Sec. 6. (a) As soon as practicable after this court is created, the county clerk shall establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act from among pending matters filed originally in the county court, and shall transfer those matters to the docket of the court created by this Act, and the district clerk shall establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act from among pending matters filed originally in the district courts of Anderson County and may transfer a sufficient number of those matters to the docket of the court created by this Act to equalize the dockets. Equalization of case load shall be the primary objective in establishing the initial case docket for the county court at law.

(b) The judge of the county court and the judge of the county court at law may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts, in matters within their jurisdiction. All processes issued or returned before transfer of the cases, as well as all bonds and recognizances taken before transfer, shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

(d) The county judge and the judge of the county court at law may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other in matters within their jurisdiction so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or county court at law, but only in matters within their jurisdiction, and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, a judge may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending. The provisions providing for the exchange of benches by and between the judges are cumulative of and in addition to the provisions provided by this Act for the selection and appointment of a special judge of the county court at law.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. (a) The County Court at Law of Cherokee County has jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings, civil and criminal, juvenile and probate, original and appellate, prescribed by the constitution and general laws for county courts. The court created by this Act has concurrent jurisdiction with the county court in all probate matters. However, it does not have jurisdiction over causes and proceedings concerning roads, bridges, and public highways and the general administration of county business which is now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court of Cherokee County.

(b) The County Court at Law of Cherokee County has concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in:

1. eminent domain cases;
2. civil cases in which the matter in controversy exceeds $500 but does not exceed $20,000, exclusive of interest; and
3. civil cases in suits and causes involving family law matters, including adoptions; birth records; removal of disability of minority or coverture; change of name of persons; divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights, custody and support of minor children involved, temporary support and alimony pending final hearing, and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings, including the power to punish for contempt to the same extent as the district court; independent actions involving child welfare, custody, support and reciprocal support, dependency, neglect, and delinquency; and independent actions involving controversies between parents, between parent and child, and between husband and wife.

(c) This section does not diminish the jurisdiction of the district courts in Cherokee County. The district courts retain and continue to exercise the jurisdiction that is conferred by law on those courts.

Powers and Duties

Sec. 3. (a) The court created by this Act or its judge may issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary for the enforcement of the orders and jurisdiction of the court. It may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court or of any other court of inferior jurisdiction in the county.

(b) The court and the judge may punish for contempt as prescribed by law for county courts.

(c) The judge of the court created by this Act has all other powers, duties, immunities, and privileges provided by law for county court judges, except that the judge does not have any authority over the administrative business of the county that is performed by the county judge.

Terms

Sec. 4. The terms of the court created by this Act begin on the first Mondays in March and September of each year. Each term of court continues in session until the convening of the next succeeding term.

Judge

Sec. 5. (a) The judge of the County Court at Law of Cherokee County must be a qualified voter in Cherokee County, have been a resident of Cherokee County for two years, and be a licensed attorney in this state who has been actively engaged in the practice of law or has been a judge of a court in this state, or both combined, for four years prior to the judge's appointment or election.

(b) Beginning at the next general election, after creation of the court at which county court at law judges are regularly elected, and every fourth year thereafter, the qualified voters of Cherokee County shall elect a judge of the county court at law for a regular term of four years as provided by Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution.

(c) A vacancy occurring in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law of Cherokee County shall be filled by appointment by the commissioners court. The appointee holds office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

(d) The judge of the County Court at Law of Cherokee County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office prescribed by law for county judges. He may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as a county judge.

(e) The judge of the court created by this Act is entitled to receive an annual salary set by the commissioners court and paid out of the county treasury by the commissioners court. The salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments. The judge is entitled to traveling expenses and necessary office expenses, including administrative and clerical help, in the same manner as is allowed the county judge. The judge shall assess the same fees that are prescribed by law relating to county judges' fees. The clerk of the court shall collect the fees and pay them into the county treasury on collection. None of the fees may be paid to the judge.

(f) A special judge of the court created by this Act with the same qualifications as the regular judge may be appointed or elected in the manner provided by law for the appointment or election of a special county judge. If the judge of the court created by this Act is disqualified to try a case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge for the case. A special judge is entitled to the same rate of compensation as the regular judge.

(g) The judge of the court created by this Act may not engage in the private practice of law after his appointment or election.

Personnel

Sec. 6. (a) The county attorney, county clerk, and sheriff of Cherokee County shall serve as county attorney, clerk, and sheriff, respectively, for the court created by this Act, except that the district clerk shall serve as clerk of the court created by this Act in cases enumerated in Section 2(b)(3) of this Act and shall establish a separate docket for the court created by this Act. Those officials, either personally or by the appointment of a deputy or assistant, shall perform the duties and responsibilities of their offices and are entitled to the compensation, fees, and allowances prescribed by law for their respective offices. The commissioners court may employ as many deputy sheriffs and bailiffs as are necessary to serve the court.

(b) The judge of the court created by this Act may appoint an official court reporter. The reporter must have the same qualifications as provided by law for official court reporters. The reporter's duties are the same as provided by law for official court reporters. The reporter serves at the pleasure of the judge. The reporter is entitled to the compensation fixed by the commissioners court. The judge, in lieu of appointing an official court reporter, may contract for the services of a court reporter under guidelines to be established by the commissioners court.

Transfer of Cases: Exchange of Benches

Sec. 7. (a) The judge of the county court and the judge of the court created by this Act may transfer cases to and from the dockets of their respective courts in matters within their jurisdiction. All cases of concurrent jurisdiction between the district courts and the county court at law may be instituted in or transferred between the district courts of Cherokee County and the County Court at Law of Cherokee County. However, a case may not be transferred from one court to another without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred and a case may not be transferred unless it is within the jurisdiction of the court to which it is transferred.

(b) On the transfer of a case as provided by this Act, all processes, writs, bonds, recognizances, or other obligations issued or made in the case must be returned to and filed in the court to which the transfer is made. A bond executed and recognizance entered into in the case binds the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of the bond or recognizance at the term of the court to which the case is transferred as fixed by law. A process issued or returned before transfer of the case and a bond or recognizance taken before transfer is valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which the transfer is made.

(c) The county judge and the judge of the court created by this Act may freely exchange benches and courtrooms with each other in matters within their jurisdiction so that if one is ill, disqualified, or otherwise absent, the other may hold court for him without the necessity of transferring the case involved. Either judge may hear all or any part of a case pending in the county court or court created by this Act in matters within their jurisdiction and may rule and enter orders on and continue, determine, or render judgment on all or any part of the case without the necessity of transferring it to his own docket. However, a judge may not sit or act in a case unless it is within the jurisdiction of his court. Each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending. This section is cumulative of the provisions of this Act for the selection and appointment of a special judge of the County Court at Law of Cherokee County.

Practice and Procedure

Sec. 8. (a) Practice in the court created by this Act shall conform to that prescribed by general law for county courts, except that practice and procedure, rules of evidence, issuance of process and writs, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in the court created by this Act involving those matters of concurrent jurisdiction enumerated in Section 2(b)(3) of this Act shall be governed by the provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts, general or special, as well as county courts. If a case enumerated in Section 2(b)(3) of this Act is tried before a jury, the jury shall be composed of 12 members.

Judge of any Court to which a case or proceeding is pending in any other of such Courts. When the Judge of any such Court shall become unable to act on account of absence, sickness, or disqualification, such Courts may, in their discretion, exchange benches or districts from time to time, and may require any of such Judges to exchange districts with the disqualified Judge, and may, at any time, require any of such Judges to exchange districts with any other District Judge. In case of the absence, sickness, or disqualification of any Judge, any other of said Judges may hold Court for him or may transfer from his Court to any other of said Courts any case or proceeding then pending in the Court of said absent, sick, or disqualified Judge and in such circumstances the practicing lawyers of the Court may elect a special Judge of said Court in the same manner as provided in Chapter 1 of Title 40 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, and such special Judge when so elected shall have and exercise all the powers and duties which the regular Judge of said Court could have and exercise.

21. Cases May Be Reset. A case that is set and reached for trial may be reset for a later day in the term or continued and reset for a day certain in the succeeding term on the same grounds as an application for continuance would be granted in other District Courts. After any case has been set and reached in its due order and called for trial two (2) or more times and not tried, the Court may dismiss the same unless the parties agree to a postponement or continuance but the Court shall respect written agreements of counsel for postponement or continuance if filed in the case when or before it is called for trial unless to do so will unreasonably delay or interfere with other business of the Court.

22. Cases Transferred to Judges not Occupied. When the Judge of any such Court shall become disengaged, he shall notify the Presiding Judge, and the Presiding Judge shall transfer to the Court of the disengaged Judge the next case which is ready for trial in any of said Courts. Any Judge not engaged in his own Court may try any case in any other Court.

23. Judge Disqualified. If a Judge of any Court is disqualified in any case pending in his Court, and his disqualification is certified to the Governor, the Governor may require the Judge of any other of such Courts to exchange benches or districts with the disqualified Judge, and may, at any time, require any of such Judges to exchange districts with each other or with any other District Judge. In case of the absence, sickness, or disqualification of any Judge, any other of said Judges may hold Court for him or may transfer from his Court to any other of said Courts any case or proceeding then pending in the Court of said absent, sick, or disqualified Judge and in such circumstances the practicing lawyers of the Court may elect a special Judge of said Court in the same manner as provided in Chapter 1 of Title 40 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, and such special Judge when so elected shall have and exercise all the powers and duties which the regular Judge of said Court could have and exercise.

24. Judge May Hear Only Part of Case. Any Judge may hear any part of any case or proceeding pending in any of said Courts and determine the same, or may hear and determine any question in any case, and any other Judge may complete the hearing and render judgment in the case.

25. Any Judge May Hear Dilatory Pleas, Etc. Any Judge may hear and determine demurrers, motions, petitions for injunction, applications for appointment of receivers, interventions, pleas of privilege, pleas in abatement, all dilatory pleas, motions for new trial and all preliminary matters, questions and proceedings and may enter judgment or order thereon in the Court in which the case is pending without having the case transferred to the Court of the Judge acting, and the Judge in whose Court the case is pending may thereafter proceed to hear, complete, and determine the case or other matter, or any part thereof, and render final judgment therein. Any judgment rendered or action taken by any Judge in any of said Courts in the county shall be valid and binding.

26. Selection of Presiding Judge. The Judges of such Courts shall twice a year, in January and July, select one of their number as Presiding Judge and may at any time cancel and annul such selection and select any other Judge as Presiding Judge. Each such proceeding shall be by majority vote. Each Judge shall enter on his Minutes an order reciting the selection of the Presiding Judge. The Presiding Judge may assign any case in his Court or any of such Courts in the county to any other Judge of such Courts, or may assign any Judge to try any case in any of the Courts, and the Judge in whose Court an assigned case is pending shall transfer the case to the Court to which it is assigned, and the Judge of the Court to which it is assigned shall receive and try the case, and such Judge shall hold any other Court or try any case which he is requested by the Presiding Judge to try.

27. Judges May Make Rules. The Judges may by a majority vote make rules for the calling of the docket, for the setting and postponement of cases, for the hearing and acting upon motions, questions of law, applications for injunctions and receivers, and for classifying and distributing cases and for having one calendar for all set cases in all Courts and for prescribing when the different Courts shall have jury trials and when they shall have nonjury trials, and such other rules as they deem advisable to facilitate the dispatch of business. All rules made by said Judges shall be adopted by order of each Judge and spread upon the Minutes of his Court, but such rules shall not be inconsistent with any rule adopted or prescribed by the Supreme Court, nor in conflict with any law of this State.

28. Motion for New Trial. A motion for new trial filed during one term of Court may be heard and acted on at the next term of Court. If a case or other matter is on trial or in process of hearing when the term of Court expires, such trial, hearing, or other matter may be proceeded with at the next term of the Court. No motion for new trial or other motion or plea shall be considered as waived or overruled, because not acted on at the term of Court at which it was filed, but may be acted on at the succeeding term or at any time which the Judge may fix or to which it may have been postponed or continued by agreement of the parties with leave of the Court. All motions and amended motions for new trials must be presented within thirty (30) days after the original motion or amended motion is filed and must be determined within not exceeding forty-five (45) days after the original or amended motion is filed, unless by written agreement of the parties in the case, the decision of the motion is postponed to a later date.

29. Time to File Motion for New Trial. A motion for new trial where required shall be filed within ten (10) days after the judgment is rendered or other order complained of is entered, and may be amended by leave of the Court at any time before it is acted on within twenty (20) days after it is filed.

30. Judgment Final, When. Judgments of such civil District Courts shall become as final after the expiration of thirty (30) days after the date of judgment or after a motion for new trial is overruled as if the term of Court had expired. After the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date the judgment is rendered or motion for new trial is overruled, the judgment cannot be set aside except by bill of review for sufficient cause, filed within the time allowed by law for the filing of bills of review in other District Courts.

31. Appeal Bonds Filed, When. In appeals from such civil District Courts the appeal bond shall be filed within thirty (30) days after the judgment or order appealed from is rendered, if no motion for new trial is filed, and if a motion for new trial is filed, the appeal bond shall be filed within thirty (30) days after the motion for new trial is overruled. When a statement of facts or bills of exception is presented to the adverse party, or his attorney, it shall be returned within five (5) days signed by the attorney of such adverse party if found correct, and if found incorrect shall be returned within that time with a written statement of the objections thereto.

ART. 2094. SELECTING NAMES FOR JURY WHEEL

Between the first and fifteenth days of August of each year, in each county in this State, the tax collector, sheriff, county clerk, and district clerk of the county, each in person or represented by one of his deputies, shall meet at the county courthouse and reconstitute the jury wheel, using as the sole collector, sheriff, county clerk, and district clerk of the State lists from all precincts in the county and the register of permanently exempt persons maintained by the tax collector by under Article 2137a.

Section 1 of Acts 1965, 56th Leg., p. 373, ch. 109, provided:

"Purpose. The 56th Legislature amended Article 2094, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, by two separate Acts with different provisions. The purpose of this amendment is to clarify the law by combining all of the provisions of both amendments, and to facilitate future amendments."

Section 2 of Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 948, ch. 129 provided:

"As used in this Act, 'the last preceding federal census' means the 1970 census or any future decennial federal census. This is despite any legislation that has been or may be enacted during any session of the 62nd Legislature delaying the effectiveness of the 1970 census for general state and local governmental purposes."

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 965, amending this article and various other articles of this chapter, in sections 13, 14, and 16 to 19 provided:

"Sec. 13. (providing for the court's equalization of the number of peremptory challenges of prospective jurors allotted to the parties, appears as article 2151a.)" expenses of the office of the district clerk in such counties, except as otherwise herein specifically provided. The cards containing said names shall be deposited in a jury wheel, to be provided for such purpose by the Commissioners Court of the county. Said wheel shall be constructed of any durable material and shall be so constructed as to freely revolve on its axle; and may be equipped with a motor capable of revolving said wheel in such a manner as to thoroughly mix said cards; and shall be kept locked at all times, except when in use as hereinafter provided, by the use of two separate locks, so arranged that the key to one will not open the other lock; and said wheel, and the clasps thereto attached into which the locks shall be fitted, shall be so arranged that the wheel cannot be opened unless both of said locks are unlocked at the time the wheel is opened. The keys to such locks shall be kept, one by the sheriff and the other by the district clerk. The sheriff and the clerk shall not open such wheel, nor permit the same to be opened by any person, except at the time and in the manner and by the persons herein specified; but said said sheriff and clerk shall keep such wheel, when not in use, in a safe and secure place, where the same cannot be tampered with.

Art. 2096. Cards Drawn from Wheel

(a) Not less than 10 days prior to the first day of a term of court, the district clerk or one of his deputies, and the sheriff, or one of his deputies, in the presence and under the direction of the district judge, if the jurors are to be drawn for district court, or the clerk of the county court, or one of his deputies, and the sheriff, or one of his deputies, in the presence and under the direction of the county judge, if the jurors are to be drawn for the county court, shall draw from the wheel containing the names of the jurors, after the same has been well turned so that the cards therein are thoroughly mixed, one by one the names of those jurors where such judge has so directed to compose as many lists as the term of the district or county courts may require, and shall record the names upon as many lists as the judge shall deem necessary to insure an adequate number of jurors for each session of the court. At such drawing, no person other than those above named shall be permitted to be present, except as hereinafter provided. The officers attending such drawing shall not divulge the names of any person that may be drawn as a juror to any person. If at any time during the term it appears that lists already drawn will be exhausted before the expiration of the term, additional jurors as are needed may be drawn in the same manner.

Art. 2097. List Certified

The several lists of names so drawn shall be certified under the hand of the clerk or the deputy doing the drawing, and the district or county judge in whose presence the names were drawn from the wheel, to be the lists drawn by him for that term, and shall be sealed up in separate envelopes indorsed, "List No. _____ of the petit jurors drawn on the ____ day of ______, 19___, for the Court of ______ County," (filling in the blanks properly and numbering the envelopes consecutively from one up). The clerk doing the drawing shall write his name across the seals of the envelopes and deliver them to the judge, who shall inspect the envelopes to see that they are properly indorsed and shall then deliver them to the clerk or deputy, and the clerk shall then immediately file them away in some safe and secure place in his office.

Art. 2098. List Delivered to Clerk

The judge shall deliver such envelopes to the clerk, or one of his deputies, and shall, or his discretion instruct the clerk to indorse on any of such envelopes that the jury for that week shall be summoned for some other day than Monday of said week, and the judge shall, at the same time, administer to the clerk and to each of his deputies an oath in substance as follows: "You and each of you do solemnly swear that you will not open the jury lists now delivered to you, nor permit them to be opened, until the time prescribed by law, nor communicate to any one the name or names of the men appearing on any of the jury lists, that you will not, directly or indirectly, converse or communicate with any one selected as juror concerning any case pending for trial in this court at its next term. So help you God."

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 2099. Cards to Be Used Again

When the names are drawn for jury service, the cards containing such names shall be sealed in separate envelopes, indorsed "Cards containing the names of jurors on List No. ______ of the petit jurors drawn on the ____ day of ______, 19___, for the Court of ______ County," (filling in the blanks properly). Each envelope shall be retained securely by the clerk, unopened, until after the jury selected from the corresponding list has been impaneled; and after such jurors as impaneled have served four (4) or more days, the envelope containing the cards bearing the names of the jurors on that list shall then be opened by the clerk, or his deputy, and those cards bearing the names of persons who have not been impaneled and who have not served as many as four (4) days shall be immediately returned to the wheel by the clerk, or his deputy; and the cards bearing the names of the persons serving as many as four (4) days shall be put in a box provided for that purpose for the use of the officers who shall next select the jurors for the wheel; provided that the clerk may withhold from the jury wheel all cards so selected, unless ordered by the judge to return such cards to the wheel. If any of the lists drawn for a term of court are not used, the clerk or his deputy shall open the envelopes containing the cards bearing the names on the unused lists immediately after the expiration of the term and return the cards to the wheel.

Art. 2100. Loss of Wheel

If the wheel containing the names of jurors be lost or destroyed, with the contents thereof, or if all the cards in said wheel be drawn out, such wheel shall immediately be refurbished, and cards bearing the names of jurors shall be placed therein immediately in accordance with the laws of the State.

Art. 2100a. Selection in Counties with Aid of Mechanical or Electronic Means; Adoption of Plan

Sec. 1. In lieu of any other procedure now provided by law, the Commissioners Court of any county in the State, upon recommendation of the district judge or a majority of the district judges of said courts, by order entered upon its minutes, may adopt a plan for the selection of persons for jury service with the aid of mechanical or electronic means.

Sec. 2. Any such plan so adopted shall conform to the following requirements:

(a) It shall be proposed in writing to the Commissioners Court by a majority of the judges of the district courts in such county, including criminal district courts, at a meeting of the district judges called for that purpose.

(b) It shall specify that the sources from which names are to be taken for jury purposes are all voter registration lists from all precincts in the county and the register of permanently exempt persons maintained by the county tax collector under Article 2137a.

(c) It shall provide a fair, impartial, and objective method of selecting persons for jury service with the aid of mechanical or electronic equipment.

(d) It shall designate the clerk of the district courts as the official to be in charge of the selection process and shall define his duties.

(e) It shall specify that a true and complete written list showing the names and addresses of the persons summoned to begin jury service on a particular date shall be filed of record with the county clerk at least 10 days prior to the date such persons are to begin such jury service.

Sec. 2a. A jury plan prepared under this Act must provide either for the use of the same list for the selection of persons for jury service until the list is exhausted or for the use of the same list for a specific period of time.

Sec. 3. In any county where such a plan is adopted, as above provided, the laws relating to the selection of petit juries by jury wheel shall not apply.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1981 amendatory act provided:

"Sec. 2. If on the effective date of this Act a plan for selection of persons for jury service is in effect in a county, the plan may not be continued in use after December 31, 1981, unless, before that date, it is amended to include a provision complying with the requirements of Section 2a, Chapter 529, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969 (Article 2100a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as added by this Act."

"Sec. 3. Section 1, Chapter 529, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969, as amended by Section 5, Chapter 905, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1971 (Article 2100a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is continued in effect. Chapter 386, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1971, is repealed."

Art. 2101. Interchangeable Juries

The provisions of this article shall be applicable only to such counties of this State as may now maintain three or more district courts, or in which three or more district courts may be hereafter established. A criminal court in any county with jurisdiction in felony cases shall be considered a district court within the meaning of this article. The "Interchangeable Jury Law" shall not apply to a selection of jurors in lunacy cases or in capital cases.

1. Jury Wheel Law governs.—The provisions of the statutes governing jury wheels shall remain in full force and effect, except as modified by the special provisions of this law.

2. Organization and supervision.—In each county under this law, the district judges shall meet together and determine approximately the number of jurors that are reasonably necessary for jury service in all the county courts at law, county courts and district courts of such county, for each week during the time said courts may hold during the year, and shall thereupon order the drawing of such number of jurors from the wheel for each of said weeks, said jury to be known as the general panel of jurors for service in all such courts of such county for the respective weeks for which they are designated to serve. A majority of said district judges are authorized to act in carrying out the provisions of this law; they may increase or diminish the number of jurors to be selected for any week, and shall order said jurors drawn for as many weeks in advance of service as they deem proper. From time to time they shall designate the judge to whom the general panel shall report for duty, and said judge, for such time as he is chosen to so act shall organize said juries and have immediate supervision and control of them. The said jurors so limited in number shall, after being regularly drawn from the wheel, be served by the sheriff to appear and report for jury service before said judge so designated, who shall hear the excuses of the said jury and swear them in for service for the week that they are to serve to try all cases that may be submitted to them in any of said courts.

3. Used interchangeably.—Said jurors, when impaneled shall constitute a general jury panel for service as jurors in all county and district courts in said county, and shall be used interchangeably in all of said courts. In the event of a deficiency of jurors at any given time to meet the requirement of all said courts, the judge having control of the said general panel shall order such additional jurors to be drawn from the wheel as may be sufficient to meet the emergency, but such jurors shall act only as special jurors and shall be discharged as soon as their services are no longer needed. Resort to the wheel shall be had in all cases to fill out the general panel.

4. Provided, however, that in any county of this state having a population in excess of nine hundred thousand (900,000) according to the last preceding or any future United States Census, it shall be permissible, after having been approved by a majority of the judges for the district courts of any such county, to draw from said jury wheel two separate jury panels for the week; one of which said jury panels for the week shall be drawn and be in attendance upon those criminal district courts and county courts which have a criminal docket, and the other said jury panel for the week shall be drawn and be in attendance upon those courts which have a civil docket.

5. This Article is also applicable to a county that has two district courts and a domestic relations court.

6. A. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, in a county in which two district courts have jurisdiction, both district judges may meet together at such times as they may agree upon and determine approximately the number of jurors that are reasonably necessary for jury service in the district courts of the county for each week for as many weeks in advance as they deem proper, and may order the drawing of such number of jurors for each of said weeks, which jury is known as the general panel of jurors for service in both district courts for the respective weeks for which they are designated to serve. Both judges shall act together in carrying out the provisions of this section. They may increase or diminish the number of jurors to be selected for any week and may order the jurors drawn for as many weeks in advance of service as they deem proper. From time to time they shall designate the judge to whom the general panel shall report for duty, and the designated judge, for the time he is chosen to act, shall organize the juries and have immediate supervision and control of them. The jurors, after being regularly drawn from the wheel, shall be served by the sheriff to appear and report for jury service before the judge so designated, who shall hear the excuses of the jury and swear them in for service for the week that they are to serve to try all cases that may be submitted to them in either of the district courts. The jurors, when impaneled, constitute a general jury panel for service as jurors in both district courts in the county and shall be used interchangeably. In the event of a deficiency of jurors at any given time to meet the requirement of either court, the judge having control of the general panel shall order such additional jurors to be drawn from the wheel as may be sufficient to meet the emergency, but such jurors shall act only as special jurors and shall be discharged as soon as their services are no longer needed. Resort to the wheel shall be had in all cases to fill out the general panel.

B. With the approval of both district judges, jurors impaneled under the provisions of Subdivision A of this subsection may constitute a general jury panel for service as jurors in all county courts and statutory county courts in the county, in addition to service as jurors in both district courts, and in such event, shall be used interchangeably in all district and county courts.

C. The provisions of this subsection are cumulative and in addition to the methods now authorized by law for the selection of a jury panel in the counties herein named, and the adoption of the method provided in this subsection is entirely optional with and in the discretion of the district judges of any such county coming under the terms of this law.

Art. 2102. Jury Quarters

The Commissioners Court of each such county shall set apart for the use and convenience of said general panel or panels some room or rooms or place or places in or near to the court house, which shall be comfortably furnished and fitted up for them to stay when not required for actual jury service. Said quarters shall be occupied by said panel or panels when not in service and they shall remain in or conveniently near thereto so as to be at all times subject to duty in any court in accordance with the preceding Article when called for, without delaying the proceedings of such court. The sheriff shall assign one of his deputies to look after said panel, call them when needed by the judges, provide for their wants and to have general custody and control of them when not in actual service.

Art. 2103. Reducing Number in General Panel

When it becomes necessary to diminish the general panel for the week of its selection on account of lack of work in any court or for any other cause, the judge having supervision of said jury for the week shall designate the number to remain. He shall cause the clerk to draw from the names of the general panel the number required, and those jurors whose names are so drawn shall continue in service for the remainder of the week and the others excluded.

Art. 2103a. County Judges and Judges of County Courts-at-Law in Certain Counties; Drawing Additional Jurors

In all counties having two or more County Courts-at-Law, when a panel of jurors shall not have been drawn by one of the district judges as directed by Article 2101, or when the number of jurors drawn shall be deemed insufficient by the county judge or of either of the judges of the County Courts-at-Law, the county judge or judge of either County Court-at-Law may order the drawing of such additional jurors from the jury wheel for service in any of such courts for so long a period of time as the trials in such courts may reasonably require. Such jurors when drawn shall be available for service in either of such courts. All of the provisions of law now otherwise governing the drawing of jurors in the courts in such counties by the district judge shall govern so far as applicable, except as herein otherwise expressly provided. The county judge and the judge of any of the County Courts-at-Law shall concurrently have the same authority with respect to determining and remedying a deficiency in the number of jurors as is now conferred on the judge having control of the general jury panel by Section 3, Article 2101, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

Art. 2118. Selection of Jurors

On any day when a jury has been summoned and there are jury trials the court shall select a sufficient number of qualified jurors, in his discretion, to serve as jurors. Such jurors shall be selected from the names included in the jury lists, if there be the requisite number of such in attendance who are not excused by the court, but if such number be not in attendance at any time, the court shall direct the sheriff to summon a sufficient number of qualified persons to make up the requisite number of jurors which is to be drawn from the jury wheel for jury trials in the district and county courts, under order of the court, to fill the panel. The names of such jurors to be summoned by the sheriff shall be drawn from the jury wheel as herein provided. All said extra jurors summoned shall be discharged when their services are no longer needed. (a) The judge of a district court may, by order, permanently or for a specified period, excuse from service as a juror in all the county and district courts in the county a person with a physical or mental impairment or with an inability to comprehend or communicate the English language that makes it impossible or very difficult for the person to serve on a jury.

(b) An affidavit stating the name and address of the person and the reason for and duration of the requested excuse shall be submitted to a district court by the person requesting the excuse, as provided herein. A statement from a physician shall be attached to an affidavit requesting excuse from service for physical or mental impairment.

The tax assessor-collector shall maintain a current register showing separately the name and address of each person permanently excused from jury service and the name and address of each person excused from jury service for a specified period.

(d) Persons listed on the register provided by Section (c) of this article shall not be summoned for jury service during the period for which the person is excused. The names of persons listed on the register shall not be placed in the jury wheel, or otherwise used in preparing the record of names from which a jury list is selected, during the period for which the person is excused.

(e) A person excused from jury service under this article may rescind the excuse at any time by filing a signed request for rescission with the county tax assessor-collector.

(A) be sworn to by the affiant in person before the district clerk or a deputy district clerk;

(B) be subscribed with a statement by a third party that the affidavit was read to the affiant before signing, and the affiant stated that it was his request to be permanently excluded from jury service in the county;

(g) The affidavit and physician's statement, if any, may be presented to a district judge at the time the juror is summoned or at any other time.

(h) The name and address of the person excluded from jury service under this article shall be added or deleted from the list or register at any time permitted by law, and when the names and addresses of eligible jurors are regularly deleted or added to the list or register.

Art. 2121. Defaulting Juror

Any juror lawfully notified who without reasonable excuse fails to be in attendance on the court in obedience to such notice or who files a false claim of exemption from jury service shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars.

Art. 2122. Pay of Jurors

(a) Each grand juror and each petit juror in a civil or criminal case in a district or criminal district court, county court, county court at law, or justice court is entitled to receive not less than $30 nor more than $80 for each day or fraction of a day that he attends court in response to such process.

6. He must not be under indictment or other legal accusation of theft or of any felony.

A person who is legally blind is not disqualified to serve as a juror in a civil case solely by reason of his legal blindness unless, in the opinion of the court, his legal blindness renders him unfit to act as a juror in that particular case.

Whenever it shall be made to appear to the court that the requisite number of jurors able to read and write cannot be found within the county, the court may dispense with the exception provided for in the third subdivision; and the court may in like manner dispense with the exception provided for in the fourth subdivision, when the county is so sparsely populated as to make its enforcement seriously inconvenient.

The following persons shall be disqualified to serve as jurors in any particular case:

1. Any witness in the case.

2. Any person interested, directly or indirectly, in the subject matter of the suit.

4. Every person who is enrolled in and in actual attendance at an institution of higher education.

Art. 2137. Filing of Exemptions

Sec. 1. Any person summoned as a juror who is exempt by law from jury service may establish his exemption without appearing in person by filing a signed statement of the ground of his exemption with the clerk of the court at any time before the date upon which he is summoned to appear.

Sec. 2. Any person wishing to claim any statutory exemption under Article 2135 in counties employing the jury wheel system may do so by filing a sworn statement stating the nature of and claiming such exemption with the sheriff, the tax assessor-collector, or the district or county clerk of the county of his residence, in which event no card for such person shall be placed in the jury wheel for the ensuing year.

Art. 2137a. Permanent Exemption for Elderly

Permanently Exempt Persons Excluded from Jury List

Sec. 5. The names of persons listed on the register of persons permanently exempt from jury service may not be placed in the jury wheel or otherwise used in preparing the record of names from which a jury list is selected.

Recess of Permanent Exemption

Sec. 6. (a) The claimant of a permanent exemption from jury service under this article may rescind the exemption at any time by filing a signed request for rescission with the county tax assessor-collector.

(b) Rescission does not affect a person’s right to claim the permanent exemption at a later time.

(2) criminal actions, with criminal actions against defendants who are detained in jail pending trial given preference over other criminal actions;

(3) contents of election and suits under the Texas Election Code; and

(4) appeals of final rulings and decisions of the Industrial Accident Board.

(b) Insofar as practicable, the trial courts shall observe the preference provided by Subsection (a) of this section in ruling on, hearing, and trying the matters pending before the courts.

Secondary Priorities

Sec. 2. A matter not included in Section 1 of this Act shall be set at the discretion of the trial court in which the matter is pending, observing the following priorities:

(1) precedence should be given to matters where delay will cause physical or economic injury or harm to either the parties or the public;

(2) matters involving substantial substantive or constitutional rights should take precedence over matters involving permits, licenses, or privileges; and

(3) precedence should be given matters involving important issues that greatly concern the public or materially affect the public welfare.

General Repealer

Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws that provide for preference or priority in conflict with this Act for the hearing or trial of pending matters in the trial courts of this state are repealed to the extent of the conflict. If the member of the Legislature is an attorney for a party to such cause, his affidavit shall contain a declaration that it is his intention to participate actively in the preparation and/or presentation of the case. Where a party to any cause or an attorney for any party to such cause is a Member of the Legislature, his affidavit need not be corroborated.

On the filing of such affidavit, the court shall continue the cause until thirty (30) days after the adjournment of the Legislature and such affidavit shall be proof of the necessity for such continuance, and such continuance shall be deemed one of right and shall not be charged against the party receiving such continuance upon any subsequent application for continuance. Repeal by Rules of Civil Procedure

This article was included in the list of articles deemed repealed by the Rules of Civil Procedure. The Rule Making Act which repealed the laws governing practice and procedure in civil actions in Texas and which directed the Supreme Court, upon the adoption of the Rules of Civil Procedure, to file a list of all Articles deemed repealed by "Section 1 of this (Rule Making) Act" was approved and became effective May 15, 1939, while the Rules of Civil Procedure became effective September 1, 1941. See Rule 287, Vernon's Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.
Art. 2212a. Comparative Negligence; Contribution Among Joint Tort-feasors

Secure from Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and all other laws, the following:

1. Contributory negligence shall not bar recovery in an action by any person or party to the legal representative of any person or party to recover damages for negligence resulting in death or injury to persons or property if such negligence is not greater than the negligence of the person or party or persons or parties against whom recovery is sought, but any damages allowed shall be diminished in proportion to the amount of negligence attributed to the person or party recovering.

Contribution Among Joint Tort-feasors

Sec. 2. (a) In this section:

(1) "Claimant" means any party seeking relief, whether he is a plaintiff, counter-claimant, or cross-claimant.

(2) "Defendant" includes any party from whom a claimant seeks relief.

(b) In a case in which there is more than one defendant, and the claimant's negligence does not exceed the total negligence of all defendants, contribution to the damages awarded to the claimant shall be in proportion to the percentage of negligence attributable to each defendant.

(c) Each defendant is jointly and severally liable for the entire amount of the judgment awarded the claimant, except that a defendant whose negligence is less than that of the claimant is liable to the claimant only for that portion of the judgment which represents the percentage of negligence attributable to him.

(d) If an alleged joint tort-feasor pays an amount to a claimant in settlement, but is never joined as a party defendant, or having been joined, is dismissed or nonsuited after settlement with the claimant (for which reason the existence and amount of his negligence are not submitted to the jury), each defendant is entitled to deduct from the amount for which he is liable to the claimant a percentage of the amount of the settlement based on the relationship the defendant's own negligence bears to the total negligence of all defendants.

(e) If an alleged joint tort-feasor makes a settlement with a claimant but nevertheless is joined as a party defendant at the time of the submission of the case to the jury (so that the existence and amount of his negligence are submitted to the jury) and his percentage of negligence is found by the jury, the settlement is a complete release of the portion of the judgment attributable to the percentage of negligence found on the part of that joint tort-feasor.

(f) If the application of the rules contained in Subsections (a) through (e) of this section results in two claimants being liable to each other in damages, the claimant who is liable for the greater amount is entitled to a credit toward his liability in the amount of damages owed him by the other claimant.

(g) All claims for contribution between named defendants in the primary suit shall be determined in the primary suit, except that a named defendant may proceed against a person not a party to the primary suit who has not effected a settlement with the claimant.
(b) This section prevails over Article 2212, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and all other laws to the extent of any conflict.
Section 3 of the 1973 Act amended section 1 of article 6701b; §§ 4, 5 thereof provided;
"Sec. 4. Dividing clause. This Act does not apply to any cause of action arising before its effective date."
"Sec. 5. Severability clause. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."
Art. 2213b. Indemnity Provisions in Mineral Agreements Where Negligence Attributable to Indemnitee
Sec. 1. The legislature finds that an inequity is fostered on certain contractors by the indemnity provisions contained in some agreements pertaining to wells for oil, gas, or water, or mines for other minerals. It is the intent of the legislature and the purpose of this Act to declare provisions for indemnity in certain agreements where there is negligence attributable to the indemnitee to be against the public policy of the State of Texas.
Sec. 2. Except as specified in Section 4 of this Act, a covenant, promise, agreement, or understanding contained in, collateral to, or affecting an agreement pertaining to a well for oil, gas, or water, or mine for any mineral, is void and unenforceable if it purports to indemnify the indemnitee against loss or liability for damages arising from either death or bodily injury to persons, or injury to property, or any other loss, damage, or expense arising from either death or bodily injury, injury to property, or loss, damage, or expense, which is caused by or results from the sole or concurrent negligence of the indemnitee, or an agent or employee of the indemnitee, or an independent contractor who is directly responsible to the indemnitee.
Sec. 3. The term "agreement pertaining to a well for oil, gas, or water, or mine for any mineral" as used in Section 2 of this Act, means any agreement, or understanding, written or oral, concerning any operations related to drilling, deepening, reworking, repairing, improving, testing, treating, perforating, acidizing, logging, conditioning, altering, plugging, or otherwise rendering services in or in connection with any well drilled for the purpose of producing or disposing of oil, gas, or other minerals, or water, or designing, excavating, constructing, improving, or otherwise rendering services in or in connection with any mine shaft, drift, or other structure intended for use in the exploration for or production of any mineral, or an agreement to perform any portion of any such work or services or any act collateral thereto, including the furnishing or rental of equipment, incidental transportation, and other goods and services furnished in connection with any such service or operation.
Sec. 4. (a) The provisions of this Act do not apply to loss or liability for damages, or any other expenses, arising from:
(1) death or bodily injury to persons or injury to property resulting from radioactivity;
(2) injury to property resulting from pollution;
(3) injury to property resulting from reservoir or underground damage; or
(4) death or bodily injury or injury to property resulting from the performance of services to control a wild well so as to protect the safety of the general public and/or to prevent depletion of vital natural resources. The term "wild well" as used in this section means any well from which the escape of oil and/or gas is unintended and cannot be controlled by the equipment used in normal drilling practice.
(b) The provisions of this Act do not affect the validity of any insurance contract or any benefit conferred by the Workmen's Compensation Law of this state and do not deprive an owner of the surface estate of the right to secure an indemnity from any lessee, operator, contractor, or other person conducting operations for the exploration or production of minerals of the owner's land.

Sec. 2A. Any lease given pursuant to Section 1 of this Act or any amendment of an existing lease made pursuant to Section 2 of this Act may authorize the lessee and his assignors to pool all or any part of the lands subject to the lease with adjacent lands into a unit not to exceed 100 acres for an oil well or 640 acres for a gas well plus 10% tolerance. Sec. 2C. In any cause commenced pursuant to this Act, the court may authorize and direct that the moneys, if any, paid to the receiver, after payment of the court costs, shall be by him deposited in the registry of the court for the use and benefit of the persons entitled or who may become entitled thereto according to their respective rights and interests, and thereupon the court may immediately discharge the receiver, and any future payments accruing under the lease to the contingent future interests leased or subjected to pooling in the cause shall be paid directly into the registry of the court and impounded for the benefit of the persons entitled or who may become entitled thereto according to their respective rights and interests.

The notice must include the name and post office address of the judgment creditor and if the judgment creditor has an attorney, the attorney's name and address. The judgment creditor may mail a notice of the filing of the judgment to the judgment debtor and may file proof of mailing with the clerk. Lack of mailing notice of filing by the clerk does not affect the enforcement proceedings if proof of mailing by the judgment creditor has been filed.

Stay

Sec. 4. (a) If the judgment debtor shows the court that an appeal from the foreign judgment is pending or will be taken, or that a stay of execution has been granted and proves that the judgment debtor has furnished the security for the satisfaction of the judgment required by the state in which it was rendered, the court shall stay enforcement of the foreign judgment until the appeal is concluded, the time for appeal expires, or the stay of execution expires or is vacated.

(b) If the judgment debtor shows the court any ground on which enforcement of a judgment of the court of this state would be stayed, the court shall stay enforcement of the foreign judgment for an appropriate period, and require the same security for satisfaction of the judgment that is required in this state.

Sec. 5. (a) A person filing a foreign judgment shall pay to the clerk of the court the amount as otherwise provided by law for filing suit in the courts of this state. Fees for other enforcement proceedings shall be as otherwise provided by law for judgments of the courts of this state.

"Sec. 2. This Act takes effect September 1, 1983, and applies to foreign judgments filed on or after that date."

Art. 2328b-6. Uniform Foreign Country Money-Judgment Recognition Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Uniform Foreign Country Money-Judgment Recognition Act.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) "Foreign country" means a governmental unit other than the United States, or a state, district, commonwealth, territory, or insular possession thereof, or the Panama Canal Zone, or the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

(2) "Foreign country judgment" means a judgment of a foreign country granting or denying a sum of money, other than a judgment for taxes, a fine or other penalty, or a judgment for support in matrimonial or family matters.

Applicability

Sec. 3. This Act applies to any foreign country judgment:

(1) that is final and conclusive and enforceable where rendered even though an appeal is pending or the judgment is subject to appeal; or

(2) that is in favor of the defendant on the merits of the cause of action and is final and conclusive where rendered, even though an appeal is pending or the judgment is subject to appeal.

Recognition and Enforcement

Sec. 4. Except as provided in Section 5 of this Act, a foreign country judgment meeting the requirements of Section 3 is conclusive between the parties to the extent that it grants or denies recovery of a sum of money. The foreign country judgment is enforceable in the same manner as the judgment of a sister state that is entitled to full faith and credit.

Grounds for Nonrecognition

Sec. 5. (a) A foreign country judgment is not conclusive if:

(1) the judgment was rendered under a system which does not provide impartial tribunals or procedures compatible with the requirements of due process of law;

(2) the foreign country court did not have personal jurisdiction over the defendant; or

(3) the foreign country court did not have jurisdiction over the subject matter.

(b) A foreign country judgment need not be recognized if:

(1) the defendant in the proceedings in the foreign country court did not receive notice of the proceedings in sufficient time to enable him to defend;

(2) the judgment was obtained by fraud;

(3) the cause of action on which the judgment is based is repugnant to the public policy of this state;

(4) the judgment conflicts with another final and conclusive judgment;

(5) the proceeding in the foreign country court was contrary to an agreement between the parties under which the dispute in question was to be settled otherwise than by proceedings in that court;

(6) in the case of jurisdiction based only on personal service, the foreign country court was a seriously inconvenient forum for the trial of the action; or

(7) it is established that the foreign country in which the judgment was rendered does not recognize judgments rendered in this state that, but for the fact that they are rendered in Texas, conform to the definition of "foreign country judgment" in Section 2(2) of this Act.

Personal Jurisdiction

Sec. 6. (a) The foreign country judgment shall not be refused recognition for lack of personal jurisdiction if:

(1) the defendant was served personally in the foreign country;

(2) the defendant voluntarily appeared in the proceedings, other than for the purpose of protecting property seized or threatened with seizure in the proceedings or of contesting the jurisdiction of the court over him;

(3) the defendant prior to the commencement of the proceedings had agreed to submit to the jurisdiction of the foreign country court with respect to the subject matter involved;

(4) the defendant was domiciled in the foreign country when the proceedings were instituted, or, being a body corporate had its principal place of business, was incorporated, or had otherwise acquired corporate status, in the foreign country;

(5) the defendant had a business office in the foreign country and the proceedings in the foreign country court involved a cause of action arising out of business done by the defendant through that office in the foreign country; or

(6) the defendant operated a motor vehicle or airplane in the foreign country and the proceedings involved a cause of action arising out of such operation.

(b) The courts of this state may recognize other bases of jurisdiction.

Stay in Case of Appeal

Sec. 7. If the defendant satisfies the court either that an appeal is pending or that he is entitled and intends to appeal from the foreign country judgment, the court may stay the proceedings until the appeal has been determined or until the expiration of a period of time sufficient to enable the defendant to prosecute the appeal.

Saving Clause

Sec. 8. This Act does not prevent the recognition of a foreign country judgment in situations not covered by this Act.

Uniformity of Interpretation

Sec. 9. This Act shall be construed to carry out its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states that enact it.

Nonapplicability

Sec. 10. This Act does not apply to a judgment rendered before the effective date of this Act.

ART. 2338-1a. Contributing to Drug Dependency or Addiction
(a) When any person is an habitual drunkard or an addict to cocaine, morphine or other narcotics, whether previously convicted or not, the parent, guardian or person having the custody of, or the person responsible for such habitual drunkard or narcotic addict, or any person who by any act encourages, causes, acts in conjunction with, or contributes to the delinquency, dependency or the neglect of such habitual drunkard or narcotic addict, or who shall in any manner cause, encourage, act in conjunction with or contribute to the delinquency, dependency or the neglect of any such habitual drunkard or narcotic addict, shall be fined not exceeding Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars or be imprisoned in jail not to exceed one year, or both. (b) To the extent of any conflict, the offenses defined by the Penal Code or other law enacted subsequent to Chapter 488, Acts of the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949, prevail over the offense defined by this article.

Art. 2338-1b

Sec. 1. (a) When the regular judge of a Family District Court as created by the Family District Court Act in this state is absent or is from any cause disqualified from presiding, a retired judge of a special juvenile court or a domestic relations court may be appointed by the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district in which the appointed judge resides to sit for the regular judge of a Family District Court within the geographic limits of the respective administrative judicial district, provided the retired judge voluntarily retired from office and certifies his willingness to serve.

(b) When the docket of a Family District Court in this state becomes so excessive that the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district in which that court is located deems it an emergency, a retired judge of a special juvenile court or a domestic relations court residing within the geographic limits of the respective administrative judicial district, who meets the qualifications set out in Subsection (a) of this section, may be appointed by the presiding judge to sit for the regular judge for as long as the emergency exists.

(c) A presiding judge may, with the consent of a retired judge of a special juvenile court or a domestic relations court, within his district make an assignment outside of his judicial district with the specific authorization of the presiding judge of the district in which that assignment is made.

Bond and Oath of Retired Judge

Sec. 2. A retired judge appointed to sit for a regular judge under the provisions of this Act shall execute the bond and take the oath of office which is required by law for the regular judge for whom he is sitting.

Power and Jurisdiction

Sec. 3. A retired judge appointed under the provisions of this Act has all the power and jurisdiction of the court and the regular judge for whom he is sitting and may sign orders, judgments, decrees, or other process of any kind as "Judge Presiding" when acting for the regular judge.

Compensation

Sec. 4. A retired judge appointed to sit for the regular judge under the provisions of this Act shall receive for the services actually performed the same amount of salary which the regular judge is entitled to receive for such services. The amount to be paid for such services shall be paid in the same manner as the regular judge is paid on certification by the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district that the retired judge has rendered the services and is entitled to receive the salary. Such payment shall be made from the item in the judiciary section, comptrollers department, of the appropriations act providing for payment of salaries of district judges and criminal district judges. Art. 2338-1d. Masters in Domestic Relations Court in Counties Over 2,000,000

Authorization to Appoint Master; Termination; Qualifications; Compensation

Sec. 1. (a) Each judge of a court of domestic relations in a county of more than 2,000,000 population or any successor court thereto may appoint a master as provided in this Act. The services of the master may be terminated if the performance of his duties is unsatisfactory to the judge of the court, by which the master was appointed.

(b) A master shall be an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Texas and shall be a citizen of this state. The compensation for a master shall be fixed by the judge of the court making such appointment. If the judge of the court determines that the parties litigant are unable to defray the costs of the master's compensation, such costs shall be paid out of the jury fund of the county.

Matters Referred to a Master

Sec. 2. If the judge of a court of domestic relations in such county or any successor court thereto deems it advisable, he may appoint a master and refer to the master any civil case involving motions of contempt for failure or refusal to pay child support, temporary support, or separate maintenance; motions for failure or refusal to comply with court orders concerning visitation with children growing out of separate maintenance and divorce actions; motions for changes of conservatorships; motions for revision of child-support payments; and motions for revision of visitation privileges.
Powers

Sec. 3. (a) In all cases designated in Section 2 of this Act, the judge of a court of domestic relations in a county of more than 2,000,000 population or any successor court thereto may authorize the master to hear evidence, to make findings of fact thereon, to formulate conclusions of law, and to recommend judgment to be entered in such cases. In all cases referred to the master, the order of reference may specify or limit the powers of the master and may direct him to report only on particular issues, or to do or perform particular acts, or to receive and report on evidence only, and may fix the time and place for beginning and closing hearings and for filing reports.

(b) Subject to the limitations and specifications stated in the order, the master shall have the power to regulate all proceedings in every hearing before him and to do all acts and take all measures necessary and proper for the efficient performance of his duties under the order. He may require the production of evidence before him on all matters embraced in the reference, and he may rule on the admissibility of evidence, unless otherwise directed by the order of reference. He has the authority to issue summons for the appearance of witnesses and to swear the witnesses for the hearing and may examine them himself. A witness appearing before him that is duly sworn is subject to the penalties of perjury. If a witness after being duly summoned fails to appear or having appeared refuses to answer questions, on certification of such refusal to the referring court, the court may issue attachment against the witness and may fine or imprison the witness.

Report to Referring Judge; Notice to Parties

Sec. 4. On the conclusion of the hearing in each case, the master shall transmit to the referring judge all papers relating to the case, together with his findings and a statement that notice of his findings and of the right to a hearing before the judge has been given to all adult principals, minors, or parents, guardians, or custodians of any minor, whose case has been heard by the master. This notice may be given at the hearing or otherwise as the referring court directs.

Disposition by Referring Judge

Sec. 5. After it is filed, the referring court may adopt, modify, correct, reject, or reverse the master’s report or recommit it for further information as the court may deem proper and necessary in the particular circumstances of the case. Where judgment has been recommended, the court in its discretion may approve the recommendation and hear further evidence before rendition of judgment.

Hearing by Judge Upon Request

Sec. 6. Adult principals or a minor child or his parents, guardians, or custodians are entitled to a hearing by the judge of the referring court if within three days after receiving notice of the findings of the master they file a request with the court for a hearing. The referring court may allow the hearing at any time.

Failure to Request Hearing

Sec. 7. If no hearing before the judge of the referring court is requested or the right to such hearing is waived, the findings and recommendations of the master become the decree of the court when adopted by an order of the judge.

Notice of Hearing by Master

Sec. 8. Prior to the hearing by the master, the parties litigant shall be given due notice as provided by law of the time and place of the hearing.

Jury Trial

Sec. 9. In any proceeding where a jury trial has been demanded, the master shall refer the case back to the referring court for a full hearing before the court and jury, subject to the usual rules of the court in such cases.

Appointment of Master Not Mandatory

Sec. 10. Nothing in this Act shall be interpreted to require any judge of a court of domestic relations to appoint a permanent or standing master to serve in such court.

Art. 2338-1e. Domestic Relations Offices in Counties Over 2,000,000

Upon such creation, said designated county office shall be directly responsible to the commissioners court. The chief administrative officer of the designated county office so created shall be appointed by a majority vote of the commissioners court of the county.

(b) A referee shall be an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Texas and shall be a citizen of this State. The compensation, if any, of the referee shall be found and taxed in the same manner as now provided by law for taxing costs in civil cases. The Judge of said Court shall determine if the parties litigant are able to defray the costs of the referee's compensation and where so found and determined, such costs shall be taxed as costs against the parties litigant. However, if such costs are not taxed against the parties litigant, then such compensation, if any, shall be fixed by the Commistions 2 and 3 of this Act, the Judge of the Juvenile or District Court may authorize the referee to hear further evidence before rendition of judgment.

Sec. 7. Adult principals, a minor child, his parents, guardians, or custodians are entitled to a hearing by the Judge of the referring Court if, within three days after receiving notice of the find-

Court for a hearing. The referring Court may allow such a hearing at any time.

jurisdiction to determine all issues in respect to the creation of such district, may adjourn the hearing from day to day and from time to time as the facts may require, and shall have power to make all incidental orders deemed proper in respect to the matters before it.

Granting or Denying Petition; Fixing Boundaries of District

Sec. 6. If it shall appear on hearing by the court that the organization of a district as prayed for is feasible and practicable, would benefit the land included therein, and will be conclusive to the public safety, welfare and convenience, and aid in the conservation of the real property or natural re-election until such time as the Commissioners Court agreed to hold the election.

Incorporated City, Town or Village Included in Proposed District; Referendum

Sec. 8(a). If the area of the proposed District encompasses the territory of any incorporated city, town or village, the Commissioners Court, if such city, town or village lies within its county, in making the determinations required in Section 6 of this Act, shall also determine whether those findings would be the same as to the remaining portion of the proposed territory if the findings of the Commissioners Courts made as required in Section 6 and in consenting city, town or village ever annex territory of the district embracing the remainder of the district and shall cease to provide any further due notice, immediately de-annex such area from its district, but its exclusion shall not affect the district and the levy of the tax.

Should a majority of the voters residing in a municipality and participating in the election vote against creation of the district or levy of the tax, the municipality shall not be included within the district, but its exclusion shall not affect the creation of the district embracing the remainder of the proposed territory if the findings of the Commissioners Courts made as required in Section 6 and in this section of this Act are favorable to the creation of the district, as thus restricted. Should any non-consenting city, town or village ever annex territory into such proposed rural Fire Prevention District, then the Board of Fire Commissioners shall, after due notice, immediately de-annex such area from its district and shall cease to provide any further services to the residents of that area.

Sec. 2. The trustee may make reasonable rules and regulations relating to gifts, grants, and donations from any source and to amounts necessary for the permanent maintenance and upkeep of the cemeteries.

Sec. 3. (b) On acceptance of the donations, the trustee shall instruct the county treasurer to issue to each donor a certificate which states:

1. the purpose of the donation;
2. the amount of the donation; and

Sec. 4. The trustee may invest and reinvest funds of the trust in interest-bearing bonds or securities of federal, state, and local governments, including municipalities and political subdivisions of the state.

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Act shall not be construed to prevent any person who has an interest in a grave or burial lot or who has kinship within the third degree of affinity or consanguinity to those interred from caring for a particular grave or burial lot in any cemetery maintained and kept by the trustee under this Act.

Sec. 7. After a trust fund is established under this Act, if the county judge refuses to act as trustee, or if the county judge dies or resigns or renounces the trust, the district judge shall appoint a new trustee to carry out the trust. The new trustee appointed shall be a person other than a county commissioner.

Sec. 8. Sec. 2. The location of such dumping or garbage disposal grounds, and the consideration to be paid therefore, shall be a matter committed to the sound discretion of the Commissioners Courts, taking into consideration the convenience of the people to be served, and the general health of, and the annoyance to, the community to be served by such dumping and garbage disposal grounds.

Sec. 3. Counties are hereby given the right of eminent domain in acquiring such grounds in accordance with the provisions of the eminent domain Statutes of the State of Texas; provided, however, that counties shall not have the right of eminent domain in acquiring such grounds as against corporations which also have the right of eminent domain by Statute.

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Court of any county is hereby authorized and empowered to sell, contract to sell, deliver and distribute any or all water of the project which is not needed for county purposes to any municipal corporation or political subdivision of this state now created or existing hereafter established under the laws of the State of Texas, or to any individual, corporation or company under such terms and conditions as the court may determine to be in the best interests of the county, but in no event may the county sell water under the terms of this Section if an adequate public water supply is available to such municipal corporation, political subdivision, individual, corporation or company at the time the provisions of this Act are adopted by the county, nor shall the county sell water under this Act for irrigation purposes. The cost of supplying the water, including any increase in the cost of acquisition, storage, treatment and distribution facilities shall be considered a part of the cost of the project as such term is used in the preceding and following Sections.

Bond Issue; Ad Valorem Tax; Rates and Charges for Water; Limitation on Cost of Project

Sec. 4. (a) For the purpose of paying the cost of the project, the county may, after approval in an election as hereinafter provided, issue its negotiable bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of the net revenues of the project. When so provided in the order, and after an election, authorizing the issuance of bonds, bonds issued by the county may be additionally secured by levy of an ad valorem tax on the taxable property of the county out of the Permanent Improvement Tax prescribed under Article 8, Section 9 of the Constitution. If the bonds are to be supported by a tax, the Commissioners Court shall levy such tax sufficient to pay the interest on the bonds as it accrues and the principal as it matures, but the order authorizing the issuance of the bonds may provide that the amount of tax to be collected each year may be reduced or abated to the extent that money is on hand from the pledged revenues applicable to the payment of interest and principal.

(b) As to bonds issued by the county secured solely by a pledge of net revenues of the project as aforesaid, it shall be the mandatory duty of the Commissioners Court to contract for and impose such rates and charges, for water supplied by the project as will be fully sufficient to operate and maintain the project and produce all amounts required to pay principal and interest on the bonds when due, and establish such reserves as may be provided in the order authorizing the issuance of such bonds.

(c) All water used by the county for its own facilities shall be paid for out of general funds of the county legally available for such purpose and no free service shall be allowed.

Based on such order, notice of such election shall be given, returns made, result declared, orders entered, tax levied, certified, assessed, or collected, and all other matters applicable shall be performed as required by the resolution and order. The order shall set forth the proposed project, the amount of bonds to be issued to pay for the same, their rate of interest and maturity dates, and shall show whether or not a tax shall be levied to redeem such bonds and if so, the amount of the tax.

(e) In the event a majority of the electors who own taxable property in the county and who have duly rendered the same for taxation approve the issuance of the bonds, then the Commissioners Court shall issue such bonds as hereinafter provided. In no event shall any single project proposed by the Commissioners Court require the issuance of bonds whose total par value is in excess of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000).

(f) The Commissioners Court shall have full discretion in fixing the details of the bonds and in determining the manner of sale thereof provided the bonds shall bear interest at not exceeding six per-

The bonds may be made redeemable prior to maturity in such manner and at such prices as may be prescribed by the Commissioners Court in the order authorizing their issuance. All bonds issued hereunder shall and are hereby declared to have all the qualifications and incidents of negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instruments Law of Texas. The proceeds of the bonds shall be used solely to pay the cost of the project as above provided, and shall be disbursed under such restrictions as may be provided in the bond order, and there shall be and is hereby created and granted a lien upon such moneys until so applied in favor of the holders of the bonds. Pending use of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds for the construction of the project such proceeds may be invested in direct obligations of the United States Government having maturities not more than ninety-one (91) days from the date of investment. Unless otherwise provided in such order or indenture, if the proceeds of the bonds prove insufficient to pay the cost of the project, additional bonds may be issued under the methods herein prescribed to the amount of the deficit.

Bonds Not Supported by Tax Levy as Revenue Bonds

Sec. 5. If the bonds are not supported by a tax levy, they shall never constitute a debt of the county, but shall be solely a charge upon the pledged revenues, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of the county to issue bonds or incur other debt for any purpose authorized by law, and each bond shall contain this cause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

Sec. 7. For the purpose of carrying out any power or authority conferred by this Act the county shall have the right to acquire land and easements, by condemnation in the manner provided by Title 52, Revised Civil Statutes, as amended, relating to eminent domain.¹ The amount of and character of interest in land and easements thus to be acquired shall be determined by the Commissioners Court. In the event that the county, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting, or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of any highway, railroad, electric transmission line or pipeline or telephone or telegraph properties and facilities, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the county. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of relocation, raising, rerouting, change in grade or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Additional Bonds; Pledge of Revenues; Security

Sec. 8. Additional bonds payable solely by a pledge of the net revenues of the project as well as additional bonds payable from the net revenues of the project and additionally secured by levy of an ad valorem tax on the taxable property of the county may be issued for the purpose of improving, repairing or extending the project or for any or all such purposes if permitted by the order authorizing the original issue of bonds, and if authorized by proper election.

Refunding Bonds; Issuance; Interest

Sec. 9. Subject to any restrictions which may appear in the bond authorizing order, the Commissioners Court may provide for the issuance of bonds for the purpose of refunding any of the bonds issued under this Act and at the time outstanding. The issuance of such refunding bonds, the maturities and other terms thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the duties of the county in respective to the same, shall be governed by the foregoing provisions of this Act so far as the same may be applicable, but no such refunding bonds shall be delivered unless delivered in exchange for the bonds authorized to be refunded thereby or unless sold and delivered to provide funds for the payment of matured or redeemable bonds maturing or redeemable within six (6) months. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than borne by the bonds refunded, unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total of interest to be paid.

Law Cumulative

Sec. 13. This Act is declared cumulative of all other Acts or laws and the powers, rights and privileges and functions hereby conferred shall not prevent the exercise by any county of any and all other powers, rights, privileges, or functions conferred upon such county by any other Act or law now existing or hereafter enacted. Specifically, nothing herein shall prevent any county from issuing warrants in connection with the project in the manner prescribed by Chapter 163, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, 1931, as amended.\(^1\)

In the event a contract is to be let on a lump sum basis, the information furnished bidders shall specify the approximate quantities estimated upon the best available information, but the compensation paid the contractor shall be based upon the actual quantities constructed or supplied.

In the event it becomes necessary to make changes in the plans or specifications after performance of a contract has been commenced, or it becomes necessary to decrease or increase the quantity of work to be performed or materials, equipment or supplies to be furnished, the Commissioners Court or governing body shall be authorized to approve change orders effecting such changes but the total contract price shall not be increased thereby unless due provision has been made to provide for the payment of such added cost either by appropriating available funds for that purpose or by authorizing the issuance of time warrants as provided in the Act amended hereby.

Where any change order involves a decrease or increase in cost of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00) or less, the Commissioner's Court or governing body may grant general authorization to one of its administrative officials to approve such change orders. Provided, however, that the original contract price may not be increased under the provisions of this Section 2a by more than twenty-five (25%) per cent or decreased more than twenty-five (25%) per cent without the consent of the contractor to such decrease.

The law in reference to elections for the issuance of city and county bonds as contained in Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Statutes of 1925, shall govern in so far as consistent with the provisions of this Act. The law in reference to the issuance, approval, registration and sale of bonds as contained in Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Statutes of 1925, shall govern in so far as consistent with the provisions of this Act. Provided, that all such bonds shall mature and be payable as provided herein for funding bonds.

If such petition is not so filed with the County Clerk, or the City Secretary or Clerk, then the Commissioners' Court or the governing body may proceed with the final award of the contract and with the issuance of said warrants, but in the absence of such petition, the Commissioners' Court or governing body may at its discretion also submit such question to a vote of the people.

year, without the duty to give notice and the right to referendum provided in Section 3. If in excess of the maximum, the expenditure cannot be authorized until the expiration of the time for filing the petition for referendum vote has expired. The notice required and the right to referendum election defined in Sections 2, 3 and 4 shall not be applicable to expenditures payable out of the current funds or bond funds, as above described, nor to additional expenditures by cities unless in excess of Seven Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars for cities having a population of five thousand (5,000) people, or less, as shown by the Federal Census immediately preceding; in excess of Ten Thousand Dollars for cities having a population of more than five thousand (5,000), and less than twenty-five thousand (25,000) as shown by the Federal Census immediately preceding; in excess of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars for cities having a population of more than twenty-five thousand (25,000) and less than fifty thousand (50,000), as shown by the Federal Census immediately preceding, and in excess of One Hundred Thousand Dollars for cities having a population of more than fifty thousand (50,000) as shown by the Federal Census immediately preceding. Said respective amounts above described shall be the maximum amounts of time warrants for all purposes to be issued by such cities during the current calendar year, without the duty to give notice and the right to referendum, provided in Sections 2, 3 and 4; otherwise, the expenditure cannot be authorized until the expiration of time for filing the petition for referendum vote has expired, including the proposed expenditure.

Provided, that in case of public calamity caused by fire, flood, storm, or to protect the public health, or in case of unforeseen damage to public property, machinery or equipment, the Commissioners Court or the governing body may issue such time warrants as are necessary to provide for the immediate repair, preservation or protection of public property and the lives and health of the citizens of such county or city, irrespective of the limitations contained in this Section and the restrictions imposed by Sections 2, 3 and 4 hereof.

Sec. 6a. The provisions of Section 4 of the “Bond and Warrant Law of 1931” shall not apply to the issuance of warrants for the building, construction, reconstruction and/or repair of a court house and/or jail in any county where the court house has been torn down or demolished and where notice was given under Section 2 of said Bond and Warrant Law prior to the taking effect of this Act, and there was no county court house at the time such notice was published, but in such cases warrants may be issued for the building, construction, reconstruction and/or repair of court houses and/or jails, without notice, and no election shall be called upon any petition filed under Section 4 of said Bond and Warrant Law. All proceedings for the issuance of warrants, and all warrants issued or to be issued for any such purpose or purposes in any such case are hereby validated.

Refunding Indebtedness; Procedure

Sec. 7. The Commissioners' Court of any county or the governing body of any city in the State of Texas may pass all necessary orders and ordinances to provide for funding or refunding the whole or any part of any legal debt of such county or city, by canceling evidences thereof and issuing to the holders or creditors, notes, bonds or treasury warrants, with or without coupons, bearing interest payable annually, or semi-annually, at a rate not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum. The exercise of such authority shall be regulated as follows:

(a) Such Commissioners’ Court and such governing bodies shall have the right at all times to issue refunding bonds for the refunding of any outstanding bonds legally issued and outstanding matured interest on any legally issued outstanding bonds, subject to laws applicable to the issuance of refunding bonds and without the necessity of any notice or right to a referendum vote.

(b) Such Commissioners’ Courts and governing bodies shall have the power to provide for funding the whole or any part of any legal debt of their respective counties or cities, existing at the time this Act becomes effective, except that which was created upon the condition that it should never become a charge upon the general revenues of such county or city, but canceling the evidences of such indebtedness and issuing to the holders or creditors, notes, bonds, or treasury warrants; provided that if funding bonds are delivered, the evidences of the original indebtedness shall be surrendered to the Comptroller of the State of Texas and cancelled by him prior to the registration of such funding bonds, and prior to their delivery to said holders or creditors.
Art. 2368a  COURTS—COMMISSIONERS  1934

(c) Such Commissioners' Courts and such governing bodies shall have the power to fund or refund any and all outstanding legal indebtedness, existing at the time this Act becomes effective, into notes or treasury warrants with or without coupons, in accordance with this Act and in accordance with the law as it exists at the time this Act becomes effective.

The funding bonds hereby authorized shall be payable serially not exceeding forty years from the date thereof, unless the Commissioners' Court or governing body affirmatively adjudge that the financial condition of such county or city will not permit in such installment as will make the burden of taxation to support same, approximately uniform throughout the term of said bond issue. Such bonds shall be executed and issued in the same manner now provided by law for the execution and issuance of bonds to refund outstanding county or city bonds. Said bonds shall bear interest not exceeding six per cent (6%) per annum, and shall be approved by the Attorney General and registered by the State Comptroller in the same manner as other county or city refunding or funding bonds.

(d) After this Act becomes effective, no item of indebtedness thereafter issued, except bonds and treasury warrants issued in accordance with this Act and in accordance with the provisions of this Act to preclude or relieve a default or an impending default in the payment of principal or interest, shall be funded or refunded except in the manner hereinafter in this subsection prescribed, to-wit:

Notice of intention to issue such funding bonds, including a statement of the amount and purpose of such bonds, shall be published at least once a week for three (3) successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within such county, or within such city, as the case may be, at least thirty (30) days before the meeting of the Commissioners' Court or of the governing body, at which time it is proposed to issue such bonds. If no newspaper is published in such county or city, as the case may be, such notice may be posted at the Courthouse door of the county, or at the City Hall, as the case may be. At any time before the date fixed for the issuance of such bonds, not less than ten per cent (10%) of the qualified property taxpaying voters of the county, as shown by the records in the office of the County Tax Collector, or in the office of the City Tax Collector, as the case may be, may file a petition in the office of the County Clerk or City Secretary or Clerk, praying the Court or the governing body to order an election for the purpose of submitting the proposition to issue such bonds to a vote of the qualified property taxpaying voters of the county or city as the case may be. Upon the filing of such petition, such Court or governing body shall at the next meeting thereof, order an election to be held in such county or city to determine whether or not such funding bonds shall be issued as indicated in such petition.

The Commissioners' Court or governing body shall determine the time and the place or places of holding said election; and the manner of holding same shall be governed by the laws of the State regulating elections for the issuance of other county or city bonds under Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925. If the proposition for the issuance of such bonds be sustained by a majority of the property taxpaying voters, voting at such election, then such bonds shall be authorized and shall be issued by such Commissioners' Court or governing body.

In the event no such petition is presented to the Commissioners' Court or governing body within the time hereinafore prescribed, no election on the proposition shall be required, and such Court or governing body shall then have the power to pass all necessary orders to provide for canceling or funding the indebtedness described in such published notice of intention to fund said debts, and may cancel the evidences thereof by issuing to the holders the necessary amount of funding bonds.

The funding bonds hereby authorized shall be payable serially not exceeding forty years from the date thereof, unless the Commissioners' Court or governing body affirmatively adjudge that the financial condition of such county or city will not permit in such installments as will make the burden of taxation to support same, approximately uniform throughout the term of said bond issue. Such bonds shall be executed and issued in the same manner now provided by law for the execution and issuance of bonds to refund outstanding county or city bonds. Said bonds shall bear interest not exceeding six per cent (6%) per annum, and shall be approved by the Attorney General and registered by the State Comptroller in the same manner as other county or city refunding or funding bonds.

The Commissioners' Court of any county and the governing body of any city shall at all times have power without notice or the right to referendum to fund or refund any item of indebtedness created in accordance with this Act; provided that if a tax, meeting the requirements of Article 11, Sections 5 and 7 of the Constitution shall have been levied to pay principal and interest thereon, any bond or warrant may thereafter be funded or refunded through the issuance of funding or refunding bonds or warrants irrespective of the fact that due to decline of property values or for other reasons, the City or County seeking to issue such funding or refunding bonds or warrants does not then have available taxing power sufficient to pay the principal and interest of such funding or refunding bonds or warrants.

Refunding Inapplicable to Utility Bonds Payable From Revenues

Sec. 8a. Provided any city or town which has theretofore issued bonds, warrants, certificates, or other securities payable from revenues and income of any utility or utilities owned by such city or town may fund, refund, or extend such bonds, warrants, certificates or other securities, without the necessity of complying with the referendum provisions hereof, provided such refunding does not increase the amount of such indebtedness, taking into consideration interest adjustments; provided, however, that no such bonds, warrants, certificates, or other securities payable from revenues, or from the income of any utility, which may be funded, refunded or extended by a city or town, shall ever be made a charge upon moneys raised or to be raised by taxation.

Bonds Issued in Violation of Act Invalid

Sec. 9. Any warrant bond, funding bond, refunding bond or other evidence of debt or obligation created, or attempted to be created, by the County Commissioners' Court of any county, or the governing body of any city in this State, in violation of or contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall be void, and the payment thereof may be enjoined by any taxpaying citizen of such county, or any taxpaying citizen of such city, in any court of competent jurisdiction in such county.

Provided, however, that notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, Articles 709 to 715, inclusive, of the Revised Statutes of Texas for 1925, shall apply with full force and effect to all bonds, funding bonds and refunding bonds issued under this Act.

Application to Special Charter Cities

Sec. 10. In all cities operating under Special Charter the provisions of this Act shall apply, providing for a referendum vote where the proposed expenditure is not payable out of current funds, or bond funds, and requires the issuance of time warrants in excess of the permitted amount. This Act shall not repeal provisions of Special Charters providing for any additional rights to referendum elections. The rights, power and duties conferred on and imposed on all cities in reference to the issuance of funding or refunding bonds and warrants shall be applicable to all cities, irrespective of charter provisions to the contrary. All laws, General and Special, and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby expressly repealed. Article 2368, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, is expressly repealed.

Mortgage of Utility Systems Permissible

Sec. 11. Nothing herein shall be so construed as to preclude any city or town in this State, whether organized under General or Special Law or operating under Special Charter, from encumbering or mortgaging its light system, water system, sewer system or any other utility, either, both or all, and the franchise and the income thereof and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired, to secure the payment of funds to purchase same or to make or purchase extensions, additions, or improvements thereto, as contemplated in Articles 1111 to 1118, both inclusive, of the Revised Statutes of Texas, 1925, with amendments thereto, or by valid provisions of the charter of such city or town, or by the provisions of Article 1175, revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, provided that in making such contracts or agreements or encumbrances and in issuing revenue bonds, warrants or other obligations to be paid out of the property and income from such system or systems, the governing body of such city or town shall comply with the provisions of this Act in regard to notices and competitive bids and the right to a referendum of such question.

Provided, however, that no competitive bids shall be required in case the municipality proposes to acquire an existing utility plant, and in such cases the voters shall be entitled to a referendum, only on the question of whether or not the utility shall be purchased, in the manner and under the conditions set forth in this Act.

Provided, further, that notwithstanding any provisions of this Act, and notwithstanding any provision of its Special Charter, if such city or town is acting under authority of House Bill No. 381, passed by the Regular Session of the 42d Legislature, the requirements of this Act in reference to notice, competitive bids and the rights to referendum shall not apply until after June 1, 1932.

Inapplicable to Warrants Based or Issued on Current Funds

Sec. 11a. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as requiring any city to give any notice as a condition precedent to issuing warrants payable out of current funds of said city and the issuance of any such warrants by any such city shall not be subject to the terms and provisions of this Act; provided, however, that at the time of the authorization of such warrants the Governing Body of the city, shall also pass an order setting aside such an amount of the current funds as will discharge the principal and interest of the warrants issued and based upon such current funds. And thereafter the so appropriated portion of such current funds shall not be used for any purpose other than to discharge said warrants. And no such warrants shall ever be refunded, but they must be discharged out of the designated funds.

Saved From Appeal

Acts 1939, ch. 36, p. 67 (art. 2365), relating to the issuance of the time warrants in counties with a population in excess of 200,000 by § 3 excepts § 2 of this article, as amended, from the repeal of the conflicting laws except as to the warrants authorized by that act.

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2824, ch. 925, enacting the Certificate of Obligation Act (art. 2368a.1), provided in § 10 that nothing therein shall be construed as repealing the Bond and Warrant Law of 1931.

Claims and Accounts: Funding or Exchange

Sec. 4. The governing body of an issuer may provide that claims and accounts may thereafter be incurred for such authorized purposes to represent an undivided interest in certificates simultaneously authorized and may provide for the funding or exchange of such claims and accounts for certificates. In the event a contract is to be let on a unit price basis, the information furnished bidders shall specify the approximate quantities estimated upon the best available information, but the compensation paid the contractor shall be based upon the actual quantities constructed or supplied.

(c) After performance of a construction contract has been commenced, if it becomes necessary to (i) make changes in the plans or specifications or (ii) decrease or increase the quantity of work to be performed or materials, equipment or supplies to be furnished, the governing body shall be authorized to approve change orders effecting such changes but the total contract price shall not be increased thereby unless due provision has been made to provide for the payment of such added cost either by appropriating current or bond funds for that purpose, by authorizing the issuance of certificates, or by any one or more such procedures, but the original contract price may not be increased by more than twenty-five per cent (25%) or decreased more than twenty-five per cent (25%) without the consent of the contractor to such decrease.

(d) The governing body shall have the right to reject any and all bids, and if the contract is for the construction of public works and is for or requires the expenditure of the amount of money requiring competitive bidding under Subsection (a-1) of this section, then the successful bidder shall be required to give a good and sufficient payment and performance bond each in the full amount of the contract price, executed by some surety company authorized to do business in this State in accordance with the provisions of Article 5169, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1923, as amended.

Authority to Contract for Property

Sec. 4. (a) The governing body of a governmental agency is authorized to execute, perform, and make payments under contracts with any person for use, acquisition, or purchase of any property. The contracts may be on the terms and conditions that are deemed appropriate by the governing body. Contracts may be in the form of a lease, a lease with option or options to purchase, installment purchase, or any other form deemed appropriate by the governing body. All contracts shall be obligations of the governmental agency. The contracts may be for a term approved by the governing body, and in each case, the contract may contain an option or options to renew or extend the term and may be made payable from a pledge of all or any part of any revenues, funds, or taxes or revenues, or funds and taxes available to the governmental agency for its public purposes.

(b) Each contract which retains to the governing body of the governmental agency the continuing right to terminate at the expiration of each budget period of the governmental agency during the term of the contract shall be considered to be a commitment of the governmental agency's current revenues only. All applicable constitutional requirements of approval by the voters shall be met. The contracts may provide for the payment of interest on the unpaid amounts of the contract at a rate or rates and may contain prepayment provisions, termination penalties, and such other provisions as shall be determined within the discretion of the governing body of the governmental agency. Subject only to applicable constitutional restrictions, the governing body has authority to obligate taxes or revenues for the full term of the contract for the payment of the contract. The net effective interest rate on any such contract shall not exceed the net effective interest rate at which public securities may be issued in accordance with Chapter 3, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969, as amended (Article 717k–2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Compliance with Other Acts

Sec. 5. Each governmental agency currently subject thereto shall comply with the terms of Chapter 163, General Laws, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1931, as amended (Article 2368a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), in entering into contracts, including the requirement that certain contracts be awarded pursuant to public bids, except that it is not necessary for a governmental agency to submit the question of entering into a contract to a referendum.

Approved and Registered Contracts

Sec. 6. After a contract providing for payment aggregating $100,000 or more by a governmental agency is authorized by the governing body, the contract and the record relating to the contract may, at the discretion of the governmental agency, be submitted to the attorney general for his examination as to the validity of the contract. If the contract has been made in accordance with the constitution and laws of the state, the attorney general shall approve the contract, and the contract then shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After the contract has been approved by the attorney general and registered by the comptroller of public accounts, the validity of the contract is incontestable for any cause. The legal obligations of the lessor, vendor, or supplier of the property to the governmental agency shall not be diminished in any respect by the approval and registration of a contract.

Contract as Authorized Investment

Sec. 7. A contract entered into pursuant to this Act is a legal and authorized investment for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, and trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas.

Term of Contracts

Sec. 8. A contract may have any term not to exceed 25 years.

Construction and Effect of Act

Sec. 9. This Act is wholly sufficient authority within itself for entering into contracts and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized by this Act, without reference to any other laws, or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as specifically provided in this Act. When contracts are entered into under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control, except that any governmental agency may use the provisions of any other law, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act. This Act shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purpose. Notwithstanding any contrary provision, this Act does not apply to a contract solely for the construction of improvements to real property.

Sec. 2. If a county makes a purchase covered by Section 1 of this Act, the county auditor or other appropriate county officer or employee may not refuse payment for the purchase because a competitive bidding procedure was not followed.

In every instance, since the approval by the Governor of Texas on May 2, 1947, of Chapter 172, Acts of the 50th Legislature of Texas, Regular Session, 1947, where the Commissioners Court of a county or the governing body of a city in this State has entered into contracts for the construction of public works, the purchase of land or interests in land, or the furnishing of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision or professional services, and has authorized or issued scrip or time warrants to pay or evidence the indebtedness of such county or city for the cost of such public works, land, materials, supplies, equipment and personal services, all such contracts, scrip and time warrants and the proceedings adopted by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, relating thereto, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved; provided that no such scrip or time warrants shall be ratified, validated, confirmed and approved by this Act unless the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, shall have heretofore specifically found and declared that such county or city has actually received the full benefit of the work performed or the land, materials, supplies, equipment or services furnished to the full extent of the amount of scrip or time warrants so authorized or issued. It is expressly provided, however, that this Section 2 shall not validate, ratify or confirm any contract, time warrant or scrip warrant executed or issued by any county with a population in excess of three hundred twenty-five thousand (325,000) according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any contract, time warrant or scrip warrant the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 1. [Adds §§ 2a, 2b to art. 2368a.]

Sec. 2. In every instance since the approval by the Governor of Texas on May 11, 1951, of Chapter 164, Acts of the 52nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1951 (Senate Bill No. 105, page 281), where the Commissioners Court of a county or the governing body of a city in this State has entered into contracts for the construction of public works or improvements, the purchase of land or interests in land, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision or professional or personal services, and has heretofore adopted orders or ordinances to authorize the issuance of scrip or time warrants to pay or evidence the indebtedness of such county or city for the cost of such public works or improvements, land, materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision or professional or personal services, all such contracts, scrip and time warrants and the proceedings adopted by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, relating thereto, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved; provided, that such scrip or time warrants themselves shall not be ratified, validated, confirmed and approved by this Act unless the Commissioners Court or the governing body, as the case may be, shall have heretofore specifically and officially found and declared in effect that such county or city has actually received the full benefit of the work performed or the land, materials, supplies, equipment or services furnished to the full extent of the amount of scrip or time warrants so authorized and issued. All scrip warrants and time warrants hereafter issued by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, in payment of work done by such county or city and paid for by the day as the work progressed, and for materials and supplies purchased in connection with such work, where such Commissioners Court or governing body shall have heretofore specifically and officially found and declared in effect that such county or city has actually received the full benefit of the work performed or the materials and supplies furnished to the full extent of the amount of scrip or time warrants so issued, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. And such refunding bonds now in process of being issued and authorized by proceedings, ordinances, and resolutions heretofore adopted may be issued irrespective of the fact that the Commissioners Court or governing body in giving the notice of intention to issue refunding bonds may not have in all respects complied with statutory provisions. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify, or confirm any proceedings, ordinances, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds executed, adopted, or issued by any county with a population in excess of three hundred thousand (300,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any proceedings, ordinances, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any scriv or interest-bearing time warrants issued by the Commissioners Court of a county in this State unless the proceedings of such Commissioners Court shall have heretofore found or declared, in effect, that such county has received full value and consideration for the issuance of such scriv or interest-bearing time warrants. It is expressly further provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any contract, scriv warrant, or time warrant executed or issued by any county with a population in excess of one hundred and sixty-five thousand (165,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any contract, scriv warrant, or time warrant the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 3. No part of the income or revenue of any such building shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expense, or obligation of such county until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid; provided that the expense of operation and maintenance including all salaries, labor, materials, interest, improvements, repairs, and extensions necessary to render efficient service and every proper item of expense shall always be a first lien and charge against such income and revenue and only such repairs and extensions as in the judgment of the Commissioners Court are necessary to keep the building in operation and render adequate service, or such as might be necessary to meet some physical accident or condition which would otherwise impair the original security, shall be a lien prior to the lien herein provided for.

There shall be charged and collected as rental for those parts of such building not used for public purposes, a sufficient amount to pay all operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacement, betterment, and interest charges, and expenses, and to create an interest and sinking fund sufficient to pay any securities issued hereunder.
Sec. 4. Each contract bond, warrant, note, or other evidence of indebtedness issued pursuant to this law shall contain this clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation." Where bonds are issued hereunder, they may be presented to the Attorney General for his approval as is provided for the approval of municipal bonds issued by counties. In such case, upon approval, the bonds shall be registered by the State Comptroller as in the case of other municipal bonds. Projects financed in accordance with this law are hereby declared to be self-liquidating in character and supported by charge other than by taxation. Securities issued under the provisions hereof shall be subject to the applicable provisions of the Bond and Warrant Law of 1951 as amended (House Bill No. 312, Acts of 1951, Forty-second Legislature, page 269, Chapter 163, as amended) except as same may be inconsistent herewith and under no circumstances shall any vote of the taxpayers be required upon any securities issued hereunder.

Sec. 5. To pay for the purchase, construction, reconstruction, remodeling, improvement and equipment (including voting machines) and/or that any such building or buildings so acquired shall be located in the county seat, but provided that any regional jail facility built according to the provisions of Section 4(h), The Interlocal Cooperation Act, as amended (Article 4413c3c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), may be located outside the county seat, and further provided that no justice of the peace court shall be housed, conducted or maintained in any such building if said building is located out of the boundaries of the precinct of such justice of the peace court.

Use of Buildings

Sec. 6. Such building or buildings, when purchased, constructed or otherwise acquired and equipped may also be used for the purpose of carrying on such other public business as may be authorized by the Commissioners Court; and/or the Commissioners Court may also lease or rent any part or parts of any such building or buildings, (which may not be presently needed for any of the above purposes) to the State of Texas and any of its political subdivisions, and the Federal Government.

Bond Issue; Levy of Taxes

Sec. 3. To pay for the purchase, construction, reconstruction, remodeling, improvement and equipment of any such building or buildings and/or jail or jails, including the purchase and improvement of the site or sites therefor, the Commissioners Court is authorized to issue negotiable bonds of the county and to levy and collect taxes in payment thereof, which taxes shall be levied, pursuant to the authority of Article 8, Section 9 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, as amended, for permanent improvement fund purposes; and such bonds may mature serially or otherwise as may be determined by the Commissioners Court of the county, not exceeding forty (40) years from their date, and such bonds may contain such option or options or redemption or no option of redemption as may be determined by the Commissioners Court; and the issuance of such bonds and the levy and collection of such taxes shall otherwise be in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, governing the issuance of bonds by cities, towns and/or counties in this State.

Sec. 4. The Commissioners Court may submit at any bond election one proposition for the issuance of such bonds which proposition may include all the purposes authorized herein for which such bonds may be issued; or it may, at its option, submit at any bond election one or more separate propositions for the issuance of such bonds, each of which separate propositions may include any one or more of the purposes authorized herein for which such bonds may be issued.
Art. 2370b

NOTICES; POSTING

The acquisition or use of any such building or buildings for any of the purposes herein authorized shall not alter, change or affect any requirement of any law to the effect that certain notices shall be posted at the courthouse door of the county; all notices which have heretofore been required to be posted at the courthouse door of the county shall be posted at the door of the main courthouse and nothing in this Act shall require that additional notices shall be posted at the door or doors of the building or of any of the buildings acquired or used pursuant to the authority herein granted.

Art. 2370c-2. Criminal Justice Facilities in Certain Counties and Cities

Eligible Counties and Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall apply to any county in this state and to any city in such county which city is not the county seat of such county but has a population of more than 17,500 according to the last preceding federal census.

Authorization

Sec. 2. Counties and cities to which this Act is applicable are hereby authorized jointly or severally to own, construct, equip, enlarge, and maintain a building or buildings in such city to constitute a criminal justice center providing facilities of a public nature with relation to or incidental in the administration of criminal justice, including, without limitation, accommodations for the handling, processing, and detention of prisoners, and offices for state, county, and city administrative and judicial officials, courtrooms, garages, and parking areas.

Contracts

Sec. 3. Such county and city shall have authority to specify by contract the purpose, terms, rights, objectives, duties, and responsibilities of each of the contracting parties, including the amount, or proportionate amount, of money to be contributed by each for land acquisition, building acquisition, construction, and equipment; the method or methods by which such moneys are to be provided; the account or accounts in which such money is to be deposited; the party which shall award construction or other contracts or that such contracts shall be awarded by action of both parties; and the manner in which disbursements shall be authorized. Such contract may further provide for the creation of an administrative agency or may designate one of the parties to supervise the accomplishment of the purposes of the contract and to operate and maintain the joint facilities, and any administrative agency so created or party so designated shall have authority to employ personnel and engage in other administrative activities as necessary in accomplishing the purposes of the contract and in operating and maintaining the joint facilities.

Methods of Meeting Costs

Sec. 4. The county and city contract may specify that moneys required of them in meeting the cost of providing the criminal justice center shall be derived from current income and funds on hand budgeted by them for such purpose, or through the authorization and issuance of bonds by either or both the county and city under the procedures prescribed for the issuance of general obligation bonds for other public buildings and purposes, or by the issuance by either or both the county and city of certificates of obligation under the provisions of Article 2368a-1, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes, or by a combination of those methods. In lieu of or in combination with the employment of taxing power in the payment of such bonds or certificates of obligation, same may be payable from and secured by income derived from the criminal justice center facilities, including that from leases and from the proceeds of parking or other fees. In the financing of the facilities herein authorized eligible counties and cities jointly or severally may accept grants, gratuities, advances, and loans from the United States, the State of Texas, or any of their agencies, any private or public corporation, or any other person.

Sec. 5. As applicable to counties eligible to employ the provisions of this Act, any county officer, in addition to the office he maintains at the county seat, may maintain office facilities in the herein authorized criminal justice center notwithstanding provisions of Article 1805, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other law limiting the location of county offices to the county seat of their respective counties.

Art. 2370c-3.  Justice Centers Located on State Line

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Law" means a statute of a state, a written opinion of a court of record, a municipal ordinance, an order of a county commissioners court, or a rule authorized by and lawfully adopted pursuant to a statute.

(2) "Municipality" means an incorporated city or town.

Authorization for Contract
Sec. 2. (a) A county in this state and a municipality in that county, both located on the state line, may contract with an adjoining county and any municipality in that county located on the other side of the state line for the joint construction, financing, operation, and management of a justice center to be located on the state line. The contracting municipality in this state need not be the county seat of the contracting county in this state. The county and municipality in this state may contract for the center to contain:

(1) courtrooms and office space needed by municipal, justice, county, district, and appellate courts;

(2) jail, lockup, and other detention facilities;

(3) federal, county, precinct, and municipal offices for prosecuting attorneys and other personnel as needed;

(4) adult or juvenile probation offices;

(5) any other offices that either county or municipality is separately authorized or required to operate or provide; or

(6) parking space, dining areas, and other facilities incidental to operation of the center.

(b) A court of civil appeals or a district, county, justice, or municipal court having jurisdiction in the county or municipality in which a part of the center is located may maintain offices and courtrooms and hold proceedings at the center, except that no justice court other than the justice court for the precinct in which the part of the center in this state is located may maintain an office and courtroom in the center.

(c) A court of this state may not hold proceedings in the part of the center located in the other state. Courts of the other state may hold proceedings in the part of the center in this state.

Financing
Sec. 3. The governing body of a Texas municipality or Texas county contracting as provided by Section 1 of this Act may finance its share of the construction, financing, operation, or management of the center by any means that it could finance the type of facilities in the center to be used or provided by it. The contract may take advantage of the availability of federal funds to finance any part of the center.

Management of Center
Sec. 4. The contracting parties may specify in the contract the manner of determining the persons responsible for:

(1) the operation, alteration, maintenance, cleaning, and repair of the facilities;

(2) the employment of center personnel;

(3) the purchase of materials, supplies, tools, and other equipment to be jointly used by offices provided or used by the contracting parties;

(4) preparing reports to the governing bodies of the contracting parties;

(5) joint record-keeping, communications, or dispatch systems; and

(6) the performance of any other powers or duties relating to operation of the center.

Personnel
Sec. 5. The contracting parties may provide in the contract the manner of determining the personnel policies and employment benefit programs for center personnel.

Jail Management
Sec. 6. The contract must provide that the sheriffs of the two counties are jointly responsible for operation of any jail, lockup, or other detention facility in the center and the custody, care, and treatment of persons in custody in the facility or must provide for the hiring of a jailer with those responsibilities.

Law Applicable to the Center
Sec. 7. (a) Except as otherwise provided by this Act, the law of both states regarding rights, duties, liabilities, privileges, and immunities arising from conduct applies to conduct in any part of the center. If, however, it is impossible for a person to conform his or her conduct in the center to the law of both states, that person may choose which state's law governs that conduct. If a person chooses to conform his or her conduct in the center to the law of the other state, the conflicting law of this state does not apply to that conduct.

(b) The physical plant of the center and equipment and facilities used by personnel of both states employed at the center are constructively present in both states.

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d) of this section, property in any part of the center that is owned by or in the possession of a person in custody or summoned to appear in the center is constructively present in the state under the law of which the person was taken into custody or summoned to appear.
(d) Possession of property that constitutes an offense committed in the center is conduct to which Subsection (a) of this section applies. A person's exercise of a duty in regard to property in the center is conduct to which Subsection (a) of this section applies.

(e) Property that is ordered by a court to be produced in the center or that is in the possession of a peace officer or a party to a proceeding for use as evidence before a court holding a proceeding in the center is constructively present in the state of the court.

(f) Property in the center that is not covered by Subsection (c), (d), or (e) of this section is constructively present in both states.

(g) The law of a state in which property is constructively present applies to that property to the same extent that that law would apply if the property were actually present in that state. If property is constructively present in only one state, the law of that state in which the property is not constructively present may be applied to that property only to the extent that that law would apply if the property were actually outside that state.

(h) Except as otherwise provided by this Act, the courts of both states have concurrent jurisdiction over the geographic area of both states in the center, but the state in which a prosecution is first instituted for an offense committed in the center retains jurisdiction to apply that state's law to the exclusion of the other state's jurisdiction, unless the prosecution is terminated without jeopardy attaching under the law of the state of the first prosecution. For the purposes of this Act, a prosecution is commenced in this state on the filing of an indictment, information, or complaint, and the attachment of jeopardy in this state is determined by Article 27.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

Arrest, Extradition, and Service of Process

Sec. 8. (a) A person who is in the center in the custody of a peace officer or center personnel under Texas law:

1. is constructively present in Texas while that person is in custody in the part of the center in that state;

2. may be prosecuted for an offense against Texas law without extradition of that person; and

3. may not be personally served with process in any part of the center for a proceeding in Texas.

(c) Texas agrees that a person who is in the center in the custody of a peace officer or center personnel under the law of the other state may be prosecuted for an offense against the law of the other state without extradition of that person. Texas agrees that a person who is in the center in the custody of a peace officer or center personnel under the law of the other state may be personally served with process in any part of the center for a proceeding in the other state.

(d) Center personnel or a peace officer of either state may transfer across the state line in the center a person in custody in the center under the law of either state and may exercise control over that person on both sides of the state line in the center.

(e) A person in the center who has not been confined in the center, taken to the center under arrest, or summoned to appear in the center may be arrested in any part of the center for an offense against the law of either state without extradition of that person. Extradition of a person who was arrested in the center under those circumstances is not required in order to prosecute the person for an offense against the law of either state if the person is physically present in any part of the center or the state of the prosecution at the time of the prosecution.

(f) A person who is summoned to appear in the center under Texas law:

1. is constructively present in Texas while that person is appearing under the summons in the part of the center in the other state;

2. without extradition, may be arrested in any part of the center for an offense against Texas law and prosecuted for that offense if that person is physically present in any part of the center or Texas at the time of the prosecution; and

3. may be personally served with process in any part of the center for a proceeding in Texas.

(g) A person who is summoned to appear in the center under the law of the other state:

2. without extradition, may not be arrested under Texas law in any part of the center for an offense against Texas law; and

3. may not be personally served with process in any part of the center for a proceeding in Texas.

(h) Texas agrees that a person who is summoned to appear in the center under the law of the other state may be arrested in any part of the center for an offense against the law of the other state and prosecuted for that offense without extradition if that person is physically present in any part of the center in the other state.
center or the other state at the time of the proceeding, as provided by Section 8 of this Act.

(i) If a person in the center is constructively present in one state under this section, the law of the state in which the person is not constructively present may be applied to that person only to the extent that that law would apply if the person were actually outside that state. However, the law applicable to that person's conduct in the center is governed by Section 7 of this Act, and whether extradition is required to arrest a person who is summonsed to appear in the center under the law of the other state, to arrest a person in custody in the center under Texas law may not be prosecuted for an offense against the law of the other state if that person is physically present in any part of the center or Texas at the time of the prosecution, as provided by Section 8 of this Act.

(2) If a peace officer of Texas would be authorized to make that arrest in the part of the center in Texas, as provided by Section 8 of this Act;

(3) provides that a person summonsed to appear in the center under Texas law may not be prosecuted for an offense against the law of the other state without extradition of that person, as provided by Section 8 of this Act;

(4) provides that a person summonsed to appear in the center under Texas law may not be prosecuted for an offense against the law of the other state without extradition of that person or personally served with process in the center for a proceeding in the other state;

(5) provides that a person summoned to appear in the center under Texas law may not be personally served with process in any part of the center for a proceeding in the other state and may be arrested in any part of the center for an offense against the law of the other state without extradition of the person if the person is physically present in any part of the center or Texas at the time of the prosecution, as provided by Section 8 of this Act;

(6) provides that a person summoned to appear in the center under Texas law may not be prosecuted in any part of the center for an offense against the law of the other state;

(7) provides that center personnel or a peace officer of either state may transfer across the state line in the center a person in custody in the center under the law of either state and may exercise control over that person on both sides of the state line in the center, as provided by Section 8 of this Act;

(8) provides that a person in the center who is not confined in the center, taken to the center under arrest, or summoned to appear in the center may be arrested in any part of the center for an offense against the laws of either state without extradition of that person, and that extradition of a person who was arrested in the center under those circumstances is not required in order for the person to be prosecuted for an offense against the law of either state if the person is physically present in any part of the center or state of the prosecution at the time of the prosecution, as provided by Section 8 of this Act;

(9) authorizes a peace officer of either state, under Texas law, to arrest a person in any part of the center for an offense against Texas law if a peace officer of Texas would be authorized to make that arrest in the part of the center in Texas, as provided by Section 8 of this Act; and

(10) authorizes a peace officer of either state, under the law of the other state, to arrest a person in any part of the center for an offense against the law of the other state if a peace officer of the other state would be authorized to make that arrest in the...

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 5. Before adopting any rules or regulations, or revising rules or regulations theretofore adopted in connection with the subject matter of this Act, the Commissioners' Court shall give at least fifteen (15) days' notice of such proposed adoption or revision of rules or regulations by publishing a notice at least once in each week for two (2) successive weeks in some newspaper published in the county in which such rules, regulations, or revisions are to be made effective or its intent so to do, and that a hearing is to be held before said court at a fixed time and day to be specified in the notice. At the time and place fixed for hearing, any employee or taxpayer may appear to protest against the adoption of any such rule or regulation, or revision of existing rules. If sustained, the regulations shall be adjusted accordingly. Upon the adjustment or the overruling of protests, the court shall adopt the regulations and direct their recording upon its minutes, and upon approval thereof, as herein provided, they shall become effective on the date set out therein. The notice published shall contain a brief summary of the rules or regulations, or the amendments or changes therein, which it is proposed to make.

Persons Subject to Regulations

Sec. 6. Juvenile officers and probation officers appointed under the terms of Title 82, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be subject to the provisions of such regulations as hereinbefore provided, including those for retirement, to the extent that the juvenile board of any county affected by this Act may determine. In like manner, court reporters in the various courts in such counties shall be subject to the provisions of such regulations to the extent that a majority of the District Judges of such counties in meeting assembled may determine by a vote of the majority present; an order to be entered in the minutes of each of the courts of such judges and a certified copy thereof to be supplied to the Commissioners Court. In like manner, the County Auditor and his assistants in such counties shall be subject to the provisions of such regulations hereinbefore provided for to the extent that the County Auditor in such counties may determine, with the approval of the District Judges, or a majority of them; unless a majority of the judges of the District Courts in such counties voting in a meeting of which all of the District Judges shall have notice, shall adopt the rules and regulations promulgated by the Commissioners Court and make them uniformly applicable so far as practicable to all the juvenile, probation officers, court reporters, and the County Auditor and his assistants. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as authorizing any change in regard to the time, method and manner of appointment or discharge of juvenile and probation officers, or the County Auditor or his assistants, or court reporters, or as authorizing any change in the number thereof or the salaries to be paid, it being the intention of the Legislature that all of such matters shall continue to be regulated by the Statutes applying thereto. If any juvenile, or probation officer, or County Auditor or his assistants shall be jointly employed by two (2) or more subdivisions of Government, the rules and regulations applying to them may be adapted or amended accordingly. For the purpose of adapting such regulations to such employees, they may, if necessary to give equal application to the regulations to all employees, be considered as being upon the same basis as if they were employed by one such unit, and the total salary paid by such unit, and the necessary expense of administration and contributions may be prorated to the different employing units.

Art. 2372l. Zoning of Padre Island

Legislative Finding

Sec. 1. The Legislature finds as a matter of fact that that portion of Padre Island lying within Cameron and Willacy Counties is frequented for recreational purposes by citizens from every part of the State and that the orderly development and utilization of this area is a matter of concern to the entire State. The Legislature further finds as a matter of fact that buildings on islands which are frequented as resort areas tend to become congested and to be put to uses which interfere with the proper use of the area as a place of recreation, to the detriment of the health, safety, morals, and the general welfare of the public.

Authority of Commissioners' Courts

Sec. 2. For the purpose of promoting health, safety, peace, morals and the general welfare of the community, including the recreational use of county parks, the Commissioners Courts of Cameron and Willacy Counties are hereby empowered to regulate and restrict the height, number of stories, and size of buildings and other structures, the percentage of lot that may be occupied, the size of yards, courts and other open spaces, the density of population, and the location and use of buildings, structures and land for trade, industry, residence, or other purposes, and to regulate the placing of water, sewerage, park and other public requirements on such island in areas of such island lying outside the corporate limits of a city, town or village, and within two miles of any publicly owned park or recreational development and all areas which lie within two miles of any beach, wharf or bath house which is used by as many as five hundred persons annually.

Districts

Sec. 3. For any or all of said purposes the Commissioners Court of each said county may divide said area in said islands into districts of such number, shape, and area as may be deemed best suited to carry out the purposes of this Act; and within such districts it may regulate and restrict the erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration, repair, or use of buildings, structures, or land. All such regulations shall be uniform for each class or kind of building throughout each district, but the regulations in one district may differ from those in other districts.

Purposes in View

Sec. 4. Such regulations shall be made in accordance with a comprehensive plan and designed to lessen congestion in the streets and roads; to secure safety from fire, panic, and other dangers; to promote health and the general welfare; to provide adequate light and air; to prevent the overcrowding of land; to avoid undue concentration of population; to facilitate the adequate provision of transportation, water, sewerage, parks, and other public requirements, and to assist in developing said island into parks, playgrounds and places of recreation for the inhabitants of the State of Texas, and other states and nations. Such regulations shall be made with reasonable consideration, among other things, to the character of the district and its peculiar suitability for particular uses, and with a view to conserving the value of buildings and encouraging the most appropriate use of land throughout said islands, and it is hereby provided that this Act shall not enable said Commissioners Courts to require the removal or destruction of property existing at the time said Commissioners Courts shall take advantage of this Act.

Method of Procedure

Sec. 5. The said Commissioners Courts shall provide for the manner in which such regulations and restrictions and the boundaries of such districts shall be determined, established, and enforced, and from time to time amended, supplemented, or changed. However, no such regulation, restriction, or boundary shall become effective until after a public hearing in relation thereto, at which parties in interest and citizens shall have an opportunity to be heard. At least fifteen (15) days notice of the time and place of such hearing shall be published in a paper of general circulation in each said county.
Sec. 6. Such regulations, restrictions, and boundaries may from time to time be amended, supplemented, changed, modified, or repealed. In case, however, of a protest against such change, signed by the owners of twenty (20%) per cent or more either of the area of the lots included in such proposed change, or of those immediately adjacent in the rear thereof extending 200 feet therefrom, or from the street frontage of such opposite lots, such amendment shall not become effective except by the favorable vote of three-fourths of all the members of the Commissioners Court. The provisions of the previous section relative to public hearing and official notice shall apply equally to all changes or amendments.

Zoning Commission

Sec. 7. In order to avail itself of the powers conferred by this Act, the said Commissioners Court shall appoint, all of whom shall be residents of each said county, and to be known as the Zoning Commission, to be composed of seven (7) members, to recommend the boundaries of the various original districts, and appropriate regulations to be enforced therein. Such commission shall make a preliminary report and hold public hearings thereon before submitting its final report, and said Commissioners Court shall not hold its public hearings or take action until it has received the final report of such commission. Where a Board of Park Commissioners for each said county already exists, it may be appointed as the Zoning Commission. Written notice of all public hearings on proposed changes in classification shall be sent to all owners of property, or to the person rendering the same for county taxes, affected by such proposed changes of classification, and to all owners of property, or to the person rendering the same for county taxes, located within two hundred (200) feet of any property affected thereby, within not less than ten (10) days before any such hearing is held. Such notice may be served by depositing the same, properly addressed and postage paid, in the post office.

The Zoning Commission shall choose from its own membership its chairman for such tenure (not extending beyond the term of his office as a member of said commission) as it sees fit and at any time may choose from its own membership for any particular meeting or occasion, an acting chairman; and it may employ its own secretary, and at any time an acting secretary, and other technical and clerical help to be paid by each said county, compensation not in excess of the amount determined by prior order of the said Commissioners Court.

No member of the commission shall be entitled to compensation as such, but may be entitled to expenses actually incurred while serving on the commission in accordance with the provisions of any order entered by the County Commissioners Court to that effect.

Sec. 8. The said Commissioners Court may provide for the appointment of a board of adjustment, and in the regulations and restrictions adopted pursuant to the authority of this Act may provide that the said board of adjustment may, in appropriate cases, and subject to appropriate conditions and safeguards, make special exceptions to the terms of the zoning regulations in harmony with their general purpose and intent and in accordance with general or specific rules therein contained.

The board of adjustment shall consist of five members, each to be appointed for a term of two (2) years and removable for cause by the appointing authority upon written charges and by public hearing. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term of any member whose term becomes vacant.

The board shall adopt rules in accordance with the provisions of any order adopted pursuant to this Act. In such case proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by a restraining order which may be granted by the Board of Adjustment or by a court of record on application on notice to the officer from whom the appeal is taken and on due cause shown.

The Board of Adjustment shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of the appeal, give public notice thereof, as well as due notice to the parties in interest, and decide the same within a reasonable
The Board of Adjustment shall have the following powers:

1. To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged there is error in any order, requirement, decision, or determination made by an administrative official in the enforcement of this Act or of any order adopted pursuant thereto;

2. To hear and decide special exceptions to the terms of the order upon which such board is required to pass under such order;

3. To authorize upon appeal in specific cases such variance from the terms of the order as will not be contrary to the public interest, where, owing to special conditions, a literal enforcement of the provisions of the order will result in unnecessary hardship, and so that the spirit of the order shall be observed and substantial justice done.

In exercising the above mentioned powers such board may, in conformity with the provisions of this Act, reverse or reaffirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision, or determination as ought to be made, and to that end shall have all the powers of the officer from whom the appeal is taken.

Any person, or persons, jointly or severally, aggrieved by any decision of the Board of Adjustment, or any taxpayer, or any officer, department, board, or bureau of the county or of the municipality, may present to a court of record a petition, duly verified, setting forth that such decision is illegal, in whole or in part, specifying the grounds of the illegality. Such petition shall be presented to the court within ten (10) days after the filing of the decision in the office of the board.

Upon the presentation of such petition the court may allow a writ of certiorari directed to the Board of Adjustment to review such decision of the Board of Adjustment and shall prescribe therein the time within which a return thereto must be made and served upon the relator's attorney, which shall not be less than ten (10) days and may be extended by the court. The allowance of the writ shall not stay proceedings upon the decision appealed from, but the court may, on application, on notice to the board and on due cause shown, grant a restraining order.

The Board of Adjustment shall not be required to return the original papers acted upon by it, but it shall be sufficient to return certified or sworn copies thereof or of such portions thereof as may be called for by such writ. The return shall concisely set forth such other facts as may be pertinent and material to show the grounds of the decision appealed from and shall be verified.

The court may reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the decision brought up for review.

Costs shall not be allowed against the board unless it shall appear to the court that it acted with gross negligence, or in bad faith, or with malice in making the decision appealed from.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. The Small Claims Court shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice of the Peace Court in all actions for the recovery of money by any person, association of persons, corporation or by any attorney for such parties, or other legal entity only where the amount involved, exclusive of costs, does not exceed the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000). Provided, however, that no action may be brought in the Small Claims Court by any assignee of such action or upon any assigned claim or by any person, firm, partnership, association or corporation engaged, either primarily or secondarily, in the business of lending money at interest, nor by any collection agency or collection agent. Provided, further, however, that nothing in this Act shall prevent the bringing of any action by a legal heir or heirs on any account or claim otherwise within the jurisdiction of these Courts.
Venue

Sec. 3. All actions brought under the provisions of this Act shall be brought in the county and precinct in which the defendant resides except that when a defendant has contracted to perform an obligation in a particular county the action upon such obligation may be brought in such county. Except nothing in this Section shall conflict with Article 2392 of the Revised Civil Statutes.

Commencement of Action

Sec. 4. Actions shall be commenced under the provisions of this Act whenever the claimant, or the personal representative of a deceased claimant, appears before the judge of the Small Claims Court and files a statement of his claim under oath. Such statement shall be in substantially the following form:

(here the nature of the claim shall be stated in concise form and without technicality, including all pertinent dates), and that there are no counterclaims existing in favor of the defendant and against the plaintiff, except ______.

______ Plaintiff

Filing Fee; Process

Sec. 5. Upon the filing of the said affidavit and the payment of a filing fee, the Judge shall issue process in the same manner as any other case in Justice Court, service being by citation served by an officer of the State duly authorized to serve other citations. Service of citation may be made in any manner authorized for service of citation in a district or county court or justice court.

Fees

Sec. 5a. Fees in small claims court are the same as those provided by law for cases in justice court.

Failure of Parties to Appear; Postponement

Sec. 6. Upon the date set for the hearing of such action, if the defendant fails to appear at the time and place specified in the notice and order to appear, he having been duly served therewith as herein provided, the judge shall enter judgment for the amount proved to be due the plaintiff. If the plaintiff does not appear, the judge may enter an order dismissing the action. No postponement or continuance shall be granted except for good cause shown.

Hearing

Sec. 7. If both parties appear, the judge shall proceed to hear the case. No formal pleading other than the affidavit hereinabove described, shall be required. The judge shall hear the testimony of the parties and such other witnesses as they may produce, together with such other evidence as may be offered. The hearing shall be informal, with the sole objective of dispensing speedy justice between the parties.

Plea of Privilege

Evidence and Witnesses

Sec. 9. In every case before the Small Claims Court, it shall be the duty of the judge to develop all of the facts in the particular case. In the exercise of this duty, the judge may propound any question of any witness or party to the suit or upon his own motion may summon any party to appear as a witness in the suit as, in the discretion of the judge, appears necessary to effect a correct judgment and speedily dispose of such case.

Judgment and Execution

Sec. 10. Upon the conclusion of the hearing the judge shall render such judgment as the justice of the case shall require. If the judgment is against the defendant, he shall pay the same forthwith, and in default of such payment execution may issue as in the justice courts.

Judgments Not Claimed by Plaintiff

Sec. 10a. (a) If a judgment against a defendant has not been paid and the whereabouts of the plaintiff who was awarded the judgment are unknown, the defendant shall use due diligence to locate the plaintiff, which includes sending a letter by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to the plaintiff at his last known address and the address appearing in the plaintiff's statement of his claim and any other records of the court.

(b) If, after the use of due diligence, the plaintiff is not located, the defendant may deposit payment of the judgment into the court in trust for the plaintiff and obtain a release of the judgment, which release shall be executed without delay by the judge of said court on behalf of the plaintiff.

(c) All trust funds paid into the court, as provided in this section, shall be paid over by the judge at least once a month to the county clerk to be deposited in and withdrawn from the clerk's trust fund account in the county depository for trust funds in the possession of the county clerk, in the same manner as trust funds deposited in county and district courts to abide the result of a legal proceeding are deposited and withdrawn.

(d) If the plaintiff does not claim the payment of his judgment within two (2) years from the date of its deposit in the county clerk's trust fund account, the money shall escheat to the state.

If either party desires a trial by jury he shall, at least one (1) calendar day prior to the date upon which the hearing is to be held, file with the Small Claims Court a request for a trial by jury, depositing with the judge, at the time such request is filed, a jury fee. Thereupon, a jury shall be had as in other civil cases in the justice courts.

Right of Appeal

Sec. 12. Where the amount in controversy, exclusive of costs, exceeds the sum of Twenty Dollars ($20), upon the rendition of final judgment by the judge of the Small Claims Court, a dissatisfied party may appeal to the County Court or County Court at Law of the proper county in the same manner as is now provided by statute for appeals from the justice court to the County Court.

Hearing on Appeal; Costs; Finality of Judgment

Sec. 13. It shall be the duty of the County Court or County Court at Law to dispose of all such appeals with all convenient speed. The trial on appeal shall be de novo, but no further pleadings shall be required and the procedure shall be the same as that herein prescribed for the Small Claims Court. In the event of such an appeal to the County Court, all costs not heretofore paid by the parties shall accrue until judgment is rendered by the County Court. It is specifically provided that the judgment of the County Court or County Court at Law shall be final.

Art. 2461-2.01  CREDIT ORGANIZATIONS  2024

CHAPTER 2. ORGANIZATION PROCEDURE

Art. 2461-2.01.  Incorporators

Any seven or more adult individuals, a majority of whom are residents of this state, each of whom has subscribed for at least 10 shares and all of whom share the definable community of interest stated in the proposed articles of incorporation, may apply to incorporate a credit union under this Act by signing, subscribing before an officer competent to administer oaths, and delivering in duplicate to the commissioner articles of incorporation for the credit union. The submission of an application constitutes a representation by the incorporators that they desire to avail themselves, and those persons comprising the field of membership of the proposed credit union whom they represent, of the benefits of this Act, and that they bind themselves to comply with all laws, rules, and regulations applicable to credit unions doing business in this state.

Art. 2461-2.02.  Articles of Incorporation

The articles of incorporation shall set forth:

(1) the name of the proposed credit union;
(2) the town or city and county where the proposed credit union will have its principal place of business;
(3) the term of existence of the credit union, which shall be perpetual;
(4) the fiscal year of the credit union, which must be the calendar year;
(5) the initial share accounts of the credit union;
(6) the name and address of each incorporator and the number of shares subscribed by each;
(7) the number of directors constituting the initial board of directors and the names and addresses of the persons who will serve as directors until the first annual meeting or until their successors are duly elected and qualified; and
(8) a description of the definable community of interest shared by the members of the credit union.

Art. 2461-2.03.  Incorporation Procedure

(a) The incorporators shall file with the commissioner:

(1) the original articles of incorporation in duplicate;
(2) standard bylaws for the general operation of the credit union in duplicate;
(3) a completed application in a form prescribed by the commission; and

(4) the fees required and set by the commission.
(b) The commissioner may conduct any investigation and obtain any information or report from any person, including a law enforcement agency, that the commissioner considers necessary.
(c) The commission shall adopt rules establishing procedures concerning notice of applications to incorporate and conditions under which a hearing may be available.
(d) The commissioner shall approve the application for incorporation if the incorporators have complied with this Act and the rules adopted under this Act and the commissioner finds from the information furnished with the application, the results of any investigation, the evidence submitted at any hearing, and the information in the official records in the department that:

(1) the character and general fitness of the incorporators and the members of the initial board of directors warrant belief that the business and affairs of the credit union will be properly administered in accordance with this Act and the rules adopted under this Act;
(2) the character and size of the field of membership proposed to be served by the credit union conforms with this Act and the rules adopted under this Act and are favorable to the economic viability of the credit union; and
(3) the incorporators and the members of the initial board of directors are acting in good faith and are making the application in accordance with the purposes of this Act.

(e) Not later than 90 days after the later of the date on which an application is filed or the date on which a hearing on the application is held, the commissioner shall state his findings in a written order that approves or denies the application to incorporate.

(f) The commission shall adopt rules providing for appeal by an incorporator or aggrieved person. The commissioner's order may be appealed to the commission not later than 60 days after the date of the order. The commission shall, by written order, affirm or reverse the decision of the commissioner after reviewing the information or evidence it considers necessary or relevant.

(g) An order of the commissioner or commission shall be promptly mailed to the incorporators by registered or certified mail. If the application is approved by the commissioner, in the absence of an appeal, or by the commission after conclusion of an appeal, the commissioner shall issue a certificate of incorporation, deliver copies of the approved articles of incorporation and bylaws to the incorporators, and retain copies of these documents in the department's permanent files.

Art. 2461-2.04. Effect of Issuance of Certificate of Incorporation

The corporate existence of a credit union begins at the time the commissioner issues a certificate of incorporation. The certificate of incorporation is conclusive evidence of the incorporators' compliance with the requirements of this Act and of the credit union's incorporation under this Act. The acceptance of a certificate of incorporation is conclusive evidence of the authorization of the credit union to do business under this Act, and of the representation by the incorporators on behalf of the credit union that it has availed itself of the benefits of this Act and has bound itself to comply with this Act and the rules adopted under this Act.

Art. 2461-2.05. Commencing Business

(a) A credit union may not transact any business or incur any indebtedness, except such as is incidental to its organization or to obtaining subscriptions to or payment for its shares or deposits, until:

(1) it has received paid-in shares or deposits of at least $1,000;

(2) it has a membership of at least 100 persons; and

(3) it has so notified the department.

(b) The commission may adopt reasonable rules requiring greater minimum membership and paid-in shares or deposits and prescribing additional requirements that a credit union must meet before transacting business or incurring indebtedness. The commissioner may waive any requirement that is set forth in this section or in the rules adopted under this section if the commissioner finds that the credit union does not have supervisory problems that adversely affect its ability to operate properly and that it is adequately capitalized.

(c) A credit union shall commence business before six months after the date of the order approving its application to incorporate. If it has not timely commenced business, the commissioner, on request and good cause shown, may grant a reasonable extension of the time for commencing business to give the credit union an opportunity to overcome the cause for the delay. If the commissioner refuses the request for an extension, the incorporators may appeal the commissioner's decision to the commission in accordance with rules adopted by the commission. If a credit union fails to commence business within the time allotted, the commissioner may cancel the certificate of incorporation in accordance with rules adopted by the commission.

Art. 2461-2.06. Form of Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws; Amendments

(a) In order to simplify the process of organizing new credit unions, the commission shall prepare standard articles of incorporation and bylaws, which shall be used by credit union incorporators. These articles of incorporation and bylaws shall be made available without charge to persons desiring to organize a credit union.

(b) The board of directors may amend the articles of incorporation or bylaws and shall submit amendments to the commissioner. The commissioner shall approve or disapprove an amendment in writing not later than 60 days after the date of submission. The commissioner may not approve an amendment if the commissioner finds that it violates this Act or the rules adopted under this Act. The commissioner shall state the reasons for a disapproval with reasonable specificity. Amendments become effective on approval by the commissioner.

(c) The board of directors shall report an amendment to the membership of the credit union not later than the next membership meeting after approval by the commissioner. If the commissioner disapproves the amendment, the credit union may appeal the decision to the commission not later than 60 days after the date of the disapproval.

Art. 2461-2.07. Restrictions on Use of Name

(a) No person other than a credit union authorized to do business in this state under this Act or the Federal Credit Union Act, or an organization, corporation, or association the membership or ownership of which is primarily confined to credit unions or credit union organizations, may use a name or title containing the words "credit union" or any derivation thereof, represent itself as a credit union, conduct business as a credit union, or do business under a name or title that indicates or reasonably implies that the person carries on or transacts the kind of business carried on or transacted by a credit union or that is calculated to lead any person to believe that the business is that of a credit union.

(b) A person who violates Subsection (a) of this section commits a Class A misdemeanor. The commissioner may petition a court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin a violation of this section.

(c) The name of each credit union must include the words "credit union" and an appropriate descriptive word or words approved by the commissioner.

(d) The commissioner may not issue a certificate of incorporation to a credit union or approve the change of the name of an existing credit union if doing so would result in the credit union having the same name as any other credit union authorized to do business in this state or a name so nearly resembling it as to be calculated to deceive, except in the case of a credit union formed by merger or consolidation.

Art. 2461-2.08. Place of Business
A credit union shall maintain on file with the department a statement specifying the street and post office address of its principal place of business. If a credit union gives the commissioner prior written notification, a credit union may establish and maintain, at locations other than its principal place of business, additional offices and service facilities that are reasonably necessary to furnish services to its members.

Art. 2461-2.09. Reports
On or before February 1 of each year, each credit union authorized to do business under this Act shall report to the department on a form supplied by the department for this purpose. On filing the report, a credit union shall pay to the commissioner the required filing fee. The commission shall set a reasonable fee for processing a report. The commissioner may require a credit union to file additional reports. If a credit union does not file a report or pay the filing fee before the 16th day after the day it is due, the commissioner shall charge a late fee in an amount set by the commission for each day that the report or fee is in arrears, except the commission may waive payment of all or part of the late fee for good cause shown. Failure of a credit union to file a report before the 31st day after the date it is due constitutes grounds for imposing the sanctions provided by Chapters 5 and 10 of this Act.

Art. 2461-2.10. Exemption From Certain Taxes
Each credit union authorized to do business in this state is exempt from all franchise and other license taxes. However, a credit union is exempt from the franchise tax imposed by Chapter 171, Tax Code, only if the credit union is exempt by that chapter. The intangible property of a credit union organized under this Act is not taxable.

Section 1 of the 1981 amendatory act enacted Title 2 of the Tax Code.

Art. 2461-2.11. Out-of-State Credit Unions
A credit union organized under the laws of another state may do business in this state if it is organized in a state that allows credit unions organized under this Act to do business in that state. The out-of-state credit union is subject to the rules adopted under this Act and any additional requirements established by the commissioner. The commissioner may suspend or revoke an out-of-state credit union's authority to do business in this state if the commissioner finds that the credit union has violated the rules adopted under this Act or fails to meet the requirements established by the commission.

CHAPTER 3. MEMBERSHIP

Art. 2461-3. Membership Defined
(a) Membership in a credit union is limited to the incorporators and other persons, including incorporated and unincorporated organizations, who:

(d) The board of directors may appoint not more than three individuals to serve at the pleasure of the board as honorary or advisory directors to advise and consult with the board and otherwise aid the board in carrying out its duties and responsibilities. An honorary or advisory director need not be eligible for membership in the credit union. An honorary or advisory director is not considered a member of the board of directors and is not entitled to vote on any matter before the board. He may participate, however, in all deliberations of the board.

(e) The board of directors may appoint from its membership an executive committee of not less than three persons to exercise, between meetings of the board of directors, authority specifically delegated by the board under conditions specified by the board.

Art. 2461-5.04. Officers

(a) The board of directors shall elect from its membership the following officers of the credit union: a chairman, a vice-chairman, a treasurer, and a secretary, each of whom shall serve for one year or until his successor is elected and qualified, and each of whom has the duties prescribed in the bylaws.

(b) The board of directors may employ, elect, or appoint a chief executive officer, who is in charge of operations and whose title is president, who may or may not be a member of the board of directors, but who may not be chairman, vice-chairman, or secretary of the credit union. The president serves at the pleasure of the board of directors.

(c) Subject to any guidelines set by the board of directors, the president shall appoint, employ, or hire, and may discharge, other officers and employees that the president considers necessary for the operation of the credit union. The president shall prescribe the titles of those officers and employees.

Art. 2461-5.05. Credit Committee

The board of directors may delegate all or part of its power to approve or disapprove loans to a credit committee, one or more other committees, or one or more individuals.

Art. 2461-5.06. Compensation and Bond; Conflicts of Interest

(a) No director, honorary director, advisory director, or committee member may receive compensation for serving as a director, honorary director, advisory director, or committee member, except that those persons may be:

(1) provided with reasonable health, life, accident, liability, and similar insurance protection;

(2) reimbursed for necessary expenses incident to the performance of their duties; and

(3) paid the fees and reimbursed for the other expenditures authorized by rules adopted by the commission.

(b) The board of directors shall purchase from a surety company authorized to do business in this state a blanket surety or security bond covering all directors, honorary directors, advisory directors, officers, employees, members of official committees, attorneys at law, and other agents of the credit union to protect the credit union against loss caused by the failure of a person to faithfully perform his duties.

(c) While serving as a director, honorary director, advisory director, committee member, officer, or employee of a credit union, a person may not:

(1) participate, directly or indirectly or in any manner, in the deliberation on or determination of a question affecting the person's pecuniary interest or the pecuniary interest of a partnership, association, or corporation, other than the credit union, in which the person is directly or indirectly interested, except that an interest only as a member of the credit union shared in common with all other members is not a pecuniary interest within the meaning of this subdivision; or

(2) become employed by, engage in, or own an interest in a business or professional activity that the person could reasonably expect to:

(A) require or induce the person to disclose confidential information acquired by reason of the person's office or employment in the credit union; or

(B) impair the person's independence or judgment in the performance of the person's duties or responsibilities to the credit union.

Art. 2461-5.07. Financial Reporting; Audits

(a) A credit union shall use the financial reporting forms and observe the accounting principles prescribed by the commission.

(b) The board of directors shall make or cause to be made a comprehensive annual audit of the books and affairs of the credit union, in accordance with established principles and rules adopted by the commission, promptly submit a report of each annual audit to the department, and submit a summary of that report to the members of the credit union at the next annual meeting. The board of directors shall make or cause to be made any supplementary audits or examinations that it deems necessary or that the commissioner requires. The commission by rule may require verifications of the accounts of members with the records of the credit union.

(c) If the commissioner, by examination or other credible evidence, finds that the board of directors is failing or refusing to comply with this section or a rule adopted under it, the commissioner may appoint an independent person or persons from outside the credit union and its membership to perform an audit, the costs and expenses of which are borne by the credit union.

Misconduct

(a) A director, honorary director, advisory director, committee member, officer, or employee of a credit union who knowingly permits a loan to be made to a nonmember or participates in a loan to a tion of the credit union by the commissioner, deputy commissioner, or an authorized examiner of the department, exhibits a false or fictitious paper, the commissioner, deputy commissioner, or an authorized examiner of the department.

fact or information from the commissioner, deputy commissioner, or an authorized examiner of the department, knowingly removes, destroys, or con-

a felony of the third degree.

Art. 2461-5.09. Officers, Directors, and Employees; Cease and Desist; Removal; Ap-

(a) The commissioner may determine in the performance of his duties under this Act that an officer, director, honorary director, advisory director, or employee of a credit union, or the credit union itself, acting by and through an officer, director, honorary director, advisory director, or employee, has:

(1) Violated this Act, a rule adopted under this Act, or any other law, rule, or regulation applicable to credit unions;

(2) Violated, neglected, or refused to comply with a duly issued final order of the commissioner or commission; or

(3) willfully neglected to perform official or legal duties, or willfully committed a breach of trust or fiduciary duty;

(4) committed any fraudulent or questionable practice in the conduct of the credit union's business which endangers the credit union's reputation or threatens its solvency;

(5) refused to submit to examination under oath, or to permit examination of the credit union's books, papers, records, accounts, and affairs by the commissioner or a duly authorized representative of the commissioner;

(6) failed or refused to authorize and direct any other person to permit the inspection and examination of the credit union's books, papers, records, accounts, or accounts in the other person's care, possession, custody, or control by the commissioner or a duly authorized representative of the commissioner, after the commissioner has requested the granting of that authority and direction to the other person;

(7) conducted the credit union's business in an unsafe, unauthorized, or unlawful manner;

(8) concealed, destroyed, removed, falsified, or perjured a book, record, paper, report, statement, or account related to the business and affairs of the credit union;

(9) transacted business while the credit union was in an unsafe or unsound condition;

(10) violated any conditions of the credit union's articles of incorporation or of any written agreement entered with the commissioner or the com-

(d) A person who, for the purpose of concealing a fact or information from the commissioner, deputy commissioner, or an authorized examiner of the department, knowingly removes, destroys, or con-

§ 26, eff. Sept. 1, 1983.]
Subsection (a) of this section, he shall issue a demand letter giving notice in writing to the credit union and the offending person or persons stating the particular violations or practices found. The commissioner promptly shall call a meeting of the members of the board of directors of the credit union, who shall attend the meeting, and lay before them the findings contained in the demand letter and demand a discontinuance of the violations and practices found.

(c) If the commissioner makes any of the findings set out in Subsection (a) of this section and determines that an order to cease and desist is necessary and in the best interest of the credit union involved and its depositors, creditors, and members, then at the directors' meeting or within 30 days thereafter the commissioner may serve on the credit union, its board of directors, and any offending person or persons a written order to cease and desist from the violations and practices enumerated in the order and to take such affirmative action that the commissioner considers necessary to correct the conditions resulting from the violations or practices found. Service of the order on the credit union and any offending person must be either by certified or registered mail, addressed to the credit union at the last address of its principal office as shown by the records of the department, or by delivery to any officer or director of the credit union. Service by mail is complete on deposit of the paper, enclosed in a postpaid, properly addressed wrapper, in a post office or official depository under the care and custody of the United States Postal Service. The cease and desist order is effective and binding immediately on service if the commissioner finds that the solvency of the credit union is endangered, that there is a continuing violation of this Act or the rules adopted under this Act, or that there is a threat of immediate and irreparable harm to the general public or the credit union, its depositors, creditors, or members; otherwise, the order shall state the effective date, not less than 10 days after service of the order. Unless the credit union, through its board of directors, and any offending person or persons, or both, in an amount not to exceed $100 each for each day of the violation of the order. The credit union may not reimburse or indemnify a person for all or part of the civil penalty. The

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, if the commissioner, by examination or other credible evidence, makes any of the findings in Subsection (a) of this section and determines that the removal of the offending person or persons from office or employment is immediately necessary because the person or persons have committed or are about to commit a fraudulent or criminal act involving the conduct of the business of the credit union, an act that may cause the credit union to become insolvent or to be placed in imminent danger of insolvency, or an act that otherwise threatens immediate and irreparable harm to the general public or the credit union or its members, depositors, or creditors, the commissioner may issue an order of removal.

(f) An order of removal must state the grounds for removal with reasonable certainty. It shall be promptly served in the same manner as a cease and desist order on the person or persons removed and on the credit union. On issuance of the order, the offending person or persons have no rights, duties, or authority of office or employment in the credit union. Unless the person or persons removed from the credit union, through its board of directors as evidenced by a duly certified resolution, files a written notice of appeal with the commissioner not more than 10 days after the order of removal is served, the order is final as of the date it is issued, and the person or persons removed may not hold office in, be employed by, or participate in the affairs of the credit union. A copy of the order of removal shall be entered in the minutes of the board of directors, and an officer shall acknowledge receipt of the order and certify to the commissioner that the person or persons named in the order of removal have been removed from office.

(g) If the credit union or a person removed duly files a notice of appeal of a cease and desist order or an order for removal, service of the order, or a cease and desist order, and the order remains in force pending final disposition of the appeal. At the conclusion of the hearing on the appeal, the commission may either vacate, affirm, or modify the order of the commissioner and order that appropriate action be taken.

(h) A cease and desist order or an order of removal becomes final on completion of an appeal or otherwise as provided by this section. If a credit union or a person designated in the order fails or refuses to comply with a final order, the commissioner may, after giving notice, assess a civil penalty against the credit union, the designated person, or both, in an amount not to exceed $100 each for each day of the violation of the order. The credit union may not reimburse or indemnify a person for all or part of the civil penalty. The commissioner may institute a suit for injunction and for collection of the civil penalty in a district court of Travis County, in addition to any other remedy provided by law.

(i) An order to cease and desist, an order for removal from office, and each copy of a notice, correspondence, or other record relating to an order concerning violations or unsound practices are confidential and may not be revealed to the public except in a lawsuit authorized by this Act or by other lawful order or authority. However, the commissioner may disclose this information to a share and deposit guaranty corporation or credit union, or a department, agency, or instrumentality of this state or the United States if he determines the disclosure to be necessary or proper for the enforcement of the laws of this state or the United States.

Art. 2461-5.09. Defamation

A person who knowingly makes, utters, circulates, or transmits to another person a statement that is false and derogatory to the financial aggregate amount of the share and deposited earnings of the credit union.

CHAPTER 6. CAPITAL ACCOUNTS

Art. 2461-6.01. Capital

(a) The capital of a credit union consists of the aggregate amount of the share and deposit accounts of its members plus all reserves and undivided earnings of the credit union.

(b) A share account consists of payments on shares of a member, including membership shares, which may be of different types or classes and may be with or without par value as determined by the board of directors.

(c) A deposit account consists of payments made under an agreement between the credit union and the depositor, including but not limited to a draft account, checking account, savings account, certificate of deposit, and any other similar account or arrangement.

Art. 2461-6.05. Multiple-Party Accounts

(a) A member may designate any person or persons, including organizations, associations, corporations, or partnerships, to own share or deposit accounts with the member jointly, with or without the right of survivorship, or in a multiple-party account as that term is defined by the Texas Probate Code. One or more or all of the parties to an account may make payments on share accounts and deposit accounts and make withdrawals subject to the terms of the account agreements accepted by the credit union. No party, unless also a member, may vote, obtain loans, or hold office in the credit union. Payment of part or all of an account to any one or more of the parties discharges, to the extent of the payment, the liability of the credit union to all.

(b) The net contribution of a party to an account, as of any given time, is the sum of all payments on shares or deposits made by or for the party, less all withdrawals made by or for the party which have not been paid to or applied to the use of any other party, plus a pro rata share of any interest or dividends included in the current balance. The net contribution includes, in addition, any life insurance proceeds added to the account by reason of the death of the party whose net contribution is in question. Unless the account agreement provides otherwise, and in the absence of satisfactory proof of the net contributions, those who are parties from time to time shall be presumed to own the joint account in equal undivided interests.

(c) The death of any party to an account has no effect on the beneficial ownership of the account, other than to transfer the decedent's right in the account to the estate of the decedent, unless the account or trust agreement provides otherwise. An account that does not expressly provide for right of survivorship is presumed to be a nonsurvivorship account. If the credit union complies with the terms of the account agreement, the credit union may pay out any funds representing shares or deposits on the order of any party, either before or after the death of any other party, after which the credit union does not have further liability for the amounts so paid.

(d) Without qualifying any other statutory right to a setoff or lien, and subject to any contractual provisions accepted by the credit union, when a party to an account is indebted to a credit union, the credit union has a right to setoff against the entire amount of the account.

(e) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as in conflict with the laws of the United States or of the State of Texas as those laws govern the taxation of multiple-party accounts.

(f) This section is cumulative of Chapter XI, Texas Probate Code.1

1 Probate Code, § 436 et seq.
Credit Organizations

Art. 2461-7.01. Purpose, Terms, and Interest Rate

If made in accordance with rules adopted by the commission, a credit union may make loans to members for such purposes as it may approve and on such security and terms as it may require, at rates of interest not exceeding one and one-half percent per month on the unpaid balance, or higher rates otherwise authorized by law, including the rates authorized by Article 1.04, Title 79, Revised Statutes (Article 5069-1.04, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). Chapter 15 and Subtitle 2, Title 79, Revised Statutes (Article 5069-2.01 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), do not apply to a credit union loan or extension of credit unless the agreement evidencing that transaction specifically provides otherwise.
Art. 2461-7.01  CREDIT ORGANIZATIONS

Every loan must be evidenced by a written instrument.

Sections 27 and 28 of the 1981 amendatory act provide:

"Sec. 27. This Act shall be applicable to all claims of forfeiture made after the effective date of this Act but, with respect to claims of forfeiture in litigation pending at such effective date, the amount forfeited shall be determined under the provisions of the law as it existed prior to the effective date of this Act."

"Sec. 28. If any provision of this Act is held to be unconstitutional, no liability or forfeiture shall attach under Title 79, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended (Article 5069-1.01 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), or any other law of this state to any person conforming his conduct to the applicable provisions of this Act. If any provision of this Act under which a rate or amount is determined or made available is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional, the maximum rate of interest or time price differential on contracts, including those for open-end accounts that would be subject to such a provision if it were constitutional is 28 percent a year except that in the case of contracts subject to Section 60(2), Article 1.04, Title 79, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended (Article 5069-1.04, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as amended by this Act, the maximum rate of interest or time price differential is 28 percent a year."

Art. 2461-7.02  Loan Limit

No credit union may make a loan or aggregate of loans to any one member, including loans to the member's business interests, in an amount greater than 10 percent of the credit union's total assets.

Art. 2461-7.03  Open-End Credit

A credit union may enter into a written agreement with a member, allowing that member to borrow money from time to time, under which interest may from time to time be computed on an outstanding unpaid balance. The credit union may also approve in advance a line of credit and grant advances to a member within the limit of the extension of credit. Additional loan applications are not required under an open-end credit plan or line of credit if the aggregate obligation does not exceed a limit of the extension of credit established by the credit union.

[Amended by Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 2919, ch. 707, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1975; Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2312, ch. 421, § 37, eff. Sept. 1, 1983.]

Art. 2461-7.04  Participation Loans and Other Loan Programs

(a) A credit union may market and sell participations in loans to members originated by the credit union to other credit unions, corporations, or financial organizations.

(b) A credit union may participate in guaranteed loan programs of the federal and state governments and other government loan programs approved by the commission.

Art. 2461-7.05  Loans to Officials

(a) A credit union may make loans and extend lines of credit to its directors, employees, loan officers, credit manager, members of its credit committees, and members of the immediate families of those persons, if:

(1) the loan complies with the requirements of this Act and rules adopted under this Act with respect to loans to other borrowers and is not on terms more favorable than those extended to other borrowers; and

(2) before making or agreeing to make the loan, the board of directors has approved the loan, if the loan or aggregate of outstanding loans to any one person, his business interests, and members of his immediate family is greater than $10,000 or a higher amount established by a commission rule, plus pledged shares and deposits.

(b) A credit union may permit a director, employee, loan officer, credit manager, and member of its credit committee to act as co-maker, guarantor, or endorser of a loan to another member, unless the loan standing alone or added to any outstanding loan or loans to the co-maker, guarantor, or endorser exceeds $10,000 or a higher amount established by a commission rule, plus pledged shares and deposits, in which case prior approval of the board of directors is required.

Art. 2461-7.06  Prepayment Privilege

Any loan may be prepaid in whole or in part, without penalty, during regular working hours on any day on which the credit union is open for business, except that the credit union may require a partial prepayment on a loan secured by a lien, mortgage, or other type of security interest in real property to be made on the date monthly installments are due and in the amount of that part of one or more monthly installments that would be applicable to principal.

Art. 2461-7.07  Collection of Illegal Loans

Illegality of a loan is not a defense in an action by the credit union to recover on the loan and does not prevent enforcement or collection of the loan against or from the borrower, a person in the position of a guarantor or surety, or a person who is otherwise liable in regard to the loan.

Art. 2461-7.08. Expenses, Fees, and Penalties
(a) A credit union may require a member to pay all reasonable expenses and fees incurred in connection with making, closing, disbursing, extending, readjusting, or renewing a loan, whether or not those expenses or fees are paid to third parties. Those payments may be collected by the credit union from the member and retained by the credit union or paid to a person rendering services in connection with the payment, or the payments may be paid directly by the member to third parties to whom they are payable. The fees or expenses are in addition to interest authorized by law and are not a part of interest collected or agreed to be paid on a loan.
(b) A credit union may charge a member a penalty when a payment on a loan is 10 days or more in arrears. The penalty may not exceed five percent of the payment due. Only one penalty may be charged by the credit union on each past due payment. The penalty, when charged in the amount authorized, is not interest under any law that defines interest or limits the rate of interest that may be charged and may be charged and collected in addition to the interest authorized by law.

Art. 2461-8.01. Investment of Funds
A credit union may invest funds not used in loans to members:
(1) in capital shares, obligations, participation certificates, or common or preferred stock of any agency, association, company, network, stock company, mutual association, mutual company, membership association, membership company, partnership, joint venture, or trust company, if the membership or ownership of the agency, association, or company is confined or restricted to credit unions and their members or organizations of credit unions, and if the agency, association, or company is designed primarily to serve or otherwise assist credit union operations; in loans to any credit union association or corporation, national or state, of which the credit union is a member; investments in any one agency, association, company or other entity of the type described in this subdivision whose membership or ownership is not confined to credit unions and their members or arrangements of credit unions, whether or not the entity is designed primarily to serve or otherwise assist credit union operations;
(2) in obligations, bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness of any state, city, town, village, county, school district, municipal corporation, taxing authority, or political subdivision;
(3) in certificates of deposit or other accounts issued by a state or national bank, savings and loan association, savings association, or mutual savings bank;
(4) in securities, obligations, participations, or other instruments of or issued by the federal government or any of its agencies, or in any trust or trusts established for investing directly or collectively in the same;
(5) in loans to, shares of, or deposits in other credit unions, central credit unions, corporate credit unions, central liquidity facilities established under state or federal law, trusts, or organizations established for lending directly or collectively to credit unions;
(6) in securities, obligations, participations, or other instruments fully or partially guaranteed as to principal, interest, or both by the federal government or any of its agencies, or in any trust or trusts established for investing directly or collectively in those investments;
(7) in participation loans with other credit unions, corporations, credit organizations, or financial organizations;
(8) in the notes receivable, loans to members, or other assets of any credit union operating under this Act or the Federal Credit Union Act; and
(9) in other investments that may be authorized by rules adopted by the commission, which rules must be responsive to changes in economic conditions or competitive practices, and the need for safety and soundness of credit union investments.

Art. 2461-9.01. Reserve Allocations; Dividends; Share Reduction
(a) The commission shall adopt rules requiring credit unions to maintain reserves necessary to protect the interests of their members. Those rules may prescribe the purposes for which the reserves may be used and may authorize the commissioner to approve other uses.
(b) The board of directors may establish reserves in addition to the required reserves.
Art. 2461-9.02. Dividends and Interest

Dividends and interest may be paid at rates and on conditions that the board of directors authorizes. The commissioner may impose restrictions on the payment of dividends if he issues a cease and desist order under Chapter 5 of this Act.

Art. 2461-9.03. Share Reduction

If the losses of any credit union, resulting from a depreciation in value of its loans or investments or otherwise, exceed its undivided earnings and any reserves and the estimated value of its assets is less than the total amount due the shareholders, the credit union may, by a majority vote of the members of the credit union present at a meeting of members called for that purpose, order a reduction in the membership shares of each of its shareholders to divide the loss proportionately among them.

CHAPTER 10. CHANGE IN CORPORATE STATUS

Art. 2461-10.01. Suspension and Conservation

(a) The commissioner may determine in the performance of his duties under this Act that the credit union is insolvent or in imminent danger of insolvency, or that an officer, director, honorary director, advisory director, or employee of a credit union, or the credit union itself, acting by and through an officer, director, honorary director, advisory director, or employee, has:

(1) violated this Act, a rule adopted under this Act, or any other law, rule, or regulation applicable to credit unions;
(2) violated, neglected, or refused to comply with a duly issued final order of the commissioner or commission;
(3) refused to submit to examination under oath, or to permit examination of the credit union’s books, papers, records, accounts, and affairs by the commissioner or a duly authorized representative of the commissioner;
(4) failed or refused to authorize and direct any other person to permit the inspection and examination of the credit union’s books, papers, records, or accounts in the other person’s care, possession, custody, or control by the commissioner or a duly authorized representative of the commissioner, after the commissioner has requested the granting of that authority and direction to the other person; or
(5) conducted the credit union’s business in an unsafe, unauthorized, or unlawful manner.

(b) If the commissioner makes any of these findings, he may issue an order temporarily suspending the credit union’s operations for not more than 90 days. Service of the order of suspension must be by certified or registered mail, addressed to the credit union at the last address of its principal office, as shown by the records of the department, or by delivery to an officer or director of the credit union. Service by mail is complete on deposit of the paper, enclosed in a postpaid, properly addressed wrapper, in a post office or official depository under the care and custody of the United States Postal Service. The order must state the grounds for suspension with reasonable certainty.

(c) After the suspension order has been served on the credit union, the commissioner shall take possession and control of the books, records, property, assets, and business of the credit union, and the credit union shall cease all operations, except those authorized by the commissioner and conducted under his supervision. Not later than 15 days after the date the order of suspension is served, the board of directors shall file a written reply to the order, and may file a written request for a hearing to present to the commissioner a plan to continue operations setting out proposed corrective actions. The board of directors may request that a conservator be appointed for the credit union or that the credit union be closed and a liquidating agent be appointed, in which event the commissioner may immediately appoint a conservator, or order that the credit union be liquidated and appoint a liquidating agent.

(d) If the board of directors files its reply and requests a hearing as provided by this section, the commissioner shall set and hold the hearing not less than 10 or more than 30 days after the date of receipt of such a request. The commissioner shall promptly give notice to the credit union of the date, time, and place of the hearing. Not later than 10 days after the earlier of the date of conclusion of the hearing or the date on which the suspension expires, the commissioner shall adopt the plan to continue operations presented by the credit union, agree with the credit union on an alternative plan to continue operations or other appropriate measures, reject the plan to continue operations and issue an order of conservation appointing a conservator, or issue an order of liquidation ordering that the credit union be closed, ordering that its affairs and business be liquidated, and appointing a liquidating agent.

(e) If the commissioner rejects the credit union’s plan to continue operations and determines that it is in the public interest and in the best interest of the members, depositors, and creditors of the credit union to rehabilitate the credit union, he may permit the credit union to operate under his direction and control, and shall issue an order of conservation appointing a conservator to manage the affairs of the credit union. The commissioner shall serve the order of conservation in the same manner as provided for service of an order of suspension.

(f) The conservator, on behalf and under the supervision and direction of the commissioner, shall take charge of the books, records, property, assets, and business of the credit union and shall conduct the business and affairs of the credit union under the direction and supervision of the commissioner. The conservator shall take the steps toward the removal of the causes and conditions that have necessitated the order that the commissioner directs. During the conservatorship, the conservator shall make the reports to the commissioner from time to time that the commissioner requires. The conservator may take all necessary measures to preserve, protect, and recover the assets or property of the credit union, including claims or causes of action belonging to or that may be asserted by the credit union, may deal with that property in his own name as conservator, and may file, prosecute, or defend against a suit by or against the credit union if the conservator considers this action necessary to protect the interested parties or property affected by the suit.

(g) The commissioner shall determine the cost incidental to the conservator's service. This cost is a charge against the assets and funds of the credit union to be allowed and paid as the commissioner directs.

(h) A suit filed against a credit union or its conservator while a conservatorship order is in effect must be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County. The conservator may file suit in a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County against any person for the purpose of preserving, protecting, or recovering assets or property of the credit union, including a claim or cause of action belonging to or that may be asserted by the credit union.

(i) The conservator shall serve for the period necessary to accomplish the purposes of the conservatorship as intended by this Act. If the credit union is rehabilitated, it shall be returned to the management of the board of directors under the terms that are reasonable and necessary to prevent recurrence of the conditions that occasioned the conservatorship.

(j) If the commissioner determines that the credit union in conservatorship is not in a condition to continue business and cannot be rehabilitated as provided by this section, he may issue an order of liquidation appointing a liquidating agent.

(k) If, after a hearing under this section, the board of directors of the credit union is dissatisfied with the decision of the commissioner to issue an order of conservation, the board may appeal to the commissioner by filing with the commissioner a written appeal, including a duly certified resolution of the board, not later than 10 days after the day that the order of conservation is served. If an appeal is duly filed, the commissioner shall set a date for a hearing on the appeal not more than 30 days after the date on which the appeal is filed. The commissioner shall promptly give notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing to the credit union and any other interested party. The filing of an appeal does not suspend the effect of the order of conservation and this order remains in force pending final disposition of the appeal by the commission. At the conclusion of the hearing, the commission may reverse the order of the commissioner and adopt and approve the credit union's plan to continue operations, affirm the commissioner's order of conservation, or order that other appropriate action be taken.

(l) If the board of directors of the credit union does not file a reply to the order of suspension as required by this section or fails to request and appear at the hearing provided for by this section, the commissioner may dispose of the matter as he considers appropriate. The credit union is presumed to have consented to this action and may not contest it.

(m) The period of suspension and the date and time of the hearings provided for by this section may be extended by agreement of the parties and the commissioner.

Art. 2461-10.02. Liquidation

(a) The commissioner may issue an order of liquidation appointing a liquidating agent, and directing that the credit union be liquidated, after he has issued an order of suspension and provided an opportunity for hearing as provided in Section 10.01 of this Act:

(1) if the board of directors of the credit union requests that an order of liquidation be issued and that the credit union be liquidated;

(2) if the credit union otherwise consents to the action; or

(3) if the commissioner finds that it is in the public interest and the best interest of the members, depositors, and creditors of the credit union that it be closed and its assets liquidated.

(b) Unless the commissioner has issued an order of liquidation, the board of directors of the credit union may adopt a resolution recommending that the credit union be dissolved voluntarily and directing that the question of liquidation be submitted to the members. Not later than five days after the day of the adoption of the resolution, the chairman shall notify the commissioner in writing setting forth the reasons for the proposed liquidation. A majority of the credit union members voting at a meeting specially called to consider the matter, but not less than a quorum, may vote to dissolve and liquidate the credit union. Notwithstanding any other law or the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the credit union, notice of the special meeting to consider the matter of liquidation shall be mailed, by first-class mail, to each member of the credit union and to the commissioner not later than 10 days before the day of the meeting. Immediately after the mailing of a notice of a special meeting called to consider the matter of liquidation, the credit union shall cease to operate except for the purposes of accepting payments on loans or other obligations due the credit union. If the vote to dissolve and liquidate the credit union passes, the credit union may do no further business except that incidental to liquidation. The chairman of the board or the president and the secretary shall, within five days following the meeting and the affirmative vote to dissolve and liquidate, notify the commissioner of intention to liquidate and shall include a list of the names of the directors and officers of the credit union together with their addresses. The board of directors shall appoint a liquidating agent for the purpose of conserving and collecting the assets of the credit union, winding up its affairs, discharging its debts, distributing its assets, and all other actions necessary and incidental to the liquidation of the credit union.

(c) The commissioner shall serve an order of liquidation in the same manner as provided for service of an order of suspension. At any time within five days after the commissioner served an order of liquidation, the credit union acting through its directors, as evidenced by a duly certified resolution of the board, may sue in the district court of the county in which the principal office of the credit union is located to enjoin the commissioner from liquidating the credit union if the credit union has not requested or consented to the order of liquidation. The court may, without notice or hearing, restrain the commissioner from liquidating the assets of such credit union pending hearing of the suit on the merits, and shall, in that event, instruct the commissioner to hold the assets of the credit union in the commissioner's possession and control pending final disposition of the suit. The commissioner may, with approval of the court, take such actions as may be necessary or proper to prevent loss or depreciation in the value of the assets. The court shall, as soon as possible, hear the suit on the merits and shall enter a judgment either enjoining the commissioner from liquidating the assets of the credit union or refusing an injunction. Appeal shall lie from the judgment as in other civil cases, but the commissioner, irrespective of the character of judgment entered by the trial court or of any supersedeas bond filed, shall retain possession and control of the assets of such credit union pending final disposition on appeal.

(d) The credit union in liquidation shall continue in existence for the purpose of discharging its debts, collecting and distributing its assets, and doing all acts required in order to wind up its business, and may sue and be sued for the purpose of enforcing such debts and obligations until its affairs are fully adjusted. The liquidating agent shall use the assets of the credit union to pay, in the following order:

(1) expenses incidental to liquidation including any surety bond that may be required;
(2) any liability due nonmembers;
(3) depositors; and
(4) distributions to members proportionate to the shares held by each member.

(e) Subject to the rules adopted by the commissioner, and under the supervision of the commissioner, the liquidating agent shall:

(1) receive and take possession of the books, records, assets, and property of the credit union in liquidation; sell, enforce collection of, and liquidate all assets and property; compound all bad or doubtful debts; sue in the name of the liquidating agent or in the name of the credit union in liquidation; and defend actions brought against the liquidating agent or against the credit union;

(2) receive, examine, and pass on all claims against the credit union in liquidation, including claims of members on share;

(3) make distribution and payment to creditors and members as their interests may appear;

(4) execute such documents and papers and do such other acts and things that the liquidating agent may deem necessary or desirable to discharge his duties;

(5) cause notice to be given to creditors and members to present and make legal proof of their claims, which notice must be published once a week in a newspaper of general circulation in each county where the credit union in liquidation maintained an office or branch for the transaction of business on the date it ceased unrestricted operations; except that when the aggregate book value of the assets and property of the credit union in liquidation is less than $10,000, the commissioner shall declare the credit union in liquidation to be a "no publication" liquidation, and publication notice to creditors and members is not required in such case;

(6) from time to time make a ratable liquidation dividend on all claims that have been proved to the satisfaction of the board of directors or the liquidating agent or adjusted in a court of competent jurisdiction and, after the assets of the credit union have been liquidated, make further liquidation dividends on all claims previously proved or adjusted (the statement of any amount due to the creditor as shown on the books and records of the credit union may be accepted in lieu of a formal proof of claim on behalf of any creditor or member); but all claims not filed before payment of the final dividend are barred; claims rejected or disallowed by the liquidating agent are also barred unless suit is instituted within three months after notice of rejection or disallowance; and
(7) in a “no publication” liquidation, determine from all sources available, and within the limits of available funds of the credit union, the amounts due to creditors and members, and after 60 days have elapsed from the date of appointment of the liquidating agent distribute the funds of the credit union to creditors and members ratably and as their interests may appear.

(f) The commissioner shall prescribe the certificate to be completed by the liquidating agent attesting to liquidation, that distribution has been made and that liquidation has been completed. The commissioner, or prior to approval of the certificate, shall cancel the certificate of incorporation of the credit union. The corporate existence of the credit union shall continue for a period of three years from the date of cancellation of its certificate of incorporation, during which period the liquidating agent, or any duly appointed successor, or such persons as the commissioner may designate, may act on behalf of the credit union for the purpose of paying, satisfying, and discharging any existing liabilities or obligations, collecting and distributing its assets, and doing all other acts required to adjust and wind up its business and affairs, and it may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

(g) If the commissioner finds that the liquidating agent has failed to properly perform his duties in a timely and efficient manner or has violated this Act or any rule adopted under this Act, the commissioner may take possession and control of the books, records, property, assets, and business of the credit union in liquidation by issuing an order of removal. The order shall remove the liquidating agent and appoint a successor liquidating agent to complete the process of liquidation and the winding up of the affairs of the credit union subject to the supervision and control of the commissioner. The order of removal shall be served on the liquidating agent being removed and is effective immediately on service. The commissioner shall also fill any vacancy caused by the resignation, death, illness, removal, desertion, or incapacity to function of the liquidating agent.

(h) Unless the commissioner grants prior approval in writing, no liquidating agent may acquire any of the assets of the credit union in liquidation or purchase any loans of the credit union. No liquidating agent may obtain from the liquidation any compensation, or profit for personal benefit, whether directly, indirectly, for the benefit of any member of the liquidating agent’s family or any person related to or associated with the liquidating agent, or for the benefit of any business enterprise with which the liquidating agent is associated, except for the credit union in liquidation. The liquidating agent may receive reasonable compensation and nothing in this Act shall prevent compensation of the liquidating agent or those salaried employees and salaried officers of the credit union during the pendency of the liquidation, which payments shall be considered expenses incidental to liquidation.

Art. 2461–10.03. Merger or Consolidation

(a) A credit union may, in accordance with rules adopted by the commission and with the approval of the commissioner, merge or consolidate with any other credit union, under the existing articles of incorporation of the other credit union or otherwise, pursuant to a plan agreed to by the majority of the board of directors of each credit union joining in the merger or consolidation and approved by a majority of the members of each credit union voting at the meetings of members called for that purpose. The commissioner may waive the requirement that the plan be approved by the members of either credit union.

(b) After agreement by the directors and approval by the members, if applicable, of each credit union, the president and secretary of each credit union shall execute a certificate of merger or consolidation containing the following information:

1. The time and place of the meeting of the board of directors at which the plan of merger or consolidation was agreed to;
2. The vote of the board of directors in favor of and against the adoption of the plan;
3. A copy of the resolution or other action by which the plan of merger or consolidation was agreed to;
4. The time and place of the meeting of the members at which the plan was approved, if applicable;
5. The vote of the membership in favor of and against approval of the plan, if applicable; and
6. The name of the surviving credit union.

(c) The merging credit union or a consolidating credit union shall submit the certificates and a copy of the plan of merger or consolidation to the commissioners. On approving the merger or consolidation, the commissioner shall return the certificates and plan to the merging or consolidating credit unions. However, the commissioner may make his approval of a merger or consolidation conditional, and, in this event, shall set out the condition in his order approving the merger or consolidation. The commissioner may not deliver the approved certificate until the condition has been met. If the commissioner disapproves the merger or consolidation, or imposes a condition, the merging or consolidating credit unions may appeal the commissioner’s decision to the commission in the same manner as provided for an appeal on an application to incorporate a credit union.

(d) After a merger or consolidation is effected, all property, property rights, and interests of the merged or consolidated credit union vest in the surviving credit union without deed, endorsement, or other instrument of transfer, and all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the merged or consolidated credit union are assumed by the surviving credit union under whose charter the merger or consolidation is effected.

(e) This section shall be construed, whenever possible, to permit a credit union authorized to do business in this state under any other act to merge or consolidate with one authorized to do business under this Act.

(f) Notwithstanding any other law, the commissioner may authorize a merger or consolidation of a credit union that is insolvent or is in danger of insolvency with another credit union or may authorize a credit union to purchase any of the assets of, or assume any of the liabilities of, another credit union that is insolvent or in danger of insolvency if the commissioner is satisfied that:

1. an emergency requiring expeditious action exists with respect to the credit union that is insolvent or in danger of insolvency;

2. other options are not reasonably available; and

3. the public interest would best be served by approval of the merger, consolidation, purchase, or assumption.

Art. 2461-10.04. Conversion

(a) A credit union organized under the laws of this state may convert to a credit union under the laws of the United States on an affirmative vote by a majority of the members voting at a meeting called for that purpose, and by complying with rules adopted by the commission to facilitate the conversion, if any.

(b) A credit union organized under the laws of another state on an affirmative vote by a majority of the members voting at a meeting called for that purpose, and by complying with rules adopted by the commission, if any.

(c) A credit union organized under the laws of the United States or of another state may convert to a credit union organized under the laws of this state by complying with the requirements of the jurisdiction under which it is organized and the rules adopted by the commission.

(a) The State Treasurer, as secretary, together with one (1) citizen of the state, appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, who shall serve for a term of two (2) years, the Banking Commissioner, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall constitute the State Depository Board.

(b) Appointment to the Board shall be made without regard to the race, creed, sex, religion, or national origin of the appointee.

Sec. 2. (a) The citizen member or an employee of the Board may not be an officer, employee, or paid consultant of a trade association in the banking industry.

(b) The citizen member or an employee of the Board may not be related within the second degree by affinity or consanguinity to a person who is an officer, employee, or paid consultant of a trade association in the banking industry.

(c) A person who is required to register as a lobbyist under Chapter 422, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, as amended (Article 6252-9c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), by virtue of his activities for compensation in or on behalf of a profession related to the operation of the Board may not serve as a citizen member of the Board or act as the general counsel to the Board.

(d) It is a ground for removal from the Board that the citizen member violates a prohibition established by this section. The validity of an action of the Board is not affected by the fact that it was taken when a ground for removal of the citizen member of the Board existed.

Sec. 3. Said Board shall have the right and the power to make and enforce such rules and regulations governing the establishment and conduct of State Depositories, the handling of funds therein, and the investment of state funds as the public interest may require, not inconsistent with the provisions of the laws governing such depositories and investments, which rules and regulations shall be in writing and entered upon the minutes of the Board.

Sec. 4. (a) Said Board shall have the power to determine and designate the amount of state funds to be deposited in State Depositories, the amount of deposits that shall be "demand deposits," the amount of deposits that shall be "time deposits," and the amount of state funds that shall be invested by the State Treasurer in security repurchase agreements or United States Treasury bills.

(b) The amount invested in United States Treasury bills at any one time may not exceed 10 percent of the average daily balance of all state funds eligible for deposit or investment under this article. Investments in security repurchase agreements may be made only with state or national banks domiciled in this state.

(c) The Board may contract with said depositories in regard to the payment of interest on "time or demand deposits" not to exceed such rate as may be lawful under any Act of Congress and such rules and regulations as may be promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.
and the Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(d) The term "demand deposits," as used herein, shall mean any deposit which is payable on demand, and the term "time deposits," as used herein, shall mean any deposit with reference to which there is in force a contract that neither the whole nor any part of such deposit may be withdrawn by check or otherwise prior to the expiration of the period of notice which must be given in writing in advance of withdrawals. In this section, "security repurchase agreement" means an agreement to buy, hold for a specified time, and then sell back any of the following securities, obligations, or participation certificates: United States government securities; direct obligations of or obligations the principal and interest of which are guaranteed by the United States; and direct obligations of or participation certificates guaranteed by the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank, Federal Land Banks, Federal National Mortgage Association, Federal Home Loan Banks, and Banks for Cooperatives.

(e) Whenever the word "treasurer" is used in the statutes it shall mean the State Treasurer, and the word "Board" shall mean the State Depository Board.

Art. 2525a. Application of Other Laws

Sec. 1. The State Depository Board is subject to the Texas Sunset Act, as amended (Article 5429k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). Unless continued in existence as provided by that Act, the board is abolished effective September 1, 1995.

Sec. 2. The Board is subject to the open meetings law, Chapter 271, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6252-17, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6229-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Art. 2525b. Notice to Banks

The Treasurer on the second Tuesday in September of each odd numbered year shall mail to each private, State, and National Bank doing business in this state, a circular letter, stating the conditions to be complied with by applicants for designation as a state depository. The Treasurer shall keep on file in his office for the inspection of any person desiring to see the same a list of the banks to which the letters have been sent. Designation of depositories shall be for a period of two years' time. If it develops that more depositories are required at any time, the Board may send out notices to all private, State, and National Banks notifying them that further application for funds for the unexpired term will be accepted, or additional funds allotted to existing depositories upon application therefor. Said additional depositories shall comply with the same rules and conditions regarding all other depositories; provided, however, that regardless of any provision of law to the contrary, any savings and loan association domiciled in this state shall be entitled to the notice to be given under this article and may apply for state funds as provided in Article 2527 and may be accepted and designated as a state depository upon qualification as required by Article 2529, and thereupon shall have all the rights and privileges of a state depository as well as the obligations and liabilities thereof under Articles 2525, 2525a, 2526, 2527, 2528, 2529, 2530, 2531, 2532, 2533, 2534, 2535, 2537, 2539, Revised Statutes, as amended; Section 1, Chapter 180, Acts of the 44th Legislature, Regular Session, 1935 (Article 2529a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); Section 1, Chapter 322, Acts of the 44th Legislature, Regular Session, 1935; Section 1, Chapter 726, Acts of the 67th Legislature, Regular Session, 1981; Chapter 179, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967; Section 1, Chapter 392, Acts of the 83rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1955; Section 1, Chapter 231, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1931; Section 1, Chapter 131, Acts of the 48th Legislature, Regular Session, 1935; and Section 1, Chapter 216, Acts of the 50th Legislature, Regular Session, 1947 (Articles 2528b, 2528b-1, 2528c, 2529a, 2543a, 2543b-1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). Any depository whose accounts or deposits are insured in accordance with the laws of the United States may qualify as a depository and accept state funds to the extent of such insurance, regardless of the amount of its paid-up capital stock and permanent surplus, if any, and further provided that not more than 20 percent of the aggregate funds on deposit at any one time shall be in depository institutions other than banks.

Art. 2526. Notice to Banks

The application of the bank applying for State funds shall state its amount of paid-up capital stock and permanent surplus, or in the instance of a private bank, the amount of net proprietorship, and the maximum of State funds it will accept, accompanying same with a statement of the Bank's condition at the date of said application. Such application shall contain a provision that the books and accounts of such bank, if designated as a State Depository, shall be open at all times to the inspection of the Board, any member or any accredited representative thereof. All such applications shall be mailed to the Treasurer at Austin in time to reach his office on or before noon of the fifteenth day of October next succeeding. Applications received after said date may be considered at the option of the Board.

Art. 2528. Acceptance

When the Treasurer receives such application, he shall endorse thereon the date of its receipt, and shall in November prepare three (3) lists giving the names of all applicants for funds and the amount applied for. One list shall be furnished each member of the Board. The Board shall meet on the first Monday in November, examine said applications, giving approval to those applicants that are acceptable, and having the power to reject those whose management or condition, in the opinion of the Board, does not warrant the placing of State funds in their possession. Any private, State, or National Bank doing business in this state may be accepted. No application for State funds shall be granted to any bank whose liabilities for borrowed money are in excess of its capital stock, but the Board may in its discretion, waive this provision.

Art. 2529. Qualifications of Depositories

As soon as practicable after the Board shall have passed upon said applications, the Treasurer shall notify all banks whose applications have been accepted, of their designation as State Depositories of state funds. The Treasurer shall require each bank so designated to qualify as a State Depository on or before the 25th day of November next, by (a) depositing a depository bond signed by some surety company authorized to do business in Texas, in an amount equal to not less than double the amount of state funds allotted, such bond to be payable to the Treasurer and to be in such form as may be prescribed by the Board and subject to the approval of such Board; or (b) by pledging with the Treasurer any securities of the following kinds: bonds and certificates and other evidences of indebtedness of the United States, and all other bonds which are guaranteed as to both principal and interest by the United States; bonds of this state; bonds and other obligations issued by The University of Texas; warrants drawn on the State Treasury against the General Revenue of the state; bonds issued by the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, provided both principal and interest of said bonds are guaranteed by the United States government; shares or share accounts of any building and loan association organized under the laws of this state, provided the payment of such shares or share accounts is insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation; in the shares or share accounts of any Federal Savings and Loan Association domiciled in this state, provided the payment of such shares or share accounts is insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation; Home Owners Loan Corporation Bonds, provided both principal and interest of said bonds are guaranteed by the United States government, and such securities shall be accepted by the Board in an amount not less than five percent (5%) greater than the amount of state funds which they secure; provided, that Texas Relief Bonds may be accepted at face value without margin for the amount of state funds allotted, provided such State Relief Bonds have all unma­tured coupons attached; bonds of counties located in Texas; road districts of counties in Texas; independent and common school districts located in Texas; bonds of any hospital district created under the laws of this state; tax bonds issued by municipal corporations in Texas; and bonds issued by a municipal corporation where the payment of such bonds is secured by a pledge of the net revenues of a utility system or systems (limited to those utility systems now authorized to be encumbered under the provisions of Articles 1111–1116a, Revised Civil Statutes, as amended, inclusive). All of such securities may be accepted by the Board, provided the aggregate amount thereof is not less than twenty percent (20%) greater than the total amount of state funds that they secure; provided that the amount of all bonds and other obligations of every kind as collateral shall be determined by the Board on the basis of either their par or market value, whichever is less. The term "market value" as used herein shall mean the fair and reasonable prevailing price at which said bonds are being sold on the open market at the time of the appraisement of the securities by the Board; and the action of the Board in fixing the valuation of said bonds shall be final, and not subject to review.

No state, county, road district bond, independent or common school district or municipal bonds, bonds of any hospital district created under the laws of this state, or obligations of the Board of Regents of the University issued by The University of Texas, shall be accepted as collateral security unless they shall be approved by the Attorney General. All bonds accepted as collateral security shall be registered under the same rules and regulations as are required for bonds in which the Permanent School Funds are invested. Subject to the approval of the Board, a state depository may secure its deposits of state funds in part by an acceptable surety bond and in part by acceptable collateral of the kind herein mentioned, and any losses sustained where a depository has secured its deposits in part by collateral and in part by a surety bond, the loss may be enforced against either the collateral security or the surety bond. No warrant drawn on the State Treasury shall be accepted as collateral unless said warrants are accompanied by affidavits, sworn to by some officer of the bank offering said warrants, which said affidavits shall affirm that none of the warrants offered as collateral security were transferred or assigned by the original payees of said warrants, or any of them, for a less consideration than ninety-eight per cent (98%) of the face value of said warrants, and that none of such warrants were obtained from the original payee by loaning money thereon at a rate of interest greater than eight per cent (8%) per annum. The Board shall have the power to reject any and all collateral or surety bonds tendered by a state depository, without assigning any reason therefor, and its action in so doing shall be final and not subject to review. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions requiring security for state funds deposited in state depositories in the form of surety bond or collateral, security for such deposits shall not be required to the extent that said deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation under the provisions of Section 12b of the Federal Reserve Act as amended,1 or any amendments thereto.

A bank shall not be disqualified from bidding and becoming the depository for any agency or political subdivision of the state by reason of having one or more officers, directors or stockholders of said bank who individually or collectively own or have a beneficial interest in not more than 10 percent of the bank's outstanding capital stock, and at the same time serves as a member of the board, commission, or other body charged with the duty of selecting the depository of such state agency or political subdivision; provided, however, that said bank must be selected as the depository by a majority vote of the members of the board, commission, or other body of such agency or political subdivision and no member thereof who is an officer, director, or stockholder of the bank shall vote or participate in the proceedings. Common-law rules in conflict with the terms and provisions of this Act are hereby modified as herein provided, but this Act shall never be deemed to alter, change, amend or supersede the provisions of any home-rule city charter which is in conflict herewith.

Art. 2530. Deposit of Securities

In the event the State Depository, as designated in the preceding Article, shall elect to deposit said pledged securities, above mentioned, with the State Treasurer, the said securities shall be delivered to the Treasurer and receipted for by him, and retained by him in the vaults of the State Treasury. Provided, however, that such bank so designated as depository shall have the option, instead of depositing said pledged securities with the State Treasurer, of depositing same with another State or National Bank situated in the State, subject to the approval of the Board; said securities to be held in trust by said custodian bank to secure funds deposited by the State Treasurer in the State Depository bank. Upon the receipt of said securities, said custodian bank shall immediately issue and deliver to the State Treasurer controlled trust receipts for said securities pledged to the State Treasurer. The security evidenced by such trust receipts shall be subject to inspection by the Board or its agents at any time deemed advisable by said Board. Said custodian bank shall have a capital stock and permanent surplus of not less than Five Hundred Thousand ($500,000.00) Dollars, and said bank designated as depository shall itself defray the charges, if any, of such custodian bank for accepting and holding said securities.

A State Depository bank shall also have the option of depositing said pledged securities with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas; such securities to be held by said Bank to secure funds deposited by the State Treasurer in the State Depository bank. When such pledged securities are so deposited and subject to the approval of the Board, the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas may apply book entry procedures to the pledged securities so held. The records of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas shall at all times reflect the name of the State Depository bank for whose account the pledged securities are so deposited, and an Advice of Transaction shall be issued by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas to the State Treasurer and the State Depository bank.

A custodian bank, holding in trust securities of a State Depository bank pledged to secure funds deposited by the State Treasurer in the State Depository bank as provided above, shall also have the option of depositing said pledged securities with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas; provided, however, that said custodian bank so designated as depository is the third party to the transaction; such securities to be held by said Federal Reserve Bank to secure funds deposited by the State Treasurer in the State Depository bank. When such pledged securities held by a custodian bank are so deposited, and, subject to the approval of the Board, the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas may apply book entry procedures to the pledged securities so held. The records of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas shall at all times reflect the name of the custodian bank for whose account the pledged securities are so deposited, and an Advice of Transaction or other document evidencing each deposit of securities shall be issued by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas to the custodian bank. The custodian bank shall immediately issue and deliver to the State Treasurer controlled trust receipts for said pledged securities. The trust receipt shall reflect that the custodian bank has deposited with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas the pledged securities held in trust for the State Depository bank. Subject to the approval of the Board, a State Depository may have the right to substitute one group of securities for another group of securities... pledged with the State Treasurer, when and as such State Depository may desire to make such substitution, so long as the securities desired to be substituted by such bank shall come within the classification of securities acceptable under the terms of this Act.

If, in any case, or at any time, such bonds or other securities are not satisfactory security, in the opinion of the Board, for the deposits made under this Act, they may require such additional security to be given as will be satisfactory to them. Said Board shall, from time to time inspect such bonds and see that the same are actually kept in the vaults of the State Treasury and in said custodian banks. If the pledged securities are deposited with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, the Board shall conduct such audits and inspections of the records of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas as may be reasonably necessary to verify the existence of and proper accounting for said pledged securities. In the event that any State Depository shall fail to pay deposits or any part thereof on the check of the Treasurer, he shall have the power to forthwith realize upon such bonds or other securities deposited by said bank, and disburse the money arising therefrom, according to law, upon the warrants drawn by the Comptroller upon the funds for which said bonds or other securities were secured. Any bank making deposits of bonds or other securities with the Treasurer under the provisions of this Act may cause such bonds or other securities to be endorsed or stamped, as they may deem proper, so as to show that they are deposited as collateral and not transferable, except as herein provided.

Upon request of the owner or owners, the Treasurer or custodian bank may surrender interest coupons or other evidence of interest when due on securities deposited by depository banks, provided, said securities are ample to meet the requirements of the State.

Whenever any private bank now organized as provided for by the private banking laws of Texas should seek to become a depository for State funds or any other governmental agency, it shall agree in writing to submit itself to examination as to its solvency.

Art. 2530a. Deposit and Substitution of Securities; Acceptance of Certain Securities by Treasurer

In the deposit and exchange or substitution of securities by state depository banks under the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 47, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, the State Depository Board may authorize the State Treasurer to accept such securities offered for deposit and those securities offered for exchange of securities already on deposit without further action of said Board where such offered securities are bonds and certificates and other evidences of indebtedness of the United States and all other bonds which are guaranteed as to both principal and interest by the United States.

After the depositories have qualified as provided in the preceding articles, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to deposit the funds belonging to the State in such depositories or to invest the funds as provided by Article 2525, Revised Statutes. Funds designated as time deposits shall be deposited in amounts considered appropriate by the Board. Funds designated as demand deposits shall be deposited only in banks designated as centrally located depositories and in any other depository considered appropriate by the Board, in amounts considered by the Board to be necessary to accommodate the State warrant activity in the area.

No depositories shall be entitled to keep on deposit State funds in an amount in excess of their paid-up capital stock and permanent surplus. Any reduction in the capital stock and permanent surplus of any depository shall reduce correspondingly the amount of State funds which it can retain as a depository, and the Treasurer is authorized to withdraw from said depository any funds in excess of its capital and permanent surplus, provided, that where any depository shall pledge as security for State funds on deposit with it warrants drawn upon the State Treasury against the General Fund of this State as provided by Article 2529, and shall also make the proof required in such Article that such warrants were acquired by it as therein provided, then the limitation upon the amount of deposits that may be placed in said depository shall not apply, but the amount of said funds to be deposited in said depository shall be determined by the State Depository Board.

If there be a surplus after the awards are made, the surplus shall be prorated among the applying banks.

Such provisions, however, shall not affect arrangements for clearing checks made by said Board with State Depositories as hereinafter provided.

All State Depositories shall collect all checks, drafts and demands for money so deposited with them by the Treasurer and when using due diligence shall not be liable on such collections until the proceeds thereof have been duly received by the

The County Commissioners Court shall have the power to determine and designate the character and amount of county funds which will be deposited by it in said depositaries that shall be "demand deposits" and what character and amount of funds shall be "time deposits," and may contract with said depositaries in regard to the payment of interest on "time deposits," at such rate or rates as may be lawful under any Act of the Congress of the United States and any rule or regulations that may be promulgated by the Board of Directors of the Federal Reserve System and the Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. (a) By executing and filing with the Commissioners' Court, a bond or bonds, payable to the County Judge and his successors in office, to be approved by the Commissioners' Court, and immediately thereafter filed in the office of the County Clerk of said county, said bond to be signed by not less than five (5) solvent sureties who shall own unencumbered real estate in this State not exempt from execution under the Constitution and laws of this State, of a value equal to, or in excess of, the amount of said bonds where there is more than one bond; said bond or bonds to be in an amount equal to the estimated highest daily balance of such county, as determined by the Commissioners' Court, such estimated daily balance to be in no event less than seventy-five (75%) per cent of the highest daily balance of said county for the next preceding year, less the amount of bond funds received and expended; provided, however, in the event that county funds derived from the sale of county securities during the term of such bond are deposited, such Commissioners' Court shall require additional bond and/or bonds, and/or pledge of securities equal to the amount of such additional county funds. (b) By having issued and executed by some solvency surety company or companies authorized to do business in the State of Texas, such bond or bonds, as provided by law, to be in the amount and payable as provided in subdivision (a) hereinafter, which said surety bond shall be approved by the Commissioners' Court, and filed in the office of the County Clerk of said county. Provided, however, such surety company or companies may be relieved of its or their obligation on thirty (30) days notice in writing to the Commissioners' Court, such bonding surety company or companies not to be relieved of any liability for loss sustained by the county prior to the expiration date of such bonds or bond; and provided further, in the event any surety company or companies shall ask to be relieved of such bond or bonds, such deposition shall, provided to the termination date of such obligation of such surety company or companies, present further security acceptable to the County Commissioners' Court, and filed in the office of the County Clerk of said county, for the securing of county funds in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(c) In lieu of such personal bonds or surety bonds as above specified, said banking corporation, association or individual banker so selected as county depository, may pledge, and said depository bank is authorized to pledge with the Commissioners' Court for the purpose of securing such county funds, securities of the following kind, in an amount equal to the amount of such county funds on deposit in said depository bank, to wit: bonds and notes of the United States, securities of indebtedness of the United States, and other evidences of indebtedness of the United States, when said evidences of indebtedness are supported by the full faith and credit of the United States of America, and other evidences of indebtedness as guarantied to both principal and interest by the United States Government, bonds of the State of Texas, or deposits of any county, city, town, independent school district, common school district, or bonds issued under the Federal Farm Loan Act, or road district bonds, bonds, pledges or other securities issued by the Board of Regents of the University of Texas, bank acceptances of banks having a capital stock of not less than Five Hundred Thousand ($500,000.00) Dollars, notes or bonds secured by mortgages insured and debentures issued by the Federal Housing Administrator of the United States Government, shares or share accounts of any building and loan association organized under the laws of this state, provided the payment of such shares or share accounts is insured by the Federal Savings & Loan Insurance Corporation, and in the shares or share accounts of any Federal Savings & Loan Association domiciled in this state, provided the payment of such shares or share accounts is insured by the Federal Savings & Loan Insurance Corporation; and bonds issued by municipal corporations in Texas, all said securities having a total market value equal to the amount of the depository bond; an amount of the following described securities not to exceed twenty-five (25%) per cent of the assessed value of the property in the county as shown by the certified tax roll for the preceding year, viz.: closed first mortgages on improved and unencumbered real estate situated in the State of Texas, provided such security so offered must be first approved by the Commissioners' Court; and before approving such a mortgage tendered as security for deposits, the Commissioners' Court shall require a written opinion by an attorney selected by the Court, showing that the lien so offered is superior to any and all other claims or rights in the property, and provided further that the Court shall require that the improvements on each tract of real estate described in such mortgage be fully insured in some Stock Fire Insurance Company, or a Mutual Fire Insurance Company having One Hundred Thousand ($100,000.00) Dollars surplus plus in excess of all legal reserves and other liabilities, to be approved by the County Judge, with loss payable clause in favor of the County Judge, such mortgage as may be approved as acceptable security under the provisions of this Article shall be assigned to the County Judge by written instrument, duly acknowledged, and the same shall be placed of record forthwith in each county where any part of said real estate is situated; and as security for such deposits, unencumbered, improved real estate, subject to approval of Commissioners' Court, may be pledged directly by Deed of Trust executed to a trustee selected by the Commissioners' Court, with the County Judge as beneficiary; provided that the Court shall require that all improvements on any real estate, so pledged, be fully insured in a Stock Fire Insurance Company or a Mutual Fire Insurance Company having One Hundred Thousand ($100,000.00) Dollars surplus in excess of all legal reserves and other liabilities, approved by the County Judge, with loss payable clause in favor of the County Judge; and the Commissioners' Court shall investigate all real estate security and determine the value at which such real estate security as is herein described shall be accepted; provided that in no event shall such security be accepted as collateral at a value in excess of fifty (50%) per cent of the reasonable market value of the real property covered by such mortgages, except where such mortgages are insured or guaranteed by the Federal Housing Administrator of the United States; and such real estate security as herein described may be withdrawn and replaced by other real estate securities meeting the requirements of this Act, or any class of securities above enumerated, provided all such withdrawals, substitutions and replacements must be approved by the Commissioners' Court; and the County Judge shall execute such instruments as may be necessary to transfer to the depository or its order, all liens, so withdrawn, and said Commissioners' Court may accept said securities in lieu of such
It shall be the duty of the Commissioners' Court to investigate and inquire into the solvency of each and every surety, on any personal bond or bonds so filed by such county depository, and accepted by the Commissioners' Court and approved as required by law, at least twice during each and every year such bonds are effective and in force; and for that purpose shall have authority to require each surety to render an itemized and verified financial statement, under oath, showing his true financial condition. If any such statement or statements indicate that any of said sureties have become insolvent, or their net worth depreciated below the amount required by law as such sureties, or if any of the assets listed are shown to be, or are known to be depreciated, or their value in any way impaired, then and in any such events, the Commissioners' Court shall require a new bond meeting fully the requirements of this law; and in case of a bond or bonds the sureties on which are required to own unencumbered and non-exempt real estate as herein provided, such statement shall show each tract of land owned by each surety and the value thereof; and if the statements provided for herein indicate that any of such lands have been disposed of or encumbered, and the value of the remaining unencumbered or non-exempt lands shall not be sufficient to meet the requirements of this law, then the said Commissioners' Court shall require a new bond, meeting fully the requirements of this law. The Commissioners' Court shall at any time it may deem necessary for the protection of the county, investigate and inquire into the solvency of any surety company or companies issuing a bond or bonds for any depository, and to investigate the value of any of the securities that may be pledged by such depository in lieu of the personal bond; and such Commissioners' Court may require any such depository if it deem advisable, to execute a new bond. If said new bond required by the Commissioners' Court for any reason as herein specified be not filed within five (5) days from the time of the service of a copy of said order upon said depository, the Commissioners' Court may proceed to the selection of another depository, in the same manner as provided for the selection of a depository at the regular time for such selection. Nothing in this law shall in any manner limit, restrict or prevent the Commissioners' Court from requiring any depository to execute a new bond at any time such Commissioners' Court may deem it necessary for the protection of the county.

Art. 2548. Additional Bond

Whenever, after the creation of a county depository, as by this Act provided, there shall accrue to the county or any subdivision thereof, any funds or moneys from the sale of bonds or otherwise, the Commissioners Court of such county at its first meeting after such special funds shall have come into the Treasury, or depository of such county, or so soon thereafter as may be practicable, may make written demand upon the duly accredited and established depository of the county for a special additional bond as such depository in a sum equal to the whole amount of such special fund, to be kept in force so long as such funds remain in such depository. Such extra or special bond may be cancelled and a new bond contemporaneously substituted therefor as such special fund may have been reduced. Such special bond shall at all times be sufficient in amount to cover such special fund then on hand. Upon the failure of such depository to furnish such additional bond within thirty (30) days from the date of such demand, the Commissioners Court may cause such special funds to be withdrawn, upon the draft of the county treasurer from such depository, and cause the same to be deposited in some solvent National bank or State bank whose combined capital stock and surplus is in excess of such special fund, and to leave the same or so much thereof as may not have been expended with such National bank or State bank of last deposit, until such time that such county depository may have filed with the Commissioners Court the required additional bond, when such special fund or so much thereof as shall not have been expended shall be forthwith returned to and deposited with such county depository. The requiring of such additional or special bond shall be optional with such Commissioners Court. When a banking institution selected, qualified and acting as a county depository shall become insolvent and it shall become necessary to resort to the depository bond or bonds to collect the county and State funds deposited therein, payment shall be made to the county and State pro rata.

Art. 2549. Designating Depository

(a) As soon as said bond be given and approved by the Commissioners Court, an order shall be made and entered upon the minutes of said Court designating such banking corporation, association or individual banker, as a depository for the funds of said county until sixty (60) days after the time fixed for the next selection of a depository; and thereupon, it shall be the duty of the county treasurer of said county immediately upon the making of such order, to transfer to said depository all the funds belonging to said county, as well as all funds belonging to any district or other municipal subdivision thereof not selecting its own depository, and immediately upon receipt of any money thereafter, to deposit the same with said depository to the credit of said county, district and municipalities. It shall also be the duty of the tax collector of such county to deposit all taxes collected by him, or under his authority, for the State and such county and its various districts and other municipal subdivisions, in such depository or depositories, as soon as collected, pending the preparation of his report of such collections and settlement thereon. The bond of such county depository or depositories shall stand as security for all such funds. Upon such funds being deposited as herein required, the tax collector and sureties on his bond, shall thereafter be relieved of responsibility for its safekeeping. All county depositories shall collect all checks, drafts and demands for money so deposited with them by the county and when using due diligence shall not be liable on such collections until the proceeds thereof have been duly received by the depository bank, provided that any expense incurred in collection thereof by the depository, which the depository is not allowed or permitted to pay or absorb by reason of any act of Congress of the United States or any regulation by either the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System or the Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, shall be charged to and paid by the county. All money collected or held by any district, county or precinct officer in such county, or the officers of any defined district or subdivision in such county, including the funds of any municipal or quasi-municipal subdivision or corporation which has the power to select its own depository, but has not done so, shall be governed by this law, and shall be deposited in accordance with its requirements, and shall be considered in fixing the bond of such depository, and shall be protected by such bond; and all warrants, checks, and vouchers evidencing such funds shall be subject to audit and countersignature as now or hereafter provided by law.

(c) Unless expressly prohibited by law or unless it is in contravention of any depository contract between a county and any depository bank, the Commissioners Court may direct the county treasurer to:

(1) withdraw any amount of funds of the county that are deposited in a county depository and that are not required immediately to pay obligations of the county or required to be kept on deposit under the terms of the depository contract: and

(2) invest those funds in direct debt securities of the United States.

Art. 2550. Deposits Not Applied For

If for any reason no applications are submitted by any banking corporation, association or individual banker to act as county depository or in case all applications shall be declined, then in any such case, the Commissioners Court shall have the power, and it shall be their duty to deposit the funds of the county with any one or more banking corporations, associations or individual bankers in the county or in the adjoining counties in such amounts and for such periods as may be deemed advisable by the Court. Any bank or banking concern receiving deposits under this Article shall execute a bond in the manner and form provided for depositories of county funds with all the conditions provided for same, the penalty of said bonds to be not less than the total amount of county funds deposited with such bank or banking concern.

In case any bonds, coupons, or other indebtedness of any county by the terms thereof are payable at any place other than the treasury of the county, nothing herein contained shall prevent the Commissioners Court of such county from causing the treasurer to place a sufficient sum at the place where such debts shall be payable at the time and place of their maturity, provided such payments shall be made in the manner prescribed by law. All checks or warrants issued or drawn by any officer under the provisions of this Act, shall be subject to all the laws and regulations providing for auditing and countersigning and all such laws and regulations are hereby continued in full force and effect.

If the Commissioners Court shall at any time deem it necessary for the protection of the county, it may require any depository to execute a new bond; and, if said new bond be not filed within five (5) days from the time of the service of a copy of said order upon said depository, the Commissioners Court may proceed to the selection of another depository in the manner provided for the selection of a depository at the regular time for such selection.

Art. 2560. Award and Bond

Upon considering the applications submitted, the governing body shall select as the depository or depositories of such funds the banking corporations, association or individual banker or bankers offering the most favorable terms and conditions for the handling of such funds. The governing body of such city, town or village shall have the right to reject any and all applications and readvertise for any applications. The governing body of such city, town or village shall have the power to determine and designate the character and amount of city funds which will be deposited by it in said depositories that shall be “demand deposits” and what character and amount of funds shall be “time deposits”; and may contract with said depositories in regard to the payment of interest on “time deposits” at such rate or rates as may be lawful under any Act of Congress of the United States and any rule or regulations that may be promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The term “demand deposits”, as used herein, shall mean any deposit which is payable on demand, and the term “time deposits”, as used herein, shall mean any deposit with reference to which there is in force a contract, that neither the whole nor any part of such deposit may be withdrawn by check or otherwise prior to the expiration of the period of notice which must be given in writing in advance of withdrawals. Within five (5) days after the selection of such depository or depositories, it shall be the duty of the banking corporation or corporations, association or associations, individual banker or bankers so selected to qualify as city depository, in one or more of the following ways, at the option of the governing body of such city, town or village:

(a) By executing and filing with the governing body, a bond or bonds, payable to the city, to be approved by the governing body, said bond to be signed by not less than five (5) solvent sureties who shall own unencumbered real estate in this State not exempt from execution under the Constitution and Laws of this State of a value equal to, or in excess of, the amount of said bond, or of a value equal to, or in excess of, the amount of said bonds when there is more than one (1) bond; and said bond or bonds shall in no event be for less than the total amount of the revenue of such city for the next preceding year for which said bond or bonds are made. The sureties shall file with the city at the time of filing said bond or bonds, a statement containing a description of the unencumbered and non-exempt lands owned by them sufficient to identify such lands on the ground; and such statement shall remain on file with the City Secretary, attached to such bond or bonds, which statement shall contain a fair estimate of the value of each tract of land so listed, together with the value of the improvements thereon.

(b) By having issued and executed by some solvent surety company or companies authorized to do business in the State of Texas, such bond or bonds, as provided by law, to be in the amount and payable as provided in subdivision (a) hereinabove, which said surety bond shall be approved by the governing body and filed with the City Secretary.

(c) By executing and filing with the governing body, a bond or bonds, in an amount and payable as provided in subdivision (a) hereinabove, to be approved by the governing body and filed with the City Secretary of such city, said bond or bonds to be signed by not less than five (5) solvent sureties, who shall prepare and file with the governing body, at the time of the filing of said bond, an itemized and verified financial statement, which shall show the aggregate net worth of all to be equal to, or in excess of, the amount of such bond or bonds as hereinabove provided for.

(d) In lieu of such personal bonds or surety bonds as above specified, said banking corporation or corporations, association or associations, individual banker or bankers so selected as the city depository, may pledge, and said depository is hereby authorized to pledge with the governing body of such city for the purpose of securing such city funds, securities of the following kind, in an amount equal to the amount of said city funds on deposit in said depository bank or banks, to-wit: United States Bonds,
Certificates of Indebtedness of the United States, Treasury notes of the United States, and other evidences of indebtedness of the United States which are guaranteed as to both principal and interest by the United States Government, bonds of the State of Texas, or of any county, city, town, independent school district, common school district or other school district in the State of Texas; or bonds issued under the Federal Farm Loan Act, or road district bonds, bonds, pledges or other evidences of indebtedness issued by the Board of Regents of the University of Texas, notes or bonds secured by mortgages insured and debentures issued by the Federal Housing Administrator of the United States Government; in shares or share accounts of any building and loan association organized under the laws of this state, provided the payment of such shares or share accounts is insured by the Federal Savings & Loan Insurance Corporation, and in the shares or share accounts of any Federal Savings & Loan Association domiciled in this state, provided the payment of such shares or share accounts is insured by the Federal Savings & Loan Insurance Corporation; bank acceptances of banks having a capital stock of not less than Five Hundred Thousand ($500,000.00) Dollars, and bonds issued by municipal corporations in Texas; and said city may accept said securities in lieu of such personal or surety bonds, which securities so pledged shall be deposited as the governing body may direct. It is provided, however, that such securities so pledged shall be approved as to kind and value by the governing body.

When the securities pledged by the depository bank to secure city funds shall be in excess of the amount required under the provisions of this Act, the governing body of such city shall permit the release of such excess; and when the city funds deposited with such depository bank shall, for any reason, increase beyond the amount of securities pledged, said depository bank shall immediately pledge additional securities with the governing body so that the securities pledged shall at no time be of a value of less than the total amount of city funds on deposit in said depository bank. Provided, however, the determination of such value shall be in the discretion of the governing body whose decision shall be final and binding on such depository. The right of substitution of securities shall be granted to depositories, provided the securities substituted meet with the requirements of the law, and are approved by the governing body. Upon the request of such depository bank, the governing body shall surrender interest coupons or other evidence of interest, when due, on securities deposited with said governing body by such depository bank, provided said securities remaining pledged are ample to meet the requirements of this Act and of such governing body.

The condition of the personal bond or bonds, or surety company bond or contract, for securities pledged as hereinabove provided, shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties and obligations devolving by law upon such depository, and for the payment upon presentation of all checks drawn upon any "demand deposit" account in said depository, or upon presentation upon any "time deposit" after the expiration of the period of notice required in the case of "time deposits" by the City Treasurer of the city; and that said city funds shall be faithfully kept by said depository and accounted for according to law. Any suits arising thereon shall be tried in the county in which such city, town, or village is located.

It shall be the duty of the governing body to investigate and inquire into the solvency of each and every surety on any personal bond or bonds so filed by such city depository and accepted by the governing body and approved as required by law, at least twice during each and every year such bonds are effective and in force, and for that purpose shall have authority to require each surety to render an itemized and verified financial statement, under oath, showing his true financial condition. If any such statement or statements indicate that any of said sureties have become insolvent, or their net worth depreciated below the amount required by law as such sureties, or if any of the assets listed are shown to be, or are known to be depreciated, or their value in any way impaired, then and in any of such events, the governing body shall require a new bond meeting fully the requirements of this law; and in case of a bond or bonds, the sureties on which are required to own unencumbered and non-exempt real estate as herein provided, such statement shall show each tract of land owned by each surety and the value thereof; and if the statements provided for herein shall indicate that any of such lands have been disposed of, or encumbered, and the value of the remaining unencumbered or non-exempt lands shall not be sufficient to meet the requirements of this law, then the said governing body shall require a new bond meeting fully the requirements of this law. The governing body shall at any time it may deem necessary for the protection of the city, investigate and inquire into the solvency of any surety company or companies issuing a bond or bonds for any depository, and to investigate the value of any of the securities that may be pledged by such depository in lieu of the personal bond; and such governing body may require any such depository, if it deems advisable, to execute a new bond, or to deliver into pledge additional or other securities. If said new bond or securities required by the governing body for any reason, as herein specified, be not filed within five (5) days from the time of the service of a copy of said order upon said depository, the governing body may proceed to the selection of another depository in the same manner as provided for the selection of a depository at the regular time for such selection.

Nothing in the law shall in any manner limit, restrict, or prevent the governing body from requiring any depository to execute a new bond, at any time

Art. 2561. Designating Depository, etc.

(a) As soon as said bond shall be given and approved, an order shall be made by the council designating said banking corporation, association, or individual banker, as the depository of the funds of the city until the time fixed by this Act for another selection, and such order shall be entered upon the minutes. It shall be the duty of the city treasurer, immediately upon the making of said order, to transfer to said depository all the funds in his hands belonging to the city, and immediately upon the receipt of the money thereafter, he shall deposit the same with said depository to the credit of the city. If any banking corporation, association, or individual banker, after having been selected as such depository, shall fail to give bond within the time provided by this Act, then the selection of such banking corporation, association, or individual banker, as the depository of the city funds shall be set aside and be null and void, and the governing body shall, after the notice published in the manner hereinafter provided, proceed to receive new applications and select another depository.

(b) Unless expressly prohibited by law or unless it is in contravention of any depository contract between a city, town, or village and any depository bank, the governing body of a city, town, or village may direct the treasurer of the entity to:

(1) withdraw any amount of funds of the entity that are deposited in a depository and that are not required immediately to pay obligations of the entity or required to be kept on deposit under the terms of the depository contract; and

(2) invest those funds in direct debt securities of the United States.

Section 2 of the 1981 amendatory act provides:

"This Act does not apply to funds that, on the effective date of this Act, are on deposit in a depository in accordance with Article 2549 or Article 2561, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, so they exist immediately before this Act takes effect."

Art. 2562. Warrant and Checks Paid

The city treasurer, upon presentation to him of any warrant drawn by the proper authority, if there shall be enough money in the depository belonging to the fund upon which said warrant is drawn and out of which the same is payable, shall draw his check as city treasurer upon the city depository in favor of the legal holder of said warrant, and to take up said warrant, and charge the same to the fund upon which it is drawn. In no case shall the city treasurer draw any check upon any fund in the city depository, unless there is sufficient money belonging to the fund upon which said warrant is drawn to pay the same, nor shall said city treasurer draw any check upon any funds deposited with said depository or depositories which are designated as "time deposits" until after notice is duly given and the time has expired, as required in the contract with said depository in designating said funds as "time deposits." No money belonging to the city shall be paid out of the city depository, except upon checks of the city treasurer. All such checks shall be payable by said depository at its place of business in the city. In case any bonds or coupons or other indebtedness of the city are payable, by the terms of such bonds, coupons or other indebtedness, at any particular place other than the city treasury, nothing herein shall prevent the governing body from causing the treasurer to withdraw from the depository and to place at the place where such bonds, coupons or other indebtedness shall be payable at the time of their maturity, a sufficient sum to meet the same.

Art. 2563. May Select at Subsequent Meeting

If for any reason no selection of a depository is made at the time fixed by this Act, said governing body may, at any subsequent meeting, after notice published as hereinafter provided, receive applications and select a depository in the manner herein set out, and the banking corporation, association, or individual banker so selected shall remain the depository until the next regular term for the selection of a depository unless the order selecting it be revoked for the causes specified in this Act. If the governing body shall at any time deem it necessary for the protection of the city, it may by resolution, require the depository to execute a new bond; and upon failure to do so within five (5) days after the service of a copy of the resolution on said depository, said body may proceed to select another depository in the manner hereinafter provided.

Art. 2564. Liability of Treasurer

The City Treasurer shall not be responsible for any loss of the city funds through negligence, failure or wrongful act of such depository, but nothing in this Act shall release said treasurer from responsibility for any loss resulting from any official misconduct on his part nor from responsibility for the said funds at any time, when, for any reason, there shall be no city depository, nor until a depository shall be selected and the funds deposited therein, nor for any misappropriation of such funds in any manner by him.

Art. 2565. Restrictions Upon Drawing

No check shall be drawn upon the city depository by the treasurer, except upon a warrant signed by the mayor and attested by the secretary, except where cities are operating under charter provisions that provide for the drawing of checks or warrants on the depository or city funds in a different manner than is herein provided. No warrant shall be drawn by the mayor and secretary upon any of the special funds created for the purpose of paying the bonded indebtedness of said city, in the hands of the City Treasurer, or in the depository, for any purpose whatsoever other than to pay the principal or interest of said indebtedness, or for the purpose of investing said special fund according to law. No City Treasurer shall pay or issue a check to pay any money out of any special fund created for the purpose of paying any bonded indebtedness of said city other than for the purpose of paying interest due on said bonds, the principal of said bonds or for the purpose of making an investment of said funds according to law. The treasurer shall report to the council on or before its first regular meeting in July in each year, the amount of receipts and expenditures of the treasury, the amount of money on hand in each fund, and the amount of bonds falling due for redemption of which provision must be made; also the amount of interest to be paid during the next fiscal year, and such other reports as the existing law requires of him.

Art. 3196a. Classes of Patients Admitted

Indigent Patients; Non-Indigent Patients

Sec. 1. Patients admitted to State hospitals under the management and control of the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation shall be of two classes, to wit:

Indigent patients;

Non-indigent patients;

Indigent patients are those who possess no property of any kind nor have anyone legally responsible for their support, and who are unable to reimburse the State. This class shall be supported at the expense of the State.

Non-indigent patients are those who possess some property out of which the State may be reimbursed, or who have someone legally liable for their support. This class shall be kept and maintained at the expense of the State, as in the first instance, but in such cases the State shall have the right to be reimbursed for the support, maintenance, and treatment of such patients.

Persons Chargeable with Expenses of Patients

Sec. 2. Where the patient has no sufficient estate of his own, he shall be maintained at the expense:
Of the husband or wife of such person, if able to do so;

Of the father or mother of such person, if able to do so, provided such person is less than 18 years old.

Child support payments for the benefit of a patient paid or owing by a parent pursuant to a divorce decree or other court order shall be considered to be the property and estate of the patient, and charges may be made against such child support obligations. The parent who is obligated to pay child support on behalf of the patient shall be given a credit against charges for which he or she would otherwise be liable based on ability to pay for the amount of child support the parent actually pays for the benefit of the patient. The parent who receives the child support payments is liable for the charges based on the child support obligation to the extent such payments are actually received in addition to the liability of such parent based on ability to pay. The department may, upon the failure of a parent to pay child support in accordance with the child support obligation or upon the failure of a parent to pay charges based on the child support obligation, file a motion to modify the court order to require the child support to be paid directly to the State hospital or facility in which the patient resides for the patient's support, maintenance, and treatment. The court may, in addition, order all past due child support to be paid to the State hospital or facility to the extent that charges have been made against the child support obligation.

Investigations to Determine Means of Support

Sec. 3. The Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation is authorized to demand and conduct investigations in the County Court to determine whether or not a patient is possessed of or entitled to property and/or whether or not some other person is legally liable for his support, maintenance, and treatment and to pay therefor, and to have citation issued and witnesses summoned to be heard on said investigation.

Contracts Fixing Support

Sec. 4. The Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, directly or through an authorized agent or agents, may make contracts fixing the price for the support, maintenance, and treatment of patients in any State hospital under its management and control at a sum not to exceed the cost of same or for such part thereof as such respective patient, his relatives or guardian of his estate may be able to and agree to pay, and binding the persons making such contracts to payment thereunder.

State Representative in Filing Claims in Probate Court

Sec. 5. Upon the written request of the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation the County or District Attorney, or in case of the refusal or inability of both to act, the Attorney General, shall represent the State in filing a claim in Probate Court or a petition in a Court of competent jurisdiction, wherein the guardian of such patient and/or other person legally liable for his support may be cited to appear there and there to show cause why the State should not have judgment against him or them for the amount due for the support, maintenance, and treatment of such patient and, upon sufficient showing, judgment may be entered against such guardian or other persons for the amount found to be due the State, which judgment may be enforced as in other cases. A verified account, sworn to by the superintendent or director of the respective hospitals wherein such patient is being treated, or has been treated, as to the amount due shall be sufficient evidence to authorize the Court to render judgment therein. The Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation may also utilize the procedure contained in this section with regard to claims for reimbursement against a resident for his support and maintenance and/or against other persons liable for his support and maintenance in a residential care facility for the mentally retarded operated by the department when such liability arises pursuant to Section 61, Mentally Retarded Persons Act of 1977, as amended (Article 5547-300, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). In such cases, a verified account sworn to by the superintendent or director of the residential care facility for the mentally retarded operated by the department wherein such mentally retarded person resides or has resided as to the amount due shall be sufficient evidence to authorize the court to render judgment. The County or District Attorney representing the State shall be entitled to a commission of ten (10) per cent, of the amount collected.

Sec. 4. (a) Each professional engineer member of the Board shall be a citizen of the United States and a resident of this State for a period of 10 years prior to appointment, and shall have been engaged in the practice of the profession of engineering for at least 10 years, two years of which may be credited for graduation from an approved engineering school. Responsible charge of engineering teaching and the teaching of engineering shall be considered as the practice of professional engineering as defined by this Act for purposes of this section and for all other purposes in regard to the administration and enforcement of this Act. A person is eligible for appointment as a public member if the person and the person's spouse:

(c) If a ground for removal of a member from the Board exists, the Board's actions taken during the existence of the ground for removal are not invalid for that reason.

Organization and Meetings of the Board

Sec. 7. (a) The Board shall hold at least two (2) regular meetings each year. Special meetings shall be held at such time as the by-laws of the Board may provide. The Board shall elect or appoint annually from its own membership the following officers: a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, and a Secretary. (c) The director of the Board or his designee shall develop an intragency career ladder program, one part of which shall be the intragency posting of each job opening with the Board in a nonentry level position. The intragency posting shall be made at least ten (10) days before any public posting is made.

(d) The executive head of the Board or his designee shall develop a system of annual performance evaluations of the Board's employees based on measurable job tasks. Any merit pay authorized by the executive head shall be based on the system established under this subsection.

Powers of Board; Violations of Rules and Regulations; Actions and Proceedings

Sec. 8. (a) The Board shall have the authority and power to make and enforce all rules and regulations necessary for the performance of its duties, to establish standards of conduct and ethics for engineers in keeping with the purposes and intent of this Act or to insure strict compliance with an enforcement of this Act. The violation by any engineer of any provision of this Act or any rule or regulation of the Board shall be a sufficient reason or ground to suspend or revoke the certificate of registration of or to issue a formal or informal reprimand to such engineer. In addition to any other action, proceeding or remedy authorized by law, the Board shall have the right to institute an action in its own name against any individual person to enjoin any violation of any provision of this Act or any rule or regulation of the Board and in order for the Board to sustain such action it shall not be necessary to allege or prove, either that an adequate remedy at law does not exist, or that substantial or irreparable damage would result from the continued violation thereof. Either party to such action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause. The Board shall not be required to give any appeal bond in any cause arising under this Act. The Attorney General shall represent the Board in all actions and proceedings to enforce the provisions of this Act.

(b) The Board may promulgate rules restricting competitive bidding. The Board may not promulgate rules restricting advertising by licensees except to prohibit false, misleading, or deceptive practices by licensees. (3) relates to the size or duration of an advertisement by the person; or

(4) restricts the person's advertisement under a trade name.

(c) The Board may recognize, prepare, or administer continuing education programs for persons regulated by the Board under this Act. Participation in the programs is voluntary.

(d) If the appropriate standing committees of both houses of the legislature acting under Subsection (g), Section 5, Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), transmit to the Board statements opposing adoption of a rule under this section, the rule may not take effect, or if the rule has already taken effect, the rule is repealed effective on the date the Board receives the committee's statements.

Sec. 8a. In any proceeding for injunction as provided in Section 8 above the defendant may assert and prove as a complete defense to such action that he was deprived of certification by the Board by action or proceedings of the Board which were

(1) arbitrary or capricious

(2) contrary to legal requirements

(3) conducted without due process of law.
Receipts and Disbursements
Sec. 9. The Secretary of the Board shall receive and account for all moneys derived under the provisions of this Act, and shall pay the same weekly to the State Treasurer who shall keep such moneys in a separate fund to be known as the "Professional Engineers' Fund". Such fund shall be paid out only by warrant of the State Comptroller upon the State Treasurer, upon itemized vouchers, approved by the Chairman and attested by the Secretary of the Board. All moneys in the "Professional Engineers' Fund" are hereby specifically appropriated for the use of the Board in the administration of this Act. The Secretary of the Board shall give a surety bond to the Governor of the State of Texas in the sum of Two Thousand Five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars. The premium on said bond shall be paid out of the "Professional Engineers' Fund". The Secretary of the Board shall receive such salary as the Board shall determine in addition to the compensation and expenses provided for in this Act. The Board shall employ such clerical or other assistants as are necessary for the proper performance of its work, and may make expenditures of this fund for any purpose which in the opinion of the Board is reasonably necessary for the proper performance of its duties under this Act. Under no circumstances shall the total amount of warrants issued by the State Comptroller in payment of the expenses and compensation provided for in this Act exceed the amount of the "Professional Engineers' Fund". Provided further, that the salaries paid herein shall not be in excess of salaries paid for similar work in other departments.

Records and Reports
Sec. 10. (a) The Board shall keep a record of its proceedings and register all applications for registration, which register shall show (a) the name, age and residence of each applicant; (b) the date of the application; (c) the place of business of such applicant; (d) his educational and other qualifications; (e) whether or not an examination was required; (f) whether the application was rejected; (g) whether a certificate of registration was granted; (h) the date of the action of the Board; and (i) such other information as may be deemed necessary by the Board.

The records of the Board shall be available to the public at all times and shall be prima facie evidence of the proceedings of the Board set forth therein, and a transcript thereof, duly certified by the Secretary of the Board under seal, shall be admissible in evidence with the same force and effect as if the original was produced.

(b) On or before January 1 of each year, the Board shall file with the Governor and the presiding officer of each house of the legislature a complete and detailed written report accounting for all funds received and disbursed by the Board in the preceding year.

(c) The State Auditor shall audit the financial transactions of the Board in each fiscal biennium.

Roster of Registered Engineers
Sec. 11. A roster showing the names and places of business of all registered professional engineers shall be prepared and published by the Board each biennium at a time determined by the Board. Copies of this roster shall be furnished without charge to any engineer licensed by the Board on the written request of the engineer, placed on file with the Secretary of State, and furnished to any person upon written request who tenders a reproduction fee set by the Board.

General Requirements for Registration
Sec. 12. The following shall be considered as minimum evidence satisfactory to the Board that the applicant is qualified for registration as a professional engineer, to-wit:

(a) Graduation from an approved course in engineering of four (4) years or more in a recognized school or college approved by the Board as a satisfactory standing, and a specific record of an additional four (4) years or more of active practice in engineering work, of a character satisfactory to the Board, indicating that the applicant is competent to be placed in responsible charge of such work; or

(b) Successfully passing a written, or written and oral, examination designed to show knowledge and skill approximating that attained through graduation from an approved four (4) years engineering course; and a specific record of at least eight (8) years of active practice in engineering work of a character satisfactory to the Board and indicating that the applicant is competent to be placed in responsible charge of such work.

(c) At any time within five (5) years after this Act becomes effective the Board may accept as evidence that the applicant is qualified for registration as a professional engineer a specific record of twelve (12) years or more of active practice in engineering work of a character satisfactory to the Board and indicating that the applicant is qualified to design, operate, or to supervise construction of engineering work and has had responsible charge of important engineering work for at least five (5) years and provided applicant is not less than thirty-five (35) years of age, and was not practicing professional engineering at the time this Act becomes effective.

(d) After this Act shall have been in effect five (5) years, the Board shall issue certificates of registration only to those applicants who meet the requirements of Section 12, (a), or (b), or Section 21.

(e) Provided, that no person shall be eligible for registration as a professional engineer who is not of good character and reputation; and provided further, that any engineer licensed under this Act shall be eligible to hold any appointive engineering position with the State of Texas.
Art. 3271a

(f) In considering the qualifications of applicants, responsible charge of engineering teaching may be construed as responsible charge of engineering work. The satisfactory completion of each year of an approved course in engineering in a school or college approved by the Board as of satisfactory standing, without graduation, shall be considered as equivalent to a year of active practice. Graduation in a course other than engineering from a college or university of recognized standing shall be considered as equivalent to two (2) years of active practice; provided, however, that no applicant shall receive credit for more than four (4) years of active practice because of educational qualifications. The mere execution, as a contractor, of work designed by a professional engineer, or the supervision of the construction of such work as foreman or superintendent shall not be deemed to be active practice in engineering work.

(g) Any person having the necessary qualifications prescribed in this Act to entitle him to registration shall be eligible for such registration though he may not be practicing at the time of making his application.

Certification of Engineer-in-Training

Sec. 12a. (a) The term "Engineer-in-Training," as used in this Section, shall mean a person who complies with the requirements for education, experience and character, and has passed an examination in the fundamental engineering subjects, as provided in Sections 12 and 14 of this Act.

(b) The following shall be considered as minimum evidence that the applicant is qualified for certification as an Engineer-in-Training:

(1) A graduate of an approved engineering curriculum of four (4) years or more who has passed the Board's eight (8) hour written examination in the fundamentals of engineering shall be certified or enrolled as an Engineer-in-Training, if he is otherwise qualified; or

(2) An applicant having a high school education and a specific record of eight (8) or more years of experience or having completed an approved four (4) year curriculum in engineering technology with six (6) years of experience in engineering work of a grade and character satisfactory to the Board, who passes the Board's eight (8) hour written examination in the fundamentals of engineering shall be certified or enrolled as an Engineer-in-Training, if he is otherwise qualified.

(c) The fee for Engineer-in-Training certification or enrollment shall be established by the Board and shall accompany the application. This fee may be credited toward the fee necessary for registration.

(d) The certification or enrollment of an Engineer-in-Training shall be valid for a period of twelve (12) years.

Applications and Registration Fees

Sec. 13. Applications for registration shall be on forms prescribed and furnished by the Board, shall contain statements made under oath, showing the applicant's education and a detailed summary of his actual engineering work, and shall contain not less than five (5) references, of whom three (3) or more shall be engineers having personal knowledge of his engineering experience.

The Board shall establish reasonable and necessary fees for the administration of this Act in amounts not to exceed:

6. Roster of engineers 10
7. Examination fee 75

The Board shall not maintain unnecessary fund balances, and fee amounts shall be set in accordance with this requirement.

Examinations

Sec. 14. (a) When oral or written examinations are required, they shall be held at such time and place as the Board shall determine. The scope of the examinations and the methods of procedure shall be prescribed by the Board with special reference to the applicant's ability to design and supervise engineering works, which shall insure the safety of life, health, and property. Examinations shall be given for the purpose of determining the qualifications of applicants for registration in professional engineering. A candidate failing on examination may apply for re-examination at the expiration of six (6) months and will be re-examined without payment of additional fees. Re-examination may be granted at any time upon payment of a fee to be determined by the Board.

(b) Within 30 days after the day on which a licensing examination is administered under this Act, the Board shall notify each examinee of the results of the examination. However, if an examination is graded or reviewed by a national testing service, the Board shall notify examinees of the results of the examination within two weeks after the day that the Board receives the results from the testing service. If the notice of the examination results will be delayed for longer than 90 days after the examination date, the Board shall notify the examinee of the reason for the delay before the 90th day.

(c) If requested in writing by a person who fails the licensing examination administered under this Act, the Board shall furnish the person with an analysis of the person's performance on the examination.
(d) The Board may administer written examinations for record purposes as a convenience to the public and may charge an appropriate fee.

Certificates, Seals

Sec. 15. The Board shall issue a certificate of registration upon payment of registration fee as provided for in this Act, to any applicant, who, in the opinion of the Board, has satisfactorily met all the requirements of this Act. In case of a registered engineer, the certificate shall authorize the practice of professional engineering. Certificates of registration shall show the full name of the registrant, shall have a serial number, and shall be signed by the Chairman and the Secretary of the Board under seal of the Board. The issuance of a certificate of registration by this Board shall be evidence that the person named therein is entitled to all rights and privileges of a registered professional engineer, while the said certificate remains unrenewed or unexpired.

Each registrant hereunder shall upon registration obtain a seal of the design authorized by the Board, bearing the registrant’s name and the legend “Registered Professional Engineer.” Plans, specifications, plats, and reports issued by a registrant shall be stamped with the said seal when filed with public authorities, during the life of the registrant’s certificate, but it shall be unlawful for any one to stamp or seal any documents with said seal after the certificate of the registrant named thereon has expired or has been revoked, unless said certificate shall have been renewed or reissued.

Expirations and Renewals

Sec. 16. (a) It shall be the duty of the Board to notify every person registered under this Act of the date of the expiration of his certificate and the amount of the fee that shall be required for its renewal for one year; such notice shall be mailed at least one month in advance of the date of the expiration of said certificate.

(b) A person may renew an unexpired license by paying to the Board before the expiration date of the license the required renewal fee.

(c) If a person’s license has been expired for not longer than 90 days, the person may renew the license by paying to the Board the required renewal fee and a fee that is one-half of the application fee for the license.

(d) If a person’s license has been expired for longer than 90 days but less than two years, the person may renew the license by paying to the Board all unpaid renewal fees and a fee that is equal to the application fee for the license.

(e) If a person’s license has been expired for two years or longer, the person may not renew the license. The person may obtain a new license by submitting to an examination to be determined by the Board and complying with the requirements and procedures for obtaining an original license.

Expiration Dates of Certificates of Registration; Proration of Fees

Sec. 16.1. The board by rule may adopt a system under which certificates of registration expire on various dates during the year, and the dates for reinstatement shall be adjusted accordingly. For the year in which the expiration date is changed, certificate renewal fees payable on December 31 shall be prorated on a monthly basis so that each certificate holder shall pay only that portion of the certificate renewal fee which is allocable to the number of months during which the certificate is valid. On renewal of the certificate on the new expiration date, the total certificate renewal fee is payable.

Firms, Partnerships, Corporations and Joint Stock Associations

Sec. 17. A firm, or a co-partnership, or a corporation, or a joint stock association may engage in the practice of professional engineering in this State, provided such practice is carried on by only professional engineers registered in this State.

Public Work

Sec. 19. After the first day of January, 1938, it shall be unlawful for this State, or for any of its political subdivisions, for any county, city, or town, to engage in the construction of any public work involving professional engineering, where public health, public welfare or public safety is involved, unless the engineering plans and specifications and estimates have been prepared by, and the engineering supervision of a registered professional engineer, provided, that nothing in this Act shall be held to apply to any public work wherein the contemplated expenditure for the completed project does not exceed Three Thousand ($3,000.00) Dollars. Provided, that this Act shall not apply to any road maintenance or betterment work undertaken by the County Commissioners' Court.

Reciprocity

Sec. 21. The Board may, upon application therefor, and the payment of a fee, issue a certificate of registration as a professional engineer to any person who holds a certificate of qualification or registration issued to him by proper authority of the National Council of State Boards of Engineering Examiners, or of the National Bureau of Engineering Registration, or of any state or territory or possession of the United States, or any country provided that the requirements for the registration of professional engineers under which said certificate of qualification or registration was issued do not conflict with the provisions of this Act and are of a standard not lower than that specified in Section 12 of this Act. The Board may waive any license requirement for an applicant with a valid license from another state having license requirements substantially equivalent to those of this State.

Violations and Penalties

Sec. 23. On or after the first day of January, 1983, any person who shall practice, or offer to practice, the profession of engineering in this State without being registered or exempted in accordance with the provisions of this Act, or any person presenting or attempting to use as his own the certificate of registration or the seal of another, or any person who shall give any false or forged evidence of any kind to the Board or to any member thereof in obtaining a certificate of registration, or any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this Act, be fined not less than One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars nor more than Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, or be confined in jail for a period of not exceeding three (3) months, or both. Art. 3712a. Interpreters for Deaf Persons

(a) In all civil cases or in the taking of depositions, where a party or a witness is a deaf person, he shall have the proceedings of the trial interpreted to him in any language that he can understand, including but not limited to sign language, by an interpreter appointed by the court, whose qualifications have been approved by the State Commission for the Deaf. In this Act, "deaf person" means a person who has a hearing impairment, regardless of whether the person also has a speech impairment, that inhibits the person's comprehension of the proceedings or communication with others.

(b) In any case where an interpreter is required to be appointed by the court under this Act, the court shall not commence proceedings until the appointed interpreter is in court in a position not exceeding 10 feet from and in full view of the deaf person.

(c) The interpreter appointed under the terms of this Act shall be required to take an oath that he will make a true interpretation to the deaf person of all the proceedings of the case in a language that he understands; and that he will repeat the deaf person's answer to questions to counsel, court, or jury, in the English language, in his best skill and judgment. (d) Interpreters appointed under this Act shall be paid a reasonable fee determined by the court after considering the recommended fees of the State Commission for the Deaf. When travel of the interpreter is involved all the actual expenses of travel, lodging, and meals incurred by the interpreter pertaining to the case he is appointed to serve shall be paid at the same rate applicable to state employees. The fee and expenses shall be paid from the general fund of the county in which the case was instituted.

(e) On the court's motion or the motion of a party, the court may order testimony of a deaf witness and the interpretation of that testimony by the interpreter visually, electronically recorded for use in verification of the transcription of the reporter's notes. The clerk of the court shall include the recording in the appellate record if requested by a party.

Any written instrument which is permitted or required by law to be made, filed, kept or recorded (including but not limited to certificate, written statement, contract, deed, conveyance, lease, concession, covenant, grant, record, return, report or recorded event) by an officer or clerk of the United States or of another state or nation or of any governmental subdivision of any of the foregoing, or by his deputy or employee; or by any Notary Public of a foreign country in a protocol or similar book in the performance of the functions of his office, shall, so far as relevant, be admitted in the courts of this State as evidence of the matter stated therein, subject to the provisions in Section 3.

Such writing shall be admissible only if the party offering it has delivered a copy thereof, or so much of it as may relate to the controversy, to the adverse party a reasonable time before trial, unless in the opinion of the trial court the adverse party has not been unfairly surprised by the failure to deliver such copy.

Authentication of Copy

Sec. 4. Such writings or electronic records may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy or electronic duplication attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by his deputy. Except in the case of a copy of an official writing or official electronic recording from a public office of this State or a subdivision thereof, the attestation shall be accompanied with a certificate that the attesting officer has the legal custody of such writing. If the office in which the record is kept is within the United States or within a territory or insular possession subject to the dominion of the United States, the certificate may be made by a judge of a court of record of the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of his office. If the office in which the record is kept is in a foreign state or country, the certificate may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent or by any officer in the foreign service of the United States, or by any officer of a United States military government, stationed in the foreign state or country in which the record is kept, and authenticated by the seal of his office.

Where any business, as that term is defined in Chapter 471 of the General Laws of Texas 1951, in the regular course of business has kept any memorandum of or made any record of an act, event or condition, and has caused the same to be copied or reproduced by any photographic, photostatic, microfilm or other process which accurately reproduces or forms a durable medium for so reproducing the original, such reproduction shall be admissible in evidence under the provisions of Section 3 of this Article.

Sec. 3. Such photograph, photostat, microfilm or other reproduction shall be, so far as relevant, admissible in any judicial or administrative proceeding in this state as evidence of the matters stated therein, in any instance in which the original memorandum, record, document, entry or report would be admitted under the provisions of Chapter 471 of the General Laws of Texas 1951.

In the case of business records the reproduction may be proved to be correct by the testimony of the entrant, custodian or other qualified witness.

Sec. 4. The existence or non-existence of the original shall not affect the admissibility of the reproduction. An enlargement or facsimile of such reproduction is likewise admissible in evidence if the original reproduction is in existence and available for inspection under the direction of the court. Repeal

By order of the Texas Supreme Court dated November 23, 1982, effective September 1, 1983, adopting the Texas Rules of Evidence, this article is deemed to be repealed insofar as it relates to civil actions by the Rules of Practice Act, Acts 1929, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1, classified as art. 1731a, § 1.

Art. 3737g. Advance Payment to Tort Claimants; Introduction of Evidence

Purpose of Act

Sec. 1. The purpose of this Act is to promote the making of advance payments for economic loss to claimants without permitting the introduction of evidence of advance payments on the issue of liability or damages during subsequent litigation, but permitting the allowance of advance payments as a credit against any sum judicially established as a claimant’s total damages. The making of periodic payments to claimants for medical expenses, wages lost, and property damaged, often without taking any form of release, will avoid delays in and promote payments for economic loss to persons in need.

“Advance Payment” Defined

Sec. 2. In this Act, “advance payment” includes but is not limited to, any partial payment or payments made by any person, corporation, or insurer to another which is predicated on possible tort liability for medical, surgical, hospital, or rehabilitation services, facilities, or equipment; loss of earnings; out-of-pocket expenses; bodily injury; death; or property damage, loss, or destruction.

Inadmissibility of Evidence of Advance Payment at Trial

Sec. 3. In any civil action in which a party or someone on his behalf, such as his insurer, has made an advance payment prior to trial, any evidence of or concerning the advance payment shall be inadmissible at the trial on liability or damages in any action brought by the claimant, his survivor, or his personal representative to recover damages for personal injuries or related damages, for wrongful death of another, or for property damage or destruction.

Admissibility of Evidence of Advance Payment after Verdict or Decision: Right to Jury Trial Undenied

Sec. 4. If an action results in a jury verdict or decision of the court for damages in favor of a party, the party against whom the verdict or decision is entered may introduce evidence of advance payments after the verdict or decision and before final judgment, and the court shall then reduce the amount awarded to the claimant by the amount of the advance payment proved to have been made prior to trial. Such advance payments shall not be permitted as a reduction of the amount awarded unless there is evidence at the trial on liability that the party to whom the advance payments were made suffered loss as described in Section 2 herein, equal to or exceeding the amount of such advance payments. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to deny to any party his constitutional right to trial by jury on the amount of the credit at a time subsequent to the trial on liability and damages.

Application of Act

Sec. 5. This Act applies to any action filed after the effective date of this Act, regardless of the site of the accident, location of property, or residence of the parties.

Statute of Limitations Tolled

Sec. 6. The making of an advance payment tolls the running of the statute of limitations until the last payment is made unless the person making the advance payment notifies the recipient in writing at the time of each payment that the applicable statute of limitations is not tolled.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 962, ch. 364, eff. June 19, 1975.]

Repeal

By order of the Texas Supreme Court dated November 23, 1982, effective September 1, 1983, adopting the Texas Rules of Evidence, this article is deemed to be repealed insofar as it relates to civil actions by the Rules of Practice Act, Acts 1929, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1, classified as art. 1731a, § 1.

Art. 3737h. Necessity of Services and Reasonableness of Charges

Sec. 1. (a) In a civil action other than an action on sworn account, the amount charged for services by a person or institution, when supported by affidavit that the charges reflected in the affidavit were reasonable at the time and place that the services were rendered and that the services were necessary, is sufficient evidence to support a finding of fact by judge or jury that the services were necessary or that the amount charged was reasonable, or both. The affidavit shall be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths, shall be made by a person who rendered the services or who is in charge of records that show the services rendered and the charges made, and shall include an itemized statement of the services and the charges.

(b) As a condition precedent to applicability of Subsection (a) of this Section 1, the party asserting such applicability, or such party’s attorney of record, shall file the affidavit provided for in said Subsection (a) with the clerk of the court and shall serve a copy thereof on each other party to the cause, or such other party's attorney of record, at least 14 days prior to the day on which presentation of evidence at trial of the cause commences. As a condition precedent to controv­ersting a claim covered by an affidavit so filed and served, any party intending to controvert all or part of any such claim shall, within 10 days after receipt of such party's copy of such affidavit, or with leave of court first had and obtained at any time prior to commencement of evidence at trial of the cause, file a counter-affidavit with the clerk of the court and serve a copy thereof on each other party to the cause, or such other party's attorney of record. The counter-affidavit shall give reasonable notice of the basis upon which the party filing it intends at trial to controvert all or part of the claim covered by the initial affidavit. The counter-affidavit shall be taken before a person authorized to administer oaths and may be made upon information and belief by the party filing it, or such party's attorney of record. When a counter-affidavit is so filed and served, then Subsection (a) of this Section 1 shall thereafter have no force or effect at the trial of the cause.

Sec. 2. This Act does not apply to civil actions in which judgment was rendered prior to the effective date of this Act, nor to attorney fees charged in the trial of the cause or preparation thereof.

Sec. 5. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as repealing, or affecting the provisions of, Article 3892 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended by the Acts of the Forty-first Legislature, and otherwise known as Section 4 of Chapter 20 of the Acts of the Fourth Called Session of said Legislature, appearing at page 90 of said Acts, nor as increasing or diminishing the salaries now authorized by law to be paid to any such officer, his deputies, assistants, and employees, nor as repealing, altering or affecting any of the provisions of Chapter 98 of the Acts of the Regular Session of the Forty-third Legislature, otherwise known as House Bill No. 875.

Officers' Salary Fund in Counties of Less Than 190,000

Sec. 4. In all counties of this State containing a population of less than one hundred and ninety thousand (190,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census wherein the county or precinct officers are compensated on a salary basis under the provisions of this Act, there shall be created a fund to be known as the "Officers' Salary Fund of _______ County, Texas." Such fund shall be kept separate and apart from all other county funds, and shall be held and disbursed for the purpose of paying the salaries of officers and the salaries of deputies, assistants and clerks of officers who are drawing a salary from said fund under the provisions of this Act, and to pay the authorized expenses of their offices. Before any such deduction is made, the Commissioners' Court shall furnish such officer with an itemized statement of the uncollected fees with which his account is to be charged, and shall notify such officer of the time and place for a hearing on same, to determine whether such officer is responsible for any negligence, which time for hearing shall be at least ten days subsequent to the date of notice. Unless an officer is charged by law with the responsibility of collecting fees, the Commissioners' Court shall not in any event make any deductions from the authorized salary of such officer.

The quarterly payment of such apportionment of such appropriation shall be made on warrants drawn by the State Comptroller upon the State Treasury payable to the county treasurer of the county in whose favor the apportionment is made and said warrants shall be registered by the Comptroller and the Treasurer and shall be mailed by the Comptroller to the Treasurer of the county.

(b) No officer receiving a salary shall hereafter receive any ex officio compensation; provided, however, the Commissioners' Court shall transfer from the General Fund of the county to the Officers' Salary Fund or funds of such county such funds as may be necessary to pay the salaries and other claims chargeable against the same when the monies deposited therein are insufficient to meet the claims payable therefrom.

(c) Any monies remaining in the Officers' Salary Fund or funds of any county at the end of any fiscal year after all salaries and authorized expenses incurred against said fund for said year shall have been paid may be, by order of the Commissioners' Court, transferred to the credit of the General Fund of the county.

drawn therefor and the same shall be paid; but, if there is no such appropriation, or if such appropriation be so exhausted that it is not sufficient to pay such deficiency claim, then a deficiency warrant shall issue therefor; and such claim shall remain unpaid until provision be made therefor at some session of the Legislature thereafter. The provisions of this article shall not apply to fees and dues for which the State may be liable under the general

Art. 4366a. Money Received Under Federal Flood Control Law; Disposition

Sec. 1. The Comptroller of Public Accounts of this state is hereby authorized to receive and receipt for all funds due or payable, or hereafter to become due or payable, by virtue of the Act of Congress of August 18, 1941, Chapter 377, Section 7, 55 Stat. 650, 38 U.S.C.A., Section 701a-3. All of such funds shall be placed in a separate account entitled "Flood Area School and Road Fund" to the credit of the Comptroller of Public Accounts and shall never become a part of the general funds of the state. The Comptroller shall add the school district tax rate and the road tax rate together and the school district shall be entitled to receive such a percentage of the "Flood Area School and Road Fund" as their tax rate bears to the sum of the school tax rate and the road tax rate; and the county, or other road taxing entity, shall be entitled to receive its proportionate part of such fund based upon the proportion which its tax rate bears to the sum of the two tax rates. If, during any school year, there shall be on hand in said "Flood Area School and Road Fund" any moneys which may be distributable to any school district, the Comptroller of Public Accounts may in his discretion, upon application of such school district or districts, make a distribution of such funds upon any dates other than those above fixed, as may be determined by him.

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Comptroller" means the comptroller of public accounts.

(2) "Fund" means the federal resource receipts distribution fund.

(3) "Eligible county" means a county in which is located federal public land for which the state receives a portion of the money from sales, bonuses, royalties, or rentals under Section 191 or Section 355, Title 30, United States Code.

Federal Resource Receipts Distribution Fund

Sec. 2. (a) The federal resource receipts distribution fund is created in the State Treasury.

(b) Money received by the state under Section 191 or Section 355, Title 30, United States Code, shall be deposited in the fund.

(c) Money in the fund shall be distributed by the comptroller to each eligible county in the amount, in the manner, and for the purposes provided by federal law and this Act.

Amount of Distribution

Sec. 3. An eligible county is entitled to receive from the fund all of the money paid to the state and deposited in the fund from all sales, bonuses, royalties, and rentals received from federal public land located in that county.

Method of Distribution

Sec. 4. (a) Not later than the 10th day after the day it receives a payment from the comptroller, a county shall distribute the payment in accordance with this section.

(b) Of the comptroller's payment to the county:

(1) 50 percent of the payment is available for distribution to the independent school districts located in whole or part in the county with each school district receiving a proportionate share in accordance with Subsection (c) of this section;

(2) 15 percent of the payment is available for distribution to the incorporated cities located in whole or part in the county with each city receiving a proportionate share in accordance with Subsection (d) of this section; and

(c) The proportionate share of an independent school district located in whole or part in the county is determined by multiplying the total amount of the payment available for the county's distribution to independent school districts by the ratio that the average daily attendance for students who reside in the county and who attend that school district bears to the average daily attendance for all students who reside in the county and who attend any independent school district. However, if there are fewer than 10 independent school districts located in whole or part in the county and if an independent school district would receive under this formula less than 10 percent of the total payment available for distribution to independent school districts, the school district's share shall be increased to 10 percent of the total payment and the shares of the school districts that would receive more than 10 percent under the formula shall be reduced proportionately, but not to an amount less than 10 percent of the total payment. Each independent school district shall develop a reasonable method for determining the average daily attendance for students who reside in the county and who attend the school district.

(d) The proportionate share of a city located in whole or part in the county is determined by multiplying the total payment available for the county's distribution to cities by the ratio that the number of residents of that city who live in the county bears to the total number of residents of all cities who live in the county. The number of residents shall be determined according to the most recent federal census.

Except where a single state agency is otherwise designated or established pursuant to any other law of this state, it shall be the duty of the Governor of the State of Texas or any state agency designated by the governor for such purpose to coordinate the actions of any city, county, school district, hospital district or any other political subdivision of the county participating in any grant program established pursuant to an Act of Congress or administrative ruling pursuant thereto. Such coordination shall be established under such rules and regulations as the governor or the state agency designated for such purpose shall promulgate. Such rules and regulations shall be approved by the Attorney General of Texas and filed with the secretary of state.

The amount of the civil penalty may not be more than $200 for each day the license was to have been suspended. Sec. 4. (a) Any local government may contract or agree with one or more local governments to perform governmental functions and services under terms of this Act.

(b) The agreements or contracts may be for the purpose of studying the feasibility of contractual performance of any governmental functions or services or may be for the performance of any governmental functions or services which all parties to the contract are legally authorized to perform, provided such contracts or agreements shall be duly authorized by the governing body of each party to the contract or agreement. An interlocal contract or agreement shall state the purpose, terms, rights, objectives, duties, and responsibilities of the contracting parties. Interlocal contracts and agreements may be renewed annually and shall specify that the party or parties paying for the performance of governmental functions or services shall make payments therefor from current revenues available to the paying party.

(c) The authority of a political subdivision to perform a contractual service includes the authority to apply the rules, regulations, and ordinances of either the subdivision receiving the service or of the subdivision providing the service, whichever standard may be agreed upon by the contracting political subdivisions.

(d) The contracting parties to any interlocal contract or agreement shall have full authority to create an administrative agency or designate an existing political subdivision for the supervision of the performance of an interlocal contract or agreement and any administrative agency so created or political subdivision so designated shall have the authority to employ personnel and engage in other administrative activities and provide other administrative services necessary to execute the terms of any interlocal contract or agreement. appoint a jailer to supervise the maintenance and operation of the jail, or that each police chief or sheriff may continue the supervision and responsi-subdivision from a regional jail, the appropriate law enforcement official in the originating political subdivision shall assume supervision and responsibility for the prisoner.

(5) While a prisoner is incarcerated in a regional jail facility, a sheriff or police chief not assigned to supervise the regional jail is not liable for the es-

(c) Except as provided in Subsection (d) of this section, any contract entered into under this section may contain any terms and extend for any period of time to which the parties can agree, and may provide that it will continue in effect until bonds specibonds are paid.

(d) No tax revenues shall be pledged to the payment of amounts agreed to be paid under any contract entered into under this section.

Section 4 of the 1975 amendatory act provided:
"Any law in conflict with this Act is hereby repealed to the extent of the conflict."

Short Title
Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Cultural Basin Act of 1973.

Findings
Sec. 2. (a) The Legislature of the State of Texas finds that there is an immediate state interest in an efficient and comprehensive system of local, regional, basinwide, and statewide planning, goal-setting, and decision-making processes.

(b) The legislature finds that the problems and opportunities of the state are not accurately reflected by statewide averages. The diversity of the state and its people, their general well-being, and their quality of life varies tremendously.

(c) The legislature finds a need to form an alliance among local citizens and representatives of federal, state, and local government to focus energies, expertise, and funds into an effective mechanism for solving problems and developing opportunities with the appropriate discretion to meet the diverse needs of all the residents of Texas.

(d) The legislature finds that the efforts by local, state, and federal governments remain fragmented and that current efforts must be orchestrated and redirected to insure that the goals and priority-setting processes are attuned to the needs of local entities and residents of the state.

Statement of Purpose
Sec. 3. It is the purpose of this Act to improve the quality of life for the residents of Texas by stimulating orderly economic and socially desirable development and conservation and utilization of the state's human and natural resources. The administrative structure provided by this Act is a partnership of local citizens, local governments, state agencies, and federal agencies and creates a vehicle of change broad enough to plan and operate interagency and intergovernmental programs and flexible enough to respond to locally determined needs.

Designation of Cultural Basins
Sec. 4. (a) The Governor of Texas is instructed to designate appropriate cultural basins within the State of Texas where

(1) there is a commonality within a geographic area, culturally, historically, and economically;

(2) areas within a county or counties within the proposed area are contiguous; and

(3) grouping of state planning regions can be utilized as building blocks for the formation of such cultural basins.

(b) The governor shall designate at least four cultural basins; however, no more than seven shall be designated to insure economies of scale. Each of three major metropolitan areas should be in separate commissions.

Formation of Commissions
Sec. 5. A commission shall be appointed in each cultural basin that is designated by the governor. Each commission shall hold quarterly meetings. Additional meetings may be called by a majority of its members or by the chairman at any time.

Membership of Commissions
Sec. 6. The membership of each cultural basin commission shall be appointed by the governor for a term of two years. Cultural basin commission membership shall consist of five local citizens, the chairman or president of each regional council of government within the particular cultural basin, six state agency heads who shall coordinate activities of the commission with all agencies of state government, and representatives of five federal agencies who shall coordinate activities of the commission with all agencies of the federal government.

Functions of the Commission
Sec. 7. (a) In carrying out the purposes of this Act, each cultural basin commission shall have the following functions with respect to its cultural basin:

(1) to foster surveys and studies to provide data required for the preparation of specific plans and programs for the development of such cultural basins;

(2) to advise and assist the governor in the coordination of regional councils of governments, in order to promote maximum benefits from the expenditure of federal, state, and local funds;
(3) to promote increased private investment in such cultural basins;

(4) to prepare legislative and other recommendations with respect to both short-range and long-range programs and projects;

(5) to develop, on a continuing basis, comprehensive and coordinated plans and programs and establish priorities thereunder, giving due consideration to other federal, state, regional, and local planning in the cultural basin;

(6) to conduct and sponsor investigations; research, and studies including an inventory and analysis of the resources of the cultural basin, and in cooperation with federal, state, regional, and local agencies, sponsor demonstration projects designed to foster cultural basin productivity and growth;

(7) to review and study, in cooperation with the agency involved, federal, state, regional, and local public and private programs and, where appropriate, recommend modifications or additions which will increase their effectiveness in the cultural basin;

(8) to formulate and recommend interstate compacts and other forms of interstate cooperation;

(9) to formulate and recommend international agreements between the United States and Mexico where such agreements have significant impact on the economy or delivery of services to the people of Texas;

(10) to provide a forum for consideration of problems of the cultural basins and proposed solutions and establish and utilize, as appropriate, citizens and special advisory councils and public conferences.

(b) The governor as the commission's chairman shall present such plans and proposals of the commission for review by state agencies primarily interested in such plans and proposals and then, together with the recommendations of such agencies, make selected recommendations to the legislature for such actions as he may deem desirable.

(c) The governor as the commission's chairman shall provide effective and continuing liaison between the federal government, state agencies, and all cultural basin commissions.

(d) Each state agency shall, consonant with law and within the limits of available funds, cooperate with such commissions as may be established in order to assist them in carrying out their functions under this section.

(e) Each commission may, from time to time, make additional recommendations to the legislature and to appropriate local officials, with respect to:

(1) the expenditure of funds by federal, state, and local departments and agencies in its cultural basin in the fields of natural resources, agriculture, education, training, health and welfare, transportation, recreation, public works, and other fields related to the purposes of this Act; and

(2) such additional state legislation or administrative actions as the commission deems necessary to further the purpose of this Act.

(f) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to give any cultural basin the power of approval or disapproval of funding to any county, city or regional council of government organization.

Functions of Commission Members

Sec. 8. (a) In addition to the functions of the commission as stated in Section 7 of this Act, the commission members shall perform the following duties:

(1) Local officials and citizens are charged with the responsibility of establishing local goals and priorities, basestock, activities, and managing management and policy decisions.

(2) Regional councils of government chairmen and presidents shall coordinate the efforts, programs, goals, and projects of regional councils of governments in the economic growth and development of the cultural basins involved.

(3) State and federal agency representatives are charged with the responsibility of designing programs and allocating funds necessary to implement the goals set by the cultural basin commission. State and federal agencies shall coordinate existing programs and design new state and federal programs through direct contact and communications between local, regional, state, and federal agency representatives on cultural basin commissions.

(b) Whenever possible, existing groups, such as those proposed by The Texas Industrial Commissions-Texas Office of Economic Opportunity Selective Economic Development Plan or the local human resources councils shall be used in local goal-setting. Information, studies, and proposed solutions to problems from citizen commissions, such as the Rural Development Commission, shall be utilized.

Technical and Planning Assistance

Sec. 9. The governor is instructed to provide to the several commissions technical assistance and staff support to aid the commissions in carrying out their functions under this Act and to develop recommendations and programs. Such assistance shall include studies and plans evaluating the needs of, and developing potentialities for, economic growth of such cultural basins, and research on improving the conservation and utilization of the human and natural resources of the cultural basins. Such assistance may be provided by the governor through members of his staff, through the payment of funds authorized for this section to other departments or agencies of state government, through the employment of private individuals, partnerships, firms, corporations, or suitable institutions and contracts entered into for such purposes, or through grants to the commission.
Art. 4413(32d) HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS

Administrative Allocation

Sec. 10. (a) For budgetary purposes, cultural basin commissions shall be attached to and considered part of the governor's office, with necessary expenses of operations to be financed by line-item appropriations made by the legislature to the governor's office for that purpose.

(b) The members of the commission are entitled to receive their actual travel and other necessary expenses in the performance of their duties when not reimbursed from other sources.

c) The commission may accept gifts and grants of money from any individual, group, association, corporation, or the federal government. Such funds received shall be deposited in the state treasury to be released as appropriated by the legislature in accordance with the specific purpose for which given and under conditions that may be imposed by the donor and in accordance with the annual report or other recommendations of cultural basin commissions.

Development Grant

Sec. 11. (a) The legislature shall appropriate a development grant fund. Upon receipt of the cultural basin commission's report as stated in Subsection (b) of Section 7, the legislature may release appropriate development grant funds in block grant form to be used by the particular cultural basin commission in accordance with its annual report, containing recommendations to the legislature for the development of projects, programs, and studies.

(b) In developing recommendations for programs and projects for cultural basins, and in establishing within those recommendations funding and other appropriate actions and a priority ranking for such programs and projects, the governor shall encourage each commission and reviewing state agency to follow procedures that will insure consideration of the following factors:

1. the relationship of the project or projects to overall cultural basin development including its location in an area determined to have a significant potential for growth;

2. the population and area to be served by the project or projects including the relative per capita income and the unemployment rates in the area;

3. the relative financial resources available to the state or political subdivision or instrumentalities thereof which seek to undertake the project;

4. the importance of the project or projects in relation to other projects or classes of projects which may be in competition for the same funds;

5. the prospects that the project, on a continuing rather than a temporary basis, will improve the opportunities for employment, the average level of income, or the economic and social development of the area served by the project; and

6. possible environmental impact.

A Pilot Project

Sec. 12. The Greater South Texas Cultural Basin shall be designated by the governor as the first cultural basin. The experience of the Greater South Texas Cultural Basin Commission shall aid in the formulation and development of additional cultural basin commissions statewide.

Annual Report

Sec. 13. On or before December 1 of each year, each cultural basin commission shall make in writing a complete and detailed report of its activities and recommendations, consistent with Subsection (b) of Section 7 and Subsections (a) and (b) of Section 11, to the governor and to the presiding officer of each house of the legislature.

Severability Clause

Sec. 14. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

A Notwithstanding Subsections (a) and (d) of this section, if the commission determines that protective clothing containing cotton provides substantially equal protection, the commission shall permit the state, county, and municipal agencies to use cotton protective clothing that the commission has determined to be acceptable instead of the protective clothing prescribed by the National Fire Protection Association.

(b) If any person fails to apply for a license required hereunder or fails to pay a fee within the time specified, such person shall pay as a penalty 50% of the amount of the fee for each thirty days of default.

(c) The commission may prorate the fee for a representative's license so that the representative's license and the license of the manufacturer or distributor by whom the representative is employed expire on the same day.

(d) The Commission may refund, from funds appropriated to the Commission for that purpose, any fees collected under this Act that are not due or that exceed the amount due.

Denial, Revocation or Suspension of License

Sec. 4.06. (a) The Commission may deny an application for a license or revoke or suspend an outstanding license, for any of the following reasons:

(1) Proof of unfitness of applicant or licensee under standards set out in this Act or in Commission rules.

(2) Material misrepresentation in any application or other information filed under this Act or Commission rules.

(3) Willful failure to comply with this Act or any rule promulgated by the Commission hereunder.

(4) Failure to maintain the qualifications for a license.

(5) Willfully defrauding any retail buyer to the buyer's damage.

(6) Willful violation of any law relating to the sale, distribution, financing, or insuring of new motor vehicles.

(7) Any act or omission by an officer, director, partner, trustee, or other person acting in a representative capacity for a licensee which act or omission would be cause for denying, revoking, or suspending a license to an individual licensee.

(8) Repeated failure to fulfill written agreements between the licensee and retail buyers of new motor vehicles.

(b) The revocation of a license previously held under this Act may be grounds for denying a subsequent application for a license.

(c) The Commission may deny a dealer application to establish a dealership if the same line-make of new motor vehicle is then represented in the county in which the proposed dealership site is located, or in an area within 25 miles of the proposed dealership site, by a dealer who is in compliance with his franchise agreement with the manufacturer or distributor, is adequately representing the manufacturer or distributor in the sale and service of its new motor vehicles, and good cause is shown why an additional dealer license is not in the public interest, provided that the Commission shall consider the desirability of a competitive marketplace in all determinations made pursuant to this subsection.

(d) The revocation or suspension of a manufacturer or distributor license may be limited to one or more municipalities or counties or any other defined area, or may be revoked or suspended in a defined area only as to certain aspects of its business, or as to a specified dealer or dealers.

(e) No license shall be denied, revoked, or suspended except on order of the Commission after a hearing and the evidence adduced is considered by the Commission at the hearing or by a hearing report. The Commission may inspect the books and records of a licensee in connection with a hearing called or proposed.

Required Notice to Buyers

Sec. 4.07. (a) A dealer licensed under this Act shall provide notice of the complaint procedures provided by Section 3.04(b) of this Act to each person to whom the dealer sells a new motor vehicle.

(b) The Commission may require its approval of the contents of notices required by Subsection (a) of this section or may prescribe the contents of required notices. The Commission shall prepare, publish, and distribute information concerning an owner's rights under Section 6.07 of this Act, and the retail seller of any new motor vehicle shall conspicuously post a copy of the information in the area where its customers usually make payment for repairs.

(c) Failure to give the notice required by Subsections (a) and (b) of this section is a ground for suspension or revocation of a dealer's license.

SUBCHAPTER E. PROHIBITIONS

Dealers

Sec. 5.01. It shall be unlawful for any dealer to:

(1) Require a retail purchaser of a new motor vehicle as a condition of sale and delivery thereof to purchase special features, equipment, parts, or accessories not ordered or desired by the purchaser, provided such features, equipment, parts, or accessories are not already installed on the new motor vehicle when received by the dealer.

(2) Use false, deceptive, or misleading advertising, in connection with any of the business of a dealer, as defined in Section 17.12 of the Business and Commerce Code, as amended.

(3) Fail to perform the obligations placed on the selling dealer in connection with the delivery and preparation of a new motor vehicle for retail sale as provided in the manufacturer's preparation and delivery agreements on file with the Commission and applicable to such vehicle.

(4) Fail to perform the obligations placed on the dealer in connection with the manufacturer's warranty agreements on file with the Commission.
(5) Operate as a dealer without a currently valid license from the Commission or otherwise violate this Act or rules promulgated by the Commission hereunder.

Manufacturers; Distributors; Representatives

Sec. 5.02. It shall be unlawful for any manufacturer, distributor or representative to:

(1) Require or attempt to require any dealer to order, accept delivery of or pay anything of value, directly or indirectly, for any motor vehicle, appliance, part, accessory or any other commodity unless voluntarily ordered or contracted for by such dealer.

(2) Refuse or fail to deliver in reasonable quantities and within a reasonable time after receipt of an order to a dealer having a franchise agreement for the retail sale of any motor vehicles sold or distributed by such manufacturer, distributor, or representative, any new motor vehicle or parts or accessories to new motor vehicles as are covered by such franchise if such vehicle, parts or accessories are publicly advertised as being available for delivery or are actually being delivered; provided, however, this provision is not violated if such failure is caused by acts of God, work stoppage or delays due to strikes or labor disputes, freight embargoes or other causes beyond the control of the manufacturer, distributor, or representative.

(3) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, terminate or refuse to continue any franchise with a dealer unless (A) the dealer and the Commission have received written notice sixty days before the effective date thereof setting forth the specific grounds for termination or noncontinuance and (B) if the dealer files a protest with the Commission, it is established by a preponderance of evidence at a hearing called by the Commission that there is good cause for the termination or noncontinuance. The Commission shall consider all the existing circumstances in determining good cause, including without limitation the dealer's sales in relation to the market, the dealer's investment and obligations, injury to public welfare, adequacy of service facilities, equipment, parts and personnel of the dealer and other dealers of new motor vehicles of the same line-make, whether warranties are being honored, and compliance with the franchise agreement. Good cause shall not be shown solely by a desire for further market penetration. If a franchise is terminated or not continued, another franchise in the same line-make will be established within a reasonable time unless it is shown to the Commission that the community or trade area cannot reasonably support such a dealership. If this showing is made, no dealer license shall be thereafter issued in the same area unless a change in circumstances is shown.

(4) Use any false, deceptive or misleading advertising, as defined in Section 17.12 of the Business and Commerce Code, as amended.

(5) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, prevent any dealer from changing the capital structure of his dealership or the means by or through which he finances the operation thereof, provided that the dealer meets any reasonable capital requirements agreed to by contract of the parties.

(6) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, fail to give effect to or attempt to prevent any sale or transfer of a dealer, dealership or franchise or interest therein or management thereof unless it is shown to the Commission after hearing that the result of such sale or transfer will be detrimental to the public or the representation of the manufacturer or distributor.

(7) Require or attempt to require that a dealer assign to or act as an agent for any manufacturer, distributor or representative in the securing of promissory notes and security agreements given in connection with the sale or purchase of new motor vehicles or the securing of policies of insurance on or having to do with the operation of vehicles sold.

(8) Fail, after complaint and hearing, to perform the obligations placed on the manufacturer in connection with the delivery, preparation and warranty of a new motor vehicle as provided in the manufacturer's warranty, preparation, and delivery agreements on file with the Commission.

(9) Fail to compensate its dealers for the work and services they are required to perform in connection with the dealer's delivery and preparation obligations according to the agreements on file with the Commission which must be found by the Commission to be reasonable, or fail to adequately and fairly compensate its dealers for labor, parts and other expenses incurred by such dealer to perform under and comply with manufacturer's warranty agreements. In no event shall any manufacturer or distributor pay its dealers an amount of money for warranty work that is less than that charged by the dealer to the retail customers of the dealer for warranty work that is less than that charged by the dealer to the retail customers of the dealer for warranty work of like kind. All claims made by dealers for compensation for delivery, preparation, and warranty work shall be paid within thirty days after approval and shall be approved or disapproved within thirty days after receipt. When any claim is disapproved, the dealer shall be notified in writing of the grounds for disapproval. No claim which has been approved and paid may be charged back to the dealer unless it can be shown that the claim was false or fraudulent, that the repairs were not properly made or were unnecessary to correct the defective condition, or the dealer failed to reasonably substantiate the claim in accordance with the requirements of the manufacturer or distributor on file with the Commission. Notwithstanding the terms of a franchise agreement or provision of law in conflict with this section, the dealer's delivery, preparation, and warranty obligations as filed with the Commission shall constitute the dealer's sole responsibility for product liability as between the dealer and manufacturer, and, except for a loss caused by the dealer's failure to adhere to these obligations, a loss caused by the dealer's negligence or intentional misconduct, or a loss caused by the dealer's modification of a product without manufacturer authorization, the manufacturer shall reimburse the dealer for all loss incurred by the dealer, including legal fees, court costs, and damages, as a result of the dealer having been named a party in a product liability action.

(10) Operate as a manufacturer, distributor, or representative without a currently valid license issued by the Commission or otherwise violate this Act or rules promulgated by the Commission hereunder.

(11) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, to prevent or refuse to honor the succession to a dealership by any legal heir or devisee under the will of a dealer or under the laws of descent and distribution of this State unless it is shown to the Commission, after notice and hearing, that the result of such succession will be detrimental to the public interest or to the representation of the manufacturer or distributor; provided, however, nothing herein shall prevent a dealer, during his lifetime, from designating any person as his successor, by written instrument filed with the manufacturer or distributor.

(12) Require that a dealer pay or assume, directly or indirectly, any part of any refund, rebate, discount, or other financial adjustment made by the manufacturer, distributor, or representative to, or in favor of, any customer of a dealer, unless voluntarily agreed to by such dealer.

(13) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, deny or withhold approval of a written application to relocate a franchise unless (A) the applicant has received written notice of the denial or withholding of approval within 90 days after receipt of the application containing information reasonably necessary to enable the manufacturer or distributor to adequately evaluate the application, and if (B) the applicant files a protest with the Commission and establishes by a preponderance of the evidence at a hearing conducted by the Commission that the grounds for, and distance of, the relocation are reasonable.

Brokers

Sec. 5.03. A person may not act as, offer to act as, or hold himself or herself out to be, a broker.

Sale of New Motor Vehicles

Sec. 5.04. No person may engage in the business of buying, selling, or exchanging new motor vehicles unless he holds a valid license issued by the Commission for the make or makes of new motor vehicles being bought, sold, or exchanged; or unless such person is acting as a bona fide employee or agent of the licensee; or unless such person is a second stage or allied equipment manufacturer modifying or converting new motor vehicles and offering them for sale with the original manufacturer's warranty unimpaired. In this section, the term "engage in the business of buying, selling, or exchanging new motor vehicles" means:

1. displaying for sale new motor vehicles on a lot or showroom;
2. advertising for sale new motor vehicles;
3. regularly or actively soliciting buyers for new motor vehicles.

SUBCHAPTER F. ENFORCEMENT

Penalty

Sec. 6.01. Any person who violates any provision of this Act or any rule, regulation, or order of the Commission issued pursuant to this Act shall be subject to a civil penalty of not less than $50.00 nor more than $1,000.00 for each day of violation and for each act of violation, as the court may deem proper. All civil penalties recovered under this Act shall be paid to the General Revenue Fund of the State of Texas.

Injunction

Sec. 6.02. Whenever it appears that a person has violated or is violating or is threatening to violate any provision of this Act or of any rule, regulation, or order of the Commission issued pursuant to this Act then the Commission, or the executive director when authorized by the Commission, may cause a civil suit to be instituted in a district court for injunctive relief to restrain the person from continuing the violation or threat of violation or for the assessment and recovery of the civil penalty provided in Section 6.01 above or for both injunctive relief and civil penalty.

Suit

Sec. 6.03. At the request of the Commission, or the executive director when authorized by the Commission, the Attorney General shall institute and conduct a suit in the name of the State of Texas for injunctive relief or to recover the civil penalty or for both injunctive relief and penalty.

Application of Other Law

Sec. 6.06. (a) In addition to the other remedies provided by this subchapter, a person who has sustained actual damages as a result of a violation of Section 5.01 or Subdivision (1), (2), (4), (7), (8), or (10), Section 5.02 of Subchapter E of this Code may maintain an action pursuant to the terms of Subchapter E, Chapter 17, Business and Commerce Code.1

(b) In any action brought against a licensee under Subsection (a) of this section, or for any other type of conduct which is actionable pursuant to the provisions of Subchapter E, Chapter 17, Business and Commerce Code, the $1,000 limitation set forth in Section 17.50(b)(1) of Subchapter E, Chapter 17, Business and Commerce Code shall be adjusted to reflect any change in the consumer price index after the effective date of this section. The $1,000 limitation shall be increased or decreased, as applicable, by a sum equal to the amount of the $1,000 limitation multiplied by the percentage of increase or decrease in the consumer price index between the effective date of this section and the time at which the damages are awarded by final judgment or settlement. The term "consumer price index" means the National Consumer Price Index For All Urban Consumers, or a substantially similar successor, and the court may take judicial notice of said index.

1 Business and Commerce Code, § 17.41 et seq.

Warranty Performance Obligations

Sec. 6.07. (a) In addition to the other powers and duties provided for in this Act, the Commission shall cause manufacturers and distributors to perform the obligations imposed by this section. For purposes of this section, the term "owner" means the person so designated on the certificate of title of a motor vehicle issued by the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, or an equivalent document issued by the duly authorized agency of any other state, or any person to whom such motor vehicle is legally transferred during the duration of a manufacturer's or distributor's express warranty applicable to such motor vehicle, and any other person entitled by the terms of such warranty to enforce the obligations thereof.

(b) If a new motor vehicle does not conform to all applicable manufacturer's or distributor's express warranties and the owner or the owner's designated agent reports the nonconformity to the manufacturer or distributor, its agent, or its authorized dealer during the term of such express warranties or during the period of one year following the date of original delivery of the motor vehicle to an owner, whichever is the earlier date, the manufacturer or distributor shall make the repairs as are necessary to conform the vehicle to applicable express warranties, notwithstanding such repairs are made after the expiration of such term or such one-year period. This section does not in any way limit the remedies available to an owner under a new motor vehicle warranty that extends beyond the one-year period covered by this section.

(c) If the manufacturer or distributor is unable to conform the motor vehicle to an applicable express warranty by repairing or correcting any defect or condition which substantially impairs the use and market value of the motor vehicle after a reasonable number of attempts, the manufacturer or distributor shall replace the motor vehicle with a comparable motor vehicle or accept return of the vehicle from the owner and refund to the owner the full purchase price less a reasonable allowance for the owner's use of the vehicle. Refunds shall be made to the owner and lienholder, if any, as their interests may appear. A reasonable allowance for use shall be that amount directly attributable to use of the motor vehicle prior to the first report of the nonconformity to the manufacturer or distributor, its agent, or its dealer and during any subsequent period when the vehicle is not out of service for repair. In any hearing before the Commission under this section, a manufacturer or distributor may plead and prove as an affirmative defense to the remedies provided hereunder that (1) the nonconformity is the result of abuse, neglect, or unauthorized modifications or alterations of the motor vehicle; or (2) the nonconformity does not substantially impair the use or value of the motor vehicle.

(d) It shall be presumed that a reasonable number of attempts have been undertaken to conform a motor vehicle to the applicable express warranties if (1) the same nonconformity has been subject to repair four or more times by the manufacturer or distributor, its agent, or its authorized dealer, within the express warranty term or during the period of one year following the date of original delivery to an owner, whichever is the earlier date, but such nonconformity continues to exist; or (2) the vehicle is out of service for repair for a cumulative total of 30 or more days during such term or during such period, whichever is the earlier date. The term of an express warranty, such one-year period, and such 30-day period shall be extended by any period of time during which repair services are not available to the owner because of a war, invasion, strike or fire, flood, or other natural disaster. In no event shall the presumption herein provided apply against a manufacturer or distributor unless the manufacturer of distributor has received prior direct notification in writing from or on behalf of the owner and an opportunity to cure the alleged defect.

(e) The provisions of Subchapter C of this Act are applicable to this section, and the Commission shall adopt rules and conduct hearings for the enforcement and implementation of this section. The provisions of this section are not available to an owner in an action seeking a refund or replacement based upon the alleged nonconformity of a motor vehicle to an express warranty applicable to the motor vehicle unless the owner has first exhausted the administrative remedies provided herein. The provisions of this section are not available to a party in an action against a seller under Chapter 2 or Chapter 17, Business & Commerce Code, as amended. The provisions of this section are available in an action against a manufacturer or distributor brought under Chapter 17, Business & Commerce Code, after the owner has exhausted the administrative provisions provided by this section. Any action brought under the provisions of this section shall be by trial de novo.

(f) This section does not limit the rights or remedies otherwise available to an owner under any other law.

(g) In a hearing under this section, the Commission shall make its order with respect to responsibility for payment of the cost of any refund or replacement and no manufacturer or distributor may cause any dealer to pay directly or indirectly any sum not specifically so ordered by the Commission.

(b) A proceeding brought under this section shall be commenced within six months following the earlier of (1) expiration of the express warranty term or (2) one year following the date of original delivery of the motor vehicle to an owner.

(i) Any contractual exclusion or modification of the remedies provided in this section is prohibited and shall be deemed null and void as against public policy.

Section 156(b) of Acts 1983, 65th Leg., p. 388, ch. 81, provides:

"Changes in fees made by this section apply only to fees that became payable on or after the effective date of this section. The amount of a fee that became payable before the effective date of this section is determined by the law in effect at the time the fee became due, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose."

Section 8 of Acts 1983, 65th Leg., p. 4146, ch. 651, provides:

Art. 4413(39). Building Materials and Systems Testing Laboratory

Purpose
Sec. 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that there is a need for more and better housing in this State and that one of the most detrimental constraints to meeting this need is the difficulty of introducing technological innovation into residential construction.

The Legislature hereby finds and declares further that local governments have been reluctant to permit the use of many innovative methods and materials in housing construction because of the lack of a competent, objective facility for testing and measuring performance ability of such innovations.

The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the State of Texas Building Materials and Systems Testing Laboratory as created herein would greatly assist local governments, the residential construction industry and the consumers of this State by facilitating the use of innovative methods and materials capable of meeting minimum performance criteria for health and safety.
