents of such owners or persons in control thereof to pay all charges for water furnished upon such property and to fix a lien upon such property for any such charges. To provide that all receipts from the water works may, in its discretion, constitute a separate or sacred fund which shall be used for no other purpose than the extension, improvement, operation, maintenance, repair and betterment of said water works system or water works supply, and to provide for the pledging of any such receipts and revenues for the purpose of making any of such improvements, and the payment of the principal and providing an interest and sinking fund for any bonds issued therefor under such regulations as may be provided by the charter adopted by such city.

12. To prohibit the use of any street, alley, highway or grounds of the city by any telegraph, telephone, electric light, street railway, interurban railway, steam railway, gas company, or any other character of public utility without first obtaining the consent of the governing authorities expressed by ordinance and upon paying such compensation as may be prescribed and upon such condition as may be provided by any such ordinance. To determine, fix and regulate the charges, fares or rates of any person, firm or corporation enjoying or that may enjoy the franchise or exercising any other public privilege in said city and to prescribe the kind of service to be furnished by such person, firm or corporation, and the manner in which it shall be rendered, and from time to time alter or change such rules, regulations and compensation; provided that in adopting such regulations and in fixing or changing such compensation, or determining the reasonableness thereof, no stock or bonds authorized or issued by any corporation enjoying the franchise shall be considered unless proof that the same have been actually issued by the corporation for money paid and used for the development of the corporate property, labor done or property actually received in accordance with the laws and Constitution of this State applicable thereto. In order to ascertain all facts necessary for a proper understanding of what is or should be a reasonable rate or regulation, the governing authority shall have full power to inspect the books and compel the attendance of witnesses for such purpose.

13. To buy, own, construct within or without the city limits and to maintain and operate a system or systems of gas, oil, electric lighting plant, telephone, street railways, sewerage plants, fertilizing plants, abattoir, municipal railway terminals, docks, wharves, ferries, ferry landings, loading and unloading devices and shipping facilities, or any other public service or public utility, and to demand and receive compensation for service furnished for private purpose or otherwise, and to exercise the right of eminent domain as hereinafter provided for the appropriation of lands, rights of way or anything whatsoever that may be proper and necessary to efficiently carry out said objects. Any city shall have the power to condemn the property of any person, firm or corporation now conducting any such business and for the purpose of operating and maintaining any such public utilities and for the purpose of distributing such service throughout the city or any portion thereof; provided that any city may adopt by its charter any such rules and regulations as it may deem advisable for the acquiring and operation of any such public utilities.

14. To manufacture its own electricity, gas, or anything else that may be needed or used by the public; to purchase and make contracts with any person or corporation for the purchasing of gas, electricity, oil or any other commodity or article used by the public and to sell the same to the public upon such terms as may be provided by the charter.

15. To have the power to appropriate private property for public purposes whenever the governing authorities shall deem it necessary; to take any private property within or without the city limits for any of the following purposes; city halls, police stations, jails, calaboose, fire stations, libraries, school houses, high school buildings, academies, hospitals, sanitariums, auditoriums, market houses, reformatories, abattoirs, railroad terminals, docks, wharves, warehouses, ferries, ferry landings, elevators, loading and unloading devices, shipping facilities, piers, streets, alleys, parks, highways, boulevards, speedways, playgrounds, sewer systems, storm sewers, sewerage disposal plants, drains, filtering beds and emptying grounds for sewer systems, reservoirs, water sheds, water supply sources,
16. To have exclusive dominion, control, and jurisdiction in, over and under the public streets, avenues, alleys, highways and boulevards, and public grounds of such city and to provide for the improvement of any public street, alley, avenue or boulevard and for such purpose to acquire the necessary lands and to appropriate the same under the power of eminent domain and to provide that the cost of improving any such street, alley, avenue or boulevard by opening, extending and widening the same shall be paid by the owners of property specially benefited whose property lies in the territory of such improvement and to provide that the cost shall be charged by special assessment and that a personal charge shall be made against any owner for the amount due by him and to provide for the appointment by the county judge or other officer exercising like or similar powers, of three special commissioners for the purpose of condemning the said lands and for the purpose of apportioning the said cost, which apportionment of said cost shall be specially assessed by the governing authority when so expressed, to take the fee in the lands so condemned and such power and authority shall include the right to condemn public property for such purposes.

18. To control, regulate and remove all obstructions or other encroachments or encumbrances on any public street, alley or ground, and to narrow, alter, widen or straighten any such streets, alleys, avenues or boulevards, and to vacate and abandon and close any such streets, alleys, avenues or boulevards, and to regulate and control the moving of buildings or other structures over and upon the streets or avenues of such city.
for policing the same as well as to provide for the protection of any water sheds and the policing of same; to inspect dairies, slaughter pens and slaughter houses inside or outside the limits of the city, from which meat or milk is furnished to the inhabitants of the city.

20. To license, operate and control the operation of all character of vehicles using the public streets, including motorcycles, automobiles or like vehicles, and to prescribe the speed of the same, the qualification of the operator of the same, and the lighting of the same by night and to provide for the giving of signals or other security for the operation of the same.

21. To regulate, license and fix the charges or fares made by any person owning, operating or controlling any vehicle of any character used for the carrying of passengers for hire or the transportation of freight for hire on the public streets and alleys of the city.

22. To regulate the location and control the conduct of theaters, moving picture shows, ten pin alleys, vaudeville shows, and all places of public amusements.

23. To license any lawful business, occupation or calling that is susceptible to the control of the police power.

24. To license, regulate, control or prohibit the erection of signs or bill boards as may be provided by charter or ordinance.

25. To provide for the establishment and designation of fire limits and to prescribe the kind and character of buildings or structures or improvements to be erected therein, and to provide for the erection of fire proof buildings within certain limits, and to provide for the condemnation of dangerous structures or buildings or dilapidated buildings or buildings calculated to increase the fire hazard, and the manner of their removal or destruction.

26. To divide the city in zones or districts, and to regulate the location, size, height, bulk and use of buildings within such zones or districts, and to establish building lines within such zones or districts or otherwise, and make different regulations for different districts and thereafter alter the same. The governing authorities may be authorized by their charter to create a commission or board for the purpose of carrying out the powers of this section, or may provide for the creation of a board of appeals or review for the purpose of hearing and deciding on appeals from and reviewing any order, requirement, decision or determination of the governing authorities in carrying out the powers and authority herein conferred; provided the authority and power herein conferred shall never be construed to be a limitation of any other power and authority conferred in this chapter.

27. To provide for police and fire departments.

28. To provide for a health department and the establishment of rules and regulations protecting the health of the city and the establishment of quarantine stations, and pest houses, emergency hospitals and hospitals, and to provide for the adoption of necessary quarantine laws to protect the inhabitants against contagious or infectious diseases.

29. To provide for a sanitary sewer system and to require property owners to make connections with such sewers with their premises and to provide for fixing a lien against any property owner’s premises who fails or refuses to make sanitary sewer connections and to charge the cost against said owner and make it a personal liability. To provide for fixing penalties for a failure to make sanitary sewer connections.

30. The power to require water works corporations, gas companies, street car companies, telephone companies, telegraph companies, electric light companies or other companies or individuals enjoying a franchise now or hereafter from the city, to make and furnish extensions of their service to such territory as may be required by the charter.

31. Provided that in all cities of over twenty-five thousand inhabitants, the governing body of such city, when the public service of such city may require the same, shall have the right and power to compel any street railway or other public utility corporation to extend its lines of service into any section of said city not to exceed two miles, all told, in any one year.

32. To provide for the establishment of public schools and public school system in any such city, and to have exclusive control over same and to provide such regulations and rules governing the management of same as may be deemed advisable, to levy and collect the necessary taxes, general or special, for the support of such public schools and public school system.

33. Whenever any city may determine to acquire any public utility using and occupying its streets, alleys, and avenues as hereinbefore provided, and it shall be necessary to condemn the said public utility, the city may obtain funds for the purpose of acquiring the said public utility and paying the compensation therefor, by issuing bonds, notes or other evidence of indebtedness and shall secure the same by fixing a lien upon the said properties constituting the said public utility so acquired by condemnation or purchase or otherwise; said security shall apply alone to said properties so pledged; and such further regulations may be provided by any charter for the proper financing or raising the revenue necessary for obtaining any public utilities and providing for the fixing of said security.

34. To enforce all ordinances necessary to protect health, life and property, and to prevent and summarily abate and remove all nuisances and to preserve and enforce the good government, order and security of the city and its inhabitants.
Art. 1175

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

35. A home-rule city may require all buildings to be constructed in accordance with energy conservation standards included in the building code, if any.

36. A home-rule city may adopt an ordinance which requires the demolition or repair of buildings which are dilapidated, substandard, or unfit for human habitation and which constitute a hazard to the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens. The ordinance must establish minimum standards for continued use and occupancy of structures, and these standards shall apply to buildings regardless of when they were constructed. The ordinance must provide for proper notice to the owner and a public hearing. After the hearing, if the building is found to be substandard, the city may direct that the building be repaired or removed within a reasonable time. After the expiration of the allotted time the city has the power to remove the building at the expense of the city and assess the expenses on the land on which the building stood or to which it was attached and may provide for that assessment, the mode and manner of giving notice, and the means of recovering the removal expenses.

Ordinances Authorized

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in the State of Texas, whether incorporated under general or special law, including home rule cities, having a population in excess of two hundred and ninety thousand (290,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, shall have and they are hereby given the power and authority to pass an ordinance or ordinances;

(a) Requiring all residents of said city, including corporations having their principal office or place of business in said city, owning a motor vehicle used for the transportation of persons or property, or both, and all persons using the streets, alleys, or other public thoroughfares of said city upon which to operate a motor vehicle, to have each and every such motor vehicle tested and inspected and to comply with such requirements, as may be imposed by said ordinance, not more than four times in each calendar year;

(b) Requiring that other and additional tests and inspections may be required of all motor vehicles involved in any wreck, collision, or accident before the same may be operated on the streets, alleys, or other public thoroughfares of said city after said wreck, collision, or accident;

(c) Requiring as a condition precedent to the right to use the streets, alleys, or other public thoroughfares of said city that motor vehicles operated thereupon shall have been tested and inspected, shall have been approved by said testing and inspecting authorities, and shall have complied with all provisions of said ordinance;

(d) Providing a penalty subject to the limitations of Article 1011 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas for the violation of any of the terms of said ordinance.

Testing Stations

Sec. 2. Said cities shall be and they are hereby authorized to acquire, establish, erect, equip, improve, enlarge, repair, operate, and maintain motor vehicle testing stations and to pay for the same out of the fees charged for testing and inspecting said motor vehicles.

Fees

Sec. 3. Said cities shall have and they are hereby given power and authority to prescribe and collect a fee, not to exceed One Dollar ($1) per year per vehicle, for the testing and inspecting of each such motor vehicle. All fees so collected to be placed in a separate fund, out of which costs and expenses in connection with, or growing out of the acquisition, establishment, erection, equipping, improvement, enlargement, repairing, operating, and maintaining said testing stations, and automotive and Safety Education programs, may be paid.

Payment for Testing Stations; Encumbrance; Borrowing Money

Sec. 4. Said cities shall have and they are hereby given power and authority to pay for such testing stations and the equipping, maintaining, and operating thereof out of past or future earnings of said stations, and may mortgage and encumber said stations and everything pertaining thereto acquired, to secure the payment of funds to construct the same or any part thereof, or to erect, equip, improve, enlarge, repair, operate, or maintain said stations. No such mortgage or encumbrance shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon interest thereon all or any part of the fees or other receipts derived from the operation of such stations.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 5. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid or unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of the Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity or unconstitutionality.

Vehicles Operated Under Permits

Sec. 5a. Nothing herein or in any ordinance passed pursuant hereto shall apply to motor vehicles, trailers or semitrailers operated under a certificate or permit from the Railroad Commission of Texas.

Repeal

Sec. 6. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith shall be and the same are hereby repealed to the extent of said conflict only.

Art. 1175e. Vacancies in Offices in Cities Over 384,000

In case of vacancy from any cause in any elective office of any Home Rule City in this state having a population of three hundred eighty-four thousand (384,000) inhabitants or more according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, where the charter of such city does not, at such time, provide for the filling of such vacancy, the city council or governing body of such city, by majority vote, shall appoint someone to fill such vacancy for the unexpired term; and pending such appointment such governing body may appoint someone temporarily, for not more than sixty (60) days, to hold such office, which person or persons, as the case may be, shall be qualified in like manner as is then required of the elective official. Provided, however, that whenever any such city holds an election to vote upon proposed amendments to its charter, it shall at such time submit a proposed amendment thereto providing a method for filling any vacancy to elective offices which are not now provided for in said charter.

Art. 1175d. Water Supply Systems; Easements Over Highways in Certain Home Rule Cities

The City Commission of all Home Rule Cities of this State, having a population of not less than thirty-one thousand (31,000) and not more than thirty-two thousand, five hundred (32,500) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall have and such Cities are hereby granted easements on and over all public highways and county roads in the county in which such City is situated, for the purpose of constructing, laying and maintaining water pipe lines which constitute a part of the water supply system operated by said Cities. Provided, however, that on all State highways such water pipe lines shall be laid at such place and in such manner as may be approved by the State Highway Engineers, and all such water pipe lines to be laid on any county road shall be laid in such manner and as may be approved by the County Engineer of such county; provided further, such water pipe lines shall not be laid in any manner that will unreasonably interfere with the use of such highways and public roads. Provided further that such lines shall be laid parallel to and in reasonably close proximity with the outer edge of the right of way of such State highway or public road, except that such lines may be laid across such highway or public road in the manner to be approved by the engineers of the aforesaid; and provided further that said lines shall be laid deep enough under the ground that the said pipe lines will not interfere with the grading or other use required by the Highways Department or the County Commissioners.

Art. 1175e. Parking Facilities

Sec. 1. Any home rule city in this state is hereby authorized to establish, acquire, lease as lessor or lessee, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate and maintain structures, parking areas, parking garages or facilities for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances.

Sec. 2. Any such city is hereby authorized and shall have the power by the exercise of the right of eminent domain to acquire the fee simple title to property for the purpose of acquiring sites upon which to build parking structures, parking areas, parking garages or facilities for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or conveyances. Any such city is hereby authorized and shall have the power to regulate the use of such facilities and establish rates and charges for the use thereof. In the event that the city, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting, or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the city. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 3. The governing body of any such city may divide the city or any portion thereof into improvement districts clearly defining the limits of each district, and any such city shall have the power to borrow money on the credit of such city and issue bonds of the city for the acquisition of the public improvements authorized herein; but every proposition to borrow money on the credit of the city for the acquisition or construction of any such public improvements within any improvement district shall be submitted to the qualified taxpaying voters living and owning property in such districts, and each proposition to borrow money on the credit of the city in any improvement district shall distinctly specify the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued and the public improvements to be constructed. If said proposition be sustained by a majority of the votes cast in such election in such district, the issuance of such bonds shall be lawful. All bonds shall specify for which purpose they were issued, shall bear interest at a rate not greater than 6\%\% per annum, and when sold, shall net not less than par value, with accrued interest to date of payment of the proceeds into the city treasury, and such bonds may be negotiated in lots, as the governing body of such city may direct. No debts shall ever be created against the city or any improvement district unless at the same time provision be made to assess and collect annually upon the property in such improvement district a sum sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds and create a sinking fund of at least 2\% thereon. The interest and sinking fund tax shall be in addition to the other current taxes levied by the city, and shall be kept separate by the City Treasurer from other funds, and shall not be diverted or used for any other purpose than to pay interest and principal on such bonds and the City Treasurer shall honor no draft on said fund except to pay the interest and redeem the bonds for which it was provided. The sinking fund for such bonds may be invested in such securities as are now permitted by law for other municipal bonds. The tax levied for interest and sinking fund for bonds issued for public improvements in any district shall not exceed 50 cents on the $100.00 valuation annually which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes authorized or permitted to be levied by the charter of such city.

Art. 1176. Further Powers

The enumeration of powers hereinabove made shall never be construed to preclude, by implication or otherwise, any such city from exercising the powers incident to the enjoyment of local self-government, provided that such powers shall not be inhibited by the State Constitution.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1176a. Code of Civil and Criminal Ordinances

Power to Codify: Effect

Sec. 1. Any city of this state, whether incorporated under General or Special Law, shall have the power to codify its civil and criminal ordinances and adopt a civil and criminal code of ordinances, together with appropriate penalties for the violation thereof, which said code when adopted shall have the force and effect of an ordinance regularly enacted with the usual prerequisite of law.

Ordinances Changed Without Separate Amendment or Repeal

Sec. 2. That should it become necessary in the codification of such ordinances, both civil and criminal, to change, alter or repeal any portion thereof or to change the terminology of any ordinances heretofore adopted, such change being occasioned by a change in the form of government and the redesignation of offices and officers, then such city is hereby expressly authorized to amend, omit or repeal the same and to change the terminology to conform to its present form of government without the necessity of re-enacting, repealing or amending any such ordinance separately incorporated in said code.

Adoption of Code

Sec. 3. That upon the codification of said code of civil and criminal ordinances, such city is authorized to adopt such code by the enactment of an ordinance and upon the adoption thereof, the City Secretary shall record said code as adopted in the ordinance records of such city, and thereafter such record shall serve as a record of the ordinances so codified and it shall not be necessary in establishing the content of any particular ordinance so codified to go beyond said record.

Publication of Adopting Ordinance

Sec. 4. That the ordinance adopting such code shall be published in the official publication of such city, or in a newspaper published in the city or county, as now provided by law, provided, however, that if any such city operates under a special charter or special law which provides for the publication of ordinances both civil and criminal, then in that event such city shall comply with such special provision of its charter in publishing such adopting ordinance. The code, when so adopted, shall become effective immediately upon and after its passage.
and it shall not be necessary to publish said code in any publication whatsoever.

Printed Code as Evidence of Enactment of Particular Ordinance

Sec. 5. That any such city may cause a copy of such code, duly authenticated and approved under the signature of the mayor and attested by the city secretary, to be printed under the direction of the governing body, and when so printed it shall be admitted in evidence without further proof and shall be prima facie evidence in all courts of the existence and regular enactment of such particular ordinance.

Subdivision of Code into Chapters, Articles, Sections, Etc.

Sec. 6. That the code may be subdivided into chapters, titles, articles and/or sections within the discretion of the governing body making such codification and providing for its adoption.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of all laws on this subject and wherever the provisions of this Act are in conflict with any existing law or laws on this subject, the provisions hereof, in so far as same are in conflict with any existing law or laws, shall govern and control.

Art. 1176b-2. Validation of Ordinances of Home Rule Cities Published in Compliance With Charters

All Ordinances heretofore passed by Home Rule Cities organized and operating under the provisions of Home Rule Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, and under the provisions of Title 28, Chapter 13, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925,1 where such Ordinances have been passed in compliance with the provisions of the charters of said cities and have been duly published, as required by such charters, be and the same are hereby validated, ratified and confirmed, and are hereby declared to be in full force and effect, in so far as the required publication is concerned, as if published in strict compliance with all of the requirements of the General Laws of the State of Texas; provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any proceedings, levies, or to any bonds or warrants issued thereunder, nor to ordinances passed and published in violation of the method and procedure prescribed in said charters, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in suit or litigation which is pending at the time this Act becomes a law, or which may be filed within ninety (90) days after this Act becomes a law; provided further, that any person, whose rights are adversely affected by an ordinance heretofore enacted in violation of said charter, shall be entitled to injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction upon proper application and satisfactory proof.

1 Article 1165 et seq.

This Act shall apply to every city or town incorporated and operating under a Home Rule Charter (hereinafter sometimes referred to as “city”), All ordinances or other proceedings heretofore adopted by the governing body of any city authorizing the issuance of time warrants of said city for the purpose of evidencing the indebtedness of such city for all or part of the cost of purchasing or acquiring, either or both, of rights-of-way for the public streets within said city, including incidental expenses in connection therewith, are hereby in all things validated; and any time warrants heretofore issued pursuant to the terms of any such ordinance or proceedings are hereby in all things validated; and any time warrants hereafter issued pursuant to the terms of any such ordinance or proceedings are hereby in all things validated; and the validation provisions of this Act shall have no application to litigation pending upon the effective date of this Act which questions the legality of any of the matters hereby validated.

1 Article 1165 et seq.

Art. 1177. Former Powers

All powers heretofore granted any city by general law or special charter are hereby preserved to each of said cities, and the power so conferred upon such cities, either by special or general law, is hereby granted to such cities when embraced in and made a part of the charter adopted by such city; and until the charter of such city as the same now exists is amended and adopted, it shall be and remain in full force and effect.
Art. 1177  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1178. Vested Rights

The adoption of any charter hereunder or any amendment thereof shall never be construed to destroy any property, action, rights of action, claims, and demands of any nature or kind whatever vested in the city under and by virtue of any charter theretofore existing or otherwise accruing to the city, but all such rights of action, claims or demands shall vest in and inure to the city and to any persons asserting any such claims against the city as fully as though the said charter or amendment had not been adopted hereunder. The adoption of any charter or amendment hereunder shall never be construed to affect the right of the city to collect by special assessment any special assessment heretofore levied under any law or special charter for the purpose of paving or improving any street, highway, avenue or boulevard of any city, or for the purpose of opening, extending, widening, straightening or otherwise improving the same, nor affect any right of any contract or obligation existing between the city and any person, firm or corporation for the making of any such improvements. For the purpose of collecting any such special assessment and carrying out any such contract, the provisions of all charters shall be continued in force.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1179. Improvement Districts

Such city shall have the power to create and establish improvement districts, to levy, straighten, widen, enclose or otherwise improve any river, creek, bayou, stream or other body of water or streets or alleys, and to drain, grade, fill and otherwise protect and improve the territory within its limits, and shall have power to issue bonds for making such improvements, such improvement districts to be created and established agreeably to the general laws of this State providing for the creation of such improvement districts, and the issuance of such bonds shall be governed by the powers a city possesses in the matter of issuing bonds.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1180. Private Improvements

Such city shall further have the power to straighten, widen, levy, enclose, or otherwise improve any river, creek, bayou, stream, or other body of water, or streets or alleys and to drain, grade, fill and otherwise protect and improve the territory within its limits and to provide that the cost of making any such improvements shall be paid for by the property owners owning property in the territory specially benefited in enhanced value by reason of making such improvements, and a personal charge shall be made against such owners as well as a lien shall be fixed by special assessment against any such property, and the city may issue assignable certificates or negotiable certificates, as it deems advisable, covering such cost, and may provide for the payment of such cost in deferred payments and fix the rate of interest not to exceed eight per cent, and may provide for the appointment of special commissioners or otherwise for the making or levying of said special assessment, or may provide that the same shall be done by the governing authorities, and that such rules and regulations may be adopted for a hearing and other proceedings had as may be provided by said charter.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1180a. Improvement of Streams Within Boundaries by Certain Cities

Cities Which May Make Improvements: Power Conferred

Sec. 1. Any City having a population in excess of 150,000 people and less than 240,000 people, according to the last or any succeeding Federal Census, shall have and exercise the power and right to straighten, widen, levee, restrain or otherwise control or improve any river, creek, bayou, stream or other body of water, and to grade or fill land and otherwise protect life and property within the boundaries of such City, meaning hereby to confer the power to amend or abate any harmful excess of water, either constant or periodic, by any and all mechanical means, and, to that end, may provide and pay the cost of any such improvement, or any part thereof, in the manner and form provided by Articles 1179 and 1180, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, or the cost of any such improvement, or any part thereof, may be provided in any other manner or form lawful to be exercised by any such City under the Constitution of Texas and not expressly prohibited by the Charter of any such City.

Additional Powers

Sec. 2. Any such City, in addition to the power declared in Subdivision 1 of this Article, shall have these further specific powers, viz.: a. To contribute to the cost, upkeep, replacement, alteration, extension, maintenance and operation of any works or improvements contemplated hereby, when such improvements are to be provided and/or operated by another.

b. To solicit and receive from another contribution to the cost of any such improvements and/or the alteration, enlargement, operation and maintenance thereof, when such works are to be provided and operated by any such City.

c. To purchase, or otherwise acquire and take over any such improvements, and/or the maintenance or the operation thereof, any one or all, and, electively and when so contracted, to assume any outstanding bond debt or other debt secured by lien, which debt does not bear interest at a rate greater than six per cent per annum, and which debt may have been incurred in order to provide any such works and improvements. It is the intent hereof that this provision shall supercede and control any provision of a City Charter not in conformity hereto, but it is expressly provided that nothing herein contained shall be held to create indebtedness exceeding the limit for debt appropriately fixed by Law; provided no such city, in purchasing or acquiring any such improvements, or the right to maintain and control the properties of such levee or improvement district, shall assume any bonded indebtedness outstanding and owing by such levee or improvement district, unless and until such city shall have first been authorized to do so by an election, at which such question of assuming any indebtedness and/or maintenance shall be first submitted to, and adopted by, the qualified property-tax-paying voters of said city.

d. To enter into contract with another whereby any such City may, jointly with another or independently, do any one or all of the things by this Act intended.

Powers Available to All Bodies Politic

Sec. 3. It is the intent hereof that any and all Bodies Politic which are subsidiary Governmental Agencies of the State, and otherwise having appropriate powers, may avail themselves of the provisions hereof and enter into contract one with another in order to accomplish the purpose of this Article.

Power to Provide Money

Sec. 4. Any such City and/or any other Body Politic and Corporate, which, under contract with a City having power hereunder, may seek to exercise the powers established by this Article, shall have the further power to provide the money required to construct, maintain and operate improvements hereunder, either separately or jointly under contract with another, in any manner lawful under the Constitution of Texas, and not expressly inhibited by the Charter and/or Statutory Act under which any such City or other contracting Body Politic may have its being.

Construction

Sec. 5. The word "another" or "others" as used herein shall be understood to include both the singular and the plural and shall be understood to include a City, a County, a Levee District, a Water Control and Improvement District, a Water Improvement District, a Navigation District and every other Body Politic under the Laws of Texas having Statutory powers concerning the control of harmful excess of water.

[Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 881, ch. 345.]

Art. 1180b. Self-Liquidating Recreational Improvements

Powers Granted to Certain Cities; Encumbrances

Sec. 1. That all cities having two hundred and thirty thousand (230,000) or more inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall have the power to purchase and own, build, maintain, operate, mortgage and encumber health and recreational establishments, parks, playgrounds, hotels, bathhouses, bathing pools or facilities, and any and all other installations or establishments necessary or desirable as a part of health and recreational resorts, parks, or playgrounds, or any of them either, and the income therefrom and to provide, maintain, operate, and encumber such projects and facilities acquired by gift, devise, grant, or otherwise by such cities, and to evidence the obligations therefor by bonds, notes or warrants and to secure the payment of funds to purchase same with such instruments of pledge or mortgage as may be deemed to be desirable; or to remodel, rebuild, renovate, and repair such health and recreational establishments, parks, playgrounds, hotels, bathhouses, bathing pools or facilities, and any and all other installations or establishments necessary or desirable as a part of such projects, or any of them. Provided, however, that such cities are prohibited from mortgaging or encumbering any property now owned by such cities, and the rights and privileges hereby conferred upon such cities shall only authorize such cities to mortgage and encumber property acquired by such cities after the date of the passage of this Act. No such obligation on any such project shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the property and revenue of the project or projects so encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of any such city to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Acts as to Notice, Competitive Bids, Etc., Inapplicable

Sec. 2. That the provisions of House Bill No. 312, Chapter No. 168, Acts of the Forty-second Legislature, 1931, with reference to notice, competitive bids and the right to referendum shall not apply to cities issuing "revenue bonds" under the authority conferred in this Act.

1 Article 2180a.

Encumbrance of Income; Operating Expenses as Prior Lien

Sec. 3. Whenever the income to be derived from the operation of any such project or projects shall be encumbered under this law, the expense of operation and maintenance, including all salaries, labor, materials, interest, repairs, and extensions necessary to properly maintain said project or projects, and every proper item of expense, shall always be a first lien and charge against such income. The rate of rental and concession charges for the use of the various installations, facilities and establishments of such project or projects shall be determined by the governing body of such project and no free service or rental shall ever be allowed. Rental and concession charges shall be charged and collected for the use of the various installations, facilities and establishments of such project or projects in an amount sufficient to pay operating and maintenance expenses, depreciation, replacements, salaries and interest charges, and to provide interest and sinking funds to pay the amount of any bonds issued to purchase, construct, maintain or improve any such project as herein enumerated or allowed, or any outstanding indebtedness against such projects, or any of them, and such charges shall be in accordance with the requirements of the Governmental Agency or Agencies lending or furnishing funds in aid thereof.

Contents of Contracts, Bonds, Etc.

Sec. 4. Every contract, bond, warrant and note issued or executed under this law shall contain this clause:

"The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

Management and Control by Governing Body

Sec. 5. The management and control of any such health and recreational establishments, parks, playgrounds, hotels, bathhouses, bathing pools or facilities, and any and all other installations or establishments necessary or desirable as a part of such project during the time that they are encumbered shall be, by the terms of such encumbrance, placed in the City Council or the Mayor and City Commissioners or other governing body as said city shall establish therefor. The City Council, Mayor and City Commissioners or the governing body of the project that shall be so established by the city shall have the power to make rules and regulations governing the use and rental of said various installations, facilities, premises and establishments of such project or projects and for the payment of said rentals and concession charges. Such governing body shall have the power to provide penalties for the violation of such rules and regulations and for the use of such project or projects of the facilities or equipment thereof without the consent or knowledge of the authorities in charge thereof and to provide penalties for all interference, trespassing, or injury to any such project or projects or premises on which same may be located.

Trustee Under Encumbrance

Sec. 6. A contract of encumbrance may provide for the selection of a trustee to make sale upon the default of principal or interest or violation of the terms and conditions of such contract and for the selection of his successor or successors if the original trustee of any substitute trustee should become disqualified or fail or refuse to act, and for attorneys' fees in amount not exceeding ten (10) per cent of the principal unpaid.
city prior to the holding of said election. The ballot used at said election shall briefly describe the franchise to be voted on and the terms thereof and shall be prepared to permit voting for or against the proposition: "Granting of a franchise." If a majority of those voting at said election shall vote in favor of granting a franchise, the governing body upon canvassing the returns shall so declare and said franchise shall take effect in accordance with its terms. No franchise shall extend beyond the period fixed for its termination. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84. Amended by Acts 1981, 67th Leg., p. 10, ch. 9, § 1, eff. March 4, 1981.]

Art. 1182a. Annexation of Additional Territory

Election

Sec. 1. Whenever the City Commission of any City within this State, acting under and by virtue of any Charter adopted under Home Rule Amendment Article 11, Section 5, of the Constitution of this State, shall institute or order an election for the extension of the territorial limits of said city, to be submitted to the legally qualified property tax paying voters residing within the territorial limits of said city, to determine whether or not the adjacent territory desired to be annexed shall be included within the territorial limits of said city, said City Commissioners shall at the same time order an election to be held at some convenient place within said city limits, so that the legally qualified property tax paying voters residing in the territory contiguous to said city and proposed to be annexed, may appear and cast their vote for the purpose of determining whether a majority of the legally qualified property tax paying voters residing in said territory desired to be annexed favor the annexation of said territory proposed to be annexed.

Ballots for Election

Sec. 2. Whenever an election for the annexation of additional territory is held in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing section, said City Commissioners, when ordering such election for the annexation of said territory, shall prepare for the legally qualified property tax paying voters residing in said territory proposed to be annexed, favor the annexation of said territory proposed to be annexed.

Assumption of Indebtedness of Annexed Territory

Sec. 3. If, at any election to be held under the provisions hereof, a majority of the legally qualified tax paying voters residing within the territorial limits of such city, and those residing within the territorial limits proposed to be annexed, shall each vote in favor of the annexation of such additional territory, said city shall thereby assume all of said bonded indebtedness and flat rates on the territory thus annexed and due such Irrigation District, Water Improvement District or Water Control and Improvement District, or either of them, and shall from thence forth out of the taxes collected on the territory thus annexed pay to said Irrigation District, Water Improvement District or Water Control and Improvement District, said bonded indebtedness and flat rates, owing to such district, or either of them, as same become due and payable, and no city thus annexing such territory shall be entitled to collect any taxes due it from the property owners within the territory annexed until said City shall pay such bonded indebtedness and flat rates, for the current year same become due and payable, and present to said property owner a receipt showing that said City has paid the same.

The order of election must give the metes and bounds of the territory to be annexed, and said metes and bounds shall be include 1 and made an part of the ordinance calling for the election.

The election herein provided for shall be ordered by the City Commissioners and the returns canvassed and the results declared as is provided by law for other elections pertaining to said City.

Said ordinance for the election must provide for separate elections and must be issued and public notice given thereof as in other city elections, and provided further that if a majority of the legally qualified property tax paying voters residing within the territorial limits of said city or if a majority of the legally qualified property tax paying voters residing within the territory desired to be annexed shall not be in favor of such annexations then such annexations shall not be made.

Powers Additional to Charter Provisions

Sec. 4. Provided further, however, that nothing in this Act shall be held or construed to repeal or nullify any charter provision of any city of over one hundred thousand inhabitants according to the last United States census, operating under Article 11, Section 5 of the Constitution providing for the annexation of additional territory by ordinance, but shall be construed as an additional power and cumulative of the said charter provisions.

1085 CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Art. 1182a
Art. 1182b  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Annexation of Adjacent Territory Including Water District or Towns

Cities Which May Annex Territory

Sec. 1. In all cities having a population of more than One Hundred Fifty Thousand (150,000) and less than One Hundred Sixty Thousand (160,000) at the time of the taking of the Federal Census of 1920 and operating under a special charter or the Home Rule Act, the power to provide for the annexation of additional territory lying adjacent to said city according to such provisions as may be provided by said charter is hereby expressly granted, recognized, ratified and confirmed.

Annexation Authorized

Sec. 2. Said cities may annex territory which includes one or more fresh water supply districts, organized under authority of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution of the State of Texas whether organized under general or special law; also which includes cities and towns of less than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants operating under the general law.

Property of Annexed Territory Vested in City

Sec. 3. In the event such district or districts, or incorporated cities and towns are included in the annexed territory, it shall be the duty of the Governing Board of said City annexing such territory to adopt a resolution or pass an ordinance providing that all physical property belonging to said fresh water supply district or districts, or cities and towns so annexed, shall thereafter be vested in said city, provided that prior to the passage of any ordinance or resolution of the city annexing territory including any such fresh water supply district or districts, or incorporated cities and towns of under five thousand (5,000) inhabitants, the Board of Commissioners of such city annexing such territory, shall have been presented with an application for such annexation from the governing authority of such fresh water supply district or districts, or cities and towns of under five thousand (5,000) inhabitants included in the territory to be annexed.

Assumption of Indebtedness by City

Sec. 4. The ordinance or resolution passed or adopted by the governing board of said City shall provide that all bonded indebtedness of said fresh water supply district or districts and all legal indebtedness of such cities and towns, as provided herein, be assumed by said City. Immediately upon the passage of such resolution or ordinance the corporate existence of said fresh water supply district or districts, or cities and towns so annexed will have legally terminated and the outstanding bonds and interest unpaid thereon of said fresh water supply district or districts, and the legal indebtedness of such cities and towns, shall be paid by said City as they mature and accrue.

Art. 1182c  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Validating Annexation by Cities of Fresh Water Supply Districts

Cities in Which Proceedings Validated

Sec. 1. That in each instance when there has been presented to the governing body of any city having a population of 150,000 or more a petition by the supervisors of any Fresh Water Supply District theretofore organized under Title 128, Chapter 4, Vernon's Revised Civil Statutes of 1923, or said Chapter 4 as amended, asking that the territory therein described, including such Fresh Water Supply District, be annexed to such city, and the governing body of such city has adopted an ordinance annexing such territory to such city, including such Fresh Water Supply District, said ordinance and all proceedings had in connection with its adoption and with said annexation of territory are hereby validated and legalized.

Assumption of Indebtedness

Sec. 2. That in each instance when the governing body of any such city has provided by ordinance for the annexation of territory, including any such Fresh Water Supply District, to such city and has provided in said ordinance that all outstanding legal indebtedness and all outstanding bonds and interest unpaid thereon of any such Fresh Water Supply District shall be assumed and paid by said city, such outstanding indebtedness and all such outstanding bonds and interest unpaid thereon are hereby declared to be the legal indebtedness of said city and for the payment thereof such city is authorized to levy taxes upon all taxable property therein, provided that this Act shall apply only on bonds or indebtedness of any Fresh Water Supply District, authorized and created pursuant to the approving vote of a majority of the qualified property taxing owners of any such District; and provided, further, that this Act shall not operate to abolish or impair any of the contractual rights of the holders of said bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued or incurred by such Fresh Water Supply District.

1 Article 7881 et seq. (repealed; see, now, Water Code, § 53.012 et seq.).

Art. 1182c-1  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Cities and Towns Which Have Annexed Territory Within Water Districts

Application

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to all incorporated cities and towns, including Home Rule Cities, and those operating under general laws or special charters (hereinafter called "city" or "cities"), which have heretofore annexed, or hereafter may annex, all or any part of the territory within one (1) or more water control and improvement districts, fresh water supply districts or municipal utility districts, which districts were organized for the primary purpose of providing such municipal functions as the supply of fresh water for domestic or commercial uses, the furnishing of sanitary sewer service or drainage services, any or all. Such cities shall succeed to the powers, duties, assets, and obligations of such district or districts in the manner and to the extent hereinafter provided. Nothing herein shall prohibit any city from continuing to operate utility facilities within such districts in which such facilities are owned and are operated by such city at the effective date of annexation. This Act shall not apply in the case of any such district, the territory of which is now situated in more than one (1) incorporated city.

Taking Over Assets and Liabilities; Contracts

Sec. 2. In case all the territory within any such district is so annexed, such city shall take over all properties and assets, shall assume all debts, liabilities and obligations and shall perform all functions and services of such district, and after such annexation such district shall be abolished at the time and in the manner as provided in the sentence immediately following. The governing body of such city shall, by ordinance, designate the date upon which the city shall take over, shall assume all debts, and such district shall be abolished, and said date shall be in no event later than ninety (90) days after the effective date of such annexation; provided, that if the city fails to adopt such ordinance, the city shall automatically take over and assume such debts and the district shall be abolished ninety (90) days after the effective date of such annexation.

In case less than all of the territory within any such district is so annexed, the governing authorities of such city and district shall be authorized to enter into contracts in regard to the division and allocation of duplicate and overlapping powers, functions and duties between such agencies, and in regard to the use, management, control, purchase, conveyance, assumption and disposition of the properties, assets, debts, liabilities and obligations of such district. Any such district is expressly authorized to enter into agreements with such city for the operation of the district's utility systems and other properties by such city, and may provide for the transfer, conveyance or sale of such systems and properties of whatever kind and wherever situated (including properties outside the city) to such city upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon by and between the governing bodies of such district and city. Such operating contracts may extend for such period of time not exceeding thirty (30) years as may be stipulated therein and shall be subject to amendment, renewal or termination by mutual consent of such governing bodies. No such contract shall contain any provision impairing the obligation of any existing contract of such city or district.

In the absence of such contract, such district shall be authorized to continue to exercise all the powers and functions which it was empowered to exercise and perform prior to such annexation, and the city shall not duplicate services rendered by the district within the district's boundaries without the district's consent, but may perform therein all other municipal functions in which the district is not engaged.

Abolition of Water Districts Within Cities and Towns

Sec. 2a. All water control and improvement districts, fresh water supply districts or municipal utility districts which have heretofore been or which may hereafter be created out of territory which, at the time of such creation, was situated wholly within the corporate limits of any incorporated city, town or village, including a home rule city (hereinafter called "City"), may be abolished in the manner herein provided. The governing body of such city shall be authorized, by a vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the entire membership of its governing body, to adopt an ordinance abolishing such water control and improvement district, fresh water supply district or municipal utility district if such governing body finds (a) that such district is no longer needed or (b) that the services furnished and functions performed by such district can be served and performed by the city and (c) that it would be to the best interests of the citizens and property within said district and the citizens and property within such city that such district be abolished.

If prior to the date when an ordinance adopted pursuant to this Section shall take effect, or within thirty (30) days after the same takes effect, or the publication of same, a petition signed and verified by the qualified voters of the city, equal in number to ten percent (10%) of the total vote cast at the city election for municipal officers next preceding the filing of said petition shall be filed with the city secretary protesting against the enactment or enforcement of such ordinance, it shall be suspended from taking effect and no action therefor taken under such ordinance shall be legal or valid. Immediately upon the filing of such petition the secretary shall present it to the governing body of the city. Thereupon the governing body shall immediately consider such ordinance and if it does not entirely repeal the same shall submit it to popular vote at the next municipal election or the governing body may, in its discretion, call a special election for that purpose, and such ordinance shall not take effect unless a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon at such election shall vote in favor thereof.

Upon the adoption of an ordinance as hereinafter provided, such water control and improvement district, fresh water supply district or municipal utility district shall be abolished and dissolved and all properties and assets of such district shall thereupon vest immediately in such city and such city shall thereby assume and become liable for all bonds and other obligations for which such district is liable. Such city shall thereafter perform all services and functions heretofore performed or rendered by said district. When any district bonds, warrants or other obligations payable in whole or in part from ad valorem taxes have been assumed by such city, the governing body of such city shall thereafter levy and cause to be collected upon all taxable property within such city, taxes sufficient to pay principal of, and interest on, such bonds, warrants or obligations as they respectively become due and payable. Such city shall be authorized to issue refunding bonds or warrants to refund any bonds, warrants or other obligations, including unpaid earned interest thereon, so assumed by it. Such refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in the Bond and Warrant Law of 1931, as heretofore or hereafter amended, provided that it shall not be necessary to give any notice of intention to issue such refunding bonds and no right of referendum thereon shall be available. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than that borne by the obligations refunded, unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid.

Outstanding Obligations

Sec. 4. When all of the territory within such district has been annexed as hereinabove provided and in cases where such district has outstanding bonds, warrants or other obligations, payable solely from the net revenues from the operation of any utility system or property, such city shall nevertheless take over and operate such system or properties, and shall apply the net revenues from the operation thereof to the payment of such outstanding district revenue bonds, warrants or other bonded obligations in all respects as though the district had not been abolished.

If such city does not itself have outstanding revenue bonds, warrants or other obligations payable from, and secured by a pledge of, the net revenues of its own utility system or properties of like kind, or, if such city does have outstanding revenue bonds, warrants or other obligations payable from, and secured by pledge of, the net revenues of its own utility system or properties of like kind, but the revenues therefrom are sufficient to meet its own outstanding obligations to which such revenues are pledged, and have over a period of five (5) years prior to the effective date of this Amendment hereto had an annual surplus in said fund sufficient to meet the annual obligations for which the revenues from the water district, or districts, are pledged, such city may, at its option, combine such utility system or properties acquired from such district or districts with its own similar utility system or properties and, in such case, such city shall levy each year against all property subject to taxation by such city, an ad valorem tax in sufficient amount, when taken together with other funds and revenues of the city which may be lawfully appropriated and devoted thereto, to provide sufficient funds and moneys to make the payment of the principal of and interest on any such assumed bonds, warrants or other obligations so secured.

If any such city does have outstanding bonds, warrants or other bonded obligations payable from, and secured by a pledge of, the net revenues of the city's said utility system or properties of like kind, and such city does not have annually accruing to its surplus revenue fund an amount over and above the amount of such fund pledged to the payment of outstanding obligations of the city sufficient to meet the annual obligations for which the revenues from the water district or districts are pledged, then, until the refunding hereinafter authorized has been accomplished, the city shall continue to operate the former properties of the district separate and apart from any similar properties of the city and shall not commingle in any way the revenue of any such several systems. Such city shall faithfully perform all duties, functions and obligations imposed by law or by contract upon the governing body of such district in regard to the outstanding bonds, warrants, or other obligations payable solely from the revenues of such former district’s utility system or properties and shall likewise, separate and apart, perform all duties, functions and obligations imposed upon such city in connection with its own revenue bonds, warrants or other obligations; provided that overhead expenses may be allocated between any two (2) or more such systems of properties in direct proportion of the gross income of each.

Revenue Refunding Bonds

Sec. 5. Any such city shall have authority to issue revenue refunding bonds in its own name for the purpose of refunding outstanding district revenue bonds, warrants or other obligations (including unpaid accrued interest thereon) assumed by such city and shall also have authority to combine any number of different issues of both district and city revenue bonds, warrants or other obligations into one series of revenue refunding bonds and pledge the net revenues of such utility systems or properties to the payment of such refunding bonds as the governing body shall deem proper. The provision of Articles 1111 to 1118, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes, as amended, shall apply to such revenue refunding bonds except as otherwise provided herein and provided that no election for the issuance of such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than that borne by the obligations refunded, unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid.

Newly Incorporated Cities or Towns

Sec. 6. When any city or town is newly incorporated over all or any part of the territory within a water control and improvement district, a fresh water supply district or municipal utility district, the governing body may adopt an ordinance making the provisions of this Act applicable to such city or town and, upon the adoption of such an ordinance by a vote of not less than two-thirds (%) of the entire membership of such governing body, the provisions of this Act shall thereafter be applicable to such city or town and to such districts situated in whole or in part therein.
Art. 1182c-4 CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

(Chapter 128, Acts of the Fiftieth Legislature of Texas, Regular Session, 1947), as same has been, or may hereafter be, amended. In the event any such district had, prior to such abolition, voted bonds for the purpose of providing waterworks, sanitary sewer or drainage facilities, any or all, which bonds were not issued, sold and delivered prior to such abolition, the governing body of such city shall be authorized to issue and sell bonds of said city in an amount not exceeding the amount of such voted but unissued district bonds, for the purpose of carrying out the purpose or purposes for which said district bonds were voted. Such bonds shall be authorized by ordinance adopted by the governing body of said city in which provision shall be made for the levy of taxes upon all taxable property within said city for the payment of principal and interest thereof when due. Said bonds shall be sold for not less than par and accrued interest, shall mature, bear interest, be subject to approval by the Attorney General of Texas and registration by the Comptroller of Accounts as provided by law for other general obligation bonds of such city, and when so approved, registered, and sold, shall be incontestable.

Sec. 2. All laws, general and special, and city charter provisions in conflict herewith are, to the extent of such conflict, hereby repealed but nothing herein shall affect the right of such cities to issue bonds for other purposes. All ordinances, acts and proceedings of the governing bodies of any such cities for the annexation of territory which includes any such water district or districts are hereby in all respects valid, to the extent thereof as to the city, cities or territorial district or districts therein as if such city, cities or district or districts were created by a special act of the Legislature. In the event any such city, cities, or district or districts is, or are, owned and operated by such city, cities or district or districts, the same may be, abolished by ordinance adopted by the governing body of said city, cities or district or districts. All ordinances, acts and special or general laws, and city charters and sections thereof, are hereby, so far as they are inconsistent with this Act, repealed and all provisions of the same for the purpose of abolishing the district or districts are hereby declared void.

(b) This Act shall also apply when the balance of the territory comprising a district or districts, other than a district created by a special act of the Legislature, lies in another city or cities and in unincorporated territory so that the entire district lies wholly within two (2) or more cities and in unincorporated territory. In this latter case dissolution of the district may be effected by the procedure in Section 2 hereof. This subsection shall not apply to a district created by a special act of the Legislature.

Abolition of Districts; Distribution of Assets; Assumption of Obligations

Sec. 2. (a) Such district may be abolished by mutual agreement between the district and the cities wherein such district lies. Subject to the provisions of Section 4 of this Act, such agreement shall provide for the distribution among such cities of all the properties and assets of the district and for the pro rata assumption by such cities of all the debts, liabilities and obligations of the district, said distribution and assumption to be predicated or based upon the pro rata value of the properties and assets of the district going to such cities, respective­ly, to the entire value of such properties and assets. The determination of the value of such properties and assets may be on an original cost basis, a reproduction cost basis, or a fair market value basis or by any other valuation method agreed upon by the parties which reasonably reflects the value of the properties, assets, debts, liabilities, and obligations of the district. Such agreement shall designate the date on which the district shall be abol­ished, and the agreement shall be approved by ordinance adopted by the governing body of each of the cities and by order or resolution adopted by the governing board of the district, and the same shall be so approved prior to the date designated in the agreement for such abolition, distribution, and as­sumption.

(b) In the event a district, other than a district created by a special act of the Legislature, lies wholly within two (2) or more cities and in unincorporated territory, said district may be abolished by mutual agreement between the district and all of the cities wherein portions of the district lie. Sub­ject to the provisions of Section 4 of this Act, the agreement of dissolution shall provide for the distribution of assets and liabilities as stated in Subsec­tion (a) hereof. The agreement shall also include a distribution among one (1) or more of the cities of the pro rata assets and liabilities lying outside the limits of the contracting cities, in unincorporated territory. In addition, the agreement shall also include provisions for service to customers in unincorporated areas previously within the service area of the abolished district. In this connection, the city providing service to customers in unincorporated areas is specifically authorized to charge its usual and customary fees and assessments to such customers and to new customers outside its incorporated limits. The agreement shall be approved by ordinance adopted by the governing body of each city and by order or resolution adopted by the governing board of the district, and the agreement shall have this approval before the date designated in the agreement for abolition, distribution, and assumption.

Abolition of Certain Multi-City Conservation and Reclamation Districts

Sec. 2A(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law or this Act, any conservation and reclamation district created or existing pursuant to Article XVI, Section 69 of the Constitution of Texas which lies wholly within more than one city, and which, on April 1, 1971, did not lie wholly within more than one city, and which, on said date, was not a party to a contract providing for a federal grant for research and development pursuant to Title 33, Subtitle C, Part 1, Chapter 1091, for the operation, and maintenance of such assets, properties and facilities of the district which were assumed by the city in direct proportion to the gross income of each.

(b) All of the physical assets, properties and facilities which serve territory within more than one city shall continue to serve such territory and shall be operated and maintained by the city within which such properties, assets and facilities are located. Said city may make reasonable charges to the other cities served by such assets, properties and facilities for the operation and maintenance of such assets, properties and facilities.

2A(2) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of the law or this Act, a district defined by Section 2A(1) may be abolished by mutual agreement between all of the cities wherein said district lies. Such agreement need not be approved by the district. The agreement may designate a date or dates, no later than ninety (90) days after the inclusion of all of the territory of said district within said cities, upon which the district shall be abolished. The agreement may provide a method by which the district's properties, assets and facilities shall be taken over by the cities, and the bonded indebtedness, liabilities, obligations and other debts of the district shall be assumed by said cities pursuant to such agreement. Said agreement may define those physical assets, properties and facilities of the district which serve territory within more than one city, and may provide a method by which said assets, properties and facilities shall be operated and maintained. An agreement executed pursuant to this section may contain all provisions necessary or proper to the abolition of said district, the distribution of its properties, assets and facilities, and the assumption of its bonded indebtedness, liabilities, obligations, and other debts. Said agreement may bind the parties for as long as fifty (50) years, notwithstanding any provision of the city charters of the respective cities to the contrary.

3A(3) If a city which has previously annexed territory within a district defined in Section 2A(1) annexes additional territory which lies wholly within such district and obtains the consent of all other cities which have previously annexed territory within said district and which have extraterritorial jurisdiction over the territory proposed to be annexed, then, notwithstanding any contrary provision of the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 1182c, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes, as amended), such annexing city need not obtain the consent of any other municipality.
of any outstanding district bonds, warrants, or other obligations payable in whole or in part from ad valorem taxes (including unpaid earned interest thereon) so assumed by it. Such refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in the Bond and Warrant Law of 1931, as heretofore or hereafter amended; provided, however, that it shall not be necessary to give any notice of intention to issue such refunding bonds and no right of referendum thereon shall be available. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than that borne by the obligations refunded unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid.\footnote{1 Article 2308a.}

Revenue Refunding Bonds for Payment of District Bonds, Warrants or Obligations; Combination of Issues

Sec. 6. Any such city shall be authorized to issue revenue refunding bonds or general obligation refunding bonds, either or both, in its own name to refund in whole or in part its pro rata part of any outstanding district bonds, warrants, or other obligations payable solely from net revenues (including unpaid earned interest thereon) so assumed by it, and shall also have the authority to combine any number of different issues or bonds of different issues of both district and city revenue bonds, warrants, or other obligations into one (1) or more series of revenue refunding bonds (and pledge the net revenues of such utility systems or properties to the payment thereof) or into one (1) or more series of general obligation refunding bonds, either or both, as the governing body may deem proper; provided however, that no originally issued city revenue bonds shall be refunded into city general obligation refunding bonds. The provisions of Articles 1111 through 1118, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, 1925, as amended, shall apply to such revenue refunding bonds except as otherwise provided herein, and no election for the issuance of such revenue refunding bonds shall be necessary; and in the issuance of revenue refunding bonds, it is expressly provided that such cities shall have the benefits provided by Article 1118n-5, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, 1925, as amended, including the power and authority to issue and sell revenue refunding bonds under Section 1a of said Article, as amended in 1955, and the provisions of such Article, as amended, relating to outstanding revenue bonds shall apply to outstanding revenue bonds assumed by cities under this Act. General obligation refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in the Bond and Warrant Law of 1931, as heretofore or hereafter amended; provided, however, that it shall not be necessary to give any notice of intention to issue such refunding bonds and no right of referendum thereon shall be available. Such revenue refunding bonds or general obligation refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than that borne by the obligations refunded unless it is shown... mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid.

Art. 1182e-6. Validation of Contracts Affecting Water and Sewer Facilities of Cities and Contiguous Water Control and Improvement Districts

Sec. 1. In each instance where since Chapter 161, Laws of the Regular Session of the 55th Legislature of Texas, 1957, amending Article 1182-1, Vernon's Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, became effective, any city, including home rule cities, has entered into a contract with a contiguous Water Control and Improvement District, part or all of which district by reason of annexations to such city was at the time of the making of such contract within the territorial limits of such city, which contract provides for the operation of the water and sewer facilities of such district by such city and makes other provisions with respect to the operation of the water and sewer facilities of such district and such city and with respect to the rights of such district and such city thereto, such contract is hereby validated, ratified and confirmed and declared to be enforceable and legally effective in accordance with its terms, and the parties thereto are authorized to perform and carry out the provisions and obligations of such contract. No such contract shall be so construed as to have the effect of giving the outstanding bonds of any such district a lien on any revenues not contemplated by the proceedings authorizing such bonds, nor to have the effect of giving any outstanding bonds of such city a lien on any of the revenues pledged to the payment of such outstanding district bonds until all such outstanding district bonds shall have been retired.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not apply to any contract, the validity of which is under attack, in litigation pending in any court in Texas at the time this Act becomes effective.

Art. 1182e. Validating Relinquishment of Territory

That the Legislature of the State of Texas hereby validates, ratifies and approves all ordinances, relinquishing, discontinuing, and segregating any territory within the corporate limits of any Home Rule City in this state, having a population of more than twenty thousand (20,000) inhabitants and less than twenty-one thousand (21,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal census; which city has adopted a charter under Article 11, Section 5, of the Constitution of the State of Texas and the provisions of Chapter 147, Acts of the Regular Session of the 33rd Legislature of the State of Texas, passed in 1913.

[Acts 1934, 43rd Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 53, ch. 30, § 1.]

Art. 1182e-1. Donation of Unimproved Land to Counties for Use by Juvenile Boards; Validation; Authorization

Sec. 1. All donations of unimproved land by Home Rule cities of this State by grant or lease to the counties wherein they are located for use by the Juvenile Boards of said counties are hereby validated.

Sec. 2. Home Rule cities of this State are authorized and empowered to donate by grant or lease to the counties wherein they are located any unimproved land for use by the Juvenile Boards of such counties.

Art. 1182e. Exposition or Convention Halls in Cities of 290,000 or More

Powers Granted; Obligation Not a Debt

Sec. 1. That all cities having two hundred and ninety thousand (290,000) or more inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census shall have the power to build and purchase, mortgage and encumber exposition and convention halls, or either, and the income thereof and to evidence the obligations therefor by bonds, notes or warrants and to secure the payment of funds to purchase same; or to remodel, rebuild, renovate and repair such exposition and convention halls, or either. No such obligation of any such exposition and convention halls shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the property of the exposition and convention hall so encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of any such city to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Provisions as to Notice and Competitive Bids Inapplicable Until After January 1, 1936

Sec. 2. That notwithstanding any of the provisions of House Bill No. 312, Chapter No. 163, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, 1931, the requirements of said House Bill No. 312, Chapter No. 163, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, 1931,1 with reference to notice, competitive bids and the right to referendum shall not apply to cities acting under the authority conferred in this Act until after January 1, 1936.

1 Article 3064a.

Lien on Income; Rates for Use

Sec. 3. Whenever the income to be derived from the operation of any exposition and convention hall shall be encumbered under this law, the expense of operation and maintenance including all salaries, labor, materials, interest, repairs, and extensions necessary to properly maintain said exposition and convention hall and every proper item of expense shall always be a first lien and charge against such income. The rate for the use of said exposition and convention hall shall be determined by the governing body of such city and no free service or rental shall ever be allowed. There shall be charged and collected for the use of such exposition and convention hall a sufficient rental to pay all operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacements, betterments, and interest charges and for interest and sinking fund to pay any bonds issued to purchase, construct or improve any such exposition and convention hall or of any outstanding indebtedness against it.

Provision to be Inserted in Contract, Bond or Note

Sec. 4. Every contract, bond, or note issued or executed under this law shall contain this clause:

“The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.”

Governing Body to Manage

Sec. 5. The management and control of any such exposition and convention halls during the time that they are encumbered shall be, by the terms of such encumbrance, placed in the city council or other governing body of said city. The city council or other governing body shall have power to make rules and regulations governing the use and rental of said exposition and convention halls and for the payment of said rentals. Such governing body shall have the power to provide penalties for the violation of such rules and regulations and for the use of such exposition and convention halls without the consent or knowledge of the authorities in charge thereof and to provide penalties for all interference, trespassing, or injury to any such exposition and convention halls or premises on which same may be located.

Provision for Trustee

Sec. 6. A contract of encumbrance may provide for the selection of a Trustee to make sale upon the default of principal or interest or otherwise according to the terms of such contract and for the selection of his successor, if disqualified or failing to act, and for collection of fees not exceeding five (5) per cent of the principal. If such contract provides for the appointment of a Receiver, the Trustee, in the event of any default in the payment of principal and interest or otherwise under such contract, continuing for a period of thirty (30) days, may apply to the proper Court for the appointment of a Receiver. A Receiver so appointed may, subject to the order of the Court, enter and take possession of the properties and operate and maintain them and apply the net revenue to the liquidation of the debt. The Receiver may maintain and operate the properties and may use or rent any part of the properties for any purpose consistent with the continued use of the major part as an exposition and convention hall or, if so authorized by the Court, may rent all the properties for any lawful use, and all of such properties shall continue to be free from taxation until the indebtedness secured thereby is fully paid. The Receiver may rent any part or all of such properties to the city, and the city may lease the same from the Receiver. All rights of the Receiver and of any lessee or other persons holding under him shall cease when the indebtedness is paid or if the Trustee, in the exercise of its powers, shall sell the properties, provided that the Trustees may agree with any lessee of the properties from the Receiver not to sell the property during the term of his lease; provided also that if the principal of all the bonds shall not have been declared due or if such declaration being made shall have been annulled under the provisions of the contract of encumbrance, the rights of the Receiver may be terminated and the Receiver discharged by remedy or waiver of the default and upon application to the Court, and in such event the rights of any lessee from the Receiver shall be subject to adjudication and may be terminated or adjusted by the Court.

Validation of Proceedings, Mortgages, and Bonds

Sec. 6-a. Any proceedings taken by any such city under such Act and any mortgage or bonds heretofore authorized reciting the authority of such Act are hereby in all respects validated and confirmed as fully for all purposes as though duly and legally taken and authorized under such Act as now amended.

Notice to Governing Body Prior to Foreclosure or Action

Sec. 7. No collection fees shall accrue, and no foreclosure proceedings shall be begun in any Court or through any trustee, and no option to mature any part of any such obligation because of any default in payment of any installment of principal or interest shall be exercised until ninety (90) days written notice shall be given to each member of the city council or other governing body of such city that payment has been demanded and default made which notice shall date from the sending of a pre-paid registered letter to each person to be notified, addressed to them at the post office in such city. If the installments of principal and interest then due shall be paid before the expiration of said ninety (90) days together with the interest prescribed in such contract, not exceeding ten (10) per cent per annum, from the date of default until the date of payment, it shall have like effect as if paid on the date when same was originally due.

Income Not to be Used for Other Debts

Sec. 8. No part of the income of any such exposition and convention hall so encumbered shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expense, or obligation of such city until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid.

Art. 1182f. Validating Certain Tax Proceedings

Sec. 1. All elections, election orders, election proceedings, and city ordinances by which any city or town having a home rule charter has attempted to amend said charter so as to eliminate any requirement in said charter that any portion of the annual ad valorem tax levied in said city or town shall be provided for or set apart for the use of the Public Free Schools in said city or town, which election resulted in a majority of the votes cast being favorable to the amendment of said charter, shall be deemed and held valid in all respects and to the same extent as if each and all things done by said city or town in attempting to amend said charter had been done and performed in strict compliance with law, and each such charter amendment so adopted or attempted to be adopted are hereby fully validated, ratified, and confirmed, and are hereby declared to be in full force and effect as if adopted in strict compliance with all the requirements of the laws of the State of Texas and the charters of such cities and towns.

Sec. 2. Further provided that this Act shall only apply to cities and towns acting under a home rule charter and which charter sought to be amended provided that a portion of the annual ad valorem taxes levied shall be set apart for the use of the Public Free Schools; and further provided that this Act shall not apply to such cities and towns unless, prior to the voting of said amendment, the control of the Public Free Schools in such cities and towns had been separated from the jurisdiction of said cities and towns and said Public Free Schools were at the time of the holding of such election being operated under the control and jurisdiction of an independent school district.

Art. 1182g. Home Rule Cities of 900,000 or More; Investment of Trust Funds

Application of Act

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to all cities having a population of 900,000 or more, according to the preceding federal census, and whose home rule charter provides for an elected comptroller, auditor, or treasurer.

Authority to Make Investments of Trust Funds and Special Deposits; Amount

Sec. 2. Any such city, acting by and through the official or officials thereof charged with the duty of managing and conducting its fiscal affairs and subject to the supervision and control of its governing body, as established from time to time by ordinance, is hereby authorized from time to time to make investments of trust funds and special deposits in the custody of such city, to the extent of the amount of such funds that, according to official estimates, are not required for immediate disbursement, by purchasing with such funds or some of them obligations of the United States government, or by placing such funds or some of them on time deposit with one or more depository banks of such city.

Withdrawal of Funds

Sec. 3. If at any time any of the funds so placed on time deposit are required before maturity they shall be made available by the depository bank but the depository bank shall not be liable for interest earned on any amount withdrawn before maturity.

Interest

Sec. 4. Said city official is hereby authorized to receive all interest earned on such investments and to place the same in the general fund of such city as compensation to the city for holding and handling said trust funds and special deposits for the benefit of the persons ultimately entitled to receive such funds and deposits.

Cumulative Effect of Act

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Act are cumulative of all other powers of investment possessed by any such city, whether derived from its charter or from the general law; and nothing contained herein shall ever be held to have affected any limitation on any such city's powers of investment otherwise so derived.

Art. 1182h. Validation of Ordinances Authorizing Bond Elections and Issuance of Bonds, and of Bonds Issued

Where any city in the state which operates pursuant to a home-rule charter has heretofore passed by unanimous vote of the governing body ordinances authorizing the issuance of bonds, said ordinances are hereby in all things ratified, validated, and confirmed, including the purposes as stated in the voted propositions. All such bonds authorized by ordinances passed as emergency measures, including voted and authorized but undelivered bonds, are in all things ratified, validated, and confirmed.

Art. 1182i. Validation of Actions Taken During 1970 Pursuant to Designation of Territory as Disaster Area

All actions, proceedings, and ordinances taken by cities and towns during the year 1970 under the authority of Article 5890c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, and Article 1175, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, jointly or severally pursuant to and in implementation of a decision of the President of the United States and/or the Governor of the State of Art. 1182i. Cultural and Related Parking Facilities in Cities of 1,200,000 or More

Definition

Sec. 1. In this Act, “city” means a home-rule city having a population of at least 1,200,000 according to the last preceding federal census.

Cultural and Parking Facilities; Promotion

Sec. 2. (a) In addition to the authority provided by the provisions of any other law of this state, a city is hereby authorized to acquire sites for and establish, acquire, lease as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate, or maintain (any or all) cultural facilities, such as opera houses, ballet and symphony halls, theaters or similar buildings, or any building or buildings combining same, and to acquire sites for and establish, acquire, lease as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate, or maintain (any or all) parking facilities, including areas and structures, or any combination thereof, located at or in the immediate vicinity of such cultural facilities, to be used in connection with such cultural facilities and otherwise for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances.

(b) Further, a city is hereby authorized to expend funds derived from that portion of the mixed beverage tax revenues hereinafter authorized for (b) the advertising and promotion of events to take place in such cultural facilities and the attraction of events to such facilities either by such city or through contracts with persons or organizations selected by such city and (ii) the encouragement, promotion, improvement, and application of the cultural arts, including but not limited to opera, ballet, symphony, and theater, and the arts related to the presentation, performance, execution, and exhibition of these major art forms.

Issuance of Bonds; Pledge of Revenues

Sec. 3. (a) A city is hereby authorized to issue revenue bonds to provide all or part of the funds to provide the cultural facilities and parking facilities in order to accomplish the purposes of this Act as described in Subsection (a) of Section 2 hereof.

(b) Such revenue bonds may be issued when duly authorized by an ordinance passed by the governing body of a city and shall be secured by a pledge of and be payable from all or any designated part of the revenues of such cultural facilities or such parking facilities, as may be provided in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of such bonds.

To the extent that such revenues may have been pledged to the payment of revenue or refunding bonds which are still outstanding, the pledge securing the proposed bonds shall be inferior to such previous pledge or pledges. Within the discretion of the governing body of such city, and subject to any limitations contained in previous pledges, in addition to the pledge of revenues, a lien may be given on all or any part of the physical properties and facilities constructed or acquired out of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds.

(c) When any of the revenues of such cultural facilities or parking facilities are pledged to the payment of bonds issued under this Act, it shall be the duty of the governing body of the city to cause to be fixed, maintained, and enforced charges for services rendered by the facilities and properties, the revenues of which have been pledged, at rates and amounts at least sufficient to comply with and carry out the covenants and provisions contained in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of such bonds.

(d) If a city leases as lessee any one or more of such cultural facilities or parking facilities, such city shall have authority to pledge to the lease payments required to be made by such city all or any part of the revenues of such cultural facilities or parking facilities.

Pledge of Mixed Beverage Tax Receipts

Sec. 4. (a) By official action of its governing body a city is hereby authorized to pledge for the purposes provided herein a portion of that part of the receipts of the mixed beverage tax presently collected by the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission (the “commission”) pursuant to the Alcoholic Beverage Code (the “code”) which is remitted to such city pursuant to Section 205.08 of the code. The total amount of any such portion of such receipts so pledged shall not exceed the sum of 1½ percent of the gross receipts of each permittee, as defined in the code, located within the city from the sale, preparation, or service of mixed beverages, as defined in the code, or from the sale, preparation, or service of ice or nonalcoholic beverages that are sold, prepared, or served for the purpose of being mixed with alcoholic beverages and consumed on the premises of the permittee.

(b) All ordinances heretofore passed and adopted by the governing body of any city so pledging mixed beverage tax revenues which authorized the issuance of any bonds hereof issued that are secured in whole or in part by a pledge of any portion of the mixed beverage tax presently collected by the commission and reimbursed to the city are hereby in all respects validated and held to be enforceable as of their respective dates of passage and adoption.

(c) In the event that at the time of any remittance of mixed beverage tax revenues by the Comptroller. of Public Accounts of the State of Texas pursuant to Section 205.03 of the code the amount collected by the commission from permittees in a city having acted to pledge a portion of mixed beverage tax as provided in Subsection (a) of this section shall be less than the total amount required to be collected from such permittees by Chapter 202 of the code, then the amount to be pledged under this section shall be an amount equal to the total amount actually collected from permittees in such city multiplied by a fraction in which the numerator is the amount of the mixed beverage tax receipts authorized to be pledged pursuant to this section during the quarterly period for which such remittance is to be made and the denominator is the total of the amount of the receipts required to be collected from all permittees in such city pursuant to Chapter 202 of the code during such period.

Use of Revenues

Sec. 5. (a) The revenues derived from that portion of mixed beverage tax revenues authorized to be pledged by this Act shall be used for the purposes described in Subsection (a) of Section 2 of this Act, which shall include but not be limited to the pledge of such revenues to the payment of bonds which are issued for the purposes described in Subsection (a) of Section 2 of this Act.

(b) Any amounts received by a city from that portion of the mixed beverage tax revenues authorized to be pledged by this Act and pledged to the payment of bonds pursuant to Subsection (a) of this section which are in excess of the amounts required by the ordinance or ordinances under which such bonds are issued may be used for any other purpose described in Section 2 of this Act. Any amounts remaining after such application of funds may be determined by the governing body of a city to be excess funds and may be used by such city for any lawful purposes, provided that any such use does not violate the provisions of any ordinance passed by the governing body of such city in connection with the issuance of bonds for the payment of which such portion of the mixed beverage tax revenues are pledged.

Source of Funds for Payment of Bonds

Sec. 6. The owners and holders of any bonds issued pursuant to the Act shall never have the right to demand payment of either the principal of or interest on such bonds out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation, except for that portion of the mixed beverage tax revenue authorized herein if pledged.

Form of Bonds; Interim Certificates or Receipts; Approval and Registration of Bonds

Sec. 7. All bonds shall be signed by the manual or facsimile signatures of the mayor of the city and the city secretary or city clerk and shall bear the manual or facsimile seal of the city thereon. Such bonds may be payable at such times, may be in one or more series, may bear such date or dates, may mature at such time or times, may bear interest at any rate or rates permitted by the constitution and the laws of the State of Texas, may be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, may be subject to such terms or redemption at such premiums, may contain such terms, covenants, and conditions, and may be in such form, either coupon or registered, as the ordinance of the governing body of the city may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale in such manner and upon such terms as may be provided in such ordinance. Pending the preparation of definitive bonds, interim receipts or certificates in such form and with such provisions as may be provided in such ordinance may be issued to the purchaser or purchasers of bonds sold pursuant to this Act. All bonds issued hereunder and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination as to the validity thereof. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized in accordance with law, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the comptroller. After the approval and registration of such bonds by the comptroller, they shall be incontestable in any court or other forum for any reason and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes.

Ordinances

Sec. 8. In the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of any revenue or refunding bonds authorized hereunder, the city may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund or funds, reserve fund or funds, and other funds and may make additional covenants with respect to the bonds and the pledged revenues and the operation and maintenance of those facilities, the revenues of which are pledged, including provision for the operation or for the leasing of all or any part of such facilities and the use or pledge of money derived from such operation contracts and leases as it may deem appropriate. Such ordinance or ordinances may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payable from such revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued, subject to such conditions as are set forth in said ordinance or ordinances. Such ordinance or ordinances may contain other provisions and covenants, as the city may determine, not prohibited by the Constitution of Texas or by this Act, and the city may adopt and cause to be executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary or convenient in the issuance of any of such bonds.

Appropriation or Set Aside of Bond Proceeds

Sec. 9. From the proceeds of sale of any bonds issued under the provisions of the Act, the city may
Art. 1182j

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

appropriate or set aside an amount for the payment of interest and administrative and operating expenses expected to accrue during the period of construction, an amount or amounts to be deposited into the reserve fund or funds as may be provided in the bond ordinance or ordinances, as well as an amount necessary to pay all expenses incurred and to be incurred in the issuance, sale, and delivery of the bonds.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 10. Refunding bonds may be issued for the purposes and in the manner provided by general law, including without limitation Chapter 503, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, as amended (Article 717k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and Chapter 784, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969 (Article 717k-3, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as presently enacted or hereafter amended.

Bonds as Investment Securities and to Secure Deposits

Sec. 11. All bonds issued under this Act shall be investment securities under the terms of Section 8 of the Business & Commerce Code and shall be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies of every kind or type, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for such deposits to the extent of their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Construction With Other Laws

Sec. 12. This Act is cumulative of all existing laws of the State of Texas, but to the extent that such existing laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall govern and prevail; and this Act shall take precedence over any and all conflicting or inconsistent city charter provisions.

Severability

Sec. 13. If any provisions of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any other provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN. CITIES ON NAVIGABLE WATERS

Art. 1183. Extension of Limits.

Art. 1185. Status of Territory.

Art. 1187. Restrictions.

Art. 1187a. Construction of Bridges Over Navigable Waters.

Art. 1187a-2. Home Rule Cities Owning Portion of Bridge Over Rio Grande River Financed by Revenue Bonds; Additional Bonds for Acquisition, Construction, Repair and Improvement.

Art. 1187c. Municipal Fish Markets; Bonds Secured by Pledge of Properties.

Art. 1187d. Municipalities Authorized to Encumber Abatements.

Art. 1187e. Harbors, Ports and Navigational Facilities.

Art. 1187f. Harbor and Port Facilities; Cities and Towns Over 5,000 on Gulf or Connecting Waters; Bonds.

Art. 1187g. City of Port Arthur; Lake Sabine; Regulations.

Art. 1187h. Designation of Annexed Territory as an Industrial District.

Art. 1188. Extension of Limits.

The city council of all cities situated along or upon navigable streams in this State, and acting under special charters, may extend the limits of said city for the limited purposes named in the four succeeding articles, so as to include in said city the said navigable streams and the land lying on both sides thereof for a distance of twenty-five hundred feet from the thread of said stream to a distance of twenty miles or less in an air line from the ordinary boundaries of said city, each above or below the boundaries of said city, or both, by the passage of an ordinance extending the boundaries of said city to include the territory aforesaid, being a strip five thousand feet wide, and twenty miles, more or less, in length, or so much thereof as the city council may consider advisable to add to the limits of said city.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Saved from Repeal

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 447, ch. 160, enacting the Municipal Annexation Act (art. 970a) expressly provides in art. III of the Act that it shall not repeal or affect arts. 1183 to 1187 of the Revised Civil Statutes.

The city council of said city shall have the right, power and authority to secure land within the territory so added to said city by purchase, condemnation or gift, for the improvement of the navigation of said navigable streams or waters either by the United States or by said city, or by any navigation or other improvement district, and for the purpose of establishing and maintaining wharves, docks, railway terminals, side tracks, warehouses or any other facilities or aids whatsoever to either navigation or wharves. In all condemnation proceedings under this law the same procedure shall apply that now applies in condemnation of land by cities for the purpose of streets.

Art. 1185. Status of Territory

For the purposes specified, the corporate limits of said cities shall, upon passage of said ordinance, be extended from the existing limits so as to include all the land added to said city by said ordinance. Such city shall have no right to tax the property over which such boundaries are extended, unless such property is within the line and within the limits of the general city boundaries or limits.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1186. Regulation

After the passage of the ordinance adding said territory to said city, said city shall have and exercise the fullest and most complete power of regulation of navigation and of wharfage and of wharfage rates and of all facilities, conveniences and aids to wharfage or navigation consistent with the Constitution of this State, and shall further have authority by criminal ordinances or otherwise, to police the navigation of said waters and the use of said wharves and facilities and aids to wharfage and navigation.

Art. 1187. Restrictions

The power granted in the four preceding articles shall not authorize the extension of the territory of any city for the limited purposes named so as to include any land which is already part of any other city or town corporation whether incorporated under the general laws or under special law, or any land at the time belonging to any other city or town.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1187a. Construction of Bridges Over Navigable Waters

Powers Granted; Wharves, Piers, Etc.; Sale or Lease

Sec. 1. Any city in this State, whether organized and operating under general law or under special charter granted by the Legislature of the State of Texas or under charter adopted or amended under Section 5 of Article 11 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, which city is situated within the territorial limits of a navigation district organized under the general laws of the State of Texas and having a deep water port located within the limits of said city, may within such city purchase, construct, own, maintain and operate a bridge or bridges over or across any stream, inlet or arm of the Gulf of Mexico or entrance canal to said port connecting up any of the public streets, highways or other thoroughfares of said city and improve, enlarge or repair the same. Any such city may purchase, construct, own, maintain, operate or lease any wharf, pier, pavilion, and/or boat house and dams and dykes and spillways with roads and bridges thereon or thereover for the purpose of creating a fresh water supply for domestic, irrigation and other purposes within such navigation district, or within the county or counties adjacent to such fresh water basin and may acquire, reclaim, reconstruct, or fill in any submerged lands along its water front, may build and construct sea walls, breakwaters or other shore protection to protect its water front of said city, may provide for and construct water mains, gas mains, storm sewers, sanitary sewers, sidewalks, streets, or other like improvements in connection with such reconstructed or reclaimed properties and may operate, repair and otherwise maintain the same. And any such city reconstructing or reclaiming any such property may rent, lease or sell the same, or grant franchises for the use of any such reconstructed or reclaimed property and apply the income therefrom in accord with this Act, and may dredge out, construct, reconstruct, maintain and operate any channel in connection with any such deep water port in aid of navigation within said city and subject to the provisions of this Act.

Ordinances for Operation of Bridges

Sec. 2. Any such city may enact all necessary, appropriate and reasonable ordinances providing rules and regulations for the operation of any such bridge or bridges and concerning the manner in which traffic shall move over and across any such bridge or bridges not inconsistent with the General Laws of the State.

Construction of Act

Sec. 3. This Act shall be construed as cumulative authority for the purposes named herein, and as to the manner and form of issuance of any revenue bonds for any such purpose or purposes, and shall not be construed to repeal any existing laws with respect thereto, it being the purpose and intent of this Act to create an additional and alternate method for the purposes named herein.

Estimating Cost of Improvement

Sec. 4. Whenever the governing body of such city shall determine to acquire, construct, improve, enlarge, extend or repair any such bridge or bridges, and/or reclaim or reconstruct, improve, repair, or extend any such dams, dykes and spillways with roads and bridges thereon and thereover, sea walls, breakwaters, shore protection or water mains, gas mains, storm sewers, sanitary sewers, sidewalks, streets, wharves, piers, pavilions, or other like improvements in any such reconstructed or reclaimed area or territory, it shall first cause an estimate to be made of the cost thereof, and thereafter it shall then cause a notice to be published in such city in a newspaper of general circulation once each week for four (4) consecutive weeks stating in said notice the following:

(1) The contemplated improvement;
(2) The estimated cost thereof;
(3) The use or disposition of the reclaimed lands,
if any;
(4) The amount and location of lands to be reclaimed, if any;
(5) The time when the ordinance authorizing said improvements and the issuance of the bonds shall be passed or acted upon (which shall be not less than twenty days after the last publication of said notice); and
(6) Reference shall be made to the right of referendum, as provided for in the next succeeding paragraph.

If by the time set for action upon said ordinance, which shall be not less than twenty (20) days after the last publication of the notice provided for herein, as many as one hundred (100) of the qualified voters of such city whose names appear on the last approved tax rolls as property taxpayers, petition the city council or governing body of such city in writing to submit to a referendum vote the question as to the making of such improvements and the issuance of such bonds for such purposes, then such city, city council or governing body shall not be authorized to make said improvements or issue said bonds unless the proposition making such improvements and issuing such bonds for such purposes is sustained by a majority of the qualified voters attending and voting at the election held for the same purpose.

Sec. 5. For the purpose of acquiring, constructing, improving, enlarging, extending or repairing any such bridge or bridges, and/or for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, reclaiming, reconstructing, repairing or improving any such dams, dykes and spillways with roads and bridges thereon and thereover sea walls, breakwaters, shore protection, water mains, gas mains, storm sewers, sanitary sewers, sidewalks, streets and other like improvements in such reconstructed or reclaimed area or territory, anyone or all, any such city may borrow money and issue its negotiable bonds, provided that no such bonds shall be issued unless and until authorized by an ordinance which shall set forth a brief description of the contemplated improvement, the estimated cost thereof, the amount, the maximum rate of interest, time and place of payment and other details in connection with the issuance of such bonds. Such bonds shall bear interest at the rate of not more than six per centum (6%) per annum payable semianually or otherwise, and shall be payable at such times, not exceeding (45) years from their date, and at such place or places as shall be prescribed in the ordinance providing for their issuance. The bonds and coupons shall be executed in such manner and shall be substantially in the form provided in the authorizing ordinance. Such bonds shall be sold in such manner and upon such terms as the governing body shall decide for the best interest of the city. In no event shall any of the bonds be sold on a basis to yield more than six per centum (6%) per annum from the date of sale to the date of average maturity of the bonds sold, provided, however, that in any contract for the purchase or construction of any such project or projects as herebefore described, or for the improvement, enlargement, extension, reclamation, reconstruction or repair of the same, provision may be made that payment therefor may be made in such bonds. Such bonds and their coupons may be made payable in lawful money of the United States of America, or in gold coin of or equal to the standard of weight and fineness existing on the date thereof. Such bonds shall mature annually and the first installment thereof shall be made payable not less than two (2) years nor more than five (5) years from the date of such bonds. No such installment shall be more than two and one-half times as great in amount as the smallest prior installment at the same time, the bonds at any one time outstanding shall mature as aforesaid.

Bonds for Improvement

1 Articles 701 et seq. and 718 et seq.

The principal of and interest upon such bonds shall be payable solely from the income and reve-ues derived from the operation of the bridge or bridges, sea walls, breakwaters, shore protection, water mains, gas mains, storm sewers, sanitary sewers, sidewalks, streets and other like improvements including rentals or other charges received from any reclaimed or reconstructed area or territory for the acquisition, construction, improvement, reconstruction, reclamation, enlargement, extension, or repair of which the same are issued; provided, however, that where any such city acquires or constructs a bridge or bridges under authority of this Act, and in connection therewith acquires or constructs any sea wall, breakwaters or other shore protection and claims or reconstructs any submerged area or territory and constructs therein or thereon any water mains, gas mains, storm sewers, sanitary sewers, sidewalks, streets or other like improvements, any such city may, in additional security for the payment of any bonds issued for the acquisition or construction of any such bridge or bridges, pledge any income or revenues derived from any such projects, and additionally secure the payment of any such bonds with a mortgage on any such project or projects or reclaimed area as hereinafter provided. No bond or coupon issued pursuant to this Act shall constitute an indebtedness of such city within the meaning of any State constitutional or statutory limitation. No such obligation shall ever be reckoned in determining the power of such city to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law. It shall be plainly stated on the face of each such bond and coupon that the same have been issued under the provisions of this Act and that it does not constitute an indebtedness of such city within any State constitutional or statutory limitation, and that the holder of such bond shall never have the right to demand payment of such obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

Security for Payment of Bonds

Sec. 6. As security for the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds, such city may mortgage and encumber any part, parts or all of the properties and facilities for the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, reclamation, repair or improvement of the same such bonds were issued, and may provide in such mortgage or encumbrance for a grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder of a franchise to operate the properties and facilities so encumbered for a term of not over twenty (20) years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating same then in force. The ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds shall contain a substantial description of the franchise which is to appear in the mortgage.

Provision of Mortgage as to Foreclosure

Sec. 7. The mortgage or encumbrance shall provide for a trustee to enforce foreclosure and the city shall have the option at any five (5) year period within said twenty (20) years after purchase of properties designated in the franchise to repurchase said properties under reasonable terms and reasonable prices, to be set forth in said mortgage or encumbrance, but this limitation shall not extend to any reclaimed area acquired by individual purchasers.

Management of Encumbered Property

Sec. 8. The management and control of any such properties and/or facilities so encumbered, during the time they are so mortgaged and encumbered, shall be in the hands of the governing body of the city, except as otherwise provided in Section 29 of this Act. The provisions of this Section and Section 29 hereof shall not apply when there has been a sale on foreclosure under the mortgage in this Act provided for.
project or projects shall be charged against the city.

Validity of Signatures to Bonds

Sec. 14. In case any of the officers whose signatures or countersignatures appear on the bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officers before the delivery of such bonds, such signatures or countersignatures shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if they had remained in office until such delivery.

Payment for Services Rendered City

Sec. 15. The reasonable cost and value of any service rendered to any such city by any such project or projects shall be charged against the city and shall be paid for monthly or otherwise, as the service accrues, from the current funds, or from the proceeds of taxes which such city, within constitutional limitations, is hereby authorized and required to levy in an amount sufficient for the purpose, and such funds, when so paid, shall be accounted for in the same manner as other revenues of such project or projects.

Additional Bonds for Extension of Projects

Sec. 16. Any city acquiring, constructing, reconstructing, reclaiming, improving, enlarging or repairing any project or projects as aforesaid pursuant to the provisions of this Act, may, at the time of the authorization of such bonds for any such purpose or purposes, provide in the authorizing ordinance for additional bonds for extensions and permanent improvements, which additional bonds may be issued and be negotiated from time to time as such proceeds for such purpose may be necessary. Such bonds, when so negotiated, shall have equal standing with the bonds of the same issue.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 17. Where a city has outstanding any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, it may thereafter issue and negotiate new bonds on such terms as the governing body of such city shall deem advisable for the purpose of providing for the payment of any such outstanding bonds. Such new bonds shall be designated "refunding bonds", and shall be secured to the same extent and shall have the same source of payment as the bonds which have been thereby refunded.

Rates or Charges for Services

Sec. 18. Rates or other charges for services and facilities afforded by the project and for sales of reclaimed area shall be sufficient to provide for the payment of the interest upon and principal of all such bonds as and when the same become due and payable, to create a Bond and Interest Redemption Fund therefor, to provide for the payment of expenses of administration and operation and such expenses for maintenance of the project or projects necessary to preserve the same in good repair and working order, to build up a reserve for depreciation of the project or projects, and to build up a reserve for improvements, betterments and extensions thereto other than those necessary to maintain the same in good repair and working order, as herein provided. Such rates and/or charges shall be fixed and revised from time to time so as to produce these amounts, and the governing body shall covenant and agree in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds, and on the face of each bond at all times to maintain such rates and/or charges for services furnished by such project or projects as shall be sufficient to provide for the foregoing.

Cost of Operation as First Lien on Income

Sec. 19. The reasonable cost of administration and operation and the reasonable expense of maintaining such project or projects in good repair and working order shall be a first lien and charge against the income and revenues derived from the operation of such project or projects, superior to the lien of the mortgage or encumbrance on such project or projects.

Operation and Maintenance Account

Sec. 20. Out of the gross income and revenues of such project or projects there should be first set aside into an account to be known as the "Operation and Maintenance Account," monthly or oftener if necessary, sums sufficient to meet the cost and expenses set forth in Section 18 hereof. After provision for the "Operation and Maintenance Account" the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds shall make provision for a "Bond and Interest Redemption Fund" into which there shall be set aside monthly or oftener if necessary such portion of the gross income and revenues of such project or projects as shall be sufficient to pay when due the principal of and interest upon the bonds provided, however, that in the segregation and separation of such gross income and revenues the governing body of the city may prescribe a reasonable excess amount to be placed in said Bond and Interest Redemption Fund from time to time during the earlier years of maturities of such bonds so as thereby to produce and provide a reserve fund for contingencies to meet any possible deficiencies therein in maturities of future years.

Ordinance to Determine Fiscal Year

Sec. 21. The ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds shall definitely determine whether such project or projects shall be operated upon a calendar, operating or fiscal year basis and the dates of the beginning and ending of same.
Disposition of Surplus

Sec. 22. The governing body of such city may make adequate and suitable provision for the disposition of any surplus accumulations in the Operation and Maintenance Account, or Depreciation Account, by causing same to be transferred to the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund, invested, or otherwise disposed of.

Provision for Redemption of Bonds Before Maturity

Sec. 23. The governing body of the city authorizing the bonds under the provisions of this Act may make provision for any such bonds to be called for payment on any interest payment date before maturity provided that the city shall have on hand in its Bond and Interest Redemption Fund sufficient money not otherwise appropriated or pledged, in excess of the interest and principal requirements within the next two succeeding calendar, operating or fiscal years.

Construction as Not Prohibiting Use of Available Incomes and Revenues

Sec. 24. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit the city, county or the State from appropriating and using any part of its available income and revenues derived from any source, other than in case of the city, from the operation of such project or projects, in paying any immediate expenses of operation or maintenance of any such project or projects or otherwise aiding in financing any part of the construction of said bridge or bridges, or reclaiming any submerged area or territory herein described.

Projects Not Subject to Regulation by State Agencies

Sec. 25. Rates of the city charged for services and/or facilities furnished by any such project or projects shall not be subject to supervision or regulation by any State bureau, board, commission or other like agency or instrumentality thereof; provided however, that the functions, powers and duties of the State Board of Health shall remain unaffected by this Act.

Separate Books and Records to be Kept

Sec. 26. Any city issuing bonds under the provisions of this Act shall install and maintain proper books of record and account (separate entirely from other records and account of such city) in which full and correct entries shall be made of all dealings or transactions of or in relation to the properties, business and affairs of the project or projects and the same shall be open for examination and inspection by any taxpayer, user of the services furnished by the project or projects, or any holder of the bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, or any one acting for or on behalf of such taxpayer, user of the services of the project or projects, or bond-holder.

Construction as Not Authorizing Impairing Other Obligations

Sec. 27. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing any city to impair or commit a breach of the obligation of any valid lien or contract created or entered into by it, the intention hereof being to authorize the pledging, setting aside and segregation of income and revenues as aforesaid only where consistent with outstanding obligations of such city.

Borrowing From Federal Agencies

Sec. 28. Any such city mentioned in Section 1 of this Act, in addition to the powers conferred under this Act, is hereby granted and shall hereafter have the power to borrow money from the Federal Government or any of its agencies created for the purpose of making such loan, for the purpose of constructing and maintaining said bridge and the other improvements herein provided for and to mortgage and encumber said properties and facilities and the net revenues and income from the operation thereof and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired to secure the payment of the funds necessary to said construction and improvement and as additional security therefor by the terms of such encumbrance may pledge and encumber the net income and revenues from the operation of all of said properties and facilities and may provide in such encumbrance for a grant to the purchaser under a sale or foreclosure thereunder of a franchise to operate the property and facilities so encumbered for a term of not over twenty (20) years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating same then in force.

Permit From Navigation and Canal Commissioners

Sec. 29. Anything in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding, no such bridge shall be constructed, maintained or operated over any entrance channel into a deep water port under the provisions of this Act, the Navigation and Canal Commissioners of such District and all plans and specifications for said bridge shall be subject to the joint approval of the governing bodies of the city and district. Whenever any said toll bridge is constructed, maintained and operated over and across any entrance channel into a deep water port under the provisions of this Act, the Navigation and Canal Commissioners of the Navigation District governing said port shall have the power to prescribe reasonable rules and regulations for the operation of said bridge in aid of navigation and shall have and exercise direct control over the operation of the mechanical facilities of said bridge, providing for the clearance of the channel for the ingress and egress of vessels to said deep water port and to employ and direct all agencies in the management and operation of same, and said facilities shall be maintained and operated under the direct control and direction of said Navigation and Canal Commissioners; provided, that said Commissioners may ap appropriate and use any available revenues of said District in defraying part of the cost of operation and maintenance of any bridge or bridges constructed hereunder. No city shall have the power to construct, maintain or operate any such bridge over any such entrance channel to any such deep water port except in conformity with this section.

County Appropriation Authorized

Sec. 30. Any county in which any such city is situated is hereby authorized to appropriate to any such city for use in constructing any such bridge or bridges, or reclaiming or reconstructing any such submerged area or territory, or constructing seawall or breakwater protection for its waterfront, any available revenues of such county, and any such county is authorized to appropriate and apply any part of its available income and revenues to the operation and maintenance of any such project or projects.

Appropriations by State Highway Department

Sec. 31. The State Highway Department of the State of Texas, with the approval of the Governor may appropriate and apply any available revenues of such department to aid in the construction, operation and maintenance of any bridge or bridges acquired or constructed under the provisions of this Act, together with any approaches thereto, or the acquisition of any properties in connection with or in furtherance thereof.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 32. The invalidity of any section, sentence, clause, paragraph or portion of this Act shall not affect the validity of the remainder of this Act.

Art. 1187a-1. Bonds for International Bridge Across Rio Grande Validated; Additional Bonds for Repairs and Improvements

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any City operating under its Special Charter or Home Rule Charter, which has amended such Charter by a vote of the people so as to authorize the issuance of negotiable revenue bonds for the purpose of providing funds for paying the cost of the acquisition of the part of an International Bridge situated within the United States of America and extending from such City across the Rio Grande.

Sec. 2. All bonds authorized by the governing body of any such City for the purpose of acquiring the part of the International Bridge which is situated within the United States of America and which extends from such City across the Rio Grande, and which bonds are payable solely from the revenues derived from tolls charged for the use of such bridge are hereby validated, and when such bonds are approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, sold and delivered, they shall constitute valid, binding and negotiable obligations of such City payable only from the revenues pledged for their payment. The governing body of any such City within its discretion, is empowered to authorize and issue additional negotiable revenue bonds for the purpose of repairing and improving such bridge in an amount not exceeding ten per cent (10%) of the amount of the revenue bonds issued to acquire such property.

Art. 1187a-2. Home Rule Cities Owning Portion of Bridge Over Rio Grande River Financed by Revenue Bonds; Additional Bonds for Acquisition, Construction, Repair and Improvement

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any Home Rule City which owns the portion of an international toll bridge over the Rio Grande River which is situated within the United States of America and whose Home Rule Charter authorizes the City Council of any such city to issue bonds payable from the net revenues derived from the operation of such bridge for the purpose of providing funds to acquire such bridge and to construct, repair and improve such bridge, or for any of such purposes.

Sec. 2. Where any such city has bonds outstanding payable from the revenues of such bridge, additional bonds may be issued to the extent and under the conditions prescribed by the provisions of the outstanding bonds and the proceedings relating thereto, including the provisions of any trust indenture securing such outstanding bonds, and any such additional bonds may be secured by a pledge of and lien on the net revenues of the bridge on a parity with such outstanding bonds to the extent, in the manner, and under the conditions set out in the proceedings and the trust indenture authorizing and securing such previously issued and outstanding bonds.

Sec. 3. Any such city which, on or prior to the effective date of this Act, by ordinance duly passed by the governing body thereof and pursuant to published notice of intention as required by the charter to issue additional bonds for any one or more of the purposes specified in Section 1 hereof, or for capital improvements to such bridge, has authorized the issuance of any such additional bonds payable from the net revenues of such bridge and secured by a trust indenture or by a supplement to any previously executed indenture is authorized to issue, sell and deliver such additional bonds, and any such additional bonds when approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas and sold and delivered in accordance with law, shall be valid and binding special obligations of such city. All proceedings authorizing and relating to the issuance of such bonds, including the execution and delivery of a trust indenture or supplemental trust indenture securing such bonds, and any provisions contained therein which by expression or reference provide for the substitution of new bonds or coupons for any such bonds or coupons which may be lost, mutilated or stolen, provide for the issuance of refunding bonds, authorize the issuance of additional parity bonds, for the purpose of constructing another bridge, restrict the rights of minority bondholders, grant to the trustee a lien on the revenues and funds coming into its possession to secure the payment of fees and charges justly due such trustee and providing under certain conditions for the modification of such trust indenture or supplement thereto, be and they are hereby in all things ratified, confirmed and validated.

Art. 1187b. Revenue Bonds for Certain Purposes in Certain Cities Authorized

Purposes for Which Bonds May Be Issued

Sec. 1. Any city in this State, whether organized and operating under General Law or under Special Charter granted by the Legislature of the State of Texas, or under charter adopted or amended under Section 5 of Article 11 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, which city is situated within the territorial limits of a navigation district organized under the General Laws of the State of Texas, and having a deep water port located within the limits of said navigation district, is hereby authorized and empowered to issue its negotiable bonds, notes, or warrants, payable from revenues other than taxation, for either one or any or all of the following purposes, to-wit:

(a) The construction, maintenance, and operation of a toll bridge or toll bridges over and across, or a tube, underpass, or tunnel under any stream, inlet, or arm of the Gulf of Mexico, or entrance channel to such port connecting up any of the public streets and thoroughfares of, or in, and to said city;

(b) The construction, maintenance, and operation, and/or extension of a sewage disposal plant within or without the limits of said city;

(c) The construction, maintenance, and/or extension, or improvement of sanitary sewer lines and/or storm sewer lines within or without the limits of said city;

(d) The construction, maintenance, and/or extension or improvement of water mains or water lines from the source of water supply of said city to any part of said city or within said city as may be found necessary by the governing body thereof;

(e) The acquisition, reclamation, reconstruction, elevation, and filling in of any submerged or lowlands along the water front of said city, and the construction of sidewalks, streets, and gas lines within the territory or area so acquired and/or reclaimed;

(f) The construction, maintenance, and/or extension or improvement of seawalls, breakwaters or other shore protections to protect the water front of said city;

(g) The construction, reconstruction, maintenance, operation and dredging out of any channel or boat basin in connection with any deep water port;

(h) The construction, maintenance, replacement, and operation of a basin and boat slips, dry docks, boat service stations, walls, piers, wharfs, and structures in connection with such boat basin and slips.

Bonds as Charge on Revenues of Improvements

Sec. 2. No such bonds, notes or warrants shall ever evidence any debt or obligation of such city, but shall be solely a charge upon the revenues and/or properties and improvements pledged to secure their payment, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city to issue bonds, or otherwise lend its credit, for any purposes authorized by law.

Pledge of Revenues for Payment of Bonds, Notes or Warrants

Sec. 3. Any and all bonds, notes or warrants, as well as interest thereon, issued under authority of this Act, shall be redeemed or paid by an appropriation or pledge of all revenues derived from either one or all of the improvement projects herein authorized, and/or tolls collected from the operation of any existing bridge or bridges, if such tolls are so authorized, as hereinafter provided, and payment of such bonds, notes or warrants may be additionally secured by a mortgage on any such improvement project or projects, including any toll bridge or toll bridges and reclaimed lands; it being the intent hereof to authorize and to provide that all sources of income and revenue derived from any one or more of such improvement projects may be pledged and applied to the payment of the obligation or liabilities issued for the purpose of constructing and providing for another one or more of such improvement projects; provided, that said city may provide for the construction, maintenance and operation of all of the improvement projects enumerated in Section 1 of this Act, and improvements in connection therewith, by the issuance and sale of one series of bonds, notes or warrants in the discretion of the governing body thereof.

Election for Issuance

Sec. 4. Any and all bonds, notes or warrants authorized by this Act shall never be issued unless a proposition for the issuance of such bonds, notes or warrants, as the case may be, shall have been first submitted to the qualified voters who are property taxpayers of such city. The method of ordering and holding such election shall be governed by the laws of this State regulating elections for the issuance of city bonds under Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Statutes of 1925. If at such election a majority of the property taxing voters, voting at such elec-
Art. 1187b

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Sec. 6. Each bond, note or warrant issued under authority of this Act shall contain this clause:

"The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation." All bonds, notes or warrants issued hereunder shall be presented to the Attorney General for his approval as is provided for the approval of municipal bonds issued by cities or towns; and in event such bonds, notes or warrants are approved by the Attorney General, they shall be registered by the State Comptroller as in the case of municipal bonds.

Maturity and Denominations

Sec. 5. Such bonds, notes or warrants shall mature not later than thirty years from their date; they shall be issued in such denominations, and payable at such time or times as may be deemed most expedient by the governing body of such city, and shall bear interest not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum. The General Laws relative to city bonds, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, shall apply to the issuance, approval, certification and registration, and the sale of the bonds, notes or warrants provided for in this Act.

Contents of Bonds; Attorney General's Approval

Sec. 7. Any such city is hereby further expressly authorized to borrow money from the Government of the United States, from the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, and any and all other agencies of the Government of the United States, which now are or hereafter may be authorized to make loans to public corporate bodies and municipalities, or from any person, firm, or corporation, and which loans may be made on such terms and in such amounts as may be agreed upon between the Government of the United States or its lending agency, or such person, firm, or corporation, and the governing body of such city; and any and all such loans shall be evidenced by negotiable bonds, notes, or warrants issued under the provisions of this Act in cases where the project or projects are to be financed pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

Conversion of Existing Bridges Into Toll Bridges

Sec. 10. Whenever the governing body of any such city finds that it will not be necessary and/or practicable to construct any toll bridge or toll bridges under authority of Subdivision (a) of Section 1 of this Act, then in that event any existing bridge or bridges owned and/or operated by any such city over and across any such stream, inlet or arm of the Gulf of Mexico, or such entrance channel to such port, connecting up any of the public streets and thoroughfares of or in and to such city, may be by ordinance converted into a toll bridge or toll bridges, and the governing body of such city is hereby authorized to assess and collect such tolls for the use of any such bridge or bridges as within its judgment are reasonable and sufficient in amount, together with other income and revenues derived from the improvement projects, to pay the principal of and interest on all bonds, notes or warrants issued under the provisions of this Act as the same shall mature; provided, however, that all such tolls or charges so collected shall be placed in the interest and sinking fund account created for the purpose of paying the interest on and principal of all bonds, notes or warrants issued under the provisions of this Act, and such tolls or charges shall be applied to no other purpose; and, provided further, that the authority to assess and collect such bridge tolls and the irrevocable application of the same to the payment of bonds, notes or warrants issued under the provisions of this Act shall be authorized at the election to be ordered by the governing body of such city to determine whether or not any such bonds, notes or warrants shall be issued and sold.

Execution of Mortgages or Deeds of Trust
Sec. 11. Before such bonds, notes or warrants shall be put on the market, the Mayor and the person acting as City Treasurer or Finance Commissioner, pursuant to authority conferred by ordinance of the governing body, may execute a proper indenture, mortgage or deed of trust, making effective the mortgage lien on the properties pledged or mortgaged to secure payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds, notes or warrants, naming in such indenture, mortgage or deed of trust a bank or banking institution, with trust powers, and such indenture, mortgage or deed of trust shall be placed of record in the proper Deed of Trust and Mortgage Records of the county or counties in which any of such mortgaged properties may be situated, and may provide in such indenture, mortgage or deed of trust that the same shall be used or devoted to any purpose or purposes, save and except the purposes prescribed in Sections 12 and 13, hereof, so long as such notes, bonds or warrants shall be outstanding and unpaid; and the use or payment of such income and revenues, or any part thereof, for any other purpose shall be a diversion thereof and punishable as provided by Article 94 of the Penal Code of this State, Revision of 1925.1

Costs of Administration and Operation as Lien
Sec. 12. The reasonable costs of administration and operation and the reasonable expense of maintaining such project or projects in good repair and working order shall be a first lien and charge against the income and revenues derived from the operation of such project or projects, superior to the lien of the indenture, mortgage or deed of trust on such project or projects.

Operation and Maintenance Account; Sinking Funds
Sec. 13. Out of the gross income and revenues of such project or projects, there shall be first set aside into an account to be known as the “Operation and Maintenance Account” monthly, or oftener if necessary, sums sufficient to meet the costs and expense set forth in Section 12 hereof. After provision for the “Operation and Maintenance Account,” the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds, notes or warrants shall provide for a “Special Interest and Sinking Fund Account” into which there shall be set aside monthly, or oftener if necessary, such portion of the gross income and revenues of either one or all of such project or projects as shall be sufficient to pay when due the principal of and interest on the bonds, notes or warrants.

Revenues Applied to Payment of Bonds
Sec. 14. No part of the income and revenues of either one or all of such project or projects shall be used or devoted to any purpose or purposes, save and except the purposes prescribed in Sections 12 and 13, hereof, so long as such notes, bonds or warrants shall be outstanding and unpaid; and the use or payment of such income and revenues, or any part thereof, for any other purpose shall be a diversion thereof and punishable as provided by Article 94 of the Penal Code of this State, Revision of 1925.1

Permits for Bridges
Sec. 15. No such bridge shall be constructed, maintained or operated over any entrance channel to any port operated by any navigation district without a permit from the Navigation and Canal Commissioners of such District and all plans and specifications for said bridge shall be subject to the joint approval of the governing bodies of the city and district. Whenever any said toll bridge is constructed, maintained and operated over and across any entrance channel into a deep water port under the provisions of this Act, the Navigation and Canal Commissioners of the navigation district governing said port shall have the power to prescribe reasonable rules and regulations for the operation of said bridge in aid of navigation and shall have and exercise direct control over the operation of the mechanical facilities of said bridge, providing for the clearance of the channel for the ingress and egress of vessels to said deep water port and to employ and direct all agencies in the management and operation of same, and said facilities shall be maintained and operated at the expense of said city but under the direct control and direction of said navigation and canal commissioners. No city shall have the power to construct, maintain or operate any such toll bridge over any such entrance channel to any such deep water port except in conformity with this section.

Construction Against Repeal of Existing Law
Sec. 16. This Act shall not be construed to repeal any existing laws with respect thereto, it being the purpose and intent of this Act to create an additional and alternative method for the purposes named herein.

Bridge Defined; Toll Bridges
Sec. 16a. That wherever the word “bridge” or the word “bridges” appears in said Senate Bill No. 43, Chapter 17, passed at the Second Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature of the State of Texas, the same shall be construed to mean and include the words “tubes, underpass, or tunnel,” and said Act, in authorizing the construction, maintenance, and operation of a toll bridge or toll bridges over and across any stream, inlet, or arm of the Gulf of Mexico, or entrance channel to such port connecting up any of the public streets or thoroughfares of or in and to said city, the same shall likewise authorize the construction, maintenance, and operation of a tube, underpass, or tunnel under any stream, inlet, or arm of the Gulf of Mexico, and entrance channel to such port connecting up any of the public streets or thoroughfares of or in and to said city, and the authority contained in said Chapter 17, passed at the Second Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature of the State of Texas, shall in all things authorize the construction, maintenance, and operation of a tube, underpass, or tunnel, and empower such city to charge tolls sufficient to pay from such revenues all bonds, notes, or warrants issued for the purposes enumerated in said Act.

This article.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 17. If any section, sub-section, sentence, clause or phrase of this Act is held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this Act.

Art. 1187c. Municipal Fish Markets; Bonds Secured by Pledge of Properties

Powers Granted; Obligation Not a Debt

Sec. 1. That any City in this State with a population of over one thousand (1,000) people located on the Coast of Texas, or on any Gulf, Bay or Inlet, or within five (5) miles thereof, and in which commercial fishing and shrimping is an established industry, shall have the power to purchase and/or build a municipal fish market for the purpose of encouraging, developing and standardizing the fishing and shrimping industry, which among other services shall have sanitary facilities and equipment for cleaning, packing, shucking, canning and cold storage of shrimp, oysters and other sea food, and any such city shall have the right to borrow money, and subject to the restrictions prescribed in Section 2 hereof to borrow money and to accept grants, either or both, from the United States of America or any agency thereof, for the purpose of building, purchasing or acquiring a municipal fish market and the necessary real property to be used as a site therefor; that any such city shall have the power to procure the funds for such purpose by issuing bonds or revenue notes for such purpose, and to secure the payment of such revenue bonds or revenue notes by mortgaging the physical properties so acquired, or to be acquired, and pledging the net revenues received therefrom, and by the terms of the encumbrance may grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure a permit to operate the same subject to such laws as may then be in force regulating the operation of such industry, or may secure the revenue bonds or notes by pledge of revenues without a mortgage of the physical properties; such revenue bonds or revenue notes shall bear interest at a rate fixed by the governing body of such city not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum, and shall mature serially in such installments as may be fixed by said governing body within forty (40) years from their date, and at the option of the holder, may be registered as to principal only. Such obligations as may be incurred under the terms of this Act shall never be a debt of such city but solely a charge upon the property so encumbered and the revenues therefrom, and such obligation shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city to issue any bonds for purpose authorized by law.

Conditions Precedent to Loans or Grants From United States

Sec. 2. No such city shall have authority to accept a loan and grant, either or both, from the United States of America or any agencies thereof, for such purpose, except subject to the following conditions:

(a) The construction of the market must be approved by the Health Department of the State of Texas, as conducive to the health of the people of the State who consume food products from Texas Coast waters;

(b) The construction of the market must be approved by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, as feasible, and of economic importance to the fishing industry generally, in the entire district to be served by the market, as distinguished from the local or civic benefits to be derived therefrom by such city, and that the economic need for such project is not already adequately met by some other or similar institution accessible to the district to be served;

(c) Any such market shall be and shall remain subject to such rules and regulations as to health and sanitation as shall be prescribed by the State Health Department and by all agencies and departments of the United States of America having power to impose such rules and regulations.

Bonds and Notes Negotiable

Sec. 3. All revenue bonds and all revenue notes issued hereunder shall be considered and held to be negotiable under the Negotiable Instruments Law heretofore enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas.

Disposition of Revenues

Sec. 4. The expense of operating and maintaining any such market including all salaries, labor, materials and repairs necessary to permit such market to render efficient service shall always be a first lien and charge against the revenues received from its operation. All of the gross revenues from the operation of such market, after the payment of such maintenance and operating expenses shall be pledged and used exclusively to the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds or notes. Provided if in the judgment of the governing body of such city it is necessary to extend or enlarge such market, the city is authorized to make a junior pledge of the revenues of such market and of the extension to be constructed. In the event such subsequent pledge is made it shall be inferior in all respects to the pledge theretofore made, and the city may issue such junior revenue bonds or notes having interest rates, maturities and covenants as herein prescribed for the first issue of such bonds or notes. The city shall establish, deposit and secure the special funds to facilitate the payment of the principal and interest of all of such bonds and/or notes. It is the intent of this Act that all of the revenues from the operation of such market, after paying maintenance and operating expenses shall be used for debt service, and the surplus if any shall be used to buy in and cancel such revenue bonds or revenue notes before maturity or in the alternative shall be invested in such securities as shall be prescribed in the contracts under which money for such construction of such market may be furnished to the city.

Law Governing Notice, Referendum and Competitive Bidding

Sec. 5. Cities and town building municipal fish markets under the provisions of this Act shall be governed by the provisions of Article 2368-a Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, with reference to notice, right of referendum and competitive bidding.

Bonds Not Payable From Taxation

Sec. 6. Any and all revenue bonds and revenue notes issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall have stamped or printed thereon the following:

"The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

Refunding Bonds; Leases; Sale of Facilities

Sec. 7. Any city of the class described in Section 1 above, having outstanding municipal fish market revenue bonds may, by ordinance adopted by the governing body thereof, issue refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding all or any part of such outstanding bonds. Such refunding bonds shall be issued and the payment thereof secured in the same manner provided for the issuance of such original bonds, except that no election, notice or right of referendum shall be required. The governing body of such city shall be authorized to enter into lease contracts with persons, firms or corporations conveying all or any part of the facilities of such municipal fish market and properties appurtenant thereto for such period of time not exceeding twenty (20) years and upon such terms and conditions as such governing body shall deem proper; provided that authority to enter into such lease or sales contracts shall be subject to the prior covenants and agreements relating to any outstanding revenue bonds issued for the purpose of acquiring such municipal fish market.

Art. 1187d. Municipalities Authorized to Encumber Abattoirs

Cities to Which Act Applies

Sec. 1. All cities situated not more than one hundred (100) miles from the Gulf of Mexico, and not more than fifty (50) miles from any stream forming an international boundary, shall have power to mortgage and encumber their abattoirs and everything pertaining thereto acquired, or to be acquired, to secure the payment of funds to construct the same, or to build, improve, enlarge, extend, repair or construct any kind or character of permanent improvements, including buildings and other structures, and as additional security therefor, by the terms of such mortgage or encumbrance, may grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder a franchise to operate such abattoirs, and the improvements thereof, for a term of not over thirty (30) years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating the same then in force. No such obligation shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the properties so mortgaged or encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Pledge of Income

Sec. 2. All cities situated not more than one hundred (100) miles from the Gulf of Mexico, and not more than fifty (50) miles from any stream forming an international boundary, shall have power to pledge the income from their abattoirs and everything pertaining thereto acquired, or to be acquired, to secure the payment of funds to construct the same or to build, improve, enlarge, extend, repair or construct any kind or character of permanent improvements including buildings and other structures, and as additional security therefor, by the terms of such pledge may grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder a franchise to operate such abattoirs, and the improvements thereof for a term of not over thirty (30) years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating the same then in force. No such obligation shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the properties so mortgaged or encumbered; and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of any such city to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.
Art. 1187d

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Notes or Warrants Issued Without Referendum

Sec. 3. Such cities shall have the power to issue notes or warrants in any sum not to exceed the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), for such purposes without submitting such proposition to a vote of the qualified taxing voters. This law shall take precedence over all conflicting city charter provisions.

Repeals

Sec. 4. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby expressly repealed to the extent in conflict herewith.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 5. If any section, portion, clause, or part of this Act be invalid or unconstitutional, the same shall not affect any remaining parts of this Act and it is expressly hereby declared that the Legislature would have passed such remaining parts of this Act with such invalid or unconstitutional section, portion, clause or part omitted.

Art. 1187e. Harbors, Ports or Navigational Facilities

Cities on Gulf Coast; Authority to Issue Negotiable Revenue Bonds, Refunding Bonds or to Accept Loans or Grants

Sec. 1. (a) Any city located on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, or on any channel, canal, bay or inlet connected with the Gulf of Mexico shall have the right, power and authority to issue negotiable revenue bonds or accept loans or grants from the Federal, State or County Governments or any of their agencies, or from any other source or sources, to build, acquire, purchase, construct, enlarge, extend, repair, maintain, improve, replace, develop, regulate, operate, lease, mortgage and encumber their harbors, ports, or navigational facilities in connection therewith or any aids thereto, including but not limited to boathouses, boat piling, seawalls, breakwaters, shore protections, wharfs, docks, walks, piers, pavilions, ways, walls, lands, bulkheads, fills, canals, channels, slips, pools, waterways, turning basins, dry docks, service facilities, bridges, tubes, underpasses, tunnels, ferries, buildings, warehouses, structures, bunkering facilities, equipment, loading devices, floating plants, lightage, aids to navigation, improvements, towing facilities, and all other facilities or improvements or aids incident to or necessary or desirable in connection therewith, and as additional security therefor, by the terms of such mortgage or encumbrance, may grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder a franchise to operate such structures and facilities, and the improvements thereof, for a term of not over thirty (30) years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating the same then in force.

(b) Such city shall have the right, power and authority to issue negotiable revenue bonds for the purposes mentioned herein payable from such revenues as are pledged by the governing body of such city to the payment of such bonds, and the applicable provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended, shall be applicable to the issuance of such bonds, except as otherwise provided in this Act.

(c) Such city shall have the right, power and authority to issue refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding any outstanding bonds authorized by this Act and interest thereon. Such refunding bonds may be issued to refund more than one series of outstanding bonds and combine pledges for the outstanding bonds for the security of the refunding bonds, and may be secured by other or additional revenues. The provisions of this law with reference to the approval by the Attorney General of Texas and the remedies of the holders shall be applicable to refunding bonds. Refunding bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts upon surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof, the resolution authorizing the issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the bank where the original bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to pay the interest on the original bonds to their option date or maturity date, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register them without concurrent surrender and cancellation of the original bonds. No election shall be necessary for the refunding of any bonds provided for in this Act. Refunding bonds may be issued for the purpose of refunding the bonds of a single series or issue or two or more consecutive issues or series of bonds, and such refunding bonds shall enjoy the same priority of lien on the revenues pledged to their payment as pledged to the bonds refunded, provided that when two or more consecutive series or issues of bonds are refunded in a single issue of refunding bonds, the lien on all such refunding bonds shall be equal if all of the outstanding bonds of the several series or issues of bonds to be refunded are surrendered in exchange for such new refunding bonds. No refunding bonds shall attain any degree of priority of lien greater than that enjoyed by the series or issue then to be refunded having the highest priority of lien. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than borne by the bonds refunded, unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid and that the annual principal and interest burden will not be increased as to infringe upon or impair the rights of the holders of any bonds enjoying a prior or inferior lien.

1 Article 701 at seq.

Series Bonds; Pledge of Revenues; Rates for Charges; Payment of Interest and Expenses; Default in Payment of Principal or Interest

Sec. 2. (a) Bonds and refunding bonds provided for in this Act may be issued in more than one series and from time to time.
(b) To secure payment of principal and interest of the revenue bonds authorized by this Act, such city may pledge the gross or net revenues of: (1) any or all of the installations, improvements, projects, or properties which are built, purchased, constructed, enlarged, extended, repaired, improved, replaced, developed, or financed by the proceeds of bonds authorized by this Act, and (2) any or all of the existing facilities, installations, improvements, projects, or properties of such city existing prior to the issuance of such bonds under the provisions of this Act which may be pledged, and (3) any or all contracts theretofore or thereafter made by such city which may be pledged, and (4) any or all other revenues specified by the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds authorized by this Act which may be pledged. The ordinance or resolution authorizing the bonds and pledging revenue may reserve the right, under conditions therein specified, to issue additional bonds which will be on a parity with or subordinate to the bonds then being issued. The term "gross revenues," as used in this Section of the Act, shall mean the entire revenues of the installations, improvements, projects, or properties pledged. The term "net revenues," as used in this Section of the Act, shall mean the gross revenues of the installations, improvements, projects, properties, or facilities pledged by the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds after deducting the amount necessary to pay the cost of maintaining and operating such installations, improvements, projects, properties, or facilities. Any revenues from contracts which are pledged shall be the entire amount due such city under such contract unless specified in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the bonds. Such city shall have the right, power, and authority to transfer to the general fund of such city and use for general or special purposes, revenues pledged of the said installations, improvements, projects, properties, or facilities, by the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds but only in the amount and to the extent as may be authorized and permitted in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

c) When bonds payable from revenues are issued under this Act, it shall be the duty of the governing body of such city to fix, and from time to time to revise, the rates of compensation for charges, rates, rentals, tolls, leases, and services rendered by such city in connection with such installations, improvements, projects, properties, or facilities, and to pay the bonds as they mature and the interest as it accrues and to maintain the reserve and other funds as provided in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the bonds unless otherwise specially provided for in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the bonds. When bonds payable from revenues are issued under this Act, the face of the bonds shall contain this clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation." Such bonds authorized under this Act shall never be a debt of such city but solely a charge upon the property and facilities and contracts as authorized by the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(d) From the proceeds from the sale of the bonds payable from revenues, such city may set aside an amount for the payment of interest expected to accrue during construction and a reserve interest and sinking fund, and such provision may be made in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the bonds.

e) Proceeds from the sale of any bonds provided for in this Act may also be used for the payment of all expenses necessarily incurred in accomplishing the purposes for which the bonds are issued and in the issuance of the bonds, including but not limited to engineering fees, architectural fees, legal fees, fiscal agent fees, and the cost of printing, issuing and delivering the bonds.

(f) In the event of a default or a threatened default in the payment of principal or interest on bonds payable from revenues, any court of competent jurisdiction may, upon petition of the holders of twenty-five percent (25%) of the outstanding bonds of the issue thus in default or threatened with default, appoint a receiver with authority to collect and receive all income of the installations, improvements, projects, properties, facilities, or contracts of which the revenues were pledged, employ and discharge agents and employees, take charge of funds on hand, and manage the proprietary affairs of such installations, improvements, projects, properties, facilities, or contracts of which the revenues were pledged without consent or hindrance by the governing body of the city. Such receiver may also be authorized to rent or lease the installations, improvements, projects, properties, or facilities of which the revenues were pledged, renew such contracts with the approval of the court appointing him. The court may vest the receiver with such other powers and duties as the court may find necessary for the protection of the holders of the bonds.

Election Authorizing Bond Issue; Notice

Sec. 3. No bonds authorized by this Act, except refunding bonds, shall be issued unless authorized by an election at which only the qualified voters who reside in such city and who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the same for taxation and unless a majority of the votes cast is in favor of the issuance of the bonds. Such election shall be held and notice thereof given as is provided in the case of the issuance of municipal bonds by such city.

Examination of Bonds and Record by Attorney General; Approval; Registration; Incontestability

Sec. 4. After any bonds, including refunding bonds, are authorized under the provisions of this
Art. 1187e

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Act, such bonds and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for his examination as to validity thereof. If such bonds have been authorized in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas, and subject to the limitation of Section 6(b) of this Act, he shall approve the bonds or refunding bonds and the bonds or refunding bonds then shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts. Thereafter, the bonds or refunding bonds shall be legal, valid and binding and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Legal and Authorized Investments

Sec. 5. All such bonds and refunding bonds of such city shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Authority of Cities to Issue Bonds Payable from Taxes; Applicability of Act; Location of Installations

Sec. 6. (a) No such city nor any other city in the State of Texas shall have any right, power or authority to issue any bonds payable from taxes under the provisions of this Act.

(b) The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city of the State of Texas having a population of twelve thousand (12,000) or more according to the last preceding United States census, and the Attorney General of Texas shall have no authority or duty to approve any bonds under the provisions of this Act for cities having a population of twelve thousand (12,000) or more according to the last preceding United States census.

(c) The installations, improvements, projects, properties, or facilities which are authorized by this Act to be built, acquired, purchased, constructed, enlarged, extended, repaired, maintained, improved, replaced, developed, or financed under the provisions of this Act shall be within the corporate limits of such city.

Exemption from Taxation of Installations and Bonds

Sec. 7. The accomplishment of the purposes stated in this Act being for the benefit of the people of such city and of this state and for the improvement of their properties and industries, such city in carrying out the purposes of this Act will be performing an essential public function under the Constitution and shall not be required to pay any tax or assessment on such installations, improvements, projects, properties, or facilities, or any part thereof, and the bonds or refunding bonds issued hereunder and their transfer and the income therefrom, including the profits made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation within this state.

Cumulative Effect of Act

Sec. 8. This law is cumulative of all existing laws of the State of Texas that are applicable but to the extent that the provisions of any such laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail.

Severability

Sec. 9. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

any and all equipment and supplies, and all other structures, buildings, and facilities necessary or convenient for the proper operation of the ports or harbors of such city. The improvements and facilities mentioned in Section 1 hereof, the governing body of the city shall have the power and authority to issue from time to time bonds or other obligations payable from taxes or revenues or both; provided, however, that no bonds or other obligations payable from ad valorem taxes, except for refunding, shall be issued unless and until they have been authorized at an election at which a majority of the persons qualified to vote and voting at said election have voted in favor thereof, said election to be called and held under the provisions of and in accordance with Chapter 1 of Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as the same is now or may hereafter be amended.\(^1\) Notwithstanding the provisions or restrictions of any general or special law or charter to the contrary, no election shall be required to authorize the issuance under this Act of bonds or other obligations payable solely from revenues if such bonds or other obligations do not constitute a debt of the city or a pledge of its faith and credit and if the owner or holder of any such bond or other obligation shall never have the right to demand payment out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

\(^1\) Article 701 et seq.

Outstanding Bonds or Obligations: Management and Control of Improvements and Facilities; Board of Trustees

Sec. 3. (a) While any revenue bonds or other obligations issued under the provisions of this Act or any interest thereon remain outstanding and unpaid, the management and control of such improvements and facilities (and the physical properties comprising the same) and of the income and revenue from them, including the authority to fix charges, prepare budgets, and authorize expenditures, by the terms of the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds or other obligations may be placed in the hands of a board of trustees to be named in such ordinance, consisting of not more than seven (7) members, one (1) of whom shall be a member of the governing body of such city; provided, if the city is operating under a Home Rule Charter and said Charter contains provisions requiring that the improvements and facilities be managed or controlled by a board of trustees, then the provisions of such Charter shall be followed. The compensation of the members of the board of trustees, the terms of office of such members, their powers and duties, the manner of exercising the same, the election or appointment of their successors, and all matters pertaining to their organization and duties shall be specified in said ordinance; provided, if the city is operating under a Home Rule Charter as mentioned above and the Charter contains provisions relating to any of the foregoing matters mentioned in this sentence, it is expressly provided that the provisions of such ordinance relating to such matters shall be in accordance with and governed by the Charter provisions. In all matters where such ordinance or Charter are silent, the laws and rules governing the governing body of the city shall govern said board of trustees so far as applicable.

(b) If the management and control of the improvements and facilities is placed in the hands of a board of trustees by ordinance or Charter under Subsection (a) of this section, the board of trustees constitutes a body politic and corporate for the purpose of issuing bonds or other obligations and shall have and exercise, in addition to the powers enumerated in the ordinance or Charter, the following powers and authority:

1. to exercise full management, control, maintenance, and operation of the improvements and facilities constituting the ports and harbors of the city;
2. to employ a general manager and other officers, employees, and representatives as the board may consider appropriate and to fix their duties and compensation;
3. to prepare and adopt budgets, fix charges for services and facilities, authorize expenditures, and manage and control the income and revenue of the city's ports and harbors;
4. to determine policies and establish rules and procedures for the operation of the ports and harbors of the city;
5. to acquire property and interest in property for the purposes set forth in Section 1 of this Act in the manner provided by this Act and to construct improvements and facilities on the property;
6. to contract in its own name, but not in the name of the city. Except as otherwise provided by this Act, all such contracts involving the expenditure of more than $5,000 shall be awarded only pursuant to competitive bids. However, competitive bids are not required for contracts for personal or professional services, real estate transactions, operation of port facilities or improvements under specific agreements for a limited term, or insurance, or if the board of trustees determines that the time delay posed by the competitive bidding process...
would prevent or substantially impair the conduct of port operations;
(7) to issue in the name of the board, with the consent of the governing body of the city, revenue bonds or other obligations payable from revenues in the manner set out in this Act for the purpose of providing funds for any of the improvements and facilities provided by Section 1 of this Act or to refund any previously issued bonds or other obligations;
(8) to issue in the name of the board, with the consent of the governing body of the city, current expense warrants drawn against all or any part of the current revenues of the board to pay current expenses during the current fiscal year of the board or any part of the current fiscal year. However, in no event shall the aggregate amount of the warrants that are outstanding at any time during any fiscal year exceed 50 percent of the revenues budgeted for that fiscal year after subtracting from the budgeted revenues all principal and interest on bonds or other obligations other than current expense warrants to be paid from the revenues during the fiscal year;
(9) to evidence contractual obligations to pay money by issuing in the name of the board, with the consent of the governing body of the city, certificates of participation in the contractual obligations;
(10) to sue and be sued in its own name;
(11) to adopt, use, and alter a corporate seal; and
(12) to establish a port security force and to commission one or more employees of the force as peace officers if they are certified as qualified to be peace officers by the Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education, which peace officers commissioned under this Act are vested with all the rights, privileges, obligations, and duties of any other peace officer in this state while they are on the property under the control of the board of trustees, or in the actual course and scope of their employment.

Payment; Security; Collection of Fees and Charges; Sale of Bonds, Improvements and Facilities
Sec. 4. (a) Revenue bonds and other obligations issued under this Act and payable from revenues may be paid from and secured solely by a pledge of the net revenues derived or to be derived from the operation of all or any designated part or parts of the improvements and facilities then in existence or to be improved, constructed, or otherwise acquired, with the duty of the issuer to charge and collect fees, tolls, and charges, so long as such bonds or other obligations or interest thereon are outstanding and unpaid, sufficient to pay all maintenance and operation expenses of the improvements and facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged), the interest on such bonds or other obligations as it accrues, the principal of such bonds or other obligations as it matures, and to make any and all other payments as may be prescribed in the bond ordinance or resolution and other proceedings authorizing and relating to the issuance of such bonds or other obligations. “Net revenues” as used herein shall mean the gross revenues derived from the operation of those improvements and facilities the net revenues of which are pledged to the payment of the bonds or other obligations less (a) the reasonable expenses of maintaining and operating said improvements and facilities, and said maintenance and operation expenses shall include, among other things, necessary repair, upkeep, and insurance of said improvements and facilities, and (b) if the city is operating under a Home Rule Charter, any annual payment of the city as may be set out in said Charter. Revenue bonds and other obligations payable from revenues issued hereunder may be sold at public or private sale, notwithstanding the provisions or restrictions of any general or special law or Charter to the contrary.

(b) Revenue bonds or other obligations payable from revenues may be issued secured solely by a pledge of all or any part of the revenues from any leases, subleases, sales or contracts of sale entered into by the city or the board with respect to the improvements and facilities to be financed with such bonds or other obligations or may be additionally secured by a trust indenture and by a mortgage or deed of trust lien or security interest upon such improvements and facilities. In connection with the issuance of such revenue bonds or other obligations payable from revenues, the city or the board may lease as lessee, sublease as sublessee or sell to any person, firm, corporation, partnership, political subdivision of the State of Texas, or agency of the United States of America, all or any part of any improvements and facilities to be constructed or acquired with the proceeds of such bonds or other obligations, said lease, sublease, sale or contract of sale to contain such terms and provisions (including in the case of a lease, but not by way of limitation, provisions to sell the improvements and facilities at the termination of said lease and provisions relating to management and operation of the improvements and facilities by the lessee thereof) as the city or the board may determine to be advantageous. The terms of said lease or contract of sale may provide that the lessee or purchaser of the improvements and facilities is contractually unconditionally obligated to make payments for use or purchase of the facilities or improvements in amounts adequate to timely pay principal, interest, and premium on the revenue bonds or other obligations issued to finance the construction or acquisition of said facilities and improvements.

Interest, Sinking and Reserve Funds; Additional Bonds or Obligations; Surplus Revenues
Sec. 5. The ordinance of the governing body or the resolution of the board authorizing the issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from revenues may provide for the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund, reserve fund or funds, and any other funds provided for therein, and may provide where such funds shall be deposited, and may make such additional covenants with respect to the bonds or obligations and the pledged revenues and the operation, maintenance, and upkeep of those improvements and facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged), including provision for the leasing of all or any part or parts of said improvements and facilities and the use or pledge of moneys derived from leases thereof, as may be considered appropriate. Said ordinance or resolution or other proceedings may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues, or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds or obligations payable from said net revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds or obligations being issued, subject to such conditions as are set forth in said ordinance or resolution or other proceedings. Said ordinance or resolution and other proceedings may provide for an annual payment to the general fund of the city of such an amount as may be specified in said ordinance, resolution, or other proceedings or as may be specified in the Home Rule Charter of the city if it is operating under such a Charter, said annual payment to be made from revenues received from the operation of the improvements and facilities the net revenues of which are pledged. Said ordinance or resolution and other proceedings may also provide that surplus net revenues received from the operation of the improvements and facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged) may be used for the payment of interest on and principal of any tax bonds or obligations issued by the city under this Act. Such ordinance or resolution and other proceedings may contain such other provisions and covenants not prohibited by the Constitution of the State of Texas or by this Act (provided, however, that if the city is operating under a Home Rule Charter and said Charter contains provisions relating to the improvements and facilities, such ordinance or resolution and other proceedings shall be in keeping with such Charter provisions if such Charter provisions are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act).

Ordinances and Resolutions Authorizing Obligation; Form of Obligation; Maturity; Interest; Examination and Approval; Registration

Sec. 6. (a) Obligations payable from taxes and issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be authorized by ordinance of the governing body of the city, shall be issued in the name of the city, shall be signed by the mayor (or presiding officer) of the city and countersigned by the city secretary (or city clerk), and shall have the seal of the city impressed thereon; provided, that the ordinance or resolution to be signed by the facsimile signatures of said officers, either or both, and for the seal of the city on the obligations to be a printed facsimile seal; and provided further that any interest coupons attached to said obligations may also be executed by the facsimile signatures of said officers. Said obligations shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years from their date or dates, and shall be sold at public or private sale at a price and under terms determined by the governing body to be the most advantageous and reasonably obtainable, provided that the obligations shall bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding the maximum permitted by law, and within the discretion of the governing body such obligations may be callable prior to maturity at such time or times and at such price or prices as may be prescribed in the ordinance authorizing the obligations. Such obligations may be made registrable as to principal, or as to both principal and interest.

(b) Obligations that are payable from revenues and that are issued pursuant to this Act shall be authorized by ordinance of the governing body of the city, issued in the name of the city, and signed, countersigned, and sold and bear interest as provided by Subsection (a) of this section or, if management and control have been placed in the hands of a board of trustees pursuant to this Act, the obligations may be authorized by resolution of the board of trustees. If the obligations are authorized by resolution of the board of trustees, they shall be issued in the name of the board of trustees, shall be signed by the chairman (or presiding officer) of the board of trustees and countersigned by the secretary or assistant secretary, and shall have the seal of the board of trustees impressed on them. The resolution may provide for facsimile signatures and seals on the obligations and on any interest coupons attached to the obligations. The obligations shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years from their date or dates, and shall be sold at public or private sale at a price and under terms determined by the board of trustees to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable. The obligations shall bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding the maximum permitted by law, and may be made callable prior to maturity at such times and prices as may be prescribed in the resolution. The obligations may be made registrable as to principal, or as to both principal and interest.

(c) All obligations authorized under this Act (other than current expense warrants) and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination as to the validity thereof, and if such obligations have been authorized in accordance with this Act, the said Attorney General shall approve the same. After such approval, such obligations shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. When such obligations have been approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and delivered to the purchasers, they shall thereafter be incontestable except for forgery or fraud. When any revenue obligations recite that they are secured partially or otherwise by a pledge of the proceeds of a contract or contracts (including lease contracts, a copy of such contract or contracts and of the proceedings authorizing the same shall be submitted to the Attorney General along with the record, and the approval by the Attorney General of the obligations shall constitute an approval of such contract or contracts, and thereafter the contract or contracts shall be incontestable except for forgery or fraud.

Proceeds of Sale

Sec. 7. From the proceeds of sale of any obligations issued under the provisions of this Act, there may be appropriated or set aside out of such proceeds (i) an amount for the payment of interest expected to accrue during the period of construction, (ii) an amount necessary to pay all expenses incurred and to be incurred in the issuance, sale, and delivery of the obligations, and, (iii) such amount or amounts as may be prescribed by the ordinance or resolution authorizing their issuance to be deposited into the reserve fund or funds. and into any other funds specified in the ordinance or resolution.

Refunding Obligations

Sec. 8. (a) The governing body of the city shall have the power and authority to issue tax obligations for the purpose of refunding any outstanding tax obligations (original or refunding) issued by the city under the provisions of this Act under the procedures set out in this Act or in any other manner authorized by law.

(b) The governing body of the city or the board of trustees shall have the power and authority to issue obligations payable from revenues for the purpose of refunding any outstanding obligations payable from revenues (original or refunding) issued under the provisions of this Act, or hereafter issued for any of the purposes covered by Section 1 of this Act or payable from the revenues of any of the improvements and facilities covered by said Section 1, under the procedures set out in this Act or in any other manner authorized by law. Revenue refunding obligations may be combined with new or original revenue obligations into one series or issue. Such revenue refunding obligations may be issued to refund obligations of more than one series or issue and combine pledges for the outstanding obligations for the security of the refunding obligations, and may be secured by pledges of other net revenues and additional net revenues; provided, that such refunding will not impair the contract rights of the holders of any of the outstanding revenue obligations which are not to be refunded. Revenue refunding obligations may bear interest at a rate higher than that borne by the obligations refunded; provided, that such interest rate shall not exceed the rate specified in this Act.

(c) Refunding obligations shall be authorized and shall be executed and mature as is provided in this Act for original obligations. They shall be approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas as in the case of original obligations, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas upon surrender and cancellation of the obligations to be refunded; but in lieu thereof, the ordinance or resolution authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold at public or private sale and the proceeds thereof deposited in any place or places where any of the underlying obligations are payable, or with the State Treasurer, in which case the refunding obligations may be issued in an amount sufficient, not only to pay the principal of the underlying obligations, but also to pay the interest on the underlying obligations to their option or maturity dates, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying obligations. In those situations where the proceeds of revenue refunding obligations are deposited in a place or places where the underlying obligations are payable, or with the State Treasurer, they shall be delivered under an escrow agreement so that such proceeds and interest earned from the investment of such proceeds as hereinafter provided, will be available for the payment of the interest on and principal of said underlying obligations as such interest and principal respectively become due; and such escrow agreement may provide that such proceeds may, until such time as the same are needed to pay interest and principal as the same become due, be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America, in which instances the interest earned on such investments may be pledged to the payment of the principal of and interest on the underlying obligations, the refunding obligations or shall be considered as revenues of the improvements and facilities.

(d) When any refunding obligations have been approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall thereafter be incontestable except for forgery or fraud.

(e) All the provisions of this Act relating to original obligations, insofar as the same may be made applicable, shall also apply to refunding obligations issued hereunder.

Applicability of Statutes; Mortgage of Properties

Sec. 9. Insofar as the same may be applicable, the provisions of Article 1111 to 1118, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, together with all amendments thereof and additions thereto, shall apply to revenue obligations issued under the provisions of this Act, and any city covered by this Act shall have, with respect to revenue obligations issued hereunder, all the powers granted by said Statutes. However, where the provisions of said Statutes are in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall govern and prevail. Further, it is expressly provided that the city shall have no power or authority to mortgage or encumber the physical properties of the improvements and facilities being financed in whole or in part by obligations payable from ad valorem taxes, unless authorized at the election required by Section 2 of this Act.

Legal and Authorized Investments

Sec. 10. All obligations issued under the provisions of this Act shall be, and are hereby declared to be, investment securities under Chapter 8 of the Business & Commerce Code and shall be, and are hereby declared to be, legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such obligations shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value when accompanied by the governing body of the city approves such issue or such sale by ordinance.

Issuance; Approval

Sec. 11. Notwithstanding any provision of this Act to the contrary, a board of trustees created under this Act shall have no power to issue bonds or other obligations or to sell any real property unless the governing body of the city approves such issue or such sale by ordinance.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 11A. This Act is cumulative of all existing laws of the State of Texas that are applicable, but when any action is taken under the provisions of this Act, to the extent that such existing laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall govern and prevail.

Validation of Bonds and Proceedings

Sec. 12. Any revenue bonds heretofore issued by a city which are payable from the revenues of any of the improvements and facilities covered by Section 1 hereof, and all the proceedings relating to such bonds, are hereby in all things validated. It is provided, however, that the validation provisions of this Section 12 shall have no application to litigation pending upon the effective date hereof questioning the validity of the matters hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the same.

Art. 1187-1

Sections 5 and 6 of the 1979 amendatory act provided:

"Sec. 5. The provisions of Sections 90.038, 61.116, and 61.117 of the Water Code, relating to the disposition of lands or flats heretofore purchased from the State of Texas under Article 8225, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, or granted by the State of Texas in any general or special act, shall continue to be applicable to the disposition of such lands or flats by any city acting under the authority of Chapter 341, Acts of the 67th Legislature, Regular Session, 1961, as amended (Article 1187f, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

"Sec. 6. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance, shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein."

Art. 1187g. City of Port Arthur; Lake Sabine; Regulations

Sec. 1. The governing body of the City of Port Arthur, with respect to the waters of Lake Sabine within the corporate limits of the city, may designate or otherwise regulate by ordinance certain areas of said lake as bathing, fishing, swimming, recreational, or otherwise restricted areas and may make rules and regulations relating to same.

Sec. 2. Notwithstanding any law or regulation of any state agency permitting the taking of crabs or other sea or water life by the use of traps, the governing body of the City of Port Arthur, with respect to the waters of Lake Sabine within the corporate limits of the city, may designate or otherwise regulate by ordinance the location and placement of traps within said lake.

Sec. 4. The governing body of the City of Port Arthur may, by ordinance, regulate, notwithstanding any other state law or regulation, the speed of boats within and upon Lake Sabine within corporate limits of the city.

Sec. 5. In the event any one or more of the sections or provisions of this Act, or the application of such sections or provisions to any situation, circumstances, or persons, shall for any reason be held to be unconstitutional, such unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections or provisions of this Act, or the application of such sections or provisions to any situation, circumstances, or persons, and it is intended that this Act shall be construed as if such sections or provisions had not been included herein for any constitutional application.

The governing body of any incorporated city which has heretofore annexed or which shall hereafter annex territory under authority of and for the limited purposes described in Articles 1183 through
Art. 1187-1  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

1187 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, shall have the right, power, and authority to designate all or any part of such area so annexed and remaining in such limited purpose annexation status as an industrial district, as the term is customarily used, and to treat with such area from time to time as such governing body may deem to be in the best interest of the city. Included in such rights and powers of the governing body of any such city is the permissive right and power to enter into contracts or agreements with the owner or owners of land in such industrial district to guarantee the continuation of the limited purpose annexation status of such district, and its immunity from general purpose annexation by the city for a period of time not to exceed ten years, and upon such other terms and conditions as the parties might deem appropriate. Such contract or agreement shall be evidenced in writing and may be renewed or extended for successive periods not to exceed ten years each by such governing body and the owner or owners of land in such industrial district.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN. CONSOLIDATION OF CITIES

Art. 1188. Authority.

1188(a). Consolidation of Cities, Towns or Villages Under 5000 With Cities Over 5000.

1189. Petition; Elections; Contests; Time Limitations.

1190. Election.

1191. "Consolidation."

1191a. Qualified Electors.

1192. Registration.

1193. Merger.

1193a. Validating Extension of Corporate Limits of Certain Cities.

1193b. Validating Extension of Limits of Certain Cities.

Art. 1188. Authority

When two (2) or more incorporated towns or cities in this State adjoining and contiguous to each other in the same county shall be desirous of being consolidated, it shall be lawful for them to do so by calling and holding an election for such purpose so as to consolidate under one government and take the name of the largest city, unless provided otherwise at the time of such consolidation, in the manner and subject to the provisions of Chapter 15, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925.

Art. 1188(a). Consolidation of Cities, Towns or Villages Under 5000 With Cities Over 5000.

Upon complying with the provisions hereinafter prescribed in this Chapter, any city, town or village of less than five thousand (5,000) population according to the last preceding Federal Census may be consolidated under one government with an adjoining and contiguous city having a population of more than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, when both of such municipalities are situated in the same county having a population of more than three hundred thousand (300,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census.

This section is hereby declared retroactive to the following extent: All petitions purporting to be signed by qualified voters and presented to the governing body and all ordinances, resolutions, notices, declarations or other acts by the governing body of any city, town or village coming within the applicable provisions of this section, purporting to be in compliance with the statutory provisions contained in Chapter 15 of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925; and any notice, declaration, certificate or other act required to be done or purporting to have been done by any Mayor, Councilman, Commissioner, Alderman, City Secretary or City Clerk in compliance with the statutory requisites of Chapter 15 of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, shall have the same legal effect as if there had then existed a law authorizing each act to have been done and authorizing cities, towns and villages of less than five thousand (5,000) population to consolidate. Any election held prior to the enactment of this Act submitting the question of consolidation to the qualified voters of cities or towns authorized to consolidate by this Act, shall in all things be deemed a legal and valid election as if this law had been in existence on the date of such election; provided the requirements of law applicable to consolidation of cities and towns have otherwise been complied with.

Art. 1189. Petition; Elections; Contests; Time Limitations

(a) Whenever as many as one hundred (100) qualified voters of each of said cities shall petition the governing body of their respective cities to order an election for the purpose of voting on the consolidation of such cities into one city, said bodies may order an election to be held at the usual voting places in the city on such proposition. If any such petition be signed, however, by qualified voters equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the total vote cast at the last preceding general election for city officials in any of said cities, next preceding the filing of said petitions, the respective governing bodies receiving such a petition shall order an election to be held on such proposition, except as hereinafter provided.

(b) The election on consolidation shall first be held in the city having the smallest population according to the last preceding Federal Census. When a petition for consolidation has been presented to the governing body of the city having the smallest population, such governing body may, on a petition signed by one hundred (100) qualified voters, order an election for such purpose within forty-five (45) days after the filing thereof. Upon the presentation of a petition in the city having the smallest population signed by qualified voters equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the total vote cast at the last preceding general election for the city officials in such city next preceding the filing thereof, the governing body of the city shall order an election within forty-five (45) days after the filing of the petition. Any such election shall be held within not less than thirty (30) nor more than ninety (90) days from the date of the election order.

(e) When the proposition has received a majority vote in favor of consolidation at an election in any city, the larger city or cities where no election has been held, in inverse order of rank in population according to the last preceding Federal Census, may or shall, depending on the number of qualified signatures on the petition presented in each such city, order an election on the same proposition within forty-five (45) days after the election returns have been canvassed in the next smaller city in which a majority have voted in favor of consolidation. Any such election shall be held within not less than thirty (30) nor more than ninety (90) days from the date of the election order. If the proposition for consolidation fails to receive a majority of the votes in an election held for that purpose in any city, the larger city or cities which have not held an election shall not order an election for consolidation.

(d) If an election contest is timely filed in any such election, the governing body of each larger city which has not held its consolidation election may defer holding the election until the election contest is finally terminated. If no election contest is timely filed in any such election, the governing body of the next larger city may, when acting on a petition filed by one hundred qualified voters, and shall, when acting on a petition filed by voters equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the total vote cast at the last preceding general election for city officials, order an election for such purpose.

(e) If the proposition for consolidation fails to receive a majority of votes in favor thereof in an election in any of such cities, no consolidation election involving the same identical cities on the consolidation proposition which is defeated shall be held within two (2) years from the date of the defeat of such proposition in a consolidation election in any such city.

Art. 1190. Election

The governing body of each of said cities shall appoint from among the qualified voters of their respective cities, judges and clerks of said elections, and such elections shall be conducted under the ordinances of said cities, and in conformity with the general laws of this State. All persons voting at such election in favor of consolidation shall have written or printed on their ballots the words "For Consolidation," and all persons voting at such election not in favor of consolidation shall have written or printed on their ballots the words, "Against Consolidation."

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1191. "Consolidation"

The term "consolidation," as used in this Chapter, means the adoption by the smaller city or cities of the charter and ordinances and name of the larger of said cities, and the inclusion within the larger city of all of the territory of the smaller city or cities so consolidated with it, and the area of the smaller city or cities shall become subject to all the laws and regulations of the larger city.

Art. 1191a. Qualified Electors

All those Electors qualified to vote for city officers shall be eligible to vote in the elections herein provided.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 380, ch. 183, § 3.]

Art. 1192. Registration

If a majority of the qualified voters at said election in each of said cities shall vote in favor of consolidation, the mayor or chief executive officer exercising like or similar powers of each of said cities as soon as practicable after the returns of said election have been made, shall certify to the Secretary of State an authenticated copy under the seal of the said cities showing the approval of the qualified voters of the consolidation of the two cities.

The Secretary of State shall thereupon file and record the same in a separate book to be kept in his office for such purpose. The returns of such election shall be recorded at length in the record books of the respective cities, and the consolidation of such cities shall be held thereupon to be consummated.

Art. 1193. Merger

After the consummation of such consolidation, all record books, public property, money on hand, credits, accounts and all other assets of the smaller of the annexed cities shall be turned over to the officers of the larger city, who shall be retained in office as the officials of the consolidated city during the remainder of their respective terms, and by such consolidation the offices existing in the smaller municipality shall be abolished and declared vacant, and the persons holding such offices shall not be entitled after the consummation of such consolidation, to further remuneration or compensation. All outstanding liabilities of the two cities so consolidated shall be assumed by the consolidated city. Whenever at the time of any such consolidation the respective cities shall have on hand any bond funds voted for public improvements not already appropriated or contracted for, such money shall be kept in a separate fund and devoted to public improvements in the territory for which such bonds were voted, and shall not be diverted to any other purpose.
Art. 1193

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1193a. Validating Extension of Corporate Limits of Certain Cities and Towns

Sec. 1. That this Act shall affect all cities in the State of Texas having a population of not less than 11,000 and not more than 11,500, according to the 1920 United States Census, and which are located in counties situated on a boundary of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. In every instance wherein a city coming under the provisions of this Act has attempted to extend its corporate limits by including all of the territory of an adjoining city of less than 5,000 population, and has attempted to accomplish such extension of boundaries under Statutes providing for the consolidation of cities of more than 5,000 population, and/or in every instance wherein said extension of territory was attempted under Charter provisions which provide for the annexation of adjoining territory without reference to the fact that the adjoining territory is included in an incorporated city, all actions, resolutions, elections and ordinances taken, held, made or passed in reference thereto or pursuant thereto, are hereby confirmed, ratified and validated irrespective of any irregularities, and in like manner as if said consolidation or annexation had been authorized in the first instance.

Art. 1193b. Validating Extension of Limits of Certain Cities

That all ordinances and proceedings, and all actions and proceedings and contracts, taken or made in pursuance thereof, of any city having a population of more than twenty-five hundred (2500) inhabitants as shown by the last preceding Federal Census, which have been heretofore passed since the passage of Chapter 110 of the 41st Legislature of the State of Texas of 1929, providing for the extension of corporate limits of such city, are hereby ratified and confirmed, such extensions and actions, proceedings and contracts, taken or made in pursuance thereof, shall be deemed and held valid in all respects to the same extent as if done under legislative authority, previously given.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN. MUNICIPAL COURT

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 1194. Creation of Court

There is hereby created and established in each of the incorporated cities, towns, and villages of this State, a court to be known as the "Corporation Court."

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1194A. Change of Name

The name "Corporation Court" is changed to the "Municipal Court." All other statutory references to the Corporation Court shall be construed to mean the Municipal Court.

Art. 1195. Jurisdiction
A municipal court shall have exclusive original jurisdiction within the territorial limits of the city, town or village, in all criminal cases arising under the ordinances of the city, town or village in which punishment is by fine only and where the maximum of such fine does not exceed $1,000 in all cases arising under the ordinances of such city, town or village that govern fire safety, zoning and public health and sanitation other than vegetation and litter violations and where the maximum of such fine does not exceed $200 in all other cases arising under the ordinances of such city, town or village, and shall also have concurrent jurisdiction with any justice of the peace in any precinct in which the city, town or village is situated in all criminal cases arising under the criminal laws of this State, in which punishment is by fine only, and where the maximum of such fine may not exceed $200, and arising within such territorial limits.

Art. 1196. Judge of the Municipal Court
Such court shall be presided over by a judge to be known as the “judge of the municipal court” and such alternate judges who, in cities, towns or villages incorporated under special charter shall be selected under the provisions of the charter concerning the election or the appointment of the judges to preside over the municipal court. All such provisions are hereby made applicable to the judges of the municipal court herein provided for. All other statutory references to the “recorder” shall be construed to mean the “judges of the municipal court.”

Art. 1196(a). Home Rule Cities; Judge of Municipal Court
The Municipal Court in any city heretofore or hereafter incorporated, which city has adopted or amended its Charter, or which may hereafter adopt or amend the same, under Article 11, Section 5, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, commonly known and referred to as the “Home Rule Amendment”, shall be presided over by a judge to be known as the “Judge of the Municipal Court”, or other title as such official may be called in the charter of any such city, and who shall be selected under the provisions of the City Charter or ordinance concerning the election or appointment of the judge to preside over the Municipal Court. All judges now holding office and presiding over any such Municipal Court in any such city and heretofore appointed or elected in accordance with the provisions of the Charter or ordinance of such city are hereby declared to be the duly constituted, appointed or elected judge of such Court and shall hold office until his successor shall have been duly selected in accordance with the provisions hereof and shall have qualified according to law.

Sections 3 and 4 of the 1977 Act provided as follows:
“Sec. 3. If any section, subsection, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this Act is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional in its application to particular persons or circumstances, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

“Sec. 4. This Act shall be cumulative as to all laws, charter provisions, and ordinances relating to the municipal court in home-rule cities in this state.”

Art. 1197. Judge in Other Cities
In cities, towns and villages, not incorporated under special charter, the mayor shall be ex-officio recorder of the “corporation court,” unless the governing body shall by ordinance authorize the election of a recorder, in which case a recorder shall be elected in the same manner and for the same time as the mayor is elected.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1197a. Recorder
The governing body of any city, town or village not incorporated under special charter nor incorporated under or adopting or amending its charter under Article 11, Section 5, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, commonly known and referred to as the “Home Rule Amendment,” may by ordinance provide for the appointment and qualifications of the recorder of the Corporation Court in any such city, town or village.

In any such city, town or village so providing by ordinance for the appointment of the recorder of such Corporation Court and which has not theretofore provided for the election of such recorder in the manner authorized by Article 1197, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, the mayor of such city, town or village shall cease to be the ex-officio recorder of such Court upon the enactment of such ordinance and the recorder first appointed shall hold his term of office corresponding to the unexpired term of said mayor, and every two (2) years thereafter a recorder shall be appointed for a term of two (2) years.

In any such city, town or village so providing for the appointment of the recorder of such Corporation Court and which has theretofore provided for the election of such recorder, the recorder first appointed shall be appointed at the expiration of the term of office of the then recorder so elected and shall hold his term of office for two (2) years, and every two (2) years thereafter a recorder shall be appointed for a term of two (2) years.

All recorders of such Corporation Courts in any such cities, towns and villages shall hold their terms of
Art. 1197a

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

office for the term appointed and until their successors have been appointed and qualified. [Acts 1953, 53rd Leg., p. 39, ch. 31, § 1.]

Art. 1198. Term of Office

Wherever in any such city, town or village, the office of the presiding magistrate of the municipal court therein shall not have expired when the recorder is elected, the recorder first elected shall hold his term of office corresponding to the unexpired term of said magistrate; and every two years thereafter such recorder shall be elected for a term of two years. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1199. Vacancy

A vacancy in the office of recorder or clerk of the court in any city, town or village, shall be filled by the governing body for the unexpired term only. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1199a. Temporary Replacement

While a municipal judge is temporarily unable to act for any reason, the governing body of the city, town, or village incorporated and operating under the general laws of this state may appoint an additional person or persons meeting the qualifications for such position to sit for the regular municipal judge. The appointee shall have all the powers and duties of the office and shall receive the compensation set by the governing body of the city, town, or village. [Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1135, ch. 426, § 1, eff. June 17, 1983.]

Art. 1200. Clerk

A clerk for said corporation court shall be elected by the governing body of each such city, town or village, at the same time at which the recorder is elected; but it may be provided by ordinance that the city secretary shall be ex-officio clerk of the said court, who may be authorized to appoint a deputy with the same power as the secretary. Such clerk shall hold his office for two years. In case of ex-officio clerk, he shall hold his office during his term as city secretary. The clerk shall keep minutes of the proceedings of the said court, issue all process, and generally perform all the duties of the clerk of a court as prescribed by law for a county clerk in so far as the same may be applicable. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1200a. Two Courts Authorized in Cities Having Over 250,000 Population

Establishment; Judges

Sec. 1. All incorporated cities of this State having a population in excess of two hundred and fifty thousand (250,000) according to the latest preceding United States census, may, by an ordinance legally adopted, provide for the establishment of two (2) Corporation Courts. The Mayor of any such city shall have the power to appoint two (2) or more Judges for such Corporation Courts and designate the seniority of the Judges, with the confirmation of the governing body of the city, so that either or both Courts may be in concurrent or continuous session, either day or night.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. Each of such Corporation Courts, when established, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction within the corporate limits of the city establishing them, and such jurisdiction shall be the same as is now or hereafter may be conferred upon all Corporation Courts by the General Laws of this State.

Ordinance; Provisions Authorized

Sec. 3. The governing body of the city establishing such Courts may provide by ordinance:

1. Prescribe the qualifications of the persons to be eligible to appointment as Recorder of said Court or Courts.

2. That such Courts and the Recorders thereof may transfer cases from one Court to another, and that any Recorder of any of such Courts may exchange benches and preside over any of such Courts.

3. That there shall be a Corporation Court Clerk who shall be Clerk for all of such Corporation Courts, together with such number of deputies as may be needed.

4. That complaints shall be filed with such Corporation Court Clerk in such manner as to provide for an equal distribution of cases among such Courts.

Procedure

Sec. 4. Except as modified by the terms of this Act, the procedure before such Courts and appeals therefrom shall be governed by the General Law applicable to all Corporation Courts.

Conflicting Laws Repealed

Sec. 5. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only, and this Act shall supersede any provisions of any special charters of cities which are contrary to the terms hereof.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 6. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of this Act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, the validity of the remaining portions shall not be affected thereby, it being the intent of the Legislature in adopting this Act that no portion shall become inoperative by reason of the invalidity of any other portion.

Art. 1200b. Home Rule Cities of 31,000 to 32,500 May Establish Two Courts

Establishment

Sec. 1. All Home Rule cities of this State having a population of more than thirty-one thousand (31,000) and not more than thirty-two thousand, five hundred (32,500) inhabitants according to the 1940 Federal Census, may, by an ordinance legally adopted, provide for the establishment of two (2) corporation Courts.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. Each of such corporation Courts, when established, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction within the corporate limits of the city establishing them, and such jurisdiction shall be the same as is now or hereafter may be conferred upon all corporation Courts by the General Laws of this State.

Ordinance; Provisions Authorized

Sec. 3. The governing body of the city establishing such Courts may provide by ordinance:

(1) Prescribe the qualifications of the persons to be eligible to appointment as Recorder of said Court or Courts, one of which shall be designated the City Judge.

(2) Such Courts and the Recorder thereof may transfer cases from one Court to another, and that any recorder of any such Court may exchange benches and preside over any of such Courts.

(3) There shall be a corporation Court Clerk who shall be Clerk for all of such corporation Courts together with such number of deputies as may be needed.

Procedure

Sec. 4. Except as modified by the terms of this Act, the procedure before such Courts and appeals therefrom shall be governed by the General Law applicable to all corporation Courts.

Conflicting Laws Repealed

Sec. 5. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only and this Act shall supersede any charter provision of such cities which are contrary to the terms hereof.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 6. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this Act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, the validity of the remaining portions shall not be affected thereby, it being the intent of the Legislature in adopting this Act that no portion shall become inoperative by reason of the invalidity of any other portion.

[Acts 1947, 50th Leg., p. 287, ch. 177.]

Art. 1200c. Cities of 350,000 Population in Counties Having 500,000 But Less Than 650,000 Population

Establishment; Number; Judges

Sec. 1. All incorporated cities of this State having a population in excess of three hundred fifty thousand (350,000) and being in a county having a population in excess of five hundred thousand (500,000) but less than six hundred fifty thousand (650,000), according to the last preceding United States Census, may, by an ordinance legally adopted, provide for the establishment of two (2) or more corporation Courts, not to exceed one (1) court for each eighty thousand (80,000) population according to the last preceding census. The Mayor of any such city shall have the power to appoint two (2) or more judges for each such court and designate the seniority of the judges, with the confirmation of the governing body of the city, so that any of such courts may be in concurrent or continuous session either day or night.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. Each of such corporation Courts, when established, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction within the corporate limits of the city establishing them, and such jurisdiction shall be the same as is now or hereafter may be conferred upon all corporation Courts by the General Laws of this State.

Ordinances, Provisions Of

Sec. 3. The governing body of the city establishing such Courts may provide by ordinance:

(1) Prescribe the qualifications of the persons to be eligible to appointment as Recorder of said Court or Courts.

(2) That such Courts and the Recorders thereof may transfer cases from one Court to another, and that any Recorder of any such Courts may exchange benches and preside over any of such Courts.

(3) That there shall be a corporation Court Clerk who shall be Clerk for all of such corporation Courts together with such number of deputies as may be needed.

(4) That complaints shall be filed with such corporation Court Clerk in such manner as to provide for an equal distribution of cases among such Courts.

Appeals

Sec. 4. Except as modified by the terms of this Act, the procedure before such Courts and appeals therefrom shall be governed by the General Law applicable to all corporation Courts.
Art. 1200c

Repeals

Sec. 5. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only, and this Act shall supersede any provisions of any special charters of cities which are contrary to the terms hereof.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 6. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of this Act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, the validity of the remaining portions shall not be affected thereby, it being the intent of the Legislature in adopting this Act that no portion shall become inoperative by reason of the invalidity of any other portion.

Art. 1200d. Cities Over 130,000 and Not More Than 250,000

Establishment; Judges

Sec. 1. All incorporated cities of this State having a population over one hundred and thirty thousand (130,000) and not over two hundred and eighty-five thousand (285,000), according to the last preceding United States census, may, by ordinance legally adopted, provide for the establishment of one (1) or more Corporation Courts, not exceeding four (4). The judges of such courts shall have the same qualifications, and be selected in the same manner, as may be provided for the judge of the existing Corporation Court in the charter of such city, or as may be provided in any future charter or charter amendment. If the present charter of such city requires the election of the judge by vote of the people, the governing body may designate a person as judge of each newly created court until the next regular city election. Such courts may be in concurrent or continuous session, either day or night.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. Each of such Corporation Courts, when established, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction within the corporate limits of the city establishing them, and such jurisdiction shall be the same as is now or hereafter may be conferred upon all Corporation Courts by the General Laws of this State.

Ordinance; Provisions Authorized

Sec. 3. Except as otherwise provided by the charter of such city, the governing body of the city establishing such Courts may provide by ordinance:

(1) Prescribe the qualifications of the persons to be eligible to appointment as judge of said Court or Courts.

(2) That such Courts and the judges thereof may transfer cases from one (1) Court to another, and that any judge of any of such Courts may exchange benches and preside over any of such Courts.

(3) That there shall be a Corporation Court Clerk who shall be Clerk for all of such Corporation Courts, together with such number of deputies as may be needed.

(4) That complaints shall be filed with such Corporation Court Clerk in such manner as to provide for an equal distribution of cases among such Courts.

Procedure

Sec. 4. Except as modified by the terms of this Act, the procedure before such Courts and appeals therefrom shall be governed by the General Law applicable to all Corporation Courts.

Art. 1200e. Panels or Divisions of Municipal Court; Temporary or Relief Judges

(a) In lieu of one judge for the municipal court in a home-rule city, as provided in Article 1196(a), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, the municipal court in any such city may by charter or ordinance be divided into two or more panels or divisions, one of which shall be presided over by a presiding judge, and such additional panel or division shall be presided over by an associate judge who shall be a magistrate with the same powers as those conferred on the presiding judge. Each such panel or division of the municipal court, when established, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the other panels or divisions of such court within the corporate limits of the city establishing them, and such jurisdiction shall be the same as is now or hereafter may be conferred upon all municipal courts by the general laws of this state. Such panels or divisions of the municipal court may be in concurrent and continuous session, either day or night.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by the charter of such city, the governing body of the city establishing panels or divisions for such court may by ordinance:

(1) Prescribe the qualifications of the persons to be eligible to appointment as judge or judges of said court or of its panels or divisions;

(2) Provide that such court, its panels or divisions, and the judges thereof may transfer cases from one panel or division to another, and that any judge or any of such panels or divisions may exchange benches and preside over any of the panels or divisions of such court;

(3) Provide for a municipal court clerk who shall be clerk for all of the panels or divisions of such municipal court, together with such number of deputies as may be needed. The clerk and the deputies under his direction and supervision shall keep minutes of the proceedings of said court and its panels and divisions, if any, administer oaths, issue all process, and generally perform all the duties of the clerk of a court as prescribed by law for a county clerk insofar as the same may be applicable;

(4) provide that complaints shall be filed with such municipal court clerk in such manner as to provide for an equal distribution among the panels or divisions of such court.

(e) Any such city may provide by charter or ordinance for the appointment of one or more temporary or relief judges to sit for the regular judge of the municipal court or for the presiding judge or any of the associate judges of such court, while such judge or judges, any or all, are temporarily unable to act for any reason. Such temporary or relief judge shall possess the same qualifications required of the judge for whom he is sitting. Any temporary or relief judge shall have all the powers and duties of the judge for whom he is sitting while so acting.

(d) Except as modified by the terms of this Act, the procedure before such court and its panels or divisions, if any, and appeals therefrom shall be governed by the general law applicable to all municipal courts.

Sections 3 and 4 of the 1977 Act provided as follows:

"Sec. 3. If any section, subsection, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this Act is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional in its application to particular persons or circumstances, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 4. This Act shall be cumulative as to all laws, charter provisions, and ordinances relating to the municipal court in home-rule cities in this state."

Art. 1200f. Continuing Legal Education of Municipal Court Judges

Judges Not Licensed as Attorneys

Sec. 1. Each municipal court judge in the State of Texas who is not a licensed attorney in this state must complete successfully within one year from the date he is first elected or appointed a 24-hour course in the performance of his duties. The judge must complete a minimum of 12 hours each calendar year following the calendar year in which the initial course was taken. The course may be completed in an accredited state-supported school of higher education or in a continuing education course, program, or seminar approved by the Texas Judicial Council.

Judges Licensed as Attorneys

Sec. 2. Each municipal court judge in the State of Texas who is a licensed attorney and in good standing with the State Bar must complete successfully within one year from the date he is first elected or appointed a 12-hour course in the performance of his duties. The judge must complete a 12-hours course each calendar year following the calendar year in which the initial course was taken. The course may be completed in an accredited state-supported school of higher education or in a continuing education course, program, or seminar approved by the Texas Judicial Council.

Administration of Act

Sec. 3. The Texas Judicial Council shall have general supervisory authority over the administration of this Act. The Texas Judicial Council shall accredit courses, programs, and seminars which will satisfy the educational requirements of this Act. The Texas Judicial Council may make and adopt rules and regulations not inconsistent with this Act governing the conduct of business and the performance of its duties.

Written Reports; Waivers or Extensions

Sec. 4. (a) Not later than the 60th day after the date on which an accredited course is completed each municipal court judge successfully completing the course shall make a written report of that fact to the Texas Judicial Council in the manner and form prescribed by the council.

(b) In individual cases, the Texas Judicial Council on proper application may grant waivers or extensions of the minimum educational or reporting requirements.

Judicial Council: Annual Report

Sec. 5. The Texas Judicial Council shall prepare an annual report containing a list of all accredited courses for the previous year, a list of all municipal court judges who attended the courses, and a list of all municipal court judges who did not attend the courses. The council shall submit the report to the chief justice of the supreme court, the attorney general, and the mayor of each municipality in which a judge who did not attend a course presides.

Municipal Court Judges and Personnel Training Fund

Sec. 6. (a) The municipal court judges and personnel training fund is established in the state treasury to be administered by the criminal justice division of the governor's office. The fund shall be used to provide grants to statewide professional associations of municipal court judges and municipal court personnel to provide continuing education courses or seminars for those judges and personnel. A course or seminar for municipal court judges created under this program must conform to Sections 1 and 2 of this Act and must be approved by the Texas Judicial Council.

(b) A person shall pay 50 cents as a court cost, in addition to other court costs, on conviction of any criminal offense in a municipal court. A conviction that arises under Chapter 175, Acts of the 47th Legislature, Regular Session, 1941 (Article 6687b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), or under the Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways (Article 6701d, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) is specifically included, except that a conviction arising under a law that regulates pedestrians or the parking of motor vehicles is excluded.
Art. 1200f

c) Court costs due under this section shall be collected in the same manner as other fines or costs are collected in the case.

d) The officer collecting the costs shall keep separate records of the funds collected as costs under this section, and shall deposit the funds in the municipal treasury.

e) Each officer collecting court costs under this section shall file the reports required under Articles 944 and 945, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1925 (Articles 1601 and 1002, Part II, Vernon's Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965). If no funds due as costs under this section have been collected in any quarter, the report required for each quarter shall be filed in the regular manner, and the report shall state that no funds due under this section were collected.

(f) The custodian of a municipal treasury shall keep records of the amount of funds on deposit collected under this section, and shall remit to the comptroller of public accounts on or before the last day of each calendar quarter, the report required for each quarter. The city may retain as a collection fee 10 percent of the funds collected under this section.

(g) The comptroller shall deposit the funds received under this section in the municipal court judges and personnel training fund.

(h) On requisition of the criminal justice division of the governor's office, the comptroller shall draw a warrant on the fund for the amount specified in the requisition for a grant authorized by Subsection (a) of this section. A warrant may not exceed the amount in the fund at the time the requisition is made. At the end of each state fiscal year, any unexpended balance in the fund shall be paid into the general revenue fund.

Art. 1200g. Proceedings Outside Corporate Limits; Municipalities of 700 or Less

The municipal court of a city, town, or village with a population of 700 or less, according to the most recent federal census, may conduct the proceedings of the court outside the corporate limits of the municipality if the proceedings are conducted within the corporate limits of a contiguous incorporated municipality.

[Acts 1981, 67th Leg., p. 538, ch. 221, § 1, eff. May 28, 1981.]

Art. 1200h. Jurors Must be Residents

Sec. 1. As a qualification for service on a jury of a municipal court, including a municipal court of record, a person must be a resident of the municipality for which the court is established.

Sec. 2. This Act applies only to persons who are summoned as jurors after August 31, 1968.

[Acts 1965, 58th Leg., p. 1836, ch. 348, §§ 1, 2, eff. Sept. 1, 1965.]

PARTICULAR MUNICIPAL COURTS

Art. 1200aa. Wichita Falls

Creation: Formation by Ordinance: Additional Courts

Sec. 1. There is created in the City of Wichita Falls a court of record to be known as the "Municipal Court," to be held in that city if the governing body of the city, by legally adopted ordinance judges and determines that the conditions of the dockets of the other courts of the county are such as to require the formation of the municipal court in order to properly dispose of the cases arising in the city.

The governing body of the city may by ordinance determine that more than one municipal court is required in order to dispose of the cases arising in the city, in which case the governing body of the city may establish as many municipal courts as it deems necessary and the ordinance establishing the municipal courts shall designate the municipal courts as Municipal Court No. 1, Municipal Court No. 2, and as each municipal court is established it shall be designated with the next succeeding number.

Criminal Jurisdiction: Write; Terms; Exchange of Benches

Sec. 2. (a) Municipal courts in Wichita Falls shall have concurrent jurisdiction in all criminal cases arising under the charter and ordinances of the city and shall also have concurrent jurisdiction in all criminal cases arising under the laws of the State of Texas and arising within the territorial limits of the city, in which punishment is by fine only, where the maximum of such fine may not exceed $200.

(b) The judge of a municipal court may grant writs of mandamus, injunction, attachment, and all other necessary writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court.

(c) Municipal courts shall hold no terms and may sit at any time for the transaction of the business of the courts.

(d) Where more than one municipal court is established by the governing body of the city, the judges of the municipal courts may, at any time, exchange benches and may, at any time, sit and act for and with each other in any case, matter, or proceeding pending in their courts; and any and all acts thus performed by any of the judges shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, matters, and proceedings.

Criminal Jurisdiction; Conformance to This Act

Sec. 3. The jurisdiction of all courts exercising criminal jurisdiction is conformed to the terms and provisions of this Act.

Judges; Qualifications; Appointment; Compensation; Removal; Vacancies; Bond and Oath

Sec. 4. Municipal courts shall be presided over by a judge, who shall be known as the "municipal judge," who shall be a licensed attorney in good standing with two or more years of experience in the practice of law in this state, a citizen of the United States and of this state. He need not be a resident of the city at the time of his appointment, but he shall maintain his residence within the city during his tenure of office. He shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office, and shall not engage in the private practice of law while in office. He shall be selected and appointed to office by the Board of Aldermen.

(a) Municipal court judges shall receive a salary to be set by the governing body of the city which may not be diminished during his term of office. A municipal judge may not be removed from office during the term for which he was appointed except for cause to the same extent and under the same rules that judges of the county courts may be removed from office.

(b) At the end of the term of office for which a municipal judge is appointed, the governing body of the city may appoint the person serving as municipal judge to another two-year term, or the governing body of the city may declare the office of municipal judge vacant.

(c) Any vacancy in the office of municipal judge by death, resignation, or otherwise shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments.

(d) Pending such nomination as hereinabove provided, as well as during any period during which a municipal judge is temporarily unable to act for any reason, the mayor of the city, by and with the consent of the governing body of said city, is authorized to appoint some qualified person to act in the place and stead of the municipal judge, and the appointee shall have all the powers and discharge all the duties of the office, and shall receive the same compensation for which as is payable to the regular municipal judge while he is so acting.

(e) Municipal judges shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Complaints by City Attorney, Assistant or Deputy

Sec. 5. All proceedings in municipal courts shall be commenced upon original complaint approved for filing by the city attorney of the city, his assistant or deputy, and filed with the court clerk, provided, however, that parking tickets, including red meter tickets, need not be signed by the city attorney, his assistant or deputy, unless a complaint is tried in court. All such complaints shall be prepared under the direction of the city attorney, his assistant or deputy.

Filing of Original Papers; Notations on Case Folder

Sec. 6. The clerk of the municipal courts under the direction of the presiding judge shall file the original complaint and the original of all judgments, orders, motions, or other papers and proceedings in each case in a folder for permanent record. No separate minute book for the court is required, but the original papers filed with the court shall constitute the records of the courts, provided however, that such records may be kept by the clerk on microfilm when over one year old and shall be admissible in evidence as provided by Articles 3731a, 3731b, and 3731c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, in civil cases. The clerk of the municipal courts shall cause to be noted on the outside of each case folder the following information:

(1) The style of the action;
(2) The nature of the offense charged;
(3) The date the warrant was issued and return made thereon;
(4) The time when the examination or trial was had, and if a trial, whether it was by a jury or before the judge of the court;
(5) Trial settings;
(6) The verdict of the jury, if any;
(7) Judgment of the court, if any;
(8) Motion for a new trial, if any, and the decision thereon;
(9) If an appeal was taken; and
(10) The time when, and the manner in which the judgment and sentence was enforced.

Orders or judgments, showing disposition of parking tickets as well as red meter tickets, not tried in court, need not be signed by the court.

Clerk of Municipal Courts; Appointment; Duties

Sec. 7. The clerk of the municipal courts shall be appointed by the governing body of the city. It shall be the duty of the clerk or his deputies to keep the records of proceedings of the court and to issue all processes and generally to do and to perform the duties now prescribed by law for clerks of county court at law exercising criminal jurisdiction insofar as the same may be applicable. The clerk of the municipal courts shall hold his office at the pleasure of the governing body of the city, and shall perform his duties under the direction and control of the municipal judge.
Justice for corporation courts and fees for the Criminal court reporter shall perform his duties under the direction of the business of the courts without delay. The court reporter shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the governing body of the city at a salary to be fixed by the governing body. The court reporter of the court is not required to take testimony in cases where neither the defendant, prosecutor, nor the judge demands it. The governing body of the city may authorize and appoint more than one court reporter for each court established so as to dispose of the business of the courts without delay. The court reporter shall perform his duties under the direction and control of the municipal judge.

Evidence; Admissibility in Other Proceedings

Sec. 9. That testimony, exhibits or evidence given by any witness in the course of any proceeding in such municipal courts shall be solely for the purpose of such proceeding or appeal therefrom and, in any other civil proceeding, evidence relating to such testimony, exhibits, evidence or reproductions thereof shall be privileged and not admissible for any purpose.

Costs

Sec. 10. All processes issuing out of municipal courts may be served by a policeman of the city or by any peace officer under the same rules as are provided for service by sheriffs and constables of process issuing out of a county court so far as applicable.

Service of Process

Sec. 11. All processes in municipal courts shall be conducted by the city attorney of the city, or his assistant or deputy. The chief of police of the city shall in person or by deputy attend the court and perform the duties of a bailiff.

Prosecutions by City Attorney; Bailiff

Sec. 12. Proceedings in municipal courts shall be commenced by complaint which shall begin: "In the name and by authority of the State of Texas," and shall conclude "Against the peace and dignity of the State." All complaints shall be prepared under the direction of the city attorney, his assistant or deputy, and may be signed by any credible person upon information and belief sworn to before the city attorney, or his assistant or deputy, or the clerk of the court or his deputy, each of whom, for that purpose, shall have power to administer oaths. The complaint shall be in writing and shall state:

(1) The name of the accused, if known, and if unknown, shall describe him as accurately as practicable;

(2) The offense with which he is charged in plain and intelligible words;

(3) It must appear that the place where the offense is charged to have been committed is within the jurisdiction of the municipal court; and

(4) It must show, from the date of the offense stated therein that the offense is not barred by limitations. All pleadings in the municipal courts shall be in writing and filed with the clerk of such courts.

Right to Jury Trial; Selection of Jurors

Sec. 13. (a) Every person brought before the municipal courts and charged with an offense shall be entitled to be tried by a lawful jury of six persons. The municipal judge may set certain days of each week or month for the trial of jury cases. Juries for the court shall be selected as follows. On the adoption of this Act by the governing body of the city and between the 1st and 15th days of August of each year thereafter, the clerk of the municipal court or one of his deputies, and the city clerk, or one of his deputies, shall meet together and select from the list of qualified jurors in the city, the jurors for service in the municipal courts for the ensuing year. The list of jurors shall be taken from the voters registration list of the City of Wichita Falls. The officers shall write the names of all persons who are known to be qualified jurors under the law residing in the city on separate cards of uniform size and color, writing also on the cards, whenever possible, the post-office address of each juror so selected. The cards containing the names shall be deposited in a jury wheel to be provided for that purpose by the governing body of the city. The wheel shall be constructed of any durable material, shall be so constructed as to freely revolve on its axle, and may be equipped with a motor to revolve the wheel so as to thoroughly mix the cards. The wheel shall be locked at all times, except when in use as hereinafter provided, by the use of two separate locks so arranged that the key to one will not open the other lock. The wheel and the clasps into which the locks are fitted shall be arranged so that the wheel cannot be opened unless both of the locks are unlocked. The keys to the locks shall be kept one by the city clerk and the other by the clerk of the municipal court. The city clerk and the clerk of the municipal court shall not open the wheel nor permit it to be opened by any person except at the July 1 of each year, that may be drawn as a juror to any person. At the drawing for which jurors may be required. At the drawing shall not divulge the name of any person no person other than those above named shall be permitted to be present. The officers attending the drawing shall not divulge the name of any person that may be drawn as a juror to any person. If at any time during the next six months and prior to the next drawing date it appears that the list already drawn will be exhausted before the expiration of six months, additional lists for as many additional weeks as the judge may direct will be drawn in the same manner. The several lists of names so drawn shall be certified under the hand of the clerk of the municipal court, or the deputy, doing the drawing and the municipal judge in whose presence the names were drawn, to be the lists drawn by him for that semiannual period and shall be sealed up in separate envelopes endorsed "List No. ___ of the Petit Jurors drawn on the ___ day of ___, 19___. for the Municipal Court of Wichita Falls, Texas." The clerk doing the drawing shall write his name across the seals of the envelopes and deliver them to the judge who shall inspect the envelopes to see that they are properly endorsed and shall then deliver them to the clerk or his deputy, and the clerk shall then immediately file them away in some safe and secure place where it cannot be tampered with.

(b) Not less than 10 days before January 1 and July 1 of each year, the clerk of the municipal court, or one of his deputies, and the city clerk or one of his deputies, in the presence of the judge for each week of the six months next ensuing for which a jury may be required, and shall record the names as they are drawn upon a separate sheet of paper for each week for which jurors may be required. At the drawing no person other than those above named shall be permitted to be present. The officers attending the drawing shall not divulge the name of any person that may be drawn as a juror to any person. If at any time during the next six months and prior to the next drawing date it appears that the list already drawn will be exhausted before the expiration of six months, additional lists for as many additional weeks as the judge may direct will be drawn in the same manner. The several lists of names so drawn shall be certified under the hand of the clerk of the municipal court, or the deputy, doing the drawing and the municipal judge in whose presence the names were drawn, to be the lists drawn by him for that semiannual period and shall be sealed up in separate envelopes endorsed "List No. ___ of the Petit Jurors drawn on the ___ day of ___, 19___. for the Municipal Court of Wichita Falls, Texas." The clerk doing the drawing shall write his name across the seals of the envelopes and deliver them to the judge who shall inspect the envelopes to see that they are properly endorsed and shall then deliver them to the clerk or his deputy, and the clerk shall then immediately file them away in some safe and secure place in his office under lock and key. When the names are drawn for jury service, the cards containing the names shall be sealed in separate envelopes endorsed "Cards containing the names of jurors list No. ___ of the Petit Jurors drawn on the ___ day of ___, 19___. for the Municipal Court of Wichita Falls, Texas." Each envelope shall be retained unopened by the clerk until after the jury selected from the corresponding list has been impaneled. After the jurors so impaneled have served four or more days, the envelope containing the cards bearing the names of the jurors on that list shall then be opened by the clerk or his deputy and those cards bearing the names of persons who have not been impaneled and who have not served as many as four days shall be immediately returned to the wheel by the clerk or his deputy; and the cards bearing the names of the persons serving as many as four days shall be put in a box provided for that purpose for the use of the officers who shall next select the jurors from the wheel. If any of the lists drawn are not used, the clerk or his deputy shall open the envelopes containing the cards bearing the names of the unused lists immediately after the expiration of the six-month period and return the cards to the wheel. A juror serving on a jury in the court shall receive not less than $5 for each day and for each fraction of a day he attends the court as a juror and in no event less than that paid in county courts.

(c) In lieu of the preceding method of jury selection, the judges of the municipal courts of Wichita Falls may adopt a plan for the selection of persons for jury service with the aid of mechanical or electronic means. If such a plan is adopted, the laws relating to the selection of petit juries by jury wheel shall not apply. Any such plan so adopted shall conform to the following requirements:

(1) The names taken for jury purposes shall be of registered voters in the City of Wichita Falls.

(2) It shall provide a fair, impartial, and objective method of selecting persons for jury service with the aid of mechanical or electronic equipment.

(3) It shall designate the clerk of the court as the official to be in charge of the selection process and shall define his duties.

(4) It shall specify that a true and complete written list showing the names and addresses of the persons summoned to begin jury service on a particular date shall be filed of record with the clerk of the court at least 10 days prior to the date such persons are to begin jury service.

Ordinances and Corporate Limits; Judicial Notice

Sec. 14. Municipal courts shall take judicial notice of all the city ordinances and the corporate limits of Wichita Falls in all cases tried in the courts.

Code of Criminal Procedure; Applicability

Sec. 15. Except as modified by this Act, the trial of cases before municipal courts shall be governed by the Code of Criminal Procedure of the State of Texas applicable to county courts.

Bonds

Sec. 16. All bonds taken in proceedings in the courts shall be payable to the State of Texas for the use and benefit of Wichita Falls.

Judgment and Sentence

Sec. 17. The judgment and sentence, in case of conviction before municipal courts shall be in the name of the State of Texas, and shall recover of the defendant the fine and costs for the use and benefit of the city; except when otherwise ordered by the court, the court shall require that the defendant remain in custody of the chief of police of such city until the fine and costs are paid; and order that execution issue to collect the fines and penalties.
Sec. 18. Appeals from municipal courts shall be heard by the county court except in cases where the county court has no jurisdiction of appeals from justice courts, in which cases, the appeals shall be heard by the court having jurisdiction of appeals from justice courts.

Sec. 19. The state shall have no right of appeal.

Sec. 20. A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment of conviction in a municipal court under the rules hereinafter prescribed, and a motion for a new trial shall be prerequisite to the right of appeal from a municipal court.

Sec. 21. A motion for a new trial must be made within 10 days after the rendition of judgment and sentence, and not afterward. Such motion must be in writing and filed with the clerk of the municipal court.

Sec. 22. In no case shall the state be entitled to a new trial.

Sec. 23. An appeal may be taken by giving notice of appeal in open court, which shall be noted on the docket of the court or embodied in the order overruling the motion for a new trial. The notice must be given or filed within 10 days after the order overruling the motion for a new trial is rendered. If the defendant is not in custody, an appeal may not be taken until the required appeal bond has been given and approved by the court. The appeal bond must be filed with the court within 10 days after the order of the court refusing a new trial has been rendered, and not afterwards.

Sec. 24. In appeals from the judgments and sentences of a municipal court, the defendant shall, if he be in custody, be committed to jail unless he gives bail, to be approved by the judge of the municipal court, in an amount not less than double the amount of fine and costs adjudged against him, payable to the State of Texas for the use and benefit of the city; provided the bail shall not in any case be for a less sum than $100. The bond shall recite that in the cause the defendant shall make his personal appearance before the court to which the appeal is taken instant, if the court is in session; and if the court is not in session, then at its next session, and there remain from day to day and answer in the cause.

Sec. 25. Appeals from municipal courts may be perfected by filing the appeal bond provided for in the preceding section upon approval by the municipal court, subject to compliance with the provisions of Section 34.

Sec. 26. In view of the crowded conditions of the dockets of the courts, the record and briefs on appeal in a case appealed from a municipal court shall be limited so far as possible to the questions relied on for reversal.

Sec. 27. The record on appeal in a case appealed from a municipal court shall consist of a transcript, and where necessary to the appeal, a statement of facts.

Sec. 28. The motion for a new trial in a case appealed from a municipal court shall constitute the assignments of error on appeal. A ground of error not distinctly set forth in a motion for new trial shall be considered as waived.

Sec. 29. The city attorney, or his assistant or deputy, and the defendant, or his attorney, by written stipulation filed with the clerk of the municipal court may designate the parts of the record, proceedings, and evidence to be included in the record on appeal.

Sec. 30. The clerk of the municipal court, under written instructions of the defendant, or his attorney, shall prepare under his hand and seal of the court for transmission to the appellate court a true copy of the proceedings in the municipal court, and, unless otherwise designated by agreement of the parties, shall include the following: (1) the complaint upon which the trial was had; (2) the order of the court upon any motions or exceptions; (3) the judgment of the court and the verdict of the jury; (4) any findings of fact or conclusions of law by the court; (5) the judgment of the court; (6) the motion for new trial and the order of the court thereon; (7) the notice of appeal; (8) any statement of the defendant or the city attorney as to the matter to be included in the record; (9) the appeal bond; (10) certified bill of cost; (11) any signed paper designated as material by the defendant, or his attorney, or the city attorney or his assistant or deputy. The defendant, or his attorney, may file with the clerk and deliver or mail to the city attorney a copy of the written instruction, and the city attorney may file and deliver or mail a written direction to the clerk to include in the transcript additional portions of proceedings in the trial court.
Statement of Facts

Sec. 31. (a) The statement of facts of the testimony of the witnesses need not be in narrative form but may be in question and answer form. The defendant, or his attorney, may prepare and file with the clerk a condensed statement in narrative form of all or part of the testimony and deliver a true copy thereof to the city attorney and if the city attorney is dissatisfied with the narrative statement, he may require the testimony in question and answer form to be substituted for all or part thereof.

(b) All matters not essential to the decision or the questions presented in the motion for new trial, shall be omitted from a statement of facts. Formal parts of all exhibits and more than one copy of any document appearing in the transcript or the statement of facts shall be excluded. All documents shall be abridged by omitting or abbreviating a formal portion thereof.

(c) It shall be unnecessary for the statement of facts to be approved by the trial court or judge thereof when agreed to by the defendant, or his attorney, and the city attorney.

(d) A written request for a statement of facts shall be made to the court reporter of the municipal court by the defendant or his attorney.

Agreed Statement of Case

Sec. 32. The defendant, or his attorney, and the city attorney may agree upon a brief statement of the case and upon the facts proven as will enable the appellate court to determine where there is error in the judgment of the trial court. Such statements shall be copied into the transcript in lieu of the proceedings themselves.

Transcript and Statement of Facts; Filing

Sec. 33. The transcript and the statement of facts shall be filed with the clerk of the municipal court within 60 days from the date of the order overruling the motion for new trial, and shall be promptly forwarded by the clerk of the municipal court to the clerk of the court to which the appeal is taken.

Preparation of Transcript and Statement of Facts; Fee

Sec. 34. The defendant shall pay a fee of $10 to the clerk of the municipal court for the preparation of the transcript and statement of facts, at the time of request therefor. If the case is reversed on appeal, the $10 fee shall be refunded to the defendant.

Brie$; Filing

Sec. 35. The defendant shall file his brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days from the date of the filing of the transcript and statement of facts with the clerk of the appellate court, who shall notify the prosecuting attorney of the filing. The prosecuting attorney shall file his brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days after the defendant files his brief with the clerk. Each party, on filing his brief with the clerk of the appellate court, shall cause a true copy of his brief to be delivered to the opposing party.

Procedure on Appeal

Sec. 36. The court to which the appeal is taken shall hear and determine appeals from municipal courts at the earliest time it may be done, with due regard to the rights of parties and proper administration of justice. Oral arguments before the court shall be under such rules as the court may determine, and the parties may submit the case on the records and briefs without oral arguments.

Disposition on Appeal; Presumptions; Decision

Sec. 37. The court, having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts, may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss the case, or may reform or correct the judgment, as the law and the nature of the case may require. The court shall presume (1) that the venue was proven in the court below; (2) that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn; (3) that the defendant was arraigned and that he pleaded to the complaint; (4) that the court's charge was certified by the judge and filed by the clerk before it was read to the jury; unless such matters were made an issue in the municipal court, or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or statement of facts. In each case decided by the court having jurisdiction of appeals, the court shall deliver a written opinion either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overruled no reason need be given by the court, but cases relied upon by the court may be cited. If an assignment of error is sustained, the court shall set forth the reasons for such decision. Copies of the decision of the court shall be mailed by the clerk of the court to the parties and the judge of the municipal court as soon as rendered by the court.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings; Filing of Record; Enforcement of Judgment

Sec. 38. When the judgment of the court having jurisdiction of appeal from municipal courts becomes final, the clerk of the court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and mail the certificate to the clerk of the municipal court from which the appeal was taken. When the record is received by the clerk of the municipal court, he shall file it with the papers in the case and note it upon the docket of the municipal court. Where the judgment has been affirmed no proceedings need be had after filing the record in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except to forfeit the bond of the defendant, to issue a capias for the defendant, or an execution against his property.
New Trial

Sec. 39. Where the appeal court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as it would have stood if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court.

Appeals to Court of Appeals; Applicability of Code of Criminal Procedure; Record

Sec. 40. Appeals to the Court of Appeals from the decision of the court having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts, when permitted by law, shall be governed by the Code of Criminal Procedure of Texas, except that when an appeal is permitted by law, the transcript, briefs, and statement of facts filed in the court having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts shall constitute the transcript, briefs, and statement of facts before the Court of Appeals or as the rules of the court of criminal appeals may provide in such cases.

Places and Quarters for Court, Etc., Salaries

Sec. 41. (a) The municipal court shall be held in the city at a place or places within the corporate limits of the city as may be designated by the governing body of the city in the ordinances establishing the court.

(b) The governing body of the city shall provide suitable quarters for the court, and all costs of providing a court and office space for the court, the clerk, and court reporter shall be paid for by the governing body of the city. All salaries paid to the judge, clerk, court reporter, and employees of the municipal court shall be paid by the governing body of the city.

Payment and Deposit of Fines, Etc.

Sec. 42. All fines, fees, costs, and cash bonds in municipal courts shall be paid to the clerk of the municipal court. The clerk of the municipal court shall deposit all fines, fees, costs, and cash bonds directly into the general fund of the city.

Judges, Clerks and Court Reporters: Civil Service Ordinance; Retirement; Vacation; Sick Leave; Etc.

Sec. 43. The judges of municipal courts, the clerks and deputy clerks of the courts, and the court reporters of the municipal courts shall not be considered to be classified employees under the city civil service ordinance. However, the governing body of the city may provide by ordinance that all other employees of the municipal courts may be hired and paid as classified employees of the city under the city civil service ordinance. The judges, clerks, deputy clerks, and court reporters may be authorized or required by the governing body of the city to participate in the retirement program of the city. The judges, clerks, deputy clerks, and court reporters of municipal courts shall receive the same vacation, sick leave, and other benefits as are provided for other nonclassified employees of the city under such regulations as may be provided by the governing body of the city by ordinance.

Vacation of Court; Transfer of Pending Cases

Sec. 44. After the establishment of a municipal court if the governing body of the city shall by legally adopted ordinance find and determine that the condition of the dockets of the other courts of the county is such as not to require the existence of the municipal court in order to properly dispose of the cases arising in the city, then the office of municipal judge, clerk of the municipal court, court reporter, and other employees of the court shall be declared vacated as of the end of the term for which the municipal court judge was last appointed. In that event, any case pending in the municipal court shall be transferred to the proper court having jurisdiction of the offense.

Leg., p. 764, ch. 291, § 5, eff. Sept. 1, 1981.]

Section 149 of the 1981 amendatory act provides:

"This Act takes effect on September 1, 1981. Appeals to the courts of appeals filed on or after that date shall be filed in the court of appeals having jurisdiction. At least 1,000 appeals including death penalty appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals prior to September 1, 1981, shall be retained by that court for dispositions in accordance with laws in effect prior to the effective date of this Act, and for that purpose, all laws repealed or amended by this Act shall remain in force and effect for those appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals. The remaining appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals shall be transferred to the various courts of appeals on which the number of judges is increased by the 67th Session of the legislature; provided, no more than 75 nondeath penalty appeals shall be transferred for case newly created judgeship and such a transfer shall not be made until such justice assumes office."

Art. 1200bb. Midland

Creation; Formation by Ordinance

Sec. 1. There is created in the city of Midland a court of record to be known as the "City of Midland Municipal Court," to be held in that city if the governing body of the city of Midland, by ordinance, finds and determines that the formation of a municipal court of record is necessary in order to provide a more efficient disposition of appeals arising from the municipal court.

The authority of the governing body of the city of Midland to create a municipal court of record in the city of Midland includes the authority to establish, in the manner set forth in this section, more than one municipal court of record if the governing body determines that it is necessary in order to dispose of the cases arising in the city. If more than one municipal court of record is created, the judges of the municipal courts may at any time exchange benches and sit and act for and with each other in a case, matter, or proceeding pending in a municipal court, and any and all acts thus performed by a judge are valid and binding on all parties to the case, matter, and proceeding.

The municipal court of record authorized in this section is referred to in this Act as the "municipal court."
Sec. 2. The general laws of the state regarding municipal courts, and regarding justice courts on matters where there is no law for municipal courts, and the valid charter provisions and ordinances of the city of Midland relating to the municipal court apply to the municipal court authorized in this Act, unless the laws, charter provisions, and ordinances are in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 3. The municipal court shall be presided over by a judge, who shall be a licensed attorney in good standing in this state and a citizen of the United States and of this state. He need not be a resident of the city at the time of his appointment, but he shall maintain his residence in the city during his tenure of office. He shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office and shall not engage in the private practice of law while in office. He shall be appointed by the governing body of the city. He shall be paid a salary to be determined by the governing body of the city. The salary shall not be based on or in any way contingent on the fines, fees, or costs collected by the municipal court.

If more than one municipal court is created by the governing body of the city, a judge shall be appointed for each court and the governing body of the city shall designate a judge to be the presiding judge.

Sec. 4. The governing body of the city shall provide a clerk of the municipal courts, and such deputy clerks, warrant officers, and other municipal court personnel, including at least one bailiff for each court, as are necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts. It is the duty of the clerk to keep the records of proceedings of the municipal courts and to issue all processes and generally to perform the duties now prescribed by law for clerks of the county courts at law exercising criminal jurisdiction insofar as the same may be applicable. The clerk of the municipal courts and all other personnel shall perform the duties of the office under the direction and control of the municipal court judge.

Sec. 5. For the purpose of preserving a record in the cases tried before the municipal court, the city shall provide a court reporter, who shall be appointed by the municipal court judge and whose compensation shall be determined by the governing body of the city. The qualifications of the court reporter shall be determined by the judge, or if there is more than one judge, by the presiding judge.

The record of proceedings may be preserved by the court reporter by written notes, transcribing equipment, recording equipment, or any combination of them. The court reporter is not required to take testimony in cases where neither the defendant, the prosecutor, nor the judge demands it.

Sec. 6. The municipal court shall take judicial notice of the ordinances of the city.

Sec. 7. A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment of conviction in the municipal court under the rules prescribed in this Act. The County Court of Midland County has jurisdiction over the appeals from the municipal court.

Sec. 8. Each appeal from a conviction in the municipal court shall be determined by the appellate court solely on the basis of errors pointed out in the defendant's motion for new trial and presented in the transcript and statement of facts prepared from the municipal court proceedings leading to the conviction. No appeal from the municipal court may be by trial de novo.

Sec. 9. In order to perfect an appeal, a written motion for new trial must be filed by the defendant no later than the 10th day after the rendition of the judgment of conviction, and may be amended by leave of court at any time before it is acted on within 20 days after it is filed. The motion for new trial shall be presented to the court within 10 days after the filing of the original or amended motion, and shall be determined by the court within 20 days after the filing of the original or amended motion. For good cause shown the time for filing or amending may be extended by the court. An original or amended motion shall be deemed overruled by operation of law at the expiration of the 20 days allowed for determination of the motion if it is not acted on by the court within that time. The motion shall set forth the points of error complained of by the defendant. For purposes of appeal, a point of error not distinctly set forth in the motion for new trial shall be considered as waived.

Sec. 10. In order to perfect an appeal, the defendant shall give timely notice of appeal. In the event the defendant requests a hearing on his motion for new trial, the notice of appeal may be given orally in open court upon the overruling of the motion for new trial; otherwise, the notice of appeal shall be in writing and filed with the municipal court no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled.

Sec. 11. If the defendant is not in custody, an appeal may not be taken until the required appeal bond has been filed with and approved by the municipal court. The appeal bond must be filed no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled. If the defendant is in custody, he shall be committed to jail unless he posts the required appeal bond. The appeal bond shall be in an amount not less than double the amount of fine and costs adjudged against the defendant. However, the bond may not in any case be for a less sum than $100. The bond shall recite that in the cause the defendant shall make his personal appearance before the court to which the appeal is taken instantaneously, if the court is in session, and if the court is not in session, then at its next session, and there remain from day to day and answer in the cause.

Record on Appeal

Sec. 12. The record on appeal in a case appealed from the municipal court consists of a transcript and, where necessary to the appeal, a statement of facts.

Contents of Transcript

Sec. 13. (a) The municipal court clerk, upon written request from the defendant, shall prepare under his hand and seal of the court for transcription to the appellate court a true transcript of the proceedings in the municipal court that shall always include the following:

1. the complaint;
2. material docket entries made by the court;
3. the jury charge and verdict, if the trial is by jury;
4. the judgment;
5. the motion for new trial;
6. the notice of appeal;
7. all written motions and pleas and orders of the court; and
8. bills of exception, if any are filed.

(b) The municipal court clerk may include in the transcript additional portions of the proceedings in the municipal court if so instructed in writing by either the defendant or the prosecuting attorney.

Bills of Exception

Sec. 14. Either party may include bills of exception in the transcript on appeal, subject to complying with the applicable provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure governing the preparation of bills of exception and their inclusion in the record on appeal to the Court of Appeals, except that the bills of exception shall be filed with the municipal court clerk within 60 days after the giving or filing of the notice of appeal.

Statement of Facts; Agreed Statement; Designated Items and Payment

Sec. 15. (a) A statement of facts, when included in the record on appeal, shall consist of:

1. a transcription of all or any part of the municipal court proceedings in the case that are shown by the notes of the court reporter to have occurred before, during, or after the trial if such transcription is requested of the court reporter by the defendant; or
2. a brief statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial, as agreed to by the defendant and the prosecuting attorney; or
3. a partial transcription and the agreed statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial.

(b) The court reporter shall transcribe any portion of his notes of the court proceedings in the case at the request of the defendant. The defendant shall pay for the transcription. The cost to the defendant for the transcription shall not exceed the fees or charges normally being made by court reporters in the county for similar transcriptions. The municipal court shall order the court reporter to make the transcriptions without charge to the defendant if the court finds, after hearing in the response to affidavit by the defendant, that he is too poor to pay or give security for the transcriptions.

Filing of Transcript and Statement of Facts; Time Limits: Completion and Approval of Record; Transfer of Record to Clerk of Appellate Court

Sec. 16. (a) Within 60 days of the giving or filing of the notice of appeal, the parties shall file with the municipal court clerk:

1. the statement of facts;
2. a written designation of all matter that is to be included in the transcript in addition to matter required to be in the transcript by Section 13 of this Act; and
3. any matter designated to be included in the transcript that is not then in the custody of the municipal court clerk.

(b) On completing the record as designated by the parties in Subdivision (2), Subsection (a) of this section, the municipal court judge shall approve the record in the manner provided by law for record completion notification and approval in appeals to the Court of Appeals.

(c) On the municipal court judge's approval of the record, the municipal court clerk shall promptly forward it to be filed with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the defendant and the prosecuting attorney that the record has been filed.

Brief on Appeal: Contents and Filing

Sec. 17. (a) A brief on appeal from the municipal court shall present points of error in the same manner required by law for a brief on appeal to the Court of Appeals, except that the points of error on appeal shall be confined to those points of error set forth in the defendant's motion for new trial.

The prosecuting attorney shall file his brief with the of the appellate court within 15 days after the defendant files his briefs with the clerk. Each party, on filing his brief with the clerk of the appellate court, shall cause a true copy of his brief to be delivered to the opposing party.
Procedure on Appeal; Review or Error
Sec. 18. The appellate court shall hear and determines appeals from the municipal court at the earliest practical time it may be done, with due regard to the rights of parties and proper administration of justice, and no affirrnance or reversal of a case shall be determined on mere technicalities or on technical errors in the preparation and filing of the record on appeal. Oral arguments before the appellate court shall be under the rules which the appellate court may determine, and the parties may submit the case on the records and briefs without oral arguments.
Disposition on Appeal; Presumptions; Decision
Sec. 19. (a) The appellate court may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismissed as the nature of the case may require.
(b) The appellate court shall presume (1) that the venue was proven in the court below; (2) that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn; (3) that the defendant was arraigned and that he pleaded to the complaint; and (4) that the court’s charge was certified by the municipal court judge before it was read to the jury; unless such matters were made an issue in the trial court, or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or statement of facts.
(c) In each case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion or order either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overrulled no reason need be given by the appellate court, but cases relied on by the court may be cited.
If an assignment of error is sustained, the appellate court shall set forth the reasons for the decision.
Copies of the decision of the appellate court shall be mailed by the clerk of the appellate court to the parties and the judge of the municipal court as soon as the decision is rendered by the appellate court.
Certificate of Appellate Proceedings; Filing of Record;
Enforcement of Judgment
Sec. 20. When the judgment of the appellate court becomes final, the clerk of the appellate court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and shall mail the certificates to the clerk of the municipal court.

When the certificate is received by the clerk of the municipal court, he shall file it with the papers in the case and note it on the docket. If the judgment has been affirmed, no proceeding need be had after filing the certificate in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except to forfeit the bond of the defendant, to issue a capias for the defendant, or issue an execution against his property.

New Trial
Sec. 21. If the appellate court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as it would have stood if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court.

Appeals to the Court of Appeals; Record
Sec. 22. When a judgment is affirmed by the appellate court, the defendant shall have the right to appeal to the Court of Appeals if the fine ascessed against the defendant in the municipal court exceeded $100. The appeals to the Court of Appeals shall be governed by provisions in the Code of Criminal Procedure relating to direct appeals from county and district courts to the Court of Appeals except that:

(1) the record and briefs on appeal in the appellate court, plus the transcript of proceedings in the appellate court, shall constitute the record and briefs on appeal to the Court of Appeals unless the rules of the Court of Criminal Appeals provide otherwise; and
(2) the record and briefs shall be filed directly with the Court of Appeals.

Conflicting Laws Conformed
Sec. 23. All laws in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby conformed to the provisions of this Act.

Amended by Acts 1981, 67th Leg., p. 764, ch. 591, § 6, eff.
Sept. 1, 1981.]
Art. 1200cc CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

1,200,000 as determined by the last preceding federal census.

(b) Additional municipal courts of record may be created and judges for such courts may be authorized in any city with a population of more than 1,200,000 as determined by the last preceding federal census by action of the governing body of the city through a legally adopted ordinance that specifies that the condition of dockets in the other municipal courts of the city is such as to require additional municipal courts in order to properly dispose of the cases on the dockets of those courts, and that enumerates the number of additional municipal courts necessary to properly dispose of those cases. Municipal courts that are in existence on the effective date of this Act and that were created pursuant to any Article in Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall on such date become municipal courts of record and may, subject to meeting other requirements provided by law for municipal courts, continue their operation under the authority of this Act without passage of such ordinance.

(c) After the establishment of an additional municipal court or courts, if the governing body of the city determines that the continued existence of some or all of the additional municipal courts is not required in order to properly dispose of cases on the dockets of all the municipal courts, the governing body shall by legally adopted ordinance declare the offices of some or all of the additional municipal judges vacated at the end of the term or terms for which such judge or judges were last selected. In that event, any cases pending in a vacated municipal court shall be transferred to the proper court having jurisdiction of the offense.

(d) The presiding judge shall:

(1) maintain a central docket for all cases filed in the geographical limits of the city over which the municipal courts of the city have jurisdiction;

(2) provide for the distribution of cases from the central docket to the individual municipal judge in order that the business of the courts will be continually equalized and distributed among them;

(3) temporarily assign various judges of the municipal courts to exchange benches for other such judges and to sit and act for each other in any case, matter, or proceeding pending in their courts, when necessary for the expeditious disposition of the business of the courts;

(4) cause all dockets, books, papers, and other records of the municipal courts to be permanently kept and permit these records to be available for inspection at all reasonable times by any interested party;

(5) cause to be maintained as part of the records of the municipal courts an index of municipal-court judgments such as county clerks are required by law to prepare for criminal cases arising in county courts;

(6) where necessary for the proper functioning of the municipal courts, provide for the preservation by microfilm of the records under the custody of county clerks; and

(7) supervise and have control over all of the operations and clerical functions of the administrative section or department of such municipal courts and be responsible for the supervision of all clerical personnel of the administrative department of such municipal court.

(e) A judge of a municipal court created under the provisions of this Act shall be a licensed attorney in good standing in this state. No person may serve in the office of municipal judge while he holds any other office or employment in the government of such city, and the holding of such other office or employment by any person serving in the office of municipal judge shall create an immediate vacancy in the judicial office.
 Sec. 4. A municipal judge is entitled to compensation by the city on a salary basis. The amount of the salary shall be determined by the governing body of the city and may not be diminished during the judge's term of office. The salary may not be based, directly or indirectly, on fines, fees, or costs that the municipal judge is required by law to collect during his term of office. The governing body shall predetermine the salary of the municipal judge prior to his appointment, if he is appointed, or at least two weeks prior to the deadline for filing for election, if he is elected.

Vacancies; Temporary Replacements; Removal

Sec. 5. (a) When a vacancy in the office of municipal judge occurs, the governing body of the city shall appoint a person meeting the qualifications required by law for such position to fill the office of municipal judge for the unexpired term of the judge serving in that office prior to the vacancy.

(b) While a municipal judge is temporarily unable to act for any reason, the governing body of the city may appoint a person meeting the qualifications required by law for such position to sit for the regular municipal judge. The appointee shall have all the powers and duties of the office and shall receive the same compensation as is payable to the regular municipal judge while he is so acting.

(c) A municipal judge may be removed from office only under the procedures outlined in Article V, Section 1-8, of the Texas Constitution.

Court Facilities

Sec. 6. The governing body of the city shall provide such courtrooms, juryrooms, offices and office furniture, libraries, legal books and materials, and other supplies and facilities as the governing body determines are necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts.

Appeals; Appellate Courts

Sec. 7. A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment of conviction in the municipal court under the rules prescribed in this Act. The county criminal court of such county where said court is situated shall have jurisdiction over the appeals from the municipal court.

Appeals on the Record; No de Novo Appeals

Sec. 8. Each appeal from a conviction in the municipal court shall be determined by the appellate court solely on the basis of errors pointed out in the defendant's motion for new trial and presented in the transcript and statement of facts prepared from the municipal court proceedings leading to the conviction. No appeal from the municipal court may be by trial de novo.

Sec. 9. In order to perfect an appeal, a written motion for new trial must be filed by the defendant no later than the 10th day after the rendition of the judgment of conviction, and may be amended by leave of court at any time before it is acted on within 20 days after the filing of the original or amended motion. For good cause shown the time for filing or amending may be extended by the court. An original or amended motion shall be deemed overruled by operation of law at the expiration of the 20 days allowed for determination of the motion if it is not acted on by the court within that time. The motion shall set forth the points of error complained of by the defendant. For purposes of appeal, a point of error not distinctly set forth in the motion for new trial shall be considered as waived.

Notice of Appeal

Sec. 10. In order to perfect an appeal, the defendant shall give timely notice of appeal. In the event the defendant requests a hearing on his motion for new trial, the notice of appeal may be given orally in open court upon the overruling of the motion for new trial; otherwise, the notice of appeal shall be in writing and filed with the municipal court no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled.

Appeal Bond

Sec. 11. If the defendant is not in custody, an appeal may not be taken until the required appeal bond has been filed with and approved by the municipal court. The appeal bond must be filed no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled. If the defendant is in custody, he shall be committed to jail unless he posts the required appeal bond. The appeal bond shall be in an amount not less than double the amount of fine and costs adjudged against the defendant. However, the bond may not in any case be for a less sum than $50. The bond shall recite that in the cause the defendant shall make his personal appearance before the court to which the appeal is taken instantly, if the court is in session, and if the court is not in session, then at its next session, and there remain from day to day and answer in the cause.

Record on Appeal

Sec. 12. The record on appeal in a case appealed from the municipal court consists of a transcript and, where necessary to the appeal, a statement of facts, which may be prepared by a certified court reporter of such court or from mechanical recordings of the proceedings or from video-tape recordings of the proceedings. If the court finds, after hearing in response to affidavit by defendant that he is unable to pay or give security for the record on appeal, the court will order the reporter to make such transcription without charge to the defendant.
bills of exception and their inclusion in the record on appeal, court proceedings, in the case, as provided from the mechanical recordings or video-tape recordings of said proceedings.

appeal to the Criminal Procedure governing the preparation of in, that are shown by the notes of the court reporter

ing with the applicable provisions of the ment of the facts of the case proven at the trial; or the record on appeal, shall consist of:

(a) a transcription of all or any part of the municipal court proceedings in the municipal court that shall include the following:

(1) the complaint;
(2) material docket entries made by the court;
(3) the jury charge and verdict, if the trial is by jury;
(4) the judgment;
(5) the motion for new trial;
(6) the notice of appeal;
(7) all written motions and pleas and orders of the court; and
(8) bills of exception, if any are filed.

(b) The municipal court clerk may include in the transcript additional portions of the proceedings in the municipal court prepared from mechanical recordings or video-tape recordings of the proceedings.

Bills of Exception

Sec. 14. Either party may include bills of exception in the transcript on appeal, subject to complying with the applicable provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure governing the preparation of bills of exception and their inclusion in the record on appeal to the Court of Appeals, except that the bills of exception shall be filed with the municipal court clerk within 60 days after the giving or filing of the notice of appeal.

Statement of Facts: Agreed Statement; Designated Items and Payment

Sec. 15. A statement of facts, when included in the record on appeal, shall consist of:

(a) a transcription of all or any part of the municipal court proceedings, in the case, as provided herein, that are shown by the notes of the court reporter to have occurred before, during, or after the trial if such transcription is requested of the court reporter by the defendant; or

(b) a brief statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial, as agreed to by the defendant and the prosecuting attorney; or

(c) a partial transcription and the agreed statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial; or

(d) a transcription of all or any part of the municipal court proceedings in the case that are prepared from the mechanical recordings or video-tape recordings of said proceedings.

Filing of Transcript and Statement of Facts; Time Limits; Completion and Approval of Record; Transfer of Record to Clerk of Appellate Court

Sec. 16. (a) Within 60 days of the giving or filing of the notice of appeal, the parties shall file with the municipal court clerk:

(1) the statement of facts;
(2) a written designation of all matter that is to be included in the transcript in addition to matter required to be in the transcript by Section 13 of this Act; and
(3) any matter designated to be included in the transcript that is not then in the custody of the municipal court clerk.

(b) On completing the record as designated by the parties in Subdivision (2), Subsection (a) of this section, the municipal court judge shall approve the record in the manner provided by law for record completion notification and approval in appeals to the Court of Appeals.

(c) On the municipal court judge's approval of the record, the municipal court clerk shall promptly forward it to be filed with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the defendant and the prosecuting attorney that the record has been filed.

Brief on Appeal: Contents and Filing

Sec. 17. (a) A brief on appeal from the municipal court shall present points of error in the same manner required by law for a brief on appeal to the Court of Appeals.

(b) The defendant shall file his brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days from the date of the filing of the transcript and statement of facts with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the prosecuting attorney of the filing. The prosecuting attorney shall file his brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days after the defendant files his brief with the clerk. Each party, on filing his brief with the clerk of the appellate court, shall cause a true copy of his brief to be delivered to the opposing party.

Disposition on Appeal: Presumptions; Decision

Sec. 18. (a) The appellate court may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss the case, or may reform or correct the judgment, as the law and the nature of the case may require.

(b) The appellate court shall presume (1) that the venue was proven in the court below; (2) that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn; (3) that the defendant was arraigned and that he pleaded to the complaint; and (4) that the court's charge was certified by the municipal court judge before it was read to the jury; unless such matters were made an issue in the trial court, or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or statement of facts.
(c) In each case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion or order either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overruled no reason need be given by the appellate court, but cases relied on by the court may be cited. If an assignment of error is sustained, the appellate court shall set forth the reasons for the decision. Copies of the decision of the appellate court shall be mailed by the clerk of the appellate court to the parties and the judge of the municipal court as soon as the decision is rendered by the appellate court.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings; Filing of Record; Enforcement of Judgment

Sec. 19. When the judgment of the appellate court becomes final, the clerk of the appellate court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and shall mail the certificates to the clerk of the municipal court. When the certificate is received by the clerk of the municipal court, he shall file it with the papers in the case and note it on the docket. If the judgment has been affirmed, no proceeding need be had after filing the certificate in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except to forfeit the bond of the defendant, to issue a capias for the defendant, or issue an execution against his property.

New Trial

Sec. 20. If the appellate court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as it would have stood if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court.

Appeals to the Court of Appeals; Record

Sec. 21. When a judgment is affirmed by the appellate court, the defendant shall have the right to appeal to the Court of Appeals if the fine assessed against the defendant in the municipal court exceeded $100. The appeals to the Court of Appeals shall be governed by provisions in the Code of Criminal Procedure relating to direct appeals from county and district courts to the Court of Appeals except that:

(1) the record and briefs on appeal in the appellate court, plus the transcript of proceedings in the appellate court, shall constitute the record and briefs on appeal to the Court of Appeals unless the rules of the Court of Criminal Appeals provide otherwise; and

(2) the record and briefs shall be filed directly with the Court of Appeals.

Court Personnel

Sec. 22. (a) Each municipal judge in his discretion is authorized to appoint a court reporter to transcribe the trial proceedings, including testimony, voir dire examination, objections, and final arguments and shall appoint a court reporter when the defendant or the state requests it prior to trial.

Each reporter shall be a sworn officer of the court when transcribing testimony and shall be well skilled in his profession. Each reporter shall be compensated by the city in such manner as the governing body of the city shall determine.

(b) It shall be the duty of the clerk to perform such clerical duties, insofar as they are applicable, as are prescribed by law for the municipal judge and for the county clerk of a county court at law.

(c) The governing body of the city shall provide the municipal courts with such other municipal court personnel as the governing body determines is necessary for the proper operation of the court. Such personnel shall perform their duties under the direction and control of the municipal judge to whom assigned. The governing body shall determine the salaries of such personnel.

Seal

Sec. 23. The governing body of the city shall provide each municipal court with a seal with a star of five points in the center and the words "Municipal Court in , Texas." The impress of the seal shall be attached to all papers, except subpoenas, issued out of the court and shall be used by each municipal judge or his clerk to authenticate all official acts of the clerk and the municipal judge.

Effective Date

Sec. 24. This Act is effective beginning January 1, 1976.

Repealer

Sec. 25. To the extent that any local, special, or general law, including Acts of the 64th Legislature, Regular Session, 1975, conflicts with any provision of this Act, that law is repealed.

Section 2 of the 1977 amendatory act provided: "All acts or charter provisions in conflict herewith are expressly repealed."

Section 149 of the 1981 amendatory act provides: "This Act takes effect on September 1, 1981. Appeals to the courts of appeals filed on or after that date shall be filed in the court of appeals having jurisdiction. At least 1,200 appeals including death penalty appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals prior to September 1, 1981, shall be retained by that court for disposition in accordance with laws in effect prior to the effective date of this Act, and for that purpose, all laws repealed or amended by this Act shall remain in force and effect for those appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals. The remaining appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals shall be transferred to the various courts of appeals on which the number of judges is increased by the 67th Session of the legislature; provided, no more than 75 nondeath penalty appeals shall be transferred for each newly created judgeship and such a transfer shall not be made until such justice assumes office."

Art. 1200dd. Sweetwater

Creation; Formation by Ordinance

Sec. 1. There is created in the city of Sweetwater a court of record to be known as the "City of Art. 1200dd

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Sweetwater Municipal Court," to be held in that city if the governing body of the city of Sweetwater, by ordinance, finds and determines that the formation of a municipal court of record is necessary in order to provide a more efficient disposition of appeals arising from the municipal court.

The authority of the governing body of the city of Sweetwater to create a municipal court of record in the city of Sweetwater includes the authority to establish, in the manner set forth in this section, more than one municipal court of record if the governing body determines that it is necessary in order to dispose of the cases arising in the city. If more than one municipal court of record is created, the judges of the municipal courts may at any time exchange benches and sit and act for and with each other in a case, matter, or proceeding pending in a municipal court, and any and all acts thus performed by a judge are valid and binding on all parties to the case, matter, and proceeding.

The municipal court of record authorized in this section is referred to in this Act as the "municipal court."

Application of Other Laws Regarding Municipal Courts

Sec. 2. The general laws of the state regarding municipal courts, and regarding justice courts on matters where there is no law for municipal courts, and the valid charter provisions and ordinances of the city of Sweetwater relating to the municipal court apply to the municipal court authorized in this Act, unless the laws, charter provisions, and ordinances are in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

Judge; Qualifications

Sec. 3. The municipal court shall be presided over by a judge, who shall be a licensed attorney in good standing in this state and a citizen of the United States and of this state. He need not be a resident of the city at the time of his appointment, but he shall maintain his residence in the city during his tenure of office. He shall be appointed by the governing body of the city. He shall be paid a salary to be determined by the governing body of the city. The salary shall not be based on or in any way contingent on the fines, fees, or costs collected by the municipal court.

If more than one municipal court is created by the governing body of the city, a judge shall be appointed for each court and the governing body of the city shall designate a judge to be the presiding judge.

Court Clerk

Sec. 4. The governing body of the city shall provide a clerk of the municipal courts, and such deputy clerks, warrant officers, and other municipal court personnel, including at least one bailiff for each court, as are necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts. It is the duty of the clerk to keep the records of proceedings of the municipal courts and to issue all processes and generally to perform the duties now prescribed by law for clerks of the county courts at law exercising criminal jurisdiction insofar as the same may be applicable. The clerk of the municipal courts and all other personnel shall perform the duties of the office under the direction and control of the municipal court judge.

Court Reporter

Sec. 5. For the purpose of preserving a record in the cases tried before the municipal court, the city shall provide a court reporter, who shall be appointed by the municipal court judge and whose compensation shall be determined by the governing body of the city. The qualifications of the court reporter shall be determined by the judge, or if there is more than one judge, by the presiding judge.

The record of proceedings may be preserved by the court reporter by written notes, transcribing equipment, recording equipment, or any combination of them. The court reporter is not required to take testimony in cases where neither the defendant, the prosecutor, nor the judge demands it.

Ordinances; Judicial Notice

Sec. 6. The municipal court shall take judicial notice of the ordinances of the city.

Appeal; Appellate Courts

Sec. 7. A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment of conviction in the municipal court under the rules prescribed in this Act. The County Court of Nolan County has jurisdiction over the appeals from the municipal court.

Appeals on the Record; No de Novo Appeals

Sec. 8. Each appeal from a conviction in the municipal court shall be determined by the appellate court solely on the basis of errors pointed out in the defendant's motion for new trial and presented in the transcript and statement of facts prepared from the municipal court proceedings leading to the conviction. No appeal from the municipal court may be by trial de novo.

Motion for New Trial

Sec. 9. In order to perfect an appeal, a written motion for new trial must be filed by the defendant no later than the 10th day after the rendition of the judgment of conviction, and may be amended by leave of court at any time before it is acted on within 20 days after it is filed. The motion for new trial shall be presented to the court within 10 days after the filing of the original or amended motion, and shall be determined by the court within 20 days after the filing of the original or amended motion. For good cause shown the time for filing or amending may be extended by the court. An original or amended motion shall be deemed overruled by operation of law at the expiration of the 20 days allowed for determination of the motion if it is not acted on by the court within that time. The motion shall set forth the points of error complained of by the defendant. For purposes of appeal, a point of error not distinctly set forth in the motion for new trial shall be considered as waived.

Notice of Appeal
Sec. 10. In order to perfect an appeal, the defendant shall give timely notice of appeal. In the event the defendant requests a hearing on his motion for new trial, the notice of appeal may be given orally in open court upon the overruling of the motion for new trial; otherwise, the notice of appeal shall be in writing and filed with the municipal court no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled.

Appeal Bond
Sec. 11. If the defendant is not in custody, an appeal may not be taken until the required appeal bond has been filed with and approved by the municipal court. The appeal bond must be filed no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled. If the defendant is in custody, he shall be committed to jail unless he posts the required appeal bond. The appeal bond shall be in an amount not less than double the amount of fine and costs adjudged against the defendant. However, the bond may not in any case be for a less sum than $100. The bond shall recite that in the cause the defendant shall make his personal appearance before the court to which the appeal is taken instantly, if the court is in session, and if the court is not in session, then at its next session, and there remain from day to day and answer in the cause.

Record on Appeal
Sec. 12. The record on appeal in a case appealed from the municipal court consists of a transcript and, where necessary to the appeal, a statement of facts. If the court finds, after hearing in response to affidavit by defendant that he is unable to pay or give security for the transcript, the court will order the reporter to make such transcription without charge to the defendant.

Contents of Transcript
Sec. 13. (a) The municipal court clerk, upon written request from the defendant, shall prepare under his hand and seal of the court for transmission to the appellate court a true transcript of the proceedings in the municipal court that shall always include the following:

(1) the complaint;
(2) material docket entries made by the court;
(3) the jury charge and verdict, if the trial is by jury;
(4) the judgment;
(5) the motion for new trial;
(6) the notice of appeal;
(7) all written motions and pleas and orders of the court; and
(8) bills of exception, if any are filed.
(b) The municipal court clerk may include in the transcript additional portions of the proceedings in the municipal court if so instructed in writing by either the defendant or the prosecuting attorney.

Bills of Exception
Sec. 14. Either party may include bills of exception in the transcript on appeal, subject to complying with the applicable provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure governing the preparation of bills of exception and their inclusion in the record on appeal to the Court of Appeals, except that the bills of exception shall be filed with the municipal court clerk within 60 days after the giving or filing of the notice of appeal.

Statements of Facts; Agreed Statement; Designated Items and Payment
Sec. 15. (a) A statement of facts, when included in the record on appeal, shall consist of:

(1) a transcription of all or any part of the municipal court proceedings in the case that are shown by the notes of the court reporter to have occurred before, during, or after the trial if such transcription is requested of the court reporter by the defendant; or
(2) a brief statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial, as agreed to by the defendant and the prosecuting attorney; or
(3) a partial transcription and the agreed statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial.
(b) The court reporter shall transcribe any portion of his notes of the court proceedings in the case at the request of the defendant. The defendant shall pay for the transcription. The cost to the defendant for the transcription shall not exceed the fees or charges normally being made by court reporters in the county for similar transcriptions. The municipal court shall order the court reporter to make the transcriptions without charge to the defendant if the court finds, after hearing in the response to affidavit by the defendant, that he is too poor to pay or give security for the transcriptions.

Filing of Transcript and Statement of Facts; Time Limits; Completion and Approval of Record; Transfer of Record to Clerk of Appellate Court
Sec. 16. (a) Within 60 days of the giving or filing of the notice of appeal, the parties shall file with the municipal court clerk:

(1) the statement of facts;
(2) a written designation of all matter that is to be included in the transcript in addition to matter required to be in the transcript by Section 13 of this Act; and

(3) any matter designated to be included in the transcript that is not then in the custody of the municipal court clerk.

(b) On completing the record as designated by the parties in Subdivision (2), Subsection (a) of this section, the municipal court judge shall approve the record in the manner provided by law for record completion notification and approval in appeals to the Court of Appeals.

(c) On the municipal court judge's approval of the record, the municipal court clerk shall promptly forward it to be filed with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the defendant and the prosecuting attorney that the record has been filed.

Brief on Appeal: Contents and Filing
Sec. 17. (a) A brief on appeal from the municipal court shall present points of error in the same manner required by law for a brief on appeal to the Court of Appeals, except that the points of error on appeal shall be confined to those points of error set forth in the defendant's motion for new trial.

(b) The defendant shall file his brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days from the date of the filing of the transcript and statement of facts with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the prosecuting attorney of the filing. The prosecuting attorney shall file his brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days after the defendant files his briefs with the clerk. Each party, on filing his brief with the clerk of the appellate court, shall cause a true copy of his brief to be delivered to the opposing party.

Procedure on Appeal: Review or Error
Sec. 18. The appellate court shall hear and determine appeals from the municipal court at the earliest practical time it may be done, with due regard to the rights of parties and proper administration of justice, and no affirmance or reversal of a case shall be determined on mere technicalities or on technical errors in the preparation and filing of the record on appeal. Oral arguments before the appellate court shall be under the rules which the appellate court may determine, and the parties may submit the case on the records and briefs without oral arguments.

Disposition on Appeal; Presumptions; Decision
Sec. 19. (a) The appellate court may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss the case, or may reform or correct the judgment, as the law and the nature of the case may require.

(b) The appellate court shall presume (1) that the venue was proven in the court below; (2) that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn; (3) that the defendant was arraigned and that he pleaded to the complaint; and (4) that the court's charge was certified by the municipal court judge before it was read to the jury; unless such matters were made an issue in the trial court, or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or statement of facts.

(c) In each case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion or order either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overruled no reason need be given by the appellate court, but cases relied on by the court may be cited. If an assignment of error is sustained, the appellate court shall set forth the reasons for the decision. Copies of the decision of the appellate court shall be mailed by the clerk of the appellate court to the parties and the judge of the municipal court as soon as the decision is rendered by the appellate court.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings; Filing of Record; Enforcement of Judgment
Sec. 20. When the judgment of the appellate court becomes final, the clerk of the appellate court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and shall mail the certificates to the clerk of the municipal court. When the certificate is received by the clerk of the municipal court, he shall file it with the papers in the case and note it on the docket. If the judgment has been affirmed, no proceeding need be had after filling the certificate in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except to forfeit the bond of the defendant, to issue a capias for the defendant, or issue an execution against his property.

New Trial
Sec. 21. If the appellate court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as it would have stood if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court.

Appeals to the Court of Appeals; Record
Sec. 22. When a judgment is affirmed by the appellate court, the defendant shall have the right to appeal to the Court of Appeals if the fine assessed against the defendant in the municipal court exceeded $100. The appeals to the Court of Appeals shall be governed by provisions in the Code of Criminal Procedure relating to direct appeals from county and district courts to the Court of Appeals except that:

(1) the record and briefs on appeal in the appellate court, plus the transcript of proceedings in the appellate court, shall constitute the record and briefs on appeal to the Court of Appeals unless the rules of the Court of Criminal Appeals provide otherwise; and

(2) the record and briefs shall be filed directly with the Court of Appeals.
Conflicting Laws Conformed

Sec. 23. All laws in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby conformed to the provisions of this Act.

Section 149 of the 1981 amendatory act provides:

"This Act takes effect on September 1, 1981. Appeals to the courts of appeals filed on or after that date shall be filed in the court of appeals having jurisdiction. At least 1,800 appeals including death penalty appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals prior to September 1, 1981, shall be retained by that court for disposition in accordance with the provisions of this Act. The remaining appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals shall be transferred to the various courts of appeals on which the number of judges increased by the 67th Session of the legislature; provided, no more than 75 non-death penalty appeals shall be transferred for each newly created judgeship and such a transfer shall not be made until such justice assumes office."

Art. 1200ee. El Paso

Establishment of Municipal Courts

Sec. 1. The city of El Paso may, by ordinance legally adopted, provide for the establishment of municipal courts as needed. The judges of the additional courts shall have the same qualifications, and be selected in the same manner, as is provided for the judges of the existing municipal courts in the charter of the city, or as may be provided in any future charter or charter amendment. If the charter of the city requires the election of the judge by vote of the people, the governing body may designate a person as judge of each newly created court until the next regular city election. The courts may be in concurrent or continuous session, either day or night.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. Each municipal court shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction within the corporate limits of the city, and the jurisdiction shall be the same as is now or may be hereafter conferred on all municipal courts by the general laws of this state.

Administration

Sec. 3. Except as otherwise provided by the charter of the city, the governing body of the city may provide by ordinance:

(1) the qualifications of persons eligible for appointment as judge;

(2) that a judge of any of these courts may transfer cases from one court to any other of these courts and may exchange benches and preside over any other of these courts;

(3) that there shall be a municipal court clerk who is clerk of all of the municipal courts, together with such number of deputies as may be needed; and

(4) that complaints shall be filed with the municipal court clerk in a manner to provide for an equal distribution of cases among the courts.

Procedures

Sec. 4. Except as modified by the terms of this Act, the procedure before the courts and appeals therefrom shall be governed by the general law applicable to all municipal courts.

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the El Paso Courts Act.

Appellate Court

Sec. 1.02. A reference in this Act to "appellate court" means the El Paso Municipal Court of Appeals.

Municipal Court

Sec. 1.03. A reference in this Act to a "municipal court" means a municipal court of record of the City of El Paso.

Duties of Judges

Sec. 1.04. The judge of the appellate court and the municipal judge of the municipal courts are authorized to conduct marriage ceremonies in the City of El Paso.

ARTICLE II. MUNICIPAL COURTS OF RECORD

Creation

Sec. 2.01. The governing body of the City of El Paso may by ordinance establish the city's existing municipal courts as municipal courts of record in accordance with this Act. The governing body may by ordinance create additional courts as it deems necessary, but each subsequent court must be a municipal court of record.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2.02. (a) A municipal court of record created under this Act has jurisdiction within the territorial limits of the city in all criminal cases arising under the ordinances of the city.

(b) The court has concurrent jurisdiction with a justice of the peace in any precinct in which the city is located in criminal cases within the justice court jurisdiction that:
Art. 1200ee-2 CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

(1) arise within the territorial limits of the city; and
(2) are punishable only by fine not to exceed $200.

e) The court has jurisdiction over cases arising outside the territorial limits of the city under ordinances authorized by Subdivision 19, Article 1175, Revised Statutes.

Writ Power

Sec. 2.03. The judge of a municipal court of record created under this Act may grant writs of mandamus, injunction, attachment, and other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court and may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases in which the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court.

Application of Other Laws Regarding Municipal Courts

Sec. 2.04. The general law regarding municipal courts and justice courts and the valid charter provisions and ordinances of the City of El Paso relating to the municipal courts of record apply to a municipal court created under this Act, unless the law, charter provision, or ordinance is in conflict or inconsistent with this Act. Except as modified by this Act, the trial of a case before a municipal court is governed by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965.

Judges

Sec. 2.05. (a) A municipal court of record created under this Act shall be presided over by a municipal judge and one or more associate municipal judges. A municipal judge or an associate municipal judge must be a licensed attorney in good standing with two or more years of experience in the practice of law in this state and who is a citizen of this state.

(b) A municipal judge is elected by the qualified voters of the city for a term of two years, unless the city by charter amendment provides for a four-year term as provided by Article XI, Section 11, of the Texas Constitution.

c) A vacancy in the office of a municipal judge shall be filled by appointment of the governing body of the city, and the person appointed serves until the next regular municipal election, at which time his successor shall be elected. An appointee may succeed himself.

d) Each associate municipal judge shall be appointed by the governing body of the city for a two-year term.

e) The municipal judges shall select by a majority vote of those judges a presiding judge of the municipal courts of record.

(f) The presiding municipal judge of the municipal courts of record may, when necessary for the expeditious disposition of the business of the courts and with the approval of the governing body of the city, divide a municipal court of record into one or more divisions. A division shall be presided over by an associate municipal judge. A division has concurrent jurisdiction with the other divisions and municipal courts of record. Divisions of the municipal courts of record may be in concurrent and continuous session, either day or night, at the discretion of the presiding municipal judge. The presiding municipal judge may assign and transfer any case pending in any of the courts or divisions to any other of the courts or divisions. The presiding judge may direct the manner in which cases are filed and docketed. He may assign a case or proceeding pending in any of the courts to the judge of another court or division. He may assign the judge of any of the courts or divisions to try a case or hear a proceeding pending in another court or division.

(g) A municipal judge or an associated municipal judge is entitled to compensation from the city to be set by the governing body of the city. The compensation may not be diminished but may be increased during a judge’s term of office. The compensation may not be based directly or indirectly on fines, fees, or costs that the municipal judge is required by law to collect during his term of office. The salary of the presiding judge must be set at an amount that is at least 20 percent more than the salary of the regular municipal judges.

(h) A municipal judge or an associate municipal judge may not be removed from office during the term for which he was elected or appointed except for cause to the same extent and under the same rules that the county judge may be removed from office.

(i) The municipal judges or associated municipal judges may at any time exchange benches and may at any time sit and act for or with each other in any case, matter, or proceeding pending in any court or division. An act performed by a judge sitting for another judge is valid and binding on all parties to the case, matter, or proceeding.

(j) A municipal judge or an associate municipal judge shall take the oath of office as required of city officials.

(k) A municipal judge or an associate municipal judge is a magistrate as that term is defined by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965.

Court Clerk

Sec. 2.06. The governing body of the city shall provide a clerk of the municipal courts of record, deputy clerks, and other municipal court personnel, including at least one bailiff for each court, as necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts. The clerk shall keep the records of proceedings of the municipal courts, issue all processes, and perform the duties prescribed by law for clerks of the county courts at law exercising criminal jurisdiction to the extent that law applies. The clerk of the municipal courts of record and other personnel shall perform the duties of their office under the direction and control of the presiding municipal judge.

Court Reporter; Use of Transcripts
Sec. 2.07. (a) To preserve a record in cases tried before the municipal courts of record, the city shall provide a court reporter. The governing body of the city shall determine the qualifications and compensation of the court reporter.

(b) The court reporter may preserve the record of proceedings by written notes, transcribing equipment, recording equipment, or any combination of those methods. The court reporter is not required to take or record testimony in cases in which the defendant, the prosecutor, or the judge does not demand it.

(c) Testimony, exhibits, and evidence given by a witness in a proceeding in a municipal court of record are solely for the purposes of the proceeding or appeal from the proceeding, and in any other civil proceeding, evidence relating to the testimony, exhibits, evidence, or reproductions of testimony, exhibits, or evidence is privileged and not admissible except for impeachment purposes.

Prosecutions by City Attorney
Sec. 2.08. The city attorney or his assistant shall conduct all prosecutions in the municipal courts.

Complaint; Form
Sec. 2.09. (a) Proceedings in municipal courts must be commenced by a complaint that begins: “In the name and by authority of the State of Texas,” and concludes: “Against the peace and dignity of the State of Texas.” Complaints before the municipal courts of record may be signed by any credible person on information and belief sworn to before an officer authorized to administer oaths or before a municipal judge, an associate municipal judge, the city attorney, an assistant city attorney, the clerk of the court, or any deputy clerk, each of whom, for that purpose, has authority to administer the oath.

The complaint must be in writing and is sufficient if it contains the following:

(1) the name of the accused, if known, and if unknown, a description of the accused, as accurate as practicable;

(2) the offense with which the accused is charged in plain and intelligible words;

(3) a statement that the place where the offense is charged to have been committed is within the jurisdiction of the municipal courts of record; and

(4) a statement showing that the offense is not barred by limitations.

(b) All pleadings in the municipal courts of record must be in writing and filed with the clerk of the courts.
or appointment. The judge of the appellate court must be a citizen of the United States and of this state who has served as a practicing attorney of this state for at least five years immediately preceding his election or appointment.

(c) A vacancy in the appellate court shall be filled by appointment by the governing body of the city, The appointee serves until the next regular municipal election, and at that election the vacancy for the unexpired or full term shall be filled by election by the qualified voters of the city.

The appointee shall take the oath of office required for a municipal judge.

An appointed or elected judge of the appellate court may not be removed from office except in the same manner and for the same causes as provided by law for county judges and as provided by Article V, Section 1-a, of the Texas Constitution.

(a) The judge of the appellate court is entitled to compensation from the city as set by the governing body of the city. The judge's compensation may not be diminished but may be increased during his term of office.

(f) The City of El Paso shall provide the appellate court with necessary clerical help. The judge of the appellate court and the city may agree that the judge of the appellate court will provide for his own clerical help, and in that event the judge is entitled to additional reasonable compensation as agreed on with the city.

Seal

Sec. 3.06. The seal of the appellate court shall be the same as that provided by law for municipal courts, except that the seal shall contain the words “Municipal Court of Appeals of the City of El Paso,” and the seal shall be judicially noticed.

Special Appellate Judge

Sec. 3.07. (a) If the judge of the appellate court is unable to act, the governing body of the city may appoint a person or the appellant and the city attorney, in a particular case, may agree on a person to serve as the special appellate court judge. The special appellate court judge has the powers and duties of the office and is entitled to receive the same compensation as is payable to the regular appellate court judge for serving as a special appellate court judge.

(b) A municipal judge or associate municipal judge may not be appointed or selected as a special appellate court judge.

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d) of this section, an appointment of a special appellate court judge automatically terminates when the regular appellate court judge returns to duty.

(d) If a judge of the appellate court is disqualified from hearing a particular case, the governing body of the city may appoint a person or the appellant and the city attorney may agree on a person to serve as the special appellate court judge. A special appellate court judge appointed or selected under this subsection is entitled to receive the same daily compensation as is payable to the regular appellate court judge for each day he works on the case he was appointed or selected to hear. An appointment automatically terminates at the time

ARTICLE III. MUNICIPAL COURT OF APPEALS

Creation

Sec. 3.01. The El Paso Municipal Court of Appeals is created on the date determined by Section 4.02 of this Act.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 3.02. (a) The appellate court has exclusive jurisdiction over all appeals from the municipal courts of record of the City of El Paso. The county courts at law of El Paso County have no jurisdiction over appeals from municipal courts.

(b) The appellate court and the judge of that court have the power in criminal law matters to issue to the municipal courts and judges of those courts the writs of mandamus, procedendo, prohibition, injunctions, and other writs necessary to protect the appellate court's jurisdiction or enforce its judgments.

(c) The appellate court has the power on affidavit or otherwise to ascertain matters of fact necessary to the exercise of its jurisdiction.

(d) The judge of the appellate court is a magistrate within the meaning of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965.

Term of Court

Sec. 3.03. The appellate court may sit for the transaction of business at any time during the year and each term begins and ends with the calendar year. The appellate court may use the city council chambers or other appropriate location as its courtroom for argument of cases and other court matters.

Appellate Court Clerk

Sec. 3.04. In addition to his other duties, the city clerk serves as the clerk of the appellate court.

Judge

Sec. 3.05. (a) The judge of the appellate court shall be elected by the qualified voters of the city for a term of two years, unless the city by charter amendment provides for a four-year term as provided by Article XI, Section 11, of the Texas Constitution. The judge of the appellate court must be a citizen of the United States and of this state who has been a practicing attorney of the state for at least five years immediately preceding his election or appointment.

(b) A vacancy in the appellate court shall be filled by appointment by the governing body of the city.
the mandate or mandates issue in the case he was appointed to hear.

(c) A special appellate court judge must have the qualifications required of the regular appellate court judge and shall, before he begins serving as a special appellate court judge, take the oath of office required for a municipal judge.

Rules

Sec. 3.08. The judge of the appellate court may make and publish rules of appellate procedure as to criminal appeals and matters related to those appeals not inconsistent with this Act or law.

New Trial

Sec. 3.09. (a) A motion for a new trial is not necessary to authorize an appeal.

(b) If a motion for new trial is made, it must be filed not later than the 10th day after the date of the rendition of the judgment of conviction.

(c) One or more amended motions for new trial may be filed without leave of court before any preceding motion for new trial filed by the movant is overruled if the motion is filed not later than 15 days after the date of the rendition of the judgment of conviction.

(d) If an original or amended motion for new trial is not determined by written order signed not later than 20 days after the date of the rendition of the judgment of conviction, the motion is overruled by operation of law.

Right of Appeal

Sec. 3.10. A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment of conviction in the municipal court under the rules prescribed in this Act. The El Paso Municipal Court of Appeals has jurisdiction over appeals from the municipal courts, and all appeals from convictions in the municipal court must be prosecuted in the appellate court, the court of appeals, or the court of criminal appeals by the city attorney or his assistants.

No De Novo Appeals

Sec. 3.11. An appeal from the municipal court may not be taken to a trial de novo in the appellate court.

Perfecting Appeal

Sec. 3.12. (a) A defendant, as a condition of perfecting an appeal to the appellate court, must file an appeal bond, unless the defendant is in custody. An appeal may be perfected by timely filing with the municipal court clerk an appeal bond that meets the requirements of this Act. It is not necessary to file a notice of appeal. If the defendant is in custody, the appeal is perfected when notice of appeal is given as provided by Article 44.08, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965.

(b) At the same time the defendant files the appeal bond, the defendant shall pay to the clerk of the municipal court a $25 appellate court docket fee. The clerk collects the fee on behalf of the appellate court.

(c) The appeal bond must be filed not later than the 10th day after overruling of the motion or amended motion for new trial, or if there is no motion or amended motion for new trial, not later than the 10th day after the rendition of the judgment of conviction.

(d) For good cause shown, not later than the 100th day after the date of rendition of the judgment of conviction, the appellate court or the court of appeals may permit the filing of an appeal bond or the giving of notice of appeal in the municipal court even though the time limits set under this section have expired.

(e) Except for the limitation contained in Subsection (d) of this section, for good cause shown, the appellate court may extend any time limits set in this Act for the appellate process.

(f) In a case in which an appellant or the prosecutor files a motion in the appellate court, the opposite party shall be given an opportunity to answer the motion under time limits and conditions set by the appellate court rules.

(g) The appellate court shall waive the $25 appellate court docket fee if the appellate court finds after hearing that the defendant is unable to pay the fee. The defendant must file and personally sign an affidavit that he is unable to pay. The defendant must file the affidavit not later than the 10th day after the record on appeal is filed in the appellate court. The affidavit of inability to pay must contain reasonable information as the appellate court may require by rules. The prosecutor may controvert, under time limits and conditions set by the appellate court rules, the affidavit of inability to pay the docket fee and may call the appellant as a witness on that issue.

Appeal Bonds and Forfeitures

Sec. 3.13. (a) If the defendant is not in custody, an appeal is not perfected unless an appeal bond is filed within the time limits set under Section 3.12 of this Act or any extension of a time limit as provided by Section 3.12 of this Act. The trial court has no jurisdiction to grant extensions of any time limits set by this Act.

(b) The appeal bond must be set in an amount that is at least $50, but not more than double the amount of the fine and costs adjudged against the defendant.

(c) The appeal bond is sufficient if:

(1) it is made payable to the State of Texas;

(2) the defendant and his sureties bind themselves that the defendant will appear before any court or magistrate before whom the case is pending at any time and place where his presence may be required under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, or by the court or magistrate;

(3) the bond is signed by name or mark by the principal personally and the sureties, if any;

(4) the defendant’s name and full residential mailing address and the name and residence or business mailing address of the sureties, if any, are printed or typed legibly on the appeal bond; and

(5) it meets the requirements of a bail bond under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, except as otherwise provided in this Act.

(d) The rules governing forfeitures of bail govern appeal bonds. The forfeitures and collection of the appeal bonds are in the municipal court and not in the appellate court. The municipal court clerk shall issue citation in appeal bond forfeiture cases under rules that govern citation in the county court. The clerk shall charge the same court costs as are charged in county court for bond forfeitures.

(e) Appeal bonds payable to the State of Texas and costs in connection with the appeal bond forfeiture that are collected in the municipal court shall be paid into the municipal treasury of the city for the use and benefit of the city.

(f) The city attorney or his assistant shall represent the state in all appeal bond forfeiture cases in municipal court and the municipal court has jurisdiction over matters in connection with appeal bond forfeitures taken in a municipal court.

Effect of Appeal

Sec. 3.14. On the filing of the appeal bond in the municipal court, all further proceedings in the trial court, except as to any matter ordered to be heard by the appellate court in the trial court, and the transmission of the record on appeal to the appellate court, are suspended until the mandate of the appellate court is received by the trial court.

Record on Appeal

Sec. 3.15. (a) All original papers, orders, and exhibits filed in the municipal court, the transcript of proceedings or statement of facts, if any, a copy of the judgment of conviction, the appeal bond or notice of appeal, and a certificate from the municipal court clerk as to whether the appellate court docket fee was paid constitute the record on appeal.

(b) On the filing of the appeal bond or notice of appeal, the municipal court clerk shall immediately prepare the record on appeal under his hand and seal of the court. The record on appeal shall be assembled and its pages shall be numbered consecutively. The municipal court clerk shall prepare an index showing the location of each document in the record on appeal. In making the record on appeal all proceedings shall be entered in the order of time in which they occurred, except that any statement of fact shall be contained in a separate volume.
Bill of Exception

Sec. 3.18. A party desiring to have the record disclose some action, testimony, evidence proceeding, objection, exception, or other event or occurrence not otherwise shown by the record may utilize a bill of exception under time limits and conditions set by the appellate court rules. Subsections (b), (c), and (d), Section 6, Article 40.09, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, govern bills of exception and statements of fact in the municipal court and appellate court. The appellate court may order the trial court to:

1. hear any matter in connection with a bill of exception under time limits and conditions the appellate court considers just; and

2. forward the matter to the appellate court for inclusion in the record on appeal.

Agreed Statement

Sec. 3.19. The parties may agree on a brief statement of the case and of the facts proven or the evidence presented at the trial to the truth of fact as will enable the appellate court to determine whether there is error in the trial. The agreed statement shall be filed with the appellate court in lieu of the statement of facts.

Docketing of Appeal

Sec. 3.20. (a) On receipt of the appeal bond and record on appeal, transmitted by the municipal court clerk pursuant to Section 3.16 of this Act, the clerk of the appellate court shall enter the appeal on the appellate docket.

(b) The appellate court shall examine all appeal bonds filed with the record on appeal immediately after an appeal is placed on the appellate court docket and shall approve the appeal bond provided it is not defective in form or substance and the surety or sureties are sufficient under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965. If the appellate court does not approve the appeal bond, the appellate court shall allow the appellant to amend the bond by filing a new bond under time limits and conditions set by the appellate court.

Dismissal for Failure to Prosecute

Sec. 3.21. (a) If an appellant fails to pay the appellate court docket fee, fails to file his brief within the time provided by this Act, or within the time as extended, files an appeal bond that is defective as to form or substance, files an appeal bond that has an insufficient surety or sureties, or otherwise fails to comply with this Act or the rules of the appellate court, the prosecutor may move for dismissal of the appeal or the appellate court may give notice of intent to dismiss on its own motion. The appellate court shall issue a notice to the appellant and his counsel, if any, that on the expiration of 10 days from the date specified in the notice, the appeal may be dismissed for want of prosecution unless before that date the default is remedied. If the default is remedied within the time period, the appellate court may not dismiss the appeal. If the default is not remedied within the time period, the appellate court may enter an order dismissing the appeal for want of prosecution.

(b) The appellate court shall dismiss an appeal if the appeal bond is not filed within the time limits set in this Act or within an extension of the time limits and shall adjudge all costs against the appellant.

(c) A copy of an order dismissing an appeal for want of prosecution shall be sent to the municipal court clerk as the mandate and the court order dismissing the appeal may be dismissed for want of prosecution.

Appellant's Brief

Sec. 3.22. Not later than the 10th day after the filing of the appeal bond in municipal court, the appellant shall file with the clerk of the appellate court the original of his appellate brief and as many copies of the brief as are required by the rules of the appellate court. The appellant's brief must conform to the requirement for an appellant's brief filed under Section 9, Article 40.09, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965. However, if the appellant timely files a notice of his request for the record on appeal to contain a statement of facts, his appellant brief is due not later than the 10th day after the day the statement of facts is filed in the appellate court. If the appellant fails to file the statement of facts within the time limits of Section 3.17 of this Act, the appellant's brief is due not later than the 30th day after the appeal bond is filed with the municipal court.

Prosecutor's Brief

Sec. 3.23. Not later than the 10th day after the appellant files his brief with the appellate court, the prosecutor shall file with the clerk of the appellate court the original of his brief and as many copies as are required by the rule of the appellate court.

Briefs and Statements of Fact in General

Sec. 3.24. (a) Each party, on filing his brief with the clerk of the appellate court, shall deliver a true copy to the opposing party or the opposing party's counsel.

(b) The appellant's and the state's briefs and the statement of facts must conform to the requirement of Texas Rules of Post Trial and Appellate Procedure in Criminal Cases for briefs and statements of facts in the courts of appeals, unless the rules of the appellate court provide otherwise.
Art. 1200ee-2 CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

the court of appeals of the Eighth Supreme Judicial District or the rules of the court of criminal appeals provide otherwise.

Oral Argument

Sec. 3.25. (a) Oral argument is allowed in all cases unless under appellate court rules, after examination of the briefs and record, the appellate court finds in writing that oral argument is not necessary.

(b) An appellate court rule providing a method for the court to find that oral argument is not necessary must provide each party with an opportunity to file a statement setting forth the reasons why oral argument should be heard.

(c) The court shall allow oral argument unless:

(1) the appeal is frivolous;

(2) the dispositive issue or set of issues has been recently authoritative decided; or

(3) the facts and legal arguments are adequately presented in the briefs and record and the decisional process would not be significantly aided by oral argument.

Costs

Sec. 3.26. If an appeal is dismissed for failure to pay the appellate court docket fee or for any other reason, the costs, including the $25 appellate court docket fee, shall be taxed against the appellant unless otherwise ordered by the appellate court. If a judgment of conviction is affirmed, costs shall be taxed against the appellant. If a judgment is reversed, the $25 appellate court docket fee paid by the appellant shall be returned by the city to the appellant, but in all other cases costs may not be awarded against the city. The costs shall be set out in the mandate of the appellate court and collected in the same manner the fine is collected.

Disposition on Appeal; Presumptions; Decision

Sec. 3.27. (a) The appellate court may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, may reverse and remand for a new trial, may reverse and dismiss the case, may reform or correct the judgment, may abate the appeal or may dismiss the appeal, or may enter any other appropriate order, as the law and the nature of the case require.

(b) Unless the following matters were made an issue in the trial court or it affirmatively appears to the court from the transcript or statement of the facts, the appellate court shall presume that:

(1) venue was proven in the court below;

(2) the jury was properly impaneled and sworn;

(3) the defendant was arraigned;

(4) the defendant pleaded to the complaint; and

(5) the court's charge was certified by the municipal court judge before it was read to the jury.

(c) In each case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion or order either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented and a judgment shall be entered on the opinion or order. If an assignment of error is overruled, no reason need be given by the appellate court, but cases relied on by the court may be cited. If an assignment of error is sustained, the appellate court shall set forth the reasons for the decision and precedent if it exists. The clerk of the appellate court shall mail copies of the decision and judgment of the appellate court to the parties and to the clerk of the municipal court as soon as the decision is rendered by the appellate court.

(d) After the decision of the appellate court is delivered, a party desiring a rehearing must present, not later than the 10th day after the day the decision is delivered, to the court a motion for rehearing. The motion must distinctly specify the grounds relied on for rehearing and must be accompanied by written argument in behalf of the motion. Oral argument in support of the motion is not permitted. A reply to a motion for rehearing need not be filed unless requested by the court. If a motion for rehearing is granted, the court may make final disposition of the case without reargument, may order the case resubmitted, with or without oral argument, or may issue other orders appropriate under the circumstances of the particular case. A second motion for rehearing may not be filed by the losing party unless otherwise provided by appellate court rules.

(e) Immediately after a decision of the appellate court becomes final, the clerk of that court shall issue a mandate and a bill of costs in the case to the trial court unless directed to withhold the mandate by the appellate court.

(f) In the event a decision of the appellate court is appealed to a court of appeals, the appellate court on receipt of the mandate or other order from the court of appeals shall immediately comply with the order or mandate by issuing its own order or mandate and bill of costs, as the case may be. When a decision of a court of appeals becomes final, the clerk of that court shall issue a mandate in the case to the appellate court. A decision of a court of appeals is final as provided under Article 42.04a, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965.

(g) Original papers transmitted as the record on appeal to the court of appeals, on final disposition of the case in the court of appeals or the court of criminal appeals, shall be returned to the court clerk from which they were received. The clerk of each court shall preserve copies of briefs and papers originally filed in that court.

(b) The clerk of the municipal court and the clerk of the appellate court shall keep a copy of each decision of the appellate court in a volume or volumes with an index so that the public can inspect the decisions of the appellate court without the necessity of inspecting individual records of each case.

(i) When the mandate of the appellate court is received by the clerk of the municipal court, the clerk shall file it with the papers in the case and note it on the docket. If the judgment has been affirmed or the appeal is dismissed, a proceeding is not necessary after filing the appellate court mandate in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except to forfeit the bond of the defendant, to issue a capias for the defendant, or to issue an execution against the defendant’s property.

(j) If the appellate court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court, and the defendant shall continue on his appeal bond and shall appear for trial on notification mailed to his address on the appeal bond.

Appeals to Court of Appeals; Records

Sec. 3.28. (a) If a judgment is affirmed or an appeal is dismissed by the appellate court, the appellant may appeal to the court of appeals if the fine assessed against the appellant in the municipal court exceeded $100 or if the appellant has placed in issue in his brief filed in the appellate court the constitutionality of the statute or ordinance on which his conviction is based. If the constitutionality of a statute or an ordinance is in issue, the court of appeals may only consider that issue and not other issues that were before the appellate court.

(b) To perfect an appeal from a decision of the appellate court to the court of appeals, an appellant shall file a written notice of appeal in the appellate court:

(1) not later than the 10th day after the final ruling on a motion for rehearing; or

(2) if there is no motion for rehearing, not later than the 10th day after the rendition of the decision.

(c) A decision of the appellate court is final on the 15th day after the ruling on the final motion for rehearing or after the rendition of the decision if no motion for rehearing is filed.

(d) An appeal to the court of appeals is governed by provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, relating to direct appeals from county and district courts to the court of appeals except that:

(1) on the filing of a notice of appeal to the court of appeals, the appellate court clerk shall immediately prepare under his hand and seal of the appellate court a transcript of all papers originally filed in the appellate court and a copy of the opinion and judgment of the appellate court; and

(2) immediately on completion of his transcript, the appellate court clerk shall transmit the record on appeal, briefs on appeal, and his transcript to the court of appeals.

(e) Unless the rules of the court of criminal appeals or the court of appeals provide otherwise, the record on appeal to the court of appeals consists of those documents described in Subdivision (2) of Subsection (d) of this section.

(f) For good cause shown, the court of appeals may extend the 10-day period under Subsection (b) of this section for giving written notice of appeal.

ARTICLE IV, TRANSITION PROVISIONS

Transition Provision

Sec. 4.01. (a) The person serving as judge of a municipal court of record in the City of El Paso on the date this Act takes effect continues in office as judge of that municipal court of record until the general city election for the City of El Paso in April, 1985, and until his successor is elected and has qualified. A city ordinance creating municipal courts of record under Chapter 410, Acts of the 66th Legislature, Regular Session, 1979 (Article 1200ee–L, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), is continued in effect as if the ordinance were passed under this Act.

(b) This Act governs all complaints filed in the municipal courts after the effective date of this Act and governs all further proceedings then pending in the municipal courts and county courts at law of El Paso County except as provided by Subsection (c) of this section.

(c) If in the opinion of the municipal courts, the appellate court, or the county courts at law of El Paso County application of this Act in a particular case pending in any court when this Act takes effect would not be feasible or would work an injustice, the law that existed before the effective date of this Act applying to the municipal courts of record applies, and that law is continued in effect for that purpose.

Creation and Continuation of Appellate Court

Sec. 4.02. If on the effective date of this Act there is in existence in the City of El Paso under city ordinance a municipal court of record in accordance with Chapter 410, Acts of the 66th Legislature, Regular Session, 1979 (Article 1200ee–L, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), the appellate court is created on that date. If there are no municipal courts of record in existence on that date, the appellate court is created on the date that a municipal court of record is created. The appellate court continues in existence as long as there exists a municipal court of record. If the municipal court of record ordinance is repealed, the appellate court continues in existence so long as there are any appeals before it.

A reversal and remand for new trial or other order returning a case to the trial court shall be to the municipal court that replaces the municipal courts of record.

Initial Appointment of Appellate Judge

Sec. 4.03. The governing body of the City of El Paso shall appoint a judge of the appellate court, who shall serve beginning at the creation of the court as provided by Section 4.02 of this Act until the next regular municipal election for the City of El Paso and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

Pending Appeals

Sec. 4.04. The judges of the county courts at law of El Paso County shall on the creation of the appellate court as provided by Section 4.02 of this Act transfer all appeals pending from the municipal courts to the appellate court. Appeals that have not yet been filed in the County Court at Law of El Paso County, Texas, shall be filed in the appellate court. An appeal in which an opinion has been written by a county court at law of El Paso that is pending shall be retained by that court for disposition in accordance with laws in effect prior to the effective date established by Section 4.02 of this Act, and those laws are continued in effect for that purpose.

Alternate Appellate Procedure

Sec. 4.05. (a) If the El Paso Municipal Court of Appeals created by this Act is held unconstitutional or invalid, all appeals under this Act shall be considered as taken to the county courts at law of El Paso County as provided by this section. Those appeals shall be docketed as provided by county courts at law rules. The county courts at law of El Paso County have jurisdiction over those appeals and this Act applies to those appeals. One county court at law of El Paso County shall act as the appellate court. That court shall be designated from time to time as the appellate court by the majority vote of the judges of the county courts at law of El Paso County. All appeals pending in the appellate court on the date that any decision becomes final holding the municipal court of appeals unconstitutional or invalid shall be transferred by the appellate court to the county courts at law of El Paso County and all decisions of the appellate court that have become final on or before that date are valid.

(b) If Subsection (a) of this section takes effect, a reference to "appellate court" in this Act means the county court at law of El Paso County that is designated as the appellate court under this section except that a provision of this Act that is inconsistent with the laws, statutes, and rules applicable to creation and organization of the county courts at law of El Paso County will not apply, and an appeal is not tried de novo in the county court at law.

See, now, Art. 1200ff-1.
Sec. 4. (a) Each municipal court shall be presided over by a judge, who shall be known as the "municipal judge," who shall be a licensed attorney in good standing with two or more years of experience in the practice of law in this state and in the county in which the municipal court is located and a citizen of the United States and of this state. The judge shall be a resident of the city at the time of the election and shall maintain his or her residence within the city during the judge's tenure of office. Each municipal judge shall be elected by the qualified voters of the city for a term of two years, unless the city by charter amendment provides for a four-year term as provided by Article XI, Section 11, of the Texas Constitution. The governing body of the city may, by the procedure provided by Subsection (c) of this section, designate a qualified person to serve as judge of each municipal court of record created by it until the next regular municipal election. (b) Municipal judges shall receive a salary, to be set by the governing body of the city, which may not be diminished during their terms of office. A municipal judge may not be removed from office during the term for which the judge was elected except for cause to the same extent and under the same rules that judges of the county courts may be removed from office. (c) A vacancy in the office of municipal judge by death, resignation, creation of a new court, or otherwise shall be filled by appointment by a majority of the governing body, and the person appointed shall serve only until the next regular municipal election, at which time his or her successor shall be elected. An appointee may succeed himself or herself, if elected, as may judges regularly elected. (d) A majority of the governing body of the city may appoint any number of qualified persons to act in the place of any municipal judge absent because of illness, family death or illness, continuing legal or judicial education programs, or otherwise. In the absence of a judge, the chief judge or his or her designee shall call on one of those persons to serve, and while serving the selectee shall have all the powers and discharge all the duties of the office and shall receive the same compensation that is payable to the regular municipal judge. (e) Municipal judges shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges. (f) The chief judge of the municipal courts shall be the senior municipal judge in length of continuous service as judge.

Criminal Complaints

Sec. 5. All proceedings in municipal courts shall be commenced on original complaint filed by the city attorney of the city or the assistant city attorneys. All such complaints shall be prepared under the direction of the city attorney or his or her assistants.

Filing of Original Papers

Sec. 6. The clerk of the municipal courts, under the direction of the chief judge, shall file the original complaint and the original of all judgments, orders, motions, or other papers and proceedings in each case in a folder for permanent record. No separate minute book for the court is required, but the original papers filed with the clerk shall constitute the records of the courts. The clerk of the municipal courts shall cause to be noted on the outside of each case folder the following information:

1. the style of the action;
2. the nature of the offense charged;
3. the date the warrant was issued and return made thereon;
4. the time when the examination or trial was had, and if a trial, whether it was by a jury or before the judge of the court;
5. the trial settings;
6. the verdict of the jury, if any;
7. the judgment of the court, if any;
8. the motion for a new trial, if any, and the decision thereon;
9. if an appeal was taken; and
10. the time when and the manner in which the judgment and sentence were enforced.

Clerk; Duties

Sec. 7. The clerk of the municipal courts shall be appointed by the city manager with the consent of the governing body of the city and shall perform all duties in accordance with state statutes, the city charter, and city ordinances. It shall be the duty of the clerk or the clerk's deputes to keep the records of proceedings of the courts and to issue all processes and generally to do and perform the duties now prescribed by law for clerks of county courts exercising criminal jurisdiction insofar as the same may be applicable.

Court Reporter; Evidence Inadmissible in Civil Proceeding

Sec. 8. (a) For the purpose of preserving a record in all cases tried before the municipal courts, the judge of each court shall appoint an official court reporter, who shall be well-skilled in the profession and have the qualifications required of a court reporter in the courts as provided by the general laws of Texas. The reporter shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold the office at the pleasure of the judge at a salary to be fixed by the governing body of the city. The judge or judges of the courts may appoint the deputy official court reporters that are deemed necessary to promptly and efficiently dispose of the business of the courts. The court reporter shall perform duties under the direction and control of the municipal judge or judges. The court reporter shall take testimony in any case when a party or the judge requests it and no testimony shall be taken unless it is requested by a party or the judge.

(b) The testimony, exhibits, or evidence given by a witness in the course of a proceeding in the municipal courts shall be solely for the purpose of such proceeding or appeal therefrom, and in any other civil proceeding, evidence relating to such testimony, exhibits, evidence, or reproductions thereof shall be privileged and not admissible for any purpose.

Court Costs

Sec. 9. No court costs shall be assessed or collected by any municipal court in any case tried in the courts, except warrant fees, capias fees, and other fees authorized for municipal courts.

Service of Process

Sec. 10. All processes issuing out of municipal courts may be served by a policeman or warrant officer of the city or by any peace officer under the same rules as are provided for service by sheriffs and constables of process issuing out of a county court so far as applicable.

Prosecutor; Bailiff

Sec. 11. All prosecutions in municipal courts shall be conducted by the city attorney of the city or the assistant city attorneys. The chief of police of the city shall, in person or by designated officer or deputy, attend the court and perform the duties of a bailiff.

Form of Complaint

Sec. 12. Proceedings in municipal courts shall be commenced by complaint filed by the city attorney, or his or her assistants, which shall begin: "In the name and by authority of the State of Texas" and shall conclude "against the peace and dignity of the state." All complaints shall be prepared under the direction of the city attorney or his or her assistants and may be signed by any credible person on information and belief, sworn to before a notary public, the city attorney, an assistant city attorney, the clerk of the court, or any deputy clerk, each of whom, for that purpose, shall have power to administer the oath. The complaint shall be in writing and shall state:

(1) the name of the accused, if known, and if unknown, shall describe him or her as accurately as practicable;

(2) the offense with which the accused is charged in plain and intelligible words;

(3) facts showing that the place where the offense is charged to have been committed is within the jurisdiction of the municipal court; and

(4) facts showing, from the date of the offense stated therein, that the offense is not barred by limitations. All pleadings in the municipal courts shall be in writing and filed with the clerk of such courts.

Jury Trial; Selection of Jurors

Sec. 13. (a) Every person brought before the municipal courts and charged with an offense shall be entitled to be tried by a lawful jury of six persons. The municipal judge may set certain days of each week or month for the trial of jury cases. Juries for the court shall be selected by the following procedure. On the implementation of this Act by the governing body of the city and between the 1st and 15th days of August of each year thereafter, the tax assessor and collector of the city, or one of his or her deputies, and the city secretary, or one of his or her assistants, shall meet together and select, from the list of qualified jurors in the city, the jurors for service in the municipal courts for the ensuing year. The list of jurors shall be taken from the voters registration list of the city. The officers shall place on separate cards of uniform size and color the names of all persons who are known to be qualified jurors under the law residing in the city, placing also on the cards, whenever possible, the post office address of each juror so selected. The cards containing the names shall be deposited in a jury wheel to be provided for that purpose by the governing body of the city. The wheel shall be constructed of any durable material, shall be so constructed as to revolve freely on its axle, and may be equipped with a motor to revolve the wheel so as to thoroughly mix the cards. The wheel shall be locked at all times, except when in use as herein provided, by the use of two separate locks so arranged that the key to one will not open the other lock. The wheel and the claps into which the locks are fitted shall be arranged so that the wheel cannot be opened unless both of the locks are unlocked. The keys to the locks shall be kept, one by the city secretary and the other by the clerk of the municipal courts. The city secretary and clerk of the municipal courts shall not open the wheel or permit it to be opened by any person except at the time and in the manner and by the persons herein specified.

The city secretary and clerk shall keep the wheel when not in use in a safe and secure place where it cannot be tampered with.

(b) Not less than 10 days before January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1 of each year, the clerk of the municipal courts, or one of the clerk's deputies, and the city secretary, or one of the city's assistants, in the presence and under the direction of one of the municipal judges shall draw from the wheel containing the names of jurors, after the wheel has been turned and the cards thoroughly mixed, one by one the names of jurors to provide the number directed by the judges for each week of the three months next ensuing for which a jury may be required, and shall record the names as they are.
drawn on a separate sheet of paper for each week for which jurors may be required. At the drawing, no persons other than those above named shall be permitted to be present. The officers attending the drawing shall not divulge to any person the name of any person that may be drawn as a juror. If at any time during the next three months and prior to the petit jurors drawn on the ___ day of __, 19__, it appears that the list already drawn will be exhausted before the expiration of three months, additional lists for as many additional weeks as the judges may direct will be drawn in the same manner. The several lists of names so drawn shall be certified under the hand of the clerk of the municipal courts, or the deputy doing the drawing, and the municipal judge in whose presence the names were drawn, to be the lists drawn by him or her for that quarter and shall be sealed in separate envelopes endorsed "List no. ___ of the petit jurors drawn on the ___ day of __, 19__, for the Municipal Courts of ___".

The clerk doing the drawing shall write his or her name across the seals of the envelopes and deliver them to the judge, who shall inspect the envelopes to see that they are properly endorsed and shall then deliver them to the clerk or the clerk's deputy, and the clerk shall then immediately file them away in some safe and secure place in his or her office under lock and key. When the names are drawn for jury service, the cards containing the names shall be sealed in separate envelopes endorsed "Cards containing the names of jurors list no. ___ of the petit jurors drawn on the ___ day of __, 19__, for the Municipal Courts of ___.

Each envelope shall be retained unopened by the clerk until after the jury selected from the corresponding list has been impaneled. After the jurors so impaneled have served four or more days, the envelope containing the cards bearing the names of the jurors on that list shall then be opened by the clerk or the clerk's deputy. Those cards bearing the names of persons who have not been impaneled and who have not served as many as four days shall be immediately returned to the wheel by the clerk or the deputy, and the cards bearing the names of the persons serving as many as four days shall be put in a box provided for that purpose for the use of the officers who shall next select the jurors from the wheel. If any of the lists drawn are not used, the clerk or the deputy shall open the envelopes containing the cards bearing the names of the unused lists immediately after the expiration of the three-month period and return the cards to the wheel. A juror serving on a jury in the court shall receive not less than $10 for each day and for each fraction of a day the juror attends the court as a juror, and in no event less than that paid in county courts.

(c) In lieu of either of the foregoing methods of petit jury selection, a majority of the judges of the municipal courts of the city may adopt a plan binding on all the judges for the selection of persons for jury panels from a central jury pool maintained by the county in which the city is located to provide petit juries for the district courts, county courts, county courts at law, and justice courts of the county, if any such pool exists. If such a plan is adopted, the provisions of this section dealing with the selection of petit juries by jury wheel or mechanical or electronic means do not apply. A plan so adopted shall include the following requirements:

1. the persons taken from the central jury pool shall be registered voters in the city;
2. provision of a fair, impartial, and objective method of selecting persons for jury panels from the pool;
3. designation of the clerk of the municipal courts as the official to be in charge of the selection process from such pool, except that the clerk may, with permission from such county employee, appoint the county employee in charge of the central jury pool as the clerk's deputy for this purpose; and
4. provision for compensation to the county for juror fees paid by the county to jury panel members selected from the central jury pool for municipal court jury panels, if the fees are paid to the selectees by the county rather than by the city.

Judicial Notice

Sec. 14. Municipal courts shall take judicial notice of all the city ordinances and the corporate limits of that city in all cases tried in the courts.

Rules of Procedure

Sec. 15. Except as modified by this Act, the trial of cases before municipal courts shall be governed by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, applicable to county courts.
Art. 1200ff-1  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Bonds
Sec. 16. All bonds taken in proceedings in the courts shall be payable to the State of Texas for the use and benefit of the city.

Judgment and Sentence
Sec. 17. The judgment and sentence, in case of conviction before municipal courts, shall be in the name of the State of Texas, and shall recover from the defendant the fine and costs for the use and benefit of the city. Except when otherwise ordered by the court, the court shall require that the defendant remain in custody of the chief of police of such city until the fine and costs are paid and shall order that execution issue to collect the fines and penalties.

Appellate Courts
Sec. 18. Appeals from municipal courts shall be heard by the county courts having appellate criminal jurisdiction.

No Appeal by State
Sec. 19. The state shall have no right of appeal.

Right of Appeal
Sec. 20. A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment of conviction in a municipal court under the rules hereinafter described, and a motion for a new trial shall be prerequisite to the right of appeal from a municipal court.

Motion for New Trial
Sec. 21. A motion for a new trial must be made within five days after the rendition of judgment and sentence and not thereafter. Such motion must be in writing and filed with the clerk of the court.

No New Trial for State
Sec. 22. In no case shall the state be entitled to a new trial.

Notice of Appeal; Bond
Sec. 23. After an order overruling a motion for new trial, an appeal may be taken by paying the $10 fee for preparation of the transcript which shall be noted on the docket of the court. The fee must be paid within 10 days after the order overruling the motion for a new trial is rendered. An appeal may not be taken until the required bail bond has been given and approved by the court. The bail bond must be filed with the court within 10 days after the order of the court refusing a new trial has been rendered and not afterwards.

Bail on Appeal
Sec. 24. In appeals from the judgments and sentence of a municipal court, the defendant shall, if the defendant is in custody, be committed to jail unless the defendant gives bail, to be approved by the judge of the municipal court in an amount not less than double the amount of fine and costs adjudged against him or her, payable to the State of Texas for the use and benefit of the city. Bail shall not in any case be for a sum less than $100. The bond shall recite that in the cause the defendant shall make personal appearance before the court to which the appeal is taken instanter, if the court is in session, and if the court is not in session, then at its next session, and there remain from day to day and answer in the cause.

Perfecting Appeal
Sec. 25. Appeals from municipal courts may be perfected by filing the bail bond provided for in Section 24 of this Act on approval by the municipal court.

Record and Briefs on Appeal
Sec. 26. In view of the crowded conditions of the dockets of the courts, the record and briefs on appeal in a case appealed from a municipal court shall be limited so far as possible to the questions relied on for reversal.

Elements of the Record
Sec. 27. The record on appeal in a case appealed from a municipal court shall consist of a transcript.

Assignments of Error
Sec. 28. The motion for a new trial in a case appealed from a municipal court shall constitute the assignments of error on appeal. A ground of error not distinctly set forth in a motion for new trial shall be considered as waived.

Stipulation of Record on Appeal
Sec. 29. The city attorney, or the assistant city attorney, and the defendant, or the defendant's attorney, by written stipulation filed with the clerk of the municipal courts may designate the parts of the record, proceedings, and evidence to be included in the record on appeal.

Contents of Transcript
Sec. 30. The clerk of the municipal courts, under written instructions of the defendant, or the defendant's attorney, shall, after payment of the $10 preparation fee, prepare under his or her hand and seal of the court for transmission to the appellate court a true copy of the proceedings in the municipal court, and, unless otherwise designated by agreement of the parties, shall include the following: (1) the complaint on which the trial was had; (2) the order of the court on any motions or exceptions; (3) the judgment of the court and the verdict of the jury; (4) any findings of fact or conclusions of law by the court; (5) the judgment of the court; (6) the motion for new trial and the order of the court thereon; (7) the notice of appeal; (8) any statement of the defendant or the city attorney as to the matter to be included in the record; (9) the bail bond; (10) the certified bill of costs; (11) any statement of facts; and (12) any signed paper designated as material by the defendant, or the defendant's attorney, or the city attorney or assistant city attorney. The defendant, or the defendant's attorney, may file with the clerk and deliver or mail to the city attorney, or assistant city attorney, a copy of the written instruction, and the city attorney, or assistant city attorney, may file and deliver or mail a written direction to the clerk to include in the transcript additional portions of proceedings in the trial court.

Statement of Facts

Sec. 31. (a) The statement of facts shall, except as hereinafter provided, consist of a transcription of the testimony of witnesses and bills of exception. The statement of facts shall be prepared by the court reporter of the municipal court at the request of any party or the court. The court reporter shall immediately notify all parties in writing that the request has been made. Copies of the statement of facts shall be provided all parties by the reporter and one copy shall be filed by the reporter with the clerk of the municipal courts to be forwarded immediately to the clerk of the appellate court. The transcription shall be in narrative form unless written notice of objection to narrative form is made by a party within five days of receiving notice that the transcription was requested.

(b) All matters not essential to the decision or the questions presented in the motion for new trial shall be omitted from a statement of facts. Formal parts of all exhibits and more than one copy of any document appearing in the transcript or the statement of facts may be excluded. All documents may be abridged by omitting or abbreviating a formal portion thereof.

(c) It shall be unnecessary for the statement of facts to be approved by the trial court or judge thereof whether agreed to by the defendant, or the defendant's attorney, and the city attorney, or assistant city attorney.

(d) The cost of preparation of the statement of facts shall be paid by the requesting party, unless the requesting party is the State of Texas or the city. The cost, if paid by the defendant, is recovered by the defendant if the case is overturned or dismissed on appeal.

Agreed Statement of Case

Sec. 32. The defendant, or the defendant's attorney, and the city attorney, or assistant city attorney, may agree on a brief statement of the case and on the facts proven as will enable the appellate court to determine where there is error in the judgment of the trial court. Such statements shall be copied into the transcript in lieu of the proceedings themselves.

Date for Filing Record

Sec. 33. The transcript and statement of facts shall be filed with the clerk of the municipal courts within 60 days from the date of the payment of the $10 fee for preparation of the transcript and shall be promptly forwarded by the clerk of the municipal courts to the clerk of the court to which the appeal is taken.

Fee for Preparation of Record

Sec. 34. The defendant shall pay a fee of $10 to the clerk of the municipal courts for the preparation of the transcript. If the case is reversed on appeal, the $10 fee shall be refunded to the defendant.

Date for Filing Brief

Sec. 35. Briefs shall be filed with the clerk of the court to which an appeal is taken within 10 days of the filing of the transcript and statement of facts in the municipal court. At the same time, a true copy of the brief shall be provided to opposing counsel.

Hearing Appeals: Oral Arguments

Sec. 36. The court to which the appeal is taken shall hear and determine appeals from municipal courts at the earliest time it may be done, with due regard to the rights of parties and proper administration of justice. Oral arguments before the court shall be under such rules as the court may determine, and the parties may submit the case on the records and briefs without oral argument.

Disposition on Appeal

Sec. 37. A county court having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss the case, or may reform or correct the judgment, as the law and the nature of the case may require. Unless such matters were made an issue in the municipal court, or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or statement of facts, the court shall presume that the venue was proven in the court below, that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn, that the defendant was arraigned and that he or she pleaded to the complaint, and that the court's charge was certified by the judge and filed by the clerk before it was read to the jury. In each case decided by the court having jurisdiction of appeals, the court shall deliver a written opinion either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overruled, no reason need be given by the court, but cases relied on by the court may be cited. If an assignment of error is sustained, the court shall set forth the reasons for such decision. Copies of the decision of the court shall be mailed by the clerk of the court to the parties and the judge of the municipal court as soon as rendered by the court.
with the papers in the case and note it on the docket of the municipal court. Where the judgment has been affirmed, no proceedings need be had after filing the record in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except forfeiture of the bond of the defendant, issuance of a capias for the defendant, or an execution against the defendant's property.

Award of New Trial

Sec. 39. Where the appeal court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as it would have stood if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court.

Appeal to Court of Appeals

Sec. 40. Appeals to the Court of Appeals from the decision of the court having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts, when permitted by law, shall be governed by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, except that when an appeal is permitted by law, the transcript, briefs, and statement of facts filed in the court having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts shall constitute the transcript, briefs, and statement of facts before the Court of Appeals or as the rules of the Court of Criminal Appeals may provide in such cases.

Facilities of Court; Salaries

Sec. 41. (a) The municipal courts shall be held in the city at a place or places within the corporate limits of the city as may be designated by the governing body of the city.

(b) The governing body of the city shall provide suitable quarters for the courts, and all costs of providing courtrooms and office space for the courts, the clerk, and court reporters shall be paid for by the governing body of the city. All salaries paid to the judges, the clerk, court reporters, and employees of the municipal courts shall be paid by the governing body of the city.

Disposition of Fines, Fees, Costs, and Bonds

Sec. 42. All fines, fees, costs, and cash bonds in municipal courts shall be paid to the clerk of the municipal courts. The clerk of the municipal courts shall deposit all fines, fees, costs, and cash bonds directly into the general fund of the city.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings; Enforcement of Judgment

Sec. 38. When the judgment of the court having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts becomes final, the clerk of the court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and mail the certificate to the clerk of the municipal courts from which the appeal was taken. When the record is received by the clerk of the municipal courts, the clerk shall file it with the papers in the case and note it on the docket of the municipal court. Where the judgment has been affirmed, no proceedings need be had after filing the record in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except forfeiture of the bond of the defendant, issuance of a capias for the defendant, or an execution against the defendant's property.

Classification of Personnel

Sec. 43. The judges of municipal courts, the clerk and deputy clerks of the courts, and the court reporters of the municipal courts shall not be considered to be classified employees under civil service, charter, or ordinance provisions. However, the governing body of the city may provide by ordinance that all other employees of the municipal courts may be hired and paid as classified employees under the city civil service, charter, or ordinance provisions. The judges, clerk, deputy clerks, and court reporters may be authorized or required by the governing body of the city to participate in the retirement program of the city. The judges, clerk, deputy clerks, and court reporters of municipal courts shall receive the same vacation, sick leave, and other benefits as are provided for other nonclassified employees of the city under such regulations as may be provided by the governing body.

Vacation of Unnecessary Court

Sec. 44. After the establishment of municipal courts, if the governing body of the city shall, by legally adopted ordinance, find and determine that the condition of the dockets of the other courts of the county is such as not to require the existence of one or more municipal courts in order to properly dispose of the cases arising in the city, then the offices of municipal judge, clerk of the municipal courts, court reporters, and other employees of the courts may be declared vacated as of the end of the term for which the municipal court judges were last elected or appointed. In that event, any case pending in the municipal courts shall be transferred to the proper court having jurisdiction of the offense.

Section 149 of the 1981 amendatory act provides:

"This Act takes effect on September 1, 1981. Appeals to the courts of appeals filed on or after that date shall be filed in the court of appeals having jurisdiction. At least 1,000 appeals including death penalty appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals prior to September 1, 1981, shall be retained by that court for disposition in accordance with laws in effect prior to the effective date of this Act, and for that purpose, all laws repealed or amended by this Act shall remain in force and effect for those appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals. The remaining appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals shall be transferred to the various courts of appeals on which the number of judges is increased by the 67th Session of the legislature; provided, no more than 75 nondeath penalty appeals shall be transferred for each newly created judgeship and such a transfer shall not be made until such justice assumes office."

Art. 1200gg. Lubbock

Creation

Sec. 1. The governing body of the City of Lubbock may by ordinance establish the city's existing municipal courts as municipal courts of record in accordance with this Act. Additional municipal courts of record may be created and one or more judges for each court may be authorized by ordinance on a finding that an additional court or courts or additional judges are necessary to properly dispose of the cases arising in the city.

Jurisdiction; Writs

Sec. 2. (a) Municipal courts created under the provisions of this Act shall have jurisdiction within the territorial limits of the city in all criminal cases arising under the ordinances of the city and shall also have concurrent jurisdiction with any justice of the peace in any precinct in which the city is situated in criminal cases arising within such territorial limits under the criminal laws of this state in which punishment is only by fine not exceeding $200. Municipal courts shall also have jurisdiction over cases of the city under the ordinances authorized by Subdivision 19, Article 1175, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

(b) The municipal court of record shall take judicial notice of all ordinances of the city.

(c) The judge of a municipal court may grant writs of mandamus, injunction, attachment, and all other necessary writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court and may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court.

Judges

Sec. 3. (a) Each municipal court shall be presided over by one or more judges to be known as "municipal judges."

(b) Each municipal judge shall be elected by the qualified voters of the city for a term of two years, unless the city by charter amendment provides for a four-year term as provided by Article XI, Section 11, of the Texas Constitution. The governing body of the city may appoint a person or persons with the qualifications required for a judge to serve as the judge or judges authorized for each newly created municipal court of record until the next regular city election.

(c) The judges or substitute judges of the municipal courts may at any time exchange benches and may at any time sit and act for or with each other in any case, matter, or proceeding pending in their courts. An act performed by any of the judges shall be valid and binding on all parties to the cases, matters, and proceedings.

(d) If there is more than one municipal judge in the city, the governing body of the city shall appoint one of the judges to be the presiding municipal judge of the city. If the city has a municipal judge who is either its only municipal judge or its only municipal judge who is not serving in a temporary or part-time capacity, that judge shall be the presiding municipal judge for all purposes of this Act.

(e) The presiding judge shall:

1. maintain a central docket for all cases filed in the geographical limits of the city over which the municipal courts of the city have jurisdiction;

2. provide for the distribution of cases from the central docket to the individual municipal judges in order that the business of the courts will be continually equalized and distributed among them;

3. request the jurors needed for cases that are set for trial by jury in the municipal courts of record, which, as provided by Section 11(b) of this Act, shall be transferred to and serve in the municipal court as if summoned for the municipal court to which they are transferred;

4. temporarily assign various judges or substitute judges of the municipal courts to exchange benches and to sit and act for each other in any case, matter, or proceeding pending in their courts when necessary for the expeditious disposition of the business of the courts;

5. cause all dockets, books, papers, and other records of the municipal courts to be permanently kept and permit these records to be available for inspection at all reasonable times by any interested parties;

6. cause to be maintained as part of the records of the municipal courts an index of municipal court judgments such as county clerks are required by law to prepare for criminal cases arising in county courts; and

7. where necessary for the proper functioning of the municipal courts, provide for the preservation by microfilm of the records of the courts, subject to the same requirements provided by law for the preservation by microfilm of records under the custody of county clerks.

(f) A judge of a municipal court created under the provisions of this Act shall have been a licensed attorney in good standing in the practice of law in this state for a period of five years, shall be a citizen of the United States and of this state, and shall be required to satisfy the same residency requirements as those pertaining to a member of the city council of the City of Lubbock. No person may serve in the office of municipal judge while he or she holds any other office or employment in the government of the city, and the holding of the other office or employment by a person serving in the office of municipal judge shall create an immediate vacancy in the judicial office.

Salary

Sec. 4. A municipal judge is entitled to compensation by the city on a salary basis. The amount of the salary shall be determined by the governing body of the city and may not be diminished during the judge's term of office. The salary may not be based, directly or indirectly, on fines, fees, or costs that the municipal judge is required by law to collect during his or her term of office.

Vacancies; Temporary Replacements; Removal

Sec. 5. (a) When a vacancy in the office of municipal judge occurs, the governing body of the city shall appoint a person meeting the qualifications required by law for the position to fill the office of municipal judge for the unexpired term of the judge serving in that office prior to the vacancy. If a judge is temporarily unable to act for any reason, the governing body may appoint a person meeting the qualifications for the position to serve during the absence of the judge with all the powers and duties of the office and shall provide for the person’s compensation.

(b) A municipal judge may be removed from office for cause to the same extent and under the same rules that judges of the county courts at law may be removed from office. A municipal judge is answerable to the governing body of the city only on budgetary matters.

(c) Each municipal judge shall comply with the same provisions for filing a financial statement as are required of other judges by Chapter 421, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, as amended (Article 6252-9b, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

Court Facilities

Sec. 6. The governing body of the city shall provide the courtrooms, jury rooms, offices and office furniture, libraries, legal books and materials, and other supplies and facilities that the governing body determines are necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts.

Court Clerk

Sec. 7. The governing body of the city shall provide a clerk of the municipal courts and the deputy clerks, warrant officers, and other municipal court personnel that are necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts. It is the duty of the clerk to keep the records of proceedings of the municipal courts and to issue all processes and generally to perform the duties now prescribed by law for clerks of the county courts at law exercising criminal jurisdiction, insofar as the same may be applicable. The clerk of the municipal courts and all other personnel shall perform the duties of the office under the direction and control of the presiding municipal judge.

Court Reporter

Sec. 8. (a) For the purpose of preserving a record in cases tried before the municipal court, the city shall provide a court reporter with the qualifications provided by law for official court reporters, whose compensation shall be determined by the chief administrative officer of the city on the recommendation of the presiding municipal judge.

(b) The record of proceedings may be preserved by written notes, transcribing equipment, recording equipment, or any combination of these methods. The court reporter is not required to take or record testimony in cases where neither the defendant, the prosecutor, nor the judge demands it.

Prosecutions by City Attorney

Sec. 9. All prosecutions in municipal courts shall be conducted by the city attorney of the city or his or her assistant or deputy.

Complaint

Sec. 10. (a) Proceedings in municipal courts shall be commenced by complaint, which shall begin: “In the name and by the authority of the State of Texas”; and shall conclude: “Against the peace and dignity of the State”; and if the offense is only covered by an ordinance, it may also conclude: “Contrary to the said ordinance.” The municipal judge shall charge the jury in accordance with subsection (a) of Section 11 of this Act. Complaints before the court may be sworn to by any officer authorized to administer oaths or before the municipal judge, clerk of the court, city secretary, or city attorney or his or her assistant or deputy, each of whom, for that purpose, shall have power to administer oaths. The complaint shall be in writing and shall state:

(1) the name of the accused, if known, and if unknown, shall describe the accused as accurately as practicable;

(2) the offense with which the accused is charged in plain and intelligible words;

(3) the place where the offense is charged to have been committed, which must appear to be within the jurisdiction of the municipal court; and

(4) the date of the offense which, as stated, must show that the offense is not barred by limitations.

(b) All pleadings in the municipal courts shall be in writing and filed with the clerk of the courts.

Right to Jury

Sec. 11. (a) Every person brought before the municipal courts and charged with an offense is entitled to be tried by a jury of six persons, unless waived according to law. The jury shall decide all questions of fact or credibility of witnesses. The court shall determine all matters of law and shall charge the jury on the law.

(b) When requested by the clerk of the municipal courts, the officials in the county who draw jurors from the county jury wheel for the county’s central jury system shall draw from the same jury wheel, and in the same manner, the names of jurors to compose as many lists for service in the municipal courts as the clerk of the municipal courts requested. The jury lists drawn for the municipal courts shall be delivered to the clerk of the municipal court. The governing body of the city shall establish the necessary procedures for the summoning and impaneling of jury panels by the municipal courts and for the payment of the jurors. A juror serving in the municipal court shall receive the same pay for each day or fraction of a day that he or she serves as jurors receive for service in the other courts of Lubbock County, as provided by Article 2122, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

(c) A juror in the municipal courts shall have the same qualifications as jurors in the other courts in Lubbock County as provided by Article 2122, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, except that a juror in municipal court shall also be a registered voter in the City of Lubbock. Jurors in the municipal courts are subject to the same law governing exemption and excuse from jury service as the jurors in the other courts in the county.

Appeals; Appellate Courts

Sec. 12. (a) In this Act, "appellate courts" means the county courts at law in Lubbock County.

(b) A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment or conviction in the municipal court under the same qualifications as jurors in the other courts in the county.

No de Novo Appeals

Sec. 13. Each appeal from a conviction in the municipal court shall be determined by the appellate court on the basis of errors pointed out in the defendant's motion for new trial and presented in the transcript and statement of facts prepared from the municipal court proceedings leading to the conviction. No appeal from the municipal court may be by trial de novo.

Motion for New Trial

Sec. 14. In order to perfect an appeal, a written motion for a new trial must be filed by the defendant no later than the 10th day after the rendition of the judgment of conviction and may be amended by leave of court at any time before it is acted on within 20 days after the filing of the original or amended motion. For good cause shown, the time for filing or amending may be extended by the court, not to exceed 90 days.

Notice of Appeal

Sec. 15. In order to perfect an appeal, the defendant shall give timely notice of appeal. In the event the defendant requests a hearing on his or her motion for a new trial, the notice of appeal may be given orally in open court on the overruling of the motion for new trial. Otherwise, the notice of appeal shall be in writing and filed with the municipal court no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled. For good cause shown, the time for giving notice of appeal may be extended by the court, not to exceed 90 days.

Appeal Bond

Sec. 16. If the defendant is not in custody, an appeal may not be taken until the required appeal bond has been filed with and approved by the municipal court. The appeal bond must be filed no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial has been overruled. If the defendant is in custody, the defendant shall be committed to jail unless he or she posts the required appeal bond. The appeal bond shall be in an amount not less than double the amount of fine and costs adjudged against the defendant. However, the bond may not in any case be for a sum less than $50. The bond shall recite that in the cause the defendant was convicted and has appealed and be conditioned that the defendant shall make his or her personal appearance before the court to which the appeal is taken instanter, if the court is in session, and there remain from day to day and answer in the cause.

Record on Appeal

Sec. 17. The record on appeal in a case appealed from the municipal court consists of a transcript and where necessary to the appeal, a statement of facts prepared from the record on appeal, the transcript, mechanical recordings of the proceedings, or from videotape recordings of the proceedings. If the court finds, after hearing in response to an affidavit by defendant, that the defendant is unable to pay or give security for the record on appeal, the court will order the reporter to make the transcript without charge to the defendant.

Contents of Transcripts

Sec. 18. (a) The municipal court clerk, on written request from the defendant or the defendant's attorney, shall prepare under the clerk's hand and seal of the court for transmission to the appellate court a true transcript of the proceedings in the municipal court and shall include copies of the following:

1. the complaint;
2. material docket entries made by the court;
3. the jury charge and verdict, if the trial is by jury;
4. the judgment;
5. the motion for a new trial;
6. the notice of appeal;
7. all written motions and pleadings of the court;
8. bills of exception, if any are filed; and
9. the appeal bond.

(b) The municipal court clerk may include in the transcript additional portions of the proceedings in
Art. 1200gg  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

the municipal court prepared by mechanical recordings or videotape recordings of the proceedings.

Bills of Exception

Sec. 19. Either party may include bills of exception in the transcript on appeal, subject to complying with the applicable provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended, governing the preparation of bills of exception and their inclusion in the record on appeal to the court of appeals, except that the bills of exception shall be filed with the municipal court clerk within 60 days after the giving or filing of the notice of appeal.

Statement of Facts

Sec. 20. A statement of facts, when included in the record on appeal, shall consist of:

(1) a transcription of all or any part of the municipal court proceedings in the case, as provided in this Act, that are shown by the notes of the court reporter to have occurred before, during, or after the trial, if such a transcription is requested of the court reporter by the defendant;

(2) a brief statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial, as agreed to by the defendant and the prosecuting attorney;

(3) a partial transcription and the agreed statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial; or

(4) a transcription of all or any part of the municipal court proceedings in the case that are prepared from the mechanical recordings or videotape recordings of the proceedings.

Completion, Approval, and Transfer of Record

Sec. 21. (a) Within 60 days of the giving or filing of the notice of appeal, the parties shall file with the municipal court clerk:

(1) the statement of facts;

(2) a written designation of all matter that is to be included in the transcript in addition to matter required to be in the transcript by Section 18 of this Act; and

(3) any matter designated to be included in the transcript that is not then in the custody of the municipal court clerk.

(b) On completing the record as designated by the parties in Subdivision (2), Subsection (a) of this section, the municipal court judge shall approve the record in the manner provided by law for record completion notification and approval in appeals to the court of appeals.

(c) On the municipal court judge’s approval of the record, the municipal court clerk shall promptly forward the record to be filed with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the defendant and the prosecuting attorney that the record has been filed.

Section

Sec. 22. It is the duty of the trial court to decide from the briefs of the parties whether the defendant should be permitted to withdraw his or her notice of appeal and be granted a new trial by the court. The court may grant a new trial at any time prior to the record being filed with the appellate court clerk.

Brief on Appeal

Sec. 23. (a) A brief on appeal from the municipal court shall present points of error in the same manner required by law for a brief on appeal to the court of appeals.

(b) The defendant shall file his or her brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days from the date of the filing of the transcript and statement of facts with the appellate court clerk, and the defendant or the defendant’s attorney shall certify in the brief to the posting of such by United States mail with proper postage affixed and addressed to the office of the prosecuting attorney. The prosecuting attorney shall file his or her brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days after the defendant files the defendant’s brief with the clerk. Each party, on filing his or her brief with the clerk of the appellate court, shall cause a true copy of the brief to be delivered to the opposing party and to the municipal court judge.

Court Rules

Sec. 24. (a) Except as modified by this Act, the trial of cases before municipal courts shall be governed by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

(b) The municipal courts may make and enforce all necessary rules of practice and procedure, not inconsistent with the law, so as to expedite the trial of cases in the courts.

(c) The county courts at law of Lubbock County may make and enforce all necessary rules of practice and procedure for appeals from municipal courts, not inconsistent with the law, so as to expedite the dispatch of appeals from the municipal courts.

Disposition on Appeal

Sec. 25. (a) The appellate court may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss the case; or may reform or correct the judgment, as the law and the nature of the case may require.

(b) The appellate court shall presume that the venue was proven in the court below, that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn, that the defendant was arraigned and pleaded to the complaint, and that the court's charge was certified by the municipal court judge before it was read to the jury, unless such matters were made an issue in the trial.
court or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or statement of facts.

(e) In each case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion or order either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. The appellate court shall set forth the reasons for the decision. Copies of the decision of the appellate court shall be mailed by the clerk of the appellate court to the parties and the judge of the municipal court as soon as the decision is rendered by the appellate court.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings

Sec. 26. When the judgment of the appellate court becomes final, the clerk of the appellate court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and shall mail the certificates to the clerk of the municipal court. When the certificate is received by the clerk of the municipal court, the clerk shall file it with the papers in the case and note it on the docket. If the judgment has been affirmed, no proceeding need be had after filing the certificate in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except to forfeit the bond of the defendant, to issue a capias against the defendant in the municipal court, or to issue an execution against the defendant's property.

Order of New Trial by Appellate Court

Sec. 27. If the appellate court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court.

Appeal to the Court of Appeals

Sec. 28. When a judgment is affirmed by the appellate court, the defendant has the right to appeal to the Court of Appeals unless the rules of the Court of Criminal Appeals provide otherwise; and

(1) the record and briefs on appeal in the appellate court shall constitute the record and briefs on appeal to the Court of Appeals unless the rules of the Court of Criminal Appeals provide otherwise; and

(2) the record and briefs shall be filed directly with the Court of Appeals.

Seal

Sec. 29. The governing body of the city shall provide each municipal court with a seal with a star of five points in the center and the words "Municipal Court in Lubbock, Texas." The impress of the seal shall be attached to all papers, except subpoenas, issued out of the court and shall be used by each municipal judge or the clerk to authenticate all official acts of the clerk and the municipal judge.

Section 20 of the 1970 Act provided:

"The residency requirement for a judge of a municipal court of record do not apply to a person serving as a municipal judge in the City of Lubbock on the effective date of this Act until the first regular city election after the establishment of the municipal courts of record."

Section 149 of the 1981 amendatory act provides:

"This Act takes effect on September 1, 1981. Appeals to the courts of appeals filed on or after that date shall be filed in the court of appeals having jurisdiction. At least 1,800 appeals including death penalty appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals prior to September 1, 1981, shall be retained by that court for disposition in accordance with laws in effect prior to the effective date of this Act, and for that purpose, all laws repealed or amended by this Act shall remain in force and effect for those appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals. The remaining appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals shall be transferred to the various courts of appeals on which the number of judges is increased by the 67th Session of the Legislature; provided, no more than 75 nondeath penalty appeals shall be transferred for each newly created judgeship and such a transfer shall not be made until such justice assumes office."

Art. 1200hh. Longview

Creation; Formation by Ordinance

Sec. 1. (a) There is created in the city of Longview a court of record to be known as the "City of Longview Municipal Court," to be held in that city if the governing body of the city of Longview, by ordinance, finds and determines that the formation of a municipal court of record is necessary in order to provide a more efficient disposition of appeals arising from the municipal court.

(b) The authority of the governing body of the city of Longview to create a municipal court of record in the city of Longview includes the authority to establish, in the manner set forth in this section, more than one municipal court of record if the governing body determines that it is necessary in order to dispose of the cases arising in the city. If more than one municipal court of record is created, the judges of the municipal courts may at any time exchange benches and sit and act for and with each other in a case, matter, or proceeding pending in a municipal court, and any and all acts performed by a judge are valid and binding on all parties to the case, matter, and proceeding.

(c) The municipal court of record authorized in this section is referred to in this Act as the "municipal court."

Application of Other Laws Regarding Municipal Courts

Sec. 2. The general laws of the state regarding municipal courts and regarding justice courts on matters where there is no law for municipal courts, and the valid charters provisions and ordinances of the city of Longview relating to the municipal court apply to the municipal court authorized in this Act, unless the laws, charters, provisions, and ordinances
Art. 1200hh

CITIES, TOWNS

are in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

Judge; Qualifications

Sec. 3. (a) The municipal court shall be presided over by a judge, who shall be a licensed attorney in good standing in this state and a citizen of the United States and of this state. The judge need not be a resident of the city. The judge shall devote as much of his or her time to the duties of the office as the office shall require. The judge shall be appointed by the governing body of the city and shall be paid a salary to be determined by the governing body of the city. The salary shall not be based on or be in any way contingent on the fines, fees, or costs collected by the municipal court.

(b) If more than one municipal court is created by the governing body of the city, a judge shall be appointed for each court and the governing body of the city shall designate a judge to be the presiding judge.

Court Clerk

Sec. 4. The governing body of the city shall provide a clerk of the municipal courts and the deputy clerks, warrant officers, and other municipal court personnel that are necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts. It is the duty of the clerk to keep records of proceedings of the municipal courts and to issue all processes and generally to perform the duties now prescribed by law for clerks of the county courts at law exercising criminal jurisdiction, insofar as the same may be applicable. The clerk of the municipal courts and all other personnel shall perform the duties of the office under the direction and control of the municipal court judge.

Court Reporter

Sec. 5. (a) For the purpose of preserving a record in the cases tried before the municipal court, the city shall provide a court reporter, who shall be appointed by the municipal court judge and whose compensation shall be determined by the governing body of the city. The qualifications of the court reporter shall be as provided by law for official court reporters.

(b) The record of proceedings may be preserved by the court reporter by written notes, transcribing equipment, recording equipment, or any combination of them. The court reporter is not required to take testimony in cases where neither the defendant, the prosecutor, nor the judge demands it.

Jury Selection

Sec. 6. The names of the prospective jurors for trials in the Longview Municipal Court of Record shall be drawn from a jury wheel maintained by the District Court of Gregg County, Texas, or from a jury wheel maintained by the clerk of the Longview Municipal Court of Record, with names of Longview voter registration rolls of Gregg County and Harrison County, Texas.

Ordinances; Judicial Notice

Sec. 7. The municipal court shall take judicial notice of the ordinances of the city.

Appeal; Appellate Courts

Sec. 8. A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment of conviction in the municipal court under the rules prescribed in this Act. The County Court of Gregg County has jurisdiction over the appeals from the municipal court.

Appeals on the Record; No de Novo Appeals

Sec. 9. Each appeal from a conviction in the municipal court shall be determined by the appellate court solely on the basis of errors pointed out in the defendant’s motion for new trial and presented in the transcript and statement of facts prepared from the municipal court proceedings leading to the conviction. No appeal from the municipal court may be by trial de novo.

Motion for New Trial

Sec. 10. In order to perfect an appeal, a written motion for new trial must be filed by the defendant no later than the 10th day after the rendition of the judgment of conviction, and may be amended by leave of court at any time before it is acted on within 20 days after it is filed. The motion for new trial shall be presented to the court within 10 days after the filing of the original or amended motion, and shall be determined by the court within 20 days after the filing of the original or amended motion. For good cause shown, the time for filing or amending may be extended by the court. An original or amended motion shall be deemed overruled by operation of law at the expiration of the 20 days allowed for determination of the motion if it is not acted on by the court within that time. The motion shall set forth the points of error complained of by the defendant. For purposes of appeal, a point of error not distinctly set forth in the motion for new trial shall be considered as waived.

Notice of Appeal

Sec. 11. In order to perfect an appeal, the defendant shall give timely notice of appeal. In the event the defendant requests a hearing on the motion for new trial, the notice of appeal may be given orally in open court on the overruling of the motion for new trial. Otherwise, the notice of appeal shall be in writing and filed with the municipal court no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled.

Appeal Bond

Sec. 12. If the defendant is not in custody, an appeal may not be taken until the required appeal bond has been filed with and approved by the municipal court. The appeal bond must be filed no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled. If the defendant is in custody, the defendant shall be committed to jail unless he or she posts the required appeal bond. The appeal bond shall be in an amount not less than double the amount of the fine and costs adjudged against the defendant. However, the bond may not in any case be for a sum less than $100. The bond shall recite that in the cause the defendant was convicted and has appealed, and be conditioned that the defendant shall make his or her personal appearance before the court to which the appeal is taken instantaneously, if the court is in session, and if the court is not in session, then at its next session, and there remain from day to day to answer in the cause.

Record on Appeal
Sec. 13. The record on appeal in a case appealed from the municipal court consists of a transcript and, where necessary to the appeal, a statement of facts.

Contents of Transcript
Sec. 14. (a) The municipal court clerk, on written request from the defendant, shall prepare under the clerk's hand and seal of the court for transmission to the appellate court a true transcript of the proceedings in the municipal court that shall always include the following:

(1) the complaint;
(2) material docket entries made by the court;
(3) the jury charge and verdict, if the trial is by jury;
(4) the judgment;
(5) the motion for new trial;
(6) the notice of appeal;
(7) all written motions and pleas and orders of the court; and
(8) bills of exception, if any are filed.
(b) The municipal court clerk may include in the transcript additional portions of the proceedings in the municipal court if so instructed in writing by either the defendant or the prosecuting attorney.

Bills of Exception
Sec. 15. Either party may include bills of exception in the transcript on appeal, subject to complying with the applicable provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure governing the preparation of bills of exception and their inclusion in the record on appeal to the court of appeals, except that the bills of exception shall be filed with the municipal court clerk within 60 days after the giving or filing of the notice of appeal.

Statement of Facts
Sec. 16. (a) A statement of facts, when included in the record on appeal, shall consist of:

(1) a transcription of all or any part of the municipal court proceedings in the case that are shown by the notes of the court reporter to have occurred before, during, or after the trial if such a transcription is requested of the court reporter by the defendant;
(2) a brief statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial, as agreed to by the defendant and the prosecuting attorney; or
(3) a partial transcription and the agreed statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial.
(b) The court reporter shall transcribe any portion of the reporter's notes of the court proceedings in the case at the request of the defendant. The defendant shall pay for the transcription. The cost to the defendant for the transcription shall not exceed the fees or charges normally being made by court reporters in the county for similar transcriptions. The municipal court shall order the court reporter to make the transcriptions without charge to the defendant if the court finds, after hearing in the response to an affidavit by the defendant, that the defendant is unable to pay or give security for the transcriptions.

Completion, Approval, and Transfer of Record
Sec. 17. (a) Within 60 days of the giving or filing of the notice of appeal, the parties shall file with the municipal court clerk:

(1) the statement of facts;
(2) a written designation of all matter that is to be included in the transcript in addition to matter required to be in the transcript by Section 14 of this Act; and
(3) any matter designated to be included in the transcript that is not then in the custody of the municipal court clerk.
(b) On completing the record as designated by the parties in Subdivision (5), Subsection (a), of this section, the municipal court clerk shall approve the record in the manner provided by law for record completion notification and approval in appeals to the court of appeals.
(c) On the municipal court judge's approval of the record, the municipal court clerk shall promptly forward it to be filed with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the defendant and the prosecuting attorney that the record has been filed.

Brief on Appeal
Sec. 18. (a) A brief on appeal from the municipal court shall present points of error in the same manner required by law for a brief on appeal to the court of appeals, except that the points of error on appeal shall be confined to those points of error set forth in the defendant's motion for new trial.
(b) The defendant shall file the defendant's brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days from the date of the filing of the transcript and statement of facts with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the prosecuting attorney of the filing. The prosecuting attorney shall file his or her brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days after the defendant files the defendant’s brief with the clerk. Each party, on filing his or her brief with the clerk of the appellate court, shall cause a true copy of the brief to be delivered to the opposing party.

Procedure on Appeal

Sec. 19. The appellate court shall hear and determine appeals from the municipal court at the earliest practical time it may be done, with due regard to the rights of parties and proper administration of justice, and no affirmance or reversal of a judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss judgment of the municipal court. Oral arguments before the appellate court shall be under the rules which the appellate court may determine, and the parties may submit the case on the records and briefs without oral arguments.

Disposition on Appeal

Sec. 20. (a) The appellate court may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss the case, or may affirm or correct the judgment, as the law and the nature of the case may require.

(b) The appellate court shall presume that the venue was proven in the court below, that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn, that the defendant was arraigned and pleaded to the complaint, and that the court’s charge was certified by the municipal court judge before it was read to the jury, unless such matters were made an issue in the trial court or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or statement of facts.

(c) In the case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion or order either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overruled, no reason need be given by the appellate court, but cases relied on by the court may be cited. If an assignment of error is sustained, the appellate court shall set forth the reasons for the decision. Copies of the decision of the appellate court shall be mailed by the clerk of the appellate court to the parties and the judge of the municipal court as soon as the decision is rendered by the appellate court.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings

Sec. 21. When the judgment of the appellate court becomes final, the clerk of the appellate court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and shall mail the certificates to the clerk of the municipal court. When the certificate is received by the clerk of the municipal court, the clerk shall file it with the papers in the case and note it on the docket. If the judgment has been affirmed, no proceeding need be had after filing the certificate in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except to forfeit the bond of the defendant, to issue a capias for the defendant, or issue an execution against the defendant’s property.

New Trial

Sec. 22. If the appellate court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as it would have stood if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court.

Appeal to the Court of Appeals

Sec. 23. When a judgment is affirmed by the appellate court, the defendant has the right to appeal to the court of appeals if the fine assessed against the defendant in the municipal court exceed $100. The appeal to the court of appeals shall be governed by provisions in the Code of Criminal Procedure relating to direct appeals from county and district courts to the court of appeals except that:

(1) the record and briefs on appeal in the appellate court, plus the transcript of proceedings in the appellate court, shall constitute the record and briefs on appeal to the court of appeals unless the rules of the court of criminal appeals provide otherwise; and

(2) the record and briefs shall be filed directly with the court of appeals.

Section 149 of the 1981 amendatory act provides:

“This Act takes effect on September 1, 1981. Appeals to the courts of appeals filed on or after that date shall be filed in the court of appeals having jurisdiction. At least 1,800 appeals including death penalty appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals prior to September 1, 1981, shall be retained by that court for disposition in accordance with laws in effect prior to the effective date of this Act, and for that purpose, all laws repealed or amended by this Act shall remain in force and effect for those appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals. The remaining appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals shall be transferred to the various courts of appeals on which the number of judges is increased by the 67th Session of the legislature, provided, no more than 75 nondeath penalty appeals shall be transferred for each newly created judgeship and such a transfer shall not be made until such justice assumes office.”

Art. 1200ii. San Antonio

Creation

Sec. 1. The governing body of the city of San Antonio may by ordinance establish the city’s existing municipal courts as municipal courts of record in accordance with this Act. Additional municipal courts of record may be created and one or more judges for each court may be authorized by ordinance on a finding that an additional court or courts, or additional judges, are necessary to properly dispose of the cases arising in the city.
Sec. 2. (a) Municipal courts created under the provisions of this Act shall have jurisdiction within the territorial limits of the city in all criminal cases arising under the ordinances of the city and shall also have concurrent jurisdiction with any justice of the peace in any precinct in which the city is situated in criminal cases arising within such territorial limits under the criminal laws of this state in which punishment is only by fine not exceeding $200. Municipal courts shall also have jurisdiction over cases arising outside the territorial limits of the city under the ordinances authorized by Subdivision 19, Article 1175, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

(b) The municipal court of record shall take judicial notice of all ordinances of the city.

(d) The general laws of the state regarding municipal courts and regarding justice courts on matters where there is no law for municipal courts, and the valid charter provisions and ordinances of the city of San Antonio relating to the municipal court apply to the municipal court authorized in this Act, unless the laws, charter provisions, and ordinances are in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

Judges

Sec. 3. (a) Each municipal court shall be presided over by one or more judges to be known as "municipal judges."

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of the charter or an ordinance of the city, each municipal judge shall be elected by the qualified voters of the city for a term of two years. The governing body of the city may appoint a person or persons, with the qualifications required for a judge, to serve as the judge or judges authorized for each newly created municipal court of record until the next regular city election.

(c) The judges or substitute judges of the municipal courts may at any time exchange benches and may at any time sit and act for or with each other in any case, matter, or proceeding pending in their courts. An act performed by any of the judges shall be valid and binding on all parties to the cases, matters, and proceedings.

(d) If there is more than one municipal judge in the city, the municipal judges shall determine which of them shall serve as presiding judge of the city. In the event the judges are unable to determine which of them shall serve as presiding judge, after notification of such impasse, the governing body of the city shall appoint one of the judges to be the presiding municipal judge of the city. If the city has a municipal judge who is either its only municipal judge or its only municipal judge who is not serving in a temporary or part-time capacity, that judge shall be the presiding municipal judge for all purposes of this Act.

(e) The presiding judge shall:

1. maintain a central docket for all cases filed in the geographical limits of the city over which the municipal courts of the city have jurisdiction;
2. provide for the distribution of cases from the central docket to the individual municipal judges in order that the business of the courts will be continually equalized and distributed among them;
3. request the jurors needed for cases that are set for trial by jury in the municipal courts of record, which, as provided by Section 11(b) of this Act, shall be transferred to and serve in the municipal court as if summoned for the municipal court to which they are transferred;
4. temporarily assign various judges or substitute judges of the municipal courts to exchange benches and to sit and act for each other in any case, matter, or proceeding pending in their courts when necessary for the expeditious disposition of the business of the courts;
5. cause all dockets, books, papers, and other records of the municipal courts to be permanently kept and permit these records to be available for inspection at all reasonable times by any interested parties;
6. cause to be maintained as part of the records of the municipal courts an index of municipal court judgments such as county clerks are required by law to prepare for criminal cases arising in county courts; and
7. where necessary for the proper functioning of the municipal courts, provide for the preservation by microfilm of the records of the courts, subject to the same requirements provided by law for the preservation by microfilm of records under the custody of county clerks.

(f) A judge of a municipal court created under the provisions of this Act shall be a licensed attorney in good standing with two or more years of experience in the practice of law in the state and a citizen of the United States and of this state. No person may serve in the office of municipal judge while he or she holds any other office or employment in the government of the city, and the holding of the other office or employment by a person serving in the office of municipal judge shall create an immediate vacancy in the judicial office.

Salary

Sec. 4. A municipal judge is entitled to compensation by the city on a salary basis. The amount of the salary shall be determined by the governing body of the city and may not be diminished during the judge's term of office. The salary may not be based, directly or indirectly, on fines, fees, or costs that the municipal judge is required by law to collect during his or her term of office.

Vacancies; Temporary Replacements; Removal

Sec. 5. (a) When a vacancy in the office of mucipal judge occurs, the governing body of the city shall appoint a person meeting the qualifications required by law for the position to fill the office of municipal judge for the unexpired term of the judge serving in that office prior to the vacancy. If a judge is temporarily unable to act for any reason, the governing body may appoint a person meeting the qualifications for the position to serve during the absence of the judge with all the powers and duties of the office and shall provide for the persion's compensation.

(b) A municipal judge may be removed from of­

(b) The record of proceedings may be preserved

The court reporter is not required to take or record

IT is the duty of the clerk to keep the records of proceedings of the municipal courts and to issue all processes and to conduct all trials and proceedings in the municipal court. The clerk shall determine all matters of law and shall charge the jury on the law.

Court Clerk

Sec. 7. The governing body of the city shall provide a clerk of the municipal courts, and the deputy clerks, warrant officers, and other municipal court personnel that are necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts.

Court Reporter

Sec. 8. (a) For the purpose of preserving a record in cases tried before the municipal court, the city shall provide a court reporter with the qualifications provided by law for official court reporters, whose compensation shall be determined by the chief administrative officer of the city on the recommandation of the presiding municipal judge.

(b) The record of proceedings may be preserved by written notes, transcribing equipment, recording equipment, or any combination of these methods.
The court reporter is not required to take or record testimony in cases where neither the defendant, the prosecutor, nor the judge demands it.

Prosecutions by City Attorney

Sec. 9. All prosecutions in municipal courts shall be conducted by the city attorney of the city, or his or her assistant or deputy.

Court Facilities

Sec. 6. The governing body of the city shall provide the courtrooms, jury rooms, offices and office furniture, libraries, legal books and materials, and other supplies and facilities that the governing body determines are necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts.

Complaint

Sec. 10. (a) Proceedings in municipal courts shall be commenced by complaint, which shall begin:
"In the name and by the authority of the State of Texas"; and shall conclude: "Against the peace and dignity of the State"; and if the offense is only covered by an ordinance, it may also conclude:
"Contrary to the said ordinance." The municipal judge shall charge the jury in accordance with Section 11(a) of this Act. Complaints before the court may be sworn to before any officer authorized to administer oaths or before the municipal judge, clerk of the court, city secretary, or city attorney or his or her assistant or deputy, each of whom, for that purpose, shall have power to administer oaths.
The complaint shall be in writing and shall state:

(1) the name of the accused, if known, and if unknown, shall describe the accused as accurately as practicable;

(2) the offense with which the accused is charged in plain and intelligible words;

(3) the place where the offense is charged to have been committed, which must appear to be within the jurisdiction of the municipal court; and

(4) the date of the offense which, as stated, must show that the offense is not barred by limitations.

(b) All pleadings in the municipal courts shall be in writing and filed with the clerk of the courts.

Right to Jury

Sec. 11. (a) Every person brought before the municipal courts and charged with an offense is entitled to be tried by a jury of six persons, unless waived according to law. The jury shall decide all questions of fact or credibility of witnesses. The court shall determine all matters of law and shall charge the jury on the law.

(b) Each juror in the municipal courts shall be a resident of the city of San Antonio.

Appeals; Appellate Courts

Sec. 12. (a) In this Act, "appellate courts" means the county courts at law of Bexar County.

(b) A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment or conviction in the municipal court under the rules prescribed in this Act. The appellate courts have jurisdiction over the appeals from the municipal courts, and all appeals from convictions in the municipal court shall be prosecuted in the appellate court by the city attorney or his or her assistants or deputies.
Sec. 13. Each appeal from a conviction in the municipal court shall be determined by the appellate court on the basis of errors pointed out in the defendant's motion for new trial and presented in the transcript and statement of facts prepared from the municipal court proceedings leading to the conviction. No appeal from the municipal court may be by trial de novo in the county court.

Motion for New Trial

Sec. 14. In order to perfect an appeal, a written motion for a new trial must be filed by the defendant no later than the 10th day after the rendition of the judgment of conviction, and may be amended by leave of court at any time before it is acted on within 20 days after the filing of the original or amended motion. For good cause shown, the time for filing or amending may be extended by the court, not to exceed 90 days. An original or amended motion shall be deemed overruled by operation of law at the expiration of the 20 days allowed for determination of the motion, if it is not acted on by the court within that time. The motion shall set forth the points of error complained of by the defendant.

Notice of Appeal

Sec. 15. In order to perfect an appeal, the defendant shall give timely notice of appeal. In the event the defendant requests a hearing on his or her motion for a new trial, the notice of appeal may be given orally in open court on the overruling of the motion for new trial. Otherwise, the notice of appeal shall be in writing and filed with the municipal court no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled. For good cause shown, the time for giving notice of appeal may be extended by the court, not to exceed 90 days.

Appeal Bond

Sec. 16. If the defendant is not in custody, an appeal may not be taken until the required appeal bond has been filed with and approved by the municipal court. The appeal bond must be filed no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial has been overruled. If the defendant is in custody, the defendant shall be committed to jail unless he or she posts the required appeal bond. The appeal bond shall be in an amount not less than double the amount of fine and costs adjudged against the defendant. However, the bond may not in any case be for a sum less than $50. The bond shall recite that in the cause the defendant was convicted and has appealed and be conditioned that the defendant shall make his or her personal appearance before the court to which the appeal is taken instantaneously, if the court is in session, and shall remain from day to day and answer in the cause.

Record on Appeal

Sec. 17. The record on appeal in a case appealed from the municipal court consists of the transcript and, where necessary to the appeal, a statement of facts, which shall be prepared by a court reporter of the court from the reporter's record of the proceedings, mechanical recordings of the proceedings, or from videotape recordings of the proceedings. The defendant shall pay for the transcription. The municipal court shall order the court reporter to make the transcriptions without charge to the defendant if the court finds, after hearing in the response to affidavit by the defendant, that he is too poor to pay or give security for the transcriptions. If the case is reversed on appeal, the cost shall be refunded to the defendant.

Contents of Transcripts

Sec. 18. (a) The municipal court clerk, on written request from the defendant or the defendant's attorney, shall prepare under the clerk's hand and seal of the court for transmission to the appellate court a true transcript of the proceedings in the municipal court and shall include the following:

(1) the complaint;
(2) material docket entries made by the court;
(3) the jury charge and verdict, if the trial is by jury;
(4) the judgment;
(5) the motion for a new trial;
(6) the notice of appeal;
(7) all written motions and pleas and orders of the court;
(8) bills of exception, if any are filed; and
(9) the appeal bond.

(b) The municipal court clerk may include in the transcript additional portions of the proceedings in the municipal court prepared by mechanical recordings or videotape recordings of the proceedings.

Bills of Exception

Sec. 19. Either party may include bills of exception in the transcript on appeal, subject to complying with the applicable provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure governing the preparation of bills of exception and their inclusion in the record on appeal to the court of appeals, except that the bills of exception shall be filed with the municipal court clerk within 60 days after the giving or filing of the notice of appeal.

Statement of Facts

Sec. 20. A statement of facts, when included in the record on appeal, shall consist of:

(1) a transcription of all or any part of the municipal court proceedings in the case, as provided in this Act, that are shown by the notes of the court reporter to have occurred before, during, or after
Art. 1200ii CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

the trial, if such a transcription is requested of the court reporter by the defendant;

(2) a brief statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial, as agreed to by the defendant and the prosecuting attorney;

(3) a partial transcription and the agreed statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial; or

(4) a transcription of all or any part of the municipal court proceedings in the case that are prepared from the mechanical recordings or videotape recordings of the proceedings.

Fee for Preparation of Transcript

Sec. 21. The defendant shall pay a fee of $50 to the clerk of the municipal court for the preparation of the transcript at the time of the request for the transcript, subject to the provisions of Section 17 of this Act. If the case is reversed on appeal, the $50 fee shall be refunded to the defendant.

Completion, Approval, and Transfer of Record

Sec. 22. (a) Within 60 days of the giving or filing of the notice of appeal, the parties shall file with the municipal court clerk:

(1) the statement of facts;

(2) a written designation of all matter that is to be included in the transcript in addition to matter required to be in the transcript by Section 18 of this Act; and

(3) any matter designated to be included in the transcript that is not then in the custody of the municipal court clerk.

(b) On completing the record as designated by the parties in Subdivision (2), Subsection (a) of this section, the municipal court judge shall approve the record in the manner provided by law for record completion notification and approval in appeals to the court of criminal appeals.

(c) On the municipal court judge’s approval of the record, the municipal court clerk shall promptly forward the record to be filed with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the defendant and the prosecuting attorney that the record has been filed.

New Trials

Sec. 23. It is the duty of the trial court to decide from the briefs of the parties whether the defendant should be permitted to withdraw his or her notice of appeal and be granted a new trial by the court. The court may grant a new trial at any time prior to the record being filed with the appellate court clerk.

Brief on Appeal

Sec. 24. (a) A brief on appeal from the municipal court shall present points of error in the same manner required by law for a brief on appeal to the court of appeals.

(b) The defendant shall file his or her brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days from the date of the filing of the transcript and statement of facts with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the prosecuting attorney of the filing. The prosecuting attorney shall file his or her brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days after the defendant files the defendant’s brief with the clerk. Each party, on filing his or her brief with the clerk of the appellate court, shall cause a true copy of the brief to be delivered to the opposing party and to the municipal court judge.

Court Rules

Sec. 25. (a) Except as modified by this Act, the trial of cases before municipal courts shall be governed by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965.

(b) The municipal courts may make and enforce all necessary rules of practice and procedure, not inconsistent with the law, so as to expedite the trial of cases in the courts.

(c) The county courts at law of Bexar County may make and enforce all necessary rules of practice and procedure for appeals from municipal courts, not inconsistent with the law, so as to expedite the dispatch of appeals from the municipal courts.

Disposition on Appeal

Sec. 26. (a) The appellate court may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss the case, or may reform or correct the judgment, as the law and the nature of the case may require.

(b) The appellate court shall presume that the venue was proven in the court below, that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn, that the defendant was arraigned and pleaded to the complaint, and that the court’s charge was certified by the municipal court judge before it was read to the jury, unless such matters were made an issue in the trial court or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or statement of facts.

(c) In each case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion or order either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overruled, no reason need be given by the appellate court, but cases relied on by the court may be cited. If an assignment of error is sustained, the appellate court shall set forth the reasons for the decision. Copies of the decision of the appellate court shall be mailed by the clerk of the appellate court to the parties and the judge of the municipal court as soon as the decision is rendered by the appellate court.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings

Sec. 27. When the judgment of the appellate court becomes final, the clerk of the appellate court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and shall mail the certificates to the clerk of the municipal court. When the certificate is received by the clerk of the municipal court, the clerk shall file it with the papers in the case and note it on the docket. If the judgment has been affirmed, no proceeding need be had after filing the certificate in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except to forfeit the bond of the defendant, to issue a capias for the defendant, or issue an execution against the defendant's property.

Order of New Trial by Appellate Court

Sec. 28. If the appellate court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court.

Appeal to the Court of Appeals

Sec. 29. When a judgment is affirmed by the appellate court, the defendant has the right to appeal to the court of appeals if the fine assessed against the defendant in the municipal court exceed $100. The appeal to the court of appeals shall be governed by provisions in the Code of Criminal Procedure relating to direct appeals from county and district courts to the court of appeals except that:

(a) The record and briefs on appeal in the appellate court shall constitute the record and briefs on appeal to the court of appeals unless the rules of the court of criminal appeals provide otherwise; and

(b) The record and briefs shall be filed directly with the court of appeals.

Seal

Sec. 30. The governing body of the city shall provide each municipal court with a seal with a star of five points in the center and the words "Municipal Court of San Antonio, Texas." The impress of the seal shall be attached to all papers, except subpoenas, issued out of the court and shall be used by each municipal judge or the clerk to authenticate all official acts of the clerk and the municipal judge.

Sec. 31. [Amends § 2 of Code of Criminal Procedure, art. 42.15]

Severability

Sec. 32. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act in all its particulars and as to all other persons and circumstances shall be valid and of full force and effect, and the legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Section 148 of the 1981 amendatory act provides:

"This Act takes effect on September 1, 1981. Appeals to the court of appeals filed on or after that date shall be filed in the court of appeals having jurisdiction. At least 1,000 appeals including death penalty appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals prior to September 1, 1981, shall be retained by that court for disposition in accordance with laws in effect prior to the effective date of this Act, and for that purpose, all laws repealed or amended by this Act shall remain in force and effect for those appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals. The remaining appeals pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals shall be transferred to the various courts of appeals on which the number of judges is increased by the 67th Session of the legislature, provided, no more than 75 non-death penalty appeals shall be transferred for each newly created judgeship and such a transfer shall not be made until such justice assumes office."

Art. 1200jj. Dallas

Creation of Municipal Courts of Record

Sec. 1. (a) In addition to its existing municipal court, the governing body of the City of Dallas may create municipal courts of record by adoption of an ordinance consistent with this Act.

(b) The ordinance must specify the number of courts of record created, and it may be amended to increase or decrease the number of courts when determined necessary by the governing body.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. A municipal court of record created under this Act has exclusive original jurisdiction in all criminal cases, other than traffic offenses, arising under the ordinances of the city and has the jurisdiction granted to municipal courts by state law.

Judges

Sec. 3. (a) A municipal court of record shall be presided over by a judge to be known as a municipal judge.

(b) The city shall provide by charter or ordinance for the appointment or election of a municipal judge of a court of record. The selection must be for a definite term in office of not less than two nor more than four years.

(c) The governing body of the city shall appoint one of the municipal judges to be the administrative municipal judge of the municipal courts of record.

(d) The administrative judge shall:

(1) provide for the distribution of cases from the central docket among the individual municipal judges to equalize the distribution of business in the courts; and

(2) temporarily assign judges of the municipal courts of record to exchange benches and to sit and act for each other in a proceeding pending in a court if necessary for the expeditious disposition of business in the courts.

(e) A judge of a municipal court of record must be a licensed attorney in good standing in this state. A person may not serve as a municipal judge while he holds any other office or employment with the city government.
Art. 1200jj

Salary

Sec. 4. A municipal judge of a court of record is entitled to compensation by the city on a salary basis. The amount of the salary shall be determined by the governing body of the city and may not be diminished during the judge's term of office. The salary may not be based directly or indirectly on fines, fees, or costs that the municipal judge is required by law to collect during his term of office. The governing body shall determine the salary of the municipal judge prior to his appointment if he is appointed or at least two weeks prior to the deadline for filing for election if he is elected.

Vacancies; Temporary Replacements

Sec. 5. (a) If a vacancy occurs in the office of municipal judge of a court of record, the governing body of the city shall appoint a qualified person to fill the office of municipal judge for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(b) If a municipal judge is temporarily unable to act for any reason, the governing body of the city may appoint a qualified person to sit for the regular municipal judge. The appointee has all the powers and duties of the office and while serving is entitled to the same compensation as the regular municipal judge. A temporary judge serves at the pleasure of the governing body until the regular judge returns.

Court Facilities

Sec. 6. The governing body of the city shall provide courtrooms, juryrooms, offices, office furniture, libraries, legal books and materials, and other supplies and facilities that the governing body determines are necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts of record.

Clerk; Other Personnel

Sec. 7. (a) The governing body shall provide for the appointment of a clerk of the municipal courts of record, who shall be known as the municipal clerk. The municipal clerk shall perform, insofar as applicable, the duties prescribed by law for the county clerk of a county court at law. In addition, the municipal clerk shall:

(1) maintain central docket records for all cases filed in the municipal courts of record;

(2) cause all public records of the municipal courts and the municipal courts of record to be permanently kept and permit those records to be available for inspection at all reasonable times by any interested party;

(3) maintain an index of all municipal court judgments in the same manner as county clerks are required by law to prepare for criminal cases arising in county courts; and

(4) if necessary for the proper functioning of the municipal courts of record, provide for the preservation of records by microfilming.

(b) The governing body of the city shall provide the municipal courts of record with other municipal court personnel that the governing body determines is necessary for the proper operation of the courts. Those persons shall perform their duties under the direction and control of the clerk of the municipal court or the municipal judge to whom assigned. The governing body shall determine the salaries of the court personnel.

Recording of Proceedings; Court Reporter

Sec. 8. (a) All proceedings in a municipal court of record shall be recorded by a good quality electronic recording device and the recording kept and stored for not less than 20 days. The proceedings that are appealed shall be transcribed from the recording by a court reporter.

(b) A municipal judge may appoint a court reporter for a particular case to transcribe the trial proceedings, including testimony, voir dire examination, objections, and final arguments. Each reporter must be a sworn officer of the court and must be well-skilled in the profession. The reporter shall be compensated by the city in the manner determined by the governing body of the city.

Appeals Courts

Sec. 9. (a) A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment of conviction in a municipal court of record under the procedures prescribed by this Act.

(b) The county court and a county court at law of Dallas County have jurisdiction of appeals from a municipal court.

(c) Appeals from convictions of the municipal courts that are not of record are de novo. This Act does not affect the procedure for an appeal from a municipal court that is not of record.

Appeals on Record

Sec. 10. An appeal from a municipal court of record conviction is determined by the appellate court solely on the basis of errors presented in the transcript and statement of facts prepared from the municipal court of record proceedings.

Perfecting Appeal

Sec. 11. (a) To perfect an appeal, the defendant must give timely notice of the appeal. The notice of appeal may be given orally in open court, or it may be given in writing and filed with the municipal court of record. The notice is sufficient if it shows the desire of the defendant to appeal from the municipal court of record conviction.

(b) Notice of appeal must be given or filed:

(1) not later than the 10th day after the day on which a motion for new trial is overruled, if a motion is made; or
Record on Appeal

Sec. 12. The record on appeal consists of a transcript and, if necessary to the appeal, a statement of facts.

Contents of Transcript

Sec. 13. (a) On written instructions from the defendant or the defendant’s attorney, the municipal clerk shall prepare under his hand and seal a transcript of the municipal court of record proceedings for transmission to the appellate court. The transcript must include copies of:

1. the complaint;
2. material docket entries made by the court;
3. the jury charge and verdict, if the trial is by jury;
4. the judgment;
5. the notice of appeal;
6. all written motions, pleas, and orders of the court;
7. bills of exception; and
8. certified copies of all ordinances of which the municipal judge took notice.

(b) The municipal clerk may include in the transcript additional portions of the proceedings in the municipal court of record if so instructed in writing by either party.

Bills of Exception

Sec. 14. Either party may include bills of exception in the transcript on appeal subject to the applicable provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965. The bills of exception must be filed with the clerk not later than the 60th day after the day on which the notice of appeal is given or filed.

Statement of Facts

Sec. 15. (a) A statement of facts included in the record on appeal must contain:

1. a transcription of all or any part of the municipal court of record proceedings in the case as recorded on the electronic recording device or that are shown by the notes of the court reporter recorded or taken before, during, or after the trial, if the transcription is requested by a party, his attorney, or the municipal judge;
2. a brief statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial as agreed to by the defendant or his attorney and the prosecuting attorney; or
3. a partial transcription and the agreed statement of the facts of the case.

(b) The court reporter shall transcribe in duplicate any portion of the recorded proceedings or the notes of the court proceedings in the case at the request of either party or the municipal judge. The defendant shall pay for the transcriptions unless the municipal court of record finds, after hearing in response to affidavit by the defendant, that the defendant is unable to pay or give security for the transcriptions. On certification by the municipal court of record that the court reporter has rendered the service without charge to the defendant, the court reporter shall be paid for the services by the city.

Filing of the Record

Sec. 16. (a) Not later than the 60th day after the date the notice of appeal is given or filed, the parties must file with the clerk of the municipal court of record:

1. the statement of facts;
2. a written designation of material to be included in the transcript in addition to the material required under Subsection (a) of Section 13 of this Act; and
3. any matter to be included in the transcript that is not in the custody of the municipal clerk.

(b) The municipal judge may extend the time for filing for good cause.

(c) At the time of requesting the clerk of the municipal court of record to prepare a record on appeal from the transcript and statement of facts, the defendant must pay to the clerk a record preparation fee of $10. If the case is reversed upon appeal, the clerk shall refund the $10 fee to the defendant.

(d) On completion of the record, the municipal clerk shall notify the parties and the municipal court of record judge shall approve the record in the manner provided by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, for record completion notification and approval in the court of appeals.

(e) Following court approval, the municipal clerk shall promptly forward the record to the appellate court clerk for filing.

Brief on Appeal

Sec. 17. (a) A brief on appeal from a municipal court of record must present points of error in the manner required by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, for a brief on appeal to the court of criminal appeals.

(b) The defendant must file the brief with the appellate court clerk not later than the 15th day
Art. 1200jj  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

after the day on which the transcript and statement of facts are filed with the appellate court clerk.

c) The prosecuting attorney must file the brief with the appellate court clerk not later than the 15th day after the day on which the defendant files his brief with the clerk.

d) On filing, each party shall deliver a copy of the brief to the opposing party or the opposing party’s attorney.

e) The appellate court may in its discretion extend the times for filing briefs.

Procedure on Appeal

Sec. 18. (a) The appellate court shall hear and determine an appeal from a municipal court of record at the earliest possible time with due regard to the rights of parties and the proper administration of justice. The court may not affirm or reverse a case based on mere technicalities or on technical errors in the presentation and filing of the record on appeal. The court may determine the rules for oral argument. The party may submit the case on the records and briefs without oral arguments.

(b) The appellate court shall review all grounds of error and arguments urged in the defendant’s brief on appeal and may review any unassigned error in the interest of justice.

Disposition on Appeal

Sec. 19. (a) According to the law and the nature of the case, the appellate court may:

(1) affirm the judgment of the municipal court of record;

(2) reverse and remand for a new trial;

(3) reverse and dismiss the case; or

(4) reform and correct the judgment.

(b) Unless the matter was made an issue in the trial court or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or the statement of facts, the appellate court shall presume that:

(1) venue was proven in the trial court;

(2) the jury, if any, was properly impaneled and sworn;

(3) the defendant was arraigned and pleaded to the complaint;

(4) the municipal judge certified the charge before it was read to the jury; and

(5) the municipal clerk filed the charge before it was read to the jury.

(c) In each case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overruled, no reason need be given by the appellate court, but cases relied upon by the court may be cited. If an assignment of error is sustained, the appellate court shall set forth the reasons for the decision. The clerk of the appellate court shall mail copies of the decision of the appellate court to the parties and to the municipal judge as soon as the decision is rendered.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings

Sec. 20. When the judgment of the appellate court becomes final, the clerk of that court shall certify the proceedings and the judgment and shall mail the certificate to the clerk of the municipal court of record. The municipal clerk shall file the certificate with the records in the case and note the certificate on the docket. If the judgment is affirmed, further action to enforce the judgment is not necessary except to:

(1) forfeit the bond of the defendant; or

(2) issue a writ of capias for the defendant.

New Trial

Sec. 21. If the appellate court awards a new trial to the defendant, the case stands as if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court of record.

Appeals to Court of Appeals

Sec. 22. Appeals to the court of appeals from the decision of the appellate court if permitted by law are governed by the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, relating to direct appeals from a county or a district court to the court of appeals except that:

(1) the record and briefs on appeal in the appellate court constitute the record and briefs on appeal to the court of appeals unless the rules of the court of criminal appeals provide otherwise; and

(2) the record and briefs shall be filed directly with the court of appeals.

Seal

Sec. 23. The governing body of the city shall provide each municipal court of record with a seal to be used to authenticate the official acts of the clerk and the municipal judge. The impress of the seal must include a five-pointed star and must be engraved with the words “Municipal Court of Record of Dallas, Texas.”

Art. 1200kk. Odessa

Creation of Municipal Courts of Record

Sec. 1. (a) In addition to its existing municipal court, the governing body of the City of Odessa may create municipal courts of record by adoption of an ordinance consistent with this Act.

(b) The ordinance must specify the number of courts of record created, and it may be amended to increase or decrease the number of courts when determined necessary by the governing body.

(c) The governing body may not adopt an ordinance creating municipal courts of record until a majority of the voters of the city voting on the question at an election called by the governing body approve the creation of the courts. The governing body shall order the ballot to be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "Authorizing the City of Odessa to adopt an ordinance creating municipal courts of record." Each qualified voter of the city is entitled to vote in the election. An election under this subsection may be held only once.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. A municipal court of record created under this Act has exclusive original jurisdiction in all criminal cases other than traffic offenses arising under the ordinances of the city and has the jurisdiction granted to municipal courts by state law.

Judges

Sec. 3. (a) A municipal court of record shall be presided over by a judge to be known as a municipal judge.

(b) The city shall provide by charter or ordinance for the election of a municipal judge of a court of record. The election must be for a definite term in office of not less than two nor more than four years.

(c) The governing body of the city shall appoint one of the municipal judges to be the administrative municipal judge of the municipal courts of record.

(d) The administrative judge shall:

1. provide for the distribution of cases from the central docket among the individual municipal judges to equalize the distribution of business in the courts; and

2. temporarily assign judges of the municipal courts of record to exchange benches and to sit and act for each other in a proceeding pending in a court if necessary for the expeditious disposition of business in the courts.

(e) A judge of a municipal court of record must be a licensed attorney in good standing in this state. A person may not serve as a municipal judge while the person holds any other office or employment with the city government.

Salary

Sec. 4. A municipal judge of a court of record is entitled to compensation by the city on a salary basis. The amount of the salary shall be determined by the governing body of the city and may not be diminished during the judge's term of office. The salary may not be based directly or indirectly on fines, fees, or costs that the municipal judge is required by law to collect during his term of office. The governing body shall determine the salary of the municipal judge at least two weeks prior to the deadline for filing for election.

Vacancies; Temporary Replacements

Sec. 5. (a) If a vacancy occurs in the office of a municipal judge of a court of record, the governing body of the city shall appoint a qualified person to fill the office of municipal judge for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(b) If a municipal judge is temporarily unable to act for any reason, the governing body of the city may appoint a qualified person to sit for the regular municipal judge. The appointee has all the powers and duties of the office and while serving is entitled to the same compensation as the regular municipal judge. A temporary judge serves at the pleasure of the governing body until the regular judge returns.

Court Facilities

Sec. 6. The governing body of the city shall provide courtrooms, jury rooms, offices, office furniture, libraries, legal books and materials, and other supplies and facilities that the governing body determines are necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts of record.

Clerk; Other Personnel

Sec. 7. (a) The governing body shall provide for the appointment of a clerk of the municipal courts of record, who shall be known as the municipal clerk. The municipal clerk shall perform, insofar as applicable, the duties prescribed by law for the county clerk of a county court at law. In addition, the municipal clerk shall:

1. maintain central docket records for all cases filed in the municipal courts of record;

2. cause all public records of the municipal courts and the municipal courts of record to be permanently kept and permit those records to be available for inspection at all reasonable times by any interested party;

3. maintain an index of all municipal court judgments in the same manner as county clerks are required by law to prepare for criminal cases arising in county courts; and

4. if necessary for the proper functioning of the municipal courts of record, provide for the preservation of records by microfilming.

(b) The governing body of the city shall provide the municipal courts of record with other municipal court personnel that the governing body determines is necessary for the proper operation of the courts. Those persons shall perform their duties under the direction and control of the clerk of the municipal court or the municipal judge to whom assigned. The governing body shall determine the salaries of the court personnel.
Art. 1200kk  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Recording of Proceedings; Court Reporter

Sec. 8. (a) All proceedings in a municipal court of record shall be recorded by a good quality electronic recording device and the recording kept and stored for not less than 20 days. The proceedings that are appealed shall be transcribed from the recording by a court reporter.

(b) A municipal judge may appoint an official court reporter to transcribe the trial proceedings, including testimony, voir dire examination, objections, and final arguments. Each reporter must be a sworn officer of the court and must be well skilled in the profession. The reporter shall be compensated by the city in the manner determined by the governing body of the city.

Appeals Courts

Sec. 9. (a) A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment of conviction in a municipal court of record under the procedures prescribed by this Act.

(b) The county court and a county court at law of Ector County have jurisdiction of appeals from a municipal court. The county court’s jurisdiction under this subsection is limited to the jurisdiction it has of appeals from a justice court.

(c) Appeals from convictions of the municipal courts that are not of record are de novo. This Act does not affect the procedure for an appeal from a municipal court that is not of record.

Appeals on Record

Sec. 10. An appeal from a municipal court of record conviction is determined by the appellate court solely on the basis of errors presented in the transcript and statement of facts prepared from the municipal court of record proceedings.

Perfecting Appeal

Sec. 11. (a) To perfect an appeal, the defendant must give timely notice of the appeal. The notice of appeal may be given orally in open court, or it may be given in writing and filed with the municipal court of record. The notice is sufficient if it shows the desire of the defendant to appeal from the municipal court of record conviction.

(b) Notice of appeal must be given or filed:

(1) not later than the 10th day after the day on which a motion for new trial is overruled, if a motion is made; or

(2) not later than the 10th day after the day on which judgment is rendered, whether or not the punishment is suspended by an order of probation.

(c) A motion for a new trial must be made not later than the fifth day after the day on which judgment is rendered. If no ruling is made, the motion is overruled by operation of law at the expiration of the 10th day after its filing date.

Record on Appeal

Sec. 12. The record on appeal consists of a transcript and, if necessary to the appeal, a statement of facts.

Contents of Transcript

Sec. 13. (a) On written instructions from the defendant or the defendant’s attorney, the municipal clerk shall prepare under his hand and seal a transcript of the municipal court of record proceedings for transmission to the appellate court. The transcript must include copies of:

(1) the complaint;

(2) material docket entries made by the court;

(3) the jury charge and verdict, if the trial is by jury;

(4) the judgment;

(5) the notice of appeal;

(6) all written motions and pleas and orders of the court; and

(7) bills of exception.

(b) The municipal clerk may include in the transcript additional portions of the proceedings in the municipal court of record if so instructed in writing by either party.

Bills of Exception

Sec. 14. Either party may include bills of exception in the transcript on appeal subject to the applicable provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965. The bills of exception must be filed with the clerk not later than the 60th day after the day on which the notice of appeal is given or filed.

Statement of Facts

Sec. 15. (a) A statement of facts included in the record on appeal must contain:

(1) a transcription of all or any part of the municipal court of record proceedings in the case as recorded on the electronic recording device or shown by the notes of the court reporter recorded or taken before, during, or after the trial, if the transcription is requested by a party, his attorney, or the municipal judge;

(2) a brief statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial as agreed to by the defendant or his attorney and the prosecuting attorney; or

(3) a partial transcription and the agreed statement of the facts of the case.

(b) The court reporter shall transcribe in duplicate any portion of the recorded proceedings or the notes of the court proceedings in the case at the request of either party or the municipal judge. The defendant shall pay for the transcriptions unless the municipal court of record finds, after hearing in response to affidavit by the defendant, that the defendant is unable to pay or give security for the transcriptions. On certification by the municipal court of record that the court reporter has rendered the service without charge to the defendant, the court reporter shall be paid for the services by the city.

Filing of the Record

Sec. 16. (a) Not later than the 60th day after the date the notice of appeal is given or filed, the parties must file with the clerk of the municipal court of record:

(1) the statement of facts;
(2) a written designation of material to be included in the transcript in addition to the material required under Subsection (a) of Section 13 of this Act; and
(3) any matter to be included in the transcript that is not in the custody of the municipal clerk.

(b) The municipal judge may extend the time for filing for good cause.

e) On completion of the record, the municipal clerk shall notify the parties and the municipal court of record judge shall approve the record in the manner provided by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, for record completion notification and approval in the court of appeals.

(d) Following court approval, the municipal clerk shall promptly forward the record to the appellate court clerk for filing.

Brief on Appeal

Sec. 17. (a) A brief on appeal from a municipal court of record must present points of error in the manner required by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, for a brief on appeal to the court of criminal appeals.

(b) The defendant must file the brief with the appellate court clerk not later than the 15th day after the day on which the transcript and statement of facts are filed with the appellate court clerk.

c) The prosecuting attorney must file the brief with the appellate court clerk not later than the 15th day after the day on which the defendant files his brief with the clerk.

d) On filing, each party shall deliver a copy of the brief to the opposing party or the opposing party’s attorney.

(e) The appellate court may in its discretion extend the times for filing briefs.

Procedure on Appeal

Sec. 18. (a) The appellate court shall hear and determine an appeal from a municipal court of record at the earliest possible time with due regard to the rights of parties and the proper administration of justice. The court may not affirm or reverse a case based on mere technicalities or on technical errors in the presentation and filing of the record on appeal. The court may determine the rules for oral argument. The parties may submit the case on the records and briefs without oral arguments.

(b) The appellate court shall review all grounds of error and arguments urged in the defendant’s brief on appeal and may review any unassigned error in the interest of justice.

Disposition on Appeal

Sec. 19. (a) According to the law and the nature of the case, the appellate court may:

(1) affirm the judgment of the municipal court of record;
(2) reverse and remand for a new trial;
(3) reverse and dismiss the case; or
(4) reform and correct the judgment.

(b) Unless the matter was made an issue in the trial court or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or the statement of facts, the appellate court shall presume that:

(1) venue was proven in the trial court;
(2) the jury, if any, was properly impaneled and sworn;
(3) the defendant was arraigned and pleaded to the complaint;
(4) the municipal judge certified the charge before it was read to the jury; and
(5) the municipal clerk filed the charge before it was read to the jury.

e) In each case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overruled, no reason need be given by the appellate court, but cases relied upon by the court may be cited. If an assignment of error is sustained, the appellate court shall set forth the reasons for the decision. The clerk of the appellate court shall mail copies of the decision of the appellate court to the parties and to the municipal judge as soon as the decision is rendered.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings

Sec. 20. When the judgment of the appellate court becomes final, the clerk of that court shall certify the proceedings and the judgment and shall mail the certificate to the clerk of the municipal court of record. The municipal clerk shall file the certificate with the records in the case and note the certificate on the docket. If the judgment is affirmed, further action to enforce the judgment is not necessary except to:

(1) forfeit the bond of the defendant; or
(2) issue a writ of capias for the defendant.
Art. 1200kk

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

1178

New Trial

Sec. 21. If the appellate court awards a new trial and the defendant, the case stands as if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court of record.

Appeals to Court of Appeals

Sec. 22. Appeals to the court of appeals from the decision of the appellate court, if permitted by law, are governed by the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, relating to direct appeals from a county or a district court to the court of appeals except that:

(1) the record and briefs on appeal in the appellate court constitute the record and briefs on appeal to the court of appeals unless the rules of the court of criminal appeals provide otherwise; and

(2) the record and briefs shall be filed directly with the court of appeals.

Seal

Sec. 23. The governing body of the city shall provide each municipal court of record with a seal to be used to authenticate the official acts of the clerk and the municipal judge. The impress of the seal must be attached to all papers issued by the court except subpoenas. The seal must include a five-pointed star and must be engraved with the words "Municipal Court of Record of Odessa, Texas."

Art. 1200kk

Marshall

Creation; Formation by Ordinance

Sec. 1. (a) There is created in the city of Marshall a court of record to be known as the "City of Marshall Municipal Court," to be held in that city if the governing body of the city of Marshall, by ordinance, finds and determines that the formation of a municipal court of record is necessary in order to provide a more efficient disposition of appeals arising from the municipal court.

(b) The authority of the governing body of the city of Marshall to create a municipal court of record in the city of Marshall includes the authority to establish, in the manner set forth in this section, more than one municipal court of record if the governing body determines that it is necessary in order to dispose of the cases arising in the city. If more than one municipal court of record is created, the judges of the municipal courts may at any time exchange benches and sit and act for and with each other in a case, matter, or proceeding pending in a municipal court, and any and all acts performed by a judge are valid and binding on all parties to the case, matter, and proceeding.

(c) The municipal court of record authorized in this section is referred to in this Act as the "municipal court."

Application of Other Laws Regarding Municipal Courts

Sec. 2. The general laws of the state regarding municipal courts and regarding justice courts on matters for which there is no law for municipal courts, and the valid charter provisions and ordinances of the city of Marshall relating to the municipal court apply to the municipal court authorized in this Act, unless the laws, charter provisions, and ordinances are in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

Judge; Qualifications

Sec. 3. (a) The municipal court shall be presided over by a judge, who shall be a licensed attorney in good standing in this state and a citizen of the United States and of this state. The judge need not be a resident of the city. The judge shall devote as much of his time to the duties of the office as the office requires. The judge shall be appointed by the governing body of the city and shall be paid a salary to be determined by that governing body. The salary may not be based on or be in any way contingent on the fines, fees, or costs collected by the municipal court.

(b) If more than one municipal court is created by the governing body of the city, a judge shall be appointed for each court and the governing body shall designate a judge to be the presiding judge.

Court Clerk

Sec. 4. The governing body of the city shall provide a clerk of the municipal courts and the deputy clerks, warrant officers, and other municipal court personnel that are necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts. It is the duty of the clerk to keep records of proceedings of the municipal courts and to issue all processes and generally to perform the duties now prescribed by law for clerks of the county courts at law exercising criminal jurisdiction, insofar as the same may be applicable. The clerk of the municipal courts and all other personnel shall perform the duties of the office under the direction and control of the municipal court judge.

Court Reporter

Sec. 5. (a) For the purpose of preserving a record in the cases tried before the municipal court, the city shall provide a court reporter, who shall be appointed by the municipal court judge and whose compensation shall be determined by the governing body of the city. The qualifications of the court reporter shall be as provided by law for official court reporters.

(b) The record of proceedings may be preserved by the court reporter by written notes, transmitting equipment, recording equipment, or any combination of them. The court reporter is not required to take testimony in cases where neither the defendant, the prosecutor, nor the judge demands it.
Jury Selection
Sec. 6. The names of the prospective jurors for trials in the Marshall Municipal Court of Record shall be drawn from a jury wheel maintained by the District Court of Harrison County, Texas, or from a jury wheel maintained by the clerk of the Marshall Municipal Court of Record, with names of Marshall voter registration rolls of Harrison County, Texas.

Orndances; Judicial Notice
Sec. 7. The municipal court shall take judicial notice of the ordinances of the city.

Appeal; Appellate Courts
Sec. 8. A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment of conviction in the municipal court under the rules prescribed in this Act. The County Court of Harrison County has jurisdiction over the appeals from the municipal court.

Appeals on the Record; No De Novo Appeals
Sec. 9. Each appeal from a conviction in the municipal court shall be determined by the appellate court solely on the basis of errors pointed out in the defendant's motion for new trial and presented in the transcript and statement of facts prepared from the municipal court proceedings leading to the conviction. No appeal from the municipal court may be by trial de novo.

Motion for New Trial
Sec. 10. In order to perfect an appeal, a written motion for new trial must be filed by the defendant not later than the 10th day after the rendition of the judgment of conviction, and may be amended by leave of court at any time before it is acted on not later than the 20th day after it is filed. The motion for new trial shall be presented to the court not later than the 10th day after the filing of the original or amended motion, and shall be determined by the court not later than the 20th day after the filing of the original or amended motion. For good cause shown, the time for filing or amending may be extended by the court. An original or amended motion shall be deemed overruled by operation of law at the expiration of the 20 days allowed for determination of the motion if it is not acted on by the court within that time. The motion shall set forth the points of error complained of by the defendant. For purposes of appeal, a point of error not distinctly set forth in the motion for new trial shall be considered as waived.

Notice of Appeal
Sec. 11. In order to perfect an appeal, the defendant shall give timely notice of appeal. In the event the defendant requests a hearing on the motion for new trial, the notice of appeal may be given orally in open court on the overruling of the motion for new trial. Otherwise, the notice of appeal shall be in writing and filed with the municipal court not later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled.

Appeal Bond
Sec. 12. If the defendant is not in custody, an appeal may not be taken until the required appeal bond has been filed with and approved by the municipal court. The appeal bond must be filed not later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled. If the defendant is in custody, the defendant shall be committed to jail unless he posts the required appeal bond. The appeal bond must be in an amount equal to not less than double the amount of the fine and costs adjudged against the defendant. However, the bond may not in any case be for a sum less than $100. The bond shall recite that in the cause the defendant was convicted and has appealed, and be conditioned that the defendant shall make his personal appearance before the court to which the appeal is taken instantaneously if the court is in session, and if the court is not in session, then at its next session, and there remain from day to day to answer in the cause.

Record on Appeal
Sec. 13. The record on appeal in a case appealed from the municipal court consists of a transcript and, if necessary to the appeal, a statement of facts.

Contents of Transcript
Sec. 14. (a) The municipal court clerk, on written request from the defendant, shall prepare under the clerk's hand and seal of the court for transmission to the appellate court a true transcript of the proceedings in the municipal court that shall always include the following:
(1) the complaint;
(2) material docket entries made by the court;
(3) the jury charge and verdict, if the trial is by jury;
(4) the judgment;
(5) the motion for new trial;
(6) the notice of appeal;
(7) all written motions and pleas and orders of the court; and
(8) any filed bills of exception.
(b) The municipal court clerk may include in the transcript additional portions of the proceedings in the municipal court if so instructed in writing by either the defendant or the prosecuting attorney.

Bills of Exception
Sec. 15. Either party may include bills of exception in the transcript on appeal, subject to complying with the applicable provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure governing the preparation of bills of exception and their inclusion in the record on appeal to the court of appeals, except that the bills of exception shall be filed with the municipal court not later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled.
The municipal court shall order the court reporter to make the transcriptions without charge to the defendant if the court finds, after hearing in the case, that the defendant is unable to pay or give security for the giving or filing of the notice of appeal. The court reporter shall transcribe any portion of the reporter's notes requested of the court reporter by the defendant; shall pay for the transcription. The cost to the defendant for the transcription shall not exceed the fees or charges normally being made by court reporters in the county for similar transcriptions. The defendant shall transcribe any portion of the reporter's notes to have occurred in the court proceedings in the case. The defendant shall pay for the transcription. The cost to the defendant for the transcription shall not exceed the fees or charges normally being made by court reporters in the county for similar transcriptions. The defendant shall transcribe any portion of the reporter's notes requested of the court reporter by the defendant; shall pay for the transcription. The cost to the defendant for the transcription shall not exceed the fees or charges normally being made by court reporters in the county for similar transcriptions.

Completion, Approval, and Transfer of Record

Sec. 17. (a) Not later than the 60th day after the giving or filing of the notice of appeal, the parties shall file with the municipal court clerk:

(1) the statement of facts;
(2) a written designation of all matter that is to be included in the transcript in addition to matter required to be in the transcript by Section 14 of this Act; and
(3) any matter designated to be included in the transcript that is not then in the custody of the municipal court clerk.

(b) On completing the record as designated by the parties in Subdivision (2), Subsection (a), of this section, the municipal court judge shall approve the record in the manner provided by law for record completion notification and approval in appeals to the court of appeals.

(c) On the municipal court judge's approval of the record, the municipal court clerk shall promptly forward it to be filed with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the defendant and the prosecuting attorney that the record has been filed.

Brief on Appeal

Sec. 18. (a) A brief on appeal from the municipal court shall present points of error in the same manner required by law for a brief on appeal to the court of appeals, except that the points of error on appeal shall be confined to those points of error set forth in the defendant's motion for new trial.

(b) The defendant shall file the defendant's brief with the clerk of the appellate court not later than the 15th day after the filing of the transcript and statement of facts with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the prosecuting attorney of the filing. The prosecuting attorney shall file his brief with the clerk of the appellate court not later than the 15th day after the defendant files the defendant's brief with the clerk. Each party, on filing his brief with the clerk of the appellate court, shall cause a true copy of the brief to be delivered to the opposing party.

Procedure on Appeal

Sec. 19. The appellate court shall hear and determine appeals from the municipal court at the earliest practical time it may be done, with due regard to the rights of parties and proper administration of justice, and no affirmance or reversal of a case shall be determined on mere technicalities or on technical errors in the preparation and filing of the record on appeal. Oral arguments before the appellate court shall be under the rules which the appellate court may determine, and the parties may submit the case on the records and briefs without oral arguments.

Disposition on Appeal

Sec. 20. (a) The appellate court may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, reverse or remand for a new trial, reverse and dismiss the case, or reform or correct the judgment, as the law and the nature of the case may require.

(b) The appellate court shall presume that the venue was proven in the court below, that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn, that the defendant was arraigned and pleaded to the complaint, and that the defendant was arraigned and pleaded to the complaint, and that the court's charge was certified by the municipal court judge before it was read to the jury, unless those matters were made an issue in the trial court or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or statement of facts.

(c) In the case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion or order either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overruled, no reason need be given by the appellate court, but cases relied on by the court may be cited. In an assignment of error is sustained, the appellate court shall set forth the reasons for the decision. Copies of the decision of the appellate court shall be mailed by the clerk of the appellate court to the parties and the judge of the municipal court as soon as the decision is rendered by the appellate court.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings

Sec. 21. When the judgment of the appellate court becomes final, the clerk of the appellate court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and shall mail the certificate and papers to the clerk of the municipal court. When the certificate is received by the clerk of the municipal court, the clerk shall file it with the papers in the case and note it on the docket. If the judgment has been affirmed, no proceeding need be had after filing the certificate in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except to forfeit the bond of the defendant, to issue a capias for the defendant, or issue an execution against the defendant's property.

New Trial

Sec. 22. If the appellate court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as it would have stood if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court.

Appeal to the Court of Appeals

Sec. 23. When a judgment is affirmed by the appellate court, the defendant has the right to appeal to the court of appeals if the fine assessed against the defendant in the municipal court exceed $100. The appeal to the court of appeals shall be governed by provisions in the Code of Criminal Procedure relating to direct appeals from county and district courts to the court of appeals except that:

(1) the record and briefs on appeal in the appellate court, plus the transcript of proceedings in the appellate court, shall constitute the record and briefs on appeal to the court of appeals unless the rules of the court of criminal appeals provide otherwise; and

(2) the record and briefs shall be filed directly with the court of appeals.

Art. 1200mm. Austin

Definition

Sec. 1. In this Act, “appellate courts” mean the county courts at law in Travis County.

Creation

Sec. 2. The governing body of the city of Austin may by ordinance establish the city's existing municipal courts as municipal courts of record. The governing body may by ordinance authorize additional municipal courts of record if it finds that additional courts are necessary to properly dispose of the cases arising in the city.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 3. (a) A municipal court of record has jurisdiction within the territorial limits of the city in all criminal cases arising under the ordinances of the city.

(b) The court has concurrent jurisdiction with a justice court in any precinct in which the city is located in criminal cases within the justice court jurisdiction that:

(1) arise within the territorial limits of the city; and

(2) are punishable by fine only.

(c) The court has jurisdiction over criminal cases arising under ordinances authorized by Subdivision 19, Article 1175, Revised Statutes.

Judge

Sec. 4. (a) A municipal court of record shall be presided over by one or more judges, each of whom is to be known as a “municipal judge.”

(b) The governing body of the city shall provide by charter or by ordinance for the selection of its municipal judges, provided the selection shall be for a definite term in office of not less than two nor more than four years, whose duration within these limits shall be determined by charter, ordinance or the method prescribed in Article XI, Section 11, of the Texas Constitution. A municipal judge may continue in office after the end of his or her term for not more than 90 days or until his or her successor is selected and qualified, whichever occurs first.

(c) The judge shall take judicial notice of the ordinances of the city and of the territorial limits of the city. The judge may grant writs of mandamus, attachment, and other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court, and may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases in which the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court.

(d) If there is more than one municipal judge in the city, the governing body of the city shall appoint one of the judges to be the presiding municipal judge.

(e) The presiding municipal judge shall:

(1) maintain a central docket for cases filed within the territorial limits of the city over which the municipal courts of record have jurisdiction;

(2) provide for the distribution of cases from the central docket to the individual municipal judges to equalize the distribution of business in the courts;

(3) call the jury docket and request the jurors needed for cases that are set for trial by jury; and

(4) temporarily assign judges or relief judges to act for each other in a proceeding pending in a court if necessary for the expeditious disposition of business in the courts.

(f) The municipal judges of the municipal courts or relief judges may act for each other in any proceeding pending in the courts. An act performed by any of the judges is binding on all parties to the proceeding.

(g) A municipal judge must be a licensed attorney in good standing in the practice of law in this state for two years, be a citizen of the United States, and
Art. 1200mm  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES have been a resident of the city for the two-year period immediately preceding appointment. A person may not serve as a municipal judge while the person holds other office or employment with the city government. A municipal judge who takes such an office or employment vacates the judicial office.

(b) A municipal judge is entitled to a salary from the city, the amount of which shall be determined by the governing body of the city and may not be diminished during the judge’s term of office. The salary may not be based directly or indirectly on finances, fees, or costs that the judge is required by law to collect during the term of office.

Vacancies: Temporary Replacement; Removal

Sec. 5. (a) If a vacancy occurs in the office of municipal judge of a court of record, the governing body of the city shall appoint a qualified person to fill the office for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(b) The governing body of the city may appoint persons as relief municipal judges. A relief judge must meet the qualifications of the regular judge.
The governing body shall set the compensation of the relief judges. The presiding judge may assign a relief judge to act for a municipal judge who is temporarily unable to act for any reason. A relief judge shall have all the powers and duties of the office while so acting.

(c) A municipal judge may be removed in the manner prescribed for removal of a county court at law judge.

Clerk: Other Personnel

Sec. 6. (a) The governing body of the city shall appoint a clerk of the municipal courts of record, who shall be known as the municipal clerk. The municipal clerk serves at the pleasure of the governing body. The municipal clerk shall perform,insofar as applicable, the duties prescribed by law for the county clerk of a county court at law, and any other duty necessary to issue process and conduct business of the court. The clerk may administer oaths and affidavits and make certificates and affix the court’s seal to those certificates. In addition, the municipal clerk shall:

(1) maintain central docket records for all cases filed in the municipal courts of record;

(2) cause all public records of the municipal courts to be permanently kept and permit those records to be available for inspection at all reasonable times by any interested party.

(3) maintain an index of all municipal court judgments in the same manner as county clerks are required by law to prepare for criminal cases arising in county courts; and

(4) if necessary for the proper functioning of the municipal courts of record, provide for the preservation of records by electronic means or by microfil-ing.

(b) With the consent of the governing body of the city, the municipal clerk may appoint one or more deputy clerks to act for and on behalf of the munici-al clerk.

(c) The governing body of the city shall provide the municipal courts of record with other municipal court personnel that the governing body determines is necessary for the proper operation of the courts.
Those persons shall perform their duties under the direction and control of the clerk of the municipal court or the municipal judge to whom assigned.
The governing body shall determine the salaries of the court personnel.

Court Reporter

Sec. 7. (a) The governing body of the city shall provide an official court reporter to preserve a record in cases tried before the municipal court with the qualifications provided by law for official court reporters. The reporter shall be compensated by the city in the manner determined by the governing body of the city.

(b) The court reporter may use written notes, transcribing equipment, recording equipment, or a combination of those methods to record the proceedings of the court.

(c) The court reporter is not required to record testimony in a trial unless the judge or one of the parties requests a record.

Prosecutions by City Attorney

Sec. 8. All prosecutions in municipal courts shall be conducted by the city attorney of the city, or his or her assistant or deputy.

Filing of Original Papers

Sec. 9. (a) The clerk of the municipal courts of record shall file the original complaint and the original of other papers in each case under the direction of the presiding judge. The filed original papers constitute the records of the courts and a separate record book is not required.

(b) The municipal clerk shall keep a separate folder for each case, and shall note on the outside of the folder:

(1) the style of the case;

(2) the nature of the charged offense;

(3) the dates that the warrant was issued and returned;

(4) the date the examination or trial was held;

(5) whether trial was held by jury or before a judge of the courts;

(6) trial settings;

(7) any verdict of the jury;

(8) any judgment of the court;
(9) any motion for a new trial and the decision on the motion;
(10) whether an appeal was taken; and
(11) the date and the manner in which the judgment and sentence were enforced.

Jury

Sec. 10. (a) Each person charged with an offense is entitled to a trial by a jury of six persons unless the right is waived according to law.

(b) A majority of the judges of the municipal courts of record may adopt a plan binding on each municipal court of record for the selection of persons for jury service from the voter registration rolls of the counties in which the city of Austin is located. A plan adopted by the courts must:

(i) require the compilation of jurors from the voter registration lists of all voting precincts within the city and the registry of permanently exempt persons residing in the city maintained by the county tax collector as prescribed by Article 2137a, Revised Statutes;
(ii) require selection of jurors who are eligible to vote in Austin and have the qualifications prescribed by Article 2138, Revised Statutes;
(iii) require the courts to establish a fair, impartial, and objective method of selecting persons for jury service.

(c) The clerk of the court shall be the official in charge of the selection process.

(d) Each juror is subject to the laws governing exemptions and excuses from jury service in other courts.

Appeal

Sec. 11. (a) A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment or conviction in a municipal court of record. The county courts at law of Travis County have jurisdiction of appeals from a municipal court of record. The city attorney or his assistants or deputies shall prosecute all appeals from the municipal courts.

(b) The appellate court shall determine each appeal from a municipal court of record conviction on the basis of the errors that are set forth in the defendant's motion for a new trial and that are presented in the transcript and statement of facts prepared from the proceedings leading to the conviction. An appeal from the municipal court of record may not be by trial de novo.

(c) To perfect an appeal, the defendant must file a written motion for a new trial not later than the 10th day after the date on which judgment is rendered. The motion or an amended motion may be amended by leave of court at any time before action on the motion is taken, but not later than the 20th day after the date on which the original or amended motion is filed. The court may extend the time for filing or amending for good cause, but the extension may not exceed 90 days from the original filing deadline. If the court does not act on the motion before the expiration of the 30 days allowed for determination of the motion, the original or amended motion is overruled by operation of law. The motion must set forth the points of error of which the defendant complains.

(d) To perfect an appeal, the defendant must also give timely notice of the appeal. If the defendant requests a hearing on the motion for a new trial, the defendant may give the notice of appeal orally in open court on the overruling of the motion for new trial. If there is no hearing, the defendant must give a written notice of appeal and must file the notice with the court not later than the 10th day after the date on which the motion for new trial is overruled. The court may extend that time period for good cause, but the extension may not exceed 90 days from the original filing deadline.

Appeal Bond

Sec. 12. (a) If the defendant is not in custody, the defendant may not take an appeal until the defendant files the required appeal bond with the municipal court. The bond must be approved by the court, and must be filed not later than the 10th day after the date on which the motion for new trial is overruled. If the defendant is in custody, the defendant shall be committed to jail unless the defendant posts the required appeal bond.

(b) The appeal bond must be in the amount of $50 or double the amount of the fines and costs adjudged against the defendant, whichever is greater. The bond must state that the defendant was convicted in the case and has appealed, and must be conditioned on the defendant's immediate and daily personal appearance in the court to which the appeal is taken.

Record on Appeal

Sec. 13. The record on appeal consists of a transcript and, if necessary to the appeal, a statement of facts. The court reporter shall prepare the record from the reporter's record, mechanical, or videotape recordings of the proceedings. The defendant shall pay for the cost of the transcription. If the court finds that the defendant is unable to pay or give security for the record on appeal after a hearing in response to an affidavit by the defendant, the court shall order the reporter to prepare the record without charge to the defendant.

Transcript

Sec. 14. (a) On the written request of the defendant or the defendant's attorney, the clerk of the municipal court of record shall prepare under his hand and seal a transcript of the municipal court of record proceedings for transmission to the appellate court. The transcript must include copies of:

(1) the complaint;
(2) material docket entries made by the court;
Art. 1200mm

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

(3) the jury charge and verdict in a trial by jury;
(4) the judgment;
(5) the motion for new trial;
(6) the notice of appeal;
(7) written motions and pleas;
(8) written orders of the court;
(9) any bills of exception filed with the court; and
(10) the appeal bond.

(b) The clerk may include in the transcript additional portions of the proceedings in the municipal court of record prepared by mechanical or videotape recordings.

Bills of Exception

Sec. 15. Either party may include bills of exception in the transcript subject to the applicable provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965. The bills of exception must be filed with the municipal clerk not later than the 60th day after the date on which the notice of appeal is given or filed.

Statement of Facts

Sec. 16. A statement of facts included in the record on appeal must contain:

(1) a transcript of all or part of the municipal court of record proceedings that are shown by the notes of the court reporter to have occurred before, during, or after the trial, if the transcription is requested by the defendant;
(2) a brief statement of the facts of the case proven at trial as agreed to by the defendant and the prosecuting attorney;
(3) a partial transcription and the agreed statement of the facts of the case; or
(4) a transcription of all or part of the municipal court of record proceedings in the case that is prepared from mechanical or videotape recordings of the proceedings.

Completion, Approval, and Transfer of Record

Sec. 17. (a) Not later than the 60th day after the date on which the notice of appeal is given or filed, the parties must file with the clerk of the municipal court of record:

(1) the statement of facts;
(2) a written description of material to be included in the transcript in addition to the required material; and
(3) any material to be included in the transcript that is not in the custody of the clerk.

(b) On completion of the record, the municipal judge shall approve the record in the manner provided for record completion, notification, and approval in the court of appeals.

(c) Following court approval, the clerk shall promptly forward the record to the appellate court clerk for filing. The appellate court clerk shall notify the defendant and the prosecuting attorney that the record has been filed.

Brief on Appeal

Sec. 18. (a) A brief on appeal from a municipal court of record must present points of error in the manner required by law for a brief on appeal to the court of appeals.

(b) The defendant must file the brief with the clerk of the appellate court not later than the 15th day after the date on which the transcript and statement of facts are filed with that clerk. The defendant or the defendant's attorney must certify that the brief has been properly mailed to the prosecuting attorney.

(c) The prosecuting attorney must file the brief with the clerk of the appellate court not later than the 15th day after the date on which the defendant's brief is filed.

(d) On filing, each party shall deliver a copy of the brief to the opposing party and to the municipal judge.

Court Rules

Sec. 19. (a) Except as modified by this Act, the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, governs the trial of cases before the municipal courts of record. The courts may make and enforce all rules of practice and procedure necessary to expedite the trial of cases before the courts that are not inconsistent with general law.

(b) The appellate courts may make and enforce all rules of practice and procedure necessary to expedite the dispatch of appeals from the municipal courts of record that are not inconsistent with general law.

Disposition on Appeal

Sec. 20. (a) According to the law and the nature of the case, the appellate court may:

(1) affirm the judgment of the municipal court of record;
(2) reverse and remand for a new trial;
(3) reverse and dismiss the case; or
(4) reform or correct the judgment.

(b) Unless the matter was made an issue in the trial court or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or the statement of facts, the appellate court shall presume that:

(1) venue was proven in the trial court;
(2) the jury, if any, was properly impaneled and sworn;
(3) the defendant was arraigned and pleaded to the complaint; and
(4) the municipal judge certified the charge before it was read to the jury.
(c) In each case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion or order either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. The court shall set forth the reasons for its decision. The clerk of the appellate court shall mail copies of the decision to the parties and to the municipal judge as soon as the decision is rendered.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings
Sec. 21. When the judgment of the appellate court becomes final, the clerk of that court shall certify the proceedings and the judgment and shall mail the certificate to the clerk of the municipal court of record. The municipal clerk shall file the certificate with the papers in the case and note the certificate on the case docket. If the municipal court of record judgment is affirmed, further action to enforce the judgment is not necessary except to:
1. forfeit the bond of the defendant;
2. issue a writ of capias for the defendant; or
3. issue an execution against the defendant's property.

Effect of Order of New Trial
Sec. 22. If the appellate court awards a new trial to the defendant, the case stands as if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court of record.

Appeal to Court of Appeals
Sec. 23. If the judgment is affirmed by the appellate court, the defendant has the right to appeal to the court of appeals if the fine assessed against the defendant exceeds $100. The appeal is governed by the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, relating to direct appeals from a county or a district court to the court of appeals except that:
1. the record and briefs on appeal in the appellate court constitute the record and briefs on appeal to the court of appeals unless the rules of the court of criminal appeals provide otherwise; and
2. the record and briefs shall be filed directly with the court of appeals.

Seal
Sec. 24. The governing body of the city shall provide each municipal court with a seal with a star of five points in the center and the words “Municipal Court of Austin, Texas.” The impress of the seal shall be attached to all papers, except subpoenas, issued out of the court and shall be used by each municipal judge or the clerk to authenticate all official acts of the clerk and the municipal judge.

Severability
Sec. 25. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act in all its particulars and as to all other persons and circumstances shall be valid and of full force and effect, and the legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN. CONDEMNATION FOR HIGHWAYS

Art. 1201. Cities Empowered
Cities having more than one thousand inhabitants under the preceding Federal census may proceed in accordance with the provisions hereof, independently of and without reference to any other applicable law or charter provision, present or future, which, however, shall remain in force as alternative methods. The term “city” or “cities” used herein shall include all incorporated towns and cities acting hereunder.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1202. Powers
Subject to the terms hereof, the governing body of a city may lay out, open, establish, widen, straighten, or extend any highway within its limits, and purchase, condemn, and take property therefor. The cost of property purchased, taken or damaged, and costs of condemnation and making assessments hereinafter referred to, and of the enforcement, collection, sale or realization into money of assessments or certificates, together with all other costs of making such improvements, may be paid wholly from any fund of the city available therefor, or wholly from the fund created by said assessments, or partly from each of said funds. The governing body shall have power to assess part or all of such
CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Art. 1202

Costs against the owners of property abutting or in the vicinity of such improvements specially benefitted thereby, and against said property, and to collect, enforce, sell or realize said assessments into money. The term "highway" shall include any street, avenue, boulevard, alley, public place or square, dedicated or to be dedicated to public use.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1203. Further Powers

Cities may purchase by agreement with the owner any property, all or part of which in the opinion of the governing body is necessary for the making of improvements under the terms hereof and pay for same out of any fund available. Cities may sell and convey any part of such property not appropriated to such improvement on such terms and for such consideration as they may see fit, and the proceeds thereof shall become a part of a special fund out of which improvements under the terms hereof and pay for said improvements provided for herein may be defrayed and shall be used for no other purpose, but only the cost of property actually appropriated to such improvement shall be included in any assessment made under the provisions hereof.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1204. Resolution

When the governing body shall determine to proceed hereunder it shall so declare by resolution which may state the nature and extent of the improvement to be made and the limits thereof, and may describe the parcel or parcels of land proposed to be taken or condemned by any description substantially identifying the same, or by lot or block number, or number of front feet, or by the name of the owner, or if owned by an estate, the name thereof. No mistake or omission of said resolution shall invalidate it, and its passage shall be conclusive of the public use and necessity of the proposed improvement.

Art. 1205. Survey

Upon passage of such resolution, the city engineer or engineer designated by the governing body shall prepare and submit to said body a plat showing the nature and limits of the proposed investments, the boundaries thereof, and the points between which it is proposed to establish the same, and the property through which it is to be extended, which is to be taken or condemned therefor, and shall in writing report the estimated total cost of said improvement, and of each parcel of property to be condemned or acquired. The governing body shall examine said plat and report and correct errors therein, if any, but no error or omission shall invalidate the same, or any proceeding had thereupon, and proceed to again do any Act or take any proceeding already done or performed, but said Commissioners shall proceed after the filling of said vacancy and take all steps and do all things provided to be done hereunder as if no such vacancy had occurred.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

1 So in printed bill; probably should read "improvements".

Art. 1206. Condemnation Commission

(a) No property shall be taken without just compensation first made to the owner. If the amount of said compensation shall not be agreed upon, the governing body shall cause to be prepared, on behalf of the city, a statement in writing containing a description of the parcel or parcels of property sought to be taken, the names of the owner or owners thereof, if known, and the purpose for which said property is sought to be taken. The statement shall be filed with the Judge of a County Court at Law, if such Court exists in the county where the property is situated, otherwise with the County Judge of such county. Upon filing the statement the Judge shall forthwith, in term time or vacation, appoint a Commission consisting of three disinterested freeholders of said county who are qualified voters to assess the damages to accrue to said owners, or other interested parties, by reason of condemnation of said property.

In event of the death, disability, refusal to act, incapacity for any reason, or absence for more than thirty days from said county of any Commissioner appointed, and vacancies so caused in said Commission shall be so filled by the Judge whenever they occur. But all proceedings of said Commissioners prior to said vacancy shall be valid and it shall not be necessary for the Commissioners then qualified and acting to again do any Act or take any proceeding already done or performed, but said Commissioners shall proceed after the filling of said vacancy and take all steps and do all things provided to be done hereunder as if no such vacancy had occurred.

(b) The clerk, secretary, or recording officer of the city, or the said Commission itself, shall give written notice to the owners of property proposed to be taken or damaged and to all persons having any interest in or lien upon said property, of a hearing to be held before said Commission, which notice shall state the time and place of hearing, and may contain a brief statement of the nature and extent of the proposed improvement, and a description of the property proposed to be taken; such description may be by lot and block number, front feet, the name of the owner or owners, or by any other description which will substantially identify said property. Notice of said hearing shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the property is situated, not less than three separate days, the first publication to be not less than ten days prior to the date of hearing. Notice by publication shall be valid and binding upon the real and true owners of property and all persons having an interest in or lien upon the same, if it shall generally notify them to appear and be heard, without specifically designating said parties by name, and no error or mistake in the name of any person to whom said notice is directed shall invalidate the same. Said notice shall also be served by delivering to said owners, lienholders, or interested parties, if residents of the county where said property is situated, or to their agent or attorney, or if a minor to the Guardian thereof, a copy of said notice. The person serving said notice shall make and file with the clerk, secretary or recording officer of the city a return in writing thereon, stating when and how he served said notice. The governing body may provide for other and additional notice, but notice by publication shall in all cases be valid and binding, whether other notice is given or not. The governing body may provide for and cause to be given, in accordance with due process of law, any other and additional notice of any other hearing which may become or be deemed necessary upon the vacation of the office of a Commissioner and appointing of a new one, or for any other reason, and to provide for such hearings and the nature and effect thereof, and to cause as many and different hearings to be held in the course of condemnation proceedings as may be deemed necessary. Said Notices, and the return thereon, shall be filed with the city and preserved in its records.

(c) Hearings shall be adjourned and shall be kept open until all parties interested and appearing shall be fully heard. All owners, interested parties, or lienholders shall have the right to appear at said hearings in person or by agent or attorney, and be heard as to the value of property proposed to be taken or as to the damages to property not taken, resulting from the improvement, or as to the legality or regularity of the proceedings or any right of said owners and other parties. All objections or contests shall be in writing and filed with said Commission. When all parties have been heard the Commission shall close the hearing and find the amounts payable to each, and shall date and sign a report in writing, in duplicate, one of which reports shall be delivered to said owners, lienholders, or interested parties. The findings of the Commission shall become final and binding upon the parties, their heirs, successors and assigns, and shall not thereafter be questioned in any proceeding.

(e) Said Commissioners shall each be entitled to receive as compensation not exceeding Ten ($10.00) Dollars for every day employed by them in the performance of their duties.

Art. 1207. Statutes Applicable

The applicable provisions of the laws relating to eminent domain are made a part of this law, and shall apply to proceedings hereunder, and all parties shall proceed in accordance with and be governed by said articles, unless otherwise herein provided. The city shall not be required to execute the bond referred to in said laws.

Art. 1208. Errors

The governing body, said commission and judge before whom condemnation proceedings are pending, shall take all steps and do all things proper to correct any error, invalidity or irregularity in any proceeding with reference thereto, and shall do so at the instance of any interested party. No error or omission in said proceedings shall invalidate the same, but any proceeding may be corrected, taken again, or adjourned, until such corrections are made or omissions supplied.

Art. 1209. Assessments

Whenever the governing body shall order the making of any improvement herein referred to, it may then or thereafter at any time provide by resolution that all or part of the costs thereof, as defined in the third article of this chapter, shall be assessed against said property abutting said proposed improvement, or in the vicinity thereof, and the owners thereof specially benefited thereby, together with reasonable attorney’s fees and all costs incurred in the collection of said assessments, and shall have power to apportion the same among the owners of said property, and may designate the property proposed to be assessed, or the district within which property will be benefited and within which assessments may be made, provided no assessment shall be made against any property, or its owner, in excess of the special benefits thereto in the enhanced value thereof from said improvement.
Art. 1209

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

No assessments shall be made against any property exempt from execution, but the owner shall be personally liable and assessed therefor.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1210. Lien

Assessments shall constitute a prior lien upon the property to all others, except ad valorem taxes, and shall relate back and take effect as of the date of the resolution ordering the same.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1211. Notice of Assessment

No assessment shall be made against owners of property benefited, or their property, until after a reasonable opportunity to be heard shall have been given them, lienholders, and others interested, before such governing body, or the commission hereafter referred to, preceded by a reasonable notice thereof published three (3) times prior to said hearing, in some newspaper of general circulation in the city; and, if the owner is a railway or street railway, by additional written notice delivered either in person to its local agent, or by depositing said written notice in the city post office, postage paid, and properly addressed to the offices of the railway or street railway at the address as it appears on the last approved city tax roll; and the written notice, if required, to be mailed or delivered, and the first publication to be made not less than ten (10) days prior to said hearing, and the names of owners, lienholders, and others interested need not be specifically set out in said notice, but the parcel or parcels of land proposed to be assessed shall be briefly described in said notice, either by lot and block, number, front feet, or by any other description reasonably identifying the same, or by reference to any plat, report or record filed in connection with said proceedings. The governing body or commission shall have the power to give other and additional notice, but said published notice, together with said written notice, if required, shall be sufficient.

Art. 1212. Hearing

At said hearing said owners, lienholders, and other interested parties shall have the right to contest in writing said assessments, the special benefits, irregularities or invalidities thereof, or any prerequisite thereto, and to produce testimony in support of said contents, and the governing body or said commission shall determine the amounts, if any, to be assessed.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1213. Assessments Levied

The governing body shall make assessments by ordinance. Said assessments may be enforced by suit brought by the city for the benefit of any holder and owner of such assessments or of the certificates issued thereon, or brought by such holder and owner; or by the sale of the property assessed in the same manner as near as possible as is provided for the sale of real estate for municipal taxes. Assessments may be made payable in not exceeding sixteen installments, the last maturing in not over fifteen years, and may bear interest at not over eight per cent per annum.

Art. 1214. Assessment Commission

At the time of or after the passage by the governing body of the resolution ordering such assessments, it shall have power in its discretion to declare that said hearing to property owners and other interested parties shall be had before the commissioners then or thereafter appointed to make condemnations, or before their successors are appointed should a vacancy occur, and thenceupon such commission shall cause to be given the notices or notices provided in the third preceding article, and it shall have all the powers conferred by this law upon such governing body, and shall do all things with reference to said assessments which said governing body is hereby empowered to do, except as herein expressly provided. If said hearing shall be before said commission, it shall report in writing its findings to the governing body, which shall examine said report, and, if found correct, approve the same, and shall by ordinance assess against the owners and their property found to be benefited by said improvements, the amounts found to be properly chargeable against them.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1215. Certificates

The city may issue assignable certificates, payable to the city, or to the purchaser thereof, declaring the liability of owners and their property for the payment of assessments, and may fix the terms, time of payment, the conditions of default, and maturity thereof.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1216. Suit on Certificate

The allegations of such recitals of such certificates in any suit brought for the enforcement thereof, shall be a sufficient allegation of all proceedings had by said governing body with reference to the making of said improvements and the assessment of the cost thereof, and of all prerequisites to the said assessment, and shall be deemed sufficient to permit proof of said proceedings and prerequisites without the necessity of alleging and setting forth the same in the pleadings, by caption, substantially or in full.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]
Art. 1217. Reassessments

No error in any proceeding hereunder, or in the description of property, or in the name of the owner, shall invalidate an assessment, which shall nevertheless be in effect as against the real and true owner and his property. Whenever the governing body is advised of such error it shall correct the same, and shall at the request of any interested party reassess any owner or property erroneously assessed, after lawful notice and hearing and in accordance with benefits as herein provided as to original assessments, and may fix the time and terms of payment of said sums so reassessed, and issue assignable certificates evidencing the same as herein provided as to original assessments. The right to make said reassessments shall continue until the expiration of six years from the date of the ordinance making the original assessment. But if the same shall have been resisted or brought in question in any action at law, the time consumed in said action shall be excluded in computing said term of six years. In making such reassessments it shall not be necessary to do any act, or take any step, or again perform any prerequisite already legally done or performed with reference to the original assessment, but the governing body may in its discretion proceed without again taking steps already validly taken or performed provided no reassessment shall be made until after the notice and hearing and in accordance with benefits, as herein provided.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1218. Deficiency Assessments

If after any assessment has been made hereunder, if by means of an increased award of compensation for property taken or damaged in condemnation proceedings hereunder, or on appeal from the award of said commission, or for any other reason, the amount assessed and apportioned between the property owners benefited shall be found insufficient to defray all the costs of the improvement as herein defined, the governing body may in its discretion assess the deficiency against owners of property benefited, and their property, and apportion same among them, after the hearing and notice herein provided and after complying with each provision hereof applicable to original assessments; or said deficiency assessments may be made after notice and hearing before said commission in the manner provided in the fourth preceding article and assignable certificates evidencing said assessment may be issued by the city.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1219. Suit

Any property owner against whom or whose property an assessment or reassessment has been made, may, within ten days thereafter bring suit to set aside or correct the same, or any proceeding with reference thereto on account of any error or invalidity therein, but thereafter such owner, his heirs, assigns, or successors shall be barred from such action or any defense of invalidity in such proceedings or assessment or reassessment, in any action in which the same may be brought into question.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1220. Enforcement of Law

The governing body shall have power to pass any ordinance or resolution, or to adopt rules and regulations, or to take any steps proper to give full legal effect to every part of this chapter. No assessment or reassessment shall be affected or invalidated in any manner by any error, omission or invalidity in any proceeding of the city hereunder with reference to the making of any improvement herein provided for, or with reference to the taking or condemnation of any property thereby, or with reference to the determination and paying damages for property taken or damaged, but regardless thereof, and regardless of the fact that at the date of said assessments said improvements may not have been completed, the said assessments shall be in all things valid and binding.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1220a. Notices of Assessments for Street Improvements

“Street” Defined

Sec. 1. That whenever the Governing Body of any city, town or village shall, by resolution, ordinance or other proceedings, order, direct or provide or determine it to be necessary that any street be improved in any manner, then if it is proposed that all or any part of the cost of such improvements be levied or assessed and made a lien on property abutting thereon, there shall be filed with the County Clerk of the county or counties in which such property is situated, a notice signed in the name of such city, town or village by its Clerk, Secretary or Mayor or other officer performing the duties of such. Such notice shall meet all requirements of this Act when it shows substantially that the Governing Body of such city, town or village has ordered, directed or otherwise provided or determined it to be necessary that such street be improved and shall give the same thereof with the two cross streets or other approximate lengthwise line to determine in which same is to be or has been improved, or shall otherwise identify or designate same and shall state that a portion of the cost of such improvement is to be or has been specially assessed as a lien upon property abutting thereon. It is specially provided that one notice may embrace and include any number of streets or improvements.

Art. 1220a. Notice Designating Property Subject to Lien

Sec. 3. If it is proposed that all or any part of the cost of improving any such street be assessed as a lien on any property other than that abutting thereof, then a notice so signed shall be filed with the Clerk of the county or counties in which such property affected is situated, and such notice in such cases shall designate the property proposed to be assessed or the district within which assessments have been or may be made or shall otherwise identify the property against which a lien is proposed to be assessed.

Requisites of Notice: Filing

Sec. 4. It shall not be necessary that any notice required by this Act give details or that it be sworn to or acknowledged, and same may be filed at any time and the County Clerk with whom any such notice is filed shall record same in the records of mortgages or deeds of trust and shall index same in the name of the city, town or village and in the name or other designation of the street or streets to the improvement of which the notice relates.

Time of Taking Effect of Lien

Sec. 5. That in all instances coming within the purview of this Act the lien of any assessment or re-assessment upon the property assessed or re-assessed shall take effect and be in force at and from the filing of the notice herein provided for and not before such filing and substantial compliance with the provisions of this Act shall be sufficient.

No Retroactive Effect

Sec. 6. That this Act shall not apply to or in any wise affect special assessments or re-assessments or liens fixed nor to any assessments, re-assessments or liens for any such improvements ordered, directed or provided for prior to the time this Act takes effect.

Other Laws Superseded as to Time Liens Take Effect

Sec. 7. That this Act shall supersede all other parts of laws with reference to the time that liens of any assessments or re-assessments shall take effect.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Repeal

Acts 1925, S.B. 84. Provided that all other parts of laws with reference to the time that liens of any assessments or re-assessments shall take effect, and that this Act shall supersede all other parts of laws with reference to the time that liens of any assessments or re-assessments shall take effect.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]
Art. 1223. Plans

The petitioning property owners may provide in said petition plans and specifications together with the kind of poles and lights and other material necessary to properly install said special lighting system, or such part of same as they desire to specify, and the governing body in that instance may order the same or any part thereof used in the construction of said system. If the kind specified in said petition is not available, the governing body shall use material of like kind and quality to that specified in said petition. Said body may reject any or all of said plans and specifications and have same prepared as hereinafter provided for.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1224. Resolution

The governing body shall have power, by resolution, to order the making of the public improvements mentioned herein, or any of them, by a majority vote, without first being petitioned to do so by the abutting property owners as hereinafter provided, and the passage of such resolution shall be conclusive of the public necessity and the benefits thereof, and no notice of such action by the governing body shall be requisite to its validity. Such resolution shall in general terms, set forth the nature and extent of the improvements or improvement to be made, the street, streets or portions thereof to be illuminated, the material or materials with which the improvements are to be constructed, and the method or methods under which the cost of such improvements are to be paid. Such resolution shall be passed whether the improvements are made with or without the petition of the abutting property owners.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1225. Specifications

Upon the passage of the resolution by the governing body as hereinafter provided, it shall be the duty of the city engineer, or the official of the city whose duties most nearly correspond to that of city engineer, to forthwith prepare plans and specifications for the said improvement, which, when completed, shall be submitted to the governing body for its approval.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1226. Bids

When the plans and specifications have been approved and adopted by the governing body, it shall be the duty of the city secretary, or other officer as may be designated by the governing body, to at once advertise for sealed bids for the construction of such improvements in accordance with the specifications. Such advertisement shall be inserted in a daily paper of general circulation in the city concerned, and shall state the time within which the bids may be received as prescribed by the governing body, which shall not be less than ten and not more than fifteen days from the insertion of said advertisement. Bids shall be filed with the city secretary, or such other officer as the governing body may designate, and shall be opened and read at a public meeting of the governing body. Such body shall have the right to accept such bids as it shall deem most advantageous to the abutting property owners concerned in the improvement, or may reject any and all bids. No bid shall be amended, changed or revised after being filed.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1227. Contract

When the bids for such improvements have been accepted by the governing body, the city shall enter into a contract with the contractor or contractors to whom the work has been let for the performance thereof, which contracts shall be executed in the name of the city by its chief executive and attested by the city secretary, or such other officer as may be designated by the governing body, with the corporate seal.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1228. Assessments

The city shall have power to assess the whole cost of installing and completing the improvements provided for herein, both for labor and material, against the owners of property abutting upon the street, streets or portions thereof, upon which said improvements are to be constructed, and who are specially benefited thereby, and shall have power to fix a lien against such property to secure the payment of the proportion of such costs assessed against the owners of such property. In no event shall costs be assessed against such owners or their property, or their personal liability therefor finally determined until after the hearing hereinafter mentioned, and after the adjustment of equities between such owners. The cost assessed against any property or the owner thereof, shall not exceed the amount of the special benefit in enhanced value which such property shall receive from such improvement.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1229. Mode of Assessment

The portion of the costs of such improvements which may be assessed against any such property or its owners, shall be in proportion as the frontage of the property on the street, streets or portions thereof abutting on the special lighting system, and such cost shall be apportioned in accordance with what is commonly known as the frontage or front foot rule; provided that if the application of this rule would, in the opinion of the governing body in particular cases be unjust or unequal, it shall be the duty of said body to assess and apportion said costs in such proportion as it may deem just and equitable, having in view the specific benefit in enhanced value to be received by each owner of such property, the equities of such owners and the adjustment of such appportionment, so as to produce a substantial equality of the benefits received by and the burdens imposed upon each owner.

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1230. Statement

The contract or contracts for such improvements having been executed and approved by the governing body, the city engineer, or the officer of the city whose duties most nearly correspond to that of city engineer, shall prepare a written statement which shall contain the names of such persons, firms, corporations or estates as may own property abutting on the section to be improved, the number of front feet owned by each, and describing the property owned by each, either by lot and block number, or otherwise so describing such property as may be sufficient to identify same; and such statement shall contain an estimate of the total cost of the improvement, the amount per front foot to be assessed against abutting property and its owners, and the total estimated amount to be assessed against each owner. Such statement shall be submitted to the governing body whose duty it shall be to examine same and correct any errors that may appear therein, but no error, omission or mistake in such statement shall in any manner invalidate any assessment made, or lien or claim of personal liability fixed thereunder.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1231. Notice of Hearing

When the statement shall have been examined and approved by the governing body, it shall declare by resolution, and directing notice thereof to be given to the owners aforesaid by publication for ten consecutive days in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the city where the improvement is to be made; but if there be no daily newspaper in such place, then the governing body shall give such notice to such owners by registered mail at least ten days before the time set for the hearing as hereinbefore provided. The notice shall state the time and place of the hearing and the street, streets or portions thereof to be improved, with a general description of such improvements and a statement of the amount per front foot proposed to be assessed against the property, and a notice to all such property owners and all persons interested to appear at such hearing. It shall not be necessary to include in such notice a description of any property or the name of the owner, but such notice shall nevertheless be binding and conclusive upon all owners of property, or persons interested in or having a lien or claim thereon.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1232. Hearing

On the day set out in the notice for the hearing, not less than ten days from the date of such notice, or at any time thereafter before the close of the hearing, any person, firm or corporation interested in any property which may be claimed to be subject to assessment for the purpose of paying the cost of the improvement, in whole or in part, shall be entitled to a hearing before the governing body as to all matters affecting said property, or the benefits therefrom, or such improvements, or any claim of liability, or objection to the making of said improvements, or any invalidity or irregularity in any proceeding with reference to making said improvements, or any other objection thereto. Such person, firm, or corporation shall file their objections in writing, and thereafter the governing body shall hear and determine the same, and all persons interested shall have full opportunity to produce evidence and witnesses and appear in person or by attorney; and a full and fair hearing thereof shall be given by such governing body, which hearing may be adjourned from time to time without further notice. The governing body shall have the power to inquire into and determine all facts necessary to the adjudication of such objections and the ascertainment of the special benefits to such owners by reason of the contemplated improvements; and shall render such judgment or order in each case as may be just and proper. Any objection to the irregularity of the proceedings with reference to the making of such improvements as herein provided, or to the validity of any assessment or adjudication of personal liability against such property or the owners thereof, shall be deemed waived unless presented at the time and in the manner herein specified.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1233. Order of Assessments

When the hearing above mentioned has concluded, the governing body shall, by ordinance, assess against the several owners of the property abutting on the street, streets or portions thereof, such proportionate part of the cost of improvements as said body shall have adjudged against the respective owners and their property. Said ordinance shall fix a lien upon such property and declare the respective owners thereof to be personally liable for the respective amounts to be assessed; and shall state the time and manner of payment of such assessment; and said governing body may order that the said assessments shall be payable in installments, and prescribe the amount, time and manner of payment of such installments, which, except as hereinafter provided, shall not exceed six, and the last payment shall not be deferred beyond five years from the completion of such improvement and its acceptance by the city. The said ordinance shall also prescribe the rate of interest to be charged upon deferred payments, not to exceed seven per cent per annum; and may provide for the maturity of all deferred payments and their collection upon default of any installment of principal or interest.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]
Art. 1234. Lien

Each property owner shall have the privilege of discharging the whole amount assessed against him, or any installment thereof, at any time before maturity, upon payment thereof with accrued interest. The fact that more than one parcel of land, the property of one owner or jointly owned by two or more persons, firms or corporations, have been assessed together in one assessment, shall not invalidate the same or any lien thereon, or any claim of personal liability thereunder. The cost of any such improvement assessed against any property or owner thereof, together with all costs and reasonable attorneys fees when incurred, shall constitute a personal claim against such property owner, and shall be secured by a lien on such property superior to all other liens, claims, or titles, except city, county and State taxes, and such personal liability may be enforced by suit in any court of competent jurisdiction. In any suit brought under this article, it shall be proper to join as defendants two or more property owners who are interested in any single improvement or any single contract for such improvement. The person or persons who own property at the date of any ordinance providing for the assessment thereof, shall be severally and personally liable for their respective portions of the said assessment. The lien of such improvements shall revert back and take effect as of the date of the original resolution ordering the improvement, and the passage of such resolution shall operate as notice of such lien to all persons. Any error or mistake in such ordinance in the name of the owner or owners of the property assessed, shall not invalidate the lien or personal liability thereby created, but the same shall nevertheless exist against the real and true owner of such property as if correctly described.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1235. Suit

At any time within ten days after the hearing herein provided for has been concluded, any person or persons having an interest in any property which may be subject to assessment under this law, or otherwise having any financial interest in such improvement or improvements or in the manner in which the cost thereof is to be paid, who may desire to contest on any ground the validity of any proceeding that may have been had with reference to the making of such improvements or the validity in whole or in part of any assessment or lien or personal liability fixed by said proceedings, may institute suit for that purpose in any court of competent jurisdiction. Any person who shall fail to institute such suit in said period of ten days, or who shall fail to diligently prosecute such suit in good faith to final judgment, shall be forever barred from making any such contest or defense in any other action, and this estoppel shall bind their heirs, successors, administrators and assigns. The city and the person or persons to whom the contract has been awarded shall be made defendants in such suit, and any other proper parties may be joined therein.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1236. Proceedings

There shall be attached to the plaintiff's petition an affidavit of the truth of the matters therein alleged, except such matters as are alleged on information and belief, that said suit is brought in good faith and not to injure or delay the city or the contractor or any owner of real estate abutting on the improvement. Unless the provisions of this article are complied with by the plaintiff or plaintiffs, such suit shall be dismissed on motion of any defendant and in that event plaintiff or plaintiffs shall be barred and estopped to the same extent as if suit had not been brought. In any case where a suit is brought as above provided, then the performance of the work may be suspended at the election of either the city or contractor until such suit shall be finally determined in the court of original jurisdiction or any appellate court to which the same may be taken by appeal or writ of error. Every appeal or writ of error shall be perfected within thirty days from the adjournment of the term of court of original jurisdiction at which final judgment was rendered in such suit; and no appeal or writ of error to review the judgment of said court may thereafter be taken or sued out by either party. Any such suit shall be entitled to precedence in the courts of this State of appellate jurisdiction, and shall be heard and determined as promptly as practicable.

Art. 1237. Certificates

The governing body may provide that for the cost, which is assessed against the abutting property and its owners, the contractor to whom the work may be let shall look only to such property owners and their property, and that the city shall be relieved of liability for such cost. The governing body may also authorize assignable certificates against abutting property or property owners. The recital in such certificates that the proceedings with reference to making such improvements have been regularly had in compliance with the terms of this law, and all prerequisites to the fixing of this lien and the claim of personal liability evidenced by such certificate, have been performed, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts so recited, and no other proof thereof shall be required, but in all courts the said proceedings and prerequisites shall, without further proof, be presumed to have been had or performed. Such certificates shall be executed by the chief executive of the city, and attested with the corporate seal by the city secretary or such other officer as may be designated by the governing body.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]
Art. 1238. Public Improvements

The governing body, if it deems it to be more advantageous to the public, provided public funds are available therefore, may order by resolution the making of any local public improvement by installing a special lighting system as contemplated herein, and for such purpose shall prescribe the district composed of the street or streets, highways, boulevards or alleys, or any portion thereof, that are sought to be improved by the establishment and maintenance of such special lighting system. Specifications shall be prepared therefor under the direction of the governing body and bids shall be invited upon the same as provided herein for making such local improvements. Contracts shall be let as provided herein for making contracts in other cases. A hearing shall be accorded to all property owners owning property abutting upon the streets in such districts to be improved by the said lighting system, and the cost of the same shall be assessed against such property in the same manner as provided herein in all other cases. A special lien shall be created against the abutting property and the owners thereof shall be personally liable as is provided herein in all other cases. The amount of the cost of making such improvements shall be reimbursed to the city by the property owners whose property is assessed in the manner provided for herein. All proceedings relative to making the assessments and issuing assignable certificates shall apply as far as practicable to the procedure to be followed in making the public improvements under the terms of this article.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1239. General Powers

The governing body may provide additional rules and regulations governing hearings and the issuance of notices therefor as may be deemed advisable in order to afford a full hearing to all property owners concerning the assessments levied or to be levied against them on account of the special benefits received from the improvements so ordered. Such body may use such money as is at its disposal to assist in the financing of the public improvements herein provided for.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1240. Control

After the public improvements provided for in the preceding nineteen articles have been completed and the job accepted by the city, the same shall become the property of the city, and the city shall maintain the same at its own expense, as a part of its regular lighting system.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]
Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 648, ch. 267, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975.

Order: Conduct and Canvass of Election by Mayor; Laws Governing Election

Sec. 4. The election as herein provided shall be ordered, conducted and canvassed by the mayor as in the case of the incorporation of such city, town, or village, except that the mayor shall perform all acts performable in the case of incorporation by the county judge. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, such election shall be governed by the laws of the State of Texas applicable generally to elections in incorporated cities.

Sec. 5. The following statutes are specifically repealed: Acts 1895, p. 166, G.L. Vol. 10, p. 896; Acts 1899, p. 245; Acts 1897, p. 194; these being codified respectively as Articles 1241, 1242, 1243, and 1261. No other laws are hereby repealed except insofar as they are inconsistent herewith.

Art. 1244. Receiver

In all cases where any city or town having theretofore had a valid corporate existence, under the laws of this State, has abolished said corporate existence in the manner provided by law, and in all cases where any city or town having a valid corporate existence under such laws may hereafter abolish their corporate existence, any creditor of any such city or town may apply to the judge of the district court of the district in which such city or town may be situated, for the appointment of a receiver for said corporation. After having posted up in at least three public places in the county where such city or town is located, one of which shall be in said city or town, written notice stating the substance of the application, when and before whom the same will be heard, such judge in term time or vacation, may appoint a suitable person as such receiver for such corporation, and shall fix the amount of bond to be given by such receiver in at least double the probable amount of the indebtedness or value of the property of such city or town, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as such officer, and for the paying over and delivery of all money and property coming into his hands as such receiver, to the parties entitled to receive same, such bond to be approved by the judge making the appointment; and same, together with order of appointment, shall be filed with, and recorded in, the minutes of said court by the district clerk of the county where such city or town is situated. Receivers appointed under the provisions of this chapter shall receive such compensation as the court may allow.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1245. Duties of Receiver

A receiver appointed under the preceding article, after having given the required bond, and after having same duly filed and recorded, shall take charge of all the real and personal property, including moneys, minute books, ordinances, etc., except such property as pertains to the public free schools or devoted exclusively to public use, and shall return an inventory of all such property, money, books, etc., so received by him to the next succeeding term of the district court for the county in which such city or town is situated; and, for the purpose of securing such property, money, books, etc., he may, under the order of said court, or the judge thereof in vacation, bring suit against any person in possession of such property, books, or moneys, or indebted to said city or town, the same as such city or town could were it still incorporated.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1246. Claim

Any person, firm or corporation, having any claim against such city or town, shall within six months from the appointment of said receiver, present to him a statement of the amount of such claim, duly verified, which, if he finds correct, he will mark allowed, and file same in the district court; and at its next regular term, if no protest be filed, said claim shall be approved by said court and shall thereafter be considered a valid debt against such city or town.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1247. Notice of Claim

No such claim or account against such city shall be allowed or approved by the receiver without notice of the presentment thereof first having been given, by publication in some newspaper, if any, in the town or city where same is filed or presented, for four consecutive weeks, and in case there be no newspaper published in such town or city, then by posting notice of the presentment of such claim at the courthouse door of the county in which said town or city is situated, for four weeks prior to the allowance of said claim or account. Such notice, whether published or posted, shall state the name and residence of the creditor, the amount and date of said claim and account, and for what purpose incurred.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1248. Adjustment

If such receiver finds any claim so presented to him unjust, in whole or in part, he shall endorse his finding thereon, and return same to the claimant, who may file same with the district court, if he desires to accept the findings of the receiver, and such claim for the amount allowed by the receiver may be acted upon by said court as other claims.
Art. 1248  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1249. Contest, Suit

In case any protest by any taxpayer of said city or town be filed against any claim in said court, together with a bond to be approved by said court, that he will pay all costs of suit in case said claimant established his claim in full in any State court in which he may sue thereon, then such district court shall refuse to approve such claim until it shall have been established by judgment, recovered thereon in a State court of competent jurisdiction. Such suit to establish such claim or any claim disallowed in part or in whole, may be brought against the receiver, who shall make all legal defense against such claim. The court trying said claim is hereby authorized to hear and consider any material defense that may be or may have been urged against said claim, except that of limitation, though such claim, prior thereto, may have been reduced to judgment, but such judgment shall be considered, upon such trial, as prima facie evidence of the justness of such a claim.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1250. Judgment and Costs

Any judgment recovered against such receiver upon a claim against such city or town shall be allowed by the receiver and approved by the district court wherein the receivership is pending. In all suits upon claims wherein protest and bond were filed in the district court, the claimant shall be liable for the costs of the suit, unless he recovers judgment for the full amount for which he asked the approval of the said district court. In suits upon claims rejected in part by the receiver, the claimant shall be liable for the costs of the suit, unless he establishes his claim for a greater amount than was allowed by the receiver.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1251. Limitation

Limitations shall not run, begin to run or be pleaded against any claim against such city or town at any time prior to six months after the appointment of such receiver.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1252. Certain Dissolutions

No receiver shall be appointed for any such city or town whose corporate existence was dissolved prior to July 17, 1905, where the application therefore was not filed in said court within two years from and after July 10, 1905.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1253. Suits Barred

No suit shall be brought against such receiver upon any claim, against the allowance of which a protest has been filed, as herein provided for, at any time after six months from the date of filing such protest, nor after the expiration of six months from the date of the disallowance of any such claim in whole or in part, where the claim has not been filed in the district court, after such disallowance as hereinebefore provided.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1254. Payment of Claims

The district court of the county in which such town or city is situated, and in which such receivership is pending, shall provide for the payment of all claims legally established against such city or town, and determine the priority of any claims and order the sale of all property in the hands of the receiver subject to sale for such purpose, and direct such receiver to pay such claims. If the money and proceeds of property are insufficient to pay such indebtedness, then said court, at the request of any creditor, at the first regular term of said court in each year, shall levy a tax upon all the property and real and personal estate situated within the limits of said city or town, as previously incorporated, on the first day of the preceding January, not exempt from taxation under the Constitution and laws of this State, sufficient to discharge the indebtedness, but not to exceed the rate allowed by existing law for such purposes in incorporated cities and towns.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Whenever the district court, having jurisdiction in the premises, has or may order the assessment and collection of taxes for the payment of the indebtedness of such town, or city, the tax assessor for the county in which such town or city is situated, shall assess the taxes so ordered in like manner as taxes in rural school districts. The county tax collector for such county shall collect such taxes in like manner as taxes in rural school districts. This article shall not repeal any part of Articles 1245 to 1250 inclusive. For the services rendered under this article, the assessor and collector shall receive the same compensation as for like services for the assessment and collection of taxes in rural school districts; and said collector shall pay such taxes when collected, to the receiver of such city or town.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1256. Delinquent Taxes

Suits may be brought by the receivers against delinquents, and a lien shall exist upon all property for such taxes, the same as though the corporate existence of such city or town had never been abolished, and such levy and assessment had been made by its council and assessor.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]
Art. 1257. Prior Claims

The compensation of the receiver, together with all court costs and expenses, shall constitute a prior claim against such city or town, and shall be first paid out of any money on hand or collected. In case of taxation the money collected each year shall be paid pro rata upon all claims according to their priorities until all claims established and all costs and expenses are fully paid. On final settlement of such receivership, any money or property left on hand shall be turned over by the receiver to the trustees or other officers in charge of the public free school the district of which is wholly situated within the boundaries of such city or town for the benefit of such school, but if there be no public free school the district of which is within the boundaries of said city or town, then the money or property left on hand shall be turned over to the county in which said city or town is situated, the money to be placed in the general fund of such county, and property to be used for the benefit of such county.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84. Amended Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., p. 768, ch. 227.]

Art. 1258. Public Schools

Where the public free schools of such city or town are under the management of trustees appointed or elected by the voters of the city or town, or by the city or town council, at the time its incorporation is abolished under the provisions of this chapter, such trustees shall have the management of said schools for the remainder of the term for which they were appointed or elected, subject to the supervision of the commissioners court, unless such city or town shall sooner become incorporated for school purposes only.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1259. School Taxes

All taxes for municipal or school purposes which shall have been levied prior to the date of the abolishment of such corporation, and which shall not have been paid, shall be collected by the receiver, together with such penalties and interest as may be due; but the portion of such taxes levied for the purpose of maintaining the public free schools or said city or town shall be paid over by said receiver to the trustees of the public free schools of said city or town and applied by them for the purpose for which they were levied.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84. Amended by Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., p. 768, ch. 227.]

Art. 1260. Public Buildings

When any corporation is abolished under the provisions of this chapter, and shall at the time of any such dissolution own any public buildings, public parks, public works or other property, and the same shall not have been sold or disposed of as provided in this chapter, the same shall be managed and controlled by the commissioners court of such county for the purpose to which same were originally used and intended; and, for this purpose, the commissioners court shall have and exercise, with reference thereto, the powers originally conferred by charter upon the mayor and aldermen of such city.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1262. When Corporation Ceases to Function

When any corporation is abolished, or if any de facto corporation has been or shall be declared void by any court of competent jurisdiction, or if the same shall cease to operate and exercise the functions of such corporation or de facto corporation, when such corporation or de facto corporation has indebtedness outstanding, then the officers of such corporation, in office at the time of such dissolution, or at the time such corporation ceases to operate and exercise the functions of such corporation, shall take charge of the property of the corporation and sell and dispose of same, and shall settle the debts due by the corporation, and for said purpose shall have power to levy and collect a tax from the inhabitants of said city, town or village in the same manner as the said corporation. In the event of their failure or refusal to do so, and upon the petition of any number of the citizen taxpayers of such corporation or of the holders of the evidences of indebtedness of such corporation or de facto corporation, to the proper court within this State having jurisdiction in the county in which such dissolved or de facto corporation shall have been situated, the judge of said court shall appoint three trustees to take charge of such property and dispose of same and settle the debts of such corporation or de facto corporation, and for said purpose the said trustees so appointed shall be vested with all the powers herein given to the officers of such corporation.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1263. Action for Debt

The holder of any indebtedness against any municipal corporation which has or may be dissolved in any way provided in the preceding article, including dissolution of a de facto corporation by a court of competent jurisdiction, may maintain a suit in the proper court within this State having jurisdiction in the county in which such dissolved or de facto corporation shall have been situated, to establish said indebtedness against said municipal corporation, and service may be had on such dissolved corporation by serving the citation upon any person who was the mayor, secretary or treasurer of said corporation or pretended to act as such, at the time of its dissolution, and judgment may be rendered in such suit in favor of the holder of such indebtedness against such municipal corporation as fully as if it had not been dissolved or its organization declared void. The status of such city, town or village shall be and remain the same in so far as it affects the holders of its indebtedness, until such indebtedness has been paid.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

CHAPTER TWENTY. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Art. 1264. Current Expenses. Any incorporated city or town in this State, whether incorporated under the general laws of this State, or incorporated by special charter adopted in the manner provided by law, and having a population of 161,000 or more according to the preceding Federal census, may, through its governing body, provide for the payment of its current expenses for any current fiscal year, or for any portion of such fiscal year, by the issuance of warrants or notes drawn against the current revenues of said city or town for such fiscal year, in the manner following:

1. Such warrants or notes shall be dated and numbered consecutively as they are issued, and shall become a lien upon all or any designated portion of the revenues of said city or town for such fiscal year, available for the payment thereof, and shall be paid either consecutively according to their respective dates and numbers as funds for the payment thereof become available or on any date or dates within such fiscal year on which, in the estimate of the governing body, sufficient revenues for the payment thereof will be available for such purpose.

2. Such warrants or notes may be issued in one or more installments in any fiscal year to provide for the payment of current expenses in that fiscal year or to refund, as to principal and interest, warrants or notes issued under this Act. However, the aggregate principal amount of warrants or notes outstanding at any time in any fiscal year may not exceed the greatest amount by which the proposed expenditures for such fiscal year are estimated by the governing body to exceed the estimated revenues, calculated as set out by Subdivision 3 of this Act, available for the payment thereof at any time during such fiscal year. Such warrants or notes may be issued at a discount and/or bear interest at any rate or rates permitted by law and may be sold at public or private sale for any price or prices, all within the discretion of the governing body as may be provided in the ordinance authorizing the issuance and sale thereof.

3. In no event shall the governing body provide for the issuance of warrants or notes pursuant to this Act in excess of eighty per cent of the estimated revenues of said city or town for such fiscal year, after the deduction from the estimated revenue an amount equal to the existing indebtedness of such city or town to be paid out of the revenues for such fiscal year, and such sums as may be required to be paid into any sinking fund or into any special fund or any special trust fund of said city or town out of its revenues for such fiscal year. However, this limitation does not apply to warrants or notes issued for refunding purposes.

4. Such warrants or notes and any coupons representing interest thereon constitute negotiable instruments and are investment securities governed by Chapter 8, Business & Commerce Code, notwithstanding any provision of law or court decision to the contrary.

5. All warrants or notes issued pursuant to this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, and insurance companies and shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts or other political subdivisions of the State of Texas, and such obligations shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of the principal amount thereof when accompanied by all unmatured coupons, if any, appurtenant thereto.

Art. 1265. Extension of Limits

Any city having a population of 100,000 and under 150,000 as shown by the preceding Federal census, shall have the power and authority to amend its charter so as to extend its boundary limits by annexing additional territory adjacent and contiguous to such city, where the territory so annexed does not include any incorporated city or town having more than five thousand inhabitants according to the preceding Federal census. Such extension shall be effected in the manner following:

1. The governing body of such city may, upon its own motion, and shall upon the petition of at least ten per cent of the qualified voters of said city as shown by the preceding general election, submit such proposed amendment to a vote of the qualified voters of such city, which election shall be held as provided by chapter 13 of this title.

2. If such amendment is adopted by a majority of those voting at such election, and such annexed territory shall include any incorporated city or town of five thousand inhabitants or less, then, from and after the adoption of such amendment, the incorporation of such city or town of five thousand inhabitants or less shall be abolished and shall cease to exist, and all record books, public property, public buildings, money on hand, credit accounts and other assets of the annexed incorporated city or town shall become the property of said larger city and shall be turned over to the officers thereof, and by such annexation, the offices existing in the smaller municipality shall be abolished and the persons holding such offices shall not be entitled to further remuneration or compensation; and all legal outstanding liabilities of such smaller city shall be assumed by the enlarged city.

3. Whenever such annexed city or town shall have on hand any bond funds for public improvement and not already appropriated or contracted for, such money shall be kept in a separate special fund and devoted to public improvements in the territory for which such bonds were voted, and shall not be diverted or used for any other purpose.

4. After such annexation, all claims, fines, debts and taxes due or payable to the annexed city or town shall thereupon become due and payable to said larger city and shall be collected by it. If taxes for the current year shall have been duly assessed prior to said annexation, then the amount so assessed shall remain as the amounts due and payable from the inhabitants of such annexed city or town for such current year.

5. Providing however that nothing in this Article shall be held or construed to repeal or nullify any charter provision of any city of over 100,000 and under 150,000 inhabitants, according to the preceding Federal census, operating under Article 11, Section 5 of the Constitution providing for the annexation of additional territory by ordinance but shall be construed as an additional power and cumulative of the said charter provisions, and all such charter provisions in effect at the time of the original passage of this Article are hereby ratified and confirmed and declared to be in full force and effect.

Art. 1266. Discontinuing Territory

Whenever there exists within the corporate limits of any city in this state of four thousand (4,000) or more population according to the preceding Federal Census located in a county having a population according to such census in excess of two hundred and five thousand (205,000) territory to the extent of at least three (3) acres contiguous, unimproved and adjoining the lines of any such city, or wherever there exists within the corporate limits of any city in this state of five hundred and ninety-six thousand (596,000) or more population according to the last preceding Federal Census, improved territory which is non-taxable to the city and which is contiguous and adjoining the lines of any such city, the governing body of any such city, whether organized by
Art. 1266 CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Section 1. CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Spécial Law, home rule charter, or General Laws of this state, may by ordinance duly passed discontinue said territory as a part of any such city. When said ordinance has been duly passed, the governing body shall cause to be entered an order to that effect on the minutes or records of such city; and from and after the entry of such order, said territory shall cease to be a part of such city.

Art. 1267. Oil, Gas or Mineral Lands

Sec. 1. CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Sec. 1. Cities and towns chartered or organized under the general laws of Texas, or by special Act or charter, which may own oil, gas or mineral lands, shall have the power and right to lease such oil, gas or mineral lands for the benefit of such town or city in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the governing body of such town or city may determine, but shall not lease for such purposes any street or alley or public square in said town or city; and no well shall be drilled within the thickly settled portion of any city or town, nor within two hundred feet of any private residence.

Sec. 2. If any portion of this Act is held unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining portion shall nevertheless be valid the same as if the invalid portion had not been a part hereof. A lease executed pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall not be deemed to be a sale within the meaning of the laws of this state relating to the sale of city land. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of all other laws which are by their terms expressly applicable to city land, and any such laws which are not by their terms expressly so applicable shall not be construed as affecting the right and power granted to towns and cities by this Act.

Sec. 1. CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Sec. 1. CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Art. 1268a. Natural Gas Systems; Authority to Lease and Grant Option to Purchase

Any city which owns its natural gas distribution system and has heretofore had an election resulting favorably to a sale of such system may, by majority vote of its governing body, enter into a contract leasing said system to any person, firm or corporation. Any such city may also grant an option to the lessee or to any other person, firm or corporation to purchase the system at a price specified or to be determined in the manner provided in such lease or option contract. It is provided, however, that if the city has any bonds outstanding payable from the revenues of its gas system, it shall not make such lease or option contract except under conditions specified in the ordinance authorizing the bonds, unless provision is made for the full payment of the bonds with interest to their maturities or to the date they are to be redeemed prior to maturity.

Art. 1268b. Lease of City-owned Swimming Pools

Sec. 1. The governing body of any incorporated city or town (including home rule cities) is hereby authorized to lease any city-owned swimming pool, to be operated by the lessee as a public swimming pool under such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by such governing body and such lessee. Any such lease shall be authorized by ordinance or resolution adopted by such governing body, and the lease agreement shall be executed on behalf of the city or town, by the mayor and the city secretary or clerk, and the seal of the city shall be impressed thereon. Such lease may cover any period of time not to exceed fifty (50) years.

[Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1169, ch. 465, § 1.]

Art. 1269. Repealed by Acts 1929, 41st Leg., p. 667, ch. 299, § 1

Art. 1269a. Municipal Bands

That the word “band” as used in this Act shall mean a band composed of such musical instruments as are recognized in the standard instrumentation established for the use of United States Army Bands.

[Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 22, p. 82, § 1.]

Art. 1269b. Same Subject—Establishment and Maintenance

That any incorporated city or town in this State is authorized to establish and maintain a band in such city or town, and to appropriate such part of the revenues of such city or town for the maintenance and operation of such band as the governing body of such city or town may determine. It is provided, however, that the total amount of such appropriation for any one year shall not exceed three mills for each one dollar of taxable value of property within such city or town.

Art. 1269c. Same Subject—Election

That it shall be the duty of the governing body of any city or town within this State upon a written petition signed by a number of property tax paying voters in such city or town equal to at least ten per cent of the total number of votes cast at the last regular municipal election, to submit to the qualified property tax paying voters within such city or town, at an election for that purpose, the question of whether or not a band shall be established and maintained by such city or town. Such elections shall be held as nearly as possible in accordance with the law in reference to regular elections in said city or town, but said governing body is hereby empowered by resolution to order such elections and prescribe the form of ballot for use therein and the time and manner of holding the same. Such governing body shall canvass and determine the result of such elections in the manner provided by law for canvassing and returning the results of general elections held therein, and the result of the election shall be entered upon the minutes of said governing body. If the majority of the voters voting upon said question at such election shall vote to establish and maintain a band, the governing body shall thereupon proceed to establish, and thereafter maintain, such band.

Art. 1269d. Same Subject—Subsequent Elections

That the governing body of any city or town shall upon similar petition as provided in Section 3 of Chapter 22 of the General Laws of the 39th Legislature, Regular Session, 1925,1 cause subsequent elections to be held for the purpose of determining whether or not a band shall be established and maintained by a city or town; or where any city or town has been previously authorized to establish and maintain a band, at an election held for that purpose, whether or not the establishment and maintenance of said band by said city or town shall be abrogated. If at an election held to abrogate the establishment and maintenance of a band by a city or town, a majority of the voters voting at such an election shall vote in favor of the proposition to abrogate the establishment and maintenance of a band, the governing body of said city or town shall thereupon discontinue said band and the maintenance thereof. Said elections shall be held and conducted in the same manner as provided in Section 3 of Chapter 22 of the General Laws of the 39th Legislature, Regular Session, 1925, but no two of such elections shall be held within the same city or town within a period of less than two (2) years.

[Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 82, ch. 22, § 4. Amended by Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., ch. 183, ch. 86.]

1 Article 1269c.

Art. 1269e. Same Subject—Ordinances

When it shall be determined to establish and maintain a band in any city or town, the governing body thereof shall have full power to pass all ordinances and resolutions to enable such city or town to maintain such band, and in addition thereto such governing body shall elect a non-partisan citizen commission of not more than five nor less than three members whose duty it shall be to negotiate contracts and formulate rules and regulations and do all things necessary or proper to establish, control and maintain said band.

[Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 22, p. 83, § 5.]

Art. 1269f. Same Subject—Charters Affected

That this Act shall not modify or in any manner affect any special charter which has been heretofore granted by the Legislature, nor any charter heretofore adopted by the voters of any city or town.

[Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 22, p. 83, § 6.]

Art. 1269g. Repealed by Acts 1929, 41st Leg., 1st C.S., p. 209, ch. 83, § 4a

Art. 1269h. Airports, Maintenance and Operation

Acquisition; Sale or Lease

Sec. 1. A—The governing body of any incorporated city in this State may receive through gift or dedication, and is hereby empowered to acquire, by purchase without condemnation or by purchase through condemnation proceedings, and thereafter maintain and operate as an airport, or lease, or sell, to the Federal Government, tracts of land either within or without the corporate limits of such city and within the county in which such city is situated, and the Commissioners Court of any county may likewise acquire, maintain and operate for like purpose tracts of land within the limits of the county.

B—The governing body of any incorporated city in this State may receive through gift or dedication, and is hereby empowered to acquire by purchase without condemnation, and thereafter maintain and operate as an airport, or lease, or sell, to the Federal Government, tracts of land without the county in which such city is situated, provided said tracts are not within five (5) miles of another incorporated city that has a population of more than fifteen hundred (1500) people, according to the last preceding Federal Census.

The governing body of any incorporated city in this State may, and is hereby empowered, to acquire through condemnation proceedings, tracts of land located without the county in which said city is located, provided said tracts of land are within six (6) miles of the county boundary of the county in which said city is located, and are not within five (5) miles of another incorporated city having a population in excess of fifteen hundred (1500) people, according to the last preceding Federal Census; and that said city may thereafter maintain and operate as an airport, or lease, or sell, said tracts to the Federal Government; provided, however, that the grant herein made to acquire land through condemnation proceedings, without the county in which said city is located, shall expire on December 31, 1942, but that tracts of land acquired prior to that date, and under the authority of this Act, may continue to be operated, leased, or sold, as provided in this Act.

D—In addition to the power herein granted the Commissioners Courts of the several counties of this State are hereby authorized to lease any airport that has been or may be acquired by the county, as herein provided, to any incorporated city or municipality within such county, or to the Federal Government, or to any other person, firm or corporation for the purpose of maintaining and operating an airport; and providing further that any incorporated city having acquired land for an airport, or an airport, under the authority of this Act shall have the right to lease said land or airport to the county in which such incorporated city is located.

E—In addition to the power which it may now have, the Commissioners Court of any county, or the governing body of any incorporated city in this State, shall have the power to sell, convey or lease all or part of any airport or property connected therewith, heretofore established or that may be hereafter established; also any land which has been or may be acquired under the provisions of this Act, to the United States of America for any purpose necessary for National Defense, or for air mail purposes or any other public purpose; or to the State of Texas or any branch of the State Government which may be authorized to own or operate airports, and to any person, firm or corporation. The Commissioners Court and governing body of any incorporated city shall promulgate rules and regulations for the use of any such airports.

Bond Issues and Tax

Sec. 2. (a) For the purpose of condemning or purchasing, either or both, lands to be used and maintained as provided in Section 1 hereof, and improving and equipping the same for such use, the governing body of any city or the Commissioners Court of any county, falling within the terms of such Section, may issue negotiable bonds of the city or of the county, as the case may be, and levy taxes to provide for the interest and sinking funds of any such bonds so issued, the authority hereby given for the issuance of such bonds and levy and collection of such taxes to be exercised in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925.1

(b) In addition to the powers herein granted, the Commissioners Courts of counties having a population of not less than fifteen thousand (15,000) and not more than fifteen thousand, two hundred and fifty (15,250), according to the last preceding Federal Census, are hereby authorized to issue time warrants for the purposes herein stated, but the Commissioners Court of any such county proposing to issue such warrants shall comply with the provisions of Chapter 163, Acts of the Forty-second Legislature,2 with reference to notice to issue such warrants and with reference to the levy and collection of taxes in payment thereof, and the right to referendum election therein shall apply.

Management by City or Commissioners Courts; Nonliability for Injuries

Sec. 3. Any Air Port acquired under and by virtue of the terms of this Act shall be under the management and control of the governing body of the city or the Commissioners Court of the county acquiring the same, which is hereby expressly authorized and empowered to improve, maintain and conduct the same an Air Port, and for that purpose to make and provide therein all necessary or fit improvements and facilities and to fix such reasonable charges for the use thereof as such governing body or Commissioners Court shall deem fit, and to make rules and regulations governing the use thereof. All proceeds, from such charges shall be devoted exclusively to the maintenance, upkeep, improvement and operation of such Air Port and the facilities, structures, and improvements therein, and no city or county shall be liable for injuries to persons resulting from or caused by any defective, unsound or unsafe condition of any such Air Port, or any part thereof, or thing of any character therein or resulting from or caused by any negligence, want of skill, or lack of care on the part of any governing Board or Commissioners Court, officer, agent, servant or employee or other person with reference to the construction, improvement, management, conduct, or maintenance of any such Air Port or any structure, improvement, or thing of any character whatever, located therein or connected therewith.

Special Tax for Maintenance or Operation

Sec. 4. That in addition to and exclusive of any taxes which may be levied for the interest and sinking fund of any bonds issued under the authority of this Act, the governing body of any city or the Commissioners Court of any county, falling within the terms hereof, may and is hereby empowered to levy and collect a special tax not to exceed for any one year five cents on each One Hundred Dollars of value for the purpose of improving, operating, maintaining and conducting any Air Port which such city or county may acquire under the provision of this Act, and to provide all suitable structures, and facilities therein. Provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing any city or county to exceed the limits of indebtedness placed upon it under the Constitution.

2 Article 286h.

Art. 1269h-1. Validating Bonds Issued to Acquire Lands for Airports by Cities and Counties

In instances wherein elections have been held or called prior to the effective date of this Act bonds otherwise issued in accordance with law and for purposes permitted under said Chapter 83, Acts of the First Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature,3 are hereby validated, notwithstanding the fact that the proceeds from the sale of said bonds either have been used or may be used to purchase lands already owned by any such city for airport purposes, which together with lands owned by such a city for airport purposes will exceed six hundred and forty (640)
Art. 1269b. Pledge of Ad Valorem Tax to Payment of Airport Operation and Maintenance Expense

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city operating under its Home Rule Charter, either adopted pursuant to the Home Rule amendment to the Constitution of Texas, or granted by the Legislature and amended pursuant to said provision of the Constitution, having a population of 200,000 or more according to the last preceding Federal Census, which owns land acquired for airport purposes, and which, either in whole or in part, is leased to an airport operating company or corporation.

Sec. 2. In the event any such city shall determine to issue revenue bonds as authorized by Chapter 43, Acts of the 53rd Legislature of Texas, First Called Session, 1954, as amended, to acquire the improvements constructed by any such airport operating company or corporation on any such land and to further improve its airport or airports, such city, in addition to the pledge of the revenues and income of said airport or airports to the payment of the operation and maintenance expenses and principal of and interest on such bonds, shall be authorized to levy and pledge to the payment of such operation and maintenance expenses, as a supplement to the pledge of revenues for such purpose, all or any part of the ad valorem tax authorized by Chapter 114, Acts 1947, 50th Legislature, Regular Session. The proceeds of any tax thus pledged shall be utilized annually to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing such revenue bonds to assure the efficient operation and maintenance of such airport or airports and such city, in its discretion, may covenant in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said bonds that certain costs of operating and maintaining such airport or airports, as may be enumerated in said proceedings, will be paid by the city from the proceeds of such tax. If it is deemed advisable by the city that revenue bonds theretofore issued under said Chapter 43, supra, and then outstanding, should be refunded so as to facilitate the financing of the acquisition of said improvements and the further improvement of its airport or airports, it shall be authorized to make a like pledge of said tax in the proceedings authorizing such refunding bonds and any additional revenue bonds issued for the purposes prescribed in said Chapter 43, supra.

Art. 1269h–3. Validation of Land Acquisition for County Airport Expansion

Sec. 1. Where any county before the effective date of this Act has acquired land for the expansion of a county airport established under Chapter 83, Acts of the 41st Legislature, 1st Called Session, 1929, as amended (Article 1269h, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), and the acquisition was by purchase, gift, exchange, or a combination of those methods, the acquisition of the land and all transactions and proceedings related to it are validated in all respects.

Sec. 2. This Act does not apply to a matter that on the effective date of this Act is involved in litigation in a court of competent jurisdiction if the litigation ultimately results in a determination that the matter is invalid, nor does it apply to a matter that has been declared invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 1269i. Mortgage of Airports for Improvements

Cites to Which Applicable

Sec. 1. All cities having a population of more than One Hundred and Sixty Thousand (160,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding federal census shall have power to mortgage and encumber their airports and everything pertaining thereto acquired, or to be acquired, to secure the payment of funds to purchase the same or to build, improve, enlarge, extend, repair or construct any kind or character of permanent improvements, including buildings, repair shops and other structures, and, as additional security therefor, by the terms of such mortgage or encumbrance, may grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder a franchise to operate such airport and the improvements situated thereon for a term of not over thirty (30) years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating the same then in force. No such obligation shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge on the properties so mortgaged or encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Pledge of Income

Sec. 2. All cities having a population of more than One Hundred and Sixty Thousand (160,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding federal census shall have power to pledge the income from their airports and everything pertaining thereto acquired, or to be acquired, to secure the payment of funds to purchase the same or to build, improve, enlarge, extend, repair or construct any kind or character of permanent improvements including buildings, repair shops and other structures, and, as additional security therefor, by the terms of such pledge may grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclose thereunder a franchise to operate such airport and the improvements situated thereon for a term of not over thirty (30) years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating the same then in force. No such obligation shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the properties so mortgaged or encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of any such city to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Notes or Warrants Issued Without Referendum

Sec. 3. Such cities shall have the power to issue notes or warrants in any sum not to exceed the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) for such purposes without submitting such proposition to a vote of the qualified taxpaying voters. This law shall take precedence over all conflicting city charter provisions.

Repeals

Sec. 4. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby expressly repealed to the extent in conflict herewith.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 5. If any section, portion, clause, or part of this Act be invalid or unconstitutional, the same shall not affect any remaining part or parts of this Act and it is expressly hereby declared that the Legislature would have passed such remaining parts of this Act with such invalid or unconstitutional section, portion, clause or part omitted.

[Acts 1934, 43rd Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 72, ch. 24.]

Art. 1269j. Additional Powers of Certain Cities

Acquisition; Bonds; Rates; Pledges; Definition

Sec. 1. In addition to the powers which it may now have, any City having a population of more than forty thousand (40,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall have power (a) to own, maintain and operate in airport, either within or without, or partially within and without, the corporate limits of such city; (b) to construct, acquire by gift, purchase, lease or the exercise of the right of eminent domain, improve, enlarge, extend or repair any airport, and to acquire by gift, purchase, lease or the exercise of the right of eminent domain, lands or rights in land in fee simple in connection therewith; (c) to borrow money and issue its bonds or warrants to finance in whole or in part the cost of the acquisition, construction, improvement, enlargement, extension or repair of any airport; (d) to prescribe and collect rates, fees, rents, tolls or other charges for the service and facilities afforded by such airport; and (e) to pledge to the punctual payment of said warrants and interest thereon all or any part of the income, rents, revenues, tolls or other receipts derived from the operation of such airport, in addition to the taxes which shall be levied annually, for the payment of the principal and interest on such warrants. An airport within the meaning of this Act shall include all lands and buildings or other improvements necessary or convenient in the establishment and operation of an airport, and shall include such lands and improvements as are necessary to assemble or manufacture aircraft for military or naval uses, or for any other governmental purpose, and to provide housing and office space for employees necessary or incidental to such purposes.

Form and Contents of Warrants

Sec. 2. Warrants may be authorized to be issued under this Act by ordinance which may be adopted at the same meeting at which it is introduced by a majority of all the members of the governing body of the city then in office and shall take effect immediately upon adoption. Such warrants shall bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding five (5) per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, may be made payable to bearer, may be in one or more series, may bear such date or dates, may be in such denomination or denominations, may be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, may carry such registration privileges, may be subject to such terms of redemption, may be executed in such manner, may contain such terms, covenants and conditions, and may be in such form, either coupon or registered, as such ordinance or subsequent ordinance may provide. Said warrants shall mature annually in such amounts as to make the aggregate amount of principal and interest falling due in each year shall be substantially equal over a period not to exceed thirty (30) years from their date. Said warrants shall be sold at public or private sale at not less than par. Said warrants shall be negotiable instruments within the meaning of the Negotiable Instruments Law 1 of this State. Said warrants bearing the signature of the officers in office at the date of the signing thereof shall be valid and binding obligations notwithstanding that before the delivery thereof and payment therefor any or all of the persons whose signatures appear thereon shall have ceased to be officers of the city issuing the same.

1 Article 5932 et seq. (repealed; see, now, Business and Commerce Code, § 3.101 et seq.)

Limitation on the Amount of Warrants Which May Be Issued

Sec. 3. No city shall issue any warrants pursuant to this Act in an aggregate amount in excess of One Hundred and Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($125,000).

No Election Necessary

Sec. 4. No election shall be necessary to authorize the issuance of warrants pursuant to this Act, but the city shall comply with the provisions of Chapter 123, Acts of the Forty-second Legislature, with reference to bidders and notice of intention to issue such warrants and the right to referendum therein specified shall apply.

1 Article 2368a.

Tax Levy

Sec. 5. Whenever any city shall issue warrants pursuant to this Act, a tax sufficient to pay when due the principal and interest on such warrant shall be levied annually and assessed, collected and paid in like manner with other taxes of such city, provided, however, that if such warrants are payable from income, rents, revenues, tolls, and other receipts derived from the operation of the airport for which such warrants were issued, the tax to be levied and assessed by such city may be reduced by the amount of money on hand pledged to the payment of the principal and interest of such warrants.

Charges for Use of Airport

Sec. 6. The governing body of a city issuing warrants pursuant to this Act shall prescribe by ordinance and collect reasonable rates, fees, tolls, rentals or other charges for the service and facilities furnished by the airport for which such warrants have been issued. The rates, fees, tolls, rentals or other charges so prescribed shall be such as will produce revenues sufficient (a) to pay when due all warrants and interest thereon, for the payment of the principal and interest of such warrants, including reserves therefor; (b) to provide for all expenses of operation and maintenance of such airport, including reserves therefor.

Sale or Lease of Airport

Sec. 7. The governing body of the City shall have the power to sell, convey, or lease all or any portion of such airports heretofore established, or that may be hereafter established, to the United States of America for the purpose of air mail or any other public purpose, including the purpose of runways for the landing of aircraft, the assembling or manufacture of aircraft or aircraft parts, or any other purpose deemed by the Government of the United States necessary for the national defense, or to the State of Texas or any branch of the State Government, or to any municipality for any such purpose, or to any other person, firm or corporation to carry out any necessary or incidental purpose; and that such governing body shall provide rules and regulations for the proper use of any such airports, whether used for pleasure, experiment, exhibition, commercial purpose, or for the national defense.

Airport a Public Purpose

Sec. 8. The acquisition and operation of an airport are hereby declared to be a public purpose and a matter of public necessity.

Approval of Attorney General

Sec. 9. Said warrants shall be presented to the Attorney General for examination and if he approves the same they shall be registered in the office of the State Comptroller. Such warrants after receiving the certificate of the Attorney General and having been registered in the Comptroller's office, shall be held in each action, suit or proceeding in which their validity is or may be brought into question, prima facie valid and binding obligations. The only defense which can be offered against the validity of such warrants shall be forgery or fraud. In each action brought to enforce collection of such warrants the certificate of the Attorney General, or a duly certified copy thereof shall be admitted and received in evidence of the validity of such warrant or warrants together with the coupons attached thereto.

Construction of Act

Sec. 10. The powers conferred by this Act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law, including any charter provision. In so far as the provisions of this Act are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, including any charter provision, the provisions of this Act shall be controlling. If any provision of this Act, or the application of such provisions to any person, body or circumstance shall be held invalid, the remainder of the Act, or the application of such provision to persons, bodies, or circumstances other than as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

Art. 1269j-1. Validating Interest Bearing Time Warrants Issued to Finance Airports or Airport Improvements by Cities Having Over 285,000 Population

All interest-bearing time warrants heretofore authorized by ordinance of the governing body of any city in Texas having a population of two hundred and eighty-five thousand (285,000) or more according to the latest United States Census, issued or authorized to be issued in payment or part payment for the construction of administration buildings, hangars, and hangar doors for its airport and/or to improve, enlarge, extend, or repair its airport, are hereby validated, ratified, and legalized, and such warrants shall not be invalid on account of irregularities in the notice to bidders, and shall not be invalid because the notice to bidders did not contain notice that it was the intention of the governing body to pay for such improvements and the contracts therefor by the issuance of time warrants. The contracts for such improvements and payment therefor by the issuance of interest-bearing time warrants shall not be invalid on account of the notice to bidders not containing a clause to the effect that it was the intention to pay for such improvements and the contracts therefore by the issuance of interest-bearing time warrants and stating the maximum amount, interest rate, and maximum maturity date of such contemplated warrants. This Act shall apply to such warrants and the contracts on which they are based whether such warrants shall have been completely issued, or whether they have been authorized by ordinance and not as yet completely issued; and in so far as they have not as yet been completely issued, the governing body of such city is authorized in due course to complete the issuance thereof.

Art. 1269j-2. Repealed by Acts 1947, 50th Leg., p. 784, ch. 391, § 16

Art. 1269j-3. Investments by Political Subdivisions of State in Defense Bonds or Other United States Obligations

All political subdivisions of the State of Texas which have balances remaining in their accounts at the end of any fiscal year may invest such balances in Defense Bonds or other obligations of the United States of America; provided, however, that when such funds are needed the obligations of the United States in which such balances are invested shall be sold or redeemed and the proceeds of said obligations shall be deposited in the accounts from which they were originally drawn.

[Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 451, ch. 321, § 1]

Art. 1269j-4. Auditoriums, Exhibition Halls and Similar Buildings; Cities Over 125,000 Population

Powers of Cities: Obligations to be Charge on Property Only

Sec. 1. All incorporated cities and town, including home rule cities, having a population exceeding one hundred and twenty-five thousand (125,000) according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall have power to build and purchase, to mortgage and encumber their municipal auditoriums, exhibition halls, coliseums, or other buildings or structures for public gatherings, either, or all, and the income thereof and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired and to evidence the obligation therefor by the issuance of bonds, notes or warrants, and to secure the payment of funds to purchase same; or to purchase additional lands and facilities, or to build, improve, enlarge, extend or repair such buildings and structures, or any one of them, including the purchase of equipment and appliances necessary in the operation of such buildings and structures. No such obligation of any such municipal auditorium, exhibition hall, coliseum, or other building or structure for public gatherings shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the properties so encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of any such city to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Sale or Encumbrance; Submission to Voters

Sec. 2. No such municipal auditorium, exhibition hall, coliseum, or other building or structure for public gatherings, shall ever be sold until such sale is authorized by a majority vote of the qualified voters of such City; nor shall same be encumbered for more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) except for purchase money, or to refund any existing indebtedness lawfully created, until authorized in like manner. Such vote in either case shall be ascertained at an election, which election shall be held and notice thereof given as is provided in the case of the issuance of municipal bonds by such cities.

Lien of Expenses; Rates and Charges; System of Records and Account; Report of Operations

Sec. 3. Whenever the income of any municipal auditorium, exhibition hall, coliseum, or other building or structure for public gatherings, shall be encumbered under this law, the expenses of operation and maintenance, including all salaries, labor, materials, interest, repairs and additions necessary to render efficient service and every proper item of expense shall always be a first lien and charge against such income. Provided, that only such repairs and additions, as in the judgment of the governing body of such city, are necessary to keep such building or structure for public gatherings in operation and render adequate service to such city and the inhabitants thereof, or such as might be necessary to meet some physical accident or condition which would otherwise impair the original security, shall be a lien prior to any existing lien. The rates charged for the use and for services furnished by any such municipal auditorium, exhibition hall, coliseum, or other building or structure for public gatherings, shall be equal and uniform, and no free use or service shall be allowed except for activities and institutions operated by such city. There shall be charged and collected for such use and services a sufficient rate to pay all operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacement, betterment, and interest charges, and for interest and sinking fund sufficient to pay any bonds issued to purchase, construct or improve any such buildings or structures or any outstanding indebtedness against same. No part of the income of any such municipal auditorium, exhibition hall, coliseum, or other building or structure for public gatherings, shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expenses or obligation of such city, until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid.

It shall be the duty of the chief executive officer of such city to install and maintain, or cause to be installed and maintained, a complete system of records and accounts showing the free uses and services rendered, and the value thereof, and showing separately the amounts expended and the amounts set aside for operation, salaries, labor, materials, repairs, maintenance, depreciation, replacements, additions, interest, and the creation of a sinking fund to pay off such bonds and indebtedness.

It shall likewise be the duty of the superintendent or manager of such municipal auditorium or other building or structure for public gatherings, to file with the chief executive officer of such city, not later than February 1, a detailed report of the operation of such building or structure for the year ending January 31 preceding, showing the total sums of money collected and the balance due, as well as the total disbursements made and the amounts remaining unpaid as a result of operation of such building or structure during such calendar year.

Failure or refusal on the part of the chief executive officer to install and maintain, or cause to be installed and maintained, such system of records and accounts within ninety (90) days after the completion of such municipal auditorium, exhibition hall, coliseum, or other building or structure for public gatherings, or on the part of such superintendent or manager to fail or cause to be filed such report, shall constitute a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, such chief executive officer or such superintendent or manager shall be subject to a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) and not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000); and any taxpayer or holder of such indebtedness, residing within such city shall have the right, by appropriate civil action in the district court of the county in which said city as located, to enforce the provisions of this Act.

Evidence of Indebtedness to Include Statement as to Funds from Which Payable; Approval and Registration of Bonds

Sec. 4. Every contract, bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness issued or included under this law shall contain this clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation. Where bonds are issued hereunder, they may be presented to the Attorney General for his approval as is provided for the approval of municipal bonds issued by such cities. In such case, the bonds shall be registered by the State Comptroller as in the case of other municipal bonds.

Projects Self Liquidating

Sec. 5. Projects financed in accordance with this law are hereby declared to be self liquidating in character and supported by charge other than by taxation.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 595, ch. 360.]

Art. 1269j–4.1. Public Improvements in City, Town or Village; Bonds; Occupancy Tax

Applicability of Act

Sec. 1. In this Act, "city" means a home-rule city or a city, town, or village incorporated under general law.
Art. 1269j-4.1

CITIES, TOWNS

AND VILLAGES

This State specifically providing authority for the passage and adoption of such ordinances and the levy of such taxes.

Disposition of Revenue

Sec. 3c. (a) The revenue derived from any occupancy tax authorized or validated by this Act may only be used for:

1. the acquisition of sites for and the construction, improvement, enlarging, equipping, repairing, operation, and maintenance of convention center facilities including, but not limited to, civic center convention buildings, auditoriums, coliseums, civic theaters, museums, and parking areas or facilities for the parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances located at or in the immediate vicinity of the convention center facilities;

2. the furnishing of facilities, personnel and materials for the registration of convention delegates or registrants;

3. for advertising for general promotional and tourist advertising of the city and its vicinity and conducting solicitation programs to attract conventions and visitors to the city;

4. the encouragement, promotion, improvement, and application of the arts, including music (instrumental and vocal), dance, drama, folk art, creative writing, architecture, design and allied fields, painting, sculpture, photography, graphic and craft arts, motion pictures, television, radio, tape and sound recording, and the arts related to the presentation, performance, execution, and exhibition of these major art forms;

5. historical preservation and restoration projects or activities located at or in the immediate vicinity of convention center facilities or historical preservation and restoration projects or activities located elsewhere in the city that would be frequented by tourists and visitors to the city.

(b) Any city which levies and collects an occupancy tax which is authorized or validated by this Act may pledge a portion of the revenue derived therefrom to the payment of the bonds which the city may issue pursuant to the provisions of Section 3 of this Act, if such bonds are issued solely for one or more of the purposes set forth in the preceding subsection; provided that any city which levies and collects a tax in excess of three percent shall reserve a portion of the tax revenue equal to at least one-half of one percent of the cost of occupancy of hotel rooms, and any city which levies and collects a tax in excess of three percent shall reserve a portion of the tax revenue equal to at least one percent of the cost of the occupancy of hotel rooms for the purpose of advertising and conducting solicitation programs to acquaint potential users with public meeting and convention facilities, and for promotion of tourism and advertising of the city.

Occupancy Tax Authorized

Sec. 3a. (a) Any such city is hereby authorized to levy by ordinance a tax upon the cost of occupancy of any sleeping room furnished by any hotel, where the cost of occupancy is at the rate of $2 or more per day. Such tax may not exceed seven percent of the consideration paid by the occupant of the sleeping room to the hotel. Any revenues from a tax in excess of four percent of the consideration paid by an occupant of the sleeping room to the hotel may only be used for the purposes specified in Subdivisions (1), (2), and (3) of Subsection (a) of Section 3c. No more than one percent of the consideration paid by an occupant of the sleeping room to the hotel may be used for the purposes specified in Subdivision (4) of Subsection (a) of Section 3c.

(b) A city imposing the tax authorized by this section may permit the person required to collect the tax to deduct and withhold from the person's payment to the city, as reimbursement for the cost of collecting the tax, an amount not to exceed one percent of the amount of tax collected and required to be reported to the city. The city may provide for forfeiture of reimbursement for the failure to pay the tax or to file reports as required by the city.

Ordinances, Bonds and Taxes: Validation

Sec. 3b. All ordinances heretofore passed and adopted by the governing body of any such city levying a tax upon the cost of occupancy of any sleeping room furnished by any hotel, where such cost of occupancy is at the rate of two dollars ($2) or more per day and such tax is equal to or less than three percent (3%) of the consideration paid by the occupant of such room to such hotel, and any bonds heretofore issued that are secured in whole or in part by a pledge of such tax, are hereby in all respects validated and held to be enforceable as of the respective date of passage and adoption of said ordinances levying such tax or issuing such bonds. All such occupancy taxes to be levied or attempted to be levied pursuant to such ordinances are hereby validated and declared fully enforceable to the same extent as if levied or attempted to be levied pursuant to valid laws duly enacted by the Legislature of and its vicinity either by the city or through contract with persons or organizations selected by the city.

(c) It is the intent of the legislature that revenues derived from the tax authorized by this Act are to be expended in a manner directly enhancing and promoting tourism and the convention and hotel industry.

Definitions

Sec. 3d. As hereinabove employed, the following words, terms and phrases are defined as follows:

(a) "Hotel" shall mean any building or buildings in which the public may, for a consideration, obtain sleeping accommodations. The term shall include hotels, motels, tourist homes, houses, or courts, lodging houses, inns, boarding houses, or other buildings where rooms are furnished for a consideration, but "hotel" shall not be defined so as to include hospitals, sanitariums, or nursing homes.

(b) "Consideration" shall mean the cost of the room in such hotel only if the room is one ordinarily used for sleeping, and shall not include the cost of any food served or personal services rendered to the occupant of such room not related to the cleaning and readying of such room for occupancy.

(c) "Occupancy" shall mean the use or possession, or the right to the use or possession, of any room in a hotel if the room is one ordinarily used for sleeping and if the occupant's use, possession, or right to use or possession extends for a period of less than thirty (30) days.

(d) "Occupant" shall mean anyone, who, for a consideration uses, possesses, or has a right to use or possess any room in a hotel if the room is one ordinarily used for sleeping.

Special Provisions for Certain Eligible Cities

Sec. 3e. (a) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Eligible city" means any city that has a population of at least 1,200,000, according to the most recent federal census, and that pursuant to an ordinance adopted by its governing body has approved and adopted a capital improvement plan for convention and exposition facilities for such city.

(2) "Convention and exposition facilities" means public structures, such as civic centers, civic center buildings, auditoriums, exhibition halls, coliseums, or other city buildings, that are suitable for use as convention and exposition facilities, and parking facilities located at or in the immediate vicinity of such public structures to be used in connection with those public structures for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances.

(b) Subject to the limitations described in Subsections (c), (d), and (e) of this section, each eligible city may:

(1) levy by ordinance on the cost of occupancy of any sleeping room furnished by any hotel, in which the cost of occupancy is at the rate of $2 or more per day, (A) a tax not to exceed four percent of the consideration paid by the occupant of the sleeping room to the hotel during the period beginning with the calendar quarter following the quarter in which this section is enacted and ending on December 31, 1983, and (B) a tax not to exceed six percent of the consideration paid by the occupant of the sleeping room to the hotel beginning with the first calendar quarter following December 31, 1983; and

(2) pledge to the payment of revenue bonds and revenue refunding bonds issued pursuant to this Act all or any portion of the revenues derived from the occupancy tax described in Subdivision (1) of this subsection, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in Subsection (b) of Section 3c of this Act, and all or any portion of any other revenues of such eligible city as the governing body thereof shall determine in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds.

(c) As a condition precedent to the issuance by an eligible city of any revenue bonds secured in whole or in part from the revenues derived from the occupancy tax described in Subdivision (1) of Subsection (b) of this section, an eligible city shall certify that the average annual debt service on all such bonds outstanding prior to the date of issuance, and in the process of issuance, secured in whole or in part by the pledge of revenues derived from the occupancy tax described in Subdivision (1) of Subsection (b) of this section, and which were issued for purposes other than convention and exposition facilities, shall not exceed the sum of the maximum annual revenues that such city could derive from such occupancy tax under the sections of this Act other than this section plus any other revenues pledged to the payment of such bonds.

(d) Consistent with the requirements of Subsection (b) of Section 3c of this Act, any city which levies and collects a tax in excess of four percent under the provisions of this section shall reserve that portion of the tax revenues which are derived from the percentage of the tax in excess of four percent solely for the purposes described in Subdivision (1) of Subsection (a) of Section 3c of this Act and for the purpose of securing refunding bonds issued in connection therewith.

(e) The taxing authority granted under this section is in lieu of and not in addition to the taxing authority granted under Section 3a of this Act. Accordingly, any eligible city which levies and collects a tax under this section is prohibited from levying and collecting a tax under Section 3a of this Act.

(f) An eligible city imposing the tax authorized by this section may permit the person required to collect the tax to deduct and withhold from the person's payment to the city, as reimbursement for the cost of collecting the tax, an amount not to exceed one percent of the tax collected.
(g) Revenue received under this section not in excess of four percent may be used by the city as provided by Section 3c of this Act.

Special Provisions for Certain Eligible Coastal Cities

Sec. 3f. (a) In this section, "eligible coastal city" means a home-rule city that borders on the Gulf of Mexico and that has a population of less than 75,000, according to the most recent federal census. The definitions contained in Section 3d of this Act apply to this section.

(b) In lieu of the taxes authorized by Section 3a of this Act, an eligible coastal city may levy by ordinance on the cost of occupancy of any sleeping room furnished by any hotel, in which the cost of occupancy is $2 or more a day, a tax not to exceed seven percent of the consideration paid by the occupant of the sleeping room to the hotel.

(c) A city that levies and collects an occupancy tax authorized by this section may pledge a portion of the revenue equal to not more than one percent of the cost of the occupancy of hotel rooms to the payment of the bonds which the city may issue pursuant to the provisions of Section 3 of this Act. The city is authorized to establish, acquire, lease, as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate, or maintain (any or all) structures, parking areas, or facilities located at or in the immediate vicinity of such public improvements, to be used in connection with those public structures for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances. Any lease under this subsection shall be on the terms and conditions the city deems appropriate.

(d) If the tax authorized by this section is levied by the city at a rate of four percent or more, an amount of revenue equal to at least one percent of the cost of occupancy of hotel rooms shall be reserved for public beach cleaning funds for use as matching funds for state funds available to clean and maintain public beaches.

(g) This section does not permit the impairment of any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act and all revenue previously pledged to the payment of those bonds shall continue to be reserved for the payment of the principal and interest on those bonds.

1 Chapter 59, adding, art. 6869.1, § 1, subsecs. (g), (h).

Additional Definitions; Levy of Tax by Certain Cities

Text of § 3f as added by Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 4930, ch. 879, § 1

Sec. 3g. (a) For purposes of this section and in addition to the definitions contained in Section 3d of this Act which apply to this section:

(1) "City" means any city having a population of at least 900,000, according to the last preceding federal census, that has adopted a council-manager form of government.

(2) "Convention Center Complex" means public structures, such as civic centers, civic center buildings, auditoriums, exhibition halls, coliseums, or other city buildings, that are suitable for use as convention and exposition facilities, and parking facilities, located at or in the immediate vicinity of such public structures, to be used in connection with those public structures for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances.

(b) The city is not authorized to levy the taxes authorized by Section 3a of this Act, but instead may levy by ordinance on the cost of occupancy of any sleeping room furnished by any hotel, in which the cost of occupancy is $2 or more a day, a tax not to exceed five percent of the consideration paid by the occupant of the sleeping room to the hotel.

(c) If the city levies and collects a tax in excess of four percent under the provisions of this section, it shall reserve that portion of the tax revenues which are derived from the percentage of the tax in excess of four percent solely for the following purposes:

(1) no more than 65 percent to:

(A) constructing, improving, enlarging, equipping, and repairing the Convention Center Complex; or

(B) pledging payment of revenue bonds and revenue refunding bonds issued pursuant to this Act for the Convention Center Complex;

(2) at least 35 percent to advertising and conducting solicitation programs to acquaint potential users with public meeting and convention facilities and promoting tourism and advertising of the city either by the city or through contract with persons or organizations selected by the city.

(1) If the tax authorized by this section is levied by the city at a rate of six percent or more, an amount of revenue equal to at least one percent of the cost of occupancy of hotel rooms shall be reserved for public beach cleaning funds for use as matching funds for state funds available to clean and maintain public beaches.
(d) Revenue received under this section not in excess of four percent may be used by the city as provided by Section 3c of this Act.

Failure to File Report or Pay Tax; Additional Remedy; Injunction From Operating Hotel

Sec. 3g. In addition to other remedies provided by law or by city ordinance for the collection of a tax imposed under this Act, the city attorney, or other attorney acting for the city attorney, may bring suit against a person who is required to collect the tax imposed by this Act and pay the collections over to the city and who has failed to file a report or pay the tax, and it is the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being used in the city until the tax is paid or the report is filed or both, as applicable and as provided in the injunction.

Payment of Principal or Interest on Bonds

Sec. 4. The owners or holders of such revenue or revenue refunding bonds shall never have the right to demand payment of either the principal of or interest on such bonds out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation, except as to room taxes, if pledged.

Interest and Sinking Funds; Reserve Funds

Sec. 5. In the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of any revenue or revenue refunding bonds authorized hereunder, the city may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund or funds, reserve fund or funds, and other funds, and may make additional covenants with respect to the bonds and the pledged revenues and the operation and maintenance of those improvements and facilities, the revenues of which are pledged, including provision for the operation or for the leasing of all or any part of said improvements or facilities and the use of pledge of moneys derived from such operation contracts and leases, as it may deem appropriate. Such ordinance or ordinances may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues, or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payable from said revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued, subject to such conditions as are set forth in said ordinance or ordinances. Such ordinance or ordinances may contain other provisions and covenants, as the city may determine, not prohibited by the Constitution of Texas or by this Act, and the city may adopt and cause to be executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary or convenient in the issuance of any of said bonds.

Payment of Interest: Expense of Sale and Delivery of Bonds; Investment of Proceeds

Sec. 6. From the proceeds of sale of any bonds issued hereunder, the city may appropriate or set aside, out of the bond proceeds an amount for the payment of interest expected to accrue during the period of construction, an amount or amounts to be deposited into the reserve fund or funds as may be provided in the bond ordinance or ordinances, and an amount necessary to pay all expenses incurred and to be incurred in the issuance, sale, and delivery of the bonds. Until such time or times the a bond proceeds are needed to carry out the bond purpose, such bond proceeds may be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America or may be placed on time deposit, or both. Moneys in the interest and sinking fund or funds, in the reserve fund or funds, and in any other fund or funds established or provided for the bond ordinance or ordinances may be invested in such manner and in such securities as may be provided in the bond ordinance or ordinances.

Signatures on Bonds; Maturity Dates; Examination and Approval; Registration

Sec. 7. All bonds shall be signed by the Mayor of the city and countersigned by the City Secretary or City Clerk, and shall have the seal of the city impressed thereon; provided, that the bond ordinance or ordinances may provide for the bonds and any attached interest coupons to be signed by facsimile signatures and for the seal of the city on the bonds to be a facsimile as provided by Acts 1961, 57th Legislature, page 406, Chapter 204 (Article 1173-1, V.A.C.S.). Such bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years from their date or dates and may be sold at a price and under such terms determined by the governing body of the city to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, provided that the interest cost to the city, calculated by the use of standard bond interest tables currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses, does not exceed six per cent (6%) per annum, and within the discretion of the governing body such bonds may be callable prior to maturit at such time or times and at such price or prices as may be prescribed in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing such bonds. Any such bonds may be made registrable as to principal, or as to both principal and interest. All bonds issued hereunder and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination as to the validity thereof, and after said Attorney General has approved the same, such bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. When such bonds have been approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and delivered to the purchasers, they shall thereafter be incontestable except for forgery or fraud.
ART. 1269j–4.1 CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Revenue Refunding Bonds; Examination and Approval; Registration

Sec. 8. Any city to which this Act applies shall have the power and authority to issue revenue refunding bonds similarly secured to refund either original bonds or revenue refunding bonds theretofore issued by such city under this Act, and such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate or rates than that of the bonds refunded unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid. Refunding bonds shall be authorized by ordinance or ordinances and shall be executed and shall mature as is provided in this Act for original bonds. They shall be approved by the Attorney General as in the case of original bonds, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts upon the surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof the ordinance or ordinances authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to pay the interest on and principal of the underlying bonds to their face value when accompanied by all unma­tered coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 10. This Act is cumulative of all existing laws of the State of Texas, but to the extent that such existing laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall govern and prevail; and this Act shall take precedence over any and all conflicting or inconsistent city charter provisions.

Section 3 of Acts 1981, 67th Leg., p. 960, ch. 366, provides: “This Act takes effect October 1, 1981, and applies to taxes collected on or after that date.”

Title and Applicability

Sec. 1. (a) This Act shall be known as the Public Improvement District Assessment Act. The powers granted hereunder may be exercised by any incorporated city or town in which the governing body has initiated and/or received a petition requesting the establishment of a public improvement district. The petition shall include signatures of more than 50 percent of the property owners or represent more than 50 percent of the taxable land area and signatures of owners of taxable property representing more than 50 percent of the appraised value of the taxable real property including the value of structures and other improvements within the area as determined by the current roll of the countywide appraisal district in which the property is located.

(b) In this Act, the “city” means any authorized city to which this Act is applicable under Subsection (a) above.

 Authorized Public Improvements

Sec. 2. (a) The governing body of a city may undertake improvement projects and/or services that confer a special benefit on a definable part of the city. The governing body may levy and collect special assessments on property in the area, based on the benefit conferred by the improvement project and/or services, to pay all or part of its cost.

(b) A public improvement project may include:

(1) landscaping; the erection of distinctive lighting and signs; the improvement, widening, narrowing, closing, or rerouting of streets or sidewalks; drainage improvements; the construction or improvement of pedestrian malls; the establishment or improvement of parks; the erection of fountains; the acquisition and installation of articles of art; and the acquisition, construction, or improvement of off-street parking facilities;
(2) other improvements similar to those described in Subdivision (1) of this subsection;

(3) the acquisition of real property in connection with an authorized improvement;

(4) special supplemental services for improvement and promotion of the district, including but not limited to advertising, promotion, health and sanitation, public safety, security, business recruitment, development, recreation and cultural enhancements; and

(5) expenses incurred in the establishment, administration, and operation of the district.

Act is Alternative

Sec. 3. This Act is a complete alternative to other methods by which a city may finance public improvements and/or special supplemental services by assessing property owners.

Financing Combined Improvements

Sec. 4. An improvement project on two or more streets or two or more types of improvements in, on, or adjacent to the same street or streets may be included in one proceeding and financed as one improvement.

Petition for Improvement District

Sec. 5. (a) A petition for any district authorized to be financed under this Act may be filed with the city secretary or other officer who performs the function of city secretary. The petition must state:

(1) the general nature of the proposed improvement and/or services;

(2) the estimated cost of the improvement and/or services;

(3) the boundaries of the proposed assessment district;

(4) the proposed method of assessment;

(5) the proposed apportionment of cost between the improvement district and the city as a whole;

(6) the proposed management structure for administration of the district by the city, the private sector, or public-private partnership;

(7) that the persons signing the petition request and/or concur with the making of the improvement district; and

(8) that an advisory body may be established with the responsibility of developing and recommending a service and improvement plan to the governing body. The composition of the advisory body shall include more than 50 percent of owners of record of property or record owners of property of more than 50 percent of the land area and owners of taxable property representing more than 50 percent of the appraised value of the taxable real property including the value of structures and other improvements within the area as determined by the current roll of the countywide appraisal district in which the property is located. The composition and appointments shall be approved by the governing body.

(b) The petition is sufficient if signed by:

(1) more than 50 percent of the owners of record of property liable for assessment under the proposal;

(2) the record owners of property composing more than 50 percent of the area liable for assessment under the proposal; and

(3) owners of taxable property representing more than 50 percent of the appraised value of the taxable real property including the value of structures and other improvements within the area as determined by the current roll of the countywide appraisal district in which the property is located.

(c) When a petition which meets the requirements of this section is filed, the governing body of the city may make findings by resolution as to the advisability of the improvement, the estimated cost, the method of assessment, and the apportionment of cost between the improvement district and the city as a whole.

Feasibility Report, Etc.

Sec. 6. (a) Before holding a hearing on the advisability of a proposed improvement district, the governing body of a city may require that a feasibility report be made to assist in determining whether an improvement and/or service should be made as proposed or otherwise or whether it should be made in combination with other improvements and/or services authorized by this Act. The governing body may also require that a preliminary estimate of the cost of the improvement and/or service or combination of improvements and/or services be made. The governing body may use the services of employees of the city to make the report or estimate, or it may employ consultants.

(b) The governing body may also take other preliminary steps prior to the hearing or before establishing a district or letting a contract that will be of assistance in determining the feasibility and desirability of an improvement district.

Hearing as to Advisability

Sec. 7. (a) A district may be established, and services and/or an improvement may be financed under this Act after notice of the hearing has been given as required by this section and the governing body of the city holds a public hearing on the advisability of the improvements and/or services.

(b) Notice of the hearing shall be given in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The final publication shall be at least 15 days before the date of the hearing. The notice shall include the following information:

(1) the time and place of the hearing;

(2) the general nature of the proposed improvement;
(3) the estimated cost of the improvement;

(4) the boundaries of the proposed assessment district;

(5) the proposed method of assessment; and

(6) the proposed apportionment of cost between the improvement district and the city as a whole.

(c) Written notice containing the information required in Subsection (b) of this section shall be mailed at least 15 days before the hearing to "Property Owner," in care of the current address of the subject property as reflected on the tax rolls.

(d) The hearing may be adjourned from time to time until the governing body makes findings by resolution as to the advisability of the improvement and/or services, the nature of the improvement and/or services, the estimated cost, the boundaries of the improvement district, the method of assessment, and the apportionment of cost between the district and the city as a whole.

(e) The area of the improvement district to be assessed according to the findings of the governing body may be less than the area proposed in the notice of the hearing, but it may not include any property not within the original proposed boundaries unless there is an additional hearing, preceded by the required notice.

May Order Improvements

Sec. 8. (a) At any time within six months after the final adjournment of the hearing to establish an improvement district, the governing body of the city by a majority vote of all members may adopt a resolution authorizing the improvement district in accordance with its finding as to the advisability of the improvements and/or services. The authorization takes effect when it has been published one time in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. Actual construction of the improvements or implementation of the services may not begin until 20 days after the authorization takes effect.

(b) An improvement may not be commenced if, within 20 days after the authorization takes effect, written protests signed by at least two-thirds of the owners of record of property within the improvement district or the owners of record of at least two-thirds of the total area of the district are filed with the city secretary or other officer who performs the function of city secretary.

(c) A public hearing as provided for in Section 7 of this Act may be called to dissolve a district and eliminate special supplemental services upon receipt of a petition signed by more than 50 percent of the owners of record of property within the district or the owners of record of more than 50 percent of the taxable land area of the district and owners of taxable property representing more than 50 percent of the appraised value of the taxable real property including the value of structures and other improvements within the area as determined by the current roll of the countywide appraisal district in which the property is located. However, the district shall remain in effect for the purpose of meeting obligations of indebtedness for improvements.

(d) Any person may withdraw his name from a protest at any time before the governing body convenes its meeting to determine the sufficiency of the protest.

Service and Assessment Plan

Sec. 9. (a) An ongoing service plan shall be prepared by the advisory body for review and approval by the governing body. The governing body shall assign responsibility for the plan in the absence of an advisory body. The plan shall be for a period not less than five years and shall be reviewed and updated annually to determine the annual budget for improvements and/or special supplemental services. The amount of assessment for each property owner may be adjusted annually, following approval of the plan.

(b) The portion of the cost of an improvement to be assessed against the property in the improvement district shall be apportioned by the governing body of the city based on the special benefits accruing to the property because of the improvement.

(c) The cost may be assessed equally per front foot or per square foot against all property within the district; it may be assessed against property according to the value of the property as determined by the governing body of the city, with or without regard to structures or other improvements on the property; or it may be assessed on the basis of any other reasonable assessment plan that results in imposing equal shares of the cost on property similarly benefited.

(d) The governing body may establish by ordinance reasonable classifications and formulas for the apportionment of the cost between the city and the area to be assessed and the methods of assessing the special benefits for various classes of improvements.

Apportionment of Costs

Sec. 10. (a) An assessment plan must provide that at least 20 percent of the cost of an improvement be paid by special assessments against property in the improvement district.

(b) The city shall be responsible for payment of assessment for exempt city-owned property which is part of the district. Payment of assessment by other exempt jurisdictions shall be established by contract. Assessments paid by the city as a whole under this subsection are counted as having been paid by special assessment for the purpose of Subsection (a) of this section.

(c) The assessment plan shall be a part of the annual service plan which defines the annual indebtedness for improvements and the projected costs for all special supplemental services.
Preparing Assessment Roll; Notice; Etc.

Sec. 11. (a) When the total cost of an improvement and/or services are determined, the governing body shall cause the assessments against each parcel of land within the benefit district to be determined in accordance with the manner of assessment set forth in the resolution as to the advisability of the improvement district. The governing body shall also cause a proposed assessment roll to be prepared.

(b) The proposed assessment roll shall be filed with the city secretary or other officer who performs the function of city secretary and be open for public inspection. The governing body shall direct the secretary to publish notice that the governing body will meet to consider the proposed assessments at a public hearing. The notice must be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city at least 10 days before the hearing and shall state the date, time, and place of the hearing, the general nature of the improvement and/or services, the cost of the improvement and/or services, the boundaries of the assessment district, and that written or oral objections will be considered at the hearing.

(c) At the time the assessment roll is filed with the city secretary or other officer, the city secretary or other officer shall also mail to the owners of property liable for assessment, at their last known address, a notice of the hearing which contains all the information required of the notice published in a newspaper. The failure of a property owner to receive the notice does not invalidate the proceedings.

Assessments: Hearing, Levy, Payment

Sec. 12. (a) At the hearing on proposed assessments or at any adjournment of the hearing, the governing body shall hear and pass on all objections to each proposed assessment. The governing body may amend the proposed assessments as to any parcel. When all objections have been heard and action has been taken with regard to them, the governing body by ordinance shall levy the assessments as special assessments on the property. The governing body by ordinance shall specify the method of payment of the assessments and may provide that they be payable in periodic installments which shall meet annual costs for special supplemental services and improvements as set forth in Section 9 of this Act and shall continue for the number of years required to retire indebtedness.

(b) All assessments bear interest at a rate specified by the governing body, which may not exceed one-half percentage point above the actual interest rate paid on the public debt being used to finance the improvements and/or services. Interest on the assessment between the effective date of the ordinance levying the assessment and the date the first installment is payable shall be added to the first installment. The interest for one year on all unpaid installments shall be added to each subsequent installment until paid. An assessment or any reassessment is a lien against the property until it is paid. The owner of any property assessed may pay the entire assessment against any lot or parcel with accrued interest to the date of the payment at any time.

Supplemental Assessments

Sec. 13. After notice and hearing in the manner required for original assessments, the governing body may make supplemental assessments to correct omissions or mistakes in the assessment relating to the total cost of the improvement and/or services.

Reassessments and New Assessments

Sec. 14. If an assessment against a parcel of land is set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction, found excessive by the governing body, or determined to be invalid by the governing body on the written advice of counsel, the governing body may make a reassessment or new assessment as to the parcel.

Separate Improvement Funds

Sec. 15. A separate improvement district fund shall be created in the city treasury for each district. The proceeds from the sale of bonds, temporary notes and time warrants, and any other sums appropriated to the fund by the governing body shall be credited to the fund. The fund may be used solely to pay the costs incurred in the making of the improvement and/or providing the services. When the improvement is completed, the balance of that portion of the assessment for improvements shall be transferred to the fund established for the retirement of the bonds.

Special Improvement District Fund

Sec. 16. (a) A city proposing to establish a district to be financed under the authority of this Act may establish by ordinance a special improvement district fund in the city treasury. The city may levy annually a tax for the purpose of the fund.

(b) The fund may be used to pay the costs of planning, administration any improvement authorized by this Act, and for preparing preliminary plans, studies, and engineering reports preparatory to the consideration of the feasibility of an improvement and/or services and to pay the initial cost of the improvement and/or services when ordered by the governing body until temporary notes, time warrants, or improvement bonds have been issued and sold.

(c) The fund need not be budgeted for expenditures during any year, but the amount of the fund shall be stated in the city’s annual budget. The fund shall be based on an annual service plan which shall define the public improvements and special supplemental services for the fiscal year. All grants-in-aid or contributions made to the city for planning and preparation of plans for improvements which are authorized under this Act may be credited to the special improvement district fund, and the amount of the aid or contribution shall not be considered in calculating the limitation on the fund imposed by Subsection (c) of this section.

Payment of Costs

Sec. 17. (a) The cost of any improvement and/or services made under the authority of this Act shall be paid in accordance with this section.

(b) All costs payable by the city as a whole may be paid from general funds available for the purpose or from other available general funds.

(c) Costs payable by special assessments which have been paid in full shall be paid from those assessments.

(d) Costs payable by special assessments to be paid in installments and costs made payable by the city as a whole but not payable from available general funds or other available general improvement funds shall be paid by the issuance and sale of revenue or general obligation bonds.

(e) During the progress of an improvement and/or services the governing body may issue temporary notes or time warrants of the city to pay costs covered by Section 17(d) of this Act, including the installment payments described in Section 17(d) of this Act, to the special improvement district fund, and the proceeds of the bonds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent, and in the manner provided, in the bond ordinance.

General Obligation Bonds

Sec. 18. A city may issue general obligation bonds under the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Statutes, as amended (Article 701 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), to pay all or part of the costs covered by Section 17(d) of this Act.

Issuance of Revenue Bonds

Sec. 19. For the payment of all or part of the costs covered by Section 17(d) of this Act, the governing body may issue revenue bonds from time to time in one or more series to be payable from and secured by liens on all or part of the revenue derived from improvements authorized under this Act, including installment payments of special assessments.

Terms and Conditions of Bonds

Sec. 20. (a) Revenue bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise within not more than 40 years from their date, and provision may be made for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds or subordinate lien bonds under any terms or conditions that may be set forth in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(b) The bonds and any interest coupons appertaining thereto are negotiable instruments within the meaning and for all purposes of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code. The bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest, and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and said bonds shall bear interest at such rates, all as shall be determined and provided in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(c) If so provided in the bond ordinance, the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during and after the period of the acquisition or construction of any improvement to be provided through the issuance of the bonds, for creating a reserve fund for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds, and for creating any other funds. The proceeds of the bonds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent, and in the manner provided, in the bond ordinance.

Pledges

Sec. 21. (a) The governing body may pledge all or any part of the income from improvements financed under this Act, including the installment payments described in Section 17(d) of this Act, to the payment of the bonds, including the payment of principal, interest, and any other amounts required or permitted in connection with the bonds. The pledged income shall be fixed and collected in amounts that will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds, and, to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds, to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds, and for the payment of operation, maintenance, and other expenses in connection with the improvements authorized under this Act.

(b) The bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on any real property relating to the facilities authorized under this Act owned or to be acquired by the city and by chattel mortgages, liens, or security interests on any personal property appurtenant to that real property. The governing body may authorize the execution of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other forms of encumbrances to evidence the indebtedness.

(c) The governing body may also pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenues, or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.
Refunding Bonds

Sec. 22. (a) Any revenue bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for that purpose, under any terms or conditions, as are determined by ordinance of the governing body of the local government. All appropriate provisions of this Act are applicable to refunding bonds, and the refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds. The refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts necessary to pay the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of bonds to be refunded, at maturity or on any redemption date.

(b) The refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded. In that case, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance authorizing the refunding bonds. The exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.

(c) General obligation bonds issued under this Act also may be refunded in the manner provided by law.

Approval and Registration of Bonds

Sec. 22. (a) All revenue bonds issued under this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If the bonds recite that they are secured by a pledge of revenues or rentals from a contract or lease, a copy of the contract or lease and the proceedings relating to it shall be submitted to the attorney general also. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized and any contract or lease has been made in accordance with law, he shall approve the bonds and the contract or lease, and thereupon the bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After approval and registration the bonds and any contract or lease relating to them are incontestable in any court or other form for any reason and are valid and binding obligations for all purposes in accordance with their terms.

(b) General obligation bonds issued under this Act shall be approved and registered as provided by law.

Authorized Investments and Security for Deposits

Sec. 24. All bonds issued under this Act are legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of the state, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. The bonds also are eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of it, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of the bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereon.

Art. 1269j-4.15. Park Purposes; Acquisition and Improvement of Property by Cities of 1,200,000 or More

Applicability of Act

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to all incorporated cities, having a population of 1,200,000 or more, and to any other city having such authority the state legislature may authorize by law.

Acquisition, Construction and Improvement of Property; Operating Contracts

Sec. 2. Any such city shall have authority to acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, any or all property (real, personal, or mixed) and to construct or otherwise acquire, improve, and equip any property for park purposes, including, but not by way of limitation: establishing, acquiring, leasing, or contracting as lessee or lessor, purchasing, constructing, improving, enlarging, equipping, repairing, operating, or maintaining (any or all) golf courses, clubhouses, and pro shops, tennis courts, and facilities, swimming pools, marinas, recreation centers, rugby fields, baseball fields, zoos, clarification lakes or pools, park transportation systems and equipment, theaters, bicycle trails, multipurpose shelters, service facilities, and any other recreational facilities, all or any (hereinafter called "Facilities" or "Facilities"); together with all necessary water, sewer, and drainage facilities, and to establish, acquire, lease, or contract as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate, or maintain (any or all) structures, parking areas, or parking facilities to be used in connection with such Facilities for parking and storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances, and provided that any such leases or contracts may be on such terms and conditions as said city shall deem appropriate. Also, such city shall have authority to enter into a contract or agreement under which the Facilities may be operated on behalf of the city, such operating contracts or agreements to contain such terms or conditions as said city shall deem appropriate. Each and all of the foregoing purposes are hereby found and declared to be public purposes and proper municipal functions.

Revenue Bonds Authorized

Sec. 3. For any purpose or purposes authorized under Section 2 of this Act, the governing body of the city may issue its revenue bonds from time to time in one or more series to be payable from and secured by liens on all or part of the revenues derived from any facility or facilities.

Issuance of Bonds; Proceeds From Sale of Bonds; Ad Valorem Tax

Sec. 4. (a) Said bonds may be issued when authorized by ordinance duly adopted by the city’s governing body and may mature serially or otherwise within not to exceed 40 years from their date or dates, and provision may be made for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinated lien bonds, under any terms or conditions that may be set forth in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(b) Said bonds, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, shall be deemed and construed to be a “Security” within the meaning of Chapter 8, Investment Securities, Business & Commerce Code. The bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to principal and interest and shall be executed and may be made redeemable prior to maturity and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner and under such terms, conditions, and details and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and such bonds shall bear interest at such rates, all as shall be determined and provided in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(c) If so provided in said ordinance, the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during and after the period of the acquisition, construction, or improvement of any facility, for paying expenses of operation and maintenance of said facilities, for creating a reserve fund for the payment of the principal and interest on the bonds, and for establishing any other funds. The proceeds of sale of the bonds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent and in the manner provided in the bond ordinance.

(d) Any such city shall also be authorized to levy and pledge to the payment of the operation and maintenance of any facility or facilities, either as a supplement to the pledge of revenues for such purpose or in lieu thereof, a continuing annual ad valorem tax at a rate on each $100 valuation of taxable property within said city sufficient for such purposes, all as may be provided in said ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds; provided, that such taxes shall be within any constitutional or charter limit for cities included by this Act; and provided further, that no part of any moneys raised by such taxes shall ever be used for the payment of the interest on or principal of any bonds issued hereunder. The proceeds of any such taxes thus pledged shall be utilized annually to the extent required by or provided in the ordinance for operation and maintenance of such facilities, and such city in its discretion may covenant in such ordinance that certain costs of operating and maintaining such facilities, as may be enumerated therein, or all of such costs will be paid by the city from the proceeds of such tax.

1 Business and Commerce Code, § 8.101 et seq.

Fees, Rentals, Rates and Charges

Sec. 5. Each such city shall be authorized to fix and collect fees, rentals, rates, and charges for the occupancy, use, or availability of all or any of the facilities in such amounts and in such manner as may be determined by the governing body of the city.

Pledge of Revenues, Income or Receipts; Mortgages or Deeds of Trust

Sec. 6. (a) The city may pledge all or any part of the revenues, income, or receipts from such fees, rentals, rates, and charges to the payment of the bonds, including the payment of principal, interest, and any other amounts required or permitted in connection with the bonds. The pledged fees, rentals, rates, and charges shall be fixed and collected in amounts that will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds, and, to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds, to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds, and for the payment of operation, maintenance, and other expenses in connection with the facilities.

(b) The bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on any real property relating to the facilities owned or to be acquired by the city and by chattel mortgages, liens, or security interests on any personal property appurtenant to that real property. The governing body of the city may authorize the execution of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other forms of encumbrances to evidence the indebtedness.

(c) The city may also pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenues, or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 7. (a) Any bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for that purpose under any terms or conditions as are determined by ordinance of the governing body of the city. All appropriate provisions of this Act are applicable to refunding bonds, and the refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds. The refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts necessary to pay the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of bonds to be refunded, at maturity or on any redemption date.
(b) The refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded by them. In that case, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance authorizing the refunding bonds. The exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.

(c) Bonds issued at any time by a city under this Act also may be refunded in the manner provided by any other applicable law.

Examination, Approval and Registration of Bonds

Sec. 8. All bonds issued under this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If the bonds recite that they are secured by a pledge of revenues or rentals from a contract or lease, a copy of the contract or lease and the proceedings relating to it shall be submitted to the attorney general also. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized and any contract or lease has been made in accordance with law, he shall approve the bonds and the contract or lease, and thereupon the bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After approval and registration, the bonds and any contract or lease relating to them are incontestable for any reason and are valid and binding obligations for all purposes in accordance with their terms.

Legal and Authorized Investments; Security for Deposit of Public Funds

Sec. 9. All bonds issued under this Act are legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of the state, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. The bonds also are eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of it, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of the bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect; Conflicting Provisions

Sec. 10. This Act is cumulative of all other law on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized by it without reference to any other law or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided. When any bonds are issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any law or home-rule charter provision, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control. A city shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Severability

Sec. 11. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Art. 1269j-4.2. Coliseums or Stadiums of Counties in Excess of 500,000; Sale to Certain Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city to which Chapter 63, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965, as amended (Article 1269j-4-1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall apply (each such city herein called an "authorized city") and to any county which has a population in excess of 500,000 according to the then most recent federal census, which county has issued bonds for the purpose of constructing a coliseum or stadium within the county and which is operating such coliseum directly and is not having the same operated by another through a lease or other agreement not subject to cancellation by the county in event of a sale of such facilities (each such county being herein called an "authorized county").

Sec. 2. The commissioners court of any authorized county, upon finding (a) that the coliseum or stadium owned and operated by it is in need of expansion or other improvement, and (b) that such expansion or other improvement may be better accomplished without resort to the tax funds and resources of the county by the sale of such coliseum or stadium and related land to an authorized city in which such facility is located, may sell such coliseum or stadium and related land and facilities to such authorized city pursuant to an agreement of sale and purchase entered into in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 3. A sale and purchase, as authorized in Section 2 of this Act, shall be upon such terms and for such price as shall be agreed between the authorized county and the authorized city, but in no event shall such price be less than the amount of the then outstanding bonds of the county issued for the purpose of constructing and equipping such coliseum or stadium. Such sale and purchase price may be paid by the authorized city in cash and the funds to pay the same may be obtained by such city in any manner now permitted by law; or, such sale and purchase price may be paid by the city in installments with interest at not lower than the same rates borne by the county's outstanding coliseum or stadium bonds. The funds with which to make such installments may be obtained by such city in any lawful manner, including; but not limited to, one or a combination of the following methods, to wit: (a) Such installments, by the agreement, may be made payable to the authorized county out of revenues of the stadium or coliseum thus sold on dates coinciding with or earlier than the dates upon which principal and interest on such county's outstanding coliseum or stadium bonds shall mature and come due. If this method of payment is selected, the payments due the county may be treated as a fixed operating expense of the stadium or coliseum payable solely from the revenues of such facilities. When received by the county, such funds shall be utilized for the purpose of retiring and paying interest upon its said bonds.

(b) Such city and such county may agree that the city shall issue a series of coliseum or stadium acquisition revenue bonds (or include such purpose as a part of a larger series of coliseum or stadium revenue bonds), which revenue bonds (or part of a larger series allocable to such purchase) shall be delivered to the county in payment of the purchase price for said stadium or coliseum. Such bonds shall be at least payable at the times and in the same amounts as, and bear not lower than the same rates of interest borne by, the county's outstanding coliseum or stadium bonds, so as to provide funds from such revenue bonds to the county with which to pay the principal and interest when due upon its said outstanding bonds. Such revenue bonds of the city may be upon such other terms as the city and the county may agree and may include any mortgage security authorized by Chapter 63, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965, as amended.

Sec. 4. Any such sale authorized by this law shall be effected by delivery of a deed, with reservation of such vendor's liens on such facilities as may be appropriate in connection with the selected method for payment of the purchase price, from the county and approved by the commissioners court and accepted by the city in accordance with the terms of such sale and purchase agreement. From and after the delivery of such deed, the city shall be the complete and total owner of the coliseum or stadium, and the land and facilities thus conveyed, and may thereafter exercise all the powers with respect thereto authorized and implied by Chapter 63, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965, as amended, and any other laws applicable to such city, for the purpose of operating, maintaining, improving, or expanding a coliseum or stadium, and in connection with the financing thereof include such indoor and outdoor recreational facilities, properties and entertainment attractions as may be considered by the city to be appropriate in connection therewith and may lease, or enter into operating agreements with respect to, all or any part of the same for such periods and upon such terms as the city may determine.

Sec. 5. If the city council of any city which has acquired and owns a stadium or coliseum under the authority granted in this Act shall affirmatively find that escalating burdens and costs of operating its stadium or coliseum have caused continued ownership to cease to be economically feasible, resulting in increasing and unnecessary burdens on the taxpayers of the city, then, the city council, after giving at least 14 days' notice of and holding a public hearing on the question, may sell such stadium or coliseum to another public or private entity upon such terms and conditions as the city council may approve, and such city shall have all power necessary and appropriate to complete such sale in accordance with the terms of the sale.

Art. 1269j-4.3 Parking Facilities; Revenue Bonds; Gulf Coast Cities

Application to Certain Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to every incorporated city or town (including Home Rule Cities) located on the Coast of the Gulf of Mexico, or any channel, canal, bay or inlet connected therewith, having a population of more than sixty thousand (60,000) and less than seventy-five thousand (75,000) inhabitants or having a population of more than one hundred ten thousand (110,000) and less than one hundred twenty thousand (120,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding federal census.

Parking Facilities

Sec. 2. That any such city is hereby authorized to establish, acquire, lease as lessor or lessee, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate or maintain (any or all) permanent public improvements, to wit: structures, parking areas or facilities (hereinafter called "improvements") for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances; provided that any such lease shall be on such terms and conditions as said city shall deem appropriate.
Revenue Bonds

Sec. 3. (a) Any such city is hereby authorized to issue negotiable revenue bonds to provide all or part of the funds for the establishment, acquisition, lease, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, equipment or repair (any or all) of said improvements.

(b) Such revenue bonds may be issued when duly authorized by an ordinance passed by the governing body of such city and shall be secured by a pledge of and be payable from all or any designated part of the revenues of said improvements (any or all) as may be provided in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of such bonds. To the extent that such revenues may have been pledged to the payment of revenue or revenue refunding bonds which are still outstanding, the pledge securing the proposed bonds shall be inferior to the previous pledge or pledges. Within the discretion of the governing body of the city, and subject to the limitations contained in previous pledges, if any, in addition to the pledge of revenues a lien may be given on all or any part of the physical properties acquired out of the proceeds from the sale of such bonds.

(c) When any of the revenues of such improvements are pledged to the payment of bonds issued under this Act, it shall be the duty of the governing body of the city to cause to be fixed, maintained and enforced charges for services rendered by such improvements, the revenues of which have been pledged, at rates and amounts at least sufficient to comply with and carry out the covenants and provisions contained in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of said bonds.

Bonds; Demand of Payment

Sec. 4. The owners or holders of such revenue or revenue refunding bonds shall never have the right to demand payment of either the principal of or interest on such bonds out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

Funds; Additional Bonds and Covenants

Sec. 5. In the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of any revenue or revenue refunding bonds authorized hereunder, the city may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund or funds, reserve fund or funds, and other funds, and may make additional covenants with respect to the bonds and the pledged revenues and the operation and maintenance of those improvements and facilities, the revenues of which are pledged, including provisions for the operation or for the leasing of, as lessor or lessee, all or any part of said improvements and the use or pledge of moneys derived from such operation contracts and leases, as it may deem appropriate. Such ordinance or ordinances may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues, or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payment from said revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued, subject to such conditions as are set forth in such ordinance or ordinances. Such ordinance or ordinances may contain other provisions and covenants, as the city may determine, not prohibited by the Constitution of Texas or by this Act, and the city may adopt and cause to be executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary or convenient in the issuance of any of said bonds.

Bond Proceeds; Appropriation; Investment

Sec. 6. From the proceeds of sale of any bonds issued hereunder, the city may appropriate or set aside, out of the bond proceeds, an amount for the payment of interest expected to accrue during the period of construction, an amount or amounts to be deposited in the reserve fund or funds as may be provided in the bond ordinance or ordinances, and an amount necessary to pay all expenses incurred or to be incurred in the issuance, sale and delivery of the bonds. Until such time or times as the bond proceeds are needed to carry out the bond purpose, such bond proceeds may be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America or may be placed on time deposit, either or both, moneys in the interest and sinking fund or funds, and the reserve fund or funds, and any other fund or funds established or provided for in the bond ordinance or ordinances may be invested in such manner and in such securities as may be provided in the bond ordinance or ordinances.

Bond; Signature; Seal; Facsimiles; Maturity; Interest; Approval and Registration

Sec. 7. That all bonds shall be signed by the mayor of the city and countersigned by the city secretary or city clerk, and shall have the seal of the city impressed thereon; provided, that the bond ordinance or ordinances may provide for the bonds and any attached interest coupons to be signed by facsimile signatures and for the seal of the city on the bonds to be in facsimile as provided by Acts, 1961, 57th Legislature, page 406, Chapter 204 (Art. 717-1, V.A.C.S.), as amended. Such bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years from their date or dates and may be sold at a price and under such terms determined by the governing body of the city to be the most advantageous and reasonably obtainable, provided that the interest cost to the city, calculated by the use of standard bond interest tables currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses, does not exceed six and one-half per cent (6 1/2%) per annum, and within the discretion of the governing body such bonds may be called prior to maturity at such time or times and at such price or prices as may be prescribed in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing such bonds. Any such bonds may be made registrable as to principal, or as to both principal and interest. All bonds issued hereunder and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination as to the validity thereof, and after said Attorney General has approved the same, such bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. When such bonds have been approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and delivered to the purchasers, they shall thereafter be incontestable.

Refunding Bonds: Approval and Registration

Sec. 8. Any city to which this Act applies shall have the power and authority to issue revenue refunding bonds to refund either original bonds or revenue refunding bonds therefore issued by said city under this Act, and such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate or rates than that of the bonds refunded unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid. Refunding bonds shall be authorized by ordinances or ordinances and shall be executed and shall mature as is provided in this Act for original bonds. They shall be approved by the Attorney General as in the case of original bonds, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts upon the surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof the ordinance or ordinances authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to pay the interest on and principal of the underlying bonds to their option or maturity date, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying bonds. All such refunding bonds, after they have been approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, shall be incontestable.

Bonds: Negotiability; Legal Investments; Security for Deposits

Sec. 9. All bonds issued under this Act, whether original bonds or refunding bonds, shall bear interest at the same or lower rate or rates than that of the bonds refunded unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid. Refunding bonds shall be authorized by ordinances or ordinances and shall be executed and shall mature as is provided in this Act for original bonds. They shall be approved by the Attorney General as in the case of original bonds, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts upon the surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof the ordinance or ordinances authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to pay the interest on and principal of the underlying bonds to their option or maturity date, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying bonds. All such refunding bonds, after they have been approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, shall be incontestable.

Cumulative Effect; Precedence

Sec. 10. This Act is cumulative of all existing laws of the State of Texas, but to the extent that such existing laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall govern and prevail; and this Act shall take precedence over any and all conflicting or inconsistent city charter provisions.

Art. 1269j-4.4. Sea Life Park and Oceanarium; Certificates of Indebtedness

Authorization

Sec. 1. Any city or town which owns a sea life park and oceanarium, the same having been, or the same being, constructed, equipped and developed wholly or partly with the proceeds of general obligation park bonds duly voted by the inhabitants of such city or town, is hereby authorized to issue Certificates of Indebtedness for the purpose of obtaining funds for operating, maintaining, repairing, further equipping, developing, expanding or obtaining inventories for such sea life park and oceanarium or for paying for such services and items when performed, obtained or acquired by others for the benefit of any such city or town under the terms of any lease, purchase, or concession agreement, operating agreement or other type of agreement relating to the development, operation, equipping, staffing, maintenance or upkeep of any such facilities; and for the same purposes, such obligations may be issued in connection with any other public facilities which are owned by such city or town in conjunction with such sea life park and oceanarium and which are of the type authorized by Chapter 63, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965 (Article 1269j-4.1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) or under said Act and Chapter 400, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1989 (Article 1269j-4.2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Acquisition of Facilities and Rights by Cities and Towns from Person or Corporation

Sec. 1(a). If any such city or town has heretofore or shall hereafter cause any part or all of said facilities to be operated on its behalf by a person or corporation under the terms of a lease, use, purchase, concession agreement, operating agreement, or other type of agreement, such city or town, upon a determination by the governing body thereof that the same could be better and more efficiently operated directly by it or by another method, including an operating board appointed by it, with such powers as may be granted by ordinance, or by any other method, and with the consent and agreement of such person or corporation to the rescission of any their face value when accompanied by all unma­tured coupons appurtenant thereto.

such agreement shall be authorized to purchase or otherwise acquire all or any part of the properties, assets, rights and facilities of any such person or corporation and to issue certificates of indebtedness therefor in accordance with the terms of this Act, expressly including the right to purchase or acquire any broadcasting or similar rights, and the same may be used, sold or resold by such city or town and in conjunction with which such use or sales, such city or town may promote or advertise such city or town or any such facilities or any events to be conducted therein or in connection therewith.

Issuance; Terms and Conditions; Security

Sec. 2. The Certificates of Indebtedness authorized by this Act may be issued when authorized by ordinance adopted by the governing body of any such city or town and may mature serially or otherwise and may be issued upon such other terms and conditions as may be contained and specified in any such ordinance, including, but not limited to, provisions as to interest rate or rates, registration and redemption privileges, and any manner and method of sale, exchange for goods, property or services, and for the delivery thereof; and the same may be secured by and made payable from taxes or revenues, or both; provided that, in the issuance of any such obligations payable from taxes, the issuer shall comply with the provisions of the Texas Constitution requiring in such cases that sufficient taxes to pay the principal thereof and interest thereon when due be duly and properly levied.

Pledge of Revenues to Payment of Certificates of Indebtedness; Deed of Trust or Mortgage Lien

Sec. 2(a). If any such city or town shall elect to pledge the revenues from the aforesaid facilities to the repayment of any certificate of indebtedness issued under this Act, or in connection with the refunding thereof as herein permitted, either alone or in combination with taxes, as permitted in Section 2 of this Act, then such city or town may pledge all or any part of the designated revenues to result from the ownership or operation of any or all of the facilities, properties and rights described in Section 1 and Section 1(a) of this Act, and, within the discretion of the governing body of such city or town, may additionally secure the same by a deed of trust or mortgage lien on any part or all of the physical properties of the city which are described in this Act, in which event, such deeds of trust or mortgages may be executed as may be deemed appropriate in addition to the ordinance contemplated in Section 1 hereof. If any such city or town shall elect to refund any certificates of indebtedness issued hereunder pursuant to Section 4 of this Act, it is hereby expressly provided that any such refunding bonds may be secured by any part or all of the aforesaid revenues and by a deed of trust or other mortgage lien upon said properties or by taxes or by any combination thereof, and irrespective of the nature of the initial security pledged or committed to the payment of the certificate of indebtedness as initially issued.

Certificates as Investment Securities

Sec. 3. Any Certificates of Indebtedness issued under authority of this Act shall constitute "Investment Securities" under Chapter 8 of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code, and may be issued in such form and denominations and under such other terms, conditions and details, and may be executed, all as provided in the proceedings authorizing the same; and all Certificates of Indebtedness which shall recite that they have been issued under authority of this Act for the purposes herein authorized shall be incontestable for any reason and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms and for all purposes.

Refunding into Bonds

Sec. 4. The Certificates of Indebtedness authorized by this Act may be wholly or partially refunded into bonds in any manner and upon such terms as now permitted by law with respect to the refunding of other indebtedness or obligations of any such city or town, including Chapter 503, Acts of the 64th Legislature, 1955, as amended, and Chapter 784, Acts of the 61st Legislature, 1969 (Article 717k, and Article 717k-5, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Legal and Authorized Investments; Security for Deposit of Public Funds

Sec. 5. All Certificates of Indebtedness issued under this Act shall be legal and authorized investments for all banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, and insurance companies of all kinds and types, and for the interest and sinking funds and other public funds of any city, county or other political subdivision of this State. Said obligations shall also be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of any city, county or other political subdivision or public agency.

Contracts and Agreements; Operation, etc. of Facilities; Proceeds of Certificates

Sec. 6. Upon or in anticipation of the issuance of any Certificates of Indebtedness authorized by this Act, (or in anticipation of the receipt of revenues from said facilities in lieu of the issuance of Certificates of Indebtedness) the governing body of any such city or town shall be authorized and permitted to make and enter into such contracts and agreements relating to the operation, maintenance, upkeep, equipment, development, expansion or supplying of or for any said public facilities, of such types and kinds, upon such terms, in such manner and in accordance with such procedures as the governing body of such city or town shall deem best, necessary and proper, and the proceeds of such Certificates of Indebtedness (or in lieu thereof such reve-to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Art. 1269j–1.5. Civic Center Authority Act

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the "Civic Center Authority Act."

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this Act, unless the context requires a different definition:

(1) "County" means any county in the state.

(2) "Authority" means a civic center authority created under this Act.

(3) "Authority" means a civic center authority created under this Act.

(4) "Board" or "board of directors" means the board of directors of an authority.

(5) "Bond resolution" means the resolution authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds. It shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

(6) "Person" means any individual, public agency as defined in this Act, public or private corporation, partnership, association, firm, trust, estate, or any other entity.

(7) "Public agency" means a city, as defined in this Act, the United States, this state, or a political subdivision of the United States or of this state.

(8) "City" means an incorporated city, town, or village, whether operating under general law or under a home rule charter.

(9) "Facility" means the improvements and facilities described in Section 21 of this Act, or a designated portion of those improvements and facilities.

SUBCHAPTER B. CREATION OF AUTHORITIES

Creation Authorized

Sec. 3. Civic center authorities without taxing power may be created in accordance with this Act.

Authority a Political Subdivision

Sec. 4. An authority created in accordance with this Act is a body politic and corporate and is a political subdivision of the state.

Composition of Authority

Sec. 5. An authority may include the area of any county or portion thereof, including cities and other public agencies, and the area comprising an authority need not be in one body, but may consist of separate bodies of land separated by land not included in the boundaries of the authority.

Petition Required

Sec. 6. (a) When it is proposed to create an authority, a petition requesting creation shall be filed with the county judge of the county in which such authority is proposed to be created. The petition shall be signed by a majority of the members of each of the governing bodies of two or more cities. Such petition shall describe the boundaries of the proposed authority by metes and bounds or by lot and block number, if there is a recorded map or plat and survey of such area, or by natural or artificial boundaries or survey lines. If the area of the authority is to be composed entirely of cities, it shall be sufficient if the petition recites that fact and specifies the cities to be included. Such petition shall contain the names of those persons recommended for the authority's first board of directors, the number of said directors shall be an odd number, but not less than five nor more than eleven. Such petition shall state the desirability of or the need for the creation of the authority and shall include the name of the authority which shall be generally descriptive of the locale of the authority followed by the words “Civic Center Authority.” A copy of such petition shall be recorded in the deed records of the county in which the authority is located, and no other authority in the same county shall have the same name.

(b) The petition shall be accompanied by a deposit of $200 to cover the cost of publishing notice of the hearing hereinafter mentioned. If all of such moneys are not required for such purpose, the excess shall be returned to the petitioners.

Hearing

Sec. 7. (a) Upon the filing of a petition with the county judge, said judge shall fix a date, time and place at which the petition shall be heard by him, such date to be not more than 20 days from the date of such filing of the petition. The county judge shall issue notice of the date, time, and place of hearing, and the notice shall inform all persons of their right to appear and contest the form and allegations of the petition and the desirability of or need for the creation of the authority.

(b) Notice of the hearing shall be published in a newspaper having general circulation in the county in which the authority is located at least one time, the date of publication to be at least 10 days prior to the date fixed for the hearing.

(c) The county judge shall examine the petition to ascertain the sufficiency thereof, and any person interested may appear before him in person or by attorney and offer testimony touching the sufficiency of the petition and whether the creation of the authority is desirable or necessary. The county judge shall have jurisdiction to determine all issues raised touching the sufficiency of the petition and creation of the authority. The hearing may be adjourned from day to day, and the county judge shall have the power to make all incidental orders in respect to the matters before him.

(d) If, upon the hearing of the petition, the county judge finds that it conforms to the requirements of Section 6 of this Act and that the creation of the authority is desirable or necessary, the county judge shall so declare by his order and grant the petition. If he finds that such authority is neither desirable nor necessary, he shall refuse to grant the petition.

(e) Any person who signed the petition or any person who did actually appear and protest the petition and offer testimony for or against the creation of the authority may appeal to an appropriate district court from the order of the judge, granting or refusing the petition, within 30 days after the entry of such order.

SUBCHAPTER C. ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

Board of Directors

Sec. 8. An authority shall be governed by a board of not less than five nor more than eleven directors, as provided in Section 6 of this Act.

Qualifications of Directors

Sec. 9. To be qualified to serve as a director of an authority a person shall be 21 or more years of age, a resident citizen of the State of Texas and must reside within the boundaries of the authority.

Term of Office

Sec. 10. The term of office of the first board of directors shall be two years from the date the authority is created and until their successors are appointed and qualified. Thereafter, at two-year intervals the members of such boards of directors shall be appointed by the county judge upon the advice and consent of, and only from among those persons recommended by, all of the respective cities included within the boundaries of the authority and contracting with the authority under the terms of this Act. Such directors shall serve for a term of two years and until their successors are appointed and qualified.

Vacancies

Sec. 11. A vacancy in the office of a director or any office on the board shall be filled by appointment by the board of directors for the unexpired term. If at any time the number of qualified directors shall be less than a majority of the board because of the failure or refusal of one or more directors to qualify to serve, or because of his or their death or incapacitation, or for any other reason, then the county judge shall, upon the petition of any resident of the authority, appoint the neces-shall act as secretary of the board and shall be charged with the duty of seeing that all records and books of the authority are properly kept. The board may appoint another director, the general manager or any employee as assistant or deputy secretary to assist the secretary and any such person shall be entitled to certify as to the authenticity of any record of the authority.

Quorum
Sec. 13. A majority of the directors appointed shall constitute a quorum and a concurrence of such majority shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the authority. The president shall preside at all meetings of the board and shall be the chief executive officer of the authority. The vice president shall act as president in case of the absence or disability of the president. The secretary shall act as president if both the president and vice president are absent or disabled. The secretary shall act as secretary of the board and shall be charged with the duty of seeing that all records and books of the authority are properly kept. The board may appoint another director, the general manager or any employee as assistant or deputy secretary to assist the secretary and any such person shall be entitled to certify as to the authenticity of any record of the authority.

Bylaws
Sec. 14. The board is empowered to adopt by-laws to govern:
(1) the time, place, and manner of conducting its meetings;
(2) the powers, duties, and responsibilities of its officers and employees;
(3) the disbursement of funds by checks, drafts, and warrants;
(4) the appointment and authority of director committees; and
(5) the keeping of records and accounts and such other matters as the board deems appropriate.

Meetings and Notice
Sec. 15. The board shall establish regular meetings to conduct authority business and may hold special meetings at such other times as the business of the authority requires. The board shall hold its meetings at one of its designated meeting places. Notice of the time, place and purpose of any meeting of the board shall be given by posting at a place convenient to the public within the boundaries of the authority. A copy of the notice shall be furnished to the clerk of the county in which the authority is located who shall post the same on a bulletin board in the county courthouse or sub-courthouse used for such purpose. The notice of the meeting shall be posted for at least three days prior to a meeting, unless there is an emergency or urgent public necessity, which shall be expressed in the notice. Failure to post notice as required herein shall not affect the validity of any action taken at a regular meeting of the board but shall affect the validity of action taken at a special meeting unless the board declares in action taken at that special meeting that an emergency existed. Any interested person may attend any meeting of the board.

Authority Office and Meeting Place
Sec. 16. The board of directors shall designate, establish and maintain an authority office and meeting place within the authority. The board may also establish a meeting place outside the authority. If the board establishes a meeting place outside the authority, it shall give notice of the location thereof by filing a true copy of its order establishing the location of the authority office with the county clerk and also by publishing the location in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the authority is located. If the location of the meeting place outside the authority is thereafter changed, notice of the change shall be given in the same manner.

Fees of Office
Sec. 17. The directors may receive as fees of office the sum of not to exceed $25 per day for each day of service necessary to discharge their duties, but such fees shall not exceed the sum of $100 in any one month regardless of the number of days of necessary service during that month.

General Manager
Sec. 18. A director may be employed as general manager of the authority at such compensation as may be fixed by the other directors, and, when so employed, he shall continue to perform the duties of a director. If the general manager is not a director, he shall furnish a fidelity bond payable to the authority in the amount of $5,000 conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties.

Bond and Oath of Office
Sec. 19. As soon as practicable after a director is appointed, he shall give a bond for $5,000 payable to the authority and conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties. Each director shall take the oath of office prescribed for the commissioners court, except that the name of the authority shall be substituted for the county. The bond and oath shall be filed with the authority and retained in its records.
Qualification of Directors

Sec. 20. After an authority has been created by the granting of a petition therefor, the first members of the board of directors shall make their bonds and take the oath of office and thereafter shall meet and organize. Said bonds of the first board of directors shall be approved by the county judge. The bonds for subsequent directors shall be approved by the board of directors of the authority.

SUBCHAPTER D. POWERS AND DUTIES

General Powers

Sec. 21. Any authority created under this Act is authorized to establish, acquire, lease as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate or maintain (any or all) public improvements such as civic centers, civic center buildings, auditoriums, opera houses, music halls, exhibition halls, coliseums, museums, libraries, recreational buildings or facilities, or other public buildings and related facilities (either or all), and to establish, acquire, lease as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate or maintain (any or all) structures, parking areas, or facilities, located at or in the immediate vicinity of such public improvements, to be used in connection with such public improvements for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances. Any such lease may be on such terms and conditions as the board of directors of said authority shall deem appropriate as in this Act provided.

Addition of Cities

Sec. 22. A city may be added to and become a part of an authority upon filing a petition to that effect with an authority's board of directors. Such petition must be signed by a majority of the members of the governing body of such city. If the authority's board determines such addition to the authority is desirable or necessary, such board shall so find and enter its order adding such city to such authority, and a copy of same shall be recorded in the county deed records. Such an added city, however, shall not have any authority or power with respect to recommending or appointing members to the authority's board of directors unless and until it becomes a contracting city as mentioned in Section 10 of this Act.

Management of District

Sec. 23. The board shall have control over and management of all of the affairs of the authority and shall employ persons, firms, partnerships, or corporations deemed necessary by the board for the conduct of the affairs of said authority, including, but not limited to, engineers, attorneys, financial advisors, a general manager, bookkeepers, auditors, and secretaries. The board of directors shall determine the term of office and compensation of all employees. All employees may be removed by the board. The board of directors may require a bond of any employee payable to the authority and conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties.

Supplies

Sec. 24. The board shall also have the right to purchase all materials, supplies, equipment, vehicles, and machinery needed by the authority.

Seal

Sec. 25. The directors shall adopt a seal for the authority.

Destruction of Records

Sec. 26. All original minutes and orders of the board, all construction contracts and all instruments relating thereto, all bonds of the authority's board of directors, and all bonds of the authority's officers and employees shall be kept in a safe place and maintained as permanent records of said authority. No minutes or orders or resolutions of the board of directors shall be destroyed. All records necessary for the authority's annual audits and necessary to comply with the terms of its bond resolutions shall be retained for at least one full year after the expiration of the next preceding fiscal year. Authority contracts other than construction contracts and records relating thereto shall be retained for at least four years after the performance thereof. Except for the foregoing, an authority's records may be destroyed when the board determines that they are no longer needed or useful. As to any authority records destroyed, the board of directors shall designate the person or persons to destroy same and the manner of such destruction. If the board deems it advisable it may cause any instruments to be first inventoried or microfilmed before they are destroyed.

Director Interested in Contract

Sec. 27. A director who is financially interested in any contract with the authority shall disclose that fact to the other directors and may not vote on the acceptance of the contract or participate in the discussion on the contract. The failure of a director to disclose his financial interest shall invalidate the contract.

Suits

Sec. 28. All authorities created under the provisions hereof shall be governmental agencies and bodies politic and corporate, and may, through their directors, sue and be sued in any and all courts of this state in the name of such authority. Service of process in any suit may be had by serving any three persons or persons of knowledge of the establishment of such authorities.

Contracts in Name of Authority

Sec. 29. Authority shall contract and be contracted with in the name of said authority.
Art. 1269j-4.5 CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Fees and Charges
Sec. 30. An authority shall have the power to adopt, promulgate, and enforce all necessary charges, fees or rentals for providing any authority facilities or services.

Rules and Regulations
Sec. 31. An authority may adopt and enforce reasonable rules and regulations as to any or all of its facilities.

Acquisition of Land
Sec. 32. An authority is empowered to acquire lands, materials, easements, rights-of-way, and everything deemed necessary, incidental, or helpful for the purpose of accomplishing any one or more of the purposes provided in Section 21 of this Act. An authority shall have the right to acquire all such property by gift, grant, purchase, or condemnation, and the right to acquire property shall include property deemed necessary for the construction, improvement, extension, enlargement, operation, or maintenance of its facilities. An authority may acquire either the fee simple title to, or an easement upon, all lands, both public and private, either within or beyond its boundaries and may acquire the title to, or an easement upon, property other than lands held in fee. An authority may also lease property upon such terms and conditions as the board of directors may determine advantageous to the authority.

Eminent Domain
Sec. 33. An authority may acquire any lands, easements, or other property within its boundaries by condemnation, and in case of a condemnation, the authority may elect to condemn either the fee simple title, or an easement only. The right of eminent domain shall be exercised in the manner provided in Title 52, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended (Article 3264, et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), except that an authority shall not be required to give bond for appeal or bond for costs in any condemnation suit or other suit to which it is a party and shall not be required to deposit double the amount of any award in any such suit. Such proceedings shall be instituted under the direction of the directors and in the name of the authority.

Costs of Relocation of Property
Sec. 34. In the event that the authority, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telephone or telegraph properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocations, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the authority. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, rerouting, or changing grade, or alteration of construction and providing comparable replacement without enhancing such facilities after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sale of Surplus Land
Sec. 35. Any property or land owned by the authority which may be found to be surplus and not needed by the authority may be sold under order of the directors of the authority either by public or private sale or such property may be exchanged for other property.

Leases
Sec. 36. An authority may lease to or from any person, all or any part of any facilities constructed or acquired or to be constructed or acquired by it. The lease may contain the terms and provisions which the board determines to be advantageous to the authority. The term of any lease shall not exceed 40 years from the date thereof.

Contracts
Sec. 37. An authority shall have authority to contract with a public agency for furnishing or making available all or a part of the authority's facilities or services and for the joint ownership and operation of any improvements, facilities, and equipment necessary to accomplish any purpose or function permitted by an authority. An authority may enter into contracts with any person in the performance of any purpose or function permitted by an authority, such contracts not to exceed 40 years' duration and to be on such terms and conditions as the board of directors may deem desirable, fair and advantageous.

Contracts Over $10,000
Sec. 38. (a) The board shall advertise a contract for more than $10,000 for the purchase of materials and all things to constitute the facilities of the authority or for construction as specified in Subsections (b) through (d) of this section.

(b) The board shall advertise the letting of a contract, including the general conditions, time, and place of opening of sealed bids. The notice shall be published in one or more newspapers published in the county. The notice shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the date that the bids are opened, and the first publication shall be at least 14 days before the opening of sealed bids.

(c) A contract may cover all the facilities to be provided by the authority, or the various elements of the facilities may be segregated for the purpose of receiving bids and awarding contracts. A contract may provide that the facilities will be constructed in stages over a period of years.

(d) A contract may provide for the payment of a total sum which is the completed cost of the facilities or may be based on bids to cover cost of units of the various elements entering into the work as estimated and approximately specified by the authority's architects or engineers or a contract may be let and awarded in any other form or composite of forms and to any responsible person or persons which, in the board's judgment, will be most advantageous to the authority and result in the best and most economical completion of the authority's proposed facilities.

Additional Work: Change Orders
Sec. 39. After a contract has been awarded and the authority determines that additional work is needed or that the character or type of work or facilities should be changed, the board may authorize change orders to such contract provided same does not increase the total cost of the contract by more than 25 percent.

Construction Bids
Sec. 40. (a) A person who desires to bid on proposed construction work shall submit to the board a written sealed bid together with a certified or cashier's check on a responsible bank in the state or a bidder's bond for at least two percent of the total amount of the bid.
(b) Bids shall be opened at the same time, and the board may reject any or all of the bids.
(c) If the successful bidder fails or refuses to enter into a proper contract with the authority or fails or refuses to furnish the bond required by law, he shall forfeit the amount of the check or bond which accompanied his bid.

Executing and Recording Construction Contract
Sec. 41. (a) Contracts for construction work shall be in writing and signed by the board and the contractor.
(b) The contract shall be kept in the authority's records and be available for public inspection.

Contractor's Bond
Sec. 42. Any person, firm, partnership, or corporation to whom a contract is let must give good and sufficient performance and payment bonds in accordance with Article 5160, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

Repayment of Organizational Expenses
Sec. 43. The authority's directors are authorized to pay all costs and expenses necessarily incurred in the creation and organization of an authority, the cost of investigation and making plans, engineer's or architect's report, and other incidental expenses, and to reimburse any person for money advanced for such purposes. Any such payments may be made from money obtained from the sale of bonds first issued by the authority.

Premium on Directors or Employees Bonds
Sec. 44. The board of directors may pay the premium on surety bonds required of officials or employees of the authority out of any available funds of the authority including proceeds from the sale of bonds.

Depository
Sec. 45. The board of directors shall by order or resolution designate one or more banks within or without the authority to serve as the depository for the funds of the authority. All funds of the authority shall be deposited in the depository bank or banks unless otherwise required by orders or resolutions authorizing the issuance of the authority's bonds. To the extent that funds in the depository bank or banks are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, they shall be secured in the manner provided by law for the security of funds of counties of the State of Texas.

Investments
Sec. 46. Funds of the authority may be invested and reinvested by the board of directors in direct or indirect obligations of the United States of America or any agency thereof, of the State of Texas or of any county, city, school district, or other political subdivision of the State of Texas. Funds of the authority may be placed in certificates of deposit of state or national banks or savings and loan associations within the State of Texas provided that the same are secured in the manner provided for the security of the funds of counties of the State of Texas.

Accounts and Records; Audits
Sec. 47. A complete system of accounts shall be kept by the authority and an audit of its affairs for each year shall be prepared by an independent certified public accountant or a firm of independent certified public accountants. The fiscal year of the authority shall be from January 1 to December 31, unless and until changed by the board of directors. A signed copy of the audit report shall be delivered to each member of the board of directors not later than 120 days after the close of each fiscal year. A copy of the audit shall be kept on file at the authority office and shall constitute a public record open for inspection by any interested person or persons during normal office hours.

SUBCHAPTER E. REVENUE BONDS
Issuance of Bonds
Sec. 48. The authority is authorized to issue its revenue bonds for all or any of the purposes set forth in this Act. Said bonds may be issued when duly authorized by a resolution adopted by the board and shall be secured by a pledge of and be payable from all or any designated part of the authority's revenues from its facilities or whatever source derived, including but not limited to the proceeds of contracts and leases. Said bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not more than 40 years from their date or dates, and shall bear interest at any rate or rates permitted by the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas, all as shall be determined by the board. Said bonds and interest coupons, if any, appertaining thereto, shall be investment securities under the terms of Chapter 8 of the Business & Commerce Code and may be issued registrable as to principal or as to both principal and interest, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, at the option of the board, or they may contain a mandatory redemption provision all as may be provided by said board. Such bonds may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner and under such terms, conditions and details, and shall be signed and executed, as provided by the board in the resolution authorizing their issuance.

Additional Security for Bonds

Sec. 49. The bonds, within the discretion of the board, may be additionally secured by a deed of trust or mortgage lien upon part or all of the physical properties of the authority, and franchises, easements, leases, and contracts and all rights appurtenant to such properties, vesting in the trustee power to sell such properties for payment of the bonds or interest thereon, power to operate the properties and all other powers and authority for the further security for the bonds. Such trust indenture, regardless of the existence of the deed of trust or mortgage lien on the properties, may contain provisions prescribed by the board for the security of the bonds and as preservation of the trust estate, and may make provisions for amendment or modification thereof, and may condition the right to expend authority money or sell authority property upon approval of a registered professional engineer or architect selected as provided therein and may make provisions for investment of funds of the authority. Any purchaser under a sale under the deed of trust or mortgage lien, where one is given, shall be absolute owner of the properties, facilities and rights so purchased and shall have the right to maintain and operate same.

Provisions of Bonds

Sec. 50. In the resolutions authorizing the issuance of bonds as provided in this Act (including refunding bonds) the board may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund or funds, the reserve fund or funds, and other funds, and may make additional covenants with respect to the bonds and the pledged revenues and the operation and maintenance of those facilities (the revenues of which are pledged), including provisions for the operation or for the leasing of all or any part of said facilities and the use or pledge of moneys derived from such operation, contracts and leases, as such board may deem appropriate. The resolutions of the board authorizing the issuance of bonds may be also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payable from said revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued, subject to such conditions as are set forth in such resolutions. The resolutions of the board issuing bonds may contain other provisions and covenants, as the authority's board may determine, not prohibited by the Texas Constitution or by this Act, and said board may adopt and cause to be executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary and/or convenient in the issuance of any authority bonds.

Use of Bond Proceeds

Sec. 51. From the proceeds of sale of any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, the board may appropriate or set aside an amount for the payment of interest and administrative and operating expenses expected to accrue during the period of construction, as may be provided in the bond resolutions, and an amount necessary to pay all expenses incurred and to be incurred in the issuance, sale, and delivery of the bonds.

Sale of Bonds

Sec. 52. After the issuance of said bonds, the board shall sell the bonds on the best terms and for the best possible price.

Approval by Attorney General; Registration by Comptroller

Sec. 53. All bonds issued by an authority shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for examination. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized in accordance with law, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. After the approval and registration of bonds by the comptroller, they shall be incontestable in any court or other forum, for any reason, and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes. If said bonds recite that they are secured partially or otherwise by a pledge of the proceeds of a contract or a lease and of the proceedings authorizing same may or may not be submitted to the attorney general along with the bond records, and, if so submitted, then the approval by the attorney general of the bonds shall constitute an approval of such contract or lease, and thereafter such contract or lease shall be incontestable.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 54. (a) By resolutions adopted by its board, an authority shall have the power and authority to issue bonds to refund all or any part of its outstanding-
Bonds Legal Investments; Security for Funds

Sec. 55. All bonds issued by the authority shall be legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, and trustees, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the State of Texas, and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities thereof, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. Authority bonds also shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the State of Texas, and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities thereof, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of said bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Paid Bonds or Coupons

Sec. 56. All authority bonds and interest coupons, or notes and warrants when paid, shall be delivered to the authority or destroyed and evidence of such destruction furnished the board.

Art. 1269j-4.6. Contracts with Civic Center Authorities

Applicability of Act

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any incorporated city, town, or village (hereinafter “city”) of the State of Texas, whether operating under the general laws or under a home-rule charter.

Contracts Authorized; Purposes

Sec. 2. A city, pursuant to approval by a majority of its governing body, is hereby authorized to enter into a contract or contracts with a civic center authority under which the authority, for the benefit of the contracting city or contracting cities, may establish, acquire, lease as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate, or maintain (any or all) public improvements within or without the boundaries of such city such as civic centers, civic center buildings, auditoriums, opera houses, music halls, exhibition halls, coliseums, museums, libraries, or other public buildings and related facilities (either or all), and may establish, acquire, lease as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate, or maintain (any or all) structures, parking areas, or facilities, located at or in the immediate vicinity of such public improvements, to be used in connection with such public improvements for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances, as may be authorized to the authority by the laws of this state (hereinafter “facilities”), and under which the authority may furnish all or any part of its authorized services and facilities within or without the boundaries of such city to the contracting city or cities. Such contract may be upon such terms and conditions as the city may deem desirable, fair and advantageous, such contract not to exceed 40 years’ duration.

Payments by City to Authority; Sources

Sec. 3. Payments by a city to an authority shall be made, as prescribed in the contract between the city and the authority, from any available funds, including, without limitation of the above, ad valorem taxes; provided, however, that if a city wishes to pledge ad valorem taxes as part or all of the required payments under the contract with an authority, it must follow the alternative procedure prescribed in Section 4. Unless the alternative procedure prescribed in Section 4 is followed, neither an authority nor the holder of any bonds of the authority shall have the right to demand payment of the city’s obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation. If the alternative procedure prescribed in Section 4 is followed, payments under the contract may be payable from and constitute solely an obligation against the taxing powers of the city or may be payable both from taxes and from such funds and revenues as may be prescribed in the contract.

Election by City: Authority to Levy and Collect Ad Valorem Tax; Contracts as Obligations against Taxing Power; Qualified Electors

Sec. 4. (a) If an election is held, substantially according to applicable procedure prescribed in Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, in reference to the issuance of bonds by cities, by a city and carried, determining that the governing body of the city is authorized to levy and collect an ad valorem tax to pay all or a portion of the payments to be made by the city under a contract to be entered into by and between the city and an authority, the contract, in such event, will constitute an obligation against the taxing power of the city to the extent therein provided. After such election and at or prior to the time such city enters into such contract it shall, in accordance with the Texas Constitution, make provision for assessing and collecting annually a sufficient sum to pay such contract and creating a sinking fund of at least two percent thereon. No election is required for the exercise of any power conferred by this Act except for the levy of such tax.

(b) Only electors of the city who are qualified to vote at such elections under the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas and the Constitution of the United States shall be entitled to vote at such elections.

1 Article 701 et seq.

Authority of this Act

Sec. 5. If there be any conflict or inconsistency between this Act and the general laws of the State of Texas and/or any provision of a home-rule charter of a contracting city, the provisions of this Act shall control.

Art. 1269j-4.6	CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

1232

Issuance; Ordinance; Terms and Conditions; Interest; Pledge of Revenues; Levy of Taxes

Sec. 2. The Certificates of Indebtedness authorized by this Act may be issued when authorized by ordinance adopted by the governing body of any such city or town and may mature serially or otherwise and may be issued upon such other terms and conditions as may be contained and specified in any such ordinance, including but not limited to provisions as to interest rate or rates, registration and redemption privileges, and any manner and method of sale, or as to exchange for goods, property or services, and for the delivery thereof. Said Certificates of Indebtedness may be issued in amount sufficient to provide for escrowed interest during such periods, not exceeding three years as such ordinance may direct, and/or may provide for deferred interest payments for such period as may be agreed upon with the purchaser thereof; and the same may be secured by and made payable from taxes or revenues by utility system or systems of the issuer, or both; provided that, in the issuance of any such obligations payable from taxes, the issuer shall comply with the provisions of the Texas Constitution requiring in such cases that sufficient taxes to pay the principal thereof and interest thereon when due be duly and properly levied.

Investment Securities; Incontestability

Sec. 3. Any Certificates of Indebtedness issued under authority of this Act shall constitute “Investment Securities” under Chapter 8 of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code, and may be issued in such form and denominations and under such other terms, conditions and details, and may be executed, all as provided in the proceedings authorizing the same; and all Certificates of Indebtedness which shall recite that they have been issued under authority of this Act for the purposes herein authorized shall be incontestable for any reason and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms and for all purposes.

1 Business and Commerce Code, § 8.101 et seq.

Refunding Bonds; Security

Sec. 4. The Certificates of Indebtedness authorized by this Act may be wholly or partially refunded into bonds in any manner and upon such terms as now permitted by law with respect to the refunding of other indebtedness or obligations of any such city or town, including Chapter 503, Acts of the 54th Legislature, 1955, as amended (Article 717k, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), and Chapter 784, Acts of the 61st Legislature, 1969 (Article 717k–3, Ver-
Art. 1269j-4.8

General Authority

Sec. 2. A city subject to this Act may acquire, lease as lessor or lessee, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, and operate off-street parking facilities, and may acquire, lease as lessor or lessee, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, and operate terminals, stations, and related properties and facilities for the use of passengers, commuters, travelers, shippers, and other members of the public and by companies or individuals engaged in the business of transporting the general public, goods, cargo, parcels, mail, commodities, or freight by bus, truck, or rail.

Issuance of Revenue Bonds

Sec. 3. For any purpose authorized under Section 2 of this Act, the governing body of the city may issue revenue bonds from time to time in one or more series to be payable from and secured by liens on all or part of the revenue derived from a facility authorized under this Act.

Terms and Conditions of Bonds

Sec. 4. (a) The bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise within not to exceed 40 years from their date, and provision may be made for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under any terms or conditions that may be set forth in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(b) The bonds, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, are negotiable instruments within the meaning and for all purposes of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code. The bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest, and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and said bonds shall bear interest at such rates, all as shall be determined and provided in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(c) If so provided in the bond ordinance the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during and after the period of the acquisition or construction of any facilities to be provided through the issuance of the bonds, for paying expenses of operation and maintenance of facilities authorized under this Act, for creating a reserve fund for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds, and for creating any other funds. The proceeds of the bonds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent, and in the manner provided, in the bond ordinance.

Cumulative and Prevailing Effect

Sec. 6. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of such Certificates of Indebtedness and the performance of the other acts, powers and procedures or limitations on borrowing contained therein, except as may be specifically required herein, and when any obligations are being issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provisions of any other law otherwise applicable to such city or town, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control.

Severability

Sec. 7. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance, shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Art. 1269j-4.8. Off-Street Parking Facilities, Terminals, and Stations; Revenue Bonds; Cities Over 650,000

Application

Sec. 1. This Act applies to any city with a population of more than 650,000 according to the last preceding federal census.
Art. 1269j-4.8  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Rental, Rates, and Charges; Contracts and Leases; Development

Sec. 5. (a) Each eligible city shall be authorized to fix and collect fees, rentals, rates, and charges for the occupancy, use, or availability of all or any of its property, buildings, structures, or other facilities described in Section 2 of this Act in such amounts and in such manner as may be determined by the governing body of the city.

(b) The city may contract with any public or private entity for the performance of any function related to the facilities described in Section 2 of this Act, and may, as lessor, lease any of such properties or facilities to any public or private entity upon such terms, for such rentals, revenues and payments, and for such period or periods of years as shall be approved by the governing body of the city.

(c) Any of the properties and facilities described in Section 2 of this Act may be developed in conjunction with other public or private developments pursuant to agreements with the owners thereof upon such terms as may be approved by the city. The city may negotiate and include as a part of any such agreement such provisions as it may deem appropriate providing for the use, lease, or sale of any part of the subsurface, or airspace above the surface, of the city's property as the city may find to be surplus and not necessary for the purposes of such properties and facilities.

Pledges

Sec. 6. (a) The city may pledge all or any part of the revenues, income, or receipts from such fees, rentals, rates, and charges to the payment of the bonds, including the payment of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds. The pledged fees, rentals, rates, and charges, shall be fixed and collected in amounts that will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds, and, to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds, to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds, and for the payment of operation, maintenance, and other expenses in connection with the facilities authorized under this Act.

(b) The bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on any real property relating to the facilities authorized under this Act owned or to be acquired by the city, and by chattel mortgages, liens, or security interests on any personal property appurtenant to such real property. The governing body of the city may authorize the execution of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other forms of encumbrances to evidence the indebtedness.

(c) The city may also pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenues, or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

(d) The city may create an off-street parking system by combining one or more parking facilities provided pursuant to this Act with one or more parking facilities previously owned by the city or hereafter acquired pursuant to any law or provision authorizing the ownership and operation of such parking facilities apart from this Act, whether or not such previously owned or hereafter acquired facility is operated in connection with any other city-owned facility.

(e) Any city which proposes to create an off-street parking system pursuant to this Act may issue bonds for the purposes of creating, extending, or improving the system to the same extent otherwise provided herein for bonds issued for a single parking facility hereunder, and the city may pledge to the payment of such bonds all or any part of the revenues, income, or receipts derived from the ownership and operation of any or all of the facilities comprising a part of the system upon such terms as the city shall deem appropriate. Additionally, the city may pledge to the payment of such bonds all or any part of the revenues derived by the city from parking meters on or adjacent to the public streets of the city.

Public Purpose

Sec. 7. The acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, equipment, operation, and maintenance by a city of any property, buildings, structures, or other facilities described in Section 2 of this Act, whether on land already owned by the city or hereafter acquired, is a public purpose and a proper municipal function.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 8. (a) Any bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for that purpose, under any terms or conditions, as are determined by ordinance of the governing body of the city. All appropriate provisions of this Act are applicable to refunding bonds, and the refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds. The refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts necessary to pay the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of bonds to be refunded, at maturity or on any redemption date.

(b) The refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded by them. In that case, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance authorizing the refunding bonds. The exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.
Sec. 9. All bonds issued under this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If the bonds recite that they are secured by a pledge of revenues or rentals from a contract or lease, a copy of the contract or lease and the proceedings relating to it shall be submitted to the attorney general also. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized and any contract or lease has been made in accordance with law, he shall approve the bonds and the contract or lease, and thereupon the bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After approval and registration the bonds and any contract or lease relating to them are incontestable in any court, or other forum, for any reason, and are valid and binding obligations for all purposes in accordance with their terms.

Authorized Investments and Security for Deposits

Sec. 10. All bonds issued under this Act are legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of the state, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. The bonds also are eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of it, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of the bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 11. This Act is cumulative of all other law on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized by it without reference to any other law or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided. When any bonds are issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control. A city shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Farmers’ Markets; Revenue Bonds; Cities Over 650,000

Sec. 1. In this Act, “farmers’ market” means a public marketplace at which persons are permitted to sell agricultural and other products.

Application

Sec. 2. This Act applies to any city with a population of more than 650,000 according to the last preceding federal census.

General Authority

Sec. 3. A city subject to this Act may acquire, lease as lessor or lessee, construct, improve, enlarge, and operate a farmers’ market. The city may contract with any public or private entity for the performance of any function authorized under this section.

Issuance of Revenue Bonds

Sec. 4. For any purpose authorized under Section 3 of this Act, the governing body of the city may issue revenue bonds from time to time in one or more series to be payable from and secured by liens on all or part of the revenue derived from a facility authorized under this Act.

Terms and Conditions of Bonds

Sec. 5. (a) The bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise within not to exceed 40 years from their date, and provision may be made for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under any terms or conditions that may be set forth in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(b) The bonds, and any interest coupons appurtenant thereto, are negotiable instruments within the meaning and for all purposes of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code. The bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest, and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and said bonds shall bear interest at such rates, all as shall be determined and provided in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(c) If so provided in the bond ordinance the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during and after the period of the acquisition or construction of any facilities to be provided through the issuance of the bonds, for paying expenses of operation and maintenance of facilities authorized under this Act, for creating a reserve fund for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds, and for creating any other funds. The proceeds of the bonds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent, and in the manner provided, in the bond ordinance.

Rentals, Rates, and Charges
Sec. 6. Each eligible city shall be authorized to fix and collect fees, rentals, rates, and charges for the occupancy, use, or availability of all or any of its property, buildings, structures, or other facilities authorized under this Act in such amounts and in such manner as may be determined by the governing body of the city.

Pledges
Sec. 7. (a) The city may pledge all or any part of the revenues, income, or receipts from such fees, rentals, rates, and charges for the payment of the bonds, including the payment of principal, interest, and any other amounts required or permitted in connection with the bonds. The pledged fees, rentals, rates, and charges, shall be fixed and collected in amounts that will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds, and, to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds, to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds, and other expenses in connection with the facilities authorized under this Act.

(b) The bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on any real property relating to the facilities authorized under this Act owned or to be acquired by the city, and by chattel mortgages, liens, or security interests on any personal property appurtenant to that real property. The governing body of the city may authorize the execution of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other forms of encumbrances to evidence the indebtedness.

(c) The city may also pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenues, or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

Public Purpose
Sec. 8. The acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, equipment, operation, and maintenance by a city of any property, buildings, structures, or other facilities for providing a farmers' market is a public purpose and a proper municipal function.

Refunding Bonds
Sec. 9. (a) Any bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for that purpose, under any terms or conditions, as are determined by ordinance of the governing body of the city. All appropriate provisions of this Act are applicable to refunding bonds, and the refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds. The refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts necessary to pay the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of bonds to be refunded, at maturity or on any redemption date.

(b) The refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded by them. In that case, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance authorizing the refunding bonds. The exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.

(c) Bonds issued at any time by a city under this Act also may be refunded in the manner provided by any other applicable law.

Approval and Registration of Bonds
Sec. 10. All bonds issued under this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If the bonds recite that they are secured by a pledge of revenues or rentals from a contract or lease, a copy of the contract or lease and the proceedings relating to it shall be submitted to the attorney general also. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized and any contract or lease has been made in accordance with law, he shall approve the bonds and the contract or lease, and thereupon the bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After approval and registration the bonds and any contract or lease relating to them are incontestable in any court, or other forum, for any reason, and are valid and binding obligations for all purposes in accordance with their terms.
Authorized Investments and Security for Deposits

Sec. 11. All bonds issued under this Act are legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of the state, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. The bonds also are eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of the state, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of the bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 12. This Act is cumulative of all other law on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized by it without reference to any other law or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided. When any bonds are issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control. A city shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Severability

Sec. 13. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance, shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Art. 1269j-5. Airport Revenue Bonds; Cities and Villages

Sec. 1. All cities having a population of more than seventy thousand (70,000) according to the last preceding federal census, may issue revenue bonds for enlarging, or extending, or repairing, or improving its airport, or for any two (2) or more such uses. Included within the meaning of improvements without limiting the generality of the term, is the construction or enlargement of hangars and related buildings for use by tenants or concessionaires of the airport, including persons, firms or corporations rendering repair or other services to air carriers. Such revenue bonds may be issued when duly authorized by an ordinance passed by the governing body of such city. Such revenue bonds shall be secured by a pledge of all, or such part of; the revenues from the operation of the city's airport as may be prescribed in such ordinance. To the extent that the revenues of the airport may have been pledged to the payment of revenue bonds which are still outstanding, the pledge securing the proposed revenue bonds shall be inferior to the previous pledge or pledges. Within the discretion of the governing body of the city and subject to limitations contained in previous pledges, if any, in addition to the pledge of revenues, a lien may be given on all or any part of the physical properties comprising such airport. Included within the authority to pledge revenues and without limiting the generality of such authority is the right to pledge all or any part of the lease consideration to be received by the city for any such hangars or buildings, and within the discretion of the governing body of the city the sole security for such bonds may be the revenues to be received from leasing any one or more of such hangars and buildings, together with or without a lien upon such hangars or buildings and the land on which they are to be situated.

Sec. 2. No money raised or to be raised from taxation shall be used to pay the principal of or interest on any revenue or refunding bonds issued under this Act. When any of the revenues of such airport are pledged to the payment of bonds issued under this Act, it shall be the duty of the governing body of the City in reference to the revenues pledged, to cause to be fixed, maintained and enforced charges for services to be rendered by properties and facilities whose revenues have been pledged at rates and amounts sufficient to provide for the expense of maintenance and operation of such properties and facilities and to provide the amounts of money required under such ordinance to pay principal of and interest on the revenue bonds and to provide the reserve funds required by such ordinance.

Sec. 3. The Revenue Bonds shall be sold at a price or prices so that the interest cost of the money received therefor, computed to maturity in accordance with standard bond interest tables, shall not exceed five per-cent (5%) per annum; shall mature serially or otherwise within thirty (30) years from their date; shall be negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instruments Act of the State of Texas; shall not be finally issued until approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and after such approval shall be incontrovertible.
Art. 1269j-5

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Sec. 4. Refunding Bonds bearing an interest rate or interest rates which result in the same or a lower over-all interest cost to City may be either issued in exchange for or to provide funds to repurchase and retire any such revenue bonds.

Sec. 4(a). Bonds issued by any city having a population of one hundred fifty thousand (150,000) or more, according to the last preceding Federal Census, pursuant to the provisions of this law shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations and all insurance companies. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of the principal amount thereof, or their value on the market, whichever is the lesser, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Art. 1269j-5.1. Airport Revenue Bonds

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to all incorporated cities, including Home Rule Cities.

Sec. 2. (a) Any such city is hereby authorized to issue revenue bonds for the purpose of establishing, improving, enlarging, extending or repairing (any or all) the airport or airports of such city, including the acquisition of land therefor, said bonds to be issued in the manner provided and as authorized by Chapter 45, Acts of the 53rd Legislature of Texas, First Called Session, 1954, as presently or hereafter amended, the bonds issued hereunder to be payable from all or any designated part or parts of the revenues of said airport or airports (including the revenues from any airport or airports then existing or to be thereafter acquired, either or both) as may be provided in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of such bonds; and, except as the same may be inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of said Chapter 45, as presently or hereafter amended, shall apply to revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this Act (the provisions of said Act to govern and take precedence in the event of any such inconsistency or conflict). Without in any way limiting the generality of "establishing, improving, enlarging, extending, or repairing (any or all) the airport or airports of such city, including the acquisition of land therefor," as used above, it is expressly provided that the same shall include, among other things, buildings, improvements, landing fields, and such other facilities and services that the city deems to be necessary, desirable, or convenient to the efficient operation and maintenance of its airport or airports. With respect to the pledge of revenues and income of said airport or airports to the payment of the operation and maintenance expenses and principal of and interest on such bonds, as provided by said Chapter 45, such city shall be authorized to levy and pledge to the payment of such operation and maintenance expenses, either as a supplement to the pledge of revenues for such purpose or in lieu thereof, a continuing, annual ad valorem tax at a rate or rates on each One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) sufficient for such purposes, all as may be provided in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of any revenue bonds pursuant to the provisions of this Act; provided, that such tax or taxes shall be within the Constitutional or Charter limit for the cities covered by this Act; and provided further, that no part of any moneys raised by such tax or taxes shall ever be used for the payment of the interest on or principal of any bonds issued hereunder. The proceeds of any such tax or taxes thus pledged shall be utilized exclusively to the extent required by, or provided in, the ordinance or operation and maintenance of such airport or airports, and such city in its discretion may covenant in such ordinance or ordinances that certain costs of operating and maintaining such airport or airports, as may be enumerated therein, or all of such costs, will be paid by the city from the proceeds of such tax.

(b) In the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of any revenue bonds authorized hereunder, the city may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund or funds, reserve fund or funds, and other funds, and may make additional covenants with respect to the bonds and the pledged revenues and the operation and maintenance of those improvements and facilities (the revenues of which are pledged), including provision for the operation or for the leasing of all or any part of said improvements and facilities and the use or pledge of moneys derived from such operation contracts and leases, as it may deem appropriate. Such ordinance or ordinances may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues, or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payable from said revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued, subject to such conditions as are set forth in said ordinance or ordinances. Such ordinance or ordinances may contain other provisions and covenants, as the city may determine, not prohibited by the Constitution of Texas or by this Act, and the city may adopt and cause to be executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary and/or convenient in the issuance of any of said bonds.

(c) From the proceeds of sale of any bonds issued hereunder, the city may appropriate or set aside out of the bond proceeds an amount for the payment of interest expected to accrue during the period of construction, an amount or amounts to be deposited into the reserve fund or funds as may be provided in the bond ordinance or ordinances, and an amount... necessary to pay all expenses incurred and to be incurred in the issuance, sale, and delivery of the bonds. Until such time or times as the bond proceeds are needed to carry out the bond purpose, such bond proceeds may be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America or may be placed on time deposit (either or both). Moneys in the interest and sinking fund or funds, in the reserve fund or funds, and in the other fund or funds established or provided for in the bond ordinance or ordinances may be invested in such manner and in such securities as may be provided in the bond ordinance or ordinances.

(d) All bonds shall be signed by the Mayor of the city and counter-signed by the City Secretary (or City Clerk), and shall have the seal of the city impressed thereon; provided, that the bond ordinance or ordinances may provide for the bonds to be signed by the facsimile signatures of said Mayor and City Secretary (or City Clerk), either or both, and for the seal of the city on the bonds to be a facsimile seal of the seal of the city; and provided further, that the interest coupons attached to said bonds may also be executed by the facsimile signatures of said officers. Such bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years from their date or dates and may be sold at a price and under such terms determined by the governing body of the city to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, provided that the interest cost to the city, calculated by the use of standard bond interest tables currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses, does not exceed six per cent (6%) per annum, and within the discretion of the governing body such bonds may be callable prior to maturity at such time or times and at such price or prices as may be prescribed in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing such bonds. Any such bonds may be made registrable as to principal, or as to both principal and interest. All such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate or rates than that of the bonds refunded unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid. Refunding bonds shall be authorized by ordinance or ordinances and shall be executed and mature as is provided in this Act for original bonds. They shall be approved by the Attorney General as in the case of original bonds, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts upon the surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof, the ordinance or ordinances authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to pay the interest on the underlying bonds to their option or maturity date, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying bonds. All such refunding bonds, after they have been approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, shall be incontestable except for forgery or fraud. The provisions of Sections 2(a) and 2(b) of this Act shall apply with equal force to refunding bonds issued hereunder.

(f) All bonds issued under this Act, whether original bonds or refunding bonds, shall be and are hereby declared to be, and to have all the qualifications of, negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instruments Law of the State of Texas, and all such bonds shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies of every kind or type, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value when accompanied by unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

1 Article 1269j-5.

Art. 1269j-5.2. Airport Revenue Bonds; Home Rule Cities with Population of 125,000 or More

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any home rule city having a population of 125,000 or more according to the last preceding federal census, which owns or has leased or has otherwise acquired control of land for airport purposes, and which is operating such land for such purposes.

Sec. 2. In the event any such city shall determine to issue revenue bonds under and for any of the purposes and secured by any of the revenues authorized by Chapter 48, Acts of the 63rd Legisla-
Art. 1269j-5.2 CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

A city, in addition to the revenues and income of said airport or airports pledged to the payment of operation and maintenance expenses and principal of and interest on such bonds, shall be authorized to levy and pledge to the payment of such operation and maintenance expenses, as a supplement to the pledge of revenues for such purpose, all or any part of the ad valorem tax authorized by Section 8 of Chapter 114, Acts of the 50th Legislature, Regular Session, 1947 (compiled as Article 46d-8, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes). The proceeds of any tax thus pledged shall be utilized annually to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing such revenue bonds to assure the efficient operation and maintenance of such airport or airports, and such city, in its discretion, may covenant in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said bonds that certain costs of operating and maintaining such airport or airports, as may be enumerated in said proceedings, will be paid by the city from the proceeds of such tax. If it is deemed advisable by the city that revenue bonds therefore issued under said Chapter 43, supra, and then outstanding, should be refunded so as to facilitate the financing of the acquisition of any improvements to and the further improvement of its airport or airports, it shall be authorized to make a like pledge of said tax in the proceedings authorizing such refunding bonds and any additional revenue bonds issued for the purposes prescribed in said Chapter 45, supra.

(Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 112, ch. 56, eff. April 17, 1967.)

Art. 1269j-5.3. Airport Revenue Bonds; Cities of 1,200,000 or More; Proceeds

Sec. 1. This Act applies to any city having a population of 1,200,000 or more, according to the most recent federal census.

Sec. 2. (a) If a city covered by this Act issues revenue bonds to finance the construction or acquisition of buildings, improvements, or facilities at one or more airports owned and operated by the city, to be leased by the city to a private entity pursuant to a lease agreement under which the lessee is obligated to maintain the buildings, improvements, or facilities solely at its expense and is unconditionally obligated throughout the term of the bonds to make payments of net rent, which are pledged to the payment of the bonds, in amounts and at times as are sufficient to provide for the timely payment of all principal, interest, redemption premiums, and other costs and expenses arising or to arise in connection with the payment of the bonds, the city may spend or agree to spend all or any portion of the proceeds of the bonds without inviting, advertising for, or otherwise requiring competitive bids for the construction or acquisition of the buildings, improvements, or facilities or requiring or obtaining payment or performance bonds in connection with the construction or acquisition.

(b) This Act does not apply to the expenditure of the proceeds of bonds unless the bonds provide by their own terms that:

(1) they are payable solely from net rents as provided by Subsection (a) of this section; and

(2) they may not be repaid in any circumstances from tax revenues.

(c) This Act does not apply to the expenditure of the proceeds of bonds that create or provide for the creation of a lien against real property owned by the city.

(d) This Act does not affect the obligation of the city to obtain competitive bids or require a payment or performance bond in connection with a contract for the construction of a building, improvement, or facility if the contract is awarded by the city.

(e) Any expenditure of or agreement to spend proceeds of bonds covered by this Act for the construction of buildings, improvements, or facilities must be conditioned on the payment of not less than the rate of per diem wages for work of a similar character in the city as ascertained and established by the governing body of the city as provided by Chapter 45, General Laws, Acts of the 43rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1933, as amended (Article 5150a, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).

Section 2 of the 1983 amendatory act provides:

“In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance, shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.”

Section 2 of the 1981 amendatory act provides:

“The expenditure of the proceeds from airport revenue bonds issued before the effective date of this Act by a city affected by this Act is covered by the law as it existed before being amended by this Act, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose.”

Sec. 1. All bonds herefore authorized by an incorporated city, including home-rule cities, for the purpose of constructing a municipal auditorium and to purchase or acquire the necessary lands, equipment and facilities therefor, including lands for parking and the necessary equipment and facilities therefor, and which pledge the revenues of the auditorium to be acquired, constructed and equipped by the use of the proceeds of such bonds, and which pledge the revenues of a coliseum, if any, owned by the city, together with the parking facilities in connection therewith, for either or both, including all present and future extensions, additions, replacements and improvements thereto, for either or both, and which pledge other revenues to be derived from parking meters in the city and from certain existing swimming pools in the city, and any and all acts and proceedings pertaining to the authorization and issuance thereof, are hereby validated, ratified, approved and confirmed notwithstanding any lack of statutory or general authority of such city or the governing body thereof to authorize such bonds and make such pledge of the revenue or revenues; and such bonds, when approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas and sold and delivered, regardless of whether such sale and delivery is made prior to or after the effective date of this Act, shall be binding, legal, valid and enforceable obligations against the revenues so encumbered, and said bonds shall be incontestable.

Sec. 2. This Act shall take precedence over any law or parts of any law to the contrary or in conflict herewith.

Sec. 3. This Act shall not be construed as validating any such proceedings or bonds issued or to be issued, the validity of which is contested or under attack in any suit or litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective, if such suit or litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the proceedings.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 287, ch. 63.]

Art. 1269j–7. Validating Interest-bearing Time Warrants and Scrip; Refunding Bonds; Proceedings; Exception

Sec. 1. In every instance since the approval by the Governor of Texas, of Chapter 602, Acts of the Fifth-fourth Legislature, Regular Session, 1955,1 where the governing body of any city in this State has entered into contracts or agreements, or has incurred and recognized or approved claims for the construction of public works or improvements, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, or professional or personal services, and has heretofore adopted orders authorizing the issuance of scrip or interest-bearing time warrants to pay for or to evidence the indebtedness incurred by such city for the cost of such public works or improvements, and such materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision or professional or personal services, all such contracts or agreements and claims, and assignments of such claims and such scrip and interest-bearing time warrants, and the proceedings adopted by such governing body relating thereto, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. All scrip and interest-bearing time warrants heretofore issued by the governing body of any city in this State in payment for or to evidence the indebtedness incurred for work done by such city and paid for by the day as the work progressed, and for materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision or professional or personal services purchased or secured in connection with such work, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any script or interest-bearing time warrants issued by the governing body of a city in this State unless such city has received full value and consideration for the issuance of such scrip or interest-bearing time warrants as may be evidenced by certificate of the Mayor and City Secretary. It is expressly further provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any contract, scrip warrant, or time warrant executed or issued by any city the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 2. All proceedings, orders, resolutions, and other instruments heretofore adopted or executed by any governing body of a city in this State authorizing the issuance of bonds for the purpose of refunding time warrants issued by any such city and all refunding bonds heretofore issued for such purpose are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved and confirmed. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify, or confirm any proceedings, orders, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds executed, adopted, or issued by any city the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

1 Article 1269e–4.

Art. 1269j–8. Validating Notes and Warrants

Sec. 1. All notes, warrants, time warrants, and treasury warrants heretofore issued and sold or authorized to be issued and sold or attempted to be issued and sold by any city in this State for the purpose of obtaining funds for public purposes are in all respects validated.

Sec. 2. All orders, ordinances, and resolutions of the governing bodies of such cities authorizing such notes, warrants, time warrants, and treasury warrants, or attempting to authorize the same, or any of the same, and the sales and attempted sales thereof for cash for the par or principal amount thereof plus accrued interest to the date of delivery thereof, are in all respects validated.

Sec. 3. All orders, ordinances, and resolutions of said governing bodies of said cities levying and directing the levying and assessing of taxes to provide for the payment of interest and principal of such notes, warrants, time warrants, and treasury warrants, as they respectively mature, are in all respects validated.

Sec. 4. All notes, warrants, time warrants, and treasury warrants validated by this Act may be refunded into bonds at any time after the effective date of this Act upon proper authorization thereof by a duly adopted bond ordinance of the governing body of any such city. Such bonds shall be made to mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed 40 years, and shall bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding six percent per annum, and shall contain such other covenants, details and specifications as may be contained in such bond ordinance, and after approval thereof by the attorney general and registration by the comptroller shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 5. This Act is not intended to validate nor does it apply to any notes, warrants, time warrants, or treasury warrants which are on the effective date hereof the subject matter of any litigation pending in any court in this state in which the validity thereof is being challenged.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 899, ch. 375, eff. June 8, 1967.]

Sec. 1. All proceedings, including all revenue bonds and all provisions, pledges, security, and other terms thereof, and the terms and conditions of the sale of such bonds; and all contracts, agreements, leases, operating agreements, options, and all other agreements and proceedings; taken, had, made, entered into or executed by the governing bodies of all cities and towns, including home rule cities, in the State of Texas, in connection with the establishment, acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, operation, maintenance and/or use of public improvements authorized by and described in Chapter 63, page 148, Acts of 1965, 59th Legislature, Regular Session, as amended by Chapter 563, page 1259, Acts of 1967, 60th Legislature, Regular Session (compiled, as amended, as Article 1269j-4.1, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes), are in all things hereby fully validated, confirmed, approved and ratified.

Provided, however, nothing contained in this Act shall serve to validate, confirm, approve, or ratify any municipal ordinance, regulation, contract, agreement, or proceeding relating to utilities. Moreover, nothing contained in this Act shall serve to validate any contract or agreement relating to utilities entered into by the city or its agencies.

Sec. 2. All orders, resolutions, ordinances, indentures, and other actions authorizing the issuance of or securing any such revenue bonds, and the sale thereof, and the other agreements and proceedings validated in Section 1 hereof are themselves hereby in all things validated, confirmed, approved and ratified.

Sec. 2A. The provisions of this Act shall not serve to validate any proceedings the validity of which is being questioned on the effective date of this Act in any litigation in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state, if such proceedings are ultimately determined invalid in such litigation under the existing laws of this state.

Art. 1269j-10. Emergency Medical Technicians or Paramedics; Educational Incentive Pay

A city, town, or other political subdivision that employs emergency medical technicians or paramedics may pay educational incentive pay to employees holding certificates from the Texas Department of Health as emergency medical technicians or as paramedics. The incentive pay shall be in addition to any other form of compensation provided by law.

[Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 862, ch. 385, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 1269j-11. Validation of Notes, Refunding Bonds, Instruments, Acts, and Proceedings; Cities and Towns of 3,500 or Less

Application Date

Sec. 1. This Act applies to notes, refunding bonds, orders, ordinances, resolutions, and other instruments authorized or issued before the effective date of this Act and to governmental acts and proceedings occurring before the effective date of this Act.

Matters Relating to Certain Notes

Sec. 2. (a) If the governing body of a city or town issued a secured or unsecured interest-bearing note for any of the items listed in Subsection (b) of this section, and if the governing body adopted an order, ordinance, resolution, or other instrument authorizing the issuance of the secured or unsecured note to pay or to evidence the indebtedness of the city or town for the cost of the item, the note and the governmental acts and proceedings relating to the note are validated.

(b) Subsection (a) of this section applies to:

(1) the construction of a public works project or improvement;
(2) the purchase of land or an interest in land; and
(3) the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervisory services, or professional or personal services in conjunction with Subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection.

Matters Relating to Other Notes

Sec. 3. The secured and unsecured notes issued by the governing body of a city or town for any of the following items are validated:

(1) the payment of work that was done by the city or town in conjunction with Sections 2(b)(1) and (2) of this Act and that was paid for by the day as the work progressed; or
(2) the payment for materials or supplies purchased in connection with the work.
Matters Relating to Refunding Bonds

Sec. 4. (a) The governmental acts and proceedings and the orders, ordinances, resolutions, and other instruments of the governing body or an officer of a city or town relating to the issuance of refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding secured or unsecured notes issued by the city or town, and all such notes and refunding bonds, are validated.

(b) The refunding bonds that on the effective date of this Act were in the process of being issued and that were authorized by orders, ordinances, resolutions, or other instruments adopted before the effective date of this Act may be issued regardless of the fact that the governing body of the city or town, in giving the notice of its intention to issue the refunding bonds, may not have complied in all respects with the requirements of law.

Terms of Notes

Sec. 5. The notes validated by this Act are payable in accordance with their terms.

Exceptions

Sec. 6. (a) This Act does not apply to a city or town with a population of more than 3,500, according to the most recent federal census.

(b) This Act does not apply to any matter that on the effective date of this Act:

(1) is involved in litigation if the litigation ultimately results in the matter being held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(2) has been held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

1269k-6. Housing Agency Act.

Art. 1269k. Housing Authorities Law

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be referred to as the "Housing Authorities Law."

Finding and Declaration of Necessity

Sec. 2. It is hereby declared: (a) that there exist in the State insanitary or unsafe dwelling accommodations and that persons of low income are forced to reside in such insanitary or unsafe accommodations; that within the State there is a shortage of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations available at rents which persons of low income can afford and that such persons are forced to occupy overcrowded and congested dwelling accommodations; that the aforementioned conditions cause an increase in and spread of disease and crime and constitute a menace to the health, safety, morals, and welfare of the residents of the State and impair economic values; that these conditions necessitate excessive and disproportionate expenditures of public funds for crime prevention and punishment, public health and safety, fire and accident protection, and other public services and facilities; (b) that these slum areas cannot be cleared, nor can the shortage of safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations be remedied through the operation of private enterprise, and that the construction of housing projects for persons of low income (as herein defined) would therefore not be competitive with private enterprise; (c) that the clearance, replanning, and reconstruction of the areas in which insanitary or unsafe housing conditions exist and the providing of safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations for persons of low income are public uses and purposes for which public money may be spent and private property acquired and are governmental functions of State concern; that it is in the public interest that work on such projects be commenced as soon as possible in order to relieve unemployment which now constitutes an emergency; and the necessity in the public interest for the provisions hereinafter enacted; is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination.

Definitions

Sec. 3. The following terms, wherever used or referred to in this Act, shall have the following
Art. 1269k  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

respectively meanings, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(a) "Authority" or "Housing Authority" shall mean any of the public corporations created by Section 4 of this Act.

(b) "City" shall mean any city.

The "City" shall mean the particular city for which a particular housing authority is created.

(c) "Governing Body" shall mean the Council or Commission of the city.

d) "Mayor" shall mean the Mayor of the city or the officer thereof charged with the duties customarily imposed on the Mayor or executive head of the city.

(e) "Clerk" shall mean the clerk of the city or the officer charged with the duties customarily imposed on such clerk.

(f) "Area of operation" shall include the city and the area within five (5) miles of the territorial boundaries thereof; provided, however, that the area of operation of a housing authority of any city shall not include any area which lies within the territorial boundaries of some other city as herein defined.

(g) "Federal Government" shall include the United States of America, the United States Housing Authority, or any other agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States of America.

(h) "Slum" shall mean any area where dwellings predominate which, by reason of dilapidation, overcrowding, faulty arrangement or design, lack of ventilation, light, or sanitary facilities, or any combination of these factors, are detrimental to safety, health, and morals.

(i) "Housing Project" shall mean any work or undertaking:

1. to demolish, clear, or remove buildings from any slum area; such work or undertaking may embrace the adaption of such area to public purposes, including parks or other recreational or community purposes; or

2. to provide decent, safe, and sanitary urban or rural dwellings, apartments, or other living accommodations for persons of low income; such work or undertaking may include buildings, land, equipment, facilities, and other real or personal property for necessary, convenient, or desirable appurtenances, streets, sewers, water service, parks, site preparation, gardening, administrative, community, health, recreational, educational, welfare, or other purposes; or

3. to accomplish a combination of the foregoing.

The term "housing project" also may be applied to the planning of the buildings and improvements, the acquisition of property, the demolition of existing structures, the construction, reconstruction, alteration, and repair of the improvements and all other work in connection therewith.

(j) "Persons of low income" shall mean families or persons who lack the amount of income which is necessary (as determined by the authority undertaking the housing project) to enable them, without financial assistance, to live in decent, safe, and sanitary dwellings, without overcrowding.

(k) "Bonds" shall mean any bonds, notes, interim certificates, debentures, or other obligations issued by the authority pursuant to this Act.

(l) "Real Property" shall include all lands, including improvements and fixtures thereon, and property of any nature appurtenant thereto or used in connection therewith, and every estate, interest, and right, legal or equitable, therein, including terms for years and liens by way of judgment, mortgage, or otherwise and the indebtedness secured by such liens.

(m) "Obligee of the authority" or "obligee" shall include any bondholder, trustee, or trustees for any bondholder, or lessor demising to the authority property used in connection with a housing project, or any assignee or assignees of such lessor's interest or any part thereof, and the Federal Government when it is a party to any contract with the authority.

Creation of Housing Authorities

Sec. 4. In each city (as herein defined) of the State there is hereby created a public body corporate and politic to be known as the "Housing Authority" of the city; provided, however, that such authority shall not transact any business or exercise its powers hereunder until or unless the governing body of the city, by proper resolution shall declare at any time hereafter that there is need for an authority to function in such city. The governing body may upon its own motion, or shall upon the filing of a petition signed by one hundred (100) qualified voters and residents of the city, make a determination as to whether or not there is need for an authority to function in the city.

The governing body shall adopt a resolution declaring that there is need for a housing authority in the city, if it shall find (a) that insanitary or unsafe inhabited dwelling accommodations exist in such city or (b) that there is a shortage of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations in such city available to persons of low income at rentals they can afford. In determining whether dwelling accommodations are unsafe or insanitary said governing body may take into consideration the degree of overcrowding, the percentage of land coverage, the light, air, space, and access available to the inhabitants of such dwelling accommodations, the size and arrangement of the rooms, the sanitary facilities, and the extent to which conditions exist in such buildings which endanger life or property by fire or other causes.
In any suit, action, or proceeding involving the validity or enforcement of or relating to any contract of the authority, the authority shall be conclusively deemed to have become established and authorized to transact business and exercise its powers hereunder upon proof of the adoption of a resolution by the governing body declaring the need for the authority. Such resolution or resolutions shall be deemed sufficient if it declares that there is such need for an authority and finds in substantially the foregoing terms (no further detail being necessary) that either or both of the above enumerated conditions exist in the city. A copy of such resolution duly certified by the clerk shall be admissible in evidence in any suit, action, or proceeding.

Appointment, Qualifications, and Tenure of Commissioners

Sec. 5. When the governing body of a city adopts a resolution as aforesaid, it shall promptly notify the Mayor of such adoption. Upon receiving such notice, the Mayor shall appoint five (5) persons as commissioners of the authority created for said city. Two (2) of the commissioners who are first so appointed shall be designated to serve for terms of one year and the remaining commissioners shall be designated to serve for terms of two (2) years, respectively, from the date of their appointment, but thereafter commissioners shall be appointed as aforesaid for a term of office of two (2) years except that all vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term. No commissioner of an authority may be an officer or employee of the city for which the authority is created. A commissioner shall hold office until his successor has been appointed and has qualified. A certificate of the appointment or reappointment of any commissioner shall be filed with the clerk and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper appointment of such commissioner. A commissioner shall receive no compensation for his services, but he shall be entitled to the necessary expense, including traveling expenses, incurred in the discharge of his duties.

The powers of each authority shall be vested in the commissioners thereof in office from time to time. Three (3) commissioners shall constitute a quorum of the authority for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers and for all other purposes. Action may be taken by the authority upon a vote of a majority of the commissioners present, unless in any case the bylaws of the authority shall require a larger number. The Mayor or shall designate which of the commissioners appointed shall be the first chairman, but when the office of the chairman of the authority thereafter becomes vacant, the authority shall select a chairman from among its commissioners. An authority shall select from among its own commissioners a vice-chairman, and it may employ a secretary (who shall be executive director), technical experts, and such other officers, agents, and employees, permanent and temporary, as it may require, and shall determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation. For such legal services as it may require, an authority may call upon the chief law officer of the city or may employ its own counsel and legal staff. An authority may delegate to one or more of its agents or employees such powers or duties as it may deem proper.

Interested Commissioners

Sec. 6. (a) No commissioner of an authority shall own, acquire, or control any interest, direct or indirect, in any housing project or in any property included or planned to be included in any project. Nor shall he have any interest, direct or indirect, in any contract or proposed contract for:

1. The sale of land to be used for a housing project;
2. The construction of a housing project;
3. The sale of materials or services to be furnished or used in connection with any housing project.

However, it is not unlawful for a commissioner:

1. To manage a housing project or to own, acquire, or control a management company rendering management services to a housing project;
2. To continue to own or control any interest in a housing project held by the commissioner prior to his term as commissioner;
3. To own, acquire, or control any interest in or have any dealings with a housing project over which the commissioner's housing authority has no jurisdiction.

(b) If any commissioner of an authority manages, owns, acquires, or controls an interest, direct or indirect, in any property included or planned to be included in any housing project, or if any commissioner has any other dealings for pecuniary gain with any housing project, he shall immediately disclose the same in writing to the authority. The disclosure shall be entered upon the minutes of the authority. Failure to so disclose such interest shall constitute misconduct of office.

(c) A commissioner who knowingly or intentionally violates Subsection (a) or (b) of this section commits an offense. An offense under this subsection is a felony of the third degree.

(d) A person finally convicted under Subsection (c) of this section is ineligible for future employment with the State, its political subdivisions, or a public corporation formed under authority of the State or a political subdivision of the State.

Interested Employees

Sec. 6a. (a) No employee of an authority shall own, acquire, or control any interest, direct or indirect, in any housing project or in any property included or planned to be included in any housing project. Nor shall the employee own, acquire, or control any interest, direct or indirect, in any contract or proposed contract for:

(1) the sale of land to be used for a housing project;

(2) the construction of a housing project; or

(3) the sale of materials or services to be furnished or used in connection with any housing project. Nor shall the employee have any dealings for pecuniary gain with any housing project, except in the performance of his duties as an employee of the housing authority.

(b) An employee who knowingly or intentionally violates Subsection (a) of this section commits an offense. An offense under this subsection is a felony of the third degree.

(c) A person finally convicted under Subsection (b) of this section is ineligible for future employment with the State, its political subdivisions, or a public corporation formed under authority of the State or a political subdivision of the State.

Removal of Commissioners

Sec. 7. For inefficiency or neglect of duty or misconduct in office, a commissioner of an authority may be removed by the Mayor, but a commissioner shall be removed only after he shall have been given a copy of the charges at least ten (10) days prior to the hearing thereon and had an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel. In the event of the removal of any commissioner, a record of the proceedings, together with the charges and findings thereon, shall be filed in the office of the clerk.

Powers of Authority

Sec. 8. An authority shall constitute a public body corporate and politic, exercising public and essential governmental functions, and having all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this Act, including the following powers in addition to others herein granted:

(a) To sue and to be sued; to have a seal and to alter the same at pleasure; to have perpetual succession; to make and execute contracts and other instruments necessary or convenient to the exercise of the powers of the authority; and to make and from time to time amend and repeal bylaws, rules, and regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, to carry into effect the powers and purposes of the authority.

(b) Within its area of operation: to prepare, carry out, administer, lease, and operate housing projects; to provide for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, alteration, or repair of any housing project or any part thereof.

(c) To arrange or contract for the furnishing by any person or agency, public or private, of services, privileges, works, or facilities for, or in connection with, a housing project or the occupants thereof; and (notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act or in any other provision of law) to include in any contract let in connection with a project, stipulations requiring that the contractor and any subcontractors comply with the requirements as to minimum wages and maximum hours of labor, and comply with any conditions which the Federal Government may have attached to its financial aid of the project.

(d) To lease or rent any dwellings, houses, accommodations, lands, buildings, structures, or facilities embraced in any housing project and (subject to the limitations contained in this Act) to establish and revise the rents or charges therefor; to own, hold, and improve real or personal property; to purchase, lease, obtain options upon, acquire by gift, grant, bequest, devise, or otherwise any real or personal property or any interest therein; to acquire by the exercise of the power of eminent domain any real property; to sell, lease, exchange, transfer, assign, pledge, or dispose of any real or personal property or any interest therein to insure or provide for the insurance of any real or personal property or operations of the authority against any risks or hazards; to procure insurance or guarantees from the Federal Government of the payment of any debts or parts thereof (whether or not incurred by said authority) secured by mortgages on any property included in any of its housing projects.

(e) To invest any funds held in reserves or sinking funds, or any funds not required for immediate disbursement, in property or securities in which savings banks may legally invest funds subject to their control; to purchase its bonds at a price not more than the principal amount thereof and accrued interest, all bonds so purchased to be cancelled.

(f) Within its area of operation: to investigate into living, dwelling, and housing conditions and into the means and methods of improving such conditions; to determine where slum areas exist or where there is a shortage of decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling accommodations for persons of low income; to make studies and recommendations relating to the problem of clearing, replanning, and reconstructing of slum areas, and the problem of providing dwelling accommodations for persons of low income, and to cooperate with the city, the county, the State or any political subdivision thereof in action taken in connection with such problems; and to engage in research, studies, and experimentation on the subject of housing.

(g) Acting through one or more commissioners or other person or persons designated by the authority; to conduct examinations and investigations and to hear testimony and take proof under oath at public or private hearings on any matter material for its information; to administer oaths, issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses or the production of books and papers and to issue commissions for the examination of witnesses who are outside of the State or unable to attend before the authority, or excused from attendance, to make available to appropriate agencies (including those charged with the duty of abating or requiring the correction of nuisances or like conditions, or of demolishing unsafe or unsanitary structures within its area of operation) its findings and recommendations with regard to any building or property where conditions exist which are dangerous to the public health, morals, or safety or welfare.

(b) To exercise all or any part or combination of powers herein granted. No provisions of law with respect to the acquisition, operation, or disposition of property by other public bodies shall be applicable to an authority unless the Legislature shall specifically so state.

Operation Not for Profit
Sec. 9. It is hereby declared to be the policy of this State that each housing authority shall manage and operate its housing projects in an efficient manner so as to enable it to fix the rentals for dwelling accommodations at the lowest possible rates consistent with its providing decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling accommodations, and that no housing authority shall construct or operate any such project for profit, or as a source of revenue to the city. To this end an authority shall fix the rentals for dwellings in its projects at no higher rates than it shall find to be necessary in order to produce revenues which (together with all other available moneys, revenues, income, and receipts of the authority from whatever sources derived) will be sufficient (a) to pay, as the same become due, the principal and interest on the bonds of the authority; (b) to meet the cost of, and to provide for, maintaining and operating the projects (including the cost of any insurance) and the administrative expenses of the authority; and (c) to create (during not less than the six (6) years immediately succeeding its issuance of any bonds) a reserve sufficient to meet the largest principal and interest payments which will be due on such bonds in any one year thereafter and to maintain such reserve.

Rentals and Tenant Selection
Sec. 10. In the operation or management of housing projects an authority shall at all times observe the following duties with respect to rentals and tenant selection:

(a) It may rent or lease the dwelling accommodations therein only to persons of low income and at rentals within the financial reach of such persons.

(b) It may rent or lease to a tenant dwelling accommodations consisting of the number of rooms (but no greater number) which it deems necessary to provide safe and sanitary accommodations to the proposed occupants thereof, without overcrowding.

(c) It shall not accept any person as a tenant in any housing project if the person or persons who would occupy the dwelling accommodations have an aggregate annual income, excluding that earned by children attending school full time, in excess of five (5) times the annual rental of the quarters to be furnished such person or persons except that in the case of families with three (3) or more minor dependents such ratio shall not exceed six to one; in computing the rental for this purpose of selecting tenants, there shall be included in the rental the average annual cost (as determined by the authority) to the occupants, of heat, water, electricity, gas, cooking range, and other necessary services or facilities, whether or not the charge for such services and facilities is in fact included in the rental.

Nothing contained in this or the preceding section shall be construed as limiting the power of an authority to vest in an obligee the right, in the event of a default by the authority, to take possession of a housing project or cause the appointment of a receiver thereof or acquire title thereto through foreclosure proceedings, free from all the restrictions imposed by this or the preceding section.

Co-operation Between Authorities
Sec. 11. Any two (2) or more authorities may join or co-operate with one another in the exercise of any or all of the powers conferred hereby for the purpose of financing, planning, undertaking, constructing or operating a housing project or projects located within the area of operation of any one or more of said authorities.

Eminent Domain
Sec. 12. An authority shall have the right to acquire by the exercise of the power of eminent domain any interest in real property, including a fee simple title thereto, which it may deem necessary for its purposes under this Act after the adoption by it of a resolution declaring that the acquisition of the real property described therein is necessary for such purposes. An authority may exercise the power of eminent domain in the manner provided in Articles 3264 to 3271, both inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and Acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto; or it may exercise the power of eminent domain in the manner provided by any other applicable statutory provisions for the exercise of the power of eminent domain. Property already devoted to a public use may be acquired in like manner, provided that no real property belonging to the city, the county, the State, or any political subdivision thereof may be acquired without its consent.

Planning, Zoning, and Building Laws
Sec. 13. All housing projects of an authority shall be subject to the planning, zoning, sanitary and building laws, ordinances, and regulations applicable to the locality in which the housing project is situated. In the planning and location of any housing project, an authority shall take into consideration the relationship of the project to any larger plan or long-range program for the development of the area in which the housing authority functions.
Notice of Proposed Housing Projects

Sec. 13a. (a) A housing authority may not authorize the construction of a housing project and may not obtain any permit, certificate, or other authorization required by an incorporated city or town or other political subdivision of the State for any part of the construction of a housing project unless the commissioners of the authority hold a public meeting about the proposed project prior to that site being approved for the housing project. The commissioners shall hold the meeting at the closest available facility to the site of the proposed project. At least a majority of the commissioners must attend the meeting. The commissioners shall give any person who owns or leases real property within one-fourth mile radius of the site of the proposed project the opportunity to comment on the proposed project.

(b) In addition to any other notice required by law, the commissioners shall post notice of the date, hour, place, and subject of the meeting at least 30 days before the scheduled day of the meeting on a bulletin board at a place convenient to the public in the county courthouse of the county in which the proposed project is to be located and on a bulletin board at a place convenient to the public in the city hall if the proposed project is to be located within the boundaries of an incorporated city. The commissioners shall have a copy of the notice published in a newspaper or newspapers that individually or collectively provide general circulation to the county in which the proposed project is to be located. The notice must be published once at least 30 days before the scheduled day of the meeting. The commissioners shall mail a notice containing the same information 30 days before the date of the meeting to any person who owns real property within one-fourth of a mile radius of the site of the proposed project. The commissioners may rely on the most recent county tax roll for the names and addresses of the owners. The commissioners shall also have posted at the proposed project site 30 days before the date of the meeting a sign having dimensions no smaller than four feet by four feet and bearing in eight-inch letters a caption stating "Site of Proposed Housing Project." The sign shall be located at a point on the proposed project site visible from a regularly travelled thoroughfare and shall state the nature of the project, the location of the project, the names and addresses of all governmental entities involved in the development of the proposed project, and the date, time, and place of the public meeting.

(c) An incorporated city or town or other political subdivision of the State may not issue a permit, certificate, or other authorization for any part of the construction or for the occupancy of a housing project under this Act unless the housing authority has complied with the requirements of this section.

(d) For purposes of the public meeting requirements in Subsection (a) of this section and for the purposes of Section 6 of this Act, "housing project" means, in addition to the definition prescribed in Subsection (i), Section 3, of this Act:

1. any work or undertaking that is financed in any way by public funds or tax exempt revenue bonds and undertaken for any of the reasons listed in Subsection (i) of Section 3; or

2. a building over which a housing authority has jurisdiction and which has any part reserved for occupancy by persons receiving income or rental supplements from a governmental entity.

Bonds

Sec. 14. An authority shall have power to issue bonds from time to time in its discretion, for any of its corporate purposes. An authority shall also have power to issue refunding bonds for the purpose of paying or retiring bonds previously issued by it. An authority may issue such types of bonds as it may determine, including bonds on which the principal and interest are payable; (a) exclusively from the income and revenues of the housing project financed with the proceeds of such bonds, or with such proceeds together with a grant from the Federal Government in aid of such project; (b) exclusively from the income and revenues of certain designated housing projects whether or not they were financed in whole or in part with the proceeds of such bonds; or (c) from its revenues generally. Any of such bonds may be additionally secured by a pledge of any revenues or a mortgage of any housing project, projects, or other property of the authority.

Neither the commissioners of an authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds by reason of the issuance thereof. The bonds and other obligations of an authority (and such bonds and obligations shall so state on their face) shall not be a debt of the city, the county, the State or any political subdivision thereof, nor shall they be liable thereon, nor in any event shall such bonds or obligations be payable out of any funds or properties other than those of said authority. The bond shall not constitute an indebtedness within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limitation or restriction. Bonds of an authority are declared to be issued for an essential public and governmental purpose and to be public instrumentalities and, together with interest thereon and income therefrom, shall be exempt from taxes.

Bonds or Legal Investments

Form and Sale of Bonds

Sec. 15. Bonds of an authority shall be authorized by its resolution and may be issued in one or more series and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, bear interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding eight (8) per centum per annum, be in such denomination or denominations, in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption (with or without premium) as such resolution, its trust indenture or mortgage may provide.

The bonds may be sold at not less than par at public sale held after notice published once at least five (5) days prior to such sale in a newspaper having a general circulation in the city or the county and in a financial newspaper published in the City of New York, New York, provided, however, that such bonds may be sold at not less than par to the Federal Government at private sale without any public advertisement.

In case any of the commissioners or officers of the authority whose signatures appear on any bonds or coupons shall cease to be such commissioners or officers before the delivery of such bonds, such signatures shall, nevertheless, be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if they had remained in office until such delivery. Any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be fully negotiable.

In any suit, action, or proceedings involving the validity or enforceability of any bond of an authority or the security therefor, any such bond reciting in substance that it has been issued by the authority to aid in financing a housing project to provide dwelling accommodations for persons of low income shall be conclusively deemed to have been issued for all purposes, the same as if they had remained in office until such delivery. Any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be fully negotiable.

Provisions of Bonds, Trust Indentures, and Mortgages

Sec. 16. In connection with the issuance of bonds or the incurring of obligations under leases and in order to secure the payment of such bonds or obligations, an authority, in addition to its other powers, shall have power:

(a) To pledge all or any part of its gross or net rents, fees, or revenues to which its right then exists or may thereafter come into existence.

(b) To mortgage all or any part of its real or personal property, then owned or thereafter acquired.

(c) To covenant against pledging all or any part of its rents, fees, and revenues, or against mortgaging all or any part of its real or personal property, to which its right or title then exists or may thereafter come into existence or against permitting or suffering any lien on such revenues or property; to covenant with respect to limitations on its right to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of any housing project or any part thereof; and to covenant as to what other, or additional debts or obligations may be incurred by it.

(d) To covenant as to the bonds to be issued and as to the issuance of such bonds in escrow or otherwise, and as to the use and disposition of the proceeds thereof; to provide for the replacement of lost, destroyed, or mutilated bonds; to covenant against extending the time for the payment of its bonds or interest thereon, and to redeem the bonds, and to covenant for their redemption and to provide the terms and conditions thereof.

(e) To covenant (subject to the limitations contained in this Act) as to the rents and fees to be charged in the operation of a housing project or projects, the amount to be raised each year or other period of time by rents, fees, and other revenues, and as to the use and disposition to be made thereof; to create or to authorize the creation of special funds for moneys held for construction or operating costs, debt service, reserves, or other purposes, and to covenant as to the use and disposition of the moneys held in such funds.

(f) To prescribe procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bond holders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds of holders of which must consent thereto and the manner in which such consent may be given.

(g) To covenant as to the use of any or all of its real or personal property; and to covenant as to the maintenance of its real and personal property, the replacement thereof, the insurance to be carried thereon and the use and disposition of insurance moneys.

(h) To covenant as to the rights, liabilities, powers, and duties arising upon the breach by it of any covenant, condition, or obligation; and to covenant and prescribe as to events of default and terms and conditions upon which any or all of its bonds or obligations shall become or may be declared due before maturity, and as to the terms and conditions upon which such declaration and its consequences may be waived.

(i) To vest in a trustee or trustees or the holder of bonds or any proportion of them the right to enforce the payment of the bonds or any covenants securing or relating to the bonds; to vest in a trustee to whom the bonds are delivered the right, in the event of a default by said authority, to take possession and use, operate, and manage any housing project or part thereof, and to collect the rents and revenues arising therefrom and to dispose of such moneys in accordance with the agreement of the authority with said trustee; to provide for the powers and duties of a trustee or trustees and to limit the liabilities thereof; and to provide the terms and conditions upon which the trustee or trustees or the holders of bonds or any proportion of them may enforce any covenant or rights securing or relating to the bonds.

Art. 1269k

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

To exercise all or any part or combination of the powers herein granted; to make covenants other than and in addition to the covenants herein expressly authorized, of like or different character; to make such covenants and to do any and all such acts and things as may be necessary or convenient or desirable in order to secure its bonds, or, in the absolute discretion of said authority, as will tend to make the bonds more marketable notwithstanding that such covenants, acts, or things may not be enumerated herein.

Certificate of Attorney General

Sec. 17. Any authority may submit to the Attorney General of the State any bonds to be issued hereunder after all proceedings for the issuance of such bonds have been taken. Upon the submission of such proceedings to the Attorney General, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to examine into and pass upon the validity of such bonds and the regularity of all proceedings in connection therewith. If such proceedings conform to the provisions of this Act and are otherwise regular in form and if such bonds when delivered and paid for will constitute binding and legal obligations of such authority enforceable according to the terms thereof, the Attorney General shall certify in substance upon the back of each of said bonds that it is issued in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas.

Remedies of an Obligee of Authority

Sec. 18. An obligee of an authority shall have the right in addition to all other rights which may be conferred on such obligee, subject only to any contractual restrictions binding upon such obligee:

(a) To cause possession of any housing project or any part thereof to be surrendered to any such obligee.

(b) To obtain the appointment of a receiver of any housing project of said authority or any part thereof and of the rents and profits therefrom. If such receiver be appointed, he may enter and take possession of such housing project or any part thereof and operate and maintain same, and collect and receive all fees, rents, revenues, or other charges thereafter arising therefrom, and shall keep such moneys in a separate account or accounts and apply the same in accordance with the obligations of said authority as the Court shall direct.

(c) To require said authority and the commissioners thereof to account as if it and they were the trustees of an express trust.

Exemption of Property from Execution

Sec. 19. An authority shall have power by its resolution, trust indenture, mortgage, lease, or other contract to confer upon any obligee holding or representing a specified amount in bonds, or holding a lease, the right (in addition to all rights that may otherwise be conferred) upon the happening of an event of default as defined in such resolution or instrument, by suit, action, or proceeding in any Court of competent jurisdiction:

To exercise all or any part or combination of the powers herein granted; to make covenants other than and in addition to the covenants herein expressly authorized, of like or different character; to make such covenants and to do any and all such acts and things as may be necessary or convenient or desirable in order to secure its bonds, or, in the absolute discretion of said authority, as will tend to make the bonds more marketable notwithstanding that such covenants, acts, or things may not be enumerated herein.

Additional Remedies Conferable by Authority

Sec. 21. In addition to the powers conferred upon an authority by other provisions of this Act, an authority is empowered to borrow money or accept grants or other financial assistance from the Federal Government for or in aid of any housing project within its area of operation, to take over or lease or manage any housing project or undertaking constructed or owned by the Federal Government, and to these ends, to comply with such conditions and enter into such mortgages, trust indentures, leases, or agreements as may be necessary, convenient or desirable. It is the purpose and intent of this Act to authorize every authority to do any and all things necessary or desirable to secure the financial aid or cooperation of the Federal Government in the undertaking, construction, maintenance, or operation of any housing project by such authority.

Tax Exemption and Payments in Lieu of Taxes

Sec. 22. The property of an authority is declared to be public property used for essential public and governmental purposes and such property and an authority shall be exempt from all taxes and special assessments of the city, the county, the State or any political subdivision thereof; provided, however, that in lieu of such taxes or special assessments, an authority may agree to make payments to the city or the county or any such political subdivision for improvements, services, and facilities furnished by such city, county, or political subdivision for the benefit of a housing project, but in no event shall such payments exceed the estimated cost to such city, county, or political subdivision of the improvements, services, or facilities to be so furnished.

Reports
Sec. 23. At least once a year, an authority shall file with the clerk a report of its activities for the preceding year, and shall make recommendations with reference to such additional legislation or other action as it deems necessary in order to carry out the purposes of this Act.

Housing Authorities in Counties
Sec. 23a. In each county of the State there is hereby created a public body corporate and politic to be known as the "Housing Authority" of the county; provided, however, that such housing authority shall not transact any business or exercise its powers hereunder until or unless the Commissioners Court of such county, by proper resolution shall declare at any time hereafter that there is need for a housing authority to function in such county, which declaration shall be made by such Commissioners Court for such county in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the declaration of the governing body of a city required by Section 4 of the Housing Authorities Law for the purpose of authorizing a housing authority created for a city to transact business and exercise its powers (except that the petition referred to in said Section 4 shall be signed by one hundred qualified voters and residents of such county). The commissioners of a housing authority created for a county may be appointed and removed by the Commissioners Court of the county in the same manner as the commissioners of a housing authority created for a city may be appointed and removed by the Mayor, and except as otherwise provided herein, each housing authority created for a county and the commissioners thereof, within the area of operation of such housing authority as hereinafter defined, shall have the same functions, rights, powers, duties, immunities, privileges, and limitations provided for housing authorities created for cities and the commissioners of such housing authorities, in the same manner as though all the provisions of law applicable to housing authorities created for cities were applicable to housing authorities created for counties; provided, that for such purposes the term "Mayor" or "governing body" as used in the Housing Authorities Law shall be construed as meaning "Commissioners Court", and the term "city" as used therein shall be construed as meaning "county" unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context; and provided further that a housing authority created for a county shall not be subject to the limitations provided in clause (c) of Section 10 of the Housing Authorities Law with respect to housing projects for farmers of low income.

The area of operation of a housing authority created for a county shall include all of the county in which it is created except that portion of the county which lies within the territorial boundaries of any city.

Creation of Regional Housing Authority
Sec. 23b. If the Commissioners Court of each of two (2) or more contiguous counties by resolution declares that there is a need for one housing authority to be created for all of such counties to exercise powers and other functions herein prescribed for a housing authority in such counties, a public body corporate and politic to be known as a regional housing authority shall thereupon exist for all of such counties and exercise its powers and other functions in such counties and subject to the same conditions as the declaration of the county which lies within the territorial boundaries of any city.

Reports
Sec. 23c. At least once a year, a regional housing authority shall file with the clerk a report of its activities in the preceding year, and shall make recommendations with reference to such additional legislation or other action as it deems necessary in order to carry out the purposes of this Act.

The area of operation of a regional housing authority shall include all of the counties of which it is created, and shall extend into any portion of another county if the governing body of such county, by proper resolution, shall declare that there is a need for a regional housing authority to function in such county, and the commissioners of such county shall have the same functions, rights, powers, duties, immunities, privileges, and limitations provided for a housing authority created for a county and the commissioners of such housing authority shall be subject to the limitations provided in clause (c) of Section 10 of the Housing Authorities Law with respect to housing projects for farmers of low income.
Art. 1269k

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

The Commissioners Court of each of two (2) or more contiguous counties shall by resolution declare that there is a need for one regional housing authority to be created for all of such counties to exercise powers and other functions herein prescribed in such counties, if such Commissioners Court finds (and only if it finds) (a) that insanitary or unsafe inhabited dwelling accommodations exist in such county or there is a shortage of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations in such county available to persons of low income at rentals they can afford and (b) that a regional housing authority would be a more efficient or economical administrative unit than the housing authority of such county to carry out the purposes of the Housing Authorities Law in such county.

In any suit, action, or proceeding involving the validity or enforcement of or relating to any contract of the regional housing authority, the regional housing authority shall be conclusively deemed to have been created as a public body corporate and politic and to have become established and authorized to transact business and exercise its powers hereunder upon proof of the adoption of a resolution by the Commissioners Court of each of the counties creating the regional housing authority declaring the need for the regional housing authority. Each such resolution shall be deemed sufficient if it declares that there is need for the regional housing authority and finds in substantially the foregoing terms (no further detail being necessary) that the conditions enumerated above in (a) and (b) exist. A copy of such resolution by the Commissioners Court of a county, duly certified by the county clerk of such county, shall be admissible in evidence in any suit, action, or proceeding.

Area of Operation of County or Regional Housing Authorities

Sec. 28c. (a) The area of operation of a regional housing authority shall include all of the counties for which such regional housing authority is created and established except that portion of the counties which lies within the territorial boundaries of any city. Provided that a county or regional housing authority shall not undertake any housing project or projects within the boundaries of any city unless a resolution shall have been adopted by the governing body of such city (and also by any housing authority which shall have been theretofore established and authorized to exercise its powers in such city) declaring that there is a need for the county or regional housing authority to exercise its powers within such city.

(b) The area of operation of a regional housing authority shall be increased from time to time to include one or more additional counties not already within a regional housing authority (except in such portion or portions of such additional county or counties which lie within the territorial boundaries of any city) if the Commissioners Court of each of the counties then included in the area of operation of such regional housing authority, the commissioners of the regional housing authority and the Commissioners Court of each such additional county or counties each adopt a resolution declaring that there is a need for the inclusion of such additional county or counties in the area of operation of such regional housing authority as provided by Subsection (g) of this section. Those resolutions may not be adopted if there is a county housing authority created for any such additional county which has any obligations outstanding unless:

1. All obligees of any such county housing authority and parties to the contracts, bonds, notes, and other obligations of any such county housing authority agree with such county housing authority and the regional housing authority to the substitution of such county housing authority in lieu of such county housing authority on all such contracts, bonds, notes, or other obligations; and

2. The commissioners of such county housing authority and the commissioners of such regional housing authority adopt resolutions consenting to the transfer of all the rights, contracts, obligations, and property, real and personal, of such county housing authority to such regional housing authority as provided by Subdivision (2) of Subsection (e) of this section.

(c) If one or more of the obligees whose agreement is required by Subdivision (1) of Subsection (b) of this section before adoption of a resolution are unknown, the county housing authority shall cause notice to be published in a newspaper of general national circulation. The notice must set forth:

1. The name of the county housing authority;

2. The name of the regional housing authority;

3. A statement that the county and regional housing authorities propose that on all contracts, bonds, notes, and other obligations of the county housing authority, the regional housing authority will be substituted for the county housing authority and that the existence of the county housing authority will be terminated; and

4. An address where objections to the substitution may be sent.

(d) For the purposes of Subsection (b) of this section, failure to receive an objection to the substitution of the regional housing authority on the obligations of the county housing authority before the 31st day after the day on which notice is published in accordance with Subsection (c) of this section is equivalent to consent to the substitution given by the unknown obligees of the county housing authority.

(e) When all resolutions required by Subsection (b) of this section are adopted in accordance with this section:

1. The county housing authority created for each county over which the area of operation of the regional housing authority is being extended ceases to exist except to wind up its affairs and to execute a deed to the regional housing authority in accordance with Subsection (f) of this section;

(2) all rights, contracts, agreements, obligations, and property of such county housing authority shall be in the name of and vest in such regional housing authority;

(3) all obligations of such county housing authority shall be the obligations of such regional housing authority; and

(4) all rights and remedies of any person against such county housing authority may be asserted, enforced, and prosecuted against such regional housing authority to the same extent as they may have been asserted, enforced, and prosecuted against such county housing authority.

(f) When any real property of a county housing authority vests in a regional housing authority as provided by Subdivision (2) of Subsection (e) of this section, the county housing authority shall execute a deed of such property to the regional housing authority which thereupon shall file such deed with the clerk of the county where such real property is located. This subsection does not affect the vesting of property in the regional housing authority as provided by Subdivision (2) of Subsection (e) of this section.

(g) The Commissioners Court of each of the counties in the regional housing authority, the commissioners of the regional housing authority and the Commissioners Court of each such additional county or counties shall by resolution declare that there is a need for the addition of such county or counties to the regional housing authority, if:

(1) the Commissioners Court of each such additional county or counties finds that insanitary or unsafe inhabited dwelling accommodations exist in such county or there is a shortage of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations in such county available to persons of low income at rentals they can afford; and

(2) the Commissioners Court of each of the counties then included in the area of operation of the regional housing authority, the commissioners of the regional housing authority and the Commissioners Court of each such additional county or counties find that the regional housing authority would be a more efficient or economical administrative unit to carry out the purposes of this Housing Authorities Law if the area of operation of the regional housing authority shall be increased to include such additional county or counties.

(h) In connection with the issuance of bonds or the incurring of other obligations, a regional housing authority may covenant as to limitations on its rights to adopt resolutions relating to the increase of its area of operation.

(i) In determining whether dwelling accommodations are unsafe or insanitary under this section or Section 23b of this Act, the Commissioners Court of a county shall take into consideration the safety and sanitation of dwellings, the light and air space available to the inhabitants of such dwellings, the degree of overcrowding, the size and arrangement of the rooms and the extent to which conditions exist in such dwellings which endanger life or property by fire or other causes.

(j) No governing body of a county shall adopt any resolution authorized by this section or Section 23b of this Act unless a public hearing has first been held. The clerk of such county shall give notice of the time, place, and purpose of the public hearing at least ten days prior to the day on which the hearing is to be held, in a newspaper published in such county, or if there is no newspaper published in such county, then in a newspaper published in the State and having a general circulation in such county. Upon the date fixed for such public hearing an opportunity to be heard shall be granted to all residents of such county and to all other interested persons.

Commissioners of Regional Housing Authority

Sec. 23d. When a regional housing authority has been created as provided above, the Commissioners Court of each county included in such regional housing authority shall thereupon appoint one person as a commissioner of the regional housing authority. When the area of operation of a regional housing authority is increased to include an additional county or counties as provided above, the Commissioners Court of each county shall thereupon appoint one additional person as a commissioner of the regional housing authority. The Commissioners Court of each such county shall thereafter appoint each person to succeed such commissioner of the regional housing authority. A certificate of the appointment of any such commissioner shall be filed with the clerk of the county, and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper appointment of such commissioner. If a regional housing authority includes only two counties, the commissioners of such authority appointed by the Commissioners Court of such counties shall appoint one additional commissioner to such authority. The commissioners of such authority appointed by the Commissioners Court of such counties shall likewise appoint each person to succeed such additional commissioner. If a regional housing authority includes more than two counties, the commissioners of such authority appointed by the Commissioners Court of such counties shall appoint one additional commissioner to such authority. The commissioners of such authority appointed by the Commissioners Court of such counties shall likewise appoint each person to succeed such additional commissioner in the event the area of operation of the regional housing authority is increased to include more than two counties. A certificate of the appointment of any such additional commissioner shall be filed with the other records of the regional housing authority and shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper appointment of such additional commissioner. The commissioners of a regional homing authority shall be appointed for terms of two (2) years except that all vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired terms. Each commissioner shall hold office until his successor has been appointed and has qualified, except as otherwise provided herein.

For inefficiency or neglect of duty or misconduct in office, a commissioner of a regional housing authority may be removed by the Commissioners Court appointing him, or in the case of the commissioner appointed by the commissioners of the regional housing authority by such commissioners; provided that such commissioner shall be removed only after he shall have been given a copy of the charges against him at least ten (10) days prior to the hearing thereon and provided that such commissioner shall have had an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel. In the event of the removal of a commissioner by the Commissioners Court appointing him, a record of the proceedings, together with the charges and findings thereon, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county; and in the case of the removal of the commissioner appointed by the commissioners of the regional housing authority, such record shall be filed with the other records of the regional housing authority.

The commissioners appointed as aforesaid shall constitute the regional housing authority, and the powers of such authority shall be vested in such commissioners in office from time to time.

The commissioners of a regional housing authority shall elect a chairman from among the commissioners and shall have power to select or employ such other officers and employees as the regional housing authority may require. A majority of the commissioners of a regional housing authority shall constitute a quorum of such authority for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers and for all other purposes.

Powers of Regional Housing Authority

Sec. 23e. Except as otherwise provided herein, a regional housing authority and the commissioners thereof shall, within the area of operation of such regional housing authority, have the same functions, rights, powers, duties, privileges, immunities and limitations provided for housing authorities created for cities or counties and the commissioners of such housing authorities in the same manner as though all the provisions of law applicable to housing authorities created for cities or counties were applicable to regional housing authorities; provided, that for such purposes the term “Mayor” or “governing body” as used in the Housing Authorities Law shall be construed as meaning “Commissioners Court” and the term “city” as used therein shall be construed as meaning “county” unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context; and provided further that a regional housing authority shall not be subject to the limitations provided in clause (c) of Section 10 of the Housing Authorities Law with respect to housing projects for farmers of low income. A regional housing authority shall have power to select any appropriate corporate name.

Rural Housing Projects

Sec. 23f. County housing authorities and regional housing authorities are specifically empowered and authorized to borrow money, accept grants and exercise their other powers to provide housing for farmers of low income. In connection with such projects, any such housing authority may enter into such leases or purchase agreements, accept such conveyances and rent or sell dwellings forming part of such projects to or for farmers of low income, as such housing authority deems necessary in order to assure the achievement of the objectives of this Act. Such leases, agreements or conveyances may include such covenants as the housing authority deems appropriate regarding such dwellings and the tracts of land described in any such instrument, which covenants shall be deemed to run with the land where the housing authority deems it necessary and the parties to such instrument so stipulate. Nothing contained in this Section shall be construed as limiting any other powers of any housing authority.

Housing Applications by Farmers

Sec. 23g. The owner of any farm operated, or worked upon, by farmers of low income in need of safe and sanitary housing may file an application with a county housing authority or a regional housing authority requesting that it provide for a safe and sanitary dwelling or dwellings for occupancy by such farmers of low income. Such application shall be received and examined by housing authorities in connection with the formulation of projects or programs to provide housing for farmers of low income.

Farmers of Low Income Defined

Sec. 23h. “Farmers of low income,” as used in this Act, shall mean persons or families who at the time of their admission to occupancy in a dwelling of a housing authority: (1) live under unsafe or insanitary housing conditions; (2) derive their principal income from operating or working upon a farm; and (3) had an aggregate average annual net income for the three years preceding their admission that was less than the amount determined by the housing authority to be necessary, within its area of operation, to enable them, without financial assistance, to obtain decent, safe and sanitary housing, without overcrowding.

Severability

Sec. 24. Notwithstanding any other evidence of legislative intent, it is hereby declared to be the controlling legislative intent that if any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provision to persons or circumstances, other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected hereby.

Act Controlling

Sec. 25. In so far as the provisions of this Act are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall be controlling.

Section 2 of Acts 1981, 67th Leg., p. 630, ch. 231, provides: "Section 13a, as added by this Act to Chapter 428, Acts of the 67th Legislature, Regular Session, 1981, shall not be construed as conferring any authority upon the state or the state's executive, legislative, or judicial officers, agencies or employees for the purpose of enforcing any criminal laws or regulations that are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall be controlling.

Section 2 of Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2429, ch. 430, provides: "The construction of a housing project that was authorized before September 1, 1981, and for which a permit, certificate, or other authorization was obtained before September 1, 1983, are covered by Subsections (a) and (d), Section 15a, Housing Authorities Law (Article 1269f, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as those subsections existed when the construction began or the permit, certificate, or authorization was obtained. The former law is continued in effect for that purpose.

Section 4 of Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 1855, ch. 347, § 1, provides: "The amendment to the Housing Authorities Law (Article 1269f, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) by this Act does not affect any provision for removal or criminal penalty under that Act before the effective date of this Act."

Sec. 2. [Repeals art. 1269k, § 14-A].

Severability

Sec. 3. Notwithstanding any other evidence of legislative intent, it is hereby declared to be the controlling legislative intent that if any provisions of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, are held invalid the remainder of the Act and the application of such provisions to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

Act Controlling

Sec. 4. In so far as the provisions of this Act are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall be controlling.

Article 1269k-2. Validation of Establishment and Acts of Housing Authorities

Establishment and Organization

Sec. 1. The establishment and organization of housing authorities pursuant to the provisions of the Housing Authorities Law (House Bill Number 821, Chapter 482, page 1144, Regular Session of the Forty-fifth Legislature, as amended by House Bill Number 102, Chapter 41, page 1924, Second Called Session of the Forty-fifth Legislature, as amended by House Bill Number 834, Chapter 1, page 427, Regular Session of the Forty-sixth Legislature, and any amendments thereto) together with all proceedings, acts, and things heretofore undertaken, performed or done with reference thereto, are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed, approved, and declared legal in all respects, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity therein or any want of statutory authority.

Contracts and Undertakings

Sec. 2. All contracts, agreements, obligations, and undertakings of housing authorities heretofore entered into relating to financing or aiding in the development, construction, maintenance, or operation of any housing project or projects or to obtaining aid therefor from the United States Housing Authority, including (without limiting the generality of the foregoing) loan and annual contributions, contracts, and leases with the United States Housing Authority, agreements with municipalities or other public bodies (including agreements which are pledged or authorized to be pledged for the protection of the holders of any notes or bonds issued by housing authorities or which are otherwise made a part of the contract with such holders of notes or bonds) relating to cooperation and contributions in aid of housing projects, payments (if any) in lieu of taxes, furnishing of municipal services and facilities, and the elimination of unsafe and unsanitary dwellings, and contracts for the construction of housing projects, together with all proceedings, acts, and things heretofore undertaken, performed or done with reference thereto, are hereby validated, ratified, approved, and declared legal in all respects, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity therein or any want of statutory authority.

Notes and Bonds

Sec. 3. All proceedings, acts, and things heretofore undertaken, performed or done in or for the authorization, issuance, sale, execution, and delivery of notes and bonds by housing authorities for the purpose of financing or aiding in the development or construction of a housing project or projects, and all notes and bonds heretofore issued by housing authorities are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed, approved, and declared legal in all respects, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity therein or any want of statutory authority.

[Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 900, ch. 544.]

Art. 1269k-3. Validation of Acts, Bonds, Contracts, Etc., of Housing Authorities in Counties of 90,000 to 100,000; National Defense Activities

Sec. 1. The acts of any housing authority created by and organized pursuant to the "Housing Authorities Law" of the State of Texas, and which is located in any county in Texas having a population of not less than ninety thousand (90,000) and not more than one hundred thousand (100,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, in undertaking the development and administration of housing projects to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, which otherwise would not otherwise be able to secure safe and sanitary dwellings within the vicinity thereof, are hereby validated, ratified, approved, and confirmed in all respects.

Sec. 2. All bonds, notes, contracts, agreements, and obligations of housing authorities created by and organized pursuant to the "Housing Authorities Law" of the State of Texas, and which are located in any county in Texas having a population of not less than ninety thousand (90,000) and not more than one hundred thousand (100,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, heretofore issued or entered into relating to financing or undertaking (including cooperating with or acting as agent of the Federal Government) in the development or administration of any housing project to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, are hereby validated, ratified, approved, confirmed, and declared enforceable in all respects.

[Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 1301, ch. 576.]

Art. 1269k-4. Projects by Housing Authorities to Make Available Dwellings for Persons in National Defense Activities

Declaration of Necessity

Sec. 1. It is hereby found and declared that the national defense program involves large increases in the military forces and personnel in this State, a great increase in the number of workers in already established manufacturing centers, and the bringing of a large number of workers and their families to new centers of defense industries in the State; that there is an acute shortage of safe and sanitary dwellings available to such persons and their families in this State, which impede the national defense program; that it is imperative that action be taken immediately to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for such persons, to enable the rapid expansion of national defense activities in this State and to avoid a large labor turnover in defense industries which would seriously hamper their production; that the provisions hereinafter enacted are necessary to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, which otherwise would not be provided at this time; and that such provisions are for the public use and purpose of facilitating the national defense program in this State. It is further declared to be the purpose of this Act to authorize housing authorities to do any and all things necessary or desirable to secure the financial aid of the Federal Government, or to cooperate with or act as agent of the Federal Government, in the expeditious development and the administration of projects to assure the availability, when needed, of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities.
time for initiation of development: rights and powers of authority: definitions

sec. 2. any housing authority may undertake the development and administration of projects to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, whom the housing authority determines would not otherwise be able to secure safe and sanitary dwellings within the vicinity thereof; but no housing authority shall initiate the development of any such project pursuant to this act after december 31, 1943.

in the ownership, development or administration of such projects, a housing authority shall have all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities that such authority has under any provision of law relating to the ownership, development or administration of slum clearance and housing projects for persons of low income, in the same manner as though all the provisions of law applicable to slum clearance and housing projects for persons of low income were applicable to projects developed or administered to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities as provided in this act; and housing projects developed or administered hereunder shall constitute "housing projects" under the housing authorities law, as that term is used therein; provided, that during the period (herein called the "national defense period") that a housing authority finds (which finding shall be conclusive in any suit, action or proceeding) that within its area of operation (as defined in the housing authorities law), or any part thereof, there is an acute shortage of safe and sanitary dwellings, which impedes the national defense program in this state, and that the necessary safe and sanitary dwellings would not otherwise be provided when needed for persons engaged in national defense activities, any project developed or administered by such housing authority (or by any housing authority cooperating with it) in such area pursuant to this act, with the financial aid of the federal government (or as agent for the federal government as hereinafter provided), shall not be subject to the limitations provided in section 10 and the second sentence of section 9 of the housing authorities law; and provided further, that, during the national defense period, a housing authority may make payments in such amounts as it finds necessary or desirable for any services, facilities, works, privileges or improvements furnished for or in connection with any such projects. after the national defense period, any such projects owned and administered by a housing authority shall be administered for the purpose and in accordance with the provisions of the housing authorities law.

cooperation with federal government: sale of project to federal government

sec. 3. a housing authority may exercise any or all of its powers for the purpose of cooperating with, or acting as agent for, the federal government, in the development or administration of projects by the federal government, to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, and may undertake the development or administration of any such project for the federal government. in order to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, a housing authority may sell (in whole or in part) to the federal government, any housing project developed for persons of low income but not yet occupied by such persons; such sale shall be at such price and upon such terms as the housing authority shall prescribe, and shall include provision for the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities of the authority relating to such project.

cooperation with federal government by other state public bodies

sec. 4. any state public body, as defined in the housing cooperation law (house bill no. 820, regular session of the 45th legislature, page 1141, as amended by house bill no. 103, second called session of the 45th legislature, page 1940, and any additional amendments thereof) shall have the same rights and powers to cooperate with housing authorities, or with the federal government, with respect to the development or administration of projects, to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, that such state public body has pursuant to such law for the purpose of assisting the development or administration of slum clearance or housing projects for persons of low income.

bonds as security for public deposits and as legal investments

sec. 5. bonds or other obligations issued by a housing authority for a project developed or administered pursuant to this act, shall be security for public deposits and legal investments to the same extent and for the same persons, institutions, associations, corporations, bodies and officers, as bonds or other obligations issued pursuant to the housing authorities law for the development of a slum clearance or housing project for persons of low income.

validation of bonds, notes, contracts, and obligations

sec. 6. all bonds, notes, contracts, agreements and obligations of housing authorities heretofore issued or entered into relating to financing or undertaking (including cooperating with or acting as agent of the federal government) in the development or administration of any project to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, are hereby validated and declared legal in all respects, notwithstanding any defects or irregularities therein, or any want of statutory authority.
Art. 1269k–4  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES  1258

Act as Independent Authorization

Sec. 7. This Act shall constitute an independent authorization for a housing authority to undertake the development or administration of projects to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, as provided in this Act, and for a housing authority to cooperate with, or act as agent for, the Federal Government in the development or administration of similar projects by the Federal Government. In acting under this authorization, a housing authority shall not be subject to any limitations, restrictions or requirements of other laws (except those relating to land acquisition, prescribing the procedure or action to be taken in the development or administration of any public works, including slum clearance and housing projects for persons of low income, or undertakings or projects of municipal or public corporations or political subdivisions, or agencies of the State. A housing authority may do any and all things necessary or desirable to cooperate with, or act as Agent for, the Federal Government, or to secure financial aid, in the expeditious development or in the administration of projects to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, and to effectuate the purposes of this Act.

Definitions

Sec. 8. (a) “Persons engaged in national defense activities,” as used in this Act, shall include: enlisted men in the military and naval services of the United States and employees of the War and Navy Departments assigned to duty at military or naval reservations, posts or bases; and workers engaged, or to be engaged, in industries connected with, and essential to, the national defense program; and shall include the families of the aforesaid persons who are living with them.

(b) “Persons of low income,” as used in this Act, shall mean persons or families who lack the amount of income which is necessary (as determined by the housing authority undertaking the housing project) to enable them, without financial assistance, to live in decent, safe and sanitary dwellings, without overcrowding.

(c) “Development” as used in this Act, shall mean any and all undertakings necessary for the planning, land acquisition, demolition, financing, construction or equipment in connection with a project (including the negotiations or award of contracts therefor), and shall include the acquisition of any project (in whole or in part) from the Federal Government.

(d) “Administration,” as used in this Act, shall mean any and all undertakings necessary for management, operation or maintenance, in connection with any project, and shall include the leasing of any project (in whole or in part) from the Federal Government.

(e) “Federal Government,” as used in this Act, shall mean the United States of America or any agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States of America.

(f) The development of a project shall be deemed to be “initiated,” within the meaning of this Act, if a housing authority has issued any bonds, notes or other obligations with respect to financing the development of such project of the authority, or has contracted with the Federal Government, with respect to the exercise of powers hereunder, in the development of such project of the Federal Government for which an allocation of funds has been made prior to December 31, 1943.

(g) “Housing Authority,” as used in this Act, shall mean any housing authority established or hereafter established pursuant to the Housing Authorities Law (House Bill No. 821, Regular Session of the 45th Legislature, page 1144, as amended by House Bill No. 70, Second Called Session of the 45th Legislature, page 1924, as amended by Section 2 of House Bill No. 834, Regular Session of the 46th Legislature, page 427, and any additional amendments thereto). 1

1 Article 1269k.

Powers Additional and Supplemental

Sec. 9. The powers conferred by this Act shall be in addition, and supplemental, to the powers conferred by any other law, and nothing contained herein shall be construed as limiting any other powers of a housing authority.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 10. Notwithstanding any other evidence of legislative intent, it is hereby declared to be the controlling legislative intent that if any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any persons or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

[Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 799, ch. 497.]

Art. 1269f. Housing Co-operation Law

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be referred to as the “Housing Co-operation Law.”

Finding and Declaration of Necessity

Sec. 2. It has been found and declared in the Housing Authorities Law that there exist in the State unsafe and insanitary housing conditions and a shortage of safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations for persons of low income; that these conditions necessitate excessive and disproportionate expenditures of public funds for crime prevention and punishment, public health and safety, fire and accident protection, and other public services and facilities; and that the public interest requires the remedying of these conditions. It is hereby found and declared that the assistance herein provided for the remedying of the conditions set forth in the Housing Authorities Law constitutes a public use and purpose and an essential governmental function for which public moneys may be spent and other aid given; that it is a proper public purpose for any State Public Body to aid any housing authority operating within its boundaries or jurisdiction or any housing project located therein, as the State Public Body derives immediate benefits and advantages from such an authority or project; and that the provisions hereinafter enacted are necessary in the public interest.

Definitions

Sec. 3. The following terms, whenever used or referred to in this Act shall have the following respective meanings, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:
(a) "Housing authority" shall mean any housing authority created pursuant to the Housing Authorities Law of this State.
(b) "Housing project" shall mean any work or undertaking of a housing authority pursuant to the Housing Authorities Law or any similar work or undertaking of the Federal Government.
(c) "State Public Body" shall mean any city, town, county, municipal corporation, commission, district, authority, other subdivision or public body of the State.
(d) "Governing Body" shall mean the council, Commissioners Court, board, or other body having charge of the fiscal affairs of the State Public Body.
(e) "Federal Government" shall mean the United States of America, the United States Housing Authority, or any other agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States of America.

Cooperation in Undertaking Housing Projects

Sec. 4. For the purpose of aiding and cooperating in the planning, undertaking, construction or operation of housing projects located within the area in which it is authorized to act, any State Public Body may upon such terms, as it may determine:
(a) Dedicate, sell, convey or lease any of its property to a housing authority or the Federal Government;
(b) Cause parks, playgrounds, recreational, community, educational, water, sewer or drainage facilities, or any other works, which it is otherwise empowered to undertake, to be furnished adjacent to or in connection with housing projects;

(c) Furnish, dedicate, close, pave, install, grade, regrade, plan or replan streets, roads, roadways, alleys, sidewalks or other places which it is otherwise empowered to undertake;
(d) Plan or replan, zone or re-zone any part of such State Public Body; make exceptions from building regulations or ordinances; any city or town also may change its map;
(e) Enter into agreements, (which may extend over any period, notwithstanding any provision or rule of law to the contrary) with a housing authority or the Federal Government respecting action to be taken by such State Public Body pursuant to any of the powers granted by this Act; and
(f) Do any and all things, necessary or convenient to aid and co-operate in the planning, undertaking, construction, or operation of such housing projects.
(g) Purchase or legally invest in any of the bonds of a housing authority and exercise all of the rights of any holder of such bonds.

(h) With respect to any housing project which a housing authority has acquired or taken over from the Federal Government and which the housing authority by resolution has found and declared to have been constructed in a manner that will promote the public interest and afford necessary safety, sanitation, and other protection, no State Public Body shall require any changes to be made in the housing project or the manner of its construction or take any other action relating to such construction.
(i) In connection with any public improvements made by a State Public Body in exercising the powers herein granted, such State Public Body may incur the entire expense thereof. Any law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding, any sale, con-voyance, lease, or agreement provided for in this Section may be made by a State Public Body without appraisal, public notice, advertisement, or public bidding.

Further Cooperation in Undertaking Housing Projects

Sec. 4-a. For the purpose of aiding and cooperating in the planning, undertaking, construction or operation of housing projects located within the area in which it is authorized to act, any State Public Body may upon such terms as it may determine: (a) enter into agreements with respect to the exercise by such State Public Body of its powers relating to the repair, elimination or closing of unsafe, insanitary or unfit dwellings; and (b) cause services to be furnished to the housing authority of the character which it is otherwise empowered to furnish.

Contracts for Payments for Services

Sec. 5. In connection with any housing project located wholly or partly within the area in which it is authorized to act, any State Public Body may contract with a housing authority or the Federal Government with respect to the sum or sums (if any) which the housing authority or the Federal Government may agree to pay during any year or period of years, to the State Public Body for the improvements, services and facilities to be furnished by it for the benefit of said housing project, but in no event shall the amount of such payments exceed the estimated cost to the State Public Body of the improvements, services or facilities to be so furnished; provided, however, that the absence of a contract for such payments shall in no way relieve any State Public Body from the duty to furnish, for the benefit of aid housing project, customary improvements and such services and facilities as such State Public Body usually furnished without a service fee.

Loans to Housing Authority

Sec. 6. When any housing authority which is created for any city, becomes authorized to transact business and exercise its powers therein, the governing body of the city shall immediately make an estimate of the amount of money necessary for the administrative expenses and overhead of such housing authority during the first year thereafter, and shall appropriate such amount to the authority out of any moneys in such city treasury not appropriated to some other purposes. The moneys so appropriated shall be paid to the authority as a loan. Any city located in whole or in part within the area of operation of a housing authority shall have the power from time to time to lend money to the authority or to agree to take such action. The housing authority, when it has money available therefor, shall make reimbursements for all such loans made to it.

Procedure for Exercising Powers

Sec. 7. The exercise by a State Public Body of the powers herein granted may be authorized by resolution of the governing body of such State Public Body adopted by a majority of the members of its governing body present at a meeting of said governing body, which resolutions may be adopted at the meeting at which such resolution is introduced. Such a resolution or resolutions shall take effect immediately and need not be laid over or published or posted.

Notice of Proposed Action; Petitions and Election

Sec. 7-a. None of the actions named in this Act shall ever be consummated until the governing body of such state public body shall have given notice of its intention to enter into a cooperation agreement with a housing authority, such notice to be given by publishing a copy thereof in its officially designated newspaper, if it has one, at least twice; which notice shall state that at the expiration of sixty (60) days the governing body will consider the question of whether or not it will enter into a cooperation agreement. If, during such sixty-day period, there is presented to the governing body a petition that an election be held on the question of whether or not such governing body shall enter into such cooperation agreement, signed by two thousand (2,000) or five per cent (5%) in number of the qualified voters of said state public body, the governing body of said state public body shall order an election for the purpose of submitting a proposition for the approval of such "Housing Project". All qualified voters residing in such state public body shall be entitled to vote at such election, and if a majority of those voting at such election shall vote in favor of such cooperation agreement, the governing body shall then be authorized to execute such cooperation agreement.

In the event such governing body of a state public body fails or refuses to give notice of its intention to enter into a cooperation agreement with a "Housing Authority" or fails or refuses on its own motion to submit said proposition to the qualified voters of such state public body, as hereinabove provided, then upon the filing of a petition demanding same signed by two thousand (2,000) or five per cent (5%) in number of the qualified voters of said state public body, the governing body of said state public body shall order an election for the purpose of submitting a proposition for the approval of such "Housing Project". All qualified voters residing in such state public body shall be entitled to vote at such election, and if a majority of those voting at such election shall vote in favor of such cooperation agreement, the governing body shall then be authorized to execute such cooperation agreement; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not affect any actions taken or to be taken by a state public body with respect to a "Housing Project" for which a cooperation agreement as that term is defined by this Article has been executed prior to the effective date of this Act. The law pertaining to elections for the issuance of city and county bonds as contained in Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, insofar as applicable to and not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, shall govern the elections herein provided for.

Supplemental Nature of Act

Sec. 8. The powers conferred by this Act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law.
Sec. 2. If any part, Section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word contained in this Act shall be held by the courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have enacted, and does here now enact, such remaining portions despite any such invalidity.

Art. 1269/-1. Rent Control

Sec. 1. Rent control as established by the Act of the Eighty-first Congress of the United States, extending rent control for a period of fifteen (15) months from and after March 31, 1949, as further described in Housing and Rent Act of 1949, H.R. 1791, is hereby abolished in the State of Texas and is declared to be no longer needed in the State of Texas, and all Federal rent controls are hereby declared no longer needed in the State of Texas.

Sec. 1a. It is further provided however that the governing body of any city or town may, by ordinance duly passed, finding that a housing emergency exists, establish rent control in such city or town for the duration of such housing emergency provided that the ordinance so passed is approved by the Governor of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. If any part, Section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word contained in this Act shall be held by the courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have enacted, and does here now enact, such remaining portions despite any such invalidity.

Art. 1269/-2. State Department of Health; Planning and Assistance for Political Subdivisions; Acceptance of Federal Grants for Housing

The Texas State Department of Health is hereby authorized, upon the request of the governing body of any political subdivision or the authorized agency of any group of political subdivisions: (a) to arrange planning assistance (including surveys, community renewal plans, technical services, and other planning work) and to arrange for the making of a study or report upon any planning problem of any such political subdivision or political subdivisions submitted to the Department of Health; provided, however, that the employees of the State Department of Health shall not themselves make such surveys, studies, or reports; (b) to agree with such governing body or the agency of such governing bodies as to the amount, if any, to be paid to the State Department of Health for such service; and

(c) to apply for and accept grants from the Federal Government or other sources in connection with any such assistance, study, or report, and to contract with respect thereto. The regular functions of the Texas State Department of Health may be utilized in this program, provided that any additional employees shall be paid from sources other than General Revenue Funds of the State.

Art. 1269/-3. Urban Renewal Law

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the "Urban Renewal Law."

Findings and Declarations of Necessity

Sec. 2. It is hereby found and declared that there exist in cities of the State slum and blighted areas (as herein defined) which constitute a serious and growing menace, injurious and inimical to the public health, safety, morals and welfare of the residents of the State; that the existence of such areas contributes substantially and increasingly to the spread of disease and crime, necessitating excessive and disproportionate expenditures of public funds for the preservation of the public health and safety, for crime prevention, correction, prosecution, and punishment and for the treatment of juvenile delinquency and for the maintenance of adequate police, fire and accident protection and other public services and facilities, and that the existence of such areas constitutes an economic and social liability, substantially impairs or arrests the sound growth of such cities and retards the provision of housing accommodations; that the prevention and elimination of slum and blighted areas is a matter of State policy and State concern in order that the State and its cities shall not continue to be endangered by areas which are focal centers of disease, constitute pernicious environments for the young, and while contributing little to the tax income of the State and its cities, consume an excessive proportion of its revenues because of the extra services required for police, fire and other forms of protection; that by such prevention and elimination property values, freed from the depressing influence of blight, will be stabilized, and tax burdens will be distributed more equitably, and the financial and capital resources of the State, required for the prosperity of, and provision of necessary governmental services to, its people, will be strengthened; that this menace can best be remedied by conjunctive action of private enterprise, of the cities through the regulatory process and the exercise of other powers provided hereunder, and of other pub-lc bodies, acting pursuant to approved urban renewal plans; that the carrying out of plans for a program of voluntary or compulsory repair and rehabilitation of buildings and improvements in such areas, the public acquisition of real property and demolition or removal of buildings and improve-m ents where necessary to eliminate slum conditions or conditions of blight or to prevent the development, spread or recurrence of such conditions in such areas, the disposition of any property acquired in such areas incidental to the foregoing, and any assistance which may be given by any public body in connection therewith, are public uses and purposes for which public money may be expended and the power of eminent domain exercised; and that the necessity in the public interest for the provisions herein enacted is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination.

It is further found and declared that slum and blighted areas, if permitted to continue without the governmental aids herein provided, will produce the conditions and evils hereinabove enumerated; that a slum area or a badly deteriorated area may require clearance therefrom of the buildings and improvements thereon, as provided in this Act, since the prevailing condition of decay may make im practicable the reclamation of the area by rehabilitation; that a less deteriorated area, a deteriorating area, or an area blighted for other reasons may, through the means provided in this Act, be susceptible of rehabilitation in such manner that the conditions and evils hereinabove enumerated may be remedied or prevented; and that it is the intent of this Act that to the greatest extent feasible, and compatible with sound and enduring urban renewal objectives—to wit, eliminating slums and urban blight, preventing the spread or recurrence thereof, and remedying the physical causes thereof in terms of blighted properties—private enterprise shall, in the administration of this Act, be encouraged to carry out such objectives to the extent of its capacity to do so with the assistance of the aids herein provided.

Not Available for Public Housing; Exception; Election

Sec. 3. (a) No real property acquired under the provisions of this Act shall be sold, leased, granted, conveyed or otherwise made available for any public housing, except as provided in subsection (b) of this Section.

(b) Real property acquired under the provisions of this Act may be sold, leased, granted, conveyed or otherwise made available for public housing if an election is held at which a majority of the qualified electors voting approve that use of the property.
The election shall be called and held in the same way that an election is called and held under Section 5 of this Act, except that any qualified voter of the city may vote at the election. At the election, the ballots shall be printed to permit voting for or against the proposition: “Permitting the use of land acquired by urban renewal for public housing.”

(c) If the qualified voters of a city have approved the use of land acquired under this Act for public housing, an election may be called for the purpose of prohibiting the use of land of that type for public housing. The election shall be called and held in the same manner as an election held under subsection
(b) of this Section, except the ballots shall be printed to permit voting for or against the proposition: “Prohibiting the use of land acquired by urban renewal for public housing.” If a majority of the qualified electors voting favor prohibiting the use of land acquired by urban renewal for public housing, the prohibition contained in subsection (a) of this Section applies. An election which results in prohibiting the use of land acquired by urban renewal for public housing does not affect land which has been sold, leased, granted, conveyed or otherwise made available for public housing at the time of the election.

(d) When an election is held under this Section, no other election may be held under this Section in the same city for a period of one year.
Definitions

Sec. 4. The following terms wherever used or referred to in this Act, shall have the following meanings, unless a different meaning is clearly indicated by the context.

(a) "Agency" or "Urban Renewal Agency" shall mean a public agency created by Section 18 of this Act.

(b) "City" shall mean any incorporated city, town or village in the State of Texas.

(c) "Public body" shall mean the State of Texas or any political subdivision thereof, or any department, agency or instrumentality of any such public body.

(d) "City Council" shall mean the city council or other legislative body charged with governing the city.

(e) "Mayor" shall mean the mayor or other chief executive officer of a city.

(f) "Clerk" shall mean the clerk or other official of the city who is the custodian of the official records of such city.

(g) "Federal Government" shall include the United States of America or any agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States of America.

(h) "Slum Area" shall mean an area within a city in which there is a predominance of either residential or nonresidential buildings or improvements which are in a state of dilapidation, deterioration or obsolescence due to their age, or for other reasons; or an area in which inadequate provisions have been made for open spaces and which is thus conducive to high population densities and overcrowding of population; or an area of open land which, because of its location and/or situation within the city limits of a city, is necessary for sound community growth, by re-platting and planning and development, for predominantly residential uses; or an area in which conditions exist, due to any of the hereinabove named causes, or any combination thereof, which endanger life or property by fire or by other causes, or which is conducive to the ill-health of the inhabitants of the area or to the transmission of disease, and to the incidence of abnormally high rates of infant mortality, or which is conducive to abnormal high rates of crime and juvenile delinquency, or which is not conducive to an orderly development by reason of inadequate and/or improper platting with adequate lots for residential development of lots, streets and public utilities, and is thus an area which is detrimental to the public health, safety, morals or welfare of the city.

(i) "Blighted Area" shall mean an area (other than a slum area) which, by reason of the presence therein of slum or deteriorated or deteriorating residential or nonresidential buildings, structures, or improvements, or by reason of the predominance therein of defective or inadequate streets or defec-
Art. 12691-3  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

urban renewal area where necessary to remove or prevent the spread of blight or deterioration or to provide land for needed public facilities.

(l) "Urban Renewal Area" shall mean a slum area or a blighted area or a combination thereof, which the city council designates as appropriate for an urban renewal project.

(m) "Urban Renewal Plan" shall mean a plan for an urban renewal project, which plan (1) shall conform to the general plan of the city as a whole, except as provided in Section 7(l) of this Act and (2) shall be sufficiently complete to indicate zoning and planning changes, if any; building requirements; land uses; maximum densities; such land acquisition, redevelopment, rehabilitation, and demolition and removal of structures as may be proposed for the urban renewal area; and the plan's relationship to local objectives respecting public transportation, traffic conditions, public utilities, recreational and community facilities, and other improvements.

(n) "Real Property" shall include all lands, including improvements and fixtures thereon, and property of any nature appurtenant thereto, or used in connection therewith, and every estate, interest, right and use, legal or equitable, therein, including terms for years and liens by way of judgment, mortgage or otherwise.

(o) "Bonds" shall mean any bonds (including refunding bonds), notes, interim certificates, certificates of indebtedness, debentures or other obligations.

(p) "Obligee" shall include any bondholder, agents or trustees for any bondholders, or lessor demising to the city property used in connection with an urban renewal project, or any assignee or assignees of such lessor's interest or any part thereof, and the Federal Government when it is a party to any contract with the city.

(q) "Person" shall mean any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, joint stock association, or body politic; and shall include any trustee, receiver, assignee, or other person acting in a similar representative capacity.

(r) "Area of Operation" shall mean the area within the corporate limits of a city.

(s) "Board" or "Commission" shall mean a board, commission, department, division, office, body or other unit of the city through which the city elects, pursuant to Section 15 hereof, to perform powers, functions or duties under this Act.

(t) "Conservation" shall mean the preserving, protecting and keeping of an area which is susceptible to blight from succumbing to blight.

(u) "Deteriorated" shall mean the impairment as to quality, character, value or safety due to use, wear and tear or other physical causes.

(v) "Planning Commission" shall mean a planning commission established pursuant to law or charter.

(w) "Rehabilitate" shall mean to restore to a former state of solvency, efficiency or the like. "Rehabilitation" shall mean the restoration of buildings or structures in order to prevent deterioration of an area which is tending to become either a blighted or slum area.

(x) When this Act is applied to a county, "mayor" means county judge, "city council" means the commissioners court, and the "city" means county, unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(y) "Comptroller" means the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas.

(z) "Captured Market Value" means any amount by which the current market value of property within the boundaries of an urban renewal project area exceeds its market value at the time such urban renewal project was designated in accordance with the requirements of this Act.

(aa) "Taxable Property" means all real taxable property, but shall not include personal property or intangible property.

(bb) "Tax Assessor-Collector" means the tax assessor-collector of the municipality.

(cc) "Taxing Entity" means any governmental unit, including the State and its political subdivisions, but not including municipalities, authorized by law to levy taxes on property located within an urban renewal project area.

(dd) "Tax Increment" means that amount of property taxes levied and collected each year on property within an urban renewal project area in excess of the amount levied and collected on such property during the year prior to the date of adoption of the urban renewal project plan. A tax increment is calculated by multiplying the total in property taxes levied and collected by the municipality and all other taxing entities on the taxable property within an urban renewal project area in any year by a fraction having a numerator equal to that year's market value of property located within an urban renewal project area on the date of approval of the urban renewal project plan or to satisfy claims of holders of tax increment bonds issued with respect to such project.
Finding of Necessity; Powers of Counties

Sec. 5. (a) No city shall exercise any of the powers conferred upon cities by this Act until after the City Council shall have adopted a resolution, after giving notice and ordering an election on the question of whether the City Council shall adopt such resolution, finding that: (1) one or more slum or blighted areas exist in such city; and (2) the rehabilitation, conservation, or slum clearance and redevelopment, or a combination thereof, of such area or areas is necessary in the interest of public health, safety, morals or welfare of the residents of such city. Such notice shall be published at least twice in the newspaper officially designated by the City Council and shall state that on a date certain, which date shall be stated in the notice and shall be not less than sixty (60) days after the publication of the first of such notices, the City Council will consider the question of whether or not it will order an election to determine if it should adopt such a resolution. On the date specified in the notice to consider such question the City Council may, on its own motion, call an election to determine whether it shall adopt such a resolution and shall, in any event, call such election if there has been presented to it during such period a petition that such election be held, signed by at least five per cent (5%) of the legally qualified voters residing in such city and owning taxable property within the boundaries thereof, duly rendered for taxation. If it be determined to call such an election, at least thirty (30) day’s notice thereof shall be given. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, no powers granted by this Act shall be exercised by any city until an election shall have been held as herein provided with a majority of the votes cast at such election being cast in favor of the exercise of such powers by such city. Only qualified voters residing in said city, owning taxable property within the boundaries thereof, who have duly rendered the same for taxation, shall be entitled to vote at such election. If a majority of those voting at such election shall vote in favor of the adoption of such resolution, the City Council shall then be authorized to adopt it. If a majority of those voting at such election shall vote against the adoption of such resolution, the City Council shall not adopt it and such resolution shall not again be proposed within the period of one (1) year.

(b) Any county that has a population of more than 700,000, according to the last preceding federal census, may exercise all powers provided for cities under this Act. Those powers may be exercised only with respect to areas of the county not inside the corporate limits of a city or town. The county may not exercise any power under this Act unless the commissioners court adopts a resolution as provided in Subsection (a) of this section, the adoption of which has been first approved at an election. The election shall be held throughout the county in the same way an election is held in a city under Subsection (a) of this section. The adoption of a resolution is not approved unless a majority of the voters voting on the question in the entire county as well as in each incorporated city and town in the county approves adoption. In cities only partly in the county, only voters residing in the county may vote.

Alternate Method of Approval

Sec. 5a. Provisions in Section 5 to the contrary notwithstanding, any city which has not approved the exercise of urban renewal powers pursuant to Section 5 prior to the enactment of this Section may, in lieu of complying with Section 5, approve the exercise of urban renewal powers for a specific urban renewal project in the following manner:

(a) An election to approve an urban renewal project shall be called and held in the same manner that elections are called and hold under Section 5 of this Act. Only qualified voters residing in the city, who own taxable property within the boundaries thereof duly rendered for taxation, may vote at the election.

(b) The resolution calling the election and the notice of the election shall contain the following information:

(1) a complete legal description of the area included in the proposed project;

(2) a statement of the nature of the proposed project; and

(3) the total amount of local funds to be spent on the proposed project.

(c) The ballot proposition at the election need not contain a complete legal description of the area included in the project, but shall contain a general description of the area which is sufficient to give notice to the voters of where the proposed project is to be carried out. The proposition shall also contain a statement of the nature of the proposed project and the total amount of local funds to be spent on the project.

(d) If the ballot proposition is approved, the city may not exceed in any respect the limitations imposed on the project in the resolution calling the election with respect to the area, nature, or amount of local funds to be spent on the project. If the city desires to expand the project beyond any of those limitations, the proposed expansion must be approved at an election in the same manner as an original project.

(e) Voter approval is not required for preliminary planning of an urban renewal project.

(f) This Section shall not require any further elections, resolutions or actions of any city presently exercising the powers conferred by this Act. All elections, findings, actions, determinations, decisions, rules, regulations and conveyances of any city or agency exercising the powers conferred by this Act are hereby ratified, validated and confirmed; except such elections, findings, actions, determinations, decisions, rules, regulations or conveyances which are the subject of litigation pending at the time of enactment of this amendment.

Approval of Tax Increment Financing

Sec. 5a. A city may not use the tax increment method of financing prescribed by Sections 22a, 22b, 22c, and 22d of this Act unless a majority of the qualified voters of the city voting on the question, who own taxable property within the city that is duly rendered for taxation, approve that method of financing in an election held by the city. An election held under this section, the ballots shall provide for voting for or against the proposition: "Use of tax increment financing for urban renewal purposes." An election under this section may be held in conjunction with an election held under Section 5 or 5a of this Act. This referendum shall not be necessary if the constitutional amendment on tax increment financing is approved by the voters.

Workable Program

Sec. 6. A city, in furtherance of the urban renewal objectives of this Act, may formulate a workable program for utilizing appropriate private and public resources (including those specified in Section 8 hereof) to encourage needed urban rehabilitation, to provide for the redevelopment of slum and blighted areas, or to undertake such of the aforesaid activities or other feasible municipal activities as may be suitably employed to achieve the objective of such a workable program. Such workable program should include specifically, without limitation, provision for the prevention of the spread of blight into areas of the city which are free from blight, through diligent enforcement of housing and occupancy controls and standards; the rehabilitation or conservation of slum and blighted areas, in so far as it shall be practicable to convert them into areas free from blight, by replanning, removing congestion, providing parks, playgrounds and other public improvements, encouraging voluntary rehabilitation, and compelling the repair and rehabilitation of deteriorated or deteriorating structures; and the clearance and redevelopment of slum areas.

Preparation and Approval of Urban Renewal Plan

Sec. 7. (a) A city shall not prepare an urban renewal plan for an urban renewal area unless the City Council has, by resolution, determined such an area to be a slum area or a blighted area or a combination thereof, and designated such area as appropriate for an urban renewal project. The City Council shall not approve an urban renewal plan until a general plan for the city has been prepared. A city shall not acquire real property for an urban renewal project unless the City Council has approved the urban renewal plan in accordance with subsection (d) hereof.

(b) Any person or agency, public or private, may submit an urban renewal plan to the city. Prior to its approval of such an urban renewal plan, the City Council shall submit such proposed plan to the urban renewal agency and the planning commission of the city, if any, for review and recommendations as to its conformity with the general plan for the development of the city as a whole. The agency and planning commission shall submit their written recommendations with respect to the proposed urban renewal plan to the City Council within thirty (30) days after receipt of the plan for review. Upon receipt of such recommendations or, if no recommendations are received within said thirty (30) days, then without such recommendations, the City Council may proceed with the hearing on the proposed urban renewal plan prescribed by subsection (e) hereof.

(c) The City Council shall hold a public hearing on the proposed urban renewal plan before it may approve the urban renewal plan, after notice of hearing has been given by publication three (3) times in a newspaper having a general circulation in the city, the first of which notices shall be published at least thirty (30) days prior to the hearing. Such notice shall describe the time, date, place and purpose of the hearing, shall generally identify the urban renewal area and shall outline the general scope of the urban renewal project under consideration.

(d) Following such hearing, the City Council may approve an urban renewal plan if it finds that (1) a feasible method exists for the location of families or individuals who will be displaced from the urban renewal area in decent, safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations within their means and without undue hardship to such families or individuals; (2) the urban renewal plan conforms to the general plan of the city as a whole; and (3) the urban renewal plan will afford maximum opportunity, consistent with the sound needs of the city as a whole, for the rehabilitation or redevelopment of the urban renewal area by private enterprise.

(e) An urban renewal plan may be modified at any time; provided, that if modified after the lease or sale by the city of real property in the urban renewal project area, such modification shall be subject to such rights at law or in equity as a lessee or purchaser, or his successor or successors in interest, may be entitled to assert. If any proposed modification of the urban renewal plan adopted for an area should affect the street layout, land use, public utilities, zoning, if any, open space and density, then such modification shall not be made until it has been submitted to the planning commission and a report rendered to the City Council as outlined in subsection (b) hereof.

(f) Upon the approval of an urban renewal plan by the city, the provisions of said plan with respect to the future use and building requirements applicable to the property covered by said plan shall be controlling with respect thereto.

(g) In any urban renewal area or project, if there exists a building or buildings in good state of repair and so located that the building or buildings can be incorporated into the renewal project pattern or plan adopted for that area, such building or buildings shall not be acquired without the consent of the owner or owners; provided further that if any owner of property in such area agrees to use such property in a manner not inconsistent with the purposes of the urban renewal plan and the improvements on such property do not constitute a fire or health hazard, then such property shall not be subject to the powers of eminent domain. Any property owner shall have the right to contest before the City Council such powers of eminent domain as respects his individual ownership and shall have the right of appeal to the District Court with a trial de novo.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, where the local governing body certifies that an area is in need of redevelopment or rehabilitation as a result of a flood, fire, hurricane, earthquake, storm, or other catastrophe respecting which the Governor of the State has certified the need for disaster assistance under Public Law 875, Eighty-first Congress, or other Federal law, the local governing body may approve an urban renewal plan and an urban renewal project with respect to such area without regard to the provisions of subsection (d) of this Section and the provisions of this Act requiring a general plan for the municipality and a public hearing on the urban renewal project.

(i) Upon approval of an urban renewal plan by the city and approval of the tax increment method of financing as required under Section 5b of this Act, a fund, to be known as the “Tax-Increment Fund” shall be established by the adoption of a resolution by the City Council.

Encouragement of Private Enterprise

Sec. 8. A city, to the greatest extent it determines to be feasible in carrying out the provisions of this Act, shall afford maximum opportunity, consistent with the sound needs of the city as a whole, to the rehabilitation or redevelopment of the urban renewal area by private enterprise. A city shall give consideration to this objective in exercising its powers under this Act, including the formulation of a workable program, the approval of urban renewal plans (consistent with the general plan of the municipality), the exercise of its zoning powers, and enforcement of other laws, codes and regulations relating to the use of land and the use and occupancy of buildings and improvements, the disposition of any property acquired, and the provision of necessary public improvements.

Powers

Sec. 9. A city shall have all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this Act, including the following powers in addition to others herein granted:

(a) To conduct preliminary surveys to determine if the undertakings and carrying out of urban renewal projects is feasible.

(b) To undertake and carry out urban renewal projects within its area of operation.

(c) To make and execute contracts and other instruments necessary or convenient to the exercise of its powers under this Act.

(d) To provide or arrange or contract for the furnishing or repair by any person or agency, public or private, of services, privileges, works, streets, roads, public utilities or other facilities for or in connection with an urban renewal project; to install, construct and reconstitute streets, utilities, parks, playgrounds, and other public improvements necessary for carrying out urban renewal projects.

(e) To acquire by purchase, lease, option, gift, grant, or bequest, devise, eminent domain or otherwise, any real property (or personal property for its administrative purposes) together with any improvements thereon, necessary or incidental to an urban renewal project; to hold, improve, clear or prepare for redevelopment any such property; to mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or otherwise encumber or dispose of any real property; to insure or provide for the insurance of any real or personal property or operations of the city against any risks or hazards, including the power to pay premiums on any such insurance; and to enter into any contracts necessary to effectuate the purpose of this Act.

(f) To invest any urban renewal project funds held in reserves or sinking funds or any such funds not required for immediate disbursements, in property or securities in which banks may legally invest funds subject to their control; to redeem such bonds as have been issued pursuant to Section 15 of this Act at the redemption price established therein or to purchase such bonds at less than redemption price, all such bonds so redeemed or purchased to be cancelled.

(g) To borrow money and to apply for and accept advances, loans, grants, contributions and any other form of financial assistance from the Federal Government, the State, County or other public body or from any sources, public or private, for the purposes of this Act, and to give such security as may be required and to enter into and carry out contracts in connection therewith. A city may include in any contract for financial assistance with the Federal Government for an urban renewal project such provisions and conditions imposed pursuant to Federal Law as the city may deem reasonable and appropriate and which are not inconsistent with the purposes of this Act.

(h) Within its area of operation, to make or have made all plans necessary to the carrying out of the purposes of this Act and to contract with any person, public or private, in making and carrying out such plans and to adopt or approve, modify and amend such plans. The city is authorized to develop, test and report methods and techniques and carry out demonstrations and other activities, for the prevention and the elimination of slums and urban blight, and to apply for, accept and utilize grants of funds from the Federal Government for such purposes.

(i) To prepare plans and provide reasonable assistance for the relocation of persons (including families, business concerns, and others) displaced from an urban renewal project area to the extent essential for acquiring possession of and clearing such area or parts thereof to permit the carrying out of the urban renewal project.

(j) To appropriate such funds and make such expenditures as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act, and to levy taxes and assessments for such purposes; to close, vacate, plan or replan streets, roads, sidewalks, ways or other places; to plan or replan, zone or rezone any part of the city and to make exceptions from building regulations; and to enter into agreements with an urban renewal agency vested with urban renewal powers under Section 15 of this Act (which agreements may extend over any period, notwithstanding any provision or rule or law to the contrary), restricting action to be taken by such city pursuant to any of the powers granted by this Act; provided, however, that no taxes or assessments shall be levied under authority or for the purposes of this Act unless and until such levy shall first have been submitted to a vote of the property-owning taxpayers of said city, and said proposition shall have received a majority of the votes cast as being "for" such levy.

(k) Within its area of operation to organize, coordinate and direct the administration of the provisions of this Act as they apply to such city in order that the objective of remedying slum and blighted areas and preventing the causes thereof within such city may be most effectively promoted and achieved, and to establish such new office or offices of the city or to reorganize existing offices in order to carry out such purpose most effectively.

(l) To issue tax increment bonds.

(m) To exercise all or any part or combination of powers herein granted.

Eminent Domain

Sec. 10. A city shall have the right to acquire by condemnation any interest in any real property, including a fee simple title thereto, which it may deem necessary for or in connection with an urban renewal project under this Act; provided, however, that if any such urban renewal project shall include a "slum clearance and redevelopment section," as that term is hereinafter defined, which section a city shall propose to clear for redevelopment and re-use other than for a public use, a city may not acquire by condemnation any such "slum clearance and redevelopment section" or portion thereof, unless it shall appear, and the City Council shall have found and determined, by resolution duly adopted, that the rehabilitation of such section without clearance would be impractical, infeasible and ineffective, based upon its finding that at least fifty per cent (50%) of the structures in such section are dilapidated beyond the point of feasible rehabilitation, or are otherwise unfit for rehabilitation, and that there exist other blighting characteristics, such as overcrowding of structures on the land, mixed uses of structures, narrow, crooked, inconvenient, congested, unsafe or otherwise deficient streets, and/or deficiencies in public utilities or recreational and community facilities. A city may exercise the power of eminent domain in the manner provided in Articles 3264 to 3271, both inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1923, and acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. Property already devoted to a public use may be acquired in like manner; provided, that no real property belonging to the State, or any political subdivision thereof, may be acquired without its consent. The term "slum clearance and redevelopment section," as that term is used in this Section, shall be construed as meaning, and shall mean, any substantial contiguous part or portion of an urban renewal area which a city shall propose to acquire and clear of all buildings, structures and other improvements thereon for redevelopment and reuse in accordance with the urban renewal plan.

Relocation of Transmission Lines, Etc.

Sec. 10a. In the event any city or urban renewal agency or other public body, in exercising any of the powers conferred by this Act, makes necessary the relocation, raising, re-routing or changing the grade of or altering the construction of any railroad, electric transmission line, telephone or telegraph property or facility, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, re-routing, changing of grade or alteration of construction, shall be accomplished at the expense of the city, urban renewal agency or other public body making the same necessary.

Disposal of Property in Urban Renewal Area

Sec. 11. (a) A city may sell, lease, or otherwise transfer real property or any interest therein acquired by it, and may enter into contracts with respect thereto, in an urban renewal area for residential, recreational, commercial, industrial or other uses or for public use, or may retain such property or interest for public use, in accordance with the urban renewal plan, subject to such covenants, conditions, and restrictions, including covenants running with the land, as it may deem to be in the public interest or necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act, all of which shall be written into the instrument transferring or conveying titles; provided, that such sale, lease, other transfer, or retention or any agreement relating thereto may be made only after approval of the urban renewal plan by the City Council. The purchasers or lessees and their successors and assigns shall be obligated to devote such real property only to the uses specified in the urban renewal plan, and may be obligated to comply with conditions enumerated in the deed of conveyance, including the obligation to begin within a reasonable time any improvements on such real property required by the urban renewal plan. Such real property or interest shall be sold, leased, otherwise transferred, or retained at not less than the fair value for uses in accordance with the urban renewal area, and to determine what the fair value of real property for uses in accordance with the urban renewal plan, a city shall take into account and give consideration to the uses provided in such plan; the restrictions upon, and the covenants, conditions, and obligations assumed by any bona fide lessees or transferees or successors in title as the case may be. The city or renewal agency shall have the right to accept the highest and best responsible bid and the purchase price must be paid in cash. If the city or agency shall be of the opinion that the bids are not satisfactory in adequacy of price, or bid, they may reject all and readvertise; provided, however, that the agency will not make a sale of any property unless the price and conditions are approved by the governing body of the city. It is the declared policy of this Act that any real estate acquired in connection with an urban renewal and rehabilitation project shall be sold by the city or urban renewal agency within a reasonable length of time for purposes applicable to each project, save and except that land the city will retain for the use of the general public for any other purposes. Land which is resold shall be resold within a reasonable time, taking into account the general economic condition at that time.

(c) Any real estate except real property not fit for human habitation or real property declared substandard by any governmental agency, acquired in an urban renewal area may be temporarily leased by the city, provided that any such temporary lease shall provide for the right of cancellation so that the city may sell or dispose of the property for the purposes intended by this Act.

(d) Any real property acquired under the terms of this Act which is not, within a reasonable length of time, devoted to a purpose or purposes applicable to the urban renewal project for which it was acquired, may, after notice, be repurchased by the former owner, any building or buildings placed or allowed to remain on such land, unless the land be devoted to such purpose or purposes within sixty (60) days after such former owner shall have given the record owner and the city in writing of his intention to exercise his right of repurchase; provided, that after such repurchase by such former owner, any building or buildings placed or allowed to remain on such property shall be made to conform to the pattern and intent of the urban renewal project if and when it is carried out.

(e) Any purchaser, lessee, or subsequent purchaser or lessee referred to above as private developers of any portion of the lands acquired under this Act is expressly authorized to give said lands as security for loans for the purpose of financing the development of the property. Such purchasers and lessees are expressly authorized to execute and deliver to any lenders, notes, deeds of trust with powers of sale, mortgages and any other instruments which may be required in connection with obtaining and securing the repayment of such loans, it being the intention of this section that purchasers, and lessees of such lands have all the rights, titles and incidents of ownership thereto which are enjoyed by purchasers and lessees of lands generally, and that as such

Improvements made by such public body in exercising the powers granted in this Section; (3) do any and all things necessary to aid or co-operate in the planning or carrying out of an urban renewal plan; (4) lend, grant or contribute funds to a city; (5) enter into agreements which may extend over any period notwithstanding any provision or rule of law to the contrary with a city or other public body respecting action to be taken by such public body pursuant to any of the powers granted by this Act, including the furnishing of funds or other assistance in connection with an urban renewal project; and (6) cause public buildings and public facilities, including parks, playgrounds, recreational, community, educational, water, sewer, or drainage facilities, or any other work or object which it is otherwise empowered to undertake to be furnished; furnish, dedicate, pave, install, grade, regrade, plan or re-plan streets, roads, sidewalks, ways or other places; plan or replan, zone or rezone any part of the public body or make exceptions from building regulations; and cause administrative and other services to be furnished to the city. If at any time title to or possession of any urban renewal project is held by the Federal Government, the provisions of the agreement referred to shall inure to the benefit of and may be enforced by the Federal Government. As used in this subsection, the term "city" shall also include an urban renewal agency vested with all of the urban renewal project powers pursuant to the provisions of Section 15.

(b) Any sale, conveyance, lease or agreement provided for in this Section may be made by and between public bodies without appraisal, public notice, advertisement or public bidding.

(c) For the purpose of aiding in the planning, undertaking or carrying out of an urban renewal project of an urban renewal agency hereunder, a city (in addition to its other powers and upon such terms, with or without consideration, as it may determine) may do and perform any or all of the actions or things which, by the provisions of subsection (a) of this Section, a public body is authorized to do or perform, including the furnishing of financial and other assistance.

(d) For the purpose of the Section or for the purpose of aiding in the planning, undertaking or carrying out of an urban renewal project of a city, such city may in addition to any authority to issue bonds pursuant to Section 15 hereof, issue and sell its general obligation bonds. Any bonds issued by a city pursuant to this Section shall be in the manner and within the limitations prescribed by the laws of this State for the issuance and authorization of bonds by such city for public purposes generally.

Title of Purchaser

Sec. 14. Any instrument executed by a city or by an urban renewal agency and purporting to convey any right, title or interest in any property under this Act shall be conclusively presumed to have been executed in compliance with the provi-such property is concerned.

Exercise of Powers in Carrying Out Urban Renewal Project

Sec. 15. (a) A city itself may exercise its urban renewal project powers (as herein defined) or may, if the City Council by resolution determines such action to be in the public interest, elect to have such powers exercised by an urban renewal agency created by Section 16 hereof. In the event the City Council makes such determination, the urban renewal agency shall be vested with all of the urban renewal project powers in the same manner as though all such powers were conferred on such agency instead of the city. If the City Council does not elect to make such determination, the city in its discretion may exercise its urban renewal project powers through a board or commission or through such officers of the city as the City Council may by resolution determine.

(b) As used in this Section, the term "urban renewal project powers" shall include the rights, powers, functions and duties of a city under this Act, except the following: the power to determine an area to be a slum or blighted area or combination thereof and to designate such area as appropriate for an urban renewal project; the power to approve and amend urban renewal plans and to hold any public hearings required with respect thereto; the power to establish a general plan for the locality as a whole; the power to establish a workable program under Section 6; the power to make the determinations and findings provided for in Section 7(d) and Section 8; the power to issue general obligation bonds; and the power to appropriate funds, to levy taxes and assessments, and to exercise other powers provided for in Section 9(j).

(c) In the event the City elects to create an urban renewal agency under the terms of this Act, no renewal or rehabilitation project shall be undertaken by the agency unless the area proposed to be a renewal or rehabilitation area and the plan of improvement of the project area is approved by the governing body of such city.

(d) An urban renewal agency created by Section 16 hereof, shall, in addition to all other powers which may be vested in it, have power to issue bonds from time to time in its discretion to finance the undertaking of any urban renewal project under this Act, including, without limiting the generality thereof, the payment of principal and interest upon any advances for surveys and plans, and shall also have power to issue refunding bonds for the payment or retirement of such bonds previously issued by it. Such bonds shall be made payable, as to both principal and interest, solely from the income, proceeds, revenues, and funds of the urban renewal agency derived from or held in connection with its undertaking and carrying out of urban renewal projects under this Act; provided, however, that payment of such bonds, both as to principal and interest, may be further secured by a pledge of any loan, grant or contribution from the Federal Government or other source, in aid of any urban renewal projects of the urban renewal agency under this Act, and by a mortgage of any such urban renewal projects, or any part thereof, title to which is in the urban renewal agency. Bonds issued under this Section of this Act shall not constitute an indebtedness of the State of Texas or any county or political subdivision of such state other than the issuing urban renewal agency, and shall not be subject to the provisions of any other law relating to the authorization, issuance or sale of bonds. Bonds issued under this Section of this Act are declared to be issued for an essential public and governmental purpose and, together with interest thereon and income therefrom, shall be exempt from all taxes. Bonds issued under this Section shall be authorized by resolution or ordinance of the governing body of the urban renewal agency and may be issued in one or more series and shall bear such date or dates, be payable upon demand or mature at such time or times, bear interest at such rates or rate, not exceeding six per centum (6%) per annum, be in such denomination or denominations, be in such form either coupon or registered, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption (with or without premium), be secured in such manner, and have such other characteristics, as may be provided by such resolution or trust indenture or mortgage issued pursuant thereto. Such bonds may be sold at not less than par at public sales held after notice published prior to such sale in a newspaper having a general circulation in the area of operation and in such other medium of publication as the urban renewal agency may determine or may be exchanged for other bonds on the basis of par; provided, that such bonds may be sold to the Federal Government at private sale at not less than par and, in the event the less than all of the authorized principal amount of such bonds is sold to the Federal Government, the balance may be sold at private sale at not less than par at an interest cost to the urban renewal agency of not to exceed the interest cost to the urban renewal agency of the portion of the bonds sold to the Federal Government. In case any of the officials of the urban renewal agency whose signatures appear on any bonds or coupons issued under this Act shall cease to be such officials before the delivery of such bonds, such signatures shall, nevertheless, be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if such officials had remained in office until such delivery. Any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be fully negotiable. In any suit, action or proceeding involving the validity or enforceability of any bond issued under this Act or the security therefor, any such bond reciting in substance that it has been issued by the urban renewal agency in connection with an urban renewal project, as herein defined, shall be conclusively deemed to have been issued for such purposes and such project shall be conclusively deemed to have been planned, located and carried out in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(e) All banks, trust companies, bankers, savings banks and institutions, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking or investment business; all insurance companies, insurance associations, and other persons carrying on an insurance business; and all executors, administrators, curators, trustees, and other fiduciaries, may legally invest any sinking funds, moneys, or other funds belonging to them or within their control in any bonds or other obligations issued by an urban renewal agency pursuant to this Act; provided that such bonds and other obligations shall be secured by an agreement between the issuer and the Federal Government in which the issuer agrees to borrow from the Federal Government and the Federal Government agrees to lend to the issuer, prior to the maturity of such bonds or other obligations, moneys in an amount which (together with any other moneys irrevocably committed to the payment of interest on such bonds or other obligations) will suffice to pay the principal of such bonds or other obligations with interest to maturity thereon, which moneys under the terms of said agreement are required to be used for the purpose of paying the principal of and the interest on such bonds or other obligations at their maturity. Such bonds and other obligations shall be authorized security for all public deposits. It is the purpose of this Section to authorize any persons, political subdivisions and officers, public or private, to use any funds owned or controlled by them for the purchase of any such bonds or other obligations. Nothing contained in this Section with regard to legal investments shall be construed as relieving any person of any duty of exercising reasonable care in selecting securities.

Urban Renewal Agency

Sec. 16. (a) There is hereby created in each city a public body corporate and politic to be known as the "urban renewal agency" of the city; provided, that such agency shall not transact any business or exercise its powers hereunder until or unless the City Council has made the findings prescribed in Section 5 and has elected to have the urban renewal project powers exercised by an urban renewal agency as provided in Section 15, and has submitted such proposition to a vote of the people of said city, and received a favorable vote thereon, as provided in Section 5 of this Act.

(b) If an urban renewal agency is created by the city under this Act to exercise the powers of this Act, the mayor, by and with the advice and consent of the City Council, shall appoint a board of commissioners of the urban renewal agency which shall consist of not less than five (5) members nor more than nine (9) members who shall serve for two (2) years. The commissioners shall designate one of their number to serve as Chairman and one as Vice-chairman, for terms of one (1) year, respectively. A commissioner must be a resident citizen of the city and a real property owner. The actual number of commissioners of the urban renewal agency shall be determined by the City Council at the time of appointment and the number may not be increased or decreased more than once every two (2) years. At the time of their original appointment, a bare majority of the commissioners shall be designated to serve for one (1) year and the remaining for two (2) years, respectively. In the event of a vacancy caused by death, removal from the city or any valid cause, such vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment but only for the unexpired term. A commissioner shall hold office until his successor has been appointed and has qualified.

(c) A commissioner shall receive no compensation for his services but shall be entitled to the necessary expenses, including traveling expenses, incurred in the discharge of his duties. A certificate of the appointment or re-appointment of each commissioner shall be filed with the clerk of the city and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper appointment of such commissioner. A majority of the commissioners shall constitute a quorum; provided, however, that if the agency is composed of five (5), seven (7) and nine (9) members, respectively, any action to be valid must be adopted or rejected by a vote of a majority of the total commissioners of the agency. An urban renewal agency may employ an executive director, technical experts and such other agents and employees, permanent and temporary, as it may require, and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation. For such legal service as it may require, an agency may employ or retain its own counsel and legal staff. An agency authorized to conduct business and exercise powers under this Act shall file with the city on or before March 31st of each year a report of its activities for the preceding calendar year, or quarterly if requested by the City Council. Said report shall include a complete financial statement by the agency setting forth its assets, liabilities, income and operating expense as of the end of such calendar year. At the time of filing the report, the agency shall publish a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the city that such report has been filed with the city and that the report is available for inspection during business hours in the office of the city secretary and in the office of the agency.

(d) For inefficiency or neglect of duty or misconduct in office, a commissioner may be removed by the City Council only after a hearing and after he shall have been given a copy of the charges at least ten (10) days prior to such hearing and have had an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel.
Sec. 17. In all suits brought to review, modify, suspend, or satisfy rules, orders, decisions, or other acts of the City Council, or other agency, the trial shall be de novo, as that term is used and understood in an appeal from a Justice of the Peace Court to the County Court. In such de novo trials, no presumption of validity or reasonableness or presumption of any character shall be indulged in favor of any such order, rule or regulation, nor shall evidence as to the validity or reasonableness thereof be heard, and the determination in respect thereto shall be made upon facts found therein, as in other civil cases, and the procedure for such trials and the determination of the orders and judgments to be entered therein shall be governed solely by the rules of law, evidence and procedure prescribed for the courts of this State by its Constitution, statutes and rules of procedure applicable to the trial of civil actions. It is the intent of the Legislature that such trial shall be strictly de novo and that the decision in each such case shall be made independently of any action taken by any Board, upon the preponderance of the evidence adduced at such trial and entirely free of the so-called "substantial evidence" rule enunciated by the courts in respect to orders of other administrative or quasi-judicial agencies.

Interested Public Officials, Commissioners or Employees

Sec. 18. No public official or employee of a city (or board or commission thereof) and no commissioner or employee of an urban renewal agency which has been vested with urban renewal powers under Section 15 hereof, shall voluntarily acquire any interest, direct or indirect, in any urban renewal project area or in any property included or planned to be included in any urban renewal project of such city or in any contract or proposed contract in connection with such urban renewal project. Where such acquisition is not voluntary, the interest acquired shall be immediately disclosed in writing to the City Council and such disclosure shall be entered upon the minutes of the City Council. Such official or employee shall then, within three (3) months after such involuntary acquisition, either resign his position, or divest himself of his interest in such urban renewal project. If any such official, commissioner or employee shall own or control or shall have owned or controlled within the preceding two (2) years, any interest, direct or indirect, in any property which he knows is included or planned to be included in any urban renewal project, he shall immediately disclose this fact in writing to the City Council, and such disclosure shall be entered upon the minutes of the City Council, and any such official, commissioner or employee shall not participate in any action by the City (or board or commission thereof), or urban renewal agency affecting such property. Any disclosure required to be made by this Section to the City Council shall concurrently be made to any urban renewal agency which has been vested with urban renewal project powers by the city pursuant to the provisions of Section 15. No commissioner or other officer of any urban renewal agency, board or commission exercising powers pursuant to this Act shall hold any other public office under the city other than his commission or office with respect to such urban renewal agency, board or commission. Any violation of the provisions of this Section shall constitute misconduct in office.

Separability of Provisions

Sec. 19. Notwithstanding any other evidence of legislative intent, it is hereby declared to be the controlling legislative intent that if any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provisions to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

Inconsistent Provisions

Sec. 20. In so far as the provisions of this Act are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall be controlling but shall not repeal any charter provision of any home rule city which provides for the same purposes set forth in this Act and shall be considered cumulative of the powers of the cities.

Additional Conferred Powers

Sec. 21. The powers conferred by this Act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred upon cities by any provision of the Constitution of Texas, the general laws of the State of Texas, or by the charters of home rule cities of the State of Texas.

Right to Repurchase

Sec. 22. Provided, however, the original owner from which property was acquired hereunder by condemnation or through the threat of condemnation, shall have the first right to repurchase at the price at which same shall be offered.

Computation of Tax Increments

Sec. 22a. (a) For purposes of this Act, the market value of property located within an urban renewal project area shall be determined by the tax assessor-collector, and only the tax assessor-collector, during the time such project exists. Provided, however, that such determination shall require the concurrence of the comptroller; and provided, further, that any property owner aggrieved by a determination of the tax assessor-collector shall have the same right of appeal provided by law to owners of property not affected by this Act.

(b) At the time an urban renewal project is designated by the governing body, the tax assessor-collector shall, with the concurrence of the comptroller, certify to the governing body the market value of property within the boundaries of such district.

Property taxable at the time the urban renewal project was designated shall be deemed subject to taxation as such, but the tax assessor-collector shall not be required to assess and collect such tax until the expiration of the period specified in Section 22c, and said tax shall be collected without any abatement or allowance therefor. Provided, however, that if the period of time for which such property is taxable as such is less than the period specified in Section 22c, the tax assessor-collector shall be required to assess and collect such tax on a prorata basis for the period for which such property is taxable as such, and said tax shall be collected without any abatement or allowance therefor.
Art. 12691-3

project is designated shall be included at its most recently determined market value; property exempt from taxation at the time the redevelopment district was designated shall be included at zero.

(c) The tax assessor-collector shall, within one year of the time an urban renewal project is designated, and annually thereafter, certify to the governing body the amount of the captured market value of property within the boundaries of the district and the amount of tax increments produced from such captured market value.

(d) For any years in which taxes are to be paid into the tax increment fund required under Subsection (b), Section 7 of this Act, any captured market value with respect to an urban renewal project shall not be considered by any taxing entity in computing any debt limitation or for any other purpose except in determining the amount to be paid into the tax increment fund.

Allocation of Tax Collections and Tax Increments

Sec. 22b. (a) For purposes of this Act, the tax assessor-collector shall have the sole authority and tax increments in the manner required by this Act.

(b) Commencing with the first payment of taxes levied by the city or other taxing entity subsequent to the time an urban renewal project is designated, receipts from such taxes shall be allocated and paid over as follows:

(1) There shall first be allocated and paid over in such amounts as belong to each respectively, to the city and all other taxing entities on property located within an urban renewal project and for allocating taxing and tax increments in the manner required by this Act.

(2) There shall next be deposited into the tax increment fund established for such project all tax increments produced from the captured market value of property located within the project.

Tax Increment Bonds

Sec. 22c. (a) A city shall, in addition to any other powers vested in it, have the power to issue tax increment bonds, the proceeds of which may be used to pay redevelopment costs with respect to the urban renewal project on behalf of which the bonds were issued or to satisfy claims of holders of such bonds. Upon approval of two-thirds of the resident property taxpayers who are qualified electors of the city, such city shall also have the power to issue refunding bonds for the payment or retirement of tax increment bonds previously issued by it. Such tax increment bonds shall be made payable, as to both principal and interest, solely from tax increments allocated to and paid into the tax increment fund established by the city in accordance with this Act, or from any private sources, or contributions or other financial assistance from the State or United States Government, or by any combination of these methods.

(b) Tax increment bonds issued under this Act, together with interest thereon and income therefrom, shall be exempt from all taxes. The period of maturity of tax increment bonds is limited to a maximum of 20 years from the date of issuance. Bonds issued under this Act shall be authorized by resolution or ordinance of the governing body and may be issued in one or more series, and shall bear such date or dates, be payable upon demand or mature at such time or times, bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denomination or denominations, be in such form either coupon or registered, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption (with or without premium), be secured in such manner, and have such other characteristics, as may be provided by such resolution or trust indenture or mortgage issued pursuant thereto. Such bonds may be sold at not less than par at public sales held after notice published prior to such sale in a newspaper having a general circulation in the city and in such other medium of publication as the governing body may determine or may be exchanged for other bonds on the basis of par. Any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be fully negotiable. In any suit, action or proceeding involving the validity or enforceability of any bond issued under this Act or the security therefor, any such bond reciting in substance that it has been issued for such purposes and the urban renewal project shall be conclusively deemed to have been issued for such purposes and the urban renewal project shall be conclusively deemed to have been planned, located and carried out in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(c) All banks, trust companies, bankers, savings banks and institutions, buildings and loan associations, savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking or investment business; all insurance companies, insurance associations, and other persons carrying on an insurance business; and all executors, administrators, curators, trustees, and other fiduciaries, may legally invest any sinking funds, moneys, or other funds belonging to them or within their control in any tax increment bonds issued by a city pursuant to this Act. Such bonds shall be authorized security for all public deposits. Any persons, political subdivisions and officers, public or private, are authorized to use any funds owned or controlled by them for the purchase of any such bonds. Nothing in this Act with regard to legal investments shall be construed as relieving any person of any duty of exercising reasonable care in selecting securities.
(d) Tax increment bonds shall be payable only out of the tax increment fund created pursuant to Subsection (i), Section 7 of this Act. The City Council may irrevocably pledge all or a part of such fund for the payment of such bonds or notes. Such fund or the designated part thereof may thereafter be used only for the payment of such bonds and interest thereon until the same have been fully paid; and a holder of such bonds or of any coupons appertaining thereto shall have a lien against such fund for payment of such bonds or notes and interest thereon and may either at law or in equity protect and enforce such lien.

(e) To increase the security and marketability of tax increment bonds, the city may create a lien for the benefit of the bondholders upon any public improvements or public works financed thereby or the revenues therefrom, or make such covenants and do any and all such acts as may be necessary or convenient or desirable in order to additionally secure such bonds or tend to make the bonds more marketable according to the best judgment of the City Council.

(f) Moneys shall be disbursed from the tax increment fund only to satisfy the claims of holders of tax increment bonds issued in aid of the urban renewal project with respect to which the fund was established, or to pay project costs. “Project costs” means any expenditure made or estimated to be made or monetary obligations incurred or estimated to be incurred by the city which are listed in an urban renewal project, plus any costs incidental thereto, diminished by any income or revenues other than tax increments, received or reasonably expected to be received by the city in connection with the implementation of such plan. Such project costs include, but are not limited to:

1. Capital costs, including, but not limited to, the actual costs of the construction of public works or improvements, new buildings, structures, and fixtures; the demolition, alteration, remodeling, repair or reconstruction of existing buildings, structures and fixtures; the acquisition of equipment; and the clearing and grading of land;

2. Financing costs, including, but not limited to, all interest paid to holders of tax increment bonds issued to pay for project costs and any premium paid over the principal amount thereof because of the redemption of such obligations prior to maturity;

3. Professional service costs, including, but not limited to, costs incurred for architectural, planning, engineering or legal services;

4. Imputed administrative costs, including, but not limited to, reasonable charges for the time spent by employees of the city in connection with the implementation of an urban renewal plan; or

5. Organizational costs, including, but not limited to, the cost of conducting studies and the cost of informing the public with respect to the creation of urban renewal projects and the implementation of project plans.

(g) Subject to any agreement with the holders of tax increment bonds, moneys in a tax increment fund may be temporarily invested in the same manner as other municipal funds.

(h) After all project costs and all tax increment bonds issued with respect to an urban renewal project have been paid or the payment thereof provided for, and subject to any agreement with bondholders, if there remain in such fund any moneys, they shall be paid over to the city and other taxing entities levying taxes on property within such project in such amounts as belong to each respectively.

(i) Tax increment bonds issued under this Act shall not be general obligations of the city, nor in any event shall they give rise to a charge against its general credit or taxing powers, or be payable other than as provided by this Act; and any tax increment bonds issued under this Act shall so state on their face.

(j) Tax increment bonds issued under this Act shall not be included in any computation of the debt of the issuing city.

(k) Tax increment bonds may not be issued in an amount exceeding the aggregate costs of implementing the urban renewal plan for the project in aid of which they were issued, and such bonds shall mature over a period not exceeding twenty (20) years from the date thereof.

Annual Report

Sec. 22d. (a) On or before July 1 each year, the City Council shall submit to the chief executive officer of every taxing entity a report on the status of such district. The report shall include the following information:

1. The amount and source of revenue in the tax increment fund established in accordance with the requirements of this Act;

2. The amount and purpose of expenditures from the fund;

3. The amount of principal and interest due on any outstanding bonded indebtedness;

4. The tax incremental base and the current captured market value retained by the project; and

5. The captured market value shared by the city and other taxing entities, the total in tax increments received, and any additional information necessary to demonstrate compliance with the tax increment financing plan adopted by the City Council.

(b) On or before July 1 of each year, the City Council shall cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city a statement showing:

1. The tax increment received and expended during the previous year;
Art. 1269I-3  CITIES, TOWNS

(2) the original market value and captured market value of all property located within the urban renewal project;

(3) the amount in outstanding indebtedness incurred in aid of the urban renewal project; and

(4) any additional information the City Council deems necessary.

Section 6 of the 1977 amendatory act provided:

"Except to the extent otherwise specifically provided in this Act, if any provision of this Act or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 1269I-4. Community Development Act of 1975

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the "Texas Community Development Act of 1975."

Public Purposes

Sec. 2. It is hereby found and declared that the activities specified in this Act contribute to the development of viable urban communities by providing decent housing and a suitable living environment, and by expanding economic opportunities for persons of low and moderate income in that the activities are directed toward the following specific objectives:

(a) the elimination of slums and blight and the prevention of blighting influences and the deterioration of property and neighborhood and community facilities of importance to the welfare of the community;

(b) the elimination of conditions that are detrimental to the public health, safety, and welfare;

(c) the expansion and improvement of the quantity and quality of community services that are essential for the development of viable urban communities;

(d) a more rational use of land and other natural resources, the better arrangement of residential, commercial, industrial, recreational, and other needed activity centers, and the restoration and preservation of properties of special value for historic, architectural, or aesthetic reasons;

(e) the reduction of the isolation of income groups in communities and geographical areas and the promotion of an increase in the diversity and vitality of neighborhoods through the spatial deconcentration of housing opportunities for persons of low and moderate income and the revitalization of deteriorating or deteriorated neighborhoods to attract persons of higher income; and

(f) the alleviation of physical and economic distress through the stimulation of private investment and community revitalization in slum or blighted areas.

Definitions

Sec. 3. In this Act:

(a) "Community Development Program" means a planned and publicized program of work or activities designed to:

(1) improve the living and economic conditions of primarily low and moderate income persons;

(2) benefit low or moderate income neighborhoods;

(3) aid in the prevention or elimination of slums or blight; or

(4) aid or assist any federally assisted new community or meet other community development needs having a particular urgency, including any of the activities or functions specified for a community development program under this Act including federally assisted new communities.

(b) "Governing body" means the governing body of any municipality in this state.

(c) "Municipality" means any city, town, or village incorporated under the laws of this state.

Powers of Municipalities; Limitations

Sec. 4. (a) Any municipality is hereby authorized to implement a community development program upon adoption by the governing body of an ordinance or resolution enacting the same.

(b) A community development program implemented by any municipality may include the following activities:

(1) the acquisition of real property, including air rights, water rights, and other interests therein which is blighted, deteriorated, deteriorating, undeveloped, or inappropriately developed from the standpoint of sound community development and growth; appropriate for rehabilitation or conservation activities; appropriate for the preservation or restoration of historic sites, the beautification of urban land, the conservation of open spaces, natural resources, and scenic areas, the provision of recreational opportunities or the guidance of urban development; to be used for the provision of public works, facilities, and improvements eligible for assistance under this Act, or to be used for other public purposes;
(2) the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, or installation of public works, facilities, and sites or other improvements, including neighborhood facilities, senior centers, historic properties, utilities, streets, street lights, water and sewer facilities, foundations and platforms for air rights sites, pedestrian malls and walkways and parks, playgrounds, and recreation facilities, flood and drainage facilities, and parking facilities, solid waste disposal facilities, and fire protection services and facilities which are located in or which serve designated community development areas;

(3) code enforcement in deteriorated or deteriorating areas in which such enforcement, together with public improvements and services to be provided, may be expected to arrest the decline of the area;

(4) clearance, demolition, removal, and rehabilitation of buildings and improvements, including assistance and financing public or private acquisition for rehabilitation and the rehabilitation of privately owned properties when incidental to other activities;

(5) special projects directed to the removal of material and architectural barriers which restrict the mobility and accessibility of elderly and handicapped persons;

(6) payments to housing owners for losses of rental income incurred in holding for temporary periods housing units to be utilized for the relocation of individuals and families displaced by program activities under this Act;

(7) disposition, through sale, lease, donation or otherwise, of any real property acquired pursuant to this Act or its retention for public purposes;

(8) provision of public services not otherwise available in areas where other activities authorized under this Act are being carried out, if such services are determined to be necessary or appropriate to support such other activities, and/or if such services are directed toward improving the community’s public services and facilities, including those concerned with the employment, economic development, crime prevention, child care, health, drug abuse, education, welfare, or recreation needs of persons residing in such areas, and coordinating public and private development programs;

(9) payment of the nonfederal share required in connection with a federal grant-in-aid program undertaken as part of a local community development program;

(10) payment of the cost of completing a project funded under Title I of the federal Housing Act of 1968 or a federally assisted new communities assisted in the form of loan guarantees under Title X of the National Housing Act and a portion of the federally assisted area has received grants under Section 107(a)(1) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended; 1

(11) relocation payments and assistance for individuals, families, businesses, organizations, and farm operations displaced by activities assisted under this Act;

(12) activities necessary to develop a comprehensive community development plan, and to develop a policy-planning-management capacity, so that recipients of assistance under this Act may more rationally and effectively determine their needs, set long-term goals and objectives, devise programs and activities to meet these goals and objectives, evaluate the progress of such programs in accomplishing these goals and objectives, and carry out management, coordination, and monitoring of activities necessary for effective planning implementation;

(13) payment of reasonable administrative costs and carrying charges related to the planning and execution of community development and housing activities, including the provisions of information and resources to residents of areas in which community development and housing activities are to be concentrated with respect to the planning and execution of such activities;

(14) activities that are carried out by public or private entities if the activities are necessary or appropriate to meet the needs and objectives of the community development plan, including:

(A) acquisition of real property;

(B) acquisition, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, or installation of public facilities, site improvements, utilities, commercial or industrial buildings or structures, or other commercial or industrial real property improvements; and

(C) planning; and

(15) grants to neighborhood-based nonprofit organizations, local development corporations, or entities organized to carry out neighborhood revitalization or community economic development projects or federally assisted new communities.

(e) Any municipality may provide for and implement programs to provide financing for the acquisition, construction, improvement, or rehabilitation of privately owned buildings and improvements through the use of loans and grants from federal money remitted to a municipality at interest rates and on the terms and conditions as the municipality shall determine; except that municipalities are prohibited from providing municipal property or municipal funds for private purposes the programs or financing shall be in keeping with an approved community development plan that has been determined by the municipality to be a public purpose. Any program established for financing the acquisition, construction, improvement, or rehabilitation of buildings and improvements from federal funds may prescribe procedures under which the owner(s) of such building(s) or improvement(s) shall agree to partially or fully reimburse the municipality for the sec. 8. The powers of municipalities described in this Act are granted in addition to all other powers of municipalities, and are intended to be cumulative thereof.
Art. 1269/4 CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Validation of Previous Proceedings

Sec. 9. All ordinances or resolutions heretofore passed and adopted by the governing body of any such municipality implementing a community development program as defined and authorized by this Act are hereby validated as of the date of such ordinance or resolution, and are declared fully enforceable to the same extent as if such ordinance or resolution had been passed in accordance with laws duly enacted by the legislature of this state specifically providing for the passage and adoption of such ordinances or resolutions. All governmental proceedings and acts heretofore performed by the governing bodies of such municipalities and all officers thereof in implementing a community development program as authorized by this Act are hereby ratified as of the date of such proceedings and acts.

Applicability to "New Towns"

Sec. 10. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorize the use of the powers or federal funds referred to herein to establish any "new town" or "new town in town" pursuant to Title IV of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C.A. 3901 et seq.), Title VII of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1970 (42 U.S.C.A. 4501 et seq.), or Section 107(a) of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C.A. 5307).

Severability

Sec. 11. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Art. 1269/5. Housing Rehabilitation Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Texas Housing Rehabilitation Act.

Legislative Findings

Sec. 2. The legislature finds that:

(1) a substantial amount of housing in the State of Texas is deteriorating and does not conform to accepted minimum standards applicable to structures for human habitation;

(2) deteriorating housing contributes to the decline of residential areas in urban and rural commu-
(3) Declining residential areas require large-scale public investment to mitigate the effects of slums, health and safety problems, and retard the development of socially and economically disruptive conditions within affected communities;

(4) Many owners of deteriorating housing cannot afford to make needed repairs and improvements without expending more than a reasonable portion of their incomes for housing, and some homeowners are financially unable to afford to spend any amount whatsoever to upgrade the quality of their dwellings;

(5) Existing programs sponsored by public and private agencies to facilitate the rehabilitation of housing owned by persons of low and moderate income are inadequate to meet current and future needs, and a cooperative state-local government housing rehabilitation program therefore is clearly warranted; and

(6) Unless the problem of deteriorating housing and other problems associated with the decline of residential areas is affirmatively addressed by the legislature, the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of such areas, as well as the citizens of the State of Texas generally, will be detrimentally affected.

Policy; Purpose

Sec. 3. It is the policy of the state and the purpose of this Act to provide a means by which the further deterioration of housing and the decline of residential areas in urban and rural communities throughout the State of Texas can be arrested and prevented. The legislature therefore declares that all of the purposes of this Act are public purposes and uses for which public money may be borrowed, expended, and loaned.

Definitions

Sec. 4. In this Act:

(1) "Borrower" means a household whose loan application is approved by a local government.

(2) "Department" means the Texas Department of Community Affairs.

(3) "Direct housing rehabilitation cost" means the amount contracted for between borrowers and contractors in a contract approved by a local government.

(4) "Fund" means the Texas Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund.

(5) "Household" means a person or persons owning housing in an area designated under this Act.

(6) "Housing" means a structure which is situated on a permanent foundation and which consists of from one to four family units used exclusively for residential purposes.

(7) "Local agency" means a nonprofit organization whose principal purpose is to improve housing conditions or a local housing authority, urban renewal agency, or other public entity.

(8) "Local government" means a county, city, town, or village.

(9) "Rehabilitation" means the repair, renovation, or other improvement of housing with the object of making such housing decent, safe, sanitary, and more habitable.

Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund

Sec. 5. (a) Funds for the implementation and administration of this Act shall be provided by the General Appropriations Act. A special account in the state treasury, to be known as the Texas Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund is hereby created. Funds appropriated by the legislature for housing rehabilitation loans, together with any funds received from other sources for the purpose of making loans under this Act, must be placed in the fund. All repayments received from borrowers for loans made from the fund, income from the transfer of interests in property acquired in connection with rehabilitation loans made from the fund, and interest earned on deposits and investments of the fund shall be credited to the fund. It is the intent of this Act that the housing rehabilitation loan fund operate as a revolving fund whereby all appropriations and payments made thereto may be applied and reapplied to the purposes of this Act.

(b) The state treasurer shall invest and disburse money from the fund upon the written authorization of the executive director of the department. The department shall administer the fund as a revolving loan fund for carrying out the purposes of this Act and may designate separate accounts in the fund and the purposes for which the accounts are to be used.

(c) Money in the fund may be used only for:

(1) Financing loans made pursuant to this Act, including the administrative charge provided for in Subsection (c) of Section 12 of this Act; and

(2) Paying expenses incurred by the department in connection with the acquisition or disposal of real property under this Act.

Area Rehabilitation Plan

Sec. 6. (a) In order to qualify households within its boundaries for rehabilitation loans under this Act, a local government must designate a specific area, or areas, in conformity with standards established by the department, and must prepare an area rehabilitation plan for each designated area in the form prescribed by the department.

(b) An area rehabilitation plan must provide relevant information concerning the area and must include the following elements:
Art. 12691-5  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES  1280

(1) a description of the physical, social, and economic characteristics of the area(s);

(2) a description of housing conditions in the area(s);

(3) an assessment of the need for housing rehabilitation loans in the area(s), such assessment to be expressed in terms of numbers and characteristics of households and average and total loan amounts;

(4) a description of methods by which the local government will determine whether the rehabilitation of housing in the area(s) is economically feasible;

(5) a description of methods by which rehabilitation work will be supervised and methods by which compliance with departmental regulations governing materials, fixtures, and rehabilitation contracts will be ensured;

(6) a description of methods and procedures that will be used to enforce local housing, building, fire, and related codes, or if such codes have not been enacted, a description of methods and procedures for enforcing the standards promulgated by the department;

(7) an assessment of the need for additional public improvements and public services in the area(s), together with a description of the specific means by which these improvements and services will be provided; and

(8) a description of methods by which private investment to improve conditions in the area(s) will be encouraged.

(c) An area rehabilitation plan must be approved by resolution or order of the governing body of the local government and submitted to the department for review. The department shall determine whether the designated area meets the standards established by the department and whether the plan contains all the prescribed elements. If so, the department must accept the plan. Upon acceptance of the plan, households in the designated area are qualified to apply for housing rehabilitation loans. If an area does not meet the department's standards or a plan does not contain all the prescribed elements, the department shall return the plan to the local government with a list of deficiencies. No loans may be made within a designated area unless the deficiencies are corrected and the plan is resubmitted and accepted by the department.

Authority of the Department

Sec. 7. The department has all the powers necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this Act. The department may:

(1) acquire interests in property necessary to and in connection with the making of rehabilitation loans under this Act as set forth in Section 8 of this Act;

(2) make contracts and agreements with the federal government, other agencies of the state, any other public agency, or any other person, association, corporation, local government, or other entity in exercising its powers and performing its duties under this Act;

(3) make regulations governing the disposition or further encumbrance by the borrower of property subject to a lien in connection with a rehabilitation loan;

(4) expend funds appropriated by the legislature to employ staff and for travel, supplies, materials, and equipment or to contract for services necessary to carry out its powers and duties under this Act;

(5) provide technical assistance to local governments; and

(6) seek and accept funding from any public or private source.

Interests in Property: Disposition

Sec. 8. (a) The department may not construct, acquire, or sell residential housing, nor may the department acquire residential housing except in connection with the enforcement of a lien under this Act, and then only by a foreclosure of a mortgage, a sale under a deed of trust, or by a voluntary conveyance from a borrower in full or partial settlement of a rehabilitation loan.

(b) If the department acquires residential housing in the enforcement of a lien, it must, within six months of such acquisition, offer the housing for public sale or auction. Notice of the public sale or auction must be provided by the department by publication once each week for three consecutive weeks prior to the day of the sale or auction in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the housing is located. The notice must contain a description of the property and must specify procedures for submitting competitive bids and the time and location of the public sale or auction. The department may reject any or all bids.

(c) If a sale cannot be effected by public sale or auction, the department may enter negotiations with any party for the expeditious sale of the housing. First priority must be given to selling the housing to a purchaser that will be required to pay ad valorem taxes on the property. If it is not practicable to sell it to such a purchaser, the department shall attempt to sell it to a purchaser that is exempt from ad valorem taxes but will make payments in lieu of taxes on the property. If neither type of purchaser is available, the department may sell it to any purchaser.

Regulations and Standards

Sec. 9. (a) The department shall adopt regulations for making and servicing housing rehabilitation loans, and for the foreclosure of defaulted loans. The regulations must require that each loan be evidenced by a promissory note payable to the state and secured by a valid lien on real property in this state.
(b) The department shall establish:

(1) standards by which households within the boundaries of a local government may qualify for loans;

(2) standards and procedures for the administration of this Act by local governments and local agencies;

(3) standards for the selection of contractors and for contracts between borrowers and contractors performing rehabilitation work under this Act; and

(4) standards for materials and fixtures used in performing rehabilitation work under this Act.

c) The department shall set minimum and maximum interest rates for loans made under this Act.

d) The department shall adopt minimum housing, building, fire, and related code standards for application in designated areas for which a rehabilitation plan has been accepted and no such local government standards are in effect.

Administration by Department

Sec. 10. (a) The department shall audit the local administration of rehabilitation loans under this Act to determine if good faith efforts are being made to comply with the applicable area rehabilitation plan and the regulations, standards, and guidelines adopted by the department.

(b) If in any fiscal year anticipated rehabilitation loans exceed estimated available funds, the department shall allocate the estimated available funds for that fiscal year among the local governments that have filed area rehabilitation plans, taking into account the probable amount of rehabilitation loans to be made by each local government.

c) Upon receipt of notification of approval of a loan application by a local government, the director shall authorize the state treasurer to disburse the approved amount from the fund to the local government unless:

(1) the department has found that the local government is currently not making good faith efforts to substantially comply with the applicable area rehabilitation plan or the regulations, standards, and guidelines adopted by the department; or

(2) the remaining portion of the fund allocated to the local government under Subsection (b) of this section is insufficient to allow payment of the approved amount.

Loan Eligibility

Sec. 11. (a) The department shall establish eligibility guidelines for local governments to use in determining whether households qualify for housing rehabilitation loans under this Act. In establishing these guidelines, the department shall take into account:

(1) household gross income;

(2) household income available for housing needs;

(3) household size;

(4) the value and condition of the housing to be rehabilitated; and

(5) the ability of households to compete successfully in the private housing market and to pay the amounts at which private enterprise is providing sanitary, decent, and safe housing.

(b) The department shall not approve any loan unless it finds that the benefit to an area designated pursuant to the requirements of Section 6 of this Act will exceed the financial commitment of the department and that the approval of the particular loan will be of benefit to the state and its taxpayers.

General Powers and Duties of Local Governments

Sec. 12. (a) A local government may approve or disapprove loan applications from households according to the eligibility guidelines and regulations of the department. Upon approval of a loan application, the local government shall notify the department of the amount of the approved loan.

(b) A local government shall fix the interest rate for each loan within the minimum and maximum rates established by the department and shall fix the term of each loan and any other necessary conditions pertaining to the repayment of the loan pursuant to this Act and the regulations of the department.

c) A local government may impose an administrative charge of not more than three percent of the direct housing rehabilitation cost and may deduct the charge from the amount loaned to borrowers.

d) A local government may contract with any public or private entity for servicing rehabilitation loans.

e) The governing body of a local government may designate a local agency or agencies to carry out any of the powers and duties of the local government under this Act. Any power or duty that a governing body delegates to a local agency may be withdrawn by the governing body at any time.

(f) A local government engaged in housing rehabilitation under this Act shall carry on a program of general education designed to inform residents in designated areas of methods for maintaining their housing and of the availability of housing rehabilitation loans.

Loan Conditions

Sec. 13. (a) Rehabilitation loans must be used primarily to make housing comply with state, county, or municipal building, housing maintenance, fire, health, or similar codes and standards applicable to housing.

(b) No loan made under this Act may exceed an amount which, when added to all other existing indebtedness secured by the property, would exceed the market value of the rehabilitated property as determined by the local government. No loan may exceed the total of the approved direct housing rehabilitation cost together with the administrative charge provided for in Subsection (c) of Section 12 of this Act.

(c) The term of a loan made under this Act may not exceed 20 years. It must be repaid by installments and must be secured as required by this Act and the regulations of the department. The local government may allow deferment of payments or adjust the interest rate or term of the note if the borrower is unable to make the required payments.

(d) A borrower must agree that if he voluntarily destroys, moves, or relinquishes ownership of the rehabilitated housing within one year after completion of the rehabilitation, the loan is immediately due and payable, together with an interest surcharge sufficient to make the total interest paid equivalent to an amount determined by prevailing interest rates for rehabilitation loans from private sources at the time of the sale. If the local government finds that the borrower must sell due to financial hardship or similar circumstances, the interest surcharge may be waived by the local government with the consent of the department.

(e) The department may take title by foreclosure to any project where such acquisition is necessary to protect any loan previously made therefor by the department and to pay all costs arising out of such foreclosure.

Rehabilitation Contracts

Sec. 14. (a) A borrower and contractor may not enter into a contract for rehabilitation work to be financed under this Act unless the proposed contract has first been approved by the local government in accordance with standards established by the department. The local government shall supervise all work performed under the contract. The contractor is not entitled to payment until the work has been approved by the local government, and the borrower is not liable to the contractor for any work not approved by the local government.

(b) Any contract involving the expenditure of more than $5,000 for housing rehabilitation construction or other work financed by means of loan funds applied by the department may be made only after advertising in the manner provided by Chapter 163, General Laws, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1931, as amended (Article 2368a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). The provisions of Article 5160, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, relating to performance and payment bonds, shall apply to construction contracts.

Pledge of State Credit Prohibited

Sec. 15. The department shall have no power at any time to borrow money, incur pecuniary obligations, or in any manner to pledge the credit or taxing power of the State of Texas or any of its political subdivisions.

Transfer of Encumbered Property

Sec. 16. Upon sale or gift of the encumbered property, or upon the death of the borrower, the local government may, subject to approval of the department, declare all or part of any deferred payments due and payable, declare the balance of the loan due and payable, or allow the buyer, donee, or other successor in title of the borrower to assume the loan if the buyer, donor, or successor qualifies under the provisions of Section 11 of this Act.

Art. 1269-l-6. Housing Agency Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the Texas Housing Agency Act.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act the following words, as used in this Act, shall have the meanings set forth below, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) “Act” means the Texas Housing Agency Act.

(b) “Agency” means the Texas Housing Agency created by the Act.

(c) “Board” means the board of directors of the agency.

(d) “Bond” means any type of interest-bearing obligation, including, without limitation, any bond, note, bond anticipation note, or other evidence of indebtedness, whether general or special, whether negotiable or nonnegotiable in form, whether in bearer or registered form, whether in temporary or permanent form, whether with or without interest coupons, and regardless of the source of payment.

(e) “Director” means a member of the board.

(f) “Federal government” means the United States of America or any department, division, agency, or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States of America.

(g) “Federally insured mortgage” means a mortgage loan for residential housing which is insured or guaranteed by the federal government for which there is a commitment to insure or guarantee the mortgage by the federal government.

(h) “Federal mortgage” means a mortgage loan for residential housing made by the federal government or for which there is a commitment by the federal government to make the mortgage loan.

(i) “Housing development costs” means the total of all costs incurred in financing, creating, or purchasing any housing development, including but not limited to a single-family dwelling, which is approved by the agency as reasonable and necessary. The costs may include but are not limited to:
(1) the value of land and any buildings on the land owned by the sponsor or the cost of land acquisition and any buildings on the land, including payments for options, deposits, or contracts to purchase properties on the proposed housing sites;

(2) cost of site preparation, demolition, and development;

(3) any expenses relating to the issuance of bonds;

(4) fees paid or payable in connection with the planning, execution, and financing of the housing development, such as those to the architects, engineers, attorneys, accountants, and the agency;

(5) cost of necessary studies, surveys, plans, permits, insurance, interest, financing, tax and assessment costs, and other operating and carrying costs during construction;

(6) cost of construction, rehabilitation, reconstruction, fixtures, furnishings, equipment, machinery, and apparatus related to the real property;

(7) cost of land improvements, including without limitation, landscaping and off-site improvements, whether or not the costs have been paid in cash or in a form other than cash;

(8) necessary expenses in connection with initial occupancy of the housing development;

(9) a reasonable profit and risk fee in addition to overhead to the general contractor and, if applicable, a limited profit housing sponsor;

(10) an allowance established by the agency for working capital and contingency reserves and reserves for any anticipated operating deficits during the first two years of occupancy; and

(11) the cost of the other items, including tenant relocation, if tenant relocation costs are not otherwise being provided for, as the agency shall determine to be reasonable and necessary for the development of the housing development, less any and all net rents and other net revenues received from the operation of the real and personal property on the development site during construction.

(j) “Housing development” or “housing project” means any real or personal property, project, building, structure, facilities, work, or undertaking, whether existing, new construction, remodelling, improvement, or rehabilitation, which meets or is designed to meet minimum property standards prescribed by the agency and which is financed pursuant to the provisions of this Act for the primary purpose of providing sanitary, decent, and safe dwelling accommodations for persons and families of low income and families of moderate income in need of housing. The term may include buildings, structures, land, equipment, facilities, or other real or personal properties which are necessary, convenient, or desirable appurtenances, such as not limited to streets, water, sewers, utilities, parks, site preparation, landscaping, stores, offices, and other nonhousing facilities, such as administrative, community, and recreational facilities the agency determines to be necessary, convenient, or desirable appurtenances. “Housing development” and “housing project” include both single-family dwellings and multifamily dwellings in rural and in urban areas.

(b) “Housing sponsor” means individuals, including persons and families of low income or families of moderate income, joint ventures, partnerships, limited partnerships, trusts, firms, corporations, and cooperatives, approved by the agency as qualified either to own, construct, acquire, rehabilitate, operate, manage, or maintain a housing development, subject to the regulatory powers of the agency and other terms and conditions set forth in this Act. In economically depressed or blighted areas or in federally assisted new communities located within a home-rule city, “housing sponsor” may include a person or persons or family or families whose income exceeds the amount constituting moderate income if at least 90 percent of the total mortgage amount available under a mortgage revenue bond issue is designated for persons and families of low income or families of moderate income.

(1) “Land development” means the process of acquiring land for residential housing construction and making, installing, or constructing nonresidential improvements, including, without limitation, waterlines and water supply installations, sewer lines and sewage disposal installations, steam, gas, and electric lines and installations, roads, streets, curbs, gutters, and sidewalks, whether on or off the site, which the agency deems necessary or desirable for housing developments to be financed by the agency.

(m) “Mortgage” means a mortgage, mortgage deed, deed of trust, or other instrument which constitutes a lien:

(1) on real property; or

(2) on a leasehold under a lease having a remaining term which at the time the mortgage is acquired does not expire until after the maturity date of the interest-bearing obligation secured by the mortgage.

(n) “Mortgage lender” means any bank or trust company, savings bank, mortgage company, mortgage banker, credit union, national banking association, savings and loan association, building and loan association, life insurance company, or other financial institution authorized to transact business in the state that is approved as a mortgage lender by the agency.

(p) “Mortgage loan” means an interest-bearing obligation secured by a deed of trust, a mortgage, bond, note, or other instrument which is a lien on real property in the state.

(q) “Municipality” means any city, town, or village in this state.

(q) “Persons and families of low income” means persons and families determined by the board to require assistance as is made available by this Act because of insufficient personal or family income taking into consideration, without limitation, such factors as:

(1) the amount of the total income of such persons and families available for housing needs;
(2) the size of the family;
(3) the cost and condition of housing facilities available;
(4) the ability of the persons and families to compete successfully in the private housing market and to pay the amounts required by private enterprise for sanitary, decent, and safe housing; and
(5) standards established for various federal programs determining eligibility based on income.

(c) "Family of moderate income" means a family:

(1) that is determined by the board to require assistance, taking into account the factors listed in Subdivision (q) of this section; and
(2) that does not qualify as a family of low income.

(s) "Public agency" means any board, authority, agency, department, commission, political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, public corporation, body politic, or instrumentality of the state including, without limitation, any county, home-rule charter city, general-law city, town, or village, any housing authority, any state-supported educational institution of higher learning, any school, junior college, hospital, water, sewerage, waste disposal, pollution, road, navigation, levee, drainage, conservation, reclamation, or other district or authority, and any other type of political or governmental entity of the state.

(r) "Real property" means all land, including improvements and fixtures thereon, and property of any nature appurtenant thereto, or used in connection therewith, and every estate, interest, and right, legal or equitable, therein, including leasehold interests, terms for years, and liens by way of judgment, mortgage, or otherwise.

(u) "Reserve fund" means the Texas Housing Agency Reserve Fund which may be created pursuant to this Act and which may be established by the agency with the State Treasurer of the State of Texas out of proceeds from the sale of the agency's bonds or other resources, as additional security for the agency's bonds.

(v) "Residential housing" means a specific work or improvement within this state undertaken primarily to provide dwelling accommodations, including the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, remodelling, improvement, or rehabilitation of land, buildings, and improvements thereto, for residential housing, and such other nonhousing facilities as may be incidental or appurtenant thereto.

(w) "State" means the State of Texas.

(x) "Economically depressed or blighted area" means: (i) an area that has been determined by the agency to be a qualified census tract or an area of chronic economic distress pursuant to the requirements of Section 108A, Internal Revenue Code of 1984 (26 U.S.C. Section 108A), or (ii) an area established within a city that has a substantial number of substandard, slum, deteriorated, or deteriorating structures, that suffers from a high relative rate of unemployment, or (iii) that has been designed and included in a tax increment district created under Chapter 695, Acts of the 66th Legislature, Regular Session, 1979 (Article 1066d, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). To establish an economically depressed or blighted area, pursuant to the provisions of (ii) or (iii) of this subsection, the governing body of the city must hold a public hearing and find that the area substantially impairs or arrests the sound growth of the city, or that it constitutes an economic or social liability and is a menace to the public health, safety, morals, or welfare in its present condition and use. The governing body of a city holding such a hearing must give notice as provided by Chapter 271, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6252-17, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), except that notice must be published not less than 10 days before the day of the hearing.

(y) "Federally assisted new communities" shall mean those federally assisted areas which have received or will receive assistance in the form of loan guarantees under Title X of the National Housing Act and a portion of the federally assisted area has received grants under Section 107(a)(1) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended.

1 12 U.S.C.A. § 1749u et seq.

Creation of the Agency

Sec. 3. (a) There is hereby created and established a public and official governmental agency of the state, to be known as the Texas Housing Agency, and the state shall act by and through the agency in carrying out all powers and duties conferred by this Act and a portion of the federally assisted area has received grants under Section 107(a)(1) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended.

Primary Purpose of the Agency: Declaration of Policy

Sec. 4. It is hereby declared:

(a) that there exists within both rural and urban areas of this state a shortage of sanitary and safe residential housing at prices or rentals which persons and families of low income and families of moderate income can afford; that this shortage has contributed to and will contribute to the creation and persistence of substandard living conditions and is inimical to the health, welfare, and prosperity of the residents and communities of this state;

(b) that it is imperative that the supply of residential housing for such persons and families and for persons and families displaced by public actions or natural disaster be increased;

(c) that private enterprise and investment are unable, without financial assistance, to provide in sufficient quantities the needed construction or rehabilitation of sanitary and safe residential housing at prices or rentals which persons and families of low income and families of moderate income can afford and to provide sufficient long-term mortgage financing for residential housing for occupancy by such persons and families;

(d) that private enterprise and investment be encouraged to develop land and to build and to rehabilitate residential housing for such persons and families, and that private financing be supplemented by financing as provided in this Act in order to help prevent the creation and recurrence of substandard living conditions and to assist in their permanent elimination throughout this state. It is further declared that in order to provide a fully adequate supply of sanitary and safe dwelling accommodations at rents, prices, or other costs which such persons or families can afford, the legislature finds that it is necessary to create and establish a housing finance agency for the purpose of encouraging the investment of private capital and stimulating the acquisition, construction, and rehabilitation of residential housing to meet the needs of such persons and families through the use of public financing; to provide construction and mortgage loans, and to make provision for the purchase of mortgage loans and otherwise. It is hereby further declared to be necessary and in the public interest that such housing finance agency provide for predevelopment costs, temporary financing, incidental land development expenses, and residential housing acquisition, construction, or rehabilitation by housing sponsors for sale or rental to persons and families of low income and families of moderate income; and further, to provide mortgage financing, including, without limitation, long-term federally insured mortgage loans to eligible housing sponsors; and further, to increase the acquisition, construction, and rehabilitation of low income housing through the purchase from mortgage lenders authorized to transact business within the state of first mortgage loans for residential housing for persons and families of low income and families of moderate income in this state; and further, to assist in making financing available for the purchase, installation, or repair of energy conservation devices or renewable energy systems by persons and families of low income and families of moderate income; and further, to provide technical, consultative, and project assistance services to private sponsors, to assist in coordinating federal, state, regional, and local public and private efforts and resources, to guarantee to the extent provided herein the repayment of certain loans secured by residential mortgages, and to preserve the quality of life in this state.

It is hereby further declared that all of the foregoing are public purposes and uses for which public money may be borrowed, expended, advanced, loaned, granted, or appropriated, and that such activities serve a public purpose in improving or otherwise benefiting the people of this state; that the necessity of enacting the provisions of this Act is in the public interest and is hereby so declared as a matter of express legislative determination.

Appointment and Removal of Directors

Sec. 5. (a) The board of directors of the agency which is and constitutes a "board" of the state, within the meaning of Article XVI, Section 30a, of the Texas Constitution and which shall have such powers and duties as are prescribed in this Act shall consist of nine members, entitled directors. Each director occupies one of the nine places on the board designated as Places 1 through 9.

(b) The nine regular directors shall be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate.

(c) Except for the initial appointees, directors hold office for staggered terms of six years, with the terms of three directors expiring on January 31 of each odd-numbered year. Each director shall hold office until a successor is appointed and has qualified.

(d) The directors initially appointed to occupy Places 1, 4, and 7 shall serve terms expiring on January 31, 1985. The directors initially appointed to occupy Places 2, 5, and 8 shall serve terms expiring on January 31, 1983. The directors initially appointed to occupy Places 3, 6, and 9 shall serve terms expiring on January 31, 1985.

(e) Each director is eligible for reappointment.

(f) Any vacancy on the board is filled by appointment by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. A vacancy, except for expiration of term, is filled for the unexpired term only. If a vacancy occurs while the senate is not in session, the governor may make the appointment subject to confirmation by the senate when convened.

(g) To be eligible for appointment as a director, a person must be a qualified voter of the state and not hold any other public office. The governor shall make appointments so that the places on the board are occupied by persons having the following experience:

(1) Place 1—a person with experience in housing development administration;

(2) Place 2—a person with experience in commercial banking;

(3) Place 3—a person with experience in local government or urban affairs;

(4) Place 4—a person with experience in real estate development or finance;

(5) Place 5—a person with experience in energy conservation or renewable energy systems;

(6) Place 6—a person with experience in mortgage lending or insurance;

(7) Place 7—a person with experience in supervision of state government affairs;

(8) Place 8—a person with experience in community development or rehabilitation;

(9) Place 9—a person with experience in the field of construction or engineering.
(3) Place 3—a person with experience in real estate operations;
(4) Place 4—a person with experience in home building;
(5) Place 5—a person with experience in apartment construction or ownership;
(6) Place 6—a person with experience in mortgage banking;
(7) Place 7—a person with experience in savings and loan operations;
(8) Place 8—a person with experience in municipal or county government;
(9) Place 9—a person with experience in housing problems of persons and families of low income and families of moderate income.

General Provisions Relating to the Board

Sec. 6. (a) The directors do not receive any compensation but each director is entitled to reimbursement for actual expenses incurred in performing duties of office to the extent authorized by the board.

(b) The board shall employ an executive administrator of the agency. The administrator may attend all meetings and participate in all proceedings of the board, but may not vote.

c) The executive director of the Texas Department of Community Affairs, shall, as part of his or her regular duties of office, serve, ex officio, as the chairman of the board, who shall preside at meetings of the board and perform such other duties as are prescribed by the board and this Act, except that he or she shall not have a vote.

d) The board shall elect one of the directors as vice-chairman to perform the duties of the chairman when the chairman is not present or is incapable of performing duties. The board shall elect a secretary to be the official custodian of the minutes, books, records, and seal of the board and to perform other duties as prescribed by the board. The board shall elect a treasurer to perform duties prescribed by the board. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be held by one person, and the holder of each of these offices need not be a director. The board may appoint one or more persons who are not directors to be assistant secretaries who may perform any duty of the secretary.

e) A majority of the regular members of the board of directors constitutes a quorum. The board shall act and proceed by and through resolutions adopted by the board. The affirmative vote of at least five directors is necessary to adopt a resolution.

(f) The vice-chairman, secretary, and treasurer of the board shall be elected at the first meeting of the board after all directors shall have been appointed, taken the oath required by Article XVI, Section 1, of the Texas Constitution, and otherwise qualified for office. Thereafter, officers of the board shall be elected at the first meeting of the board on or following January 31 of each odd-numbered year, or at any time necessary to fill a vacancy.

(g) The board shall hold regular meetings at times specified by resolution of the board and may hold special meetings when called by the chairman, the administrator, or three of the directors.

(h) Prior to the issuance of bonds, each director shall execute a surety bond in the penal sum of $25,000, conditioned on the faithful performance of the duties of director, executed by a surety company authorized to transact business in this state, approved by the attorney general, and filed with the secretary of state. The surety bonds shall be kept in force at all times thereafter and the costs shall be paid by the agency.

(i) A director, chairman of the board, or administrator is not liable personally for any bonds issued or contracts executed by the agency.

Powers of the Administrator and the Board

Sec. 7. (a) The administrator of the agency shall exercise and perform all powers, duties, and functions prescribed by this Act except those prescribed in Subsection (b) of this section or otherwise required to be exercised by the board. The administrator, with the advice and consent of the board, shall appoint a deputy administrator of the agency. The administrator may employ any other employees necessary for the discharge of the duties of the agency, in such number and for such time as may be necessary for the performance of such duties and functions and to remove same, subject to the annual budget and the provisions of any resolution authorizing the issuance of the agency's bonds.

(b) The board shall have the following specific duties and powers, in addition to any other specific duties and powers assigned to the board in this Act:

(1) in its discretion, authorize all bonds of the agency;
(2) make rules, not inconsistent with this Act, governing the administration of the agency and its programs;
(3) adopt procedures for approving loans, purchases of loans, and commitments to purchase loans under this Act;
(4) adopt underwriting standards for loans made or purchased by the agency;
(5) adopt minimum property standards for housing developments financed under this Act;
(6) establish interest rates and amortization schedules for loans made or purchased by the agency;
(7) establish a schedule of fees and penalties authorized by this Act, including but not limited to application, processing, loan commitment, origination, servicing, and administrative fees;
(8) establish eligibility criteria for persons and families of low income and families of moderate income to participate in and benefit from the agency's programs;

(9) compile a list of approved mortgage lenders;

(10) approve an annual report of the agency; and

(11) approve an annual budget pursuant to Section 18 of this Act.

General Powers of the Agency

Sec. 8. (a) The agency is hereby granted, has, and may exercise all powers necessary or appropriate to carry out, achieve, or effectuate the purposes of this Act, including, without limitation, the following powers:

(1) to sue and be sued, and plead and be impleaded, in its own name; and it is specifically enacted that the agency is and constitutes a separate governmental agency and a body politic and corporate of this state, acting for and on behalf of this state;

(2) to adopt an official seal and alter same when deemed advisable;

(3) to adopt and enforce bylaws and rules for the conduct of its affairs not inconsistent with bylaws and this Act;

(4) to acquire, hold, invest, deposit, use and dispose of its revenues, income, receipts, funds, and money from every source and to select its depositories, subject only to the provisions of this Act and any covenants with respect to the agency's bonds;

(5) to acquire, own, rent, lease, accept, hold, or dispose of any real, personal, or mixed property, or any interest therein, in performing its duties and exercising its powers under this Act, by purchase, exchange, gift, assignment, transfer, foreclosure, sale, lease, or otherwise, including rights or easements and to hold, manage, operate, or improve real, personal, or mixed property, except that:

(A) the agency may not construct or acquire any housing development unless acquired through foreclosure of mortgages or sales under deeds of trust;

(B) the agency shall make a diligent effort to sell a housing development so acquired to a purchaser who will be required to pay ad valorem taxes on the housing development or, if such a purchaser cannot be found, to any other purchaser; and

(C) in any event the agency shall sell a housing development so acquired within three years after the date of acquisition unless the board adopts a resolution stating that a purchaser for the housing development cannot be found after diligent search by the agency, in which case the agency shall continue to try to find a purchaser and shall sell the housing development when a purchaser is found;

(6) to sell, assign, lease, encumber, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of any real, personal, or mixed property, or any interest therein, or any deed of trust or mortgage lien interest owned by it or under its control, custody, or in its possession, and release or relinquish any right, title, claim, lien, interest, easement, or demand however acquired, including any equity or right of redemption in property foreclosed by it, and to do any of the foregoing by public or private sale, with or without public bidding, notwithstanding the provisions of any other law; and to lease or rent any dwellings, houses, accommodations, lands, buildings, structures, or facilities from private parties to effectuate the purposes of this Act;

(7) to request and accept any appropriations, grants, allocations, subsidies, rent supplements, guaranties, aid, contributions, services, labor, materials, gifts, or donations from the federal government, the state, any public agency, or any other sources;

(8) to maintain an office or offices throughout the state and appoint and determine the duties, tenure, qualifications, and compensation of its officers, employees, agents, professional advisors, and counselors, including, without limitation, financial consultants, accountants, attorneys, architects, engineers, real estate consultants, appraisers, housing construction and financing experts, as are determined necessary or advisable; it is the intention of this Act that the programs of the agency be coordinated with the programs of the Texas Department of Community Affairs with respect to their design and implementation in order to avoid duplication of governmental housing programs;

(9) to make, enter into, and enforce contracts and agreements with the federal government, the state, any public agency, or any person, firm, corporation, or other entity in performing its duties and exercising its powers under this Act; to make and enter into all contracts, agreements, and other arrangements with mortgage lenders to designate mortgage lenders to act for and in behalf of the agency, with respect to originating, servicing, and processing mortgage loans of the agency, under the terms and conditions agreed on between the parties; and to provide, contract, or arrange for consolidated processing of any aspect of a housing development in order to avoid duplication;

(10) to issue its bonds, to provide for and secure the payment of the bonds, and to provide for the rights of the holders of the bonds, in the manner and to the extent permitted by this Act and the Texas Constitution; and to purchase, hold, cancel, or resell or otherwise dispose of any of its bonds, subject to any restrictions in any resolution authorizing the issuance of its bonds;

(11) to fix, charge, and collect fees and charges in connection with loans made or other services provided by the agency pursuant to this Act;

(12) to do anything authorized by this Act, through its directors, officers, or employees, or by contracts with the federal government, the state,
Sec. 9. In addition to all other powers the agency may have under this Act, the regulations of borrowers, the construction of buildings, the purchase, construction, remodeling, improvement, or rehabilitation of housing developments for persons and families of low income or families of moderate income, upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Act.

The Texas Housing Agency may target the proceeds of housing bonds issued by it to any mortgage lenders or to public agencies, the proceeds of which will be used to make loans for purposes of this Act. The agency may make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans and the amortization of loans. The agency may make loans and commitments therefor under the terms and conditions decided upon by the board.

The interest rates shall be established by the agency for each housing development, subject to the following:

(a) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans and the amortization of loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(b) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(c) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(d) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(e) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(f) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(g) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(h) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(i) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(j) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(k) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(l) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(m) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(n) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(o) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(p) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(q) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(r) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(s) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(t) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(u) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(v) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(w) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(x) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(y) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(z) The agency may not make and publish rules relative to the making of mortgage loans, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.
and to meet its covenants with and responsibilities to the holders of its bonds. In addition to such interest charges the agency shall make and collect such fees and charges, including but not limited to reimbursement of the agency's financing costs, service charges, insurance premiums, and mortgage insurance premiums, as the agency determines to be reasonable.

(6) In considering an application for a loan, the agency shall give first priority to applications for well-planned and well-designed housing developments. The agency shall also give consideration to:

(1) the comparative need for housing for persons and families of low income and families of moderate income in the area to be served by the proposed housing development;

(2) the ability of the applicant to carry out, operate, manage, and maintain the proposed housing development;

(3) the existence of zoning, protective covenants, or regulations that adequately protect the proposed housing development against detrimental future uses that could cause undue depreciation in the value of the housing development; and

(4) the availability in urban areas of adequate parks, recreational areas, utilities, schools, transportation, and parking.

(g) Each mortgage loan shall be evidenced by a mortgage or deed of trust note or bond and by a mortgage or deed of trust that constitutes a lien on the housing development and on all the real property constituting the site of or relating to the housing development, and that contains provisions and is in a form required by the agency. The note or bond and mortgage or deed of trust may contain exculpatory provisions relieving the borrower or its principal from personal liability if agreed upon by the agency.

(h) Each mortgage loan is subject to an agreement between the agency and the housing sponsor that subjects the sponsor and its principals or stockholders to limitations established by the agency as to rentals and other charges, builders' and developers' profits and fees, and the disposition of its property and on all of the real property constituting the site of or relating to the housing development.

(i) As a condition of each loan, the agency may at any time during the construction, rehabilitation, or operation of a housing development:

(1) enter upon and inspect the housing development, including all parts thereof, for the purpose of investigating the physical and financial condition thereof, and its construction, rehabilitation, operation, management, and maintenance and to examine all books and records with respect to capitalization, income, and other matters relating thereto and to make such charges as may be required to cover the cost of such inspections and examinations;

(2) order alterations, changes, or repairs necessary to protect the security of the agency's investment in a housing development or the health, safety, and welfare of the occupants; and

(3) order any managing agent, housing development manager, or owner of a housing development to do whatever is necessary to comply with the provisions of applicable laws, ordinances, or rules of the agency or the terms of any agreement concerning the housing development or to refrain from doing any acts in violation thereof and in this regard the agency shall be a proper party to file a complaint and to prosecute thereon for any violations of laws or ordinances as set forth herein.

(j) A housing sponsor may not make distributions in any one year with respect to a housing development financed by the agency in excess of that which shall be prescribed by rules of the agency of the housing sponsor's equity in the development. The principals or stockholders of a housing sponsor may not at any time earn, accept, or receive a return greater than that which shall be prescribed by rules of the agency per annum of their investment in a housing development financed by the agency. A housing sponsor's equity in a housing development consists of the difference between the mortgage loan and the total housing development cost. The agency shall establish the sponsor's equity at the time of the making of the final mortgage advance and, for the purposes of this subsection, that figure remains constant during the life of the agency's mortgage or deed of trust on the development, except for additional equity investment made by the sponsor with the agency's approval or at its order.

Purchase and Sale of Mortgage Loans

Sec. 11. (a) The agency may purchase and take assignments from mortgage lenders or the federal government of notes and mortgages evidencing loans for the construction, remodeling, improvement, or rehabilitation, purchase, leasing, or refinancing of housing developments for persons and families of low income and families of moderate income.

(b) The agency may sell, at public or private sale, with or without public bidding, a mortgage or other obligation held by the agency.

Terms of the Purchase and Sale of Mortgage Loans

Sec. 12. (a) No mortgage loan purchased from a mortgage lender is eligible for purchase by the agency unless the mortgage lender certifies that:

(1) the mortgage loans transferred to the agency are for housing developments for persons or families of low income or for families of moderate income; or

(2) the proceeds of the sale or the equivalent have been or will be invested in mortgage loans that benefit persons and families of low income and families of moderate income or invested in short-term obligations pending the making of such mortgage loans.

(b) When the agency purchases a mortgage loan from a mortgage lender, it shall pay a purchase price equal to the outstanding principal balance, except that discount from the principal balance or the payment of a premium may be employed to effect a fair rate of return consistent with the obligations of the agency and the purposes of this Act. In addition to payment of the outstanding principal balance, the agency shall pay the accrued interest due to the date on which the mortgage loan is delivered against payment.

(c) Mortgage loans purchased or sold under this section may include mortgage loans that are insured, guaranteed, or assisted by the federal government, or for which there is commitment by the federal government to insure, guarantee, or assist the mortgage loan.

(d) The agency shall adopt rules governing the purchase and sale of mortgage loans and the application of the proceeds thereof, including rules governing:

1. procedures for submitting requests or inviting proposals for the purchase and sale of mortgage loans;

2. restrictions as to the number of family units, location, or other qualifications of residences to be financed by residential mortgage loans, and income limits of persons and families of low income or families of moderate income occupying the residence;

3. restrictions as to the interest rates on mortgage loans or the return realized by mortgage lenders;

4. requirements for commitments by mortgage lenders with respect to mortgage loans;

5. schedules of fees and charges necessary for expenses and reserves of the agency;

6. resale of the housing development; and

7. any other matters related to the powers of the agency to purchase and sell mortgage loans.

(e) The agency shall review each mortgage loan purchased by the agency to determine if the loan meets the conditions of this Act, the rules of the agency, and any commitment made with the mortgage lender to purchase mortgage loans. The agency may require the substitution of another mortgage loan when it determines that a loan does not comply with this Act, its rules, or a commitment made with the mortgage lender. Subsections (b), (c), (d), (e), and (g) of Section 10 of this Act apply to the purchase of mortgage loans.

(f) The agency may not purchase an obligation that is more than two years old.

Sec. 13. The agency shall have the power to supervise housing sponsors of housing developments that are rented or leased to tenants, including limited profit housing sponsors, and their real and personal property, in the following respects:

(a) The agency may prescribe uniform systems of accounts and records for housing sponsors and may require housing sponsors to make reports and certifications of their expenditures and to answer specific questions on forms and at such times as may be necessary for the purposes of this Act.

(b) The agency, through its agents or employees, may enter upon and inspect the land, buildings, and equipment of a housing sponsor, including all parts thereof, and may examine all records showing the capital structure, income, expenditures, and other payments of a housing sponsor.

(c) The agency may supervise the operation and maintenance of a housing development and may order repairs as necessary to protect the public interest or the health, welfare, or safety of the housing development occupants.

(d) The agency shall approve and may alter from time to time a schedule of rents and charges for a housing development.

(e) The agency shall determine standards for and shall control tenant and management selection by a housing sponsor.

(f) The agency may require a housing sponsor to pay the agency fees and charges for the costs of supervision, and auditing the housing sponsor.

(g) The agency may order a housing sponsor to do or to refrain from doing what is necessary to comply with the provisions of law, the rules of the agency, and the terms of a contract or agreement to which the housing sponsor is a party.

(h) The agency shall regulate the retirement of any capital investment or the redemption of stock of a limited profit housing sponsor if the retirement or redemption, when added to any dividend or other distribution, exceeds in any one fiscal year the permitted percentage, as shall be prescribed by rules of the agency, of the original face amount of the limited profit housing sponsor's investment or equity in any housing development.

(i) The agency shall make rules specifying the categories of cost allowable in the construction, reconstruction, remodelling, improvement, or rehabilitation of a housing development. The agency shall require a housing sponsor to certify the actual housing development costs on completion of the housing development, subject to audit and determination by the agency, except that the agency may accept, in lieu of certification of housing development costs, other assurances of the housing development costs, in any form or manner whatsoever, that will enable the agency to determine with reasonable accuracy the amount of the housing development costs.

(i) This section does not apply to any housing development for which persons or families of low income or families of moderate income receive a mortgage loan hereunder and which initially is intended for occupancy by such persons or families.

Admission to Housing Developments

Sec. 14. (a) Admission to housing developments that are rented or leased to tenants financed under this Act is limited to persons or families of low income and families of moderate income.

(b) The agency shall periodically examine the income of any person or family who are tenants residing in a housing development. The agency or, if the approval of the agency, the housing sponsor of a housing development may terminate the occupancy or interest of any person or family whose gross income exceeds the income level prescribed for admission by more than 25 percent for a period of six months or more. No tenancy or interest of any person or family in any housing development may be terminated except on reasonable notice and opportunity to obtain suitable alternate housing in accordance with rules of the agency. A person or family whose gross income would not otherwise permit continued occupancy of a dwelling unit may, with the approval of the agency, continue to occupy a dwelling unit on payment of a surcharge to the housing sponsor in accordance with a schedule of surcharges fixed by the agency.

(c) If a person or family who resides in a cooperative housing development must move from the housing development because of excessive income, the person or family must be discharged from liability for any payments in lieu of taxes whenever practicable with any money lawfully available for this purpose, subject to the provisions, requirements, and restrictions of any bond resolution.

(d) This section does not apply to any housing development for which persons or families of low income or families of moderate income receive a mortgage loan hereunder and which initially is intended for occupancy by such persons or families.

Procedure Prior to Financing of Housing Developments Undertaken by Housing Sponsors

Sec. 15. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the agency is not empowered to finance any housing development undertaken by a housing sponsor unless, prior to the financing of any housing development hereunder, the agency finds that:

(i) the housing development is necessary to provide needed decent, safe, and sanitary housing at rentals or prices which persons or families of low income or families of moderate income can afford;

(2) the housing sponsor or sponsors undertaking the proposed housing development in this state will supply well-planned and well-designed housing for persons or families of low income or families of moderate income and that such sponsors are financially responsible;

(3) the financing of the housing development pursuant to the provisions of this Act will constitute a public purpose and will provide a public benefit; and

(d) the housing development will be undertaken within the authority conferred by this Act upon the agency and the housing sponsor or sponsors.

Exemption from Taxation

Sec. 16. The property of the agency, its income, and operations are exempt from all taxes and assessments imposed by the state and all public agencies, on property acquired or used by the agency under the provisions of this Act. The agency may, under its terms, conditions, and rules, make payments to public agencies in lieu of all valorem taxes on any property which the agency has acquired through foreclosure or sale under a deed of trust. It shall be the policy of the agency to make these payments in lieu of taxes whenever practicable with any money lawfully available for this purpose, subject to the provisions, requirements, and restrictions of any bond resolution.

Fiscal Year; Annual Report; Audit

Sec. 17. The agency shall operate on a fiscal year beginning September 1 and ending August 31. The agency shall have an audit of its books and accounts for each fiscal year by the state auditor or by a certified public accountant. The cost of the audit is an expense of the agency. A copy of the audit shall be filed with the governor and the legislature on or before January 1 of each year, except if the audit is being made by the state auditor and is not available by January 1, it shall be filed as soon as it is available. Also, on or before January 1 of each year, the agency shall prepare a report of its activities for the preceding fiscal year for the governor and the legislature. The report shall set forth a complete operating and financial statement.

Annual Budget

Sec. 18. (a) On or before August 1 of each year, the administrator shall file with the board a proposed annual budget for the succeeding fiscal year. The budget shall set forth the general categories of expected expenditures out of revenues and income of the agency, and the amount on account of each, and may include a provision or reserve for contingencies or over expenditures. On or before September 1 in each year, the board shall consider the proposed annual budget and shall approve it or change it as the board determines necessary or advisable. Copies of the annual budget certified by the chairman of the board shall be filed promptly.
with the governor and the legislature. The annual budget is not effective until it is filed.

(b) If for any reason the agency does not adopt the annual budget before September 2, the budget for the preceding year shall remain in effect until a new budget is adopted.

(c) The agency may adopt an amended annual budget for the current fiscal year, but the amended annual budget may not supersede a prior budget until it is filed with the governor and the legislature.

(d) All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of the Act shall be payable solely from revenues or funds provided or to be provided pursuant to the provisions of this Act, and nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorize the agency to incur any indebtedness or liability on behalf of or payable by the State of Texas, except as provided in this Act, or as otherwise provided by law.

Selection of Depository

Sec. 19. (a) The agency shall choose a depository for its revenues and funds, other than appropriated funds, after inviting bids for favorable interest rates. The agency shall publish notice in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the state at least 14 days before the last day set for the receipt of the bids. The notice shall state the types of deposits planned, the last day on which bids will be received, and the time and place for opening bids.

(b) Sealed bids that are identified as bids on the envelope must be submitted to the agency before the deadline for receiving bids. The state auditor or a member of the auditor's staff must be present at the bid opening. The agency shall provide a tabulation of all submitted bids for public inspection.

(c) The agency shall choose the depository submitting the bid with the most favorable interest rate.

(d) If covenants related to the agency's bonds specify one or more depositories or set out a method of selecting depositories different from the method prescribed by this section, the covenants prevail with respect to the funds to which they apply.

Agency Records

Sec. 20. (a) The agency shall keep complete records and accounts of its business transactions according to generally accepted methods of accounting.

(b) The agency shall keep complete minutes of its meetings. The agency accounts, minutes, and other records shall be kept at its principal office.

Issue of Housing Finance Agency Bonds

Sec. 21. (a) The board of directors of the agency by resolution from time to time may provide for the issuance of negotiable bonds as authorized by the Texas Constitution. The bonds shall be on a parity and shall be called Texas Housing Bonds. The board may issue them in one or several installments and shall date the bonds of each issue.

(b) In addition to the authority to issue general obligation bonds as provided in Subsection (a) of Section 21 of this Act, the agency may issue its revenue bonds for the purpose of providing money with which to carry out, achieve, or effectuate any purpose, power, or duty of the agency under this Act. The agency's bonds may be issued from time to time in one or more series or issues, payable as to principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, from and secured by a first lien or a subordinate lien on and pledge of all or any part of the revenues, income, or other resources of the agency including, without limitation, the repayments of mortgage loans, the earnings from investment or deposit of the reserve fund and other funds of the agency, the fees, charges, and any other amounts or payments received pursuant to this Act, and any appropriations, grants, allocations, subsidies, rent supplements, guaranties, aid, contribution, or donations from the federal government.

(c) Also, the agency may issue its bonds, which may be designated as "bond anticipation notes," which may be made payable as to principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, solely from the proceeds from the sale of the agency's definitive refunding bonds if or when issued and delivered for the purpose of refunding such bond anticipation notes or payable as to principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, from such definitive refunding bonds and any other revenues, income, or resources of the agency, and the agency may covenant that it will issue, sell, and deliver such definitive refunding bonds in such manner as will provide the money necessary to pay any required part of the principal and interest and redemption premium, if any, on the bond anticipation notes when due; provided that such bond anticipation notes may be refunded in any other manner permitted by the Act.

(d) The payment of the principal of and the interest and redemption premium, if any, on the agency's bonds additionally may be secured by a first lien or a subordinate lien on and pledge of all or any part of the assets and real, personal, or mixed property of the agency (including mortgages and obligations securing same, and investments), and the reserve fund, or other reserves or funds of the agency.

(e) All bonds issued by the agency shall be authorized by resolution of the board and may be secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on property, and/or by trust agreements or trust indentures administered by one or more corporate trustees, in such manner as may be prescribed by the board; and the substantial form of any such mortgage, deed of trust, trust agreement, or trust indenture shall be set forth in and constitute a part of the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds. Any resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds of the agency may provide that part of the proceeds from the sale thereof may be used for paying the costs.
and expenses of issuing the bonds, for paying interest on the bonds during such period as may be prescribed by the board, and for paying or repaying operation and maintenance expenses of the agency to the extent and for the period of time specified in said resolution, and also for the funding, increasing, or restoring any depletions of the reserve fund or other reserves or funds for any purposes.

(f) The agency may provide for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under such terms or conditions as may be set forth in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(g) The agency also may issue its bonds for the specific purpose of providing all or any part of the money required for funding or increasing the reserve fund or other reserves or funds of the agency.

Interest on Bonds

Sec. 22. The agency's bonds may be issued to bear interest at any rate or rates as shall be determined by the board.

Form; Denomination; Place of Payment

Sec. 23. (a) The agency's bonds may be issued as serial bonds, or as term bonds, or any combination of each as shall be determined by the board.

(b) The agency's bonds may be issued in coupon form payable to bearer, or in fully registered form, or as coupon bonds payable to bearer but registrable as to principal alone, or as to both principal and interest, or in any other form.

(c) The agency's bonds may be payable at any place or places, may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and shall be executed, all as provided by the board in the resolution authorizing the issuance of said bonds.

(d) The agency's bonds may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms and conditions, as shall be determined by the board.

Maturity of Bonds

Sec. 24. The agency's bonds may mature within any period as shall be determined by the board.

Redemption Before Maturity; Conversion

Sec. 25. (a) The board may provide and covenant for the conversion of any form of bond into any other form or forms of bond, and for reconversion of bonds into any other form.

(b) If the duty of replacement, conversion, or reconversion of bonds is imposed upon a place of payment (paying agent) of any bonds, or upon a corporate trustee under a trust agreement or trust indenture, the replacement, converted, or reconverted bond need not be reapproved by the attorney general or reregistered by the comptroller of public accounts as provided in Section 27 of this Act. Otherwise, all replacement, converted, or reconverted bonds must be so approved and registered as provided in Section 27 of this Act, in accordance with the procedures established in the resolution authorizing the bonds.

Agency's Bonds not Obligations of the State

Sec. 26. (a) The agency's bonds are solely obligations of the agency and are payable solely from funds of the agency, and this Act and the agency's bonds are not and do not create or constitute in any way an obligation, a debt, or a liability of the state, or create or constitute a pledge, giving, or lending of the faith or credit or taxing power of the state except bonds authorized by the Texas Constitution and as provided in Subsection (a) of Section 21 of this Act.

(b) Each bond of the agency not authorized by Subsection (a) of Section 21 of this Act shall contain on its face a statement to the effect that the state is not obligated to pay the principal thereof or interest thereon; and that neither the faith or credit nor the taxing power of the state is pledged, given, or loaned to such payment.

(c) However, the state hereby pledges to and agrees with the holders of any bonds issued under this Act that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the agency to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the said holder thereof or in any way impair the rights and remedies of such holders until such bonds, together with the interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged. The agency is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with the holders of such bonds.

Approval of Bonds; Registration

Sec. 27. All bonds issued by the agency and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for examination. If the attorney general finds that such bonds have been authorized in accordance with this Act, the attorney general shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas.

Execution of Bonds

Sec. 28. The bonds authorized by Subsection (a) of Section 21 of this Act shall be executed on behalf of the board as general obligations of the state in the following manner: the chairman of the board shall sign the bonds; the board shall impress its seal on the bonds; the governor shall sign the bonds; and the secretary of state shall attest the bonds and impress on them the state seal.
Facsimile Signatures and Seals

Sec. 29. The resolution authorizing the issuance of an installment or series of bonds may prescribe the extent to which the board in executing the bonds and appurtenant coupons may use facsimile signatures and facsimile seals instead of manual signatures and manually impressed seals. Interest coupons may be signed by the facsimile signatures of the chairman of the board of the agency.

Signature of Former Officer

Sec. 30. If an officer whose manual or facsimile signature appears on a bond or whose facsimile signature appears on any coupon ceases to be an officer before the bond is delivered, the signature is valid and sufficient for all purposes as if the officer had remained in office until the delivery had been made.

Bonds Incontestable

Sec. 31. (a) After approval by the attorney general and registration by the comptroller of public accounts, the bonds shall be incontestable in any court or other forum for any reason and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes.

(b) In addition, general obligation bonds issued as provided in Subsection (a) of Section 21 of this Act and after approval and registration as provided in this Act shall constitute general obligations of the state.

Reserve Fund

Sec. 32. (a) There may be created and established by the agency, with the State Treasurer of the State of Texas, a separate and special fund to be entitled the Texas Housing Agency Reserve Fund. The reserve fund may be used for the purpose of paying principal of and interest, and redemption premium, if any, on any of the agency's bonds secured by the reserve fund, or any account therein, in order to prevent or cure a default, if, when, and to the extent the revenues, income, and receipts of the agency are insufficient for such payment, and for such other purposes as are provided in any resolution authorizing the issuance of the agency's bonds. The agency may establish separate accounts within the reserve fund to secure and be applicable only to the agency's bonds for which they are established.

(b) It shall be an additional duty of the State Treasurer, in the State Treasurer's official capacity, ex officio, to accept the reserve fund, as custodian thereof, in accordance with the provisions of this section; but the reserve fund shall not be commingled with the General Revenue Fund of the state or any other special funds or accounts in the State Treasury, and the reserve fund shall not constitute or be a part of the State Treasury. The reserve fund and any account therein shall be kept and maintained separate and apart from all other mon-shall be sold promptly by the State Treasurer if and when necessary, to prevent or cure any default in connection with the agency's bonds, as provided in this Act and the resolutions authorizing such bonds.

(f) The State Treasurer's surety bond required by law, and conditioned that the State Treasurer will faithfully execute the duties of the treasurer's office, shall be applicable to and cover the execution of the State Treasurer's duties with respect to the reserve fund as required by this Act.

(g) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the agency may or may not, at its option, create or fund the reserve fund and may issue its bonds which are not secured by the reserve fund, or any account therein, but which may be secured by any other or separate reserve fund or account to be kept at any place, or secured in any other manner provided in the agency's bond resolutions.

Payment Enforceable by Mandamus
Sec. 33. The writ of mandamus and all other legal and equitable remedies shall be available to any party at interest to require the agency, the State Treasurer, and any other party to carry out its or their agreements and to perform its or their functions and duties under this Act, the Texas Constitution, or the agency's bond resolutions.

Refunding Bonds
Sec. 34. (a) Any bonds issued by the agency may be refunded, or otherwise refinanced, by the issuance by the agency of refunding bonds for such purpose, under such terms, conditions, and details as shall be determined by the board.

(b) All pertinent and appropriate provisions of this Act shall be applicable to such refunding bonds, and they may be issued in the manner provided herein for other bonds authorized under this Act; provided that such refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts sufficient to provide for the issuance by the agency of refunding bonds for such purpose, under such terms, conditions, and details as shall be determined by the board, and the comptroller of public accounts shall register such refunding bonds without the necessity of cancelling the bonds being refunded.

(c) Also, such refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded thereby. In any case where refunding bonds are to be exchanged, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver the same to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded thereby, in accordance with the provisions of the resolution authorizing the refunding bonds; and any such exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.

(d) Bonds issued by the agency also may be refunded in the manner provided by any other applicable statute, including Chapter 505, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, as amended, and Chapter 784, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969 (Articles 717k and 717k-3, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Bonds Negotiable Instruments
Sec. 35. Notwithstanding any statute to the contrary, each bond and interest coupon issued and delivered by the agency is and constitutes a negotiable instrument within the meaning and for all purposes of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code, except that said bonds may be registered or subject to registration as permitted by this Act.

Payment of Agency's Obligations
Sec. 36. It is the duty of the board to establish and collect sufficient fees and charges for services and facilities and to utilize all other available sources of revenues, income, and receipts, in order to pay all expenses of operation and maintenance of the agency, to pay the principal of and interest on its bonds, and to create and maintain the reserve fund and any other reserves or funds as provided in each resolution authorizing the issuance of its bonds. In any resolution authorizing the issuance of the agency's bonds the board may prescribe systems, methods, routines, and procedures under which the agency shall function, consistent with this Act.

Validity of Liens and Pledges
Sec. 37. Each lien on or pledge of revenues, income, or other resources of the agency, or on the assets of the agency, or on the reserve fund, or other reserves or funds of the agency, as authorized by this Act, shall be valid and binding from the time of payment for and delivery of the bonds authorized by the resolution of the board creating or confirming any such lien or pledge. All such liens and pledges shall be fully effective as to items then on hand or thereafter received, and said items shall be subject to such liens or pledges without any physical delivery thereof or further act. All such liens and pledges shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the agency or other party, irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither any resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds of the agency nor any other instrument by which any such lien or pledge is created or confirmed need be filed or recorded except in the records of the agency, and except that each bond resolution of the agency shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas as required by Section 27 of this Act.

Bonds not Taxable
Sec. 38. As set forth in this act the agency will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by this Act, and the bonds of the agency issued pursuant to this Act, and the interest and income therefrom, including any profit made on the sale thereof, and all its fees, charges, gifts, grants, revenues, receipts, and other money received or pledged to pay or secure the payment of such bonds shall at all times be free from taxation and assessments of every kind by this state and by all public agencies.

Authorized Investments
Sec. 39. (a) All bonds issued by the agency under this Act shall be legal and authorized investments for all:
(1) banks;
(2) savings banks;
(3) trust companies;
(4) building and loan associations;
(5) savings and loan associations;
(6) insurance companies of all kinds and types;
(7) fiduciaries;
(8) trustees;
(9) guardians; and
(10) sinking and other public funds of the state, cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political subdivisions and public agencies of the state.

Security for Deposit of Funds
Sec. 40. All bonds shall also be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all public agencies, to the extent of the par or market value of said bonds, whichever is greater, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Mutilated, Lost, Stolen, Destroyed Bonds
Sec. 41. The board may provide procedures for the replacement of any mutilated, lost, stolen, or destroyed bond or interest coupon.

No Gain Allowed
Sec. 42. Neither the administrator, chairman of the board, nor any director of the agency, for purposes of personal pecuniary gain, shall have or attempt to have any pecuniary interest in any transaction to which the agency is a party.

No Discrimination
Sec. 43. No person in the state shall, on the grounds of race, color, national origin, or sex, be excluded from participation in, or be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity funded in whole or in part with funds made available under this Act.

Liberal Construction of the Act
Sec. 44. This Act shall be construed liberally to effectuate the legislative intent and the purposes of this Act, and all powers herein granted shall be broadly interpreted to effectuate such intent and purposes and not as a limitation of powers.

Cumulative Effect of the Act; Conflicting Laws
Sec. 45. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other laws or any restrictions, approvals, or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided; and to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that the board shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws not in conflict with the provisions thereof to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Severability Clause
Sec. 46. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act or the application of such sections, provisions, clauses, or words to any situation or circumstance shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act or the application of such sections, provisions, clauses, or words to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Appropriation
Sec. 47. If the General Appropriation Act for the fiscal biennium ending on August 31, 1981, contains an appropriation for the administration of this Act, the validity of the appropriation is not affected by the fact that it refers to the Texas Housing Authority as the Texas Housing Finance Authority.

Authority to Issue General Obligation Bonds Contingent
Sec. 48. Subsection (a) of Section 21 of this Act, to the extent it authorizes the issuance of general obligation bonds, takes effect if and when the Texas Constitution is amended to permit the issuance of such bonds as contemplated by that provision of this Act.

Section 4(e) of the 1961 amendatory act provides:
"The terms used in Section 4 of this Act shall have the same meaning as defined in the Texas Housing Agency Act (Article 1269]-6, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes)."

Section 3 of the 1983 amendatory act provides:
"In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act or the application of such sections, provisions, clauses, or words to any situation or circumstance shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of the Act or the application of such sections, provisions, clauses, or words to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that the Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein."

Art. 1269-7. Housing Finance Corporations Act

Short Title, Captions, Sections, Subsections, and Paragraphs

Sec. 1. A. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the "Texas Housing Finance Corporations Act."

B. The division of this Act into sections, subsections, and paragraphs and the use of captions in connection therewith are solely for convenience and shall have no legal effect in construing the provisions of this Act.

Definitions

Sec. 2. Wherever used in this Act, unless a different meaning clearly appears in the context, the following terms, whether used in the singular or plural, shall be given the following respective interpretations:

"Bonds" means the revenue bonds authorized under this Act and includes notes and any and all other limited obligations payable as provided hereunder.

"City" means any city or town of this state presently existing or hereafter created, whether existing or created by general law or pursuant to a home-rule charter.

"Corporation" means any public nonprofit corporation organized pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

"County" means any county of the State of Texas.

"Development costs" means and includes the sum total of all reasonable or necessary costs incidental to the providing, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, repair, alteration, improvement, and extension of a residential development, including, without limitation, the following: the cost of studies and surveys; plans and specifications; architectural and engineering services; financial advisory, mortgage banking and administrative services; underwriting fees; legal, accounting, marketing, and other special services relating to residential development or incurred in connection with the issuance and sale of bonds; necessary application and other fees to federal, state, and local government agencies for any requisite approvals for construction, for assisted financing or otherwise; financing, acquisition, demolition, construction, equipment, and site development of new and rehabilitated buildings; the relocation of utilities, public ways, and parks; the construction of recreational, cultural, and commercial facilities; rehabilitation, reconstruction, repair, or remodeling of existing buildings and all other necessary and incidental expenses, including trustee and rating agency fees and an initial bond interest reserve together with interest on bonds issued to finance a residential development to a date 12 months subsequent to the estimated date of completion; any premiums for mortgage insurance or insurance with respect to bonds; and such other expenses as the corporation may deem appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this Act.

"Economically depressed or blighted area" means: (i) an area that has been determined by the issuer to be a qualified census tract or an area of chronic economic distress pursuant to the requirements of Section 103A, Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. Sec. 103A), or (ii) an area established within a city that has a substantial number of substandard, slum, deteriorated, or deteriorating structures, that suffers from a high relative rate of unemployment, or (iii) that has been designed and included in a tax increment district created under Chapter 695, Acts of the 66th Legislature, Regular Session, 1979 (Article 1066d, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). To establish an economically depressed or blighted area, pursuant to the provisions of (ii) or (iii) of this subsection, the governing body of the city must hold a public hearing and find that the area substantially impairs or arrests the sound growth of the city, or that it constitutes an economic or social liability and is a menace to the public health, safety, morals, or welfare in its present condition and use. The governing body of a city holding such a hearing must give notice as provided by Chapter 271, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6252-17, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), except that notice must be published not less than 10 days before the day of the hearing.

" Federally assisted new communities" shall mean those federally assisted areas which have received or will receive assistance in the form of loan guarantees under Title X of the National Housing Act and a portion of the federally assisted area has received grants under Section 107(a)(1) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended.

"Governing body" means, with reference to a local governmental unit, as herein defined, the council, commission, commissioners court, or similar body charged by law with the governance of a local governmental unit.

"Home" means real property and improvements thereon located within a local governmental unit (but as to a county, not within a city within the county without approval of the governing body of the city if the population of the city exceeds 20,000 as determined by the corporation's rules or regulations, resolutions relating to the issuance of bonds, or financing documents relating to such issuance) consisting of not more than four connected dwelling units.
units, including but not limited to condominium units, owned by one mortgagor who occupies or intends to occupy one of such units.

"Home mortgage" means an interest-bearing loan to a mortgagor, or a participation therein, for the purpose of purchasing, improving, or constructing a home, evidenced by a promissory note, secured by a mortgage, mortgage deed, deed of trust, or other instrument which constitutes a lien on such home, and which is guaranteed or insured by the United States or any agency, department, or instrumentality thereof, or by any private mortgage insurance or surety company, to the extent that such loan exceeds 80 percent of the lesser of (i) the appraised value of the home at the time of its making or (ii) the sales price of such home. Such guaranty or insurance shall not be required on home mortgages if the principal of and interest on the corporation’s bonds issued to make or purchase such home mortgages or to make loans to lending institutions are guaranteed or insured by an agency, department or instrumentality of the United States government or any insurance or surety company authorized to issue municipal bond insurance.

"Lending institution" means any bank, trust company, savings bank, national banking association, savings and loan association, building and loan association, mortgage banker, mortgage company, credit union, life insurance company, or other financial institution or governmental agency which customarily provides service or otherwise aids in the financing of mortgages on single family residential housing or multifamily residential housing located in the local governmental unit, or any holding company for any of the foregoing.

"Local governmental unit" means any city or county.

"Mortgagor" means a person or persons of low or moderate income whose adjusted gross aggregate income, together with the adjusted gross aggregate income of all persons who intend to reside with such person or persons in one dwelling unit, did not, for the immediately preceding taxable year, exceed the maximum amount established as constituting moderate income by the corporation’s rules or regulations, resolutions relating to the issuance of bonds, or financing documents relating to such issuance, for the purpose of obtaining decent, safe, and sanitary housing, and in connection therewith nonhousing facilities which are an integral part of or functionally related to such residential development. Any such residential development shall be located within the local governmental unit.

"Residential development" means the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, repair, alteration, improvement, or extension of any land, interest in land, building, structure, facility, system, fixture, improvement, addition, appurtenance, machinery, or equipment or any combination thereof, all real and personal property deemed necessary in connection therewith, and all real and personal property or improvements functionally related and subordinate thereto, substantially (at least 90 percent) for use by or intended to be occupied substantially (at least 90 percent) by persons of low and moderate income whose adjusted gross income, together with the adjusted gross income of all persons who intend to reside with such persons in one dwelling unit, did not, for the immediately preceding taxable year, exceed the maximum amount established as constituting moderate income by the corporation’s rules or regulations, resolutions relating to the issuance of bonds, or financing documents relating to such issuance, for the purpose of obtaining decent, safe, and sanitary housing, and in connection therewith nonhousing facilities which are an integral part of or functionally related to such residential development. Any such residential development shall be located within the local governmental unit.

Local governmental unit means any city or county.

Mortgagor means a person or persons of low or moderate income whose adjusted gross aggregate Income, together with the adjusted gross aggregate income of all persons who intend to reside with such person or persons in one dwelling unit, did not, for the immediately preceding taxable year, exceed the maximum amount established as constituting moderate income by the corporation’s rules or regulations, resolutions relating to the issuance of bonds, or financing documents relating to such issuance. In economically depressed or blighted areas or in federally assisted new communities located within a home-rule city, mortgagor may include a person or persons whose adjusted gross aggregate income exceeds the amount constituting moderate income if at least 90 percent of the total mortgage amount available under a home mortgage revenue bond issue is designated for persons of low or moderate income.

Person means any individual, partnership, corporation, joint stock company, trust, estate, political subdivision, state agency, or any other legal entity, or its legal representative, agent, or assigns, but shall, when used with reference to a mortgagor or owner of a home, mean a natural person or a trust for the benefit of such natural person.

Residential development means the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, repair, alteration, improvement, or extension of any land, interest in land, building, structure, facility, system, fixture, improvement, addition, appurtenance, machinery, or equipment or any combination thereof, all real and personal property deemed necessary in connection therewith, and all real and personal property or improvements functionally related and subordinate thereto, substantially (at least 90 percent) for use by or intended to be occupied substantially (at least 90 percent) by persons of low and moderate income whose adjusted gross income, together with the adjusted gross income of all persons who intend to reside with such persons in one dwelling unit, did not, for the immediately preceding taxable year, exceed the maximum amount established as constituting moderate income by the corporation’s rules or regulations, resolutions relating to the issuance of bonds, or financing documents relating to such issuance, for the purpose of obtaining decent, safe, and sanitary housing, and in connection therewith nonhousing facilities which are an integral part of or functionally related to such residential development. Any such residential development shall be located within the local governmental unit.

"Mortgagor" means a person or persons of low or moderate income whose adjusted gross aggregate income, together with the adjusted gross aggregate income of all persons who intend to reside with such person or persons in one dwelling unit, did not, for the immediately preceding taxable year, exceed the maximum amount established as constituting moderate income by the corporation’s rules or regulations, resolutions relating to the issuance of bonds, or financing documents relating to such issuance. In economically depressed or blighted areas or in federally assisted new communities located within a home-rule city, "mortgagor" may include a person or persons whose adjusted gross aggregate income exceeds the amount constituting moderate income if at least 90 percent of the total mortgage amount available under a home mortgage revenue bond issue is designated for persons of low or moderate income.

"Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, joint stock company, trust, estate, political subdivision, state agency, or any other legal entity, or its legal representative, agent, or assigns, but shall, when used with reference to a mortgagor or owner of a home, mean a natural person or a trust for the benefit of such natural person.
been filed with the governing body of each proposed governmental unit. An application for the incorporation of a joint corporation may be filed as hereinafter provided.

If the governing body shall have adopted a resolution as provided in this subsection, the governing body shall proceed to consider such application. If the governing body shall decide that it is wise, expedient, necessary, or advisable that the corporation be formed and shall approve the form of articles of incorporation proposed to be used in organizing the corporation, then articles of incorporation for the joint corporation may be filed as hereinafter provided.

No corporation may be formed unless such application shall have first been filed with the governing body of the local governmental unit and the governing body shall have adopted a resolution as provided in this section. The approval of the articles of incorporation of one corporation shall not preclude the approval of the articles of incorporation of other corporations with names or designations sufficient to distinguish them from any corporation theretofore incorporated; provided that the governing body of the local governmental unit of the articles of incorporation of other corporations shall not approve the articles of incorporation of a housing finance corporation under the provisions of this Act, the governing body shall have adopted a resolution as provided in this subsection. The approval of the articles of incorporation of one joint corporation may not operate in more than one local governmental unit or more than one sponsoring local governmental unit and the governing body of each such unit shall approve the form of articles of incorporation proposed to be used in organizing the joint corporation, then articles of incorporation for the joint corporation may be filed as hereinafter provided.

No corporation may be formed unless such application shall have first been filed with the governing body of each proposed sponsoring local governmental unit and the governing body of each such unit shall have adopted a resolution as provided in this subsection. The approval of the articles of incorporation of one joint corporation may not preclude the approval of the articles of incorporation of other corporations with names or designations sufficient to distinguish them from any corporation theretofore incorporated; provided, however, (without affecting the power of corporations theretofore created) a local governmental unit that creates a joint corporation may not thereafter create a corporation that has power to make home mortgages or make loans to lending institutions, the proceeds of which will be used to make home mortgages or to make loans on residential developments.

Incorporators or directors of a joint corporation shall reside in one of the sponsoring local governmental units. Initial directors of a joint corporation shall be appointed by all sponsoring local governmental units. Succeeding directors appointed to the board shall be appointed by one or more of the sponsoring local governmental units as provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

All sponsoring local governmental units of a joint corporation shall be deemed to be one local governmental unit for purposes of this Act. When action of the governing body of a local governmental unit is required, this Act shall be construed to mean action by the governing body of each sponsoring local governmental unit of a joint corporation. A joint corporation shall have all powers granted to corporations pursuant to this Act. A joint corporation shall be deemed to be acting on behalf of all sponsoring local governmental units as provided in the articles of incorporation. Net earnings of a joint corporation and funds and properties of a joint corporation upon dissolution shall be disbursed to the sponsoring local governmental units as provided in the articles of incorporation. Joint corporations may not operate in more than one State planning region.

Articles of Incorporation—Contents

Sec. 5. A. The articles of incorporation of a housing finance corporation shall set forth:

(1) the name of the corporation;
(2) a statement that the corporation is a public nonprofit corporation;
(3) the period of duration, which may be perpetual;
(4) a statement that the corporation is organized solely to carry out the purposes of this Act;
(5) a statement that the corporation is to have no members;
(6) any provision, not inconsistent with law, including any provision which under this Act is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws, for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation;

(7) the street address of its initial registered office (which shall be within the local governmental unit) and the name of its initial registered agent at such street address;

(8) the number of directors constituting the initial board of directors, and the names and addresses of the persons who are to serve as the initial directors together with a recital that each of them resides within the local governmental unit;

(9) the name and street address of each incorporator together with a recital that each of them resides within the local governmental unit;

(10) a recital that a resolution approving the form of the articles of incorporation has been duly adopted by the governing body of the local governmental unit and the date of the adoption of such resolution.

B. It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers enumerated in this Act; provided, however, that the articles of incorporation may prohibit the exercise by the corporation of any power or powers enumerated in this Act.

C. Unless the articles of incorporation provide that a change in the number of directors shall be made only by amendment to the articles of incorporation, a change in the number of directors made by amendment to the bylaws shall be controlling. In all other cases, whenever a provision of the articles of incorporation is inconsistent with a bylaw, the provision of the articles of incorporation shall be controlling.

Incorporators

Sec. 6. Three or more residents of the local governmental unit, of the age of 18 years or more, may act as incorporators of a corporation by signing, verifying, and delivering in duplicate to the secretary of state articles of incorporation for such corporation. An incorporator may be a member of the governing body, an officer, or an employee of the local governmental unit.

Filing of Articles of Incorporation—Effect of Issuance of Certificate of Incorporation

Sec. 7. A. Duplicate originals of the articles of incorporation shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of incorporation conform to this Act, he shall, when a fee of $25 has been paid:

(1) endorse on each duplicate original the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof;

(2) file one of such duplicate originals in his office;

(3) issue a certificate of incorporation to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

B. The certificate of incorporation, together with the duplicate original of the articles of incorporation affixed thereto by the secretary of state, shall be delivered to the incorporators or their representatives.

C. Upon the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, the corporate existence shall begin, and such certificate of incorporation shall be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent required to be performed by the local governmental unit and the incorporators have been complied with, and that the corporation has been duly incorporated under this Act.

Amendment of Articles of Incorporation—Articles of Amendment

Sec. 8. A. The articles of incorporation may at any time and from time to time be amended so as to make any changes therein and add any provisions thereto which might have been included in the articles of incorporation in the first instance. Any such amendment shall be effected in either of the following manners: (i) the members of the board of directors of the corporation shall file with the governing body of the local governmental unit an application in writing seeking permission to amend the articles of incorporation, specifying in such application the amendment proposed to be made, such governing body shall consider such application and, if it shall by appropriate resolution duly find and determine that it is wise, expedient, necessary, or advisable that the proposed amendment be made and shall authorize the same to be made, and shall approve the form of the proposed amendment, then the board of directors of the corporation may amend the articles of incorporation by adopting such amendment at a meeting of the board of directors and delivering articles of amendment to the secretary of state, or (ii) the governing body of the local governmental unit may, at its sole discretion, and at any time, alter or change the structure, organization, programs, or activities of the corporation (including the power to terminate the corporation) subject to any limitation on the impairment of contracts entered into by the corporation, by adopting an amendment to the articles of incorporation of the corporation at a meeting of the governing body of the local governmental unit and delivering articles of amendment to the secretary of state.

B. The articles of amendment shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or by a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, or by the local governmental unit by its presiding officer and secretary or clerk, shall be verified by one of the officers signing such articles, and shall set forth:

(1) the name of the corporation;

(2) if the amendment alters any provision of the original or amended articles of incorporation, an identification by reference or description of the altered provision and a statement of its text as it is amended to read. If the amendment is an addition to the original or amended articles of incorporation, a statement of that fact and the full text of each provision added;

(3) the date of the meeting of the board of directors, or of the governing body of the local governmental unit, at which the amendment was adopted, and a statement of the fact that such amendment received the vote of a majority of the directors, or of the members of the governing body of the local governmental unit, in office.

Filing of Articles of Amendment—Effect of Certificate of Amendment

Sec. 9. A. Duplicate originals of the articles of amendment shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of amendment conform to law, he shall, when a fee of $25 has been paid:

(1) endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof;

(2) file one of such duplicate originals in his office;

(3) issue a certificate of amendment to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

B. The certificate of amendment, together with the duplicate original of the articles of amendment affixed thereto by the secretary of state, shall be delivered to the corporation or its representative.

C. Upon the issuance of the certificate of amendment by the secretary of state, the amendment shall become effective and the articles of incorporation shall be amended accordingly.

D. No amendment shall affect any existing cause of action in favor of or against the corporation, or any pending suit to which the corporation shall be a party, or the existing rights of persons other than members; and, in the event the corporate name shall be changed by amendment, no suit brought by or against the corporation under its former name shall abate for that reason.

Board of Directors

Sec. 10. The corporation shall have a board of directors in which all powers of the corporation shall be vested and which shall consist of any number of directors all of whom shall be residents of the local governmental unit. A director may be a member of the governing body, an officer, or an employee of the local governmental unit. The initial board of directors shall be named in the articles of incorporation approved by the local governmental unit and shall hold office for such period as may be specified in the articles of incorporation. Thereafter, directors shall be appointed by the governing body of the local governmental unit in the manner and for the terms provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. Directors may be divided into classes and the terms of office of the several classes need not be uniform. Each director shall hold office for the term for which he is elected or appointed and until his successor shall have been elected or appointed and qualified. A director may be removed from office pursuant to any procedure therein provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled by appointment by the governing body of the local governmental unit in the manner provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. A majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum, and when a quorum is present action may be taken by a majority vote of the directors present. Meetings of the board of directors, regular or special, may be held within or without the state. Regular meetings may be held with or without notice as prescribed in the bylaws. Special meetings shall be held upon such notice as is prescribed in the bylaws. The officers of the corporation shall consist of a president, one or more vice-presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers and assistant officers as may be deemed necessary, each of whom shall be elected or appointed at such times and in such manner and for such terms as may be prescribed in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

Organization Meeting

Sec. 11. After the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, an organization meeting of the board of directors named in the articles of incorporation shall be held, either within or without this state, at the call of a majority of the incorporators, for the purpose of adopting bylaws, electing officers, and for such other purposes as may come before the meeting. The incorporators calling the meeting shall give at least three days' notice thereof by mail to each director named in the articles of incorporation, which notice shall state the time and place of the meeting.

Registered Office and Registered Agent

Sec. 12. The corporation shall maintain a registered office and registered agent in accordance with the provisions of Article 2.05, Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act. 1 The corporation may change its registered office and registered agent in accordance with the provisions of Article 2.06, Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act. 2 Process may be served on the corporation in accordance with the provisions of Article 2.07, Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act. 3

Powers of Corporation

Sec. 13. A corporation organized under this Act shall have the following powers together with all powers incidental thereto or necessary for the performance of those hereinafter stated:

1. To have perpetual succession by its corporate name, unless a limited period of duration is stated in its articles of incorporation;

2. To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in its corporate name;

3. To have a corporate seal which may be altered at pleasure, and to use the same by causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed on, affixed to, or in any manner reproduced upon, instruments of any nature required to be executed by its proper officers;

4. To purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use, or otherwise deal in and with, real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated, as the purposes of the corporation shall require, or as shall be donated to it;

5. To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets;

6. To purchase, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, mortgage, lend, pledge, sell, or otherwise dispose of, and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares or other interests in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or not for profit, associations, partnerships, or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States or of any other government, state, political subdivision of a state, territory, government district, or of any instrumentality thereof;

7. To make contracts and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property, franchises, and income;

8. To lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested;

9. To elect or appoint officers and agents of the corporation for such period of time as the corporation may determine and define their duties and fix their compensation;

10. To make, alter, amend, and repeal bylaws, not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with this Act, for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the corporation;

11. To make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific, or educational purposes;

12. To plan, conduct research, study, develop, and promote the establishment of residential development;

13. To acquire, and contract and enter into advance commitments to acquire, by assignment or otherwise, home mortgages owned by lending institutions at such purchase prices and upon such other terms and conditions as shall be determined by the corporation or such other person as it may designate as its agent;

14. To make, and contract and enter into advance commitments to make, home mortgages; provided, however, that such home mortgages shall be originated and serviced by lending institutions;

15. To make and execute contracts with lending institutions for the origination, administration, and servicing of home mortgages and to pay the reasonable value of services rendered under those contracts;

16. To make loans to lending institutions under terms and conditions which, in addition to other provisions as determined by the corporation, shall require the lending institutions to use substantially all of the net proceeds thereof, directly or indirectly, for the making of home mortgages in an aggregate principal amount substantially equal to the amount of such net proceeds; provided that such loans to lending institutions shall be fully secured in the same manner as deposits of public funds of the local governmental unit to the extent not secured by home mortgages;

17. To establish, by rules or regulations, in resolutions relating to any issuance of bonds, or in any financing documents relating to such issuance, such standards and requirements applicable to the making or purchase of home mortgages or the making of loans to lending institutions as the corporation deems necessary or desirable, including but not limited to: (i) the time within which lending institutions must make commitments and disbursements for home mortgages; (ii) the location and other characteristics of homes to be financed by home mortgages; (iii) the terms and conditions of home mortgages to be made or acquired; (iv) the amounts and types of insurance coverage required on homes, home mortgages, and bonds; (v) the representations and warranties of lending institutions confirming compliance with such standards and requirements; (vi) restrictions as to interest rate and other terms of home mortgages or the return realized therefrom by lending institutions; (vii) the type and amount of collateral security to be provided to assure repayment of any loans from the corporation and to assure repayment of bonds; and (viii) any other matters related to the making or purchase of home mortgages or the making of loans to lending institutions as shall be deemed relevant by the corporation;

18. To require from each lending institution from which home mortgages are proposed to be purchased or to which loans are made, the submission of evidence satisfactory to the corporation of the ability and intention of such lending institution to make home mortgages, and the submission, within the time specified by the corporation for making disbursements for home mortgages, of evidence satisfactory to the corporation of the making of home mortgages and of compliance with any standards and requirements established by the corporation;

(19) to issue its bonds to defray, in whole or in part, the development costs of any residential development; to issue its bonds the aggregate principal amount of which issued in any calendar year shall not exceed the total of (a) the costs of issuance of such bonds, any reserves or capitalized interest required by the resolution or resolutions authorizing the bonds, plus any bond discounts, and (b) the greater of (i) $20,000,000, (ii) a figure determined by multiplying $150 times the population of the local governmental unit as determined by the corporation's rules or regulations, resolutions relating to the issuance of bonds, or financing documents relating to such issuance, which determination shall be conclusive, or (iii) an amount equal to 25 percent of the total dollar amount of the market demand for home mortgages during such calendar year as determined by the corporation's rules or regulations, resolutions relating to the issuance of bonds, or financing documents relating to such issuance, which determination shall be conclusive, to defray, in whole or in part, the costs of purchasing, or funding the making of, home mortgages including, but not limited to, the costs of studies and surveys, insurance premiums, financial advisory, mortgage banking and administrative services, underwriting fees, legal, accounting, and marketing services incurred in connection with the issuance and sale of such bonds, including bond and interest reserve accounts, capitalized interest accounts, and trustee, custodian, and rating agency fees; and to designate appropriate names for such bonds. The corporation need not acquire or hold title to or any interest in a residential development or home mortgage;

(20) to rent, lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of any residential development or home mortgage, in whole or in part, to loan sufficient funds to any person to defray, in whole or in part, the development costs of any residential development or the costs of purchasing home mortgages, so that the rents or other revenues to be derived with respect to the residential development or home mortgages, together with any insurance proceeds, reserve accounts and earnings thereon shall be designed to produce revenues and receipts at least sufficient to provide for the prompt payment at maturity of principal, interest, and redemption premiums, if any, upon all bonds issued to finance such costs;

(21) to pledge all or any part of the revenues, receipts, or resources of the corporation, including the revenues and receipts to be received from any residential development or home mortgages to the punctual payment of bonds authorized under this Act, and the interest and redemption premiums, if any, thereon;

(22) to mortgage, pledge, or grant security interests in any residential development, home mortgages, notes, or other property in favor of the holder or holders of bonds issued therefor;

(23) to sell and convey any residential development or home mortgages, including, without limitation, the sale and conveyance thereof subject to a mortgage, pledge, or security interest, if any, as provided in the resolution relating to the issuance of the bonds for such prices and at such times as the board of directors of the corporation may determine;

(24) to issue its bonds to refund in whole or in part at any time bonds theretofore issued by the corporation under authority of this Act;

(25) to apply for and accept on its own behalf or on behalf of any person, advances, loans, grants, contributions, guarantees, rent supplements, mortgage assistance, and any other form of financial assistance from the federal government, the state, any county or city, or any other public or quasi-public body, corporation or foundation, or from any other source, public or private, including any person, for any of the purposes of this Act, and to include in any contract for financial assistance such conditions as it may deem reasonable and appropriate and which are not inconsistent with the purposes of this Act;

(26) to make and execute contracts and other instruments necessary or convenient to the exercise of any of the powers granted herein;

(27) whether included in the foregoing or not, to have and exercise all powers necessary or appropriate to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized.

Bonds of Corporation

Sec. 14. The exercise of any or all powers granted by this Act may be authorized and the bonds may be authorized to be issued under this Act for the purposes set forth in this Act, by resolution of the board of directors of the corporation, which shall take effect immediately upon adoption. The bonds shall bear interest at such rate or rates as authorized by the provisions of Chapter 3, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969, as amended (Article 717k-2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), may be payable at such times, may be in one or more series, may bear such date or dates, may mature at such time or times, may be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, may carry such registration privileges, may be subject to such terms of redemption at such premiums, may be executed in such manner, may contain such terms, covenants, and conditions, and may be in such form, either coupon or registered, as such resolution may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale in such manner and upon such Covenants in Bonds

Sec. 15. Any resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds under this Act may contain covenants as to (a) the use and disposition of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues and receipts from any residential development or home mortgages for which the bonds are to be issued, including the creation and maintenance of reserves; (b) the issuance of other or additional bonds relating to any residential development or any homes; (c) the appointment of one or more mortgage bankers to provide requisite administrative and mortgage servicing functions to assure the proper administration, for the benefit of the bondholders, of the corporation's portfolio of home mortgage loans; (g) the investment of any funds held by such trustee or custodian; (d) the maximum interest rate payable on any home mortgage; and (e) the terms and conditions upon which the holders of the bonds or owners of any portion thereof or any trustees thereof are entitled to the appointment of a receiver by a court of competent jurisdiction, and said terms and conditions may provide that the receiver may enter and take possession of the residential development or home mortgages, or any part thereof, and maintain, lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of such development or mortgages, prescribe rentals or other payments, and collect, receive, and apply all income and revenues thereafter arising therefrom. Any resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds under this Act may provide that the principal of and interest on any bonds issued under this Act shall be secured by a mortgage, pledge, security interest, insurance agreement, or indenture of trust covering such residential development or home mortgages for which the bonds are issued and may include any improvements or extensions thereafter made. Such mortgage, pledge, security interest, insurance agreement, or indenture of trust may contain such covenants and agreements to properly safeguard the bonds as may be provided for in the resolution authorizing such bonds and shall be executed in the manner as may be provided for in the resolution. The provisions of this Act and any such resolution and any such mortgage, pledge, security interest, or indenture of trust shall constitute a contract with the holder or holders of the bonds and continue in effect until the principal of, the interest on, and the redemption premiums, if any, on the bonds so issued have been fully paid or provision made therefor, and the duties of the corporation and its corporate authorities and officers under this Act and any such resolution and any such mortgage, pledge, security interest, or indenture of trust shall be enforceable as provided therein by any bondholder by mandamus, foreclosure of any such mortgage, pledge, security interest, or indenture of trust or other appropriate suit, action, or proceeding in any court of competent jurisdiction; provided the resolution or any mortgage, pledge, security interest, or indenture of trust under which the bonds are issued may provide that all such remedies and rights to enforcement may be vested in a trustee (with full power of appointment) for the benefit of all the bondholders, which trustee shall be subject to the control of such number of holders or owners of any outstanding bonds as provided therein.

Signature of Officers on Bonds—Validity of Bonds

Sec. 16. The bonds shall bear the manual or facsimile signatures of such officers of the corporation as may be designated in the resolution authorizing such bonds, and such signatures shall be the valid and binding signatures of the officer of the corporation, notwithstanding that before the delivery thereof and payment therefor any or all of the persons whose signatures appear thereon have ceased to be officers of the corporation issuing such bonds. The validity of the bonds is not dependent on nor affected by the validity or regularity of any proceedings relating to the residential development or home mortgages for which the bonds are issued. The resolution authorizing the bonds may provide that the bonds shall contain a recital that they are issued pursuant to this Act, which recital shall be conclusive evidence of their validity and of the regularity of their issuance.

Lien of Bonds

Sec. 17. Bonds issued under this Act may be secured by a pledge of or lien upon all or any part of the revenues, receipts, or resources of the corporation, including the revenues and receipts derived from the residential development or home mortgages, or from any notes or other obligations of lending institutions with respect to which the bonds have been issued, and the board of directors may provide in the resolution authorizing such bonds for the issuance of additional bonds to be equally and ratably secured by a lien upon such revenues and receipts or may provide that the lien upon such revenues and receipts is subordinate. Subordinate lien bonds also may be issued unless prohibited in any bond resolution.

Liability for Bonds

Sec. 18. All bonds issued under and pursuant to this Act shall be limited obligations of the corporation payable solely out of the revenues, receipts, and resources pledged to their payment. No holder of any bonds issued under this Act has the right to compel the local governmental unit to pay the bonds, the interest or redemption premium, if any, thereon, and the bonds shall not constitute an indebtedness or obligation of the local governmental unit or any other county, city, or other municipal or political corporation or subdivision of the state or of the state, or a loan of credit of any of them, within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision, nor shall the bonds be construed to create any moral obligation on the part of the local governmental unit or any other county, city, or other municipal or political corporation or subdivision of the state or of the state, with respect to the payment of such bonds, and all such entities are hereby prohibited from making any payments with respect to said bonds. It shall be plainly stated on the face of each bond that it has been issued under the provisions of this Act and that it does not constitute an indebtedness or obligation of the local governmental unit or any other county, city, or other municipal or political corporation or subdivision of the state or of the state, or a loan of credit of any of them, within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provisions.

Investment of Funds

Sec. 19. The corporation, or any trustee or custodian on behalf of the corporation, may invest any funds held by it as provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

Exception From Construction and Bidding Requirements for Public Buildings

Sec. 20. The acquisition, construction, or rehabilitation of a private residential development or a home shall not be subject to any requirements relating to public buildings, structures, grounds, works, or improvements imposed by the laws of the State of Texas or any other similar requirements, and any requirement of competitive bidding or restriction imposed on the procedure for award of contracts for such purpose or the lease, sale, or other disposition of property of the local governmental unit is not applicable to any action taken under authority of this Act.

Exemption From Taxation

Sec. 21. It is hereby determined that the creation of the corporation is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state, for the improvement of their health and welfare, and for the promotion of the economy, and that said purposes are public purposes and the corporation, being a public instrumentality and nonprofit corporation, will be performing an essential governmental function on behalf of and for the benefit of the general public, the local governmental unit, and the state. Accordingly, the corporation and all properties at any time owned by it and the income therefrom and all bonds issued by it, and their transfer, and the income therefrom shall be exempt from the franchise tax, license and recording fees, and all other taxes imposed by the State of Texas or any political subdivision thereof as public property used for public purposes. However, a corporation is exempt from the franchise tax imposed by Chapter 171, Tax Code, only if the corporation is exempted by that chapter.

Bonds and Coupons are Securities

Sec. 22. Bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, and coupons, if any, representing interest thereon, shall when delivered be deemed and construed to be a "security" within the meaning of Chapter 8, Investment Securities, of the Uniform Commercial Code, as amended (Chapter 8, Title 1, Business & Commerce Code), and shall be exempt securities under the Texas Securities Act, as amended (Article 581-1 et seq., Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes). No contract under this Act shall be a security within the meaning of the Texas Securities Act.

Bonds are Legal and Authorized Investments and Security

Sec. 23. Bonds issued under the provisions of this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for any banks; savings banks; trust companies; building and loan associations; insurance companies; fiduciaries; trustees and guardians; and sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and they shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits at their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons, if any, appurtenant thereto.

Nonliability of Local Governmental Unit and the State

Sec. 24. The local governmental unit and the state shall not in any event be liable in any manner for or with respect to the bonds of the corporation, and none of the corporation’s agreements or obligations shall be construed to constitute an agreement, obligation, or indebtedness of the local governmental unit or the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision whatsoever.

Nonprofit Corporation—Disposition of Earnings

Sec. 25. The corporation shall be a public nonprofit corporation. No dividends shall ever be paid, and no part of the net earnings of the corporation shall be distributed to, or enure to the benefit of, its directors or officers, or other private person, association, or corporation, except in reasonable amounts for services rendered, and except that in the event the board of directors of the corporation shall determine that sufficient provision has been made for the full payment of the expenses, bonds, and other obligations of the corporation, then any net earnings of the corporation thereafter accruing shall be paid to the local governmental unit on behalf of which the corporation was organized; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the board of directors from transferring all or any part of its properties in accordance with the terms of any contract or agreement entered into by the corporation.

Books and Records
Sec. 28. The corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall keep minutes of proceedings of its board of directors.

Completion of Corporate Purpose—Dissolution
Sec. 27. Whenever the board of directors of the corporation shall by resolution determine that the purposes for which the corporation was formed have been substantially complied with and all bonds theretofore issued and all obligations theretofore incurred by the corporation have been fully paid, then the directors of the corporation shall thereupon execute and file for record in the office of the secretary of state a certificate of dissolution reciting such facts and declaring the corporation to be dissolved. Such certificate of dissolution shall be executed under the corporate seal of the corporation. Upon the filing of such certificate of dissolution the corporation shall stand dissolved, the title to all funds and properties owned by it at the time of such dissolution shall vest in the local governmental unit, and possession of such funds and properties shall forthwith be delivered to such local governmental unit.

Powers Not Restricted—Law Complete in Itself
Sec. 28. Neither this Act nor anything herein contained shall be construed as a restriction or limitation upon any powers which the corporation might otherwise have under any laws of this state, but shall be construed as cumulative of any such powers. No proceedings, notice, or approval shall be required for the organization of the corporation or the issuance of any bonds or any instrument as security therefor, except as herein provided, any other law to the contrary notwithstanding; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to deprive the state and its governmental subdivisions of their respective police powers over properties of the corporation, or to impair any power thereover of any official or agency of the state and its governmental subdivisions which may be otherwise provided by law.

Residential Development Sites
Sec. 29. Any local governmental unit may transfer any residential development site to a corporation by sale or lease. Such transfer may be authorized by a resolution of the governing body of the local governmental unit without submission of the question to the voters, and without regard to the requirements, restrictions, limitations, or other provisions contained in any other general, special, or local law. Such project site may be within or without the local governmental unit or partially within and partially without the local governmental unit.

Powers Additional to Those Granted by Other Laws—Severability
Sec. 30. The powers conferred by this Act shall be in addition and supplementary to, and the limitations by this Act shall not affect the powers conferred by any other general, special, or local law. If any one or more sections or provisions of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, shall ever be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, the remaining provisions of this Act and the application thereof to persons or circumstances other than those to which it is held to be invalid, shall not be affected thereby, it being the intention of this legislature to enact the remaining provisions of this Act notwithstanding such invalidity.

Art. 1269/7—State Ceiling, Allocation, and Local Share of Housing Bonds

Definitions
Sec. 1. In this Act:
(1) “Executive director” means the executive director of the Texas Department of Community Affairs of the State of Texas.
(2) “Housing bonds” means bonds that are issued by the Texas Housing Agency or a housing finance corporation and that are subject to the state ceiling imposed by Section 105A, Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended (26 U.S.C. Section 105A).
(3) “Housing finance corporation” means a corporation created under the Texas Housing Finance Corporations Act (Article 1269/7, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).
(4) “Local population” means the population in the local governmental unit or units on whose behalf the housing finance corporation is created as determined in the 1980 decennial census. If two local governmental units which overlap have created housing finance corporations that have the power to issue bonds to provide financing for home mortgages, prior to the sale of housing bonds by either corporation there shall be excluded from the population of the larger local governmental unit that portion of the population of any smaller local governmental unit having a population as determined in the 1980 decennial census of 20,000 or more which is within the larger local governmental unit, unless the smaller local governmental unit assigns its au-authority to issue bonds prior to September 1, 1981, or June 1 of 1982 or 1983, based upon its population, to the larger local governmental unit.

(5) "Local share" means the product which results from multiplying the state ceiling by 70 percent.

(6) "State ceiling" means the state ceiling imposed on housing bonds for each calendar year by Section 103A, Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended (26 U.S.C. Section 103A).

(7) "State population" means the population of the state as determined by the 1980 decennial census.

(8) "State share" means the product which results from multiplying the state ceiling by 30 percent.

Determination of State Ceiling

Sec. 2. The state ceiling shall be determined for each calendar year by the board of directors of the Texas Housing Agency on or before July 1, 1981, and on or before February 1 of the calendar years 1982 and 1983 based upon such evidence as the board of directors shall determine.

Allocation of State Ceiling

Sec. 3. (a) There is hereby allocated to the Texas Housing Agency for the calendar years 1981, 1982, and 1983, the state share of the state ceiling.

(b) Subject to the receipt of a reservation certificate there is hereby allocated jointly to housing finance corporations and the Texas Housing Agency for the calendar years 1981, 1982, and 1983, the local share of the state ceiling.

(c) The allocation made by Subsection (b) of this section is not available to the Texas Housing Agency in a calendar year until it has exhausted its allocation under Subsection (a) of this section for that year.

Amendments to Texas Housing Agency Act

Sec. 4. [Amends 98 2 and 8(a) of art. 1269-4-6].

Reservation of Local Share

Sec. 5. (a) Upon the determination of the state ceiling in each calendar year, a housing finance corporation or the Texas Housing Agency in accordance with the terms of Section 3 of this Act, may reserve a portion of the local share by filing a reservation request, accompanied by a bond purchase contract executed by the issuer and the purchaser of such bonds, with the executive director. Such reservation request must be on such forms as the executive director may prescribe and must contain the following information: (i) identify the issuer of the bonds; (ii) identify the series of bonds which are the subject of the bond purchase contract; (iii) state the execution date of the bond purchase contract; and (iv) state the aggregate amount of the bonds.

(b) Prior to September 1, 1981, and June 1 of 1982 and 1983, the maximum amount of the local share which may be reserved prior to the foregoing dates may not exceed $150 times the local population, except (i) if the local population is 200,000 or more but less than 300,000, the maximum amount of the local share which may be reserved prior to the foregoing dates may not exceed $200 times the local population, and (ii) if the local population is less than 100,000, the maximum amount of the local share which may be reserved prior to the foregoing dates may not exceed $300 times the local population. In each calendar year following the applicable dates set forth in the preceding sentence, reservation of the local share shall not be restricted other than as otherwise provided by the laws of the State of Texas.

(c) Any reservation of a portion of the local share shall lapse and no longer be effective upon the expiration of 45 days following the date of filing the reservation request with the executive director, if prior thereto the issuer has failed for whatever reason to file with the executive director to file a certificate evidencing that the bonds for which the reservation was filed have been delivered and paid for along with the final official statement or disclosure document relating to the housing bonds.

Reservation Certificate

Sec. 6. (a) Upon the filing of a reservation request complying with Section 5 of this Act, the executive director shall promptly issue a reservation certificate. The executive director shall issue certificates according to the order in which the requests are filed. If two or more reservation requests are filed on the same date, certificates shall be issued in the order of the date of execution of the bond purchase contracts. If both the date of filing of the requests and the date of execution of the bond purchase contracts are the same, the executive director shall issue certificates in an order determined by lot, unless otherwise agreed by the affected housing finance corporations or the Texas Housing Agency.

(b) Each reservation certificate must contain the following information: (i) the local share; (ii) the name of the issuer; (iii) the amount and identity of the bonds sold by the issuer under the bond purchase contract of which the certificate applies; (iv) the date of execution of the bond purchase contract; and (v) the aggregate amount of the local share reserved by all issuers in the current calendar year for which reservation requests have been received and certificates have been issued which have not expired, including the bonds for which the certificate was issued.
Art. 12691-8 CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Specification of Forms
Sec. 7. The executive director may prescribe forms for use in connection with any filing required under this Act.

Amendment to Definitions in Housing Finance Corporations Act
Sec. 8. [Amends §§ 2 and 4 of art. 12691-7.]

Definitions
Sec. 9. Except as otherwise provided herein, the terms used in this Act shall have the same meaning as in the Texas Housing Finance Corporations Act (Article 12691-7, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Severability
Sec. 10. The powers conferred by this Act shall be in addition and supplementary to, and the limitations by this Act shall not affect the powers conferred by any other general, special, or local law. If any one or more sections or provisions of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances other than those to which it is held to be invalid, shall not be affected thereby, it being the intention of this legislature to enact the remaining provisions of this Act notwithstanding such invalidity.

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO. CIVIL SERVICE
FIREMEN AND POLICEMEN

Art. 1269m. Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service in Cities Over 10,000

Sec. 1. There is hereby established in all cities in this State having a population of ten thousand (10,000) or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, and having a paid Fire Department and Police Department, a Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service.

Sec. 2. By the term "Fireman" is meant any member of the Fire Department appointed to such position in substantial compliance with the provisions of Sections 9, 10 and 11 of this Act, or entitled to Civil Service Status under Section 24 of this Act. The term includes firemen who perform fire suppression, fire prevention, fire training, fire safety education, fire maintenance, fire communications, fire medical emergency technology, fire photography, or fire administration. By the term "Policeman" is meant any member of the Police Department appointed to such position in substantial compliance with the provisions of Sections 9, 10 and 11 of this Act, or entitled to Civil Service Status under Section 24 of this Act. By the term "Commission" as used herein is meant the Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service Commission. The term "Director" means Director of Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service.

FIREMEN'S AND POLICEMEN'S CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION
Sec. 3. There is hereby established in all such cities a Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service Commission, which shall consist of (3) members, to be selected as follows: Members of the Commission shall be appointed by the chief executive of any such city, and such appointment shall be confirmed by the City Council or legislative body of any such city before any such appointments shall be effective. Of the first three (3) Commissioners so selected under the provisions of this Act to comprise the Commission, one (1) shall be appointed for a term of one (1) year, one (1) shall be appointed for a term of two (2) years, and one (1) shall be appointed for a term of three (3) years. Thereafter the term of office of each Commissioner shall be for three (3) years, or until a successor is appointed, confirmed, and qualified. Any such vacancies in said Commission, caused by death, resignation, or otherwise, or by failure of any appointee to qualify within ten (10) days after appointment, shall be filled in the manner hereinabove specified, and such appointment shall be for the unexpired term of the retiring Commissioner of the appointee failing to qualify.

All such Commissioners shall be of good moral character, resident citizens of the particular city for which they are appointed, shall have resided in said city for a period of more than three (3) years, shall each be over the age of twenty-five (25) years, and shall not have held any public office within the preceding three (3) years.

It is provided however, that in all such cities which have in existence a Civil Service Commission, that said Civil Service Commission shall constitute the Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service Commission of that city, but said Commissioner shall administer the Civil Service of Firemen and Policemen in accordance with this law.

It is further provided that in any such city which has in existence a Civil Service Commission, the appointment of members to such Civil Service Commission shall be made in conformity with provisions of this Act, after the expiration of presently existing term or terms of the members comprising such Civil Service Commission and, if necessary, in such cities having staggered terms of membership on such Civil Service Commission, the first appointment made under the provisions of this Act shall be made for terms of such number of years less than three (3) as will cause a staggered or rotating system of terms to conform with the provisions of this Act.

Organization of Commission

Sec. 4. The Commissioners shall within ten (10) days after the qualification of the membership, and annually thereafter during the month of January, elect a Chairman and a Vice-chairman.

Powers of Commission

Sec. 5. Two (2) members of the said Commission shall constitute a quorum to transact business. The Commission shall make such rules and regulations for the proper conduct of its business as it shall find necessary and expedient, provided that no rules or regulations shall ever be adopted which will permit the appointment or employment of any person without good moral character; or any person unfit mentally or physically; or any person incompetent to discharge the duties of such appointment or employment. Such rules and regulations shall prescribe what shall constitute cause for removal or suspension of Firemen or Policemen, but no rule for the removal or suspension of such employees shall be valid unless it involves one or more of the following grounds:

- Conviction of a felony or other crime involving moral turpitude; violations of the provisions of the charter of said city; acts of incompetency; neglect of duty; discourtesy by said employee to the public or to fellow employees while said employee is in line of duty; acts of said employees showing a lack of good moral character; drinking of intoxicants while on duty, or intoxication while off duty; or whose conduct was prejudicial to good order; refusal or neglect to pay just debts; absence without leave; striking duty, or cowardice at fires; violation of any of the rules and regulations of the Fire Department or Police Department or of special orders, as applicable.

Investigations and Inspections

Sec. 5a. The Commission may make investigations concerning, and report upon all matters touching, the enforcement and effect of the provisions of this Act, and the rules and regulations prescribed hereunder; and shall ascertain whether this Act and all such rules and regulations are being obeyed. Such investigations may be made by the Commission or by any Commissioner designated by the Commission for that purpose. In the course of such investigation the Commission or designated Commissioner shall have the power to administer oaths, subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the producing by them of books, papers, documents, and accounts pertaining to the investigation, and also to cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or without the State to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in the court of original and unlimited jurisdiction to civil suits of the United States; and the oaths administered hereunder and the subpoenas issued hereunder shall have the same force and effect as the oaths administered by a magistrate in his judicial capacity; and the failure upon the part of any person so subpoenaed to comply with the provisions of this Section shall be deemed a violation of this Act, and punishable as such.

Public Records

Sec. 5b. The Commission shall keep records of all hearings or cases that come before it. Commission decisions shall be signed by the concurring Commissioners. All rules, opinions, directives, decisions, and orders issued by the Commission shall be written and are public records that shall be retained on file by the Commission.

Director of Civil Service

Sec. 6. (a) There is hereby created the office of Director of Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service, which shall be filled by the appointment of the Commission. The person appointed must meet the same requirements as hereinabove provided for members of the Commission, except that in a city having a population of fewer than 1,500,000, according to the most recent federal census, the Director is not required to meet the three-year local residency requirement prescribed by Section 3 of this Act. Said Director may be either a member of the Commission, another employee of said city, or some other person. The legislative body of such city shall determine what salary, if any, shall be paid to such Director. Said Director shall at all times, be subject to removal by the Commission. He shall serve as Secretary to the Commission, and shall perform all such work incidental to the Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service as may be required of him by the Commission.

(b) In those cities which have a duly and legally constituted Director of Civil Service, by whatever name he may be called, said Director shall be the Director of the Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service, but he shall administer civil service pertaining to Firemen and Policemen in accordance with this Law.

Office Space

Sec. 7. The City Council or governing body of any such city shall provide adequate and suitable office space for the conduct of the business of the Commission.
Classification of Firemen and Policemen; Educational Incentive Pay

Sec. 8. (a) In a city having a population of 1,500,000 or more, according to the most recent federal census, the Commission shall provide for the classification of all firemen and policemen. Such classification shall be provided by ordinance of the City Council, or legislative body. Said City Council, or legislative body, shall prescribe by ordinance the number of positions of each classification.

(b) No classification now in existence, or that may be hereafter created in such cities, shall ever be filled except by examination held in accordance with the provisions of this law. All persons in each classification shall be paid the same salary and in addition thereto be paid any of the following types of pay that they may be entitled to: (1) longevity or seniority pay; (2) educational incentive pay; or (4) assignment pay. This shall not prevent the Head of the Department from designating some person from the next lower classification to fill a position in a higher classification temporarily, but any such person so designated by the Head of the Department shall be paid the base salary of such higher position plus his own longevity pay during the time he performs the duties thereof. The temporary performance of the duties of any such position by a person who has not been promoted in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall never be construed to promote such person. All vacancies shall be filled by permanent appointment from eligibility lists furnished by the Commission within ninety (90) days after such vacancy occurs.

(c) Firemen and policemen shall be classified as above provided, and shall be under civil service protection except the Chief or Head of such Fire Department or Police Department, by whatever name he may be known.

(d) Said Chiefs or Department Heads shall be appointed by the Chief Executive, and confirmed by the City Council or legislative body except in cities where the Department Heads are elected. In those cities having elective Fire and Police Commissioners the appointments for Chiefs and Heads of those Departments shall be made by the respective Fire or Police Commissioners in whose Department the vacancy exists, and such appointments shall be confirmed by the City Council or legislative body.

(e) Said City Council or legislative body may authorize educational incentive pay in addition to regular pay for policemen and firemen within each classification, who have successfully completed courses in an accredited college or university, provided that such courses are applicable toward a degree in law enforcement-policie science and include the core curriculum in law enforcement or are applicable toward a degree in fire science. An accredited college or university, as that term is used herein, shall mean any college or university accredited by the nationally recognized accrediting agency and the state board of education in the state wherein said college or university is located and approved or certified by the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education as teaching the core curriculum or its equivalent or, in the case of fire science degree courses, approved or certified by the Texas Commission on Fire Protection, Personnel Standards, and Education. Core curriculum in law enforcement, as used herein, shall mean those courses in law enforcement education as approved by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System and the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education.

Classification and Appointment of Certain Firemen and Policemen

Sec. 8A. (a) In a city having a population of less than 1,500,000 according to the most recent federal census, the Commission shall provide for the classification of all firemen and policemen. The classification shall be provided by ordinance of the city council or legislative body. The city council or legislative body shall prescribe the number of positions in each classification by ordinance.

(b) Except as prescribed by this section, a classification now in existence, or that may be hereafter created, may not be filled except by examination held in accordance with this Act. If the city council or governing body of the city approves by resolution or ordinance, the chief or head of a fire or police department in which at least four classifications exist below the classification of chief or head may appoint each person occupying authorized positions in the classification immediately below that of chief or department head, as provided by this section.

(c) The total number of persons appointed to the classification immediately below that of the police chief in the police department may not exceed the total number of persons, plus one, serving in the classification immediately below that of the police chief or head of the police department in that city on January 1, 1983. In a city having fewer than 300 certified fire fighters, the chief or head of the department may appoint not more than one person to the classification immediately below that of chief or head. In a city having 300 or more certified fire fighters but not more than 600, the chief or head of the fire department may appoint two persons. In a city having more than 600 certified fire fighters, the chief or head of the department may appoint three persons. This subsection does not apply to a city that has adopted The Fire and Police Employee Relations Act (Article 5154c-1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), unless the city specifically adopts the appointment procedure prescribed by this subsection through the collective bargaining process.

(d) All persons in each classification shall be paid the same salary and in addition thereto be paid any of the following types of pay to which they may be entitled: (1) longevity or seniority pay; (2) educational incentive pay; (3) assignment pay; and (4) certification pay. This shall not prevent the head of officer with at least two years' continuous service in a classification immediately below that of the chief or department head in whose department the vacancy exists, and the position in the classification immediately below that of the chief or department head which is filled by the chief or department head, the person shall be reinstated in the department and placed in the same classification, or its equivalent, that the person held prior to appointment, and retains all rights of seniority in the department.

(j) If the person is charged with an offense in violation of civil service rules and indefinitely suspended by the chief or department head, the person shall have the same rights and privileges of a hearing before the commission, and in the same manner and under the same conditions as classified employees. If the commission, the hearing examiner, or a court of competent jurisdiction finds the charges to be untrue or unfounded, the person shall immediately be restored to the same classification, or its equivalent, that the person held prior to appointment. The person shall enjoy all the rights and privileges of his prior position according to seniority and shall be repaid for any lost wages.

(l) The city council or legislative body of a city may authorize educational incentive pay in addition to regular pay for a fireman or policeman who has successfully completed courses at an accredited college or university if the criteria for the educational incentive pay are clearly established, are in writing, and are applied equally to all firemen and policemen meeting the criteria. If all firemen or policemen are afforded an opportunity to qualify themselves for certification, certification pay may be authorized by the city council or legislative body of the city in addition to regular pay for those firemen meeting the requirements for certification set by the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education.

Cities of 1,500,000 or More: Assignment Pay
Sec. 8B. (a) In any city having a population of 1,500,000 or more, according to the most recent...
Assignment Pay

Art. 1269m  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES  1312

federal census, the city council or legislative body may authorize assignment pay for emergency ambulance attendants and field training officers in an amount and payable under conditions as set by ordinance. The assignment pay shall be in addition to the regular pay received by members of the fire department. The chief of the fire department is not eligible for the assignment pay authorized by this section.

(b) In this section:

(1) "Emergency ambulance attendant" means a member of the fire department who provides emergency medical care and emergency transportation for members of the public.

(2) "Helicopter personnel" means a member of the police department who pilots helicopters or rides as an observer in helicopters.

(3) "Bomb squad personnel" means a member of the police department who is assigned to the bomb squad and actually participates in the detection, handling, or disarming of explosive devices or materials.

(4) "Special weapons and tactics personnel" means a member of the police department who is assigned to the special weapons and tactics squad and actually performs the duties and responsibilities of the special weapons and tactics squad.

(5) "Field training officer" means a member of the fire department who is assigned to the field training officers program and who actually performs the duties and responsibilities of the field training officers program.

(c) In any city having a population of 1,200,000 or more according to the most recent federal census, the city council or legislative body may authorize assignment pay for helicopter personnel, bomb squad personnel, and special weapons and tactics personnel. Assignment pay shall be in an amount and payable under conditions as set by ordinance.
The assignment pay shall be in addition to the regular pay received by members of the police department. The chief of the police department is not eligible for the assignment pay authorized by this section.

Field Training Officers; Assignment Pay

Sec. 8C. (a) In this section, "field training officer" means a member of the police department who is assigned to the field training officers program and actually performs the duties and responsibilities of the field training officers program.

(b) The city council or legislative body of a city that adopts this Act may authorize assignment pay for field training officers. Assignment pay shall be in an amount and payable under conditions as set by ordinance. The assignment pay shall be in addition to the regular pay received by members of the police department. The chief of the police department is not eligible for the assignment pay authored by this section.

Examination for Eligibility Lists

Sec. 9. The Commission shall make provisions for open, competitive and free examinations for persons making proper application and meeting the requirements as herein prescribed. All eligibility lists for applicants for original positions in the Fire and Police Departments shall be created only as a result of such examinations, and no appointments shall ever be made for any position in such Departments except as a result of such examination, which shall be based on the applicant's knowledge of and qualifications for fire fighting and work in the Fire Department, or for police work and work in the Police Department, as shown by competitive examinations in the presence of all applicants for such position, and shall provide for thorough inquiry into the applicant's general education and mental ability.
Fire Department entrance examinations may be given at different locations if all applicants are given the same examination and examined in the presence of other applicants. An applicant may not take the examination more than once for each eligibility list.
An applicant may not take an examination unless at least one (1) other applicant being tested is present.
An applicant who has served in the armed forces of the United States and who received an honorable discharge shall receive five (5) points in addition to his competitive grades.

The Commission shall keep all eligibility lists for applicants for original positions in the Fire Department or Police Department in effect for not less than six (6) months nor more than twelve (12) months unless the names of all applicants have been referred to the appropriate Department. The Communication shall give a new examination at the end of the twelve (12) month period or sooner, if applicable, or if all names on the list have been referred to the appropriate Department. The Commission shall determine how long each eligibility list shall remain in effect within the six (6) to twelve (12) month period.
and shall include this information on the eligibility announcement.

Appropriate physical examinations shall be required of all applicants for beginning or promotional positions, and the examinations shall be given by a physician appointed by the Commission and paid by such city; and in the event of rejection by such physician, the applicant may call for further examination by a board of three (3) physicians appointed by the Commission, but at the expense of the applicant, whose findings shall be final. The age and physical requirements shall be set by the Commission in accordance with provisions of this law and shall be the same for all applicants.

No person shall be certified as eligible for a beginning position with a Fire Department who has reached his thirty-sixth birthday. No person shall be certified as eligible for a beginning position with a Police Department who has reached his thirty-sixth birthday unless the applicant has at least five (5) years prior experience as a peace officer, or 5 years of military experience. No person shall be certified as eligible for a beginning position with a Police Department who has reached his forty-fifth birthday.

All police officers and firemen coming under this Act must be able to intelligently read and write the English language.

When a question arises as to whether a fireman or policeman is sufficiently physically fit to continue his duties, the employee shall submit a report from his personal physician to the Commission. If the Commission, the head of the Department, or the employee questions the report, the Commission shall appoint a physician to examine the employee and to submit a report to the Commission, to the head of the Department, and to the employee. If the appointed physician’s report disagrees with the report of the employee’s personal physician, the Commission shall appoint a board of three (3) physicians to examine the employee. Their findings as to the employee’s fitness for duty shall determine the issue. The cost of the services of the employee’s personal physician shall be paid by the employee. All other costs shall be paid by the city.

A fireman or policeman who has been certified by a physician selected by a fireman’s or policeman’s relief or retirement fund as having recovered from a disability for which he has been receiving a monthly disability pension shall, with the approval of the Commission and if otherwise qualified, be eligible for reappointment to the classified position that he held as of the date that he qualified for a monthly disability pension.

Method of Filling Positions

Sec. 10. When a vacancy occurs in the Fire Department or Police Department, the Fire Chief or head of the Fire Department or the Police Chief or head of the Police Department shall request in writing from the Commission the names of suitable persons from the eligibility list, and the Director shall certify to the chief executive of said city, the names of three (3) persons having the highest grades on the eligibility list, and the said chief executive shall thereupon make an appointment from said three (3) names. The appointment shall be of the person with the highest grade, except there be a valid reason why such appointment should be given to the one making the second or third highest grade. Whenever such appointment is made of one not holding the highest grade, such reasons shall be reduced to writing and filed with the Commission, and there shall be set forth plainly and clearly good and sufficient reasons why said appointment was not made to the person holding the highest grade in the event the one holding the third highest grade shall receive the appointment. In the event the person holding the highest is not certified for the appointment, he shall be furnished with a copy of the reasons therefor as filed with the Commission, and in the event the one having the third highest grade is appointed a copy of such reasons shall also be furnished to the one holding the second highest grade. This Section shall be limited by the other provisions hereof relating to promotions.

Certification of Employees

Sec. 11. Whenever a person is certified and appointed in the said Fire Department or Police Department, the Director shall forward a record of the person so certified and appointed to the Fire Chief or head of the Department or Police Chief or head of that Department, forward a similar copy to the chief executive, and retain a copy in the civil service files. The record shall show: The date notice of examination was posted, date on which person certified took examination to be placed on eligibility list, name of person or persons conducting examination, relative position of person on eligibility list, date when person certified took physical examination, name of physician making examination, with information as to whether or not applicant was accepted or rejected, date on which request for filling such vacancy was made, date on which applicant was notified to report for duty and date on which his pay is to start. If the Director shall willfully fail to comply with any provisions of this Section, it shall be the duty of the Commission to forthwith remove him from office. The failure however, of the Director of Civil Service to comply with any of the provisions of this Section shall in no way impair the civil service standing of any employee.

Probationary and Full-fledged Firemen and Policemen

Sec. 12. (a) A person who has received appointment to the Fire Department or Police Department hereunder, shall serve a probationary period of one (1) year from date of employment with the Department as a Fireman, Policeman, or trainee in an academy.

(b) In any city having a population of 1,200,000 or more, according to the most recent federal census, a person who has received appointment to the Police Department and has ended his service with the Department for any reason shall serve a probationary period of six (6) months from date of reappointment. A reappointed officer is not entitled to full civil service protection until the officer has served the full probationary period after reappointment. For purposes of determining classification, pay status, and eligibility for promotion of the reappointed officer, the probationary period after reappointment is counted as if the reappointed officer were not on probation.

(c) During such probationary period, it shall be the duty of the Fire Chief or head of the Fire Department or Police Chief or head of the Police Department to discharge all Firemen or Policemen whose appointments were not regular, or not made in substantial compliance with Sections 9, 10, and 11 of this Act and not otherwise, they shall automatically become full-fledged civil service employees and shall have full civil service protection. All positions in the Fire Department, except that of Chief or head of the Department, and in the Police Department, except that of Chief or head of the Department, shall be classified by the Commission and the positions filled from the eligibility lists as provided herein.

(d) All offices and positions in the Fire Department or Police Department shall be established by ordinance of the City Council or governing body, provided however that the failure of a City Council or governing body to establish a position by ordinance shall not result in the loss of Civil Service benefits under this Act by any person appointed to such position in substantial compliance with the provisions of Sections 9, 10, and 11 of this Act and not otherwise, they shall automatically become full-fledged civil service employees and shall have full civil service protection. All positions in the Fire Department, except that of Chief or head of the Department, and in the Police Department, except that of Chief or head of the Department, shall be classified by the Commission and the positions filled from the eligibility lists as provided herein.

Employee Organization Membership
Requirements Prohibited

Sec. 12A. An employee who is on probation may not be prohibited from joining or required to join an employee organization. Joining or not joining an employee organization is not a ground for retention or nonretention of an employee who is serving a probationary period.

Notice of Examinations

Sec. 13. At least ten (10) days in advance of any entrance examination and at least thirty (30) days in advance of any examination for promotion, the Commission shall cause to be posted on a bulletin board located in the main lobby of the city hall, and the office of the Commission, and in plain view, a notice of such examination, and said notice shall show the position to be filled or for which examination is to be held, with date, time, and place thereof, and in case of examination for promotion, copies of such notice shall be furnished in quantities sufficient for posting in the various stations or subdepartments in which position is to be filled. No one under eighteen (18) years of age shall take any entrance examination, and appointees to the Police and Fire Department shall not have reached their thirty-sixth birthday for entrance into the Fire Department or Police Department. The results of each examination for promotion shall be posted on a bulletin board located in the main lobby of the city hall by the Commission within twenty-four (24) hours after such examination.

Promotions; Filling Vacancies

Sec. 14. The Commission shall make rules and regulations governing promotions and shall hold promotional examinations to provide eligibility lists for each classification in the Police and Fire Departments, which examinations shall be held substantially under the following requirements:

A. (1) All promotional examinations shall be open to all policemen who have held a continuous position for two (2) years or more immediately prior to the examination in the classification immediately below, in salary, that classification for which the examination is to be held. In police departments that have adopted a classification plan that classifies positions on the basis of similarity in duties and responsibilities, all promotional examinations shall be open to a policeman who has held a continuous position for two (2) years or more immediately prior to the examination at the next lower paygrade, if it exists, in the classification for which the promotional examination is being offered. When there is not a sufficient number of members in the next lower position with two (2) years’ service in that position to provide an adequate number of persons to take the examination, the Commission shall open the examination to members in that position with less than two (2) years’ service. If there is still an insufficient number, the Commission may extend the examination to the members in the second lower position in salary to that for which the examination is to be held.

(2) All promotional examinations shall be open to all firemen who have ever held a continuous position for two (2) years or more in the classification immediately below, in salary, that classification for which the examination is being held. In fire departments that have adopted a classification plan that classifies positions on the basis of similarity in duties and responsibilities, all promotional examinations shall be open to a fireman who has ever held a continuous position for two (2) years or more at the next lower paygrade, if it exists, in the class for which the promotional examination is being offered. This section may not be construed to prohibit lateral crossover between classes. If there are not enough members in the next lower position with two (2) years’ service in that position to provide an adequate number of persons to take the examination, the Commission may open the examination to members in that position with less than two (2) years’ service. If there is still an insufficient number, the Commission may extend the examination to members in the second lower position in salary to that for which the examination is to be held with two (2) years’ service in that position.

B. Each fireman shall be given one (1) point for each year of seniority in his Department, but never to exceed ten (10) points. Each policeman shall be given one (1) point for each year of seniority as a classified police officer in his Department, but never to exceed ten (10) points.

C. The Commission may formulate proper procedure and rules for semi-annual efficiency reports and grade of each member of the Police or Fire Departments. If the Commission compiles efficiency reports for members of the Police or Fire Department, the Commission shall provide a copy of a member’s efficiency report to the member. Any fireman or policeman may, within ten (10) days after receiving his efficiency report, make a statement in writing about the efficiency report. The statement shall be placed in his personnel file with the efficiency report.

D. (1) (a) Except as prescribed by Subdivision (6) of this subsection, all applicants shall be given an identical examination in the presence of each other, which promotional examination shall be entirely in writing and no part of which shall be by oral interview, and all of the questions asked therein shall be prepared and composed in such a manner that the grading of the examination papers can be promptly completed immediately after the holding of the examination and shall be prepared so as to test the knowledge of the applicants concerning information and facts, and all of said questions shall be based upon material which is a reasonably current publication and has been made reasonably available to all members of the Fire or Police Department involved and shall be based upon the duties of the position sought and upon any study courses given by such Departmental Schools of Instruction. All promotional examination questions must be taken from sources that are listed in a notice that is posted by the Commission at least thirty (30) days before the date of the examination. Firemen or policemen may suggest source materials for promotional examinations. The notice required by Section 13 of this Act may include the name of each source used and the number of questions taken from each source. The Commission may include the chapter of each source. When one of the applicants taking an examination for promotion has completed his answers, the grading of such examination shall begin, and all of the examination papers shall be graded as they are completed, at the place where the examination is given and in the presence of any applicants who wish to remain during the grading.

(b) The Director is responsible for the preparation and security of all promotional examinations. The fairness of the competitive promotional examinations is the responsibility of the Commission, the Director, and any municipal employee involved in the preparation or administration of the examination. A person who knowingly or intentionally reveals any part of a promotional examination to an unauthorized person or intentionally receives from an unauthorized person any part of a promotional examination commits a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) or imprisoned for not more than one (1) year in the county jail at the discretion of the court.

(2) Except as prescribed by Subdivision (6) of this subsection, the grade which shall be placed on the eligibility list for each policeman applicant shall be computed by adding the policeman applicant’s points for seniority to his grade on such written examination. Grades on such written examinations shall be based upon a maximum grade of one hundred (100) points and shall be determined entirely by the correctness of each policeman applicant’s answers to such questions. The minimum passing score for the written examination is seventy (70) points.

(3) The grade which shall be placed on the eligibility list for each fireman applicant shall be computed by adding the fireman applicant’s points for seniority to his grade on the written examination. Grades on the written examination shall be based on a maximum grade of one hundred (100) points and shall be determined entirely by the correctness of each fireman applicant’s answers to the questions. The minimum passing score for the written examination is seventy (70) points.

(4) Each applicant shall have the opportunity to examine the source materials, his examination, and his answers therefor together with the grading thereof and if dissatisfied shall, within five (5) working days, appeal the same to the Commission for review in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(5) Except as prescribed by Section 8A of this Act, a fireman is not eligible for promotion unless he has served in such Department for at least two (2) years at any time prior to the day of such promotional examination in the next lower position or other positions specified by the Commission, and no person with less than four (4) years’ actual service in such Department shall be eligible for promotion to the rank of captain or its equivalent. Except as prescribed by Section 8A of this Act, a policeman is not eligible for promotion unless the policeman has served in the Department for at least two (2) years immediately preceding the date of the promotional examination in the next lower position or other positions specified by the Commission, and no person with less than four (4) years’ actual service in the Department shall be eligible for promotion to the rank of captain or its equivalent. Provided, however, that the requirement of two (2) years’ service in the Fire Department at any time prior to the day of promotional examination shall not be applicable to those persons recalled on active military duty for a period not to exceed twenty-four (24) months. The Police Department's requirement of two (2) years' service immediately preceding the date of the promotional examination does not apply to persons recalled to active military duty for a period not to exceed twenty-four (24) months. Such persons shall be entitled to have time spent on active military duty considered as duty in the Department concerned. However, any person whose absence for active military duty exceeds twelve (12) months shall be required to serve ninety (90) days upon returning to the Department before he shall become eligible to participate in a promotional examination, such period of time to be considered essential for bringing him up to date on equipment and techniques.

6(a) In a city having a population of less than 1,500,000 according to the last preceding federal census, the Commission may, on the recommendation of the Chief or Head of the Police Department and a majority vote of the sworn police officers, adopt an alternate promotional system to select persons to occupy nonentry level positions other than positions that are filled by appointment by the Chief or Head of the Police Department. The promotional system shall comply with the following requirements:

(1) the Commission shall order the Director to conduct an election and to submit the revised promotional system by secret ballot to all sworn police officers;

(2) the election shall be held no earlier than the thirtieth (30th) day after the day on which notice of the election is posted at the Department. The election shall be conducted throughout each regular work shift at an accessible location within the Department during a 24-hour period;

(3) the ballot shall contain the specific amendment to the promotional procedure and each sworn police officer shall be given the opportunity to vote "for" or "against" the amendment;

(4) the revised promotional system must be approved by a majority vote of the sworn police officers voting;

(5) a defeated promotional system amendment may not be placed on a ballot for vote before the sworn police officers for at least twelve (12) months after the date on which the prior election was held;

(6) if approved by the sworn police officers, the promotional system amendment becomes effective after all election disputes have been ruled on and the election votes have been canvassed by the Commission;

(7) the Commission shall canvass the votes not later than the thirtieth (30th) day after the date on which the election was held; and

(8) all appeals alleging election irregularity must be filed with the Commission not later than the fifth (5th) working day after the date on which the election closes.

(b) At any time after an alternate promotional system has been adopted under this subdivision and has been in effect for at least one hundred and eighty (180) days, the Police Chief may petition the Commission to terminate the alternate system and the Commission shall terminate the alternate system. If the alternate system is terminated, an additional list may not be created under the alternate system.

(c) At any time after an alternate promotional system has been adopted under this subdivision and has been in effect for at least one hundred and eighty (180) days, a petition signed by at least thirty-five percent (35%) of the sworn police officers may be submitted to the Commission asking that the alternate promotional system be reconsidered. If a petition is submitted, the Commission shall, not later than the sixtieth (60th) day after the date on which the petition was filed, hold an election as prescribed by Paragraph (4) of this subdivision. If a majority of those voting vote to repeal, the Commission shall terminate the alternate promotional system. If the alternate system is terminated, an additional list may not be created under the alternate system.

(d) A promotional list may not be created if an election under this subdivision is pending. An existing eligibility list, whether created under the system prescribed by this Act or created under an alternate system adopted under this subdivision, may not be terminated before or extended beyond its expiration date. A person promoted under an alternate system has the same rights and the same status as a person promoted under this Act even if the alternate system is later repealed.

(e) This subdivision does not apply to a city that has adopted The Fire and Police Employee Relations Act (Article 5154c-1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(f) No person shall be eligible for appointment as Chief or Head of the Fire Department of any city coming under the provisions of this Act who is not eligible for certification by the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education at the intermediate level or its equivalent as determined by that Commission and who has not served at least five (5) years as a fully paid firefighter. No person may be eligible for appointment as Chief or Head of the Police Department who is not eligible for certification by the Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education at the intermediate level or its equivalent as determined by that Commission and who has not served as a bona fide law enforcement officer for five (5) years.

E. (1) Upon written request by the Heads of the Departments for a person to fill a vacancy in any classification, the Commission shall certify to the Head of the Department the three (3) names having the highest grades on such eligibility list for such classification for the vacancy requested to be filled. If fewer than three (3) names remain on the eligibility list, all the names must be submitted to the Head of the Department, and the Head of such Department shall appoint the person having the highest grade, except where such Head of the Department shall have a valid reason for not appointing such highest name, and in such cases he shall, before such appointment, file his reasons in writing, for rejection of the higher name or names, with the Commission, which reasons shall be valid and subject to review by the Commission upon the application of such rejected person.

(2) The name of each person on the eligibility lists shall be submitted to the Head of the Department three (3) times; and if passed over three (3) times with written reasons filed thereafter and not set aside by the Commission, he shall thereafter be dropped from the eligibility list. All promotional eligibility lists shall remain in existence for one (1) year unless exhausted, and at the expiration of one (1) year they shall expire and new examinations may be given.

F. The Commission shall proceed to hold examinations to create eligibility lists within ninety (90) days after a vacancy in any classification occurs, or new positions are created, unless an eligibility list is in existence. If an eligibility list exists, the Commission shall certify within ten (10) days after notification of the vacancy to the Head of the Department the names of persons eligible to fill all promotional positions. The certified names must come from the eligibility list which exists on the date the vacancy occurs.

G. In the event any new classification is established either by name or by increase of salary, the same shall be filled by competitive examination in accordance with this law.

Crossover Promotions

Sec. 14A. (a) In any city in this state having a population of 1,500,000 or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census, all members of the police department, who shall be employed by such department with duties in a specialized technical area, to wit: (1) technical class, which includes but is not limited to criminal laboratory, analysis and interpretations, and the technical criminal aspects of identification and photography, or (2) communications class, which includes but is not limited to the technical operations of police radio communications, shall be eligible for promotions within their respective classes. In addition, all peace officers employed by the city, who shall be employed by such city department with duties in separate specialized police divisions, to wit: (1) park police class, which includes all sworn park police officers except those in ranks excluded from civil service status by this Act, or (2) airport police class, which includes all sworn airport police officers except those in ranks excluded from civil service status by this Act, or (8) city marshal class, which includes all sworn deputy city marshals except those in ranks excluded from civil service status by this Act, shall be eligible for promotions within their respective classes.

(b) In no event shall the members of the technical class, communications class, park police class, airport police class, city marshal class, or uniformed and detective class be eligible for promotion to a position outside of their respective class. This section shall be construed so as to preclude the lateral crossover by promotion by members of the technical, communications, park police, airport police, and city marshal classes into the uniformed and detective class of the department; also to preclude the lateral crossover by promotion of members of the uniformed and detective class into the technical, communications, park police, airport police, and city marshal classes of the department. In the event a member of one class desires to change classes, such may be accomplished upon qualification and only by entry into the new class at the lowest entry level of that class.

(c) This section shall not operate so as to prevent the chief of police, assistant chiefs of police, and deputy chiefs of police, or their equivalent, by whatever name or title they may be called, from exercising the full sanctions, powers, duties, and authority of their respective offices in the supervision, management, and control over the uniformed and detective class, technical class, communications class, park police class, airport police class, and city marshal class.

(d) All provisions of this article regarding eligibility lists, examinations, appointments, and promotions shall apply to members of the technical class, communications class, park police class, airport police class, city marshal class, uniform class and detective class. However, said provisions shall apply only to the appointment and promotion of a member of a particular class to a new position within such class.

Civil Service Rights of Department Head

Sec. 15. When the services of the Chief or head of the Fire Department or Police Department are terminated as such and he is removed as such Department head, he shall be reinstated in the Department and placed in a position no lower than the rank he held at time of appointment, and he shall retain all rights of seniority in the Department; provided, that should such Department head be charged with an offense in violation of civil service rules, and be dismissed from the public service, or be discharged from his position, he shall have the same rights and privileges of a hearing before the Commission, and in the same manner and under the same conditions as may classified employees, and if the Commission should find such charges to be untrue, or unfounded, said employee shall thereupon immediately be restored to the Department as above provided, and said employee shall enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunder according to seniority, and shall be paid his full salary for the time of suspension.

Indefinite Suspensions

Sec. 16. (a) In a city having a population of 1,500,000 or more according to the most recent federal census, the Chief or Head of the Fire Department or Police Department of the city government shall have the power to suspend indefinitely any officer or employee under his supervision or jurisdiction for the violation of civil service rules, but in every such case the officer making such order of suspension shall within one hundred and twenty (120) hours thereafter, file a written statement with the Commission, giving the reasons for such suspension, and immediately furnish a copy thereof to the officer or employee affected by such act, said order of suspension to be delivered in person to such suspended officer or employee by said department head. Said order of suspension shall inform the employee that he has ten (10) days after receipt of a copy thereof, within which to file a written appeal with the Commission. The Commission shall hold a hearing and render a decision in writing within thirty (30) days after it receives said notice of appeal. Said decision shall state whether or not the suspended officer or employee shall be permanently or temporarily dismissed from the Fire or Police Department or be restored to his former position or status in the classified service in the department.

In the event that such suspended employee is restored to the position or class of service from which he was suspended, such employee shall receive full compensation at the rate of pay provided for the department head merely to refer to the civil service rules alleged to have been violated by the suspended employee, it shall be the duty of the department head to administer the civil service law in accordance with this purpose; and the commission shall have the same authority herein to punish for contempt as has the Justice of the Peace.

Disciplinary Suspensions

Sec. 16b. (a) In a city having a population of 1,500,000 or more according to the most recent federal census, the head of either the fire or the police department may suspend an officer or employee under his jurisdiction or supervision for disciplinary purposes, for reasonable periods, not to exceed 15 days. If the department suspends a person, the department head shall file with the commission not later than the 120th hour after the person is suspended a written statement of action, and the commission shall, on appeal of the suspended officer or employee, hold a public hearing as prescribed by Section 17 of this Act. The commission may reverse the decision of the department head if it finds that the discipline imposed was not justified under the provisions of this law and are to render a fair and just decision, considering only the evidence presented before them in such hearing.
head and instruct the department head to immediately restore the employee to his position and to repay the employee for any lost wages. If the commission finds that the period of disciplinary suspension should be reduced, it may order a reduction in the period of suspension. If the department head refuses to obey the order of the commission, the provisions of Section 16 of this Act relating to salary of employees, the discharge of the department head, and the other provisions relating to the refusal of the department head apply.

(b) In a city having a population of less than 1,500,000 according to the most recent federal census, the chief or head of the fire department or police department may suspend an officer or employee under his supervision or jurisdiction for the violation of a civil service rule for a reasonable period not to exceed 15 calendar days, or for an indefinite period. An indefinite suspension is equivalent to permanent dismissal from the department. If offered by the chief or head of the department, the officer or employee may agree in writing to voluntarily accept, with no right of appeal, a suspension of not less than 15 or more than 90 calendar days for violation of civil service rules. The officer or employee must accept the offer not later than the fifth working day after the offer is made. If the chief or head of a department suspends a person, the chief or head shall, not later than the 120th hour after the hour of suspension, file a written statement with the commission giving the reasons for the suspension, and shall immediately furnish a copy of the statement to the suspended officer or employee. The chief or department head shall deliver the copy in person to the suspended officer or employee. The order of suspension shall inform the officer or employee that if he wishes to appeal, he must file a written appeal with the commission not later than the 10th day after the date on which the officer or employee receives a copy of the statement. If the officer or employee refuses an offer of suspension of not less than 16 or more than 90 calendar days and wishes to appeal to the commission, the officer or employee must file a written appeal with the commission not later than the 15th day after the date the officer or employee receives the statement. Unless the suspended officer or employee and the commission mutually agree to postpone the hearing for a definite period of time, the commission shall hold a hearing and render a decision in writing not later than the 30th day after the date on which it receives the notice of appeal. The decision of the commission shall state whether or not the suspended officer or employee is permanently dismissed, or temporarily suspended from the fire or police department, or restored to his former position or status in the classified service in the department. If the commission finds that the period of disciplinary suspension should be reduced, it may order a reduction in the period of suspension. If the suspended officer or employee is restored to the position or class of service from which he was suspended, the officer or employee shall receive full compensation at the rate of pay provided for the position or class of service from which he was suspended for the actual time lost as a result of the suspension. All hearings of the commission in case of a suspension are public. The commission may deliberate the decision in closed session but may not consider evidence that was not presented at the hearing. The commission shall vote in open session. The written statement filed by the department head with the commission shall point out the civil service rule alleged to have been violated by the suspended officer or employee and shall contain the alleged acts of the officer or employee that the department head contends are in violation of the civil service rules. It is not sufficient for the department head merely to refer to the provisions of the rules alleged to have been violated. If the department head does not specifically point out the act or acts complained of on the part of the officer or employee, the commission shall promptly reinstate the officer or employee. In a civil service hearing conducted under this subsection, the department head is restricted to his original written statement and charges which may not be amended. In the original written statement and charges and in any hearing conducted under this subsection, the department head may not complain of an act or acts that occurred earlier than the 180th day immediately preceding the date on which the department head suspends the officer or employee. An officer or employee may not be suspended or dismissed by the commission except for violation of the civil service rules, and after a finding by the commission of the truth of specific charges against the officer or employee. HEARING EXAMINERS

Sec. 16c. (a) In a city having a population of less than 1,500,000 according to the most recent federal census, in an appeal of an indefinite suspension, a suspension, a promotional passover, or a recommended demotion, the appealing employee may elect to appeal to an independent third party hearing examiner instead of to the commission. To exercise this choice, the appealing employee must submit a letter to the director stating his decision to appeal to an independent third party hearing examiner.

(b) The decision of the hearing examiner is final and binding on all parties. If the employee decides to appeal to an independent third party hearing examiner, the employee automatically waives all rights to appeal to district court.

(c) If the appealing employee chooses to appeal to a hearing examiner, the employee and the chief shall first attempt to mutually agree on the selection of an impartial hearing examiner. If an agreement is not reached on the selection of the hearing examiner on or before the 10th day after the date the appeal is filed, the director shall immediately request a list of seven qualified neutral arbitrators from the American Arbitration Association or Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, or their successor in function. The employee and the chief may mutually agree on one of the seven neutral arbitrators on the list. If they do not agree within five working days after receipt of the list, each party shall alternate striking a name from the list and the name remaining shall be the hearing examiner.

(d) The appeal hearing shall commence as soon as the hearing examiner selected can be scheduled. If the hearing examiner cannot commence the hearing within 45 calendar days after the date of selection, the employee may, within two days of hearing of that fact, call for the selection of a new hearing examiner using the same procedure as provided by Subsection (c) of this section.

(e) All fees and expenses of the hearing examiner are shared equally by the appealing officer or employee and by the department. The costs of witnesses for either side shall be paid by the party who calls the witnesses.

(f) A state district court may hear appeals of an award of a hearing examiner only on the grounds that the arbitration panel was without jurisdiction or exceeded its jurisdiction or that the order was procured by fraud, collusion, or other unlawful means. An appeal must be brought in the state district court having jurisdiction in the municipality in which the department is located.

Procedures After Criminal Indictment

Sec. 16d. (a) In a city having a population of less than 1,500,000 according to the most recent federal census, if a fire fighter or police officer is indicted for a felony or officially charged with the commission of a Class A or B misdemeanor, the procedures prescribed by this section apply.

(b) The head of the department may temporarily suspend the fire fighter or police officer with or without pay. The head of the department shall notify the fire fighter or police officer in writing that he is being temporarily suspended with or without pay for a period not to exceed 30 days after the date of final disposition of the specified felony or misdemeanor complaint, and that the temporary suspension is not intended to reflect an opinion on the merits of the indictment or complaint.

(c) If the action directly related to the felony indictment or misdemeanor complaint occurred or was discovered on or after the 180th day before the date of the indictment or complaint, the head of the department may, not later than the 30th day after the date of final disposition of the felony charge or misdemeanor complaint, bring a civil service charge against the fire fighter or police officer.

(d) Conviction of a felony is cause for dismissal, and conviction of a Class A or B misdemeanor may be cause for disciplinary action or indefinite suspension.

(e) Acquittal or dismissal of an indictment or a misdemeanor complaint does not mean that a fire fighter or police officer has not violated civil service rules or regulations and does not negate the charges that may have been or may be brought against him by the department head.

(f) A fire fighter or police officer indicted for a felony or officially charged with the commission of a Class A or B misdemeanor who has also been charged by the department head with civil service violations directly related to the indictment or misdemeanor complaint may delay the civil service hearing for a period of not more than 30 days after final disposition of the indictment or complaint.

(g) If the head of the department temporarily suspends a fire fighter or police officer who has been indicted for a felony or officially charged with a Class A or B misdemeanor, and the fire fighter or police officer is not found guilty of the indictment or complaint in the court of competent jurisdiction, the fire fighter or police officer may appeal to the commission or to a hearing examiner for recovery of back pay. The commission or hearing examiner may award all or part of the back pay or reject the appeal.

(h) The department head may order an indefinite suspension based on an act or acts classified as a felony or a Class A or B misdemeanor after the 180-day period after discovery of the act or acts by the department if delay is considered necessary by the department head to protect a criminal investigation of the employee's conduct. If the department head intends to order an indefinite suspension after the 180-day period, the department head must file a statement describing the criminal investigation and its objectives with the attorney general not later than the 180th day after the date on which the act complained of occurred.

Procedure Before Commission

Sec. 17. In order for a Fireman or Policeman to appeal to the Commission from any action for which an appeal or review is provided under the terms of this Act, it shall only be necessary for him to file within ten (10) days with the Commission an appeal setting forth the basis of his appeal. The appeal shall include a statement denying the truth of the charge as made, a statement taking exception to the legal sufficiency of such charges, a statement alleging that the recommended action does not fit the offense or alleged offense, or any combination of the statements, and in addition, a request for a hearing by the Commission. In all hearings, appeals, and reviews of every kind and character, wherein the Commission is performing an adjudicatory function, the employee shall have the right to be represented by council or any person of his choice. The employee may request the Commission to subpoena any books, records, documents, papers, accounts, or witnesses that the employee considers pertinent to his case. The request to have materials subpoenaed must be made at least ten (10) days before the date of the hearing. If the Commission does not subpoena the requested material, at least three (3) days prior to the hearing date, it shall make a written report to the employee stating the reason it will not subpoena the requested material, and this report shall be read into the public records of the Commission hearing. The witnesses may be placed under the rule. All such proceedings shall be public. The Commission shall consider only evidence submitted at the hearing. The Commission shall have the authority to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum for the attendance of witnesses and for the production of documentary material. The Commission shall maintain a permanent public record of all proceedings with copies available at cost.

Appeal to District Court

Sec. 18. In the event any Fireman or Policeman is dissatisfied with any decision of the Commission, he may, within ten (10) days after the rendition of such final decision, file a petition in the District Court, asking that the decision be set aside, and such case shall be tried de novo. The court in such actions may grant such legal or equitable relief as may be appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this Act, including reinstatement or promotion with back pay where an order of suspension, dismissal, or demotion is set aside. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party and assess court costs against the nonprevailing party. If the court finds for the fireman or policeman, the court shall order the city to pay lost wages to the fireman or policeman.

Demotions

Sec. 19. Whenever the head of the Fire Department or Police Department may desire the demotion to a lower rank of an officer or employee under his supervision or jurisdiction, such Department head may recommend in writing to the Commission that such employee be so demoted, giving his reasons therefor, and requesting that the Commission make such order of demotion, furnishing a true copy of such recommendation immediately, in person, to the employee to be affected by such demotion. Said Commission shall have the authority to refuse to grant said request for demotion. If however, said Commission feels that probably cause exists for said demotion, they shall give such employee ten (10) days advance written notice to appear before them at a time and place specified in said written notice to the employee, and said employee shall have the right to a full and complete public hearing upon such proposed demotion. The Commission shall not demote any employee without such hearing.

Uncompensated Duty

Sec. 20. (a) In this section, “uncompensated duty” means days of police work without pay and in addition to regular or normal work days.

(b) In a city having a population of less than 1,500,000 according to the most recent federal census, the head of the Police Department may assign any officer or employee under his jurisdiction or supervision to uncompensated duty. The chief or department head may not impose uncompensated duty unless the officer or employee agrees. The duty may be in place of or in combination with a period of disciplinary suspension without pay. If uncompensated duty is combined with a disciplinary suspension, the total number of uncompensated duty days may not exceed 15. If the officer or employee agrees to accept uncompensated duty, the chief or department head shall give the officer or employee a written statement that specifies the date or dates on which the officer or employee will perform uncompensated duty.

(c) An officer or employee may not earn or accrue any wage, salary, or benefit arising from length of service while the officer or employee is suspended or performing uncompensated duty. A disciplinary suspension does not constitute a break in a continuous position or service in the department for the purpose of determining eligibility for a promotional examination. The days on which an officer or employee performs assigned uncompensated duty may not be taken into consideration in determining eligibility for a promotional examination. Except as provided by this subsection, an officer or employee performing assigned uncompensated duty retains all rights and privileges of his position in the Police Department and of his employment by the city.

Reduction of Force: Reinstatement List

Sec. 21. In the event that any position in the Fire Department or Police Department is vacated or abolished by ordinance of the City Council, or legislative body, the employee holding such position shall be demoted to the position next below the rank of the position so vacated or abolished; provided that when any position or positions of equal rank may be abolished or vacated, the employee or employees with the least seniority in the said rank shall be the one or ones who are demoted.

In the event that it thereby becomes necessary to demote an employee or employees to the position next below the rank of the position so vacated or abolished, such employee or employees as are involuntarily demoted without charges having been filed against them for violation of civil service rules shall be placed on a position reinstatement list in order of their seniority. If any such position so vacated or abolished is filled or re-created within one (1) year, the position reinstatement list for such position shall be exhausted before any employee not on such list is promoted to such position. Promotions from the position reinstatement list shall be in the order of seniority.

In the event positions in the lowest classifications are abolished or vacated, and it thereby becomes necessary to dismiss employees from the Department, the employee with the least seniority shall be dismissed, but such employees as are involuntarily separated from the Department without charges having been filed against them for violation of civil service rules, shall be placed on the reinstatement list in order of their seniority. The reinstatement list shall be exhausted before appointments are made from the eligibility list. Appointments from reinstatement list shall be in the order of seniority. Those who shall have been on any such reinstatement list for a period of three (3) years shall be dropped from such list but shall be reinstated upon request from the Commission.
Art. 1269m  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES  122

Political Activities; Leaves of Absence

Sec. 22. Employees in the Fire Department or Police Department shall not be permitted to take an active part in any political campaign of another for an elective position of the city if they are in uniform or on active duty. The term active part means making political speeches, passing out cards, or other political literature, writing letters, signing petitions, actively and openly soliciting votes and making public derogatory remarks about candidates for such elective positions.

Firemen and Policemen coming under the provisions of this Act are not required to contribute to any political fund or render any political service to any person or party whatsoever, and no person shall be removed, reduced in classification or salary, or otherwise prejudiced by refusing to do so; and any official of any city coming under the provisions of this Act who attempts the same shall be guilty of violating the provisions of this Act.

No fireman or policeman shall be refused reasonable leave of absence without pay, provided that a sufficient number of employees to carry out the normal functions of the Department shall be provided, for the purpose of attending any fire or police school, conventions, or meetings, the purpose of which is to secure more efficient departments and better working conditions for the personnel thereof, nor shall any rule ever be adopted affecting their constitutional right to appear before or petition the Legislature. Provided however, that no Civil Service Commission, or any governing body of any city shall further restrict the rights of employees of the Police and Fire Departments to engage in political activities except as herein expressly provided.

Military Leave of Absence

Sec. 22a. The Civil Service Commission on written application of a member of the fire or police department shall grant military leave of absence without pay to such member to enable him to enter military service of the United States in any of its branches. Such leave of absence may not exceed the compulsory military service or the basic minimum enlistment period for that branch of service. The Commission shall grant a leave of absence to a member of the fire or police department for initial training or annual duty in military reserves or the national guard. The Civil Service Commission shall grant such leave retroactively back to the commencement of the Korean War. Any such member receiving military leave of absence hereunder shall be entitled to be returned to the position in the department held by him at the time the leave of absence is granted, upon the termination of his active military service, provided he receives an Honorable Discharge and remains physically and mentally fit to discharge the duties of that position; and further provided he makes application for reinstatement within ninety (90) days after his discharge. Upon being returned to said position, such member shall receive full seniority credit for the time spent in the military service. During the absence from the department of any such member to whom military leave of absence shall have been granted by the Civil Service Commission the position in the department held by such member shall be filled in accordance with the other provisions of the Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service Act subject to the person filling such position being replaced by the member to whose military leave of absence has been granted upon his return to active duty with the department. Any person so replaced and remaining with the department and by reason of such replacement being returned to a position lower in grade or compensation shall have a preferential right for subsequent appointment or promotion to the same or similar position of that from which he has been replaced over any eligibility list for such position, provided he remains physically and mentally fit to discharge the duties of such position.

Publishing of Rules; Mailing, Posting and Distribution

Sec. 23. The Commission shall cause to be published all rules and regulations which may be promulgated by it, and shall publish classification and seniority lists for each department, and such rules and regulations and lists shall be made available upon demand.

Whenever the Commission shall have adopted any such rules or regulations by a majority vote, and shall have caused same to be reduced to writing, typewriting or printing, such rules and such regulations shall thereupon be deemed to be sufficiently published and promulgated within the meaning of this Act and shall be valid and binding, upon the Commission doing or causing to be done the following:

1. By mailing a copy of such rules and regulations to the Commissioner of Fire and Police, the Chief of the Police Department, and the Chief of the Fire Department.

2. By posting all such rules and regulations at a conspicuous place for a period of seven (7) days in the Central Police Station and for the same period in the Central Fire Station.

3. By mailing a copy of all such rules and regulations to each branch fire station.

The Director of Civil Service shall keep on hand copies of said rules and regulations for free distri-
No additional publication by way of insertion in a newspaper shall be required and no action need be taken by the City Council or governing body of any such city with reference to said rules or regulations; and in all cities coming under the provisions of this Act, where the Commission has heretofore adopted any such rules and regulations, and has caused same to be reduced to writing, typewriting or printing, and complied with all provisions of this Section, such rules and such regulations are hereby validated ab initio regardless of whether same have been published in a newspaper, or by posting, or otherwise, and regardless of whether any section has been taken with reference thereto by the City Council or governing body of such city.

Status of Present Employees

Sec. 24. Firemen or Policemen in the actual service of each city affected hereby, at the time of the final passage of this Act, and entitled to civil service classification, shall enjoy the status of civil service employees without having to take any competitive examinations for the position occupied at the time, provided such Firemen and Policemen have been in the service of said city for more than six (6) months.

Penalties

Sec. 25a. Any chief executive of a city who knowingly or intentionally fails or refuses to appoint the Civil Service Commissioners provided by Section 3 of this Act, or who consents to the adoption of a code of civil service rules and regulations different from any other city, the said code of rules and regulations to be valid notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in any charter or constitutional amendment; or who knowingly or intentionally fails or refuses to implement this Act or to give effect to this Act, or who shall in any manner violate the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200). Any person or persons who shall knowingly or intentionally violate or obstruct the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200) for each offense.

Sick and Injury Leaves of Absence

Sec. 26. (a) Permanent and temporary employees in the classified service shall be allowed a total of sick leave with full pay computed upon a basis of one and one-fourth (1½) full working days allowed for each full month employed in a calendar year, so as to total fifteen (15) working days to an employee's credit each twelve (12) months. Employees shall be allowed to accumulate fifteen (15) working days of sick leave with pay in one (1) calendar year.

(b) Sick leave with pay may be accumulated without limit and may be used while an employee is unable to work because of any bona fide illness, in the event that the said employee can conclusively prove that the illness was incurred while in performance of his duties, an extension of sick leave in case of exhaustion of time shall be granted.

(c) In the event that a Fireman or Policeman for any reason leaves the classified service, he shall receive, in a lump sum payment, the full amount of his salary for the period of his accumulated sick leave, provided that if the Fireman or Policeman has more than ninety (90) working days of accumulated sick leave, the employer may limit the payment to that sum equal to the sum that the employee would have been paid had he been allowed to use the ninety (90) days of accumulated sick leave during the last six (6) months of employment. The lump sum payment provided in this section is calculated as follows: the employee is compensated for the accumulated time at the highest permanent classification of pay for which the employee was eligible during the last six (6) months of employment. The employee is paid for the same period of time the employee would have been paid if the sick leave had been taken but excluding additional holidays and any sick leave or vacation time which the employee might have accrued during the ninety (90) working days.

(d) If an active Fireman or Policeman dies as a result of a line of duty injury or line of duty illness, the entire amount of his accumulated sick leave shall be paid as provided in this section. Provided, that in order to facilitate the settlement of the accounts of deceased employees of the Fire or Police Departments, all unpaid compensation due such employee at the time of his death shall be paid to the person or persons surviving at the date of death, in the following order or precedence and such payments shall be a bar to recovery by any other person of amounts so paid.

First, to the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the employee in writing to receive such compensation filed with the Civil Service Commission prior to the employee's death;

Second, if there be no such beneficiary, to the widow or widower of such employee;

Third, if there be no such beneficiary or surviving spouse, to the child or children of such employee, and descendants of deceased children, by representation;

Fourth, if none of the above, to the parents of such employee, or the survivor of them;

Fifth, if there be none of the above, to the duly appointed legal representative of the estate of the deceased employee, or if there be none, to the person or persons determined to be entitled thereto under the laws of descent and distribution of the State of Texas.
Art. 1269m

CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

(e) Provided that all such cities coming under the provisions of this Act shall provide injury leaves of absence and line of duty illness leaves of absence for Firemen and Policemen with full pay for periods of time commensurate with the nature of the line of duty illness or injuries for at least one (1) year. At the expiration of said one-year period, the City Council or governing body may extend such line of duty illness or injury leave, at full or reduced pay, provided that in cities that have a Firemen's or Policemen's Pension Fund, that if said injured employee's salary should be reduced below sixty per cent (60%) of his regular monthly salary, said employee shall have the option of being retired on pension until able to return to duty.

(f) If there are no pension benefits available to an employee who is temporarily disabled by a line of duty injury or illness and the year at full pay and any extensions which may have been granted by the employer have expired, the employee may use accumulated sick leave, vacation time, and other accrued benefits before being temporarily placed on leave.

(g) If an employee is temporarily disabled by an injury or illness not related to the employee's line of duty, the employee may use all sick leave, vacation time, and any other time the employee may have accumulated before being placed on temporary leave.

(h) After recovery from a temporary disability, a Fireman or Policeman shall be reinstated at the same rank and with the same seniority the person had before going on temporary leave. Another Fireman or Policeman may voluntarily do the work of an injured or ill Fireman or Policeman until the Fireman or Policeman returns to duty.

Vacations; Accumulations of Vacation Leave

Sec. 26(a). All firemen and policemen in the classified service shall earn a minimum of fifteen (15) working days vacation with pay in each year. In computing the length of time during which a fireman or policeman may be absent from work for the vacation provided by this Section, only those calendar days during which the member would be required to work if he were not on vacation shall be counted as vacation days. Vacation leave may not be accumulated from year to year, except as approved by the governing body of the city.

Termination of Service, Lump Sum Payments: Cities of 1,200,000 or More, Accumulated Sick Leave; Cities of 650,000 or More, Accumulated Vacation Leave

Sec. 26(b). (a) In any city in this State having a population of one million, two hundred thousand (1,200,000) or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census, a fireman or policeman who leaves the classified service for any reason or the beneficiaries of any fireman or policeman who loses his life as a result of a line of duty injury or illness shall receive in a lump sum payment the full amount of his salary for the period of his accumulated vacation leave, provided that such payment shall be based upon not more than sixty (60) working days of accumulated vacation leave. Any fireman or policeman who leaves the classified service or loses his life as the result of a line of duty injury or illness or the beneficiaries of such fireman or policeman shall be paid the full amount of his salary for the total number of his working days of accumulated vacation leave.

Firemen or Policemen Prohibited from Striking

Sec. 27. It shall be unlawful from and after the passage of this Act for any Fireman or Policeman, coming under the provisions of this Act, to engage in any strike against the agency of the government by which they are employed.

FIREMEN OR POLICEMEN, COMING UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THIS ACT, WHO SHALL VIOLATE ANY OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS ACT, SHALL BE GUILTY OF A MISDEMEANOR AND SHALL, AFTER CONVICTION, BE FINE NOT LESS THAN TEN DOLLARS ($10) OR MORE THAN ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($100), OR BY CONFINEMENT IN THE COUNTY JAIL FOR NOT MORE THAN THIRTY (30) DAYS, OR BY BOTH SUCH FINE AND IMPRISONMENT.

Adoption of Act by Vote or Otherwise

Sec. 27(a). Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act as amended by this House Bill No. 79, passed at the Fifty-fifth Regular Session of the Legislature, shall not apply to any city unless such city has already adopted and has in effect the provisions of this Act before the effective date of this amending Act, or unless first determined at an election at which the adoption or rejection of this Act shall be submitted. Upon receiving a petition signed by qualified voters in said city, in number not less than ten per cent (10%) of the total number voting in the last preceding municipal election, the governing body of said city shall call and hold an election within sixty (60) days after said petition has been filed with governing body. If at said election a majority of the votes cast shall favor the adoption of this Act, said governing body shall put such Act into effect within thirty (30) days after the beginning of the first fiscal year of said city after said election. The question shall be submitted for the vote of the qualified electors as follows:

FOR the adoption of the Firemen's and Police-men's Civil Service Act.

AGAINST the adoption of the Firemen's and Po-licemen's Civil Service Act.

When any election has been held in a city, at which election the adoption or rejection of Chapter 325, Acts of the Fiftieth Legislature, 1947, (Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes, Article 1269m) has been submitted, whether such election has been held prior to the effective date of this amending Act or subsequent thereto, a petition for another such election shall not be filed for at least one (1) year subsequent to the election so held; and said petition for any such election after the first election shall be signed by qualified voters in said city in number not less than twenty per cent (20%) of the total number voting in the last preceding municipal election; and any such election after the first election shall be held at the next general municipal election to be held in such city after the filing of such petition.

This Act may be adopted to apply only to a Fire Department or a Police Department. If the Act, as adopted, is to be limited to one or the other department, the ballot question shall be printed to reflect which department will be covered by this Act.

Repeal of Provisions in City by Vote
Sec. 27(b). In any city in which the provisions of this Act have been in effect for a period of one (1) year, if a petition of ten per cent (10%) of the qualified voters of such city shall be presented to the governing body of such city to call an election for the repeal of the provisions of this Act, then and in that event, the governing body of such city shall call an election of the qualified voters to determine if they desire the repeal of such provisions. Should a majority of the qualified voters so vote to repeal the provisions of this Act, then the provisions shall become null and void as to such city.

Repeal and Saving Clause
Sec. 28. This Act shall supersede all other civil service pertaining to Firemen and Policemen in the cities covered hereby. If any section, paragraph, portion, sentence, line, phrase, or word of this Act should be held to be unconstitutional or invalid, then such unconstitutionality or invalidity of any other section, paragraph, portion, sentence, line, phrase, or word hereof, and it is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that each and all of the said portions as above specified that are not held to be unconstitutional or invalid, shall be and remain in full force and effect, just as though said constitutional or invalid portions, if any, were eliminated from the text of this Act.

Emergency Appointment of Persons Over 35
Sec. 28(a). When a city affected by the provisions of this Act is unable to recruit qualified employees in the Fire and Police Departments because of the maximum age limit provided by this Act, and the governing body finds that such condition constitutes an emergency, then the Civil Service Commission of said city shall recommend to the governing body such additional rules and regulations governing the temporary employment of persons in the Fire and Police Departments who are over the age of thirty-five (35) years. Provided, however, that persons employed under the provisions of such rules shall:
A. Be designated as “temporary” employees.
B. Be ineligible for pension benefits.
C. Be ineligible for appointment or promotion when one or more permanent applicants or employees are available.
D. Be ineligible to become full-fledged Civil Service Employees.
E. Be terminated before any permanent Civil Service Employee is terminated pursuant to Section 21 of this Act.

Full Civil Service Status for Certain Temporary Employees
Sec. 28(b). Any person employed under the provisions of Section 28(a) of this Act prior to January 1, 1970, and who has been continually employed in the temporary status provided by Section 28(a) shall be granted full civil service status with all the rights and privileges granted by this Act in Section 24, and shall be eligible to participate in earned pension benefits. Employees affected by this section shall be allowed to buy back service credits in the pension fund that permanent employees have been participating in since his/her employment at a rate to be determined by the actuary of the affected pension fund.

Art. 1269n. Political Campaigns; Coercing Policeman or Fireman

(a) No person may coerce a policeman or a fireman to participate or to refrain from participating in a political campaign.

(b) Any person who violates Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $2,000 or by confinement in the county jail for not more than two years, or both.

Sec. 2. The preceding subdivision shall not apply to cases of emergency.

Art. 1269o. Two Platoon Fire System and Hours of Labor in Certain Counties

Sec. 1. In all cities containing more than One Hundred Thousand (100,000) inhabitants and less than One Hundred Twenty Thousand (120,000) inhabitants, in this State, according to the last preceding Federal Census, in counties containing more than Nine Hundred (900) square miles, and in all cities of Two Hundred Sixty-Five Thousand (265,000) inhabitants, or more, in this State, according to the last preceding Federal Census, in counties containing more than Fifteen Hundred (1500) square miles, which maintain an organized, paid fire department, there shall be established and maintained two platoon fire system, and no employee of such department shall be compelled to be on duty more than ten (10) consecutive hours during the day time, nor more than fourteen (14) consecutive hours during the night time; provided, that in no event shall employees of such fire departments be required to be on duty more than fourteen (14) hours in any period of twenty-four (24) consecutive hours, except as provided in Section 2 of this Act.

Sec. 2. The head or chief officer of such fire department or companies in such cities shall so arrange the working hours of the employees of such fire department or companies so that each employee shall work, as near as practicable, an equal number of hours per month; provided the two platoons may be so arranged as to work twenty-four (24) hours each on duty and twenty-four (24) hours off duty; provided, that the head or chief officer of such department, his aids or assistants may, in their discretion, in cases of emergency or great conflagrations require such employee, or employees to continue on duty during such conflagration or emergency, for a greater period than specified in Section 1 hereof.

Sec. 3. That any chief of such fire department or companies or any other officer or person who violates or causes to be violated any provision of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction be punished by a fine of not less than Ten and No/100 ($10.00) Dollars, nor more than One Hundred and No/100 ($100.00) Dollars; each employee required or permitted to work in violation of the provisions hereof and each and every day of such violation shall constitute a separate offense.
ber of holidays, or days in lieu thereof, that is granted to other municipal employees.

Federal Census

Sec. 4. Each preceding Federal Census shall determine the population.

Designation of Vacation Days and Holidays

Sec. 5. The city officials having supervision of the fire department and police department shall designate the days of the week upon which each such member shall not be required to be on duty, and the days upon which each such member shall be allowed to be on vacation.

Cities Over 10,000; Hours of Labor

Sec. 6. It shall be unlawful for any city having more than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants but not more than sixty thousand (60,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, to require any fireman to work more than seventy-two (72) hours during any one calendar week. It shall be unlawful for any city having more than sixty thousand (60,000) inhabitants but not more than one hundred twenty-five thousand (125,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, to require any fireman to work more than an average, during a calendar year, of sixty-three (63) hours per week. It shall be unlawful for any city having more than one hundred twenty-five thousand (125,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, to require any fireman to work more than an average, during a calendar year, of sixty (60) hours per week.

Provided further, that in any city having more than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, the number of hours in the work week of members of the fire department whose duties to not include fighting fires, including but not limited to mechanics, clerks, investigators, inspectors, fire marshals, fire alarm dispatchers and maintenance men, shall not exceed the number of hours in the normal work week of the majority of the employees of said city other than firemen and policemen.

Provided further, that in computing the hours in the work week of firemen subject to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, there shall be included and counted any and all hours during which such firemen are required to remain available for immediate call to duty by continuously remaining in contact with a fire department office by telephone or by radio.

Provided, however, that in any such city having more than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, in the event of an emergency, firemen may be required to work more than the maximum number of hours herein provided; and in such event firemen working more than the maximum hours herein provided shall be compensated for such overtime at a rate equal to one and one-half times the compensation paid to such firemen for regular hours.

Cities Over 10,000; Overtime

Sec. 6A. It shall be unlawful for any city having more than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, to require any policeman to work more than sixty (60) hours during any calendar week than the number of hours in the normal work week of the majority of the employees of said city other than firemen and policemen.

Provided, however, that in any such city having more than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, in the event of an emergency, policemen may be required to work more than the number of hours in the normal work week of the majority of other city employees; and in the event policemen are ordered to work a greater number of hours than the number of hours in such normal work week of other city employees, such policemen shall be compensated for such overtime at a rate equal to one and one-half times the compensation paid to such policemen for regular hours unless a policeman decides, with the approval of the city governing body, to accept compensatory time equal to one and one-half times the number of overtime hours.

Provided, further that in cases where a majority of policemen working for a city sign a written waiver of the prohibition against cities requiring any policeman to work more hours during any calendar week than the number of hours in the normal work week of the majority of the employees of said city other than firemen and policemen, a city may adopt a work schedule for policemen requiring any policeman to work more hours than the number of hours in the normal work week of the majority of the employees of said city other than firemen and policemen, so long as no policeman works more hours during any calendar month than the number of hours in the normal work week of the majority of the employees of said city other than firemen and policemen without overtime pay. An emergency shall be defined as any unexpected happening or event; or unforeseen situation or crisis that calls for immediate action and requires the police chief or head of the department to order policemen to work overtime.

Effectiveness of Act

Sec. 6B. The governing body of each city which comes under the provisions of this Act shall put into effect the provisions hereof, without referendum or election, on or before the first day of the next fiscal year of such city after the effective date of this Act.

Uncompensated Duty

Sec. 6C. This Act does not prohibit the chief or head of a police department from assigning a policeman under his jurisdiction or supervision to work periods of uncompensated duty as prescribed by Section 29, Chapter 325, Acts of the 50th Legisla-
Art. 1269p  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

uty, 1947 (Article 1269m, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). A period of uncompensated duty may not be considered or otherwise taken into account in determining compliance with this Act, and Sections 1, 3, 3a, and 6A of this Act do not apply to or include periods of uncompensated duty to which a policeman is assigned.

Working Extra Hours

Sec. 7. The provisions of this Act shall not be construed to prevent firemen and policemen from working extra hours when exchanging hours of work with each other with the consent of the department head.

Penalty

Sec. 8. The city official having charge of the fire department or police department in any such city who violates any provision of this Act shall be fined not less than Ten ($10.00) Dollars nor more than One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars, and each day on which said city official shall cause or permit any Section of this Act to be violated shall constitute and be a separate offense.

Cumulative Effect of Act

Sec. 9. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as amending, altering or changing in any manner whatsoever the provisions of Article 1588, Penal Code of Texas, as amended.2 Acts 1935, 44th Legislature, page 377, Chapter 128, Section 1; Acts 1937, 45th Legislature, page 539, Chapter 173, Section 1; Acts 1943, 48th Legislature, page 309, Chapter 201, Section 1. This Act is cumulative and in addition to said laws set out in this Section.

Cumulative Effect of Act

Art. 1269q  Compensation of Employees of Fire, Police, and Sheriff’s Departments in Certain Counties

Sec. 1. (a) In any city of this State of not less than one hundred seventy-five thousand (175,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any succeeding Federal Census, each member of the Fire Department and of the Police Department shall receive and be paid the sum of not less than Two Hundred Twenty ($220.00) Dollars per month, and the additional sum of Three Dollars and Fifty Cents ($3.50) per month commencing January 1, 1974, which shall be increased to Four ($4.00) Dollars per month commencing January 1, 1975, for each year of service in such Police or Fire Department up to and including twenty-five (25) years of service in such department, as a minimum wage for the services so rendered. This longevity or service pay shall be paid in addition to all other moneys paid for services rendered in said departments.

(b) In all cities in this State with inhabitants thereof between ten thousand (10,000) and one hundred seventy-five thousand (175,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, each member of the Fire Department and of the Police Department shall receive and be paid the following sums per month according to the population of each such city of ten thousand (10,000) or more and up to forty thousand and one (40,001), such salary shall be One Hundred Sixty-five ($165.00) Dollars per month minimum; in all such cities with inhabitants of forty thousand and one (40,001) to one hundred thousand and one (100,001) inhabitants, such minimum salaries shall be One Hundred Ninety-five ($195.00) Dollars per month; and in all such cities from one hundred thousand and one (100,001) to one hundred seventy-five thousand (175,000) inhabitants, such minimum salaries shall be increased to Two Hundred Ten ($210.00) Dollars per month; and in all such cities the additional sum of Three Dollars and Fifty Cents ($3.50) per month commencing January 1, 1974, which shall be increased to Four ($4.00) Dollars per month commencing January 1, 1975, for each year of service in such Fire or Police Department up to and including twenty-five (25) years of service in such department, as a minimum wage for the services so rendered. This longevity or service pay shall be paid in addition to all other moneys paid for services rendered in said departments.

(c) In all cities in this State having a population in excess of ten thousand (10,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any succeeding Federal Census, the minimum salary of each member of the Fire Department, the Police Department, or both may be increased to not less than the minimum amount stated in a petition signed by not less than twenty-five (25%) per cent of the qualified voters who voted in the last preceding municipal election. The petition shall designate five (5) qualified voters as a committee of petitioners who are authorized to negotiate with the governing body of the city as prescribed by Subsection (d) of this section. The petition shall state the amount of the proposed minimum salary for each rank, pay grade, or classification and the effective date of the proposed salary increase. Except as prescribed by Subsection (d) of this section when a petition is filed with the governing body of a city said governing body shall call an election on the first uniform election date authorized by Section 9b, Texas Election Code (Article 2.01h, Vernon's Texas Election Code), that occurs at least sixty-five (65) days after the petition is filed to determine whether said proposed minimum salary shall be adopted. If at said election a majority of the votes cast shall favor the adoption of said proposed minimum salary, said governing body shall put such salary into effect on or before the date specified in the petition. No other issue shall be joined on the same ballot with the proposition submitted at the election as herein provided. The question shall be submitted for the vote of the qualified electors and the ballot shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: “Adoption of the proposed minimum salaries of ____________ for members of the Sheriff’s Department.” The requested salary for each rank, pay grade, or classification set forth in the petition mentioned above shall be inserted in lieu of the blank spaces in the proposition.

(d) Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the city concerned from adopting under the provisions of this Act without an election the minimum salary set forth in the petition filed with the governing body of said city. After the petition prescribed by Subsection (c) of this section is filed, the governing body of the city may confer with the committee of petitioners designated in the petition and offer an alternate salary proposal. If the committee accepts the alternate salary proposal, the governing body is not required to call an election.

(e) When an election has been held as prescribed by Subsection (c) of this section or the committee has accepted an alternate salary proposal as prescribed by Subsection (d) of this section, a petition for another election in the county may not be filed for at least one year after the date on which the first election was held or the alternate salary proposal was accepted.

Sec. 2. (a) In any county in this state having a population of more than seventy-five thousand (75,000) according to the most recent Federal Census, the minimum salary of each member of the Sheriff’s Department may be increased to not less than the minimum amount stated in a petition signed by not less than twenty-five (25%) per cent of the qualified voters who voted in the last preceding countywide election for county officers. The petition shall designate five (5) qualified voters as a committee of petitioners who are authorized to negotiate with the governing body of the county as prescribed by Subsection (c) of this section. The petition shall state the amount of the proposed minimum salary for each rank, pay grade, or classification.

(b) Except as prescribed by Subsection (c) of this section, when a petition is filed with the governing body of a county, the governing body shall call an election on the first uniform election date authorized by Section 9b, Texas Election Code (Article 2.0lb, Vernon’s Texas Election Code), that occurs at least sixty-five (65) days after the petition is filed to determine whether the proposed minimum salary shall be adopted. If at the election a majority of the votes cast favor the adoption of the proposed minimum salary, the salary shall take effect on or before the date specified in the petition. No other issue may be joined on the same ballot. The ballot shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: “Adoption of the proposed minimum salaries of ____________ for members of the Sheriff’s Department.” The requested salary for each rank, pay grade, or classification set forth in the petition mentioned above shall be inserted in place of the blank space in the proposition.

(c) A county may adopt the minimum salary set forth in the petition filed with the governing body without calling an election. After the petition prescribed by Subsection (a) of this section is filed, the governing body of the county may confer with the committee of petitioners designated in the petition and offer an alternate salary proposal. If the committee accepts the alternate salary proposal, the governing body is not required to call an election.

(d) When an election has been held as prescribed by Subsection (b) of this section or the committee has accepted an alternate salary proposal as prescribed by Subsection (c) of this section, a petition for another election in the county may not be filed for at least one year after the date on which the first election was held or the alternate salary proposal was accepted.

Sec. 3. Any city or county official, or officials, who have charge of the Fire Department, Police Department, or Sheriff’s Department, or who are responsible for the fixing of the wages herein provided in any such city or county, who violate any provisions of this Act, shall be fined not less than Ten ($10.00) Dollars nor more than One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars; and each day on which such city or county official, or officials, shall cause or permit any violation of this Act shall constitute and be a separate offense.

Sec. 4. All municipal and county governments affected by this Act, shall, within thirty (30) days following enactment, set up classifications in the Sheriff’s, Police, and Fire Departments providing for duties under such classifications and specifying salary for each classification; and thereafter any member of any Sheriff’s, Fire, or Police Department who is called upon to perform the duties under any such classification shall be paid the salary provided therefor for such period as he performs such duties.

Art. 1269r. Compensation of Firemen and Policemen for Court Appearances

Sec. 1. (a) A municipality shall pay firemen and policemen for appearances, made on their time off, as witnesses in criminal suits or in suits in which the municipality or other political subdivision or governmental agency is a party in interest.
Art. 1269r  CITIES, TOWNS AND VILLAGES

(b) Payment for court appearances made on time off shall be at the fireman’s or policeman’s regular rate of pay and shall be limited to required appearances made by the fireman or policeman in his capacity as a fireman or policeman.

Sec. 2. Payment made under the provisions of this Act may be taxed as court costs in civil suits in which a fireman or policeman appears as a witness.

Sec. 3. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to reduce or prohibit compensation paid in excess of the regular rate of pay.

Art. 1269s. Defense of Civil Suits Against Peace Officers

Sec. 1. An incorporated city or town or special purpose district shall provide a peace officer employed by it with legal counsel without cost to the peace officer, on the officer’s request, to defend the officer against a suit for damages by a party other than a governmental entity if the claim involves an official act of the peace officer in the scope of the officer’s authority. The city, town, or special purpose district may provide counsel already employed by it or may employ and pay private counsel to defend the officer against the claim. In this Act, “peace officer” has the meaning given in Article 2.12, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

Sec. 2. If the municipality or district fails to provide counsel as required by Section 1 of this Act, the officer may recover from it the reasonable attorney’s fees incurred in defending the suit if the trial of fact finds that the fees were incurred in defending a suit covered by Section 1 of this Act and determines that the officer is without fault or finds that the officer acted with a reasonable good faith belief that his actions were proper.

[Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1078, ch. 507, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 1269t. Disease Benefit

(a) In this article, “employee” means a peace officer, fire fighter, or emergency medical services employee of this state or a political subdivision of this state.

(b) An employee who is exposed to a contagious disease is entitled to reimbursement from the employing governmental entity for reasonable medical expenses incurred in treatment for the prevention of the disease if:

(1) the disease is not an “ordinary disease of life” as that term is used by the Industrial Accident Board;

(2) the exposure to the disease occurs during the course of the employment; and

(3) the employee requires preventative medical treatment because of exposure to the disease.

(c) An employee who is exposed to such a disease is entitled to be treated for the prevention of that disease by the physician of the employee’s choice.

[Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 5627, ch. 1064, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1983.]

Section 2 of the 1983 Act provides:

“While this Act takes effect September 1, 1983, and applies only to reimbursement for treatment that occurs on or after that date.”

TITLE 29

COMMISSIONER OF DEEDS

Art. 1270. Appointment.

The Governor is authorized to biennially appoint and commission one or more persons in each or any of the other states of the United States, the District of Columbia, and in each or any of the territories of the United States, and in each or any foreign country, upon the recommendation of the executive authority of said state, District of Columbia or territory or foreign country to serve as commissioner of deeds. Such commissioner shall hold office for two years.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1271. Oath

Such commissioner, before he shall proceed to perform any duty under and by virtue of this title, shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation, before the clerk of any court of record in the city, county or country in which such commissioner may reside, well and faithfully to execute and perform all the duties of such commissioner under the laws of this State; which oath or affirmation, certified to by the clerk under his hand and seal of office, shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State in this State.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1272. Seal

Every such commissioner shall provide for himself a seal with a star of five points, in the center, and the words, “Commissioner of the State of Texas,” engraved thereon, which seal shall be used to certify all the official acts of such commissioner, and without the impress of said seal upon any instrument, or to certify any act of such commissioner, said act shall have no validity in this State.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]
Art. 1273. Authority

The commissioner of deeds shall have the same authority as to taking acknowledgments and proofs of written instruments, administering oaths, and taking depositions to be used or recorded in this State, as is conferred by law upon a notary public of this State.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

TITLE 29A

COMMISSIONERS ON UNIFORM LAWS

Art. 1273a. Repealed.

Art. 1273b. Commission on Uniform State Laws.

Appointment of Commission

Sec. 1. (a) A Commission is hereby created to be known as the Commission on Uniform State Laws which shall consist of six recognized members of the bar who shall be appointed by the Governor for staggered terms of six years, with the terms of two members expiring on September 30 of each even-numbered year; and in addition thereto, any residents of this state who because of long service in the cause of the uniformity of state legislation shall have been elected life members of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.

(b) A person who is required to register as a lobbyist under Chapter 422, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, as amended (Article 6252-9c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), by virtue of his activities for compensation in or on behalf of a profession related to the operation of the Commission may not serve as a member of the Commission or act as the general counsel to the Commission.

(c) Appointments to the Commission shall be made without regard to the race, creed, sex, religion, or national origin of the appointees.

(d) At least one of the Commissioners, at the time of his most recent appointment, must be a state judge, and at least one of the Commissioners, at the time of his most recent appointment, must be a legal educator.

(e) As the terms of members of the Commission expire or as their offices are vacated, the Governor first shall appoint to the Commission a state judge or legal educator if that appointment is required to comply with Subsection (d) of this section.

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 1a. The Commission on Uniform State Laws is subject to the Texas Sunset Act, as amended (Article 5429k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the commission is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1996.

Appointments to Fill Vacancies

Sec. 2. Upon the death, resignation, failure or refusal to serve, or removal of any appointed Commissioner, his office becomes vacant; and the Governor shall make an appointment to fill the vacancy, such appointment to be for the unexpired term of the former appointee.

Removal

Sec. 2a. (a) It is a ground for removal from the Commission if a member:

(1) does not have at the time of appointment the qualifications required by Subsections (a) and (d) of Section 1 of this Act for appointment to the Commission;

(2) does not maintain during the service on the Commission the qualifications required by Subsection (a) of Section 1 of this Act for appointment to the Commission;

(3) violates a prohibition established by Subsection (b) of Section 1 of this Act; or

(4) becomes ineligible to participate in National Conference activities.

(b) The validity of an action of the Commission is not affected by the fact that it was taken when a ground for removal of a member of the Commission existed.

Meeting and Organization

Sec. 3. (a) The Commissioners shall meet at least once in two years and shall organize by the election of one of their number as Chairman and another as Secretary, who shall hold their respective offices for a term of two years and until their successors are elected.

(b) The Commission is subject to the open meetings law, Chapter 271, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6252-17, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).
Art. 1273b

COMMISSIONERS ON UNIFORM LAWS

Duties of Commissioners

Sec. 4. Each Commissioner shall attend the meeting of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, and both in and out of such National Conference shall do all in his power to promote uniformity in state laws, upon all subjects where uniformity may be deemed desirable and practicable; said Commission shall submit a biennial report to the Legislature before January 1 of each odd-numbered year and may supplement the report from time to time as said Commission may deem proper. The biennial report must contain an account of the Commission's transactions, and its advice and recommendations for legislation. It shall also be the duty of said Commission to bring about as far as practicable the uniform judicial interpretation of all uniform laws.

Expenses

Sec. 5. A Commissioner may not receive compensation for service as a Commissioner but is entitled to be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of official duties.

Audit

Sec. 6. The State Auditor shall audit the financial transactions of the Commission during each fiscal year.

Administrative Functions

Sec. 7. The Texas Legislative Council shall provide accounting, clerical, and other support services necessary for the Commission to carry out its duties.

Section 2 of Acts 1977, 65th Leg., ch. 168, amending § 1 of this article, provided:

"In making the initial appointments following the effective date of this Act, the governor shall designate two members for terms expiring September 30, 1978, two for terms expiring September 30, 1980, and two for terms expiring September 30, 1982."

Section 2 of the 1983 amendatory act provides:

"A person holding office as a member of the Commission on Uniform State Laws on the effective date of this Act continues to hold the office for the term for which the member was originally appointed."
