

Table of Contents for Electronic Discovery and Digital Evidence Institute

The Latest Need-to-Know Cases Browning E. Marean, III	1
Latest Cases	2
Top Ten Electronic Discovery Cases Sharon D. Nelson
The Most Significant E-Discovery Cases of 2008: Kroll's View and My Counter View Ralph C. Losey
A Dozen Practical Ways to Control Costs David A. Chaumette Laurie A. Weiss	3
Beyond Keywords: Smarter Search Strategies	4
Compilation of Selected Recent U.S. Case Law & Commentary Referencing Search & Information Retrieval Methods Jason R. Baron
Toward a New Jurisprudence of Information Retrieval - What Constitutes a "Reasonable" Search for Digital Evidence when Using Keywords? Jason R. Baron
Bake Offs, Demos & Kicking the Tires: A Practical Litigator's Brief Guide to Evaluating Early Case Assessment Software & Search & Review Tools Jason R. Baron Ronni E. Solomon	5
Meeting the Challenge: E-Mail in Civil Discovery Craig D. Ball	6
E-Discovery: Form of Production of ESI Issues Under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Hon. David J. Waxse	7
Should You "Go Native"? Ralph C. Losey	8
Privilege, Conflicts and Professional Responsibility	9
Privilege, Conflicts, and Professional Responsibility Sharon D. Nelson
Lawyers Behaving Badly: Understanding Unprofessional Conduct in E-Discovery Ralph C. Losey

Table of Contents for Electronic Discovery and Digital Evidence Institute

Tech Primer: Focus on Forensics	10
How Do You Find Relevant Electronic Evidence? Search Me. John Simek
Electronic Evidence Best Practices John Simek
Computer Forensics Best Practices John Simek
Geek Speak: A Lawyer's Guide to the Language of Data Storage and Networking Craig D. Ball	11