

Table of Contents for the Legal Writing to Win 2015 Course

Shorter is Better: Writing Introductions and Summaries of Arguments and Preliminary Statements Allyson N. Ho	1
Writing Mechanics and Why You Should Care Kamela Bridges	2
Electronic Documents in the Fifth Circuit—Coming Soon to a Federal Court Near You - (No Article) Honorable Stephen A. Higginson	3
Legal Writing for the Rewired Brain Robert B. Dubose	4
Texas Citations Writ Large[r]: Consequential Necessity or “Tyranny of the Inconsequential”? Dylan O. Drummond	5
Typography for Lawyers Matthew Butterick Bryan A. Garner	6
Preparing a Proper Brief for Electronic Filing or Federal Court Filings - Change is Coming - (No Article) Don W. Cruse, Jr.	7
Writing Persuasive Facts and Framing the Questions Presented Daniel L. Geysler Douglas D. Geysler	8
Writing Arguments Aaron Streett Stephen Tipps	9
Ethical Pitfalls in Legal Writing James Wesley Hendrix	10

Table of Contents for the Legal Writing to Win 2015 Course

Judges Panel: The Worst Things We See in Briefs – (No Article)	11
Honorable Philip W. Johnson
Honorable Jeffrey S. Boyd
Honorable Brett Busby
Honorable Mary L. Murphy	